Tornado Victims Tackle Chore of Rebuilding

13 Firemen Hurt in Factory Fire

Six Killed in Bronx Blaze

NEW YORK (AP)—A wall collapsed during a roaring blaze which gutted a Bronx factory building last night. Six firemen were crushed to death and 13 others were injured.

Fire Commissioner Edward Cavanagh Jr., struck by a flying brick, saw six of his men buried under an avalanche of debris. Five died as they reached a hospital. The sixth man died a few minutes later.

The five-alarm blaze broke out shortly after 8 p.m. in the basement of a one-story, 40-by-80-foot brick structure occupied by an artificial flower manufacturing firm. Firemen fought for 3¼ hours to put it out.

The crashing wall cut power lines and snuffed out street lights. Some 60 firemen battled on in darkness and choking smoke.

Cavanagh, saying the fire took the worst toll of lives in the department in 24 years, ordered an immediate investigation.

Firemen were scrambling up half a dozen ladders hoisted against the 25-foot-high roof when someone yelled "Watch it!"

A 20-by-15-foot marquee on the building, which used to house a movie theater, suddenly ripped clear and brought a large section of the wall with it. Then the entire front wall went down.

MARQUEE GIVES WAY

Ladders were heaved outward as the marquee gave way. Some firemen were thrown to comparative safety or jumped clear.

Fireman Joseph O'Keefe said he was 15 feet up a ladder when he heard a warning cry. He looked down, saw the wall sway, and his ladder was tossed outward.

O'Keefe was flung clear, suffering only foot and face injuries. But Firemen William Hoolan, 47, and Arthur Hanson, 35, below him on the ladder, were crushed to death by falling masonry.

Others killed were Lt. John F. Molloy, 44, and firemen Edward J. Carroll, 41, Frederick J. Hellauer, 38, and Charles J. Infosino, 45.

Eight men, including Antonio Petronelli, acting chief of the city's fire department, were taken to hospitals suffering from broken bones, lacerations, bruises and

Detroit Pair Murder Case Set in Mexico

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Two men from the United States were in Ciudad Victoria today to stand trial in the mutilation slaying of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Kennison of Detroit.

* * *

Police said William Shelton and Joseph O'Brien, both 37, confessed the killings.

The bodies of the Kennisons, in Mexico on a hunting trip, were found March 17 about 15 miles from Victoria. They had been staying at a motel managed by Shelton and O'Brien.

The two men disappeared after the killings but were captured here last Saturday.

They both claim only Shelton was present when the Kennisons were shot. Shelton claimed he suffered a mental blackout at the

When captured the pair denied knowledge of the killings. Police said they made statements after seeing Kennison's checkbook, found in Shelton's station wagon.

Not Candidate, Says VanDusen

Private Law Practice Calls to Representative of Third District

State Representative Richard C. VanDusen (R-Birmingham) said today in Lansing he will not be a candidate for reelection from Oakland County's third district this fall.

VanDusen, appointed to fill a vacancy in the House of Representatives in February, 1954, was elected to the post in November of the same year.

He said he plans to concentrate on the private practice of law, but might be interested in becoming a Republican candidate for attorney general, although he is not actively campaigning.

VanDusen, 30, has been chairman of the Birmingham Republican Committee and Oakland County's Third District Republican Organization Committee.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota, he took his law degree from Harvard Law School.

500 See Opening of Builders' Show at Pontiac Armory

Home improvement was the theme last night as the Pontiac Home and Builders' Show opened for a five-day run at the Pontiac Armory, 57 Water St.

More than 500 area residents gathered in the local building until 10 p.m. to inspect 50 booths manned by personnel of local business places and presenting displays of the latest innovations in house and yard equipment.

Sponsored by the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce, the show is scheduled to last through Sunday night.

Pictures and full account of the show are included on Page 19 of The Pontiac Press.

Masters Tournament Players Get Doused

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—A brief shower greeted early starters today as a record field teed off in the first round of the 20th Masters Golf Tournament.

Light rain fell about 30 minutes, dousing the course, and the outlook was for more rain later in the day. The Augusta Weather Bureau's forecast was for mostly cloudy and warm weather with widely scattered showers

None of the favorites was among those starting early. Ben Hogan was set to tee off at 12:48 p.m., defending champion Cary Middlecoff at 1:18 and Sam Snead at 1:48.

Two graying but unbent oldsters led the way. Fred McLeod, a teaching professional from Washington, D. C., who is 74, and his 72-year-old partner, Jock Hutchinson, who comes from Golf, Ill., each toured the front nine in 42 strokes.

In addition to the old guard headed by Hogan, Middlecoff and Snead, the classy field includes most of the nation's younger stars and, as always, there was speculation about whether one of the newcomers could wrest this title from the veterans.

Rosalind had $1.40 saved for a puppy when she learned that four Jesuits had died when fire destroyed the Shadowbrook Novitiate in Lenox, Mass. She sent her money to a rebuilding fund with a note saying "I'm sorry your house burned down." New England Jesuits said they would pray for her, and newspaper stories prompted a reader to send her the puppy as a present.

FSBA Adviser Seeks National Milkers' Union

Martin Declares Plans in Works for Organizing Dairy Farmers

DETROIT (AP) — Homer Martin, an adviser to the Fair Share Bargaining Assn., says plans are in the works for a national organization of dairy farmers pledged to higher milk prices. A goal, Martin said, would be at least $6 a hundredweight for drinking milk.

The former president of the United Auto Workers said a working agreement has been reached with the Tri-State Master Dairy Farmers Guild in the East to join in forming the national group. Tri-State represents dairy farmers in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Martin said plans are being made for a meeting of representatives of various dairy states to form the group.

He said the meeting probably will be held in Cleveland within the next month.

Martin was a leader in the Fair Sharers' nine-day strike in Michigan in support of demands for $6.50 a hundredweight of milk. The strike ended Tuesday after a series of court orders restricted Fair Share picketing.

Strike leaders claimed a partial victory. They said the strike forced Michigan Milk Producers Assn. to obtain a price of $5 a hundredweight from Detroit-area creameries. The pre-strike price was $4.41. The Fair Sharers are a rebel group within the producers association.

Martin said Fair Share leaders already had held informal talks with representatives from Illinois, Wisconsin and Ohio as well as the three eastern states. He said Fair Share headquarters here had received calls "from as far away as Georgia" expressing interest in formation of a national organization.

"The dairy farmer needs an organization he can trust and one which will bargain for him in good faith," Martin said.

Martin is scheduled to speak Saturday at a meeting of Fair Sharers and the Huron County Farmers Union in Bad Axe.

April to July Considered as Twister Time

CHICAGO (AP)—The rash of tornados that cut a path of death and destruction Monday and Tuesday got the twister season off to a quick start.

The season for tornadoes generally runs from April through July.

(A University of Michigan meteorologist warned today that Michigan is in for more tornadoes.)

They are bred when a layer of cool and dry air spreads over a thick ground layer of moist, warm air. The warm air, being lighter, starts to rise quickly, creating turbulence.

Tornadoes are small, localized violent storms. The funnel usually ranges from 100 feet to a half mile in thickness.

Illinois Primary Will Test Adlai

Stevenson Must Match Kefauver's 42 Pct. in Wisconsin for Big Boost

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Illinois presidential primary next Tuesday will be eyed by politicians to see if Adlai Stevenson runs as strongly there against President Eisenhower as Sen. Estes Kefauver did in Wisconsin.

* * *

Stevenson is likely to suffer a psychological setback in his contest with Kefauver for the Democratic nomination unless he can match or better the 42 per cent of the total vote polled by the Tennessee senator in Wisconsin.

The Illinois and Wisconsin primaries have at least as many differences as they have similarities.

Nevertheless, a relatively poor showing by Stevenson next Tuesday would give Kefauver backers some ammunition to argue that he would have less chance against Eisenhower in November than their candidate.

IN ADLAI'S HOME STATE

Illinois is Stevenson's home state, where he served one term as governor. In 1952, he lost the state to Eisenhower by 443,000 votes.

* * *

Illinois that year did not go as strongly for Eisenhower as did Wisconsin. Eisenhower got 54 per cent of the total general election vote in Illinois and 61 per cent in Wisconsin.

* * *

Stevenson will be unopposed officially in the Illinois Democratic primary, as Kefauver was in Wisconsin.

The Weatherman foresees fair weather tonight with a low ranging from 41 to 45 degrees.

Pontiac Attorney Watches Twister Hit Grand Rapids

"We knew people were getting killed out there. It left us feeling completely helpless."

Pontiac attorney Anthony Renne, who flew to Grand Rapids for a business meeting Tuesday night, watched the first of three tornadoes which killed 17 and left 2,000 homeless in Michigan that night.

"We were on the seventh floor of the Pantlind Hotel, just getting into the elevator," Renne explained today.

"The elevator girl said, 'Look out the window.' We saw this thing about ten miles away, coming toward the city.

"It headed over a ridge into the suburbs, black, black clouds with the funnel sticking down and skipping over the ground.

"As it came down the side of the ridge, we could see flames and smoke springing up behind it wherever it hit. There were black things that we knew were bits of houses and trees swirling around in the air.

"And around the point of the funnel we could see dust clouds swirling around the way they do in pictures of atomic bomb explosions.

"It was a weird sort of feeling. We couldn't hear the tornado, just the fire and ambulance sirens starting up. We were talking to each other, saying 'People are getting killed out there,' and there was nothing we could do about it.

"We knew we were safe, because we could judge its direction. It came within about three miles of us.

"The only thing we could do was watch it plowing through the city."

ANN ARBOR (INS) — The University of Michigan has announced plans for a $9 million dormitory housing 2,000 students on its new north campus.

Dag Maps Out Peace Mission

To Leave Tomorrow to Probe Tensions Along Israeli-Arab Borders

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold today mapped a mission to find ways to bring peace back to the Middle East.

Armed with unanimous authorization from the Security Council, Hammarskjold planned to leave tomorrow to investigate the causes of tension along the Israeli-Arab borders.

He is to report back to the Security Council within a month with measures to calm down Israel and her Arab neighbors.

En route to the Middle East, the secretary general planned to fly by way of London and Paris to consult with Foreign Office experts on arms sales questions and other problems.

He told the council yesterday, after it adopted the U.S. resolution to send him back to the Middle East, that he shared world concern over the dangers in Palestine area.

Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., U. S. chief delegate and council president for April, voiced the council's confidence in the secretary general and its good wishes. Israeli and Arab spokesmen had previously promised cooperation with the mission.

'Gone With Wind'—Goes

BERLIN (AP) — "Gone With the Wind" finally went today. The durable American film ended a marathon run of nearly 2½ years in West Berlin after playing to 600,000 moviegoers. Both the length of the run and attendance total broke all movie records for West Germany.

West Michigan Suffers Damage Set at $11 Million

Death Toll Now Placed at 17; Several Persons Still Unaccounted For

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Thousands of weary tornado victims turned to the heartbreaking task of rebuilding shattered homes today in the aftermath of Michigan's second worst tornado.

The death toll stood at 17, but several persons still were unaccounted for in the Grand Rapids area where Tuesday night's twister claimed 16 of its 17 known victims. The other known death was near Thompsonville, east of Traverse City.

Yesterday's death toll was unofficial, apparently listing some missing persons.

It still was too early to assess the property damage accurately, but unofficial estimates placed it at 11 million dollars, not including losses from several smaller tornadoes in the Traverse City area. The figure was roughly the same as the damage estimate in the Flint tornado of June 8, 1953, that took 115 lives.

A count by the Red Cross put the number of buildings damaged or destroyed at 555. In Kent, Ottawa and adjoining counties, a breakdown showed 69 homes destroyed, 300 damaged and 186 stores and other buildings damaged or destroyed.

Some 2,000 were left homeless.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams, who visited the stricken areas yesterday, indicated that "a reasonable amount of state and local funds" will be spent to ease the tornado havoc.

Promises of federal help came soon after.

The Small Business Administration designated Kent and Ottawa Counties as disaster areas eligible for federal assistance and said other areas damaged by the tornadoes may receive similar designation.

ELIGIBLE FOR LOANS

The action makes owners of homes and business property in the two counties eligible for 3 per cent reconstruction loans for property damaged by the twister.

Gov. Williams has asked President Eisenhower to make devastated areas eligible for other federal help, which could bring assistance from the Civil Defense Administration, the Housing and Home Finance Agency and the Agriculture Department.

These agencies could provide cash grants necessary to provide shelter for the homeless, mortgage insurance for loans to rebuild homes, loans to communities to

Visitors Discouraged

State Police are discouraging curiosity seekers from traveling to Hudsonville to view the tornado destruction. According to Sgt. Henry Kuzowicz of the Redford post, only emergency vehicles are being allowed at the scene. "Many people have telephoned to inquire," Kuzowicz said. "Those who drive to Hudsonville will only be turned away," he added.

Head for Cellar With Water, Radio

Civil Defense Heads Give Tornado Advice

What should you do if a tornado is about to strike the Pontiac area, like those that swept through western Michigan Tuesday night?

If time permits, you should go to a cellar, cave, or underground excavation, preferably where there is an air outlet to help equalize air pressure.

But past history has shown that often you will not have time to seek shelter. Most tornadoes have speeds from 25 to 40 miles per hour while some have varied up to 140 m.p.h.

Lewis C. Jarrendt, Oakland County Civil Defense Director, said yesterday he planned to investigate the possibility of having Ground Observer post filter centers send warnings to law enforcement agencies when tornadoes are spotted.

In other information prepared by Jarrendt's office, it was suggested that a shelter, like your basement, should be equipped with a pick and shovel.

Assistant Pontiac Civil Defense Director William L. Collins added that canned food, water and first aid kits be added to the shelter if time permits.

If you don't have a basement or storm cellar and there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.

Collins suggested for those homes in the Pontiac area without basements, that residents get under the most substantial object on the first floor like a desk, table or bed.

When you are inside, stay away from windows and draw shades. Turn on the radio or television set for latest tornado advice or information.

Doors and windows on the north and east sides of the house may be opened to help reduce damage to the building.

In frame homes, the southwest corner of the basement usually offers the greatest safety. If time permits, electricity and fuel lines should be shut off.

If in schools of strongly reinforced construction, remain near an inside wall on the lower floor. Avoid auditorium and gymnasiums with poorly supported roofs.

In factories, workers should be moved to sections of the plant offering the greatest protection. Advance preparation should be made for shutting off electrical circuits and fuel lines.

If on the highway, motorists should head north. It is possible to outrun a tornado if there is an open road ahead.

If the twister appears to be catching up, get out of the car and into a ditch on the south side of a street.

Jarrendt and Collins both agree it is most important to keep calm. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight.

Tornadoes cover such a small zone, as a rule, that relatively few places in a warned area are directly affected, they said.

Planners Discuss Recreation Need

Blame Short Finances for Slow Progress; Cite Ferndale Development

Finances were blamed for the slowness with which recreational areas are developed in Southern Oakland county as 11 members of the South Oakland Planning Council met last night in Birmingham.

Roy Goodspeed, Ferndale city planning official, said "You'd be surprised what you can do over a ten year period even though your yearly allotment is low."

Ferndale, he explained, has a lack of general policy for improvements for public recreation, but allots $7,500 a year to his department. "That amounts to $75,000 over a ten year period," he pointed out.

Birmingham's need for recreation funds was cited by City Planner Herbert Herzberg, the council chairman. "We develop things that seem to be most necessary as the time arises," he said.

The potential in Troy was discussed by the city planners, who agreed encroaching commercial, industrial and residential users of land, might complicate future planning for recreation. Areas should be set aside now to insure open areas in neighborhoods, the two Troy representatives present were warned by Herzbert.

2-Month Trip Offer Rejected by Bishop

DETROIT (AP)—The bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Michigan today turned down a two-month vacation trip offered him and his family.

• • •

Bishop Richard S. Emrich said he felt that funds for missionary work and a new diocesan office were more important.

Members of 157 parishes and missions in the diocese offered the trip to reward the bishop for his 10 years of service to the diocese.

Previously the bishop had accepted an oil painting of himself and a new car as anniversary gifts.

The bishop asked that all money contributed for the European trip be used "to pay our diocesan missionary share in full to the national church and to raise funds for our new diocesan office."

Britain Filled With Spies—All British?

LONDON—Britain is full of spies but—unless someone has slipped up — they are all British spies. Half a dozen government departments have intelligence organizations. All the secret agents have one thing in common—they don't tell their wives.

They don't need to for each has a "shadow" job, that keeps wives and neighbors from being curious. Many work as journalists or commercial travelers, under which "disguises" the agents are able to dash at a moment's notice to anywhere in the country.

Their pay is not high—anywhere from $33.50 to $42 a week. They pay no income tax and are paid in cash, out of the chief's safe.

restore utilities and crop and housing loans to farmers.

Gov. Williams said representatives of the Civil Defense Administration, the U. S. Corps of Engineers and the Health, Education and Welfare Department will make a survey of the damaged areas surrounding Grand Rapids and help set up a relief program.

The State Agriculture Department sent nine food inspectors from its Lansing headquarters yesterday to help men in the Grand Rapids branch check food supplies in the tornado area.

They will make certain that food supplies are not spoiled and dangerous for human consumption, especially perishables which might have spoiled because of power failures.

State health officials said a chlorinator would be sent to the hard-hit Hudsonville community to assure a supply of uncontaminated water.

At Flint, the Genesee County Red Cross Chapter said today it has received inquiries from people in the Flint area wishing to donate money for relief of tornado victims in the Grand Rapids area.

The chapter said the gifts will be accepted and the money will be sent to Red Cross chapters in the western Michigan area. A tornado killed 130 in the Flint area three years ago.

New York Doctor Blasts Enemies of Fluoridation

NEW YORK — Opponents of fluoridation of the city's water were described as "fuzzy-minded nitwits" by a pioneer public-health physician.

• • •

The attack was made by Dr. Haven Emerson, 81-year-old member of the city's Board of Health, who has long been regarded as an authority on public health problems.

Speaking at the nineteenth anniversary celebration of the city Health Department, Dr. Emerson charged that opponents of fluoridation had been swept "off their feet by emotional ignorance." Some have accused the Health Department, he said, of seeking to "poison everybody in town" by urging fluoridation of the water supply.

The Board of Health recommended that fluoridation be adopted "as soon as possible."

Fluoridation consists of adding a fluoride compound to drinking water as a means of preventing tooth decay.

The board's view, shared by many scientific groups in the nation, is that the fluoride is safe and effective when introduced in recommended amounts.

Dr. Emerson declared: "Every advance in this field has been met by objections from self-appointed but unqualified citizens."

He recalled that considerable opposition had been raisqd to such public-health measures as mass immunization against diphtheria and clorination of the city's drinking water to kill bacteria.

The physician has been a member of the Health Board for 22 years. He served as health commissioner from 1915 to 1917.

Hagerty Says Woman Who Fired White House Was Mental Patient

WASHINGTON (AP)—A woman who started five fires in the White House and nearby Executive Office Building Monday has been identified as Mrs. Hilda Marie Marks, 51, of St. Clair Shores, Mich.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty, announcing the identification yesterday, said Mrs. Marks furnished the information and it had been checked by police. Monday she gave her name as Mrs. Julia M. Chase.

Hagerty said U. E. Baughman, chief of the secret service, informed him the woman "admits that since 1932 she has been in several mental institutions" in Michigan.

Mrs. Marks set one fire in the White House Red Room and four others across the street in the Executive Office Building, occupied mainly by White House employes.

NO SERIOUS DAMAGE

There was no serious damage and guards quickly put out all the fires, but the woman was not seized for several hours. She is in a Washigton Hospital for observation.

Hagerty said Mrs. Marks was born April 24, 1905 at Ruth, Mich. He said she arrived in Washington by bus Sunday, but did not say where she came from. She had been staying at a hotel here.

Mrs. Marks is separated from her husband, Hagerty added.

He emphasized that no charge has been placed against her. The woman said Monday she "had a lot of trash and just wanted to burn it."

Six Firemen Killed, 13 Hurt in New York

smoke poisoning. All were termed in fair condition.

ONE BREAKS LEG

Five other firemen were hurt and treated at the scene.

Petronelli, though injured, supervised the search of rubble for other possible victims. Later he was taken to a hospital, where it was learned he had a broken leg.

Cavanagh said, "I was standing with Chief Petronelli, Deputy Commissioner (George F.) Mand and their aides when the marquee began to come down.

"There were cries of warning as it pulled part of the wall with it. The shock as it hit the sidewalk did the rest.

"The falling debris crushed firemen and cut powerlines, plunging the whole area into darkness as the street lights went out."

Cavanagh said the fire apparently started in the cellar.

Possession of Dope Brings Prison Term

One of two men arrested by Waterford Township Police March 20 for possession of narcotics was sentenced to 1 - 10 years in State Prison of Southern Michigan yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams.

William Rogers, 36, of Flint, had pleaded guilty to the charge March 26.

Rogers' companion, 43-year-old Russell Colvin, also of Flint, was scheduled for examination today before Waterford Township Justice Willis D. LeFurgy.

But Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem said today the case against Colvin will be dismissed. He said Rogers has stated Colvin was not involved in his admitted narcotics possession.

Trail of Matches Through House Left by Thief

Apparently by matchlight, a burglar last night ransacked a home at 270 Nelson St. and stole $3 in change plus four trade stamp books, Pontiac police said.

The owner, Wesley McCulloch, who with his wife was away between 6 p.m. and 9 p.m., reported a trail of burnt match sticks throughout the two-story home.

Police believe the culprit, probably a juvenile, entered by kicking in a basement window, which is hidden from view by a hedge.

Bicycle Plates Stop Thieves, Say Police

An outcrop of bicycle thefts with the return of warm weather this week prompted Pontiac police to urge youngsters to tag bicycles with license plates.

• • •

"License plates discourage stealing," according to Juvenile officer Henry Hoyt, who added that they aid in recovery and return of bikes to proper owners.

Thefts were recently reported by Gladys Grubb, of 154 W. Rutgers St., who said a $15 bicycle was stolen from 554 Madison St. Tuesday; and by Opal Williams, who reported a $45 bike stolen from her home at 94 E. Howard St. yesterday.

Dems Must Heal Wounds to Recapture Nevada in '56

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (INS) —President Eisenhower may carry traditionally Democratic Nevada again this year unless Democrats can quickly heal intra-party strife.

And a GOP victory in a state where two out of three voters are registered Democrats might include the pivotal U.S. Senate seat once held by the late Sen. Pat McCarran.

For the 22 years he was in Washington, McCarran also ruled state Democratic politics. No one has come forward to fill that role since the senator's death in 1954.

• • •

Sen. Alan Bible was elected to fill the unexpired term of his former law colleague, but he has announced he will retire and return to his Reno law practice.

8 MEN POSSIBLE

Three Democrats seek to succeed Bible: Attorney Gen. Harvey Dickerson, State Sen. B. Mahlon Brown, and Julian Sourwine, former chief counsel to the Senate internal security subcommittee.

"There is no opposition among Nevada Republicans to Eisenhower or Nixon or Nevada congressman Young," said Cleveland Schultz, Republican central committee chairman of Clark County which includes Las Vegas and one-third of the state's population.

He pointed out Nevada gave Eisenhower a 19,000 plurality in 1953, the first time a Republican presidential candidate carried the state since 1928.

Schultz foresees a GOP victory in Nevada because of the "scramble for McCarran's power."

Mayor C. D. Baker of Las Vegas, a Democratic party leader in southern Nevada, agrees in part with Republican Schultz.

"Unless the wounds of Democratic party internal war can be healed, Eisenhower and Young are a 'cinch,'" Baker declared.

"McCarran brooked no opposition; he ruled Nevada Democrats with a tight reign," said Baker, one-time political foe of the late party leader. "The vacancy has to be filled although not in the same way."

Democratic national committeeman Perle Brown of Las Vegas is more optimistic than Baker about Democratic chances this year. She claimed:

"The people like Eisenhower as a general and a fine man, but not as an executive or political figure."

Mrs. Brown incidentally is the mother of State Sen. Mahlon Brown.

She believes the Democratic voters will not bolt their party's candidates again as they did to elect Republican governor Charles H. Russell and Sen. George W. Malone. She blames McCarran for their election since the late senator found the Democratic candidates unacceptable to him.

Economist Sees Boom in Single Story Homes

ANN ARBOR (AP)—A real estate economist predicts that sale of single-family homes in the next year will exceed sales of the past 12 months because of bigger families.

Speaking before 500 Michigan realtors at a University of Michigan real estate clinic yesterday, James C. Downs Jr. said stepped-up demolition of housing for expressways and slum clearance, mass migration of elderly people to more favorable climates and movement of non-whites from south to north would be contributing factors. Downs is President of the Real Estate Research Corp. of Chicago.

Governor Moves Quickly to Aid in Grand Rapids

In Michigan's tragic tornado disaster, Governor G. MENNEN WILLIAMS exhibited quick humanitarian qualities in his rapid appraisal of the situation and subsequent action.

The State's Chief Executive left in the middle of the night and rushed to the stricken area to see first hand what action was required. He activated the State's new Emergency Task Force for the first time. This is made up of representatives of the State Police, National Guard and the departments of health, civil defense, public service, aeronautics and agriculture.

Michigan people rallied around the Governor's appeal instantly as they always have in the past. This State has never lagged or been slow to act when disaster has struck and the Grand Rapids tragedy is no exception.

Fortunately, the loss in life is comparatively small although the property damage is still in purely the estimate stages.

Governor WILLIAMS has asked the President to declare the section a disaster area so survivors can get Federal rebuilding loans. Michigan citizens leave no stone unturned to assist those who have suffered.

Iceland Asks Removal of American Garrison

Washington in particular, and all NATO countries in general, are justified in their concern over a contradictory resolution adopted by the Parliament of Iceland.

The resolution, approved in a final vote of 38 to 18, reaffirms Iceland's adherence to the North Atlantic Alliance. At the same time it asks withdrawal of American defense forces and transfer of our bases on the island to the care and protection of the Icelanders.

Obviously, this action by the world's oldest parliament looms as a potential threat to NATO. If carried out it would leave Iceland without any military protection and create a situation inviting surprise attack that would endanger the whole North Atlantic community.

During World War II, Iceland asked U. S. protection against the Nazi threat but our forces were withdrawn in 1945. They were invited back in 1951 and the island since has become a vital U. S. air and naval base and an essential radar warning post against transarctic air attack.

★ ★ ★

It was only natural that a certain amount of friction would develop between American personnel and the islanders. The latter blamed inflation and labor shortages on the presence of our troops and Communists did everything they could to stir discontent. The result was a full fledged political crisis in which the two party government coalition split, Parliament was dissolved and an election called for June 24.

★ ★ ★

Certainly, it is to be hoped that before the election, which actually will be a plebiscite on American withdrawal, Icelanders in self interest, will have realized the folly of this resolution.

New York Car Owners Must Have Insurance

Approval by the legislature at Albany and the expected signature of Gov. HARRIMAN will make New York State the pioneer in the field of compulsory automobile liability insurance.

The measure becomes operative next January 1. It provides that every Empire State car owner must have $10,000 coverage for an accident involving one person, $20,000 for more than one and $5,000 for property damage.

Other provisions require that car owners must produce proof by February 1 that they have the necessary insurance before they get their 1957 license plates. Penalties for violation may be a fine up to $1,000, a year in jail, or both, plus a possible one year revocation of driving license.

In New York State that segment of the insurance industry which fought this legislation tooth and nail now is being urged to go all out in an effort to help make it a success. That, of course, implies a well organized and directed campaign of public education.

The insurance problem there is much like that in Michigan. About 700,000 or 14 per cent of New York drivers lack coverage. The same percentage holds good here. For that reason The PRESS long has felt that our "one free accident" law is unfair to insured motorists.

We also feel that the time has come to give the principle of compulsory insurance careful consideration. Therefore, we earnestly hope that New York's experiment will be carefully watched by Michigan law enforcement officials.

The Man About Town

Worst Cyclone

Some Who Went Through It Still Are Living in County

Alimony: Combat pay.

The largest loss of life in one day in the history of Oakland County was on May 26, 1896, when 43 people were killed in a cyclone. Several others died later from injuries, bringing the total casualty list close to the 50 mark. It swept through the northern part of the county, most of the fatalities being in Groveland and Brandon Townships. Man About Town is compiling a list of its survivors who still are living. Let me hear from you. Old MAT himself was within a mile of where that twister started and distinctly remembers that early evening catastrophe and the harrowing scenes and sorrows brought about by it.

David Lawrence Says:

Minnesota and Wisconsin Primaries Indicate a Hustling Fight Set for '56

WASHINGTON — Republicans came out in bigger numbers to vote in Wisconsin than they did in the Minnesota primary while the Democrats did not do as well in Wisconsin as in the Minnesota primary this year.

Although in Minnesota only about 25 per cent of the Republicans who had voted in the 1952 final election went to the polls this year, the Wisconsin presidential primary brought out 52 per cent of the Republicans who voted in the 1952 election. The Democrats, on the other hand, polled in the Minnesota primary 70 per cent of their 1952 election vote but in Wisconsin the Democrats' proportion of their 1952 vote dropped to 46 per cent.

It is important in comparing the figures of this year's primary elections and the primaries of four years ago to recall that the Republicans staged quite a contest in the 1952 primaries with Taft, Warren and Stassen dividing the vote. So the total Republican vote in the 1952 primary of 776,600 must be compared with the 425,000 cast this year for President Eisenhower and 18,000 for Chapple, or a total of 443,000—virtually no contest.

NO CONTEST FOR DEMS

The Democrats, on the other hand, four years ago, didn't have much of a contest and Sen. Kefauver made only a few trips to the state. The total Democratic vote in the 1952 primary was 241,525 as compared with approximately 325,000 this year. It was a gain of about 84,000 votes this time, but, when it is noted that Stevenson polled 622,175 in the 1952 election; it will be apparent that the votes in the Democratic primary this week fell far short of the total of four years ago.

Plainly, the most significant thing about the primary votes in Minnesota and Wisconsin is the popularity of President Eisenhower with a large segment of his own party, but the results are not conclusive as to whether these states can be carried by the Republicans next November.

There is no doubt that a farm revolt is on in the middle west. There is no doubt also that grievances usually accumulate against the party in power. The Republicans are facing a real battle this time and will need to get out their vote. On the surface, it may appear that Eisenhower's popularity will be enough to win for the Republicans. But there are many indications that things are astir in the agricultural regions, and a crossing over to the Democratic party by the farmers could make quite a difference in the final result.

One thing seems certain—there will be a contest of major proportions this autumn and the party organizations will exert more effort to get out the vote than in any election in history. This is partly because more money will be available to both parties and the candidates will make use of every medium of communication more intensively than ever before.

As a consequence of the primaries, the Republican leaders will be warning their party workers against overconfidence. The Democratic managers are counting heavily on former President Truman to carry on a "give 'em hell" offensive. He didn't make a very auspicious start with his New York speech this week because "foreign policy" is an abstract subject to the voter. The public generally understands only the major points—peace or war—and just now the administration has all the advantage of the peace side of the argument.

It's on economic issues that the Democrats must make their campaign. They can demonstrate that income is down in the farm states. But they will be hard put to it to make any headway in the industrial states unless the auto business falls off and considerable unemployment results before the autumn elections. The Minnesota and Wisconsin primaries have come and gone and have left the campaign managers on both sides with no real clue as to what November will bring.

Doctor Becoming Bored of Common Cold Theme

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Since Topsy was a colt and I was an honest doctor, dozens of investigations or studies have been launched, with funds donated by big medicine manufacturers, in quest of a cure for the common cold. With each launching ceremony the sponsors have seen to it that experts estimate the annual cost of "colds," in days lost from work and in doctor bills, and the cost of medicine, is I forget how many million or billion dollars.

All this, as you may understand, makes me tired. Tired, in the first place, because, once the expedition is given a fine send-off on p. 1 of the news section, with perhaps some accompanying editorial comment and a few informative articles about participating experts and the bright prospect of solving the problem, we hear no more of the project.

I'm weary of trying to get from such experts or from any recognized health authority or physician of standing a definition of "the common cold," if there is such an entity.

* * *

Sometimes, believe it or not, I even get tired of harping on the theme, that exposure to everyday dampness, drafts, changes of weather, wet feet, insufficient clothing, poorly heated living rooms, offices, schoolrooms, etc., is uncomfortable, perhaps, but certainly not harmful to health nor a cause of cri . . . (kree), coined name to apply to any acute respiratory infection before you find out what you've got.

* * *

After considerable reflection about this I have come to realize that all these years I have been firing at the wrong target. Instead of calling you poor geeks names—a practice which never got me anything but fired anyway—I should have concentrated my ridicule and invective upon the medical and health authorities who ignore the newer knowledge of hygiene and continue to embrace only the notions dreamed up in the 18th or 19th century, when malaria (fever and ague) was ascribed to miasms arising from swamps or from freshly turned soil or from putrescent matter and chronic or gradually increasing joint disability was ascribed to "exposure" to cold and dampness.

Now if perchance my position reminds you of Johnny in the parade I acknowledge the similarity, and in all sincerity I still contend that they're all out of step but Brady.

Please, oh, please, my dear knuckleheads, don't bother to tell me I'm nuts or that you certainly take cold if you get your feet wet or go without a hat . . . That doesn't make me tired any more. It just makes me laugh.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

'Teenagers Are Not Alone in Making Fun of People'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

The teenagers are not alone in their making fun of folks downtown. Maybe they wouldn't do it so much if they didn't have such examples set for them by adults who never grew out of childhood emotionally.

As a general rule, you find the ones who serve the public are courteous, a credit to the firm they serve. But a few today were not. I was waiting for a clerk to wait on me and at the lunch counter were two men. They both enjoyed themselves at my expense.

I think a firm hand when young would do much to alleviate such cruelty. I heartily commend those writers in the Voice of the People who advocate spanking.

They have laws against stealing, physical cruelty, etc. How about a law against mental cruelty? The Constitution says ." Our rights cease where the other person's arm begins."

'Early Riser' Would Like Ordinance Enforced

What is required to have an existing city ordinance, concerning loud speakers on the outside of buildings, enforced?

Hal Boyle Says:

Bahamas Lure Tourists and Tax-Fleeing Dollars

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—Leaves from a touring notebook:

Tourists and tax-fleeing dollars are creating the greatest boom in the 464-year history of the Bahamas.

* * *

Visiting stenographers, flying in on a trip paid for on the installment plan, outnumbered the millionaire sportsmen who steam or sail here in their own yachts.

132,434 VISITORS

The growth of the tourist industry can be seen in these figures. There were 32,018 visitors in 1949 and they spent $10,407,000. In 1955 more than 132,434 came and left $26,352,000.

* * *

(Actually, however, in both years the tourists probably spent far more than these figures indicate. This is a British sterling money area, and for one reason or another many dollars expended here don't get officially reported.)

A few oldtimers fear the influx of tourists will turn conservative Nassau into "another Miami." But most Bahamians are glad to see a fellow from out of town and sell him anything from a $1.50 straw hat to a $50,000 motor sailboat.

Not all the visitors are sun-seekers here for a brief season on the beach or to make a sociological study of the effects of drinking four rum-filled Planters Punches in a row.

* * *

Many are hard-headed businessmen from America, Canada, Britain and other countries looking for ways to invest capital that will enable them to escape high inheritance or income taxes in their homelands.

There are no such taxes here. The colony is financed largely by an import tax on all products brought in from abroad.

Just how can this tax situation help a foreign capitalist? As explained to me, there is a long-accepted principle in international law that no country attempts to tax real property situated in another country.

* * *

Suppose you are a rich American with a couple of million bucks or so you'd like to leave your heirs without having Uncle Sam take his usual big whack.

You couldn't start a big chain of liquor stores here. The colony has a rule you have to be a resident for seven years before you can launch a business competitive with one already in existence.

But you could buy up a lot of island real estate and either develop it or just let it lie there enjoying the sunshine.

* * *

After your death your heirs can sell the property — probably to some other wealthy old man who wants to protect his heirs — and pocket the money practically free, as the American inheritance law wouldn't apply.

If the property had gone up in value (and it is going up right now), they might even turn a tidy profit.

* * *

I might be tempted to employ this device myself, except the only thing I plan to leave my heirs is a wristwatch.

Popular American Sport Is Jumping to Wrong Conclusions About Ailments

Have you any "asking favor" with God Almighty? If, like King Hezekiah, you were dying, what arguments could you offer God to justify His adding an extra 15 years to your life-span? Better open an account in the "Bank of Heaven" and watch it, instead of the pill bottles in your medicine cabinet!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case R-322: Horace M., aged 47, is typical of America's most numerous type of "athlete". He is a great jumper.

For each morning he "jumps" to wrong conclusions about his health. He is so obsessed with fear of medical ailments that he makes an inventory each day of his symptoms.

Quickly he checks his heart and liver, stomach, gall bladder and colon by pressing his fingertips over the area in question.

And if he feels a twinge of pain, he immediately grows panicky.

* * *

"Jumping" is thus America's most popular indoor sport, for literally millions of hypochondriacs jump to wrong conclusions every day about their health.

SOBER THINKING

Before you degenerate into a fraidy cat, why not do a little sober thinking?

"What am I doing to justify being alive?" is a good query to ask yourself.

"Why should God grant me even a normal three score and ten life span, not to mention some extra years as a bonus?"

Good King Hezekiah was informed by the prophet Isaiah that he should put his house in order for he was soon to die.

But Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to God, saying:

"O Lord, remember now how I have walked before Thee in truth and with a perfect heart and have done that which is good in Thy sight."

* * *

And God sent the prophet Isaiah back to inform King Hezekiah that he had made a sensible appeal, so God would add 15 years to his life-span.

ASKING FAVOR

Well, why don't you hypochondriacs sit down some day with pencil and paper to tally your moral account books.

Have you any right to expect favors from God Almighty? Do you have a figurative checking account in the "Bank of Heaven" so that when you get into trouble and wish to write a check, it will be honored?

Have you any right to ask God that even an extra year or two should be added to your longevity?

Or, if you need more good health or an extension of your child's life who is now critically ill, what spiritual "collateral" can you offer God to merit a "loan". Remember, God doesn't accept co-signers!

"But, Dr. Crane, God wouldn't think of keeping books on us, would he?" you may inquire.

Apparently he does, for Christ said he notes everything that goes on down here, even to a sparrow's fall!

GOD IS MERICIFUL

"Yes, but God is merciful," you may remonstrate.

True enough, especially with those heathen who never heard the glad tidings and haven't known better.

But Americans, who are surrounded by churches and hear religious addresses on radio and TV, can't ignore God until cancer is diagnosed and then suddenly expect to appeal to God's mercy.

You can't cheat God! You can't ignore what you know is right, figuring at the last minute you'll do a dramatic right-about-face and then appeal to God's mercy.

So start a bank acocunt in Heaven. Go to church. Attend Sunday school. Apply the Golden Rule by joining my "Compliment Club" and thus buoying up the morale of your neighbors with honest praise.

Work in youth groups, as the Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, etc. Contribute cheerfully to philanthropic causes and not just to the Cancer Foundation because you hope a cure will be found to eliminate your own cancer.

God likes a cheerful giver and he keeps a complete record, so forget your hypochondria and worry more about your "asking favor" with the Almighty.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Kefauver Urges Arab-Jew Talks

Parley Would Disclose Major Causes of Unrest in Holy Land, He Says

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver has called for a top-level conference among Arab and Israeli leaders, the United States, Britain and France in an effort to find a peaceful solution to the Near Eastern crisis.

* * *

Winding up three days of campaigning for Florida's Democratic presidential primary May 29, the Tennesseean last night urged that the United States and other Western powers sell arms to Israel to restore the military balance. This balance was destroyed, he said, when Communist Czechoslovakia shipped arms to Egypt.

LEARN THE SCORE

Speaking at a rally, the presidential aspirant said a conference among Arab and Jewish leaders and the tripartite agreement signatories "with all parties speaking frankly, might bring the understanding and peace we seek. If not, we would at least know then what the score is and be able to plan accordingly."

He said he believed he had gained ground in Florida during the past three days, but that Adlai Stevenson, his rival in the Florida primary, was still running ahead of him. Kefauver left by plane shortly after midnight for a one-day stand in Nebraska.

Suspect May Face 1st Degree Murder

DETROIT (AP)—Police said they would seek first degree murder warrants today against two men in the March 2 slaying of grocer Simon Kourtjian.

* * *

Detective Lt. George Bloomfield of the homicide bureau said Paul D. Ray, 26, an itinerant truck driver, named David J. Tessen, 22, an unemployed baker from Detroit, as killer of the 55-year-old Armenian immigrant. Bloomfield quoted Ray as saying he drove the get-away car. Tessen denied any part in the crime.

Kourtjian was found shot to death in the doorway of his small west side Detroit grocery. There were signs he had struggled with his assailant.

Tessen, awaiting trial on a burglary charge, was arrested March 6 for questioning in the slaying.

Ray was arrested by State Police Monday night in Sandusky as he drove a house trailer from Marlette to Detroit. He was sought on a statewide teletype alert after an informant tipped police he was an acquaintance of Tessen.

Baltimore Pamphlet to Fight Teen Crime

BALTIMORE (AP) — "It Isn't Worth The Chance" is the title of a six-page pamphlet from which Baltimore youth will soon be reading in straightforward, hard-fisted language the cold facts of crime and its consequence.

Baltimore State's Atty. Anselm Sodaro had the pamphlet prepared and plans soon to flood the city's public and parochial schools with thousands of copies. He hopes additional copies will be used by civic and church groups to assit him in curbing the rising rate of juvenile and teen-age crime.

Progress Is Alarming

LYONS (AP)—Lyons firemen are complaining that their new telephone switch board has gone too mechanized. When an operator presided, she sounded the siren on receiving a fire call. With a dial system installed, the siren blows whenever someone calls the department and firemen complain they are getting too many false alarms from joksters.

LARAMIE, Wyo. (INS) — Dairy cattle don't need horns unless they are being kept for show animals, says I. W. Slater, Extension Dairyman at the University of Wyoming. LOS ANGELES (AP)—Fred Amesbury spent his day off waxing his new car. He left it parked in front of his apartment house when he went to work.

M. M. Bergman, head of the department's fire division, urged the public to cooperate in safety measures. Bergman said the current season is particularly hazardous because vegetation is still tinder dry in many areas.

'Dems Would Sweep In,' Minnesota Governor Says

"The Eisenhower farm policy, if you can call it a policy, has not done one thing or made one single proposal to help the farmers of Minnesota. The result is misery and terror among the farmers of the Midwest," he said.

Reuther Attacks 'Election' Bill

Says Measure Permits Unlimited Contributions to Political Parties

WASHINGTON (AP)—Labor Leader Walter Reuther says the "clean elections" bill proposed by Senate leaders would allow "virtually unlimited political contributions."

* * *

Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, joined AFL-CIO President George Meany in urging the Senate Rules Committee to hold public hearings on this and related proposals.

Reuther, in letters to House and Senate members yesterday, expressed fear that Senate Majority Leader Johnson and Minority Leader Knowland intend to put their political rules changes plan to a Senate vote without hearings.

Johnson proposed the bill with Knowland's support after Sen. Case (R-SD) disclosed some weeks ago he had been offered a $2,500 campaign contribution during Senate consideration of gas legislation.

Reuther prepared his criticism of "inadequacies and defects" of the Johnson-Knowland bill before his departure for India.

* * *

Reuther said the bill makes "inadequate provisions" for ceilings on political contributions and expenditures, fails to deal with these matters in relation to primary elections, and fails to provide for fair allotment of radio and television time between candidates.

Detroit Vice Squad Cuts 'Call' Network

DETROIT (AP) — Ten men and five women were held today after a series of raids which broke up what police described as a huge vice ring involving housewives and girls as young as 15.

* * *

Police vice squad members seized the group in 10 pre-dawn raids yesterday, capping a year's investigation. They confiscated address books listing customers of the ring, which operated in downtown hotels, in private homes and out of barrooms.

Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien said it was "the largest vice operation of its kind I have seen any time." The veteran prosecutor said call girls associated with the ring charged from $10 to $200 nightly for entertaining men steered to them by a chain of bellhops and bartenders.

* * *

Vice squad men named Charles Winters, 27, of Detroit, head of the ring.

Among others arrested was Roy Sutton, 19, of Berkley.

Same Bandit Rejects 'Chicken Feed' Wallet

DENVER (AP)—Just a month ago, clerk Hary Roe was alone in a liquor store when a holdup man cleaned out the cash register and took his wallet.

Roe was alone again last night—and the same man showed up and cleaned out the cash register again.

But the thug told Roe, "I don't want your wallet tonight—there was nothing but chicken feed in there last time."

'Findingest Man' Loses His Own Safety Award Pin

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Jack McDonald, 36, the "findingest man in Dallas," yesterday admitted he was stumped and asked the police for help.

• • •

The motorcycle delivery man has long amazed police by his ability to find things. He has found and turned over to owners or police in recent years $11,181 in cash and checks, a piano, 100 pounds of beef, and numerous pieces of jewelry and luggage which he has spotted from his three-wheel motorcycle.

But yesterday he told police he wanted to report the loss of his 100,000-mile safety award pin, given him by a motorcycle manufacturer for driving that distance without an accident or a traffic ticket.

• • •

"This time—somebody else will have to do the finding," he said. "I've looked until I can't see straight."

Detroit Police Hear: 'No, You Can't Do It'

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit's police commissioner has ordered city policemen to stop circulating petitions asking a 12 per cent wage increase.

• • •

Commissioner Edward Piggins called the action "undignified, indiscreet and not intelligent."

The petitions asked the mayor and council to take "immediate action" to effect the increase.

In a letter to be posted in each police precinct, the commissioner said he believes policemen are entitled to a wage increase but added it should be obtained through "normal, orderly channels."

• • •

He called the petitions a "pressure tactic."

Aesop's Fables—4

THE DONKEY AND THE LION'S SKIN

Today's fable is about a little donkey who carried packs on his back all day long and who was unhappy because no one feared or respected him.

Then one day the donkey found a lion's skin and dressed himself in it. The skin didn't fit well but he rushed about frightening everybody he could.

So pleased was he with his new found importance that he brayed in triumph. A passing fox, hearing the familiar donkey voice coming out of the lion skin, began to laugh. "Ha, ha," said the fox, "I would have been afraid of you, too, if I hadn't heard your voice."

The moral: Sometimes people talk too much.

Color this picture with crayons and paste down on cardboard. Cut out the parts carefully. Fold back the ends of the wall and the donkey will stand up. Cut the slit on the saddle bag and push the tab on the bundle into it.

Now cut out the lion's skin and the eye marked X. Put the skin over the donkey, folding back the tabs. All you can see of the donkey is his tell-tale ears.

(Robert Mulligan of Carrolltown, Pa., made this suggestion first. Here's how you may win $10. Send in your idea for a Junior Editors drawing in care of this newspaper.)

CHICAGO—Private and public American agencies spend $150,000,000 a year on welfare and rehabilitation work for the blind. Less than one tenth of this sum is invested in research to discover the causes of eye troubles that bring blindness or impaired vision and the best methods of dealing with them.

Deadline for Home Set

DETROIT (AP)—The proposed $3,450,000 juvenile detention home, approved last spring by Wayne County voters, should be built and in operation by the spring of 1959. That was announced yesterday by the county.

1,709,000 Phone Books

Hey, Look, Here's Another Big Contest! Name the Treasury; Win Immortality

WASHINGTON (AP) — Would you like to try your hand at making a little history?

• • •

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey would welcome help from the public in solving a problem neglected since 1789.

Humphrey noted recently that the big Treasury Building in downtown Washington near the White House has no name on it.

NAME THE PLACE

His staff looked around and could find no other government departmental headquarters living in such anonymity.

So the Treasury asked the General Services Administration, housekeeper for the government, to put up a name on each of the four sides of the block - square building.

GSA said it would be delighted, and just how did the Treasury style itself?

That's where things rest right now.

Nobody knows just what is the Treasury's official name, although the department was the third following State and War chartered by the first Congress, and has been doing an ever-growing business since.

THOSE PREPOSITIONS

The confusion began in 1789. Congress chartered the Treasury by "an act to establish the Treasury Department." But in the body of the bill, it specifies that there "shall be a Department of the Treasury."

Both terms have been used commonly since, as well as the term "the United States Treasury," title of an official history the Treasury published in 1951.

• • •

As soon as the Treasury can decide what its name is, it will go up in 12-inch, gold-finished bronze letters on three sides of the building, and in 8-inch letters on the plainer east side.

If you want to help, mail your suggestions for a name to the Office of the Secretary, Main Treasury Building, Washington, D.C.

• • •

(Terms like "robber," which might come to some minds at this taxpaying season, have been disqualified in advance. Not dignified.)

Glass has been manufactured for about 4,000 years.

Reds Gain Control of Bonn Plant Council

BONN—Union workers in a big iron industry plant at Dortmund, West Germany, were shocked when the 15,000 employes elected a factory council on which Communist Party members hold an absolute majority.

• • •

Previously there had been only two Communists on the 25-member council. Now there are 15. The plant's wage scale tops that of the iron industry and workers had been well satisfied.

The Communists won, it is now claimed, with tactics introduced by labor officials from Russian Zone factories, who frequently visit the Dortmund plant.

• • •

Their system was to circulate malicious attacks and slanders on the other members of the council, to make it appear they represented the employers' interests.

They also made extravagant demands which the firm could not possibly grant. Their rejection, however, supplied the Communists with propaganda and eventually they had a majority.

Floridan's Dare Pays Off in Gold

He Thinks Everyone Should Gamble Once

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—There are two popular ways to make money: Gradually, through a medium called "work," or dangerously, through a device called "gambling."

• • •

Workers and gamblers look at one another with mutual disrespect or disinterest. Or sometimes (as in the case of a lady "worker" in love with a gentleman gambler") with horror.:

For the twain never shall see eye to eye. Either you're born to take chances, or you're born to play it safe. Or so I thought.

"But I think you thought wrong," said Daniel Dubbin, a mild-manner Floridan who recently gambled his savings and his life against a fortune in gold.

• • •

"Every man—and woman too—has one big gamble in his system. Born with it. Can't escape it. He may be as conservative as a Boston spinster on the surface, but underneath he's got this urge that's got to come out."

• • •

Here's how it happened to Dubbin, who is now 39 and simply filthy with the stuff that makes golddiggers smile.

QUIET FAMILY MAN

Dan, a quiet business and family man from Jacksonville, was operating a shipyard and marine salvage firm with his brother Henry. Suddenly, one day in 1951, he was visited by an old dredge mining engineer who had worked in South America for decades.

• • •

Sounding like a sea captain spinning glorious lies, the dredger said he happened to know that in French Guiana, the countryside is one huge gold field.

Immediately, Daniel laughed and said something to the effect of well, isn't that interesting.

Henry, one of the natural-born gamblers, looked steamly at his brother. He said something to the effect of what's the matter — no guts?

• • •

The upshot was that Dan went home and told his wife that if a man never took a chance, he'd never get anywhere; and so saying, he took off for French Guiana.

"It was awful," he remembers. "The technicalities of lugging testing equipment through the unchartered hills of Guiana aside—the living conditions were miserable.

• • •

"My clothes were never dry from the humidity, there were blood-sucking bats all over the place, there were constant nightly visits from tarantulas and coral snakes and once in awhile a jaguar would drop in—to add color."

Conservative old Dan didn't like it much.

But "every time I wanted to give it up, I thought what Henry said: "What's the matter, no guts?"

The Dubbin dare worked out beautifully. The boys now have more gold than one could reasonably expect to find at the end of the rainbow. And Dan is once again back in the family fold, going to luncheon club meetings and supporting the church.

• • •

"Everybody should get one gamble out of his system," he maintains.

(That's what makes horse races.)

Frenchmen Suspicious of U. S. Position in Simmering North African Question

By PRESTON GROVER

ALGIERS, French North Africa (AP)—Many Frenchmen here — and in France for that matter — believe the United States is trying to oust the French from North Africa so the Americans can take over.

• • •

A lot of Arabs believe that too. It is a wonderful weapon for the rebels to use as propaganda. One Frenchman told me that the day after an uprising last August, he went into a little village in the Aures Mountains to find the villagers shouting: "The Americans are coming."

TERRORISTS STIR LIES

Terrorist agents had told them that liberating armies both from Egypt and America were going to help them win their liberty. Neither army landed, but many are still hopeful.

In Constantine, an Arab virtually shadowed me for two days trying to find out who I was, then introduced himself.

• • •

"We want the Americans to come in," he said. "I was here in 1942 when the Americans landed in Oran. In 48 hours they were in Constantine and we were in the dollar zone. Every shoeshine boy had a thousand dollars by night. We want to be in the dollar zone."

The French are not happy about it. They are bitter. They blame the United States for inciting the Arabs to resistance.

SOUGHT OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

For a long time the French have insisted that America should speak out for her ally. But the State Department has refused to run the risk of antagonizing the Arabs in the Middle East.

When, early in March, French colonists in Tunis sacked an American consulate, the State Department agreed it was time to speak out. Ambassador Douglas Dillon told Paris correspondents at a press luncheon that the United States stood solidly back of France's efforts to find a "liberal and equitable" solution of the Algerian problem.

• • •

The Americans want French influence to remain in North Africa. But they would like to see the French move forward on a program of giving extensive home rule and near independence to the Arabs.

FRENCH MOVE SLOWLY

But France has been so slow in moving that only in 1955 did it give home rule and near independence to Morocco and Tunisia and then seemingly only under the pressure of events, especially in Morocco.

• • •

The "bad blood" between the Americans and French extends all over North Africa. The French accuse American officials in North Africa of being too friendly to the Moslem population which has been trying to crowd France into granting home rule. On the other hand, many Moslems feel that America hasn't gone far enough in pressuring the French.

MILITARY IMPORTANCE

All this, of course, is complicated still further by the fact that North Africa is terribly important for America, which has air bases on the northwest corner of Africa, in Morocco. French naval bases and ports at Casablanca and Port Lyautey in Morocco and at Oran and Algiers in Algeria, are vital links in the defense of the Western Hemisphere and Europe.

• • •

But the hard fact is that France doesn't have the money for the job that must be done down here. The only source available outside the Iron Curtain is the United States.

• • •

It is not made any easier by the Israeli-Arab question. An important Moroccan official to whom I talked was very blunt about it:

"If war breaks out between Israel and the Arab states, the whole Moslem world will slip into the Communist camp. We know in our hearts that the United States will support Israel."

• • •

The Americans feel that all this Arab problem, so far as it affects North Africa at any rate, could have been avoided if the French had acted more wisely. But that is water over the dam. The problem still remains — what to do now?

Next: Terror.

Wedding Marches Disliked by Clerics

CAPETOWN—Mendelssohn's and Wagner's wedding marches "lack sanctity" according to a group of South African ministers, who would ban them from church weddings.

• • •

They were composed expressly for performance in the theater, the ministers say. Some of them object to the solos sometimes sung at weddings and many ministers bar sentimental ballads at such affairs.

Says Rev. J. B. Webb, of the Methodist Church Hall in Johannesburg: "The marriage service is more than just a social function. It is an act of worship."

• • •

He once was asked by a bride to allow a song about "a good pal and true," which was a juke-box hit at the time, he said. "Danny Boy" and "In a Monastery Garden" are "inappropriate."

Celtic Town Dating to 200 B. C. Found

MUNICH, GERMANY—The site of the ancient Celtic town of Vallatum, whose origin archaeologists put at about 200 B.C., has been discovered near Manching, Germany. More than 500 cases of artifacts unearthed in the Bavarian discovery have been shipped to a Munich museum.

Tale Takes Longer Under Dad's Typing

OMAHA (AP) — The teacher assigned students to write a one-hundred word news story and allowed five words leeway.

Next day, the daughter of a public-school principal reported to the teacher she was having difficulty with the assignment, couldn't make it fit as to wordage.

"You have a little leeway," the teacher reminded.

"I know," the girl said. "When I first wrote it, I had exactly 100 words. But after daddy got through typing, it had 149 words."

Group Defines 'Pests'

DENVER (INS) — The Colorado General Assembly rounded out a tough legislative schedule by approving a measure that defines "pests" for all interested persons. Senate Bill 16, passed unanimously, defines agricultural pests as "insect pests, animal pests (except rodents, jack rabbits and predatory animals), fungus and other plant disease, or weeds."

Dynamite Blasts Alloy Into Shape

NEW YORK—A method of using dynamite has been worked out to blast large Monel nickle-copper-alloy fan hubs into shape. A Monel cylinder is placed in a water-filled die with a stick of dynamite suspended at water level. The blast forces the ductile alloy into the contour of the die at a fraction of what it would cost to spin the metal into the same shape.

SAN JUAN—Puerto Rico produced $120,000,000 worth of manufactured goods in 1955 compared with an output of $20,000,000 in 1947.

Innocent Man Freed After 16 Years in Jail

ROCK ISLAND, Ill. (AP)—An innocent man who spent 16 years in prison is free today because of a prosecutor's diligence and a guilty man's conscience.

• • •

The one year to life sentence of Roy E. Eaton, 52, was vacated yesterday in the same Circuit Court room in which he had been convicted in 1940.

Judge Leonard E. Telleen issued the order after State's Atty. Bernard J. Moran presented a paroled convict's signed statement that he and another man had committed the crime for which Eaton was punished.

• • •

Eaton was sent to Stateville (Ill.) Prison when James L. Crooks, a soap salesman, identified him as one of two men who robbed him of $50 in Rock Island Oct. 4, 1938.

Louis G. Burrall, Davenport, Iowa, was identified as the other robber. He was not prosecuted because in the meantime he had been sent to a federal prison for robbing a post office branch.

• • •

At his trial and ever since, Eaton protested that he was innocent. He claimed he was in Lordsburg, N. M., where he then lived, on the day of the robbery. But he didn't have the money to bring witnesses from Lordsburg to Rock Island to support his alibi.

In the ensuing years Eaton made repeated but unsuccessful efforts to be absolved of the crime.

Moran, who had assumed office in the meantime, became interested in the case two years ago.

• • •

"After being convinced of Eaton's innocence," the state's attorney recalled, "I decided the man who could prove it was Burrall, who was paroled from federal prison last year, I went to him in January.

"He said he and John B. Davis had committed the Crooks robbery. He said that while he and Davis were in prison together he had tried to get Davis to come forward with him to clear Eaton but that Davis wouldn't do it. Two lie detector tests showed Burrall was telling the truth."

• • •

Moran said he also had sought a statement from Davis, now up for parole from a 25-year sentence at McNeil Island (Wash.) Federal Prison.

"He turned me down," the prosecutor said, "for fear it would jeopardize his chance for parole. But we already had enough to clear Eaton."

• • •

Moran said that, because of Burrall's cooperation, no action would be taken against him. But the state's attorney went before the Rock Island County grand jury and obtained an armed robbery indictment against Davis.

"Davis," said Moran, "will be brought for trial as soon as he gets out of federal prison. We expect that to be sometime next year if not sooner."

Eaton was choked with emotion as he won his freedom.

"This is the happiest day of my life," he said.

Then he set out to fulfill two desires long delayed by his imprisonment—to eat a "big steak" and ride in a new car.

He has been offered a job with a Rock Island construction company.

• • •

Eaton, who was married and doing odd jobs in Lordsburg at the time of his arrest, refused to discuss his family, saying he didn't want to "involve anyone else."

His attorney indicated that the Legislature will be petitioned to pay Eaton damages for his unjust incarceration.

VanAtta said Cutcher admitted he was on probation from a California court for the same offense.

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Police complain that Richard T. Greenwood, 27, did his Easter shopping a little late. Not only that, they say, but he did it while the store was closed for the night.

Greenwood was in jail today, charged with the theft of an overcoat, hat and shoes. Police said he left his discarded apparel in each department. A store employe said he found Greenwood sleeping in an aisle.

Senate Tackles 'Canine Bill'

Official Dog for State? Pennsylvania Group to Decide Issue

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Pennsylvania's Senate shed its usual solemnity yesterday and got down happily to the pressing issue of whether the state should have an official dog, and if so, what dog.

The bill up for a vote was to adopt the great Dane as official state dog. But the talk ranged philosophically, sentimentally and facetiously over the whole canine kingdom.

"Let us not be deceived," one plump senator began, "this is a subject very close and very dear to—"

His words and gestures were clipped off unfeelingly by another who asserted that every dog should have his day but not in the Legislature.

It wasn't easy to tell who was speaking until Sen. Joseph Yosko rose and told the Senate that more people seemed to be writing in about dog bills than about any other issue.

• • •

"And frankly," Yosko continued, "until this new bill appeared I never knew there were so many different kinds of dogs in Pennsylvania.

"People write. They want a state dog. There was one I got—this is rich. It was the best letter that came to me. The writer said, 'Don't you know that Pennsylvania already has a state dog—go to a baseball game, a football game, a circus, a picnic and there you'll see it. It's the hot dog.'"

The Senate didn't quite do it though. The eventual vote for the great Dane was 25-14, missing by one. At least 26 votes are needed to pass a bill.

Partisans of the breed said the great Dane was championed for an historical reason—an old picture of William Penn, in the office of Gov. George M. Leader, shows the founder of the commonwealth with a great Dane.

Butzel to Be Honored

DETROIT (AP)—A resolution praising "faithful public service" will be given Friday to Chief Justice Henry M. Butzel of the Michigan Supreme Court. It was adopted unanimously by the Detroit Common Council, and notes Butzel's 26 years a member of the court.

Group Leaders Plan Panel Talk Friday

Five group leaders of Recovery Inc. will compose the panel for the open meeting of the Pontiac Pastors' Association, at 11 a.m. Friday in the First Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Carl W. Nelson, president, will preside for the business session which starts at 10:30.

The Rev. Fred R. Tiffany, chairman of the program committee, will introduce Mrs. William Rice of Brighton, state leader of Recovery Inc.

Austria Resents President Tito

Anti-Reds Suspect That Yugoslav Chief May Go Back to Kremlin Camp

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—President Tito of Yugoslavia is getting a bad press in Austria these days. There are several reasons:

• • •

1. Many anti-Communists suspect that, after getting millions of dollars worth of help from the West while he was outlawed and boycotted by Moscow, he now is moving back toward the Soviet-Cominform fold. They also think he's getting mighty swellheaded since his political triumph over the new Kremlin rulers.

2. A lot of Austrians are getting tired of having hundreds of Yugoslav refugees slipping into this country for asylum and the livelihood they can't find in their Communist-ruled homeland.

3. Austrian anti-Communist papers sharply resent attacks made on them by the Yugoslav government and press.

Yugoslavs seeking refuge in Austria have become this country's biggest refugee burden. Of 194 people from Communist-ruled countries granted asylum in one recent month, 125 were Yugoslavs. In addition, scores of Yugoslavs just slip in without asking asylum formally. Invariably the Yugoslavs complain about poor living conditions at home, as well as against the Communist regime.

Timely Example Wins Light at Intersection

SULPHUR SPRINGS, Tex. (AP)—City Manager Roy Hames, asking for a traffic light at Davis and Houston streets, told the City Council "it's the worst traffic danger spot in Sulphur Springs."

Just then the radio on a police car outside started rasping "Major accident at Davis and Houston."

He got the light.

Any Direction Is Fine

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—It was a cold and snowy morning, so Mrs. Edna Peters stopped her car to pick up the little lad clutching a bundle at the side of the road. They drove for half a mile before the youngster spoke up: "I don't want to go this way," he said. "I go to Oakwood School way back on the hill. I just got in your car to get warm."

'Hoxsey Cancer Treatment' Banned by Food and Drugs Administration

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government issued a formal public warning today against the Hoxsey cancer treatment which it termed worthless and "imminently dangerous" if its use leads to neglect of other care.

• • •

The Food and Drugs Administration said some of the medicine used by Harry M. Hoxsey in his cancer treatment contains potassium iodide, and it added: "There is evidence that potassium iodide accelerates the growth of some cancers."

HOXSEY DISPUTES

Hoxsey disputed the government contentions. At his clinic in Dallas, he said he has records of cases "proving that we have been successful after radium, X-ray and surgery have failed." He said the government never has made a full investigation.

Hoxsey said his clinics now have 10,000 patients.

• • •

The FDA has been fighting Hoxsey since before 1948. After years of litigation, a decision by a U. S. District Court in Texas in October 1953 prohibited Hoxsey and his clinic from shipping in interstate commerce what the FDA today termed "their worthless cancer medicines."

PUBLIC WARNING

FDA officials said the agency never had taken a precisely similar action to warn the public against any medicine or treatment.

The public warning is to be published in the Federal Register as an official document. It is signed by FDA Commissioner George P. Larrick.

In a separate statement, the agency said it is developing a contempt of court proceeding alleging that Hoxsey and members of his staff have violated the 1953 injunction against interstate transportation of their products.

IMMINENT DANGER

The FDA said the Hoxsey treatment costs $400 plus $60 in additional fees, and added that these "expenditures will yield nothing of any value in the care of cancer."

It declared the treatment employs drugs in such a way as to involve "imminent danger to health or gross deception of the consumer," and it added:

• • •

"Its sale represents a gross deception to the consumer. It is imminently dangerous to rely upon it in neglect of competent and rational tratment."

HOXSEY REPLIES

Hoxsey said in his reply:

"My statement is that for 35 years I have been pleading and begging the American Medical Assn., the Pure Food and Drug Administration, the surgeon general and others to make a complete investigation of our records that show we now have 10,000 patients under treatment and observation from as far away as New Zealand.

• • •

FDA said its own lengthy studies have "not found a single certified cure of internal cancer effected by the Hoxsey treatment." It said also that the National Cancer Institute has reviewed case histories submitted by Hoxsey and found "no scientific evidence that the treatment has any value."

In its separate statement, which FDA called a "fact sheet," the agency named three persons as having sponsored the Hoxsey treatment. They are Gerald B. Winrod, publisher of the "Defender Magazine," Wichita, Kan.; Allen Bernard, "Man's Magazine" writer and John J. Haluska, a Pennsylvania state senator.

The FDA said the Hoxsey treatment "begins with a superficial and inadequate examination of the patient" at the Dallas or Portage clinnic, and it continued:

"The patient at Dallas is then supplied with one of the following 'cancer' medicines: Black pills, red pills, a brownish-black liquid, or a light red liquid. The black pills and the brownish-black liquid contain: Potassium iodide, licorice, red clover blossoms, burdock root, stillingia root, berberis root, poke root, cascara sagrada, prickly ash bark, and buckthorn powder. The red pills contain potassium iodide, red clover, stillingia root, poke root, buckthorn and pepsin.

"At Portage the patient is given the same 'cancer' medication although the colors of the pills are different. The light red liquid medicine is potassium iodide in elixir of lactated pepsin.

Comic Artist to Speak

Hundreds View Opening of 1956 Builders' Show

HOME SHOW 'MIDWAY' — A crowd collects at one of the more than 40 displays which comprise the annual Pontiac Home and Builders' Show at the Armory. Undaunted by a sudden drop in temperatures, area residents filled the interior of the building until 10 p. m. last night as the annual exposition began a five-day run. Almost every phase of house planning, construction and equipping is represented. The show is conducted by the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Displays Accent New Innovations

Annual Pontiac Exhibit Begins Five-Day Run at City Armory

Spring is at hand when birds begin to chirp, trees bud—and when home owners commence to think about projects like fixing up lawns and roofs.

Even chilly temperatures are not enough to quash the latter harbinger as evidenced last night when hundreds drove and walked to the Armory to wander through the maze of exhibits which make up the annual Pontiac Home and Builders' Show.

Opening nighters viewed almost every conceivable kind of interior and exterior house equipment from the aisles which separate nearly 50 booths on the armory's main floor.

Presented by area merchants, the displays included, among other items: Air conditioning units, power tools, bathroom fixtures, roofing and siding, appliances, lawn and garden equipment, unfinished furniture, heaters and fencing.

Perhaps the most unusual exhibit is a display of flowers and ferns placed in a setting of rocks and running water by Jacobsen's Flowers. Outside displays include a huge house trailer and a precut house.

Presented by the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce, the third annual event will last through Sunday. Proceeds are used to finance various community service projects.

The show will be open from 4 to 10 p.m. today, from 1 to 10 p.m. tomorrow, 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday, and from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Sunday.

Chairman Leslie Langford heads a committee which includes Donald Weddle, co-chairman; Stanley Deyo, Jay Clark and Jack Crawford, booth sales; Jerry Zubalik, Paul McMichael and Robert Shueller, programs; David Hayhow, publicity; Harry Zering, layout; Arnold Kanter, finance; William O'Connor, clean-up; and Louis Cole, attendance.

FLORAL CORNER — David Wheaterell, of 324 Liberty St., and his son Stephen, 3, view some of the flowers which are part of a Jacobsen's Flowers display at the Builders' Show. The exhibit contains, besides various blooms and ferns, an artificial spring which cascades over rocks at the far end of the miniature garden.

LATEST IN HEAT PUMPS — Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tank, of Oxford, inspect a new operating heat pump unit which was part of the Detroit Edison display at the show. Operating on air and electricity alone, the year-around air conditioning machine uses the principle of electric refrigeration for both heating and cooling purposes. The unit will be used in the new Pontiac office of the firm.

Admit Retarded to New Hospital

Ninety Already In, 160 Expected at Farmington in Coming Weeks

As a result of emergency legislation enacted last fall, 90 mentally retarded patients already have been admitted to the new Farmington Hospital.

• • •

An additional 160 are expected in the next few months, according to Charles F. Wagg, director of the department of mental health.

Nearly 1,500 patients will be admitted to institutions throughout the state under the legislation, Wagg said. To date, 400 have been admitted, and the remainder should be institutionalized by November.

• • •

The biggest unit involved in the emergency care program, at Fort Custer, is expected to receive its first patients later this month and a total of 800 by November.

• • •

A total of 220 patients have been placed in the completed structure at Mt. Pleasant. Space will be ready for 130 at the Coldwater State Home and Training School by mid-summer.

• • •

In the long-range aspect of the program, facilities will be provided for 900 more patients upon completion of new structures going up at Coldwater and the Mt. Pleasant State Home, Wagg said.

State Meeting Draws Officials

2 to Attend Traffic Parley

Two Oakland County representatives will participate in the fourth annual Michigan Traffic Court Conference, scheduled for April 10 through 12 at Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Gerald A. Terrien, County Justice Court Accountant, will address assembled municipal judges, justices of the peace, attorneys and state officials on "Modernized Justice Court Accounting Practices."

Terrien has been widely acclaimed for his recently-adopted streamlined record system for use in justice courts.

Waterford Township Justice Donald E. Adams heads a committee which will report on aspects of a uniform fine schedule in traffic cases.

Adams and two committee members each will speak for 10 minutes, presenting such considerations as variations in wage scales in the state, the case of the habitual offender and a possible loss of personalized justice.

Secretary of State James M. Hare and Attorney General Thomas M. Kavanagh are among scheduled speakers.

• • •

Conference officers include Kenneth N. Sanborn, president of the Michigan Justices of the Peace Association, as general chairman; George T. Martin, president of the Michigan Municipal Judges Association, as vice chairman; and Kalamazoo Municipal Judge Clark M. Olmsted, consultant at the MSU Highway Traffic Safety Center, as director.

Monaco's Press Center Offers Both Chapel, Bar

MONTE CARLO (AP) — Prince Rainier III's pint-sized principality opened up a big press center today for the 1,000 reporters, photographers, television and radio commentators who'll cover the ruler's wedding to Grace Kelly.

• • •

"We hope we haven't forgotten anything," said a beaming official. "I believe this is the first press center in the world to have both a religious chapel and a serpentine bar."

FORMER SCHOOL

The press headquarters is located in a four-story former school building overlooking the Mediterranean. The bar is in the courtyard, the place for prayer on the second floor.

• • •

Red and white flags of Monaco, crossed with the Stars and Stripes of the United States, hang from every window. Over the entrance the Prince's decorators have erected flags from all over the world—but not from Russia and her Communist allies.

The press center bar is as colorful as an explosion in a paint factory.

• • •

In the shape of an undulating serpent, it is painted canary yellow with broad black stripes. Over it, to shelter the thirsty newsmen, stretches a huge orange canopy. Drawings of shapely blondes in the briefest of Bikinis adorn the walls.

UNIQUE DRINKS

The drink list is also unique. One of the cocktails is called an American old-fashioned — made with gin.

• • •

"Give us time," said a press official. "We'll even have Kentucky bourbon by the time Miss Kelly and her party arrive from America next week."

Other wedding notes:

The clock on the Monaco palace tower is five minutes fast. One of Prince Rainers subjects thinks it's because "one of his small failings is tardiness. Perhaps it's just as well that the palace clock is fast."

• • •

Ex-King Farouk of Egypt and ex-Emperor Bao Dai of Viet Nam have accepted personal invitations to the wedding. Another claimant to a throne—the Count of Paris, who wants the throne of France—was not invited.

The name of Conrad Hilton, American hotel magnate, also was added to the guest list. President Eisenhower named him his personal representative.

ADMEN'S CHOICE — "Advertising's Miss 1956" is 21-year-old Ann Fiorillo, assistant time buyer in the New York office of McManus, John & Adams, Bloomfield Hills advertising agency. Miss Fiorillo was selected from entrants submitted by 30 major advertising agencies. A young lady is selected annually for the honor by the Assn. of Advertising Men and Women, Inc., on the basis of beauty combined with advertising "know-how."

Era Ends in Detroit— Replace Last Streetcar

DETROIT (INS)—Another era in Detroit's history will end Sunday when the last streetcar makes its final run on the Woodward Avenue line.

Buses will replace streetcars next week on Woodward, the last line in Detroit serviced by trolleys.

Highland Park officials today were putting finishing touches on plans for a parade Sunday to mark the end of streetcars.

West Virginia's Float Is "Hottest' in Festival

WASHINGTON (AP)—West Virginia's folat was the hottest entry in last night's Cherry Blossom Festival parade.

The 50 - foot float burst into flames at the end of the parade route. It was destroyed.

Judith Rice of Clarksburg, West Virginia's "Cherry Blossom Princess," had climbed from her throne, atop two papier - mache peacocks, just before the fire started. She was unhurt.

Firemen traced the blaze to defective wiring or an oil generator buried in the brightly colored float.

Luftwaffe Dropped Bombs First on City of Freiburg

FREIBURG, Germany (AP)—German planes—not French aircraft as the Nazis claimed — raided Freiburg in the first major bombing of a German city in World War II.

• • •

This has been established by the Munich Institute of Modern History, ending controversy which dated back to 1940.

• • •

On May 10 that year, 57 people in Freiburg, including 22 children, lost their lives in what the Nazi propagandists termed a "French terror raid."

NEEDED REASON

Rumors immediately went around that the fatal bombs were of German origin. After the war, authorities of the state of Baden stated Hitler ordered the raid to create a "reason" for the Luftwaffe's blitz bombings.

This stirred a nationwide discussion. In 1954, state authorities commissioned the Munich Institute to dig out the facts. For almost two years, historians combed secret government and Luftwaffe files.

Finally they have reported the 69 bombs, including 24 duds, were dropped by mistake by three twin-engine Heinkel planes of the 51st Luftwaffe Bomber Wing.

They had been ordered to bomb Dijon while German troops were launching an attack. One pilot later reported to his command that they lost their way in an instrument flight and had mistaken Freiburg for Dijon. The pilot was killed during the war.

Luftwaffe commander Hermann Goering ordered a court-martial investigation. But Hitler stopped the investigation and ordered the "Mistake" raid used for anti-Allid propaganda.

Bicycle Rider Fined

DETROIT (INS) — Gerald F. Szulborski, 18, of Detroit was fined $5 yesterday for an unusual case of reckless driving. Szulborski was fined for running a red light and going through a stop sign—while riding a bicycle.

Been Going On for Years

Oriental Clearing House Benefiting Commie China

HONG KONG (AP)—This British crown colony is a clearing house for a small legal trade in nonstrategic materials between two enemies — Red China and the Nationalist Chinese on Formosa.

* * *

Hong Kong businessmen who boast they will sell to anyone merely shrugged their shoulders at a recent Washington controversy about trade between the Red and Nationalist Chinese. Such trade has been going on here for years.

Both the Chinas ship goods to this commercial city. The goods are stored in warehouses before reshipment. Communist and Nationalist Chinese buyers rub shoulders while purchasing their respective countries' needs — regardless of origin.

STRATEGIC ITEMS OUTLAWED

Products like camphor, citronella oil and nonstrategic chemicals can be shipped freely between the two Chinas through here. The Hong Kong government has made legal trade in strategic items impossible and is combatting smuggling. Occasionally revenue officers of the colony intercept Chinese junks carrying American cars or kerosene for Communist jet planes trying to reach Red China after dark. The penalty for such activity is stiff.

* * *

Major items traded through Hong Kong between Formosa and Red China include:

1. Citronella oil from Formosa purchased by the Communists — about 50,000 U.S. dollars worth last year.

* * *

2. Camphor oil from Formosa bought by the Reds — about $160,000 worth last year.

3. Tung oil from Red China bought by Nationalist China—$60,000 worth last year.

HOOVER IGNITES DEBATE

U.S. Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. touched off the controversy about the trade between Nationalist and Red China. He told a Senate subcommittee March 26 that the Nationalists were shipping millions of dollars worth of goods to the Communists each year.

* * *

A few days later Hoover told the investigators he had been wrong. He said the State Department had no evidence of any direct trade between Formosa and the mainland, but that indirect trade in nonstrategic items over which Nationalist authorities have no control takes place through Hong Kong.

The controversy also turned up a U.S. government foreign aid report showing Nationalist China imported $1,300,000 worth of goods from Red China during the first eight months of 1955. Shipments to and from Hong Kong were listed separately. Foreign aid chief John B. Hollister said in a subsequent statement that the Nationalist imports from the Reds "were actually shipped from Hong Kong." He also said he had no evidence of any direct trade between Formosa and the Red mainland.

Sister Plucks Young Brother From Icy Lake

Little 4-year-old Danny Valentine is closer to his sister Jackie than ever before.

Both children, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Valentine, live on Stoney Lake in Oxford, were playing the other evening around the lake when Danny tumbled into the water.

Without wasting time to call her mother, Jackie, 7, reached down from a dock and pulled her brother to safety.

Although terrified, Danny suffered no ill effects except a bundle of wet clothes.

Satellite Contracts Granted

WASHINGTON (AP) — California and Maryland firms were named today to construct the final-stage rocket designed to propel a U.S.-made satellite into its orbit around the earth.

* * *

Only the payload of the satellite itself now remains to be assigned to a manufacturer in project Vanguard. Plans are to send up such a man-made moon within the next two years.

The contract for the final rocket was assigned to the Grand Central Rocket Co., Redlands, Calif., and the Allegany Ballistics Laboratory, Cumberland, Md.

GYROSCOPE SYSTEM

The Navy and the Glenn L. Martin Co. of Baltimore, prime contractor for the project, also named subcontractors for an intricate system of gyroscopes and for an automatic pilot that will control the flight.

The gyroscope mechanisms are to be built by the Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator Co., Minneapolis. The Vickers Electric Division of the Sperry Rand Corp., St. Louis, will design and make the automatic pilot system.

The Navy had announced earlier that the Martin aircraft firm will construct the launching mechanism, that General Electric has a contract to build the first-stage rocket motor and that the second-stage rocket will be manufactured by the Aerojet-General Corp., Azusa, Calif.

After the first two rockets have burned out and automatically dropped off, the third rocket is supposed to boost the medicine-ball-sized satellite to a speed of approximately 18,000 miles an hour.

Man Scribbling 'Yes' on Poles, Has Reason

ATLANTA (AP)—Persons who noticed a man scribbling the word "yes" with chalk on utility poles along Moreland Avenue weren't seeing things.

Police Chief Herbert Jenkins explained that the department received an anonymous letter saying that if police wanted further information about a recent $3,500 robbery they were to write the word "yes" on Moreland Avenue utility poles.

A detective was given a piece of chalk and assigned the task. There haven't been any results so far, Jenkins said, and the department is running out of chalk.

Report Soviets Promise Hockey Coach Quits

DAMASCUS (INS) — Russia was reported by reliable sources in Damascus last night to have promised the Arab nations military aid to meet any western armed intervention in the Middle East.

Russia was said to have made the promise in answer to certain Arab governments which inquired about her attitude in the event of western intervention to prevent an Arab-Israeli war.

House Amends Airport Funds

Senate Must Now OK Added Appropriations for Wayne Major

LANSING (AP)—Funds for Detroit Wayne-Major Airport were back in the total for airport matching money today with the next move up to the Senate.

The House Thursday night amended two airport bills to put back in appropriations for Wayne Major.

The state's share of the matching funds for the next fiscal year was upped from $646,500 to the original million dollars — the difference $353,500 for Wayne-Major.

The total of the deficiency appropriation for the current fiscal year was changed from the Senate figure of $157,500 to $645,307 as $487,807 for Detroit Wayne-Major was tacked back on by the House.

Both amendments were proposed by Rep. Frank Williams (D-Detroit).

"The county already has invested 13 million dollars in the airport," Williams said. It's a good buy when we can put up one quarter of the amount, the county will match that and the federal government will match them both."

Rep. Charles A. Boyer (D-Manistee) said the Wayne-Major appropriation was cut from the total because of confusion over the airport situation in Detroit.

"They don't seem to know what they want," Boyer said.

President Closeted on Missile Problem

WASHINGTON (INS) — President Eisenhower conferred for two hours last night with two members of a Senate subcommittee investigating complaints the U.S. trails Russia in aircraft and guided missile programs.

He met with GOP Senators Leverett Saltonstall, (Mass.), and James Duff, (Pa.), neither of whom would comment.

However, Saltonstall said the guided missile program was discussed and Duff said politics also came up at the meeting.

The subcommittee is headed by Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), a frequent critic of administration defense policies, who, it is rumored, may be using current hearings on defense preparedness as a springboard to the Democratic presidential nomination.

Startled Beer Drinker Hits on New Plan

IPSWICH, England (AP) — One night a few weeks ago a saloon keeper bellowed "Time!" right in Wasyl Nimenko's ear. Wasyl was so startled he spilled a pint of beer costing a shilling and seven pence —22 cents.

Frugal Wasyl, a Ukrainian-born watchmaker, decided on the spot there must be some better way to herald the closing hour than the traditional ear-splitting shouts of "Time!" "Last order!" and "Come along, please!"

Last night he announced he has invented one: a saloon-closing clock.

Ten minutes before closing time, the clock will play a gentle music box tune, meaning "The hour is nigh."

* * *

Five minutes later it will flash an amber light and tinkle softly, meaning "Drink up."

And spang on the hour it will display a red light and sound a loud bell, meaning "Scram."

Lutz Makes Puns to Break Up Tension

Commissioner Harry W. Lutz, who has added many a humorous quip to a City Commission meeting, vacates his post tonight.

He will join his fellow 1954-56 City commissioners for the last time tonight as they canvass Monday's election returns.

Lutz, 72, declined a re-election bid this year which was the completion of his first two-year term on the commission. He was appointed in January 1954 to fill a vacancy and this term expired in April of the same year.

Lutz has a reputation of being the humorist on the out-going commission. "I don't say the things I do to be funny and get a laugh," Lutz said. "I do it to break the tension of the meeting."

* * *

"Sometime our meetings get a little tense so I chim in to stave off the factionalism and add a little color to the session," he added.

"While you are tense, up goes your blood pressure. The more relaxed you are, in a humorous manner in these meetings, the longer you live," the World War I veteran said.

"And all my puns are original and not from books," he said.

When you happen to meet Lutz on the street and speak to him and he doesn't answer, he isn't trying to ignore you. "I became a little hard of hearing as the result of being wounded three times in the first World War," he explained.

Lutz entered the building contracting business here after coming to the city in 1921 from California. He lives with his wife at 306 Ferry Ave.

"It is with deep regret that I'm leaving the boys," the gray-haired bespectacled commissioner said. "I also regret that the city didn't accept fluoridation and I believe it will be legislated some day."

Commie Quizzers to Recall Witnesses

By MARTHA COLE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Walter (D-Pa) said today the House Committee on Un-American Activities may recall some heretofore reluctant witnesses and order them to testify under a law permitting immunity from prosecution.

* * *

Walter mentioned no names, saying he'd rather not disclose any now.

* * *

But Rep. Velde (R-Ill), senior Republican on the committee, named as possibilities Alger Hiss, who served a prison term for perjury in denying he had given documents to a Communist spy courier, and Steve Nelson, Pennsylvania Communist party leader.

* * *

Walter told reporters he has instructed the committee's counsel "to go over the list of witnesses who have invoked the Fifth Amendment to determine which of them should be recalled and given immunity."

Malenkov Sends Gifts to Ballerina After Show

LONDON (AP) — Former Soviet Pemier Georgi Malenkov sent around a bottle of Russian perfume and a huge bouquet of tulips last night for Britain's leading ballerina, Dame Margot Fonteyn.

Malenkov, who is on a tour of Britain, sent the gifts after watching her perform to the music of Cesar Franck's "Symphonic Variations" at Convent Garden.

The perfume is called "Night."

Spain Opens Conference on Morocco's Freedom

MADRID (INS) — The government announced today that the "solemn opening" of negotiations to grant independence to Spanish Morocco would begin this afternoon at El Pardo Palace.

Generalissimo Francisco Franco and Sultan Mohammed Ben Youssef will deliver the opening speeches.

Canadian Freighter Takes Lock 'Silk Hat'

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) — The Canadian Freighter John Misener of Colonial Steamships Ltd., beat out four other vessels to become the first ship to pass through the Sault Michigan locks this year.

* * *

Capt. C. H. Cole, the Misener's skipper, received the traditional silk hat, while the crew was presented with cigarets and cigars. The Misener hit the locks at 12:34 p.m. yesterday.

The Misener, three other Colonial-owned vessels—the Everetton, the C. A. Bennett and the John O. McKellar—and the Daniel Pierce, a tanker operated by Sinclair Refining Company of Chicago, left De Tour, Mich., early yesterday in the annual race to open navigation in the upper lakes.

The U.S. Coast Guard Icebreaker Mackinaw and the Railroad Car Ferry Sainte Marie were to escort the vessels through an 18-mile ice barrier in Whitefish Bay to the open water of Lake Superior.

Just Caught Napping!

SEVILhE, Spain (INS)—Fernando Servian Navas, 31, no sooner got out of jail than he broke into a clothing store. After collecting a valuable pile of loot, he decided to take a nap under a staircase before leaving. He was still asleep next morning when the police came.

Adlai Stresses American Unity

Says Fate of World Depends on U.S., Cites Segregation Solution

KINGSLAND, Ga. (AP) — Adlai Stevenson says "the fate of the world depends today on unity among Americans."

"To have that unity we must settle the segregation problem peaceably, honorably and according to our law, our conscience and our religion," he said last night in a copyrighted interview with M.L. St. John, political editor of the Atlanta Constitution.

"I believe deeply that there is this unity in America's heart; and I believe that no man North or South has any greater present duty than to help find the way to unite this nation and find the right answer to this problem."

The candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination said it is becoming increasingly difficult to fill the role of a mediator to unite extremists of the right and the left.

"But," he said, "it also becomes more and more important that the mediator's role be filled. The hope that I could fill that role, in both domestic and foreign fields, is the only satisfaction I get out of seeking the presidency again."

Stevenson said he has "been working for party unity ever since the 1952 election. It is imperative that the Democrats win this year. Divided on foreign policy and committed to serving only big business in the domestic field, the Republicans have demonstrated their inability to rule this nation."

The former Illinois governor was interviewed at the Harry Guggenheim estate near Kingsland, where he is on a brief vacation.

He's a Husband?

PATERSON, N.J. (AP) — When her new husband demanded she pay rent to him, Mrs. Josephine Remsen said, that was the end. She has filed a separate maintenance suit.

DUSTING OFF OLD JOE — In Russia, the Communist top brass has been giving once-worshiped Josef Stalin a rough brush-off. And here he gets another — in New York — from Joseph Carucci, caretaker at the Wax Museum in Coney Island.

Emergency Line to Bisect County

Bell System to Assure Long Distance Contact if Disaster Hits

Construction of a nationwide express telephone system which will bypass heavily populated areas to safeguard communications in times of disaster has been launched by the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. and the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The 5,500-mile line will extend across Milford and Southfield townships in Oakland County.

The $3,100,000 project will permit completion of long distance calls throughout the state even though switching facilities at such potential enemy targets as Detroit, Grand Rapids and Flint are isolated by fire, tornado or enemy bombings.

Towers from 225 to 350 feet high will also be erected about 30 miles apart at Reading in Hillsdale County, Parma in Jackson County, Lacy in Barry County and Dansville in Ingham County.

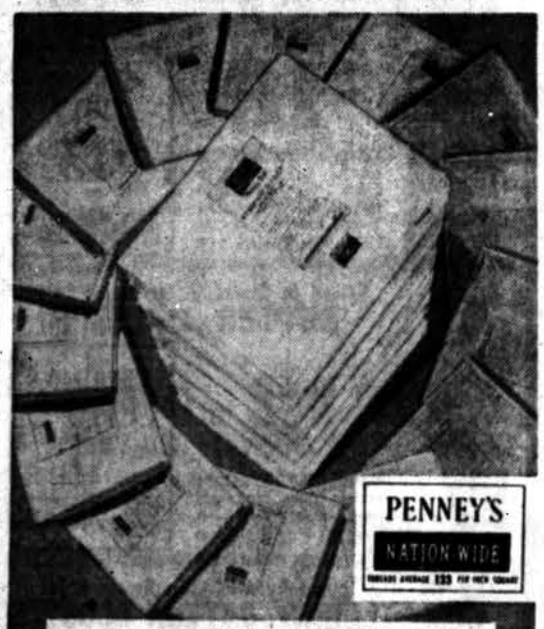

The new route will supplement existing long distance facilities and will operate on a microwave radio-relay system.

Scientists working under American Cancer Society grants are seeking drugs to cure cancer. The only approved cures for cancer now are surgery and radiation.

Truman May Sail to Europe for Visit in May

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman has made a tentative reservation to sail on the liner United States for Europe on May 11 for a two-month visit.

• • •

The tentative reservation for a suite for Truman was made yesterday before he and his wife left by train last night for Independence, Mo., after an Easter visit with their daughter Margaret and a speech before the Overseas Press Club Tuesday night.

• • •

The former President told newsmen yesterday that he wanted to go to Europe to accept an honorary degree from Oxford University in England, which had been seeking his presence for three years.

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Seven Grand Rapids furniture manufacturers plan to open exhibits at Chicago's June furniture market. Philip C. Cornelius, president of the Grand Rapids Furniture Exposition Assn., said it indicates "the expansion of the entire Grand Rapids furniture industry." Both Chicago and Grand Rapids summer markets will be held in mid-June.

THESE TOOK THE PRIZES — These odd-looking homemade hats are prize winners, believe it or not. Folks in Casper, Wyo., make the long, cold and stormy winters seem shorter by holding unusual contests. The oil-derrick hat at left symbolizes the main industry in the area. The one at upper right represents gardening and the other, made of doll-sized pots and pans, represents household activities. The designers are Mrs. Philip Kretz, left; Mrs. Philip Clark, upper right, and Mrs. Pat Alsup.

Navy Will Use Power of the Sun in New Research

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force will turn to the sun for energy to fire the hottest furnace "known to exist in the world today."

* * *

It will be done with mirrors in a solar furnace to be built soon at a spot 9,000 feet high in the Sacramento Mountains near Holloman Air Development Center, Alamogordo, N. M.

The furnace may attain temperatures of 7,000 to 8,000 degrees fahrenheit over a "substantially larger area than any other furnace known to exist."

The Air Force said such terrific heats are needed to advance research and testing of materials for use in high-speed, high-altitude aircraft, and for duplicating the heat effects of nuclear weapons.

Rocket Airliners Coming in 1957

Aviation Expert Sees Planes With Nuclear Power in Future

LOS ANGELES (INS)—An aviation expert who predicted jet propulsion flights years before they became a reality says rocket and nuclear powered airliners will be commonplace by 1975.

He is Schöler Bangs, former magazine editor and contributor to national publications, who also believes that rockets manned by human beings will be probing the coating of the earth's atmosphere before 1970.

Bangs, peering further into his "crystal ball," foresees comic strip-type "flying belts" propelling man through the air in the not too distant future.

He forecasts 3000 mile-per-hour passenger aircraft for use by 1970. And in the more immediate future, he says, we will learn by the end of the year, about conditions confronting man when he makes a flight to the moon.

REVOLUTIONARY

"Within the lifetime of today's university graduate," Bangs predicts, "earth aircraft will become wingless and existing concepts of jet engine and rocket power for flight will be obsolete.

"Anti-gravity devices will revolutionize human flight. Basic and applied research to this end is under way in the United States at this time. The comic-strip 'flying belt' will become a reality."

Bangs adds:

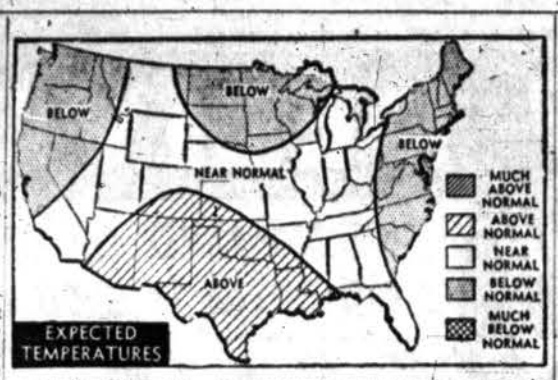

"Predating successful application of 'anti-gravity' flight, rocket and nuclear power for passenger liners as well as military aircraft will become commonplace by 1975. Manned rockets, probing the fringes of the earth's sticky coating of atmosphere, will be flight before 1970.

"By 1970 major aircraft factories will be ready to offer airlines specifications of 3000 mph, or faster, rocketliners."

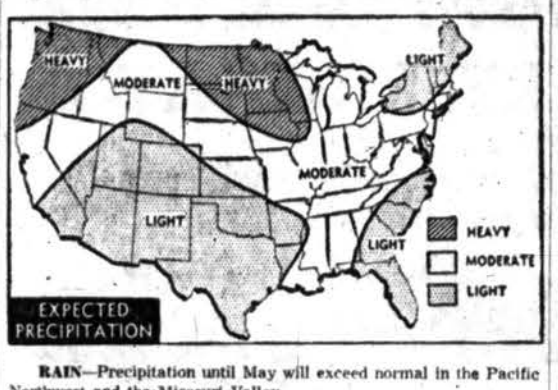

Thief Makes Restitution After 20-Year Delay

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Hubert D. Marsh, operator of a drive-in sandwich stand here, received in the mail a package containing five forks, two cups and a knife all stamped with his name.

After some study, he decided it was the type of silverware and China he had used about 20 years ago. There was no indication who sent them.

TEMPERATURES — For April temperatures will average below normal in states along the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, and in the northern plains. Above normal temperatures are expected in the southern plains, southern plateau, and in the west Gulf states.

RAIN—Precipitation until May will exceed normal in the Pacific Northwest and the Missouri Valley.

THIS MONTH'S WEATHER—The weather maps above give you the U. S. Weather Bureau's long-range forecast until May. It is not a specific forecast in the usual sense but an estimate of average temperatures and precipitation for the period.

Ash Tray Flattens Tire

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Mrs. Paula Schrieber drove into a gas station with a flat tire and asked the attendant to fix it. Inside, he found a glass ash tray which had been there for several months. It was lodged between the tire and the tube. The ask tray, which carried advertising for a tire firm, wasn't even damaged. "Its' in better shape than my tire," said Mrs. Schrieber.

Bob Considine Says:

Pencil May Be Stub, but Don't Sell It Short

NEW YORK (INS)—It's as plain as 20 minutes past 4 in the clock ads that the pen is mightier than the sword. But what about the pencil? Don't think it's chicken!

• • •

Residents of New York state used 146,728,423 of them during 1955. If you live in the state you used 9.1 pencils, and the .1 was a stub chewed by a child—if you live in our particular hutch.

If you used up the whole lot you could have written 66,400,000 average-size novels, according to Clyde T. Nissen, executive vice president of the Lead Pencil Manufacturers Association. This must rate with the more frightening statistics of our age.

He doesn't say how good they might have been. But cheer up, in case you did write 66,400,000 novels and they weren't all clicks. After all, Hemingway had his "Across the River and Into the Trees." People who purchased it believing it was a golf book are still indignantly returning it.

• • •

To most of us a pencil is a pencil. Nissen says there are 350 varieties, including stone masons' pencils for marking granite, knurled jobs for butchers with greasy fingers, and one which surgeons use to diagram the skin area about to be entered via scalpel.

• • •

As Calvin Coolidge might have fearlessly said, "That's a lot of pencils, it is said."

TELEGRAPH TIDINGS

Congratulations to Western Union on its 100th birthday. It is a monopoly with sentiment. Among the treasures preserved from the original Western Union office in Rochester, N. Y., is an iron cuspidor shaped like a plug hat.

It took Sam Morse one minute to click out, in Morse code, "What hath God wrought!" — the first message. As an anniversary stunt, a WU facsimile machine sent 500 words a minute from the same page of the Bible Morse used, an acceleration 125 times as great.

As one who has sent some appalling number of words over Western Union wires, none as perceptive as Morse's choice, it is somehow comforting to know that the Machine has not completely subdued the Human in that company.

The seventh paragraph of self-congratulatory Western Union's telegraphic announcement of its centenary begins:

"The dominating idea of Western Union's founders was to unite the numerous small, local telegraph companies which had widely vary-: 8,& 4-53' -5 $ 0994 '34:8:3..."

• • •

At the bottom of the long message a good gray Western Union man on my end of the line typed in a correction: 7th graf—varying rates and poor service.

CATCHY PHRASE

Jack Williams, president of the American Trucking Associations, has a catchy phrase that might help push our sorely needed federal interstate highway program through Congress. Williams suggests that it be called the "Safe Highway Program."

• • •

By adding "safe" to the old phrase it may illuminate this generally ignored fact: That better roads will cut down on the ghastly number of traffic deaths—a great percentage of which occur on roads built primarily for horses, buggies, steamrollers and turtles.

W. E. Beall, senior vice president of Boeing Airplane Co. of Seattle, Wash., sends me a copy of three pages of single-spaced indignation he recently airmailed to the editor of the Manchester Guardian.

I had quoted from the Guardian aviation expert's blast on the "inadequacy" of the Boeing and Douglas jet liners which U. S. and foreign carriers have now bought to the tune of more than a billion dollars.

Gist of Beall's sizzling counterpunch is that the article was shot full of inaccuracies. "The performance Boeing quotes for its 707 Stratoliner and 707 Intercontinental is guaranteed performance and is based on a great many wind tunnel tests and actual flight hours," the veteran Boeing official wrote.

"What we have specified as speed, range and payload for the Boeing transports will indeed be the speed, range and payload of the delivered articles. The performance guarantees are specified in the purchase contracts.

"We cannot conceive that anyone would honestly believe businessmen responsible for their actions to stockholders and financial backers would be so rash as to order pigs in pokes."

Childish Tyrant, 7, Gets Just Desserts

LONG BEACH, Calif., (AP)—"Are you a cop?" a childish voice on the telephone asked Jim Terry, a juvenile officer.

Terry said he was.

"Well, my mother told me she's going to spank me," the voice said, "so I told her I'd call the cops and tell them about her threat."

Terry asked the boy to put his mother on. "I've never been so embarrassed," she said. "He's only seven and full of mischief."

"Lady," said the policeman, "I have only one suggestion: Spank him."

The lady obligingly left the phone off the hook while she followed the advice and Terry heard the windup, with sound effects.

Jinx Adds Tone to Set Sailing 'Below-Stairs'

By EARL WILSON

UM Develops Alloy Method

New Technique May Make Gas Turbine Cars Practical Much Sooner

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The University of Michigan has reported its metallurgical engineers have developed manufacturing techniques which may make gas turbine automobiles practical within "two to five years."

The engineers found a way to produce a nickel-base alloy for use in aircraft and auto turbine engines that costs half as much as cobalt-base alloys used in jet engines and auto turbines.

Richard A. Flinn, professor of metallurgical and production engineering, said the process should give greater power or longer life to jet engines.

The engineers discovered a new way to melt and cast metals used making turbine blades. These blades are the heart of jet engines. They are turned by blasts of hot gases and must withstand intense heat.

Prof. Flinn said the nickel-base alloy is melted in a high vacuum and poured in an atmosphere of argon gas. He said the process produces a metal superior to cobalt-base alloys.

Cobalt is a strategic material and costs $2.60 a pound. Nickel costs 65 cents a pound.

* * *

"The automobile industry," Prof. Flinn said, "has to have the cost down to cents per turbine blade, rather than dollars per blade. It could live with nickel-base alloys, but could not with cobalt-base."

Queen Vetoes Video

Britain's Queen decided against having her Christmas speech televised in 1955—partly because there are now both BBC and independent TV in Britain and she did not want to offend either one, London reports.

Unions Quarrel in Erie Over Jurisdiction

DUBLIN — Union jurisdiction is an increasing source of trouble in Eire. Demarcation disputes are turning union against union. Years ago, one union leader explained, if you got tiles laid in a bathroom they were laid by a tiler.

Today there are synthetic plastic tiles which are stuck on with glue. Is that a job for a tiler, a carpenter or a bricklayer? A tribunal to settle such quarrels is being urged.

Britain's Oldest Lag Dies in Prison at 86

LONDON—Britain's oldest "old lag" of the underworld is dead. He was a man of 30 different names who originated the crooked role of the "Perfect Butler," but his death certificate nears the same name as his birth certificate—Henry Alfred Irwin.

* * *

After stealing more than $224,000 in 38 years of crime, and spending over half his life in jail, he died, aged 86, in Wandsworth prison.

His "perfect butler" role brought him loot worth over $112,000. He made the rest from his poses as a wholesale jeweler, secret service agent, surveyor, architect, cook, porter, singer and acrobatic dancer. In his early roles his performance was impeccable.

* * *

He fooled a peer, a knight, a financier and two wealthy American families, Scotland Yard says. But in his role of a gay bachelor he squandered all his money.

New Terry Cloth Uses

NEW YORK—New uses for terry cloth took 25 per cent of production in 1955 compared with 2 per cent in 1947. It is being used, in addition to toweling, for car-seat covers, curtains, couch covers and aprons. Terrycloth coveralls are being worn by Air Force ground crews while refueling jet fighters.

Jailbirds Beat Women

United States Presents Four-Point Proposal

Four U.N. Atom Powers Study 'Steps to Disarmament'

LONDON (AP)—Four leading U.N. atomic powers are studying the new U.S. "steps-to-disarmament" plan calling for staged cutbacks in both conventional and nuclear weapons to reduce the threat of war.

* * *

The plan calls for strict international inspections and controls, a stumbling block in previous efforts to halt the big power arms race.

Once this is working, the plan provides for a census of nuclear stocks and gradual conversion of such stockpiles to peaceful purposes.

STASSEN EXPLAINS

U. S. Delegate Harold E. Stassen outlined the proposal at a meeting of the five-power subcommittee of the U.N. Disarmament Commission. Delegates from the Soviet Union, Britain, France and Canada studied the lengthy, detailed draft overnight before meeting again for fresh discussion.

* * *

The U.S. plan differs significantly from an earlier Russian proposal in that it would set up controls over nuclear weapons and production as well as limitations on conventional armaments. The Soviet plan, offered last week, dealt only with conventional weapons. This was a reversal of previous Russian demands that nuclear weapons must be banned as a first step to planning disarmament.

LIMIT MILITARY

The U.S. plan also would limit military forces of America and the Soviets to 2½ million men each, while the Russian proposal would restrict them to 1½ million.

* * *

A spokesman said the United States regards its plan as workable "in the world we now are living in"—a world divided and torn by tensions in many areas. He termed the draft an informal framework which can be revised.

* * *

Under the U.S. plan, the nuclear phase of disarmament would not be started until reduction of conventional arms is working smoothly.

* * *

The nuclear phase would begin with a world census of atomic and hydrogen weapons, supplies and production. Then it would proceed to a system of control and inspection, a freeze on production and finally conversion of nuclear stockpiles to peaceful uses.

U. S. PLAN

The United States outlined its disarmament planin these stages:

1. A "confidence-building" step between the United States and the Soviet Union. This calls for tests of practical disarmament controls in special "nonsensitive" areas of the two nations, 20,000 to 30,000 square miles in size.

* * *

2. Creation of a preparatory armaments regulatory commission made up of the five powers. This body would set maximum manpower limits of 2½ million men each for Russia and the United States and 750,000 men each for Britain and France, with conventional arms and defense budgets keyed to the manpower level. It also would work out — to safeguard against surprise attack—a control and inspection plan including President Eisenhower's "open skies" principle of aerial inspection and Soviet Premier Bulganin's suggestion of ground control posts at ports, airfields, rail terminals and highways.

3. Drafting of a disarmament treoty by the five powers. Approval of the treaty would be followed by an exchange of military "blueprints" of conventional armed strength; freezing of defense budgets at the Dec. 31, 1955, level, and start of the inspection and control system.

4. Expansion of the Disarmament Commission by admitting other states with "significant" military potential. These states with the exception of Red China would be limited to 500,000 troops each. All member nation's would come under the inspection and control system.

* * *

5. Start of the nuclear phase of disarmament. All member nations would report their stocks and production of nuclear materials and weapons, and plans for testing nuclear weapons. The control and inspection system would be expanded to account for nuclear production and to monitor nuclear tests. Production of nuclear weapons would be progressively reduced and eventually stockpiles of nuclear weapons would be whittled down.

1 Day's Petroleum Fills 378 Trains

NEW YORK—The publication, Petroleum Processing, reports that a single day's shipments of oil products in the United States this year would fill 18,100 miles of 10-inch pipeline and it would take 378 trains, each of 100 tank cars of 10,000-gallon capacity, to move one day's petroleum by rail. Total demand at U. S. refineries for all products this year is expected to reach a new high of 9,009,000 barrels a day.

Many Homes Lack Power in Canada

OTTAWA — A study by the Canadian Bureau of Statistics reveals that only 256,000, or 7 per cent, of the dominion's households don't have electricity. Those households with running water total 79 per cent and those with central heating 54 per cent.

So many Italians are touring that fears are felt about the effect on savings.

It's Now or '64 for Dem's Bid

Lyndon Johnson Can't Try for Presidential Nomination in '60

WASHINGTON (INS) — It's now or 1964 for Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson to make his bid for the presidency.

* * *

A Democratic colleague said today the 47-year-old Texan "can't run" for the Democratic Presidential nomination in 1960—when victory might be more certain with President Eisenhower retiring—because Johnson will be a candidate for Senate reelection that year.

"He has got to go now or wait until 1964," this Democrat pointed out. "And I think you may expect to see Johnson receiving potent support at the convention next August."

Johnson's appeal as a 1956 "moderate" in case Stevenson couldn't make the grade was dimmed last July when he suffered a heart attack just two months before President Eisenhower was similarly stricken. But the Senator has been back at his leadership job since January and there are some key Democrats who now believe he would be available.

The Senate leader is up for reelection in 1960 and could not be a candidate for both the Senate and the White House. Hence, it was pointed out, he runs this year, or waits another eight.

* * *

This emphasis on the importance of 1956 in Johnson's political future was given by a Democrat, who—while favoring Adlai E. Stevenson at this stage—would welcome seeing Johnson as a compromise candidate.

Change Streets to 1-Way Traffic

Paddock, Central Set for Switching Over on Monday

In a continued move to relieve congestion in the downtown area, Paddock street between Saginaw and Irwin will be converted one-way northbound, according to City Traffic Engineer Theodore M. Vanderstempel.

The change becomes effective Monday, April 9.

Along with the change, the traffic light at this intersection will be made a two-phase instead of three, in order to lengthen the time for east and west movement on South boulevard and north and south traffic on Saginaw.

Central avenue will also be made one-way northbound between Saginaw and Irwin effective the same day.

"The changes are being made to lessen congestion at this intersection and to give more time for east and west traffic," Vanderstempel explained.

Heroin Courier Taken as He Steps Off Ship

NEW YORK (AP) — Italian-born Giuseppe Indelicato of Windsor, Ont. was convicted yesterday of trying to smuggle half a million dollars worth of heroin into the country.

* * *

Said Asst. U. S. Atty. Arnold G. Friman after the Federal Court jury of eight men and four women returned their verdict:

"There is no doubt in my mind that this man was being used as a courier for a large narcotics ring and that he acted so knowingly."

Indelicato, 30, faces a maximum five years in prison when sentenced April 27 by Federal Judge John F. X. McGohey.

Indelicato was seized Feb. 9 as he cam eashore from the Italian Liner Saturnia. Three and a half pounds of heroin were hidden in the pockets of his vest.

* * *

He claimed he didn't know he was carrying heroin. He said a stranger in a bar in Palermo, Sicily, gave him "a special kind of cake flour" to deliver to an unidentified man in New York. Indelicato is a naturalized Canadian.

Solves Water Shortage

MADISON, Wis. (INS)—The possibility of producing fresh water from the oceans bounding the United States within the near future has been forecast by a University of Wisconsin chemical engineer. Karl-Axel Melkersson said at a Madison meeting that de-salting of sea water would be done at reasonable cost on any scale up to a few million gallons per day for industrial and household use in the coastal areas.

Hare Blasted by Sheriffs for Driver Licensing Issue

LANSING (AP) — Secy. of State James M. Hare was all but hanged in effigy at a meeting of the Michigan Sheriffs Assn. Wednesday.

Charges of "politics," "inefficiency," and "lack of cooperation" were leveled at Hare as 51 of the state's 83 county sheriffs met at Lansing.

The sheriffs are bitter against Hare because he recently campaigned to put driver licensing in the hands of his office and lifted the power of two county sheriffs to issue licenses.

The meeting had the expressed purpose of discussing the annual sheriff's convention to be held in Port Huron in June. But the sheriffs spent three hours blasting Hare and settled details of the meeting in five minutes.

All major state officials traditionally attend the meeting. Gov. Williams, Aud. Gen. Victor Targonski, State Treasurer Sanford A. Brown and Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh showed up on schedule. But Hare was conspicuous by his absence.

"Hare has two down and 81 to go," sheriff Robert J. Russell of Gratiot County told the group.

Russell said he was retaliating to Hare's charge that sheriffs make mistakes in issuing licenses by compiling a card index file of mistakes made by the secretary of state's office.

Hare removed the power to license from sheriffs Willard P. Barnes of Ingham County and Russell Hild of Luce County. Barnes is scheduled for a hearing before the secretary of state today and Hild will appear Monday.

"Sure we make mistakes," said Barnes, "but so does the secretary of state's office."

Barnes urged the group to get started on a bill that would require the secretary of state to give a sheriff a hearing when his power to issue licenses is taken away. He said under present law, the secretary can remove the licensing power without a hearing and that the appearances "are only through the generosity of the secretary."

Sheriff Everett Peck of Eaton County complained that when records on drivers are requested they are not received until the next day.

"Hare promised if he got more money, he would step up service but he hasn't so far," Peck said.

Circus Opens Minus Famed Clown Star

NEW YORK (AP) — The circus opened last night without its most famous clown and with none of the stage, screen and television stars who usally take part in the premiere benefit performance.

* * *

A dispute involving the American Guild of Variety Artists kept the sad-faced tramp clown Emmett Kelly away. This time there was no Kelly to get the children chuckling right away by trying to sweep a spotlight beam under a rug.

But Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey's circus was as glittering and bespangled as ever without the glamorous frosting of outside stars who were to perform for the benefit of the Police Athletic League.

* * *

Stripped of this ballyhoo, the opening night turned out to be just plain circus—more than enough of it.

A cymbal clashed and the lights dimmed to a blue glow, and then spotlights picked out the traditional animal opening acts—lions and tigers and bears doing the bidding of a brightly uniformed trainer.

There were acrobats, elephants, jugglers, high wire performers, balancing acts and the classic, ever-graceful trapeze artists.

Arrow Pierces Brain, but Lad Shakes It Off

LUTON, England (AP)—A brass-pointed arrow fired into the air by a playmate came down on 11-year-old Stephen Brown's head and penetrated an inch into his brain.

Stephen calmly walked nearly a mile to the nearest drugstore and asked the proprietor, "Can you get this out, please?"

The boy, with the arrow still sticking out of the top of his skull, was taken to a hospital. Doctors said his condition was satisfactory and that the arrow would be removed after an X-ray examination.

House Approves Welfare Funds

Bill Providing New Site for Lansing Vocational School for Boys Passed

LANSING (AP)—A bill providing a new site for the Lansing Boys Vocational School passed the House and gone to the governor.

The House approved Senate amendments to the measure Tuesday which gave the state social welfare department $200,000 for a site for the school and authority to select the location with approval of the state administrative board.

The measure passed objections of several members.

* * *

Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron) protested because he said he understood a site selection committee was considering a location near Ann Arbor.

"I don't want it put near the University of Michigan," Phillips said. "People are frightened of those boys. What do you want to do—throw them in near a bunch of coeds?"

"Someone would object no matter where you located it," said Rep. John W. Fletcher (R-Centreville). "If we don't act now, another 50 or 100 boys will graduate from the present school to the state prison of Southern Michigan before the next session."

Clear Three Youths in Station Breakin

Three youths, one of them with a cut hand, yesterday were turned over to Oakland County Sheriff's detectives for investigation of a grocery store robbery Tuesday night.

The three earlier were cleared of suspicion in the breakin the same night of a city gas station, where traces of blood were found on a broken window, Pontiac police said.

Blood also was found on the floor of the store at 224 W. Auburn Rd., Sheriff's detectives said, and 14 cartons of beer confiscated from the youths' car were connected with 18 cartons of beer reported stolen.

The owner, John Balon, of Rochester told detectives that some 50 cents in pennies and costume jewelry also were taken, after the building was entered through a broken front window. A quantity of pennies was found in one youth's pocket, according to Pontiac police.

$43 Billion in Autos

WASHINGTON — Automotive retail sales in the United States total more than 43 billion dollars a year, with motor vehicle dealers alone doing about 30 billion dollars' worth of business annually. Service stations account for about 12 billion dollars' worth.

County Employes Favor Joining Social Security

Oakland County employes have voted to coordinate their pension fund with social security benefits, Robert E. Lilly, executive secretary of the Oakland County Retirement Commission, said today.

The plan needed a majority of eligible votes to pass, Lilly said, and received 61.9 per cent. The vote was 522 in favor, 224 opposed and 97 not voting.

Under the new plan, he said, the employes' pension fund, now in its 11th year of operation, will be coordinated with the social security Old Age and Survivors' Insurance.

Revision of the present plan has pegged costs of the program at the same level as costs of the former pension plan alone. Additional benefits to county employes will average about 20 per cent, he added.

Lilly said most opposition to the measure came from employes who feared they wouldn't qualify for the social security benefits.

"The plan contains a provision that benefits will be computed for such people from the old formula," he said.

There is also a provision, he said, for employes leaving county service to withdraw all funds they have paid to the county pension plan.

Employes with salaries of $4,200 per year or less will pay three per cent of their salaries into the pension fund, and two per cent for social security, he said.

Five per cent of incomes over $4,200 will go to the pension fund, with two per cent for social security.

Lilly, president of the Michigan Public Employes' Retirement Systems, said the plan is a result of a study by county and state executives trying to obtain larger benefits and current survivors' benefits at no increase in costs.

The social security benefits are retroactive to Jan. 1, 1955, he added.

Arraign Youth on Auto Count

Also Charge Juvenile After Housewife Spots Abandoned Car

One youth yesterday was arraigned and another held for investigation in the theft of an automobile found abandoned earlier this week, according to Pontiac police.

Donald G. Brooks, 17, of 374 Oakland Ave. waived examination on a charge of unlawfully driving away an automobile and was bound over for appearance Monday in Oakland County Circuit Court. He was remanded to jail under $300 bond set by Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

A petition was filed in Juvenile Court, making the same charge against a 15-year-old boy who was arrested with Brooks Tuesday, after descriptions were furnished by a housewife who saw the car being abandoned, according to police.

A third arrest came after Brooks and the juvenile named a 17-year-old companion, police said.

Wedding Bells to Ring Saturday for La Rosa

MANITOWOC, Wis. (INS)—Singer Julius La Rosa marries the former secretary of Perry Como Saturday and is humming an old song while waiting for the happy day.

The song is the wedding march, top tune these days for the baritone who rose to fame and into the $500,000 a year income bracket when he was fired by radio and television personality Arthur Godfrey.

La Rosa is capping a courtship that began with a blind date with pretty Rosemary (Rory) Meyer in the church of the bride's family at Francis Creek, Wis., nine miles northwest of Manitowoc.

The 26-year-old Brooklyn born singer was introduced to Rory, then Perry Como's personal secretary, in February, 1955, when he "couldn't think of anyone" to escort to a night club opening of Marion Marlowe, another one-time Godfrey protege.

State's Cut in Purses at Horse Races Hiked

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams signed a bill yesterday to raise the state's share in purses paid for horse races at county fairs from 50 to 75 per cent.

The bill makes several other changes in the racing act, including a provision that up to 20 per cent of revenue received from racing license fees, but not more than $500,000, shall be returned to the city or township in which a track is located.

Also signed by Williams was a bill extending to persons who have lost the use of one or both feet special parking privileges now applying to disabled veterans.

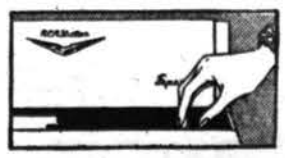

A third bill signed extends to six months the redemption period under a land contract forfeiture provided the purchaser has paid over one-half the land contract.

Chapter No. 3 . . . The Truth About Cancer

Diagnosing Cancer Calls for Complicated Procedures

By DR. CHARLES S. CAMERON
Medical and Scientific Director of the American Cancer Society

Sometimes a doctor can strongly suspect cancer by merely listening to a patient's account of his complaints, or by just looking at a tumor on the skin or lip. But often he has to use complicated procedures — X-ray examination, visualization of the tumor through instruments and major surgical exploration.

The objective of all diagnostic efforts is to obtain a fragment of the tumor that may be examined under the microscope. The removal of such a sample is called a biopsy.

The microscopic examination of a biopsy specimen by a pathologist is accepted by all doctors as the only means of determining the nature of tumor wiht complete accuracy.

DIAGNOSIS: 1, HISTORY

The first step is to make a careful record of the history of the illness.

2, PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

The physical examination is essential in answering the all-important question: Has the cancer already spread to other parts of the body, or does it still seem to be confined to the organ of origin?

In general, evidence of metastasis (spreading of the cancer) means that the future is dark—indeed, it may preclude any hope of treatment by surgery. When no evidence of metastasis is found, treatment can be undertaken in the hope that the entire cancer will be removed or destroyed.

Finally, the physical examination may disclose other unrelated tumors — either benign or malignant.

The location of a cancer largely determines the ease with which it can be diagnosed. In general, the smaller a cancer is the more difficult it is to diagnose.

Many cancers arise in organs deep within the body where they can be seen and biopsied only with the aid of special instruments.

3, X-RAY EXAMINATION

There are lots of places instruments cannot go. To examine these places, X-rays are used to "take pictures."

Bone tumors are always examined by X-ray pictures. The appearance of several kinds of bone tumors—benign and malignant—is so well recognized now that highly reliable diagnoses can be made by this method alone.

But where the X-rays have to pass through many structures of nearly equal density, they cannot discriminate among them.

For instance, the stomach and the tumors arising in it are of about the same density as that of the surrounding tissues. The only way to get the desired contrast is to fill the stomach with a dense liquid which then will cast a sharp shadow.

The patient swallows a solution of barium for this purpose. Other methods, using air or an opaque oil, are used to make shadows of other organs sharper.

4, BIOPSY

The final authority in the diagnosis of cancer is the biopsy — microscopic examination of a specimen of the tumor. If the tumor is easy to get at, the specimenmay be obtained at the first examination.

But if the tumor lies deep in the body, and can be reached only with a scope, biopsy is usually performed at the time of the first special examination.

But often the best time to perform the biopsy is at the beginning of a major operation of exploration.

As soon as the tumor has been exposed, a small section of it is removed and sent to the hospital laboratory for immediate handling by the pathologist.

The specimen is rapidly frozen. Then it can be cut into slices thinner than fine tissue paper. One of these is placed in a glass slide and stained, then examined with the microscope.

Such "frozen sections" will usually permit a diagnosis of "benign" or "malignant" at once. Immediately, the information is relayed to the surgeon waiting beside the anesthetized patient.

The surgeon then removes the tumor by means of a limited excision if it is benign, or to perform a more radical operation if the report is "malignant."

This frozen-section technique is most widely used in treating tumors of the breast.

5, THE 'SMEAR'

A new technique for diagnosing cancer, popularly called the "smear method," has been perfected recently and is now coming into general use. More formally, it is known as the cytologic method.

It is sometimes called a "Papanicolaou smear," after Dr. George Papanicolaou who first developed it. Doctors pushed for time call it a "Pap smear."

Here is how it works: A little fluid obtained from certain organs is spread on a glass slide. Then the fluid is stained with dyes and examined through a microscope. When cancer cells are present in the fluid, they can be spotted with a high degree of accuracy.

The cytologic method is based on the fact that cells on the surface or an organ are constantly being shed and falling off. This is true of normal cells as well as abnormal ones. In certain locations, these cast-off cells can be scooped up in the normal fluid secretions and identified.

Most doctors today do not feel that the smear provides the final diagnosis of cancer.

Generally, a positive smear diagnosis furnishes strong evidence of the presence of cancer, but biopsy is still held to be essential for a final decision.

Smears are easy enough to get, but to examine them accurately calls for painstaking care. Sometimes when malignant cells are present they are spotted at once, but often they can be found only after persistent searching.

No laboratory or biological test for cancer in general is in wide use today. Many have been devised, but they have all fallen short of universal usefulness.

Several of them can indicate cancer accurately in a high proportion of cases, but they are also wrong a good many times. A new test based on the presence of tumor antibodies in the blood serum seems to offer the brightest prospects of a practical diagnostic test so far.

A cancer test like the Wassermman or Kahn tests for syphilis which would be positive even when the cancer was still very small would be of great value in selecting certain individuals for careful investigation or observation before cancer would have a chance to signal its presence.

Even so, such a test would probably not specify the location of the tumor. And the problem of specific diagnosis would remain.

Misconceptions on Cancer

Dr. Cameron cites some "misinformation, folklore and misconception" that has grown up around cancer. Here are some of his statements:

IS CANCER CONTAGIOUS — "There is not on record anywhere a single instance of proven transfer of cancer from one person to another."

INJURIES — "Convincing evidence of cancer's having been directly caused by a single injury is so small that qualified observers are left quite unimpressed." Dr. Cameron points out cancer occasionally develops in a chronic non-healing ulcer or in an unstable scar. Both these conditions are likely to follow deep burns for which proper skin-grafting was not attempted or failed.

COOKING UTENSILS — "Which will you have—scientific proof or brainstorm?"

ALCOHOL — "To blame strong drink for the general increase in cancer is going too far. Teetotalers get cancer. Statistics show that habitual boozers do not get cancer more often than abstainers."

FLUORIDATION OF WATER — Dr. Cameron points out: "Water fluoridation . . . does not in the least increase the likelihood of cancer."

CHEMICAL FERTILIZERS — Dr. Cameron says the cancer death rates for Switzerland and Scandinavia are substantially higher than in the United States and yet in those countries chemical fertilizers are almost never used.

AID FOR VISUALLY HANDICAPPED — This is a newly developed projection magnifier for persons with subnormal vision who cannot read ordinary newsprint even with glasses. The compact, portable, illuminated magnifier accommodates all standard forms of reading material. Reading matter is placed face up on a two-way motion platform and projected onto the reading screen.

Visits Mexican School

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Prof. Earnest Boyce, chairman of the University of Michigan's Civil Engineering Department, currently is on an inspection tour of a Mexican technical school set up under the university's supervision. Boyce will visit the El Olivar School near Mexico City where 350 students are being trained as highway equipment operators and mechanics.

When Preparing Kale

Be sure to remove all coarse stems when you are cooking kale, and wash the vegetable well in several waters. Chop the kale and cook it rapidly in a small amount of salted water, plus a little butter or margarine, until it is tender.

Spread a thin flat sponge cake with softened ice cream; roll up, wrap in aluminum foil and freeze. Allow to stand at room temperature about an hour before slicing.

Serve Fresh Asparagus Buttered or With a Sauce

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

With the ever-rising popularity of frozen foods we have captured the fresh taste of nearly every food. One exception we might make is fresh asparagus.

Of course, we can buy both canned and frozen asparagus. But nothing tastes quite like the fresh stalks themselves.

This is the season of the year when fresh asparagus begins to come into the market in larger quantities. The price drops a bit to the place where we feel we can indulge more often.

Don't overcook asparagus. Whether you do it in a pressure cooker or in a small amount of water in a saucepan, cook it only enough to make the stalks tender.

Some cooks like to cook the stalks upright in a tall can or double boiler. This allows the water to cook the stalks directly, while the steam tenderizes the tops.

There's nothing like plain melted butter to bring out the delicate flavor of cooked asparagus. But other sauces are also delicious.

Since a true Hollandaise sauce is tricky to make, you might like to try a mock Hollandaise. It will taste just as good.

Mock Hollandaise Sauce

3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ cup milk
3 egg yolks, slightly beaten
¼ cup melted butter
3 tablespoons lemon juice

Melt butter in saucepan, blend in flour and seasonings. Add milk slowly and continue to cook and stir until thickened. Remove from heat.

Add slightly beaten egg yolks, blending well. Stir in melted butter and lemon juice blending well. Makes about 1 cup sauce. Serve at once.

A simpler way of preparing asparagus is to serve it with Toasted Sesame Seed Butter.

Toasted Sesame Seed Butter

2 pounds fresh asparagus
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
2 tablespoons toasted sesame seed*

Cook fresh asparagus until crisp-tender. Place in a serving dish. Combine remaining ingredients and pour over asparagus. Serve at once. Yield: 6 servings.

To toast sesame seed, place in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 22 minutes or until golden brown, stirring 2 to 3 times to brown uniformly.

For those of you who like your vegetables with a cream sauce we might suggest this chive-flavored sauce.

Chive Cream Sauce

1½ pounds fresh asparagus
¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ pound fresh mushrooms, sliced
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 6-ounce package chive cream cheese
1 tablespoon milk

Clean asparagus thoroughly and break off bottom ends. Cover and cook in 1-inch boiling salted water over low heat 12 to 15 minutes, or until tender. Drain.

Meanwhile, melt butter or margarine; add mushrooms and cook 5 minutes, or until tender. Add lemon juice and asparagus and cook 5 minutes.

Combine cheese and milk; beat until light and fluffy. Serve asparagus with cheese mixture. Garnish with additional chives, if desired. Makes 4 servings.

To Crisp Up Bread

To crisp slices of bread, bake them in a slow (300 degrees) oven for 20 minutes or longer. Halfway through the baking time, turn the slices so they will brown evenly.

Grated cheddar cheese looks pretty atop cream of asparagus soup.

Add a tablespoon of cream for each egg when you are cooking scrambled eggs.

Add Sausage and Corn to Supper Spaghetti

Cook up a skillet supper of sausage, spaghetti and corn. There's a heap of good eating right out of a country kitchen. Make the dish with saucy canned spaghetti and you're ready to serve in 15 minutes.

First brown one-half pound of sausage (links or patties) in the skillet. Pour off excess fat. Slip in 1 can of spaghetti in tomato sauce (1¾ cups) and 2 cups of cooked whole kernel corn (1-pound can, drained). Heat, stirring now and then.

Feed this to four hungry "hands." Side dishes are buttered cabbage and apple-grape salad.

Biscuits on Cherries

Thicken and sweeten canned cherries and their juice; turn into a baking dish. Drop mounds of biscuit dough over the cherries and bake in a hot oven until the biscuit topping is lightly browned. Serve at once with scoops of vanilla ice cream.

Swiss Cheese Flavors Sauce

Cheese adds to the flavor and texture of many tempting sauces. Although most homemakers are more familiar with white sauces that require American or cheddar cheese, there are endless possibilities for distinctive sauces which make use of the wide variety of cheeses available.

This delicious sauce made with Swiss cheese is excellent for hot cooked vegetables or served on toast with crisp bacon.

Swiss Cheese Sauce

2 tablespoons margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
¾ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper
1/16 teaspoon ground cayenne pepper
¾ cup finely chopped Swiss cheese
2 teaspoons fresh lemon juice

Melt margarine in a saucepan. Blend in flour. Stir in milk. Cook until medium thickness. Add seasonings and Swiss cheese. Mix well and cook over low heat until cheese is almost melted. Stir in lemon juice.

• • •

Serve over hot cooked vegetables or on toast with crisp bacon. This makes 1¾ cups.

Serve Muffin Treat

Toast split English muffins and spread with tomato sauce. Now add bits of tuna, whole small sardines, minced canned clams or canned mushrooms. Sprinkle well with grated cheddar or Parmesan cheese and put under the broiler again briefly. Eat at once!

Try This New Way to Cook Macaroni

You simply add 4 ounces of the macaroni food to 3 cups boiling salted water. Use 2 teaspoons salt. Increase or decrease the amount of water as you vary the quantity you wish to cook.

Stir constantly for two minutes. Then remove from heat, cover and let stand 10 minutes. Drain and rinse immediately. Many less-experienced cooks like this method because the step of testing for doneness is eliminated.

* * *

When you're preparing macaroni foods for a crowd, you can cook 3 pounds in 2½ gallons boiling salted water with this method. Use 2 tablespoons salt for this amount of water.

Use a heavy straight-sided saucepan when making candy.

DOUGHNUT TWISTS
Yield: 2 dozen doughnuts

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon salt
2½ teaspoons Clabber Girl Baking Powder
¼ teaspoon ground cinnamon
¼ teaspoon ground nutmeg
1 egg
¼ cup sugar
1 tablespoon soft butter or margarine
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
½ cup milk

Sift together flour, salt, Baking Powder, and spices. Combine egg, sugar, butter or margarine, and orange rind; beat thoroughly. Add dry ingredients alternately with milk. Stir just enough to blend. Chill several hours or overnight. On lightly floured board roll dough ¼ inch thick into rectangle 9½ x 7 inches. Cut strips ½ inch wide and 7 inches long. Fold each strip in half, twist ends around each other, and pinch ends together. Fry in deep fat heated to 375° F; turn doughnuts as they rise to surface. Fry 1 to 2 minutes, or until golden brown, turning each to brown both sides. Drain on absorbent paper; roll in sugar if desired.

Pure Maple Syrup Rates as All-American Delicacy

Perhaps no other product is so natively American as 100 per cent pure maple syrup.

* * *

For one thing, no other continent in the world grows the sugar maple tree, the most beautiful and stately of trees, and also the richest source of pure maple syrup.

The sugar maple is long-lived and is rarely suitable for tapping until it is 40 years old. As it grows older, it increases in value.

One St. Johnsbury, Vt., tapper reports cutting into a maple tree which, judging from its rings, was 200 to 225 years old, and bore the mark of tapping for 100 years.

First came the marks of gashes with an Indian axe; next were signs of holes bored with primitive instruments; and finally, holes made with modern tools.

RICH IN LEGEND

The 100 per cent pure maple syrup is as rich in legend as the states of Vermont and New York, which are its chief source of supply.

According to one widely quoted legend of maple syrup's origin, a squaw allowed sap in which she was boiling meat to cook down, and the sweet-coated venison pleased her brave highly.

One thing is sure, though. The first white settlers learned about maple-tapping from the American Indians.

For many years the process of the pioneers consisted of inserting wooden spikes in the trees, and catching the sap in wooden buckets, a process adapted from the Indians.

This is a far cry from today's modern tapping methods. With modern equipment and sanitary conditions, farmers today produce a high quality in a pure product.

* * *

From a primitive article of food for home use, 100 per cent pure maple syrup has become a delicacy appreciated throughout the civilized world.

Sugaring-off time, the period in which the maple tree yields the sap that becomes maple syrup, varies from year to year. It may begin as early as Feb. 22 and as late as the first week in April. It also varies in length of time, and may extend from two to six weeks.

* * *

Sugaring-off may be a picturesque occupation, but it is also rugged work. Often an entire family has to work night and day to harvest a crop.

As winter begins to break up, the farmer must bore a hole in each of the trees in his grove, or "sugarbush" as it is sometimes called.

Since a sugarbush may contain as many as a thousand trees, this means time-consuming work. A spout is inserted in each hole and a bucket is hung under it to catch the sap as it trickles out, drop by drop.

* * *

Collecting the sap means going up and down hills from tree to tree, hour after hour, and day after day. Often it means wading through deep snowdrifts.

The sap is taken to the family sugar-house, poured out into huge shallow pans, and set over roaring wood fires which must be tended constantly. It is estimated that on the average of 35 gallons of maple sap must be boiled down to produce 1 gallon of maple syrup.

TIME FOR FESTIVITIES

Sugaring-off time is often such a task that it is natural it should be accompanied by or culminated with festivity. The sugar festivals have a carnival atmosphere.

In Vermont festivities, townsfolk resurrect costumes of grandfather's day from attic trunks and storage chests; old-time fiddlers come in from surrounding farms and villages, and there is square dancing, with competitions among dance callers from various surrounding organizations.

You Will Win Bravos With Chicken Treat

The French may be famous for their sauces, but this dish will win bravos for elegance with a minute's effort. Thaw 1 package (1-pound size) frozen chicken breasts as directed on package. Place chicken in single layer in buttered shallow baking dish (about 10x6x2 inches).

Pour 1 can (1¼ cups) condensed cream of chicken soup over chicken. Bake one hour at 350 degrees. Last 10 minutes of cooking time sprinkle one-half cup (2 ounces) shredded mild process cheese over chicken. Three to four servings.

Bake Whiting in Creole Sauce

Whiting, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service tells us, represents an excellent buy, as more than 17,000,000 pounds of these slim frozen fish are now ready for American dinner tables. You'll find this delicate-flavored fish in frozen food cabinets and at fish dealers in three different forms, according to the National Fisheries Institute: (1) already dressed (which means head, tail and fins cut off, insides taken out;) (2) fillets cut from the side; (3) butterfly fillets (two sides of the fish cut away from the bone and held together by uncut flesh of the underside.) Whatever form you find them in, you'll like this creole recipe for a delicious budget dish:

Whiting Creole

2 pounds whiting (fillets, or whole dressed fish)
1 small onion, sliced
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
2 cups canned tomatoes
1 pimiento, chopped
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
¼ teaspoon oregano (if desired)

If whiting is frozen, let thaw on refrigerator shelf or at room temperature. Cook onion in butter or margarine until tender. Blend in flour and stir until smooth. Add tomatoes, pimiento and seasonings. Arrage fillets in a well-oiled baking dish and cover with the sauce. Bake in a moderate oven 350 degrees 25 to 30 minutes, or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork.

Choose Steak and Chicken for Best Buys of Week

April showers may bring May flowers, but regardless of weather, spring appetites can be easily satisfied with the variety of meat values in the markets, says Mrs. Josephine Lawyer, Consumer Marketing Information Agent in Pontiac.

With many beef cuts as much as 12 to 20% lower than last year at this time, shoppers will find special emphasis in many beef departments. More grain fed cattle than there has been for several years means continued high quality beef at reasonable prices.

Cuts of chuck from the forequarter are most economically marked for savory pot roast, or choose a rib roast for a more tender cut that may be roasted in dry heat. Due to recent reductions in wholesale prices, consumers will also find steaks a good value at retail counters.

If the budget needs pinching after holiday celebrating, then fresh ground beef at about 33 to 39 cents a pound offers a number of food combinations.

Supplies of frying chickens are increasing. It is estimated that there will be 20% more broiler-fryers during April than during the same month in 1955. Consumers will find prices may vary as much as 20 cents per pound this week, due in part to some stores featuring them at close to wholesale cost.

Most broiler-fryers now in the market weigh from 1½ to 3½ pounds and are being sold completely cleaned, and either whole or cut-up. A good fryer has thin, smooth skin and a flexible breastbone.

The best birds weight from 2½ to 3½ pounds, and are meaty enough to make good-sized servings. For broiling, use the popular size of 2½ pounds and under, and allow ¼ to ½ a bird for each serving.

All lean frozen veal rolls are an economy choice, since they serve about 4 people per pound. Follow the instructions printed on the outside covering for best roasting results.

Food bargains come and go, but when shoppers think of all the things offered by milk they see why it is always a bargain. Few, if any, foods outrank milk as a source of economical nutrition. Three-fourths of the calcium in the American diet comes from milk; about one-half of the riboflavin, and one-fourth of the protein in our national diet comes from milk.

It is open season for salads from now until the end of summer. Lettuce, which is most often chosen as the base for green salads, is now excellent quality. The heads are mostly of good size, are firm, and heavy for their size.

For over a month, green cabbage has rated a blue ribbon for quality, low cost, and health value. Another salad vegetable that continues on the wise-buy list is carrots. Since 1952, the marketing of carrots has shifted rapidly from the bunched style with the tops on to the pre-packaged style with the tops off.

Carrots with the tops off are high in food nutrients since the tops live off the root and take away from its value. The orange color of carrots is a good measure of the amount of Vitamin A, but it is not a true indication of the sweetness and flavor.

Though potatoes may be a few cents more, they still are a thrifty purchase. New, red, Florida potatoes are reasonably priced. Since the season for Michigan potatoes is rapidly coming to a close, the best quality in old crop potatoes is now coming from Maine.

Citrus fruits, especially grapefruit and Florida Valencia oranges, are good choices for the shopping list. Supplies of bananas will increase during April, so look for values at the food market.

Since many eggs were priced at near wholesale cost last week, shoppers will notice a return to pre-Easter prices. For best quality choose Grade A eggs from a refrigerated case; for the most weight from the money spent, choose the large size. The color of the shell has nothing to do with the quality or flavor of the eggs inside.

Oven Fried Chicken

This method is excellent when two or more chickens are being fried.

1. Coat chicken with seasoned flour.

2. Brown pieces of chicken in at least ½ inch layer of fat in a heavy skillet. If a large quantity of chicken is being prepared the browning will go much faster if a 1 to 2-inch layer of fat is used.

3. Place golden-browned chicken one layer deep in a shallow baking pan.

4. For each chicken spoon a mixture of 2 tablespoons of melted butter or margarine and 2 tablespoons of broth or milk over the chicken.

5. Continue the cooking in a slow (325 degree F.) until chicken is tender, 45 to 60 minutes. Turn once to crisp evenly. During the cooking more broth or milk may be drizzled over chicken if it appears dry.

Barbecue Sauce

1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon paprika
1 tablespoon sugar
¼ clove garlic or ⅛ teaspoon garlic salt
1 medium onion, finely chopped
½ cup water
½ cup lemon juice or vinegar
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
½ cup butter or margarine
1 cup catsup

Blend salt, pepper, paprika and sugar. Add remaining ingridents. Heat to boiling. Remove from heat. Makes 2½ cups.

Potatoes Splurge

tatoes and diagonally sliced carrots in a casserole. Include a few rings of onions for seasoning. Pour a can of mushroom soup (stirred smooth with half a can of milk) over the ingredients in the casserole. Cover and bake at 375 degrees F. for about 45 minutes. Uncover and let dish brown (about 25 minutes).

SKILLET CLUB FOR MEN

By Frank Kohler

Brig. General William S. Everett of the Chicago Daily News Chapter, cooks Chicken in Wine this way, and you'll like it.

About 5 pounds of chicken, disjointed
3 tablespoons olive oil
1 clove garlic, minced
Flour seasoned with salt, pepper, and MSG.
2 ounces brandy
1 cup dried Italian mushrooms, coarsely chopped
1 cup dry white wine
18 pitted ripe olives
Pinch each of thyme, nutmeg, powdered ginger, crumbled bay leaf.
Salt and freshly ground pepper to taste
1½ cups rich cream

Soak chopped dried Italian mushrooms 30 minutes in one cup white wine. Shake chicken pieces in a stout bag with seasoned flour to coat thoroughly. Heat a heavy skillet, add oil, and stir in minced garlic. Saute chicken until golden brown. Remove chicken to a casserole.

Heat brandy in a ladle, and ignite and pour over the chicken. (Be careful, because flames will be high.) Stir the cream into the oil in the skillet, add mushrooms and wine, olives and seasonings and stir until smooth. Pour over chicken in casserole, cover and simmer in a slow oven for 1½ hours, stirring occasionally.

This is very good served with rice, noodles or wild rice.

Betsy Pearce, of Pitcairn, Pa., preparing for a Home Economics course when she reaches college, sends us "Filled Cookies," which are a mighty tasty tidbit. For this, among other utensils, you need a doughnut cutter, and a cookie cutter of the same diameter.

1 pound (2½ cups) brown sugar
½ teaspoon salt
2 eggs, well beaten
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 tablespoon vanilla
1 cup canned milk
1 teaspoon soda
3 cups flour

The filling may be made of either one box of raisins, or one box of diced dried apricots, or some of each in combination, and two tablespoons cornstarch. Cover the fruit with water, stir in cornstarch and bring to a boil and cook five minutes. Let cool. Now for the pastry.

Beat eggs, brown sugar and salt well together, then add vanilla, nutmeg, canned milk and soda and beat some more. Beat flour into the mixture to form a good dough. Roll out on a floured board.

Cut circles with the round cookie cutter, and cut the same number of circles with a doughnut cutter so you'll have a hole in the center of the top pieces. When the filling mixture is cooled, place a spoonful on each round, then place the round with the hole in it right over and press down the edges onto the bottom round.

Bake at 400 degrees until nicely browned; and thank you and good luck, Miss Pearce!

Team Cake, Pudding

Good dessert: Bake an angel food cake, using a packaged mix. Slice and serve with a standard lemon pudding sauce and dollops of whipped cream. Membrane-free sections of orange, added to the lemon sauce, will make the dessert extra good.

Be sure to make a round of your baking-powder biscuit dough before kneading it. Helps in shaping biscuits neatly!

Pastry Bars Are Dotted With Filberts and Fruits

Like the flavor of filberts? Then try these fruit-and-filbert studded pastry bars.

They're fun to make: You roll out a package of pastry mix right on a cookie sheet and sprinkle half of it with the filbert filling; then you cover the filling with the other half of the pastry and bake.

Use a modern-type rimless cookie sheet or a jelly-roll pan turned upside down.

Nowadays it's not necessary to do all the filbert cracking that used to go on in old-fashioned kitchens. The nuts come in handy cellophane packages and are available at supermarkets. Here are nice things to do with filberts.

* * *

Planning to make a small batch of winter marmalade from pineapple and dried apricots or other good things? Stir in some chopped filberts when the conserve is ready to put into small jars.

WITH POTATOES

Stuffing baked potatoes? Add chopped filberts to the potato pulp along with butter, hot milk, salt and pepper; you'll have delightful crunchy texture.

More nuts may be pressed into the top of the stuffed potatoes before they go into a hot oven or under the broiler for reheating.

Like the flavor of toasted filberts? Put the shelled nuts in a slow (250 to 275 degrees) oven for about 20 minutes; stir a few times.

As the nuts expand slightly in the heating, the skins split and may be removed by rubbing the nuts briskly between the fingers.

* * *

Know how good Waldorf Salad is with roast pork? Give it new interest with filberts; add some of the nuts to the usual combination of diced apple, celery and mayonnaise.

VEGETABLE TREAT

Want a quick-to-prepare vegetable for a jigtime supper? Defrost a package of winter-type squash and add salt, pepper, brown sugar and melted butter to taste.

* * *

Turn into a small shallow baking dish and sprinkle with chopped filberts and drizzle with more melted butter. Bake in a moderate oven until thoroughly hot.

Add chopped filberts to your favorite recipe for a quick bread made with cooked dried prunes.

Slice the bread thin and make sandwiches of it, using soft cream cheese as the filling.

Creamed tuna for lunch? There's a new flavor in this old dish when you top it with toasted filberts.

Filbert Pastry Bars

1 package pie crust mix
3 tablespoons brown sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
1-3 cup seedless raisins (rinsed and drained)
¾ cup diced candied fruit peel
½ cup chopped filberts

Make up pastry according to package directions; roll out on large rimless cookie sheet into a rectangle about 10x14 inches and one-eighth inch thick.

Mix brown sugar, cinnamon and nutmeg and sprinkle over half of pastry; sprinkle with the raisins, candied peel and half of the filberts.

Fold remaining half of pastry over filling. Sprinkle with remaining filberts. Roll gently with rolling pin until fruit fillings begins to show through pastry and nuts are embedded in pastry.

Press edges together. Score deeply into bars. Bake in hot (425 degrees) oven 15 minutes or until lightly browned.

Separate bars while hot. Makes about 24.

Luncheon Suggestion

Thicken a can of stewed tomatoes and serve over rice or toast with strips of crisply cooked bacon for a delicious luncheon dish. Canned whole-kernel corn or green peas may be added to the tomatoes.

Fireplace Cookery

For an entertainment twist try preparing part of the meal right at the fireplace next time you have dinner guests. Cook meat on skewers. Use copper utensils and serve from them. Keep warm dishes at serving temperature by parking them on the hearth.

Paraguay Rejects Red Trade Pact Bid

ASUNCION, Paraguay (AP)—The republic of Paraguay says it is not having any help from Russia, thanks.

• • •

Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin made a strong bid last January for increased trade with Latin needs foreign trade, investments and technical assistance, but the Soviet offer fell on deaf ears here. The government suggested, in fact, that it would re-examine trade agreements it now has with Iron Curtain countries.

• • •

Gustavo Storm, president of the government's Central Bank of Paraguay, declared in an interview:

"Our policy is to carry on our commerce at the highest levels possible with the countries traditionally linked to our economy."

• • •

Paraguay, he said, "cannot ignore the fact that the countries composing the Soviet bloc developed a policy of foreign commerce with the main objective consisting, not in the establishment of relations of mutual convenience, but in the ideological penetration" of the united front of the free world.

Rejects Salary Boost From City Fathers

NEWPORT, Ky. (AP)—A.C. Joseph has refused a $4,800 annual salary increase.

The Newport city manager turned down the increase offered by city commissioners.

Joseph explained he knew the salary was $7,200 when he took the job and didn't feel he should take the increase in view of the city's low financial status.

Oakland GOP Women Plan Fund-Raising Drive

The 24 affiliated clubs of the Pontiac City Federation of Women's Clubs, along with other civic organizations interested in supporting a civic foundation, are participating in the "Meet Your Neighbor" benefit being held in the city April 12-13-14. Making a last-minute check on the workers for the event are Mrs. Walter Mann, Parent Guidance Club; Mrs. Robert Eisele, Pontiac Business and Professional Women's Club, and Mrs. William Merritt, Newcomers Club.

Program Will Begin on April 19

Campaign Kick-Off Will Be Conducted in Birmingham

Birmingham Community House will be the scene of the Oakland County kick-off program April 19 for the Oakland County fund-raising campaign sponsored by Republican women.

* * *

Advanced planning for their 1956 fund-raising in Oakland and Wayne Counties has been done by the Republican women. Their aim this year is to increase the number of contributors by expanding the township organizations working on the drive.

A series of kick-off events will start the fund-raising campaign that will culminate in a luncheon May 21 in the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel, Detroit.

Mrs. Charles A. Dean Jr. originated the plan in Wayne County. This is now being followed throughout the state. Mrs. Dean appointed Mrs. Brooks Marshall to direct the Oakland County organization and Mrs. Harold O. Love heads the Wayne County committee.

* * *

In Oakland County Mrs. Marshall has area groups at work in Avon, Birmingham, Bloomfield, Farmington, Independence, Lake Angelus, Novi, Orion, Oxford, Pontiac, Pleasant Ridge, Royal Oak, Southfield, Troy, Waterford and West Bloomfield.

SKILLED LEADERS

Experienced leadership from Mrs. Dean and other volunteers directing this fund-raising will help the workers recruited this spring. Mrs. Dean is a member of the Republican National Finance Committee, one of four women in the country who work in a group of 20 on this committee.

* * *

She is chairman of the Michigan Republican Women's Finance Committee and head of the Women's Division of the Wayne County GOP Finance Committee.

Her record of service began in 1942, and she was a member of the Wayne County Republican Finance Committee when it was organized in 1943.

Her idea of asking women to seek funds in addition to those collected by their husbands has grown into a full plan for the state this year. Mrs. Dean has been assisted for a number of years by the executive committee of the Women's Division, which she organized.

* * *

Mrs. Marshall, chairman of the 1956 Oakland County fund-raising committee, is assisted by Mrs. Howard J. Liverance, vice chairman; Mrs. James Bannard, secretary, and Mrs. George Hodges, publicity chairman.

The Oakland and Wayne County Republican Women's Finance Committees have planned a series of events for the fund-raising campaign, to be climaxed by a May 21 luncheon at Hotel Sheraton-Cadillac, Detroit. Doing their part to insure success are (left) Mrs. William P. Bonbright of the Wayne County committee and Mrs. Brooks Marshall of Birmingham, chairman of the Oakland County Republican Women's Finance Committee.

MIAMI—The youngsters of the William Isgriggs and the Glenn Griffins will have plenty of exciting stories to tell their little friends when they get back to Pontiac.

The two couples and their small fry got together for a boat trip up the inland waterway, visited the chimpanzee farm, and saw an Indian boy wrestle the alligators.

The Griffins and their four youngsters are spending three weeks at the Sea Breeze in Miami Beach.

The Isgriggs and Richard and John are now settled in Hollywood for a couple of weeks after touring the state, with such places as Marineland and Cypress Gardens on their itinerary.

They're in the same apartment building with his parents, the Isaac Isgriggs, who deserted Coral Gables, where they've been since December, for Hollywood a couple of weeks ago.

Fishing, swimming, golfing, sightseeing—and now and then the horse races at Gulfstream have kept them on the go.

HEAD FOR HOME

Mrs. Isgrigg's brother and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Burke, headed back for Bloomfield Hills several days ago—after vacationing in Lakeland, winter home of the Tigers.

* * *

The B. H. Anibals, who've been vacationing at Venice Isle in Hollywood, pointed their auto toward Birmingham Wednesday.

* * *

From their winter home in Venice on the Gulf Coast, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carr drove across the state to spend a few days in Fort Lauderdale recently and visit the Ernest V. Squires.

* * *

They'll be heading northward the latter part of April to see about the building of their new home in Clarkston.

And speaking of home, Mrs. Nelse Knudsen of Hollywood plans a visit back in Pontiac early in May.

The Keith Leaks of Clarkston were joined for the Easter holiday by son, Lanny, a student at Albion College.

NOT SUPERSTITIOUS

Not a bit superstitious are the John E. Dunns and the Jack Blamys—they've made a dinner date for Friday, the 13th. The Blamys and their two children arrived a week ago for a Miami vacation.

The Dunns are former Pontiac residents who moved to Florida last fall and are settled in a house in the Norwood section in North Miami, next door to Mrs. Dunn's sister. They had a two-day visitor a week ago—Mrs. Bud Silk of Pontiac.

Her brother's wedding this Saturday brought Camille and Ted Guething down from Birmingham.

Camille's brother, Dr. Thomas Guyton, and Mary Evelyn Calmes Stewart will be married at the home of the bride's parents, Hacienda del Sol, on South Merritt Island, near Cocoa, Fla.

And young Avery and Stephanie Guething will take part in the garden ceremony—they'll be ribbon bearers, wearing miniature floor-length versions of the matron of honor's dress, done in pale blue organdy.

Wearing a beige suit and small white hat, a smiling, unruffled Grace Kelly faced newsmen aboard the liner Constitution Wednesday just before the Philadelphia actress sailed to marry Prince Rainier of Monaco. Her smiling decorum amid the hubub of departure matched the title she will assume: Her Serene Highness.

Grace Kelly Tells Details of Breathtaking Trousseau

NEW YORK—As she prepared to sail for Monaco and her wedding to Prince Rainier III of Monaco, Grace Kelly released the story feminine America has been breathless to hear: Details of the trousseau of American-designed clothes which filled two trunks in her stateroom luggage. Among its fashion points:

* * *

Except for a honey beige wool suit, which she wore for sailing, an ivory wool fleece coat, and three cotton sports dresses, Miss Kelly chose her entire wardrobe in pure silk, from silk alpaca and silk faille for coats and ensembles to diaphanous silk chiffon and silk organza for evening.

Miss Kelly's choice of colors reflects the clear understanding of her porcelain-blonde beauty which placed her at the top of the Couture Group's annual Best Dressed list this year.

Creamy off-white, lucid beige tones and the blues from turquoise to sapphire and navy, dominate the trousseau and all accessories are keyed to beige and blue. There are also several dresses in clear sun yellow, and for evening both shell pink and ivory.

The wardrobe includes both slim and full skirts, and both short and long evening gowns. Several of the short party dresses in sheer silk and chiffon have matching cashmere sweaters.

LIST OF DESIGNERS

The trousseau was selected from the creations of the following designers: Ben Zuckerman suits and coats, Harvey Berin evening clothes, James Galanos cocktail and evening dresses, Fira Benenson evening dresses, Pauline Trigere evening dresses, Traina-Norell day and cocktail clothes, B. H. Wragge sports clothes, Branell cocktail dresses, Adele Simpson day dresses, Mollie Parnis day dresses, Ceil Chapman evening clothes, Samuel Winston cocktail dresses, and Suzy Perette summer dresses.

Miss Kelly chose furs in sunbeam fox, Canadian sable, leopard and broadtail collared with mink, all from fur designer Leo Ritter. Her hats, ranging from small satin chignons to large toques of draped silk tulle with roses, were chosen from Lilly Dache, Fred Frederics and Jessica.

Miss Kelly's MGM studio hairdresser, Sidney Guilaroff, designed one of her favorite hats, a deep pillbox of draped silk organza with three huge roses at one side.

The trousseau is matched to shoes from Delman and David Evins, and Miss Kelly chose several silk house robes by Dynasty.

Miss Kelly's personal wardrobe for her most recent MGM film, "High Society," designed by Helen Rose, was presented to her by the studio and is part of her trousseau, Miss Kelly said.

* * *

It includes nine costumes, among them a set of topaz raw silk slacks and a shirt, a silk jersey bathing suit, and a ball gown of layered silk chiffon with Beauvais embroidery flowers.

People Scared of Being Squares

Overindulgence Blamed on Fear

WINNETKA, Ill. (INS)—Fear of being considered a "square in social circles" makes many men and women overeat, overdrink and oversmoke, in the opinion of a leading psychiatrist.

* * *

Dr. Leo H. Bartemeier of Washington, D. C., said contemporary business practices and social etiquette are "contributing to the development of obesity and alcoholism in individuals pre-disposed toward these conditions."

Among the "opportunities for overindulgence" singled out by Dr. Bartemeier were business and professional luncheon meetings, and dinners served by too-generous hostesses.

Dr. Bartemeier said the business luncheon is usually arranged to save the time of busy persons and improve the exchange of ideas in a social atmosphere, but added:

* * *

"There is a pressure to conform to the social behavior of others in these situations. One who declines to join the others in some of these gatherings is apt to draw attention to himself, to be questioned about his not drinking and to be made to feel that he is either mildly disliked or at least that he is in disfavor.

"There are groups in which the non-drinker may even be ridiculed or otherwise embarrassed."

* * *

Overgenerous hostesses are also putting "social pressure" on dinner guests, Dr. Bartemeier said, explaining:

"The pressures to eat and drink all that is offered are so great that one cannot accept dinner invitations if one is determined to adhere consistently to prescribed dietary restrictions.

"To abstain from drinking and to eat sparingly when being entertained has come to signify unfriendliness, frank impoliteness or even an insulting way to behave."

* * *

Dr. Bartemeier stressed, however, these "social customs and pressures" were only contributing factors to the overindulgence problem. He said:

"They are of less importance than the internal personal factors which are both psychological and physiological, and peculiar to each individual.

SYMPTOM OF UPSET

"Overindulgence in food, drink or tobacco is a symptom of some disturbance of the emotional life."

* * *

Dr. Bartemeier, a professor of psychiatry at Georgetown University and past president of the American Psychiatric Assn., spoke at the North Shore Health Resort in Winnetka, Ill.

Auxiliary Shown Films

Fred Collins, personnel director for the City of Pontiac and assistant director of Civilian Defense, presented a film and outlined the work being done for civilian defense, at the Wednesday evening dinner meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Oakland County Medical Society.

* * *

The film showed the important steps which can be taken by the individual to protect life in case of enemy attack or natural destruction resulting from a tornado.

Mr. Collins spoke of the work for the civilian defense which is being done throughout the county by police and fire department personnel, the Department of Parks and Recreation, the Red Cross and the Ground Observer Corps.

* * *

In preparation for National Cancer Week, Mrs. Cornelius Thomas described some aspects of the organization and urged all members to publicize the showing of the American Cancer Society's film to be shown at the Elks Temple on April 27 at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Try These Exercises for Slimming Waist

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Have you ever stopped to think that most fashions emphasize the waistline? In the so-called "Gay Nineties" there was a fad for the very low, unfitted waistline but any attempts since then to dig up that fashion have failed dismally. So we might as well admit that our "middle" is a crucial part of our figure ensemble.

* * *

With this in mind I give you a few waist exercises to help you enjoy the spring styles.

Bend the trunk, this time touching the fingertips to the outside of the righ foot. Raise the trunk, arms returning overhead, twist to the left and look over the left shoulder.

* * *

2. Another: The pendulum swing is slimming to the waist as well as to the hips and abdomen. Lie on the floor on your back with your legs straight and your arms resting on the floor, extending out from your side.

Cling to the floor with your fingertips. Swing the legs like the pendulum of a clock, back and forth. Keep the heels close to the floor. This is rather difficult. Rest in between swings at first.

3. Simply stretching in bed in a lazy fashion before getting up in the morning can be pleasant as well as slimming. Raise your arms overhead. Stretch to the left by bending your trunk to the left as you move your legs to the left also. Feel the pull? Take your time and then stretch in the opposite direction.

* * *

If you would like to have my tested exercises for reducing the waist send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 6 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Tomorrow: "Chewing Gum ocasionally May be Aid to Weight Loss."

Mrs. Hruska Named to Head Opti-Mrs. Club

Mrs. Tom Hruska was elected to head the Opti-Mrs. Club Thuesday evening when the group met with Mrs. G. W. Stark on East Iroquois road.

* * *

Other officers elected were Mrs. H. A. Miller, first vice president; Mrs. Stark, second vice president; Mrs. Dave Ewalt, secretary, and Mrs. Buhl Burt, treasurer.

Mrs. Robert Zimmerman introduced her son, Philip, who showed movies of his stay on the island of Chitose in northern Japan while on duty with the armed forces.

* *

In serving refreshments, Mrs. Stark and Mrs. Bud Shelton carwith cherry blossoms and miniature parasols as the table decorations.

Wild rice needs to be cooked about an hour to be tender.

Round Table Club Hears Report on Scholarships

The Round Table Club met Tuesday in the Civic Room of the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building. Mrs. H. E. McCulloch presided.

* * *

It was reported that 135 girls had received nursing scholarships from the Federation of Women's Clubs and a donation was given for this work.

The club is also participating in the "Meet Your Neighbor" project sponsored by the local federation.

Mrs. Clare R. Cummings, public affairs department, spoke about Camp Oakland, telling of its accomplishments and future plans for development of the site. A benefit tea will be held June 5 at the home of Mrs. E. G. Winn.

Mrs. Eugene Cleland, program chairman, presented Mrs. Arthur W. Selden who spoke on Dr. Albert Schweitzer, who is devoting his life to helping natives in Africa. He has received the Order of Merit from England, sharing that honor with one American, President Eisenhower.

Mrs. McCulloch presided at the tea table. Mrs. Dean Thompson was hostess for the day assisted by Mrs. Winn, Mrs. Paul Kantz, Mrs. E. M. Orr and Mrs. Bartlet Wager.

Bridal Cake Would Be Lovely Gift

Bakery Owner and Wife Inquire About Wedding Present

By EMILY POST

A reader tells me: "My husband is the owner of a large bakery. He specializes in decorative cakes for special occasions. The daughter of a friend of ours is going to be married shortly and my husband was asked to bake the wedding cake.

"Would it be proper not to accept payment for this cake and give it to the bride as our wedding present, or would it be better to give something else? I would very much like to hear what you think of this idea."

Answer: Although unusual, I think the giving of the cake as your wedding present would be a lovely idea.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I'm a widow, 35, and marrying again. Shall Mother (my father is dead) announce my engagement and then later send out our marriage announcements or, in best taste, isn't she supposed to do this a second time?"

Answer: An older bride and bridegroom usually send their own marriage announcements. But at your age you may do it either way you prefer.

In the papers, the announcement need not be made in anyone's name. That is, it might say that Mrs. John Brown and Mr. James Smith are going to marry in the summer, or that announcement has been made of the engagement of Mrs. John Brown to Mr. James Smith, etc.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I have a friend whose son is going to be married in several months. She is under the impression that it is up to her to entertain the bridal party after the wedding rehearsal. I think it is up to the bride's parents to do this. Will you please let us know who is right?"

Answer: There is no rule as to who gives the party or whether there is one at all. Either the bride's family or the bridegroom's family or a friend of the bride gives it.

Simple partitions for drawers and shelves can aid in keeping kitchen utensils handy. For ease of storage, why not put the seldom-used pieces elsewhere?

A neat, collarless all occasion frock that is particularly appealing. Note the new 1-button closing, the crisp contrast on the slanted accent.

No. 8376 with Patt-O-Rama included is in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20; 40, 42, 44, 46. Size 16, 4⅛ yards of 35-inch ¼ yard contrast.

For this pattern, send 35c in coins, your name, address, size desired, and the pattern number to Sue Burnett, Pontiac Press, 372 W. Quincy St., Chicago 6, Ill.

Send 25c today for your copy of the spring and summer '56 edition of our complete pattern magazine Basic Fashion. It's filled with smart, easy to sew designs, special features.

To Store Sweaters: Clean Well First

Before storing heavy woolen sweaters and ski sweaters, they should be thoroughly cleaned. Hand-washing in lukewarm water with mild soap is easy and safe. Tracing the outline of the sweater on a piece of paper beforehand provides a perfect guide for size.

After washing and rinsing, "blot" the sweater dry in a turkish towel and gently "block" it to the shape you traced previously. When dry, wrap in heavy paper, seal with gummed tape, and store in chest or container.

Bulky Knit Tops Star for Spring

Sweater jackets, no-button cardigans, bulky knit tops and basic synthetic cardigans are sweater stars this spring. Soft dressmaker touches, scoops, V- and square-neckline slipons, dressy effects, dyed-to-match, tone-on-tone or color blending will continue strong. Other sweater design details that figure importantly will be raglan sleeve treatments, collar interest, delicate beadings and trimmings, two-ply refined bulky knits, metallic thread touches.

* * *

Style-wise it is the ensemble in knit dresses, most often a bare look sheath with cover-up cardigan or bolero. Sometimes the dress is sporty in character, frequently slightly festive with some jeweling accenting neckline and border of jacket.

Coming Events

DeMolay Mothers Club will meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic Hall, Pike street.

Grand officers of Esther Court 13, Order of the Amaranth, will sponsor a card party Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Civics Room of Federal Savings and Loan Building on West Huron street. The public is invited.

Youth Dance to Feature Carnival Motif

An atmosphere of colorful carnival decorations and music in tune with the merry spirit of the carousel will prevail at the annual spring dance of the Youth Group of Temple Beth Jacob. The dance, Saturday evening at the temple, will feature a local orchestra.

• • •

In keeping with the carnival theme, the dance is called "CO-CA-CU Carousel," the first portion of the title, referring to Combined Campaign for College and Union.

Proceeds of the dance will be donated to this campaign, the fund that supports the national institutions of Reform Judaism. They are the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and the College instituted, the seminary which ordains reform rabbis.

Committees appointed by Judy Levine, president, are under the general chairmanship of Edward Kantzer.

Ticket committee members are Dick Hartman and Dorothy Katchka; patron committee, Rhoda Goldberg and Donald Barnett.

John Richman and Donald Barnett are arranging refreshments, and entertainment is being planned by Jeff Siegel and Dick Hartman, with Jeff Siegel also working on publicity with Michael Nosanchuk.

Decorations are being prepared by Joel Thome, Stanton Walker and Edward Kantzer.

Judy Levine is handling the dating and housing bureau.

Joel Thome arranged for the orchestra for the affair. Entertainment will be provided by members of the Youth Group.

A stepladder and a little muscle work are necessary for the success of any dance, and Jeff Siegel (left) of Menominee road and Edward Kantzer of Mohawk road are doing their part. They are working on decorations for the spring dance sponsored by the Youth Group of Temple Beth Jacob. A local orchestra will furnish music for the dance Saturday evening at the temple.

Mix cooked green peas (drained and cooled) with minced onion, strips of pimiento and mayonnaise. Serve in lettuce cups for a different and delicious salad.

Hostesses from Detroit will be Mrs. Frank Lovell, Mrs. William T. Birnie, Mrs. Gale Stringer and Mrs. S. D. Bullock. Others will be Mrs. Charles Turner of Ferndale and Mrs. Manuel F. Diaz of Lathrop Village.

Man Changes Deafness Into Asset

By ANNE HEYWOOD

It astonishes me, sometimes, to see how invariably negative and pessimistic so many people are.

* * *

Take this letter, for example, from a reader who prefers to be anonymous:

"I'm sick of reading your fairy tales about people who have wonderful lives, having fun and making money, too. That doesn't happen in this day and age and you ought to know it.

"Most people have, as the philosopher said, 'lives of quiet desperation.' So why go on kidding yourself, and your readers, too, that life can be beautiful?"

Yet in the same mail came a letter from a woman named Kathryn Lyons which proves beyond any doubt that life can be a lot of fun and successful, too.

SATISFYING LIFE

I first heard about Mrs. Lyons from Milton Blumenthal of the American Heart Association, who heard about her when he was in Peoria, Ill. I wrote and asked if she would tell me about herself. Here is her reply:

"I doubt if anyone has had a more interesting life than I, or a more satisfying one. I wouldn't change one bit of it even though we lived on cornmeal mush and navy beans for a brief period.

"That was back in 1933, just after my husband lost his hearing and had to give up his teaching job. Fortunately our two children were too young to realize our plight.

"I turned to the government for employment — survey-taker, caseworker, WPA supervisor. In 1936 Harold came to Peoria with $100, which we had managed to save, and opened a hearing aid office. He turned his liability into an asset, so to speak.

* * *

"The story is somewhat of an opus in the hearing aid industry, because, through the years, we have had one of the most successful distributions in the industry.

"In 1946 he became interested in manufacturing and I took over our retail operation. So now we have it coming and going!"

* * *

To my anonymous pessimist, I would say: If you heard enough stories like that and met the people in the flesh, you might become an optimist, too.

Sometimes, people prefer pessimism. They never see the happy people they meet, but concentrate only on the unhappy and miserable ones.

They prefer to be miserable and to consider the world a terrible place.

* * *

Because the world is full of good and bad, happy and sad, the people who only see the bad and the sad probably prefer it that way!

(Copyright 1956)

This charming spring coat for the very young miss is of all wool plaid, with matching self-hat. Flower sprays trim the jaunty hat and the contrasting over-collar. The coat is single-breasted with tucked, belted sides, front and back, novelty buttons.

Business Group Adds Members

New members were installed in the American Business Women's Association Wednesday evening at Hotel Waldron. Mrs. Dorothy Brooks, association president, conducted the installation.

* * *

Dr. Andrew Yang, child psychologist of Oakland County Juvenile Court, spoke briefly on his work in the county.

* * *

Final plans were made by the group for Bosses' Night and for a money-making project and a style show in the near future.

The newest white jewelry is big and bold. Tiny flowers arranged in airy-looking clusters for dainty women.

Dazzle white for the most striking jewel accent on the slim new sheath in massive shapes for fashion conscious girls. Charming floral designs, as delicate as the daintiest of women could desire are also new.

From the Press Box

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

No other athletic group has been in newspaper print over the past few months as much as the AAU, and the more you read about the latest declarations of this governing body, the more ridiculous it gets.

Instead of taking a positive position for carrying out one of its primary purposes of existence—that of giving status to the amateur, America's weapon of self-respect in the Olympics—the AAU continues to do nothing but destroy the life of American amateurism.

Promising amateurs, Olympic hopefuls and even recent participants in the International games have been discouraged, disgraced or disqualified from future competition.

The violations charged against Wes Santee for excessive expenses were still being pushed over the coals when the AAU came out with a new set of fangs.

★ ★ ★ ★

"Intent to turn professional." That was the reason given for declaring a half dozen basketball players ineligible and preventing them from playing in a charity game.

What kind of shepherd is this that throws his sheep into the lion's den?

THREATS OF INELIGIBILITY CONTINUE

Another act of the AAU just this week was to break up the annual Women's Basketball Association tournament. Because there were professional games listed on the same card and because the women would be playing under men's rules instead of girl's teams, all participants were threatened with disqualification forever from the AAU.

How does the AAU explain such events as a pro-am golf tournament? Amateurs are playing in a scheduled event which includes pro players. Or how about college hockey teams playing exhibition games against pro hockey teams?

It's not allowed in football, basketball or baseball.

It boils down to one thing, inconsistency. And as far as "intent to be a professional" goes, a youngster in today's Little Leagues had better not disclose publicly his ambitions to someday play major league baseball or the AAU might rule on his "pro" intentions. Silly, isn't it?

★ ★ ★ ★

World and Olympic figure skater Hayes Alan Jenkins, one of the gold medal winners for the U. S. at Cortina a month ago, threw a spike into the AAU balloon yesterday.

"Olympic prospects can't afford to compete for the U. S.," he said, "and this country will lose top-flight Olympic candidates because of the 'unrealistic' attitude toward amateurs."

And who should know better than Jenkins? "No comment," said Avery Brundage, Olympic committee president.

The blood of the AAU is so watery, it couldn't even be forced to blush.

DITTOS FROM THE PRESS BOX

Tom Tracy, former Birmingham High football ace, is still waiting to sign with the Lions. Tom is pretty sure he'll be playing in Briggs Stadium next fall, but right now he says that Ottawa is trying to make the option in his contract binding, even with the possibility of court action.

Here's a rumor off a grapevine in Toronto. Harry Lumley, the Maple Leafs' goalie will be playing for the New York Rangers next season. Expect it may happen after the new coach is named succeeding King Clancy who has moved up to the Toronto front office.

One thing hockey fans have to admit. This Montreal outfit has to be put among the great teams of the NHL. The battered Red Wings could take one of the next two at home, but we doubt if they can take the series.

Home Win Needed to Put Wings Back in Race

DETROIT (AP) — Everything except the advantage of "home ice" will be working for the dynamic Montreal Canadiens tonight when they go after their third straight victory in the Stanley Cup hockey finals against the Detroit Red Wings.

• • •

Fortified with five of the top scorers in the National Hockey League, a blazing offense and a glittering array of second-line talent, the Canadiens are top-heavy favorites to take tonight's tussle and sweep the best-of-7 run-off in no more than five games.

The Red Wings, shorn of their recuperative powers that delivered them to the finals, are on the run. It is an unusual and uncomfortable spot for the long-powerful Wings, who until displaced by Montreal this season ran up a string of seven consecutive NHL titles.

• • •

It took Detroit five games to dump Toronto in the Cup semi-finals, and in each victory the Wings had to battle from behind. But the Canadiens turned the tables, and their domination of play has snipped potential Red Wing rallies in the bud.

• • •

Montreal pulled off a comeback of its own in the opener, scoring four goals in less than 6 minutes to pull out a 6-4 victory. Tuesday's win was much easier and the Canadiens romped 5-1.

This is the third straight finale for the Wings and Canadiens. The Detroit club edged out the Montreal group in seven games in 1954 and 1955.

In regular-season play this year the count was 7 wins for Montreal against 5 for Detroit. Two games ended in deadlocks. The ties and three of the Detroit victories were on the friendly Olympia ice. In the 1955 Cup Finals, Detroit's four victories that insured the crown came on home ice. Montreal took all three games played at the Montreal Forum.

• • •

Wing Coach Jimmy Skinner said the club will have to "do a lot better job of checking if we expect to get either one of these games at home." General Manager Jack Adams had another suggestion. He figured the Wings defeated themselves Tuesday night. Said Adams: "When we get going, our guys can't hit the nets. We had the chances. It wasn't Montreal's fault we didn't score. We have no one to blame but ourselves."

I'M WAITING FOR YOU — Boston Red Sox third baseman Grady Hatton, waits for Detroit Tiger Reno Bertoia who hits the dirt trying for third after his single was juggled in the outfield by Gene Stephens. Stephens fired the ball into Hatton and Reno was an easy putout. Detroit won the game 2-1 in the finale at Lakeland, Fla., before moving northward.

Forgets Polio

Vic Wertz Wants No Sympathy From Fans

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—Vic Wertz wants fans to think of him today as a firstbaseman and not as a recovered polio victim.

"I've made a definite effort to drive all thoughts of polio from my mind," said the Cleveland Indian infielder. "I'm over it and I want to forget it. I don't want any favors or special privileges because I had it."

"I'm a ball player trying to make this team," Wertz said. "I'll make it if I can beat the others out. Or they'll make it if they can beat me out."

• • •

The former Detroit first sacker said he thinks he has at least two good years of baseball left and he'd "like to hit 30 home runs just once before I quit." He hit 27 for the Tigers in 1950 and again 1951.

"I think I might have made it last year," he said. "I hit 14 in 74 games and didn't have a single hot streak. Something always kept putting me back on the bench."

The bald-headed Indian compiled a .253 batting average and knocked in 55 runs before polio struck.

• • •

Manager Al Lopez said Wertz's exhibition performance is 100 per cent better than he thought it would be.

"Why he's even 100 per cent better than he was last spring."

Ex-Oxford Star Gets Alma Post

Art Smith Appointed Athletic Director at Alma Mater

Art Smith, graduate of Oxford High School and Alma College, was named today as Director of Athletics and head of the Physical Education Department at Alma, it was announced by president Dr. John Stanley Harker.

Smith replaces Lloyd Eaton who resigned to accept a similar position at Northern Michigan.

While at Alma he was considered one of the best quarterbacks to wear the Scot colors. He also played basketball.

After a hitch in the service, Smith coached at Lake Orion High School for one year and then moved west where he completed graduate work at the University of Idaho.

He returned to Michigan two years ago after coaching football at Whitworth College in Spokane, Washington.

He will assume his duties in September at Alma.

12 Olympic Cagers Selected

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Olympic officials today picked a dozen basketball players the United States will send to the Olympic Games next November in Australia.

Five come from the playoff champion Bartlesville Oilers; Burdette Haldorson, Bob Jeangerard, James Walsh, Chuck Darling and Bill Hougland.

Selected from three other teams the Oilers met during a three-night round-robin playoff here were Carl Cain, Bill Russell and K. C. Jones of the College All-Stars; Billy Evans, Gib Ford and Ray Warren of the armed forces; and Dick Boushka of the Seattle Bakers.

Of the 12, only Hougland was a member of the U.S. team which swept to victory in the 1952 Olympics. At that time he was a Kansas University student.

The Oilers qualified for five places on the team by defeating the College All-Stars 79-75 in the final night of the playoffs. The balance of the 12-man team was selected by Olympic officials in consultation with Gerald Tucker, Oiler Coach who automatically became Olympic coach by virtue of his team's victory.

Named assistant coach of the Olympic squad, subject to approval of his school, is Frank (Bucky) O'Connor, who directed the College All-Stars to two victories in the playoffs before bowing to the Oilers. O'Connor is head coach of basketball at Iowa.

• • •

The playoff champion was then determined by an Olympic rule which gives two points for a victory and one for a loss, but in the event of two teams finishing with similar point totals gives the playoff victory to the team which defeated the other.

Against the All-Stars the champion Oilers roared into a quick lead in the first half sparked by Darling, the 6-9 former Iowa player. Darling scored 19 points in the first half and with two more points in the second half was high for the Oilers.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The U.S. Olympic basketball team selected today (with school, height and home town):

Chuck Darling, Iowa, 6-9, Detroit
Burdette Haldorson, Colo., 6-6, Austin, Minn.
Bill Hougland, Kansas, 6-5, Beloit, Kan.
Bob Jeangerard, Colo., 6-3, Wilmette, Ill.
Jim Walsh, Stanford, 6-4, San Francisco.
Carl Cain, Iowa, 6-3, Freeport, Ill.
K. C. Jones, San Francisco, 6-2, San Francisco.
Bill Russell, San Francisco, 6-10, Oakland, Calif.
Bill Evans, Kentucky, 6-1, Bers. Ky.
Gib Ford, Texas, 6-4, Amarillo, Tex.
Ron Tomsic, Stanford, 5-11, Oakland, Calif.
Dick Boushka, St. Louis, 6-6, Springfield, Ill.

ALTERNATES

Joe Dean, LSU, 6-2, New Albany, Ind.
Hal Lear, Temple, 5-11, Philadelphia.
Willie Naulls, UCLA, 6-6, San Pedro, Calif.
Ray Warren, TCU, 6-6, Mineral Wells, Tex.
Charles Koon, Washington, 6-6, Bremerton, Wash.
Terry Rand, Marquette, 6-6, Milwaukee.

Darling, Haldorson, Hougland, Jeangerard and Dean are members of the Bartlesville Oilers, AAU team which won the Olympic selection playoffs here last night. Cain, Jones, Russell, Lear and Naulls played in the tournament with a College All-Star team which was runner-up. Evans, Ford, Tomsic and Warren played with an All-Star team representing U.S. armed forces. Boushka, Koon and Rand played with the Seattle Bakers, another AAU entry in the four-team tournament.

Lamphere Loses Close Bout

Larry Lamphere of Pontiac, Port Huron Golden Gloves champion and state finalist at Grand Rapids, dropped a one-point decision to Gerry Hastings of Windsor in their 3-round middleweight bout last night at the Windsor Armory.

The Lamphere-Hastings match was part of a 7-bout amateur fight program given on the 1st Wednesday of every month at the Windsor Armory by the Police Athletic League.

Lamphere was scheduled to fight Gordon (Ducky) Turner, another Windsor boxer, but Hastings was substituted by mutual agreement.

• • •

Referee George Tessier, the sole judge of the bout, awarded 20 points to Hastings and 19 to Lamphere in a closely-contested battle. Lamphere, a boxing stylist, was hampered by Hastings' crowding, body-punching manner.

Pontiac's Bob McDonald, Lamphere's stablemate, and Irving Burton of Windsor fought to a draw in their 3-round scrap.

TORONTO (AP) — The Canadian Broadcasting Corp. (CBC) announced yesterday it will televise all remaining games in the Stanley Cup final playoff between the Montreal Canadiens and Detroit Red Wings of the National Hockey League.

Middie Trainer Retires

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — William J. (Billy) Fallon, athletic trainer at the Naval Academy since 1947, is retiring at the conclusion of Navy's spring football practice.

Before coming to Annapolis, Fallon was trainer at St. Mary's (Calif.) College, Navy Pre-Flight school at Moraga, Calif., and the universities of California, Wisconsin, Missouri and Michigan, dating back to 1920.

Olympic Group Wants TV Pay

MELBOURNE (AP)—The Olympic Organizing Committee today took "strong exception" to the way the world's television industry has "ganged up" in an effort to get free film rights at this year's games.

Chairmn Wilfred Kent Hughes, speaking for the committee, referred to a recent report that television organizations in the United States, Britain and Canada have decided not to pay for the right to televise films of the event.

"We do not want to extract the last penny from anyone," said Hughes, "but we do expect to receive a fair deal.

"The games are non-profit making, and yet are very expensive to run."

The committee has invited worldwide bids for the television rights, with the deadline for entry April 27.

Hughes said the committee feels the television world has "ganged up" to force the committee's hand to give away film versions "worth considerable sums of money."

"If newsreels are allowed to operate without charge, they naturally will take four or five times as much film as would actually be shown," said Hughes. "From the excess material, composite films could be made up and sold to television sponsors for great sums since the Olympics is a very special occasion."

TUG FOR TROPHY — It will be an annual tug of war for this perpetual trophy between the Elks and the Knights of Columbus. The two organizations will bowl Saturday night in the 1st annual challenge match pitting the 16 highest average teams against each other. Martinez Trims Diaz With Ease

Cuban Champ Floored Twice as Vince Wins 21st Straight Bout

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Sharpshooting Vince Martinez, taking no chances on an upset in his campaign for a shot at the welterweight boxing crown, gave Cuba's Miguel Diaz a bad beating last night in a televised 10-rounder at the City auditorium.

• • •

It was the 21st straight victory for the clever, hard-hitting Paterson, N.J., fighter, the No. 4 contender in his division, and moved him a step nearer to a title bout with Johnny Saxton.

• • •

Diaz, the Cuban champion, was a tough, aggressive customer. For eight rounds, although he absorbed heavy punishment all the way, he carried the fight to Martinez with wild rushes.

• • •

Not until the ninth did Martinez, a 4-1 favorite, take charge. He dropped Diaz in that round with a left and right to the jaw, but the bell ended the count at seven as the game Cuban climbed dizzily to his feet.

• • •

A smashing right to the jaw dropped Diaz again for an eight count in the final round but he was on his feet at the end.

Martinez was a lopsided winner on all cards. Referee Eddie Coachman called it 100-85, Judge Gus Jacobson voted it 99-86, and Judge Stu Winston 99-89. The Associated Press had it 100-89.

• • •

It was the 48th career victory for Martinez, who hasn't been beaten since Danny Giovanelli outpointed him March 13, 1953, in New York. He has lost only three times.

Tigers Head Northward After Beating Red Sox

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — The Detroit Tigers hit the long and roundabout road for home today after a lacklustre Florida season of 8 victories in 24 games.

Heading northward by way of Houston, New Orleans, Terre Haute, Columbus and Pittsburgh are 31 players.

Only infielder Buddy Hicks has survived so far from the prospects in the Tiger rookie camp. Thirteen players who were on the official spring roster of the club have been sold or optioned back to the minors.

Making up the squad now are 13 pitchers — Al Aber, Bud Black, Jim Brady, Paul Foytack, Ned Garver, Steve Gromek, Billy Hoeft, Frank Lary, Duke Maas, Dick Marlowe, Bob Miller, Virgil Trucks and Pete Wojey; four catchers — Frank House, J. W. Porter, Bob Wilson and Walt Streuli; seven infielders — Reno Bertoia, Ray Boone, Fred Hatfield, Harvey Kuenn, Jack Phillips, Earl Torgeson and Hicks; and seven outfielders — Wayne Belardi, Jim Delsing, Al Kaline, Chick King, Charley Maxwell, Jim Small and Bill Tuttle.

The Tigers were scheduled to leave Lakeland by train and play next on Saturday in Houston.

In their windup here they treated the fans to a 2-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox, their 3rd spring triumph over the Boston club.

An unearned run in the second inning off Mel Parnell and another run off reliefer Frank Baumann in the 8th provided the victory as Miller and Marlowe turned back the Red Sox on seven hits. The only Boston run was a homer by rookie Centerfielder Marty Keough. Keough also singled twice.

• • •

The Tigers' Florida record last season was 7 victories and 11 losses.

Delay Check of Deer Conditions

LANSING (AP)—Organized public inspections of deer conditions in Northern Michigan will have to be delayed until at least April 15, the State Conservation Department reported today.

T. H. Bartlett, department deer specialist, said snow would prevent any earlier satisfactory inspections by sportsmen and others who have asked to join conservation workers on tours of the deer areas.

All Upper Peninsula districts had maximum snow depths of more than one and a half feet and most of the Lower Peninsula range had a maximum depth of one foot.

Deer were still yarded this week in the deeper snow areas of the Upper Peninsula but were beginning to range out of yards in the Northern Lower Peninsula.

The four-time U. S. Open titlist said yesterday his "comeback" will be limited to the Masters as his only Major Tourney of 1956.

Hogan, who won the Masters twice and was runnerup four times, plans to go overseas for the International Trophy Matches but said he will not enter the British Open.

Elks, K of C to Bowl in Annual Challenge Affair

The first annual challenge cup bowling tournament between the Elks and Knights of Columbus will be rolled Saturday night at the Elks Lanes and at Motor Inn.

The 16 highest average teams from each organization will determine the winner.

The Elks has 50 teams in its bowling league and the K of C has 44 teams, and because of numbers both sites will be used for the tourney.

A perpetual trophy, donated by Coca Cola of Pontiac, will be the stake of the annual affair.

• • •

The cup, standing three-feet, will be kept at the winning organization each year.

Seven Winners

Crown Boys' Club Champs

Seven young fighters were crowned city Boys Club champions last night in final bouts at the Pontiac Boys Club gymnasium.

The boxing program commemorated the Golden Anniversary of Boys Clubs of America.

Titles went to Jerry Ryan, 72 pounds; David Houts, 80 pounds; Larry Thaxton, 110 pounds; Ron Anderson, 111 pounds; Larry Chambers, 132 pounds; Bob Malley, 142 pounds; and Dave Blower, 170 pounds.

Ryan defeated Jim Newsom, a 73-pounder, in the 1st bout of the evening. Houts outpointed Bernie Tale, who scaled 75 pounds, and Ken Walker, who weighed 110, bowed to Thaxton in one of the show's top bouts.

Anderson decisioned 115-pound Bob Eason, Chambers defeated Larry Cosgrove, a 135-pounder, and Malley outpointed Fred Cox, who scaled 142.

The heavy boys wound up the program with Blower besting his 170-pound opponent, Dave Mitchell.

Two Specials Entered in 500 Race by Novi Owner

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The two Novi specials, hardluck cars of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, will change to rear drive and trim off some weight for this year's 500-mile race.

Owner Lew Welch of Novi, Mich., entered the powerful and tempermental cars Wednesday but did not name a driver for either.

The 183-cubic inch, supercharged V-8 engines are the same, but the front drives are gone. Mechanic Jean Marcenac said the cars have been redesigned for better distribution of weight and will be at least 200 pounds lighter.

Besides the usual fuel tank in the tail, each car will have an interconnecting tank on the left side to get away from the concentration of fuel weight in the tail.

The new body design will bring the top of the driver's headrest within 28 inches of the track surface. Extending the lines of the headrest beyond the rear axle will create a tail fin.

The cars are being built in Los Angeles, and Marcenac said they will be brought here early in May.

The Novis increase the entry list for the May 30 race to 38 cars, with the deadline for entries April 15. Time trials will start May 19, and only the 33 fastest cars will start.

In a prelude to the meeting, the committee on the football officiating manual met yesterday to discuss the manual. Asa Bushnell of the Eastern College Athletic Conference is chairman of the committee.

Some 25 to 30 representatives of athletic conferences throughout the country were expected. The meeting will continue through Monday.

And He's Happy Doing It

Joe Louis Wrestles to Pay the Tax Bills

AUGUSTA, Ga., (AP)—One of the last sights in Florida was Joe Louis in a wrestling arena against Shag Thomas. Joe weighed 245 pounds and looked it, especially in the arms and above his black trunks. He wore a scraggy mustache and the bald spot seems to have grown around his pate.

Thomas had a Buddha-like physique. He wore a turban and a black goatee. Patiently maneuvered Joe into the holds of the trade. Periodically Shag feigned alarm as Joe raised those once terrible fists and would catapult himself through the ropes cowering on the apron of the ring.

Louis won in a single fall, after cringing from lifelike jabs to his eye and a few pulled punches to the body. He's got several more bouts booked in Florida and then he'll decide whether to continue.

"I may not like it," he said. Asked if he was doing this to earn some money to ward off Uncle Sam, he nodded . . . and then emphasized the affirmation with: "Yes."

"When they present me with a bill I can pay, I want to do it," said the former heavyweight champion. "Sure, I have to earn some money . . ."

Louis, of course, isn't going anywhere in wrestling except, perhaps, into some state of solvency if he is lucky. The guys he is meeting are younger, tougher, better trained and "settled" into a pattern of good living from the transition of vaudeville from the theater to the armories and halls of the land.

The former heavyweight king can't go around and fight any more, so this is one way to perpetuate his name and make it worth while for his own interests.

• • •

They cheered him to the rafters in Tampa the other night maybe because they warmed to his temerity in putting himself in an unhappy spot.

It was good to see him again and he talked baseball and seemed pretty happy. Let him wrestle if he wants to . . .

Pastrano Easy Winner Over Johnny Arthur

NEW ORLEANS (INS) — Speedy Willie Pastrano, 7th ranked heavyweight, pounded out a one-sided victory last night over Johnny Arthur of Johannesburg, South Africa, in a 10-round boxing bout at New Orleans.

Pastrano, who weighed 188, showed a series of fast left jabs that sent Arthur rocking on his heels several times.

Arthur weighed 228.

Old Pros Favored as Masters Begins

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Can a newcomer win the 20th Masters, a golf classic which opened today with the biggest and best field in its brief but brilliant history?

The records say no. The golfers say no. And the sports writers say no. They lean toward the experience of a Cary Middlecoff, Sam Snead, Ben Hogan or Jimmy Demaret.

* * *

But Ray O'Brien, tournament director of the Professional Golfers Assn., says yes.

"We have more fine young golfers on the tour this year than ever before, I believe," O'Brien said. "Several of them have the game to win the Masters, and I think one of them will."

He mentioned such circuit stars as Dow Finsterwald, Don Fairfield, Ernie Vossler, Lionel Hebert, Mike Fetchick, Billy Maxwell, Gene Littler and Mike Souchak.

Middlecoff, the defending champion who would like to become the first to win Masters titles in successive years, held out for experience—experience on the exacting Augusta National course, a favorite golfing retreat of President Eisenhower.

"I don't believe any of the boys who haven't played this course several years stand much chance," he said. "This is a course you have to know to be able to score well.

* * *

"I'd say Littler and Souchak have the best chance among the younger fellows. They've already played in two or thre Masters."

Middlecoff tried and failed nine times before he finally quaified for the bright green jacket symbolic of a Masters winner.

Par for the Augusta National is a standard 36-36—72.

The course itself, plus the terrific pressure generated in this classic, lend support to those who argue that again this year one of golf's old guard will emerge victorious.

* * *

Middlecoff, Snead, Demaret and Hogan have monopolized this event since 1949. Snead and Demaret are three-time winners.

Hogan has won twice and has been runner-up four times, including two playoffs he lost.

Bobby Jones, the grand slam king, came out of retirement in 1934 to help launch the Masters but neither he nor any other amateur ever has won.

This year's amateur field, 21 strong, is headed by Billy Joe Patton, Harvie Ward, Ken Venturi, Joe Conrad and Hillman Robbins. Foreign participants include Henry Cotton, three-time winner of the British Open; Roberto DeVicenzo, Argentine star now registering from Mexico City; and Canadians Al Balding and Stan Leonard.

* * *

The final round of the tournament comes Sunday and President Eisenhower, who has a cottage at the course, is scheduled to fly here Monday. In case of a tie, a playoff will be held Monday, forcing the President to delay his trip.

Portions of the tournament the last three days will be telecast nationally (CBS).

SNEAD COAXES ONE — Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., waves his putter over the ball as he misses a short putt on the 18th green during a practice round for the Masters Golf Tournament at August, Ga., yesterday. In the background Mike Souchak also does some coaxing standing on one foot. Tommy Bolt is at the right.

Cranbrook Walloped, 14-0

Danville (Va.) High School handed touring Cranbrook its worst drubbing on the Southern trip yesterday in taking a 14-0 decision from the Bloomfield Hills nine.

* * *

A three-run homer in the first inning by George Gover after an error and a walk was all the Virginians needed.

Pete Bedford was the starting pitcher with Dave Cooper of Birmingham taking over in the 5th.

For the third time, the Cranes left 10 men stranded on the base paths. Cranbrook managed by six scattered singles while Danville was driving out 16 base knocks.

* * *

Today the Cranes play the 6th game of the tour against the University of Virginia freshman team at Charlottesville.

Senator Hurler Has Rough Time at Start

CAMP GORDON, Ga. (AP)—Bunky Stewart needs more work before he'll be ready for steady pitching duty with the Washington Senators.

* * *

In his first start yesterday, Stewart gave up nine walks, let loose a wild pitch and yielded the Cincinnati Redlegs five runs in three innings. Stewart got a late start in spring training because of a broken toe.

Beat Tarheels, 4-2

UM in Dixie Semi-Finals

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Tight pitching by righthander Bill Thurston gave underdog Michigan a 4-2 victory over North Carolina yesterday in an opening round game of the Dixie Baseball Classic.

Thurston struck out 10, allowed only six scattered hits and didn't walk a man in going the distance for the Wolverines. Both tar heel runs were unearned.

In other games Colgate polished off Duke 16-12, Wake Forest routed Loyola of New Orleans 11-5 at Wake Forest and North Carolina State shaded Amherst 6-5 in a game at Raleigh.

In championship semifinals today Wake Forest, 1955 NCAA champion, will meet N.C. State and Michigan will go against Colgate in a twi-night doubleheader at Durham athletic park.

* * *

Loyola plays Amherst and North Carolina meets Duke in a consolation doubleheader at Duke's Coombs Field.

Thurston, pitching nearly flawless ball, likely would have had a shutout except for an error and a misjudged fly in the Wolverine outfield that opened the way for tarheel runs in the 4th and 5th innings.

Michigan collected two runs off Jim Raugh in the 3rd on Thurston's walk and a home run by Bruce Fox that sailed nearly 450 feet into deep left field.

Steve Boros, a flashy sophomore from Flint, tripled in the 4th and crossed the plate on Bob Sealby's double. Fox scored Michigan's final run in the 8th.

Boros, outstanding in both the fielding and hitting departments, connected for three of the Wolverines' seven hits.

* * *

Coach Ray Fisher indicated he probably will start righthander Jack Clark in tonight's game with Colgate.

GRAPEFRUIT League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National League season doesn't open for another 12 days, but the battle's already on between the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers and the Milwaukee Braves. Tempers have flared and Don Newcombe, tired of being called "gutless," is mad.

After a couple of squabbles that almost led to fist fights in the Braves' 7-5, 10-inning decision over the Brooks yesterday, Big Newk said today "Those guys (he meant the Milwaukees) sit around all night saying how gutless our pitchers are—especially me.

"Well, we'll see about that tomorrow."

Newcombe, who won 20 games last season before going sour at the end of the schedule, is slated to face the Braves at Chattanooga tomorrow as the two NL contenders continue their eight - game homeward tour from Florida. They play at New Orleans today.

Elsewhere, extra-curricular activities were chucked in favor of baseball.

The Cleveland Indians beat the New York Giants 2-0 behind the five-hit pitching of Bob Lemon, a safe bet to open the season for the Tribe, and Bob Feller although held to only three hits—all ground-rule doubles—by the Giants' Joe Margoneri, Windy McCall and Jim Constable.

Cincinnati and Washington each had only five hits, but the Redlegs ran away with a 5-0 decision after getting nine walks from Bunky Stewart.

The New York Yankees belted Robin Roberts for all their runs in the fourth, including a two-run homer by rookie Lou Skizas, but lost to the Philadelphia Phils 4-3. The Phils scored three in the eighth off Bob Grim.

Pittsburgh got three runs in the second off Art Ceccarelli and beat Kansas City 4-2 with Roberto Clemente getting 3-for-3. And Baltimore, paced by Jim Pyburn's two homers, walloped the Chicago Cubs 15-4. One of Pyburn's clouts was a first-inning grandslam off Paul Minner.

Skippers' 3-Sport Star

Roller Skating Helped Him in Sports

Gary Meeker, 17-year-old Waterford High School student, made the leap from the roller skating rink to three Skipper athletic teams with the greatest of ease.

As a freshman and sophomore at Waterford, Gary spent most of his time on roller skates before getting the urge to participate in athletics.

He held down an end position on the football team, completed in the pole vault and hurdles on the track squad and worked his way to the captaincy of the basketball team.

His roller skating achievements date back to 1952 when he won honors in state and regional competition as a 13-year-old.

• • •

In 1953 Gary made his mark on the national scene at Cleveland winning a first in the junior pair with Martha Lee Rodgers as his partner.

He also placed second in figure skating singles, and third in free style.

In the National finals at Denver in 1954, he and Miss Rodgers placed second as a duet and second in figure skating.

• • •

Activity in high school athletics kept him busy last year but despite lack of practice he still skated his way to the national finals at Toledo.

His father Ursul believes that roller skating has played a large part in developing Gary in athletics, giving him coordination and balance.

SKATING HONORS—Gary Meeker displays the trophies he won in state and national competition on the roller rink. He is also a member of the football, basketball and track teams at Waterford High School.

Average 1955 college basketball game required a time of one hour 17 minutes.

Acid Injures Labor Columnist

Victor Riesel Splashed in Face by Unidentified Male Assailant

NEW YORK (AP)—Labor columnist Victor Riesel was splashed in the face with acid on a street just off Broadway early today shortly after he had spoken on a radio program.

• • •

Riesel, 41, whose columns appear in the New York Daily Mirror, was taken to St. Clare's Hospital.

He was assaulted at 3 a.m. at 51st Street and Broadway shortly after he had left Lindy's Restaurant nearby.

• • •

The extent of his injury was not known immediately.

A young woman with him was hit on a leg by a few drops of the acid. She was Miss Betty Nevins, about 23, Englewood, N.J., who assists Riesel on radio and television programs. She also was taken to St. Clre's Hospital.

Riesel's head and eyes were covered with bandages at the hospital.

• • •

He told police the acid was splashed on him a few minutes after he and Miss Nevins left the restaurant. Her car was parked nearby.

He said they had taken just a few steps when "a man called to me, but did not call my name.

"Then he threw something at me."

• • •

Police said the acid hit the columnist between the eyes. Some of the acid spilled on his left hand and clothing.

Miss Nevins told police that the assailant was about 25, "nice looking, but poorly dressed."

• • •

The two-month royal itinerary includes calls at the island colony of Mauritius, the Zanzibar protectorate of East Africa, the trust territory of Tanganyika and the Kenya colony, land of the anti-white Mau Mau.

• • •

Margaret made a month-long tour of the British West Indies in February 1955.

Walleyes Being Moved

NEWAGO (AP)—The annual walleye transfer has started at the Consumers Power Co. Newago Dam on the Muskegon River. $35,000 Blaze Hits Ortonville

Whyte Employes Escape Injury

3 Volunteer Stations Battle 3 Hours to Save Manufacturing Plant

ORTONVILLE — A three-alarm fire blazed through the Whyte Manufacturing Co. on M15 here yesterday, causing an estimated $35,000 damage. No one was injured.

Fire departments from Ortonville, Independence Township and Atlas Township fought the blaze for almost three hours.

More than 20 workmen, evacuated from the plant, assisted the volunteer firemen by carrying out expensive stock and equipment.

Fire Marshall William Buckingham thought sparks from an acetylene torch in a welding booth may have started the fire. Workmen reported there was a small explosive puff which apparently set fire to an acetylene tank. Pressure caused by the heat released gas in the tank, and this started a series of small fires which quickly spread out of control.

ROOF, FLOORS BURNED

Damage to the cement block building, principally to the roof, floors and windows, will cost about $25,000, the owner, Bob Whyte, estimated. An additional $10,000 damage to machinery, stock and equipment was estimated.

Whyte said manufacturing operations would be halted for about two weeks, but no men will be laid off. He plans to keep the employes occupied clearing the rubble and cleaning machinery.

The 75x80 foot plant was built by Whyte three years ago. The company manufactures display fixtures, drafting tables and automotive parts.

It handles contracts from General Motors, Ford and Philco, as well as doing work for small companies.

Make Site Purchase for $5 Million Center

TROY—A $5,000,000 shopping center and residential community being planned for Troy seemed assured last evening at the announcement of the Purchase of the 70-acre "Most Farm" at Livernoil and Maple for the site.

The transaction was announced by Joe Bryant, Clawson realtor, acting for a Detroit firm. Kaufman and Wolf Associates, developers and builders in the Cadillac Tower, Detroit, are the buyers.

Plans for the project are in the hands of architects and must be approved by the Troy zoning board. According to Abe Kaufman, firm executive, the project, which should be underway in three months, will include 200-three bedroom homes.

Contest Opens for Marlette 'May Queen'

MARELTTE — The annual May Dance sponsored by the Altrusa Club will be held May 4, in Marlette High School Auditorium.

Girls 15 years and older can qualify to run for queen. The girls will receive 20 per cent of all the tickets they sell, as well as other prizes, and the girl selling the highest number will reign as queen.

The girls interested are to meet the dance committee at the school at 2 p.m. Friday.

Leave June 16 for Summer in Germany

Two Milford High School Juniors Win 'Youth for Understanding' Trip

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

MILFORD — Two high school juniors have been accepted by Youth For Understanding for a summer's living experience in Germany.

Valerie Houston and Margaret Rice are two of 30 exchange students who will leave Wayne Major Airport June 16 in a chartered plane headed for Europe.

This is more than a student exchange, it is a personal exchange for the 10 weeks that the girls are in Europe. Both girls will live with families in Germany who formerly have had teenagers visiting in Milford.

Valerie will live with the family of Hellmut Castrop at Meschede, Ruhr. Hellmut was a guest of Valerie's family for the year of 1953-54 and was a senior at Milford High School during that time.

Margaret will live with Elisabeth Teichert and her family in Bambert. Elisabeth was with the Philip Haddrill family in Milford during her 1953-54 senior year.

VALERIE HOUSTON

MARGARET RICE

CHURCHES SPONSOR

For five years the Youth for Understanding has been sponsored by the Ann Arbor - Washtenaw Council of Churches with the full cooperation of the Department of State.

This year Hennelore Schmidt of Neustadt, Germany, is living with the William Knapp family which has been host to three exchange students from Europe.

The purpose of the program is to develop understanding of another country through family living experience. This is the second year that Michigan students have participated by going to Germany.

For the most part, the group of 30 will be in homes of German returnees or their friends. With few exceptions, these homes have been visited by the program directors Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Andersen of South Lyon, who will be with the group of students when they leave June 16.

Students are chosen on the basis of scholarship, participation in group activities, understanding of their own community, and in every sense 'are young 'ambassadors of good will' according to Mrs. Anderson.

Youth For Understanding is the only exchange program operated on a statewide basis.

Report Only 148 in 1952

Is the U. S. Running Short of Annual Millionaires?

WASHINGTON (INS)—A government report indicated today that the U. S. could be running short of millionaires.

• • •

The Internal Revenue Service reported there were only 148 of them in 1952, compared with 171 in 1951 and an all-time high of 219 in 1950.

At least, that was the number of Americans who filed tax returns listing income of more than one million dollars for those years.

However, the nation's supply of millionaires was still more adequate in 1952 than it was a decade ago. In 1944, there were only 62 of them; 71 in '45, 94 in '46; 114 in '47; 149 in '48; and 120 in '49.

Who were they? The revenue service won't say, although one official narrowed the field by telling a reporter: "Not me."

• • •

The service's statistical review of 1952 income also showed that nearly 18,000 returns that year reported taxable earnings of more than $100,000.

56 MILLION RETURNS

That was out of a total of 56 million returns filed in 1952, of which only 44 millions required the filer to pay any taxes at all. Altogether, they shelled out 28 billion dollars, an average of $649 each, which was an increase of $67 over 1951.

But getting back to the 148 millionaires, their aggregate income, after business deductions, was 289 million dollars. They paid 180 million dollars of it in income taxes, for an average of $1,217,541 each.

How did they get the dough? Only five million dollars of their income was in the nature of wages and salaries. Dividends accounted for 132 millions. Little items like business profits and rents took care of the rest.

New York state boasted the largest number of millionaires with 43. Pennsylvania came next with 17, followed by Illinois with 13.

Texas had 11, California nine, Delaware eight, Florida, Michigan and Ohio six each, Connecticut five, Indiana and Virginia three apiece, New Jersey, North Carolina Oklahoma and Rhode Island two each; and Arizona, Maryland, Minnesota, Nebraska, Nevada, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, Wyoming and the District of Columbia one each.

Farm Compromise Gets Polished Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate-House conference committee turned today to polishing up a controversial election-year farm bill with most of its major provisions already determined.

Tentative agreement late yesterday on a program for supporting corn and other livestock feed grains left only minor compromises ahead in the committee's effort to rewrite two widely differing farm bills into a singe measure.

* * *

Still ahead, if the bill is to become law, is the need for first House and then Senate approval and for President Eisenhower's signature on a measure which now contains many provisions he has opposed.

Hollywood Headlines:

Jo Van Fleet Remembers Rough Road to Success

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—When Jo Van Fleet received the supporting actress Oscar from Edmond O'Brien, it was a special thrill for her.

* * *

She remembered back to her days as a struggling actress, when there was more struggle than acting. One of the jobs she took to tide her over between acting jobs was theater ushering. She ushered for a wartime show, "Winged Victory," and one of the stars was Edmond O'Brien.

THOSE WHO HELPED

Miss Van Fleet, who struggled for 10 years with little success, remembered a lot of people who have helped her along the way. The person who really started her was DeMarcus Brown, drama teacher at College of the Pacific at Stockton, Calif. When she attended the college, he urged her to try her luck in New York.

* * *

"At that time, New York seemed like another world to me," the Oakland-born actress recalls. "But he kept at me until he convinced me to go."

After she won the Academy Award, she telephoned her former teacher to offer her thanks for his help. "This," he said through his tears, "makes up for whatever disappointments I may have had in the teaching profession."

* * *

Miss Van Fleet admitted the list of all of those who have helped her along the way would be a long one. Principal among them are director Elia Kazan and producer Cheryl Crawford, "who gave me what I needed when I was at my low points — not money, but hope."

VARIETY OF JOBS

During those lean periods, she worked as receptionist, usher, office worker, even behind a soda fountain. And she taught at the neighborhood playhouse, where she studied when she first went to New York.

British Papers See Allies Out of Step

LONDON (AP) — British newspapers expressed the alarmed view today that British and U.S. policies in the Middle East are getting more and more out of step.

* * *

The Conservative Daily Mail said from President Eisenhower's news conference remarks on the subject yesterday, "It appears the United States has retreated still farther from support of Britain's tough line in the danger area."

"Until the United States adopts a more realistic approach to the Mideast crisis," the Mail asserted, "it is pointed out that Britain is the only country prepared to intervene immediately if war breaks out between the Arabs and Israel."

* * *

Lumber Harvest Vast

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP)—The lumber harvested from national forests in Region 1 in 1955 would build 140,000 average homes, says Regional Forester P. D. Hanson. The 970 million board feet cut in the region, which covers several northwestern states, was valued at about $6,600,000.

Find Child in Woods

LUDINGTON (AP)—More than 200 volunteers and Mason County sheriff's men scoured a wooded area three miles north of Ludington Wednesday night in a search for 2½-year-old Jeana Ray Borgh. After a three hour hunt they found her a mile and a half from her farm home, chilled by the night air but otherwise unharmed. The girl had wandered away from her home in South Hamlin Township. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Borgh.

Charlotte Band Tops

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Charlotte (Michigan) High School band captured first place yesterday in the Cherry Blossom Festival school band contest. The unit scored 850 points out of a possible 1,000.

Heart Disease Triumph Hinted

Specialist Sees End of Fatal Sickness by Turn of Century

LOS ANGELES (INS) — A noted specialist predicts flatly that medical science will triumph over heart disease by the turn of the century.

Dr. Arthur M. Master, consulting cardiologist for several eastern hospitals, outlined at a Los Angeles news conference the advances being made in the field of heart ailments and declared:

"There will be no more coronary diseases by the year 2000!"

The specialist said great progress which has been made in the field of biochemistry as it pertains to heart disease and new drugs, including the so-called "tranquilizers," have worked wonders.

He also cited early diagnosis of heart disease as a factor contributing to its ultimate defeat in this country.

Dr. Master said it will become the duty of doctors, psychiatrists and psychologists to "lessen the world pressures upon the public."

Walt Disney Grandpop for the Second Time

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—A beaming Walt Disney announced yesterday that his daughter Diane has made him a grandfather for the second time.

The famed cartoonist reported that his daughter, wife of former football star Ron Miller, gave birth to a 7-pound baby girl early today at the Peninsula Community Hospital at Carmel, Calif.

The Millers have a son, Christopher, 1. The father is now a soldier at Fort Ord, near Carmel.

San Francisco Leads All in Top Alcoholism Rate

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP)—San Francisco had "by far" the highest rate of alcoholism among the nation's big cities in 1950, two Yale University researchers have reported.

* * *

New York, Detroit and St. Louis weren't even in the first 25, according to a survey by alcoholism researchers Mark Keller and Vera Efron. They reported their findings in the Quarterly Journal of Studies on Alcohol.

* * *

They said San Francisco showed a rate of 4,190 "alcoholics with complications" for each 100,000 adult population. Next closest were Sacramento, Calif., with a rate of 2,780, and Louisville, Ky., 2,380.

* * *

They defined "alcoholics with complications" as those "who have developed recognizable physical or mental symptons due to excessive drinking." The researchers said estimates are that for every such alcoholic there are three other chronic, excessive drinkers without such complications.

* * *

The survey covered cities of 100,000 population or over. The rates were figured on the basis of adult population 20 years of age or over. The 1950 figures were said to be the most recent available. The scientists said it is generally known that alcoholism is more prevalent in urban areas than in rural ones.

* * *

"But the factors, whatever they may be, which make up the urbanism that associates with alcoholism," they said, "do not appear to correspond closely with population density."

"Thus, it is possible for a city between 100,000 and 200,000 inhabitants, as Wilmington, Del., or Sacramento, to show a much higher rate of alcoholism than a metropolis of millions, as Chicago or New York.

* * *

"The psychological or cultural factors which influence the regional rates of alcoholism await elucidation by social scientists."

Man Sues, Claiming Attack by Game Cock

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A 61-year-old man charged in a $100,000 damage suit that a game cock attacked him, causing him to fall to a floor and suffer permanent injuries.

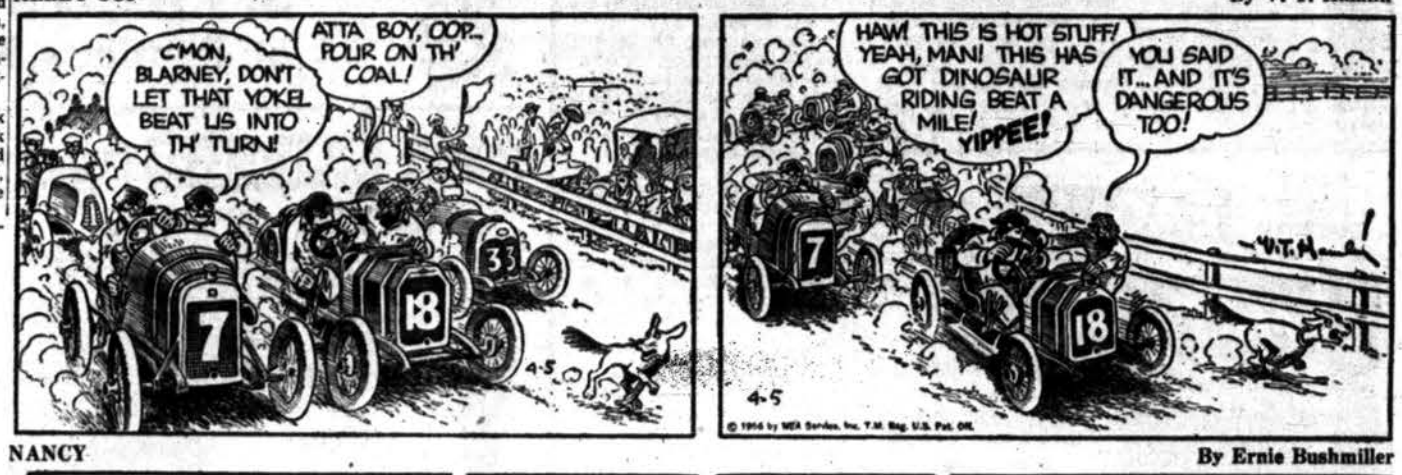

Cecil P. Dickson, former head of a St. Petersburg coffee firm, charged that he called at the place of business of Ernest Atkins, a paper dealer, in 1952 and was attacked by the cock.

Dickson said the fighting cock "did continue his viciuos attack upon the plaintiff" after he had fallen to the floor, "pecking, scratching and tearing at the flesh."

Farm Income Drops 2 Points in March

LANSING (AP) — The index of prices received by Michigan farmers declined 2 points during the month ending in mid-March, the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service said today.

The index now stands at 217, based on a 1910-1914 control of 100 points, a decline of 16 points from a year ago.

Lower calf and wholesale milk prices were primarily responsible for the drop since mid-February, the service reported.

The livestock index was down 9 points below a year ago, due mainly to lower prices for dry beans.

The all crops index was 25 points below a year ago, due mainly to lower prices for dry beans.

An upsurge in spring buying boosted Pontiac new car sales approximately 40 per cent during the last ten-day period in March, R. M. Critchfield, Pontiac general manager, announced today.

"Sales for the period set a new record for the year of over 14,200 for the period," Critchfield said.

Used car sales were up 33 per cent over the preceding period, totaling 29,878. This is a 28-days supply indicating a very strong used car market.

Young Purse Snatchers Rob Pontiac Woman

A woman two houses from home last night was set upon by two youths who forced her against a hedge fence, stole her purse and escaped running east on Gage street, according to Pontiac police.

Mrs. Joseph Thouin, of 58 Gage said she was walking home about 9:30 p.m. when the pair approached, walking the opposite way.

Only $3 in change plus a $16 check were in the purse, she said. One youth was described as six feet tall and the other of medium height. Both wore light colored jackets, Mrs. Thouin believed.

Strength in Oils Sends Stock Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Strength in the oils shares again today sent the stock market higher.

* * *

Yesterday's turn ahead was the result of buying in the oils, and in the early afternoon today the oils again were the leaders.

Most price changes were small either way, but there were quite a number of gains of 1 to 3 points and some pushed on to 7 points. Losses usually were no greater than a point.

* * *

Oils were inspired by talk of price increases all along the line, just as the coppers so recently were buoyed by price hikes for the metal throughout the world.

Trading was quiet active, especially in the oils, and hit a pace around 3,000,000 shares for the day. That compares with 2,760,000 shares traded yesterday.

* * *

Going up with the oils were the mail order houses, especially Montgomery Ward which gained around 4 points at times, coppers, chemicals, railroads and building materials. The steels and motors were mixed along with the aircrafts, aluminums, airlines, motion pictures and utilities.

Fruehauf Trailer, yesterday's most active issue up 2 points, hit a fast gait today after opening on 15,000 shares up ⅜ at 35½ and then pushed up a little more. Buying was attracted to the stock because of favorable dividend action.

* * *

General Foods, which added 1½ yesterday on a proposed split and a higher dividend, quickly added between 2 and 3 points today.

At noon today the Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 60 cents at $191.80. Yesterday's market turned upward in the final hour to put the average up 80 cents at a new high of $191.20. The previous record was established only last Monday.

Dealers Hope It's Temporary

Trend in Car Purchasing Is Awareness of Prices

Automakers hope it's temporary phenomenon, but the new car sales prospect for 1956 is becoming increasingly price conscious, according to Ward's Automotive Reports.

The prospective buyer, according to the periodical, is more selective in choosing accessories and is bending his favor toward six-cylinder engines. He's also buying less-expensive models at the strongest clip in years.

"The trend, by no means of alarming proportions, has been growing since January," Ward's states. "Automakers label it a temporary phenomenon, but one that may promht a switch in advertising emphasis from 'price' to 'quality'."

Among possible reasons cited by the publication is the average $100 boost in 1956 car prices tightening of credit terms, and the absence of any major change in styling.

"At one low-priced Big Three producer, output of the highest-priced luxury line dipped from 48 per cent through January to 45 per cent in March," Ward's reported.

Accessories such as windshield washers are reportedly meeting with sales resistance. "Nor is the industry's styling sensation, the four-door hardtop sedan enjoying the expected runaway," Ward's pointed out.

Exceptions to the trend appear to be in items like station wagons, automatic transmission and power steering, the publication concluded.

Westinghouse Head Cites Strike Losses

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Gwilym A. Price, president and board chairman of Westinghouse Electric Corp., told stockholders yesterday that a 5-month strike cut 300 million dollars out of expected shipments.

Speaking at the 70th annual shareholders meeting, Price said: "Operating results in January and February indicate a loss for the first three months of 1956 of somewhat more than a dollar a share.

"I am sure you recognize that with production just getting underway at many of our plants it is impossible to forecast accurately what the results are likely to be in the second quarter."

The big electric appliance firm—14th largest corporation in the country—just recently reached agreement with two unions ending the longest major strike in the nation in 20 years.

Mysterious Blast Shakes Florida Coast Residents

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—A mysterious explosion over the Gulf of Mexico shook buildings and frightened residents along 70 miles of the Florida west coast last night.

The St. Petersburg Times said that bombs dropped by an Air Force plane created the disturbance.

The Times quoted a military spokesman as saying the pilot of the plane thought he was farther out to sea than he actually was on a practice mission.

The spokesman, who declined to be quoted by name, said the pilot reported that he discharged 10 bombs, two of which exploded.

Buildings were shaken along the coastline for about 70 miles and many residents said they were frightened by the "mysterious explosions" which were accompanied by bright flashes about 9 p.m.

Award Contracts on Lincoln Plant

Firms Launch Erection of Novi Manufacturing, Office Buildings

Construction contracts for the Lincoln Division's future general office building and manufacturing plant in Novi Township have been awarded to three firms, according to General Manager Ben D. Mills.

General contract for the one-story 1,300,000 square-foot manufacturing plant was awarded the W. E. Wood Construction Co. of Detroit, which is currently laying the foundation. Included in the contract is a quarter-mile oval test track.

Work on the three-story 200,000 square-foot general office building, which will employ the lift-slab method of construction, was started last month by the Long Construction Co. Long will also build a power plant to supply both the plant and office building.

Sugden and Sivier, Inc., of Detroit, began grading the 325-acre plant site in December and is expected to complete its work late this spring. More than 250,000 cubic yards of dirt have been moved to date.

Included in the facilities are four cafeterias, two dining rooms, an 800-line telephone switchboard and complete teletype and duplicating systems.

Completion of the plant and office building is scheduled for the spring of 1957.

Business Notes

The appointment of Chris J. Edmonds to the Buick public relations staff has been announced by company officials. Edmonds formerly was West Coast sports editor for the Associated Press.

The new appointee started his newspaper career as a reporter on the Milwaukee Sentinel in 1937 and has spent 12 years with the Associated Press.

Edward D. Lee and Robert Johnson, of Lee's Sales and Service, recently were graduated from a course on the professional care of gasoline engines at the Clinton Machine Co. Service School in Maquoketa, Iowa.

Both were awarded diplomas at ceremonies last month.

Emery B. Stolt, of 7225 Ormond Rd., Davisburg, will attend a four-day meeting of top-ranking state and district managers of the Modern Woodmen of America in Washington, D.C., next week.

Manager of the insurance firm's Davisburg district, Stolt recently was among 100 Modern Woodmen agents who were honored for record premium and new business production in 1955, according to company officials.

Frank Parker Rumored in Boss Godfrey's Doghouse

Arthur Attempts to Spike Stories

Insiders Report Singer Unhappy Over His Too 'Humble' Salary

By ATRA BAER

NEW YORK (INS) — Frank Parker was advised — by a Las Vegas columnist — he was "ready to go it alone." Rumored ripe for the famous Godfrey axe (because he allegedly agreed with the reporter) Frank returned to the red-head's show this week. To spike rumors, everything was played except "Hearts and Flowers."

"You look wonderful," Frank ventured to Mr. G. (who does look wonderful . . . tanned, trim and fitter than he has in months.)

"You look great," countered Mr. G. (Frank actually looked like he was walking on ping-pong balls).

After Frank finished singing his first song, Mr. G. said: "You sound like a million," and then Frank managed a genuine smile.

But this didn't stop Frank from catapulting out of the studio, giving the brush to fans and newsmen.

Over at Godfrey headquarters they're saying Frank has been "grumbling for months." Not a clash of temperaments. It's hinted Frank just felt his salary had too much humility.

HER OWN SHOW

Over at Sid Caesar's headquarters insiders (an "insider" is anybody who makes a round trip in a studio elevator) are saying:

The real reason for Nanette Fabray's exit is neither lack-of-love nor money. Nanette wants her own show.

The snub-nosed dynamo, whose show business experience is just as impressive as Sid's, has consistently denied she wanted a salary hike from her present $3,750 to $10,000 weekly.

Nanette has denied that she and Sid were swapping growls because she wasn't given enough songs to sing.

"She figures she's ready to go on her own," it's relayed.

Phil Silvers—bedded with bronchitis for the past three weeks—will give the nightclub business a try. Phil opens in Las Vegas' Riviera Club in May with a brand new act.

He'll bring Murray Gosfield (who plays Doberman) along "as sort of a crooked straight man." Nat Hiken, Phil's writer, says he won't write the club material, Phil will do it himself.

Doberman has become very snooty since the eighth-graders in a Philadelphia school elected him class mascot last week. "On account I am moving in intellectual coicles."

Jack Barry, who was ousted from "The Big Surprise," states firmly that being replaced by Mike Wallace was the "biggest surprise" in his life and not a pleasant one.

Jack ranks high in the current diffident school of emcee-ing, where instead of saying let's-give-the-little-girl-a-great-big-hand, proceedings are conducted on tiptoe.

Jack says he's looking over scripts with an eye to a new series.

Rod Steiger, who landed in Hollywood via New York TV, is showing little interest in TV offers. Rod played "Marty" in the original telecast and turned down the movie role because he didn't think the picture "was worth signing a contract for."

He good-naturedly admits this "was a slight error in judgment" and was the first to send Ernest Borgnine an Oscar-congratulations wire.

Farmer Writes Ike Threat Note

'I Was Distraught,' Says Wisconsinite to FBI Men When Arrested

CHICAGO (AP) — A Wisconsin farmer who wrote a threatening letter to President Eisenhower says he really had no intention of harming the President.

* * *

"You have a dangerous killer to deal with," said the four-page letter sent to the President by John Marek, 39, a farmer of Withsee, Wis. He was arrested by Secret Service agents yesterday on a charge of writing and sending a threatening letter to the President.

Secret Service agents said that in the letter, dated March 26, Marek blamed the chief executive for financial setbacks on his farm. Agents said his farm is completely paid for.

HATE TO DO IT

The letter read:

"I hate to threaten you due to your health. . . . My advice to you, Mr. Eisenhower, is you better not try again for president. . . . Before I'll die, I'll make sure the responsible party will go too."

Marek, appearing before U.S. Judge Bentley Pike, said:

"When I wrote the letter I thought it was my last days for living—I was distraught."

Marek was held in $500 bond for investigation by the federal grand jury. Agents said Marek, who left his wife and children on their farm Jan. 18, has been working as a lathe operator in Chicago.

At Least He Went

BOSTON (AP) — Sen. Charles W. Olson (R-Ashland) was intent not to let a bad case of laryngitis keep him from voting yesterday in the state Senate.

He carried two signs, one said "Yes" and the other "No."

There's Meat at Table —1st Time in 90 Years

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (AP) — The Battle Creek Sanitarium today reversed its 90-year-old policy of serving no meat.

Dr. James R. Jeffrey, medical superintendent, said roast beef and lamb, chicken and turkey will be added to the menu. He said this will be done to step up the protein content in the diet.

The vegetarian diet was championed by the late Dr. John Harvey Kellogg. He died here in 1943 at the age of 91.

Each of 46 navigable rivers and canals is carrying more than a million tons of freight a year.

UM Plans Remodeling of Old Ann Arbor School

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Remodeling and construction of an addition will begin this summer on the old Ann Arbor High School building, to be used by the University of Michigan.

The university assumes control of the building April 16 and will spent about $3,800,000 to renovate it for use as a social science and language building.
