One-Man Grand Jury in County Is Finished

Oakland County's one-man grand jury can take a rest. The work is done one year and 21 indictments after it began.

Grand Juror Philip Pratt, ending his investigation yesterday, plans a vacation.

Pratt said he would issue his final report on the investigation to his fellow Oakland County circuit judges when he returns from vacation next month.

Pratt has shouldered the grand jury probe in addition to his regular court.

He was named to sit as the one-man grand jury by Presiding Circuit Judge Frederick Ziem June 14 of last year.

The full-scale probe, aimed at crime in Royal Oak Township, was requested by Michigan State Police and Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson.

Pratt's investigation was the third in the township in 14 years. In 1951, a 23-man grand jury issued 16 indictments. There were 12 convictions.

NO CONVICTIONS

Two years later, the state attorney general's office called for a one-man grand jury, but no convictions resulted. There was one indictment citing three defendants issued.

Pratt returned 21 indictments, naming 23 defendants. Charges range from bribery to perjury.

While the major focus of the year-long probe has been Royal Oak Township, where a number of past and present township officials were indicted, the grand jury has strayed beyond the south Oakland community.

White Lake Township Supervisor Edward Cheyz was indicted April 22 on charges of conspiracy, bribery and extortion in a zoning issue.

Little Judy Funsch Back in Hospital

FLINT (AP)—At a time when most children are learning to write their names, Judy Lynn Funsch has survived rare heart surgery and beaten off pneumonia 18 times.

Judy, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Funsch of suburban Genesee Township, is back in the hospital with what her doctor described as a "respiratory infection."

But the tiny child, who gained the sympathy of many Americans with her pluck, may soon be home again.

"Her condition is good and she may be going home again in a few days," a spokesman at Flint's McLaren Hospital said today.

Mrs. Funsch said her daughter entered the hospital Tuesday, some six weeks after she left the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor, following a five-hour heart operation.

Mental Health Budget Ready

County to Submit Figures for State OK

A proposed $1,653,849 budget for Oakland County's 1966-67 mental health program will be submitted for approval of the State Department of Mental Health.

The budget, which would require $414,443 in county funds and the balance in state appropriations, was approved yesterday by the County Community Mental Health Services Board.

The total budget is up by $161,000 over the original proposed budget given to the board six weeks ago.

Expansion of the Probate Court psychological clinic accounts for the increase.

An original appropriation of $63,000 was earmarked for this purpose. Included was provision for five full-time employes and one person working on a half-time basis.

19 EMPLOYES

The $224,000 psychological clinic expenditure approved by the board yesterday provides for a staff of 19 employes.

A budget provision of $31,000 for the New Horizons program created a controversy at the board's May meeting and led to a closed session of the group in an attempt to resolve differences.

Some members felt that the program for moderately retarded adults should be expanded.

But, yesterday the board approved the same amount for New Horizons. The only dissenting vote was cast by Elmer E. Hartwig.

BUDGET FIGURES

Included in the total proposed budget are $94,590 for board administration, $1,072,130 for outpatient services and $153,804 for inpatient services.

Also included are $176,475 for rehabilitative services, $143,850 for consulting services and $13,000 for educational services.

State action on the budget, which covers the July 1, 1966 to July 1, 1967 period, is expected by July 1.

Pit Danger Emphasized

Sheriff Frank Irons today warned parents to keep their youngsters away from water-filled gravel pits and isolated frog ponds.

Irons warned that the water in such ponds and pits is often deeper than realized. He pointed out that the body of the latest drowning victim was recovered in 17 feet of water.

Deputy Takes Over

Director of CIA Quits Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson announced today the resignation of retired Adm. William F. Raborn as director of the Central Intelligence Agency and said he will be succeeded by his deputy, Richard Helms.

This was the big surprise at an announced-in-advance news conference in Johnson's oval office. He sandwiched word of Raborn's departure in among routine personnel changes recited at the start of the 35-minute session.

The President said the resignation was accepted "with regret."

There had been reports of unhappiness at high levels within the CIA about Raborn's direction of the super secret agency.

Johnson also volunteered a new statement on the Viet Nam war.

He said as a result of almost daily reviews of the situation, "we sincerely feel that the national interest requires that we persist in our present policy."

He hinted at further intensification of U.S. military efforts by saying later that the Pentagon was trying to step up the pace of military hardware purchases this month.

That way, he said, the United States could "get earlier deliveries and increase our efforts."

Johnson did express confidence that "we shall gain an honorable peace in South Viet Nam."

CHANCES IMPROVED?

However, when asked if travels to Hanoi this month by emissaries from France and Canada indicated improved chances for peace, he said "I have no information that I could make available that would give you any encouragement."

On other matters, Johnson said:

—He would "of course be happy" to meet with French President Charles de Gaulle if that seemed desirable. "He is always welcome," said the chief executive who added there has been no lack of communication between the two countries.

—Dr. Samuel N. Nabrit, president of Texas Southern University, will be nominated to succeed Mrs. Mary I. Bunting for a four-year term as a member of the Atomic Energy Commission. Nabrit, of Houston, would be the first Negro member of the AEC.

—Dr. Gerald F. Tape will be reappointed to a new term as an AFC commissioner.

TO BE REAPPOINTED

—Rosel H. Hyde will be reappointed a member of the Federal Communications Commission, and will be designated FCC chairman. A vacancy on the commission will be filled by Nicholas Johnson, now Federal Maritime administrator.

—Henry D. Owen, a career diplomat, is being named chairman of the State Department's Policy Planning Council, succeeding Walt W. Rostow who has become a presidential assistant.

—Winthrop Knowlton, one-time New York investment banker, will be nominated as assistant secretary of the treasury for international affairs replacing Merlyn N. Trued, resigned. Knowlton has been deputy assistant secretary for the past year.

Threat of Showers Dampens Outlook

There may be a few showers to dampen the spirits of Pontiac area residents over the weekend the forecast is mostly pleasant.

The daily prediction looks like this:

SATURDAY — Sunny and warmer today with a chance of late afternoon or evening showers or thundershowers. Fair and not so cool tonight with lows of 50 to 56.

SUNDAY — Partly sunny and warm. Highs aiming for 87.

MONDAY — Chance of showers and warm.

Experts Speculate Russia Gags Fidel

By BEN F. MEYER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Washington analysts believe the Soviet Union may have ordered Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro to stop talking and take a back seat in his country's affairs.

Whether he has been stripped of power, the analysts say, remains to be seen.

The State Department took public notice this week of reports that Castro's regime faces "growing popular dissatisfaction."

Press officer Robert McCloskey also noted that "it is a fact that Castro uncharacteristically has not been in the foreground of events since May 1."

TROUBLESOME

Analysts here are basing the theory that Moscow may have gagged Castro on persistent reports that the Soviet Union has found some of his recent activities very troublesome.

Earlier this year Castro engaged in a prolonged feud with Yugoslavia, a nation that has shown signs of independence from the Communist bloc.

The Castro regime's outbursts against Yugoslavia came as the Kremlin appeared to be making a concerted effort to avoid further breaches among bloc nations in light of its continuing battle with Communist China.

Only last month the Soviet Union signed a trade treaty for the exchange of $2.6 billion worth of goods with Yugoslavia through 1970.

CLOSER TIES

Romania and Poland both have given indications lately that they would like closer ties with the West, particularly in trade. And Premier Chou En-lai of Red China now is visiting Romania.

Thus the Soviet Union, weary of prolonged aid to Communist Cuba and disturbed by its worsening economy, may have decided to clamp down on Castro to avoid the possibility of his stirring more rifts.

Some Cuban experts also say that Castro's blast at Yugoslavia may have been really aimed at Moscow, which the prime minister couldn't mention by name because the Soviet Union is keeping his regime afloat with an estimated $1 million in aid a day.

The opinion here, however seems to be that the Soviet Union is stuck with Cuba and would not cut off its aid after investing as many dollars, men and material as it has in the Caribbean country.

Senate Rivals Trade Barbs

GAYLORD (AP) — Michigan's three leading U. S. Senate candidates sniped at each other yesterday in their first face-to-face encounter, while their audience of newspaper executives sat back and listened.

Democrat Jerome Cavanagh attacked Democrat G. Mennen Williams, Williams attacked Republican Robert Griffin and Griffin attacked Democratic President Johnson.

And each told the Michigan Associated Press Editorial Association he expected to be the state's new senator next year.

Pontiac Press Editor John Fitzgerald and Managing Editor Harry Reed are attending the conference.

Mayor Cavanagh of Detroit said he was optimistic about his primary race with former Gov. Williams and offered to debate incumbent Sen. Griffin after he, Cavanagh, wins the Democratic nod.

Cavanagh also accused Williams of "ducking anything resembling a debate" and said the former governor's advisers had "packed meetings, rammed through endorsements and planted rumors" to hurt the mayor's chances.

Williams generally ignored Cavanagh, praising the economic policies of the Kennedy and Johnson administrations and criticizing Griffin, "the new interim junior senator from Michigan."

Griffin was appointed senator this year by Gov. George Romney to replace Democrat Patrick McNamara, who died.

Williams said Griffin, as a House member, voted against many of the economic measures that contributed to the prosperity, such as tax reductions.

'LACKS UNDERSTANDING'

"I think the only conclusion we can draw is that Rep. Griffin did not understood the economics behind these tax bills," Williams said.

Asked about this, Griffin said he favored tax cuts and other government initiatives in times of recession, but opposed meddling with the economy in times of prosperity.

Griffin devoted most of his 10-minute talk to criticism of the Kennedy and Johnson administrations. He said:

"In the past four or five years the manipulation and suppression of truth has become the rule rather than the exception. It has reduced American effectiveness in foreign affairs.

FIRE QUESTIONS

"The American people have a right to expect that their own government will not deceive them on facts they have a right to know."

After the prepared speeches, the editors fired questions at the candidates. The questions were about Viet Nam and these were the answers:

Cavanagh — "We have an obligation to stay but we also have an obligation to employ our political resources to help the South Vietnamese people gain Democratic government . . . If we continue along the present course, a negotiated settlement will be impossible . . .

"The first thing we need is a military cease-fire. Then, hopefully, we can assist the South Vietnamese in creation of a civilian representative government . . ."

GRIFFIN'S REPLY

Griffin — "I have serious misgivings and reservations about some policies and decisions which have gotten us into this situation . . . This conflict will never be brought to a satisfactory conclusion by bombs and by take-over of Viet Cong territory by force.

"It is the political side we must stress with more and better foreign aid."

Williams — "If we are going to have peace, we must have a military defense against aggression from the north until they (the enemy) are contained. We must help South Viet Nam economically."

his reaction to public opinion polls that have recorded a dip in his popularity.

TAKE DUE NOTICE

He said he likes to get approval but when the polls show otherwise, "We regret it and take due notice of it and take proper introspection." He added that the poll results are not among his worries.

Asked if he expected to do some campaigning before the November congressional election, Johnson said "the President certainly ought to make his views known to his people" and he had no doubt he would be expressing his thoughts, though "I have no specific plans at this time."

One questioner wanted to know what Johnson thought about the propriety of senators going overseas and making statements affecting the internal affairs of other countries.

Johnson replied that it was his policy to "let the senators judge the propriety of their own statements."

Romney's Remarks on Osteopath Bill Hit

Dr. Philip Adler, president of the Michigan Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons, today criticized remarks made Thursday by Gov. George Romney to the Michigan Hospital Association as "presumptuous."

Romney had indicated he would veto a proposed bill to establish an osteopathic college authority to govern the proposed Michigan College of Osteopathic Medicine (MCOM) in Pontiac if it were given legislative approval before completion of a State Board of Education Study.

"Gov. Romney is presumptuous in his allegations as to whether a piece of legislation is constitutional or unconstitutional," said Dr. Adler.

"The responsibility of determining the constitutionality of legislation rests with the Michigan State Supreme Court and not with lay people" charged Adler.

The doctor claimed Romney inferred that the proposed college is unconstitutional. The osteopathic college bill will come before the House of Representatives Tuesday.

'SOLE RESPONSIBILITY'

Romney said, "the Michigan Board of Education has the sole responsibility of higher education."

"Gov. Romney ignores the fact that the MCOM was granted a charter by the Michigan Board of Education in November 1964," Dr. Adler commented.

"If we are to presume that only those charters granted by the present Michigan Board of Education are valid, then every pre-existing charter of every school of higher education in Michigan should be reviewed by them and certified.

"However, this is contrary to everything that is known about American legislation since no laws are allowed to be retroactive," countered Adler.

SEEK AUDIENCE

"Another presumption made by Gov. Romney," Adler added, "is that the State Legislature would embark upon legislation without first conferring with its legal and consuling staff to make sure that the legislation proposed would not be construed as unconstitutional."

Pinkard is in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital with second and third degree burns on his face and left hand.

According to Pontiac police, the Jones car was stopped on Telegraph in preparation for a left hand turn onto Ruth when struck by Pinkard's auto.

EXPLOSION

Witnesses told police the foreign car exploded and burst into flames, also igniting Pinkard's car.

Fox was found dead in his burning house at 6:15 a.m. today. Shelby Township police are still investigating the cause of his death.

Police said Fox lived in the house with a housekeeper who was out at the time of the fire.

They are still investigating the cause of the fire which resulted in an estimated $15,000 to $20,000 damage.

Scout Drive Report Given

$235,552 Reported of $550,000 Goal

Contributions totaling $235,552 were reported yesterday at the first general report meeting of the Clinton Valley Council Boy Scouts of America Lost Lake Reservation Development Fund committee.

The campaign's goal is $550,000.

John Z. DeLorean, general chairman for the campaign, said he was pleased with early returns from the reports that have been received.

He observed that the "Lost Lake 550" is a name that fits the need of the campaign in terms of the $550,000 for the purchase and preliminary development of 2,284 acres of land near Clare as a Boy Scout reservation.

The campaign name further reflects the urgency of the time allocated for completion of this phase of the campaign.

550 HOURS

From its beginning on June 7, there were just 550 hours before the target date of June 30 for completion of the public phase of the campaign — an ambitious schedule of $1,000 per hour, for 23 days.

The "race" is now nearing the halfway mark and is on schedule.

More that 1,500 scouters, and friends of scouters are hard at work in the 33 townships of Oakland and Macomb counties that make up the geographical area of the Clinton Valley Council.

This is the first time in the history of the council that the public has been asked to assist in a capital fund campaign.

Inquiry to Eye Ship Disaster

Will Seek Cause of NY Harbor Collision

NEW YORK (AP) — A Coast Guard board of inquiry will convene Monday to study the still mysterious cause of Thursday's flaming collision between two tankers in New York harbor.

The known death toll remained at 20 today, after a search of the burned hulk of the British tanker Alva Cape yielded no bodies. Twelve crewmen are listed as missing.

Of the 71 survivors aboard the two tankers and two escorting tugs which also caught fire, all but 21 had been released from hospitals by Friday night. One remained in critical condition.

The Alva Cape, carrying more than four million gallons of volatile naphtha, collided in the Kill Van Kull channel with the Texaco Massachusetts, an American freighter heading empty to the Gulf of Mexico.

EXPLOSION, FIRE

The collision was followed by an explosion and fire which sent flames 100 feet into the air in the 2,000-foot-wide channel between New Jersey and Staten Island.

Although the cause of the fire remained to be determined by the Coast Guard investigation, survivors said it apparently resulted when naphtha, a petroleum distillate, leaked from the damaged Alva Cape and washed over the engine of its tug.

The disaster was the worst in the harbor since 50 died in a 1960 fire aboard the aircraft carrier Constitution while it was under construction in the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

Another Sea Collision; 12 Men Missing

HALIFAX, N. S. (UPI) — A huge Liberian freighter struck a Nova Scotia fishing trawler in a thick coastal fog early today. The trawler sank and hours later, 12 fishermen were still missing.

It was the second serious North American ship collision in three days.

On Thursday, two tankers collided in New York Harbor. The resulting fire claimed at least 20 lives and 12 were still missing.

Today's collision occurred some 40 miles southeast of Shelburne, N. S., in the North Atlantic. Authorities reported rescue efforts were hampered by a soupy fog some eight hours after the accident.

Search and rescue headquarters reported that the trawler, the Reliance, sank "almost immediately" after colliding with the freighter Bordapian, which was bound for Manchester, England, from Wilmington, N. C.

The freighter radioed back that it had taken aboard four survivors from the 118-foot trawler.

Viets Attempt Inflation Curbs

SAIGON (UPI) — The government announced a series of hard-hitting economic measures today aimed at checking the spiraling inflation plaguing South Viet Nam. The effective rate of the Vietnamese piaster was devalued almost 50 per cent.

Au Truong Thanh, minister of economy and finance, said that effective immediately the piaster would be pegged at the official rate of 80 to the American dollar.

An additional surcharge of 88 piasters will bring the effective rate up to 118 for the U. S. dollar — the same as the preferential rate for tourists and American military personnel that has been in effect since September.

Thanh also announced substantial wage increases for government civil servants and military personnel, their first increase since 1964.

The servicemen and government servants have been hardest hit by the rampant inflation that doubled prices in less than two years.

BLACK MARKET

As word of the possible devaluation spread, the black market price for a dollar shot up to an all-time high of 250 piasters.

The immediate short term effects of these strong measures, however, will be to cause an increase in prices and a series of price fluctuations over the next two or three months.

New Pact Talks Set

Waterford Teachers, Board Still Apart

By HUDSON WILLSE

Despite 24 negotiating sessions, amounting to about 100 hours at the bargaining table, Waterford Township teachers and the board of education are still in disagreement over terms for a 1966-67 contract.

Another negotiating session is slated for 10 a.m. Thursday.

Teachers are seeking higher wage increments than those offered by the board, in addition to the hiring of 10 more teachers and lay help for elementary school teachers and full hospitalization.

WEA Vice President Robert G. Crumpton and Supt. of Schools Dr. Don O. Tatroe have expressed the views of each side as heads of the negotiating committees.

"In matters of salary, Waterford competes throughout the nation," claims Crumpton.

"Trips to California last year by recruiters attest to this.

CALIFORNIA TRIP

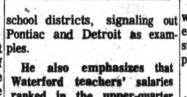
"Salary schedules thus must reflect a broader view than Oakland County.

"To date the board's offer has shown a relatively provincial approach to the matter.

"We would cite as examples of higher settlements here in Michigan, including Center Line, Lakeview, South Redford, Van Dyke, Birmingham, Warren and others."

PAY IN TOP QUARTER

Tatroe asserts that Waterford's pupil-teacher ratio, although not ideal, is lower than several Southeastern Michigan



school districts, signaling out Pontiac and Detroit as examples.

He also emphasizes that Waterford teachers' salaries ranked in the upper-quarter among Oakland County districts this past school year and that the board's initial offer would keep them there next year.

"The paradox in the whole situation is that the board and administration want the ends desired by the association," says Tatroe.

Crumpton, a vocal music and history teacher at Waterford Township High School, asserts that Waterford is known as a leader in educational program.

"Central to this leadership is keeping and maintaining a good staff through an adequate salary schedule, fringe benefits and reduced class sizes where needed.

"We are concerned that Waterford children receive an equal opportunity for quality education, as their parents do, who pay taxes equally for school support," Crumpton contends.

Tatroe, likewise, asserts, "We want lower class loads and higher salaries and have demonstrated these convictions in the progress made in recent years.

"But we believe we would be doing the children who attend Waterford schools, our community and even our employes a disservice if we were to take action at this time which might jeopardize our ability to maintain the schools' operation in the future," says Tatroe.

"We believe a steady and sure course is needed at this time," concludes the superintendent.

Teachers have voted to withhold their services next fall if a contract agreement is not reached.

Fire Fighters in Yearly Test

GM Truck Brigades Compete for Trophy

Volunteer fire fighters at GMC Truck & Coach Division put out more than 100 fires in one day this week without scorching an eyebrow.

The army of trained plant firemen — 250 strong — doused industrial type fires during the division's 14th annual Fire Brigade Contest.

The yearly event climaxes a continuing fire protection program headed by Plant Fire Chief Kenneth E. Goodell.

Fire fighters who participate are volunteers recruited from various departments at GMC Truck & Coach. Serving in 18 brigades, they became fire fighting "minutemen" within the factory.

Volunteer firemen snuffed out industrial-type fires set in metal containers at GMC's athletic field near Opdyke and South Boulevard Thursday.

Contestants were checked and timed. The brigade with the best over-all performance won a special rotating trophy.

This year's winner was Coach Brigade No. 12 headed by Jack L. Sovereign. He accepted the gold cup from Goodell and Plant Protection Chief Harold R. Titus.

The fire brigade program was established at GMC Truck & Coach in 1952. It is considered one of the finest volunteer industrial fire fighting organizations in the nation.

Nation Salutes Fathers Tomorrow

Tomorrow is the day we look up to Fathers. Why? Because it is Father's Day.

Throughout the year, the Old Man takes a pretty good beating at the hands of his adored ones. Mama has a way of budgeting the family income that makes Dad seem like the forgotten man. Daughter exerts feminine charm (she learns young) to wheedle new finery out of him. Junior wears his ties, puts the bite on him for more spending money while monopolizing the car.

The Old Man practically has to have a pass to get into the bathroom during the rush hour, and if he wants to use the telephone he'll save time and spare himself inner rage by going to the nearest pay station.

On day-to-day matters his opinions are infrequently asked and, if offered, infrequently considered. His household identity is so anonymous that a lot of his mail comes addressed to "Occupant."

But oddly enough, when emergencies arise, when members of the family develop problem trouble, when hard decisions have to be made—to whom do all eyes turn?

Yep—you guessed it. To the Old Man, of course.

So, don't be gulled by his feigned indifference to Father's Day. Every father is a born sentimentalist, and he'll just eat up any unusual fuss made over him.

Since the family dotingly takes him more or less for granted 364 days of the year, Father's Day is especially reserved for an all-out demonstration of just how much he is loved.

Everyone for whom "Father" is a living symbol of affection will themselves find happiness in making his day a joyous one.

Fire of Red China Dragon Is Seen Abating

Just as Russian communism followed a course from fanatical idealism to sober pragmatism, it could be that we are seeing the first stage of similar progression in Red China.

As the 72-year-old Mao Tze-tung loses the vigor and control that established and ruled Communist China, many self-appointed heirs apparent seem readying themselves for assumption of his robes.

Paralleling Kremlin maneuvering for position as Stalin's power waned, observers see a power struggle shaping up in Peking, capital of Red China.

It came to light when the powerful mayor of that city was ousted from his strong party post. It brought into focus a predicted showdown between the president and the premier of Red China.

Theories run that the latter had the mayor fired because he was casting covetous eyes on the premiership, covertly backed by party President Liu Shao-chi. As ammunition for his campaign, the aspirant was blaming the premier (Chou En-lai) for recent economic and diplomatic reverses.

Other facets of intrigue within Red China's ruling hierarchy touch the army chief and the defense minister, who is also first deputy of the Communist party.

It is far too early to forecast the effect on U.S.-Red China relations of a shakeup in the latter's top government, but faint signs point to the evolution of a second "Open Door" in the barrier Communist China has maintained against the West.

Move Prone Americans Not Bound by Home Ties

Americans are undoubtedly the movingest people on earth. No less than 37.9 million of us—more than 20 per cent of the total population—were living at a different address in March 1965 than 12 months earlier, reports the Census Bureau.

Most moves of all during this period occurred in the West, where 27 per cent of the population pulled up stakes and planted them elsewhere. The Northeast won the consolation prize with but 15 per cent of its residents succumbing to the lure of greener grass.

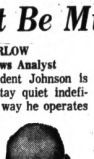
We are not quite as nomadic as the statistics make us appear, however. The majority of people who moved did so within the county of their previous residence. Another 3.5 per cent moved to another county in the same state and only 3.3 per cent moved between states.

Or to put it another way, a little moving, it seems, goes a long way.

LBJ Can't Be Mum Much Longer

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — President Johnson is too good a politician to stay quiet indefinitely. It's contrary to the way he operates and, as a politician, it's against his instincts.



MARLOW

Besides, time is running out on him.

He has made speeches and statements this year, plenty of them on assorted subjects, interlarding them with pep talks, particularly about the war in Viet Nam.

But they haven't been the kind to arouse a lot of people, or convince them, as the polls seem to indicate.

Always he tried to be optimistic about the war, often when there appeared to be little reason for it, and he has saturated Congress with his program, although this year Congress is in a slow crawl.

For two years, thanks to the 1964 elections, Johnson has had big Democratic majorities in both houses of Congress to support him. But in less than five months, voters will ballot on a new Congress.

NEEDS BIG MAJORITIES

Johnson needs the big majorities to sail his programs through the next two years, although in a nonpresidential election year like this the party in power figures to lose some seats in Congress anyway.

This year, the Democrats probably will suffer more than the usual losses if the voters are disillusioned with the administration, and apparently they are to an increasing degree.

Yet, for many months, despite the great general concern about the war, he has refrained from a full-length explanation to the nation about it, even though this might have helped smother the "doves" and critics on his back.

Silence, however, did have a certain value. The Vietnamese situation, despite some military progress, has been uncertain, with the danger of the government and people in Viet Nam tumbling into political chaos.

REACTION WOULD BE WORSE

If that had happened, after Johnson presented a sunnier picture, the reaction would have been far worse than if he had kept quiet. Johnson could choose to be quiet, and he did. He won't have that choice much longer.

Although this Congress set a fabulous record in 1965, it lost its steam this year, and Johnson looks like a poor prophet for predicting it would be ready to complete its work in July.

Now no one is predicting it will finish before Labor Day, at the earliest.

But Johnson will have to make campaign talks for his Democrats before the November elections. He will be a lot more persuasive if the congressional record is good. But, good or poor, he will have to talk.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

SERMON IN STONE

In Pietrasanta, a town of 10,000 on the west coast of Italy, lives a quiet-spoken, square-shouldered priest affectionately called "Padre Thomas."

He's the Rev. Thomas McGlynn, O.P., who has been in this center of marble sculpture for the past 10 years. In addition to his priestly vocation, sculpture has been his second calling since he was a small boy in California.

Father McGlynn has special permission from his superior in the Dominican Order of Preachers to carry on his sculpture in Italy. One of his outstanding monuments is the 15½-ft. marble statue of "Our Lady of Fatima," finished in 1958. It has a prominent place over the door of the Basilica at Fatima, Portugal. Its inspiration was his 1947 meeting with Carmelite Sister Lucy, the survivor of three children who witnessed apparitions. Father McGlynn wrote a book, "The Vision of Fatima," then set about planning the statue that was completed ten years later.

Other works of the hard-working sculptor include one of Martin De Porres, which led to great U.S. interest in this saint. In Ipswich, Mass., is his statue of Blessed Julie Billiart. Father McGlynn has finished many portrait busts of contemporary church personalities including two Popes, Pius XII and Paul VI.

As a priest in Pietrasanta, Father McGlynn is the chaplain at a local prison. He is also chaplain to the cloistered Dominican nuns in nearby Pisa. His full days as priest and artist sum up the philosophy of his religious order. His message of faith and inpiration in God can be seen and felt through his lasting endeavor in marble and bronze.

Confident Living:

Littering Indicates Ego Failure

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

More power to Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson in her campaign to beautify the nation! At a ceremony inaugurating this prettying-up movement the President said something about flowers nodding along every highway, and the picture he drew was a pretty one. I listened to him while eating breakfast so did not get his exact words. But do you know what came to my mind? It was this: Why don't they start with the beer cans!

Dr. PEALE

Seems like I have never seen so many discarded cans along our highways. They say these are strewn along the roadways by teenagers in cars. I wouldn't say teenagers are the only offenders against their country's beauty; but one thing is sure, whoever they are, they are slovenly people without manners or sensitivity. Apparently they were denied any home training, or it just could be they throw empty cans on the living room floors of their own homes.

No one in this country has more public impact to get over to our people an appreciation of the beauties of our country than does the First Lady. We salute her for the interest and effort she is taking.

Also, I would hope that some gifted psychiatrist might see this plea and make a study of the mentality that can ride through some of the noblest landscape God ever created and throw refuse out of car windows with no concern whatsoever. Isn't there a relationship between ordinary neatness and effective organization of personality? Actually, isn't a beer can thrower somewhat of a personality failure?

But let us not despair — all sorts of human beings have been recreated out of all kinds of failure states. I recall a family who lived in a rundown shack years ago. A slatternly wife and an alcoholic husband, they had gradually gone down the skids and having lost all hope they also lost controls. Their home was a mess. Old bottles, cans and rags were strewn over the yard. Nothing was picked up inside the house, beds never made and dishes seemingly never washed.

Then Alcoholics Anonymous worked the miracle of change in the husband. The wife came to us for personality help. She became a truly religious woman, one of the first signs of which was a new neatness in her person. I went out to see them one Saturday afternoon, and there they were with buckets and brushes painting the little house. "How come the painting?" I asked.

"Well," Bill answered, "you see it's like this. We've both cleaned up the inside of our personalities and it just seemed we should get busy and clean up this neglected place also." I went away remembering something about cleanliness being next to godliness.

Has Problems With Friend of the Court

We hear a lot about the Wayne County Friend of the Court, but it is my opinion that our Oakland County Office must run a close second. I realize they have a tremendous number of cases to deal with but if they spent more time getting results instead of thinking up excuses, I think their work load would be lighter.

Perhaps to some people this is an unimportant part of our county government but for mothers with small children to care for, it is our only way of sticking up for our rights.

Question and Answer

What happened to our air raid siren on the State Bank Building? It was placed there to warn people, but it doesn't do much good as it can't be heard even within two miles of downtown.

MRS. PEGGY SMITH
307 ORCHARD LAKE AVE.

REPLY

According to Roy Hetherington, the gasoline driven siren on the bank presented maintenance problems, so an electrical one was purchased two or three years ago and it is on the Public Safety Building. It goes off at 1 p.m. the first Saturday of every month, and Mr. Hetherington says it's just as loud as the other one. He says you may not have heard it if the wind was in the wrong direction.

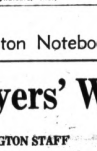
Washington Notebook:

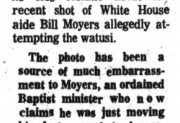
Moyers' Watusi Just Rain Dance

By WASHINGTON STAFF

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Fifteen years ago, Arthur Murray might well have given his right arm for a news photo of Roger Tubby — Harry Truman's press secretary — dancing the tango. Today's dancing instructors are no less ecstatic about the recent shot of White House aide Bill Moyers allegedly attempting the watusi.



The photo has been a source of much embarrassment to Moyers, an ordained Baptist minister who now claims he was just moving his feet around to be sociable.



His partner, Libby Cater, wife of presidential aide Douglas Cater, also makes this claim.

"I really don't know how to do the watusi," she says emphatically. "And, as Bill says, we were just trying to make it rain."

In the early days of the Johnson administration, a White House aide's status was measured by the number of invitations he declined. Key men, the reasoning ran, would have no time for speeches or parties.

This barometer changed as the pressure on the aides to accept various invitations became impossible to resist. Thus their status was measured by the number of times they might be called from the head table to answer a phone call from the President.

But even this reliable yardstick was short - lived. As the staffers worked harder and accepted more invitations, they naturally began to wilt. So, the vogue commentary became, "See how tired he looks," and circles under the eyes became status symbols.

Fortunately for the aides, the pendulum is now beginning to swing the other way. When Vice President Hubert Humphrey spotted presidential aide Michael Manatos at a recent dinner and wistfully remarked, "Mike was fortunate. He got off earlier than I did," every ear in the room pricked up.

Consequently, any White House staffer who can casually let it drop that he got home in time to catch the 11 p.m. news the other night may soon be really in.

Invited to address a luncheon of the Thomas More Society of America, White House aide Joseph Califano admitted the invitation bore an "almost irresistible temptation."

"It would be natural," he said, "to deliver a talk on the topic of 'Utopia and the Great Society.' But I've decided to resist.

"I have no desire to read a headline in tomorrow's newspapers stating: 'White House Aide Says Great Society Is Utopia.'

"I have even less desire to read that 'White House Aide Says Great Society Is Not Utopia.'"

A recent visitor to several East African countries was constantly frustrated by the dim light he found in most hotel rooms.

It seems these nations depend heavily on puny 25-watt bulbs supplied by Red China.

Took Trash Troubles to the Top

DETROIT (AP)—Fighting what he called "the two-can ban," Jack Krueger, a Chrysler Corp. engineer, dumped his uncollected garbage on the suburban Warren City Hall steps.

Friday, June 10, was garbage collection day at the Krueger household in Warren. Out went three 20-gallon cans, five plastic bags of grass clippings and two cartons of assorted junk.

Three days later, the trash truck lumbered through the neighborhood and picked up the contents of two of the cans. The remainder was left on the curb.

Contract troubles have caused Warren to temporarily impose a restriction on the amount of garbage to be collected by city trucks.

'A VICTIM'

"I was a victim of the two-can ban," Krueger complained. "What was I supposed to do? The stuff was beginning to smell."

He called City Hall. He called the police. He tried to call the mayor but got a telephone operator. The mayor has an unlisted number.

Nothing helped. Tuesday morning, Krueger loaded his garbage into his car and drove to City Hall.

In court Friday, charged with violating the city's dumping ordinance, Krueger told the judge, "In 1962, I spent six months in Argentina for my company, and my children had to play in streets full of garbage. This isn't Latin America; this is the fastest growing city in the United States."

The judge agreed and said that was one reason Krueger paid $25.

Careless Pipe Smoker Gets All Fired Up

STAFFORD, Kan. (AP)—Ray Henry was in the chow line at a church supper when he smelled smoke and jokingly asked the man in line behind him if someone had burned the biscuits.

Trash Requests to Be Viewed

Members of the Greater Waterford Community Council are slated to appear before the Waterford Township Board Monday night to discuss a pair of proposals previously requested by the GWCC.

The GWCC has requested the township board to inform state legislators that the community is opposed to throw-away beverage containers and to require builders to place their trash in containers by ordinance.

In other business, the board will discuss a township planning commission recommendation for a detailed flood plain study of the Clinton River.

The study, if given the green light by the township board, will be conducted by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. Federal funds are available.

A major purpose of the study would be to determine the location of areas in the township which might be subject to flooding.

Also to be considered by the board Monday will be a comprehensive development plan for the township as proposed by the planning department and planning commission.

You are seeing Jim's second graduation with "honors"

Tonight your newspaperboy receives a diploma for completing the scholastic requirements of his school. It is a big night for him, his parents and his friends.

Jim is also a graduate in management. This experience as a Junior Independent Merchant taught him . . .

the value of money . . . by having him collect it and keep an accounting record of it;

the need for promptness and giving service . . . without which he finds his business is soon in deep trouble;

the importance of getting along with all kinds of people . . . for they are his customers; the art of salesmanship . . . by which he increases his business and profit and acquires poise and confidence.

Whether Jim goes to college or trade school . . . joins the Armed Forces or gets a job . . . his training as a Newspaperboy gives him a tremendous advantage over boys who graduate only in book learning.

There are more extra-curricular activity demands made on today's young men than ever before. Most of them are good. AIR FORCE TO RESCUE—Air Force Sgt. Ezekial Villa presents a pilot's helmet, with attached oxygen mask, and a model of a plane yesterday to 8-year-old Marco Lopez at Children's Memorial Hospital in Chicago. Marco has a respiratory ailment that requires administration of oxygen four times a day. But he wouldn't allow hospital personnel to place a mask on his face—that is, until they learned of his fondness for the Air Force. Sgt. Villa was called in, and now all systems are go.

More Woe for Detroit Area School Boards

DETROIT (AP) — Actual and threatened teacher strikes caused more problems for Detroit-area school boards Friday.

Detroit public school teachers bargained with representatives of the board of education with a strike threat as ammunition. The 6,000 members of the Detroit Federation of Teachers voted 7-1 Thursday to strike if necessary to reach a contract agreement.

However, Mary Ellen Riordan, federation president, indicated no strike would be called until school reopens in September. One week of school remains in the present term.

Meanwhile, it appeared the Board of Education in suburban Ecorse might have to participate in 388 individual hearings for the 194 striking teachers it fired.

The teachers, who were fired Wednesday, signed form letters Friday demanding an appeal of their dismissal under the Michigan Public Employes Relations Act.

An attorney for the teachers, Bernard Fieger, said the teacher tenure law may be employed for additional appeals.

Several attempts were made to bring the board and Ecorse teachers, who have been on strike since June 3, to the bargaining table.

Fieger said he had asked the Michigan Labor Mediation Board to make mediation available to both sides and to require both to appear.

A group of Ecorse citizens began circulating petitions demanding negotiations.

"We elected you (the school board) to hear teachers, not to fire them," the petitions said.

Chou Urges Romanians to Resist Soviet Mastery

BUCHAREST, Romania (AP) — Red China's premier, encouraging Romanian Communists on the Soviet Union's doorstep to resist Soviet domination, holds more talks today with the independent-minded Romanians.

Radio Peking, monitored in Tokyo, said Chou assured the Romanians Friday that their wish not to be tied down to Moscow "will always have the firm support of the Chinese people."

On his arrival Thursday Chou praised Romania's refusal to take sides in the Soviet-Chinese ideological dispute.

The Romanians have carefully steered a neutral course in the dispute. They have also demanded that East European Communist states have a greater voice in decisions of the Soviet-dominated Warsaw Pact military alliance.

MEETS LEADERS

The Chinese premier met with Romanian leaders Friday for five hours at Communist party headquarters and for three more hours of informal discussion during lunch. Seated at the table with Chou was his deputy foreign minister, Chao Kuan-hua, an expert on Soviet and East European affairs.

A communique described the atmosphere as "cordial and comradely."

Chou goes into conference today with Romanian Communist party chief Nicolae Ceasescu to discuss "international questions of mutual interest."

The Chinese premier is scheduled to sandwich in a tour of southern Romanian provinces Sunday and Monday, then return to the capital Tuesday night for more talks. He leaves Friday, presumably to visit Communist Albania, China's only European ally.

NO. 1 TOPIC

Romanian and Chinese officials were tight-lipped about the agenda for their talks, but informed sources said they believe the No. 1 topic is the Peking-Moscow struggle for world Communist leadership.

Chou and Ceasescu also are expected to take a long look at the troubled Warsaw Pact, the Communist East European counterpart to the Western alliance. The Romanians reportedly have opposed any Soviet efforts to drag Warsaw Pact members into the dispute with China. Romania also rejects Soviet moves for tight integration of the member nations' defense policies.

Ceasescu is believed certain to put forth these views here July 5 at the scheduled Warsaw Pact summit conference of Soviet and East European premiers and Communist party chiefs.

In Moscow, the Soviet Union announced Friday night that the Warsaw Pact foreign ministers met there to discuss European security.

40 Will Attend First Meeting of UF Planners

Some 40 areawide community leaders selected to serve on the initial Planning Committee of the Pontiac Area United Fund, will hold their first meeting Monday at 4 p.m. at the Community Services Building, 132 Franklin Blvd.

Duties, functions and operating procedures of a planning council will be explained and a slate of oficers presented, according to Bruce J. Annett, president of the Pontiac Area UF Board of Trustees.

The planning committee has been developed as a recognized community need by the Board of Trustees and was recommended by a recent survey of the UF to carry out a program of planning, study and research for area health, welfare and youth serving agencies.

Pastor to Serve Home Missions

They've started saying goodbye to the Rev. Arnold Q. Hashman, one of Pontiac's favorite ministers.

The Men's Fellowship of the First Assembly of God Church will honor Pastor Hashman with a dinner tonight at the Pied Piper. Many local business men are included in the group.

Rev. Mr. Hashman who is terminating his ministry here June 26, will continue his work with Home Missions in the Michigan District where he is presbyter overseeing some 30 churches and planning others.

The congregation will hold an open house for the Rev. and Mrs. Hashman from 7 to 9 p.m. on June 25 in the church educational annex.

Friends and members of the community are invited.

Pastor Hashman formerly of Benton Harbor came to Pontiac in September 1959.

Ordained by the General Council of Assemblies of God at Springfield, Mo., he has held pastorates in Ohio and Michigan and served as president of the Michigan District of the denomination, and as presbyter of Southwestern Michigan.

Under the ministry of Pastor Hashman the Sunday School has grown to over 700. The average attendance during the past year was 532.

BURN MORTGAGE

The educational building, a three-story unit, was erected four years ago at the cost of $90,000 with furnishings. The mortgage was burned at a special service in 1965.

The church has undergone a remodeling program with air conditioning installed in the sanctuary.

The congregation gives support to 13 missionary families each month. The church is among the 10 leading churches in missionary giving in the State Pastor Hashman said.

The musical ministry of the church has been under the direction of Mrs. Hashman.

The Hashmans will visit their three grown children in Santa Barbara, Calif. before devoting full time to the home mission work.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

The Sunday School Departments will sponsor a Vacation Daily Bible School at the First Assembly of God Church later in the summer.

MEMORIAL BAPTIST

Vacation Bible School will be held in the evening at Memorial Baptist Church, 599 Michigan Monday through Friday. Classes are scheduled from 7 to 9 p.m.

Jesse Potter, superintendent for the period, said there will be classes for everyone from three years of age and up — through the adult department.

A picnic is planned for June 25.

The Gospel Light Press course will be taught.

A demonstration of the work accomplished at the Bible School will be given at 7 p.m. on June 26.

The church bus will call for those needing transportation, Pastor Gerald Rapelje said.

CENTRAL METHODIST

Mrs. John Sawyers will be in charge of the Vacation Bible School at Central Methodist Church, 3882 Highland, Waterford Township.

The Sunday School department of Covert Methodist Church will join with the Central Church in sponsoring the school.

Classes, starting Monday, will continue through July 1. Hours are 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

DONELSON BAPTIST

Beginning Monday Donelson Baptist Church, Elizabeth Lake at Tilden, will conduct a five-day Vacation Bible School with classes from 9 a.m. to noon.

Programs are prepared for preschool children through high school age groups. Leaders will use the course prepared by The Gospel Light Press.

Activities will include hand work, Bible stories and Bible memory projects along with recreation.

According to Pastor Lee LaLone, bus transportation will be available by calling the church office.

ORCHARD LAKE

Mrs. Carol Davidson will direct the Vacation Church School beginning Monday at the Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian. The school will continue for two weeks.

There will be classes for all age groups from kindergarten through junior high age young people.

Christian Koch director of Christian education at the Orchard Lake Church, left last week with his wife for Alaska to visit their son, David, pastor of the Hillcrest United Presbyterian Church in Anchorage.

The Kochs will serve as church consultants during their stay.

Fred Fuller and Sylvia Pascuau will sing "Be Thou Exalted" by Huhn at both the 9 and 11 a.m. services tomorrow. Pastor Edward D. Auchard will preach on "The Inescapable Choice."

The First Presbyterian Church of Detroit will celebrate 150 years of service in the Detroit Metropolitan area tomorrow.

Rev. and Mrs. Henry D. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swan will represent the Orchard Lake Church.

Marimont Men Mark Dad's Day

Tomorrow is not only Father's Day at Marimont Baptist Church, but also Laymen's Sunday with men of the congregation participating in all services.

In the 8:30 morning worship hour Dennis Vincent will offer the invocation and Al Somers will read the Scripture and announcements. Elswood Lundeen will offer prayer and Robert Gavette will bring the message.

Taking part in the 11 a.m. service will be Jack Hassenzahl, Jack Seiber and Charles Plumb with Rod Attwater, the speaker.

Robert Crichton will speak at 7:30 p.m. assisted by Dalep Karem, Norris Smith and Robert Vogel.

Following the service a reception will honor the Rev. and Mrs. Phillip Somers on their 30th wedding anniversary.

Vacation Bible School beginning Monday will continue for two weeks. Hours are 9 to 11:30 a.m.

Lutherans to Dedicate First Unit Sunday

The Rev. Howard Christensen, assistant to the president of the Michigan Synod of the Lutheran Church in America, will speak at the dedication of the first unit of Incarnate Word Lutheran Church at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Special music will be by Helen Remsberg.

Members and friends are invited to an open house at 5 p.m.

The vesper service will begin at 6 with the Rev. C. William Pearson, pastor of the Lutheran Church of Our Master, Troy, guest speaker.

The $77,720 building, designed by Glen Paulsen & Associates of Birmingham, is situated on a four-acre site at 2101 Opdyke between Square Lake and South Boulevard.

The exterior is of red brick with wood trim of charcoal gray.

The flat roof over the narthex is covered with white crushed marble to aid in the illumination of a gold painted cross which is supported by four exposed beams.

The cross will be lighted at night.

The interior walls are of expanded slag block, painted off white. A gray flecked tile floor covering is used throughout. Gold carpeting covers the chancel area.

The building divided into a temporary chapel seating 125 also contains a nursery, study, storage space and a large multi-purpose room.

OPENS IN 1960

Incarnate Word Church first met as a congregation on Sept. 25, 1960 in the Auburn Heights Community Building, Pontiac Township under the leadership of Arthur J. Basler, mission developer.

Sixty-two persons signed the charter for organization on Jan. 29, 1961. The Rev. Mr. Basler called as the first pastor, served until his resignation on March 1, 1964.

The present pastor, the Rev. Robert L. Franklin, accepted a call in April 1964. He began his ministry on Sept. 1, the same year.

A groundbreaking service was held June 13, 1965 and construction started in August by Wake-Pratt.

The first service was held in the new building on Pentecost Sunday May 29. Future plans call for three additional structures, including a large central sanctuary which will surround a courtyard.

REV. CHARLES WHITFIELD

Professor Speaks

Graduates Receive Degrees

The Rev. Charles Whitefield, pastor of Grace Baptist Church in Birmingham, received an honorary doctor of divinity degree from Midwestern Baptist Seminary during graduation exercises this week.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Whitfield of 544 W. Iroquois.

A graduate of Pontiac Central High School, the Rev. Mr. Whitfield was the first alumnus of the seminary to receive the degree.

He also is currently a professor of Bible history at Midwestern Baptist Schools.

O'BERRY

Lt. Doris C. O'Berry, daughter of Mrs. John O'Berry and the late Mr. O'Berry of 20 Sheridan, was commissioned a lieutenant in the Salvation Army in Chicago last week.

She will be stationed at Booth Memorial Hospital, Des Moines, Iowa.

A member of the Pontiac Citadel, Lt. O'Berry received her commission at the Salvation Army School for Officers where she trained two years.

She plays alto horn in the band as well as several other instruments.

HERTEL

The Rev. William A. Hertel, a graduate of Garrett Theological Seminary in Evanston, Ill. this month with a bachelor of divinity degree, was ordained elder in the Methodist Church by Bishop Dwight Loder at Albion.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo C. Hertel of 654 N. Perry.

A graduate of Adrian College, the Rev. Mr. Hertel is currently serving as associate pastor of the First Methodist Church in Niles.

At the session of the Michigan Annual Conference he was assigned to the Methodist Church in White Cloud as pastor. With his wife, Jan, he will move there this week.

GRAHAM

Speaking at First Christian Church tomorrow will be Dr. Ronald W. Graham, professor of New Testament and assistant to the dean at the Divinity School of Drake University.

A native of Australia and banker before World War II, Dr. Graham began his ministerial training at the close of the war.

In 1956 Dr. Graham came to America to pursue graduate studies at Drake University.

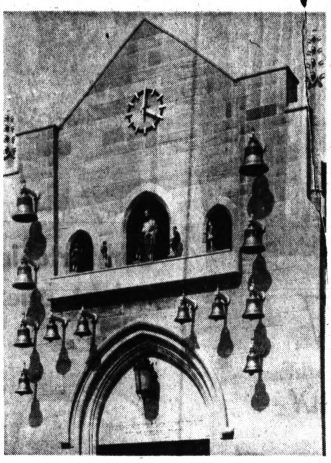
Following graduation with a master's degree in New Testament in 1958, he was invited to join the staff as acting professor in church history. He is married and has three children.



BELLS OF BLESSING — Above the doorway to the kindergarten room at Kirk in the Hills, Bloomfield Township are 12 cast bronze bells, imported from The Netherlands. Called a chrome-chime, the bells play familiar childhood hymns every hour on the hour from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. except during services. As the bells ring the figure of Christ enters from the center and two portals open. Each child passing by pauses for a moment facing the Christ who blesses each in turn.

Youth Plan Activities

Has Guest Speaker

Dr. Allen Rice, associate pastor of Metropolitan Methodist Church, Detroit, will be guest speaker tomorrow at First Methodist Church with the subject, "I Believe in God."

The son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Merton Rice, formerly in charge of the Metropolitan Church, Dr. Rice is the author of many articles and pamphlets in various church periodicals.

The Booster Class will get together for a 6 p.m. dinner Wednesday, then attend the 7:30 p.m. service.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL

Children's Day will be observed at the 10:30 a.m. service in First Congregational Church. At 9 a.m. the Youth Choir will sing and Pastor Malcom K. Burton will preach on "He Feedeth on Ashes."

Young people are planning a picnic at the home of Nancy Howell, 4512 S. Shore, Waterford Township June 25. The afternoon program will begin at 2 and close at 8 p.m.

Starting June 26, service will be at 9:30 a.m. and continue through the summer months at the same hour.

CHURCH OF ATONEMENT

"Chip Off the Old Block" will be the sermon theme of Pastor Crea M. Clark at the Church of Atonement, 3535 Clintonville, Waterford Township tomorrow.

Two identical worship services will begin tomorrow, the first at 8:30 and the second at 10:45 a.m.

Church School classes for all ages will continue to meet at 9:30 a.m.

AUBURN HEIGHTS

The sacrament of Holy Communion will be observed during worship at 11 a.m. tomorrow. Pastor F. William Palmer will give the meditation entitled "When Your Children Ask."

At 7 p.m. Senior High Fellowship will meet with Ruth Byers to plan summer activities.

The Couples Club is sponsoring a Family Night at the ball game between the Tigers and Minnesota Twins Friday. Those attending are asked to be at the church before 6:15 p.m.

Time, Effort Produce Setting

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

Fifteen years and 2,000 loads of dirt later, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Schjolin can sit back and admire the results of their planning and planting.

Their charming Cape Cod home, found on Stonybrook Lane in Bloomfield Township, peeks out on one of the most extensive wildflower collections in the area.

A quiet stream meanders across the site cutting it in two sections.

"It took 2,000 loads of dirt," said Mrs. Schjolin, "to reclaim the property on the other side of the bridge. It was nothing but a swampy bog."

Narrow pathways cut into the ravine allow visitors to view closely dainty pink lady's slippers, colonies of Jack-in-the-pulpits, varieties of violets, gay columbine and hundreds of other wild specimens.

PLACE OF BEAUTY

"We tried to create," said Mrs. Schjolin, leading the way down a trail, "a place of beauty, pleasant to see, to hear and to smell."

As wafts of spicy perfume from the blossoming downy phlox hitch rides on the light spring breezes and wild bird calls filter through the woodland silence, there's no question but what the Schjolins have achieved their goal.

A large bay, curtained in heirloom lace belonging to Mrs. Schjolin's family, serves to integrate the outdoor landscape and the living room's interior.

The room's colors of gold, green, brown and rust emphasize further the family's love of the outdoors.

Included in the grouping on the room's corner fireplace are an antique clock, bronzes from Vienna, an Egyptian copper plate and a candelabrum.

"The clock," said Mrs. Schjolin, "is over 300 years old and stil in excellent operating condition. That is, when I remember to wind it."

Pointing to a bronze figurine centering an antique chest of drawers, Mrs. Schjolin added, "I discovered that statue in Nagasaki, Japan, on the Street of Sacred Ancestors.

"It is an antique God of Mercy that survived the atomic bombing of World War II."

In the nearby study, Mr. Schjolin has displayed his collection of antique firearms.

"Note the small one over the old Swedish chest," said Mrs. Schjolin. "It's a lady's muff pistol."

An early 19th century Ingres hangs above the loveseat covered in a burgundy print.

NOT FANCY, BUT NICE—This four-bedroom, two-story colonial manages to convey an air of comfort, charm and livability without expensive frills. Inside, the theme of comfortable living is carried out via a practical room arrangement.

Two-Story Colonial Has Popular Charm

Any public preference which lasts from generation to generation must be based on solid value.

That applies particularly to the two-story colonial house, which has remained high on the popularity list despite the introduction of many new styles over the years.

Attempting to explain the reason for this continuing popularity is not easy, since the colonial, which has many variations within itself, is lacking in spectacular features.

This might be its biggest asset: that nothing about it overwhelms you. Instead, there is a kind of balanced, familiar charm that exudes warmth and good cheer.

The latest House of the Week, for example, has a pleasant, homey appearance about it.

HISTORY REPEATS

And if architectural history repeats itself, its combination of narrow clapboards, red cedar V-joint vertical boards, diamond-paned windows and pitched asphalt-shingled roof will be as stylish 50 years from now as it was 50 years ago and as it is today.

Inside, there are four bedrooms and 2½ baths with a total of 2,033 square feet of habitable area on two floors.

The unusually large and impressive foyer designed by architect William Chirgotis is the key to efficient circulation, distributing traffic effectively throughout the first floor divisions and the second-floor bedrooms.

The living room and the dining room are at either side of the foyer; the living room with two separate windows, the dining room with a bay window.

An attractive staircase leads directly from the foyer to the bedrooms. An open, spacious stairwell eliminates any feeling of congestion on the second floor.

The master bedroom has a private full bath, with a stall shower and a full-wall mirrored vanity.

The kitchen and family room are at the rear of the first floor, but can be reached directly from the foyer without crossing any other rooms.

EATING SPACE

The 15' of width across the back of the kitchen provides sufficient eating accommodations for the entire family, and the right side of the room has been designated in the floor plans as a dinette.

Two windows, one over the sink and one in the dining area, provide plenty of natural light besides affording a clear view of the backyard.

There is a lavatory between the kitchen and the family room. Sliding glass doors in the family room take full advantage of the view, light and access to the rear patio and garden areas.

A fireplace surrounded by a full brick wall highlight the family room.

On the other side of the kitchen is the laundry room, with access to the outside as well as to the two-car garage.

The garage also has a rear door, which makes it handy for putting away garden tools, toys, lawn chairs and the like.

While the plans call for garage doors at the side, these doors could be located at the front if the width of the lot did not permit a driveway at the side.

Design G-41 is for the family that wants modern living inside, old-fashion enchantment outside.

G-41 STATISTICS

Design G-41 has a foyer, living rom, dining room, kitchen-dinette, family room, laundry room and lavatory on the first floor; four bedrooms and two bathrooms on the second floor. Total habitable area of the two floors is 2,033 square feet. Over-all dimensions, including the two-car garage, are 67' 6" by 24' 6". The plans include a full basement.

Improve Look of Home With Accessories

If your home is 10 years old or older and you are tired of it looking like every other home on the block, you can give it a spruce up to end all spruce ups by taking advantage of developments in the painted aluminum field.

Aluminum awnings, door canopies, an aluminum breezeway or carport, plus aluminum shutters will transform a look-alike home into something special.

Choose a basic color or motif or scheme and following it throughout the entire awning, canopy, breezeway and shutter installations. The color scheme should contrast suitably with the rest of your home's exterior.

The bright-colored aluminum awnings and other products will give you several advantages besides visual beauty.

For one thing, they can go for years without repainting or other maintenance.

Only You Can Decide the Kind of House That Meets Needs

If you're an experienced home owner looking for a new house, chances are you know exactly what you want.

But if you're building or buying your first home, inexperience can cost you time, trouble and money.

One way to avoid mistakes is to profit by the experience of your home-owning friends. But relying too heavily on their advice could be your first mistake.

Only you can decide what kind of house best meets your own needs.

The size of your family, the ages of its members, family interests, and the amount of entertaining you do will help determine your choice.

If you have a young and growing family, for example, you might outgrow a small house in a few years.

An older couple, on the other hand, must reckon with the day their children will leave home. Too big a house can be a burden in later years.

If you're used to having repair and maintenance handled by a landlord, you may be surprised at the time and money required to keep up houses.

Your best safeguard against upkeep problems is to be sure the building materials in your house offer high quality, durability and low maintenance.

WILL LAST LONGER

A roof covered with heavyweight asphalt shingles will last longer without repairs or replacement than ordinary roofs. These shingles are available with guarantees up to 25 years against defects.

Frequent painting of exteriors can be expensive and burdensome.

The cost of having a house painted professionally varies in different parts of the country.

It's a good idea to check the exterior closely to determine what kind of maintenance will be required.

Some exterior materials, such as mineral fiber shingles or brick, do not need to be painted and can be kept clean with an occasional washing.

The over-all appearance of your house is of prime importance.

Changing an architectural style can be extremely expensive, so be sure you're getting a style you'll be happy with.

Like everything else in the house you buy, you'll have to live with it a long time.

Vacation Homes Are in Demand

Vacation homes . . . leisure homes . . . second homes.

Whatever you prefer to call them, they're currently among the most dynamic factors in the entire housing field. Demand for vacation homes is already strong and getting stronger for several reasons.

As a rule, vacation homes are located in pleasant seashore, lakeshore or wooded locales within convenient driving distance of the owner's regular abode. Thus, they're useful on weekends as well as at vacation time. Real estate costs in secluded spots are generally lower than in congested urban or suburban areas.

A-frame vacation homes are ultra-modern versions of the ancient Indian tepee. The name derives from the fact that from a front view the home resembles a streamlined letter "A." Because of this contouring, outer walls and roof are one and the same from which stems important savings.

IDEAL MEDIUM

The system offers an ideal medium for jointly utilizing the strength and beauty of wood. While over-all appearance is light and airy, the elements of structure are solid and strong. The A-frame is formed by diagonally erected beams converging at the roof apex under a sweeping canopy of wood roof decking.

Both beams and decking can be beautifully finished and exposed to decorate the interior. As a result, a warm feeling of the forests fills the rooms. A-frame homes can be one or more stories, depending on family requirements.

If a vacation home is built on oceanshore or gulfshore, raised-type construction is recommended for safety's sake.

With wood-pole frame construction, pressure treated wood poles are imbedded directly in the sand with the house built around their upper extremities. This elevation removes the home from the direct impact of hurricane spawned tidal waves which can pass underneath.

Shade Roof Cuts Heat, Glare on Patio

June is a good month for many householders to consider the creation of a patio sunshade.

In most parts of the country, a sunshade is essential if the patio is to be enjoyed during the warm, sun-filled hours of the day.

It's a sad fact that paving absorbs, retains and reflects heat so that the unprotected patio becomes a veritable griddle early in the day and an oven by mid-afternoon.

With an overhead sunshade, however, much of the heat problem is licked and the patio takes on a more attractive appearance to boot.

To do the best job, a sunshade must allow free movement of air, permitting release of rising warmed air and its replacement by cooler air drawn from the surrounding garden.

Thus a shade roof built of spaced slats or an open trellis supporting leafy vines will do a far better job than a structure roofed solidly with plastic, wood, canvas, or metal.

Think of it in terms of basic air conditioning principles as opposed to the greenhouse effect created by solid roofing, particularly of translucent materials.

It's not difficult to build a shade roof. They're basically just an assembly of posts and beams.

One easy system uses pairs of Douglas fir 2x4s for the posts, with the beam nailed between so that the post members clasp it.

The beam may be 2x4 if its span (the width of the patio) doesn't exceed eight feet.

For an eight to twelve foot span, use a 2x6. At the bottom of the post, set in a 4-inch spacer block cut from a 2x4 to make a solid butt.

These, and the joining of post and beam, should be triple nailed to prevent twisting.

The post and beam units can then be erected at eight-foot intervals along the patio's length, each unit spanning the width of the paving.

One - by - four - inch boards, 1x2s, or 2x2s are run lengthwise across the top, nailed into each beam. A half inch to one inch spacing is left between the roofing boards.

Post butts are attached to the paving with a post anchor, a stirrup-like affair that holds the post slightly above the patio to allow rain water to drain away.

If posts are to be placed beyond the patio's edge, they can be mounted on a concrete pier.

Recommended woods for the project are Douglas fir, white fir, western red cedar and incense cedar.

All weather attractively and quickly, and all will take a stain or paint finish handsomely, if preferred.

Check List for Manners on Phone

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Considering how much the telephone is used today, the lack of attention to telephone manners is incredible. We tend to forget that the person on the other end of the line cannot see our expression or gestures — he can only judge the caller by the tone of voice, and what is said.

In the following statements one of the conclusions is preferable to the other two. The alternates are not necessarily unacceptable. Can you spot the preferred conclusions?

1. The most satisfactory way to answer (or to have a maid answer) the telephone in your home is:
   a. "Hello."
   b. "Mrs. Smith's residence."
   c. "Yes, who is this calling?"
2. When making a long-distance call you should:
   a. Speak loudly — after all the person on the other end of the line may be hundreds of miles away.
   b. Prepare a list of subjects you wish to talk about so that you don't waste precious time.
   c. Always call person-to-person.
3. When a telephone caller reaches a wrong number in a business office, the person who answers should say:
   a. "Wrong number," and hang up.
   b. "There's no one here by that name. What number did you want?"
   c. "You must have the wrong number; this is Main 7-4321."
4. When you place a call to someone in a business office, you:
   a. Need not identify yourself until you reach the person you are calling.
   b. Announce yourself to the switchboard operator or secretary as "Sam Jones."
   c. Should not make a second call on another line, or attend to other business, while waiting for the one you have called to get on the phone.

What is your most puzzling etiquette problem? To the sender of the most interesting question that we receive each week, we'll send a free copy of Emily Post's "Etiquette," revised by Elizabeth L. Post.

Send your question to Elizabeth L. Post, in care of The Pontiac Press, and don't forget to include your name and address!

Son Issues Mother Ultimatum on New Father for 'Y' Banquet

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a divorcee with a 13-year-old son. This lad has delivered me an ultimatum. He is to have a "father" of his own by the next Fathers and Sons dinner at the "Y."

ABBY

I have tried to assure him that I've been looking, but haven't found one yet. He has threatened to get his own, and believe me, Abby, if you could see some of the playmates he brings home, you would understand my concern.

When I say I have been looking I am not joking. I have joined the church choir, Parents Without Partners, Girl Scouts (leader), and have even volunteered to chaperone teen dances hoping to find an eligible male my age.

I have even gone to some of the better bars and lounges thinking I might meet a nice, lonesome guy who wants a ready-made family. No dice.

There is one young man, however. He's my age. He doesn't drink and doesn't date. (He's shy.) I think I can wrangle a date with him. Should I go after him (subtly) or should I be honest and tell him what I have in mind for him?

"LOOKING"

DEAR LOOKING: If you tell him what you have "in mind," you are out of yours. Now you deliver your son an ultimatum. Tell him you are not about to sit across the breakfast table for the rest of your life with a hastily grabbed off character just so he can go to the next Fathers and Sons dinner at the "Y."

DEAR ABBY: A good-looking woman, who doesn't have such a hot reputation, lives near me. Last week I saw one of my friends in the market, and she said, "I saw Milton (that's my husband) driving down the street with Bobbie (that's the woman with the not-so-hot reputation) the other day." I laughed it off.

When Milton got home that night I asked him how come he was riding around with Bobbie in his car. He said she was walking toward home, so he gave her a ride. When I asked him why, he didn't tell me about it, he said he forgot. Do you think he could really forget? Or should I check with Bobbie to see what her story is?

SMELLING A RAT

DEAR SMELLING: Don't check with Bobbie. If your husband has behaved himself in the past, believe him. If he hasn't, believe him anyway. A man who is playing games with a woman of not-so-hot reputation is not about to parade her around in broad daylight.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WISHING:" Benjamin Franklin once said, "If a man could have half his wishes, he would double his troubles." (No wonder someone told him to go fly a kite.)

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

Newlywed Mr. and Mrs. James Timothy Roberts (Nathalie Clara Daniels) greeted 300 guests in the Kingsley Inn after their marriage today in Holy Name Church, Birmingham.

Rev. James MacDonald performed the ceremony for the couple whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Michael E. Daniels of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. H. Harold Roberts of Corry, Pa.

With her chapel-length gown of white silk peau de soie, the bride wore an heirloom diamond locket and fingertip veil of illusion. She carried gardenias.

With honor matron, Mrs. John Roberts of Manchester, Conn., were bridesmaids, Judith Ridley, Riverside, Calif., Jeanne Jeffery, Puce, Ont. and Julie Chamberlain, East Lansing. Beth Roberts and John Myal were flower girl and ring-bearer.

John H. Roberts was best man for his brother. Ushering were Patrick Daniels, Eric Ziegler and Robert Kosak, of Detroit; John Sterling, Jonesville, and Pfc. Jack Daniels, USAF, Fort Belvoir, Va.

The couple who are seniors at Michigan State University are enrolled for summer term.

Wed today in Holy Name Church, Birmingham, were Nathalie Clara Daniels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael E. Daniels of Birmingham, and James Timothy Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Harold Roberts of Corry, Pa.

Moving Tips May Spare Time, Money

Each year 20 per cent of all the families in the U.S. change their place of residence. A growing number of these families move to different states.

If you are anticipaiting a long-distance move, a noted insurance company offers these tips:

● Obtain a written medical check list for each member of the family from your doctor. This list should be a complete medical history of the person, including recurring or permanent injuries and diseases; immunizations already administered, and those still due; operations and childhood diseases already undergone; any drugs the person is allergic to.

● Remember to secure copies of the eyeglass prescriptions for members of the family who wear glasses. Glasses are frequently broken or lost, and without a prescription, an optometrist must administer another eye examination before prescribing a new pair of spectacles.

● Obtain written transcripts of the complete school records of each child. These transcripts are necessary to register the child in a new school system.

● Upon establishing your new residence, immediately notify your insurance company (s) of the change by telephone. By mail, notify your old and new post office, your draft board, and your social security office if you are collecting benefits.

By following the above tips, you could spare yourself hardship and even save yourself some money.

Nancy Ellen Fitch of Worcester, Mass., holds the shoes she will wear at her wedding. They have been in her family since 1620 and were given to one of her ancestors by William Brewster during the Mayflower's voyage to America. Made in England in 1417, the slippers still bear label of the maker John H. Hose. Their construction cups the feet in such a way that they will fit nearly any size foot.

Every Eye Will Focus on Her Feet As This Bride Steps to the Altar

By HOLCOMB B. NOELE

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — Nancy Ellen Fitch said today she has a gnawing fear that when she steps to the altar to be married today — everybody in church will be staring at her feet.

"I've thought of wearing a sign around my neck saying 'Bride' but I suppose that wouldn't be in keeping with the general tone of the wedding, she said.

"So, I guess I'll just have to keep smiling."

Nancy, 24, is marrying John M. Rainier, 23, Tulsa, Okla., who is studying for his doctorate in science at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The lure of Nancy's feet, which she said "are not historic at all," is that they will be inside a pair of beautifully preserved green satin slippers that are believed to be 549 years old.

Nancy got them out of a 1912 shoe box, to which her mother, Geraldine, had returned them after her wedding in 1935.

The family says the shoes have been handed down from mother to daughter ever since Sarah Jane Willey got them from William Brewster aboard the Mayflower in 1620.

Nancy is a direct descendant of Sarah Jane Willey, the family said, but how Sarah Jane came to get the slippers from Brewster, a spiritual leader of Plymouth Colony, is uncertain.

How did the same pair of shoes fit all those different size feet? It's in the construction.

Nancy said the wedding shoes are the widest at the ball of the foot and cup it in such a way that it fits almost any size.

She said the shoes still bear the label of their shoemaker, John Hose, 1417, and that they were made in England.

Auxiliary Elects Officers

Mrs. Russell Jokela of Kenmoor Road, president of the Women's Auxiliary to the Oakland County Dental Auxiliary, recently entertained incoming officers at a luncheon.

Mrs. William Daines, Warwick Drive, is president-elect; Mrs. Peter Gryson, Burnley Drive, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles Lewis, Madison Heights, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Duane Bigsby, Middle Belt Road, West Bloomfield Township, treasurer.

Serving on the board of directors are Mesdames D. S. Fields, Jack Coates, W. E. Boehinger, R. H. Smith, J. C. Maddox, Ronald Jenkins, Harlow Bates, George Marin and James Riley.

OUTLINES PROGRAMS

Mrs. Fields outlined programs for the coming year and Mrs. Boehinger announced her committee's participation in Dental Health Week next February.

The state auxiliary named Mrs. Jokela, chairman of Dental Health Education and Mrs. Jenkins, treasurer.

Mrs. Gerald Dietz of Woodedge Drive is elected president of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Association of Endodontics.

Salt Harms Metal

Salted food left in aluminum utensils can pit the metal. Better to put leftovers in another container and wash the aluminum one.

The Russell F. Mehlbergs of Auburn Road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sandra, to Glenn R. O'Rourke, son of the Edmund O'Rourkes of Nichols Road, Avon Township. She attends the Henry Ford Hospital School of Nursing and her fiance studies at the Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Couple Home After Vows, Florida Trip

At home in Grand Rapids after a honeymoon at Pompano Beach, Fla. are Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Winthrop Watkins (Suzan Kraus) who were wed in St. Mary's of the Snows, Milford.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Kraus and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watkins all of Milford.

For the rite performed by Rev. Elmer Mahoney and the dinner-reception in Highland Manor, the bride chose white silk organza over taffeta. Her attendants were Linda Living, Mrs. Lowell Franklin and Cathy Klomp.

Douglas Watkins was his brother's best man with Dennis and Craig Greinwhan and James Mendham seating the guests.

PAYING TOO MUCH?
Some people believe that the medicines they use to restore or to maintain good health cost too much.
However, the President's Council of Economic Advisers, in its 1965 Annual Report, emphasized that the cost of prescription medicines and other drugs has steadily declined over the past five years, while costs of all other consumer items have increased.
Today's modern medicines and medical care are truly worth the investment you make in good health for you and your loved ones.

Musty Odor Cause Isolated

By SCIENCE SERVICE

WASHINGTON — The cause of musty odors has been isolated by three University of Iowa scientists.

* * *

Responsible for the unpleasant smell of damp basements, stagnant water and old potato bins are a group of organisms called actinomycetes, reported Drs. John D. Dougherty, Richard D. Campbell and Robert L. Morris.

Drs. Dougherty and Morris are with the State Hygienic Laboratory at the University of Iowa, Iowa City. Dr. Campbell is in the chemistry department.

Actinomycetes, whose natural habitat is the soil, also grow abundantly on biological material and in water.

Lady or Laddie? These Tips May Help

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Ever ask a young fellow for a light and then suddenly realize you are talking to a young lady?

Well, don't brood about it, the mistake is a natural one.

People dress so much alike, talk so much alike, and act so much alike, and it is small wonder that it is becoming harder to tell one sex from the other.

BOYLE

A keen student of the subject still can note certain key differences that tell him whether a new acquaintance belongs to the male or female gender.

Here are a few examples that may prove helpful:

On a hunting trip if a person is careful never to point a gun at any other member of the party, it is probably a man. If it holds a loaded shotgun between its knees while powdering its nose, it's bound to be a woman.

JACKS? IT'S A JILL

If it plays jacks, it's a girl. If it would rather chunk a rubber ball against the wall, it's a boy.

Does it usually sit with its legs tucked under it? Call it a girl. Does it like to sit with its legs stretched out and the feet crossed? Call it a boy.

Can you pull off the beard it wears at a masquerade ball? That's milady. But if you tug at the beard and it yells "Ouch!" that's milord — or, a million to one chance, a female attraction from a circus sideshow.

Does it have to beg for its lunch money every morning? That's papa. Does it reply each morning, "What are you doing — keeping another woman?" That's mama.

At a bar, does it take its turn in buying a round? You can bet it's a guy. Does it never buy a round? You can bet it's a girl — or the bartender himself.

MR. OR MRS.?

If a motorcycle cop snarls at it and gives it a ticket, that's Mr. Meek driving. If the same cop blows a kiss at it as the car speeds by, that's pretty Mrs. Meek at the wheel.

These tips should enable you to tell the sex of anyone you meet unless it is a teen-ager.

The distinction in that case is not worth bothering about. No one could possibly care what sex a teen-ager belongs to except another teen-ager, and it is probably wiser to let them solve this problem themselves.

Viet Nam Desperately in Need of Doctors

WASHINGTON (NEA) — "Wanted," the classified ad might read, "Doctors for Viet Nam.

"To deal daily for two months with cholera, hookworm, leprosy, malaria, plague, smallpox, tuberculosis, typhoid fever, malnutrition, burns, bullet wounds.

"No pay, but $300 monthly living allowance, free transportation. Contact Project Viet Nam, Washington."

The response to such an ad might not, understandably, be considerable. Nevertheless, some American doctors are leaving their practices for several months to minister to the health needs of Vietnamese.

It's quite a job. The average Vietnamese spends his life in sanitary conditions that would make a Civil War amputation shed look like Bethesda Naval Hospital. That life is not very long, either. Maybe 35 years.

SEWAGE FACILITIES

Sewage facilities, where there are some, are inadequate. Rats breed like rabbits.

How many Vietnamese die each year from filth-bred diseases is not known. There are no statistics, but doctors estimate the death rate of infants less than a year old at between 100 and 275 per 1,000 live births.

And 900 native doctors attempt, vainly, to care for the country's 15 million people. Six hundred of them serve the army and another hundred are in private practice.

Maj. Gen. James Humphreys, the Agency for International Development's public health coordinator in Viet Nam and the doctor who removed the live grenade from a farmer's back, estimates that only one-third of the country's population is able to pay for medical care.

DEPEND ON 200

The other 10 million people depend on the government's 200 doctors, half of whom spend half their time in private practice. This means that there is one doctor for each 100,000 Vietnamese. In the United States, it's one doctor for 730 people.

So the American doctor who volunteers for civilian duty in Viet Nam finds himself in an impossible situation. Why do they come?

Detroiter Killed in Viet

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department said Friday that Army Sgt. James C. Wallace, husband of Mrs. Betty M. Wallace of Detroit, has been killed in action in Viet Nam.

3 Die as Truck Hits Car Near Gladwin

GLADWIN (AP) — Three persons were killed Friday when a truck slammed into the side of their car at an intersection six miles east of here.

Gladwin County deputies identified the victims as Dale Harry Estherton, 71, and his 51-year-old wife, June Rose, both of Midland, and Edwin Eastman Brintnell, 82, of Flint.

Deputies said the car driven by Estherton failed to stop for a stop sign at the intersection M61 and M30 and was hit broadside by a large truck.

Dr. Gene Schulze, a psychiatrist from Flatonia, Tex., who spent two months working at the only mental institution in Viet Nam, says:

"I was confused about Viet Nam. Should we be here? Should we get out? So I came here to find out. I've never had a trip before where someone else paid the bill. The idea of the government spending money on me instead of vice versa was too good to turn down."

PLANS TO RETURN

Dr. Schulze plans to wrap up his affairs in Texas and return for another eight months in Viet Nam where he reports there is "lots of schizophrenia, frequently paranoid, which is rare in the United States."

This particular program, Project Viet Nam, was launched last July and is sponsored by the People-to-People Health Foundation and financed by AID.

Most medical aid to Viet Nam flows through the American embassy's U.S. Operations Mission, AID's local branch in Saigon. The health program's current budget is $8 million, a sizeable amount but minuscule compared to America's total annual economic assistance to Viet Nam of $600 million.

Several Dozen Soviets Killed in Bus Crash

MOSCOW (UPI) — A bus wreck yesterday in Mamontkova, 20 miles north of Moscow, killed several dozen Russians, it was reported today.

The newspaper Banner of Lenin reported the accident, saying "there are victims" but giving no details.

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Sunday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 - Apr. 19): Fine for getting together with family members. Warm glow results from reunion, expressions of appreciation, love. Reach out and give, in turn—you also receive.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 - May 20): You can improve relations with neighbors, relatives. MONEY IDEAS COME TO FORE. Day to give full play to intellectual curiosity. Talk with spiritual adviser helpful.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20): Keynote willingness to share. Applies especially where family members are concerned. Give of your time, efforts. Others help you appreciate your assets. Be with loved ones.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22): Cycle high. Element of luck, timing on your side. Day features pleasures from social contacts. You can realize some of fondest hopes, desires. Take initiative.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22): In any family reunion . . . emphasize quiet celebration. Have heart-to-heart talk with one who means much to you. Don't force issues. Emphasize SERENITY.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22): You can find out what others think, believe. Friendly discussion brings forth knowledge. Emphasis on wishes, fulfillment of desires. Express yourself!

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22): Excellent for giving and receiving gifts. Compliment one who deserves it. In return you could also receive accolade. Key is being generous. Special project can be completed.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21): Obtain hint from LIBRA message. Welcome relatives, encourage family reunions. Keep communication lines open. Day to add to knowledge. If alert, you gain vital information.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21): Check resources. Know what goes out, comes in. When mate or partner discusses money . . . keep open mind. But also insist on having own opinions heard.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19): Your "public image" improves. You have chance to show appreciation. Do so! Let mate or partner take initiative. You are made happy by loved one. Express warmth.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18): You are due to be repaid for efforts to please, entertain. Don't be influenced by grumpy associate. Guard health. Fine for reviewing plans with one who shares interests.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - Mar. 20): You can make favorable changes. Evening favors being with loved one. Creative abilities come to fore. Personal magnetism rating high. You can get your way . . . but choose wisely!

IF SUNDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . you tend to be restless but independent, capable of original thought and of creating methods which save time, money. Would do well as purchasing agent, business manager.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for CANCER, LEO. Special word to CAPRICORN: If you try to keep secret a motive or important action . . . you are in for rude awakening.

For Monday

ARIES (Mar. 21 - Apr. 19): Important to take care of practical matters. Including insurance and real estate, before enlarging scope of activities. Keep future in mind. Don't overlook basics . . . seek approval of authorities.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 - May 20): Income opportunity enhanced if you are open-minded. Avoid scattering forces. If relative appears argumentative . . . be a good listener—and smile!

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20): Key is accomplishment. You are able to add to possessions. But this depends upon willingness to EXPRESS YOURSELF. Speak up! Put ideas on paper . . . circulate plans.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22): Be receptive to "sudden ideas." Intuitive flash could provide answer to dilemma. Know this—react accordingly. Avoid brooding again . . . realize personality rating is now high.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22): Some of your personal problems, questions are brought into open. Don't try to hide basic facts. If you face issues, you succeed. Consider added responsibility as challenge.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22): Communicate with friends, study ways to improve working methods. Air hopes, wishes. Realize many are willing to cooperate. Assume you will succeed—and you do!

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22): If friend has suggestion . . . give it a proper hearing. Fine time for discarding outmoded methods . . . also good for new contacts. Emphasize originality. Romance indicated tonight.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21): Be diplomatic in correspondence. Provide face-saving methods even though others may disagree. Many are willing to make concessions. Realize this—be mature . . . and a good winner.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21): Obtain valuable hint from SCORPIO message. Go slow where spending, investments are concerned. Joint venture could prove profitable. Key is VERSATILITY.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19): Best not to force views just now. Be aware of need for friendly relations. You made wise step recently. Now you can follow through. Aid from mate or partner indicated.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18): A new field may beckon. Be sure of groundwork. Means build on solid base. Maintain good relations with neighbors, co-workers, associates. Guard against any excess tonight.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - Mar. 20): Element of luck may be with you. You can now be at right place at right time. But it's necessary to be creative. Don't wait for others to move. Lead the way—intelligently!

IF MONDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . you are sensitive to needs of family members. Often you sacrifice so that loved ones may have necessities.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for CANCER, LEO, VIRGO. Special word to AQUARIUS: Individual who serves your needs may have request. If reasonable, fulfill it.

Jacoby on Bridge

JACOBY

In our column we have occasionally reviewed hands played by the late George Reith, one of the few older generation auction players who was able to become as great at contract as in the earlier game.

His oldest son, Rear Adm. George Reith U.S.N. retired, writes us occasionally. Today he comments on our hand of April 30.

When played some 30 years ago each declarer in a team match played at six spades. South started ace of hearts, ace of diamonds, king of diamonds and came to a halt when West trumped the king. One West led the queen of hearts, whereupon his opponent made the rest of the tricks by means of a three-suit squeeze. The other West shifted to a club, broke up the squeeze and set the contract.

George points out that there is a way to make seven against that original heart lead. Of course, it does require knowledge of the location of all the cards but such an interesting play is worth repeating the hand.

South wins the heart lead and plays a spade to dummy's queen. Then he plays his ace and king of diamonds, ruffs a diamond with dummy's deuce of trumps, ruffs back to his hand with a heart and runs off all his trumps.

This play leads to the same squeeze that developed when West must hold onto the jack of hearts and can't keep his king of clubs guarded. Then the ten of hearts is thrown from dummy so that dummy retains the ace and jack of clubs. Now East must unguard his queen of clubs to hang onto a diamond.

"Welcome aboard, Admiral."

ROBERT CRICHTON

Teen of Week Is Handy Lad

Robert Crichton, who just graduated from Kennedy Junior High School, had a record of dependability and helpfulness at the school.

Teachers and classmates alike knew him as a youth who quickly volunteered for any work to be done.

The Teen of the Week, who has an above-average scholastic rating, worked in the attendance office at the school.

Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crichton, 2658 Genes, Pontiac Township, was student manager of the school band.

He earned a first division rating as a soloist in the Michigan School Band and Orchestra District Festival and played in the Pontiac Junior High School Honors Band.

Robert is active at Marimont Baptist Church, where he is president of the youth fellowship and plays in instrumental music ensembles.

Oakland U. Gets Grants of $184,351

Grants totaling $184,351 have been accepted for Oakland University by the Michigan State University Board of Trustees.

A grant of $75,500 from the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare will be used under the direction of Don R. Iodice, assistant professor of French. It will support the French Institute, to be held June 27 - Aug. 19 on the OU campus.

A grant of $31,051 from the U. S. Public Health Service will be used under the direction of James E. Davis, assistant professor of chemistry, for continuation of support for research into replication of the RNA bacteriophage.

A $30,000 grant from the Royal Oak City School District will be used under the direction of Harry T. Hahn, professor of education, for a reading and study improvement program. Under the program, three reading specialists will be working jointly with OU students and the Royal Oak Schools.

Six grants from the National Science Foundation will be used for purchase of instructional equipment.

Dixie White Says Pair Shot Negro

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP)—One of three white men arrested on murder charges has testified he saw the other two shoot an elderly Negro to death with a rifle and a shotgun.

The three are charged in the June 10 slaying of Ben Chester White, 65, whose body was found two days later in nearby Pretty Creek, riddled by 17 rifle slugs. He was also hit in the head by a shotgun blast.

The testimony came Friday from James L. Jones, 56, of Natchez in preliminary hearings for Claude Fuller, 46, of Natchez and Ernest Avants, 35, of Washington, Miss.

Jones said Fuller shot White with the rifle and directed Avants to shoot him with the shotgun.

PLEADED GUILTY

Jones, who previously had pleaded guilty, testified he drove the car the night of June 10, and that afterwards Fuller told him to burn his new car because it was blood-spattered.

Fuller and Avants pleaded innocent before County Judge Robert A. Bonds, who ordered them held without bond for action of the Adams County grand jury.

Fuller and Avants were identified earlier this year by the House Committee on Un-American Activities as past or present members of either the United Klans of America or the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, a Mississippi Klan.

White's body, Jones testified, was dumped into the creek at Kingston, a community about 10 miles southeast of Natchez.

NOT CONNECTED

Dist. Atty. Lenox L. Forman said White was not connected with civil rights activity.

Sheriff Odell Anders arrested the three men Tuesday night and charged them with murder. Jones had been held in Hinds County jail in Jackson since then, and was brought here to testify.

Barber Began Career at 12, Is Still Active

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Emelius A. Sorenson has been a barber for 70 years, and many of his customers have had their hair cut by nobody else in their lifetime.

The 82-year-old barber, known as "Happy," gave up full-time work a few years ago but continues to work all day on Fridays and several hours on other days.

His old-time customers wait for their haircuts until he comes in.

When he began his career at the age of 12, Sorenson earned 50 cents a week, plus what he could pick up in tips.

He remembers when haircuts were 25 cents and shaves 10 cents and when he gave 75 shaves in one day. Now he doesn't give that many in a year.

Negro Rally Set in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — A freedom rally to raise $100,000 for Mississippi and Alabama voter registration drives will be held in Cobo Hall Sunday.

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., UAW President Walter P. Reuther and Charles Evers of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will be among the principle speakers.

About 35 civil rights, church, labor, civic and professional organizations are sponsoring the rally.

Brazil Flood Toll Up

RECIFE, Brazil (UPI) — The death toll of the worst flood in Recife's history mounted today to at least 15 dead. Many others officially listed as missing also were believed to have drowned.

Power vs. Finesse

Arnie, Casper Share Lead

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The 66th U.S. Open Golf Tournament developed today into a match of the brute strength of a resurging Arnold Palmer and the finesse of Billy Casper.

Deadlocked at 137 going into the third round, they led an assault on the tight Olympic Club course on which golfers are scoring far lower than expected.

"These two boys over here are playing like gangbusters," declared Phil Rodgers who had carded an even par 140 to deadlock for second place with unknown Rives McBee. The latter, a rookie pro, surprised everyone with a record-tying 64 on his second round of the $150,000 show.

Galleries and television viewers today saw two contrasting stylists in Palmer and Casper, each of whom has won the Open once. Arnie, the charger, utilizes tremendous power. Billy depends more on position and a deft putting touch.

BLATS PAR

Palmer fired a four-under-par 66 Friday causing some embarrassment to host pro Kyle Burton who before play started Thursday had declared, "I'll eat my hat if he can change this course."

Even Arnie, with one of his greatest rounds, didn't card the lowest score. The surprising McBee from Midland, Tex., a pro only since last Aug. 1, conquered the Olympic with a 64 to equal the individual 18-hole record for this 71-year-old tournament.

Casper carded a 68 to go with his opening 69 on a course where only five rounds lower than par 70 were shot during the full 72 holes of the 1955 Open.

SCRAMBLER

"I'd say you'd have to classify this as a scrambling round," said Casper who won the title in 1959.

Jack Nicklaus, burning over a United States Golf Association admonition to speed up his game, remained in strong contention with his second 71 for 142.

SPEED UP

"We played six holes and the USGA asked us to speed up," said Nicklaus. "I proceeded to make four straight bogeys. Very seldom I get as mad as I did at our 'police force.' "

Jack said his threesome with Tony Lema and Bruce Devlin had frequently been in the rough during the early holes causing delays.

The USGA has demanded an end to slow play and Executive Director Joe Dey commented,

HEAD DOWN — Arnie Palmer shows fine form by keeping his head down after driving off 17th tee Friday while charging into a share of the U.S. Open lead with a 66. Palmer and Bill Casper are tied after the first two rounds.

CHAMPION FORM — Rainer Stenius, California State broad jumper, could be practicing for a limbo contest championship but actually he has just jumped 25-1¼ to win the National Collegiate Athletic Association's broad jump title in the Track and Field outdoor finals at Bloomington, Ind., Friday. See story on Page C-3.

Local Infielder Signs

Birmingham's Chan Simonds, one of two area prospects drafted by the Detroit Tigers in the recent pro baseball free agent selections, signed a contract Friday.

Simonds, a first baseman for the University of Michigan for three seasons, will report immediately to Statesville (N. C.) of the Western Carolinas League, a Class A Detroit affiliate.

Simonds bats and throws left-handed. The slender first sacker was a key performer in Huron-Airway's drive to the Pontiac Men's Recreation League championship last summer.

A Seaholm High School graduate, he played American Legion ball in Birmingham.

The other area draftee for the Tigers is pitcher Herb Doehler of Utica. He also was picked for a Class A minor league affiliate but is still weighing a baseball scholarship to Michigan State.

Simonds was the second Wolverine signed by the Tigers in two days. They persuaded ace right-handed hurler Bob Reed of Flint to sign a bonus contract with Montgomery (Ala.) of the Southern League.

Reed, a junior, also was picked by the Bengals last summer but declined their contract offers.

AWAITING AID—Detroit batter Willie Horton kneels in pain while awaiting assistance from the Tigers' approaching trainer Bill Behm during last night's game at Yankee Stadium in New York. Horton was hit by his own foul ball during the second inning of the game. He recovered quickly and lofted a long fly ball to center fielder Mickey Mantle.

N.Y. Pins 5-2 Loss on Tigers

Kaline Homers; New Pitcher Takes Loss

NEW YORK (AP) — Yankee Mel Stottlemyre held the "right hand" as the Detroit Tigers house of cards toppled in a 5-2 defeat Friday night.

Stottlemyre, the first right-hander to tame the Tigers power in June, pitched a five-hitter. Except for a two-run homer by Al Kaline in the eighth, he had matters under control.

The newest Tiger, Earl Wilson, was bounced out in a four-run fifth inning as New York sent nine men to the plate against him and relief pitcher Johnny Podres. Wilson was making his first start for Detroit after being acquired in a trade with Boston for Don Demeter.

SECOND DECISION

That was all Stottlemyre needed for his second decision over Detroit this year.

But the game belonged to the outfielders as no less than five diving, leaping catches were turned in by the flychasers.

Jim Northrup contributed two and Willie Horton one for the Tigers, while Roy White and Joe Pepitone were the bandits for the Yankees.

Three of them stopped possible homers, while the fifth nipped a Detroit thread before it had a chance to start.

SCORE IN FOURTH

Wilson set down the first nine men to face him before giving up a run in the fourth.

A single by Bobby Richardson, a walk by Mickey Mantle and Joe Pepitone's ground rule double put one across in the fourth.

White and Jake Gibbs started the fifth with singles. After Stottlemyre forced White on a sacrifice attempt, Tresh singled, scoring White, and Richardson doubled home two more runs. Roger Maris drove in the final Yankees tally after Podres relieved Wilson.

Detroit scored with two out in the eighth on Dick MacAuliffe's single and Al Kaline's 10th home run.

Northrup followed with a long blast to right centerfield which Pepitone hauled in after a long run more than 400 feet from home plate. Northrup made two fine catches in right field to rob Yankees of hits.

Horse Show Judge to Return

BOH Will Use Prize Course

Col. C. H. Anderson Detroit Official

Col. C. H. Anderson of Seine et Marne, France will return to see some of the top jumper horses in the Western Hemisphere tackle his prize-winning course during next week's Detroit Horse Show at the Bloomfield Open Hunt.

Col. Anderson designed the Fort Riley Classic course which will be used next Saturday night for the first North American Open Jumper Classic, the highlight of the 49th annual Detroit Horse Show.

He will be one of six judges working the show Monday through Sunday at the hunt grounds on East Long Lake Road.

Also judging the events at the world's largest outdoor show for hunters and jumpers will be Lt. Colonel A. R. Kitts, Fort Carson, Colo.; Brig. General Harry Disston, Shadwell, Va.; James J. Fallon, Millbrook, N.Y.; Daniel P. Lenehan, Sewickley, Pa., and the Rev. Edward L. Melton, Rockville Center, N.Y.

IMPRESSIVE

Col. Anderson's course has impressed the horse show followers the last two years. However, the Fort Riley Classic event for which it was patterned has been suspended.

The course, winner of the 1964 American Horse Show Association's designer's contest, will be used, though, for the premier North American Jumper Classic.

More than $18,000 will be awarded in trophies, ribbons and prize monies during the seven-day show, an AHSA honor show.

Equitation, dressage and hunter events will occupy the first three days of the show primarily, with the inspiring open jumper action beginning Wednesday night.

Show operations chairman Paul Schuster has arranged also for special entertainment each evening Wednesday-Saturday.

Jim Brown Faces Suspension

Film Delay May Cost Back

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland Browns fullback Jim Brown has little to say about a statement by the club owner that the fullback's salary will be suspended if he fails to report for training.

The 30-year-old professional football veteran has changed uniforms to play a soldier in a war movie being filmed in London. Because of setbacks in filming the movie, Brown might not be able to return to the States in time to report to the Browns' Hiram, Ohio, training Camp July 17.

"I really can't say how long the film assignment will take," Brown said Friday night in London. "I had a cable from Modell (Arthur Modell, owner of the Browns) saying he was making a statement, but I hadn't heard until now what the statement was. There's nothing much I can say about it at the moment."

Modell said that he has tried to contact Brown for several weeks, but has been unsuccessful.

He said in a statement Friday that Brown's pay will be suspended starting with the July 17 training date until he shows up. Brown—in his last year of a three-year contract—is one of the Browns who plays for an annual salary instead of being paid just during the regular season.

His annual income from football is estimated at $65,000. A pay suspension would amount to a loss of $5,000 or more a month.

Buckeyes Reach Finals on Arm of Steve Arlin

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Marty Karow, veteran Ohio State coach who boldly wears No. 13, doesn't hedge about the key man in his club's surge into the 20th NCAA Baseball Championship finals tonight against Oklahoma State.

"Steve Arlin is the big guy," Karow said after Arlin's two-hit, 12-strikeout job which eliminated top-ranked Southern California 1-0.

GREAT COMPETITOR

"Without him we could not be here, period. He's a tremendous competitor. He always does it when he has to."

Arlin won't start in the title game, but the Big Ten champions still rule as slight favorites. Oklahoma State's 10th-ranked Big Eight champions lack Ohio State's power, but they have the best pitching record in the tournament, plus the advantage of drawing a bye into the finals.

UNDECIDED

Coach Chet Bryan is undecided about a starting pitcher. It's between chunky John Pierce, who beat Texas 6-1 Wednesday, and tall Richard Frank, 5-1 winner over North Carolina Tuesday.

Ohio State's only run off USC's Ron Cook came in the fourth on Bo Rein's triple and Russ Nagelson's ground-out.

Soccer Draws Record Crowd

DETROIT (AP) — A record Motor City soccer crowd watched the Tottenham Hotspurs of London, England, shutout Bayern Munich of West Germany 3-0 Friday night in an exhibition soccer match.

Jim Robertson, the English squad's outside right, set up all three scoring plays after the two teams battled through a scoreless first half.

The crowd of 11,251 reportedly was the largest ever to see a soccer game in Detroit.

State Trooper Second in Pistol Competition

EAST LANSING (AP)—State Police Trooper Richard Brantner of the Jackson post placed second among police officers in the International Pistol Shooting Championships at San Antonio, Texas, the department reports.

Brantner represented Michigan State Police in the 12-day meet, just ended. The National Rifle Association conducted the meet to select a U.S. team for the world championships in Germany in July. Places on the team went to service personnel.

State Assigning Police to Parks in South Areas

LANSING (UPI) — The Conservation Department Friday assigned 16 veteran officers to state parks in Southern Michigan in what it said was an effort to stamp out "hoodlumism."

Warren W. Shapton, a regional manager for the department, said "We've been just about a jump behind these rowdies all spring. Now, by keeping them guessing as to where our patrol forces are strongest, we hope to discourage their ruckus-raising at all parks."

The Department also said it would ban the use of alcoholic beverages at several trouble spots until after July 4.

In addition, it issued an order prohibiting the use of motorboats on Wildwood Lake in Oakland County through Labor Day.

Softball Loops Slate Makeups

The rain-plagued men's softball leagues of the Pontiac and Waterford Township recreation departments hope to cut into the backlog of games with an unusually heavy Father's Day schedule.

Mexico in Lead; Puerto Rico 2nd

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—With seven new meet records already in the books, the 17 nations in the 10th Central American and Caribbean Games continue their battle for points today with Mexico leading the way and Puerto Rico in hot pursuit.

Showing its major strength in swimming, Puerto Rico posted a new record in the 400-meter womens' relay Friday, lowering the old mark of 4:33.1 by seven seconds. It also set a new mark in the 200 meters.

Juniors' Baseball Will Begin Monday

The Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department's junior baseball program will open its season Monday with games in four classes: D, E, F and Widgets.

The youngest group, T-Ball players, will start their season Tuesday.

The Class F (13-and-under) Widget (11-and-under) leaguers have 9 a.m. double-headers at Jaycee Park. There are 19 Widget teams and seven in the T-Ball circuit.

Those two programs will alternate using the Jaycee softball diamonds Monday through Thursday mornings.

The 12 Class E (15-and-under) teams will utilize Wisner Field and the two Aaron-Perry diamonds at 5:30 p.m. Monday-Thursday.

The oldest junior players, the eight Class D teams, will compete on the Jaycee Park baseball fields at 5:30 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays, preceding the Class A (men's) league games.

The highly successful city recreation junior baseball program produces usually at least one contender for a state recreation association title each summer.

The Waterford Township Recreation Department's junior program will commence Monday, also, at the various diamonds throughout the district.

The township leagues are established by ages: 10-and-under, 12-and-under, 14-and-under and 16-and-under.

U.S. Grapplers Please Coach

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The United States stands little chance of winning the team title of the World Freestyle Wrestling Championships, but Coach Bill Smith is happy with the performance of his team.

The Americans have never won a gold medal in the world championships although they have picked up many Olympic medals. Smith thinks Bobby Douglas of Oklahoma State University should be able to win a gold medal today.

"Douglas should go all the way," Smith said Friday night after the 138.5 pounder edged Elkan Tedeen of Russia in a match so close it took a vote of the jury to decide a winner.

COACH PROUD

Smith said he was extremely proud of the U.S. team, which has proved to be a far bigger threat in the tournament than expected.

"We haven't had a bad match," he said. "We've got some calls from the judges we didn't like, but the kids all have wrestled good matches."

'A' Teams Shape Up for Season Title Race

A week of bad weather behind them, the managers and players on the Class A city baseball league teams enter a week of action that could give a good indication of the balance of power.

The college performers in the league should almost all be home for tomorrow's tripleheader at Jaycee Park and the 15-man rosters of the teams will take shape for the rest of the season.

All conflicts with high school obligations also will be resolved, though some key performers still may be seeking summer work that will let them continue playing.

Another factor in the race will be the weather. This season's 21-game schedule for the men's teams — the largest slate in several years — doesn't allow for makeup games after this week junior baseball teams will also be using the facilities.

Arnie Shares Golf Lead

"You can be sure of one thing, if they were there, he invited them by his play."

The Nicklaus group played the round in 4 hours, 22 minutes. Palmer's group toured in about 3½ hours.

FASTER PLAYER

"He's a faster player than I am," Nicklaus declared. "When you play a golf course as tough as this and in the Open, you have to maintain a certain tempo."

Nicklaus claimed the USGA had someone following his group all during the round.

While ex-champions Palmer and Casper were at the fore, there were casualties among former winners. Jack Fleck, who beat Ben Hogan in the 1955 playoff, carded a 74-153 and failed to make the cut. Neither did Ed Furgol, with 155, or Cary Middlecoff, who picked up at the 18th far over par.

Gene Littler, the 1961 champion, skidded from his second place 68 on opening day to an 83 and 151, the cutoff point. Al Mengert, first round leader at 67, slipped to 77. Don Massengale went from 68 to 79. Defending champion Gary Player just stayed in with a 72—150, the same total carded by 1964 winner Ken Venturi, who had a 77.

The 53-year-old Hogan went to a 73 and 145, while two-time winner Julius Boros posted 69—143.

John Miller, a 19-year-old San Franciscan, continued to lead the amateurs with a 142, in position to embarrass his elders.

Cranbrook 3rd in 'A' League After Victory

Burklow Blanks M.G. for 4-0 Win; Leaders Play at Jaycee Today

A four-run outburst in the bottom of the sixth inning carried Cranbrook to sole possession of third place last night in a city Class A recreation baseball game at Jaycee Park.

The Cranbrook squad broke open a scoreless dual with M.G. Collision and the 4-0 victory made right-hander Mike Burklow the first three-game winner among the men's league pitchers.

Bob Tuck had limited Cranbrook (3-2) to one hit during the first five innings, but Bob Heavenrich, Al Levy and Tom Hummel began the winning rally with singles.

Heavenrich's safety was combined with an error, and the lanky shortstop scored the game's first run when Levy followed with a single.

Levy and Hummel both scored on an error after the third straight single. A walk, stolen base and Dave Diehm two-out double scored the final marker.

Burklow yielded just three hits, walked three and struck out 12. For the season, he has permitted four hits in 19 innings, striking out 31 and seeing only two runs scored off his deliveries.

M.G. (2-3) tumbled to fifth place with its loss. The R.T. Clippers and Teamsters 614 — the loop's unbeaten coleaders — battle for first place at 8 p.m. today.

BALTIMORE'S BELTERS — The Robinson terrors — Brooks (left) and Frank—were at it again last night in Boston. The league-leading Orioles defeated the Bosox, 5-3, as Frank hit his 17th home run (one on) and Brooks his 11th (two on). Frank is tied for the home run lead while Brooks paces the runs batted in column with 53.

Sluggers Pace Oriole Victory

Baltimore Rolls Past Boston by 5-3 Count

BOSTON (AP) — Baltimore's Robinson sluggers, Frank and Brooks, accounted for five runs with homers in powering the American League leading Orioles to a 5-3 victory over Boston Friday night.

Frank Robinson tied Boston's George Scott for the AL home run lead by cracking his 17th after Jerry Snyder singled in the third inning.

UPS LEAD

Brooks hiked his league-leading runs batted in total to 53 by lining his seventh homer after singles by Luis Aparicio and Snyder in the fifth.

The two long blasts enabled southpaw Steve Barber to pick up his sixth victory in eight decisions. Barber allowed five hits, struck out eight and walked three in seven innings before letting relief specialist Stu Miller finish.

The victim was Jim Lonborg, who gave up six hits and walked two.

Boston scored a run on a single by Joe Foy, a walk and a single by Scott in the first. Don Demeter, making his Red Sox debut after being obtained from Detroit, hit a homer in the fifth and Carl Yastrzemski connected for his seventh home run in the fifth.

Senators Halt Tribe in 11 Innings, 5-4

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bob Saverine led off the 11th inning with a pinch-hit double and scored on an error by Pedro Gonzales, giving Washington a 5-4 victory over Cleveland Friday night.

After Saverine's double, Bob Allen walked Ken Hamlin intentionally and Ken McMullen beat out an infield single, loading the bases.

Jim King then grounded to second baseman Gonzalez, who threw to the plate trying to force Saverine. But the throw was low, and Saverine scored the winning run.

2-RUN HOMER

Chico Salmon's two-run homer following Leon Wagner's two-out double gave the Indians a 4-3 lead in the top of the eighth.

But the Senators tied it in their half of the eighth, also with a two-out rally. Ed Brinkman doubled down the right field line and scored on Fred Valentine's pinch single.

The Indians scored in the first on a single by Vic Davalillo, a walk to Wagner and Rocky Colavito's single. Davalillo's double and Wagner's single accounted for a run in the sixth.

Russia Warms Up for U.S.

LONDON (AP) — Russia's track and field teams, warming up for their meet against the United States next month, held commanding leads Friday in both the men's and women's competition at the halfway point of their dual meet against Britain.

The two-day meet ends Saturday.

The Russian men led the British 55-38 with the Soviet women enjoying a 38-28 lead against the English girls.

Jaycee Golfers to Vie Monday

Union Lake Group, Waterford Sponsors

District Junior Jaycee Golf Tournaments are scheduled for two local clubs Monday.

Union Lake Jaycees will get their junior tourney under way at 9 a.m. at Morey's Golf & Country Club, while the Waterford club will start its players at 10 a.m. at Pontiac Country Club.

Competition is in three age groups — 16 and 17, 14 and 15 and 13 and under—with winners in each group qualifying for the regional tournament early in July.

The state tourney is scheduled for July 25 at Spring Lake Country Club in Grand Haven.

Title Wrapup in Trans-Miss

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Roberta Albers and Peggy Conley advanced to the championship match Friday in the Trans-Mississippi Women's Amateur Golf Tournament.

Miss Albers, of Miami Beach, Fla., used great approach shots and several long putts to defeat Mrs. Lew Gilliam of Whittier, Galif., 6 and 5.

Miss Conley, former Curtis Cup player from Spokane, Wash., turned the front nine 5-up over Jeanie Butler of Harlingen, Tex., but had to withstand a tremendous charge to gain a 3 and 1 victory.

The finalists will battle for the title in Saturday's 36-hole finals over the 6,300-yard Hardscrabble course.

Miss Conley and Miss Albers, both 19-year-old college sophomores, have met once before. Miss Conley scored a 1-up victory on 19 holes in the quarter-finals of last year's Western Amateur.

White Sox Edge Twins

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) —Tommy John pitched Chicago to a 3-1 victory over Minnesota Friday night, giving the White Sox their first triumph of the season over the Twns after eight straight losses.

John, 5-4, checked Minnesota on six hits, yielding a run only in the fourth inning when the Twins bunched three singles by Rich Rollins, Harmon Killebrew and Bob Allison.

The White Sox laced four singles in their half of the fourth to score the two runs that decided it. Don Buford, Tom McCraw and Floyd Robinson stroked consecutive hits for one run, and rookie Lee Elia drove in the other run with another single.

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Willie Smith socked a two-run triple in the seventh inning Friday night breaking a tie and sending the California Angels to their sixth straight victory, a 4-2 decision over Kansas City.

Smith's shot to left-centerfield with Bob Rodgers and Jose Cardenal on base tagged the loss on Jim Catfish Hunter, now 5-6.

The victory went to veteran Jack Sanford, 7-2, who took over for Marcelino Lopez with two out and two Kansas City runs home in the second.

Top Seeded Netter Wins With Surge

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Top-seeded Charles Pasarell of UCLA, trailing after three sets, surged back with a powerful offensive game Friday to defeat Tom Edlefsen of Southern California in the semifinals of the NCAA Tennis Championships.

The victory in the 2½ hour match by a score of 4-6, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3, 6-2, sent Pasarell, a U.S. Davis Cupper, into Saturday's finals against second-seeded Stan Smith of Southern California.

Earlier, Smitt smashed to a straight-set victory over Ian Crookenden of UCLA, 6-4, 6-0, 6-3.

Quarterfinals results in doubles: 3

James Osborne and Mike Martines, Utah, defeated Jaimie Fillol and Juan Rubio, Miami, 6-1, 6-4.

Condition of Owens Called Satisfactory

CHICAGO (AP) — Jesse Owens, 1936 Olympic track star, is under treatment for an upper respiratory condition and is making satisfactory progress, hospital attendants said Friday.

Owens has been a patient in Michael Meese Hospital for more than a week.

Owens is a Chicago radio station employe.

HAVEN FOR BIRD(IE)S—The Olympic Club Lakeside links in San Francisco were a haven (or maybe heaven to Rives McBee) for birds and birdies Friday during the second round of the U.S. Golf Association Open tournament. McBee, an assistant pro from Midland, Tex., had nine birdies for a record-tying 64, and encounters another bird on the 16th green while lining up a putt.

'65 Champion First on Tee

54-Hole Tournament Starts Monday

The stage has been set with the pairings in what could be another down-to-the-wire battle for the Women's District Golf Association medal play championship.

First off the tee Monday morning at Grosse Ile Golf and Country Club in the 54-hole event will be defending champion Mrs. John Hume of Birmingham and Mrs. Keith LeClair of Ann Arbor.

These two have won the title five of the last six years, and they're the pre-tourney favorites to duel for the '66 crown.

Mrs. Hume, winner of the title in 1960, 1962 and 1965, was in what looked like a hopeless situation last year as the third round got under way — eight strokes behind Mrs. LeClair — but she made up the deficit and won by a single stroke, 234-235.

Mrs. LeClair has won the event five times, only the second player in WDGA history to take that many. The other was Miss Hope Seignious who turned the trick back in 1936-40.

TEE TIMES

Mrs. Hume and Mrs. LeClair will tell off at 8 a.m. in the first round. The second round is set for Tuesday with the wrap-up on Wednesday.

A couple of young golfers who could give the favorites some trouble are Feather Frechette of Indianwood and Kathy Shanahan of Pine Lake.

Miss Frechette tees off at 8:25, Miss Shanahan at 8:35.

Knocked Out of Open

9 Count for Littler

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"Look," the lady said when they put up a 9 on the clubhouse scoreboard, "they put the 6 upside down."

But there was no mistake. It was a nine—a big, fat, black, horrendous nine on the 11th hole, and it all but knocked stricken Gene Littler out of the U.S. Open.

Littler a former Open champion and one of the steadiest, most respected golfers on the PGA tour, had a sprakling 68 in the first round over the par 70, 6,719-yard Olympic Club layout. It was just one stroke off the lead.

What happened to him yesterday you wouldn't wish on your unemployed brother-in-law. He went to a shattering 83 for a two-day total of 151 that just got him under the cut to the low 60 and ties for the final two rounds.

His second round included two birdies, eight bogies, a double bogey, the five-over-par nine and a lost ball.

NOTHING RIGHT

"The poor guy just couldn't do anything right," said his caddy, 19-year-old Bruce South. Littler didn't stick around to talk much. He didn't bother to shower or change shoes — just grabbed his street shoes and announced:

"I think I'll go visit the family a while."

Did he ever have a round like this before?

"Sure, frequently," he replied in self-derision.

Long Clout Aids Giants in 4-1 Win

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Even the Los Angeles Dogers could admire the tape-measure home run San Francisco's Willie McCovey clouted Friday night to give the Giants a 4-1 victory here before 50,316.

"It (the pitch delivered by Don Sutton) started out as a curve ball," said catcher John Roseboro, "but it suddenly turned into a cannon shot. If I ever hit a ball that hard, I could retire from baseball and live happily ever after."

McCovey's blast with two aboard in the eighth inning shattered a 1-1 tie and scattered customers high in the right centerfield bleachers. The ball might have travelled 450 feet.

"I saw Frank Howard hit some drives that were almost unbelievable when he played for us," said Roseboro after the game as the Dodgers sat around, Discussing McCovey's orbital shot.

"But I've never seen anyone hit one harder than McCovey did tonight. And it was a good pitch, a curve belt-high."

The homer, McCovey's 14th of the season, extended San Francisco's winning streak to six games and left the Giants 3½ games in front of Pittsburgh, their nearest National League pursuer.

Phillies' Taylor Sparks 6-5 Win

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Tony Taylor, who raced home from second on a wild pitch for the tying run in the eighth inning, singled across the winning run in the ninth as Philadelphia edged St. Louis 6-5 Friday night.

John Callison doubled with one out in the ninth but was out trying to score on Rich Allen's single. Allen took second on the play and, after Don Dennis walked Bill White intentionally, Taylor singled to right field, driving in Allen.

Pinch hitter Bob Tolan broke a 4-4 tie in the seventh inning with his first major league homer off Philadelphia starter Larry Jackson.

But the Phillies tied it again in the eighth when Taylor singled, stole second and raced home on Hal Woodeshick's wild pitch.

Jim Gentile Decides on Minor Team

HOUSTON (AP) — Veteran first baseman Jim Gentile, assigned to the minors last Monday by the Houston Astors for disciplinary reasons, has decided to report to Oklahoma City.

Gentile indicated earlier he would quit baseball rather than report to the Astro farm club in the Pacific Coast League.

"I love the game, and just can't quit now," Gentile said. "I hope I can perfom well enough at Oklahoma City that another major league club will want my services."

Gentile 32, has paid a $250 fine for tossing his bat during an argument with an umpire in last Sunday's game between Houston and the Chicago Cubs.

The quick-tempered slayer also was given a five-day suspension, which ends at noon Saturday.

Kathy Whitworth Ups Tourney Lead

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Kathy Whitworth withstood a rally by Donna Caponi and built her lead to three strokes at the midway mark in the Mirwaukee Jaycee Open Golf Tournament Friday.

Miss Whitworth shot a one-over-par 71 for a 36-hole total of 139. Miss Caponi came back from a three-over-par outgoing nine to finish with an even-par 70 and a 142 total.

Penalize 2 Hurdlers

UCLA Chances Suffer Setback

Disqualifications Mar NCAA Outdoor Meet

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — The team title in the squabbling which marked the NCAA Track and Field meet was up for grabs today after a costly ruling which deprived favored UCLA of apparent victory in the 120 high hurdles.

As a result, darkhorse Brigham Young already ahead with 22 points was the team to watch in the 13-final windup at Indiana University.

Two NCAA records were bettered and one tied, while four individual champions were dethroned in Friday's six-final session.

UNUSUAL PENALTIES

In one of the three unusual penalties, UCLA's Ron Copeland was disqualified as 120-high-hurdle winner when three judges charged he trailed a leg below the plane of the hurdle.

First place was awarded to Arizona's Dale Frederick with a 13.7 clocking compared with Copeland's 13.6. The rare infraction meant that that Copeland dipped his trailing leg around the corner of several hurdles which is illegel.

COACH PROTESTS

UCLA Coach Jim Bush bitterly protested to the meet Games Committee, contending he had never seen such a call, which cost the Bruins 10 points for the canceled first place.

On the brighter side Friday were these performances:

World shotput champion Randy Matson of Texas A&M uncorked a 67-1½ toss, bettering his one-day-old NCAA mark of 65-6¼ set in Thursday's prelims.

Southern California's Gary Carlsen qualified for the discus finals with a flip of 190-1½, an inch better than the 13-year-old meet mark set by Southern California's Sim Iness in 1953.

Nebraska's Charlie Greene retained his 100 dash crown, tying the meet standard of 9.3 and beating herakled Tommie Smith of San Jose State, who was second in 9.4.

And Michigan State's Bob Steele ran the world's fastest 440 hurdles this year with a qualifying 50.1.

The team scoring leaders after six events were Brigham Young with 22 points, Boston College 16, Oregon 15, San Jose State 14 and Washington State and Nebraska 12 each.

LeMans 24-Hour Race Underway After Dispute

LE MANS, France (AP) — The Le Mans 24-hour automobile race started today following a series of last-minute feuds.

Ford, challenging the dominance of Ferrari, was back in the line-up after threatening to withdraw its entire list of entries over the disqualification of one of its drivers.

And Ferrari went into the race without its No. 1 driver, John Surtees, who bolted the team when a third man was named to the combination for his car.

THIRD DRIVER

Surtees was angry because he believed the addition of a third driver was an insinuation by Ferrari that he could not complete the gruelling 24-hours. Surtees resumed racing this spring after a serious accident in Canada last fall.

Ford had threatened its pull-out after one of its drivers, Dr. Richard Thompson of Washington, D.C., was disqualified for failing to stop at the scene of an accident.

Thompson barrelled into another Ford car driven by Dick Holquist of Pittsburgh in Thursday's final trial. He reported the accident at the pits, contending it was too dangerous to stop at the scene of the collision.

Holquist was not hurt, but his car was badly damaged.

Despite Ford's protests, race officials barred Thompson from the classic and Brian Muir of Australia was named to replace him in the 7-liter Mark II Ford. Graham Hill is Muir's partner.

Ludovico Sacrfiotti of Italy and Mike Parkes of Great Britain were scheduled to drive Ferrari's P-3.

Stanford U. Student 21st in Pentathlon

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — John E. du Pont of Aherton, Calif., and a student at Stanford University, finished 21st in the Modern International Penthathlon meet Friday.

Du Pont earned 3,749 points with 660 for riding, 592 fencing, 560 shooting, 1,060 swimming, and 877 running.

East Germany's Karl-Heinz Kutschke won with 5,341 points.

Kutschke won Friday's cross country race in which Du Pont placed 22nd with a time of 11:59.0. Du Pont's time was 14:56.9.

Waterford 9, Milford Share Legion Lead

Waterford and Milford kept pace atop the American Legion District 18 League race Friday night with victories.

Jack Ward tossed a three-hitter as Milford topped Troy, 4-1; while Waterford hung on for an 8-7 conquest of winless Southfield.

Walled Lake cracked the win column, 9-6, over Clarkston; and Berkley nipped Farmington, 1-0, for its first victory.

The Kaspar brothers provided the Milford hitting support behind Ward. John drove in two runs with a triple and single, while Jim had a key double in the winning rally.

Waterford achieved its third straight win when Dick Miceli fanned the final batter with the bases loaded at Southfield to preserve Bruce Mihalek's mound triumph.

Record Fleet Awaits Newport-Bermuda Run

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — A record fleet of 168 cruising yachts was ready to start today in the Newport-to-Bermuda race.

Class A yachts are due to hit the starting line at Brenton Reef light tower, 2½ miles off the Rhode Island coast, at 1 p.m. EDT. Other classes will follow at 15-minute intervals, with the last scheduled to get under way at 2:15 p.m., on the 635-mile voyage.

After President's Cup

Potomac Lures Hydros

WASHINGTON (AP) — Driver Rex Manchester and his boat, Notre Dame, were favorites in the President's Cup Regatta for unlimited hydoplanes to be held on the Patomac River Saturday and Sunday.

Manchester and Notre Dame, second in national point standings last year, became the choice when Bill Muncey and his Miss U. S. decided to pass up the race over the 2½-mile course.

WON IN TAMPA

Muncey won the first annual Suncoast group race in Tampa, Fla., last weekend but owner George Simon said his craft suffered damage which was enough to cancel plans for the Washington trip.

Simon is having repairs made in Detoit to get the Miss U.S. ready for the Gold Cup race in that city July 3.

Don Dunnington, regatta chairman, predicted a crowd of 50,000 for the race being revived here after a year's absence.

Among the boats expected this weekend are the third and fourth finishers in Tampa, Miss Madison, driven by rookie Jim McCormick, and Miss Budweiser, driven by Don Wilson who replaced the injured Bill Brow in the Suncoast Cup race.

Another entry is last year's national point winner, Miss Bardahl, driven by Ron Munson, 1965's national high point driver.

Aussies Square Off in Tennis Finals

LONDON (AP) — Australian star Roy Emerson faced countryman Tony Roche in today's final of the London Tennis Championships after the two Aussies cast a shadow on American hopes for next week's Wimbleton Tournament.

Emerson downed Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., 6-4, 6-8, 6-4 while Roche defeated Marty Riessen of Evanston, Ill., 6-2, 6-1.

Ralston held his own against Emerson until two disturbances seemed to throw his game off. First there was an argument over a hole in the net and then a delay because of rain.

Chico State Winner of College Tourney

CHICO, Calif. (AP) — Host Chico State won the NCAA College Division Golf Championship Friday on the last hole of the four-day competition 1,206 to 1,207 over Lamar Tech, of Beaumont, Texas.

Bob Smith, of Sacramento State, a runner-up for two years as an individual, blazed the last nine holes in five under par and captured the individual title with 279.

Two Share Second Place

Day's Sanitary and Hillcrest Nazarene remained tied for second place in Men's Softball League with contrasting victories last night at Drayton Plains.

Day's took a 7-0 forfeit victory from Buckner's Finance, while the churchmen had to struggle 10 innings for a 5-4 win over Midget Bar.

In Pontiac action, Motorcar Transport repelled the Bud and Lou's Bar attempt to take over first place in the National League with a 3-2 conquest.

Orchard Lanes won an 8-4 American League decision from Bob and Larry's Bar.

BIG RUN

An error, Harv Keith's single, a walk and Ron Thill's one-out sacrifice fly plated the winning run for Hillcrest. The Rev. Harold Hughes was touched for 12 hits while fanning 18 in the 10-inning tilt that saw both teams score a run in the ninth.

The churchmen and Day's are both a half game behind pace-setting Lakeland Pharmacy.

Motorcar reached an 8-1 mark as Gary Achenbach held Bud and Lou's scoreless after Gary Acker's first-inning homer. Bob Wilson's double keyed a two-run winning rally for Motorcar.

Bob Davis and Jim McDonald backed Bob Marshbanks' pitching with circuit clouts for Orchard Lanes (4-3). The winners broke open the game with three runs in the seventh.

J. L. VOORHEES

FATHER'S DAY

There is something innate about a father which is never extinguished. He may be hurt, disappointed or shunned by his children but when the chips are down he comes forward to lend a hand. Not it is our turn to show him our appreciation. He has built our life as it is, he is the engineer of our future; we might have differed with his theory of conduct but he didn't make an issue of it but allowed us to come to our decisions ourselves. He doesn't expect loud applause. He lives for his family and it should be his family who makes His Day delightful.

Psychiatrist to Aid Board

Dr. Doris A. Berlin, a psychiatrist, will work this summer with the Oakland County Community Mental Health Services Board under a University of Michigan field training program.

The Oakland County mental health board is the first in the state to be selected for placement of this type.

DR. BERLIN

Dr. Berlin, who will assist Dr. Robert E. Walden, psychiatric director of the county mental health board, is working toward a degree of Master of Public Health and is on a fellowship from the National Institute of Mental Health.

In September, she will become a research associate in public health administration and a lecturer in mental health in the School of Public Health at the University of Michigan.

Dr. Berlin completed her psychiatric training at Bellevue Hospital in New York in 1952 and since has been in private practice in New York and Toledo.

Dixieland Veteran Dies of Leukemia

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dixieland banjo player Johnny St. Cyr, who grew with jazz in early-century New Orleans, was reminiscing: "We played dance halls, weddings, funerals, riverboats and house parties. I sure miss the old days."

St. Cyr, who played with Kid Ory, King Oliver, Jelly Roll Morton and Louis Armstrong, was active until a few weeks before his death Friday of leukemia. He was 76.

Born in New Orleans, he played there with his own string trio. Later he joined Martin Gabriel and then the Tuxedo Band. From 1914 to 1919 St. Cyr was with Kid Ory's Brownskin Babies, whose trumpet man was Louis Armstrong.

TENDERS WANTED
Royal Oak Drain District
Oakland County, Michigan

SEALED TENDERS of Royal Oak Drain District Refunding Bonds, dated May 1, 1937 and maturing May 1, 1967, with November 1, 1966 and subsequent coupons attached, will be received by the Oakland County Drain Commissioner in his office, located at 550 South Telegraph Road, Pontiac, Michigan, up to 2:00 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, on the 19th day of July, 1966, to be publicly opened by him immediately thereafter.

Tenders must specify the serial numbers of the bonds offered and the amount for which they will be sold to the Drain District. Approximately $112,000.00 will be available to purchase tendered bonds.

The County Drain Commissioner reserves the right to reject any or all tenders and to waive any irregularities in said tenders.

Offerings must be firm for three (3) days and shall be accepted by depositing letter acceptance in the U.S. Post Office in the City of Pontiac, Michigan on or before 12:00 Midnight on July 22, 1966. Collect telegraphic advice of acceptance or rejection will be made if requested in tender letter. Offering should be marked on the outside of the sealed envelope "TENDER OF BONDS".

Funds will be available at the Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit, Paying Agent, on August 1, 1966, and interest from May 1, 1966, in the amount of Eleven Dollars and Twenty-Five Cents ($11.25) will be paid on each Bond so retired upon Tenders.

Attention is called to the decree entered by the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland, in Chancery, in the case of Earl L. Clark, Plaintiff, vs. City of Royal Oak, et al., defendants, which decree was affirmed by the Michigan Supreme Court upon appeal by Bondholders and certain cities (Clark vs. City of Royal Oak, et al., 325 Mich. 298). Under this decree, approximately two-thirds of the lands in the special assessment district are not subject to deficiency assessments which results in the cancellation of approximately 43 per cent of the total amount of the yearly deficiency assessments.

Pope, Kennedy Hold 35-Minute Talk at Vatican

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Pope Paul VI talked together for 35 minutes today in an audience during Kennedy's stopover on his way home from an African tour.

The audience was unusually long. Most Papal audiences last about 20 minutes.

Vatican sources had speculated that the Pope and the Democratic senator from New York might discuss Viet Nam or the race problem in South Africa.

There was no official disclosure, however, of the subjects discussed. A Vatican spokesman said only that the talk "was very cordial."

Woman Hit by Car, Listed as Satisfactory

Mrs. Arthur Rains, 44, of 816 Stanley is in satisfactory condition at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital after being struck by a car yesterday on Perry south of East Boulevard.

According to police, Mrs. Rains was struck by a car driven by Mary Weinberger, 28, of 406 Jordan.

By the year 2000, men will outnumber women in Britain by 260,000, statisticians estimate. At present there are nearly two million more British women than men.

By County Panel

Personnel Code Adopted

A policy governing personnel practices was adopted yesterday by the Oakland County Community Mental Health Services Board.

One provision specifies that all clerical and other nonprofessional personnel be compensated on the basis of the salary schedule for other Oakland County employes.

This has been an unwritten policy in the past, according to board officials.

Also specified in the policy is that the director and administrative officer be hired by the board after screening and recommendation of the personnel committee of the board.

All other employes must be approved by the board on the recommendation of the director.

The policy further provides that all employes of the board be entitled to fringe benefits received by other county employes.

Finally, it specifies that salary schedules for professional employes of the board be established by the board upon recommendation of the personnel committee.

GETS THE POINT—It's not an antique doll but a medical exhibit that Dolly Ah-now is holding. The papier mache figure from Japan, part of a London display of items used in traditional Chinese medicine practiced in much of the Orient, pinpoints proper location of needles used in acupuncture. An ancient practice, acupuncture calls for inserting needles into the body at precise points to cure ailments.

Peace Corpsman Is Found in Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO (UPI) — Stephen Rutledge, a Peace Corpsman from Croton-on-Hudson, N. Y., who had been missing for 10 days, was found yesterday in the northeastern town of Petrolandia. He was on his way here today.

Authorities in Alagoas state, where Rutledge had been working in the town of Maravilha, said he suffered an attack of Amnesia brought on by overwork.

They said he took a bus to the town of Santana to seek treatment for a stomach ailment and the next thing he remembers he was in Petrolandia.

Unruly Crowd in Soho Halts Graham Visit

LONDON (UPI) — Evangelist Billy Graham said early today he hopes eventually to return to Soho — London's "sin strip" — for the "quiet walk" prevented last night by a screaming, fighting mob of "thrill seekers."

Graham did not set any date for a return visit to Soho. Presumably, a second tour of the area would be less highly publicized than the first.

The evangelist set out yesterday at 10 p.m. after addressing an overflow audience at the Earl's Court Arena, where he is conducting a month-long "crusade," on the subject "Is the World Coming to an End?"

A crowd of about 1,000 persons had gathered to watch Graham's visit.

It was not notably hostile, but it was unruly enough for police and Graham's aides to decide he had better abandon the attempt.

BLONDE STRIPPER

One blonde stripper, billed as "a man who changed to a woman," climbed to the roof of Graham's car and had to be pulled down forcibly by police.

"I was moved so many people in Soho would be that interested," Graham later said.

"If I have an opportunity I intend to return to Soho and have my quiet walk."

When Graham arrived in Soho last night, clutching a Bible, the crowd surged forward. Police linked arms to protect him from unintentional injury.

Fist fights broke out almost immediately as the shouting crowd pushed and shoved for better vantage points. At one point, at least 12 persons were fighting police or each other.

More than 6.5 billion returnable bottles for beer, soft drinks and milk are constantly in circulation throughout the country.

Local Men at NY Parley on Education

Pontiac School District and ban League officials are attending a three-day national conference on problems connected with providing a quality education to all people.

The New York conference, which ends today, is sponsored by the National Urban League and Teacher's College, Columbia University.

Representatives of the local system are Asst. Schools Supt. Richard Feld and board of education trustee Russell Brown.

The Pontiac Urban League is represented by Thomas W. Fowler Jr., chairman of the Urban League education committee, and Clarence Barnes, league director.

They are meeting with similar delegations from some 78 cities throughout the nation.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OPIE E. Nichols, who passed away 2 years ago, June 18.
God was your dearest friend,
No one could love you more,
So when he saw you growing weak
He called from Heaven's door.
Come home, it's time for you to rest,
I'm well pleased you've done your best.
Sadly missed by wife, Maurine and children.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF William Werner, who passed away June 19, 1955.
Always remembered on Father's Day.
Sadly missed by wife and children.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF LAWrence J. Green, who passed away 7 years ago, June 19.
You're not forgotten,
Father dear,
Nor ever shall you be.
As long as life and memory last,
We shall remember thee.

Disaster Became Triumph in 'Guys and Dolls' Debut

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Ninety-six pound Vivian Blaine couldn't help thinking of London . . . 1953 . . . Coronation Year . . . the boos for Vivian Blaine! . . . the tears . . . the heartbreak . . . when she turned back the page last week and once again played Adelaide in "Guys & Dolls."

Few Americans will remember that red-headed Vivian was booed when she opened in London three years after the Damon Runyon show opened as a big hit in New York.

WILSON

"I cried out loud because the hurt was so big," Vivian told me the other night in Gallagher's.

There was resentment against Vivian from a London group which wanted a local girl to play Adelaide. They came to boo.

"I went home and packed!" Vivian remembered. She was then married to Manny Frank, since deceased, who told her she couldn't walk out like that.

"You think I can't? They can put me in jail! I'm not going to stay here. I was booed Opening Night!" That was the speech she gave her husband.

"Of course I couldn't sleep. I couldn't wait for the dawn to come. With the dawn came Ernie Martin . . ."

Producer Martin, his partner Cy Feuer and director Abe Burrows took turns saying, "No Viv . . ."

"Now let's try this," they'd say.

The daring idea they had was that she should go on that night just as though nothing had happened. "Try it one more night . . ."

"I finally agreed, but I was so scared, even to walk on that stage again. But so help me God, you'd have thought when I walked on I was the Queen of England! And afterward some of the people who had booed came back to the stage door to apologize. They said, 'We don't even know why we did it.'"

Junior Editors Quiz on SOIL

QUESTION: What processes formed our soil?

ANSWER: Geologists say that, in very ancient times, there was little on the earth's surface besides water and rock. Yet, actually, there was a great deal of going on.

Volcanoes broke through and shattered the surface, casting up masses of lava and broken rock.

Waves pounded the short, breaking up rock into small pieces and finally into sand, which was hurled inland by the wind. Violent rainstorms attacked the rock, as did streams and waterfalls.

Great glaciers of ice moved down from the north, grinding the surface of the earth.

Air and water carrying chemicals, penetrated the rock and helped to break it up. As a result of all this, the surface of the land, over millions of years, was covered with a layer of crushed and pulverized rock.

Plants started to grow, died and enriched the top layer, as did the bodies of animals.

Finally a marvelous material was formed: soil, in which we grow the plants on which our lives depend. The layer of soil in which plants grow is called topsoil, and is very shallow.

FOR YOU TO DO: When our ancestors came to America, there was an average of nine inches of topsoil. Unfortunately, many of the pioneers did not take good care of their land. Now we have only six inches of topsoil left. Find out about soil conservation.

New Leader of Adventists Sees Growth

DETROIT (AP)—A soft spoken, reflective man who sees an expanding role for the church in the modern world is the new leader of the 1.6-million-member Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Robert H. Pierson, 55, previously head of Adventist missions in Africa, was elected world president of the church Friday by delegates to the 50th World Conference of Adventists.

"I was surprised. Naturally, I was surprised," Pierson said following his election. "When a responsibility like this is thrust upon one all of a sudden, it makes one feel a great dependence upon the Lord."

Pierson succeeds Reuben R. Figuhr, the 12-year world president whose main principles—"evangelization, publishing and medical and educational programs around the world"—Pierson says he plans to follow.

"I'll have to have a little time to kind of get my hands on things and get acquainted a little more," he said. "I'm afraid I'll have to reorient my thinking."

In the non-Communist world, petroleum production showed an 11 per cent increase in 1965 over 1964.

3 Policemen Are Suspended

DETROIT (AP)—Three veteran city policemen, quoted as acknowledging a "slight association" with accused gambler Costas Colacasides, were suspended Friday by Police Commissioner Ray Girardin.

A Detroit newspaper said two of the three—Inspector John J. O'Neill and Sgt. August Cardinali — were identified as among those attending a party at Colacasides' Florida apartment in 1964.

The paper said Inspector Carl E. Heffernan was seen with Colacasides three months ago—after the restaurant owner was indicted on charges of bribing and conspiring to bribe a policeman to ignore gambling at his restaurant.

'NO MORE'

In announcing the suspensions, Girardin said there would be no more, "today or in the future."

The commissioner also said "there is no indication whatever of any law violation or criminal act on their part. There is nothing at this point to incidate they received anything from anyone from who they should not have received anything.

"There appears, however," Girardin said, "to be a violation of department rules and the final determination will be made at the trial board hearing."

One-Man Grand Jury in County Is Finished

Oakland County's one-man grand jury can take a rest. The work is done one year and 21 indictments after it began.

Grand Juror Philip Pratt, ending his investigation yesterday, plans a vacation.

Pratt said he would issue his final report on the investigation to his fellow Oakland County circuit judges when he returns from vacation next month.

Pratt has shouldered the grand jury probe in addition to his regular court.

He was named to sit as the one-man grand jury by Presiding Circuit Judge Frederick Ziem June 14 of last year.

The full-scale probe, aimed at crime in Royal Oak Township, was requested by Michigan State Police and Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson.

Pratt's investigation was the third in the township in 14 years. In 1951, a 23-man grand jury issued 16 indictments. There were 12 convictions.

NO CONVICTIONS

Two years later, the state attorney general's office called for a one-man grand jury, but no convictions resulted. There was one indictment citing three defendants issued.

Pratt returned 21 indictments, naming 23 defendants, Charges range from bribery to perjury.

While the major focus of the year-long probe has been Royal Oak Township, where a number of past and present township officials were indicted, the grand jury has strayed beyond the south Oakland community.

Little Judy Funsch Back in Hospital

FLINT (AP)—At a time when most children are learning to write their names, Judy Lynn Funsch has survived rare heart surgery and beaten off pneumonia 18 times.

Judy, 5-year-old daughter of Mrs. Clarence Funsch of suburban Genesee Township, is back in the hospital with her 19th attack of pneumonia.

But the tiny child, who gained the sympathy of many Americans with her pluck, may soon be home again.

"Her condition is good and she may be going home again in a few days," a spokesman at Flint's McLaren Hospital said today.

Mrs. Funsch said her daughter entered the hospital Tuesday, some six weeks after she left the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor, following a five-hour heart operation.

Judy has received more than

Series to Offer Service Guide

What are the advantages, and drawbacks, in volunteering for military service, instead of letting the draft take its course?

How do you go about choosing between the services?

You can get the answers to these and a hundred other questions about your military obligations by following Elton Fay's eight-part "GI Guide" series starting Wednesday in The Pontiac Press.

Mental Health Budget Ready

County to Submit Figures for State OK

A proposed $1,653,849 budget for Oakland County's 1966-67 mental health program will be submitted for approval of the State Department of Mental Health.

The budget, which would require $414,443 in county funds and the balance in state appropriations, was approved yesterday by the County Community Mental Health Services Board.

The total budget is up by $161,000 over the original proposed budget given to the board six weeks ago.

Expansion of the Probate Court psychological clinic accounts for the increase.

An original appropriation of $63,000 was earmarked for this purpose. Included was provision for five full-time employes and one person working on a half-time basis.

19 EMPLOYES

The $224,000 psychological clinic expenditure approved by the board yesterday provides for a staff of 19 employes.

A budget provision of $31,000 for the New Horizons program created a controversy at the board's May meeting and led to a closed session of the group in an attempt to resolve differences.

Some members felt that the program for moderately retarded adults should be expanded.

But, yesterday the board approved the same amount for New Horizons. The only dissenting vote was cast by Elmer E. Hartwig.

BUDGET FIGURES

Included in the total proposed budget are $94,590 for board administration, $1,072,130 for outpatient services and $153,804 for inpatient services.

Also included are $176,475 for rehabilitative services, $143,850 for consulting services and $13,000 for educational services.

State action on the budget, which covers the July 1, 1966 to July 1, 1967 period, is expected by July 1.

News Flash

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson announced today the resignation of retired Adm. William F. Raborn as director of the Central Intelligence Agency and said he will be succeeded by his deputy, Richard Helms.

Pit Danger Emphasized

Snipe Away Before Newsmen

3 Senate Rivals Trade Barbs

GAYLORD (AP) — Michigan's three leading U. S. Senate candidates sniped at each other yesterday in their first face-to-face encounter, while their audience of newspaper executives sat back and listened.

Democrat Jerome Cavanagh attacked Democrat G. Mennen Williams, Williams attacked Republican Robert Griffin and Griffin attacked Democratic President Johnson.

And each told the Michigan Associated Press Editorial Association he expected to be the state's new senator next year.

Mayor Cavanagh of Detroit said he was optimistic about his primary race with former Gov. Williams and offered to debate incumbent Sen. Griffin after he, Cavanagh, wins the Democratic nod.

Cavanagh also accused Williams of "ducking anything resembling a debate" and said the former governor's advisers had "packed meetings, rammed through endorsements and planted rumors" to hurt the mayor's chances.

Williams generally ignored Cavanagh, praising the economic policies of the Kennedy and Johnson administrations and criticizing Griffin, "the new interim junior senator from Michigan."

Griffin was appointed senator this year by Gov. George Romney to replace Democrat Patrick McNamara, who died.

Williams said Griffin, as a House member, voted against many of the economic measures that contributed to the prosperity, such as tax reductions.

'LACKS UNDERSTANDING'

"I think the only conclusion we can draw is that Rep. Griffin did not understood the economics behind these tax bills," Williams said.

Asked about this, Griffin said he favored tax cuts and other government initiatives in times of recession, but opposed meddling with the economy in times of prosperity.

Griffin devoted most of his 10-minute talk to criticism of the Kennedy and Johnson administrations. He said:

"In the past four or five years the manipulation and suppression of truth has become the rule rather than the exception. It has reduced American effectiveness in foreign affairs.

FIRE QUESTIONS

"The American people have a right to expect that their own government will not deceive them on facts they have a right to know."

After the prepared speeches, the editors fired questions at the candidates. The questions were about Viet

Threat of Showers Dampens Outlook

There may be a few showers to dampen the spirits of Pontiac area residents over the weekend the forecast is mostly pleasant.

The daily prediction looks like this:

SATURDAY — Sunny and warmer today with a chance of late afternoon or evening showers or thundershowers. Fair and not so cool tonight with lows of 50 to 56.

SUNDAY — Partly sunny and warm. Highs aiming for 87.

MONDAY — Chance of showers and warm.

Experts Speculate Russia Gags Fidel

By BEN F. MEYER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Washington analysts believe the Soviet Union may have ordered Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro to stop talking and take a back seat in his country's affairs.

Whether he has been stripped of power, the analysts say, remains to be seen.

The State Department took public notice this week of reports that Castro's regime faces "growing popular dissatisfaction."

Press officer Robert McCloskey also noted that "it is a fact that Castro uncharacteristically has not been in the foreground of events since May 1."

The Cuban Prime Minister was reported yesterday to have concluded an inspection trip to one of the provinces.

TROUBLESOME

Analysts here are basing the theory that Moscow may have gagged Castro on persistent reports that the Soviet Union has found some of his recent activities very troublesome.

Earlier this year Castro engaged in a prolonged feud with Yugoslavia, a nation that has shown signs of independence from the Communist bloc.

The Castro regime's outbursts against Yugoslavia came as the Kremlin appeared to be making a concerted effort to avoid further breaches among bloc nations in light of its continuing battle with Communist China.

Only last month the Soviet Union signed a trade treaty for the exchange of $2.6 billion worth of goods with Yugoslavia through 1970.

FIDEL CASTRO

CLOSER TIES

Romania and Poland both have given indications lately that they would like closer ties with the West, particularly in trade. And Premier Chou En-lai of Red China now is visiting Romania.

Thus the Soviet Union, weary of prolonged aid to Communist Cuba and disturbed by its worsening economy, may have decided to clamp down on Castro to avoid the possibility of his stirring more rifts.

Some Cuban experts also say that Castro's blast at Yugoslavia may have been really aimed at Moscow, which the prime minister couldn't mention by name because the Soviet Union is keeping his regime afloat with an estimated $1 million in aid a day.

The opinion here, however seems to be that the Soviet Union is stuck with Cuba and would not cut off its aid after investing as many dollars, men and material as it has in the Caribbean country.

Police Seal Off Buddhist Area

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The fatal shooting of a policeman and the beating of another by a Buddhist mob led troops and riot police to seal off Saigon's Buddhist Institute today, the windup of the first year of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military government.

The premier, smiling and relaxed at an anniversary garden party, declared the remnants of Buddhist opposition "represent no problem at all" to his regime.

"We are over the hump," he said.

Ky declared dissidence in the northern city of Hue will have to be cleaned up very soon, with violence avoided where possible. He described the recent agitation in Saigon as "nothing —just screaming little children led by a handful of monks and paid agitators."

"We will take care of that soon, too," he said.

SHOT WITH OWN GUN

The policeman was shot dead with his own gun by one man from an antigovernment mob. The other was attacked by a mob of about 150 persons. Some sources said he was dragged bleeding into the institute compound; others said he may have been released.

The police were said to have been given orders to shoot at the legs of persons trying to flee from the compound where the man who shot the policeman was said to have fled.

In the war against the Viet Cong, American B52 bombers rounded out one year of raids against Communist targets in Viet Nam and marked the anniversary with two big attacks against the Communist guerrillas.

GROUND FIGHTING DWINDLES

Ground fighting dwindled to only minor allied contact with the Viet Cong.

Police officials reported that a 16-year-old Buddhist girl, who set herself afire in an antigovernment protest Friday night, died today.

The girl, Dao Thi Tuyet, set her clothing ablaze in the compound of the Buddhist Institute. Her death brought to 10 the number of self-immolations since May 29.

A police captain said the man who shot the policeman in Saigon was seen running into the institute. Police were demanding that monks hand him over.

KNOW SLAYER

The captain, Phan Huu Tran, said police knew the slayer.

Plainclothesmen seized four persons, one of them wearing monk's robes, and took them away in a truck. One resisted and policemen were seen beating him with rifle butts.

Police said the slain policeman was on his way to work when he was attacked. He lived in the area.

Although the institute, about two miles from downtown Saigon, has been the center of agitation against the government of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, no monks in robes were seen in the crowd that attacked the policemen.

The institute's gates were closed and about 200 persons milled about inside.

BURN U.S. JEEP

Earlier, the crowd which had been on the street all day, burned an American Jeep.

As the antigovernment rioting went into its sixth straight day, the regime announced that the curfew in the capital will be shortened by three hours today and Sunday to permit observances of Armed Forces Day.

A big parade of all branches of the South Vietnamese and allied forces is scheduled for Sunday. Air force units also will fly over the city.

Senate Foes Trade Barbs at Meeting

Nam and these were the answers:

Cavanagh — "We have an obligation to stay but we also have an obligation to employ our political resources to help the South Vietnamese people gain Democratic government . . . If we continue along the present course, a negotiated settlement will be impossible . . .

"The first thing we need is a military cease-fire. Then, hopefully, we can assist the South Vietnamese in creation of a civilian representative government . . ."

GRIFFIN'S REPLY

Griffin — "I have serious misgivings and reservations about some policies and decisions which have gotten us into this situation . . . This conflict will never be brought to a satisfactory conclusion by bombs and by take-over of Viet Cong territory by force.

"It is the political side we must stress with more and better foreign aid."

Williams — "If we are going to have peace, we must have a military defense against aggression from the north until they (the enemy) are contained. We must help South Viet Nam economically."

Romney's Remarks on Osteopath Bill Hit

Dr. Philip Adler, president of the Michigan Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons, today criticized remarks made Thursday by Gov. George Romney to the Michigan Hospital Association as "presumptuous."

Romney had indicated he would veto a proposed bill to establish an osteopathic college authority to govern the proposed Michigan College of Osteopathic Medicine (MCOM) in Pontiac if it were given legislative approval before completion of a State Board of Education Study.

"Gov. Romney is presumptuous in his allegations as to whether a piece of legislation is constitutional or unconstitutional," said Dr. Adler.

"The responsibility of determining the constitutionality of legislation rests with the Michigan State Supreme Court and not with lay people" charged Adler.

The doctor claimed Romney inferred that the proposed college is unconstitutional. The osteopathic college bill will come before the House of Representatives Tuesday.

'SOLE RESPONSIBILITY'

Romney said, "the Michigan Board of Education has the sole responsibility of higher education."

"Gov. Romney ignores the fact that the MCOM was granted a charter by the Michigan Board of Education in November 1964," Dr. Adler commented.

"If we are to presume that only those charters granted by the present Michigan Board of Education are valid, then every pre-existing charter of every school of higher education in Michigan should be reviewed by them and certified.

"However, this is contrary to everything that is known about American legislation since no laws are allowed to be retroactive," countered Adler.

SEEK AUDIENCE

"Another presumption made by Gov. Romney," Adler added, "is that the State Legislature would embark upon legislation without first conferring with its legal and consuling staff to make sure that the legislation proposed would not be construed as unconstitutional."

Dr. Adles said, "several attempts by the osteopathic profession have been made to secure an audience with the governor to present the osteopathic side of the story.

These attempts to have an interview concerning the proposed Osteopathic college have been unsuccessful.

ON VAN DYKE

The accident occurred at 6:40 p.m. on Van Dyke south of 29 Mile, Washington Township. Mrs. Boettcher is in fair condition at St. Joseph Hospital, Mount Clemens.

Carol Jones received third degree burns when her foreign-made sports car was struck in the rear by a vehicle driven by 54-year-old William R. Pinkard of 231 Ferry.

Pinkard is in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital with second and third degree burns on his face and left hand.

According to Pontiac police, the Jones car was stopped on Telegraph on preparation for a left hand turn onto Ruth when struck by Pinkard's auto.

EXPLOSION

Witnesses told police the foreign car exploded and burst into flames, also igniting Pinkard's car.

Fox was found dead in his burning house at 6:15 a.m. today. Shelby Township police are still investigating the cause of his death.

Police said Fox lived in the house with a housekeeper who was out at the time of the fire. They are still investigating the cause of the fire which resulted in an estimated $15,000 to $20,000 damage.

Scout Drive Report Given

$235,552 Reported of $550,000 Goal

Contributions totaling $235,552 were reported yesterday at the first general report meeting of the Clinton Valley Council Boy Scouts of America Lost Lake Reservation Development Fund committee.

The campaign's goal is $550,000.

John Z. DeLorean, general chairman for the campaign, said he was pleased with early returns from the reports that have been received.

He observed that the "Lost Lake 550" is a name that fits the need of the campaign in terms of the $550,000 for the purchase and preliminary development of 2,284 acres of land near Clare as a Boy Scout reservation.

The campaign name further reflects the urgency of the time allocated for completion of this phase of the campaign.

550 HOURS

From its beginning on June 7, there were just 550 hours before the target date of June 30 for completion of the public phase of the campaign — an ambitious schedule of $1,000 per hour, for 23 days.

The "race" is now nearing the halfway mark and is on schedule.

More that 1,500 scouters, and friends of scouters are hard at work in the 33 townships of Oakland and Macomb counties that make up the geographical area of the Clinton Valley Council.

This is the first time in the history of the council that the public has been asked to assist in a capital fund campaign.

Inquiry to Eye Ship Disaster

Will Seek Cause of NY Harbor Collision

NEW YORK (AP) — A Coast Guard board of inquiry will convene Monday to study the still mysterious cause of Thursday's flaming collision between two tankers in New York harbor.

The known death toll remained at 20 today, after a search of the burned hulk of the British tanker Alva Cape yielded no bodies. Twelve crewmen are listed as missing.

Of the 71 survivors aboard the two tankers and two escorting tugs which also caught fire, all but 21 had been released from hospitals by Friday night. One remained in critical condition.

The Alva Cape, carrying more than four million gallons of volatile naphtha, collided in the Kill Van Kull channel with the Texaco Massachusetts, an American freighter heading empty to the Gulf of Mexico.

EXPLOSION, FIRE

The collision was followed by an explosion and fire which sent flames 100 feet into the air in the 2,000-foot-wide channel between New Jersey and Staten Island.

Although the cause of the fire remained to be determined by the Coast Guard investigation, survivors said it apparently resulted when naphtha, a petroleum distillate, leaked from the damaged Alva Cape and washed over the engine of its tug.

The disaster was the worst in the harbor since 50 died in a 1960 fire aboard the aircraft carrier Constitution while it was under construction in the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

Another Sea Collision; 12 Men Missing

HALIFAX, N.S. (UPI) — A huge Liberian freighter struck a Nova Scotia fishing trawler in a thick coastal fog early today. The trawler sank and hours later, 12 fishermen were still missing.

It was the second serious North American ship collision in three days.

On Thursday, two tankers collided in New York Harbor. The resulting fire claimed at least 20 lives and 12 were still missing.

Today's collision occurred some 40 miles southeast of Shelburne, N.S., in the North Atlantic. Authorities reported rescue efforts were hampered by a soupy fog some eight hours after the accident.

Search and rescue headquarters reported that the trawler, the Reliance, sank "almost immediately" after colliding with the freighter Bordapian, which was bound for Manchester, England, from Wilmington, N.C.

The freighter radioed back that it had taken aboard four survivors from the 118-foot trawler.

Sherman Tarrant, Seaholm English teacher, has been appointed supervisor of the summer school project financed under a grant from the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Mrs. Inez Asper, attendance officer, and William Pittman, purchasing agent, have resigned. Mrs. Asper will retire after 23 years of service. Pittman will take a position outside the school system.

OCC Sign-Up Tops Estimate

Oakland Community College's first summer term has attracted 1,191 students — about the number that had been expected.

All but one are enrolled as part time students in the session which began May 4.

Analysis of the enrollment figures issued this week shows 638 students on the college's Highland Lakes campus and 553 on the Auburn Hills campus.

Arthur Jalkenen, OCC dean of student personnel, also noted that the college has received 2,641 entrance applications thus far in 1966, compared to 2,431 a year ago.

Enrollment this fall, at the beginning of the college's second academic year, is expected to top 5,000.

Chicago Pair Find Happiness

CHICAGO (UPI) — To Chester and Dora Fronczak, who know all about heartbreak, only one thing was important. They had little Paul Joseph.

Other people wondered about blood tests, ear photographs— and the seemingly one-in-a-million chance that Paul Joseph could be the Fronczak's long-kidnaped son.

While 2-year-old Paul Joseph, dressed in a white T-shirt and blue shorts, played in the Fronczak home under the loving eye of Mrs. Fronczak, an attorney appealed to the public to leave the family alone.

Investigators said intensive detective work and the best brains of medical science may never be able to determine whether Paul Joseph is the baby who was kidnaped from Mrs. Fronczak's arms in April 1964, when it was only one day old.

Attendants in Michael Reese Hospital had not typed the infant's blood or taken fingerprints. The only identification was a photograph showing the infant's ear — which are as individual as a fingerprint.

CHILD FOUND

Paul Joseph —the name the Fronczaks had given their baby —was found near a variety store in Newark, N.J., nearly a year ago.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation knew almost immediately that there were striking similarities between the Newark foundling and the Fronczak baby.

New Pact Talks Set

Waterford Teachers, Board Still Apart

By HUDSON WILLSE

Despite 24 negotiating sessions, amounting to about 100 hours at the bargaining table, Waterford Township teachers and the board of education are still in disagreement over terms for a 1966-67 contract.

Another negotiating session is slated for 10 a.m. Thursday.

Teachers are seeking higher wage increments than those offered by the board, in addition to the hiring of 10 more teachers and lay help for elementary school teachers and full hospitalization.

WEA Vice President Robert G. Crumpton and Supt. of Schools Dr. Don O. Tatroe have expressed the views of each side as heads of the negotiating committees.

"In matters of salary, Waterford competes throughout the nation," claims Crumpton.

"Trips to California last year by recruiters attest to this.

CALIFORNIA TRIP

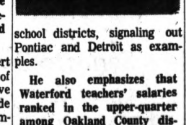
"Salary schedules thus must reflect a broader view than Oakland County.

"To date the board's offer has shown a relatively provincial approach to the matter.

"We would cite as examples of higher settlements here in Michigan, including Center Line, Lakeview, South Redford, Van Dyke, Birmingham, Warren and others."

PAY IN TOP QUARTER

Tatroe asserts that Waterford's pupil-teacher ratio, although not ideal, is lower than several Southeastern Michigan



school districts, signaling out Pontiac and Detroit as examples.

He also emphasizes that Waterford teachers' salaries ranked in the upper-quarter among Oakland County districts this past school year and that the board's initial offer would keep them there next year.

"The paradox in the whole situation is that the board and administration want the ends desired by the association," says Tatroe.

Crumpton, a vocal music and history teacher at Waterford Township High School, asserts that Waterford is known as a leader in educational program.

"Central to this leadership is keeping and maintaining a good staff through an adequate salary schedule, fringe benefits and reduced class sizes where needed.

"We are concerned that Waterford children receive an equal opportunity for quality education, as their parents do, who pay taxes equally for school support," Crumpton contends.

Tatroe, likewise, asserts, "We want lower class loads and higher salaries and have demonstrated these convictions in the progress made in recent years.

"But we believe we would be doing the children who attend Waterford schools, our community and even our employes a disservice if we were to take action at this time which might jeopardize our ability to maintain the schools' operation in the future," says Tatroe.

"We believe a steady and sure course is needed at this time," concludes the superintendent.

Teachers have voted to withhold their services next fall if a contract agreement is not reached.

Power vs. Finesse

Arnie, Casper Share Lead

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The 66th U.S. Open Golf Tournament developed today into a match of the brute strength of a resurging Arnold Palmer and the finesse of Billy Casper.

Deadlocked at 137 going into the third round, they led an assault on the tight Olympic Club course on which golfers are scoring far lower than expected.

"These two boys over here are playing like gangbusters," declared Phil Rodgers who had carded an even par 140 to deadlock for second place with unknown Rives McBee. The latter, a rookie pro, surprised everyone with a record-tying 64 on his second round of the $150,000 show.

Galleries and television viewers today saw two contrasting stylists in Palmer and Casper, each of whom has won the Open once. Arnie, the charger, utilizes tremendous power. Billy depends more on position and a deft putting touch.

BLATS PAR

Palmer fired a four-under-par 66 Friday causing some embarrassment to host pro Kyle Burton who before play started Thursday had declared, "I'll eat my hat if he can change this course."

Even Arnie, with one of his greatest rounds, didn't card the lowest score. The surprising McBee from Midland, Tex., a pro only since last Aug. 1, conquered the Olympic with a 64 to equal the individual 18-hole record for this 71-year-old tournament.

Casper carded a 68 to go with his opening 69 on a course where only five rounds lower than par 70 were shot during the full 72 holes of the 1955 Open.

SCRAMBLER

"I'd say you'd have to classify this as a scrambling round," said Casper who won the title in 1959.

Jack Nicklaus, burning over a United States Golf Association admonition to speed up his game, remained in strong contention with his second 71 for 142.

SPEED UP

"We played six holes and the USGA asked us to speed up," said Nicklaus. "I proceeded to make four straight bogeys. Very seldom I get as mad as I did at our 'police force.'"

Jack said his threesome with Tony Lema and Bruce Devlin had frequently been in the rough during the early holes causing delays.

The USGA has demanded an end to slow play and Executive Director Joe Dey commented,

Local Infielder Signs

Birmingham's Chan Simonds, one of two area prospects drafted by the Detroit Tigers in the recent pro baseball free agent selections, signed a contract Friday.

Simonds, a first baseman for the University of Michigan for three seasons, will report immediately to Statesville (N. C.) of the Western Carolinas League, a Class A Detroit affiliate.

Simonds bats and throws left-handed. The slender first sacker was a key performer in Huron-Airway's drive to the Pontiac Men's Recreation League championship last summer.

A Seaholm High School graduate, he played American Legion ball in Birmingham.

The other area draftee for the Tigers is pitcher Herb Doebler of Utica. He also was picked for a Class A minor league affiliate but is still weighing a baseball scholarship to Michigan State.

Simonds was the second Wolverine signed by the Tigers in two days. They persuaded ace right-handed hurler Bob Reed of Flint to sign a bonus contract with Montgomery (Ala.) of the Southern League.

Reed, a junior, also was picked by the Bengals last summer but declined their contract offers.

Yankees' Stottlemyre Stifles Detroit

N.Y. Pins 5-2 Loss on Tigers

Kaline Homers; New Pitcher Takes Loss

NEW YORK (AP) — Yankee Mel Stottlemyre held the "right hand" as the Detroit Tigers house of cards toppled in a 5-2 defeat Friday night.

Stottlemyre, the first right-hander to tame the Tigers power in June, pitched a five-hitter. Except for a two-run homer by Al Kaline in the eighth, he had matters under control.

The newest Tiger, Earl Wilson, was bounced out in a four-run fifth inning as New York sent nine men to the plate against him and relief pitcher Johnny Podres, Wilson was making his first start for Detroit after being acquired in a trade with Boston for Don Demeter.

SECOND DECISION

That was all Stottlemyre needed for his second decision over Detroit this year.

But the game belonged to the outfielders as no less than five diving, leaping catches were turned in by the flychasers.

Jim Northrup contributed two and Willie Horton one for the Tigers, while Roy White and Joe Pepitone were the bandits for the Yankees.

Three of them stopped possible homers, while the fifth nipped a Detroit threat before it had a chance to start.

SCORE IN FOURTH

Wilson set down the first nine men to face him before giving up a run in the fourth.

A single by Bobby Richardson, a walk by Mickey Mantle and Joe Pepitone's ground rule double put one across in the fourth.

White and Jake Gibbs started the fifth with singles. After Stottlemyre forced White on a sacrifice attempt, Tresh singled, scoring White, and Richardson doubled home two more runs. Roger Maris drove in the final Yankees tally after Podres relieved Wilson.

Detroit scored with two out in the eighth on Dick MacAuliffe's single and Al Kaline's 10th home run.

Northrup followed with a long blast to right centerfield which Pepitone hauled in after a long run more than 400 feet from home plate. Northrup made two fine catches in right field to rob Yankees of hits.

Horse Show Judge to Return

Col. C. H. Anderson Detroit Official

Col. C. H. Anderson of Seine et Marne, France will return to see some of the top jumper horses in the Western Hemisphere tackle his prize-winning course during next week's Detroit Horse Show at the Bloomfield Open Hunt.

Col. Anderson designed the Fort Riley Classic course which will be used next Saturday night for the first North American Open Jumper Classic, the highlight of the 49th annual Detroit Horse Show.

He will be one of six judges working the show Monday through Sunday at the hunt grounds on East Long Lake Road.

Also judging the events at the world's largest outdoor show for hunters and jumpers will be Lt. Colonel A. R. Kitts, Fort Carson, Colo.; Brig. General Harry Disston, Shadwell, Va.; James J. Fallon, Millbrook, N.Y.: Daniel P. Lenehan, Sewickley, Pa.; and the Rev. Edward L. Melton, Rockville Center, N.Y.

IMPRESSIVE

Col. Anderson's course has impressed the horse show followers the last two years. However, the Fort Riley Classic event for which it was patterned has been suspended.

The course, winner of the 1964 American Horse Show Association's designer's contest, will be used, though, for the premier North American Jumper Classic.

More than $18,000 will be awarded in trophies, ribbons and prize monies during the seven-day show, an AHSA honor show.

Equitation, dressage and hunter events will occupy the first three days of the show primarily, with the inspiring open jumper action beginning Wednesday night.

Show operations chairman Paul Schuster has arranged also for special entertainment each evening Wednesday-Saturday.

Jim Brown Faces Suspension

Film Delay May Cost Back

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland Browns fullback Jim Brown has little to say about a statement by the club owner that the fullback's salary will be suspended if he fails to report for training.

The 30-year-old professional football veteran has changed uniforms to play a soldier in a war movie being filmed in London. Because of setbacks in filming the movie, Brown might not be able to return to the States in time to report to the Browns' Hiram, Ohio, training Camp July 17.

"I really can't say how long the film assignment will take," Brown said Friday night in London. "I had a cable from Modell (Arthur Modell, owner of the Browns) saying he was making a statement, but I hadn't heard until now what the statement was. There's nothing much I can say about it at the moment."

Modell said that he has tried to contact Brown for several weeks, but has been unsuccessful.

He said in a statement Friday that Brown's pay will be suspended starting with the July 17 training date until he shows up. Brown—in his last year of a three-year contract—is one of the Browns who plays for an annual salary instead of being paid just during the regular season.

His annual income from football is estimated at $65,000. A pay suspension would amount to a loss of $5,000 or more a month.

Buckeyes Reach Finals on Arm of Steve Arlin

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Marty Karow, veteran Ohio State coach who boldly wears No. 13, doesn't hedge about the key man in his club's surge into the 20th NCAA Baseball Championship finals tonight against Oklahoma State.

"Steve Arlin is the big guy," Karow said after Arlin's two-hit, 12-strikeout job which eliminated top-ranked Southern California 1-0.

GREAT COMPETITOR

"Without him we could not be here, period. He's a tremendous competitor. He always does it when he has to."

Arlin won't start in the title game, but the Big Ten champions still rule as slight favorites.

Oklahoma State's 10th-ranked Big Eight champions lack Ohio State's power, but they have the best pitching record in the tournament, plus the advantage of drawing a bye into the finals.

UNDECIDED

Coach Chet Bryan is undecided about a starting pitcher. It's between chunky John Pierce, who beat Texas 6-1 Wednesday, and tall Richard Frank, 5-1 winner over North Carolina Tuesday.

Ohio State's only run off USC's Ron Cook came in the fourth on Bo Rein's triple and Russ Nagelson's ground-out.

Juniors' Baseball Will Begin Monday

The Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department's junior baseball program will open its season Monday with games in four classes: D, E, F and Widgets.

The youngest group, T-Ball players, will start their season Tuesday.

The Class F (13-and-under) Widget (11-and-under) leaguers have 9 a.m. double-headers at Jaycee Park. There are 19 Widget teams and seven in the T-Ball circuit.

Those two programs will alternate using the Jaycee softball diamonds Monday through Thursday mornings.

The 12 Class E (15-and-under) teams will utilize Wisner Field and the two Aaron-Perry diamonds at 5:30 p.m. Monday-Thursday.

The oldest junior players, the eight Class D teams, will compete on the Jaycee Park baseball fields at 5:30 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays, preceding the Class A (men's) league games.

The highly successful city recreation junior baseball program produces usually at least one contender for a state recreation association title each summer.

The Waterford Township Recreation Department's junior program will commence Monday, also, at the various diamonds throughout the district.

The township leagues are established by ages: 10-and-under, 12-and-under, 14-and-under and 16-and-under.

U.S. Grapplers Please Coach

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The United States stands little chance of winning the team title of the World Freestyle Wrestling Championships, but Coach Bill Smith is happy with the performance of his team.

The Americans have never won a gold medal in the world championships although they have picked up many Olympic medals. Smith thinks Bobby Douglas of Oklahoma State University should be able to win a gold medal today.

"Douglas should go all the way," Smith said Friday night after the 138.5 pounder edged Elkan Tedeen of Russia in a match so close it took a vote of the jury to decide a winner.

COACH PROUD

Smith said he was extremely proud of the U.S. team, which has proved to be a far bigger threat in the tournament than expected.

"We haven't had a bad match," he said. "We've got some calls from the judges we didn't like, but the kids all have wrestled good matches."

Soccer Draws Record Crowd

DETROIT (AP) — A record Motor City soccer crowd watched the Tottenham Hotspurs of London, England shutout Bayern Munich of West Germany 3-0 Friday night in an exhibition soccer match.

Jim Robertson, the English squad's outside right, set up all three scoring plays after the two teams battled through a scoreless first half.

The crowd of 11,251 reportedly was the largest ever to see a soccer game in Detroit.

State Assigning Police to Parks in South Areas

LANSING (UPI) — The Conservation Department Friday assigned 16 veteran officers to state parks in Southern Michigan in what it said was an effort to stamp out "hoodlumism."

Warren W. Shapton, a regional manager for the department, said "We've been just about a jump behind these rowdies all spring. Now, by keeping them guessing as to where our patrol forces are strongest, we hope to discourage their ruckus-raising at all parks."

The Department also said it would ban the use of alcoholic beverages at several trouble spots until after July 4.

In addition, it issued an order prohibiting the use of motorboats on Wildwood Lake in Oakland County through Labor Day.

State Trooper Second in Pistol Competition

EAST LANSING (AP)—State Police Trooper Richard Brantner of the Jackson post placed second among police officers in the International Pistol Shooting Championships at San Antonio, Texas, the department reports.

Brantner represented Michigan State Police in the 12-day meet, just ended. The National Rifle Association conducted the meet to select a U.S. team for the world championships in Germany in July. Places on the team went to service personnel.

Mexico in Lead; Puerto Rico 2nd

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)— With seven new meet records already in the books, the 17 nations in the 10th Central American and Caribbean Games continue their battle for points today with Mexico leading the way and Puerto Rico in hot pursuit.

Showing its major strength in swimming, Puerto Rico posted a new record in the 400-meter womens' relay Friday, lowering the old mark of 4:33.1 by seven seconds. It also set a new mark in the 200 meters.

FATHER'S DAY

J. L. VOORHEES

There is something innate about a father which is never extinguished. He may be hurt, disappointed or shunned by his children but when the chips are down he comes forward to lend a hand. Not it is our turn to show him our appreciation. He has built our life as it is, he is the engineer of our future; we might have differed with his theory of conduct but he didn't make an issue of it but allowed us to come to our decisions ourselves. He doesn't expect loud applause. He lives for his family and it should be his family who makes His Day delightful.

To all Dads, we hope you have a Happy Celebration.

Psychiatrist to Aid Board

Dr. Doris A. Berlin, a psychiatrist, will work this summer with the Oakland County Community Mental Health Services Board under a University of Michigan field training program.

DR. BERLIN

The Oakland County mental health board is the first in the state to be selected for placement of this type.

Dr. Berlin, who will assist Dr. Robert E. Walden, psychiatric director of the county mental health board, is working toward a degree of Master of Public Health and is on a fellowship from the National Institute of Mental Health.

In September, she will become a research associate in public health administration and a lecturer in mental health in the School of Public Health at the University of Michigan.

Dr. Berlin completed her psychiatric training at Bellevue Hospital in New York in 1952 and since has been in private practice in New York and Toledo.

Dixieland Veteran Dies of Leukemia

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dixieland banjo player Johnny St. Cyr, who grew with jazz in early-century New Orleans, was reminiscing: "We played dance halls, weddings, funerals, riverboats and house parties. I sure miss the old days."

St. Cyr, who played with Kid Ory, King Oliver, Jelly Roll Morton and Louis Armstrong, was active until a few weeks before his death Friday of leukemia. He was 76.

Born in New Orleans, he played there with his own string trio. Later he joined Martin Gabriel and then the Tuxedo Band. From 1914 to 1919 St. Cyr was with Kid Ory's Brownskin Babies, whose trumpet man was Louis Armstrong.

Pope, Kennedy Holds 35-Minute Talk at Vatican

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Pope Paul VI talked together for 35 minutes today in an audience during Kennedy's stopover on his way home from an African tour.

The audience was unusually long. Most Papal audiences last about 20 minutes.

Vatican sources had speculated that the Pope and the Democratic senator from New York might discuss Viet Nam or the race problem in South Africa.

There was no official disclosure, however, of the subjects discussed. A Vatican spokesman said only that the talk "was very cordial."

Royal Oak Drain District
Oakland County, Michigan

SEALED TENDERS of Royal Oak Drain District Refunding Bonds, dated May 1, 1937 and maturing May 1, 1947, with November 1, 1966 and subsequent coupons attached, will be received by the Oakland County Drain Commissioner in his office, located at 550 South Telegraph Road, Pontiac, Michigan, up to 2:00 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, on the 19th day of July, 1966, to be publicly opened by him immediately thereafter.

Tenders must specify the serial numbers of the bonds offered and the amount for which they will be sold to the Drain District. Approximately $112,000.00 will be available to purchase tendered bonds. The County Drain Commissioner reserves the right to reject any or all tenders and to waive any irregularities in said tenders.

Offerings must be firm for three (3) days and shall be accepted by depositing letter acceptance in the U.S. Post Office in the City of Pontiac, Michigan on or before 12:00 Midnight on July 22, 1966. Collect telegraphic advice of acceptance or rejection will be made if requested in tender letter. Offering should be marked on the outside of the sealed envelope "TENDER OF BONDS".

Funds will be available at the Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit, Paying Agent, on August 1, 1966, and interest from May 1, 1966, in the amount of Eleven Dollars and Twenty-Five Cents ($11.25) will be paid on each Bond so retired upon Tenders.

Attention is called to the decree entered by the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland, in Chancery, in the case of Earl L. Clark, Plaintiff, vs. City of Royal Oak, et al., defendants, which decree was affirmed by the Michigan Supreme Court upon appeal by Bondholders and certain cities (Clark vs. City of Royal Oak, et al., 325 Mich. 293). Under this decree, approximately two-thirds of the lands in the special assessment district are not subject to deficiency assessments which results in the cancellation of approximately 42 per cent of the total amount of the yearly deficiency assessments.

Personnel Code Adopted

A policy governing personnel practices was adopted yesterday by the Oakland County Community Mental Health Services Board.

One provision specifies that all clerical and other nonprofessional personnel be compensated on the basis of the salary schedule for other Oakland County employes.

This has been an unwritten policy in the past, according to board officials.

Also specified in the policy is that the director and administrative officer be hired by the board after screening and recommendation of the personnel committee of the board.

All other employes must be approved by the board on the recommendation of the director.

The policy further provides that all employes of the board be entitled to fringe benefits received by other county employes.

Finally, it specifies that salary schedules for professional employes of the board be established by the board upon recommendation of the personnel committee.

Peace Corpsman Is Found in Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO (UPI) — Stephen Rutledge, a Peace Corpsman from Croton-on-Hudson, N. Y., who had been missing for 10 days, was found yesterday in the northeastern town of Petrolandia. He was on his way here today.

Authorities in Alagoas state, where Rutledge had been working in the town of Maravilha, said he suffered an attack of Amnesia brought on by overwork.

They said he took a bus to the town of Santana to seek treatment for a stomach ailment and the next thing he remembers he was in Petrolandia.

Unruly Crowd in Soho Halts Graham Visit

LONDON (UPI) — Evangelist Billy Graham said early today he hopes eventually to return to Soho — London's "sin strip" — for the "quiet walk" prevented last night by a screaming, fighting mob of "thrill seekers."

Graham did not set any date for a return visit to Soho. Presumably, a second tour of the area would be less highly publicized than the first.

The evangelist set out yesterday at 10 p.m. after addressing an overflow audience at the Earl's Court Arena, where he is conducting a month-long "crusade," on the subject "Is the World Coming to an End?"

A crowd of about 1,000 persons had gathered to watch Graham's visit.

It was not notably hostile, but it was unruly enough for police and Graham's aides to decide he had better abandon the attempt.

BLONDE STRIPPER

One blonde stripper, billed as "a man who changed to a woman," climbed to the roof of Graham's car and had to be pulled down forcibly by police.

"I was moved so many people in Soho would be that interested," Graham later said.

"If I have an opportunity I intend to return to Soho and have my quiet walk."

When Graham arrived in Soho last night, clutching a Bible, the crowd surged forward. Police linked arms to protect him from unintentional injury.

Fist fights broke out almost immediately as the shouting crowd pushed and shoved for better vantage points. At one point, at least 12 persons were fighting police or each other.
