Eisenhower Comes Out Slugging for Budget

GM Executive Scores Ike's Money Policies

Support for President, Party Is Withdrawn by Saginaw Division Head

DETROIT (AP) — W. H. Doerfner, an official of the General Motors steering gear division, today accused President Eisenhower of unsound monetary policies and said he would no longer support him.

He made his views known in a letter to Eisenhower.

Doerfner told the President "I will no longer support you nor will I support the Republican party as long as it condones your proven unsound monetary policies and your New Deal inspired international. WPA."

Doerfner was out of town today, but aides confirmed that he had sent the personal letter to Eisenhower.

The letter read in part:

"A few nights ago, the Saginaw County Republican Finance Committee met to study the problems caused by your amazing repudiation of your campaign-stated beliefs in sound, business-like government and by your present disturbing swing to concepts of the far left."

"I am a member of this committee and aside from the rather substantial financial contributions which I make each year, I also served on the committee of the Eisenhower dinner last year for a 17-county area.

"We raised close to $60,000 that one evening for your campaign and this was only a portion of the total we raised in our county for your campaign.

"I purposely used the label 'your campaign' because yours was the all-important campaign. At that time people believed in you, felt that only your successful candidacy could insure honest, straightforward, businesslike methods and concepts in our national government.

"What once appeared to be an inspired 'crusade' now appears to have been the usual campaign of political words and later actions bearing little relationship to each other.

"As individuals, as a group, we will contribute neither our money, our time, nor our efforts to the so-called Republican party as long as your fiscal policies continue to invite national bankruptcy, to penalize individual incentive and to repudiate the desires and beliefs of the many millions who voted for you."

Evidence Ready, Say Senators

They'll Confront Beck With Data Showing He Abused Position

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate rackets investigators said they will confront Teamsters Union President Dave Beck today with evidence alleging that he "used his position for his own personal profit and gain."

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) so described testimony to be given before his special Senate committee which has been looking into Beck's activities as president of the 1½-million member International Brotherhood of Teamsters.

McClellan and Robert F. Kennedy, chief committee counsel, said Beck would not be the lead-off witness in this new series of hearings.

Beck invoked the protection of the Fifth Amendment against possible self-incrimination and when quizzed by the committee in March about whether he had diverted to his own use some $320,000 of union funds.

Beck has hired a new attorney to advise him in his testimony before the committee. His new lawyer is Eddard Bennett Williams.

Lee to Succeed Beck?

CHICAGO (AP)—William A. Lee, veteran Chicago union leader, last night was proposed as a possible successor to Dave Beck, president of the Teamsters Union.

Gambler Clammed Up Before Grand Jury

Costello Languishes in Jail Cell

NEW YORK (AP)—Dapper gambler Frank Costello languished in a jail cell today because he refused to talk about a mysterious note on $651,284 in winnings.

The one time king of the nation's racketeers was sentenced to 30 days in the workhouse yesterday after he clammed up before a grand jury.

AP Wirephoto

He remained silent, he said, because answers might incriminate him. But a judge ruled him in contempt of court.

"Marker" is betting slang for an IOU. One police theory is that somebody unable to pay off his "marker" decided to murder Costello.

The gambler was shot in the lobby of a swank apartment house overlooking Central Park. He was headed for his apartment when a gunman lunged into the lobby and fired a .38-caliber bullet at him.

After one fruitless session with the jury, Costello was taken before General Sessions Judge Jacob Schurman. The judge sent him back to the jury again with orders to talk.

Costello refused a second time. The judge then held him in contempt of court and sentenced him to 30 days in the workhouse.

The grand jury is investigating the shooting. Police claim Costello lied when he said he didn't know who attacked him nor why.

Rainstorms Cloud Outlook for Weather

Partly cloudy with showers or thunderstorms late tonight is forecast for the Pontiac area by the U. S. Weather Bureau. Tonight's low will be around 54-58.

Showers and thunderstorms are expected tomorrow with a high of 78-82 Thursday afternoon and Friday will be cooler, with more showers Friday and Saturday.

Plans 2 Rounds on Television Before Nation

FROM OUR NEWS SERVICES

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower, hale and ruddy, came out slugging today for his record-breaking budget and promptly knocked down the bogeyman that he and Treasury Secretary George Humphrey disagree on its size.

Like a small boy who knows a secret, Ike grinningly divulged that as a matter of fact, he helped Humphrey prepare the letter setting off the Treasury Secretary's now famed budget comment that "under certain conditions" a depression could result from high spending.

The President seemed unusually chipper at today's news conference as he opened an all-out defense of his nearly $72 billion budget, largest in peacetime history.

CARRY FIGHT TO PEOPLE

Stating flatly that he will carry the fight to the American people, over the heads of the economy-minded, Democratic - controlled Congress, he said he will make two nationwide televised addresses to present the facts.

With caustic wit, he chided that although Boston has just staged a "tea party" against big government spending, the mayor of Boston was here in person only a couple of weeks ago to protest Ike's cut in urban redevelopment funds.

Ike also had a sly dig for Democratic titular leader Adlai Stevenson, who recently declared that he would accept a government appointment in the cause of peace. Casting a wilting glance, he snapped that he had vainly invited Adlai to serve on the U.S. delegation to the United Nations three years ago.

SLAPS AT RUMORS

The President slapped hard at rumors that Humphrey and Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson are about to resign from the cabinet.

Although several officers including Humphrey, he said, have been pointing out for a couple of years that private interests will eventually require their retirement, no letters of resignation are on his desk.

He indicated, however, that he will be unable to keep Humphrey too much longer from his personal business interests. Asked

Chrysler Files Damage Suit

Asks $5 Million From UAW Local 212; Union Voting on Strike

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

DETROIT — Chrysler today filed a $5 million damage suit against United Auto Workers Local 212.

The company charged the Local's refusal to allow tools, dies and fixtures to be shipped from Detroit plants to a new Chrysler facility in Twinsburg, Ohio, violated the auto firm's agreement with the International UAW. The complaint was filed in Detroit Federal Court.

A vote on a strike that could shut down Chrysler plants across the nation was scheduled today by United Auto Workers at the company's Detroit-area stamping plants.

The 23,000 members of Local 212 will decide whether to ask the International UAW for authority to strike in a dispute over what the union claims is "job security protection." Balloting won't be completed until tomorrow.

A company spokesman said a strike, if authorized and carried out, would "within days" close most of the firm's plants, idling some 95,000 hourly rated workers.

Chrysler employs 105,000 hourly rated workers across the country—85,000 of them in the Detroit area. Overall, Chrysler employs some 140,000 people.

★ ★ ★

A strike at this time would hit the company at a crucial period. Chrysler currently is reporting record sales and profits in an all-out fight to regain a larger share of the automobile market with its radically changed new models.

At issue, basically, is a dispute over job transfer rights for salaried workers at Chrysler's new plant in Twinsburg, Ohio.

Chrysler contends it already has reached agreement with the International UAW on providing jobs at Twinsburg for any displaced Detroit production workers.

Disputes Story in Look

Sinatra Sues Magazine for Libel, Asks $2 Million

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Volatile Frank Sinatra filed a $2,300,000 libel suit in Federal Court today against a national magazine that is publishing the story of his controversial career.

His suit named as defendants Cowles Magazines, Inc., publisher of Look magazine, and the author of the series of articles, Bill Davidson.

The first installment of the Sinatra biography, entitled "The Life of Frank Sinatra — Talent and Tantrums," appeared in the May 4 issue of Look.

Sinatra contended in his suit that the article was published in retaliation against him for his failure to provide the magazine with an autobiography.

Sinatra said he failed to live up to a Jan. 12, 1955, contract for the autobiography because of entertainment commitments. He said he offered to reimburse the magazine for any expenses it had incurred as a result.

'FALSE' ANECDOTES

The singer charged that false anecdotes were interwoven in the article with true anecdotes in a manner designed to injure him with his public.

One such false anecdote, the crooner alleged, dealt with an incident at the last Democratic National Convention in which he is supposed to have snapped at Speaker Sam Rayburn of the House of Representatives:

"Take your hands off me, you creep."

Sinatra reportedly has received a telegram from Rayburn stating that he does not recall such an incident.

Sinatra said the article was published for the "express purpose of causing the reader . . . to conclude that Sinatra is a neurotic, depressed and tormented person with suicidal tendencies and a libertine, all of which is untrue."

Group Jumps Rates for 3rd-Class Mail

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Post Office Committee today approved increases in third-class postal rates designed to yield an extra 128 million dollars in revenue after two years.

In line with recommendations of the Post Office Department, the committee voted for a two-stage increase in the rates on this type of mail. The plan calls for a rise this year to 3 cents for the first two ounces of individual piece mailings, and 2 cents in the bulk minimum rate. A further increase of ½ cent would be made effective by July 1, 1959.

Look Out Washington

Junior High Students Off to Tour Capital

It was "Washington or Bust" for 328 Pontiac junior high school seniors as they set off this morning for an intensive three-day tour of the nation's capital.

Two of the classes, from Washington and Madison Junior Highs, are traveling by train, while Lincoln seniors departed on Greyhound buses at 6 a.m.

Baggage was packed in advance and stored at the schools last night to avoid last minute delays this morning.

Accompanied by faculty members the youngsters face packed schedules of sight seeing from 7 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. each day.

The two groups will stay at different hotels but will take similar tours. The Lincoln class schedule follows:

Tomorrow they will visit the White House, Capitol, Bureau of Engraving, Supreme Court, FBI Building, National Art Gallery, Library of Congress and National Archives.

Hospital Bond Issue Endorsed

City Advisory Council's Executive Board Urges 'Yes' Vote at Polls

The Executive Board of the Greater Pontiac Advisory Council has endorsed the May 20 bond issue vote for the city hospital and increased sewage treatment plant facilities for the city.

Board members encouraged voters to vote "yes" for the six different proposals, based on the "public need" that the projects be completed.

The May general obligation bond vote will consist of $1,500,000 for completing and equipping Pontiac General Hospital, $350,000 for a parking lot at the hospital, and $2,700,000 toward expanding the city's sewage system, including construction of a second plant.

There will also be a vote on a one mill tax increase.

Actually, residents will be voting on an additional mill, but tax rates are expected to go up $1.50 per thousands of assessed valuation. The half mill will be from the 1954 hospital bond vote which was approved but never levied.

Parke, Davis Set to Go

DETROIT (AP)—Normal production was scheduled at Parke, Davis & Co. today, following ratification by maintenance workers of a new two-year contract.

Detroit's Balmy Weather Too Much for 3 Tots

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit's balmy spring weather proved too much for three toddlers yesterday.

Two-year-old Shawn Murray leaned out of a fourth-story window while playing with a pinwheel. He fell. However, Shawn landed on soft grass and was not hurt seriously.

Wayne Swift, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Swift, fell out of a second-story window of his home, landing on a concrete walk. He suffered a possible brain concussion and severe bruises.

GMCT Dealers Optimistic

Truck Sales Upturn Seen

High business optimism among 3,000 GMC truck dealers indicates the industry this year has an excellent chance to equal the 1956 figure, Philip J. Monaghan, vice president of General Motors and general manager of the GMC Truck & Coach Division, said today.

Monaghan, R. C. Woodhouse, general truck sales manager, and several other GMC officials yesterday completed a series of dealer meetings held in GMC's 19 sales zones throughout the country.

"Almost without exception, our dealers have told us that there is a new feeling of business confidence and sales activity in their areas," Monaghan said.

"While industry truck sales for the first quarter have been about seven per cent below the comparable period of 1956, we think the volume of business now developing will make up lost ground and give the industry an excellent chance in 1957 of equalling the 903,000 trucks sold last year."

Some of the factors contributing to the fresh new outlook for increased truck sales, Monaghan said, include plenty of moisture in previous drought-stricken farming areas, a good volume of business for over-the-road operators, and the coming impact of the national road-building program.

P. J. MONAGHAN

"We noted that in several of our sales zones, April GMC truck sales were over the March totals ranging from 11.9 per cent to 39.2 per cent," the GM executive said. "We consider a normal about 10 per cent."

Of greatest interest to dealers on the product side of the picture seemed to be air suspension for trucks, Monaghan said.

GMC now is in production on 10 air suspension models in the 50,000 to 65,000 lb. gross combination weight class and is in the process of delivering the first ones to its zones.

Mother and Daughter Fine

Firemen Greet Newcomer

Three Pontiac firemen split up midwife duties this morning, and cooperated in bringing a new resident into the world.

The trio arrived on the emergency call shortly after Mrs. Alonesar Rouser, 472 Branch St., gave birth to an 8 lb. 10 ounce daughter. Fireman Lawrence Bentfield took care of the truck driving chores on the way to the hospital.

Lt. Charles Marion (a veteran of one earlier delivering experience) attended to the mother, and Fireman Robert Betzing gave the youngster oxygen.

Lt. Marion said the traditional slap on the posterior was not administered. "They don't do that anymore," he said professionally, "the baby was breathing alright, so it wasn't necessary."

Youth, Girl Die in 2 Accidents

Car Crashes Kill Detroit, Farmington Teenagers; Injured Total 9

The dead are John T. Grzech, 18, of 5538 Mitchell St., Detroit; and Patricia Diamond, 17, of 26432 LaMuera St., Farmington.

Grzech was killed when his car smashed into the rear of one driven by Millard Wilson, 49, of 40530 Dequindre Rd., Troy Township. The accident took place on Dequindre just south of Square Lake road, shortly after midnight.

Five others were injured in Grzech's car. They were Vivian Nowicki, 17; Frank Babenski, 19; JoAnn Kempkowski, 18; and Susan Dropchuck, 17; all of Hamtramck; and Robert Rinehart, 20, of Detroit.

Wilson was also injured. All were admitted to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Patricia Diamond was killed when her car collided with a truck driven by Benjamin Q. Bryant, 23, of Salem, at the intersection of Harrison and Five Mile Rds., in Livonia.

Also injured were Noel Reiser, 17, and Sandra Timm, 16, of Farmington, who were riding with Miss Diamond. Bryant's wife, Marie was injured while riding in the truck. All were taken to Wayne County General Hospital for treatment.

Motorist Pleads Guilty in Hit-and-Run Accident

Eugene C. Barker, 64, of 51 Cottage St., pleaded guilty Tuesday when he was accused of striking down a six year old girl with his auto Monday and then driving off without stopping to help the child.

Barker appeared before Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum. His driver's license was suspended indefinitely. He will be sentenced Friday.

Barker admitted he struck Deborah Derocher, 6, of 50 S. Marshall St. She was taken to Pontiac General Hospital but was later released.

With summer not far away, and summer lightning storms, or thunderstorms, approaching, the facts about lightning become especially timely.

Lightning, it is true, kills a number of people each year. Dangerous places are under a big tree, in the bathtub, or around or between sizable metal objects — during a lightning storm. In the average all-metal automobile, or in an all-metal airplane, you are safe.

Lightning is caused by up-and-down drafts in thunderheads, which change the electrical composition of the air, building up cloud areas of positive or negative charge. Such a cloud area, coming near an oppositely charged object, exchanges electrical charges with it.

If you observe that lightning is active in the west, it will probably be upon you soon, but seeing it in other directions usually means it will not molest you. The old rule for judging the distance of lightning by counting the seconds is still valid.

If you see the flash, count a number of seconds until you hear thunder. Then divide the seconds by five, because sound travels only a fifth of a mile a second. Your answer is the distance of the lightning from you — in miles.

'I Wanted to Fight the Communists'

German Deserts Legion, Flees Reds, and Finally Lands in American Jail

By BURR VAN ATTA
The Ohio State Journal
Written for the AP

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It's hard to get into trouble on both sides of the Iron Curtain. But Fritz Franz Werner did it.

The Russians want him. The Americans have him. He's in Franklin County Jail.

★ ★ ★

Too young to be drafted into the German army in World War II, Fritz grew up in Danzig. Russian victory brought eventual death to the youth's parents. He doesn't talk about it: "They were just killed."

He escaped at 18 to West Germany and won a job as a mechanic with U. S. occupation forces.

But the death of his parents preyed on his mind. "I wanted to kill. I wanted to fight the Communists," he told newsmen in county jail.

So he joined the French Foreign Legion. In Indochina, he fought Red-led guerrillas for two years.

Sent later to North Africa, the youth deserted. He lived on his wits until he made it back to Danzig.

The Russians grabbed him. He was sent to work in the coal mines. "I knew the work; I did it," he noted.

Again he escaped and made his way to Holland, where he tried nearly every ship in Rotterdam: "I had in my head I wanted to go to the States."

Days passed. Finally a sympathetic dockworker slipped him on a liner for 150 marks.

Werner had no troubles as a stowaway, except he couldn't expose himself to get food. He swiped leftovers from dirty dishes. Then four days out, the roll of the ship was too much for many of the passengers. he slipped into vacant spaces at the dinner table.

He nearly got a job in the Capitol, but he was tripped up by lack of a Social Security card. FBI and immigration bureau agents picked him up. They took him back to New York City, where they verified his wild sounding story.

The immigration service granted him temporary asylum. He was put on "parole" with orders to report every six weeks.

Broke and without a sponsor, the youth worked his way through a series of jobs from New York to New Jersey and Pennsylvania. He wound up in Pittsburgh, penniless.

"I got hungry crazy. I was crazy. I steal this car. I think if I could just drive it to Indianapolis where a man tells me there is a lot of work, I could leave it by a police station and it will get back where it belongs," he said.

Suspicious of Fritz's rambling story on how he got the car, Columbus police took him to patrol headquarters. There Fritz told the whole story.

He was held for federal authorities.

Fritz isn't too hopeful. He feels his future is as bleak as his past: "I'm sorry about all this. If I can I want to join the Army here. Maybe I can fight them (the Communists) then. But if they send me back to East Germany, I know I'll be killed like the others."

He sat looking at the jail walls, murmuring, "If I just had someone here, someone to talk for me. . . ."

Rojas Assured of Second Term

Colombia Remains Upset

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—President Gustavo Rojas Pinilla's hand-picked Constituent Assembly was slated to give him four more years in office today without an election despite continuing demonstrations and strikes idling some 30,000 persons in Bogota.

★ ★ ★

The 90-member assembly already has suspended articles of the constitution preventing a president from succeeding himself. Some of the President's Conservative followers are divided on the issue, but the walkout of 20 assembly members last night was not expected to stall the session today to name him for a 1958-62 presidential term.

Student demonstrations against Rojas continued in Bogota yesterday. Again they were put down by police pouring streams of dyed red and blue water on the crowds. Hundreds of students were reported arrested.

There were indications the situation was even more serious in Cali, Colombia's fourth largest city 185 miles southwest of Bogota where Rojas has admitted three students were killed in disorders last week.

Like Bogota, Cali was under military rule.

Partial strikes disrupted business and industrial activity in the capital. Only government-operated banks were open on normal schedules.

★ ★ ★

Ike Begins Battle for Record Budget

whether he had discussed with the Treasury Secretary's eventual successor a change in budget operation, Ike caustically reminded that the government's monetary policy is his own, and no one underneath him can change it.

It would be odd, he continued, if government estimates of spending prepared 18 months in advance should not sometimes be off, and equally odd if long-time members of appropriations committees cannot sometimes find legitimate places to cut.

★ ★ ★

But the big cuts, he continued, can only be made in the defense budget, and that's why he wants USIA and foreign aid funds in order to wage the cold war and to lessen world tensions.

IKE'S HUMOR UNFAILING

The conference room in the old State Department building was almost unbearably hot, but Ike's good humor was unfailing.

Told that Democratic Gov. G. Mennen (Soapy) Williams has wired him a protest that the state's Republican-controlled legislature is blocking his unemployment compensation program, the President said he hadn't seen the telegram.

Grinning broadly, he said there is some suspicion, however, that the governor's meaning is not wholly within his words.

Ike proved once again that he has no sensitivity about the condition of his health. Asked for a report on it, he said that for what ails him, he thinks sun is the only answer. For that reason, he spent a good many hours last weekend sitting beside the house, absorbing sun.

"I feel fine," he added happily.

Meanwhile, Postmaster General Summerfield served notice that increasing mail volume may require expanding the postal budget by millions of dollars.

Summerfield sat in on the session with the GOP chiefs earlier today to state that view—in the face of the congressional budget-cutting drive.

He told the legislators that postal costs are still rising and said he doubted very much that the funds asked in the new budget would be sufficient to see his department through the year.

His statement came as the House Postoffice Committee met to take action on the administration's request to raise second and third class potal rates on newspapers, magazines and commercial mail.

The Lincoln class of 56 girls and 35 boys will be accompanied by Ralph S. Forman, assistant principal, and teachers Miriam Bruder, Mrs. Ann Elms, Maria Jackson, Paul Atkins, John Buchanan and William Sturgeon.

Head-On Crash Hurts 4

Four persons were injured about 6:30 this morning in a head-on crash on Adams road just south of Westview drive in Bloomfield Township. Taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital were Ruth Clear Cupari, 28, of 2685 Auburn Dr., Charles Ebarra, 24, John Ebarra, 64, and Angeline Ebarra, 36, all of 1362 Bradley Dr., Birmingham.

8 Firemen Hurt Fighting Blaze at Lumber Company

DETROIT (INS) — Eight firemen were injured yesterday fighting a blaze which destroyed the Grace Harbor Lumber Co. in Detroit. Damage was estimated at $500,000.

Fire Chief Edward J. Blohm said 40 pieces of equipment and 125 men battled the flames, which soared 100 feet in the air, for an hour before the fire was brought under control.

One nearby home was also destroyed and four other dwellings were damaged.

Nearly 5,000 spectators viewed the fire. Rush hour traffic had to be rerouted around the scene.

WORKERS EVACUATED

Twenty-five employes, including six women office workers, were evacuated from the building without injury after the fire was discovered in a mill area behind the office.

★ ★ ★

Six cars, a truck and a jeep parked in a company garage could not be removed in time and were destroyed.

Electric and telephone wires near the building were melted by searing flames.

The 850 employes of Lyon, Inc., 50 feet away from the lumber company, also were removed from their building.

Seven of the injured firemen suffered first-degree face and neck burns. Another was knocked out by a fire hose.

Doctor Who Hired Killer for Self Freed

DETROIT (AP) — Dr. C. L. R. Pearman, who told police an eerie tale of trying to hire a killer to help him commit suicide, was freed today on grounds that attempted suicide is not a crime in Michigan.

Recorder's (Criminal) Court Judge W. McKay Skillman refused to sign a warrant charging the prominent Detroit psychiatrist with soliciting another to commit murder.

"What Dr. Pearman solicited someone to do," said Judge Skillman, "was to aid him in committing suicide."

He said Pearman's intent was not murder because he "planned self-destruction."

The judge cited a 1943 ruling by the Attorney General's office that attempted suicide is not a crime in Michigan.

Pearman, described by his attorney as a "victim of overwork," told police earlier that he believed his "mind slipped a little" when he laid the plot.

Police entered the case when a night club porter told them Pearman had asked him where he could find a killer. A patrolman posed as a gunman and made arrangements for the killing.

Pearman was arrested April 26, shortly after the killing was scheduled to take place.

Legislature OKs Water From Detroit

A bill paving the way for Detroit water to be piped to Pontiac was passed by the Legislature in Lansing yesterday.

The measure, principally allowing Detroit to charge out-of-city prices more than double those paid by Detroit users, was sent to Gov. Williams for approval.

Final legislative action was wrapped up when the House concurred on two changes that the Senate had made in the bill.

The Senate had struck out one amendment that would have given Detroiters priority on their water, particularly during midsummer droughts.

Consumers Gypped?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress heard complaints today about the small amount of chicken in frozen chicken pies and the problem of determining what's inside a can of canned goods.

Ike to Welcome Ngo Dinh Diem

South Viet Nam Leader Will Be Met at Airport by President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ngo Dinh Diem of South Viet Nam, who won a battle of survival for his country in the last three years, arrives today to receive a personal welcome from President Eisenhower at National Airport.

The 57-year-old leader, a political exile in this country until four years ago, was the first Asian chief of state to be so honored by the American President.

Only once before has Eisenhower gone personally to the airport to greet a state guest. That was when King Saud of Saudi Arabia flew in earlier this year.

Diem and his party of 10 flew from Honolulu aboard Eisenhower's personal plane Columbine III for his four-day state visit.

The two presidents were expected to range over a wide spread of problems still menacing divided Viet Nam before Diem leaves Sunday for New York and a tour of the country.

A threatening dispute with Nationalist China over the dual citizenship status of some 800,000 Chinese living in Viet Nam was but the latest in a long list of troubles Diem has met and overcome.

The United States has counseled moderation on Diem in requiring 300,000 Chinese born in Viet Nam to take Vietnamese citizenship. Nationalist China has protested the decree and asked the United States to take a hand. At the same time angry Chinese wrecked the Nationalist Embassy in Saigon and protested editorially in San Francisco Chinese papers when Diem stopped there yesterday en route to Washington.

Diem has indicated he would like U. S. aid increased from the 250 million dollar a year level to speed economic development.

News Flashes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Five children of one family burned to death when trapped by flames and smoke in their suburban Clintonville home this morning. Two other children in the family were rescued from a second-floor bedroom along with a mother and four children who lived in the other half of the double house.

Firemen listed the victims, the children of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Butts, as: Rickey, 2; George, 4; Steven, 5; Charles, 6; and Judy, 11.

WELLINGTON, N. Z. (AP)—Two women were killed in the collapse of steel scaffolding on a department store in Wellington's main business section today. Nine persons were injured. Half a dozen autos were crushed. Passers-by and shoppers scattered when they heard the roar of the scaffolding as it fell three stories to a veranda, then crashed through to the pavement.

Hurt in Gun Mishap

A Lake Orion youth was critically injured last night when he accidentally shot himself through the stomach with a .22 calibre rifle.

Police reported that Allen Hodge, 19, of 66 Park Island Rd., was showing a friend the gun in a car. He set the gun down on the floor between his legs and it went off. Hodge was rushed to Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

E. D. WILLIAMS

Beck's Lawyer Packs Punch for Judge, Jury

WASHINGTON (AP) — Edward Bennett Williams, Dave Beck's new lawyer, has been described both as an old-school free-wheeling orator and as a modern whose forte is careful preparation.

Matter of fact, he is both.

Which technique he uses depends on the occasion. As a result, the impression can be completely contradictory. It all depends on when you heard him.

Before a jury, he can turn on the oratory on behalf of a client with such skill that he has been known to make women jurors weep openly.

Arguing a motion before a judge, where there is no profit in oratory, he talks quietly and earnestly, ready to match citations with an opponent. Williams comes so well prepared and has such a prodigious memory that he never seems to have to look up his citations.

His ability to play either the old school or the modern attorney's role with equal ease has brought Williams, at 36, considerable fame as a trial lawyer and clients, many of them with fat pocketbooks, bidding for his services.

Manhattan Jet Noise Only Local Plane

NEW YORK (AP) — The mystery of unidentified jet airplanes over Manhattan turned out today to be a case of interservice confusion.

A Navy plane from a Brooklyn field flew over the city on a photographic mission for an hour last night. An Air Force fighter-interceptor searched for an hour and a half, but couldn't find who was making the noise. Scores of residents telephoned police for several hours that jets were screaming overhead. The Navy and Air Force planes were both jets.

First reports of the mystery planes were at 10 p.m., and reports of jet flights kept pouring in for the next 2½ hours.

Duke, 'Old Salts' Meet

LONDON (INS) — The Duke of Windsor will be among 30 gold-braided old salts staging a get-together tonight at the United Service Club on Pall Mall. Over Port Brandy, the Duke will spin rip-roaring yarns with other members of the first naval class of the Royal Naval College at Osborne.

The Day in Birmingham

Board Hears Question of Street Oil Treatment

BIRMINGHAM—Few objections were heard Monday night as city commissioners held public hearings on three street improvement programs.

Mayor William Roberts explained to residents that the deletion of their streets would depend on further study by the city engineer. He said that if in the engineer's opinion it was imperative that the streets be treated this summer, requests would be denied.

Several persons said they felt the continued oil treatment was a waste of money and hinted that a better street was their ultimate desire. They were advised to secure signed petitions and present them to the commission.

The street oils for the 1957 program will be purchased from Leonard Refiners, Inc. This includes various types of oil for 53 streets at a cost of nearly $31,000 for the complete program. Special assessment rolls being prepared by the assessor will come up for public hearing at a later date.

Det. Lt. Merlin Holmquist is asking parents in the Quarton school district especially to be on the alert for any of their children seen playing with large bunches of keys.

Quarton school was entered Sunday and one of the offices ransacked. A ballpoint pen and a set of master keys for the building were taken. Holmquist said apparently a door to the building had been left open, and again advised all householders and businessmen to guard against this oversight.

Milford Woman Injured in Highway Accident

A Milford woman is in Pontiac General Hospital today after sustaining injuries in an accident on M59 near Hickory Ridge road.

Virginia Bowdoin, 56, of 2338 North St. reportedly struck the rear of a car being backed out of a driveway by Arthur W. Finley, 61, of 3465 S. Lone Tree Rd., Milford. She glanced off his car and veeped into a tree across the highway, sheriff's deputies said.

Brazos River Keeps Climbing

Floodwaters in Texas Continue to Threaten Rural Areas, Towns

DALLAS (AP)—Floodwaters of the muddy lower Brazos River already swirling over a 100-square-mile area of the coastal plains southwest of Houston, continued today to menace rural areas and towns.

★ ★ ★

Thousands of acres of rich farmland were flooded, washing out spring crops and adding to the mounting flood and tornado damage inflicted during the past stormy month in Texas. Total damage was set at 85 million dollars yesterday.

The Brazos spread to a width of 13 miles in places. An estimated 125 families fled their homes.

Water inched to within two miles of Angleton in Brazoria County, some 42 miles southwest of Houston. The town lies 12 miles from the normal banks of the river.

Levees were patched up in an effort to hold the rising water. National Guardsmen and state police were standing by to evacuate flooded residents.

Other rivers and streams in the state were down, but the Weather Bureau forecast another day of light rain today for most sections of Texas.

En route from Birmingham to Jackson the plane skidded 110 feet through a field after the engine conked out at 1,200 feet.

Owner and pilot of the craft was Frank E. Wickham, 48, of 645 Meadow Lake, Birmingham.

Mother Saves Tiny Daughter From Drowning

Tuesday afternoon, Amy Howard, 2, was chasing her pet kitten around the backyard of her home at 1177 General Motors Rd., in Milford Township. The kitten ran toward a nearby swamp, and Amy followed.

Amy's mother, Mrs. Delores Howard, noticed she wasn't in the yard. Then she heard choking sounds. She rushed down to the swamp but couldn't find Amy.

Janet Knowland, of 1225 General Motors Rd., heard Mrs. Howard calling for help. She rushed to her aid and together they found Amy floating on her back in the swamp water.

They frantically pulled her from the water and Mrs. Howard began applying artificial respiration. The Milford Fire Department was called and she was rushed to a doctor. Today, according to the Oakland County Sheriff's Department, Amy is doing fine.

Ike's Roving Ambassador Returns From Middle East

WASHINGTON (AP)—Roving Ambassador James P. Richards returns today to report to President Eisenhower that Middle Eastern countries are largely united in their determination to resist the spread of Soviet communism.

Richards has visited 15 Mideast countries during the last two months. He headed a mission sent to explain the Eisenhower program for using force if necessary to oppose any open aggression by international communism, and meanwhile to strengthen the region with economic and military assistance.

Before leaving Rabat, Morocco, last night, Richards told newsmen most of the countries accepted the principle of the Eisenhower program.

"None of the 15 nations which this mission has visited rejected proposals of American aid in the framework of the doctrine," he said.

Richards is understood to have committed about 115 million dollars of aid funds. Congress has authorized use of up to 200 millions for the program.

Officials said the mission was on the whole highly successful in focusing attention in the area on the Communist threat. It brought expressions by a dozen or more governments of determination to oppose communism.

If there was failure in any point it was in Richards' inability even to call on the leaders of Egypt, Syria and Jordan. In the case of Jordan, recently racked by internal crisis, the failure is not considered significant since King Hussein has put down pro-Soviet elements and succeeded in orienting his country toward the West. He also proclaimed that international communism was the enemy of Jordan.

Kremlin Continues to Hold Reins

Soviet Power Shift Phony

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
AP Foreign News Analyst

Nikita Khrushchev's new plan to "decentralize" the Soviet economy isn't the sweeping transfer of power from the Kremlin that a first glance might make it seem.

The Communist party boss has asked the Soviet Parliament, the Supreme Soviet, at its current session to approve the abolition of 20 large centralized ministries in Moscow. Their functions will be turned over to 92 regional economic councils scattered over the vast Soviet territory.

The party chief claims that many problems can be decided on the spot, without referring them to Moscow. The new economic organization, he says, will make possible sharp cuts in the huge army of supervising bureaucrats. He even claims that the center of gravity in economic affairs will be transferred from Moscow to the provinces.

There is probably some truth in this. The Soviet economy is now too large and complex for the present highly centralized administration.

But there can never be any real decentralization of authority until the Soviet government ceases to be totalitarian.

Close study shows that Khrushchev's new economic organization system does not relax the Kremlin's central authority and control in the least. It only transfers the transmission of that authority and control into a different channel of communication.

NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV

In the past the real Soviet government—the Communist Party Central Committee's Presidium and its secretariat—gave their orders on economic matters to ministers heading the ministries. Under the new plan the ruling group will give them to the top party secretaries in the various regions of the U.S.S.R.

The top men will not stop giving the orders, and they will probably give almost as many as they have been handing out.

Moscow will still set prices and wages, fix tax rates, collect taxes, disburse government expenditures, allocate scarce materials, operate and control the financial system, determine economic policies, allocate capital investments and set economic plans.

The Soviet government in Moscow will still control, under the same old ministries for the most part, the vast sectors of the industrial economy devoted to manufacture of arms, atomic weapons, electric power and machinery.

The Soviet government has come out before with much smaller schemes to decentralize the economy. They all failed.

Why? Because any genuine decentralization would require the Soviet government to limit its own powers. This contradicts the essence of Soviet totalitarianism.

4 Juveniles Held in Fatal Shooting During Holdup

STERLING CITY, Tex. (AP) — Four boys only 12 and 13 years old were taken into custody last night after a filling station attendant was shot to death in an attempted holdup.

They were captured after their car ran a police roadblock and turned over at San Angelo, Tex., 43 miles southeast of Sterling.

Sheriff Bill Green of Sterling County identified them as Mike Martinez, 13; Herman Lee Wright 13; Doyle Hail, 12; and Mickey Rocha, 13.

Martinz, Wright and Hail were slightly hurt when the car wrecked.

Lying on a stretcher at a hospital, young Wright asked policemen and Don Coopedge, a reporter for the San Angelo Times:

"What happened to that guy in Sterling City?"

"He died," a policeman answered.

"I knew we shouldn't have done it. Mike shot him. I didn't know what we were going to do. Mike shot him six times. He ran to the car and said: 'Let's go on.' Then he made me give him more bullets."

All the boys live at Big Spring, 45 miles northwest of Sterling in west Texas. No charges were filed against them immediately.

Detroit Educator Dies

DETROIT (INS)—Funeral service will be held today for Wales C. Martindale, former superintendent of Detroit schools. Martindale died Monday at the age of 94 at the White Hall Convalescent Home in Novi. He served as school chief from 1897 until 1912 being appointed to the post when he was only 35.

Criticizes Own Paintings

Grandma Moses Muses

NEW YORK (INS)—Grandma Moses is in New York to look at the "dreams" she has painted.

This most famous American "primitive" style painter, properly named Anna Mary Robertson Moses, will be 97 years old next September. Her face is wrinkled and mottled, but her eyes are bright blue and her speech is gay and down-to-earth.

Grandma, looking over the collection of her paintings which toured Europe, won rave reviews from each country's art critics, and are now on display at New York's Galerie St. Etienne, smiled at a painting and said:

The tiny little farm woman who became a world-famous painter at 76 explained that she "kind of remembered" the scenes she painted and that although some were from nature, "most all are imagination."

SHE REMINISCES

As she toured the exhibition of country scenes, painstakingly painted in gay, beautiful colors, she reminisced about the first car she saw in her upstate New York home in 1913; the many different kind of sleighs of her youth. She also had some sharp-eyed comments on "lots of things I could remedy" on some of the paintings.

Looking at the world from the point of view of a woman who was born the year Lincoln was elected president, Grandma Moses said:

"The world has changed greatly in the last 50 years. You hardly know where you're going. Fifty years ago there were just paths.

"Young people are changing—they're more forward, better educated. That's a great improvement. They're all working up to being president.

"In the next 50 years we'll have a woman president. Someday maybe we'll have two presidents—we have two parties, why not two presidents?"

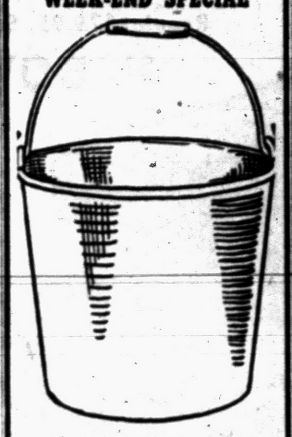

Mailmen Feed Dogs; Pets Repay Kindness

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Postmaster Fergus McRee reports his mail carriers have faithfully followed his advice to be kind to dogs — even to feed them dog candy — to keep from being bitten. And what happens?

Folks are complaining their dogs like the mail men so much they're following them around and getting lost.

"And people along one man's route," said McRee, "are complaining about the friendly dogs following him and running through their yards."

Deaths in Pontiac Area

HJALMAR T. ALLEN

Service for Hjalmer T. Allen, 55, of 97 N. Roselawn Dr. will be at 2 p.m. Friday from the Sparks-Griffin Chapel with the Rev. LeRoy W. Shafer of the First Church of the Brethren officiating. Burial will follow in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Allen died yesterday morning in Pontiac General Hospital after a brief illness.

MRS. JACK ALSTROM

Mrs. Jack (Clarice) Alstrom, 31, of B 10 Union Ct. died suddenly Monday afternoon at her residence.

She had been employed as an elevator operator at the Pontiac State Bank Bldg.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Alstrom is survived by her mother, Mrs. Jessie C. Denton of Tuscombia, Ala.; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Pappas of Pontiac and Mrs. Marie Strickland of Knoxville, Tenn.

Prayer service was conducted last night in the Sparks - Griffin Funeral Home by the Rev. James H. Luther of Silvercrest Baptist Church. Mrs. Alstrom's body was then sent to the Peck Funeral Home, Hartselle, Ala., for service and burial.

E. L. DINNAN

ITHACA — Service for E. L. Dinnan, who died Tuesday will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday from Beebe Funeral Home with burial in Ithaca Cemetery.

Formerly of Pontiac, Mr. Dinnan is survived by two daughters, Mrs. F. J. Tuson and Mrs. Merritt Rockwell of Ithaca, and four sons, Clarence, Edwin, and William of Pontiac and Leo of Oak Park.

RALPH JUDD

LAPEER — Service for Ralph Judd, former pitcher with the New York Yankees baseball club, who died here Monday night, will be at 1:30 p.m. Thursday from the Baird Funeral Home. The Rev. Frank Hemingway will officiate. Mr. Judd, 55, resided at 34 Adams St.

Surviving are his wife, the former Mrs. Irene Leach, whom he married Nov. 24, 1948; two stepchildren, Roger and Patricia Leach of Lapeer, and his father, William Judd of Lapeer.

MRS. CARRIE E. LOGAN

Service for Mrs. Carrie Elizabeth Logan of Fenton will be at 2 p.m. Friday from the Methodist Church, Fenton, with burial in Linden Cemetery. Mrs. Logan died this morning at University Hospital, Ann Arbor. Her body is at Bowles and Son Funeral Home, Linden.

She is survived by her husband Warren Logan; three daughters, Mrs. Charlotte McKenzie of Fenton, Mrs. Lillian Rozek of Lakeville and Mrs. Elizabeth Sanford of Grand Blanc.

MRS. ROBERT J. SELTZER

Mrs. Robert J. (Mary) Seltzer, 49, formerly of Pontiac, died yesterday in her home, 8140 Neff Rd., Mt. Morris after a prolonged illness.

Surviving besides her husband are her parents, Frank and Lettie Day Kinney of Atlanta; four sons, Philip Haslip of California, Delmar, Frank and Donald Haslip, all of Pontiac; three daughters, Mrs. Lila Neighbors of Pontiac, Mrs. Phyllis Spratt of Mt. Morris and Mrs. Mary Lou Graff of Detroit.

Also surviving are three sisters, Mrs. Ethel Preseau and Mrs. Frank Souler, both of Pontiac; and Mrs. Lyle Schell of Sterling; and three brothers, Ellsworth Kinney of Atlanta, Mark and John Kinney both of Pontiac.

Service will be at 1 p.m. Thursday from the Colonial Chapel of the Riegle Funeral Home, 2417 S. Saginaw St., Flint. Mrs. Seltzer's body will be brought to Ottawa Park Cemetery, 6180 Dixie Highway for burial.

STANLEY STREETER

DRAYTON PLAINS — Service for Stanley Streeter, 65, of 4746 Clinton Dr., was held at 1 p.m. today in the Coats Funeral Home. Burial followed in Lakeview Cemetery.

Mr. Streeter is survived by his wife, Elizabeth May; one son, Lyle of Drayton Plains; three step-children, Mrs. Marie Mileski of Kingston, Gerald Haines of Pontiac and Charles Haines of Drayton Plains; and one brother, Leo of Rockford.

Missing since last November 17, when he was hunting in the Porcupine Mountains in the Upper Peninsula, Mr. Streeter was found Saturday.

Mrs. Jennie L. Nique Dies at Thomas

THOMAS — Service for Mrs. Jennie Laura Nique, 64, of 440 First St., will be at 2 p.m. Friday from Bossardet-Mabley Funeral Home, Oxford. The Rev. Fred Clark will officiate and burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Nique, a Pontiac Press correspondent from Thomas for 30 years, died early yesterday.

Born in Hadley Township and a resident of Thomas for 52 years, Mrs. Thomas was a member of OES No. 428, Past Matrons Club, Oxford, the Maccabees and Thomas Community Club.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Helena Ward of Thomas; one daughter, Mrs. Verna Miller, of Oxford; and a sister, Mrs. Savilla Reed of Thomas.

Deaths Elsewhere

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — George P. F. Jouine, 72, who served as the first French consular agent in Houston, from 1924 to 1941, and head of the Gladys City Oil, Gas and Manufacturing Co., died yesterday. He was born in Bordeaux, France.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Addison Browne Dally, 95, board chairman of two oil firms and a director of a third and associated with Michael L. Benedum, famed oil wildcatter, for nearly 50 years, died yesterday. He was born in Pittsburgh.

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Dr. A. Leland Forrest, 44, chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan University in Lincoln since 1954 and formerly at Taylor University, Upland, Tex., and Anderson, Ind., College, died yesterday. He was born in Eastland, Tex.

CHICAGO (AP)—John P. Royston, 51, Chicago insurance broker, who supervised the Japanese insurance industry in the postwar reconstruction government died Monday. He was born in Hartford, Conn.

50 City Women Prepare to Take School Census

Pontiac school census takers are going to school today and tomorrow to learn correct methods of filling out the census forms.

Some 50 women will spread out over the city during the last 20 days in May, to visit each home and record the number of children from birth through 19 years of age, in accordance with state law.

Paul C. Allison, director of child accounting and census for the Pontiac School System, said all information collected will be kept in strict confidence. He urged householders to cooperate with the enumerators.

Information collected is used by the school system in planning its growth and is a basis for state aid to the school district.

Bowfishing Festival Set

GRAYLING (AP) — The Au Sable Bowfishing Carnival will be held near here May 11-12. More than 150 bow-hunters are expected to take part.

Study Asked to Give Towns Joint Protection

A study has been asked by Pontiac Rep. Leslie H. Hudson of the possibility of intregrating police and fire departments of adjacent villages and small towns in Michigan.

Hudson today introduced a resolution in the House of Representatives seeking appointment of a study committee.

He said there were many small communities which might unite in providing police and fire protection. "This would not only be a tremendous saving to the taxpayer, but would be more efficient," Hudson said.

★ ★ ★

The study is expected to be made between Legislative sessions with action probably to follow at the next session, the representative stated.

Bill Would Require Keeping Auto Plates

LANSING (AP) — Under a bill passed by the Senate, a motorist trading in his car would have to remove the state license plates and put them on the new vehicle.

The measure, which supportrs said would put Michigan in line with 23 other states, moved back to the house today for action on amendments.

Present law calls for license plates to go with the car in a transfer of ownership, rather than to stay with the oritinal registrant.

Sen. Frank Andrews (R-Hillman) said law enforcers favored the bill, contending it would help in readily identifying cars through reference to a list of registrations published state.

As things stand, the book is outdated almost from the time it is distributed, Andrews said.

Seven Killed Tuesday in Traffic Accidents

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Seven persons were killed in traffic accidents in Michigan Tuesday in a grim underlining of State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Child's warning that "May will be a bad month to try to hold the line" on traffic fatalities.

The seven deaths were in seven different auto smashups.

Childs said the state's highway death toll started edging up the very first days in May —14 in the first five days. The head of the state troopers said he feared a heavy toll for the month "Especially with Memorial Day coming on a Thursday to make a long weekend."

Childs added, however, that the traffic death total was down for each of the first four months of the year and Michigan still is running 136 behind last year at this time.

The State Traffic Safety Commission planned a stepped up safety program to forestall the expected highway carnage.

Mindszenty to Remain in American Legation

The Kadar regime in Hungary has made demands that the U.S. Legation remove "its strange guest," Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, outside the country.

When Soviet troops overthrew the revolutionary regime of Imre Nagy on November 4, the 65 year old Cardinal was given asylum in the legation. The Kadar government has charged repeatedly that he is permitted to use his place of refuge as a base for secret anti-government activity.

Our legation has replied that everything practicable is being done to see that no political or related activities are being conducted by Mindszenty.

★ ★ ★

In the Hungarian revolution the Primate of Hungary was rescued after seven years imprisonment on charges of treason. Through his long ordeal he became a living symbol of spiritual resistance to Communism. An observer, Dr. George A. Shuster, reported that "Mindszenty was and is the sole moral force in the country. The drive of this national upheaval draws strength from him."

★ ★ ★

While our State Department cannot be too happy about the situation, Foreign Service regulations state "refuge may be afforded to uninvited refugees whose lives are in imminent danger from mob violence but only for the period during which active danger continues."

The Cardinal still is in serious danger. A recent Communist demonstration in Budapest called for "no halfway measures, smash Mindszenty."

Progress in Health

Advances in medicine and public health and a higher standard of living have cut the communicable disease death rate in the United States by 90 per cent, said Health Information Foundation.

In 1900 the Foundation points out, three communicable diseases — pneumonia, diarrhea and enteritis — caused nearly a third of all deaths. Today they are responsible for only one-twentieth.

These diseases still are an important menace to health. The pneumonia-influenza group is the sixth leading cause of death, killing 45,000 last year. However, the sulfonamides, penicillin and other antibiotics are helping to bring about a notable decline in the pneumonia death rate.

Mortality from tuberculosis in the past 56 years has declined from 199 to 8 per 100,000. But tuberculosis still is a great health problem with 100,000 new cases being reported in the U.S. in 1955.

★ ★ ★

Health Information Foundation reports that the decline in TB deaths is due to better housing and nutrition as well as new drugs. Early detection through mass X-ray examinations is an important factor.

★ ★ ★

The sharpest decline in deaths from contagious disease is among the age groups in and around the child bearing and peak income years. "We can never hope to measure what this progress means to family life and to the many individuals who might not otherwise enjoy their parents and a home during their formative years," declares Foundation President George Bugbee.

★ ★ ★

Advances in medicine alone cannot guarantee progress. But if an informed public will take advantage of the benefits of modern medical care, progress is assured.

Overheard, in a dream of things to come: "Yes, son, you may use the space ship this evening, but don't go any farther than the moon, and return home by midnight."

The poet's statement that his head was "bloody, but unbowed" contains the explanation of why it was bloody, that is, because he refused to bow to the inevitable.

Display Will Be at Its Peak Beginning Sunday

Antique: A chair that isn't worth ten cents but sells for $100.

For at least a week, beginning next Sunday, Mother's Day, the tulips at

White Chapel Memorial Park

in Troy Township, will be at their best. According to over 100,000 blossoms will be on display, in colors that defy the rainbow, and in a number of new varieties.

This annual tulip showing, which we believe tops anything of that nature in the entire nation, is for the free inspection of the public every day, including Sundays, from eight o'clock in the morning until sundown.

It is ten miles southeast of Pontiac, the best route there being through Auburn Heights to Crooks Road where you turn right for three miles to East Long Lake Road.

The entrance is on East Long Lake Road, just east of Crooks Road. Keep to the right in making all turns and on all driveways in the park, and you can see the whole display without leaving your car. You can escape late traffic jams at the park by going there early in the day.

Verbal Orchids to—

The Roughed Up Rider

David Lawrence Says:

Eisenhower Keeps Us Out of War

WASHINGTON — There seems to be a strange mood of irritation developing in the country. The gripes are many—high taxes, high spending, rising costs, profit squeezes in business, "tight money," and a variety of collateral grievances.

LAWRENCE

Many of the critics are trying to make President Eisenhower the scapegoat. Adverse comment is heard not merely from Democrats but also from Republicans, who are murmuring that Ike has gone back on his campaign pledges to reduce taxes and Federal spending, or that he is away from the White House too much or isn't giving earnest attention to the job.

★ ★ ★

Several of these points were first emphasized in statements from Democratic Party headquarters here. They were inspired in large part by leaders in a Congress controlled by the Democratic Party, which feels a daily impulse to generate publicity that is critical of the administration, on the theory that this is good political strategy between campaigns. Some Republicans mistakenly assume the wave of criticism is a tide and, instead of battling it, they swim with its political currents.

The sniping by all concerned is having its effect and many citizens are now beginning to blame all their ills on the President.

Yet only six months have gone by since the election in which the same man—Dwight Eisenhower—won such an overwhelming victory at the polls.

What's happened since?

Certainly the two major issues in the last campaign have not by any means become politically less important. The nation is at peace and is prosperous. There is no unemployment crisis. Profits in business over-all are in some categories not as big as before, but they are still profits—not losses.

Just six months ago everybody was worried about a war in the Middle East. Britain and France had actually started a fight against Egypt. Little wars—as experience showed in Korea—can turn into big wars. There was a basis for real apprehension last autumn. President Eisenhower stood firm. At the risk of offending our allies, the United States took a different position from them and did prevent a big war from breaking out—in fact, took a hand in making peace by securing the early withdrawal of British, French and Isreali troops from Egypt.

This has not necessarily brought a settlement of all the vexatious problems of the Middle East, but certainly it has resulted in a breaking up of the war clouds. Saudi Arabia, Lebanon, Jordan, Iraq, Iran and Israel are all on our side, and India isn't hostile. The Eisenhower Doctrine has surely made progress. The Suez Canal is open and oil shipments are flowing to Europe again.

Does all this mean much to the average citizen in America? What would be happening today if war had come last autumn? Would the "spending" be less now? Would not the Federal budget have skyrocketed by this time?

Also, what about the young men now in school or in their peacetime jobs? Wouldn't most of them be talking to draft boards about the day for their call to uniform? How would the parents who are complaining today compare their present discontent with the emotions they would have felt at seeing their sons going off to war, many of them leaving wives and children behind? Would we be talking more of atom-bomb shelters than of taxes in this month of May, 1957?

OBVIOUS ANSWERS

These questions answer themselves, as the American people do not want to get into any war except in case of absolute necessity. They expect the President of the United States to do everything he can to keep them out of every war.

★ ★ ★

One wonders sometimes why anyone would want to be president of the United States in an age in which so many people disregard the basic facts of life and, petulantly giving vent to their materialism, fail—even in an atomic era—to count the blessings of peace.

(Copyright, 1957)

Dr. William Brady Says:

Free Country? Try to Buy Makings for Cough Syrup!

From the increasing difficulties readers tell me they encounter in trying to buy various items for whipping up a batch of this or that home remedy, I get the impression pharmacist is doomed to go the way of the dodo bird.

DR. BRADY

Powdered Benzoin
Lanolin
Boroglyceride
Sodium Citrate
Whole flaxseeds
Salicylic Acid
Mild Tincture of Iodin (also spelled Iodine)
Boric acid

Formerly every one of these items was available. Any one could purchase some in any drugstore that purported to serve the public, and without impertinent cross-examination as to what he intended to do with it.

As it becomes more and more difficult to buy drugs in drugstores the cubbyhole assigned to the prescription pharmacist, if the store employs one, becomes smaller and smaller.

BLEAK OUTLOOK

It begins to look as though the drugstore of tomorrow will stock no drugs and need no pharmacist. It will be a kind of serve-yourself emporium where the shelves and bins will be kept always filled with not only popular proprietary medicines but also the "ethical" nostrums that trick specialists and "klinik" racketeers, seems to prefer to prescriptions.

On first thought it might seem reasonable to think the drugstore of the future will have special shelves or bins for all these home remedies. But it isn't at all likely that they will.

In the first place, the nostrum makers, popular and medical, are pretty powerful and ruthless. When too many customers asked for sodium citrate and, on cross-examination, admitted they wanted to whip up a batch of Fool Proof homemade Cough Medicine as recommended by this Dr. Grady, Bradley, or what's his name in the newspaper, sodium citrate presently came in a box—the label of which read: "To be sold only on prescription."

But people can stock up on potassium citrate, a good substitute for sodium citrate in the home-made cough medicine. That, too, might become restricted to sale by prescription.

If you try to buy potassium citrate to use in place of sodium citrate for making the cough medicine (described in Call it CRI, 35 cents and stamped self-addressed envelope), please tell me what luck you have.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

LI'L ONES

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Discard 10 Pounds in 10 Days

Charley is typical of many high-pressure business executives. He eats too much, largely as a nervous habit. So he wonders if smoking would discourage his overeating. And what would be the ultimate effects on his high blood pressure? Scrapbook this case with its follow-up tomorrow.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CRANE

"But I am certainly not a good ad for our company," he said ruefully.

"For my blood pressure is now 174 and my weight is 196, though I am only 5' 10" tall.

"In college I used to box in the middleweight division, for my weight then was only 156.

"Dr. Crane, it is tough for me to diet. I get keyed up by the very nature of my sales pressure, so I tend to eat as a means of killing time.

"If I smoked cigarettes, I'd probably not eat as much, but isn't smoking as bad as overweight? So what can I do?"

HOW TO DIET

Yes, smoking is apparently much worse than obesity so never figuratively jump from the frying pan into the fire, as by adopting the cigarette habit to check your overeating.

★ ★ ★

Instead, go on a diet. But this is not as easy as to break the tobacco or liquor habits, for you can't stop eating entirely.

Dieters must taper off! Yet it is a psychological truth that the easiest way to break a bad habit is to quit entirely and abruptly.

Cigarette addicts and liquor slaves can break off those bad habits all at once. But we human beings who tend to become too fat, must taper off.

"But I want to lose this extra weight in a hurry!" most people feel.

Well, Charley can't lose his 40 pounds of excess fat in a week or month. It took him 25 years to put it on, so he should be willing to spend 25 weeks taking it off.

LOSE 10 LBS. IN 10 DAYS

It does bolster our morale, however, to lose 10 lbs., in the first 10 days of dieting.

You can do it easily during cool weather by cutting down on your liquid intake. For example, if you women will limit your calorie input to 800 calories per day and you men stick to 1,200, you can be down 10 lbs. in 10 days, by the following fluid restrictions:

First day, drink a total of only one full glass (8 oz.) of fluids. These include water, milk, fruit juices, coffee or tea, etc.

Second day, you may drink two full glasses.

Third day, you may now have three full glasses. And from this day on through the 10th day, also restrict your liquid to three full glasses per day.

You'll grow thirsty. Your mouth will feel cottony. But your food intake will not disturb you seriously even on that 800 or 1,200 daily input.

To help quench your thirst, pour one glass of water into a full ice tray, leaving the partitions therein.

Obviously, the 10 lbs. you lose in 10 days will be partly water. But this quick boost to your morale is essential in dieting.

You can thus take in your belt or your girdle a notch or two in just 10 days time!

Meanwhile, your stomach will have shrunk so you'll feel fairly full on your 800 or 1,200 daily input of calories.

Readers Reply to Letters by Mr. Kern on Hospital

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

In regards to out-of-city patients in General Hospital sharing the cost, we sure do. I've been in General several times and have paid the standard fee for semi-private room service plus 15 per cent surtax. Based on a 10-day stay, with room charge at $18, that would be $27 surtax. Do taxpayers pay $27 a year (not just 10 days) for the hospital?

Mrs. Katharine Moody
5751 Eldridge St.

Mr. Kern says Pontiac had $2 million in cash in 1954 and infers something happened to it. Isn't that what we used to pay for the city hall? When Mr. Kern speaks of unproductive expenses, does he mean that work of policemen, firemen and teachers is not productive or worthwhile? You can cut taxes by discharging half the police like Waterford did, and you can close some of the fire halls and stop building schools. You can sure cut taxes if you want to cut services. But who wants to live or do business in such a cheap town? Try doing without some of these things, and you'll soon find out you get more for your local tax dollar than any money you spend. There are too many good things to be thankful for and Mr. Kern should start looking.

Average Taxpayer

Mr. Rapaport asks Mr. Kern what his father did with a commission his father made on a sale which resulted in a City parking lot. May I ask him a few questions?

When must a son necessarily have to answer for his father's actions? What business is it of yours what his father does with the profits of his business? We don't ask you what you do with yours. Why shouldn't a man be privileged to expect an answer to a question directed at city officials? It's his right.

Some people make fools of themselves by making stupid statements and asking foolish questions. I don't say Mr. Rapaport did this, but if the shoe fits, wear it.

Joseph C. Medrano
40 Williams St.

Concerning Mr. Kern's question of out-county patients using General Hospital has been answered once but it seems he needs a second reply. Don't worry, Mr. Kern, we aren't sponging off Pontiac taxpayers. In addition to sky-high hospital rates, we pay a 15 per cent surtax on our entire bill. Maybe that doesn't seem like much to you, but to plain, working people it amounts to quite a bit. So you see, Mr. Kern, the good people, as you sarcastically called us, shouldn't have to be invited to share any further in financing your hospital.

One Who Paid

Paul Kern seems to be an expert in asking questions. I wonder how expert he is at answering a few. He wants a frank discussion, so let's have it on everybody's questions, not just his. Many people would like to know how much commission the Paul Kern Real Estate firm got for selling the parking lot property on East Pike street that the city later had to condemn at a very high price. Was Paul Kern's father on the Commission when that happened? If he was, why didn't he stop it? Let's have an answer to these along with the rest of the questions so that everybody can know all the facts.

Men Leave Marks in Different Fields

It is strange in a way that two men from Appleton, Wis., to make, in different fields, a mark for America that will be difficult to beat. Harry Houdini (real name Ehrich Weiss), of Hungarian-Jewish parentage, left a remarkable collection of material on magic and spiritualism to the Library of Congress in Washington. He launched a strenuous campaign against spiritualists during his lifetime.

Joseph R. McCarthy launched a terrific campaign against communism. May all his material and records be given to the Library of Congress to remain for all time. The Senator was truly a Senator, not a political spectator of world affairs. The world stage is set, the curtain seems ready to go up, next act on stage.

Right Numbers Write a Check in Pot-O-Gold

That's right, the right combination of numbers on your entry to Pot-O-Gold means that a check for $700 may be written for you. That's what the pot amounts to now, after several weeks of steady growth. Even if a winner is found for last week's puzzle, the check will still be made out for $100, plus $25 if you'r a Press subscriber. Read directions, rules and clues below and see if you can be the lucky winner.

The new puzzle contains a series of squares which are alphabetically lettered and a corresponding list of sentences with two clue words. Each of the words is numbered. The object is to select the word which you think best fits the clue sentence. You then place the number of that word in the square which has the same letter as the clue sentence.

In other words, you will read the clue labeled A and decide which of the two words makes the most sense in the sentence. You then write the number of that word in the puzzle square marked A.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.

2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answers in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 49 must bear a Tuesday, May 14, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries becoming the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Medical Bills Soar, Hospital Head Says

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Hospital bills are going up, and the president of the American Hospital Assn. frankly admits he's worried about who's going to pay them.

Dr. Albert W. Snoke said at a news conference yesterday that insurance may provide an answer to the problem. But he indicated that it may eventually become necessary for the government to furnish some help.

Snoke, who came here from Grace — New Haven Hospital in Connecticut for speaking engagements, said hospital expenses and hospital bills will keep climbing at the rate of about five per cent a year.

Boilermakers Rap Ancient Saying About Their Job

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The International Brotherhood of Boilermakers — blacksmiths today spiked a popular old saying — "noisy as a boiler factory"—as something which simply isn't true any more.

TOY BANKS — 3. The Money Monkey

Just after the Civil War, mechanical toy banks began to appear in America. They were made of cast iron in foundries, and showed some of the wonderful ingenuity that goes into American machinery. The little banks amused grownups and children alike, because they were so clever that one always got at least a penny's worth of entertainment for every penny saved.

These old banks usually had a humorous subject, showing people or animals in some familiar action that was set off by the fall of the coin into the container. A little girl fed her dog to make his tail wag; a politician put the coin in his pocket; a clown would stick out his tongue, or a watch-dog leap up at a boy climbing over a fence.

Universities Face Problem of Mounting Enrollment

NEW YORK (AP) — Presidents of land-grant colleges and state universities, meeting togther for the first time, heard Tuesday that their public institutions face a growing crisis of mounting enrollment and lack of funds.

The sessions are sponsored jointly by the American Assn. of Land-Grant Colleges and State Universities Assn. A total of 92 institutions are represented by the two associations, located in all the states, Alaska and Puerto Rico.

A survey, prepared from questionnaires distributed among member colleges, was to be presented to the meeting. It said?

"Unless broad educational opportunity of high quality is held open to the qualified, we shall see a severe and, perhaps, nationally fatal, shortage of trained and skilled men and women in our society."

1. 65.3 per cent of the institutions polled said the suggestion had been made in their legislatures that the financial need be met by raising student tuition fees.

2. 75 per cent of the institutions said the question had been raised by limiting the number of students admitted. Almost all of this group saw such limitation as the only answer to maintaining educational quality if new funds are not provided.

3. The institutions requested an average increase in operating funds of 27.7 per cent for 1957-58 over the previous year.

4. Sixty-six of the institutions indicated a need for new construction funds from their states amounting to a total of three-quarters of a billion dollars for the next two years.

★ ★ ★

Unless something is done to meet the situation, the survey concluded, the general assumption "may well be invalid" that public higher learning institutions would expand to meet the growing population needs.

Cherry Crop Hit Slightly by Frost

Blossoms to Be Good if Freezing Weather Is Not Encountered

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Spotty frost damage has been reported in the Grand Traverse region cherry crop with predictions that the set of blossoms generally should be good if further freezing temperatures are not encountered.

Clarence Mullett, district horticultural agent, said the Grand Traverse region embraces a few small "pockets" where cold air was stagnant over the past weekend. Some farmers may suffer substantial losses in these areas, but others escaped almost completely, he said.

Temperatures reached 26 Saturday night in the Traverse City area. Readings of 28 and 29 were general in area orchards for about two hours early Sunday, Mullett said. He added that the cherry crops have escaped without serious damage from similar temperatures in previous years.

Mullett reported that sweet cherries in heavy bloom suffered less over the weekend than sours. He said the overall picture for both varieties looked better than last year.

Last Hungarian Freedom-Fighter Leaves Kilmer

CAMP KILMER, N. J. (AP)—This former Army camp is slated to lapse back into obscurity tomorrow after a brief return to glory late last year when it became the threshold to freedom for thousands of Hungarian refugees.

★ ★ ★

The last busload will leave the reception center after a brief ceremony. A group from President Eisenhower's Committee on Refugee Relief will join with Brig. Gen. Sidney C. Wooten in the ceremony.

All in all, over 25,000 refugees have passed through the camp to new homes in this country.

The last refugees to leave are widowed mothers and some Hungarians with special skills who have not yet been placed. They will go to the St. George Hotel in Brooklyn, where they will be cared for by private refugee relief agencies.

Russia Can Bomb U.S., Expert Warns

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (INS) — One of the nation's top air defense experts warns the United States faces "for the first time in our history the possibility of a catastrophic attack on our own homes and our cities."

Maj. Gen. Marshall S. Carter, chief of staff of Continental Air Defense Command in Colorado Springs, said the Soviets have a capability of sending 500 intercontinental bombers over the U.S. "at a time and place of their own choosing."

A selection of only 50 American targets, Carter said, would bring 40 per cent of the U.S. population and 60 per cent of our industry under threat.

Group Moves to Head Off Honduras Border Trouble

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP)—The Organization of American States moved today to head off new border trouble as Honduras accused Nicaragua of breaking the three-day-old truce with attacks at two points.

Nicaragua quickly denied the charges. A spokesman for President Luis Somoza declared his government "sticks to its commitments" to the cease-fire the OAS team negotiated last weekend.

OAS officials rushed investigators to the border last night after Honduran Foreign Minister Jorge Fidel Duron protested that Nicaraguan troops had assaulted Cifuentes. He also claimed the Honduran border town of Las Manos had been subjected to a mortar attack.

Cifuentes is on the frontier about 150 miles west of the Indian village of Mocoron, where the border fighting began last week. An unofficial source said several hundred Nicaraguan troops attacked Cifuentes early yesterday. A government communique said the Nicaraguans were driven off "without a single casualty on our side."

Denying the Honduran accusation, President Somoza said in Managua only five Nicaraguan policemen were in the area on his side of the border.

Honduran officials also charged Nicaragua had received a shipment of planes and other equipment from the Dominican Republic.

The OAS commission flew a Panamanian and two American officers to Cifuentes to investigate.

Informants said the junta insisted that Nicaragua pull her troops from the area of the Segovia, or Coco, River. Honduras contends the river forms the boundary in the east. Nicaragua claims both sides of the stream.

Residents of Toronto believe Yonge street may actually be the longest street in the world. It continues as Ontario highway No. 11 as it leaves the city and runs on an additional 885 miles.

Formosa to Get Guided Missiles

Red China Warns U.S. It Still Plans to Seek 'Liberation' of Island

HONG KONG (AP) — Red China warned today the stationing of U.S. guided missiles on Formosa will not shake its intention to "liberate" the Nationalist Chinese island.

★ ★ ★

The United States announced yesterday it had agreed with Chiang Kai-shek's government to station a U.S. Air Force unit on Formosa equipped with Matador missiles. Vice Adm. Stuart H. Ingersoll, the U. S. 7th Fleet commander, announced earlier today advance units equipped with Matadors already had arrived on Formosa.

★ ★ ★

The Matador can carry nuclear warheads and has a range of several hundred miles, enough to hit some of Red China's biggest air bases opposite Formosa. The United States said the missiles were being stationed on Formosa solely for the defensive purpose of deterring and if necessary repelling an attack.

The expected Chinese Communist reaction was broadcast by the Peiping radio.

Quoting the official Communist party organ, Peiping People's Daily, it said the "Chinese people's determination to liberate Taiwan (Formosa) will never be shaken by the stationing of an American atomic weapons unit on that island."

Says Egypt's Jews to Resettle in Israel

JERUSALEM (AP) — A Jewish Agency official said today the entire Jewish community in Egypt will be resettled in Israel or other countries by September.

Zalman Sharagai, head of the agency's immigration department said that at the time of the Sinai invasion last November nearly 40,000 Jews were in Egypt.

Since then, he said, 15,000 have immigrated to Israel or are in assembly points in Europe awaiting passage. An additional 12,000 are expected by September.

Frank Lloyd Wright Lights Fuse in Arizona Controversy

PHOENIX, Ariz. (INS) — World-famed architect Frank Lloyd Wright — whose recent designs range from a mile-high skyscraper to a house made from balloons — has lit the fuse to an explosive controversy that may blast the ancient Arizona statehouse into oblivion.

The 87-year-old Wright, who has his winter headquarters on the Arizona desert north of Phoenix, is making headlines throughout the state with his "functional" design for a new state capitol.

Opposing Wright and his plans for a sprawling single-lever capitol — topped with a hexagonal open-work dome — which he calls "Oasis," is a group of Phoenix architects who have been commissioned by the State Planning and Building Commission.

The state-commissioned group, known as the Associated State Capitol Architects, has offered designs for a 26-story skyscraper, similar to United Nations headquarters in New York.

Its chief spokesman is Albert B. Spector, an outspoken and dynamic Phoenix attorney who has been openly critical of Wright in the verbal battle over what shape the proposed capitol should take.

★ ★ ★

Wright describes the skyscraper as a "monstrous aberration," "a derby hat on top of a telephone pole" not suited to the Arizona landscape. In acrid and sarcastic terms, he has lashed out at the architects for what he calls "their utter disregard for the natural beauty of Arizona."

NOT NEW YORK

Insisting that "a capitol in the sun country should not resemble anything in New York," Wright suggests that his building be placed in PaPago Park, a state-owned, desert tract east of Phoenix.

He argues that any plans to place a new capitol at its present location near downtown Phoenix would only further complicate the city's traffic problems.

Under Wright's recommendations, both houses of the State Legislature, the governor's office and the State Supreme Court would be located in "Oasis," with what he described as the "lesser functions of state government" remaining in the present capitol.

Wright's ultra-modern and unique "Oasis" includes plans for several fountains and gardens of desert cactus. He says the design is "as natural as nature itself" and would attract persons all over the world to Arizona.

Spector points out the state constitution fixes the site for the capitol within the cty limts of Phoenx, adding that Papago Park is "some nine miles from the present complex of state government functions in the existing capitol area.

Acknowledging Wright's "great contribution to American architecture as a kind of fermenting or catalytic force," spector charges the "Oasis" plan "completely fails to understand the complicated flow of work between all the administrative agencies, the governor's office and the legislature.

Will Kennedy Saga End in White House?

(This is the third of five articles by a famed reporter on one of America's most remarkable families, the Kennedys of Boston).

By BOB CONSIDINE

The Kennedy Saga began in the great Potato Famine of more than a century ago. Conceivably it could end, or be climaxed, in the White House.

Sen. John F. Kennedy, whose friends in the Democratic party insist he will be re-elected in Massachusetts next year and move on to the presidency in 1960 or 1964, is the great grandson of a penniless Irish immigrant driven by hunger to the U. S. in the 1850s. He chose Boston, naturally.

All but inevitably, the immigrant's son Patrick Joseph, opened a saloon and became a political leader among the stevedores, roustabouts and bums who peopled the Boston mudflats. He married Mary Hickey, another good Democrat, and to them was born on Sept. 6, 1888, a tough, wiry, red-headed male child they christened Joseph Patrick—who was to have a mercurial career in business, diplomacy and public affairs, and, to boot, sire nine remarkable children.

In the eyes of Pat and Mary Kennedy, as, significantly, the lace curtains went up in their windows, nothing would be too good for Joe. With his million dollar smile, Joe breezed through Boston Latin School, then Harvard, no less, where he won big league offers as a first baseman. He earned his A.B. in 1912 and announced, on graduation day, that he'd have a million dollars to match his smile by the time he was 35.

BANK PRESIDENT

It turned out to be a conservative estimate. At 25, he was the nation's youngest bank president (Columbia Trust Co., Boston.) At 29, he virtually ran the fast Fore River plant of the Bethlehem Steel Shipbuilding Corp., a colossus of World War I. His million came shortly thereafter, in the market, and many more have been added in the ensuing years. The man was an Irish Midas.

Kennedy's father, who was sent to the Massachusetts Senate by grateful constituents and old saloon customers, for years conducted a fuming feud with another redoubtable Boston politician who was destined twice to be mayor of the city—John F. "Honey Fitz" Fitzgerald. Some of their battles are reflected in "The Last Hurrah."

But it came to pass that one fine evening the O'Montagues and the O'Capulets of Boston Irish Catholic politics attended the Redberry Club for a feed and a dance—and Joe met Rose Fitzgerald.

SANG AT RECEPTION

The beautiful Rose was a graduate of Dorchester, Mass., High, had studied two years at the Sacred Heart Academy at Aix-la-Chapelle, and had finished Sacred Heart Academy at Manhattanville, N. Y. She spoke French and German fluently, and understood Harvard. They were married in the private chapel of Boston's sometimes thunderous William Cardinal O'Connell in October, 1914. "Honey Fitz" sang "Sweet Adeline" at the reception. Joe borrowed $2,000 from his father to launch his married life.

Their children commenced with Joe Jr., an astonishingly handsome and gifted lad born in 1915 and killed in 1944, followed by John, Rosemary, Kathleen, killed in 1948, Eunice, Patricia, Robert, Jean and Edward.

With more money than he could spend the rest of his life, but keenly worried about the stricken nature of the U. S. during the depression, Joe Kennedy turned his eyes to the national political picture in the early 1930s. Partially because of his friend and fellow teetotaler Jim Farley, all he could see on the horizon was the governor of New York, Franklin Delano Roosevelt. He became one of F. D. R.'s campaign advisers and rode with him to national and international fame.

* * *

In the end it was a betrayed confidence that caused Kennedy's resignation as ambassador to the court of St. James. In an off-the-record meeting with a group of Nieman Fellows from his alma mater, Kennedy mentioned King Geore VI's impediment in speech, his shyness and uncertainty. He said his first impression of Queen Elizabeth was that "she looked like an ordinary, rather dowdy middle class American housewife."

* * *

He went on to praise the king's innate strength and the queen's splendid judgment. But the praise was lost in the headlines which soon proclaimed that Kennedy's trust in at least two of the Fellows had been misplaced. He went to Washington and handed Roosevelt his resignation.

* * *

Swedish King Ignores Pomp

Stuffed Shirt? Not Gustav!

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

Swedish King Gustaf Adolf VI has surprised no one by asking only that his granddaughter wait a year or so before marrying a jazz-playing British commoner.

His attitude of duty tempered with love, toward attractive Princess Margaretha was foretold when he became "king of the Swedes, the Goths and the Wends" on the death of his 92-year-old father in 1950.

He foreswore a coronation ceremony as a waste of money, called on government officials to do their jobs with "tolerance, wisdom and humanity" and announced his adopted motto: "Duty comes first."

NOT OPPOSED

Now, palace informants say, he is unopposed to Margaretha's marriage to Robin Douglas-Home, 25, a British advertising man who is the nephew of the Earl of Home. Young Douglas-Home supplements his income by playing jazz piano in a London hotel.

King Gustav has never been one to stand on ceremony or royal prerogative. He was educated in public schools and Upsala university, took military training just like other Swedish youths and was an outstanding athlete.

For many years he was president of the Athletic Association of Sweden and of the Swedish Skiing Association. As he gave up his active participation in those sports, he turned more and more to the arts, travel, social welfare and especially archeology, doing research in China and Greece as well as in Sweden.

He was married in 1905 to the British Princess Margaret of Connaught, daughter of the Duke of Connaught, third son of Queen Victoria. She died in 1920, and three years later the king wed Lady Louise Mountbatten, aunt of Prince Philip, husband of Britain's Queen Elizabeth.

The lanky, energetic king, who neither smokes nor drinks, has twice visited the United States — in 1926 and 1938. Perhaps one of the most telling stories of his lack of pomposity came out of San Giovenale, Italy, last year.

There villagers marveled at a distinguished-looking gentleman who called himself the "Count of Gripsholm" and scratched around in the mud. It turned out, of course, that the count was King Gustav and he was scratching for the important archeological remains of an Etruscan Necropolis of the Sixth Century B. C.

Model Photo

"Wasn't getting enough relief from the shots I took," writes W. W., Chicago, Ill. "Then took Pinkham's Tablets. Now I don't wake up nights with hot flashes. My disposition is sunnier and I don't have 'sorry for myself' spells!"

Medical science now offers women new freedom from much of the misery of change-of-life, thanks to an amazing new tablet developed especially to relieve these functionally-caused discomforts. Doctors reported sensational results using this home treatment alone . . . and no expensive injections!

Relief for 8 out of 10 tested!

Irritability, tortured nerves were calmed. Dizziness relieved. Awful hot flashes subsided. For woman after woman, a feeling of "well-being" returned!

Unlike aspirin and such "general purpose" remedies, this new tablet is a unique combination of special medicines...acts directly on the cause of these troubles... works through a woman's sympathetic nervous system to relieve tense feelings and physical distress that bring unhappiness to so many. Clinical tests prove this positive medical action.

Now you can get this amazing formula at drugstores without prescription. Ask for "Lydia Pinkham's Tablets". Don't let change-of-life rob you of joy! Get easy-to-take Pinkham's Tablets. Contain blood-building iron. See how fast you can feel your happy self again — without troublesome injections! (Also liquid Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.)

150 Escape in Fire at Quebec Hospital

QUEBEC (AP)—More than 150 patients were evacuated safely yesterday from a burning wing of a hospital. No injuries were reported.

* * *

Fire started near the roof of the seven-story wing of the Hotel Dieu and was brought under control by firemen in an hour. Rescue workers moved 115 patients to other hospitals.

No estimate of the loss was available. The origin of the fire has not been determined.

* * *

The hospital, operated by the women's religious order of Les Augustines de la Misericorde de Jesus, was established in 1639. The wing where the fire occurred was built 26 years ago.

The entire Island of Cuba will be aerially surveyed.

East, West Meet as Women Leaders Confer

By OLGA CURTIS

NEW YORK (INS)—East or West, what a working woman needs most is "a tolerant husband."

And 14 women leaders from Asia agreed today that Asian husbands are slowly becoming more tolerant toward the idea of women working away from home—either for the community or for pay.

The women leaders from 12 countries today began a three-week meeting with U.S. women leaders to exchange ideas on "the role of women in the community."

The Asian women said that the Oriental woman's place is still pretty much in the home, but added that "when women go out to work to help the family budget, men begin to appreciate the idea."

The chief problem shared by American and Asian women alike, they reported, was "overcrowded schools."

SCHOOLS ON 2 SHIFTS

Miss Helen Yeh of Taiwan (Formosa), a member of the Taiwan Legislature, reported that Asian educators are resorting to "double-shift classes" like those in the U.S. to give all students a chance.

"We have 60 to 70 children in each class and not enough teachers," added Mrs. Pung-Peng-Cheng of Cambodia, an elementary school principal.

★ ★ ★

One solution to the problem of not enough school buildings was disclosed by Mrs. Carmen Guerrero Nakpil, Philippine newspaperwoman. She said:

"The Philippine government provides pre-fab school buildings for villages. The villagers themselves donate the labor to to put up the school."

Another answer was given by Mrs. In Shil Moon of Korea, who said Korean students pay for their own buildings by study fees, which are used for new school construction.

The women agreed that juvenile delinquency in its U.S. form is not yet known in Asia, except in the Philippines.

CHILDREN OBEY

American parents are "too permissive" to their children, the women noted. Mrs. Lulu Bilquis Banu of East Pakistan pointed out that children in Asia obey their parents so long as they live with them, even if the child gets to be "40 or 50."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Mithan Lam, India's first woman lawyer who is now sheriff of Bombay, added:

"Our delinquency is limited to . . . things that stem from poverty and neglect. There is no gang vandalism."

The 14 Asian women leaders were brought to the U.S. under the auspices of the "Committee of Correspondence," a non-profit women's group, and the U. S. State Department. Each will spend three weeks studying general and special topics.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Seichi Hane of Japan, wife of the governor of Fukui Prefecture, who is interested primarily in institutions for retarded children, will study child welfare work.

Mrs. Mary Khin Htet of Burma, who will direct a new rural training center for women in Burma, hopes to concentrate on farm affairs.

Other members of the group are Mrs. Paramita Abdoerachman of Indonesia, Mrs. Ralph Deraniyagala of Ceylon, Dr. Orawan Koonsival of Thailand, Mrs. Henry Lall of West Pakistan, Mrs. Leela Demadaron Menon of India, Mrs. Margaret Kiat Neo Smith of Singapore, and Mrs. Mary Saleh of Indonesia.

Action to Pave Way for 328-Stall Area

City to Condemn Land for Parking Lot

The city will institute condemnation proceedings to acquire the last parcels of land needed to complete the municipal parking lot at Jacokes and Lafayette streets.

City commissioners at their weekly meeting last evening authorized City Attorney William A. Ewart to initiate court action to secure parts of three lots of assessor's plat 35 which is west of Oakland avenue and north of Lafayette.

City Manager Walter K. Willman assured Commissioner Floyd P. Miles that acquiring this property concludes all negotiations for the large 328-stall lot started last year.

Willman added: "They (the property owners) haven't been willing sellers. They are desirous of this condemnation attempt."

CAN BE ADDED

The manager further explained that with the transaction, 140 more planned spaces can be added to the lot, as well as an entrance off Oakland avenue.

Most other action consuming three hours last night centered around public hearings for certain street improvement projects to be undertaken this year in Pontiac.

Willman announced that chloride applications to unpaved streets this year will begin May 20.

RECEIVE COPIES

Commissioners received copies of a National Board of Fire Underwriters' fire prevention code from which the city last month patterned a fire prevention ordinance.

Director of Finance Oscar Eckman distributed copies of the city's financial report for the fiscal year ending Dec. 31, 1956.

In other action, commissioners heard the introduction of an amendment to the city's public nuisance ordinance, which, according to Ewart, "will make it a little easier to enforce when complaints are received." It comes up for second reading and possible adoption next week.

Warns Dog Owners of License Fee Hike

Pontiac City Clerk Ada R. Evans today warned dog owners that after May 15 there will be an additional $1 charge for 1957 licenses.

After this date the present $2 charge, the same for all sexes, will be raised to $3.

Licenses may be obtained at the clerk's office in the City Hall five days a week from 8 a.m. until 5.

Highway Patrol Plane Catches Erring Drivers

Hamilton, flying above the traffic, spotted the violations and radioed to troopers on the ground who stopped the drivers.

Stockholm Hotel Seeks to Engage Princess' Suitor

STOCKHOLM (AP)—A Stockholm newspaper today said a local hotel is trying to hire Princess Margaretha's British suitor to play its piano this summer.

★ ★ ★

The labor union paper Stockholms-Tidningen quoted the manager of the Strand Hotel as saying the pianist has been contacted and "negotiations are under way" for his appearance in a variety show at the hotel.

The Britisher is Robin Douglas-Home, 25-year-old nephew of the Earl of Home. An advertising copywriter by day, he now plays piano for a hotel cocktail hour in London.

Douglas-Home met Margaretha, 22-year-old granddaughter of King Gustaf VI, in London last winter. The Swedish royal family rejected his marriage proposal as "unthinkable," but friends of Douglas-Home insist the romance is still very much alive.

Not to Students, Though

Isaac Crary Staff to Give 'Arsenic'

The staff of the Isaac Crary Junior High School in Waterford Township, will present the mystery-comedy, "Arsenic and Old Lace," at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday in the school auditorium.

Due to the fact that many people were turned away last year, the administration decided to present this year's play two nights instead of one.

The fifteen Isaac Crary teacher-actors of "Arsenic and Old Lace" have almost reached the point of professional stage performance, according to director, Patricia Hott.

The play, written by Joseph Kesseling, is classified as a farce and contains elements of both comedy and suspense.

Though the basic plot is the rivalry between two insane sisters and a brother in the collection of corpses, this macabre subject has envoked laughter by characterization and situations.

A Broadway hit during the forties, it has provided amusing entertainment for both students and adults. Proceeds from the play will be used for school equipment.

Broomfield Asks Area's Advice on Future Aid

Oakland County communities are being asked to help determine what is needed in future federal redevelopment programs.

Congressman William S. Broomfield said in Washington, D. C. today he is sending questionnaires to all communities asking about the extent of their planning for future growth.

Broomfield hopes to speed up programs to rehabilitate the nation's older communities.

Many communities around the country face municipal bankruptcy if they fail to develop adequate renewal programs, he predicted.

He said part of the solution is in a better federal self-help program, which now is in the works of congressional committees.

Play Horse Theft According to Rules

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It was just like the old West for a while when a horse was stolen from a stable in the San Fernando Valley.

★ ★ ★

The police remembered the correct procedure in such cases — head 'em off at the pass — and corralled Bob Adams, 19, Texarkana, Tex. about 30 miles out of town as he trudged along the ridge route with Cowboy, a handsome Palomino owned by James C. Warner, Glendale, Calif.

★ ★ ★

But there the old West faded. Instead of arranging a necktie party for Adams, the sheriff's office booked him on suspicion of grand theft (horse). And yesterday the court ordered him held for trial in Superior Court.

Urge Transfer of TVA Power

U.S. Chamber Offers Plan to Congress for Private Ownership

WASHINGTON (INS) — The U.S. Chamber of Commerce has presented to Congress a broad plan for transferring the Tennessee Valley Authority's power facilities to local private or public ownership.

The transfer would include transmission lines and steam and hydro-electric plants, but dams, flood-control and irrigation facilities would remain under the TVA.

In testimony prepared for the House Public Works Committee, a Chamber spokesman, Louis V. Sutton, president of the Carolina Power and Light Co., opposed a plan to issue revenue bonds for TVA expansion.

He said the proposal would weaken congressional control over TVA expenditures.

Sutton called for a ban on all funds for building or operating TVA power facilities and urged power rates which "reflect full costs" of operation.

He also recommended that TVA be required to pay the same level of taxes imposed on private enterprise and that the authority be limited to its present service area.

Hal Boyle Says:

You'll See Less of Liberace Now

NEW YORK (AP)— If you haven't seen as much of Liberace as you used to, there's a reason.

There isn't as much of him to see. History's highest paid pianist —he went from 50 cents a night to two million dollars a year—has recently lost more than 30 pounds.

"My brother George and I went on a high protein diet," Liberace confided during a luncheon at the Essex House. "Nothing but meat, fish, fowl, vegetables—and fresh fruit.

"Once my stomach shrank I found that if I ate a roll I simply couldn't finish a meal. George lost 20 pounds and I dropped from 210 to 173."

The new Liberace also confided he has embarked on a new career —teaching.

Teaching is traditionally one of the lowest paid professions. But the Liberace brothers plan to change that in their case.

Liberace soon will establish a chain of music schools across the country to teach piano playing by a method he says is the first new one in 20 years.

★ ★ ★

"It isn't, however, one of those 'learn to play in 10 easy lessons' systems. It is a complete music course, and includes harmony, theory, music appreciation—and showmanship," he said.

Lee himself considers the prospect delightful.

"Long after I am gone," he said in that tone of extreme unction that has made his name a by-word for a certain brand of charm, "my association with the piano will live on through this course."

★ ★ ★

Some are enchanted by the Liberace brothers' charm. Some find it a bit humid and oppressive. But whether you like it or not, it is like Niagara Falls in one respect — it is always turned on full faucet, and never runs dry in public.

"If I have caused a few more people to smile in the world, I will not have lived in vain. I want only that the world shall be bettered because of my presence in it."

As I tiptoed out, Brother George asked: "Have you heard my latest album? It's the first one to feature rock 'n' roll with a violin.

"George Liberace goes teenager! But you have to keep up with the times."

John J. Plump says, when a father has time on his hands, it's a sign his son isn't old enough to wear his watch yet . . .

New York 'Aquacades' Won't Try 13th Season

NEW YORK (AP)—One of New York's longest-running summertime outdoor shows has decided not to try its luck with a 13th season.

Elliott Murphy said that declining receipts made him decide against a new edition of "Aquacades" this year at the Flushing Meadow Park, which was the site of New York's World's Fair in 1939.

★ ★ ★

Automobile in Bedroom Astonishes Woman

HARDIN, Ky. (AP) — Miss Regina Pace opened the window one night and yelled to a neighbor: "there's a car in my bedroom."

The retired school teacher was so right. Not only was an auto in her bedroom, so were its two occupants.

Their injuries were mild considering how they got there.

County Prepares Parks for Early Rush

Roadside Tables Ready to Go

The commission is getting ready to place roadside tables along the highways for picnicking travelers —a courtesy provided by the State Highway Department.

Distribution will start next week, about seven days ahead of schedule, according to Robert Osgood, the commission's forester.

"The weather has been so nice lately, we figure motorists will be using the tables early this year," said Osgood, who is in charge of the county's 18 roadside locations, including the Dixie highway roadside park in Groveland Township.

MUCH PREPARATION

Preparations for the state's famous roadside park system are going on all over Michigan, said Charles M. Ziegler, state highway commissioner. County road commissions, which are affiliates of the highway department, are helping.

Since 1930, the state has developed hundreds of roadside sites, with groupings of two or three tables.

Michigan has been a leader in this type of facility, providing public spots in wooded, scenic areas, often near lakes or streams.

In addition, there are 27 roadside parks in the Upper Peninsula and 74 in the lower, with cooking stoves, fresh water and toilet facilities.

4 SMALL SITES

The county has four other smaller sites with cement cooking stoves. These are off M-59 at Williams Lake road, M-59 west of Ormond road, M-15 north of U.S.-10, and U.S.-10 south of Perryville road.

★ ★ ★

Other sites are scattered throughout the county, although most of them lie in the less populated northern portion. They all should be in operation by Memorial Day.

Road Commission crews take good care of the sites, Osgood said. Each is visited twice a week in the summer for grass mowing and general cleanup.

DON'T STREW PAPERS

"We put wastebaskets at every site, hoping picnickers will use them instead of strewing refuse around, disfiguring the grounds and making them unpleasant for the next users," Osgood said.

Ziegler sounded a note involving high finance. "It cost the Highway Department $305,818 last year to remove rubbish thrown out of cars along our highways," he said.

★ ★ ★

"This money might better be spent for new and better roads so that motorists can enjoy our beautiful state without the eyesore of trash-littered highways and roadside parks."

The state warned that rubbish throwers face the possibility of up to $100 fine and 90 days in jail.

Plan Formed for Americas

Delegates to Approve Program for Tightening Economic Relations

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Inter-American Committee of Presidential Representatives today formally approves a 3½-million-dollar annual program designed to tighten hemispheric economic relations.

The delegates from the 21 American republics, representing 350 million people, sign a letter of transmittal tonight for the 27-item program they have hammered out in eight months of talks. It goes then to the presidents of the various nations.

The conference of presidential representatives was suggested by President Eisenhower last July when he met in Panama with other chief executives of the Americas.

The essence of the still-secret report is that the activities of the Pan American Union, the secretariat for the Organization of American States, will be expanded through new activities and new funds.

One source said the recommendations call for a $2,273,000 annual addition to the current Pan American Union budget of $4,287,000 for various purposes including educational and technical aid, award of 500 scholarships and formation of a special committee on nuclear energy.

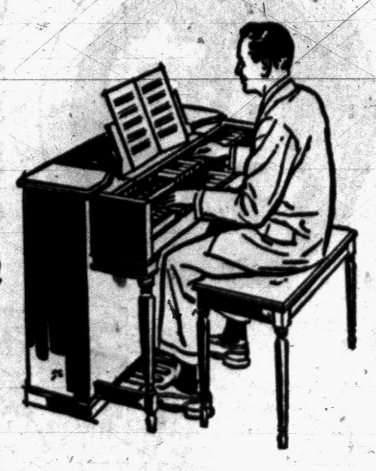

★ ★ ★

Some delegates privately deplored the fact the report does not provide directly for meeting Latin America's huge capital needs. Others, however, described it as well balanced.

★ ★ ★

The United States is expected to pay two thirds of the total budget increases, with the Latin-American nations supplying the remainder.

A MOST HAPPY FELLA

If the man behind the bar at your favorite tavern looks particularly pleased, proud and happy this month, there's a reason. This is National Tavern Month.

This is the month that's set aside to salute him and the great old American institution he represents...the friendly tavern...because it's THE FRIENDLIEST PLACE IN TOWN.

It's hospitality headquarters in everybody's town. It's a place that says, "Welcome, stranger!" and "Welcome back, friends!" It's a place to feel at home...to have a friendly chat...and enjoy a sociable drink.

So make it a point in this merry month of May (and all through the year, for that matter) to share the friendliness of your favorite tavern. Wish the barman well...and enjoy his wares. For his brands are very often our brands. And he serves them with the same pride with which we make them.

Subcommittee Sets Out to Discover Reasons for High Costs

As a consumers study subcommittee of the House Agriculture Committee summoned its first witnesses yesterday, Chairman Anfuso (D-NY) said:

"We are concerned with two vital problems, the high cost of living for the consumer and the low returns to the farmer for his production."

SLIGHT FARM GAIN

He said he's bothered by the fact that as the average city dweller's grocery bill has gone up $500 in the last 10 years, only $45 of the increase has gone to the farmer.

Anfuso said that at a time when city residents are spending more of their income for food "in an attempt to achieve some kind of a minimum diet," farmers are in a position to supply them "the most ample diet on record and at a much lower cost at the farm than 10 years ago."

"Warehouses have been filled to overflow with storable food products," he said. "Yet some urban families cannot buy food they need to raise healthy children."

★ ★ ★

The subcommittee expects to find some of the answers in the costs of buying, processing, brokering and handling food between the farm and the dinner table.

★ ★ ★

One of these "in between" costs investigators expected to look into is the effect of trading stamps on retail food costs. Trading stamps, given with each purchase, have become popular with housewives who swap them for premiums.

Labor at the Crossroads: 3

Handling of Pension, Welfare Funds by Unions Hit

By RELMAN MORIN

WASHINGTON (AP)— "Shocking abuses . . . collusion . . . mismanagement . . . lack of know-how . . . waste . . . extravagance . . . indifference . . . serious loss to the employe beneficiaries."

These words bristle like spikes in the pages of a Senate report on pension and welfare funds.

They were written after a two-year study.

Immediately, the AFL-CIO held its own investigations, and found that three big unions failed to "meet the standards for ethical union practices set forth in the AFL - CIO constitution." They have been summoned to appear before the executive committee later this month.

The Senate report by no means condemned the handling of welfare funds everywhere. On the contrary, it said:

"Perhaps too little has been said of the many sound practices found in the great majority of these plans and of the conscientious and ingenious efforts on the part of industry, labor, insurance and banking to bring benefits to scores of millions of people at low cost."

Where abuses were uncovered, the committee cited both labor and management.

"The programs are at times used unfairly by labor and management as a lever on the employe—by the union to tie him to union membership, by management to tie him to the job," it said.

Since World War II, pension and welfare funds have grown to an ocean - sized pool of money. Total contributions run around seven billion dollars a year. Reserves are estimated in the neighborhood of 30 billion.

They provide protection and brighten the future of 75 million people or more—almost half the population of the United States.

Over 90 per cent of the benefit plans are company managed. The remainder are shared by the employer and the union. The committee said it "discovered more irregularities in jointly managed plans ... than in unilateral employer plans."

Inexperience, lack of know-how, the absence of supervision, as well as "an unscrupulous minority" cost the programs huge sums of money, the report said.

"It is startling to find an almost complete absence of any routine accounting to the beneficiaries," it said ... "It appears to be accepted practice among the administrators of such programs to give little or no account of their stewardship, and to treat the money more as their own than that of the beneficiaries."

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark), chairman of another Senate committee which heard testimony from President Dave Beck of the giant Teamsters Union, reports:

"One union fund administrator has admitted that out of nearly a million dollars collected, only one fifth had been actually used to purchase insurance for the union members. The rest has gone for such welfare expenses as fight tickets, raffle tickets, whisky and lavish entertainment, Christmas gifts, and the construction of a monument to himself."

The committee turned up other instances.

It questioned Angelo Inciso, president of local 286, formerly affiliated with the Allied Industrial Workers of America, about vouchers totaling some $15,000. They were listed as advances for organizing expenses.

Among the items listed in the union records as "organizational expenses" were a "gent's" diamond ring ($1,200), three money clips ($1,080), four pair cuff links ($460), whisky, billfolds and diamond watches.

Investigators asked Inciso about the ring. Did he have the consent of his dues - paying members to buy it?

"No," he said, "because it would take me so long to get all my dues-paying members together that, before I get it done, it would be out of style."

By comparison to other cases, however, this was small change. For example, the committee listed an "embezzlement of $900,000 in insurance premiums in the Laundry Workers International.

The committee recommended federal laws to bring "full disclosure" of information on all types of benefit plans. President Eisenhower seconds the proposal for "public disclosure of complete data" on them.

Pontiac to Observe Nurse Week May 13

The week of May 13-18 has been proclaimed as "Professional Nurse Week" in Pontiac by Mayor William W. Donaldson in recognition of the role nurses have played both in war and peacetime.

"I urge its observance as one way in which we can show our appreciation of the untiring efforts of our nurses' better health and care program for all," Donaldson said.

He stressed that the public should unite in encouraging student nurse education.

Pioneer of Aircraft to Retire Shortly

STRATFORD, Conn. (AP)—United Aircraft Corp. has announced that aircraft pioneer Igor Sikorsky will retire late this month.

The Russian-born Sikorsky, who will be 68 on May 25, is an historic figure in aviation, best - known as the designer, builder and pilot of the first successful helicopter in the Western Hemisphere.

He will remain with the company for an indefinite time after retirement as a consultant.

Reservations Going Rapidly for Youth Camp

Reservations are going fast for this year's Frog Hollow Day Camp for boys and girls 7 through 13, Leonard T. Buzz, recreational director of the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Dept., reported.

Buzz said a total of 102 applications have been made for the summer camp sponsored jointly by the department and the Board of Education. "This represents approximately one-fifth of the number of children we can take for the seven periods," he said.

The weekly Monday through Friday periods are June 24-28, July 1-3 and 5, July 8-12, July 15-19, July 22-26, July 29-Aug. 2, and Aug. 5-9.

Air Force Academy Applications Lag

Broomfield, of Royal Oak said only six youths have applied for entrance to the academy in 1958, although he has 10 vacancies to fill.

Applicants must be single, between the ages of 17 and 22, and able to pass mental and physical tests.

Board Votes for Election

LAKE CITY (AP) — The Board of Education Monday night voted unanimously for a special election in June on a long term, $500,000 bond issue for constructing and furnishing a new high school. An election date is scheduled to be set later.

Cool, Colorful Dresses Promise Gay Summer

One of the smartest dresses on this summer's scene will be the simple one of white crepe. This one, designed by Ceil Chapman for her summer collection, has a deep V neckline, wing sleeves and slim clinging skirt.

Nothing looks more enchanting than this empire shantung of cotton midriffed in delicate lace and banded with shining satin. Scoop-necked and short-sleeved, it is available in white, peach or beige. It is from Mr. Mort's collection which may be purchased locally.

"Sheath Oriental" is the name of this linen sheath drawn in a slender, willowy line. It has a bateau neck, low back and a beautiful sash of Far Eastern importance.

550 Pupils Are Heard in Concert

'Say It with Music' Vocal Presentation Stresses Youth

By DORA DAWSON

"Say It With Music" might rather be said "Sing It With Young People," when more than 550 Pontiac High School pupils, Tuesday night in their annual spring concert in the school auditorium, raised their youthful voices in songs that brought back refreshingly to memory many fine choral works that were a delight to hear because of tone quality, balance and coloring.

The director was George Putnam, whose training, ability and selective judgment has raised the level of musicianship in this department of our high school to an enviable one in this state. Assisting him and sharing honors in this training are Doreen Voltmann and Edward Banghart.

The program opened with the theme song "The Best Things in Life Are Free" sung by the Girls' Glee Club, followed by seven songs, "Stairway to the Stars" by Signorelli, "Mountains," by Rasbach, "Sun and the Warm Brown Earth" by Branscombe, "Love Is the Wind" by Howorth, "Clouds" by Charles, "Song of the Brook" by Schubert and "Morning" by Speaks, each one accenting the free gifts of creation, sung with dignity and unified feeling by a selective glee club of girls, in a kaleidoscopic array of evening gowns in a lovely blend of color.

Six pages today in Women's Section

A catchy and amusing number by the Junior Boys' Ensemble, "Standing on the Corner" by Loesser-Stickles, was interjected in this group.

Entre acts between the parts of the program furnished opportunities for solos and small ensembles, which moved along the entire program very smoothly. In the first one, Jack Hutchings was heard in the solo "Come Back to Sorrento" by Curtis, and the Junior Girls' Ensemble sang "Somewhere a Child Is Praying" by Eliot and "Too Young" by Stickles.

MAJESTIC SETTING

Part two was a majestic setting, background of simulated cathedral windows, flanked by kneeling angels, in front of which the A Capella Choir, in churchly robes, sang with beautifully sustained tone and reverent feeling "Ye Shall Have a Song" by Randall Thompson, "Miserere Mei" by Lotti, "Hodie Christus Natus Est" by Willan, and "O Lamb of God" by Kalinikoff, directed by Mr. Putnam.

★ ★ ★

Another interlude included an organ solo, "Cantabile" by Franck, played by Eleanor Hassenzahl, who also played brief interludes throughout the program. Robert Everett sang "Until" by Sanderson and the Senior Boys' Ensemble sang "After Dark."

For "Ship Ahoy!," the Boys' Glee Club in dungarees and gob caps, arranged informally in front of a large ship, sang with character and spirit "I Must Go Down to the Sea" by Cain, "Sing Me a Chanty With a Yo-Heave-Ho" by Wellesley, with Mike O'Berry taking a solo part, "Anchors Aweigh" by Hurchinson, "The Sea" by Huerter, "A-Roving," arranged by Rowley, and "Roadways" by Clark.

In this group, Vickie Vandecar and Kenneth Bogard were heard in a pleasing duet, "Vienna City of My Dreams" by Sieczynski.

Again between acts a solo, "I Bring You Heart's Ease" by Branscombe, was presented by Gwen Vernon, and the Senior Girls' Ensemble sang "I Am Joy" by Davis and "Stardust" by Carmichael.

AFTER-DARK SCENE

Part four was an after-dark scene, with old-fashioned street lights and the singers in full evening attire. The A Cappella Choir sang "This Is my Beloved" by Wright-Forrest and excerpts from "My Fair Lady" by Lerner-Loewe, with Dianne Beach in soprano solo.

★ ★ ★

The entire Vocal Department joined in the finale, "Youth for God and Country," singing "While We're Young" arranged by Ringwald, "Your Land and My Land" by Romberg, "America the Beautiful" by Ward and "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" arranged by Gardner, surrounding the entire audience with their hearty voices and earnest singing, a thrilling close.

Tea Guests Are Shown Trousseau

Guests attending the tea held on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kirkby on Orchard Lake avenue viewed the wedding trousseau of the Kirkbys' daughter, Kay.

On Saturday Kay will become the bride of James Thomas Chandler in an evening ceremony to be performed in All Saints Episcopal Church. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Chandler of Baldwin avenue.

An arrangement of violets and bridal wreath centered the tea table that was covered with an Italian cut work cloth. Mrs. Kenneth T. Poole and Mrs. Chandler presided at the silver services.

Mrs. Kirkby greeted her guests wearing an orchid and white viole frock. Kay's choice for the afternoon affair was an aqua print dress.

Mrs. George Harkless and Mrs. Harold Anscomb assisted during the afternoon.

Attending were Mrs. Elmer H. Reynolds, Mrs. Gordon Reynolds, Amy Brackstone, Daisy Benedict, Mrs. Thomas Thompson, Mrs. William H. Dunkeld, Mrs. Franklin Mills, Mrs. Clarence H. Smith, Rosemary Smith, Mrs. Joseph Swengros, Norene VanCleave and Mrs. Emerson Loan.

Also present were Mrs. Allan H. Monroe, Mrs. Geiston V. Poole, Mrs. Frederick J. Poole, Mrs. Raymond L. Cole, Mrs. Lawrence Whitfield, Mrs. Glen Turner, Mrs. Choren Manukian, Mrs. Warner Wasmuth, Mrs. Leon Skelley, Ann Skelley, Mrs. Robert F. Long, Mrs. Edwin F. Lau and Mrs. Robert Flanigan.

Completing the guest list were Mrs. Truman Denby, Sharon Denby, Mrs. Charles H. Crawford, Mrs. Jack Brannack, Mrs. Don Anderson, Mrs. Harry H. Alley of Flint, Mrs. Conrad F. Speck of Walled Lake and Mrs. Fred H. Rollins of Birmingham.

Loses Shyness Ringing Doorbells

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Ginny was one of those painfully shy girls who turn red when spoken to and can't ever think of light conversation.

★ ★ ★

She came to see me, some months ago, and sat nervously on the edge of her seat, fidgeting with her handbag.

"Don't tell me to go to church groups or square dancing or places where I'll meet people," she said intensely. "I've done that for years and it just makes things worse.

"I can't force myself to be with people. It just makes me more nervous than ever. I want friends, and I'd like to have lots of people in my life, but I can't do it that way. It doesn't work."

★ ★ ★

I knew how Ginny felt.

When you're so obviously anxious to "meet people," it shows, somehow, and you just feel pathetic and all the more nervous. No, it has to be done naturally.

HAD LIBRARY JOB

★ ★ ★

"On the telephone, I'm all right," she told me.

"The engineers telephone to get information about articles in their field. I can find it fast and tell them on the phone.

"But when they come up and make it a point to meet me, I get flustery and silly and they look disappointed and just leave."

What Ginny needed was practice at meeting people, but it couldn't be meeting them for its own sake or from loneliness.

It had to be a Saturday and evening job where meeting people was a factor, so I suggested market research.

ASKING QUESTIONS

Market research is a field which pays people for ringing doorbells and asking questions about different products.

They always need workers for early evening and Saturdays, because those are the hours when they can cover the office people.

At first Ginny was sort of frightened, but as she considered it, she felt better about it.

After all, she would be doing it for a purpose. Once she got over the first fright at the idea of ringing a stranger's doorbell, it might be fun.

Ginny tried it. She soon found that in addition to making the extra income, she was having a fine time.

She talked to all kinds of people, and because there was a purpose to her calls instead of just a pathetic desire for people in her life, she was able to chat quite comfortably.

SHY THEMSELVES

★ ★ ★

If you're interested in the field of market research, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, care of The Pontiac Press, and I'll send you my pamphlet on the subject.

Married Saturday were Vivian Joyce Sheffield and Keith Robert Bearden. Mr. and Mrs. John L. Sheffield of Judson street are Vivian's parents, and Keith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Bearden of Peacock street.

MR. and MRS. KEITH R. BEARDEN

Vivian Sheffield Becomes Bride in Candlelight Rite

Vivian Joyce Sheffield became the bride of Keith Robert Bearden Saturday at First Baptist Church. The Rev. H. H. Savage officiated at the 7:30 o'clock ceremony.

Two hundred guests witnessed the candlelight ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Sheffield of Judson street are parents of the bride, and Keith's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Newton Bearden of Peacock street.

The bride chose a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin with a Sabrina neckline and long tapered sleeves. The tulle skirt was appliqued with lace.

MATRON OF HONOR

Mrs. C. B. Kincaid was her sister's matron of honor. Other attendants were Beverly Gavette, Diane Williams and Beth North. Natalie Kilmer was flower girl.

★ ★ ★

The bridal attendants wore gowns of white eyelet over coral-colored taffeta. Bustles accented the full skirts. Their flowers were white carnations on white prayerbooks. The flowergirl wore blue taffeta and carried white roses.

Newton Bearden Jr. was his brother's best man, and ushers were Don Hirsch, Fred Standridge, Joe Seddon, James Ryerse and Bruce Reh. Steven Sheffield served as ringbearer.

The bride changed to an orchid-colored sheath with black patent accessories. Her corsage was composed of the white rosesfrom her bridal bouquet. The couple will reside on Peacock street after returning from a honeymoon in northern Michigan.

The little, shaped Louis heel is back in favor. It's set on slim pumps of leather, satin or printed cotton.

Kathleen Berry to Become Bride

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Stumbo of Beloit and he is an engineering student at the University of Wisconsin. Kathleen studied at the Sorbonne in Paris, France, and will graduate in June from the University of Wisconsin at Madison.

MR. and MRS. KENNETH E. BARKS

Jeanette Marie Ashton became the bride of Kenneth E. Barks Saturday at St. Michael Church. Jeanette is the daughter of Mrs. Nora Ashton of Norton avenue and Kenneth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Barks of James street.

Jeanette Ashton Speaks Vows in St. Michael Rite

A gown of Chantilly lace was worn by Jeanette Marie Ashton for her marriage on Saturday to Kenneth E. Barks. The bouffant skirt of the gown was of net accented with petals of Chantilly lace.

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Michael J. O'Reilly read the 10 o'clock service at St. Michael Church in the presence of 150 guests.

Jeanette is the daughter of Mrs. Nora Ashton of Norton avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Barks of James street are Kenneth's parents.

For her duties of matron of honor, Mrs. Charles Halpin wore an aqua and white dotted sheer frock in a ballerina length. Her flowers were of red roses and white carnations.

OTHER ATTENDANTS

Mrs. Dave Burt and Sue Barks were the bride's other attendants. Their gowns fashioned identically to the honor attendant's were of yellow and white dotted sheer. Each carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white carnations.

★ ★ ★

An afternoon reception was held at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building.

Shower Honors Margaret Levely

Attending the shower were Mrs. Thomas Levely, Mrs. Floyd Levely, Mrs. Charles DeLorge, Mrs. Edmund Smith, Mrs. Alfred Levely, Judy Harrison, Mrs. Roy Trent, Mrs. Stanton Levely, Mrs. Ray Levely of Garden City and Mrs. Gladys Morris of Birmingham.

Birthday Party Held for Diane Hellner

H. Dean Peterson Feted on Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson entertained in their home on North Marshall street Sunday afternoon honoring their son, H. Dean on his 21st birthday.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Duggan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cervenka, Jerry Nichols, Glenn Sherman, Harry Caskey, Ernest Romer Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Duggan, Ralph Pardee, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Healy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner and Mrs. Verna Compton.

Artist Points Out That Life Means Change

Growing Older Should Be Exciting

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Jane Berlandina, French-born artist who recently had her 11th one-man exhibition in New York City at the Iolas Galleries, and is currently represented in the Joseph Pulitzer Collection, was in her studio in New York City. "Why grow old?" she asked. "Why not?"

She continued, "I do not mean to be flip. I know what you mean by the title of your column. You mean that we should not grow older in a negative and deteriorating manner. BUT really to grow old means only to grow with time; in other words to change — and change is good and vital."

The tall windows of her two-storied studio highlighted an April snow which was falling on window boxes of daffodils. "Look how the weather changes," she said, "Everything in nature is constantly on the point of change and in dynamic balance and tension.

"If we are not in the process of change we are dead! No moment in life ever duplicates itself — nor does any experience. We cannot hold time still and so we must grow older — older and more alive. I am grateful for every day I have lived."

★ ★ ★

Jane Berlandina is a tiny, strong-featured woman in her middle 50's, with short-cropped gray hair, piercing brown eyes and quizzical eyebrows. Even before hearing her speak of her philosophy of living one senses that she is an exciting person who always has used her capacities to the fullest.

CHANGE IN STYLE

This dynamic woman reflects the attitude toward age in which my readers know I believe. She came to the United States in 1928 as a teacher. She had already had two shows in Paris. Her first one-man showing here was of flower paintings. It was most successful and every one of the pictures sold.

However, she did not continue the flower paintings. In speaking of the exhilaration of changes she said, "When I think of the flower paintings I did in 1929, I know that I could not do them now any more than I could do the abstract murals I did for the pavilion of the League of Nations or the City and County Building at the Golden Gate Exposition in San Francisco.

"I know this just as I know that then I could not have painted the impressions of the world as I see it, which I am now doing."

To retain from the past only lovely experience, to live vibrantly and enthusiastically today, and to look forward to the future with eager anticipation, is to live enchantingly and adventurously.

At this point Jane Berlandina turned up the hi-fi which was playing recordings of Mozart, took another cup of tea and said, "We all know that the faces of mature intellects have more lines and wrinkles than those of adolescents, but these older faces are more interesting.

"We know that real beauty lies in the character and individuality of a face or scene. 'Why grow old?' I am enjoying it!"

HIDE THE PART

For that new look, hide the part. A fresh new look is achieved this year by a fresh new hairdo. Brushed off the face without a part, the face is framed with soft waves which end in fluff at the nape. This hair style is so simple and yet so charming and easily cared for that it is typically American.

It has a carefree youthfulness about it which the old straight back didn't have. The trick is . . . to have your own version of this style adapted to you. Follow the trend, yes, but remain an individual. The one nice thing about this fashionable hair style, it does not dictate the length of your hair at all.

Pecan Pie Made With Caramels

By JANET ODELL

With warm weather due to be around for some months now, gelatin pies will be on the menu often. This one is a fluffy version of pecan pie and is good for spring and summer.

Mrs. DeVere Games of Clarkston is today's cook. She belongs to PTA, plays bridge and bowls. A fairly new resident of Clarkston, she is a member of the Woman's Club there. She is also an active member of Psi chapter of Sigma Beta sorority.

CARAMEL PECAN PIE
By Mrs. DeVere Games

1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
24 vanilla caramels (½ pound)
¾ cup milk
Dash salt
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
½ cup chopped pecans
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 graham cracker crust*

Soften gelatin in cold water. Melt caramels in milk in double boiler. Add softened gelatin and salt. Stir to dissolve. Chill until slightly set.

Fold in whipped cream, pecans and vanilla. Pour into graham cracker crust; trim with pecan halves. Chill 2-3 hours or until firm. Serves 6-8.

*Graham cracker crust: Combine 1½ cups graham cracker crumbs with ⅓ cup melted butter or margarine and ¼ cup sugar. Press into buttered 9-inch pieplate. Chill until firm, about 45 minutes.

May Breakfast Held at Rotunda by Omega Alpha

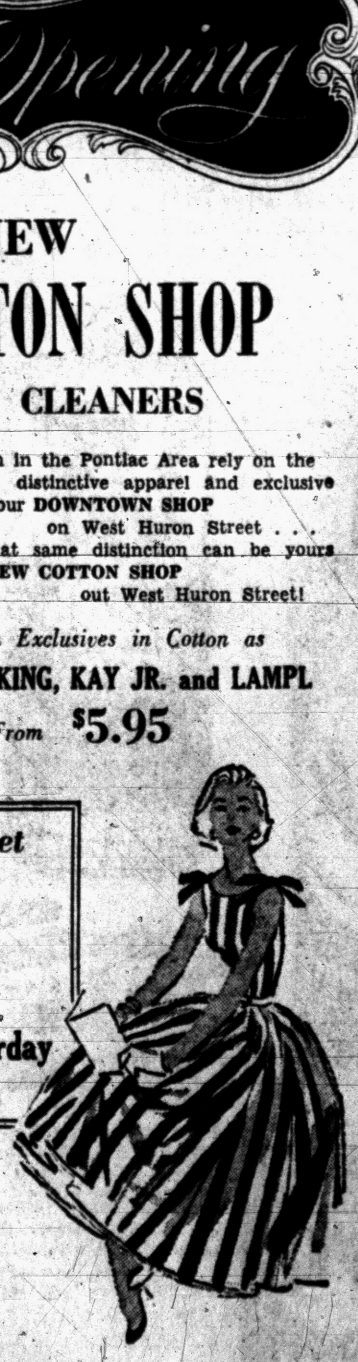

Thirty-three members and guests attended the annual May Breakfast of Omega Alpha sorority held Sunday at Rotunda Inn. Mrs. George Morrow welcomed the guests and Mrs. Harold Sibley gave the invocation.

"Cathedral Meditations" was the topic of the message delivered by Mrs. Max Williams of Royal Oak, in which she told of her reactions to the great cathedrals of the British Isles.

Newly elected officers introduced were Mrs. Tom Beal, president; Eulalia Valentine, vice president; Mrs. Douglas Green, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert McGill, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Clifford Hoskinen, treasurer, and Mrs. William McRath, historian.

Miss Valentine served as chairman of the breakfast. Assisting were Mrs. Perry Vaughn, Mrs. Norman O'Brien and Mrs. John Londick.

Constant Advice Makes Funnymen Seem Morose

Winters Defends Fellow Comedians

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — The great analytical public is concerned these days about how melancholy comedians really are. Each is pictured as a Pagliacci, only with more neuroses.

★ ★ ★

If they didn't have ratings to support, and tense inhibitions to fight, it is believed likely they would kill their wives and agents and then throw themselves, moth-like, at a klieg light.

One of them, a man with a mobile moon of a face named Jonathan Winters, wishes people would stop worrying the subject.

"Everybody's an authority on the comedian," he says. "On how sick he is. He leads a quiet, businesslike life with the wife and kids and they say — 'Why doesn't he go to Lindy's and laugh it up?' You're supposed to hang out with the boys and tell jokes or you're neurotic.

"I hung out in Lindy's exactly once in my life and that was enough for me. You do that a few times and it looks like either you're a lush or you're out of work."

NOT ANY SICKER

In defense of the comedian, the comedian says, "I don't think he's any sicker in the head than other people in other professions. He doesn't suffer a manic depression offstage as a result of being funny onstage, as so many people seem to think. It's just that so much is expected of him."

★ ★ ★

Winters, whose magnificent face can register a maniacal expression over the simplest matter — say a slice of calves' liver which has just been delivered to him, went on to describe the average day in the life of the comic.

He gets on a commuter train to go fram Hastings-on-Hudson to NBC, New York City, and the man next to him says: "Say it's none of my business but I heard a joke last night that can't miss on your show. Want to hear it — I give it to you free?"

In the cab from Grand Central, the driver stares belligerently through the rear view mirror and remarks: "Say, it's none of my business, but aren't you Jonathan Winters? Saw you last week. Are you supposed to be funny?"

He shakes his head, shrugs his shirtsleeves. "Maybe it's me, but — you could use dancing girls or somethin'."

★ ★ ★

The comedian then goes to his agent. Agent: "Say, Jonathan, this is really none of my business but I think your clothes are out of date, drab. Go out and get yourself a new wardrobe, eh, boy? No offense . . ."

AMATEUR COMEDIAN

In the restaurant, there's a man at the bar — a salesman for a screwdriver company: "Say, it's none of my business but how much do you make on a show? I'm an amateur comedian myself, got a few gags you might be interested in . . ."

★ ★ ★

In the commuter train going home, your next-door neighbor says, "Say, it's none of my business, Jon, but aren't you getting fleshy? Watch that heart. No good for your ratings either."

"And so," says Winters, "goes the 18-hour lecture every day. As you lie in bed, you can't help wondering — should I go to sleep or lie here awhile and let Him give me some advice too?"

Actually, this sort of routine doesn't worry Winters any more for two reasons. First, he's used to it, and second, it IS none of their business.

But he uses the day-in-a-nutshell to illustrate how a comedian can't be expected to be funny in his offhours. He's too busy fending off other people's jokes to reel his own.

Comedy on TV is an insecure business, at funniest, these days. The highly touted ratings indicate that people don't laugh long at one face in their living room and, as Winters says, "If a young guy can get a three-year run on TV in anything, he's lucky."

SUCCESSFUL GROOVE

Though he has his own network show, and appears to be settling into a successful groove, Jonathan is preparing to write and illustrate humorous books (he's a graduate of the Dayton, Ohio, Art Institute). His wife, an artist, is also prepared for eventualities.

★ ★ ★

"She's been painting mostly walls, but she should be able to go back to canvas if necessary," he says. "Also, the kids are growing up. The girl's only 1 and not very productive — but the boy's 7, and going places."

Arrest Clarkston Man on Desertion Charge

The Detroit office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation announced the arrest Tuesday of David Elmer Black, 19, of 5801 Clarridge Rd., Clarkston, on charges of desertion.

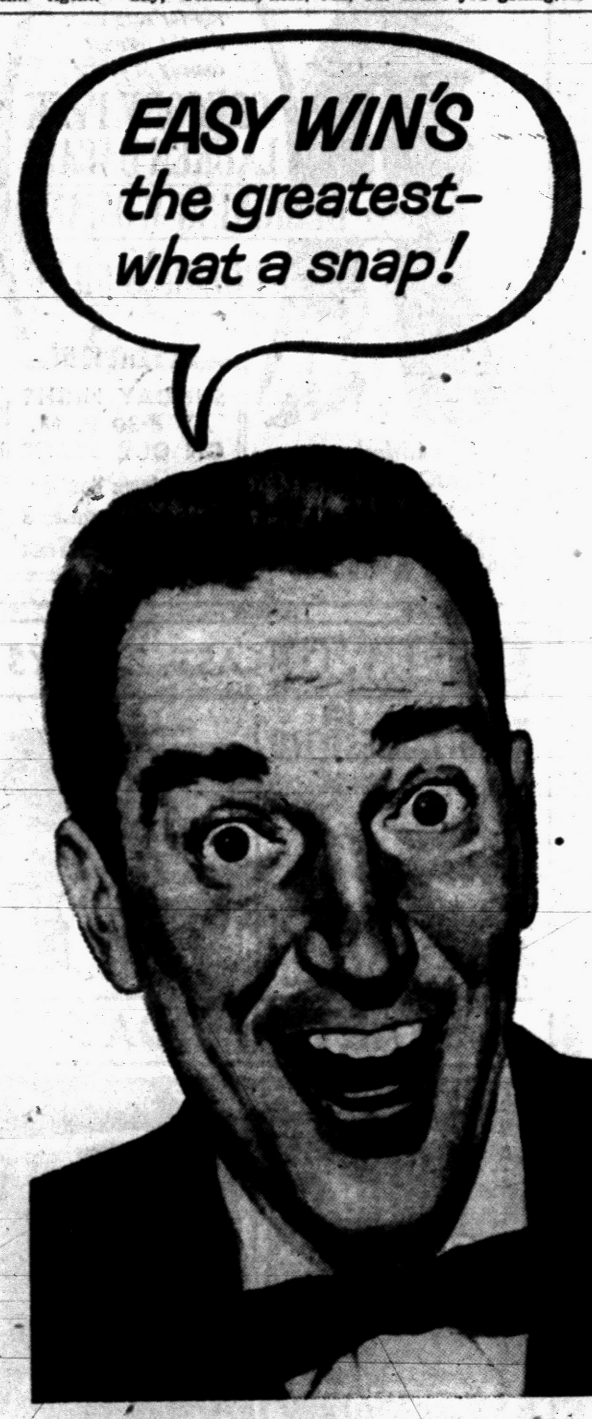

Black told state police officers and F.B.I. agents that he had been working as a lumberjack in Elizabethtown, N.Y., since deserting Sampson Air Force Base at Geneva, N.Y., in February 1956.

According to Charles W. Brown, special agent in charge, Black will be turned over to military authorities. He was found at his home in Clarkston.

Primitive man invented the mosaic when he arranged pebbles on the floor of his cave. Ancient Sumerians expanded the technique, cementing bright stones to a base. By 100 B.C., Egyptians were fashioning mosaics in the form of glass jewelry.

Prehistoric Monster's Bones Found in Florida

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — A 25-pound tooth, a tusk and what appear to be rib and shoulder bones of a huge beast have been dug from a shell pit by laborers taking out paving material.

The bones have been tentatively identified as those of the hairy mammoth which was a prehistoric ancestor of the elephant.

Broadway Critics Fight Late Opening Curtain

The league of New York Theaters recently asked press critics of they would mind an 8:30 p.m. curtain, because so many first nighters have trouble making the 8 o'clock curtain that has become traditional.

The critics answered that they need that extra half hour in order to be able to see a complete show—usually about 2½ hours—and still be able to get reviews written by newspaper press time.

Envoy Walks Out on Indonesian Dinner for Reds

A U. S. Embassy spokesman said the Allisons arrived at the time specified for the reception and found the usual program of Indonesian ceremonial dances already under way. A Foreign Office Official spotted the American couple wandering down an aisle, ushered them to the front row, and left them standing.

Witnesses said when no chairs were provided, Allison turned and led his wife out.

Indonesian officials said the Americans had arrived 30 minutes late because the schedule had been changed.

Speaking at the end of the dinner, Voroshilov said 18 years of the Soviet Union's history had been wasted in "wars imposed by enemies" and that his government now only wants peace, prosperity and friendship with all nations.

Alcoholic Center Director Cleared

State Alcoholism Board Grants Office $4,813 for Full-Time Head

The way was paved yesterday to provide a full-time director for the Pontiac Alcoholic Information Center when the State Board of Alcoholism granted the center $4,813.

Since its inception in April of 1956, the center has been directed on a part time basis by a City Health Department nurse, presently Mrs. Frances Kessler.

Increased use of the center during the year was the basis for seeking full-time directorship, Dr. John D. Monroe, acting director of the department, said.

He said there was a strong possibility that Mrs. Kessler would be retained in her present capacity.

The city of Pontiac is expected to match the state grant, according to Dr. Monroe.

Mrs. Kessler reported that counseling service has been given to 139 family members and 21 alcoholics since the center opened.

Dr. Monroe added that with a director the program would most likely be "intensified" in its counseling services.

Mentor of Al Capone Dies of Heart Attack

Johnny Torrio, first of the big-time bootleggers, died after a heart attack in a Brooklyn barber's chair April 16. So obscure had he become that his death went unpublicized until his will was filed for probate yesterday.

Torro originally established himself in Chicago as bodyguard to the notorious Big Jim Colosimo. Then Torrio sent for Capone. The two were boyhood pals in the tough old Navy yard section of Brooklyn.

In 1920 gang bullets wiped out Colosimo. Torrio took over as Chicago's vice lord. He lasted five years. After two attacks on his life, he fled to New York.

Capone succeeded Torrio in Chicago and began his notorious rise to power. Capone died in 1947.

Torrio announced he was going straight. He went into the real estate business in Brooklyn.

Hollywood Headlines

BY LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Very modest of the boys, but Arthur Hornblow and Eddie Small will settle for either John Wayne or Gary Cooper for their super-duper Western, "Sergeant Pike of the Texas Rangers," which they'll put into production following their "Witness for the Prosecution."

Not to be facetious, but who wouldn't settle for "Duke", or Gary in anything? "Sergeant Pike" is tailored to the measurements of either of these popular heroes.

It's a true story based on the adventures of James Pike who was instrumental in reorganizing the Texas Rangers after they fell apart during the Civil War.

Meanwhile, producers Hornblow and Small take off for a short visit to Mexico to see Ty Power, who, with Marlene Dietrich, will star in "Witness for the Prosecution."

One of the most violent anti-Communist films ever made is Sol Lesser's picture "Battle Hell," and thereby hangs a good inside story. It represents Sol's way of getting back at the Russians for all the free running time they have had on his "Tarzan" pictures, which are great favorites in Russia.

When the Reds marched into Berlin they obtained prints of Johnny Weissmuller's "Tarzan" and ran the pictures in Russia. When Lesser learned of this he started a campaign through the State Department to get them back or collect rental, but he got nowhere fast.

BIG DAY FOR BING

One thing for sure — Bing Crosby won't be taking off for Europe or anyplace else until after June 19. This will be a big day in Bing's life, for not only is his "Man on Fire" having its world premiere in his hometown, Spokane, Wash., but there will be big doings in connection with the dedication of Gonzaga University's Bing Crosby Memorial Library.

Two days of ceremonies will be devoted to the dedication of the library which has been built with funds donated to his alma mater by Bing.

One of the most modern and up-to-date libraries on any college campus, the Crosby Room will contain Bing's Oscar for "Going My Way" and his 20 gold records, each meaning the sale of 1,000,000 records.

Shelley Winters planed home to Hollywood Tuesday night, leaving bridegroom Tony Franciosa in Carson City where he has three weeks more work on "Obsession" with Anna Magnani.

The volatile bride, proudly flashing a wedding ring made in the shape of a wishbone (Tony's original design), laughingly said, "I'll look for a house and try to get it furnished while Tony's away. But don't think I plan to leave him for all that time. I'll fly to Nevada weekends to be with him."

The brand new Mrs. Franciosa isn't sure when they'll have enough time to take a honeymoon. Just being together anywhere is a honeymoon when you're in love.

DATE WITH STORK

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: The stork has been dated for next November by the Red Wiles. He's the former NBC vice president now associated with Pat Weaver.

Twenty-six-year-old Buddy Bregman has been signed as artists and repertoire head of Verve Records, the youngest man to hold that important spot.

Some clipping service, eh? Mel Ferrer received an envelope from Paris with a clipping that "War and Peace" was in its 19th week at two Paris theaters. The signature was — Ingrid.

New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloat or gripe
Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.
To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be remoistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it to action; to a normal urge to purge.
And, of all laxatives, only COLONAID, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONAID'S great moistur-izing capacity, plus COLONAID'S stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONAID is yet so smooth, so gentle it has proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.
Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions.
It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Get COLONAID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Only 98c for the 60 tablet package, brings positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

Tighe Lauds Improvement by House

Tiger Catcher Drives in Two Runs by Homer

Foytack Gets Credit for 5-3 Victory Over Hapless Senators

DETROIT (AP) — Frank House has shown Detroit Tiger manager Jack Tighe so much improvement over his 1956 performance that the skipper says the veteran receiver "could be the all-star game catcher."

The 27-year-old receiver, who never has come close to the advance billing he received eight years ago as a $70,000 bonus player, drove in his ninth and 10th runs of the campaign yesterday with his second home run in the 5-3 victory over the hapless Washington Senators.

The fact that the Senators had just undergone a big shakeup two hours before gametime, naming Cookie Lavagetto to replace Chuck Dressen as manager; and the fact that the defeat was Washington's ninth in succession and 17th in 21 games drew only passing comment from Tighe.

"That's someone else's problem," he said. "It's tough enough looking after one ball club."

Paul Foytack, who one year ago tomorrow won his first Major League victory over these same Senators, pitched three-hit ball to gain credit for his second win in a row after an opening setback.

"Paul was a big man for us last year when he came through with 15 wins," said Tighe. "House could do the same this year — if he keeps going, and I think he might — and he could be the all-star catcher."

House has a .286 batting average and is second along with Al Kaline in run production. Bill Tuttle is the club's leader with 13 runs batted in.

"He's a much better receiver, too," said Tighe, a one-time catcher himself. "There's no comparison in the manner in which he's calling pitches. He's much smarter and consequently, he has more confidence in himself, in his throwing, his hitting — well, most everything."

Extent of Damage Not Determined

Score Suffers Eye Injury

CLEVELAND (AP)—Not for two or three days—possibly longer—will doctors be able to tell how seriously Herb Score, 23, Cleveland's southpaw strikeout king, was injured last night when a line drive struck him in the right eye.

The ball, hit by Gil McDougald, veteran New York Yankee infielder, knocked Score to the ground, but he remained conscious. Two cuts were inflicted—one along the eyebrow and the other on the side of his nose, and he bled profusely from the nose and mouth.

He could distinguish light from dark with the damaged eye, Dr. Don Kelly, Tribe physician, said after a preliminary examination. The bleeding prevented additional testing, and Kelly said:

"He could be perfectly all right, but we just won't know for two or three days."

His eye swathed in bandages, Score listened in a Lakeside Hospital bed to a radio broadcast of the late innings in which the Indians won their initial 1957 game with the Yankees 2-1. And he gave interviews to several newsmen.

As his eyes swelled shut and he soaked up blood with a towel, the pitching ace maintained the poise which has characterized him since he came up to the major leagues in the 1955 season. On the trainer's table he cracked jokes to teammates who were fighting to keep back tears.

The crowd of 18,386 was stunned when Score went down, and many heard the thud of the ball hitting him. Prayerfully the fans waited for what little news could be given them on the public address system about the injury.

The pitch McDougald hit was only the 12th one Score threw, and it came on a 2-2 count. Score said "it was right down the middle—maybe a little low—and probably straight as a string, and it came back that way.

"I didn't see the ball until it got a foot or two from my face," Score said at the hospital. "Then I saw too much of it."

He said the liner may have "just ticked the edge" of his glove, but not enough to deflect it. "It hit me solid," he said.

McDougald, who lined one off pitcher Frank Lary's hip in Detroit last week, wiped his eyes with a towel in the corner of the Yankee dressing room and sat worrying while other players dressed. He didn't want to talk.

Last night's start was the fifth for Score. He lost the opener here and has since won two. He has fanned 39 in 36 innings to maintain into a third season a strikeout pace no other pitcher ever has equalled—an average of more than one strikeout an inning. He struck out 245 in 1955, when he was rookie of the year, and 263 last year, leading the American League in both seasons. He had won-lost records of 16-10 and 20-9.

HERB SCORE INJURED — Trainer Wally Beck administers first aid to Cleveland ace pitcher Herb Score after he was hit in the right eye by a line drive off the bat of Yankee Gil McDougald. The extent of the injury will not be known for several days, however there was fear Score's eyesight could be impaired.

Jeffcoat Tames Dodgers, 9-2

Redleg Streak at 8

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Birdie Tebbetts' unwavering faith in his much-maligned pitchers has begun to pay off for the "good-hit, no-pitch" Cincinnati Redlegs.

For the third game in succession, Tebbetts found a pitcher who could go nine innings last night and as a result the Redlegs today owned a handsome eight-game winning streak, the longest in the major leagues.

Hal Jeffcoat is the latest Redleg route-goer, following his 9-2 triumph over Brooklyn, a triumph that hoisted Cincinnati to within a half game of the second place Dodgers and a game and a half of the National League leading Milwaukee Braves.

★ ★ ★

Jeffcoat's six-hit performance followed on the heels of complete jobs by Brooks Lawrence and Don Gross against Pittsburgh Sunday. Prior to that, only one pitcher—Lawrence—had gone the distance in Cincinnati's first 16 games.

★ ★ ★

The Redlegs picked up a full game on the Braves who dropped an 8-4 decision to the Philadelphia Phillies as Robin Roberts stopped them with six hits. The New York Giants whipped the St. Louis Cardinals 8-5 and the Chicago Cubs took a 14-inning 10-8 decision from Pittsburgh to dump the Pirates into the cellar.

The Cleveland Indians nipped New York 2-1 to snap the Yankees' six-game winning streak but lost the services of Herb Score for an indefinite period when their prize southpaw was struck in the right eye by a liner off the bat of Gil McDougald in the first inning.

The Yankees retained their half game first place lead over the Chicago White Sox who were beaten by the Boston Red Sox 4-3. Ted Williams drove in three runs with a single and his sixth home run to provide the batting support for Tom Brewer who hurled a three-hitter.

★ ★ ★

Kansas City retained its half game lead over fifth place Cleveland with a 3-2 triumph over Baltimore in 10 innings. Vic Power hit home runs on the first and last pitches of the Orioles' Hector Brown to extend the Athletics' winning streak to four games.

Medalist honors went to Dick Whitmer with 36-39-75 as he took three points from Wally Winkowski who fired a 42-42-84.

Valdes Shoots for Higher Rate

Favored in Tonight's TV Fight With Holman at Chicago

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Nino Valdes, the Cuban ranked ninth among heavyweights, hopes to improve his rating in a nationally televised bout against Johnny Holman of Chicago tonight.

Valdes is established locally as a 2½-to-1 favorite for the bout, which is scheduled to start at 9 p.m. EST over ABC-TV.

The bout is scheduled for 10 rounds, but both fighters predicted it would not go the limit, each announcing he was going for a knockout.

For Holman it is an opportunity to climb back into the top 10. He was knocked from the ratings after losing to second-ranked Eddie Machen and fourth-ranked Willie Pastrano.

WIBC Retains Mrs. Knepprath

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Knepprath submitted her resignation earlier in the day, but was prevailed upon to take another one-year term.

She said her decision to serve was made, in part, because the WIBC had voted to build a new permanent headquarters in Columbus, Ohio. Construction on the building will start this summer.

★ ★ ★

Other officers re-elected were Alberta Crowe, Syracuse, N.Y., and Mildrid White, Rockford, Ill., vice-presidents; and Pearl Switzer, South Bend, Ind.; Bertha McBride, St. Paul, Minn.; and Georgia Veatch, Chicago, trustees. The congress announced Buffalo, N.Y., has been named site of the 1959 tournament. Buffalo won over Denver by a 590-213 vote.

Final Women's Softball Meeting Thursday Night

Managers of women's City League softball teams will hold their final pre-season meeting Thursday night at 7:30 in the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department office at City Hall.

Only three women's teams are signed up so far, leaving plently of room for more entries. Teams desiring entry in the City League should be represented at this meeting.

Items to be considered are league organization, rules and regulations, start of regular season play, playoff procedures and tournaments.

IBC Schedules June 7th Bout

Featherweights Take Date Originally Set for Archie Moore

NEW YORK (AP) — The International Boxing Club hoped to close a featherweight championship match between Hogan "Kid" Bassey and Cherif Hamia in Syracuse, N.Y., June 7—and thereby leave Archie Moore out in the cold.

Originally, the IBC scheduled a light heavyweight title match between ruler Moore and Tony Anthony. But Archie, now in Germany, has not been heard from, so the IBC decided to sidetrack him.

"We have only a month to go and there has been no word from Moore," said IBC Managing Director Harry Markson. "He had been given until last Monday by the various boxing commissions to confirm that he would defend his title by June 7."

While the commissions were waiting for the word that never came, Moore told German newsmen that he would meet Anthony if he is guaranteed $100,000 and get in shape. He weighed 206½ for Kalbfell a week ago.

Tight Race Seen in Wayne-Oakland

The tight race for division honors in the Wayne-Oakland Baseball League resumes Thursday as the eight teams begin the 2nd half of the loop schedule.

Iron Liege and Gen. Duke Arriving at Pimlico Today

They were due at the historic race course after arriving in Baltimore by train from Louisville, Ky., scene of Iron Liege's spectacular triumph in the derby, giving them 10 days to prep for the $100,000-added Preakness.

Pimlico officials also received some encouragement last night after earlier disquieting reports that Ralph Lowe's Gallant Man, runner-up in the derby, probably would not start in the Preakness.

Gallant Man was reported "shaken" after a 30-hour train trip to New York from Louisville, but trainer Johnny Nerud later said his powerful runner was in good health.

"I didn't mean to create the impression that anything is wrong with Gallant Man," he said. "He's in fine shape right now. But the trip tired him and I simply want to wait four or five days to make sure he is all right before I decide whether to enter him in the Preakness."

In Charlestown, W.Va., a short horse van ride from Pimlico, Willie Hartack disclosed he had decided to ride Gen. Duke in the Preakness. He had been slated to ride the Duke in the derby but rode Iron Liege after the Duke was scratched because of a hoof injury.

Hartack, echoing the words of Calumet trainer Jimmy Jones, said he still considered Gen. Duke the better colt.

"If Gen. Duke runs in the Preakness," he said, "That will mean he is ready for a championship race because I don't think trainer Jones would start him otherwise."

The presence of both Gen. Duke and Gallant Man in the Preakness should go a long way toward determining whether Iron Liege's victory in the derby really established him as top-drawer contender for 3-year-old honors.

★ ★ ★

His derby conquest was somewhat tarnished by the Duke's absence and by jockey Willie Shoemaker's now-famous lapse of memory aboard Gallant Man. His fast-closing mount had taken the lead briefly in the stretch and still was battling it out with Iron Liege when Shoemaker mistook the sixteenth pole for the finish and stood up in his stirups.

Marquette Is Next for EMC Thinclads

Hayes Jones and Kerry Keating, the Pontiac area sparkplugs of the Eastern Michigan College track team, are in action again today as guests of Marquette.

It will be the 2nd outdoor meet for the Hurons who walloped Baldwin-Wallace Saturday. Jones will compete in the hurdle and jumping events, while Keating will run in the 440 and mile relay.

Central Michigan College claims new Tiger GM John McHale as one of its former students. McHale switched from Notre Dame to CMC in 1943 under the Navy's World War II program. He played basketball one year with the Chips along with other transfers from State, Wayne, Iowa State, and Hope and served as president of the Men's Union at the same time.

Willie Hartack is still telling people how Iron Leige "made a liar out of me" by winning the Derby. "I said he couldn't run but he sure did," exclaimed Willie right after the race. However, he and trainer Ben Jones still consider the injured Gen. Duke the better horse.

Bud Nicholie and his son Earl 12, have found out that a deer is a very fast swimmer. A few days ago, Bud and Earl were going fishing in Elizabeth Lake where they live on Motorway drive. The deer had crossed the lake near them, then went back in when they moved toward it. The two got in a boat, followed with a camera, recording the action of the swimming animal. "That deer," reported Bud, "was surprisingly fast in the water. We had to go top speed to keep up with it." The deer left the water, hurried across the road on the south side and disappeared, Nicholie reported.

Use Cab for Ring

Flanagan Bops Flanagan

MINNEAPOLIS (INS) — Veteran boxers Del and Glen Flanagan face disorderly conduct charges today for allegedly turning the back seat of a Minneapolis taxicab into a prize ring for a scrap between brothers.

The brothers reportedly began fighting in the taxi after they were ejected from a bar by police for alleged misconduct yesterday.

The fighter pleaded with Bessner to release the hold and the officer agreed.

Glen, 30, retired from the ring, will answer the charges today while Del, 28-year-old welterweight contender, will be tried next Tuesday.

Hopes to Keep Ypsi Title

PHS Regional Team Picked

Pontiac's prep thinclads have set themselves a prime target for Saturday's appearance in the MHSAA regionals at Eastern Michigan College, Ypsilanti. They are determined to retain the fine championship won last year with a record point total of 97½. That victory led directly to a state championship the following weekend at Ann Arbor. This will be Chief's 5th title defense of the year. They have lost four.

Dean Wilson has only three first place winners back in Hudson Ray, Larry Beamer, Archie Brooks. Ray has added the broad jump to his winning efforts this year and he is unbeaten in the high leap. Beamer has become successor to Bill Douglas and Rod Treais in the half mile and Brooks is still a 440 man. Brooks and Beamer also ran on the relay teams.

Pontiac should again sweep the top three high jump places with Ray, Alex Barge and Fred Brooks all doing better than 6-2.

A full squad will represent Chiefs, and Waterford will have a strong aggregation in competition, also. George Marshall, meet director, said today Pontiac is the favorite, despite loss of many top men from the 1956 squad. "They're still good," he said, "they have a lot of balance."

Field for Class A includes six schools, besides PHS and Skippers: Wyandotte Roosevelt, Ypsilanti Central, Fordson Edsel Ford, Royal Oak Dondero and Dearborn. Class C has 25 teams led by defending champion Hudson.

Smelt About Done

Walleyes, Perch Run

By H. GUY MOATS

Where indications point to the windup of a very slow and decidedly unsatisfactory smelt season along the east shore of the state, some new fishing activities are beginning to take on more important aspects.

For some inexplicable reason the smelt just didn't materialize along the creek mouths and streams in the Lake Huron, Lake St. Clair stretches where in other springs they were in almost unbelievable plenty.

Pehaps it's like District Conservation official William Mason of Imlay City headquarters says that early, high and roily waters may have permitted the silvery little fish to move in unnoticed. With water too high for dipping, they could have moved with little observation.

On the brighter side is the beginning of walleye and perch runs in the Detroit river. Says Mason: "The perch run in the river is very good. It's unusual to have such a run, the best in several years. Perch, however, are a rather spotty proposition elsewhere along the east shore."

Walleyes are moving up the river, Mason says, but have not reached the St. Clair area. Commercial catch of the fish in Lake Erie is reported very good. Clinton river had a run, right up the hatchery here last year, but there's no present evidence of a repeat. Mason said Loon lake is the only area water planted to walleyes, and some 2,000 fingerlings were put in the lake this spring.

Bluegills are moving slowly, conservation men say, but more of the current weather will help. Warmer temperatures will also start bass moving into spawning beds. Season on the bronzebacks opens June 15.

Michigan's fishing license is below the average for the U.S., with $1.50 (U.S. average is $2.12). Proposed state boost would still leave it under at $2.00.

★ ★ ★

Trouters are advised that the popular Rifle River public recreation area in Ogemaw county is closed indefinitely to anglers because of road repairs east of Rose City.

★ ★ ★

Sports fishing trend in this area, in the opinion of conservation man Warren Kendall, is toward trout angling. "This may be the biggest fishing activity in the county in the not-too-far-distant future," Warren believes.

Too Much Food

Brookie Fishing Slows Up

By JACK PATTERSON

Two seasonal factors have tended to slow up fishing for native brook trout in the smaller streams where these fish are often the sole trout species. Both are a matter of too much food, one a normal, predictable affair, the other a result of nature's caprice.

PATTERSON

In the first instance, this happens to be the spawning season for suckers and brook trout are quick to catch on to the idea of idling downstream from spawning beds and gorging on eggs and egg cases that come rolling down.

Surfeited with such easy pickings, the bigger fish particularly are inclined to be indifferent to the angler's offerings. This happens every spring and is one reason why brook trout fishing normally picks up fast along toward the latter part of May.

The other reason for an apparent listlessness of trout in normally fine waters is purely a matter of weather, more particularly rain. Heavy opening weekend rains loaded (and we mean loaded) many trout streams with angleworms and nightcrawlers. We know of one instance on the Pigeon River where a pair of fishermen collected two large cans full of worms from one small pocket in the stream.

One doesn't have to be an ichthyologist to imagine the snowball's chance the angler's single worm has in competition with such abundance. Fortunately, although any heavy rains will put worms in the stream, overloading as in the above illustration, is a sometime and springtime thing.

Brown trout, probably because they are most willing of the tribe to rise to a dry fly (except maybe the long-gone Michigan grayling) are the fly fisherman's favorite target. Since flies hatch every month of the year, albeit in mightily reduced numbers during cold months, there are few times during the season that these fish cannot be brought to the surface with an artifical.

As fly hatches increase in size and frequency, brown trout fishing will increase apace. For daytime fishing the next few weeks should be excellent. We are talking about fish from the legal size up to a pound or two.

The really big busters can be taken in the daytime, particularly from now until the end of the month, but night fishing is really the only practicable method of going after the over-five-pound fish.

Worms, dark wet flies and streamers are all favorites of the night fisherman, but for the whoppers the metallic silver flatfish in the smallest casting rod size, and fished with a casting outfit, may be the best bet. This may not sound like trout fishing gear but the fish and the fishing we're talking about is a specialized proposition and not to be confused wth normal trout fishing.

★ ★ ★

Incidentally, night fishermen might do well to leave their spinning gear at home. The precise casts and constant line control necessary for night stream fishing just about rules out spin gear.

Johnson, Payne on Board

Three District Seven directors were elected at a recent meeting of Michigan United Conservation Clubs at the Flushing Sportsmen's Club near Flint.

Marshall L. Johnson, editor of the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club's magazine was chosen to fill a three-year term as District Seven's representative at th state level. Chosen for one-year terms were Weldon Payne, of Multi-Lakes Conservation Association, and Mike Burke of the Genessee County Sportsmen's Club.

Ray Ball, and Johnson, were named by OCSC first vice president Ed Spicer to represent the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club as delegates to the convention, June 15-16 at Ludington.

An invitation from OCSC to District Seven to hold the September meeting in Waterford was accepted.

Little Chiefs Sink Shamrock Thinclads 84-25

Paced by Marcus Turner and Jim Payne, PHS junior varsity track squad yesterday afternoon at Wisner field swamped St. Michael's crew 84-25. Each of the two Little Chiefs turned in double wins. Payne won the low hurdles and broad jump, ran on the 880-relay team. Turner took the 100 and 220.

Illegal Fishing Tops Game Law Arrests

Violation of state fishing laws was the leading cause for arrests made by conservation officers during the month of March.

First Win for Skippers

Waterford won its first baseball game of the seaon by downing Van Dyke in an Inter-Lakes contest, 2-1, on the Skipper diamond. Chuck Gillis gave up five hits and got creit for the victory. Both runs were scored in the third inning.

Diedre Boosts Show Victories

Stewart Bryant of Mill Lake Farms Kennels has boosted his show victories for his fine 19-months old German Shepherd bitch, Diedre of Mill Lake Farms, with a double win at the recent Ft. Wayne Ind., show. Diedre, which took best of breed at Madison Square Garden in February, went best of breed and first in working dogs at Ft. Wayne. Two weeks ago she won over 1100 Shepherds in the Dayton, Ohio, Kennel Club show.

★ ★ ★

Bryant handles Diedre himself. She is the daughter of a pair of German imports, CH. Kondor and Erika, both of which he sold some time ago.

★ ★ ★

Diedre goes after another title this weekend at London, Ont., in a Canadian show, and then returns to compete in the May 19 Oakland County Kennel club show at Oak Park.

Bowfishing's Fun

Equipment Simple for Growing Sport

ALL OUTDOORS (INS) — A minimum of equipment can offer the maximum in outdoor fun when you try one of Michigan's fastest growing sports—bowfishing.

Many lakes in Oakland, Wayne and Genesee counties which are poor for hook and line fishing often turn out to be hot-spots for bowfishing and spearing rough fish.

Any archer can improvise a bow-reel and heavy tipped arrow, but it is much simpler and more efficient to spend a few pennies to buy one of the commercial rigs.

Well-known bowhunter and manufacturer, Fred Bear of Grayling, answers the following questions exclusively for All Outdoors.

Q—What is the best kind of water for bowfishing?

A—Marshes or reed beds bordering lakes, streams running into lakes, or any body of water known to contain rough fish. Drainage and irrigation canals and shallow offshore waters are also good spots.

Q—What is the best way to bowfish?

Q—What strength of bow is necessary?

A—Any bow weight normally used for targets or hunting is o.k. Good minimum for results would be 35 lb.

Q—What is the best arrow?

A—Solid glass. It is heavier and will penetrate water better, and it is tougher for large fish to break.

Q—What is the best time of day to bowfish?

A—During the mid-day when the sun warming the waters brings the fish to or near the surface.

★ ★ ★

Bear, who has been hunting just about everything from rough fish to grizzlies with a bow, said over three-quarters of the states now have bowfishing. "While a bowman is having fun shooting these fish," he concluded, "he is also helping the cause of conservation by helping keep down the numbers of rough fish."

Grayling Holds Bowfishing Event

GRAYLING — A specially marked section of the Au Sable river near Grayling will be the scene of the 2nd annual Au Sable Bowfishing Carnival Saturday and Sunday (May 11 and 12) with headquarters in this northern Michigan community.

Suckers will be the target for the archers during the two-day carnival sponsored by the Grayling Bow Hunters and Grayling Sportsmen's Club in cooperation with the Crawford County Chamber of Commerce.

Archers will hunt from the banks of the river or from canoes and will compete for merchandise prizes. The competition will be open to all archers.

Waterfowl Survey Begins

LANSING — The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service recently announced plans for its annual summer survy of waterfowl breeding and nesting grounds.

The survey, which began May 1, will continue into August and provides information used in the preparation of this year's waterfowl hunting regulations. Other valuable information also is provided by wintering ground inventories and the annual kill surveys.

This material, when compiled, serves as the basis for the federal waterfowl regulations framework. Each of the states then establishes its hunting regulations for ducks, geese and other waterfowl within this federal framework.

State Conservation Departments may set lower bag limits, or shorter seasons, than are outlined in the federal regulations, but may not exceed federal limitations.

NY Fire Hazards Close Public Lands

The state conservation department has reported 28 new fires across the state, in addition to a 100-acre forest fire on Potic Mountain, four miles west of Catskill. The department said 52 fires broke out during the weekend.

Gov. Averell Harriman closed the state forest to the public last weekend. His order virtually banned all hunting and fishing.

'No Breach' Says Ward

He could be declared a non-amateur, but reinstated immediately.

His San Francisco employer, Edward E. Lowery, testified before a grand jury investigating his income tax returns, that he paid Ward's expenses to the U.S. and Canadian Amateur championships in 1954.

A U.S. Golf Assn. official said that if reports of Lowery's statements to the grand jury are accurate, Ward "appears" to have broken the rule which forbids an employer from paying an employe's expenses to a tournament.

The rule states that a golfer penalized for breaking this rule must undergo two years' probation after which he is eligible for reinstatement. The punishment dates from the time of the infraction, in this case 1954. More than two years' already have passed.

★ ★ ★

"I borrowed $11,000," he said. "But it was strictly a loan. I have paid some of it back. I don't think I've breached the amateur code and I don't think I have a lot to worry about."

State Will Consider Tipsico Fishing Site

Three fishing sites and 169 acres of hunting land will be considered for purchase by the state Conservation Commission, meeting today in Lansing.

The Fishing sites are on Tipsico Lake, Oakland County, (near Holly); Torch Lake, Antrim county; and Thornapple Lake, Barry county. Each would be acquired with money from the Game and Fish Protection fund, created by hunting and fishing license revenue.

Four Veteran Drivers Ready for '500' Race

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Four probable starters in the 41st 500-mile auto race May 30 already have raced 41 times—among them—on the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Sam Hanks, 42, Pacific Palisades, Calif., has one of the most promising new cars in the field and probably will make the program for the 12th time.

Fred Agabashian, 43, Walnut Creek, Calif.; Tony Bettenhausen, 39, Tinley Park, Ill., and Paul Russo, 43, Canoga Park, Calif., also are assigned to superior cars and each should qualify for the 11th time.

None of the quartet ever has won the Memorial Day race, expected to pay a record $300,000 purse this year, but any one of them could do it. Hanks was AAA national champion in 1953 and Bettenhausen won the title in 1951.

Hanks, an aircraft test pilot in World War II, and Russo, Army veteran of the Pacific theater, are the only drivers in the field who competed in the "500" before the war. Hanks took 13th money in 1940 and Russo's first speedway car conked out early in the race.

Russo again will pilot one of the tremendously powerful Novis, only supercharged 8-cylinder cars in the field, and Bettenhausen will be his teammate. Agabashian will drive a new low-silhouette Kurtis-Kraft, teaming with Johnny Boyd of Fresno, Calif., on the Bowes Seal Fast team.

Agabashian, racing since 1931, has made his 10 speedway starts in 10 successive years, the only driver who has been in very starting field since 1947. His best finish was fourth in 1953.

Russo and Bettenhausen teamed up with one car in 1955 and took second money. Russo also relieved Agabashian for fourth place in 1953 after Russo's starting car quit. He has been among the first 10 on three other occasions.

Bettenhausen has missed only one "500" since World War II but his car went all the way only when he and Russo shared the 1955 job. Tony, a husky blond, relieved Joie Chitwood for fifth place in 1950.

16-Year-Old Player Upsets Miss Janssen

Two other teen-agers sparkled in opening play: Mary Mills of Ocean Springs, Miss., who wallops a long drive, and Clifford Ann Creed of Opelousas, La.

Druggists League Target; Exhibition Opens Season

Sponsored by proprietor Erwin Greer and managed by Carl Shell, the Druggists will try to beat off the challengers of Lakeland Pharmacy, last year's league and playoff champ; Gidley Electric Service, White Brothers Realty, Emmanuel Baptist Church and a team managed by Joe Umphrey and Steve Ryeson which as yet has no sponsor.

The 1957 season officially gets underway this Saturday night when Shaw's Jewelers, Pontiac Class A champions, meet the Waterford League all-star squad.

The game will be played at the Waterford Ball Park in Drayton Plains, starting at 8 p.m.

Regular season play begins next Monday, May 13. Games are scheduled Monday through Thursday evenings until August at the Drayton diamond.

Dressen Interested in Offers

DETROIT (AP)—Charlie "Chuck" Dressen, 58, bounced from his job as manager of the Washington Senators, remained up in the air today about his future. Should he take a front office post with the last-place American League club or look elsewhere?

★ ★ ★

"So far," Dressen said, "I have no other offers."

Club President Calvin Griffith, who came here from Washington yesterday to replace the manager with his No. 1 coach, Harry "Cookie" Lavagetto, offered Dressen a new position as coordinator of player personnel.

"I'm definitely interested," Dressen said, "but I told them it would have to be for more than one year."

Griffith said he planned to return to Washington tomorrow to talk with the club directors about a long-term pact for Dressen.

"That's a problem which will have to be settled by our board of directors," Griffith said. Griffith is the principal stockholder of the club and president of the six-man board.

Dressen made it clear that he would listen to any big league managerial offers he might get.

"I'm not asking for any," he emphasized. "I never have gone shopping in my life, but a front-office job would be something new for me. Managing a ball club is something I know. That's another reason I'm demanding a long-term contract in this new post."

Dressen, manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers when they won the National League championships in 1952 and 1953, took over the Senators in 1955. He has been in and out of the big leagues as a player and manager since 1925.

Lavagetto, 44, was nearing the end of his 18-year playing career when Dressen, as manager of Oakland in the Pacific Coast League in 1950, picked the one-time World Series star as his aide. He has been with Dressen ever since.

★ ★ ★

The managerial change was a drastic move to shake the Senators out of a nine-game losing streak. The club hasn't finished in the first division in 11 seasons and have gotten off to the worst of their 57-year American League history, losing 17 of 21 starts this season. They lost 5-3 to the Detroit Tigers yesterday in Lavagetto's first start as a big league manager.

Griffith said the switch in command was "no attempt to kick Chuck upstairs.

"The reason for the change is to strengthen our organization and we know of no other man more qualified than Chuck to scout players and handle them for us," he declared.

Around the Prep Front

BY BILL CORNWELL

The young men who patrol the baseball diamond continue to steal the show in high school sports activity around the Oakland County area.

Another no-hit masterpiece, a barrage of six home runs and a total of 46 runs in two games were the highlights of Tuesday's prep action.

Berkley's Franz Neubrecht hurled the no-hitter as the Bears blanked Farmington, 7-0, in Inter-Lakes Conference play. Neubrecht faced only 21 batters and struck out 17 of them, 11 in a row. In addition, he conquered Roy Temple, who has pitched two no-hitters this spring for Farmington.

Romeo's powerful outfit continued its heavy slugging with a 19-5 win over Oxford. George Green, Ray Ritter and Dale Kiser clouted home runs, Kiser's coming with the bases loaded, as the Bulldogs won their 7th straight. They have now collected 15 homers in seven games, a school record.

Roseville chalked up its 3rd consecutive Oakland B League triumph, walloping Lake Orion, 20-2. Hank Nardone slammed a two-run homer for the Wildcats.

Doug Bradley hurled a two-hit gem as Hamtramck trounced Cranbrook, 9-2. Both Cranbrook hits were home runs by losing pitcher Andy Billesdon and catcher Archie Allen.

Birmingham whitewashed Port Huron, 6-0, in an Eastern Michigan League game behind the six-hit pitching of Tom Estes. The win was the Maples' 2nd in three loop starts.

Cranbrook won all but one event while trimming Orchard Lake St. Mary and Utica in a triangular track meet. The Cranes amassed 80 1-6 points to 33 for the Eaglets and 23 5-6 for Utica.

Gary Grikscheit, Bob Waddell and Tom Noteware were double winners for the Cranes. Utica's Lou Haase was the top scorer with 11 1-3 points. St. Mary's Joe Waluk won the shot put to prevent a Crane sweep.

St. Frederick, Milford and West Bloomfield captured golf meets. The Kast brothers, Dick and Ed, fired 39 and 40 respectively as St. Fred defeated Shrine, 3-2.

Milford shot 180 to conquer Bloomfield Hills (183) and Brighton (190), despite a one-under-par (35) by the Hills' Bud Badger. The Lakers took 175 strokes while beating Holly (176) and Clarkston (207).

Allen Reiterates Wilt Will Depart

LAWRENCE, Kas. (INS) — Dr. Forrest C. (Phog) Allen, retired basketball coach at Kansas University, has repeated his prediction that cage star Wilt (the Stilt) Chamberlain will not play with the Jayhawks again next season.

However, Allen denied last night a story from Buffalo, N. Y., quoting him as saying there Sunday night that "Wilt made more than $100,000 for the University last year and thinks it is time he made some for himself."

Allen contended that what he really said was that the Kansas turnpike authority predicted Wilt would make $100,000 for them from fans motoring to Jayhawk games.

Little Rooster Softball Loop Starts Friday

The boys' softball league sponsored by youth groups of the First Free Methodist Church swings into action Friday night at 6 o'clock at Jaycee Park, Joslyn Ave. at Walton Blvd.

Purpose of the league is to provide summer recreation for boys of the junior and senior high departments of the Sunday School. This year's loop has been newly named the Little Rooster League.

The same four teams comprise the league — Fightin' Farmers, Bulldogs, Sluggers and Crusaders. The Fightin' Farmers are the defending champs.

TUESDAY'S HOME RUNS

House, Boiling, Tigers; Hamner, Phillies; Boyer, Moon, Cardinals; Schoendienst, Rhodes, Giants; Williams, Red Sox; Doby, White Sox; Power 2, Athletics; Francona, Orioles; Neeman, Cubs.

Basilio in Oregon to Box Exhibitions

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Welterweight champion Carmen Basilio is eager to fight Sugar Ray Robinson in July, but his managers are not worried about Basilio running short of opponents.

★ ★ ★

Co-managers Joe Netro and John DeJohn bristled at reports reaching them that Robinson doesn't want to fight Basilio until September. Robinson took back his middleweight title by knocking out Gene Fullmer last week.

Basilio is in Oregon for a series of exhibition appearances and will fight a 10-round non-title match in Portland, May 16.

"We want to fight Robinson in July and Jim Norris of the International Boxing Club wants to promote it then in Yankee Stadium," Netro said.

Mrs. Marquardt Sets Pace in WDGA Event

First of the spring weekly Women's District Golf association tourneys was won, yesterday, by Mrs. H. D. (Rylma) Marquardt with Mrs. W. L. Mosher runnerup.

Play was over Pine Lake's layout, with Mrs. Marquardt carding 42-38 — 80 for her victory. She was one stroke under Mrs. Mosher, who had 39 on the back nine.

Smacks Homer, Single

Hamner Returns to Infield

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Granny Hamner threw away his pitching glove today. He's back in the Philadelphia Phillies infield to stay if last night's performance against Milwaukee is any indication of things to come.

★ ★ ★

Hamner, veteran shortstop and second baseman had turned to pitching because of a shoulder injury which he believed would cut short his career as a major leaguer.

★ ★ ★

An All-Star shortstop and second baseman for the National League, Hamner injured his left shoulder diving for a ground ball early last spring. As a result of some muscle damage, the Virginian was unable to whip a bat around without feeling excruciating pain. He could field and throw, but he couldn't hit.

★ ★ ★

Last night he replaced the good field-no hit Teddy Kazanski at second base. His second time at bat, Hamner rifled a Warren Spahn pitch into the upper deck for a home run. Later he lined a single to center. There was no pain. He fielded in his usual faultless style. The Phillies, with a 13-hit attack behind Robin Roberts, won 8-4, handing Spahn his first defeat of the season after four wins.

New 'D' League Begins Campaign

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A new all-rookie Class D league will start a 66-game campaign Sunday, June 30. The new league, with teams in Kingsport, Tenn.; Bluefield, W.Va.; and Salem and Wytheville, Va., will take over the name of the defunct Appalachian League, disbanded after the 1955 season.

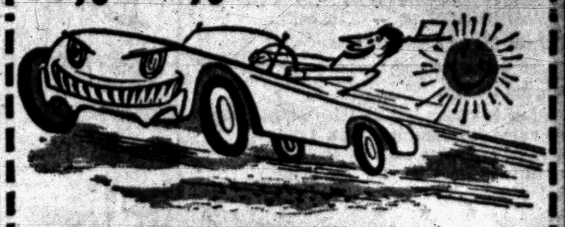

★ ★ ★

All four clubs will be big league farms with Baltimore controlling Kingsport; Brooklyn, Bluefield; Pittsburgh, Salem, and St. Louis, Wytheville.

Suspended Sentence Missed by Defendant

WASHINGTON (AP) — Elizabeth Patton, 21, appeared in Municipal Court for sentencing on a petty larceny charge.

After lecturing her on the evils of crime, because it was a first offense, the judge said:

"My sentence is 180 days in jail and . . ."

★ ★ ★

At that point, Miss Patton fainted.

Aircrafts Lead Rise by Stocks

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market mostly was a little higher early today with aircrafts acting somewhat better than the rest of the list.

Trading started out at a fairly active pace but slowed down a bit as the session progressed. Some small losses appeared.

North American Aviation, United Aircraft and Douglas each gained nearly a point in active dealings. Boeing could make only a small fractional upturn.

Peninsular Telephone jumped more than 5 points on heavy volume, hitting a new high for the year, on news officials of General Telephone had agreed to acquire Peninsular.

General Tire, which soared 9 points in a very active trade yesterday, could not extend its gain. It fell back more than 2 points on profit taking.

Market analysts noted prices have eased slightly in the last three sessions, a move accompanied on light volume.

Printing Firm Holds School on Filing

A school on filing is being conducted by the General Printing Co., 17 W. Lawrence St. to acquaint county businesses with the latest techniques in filing.

The school, free and open to the public, is being conducted by two experts from the Wabash Filing Co.

The first of three all-day sessions was held yesterday and the final one is set for tomorrow.

Some 120 persons are attending today's session, from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., according to Mrs. Fern Weston, General Printing manager.

"We have had so many requests for improving filing systems, that we have long wanted to conduct a school in the subject," Mrs. Weston said. "When we finally found the experts we wanted, we went ahead."

Mothers Hit Senate in Economy Drive

Mrs. Norma Popek of Orchard Lake, a spokesman, said the group of about 60 women would have numbered about 500 more but for baby-sitting problems.

Mrs. Popek said women in the Walled Lake consolidated and neighboring school districts were up in arms about property taxes in particular and school spending.

Rider's Leg Fractured as Car Hits Utility Pole

Andrew J. Swift, 41, of 314 Wessen St., was injured early this morning while he was riding in an auto driven by a Montgomery, Alabama resident, Donald Carroll Sims.

★ ★ ★

Police report the auto Sims was driving struck and broke a utility pole after the auto crossed the railroad tracks at Wessen street about 1 a.m. today.

Grains Steady in Quiet Deals

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures held about steady on the board of trade today. There was little news of importance to affect trading in either direction.

There was a small amount of selling in the nearby May wheat contract at the start by brokers representing cash and export houses. New crop prices were mostly unchanged in quiet dealings.

Near the end of the first hour old wheat was ¼ to ½ higher, May $2.16, new wheat was ⅛ to ⅜ higher, July $2.07½, corn was ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, May $1.29, oats were ⅛ to ¼ higher, May 69, rye was ¼ lower to higher, May $1.16, soybeans were unchanged to ⅜ higher, May $2.40⅝, and lard was 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, May $12.97.

Accused of Liquor Sale Without State License

Red Anderson, 54, of 153½ Wessen St. appeared before Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum today, accused of selling liquor without a Michigan State Liquor License.

Examination was set for May 16 and Anderson was freed on a $500 bond.

Man Justified in Tossing Drink Into Wife's Face

PHILADELPHIA (AP) —Businessman Russell Seery was perfectly justified in throwing the contents of a highball glass into his wife's face and complaining about her cooking, the Pennsylvania Superior Court ruled yesterday.

She had accused her husband of indignities and cruel and barborous treatment because of the highball incident and his complaints about her cooking.

The Superior Court, noting that the highball affair occurred after Mrs. Seery "submitted" to kisses of a guest at a party, said the act did not indicate cruelty on Seery's part. In view of Mrs. Seery's own admission that she didn't like housework, the court found "the criticism of her cooking was justified."

Dog Distemper Rises Sharply

Owners Urged to Keep Animals at Home, Give Booster Shots

The number of cases treated by veterinarians has shown a sharp upturn since early January, he said, and state figures show nearly 25 per cent increase so far this year over 1955.

Many of the cases reported are older dogs, Dr. Emery added, which means the belief that immunization provides lifetime protection needs revision.

He urged booster shots for older dogs who have not been immunized since they were pups.

EARLY CARE ESSENTIAL

Dog owners were warned that only if they bring their pets in during the early stages of the disease can they be saved from the later stages which are very often fatal.

Early stage symptoms are relatively mild. Often the disease is manifested only by a slight rise in temperature and listlessness. There may be a loss of appetite, vomiting or marked nervousness, the doctor said.

"It is important, especially in spring and fall, that the dog is not permitted to roam," he said.

County Vets Council Schedules Election

The Oakland County Council of Veterans of Foreign Wars will hold both the election and installation of new officers Thursday night.

The election will start at 8 p.m. and the installation will follow at 9:30 p.m. at the Council's Post No. 1370, 398 S. Saginaw St.

The election will be split into two sections: one for the women and one for the men. The two groups will carry out their installations jointly.

The officers elected will rule over 23 posts and auxiliaries in Oakland County.

Auto Firm Files Anti-Trust Suit

Charges Conspiracy, Price-Fixing in Sales of New Cars

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A one-million-dollar anti-trust suit charging conspiracy and price-fixing on the sale of new cars has been filed in Federal Court by Willis Auto Sales of Westport, Ind.

Defendants in the action are General Motors Corp., Ford Motor Co., Chrysler Corp., seven Greensburg, Ind., automobile dealers and the Greensburg News Publishing Co.

The suit charges the defendents with engaging in an unlawful combination and monopoly in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law and the Clayton Act.

The suit asks for a restraining order enjoining the defendents from price-fixing, and requests a jury trial in seeking a $900,000 judgment and $100,000 in attorney's fees.

The suit charges that franchised dealers and the manufacturers had prevented non-franchised dealers from selling new cars by getting serial numbers of new cars on the non-franchised dealers' lots and forwarding the numbers to the defendant manufacturers. The suit alleges that they requested supplies of new cars to the non-franchised dealers be cut off.

The newspaper, the suit alleges, joined the "conspiracy" after the Greensburg dealers threatened to withdraw their advertising if Willis Auto Sales was permitted to continue advertising.

$9.81 Ruled Value of Hudson's Stock

DETROIT (AP) — Circuit Judge Miles N. Culehan yesterday confirmed an appraisal of $9.81 as the "fair cash value" of Hudson Motor Car Co. stock prior to Hudson's merger with Nash Kelvinator Corp. in 1954.

The court named three appraisers in 1955 to determine the fair cash value after attorney's representing holders of 250,070 shares of stock objected to the price of $9.80 they were offered for the stock.

Judge Culehan ordered the dissenting stockholders and the American Motors Corp., the new name of the merged corporations, each to pay 50 per cent of the cost of the appraisers fees and expenses.

The judge denied motions by the stockholders for the assessment of attorney fees against the corporation and for payment of interest from the date they demanded a court determination of the fair cash value.

34 Given Diplomas in Baby Sitting Class

Diplomas were given 34 young girls last night who graduated from a baby sitting school held at Stiles School, Avondale.

To earn their diplomas, the girls attended three evening classes in the subject, stressing safety and child care.

The course was taught by a Stiles teacher, Mrs. Rex Boner and was sponsored by the Stiles PTA in cooperation with the Oakland County Home Extension Service.

Driver Hits Parked Car, Passenger Cut on Face

Richard O. Reynolds, 25, of 155 W. Rundell St., told police his auto hit a parked car while he was driving north on Cass Ave. and talking to his passenger Bressler. Reynolds said he thought the road had curved, police said.

The parked auto, in front of 106 N. Cass Ave., belonged to Cruz Torres, of 206 N. Cass Ave.,

Deny Rezoning of Perry Street

But Commissioners OK Building of Warehouse on Two Streets

Hearing many protests from residents, city commissioners last night denied two requests to rezone 14 lots on Perry street to Commercial 1 in order that gas stations might be built there.

Commissioners did concur with a Planning Commission recommendation that 10 lots on Columbia and Longfellow avenues be rezoned to allow for a warehouse.

Many residents appeared before the commission to fight the rezoning of residential lots on the northwest side of Perry street from Oliver to East boulevard.

Pontiac attorney Floyd A. Blakeslee asked a postponement in order that a waiver could be obtained to override present deed restrictions of the property.

MEETS OPPOSITION

"I believe the majority of the people in that area are opposed to this change." Dugan said. He said he wasn't attempting to block new gas stations, but objected to tearing down homes to make room for them.

A resident, Alex A. Andrews, 580 E. Montcalm St., said, "As far as gas stations are concerned, according to the planning commission there are 17 within a certain radius of this area."

The second denial was for five lots on the southeast side of Perry from Harper to Joslyn. The plan group recommended rejection of both requests.

Air Force Pilot Dies as 4 Jets Crash-Land

BAHREIN, Persian Gulf (AP)—One pilot was killed yesterday in the desert crash-landing of four U. S. jet training planes. The planes were part of the first flight of eight jet trainers to be turned over to the U. S. military training mission in Saudi Arabia.

★ ★ ★

En route from Germany, the four planes ran out of fuel after encountering a violent, out-of-season desert storm. They were forced down 60 miles from the Dhahran airfield, their destination.

The storm deluged Bahrein last night with a record May rainfall. Nearly an inch fell in places—more in one night than sometimes falls in an entire year.

Worker Ignored, Says Sligh

Official Hits Union 'Pose'

NEW YORK (AP) — An official of the National Assn. of Manufacturers says the concern of union leadership for the worker and his rights is a "pose."

Charles L. Sligh, executive vice president of the NAM, made the statement yesterday. He commented on criticism voiced against the NAM and U. S. Chamber of Commerce the day before by AFL-CIO President George Meany.

Meany said the two business organizations pose as friends of labor while advocating legislation that might destroy unions.

Meany said the Chamber is working for national "right-to-work" laws. The AFL-CIO, he said, is going to fight such laws.

"Right-to-work" laws stipulate that a worker need not join a union as a condition of employment.

Sligh said:

"A favorite pose of union leadership is concern for the individual worker and his rights. But a sharp line is drawn when it comes to the worker's right of free choice in relation to membership or non-membership in a union."

ROCHESTER — Rochester's annual Home and Builders Show will be held on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, June 7 - 9, it was announced today by co-chairmen Fred Maynard and Cyril Korompay. The exhibition again is sponsored by the Rochester Lions Club.

Maynard, also a co-chairman last year, stated today "Interest manifested to date by former exhibitors and the many new entries indicates that this year's show will be far more varied and entertaining than any before."

A huge tent will again house the exhibits on Halbach Field, with 64 display booths inside and space reserved for automobile dealers and boat exhibitors on the grounds outside. Ample free parking is again available and children under 12 will be admitted free when accompanied by an adult.

Show hours will be 3 to 10 p.m. on Friday, June 7, and 1 to 10 p.m. on June 8, and 9.

Also, housing, Harold Smith; set-up and parking, Bud Maynard; clean-up, Clyde Dunlop; police, Sam Howlett; utilities, Clarence Kremer and Francis Voll; tickets, George Hesketh, Jr. and Frank Voll; refreshments, Martin Stemmer; and sports car parade chairman, Jack Martin.

Councilmen Up Budget

FARMINGTON — City Council here Monday night adopted a 20 mill budget, an increase of three mills over the current budget. Part of the increase is earmarked for a $50,000 DPW building which city voters turned down April 1. City Manager Earl Scherffius said the budget will provide $20,000 in the first fiscal year to get the building under way.

QUIET CONFIDENCE — George Gobel, shown with his 10-year-old son, Gregg, remains confident about the future despite the fact that NBC-TV is dropping his half-hour comedy show. Next season George and Eddie Fisher will alternate as stars of an hour-long weekly program for the same network.

Russia Expels U.S. Diplomat

Secretary's Ouster Seen as Possible Retaliation by Soviet Government

WASHINGTON (AP)— The State Department says Russia has ordered a U. S. diplomat — Martin S. Bowe Jr. — expelled from Moscow without giving any explanation.

Press officer Lincoln White, said the U. S. Embassy has demanded to know why. Bowe is second secretary of the embassy in Moscow. The Russians fixed no deadline for his leaving.

★ ★ ★

The move was regarded as possible retaliation for the U. S. ouster last month of Gennadi Mashkantsev, a member of the Soviet Embassy staff here. The Russian was expelled for trying to entice Russians living in the United States to return to the Soviet.

"We know of absolutely nothing," he said. The press officer added that the Soviet Foreign Ministry had said Bowe must leave immediately because of "activities incompatible with his status as an accredited diplomat."

★ ★ ★

Socialized Medicine Called Inevitable

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — The president of the American Osteopathic Assn. says he believes socialized medicine is inevitable within 10 years.

★ ★ ★

"We have gone so far down the road in that direction it is doubtful if we can turn back now," Dr. Robert D. McCullough, Tulsa, Okla., said last night at the annual dinner of the Kansas State Osteopathic Assn.

★ ★ ★

Socialized medicine is not necessarily desirable, Mc Culloigh said, but medical groups can make it more acceptable if they realize the inevitable. He said the patient's freedom in choosing a doctor can be maintained to some degree.

British View Ike Doctrine With Both Chagrin, Hope

By JOHN MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

The British are both chagrined and hopeful about the Eisenhower Doctrine in the Middle East.

They are chagrined because their main pillars have been toppled in the critical area. Gone is the old stand-in pivotal Jordan. Gone are the huge barracks in the Suez Canal Zone.

Under heavy pressure from Arab nationalists, and a prod by the United States, the British abdicated the power they held so long in a critical area of the world.

Who is to fill the so-called vacuum? The U. S. dispatch of the powerful Sixth Fleet to the eastern Mediterranean implies that Washington is going to do it under a very elastic Eisenhower Doctrine. The plan calls for action against communism — if a state requests such aid.

★ ★ ★

The British are hopeful in picturing President Eisenhower in the role of a latter-day T. E. Lawrence, but they also are fearful of a wrong step in a very tricky situation.

YOUNG SOLDIER

Lawrence of Arabia was the young soldier who did so much to win the Arabs to the British side in the first World War.

★ ★ ★

The Saudi Arabian and Iraqi monarchs are on the U. S. side. Jordanian King Hussein clearly favors the U. S. in any East-West struggle.

But due to seething Arab nationalism the King publicly takes a neutralistic stand in backing Arab aims against Israel and in not accepting the mission of James Richards, President Eisenhower's special envoy who is touring the Middle East to explain just what American wishes are involved in the new doctrine.

★ ★ ★

The American exhibit of deterrent force in the east Mediterranean heartens the British whose military grasp slipped.

WARNING TO SOVIET

★ ★ ★

It is a warning also that the United States is ready to act independently of the blue-flagged United Nations in the Middle East if that area's oil riches are endangered.

Some Britons are not convinced the Americans mean action to prevent trouble in the Middle East. The liberal Manchester Guardian editorially summed up this feeling by saying:

"Sending the Marines to the shores of the Lebanon may give the trespassers second thoughts. But what if someone does trespass? The answer is deeply in doubt."

Swiss Reject Newsman's Plea

Writer for AP Argues Ruling Violates Statute for Press Freedom

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) — The Swiss Federal Tribunal today rejected the complaint filed by Associated Press correspondent Michael Goldsmith against his imprisonment for refusing to disclose his news sources in an espionage case.

Goldsmith was sentenced to 24 hours in jail by Examining Magistrate Hans Walder in Bern April 26. Walter is investigating the suicide of Atty. Gen. Rene Dubois and espionage charges against Federal Police Inspector Max Ulrich.

man to disclose details of the allegations against Ulrich March 20. Three days later Dubois shot himself in the attic of his home, and the Swiss government disclosed that he also was involved in the espionage investigation.

Ulrich was arrested May 2. He was charged with selling recorded telephone conversations of the Egyptian Embassy in Bern to Col. Marcel Mercier, French intelligence officer attached to the French Embassy.

The information supplied by Ulrich is believed to have enabled the French to arrest a considerable number of Algerian nationalist leaders in France and Algeria in recent months.

Baptizes Son, 3, After Hitting Him With Her Auto

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Mrs. Clarence F. Allen knelt beside her 3-year-old son in the street yesterday and administered the Roman Catholic rite of baptism after running to a telephone to get instructions from a priest.

"I baptize thee, Clarence F. Allen Jr., in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost," Mrs. Allen sobbed.

"She had done everything exactly right," said the Rt. Rev. J. J. Downey, who arrived a few minutes later and rode to the hospital in an ambulance with Mrs. Allen and Clarence. "In an emergency, anyone can perform the rite by following instructions."

Mrs. Meta Boyd, 34, said Clarence popped out from behind a parked car into the path of her machine—"I didn't see him at all."

Looks to Future With Assurance

Funnyman to Alternate With Fisher in Show Next Season

By CHARLES DENTON

★ ★ ★

In the case of George Gobel, who scored a quick, sensational triumph on television's most brutal battleground three seasons ago and then found himself slightly outflanked this year, the campaigning has had the former effect.

He faces the future with quiet confidence.

Furthermore, the diminutive master of whimsy is convinced that most of the tears shed at the biers of comedians who supposedly have "fallen" in the battle for laughs are wasted.

"Does television burn up comedians? I don't know. I really don't believe I'm qualified to say," Gobel mused in the soft thoughtful way that has become familiar to interviewers since his sudden rise to TV fame.

★ ★ ★

"Certainly it's the toughest medium comedians have ever had to face," he went on, "but I don't think that means you should quit like a dirty dog. I believe there's always going to be a need for comedy."

MORE SERIOUS

The 37-year-old Gobel, a more serious and pensive, though no less amiable, version of the boyish buffoon whose squeaky voice and quizzical expression made him the comedy "discovery" of 1954, shrugged off the suggestion that video overexposure can murder a comic.

"I don't believe television has ever 'killed' any comedian," he said earnestly. "Actually I think that because there isn't any place to develop new comedians these days, the established ones will be around longer.

"I also think those who have slipped—and I'm talking about the Red Buttons and Wally Coxes who have no shows of their own right now—will be back better than ever when the right things come along for them."

"In this business they either want to put you way up there on a pedestal or tear you down completely," he said. "You'll hear them say, 'Here's a guy who made six million bucks overnight and now he can't get arrested.'

"I don't know why this business has to be any different than any other. If a guy has a big year in the building business and then doesn't do as well the next year, they don't say he's through.

"If my type of comedy is out, then I'm really out of business. I'm not the kind who can come out and tell 15 gags in a two-minute monologue.

A BIT CONFUSED

"I figure you've just got to go out there and take your best hold, make as many changes as you can within your capabilities and try to keep 'em a little bit confused, which is a little tough to do.

★ ★ ★

Gobel's change for next season will consist primarily of bowing out of his current half-hour NBC show and teaming up with Eddie Fisher in a one-hour-a-week show for the same network. They will alternate starring and "guesting" on the show.

"I think it'll make quite a quinella," George grinned. "We have people who watch me who don't know anything about Eddie Fisher.

"On the other hand, he has those young people who listen to his songs and buy his records, and we've never had a shot at them because they're not people who want to sit home quiet on Saturday night and watch TV."

Irish Surgeon in Detroit

Wilson Contemplates Life at 50th Birthday

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—You wake up one day and you're 50.

"I don't look 50, do I?" you mutter into the mirror. But you decide not to ask anybody, because once when Tallulah Bankhead had been in Hollywood, she said to Irving Hoffman, "I don't look 40, do I?"

And he answered: "No — not any more."

I want to thank God—and also all of you—for letting me reach this ripe old age. It must be my rugged Ohio farm boy upbringing.

★ ★ ★

Except for a boil that knocked me out once for several weeks and a touch of "rheumatiz" that flattened me as a kid—guess they call it "rheumatic fever" now—I've never been sick (except now and then in the head).

And lucky me to have the finest wife, son, mother and mother-in-law, and also the most brilliant bosses—and to be working for all the greatest newspapers.

When I wrote the other day that I was having a birthday and added "Send no gifts (just money)," two readers sent me a penny and one sent me a 100,000-mark German note dated 1923.

I feel so good at 50 that I can't believe I'll ever wind up a vinegar-pussed old cynic like many in the reporting and writing racket.

Milton Berle and I just patched up an old feud, and if there's anybody else I've been mad at, I'm forgetting it, starting today.

Well, I guess this column's so corny you can shuck it but you only have one 50th birthday. As for the future: Is there life after 50? I mean to find out.

One last word: I don't really look it, do I?

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Jack Barry and Dan Enright just sold to NBC for "over $1,000,000" all their shows (21, Juvenile Jury, Tic-Tac-Dough, Life Begins at 80 and their new one, High-Low) and signed an exclusive 7-year contract to create, advise, etc. It's a big capital gains deal by which Jack Barry becomes almost as well-to-do as some of his contestants.

★ ★ ★

Eddie Condon's jazzitorium in the Village may move uptown when its present home's razed around January 1 . . . Jayne Mansfield's fond of the new pictures of herself. Teenager idol Tommy Sands is playing the "Luciano's son" type of story on Kraft TV but they're switching it to Austria instead of Italy . . . June Havoc's wearing an eye patch to TV rehearsals due to an exploding flashbulb.

★ ★ ★

EARL'S PEARLS: The Battle of the Sexes will never be won by either side. There's too much fraternizing with the enemy.

★ ★ ★

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Asked why she joined a nudist colony, a New York woman replied simply, "Well, I didn't have a thing to wear and so . . ."

★ ★ ★

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Children add a lot of color to a home, as you well know (says Tony Pettito) if you've ever given them a set of crayons . . . That's earl, brother.

OKs Ike's Cuts in Foreign Aid

Senator Calls Request 'Minimum Consistent With National Security'

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) said today President Eisenhower is scaling down his foreign aid requests to "the minimum consistent with our own national security."

Smith, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he believes Congress will vote about $3,800,000,000 in military and economic asistance for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The President originally asked a total foreign aid program of $4,400,000,000, but has since suggested reducing that figure by 500 millions.

The revised program will be discussed with congressional leader of both parties in a White House conference with the President tomorrow.

Meanwhile, a special Senate committee which spent many months studying foreign aid arranged to meet today in a closed session to begin final work on its report.

The tentative report recommends:

1. Greater flexibility for the President in use of aid funds.

2. A revolving fund for long-term, low-interest loans for economic development abroad. Outright grants would be reduced to a minimum.

3. Separation of economic aid

In a recent letter to Speaker of the House Rayburn (D-Tex), Eisenhower disclosed he has suggested that new spending authority for military assistance be reduced by 500 million dollars.

By transferring some funds previously earmarked for grants to the revolving fund authority, Smith thinks the new foreign aid authorization program will be brought to around $3,800,000,000.

Bob Considine Says:

These Folks Should Trade Places

NEW YORK (INS)—The passing show . . .

In church the other day a mother with a restless, talkative little boy seemed so upset by the child that I thought she might strike him. Every once in a while, when he crawled down beneath the bench, she'd pull him up and set him down with a bang.

She shushed him when he said "Mama," and scolded him when he looked fondly at the father sitting next to him and waved and said, during the sermon, "Daddy!"

I kept thinking of an incident on a plane not long ago. A well-dressed woman carried a handsome little boy of two or three in her arms to a seat and placed the child on her lap.

The husband, having put the bags in the rack up front, came back, kissed her goodbye, bent over the silent child, and said, slowly and fondly—stretching out each word—"We will go swimming soon, right, son?" The child stared back, uncomprehensively.

There must have been a 15-minute wait. During the last five minutes the mother of the boy held him to the plane window and whispered, "Say bye-bye . . . say bye-bye . . . say Daddy . . . Daaa-deee."

The poor little guy gurgled a bit but could make no other sound. The propellors spun and we moved away. The father was still waving.

THOUSANDS OF FRIENDS

Michael J. Ready, Catholic bishop of Columbus, Ohio, who died late last week, was a remarkably learned and personable man who made and kept thousands of friends in all walks and sects of life.

★ ★ ★

During the troubles his church had in Mexico years ago, he roamed through that country "looking like a bum," as he put it, getting a first-hand account of the murders of priests and nuns. One slip and he himself would have died.

He was an extraordinarily handsome man, as well as a bright and good one. And he must have retained his lively sense of humor to the end.

Years ago, when he was a monsignor, I took him to dinner at Toots Shor's and, emboldened by the atmosphere, or something, said I thought bishops should discourage the kissing of their rings by the pious.

★ ★ ★

Lo and behold, Ready made bishop a few months later. My wife and I were going into the dining room for the lunch that followed the Washington ceremony when the new bishop, in all his regalia, emerged from the Mayflower Hotel.

I got in the line waiting to congratulate him. He stuck out his friendly hand and said, "Hi, Bob."

'ONCE FOR LUCK'

The old ring which he had been given—witness of who knows what ecclesiastical adventures—glittered as he extended his hand. I looked at it a moment, said, "Well, once for luck," and bent over to kiss it.

★ ★ ★

When I was within perhaps half an inch of it, the bishop brought it up with a snappy little right uppercut that caught me right on the jaw—something like the one that later hit Gene Fullmer.

Henry Roberts, owner of all prognosticating rights to Nostradamus, the 16th Century seer, writes me that his boy predicted the recent comet and adjacent events.

What Nostry wrote was, "The eye of the object shall make such an escrescence and so great will be the trembling of the earth that hail will fall bigger than eggs . . . burning shall fall, the snow at the time . . . the great star shall burn for the space of seven days in May."

Well, the comet showed up, Russia shook the earth with more H-bomb tests, we announced we'd do the same in Nevada in a more discreet way, hail big as eggs fell in some places, and there was much talk about radioactive fallout "burning shall fall the snow."

Bus Officials Ride Cars

CLEVELAND (AP) — A recent survey of the commuting habits of Cleveland Transit System officials seems to prove what some bus riders have long suspected. Most of the top brass, the survey shows, ride to work in automobiles.

College Starts Fight Against Allergies

CORVALLIS, Ore. (INS) — Oregon State College experts have launched an all-out battle against those tiny substances which cause allergies in much of the human population.

The battle is being financed through a new fund grant which came through the University of Oregon medical school, which is studying other phases of the problem.

The Oregon State experts believe that if they can find the cause of irritating allergies, they will have been of great assistance to scientists looking for better treatments and preventives.

Grand Rapids 'Test'

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Western Union spokesman Clifton Press says Grand Rapids will be one of six United States cities in which the communications firm will test the popularity of singing Mother's Day telegrams. Minneapolis, St. Paul, Dallas, Forth Worth and Des Moines are others in which the firm's women operators will sing verse greetings to mothers.
