"More than 1,100 fans attended our last game, and we're hoping to set a new attendance record of 1,500 at what is sure to be an exciting game against SIU," said Gary Parsons, men's soccer coach.

The team, with a 9-4 record, has won all home games this season.

The first 150 OU students to arrive will receive free admission. The team is also offering the following promotions for families and soccer teams:

- Families and individuals can purchase half-price tickets (adults $4; youth or students $2) before Nov. 1. Full price tickets, if purchased at the door, are $8 for adults and $4 for youth or students.
- Teams can purchase 15 youth tickets for $30 and will receive one free adult ticket for their coach to attend the game. The coach will be invited to the post-game coaches and alumni reception at the Upper 90 Pub at the Ultimate Soccer Arena.
