It Was a Quiet Sunday Morning, June 25, 1950

Ten years ago, the border between North Korea and South Korea disappeared as the Communist forces moved south across the 38th Parallel, touching off 37 months which involved much of the world in bloodshed and fruitless negotiation. Americans died there, alongside UN Allies from Turkey, India, Canada and many other nations, as the battles ranged from one end of the peninsula to the other. Scenes like the one above, assistance for an injured soldier during one of the battles for the now-famous Pork Chop Hill, were typical. Victory was at hand before Red China poured divisions of "volunteers" into the fray. Today, after 10 years, the line of demarcation is traced by the muzzles of weapons and wary patrols eying each other from hilltops.

Leave Korea, Reds Tell Allies

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

PANMUNJON, Korea—The Communists demanded today, on the 10th anniversary of their invasion of South Korea, that allied forces get out of the country.

The Allies promptly replied that they will remain until the nation is democratically reunified.

The Reds charged also that the Allies are building up their forces south of the 38th Parallel. U. S. Marine Maj. Gen. Marion L. Dawson dismissed the charge as a "tiresome propaganda tirade."

In Seoul, Prime Minister Huh Chung declared that South Korea has abandoned ousted President Syngman Rhee's idea of unifying this divided peninsula by force.

Huh Chung, who assumed leadership after Rhee's government was toppled by a revolt in April, said in his Korean War anniversary statement that "our change of political face has been accompanied by a change of heart."

"Gone . . . are the cliches . . . and the 'march north' oaths of yesterday. We strive to make reason and honor the main instruments of our diplomacy," he said.

"March north" was a favorite threat of Rhee. Whenever he became impatient over the prolonged division of Korea, the ousted 85-year-old leader would threaten to unleash the big South Korean army and go it alone much to the embarrassment of South Korea's allies, including the United States, which controls ammunition and supplies.

NOT LAST OF TYPE

Gen. Carter B. Magruder, Allied commander in Korea, said in Seoul the world has not seen the last of Korea-type limited wars.

The white-haired U.S. general disputed the widely held belief that another Communist attack on South Korea would automatically trigger massive U.S. atomic retaliation against Communist China or Russia.

The 16 U.N. allies warned when they accepted the armistice in 1953 that another Communist attack might force them to react in a way that would no longer confine the war to the Korean peninsula.

Magruder was asked whether a new Korean War would lead to direct attack on Red China.

"With the appalling amount of destruction that would attend any all-out war. I am convinced that both sides would attempt to limit any future war," he replied.

Brazilian Plane Falls; 51 Die

Spot Wreckage in Bay but Find No Survivors; One American Aboard

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) —A Brazilian airliner with 51 persons aboard, including at least one American, plunged into Guanabara Bay Friday night while approaching Rio de Janeiro. Search teams found parts of bodies and wreckage but no survivors.

The twin-engined Convair, on a 600-mile flight from the new capital of Brasilia with a midway stopover at Belo Horizonte, was listed as missing nearly eight hours.

The crash was confirmed early today when navy search crews found the plane's wreckage floating in the bay off the island of Paqueta, about 10 miles up the bay from Rio's Dumont Airport.

Later the searchers reported finding parts of bodies and pieces of luggage that had floated up on the beach.

Among those listed aboard was Newton B. Thompson, a native of Waterville, Me., an official of the American Bond and Share Electric Co.

A spokesman for Real Airlines said the passenger list carried other Anglo-Saxon names, including George Pfistern, Janet S. Latter and H. V. Lee. The line could not confirm their nationalities or give their addresses.

Thompson's wife told reporters in Rio that her husband had been in Belo Horizonte on business.

Earlier reports had said the plane might be carrying several Brazilian congressmen who often travel from Brasilia for weekends in Rio. It was later learned that only one congressman — Jose Gomes Talarico — had boarded the flight in Brasilia. And he transferred off upon learning the plane would be delayed.

Aims Shotgun at Boy After Missing Wife

Victim Was Walking Up Driveway From Store When Downed

A 12-year-old boy was shot to death by his stepfather in Troy this morning as he returned home from a store. Minutes earlier, the irate husband had fired a shotgun blast at the boy's mother, but missed.

Killed instantly with one shot was Mitchell Steele. His stepfather Paul Henley, 55, of 2680 Wisconsin St., admitted the shooting, Troy Police Chief David Gratopp said.

His wife Gaynell, 37, was taken to William Beaumont Hospital where she is being treated for shock.

The slaying occurred about 10:45 a. m. following a domestic argument between the husband and wife. Neighbors said the pair had been quarreling for years.

Mrs. Henley told officers that during the argument her husband went into the bedroom, grabbed his 12 gauge automatic shotgun and fired across the hall at her in the kitchen. The shot missed.

She ran out a side door and across the yard to the home of a neighbor, Mrs. Mary Lowery, 2701 Dashwood St.

She told Mrs. Lowery to call the police and got into another neighbor's car and drove around the block looking for her son who had gone to the store.

As she rode past her home, she saw her son sprawled out in the driveway.

Sees New Jobs at Fisher Body

Union Chief Predicts a Rise of 1,700-1,900; Company Is Mum

Increased production at Fisher Body Division's Pontiac plant this fall will result in 1,700 to 1,900 new jobs, it was predicted today by Gerald W. Kehoe, president of Fisher Body Local 596, UAW.

The anticipated production involves assembly of the new Pontiac Tempest compact car and of Pontiac convertible bodies.

Kehoe said he expects the local's membership to increase 1,700 to 1,900 in late October.

A company spokesman said no prediction would be made about job increases.

Local 596 membership totals 2,700 at present.

The local broke ground Thursday for a new $97,000 hall, which is expected to be completed in the fall.

Ike Is Jetting Home Sunday; He'll Talk to Nation Monday

HONOLULU (AP) — President Eisenhower ends his six-day Hawaiian rest stop today and flies back to Washington to report to the American people on his controversial Far Eastern journey.

The President is reported to have drafted a hard-hitting speech denouncing the Communists for plotting with young Japanese students to block his visit to Tokyo.

Tanned and refreshed, Eisenhower boards his orange-tipped jet airliner at 5 p.m. HST—10 p.m. Pontiac time—for his return flight.

After refueling at Travis AFB in California, he is due to arrive at Andrews Air Force Base outside Washington Sunday morning about 7 a.m. Pontiac time, two weeks from the day he set off on his 23,000-mile good will trip.

SPEAKS MONDAY NIGHT

His 30-minute television-radio report to the nation will originate from his White House office at 6:30 p.m. Pontiac time Monday.

Eisenhower is reported annoyed at the barrage of attacks on his Far East mission by leading Democrats who have joined in blasting his inability to visit riot-ridden Tokyo as a blow to American prestige.

He is understood to have focused his speech on his contention that the visits he was able to make—the Philippines, Formosa and Korea — were "completely successful" in building better relations with these countries.

The President has been silent since arriving in sunny Hawaii on the hotly disputed Tokyo phase of his visit which he canceled at the suggestion of the Japanese government.

Between golf games on a closely guarded course, Eisenhower has met with aides daily to draft his speech. The main emphasis will be on his belief that the Reds, directed by Peiping rather than Moscow, went all out to disrupt his proposed Japanese tour.

New Lift Bridge Goofs Expensively

HOUGHTON (AP) — The new Portage Lake lift bridge got off to a poor start Friday. It didn't lift in time.

The J. F. Schoellkopf Jr., carrying a cargo of coal, dropped anchor to stop when the bridge didn't lift on signal. The anchor cut a cable and severed telephone comunications to the Keweenaw Peninsula.

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. estimated damage at upwards of $10,000.

LONDON (UPI) — Radio Moscow charged today that the United States plans to resume reconnaissance flights over Russia from aircraft carriers in the Mediterranean Sea.

Red China Flogs Russia for 'Whitewashing U.S.'

By K. C. THALER

LONDON (UPI)—Communist China today hit back fiercely at Russia in the sharpening Sino-Soviet ideological conflict, and in effect accused Moscow of attempting to "whitewash U.S. imperialism."

The attack came during a mass rally in Peiping attended by vice-premiers Marshal Chen Yi and Hsi Chung-Hsun, and the vice-chairmen of the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress, according to the New China News Agency.

General Li Chih-min, one of the key speakers, lashed out against "modern revisionists who claim that the true character of imperialists whose hands were smeared with blood were envoys of peace."

"This is to whitewash U. S. imperialism and help it to carry on aggression under the pretense of peace," he charged.

An Idea and a Pontiac

AP Photofax

FROM CHILE TO DETROIT — An idea and a 1930 Pontiac brought Manuel Jacque all the way from Santiago, Chile to Detroit. The idea is a gadget for improving brakes which he wants to sell to General Motors Corp. The 38-year-old mechanic left his South American home Jan. 14 and he and his car held together, arriving here Thursday. Jacque financed some of this trip by taking and selling pictures. Now he hopes he can sell his idea as well.

City Close to State Suit on Sewage

The state water Resources Commission will decide Thursday whether to go to court to force Pontiac to expand its sewage treatment plant facilities.

On Friday, July 1, the city will be in default of the state's order to have expanded facilities under contract.

Default will come because the city has never provided the financing for the $3,300,000 in improvements which the State Department has accepted as the minimum necessary to abate pollution to the Clinton River.

The Water Resources Commission will have before it only one recommendation from its engineering staff — that the Attorney General's Office be asked to file suit against Pontiac in Oakland County Circuit Court.

"In view of the facts, that's the only recommendation we can make," said Loring F. Oeming, chief engineer for the Commission.

Conceivably, the commission could give the city a little more time before going to court — time for a show-cause hearing at which city officials might try to put off the order.

The possibility seems remote.

While Pontiac city officials have never encouraged action by the Water Resources Commission, they've done next to nothing to discourage it since the commission put Pontiac on the firing line last July.

At that time the commission declared the city was creating a public nuisance—"the worst pollution problem in the state," one State Health Department engineer said.

Pontiac was ordered to have expansion plans in shape for approv- (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1)

al by the State Health Department in December of last year, have the expansion under contract by July 1 of this year, and have the expansion completed by the end of next year.

PUBLIC VOTES NO.

Only the first deadline was met: the state accepted the expansion plans which the city has had ready for the past three years.

But voters have three times turned down general obligation bond issues to finance the planned expansion.

Since last December, the city has dragged its heels on financing. There was some talk at the City Commission table about going to voters a fourth time. But this idea was soon dropped.

If the state obtains a court order against Pontiac, the City Commission will be under legal obligation to finance the expansion anyway it wants.

City Manager Walter K. Willman consistently has favored issuing the general obligation bonds.

Under a court order, the City Commission could do this without a vote of approval by the people, he has pointed out.

Deeming said it might take the Attorney General's Office up to two months to prepare the suit for filing. The task would fall to Assistant Atty. Gen. Victor Meier, who handles the Water Resources Commission cases.

The city is not required to appear before the Water Resources Commission at its monthly meeting next week. But City Attorney William A. Ewart said he probably would be there anyway.

"There's nothing much we can say, but we ought to be there for form's sake," he explained.

Ewart's attitude reflected that taken by Willman when he appeared before the Water Resources Commission last July 31 to answer charges of pollution.

"We admit nothing and deny nothing," said Willman, who had already been decrying the pollution situation in Pontiac for a long time.

Pontiac's only positive action has been to request state action against Waterford Township and Bloomfield Township for pollution caused by storm drains feeding into the Clinton River system.

The request for action against Waterford Township was renewed last month and a Water Resources Commission engineer made a personal inspection.

State officials have favored an area-wide plan as a solution to pollution in the townships around Pontiac — a plan such as the one proposed by the Oakland County Department of Public Works and known as the Clinton River Basin Sewage Disposal System.

HOME FOR UNION — This architect's sketch shows what the new $97,000 hall for Fisher Local 596, UAW, will look like upon its completion, expected this fall. Groundbreaking ceremonies for the union local's headquarters were held Thursday at the Baldwin avenue site. The building was designed by the W. B. Edwards Engineering Firm of Pleasant Ridge.

Propose County Industry Unit

Backers Believe Body Would Aid Economic Development of Area

A department of economic development for Oakland County will be recommended Tuesday night to Delos Hamlin, chairman of the Board of Supervisors.

Making the proposal will be the county chapter of the National Federation of Independent Business, a non-profit organization.

Several representatives of labor, real estate, banking, education and small businesses will attempt to sell the package to Hamlin and other county officials at a 6 p.m. dinner meeting at the Waldron Hotel.

Leading the discussion will be Richard I. Moore, district manager of NFIB.

The suggested department would seek to attract new and diversified industry and encourage the industry already established here to remain.

Moore, of 17 Prall St., said the plan has been under study for months.

The new department would be financed by county funds.

Others will include: Arthur G. Elliott Jr., Pleasant Ridge supervisor and realtor; Robert Eldred, executive vice president of the Community National Bank; Monroe Osmun, Pontiac Board of Education member; Leo Harrawood, Novi independent businessman; and Byron Stegman and William Roggenkamp, representatives of the light and tool industries.

The Day in Birmingham

Downtown Sidewalks on Monday Night Agenda

BIRMINGHAM — Three alternate plans ranging from a cost of about $7,000 to almost $26,000 for downtown city sidewalk improvements will be examined Monday night at the regular City Commission meeting.

Costs to property owners will be anywhere from about $7,000 to $16,000 depending which plan is used.

As outlined by William Killeen, city engineer, the first plan includes the repair of existing faulty sidewalks and steps, but does not call for the replacement of the steps.

Under the second plan the curb steps will either be eliminated or improved, and a larger number of sidewalks will be replaced to improve the sidewalk slope.

The third alternate provides for the replacement of all sidewalks between the buildings and curbs where slope changes are planned.

A Birmingham architectural firm has received one of eight national awards presented by the Church Architectural Guild of America, it was announced yesterday.

The award was presented to Begrow and Brown, 277 N. Bates St., for its design of the Antioch Evangelical Lutheran Church now under construction at 13 Mile and Farmington roads in Farmington Township.

Some 365 architectural firms throughout the country entered the competition.

It was the sixth national award won by the firm since 1957. One of the more recent awards received by the firm was for their design of National Cowboy Hall of Fame being built in Oklahoma City.

Approval of $30,000 in special assessment bonds for sanitary sewers in Bloomfield Township has been given by the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission in Lansing.

The sewers are to be constructed south of Quarton road between Franklin and Inkster roads in the Kirkwood Subdivision.

Since the original request of $30,000, an additional $8,000 is being sought since plans were revised with an increase in the drainage district.

Township officials said they expect approval of the $9,000 borrowing in the near future.

Lay Courthouse Stone Monday

Ceremony to Follow the Regular Meeting of County Supervisors

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors will save the best for the last when they meet Monday for a rather routine June session as required by law.

More interest will be focused on the new county courthouse at the County Service Center when supervisors gather to lay the cornerstone at 2 p.m.

After their meeting at the County Office Building in the morning, the entire 83-member Board and officials will have a preceremony noon luncheon at the County Garage.

The agenda for the meeting contains six items — four of which involve either sewer or water projects of the drain commissioner's office or the Department of Public Works.

ANNUAL REPORTS

The other two items include an annual report from the Board's buildings and grounds committee and authorization to establish a method to sell 16 county-owned lots.

Big Majority of State Dem Delegates to Go for Kennedy

From Our News Wires

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), with a big lift from Gov. Williams, has corralled at least 37½ Michigan first ballot votes for the Democratic presidential nomination, and conceivably could bag 45½.

An even higher vote for Kennedy was possible if Adlai E. Stevenson should fade completely out of the candidacy picture.

This was indicated today by a telephone poll by the Associated Press of the state's 51-vote delegation to the party's national convention starting July 11 in Los Angeles.

The canvass uncovered only token support for Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) and Stevenson, national standard-bearer in 1952 and 1956.

A growth in Kennedy backing after the governor endorsed him June 2 on Mackinac Island obviously ate into the Symington and Stevenson potential.

With 95 of the 102 delegates contacted, the tally on their first ballot preference, converted from delegate half-votes into whole convention votes, produced this alignment:

Kennedy 37½, Symington 3, Stevenson 2½, undecided 4½, not yet contacted 3½.

MOST WOULD SWITCH

Of the handful who stuck with Stevenson, most indicated they would switch to Kennedy if Stevenson irrevocably removed himself from consideration.

"I will leave him on the first ballot if he or a spokesman says definitely in Los Angeles that he will not be a candidate," said Mrs. Harriett Phillips of Huntington Woods.

Ivan Brown of Iron Mountain put his name in the Stevenson column but said he "might be persuaded" to back Kennedy because he doubted Stevenson would become a candidate.

At Glacier National Park, Mont., a first ballot nomination of Kennedy was predicted by Ohio Gov. Michael V. DiSalle on his arrival at the 52nd annual governors' conference, opening Sunday.

DiSalle conceded Kennedy might not have enough votes on the first roll call but added confidently Kennedy would win "before the results are announced."

In Milwaukee, National Democratic Chairman Paul Butler said Vice President Richard M. Nixon is Khrushchev's candidate for President.

Butler also urged his party to risk a walkout by southern delegates and possible defeat in November by adopting a "forthright and courageous" civil rights platform at its national convention in Los Angeles.

'CAN'T COMPROMISE'

"We cannot compromise principles in order to hold people in the party" Butler said in a television interview yesterday. "We've got to stand up for what's best for all the people, win or lose."

The Democratic chairman said he is convinced Soviet Premier Nikita S. Krushchev wants Nixon to win the presidential election, because he feels Nixon will be the easiest American to deal with.

Khrushchev attacks Nixon in speeches, Butler said, in hopes the American electorate will react in anger and vote for the vice president.

Get Out of Korea, China Reds Demand

ment sometimes heard that "There will never be another Korea."

While the negotiators in Panmunjom talked, the Red radio was blasting denunciations of the United States from Peiping, Hanoi, and Pyongyang, the principal Red held cities in Asia.

REPORT MEETINGS

The Communist broadcasts reported that anti-American mass meetings were held throughout Red Asia — most notably in Pyongyang, where the turnout was estimated at 300,000 persons.

"My predecessors and I have told you many times before when these forces, which now stand ready to help defend Korean freedom, will be withdrawn," Dawson said.

"They will be withdrawn when your side permits the unification of Korea in conformity with the objectives of the United Nations and the desires of the Korean people — not before."

Dawson also reaffirmed Allied determination to defend South Korea against any new attack by the Communists.

Red China Lashes Russ 'Whitewash'

It was Red China's first massive reaction to Khrushchev's insistence that Lenin must be interpreted with the times and his rejection of the Peiping-supported Leninist doctrine that war against capitalism is inevitable.

WON'T ACCEPT IDEA

China allows for no such free interpretation.

A cautious rebuff was given to Khrushchev earlier this week when Communist China's delegate to the Bucharest Congress, Peng Chen, refused concessions to the Soviet Premier's arguments.

Today, Peiping went to town. In a cryptic reference to "modern revisionists," Li Chih-min made these charges:

"Modern revisionists, frightened out of their wits by the imperialists blackmail of nuclear war, exaggerated the consequences of the destructiveness of nuclear war and begged imperialism for peace at any cost, in fact helping the imperialists to undermine the militant spirit of the socialist countries."

The phrasing left little doubt, Soviet Communist affairs experts said, that it was an indictment of Khrushchev's peaceful coexistence policy and a rejection of the thesis that nuclear war is too dangerous to contemplate.

The Communist Chinese previously had been reported as underplaying the risk of nuclear war. Today's statement put the Chinese view formally on record.

Detroiter Dies After Being Hit by Weight

NEW YORK (AP)—A Detroit business man in New York to celebrate his 60th birthday died yesterday of head injuries suffered when a dumbbell fell from the apartment window of a television actress and struck him.

Alvin Rodecker died less than 24 hours after the dumbbell fell eight stories from the apartment of actress Arlene Francis and struck him on the head.

A well-nigh incredible chain of circumstances cost Rodecker his life. He was felled as he strolled with his wife along one of New York's most fashionable streets, in summer sunlight, sated by an expensive luncheon at one of the city's great restaurants.

Rodecker headed the Aaron Deroy Management Co. in Detroit. He and his wife Katherine planned their trip to New York some time ago, in celebration of his 60th birth day, which was Thursday.

HOLLY—Anticipating a large crowd to attend the UAW Local 524 rally here Monday at 2:15 p.m., local president Frank Hubble announced today that it will be held in the Holly Elementary School instead of the union hall.

The meeting was called by Hubble when it was learned that the village's largest employer, American Spring of Holly, Inc., is going to relocate in Charlotte, N. C.

President of the firm, Ian F. Steven, explained the move would be made in three to six months because of high wages and taxes.

They gathered up the bills in tens and twenties and handed them over to a nearby clothing store before a worried Beverly Hills youth dashed up.

The bank assured a policeman that Matonican had cashed the check and all $80 was returned to him.

2nd Battalion Rates High

By CHESTER WAGNER
Special Correspondent

CAMP McCOY, Wis. — Pontiac's 2nd Battalion wound up its two weeks of training here yesterday, chalking up high scores on all phases of training exercises.

Although the troops were plagued with constant rain at this southeastern Wisconsin military reservation, the esprit de corps of these Army reservists was high.

Highlight of the two-week encampment was a two-day bivouac, where the troops lived in the field under simulated combat conditions. The rain added realism to their infantry training.

Marked closely by U. S. Army inspection teams, the 2nd Battalion came through in usually fine form to capture high ratings.

It was not all work, however, for these citizen-soldiers. The 2nd Battalion, for the second consecutive year, won the regimental softball championship. Maj. Franklin D. Thompson, of Pontiac, 2nd Battalion commander, said:

"Not only have these men shown that they can discard their civilian way of life and become full-fledged infantrymen for two weeks, but also that they possess team sportsmanship and fine conduct on the playing field. I am proud of them."

The 2nd Battalion, a part of the 332nd Basic Combat Training Regiment of the 70th Division, was to leave for home this afternoon.

You can count on it! A car parked on the shoulder spells trouble. What if it pulls out, or someone steps out from behind, or out of it, or a man changing a tire steps back in front of you? Never drive at normal highway speed within two or three feet of it.

Pay Raise Veto May Stand Up

Rep. Griffin Opposed Federal Increases as Election-Yearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich), who chose the politically painful course of voting against a pay raise for federal employes, said today he thinks a presidential veto of the measure might prevail.

President Eisenhower is expected to reject the measure providing a flat 7½ per cent raise for 1,700,000 federal workers. It cleared both the House and Senate last week by lopsided margins.

Griffin, calling the bill an election-year "squeeze play," said he thinks it was passed in an effort to embarrass the administration, rather than to help federal workers.

Griffin was joined by four other Michigan house Republicans—Reps. Elford A. Cederberg, Gerald R. Ford Jr., Clare E. Hoffman and August E. Johansen— in voting against the raise. Twelve others were for the bill. Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R) did vote. In the Senate, Sen. Philip A. Hart (D) was for it and Sen. Pat McNamara (D) did not vote.

Griffin said he favors a raise for 550,000 postal workers and other federal workers in the lower brackets "who really need it," but not for other higher salaried employes.

Parents Urged to Get Shots Fast for Children

LANSING (UPI) — The Health Department has urged parents of children who will be starting school in the fall to get immunization required by law early.

A law passed by the 1960 Legislature requires shots against small pox, diptheria, polio, tetanus and whooping cough.

Children entering school need a statement from a doctor, a statement that parents object to the shots on religious or other grounds or a request from the parents that the shots be given by the local health authorities.

Farmers to Get More for Eggs This Summer

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan farmers should get four to eight cents per dozen more for grade "A" large white eggs for the rest of 1960 than in the same period last year, reports an agricultural economist at Michigan State University.

Henry Larzelere said average prices for these eggs are expected to be about 35 cents a dozen from now through September and 38-39 cents a dozen during October-December.

Young Lodge to Head International Labor Unit

GENEVA (AP)—George C. Lodge, U.S. Assistant Secretary of Labor for International Affairs, was unanimously elected chairman of the 60-member governing body of the International Labor Organization here Friday. Lodge, 32-year-old son of Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. delegate to the United Nations, succeeds Sweden's Ernest Michanek for a one-year term.

PET DOCTOR

By A. W. Moller, D.V.M.

Question: Do parakeets carry any disease that could affect our family?

Answer: Parakeets can carry psittiocosis or parrot fever, a potentially serious human disease. The quarantine laws of the United States Department of Agriculture have prevented its importation and its spread.

It is good policy to buy only U.S. raised parakeets. If yours is ill, consult your veterinarian who can recognize the symptoms.

Keyes Petitions Probed

Asks Name Be on Ballot

LANSING (AP) — Dr. Eugene C. Keyes of Dearborn has asked the State Supreme Court to order his name placed on the Aug. 2 primary ballot as a Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, a post he once held as a Republican.

Keyes faces possible disqualification for lack of enough valid signatures on his nominating petitions. He petitioned the high court yesterday for an order directing Secy. of State James M. Hare to put his name on the ballot.

Meanwhile, the State Board of Canvassers ordered Robert M. Montgomery, state elections director, to decline comment on the controversy.

Keyes' court petition said he was "wrongfully and unjustly discriminated against" by election officials. He asserted his nominating petitions were checked more closely than those of his four rivals for the nomination.

More than half the world's labor force is engaged in agriculture, probably not less than 530 million persons, according to U. N. estimates.

Solons to Discuss Juvenile Laws With Teen-Agers

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's teen-agers will be invited this summer to tell lawmakers what they think about laws on juveniles.

A House committee studying juvenile problems decided Friday to go straight to the source in their survey on the need for new legislation.

"We've talked to many adult experts but we want to see what the people most directly affected think," said Rep. Harry A. DeMaso (R-Battle Creek), committee chairman.

DeMaso said his group planned a hearing in August or September for "teen-agers — those who have been or are in trouble, those who haven't and aren't."

The POWER of FAITH

by Howard Brodie

Some 30 years ago Ettie Lee of Los Angeles, then a $200-a-month school teacher, realized that wayward boys need security, guidance, and love. She resolved to establish homes for them. She had ample faith, but little money. Living on less than half her salary, she bought a small home, painted it herself. She sold at a profit, bought a larger one, and so on until she had enough money for her first ranch home for boys — with a Quiet Room where they could pray according to their faith. "I never did anything except on my knees in prayer first," Miss Lee says. As her real estate dealings grew, she established five more ranches — and she also became wealthy. Troublesome boys became responsible young men in Miss Lee's ranches, and now, at 73, she is planning four more of them. "Faith has led us all the way," she says, "but we have put some good honest work with our faith."

Pontiac Press Prepared to Cover Politics in Detail

With the first political convention two weeks away, the shouting and tumult accelerate. The pace quickens.

I'd like to outline the position of The Pontiac PRESS through the two meetings and the rip-roaring campaigns that ensue. Exciting and stirring times are ahead.

These conventions will be covered completely and impartially by The Pontiac Press. First, The Associated Press full wire services are ours, plus their photographs. The United Press International Service is also ours together with its corps of experienced and capable writers.

Our own man's there, too.

Joe Haas will be "on the job."

If anything happens of special interest to Oakland County, news hound JOE will come up with the facts. Also, he will give you his impression of the people and circumstances that lead to unexpected developments. JOE roams unhindered from place to place.

We will have Newspaper Enterprise Association photography, colored pictures and interpretative summaries of developments. We're going all-out for these two history making conventions and you'll find the best, the most accurate and the latest developments in The Pontiac PRESS.

Let this be your political Bible. We won't let you down.

Our reports won't favor either party or any candidate. We express our own opinion in the editorial columns. No group or clique has a finger on The Pontiac Press. We're free, independent and 117 years old. We can be wrong in your estimation but we can't be bought, bribed or intimidated.

This newspaper will play the convention news for what it's worth and we won't operate a slide rule policy with the Democrats granted 143.6 columns and then an exactly comparable amount for the Republicans. At times, this innocent and guileless policy becomes vapid and inane.

I'd guess right now that the Democratic Convention will garner a vastly greater amount of space than the Republican. There promises to be a titanic struggle for the Democratic nomination, whereas, Nixon is apparently a shoo-in. Hence, the Dems will probably get more space. On the other hand, if Kennedy sweeps into place on the first few ballots and Nixon finds himself up against a long, stern battle, this will reverse.

When the two candidates are established, the space devoted to each will be relatively even. If the Democratic wheel horse puts on a more spectacular and smashing campaign with greater fireworks, he'll get the nod; and if the thing is reversed, the scales will tip toward the Republicans.

In other words, we propose to be a modern, assertive, on-the-ball newspaper that gives you all the news in direct proportion to what happens.

Donaldson Approved . . . .

Pontiac owes Senators HART and MCNAMARA a vote of thanks for their action in approving the appointment of WILLIAM B. DONALDSON as Postmaster.

Either one of these men could have blocked the appointment, but partisan politics were swept aside and the Michigan Senators acted for the best interests of the community. It required the united approval of both to lift the position from the "Acting" status which is really an interim appointment.

An "Acting Postmaster" is obviously handicapped in all his activities by the fact he isn't officially the Head Man. This shackles his operations and the entire public suffers.

This bond has been severed.

DONALDSON is Postmaster.

The residents of the area unite in offering direct and sincere thanks to Senators Hart and McNamara for their broadminded approach and willingness to place the good of the community above party patronage.

And In Conclusion . . . .

Here's something you won't believe: New York is spending $800,000 this year fighting rats—and losing— . . . . . I hope you saw photos of some of those grandmothers vieing for the title of "Grandma America." They could have wrested the title from Miss America . . . . . The long range weather forecast says July 18-26 will see torrential rains covering the entire U.S. Also, they forecast rain "above normal in the middle west during the next three weeks." I hope this news is completely cockeyed.

BARBARA

A truck driver walked to the middle of his vehicle and pounded smartly on the metal sides. Half a mile later he repeated. After the fourth of these maneuvers, a policeman took him to the curb and asked softly: "Are you nuts?" The driver shook his head. "I have four tons of live pigeons and the truck only holds three. I keep one ton in the air." . . . . . Purely personal nomination for one of the most attractive young ladies in the area: Barbara Wilson Eccles . . . . . The Joneses are contributing seventeen cents apiece to a gift for Margaret Armstrong-Jones. The idea started in England and then leaped the ocean. There are 1,100,000 here . . . . . Before TV, there were ten companies making toy pistols, masks, knives and other weapons of mayhem and destruction. Today there are 200 and their business is enormous.

Chief Justice MURDOCK, U.S. Tax Court, says the briefest opinion he ever saw was this one on an income return: "As God is my witness, I do not owe this tax." And the Judge's opinion ran: "He's not. I am. You do." . . . . . TED SMITS, A.P. Sports Editor, says a heavyweight championship fight attracts the most attention of any single sporting event . . . . . Current Cuban refugees say when the Soviets are through with CASTRO, they'll liquidate him in some "painless way." His probable successor is Major ERNESTO GUERVARA. In N.Y. this week I bet BOB BROWN $5 CASTRO would be gone, gone, gone by January 1st. . . . . ## 'We Won't Be Able to Afford Illness'

It looks as if the doctors and hospitals are determined to break our Blue Cross and Blue Shield. I know of numerous subscribers as well as myself who will discontinue it after the first of the month. We just can't stand any more.

The hospitals and doctors will be like the guy who killed the goose that laid the golden egg. Without insurance only the rich can afford to go to the hospital, and they won't be rich long if they make a trip or two.

It's no wonder occupancy is low. It is going to be still lower if they don't cut their prices.

'Some Still Exist Without Radio, TV'

When Carl Sandburg recently spoke at Cranbrook he wondered about the millions who were soaking in the medias of movies, radio and TV. He added that DaVinci, Shakespeare, Milton, Jefferson and Lincoln knew none of these. Instead, they experienced books, intelligent conversation and intense loneliness. Out of these came greatness.

Wouldn't it soothe Mr. Sandburg if he knew that, within three miles of where he spoke, there exists a family who, too, experiences no television, movies or radio; that the members of this group rely on each other, on what books can bring them, and that all of them have made friends with 'loneliness'? Indeed, some still exist like these.

Appreciates Coverage Given Organization

The entire membership of our organization is just a little more enthusiastic about our own activities after seeing the recognition given us in the paper.

This is the first time since inception of the group that anyone, other than the members and their personal contacts and the various fire service agencies that we associate with, has had any notice of the group.

In an organization that is held together by force of friendship and a common interest alone, stimulus such as Mr. Simon's fine article and the wonderful picture cannot be measured in value.

Days of All Faiths:

Story Links Martyrdom of Saints

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

It is hardly possible to consider Wednesday without including Thursday. June 29 was originally St. Peter and St. Paul's Day, commemorating the two great Apostles both of whom were said to have been martyred in Rome on June 29 in the year 66 or 67, or possibly 68. But by now St. Paul has been crowded out by St. Peter and has been given June 30 to himself. Nevertheless, by strict interpretation June 29 is still St. Peter's and St. Paul's Day.

Both these great men are well known to nearly everyone—indeed they are the best known of all the Apostles. This is partly because we have more information about them than about any of the others. But you could also turn it around and say the reason we have more information is that they were more able and made history to put in the record.

St. Peter, whose name and story appears throughout the Gospels and in the Acts, was a Galilean, a fisherman, a married man and a brother of another Apostle, St. Andrew. Many episodes told about him indicate that he was an impulsive character, but Jesus saw also that deep down he was a solid, dependable person. Peter's real name was Simon, but on their very first meeting the Lord said He was going to rename, or nickname, him Peter, which means "rock."

Peter three times denied that he knew Jesus or had any connection with Him. He was weak at times. But it was also Peter who first had the insight to see that Jesus was the Messiah. And it was Peter who took charge after the Ascension, seeing that the number of Apostles was restored to twelve (Acts, chapter 1, verses 15 to 26), preaching the first Christian sermon on the morning of Pentecost (Acts, chapter 2) and demonstrating for the first time that the Apostles had miraculous healing powers (Acts, chapter 3, verses 1 to 11).

Peter may have been Bishop of Antioch for two years (47 to 49). History is not as clear about this as we would like. But there is little serious doubt that he was Bishop of Rome for a long time — tradition says 25 years.

ST. PAUL

St. Paul, like Peter, ended his ministry and his life at Rome. We know even more about him than we do about Peter. In Acts there is detailed information about him, and his own writings, the Epistles, are full of self-revelation. We even have an idea of what he looked like. A second-century document called Acts of Paul and Thecla says he was a "man small in size, bald-headed, bandy-legged, well-built, with eyebrows meeting, rather long-nosed, full of grace."

We do not know just how Peter came to Rome but we know exactly how Paul got there. Paul was a Roman citizen. When he was arrested in Jerusalem and saw two years drag by without a trial, he as a Roman citizen demanded to be taken before the Emperor. This was his lawful privilege and the authorities had to comply. The journey was a rough one—they even went through a shipwreck—but in the end Paul was successfully brought to Rome.

It is commonly said that Paul was beheaded and Peter crucified, both on the same day. Paul, as a Roman citizen was given this painless, more dignified kind of execution.

Legend also tells that Peter, sentenced to be crucified, said he did not deserve to die as his Lord had, and asked to be nailed to his cross head down.

There is not much evidence that Peter and Paul died on the same day, but there is fairly good evidence that for many years they were buried together, in the same tomb. It is believed that in 258 their bodies were put in a secret place in the catacombs, and that the tomb became a shrine for many Christians who knew where it was. Scribblings on the walls there are still legible and many of them (about 80) appeal to Peter and Paul by name.

Please send me recipes for making bread and other things from wheat. (Mrs. K.M.)

Ans.—Several such recipes, contributed by our readers, are given in the free pamphlet Wheat to Eat, for which send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Would appreciate knowing the name of the "pure" soap with which you brush your teeth. Think it might be castile. I enjoy your column very much and find the "belly-breathing" very helpful. Would like to know the sort of somersaults you turn every morning. (Mary C.——)

Ans.—Thank you for (1) assuming I still have teeth and (2) assuming that I brush 'em. The first assumption is correct. To keep my teeth clean I depend on (1) regular care by dentist and (2) regular use of soap and water mouth or tooth wash.

I think I said plain soap, not "pure" soap — almost any soap is pure, but some kinds of soap are unpleasantly scented or flavored. For instructions for rolling my kind of somersaults (forward roll) send a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for my free pamphlet "The Somersaultaquaa."

Read in a magazine that our vegetables and fruits are sprayed with deadly poisons . . . remember you suggested washing vegetables with a solution to remove poison residues . . . (Mrs. C.B.K.)

Ans.—Particularly lead arsenate, commonly used as insecticide spray. Enough may remain to cause chronic arsenic poisoning, especially in very dry weather.

To remove any residue of lead arsenate first wash fruit or vegetable in soap and water, then rinse with clear water, and finally rinse in 1 per cent solution of hydrochloric acid.

To prepare 1 per cent solution of hydrochloric acid mix a pint of standard U.S.P. diluted hydrochloric acid (which is 10 per cent strength) with nine pints of water. After rinsing vegetables, greens or fruit in the 1 per cent solution, for a few seconds, rinse once more with clear water to remove the acid.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Tactful Criticism a Business Must

Can you criticize people without engendering ill will? This is a most difficult psychological dilemma. Every teacher, businessman and parent should tutor himself thoroughly in the "sandwich method." It is the only sure-fire plan for handling this delicate problem.

By GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE E - 496: Calvin K., aged 39, is a department store manager.

"Dr. Crane, my biggest problem as an employer consists of how to administer criticism," he admitted to me at a luncheon we were attending.

DR. CRANE

"Even when I try to be reasonably tactful and even when the correction is vitally necessary, the victim of my criticism always seems more or less resentful.

"But new employes often require instruction. When they make a mistake, it is essential that they be corrected.

"Such criticism is helpful to them, for it teaches them how to avoid repetition of faults that would ultimately lead to loss of a job.

"But how can a man criticize his wife or his employes without engendering hostility and resentment?"

DIAGNOSIS

Sandwich your correction or reprimand between two honest compliments. The first layer of the sandwich must be a sincere bit of praise.

This demands some self-control and careful personality analysis on the part of the critic so he can pick out a legitimate virtue of his employe.

Too often our correction or criticism is blurted out on the spur of the moment and in an angry tone of voice.

That is especially true in our dealing with members of our family, especially our children!

Criticism should preferably occur in private interviews and a good teacher or employer should have unusual self-control. He should resist the natural human tendency to grow emotional and become embroiled in an angry verbal exchange.

HOW TO CRITICIZE

Criticism always tends to deflate our ego. It is human nature to resent ego deflation.

The strategy in the sandwich method, therefore, consists of first bolstering up the ego of the person being criticized so that the possible deflation of the "meaty" layer of the sandwich will be offset by the twin compliment.

Thus, by starting off with an honest compliment, we enhance the vanity of the victim.

Then we hand him the meaty layer of the sandwich which consists of our criticism.

Even then, try to make it an intellectual rather than an emotional matter, and slip into it casually by the "I wonder" route.

Thus you have put across the reproof or correction, while retaining his friendship and good will.

SMILE!:

Suppose a wife feels her husband is using too much slang or profanity around their children, and wishes to correct, him.

"John, you are so wonderful in devoting time to playing with the children. They can hardly wait till you get home at night.

"I wonder, though if it wouldn't be better to be more careful in your speech around them, for they are young and impressionable.

"You know, darling, how they try to imitate you in every way, for whatever you do is perfect in their eyes," and the wife should SMILE adoringly at him.

So be sure to smile when you employ the sandwich method, for the smile helps keep the situation on a friendly plane! Smiles are disarming.

They help take the sting out of your criticism.

A survey of churches revealed that a number are willing to consider open occupancy and that 14 of them are willing to accept Negro pastors.

Strong emphasis was placed on the church's position of total abstinence in regard to alcoholic beverages.

The Conference voted to raise three million dollars in the next four years. One million will be raised for two Michigan colleges, Adrian and Albion, and for Garrett Biblical Institute at Evanston, Ill. The other two million dollars is to be used for church extension.

Off to Serve Church in Louisville

John K. Bersche, son of the Rev. and Mrs. G. J. Bersche of North Cass Lake road, and his wife have left for Louisville, Ky., where he will assume duties as assistant pastor of the Alliance Church.

A graduate of Waterford Township High School in 1956, he recently received his bachelor of science degree from Nyack Missionary College, his father's alma mater.

Mrs. Bersche, whose father the Rev. O. A. Thompson is an Alliance pastor in Aliquippa, Pa., also has a bachelor of science degree from Nyack.

Accredited missionary candidates under the Christian and Missionary Alliance, the Bersches will serve two years in Louisville.

They will have charge of the music and youth work in the church.

Upon completion of their service in Kentucky, they hope to be appointed to missionary service in New Guinea. The pastor of the Louisville Alliance Church is the Rev. C. A. Epperson who has on two occassions held revival meetings locally.

The Christian and Missionary Alliance under which the Bersches will serve as missionaries is the sixth largest missionary group in the world. Under the society are over 3,500 missionaries and national workers serving in 22 mission fields. Members of the alliance in the United States last year gave over 3.8 million dollars to world missions for a per-capita missionary giving of 56.07 dollars. The local congregation of which Mr. Bersche is a member gave more than 13,000 dollars last year.

Old Jewish Medicine Is Termed Unsound

TRENTON, N. J. (AP) — A prize-winning study by a rabbinical student discounts the belief that ancient Hebrews had more knowledge of preventive medicine than other peoples of their time.

The study by Joel Wittstein of Cincinnati, a senior student at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, was published by the Helene Fuld Health Foundation here. It says some of the ancient Jewish laws are hygienically sound, but were derived from "taboo and magic, superstition and fear."

Manages Publications

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — A long-time department store executive, Martin E. Bratcher, is new general manager of the publications division of the Southern Presbyterians' Board of Christian Education. In the new post, he will supervise the annual production and distribution of more than 24 million pieces of literature. He succeeds the late Cameron D. Deans.

'Sheaves Spoiling' Pastor's Theme

"The Sheaves are Spoiling" is Pastor F. William Palmer's topic for the 11:15 worship service Sunday at the United Presbyterian Church, Auburn Heights. Nancy Lowery, a recent graduate from Central Michigan College will sing for the service.

Monday the church softball team will meet the Elmwood Methodist Church team at 6 p.m. on the Auburn Heights Grade School diamond. Also scheduled for June 27 is an 8:30 p.m. committee meeting under the chairmanship of Dorothy Churchill making plans for the 30th anniversary of the congregation.

A swimming party will leave the church for Dodge Park No. 4 at 6 p.m. Sponsored by the Youth Council and intended primarily for the youth of the church it is expected that many family groups will also be present.

'Church Should Stay at Downtown Locale'

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Should downtown churches move to the suburbs to get away from unsightly housing and cold business buildings?

No, says the Rev. Dr. W. A. Criswell, pastor of the biggest Baptist church in Texas.

In fact, the Rev. Dr. Criswell's First Baptist Church of Dallas is sinking its roots even more deeply into the area around Ervan and San Jacinto streets in the shadows of skyscrapers.

And it sends buses into nearby low-income districts to bring more underprivileged people to church.

The emphasis is on youngsters. The church has become a haven for boys whose bare feet show through tattered shoes and girls who stare wide-eyed at the church's beautifully paneled walls.

Recently, it paid a million dollars for a building across the street to add to its extensive facilities, which include a gymnasium, bowling alleys and a skating rink.

The work among the underprivileged is supervised by First Baptist's Good Shepherd Department, which has its own minister —the Rev. Johnny Barrett—and its own staff.

But much of the day-to-day work is done by members of the church.

Junior deacons, among them some of the wealthiest men in Dallas, drive the buses that pick up the children and their parents.

The Rev. Dr. Criswell believes that churches have a clear duty to serve downtown areas.

"Pressed against the downtown heart of any city is a large area of declining properties that are rented to the poor," he says. "The downtown church has a God-given commission to minister to these people."

In ministering to them, First Baptist wins many as members.

But quite a few prefer to stay with the Good Shepherd Department and the Rev. Mr. Barrett, who ministers to crowds of 500 or more with an assist from a corps of 70 Sunday School workers.

The Good Shepherd Department began several years ago when C. F. Burch, then a new member of the church, dedicated himself to service in the underprivileged areas.

With four other men, Burch brought boys and girls to the church basement where they were fed and taught Bible lessons.

Now the department has its own building, minister and three large buses.

Start Shelter Hospital

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The Methodist Church has started work on a new 20-million-dollar hospital here that will have two nuclear shelter floors completely below ground.

The "survival complex," enclosed in 26-inch concrete walls, will include surgery, pathology, radiology, central supply, pharmacy and food services, and will accommodate 1,200 people for more than two weeks.

Adventist Funds to Assist Blind

Local Church Collection Will Go to Long-Lived Benevolent Association

With 14 million blind people in the world, 400,000 of whom are in the United States and Canada, members of the Pontiac Seventh Day Adventist Church are taking time out today to consider how them might lend a helping hand.

John P. Echard, pastor of the church on Mt. Clemens street, has announced a special offering taken today to be sent to headquarters of the Christian Record Benevolent Assn. in Lincoln, Neb.

The association, he says, "has been in operation since 1899, and has furnished without charge more monthly Braille religious magazines and quarterly talking books than any other organization in North America. Last year it gave out 10 million pages of Braille and 40,190 long-playing records for those who cannot read Braille."

The minister also reports that topics dealt with by magazines of the association include health, youth stories and inspirational messages as well as Bible correspondence courses. There are six monthly Braille publications for children, youth and adults, and a free lending library of Braille and recorded books, Pastor Erhard says.

This is the first time the church has taken an offering especially for the blind, the minister says.

Says Woman's Role to Complement Man's

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Woman's dignity is equal to man's, but her role is complementary, says Pope John XXIII.

He told a congress of the World Federation of Young Catholic Women that women's natural role involves "dedication to others."

"God and nature have given her different tasks which perfect and complete man's mission," he said.

Rams' Horns Being Used in Church Celebration

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The American Lutheran Church, formed recently by a three-way Lutheran merger, is using 5,000 rams' horns in celebrating its first year of existence.

The ancient Hebrew instruments, called shofars, were distributed to the new church's congregations for sounding on various special occasions during the denomination's beginning "Year of Jubilee."

Trumpet Trio Will Perform

Concert at Wesleyan Methodist Church to Be Held Wednesday

The Houghton College Trumpet Trio will play at Wesleyan Methodist Church on North Lynn Street at 7:30 Wednesday evening. The musicians have provided music and messages to many churches and conferences.

The group has traveled extensively in the eastern United States and Canada, representing the college. A highlight of the tour was a concert at the Youth for Christ Congress in Mexico City last summer.

Members are Ronald Kerr of Detroit, Robert Vogan of Mooers, N.Y., Robert MacKenzie of Worcester, Mass., and pianist John Nordquist of Cleveland, Ohio, who joined the group this year.

The original trio members have bachelor of music degrees in music education, while Mr. Nordquist is a candidate for it in applied music.

The three trumpet players have recently been accepted by the United States Military Academy Band at West Point and will begin master's degree work at Columbia University in conjunction with their band work in the fall.

A long playing record album, "Trio in Concert," recently released, features 12 arrangements of hymns and gospel songs demonstrating a variety of trumpet and keyboard styles.

Deep-rooted customs, though wrong, are not easily altered; but it is the duty of all to be firm in that which they certainly know is right for them.

Drayton Plains Man to Be Ordained

Robert H. Richardson of Meinrad street, Drayton Plains, husband of the former Barbara Reinhardt of Pontiac, will be ordained to the diaconate of the Episcopal church at 10:30 a.m. on St. Peter's Day Wednesday.

St. Timothy Episcopal Church on Wyoming, Detroit, will provide the setting for the ancient and colorful service which marks these ordinations into holy orders.

Five other seminary graduates also will be ordained, plus one present deacon, the Rev. Ernest K. St. Johns, now serving as deacon at St. Timothy, who will be elevated to the priesthood.

The prospective new clergyman, Mr. Richardson, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Richardson of Drayton Plains, who were charter members and who assisted in organizing St. Andrew Episcopal Mission in Drayton Plains.

He is the first young man to go into the ministry from St. Andrew parish. Mr. Richardson will be presented for ordination by the Rev. Waldo R. Hunt, rector of St. Andrew Church, in the presence of a delegation of the parishioners.

The Rt. Rev. R. S. Emrich,

ROBERT H. RICHARDSON

Ph.D., bishop to the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan will be the ordaining bishop.

Mr. Richardson was graduated from Virginia Theological Seminary May 25 at Alexandria, Va., excelling in Hebrew and ranking high in a class of 55. On July 1 he will begin work at St. Paul Episcopal Church in Lansing where he has accepted a call to become assistant to the rector, Rev. William S. Hill.

Others to be ordained include Henry N. Fukui of All Saints Church in East Lansing, and a former faculty member at Michigan State University; C. Corydon Randall of St. Andrew Church in Ann Arbor; Joseph Weathersby of Grace Church in Detroit; William Brewster of Christ Church in Grosse Pointe; and J. A. Frazer Crocker Jr. of St. Columba Church in Detroit.

During the ordination, ordinands are publicly questioned by Bishop Emrich and asked, in essence, if they truly believe they have had a spiritual call to the work of the Christian ministry, have unwavering belief in the Holy Scripture, will diligently teach the word of God, will serve in numerous and various services under the direction of the rector, will be a creditable example of life in Christ, and will gladly obey those in charge.

As each candidate is ordained he is vested with a stole which is placed over one shoulder and which, in six months will be placed over both shoulders, when the clergyman is advanced to the priesthood.

The stole is the emblem of the "Yoke of Christ" worn by the clergyman after his ordination, and becomes the mark of his authority in conduct of worship services and sacraments of the church.

Four main colors in the stole symbolize seasons. Purple symbolizes the penetential seasons such as Lent; green represents growth or expansion, such as the Trinity season; red symbolizes Whitsuntide and occasions emphasizing the Holy Spirit, and white is worn for festal occasions and feasts, and seasons such as Christmastide and Eastertide.

Also during the service Bishop Emrich will present each candidate with a New Testament, a symbol of the authority "to read the Gospel in the church of God and to preach the same if he be thereto licensed by the bishop himself."

St. Timothy Episcopal Church is holding the ordination because of the two-million-dollar construction of the Cathedral and Diocesan headquarters now in St. Paul Cathedral in Detroit, where the event would ordinarily be held.

Churches Grant 82 Scholarships

Spanish-Speaking and Indian Youths Winners of College Years

NEW YORK — Eighty-two Indian and Spanish-speaking American youths today were granted college scholarships by the Board of Home Missions of the Congregational Christian Churches.

The scholarships, which are awarded annually, are meant "to light a spark, to encourage all young people in these minority racial and cultural groups, where higher education is the exception rather than the rule, to seek an education," the Rev. Galen R. Weaver, New York City, secretary for religion and race in the Board and director of the program, explained in announcing the grants here.

The scholarships go to young men and women who may be expected to become leaders in their cultural groups and in the nation, Mr. Weaver stated. "But," he added, "there are no strings attached, no religious requirements, no stipulation that students return to their home communities or take up any particular profession.

"We know that, wherever they go, they will be an asset to the nation and to their own people," he said.

Students receiving scholarships for the 1960-61 academic year come from 23 states and Puerto Rico; from Indian reservations and big city streets, Mr. Weaver reported.

Among graduates of the program, which began in 1954, are teachers of English, art, music, and biology, several of them in Indian schools.

There is a home demonstration agent working with Indian families, a worker for the National Congress of American Indians, a petroleum geologist, a staff nurse in a research hospital, an Army chaplain's assistant, an accountant, and a dancer who has had a Fulbright fellowship to Peru and has appeared on Broadway.

This year's scholarship students will attend colleges and universities ranging from New England to California and including Puerto Rico. Some will enter as freshmen. Others are advanced students who are being helped to finish their college careers.

Their ambitions for the future include teaching, medicine, nursing, engineering, the Christian ministry, government service, social work, dentistry, journalism, business administration and the law.

The Congregational Christian churches' service to Indians and Spanish Americans began in 1846 with the founding of the American Missionary Association. By 1850 the Association had 21 missionaries: teachers, preachers, physicians, and farmers among the Indians of Minnesota, and others among the Spanish-speaking people and Indians in the Southwest.

Education was a primary concern, and schools were founded and supported until they could be turned over to local authorities. The association is now a part of the Board of Home Missions.

Urges Motives' Study

KINGSTON, Pa. (AP)—Churches should do more research into human motivations in connection with religion, says James W. Carty, Jr., journalism professor at Bethany College, Bethany, W. Va. He told a meeting here that industry spends 11 billion annually on research to explore new frontiers of understanding, but the churches spend only $100,000 for research.

Says Logic Isn't All

NEW YORK (AP) — Logical "proofs" of God's existence are only part of the rational comprehension of Him, the Rev. Henri de Lubac, a Jesuit scholar, maintains in a new book, "The Discovery of God." He says experiences such as those of the mystic and poet are not outside intellectual understanding.

Congregationalists Raise Retired Minister Annuities

NEW YORK — The Congregational Christian Churches will double annuities of 500 retired ministers and widows of ministers and greatly increase payments to 900 others in an effort to relieve these veterans from the pinch of living in 1960 on pensions based on depression-day salaries.

"Inflation is taking a terrible toll in the lives of retired ministers and their widows," Dr. William Kincaid Newman, New York City, secretary of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, stated.

He announced his denomination plans to allocate $500,000 yearly from missionary giving for the increased pension payments.

"It is time that every denomination took aggressive action to return their aged ministers to self-sufficiency," Dr. Newman said.

NOT THEIR FAULT

"Their careful and frugal provisions for security have been swept away through no fault of their own.

"They suffer from all the problems that beset countless old people today, but they refuse to become public charges. They deserve aid as a matter of right, not charity," he added.

Most of the pension increases will go to men who served the greater part of their ministry in the 20's and the depression-ridden 30's, Dr. Newman, who is an attorney, said.

The oldest group, 804 of whom are over 75 and 229 of whom are over 85, have been receiving a flat pension of $600 annually. Their payments will be raised Jan. 1, 1961, to $900 and in the future to $1,200.

These older men, who began their ministries about the turn of the century, were receiving "generous pensions in terms of the pre World War I dollar," Dr. Newman pointed out.

When the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, one of the oldest pension funds among Protestant communions, was founded in 1914, Congregational ministers' salaries ranged from $135 a year to $3,000. The average was $968.

'SCANDALOUSLY LOW'

The average hourly industrial wage in 1919 was only 38 cents.

By 1959 it had risen to $1.70, but ministerial pensions based on 1919 salaries had increased only from $500 to $600 a year, "scandalously low in terms of the 1960 dollar" and especially in terms of medical costs which are "moving up much faster than the cost of living as a whole," Dr. Newman reported.

Ministerial salaries now average $5,000 a year, more than eight times the pensions paid to the oldest ministers, although their pension plan was set up at a ratio of two to one, he said.

Depression years ministers receive pensions based on payments made into the fund by themselves and their churches, rather than a flat sum.

Since many of them stuck to their churches through years of drought and unemployment, receiving virtually no cash salary at all, they do not have the backlog of savings that would have accrued to them in normal years.

Added to this lack is "the appalling inflation of the post World War II years, which has made these men and their widows destitute," Dr. Newman said.

"Substantial increases will be made in annual payments to these men and women to bring their annuities up to the level of the older group," Dr. Newman concluded.

Ex-Lutheran Becomes Married Catholic Priest

COPENHAGEN (AP) — A married former Lutheran pastor is now a Roman Catholic priest.

Although the Catholic Church ordinarily requires its priests to be celibate, special permission was granted for Father Olav Roerdam Bonnevie, 54, to remain married after he was ordained a Catholic priest.

He has been a Lutheran pastor for years before his conversion to Catholicism.

United Church Synod to Meet

Special Session Will Develop Constitution for Recently Merged Body

NEW YORK — A special session of the United Church of Christ's General Synod will meet in Cleveland, Ohio, July 6 to 8 to develop a constitution for the recently formed denomination.

The United Church of Christ was established in 1957 by a union of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches.

The two bodies came together under the terms of a previously agreed upon basis of union which called for the drafting of a constitution—along lines set down by the basis of union—after the United Church was created.

A church union of the type under way in the United Church of Christ has never before been attempted in the United States. It brings together two major Protestant denominations with differing forms of church government, practices and backgrounds.

The proposed United Church constitution guarantees "the autonomy of any congregation or local church in the management of its own affairs" and makes the local church "the basic unit" of the denomination's life and organization.

After a final draft of the constitution for the United Church is hammered out at the adjourned session of the general synod in July, it will be referred to local and regional bodies for ratification.

According to the Basis of Union agreement, the constitution must have the approval of two thirds of the Congregational Christian local churches which vote on it, and of two thirds of the Evangelical and Reformed regional synods.

Comoderators for the sessions in Cleveland will be Miss Frances Kapitzky, of Strasburg, Ohio, who was last year elected moderator of the Evangelical and Reformed General Synod, and the Rev. Dr. Ray Phillips, Boston, moderator of the Congregational Christian General Council.

Faiths Exchange Visits

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Protestant and Catholic congregations exchanged visits here in a program to develop better community understanding. Talks explaining church customs and worship were given in visits at Grove Avenue Methodist Church, St. Paul's United Church of Christ and St. Patrick's Catholic Church.

Interfaith Cooperation

BOSTON (AP)—When the Rev. Fred erick P. Walker, a Roman Catholic Maryknoll missioner, reported to a clinic here for observation, doctors sent him to the New England Baptist Hospital where a Jewish doctor treated him.

Sending Own Missionaries

Philippines and Japan Expand Methodism to Okinawa and India

Two overseas church bodies related to American Methodism are now sending out their own missionaries to foreign lands.

Reports from the Philippines and Japan to the Board of Missions in New York, tell of missionaries being sent to countries as widely separated as Okinawa and India, the missionaries recruited and supported largely by Japanese and Filipino Christians.

This expanded missionary activity by overseas churches represents a further internationalization of the Methodist missionary force. This is part of a general plan to increase the proportion of non-American, non-Caucasian personnel in the Methodist force around the world.

A dispatch to the Board from Doris Hess, of Hughesville, Pa., missionary, describes the increased missionary program of the Methodist Church in the Philippines.

Report from Japan tell of the assignment of missionaries from the United Church of Christ (Methodist-related) to India and Taiwan and of a plan for closer relationships between the Japan United Church and the United Church of Christ in Okinawa.

From Manila, Miss Hess writes: "The timetables of missions in Asia are being reversed today as young men and women of Philippines, Methodism enter missionary service to nearby countries, once a part of the original Philippines Annual Conference. They are sent out by the Board of Missions of the Philippines Central Conference.

"Dr. Raymundo Rivera of Manila,, a former Methodist Youth Fellowship leader, went as the first medical missionary of the Philippines church. He began rural clinical service in Malaya at Sitiawan in 1957.

"Returning to the Philippines in December 1959, he married. His wife now serves with him in Christian education work in Malaya. Recently the Methodist Church in the Philippines sent three nurses to the new Christ Hospital in Kapit, Sarawak, Borneo. These missionaries are graduates of the Mary Johnston School of Nursing in Manila."

Confident Living

Don't Allow Grievances to Warp Your Feelings

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Did you ever hear of grievance drainage?

I came across this phrase in the office of a man who sells a protein concentrate used in feeding livestock. This man declares that the American farmer is the greatest individualist in the world. He says you have to use psychology in dealing with them if you expect to make headway with these fine individualists.

PEALE

It seems this salesman goes direct to the farm, opens up his kit and sells the product to the farmer right on his own place. He does not expect the farmer to come to the store; he takes the store to the farmer.

Also, the manufacturer has learned that it is good business to make certain the customer is absolutely satisfied with the product. So after the farmer has had ample time to use the protein concentrate, a representative is sent to the farm to inquire if everything goes well.

The farmer is never allowed to remain dissatisfied or disgruntled. If anything is wrong the representative wants to know about it, so he gets the farmer to talking and thereby draws off his grievance, if any exists.

In this way complaints are quickly adjusted and bad feelings are avoided. The sales manager says it is a matter of company policy never to allow a grievance to harden into hostility. So this procedure is followed and is called "grievance drainage."

This is a policy everyone could profitably employ in relationship with other people. The breakup of many friendships would be forestalled, the number of divorces reduced, if people would learn to practice "grievance drainage."

My mother used to say, "Never let the sun go down on your wrath." That is good advice. If you sleep on your wrath, it only sinks deeper into consciousness and can easily become a permanent part of your mental attitude. When you have been hurt, the best policy is to drain off the resentment just as quickly as you can.

The word "resent" means to feel again. When you continue to think about a hurt and dwell on it, and talk about it, you are in effect refeeling the injury or rehurting yourself. And, of course, this may cause all sorts of unhappy psychological and emotional reactions.

An immediate grievance drainage empties your mind of resentment, grudges, antagonism, hostility. It prevents the debilitating effect such unhealthy attitudes can have both emotionally and physically.

We may hurt other persons either knowingly or unknowingly. We need to exercise care lest we do or say something which wounds a friend or loved one. Sometimes such persons will be hurt and say nothing about it, but it eats at them just the same.

So, when we realize that we have hurt the feelings of someone, the thing to do is go at once to that individual and in a sincere and kindly manner make amends or give explanation and show that you are friendly and concerned.

Grievance drainage can be a help in married life also. Couples will find strains and irritations beginning to arise from time to time. Unkind words are said; hurt and anger follow. Over many years of personal counseling I have advised couples to forgive and forget before retiring for the night.

To do this simply say you're sorry, ask forgiveness, and express love for the other. And if a couple prays together, asking God's blessing upon their marriage and their home, not only will they sleep better but they will become happier people.

When grievance and hurts are drained off, they will have no opportunity to harden into misunderstanding and hostility.

"QUESTIONS THAT NEVER SHOULD HAVE BEEN ASKED"

In a previous article I began a series of articles on the above subject with hope that some of the questions which are frequently asked and which constantly disturb man and which inevitably divide believers might be solved by the Bible, the word of God. It is also hoped that they may draw the religious world closer together in the bond of peace, Eph. 4:3.

THE QUESTION:
"WON'T SPRINKLING OR POURING ANSWER FOR BAPTISM?"

This question would never have been asked if men had not become perverters of God's truth for the sake of convenience. In the first century not even the slightest implication is made to suggest to us that the Apostles practiced such. Since this is true and without refutation, why should Bible believers want to so teach and practice today?

This question would never have been asked if men were constant, candid consultants of the New Testament scriptures. For one who has thoroughly studied all the scriptures which speak of baptism could not possibly conclude that sprinkling and pouring is the baptism ordained by the Lord in Mt. 28:19 and which was taught and practiced by the Apostles as is recorded in Acts 2:38 and Rom. 6:1-4. It is not necessary for men to debate loud and long on this subject for baptism is defined by inspiration in the scripture as a burial:

We read: "Buried with him in Baptism wherein we also are risen with Him," Col. 2:12, again we read: "Therefore we are Buried with Him by Baptism into Death." Rom. 6:4. For all seekers of truth, the question is settled for God has spoken and when God speaks men ought to hear.

Let us consider several things about this question:

1. The question suggests that the inquirer has been exposed to both truth and error. He is familiar with the prevalent practice of pouring and sprinkling yet he is not ignorant of the facts in favor of a burial. So there are between two opinions he wonders if it will ANSWER FOR BAPTISM. In the light of inspired scripture, I without hesitation affirm that it will not.

2. The question also suggests that the inquirer knows that sprinkling and pouring is a substitute in that he says ANSWER FOR BAPTISM. It should be noticed that he does not affirm that sprinkling and pouring IS NEW TESTAMENT BAPTISM but asks will it ANSWER FOR NEW TESTAMENT BAPTISM. Friends nothing will substitute for baptism but baptism and sprinkling and pouring is not New Testament Baptism. God has never permitted man to unwittingly change his commandments and substitute others for them and he does not now. The Bible does not endorse sprinkling and pouring for New Testament Baptism and neither will any God fearing Bible believer, for he knows that he shall be judged according to the word he has received, respected, believed and obeyed the words of God. BELIEVETH THOU THIS?

4 Engagements Told and 6 Weddings Today

Claudia Helen Bennett, daughter of the G. Claude Bennetts of Royal Oak, and John Michael Seaton, son of the Louis G. Seatons of Huntington Woods, were wed today in St. Mary's Church of Royal Oak.

MRS. JOHN MICHAEL SEATON

Seaton-Bennett Nuptial Occurs in Royal Oak

A reception at the Orchard Lake Country Club followed the nuptials of Claudia Helen Bennett and John Michael Seaton pledged to the Rev. George J. Cairns this morning in St. Mary's Church of Royal Oak.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Claude Bennett of Northwood boulevard, Royal Oak. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Seaton of Hendrie boulevard, Huntington Woods.

A blue sash accented the bride's bell-shape street-length dress of white eyelet organdy worn over white.

Mrs. Frederick Brenner of Ann Arbor, her sister's matron of honor, wore blue imported polished cotton, with matching blue headband of organdy bows. She held a nosegay of pink and white rosebuds and blue-tinted stephanotis.

Flower girl Ann Kathleen Swartwout of Birmingham, niece of the bridegroom, appeared in blue organdy with organdy bows. She carried a small wicker basket of pink rosebuds and white daisies.

To begin the honeymoon in the northern peninsula and Wisconsin, the new Mrs. Seaton donned a white linen sheath dress with red flowered organdy cardigan jacket with white linen trim. Her accessories were white.

The bride attended the University of Michigan and the University of Vienna, in Austria. Her husband was graduated from General Motors Institute, Flint, and is an engineer at Pontiac Motor Division. He served two years with the Army in Japan.

The couple will live at Pine Lake.

MRS. RICHARD McDONALD

Reception and buffet dinner at Westacres Club House was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. William J. Malinowski of Oldtown street, Cass Lake, parents of the bride. The bridegroom's parents, the William Allen McDonalds of South Haven, joined them in the receiving line.

The bridal gown of white silk organza featured a Victorian pouff and bouffant skirt which extended into a chapel train. Chantilly lace, re-embroidered with seed pearls, fashioned the molded bodice and modified scoop-neckline.

A queen's crown of scalloped lace, pearls and irridescent sequins caught the full circular finger tip veil of imported silk illusion. White roses and English ivy comprised the bride's semicascade bouquet.

On the esquire side were best man Richard A. Webster of Kalamazoo, and Dr. John Shields of Flint, Dr. Robert Fontanesi of Detroit and Dr. Edward Rennell Jr. of Coldwater, who ushered.

The bride is a 1960 graduate of University of Detroit. Her husband is an alumnus of University of Michigan where he affiliated with Delta Sigma Delta fraternity.

The Ralph Lee Spurlocks of Elizabeth Lake road were hosts at their daughter's reception in the CAI Building, Waterford Township, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Ostrand of North Johnson avenue, parents of the bridegroom, joined them in the receiving line.

MRS. DAVID L. OSTRAND

BLUE, WHITE CARNATIONS

Colonial bouquets of blue and white carnations complemented waltz-length blue chiffon frocks for Ilene Sharette, honor maid, and Constance Windell, bridesmaid.

Wayne Ostrand was his brother's best man. The usher list included Bruce Bentley, Thomas Bolt and Norman Terpening, cousin of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Spurlock chose blue lace over satin, with corsage of pink and white carnations. Yellow carnations accented the medium-brown sheath dress of imported polished cotton for the mother of the bridegroom.

After a northern Michigan honeymoon, the couple will live on Elizabeth Lake road.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Spurlock of Mt. Vernon, Ill., and Mrs. Mabel Carnal of Denver, Colo., grandparents of the couple, attended the wedding.

Davis-Soda Vows Said in St. Benedict Church

An Empire gown of white Chantilly lace and nylon tulle was chosen by Angie Marie Soda for her marriage to Roger Lee Davis of Berkley this morning in St. Benedict Church.

Soft fabric roses accented the junction of the lace and a skirt flounce of accordion-pleated tulle. The sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves were fashioned of scalloped lace dotted with iridescent sequins.

Honor maid Irene Anne Zaha, in white organza with orchid hand-embroidery on the bodice, carried orchid carnations. Aqua embroidery distinguished identical white dresses for bridesmaids Lillian Angelosanto, Mary Jane Puertas, Lorraine Tenuta of Drayton Plains, and the bridegroom's sister Alice, of Berkley. They carried aqua carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Soda of Elizabeth Lake road hosted their daughter's wedding breakfast, followed by mid-afternoon dinner and an evening reception at the IAC Hall on Tilden avenue. Receiving with them were Mr. and Mrs. John K. Davis of Princeton road, Berkley.

James St. Germaine of St. Clair Shores was best man. Guests were seated by John Wendland, Joseph A. Novak and Richard Aiello, all of Royal Oak, and Timothy Renard of Berkley.

A new home on Shaddick street, Waterford Township, awaits the newlyweds who are presently honeymooning at Niagara Falls and northern Canada.

Wife Must Worry, Too

Financial Ignorance Not Bliss

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: How do you approach the subject of "money" with your husband? We have been married for over a year and I don't know how much he makes or even how much rent we pay, I never see any of the bills. He tells me not to open them. He takes all the bills and pays them. I get an allowance for spending money and it is more than enough, so I save a little. The other day he asked me to sign a paper stating he was taking out a $1,000 loan. I don't know what he needs a loan for. We are supposed to have money in the bank. When I ask questions about finances he tells me not to worry. But I worry, anyway. Don't you think a wife should know something about the financial situation in a marriage?

IN THE DARK

ABBY

DEAR IN: A wife should certainly know what comes in, what goes out, and why and when. Thank your husband for wanting to spare you from the "money worries", but tell him one way to keep your marriage off the rocks is not to hide too many things under them.

DEAR ABBY: I have a neighbor who likes to run in and out of my house several times a day. She's cheerful and chatty and is the big-hearted type. She's the first one there if I need help with the housework or someone to look after my children for a few hours.

Well, I have one thing against her. She will clean out my candy dish, nut or fruit bowl and think nothing of it. Once she had the nerve to tell me what kind of candy she liked and where I could buy it.

I hate to hurt her feelings, but how can I tell her in a nice way that this gets my goat?

CLEANED OUT

DEAR CLEANED: Bowls of nuts, candy and fruits are tokens of hospitality and are meant to be eaten. A good friend is hard to find. Don't complain — and don't put out any more than you want to disappear.

DEAR ABBY: I have been wondering what is wrong with my 16-year-old daughter's behavior. She messes with everything she can get her hands on. At the table she pours the salt, pepper and sugar on the table and mixes it all together and makes "designs". She pinches flowers (wax and real) and bends wire hangers out of shape. When she's talking on the phone she writes all over everything and scratches the paint off the wall. She seems to do all this unconsciously — not maliciously. I have watched her in amazement. She wasn't as destructive at the age of 3 as she is now.

She is very pretty and popular and makes A's and B's at school. I can't understand this streak in her. Have you heard of cases like this, Abby?

JUST WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: Yes, frequently. It's nothing to be alarmed about. She'll probably pass through this stage quickly.

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

You Tired All the Time?

BY JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

While individuals are born with varying amounts of vitality, the chronically tired state in which many persons move through life is often the result of poor health habits and a dismal mental outlook.

Today I would like to list a few factors which lead to fatigue.

Rushing, even for such unrewarding victories as making the next stop light, waste energy. Why lead a life too full of huff and puff?

This cannot be entirely controlled but we can do more about it than we do. It may be wise to cut down on some of your obligation and committments even though they are enjoyable or worthwhile.

Perhaps your work is poorly organized. Whatever the reason, it is well worth while to try to banish hurry from your life.

Maladjustments to family or social life take tons of energy. Irritating circumstances and negative emotions take a terrific toll of your pep. If you cannot change your situation, try to adjust to it and slough off the disappointments and frustrations as best you can. This is a matter of self-survival.

Boredom. This is one of the most wearying of all factors. Change it to eager interest in some activity, study, person or project.

Disagreeable work. If you do not like the work you do, change if possible. If you cannot do this try to get a new viewpoint so that the work will become more interesting. This IS possible.

Worry. This will keep you chronically tired.

Too little sleep, malnourishment, lack of exercise, any physical abnormalities such as diseased teeth or tonsils or sinuses, low blood pressure, fallen arches, eye strain and many other such conditions.

Worry will keep you chronically tired. Disagreeable work and lack of exercise also may add to that weary feeling.

Newlyweds Start Trip to Island of Bermuda

Honeymoon destination for Donald Paul Fritz of Grand Rapids and his bride, the former Karen Barling of Birmingham, will be the Hotel Bermudiana in Bermuda.

They pledged wedding vows to the Rev. Father Lucian Hebert this morning in Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church, Birmingham. A Papal blessing was extended. White summer flowers and ferns decked the altar.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lawrence A. Kent of Stanley boulevard, Birmingham, and James Barling of West Iroquois road.

Lily-of-the-valley motifs of French silk Alencon lace were set into the hemline of the bridal gown of imported white silk organza. The elongated bodice extended into a bouffant skirt and chapel train.

Jean Ann Heyer of Greenville was honor maid. Her full-skirted frock of sky blue chiffon featured a scoop neckline, long puffed sleeves, and satin cummerbund.

Beverly Harling of Grosse Point Park, former college roommate of the bride, and Valerie Vasbinder were dressed like the honor maid. They wore blue leaf veiled whimsies and held garden baskets of daisies and gypsophila.

Edward G. Fritz served his brother as best man. John and Philip Fritz ushered. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Fritz of Grand Rapids.

The bride is a graduate of the school of education, University of Michigan, where her husband received his degree in architecture. They will live in Easton, Pa.

Get Grass Stain Out

ITHACA, N.Y. (UPI)—With summer here can grass stains be far behind?

Grass stains can be difficult to remove from clothing, but specialists at the New York State College of Home Economics, Cornell University, suggested a treatment that usually does the trick.

Try lubricating the stain with a mild liquid detergent, or a soapless shampoo, they say. Simply rub the detergent or shampoo into the spot and leave it for one-half hour. Then work the spot with your fingers, or a brush, and rinse it in clear water.

Lubrication with a mild liquid detergent or soapless shampoo also is an effective way of removing stains from lipstick, tracing paper, and India ink, providing the stained fabric is not harmed by moisture, the specialists said.

Chrysler Corp. Selected

DETROIT (AP) — The Autonetics Division of North American Aviation, Inc., said today Chrysler Corp. Autonetics has one of the prime contracts for the missile.

What's Your Number, Dearie?

No Alphabet on Phone Dials

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's telephone system has started doing away with the alphabet.

Peculiar as it may seem, the reason is that the telephone people are running out of — all things — phone numbers.

Nearly 24 million phones have been added in this country just since 1950. Each one needed a number with a word prefix that people could understand, like Plaza or Evergreen.

The problem of finding such prefixes was getting tougher all the time.

The experts concluded after a lot of study and tests that there was only one thing they could do and still give folks the service they want: Change the system.

So eventually, phone numbers won't be partly letters and partly numbers, like (FI(eldstone) 7-2643, but all digits: 347-2643.

Will all-digit phone numbers be harder to remember?

"All numerals can be remembered for a short time just as easily as letter-numeral combinations," said a Bell System spokesman.

"That's how most numbers are used: You look it up in the book and remember it just long enough to dial. It takes a while longer to remember the all-number ones permanently, but most people remember only a few, anyway."

Now, about the alphabet.

There are only about 540 combinations of two letters which will form words easily understood and distinguished, and which also will work in telephone switching equipment.

The experts nearly went goofy trying to find more words and gave up.

To add more digits to present numbers would make them even harder to remember. So it was decided to do away with the pesky letter prefixes and use simply number combinations.

Wichita Falls, Tex., was the first to get the new system. After two years it reportedly is working just fine. The change elsewhere will be a long-time process.

Some population experts estimate the United States will have 200 million inhabitants by 1970.

Can Rid Milk of Strontium-90

New Method Replaces the Radioactive Ions With Calcium

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Development of a method for removing radioactive strontium-90 from milk without altering the milk's nutrivitive value was reported Friday.

Strontium-90 from nuclear test fallout, a bone-seeking substance, is believed by some scientists to cause leukemia and bone cancer if absorbed in sufficient quantity.

The greater St. Louis Citizens' Committee for Nuclear Information said the method was developed by St. Louis scientists in research begun nine months ago under sponsorship of the Pevely Dairy Co.

A pilot operation has been established at a Pevely plant for more extensive tests to determine the process most practical for a commercial dairy operation.

The method described is by means of an ion exchanger which substitutes calcium for strontium-90 in the milk. Most water softeners operate in a similar way.

The strontium-90 content of St. Louis area milk has been generally higher than in milk from other areas in tests conducted by the U.S. Public Health Service.

Rabbis Endorse Negro Sit-In Demonstrations

DETROIT (AP) — The Central Conference of American Rabbis has endorsed Negro sit-in demonstrations against segregated lunch counters in the South.

"We view with sympathy and encouragement the efforts of Negro students and their sympathizers through sit-in strikes and other non-violent methods of demonstration to dramatize and to obtain relief from present forms of racial discrimination, and to achieve their constitutional right to practical equality of treatment," a conference statement said.

"We applaud," it added, "the action of the dean and those faculty members of the Divinity School of Vanderbilt University who resigned to protest against the dismissal of a divinity student for engaging in this type of activity."

White Motor Negotiates Oliver Corp. Merger

Base in Cuba Russia's Aim?

U. S. Information Chief Hints Move to Offset U. S. European Bases

WASHINGTON (AP) — George V. Allen, director of the U.S. Information Agency, declared Friday Russia may be engaged in a tit-for-tat effort to establish a Communist base at the edge of the United States.

Such an objective as a counter to the U.S. bases near Russia, Allen told a House foreign affairs subcommittee, could account for international communism's "new and intensified campaign for intervention" in Latin America.

That area of the world is a prime Communist target, Allen said, and "The Cuban revolution, with its extreme leftist overtones, has opened the door to increased Communist penetration of this hemisphere."

He testified that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, who plans to visit Cuba, has given fresh evidence of Communist designs on Latin America. In Cuba, he said, the Communist bloc contemplates "full, though somewhat veiled," support of the Castro regime in possibly hoping to provoke a situation in which the United States could be accused of military or economic intervention.

The U.S. government, he added, hopes "The Cuban people, with their tradition of freedom, eventually will come to insist on a change of course for their government in order to obtain the Democracy and freedom they always have sought."

SAC Bomber Launches Covey of 3 Quails

OMAHA (AP) — A Strategic Air Command bomber Friday launched three McDonnell GAM 72 Quail decoy missiles into free flight over the Eglin Gulf test range in Florida, SAC headquarters announced. This is the first time a SAC crew has launched more than one Quail at the same time.

The unmanned decoy missile is designed for release in coveys in order to confuse the enemy.

Each decoy carries electronic equipment which produces a blip on radar screens similar to that of a bomber, confronting an enemy with the porblem of determining which blip represents the real bomber.

Each decoy flies in a different direction at the same speed as the bomber, more than 650 miles an hour.

When testing is complete, each B52G will carry several decoys in addition to two GAM 77 Hound Dog air-to-surface missiles. The 10-foot long decoys carry their small fins folded around the body of the missile until launched so they do not take up space needed for other weapons.

Will Report as a Convention Chairman

State Women to Make History

MRS. MARGARET PRICE

LANSING (AP) — One of Michigan's most striking and successful women politicians will hold the eye of the nation briefly on the second day of the Democratic national convention.

At the same time, delegates at Los Angeles and televiewers everywhere will see history made when the spotlights focus on Mrs. Margarent Price of Ann Arbor, Michigan's national committeewoman.

Mrs. Price will report as chairman of the Rules and Order of Business Committee, the first woman ever to head a major committee at a Democratic national convention — and possibly at any national political convention.

Tall, dark-haired and regally handsome, she will be a familiar figure to veteran delegates. She has toiled for the cause of Democratic liberalism since 1932 as national committeewoman.

In the convention eight years ago, she took the floor to second the nomination of Gov. G. Mennen Williams for president.

National committeeman Thomas H. E. Quimby said her choice to head the committee reflected an outstanding record on the national committee and the party's consciousness of woman's rightful role in politics.

Democrats boast they installed women in 29 of 102 national convention delegate berths, whereas the state's 46-vote Republican national convention delegation includes only three women.

Mrs. Price, mother of two sons and wife of an auto company executive now stationed in Brazil, worked her way up in politics, starting as a precinct delegate — the lowiest elective position.

Twice she ran for state auditor general, narrowly missing election in 1948 when she became the first woman in Michigan politics to poll over 1,000,000 votes.

In her busy career, Mrs. Price has been a national board member of the YWCA, an executive board member of the National Midcentury Board of the YWCA, served in 1950 and 1960 on the White House Conference on Children and Youth, and was a delegate to the White House Conference on Education in 1955.

There are eight miles of the Seine River in Paris.

U. S. Signs Contract for Missile Range

CAPE CANAVERAL — (UPI) — The Air Force announced Friday the signing of an $89,162,000 contract with Pan American World Airways for operation of the Atlantic Missile Range during fiscal 1961.

The contract, representing a cost increase of $2,932,000 over last year's range contract, reflects an intensified missile activity and the coming man-in-space age.

Maj. Gen. Leighton I. Davis, chief of the Air Force Missile Test Command here, said new facilities and more manpower would be needed on the far-flung missile range because of the new launching plans.

They include the Minuteman intercontinental ballistic missile, the Centaur "moon ship" and the Mercury manned space craft programs.

Kennett A. Hull Named to MESC Appeal Post

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams Friday announced the appointment of Kennett A. Hull of Detroit to the appeal board of the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

He was named to a term expiring March 31, 1966 succeeding Hubert H. Emerick. The post, requiring Senate confirmation, pays $40 a day up to a maximum of $10,000 a year.

To Begin Addition to Shoppers' Mall in Kalamazoo

Another block is to be added to two built last year. The entire project is in line with a 20-year plan to revitalize the central business district.

The additional block will cost an estimated $25,000, with the city and fronting property owners dividing payment. The same method of financing was used for construction of the initial mall at a cost of $54,000.

Know the Word Monkey Wrench

India Has 723 Tongues but Some English Is Understood by All

WASHINGTON — In India, there are 723 ways to ask the time of day but only one way to request a monkey wrench.

The 408,000,000 people in the complex nation speak 179 languages and 544 dialects, the National Geographic Society says. Though only 3,500,000 Indians are fluent in English, many more millions understand a "bazaar" patois.

English words and technical terms have crept into most of the native tongues; a monkey wrench is a "monkey wrench" from Assam to Bombay.

English is one of 15 major languages recognized for official use. It is the lingua franca of Indian officials and intellectuals, whose speech often has the stately flavor of Macaulay and other 19th-century stylists.

Members of the Indian Parliament usually debate in English, the language most have in common. However, some legislators speak only their provincial tongues, and one representative of an aboriginal tribe could understand no one but himself.

The Indian Constitution establishes Hindi, an Indo-Aryan tongue, as the national language.

What is called "Hindi" today actually is Hindustani, a dialect of western Hindi used by the man on the street in much of India.

Hindi is spoken by some 140,000,000 persons, thus is the third most popular language in the world after Chinese and English. Hindi is related to Urdu, the official language of Pakistan.

True Hindi developed from Sanskrit, an ancient classical language. Today, according to the last census of India, only 555 people speak Sanskrit. There is, however, a movement to purify popular Hindi by throwing out borrowed words and replacing them with Sanskrit.

6th Straight Titan Flies Successfully

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The sixth straight successful 5,000-mile flight of a Titan missile has cleared the way for testing an advanced model of the intercontinental range weapon.

One of the 98-foot rockets carried a tactical-type nose cone to a predetermined target off the South Atlantic island of Ascension Friday.

Two hours later a recovery ship picked up a data capsule carrying instruments that recorded the cone's performance.

Across the state on the west coast, the Air Force fired five missiles over the Eglin Air Force Base gulf test range, three from a bomber and two from the Santa Rosa Island launching pads.

In announcing the Titan success, the Air Force said the primary objectives were to determine missile accuracy and to verify performance of the cone.

Tot Loses Eye in Stepfather's Fit of Anger

Police obtained a warrant for Everett Thomas, 25, of 568 E. Barrett St. after he admitted that he threw the ashtray to the hardwood floor during an argument with his wife Arleen, 20.

Fragments of the flying glass struck the boy, Bradley Biers, who was sitting on the floor a few feet away. The child was taken to Detroit Osteopathic Hospital where doctors removed the eye.

Thomas was arraigned yesterday in the Oakland County prosecutor's office, Royal Oak, and released on a $250 bond. He will appear for a hearing next Tuesday.

Man Admits Killing; Ask Murder Charge

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A first degree murder warrant will be sought today for Clifford Earl Porter, 21, of Alto, who state police say admitted last night killing 19-year-old William Hummell Jr., in a gas station holdup in Middleville Thursday.

The slain youth was the son of Barry County conservation officer.

Police used a description of a battered car seen at the filling station at the estimated time of the holdup to track down Porter.

A woman, whose name they didn't disclose, told police about the car. They traced it to a Middleville factory where Porter worked and learned he had been late to work Thursday.

Speech Timed to Go With U2 Report

Wiley All Ready to Talk and Defend Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis) said today there is no truth to charges that any "lack of foresight, or clumsiness in policy planning," by the Eisenhower administration caused the collapse of the summit conference.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, Wiley said, would have torpedoed the conference anyway even if the U2 spy plane incident had not come just before the Paris meeting.

Wiley's statement established him as a leading Senate defender of the administration's recent actions in foreign affairs. Friday he made public a letter from Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, which Wiley had solicited, in which Herter strongly rejected attacks on the administration's handling of President Eisenhower's canceled trip to Japan.

Wiley's U2 defense was scheduled as a Senate speech today, but Friday night the Senate adjourned until Monday. The prepared speech had been distributed earlier.

The speech was timed to precede release tonight of a 62-page report on the U2 incident by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Wiley is senior Republican member of the committee which conducted a four-day, closed-door probe of the U2 affair. He said he would have something to say later on the committee report.

Committee Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark) has said the 10 pages of conclusions are "soft and tender" with the administration.

Wiley and Sen. Frank J. Lausche (D-Ohio) abstained from voting when the committee approved the report Thursday 14-1. Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind) opposed issuing of any report at all.

Wiley questioned whether congressmen should "arrogate to themselves the 'pedestal-type' position of attempting to dictate internal policy for the administration."

"Particularly," he said, "it does not fall within the jurisdiction of members of the Foreign Relations Committee."

"We recognize, of course, that this is a political year," he added.

Thomas Clears 7-Feet-2; Jones Beats Calhoun

High Jump Star Keeps Breaking World Records

Hayes Takes 110-Meter Hurdles in :13.6 to Nip Rival

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—John Thomas, a young man with spring in his toes and summer on his mind, today has a new claim to lay before the high tribunal of high jumping.

The long, lean teen-ager from Boston University cleared 7 feet 2 inches at the National AAU Track and Field Championships Friday night, becoming the first jumper in history to scale that height outdoors.

But the summer is just beginning for the handsome, 19-year-old Negro, who will enter what he calls "the big one" next week and an even bigger one at the Rome Olympics in August.

The AAU meet, a generally unspectacular affair except for the towering leap by Thomas, winds up this evening. Sprinter Ray Norton, of Santa Clara, who won the 100-meter final, is performing near his peak and could steal much of the show with a victory tonight in the 200.

Thomas took three shots at 7-2. He appeared to make it on the second, but the bar came down moments after he did.

Hayes Jones of Pontiac led Michigan entries in the meet by winning the 110-meter hurdles just a fraction of a second ahead of Lee Calhoun.

Jones finished in :13.6. (It is interesting to note that German world record holder Martin Lauer took part in a meet in Munich, Germany, yesterday and his time in the 110-meter hurdles was :14.1. His world record is 13.2.)

David Meyers of Central Michigan was eliminated in the 400-meter dash when he finished fifth in the second heat, and Ken Blalock, also of Central Michigan, is a qualifier in the 800-meter run.

Thomas, who has gone 7-2¼ indoors, said the last jump took so much of him that he didn't feel like trying for anything above 7-2.

Asked how high he figures he can go in the next few years, Thomas responded elusively: "I can keep going up until I miss."

John's jump was a full inch better than the recognized world record, set by Russia's Yuri Stepanov in 1957, and a quarter of an inch better than Thomas' pending outdoor record. His indoor mark cannot be recognized.

Outside of Thomas, the only man to come really close to a world record was hammer thrower Hal Connolly. Connolly had a sore back—so sore he pulled out before the event concluded — but he heaved the ball and chain 224 feet 4½ inches—just 11½ inches short of his own world record.

Norton won the 100-meter dash without much trouble in :10.5, four tenths of a second off the world record. Tonight he figures to be the class of a 200-meter field that includes world record-holder Dave Sime. Others in the field are Bobby Poynter, Dave Styron, and Willie Williams.

Parry O'Brien defeated rival shot putters Bill Nieder and Dave Davis with a throw of 62 feet 6¼ inches. But, as O'Brien put it, the winning heave was "nothing to rave about." Parry's recognized world record is 63-4 and Nieder has a pending record of 65-7. Nieder limited O'Brien to 62-6 with a sore leg heavily bandaged.

Glenn Davis, who holds the world 400-meter hurdles record of :49.2, won the event in :50.1.

The chief disappointment was Bobby Morrow's failure to qualify in the 100. Morrow, who won gold medals in both the 100 and 200 in the 1956 Olympics, has a chance to qualify in the 200 tonight.

Bucs Get Help From Dodgers in NL Flag Race

Pirates Boost Lead to 3½

By The Associated Press

The Pittsburgh Pirates are 3½ games ahead again in the National League race, but it took one whale of a pitching parlay to do it.

Ed Roebuck, a sore armed right-hander last year, beat Joey Jay in a duel of relievers by allowing just four hits over nine shutout frames as the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated second-place Milwaukee 5-3 in 10 innings Friday night. That ended the Braves' winning streak at six games.

It was only the second time Roebuck has gone nine innings since coming to the majors with the Dodgers in 1955.

And Pirate southpaw Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell came through with his first complete game in 14 starts this season—only his second in 30 tries over more than a year—for a 4-1 victory over Chicago's last-place Cubs.

Third-place San Francisco, after losing five in a row, beat Cincinnati 5-3, with Willie Mays driving in three runs and hitting two homers. Philadelphia's fired-up Phils won six in a row for the first time in two seasons with a 4-3 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Roebuck, 28, who tried his hand at first base in the minors while nursing an ailing elbow last season, hadn't gone more than five innings in any of his 22 previous appearances, all in relief, this season. He's made just one start in the majors, and his only other nine-inning job also was in relief—when he beat the Cubs 4-3 on Aug. 28, 1957.

Roebuck (5-1) gave up nothing but singles, walked just three and struck out seven after relieving Sandy Koufax when the Braves tied it 3-all in the second. The Dodgers, blanked for 8 2-3 innings by Jay (1-2), finally broke through when Wally Moon tripled and Don Demeter hit a sacrifice fly in a two-run 10th. The other run was unearned.

The Dodgers, sixth-place world champions, chased Carl Willey Mike McCormick (9-3) was the winner. He gave up a two-run homer by Gus Bell in the first inning, then blanked the Reds until the ninth, when he needed relief help from Johnny Antonelli.

Rookie Ken Walters drove in two runs for the Phils, breaking a 3-3 tie with a fifth inning single off losing reliever Ernie Broglio (5-3). Robin Roberts (4-7) gave up seven hits, one Ken Boyer's 18th homer, but won his third in a row by blanking the Cards on two hits after the second inning.

Houston Golfer Eyes 2nd Title

Crawford, cool in the face of a blistering sub-par round by his opponent, won on the 38th hole of his semifinal match Friday with Deane Beman of Maryland, the 1959 British Amateur champion.

Smith, winner over National Amateur champion Jack Nicklaus of Ohio State in the third round, fought to a 1-up lead over Gene Hansen of Minnesota in the morning round and stayed in front on the afternoon round in the other 36-hole semifinal match.

CONNOLLY WINDS UP — Harold Connolly of Southern California winds up to throw the hammer 224 feet 4½ inches in the AAU track and field meet at Bakersfield, California, yesterday. He holds the world record of 225 feet, 4 inches.

Baltimore Club Refuses to Quit

By The Associated Press

It begins to look like those Baltimore Orioles, a bunch of Baby Birds and some old pros, are going to hang in there in the American League pennant race. They just don't quit.

They trailed by five runs Friday night, then scored in each of the last six frames for a 6-5 victory at Kansas City that kept them within a half-game of first-place New York. The Yankees, with Tony Kubek driving in five runs, blew a 5-0 lead at Cleveland, but beat the Injuns 10-6 for their seventh victory in eight games.

The Orioles, coming from behind for the second straight day, tied the A's on Gene Woodling's eighth inning homer, then won it on Brooks Robinson's single and Clint Courtney's double. Hoyt Wilhelm was the winner with 1 1-3 innings of hitless relief for a 5-4 record and a string of 17 scoreless frames. Ray Herbert (3-7) was the loser in relief. The A's got their runs on Jerry Lumpe's grand-slam in the second and Norm Siebern's solo homer in the third. Both were off Skinny Brown but only one run was earned.

It was Baltimore's 18th victory in 23 one-run decisions this season.

Kubek belted two homers and then lined a two-run single as the Yankees broke a 6-6 tie by scoring four in the seventh off losing reliever Johnny Klippstein (1-3). Kubek's single was the only hit of the rally, built on two walks, two errors and Mickey Mantle's sacrifice fly. Unbeaten Jim Coates started for the Yankees and gave way in a tying, five-run fifth. Johnny James (4-0) won it in relief—with the help of a running, leaping stab by Roger Maris that robbed Tito Francona of a bases-loaded homer in the sixth.

Jim Landis, White Sox center fielder, also pulled off a beauty, reaching into the bullpen for Ted Williams' ninth inning smash to save Bob Shaw's first victory in three weeks. Landis also drove in the clincher with a sacrifice fly in the second inning winning off Bill Monboquette (6-7). Shaw (6-7) also needed a near Minnie Minoso to Luis Aparicio to Sherm Lollar relay that nailed Pete Runnels at the plate after the Red Sox broke through his shutout in the sixth on Williams' double.

Tigers Finally Aid Jim With Early Cushion

Bengals Get Eleven Hits but Also Leave 15 Men on Bases

DETROIT (UPI)—Will miracles never cease?

The Tigers presented Jim Bunning with a three-run cushion in the first inning last night but, somehow, the lanky righthander recovered from the shock and showed his appreciation by blanking the Washington Senators on three hits for a 4-0 victory.

There have been times this season — more than Bunning would care to remember—when he would have welcomed three runs over an entire game. And, as it turned out, all he needed last night was one.

Jim turned in one of the finest performances of his career as he retired the last 10 men to face him and moved down 21 of the last 22 batters.

Two of the hits off him were infield scratches. Reno Bertoia led off the game by beating out a sharp grounder to Eddie Yost and, in the sixth, Bob Allison was safe on a bunt. Hal Naragon's single to right was the only clean hit off Bunning.

The veteran Detroit hurler picked up his fifth win against four loses and struck out six to boost his season total to 97, taking over the American League lead in that department. He led the circuit in strikeouts last season with 201.

Bunning also lowered his earned run average to 2.27 which is an indication of how much hitting support he usually gets from his mates.

But there was no complaining about the Tiger hitting last night.

The Tiger batsmen ripped into Don Lee for five singles in the first. Yost started it off with a single to center and Chico Fernandez and Charley Maxwell followed suit to produce one run.

The fourth Tiger run came in the seventh when Frank Bolling doubled and scored on Bunning's single.

Palmer-Snead Rivalry May Net U.S. Victory

PORTMARMOCK, Ireland (AP)—A grim individual rivalry between Arnold Palmer and Sam Snead could well fire the United States to its first team victory in the Canada Cup Golf Tournament since 1956.

Even Irish fans have noticed that Snead is going all out to beat Palmer, reigning U. S. and Masters champion, in the race for individual title and Arnold is just as anxious to outshine Sam.

This rivalry inside the American team could give the Yanks their first victory since Ben Hogan and Snead paired in a Canada Cup team triumph four years ago.

This is the way the two Americans have been scoring since the tournament started two days ago:

On the first day Palmer shot a 69 and Snead a 71. Friday Sam rallied with a 68 and Palmer took a 71.

This was enough to give the Americans a three stroke lead over Ireland going into today's third round. Palmer and Snead have a combined score of 279 after 36 holes. The Irish have a team score of 282. South Africa is third with 284 followed by Australia with 286.

They exchange information politely on the links — but not beyond the call of duty.

Palmer once gave Snead some advice on a shot in the team championship and then said to a friend: "Why should I be helping old Sam? After all we're playing for an individual prize, too."

Snead has 71-68—139 and Van Donck 68-71—139. Then comes Palmer with 69-71—140 and Gary Player of South Africa with 65-75—140.

The team championship and the individual title is decided on medal scores after 72 holes.

The team total is made up of the combined scores of the two players on each team. The tournament ends Sunday.

A packed program of widely varied character today marks the "semifinal" stage of the colorful and exciting Detroit Horse Show at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club, where yesterday the younger riders enjoyed another big day and the favored hunters and jumpers progressed towards the top championships.

Yesterday's action included Morton W. (Cappy) Smith's "double" when he added some points to his campaign for leading exhibitor, and also rode for another exhibitor, The Virginian had a clear ride on Sure Thing to win the green knock-down-and-out event, and rode Mrs. J. T. Malone's Mr. Rabbit for a 4th place in the working hunter (handy) class. He was one of the day's busiest riders, also taking his Passport over the special course in the handy hunter competition in perfect style.

Among other highlights, Birmingham's Alison Cram added more luster to her week's efforts in junior competition. The 13-year-old, with her Sonnino, was top rider in three events including the Southern Michigan Junior PHA trophy class for handy working hunters. This event proved the undoing of at least a half dozen young riders and their mounts, when an "epidemic" of spills occurred, most on the same jump in mid-course. No damage was done to either riders or horses.

Hardest fall of the show, this week, was that involving Gabor Foltenyi of Grand Rapids. Gabor went down when Artist slipped into the first of the two "pineapple" obstacles, and had to be given assistance in rising. Neither was injured.

The winners yesterday also included Mrs. E. E. Fisher's Primary in the Shuell Memorial for Michigan bred hunters; another victory for John S. Pettibone's Duke of Paeonian in the middle and heavyweight hunter test, with (Bloomfield Hills) Battle Fashion, owned by Mrs. Graham J. Graham second.

Day's toughest competition took place in the junior "knock-down" feature, where a field of 28 youngsters battled for honors. There was a 6-way jumpoff for first, then a 3-way tie, and another tie, broken by toss of a coin. The six all had clear rides, three repeated, and it all wound up with Marilyn Kole the winner on Playboy.

There was a husband-wife double, Patrick Butler's Bulebird (Mrs. George W. Jayne up) and Mrs. Butler's Wicklow (Ruth Engel up) were a close 2nd and 1st in the night's windup, the open jumper (AHSA) event.

The show reaches its climax Sunday, when final standings will be announced for championships, with top interest on the big jumper-hunter titles, for which Duke of Paeonian and Cappy Smith are the favorites. Sunday's show opens at 11 a.m. The competition, including westerns and other classes, continues this afternoon and tonight.

Two Pontiac Golfers Left in Publinx

Mike Andonian, Iceberg Survive at Loch Alpine

'Ineligible' State King Eliminated by Taylor School Principal

By BILL CORNWELL

ANN ARBOR — Mike Andonian and Roy Iceberg, former state public links champions and ex-U. of D. teammates, were still alive today as the Michigan Publinx Golf Association's Invitational Match Play Championship headed into the 3rd and 4th rounds of match play at Loch Alpine Golf Club.

They were the only Pontiac golfers to survive Friday's matches on a cold and windy June day which also marked the elimination of Flint's Gene Hunt, the defending champion.

Hunt, who won the state crown last year at Rochester, was ousted in the 2nd round by Al Whited of Wayne, a 28-year-old Taylor Center school principal competing in his 1st tournament.

Five other Pontiac players fell by the wayside yesterday. The local casualties included Wally Smith, Dick Ayling, Charlie Barker, Jerry Kruskie and Chuck Canterbury.

Andonian, seeking his 4th title in a five-year stretch, advanced with a 4-3 triumph over Jack Aldred of Ferndale and a 2-1 conquest of Trenton's Jim Cook.

Iceberg, MPGA president who won the title in 1950, had to work harder to keep going. He defeated Detroit's Bill Schwope in the morning, 1 up, 19 holes, then sidelined Frank Kowal Jr. of Jackson in the afternoon, also 1 up.

Ron Hannon of Detroit personally disposed of two Pontiac hopefuls. The beefy Hannon eliminated Ayling, 1 up, 19 holes, and followed that success with a 1-up victory over Barker. Barker earlier had ousted Canterbury, 2-1.

Kruskie lost to Trenton's Bill Montgomery, 4-3, after defeating Harold Thompson of Ann Arbor, 2 up.

Smith bowed out on the 1st extra hole of a sudden-death playoff following a rules infraction. He teed up his ball on a "summer rules" fairway, realized too late his mistake and called the hole on himself. The mental lapse gave Vince Tata of Detroit a 1-up decision.

Hunt technically was ineligible to play in the tourney because he now is a Warwick Hills member. MPGA officials voted to let him continue due to original acceptance of entry coupled with the drive from Flint.

3 U. S. Netters Remain

Teeing Off

By BILL CORNWELL

Dr. Fritz Adams of Orchard Lake Country Club and Harold (Skin) Keith of Drayton Plains gave par a severe beating this week in record-smashing style at two different Oakland County links.

Adams, Orchard Lake's club champion two years ago and runnerup last year, set a new course record for amateurs at Forest Lake Country Club as he repeated as champ in the Oakland County Medical Association tournament.

The Birmingham physician fired a torrid 35-32—67, four under par, in the doctors' tourney. He carded nine straight pars on the front side for a 35 at the turn, then birdied the 13th, 14th, 16th and 18th holes on the way home to go with five more pars for a 32 and his 67.

While Adams was making his 18-hole tour, Keith made mincemeat of par in a nine-hold fling at Clarkston Golf Club.

Keith, better known as a softball player in these parts, proved he was a golfer, too. "Skin" ate up Clarkston's nine-hole layout in 32 strokes, three below regulation, to tie the club's course record.

He birdied the first two holes and clicked for an eagle three on No. 8 after knocking his 2nd shot three feet from the pin. His only bogey was a five on No. 4.

HOFFMANN RESIGNS

A long-smouldering feud has resulted in the resignation of Jack Hoffmann as head pro at Hillcrest C. C. Hoffmann, former Edgewood pro, is expected to leave the Mt. Clemens links at the end of June.

Ben Lula, ex-Monroe professional, has replaced Hoffmann as Hillcrest's acting head pro.

Speaking of Hillcrest, club owner W. W. Woody announces that Sybil Griffin has been appointed as a teaching professional. Miss Griffin hails from Baton Rouge, La., and is a frequent tourist on the women's pro circuit.

SHORT PUTTS

Jack Saylor, who once was a Pontiac Press sports writer, finally bagged that long-awaited 1st hole-in-one. The "Utopia" was Rochester Golf Club's 231-yard 10th hole where Saylor rifled a No. 2 wood shot into the cup for an ace.

His playing partners were Earl Lamberton, Harold Horn and Gil Ham. Saylor made his 18-hole trip in 80 strokes — not bad for a "round" man.

Mrs. Albert Bornak's 35 took low net honors this week in the Women's Silver Lake Golf League. Mrs. Roland Gegoux and Mrs. Harry Freeman tied for 2nd place at 36. Mrs. Earl Weber was a double winner — low putts (15) and blind hole (par five on No. 9).

Owen Kline and George Greig defeated Bernie Girard and Harold Imhoff, 1 up, in the match play finals of the annual President's Cup event at Forest Lake C.C.

Chuck West of Bloomfield Hills was low net winner this week at Knollwood in the Junior District season opener. West shot 81-9—72 in the championship flight.

Golfing is strictly for the physically handicapped player Saturday at Sylvan Glen. Bill Catto's Rochester Rd. layout will be the scene of the annual Michigan Amputee event. Sammy Laine won the crown a year ago.

Policemen Can't Stop Sno-Bol 9 in City Softball

The Pontiac Police team couldn't slow down the Sno-Bol steamroller Friday night in City League softball action at Beaudette Park. The American League leaders defeated the police, 3-2, behind the three-hit pitching of Harlan (Fat) Keith.

Keith had a one-hit shutout until the bottom of the 7th inning when the Police rallied furiously with two hits and two runs before "Fat" silenced the uprising.

Huron Bowl collected 10 safe blows, three by Dick MacIntosh, for a 10-7 victory over Herk's Auto Parts at Northside Park. Don Quackenbush socked three hits in a losing cause.

"C" Battery defeated Rogers' Electric, 9-2, on Chet Kubiak's four-hitter. George Byrd clouted a lead-off homer in the 4th for the losers. In the other scheduled game, Blue Star Drive-In gained a forfeit triumph over Universal Oil.

Two nip-and-tuck one-run decisions in the Interlocken division highlighted Waterford League softball activity yesterday at Drayton Plains.

John Studt's two-run triple was the key blow in a three-run 5th inning as Spencer Floor Covering rallied to defeat Rod's Sunoco, 3-2. Arlo Flesher was the winning hurler and Wayne Janks the loser.

A single by Jim Patterson, a passed ball and Struble's single in the 6th broke a 4-4 tie and gave Drayton Drug a 5-4 victory over Lakeland Pharmacy. Bill Goulet won on the mound and Arky James lost.

City Junior Baseball League results Friday included:

Class D — Don Nicholie 4, Pontiac Central 3; West Bloomfield 3, Lake Orion 2.

Class E — Pontiac Police 13, Lake Orion 3; Auburn Heights Boys Club 5, Great Lakes Mutual Giants 1; J & R Auto Stores 13, Big Shamrocks 0. Gary Kraft hurled a no-hitter for J & R.

State Will Vote on Promises

Lindemer Says People Will Go for Party That Can Solve Money Ills

GAYLORD (AP)—Michigan's election battles will focus on taxes and jobless workers, says State Republican Chairman Lawrence B. Lindemer.

The victory will go to the party that can convince voters it will do the best job of improving the employment picture and solving state tax and money ills, he said.

"There has been a Democratic administration in Michigan for 12 long years," he told a group yesterday at a meeting of the Northern Michigan Republican Assn. "The heritage is a sorry one."

More than 200,000 Michigan citizens are unemployed and the federal government has classified nine population centers as depressed areas, he said.

The state's general fund treasury will be approximately 70 million dollars in the red when the fiscal year closes June 30, Lindemer said.

State and local governments, he added, both are looking for new tax revenue.

State Employe Retiring After 41 Years on Job

LANSING (AP)—Clarence S. McKenzie, 66, the highway department's oldest senior male employe will retire June 30 after more than 41 years of service. McKenzie, a squad leader in road design division, and his wife Lois plan to live on their farm near Perry.

U. of M. Chinese Student, Who Hid, Doing Well

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Cheng Guan Lim, who hid out for four years because of poor grades at the University of Michigan, can face his family and friends with pride now.

The university says most of his grades for the spring semester are Bs—above average.

Cheng hid out for four years in the attic of an Ann Arbor church because he was ashamed to face his family and friends after making poor grades in engineering.

He switched to liberal arts and the 29-year-old student from Singapore is doing much better. He now lives quietly near the campus.

During his four years of hiding, he talked with no one and lived on scraps from the church kitchen.

FRIENDS TO FIND

Friendship is delicate, yet elastic and strong as steel. It is like a magnet in a compass, swings always to one point, an affinity in the heart of a new acquaintance. We may find that affinity aboard a Ferry Boat, in the terminal of an Airport, on the banks of a stream, at a wreck, watching a sandlot baseball game, in a Service Club, wherever men meet without stratified lines of society. My wife found the most lovable friend of her life at a rummage sale. A friend of hers met a lady in a Salvation Army salesroom where both were seeking an out-of-print book. Our public schools, Colleges are excellent places for boys and girls to make lasting friends. During the last war Block Parties were organized; I met the most delightful person I ever hope to meet, and he lived two doors from me; we have been fast friends ever since.

Mutual respect for divergent opinions are affinities which come to the man with a silk hat for the man with a slouch one, with an open-necked cotton shirt and the man wearing one made of sheerest silk. Friendship is a human attribute and blind; all we know, the needle of our affection swings to the heart and a friend is born.

Car Production Up 1.8 Per Cent

Week's Falcon Output Sets Record; Trucks Made at Steady Rate

DETROIT (AP)—Ward's Automotive Reports said Friday domestic auto makers increased their production 1.8 per cent this week.

Production of 140,154 autos compared with 137,641 last week. In the same week last year 127,217 cars were assembled.

Ford scheduled a record 12,643 Falcon assemblies this week. The previous record was 11,893 April 11-16.

The agency said General Motors accounted for 42.6 per cent of this week's U.S. auto production, Ford 29.7 and Chrysler-17.6. American Motors and Studebaker-Packard added 8.3 and 1.8 per cent, respectively.

Ward's said the 1960 model output reached 5,238,237, compared to only 5,568,000 for the entire 1959 model run.

Nation's Polio Cases Jump in Past Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—A sharp increase in the number of polio cases was reported last week, the Public Health Service said today.

Thirty-seven cases, 30 of them paralytic, were reported for the week ended June 18. Nineteen cases, 16 of them paralytic, were reported during the week ended June 11.

The 30 paralytic cases, however, are considerably below the 61 for the comparable week in 1959 but above the same week in 1958.

Twelve of the thirteen cases reported in California were paralytic. Seven paralytic and one non-paralytic occurred in Los Angeles County.

Vendors and Thieves Big Gainers in Tokyo

TOKYO (AP) — Politics aside, who has gained most from the month-long series of left-wing demonstrations against the U.S.-Japan security treaty and the government of Premier Nobusuke Kishi?

So have scores of newsboys who circulated among the crowds around the Diet selling the Communist party organ Akahata.

But chiefly the capital's thieves, reckless drivers and juvenile delinquents have, because so many police were switched from crime detection and traffic control to mob control.

Newspapers have reported a sharp reduction since June in arrests of thieves and traffic violators. Juvenile cases handled also dropped 30 per cent, a paper said.

Nearly 1,500 policemen were injured by stones and clashes with the demonstrators, mainly students, and 180 police vehicles were damaged. Police say it owes $85,000 for damaged trucks rented to transport police forces.

Motor Weight Taxes Up $2 Million to Date

LANSING (AP)—Income from motor vehicle weight taxes stands at $61,102,000 — or $2,199,000 ahead of collections at this time last year — Sec. of State James M. Hare reported.

Hare also said the number of vehicles taxed to date is 3,325,947 — an increase of 98,902 from 1959.

Kingsburys Build Tri-Level Brick at Mohawk Lake

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Theirs was the eleventh house in Lake Angelus Golf View Estates. Now, a year and a half later, there are 25 homes. We've had our eye on the Robert Kingsbury home for most of that time, waiting for the family to get everything "just right."

Of course, houses, like people, don't remain static; they are always in a state of change so that the owners never feel the job is really done.

But for all practical purposes the Kingsbury house is done. In it live two adults, one three-year-old boy named Dale and a very old French poodle called Cindy.

The Kingsburys lived at Watkins Lake before Ray Rapaport built them this brick tri-level home on North Lake Drive. Their present lot is 145 feet deep with 95 feet on the street and 111 feet at the rear.

CORNICE LIGHTS

Living room walls are pale blue. The carpeting is beige and aqua textured wool. All cornice boards have lights behind them. Draperies are floor length — beige and aqua striped.

The sofa which faces the vestibule is cinnamon brown. A pair of Danish modern chairs is walnut with brilliant orange upholstery. All tables are walnut. The stack of leather TV cushions under the front picture window contains one beige, one aqua and one orange cushion.

Framed travel posters over the sofa provide interesting areas of color. Carrying out the beige, aqua and orange color scheme are the lamps and the modern clock on the one brick wall in this room.

These lamps — there are two of them — have white ceramic bases with graduated squares of rust, brown and aqua. The clock is walnut with two dancing figurines and the numerals in orange and blue. A pole lamp near the planter has brass lights and a round Formica topped shelf at chair level.

In the dining room and kitchen the floor is covered in beige and brown pebble linoleum. White draperies hang at the window wall. A trio of cone fixtures directs light down on the table. One is aqua one black, the third white. All have glass bottoms and brass trim.

In the kitchen there are clear birch cupboards. Walls are aqua. Counter tops and splash backs are beige.

Down on the lowest level is the family room. Walls are Philippine mahogany except for the red brick fireplace area. An Oriental rug covers most of the floor. The wall opposite the windows is taken up with an 8-foot gray sofa. Near these windows is an aqua and beige vibrator chair. Tables and bookcase are blonde wood.

A sewing center under the windows is a feature of the utility room. With chests to store equipment, her sewing machine and an ironing board, Mrs. Kingsbury is well equipped to do the sewing she so enjoys.

BUTTERFLY PAPER

Upstairs on the bedroom level the bathroom is beige. White sequin spattered plastic tops the vanity. Butterfly paper is used for panels in the window shutters. There are tropical fish on the glass door of the shower.

Dale's room has a cork floor. Three walls are beige with the fourth covered in Wells Fargo paper. Pictures of guns, saddles and "Man Wanted" posters on this paper feed the imagination of a cowboy-oriented youngster.

In the closet there is built-in storage. This frees the rest of the room for Dale's play equipment. His bedspread is brown. Curtains and the bubble lamp over the bed are white.

The guest room is all ready for visiting grandparents. A door has been cut through to the bathroom. Tan curtains with a design that's mostly orange and green hang at the windows. The carpeting is beige shag-type. Furniture is blonde.

The master bedroom has off-white walls. On the floor there is an aqua and beige tweed rug. Curtains are white.

Between the beds is a most interesting night table. The top is a series of squares of inlaid wood, each large square just a bit smaller than the one outside it. A Chinese lamp stands on this antique table.

The headboards of the twin beds are also unusual. A walnut filigree is mounted on a white background supported by brass poles. Skirts and quilted spreads are apricot color.

Pontiac Press Photos by Vanderwarp

PLEASING COLORS — If this were a color picture, you would see the bright orange of the upholstery on the walnut Danish modern chairs. You would note with pleasure how aqua is combined with beige in the textured carpeting and in the floor-length draperies. You would approve of the brightly colored travel posters over the cinnamon brown sofa. The same colors are used throughout the house. Young Dale and old Cindy provide the living element in the scene.

THE ETERNAL MENDING—Mrs. Kingsbury is a seamstress, but the mending seemed uppermost in her mind when she was asked to pose. Behind her is the divider storage wall of birch that keeps card tables and chairs handy, but out of sight. Plants climb the birch poles. Direct light comes from the window at the left and from the brass pole lights.

ON NORTH LAKE DRIVE—The Robert Kingsburys were fortunate to have been able to save such a magnificent shade tree in their front yard. Their tri-level home, built by Ray Rapaport, combines brick and siding. The attached double garage effectively sets the house apart from the one next door.

Let Rug Colors Set Pace

The colors of an Oriental rug can serve as an original color scheme for a room. Deep blues and rich maroons combined with ivories, yellows and tans can give you ideas for the color you want to paint the walls as well as for the accessories. The pastel Oriental with its pale greens, pinks and blues can be a pattern for a room where a more delicate quality is desired.

Consider Sound Proofing Home for Quiet Living

EAST LANSING — With the help of science, the modern home can be conditioned for sound as well as for temperature, humidity and light. Robert Bullard, instructor of related arts at Michigan State University, says the science of sound, known as acoustics, can be applied to make a home more pleasant and comfortable.

Sound is much like light. It travels in straight lines until it hits something that reflects or absorbs it. Hard, smooth surfaces reflect sound, and rough and porous surfaces absorb it. Unlike light, sound can go through opaque materials.

Various sounds are a part of everyday living and these are accepted as necessary. It's the unwanted sounds that are labeled as "noise." Bullard suggests that music is noise when you want to talk, and talk is noise when you want to hear music.

He states that today's homes are noisier than yesterday's houses. Floor plans are open, walls are thin and more sound-bouncing glass and dry-wall construction are used. There are fewer and smaller rooms with fewer floor-to-ceiling partitions.

Also, modern furnishings are not so bulky and sound absorbing as old styles. In addition, there are modern "noise-makers" such as mixers and grinders, clothes and dish washers, vacuum cleaners and furnace fans, air conditioners and radio and television sets.

Before you become discouraged it must be added that today's homes also have some advantages. They are usually built on one level which eliminates noise that travels up and down stairwells, and there are no second-story floors to send the shock of footsteps to rooms below.

Sound-conditioning for a home starts on the drawing board, where proper planning can control much unwanted sound. Floor plans can group noisy spots together and isolate them from quiet areas.

Sound barriers can be included to keep noise out of quiet areas. Construction plans can help reduce noises at their sources and provide materials to absorb noises within some rooms.

There is more study on the control of noise as new and improved products designed for this use come to market. Bullard emphasizes that sound-conditioning is well worth considering in a home.

The quiet house is easier to sell because sound-conditioning makes a small house feel big, and any house feel more solid. Also, most acoustical materials have a high thermal property, which cuts heating bills.

Let Moisture Out

To help prevent outside paint from blistering in the spring, take steps now to rid your house of moisture vapor. After showering, open the bathroom window to let the moisture escape. Install an exhaust fan in the kitchen; vent clothes dryers. If you mop the floors, open the window while the floor is drying.

French Provincial Adds Beauty to Comfort

By DAVID L. BOWEN

Like a good French wine, this house has body, grace and beauty. It is a sparkling example of the French Provincial style, combining time-honored elegance with the requirements of modern American life.

The French Provincial spirit is projected immediately by the wide, inviting front terrace stretching before the living room windows and contained between the two wings of the house.

This spirit is caught up and promoted by the high pitched roof, the casement windows, the detail in the shutters, the picturesque centered dormer.

And one of the most welcome elements of the completion plan worked out by Architect Samuel Paul for B-18 in the House of the Week series is that this restful haven can be built in three stages.

The basic house contains seven rooms, three of them bedrooms, in 1,840 sq. ft. of space. There are two areas for expansion that can be developed after the basic house is in use: an expansion attic yields two additional bedrooms and a first floor recreation room can be finished behind the garage.

The exterior specified by Architect Paul is brick all around. It can be kept in its natural color or painted white. Both are characteristic of the French Provincial. Exterior dimensions are 70' in width by 42' in depth.

After crossing the impressive front terrace, a visitor is welcomed into this home in a large foyer — dominated by a decorative winding stairway to the upstairs. To the left is the gracious living room, with a simple but imposing fireplace.

To the right of the foyer are three good-sized bedrooms, each with double exposure. The master bedroom has two closets, one of them a large walk-in.

It also boasts a private bath with stall shower and a vanity. The bedroom wing can be completely closed off by closing a door at the foyer, thereby guaranteeing privacy in the sleeping area.

The open kitchen and dinette combination — a few steps down the center hall from the foyer — can be equipped with all the up-to-date appliances: dishwasher, counter-top range, built-in oven, large 13 cubic foot refrigerator and freezer. There is an abundance of floor cabinets as well as wall cabinets.

The optional recreation room behind the garage is secluded and yet easily accessible from the kitchen or dining room. It can be built first as an open porch and then later enclosed.

The optional second floor can easily contain two bedrooms and a bath, plus a wealth of storage.

B-18 Statistics

Overall dimensions are 70' width by 42' depth.

IN THE GRAND TRADITION — There are seven rooms, including three bedrooms, in the basic first floor plan of this charming French Provincial design. Two bedrooms and a bath can be added after original construction upstairs. This artist's view shows the optional first floor recreation room, located directly behind garage, in its finished state.

Most New U. S. Homes Fit Into Three Price Ranges

The vast majority of homes built this year will fall into three price ranges, report housing authorities. These ranges are: Under $12,000, $12,500 - $16,000, $16,500 - $20,000.

Only 18 per cent of U. S. homes sell for above $20,000 and these generally feature extras including two-car garages, family recreation rooms, premium building materials such as fire-safe asphalt shingles, and fully-equipped kitchens.

More than 500 newspapers print all or part of the daily stock transactions of the New York Stock Exchange.

NEW FAMILY ROOM. — Now that the Lester Arnharts of 853 Glendale have seven grandchildren, they need more room for entertaining. So they had Stacy Building Company add this 16x24-foot family room to their house. Walls are light turquoise. Floor tile is white and gold. Except for the pumpkin Naugahyde chair in which Mrs. Arnhart is sitting, all the furniture is gold and white. Absorbed in the book their grandmother is showing them are three-year-old cousins, Scott and Cynthia Hankins. This remodeling included also a stone-front garage.

Back Into Can

One way of keeping a paint can neat and easy to close properly after the job is done is to punch several holes in the groove into which the lid fits. This permits excess paint to drip back into the can.

You Need More Than Just Lamps

CHICAGO (UPI)—Mrs. Christina Affeld Bloom, a home furnishings coordinator, is waging a one-woman crusade against the two or three lamps that do the whole lighting job in many living rooms.

"They're fine for small areas, reading or close work," she contends. "But the most skillfully decorated room shrinks in size, becomes indistinct and uninteresting without more adequate lighting."

Mrs. Bloom (of Carson, Pirie, Scott and Co.) proposes that more adequate lighting begin with diffused overall lighting, produced by wall fixtures, sunken spotlights in the ceiling, cornice or valance lighting.

"Keep it subdued and directed toward the ceiling, floor or walls," she said.

To light the ceiling in a room with a dark carpet, Mrs. Bloom suggests wall fixtures that shoot light upward or torchieres. To light a pale carpet on the floor, she suggests downward - directed wall fixtures or sunken spotlights in the ceiling.

Wall lighting is frequently done with cornice or valance lights, but Mrs. Bloom is more partial to fixtures known as "wall washers." They're attached to the walls, close to the ceiling, to bathe walls in even light, and tend to make a room look bigger.

Choose lamps for reading and other close work more for height than looks, Mrs. Bloom advises. "Direct light shines in the reader's eyes unless the shade of a lamp is slightly below eye level." A lamp considerably back of the reader can be higher.

Mrs. Bloom's pet peeve is the use of crystal chandeliers as lamps. She considers the crystal chandelier a magnificent piece of jewelry for the home, which is too bright to look at when it's also a lamp. Crystal should be illuminated only by a separate spotlight or by tiny spotlights concealed within the chandelier, she said.

She also chides homemakers for foregoing the good illumination of fluorescent tubes on the grounds that they do tricks with colors and complexions. That's not the case with a new "home line" of flourescent tubes, made by all manufacturers. They produce light of the same color as incandescent bulbs.

To silhouette the shape of handsome or unusual furniture or accessories, Mrs. Bloom advises lighting the wall behind them. But to give a sculptural, three-dimensional effect to the same pieces, flood them with a strong, directional light. The shadow cast on the wall by such a directional light can be decorative in itself.

When Southern Pine siding is treated with a Pentachlorophenol solution, a finish is obtained which will provide many years of service without attention. It weathers to a rustic driftwood effect which is especially desirable in some types of architecture.

21-INCH LAWN FIGURES

COLORFUL CUT-OUTS busy at garden chores lend interest to a flower border. The pair shown here are so life-like that they have taken prizes at hobby shows. Patterns 326 for the Girl and 327 for the Boy give actual-size cutting and painting guides. They are 35 cents each. They also are in the Lawn and Garden figure Packet No. 39 — a big value for $1.

Grooved Panels Worth Extra

The installation of hardboard panels for walls is a comparatively simple job when the tongue-and-grooved type is used. These special panels, eight feet in length and 16 inches in width, are secured with metal clips and thus can be handled by one person.

Naturally, these panels cost more than the ordinary nongrooved hardboard, but are becoming increasingly popular with those who consider ease of installation worth the extra price.

In one kind of woodgrained hardboard, a coat of lacquer, varnish or wax is required after the walls have been put up. In another, a permanent plastic surface does not need any finishing.

The panels can be installed over an old wall that is reasonably straight. But if the wall is uneven, horizontal furring strips — one by two inches — should be applied. The panels then are attached to the furring strips by means of the metal clips.

When the paneling is to be applied over open studding, no furring strips are necessary if the studs are straight and 16 inches apart on center; that is, 16 inches from the center of one stud to the center of the next.

The hardboard is installed by starting from a corner and working around the room. The first panel is applied with a grooved edge toward the area to be covered, so that it is ready to engage the tongue edge of the next panel.

Where an extra strong installation is desired, adhesive can also be used. The dealer who sells the hardboard paneling usually carries the proper adhesive for this type of job.

Architects Win Citation for Church

The firm Begrow and Brown, Architects, Birmingham, Michigan were awarded a citation for the design of the Antioch Evangelical Lutheran Church, presently under construction in Farmington Township, by the Church Architectural Guild during their national meeting in Minneapolis. The citation reads as follows:

The plan is of particular interest because it suggests in the relationship of the sanctuary and the other parts of the building, (school, fellowship administration, etc.) that the program of the church is one whole. These elements are not simply an appendage to the worship space. In elevation and detail also, this building is one which raises the architecture from the prosaic to the poetic.

The firm of Begrow and Brown has won six national awards since its formation in 1957.

Wait to Fill Cracks

If you have purchased a new house and there are cracks in the plaster, don't repair them until the house has finished settling. Mark the ends of the cracks with a pencil. When they have stopped lengthening, wide them slightly and fill with spackling compound. Allow them to dry thoroughly, sand and paint.

Leftover Bamboo

A narrow, framed length of leftover bamboo curtain can conceal an unwanted view of the kitchen from the living room — a common problem in apartments. Bits of yarn and ribbons woven into bamboo add color and texture.

When figuring out how much paint you'll need for a job, don't deduct the window area unless an opening is more than 100 square feet in size. You can figure that the average gallon of wall paint will cover about 500 square feet.

PONY ROCKER — You couldn't find a better present for that little tyke in the family than the shoo-fly pony rocker pictured here with N B C's smallest actor young Billy Booth. It's easy to build with the full size pattern. You trace the pattern on plywood, then saw out the parts then put them together. The art work is no problem. You simply trace the horse's features on the wood, then paint over the tracings. The pattern gives you the colors to use, easy to follow directions and a list of needed materials. There are lots of illustrations to make the project an easy one. To obtain the full size pony rocker pattern No. 131 send $1.00 by currency, check or money order to Steve Ellingson, The Pontiac Press Pattern Dept., Van Nuys, Calif. Add 20 cents if you want it sent by airmail.

Dad Can Make New Games in Home Shop

Outdoor, at-home fun for grade school youngsters can be afforded at low cost by game facilities that can be made in short order by Dad in his workshop using a splinter-free durable panel material widely used in the building industry.

One is a dart game which can be set up against the garage or back of the house. On a panel of Masonite ¼" Tempered Presdwood about four feet square, mark scoring areas with chalk or paint from the youngsters' art set.

Safe suction-cup darts will adhere nicely to the smooth surface of the panel.

A similar board for playing beanbag can be made also from a piece of the tempered hardboard. Making one simply entails cutting holes at the proper locations and marking the scoring points.

A simple basketball stop for youngsters of any age can be made by facing rough lumber with ¼" tempered Masonite for a backstop and mounting under it a bottomless bushel basket.

Tinted light bulbs now are being made in the new cylindrical shape. The maker says it is the first change in the styling and design of household light bulbs in more than a quarter of a century.

Sump Pumps Dry Up Cellars

Seepage of water into basements has become increasingly prevalent in recent years as new home construction has expanded into subdivisions which only recently were open field or wooded areas.

Since new ground is usually heavily laden with moisture, many householders find themselves confronted with the problem of how to get rid of water which seeps in around the walls and basement floor.

A sump pump is the answer to this problem as well as the equally serious difficulty created by water backing up in sewers during heavy rains. Aslo known as a cellar drainer, the sump pump operates automatically when the water in the sump in which it is installed reaches a pre-determined level.

The water from the sump pump or cellar drainer may be discharged into a sewer or it may be dissipated in the back yard, the alley, the garden, or other convenient place.

Many plumbing contractors recommend the discharge of the water into a piece of buried tile in the back yard. The tile is filled with loose stones so that the water seeps away into the garden or yard.

Sump pumps are made in different sizes to meet varying load requirements. Householders who have basement water problems are advised to consult with an experienced plumbing contractor who will be glad to recommend the type of pump that will best serve the purpose.

Survey Shows Hardwood Best for Flooring

Floors of hardwood won top rating among 12 types of industrial floors in a recent evaluation presented by R. Baden Hellard, a leading British architect.

Writing in the Building and Contracting Supplement of the Financial Times, an English publication, Hellard quoted a table based on studies by a building research organization.

This gave ratings from "very good" to "poor" for such important characteristics of a floor as warmth, quietness, ease of cleaning, and resistance to abrasion, impact and indentation.

Five of the flooring materials drew a "poor" classification in one or more categories. Of the other seven, four came in the "fair to poor" rating in one category.

No material equalled hardwood for peak performance in as many categories — either "very good" or "good to fair" in most classifications and "good" and "good to fair" for the others.

Good painters are also boxers. No, this has nothing to do with the pugilism. Boxing is the term used to describe pouring paint after it is stirred from one bucket to another to assure uniform consistency and smoothness.

Calls for Patience

One reason that nearly all our olive oil comes from Spain or other Mediterranean countries is that cultivation of the trees requires old world patience. The tree does not reach full maturity until it is 20 years old, then it continues to produce many years. In Spain, top quality oil is produced from the fruit of some olive trees hundreds of years old.

Don't forget how wonderful spring vegetables are for "dippers" — carrot and celery sticks, green pepper strips, asparagus spears, cucumber sticks — they're perfect for dipping into a bowl of tangy sour cream and blue cheese blend.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

CHOICE CAPE — This Cape Cod design combines flexibility with charm — planned to meet the requirements of the small family, large family or two families. By varying the entrance, the second floor can be made into an apartment. The design as shown has two bedrooms, kitchen, family, dining and living rooms and bath on first floor, and two bedrooms and bath on second floor. Floor space is 2,190 square feet. Architect is Samuel Paul, 89-51 164 St., Jamaica, N. Y., and the plan is HA 141P.

Roller Embraces Fence

The easiest way to paint a wire fence is with a long-napped roller that "embraces" the wire and makes it possible to coat all surfaces in one pass. Previouly unpainted fences should be given a coat of metal primer. After this coat has dried, finish with exterior enamel or exterior aluminum paint.

If you use a dehumidifier in your home check your framed pictures every so often to prevent their drying up and cracking. The Picture and Frame Institute says that lack of normal amounts of moisture in the air can occasionally cause pictures to crack.

Dawn's Early Light

Light from an eastern exposure is hard and can give a harsh look to bright colors. The best paint colors for a room with eastern exposures are light gray, French gray, cream, ivory, buff and fawn. Soft yellows and pinks are also very attractive and are particularly good in a small room.

The Young Men's Christian associations in the United States total about 1,688 with 1.8 million members.

Window Units May Do Job

One or two window units often can effectively air condition a small house if it is completely insulated, has lots of shade, and is tightly built.

To make such a system satisfactory, the house must first be well insulated with batts and blankets of mineral wool in all accessible outside walls, attic floors, floors over vented crawl spaces, and around the perimeter of the foundation.

An insulation contractor with pneumatic equipment can blow mineral wool into inaccessible areas. Cracks around doors, windows and foundation should be securely caulked to keep heat out.

Air-flow paths must be provided through all rooms by installing wall vents or fans in solid interior partitons. At the side of the house opposite to the air-conditioning unit, a window exhaust fan will help remove warm air and keep the cool air flowing through the house.

Engineering studies have shown that such an inexpensive air-circulating system using a 1-ton window air conditioner will work in a house of about 1,000 square feet if it is completely insulated, tightly-built, has wide roof overhangs, adequate shading, and is well oriented to keep direct rays of the sun out of the house.

Low Price Three Passe

New Car Free-for-All Due in Fall

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT—"I don't know who's going to get hurt, but it certainly isn't going to be the customer."

This appraisal by one auto executive of the 1960 market now looks as if it will be ever truer of 1961.

Within three months most of the new model cars will be in the showrooms and the choice will be the widest in more than 30 years — more nameplates, more sizes and more models. And more of the cars will be bunched near the low end of the price scale.

Advertised delivered prices (the ones on the price stickers) may hold at or near 1960 figures for competitive reasons. Nobody yet is talking for publication about definite prices, particularly with the prospect of a rise in the cost of steel.

But there are growing indications the industry will make its most concentrated sales pitch to the so-called low-price field.

Chrysler Corp. and Ford started this move with some of their 1960 models. Now one General Motors Division is reported ready to join the bandwagon.

At Ford both Mercury and the short-lived Edsel moved down the price scale with their 1960 models and Mercury supposedly will offer at least one series for 1961 directly competitive in price with the standard Ford.

Mercury is also said to be ready to use a six-cylinder engine for the first time. Ford and Mercury will share the same body shell.

At Chrysler, Dodge invaded the Ford - Chevrolet - Plymouth price field with its Dart and experienced spectacular success this year. Dodge sales are more than double year-ago figures. For 1961 Dodge is dropping one of its two big-car series and even that one may disappear by 1962 unless sales revive.

DE SOTO DOWN

Another down-the-scale pricing move at Chrysler went largely unnoticed because it involved the low-volume DeSoto. DeSoto discarded its two top lines along with its station wagon and convertible and nestled into the price spot formerly held by the top Dodge lines. Sales, however, have been even less than a year ago.

DeSoto will appear in 1961 as a single series. Chrysler is said to be hoping this nameplate eventually can be converted into a rival for Ford's highly successful Thunderbird. At any rate it will not be kept as a full line.

Reports continue that Pontiac, which has led the shrinking medium price field with amazing success for the past two years, also will offer at least one shorter-wheelbase series for 1961 which will sell competitively with Chevrolet. The sales technique already is used by Pontiac in Canada.

This could mean that instead of the old Chevrolet - Plymouth - Ford price grouping, the coming year will bring a Chevrolet-Plymouth-Ford-Mercury-Dart price battle.

BATTLE ROYAL

And then come the compacts.

There are 45 models of Rambler, Lark, Comet, Corvair, Falcon and Valiant priced under $2,500 this year. These include 17 four-door sedans, nine two-door sedans, three hardtops, one convertible and 15 station wagons.

All six of these nameplates offer at least one four-door sedan under $2,100. Twenty-three compact models, all but one of them Lark or Rambler V8s, are priced above $2,500.

A whole fistful of new little ones will show up in 1961 from former medium price names.

The Dodge Lancer will come in two series and probably will be priced starting just above $2,100. The Lancer basically will be a dressed up Valiant, just as the Comet is a fancy version of the Falcon.

The four-cylinder models of Pontiac's compact Tempest could start about the same figure as the Lancer. And both the new Buick Special and the Olds F85 will try to come in just under the $2,500 mark. These two have V8 engines and are said to strongly resemble their parent big cars.

Additionally, Chevrolet will be adding a station wagon to its Corvair series and a Rambler convertible is in the offing. Falcon, too, could have a convertible by next spring.

All of these prices include federal and excise taxes and dealer preparation charges. Factory list prices, which don't include these sizable items, probably will be noticeably below $2,500.

This year 37 models of Dart, Plymouth, Ford and Chevrolet were priced under $2,500. If Pontiac and Mercury squeeze in, competition for the customer's dollar will be terrific.

Sees Possible 1961 Downturn

Investor Counsel Says a Leveling-Off Is Best That Can Be Expected

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Value Line investment survey says a leveling-off in business activity in 1961 is the best that can be looked for, but that there could be a downturn should there be any slackening in consumer spending.

Consumer spending so far has remained strong in the face of erratic output scheduling and will provide the ground for improved business this fall, it said.

The investment advisory service said, however, that its "business forecaster" is still trending downward, and that the fall upturn may be no more than seasonal.

Goodbody & Co. continues to look for a somewhat improved market during the summer months. The final quarter, following the corrections still under way, will be a test period of the economy with much depending on the international situation and the presidential election, Goodbody believes.

Detroit Living Cost Rises One Per Cent

DETROIT (AP)—Living costs in Detroit moved up one-tenth of 1 per cent from April to May, the Labor Department reported Friday.

This increased the May index for Detroit to 124.3, seven-tenths of 1 per cent above the level a year ago.

The government said increases for medical care, transportation, apparel, reading and recreation were not entirely offset by decreases for personal care, housing and food.

An increase of seven-tenths of 1 per cent for transportation was attributed to increased prices of gasoline and used cars.

Cassidy also pointed out that new operations do not necessarily guarantee an increase in the plant's employment "inasmuch as other factors bear on this — including, importantly, future market acceptance of the products involved."

Ingemar May Need Birgit's Comforting

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Jan Murray's daughter, Diane, 6, was rehearsing a song "Catch a Falling Star," for the school show the other day, and Jan was listening attentively and appreciatively as a parent should.

WILSON

"Darling, when you come to the word 'star,'" Jan advised her, "you should make a little gesture, like this . . ."

"No, I won't!" announced his daughter. "My teacher says that's not the way to sing a song."

"Darling," he said, gently. "Daddy's been in show business 25 years. Who do you think knows more about singing a song—your teacher or me?"

"My teacher," exclaimed Diane, "knows more about anything than you do!"

MURRAY

His wife, Toni, is such a fastidious housekeeper that she empties the ash trays before you've put your cigaret ashes in them. "And she loves to make beds. I got up at 4 a.m. to go to the bathroom, and I got back, and the bed was made."

Toni is very affectionate, Jan reports, particularly when she's got her hair in curlers.

"She's wearing 20 pounds of stainless steel in her hair. She bends over and kisses you and rips your whole face to shreds," he says.

Jan claims to be watching international developments closely. "Take those seven Astronauts," he pointed out. "Only one is going—we need the other six to drag the one guy into the missile."

One Man, Two Teen-Agers

Three Sent to Prison

An Oakland County man and two teen-agers yesterday were sentenced to prison by Circuit Judge Stanton G. Dondero.

For attempting to break into the Three Sisters Market, 608 W. Huron St., June 4, Harold A. Kennedy, 31, of 240 Lynn St., was sentenced to 1 to 5 years in Jackson Prison.

Bruce Bishop, 19, of 312 N. Saginaw St., was sentenced to 1½ to 5 years after pleading guilty June 13 to breaking into the Pontiac Typesetting Co., 94 S. Cass Ave.

A sentence of 1 to 5 years was handed Robert O. Felt, 17, of 1502 Oakley Dr., Clawson, for stealing two tires and wheels from a car lot in Birmingham June 8. He pleaded guilty June 13 to larceny from a motor vehicle.

Arrest Trio Again on Bet Slip Charge

Three men already accused of violating state gambling laws were arrested again yesterday — charged with possession of bet slips.

They are Jessie T. Jones, 49, of 50 Deland Ct.; Ernest Johnson, 47, of 459 Linda Vista Dr.; and Lee R. Myers, 46, of 92 Crawford St.

Vice squad officers arrested the trio a week ago on charges that they violated state gambling laws. The complaint was signed by a numbers player who charged that he wasn't paid enough on a winning bet slip.

The three stood mute to the earlier charge.

Trial on both counts has been set for June 29.

Pleads Not Guilty to Dance Violation

One of the owners of the Cave of the Ninth Cat was arrested early today for permitting dancing at the beatnik coffee house to continue past a 1 a.m. city curfew.

Jack D. Christenson, 25, of 12763 Klingensmith Rd., Bloomfield Township, pleaded not guilty to violating the city ordinance which sets the curfew on dancing in public establishments.

Municipal Judge Marice F. Finnegan set trial for July 7.

Leftists Scream Slurs at U. S.

But Tokyo Mob Only 3,000, Not 60,000 as Was Expected Today

TOKYO (UPI) — About 3,000 snake-dancing leftists shouting "We hate America!" and "We will smash the American warmongers" demonstrated briefly today outside the U.S. Embassy and the Parliament Building.

There was no violence.

The turnout was a fraction of the 60,000 persons the Communist and Socialist parties and the fanatic Zengakuren student organization had said would take part in the demonstrations.

The demonstrators headed for the U.S. Embassy shortly before 5 p.m. A thousand policemen backed up by 30 armored trucks blocked the approaches, and the demonstrators were unable to get within 1,000 feet of the building.

After chanting such slogans as "American imperialists, go home" and "You killed Michiko Kamba" (a 22-year-old coed trampled to death recently by rioters) outside the embassy for about a quarter of an hour, the crowd headed for the Parliament Building a half-mile away.

Canada Egg Wets Mayor of Moscow

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (AP)—The mayor of Moscow was splattered Friday with a raw egg, thrown by a man believed to be a Lithuanian refugee, as he posed for pictures during a good will tour of Canada.

Nikolai Bobrovnikov, who was posing with TV's Wyatt Earp, Hugh O'Brian, and two Canadian mayors, was hit squarely on the neck, according to a news photographer who was taking the picture.

The egg-thrower, identified by police as Ged Janusomis, 20, was caught after a 10-minute chase through Victoria Park. He was arrested on undisclosed charges and later released on $200 bail.

O'Brian continued to pose for pictures while police chased Janusomis, the photographer said.

MANY REFUGEES

Mayor Franklin Miller of Niagara Falls, Ont., and George Nelms of Ottawa were posing with Bobrovnikov and O'Brian.

Canada has many anti-Communist refugees from Lithuania, a Baltic country taken over by the Soviet Union early in World War II.

Bobrovnikov made no comment on the incident. Mayor Miller declined to discuss the incident further, saying it might "jeopardize international relations.

Man Held in Texas Red Light Bandit?

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The FBI here announced today the arrest in El Paso, Tex., of a man identified as the one executed convict-author Caryl Chessman claimed was the real Los Angeles redlight bandit.

Local FBI Chief William G. Simon said Severio Terranova, 38, also known as Charles or Joe Terranova, was arrested on a warrant charging him with fleeing California to avoid prosecution for burglary.

Simon said Terranova had been sought for more than a year. Terranova was charged with two counts of burglary in nearby Azusa in May of last year.

Chessman and his attorneys claimed that Terranova might be the red light bandit who terrorized lovers' lanes in Los Angeles. But the state and police refused to accept the claim.

GM Sues State for Tax Refund

Firm Claims It Paid Nearly $2 Million Extra by Mistake

DETROIT (UPI)—General Motors Corp. filed suit against the Michigan Department of Revenue yesterday for return of $1,837,438 in intangibles taxes.

The company said the taxes were "erroneously" paid in 1953, 1954 and 1955 on stock it owned in five foreign corporations. It said it requested return of the money in July 1957 but the request was denied.

The giant auto firm said the foreign corporations existed under laws of the countries in which they operated and the stock, therefore, was not subject to the Michigan tax.

The foreign corporations included Vauxhall Motors, Ltd., and General Motors, Ltd., in England; Adam Opel, A.G., in Germany; General Motors-Holden's, Ltd., in Australia, and General Motors in France.

Detroit Candidate Asks to Be Defeated at Polls

DETROIT (UPI) — Dr. Mel Ravitz, a leading candidate for the Detroit Common Council, has asked voters to defeat him.

Ravitz, who has been endorsed by the AFL-CIO, said yesterday he wished he could withdraw—but the withdrawal deadline has passed. Ravitz said personal reasons led to his unusual request.

Judge Moore Presents Juvenile Courts Plan

Oakland County Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore has proposed a three-point program for juvenile courts to the National Council of Juvenile Court Judges, meeting in Detroit.

Judge Moore told the conference the program would cost $2.6 million a year.

He said it would set up a group with a budget of $100,000 a year to aid the juvenile court movement through publications, services and experienced staff members; establish a dozen model juvenile courts around the country to upgrade standards of the court system, and work toward preventing juvenile delinquency by instituting a protective services organization in 40 communities across the nation.

Moore said the program could be financed by charitable and scientific foundations.

The nearly 200 juvenile court judges voted yesterday to support proposed legislation that would set up conservation work camps manned by young people.

Calls for Individualism

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — The Rev. Reuben R. Figuhr, president of the Seventh Day Adventist general conference, urged young people yesterday to swing away from conformity and become individualists.

Deal With Red China, Humphrey Tells Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) has suggested to President Eisenhower that he seek to bring Red China into disarmament negotiations at Geneva.

"It would be foolhardy for the United States to enter into any substantial disarmament agreement without the inclusion of Communist China," Humphrey said. He spoke in the Senate Friday and also made public a letter to Eisenhower in which he outlined a new first-stage disarmament plan.

In addition to bringing Red China into the talks, Humphrey advocated prohibition of production of long-range bombers, under effective inspection and control. This, he said, would "halt production of one of the major means by which nuclear bombs can be delivered."

Negroes Will Parade at Party Conventions

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI) — Negroes will stage mass demonstrations at both political party conventions next month, a Negro labor leader said Friday.

A. Philip Randolph, president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters and an AFL-CIO vice president, said the demonstrations would try "to bring civil rights back before the conventions as a major campaign issue."

Both the Republicans and the Democrats "have tried to sweep the civil rights issue under the rug," Randolph told newsmen at the convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Victim of Plastic Bag

WEEHAWKEN, N. J. (AP)—A home economics teacher who had lectured her students about the dangers of plastic bags has been found dead, a plastic bag fastened around her head. Police said the death Friday of Miriam S. Freud, 62, a widow, was an apparent suicide.

BORN THREE MONTHS EARLY — Mr. and Mrs. Murray Felson watch as Dr. Ben Bogen, right, weighs their daughter, Andrea at Maimonides Hospital in Brooklyn, N.Y., Friday. The infant was born three months prematurely on March 24 and weighed one pound, 11 ounces. Friday, the day she was to have been born, she weighed five and one-half pounds.

Venezuela Reds Weak, 2 U. S. Newsmen Believe

NEW YORK (UPI)—Two American newspaper editors who returned from a two-week visit to Venezuela said last night the Communists do not appear to be strong in the Venezuelan press and government.

Herbert Brucker, editor of the Hartford Courant, and John McMullen, assistant managing editor of the Miami Herald, said Communist influence appears to be weaker than it had been earlier in the government of President Romulo Betancourt.

Auction Rocket in Yard Only Attracts Chickens

People used to sit inside the make believe rocket and take make believe space trips. Now the only passengers are Cohen's chickens who wander in and out.

Dr. Moore Positively Denies Ride

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio (UPI)—Dr. Barbara Moore emphatically denied today that she has been accepting rides on her cross-country walk from San Francisco to New York.

"How could it happen?" she questioned. "I've been followed by hundreds of people, the police . . . I just can't understand how those rumors get started."

The 56-year-old vegetarian made the statement just before she left this eastern Ohio community of 4,000 persons and headed for the West Virginia border only 10 miles away.

Persons in Cambridge, Ohio, 48 miles to the west, said yesterday they saw Dr. Moore get into a "tan car" which drove off and did not return to the spot where it picked her up.

"How could they see," she asked. "It was pitch dark and it was raining hard."

The sunburned hiker said that the American Legion had been watching her two-month, 11-day walk across the United States . . . "and they've been sticking up for the two sergeants that preceded me too . . ."

The blonde British woman said the Legion didn't want to see her beat the two British sergeants across the United States. The two, Mervyn Evans, 33, and Patrick Maloney, 34, completed their walk last week and returned to London, England, two days ago to a hero's welcome.

Dr. Moore previously charged they had accepted rides and threatened to subpoena them if they tried to claim a transcontinental record.

Rhode Island, smallest of the states, also has the longest name which is "State of Rhode Island and the Providence Plantations."

HE RE-GREW HAIR

Hair Specialist Here Monday; Will Show How to Save Hair and Prevent Baldness

New home treatment methods for saving hair and improving its growth will be demonstrated in PONTIAC, MICHIGAN, on MONDAY, JUNE 27, 1960 only.

Mr. F. I. BRODIE, representing the Lesley Hair and Scalp Specialists, will personally examine hair-worried men and women from 1:00 to 8:00 P.M. MONDAY at the Hotel WALDRON.

The Lesley Specialists point out that remarkable results have been attained by means of a personal examination followed by simple individual treatments that anyone can easily carry out in the privacy of his or her own home. Regular checkups in your city by a Lesley Specialist assure success in the minimum period of time.

EXAMINE YOU FREE

We want to make it clear that you incur absolutely no charge or obligation by coming in for an examination.

Your only obligation to yourself to ease your mind of hair worries by learning how to save and thicken your hair at home. We will tell you frankly and sincerely whether or not you can be helped, how long it will take and how much it will cost. We do not accept cases that will not respond. The cost of our treatments are appreciably lower than most treatment of this type.

WHO CAN BE HELPED?

The Lesley Organization urges that you do not resign yourself to a future without hair.

When you first notice your hair thinning, brought on usually by dandruff, itching, dryness, oiliness or follicles clogged with sebum or seborrhea, take positive action at once. See a Hair and Scalp Specialist.

Of course, we must have a client who still has some hair. If a person is completely bald, he waited too long and is refused treatment. However, if your scalp is still producing short hair it is possible to at least save and thicken what you have.

Some conditions, such as "spot baldness" usually have complete coverage if caught in time!

SATISFACTION FOR 96.3%

Last year, the Lesley Organization was able to satisfy 96.3% of its clients. That is a noteworthy record, and we are justifiably proud of it.

After

WRITTEN GUARANTEE

Stop by the Hotel WALDRON, MONDAY, only, JUNE 27, between 1:00 P.M. and 8:00 P.M. Ask at the desk for MR. BRODIE'S room number. He does not work by appointment. Come at your convenience. Examinations are given privately. You will not be obligated or embarrassed in any way.

Not Enough Storage Space for Soviet Grain

MOSCOW (AP) — Pravda said today 22 per cent of grain storage space slated for this year's expected bumper crop had been built and that only a small part of the harvest would be properly stored.

A lead editorial in the communist party paper upbraided certain agricultural and factory officials for not seeing to it that enough prefabricated concrete grain elevators had been made to meet the needs outlined by Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev at a party congress in 1959. Singled out for special censure were Kazakhstan, long a trouble spot in soviet agriculture, the Ukraine, White Russia and Armenia.

Get Out of South Korea, China Reds Tell Allies

It Was a Quiet Sunday Morning, June 25, 1950

Ten years ago, the border between North Korea and South Korea disappeared as the Communist forces moved south across the 38th Parallel, touching off 37 months which involved much of the world in bloodshed and fruitless negotiation. Americans died there, alongside UN Allies from Turkey, India, Canada and many other nations, as the battles ranged from one end of the peninsula to the other. Scenes like the one above, assistance for an injured soldier during one of the battles for the now-famous Pork Chop Hill, were typical. Victory was at hand before Red China poured divisions of "volunteers" into the fray. Today, after 10 years, the line of demarcation is traced by the muzzles of weapons and wary patrols eying each other from hilltops.

City Nears State Suit on Sewage

The state water Resources Commission will decide Thursday whether to go to court to force Pontiac to expand its sewage treatment plant facilities.

On Friday, July 1, the city will be in default of the state's order to have expanded facilities under contract.

Default will come because the city has never provided the financing for the $3,300,000 in improvements which the State Health Department has accepted as the minimum necessary to abate pollution to the Clinton River.

The Water Resources Commission will have before it only one recommendation from its engineering staff — that the Attorney General's Office be asked to file suit against Pontiac in Oakland County Circuit Court.

"In view of the facts, that's the only recommendation we can make," said Loring F. Oeming, chief engineer for the Commission.

Conceivably, the commission could give the city a little more time before going to court — time for a show-cause hearing at which city officials might try to put off the order.

The possibility seems remote.

While Pontiac city officials have never encouraged action by the Water Resources Commission, they've done next to nothing to discourage it since the commission put Pontiac on the firing line last July.

At that time the commission declared the city was creating a public nuisance—"the worst pollution problem in the state," one State Health Department engineer said.

Pontiac was ordered to have expansion plans in shape for approv-

Brazilian Plane Falls; 51 Die

Spot Wreckage in Bay but Find No Survivors; One American Aboard

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) —A Brazilian airliner with 51 persons aboard, including at least one American, plunged into Guanabara Bay Friday night while approaching Rio de Janeiro. Search teams found parts of bodies and wreckage but no survivors.

The twin-engined Convair, on a 600-mile flight from the new capital of Brasilia with a midway stopover at Belo Horizonte, was listed as missing nearly eight hours.

The crash was confirmed early today when navy search crews found the plane's wreckage floating in the bay off the island of Paqueta, about 10 miles up the bay from Rio's Dumont Airport.

Later the searchers reported finding parts of bodies and pieces of luggage that had floated up on the beach.

Among those listed aboard was Newton B. Thompson, a native of Waterville, Me., an official of the American Bond and Share Electric Co.

A spokesman for Real Airlines said the passenger list carried other Anglo-Saxon names, including George Pfistern, Janet S. Latter and H. V. Lee. The line could not confirm their nationalities or give their addresses.

Thompson's wife told reporters in Rio that her husband had been in Belo Horizonte on business.

Earlier reports had said the plane might be carrying several Brazilian congressmen who often travel from Brasilia for weekends in Rio. It was later learned that only one congressman — Jose Gomes Talarico — had boarded the flight in Brasilia. And he transferred off upon learning the plane would be delayed.

Add Curbs on Church

ROME (UPI) — The government of South Africa is placing increasing restrictions on the activities of the Roman Catholic Church there, Vatican sources said today.

It'll Be a Nice Weekend for Your Outing

Whether you're going boating, on a picnic, or just planning to spend a quiet weekend around the yard, you'll have clear and sunny skies in which to enjoy it.

Today's pleasant weather will be followed tomorrow by slightly warmer temperatures and it'll be fair.

Tonight will be fair and cooler with the low ranging from 50 to 55. The low tomorrow night is expected to be 60.

Northwesterly winds recorded at 12 m.p.h. at mid-morning will become light and variable tonight and tomorrow. No rainfall has been recorded in downtown Pontiac for the past 24 hours and none is in sight, according to the U.S. Weather Bureau.

The lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. today was 53 degrees at 4:30 a.m. At 1 p.m. the mercury read a pleasant 76.

Demand Marks 10th Anniversary of Invasion

Occupiers Stand Fast, Term Sudden Outburst a Propaganda Move

From Our News Wires

PANMUNJOM, Korea — The Communists demanded today, on the 10th anniversary of their invasion of South Korea, that allied forces get out of the country.

The Allies promptly replied that they will remain until the nation is democratically reunified.

The Reds charged also that the Allies are building up their forces south of the 38th Parallel. U. S. Marine Maj. Gen. Marion L. Dawson dismissed the charge as a "tiresome propaganda tirade."

In Seoul, Prime Minister Huh Chung declared that South Korea has abandoned ousted President Syngman Rhee's idea of unifying this divided peninsula by force.

Huh Chung, who assumed leadership after Rhee's government was toppled by a revolt in April, said in his Korean War anniversary statement that "our change of political face has been accompanied by a change of heart

"Gone . . . are the cliches . . . and the 'march north' oaths of yesterday. We strive to make reason and honor the main instruments of our diplomacy," he said.

"March north" was a favorite threat of Rhee. Whenever he became impatient over the prolonged division of Korea, the ousted 85-year-old leader would threaten to unleash the big South Korean army and go it alone, much to the embarrassment of South Korea's allies, including the United States, which controls ammunition and supplies.

NOT LAST OF TYPE

Gen. Carter B. Magruder, Allied commander in Korea, said in Seoul the world has not seen the last of Korea-type limited wars.

Sees New Jobs at Fisher Body

Union Chief Predicts a Rise of 1,700-1,900; Company Is Mum

Increased production at Fisher Body Division's Pontiac plant this fall will result in 1,700 to 1,900 new jobs, it was predicted today by Gerald W. Kehoe, president of Fisher Body Local 596, UAW.

The anticipated production involves assembly of the new Pontiac Tempest compact car and of Pontiac convertible bodies.

Kehoe said he expects the local's membership to increase 1,700 to 1,900 in late October.

A company spokesman said no prediction would be made about job increases.

Local 596 membership totals 2,700 at present.

The local broke ground Thursday for a new $97,000 hall, which is expected to be completed in the fall.

Ike Is Jetting Home Sunday; He'll Talk to Nation Monday

HONOLULU (AP) — President Eisenhower ends his six-day Hawaiian rest stop today and flies back to Washington to report to the American people on his controversial Far Eastern journey.

The President is reported to have drafted a hard-hitting speech denouncing the Communists for plotting with young Japanese students to block his visit to Tokyo.

Tanned and refreshed, Eisenhower boards his orange-tipped jet airliner at 5 p.m. HST—10 p.m. Pontiac time—for his return flight.

After refueling at Travis AFB in California, he is due to arrive at Andrews Air Force Base outside Washington Sunday morning about 7 a.m. Pontiac time, two weeks from the day he set off on his 23,000-mile good will trip.

SPEAKS MONDAY NIGHT

His 30-minute television-radio report to the nation will originate from his White House office at 6:30 p.m. Pontiac time Monday.

Eisenhower is reported annoyed at the barrage of attacks on his Far East mission by leading Democrats who have joined in blasting his inability to visit riot-ridden Tokyo as a blow to American prestige.

He is understood to have focused his speech on his contention that the visits he was able to make—the Philippines, Formosa and Korea — were "completely successful" in building better relations with these countries.

The President has been silent since arriving in sunny Hawaii on the hotly disputed Tokyo phase of his visit which he canceled at the suggestion of the Japanese government.

Between golf games on a closely guarded course, Eisenhower has met with aides daily to draft his speech. The main emphasis will be on his belief that the Reds, directed by Peiping rather than Moscow, went all out to disrupt his proposed Japanese tour.

Red China Flogs Russia for 'Whitewashing U.S.'

By K. C. THALER

LONDON (UPI)—Communist China today hit back fiercely at Russia in the sharpening Sino-Soviet ideological conflict, and in effect accused Moscow of attempting to "whitewash U.S. imperialism."

The attack came during a mass rally in Peiping attended by vice-premiers Marshal Chen Yi and Hsi Chung-Hsun, and the vice-chairmen of the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress, according to the New China News Agency.

General Li Chih-min, one of the key speakers, lashed out against "modern revisionists who claim that the true character of imperialists whose hands were smeared with blood were envoys of peace."

"This is to whitewash U. S. imperialism and help it to carry on aggression under the pretense of peace," he charged.

No names have been mentioned since the conflict broke into the open with Khrushchev's attack on Peiping's hard policy line at the Bucharest Party Congress earlier this week.

The voter—which way will he cast his ballot? What does he think of the candidates, the issues?

The "Sum of the People" seeks the answer. Authored by John F. Kraft, veteran New York City market researcher and opinion analyst, the series differs from most public opinion polls—stressing the human side as well as the statistical.

There Were $$$ in the Breeze

They gathered up the bills in tens and twenties and handed them over to a nearby clothing store before a worried Beverly Hills youth dashed up.

John Matonican, 19, of 16252 Birwood Dr., said he had just cashed a friends $80 check in a Birmingham bank. The bills came out of his pocket when he pulled out a stick of gum.

The bank assured a policeman that Matonican had cashed the check and all $80 were returned to him.

An Idea and a Pontiac

FROM CHILE TO DETROIT — An idea and a 1930 Pontiac brought Manuel Jacque all the way from Santiago, Chile to Detroit. The idea is a gadget for improving brakes which he wants to sell to General Motors Corp. The 38-year-old mechanic left his South American home Jan. 14 and he and his car held together, arriving here Thursday. Jacque financed some of this trip by taking and selling pictures. Now he hopes he can sell his idea as well.

Canada Egg Wets Mayor of Moscow

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (AP)— The mayor of Moscow was splattered Friday with a raw egg, thrown by a man believed to be a Lithuanian refugee, as he posed for pictures during a good will tour of Canada.

Nikolai Bobrovnikov, who was posing with TV's Wyatt Earp, Hugh O'Brian, and two Canadian mayors, was hit squarely on the neck, according to a news photographer who was taking the picture.

The egg-th-rwer, identified by police as Ged Janusomis, 20, was caught after a 10-minute chase through Victoria Park. He was arrested on undisclosed charges and later released on $200 bail.

O'Brian continued to pose for pictures while police chased Janusomis, the photographer said.

MANY REFUGEES

Mayor Franklin Miller of Niagara Falls, Ont., and George Nelms of Ottawa were posing with Bobrovnikov and O'Brian.

Canada has many anti-Communist refugees from Lithuania, a Baltic country taken over by the Soviet Union early in World War II.

Bobrovnikov made no comment on the incident. Mayor Miller declined to discuss the incident further, saying it might "jeopardize international relations."

City Nears State Suit on Sewage

al by the State Health Department in December of last year, have the expansion under contract by July 1 of this year, and have the expansion completed by the end of next year.

PUBLIC VOTES NO.

Only the first deadline was met: the state accepted the expansion plans which the city has had ready for the past three years.

But voters have three times turned down general obligation bond issues to finance the planned expansion.

Since last December, the city has dragged its heels on financing. There was some talk at the City Commission table about going to voters a fourth time. But this idea was soon dropped.

If the state obtains a court order against Pontiac, the City Commission will be under legal obligation to finance the expansion anyway it wants.

City Manager Walter K. Willman consistently has favored issuing the general obligation bonds.

Under a court order, the City Commission could do this without a vote of approval by the people, he has pointed out.

Coming said it might take the Attorney General's Office up to two months to prepare the suit for filing. The task would fall to Assistant Atty. Gen. Victor Meier, who handles the Water Resources Commission cases.

The city is not required to appear before the Water Resources Commission at its monthly meeting next week. But City Attorney William A. Ewart said he probably would be there anyway.

"There's nothing much we can say, but we ought to be there for form's sake," he explained.

Ewart's attitude reflected that taken by Willman when he appeared before the Water Resources Commission last July 31 to answer charges of pollution.

"We admit nothing and deny nothing," said Willman, who had already been decrying the pollution situation in Pontiac for a long time.

Pontiac's only positive action has been to request state action against Waterford Township and Bloomfield Township for pollution caused by storm drains feeding into the Clinton River system.

The request for action against Waterford Township was renewed last month and a Water Resources Commission engineer made a personal inspection.

State officials have favored an area-wide plan as a solution to pollution in the townships around Pontiac — a plan such as the one proposed by the Oakland County Department of Public Works and known as the Clinton River Basin Sewage Disposal System.

HOME FOR UNION — This architect's sketch shows what the new $97,000 hall for Fisher Local 396, UAW, will look like upon its completion, expected this fall. ## Betancourt Has Swollen Face

Venezuela's President Sees Bomb Attack as Overthrow Plot

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—His face swollen and hands bandaged as a result of the bomb blast that narrowly missed killing him, pressed a search today for those behind the plot.

Betancourt, back in Miraflores Palace after being treated in a hospital for injuries, told reporters the attack was part of a widespread plan to overthrow his government and set up a new dictatorship.

"The incident shows that the enemies of democracy—national and international—will resort to every possible means to try to establish tyranny in the country," Betancourt told newsmen.

Venezuela's borders were sealed off, air travel halted and some constitutional guarantees suspended to facilitate the search.

Defense Minister Lopez Henriquez, who sat next to Betancourt and was burned when the bomb went off, alerted the country's armed forces against any attempt to overthrow the president's three-party coalition government.

Three persons were reported killed and eight wounded in the blast, which marked the third assassination plot against Betancourt.

The explosion destroyed the president's car as he arrived for an army day ceremony on the Avenue of Heroes outside Caracas.

Downtown Sidewalks on Monday Night Agenda

BIRMINGHAM — Three alternate plans ranging from a cost of about $7,000 to almost $26,000 for downtown city sidewalk improvements will be examined Monday night at the regular City Commission meeting.

Costs to property owners will be anywhere from about $7,000 to $16,000 depending which plan is used.

As outlined by William Killeen, city engineer, the first plan includes the repair of existing faulty sidewalks and steps, but does not call for the replacement of the steps.

Under the second plan the curb steps will either be eliminated or improved, and a larger number of sidewalks will be replaced to improve the sidewalk slope.

The third alternate provides for the replacement of all sidewalks between the buildings and curbs where slope changes are planned.

A Birmingham architectural firm has received one of eight national awards presented by the Church Architectural Guild of America, it was announced yesterday.

The award was presented to Begrow and Brown, 877 N. Bates St., for its design of the Antioch Evangelical Lutheran Church now under construction at 13 Mile and Farmington roads in Farmington Township.

Some 365 architectural firms throughout the country entered the competition.

It was the sixth national award won by the firm since 1957. One of the more recent awards received by the firm was for their design of National Cowboy Hall of Fame being built in Oklahoma City.

Approval of $30,000 in special assessment bonds for sanitary sewers in Bloomfield Township has been given by the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission in Lansing.

The sewers are to be constructed south of Quarton road between Franklin and Inkster roads in the Kirkwood Subdivision.

Since the original request of $30,000, an additional $9,000 is being sought since plans were revised with an increase in the drainage district.

Township officials said they expect approval of the $9,000 borrowing in the near future.

Lay Courthouse Stone Monday

Ceremony to Follow the Regular Meeting of County Supervisors

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors will save the best for the last when they meet Monday for a rather routine June session as required by law.

More interest will be focused on the new county courthouse at the County Service Center when supervisors gather to lay the cornerstone at 2 p.m.

After their meeting at the County Office Building in the morning, the entire 83-member Board and officials will have a preceremony noon luncheon at the County Garage.

The agenda for the meeting contains six items — four of which involve either sewer or water projects of the drain commissioner's office or the Department of Public Works.

ANNUAL REPORTS

The other two items include an annual report from the Board's buildings and grounds committee and authorization to establish a method to sell 16 county-owned lots.

Big Majority of State Dem Delegates to Go for Kennedy

From Our News Wires

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) with a big lift from Gov. Williams, has corralled at least 37½ Michigan first ballot votes for the Democratic presidential nomination, and conceivably could bag 45½.

An even higher vote for Kennedy was possible if Adlai E. Stevenson should face completely out of the candidacy picture.

This was indicated today by a telephone poll by the Associated Press of the state's 51-vote delegation to the party's national convention starting July 11 in Los Angeles.

The canvass uncovered only token support for Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) and Stevenson, national standard-bearer in 1952 and 1956.

A growth in Kennedy backing after the governor endorsed him June 2 on Mackinac Island obviously ate into the Symington and Stevenson potential.

With 95 of the 102 delegates contacted, the tally on their first ballot preference, converted from delegate half-votes into whole convention votes, produced this alignment:

Kennedy 37½, Symington 3, Stevenson 2½, undecided 4½, not yet contacted 3½.

MOST WOULD SWITCH

Of the handful who stuck with Stevenson, most indicated they would switch to Kennedy if Stevenson irrevocably removed himself from consideration.

"I will leave him on the first ballot if he or a spokesman says definitely in Los Angeles that he will not be a candidate," said Mrs. Harriett Phillips of Huntington Woods.

Ivan Brown of Iron Mountain put his name in the Stevenson column but said he "might be persuaded" to back Kennedy because he doubted Stevenson would become a candidate.

At Glacier National Park, Mont., a first ballot nomination of Kennedy was predicted by Ohio Gov. Michael V. DiSalle on his arrival at the 52nd annual governors' conference, opening Sunday.

DiSalle conceded Kennedy might not have enough votes on the first roll call but added confidently Kennedy would win "before the results are announced."

He referred to the vote-changing delegates are allowed before the roll call total is announced.

Butler also urged his party to risk a walkout by southern delegates and possible defeat in November by adopting a "forthright and courageous" civil rights platform at its national convention in Los Angeles.

'CAN'T COMPROMISE'

"We cannot compromise principles in order to hold people in the party" Butler said in a television interview yesterday. "We've got to stand up for what's best for all the people, win or lose."

The Democratic chairman said he is convinced Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev wants Nixon to win the presidential election, because he feels Nixon will be the easiest American to deal with.

Khrushchev attacks Nixon in speeches, Butler said, in hopes the American electorate will react in anger and vote for the vice president.

Detroiter Dies After Being Hit by Weight

NEW YORK (AP)—A Detroit business man in New York to celebrate his 60th birthday died yesterday of head injuries suffered when a dumbbell fell from the apartment window of a television actress and struck him.

Alvin Rodecker died less than 24 hours after the dumbbell fell eight stories from the apartment of actress Arlene Francis and struck him on the head.

A well-nigh incredible chain of circumstances cost Rodecker his life. He was felled as he strolled with his wife along one of New York's most fashionable streets, in summer sunlight, sated by an expensive luncheon at one of the city's great restaurants.

Magruder was asked whether a new Korean War would lead to direct attack on Red China.

"With the appalling amount of destruction that would attend any all-out war. I am convinced that both sides would attempt to limit any future war," he replied.

"I do not believe in the statement sometimes heard that 'There will never be another Korea.'"

While the negotiators in Panmunjom talked, the Red radio was blasting denunciations of the United States from Peiping, Hanoi, and Pyongyang, the principal Red held cities in Asia.

REPORT MEETINGS

The Communist broadcasts reported that anti-American mass meetings were held throughout Red Asia — most notably in Pyongyang, where the turnout was estimated at 300,000 persons.

"My predecessors and I have told you many times before when these forces, which now stand ready to help defend Korean freedom, will be withdrawn," Dawson said.

"They will be withdrawn when your side permits the unification of Korea in conformity with the objectives of the United Nations and the desires of the Korean people — not before."

It was Red China's first massive reaction to Khrushchev's insistence that Lenin must be interpreted with the times and his rejection of the Peiping-supported Leninist doctrine that war against capitalism is inevitable.

WON'T ACCEPT IDEA

China allows for no such free interpretation.

A cautious rebuff was given to Khrushchev earlier this week when Communist China's delegate to the Bucharest Congress, Peng Chen, refused concessions to the Soviet Premier's arguments.

Today, Peiping went to town. In a cryptic reference to "modern revisionists," Li Chih-min made these charges:

"Modern revisionists, frightened out of their wits by the imperialists blackmail of nuclear war, exaggerated the consequences of the destructiveness of nuclear war and begged imperialism for peace at any cost, in fact helping the imperialists to undermine the militant spirit of the socialist countries."

The phrasing left little doubt. Soviet Communist affairs experts said, that it was an indictment of Khrushchev's peaceful coexistence policy and a rejection of the thesis that nuclear war is too dangerous to contemplate.

The Communist Chinese previously had been reported as underplaying the risk of nuclear war. Today's statement put the Chinese view formally on record.

Judge Moore Presents Juvenile Courts Plan

Oakland County Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore has proposed a three-point program for juvenile courts to the National Council of Juvenile Court Judges, meeting in Detroit.

Judge Moore told the conference the program would cost $2.6 million a year.

He said it would set up a group with a budget of $100,000 a year to aid the juvenile court movement through publications, services and experienced staff members; establish a dozen model juvenile courts around the country to upgrade standards of the court system, and work toward preventing juvenile delinquency by instituting a protective services organization in 40 communities across the nation.

Moore said the program could be financed by charitable and scientific foundations.

The nearly 200 juvenile court judges voted yesterday to support proposed legislation that would set up conservation work camps manned by young people.

Rain Mars Encampment

2nd Battalion Rates High

By CHESTER WAGNER
Special Correspondent

CAMP McCOY, Wis. — Pontiac's 2nd Battalion wound up its two weeks of training here yesterday, chalking up high scores on all phases of training exercises.

Although the troops were plagued with constant rain at this southeastern Wisconsin military reservation, the esprit decorps of these Army reservists was high.

Highlight of the two-week encampment was a two-day bivouac, where the troops lived in the field under simulated combat conditions. The rain added realism to their infantry training.

Marked closely by U. S. Army inspection teams, the 2nd Battalion came through in usually fine form to capture high ratings.

It was not all work, however, for these citizen-soldiers. The 2nd Battalion, for the second consecutive year, won the regimental softball championship. Maj. Franklin D. Thompson, of Pontiac, 2nd Battalion commander, said:

"Not only have these men shown that they can discard their civilian way of life and become full-fledged infantrymen for two weeks, but also that they possess team sportsmanship and fine conduct on the playing field. I am proud of them."

Airline Unionists, Pilot Group Split Over Regulator

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A union representing airline stewardesses, navigators, mechanics and ground crews broke with the pilots today and gave a vote of confidence to the Federal Aviation Agency and its administrator, E. R. Quesada.

The 22,000-member Air Transport Division of the Transport Workers Union approved at its annual meeting a declaration that attacks on Quesada have been "ill-deserved and ill-advised."

The Airline Pilots Assn. has charged that Quesada, a former Air Force general, is running the airline industry in a dictatorial manner.

Driver's Examiner Will Be Reinstated

DETROIT (UPI)—A state driver's license examiner who was suspended while officials checked his handling of hearings for the son of a prohibition era hoodlum will be reinstated, officials said today.

Bernard Hammond, deputy director of the secretary of state's safety and enforcement division, said an investigation has cleared George Moustakas, 33, of any wrongdoing in his handling of the case of Anthony J. Corrado's case.

Moustakas was suspended Thursday when his superiors discovered he had handled license revocation cases against Corrado twice and both time allowed him to keep his license.

Ingemar May Need Birgit's Comforting

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Jan Murray's daughter, Diane, 6, was rehearsing a song "Catch a Falling Star," for the school show the other day, and Jan was listening attentively and appreciatively as a parent should.

WILSON

"Darling, when you come to the word 'star,'" Jan advised her, "you should make a little gesture, like this . . ."

"No, I won't!" announced his daughter. "My teacher says that's not the way to sing a song."

"Darling," he said, gently. "Daddy's been in show business 25 years. Who do you think knows more about singing a song—your teacher or me?"

"My teacher," exclaimed Diane, "knows more about anything than you do!"

His wife, Toni, is such a fastidious housekeeper that she empties the ash trays before you've put your cigaret ashes in them. "And she loves to make beds. I got up at 4 a.m. to go to the bathroom, and I got back, and the bed was made."

MURRAY

Toni is very affectionate, Jan reports, particularly when she's got her hair in curlers.

"She's wearing 20 pounds of stainless steel in her hair. She bends over and kisses you and rips your whole face to shreds," he says.

Jan claims to be watching international developments closely. "Take those seven Astronauts," he pointed out. "Only one is going—we need the other six to drag the one guy into the missile."

Supporters of Johnson Working on Southerners

By The Associated Press

Supporters of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas intensified their drive today to stop Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts from snaring the Democratic presidential nomination.

At the annual conference of governors in Glacier National Park, Mont., Govs. Price Daniel of Texas and Buford Ellington of Tennessee organized a Southern caucus for Sunday morning.

The aim was to assess Johnson's chances of defeating Kennedy at the national convention in Los Angeles and to stamp out talk that Johnson has swayed too far from the Southern viewpoint. Some Southerners are angry at him for piloting two civil rights bills through Congress.

In Washington Friday, Johnson supporters claimed he would have 302 votes on the convention's first ballot. They predicted 602½ for Kennedy. To win, 761 votes are needed.

The Johnson people said that their man would swell his total to more than 600 votes on the second ballot and would win on the third.

On the other hand, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle of Ohio, at the governors conference, predicted a first-ballot victory for Kennedy.

Also on the question of convention votes, a Johnson supporter took issue with a statement attributed to Kennedy. The New York Times had quoted Kennedy as telling New York's Liberal party Thursday that he hoped to win the nomination without a single Southern vote.

"Those of us who support Sen. Johnson for the presidency want the votes of every section of the country."

Kennedy told the Liberal party that he had little delegate support from the South but hoped and expected to win the nomination despite this, Salinger said.

Held in Theft of Car Laid to Chicagoan

STURGIS (UPI)—A 16-year-old Wayne boy was held today in a car theft at first blamed on a Chicago man who was found dead on a highway.

Police said James Mentel, 16, admitted stealing the car near his home and crashing through a police barricade near Jackson while fleeing from police.

Officers said Mentel told them he jumped from the car when it struck the first of several barricades and escaped uninjured in the darkness.

Sugar Gamble Asked by Castro

Says He'd Like Quota of U. S. Proportional to the Size of His Crop

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro says he is willing to make a million-ton wager on Cuban sugar production with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

The bearded prime minister made the statement in a TV talk to the Cuban people Friday night —his eighth major speech in 20 days.

It followed a statement by Herter in Washington to the House Agriculture Committee that experts predict Cuba's sugar production will drop at least one million tons soon. Herter added that this is a good time to diversify U.S. sugar supply sources. The committee has been considering giving President Eisenhower authority to cut Cuba's quota of the U.S. market.

SAYS HE'D GAMBLE

Castro said he would be willing to surrender Cuba's share of the sugar market in the United States if his country's production in 1961 drops a million tons—provided the Cuban quota is increased by a million tons if production increases that much. Castro said the American public is "being fooled" on the sugar situation.

"We can sell sugar to the United States at a cheaper price if they want it," the prime minister said. "We can contribute to the lowering of the American cost of living."

Rabbis Ask Transfer of Committee's Work

DETROIT (AP) — American reform rabbis asked yesterday for abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities and restoration of its duties to the House Judiciary Committee.

Meeting here in the 71st convention of the central conference of American rabbis, the Jewish clergymen also asked conference officers to seek cooperation of other national organizations in an effort to end "persecution of Jews in the Soviet orbit."

In other action the conference expressed confidence that Adolf Eichmann, one-time Nazi, will be given every measure of justice in his trial in Israel. The rabbis are on record against capital punishment.

Prendergast Out as Dem Delegate to Favor Lehman

NEW YORK (AP) — Democratic State Chairman Michael H. Prendergast resigned Friday as a delegate to the party's national convention to open a delegate post for former Sen. Herbert H. Lehman.

Prendergast, who led the move last week to exclude Lehman from the delegate list, bowed to a decision of a party caucus Thursday in Albany.

Lehman, a former governor as well as senator, conditioned his acceptance on the understanding that he be "completely free to cast my vote and to raise my voice as my conscience dictates."

'Disabled Aid Needed'

BAY CITY (AP) — Bill H. Fribley, national commander of Disabled American Veterans, told the opening of Michigan 1960 DAV convention yesterday that the nation must accept disability compensation "as a necessary and inherent cost of war and establish a permanent, integrated program" to cover it.

Memory Uses Wise Impulses

Forgetfulness Is Our Friend

NEW YORK — (UPI) — A careful boiling down of everything science knows about memory, boiled it down to this: Forgetfulness also is a wonderfully useful thing.

"If we remembered everything, we should be almost worse off than if we had no memory at all," said this summary of a vast amount of scientific knowledge.

"Our minds would be so filled with past painful experiences and so cluttered that we should be in a state of unbearable agony and hopeless confusion."

Memory starts in the cerebral cortex because it picks out what is going to be remembered from a mass of stuff that could be recalled. It selects either on a basis of association (it is reminded of something by something it is perceiving) or of strong stimulation.

Having selected, the cortex transmits appropriate electrical impulses along the network of nerves and at the height of a memory response, 500 such impulses can be going out every second.

Memories that require activity, such as learning or doing, are referred to brain area called the hippocampus which takes over from there, so to speak.

Once it is set up, the circuits can be made permanent. A skill which is acquired after much practice or knowledge that comes from much study is retained even when it's not used for a long time.

"Fortunately we are unaware of this process," said the summary prepared for the technical publication, Pfizer Spectrum. "Otherwise we would all go mad practicing all our skills and rehearsing all our knowledge at the same time."

NEED HIPPOCAMPUS

Without the hippocampus, there would be no ability to learn (since it depends on memory) and no memory of recent events. Without the brain lobes directly behind the forehead, there would be other kinds of memory losses.

The portion of the cortex over these lobes, sometimes called the "interpretive cortex," must be working if the mind is to remember the symbols which are the essence of language, music and mathematics. Yet when it is removed there still is memory of recent events.

Science is indebted to the peculiar memory losses suffered by alcoholics, hysterics, epileptics, and schizophrenics for a great deal of its knowledge of how memory works — since those sick people have been studied in great depth.

"Schizophrenics are swamped by collective impersonal memory, which is shared to a lesser extent by other men and by all other animals," said the summary. These memories come from "the inherited brain which is the repository of our ancestral life, containing infinitely repeated patterns of psychic activity.

"The normal individual is unaware of this inheritance, but the psychotic is aware of little else, dwelling in a place of primordial memory unmodernized by personal experience."

Slopes of the Great Smoky mountains are drained by 600 miles of streams, many of which yield rainbow and brook trout for anglers.

Austria Repays Church for Nazi Confiscation

VIENNA, Austraia (AP) — The Austrian government returned numerous monasteries, churches and other valuable real estate to the Roman Catholic Church Thursday and agreed to pay the church four million dollars a year.

Not Enough Storage Space for Soviet Grain

MOSCOW (AP) — Pravda said today 22 per cent of grain storage space slated for this year's expected bumper crop had been built and that only a small part of the harvest would be properly stored.

A lead editorial in the communist party paper upbraided certain agricultural and factory officials for not seeing to it that enough prefabricated concrete grain elevators had been made to meet the needs outlined by Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev at a party congress in 1959. Singled out for special censure were Kazakhstan, long a trouble spot in soviet agriculture, the Ukraine, White Russia and Armenia.
