Hall offers dinners/horror films in October

The 1930s spawned Hollywood's Golden Age of horror films. Audiences were thrilled by tales of mystery and adventure and were first introduced to the silver screen's most memorable monsters. In honor of that era, and just in time for Halloween, Oakland University's Meadow Brook Hall brings the second annual "Dinner and a Movie" to life.

Held Tuesday and Wednesday evenings during the month of October, Dinner and a Movie pays tribute to classic horror films and their stars, icons of the horror genre during the glamorous 1930s.

Dinner and a Movie programs are held in Meadow Brook Hall's elegant ballroom, the original motion picture-viewing room of Matilda and Alfred Wilson. Each week, moviegoers will enjoy their meal, and can take advantage of a cash bar, while viewing a hair-raising horror film in a glamorous location. Doors open at 7 p.m. and the movies start at 7:30 p.m.

Featured movies include: "The Son of Frankenstein" with Bela Lugosi and Borris Karloff (Oct. 1), "Dracula's Daughter" with Gloria Holden and Otto Kruger (Oct. 7 and 8), "The Old Dark House" with Boris Karloff and Melvyn Douglas (Oct. 14), "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" with Fredric March and Miriam Hopkins (Oct. 21 and 22), "Wherewolf in London" with Henry Hull and Warner Oland (Oct. 28 and 29).

Admission is $25 and includes the film and dinner. Space is limited, so please call in advance for reservations. For more information or to make a reservation, call (248) 370-3140. For more information on the hall and its programs, visit the Meadow Brook Hall Web site.
