BREAKFAST TIME—About to serve themselves at a United Fund labor breakfast are (from left) Lawrence Hartman, international representative for UAW Region 1B and coordinator of UF labor participation; Andrew Montgomery, president of the Oakland County AFL-CIO; Alger Conner, industrial relations director, Fisher Body Division and UAW GM industrial chairman; and Kenneth Morris, director of UAW Region 1B. Yesterday's breakfast at the Waldron Hotel emphasized labor support of the Pontiac Area United Fund.

Eisenhower: Viet War Should Take Priority

CHICAGO (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has criticized careless spending of the taxpayers' money and says winning the war in Viet Nam quickly should take precedence "over the war on poverty or getting to the moon, or anything else."

At a news conference yesterday, Eisenhower advocated immediate application of "as much force as we need to win" the war. He added "I'd take any action to win," but he avoided a direct yes or no to a question whether he proposed use of nuclear weapons.

The war, he said "either will be won in, say the next 24 months or it will become much bigger than it is now." He did not elaborate.

The World War II military leader said the continuing war exerts military, economic and political forces "all in the same direction" toward making the party in power so strong it could pass "any kind of law it wants."

In an address last night at a Republican fund-raising dinner, the former president said "responsible progress is what we want."

'LOT OF BELIEFS'

"Not careless spending that gives the appearance of prosperity. Republicanism can cover a lot of individual beliefs as long as we all believe in sound and responsible government."

Eisenhower also was campaigning for his brother, Earl, a candidate for the clerk of Cook County (Chicago).

The dinner marked a reunion for the former president with his other brothers—Edgar, a Seattle, Wash., lawyer, and Milton, president of Johns Hopkins University. The $100 a plate affair was held at McCormick Place on the lakefront.

The dinner crowd of 2,000 included world heavyweight boxing champion Cassius Clay.

A plaque decorated by the dove of peace was presented to Eisenhower by the Republican Women of Illinois, "for eight years of peace during the administration of President Dwight D. Eisenhower."

Killer Storm Flounders on Cuban Coast

Fierce Winds of Inez Dwindle; Signs Point to Drift Into Florida

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Inez stalled today over the south coast of Cuba and, her strength sapped by her long stay over the Communist island, gave signs of a northward drift into Florida.

Just when forecasters were considering the "all clear" sign for Florida, Inez crossed them up during the night with a westward turn that brought all of Communist Cuba in range of her howling winds and torrential rains.

With more than 100 dead in her wake and possibly many more, Inez screamed out of the southwest into Cuba's easternmost Oriente Province yesterday, battering that agriculturally rich area with wind gusts up to 138 miles an hour.

The Weather Bureau thought then she would veer northward, came off the island into the Atlantic, then hammer the central Bahamas on a track that would keep her clear of Florida.

But Inez never got to Cuba's north coast. Instead, she thrashed to west-northwest back into the Caribbean and howled along the south edge of the island on a snake-like course.

After 24 hours of contact with Cuba's mountainous areas, the killer storm's top winds had dropped to bare hurricane force at 11 a. m. today. Since most of the circulation was over land, forecasters said they could decline even more.

She was expected to remain stationary for some 12 hours, then begin a northerly drift, toward Miami, 350 miles to the north, and the western Bahamas.

CAMPAIGN TRAIL—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and his brother, Earl (left), listen to a questioner at a Chicago press conference yesterday where Ike voiced his views on Viet Nam. He was in Chicago to campaign for Earl, now an Illinois representative in the Legislature, and to attend a Republican campaign fund dinner.

Russian Walks Out of China Celebration

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union's diplomatic representative to Peking, in an unprecedented move in the history of Sino-Soviet relations, today walked out of a celebration marking the 17th anniversary of Communist China, the Soviet news agency Tass reported.

The representative, the charge d'affaires of the Soviet Embassy in Peking, was followed in his walkout by the representatives of Moscow's loyal allies — Poland, Hungary, Bulgaria, Mongolia, East Germany and Czechoslovakia.

The fence-straddling Romanians presumably stayed on as did the envoys of North Viet Nam, North Korea and Albania.

The Communist diplomats walked out, Tass said, because in his anniversary speech,

Chinese Defense Minister Lin Biao "made some attacks on the Communist party of the Soviet Union and other fraternal parties."

Lin has emerged recently as Mao Tse-tung's heir apparent. "This is the first time," Tass reported, "that Chinese leaders permitted themselves to make open attacks on the Soviet Union at festivities marking the national holiday."

Lin attacked the Russians in Peking's Tienanmen Square in the presence of Mao before an estimated audience of 1½ million persons including over a million Red Guards.

But the Russians refused to call them Red Guards to avoid associations with their own "Red Guards" who helped the Bolsheviks seize power in 1917.

Mansfield Prods Ike on Specifics

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield suggested today former President Dwight D. Eisenhower spell out to President Johnson his views on what is needed to win the Viet Nam war — how many men and what kind of weapons.

Eisenhower, who led Allied armies to victory in Europe in World War II and was president when a cease-fire was declared in Korea, advocated at a Chicago news conference yesterday the application of "as much force as we need to win."

The five-star general avoided a direct yes or no to a question whether he proposed use of nuclear weapons. But he said: "If they gave me the win, I'd take any action to win."

Mansfield noted a lack of specifics and said in an interview, "If Gen. Eisenhower has any specific ideas as to what he would do if he were in President Johnson's shoes, I would suggest he make his views known to President Johnson."

Mansfield, who has opposed escalation of the war, said he was sure Johnson would receive any Eisenhower suggestions "most gratefully and consider them seriously and with great respect."

But the Democratic leader said Eisenhower's statement "needs amplification and answers to such questions as does he think we need 750,000, 1 million, 2 million men to win? What kind of weapons would he use and what does he mean when he said: 'I'd take any action to win.'"

Bright Blue Skies Welcome October

October arrived this morning with bright blue skies that composers write about, and temperatures on the cool side.

The weatherman predicts a partly cloudy weekend with climbing temperatures tomorrow.

The day - by - day break down looks like this:

TODAY — Partly cloudy not much change in temperatures, high 52 to 58. Fair and cool tonight, low 34 to 38.

SUNDAY — Increasing cloudiness and a little warmer, high of 58 to 65.

MONDAY — Showers and turning cooler.

UF Breakfast Held by Labor

Management Execs Attend Annual Event

Union officials attended a labor breakfast in support of the Pontiac Area United Fund yesterday at the Waldron Hotel.

The annual event is sponsored by the UAW-AFL-CIO prior to the United Fund kickoff, which is Oct. 11 this year.

Representatives from 17 different locals were present.

The 1966 goal is $1,042,000.

Labor invited several management officials from the three area General Motor divisions as guests.

STRESSES IMPORTANCE

Kenneth Morris, director of UAW Region 1B, emphasized the importance of labor participation in the UF.

"Unions were formed to help one-another. The UF does the same," he explained.

"Union members have an obligation to and a deeper understanding of people having difficulties and needing help because of our past," he added.

Bruce J. Annett, president of the PAUF, stated that labor has played an important part in the UF structure through the years.

Harold Julian, international representative for UAW Region 1B, acted as master of ceremonies.

Walled Lake School for Retarded Okayed

The Oakland Schools Board of Education has authorized expenditure of $124,000 for construction of a building in the Walled Lake School District for the education of trainable mentally handicapped children.

Earmarked for occupancy next September, the structure, at first, will consist of three classrooms.

Location of the building hasn't been decided.

The classes are for children under the age of 14 from Walled Lake and five other districts—South Lyon, Huron Valley, Dublin, Novi and Holly.

At present, 21 children are enrolled in the Walled Lake program. Another 17 students from the six-district area are on the waiting list, according to Oakland Schools officials.

Also at Thursday's special meeting, the board tentatively awarded a contract to the IBM Corp. for rental of a central data processing unit for a teleprocessing system planned for county school districts.

Slated for delivery by Jan. 1, 1968, the computer would be rented from IBM for $25,000 a month. The expense would be shared by Oakland Schools officials and benefiting local districts on a use basis.

PURCHASE PRICE
Purchase price of the computer is $1.2 million, according to Oakland Schools officials. However, with the ever-increasing demand for better computers, it is estimated the machine would be replaced in four years.

A bid of $55,312 a month was submitted by another firm.

Oakland Schools officials contend the machine is 10 times faster than their present unit in making computations.

Eight county districts, including Pontiac, have committed themselves to the future teleprocessing system, designed to simplify and speed up business, accounting and research work for local systems.

Six other districts have signified their intent to join the system.

Charged by State

Three Oakland County communities—Walled Lake, Novi and Pontiac Township, were among seven in the state charged yesterday with water pollution infractions by the State Water Resources Commission.

Raids Cause U.S. to Wince

Investigation Begun on Cuban 'Bombing'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Groans of dismay are heard at the State Department each time anti-Castro exiles stage a hit-and-run raid on Cuba.

It's not that U.S. officials have sympathy for Fidel Castro's Communist regime—they hope and believe it will collapse sooner or later under Washington's policy of economic and diplomatic boycott.

But they insist the raids serve no useful purpose. One official puts it this way: "Such raids do not weaken the grip of the regime. Indeed, they may strengthen it."

Beyond that, U.S. officials say such attacks only give Castro new propaganda material — and sometimes embarrass Washington.

Department officials said today the U.S. government is investigating the latest bombing raid to determine whether there has been a violation of U.S. neutrality laws.

The government-controlled Havana radio this week said a "pirate plane" had dropped three bombs near the north coast city of Nuevitas, a major sugar-loading port.

The Oakland County Bureau of Social Aid will begin taking applications Monday for a medical assistance program implemented by the State Department of Social Services.

Designated Title 19 of the Social Security Act, this program will provide medical assistance for low income persons not receiving public relief as well as for public assistance cases.

Providers of hospitalization and medical services under this program will bill the State Department of Social Services.

Ora L. Hinkley, director of the County Bureau of Social Aid, pointed out income is the main standard in determining eligibility of persons not on public assistance.

An income of $1,900 is the maximum standard for a single person, a $2,700 level set for a couple.

INCOME LEVEL

The protected income level for the medical assistance program increases $420 for each additional family member, according to Miss Hinkley.

Property holdings as well as income are considered in relation to the scope of medical expenses, Miss Hinkley said.

She pointed out that a family of five, whose income standard would be a maximum of $3,950, might have earnings of $4,500 and still be eligible.

In determining financial eligibility, the state agency would compute the family's expenses

BUT

WOULD YOU BELIEVE A 6 1/2% DIVIDEND?

Every dollar you have in your Pontiac Co-op Credit Union savings account — from $5 to $2,000 — is matched, dollar for dollar, with LIFE INSURANCE on your life.*

The actual cost you would pay if you purchased $1,000 term insurance at age 25 would be approximately $10.30 per year. So the value to you is equal to an extra dividend of 1% — making your total dividend value 5 1/4%. If you are age 40 the cost would be approximately $15.70 or an extra dividend benefit of 1.6%. If you are age 50 the cost would be approximately $22.50 or an additional 2.3% dividend value — making a total dividend value of 6 1/2%.

This is an important feature of your credit union savings and should be considered as a bonus dividend.

Postal 'Mechanics' May Get a Tune-Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department's new assistant postmaster general is plotting a revolution — a planned, management-controlled revolution that would create a mechanized post office.

Dr. Leo S. Packer, a former business executive who admits to having seen the inside of only three post offices, was confirmed by the Senate two weeks ago as head of the department's new Bureau of Research and Engineering.

In the next two years, Packer says he wants to double the number of post office engineers engaged exclusively in research and development and begin "planned management-controlled revolution."

The revolution would create a mechanized post office — but not simply a few more conveyor belts or a couple of extra computers.

DIFFERENT MEANS

"There are means of communications which are different from the letter with the stamp on it that are the legitimate concern of the Post Office Department — it is the concern of the department to be aware of them," he said.

Packer, 46, former engineering manager of Xerox Corp., says the department no longer will depend on "technological droppings from industry" for its new ideas. But he realizes there are vast differences between the methods of private industry and those of the government.

"What we're building here I visualize is a long, uphill climb," he said in an interview. "The restraints on management in government are stronger than what I had expected."

Currently, the Post Office spends $20 million a year on research and development out of a budget of nearly $6 billion. If the Post Office were private industry, Packer says, it would be told "you're running a hell of a business, since such a small fraction of your budget is for research."

Packer believes his primary problem will be to find new methods to cope with the continued growth in mail volume — especially the millions of magazines and other publications of a literate society.

It is, he says, "a complex problem beyond the reach of the traditional approach of manual labor. We need to plan and carry out a program of mechanization."

"At the same time, much of the equipment is sophisticated and we need a new breed of postal employee that can live with it; and we don't have them today."

Packer says he hopes, within the next decade, to see "transfer from a predominantly manual operation to an operation that makes intelligent planned use of programmed equipment."

But for all the research and whatever it results, Packer adds, the letter carrier and his familiar leather pouch may be around for many years.

Ball Is Returning to Private Life After 5 Years on Key U.S. Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — Friday, with only Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., announcing dissent. Katzenbach has been attorney general.

"I'm not very good at giving advice," Ball remarked as he briefed Katzenbach later in the undersecretary's spacious office overlooking the Lincoln Memorial and the Potomac River.

President John F. Kennedy named Ball undersecretary of state for political affairs in November 1961 and President Johnson kept him on in the State Department's top job under Secretary Dean Rusk.

Only Sumner Welles, an undersecretary of state in the Franklin D. Roosevelt administration, served longer than Ball in the key post.

Ball, 56, resigned effective last midnight to return to his Washington law practice. Finances were one reason — his government pay was $30,000 a year — and he said he had not intended to stay on indefinitely in what he jokingly termed "the fudge factory," making foreign policy.

The Senate confirmed the nomination of Nicholas Katzenbach, 44, as Ball's successor.

Gov. Romney Hinges Tour of Factory on 'Open Door' Policy for Fereny

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Gov. George Romney has opened the door to a General Motors plant for Zoltan Fereny, his Democratic opponent for governor.

The Republican governor's campaign schedule Friday in Genesee County included a tour of the Fisher Body plant at Grand Blanc.

But the plant management had billed Romney's visit as "a tour by the governor not as a politician."

Romney told plant manager Guy Bates he refused to make the tour unless management recognized he was there "purely as a politician" and would promise the same courtesy to Fereny if it was requested.

WENT INSIDE

Bates agreed, and Romney went inside to shake employes' hands.

The governor said he made the stipulation because Fereny has been refused entry to another GM plant near Flint about a week after Romney was granted an in-plant visit with workers.

Romney today attended a number of rallies in St. Clair County. He planned to speak tonight to the annual American Legion fall conference in Kalamazoo.

Joining Romney in what was billed as the Republican "action team blitz" of St. Clair County was Sen. Robert F. Griffin, R-Mich. Griffin planned to speak tonight to the Caro Rotary Club.

G. Mennen Williams, Griffin's

Katzenbach Shift Fortifies 'State'

Attorney General KATZENBACH has retired from the cabinet to become undersecretary of state. This may possibly mean the eventual retirement of Secretary of State RUSK, which would be regrettable but understandable. Few, if any, men in government service ever labored so loyally, effectively and with such skillfulness as that displayed by Secretary RUSK.

The secretary was quoted in a magazine interview: "I'm living off my salary. I don't have anything else. The savings that I had are long since absorbed on the job. That means a difference to the kids. Like many fathers, I'll have two youngsters in college this fall. When the balance gets zero-zero, I'll have to quit."

The problem has not only been money. RUSK has taken years of badgering from those who for one reason and another dissent from Administration policies, particularly in Viet Nam. He has been a superb and supremely convincing spokesman for the President. He has never lost his calmness or his presence of mind.

We hope that KATZENBACH has been brought in solely to back up the secretary, and possibly to shoulder part of the burden of his work. But if later he is to take over the No. 1 job, it must be said that he has displayed unique abilities as the Nation's chief law officer, and that he could not possibly train for the job under a better man.

'Red Guards' Symbolize Flaw of Communism

The contradictory appraisals of the Red Guard phenomena that recently erupted in Red China have been pretty well resolved into reliable comprehension of what it is all about.

And the answer but confirms the truism that the fires of ideological revolution must be continually stoked lest they burn out, with resulting loss of control by the leadership over the national society.

The zeal that triggered revolutionaries to seize control and rule of a state under the guise of beneficent socialism becomes diluted in a succeeding generation more interested in the promised fruits of the system than in the abstract theories of government and behavior that motivated the founders.

It is this basic, unchanging trait of human nature that in the long run makes it incompatible with communism and opens widening cracks in the Communist society.

Thus, during a half century, the world has seen the virtual extinction of the fiery spirit of Marxism that overthrew Russia's czarist government and implanted communism on her soil. Except for its dictatorial form of government, the U.S.S.R. has steadily receded from the visionary tenets of communism to embrace the more practical and effective principles of free enterprise.

It is just such a fate that Red China's leader, Mao Tse-tung, now 73 and in poor health, seeks to forestall by reinducting the new generation of Chinese with the same philosophy of violence and the casting out of established social norms that put him in power 30 years ago.

To implement his resistance to the flux in social outlook he saw developing in China, Mao organized units of Chinese youth under the Red Guard banner and loosed them upon the populace, while holding a loose check-rein on the movement.

There can be little doubt that his attempt to inculcate synthetic idealism and dedication in the youth of the land will fail. But that leaves unanswered the question of what form China's government will assume with the passing of Mao and who will survive the inevitable scramble for power to head it.

Figures Show Canadians Have Itchiest Feet

It seems quite logical that Americans should be the world's "travelingest" people. They aren't.

Based on percentage of population, more Canadians than Americans take foreign trips, report travel and tourism activities. They also spend about $35 per capita on travel, which is more than four times the amount spent by U. S. citizens and higher than any other nationality.

Could it be that our neighbors north of the border are motivated by the same urge that impels their splendid Canada geese to migrate?

Black Power Is Only a Dream

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON — Stokely Carmichael, though never clear about it, shouts "black power" in a country where Negroes are only about 10 per cent of a population now numbering around 200 million.

So far this year at least 39 cities have been hit by racial violence. What good does this do Negroes?

In some cases the riots may induce federal, state or city governments to do more about Negro housing and employment.

But at the same time it antagonizes a lot of whites, many of whom have been sympathetic to the problems of Negroes.

Whatever kind of power Carmichael has in mind, it's still a dream. The whites have the real power.

CAUSE HURT

And this year, amid growing white antagonism, the civil rights cause has been hurt.

Moderate-minded Negro leaders, like Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., take a dim view of the violence.

King said this month the civil rights movement has made too much progress through nonviolence to resort to violence now.

Yet, this week in an interview with Mike

Wallace, interviewing a number of Negro leaders, one of them, Daniel Watts, editor of Harlem's "Liberator" paper, spoke contemptuously of moderate Negro leaders.

SINGLES OUT 3
He said he meant Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; King, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; and Whitney M. Young, executive director of the National Urban League.

Watts talked of forcing the white community to negotiate with Negroes.

He didn't explain that. But how 10 per cent of the population can force the other 90 per cent to do anything it doesn't want to do was also left unclear.

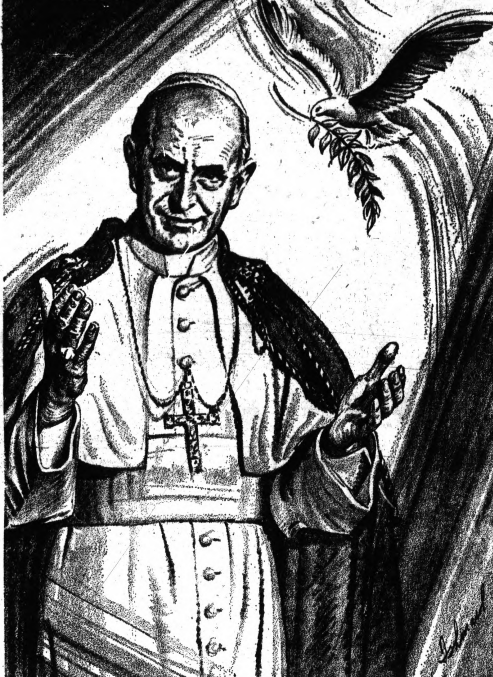

Public opinion polls show white reaction against Negro violence is growing, that many whites think the civil rights movement is going too fast, and that many white liberals, previously sympathetic, are turning cool.

There can be little doubt the white reaction this month influenced senators who killed this year's civil rights bill and this week turned the clock back a bit on civil rights by approving a measure allowing doctors to keep white medicare patients separate from Negroes when they think it helpful.

There is grim irony in the contempt shown by extremists like Watts for Negro leaders like Wilkins, King and Young.

It was the moderate Negroes like these three who made it possible for the civil rights movement to be born.

The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL

October 4, 1966 marks the first anniversary of the historic visit of His Holiness, Pope Paul VI to the United Nations in New York. The Pontiff had been invited by UN Secretary General U Thant to address that "world institution for peace." No man in our times is more dedicated to peace than His Holiness. A profound effect was felt around the world by that historic occasion. Men of all faiths listened and were moved by his message and his humility. He said, "You have before you a humble man, your brother," and he asked only permission, "to serve you as best we can with unselfishness, with humility and with love."

His many messages and prayers before and since this first Papal visit to western shores have stressed that universal peace is "a fundamental point of our ministry." The Pope has and will continue to make every effort to fulfill that ministry, "even beyond usual protocol." He has said, "Peace is a duty, everybody's duty." And he explains, "Peace must be born in love and in love be maintained and flourish... and everybody can contribute in love."

Confident Living:

Nature's Solace and Inspiration

By Norman Vincent Peale

I went to bed last night after reading a London newspaper. And that is not the best reading to go to bed on, believe me. I mean no offense in commenting that having read London papers regularly over many years there seems to be more of Dr. PEALE what you might call joy in the British papers than in any journals I have read throughout the world.

They must figure they have an amazingly unsophisticated reading audience considering the infantile way they jazz up personality stories. We Americans can be proud that our newspapers are the best in the world. The signs of moral and spiritual decadence seem, to me at least, more clearly revealed in papers from the British capital than elsewhere, although the virus of rotting society is prevalent in degrees everywhere.

After a thorough perusal of this newspaper I found myself gloomily wondering what was happening to mankind despite the amazing material civilization he has developed. What good is the higher values and refinements sink into muck?

The thought occurred that maybe God gets sick of His human creatures even as some people get sick of themselves. Could it be that God ever gets fed up with the job of trying to bring man out of the jungle?

If he does occasionally feel that way, what is the antidote? Maybe it is the beauty in this world, the silent places, the vast oceans, the great plains, the towering mountains.

I am writing these words at Zermatt, Switzerland, an Alpine village under the towering Matterhorn. From the balcony of my room I look out upon a scene of incomparable beauty. It is a crisp sparkling morning and the great mountain stands silhouetted against a sky of absolute blue. Even the ancient weather-beaten chalets lining the village street glisten in the sunlight.

And what does this beauty say to the little men in the village? It is as if Almighty God is saying to them: "Look up, for heaven's sake, look up and be cleansed and inspired by the beauty of the world."

Then the great God looking down sees little figures trying to climb these vast mountains and He surely must rejoice to know that upstart He tried to build into His small creatures still makes a caliber of men who want to match His mountains even if the effort kills them.

And kill them it often does. Only a few minutes ago a helicopter whirled past this balcony picked up the Matterhorn to head for the bodies of two young Swiss climbers who fell recently onto the Z-Mutt glacier while descending the Matterhorn after they had reached the top.

The helicopter let down a rope with hooks. These were fastened into a hammock which had been placed around the bodies by the Zermatt guides who found them. The guides and helicopter crew found two other bodies near by with no identification except badges of the German Alpine Club on their coats.

The four dead youths were returned to Zermatt and laid in the chapel of the village cemetery. Many who died on the Matterhorn lie under the trees while the mountain looks down not unkindly upon them, for there is a common bond between the Matterhorn and these strong young men.

One gravestone says: "Think not of him as dead. A mind so fine could never die but searches on for truth." And another reads: "In the slight of the universe they seem to die."

And so, if God's enthusiasm for making something of the human race wanes at times He has only to remind Himself of the beauty He has put into nature and human beings and of the greatness that shows in both. Everybody tends to moments when he asks, "Is it worth it?" God Himself understands. Remember the great things in life and carry on. People are better than they seem.

The Rippling Power of One Vote

By WASHINGTON STAFF
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Sen. Karl Mundt, R-S.D., has a rather long, involved story to prove the power of one vote in a democracy.

An Indiana farmer left his death bed in 1844 to vote for a friend, David Kelso, running for state senator as a Democrat. Kelso won by one vote, and promptly bolted the Democratic caucus over his choice for U.S. senator. Without his vote, the legislature was deadlocked. Kelso then threatened to vote with the Whigs unless the Democrats nominated Edward Hannegan.

Hannegan was duly elected — by one vote, of course — and arrived in Washington just in time to cast the deciding vote in favor of the admission of Texas to the Union.

Mundt's conclusion: The vote of one dying man made Texas a state and brought on the war with Mexico.

A job seeker wrote this letter to Rep. Robert Duncan, D-Ore.: "What is the most important asset you have in fulfilling your responsibilities as a congressman? Perhaps it's your administrative assistant, a combination administrator,

Voice of the People:

Disapproves Merger of Medics and Osteopaths

I fervently hope we will never see a merger of the M.D.'s and D.O.'s. I like having a choice. I believe that having two branches of the medical profession will bring out the best in both.

Because they are human beings, you will find good and bad, dedicated and indifferent, in both groups.

No one advocates a one-party political system. Neither would it best serve the public interest to revert to a one-party medical profession.

Diversity of Opinion About Pontiac General

I agree that sometimes there is a long waiting period for medical attention in the Emergency Department at Pontiac General. If the man had been seriously injured, he would have been attended immediately.

It is a 24-hour, round-the-clock job that these people have dedicated their lives to doing for humanity. We never give a thought to our hospitals until the day when we have occasion to use the facilities ourselves, then, if the professionals do a good job, we accept it as routine but when something goes wrong, the same people are subject to lawsuits, criticism, etc.

I say, "Orchids" to our men and women who staff the hospital, not "Onions."

MARY ANN McLELLAN
BRIGHTON

I agree that Pontiac General Hospital is poorly run. If you have a loved one there, they won't give you any information over the phone. All they say is "hospital rules."

Why don't bar owners pay men a living wage and replace their barmen who don't know how to mix drinks any better than they can run a bulldozer?

We went into a Club the other night and paid a good price for four drinks that we couldn't drink. No wonder business is poor. Please, men, get back behind the bars, like in the good old days.

Alaska is divided into election districts; Louisiana has parishes.

public relations man and all-around good fellow.

"If this description fits your A.A., then you might consider the last time you gave him a raise. If it doesn't, you might consider the attached resume."

Duncan's assistant sent it back with this note: "Fortunately, I intercepted your letter before it got to the boss. I didn't get the raise—but you didn't get the job."

As in every election year, pollsters seem to be getting their share of lumps this fall, particularly when they get their wires crossed.

This brings to mind the story that former Alabama Rep. Carl Elliott used to tell on himself. Facing a tough primary fight, he hired a pollster to sample public opinion.

Starting out in Elliott's home town the man got an unusually frosty reception at the first house he tried. The lady who answered his knock was not only unfriendly but also openly suspicious as he plied her with questions.

As soon as he left, she telephoned her husband: "Carl, there was a strange man here asking a lot of questions about you!"

The lady, of course, was Elliott's wife, upset at the idea of somebody prying into her husband's life. Elliott himself probably didn't help matters any when he boomed: "Relax, honey! I sent him myself!"

One of the reasons why Rep. Walter Rogers, D-Tex., is such a staunch opponent of the Truth in Packaging bill stems from his experience in a Leningrad, Russia, store in 1955. Trying to buy a doll for his daughter, he was offered a cheap replica of an American doll for about $9 American.

Figuring the doll would cost about 50 cents back home, Rogers declined, saying he was going to Moscow where he would shop for a better bargain. The storekeeper laughed, explaining:

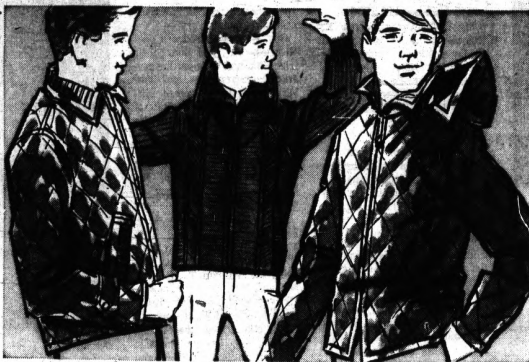

"The quality and the price are the same all over Russia."

Food Editors Conference

By JANET ODELL
The Pontian Press
Women's Editor

BOSTON—Some of the same tea that figured in the Boston Tea Party of 1775 played a part in the final event of the 1966 Food Editors Conference.

We were invited for tea to the Loughborough Square home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Henderson. He is the head of the Sheraton Hotel Chain.

At the time of the first tea party, one of the "Indians" who dumped the tea into the harbor grabbed a handful from a broken crate and stuffed it into his pocket. This souvenir of an historic occasion was kept in the family.

A sixth generation descendant who was a college roommate of Ernest Henderson gave him a small portion of the tea.

The land on which the present Sheraton Hotel office headquarters stands is the site of the old wharf (Boston has a great deal of filled land).

A minute portion of that tea was mixed with the leaves in the brewing of today's beverage.

The Henderson home is interesting and to us Middle Westerners, most unusual. I have a picture of it and more information which I intend to share with Press Readers next week.

DANISH CHEESE
Just before the Henderson tea we had a hearty repast with the Danish Cheese Association. There is nothing like a Danish cheese table. There are always quantities of cheeses, meats, little sandwiches, fruit pastries and other tempting dishes. It was quite an afternoon. Earlier, eight experts, all owners of factories manufacturing pasta, were after luncheon speakers. Pasta includes all forms of macaroni, spaghetti and noodles.

Americans today eat over nine pounds per person per year, and pasta rates only behind steak and chicken in popularity.

The experts pointed out that economical pasta is one of the original convenience foods and that it has a place in every meal of the day. When challenged to name a breakfast form of pasta, one man declared he ate noodle pancakes.

Our luncheon was a lesson in good menu planning, presenting variety in form, texture, color and taste. We had a choice of three sauces on either spaghetti or tiny shell macaroni and macaroni salads. There was a crisp green salad and for dessert, a choice of melons. Tiny Italian, chocolate macaroons completed the meal. Red and white wines were served.

At breakfast with the Welch Grape Juice Company we had a fashion show. In case you hadn't noticed, this is a purple year.

Every model wore a purple outfit and the varying array of purple shades was almost unbelievable. Betty Furness did the commentary.

It's a tremendous grape year, harvesting is going on right now. Welch's had all the standard grape products on display as well as some innovations.

The company is planning expansion of its fruit drink products, including some low calorie ones. But the emphasis will continue to be on natural flavors.

Here ends our Boston Story.

Birmingham Man Exchanges Vows

A family dinner in the Hotel Pontchartrain, Detroit, followed the marriage of Catherine Anne Thompson of Warren, to Rodger Dale Apple, Friday, in the Arnold Runkel Chapel, First Methodist Church, Birmingham.

Loren Thompson of Long Beach, Calif. and the late Mrs. Harold Krohn of Waterford are the bride's parents. Her husband is the son of the senior Melbourne G. Aples of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Gene Apple, Jr., of Royal Oak attended the couple at the double-ring candlelight rite performed before the immediate families.

After a trip to Niagara Falls, Ont., the couple will reside in Warren.

Friday Reception Honors Couple Recently Wed

Hathaway House in Blissfield was the setting for a Friday evening reception honoring the Lewis David Arcsotts (Allison Ann Weeber) returned from a honeymoon in northern Michigan and New York City.

A luncheon at Inn America followed the recent chapel ceremony attended by the immediate families in the First Congregational Church, Ann Arbor. Parents of the newlyweds who are living in Ann Arbor are the Arthur G. Webers of Blissfield and the Lewis B. Arcsotts of Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. Arcsott are alumni of the University of Michigan where he has completed the master's program in biological sciences.

A Patron Dinner Opens Exhibit

By SIGNE KARLSTROM
Missouri's Gov. Warren E. Hearnes came to Birmingham Friday evening to represent his friend, and fellow Missourian, Thomas Hart Benton, at the opening of Mr. Benton's exhibition in the Bloomfield Art Association Galleries on South Cranbrook Road.

Due to a recent illness Mr. Benton could not make the trip for the opening but he was well represented by Gov. Hearnes and his beautiful daughter, Lynn.

DRAWS CROWD

It was a happy evening for the some 130 guests who gathered for the patrons' dinner and exhibit preview. The galleries had been transformed to a perfect setting of tables for ten with most unusual and artistic candle lights on each table.

Paul N. Averill, president of the art association presided. In fitting words, he paid tribute to the William C. Newbergs through whom Benton's tremendous exhibit had been made available. He thanked the many patrons for their generosity.

Mr. and Mrs. Don E. Ahrens and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Kresge were co-chairmen for the evening. The Robert B. Benders are co-chairmen for the entire BAA festival on Nov. 10. In introducing Birmingham's Mayor Robert W. Page, Mr. Averill reminded the guests that this was the 10th anniversary of the Art Association and he recalled some of its early history.

Appropriate Toast by Bridegroom

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I would like some information on what the groom, the best man, the bride's father should say when they make toasts at the wedding reception. Anything you could suggest would be most helpful. — Bob K.

Dear Bob: The best man makes the first toast — always to the happiness of the bride and groom. The bride's father then welcomes the groom into his family and says how delighted he is, etc. The groom toasts his bride, and he may also thank her family for the wedding and the guests for attending.

They may include an anecdote or two, humorous or sentimental, but all should indicate their happiness at the occasion.

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I frequently take our guests out for dinner. Do I, as hostess, follow the captain into the dining room first or do our guests follow him? — Mrs. P.

Dear Mrs. P.: In order that she arrive at the table first to seat her guests, the hostess should lead the way behind the captain. If there is a guest of honor, she should walk with, or immediately following, the hostess. Other guests follow — the host brings up the rear.

What is your most puzzling etiquette problem? To the sender of the most interesting question that we receive each week, we'll send a free copy of Emily Post's "Etiquette," revised by Elizabeth L. Post.

Alumnae Unit to Host Event

Members of the Alpha Omega Alumnae chapter of Birmingham will host a luncheon next Saturday for the Alpha Chi Omega alumnae. The event will take place in the Village Woman's Club, Bloomfield Hills.

Fernside music teacher, Mrs. H. P. Watson will entertain the group during luncheon. Mrs. Rachel Burroughs, district alumnae advisor will speak before the group on "The Responsibilities of Being an Alpha Chi."

Reservations for the luncheon will be taken by Mrs. Chester Bobel of Birmingham until Oct. 8.

The Mayor read a message from Mr. Benton.

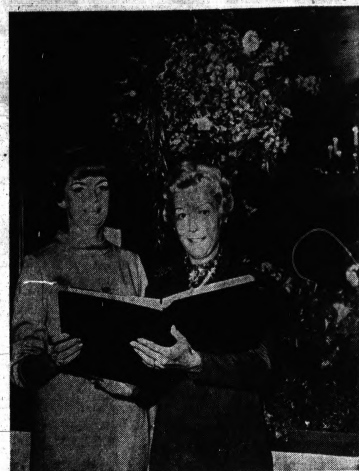

Gov. Romney introduced Gov. Hearnes. He told how their friendship had begun at the governors' conferences and how very much he welcomed Missouri's governor to the State of Michigan and especially now to his own community.

Another distinguished guest from Missouri was Judge Sam C. Blair, close friend of Mr. Benton and Gov. Hearnes, as well as the Newbergs.

Among the patrons present on Friday were: Mr. and Mrs. Maynard R. Andrae, the Louis E. Deans, the Roger L. Crispella, the William T. Gossett, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard T. Lewis and the Edward W. McCauls.

Still others were the Sheldon Moyers, the George Russells, the Gail Smiths, the C. Theron Van Dusen, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Jamison Williams.

The exhibit opens today and will remain at the Galleries through Oct. 23. There is an admission charge. The galleries are closed on Mondays.

The lights look great, the script seems to be in order and the flowers in place. These are all the little last-minute details that Mrs. Neil Michie of Birmingham (left) and Mrs. John H. Baker of Bloomfield Hills must check before tonight's "Night of Glamour" cocktails, dinner and fashion show that takes place at Forest Lake Country Club beginning at 6:30.

Purchase a Book on Subject to Insure Correct Information

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our boys are 12 and 14, and I have been for my husband for nearly two years to tell them the facts of life.

He says his father never told him anything. All he knows is picked up from his friends and he turned out O. K. Could my husband be right?

DEAR MOM: Possibly. It's all right for kids to learn the facts of life from other kids, as long as the other kids didn't pick them out of the gutter. Tell hubby either to provide the boys with some good books on the subject or offer to answer any and all questions. And he had better hurry, or it will be like giving fish a bath.

DEAR ABBY: Five years ago my mother passed away and I was left alone and heartbroken at 63. Two years later he married a 58-year-old widow. He told us that he was marrying Celia for "companionship" — that nobody could ever take mamma's place. Well, here is a sample of the "companionship" he has had so far:

In the winter, instead of accompanying dad to Palm Springs, Celia goes to Chicago to stay with her grandchildren so her daughter can go to Florida for two months with her husband.

In the summer, Celia goes to Duluth, Minn., with another daughter who stays up there for the hay fever season.

When Celia is home with dad, she plays cards with the "girls" at least three days a week.

Dad is retired and has nothing to do, but he's too sweet to complain. Is this your idea of "companionship"? Any suggestions will be appreciated.

HIS CONCERNED DAUGHTER
DEAR DAUGHTER: For all I know, your father and Celia may be seeing as much of each other as they wish. If your father isn't happy with what he bought, tell him to write to me.

DEAR ABBY: It is ever proper, when in the company of a woman to ask, "Are they real?" To use an old phrase, "It's fun to be fooled, but it's more fun to know."

LIKES FUN

DEAR LIKES: Pearls, yes. Everything else, no!

DEAR ABBY: Can you tell me in simple language how psychiatry helps a person? Far as I can see it only opens old wounds and makes matters worse.

MAN OF FEW WORDS
DEAR MAN: Life is full of disappointments, personality conflicts, heartaches and frustrations, which call for one adjustment after another. People differ in their ability to adjust.

By allowing troubled ones to discuss their emotions frankly, the reasons for their insecurity, guilt, frustrations and hostilities come to light and are frequently minimized. Sometimes just knowing that others have experienced the same emotions can bring blessed relief.

DEAR ABBY: How does a girl know when a boy really LOVES her?

DEAR LISA: He expresses a desire to make her his exclusive permanent property. But he doesn't expect to take possession until they both sign the contract and he can present her with the keys to his heart — on a ring!

DEAR ABBY: Tell the 11-year-old who couldn't stand the noise her father made when he ate carrots, celery and other crunchy food that I would be glad to trade places with her. My father can eat 'old foods' which have been liquified which he takes through a tube.

He has cancer of the stomach, but we are thankful for every good day he has. So next time that girl complains about the noise her father makes "crunching," will you please remind her of me? "DADDY'S GIRL"

DEAR ABBY: The letter in your column about people who bore others to distraction with their travels, struck close to home with me. I went out collecting for a very worthwhile charitable organization, and was invited into the home of one woman who said she would write me out a check.

But first I had to listen for over an hour while she told me of her trip to Europe, and then to the Orient, and back home again by way of Hawaii. She even went and got hundreds of snapshots which she insisted I look at.

Then she showed me some of the expensive souvenirs she brought back from some foreign lands. And when she was all through, she handed me a check for ONE DOLLAR!

SPEECHLESS

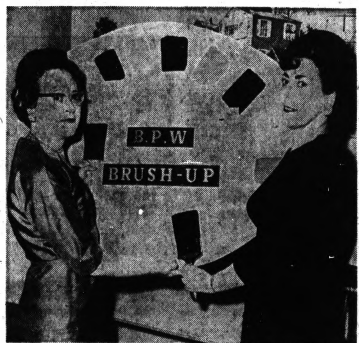

DEAR ABBY: I do not share your sympathy with those who say they are sorry their parents did not "force them" to practice the piano, violin, trombone, or any other musical instrument when they were young.

There is no reason why a normal adult cannot continue his musical studies if he has sufficient interest and determination. One is never "too old" to learn.

As for myself, I make no apologies. I suffered through seven miserable years of piano lessons, which terminated in a great disappointment to my parents. I never touch the piano to-day, and a vapid piano recitals like the plague.

"B.P.W. Brush Up" is the name of the Sunday morning workshop for members of the District No. 10, Michigan Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. The event will take place on the Oakland University campus. Mrs. Lucinda Wyckoff of Newberry Road (left), holds up the group's poster to emphasize the theme. Shown at the right is Mrs. Clarence J. Godhardt of Keego Harbor. Both women are on the hostess committee.

John G. Havilands Are Wed

Reception in Rotunda Country Inn followed the marriage of Katherine Anne Baum of West Huron Street to John Gant Haviland Jr., today, in the Orchard Lake Community Church Presbyterian.

White satin fashioned a classic floor-length gown for the daughter of Col. and Mrs. John W. Baum of San Francisco, Calif. A bouffant illusion veil held by a Dior bow and a Belgian lace handkerchief in her bouquet of gardenias completed the bride's ensemble.

She was attended by Susan D. Hoxie of St. Louis, Mich. at the afternoon ceremony.

Robert W. Haviland was his brother's best man. William E. Baum and Michael E. Johns of Ann Arbor were ushers. The couple are graduates of Michigan State University and will honeymoon in northern Michigan.

Katherine Anne Baum of West Huron Street, daughter of Col. and Mrs. John W. Baum of San Francisco, exchanged vows with John Gant Haviland Jr., son of the senior Havilands of Orchard Lake, today, in the Orchard Lake Community Church Presbyterian.

Tavern Operator Robbed of $120 by 2 Armed Men

Two men armed with a sawed-off shotgun bound a Pontiac tavern proprietor and robbed him of $120 early today, police were told.

Wilfred McMullen told police he had just closed and locked Johnny's Tavern at 76 W. Huron about 2 a.m. when his assailants described as in their early 20s, came out from behind a nearby telephone booth.

McMullen said the men took $16 from his wallet, then forced him back inside the bar, where they emptied a cash box of $104 and left him tied by the hands in a storeroom.

McMullen managed to free himself by cutting through the plastic rope with a jackknife, police said.

Of an estimated 350,000 blind persons in the United States, less than 10 per cent are children and more than 50 per cent are over 65 years of age. At least 25 per cent of the blind population is considered employable and can become self-supporting with training.

Hess Now Alone in Spandau Prison as Two Leave Bars Behind

BERLIN (AP) — "I am very glad to be out," former Nazi War Productions Minister Albert Speer told newsmen in English early today as he was freed from Spandau Prison after completing a 20-year sentence.

Speer, 61, and former Hitler Youth Leader Baldur von Schirach, 59, were released at midnight Friday after completing 20-year sentences imposed by the International War Crimes Tribunal at Nuernberg in 1946.

Rudolph Hess, an allied prisoner since he parachuted into England in May 1941 in a self-described "mission to end" the war between Germany and Britain, remained the only inmate of the sprawling fortress-like prison built by the Prussians in 1878 to hold 660 prisoners.

"The last three days have been very trying for Rudolf Hess, watching us pack and getting ready to leave," Speer said.

LIFE SENTENCE

Hess is serving a life sentence for plotting against peace and inciting and carrying out aggressive war.

Informed sources said today that the Russians have agreed to discuss a British-French-American proposal to remove Hess from the main cell block in Spandau.

Previously, sources said, the Russians turned down a Western proposal to free Hess. Another source said "Hess gets old enough and sick enough" the Russians may agree to his release, as they did for two other Nazis serving life terms at Spandau.

Speer, accompanied by his wife Margarethe, flew to Hanover, West Germany, by commercial airliner. He was to join his six children at an undisclosed retreat before going to the family home in Heidelberg to resume his architectural career.

Von Schirach was to leave later in the day for West Germany, and hold their monthly meeting in Escanaba Tuesday.

St. Anne's Mead to Be Dedicated at 3 P. M. Sunday

St. Anne's Mead, the first retirement home built by the Michigan Episcopal Diocese, will be dedicated at 3 p.m. tomorrow. It is located at 16100 Twelve Mile, just east of Southfield, and next to St. David's Episcopal Church, where the service will be held.

A reception will follow in the Episcopal Church, the Mead is a nonsectarian residence for retired men and women in good health. It has 55 single rooms with private bath.

The Rt. Rev. Archie H. Crowley, a suffragan bishop of the diocese, will officiate at the dedication. The Rev. Herbert G. Myers, rector of St. David's Church, will preach.

Although established by the Episcopal Church, the Mead is a nonsectarian residence for retired men and women in good health. It has 55 single rooms with private bath.

with a built-in chest of drawers, ample clothes closet, bed, night stand and lamp. Additional furnishings may be brought by residents.

Two spacious living rooms, a lounge and two hobby rooms offer opportunity for companionship and stimulation for interested. The chapel affords a secluded area for private communion and meditation. ALTAR DONATED Many furnishings were donated by residents and friends—the oriental rug and altar in the chapel, chairs, tables and other pieces in the living rooms. Paintings include two original water colors by Henry S. Booth. Mrs. Alice Burlingham of Birmingham is supervising landscaping at the Mead. Courtyard plantings have special significance, and a garden spot will be available for each resident.

A man-made knoll curves along the southeast end of the grounds. Ridged with spruce, it will, in a few years, block out the sights and sounds of traffic on Twelve Mile.

FOUNDED BY WOMEN St. Anne's Mead was founded through the joint efforts of the members of St. Anne's Guild at St. James Church, Birmingham, and the Episcopal Churchwomen of Christ Church Cranbrook. In 1954, the two groups, unaware of each other's interests, were seeking solutions to housing problems of their elderly parishioners.

By 1957 they had combined forces and persuaded other parishes to help raise funds. It then became a diocesan project.

First site for the home was a 15-acre tract on Squirrel east of Long Lake, donated by Ernest B. Breech, Alan L. Cornick and the Cresthaven Foundation.

It was here that the project became "The Mead", approximating the poetic term for meadow from the rolling countryside of Bloomfield Hills.

"St. Anne" honors Mary's mother, Jesus' grandmother.

SELL SITE

Zoning laws prohibited the use of the Squirrel road property for a multiple dwelling, so, with the permission of the donors, it was sold and proceeds used to purchase the present five-acre site. The board recently purchased another five acres, adjacent on the north.

Mrs. George H. Cary of 1070 Timberland, Bloomfield Hills is president of the board of trustees. She is a former president and one of the founders of Birmingham Town Hall, a staunch supporter of the Mead.

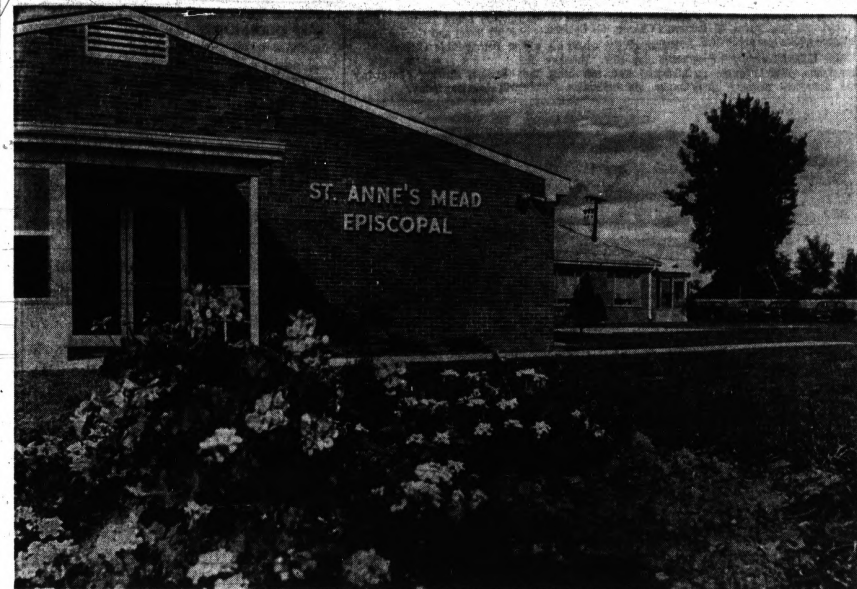

She has served on the board of Bloomfield Hills Branch of Woman's National Farm & Garden Association and recently organized the St. Mead Auxiliary, which furnishes many of the activities for the home.

Charles B. Kass serves as vice president, Mrs. William F. Angell, secretary, and Robert K. Vietor, treasurer.

Other members of the board include Dr. John B. Bryan, Col. George T. Bentley, Mrs. Edward E. Codner, Marl B. Duffield, Mrs. Harry C. Dunville, Spencer D. Hopkins and George Y. Reed.

Also serving with the group are the Rev. Schuyler L. Clapp Jr., John R. Mann Jr., Mrs. E. L. Windler, Dr. A. Fletcher Plant, Mrs. David MacFarland, Dr. Loren C. Sheffield, Harris R. Symes, Mrs. William Wiggins and Mrs. Urban U. Woodhouse.

Completing the list are the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, the Rev. Walter Neds, the Rev. William B. Sperry, the Rev. Mr. Myers and Bishop Crowley. Mrs. Angell, chairman of dedication arrangements, was assisted by Mrs. John Gilray Jr., president of the auxiliary.

ST. ANNE'S MEAD—The new retirement home for parishioners of the Episcopal Church as well as for those of other faiths is completed and will be dedicated at 3 p.m. tomorrow. The building of buff brick with white trim sprawls out over the five-acre site at 16100 Twelve Mile, Southfield.

The 55 rooms with private baths are all on one floor. In the process of being landscaped, the grounds presently boast a small garden of pink geraniums and white petunias near the entrance.

Church Opens New Group

Recovery Inc. Set for Presbyterians

Recovery Inc., an international organization devoted to the prevention of relapses in former mental patients and chronicity in nervous patients, will open a new group at First Presbyterian Church, West Huron at Wayne.

The first of regular weekly meetings will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday.

Recovery Inc., founded by Dr. Abraham A. Low over 25 years ago, is a self help method of aftercare.

It in no way supplants the physician. No diagnosis or treatment, advice or counseling are given, Pastor Galen E. Hersey said.

The recovery method is based on Dr. Low's book entitled "Mental Health Through Will Training."

The panel members help each other to apply the basic principles of self help as explained by Dr. Low.

Members encourage each other to practice self help in daily living.

Recovery Inc. meetings are held at 8 p.m. each Monday at Bethany Baptist Church, West Huron at Mark; and at Christ Church Cranbrook in room 206 each Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Meetings are open to the public and there is no charge for attending.

Nazarenes to Hear Argentina Report

The Rev. John Cochran, missionary to Argentina, will speak at the First Church of the Nazarene, 60 State tomorrow morning.

This is his fourth furlough since being sent to Argentina in 1936.

After an intensive study of the language, Missionary Cochran established the Church of the Nazarene, in Argentina, then became district superintendent of the field.

There are now 16 missionaries, 34 national workers, 45 churches and 1,265 members of the denomination in Argentina.

Missionary Cochran, born in Georgia, was graduated from Asbury College in 1929.

QUIET HOUR—Ruth Waldenmeyer enjoys a quiet hour for reading and meditation in the chapel of St. Anne's Mead, the new residence for older people near Southfield. The oriental rug, altar and most of the furnishings were donated to the Mead. Hymn books are in racks fastened to chair backs.

ARRIVE EARLY—Vicki Crawford of 4070 Lakewood and Gary McPherson of 3144 Schoolhouse, are early arrivals at the farewell reception for Pastor and Mrs. G. J. Bersche.

Congregation Bids Farewell to Bersches

In July of 1948 the congregation of Christian & Missionary Alliance Church gathered to welcome its new pastor, the Rev. G. J. Bersche. Tomorrow families will bid farewell to Rev. and Mrs. Bersche after the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services.

Pastor Bersche will leave the Pontiac church to enter the ministry of evangelism.

After preaching in several series of meetings in this country he will conduct meetings and visit mission stations in Africa. The Philippine Islands and Southeast Asia will be his goal in 1968.

Under Pastor Bersche's ministry the local church sold the former property on Green Street now occupied by the First Pentecostal Church, and purchased the present site. Since erecting the main sanctuary two additions have provided more room for Sunday School.

While serving as pastor in Akron, Ohio, he was responsible for establishing the Greater Akron Youth for Christ which is still active.

'Restless Ones' Film Set for Pontiac Northern High

The "Restless Ones," considered the most successful motion picture yet produced by Evangelist Billy Graham, will be shown on Oct. 12 and 13 in Pontiac Northern High School.

With the accent on youth this feature-length film deals imaginatively and dramatically with the teen-age crisis.

With a background setting provided by the Billy Graham Los Angeles Crusade, and artfully wove into the story pattern, "The Restless Ones" is a hard-hitting, bold approach to our social problems.

The film dare to be different. One reviewer writes "Here is a picture that tells the world the truth and comes up with an answer, not an easy answer, but an answer from beyond us."

"The answer will satisfy, challenge and inspire young and old alike. It will appeal to church goers and non-churchgoers."

The film is sponsored by the Christian Business Men's Committee of Pontiac.

Convicts Stay After Parole for Training

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (UPI) — Sister Mary Anita teaches medical-surgical nursing to San Quentin inmates, several of whom have asked to remain past parole time to complete her one year course.

A registered nurse at St. Mary's Hospital in San Francisco, Sister Mary Anita directs the program for a carefully screened group of 15 men.

The inmates are trained as vocational nurses for bedside duties, as operating room aides, ambulance attendants or for other special hospital positions.

When they are released on parole, the students get a rating in obstetrics and pediatrics by observing at a San Francisco hospital.

"Most of them are just boys," says Sister Mary Anita of the Sisters of Mercy. "They want a chance to prove they can be better."

GIVE JOBS

"This gives society a chance to stop punishing them once they are out by allowing them jobs of self-esteem and service."

Since the program began at San Quentin in 1963, about 300 inmates have been prepared to give nursing care.

Talking and eloquence are not the same; to speak, and to speak well are two things. A fool may talk, but a wise man speaks. — Ben Jonson, English dramatist.

Reception at YWCA

The Rev. Dr. Eric White, pastor of Central Christian Church, Grand Rapids, and president of the board of managers of Michigan Association of Christian Churches, will be the speaker when the Rev. Jack H. Clark is installed as pastor of the new North Oakland Christian Church.

Service will be at 5 p.m. tomorrow in Kennedy Junior High School, 1700 N. Baldwin.

A reception will follow for Pastor Clark and his family at the YWCA, 269 W. Huron.

The Rev. John Boroff, associate state minister of the denomination, will assist in the installation.

Those participating from the congregation include George Scantland, chairman of the congregation; Eugene Thompson, chairman of Deacons; Thomas McGone and William Tompkins. Mrs. Delmar Hetherington, will accompany Mrs. Harold Aeschliman, soloist, on the organ.

Community pastors bringing greetings will be Dr. Emil Kottz of Bethany Baptist Church; the Rev. Edwin Schroeder of Our Lady of Refuge Catholic Church, Orchard Lake; and Rabbi Ernst J. Conrad, spiritual leader of the New Temple, Bloomfield Hills.

Others will be the Rev. Gus Tsompanas of St. George Greek Orthodox Church; Dr. Raleigh Sain, a director of the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches; and the Rev. Paul J. Clark, of Lakeside Church in Lakeville, district director.

Handling arrangements are Mrs. George Scantland, Mrs. Eugene Thompson, Mrs. Malcolm Scantland and Mrs. Raymond Hayes. The public is invited.

Antique Buffs — Mrs. Edward J. Horvath of 4253 Inverness, Orchard Lake (left), admires the old ship's lantern at Quail Hollow Antique Shoppe held by Mrs. Prescott Jordan of 3184 Middle Belt. The two will visit the third annual antique show scheduled for Cross of Christ Lutheran Church, 1100 Lone Pine at Telegraph, West Bloomfield Township Thursday through Saturday.

11 Churchwomen Are Touring Africa

NEW YORK (UPI) — The United Church Women are sponsoring a tour of Africa by 11 churchwomen from six states this month as the first delegation of a new project of "international Christian understanding."

It is planned to make such tours an annual project.

According to Mrs. Anima Bose of Calcutta, India, special consultant for the project, Africa was chosen for the first tour because "it has many serious problems created by changing social patterns."

Feature Music

Singspiration for October sponsored by Youth for Christ is scheduled for 9 p.m. tomorrow in First Baptist Church. Special musical feature will be Gary Sinsical of Detroit playing his accordion. He is the 1965 talent winner for Michigan Youth for Christ Contest.

New Temple Builds Sukkah at Unitarian

The spirit of understanding and friendship is easily displayed this week in a Sukkah located on the patio of the Unitarian Church, Woodward at Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills.

It is really the Sukkah of the New Temple congregation, housed temporarily at the Unitarian Church. It was constructed this week by members for worship and enjoyment during the festival known as Sukkot, Feast of Tabernacles.

The best congregation asked if its children could munch apples and sip grape juice under the foliage, fruits and vegetables of the Sukkah.

The New Temple people were delighted to share the little hut, which is built traditionally from boughs and leaves with a variety of fruits and vegetables suspended from above.

The Sukkah represents tabernacles in the wilderness used by the Israelites after their departure from Egypt.

The top is left partially open to permit a view of the heavens to those within as they thank the Lord for His beneficent harvest.

Elmwood Church to Hear Evangelist

Preaching at the evangelistic services at Elmwood Methodist Church, 2680 Crooks, Avon Township Friday through Oct. 18 will be the Rev. Maurice Stevens.

Meetings will be held at 7 p.m. during the week and at 10:45 a.m. on Sunday.

Rev. Stevens served pastorates in the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Church prior to becoming an evangelist. He has visited missions and preached in Europe, the Bible lands and Haiti.

Church Slates Nightly Services

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Rev. Joe Morone, evangelist, will conduct 7 p.m. services nightly next week at Oxbow Baptist Church, 10730 Elizabeth Lake.

The series of programs which starts Sunday will feature outstanding instrumental and vocal talent from the area, according to Rev. Paul Acker, pastor.

Hollywood Finish in 120 Final Seconds of Rochester Win

Even a fictitious script of a Hollywood football movie would have trouble matching the final hectic two minutes of Rochester's 19-13 win over Clawson last night.

Clawson led 13-0 at halftime with Jim Alsup taking two touchdown passes of 9 and 7 yards from Larry Pinchback.

Rochester tied it in the early part of the fourth Dave Marr taking a 6 yard pass from Jim Alsup and Jim Burton working back to the 10 yard line for a 12 yard pass from Alsup to Burton.

The second point was missed after Marr made it 13-0 on a pass from the PAT from ball.

Then the fireworks started with the clock only showing two minutes left.

It started when Clawson had to punt from its 46, downing it on the Rochester two. Three plays failed and Ball waiting to punt fumbled the snap.

He got away and just off a kick which gave Clawson the ball on the 19. Mark McQuarrie went 12 yards, and Bill Weakly was then hit at the one, fumbled and the ball went into and out of the end zone.

It was awarded to Rochester on the 20, and a 15 yard penalty put it on the 35. Three passes failed and Rochester punted.

Now the clock showed 45 seconds and Clawson failed on three passes and they went into punt formation.

Craig Westley blocked the punt and recovered on the Clawson five.

On the first pass Don Hayes intercepted for a first down to the 19.

With 16 seconds still showing

Pinchback passed and Burton intercepted on the 23. He ran to the 28, laterally in Mike Phillips who went into the end of the field with two seconds left, Rochester still managed a kickoff.

It all happened because of the many incomplete passes. The safety Clawson could have gained might have won it, but

KEY KICK FOR PCH-Mike Prince (84) boots Pontiac Central into a 13-12 halftime lead with a point-after-touchdown conversion in the final two minutes of the first half last night at Wisner Stadium.

Old Friend Tough on Avon

An old friend paid an unfriendly visit at Avondale last night.

Frank Crowell, former Avondale football coach and now grid coach and athletic director at Madison High, returned with the Madison football team and pimed a 40-13 setback on his hosts.

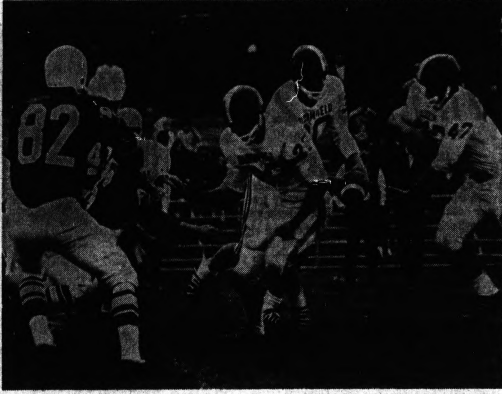

The Oakland A victory raised Madison's league mark to 3-4, and gave the team an overall record of 3-4. In other loop outings, Warren Fitzgerald romped past Troy, 47-0, and Warren Cousino outscored Lake Orion, 44-20.

Avondale made it a close game for a quarter, matching touchdowns with the visitors in the opening frame, but the Eagles pushed across two in the second and two more in the third to break the game open.

Senior halfback Greg Keller, who scored three touchdowns on runs of 75, 1 and 11 yards, broke through the middle on a 75-yard jaunt midway in the first and he ran the point to put Madison in front, 7-0.

Backback Jerry Dash broke through for a 24-yard TD and Keller added his one-yard scoring burst in the second period. Dash died over from the one in the third for his second TD.

STEADY EXECUTION - Bloomfield Hills' backs Dick Kraatz (23), Bob Calhoun (with ball) and Randy DeArment (47) execute handoff during the first half of Friday's victory over Holly. Kraatz, who matched DeArment's two touchdowns in the game,

Key Contest for WOLL

Lakers Meet St. Mike Unit Tonight at 8

FOOTBALL SCORES

The big games have come early for the Lakers of Waterford Our Lady, and if they pass a key test this evening, it'll be the last of the season for the Macomb County parochial champion.

The stumbling block in the Lakers bid for a second straight championship is Pontiac St. Michael, and WOLL will try to move the Mikemen this evening at 8 p.m. at Wisner Stadium.

WOLL has posted two league wins in a row, while St. Mike wins its lone start. The Mikemen were idle last week.

St. Frederick, WOLL, and the Mikemen were picked as the teams to heat in a preseason round, and the Lakers have already disposed of St. Fred.

In another game on tonight's schedule, unbeaten Midland (2-0) visits Flint Southwestern in a Saginaw Valley Conference game.

TOUGH TEST

Orchard Lake St. Mary, routed by Farmington Our Lady last week, 35-0, faces another tough game at Ferndale St. James tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. in a Northwest Parochial game.

St. James has chewed up a couple of parochial foes, St. Gertrude (6-0) and St. Francis de Sales (35-7), and rates a solid favorite's role against the visiting Eagles.

Other games on the Northwest Sunday schedule include unbeaten Farmington Olds (2-0) at de Sales (6-0) and Royal Oak St. Mary (6-1) at Highland Park St. Benedict (6-2).

Defending champion Dryden stayed in the Southern Thumb football chase Friday night, then blocked a punt inside the Brown City 20 to set up Don Camp's yard scoring plunge and PAT kick.

THIEVY

An intercepted pass and return to the 10 of Brown City by Howard set up the third Dryden score. Quarterback John Malinich plunged over.

Oxford Claws Get Sharper

Wildcats Win 25-13 Over Imley

The Wildcats are growing claws. Oxford made it two wins in a row for the first time under coach Gerry Neidinger with a 25-13 conquest of Imley City last night.

The former South Central League opponents battled in a scoreless first period, then host Oxford broke loose for three touchdowns and coasted to the victory.

Speedy halfback Tim Kelley, who ground up 15 yards on nine runs, broke out for 38 yards and the first touchdown. In all, Oxford gained 413 yards on the ground.

Then Gary Cummings registered a 42-yard scoring scamper and Roger Miller added the PAT. Don Schultz scored by running 15 yards.

CUTS GAP

Imley's Gary Maples plunged over from the one and Keith Marcol's kick made it 19-7 for the Wildcats. But Kelley then again broke loose to the outside to ice the decision with a 60-yard scoring sprint.

John Topie passed to Gary Nolin for the visiting Spartans' second and final six-pointers.

Same Size Backs Duel

Seaholm, Rice Big Winners

Charleston, Pilette Roll on Long Runs

Birmingham Seaholm and Birmingham Brother Rice are scheduled tentatively to play each other the last game of the season and if they do, it should turn out to be hectic individual battle between Seaholm's Chris Charleston and Rice's Greg Pilette.

The game would come about if Brother Rice should be eliminated from the Soup Bowl and Goodfellow game in Detroit.

They both won last night, Seaholm over Hazel Park, 20-0, and Rice whipped Catholic Central, 40-21 and Charleston and Pilette continued their onslaught on rushing yardage.

BIG YARDAGE

Charleston piled up 225 of Seaholm's 276 yards rushing, scoring on 84 and 6 yard runs to make it 14-0 at halftime. He set up another and 45 yard dash.

Dick Trickey went four yards and Art Kale two yards for the other Seaholm TD's.

Charleston has 461 yards in three games.

Pilette rolled up 275 yards going 82 yards, 43 yards and 22 yards for touchdowns and setting up another with a 43 yard dash.

He now has 533 yards in three games. Both players are seniors and both stand 5-10 and 170 pounds.

Rice also scored with Paul Lutz going 90 yards with a punt return and 3 yards on a dive. Greg Kelly passed for one and sneaked for another also for Rice.

Dryden Continues Pace in Thumb Loop Race

Belino Regains Job With Pats

BOSTON (UPI) - Former Navy halfback Joe Belino and defensive end Jim Boudreaux were reactivated Friday by the Boston Patriots for their game with the New York Jets Sunday.

Belino and Boudreaux, a Louisiana Tech graduate, played on the Pats taxi squad, and will replace the injured Billy Johnson and Joe Avezzano.

Almont led Anchor Bay, 6-0 and 12-7, in the first half, Al Curry passed to Dick Bowman (30 yards) and Frank Dabachsky (four yards) for the Raiders six-pointers.

But Mike Gonyea of the Tars ran 36 yards to score, then Bob Heber went over from the three for the winning margin.

Armadillo piled up a 19-0 lead by interception, Carl Reiter tallied twice in the second quarter to put the game out of Memphis' reach, though Don Henderson ran the second half kickoff 80 yards to paydirt for the losers.

West Bloomfield Defeats Milford

(Continued From Page B-1) The Lakers drove to the Milford 25, but were stopped. As the half ended they had a 13-0 lead on the Redskins' 18.

The deciding point in game came when Milford fumbled near a goal line and the Lakers marched 95 yards to take a 13-0 lead. Perrille carried the last yard.

Although impressive on offense, the Lakers showed their inexperience a few times on defense. They were badly fooled on McFarlane's touchdown dash and let Milford pass receivers open several times.

1 Stroke Ahead

BONSAULT, Calif. (AP)—Carol Mann posted a second-round 70 for a 143 total and took a 166 lead over the rest of the field in the Mickey Wright Open Invitational.

Carol Mann, 21, shot 70-74-74-74 for a 286 total. She was the only player to shoot under 80 in the first round.

She was followed by Sandra Palmer, 71-74-74-74, and Sandra Smith, 71-74-74-74.

Kimball Halts Berkley, 20-0 for First Win

Two touchdowns runs by Mike Yankee and a scoring pass boosted defending Southeastern Michigan Association grid champ Royal Oak Kimball to its first victory Friday night.

The Knights knocked off Berkley, 20-0, to open the SEMA campaign with a triumph. Ferndale surprised previously unbeaten Southfield, 13-7.

Yankee went over from the seven-yard-line after Kimball's Doug Halliday recovered a Berkley fumble on the 10.

Dan Mauldin hit Greg Schmidt on a 43-yard scoring pass in the second quarter as the Knights pushed their lead to 13-0 at halftime. ROK needed only four plays to go 60 yards.

Groves Opens League Action in 32-7 Win

N. Farmington, who has only lost three league games in four seasons, outplayed Oak Park for a 13-0 victory - its first against one defeat and one tie-over-all.

Groves battered Wayne John Glenn, 32-7, with No. 2 in three starts. The Falcons rallied from a 7-0 deficit.

North Farmington's Gary Zerhan struck for an 86-yard paydirt gallop on the second play against Oak Park's Redskins. Then the visitors needed only five plays to tie the score.

Shift Credit to Staggs

Though Knute Rockne was credited with creating the backfield shift in football, he always gave the credit to Amos Alonzo Stagg of Chicago.

Defeats Goodrich

Brandon 11 Erupts, 35-6

Brandon's Blackhawks erupted from the gridiron doldrums with a vengeance Friday night, stomping arch-rival Goodrich, 35-6, for win No. 1.

The victory matched the Blackhawks' win total for the past two seasons and it was the first time they had scored more than two touchdowns in 22 starts.

High Ranked

Dondero Rolls

Against Dots

Powerful Royal Oak Dondero roared on Friday night with a 26-6 whipping of Wyandotte as quarterback Dave Charlton led the Oaks' attack with his passing.

The visiting Dondero squad-fourth ranked in the weekly Associated Press Class A state poll — broke a scoreless first half with 20 points in the second quarter.

Charlton hit halfback Al

Shepler with 17 and 27-yard passes, then tossed four yards to Chuck Larke for the six-point.

Tou, Poff later hit a Wyandotte ball carrier and forced a fumble that the Oaks' defender scored for a touchdown; and Shepler scored on the final play of the half, taking a pass from halfback Rod Rider for a 61-yard play.

Charlton, who hit 12 of 14

aerials for 129 yards, passed to Rider for the final score.

The Rams' scooter Dick Bass scored three touchdowns and broke a Ram career rushing record with 92 yards for 3,501 yards in his seventh year. The old mark was 3,483.

With that, the 49ers' boss flopped his overcoat over his shoulder and marched out of the dressing room in Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

The Rams are now 3-14 in the standings, alone at least until Sunday in second place in the West.

Lion-GB Defenses Clash Head-On

Detroit Must Stop Aerials

Bart Starr Enjoying Successful Start

The Detroit Lions and the Green Bay Packers, two teams with dominating defenses and erratic offenses, today Sunday in a National Football League game the Lions can't afford to lose.

The Packers, one game behind the unbeaten Packers in the Western Conference race, would tie for the lead with a victory.

A defeat would push the Lions two games back with the Los Angeles Rams and Baltimore Colts next on their schedule.

To win, Detroit must move the ball against a Packers' defensive unit that has yielded less yardage per game than any team in the league.

Detroit, like the Packers, has allowed just three touchdowns—one per game. And like the Packers, Detroit boasts a quick-striking pass rush led by tackles Alex Karras and Roger Brown.

Both teams have a strong linebacking corps and a ball-hawking secondary.

The critical difference between the teams could be at quarterback. Both teams have veterans in the key position, but the Packers' Bart Starr is on his way to a banner season while the Lions' Milt Plum has been a victim of an old bugaboo—the interception.

Starr, getting good protection from his linemen this season, has completed 46 of 67 passes for a phenomenal percentage of 68.7. His passes have picked up 637 yards and produced four touchdowns. Only one of his tosses has been picked off.

Plum, who had a solid 19 for 27 yards against Atlanta in his 10 victory last Sunday, is 36 for 63 for 433 yards and three touchdowns. But six of his throws, almost 10 per cent, have been intercepted. The Packers thrive on interceptions.

Joe Don Looney, a sometimes brilliant runner who suspended after balking at being used as "messenger" against Atlanta. The Lions and Packers split their two games last season with the Packers coming from behind to win 31-21 at Detroit and losing 12-7 at Green Bay in a game that saw Starr dumped a dozen times while trying to pass.

Viet Nam Visit for Musial, Allen

NEW YORK (UPI) — Former baseball great Stan Musial and broadcaster Mel Allen head a group that will visit U.S. troops in Viet Nam in November.

Baseball Commissioner William D. Eckert said other members of the group would be Joe Torre and Hank Aaron of the Atlanta Braves, Brooks Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles and Harmon Killebrew of the Minnesota Twins.

Jockey Pulls Repeat

NEW YORK (AP) — Jockey Braulio Baeza rode three winners at Aqueduct Race Track Friday for the second time in three days.

Twins Catch Tigers in Battle for Second

DETROIT (AP)—It's too bad the Tigers and Minnesota Twins aren't fighting for the pennant instead of second place money. What a waste of a season-ending weekend this might have been.

The Tigers dropped an 8-5 decision to the Kansas City Athletics Friday night and saw the Twins move back into a tie for second place by whipping the pennant-winning Baltimore twice.

Earl Wilson held the A's to back.

Challenges Get Tougher in Key College Tilts

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Michigan goes after its third straight triumph and North Carolina will seek revenge for a 31-24 setback a year ago when the two teams met before an expected crowd of 70,000 Saturday.

The Wolverines, who have picked off three opponents passes while limiting opponents to 17 completions in 40 tries, will face their stiffest challenge of the young season from the Danny Talbot-led Tarheels.

Talbot, last year's "Player of the Year" in the Atlantic Coast Conference, and sub Jeff Beasly riddled the Michigan defense.

But the Spartans are two touchdowns favorites on the basis of powerful victories over North Carolina State and Penn State while the Illini were humbled by Southern Methodist and Missouri.

ALABAMA vs OLE MISS—JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Ambitious Alabama collides with reinvigorated Mississippi Saturday night in an early showdown for Southern Conference football supremacy.

Tickets for the battle between three-ranked Alabama and unbeaten Ole Miss have been gone for months.

Mississippi is at its first victory over the Tide since 1916, and Alabama hopes to use the game as a springboard to a third straight national title.

NORTHWESTERN vs IRISH—EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Fourth ranked Notre Dame is a 20-point favorite, but the Fighting Irish' football clash with Northwestern's winless Wildcats here Saturday figures to be up in the air.

In his first visit to Dwyer Stadium since he switched from Northwestern to Notre Dame in 1964, Coach Ara Parseghian brings potentially the greatest aerial act in Irish history.

It's the sophomore duo of quarterback Terry Hanratty and end Jim Seymour.

What really bothered Skaff, who was celebrating his 33rd birthday, was the complete collapse of the bullpen.

The Athletics scored three times in the seventh inning on a walk, Dick Green's single, a pinch-sacrifice fly by Larry Stahl and a two-run pinch homer by Jim Taiton. The last hit came off Orlando Pena.

Three more runs in the eighth, the final two on a home run by Green, put Kansas City in front to stay. Hank Aguirre was charged with the loss.

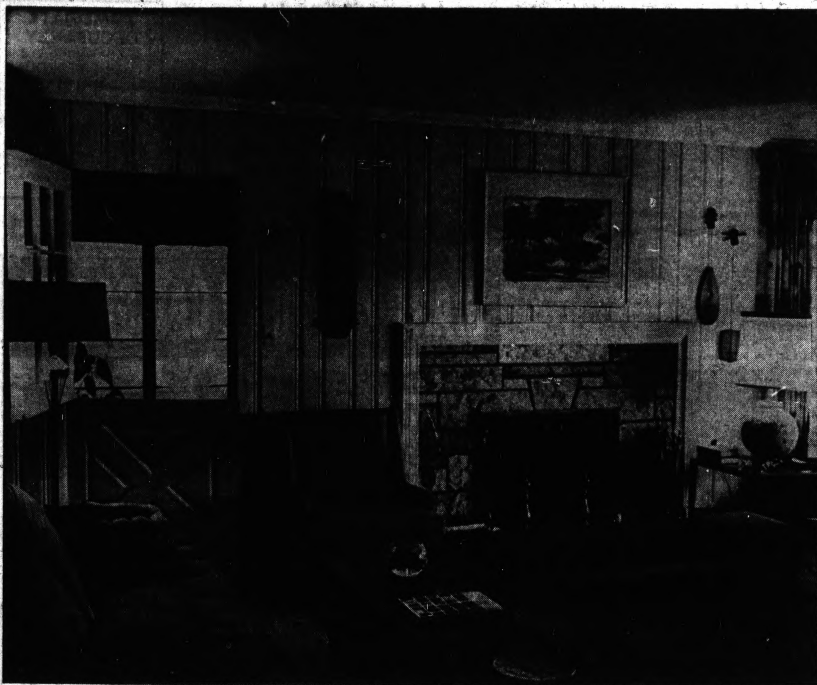

"Pena knows better than to pitch sidearm to a left-hander," Skaff said. "So what happens after Talton hits the homer? Pena gets mad and goes straight overhead and they can't touch him."

A walk to Bill Freehan and single by Jake Wood and Dick McAuliffe broke a scoreless tie in the fifth.

Port Huron's Jim Gosger got that run back with his 10th homer in the sixth but the Tigers rallied for three runs in the bottom of the inning which was capped by Wilson's single.

Singles by Horton, Don Wert and Bill Freehan in the seventh put the Tigers ahead for the third time in the game.

ic organ, is the walnut stereo. old's interest in gardening and Italian wood paintings of arranging. She is one of the organizers of the Waterford Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association.

Summers on Williams Lake proved so delightful, that the Arthur Arnolds of Desmond Road transformed their cottage into a permanent home.

In the lakeside living room, Mrs. Arnold has chosen coral tones and their complements. The draperies feature light coral, brown, gray with a hint of gold on a beige background in an abstract print.

Grouped around a low round table before the broad picture window are three swivel chairs in coral tapestry.

Using living plants as an effective decorator's touch, Mrs. Arnold has filled the window's low window box with a colorful assortment of coleus.

The ottoman and chair, upholstered in shades of coral and coral-beige striped wool, matches the room's sofa and the fireside chair under the maple thermometer.

A Dutch door opens to the adjoining glass-enclosed study.

Take Proper Precaution When Leaving Your Vacation Home

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer
It's a sad day when the family takes leave of the vacation home. It's back to job, schools, the other house.

But it may be sadder when you return next year if you do not make needed repairs.
Closing up the second house is more than just bolting down the hatches. Many people buy these homes as retirement homes. Then they can have a party and burn the mortgage.

But second house repairs are delayed year after year.

up dwelling that the family used for roughing it.
They just battered around in it until it fell apart.

The new trend is to vacation homes with more conveniences for the leisure life—dishwashing machines, freezers, swimming pools, saunas. These investments are well worth the upkeep.

The time to take stock of disrepair is before you leave the house at the end of summer, painful though it may be.

But a two-home owner must consider himself a twin handyman, unless he can afford help. It isn't easy to get local help during vacation months when everyone else has the same idea.

MAKE A LIST
But you can make a list for the local handyman and caretaker so that everything will be put in order before winter winds howl.

The same check-up that is given your first home periodically must be given to the second.

Check the roof. If shingles blew off last winter, and there was little rain, it may not have mattered this vacation time.

But if there is lots of precipitation next winter, and more shingles rot or disappear in a storm, you may find floors, walls and furnishings ruined from leaks.

It's worth an inspection crawl on the roof.

Gutters, downspouts, fireplaces should be checked. Chimneys should be cleaned if they've had a big cooking workout.

Loose window panes should be repaired and faulty door locks replaced. Make a list of things that need to be done when you get back. If you are equipped with paint or preservatives when you return next year, the job may get off the ground.

PLUMBING PROBLEMS
Resolve plumbing problems before you take leave of the house, and call plumbers before the house-closing rush sets in.

Second homes scheduled to be retirement homes are usually in less isolated areas than vacation homes. Older people want to be near stores, doctors, hospitals.

Even if you are in one of these well populated areas, you should inform the police that you are leaving the vacation spot, and where they can reach you in case of emergency.

Find new homes for animals adopted while on vacation or take the animals with you when you leave the temporary house.

Many little cats and dogs come home for an expected dinner only to find that the city slickers have down the coop with food and affection. It is cruel.

PLEASEING COMBINATION: The dormer is the tip-off that this traditional house has living space upstairs, but architect Samuel Paul has placed the extra rooms at the back of the house to preserve the long, low look for those who prefer a ranch-like appearance.

Upstairs Living Area in Ranchlike House

This house was designed for those who like the extra living space of a one and a-half story residence, but who also have an affection for the outward appearance of a ranch.

Architect Samuel Paul has turned out a house that can accommodate a family of almost any size — with three, four or five bedrooms — yet its exterior has a long, low exterior from resembling a ranch.

At the same time, a tasteful blend of stone and wood exudes a charm and warmth expressive of the Colonial style.

Paul has accomplished all this by a design which places the upper two bedrooms and bath over the back part of the house, thus avoiding a too-vertical look at the front.

Since there are three bedrooms on the first floor, sufficient for many families, the upstairs need not be completed until family expansion makes it necessary.

CONTROL CENTER

The control center is around the kitchen, where all the informal activities take place.

This area includes a large cathedral-type family room, kitchen, dinette, laundry, two-car garage and a lavatory strategically located so that children coming in from the outside do not have to go through the more formal part of the house.

The sunken family room, two steps down from the kitchen, features a large glass wall with sliding doors which open onto a huge patio, and a fireplace with raised hearth and a complete brick wall.

The kitchen is arranged in a U-shape, with the sink placed underneath the front window from which anyone walking up to the front door can be seen.

A built-in oven, counter-range, large refrigerator, dishwasher, and abundance of counter space and floor and wall cabinets, comprise the other elements in the kitchen. In the laundry, space is provided for a washing machine, dryer and sink.

A highly desirable feature of Design G-56 is the large number of closets and abundance of storage space. There are three good-sized closets off the main entrance foyer.

MASTER BEDROOM

The master bedroom has a dressing room with two closets, plus a third closet outside the dressing area. Very convenient. (Continued on Page C-5)

FLOOR PLANS: Everything necessary for comfortable living is on the first floor, with special emphasis on caring for the needs of children, but the plans include two bedrooms and an extra bath upstairs for large families which need extra space.

Diamonds Are Upstairs

Friend to All in Ranchlife

Little things in all walks of life, from milady's eyebrows to nerve ends in surgery, are being picked up these days by diamond-tipped tweezers.

The diamonds aren't the kind you find in the jewelry store. Rather, they are industrial diamond grit, microscopically tiny, and bonded to the jaws of tweezers.

Hobbyists find the tweezers especially handy to hold the minute parts of model assemblies and the jaws of a kid kit. Stamp collectors use them to keep fingerprints off precious issues.

The fair sex just find they grip the finest unwarped rings.

Diamond grit isn't used to glamorize the tweezers. It's used because diamond is the hardest substance of all.

Each particle, if viewed through a microscope, would be seen to be a crystal, with knife-sharp edges.

A thin layer of them, fused to the tweezers tips, give superior gripability.

And, since such a minute quantity of the mineral is required to do these precision tools costs no more than a good briar pipe.

Just before you place a screw into wood, stick the entire shank of the screw into a jar of lubricant to make the screw enter the wood more easily.

On the second floor, there is effective storage space in that portion underneath the roof.

And a full collar, with access from a stair off the kitchen makes available a tremendous amount of space which also can be used for storage.

Basically, the arrangement of the rooms is around a spacious central foyer, at the end of which is the living room.

A separate dining room joins the living room, with a large opening between the two. Both rooms look out on the rear.

An attractive planter is between the living room and the foyer hall.

In the bedroom wing, a compartmentalized bath is featured. In one portion, a double vanity is located; in the other, built-in bathtub and water closet.

BAY WINDOW

The master bedroom, which has its dressing room and separate bath, has a bay window pleasing to the eye from both inside and outside.

The third bedroom can double as a den if that suits the needs of the family.

With more than 2000 square

quality & economy with Stran-Steel buildings

For you get economy with Stran-Steel buildings because economy is literally designed and built into every steel component. It is the natural result of quality planned, mass production techniques that are not only better, but also economical. The savings are passed along to you.

Before you build any building, discover why a Stran-Steel building is a better investment. Find out why Stran-Steel is able to offer written guarantees to back-up the performance of the steel components. Lower heating and cooling bills are the direct result of exclusive insulated wall systems. Faster construction, often 60 to 90 days, will get you in business sooner.

Call us for a free estimate or a copy of our brochure "10 Costly Mistakes To Avoid Before You Build." We are able to handle your complete turnkey project. Arrangements can be made for financing.

School Eyed for Unskilled

Program is Proposed by Head of City Firm

A government-sponsored on-the-job training program at a Pontiac plant may lead to the firm opening its doors after hours as a trade school for unskilled workers.

William Goodman, president of the Versatube Corp., 92 Branch, made the proposal yesterday after learning the Labor Department approved a contract for the training of eight persons at the plant.

"The program is fine but it isn't going to do the masses any good," said Goodman.

Since moving from Detroit to Pontiac three months ago, Goodman said he has received at least 800 job applications.

"These people want to work, but they just haven't the skill to do the job," Goodman, a native of Pontiac, said.

FLEXIBLE TUBING

His firm, founded eight years ago, produces flexible metal tubing for truck exhausts and other assorted automotive tubing.

"The plant has 35 employees. It'd be willing to have the plant used as a training ground for this new program works out for us," said Goodman.

He said he wasn't sure what type of arrangements could be made, but that he was open to suggestions from any local or county agency that might be able to provide a solution.

INSTRUCTORS

"At the present, we don't have enough skilled workers to have them act as instructors," Goodman explained.

Under the federal program, the company will be reimbursed $4,000 for teaching the eight unemployed persons how to operate machines for a period of up to 25 weeks.

Secretary of Labor Willard Wyler agreed to the pact, which was made public yesterday by Congressman Billie S. Farnum, D-19th District.

Those chosen for the training will have to have some mechanical knowledge, said Goodman, but just how they will be selected hadn't been determined.

There were about 12,000 physical therapists practicing in the nation last year. By 1975, an estimated 54,000 will be required to meet demands, a federal study reveals.

Junior Editors Quiz on PLAYING CARDS

QUESTION: Who invented playing cards and why are there 52 cards in a deck?

ANSWER: Some experts think playing cards originated in India about 800 A.D. Cards were probably introduced into Europe by the returning crusaders.

The eastern cards had numbers, but picture cards called tarot originated in Italy, and soon tarot and numbers appeared in the same deck.

The four suits (S, C, H, D) appeared in France in the 1300's. The French made symbols for them with the names we show in our picture.

Pique meant pique, but the English thought it looked like a spade and called it that. Trefle, which meant clover leaf, was changed to club.

Carreau had meant square, but the English, by mistake, translated this into diamond.

When Eastern cards were combined with tarot, a 78-card deck was the result. This was cumbersome to play with, so the French started to use the simpler 52-card and 53-card decks.

Thirty-two cards are still used in the European game of pique, but the English took up whist, using 52 cards, and this became standard in English-speaking countries.

FOR YOU TO DO: Draw—from memory—a spade, club, heart and diamond, as they appear on playing cards. This is not so easy as it sounds.

DeMolay Rite Is Scheduled

Cedar Chapter, Order of DeMolay, will install a new master counselor in ceremonies at 10 p.m. at the Masonic Temple, Clarkson.

To be installed is Grant Kenyon of 6700 Transparent, Independence Township.

Also slated to be installed are Gary Slinkard, 6135 Paramus, Independence Township, senior counselor, and Steven Peterson of 6140 Andersonville, Waterford Township, junior counselor.

College Head Installed in State

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP)—Dr. S. Douglas Cornell said today in his inaugural address as the first president of Mackinac College that "Knowledge is power, and the way in which power is used is as important as the power itself."

"Mackinac College is out to set a new aim and a new direction in higher education," Cornell said in a speech prepared for more than 400 persons attending the inauguration.

Club president is Clarence C. of 2912 Buick, Waterford Township.

Justice Won't Be Far Away

BOYNE FALLS (AP)—You won't have to go far to find a judge if a policeman tickets you for speeding in the Boyne Falls area today.

Scores of justices of the peace planned to ride in patrol cars or police airplanes today as part of a fall seminar sponsored by the Michigan Association of Justices of the Peace. Some 200 justices are attending the seminar at nearby Boyne Mountain Lodge.

Two Are Held After Ruckus at Local Cafe

Pontiac police and an emergency crew of Oakland County sheriff's deputies took two persons into custody at an all-night drive-in early today to prevent efforts of a crowd to disrupt the arrests.

Principal suspect in the incident is Johnnie Johnson, 22, of 415 N. East Blvd., held in the Oakland County Jail on charges of carrying a concealed weapon, resisting arrest and being disorderly.

All three charges stem from a reported gun-draw at the Mary E. Cafe, 565 S. Saginaw, about 2:30 a.m.

Senate Gets Inflation Plan After House OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's bill to squeeze some of the business spending out of the swollen U.S. economy has cleared the House and now faces efforts in the Senate to exempt various industries.

The measure would suspend for about 16 months the 7 per cent investment tax credit that has helped produce a boom in machinery and equipment buying, plus fast depreciation provisions that encourage construction of industrial, commercial and apartment buildings.

About the time the House was passing the bill 221 to 118 Friday, Johnson was appealing to 10 more governors to trim public spending in their states in conjunction with the administration's anti-inflation program.

All but one of the 10 governors indicated a willingness to try to do some economizing. Gov. Paul B. Johnson, Mississippi Democrat, remained silent when the governors met with newsmen after the third in a series of White House conferences Johnson is holding with state chief executives.

WANT TO COOPERATE?
New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, a Republican, said he told the President: "I know all of us want to cooperate with you."

But one governor who met with the President earlier in the week, Republican Henry Bellmon of Oklahoma, said Johnson is to blame for inflation. Bellmon told an Oklahoma City news conference the federal government should try to curb its spending before asking the states to.

But Bellmon apparently didn't get this point over to Johnson. "There's very little discussion when you meet with the President," he said. "Mostly, it's just listening."

Delay on Road

LANSING (AP)—Heavy rains have delayed the opening of a new section of M 48 in Hillsdale County by nearly two weeks, the Highway Department reports. The new segment of highway, from Ransom to M 34 southeast of Hillsdale, was scheduled to open next Monday, but will be inaugurated Oct. 14, the department said.

The bill suspending the tax advantages was approved by the House on a vote that largely followed the Senate's lead.

PART OF PROGRAM

Democrats urged the action as part of Johnson's anti-inflation program which also includes an announced $3 billion cut in spending under budget figures and a hold up in certain forms of government agency borrowing.

Republicans expressed skepticism about the promised spending cuts and said Johnson should have acted earlier and more drastically to cut back or postpone Great Society programs and balance the budget.

The House adopted one amendment. It would allow

Medicaid Program for State's Poor Begins

LANSING (AP)—A $42-million program called Medicaid—providing state and federal money to as many as 600,000 of Michigan's poor—takes effect today.

Tailored in part to the federal Medicare program, financed about 50 per cent by federal funds, designed within general federal guidelines and largely replacing a number of existing programs, Medicaid will help pay hospital and medical bills for:

—A resident 65 or older who can't support himself or be supported by a "spouse, child or other person, association, society or corporation legally or contractually responsible under the laws of this state for his support."

LACKS INCOME

—A blind, nonbegging resident over 16 who "has not sufficient income or other resources to provide a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health."

—A person under 21 or over 65 who currently is eligible for old age assistance, aid to dependent children, aid to the blind or aid to the permanently disabled.

—Certain others who can prove their total income is below a set subsistence level.

Medicaid is being "phased in," said Mrs. Lois Lamont, special projects supervisor for the State Department of Welfare.

New Licensing Guide Urged

Accident-Prone Driver
Target of Hare Plan

MANISTEE (UPI)—Secretary of State James M. Hare yesterday proposed a new criterion for obtaining a driver's license—the "fitness to drive."

Hare, at a regional traffic safety conference, said the "fitness to drive" theory would be based on motorists who demonstrate "any degree of accident-proneness."

"In many instances, the accident-prone driver is more dangerous on our roads than the person with excessive violation points but with no accidents on his record," Hare said.

He said a test case in 1964 on the rights of the secretary of state to examine accident-prone drivers could never be completed because an accused accident-prone Lansing bus driver allegedly left the state.

Hare said many drivers become involved in several accidents but never accumulate enough traffic points to have their licenses revoked.

He suggested accident involvement be made a part of the Michigan point system, allowing his staff to "investigate and examine persons who have been involved in one or more accidents."

"Investigating these accident-prone people early could lead to a correction of their faults or suspension of driving privilege, hopefully in time to prevent a serious personal injury or death-causing accident," Hare said.

Draft Form Deadline Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey says college students wishing to take the next Selective Service qualification test Nov. 18 and 19 must mail their applications by Oct. 21.

Hershey, Selective Service director, said Friday the applications must be mailed to Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N.J., in a pre-addressed envelope obtainable from any draft board.

The tests are used by local draft boards in determining eligibility for student deferments. Nearly 700,000 young men took the test last May and June.

Veteran Retires

LANSING (AP)—State Police Friday announced the retirement of Detective Harold Burley of Detroit, a veteran of 25 years. Detective Lucien Conrad of Detroit District Headquarters was promoted to uniform sergeant and transferred to command of the Manistique Post. Trooper Marvin Anderson of Rockford was promoted to detective and assigned to Detroit.

Livonia Strike

LIVONIA (AP)—Some 100 city workers mostly from the public works department, struck in this Detroit suburb Friday in a dispute over contract negotiations. Mayor Harvey Moika said the strike was illegal under Michigan law.

By OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

Some bridge players pride themselves on the soundness of their opening bids. We have no quarrel with this policy as long as they are not too far from the truth, but we do feel, once they pass with 10 or 11 of those other players open, that they have been given a special license to make horrible overcalls.

Most players would open the South hand with one diamond. The hand includes 13 high card points, a very good five-card suit and a couple of tens.

This South elected to pass and if he could just have stayed out of the bidding from then on, East and West were well on their way to trouble. Even if they had stopped at one no-trump they were due for a 200-point penalty and they might have worked their way a lot higher.

South must have thought "Why should they be penalized when we can get set ourselves?" He bid two diamonds.

West wasn't sure what to do but he decided to double. No one had anywhere to go although when the hand was over, East and West having marked the ledger, North did express some ideas on where South might go.

The defense was not brilliant but it was adequate. West opened the king of hearts. East started an echo with his seven spades and then he gave East a spade ruff.

East returned a spade for West to ruff. Then West led ace and a small club. East was in with the king and led another spade.

West ruffed. That was all for the defense but they had plucked the goose clean. South was down to his five good trumps and could not lose any more.

Q-CARD SOURCE

Q-The bidding has been: West North East South 1 ♣ Pass 2 ♦ Pass 3 ♣ Pass 4 ♦ Pass 5 ♠ Pass 6 ♠ Pass 7 ♠ Pass 8 ♠ Pass 9 ♠ Pass 10 ♠ Pass 11 ♠ Pass 12 ♠ Pass 13 ♠ Pass 14 ♠ Pass 15 ♠ Pass 16 ♠ Pass 17 ♠ Pass 18 ♠ Pass 19 ♠ Pass 20 ♠ Pass 21 ♠ Pass 22 ♠ Pass 23 ♠ Pass 24 ♠ Pass 25 ♠ Pass 26 ♠ Pass 27 ♠ Pass 28 ♠ Pass 29 ♠ Pass 30 ♠ Pass 31 ♠ Pass 32 ♠ Pass 33 ♠ Pass 34 ♠ Pass 35 ♠ Pass 36 ♠ Pass 37 ♠ Pass 38 ♠ Pass 39 ♠ Pass 40 ♠ Pass 41 ♠ Pass 42 ♠ Pass 43 ♠ Pass 44 ♠ Pass 45 ♠ Pass 46 ♠ Pass 47 ♠ Pass 48 ♠ Pass 49 ♠ Pass 50 ♠ Pass 51 ♠ Pass 52 ♠ Pass 53 ♠ Pass 54 ♠ Pass 55 ♠ Pass 56 ♠ Pass 57 ♠ Pass 58 ♠ Pass 59 ♠ Pass 60 ♠ Pass 61 ♠ Pass 62 ♠ Pass 63 ♠ Pass 64 ♠ Pass 65 ♠ Pass 66 ♠ Pass 67 ♠ Pass 68 ♠ Pass 69 ♠ Pass 70 ♠ Pass 71 ♠ Pass 72 ♠ Pass 73 ♠ Pass 74 ♠ Pass 75 ♠ Pass 76 ♠ Pass 77 ♠ Pass 78 ♠ Pass 79 ♠ Pass 80 ♠ Pass 81 ♠ Pass 82 ♠ Pass 83 ♠ Pass 84 ♠ Pass 85 ♠ Pass 86 ♠ Pass 87 ♠ Pass 88 ♠ Pass 89 ♠ Pass 90 ♠ Pass 91 ♠ Pass 92 ♠ Pass 93 ♠ Pass 94 ♠ Pass 95 ♠ Pass 96 ♠ Pass 97 ♠ Pass 98 ♠ Pass 99 ♠ Pass 100 ♠ Pass

TODAY'S QUESTION

You pass and West bids three clubs. Your partner doubles. What do you do now?

Answer Monday

State Proclamation

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney has proclaimed next Monday through Saturday as "Employ the Physically Handicapped Week in Michigan."

10,000 Students Mass in Front of Sukarno Palace

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—More than 10,000 students screaming "Sukarno is the Communist leader" massed today in front of President Sukarno's palace and threatened to storm it.

Some 2,000 combat troops armed with submachine guns formed a cordon between the shouting students and the palace grounds.

Four student leaders asked the palace guard commander for permission to go inside the palace but their request was rejected.

As student leaders with loudspeakers urged the students to crash the palace gates, other student leaders demanded that army officials bring Sukarno back to the palace.

Sukarno flew to his mountain palace of Bogor and planned to remain there until Sunday night.

Gen. Ulysses S. Grant acquired the nickname of "Unconditional Surrender" after the Battle of Fort Donelson.

Pat Boone Returning to Television Diet

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD—Starting Oct. 18, housewives will be able to find a new companion amid the plethora of soap operas and game shows of daytime television. His name: Pat Boone.

The all-American boy, now 32, will be offering a half-hour, late-morning variety show aimed at young married women. He adds that any older ladies, children or men who happen to be home at that hour are welcome to tune in.

appearances of his answer to the Lennon sisters: Cherry Boone, 12; Lindy Boone, 10; Debby Boone, 9; and Laury Boone, 8.

WHY THE SHOW?

Why is he doing the show? "For two main reasons," he replied. "One is that it will give me a chance to stay at home for a change, instead of traveling all over the world for appearances."

"The second reason is that the show will allow me to do the things that I couldn't do before: to ad lib with guest stars and with the audience and to sing a lot of songs. I'll be doing three a day—that's 15 a week—whereas I used to sing three a week on my night show."

previously appeared on Ted Mack's matinee hour. The garulous redhead gave the boy a good education in audience pleasing, and at 23 Boone was offered his own night show.

"Godfrey advised against it," Pat recalled. "He said I was too young to take on my own show and I should stay with him for a few more years before going out on my own. But I decided to take a chance."

"I was on for three years and could have stayed longer, but I decided to concentrate on movies. Bing Crosby and Colonel Parker, Elvis Presley's manager, both advised me to get off TV. They said that people wouldn't be willing to pay to see me if I continued playing for free on TV."

"But the show's main appeal is for young adults," says Pat. "I offered several names as sidekick-announcer for the show, and NBC rejected them, saying I should have a younger personality. We hope to have a young-looking band and will aim for youthful guests as well."

To retain the youthful pattern, he expects to feature frequent
