Survives Huron Crash

BATTERED, BUT AFLOAT — The Great Lakes freighter Royalton displays the results of a collision with the Liberian freighter Monrovia which occurred yesterday in Lake Huron. The crash sent the Monrovia to the bottom of the lake. The Royalton was steaming toward Detroit today under its own power for repairs.

Seaway Dedicated Today as Symbol of Democracy

Joint Ceremony by Ike, Queen Opens Channel

Both Leaders Stress Monument to Friendship of Free Nations

MONTREAL (AP) — President Eisenhower and Queen Elizabeth II today dedicated the St. Lawrence Seaway to the common good of their nations and ceremonially opened the mighty inland ship channel with a cruise along its first 31 miles.

The President, flying in from Washington, proceeded with the Queen to the St. Lambert Lock, at Montreal's doorstep, the Seaway's Eastern Gate.

There they mounted a 35-foot-high dais for their dedicatory speeches.

The President, who got St. Lawrence Seaway legislation through Congress after other presidents had failed, called the project a technical and commercial triumph. But he added:

"It is, above all, a magnificent symbol to the entire world of the achievements possible to democratic nations peacefully working together for the common good."

Seated on the platform were Canadian officials and members of the President's Cabinet who flew to Canada from Washington. Among them was Lewis L. Strauss, serving out the last days of his interim appointment as secretary of commerce.

More than 20,000 people massed in a 30-acre area around the platform.

QUEEN SPEAKS

The Queen spoke first. She traced the centuries of planning and effort to build the Seaway, noted that it was created jointly by the United States and Canada, and said both nations will benefit from its operations. She concluded:

"More than all this, it is a magnificent monument to the enduring friendship of our two nations and to their partnership in the development of North America.

"That partnership is most agreeably symbolized, Mr. President, in the fact that you and I have joined together to perform this ceremony today."

Eisenhower touched on the note of world peace, saying:

"May this example never be forgotten by us, may it never be ignored by others. For in the reasonable resolution of the acute international problems of our time rests the single hope for world prosperity and happiness in peace, with justice for all."

It was a warm day. The skies were overcast by a haze hanging over the St. Lawrence River.

Courthouse Bid Award Upheld

Court Rules in Favor of County in Taking of Higher Offer

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors "acted lawfully, ethically, and with reasonableness" in awarding the main contract for construction of a new courthouse to other than the low bidder, three Circuit Court judges ruled today.

Judges Frank L. Doty, H. Russel Holland and William J. Beer dismissed a lawsuit which sought to force the county to give the $2 million contract to the low bidder, A. Z. Shmina & Sons.

Instead, the Board of Supervisors voted June 2, 70 to 4, to give the general construction contract for $2,116,740 to a Pontiac firm, J. A. Fredman, Inc.

Supervisors decided this might mean more employment for local workers.

In deciding today that the contract can be awarded to Fredman, the three judges said in a 7-page opinion:

"The stipulated facts show that the defendant Board considered several elements in making its determination. Under these circumstances the court cannot find that the action of the Board of Supervisors in accepting the bid of J. A. Fredman, Inc. was arbitrary, unjust, or in bad faith."

★ ★ ★

The suit against the supervisors was started earlier this month by Frank P. Scruggs Jr. of Royal Oak, a 35-year-old tool maker for Chrysler Corp. He sought an injunction blocking the county from awarding the contract to Fredman.

TOLD TO APPEAL

Upon learning of the court's decision, Scruggs' Detroit attorney, Dennis Boyle, said he had been instructed to appeal any adverse decision to the State Supreme Court.

If this is done, the county can expect another delay in construction of the new $3,000,000 courthouse.

Liberian Ship Sinks After Lake Collision

ALPENA (UPI) — A Liberian freighter sank in 140 feet of water in Lake Huron today about 11 hours after it collided with a Great Lakes grain carrier during a dense fog.

The Coast Guard cutter Mackinaw confirmed that its last radar trace of the 432-foot Monrovia came shortly after 1 a.m.

All 29 crewmen aboard the 6,674-ton Liberian ship abandoned the vessel shortly after it collided with the Canadian grain carrier Royalton and were picked up by another Great Lakes ship, the Norman W. Foy.

The Royalton entered the St. Clair River at Port Huron shortly before 10:30 a.m. and appeared to be heading for the Imperial Oil Co. dock at Sarnia, Ont.

The ship had a gash in its bow about six feet wide extending from the waterline up. One of its anchors was dragging alongside in the water.

The Foy was reported about one-half hour behind the Royalton and is expected to proceed to Detroit with the Monrovia crew.

It was the first major ship collision on inland waters since the St. Lawrence Seaway was opened in April to permit deep draft ocean

The Monrovia was bound for Chicago with a cargo of steel when it collided with the downbound Royalton, a 535-foot, 12,000-ton ship owned by the Scott Misener Steamship Co., Ltd., of Port Colbourne, Ont.

Capt. Stesanos Syokos of the Monrovia said his ship was struck broadside and a large hole was opened below the waterline.

After his crew had been picked up by the Foy, he returned to the Monrovia to determine if there was any chance to save the ruptured vessel.

SHIP DOOMED

But he decided the ship was doomed.

Syokos returned to the Foy and watched helplessly as the lake slowly swallowed the Monrovia.

The Mackinaw reached the crash scene within several hours and took up the radar watch.

The Royalton, en route from Duluth, Minn., to Montreal with a cargo of flax and barley, was damaged only slightly.

Coast Guardsmen said the lake was calm at the time of the crash, about 11 miles east of Thunder Bay Island.

But the thick fog had cut visability to almost zero. The fog had still failed to lift by 8 a.m. today and the Coast Guard ordered all ships to stay away from the crash area, fearing that other collisions might ocur if freighters entered the area out of curiosity.

The Monrovia, which was manned by an all-Greek crew, had crossed the Atlantic from Antwerp, Belgium, with its load of steel.

The ship was built at Glasgow, Scotland, in 1943 as a World War II "Liberty" ship and was named after the capital of Liberia. It is owned by Eastern Shipping Corp.

Both the Royalton and the Foy are expected to proceed to Detroit.

The grain carrier will undergo an inspection in Detroit before continuing on to Montreal.

State Raps City for Sewage Lag

Takes 1st Step to Force Pontiac Action to Halt Clinton Pollution

By PETE LOCHBILER

The first step to force Pontiac to build more sewage treatment facilities was taken yesterday by the State Water Resources Commission.

The Commission issued a citation condemning Pontiac's pollution of the Clinton River and readied an order aimed at halting it.

City officials were to be notified today to appear before the Commission in Lansing July 30 to show cause, if any, why the order should not be issued.

The possibility of state action brings Pontiac's sewage treatment problem to a head.

Concerned about Clinton River pollution for several years, the Water Resources Commission has held off official action while Pontiac voters balloted three times on bond issues to finance more facilities.

The bonds were turned down each time, in 1956, 1958 and again this spring.

A Water Resources Commission order, backed by Circuit Court, would allow the city to go ahead with its plans for $3,300,000 in improvements without going first to voters for approval of financing.

'TREATMENT INADEQUATE'

The citation said that Pontiac's existing plant "fails to provide adequate treatment for removal of solids and substances in the sewage and industrial waste from residences, industry and businesses."

Pollution of the Clinton has resulted, the citation said, "in conditions so offensive to sight and smell as to constitute a public nuisance."

Fish and plant life is being destroyed, the citation said.

The Commission is considering ordering the city to halt pollution by the end of 1961.

Under a tentative time table the city would be given until Dec. 1 to complete building plans and July 1, 1960, to award contracts for construction of more facilities.

These dates may be changed to speed up construction, said Loring F. Oeming, chief engineer for the Commission's pollution abatement division.

PLANS APPROVED

Pontiac's plans for additions to its existing plant and new facilities at another plant site already have been approved by the State Health Department as adequate to curb pollution sufficiently.

"This step in the time table could be skipped," said Oeming.

If the city defaulted on a state order, the Water Resources Commission is empowered to seek a legal order from Circuit Court.

The citation was based on a series of tests which the Commission took on the river last year and those the State Health Department took at the treatment plant.

Queen Upsets Montreal by Leaving Dance Early

By JOE HAAS

MONTREAL, Que. — This great Canadian metropolis, where if you don't speak two languages, you only get half way, today is recovering from the morning after the night before.

And it was such a hectic day and night that Elizabeth is censured for leaving last night's ball after only one dance. Most of the 2,000 of the city's leaders, not only in politics, but in general business lines, who were at the ball, scarcely got a look at her.

Today they call it both snubbing and snobbing.

Quite appropriately held at the Queen Elizabeth Hotel, the guests, when they found that she had deserted them, put on a near mob scene, and Canadian stock went up as Britain's stock went down.

The only explanation from her immediate party was that the Queen was tired, and in this she shared the feeling of most everybody else in Montreal after a day and night in her honor. One local paper hints that it was a waste of ticker tape.

Her total dancing time was between four and five minutes when she bucked the crowd. And Phil has been telling us she likes to dance.

In this city that has more French speaking people than any other city in the entire world, excepting Paris, many of its residents are not crazy about royalty. Its glamor rubs off when they consider many of the things that have happened since Victoria was on the throne.

Under drab skies today the dominion trip goes on. Everywhere there is a change in wording of the title, brought about by the change in sentiment. Formerly it was our king or queen. Now it is usually the instead of our.

A local Pontiac agency displays a large banner: "The Queen and the Car." The royal party cannot escape the prevalence of the sentiment that this greatest city of the Queen's greatest dominion feels that it no longer is a colony, and wonders what another few years will bring.

BOARDS SHIP

Today I go aboard the "Forrest Sherman," a destroyer, and the flag-ship of the United States fleet here to accompany the royal party during the next few days. It is under the command of Capt. Hauck, and increases one's pride at being a resident of the greatest nation on earth.

I met the George A. Dondero family soon after arriving. Dondero, a former U. S. congressman from Royal Oak, was one of the seaway's foremost backers.

Gov. Long Free to Resume Post

Ordered Released From Mental Institution and Hospital Heads Fired

COVINGTON, La. (AP) — A state court today ordered Gov. Earl K. Long of Louisiana released from the Southwest Louisiana Mental Hospital at Mandeville.

Long now is free to resume the office of governor.

Judge Robert Jones of the 22nd Judicial District signed a dismissal of the order committing Long to the Hospital at 10:44 a.m. (CST).

Jones took the action after Joe Arthur Sims, ranrod of the 63-year-old governor's 11-man legal staff, told the court the State Hospital Board dismissed officials opposing Long's release.

The Board met in an emergency session on Long's order before the hearing and voted the removal of State Hospital Director Jesse Bankston and Dr. Charles Belcher, acting superintendent at the hospital.

The ruling ended 27 days of confinement for the governor in two mental hospitals. His family had him flown to Galveston, Tex., on May 30 — much against the governor's will — after he profanely laced political foes during legislative hearings.

Long zipped away from the schoolhouse where the hearing was held less than three minutes after Jones freed him.

Hooper Slaying Mystery Remains

Pete Mahoney Dies Silent

Pete Mahoney, a small-time Detroit gambler once convicted of conspiring to murder State Sen. Warren G. Hooper, died today in University Hospital, Ann Arbor, taking to the grave with him any knowledge he had of the still unsolved 1945 slaying.

There was no indication the one-time blind pig operator made any statement in the 14-year-old slaying before he died of a heart ailment.

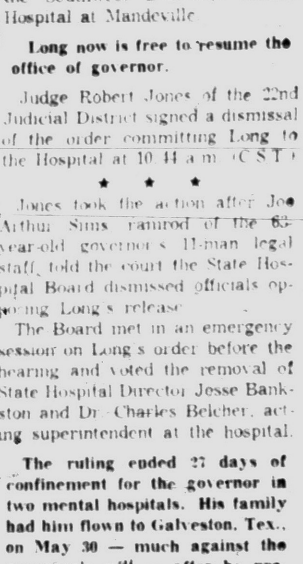

Mahoney, 57, was serving 25 to 50 years for the 1944 holdup of the Aristocrat Club, a Pontiac gambling place.

The one-time Purple Gang member suffered a heart attack at Southern Michigan Prison last week where he worked as a trusty gardener. He was transferred to University Hospital Monday. Death came at 9:30 a.m.

Mahoney had a long record of petty gambling convictions but was a minor figure in Detroit's underworld until he was swept up in the fantastic web surrounding the Hooper slaying.

The Albion Republican lawmaker was a key witness in a graft conspiracy case brought by the Sigler-Carr Grand Jury. According to Sigler who was elected governor after his anti-graft crusade, Hooper would have given damaging testimony.

PETE MAHONEY

But before he could talk Hooper was shot to death and left in his burning car on a lonely stretch of road near Albion Jan. 11, 1945.

★ ★ ★

Without Hooper, Sigler's case collapsed.

Hoffa on Stand Today

Thompson Clams Up at U.S. Probe

Jack D. Thompson, awaiting sentence for arson in the sensational Frank Kierdorf torch death last summer, was called "one of the most notorious leaders" to come before the Senate Rackets Committee in Washington.

Thompson was called this by Robert F. Kennedy, committee counsel, as the convicted Flint Teamsters business agent appeared before the committee yesterday.

He declined to give any testimony other than his name and home city.

Teamsters boss James R. Hoffa takes the stand today for the 13th time in the 2½ years of the committee's investigation.

Hoffa today was expected to be asked why he hasn't tried to clean up his scandal-riddled union — the largest in the United States.

Yesterday Kennedy reviewed Thompson's criminal record and his reported associations with George Kamenow, Detroit labor relations man, termed by Kennedy as a "notorious fixer."

Thompson was called as a witness as the committee renewed hearings to show that, despite Hoffa's announced house-cleaning of his union, men with criminal records and with shady associations still are in office in the Teamsters.

Kennedy said Thompson, agent with Flint Local 332, had "no interest in the employes at all — just in shaking down the employers."

In his rundown on Thompson's record, Kennedy said the union official, who once served time for armed robbery, was convicted April 3 of involvement in arson against a Flint dry cleaning establishment. Kierdorf, a fellow business agent with Local 332, was burned fatally in the Aug. 3 fire.

Kennedy pointed out to committee members that the 42-year-old Thompson also had a record of convictions for auto theft, breaking and entering, and the armed robbery prison term.

Although police have never discovered the actual motive behind the burning of the Latreille Dry Cleaners, the most often mentioned was that Thompson and Kierdorf were paid by a competitor of Latreille to get rid of the smaller firm because Latreille was charging cut rate prices.

In exchange, it was mentioned by some investigators, the competitor would allow Local 332 to organize his employes.

Rackets Committee Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) got one of many Fifth Amendment pleas from Thompson yesterday when he asked:

"Didn't it ever bother your conscience any that you committed that arson and killed your pal?"

Answered Thompson: "I decline

Car Flips Into Field Rounding Curve; Driver in Pontiac General

Thomas E. Wilson, 27, of 137 N. Astor St., was injured fatally early this morning when the car in which he was riding ran off a curve on Kennett road near Dixie highway in Waterford Township.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital at 2:50 a.m.

Wilson was a passenger in his own car which was driven by Betty Jean Harris, 24, of 137 N. Astor St. She was admitted at Pontiac General with leg and knee lacerations, and is reported in satisfactory condition.

The accident occurred one-tenth of a mile outside the Pontiac city limits.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac State Police troopers said Miss Harris apparently was driving at a high rate of speed and failed to negotiate a curve. The car flipped over in a field three times and came to rest upright on the side of Dixie highway.

Wilson fell onto the road from the car as the vehicle came to rest. Troopers said he suffered a broken neck, crushed chest and skull fracture.

★ ★ ★

Thompson faces a maximum term of 10 years in prison when he is scheduled to appear before Genesee Circuit Judge Stephen J. Roth Monday for sentencing. Twice Judge Roth has turned down his requests for new trials.

The plump 300-pound Thompson has indicated he might appeal his conviction.

Kierdorf died last Aug. 7 in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital where he supposedly was taken by Thompson and another unidentified man in an attempt to throw police off their trail and connection with the Flint arson.

Thompson has said he had just returned home to Flint from his cottage in Gaylord when the La Treille fire was set.

Storms Rake Heat-Stricken Mid-Continent

By The Associated Press

Thunderstorms broke out early today in muggy heat covering widespread sections of the mid-continent.

Torrential rains swept Chicago flooding scores of underpasses. Rainfall totaled up to 4.58 inches in six hours. Lightning set fire to a church and a factory building and damaged an apartment building.

Thunderstorms also hit Jacksonville, Fla., and parts of Texas Thursday.

2nd Tot Dies From Burns in Fire at Home

Two-year-old Carol Styber of Madison Heights followed her nine-month-old brother, Frank, in death yesterday as a result of a fire which swept part of their home Wednesday.

She died at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, from third degree burns over 75 per cent of her body. Her baby brother died of burns there the day before.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Styber of 2559 Brettonwood Rd., they had been trapped in the bedroom of their home by a fire which broke out in the kitchen.

The mother was sleeping in another room at the time. Firemen carried the children from the burning house.

Solons Adjourn for Weekend

State Stalemate May Last Into New Fiscal Year, Starting in 5 Days

LANSING (AP) — The Legislature adjourned for the weekend at 12:21 p.m. today after the Senate shrugged off a plea to hold an extraordinary Saturday morning meeting.

Sen. Haskell L. Nichols (R-Jackson) urged lawmakers to stay at their desks tomorrow to struggle with the state's mounting money and tax troubles but got no support.

Before adjournment, the Senate Appropriations Committee recommended against going along with a move approved by the House for a $2,000 a year pay increase for lawmakers.

Legislative tax negotiations collapsed yesterday, virtually wiping out hopes for an end to the tax stalemate before the next fiscal year begins—in just five days.

Party leaders disrupted the Legislature's regular business session for two hours of conferences and came out with nothing.

Appropriations measures moved along to make money available for the 1959-60 fiscal year but methods of providing needed new revenues did not develop.

The House did turn down a conference committee report on extension of temporary unemployment compensation benefits. The benefits would go to about 28,500 jobless persons and the proposal has gone to conference twice.

Legislative leaders eyed the House Taxation Committee as the source of hope for settling the question which has stymied lawmakers for five months — what kind of new taxes would Michigan citizens pay.

Party differences centered on changes in the business activities tax.

Democrats apparently have moved toward the GOP stand far enough to accept a use (sales) tax increase but Republicans refuse to give Democrats what they want in the BAT.

"Democrats want to make the BAT a corporate profits tax," said GOP House Floor Leader Allison Green. "We can't go for that."

So the stalemate appeared as solid as ever despite yesterday's hurry-up huddles and high hopes.

The House made only slight changes last night when it gave preliminary approval to Senate budget bills.

★ ★ ★

The biggest boost came in the higher education bill, which came to the House with slightly less than 101 million dollars and came out of last night's session with slightly more than 101 million dollars. Some $155,000 of the increase was for community and junior colleges.

Public health, corrections and mental health were left virtually unchanged. Democrats nearly succeeded in adding $400,000 to the health budget for a polio vaccine program.

Rep. Rollo Conlin (R-Tipton), chairman of the House Taxation Committee, said he was "sick and tired" of failures of party leaders to come to a meeting of the minds on taxes.

He said he would try to get a tax package reported from his committee next week.

Main feature of the package was a 2 per cent flat rate income tax, repeal of the BAT and intangibles tax and virtual repeal of the business franchise tax.

The Day in Birmingham

Bloomfield Man Chosen to Head College Advisors

BIRMINGHAM—Elected Monday to the chairmanship of the Lay Advisory Board of Mercy College, Detroit, was Earl G. Ward, of 650 Lone Pine Rd., Bloomfield Hills, a vice president of the Ford Motor Co.

Ward succeeds Dr. Monroe Sullivan of Grand Rapids in the post.

Other local members of the Mercy College Lay Advisory Board are Louis J. Colombo of Lahser road, Bloomfield Hills; Jerome Geisler of 5630 Wing Lake Rd., Birmingham, and Harold D. Sweeney of 460 Linden Rd., Birmingham.

Riflery instruction, under the auspices of Birmingham Recreation Dept., is scheduled to begin July 1 and to continue throughout the month.

Instruction will be at the Police Rifle Range on Cranbrook road, south of Lincoln road, from 9 a.m. till noon on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

Participants will be required to present a permission slip signed by their parents. A fee of 15 cents will be charged for each 10 rounds of ammunition.

Court Upholds Award of Courthouse Bid

sonableness in electing to accept the bid of J. A. Fredman, Inc.," the judges said.

Scruggs contended the county "added to the tax burden of the county" by awarding the contract to the Pontiac firm, whose adjusted base bid was $2,305 more than Shmina's, according to county figures.

★ ★ ★

Judge Doty said he and the other two judges based their ruling on a similar case — Bolt versus Muskegon Board of County Road Commissioners — where it was decided "the exercise of discretion to accept or reject bids will only be controlled by the courts when necessary to prevent fraud, injustice, or the violation of a trust."

Judge Doty pointed out that Scruggs' lawsuit does not allege fraud.

NO LAW

Besides, the judge added, there is no law requiring that contracts be given to the lowest bidder. This was agreed to by Boyle when he argued Scruggs' case before the three judges June 15.

★ ★ ★

"The court supports the defendant's (Board of Supervisors) contention that the county had the right to let the contract to a bidder who was not the lowest bidder if in its judgment it would be to the best interests of the county."

Both Shmina and Fredman, who had built the Pontiac City Hall and Public Safety Building, agreed to hire Pontiac area workers.

★ ★ ★

Further, Boyle contended in his arguments that the difference between the Shmina and Fredman contracts would come to $18,844 considering two substitutes of building materials, instead of the $2,305 county officials cited.

Drop Assault Charges Against 6 of 7 Youths

Assault charges against six of seven Birmingham area youths accused of beating a Clawson truck driver because he blew his horn at their car were dismissed yesterday by visiting Justice of the Peace James Renfrew.

However, the seventh youth, Timothy A. David, 18, of 591 Woodway Ct., Bloomfield Township, wasn't quite as fortunate.

Justice Renfrew of Huntington Woods, presiding on the case in Bloomfield Hills Justice Court, found David guilty of a reduced charge of simple assault and ordered him to spend 10 days in the Oakland County Jail and pay a $100 fine and $50 court costs. He gave David's attorney a 10-day stay of sentence pending a possible appeal to Circuit Court.

Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor said he is "considering issuing new warrants" against the six released youths.

In explaining why he granted a motion of Pontiac attorney Bernard Girard to dismiss the charges of aggravated assault against the six others, Justice Renfrew said: "He (the truck driver) could not state of his own personal knowledge that the other six boys were involved.

"This fact must be made on personal knowledge and not on information or belief of others, such as police officers," Renfrew added.

The truck driver, Harold C. Puterbaugh, 32, of 358 Chocolay St., allegedly was attacked by the seven youths March 12 after he tooted his horn at their car when it didn't proceed immediately after a traffic light changed at the intersection at West Long Lake and Lahser roads in Bloomfield Township.

Taking the stand before Justice Renfrew in a preliminary examination in Bloomfield Hills Thursday, Puterbaugh could only identify David as the one who hit him in the face with his fist.

According to Anthony Renne, assistant prosecutor, the truck driver said he then became dazed from the blow and could not identify the other six although he could hear them talking.

The six were Douglas H. Danziger, 17, of 6325 Sheringham Rd., Robert L. Barrett, 17, of 6014 Snowshoe Circle, both of Bloomfield Township; Robert E. Hills, 17, of 1082 Stratford Ln., John W. Paige Jr., 18, of 4300 Derry Rd., both of Bloomfield Hills, and Thomas L. Faunce, 18, of 2335 N. Pine Center Dr. and John F. Jordan, 17, of 3184 Middle Belt Rd., both of West Bloomfield Township.

Renne said he had six other witnesses ready to be called, besides Puterbaugh, who reportedly could have identified the six as participating in the beating which caused Puterbaugh to suffer pneumonia and be in the hospital for a week.

However, Renfrew granted Girard's motion before Renne could call these additional witnesses.

Bloomfield Hills Justice of the Peace Alva J. Richardson had disqualified himself from the case after some of the youghts had admitted the beating while discussing the case with him, he said. Richardson asked Renfrew to take the case.

The beating took place, Puterbaugh told police, at the intersection of Woodward avenue and West Long Lake road where the youths' car, driven by Faunce, had crept slowly. When he attempted to pass Faunce would speed up, the trucker said.

At the intersection David jumped from the car and attempted to throw a beer bottle at the truck. The beating followed after he jumped from the truck with a hammer to defend himself, Puterbaugh told police.

Ike, Queen Dedicate St. Lawrence Seaway

President delivered "a single halting sentence of my "western prairie brand" of French. It was a gesture to the many French-speaking residents of Canada.

His sentence, delivered haltingly and with a grin, was:

"I am very happy to again find myself among you in Canada where, a year ago, I made such a pleasant trip."

A chuckle ran through the crowd and there was a spatter of applause.

American and Canadian Seaway authorities presented books encased in silver to the President and the Queen. Lewis Castle, president of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp., made the presentation to Eisenhower. The Queen received her book from B. J. Roberts, president of the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority.

The books contain the names of 59,000 people employed in building the inland waterway.

★ ★ ★

A U. S. Navy band played "God Save the Queen." The American National Anthem was played by a Canadian military band. A youthful choir sang "O Canada" in French.

This completed the ceremony on the high platform.

The reverberating bugling from 20 trumpets sounded a salute as the Queen and Eisenhower descended to automobiles.

Eisenhower and the Queen rode in one car, Mrs. Eisenhower and Prince Philip in another, Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker and his wife were in a third.

Miniature rockets released colored flags of the United States, Canada, Britain and Quebec Province. The flags, attached to parachutes, floated down around the Queen's sleek yacht Britainnia.

Eisenhower and Elizabeth were piped aboard the yacht. A few minutes later they appeared on an upper deck along with Mrs. Eisenhower and Philip. With smiles and waves, they answered cheering and applause from the shore.

★ ★ ★

Eisenhower, who gave up the U. S. presidential yacht Williamsburg, calling it a luxury, showed interest as the Queen pointed to some of the Britannia's features as they proceeded to the bridge.

Then the yacht cast off. Mrs. Eisenhower held her hat against the breeze. Cheers arose from a contingent of war veterans ashore.

The Britannia proceeded through a ceremonial gate and the Seaway was officially open.

Deputy State Treasurer to Be at Dem Meeting

To meet Thomas Cleary, newly appointed deputy state treasurer for Michigan, the Pontiac Democratic Club will meet at 2 p.m. Sunday in the UAW local hall, 821 Baldwin Ave.

Cleary is a native of Michigan's Upper Peninsula and was active in the insurance business before accepting his new position with State Treasurer Sanford A. Brown.

County Yields to Pressure From Mexico

Schedule Inquest Into Killing by Officer

An inquest into the killing of a Mexican citizen who was fatally shot by a Pontiac police detective Monday will be held in about two weeks, Oakland County Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor said today.

★ ★ ★

The inquest has been asked by the Mexican government.

The Oakland County prosecutor's office this morning received a formal request for an investigation from Alberto Becerra, Mexican consul in Detroit.

Becerra said he had been ordered to ask for an inquest by his country's Ministry of Foreign Relations.

He was in Pontiac Tuesday afternoon to conduct a preliminary investigation and reported his findings back to Mexico City.

"The shooting of this man has aroused the people of Mexico," Becerra said, "and your police are being called murderers in the Mexican press."

Becerra said that the Mexican community in Pontiac was also up in arms over the case.

Although a Mexican national, the dead man had lived in Pontiac for some 20 years. He was Manuel Gomez, 52, a worker at the Rotary Electric Co.

"I see no reason for holding an inquest," Taylor said. "We hold them sometimes to clear the air but there's not one iota of a reason for it here."

Taylor said both Becerra and the Mexican Consulate's legal advisor seemed satisfied Tuesday that Gomez' killing was in self defense by a police officer acting in line of duty.

★ ★ ★

Any decision on an inquest will not be made, however, until the formal request is studied, Taylor said.

Gomez was killed by Det. August P. Martinez shortly before noon Monday after he apparently went berserk.

He was swinging a butcher knife at Martinez and Patrolman Gerald Navarre. After tear gas was flung into Gomez' terrace apartment at 38 W. Wilson Ave., the officers donned gas masks and broke into a second floor room in which Gomez had barricaded himself.

Martinez shot Gomez through the heart after the Mexican refused to heed his pleas in Spanish to stop swinging a 14-inch butcher knife.

Taylor said that Martinez had suggested an inquest immediately after the shooting and that he told the officer it wasn't necessary.

"Although I am no expert," Becerra said, "there are many questionable aspects to this case and an inquest should be held to clear the air."

Among the "questionable aspects" he indicated, was the sending of the officers into the building immediately after tear gas had been flung in.

Becerra said that 24 hours later when he visited the building he had to go outside twice because his eyes were smarting from the effects of the tear gas.

"If it were that bad a day later, what was it like a few minutes after the gas was thrown in?" Becerra asked.

★ ★ ★

Neighbors told him Gomez was at times completely disabled and unable to hold heavy objects in his hands, Becerra said.

"Answers to these questions should be given," he declared.

★ ★ ★

Both Martinez and Navarre have been commended by Taylor and Public Safety Director George D. Eastman.

Eastman said he would have no further comment on the case pending the inquest. The Gomez shooting was reviewed at three meetings of police command officers.

Senate OKs Hike in Debt Ceiling

Increase Lifts Lid to Peacetime Record of $295 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fast Senate action has authorized a seven billion-dollar increase in the national debt to a peacetime record of 295 billion dollars.

With equal speed, the Treasury announced less than an hour later it would take advantage of the new debt ceiling by borrowing five billion dollars in new cash early next month.

★ ★ ★

Usual Senate procedure was pushed aside for the House-passed measure after Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, Democratic leader, said the Treasury was holding up action on a big refinancing operation until the new ceiling was set.

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) voiced the only opposition vote heard. He said the government ought to practice more economy.

If Congress had not acted, the present temporary 288 billion dollar limit would have dropped to the permanent 285 billion limit next Tuesday, the start of the new fiscal year.

The debt varies from day to day and now ranges around 286 billion dollars.

The Treasury had asked the increase to provide more leeway in government financing. Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson told the Senate Finance Committee that many billions of federal securities must be refunded next year and the Treasury could go into the market under more favorable conditions if it had some extra funds.

★ ★ ★

Short-term securities to be auctioned next month will be three billion dollars of 2-8-day tax anticipation bills to be auctioned on July 1 and dated July 8 to mature March 22, 1960, and two billion dollars of one-year bills to be auctioned on July 8, dated July 15, to mature July 15, 1960.

★ ★ ★

The Treasury, in auctioning the securities, will permit the money market to determine the interest rates on the new issues. Investors will bid for the bills at less than face value, with the discount representing the effective yields.

Thief Likes Plants

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—Police said today they're looking for a garden variety thief. He stole a potted fern and four philodendron plants from a florist.

Pete Mahoney Dies With Slaying Secret

allegations of secret payoffs, anonymous tips and wide publicity.

★ ★ ★

It wound up with Mahoney, Harry and Sam Fleisher and Mike Selik being convicted of conspiring to murder Hooper and sentenced to 2½ to 5 years, the maximum sentence for conspiracy. Mahoney appealed to the state supreme court and the conviction was thrown out.

★ ★ ★

But Sigler continued his probe and uncovered a 1944 robbery of a Pontiac gambling house—the Aristocrat Club. Harry Fleisher, Selik, Mahoney and two other small-time hoodlums were prosecuted successfully and the five were convicted and sentenced to long terms.

Mahoney repeatedly protested his innocence of both the Hooper slaying and the Aristocrat Club holdup. Repeated efforts were made by him and for him to get his sentence reduced.

Mahoney was described by prison officials as a model prisoner in the 11 years he was behind bars. He worked as a gardener. In 1954 he was made a trusty in the forestry division. He landscaped the grounds of a number of prison camps.

C. of C. Head Attending Institute at MSU

John H. Hurlinger, manager of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, is attending the 36th annual National Institute for Organization Management which Michigan State University is conducting in East Lansing through tomorrow.

More than 400 Chamber of Commerce managers and trade association executives are in the institute, designed to increase professional competency to provide better service to organizations and communities.

Unpleasant Smells Pleasant in Beef

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Food connoisseurs may be surprised to learn that hydrogen sulfide—source of the classic "rotten egg" smell—and ammonia are among compounds present in the aroma of cooked beef.

This was discovered by biochemistry Professor Frank M. Strong and graduate student Mao Yueh of the University of Wisconsin.

The two normally unpleasant odors were found in exceedingly small amounts in the beef aroma.

Non-Teachers Miffed at Picnic Cut

Given $47,488 Pay Hikes

The Pontiac Board of Education last night awarded $47,488 in pay raises for the school system's administrators, secretaries, maintenance and operational employes.

★ ★ ★

This is considerably lower than the separate requests of the group, which totaled $133,678.

The administrators had asked for $48,383 in wage increases and will receive $19,542; secretaries wanted $7,930 and got $5,722; maintenance workers requested $23,757 and were given $5,959; operational employes sought $53,608 and were awarded $16,265.

★ ★ ★

That the Board voted only $22,224 in pay raises for the operational and maintenance people, instead of the $77,365 they had asked for, didn't bother the workers as much as losing half of their picnic day.

RECEIVED FULL DAY

For more than 30 years the men had been receiving a full day off with pay to hold their annual picnic.

At the recommendation of Dr. Otto C. Hufziger, assistant superintendent of schools, the Board voted to cut the time down to a "half holiday."

Donald Dowis, president of operational workers' Local 719, comprised of engineers, firemen, custodians, bus drivers, stockroom clerks and matrons, protested the move.

He was supported by Donald B. Richards, business representative of the United Skilled Maintenance Trades Employes, made up of electricians, plumbers, masons, carpenters, mechanics, painters and groundsmen.

"The Board has always treated us fairly," said Dowis, "but I think Huntziger was ill-advised on this. Of all our negotiations with the Board, this is the first time we've left disatisfied."

Dowis told the Board that other union-management relationships rely on contracts which provide for a set number of paid holidays per year.

DON'T WORK THAT WAY

"We don't work that way on these things, and don't want to," Dowis said.

"The picnic has been going on for more than 30 years and we've been receiving it as a sort of gift, or compensation. Up till now there has been good feeling about it.

"We work Sundays and many holidays for which we don't get the benefit of overtime. For the past two years, Memorial Day has fallen on a Saturday and we've lost out.

Dowis said his union next year might seek to establish a more concrete type of agreement by writing into the contract a set number of paid holidays per year.

Hufziger's recommendation stated:

"If a full day is continued, the Board of Education contribution, which is increasing each year, approximates $4,000 in wages and gives nearly 200 employes a full day off.

★ ★ ★

"A picnic is a desirable activity for school district personnel, enabling their families to get together at least once a year in a social atmosphere.

"However, there is no reason to believe that this same thing can't be accomplished in one-half day."

The one dissenting vote in favor of keeping the full day came from the Rev. J. Alen Parker.

Vending Machines Face Busy Future

NEW YORK (UPI)—Vending machines will some day cook full-course meals in a matter of seconds and put "automatic groceries" at the housewife's door.

★ ★ ★

So says Robert Z. Greene, chairman of the executive committee of the Automatic Canteen Co. of America and president of the Rowe Manufacturing Co.

★ ★ ★

Greene sees the day when complete meals, kept fresh in vending machines by refrigeration or in sealed containers, may actually be cooked electronically in a few moments after the coin is inserted.

★ ★ ★

He also predicts "automatic groceries" in multiple dwellings which will sell all kinds of fresh and frozen foods right at the housewife's door.

$10,000 Blown About, All but $245 Recovered

MARISSA, Ill. (AP)—When $10,000 in currency was scattered from a broken mail pouch, residents helped recover it for the Marissa Post Office.

★ ★ ★

All but $245 was found. The mail sack split when it was dropped at the depot from a passing train. The bills were carried away by a stiff breeze.

Gardener Beats Weeds

GORDONSVILLE, Va. (AP)—Richard Davis says he has found the solution to the weed problem in his vegetable garden. He covers the garden with plastic with a tiny hole cut for each vegetable. Putting it between rows as do commercial growers leaves too much space for weeds, Davis says. Furthermore, his method causes his vegetables to be well watered.

'No Guts,' Says Supporter of Opponents

Primary Bill Still Has a Chance

Oakland County Sen. L. Harvey Lodge cried "no guts" to opponents of the closed primary bill, which was still alive and kicking on the Senate calendar today following a near miss by opponents in an attempt to shoot it down.

But there were signs that minority Democrats, with the help of a few Republicans, might succeed when the bill comes up again Tuesday where they failed yesterday.

Under the bill, Michigan would return to a system abandoned in 1943 requiring a voter to identify his political party affiliation in order to receive a primary ballot. A record would be made of it.

A primary voter now gets a ballot printed with Republican candidates on one side and Democratic candidates on the other. In the privacy of the polling booth, he decides which side to mark.

"No guts," said Lodge (R-Drayton Plains) of opponents.

"A tragic step backward," said Sen. Haskell L. Nichols (R-Jackson).

"Like burning down the house to kill a few rats," said Sen. Charles S. Blondy (D-Detroit).

It was Blondy who moved to return the bill to a committee death. His motion drew 15 favorable votes to 16 against.

Lodge, elections committee chairman, argued that a primary is purely a party matter and that party members should be willing to stand up and be counted.

Moreover, he said, the way it is now Democrats can invade a Republican primary and help nominate the weak candidates, or vice versa, tending to break down the two-party system.

Blondy declared that if a worker's party were known to his employer, he might be fired. Nichols said the bill would be a blow to laboring men and state government employes.

Lodge scoffed at the idea of intimidation and reprisals.

As to Lodge's "guts" argument, Blondy retorted:

"It's the same as jumping off a 10-story building to prove you've got guts. This would wreck the Democratic process."

Jury Flubs Case, Defendant Freed

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Erlester Westmoreland was on trial in circuit court on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without consent of the owner.

The state, trying for a conviction under Missouri's Habitual Criminal Act which would have made a life sentence mandatory, described his five previous felony convictions.

But the jury, misunderstanding instructions of Judge John C. Casey, acquitted him of the motor vehicle charge and convicted him of the five crimes of which he previously had been convicted.

Westmoreland went free.

Navajo Sentence Evades Translation

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP) — The Flagstaff Daily Sun wanted a translation for one sentence written in the native Navajo language.

The newspaper sent the sentence to its Washington reporter. He took the sentence to the Bureau of Indian Affairs. There were no Navajos employed there.

Nor were there any Navajos working in any of the eight offices of the New Mexico and Arizona Congressional delegations. Finally, the reporter found a Navajo in the U.S. Health Service. He couldn't speak Navajo.

ORCHARD LAKE — Mrs. Floyd N. (Minnie) Fairman, 49, of 5808 Lakeview St., died unexpectedly Thursday afternoon at Pontiac General Hospital after an illness of two weeks.

Surviving besides her husband are two daughters, Mrs. Alvia (Betty) Harrison of Pontiac and Joanne Fairman at home; four grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Inza C. Constantineau of Ontario, Can., and two brothers, Lewis B. and Carl P. Worden, both of Walled Lake.

The rosary will be said at 8 p.m. Saturday and Prayer service will be held at 11 a.m. Sunday at Pursley Funeral Home. Mrs. Fairman's body will then be taken to the Ford Elba Cemetery in Elsie, where graveside service will be held.

Deaths Elsewhere

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP)—J. L. McElhany, 79, head of the Seventh Day Adventists Church from 1936 to 1950, died Thursday. He had been general field secretary of the organization since 1950.

★ ★ ★

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ray Johnson, about 74, chief of California Hot Springs Indians, died Thursday. He was in Washington with a group picketing government buildings in protest against alleged wrongs to Indians.

★ ★ ★

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Dr. Thomas Judson Parsons, 89, former Indiana Baptist executive and editor, died Thursday. He was minister and executive secretary of Indiana Baptist conventions for 25 years before coming to Miami from Indianapolis 11 years ago.

★ ★ ★

DETROIT (AP) — Charles A. Kanter, 71, a director and former president of the Manufacturer's National Bank of Detroit, died last night of a prolonged illness. He lived in suburban Grosse Pointe. Kanter began his banking career as a messenger for the old German American Bank, of which his father, Henry L. Kanter, was a cofounder. In 1933 he became a senior officer in the Manufacturer's National Bank, of which he became president in 1943. He retired in 1956, when he then was board chairman.

Spiders Do Hear, With Their Legs

ITHACA, N. Y. (AP)—Spiders hear with their legs, Cornell University researcher Charles Walcott reports.

While studying the effects of drugs on spiders' reactions, Walcott discovered that the number of nerve impulses in a spider's leg increased when Cornell's chimes rang.

The end of a spider's leg acts as an eardrum, Walcott determined. Each leg has about 10 small slits tuned to different sound frequencies.

Small Car Advantage

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP)—G. D. Mickelwait called police to report an automobile overturned in front of his home. Before he could leave his house to investigate, the two occupants of the small foreign made auto lifted the car back on its wheels and drove off.

Will Appear in Royal Oak

Lions to HEAR Stripper

ROYAL OAK (AP) — Strip teaser Libby Jones says she has just the thing to pep up attendance at the local Lions club.

She's going to give a talk about her specialty.

Club officials came up with the idea of making Miss Jones a guest speaker as a "summer stimulant" for sagging attendance.

"They'll like what I have to say," cooed the willowy blonde who plans to talk about burlesque, which she says "is as American as the cowboy."

Miss Jones, who measures 36-26-36, says she will discuss burlesque's sociological and psychological aspects when she steps on the speaker's stand at next Monday's weekly Lions luncheon meeting.

The burlesque star, who claims to have a degree in English literature from the University of Washington, is serious about her specialty.

"I want to entertain—not just take my clothes off."

And, although she says she earns up to $1,250 a week as a stripper, Miss Jones will speak to the Lions free of charge.

Commented William Laltenen, club official who asked her to speak:

"We have fellows here with a variety of tastes. Some like fishing, golf and skiing. We try to select the speakers with appeal to most interests."

Snag Threatens Sewer Projects

But Construction Moves Ahead Despite Warning From Detroit

Construction of the Farmington and Evergreen sanitary sewers moved ahead today despite a threat from the city of Detroit that it won't take additional sewage unless construction of a storm sewer along Eight Mile road is begun.

At the same time, Daniel W. Berry, Oakland County drain commissioner, says work on the 17 miles of storm sewer can't begin because the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission hasn't acted on a petition to issue bonds to finance it. The petition had been pending since Nov. 14, 1958, Berry said.

In a letter to Glenn C. Richards, Detroit Department of Public Works commissioner, Barry said the Finance Commission is "seemingly more concerned with the garnering of votes than to assist in the correction of a serious and abiding problem of great local concern."

William N. Hettiger, executive secretary of the Commission, said the problem rests with the Attorney General's Office. Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams was reported out of town.

★ ★ ★

However, Hettiger said the matter will be discussed at the Commission's Tuesday meeting in order "to try and get a very early determination." He admitted the seven-month delay "is longer than usual."

CONSTRUCTION PROGRESSES

Meanwhile, Harold K. Schone, director of the Oakland DPW, said 12 crews were moving ahead with construction of the two sanitary sewers. He added that they are not dependent on construction of the Eight Mile storm drain, which eventually will stretch between Northwestern Highway and the Rouge River.

However, the city of Detroit fits into future use of the 12 million dollar Farmington and Evergreen sewers in that sewage from both of them will dump into a Detroit sewage disposal plant.

"We have a good and binding contract for this use, and today we just mailed Detroit our first check for $167,316 for capacity purchase," said Schone.

He said he expected the Eight Mile drain to be under construction before 10 months when sewage will begin to flow into Detroit from the Farmington and Evergreen sewers.

★ ★ ★

Richards, in a June 16 letter to Barry and other Oakland County officials said:

"Unless some evidence is forthcoming that construction of the storm drains is to start I will have to take a stand that no additional sewage will be allowed from Oakland County."

He said the city has been anxiously awaiting construction of the storm sewer because without it basements in northwest Detroit are being flooded from rainwater coming from Oakland County.

Trace Allergy Causes

SALEM, Pa. (UPI) — Infections, emotional upsets and glandular disorders trigger most allergies, according to Dr. James M. Steele. He said many persons undergo intensive but futile tests for a sensitizing agent when allergy is suspected.

Bandages Not Necessary

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — There seems to be no good reason for keeping a clean surgical incision bandaged for days, says Dr. Louis T. Palumbo of the University of Iowa College of Medicine. He's found unbandaged ones heal just as well.

Files Mining Claim on California Hill

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—That's gold in them thar hills, podnah, even if it is within sight of the San Francisco - Oakland Bay Bridge. That's the opinion of Elizabeth French Moss of Fresno, Calif., who Thursday filed a mining claim on Albany Hill.

★ ★ ★

She said she found a vein of mineral that includes gold, uranium and lead and has sunk a 10-foot shaft on the hill.

Edward Wisser, professor of mineral exploration at the University of California, said it's unlikely that gold and uranium would be found together in such a formation.

Venus Will Be Dressed to Fit the Occasion

PARAMUS, N. J. (AP) — The Continental Restaurant has agreed to cover up.

The Rosary Society of the St. John's Roman Catholic Church of Bergenfield is holding a communion breakfast there Sunday.

But what about the statue of Venus in the restaurant, the one ungarbed from the waist up?

The restaurant said Venus would be draped either with a bra or a tablecloth.

A smaller statue—a fountain of a naked boy—will be placed elsewhere during the breakfast.

Professor Is Overjoyed at Whale of a Present

NEW YORK (AP) — It was a whale of a present—in the full sense of the word—but it made Dr. Arthur V. Jensen a mighty happy man.

His windfall consisted of three whale brains.

Dr. Jensen is assistant dean and associated professor of anatomy at the New York Medical College. For a long time one of his dearest wishes had been to get hold of a whale brain.

That isn't easy. Lots of whales are still being caught but nobody bothers with the brains. Their commercial value is nil. Worse still, it's a terrible job to get them out.

A year ago Jensen gave a lecture to the Lions Club at Croton-on-Hudson, N.Y., about his research on brains of various animals. He mentioned casually that almost none had been done on the whale brain. He said he wished he had a chance.

★ ★ ★

The Lions Club concluded that if Jensen wanted to study a whale brain, somebody ought to get him one.

Members scouted around and were told that the whaling industry wasn't likely to fiddle around with such a project.

Undismayed, the Lions wrote to fellow clubmen in Tonsberg, Norway, headquarters of several Norwegian whaling fleets. Back came word from Carsten Bruun, owner of the whaling vessel Pelagos: Yes, sir, we'll get your professor a whale brain.

★ ★ ★

And the Pelagos crew did too. The complete skulls of one female and two male whales arrived here Thursday in huge wooden barrels, courtesy of the Norwegian government and Norwegian America shipping line.

Laborite Raps Unions for Membership Lag

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Labor unions are failing to keep their memberships numerically abreast of the nation's population growth, says a top AFL-CIO official.

John W. Livingston, national organizing director, told the convention of the Retail Clerks International Union Thursday that 39 per cent of the U.S. labor force belongs to unions, compared with 40 per cent six years ago.

"There are now 42,500,000 workers eligible for union membership," he said. "We've got 17,200,000 of them. That leaves more than 26 million to go—a long way."

Each year, accidents take more than 42,000 lives in the U.S. among men between the ages of 15 and 64.

Oldster Takes Life to Avoid Rest Home

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Fred McCallister, 88 and bedfast, learned Thursday an ambulance was coming to transfer him to a rest home.

★ ★ ★

Almost at once, his housekeeper told police, the retired railroad worker reached under his bed, drew a loaded pistol and shot himself in the head.

Medical examiner A. C. Martindale said McCallister died instantly.

★ ★ ★

Miss Ada Bodie, the housekeeper, said she had cared for the elderly patient in his home since Mrs. McCallister burned to death in a 1952 house fire.

Traffic Experiment Ends on Rather Unsure Note

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Disc jockey Vince Lindner's highway experiment is over. Results: uncertain.

Thursday he wound up a four-day trip all over the state to interview police about traffic safety and prove you could drive around New Jersey without getting a ticket.

He did fine—until Morristown. While Lindner was inside police headquarters talking traffic safety with the chief, a patrolman put a ticket on his car for overtime parking.

De Gaulle Continues Irresponsible Course

No one questions President DE GAULLE'S devotion to his country but his demands on France's NATO allies are unrealistic.

France, says DE GAULLE 'not only refuses to allow stock-piling of U.S. nuclear bombs on its soil, but will not undertake any new commitments to NATO unless more American and British atomic secrets are shared with his country.

★ ★ ★

Since coming to power DE GAULLE has declined to put France's Mediterranean fleet under NATO during hostilities and to allow French fighters to be integrated into a new NATO plan. In the face of facts he continues to insist that France is a top world power.

Our reply to France's refusal to stockpile has been removal of 200 fighter bombers from its territory to Britain and West Germany. These planes would be useless for defense if their weapons were miles away.

★ ★ ★

The United States has at least three reason for not sharing atomic secrets with France; (1) The fewer nations which are involved in the secret the less danger that these weapons will be used irresponsibly. (2) This policy tends to keep Russia from distributing atomic weapons to its allies. (3) France has many Communists and that would mean a greater possibility for leaks.

★ ★ ★

Up to a certain point de Gaulle's pride is understandable. Nothing in France's political history, however, gives the Allies a feeling that that country can be relied upon to co-operate in the interests of all the Allies.

DE GAULLE'S latest move undermines NATO at a time when Western unity and strength are vital to the Geneva conference.

Law on 'Equal Time' Should Be Changed

Despite petitions by the broadcasting industry and the Attorney General, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has refused to change its ruling that the equal time principle for political candidates applies to news programs as well as to other broadcasts.

★ ★ ★

The decison arose from the Lar Daly equal time case when the FCC extended the doctrine to news broadcasts. It ruled that a television station was bound to give equal news coverage to all candidates for a given office no matter how unimportant they might be.

Specifically, it held that Mayor RICHARD DALEY of Chicago, while a candidate for re-election, couldn't appear even in his official capacity welcoming the President of Argentina, without equal time being given to LAR DALY, America First candidate for the mayoralty office.

FCC's stand imposes an intolerable burden on broadcasting systems. With national elections coming up in 1960, Congress should amend the law so as to give broadcasters a right to use their own discretion in the presentation of candidates and their views in so far as news programs are concerned.

If this is not done, every splinter party candidate in the country will feel it his duty to clutter up the air waves at the slightest pretext and the broadcasting industry will be helpless to prevent it.

Chapter XXVI

Kathie drew a deep breath and began at the beginning. Leilani was the only one who did not know that her cabin had been searched aboard ship.

She went from that to the taxi that had rammed hers on her first morning in Honolulu. Sam knew about that already, but Alex seemed to freeze as she spoke.

"Apparently someone wants my worthless deed," Kathie finished, "and wants it desperately."

"But why would anyone want it?" Alex asked.

"I don't know, but I think Bea did. I think that's why she got so excited when I told her what I have just told you, and I think that's why she hurried back to Honolulu without telling us she was going."

★ ★ ★

"Why did you confide in Bea?" Sam asked shrewdly.

"She was Uncle Job's niece, living here where he grew up. And Uncle Job had always been so mysteriously silent about his past."

"And could she tell you anything you didn't know?"

"Yes," Kathie said reluctantly. "She told me Uncle Job left the islands under suspicion of murder."

Alex was frowning deeply. "But that was how long ago, Kathie?"

"About 40 years."

"Bea couldn't have been more than a baby 40 years ago."

"She was two years old," Leilani said, and grief caught at her voice.

"Who was the man Job Hammer was supposed to have murdered?" Alex asked.

Leilani drew her brows together in concentration. "I've heard his name, I know. There was something about a poker game, I remember that much."

★ ★ ★

Alex shrugged. "It's easily found. There will be stories in the newspaper files."

With a blunt impatience, Kathie cried, "But who knows I have the deed — besides all of us here? Wait! There is one other person. Sam's grandfather!"

"Sam's grandfather is one of the most respected men in Honolulu, Kathie," Alex said reprovingly.

"I'm sorry," Kathie said, in confusion. "I didn't mean that the way it sounded."

"It seems to me we're getting all heated up about a lot of nothing," Sam said impatiently. "All this because Kathie thinks that Bea 'knew something.' Kathie is upset, as we all are; she's probably just imagining things."

'LET'S WAIT'

"I suppose I imagined the taxi that rammed mine?" Kathie cried, indignant.

"Please, Kathie," Alex said quietly. "Let's wait until we have a few more facts before we make any more guesses, shall we?"

She flushed, remembering how she had accused him of searching her stateroom and realizing he was probably taking this opportunity to reprove her for that, too.

★ ★ ★

The night was as lovely as though no thought or hint of tragedy had ever crossed the garden.

She heard a light footstep behind her and turned nervously. It was Sam.

"This is a terrible thing, Kathie," he said. "I know it's hit you hard."

"Terribly," Kathie admitted.

He sounded relieved. "And what you hinted just now about Grandfather—you really didn't mean it, did you? Just because he offered to buy your deed—"

"Oh, Sam, I didn't mean it! I didn't think how it sounded!"

"I hope not," he said, "because that would mean you didn't think much of me, either."

"Sam, I think you're grand. You've been so nice to me, and I've brought you trouble and sorrow—" Her voice broke.

Sam took her in his arms. "Kathie, I want you to marry me, darling. I want you to promise me now that you will."

PLEASE, SAM

She tried to pull away, but his arms tightened.

"Please, Sam! You're hurting me!"

He relaxed his hold instantly. "I wouldn't hurt you for anything in the world, Kathie. You know that. But don't say no to me. Don't say anything just now. You can give me your answer tomorrow—"

"I wish I could say yes, Sam, but—" If only she didn't love Alex so!

"You're going to say yes," Sam said silencing her with a hand over her mouth. "I'm not going to listen to any other answer."

He took his hand away then, and bent his head and kissed her. It was a brief, masterful kiss.

"Until tomorrow," he said softly, and let her go.

It was strange, she thought as she walked across the grass toward the house, that all she had felt of his kiss was a brief warm pressure of lips and the faint scratch of his mustache. How different it had been when Alex kissed her!

★ ★ ★

Kathie was awake early — it was barely daylight — and as soon as the fog of sleep had been rolled back, her unhappy thoughts crowded in.

As she entered the living room she stopped in surprise. Alex, fully dressed and wide - awake, was standing before the long windows smoking.

He heard her and turned and warmth came to his eyes as they traveled over her slender blue-clad figure and the little-girl braids falling over her shoulders.

"You look sweet enough to eat, Kathie," he said.

The phone rang.

He stopped and turned quickly toward the instrument, picking it up before it could ring again. He evidently had been expecting the call, for he spoke only in monosyllables.

Mystery Arises in Actor's Death

'Superman' Still Called Suicide; Police Probing Bullet Holes in Home

HOLLYWOOD (AP) Two more bullet holes found in the home of Actor George Reeves television's Superman have heightened mystery surrounding his death. But authorities still call it suicide.

Police pried up a carpet Thursday in the bedroom where he died and found the two bullet holes in the floor. One bullet was recovered from paneling over a downstairs fireplace, the other from a ceiling beam.

★ ★ ★

Police Chief William Parker said Miss Leonore Lemmon, New York cafe society woman who says she and Reeves, 45, were to have been married last Friday, had told a detective she accidentally fired the bullet found in the fireplace paneling. She said she was "fooling around" with the death pistol several days before the actor's death at his home June 16.

Parker said Miss Lemmon will be questioned about events preceding the shooting if she returns here from New York. She and three other persons were in the house when Reeves died.

The other bullet remains unaccounted for.

Reeves' mother, Helen Bessolo, [illegible] from Coldwater, Mich., told reporters: "I don't believe my son killed himself."

★ ★ ★

"George was never depressed," she added. "He told me that he was going to visit me later this month en route to Spain."

She said she talked with him by telephone two days before he died and "he was a very, very happy man. He never once told me that he was going to get married."

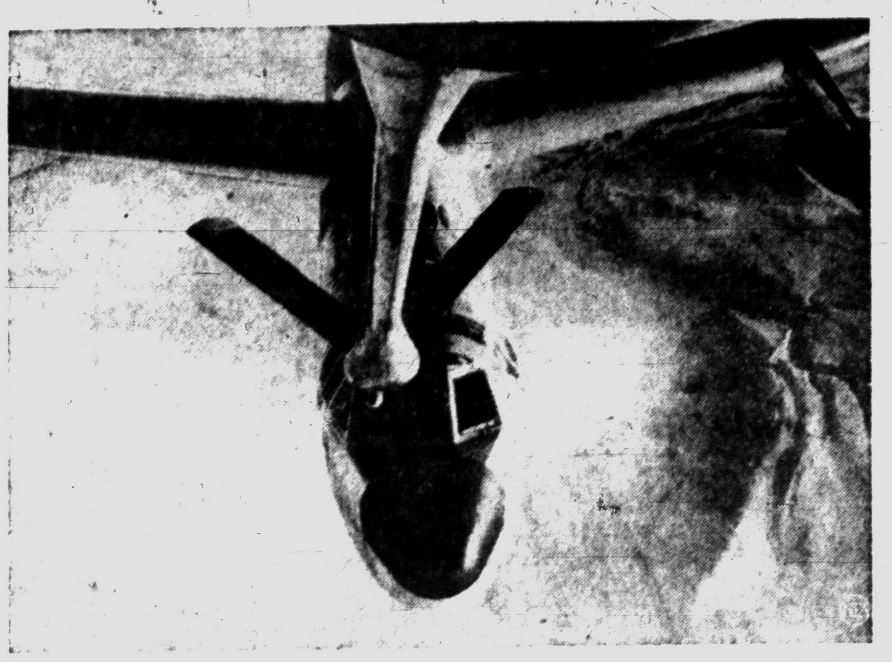

Asked why she had come here to contest the will, which named Mrs. Toni Mannix as chief beneficiary, Mrs. Bessolo replied:

"Because she doesn't need the money. It was George's money. Her husband is worth millions."

Mrs. Mannix' husband is Eddie J. Mannix, vice president of Loew's, Inc.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Bessolo has retained Jerry Giesler, renowned filmland attorney, to investigate the shooting and the will.

POLAR RENDEZVOUS — Somewhere north of the Arctic Circle a Boeing B-52 Stratofortress is refueled in flight above rugged Alaskan terrain. Unusual photograph was taken from behind the fuel boom of a Boeing KC-135 jet tanker-transport. Loaded with instruments, the Stratofortress was undergoing a 30-day deep-freeze test by the Air Force of its ability to function during long exposure to temperatures ranging to 47 degrees below zero.

15 Injured Aboard Train in Chicago Derailment

CHICAGO (AP) — A Chicago-bound Illinois Central Railroad suburban electric train jumped the tracks on the far south side during a rain storm Thursday night. Fifteen passengers were injured and traffic was blocked for several hours.

Approximately 100 passengers were on the four-car train.

The train was northbound from Matteson, Ill. A railroad spokesman said a faulty switch caused the derailment.

Bills Boosting UP Near Vote

Items in Legislature Could Give Giant Spur to Taconite Industry

LANSING (AP) — Bills that conceivably could lead to a tenfold growth in the Upper Peninsula's infant taconite industry were on the final leg today of their legislative journey.

The two measures were hustled through the Senate yesterday without a dissenting vote and returned to the House for agreement to amendments.

They would encourage new investment in low grade iron mining by:

1. Clarifying application of the existing specific tax on conventional mining to expensive taconite operations, which require a huge investment in plant.

2. Assure taconite operators of the availability of water resources necessary for processing low grade ore.

Backers of the program talked of adding up to 3,000 persons to UP employment rolls and $1,700,000 a year to local tax revenues, chiefly in Dickinson, Marquette and possibly Gogebic counties.

From the public policy standpoint, their aim is to exploit an estimated 20 billion tons in deposits of taconite low grade ore.

One mining company source said the investment required might run as high as a quarter billion dollars.

Open School Meeting Bill Put on Senate Calendar

LANSION (AP) — The "right-to-know" bill for local school boards advanced to the Senate calendar today with Education Committee approval.

Exploding speculation that the bill was dead, the committee sent it to the floor yesterday by unanimous vote even though some members frowned on it.

The measure would require board business to be transacted at public meetings and its records to be a matter of public record.

Executive sessions barring the public could be held but formal decisions on school board matters could not be taken at such sessions.

Caveman Tactics Mess Girl Swimmer's Hair

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Jane Hadley, 12, returned from her swimming class her brown hair a mass of tangles.

Questioning brought out the reason.

"I'm the only girl in the swimming class and all the boys have crew cuts. I'm the only one they can practice the hair-carry on in our life saving lessons."

Like Son, Like Father

HADDON HEIGHTS, N.J. (AP) — A successful businessman will follow his son into the Episcopal priesthood Saturday. The Rev. Warren Cassell, 45, until recently director of printing for a nationwide magazine, will be presented for ordination by his son, the Rev. W. Michael Cassell, vicar of Christ Episcopal church, Zillah, Wash.

Chicagoans Can Tell What They'd Like

CHICAGO (AP)—Interviewers will visit more than 3,700 homes to gather suggestions for five things most needed to improve Chicago.

★ ★ ★

"This is a golden opportunity for the city dweller to express his ideas of what the city should be like," says Clyde W. Hart, director of the National Opinion Research Center.

The two-year survey will be conducted by 100 interviewers from the Center, an agency affiliated with the University of Chicago.

Marilyn Leaves Hospital to Recuperate at Home

NEW YORK (UPI) — Marilyn Monroe was scheduled to leave Lenox Hill Hospital today to recuperate at her home from gynecological surgery performed Monday.

Miss Monroe, 33, who has had two miscarriages since her marriage to playwright Arthur Miller three years ago, was said to have had a "corrective" operation.

Her physician, Dr. Mortimer Rodgers, said he found no evidence of pregnancy. Miller declined to say whether the operation was expected to enhance or impair her ability to have children.

Weather Change Saves Family Cat

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis. (AP) —Thanks to a change in the weather, Gloria, the Gordon Rudkins' cat, is back with the family again.

Gloria was missing for several days after Mrs. Rudkins stored winter coats and jackets in a zippered plastic bag. When the weather turned cool, a daughter, Rachel, opened the bag in search of a jacket.

Sure enough, there was Gloria—thirsty, hungry and happy about the change in the weather.

Question Missile Plans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators have questioned Pentagon plans for firing or storing nuclear anti-aircraft missiles near cities. The Senate Armed Services Committee asked additional study by the Joint Chiefs of Staff on the wisdom of equipping missiles with atomic warheads in situations where, in time of conflict, detonation over heavily populated areas might be expected.

SAILING REPLICA — This 28-foot replica of the old United States frigate Constellation heads out to sea past the Baltimore skyline. The small craft bearing a crew of five teen-age sea scouts was en route to New York where it was hoped it will attract enough attention to raise substantial funds for restoration work on its 161-year-old namesake, which sits at a pier in Baltimore harbor. Rescued Boy Hoped It Didn't Cost Much PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A long, slick bannister at the Paramount Theater was too much for Dan Grukemeyer to resist. Part way down, the 6-year-old got his leg caught.

City firemen used two chisels, an ax, a saw, a hammer and an hour of labor to dislodge young Dan.

★ ★ ★

The youth, although not injured, was a bit worried. "I'll bet this is really going to cost me," he said.

Fire Chief Jack Powers said the taxpayers would foot the rescue bill but Dan would have to pay the cost handed out by his parents.

De Valera Is Installed as Ireland's President

DUBLIN (AP) — Eamon de Valera was installed in office as the third president of the Republic of Ireland yesterday at a stately ceremony in Dublin Castle.

The 77-year-old President stood on the dais of the Castle's St. Patrick Hall. In a firm voice he repeated the oath of office after Chief Justice Conor Maguire.

Then he told the crowd of colorfully dressed diplomats, church leaders and government officials gathered about the dais:

"I pray God to give me strength and wisdom for the worthy performance of my task."

Mijanou Bardot Signed

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Brigitte Bardot's kid sister, Mijanou, was signed Thursday to play the Devil's mistress in "The Private Lives of Adam and Eve." Mijanou Bardot will arrive from France July 6 for her U.S. movie debut.

'Average' Family Budgets Don't Work

ITHACA, N.Y. (UPI)—"Average budgets made for average families don't work," says Dean Helen Canoyer of the New York State College of Home Economics.

"If there were a formula for budgeting family expenditures, and if we at the college had such a formula, we'd have a line at our door as long as the line of family budgets which have been tried and discarded," she said.

Dean Canoyer recommended that each family make its own individual plan for the use of its income.

Hollywood Couple Wed in Las Vegas Hotel

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Recording Executive Richard Pierce and Actress Gail Davis were married Thursday in the penthouse of the Flamingo hotel. The Rev. Willes Miller, a Congregational minister, officiated.

It's the second marriage for Miss Davis, 33, television's Annie Oakley, and the third for Pierce, 35, a producer for RCA-Victor in Hollywood.

Oil Refinery Fish in Pampered World

TORONTO (AP)—Some of the world's most pampered fish live in an aquarium located at a new oil refinery near here. Water in the 4,200-gallon aquarium is purer than in their native habitat.

R. J. Hull, president of Cities Service Oil Co. Ltd., says the aquarium was built to demonstrate the efficiency of what he claims is the world's most advanced water purification system.

The system, Hull says, takes water after it has been used in refining oil and returns it to Lake Ontario in a purer state than when it was removed.

Tennis Proves Rough for Hollywood Stars

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Dean Martin has joined his co-star, Tony Curtis, in limping around on a cane.

Reds Would Welcome 150,000 U.S. Tourists

MOSCOW (UPI) — A Russian official said his government would welcome as many as 150,000 American tourists in the Soviet Union this year.

Yuri Zhukov, chairman of the State Committee on Cultural Relations, also said he hoped President Eisenhower and other officials of the U. S. government would make the trip.

Zhukov extended the invitation during a reception in honor of former New York Governor Averell Harriman who is winding up a six-week tour of Russia.

Veto Gives Ike Mighty Weapon

Johnson, Rayburn Face Dilemma in Steering Congressional Action

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's veto of the wheat and tobacco bills illustrates the dilemma of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, leader of the Senate Democrats.

Johnson and his fellow Texan, Speaker Sam Rayburn, leader of the House Democrats, were able to muster enough votes but only a majority, to pass the two bills which they knew beforehand Eisenhower didn't like.

★ ★ ★

But to re-pass them over a presidential veto requires a two-thirds vote of both houses, far harder to get than a simple majority and in this situation practically impossible.

Therefore, Eisenhower's veto Thursday night just about means no new wheat or tobacco programs this year.

In both houses the Democrats have a huge majority over the Republicans: 64 to 34 in the Senate, 283 to 153 in the House. But in neither house do the Democrats have two-thirds of the membership.

For that, they'd need 66 senators, or two more than they have, and 290 House members, or seven more than they have. So even if Democrats voted solidly, and they seldom do, they'd still need Republican help to override a veto.

Thus Eisenhower, although his Republicans are badly outnumbered, has in his threat of a veto a mighty weapon to push the Democratic leadership into shaping legislation into a form acceptable to him.

Wagner Will Look Into School Row

NEW YORK (AP)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner has promised picketing white parents that he will get in touch with the city school superintendent about the planned transfer of 1,000 pupils—mostly Negroes and Puerto Ricans.

★ ★ ★

Supt. John J. Theobald recently announced plans to shift the 1,000 pupils out of crowded schools in the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn, which is populated mostly by Negroes, to less crowded areas of the city.

★ ★ ★

About half the 1,000 would be reassigned in the fall to five schools in Queens, a borough adjoining Brooklyn. The other half would be shifted to six schools in Brooklyn.

About 300 parents and other persons from the Glendale section of Queens picketed outside City Hall in the rain Thursday in protest.

News of Baby's Birth Flashed to South Pole

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — George A. Doumani, 10,000 miles away at the South Pole, got news of the birth of his first son almost quicker than if he'd been here at home.

Excitedly, his wife, Julie, 30, exclaimed into the telephone "Victor is here!"

Amateur Radio Operator W. Loyd Townsley had set up the radio-telephone call.

The Doumanis have a daughter, Sandra, 15 months.

Little Rock Integration Set; Private Class Is Graduated

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — The T. J. Raney High School—a practical experiment in resistance to integration — graduates its first senior class tonight.

The 196 seniors will hear a commencement address by Gov. Orval E. Faubus who paved the way for creation of the all-white private school by shutting Little Rock's public high schools against integration.

Raney enrolled about 850 of the 3,700 Little Rock students displaced by school closing. Its doors opened Oct. 20 and its students had a full 180-day term.

Diplomas will be awarded by the man for whom the school was named, Dr. T. J. Raney, president of the Little Rock Private School Corp., which operates Raney High.

★ ★ ★

Even as plans for commencement were completed, Raney planned for next year by registering about 1,000 students for 1959-60 classes. The number includes most of the 10th and 11th graders who attended this year and some 300 ninth graders from five junior high schools.

★ ★ ★

Some of those who registered probably will not attend Raney next year if the public schools are open.

A three-judge federal court recently struck down Faubus' school closing law and the Little Rock school board Thursday night officially announced it would open the public schools this fall under a court-approved plan of token integration.

Raney students had little criticism to offer of their school, which was organized from scratch and operating within 40 days after the public schools were closed.

The $15 monthly tuition Raney proposes to charge next year apparently was not deterring students from registering. Raney charged no tuition this year.

While a queen ant may live as long as 16 years, some flies spend their entire adult lives in 20 minutes, according to the National Geographic Magazine.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — The Little Rock school board in the face of Gov. Orval E. Faubus' warning of possible violence, Thursday night officially announced plans to operate Little Rock's high schools on an integrated basis this fall.

Faubus said at a press conference less than 36 hours before that he felt integrated schools could not be operated here without the backing of federal force.

The governor was not available for comment on Thursday night's action.

The five-man board announced the unanimous decision in a terse statement after a brief executive decision. Apparently the matter had been settled before the meeting.

Details of opening were not announced but the board promised "a further and more detailed announcement at the earliest possible date.

Arkansas has two pupil assignment laws, one adopted in 1956 and the other passed this year. Each permits school boards to place pupils in certain schools for a number of reasons but race is not mentioned.

Mrs. L. C. Bates, state president of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People said it was not known at this time how many Negro students would attempt to enroll in white schools.

Faubus, who blocked integration with National Guard troops in the fall of 1957, frequently has said he will not use his powers to enforce integration. "This duty" he said, "belongs to the federal government." And several times before he has said he feels violence will ensue if the schools are opened integrated.

U.S. Women Have Learned to Use Love as a Weapon to Rule Roost

(This is the last of a series of articles offering the opinions of experts on what's wrong with American men, and how the man-woman relationship became what it is today.)

By PHILLIS BATTELLE
Special to the Pontiac Press

Pope John XXIII declared recently that "women are the stronger sex before God."

The Pontiff gave a reason: "Because when others tire they (women) continue to pray."

It was one of the kindliest recognitions offered modern womanhood in a decade. American womanhood, at least. In her relatively new, ever strengthening position as the dominant sex, her spiritual qualities have been almost forgotten.

Instead, though nothing is all white or all black, the picture of the American female is darkening. She is the once lovely and adored princess who has, all too suddenly, become queen of the realm . . . and is allegedly botching up her reign.

★ ★ ★

Some authorities blame the emancipated woman for undermining America to the point where the family, which is the foundation stone of any sound society, is crumbling.

She is accused of being too concerned with making money and with improving her social status. In this process of "improvement" she neglects her husband and children or leads them into a hopeless state of discord.

Then, because to women marriage is an "attainment" (and a second or third marriage are more "attainments"), she seeks a divorce. Not only is divorce an emotional relief to many women, it is an easy way to get severance pay. Often for life.

A great many of the women who get divorces are "women scorned." But is this always the fault of the man who finds another woman, or merely turns his back on his wife?

According to a woman editor named Ann Wibberley Clark, it rarely is hubby's fault.

★ ★ ★

"Women have so many wonderful ways of breaking a marriage contract," she says, "without once appearing to do so, while still remaining mistress of his bank account and of his home."

It is plainly understood, she adds, that in modern society, a man asks a woman to marry him because there is a strong physical appeal; otherwise there would be few proposals, and no children.

"But he can't take a wife to court for never being too tied to go out at night but always too tired to make love. If he finds a substitute — a girl who, maybe, doesn't always have a headache at the wrong time — the very wife who's always 'too tired' herself can drag him before a judge."

The knowledge, and open discussion, of sex problems in the United States has, in its way, helped push the American woman into her dominant position. Now that she knows "what it's all about," woman can more easily control her men and children, experts say.

Dr. Gelolo McHugh, Duke University expert on sex knowledge, is quoted: "The girl is being taught more (sex) know-how. She decides when and how much. In some cases, she even puts the man on a budget."

Similarly, mother love has become "more and more conditional." Anthropologist Margaret Mead points out that with her offspring, the mother's "withholding of love" has replaced paternal punishment in the training of children.

Coupled with what our grandparents would call "this sordid talk" about physical sex, a major cause for crumpling family relations is the typically American emphisis on "love"—that what-is-it thing that must be present before a marriage. In other cultures and countries, sound marriages were pre-arranged and healthy; but in America love and marriage go together like a horse and carriage.

The result is that youngsters in blue jeans and immaturity often marry at the first stomach-flutter, assured they're in love. They marry, that is, if they have had a relatively "normal" childhood.

If their family set-up has been unhealthy, if they come from a broken home or a household full of dissension, they may turn away from marriage with distaste. Consider it a bankrupt institution.

Or, in their frantic search for a security they never felt, they may marry the first desirable kid who comes along—and hope the escape from reality will be successful.

★ ★ ★

There is many a rude awakening, among these adolescent rebels against current society. When familiarity dulls the appetite for love, they look around for a new lover. No mariage without passion—not for young America.

And the grind of the divorce mill roars on.

The colonists of early America were decidedly rooted in a patriarchial society. The men were the strong sex. The women the "silent sex."

How did womanhood climb to its present position of confused eminence? History shows that they fought being "slaves" to their husbands, and they sought equality. But a great boost was given them by American men who—devout and Puritan as they were — tended to worship and pamper the mothers of their children.

James Thurber and E. B. White, in their book "Is Sex Necessary?" poke fun at the situation, but have a point here:

"Woman came into his (man's) dreams as a tree, then a tree came into his dreams as a woman. He also got her eyes, shinning through the leaves, all mixed up with the moon. Out of this curious and lamentable confusion grew the tendency in man's mind to identify woman with the phenomena of the burgeoning earth and the mysteries of the illimitable heavens.

"As time went on man rather enjoyed cultivating this idea. It was something to think about. It wasn't much, but it was something . . ."

Women were scarce in pioneer days. And quite different from today's female. They demanded little and, as a result, the perverse male began to give them little trinkets as well as adulation.

After trinkets came more education for women. And after education came jobs, with pay. Women began to get greedy, and they fought for the vote and got it. And with political power came a national female ego and more psychological problems than women had ever dreamed possible.

Nothing is the same today as it was in the era of Indian fighting except for this: A man still tends to think of women in the old, simple, almost worshipful way. He still gives her all he can accord — but now the generiosity is more out of awe and respect for female demands than out of appreciation that she is the soft, understanding mother of his children.

Sociologists and anthropologists cannot agree on whether woman's new dominance is the fault of her own greed for equality, which got out of hand; or the fault of the American male who was purely (of heart and mind) a sucker.

Forgetting the blame for a moment, consider for a moment the consequences and the future of this mid-century era of the still-rising female and the bemused male . . .

Dr. Margaret Mead, as worried as the next anthropologist about the current intra-sex controversy, tries to find hope in the muddled American family picture.

She believes the seeming tender weaknesses of the post war American father may be a sign of inner strength, rather than emasculation. She believes that perhaps the war did something to fathers . . . Gave them, for the first time in history, a chance to help their servantless wives take care of little children. And they found it normally, rather than neurotically, enjoyable.

"If taking care of children is seen as playing a woman's part, being a sucker . . . dominated by women, it will be looked at one way," writes Dr. Mead. "If it is seen as an extension of manhood, an exercise of strength, imagination and tenderness, it will be looked at the other way."

Everyone can choose which way to look at it. This is a free country.

But in this free country, come 1960, there will be 3,250,000 more women voters than men voters. And predictions are they will go out in full force to elect a president who is, to them, a "father figure."

★ ★ ★

This is what woman wants in the White House—a strong, dominant father of a man, in the old-fashioned tradition. She is not ready, as a national body, to support a president of her own sex.

What she truly wants of the man in her own personal home is a problem that will intrigue historians, and enrich psychiatrists, for many years to come.

Auto Jack Frees Lad

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Jack Alley, 3, got his leg caught between two tree limbs. Neighborhood women tried pulling, then greased the youngster's leg in an attempt to free it. Finally, Police Lt. Jonnie Henry arrived, put an automobile jack between the tree limbs and freed the lad.

Victim of Fall Signs With Pen Taped to Hand

CHICAGO (AP) — Using a pen taped to his hand, a 47-year-old former steamfitter, paralyzed from the shoulders down, signed a settlement giving him $200,000 cash and $20,000 a year in medical payments for the rest of his life.

★ ★ ★

The settlement, signed with an "X" by Felix Kowalski, was approved Thursday by Circuit Court Judge Cornelius J. Harrington.

Kowalski will receive the cash settlement from Abbott Laboratories, North Chicago. The medical payments will come from the Northwest Heating and Plumbing Co.

★ ★ ★

The plumbing firm was Kowalski's employer when he fell from a scaffold March 7, 1958 suffering the paralyzing injuries. Kowalski was working on a new building Abbott was constructing. He alleged Abbott was negligent in use of unsafe scaffolding.

Here's Police 'Trap' Tourists Really Like

MOUNT AIRY, N.C. (AP) — Mount Airy officers have pulled a switch on the speed trap. It's a hospitality trap here.

Every Wednesday a patrolman picks a tourist group by the out of state license plates on their car and stops them.

The hospitality trap includes supper at a restaurant, an overnight stay at a hotel or motor court, a movie and a tour of the city, all free.

Herter Receives Acclaim Denied Dulles, Acheson

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst

Christian A. Herter has achieved with one trip and one speech something that John Foster Dulles received only on his death bed and which never has really arrived for Dean Acheson.

Whether Herter will be ranked in history with the greatest secretaries of state remains to be seen. But at the moment he has something approaching universal approval in the United States and among the Allies.

General acclaim is not something to which secretaries of state have been accustomed, especially in such times of trouble.

Working in a field where there is limitless room for disagreements over policy and the application of policy, Acheson and Dulles were constantly subject to the bitterest sort of criticism. The true stature of Dulles went unrecognized by many until it became known that his services would be lost. That was true in Europe as well as at home.

★ ★ ★

Acheson, first as a policy adviser who had much to do with developing such things as the Marshall Plan, and then as secretary of state, served at a time when America was still feeling her way toward permanent positions in the cold war. Not one to grab for credit, his true stature will not be generally realized until the archives of those days are published.

But at Geneva the homebound planes had not been warmed up when Herter began to receive the plaudits of his European associates.

His quietly diplomatic but stern rebuffs of Andrei Gromyko attracted attention at home. Here was a man who might counter the Soviet rough and tumble even better than Dulles.

Then he came back to report to Congress, the President and the nation.

The acclaim which has followed didn't come out of the books, for there is nothing in the books as precedent. Criticism has been literally smothered. Even the British papers, voicing the fears of a nation which feels it must talk and talk and talk because it cannot brook even the idea of war, have praised Herter.

Oddly enough, two men have seldom appeared in the same scene who had such similar backgrounds as Herter and Dulles, and so it is not strange that policy under the one, even aside from the Eisenhower influence on both, should seem indivisible.

Herter, like Dulles, cut his diplomatic teeth on the problems of World War I. He had a long career in public life and many State Department assignments before becoming secretary.

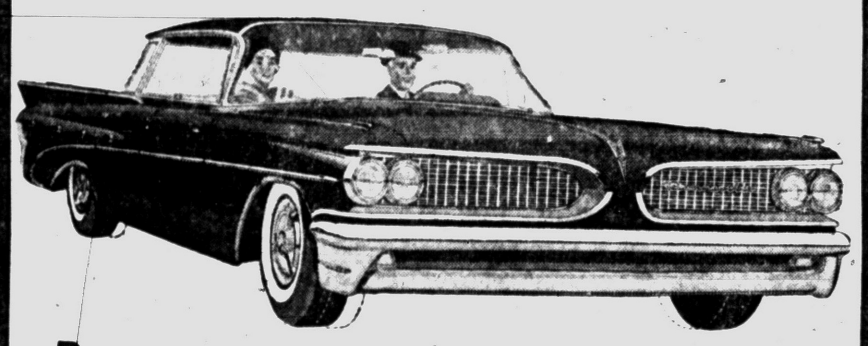

It hardly seems possible that he can even hope for a perpetual honeymoon with Congress and the country such as he now enjoys. But he has a start which is hardly precedented, at least in modern times.

Water Catches Crooks

PRYOR, Okla. (AP)—Someone was stealing gasoline from drums on the farm of Elmer Southern. So he filled the drums with water. A few nights later when he saw three boys pushing their car near his home, he telephoned the sheriff to pick them up. Officers found partially-empty drums in the car.

Alcohol Researcher Interviews Students

Most High School Grads Take Drinks

KALAMAZOO (UPI) — Nine out of 10 high school graduates have drunk or tasted alcoholic beverages at some time in their life, a graduate research assistant at Michigan State University said.

The research assistant, Gary Kind, told the Midwest Institute of Alcohol Studies that this was his finding based on questionnaires answered by 2,247 high school students and by depth interviews with 70 members of the group.

The institute is concentrating on workshops and will hear a talk today by Ralph Daniels, executive director of the Michigan State Board of Alcoholism.

King said about one-third of the students he interviewed admitted to drinking with some degree of regularity. But their drinking was confined largely to beer and wine, he said.

Only about 13 per cent of the male students and 2 per cent of the female students class themselves as heavy drinkers, he said. He defined heavy drinking as consuming more than six bottles of beer or six glasses of wine in a week.

High school students usually imbibe at home or at parties, he said. When they imbibe at parties, he said, there is usually no adult supervision.

Drinking high school students usually come from the extreme upper or extreme lower economic and social classes, he said.

★ ★ ★

About 100 persons from throughout the Midwest are attending the institute under the sponsorship of the Western Michigan University division of field services, Michigan State Board of Alcoholism, the Wisconsin Board of Alcoholism and the University of Wisconsin.

Senate Repeals Tax on Travel, Wires

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has voted for repeal of the 10 per cent tax on passenger travel, effective Aug. 1.

Voice votes accepted this proposal from the Senate's Finance Committee and also a proposal for repeal of the 10 per cent communications tax, effective July 1, 1960.

The Senate action put the repealers into a bill, already passed by the House, to extend for a year at present rates various excise and corporation income taxes now due to expire July 1.

There appears to be little chance that the House will agree to the repealers, which would cost the government about a billion dollars a year in revenue.

The Senate Finance Committee unanimously approved today a temporary increase in the national debt ceiling to 295 billion dollars. Unless Congress acts, the present limit of 288 billion drops to 283 billion next Tuesday.

Knows Where He's Been

Lawyer-Actor Joe Welch Unable to Add Up the Past

By WARD CANNEL
NEA Staff Correspondent

HARWICHPORT, Mass. — The thing that keeps bothering Joseph Welch is that at 68 a fellow ought to know something for sure. But after a long career as a trial lawyer, five years in the public eye since the Army-McCarthy hearings, and now a new career as a movie actor, he mutters . . .

"How can you come out here and ask Joe Welch to testify to Joe Welch?"

He knows where he's been of course. And he knows what happened. He can itemize the facts of life to the last detail, but somehow he can't seem to make them add up to anything.

"I know," he said. "The public pictures me as a gentle, lovable, honest, soft in the head old fellow. But I'm not. I'm irascible. I'm a faltering old foop. And probably a damned fool, too."

He sits in his big brown chair and looks out at Harwichport harbor and rocks over the same territory again and again.

TIME TO THINK

"I have plenty of time to think these days. I go to the office twice a week. The rest of the time I think and think and come up only with a beautiful white blank.

"What I don't understand is: how can a man be so sure of his opinions and so self-righteous in his convictions that he'd actually want a job like secretary of state or the presidency.

"I envy men like that. They don't seem to worry if they're damned fools."

★ ★ ★

If the testimony is a little dramatic, it can be excused in a veteran trial lawyer. But there is no doubt about his sincerity.

It is, of course, not his irresponsibility that worries him. It is his invincible naivete.

"I went into the Army-McCarthy hearing expecting it to be like a trial where they wanted to establish fact and act on it. But it wasn't that way at all. It was a romp. And, as usual, I was the last one to find it out.

"I accepted the job as adviser and the role of Judge Weaver in this movie 'Anatomy of a Murder.' The professional actors played the parts of lawyers very well.

"But after the shooting each day, they didn't seem in the least concerned with how the case was going. It took me a long time to get over that."

LED BY COINCIDENCE

He makes it clear again—if you missed the first dozen times—that he's in the movie only because he's a public figure; and he's a public figure only because of the coincidences and accidents that brought him to represent the Army, because he went to law school, because he went to college because he was a poor farm kid in Iowa . . .

He can remember each place and time vividly—down to the names and numbers. He can remember how it felt and what it tasted like.

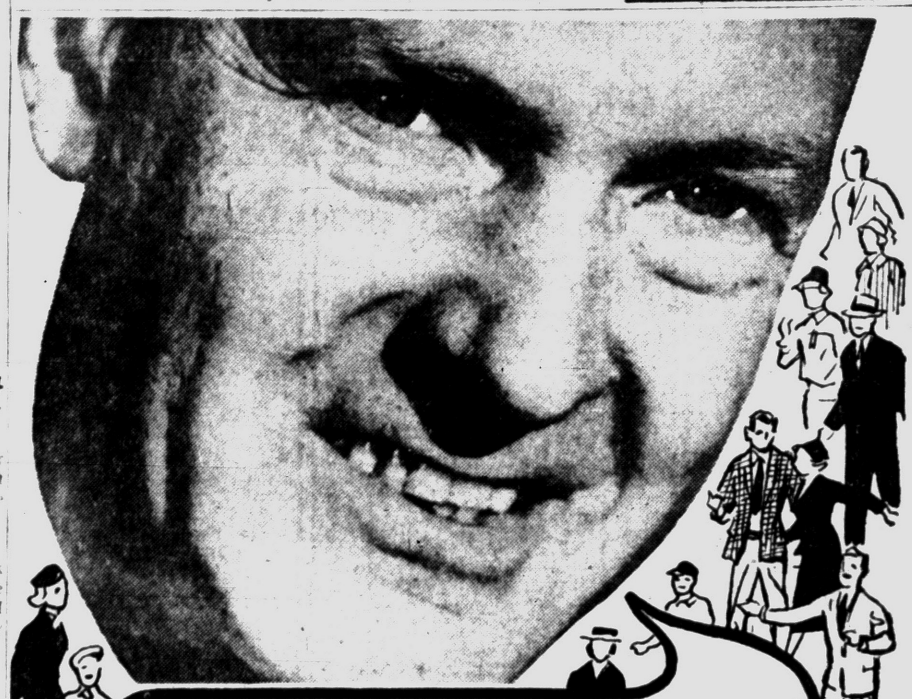

But somehow, even in the quiet reflection he once thought he wanted, it doesn't make a story with a purpose.

Botanists declare one-fourth of all the known species of plants in the world flourish in Brazil.

Only about 30 tons of platinum are mined each year. About 1,200 tons of gold and 7,000 tons of silver are mined.

Andrew Borowiez, Subbing for Hal Boyle, Says:

French Dance Till Dawn in Algiers Chaos

ALGIERS (AP)— They dance from 9 p. m. to 5 o'clock in the morning in swank villas along Algiers' beaches.

No one can come later or leave earlier because of curfew.

In the evening twilight, armored cars slowly patrol the road, some 20 miles from Algiers. A territorial sentry leans lazily against a sandbag gun emplacement.

On the oval floor of the giant, flower-bedecked living room, some 40 French couples whirl to the latest American tunes.

★ ★ ★

"You see, mama said we should never trust these people," said a pretty brunette. "Ever since the gardener stole papa's gun and joined the guerillas we never hire Arab servants. We import them from Spain."

"Feel my gun," said a young lawyer. "I had this suit cut so no one could tell I carry it. I never leave the house without it. You can't trust the Arabs."

On the terrace overlooking the Mediterranean glittering in the moonlight, a young lieutenant smokes his cigarette.

★ ★ ★

"Two years of this mess," he said. "I have wasted two years here. Don't ask me how the army feels. I don't represent the army. I hate it."

★ ★ ★

"It's all settled," an oil engineer said. He had just been to the new Sahara oilfields and beamed enthusiasm. "In two or three months the whole war will be over. We will negotiate with the rebels if necessary. We have to keep this country because of the oil. We will give the rebels some concessions but th oil must be ours."

"You see here 'papa's' Algiera," said a psychological warfare officer pointing to the dance floor. "Daughters and sons of rich settlers. Handsome, well-dressed, carefree. They think the army's job here is to make sure that Algeria of tomorrow will be the same bed of roses for them and their kind."

A searchlight stabbed the darkness. The guiding lights of a nearby airbase glittered in even strings.

★ ★ ★

At 5 a.m., girls in party dresses and their young men began to leave. They formed small convoys of two to three cars for it still was dark.

Slowly, dawn began to break over Algeria.

Almost 3 Times Previous Record

Flash of Atomic Power Highest Reported So Far

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Production of a record flash of controlled atomic power, sufficient to match the electrical energy supplying a city of half a million people, was disclosed Thursday.

The flash, in an atomic reactor at general atomic division of General Dynamics Corp., increased from one 1,000th of a kilowatt unit of heat energy at 1,500,000 kilowatts in less than one-tenth of a second.

This was nearly three times the previous record of 530,000 thermal kilowatts produced by an Atomic Energy Commission experimental reactor in April 1958.

The disclosure by Dr. Frederic de Hoffman, president of General Atomic, came at dedication of the concern's 10-million-dollar John Jay Hopkins Laboratory for Pure and Applied Science — named for the late founder of General Dynamics.

The record burst of energy was produced in a reactor called Triga —signifying that it is designed for training, research and isotope production by General Atomic. It uses uranium and zirconium hydride as fuel and safety moderator elements. The company stresses the safety factor.

★ ★ ★

Triga reactors, in addition to the one at the laboratory, are located at Lovanium University, Leopoldville, Belgian Congo, and the University of Arizona at Tucson.

Army Scientists Make Base Near North Pole

FT. EUSTIS, Va. (UPI) — U. S. Army polar research experts, 41 strong, have established a base camp only 500 miles from the North Pole.

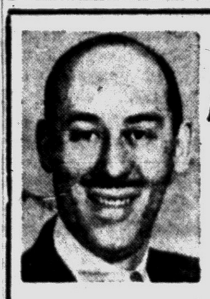

The Transportation Corps center here announced the explorers have traveled the first leg of their journey across the Greenland ice cap.

The Army said the long over-ice trip had been bettered only by the record-shattering exploration of Dr. Vivian E. Fuchs, a British scientist.

The expedition, traveling by tractor and dog sled, was to study weather conditions and mark a snow passage.

Usual life span of the oak tree is 200 to 300 years.

The soft-textured pines from the far western states are different than the yellow pines found in the south, which are heavier in weight and generally harder and more pithy.

Birgitta Hall Divorces Actor Barry Sullivan

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Swedish-born actress Birgitta Hall says that during their marriage actor Barry Sullivan "several times asked me to leave."

★ ★ ★

On the verge of tears the tall, strawberry blonde so testified as she divorced Sullivan Thursday. She charged mental cruelty.

Miss Hall, 30, and Sullivan, 46, married last July 25 in Tijuana, Mexico, and separated last month. He will pay $600 a month alimony until June 1, 1962, unless she remarries before then.

Algerian Plan Expensive

PARIS (AP)—A French Senate committee has estimated that President Charles de Gaulle's five-year development plan for rebellious Algeria will cost five billion dollars. That is about half the total budget for the French government last year.

U.S. to Go Slow on Deals for Trading Farm Surplus

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is expected to go slow in the months ahead in bartering surplus farm products for strategic materials produced abroad.

Legislation authorizing disposal of surpluses permits such barter deals. In times past, sizable quantities of farm products have been moved abroad in exchange for minerals, chemicals and other products used in industry.

But some of these transactions have brought criticism on the ground that they replace sales that could have been made through regular commercial channels for dollars.

The 18-member National Agricultural Advisory Commission, which met here earlier this week, recommended to Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson that there be no expansion in such trades, particularly with western European countries.

The commission took the position that improved economic conditions in that and other parts of the world put this country in a position to insist upon dollar sales for farm products.

Benson told newsmen his department certainly would take the commission's recommendation in developing future barter deals and policies.

During the first three months of this year, the department made barter contracts involving about 60 million dollars worth of farm products. This was nearly four times the amount made in the first quarter of 1958.

But some farm-state legislators have been critical of the department because it has not broadened barter dealings.

Strategic materials obtained for farm products are turned over to the national stockpile as that pool requires them. Otherwise, they are held by the department along with its big stock of farm products.

U. S. Steel Industry Will Train Indians

NEW YORK (AP)— The nation's steel industry has agreed to train 100 Indian engineers a year over the next three years to meet what India's Premier Nehru calls a need for "trained human material" to man his country's expanding steel program.

★ ★ ★

Steelways, official publication of American Iron and Steel Institute, says the program provides in-plant training for India's selected graduate engineers to help insure success of that nation's current five-year industrialization plan.

Week's Auto Production Pegged at 130,106 Units

DETROIT (AP)—Automotive News today estimated passenger car production for this week at 130,106 units. Last week's total was 129,270 and a year ago in the similar week production amounted to 92,277 cars.

★ ★ ★

This week's production plus the two days remaining in the month next week should bring June production to 460,000 units.

Truck output for the week is estimated at 27,610 against 27,524 last week and 16,510 in 1958.

Canadian production for the week will be 10,373 cars and trucks against 10,629 last week and 9,245 in 1958.

Massachusetts Pupils Learn French by TV

BOSTON (UPI)—Nearly 60,000 Massachusetts elementary school pupils will take part in a three-year pioneer television course in French beginning in September.

The Massachusetts Executive Committee for School Television said the French series will later be filmed for national distribution. Two 15-minute lessons will be viewed each week by children in the lower grades.

First Man on Moon May Be a Mobot

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first "man" on the moon actually may be a mobile robot called a "mobot."

Planes-Aerospace, official publication of the Aerospace Industries Assn., says the "mobot" has been developed by a missile company for experimental tests in radioactive areas too dangerous for man.

The publication says the "mobot," equipped with flexible steel hands and television-camera eyes, is part of a full scale experimental program to measure effects of atomic radiations upon electronic components.

Minor Fire Extinguished in Orion Township

ORION TOWNSHIP — A minor blaze in the Jim Lomersons home at 1230 Orion Rd. at 7:15 p.m. last night was extinguished within minutes by the Orion Township Fire Department.

Fire Chief Jack Caylor blamed the thunderstorm which struck the area at that time for kindling the fire in the electrical wires of the home. The blaze was contained in a wall of the utility room off the kitchen. No one was hurt. Damage was estimated by Chief Caylor as less than $100.

About 70 per cent of the body weight is water.

Businessmen in Need of Loans Are New Targets of Swindlers

By JERRY BENNETT

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Smooth talking confidence men have started a racket to fleece small businessmen who have been unsuccessful in borrowing money from their banks.

Believing that the con man can get them a loan, businessmen agree to pay him a large fee for his services. By the time victims realize the deal is phony, the swindler has pocketed their money and left town.

Investigators have not determined how much the new racket has netted swindlers. But a Senate Permanent Investigations subcommittee sleuth believes that it has the potential for becoming a multi-million-dollar-a-year fraud.

Subcommittee member Karl Mundt (R-SD) is expected to hold hearings on the problem shortly. It's estimated that 25 companies are involved in the scheme.

★ ★ ★

Also anxious to stamp out the new racket are officials of the Federal Trade Commission who have the job of policing interstate business operations. FTC Executive Director Harry A. Babcock says:

"We started moving against this scheme as soon as its outlines became apparent. Meanwhile, by exposing what the scheme is, we believe we can help businessmen from being victimized."

This is how the con game works. Swindlers canvass a town and locate persons who are having trouble borrowing money to keep their businesses running. They pick a victim and announce they have contacts with important lending agencies that would be more than willing to make a loan.

These agencies are so interested in the welfare of small businessmen, the swindlers say, that they would loan the victim double what he wants.

The swindler explains that for a small fee he will contact the loan company and arrange the deal. Usually any of the victim's doubts are erased when the con man promises to return the fee if the loan doesn't come through.

Fees vary according to the amount that the victim wants to borrow. One outfit gets $100 to arrange a $7,500 loan. To set up a loan ranging from $7,500 to $15,000 calls for a $300 fee. The salesman gets a 30 per cent cut.

Usually the salesman's promises so disarm the victim that he readily signs a contract without glancing at the small print. A close look would show him that what he is really buying is only the con man's promise to recommend him for a loan.

So the swindler simply writes to a lending agency, describes the victim's business and urges that he be allowed to borrow money. Such a letter usually ends up in the lending company's waste basket.

Also worthless is the salesman's promise to pay back the fee if the loan falls through. It's only what's written in the contract that counts.

★ ★ ★

Investigators explain that the majority of persons mixed up in the loan swindle were involved in the notorious advance fee property selling racket. Pressure resulting from last years' Senate hearings, FTC and Post Office Department investigations and newspaper and magazine publicity forced most of the property swindlers to change rackets.

The old racket relied on practically the same swindle techniques. Con men contacted persons who wanted to sell their business or property and promised to get them a buyer for a fee.

The contract, however, promised only that the salesman would advertise the property for sale. It's estimated that swindlers picked up 20 to 50 million dollars a year from this racket.

So far the FTC has lodged complaints against two "loan arranging" firms. The companies are Lenders Service Corp. of Los Angeles and Casey and Associates, Inc., of Chicago.

Seven officers of two other companies have been arrested and charged with using the mails to defraud. These firms are Financial Services, Inc., of Miami and Commercial Finance Service Corp. of Washington, D.C. So far no indictments have been returned.

Big Things Are Ahead in UP Mining Industry

LANSING (UPI) — Big things are ahead for the Upper Peninsula mining industry, Sen. Philip Rahoi (D-Iron Mountain) told the Senate.

"I understand 10 new plants will be in my district in the next 10 years or so," Rahoi said.

Rahoi made the comments as the Senate advanced two house-approved mining bills through preliminary debate. One would clarify taxation of low grade iron ore plants. The other would authorize permits for water use for low grade mining operations.

Snow Machine Will Assure All-Year Skiing

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI)—A new ski area is being built near this resort city which will be equipped to make its own snow.

Most Colorado ski areas are located high in the Rockies, where snow is nearly always plentiful. But this area is at a lower altitude and skiing conditions are not usually good.

★ ★ ★

Charles L. Tutt, president of the Broadmoor Hotel, Inc., said the machine, nicknamed the "Phenomenal Snowman," will be capable of laying down an inch of snow an hour over a wide area. Water is forced through a carburetor under high pressure with compressed air to manufacture a fine blanket of snow.

Broadmoor officials expect to maintain a three-foot snow base on the 3,000-foot-long ski run from November through April.

Castro Cracks Down on Cattlemen Critics

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro has cracked down on the loudest critics of his land redistribution program, seizing 2,355,242 acres of cattle ranch land.

★ ★ ★

Castro sent troops to 400 ranches in Camaguey province to occupy land belonging to 131 cattlemen. He said they had refused to pay small breeders profitable prices for their cattle.

★ ★ ★

Castro acted under government powers to take over property used for counterrevolutionary activities. Although the seizure was not made under the land reform law, the ranches eventually will be distributed to landless peasants.

Blood Spasm in Brain Cause of Rabaut's Illness

WASHINGTON (AP) — The illness of Rep. Louis C. Rabaut (D-Mich) has been diagnosed as a mild spasm of a blood vessel in the brain.

★ ★ ★

An aide said Rabaut will be discharged from Bethesda Naval Hospital "almost without fail early next week." Rabaut has been undergoing extensive tests at the hospital.

The 72-year-old dean of the Michigan congressional delegation became ill in his office last Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

An aide said that a published report that Rabaut had suffered a coronary occlusion was inaccurate. Rabaut had a heart attack six or seven years ago.

Crosby Quartet Hits Big Time in Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Bing's boys—Lindsay, Gary, Phillip and Dennis Crosby—have made the big time in Las Vegas.

They've been signed for a four-week resort hotel engagement starting July 28.

Get Out and Walk, Dr. White Tells Ike

NEW YORK—People . . . places . . . things . . .

Dr. Paul Dudley White, the heart specialist who took care of President Eisenhower after his first attack, keeps tartly in touch with his distinguished patient by means of mutual friends.

To a friend who was about to fly to Augusta to golf with the President, Dr. White said, "Tell him to get rid of that dam' golf cart and get out there and walk. He'll live 10 years longer if he does."

Clark Gable and his good-looking lady sail for Europe today on the Nieu Amsterdam after a jet flight from California with Miss Gable's two sprightly young sons. The boys—who are at the "I want to be a cowboy" stage—can't wait for the sleek transatlantic liner to complete the trip which was begun in a 600 m.p.h. Boeing 707. They've been promised their first train ride!

Life in the Gables' 15th floor suite at the St. Regis palled a bit on the young cowhands. The principal occupation was counting people passing on the street below while leaning out the suite's window. One day the younger of the two boys let out a wild and prolonged "Yippeeeee" which all but caused Gable, who was shaving, to slit his throat.

"Why did you do that?" Gable, who has a few things to learn about children, asked the boy.

The kid shrugged. "Just felt like it," he said, and went back to counting people.

Jack Dempsey was given a surprise 64th birthday party at Trader Vic's Wednesday night. The Mauler, who looked good enough to have taken on both Patterson and Johansson, was pleased as a kid with his first cake.

Dempsey made $5,000,000 with his fists during his years in the ring but today he remains enormously grateful for the smallest favors. The reaction is a throwback to the terrible privation of his early days, when his chief method of travel was via freights and brake-rods and, for food, it was a saloon's free lunch—after he had snatched a beer from in front of a talkative drunk.

Jack first came to New York just 43 years ago, with a busted nose, a roll-neck sweater and a semi-shaved head. He and his then manager shared a hall bedroom near the Polo Grounds, for a time, then moved to a succession of park benches. Nobody wanted him, the greatest piece of fighting machinery of our age.

One of the feature exhibits at the testimonial dinner which his customers gave to Toots Shor the other night was an artist's conception of what the restaurateur's new place will look like—when built. If promises to be a knockout, if the plans are carried out.

"Looks like a place that wouldn't let 'Toots in," a friend said.

The expected cataract of tears did not flow at the Shor dinner, disappointing several guests who arrived with water wings and shark repellant. Old Shor hands were at a loss to explain the strange drought, especially on the part of the proprietor during his valedictory on friendship.

They remember moister times around Toots. When Shor was on "This Is Your Life" it was noticed, for example, that one of his old time employers, Eddie Davis, was quite fidgety while being embraced on screen by Toots. Later, Davis explained:

"I don't hear too good anymore, so to be sure I caught the cues I put on two hearing aids tonight. I was a mass of wires and batteries. I was afraid Toots would cry on me and electrocute me."

It would be quite a switch wouldn't it if Dr. Klaus Fuchs now contacted one of our secret agents in East Germany and offered to supply us with information on the latest Soviet atomic developments?

★ ★ ★

Nutty as that sounds, Fuchs is capable of such a gesture. Part of the original defense of this atomic spy was that he thought it was unfair for us to deprive the rest of the world, specifically Russia, of our atomic knowledge. He left prison with no more of a guilt complex than he brought there. Dr. Alan Nunn May, who preceded him to jail on the same conviction, said, upon leaving, "I'd do the same thing all over again."

Nobody Laughed

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (UPI)—Two Sunnyvale men were arrested yesterday for taking a humorously macabre approach to the threat of maneater sharks in California's coastal waters. Roger LaJeunesse, 21, and Harvey L. Stovall, 23, were taken into custody for erecting 36 signs along the oceanfront reading: "Please do not feed the sharks."

Sidewalk Demonstrations Today, Saturday

City Artists Stage Exhibit

Members of the Pontiac Society of Artists are presenting their third annual "Sidewalk Show" today and Saturday at Tel-Huron Shopping Center.

One of the features of the exhibit this year is "Artists at Work" on location, and the public is invited to come and watch.

MANY DEMONSTRATIONS

Various mediums are being demonstrated by Ingvor Davvison, a past president of the society and chairman of this year's exhibit; Marie Merideth, also a past president, and Emil Ardisson, who has just recently come here from France.

★ ★ ★

Others who will be demonstrating are Charito Bitanga, a young Philippine girl attending the Cranbrook Academy of Art, and Edith Arnold who has been a member of the Pontiac Society of Artists for several years and a winner of various prizes.

★ ★ ★

Oils, water colors, pastels and charcoals are being displayed, including the pictures of Edythe McCulloch, Charito Bitanga, Thelma Matson, Ingvor Davison, Edith Arnold, Irene Cotcher, Mary Fink, Robert Carson, Julia Rogers, Esther Stafford, Kenneth Morowski, Lorraine Fullerton, Vera Rombough, Elizabeth Speers, Gasper Anfor and Arthur Hayes, who were all winners of various prizes at the 11th annual exhibit in May.

SCULPTURE SHOWN

Many of the merchants are displaying terra cotta sculpture in their windows during the two-day exhibit. One of the pieces being shown is "Consolance" done by Hazel Nauman, president of the group, which took three awards at the recent exhibit. Also the prize-winning sculptures by Virginia Lakkari, Mary Fink, Ingvor Davison, Vera Rombough and Virginia Hauser are on display.

Three new members, Emil Ardisson, Catherine McLean and Mrs. Walter Lange have just recently been accepted into the society and their works, too, can be seen.

Ballet to Premiere at Cranbrook

The premiere performance of a new ballet will highlight the second concert of the Cranbrook Gardens Summer Music Festival which will take place in the outdoor Greek Theater in Bloomfield Hills Sunday at 4:30 p.m. The Severo Artists Ballet group of ten dancers will perform a number based on Arensky's Variations on a Tschaikovsky Theme. They will be accompanied by the Chamber Orchestra composed of members of the Detroit Symphony under the baton of Paul Olefsky, musical director of the festival.

★ ★ ★

Choreography for the classical, abstract ballet is by Sandra Severo, founder and director of the Severa Ballet Company now in its fifteenth year in Detroit. Miss Severo characterizes the new ballet as lyrical in style and classical in form gaining its impetus from the music. She has devoted much of her life to the study of her art as a pupil of Bronislava Nijinska, Alicia Markova, Anton Dolin, Edward Caton, Ted Shawn and Romanoff. Pupils of the Severo Ballet Schools have gone on to appear in almost every branch of the American theater including the American Ballet Theater, New York City Ballet, Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo and many Broadway musicals. Among her other works as a choreographer are Symphony Concerto, Portrait of a Ball, Patterns in Ballet, Symphonic Variations, The Nutcracker and The Sleeping Beauty.

★ ★ ★

This will be the third appearance of the Chamber Orchestra at Cranbrook. Their portion of the program will feature Mozart's Salzburg Symphony No. 1, Bartok's Rumanian Dances and the Bach Suite No. 2 in B Minor with Irvin Gilman, flutist. Mr. Gilman received his masters degree from the Manhattan School of Music where he was a member of the faculty before joining the Detroit Symphony. He studied with William Kincaid of the Philadelphia Orchestra and John Wummer of the New York Philharmonic. He has played with the Washington Square Chamber Orchestra, the Symphony of the Air and numerous chamber groups in the East.

★ ★ ★

In case of rain, the concert will take place on the same day and time in the small gymnasium at Cranbrook School which is located one-half mile west of the Greek Theater on Lone Pine road. Tickets are available at Grinnells and they will be on sale at the theater at concert time.

Brunette Ghost Composes for Broadway Musical Hits

By MARY PRIME

NEW YORK (UPI)—Genevieve Pitot writes ballet music for Broadway shows, but her work is still unsung to the public.

"Destry Rides Again" is Miss Pitot's 17th Broadway musical in 11 years, yet few theater-goers recognize her name.

"My position is really that of a ghost writer," she said in an interview. "Most people think the composers write the whole show. They don't — only the songs. Others do the ballet music and continuity. But we are listed on the program as arrangers, not composers."

★ ★ ★

Miss Pitot, born in New Orleans of French descent, was the first woman to compose dance music for Broadway and today is one of only two women in the field. A small brunette with a pixie haircut and determined manner, she started playing the piano when she was three years old. Later she studied in Paris with pianist Alfred Cortot.

★ ★ ★

"I hadn't thought I would do this (ballet scores), but I just fell into it through improvising with dancers," she said.

She began composing ballet scores for such dancers as Charles Weidman, Doris Humphry and Helen Tamiris.

Through Miss Tamiris, she landed her first Broadway show, "Inside U.S.A.," in 1948. Since then, she has composed ballet music for such shows as "Call Me Madam," "Kiss Me Kate," and "Li'l Abner."

She also writes original ballet music, songs, and piano pieces for children, has conducted, and composed an unfinished piano concerto. She has been married 21 years to Joseph Patrick Sullivan, an electrician, hi-fi expert and jazz buff.

Miss Pitot — called "Pitot" (pronounced pee-toh')—spends about two weeks working with the choreographer before a show goes into production. The choreographer gives her an idea of the framework. Then she makes sketches. During rehearsals, she spends about eight hours a day at the theater, then develops and polishes the day's work in another 10 hours at home.

"I guess I walk miles in my apartment before things come out — and it's not a large apartment," she laughed.

★ ★ ★

When a show plays out of town on its pre-Broadway tryout, Pitot is there, watching every matinee and evening performance. She goes to the Broadway opening night, but rarely goes back after that.

"I've had it by that time," she said.

The longest ballet she has scored was "Tiger Lil," from "Inside U.S.A.," which ran 14 minutes.

★ ★ ★

She usually does one musical a season, "but once I went from Tibet to Dogpatch (Shangri-La to "Li'l Abner") in one week," she said.

Recalling her concert pianist days, Miss Pitot said once she was in the middle of a long run up the keyboard, when the piano began to move. She finally had to let go, and the piano rolled off the stage. The stage hand had forgot to wedge the rollers.

Another time she played in a school and the black keys flew off the piano.

"Nobody believes this," she added, "but another time I played in a vaudeville theater on a Sunday night.

"I sat in a chair, started to play, and six arms grabbed me. It was a magician's chair! I spent several hours there before they got me out."

DIANA CALDWELL

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Caldwell of Saline drive, Waterford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Diana, to Wesley H. Slingerland, son of Wesley J. Slingerland of Dixie Highway, Drayton Plains. Diana attends Waterford Township High School and Wesley serves with the U.S. Navy. No date has been set for the wedding.

Franklin A. Poleski Jr. Weds Wanda McMullen

Gowned in white silk organza, Wanda Gayle McMullen became the bride of Franklin A. Poleski Jr. Saturday evening. Nearly 125 guests were present for the ceremony performed by the Rev. Duncan D. McColl of First Christian Church.

Wanda's gown featured a bateau neckline and French cross tucked bodice with a softly gathered cummerbund and full floor-length skirt. A headpiece secured her fingertip veil and her semi-cascade of white and feathered carnations was accented by pale blue netting throughout the bouquet.

★ ★ ★

The newlyweds' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McMullen of Elira road and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin A. Poleski Sr. of Rockwood.

Wearing a cocktail length dress of pale blue taffeta with a lace overdrape blouse and cummerbund waist, Mrs. Nadine Mann of Detroit was the bride's only attendant. Her flowers were a semi-cascade of pink carnations.

Attending the bridegroom were Robert Mann of Detroit as best man and Gary and Herbert Poleski of Rockwood as ushers.

★ ★ ★

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony.

MRS. F. A. POLESKI JR.

Mrs. McMullen chose a blue sheath with pink accessories for the wedding and Mrs. Poleski wore a pink dress with white accessories.

The couple, graduates of Michigan State University, are honeymooning in Texas where they will reside.

Clusters of chalky white beads and enameled leaves makes this threesome of pin, bracelet and earrings just right for summer clothes.

Showers Laud Bride-Elect

Phyllis Law, bride-elect of George A. Googasian, has been feted at showers recently.

★ ★ ★

A spinster luncheon was given Saturday by maid of honor Kaye Newlin at Devon Gables.

Mrs. David Ward, one of the bridal attendants, was hostess at a kitchen shower Monday evening at her home on West Huron street.

★ ★ ★

Others were Mrs. Ralph Schwalm, Mrs. George Newlin, Mrs. Marshall Katchka, Mrs. James Spring, Mrs. Edgar Gillies, Beverly Barkeley, Barbara Hess and Mrs. Michael Kelly.

★ ★ ★

A miscellaneous shower has been given by Miss Law's sisters, both attendants, and she was honored by a kitchen shower given by another attendant, Sally Olmsted of Oak Park, Ill., and Kay Byers in Ann Arbor.

Miss Law is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Law of Miami road and her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Googasian of East Iroquois road.

★ ★ ★

The wedding will be held Saturday.

What Young People Think

'Glorious Fourth' Now Fifth in Holiday Rating

By EUGENE GILBERT

Remember when the Fourth of July ranked with Christmas, in the hearts of young people, as a beloved holiday?

Well, it's that way no longer, judging by a poll we completed recently of 580 youngsters around the country.

The old fashioned Fourth seems to have gone the way of the horse and buggy in the consciousness of today's teenager.

Whether this be due to the virtual disappearance of the firecracker, or to an increasing worldliness among our boys and girls, the fact remains that not one of the several hundred we interviewed placed the Fourth in first place among favorite holidays.

"The value of holidays," Sue Kingsley, 16, of Detroit told one of our poll-takers, "is in drawing the family together. The home is the root of our nation. Without good homes, the United States would fall."

CHRISTMAS TOP CHOICE

Perhaps, in a nation whose populace now wanders far afield for jobs and education, this is why Christmas looms larger and larger as the most popular holiday among young people.

Four out of five of the teenagers we polled told us Christmas was the holiday they prefer to spend with their families above all others. The Glorious Fourth was a choice of only one in 30.

Thanksgiving was a "home for the holidays" preference of two out of three, and Easter was a pick of one out of three.

★ ★ ★

The young people seem to have a "so what" attitude toward holiday pageantry, particularly on Christmas and Thanksgiving. They are quite critical of the custom of parading in new finery on Easter.

On Thanksgiving and Christmas parades, traditional in some communities.

"I don't think they are necessary," said 17-year-old Anne Raymond of Dayton, Ohio, "but the children enjoy them."

On the Easter Parade.

"It's pretty," Barbara Wilmot, 17, of New Orleans agreed reluctantly, "but not in the true spirit of Easter."

"It's a field day for the clothing stores," snorted Stephan Weiss of Hyattsville, Md.

Nine out of 10 of those youngsters we polled said Christmas was their favorite holiday. There was only a scattering of first place votes for other holidays.

"I like the spirit of the Christmas season," said 17-year-old Pat Hill of Kansas City.

"It represents the birth of Christ," added Rosemary Meyer, 16, of Amelia, Ohio.

EASTER SECOND

Second place in the teeners' affections goes to Easter with Thanksgiving a close runner up. The Fourth of July is way down on the list.

"Easter," said Nancy Strock, 17, of Webster Grove, Mo. "It is next in importance to Christmas as it is the day in which the world received its salvation."

Strangely, Easter and Thanksgiving rank one two as the holidays least liked among the one out of five young people who have made up their minds on the subject. One in 10 picked Easter; one in 20 chose Thanksgiving.

★ ★ ★

Dianne Burdick, 16, of Oklahoma City said she liked Thanksgiving the least because "I always get sick from eating too much."

"Labor Day," said 17-year-old John Earnest of Metairie, La. "It is the day before school starts."

"Armistice Day," said Jana Lynn Moore of St. Louis. "My mother puts me to work."

Sylvia Kruebbe, 17-year-old from New Orleans, picked her own birthday because "each birthday means I'm getting closer and closer to responsibility and also because hardly anyone remembers it anymore and that hurts."

Here is how the holidays rank in percentage in the affections of America's young people:

	1st	2nd
Christmas	86.8	6.1
Easter	.8	34.0
Thanksgiving	.8	22.6
New Year's Day	.8	7.6
Fourth of July	—	6.1
Personal Birthday	—	6.1

Only a Man Would Ask Such Questions

By RUTH MILLETT

Only a man could ask these questions:

"What difference does it make if Miriam has a dress just like your new one and is planning to wear it to the Saturday night dance, too?"

"Well, what have you been doing all day?—when there are 16 guests invited for supper.

"What do you mean you don't have anything to wear? You've got a closet full of clothes."

"Isn't that a new dress?" when it's one you've been wearing for the last two years.

"Why do we have to have the Browns to our party just because we couldn't get out of going to theirs?"

"Why do you have to clean house just because you're having the bridge club for lunch?"

"If you don't like her why do you always act so glad to see her?"

"If you like it, why bother any further. What difference does it make that this is the first store you've tried?"

"How do you know she dyes her hair?"

"Why can't we just say we don't want to go. Why do we have to make excuses?"

"What's so tragic about a frizzy permanent? It will grow out, won't it?"

"You're certainly not going to send it back after you've bought and paid for it, are you?"

"If you don't like those shoes with pointed toes, why do you wear them?"

"What is that tall, skinny what's-his-name around here for? I thought Janie said they had broken up and she was never going to speak to him again."

Queen Mary Group Meets for Luncheon

Sixteen members attended the luncheon meeting of Queen Mary Section of Needlework Guild, held Thursday afternoon at the Brendel Lake home of Mrs. Frank Snover. Mrs. Harvie Little assisted and Mrs. William Miller was guest.

Mrs. Little reported on the garments already completed for fall ingathering. Members spent the afternoon sewing baby garments.

Ideas Have Changed on Chaperones

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter, aged nineteen, and three of her girl friends of the same age would like to rent a cabin at a lake for two weeks. I do not think it proper for young girls to go off unchaperoned this way. Evidently I am the only mother who seems to be objecting to this plan and have been told that I am terribly old-fashioned. I would like very much to know what you think about this."

Answer: Nineteen does seem rather young, but I think that if they are serious young girls and their behavior is above criticism, their unchaperoned stay at the lake will not be improper.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My son is to be married soon. The bride and her family are planning a very large wedding and reception and my son was informed that he is expected to share the expense of it. This has come as quite a blow to him as he hadn't counted on this added expense.

"I always thought the size of the wedding was according to what the bride's parents could afford and that the groom had nothing whatever to do with it. Will you please tell me if he is obliged to pay for this?"

Answer: You are entirely right. Neither the bridegroom nor his family have any share in the expense of the wedding excepting his fee to the clergyman. In some communities he buys the bridal bouquet. Also, he buys the boutonnieres, ties and gloves for his ushers.

Pontiac Music Guild Gathers

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Derragon were hosts at their Watkins Lake home to members and guests of Pontiac Music Guild Tuesday evening.

Attending the annual event were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schmidt, Marguerite Ballard, Charles Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. James Morris and daughters, Jacqueline and Pamela; Mrs. Everett Russell, Mrs. Hazel Gessinger and Mrs. Marie Voydanoff.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Snell, Mrs. Walter Schmitz and children, Allyn, Tyler, Polly and Nancy.

Be Regular

Exercise Stomach Muscles

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
The Question Box

Q. "My bust measures 37 inches, waist 28 and hips 38. I am not young any longer but am very active in sports. In spite of this I am having figure trouble. My abdomen is flabby. Also I have fatty deposits on the inside of my knees. Can you help me? I have benefited by your advice many times before."

A. I am glad that I have been of help to you. While sports use the abdominal muscles, of course, and are a great help, I do not believe that they accomplish the same results that special abdominal exercises do. This is a good one.

You use abdominal muscles while engaging in sports, but for best results do special abdominal exercises.

Lie on the floor on your back with your legs straight and your arms resting on the floor overhead. Keep the arms in this position while you bend both knees up close to the abdomen, stretch the legs toward the ceiling and slowly lower legs to the floor. Now take time to stretch out on the floor, from toes to fingertips. Continue.

★ ★ ★

Fat on the insides of the knees is difficult to banish. These are the two best procedures I know. Lie on your back on the floor. Bend both knees and place the feet on the floor a few inches apart. Slap the knees together. Separate the knees. Continue clapping and separating.

This is one spot in which it is safe to pinch, massage and knead the fatty deposits. Do so each night.

Q. "Can anything be done about protruding ears?"

A. Yes. They can be corrected by plastic surgery.

Q. "Please help me. This is serious to me. I am 18 years old, 5 feet 8 inches tall and weigh 150 pounds. I feel that I am overweight but everyone tells me that I am just right. I stand tall and people say that I am attractive. My measurements are, bust 37 inches, waist 24, hips 40 inches."

★ ★ ★

A. If you have a truly large frame, you probably are not overweight. You certainly have an extremely small waist. I suggest if you lose any weight at all, don't lost over five pounds. Also take hip-slimming exercises for a loss of a few inches in that measurement.

Q. "At the age of 12 how tall should I be?"

A. I cannot give you a definite answer to that. Some girls achieve their full height sooner than others. Also this depends on your inheritance.

If any of my readers would like to have my tested hip slimming exercises, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 3. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Dear Abby:

Better Keep on Henpecking Till Husband Chickens Out

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for 36 years and I have never had any trouble like what I'm having now. My husband recently spent five weeks in the hospital. Being a very friendly gent, he made friends with everybody there.

He said he got such good service from one of the nurses that he promised to buy her a chicken dinner when he got out. I told him if he wanted to buy her a chicken dinner it was all right with me but I liked chicken, too, and we could all go together. He said no, he wanted to take her alone. I said it was out of the question. Am I right or is he?

ABBY

OVER SIXTY

DEAR OVER: Henpeck the old rooster until he includes you in on the chicken dinner. If you let him take her alone, you're a dumb cluck.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: When I call my mother after 9 o'clock at night I can't understand a word she says because she doesn't have her teeth in. Now, I have heard that some people sleep all night with their dentures in and take them out only to clean them. As a child I recall seeing my father's false teeth in a glass in the bathroom soaking all night. Do people still do this or does it mean it's a poor fit when they take them out at night?

BERTHA

DEAR BERTHA: This question is something for more experienced folks to sink their teeth into. My dentist says that dentures, if properly fitted, can remain comfortably in the mouth all night.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Why is it that fathers and mothers can't sleep with their children any more? It burns me up how people put little children off in rooms by themselves and then go to bed and cuddle up in one another's arms. I raised only one child. When she got too big for all three of us to get in bed together, she and I slept in one bed and my husband in another. We slept that way until she got married. Children are little just once and I believe in enjoying them as long as possible. Don't you agree?

GOOD MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Children can be cuddled during the daytime but when bedtime comes, a "good mother" teaches her daughter by example that a woman's place is with her husband. The world is full of lonely wives who have "cuddled" their children instead of their husbands.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I live in a rural community where it's nice to be friendly with everybody. But this one neighbor will be the death of me. She comes over right after breakfast and stays all day. She is a nut on religion and carries her Bible around in her purse. She will follow me around the house reading out of the Bible. I don't want her to get mad at me but, Abby, how can I get rid of her.

BUSY

DEAR BUSY: Ask her to turn to Proverbs 25:17 where she will find: "Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbor's house; lest he becomes weary of thee . . ."

CONFIDENTIAL TO BARRY: The best way to handle a "cold shoulder" is a mink stole.

For a personal reply, write to Abby in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Tribute to a Barber

Historical tidbit department: Did you know that the famous Porta Pia gate in Rome has three bas reliefs of a barber's basin — complete with soap? This was the builder's tribute to his father, a barber!

SUZANNE BRUMMETT

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Brummett of Canterbury drive announce the engagement of their daughter, Suzanne, to Timothy Agar. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fisher of Boyd street. No date has been set for the wedding.

Youngsters love to play in water so if they are plagued with one of summer's common skin complaints and a baking soda bath is prescribed, following doctor's orders is easy. Lacking a bona fide pool, a big dishpan or an old sitz bath given a fresh white coat of paint make first-rate substitutes. Have water cool and make sure splashing is done in the shade.

Enjoy Summer Luxury

Treat Yourself to Old-Fashioned Bath

Somewhere between the time the old tin sitz bath gave way to the porcelain tub and the Saturday night soak to the daily dunk, the bath lost much of its stature.

Instead of being a traditional weekly affair, an occasion you anticipated with dread or delight, depending upon your age, it somehow became a habit. Now it is a routine, as mechanical as brushing your teeth or washing your face.

This summer, when the mercury sizzles, treat yourself to the luxury of real old-fashioned soak. Have it during the hottest part of the day, with the water cool to tepid.

Icy water chills you temporarily, but sends circulation soaring. Give it a healthful quality by adding a cup of baking soda to the water, and make it delightfully fragrant by keeping the soda in an apothecary jar with a floral-scented sachet tucked deep down in its midst.

Such a bath is not only relaxing and cooling, but a blessing to troubled skin. Dermatologists recommend it for sunburn, for dryness, for poison ivy, oak and sumac. Pediatricians also prescribe this type of bath for the small fry's summer skin problems.

Keep Barbecue Sauce Handy to Baste Meat

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Now that the season of outdoor meals is upon us, the fragrance of barbecuing meat is in the air. You can now buy special cuts of meat just for your rotisserie or outdoor grill.

★ ★ ★

Dave Collier who lives at Cooley Lake is the outdoor chef in his family. Today's recipe is for his favorite barbecue sauce. Collier likes to fish and is a competent handyman around the house.

BARBECUE SAUCE
By Dave Collier

½ bottle chili sauce
2 tablespoons horseradish
Paprika
Cayenne pepper (as you desire)
2 pints salad oil
1 pint vinegar

Mix together well. To use on spareribs, first salt the meat. Baste with sauce and put on grill. Cook, turning as needed and basting frequently.

Want Suspense on TV, Not With Children

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

The light in the hall closet is burning.

I open the front door and say to the daughter who's sitting on the porch steps strapping on her skates: "Come back inside and turn off the light you left on in the hall closet."

"I wasn't in the closet," she says, buckling a skate.

"But the closet is where you keep your roller skates," I say.

"I left them in the garage last night," says the child.

Is she lying? How can I tell? She often forgets to turn lights off. If she's lying about forgetting the one in the hall closet and gets away with it, am I not encouraging her to resort to lies whenever the truth is inconvenient? What kind of training is it that ignores the possibility your child is lying to you?

I've got a genuine problem—and four alternatives. I can content myself with presenting my reasons for disapproving of disregard of the electric bill. I can, like a detective, try to discover the truth for myself. I can force a confession from her. And I can wait for more light on the truthfulness or deception of my child.

Mostly, in my own experience as a parent, I've chosen to wait.

NOT EASY

It's not been easy. I'm an American and impatient of waiting. Though we Americans love suspence in movies, fiction and TV, we loath it in our own lives. We want what we want when we want it whether it's a change in traffic lights, recovery from the flu or truth from a child.

To avoid waiting for what we want, we buy cars on time and insist on antibiotics as soon as we start running a temperature. So waiting for a child to relieve us of suspense by telling us the truth is hard on everyone. If we decide to wait for more light on a child's truthfulness or deceitfulness, we are apt to do it so resentfully that our patience is really a silent accusation. And is seldom productive.

It is this same impatience that betrays us into choosing the third alternative — forcing a confession. As you can make anyone tell you anything you want to hear if you torture them long enough, forced confession is a poor way to arrive at the truth.

★ ★ ★

Whichever alternative we choose when we are unsure of the truth a child is telling us, impatience will be our real problem—our terror of anything that is unknown and uncertain.

Japanese Bride Brings Talents to Home in Area

By LEE WINBORN

OAKLAND TOWNSHIP — Little did Mrs. Mitsuko Hamilton dream when she was high school abacus champion in Kyoto, Japan, that she would marry a U.S. Army sergeant and learn to bake a delicious apple pie.

"Mits," as she is affectionately called by her family and friends, came to the United States with her husband of one year back in 1953.

Her husband, then Sgt. William Hamilton, had been stationed on Pacific islands and in Japan for seven years. He was in the signal corps before and during the Korean War.

"Mits" and Bill were married March 19, 1952, by the American Consul in Kyoto, the bride's home town.

Their oldest son, Bob, now 7, was the first incubator baby born in the Sendai Army Hospital. He weighed 2½ pounds at birth and was in the incubator for 45 days.

The young couple and their infant son left Japan by boat late in 1953 and arrived at his parents' home at 290 W. Buell Rd. on Dec. 24—just in time for Christmas.

Pontiac Press Photo

HAS ARTISTIC TALENT — Mrs. Mitsuko Hamilton, who lives at 290 W. Buell Rd., Oakland Township, is shown making folding paper figures, birds and animals — an art which she learned as a schoolgirl in Kyoto, Japan. She married a U. S. Army sergeant in Japan and came to the United States with him and their first-born son in 1953. She often is called upon to cut out silhouettes and make folding paper designs for Scouts, church and school groups in the Rochester area.

Mrs. Hamilton has brought many of the talents she learned in school to her new home. She is an expert at cutting out silhouettes, and is a folding paper artist.

Folding paper, called "oarigami," is five-inch square sheets which may be folded artistically into shapes of birds, fish, flowers, human figures, animals and houses. "Mits" can even make Santa Claus and a Christmas tree.

And she is no stranger to the kitchen. She recently cooked a full course Japanese-Chinese dinner for 19, and she said there wasn't a crumb left on any plate. The menu consisted of sukiyaki, fried rice, chop suey, "pepper steak" and rice cake.

Her mother-in-law, Mrs. Bruce Grace, who lives in the main house next door to the Hamiltons, said her whole family has always been interested in the Orient and Oriental customs. She learns as much from her daughter-in-law as "Mits" learns from her, she said.

Among the many other occupations the charming Japanese woman has become proficient in since arriving here, besides cooking, is gardening. Like all little girls in Japan she learned the art of flower arrangements in school, but had never grown the plants herself.

Mrs. Grace and her uncle, Eric Young, have over an acre of their 40-acre property in flower beds. In another section there are two more areas filled with 27 varieties of wild flowers.

So, naturally "Mits" was encouraged to try her hand at gardening. Now she has both a vegetable and a flower garden of her own.

The Hamiltons have a second son now, three-year-old Jimmie, born in Pontiac. Bill is now a welder maintenance man in the New Haven Foundry, New Haven.

This happy family finds much pleasure living on a beautifully landscaped hill overlooking a clear, sparkling stream—"a perfect spot to raise a family," they agree.

PREVIEW OF FAIR — This scene will be re-enacted Sunday when members of St. Andrew Catholic Church, Rochester, stage their Western-inspired country fair and dinner from noon to 6 p. m. at the church. Participants will include, from left, Terry De Eulis, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay De Eulis of 1545 Avon Circle, Avon Township, Mrs. Ted Davis, Mrs. Lawrence E. McLochlin and Kevin O'Donnell, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Donnell of 115 Kalhaven Rd., Avon Township.

Slates Dinner, Fair at Rochester

Church to Relive Old West

ROCHESTER—The days of the old west will be revived in Rochester when St. Andrew Catholic Church stages its cafeteria-style chicken dinner and country-style fair from noon to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Men of the parish, headed by a former restaurant chef, will cook and serve the dinner in the parish hall located at 231 Walnut Blvd.

The cooks' country hats will be complemented by the poke bonnet attire of the women conducting the fair just outside the church in the rectory yard.

Booths will be unique in their old west flavor, church members said. A real covered drummer's wagon will be the setting for the gift shop where beanbag clowns, hand puppets and "looney" hats will be sold.

OLD-FASHIONED SALOON

An old-fashioned saloon will dispense soft drinks, and a country store will market fresh produce and a variety of canned goods.

Silhouettes will be made and sold in the tin-type shop, and home-made doughnuts will be offered at the pastry shop. Religious articles will be sold at the Spanish Mission, and potted plants, cactus and cut flowers will be available from a flower cart.

Burro rides are expected to highlight the day for the youngsters. An apron lady whose pockets will be stuffed with secret goodies will roam the grounds, and games will be conducted throughout the afternoon.

Seek Orchard Lake Postmaster Aspirants

ORCHARD LAKE—Applications for the job of postmaster at Orchard Lake are now available and will be until July 7, according to Mrs. Mary Purdy, postmistress here.

Salary is $5,385 a year. The position is open to those who have been residents of Orchard Lake for at least one year, are at least 18 years of age and are U.S. citizens.

Date of examinations has not been established yet. It will be announced at a later date, and will be held at the U.S. Post Office in Pontiac.

Gravel Pit Ordinance Faces Test in Court

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP — Validity of the interim zoning ordinance, mainly governing gravel pit operations in the township, will be tested in court Monday.

★ ★ ★

A township couple has brought suit on Macomb County Circuit Court against the Township Board and Zoning Administrator Ralph Sheldon.

This action climaxes months of haggling over the ordinance by township property owners, gravel pit owners and township officials since its adoption last October.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Fettig, of 64707 Mound Rd., are seeking a writ of mandamus to order township officials to enforce the ordinance.

'CHAOTIC CONDITIONS'

The Fettigs charge that "lack of enforcement has resulted in chaotic conditions throughout the western portion of the township endangering the public health, safety and welfare of all inhabitants of this section."

They will be represented by Romeo Attorney J. Gerald McLean. Another Romeo attorney, Percy G. Horler, will represent the township.

Horler and Township Supervisor R. Eugene Inwood said, "We welcome this suit. We have wanted a test case to determine the validity of various sections of the ordinance."

★ ★ ★

"We will be glad to have a court decision," they said.

Inwood added that the township could not control gravel pits with present provisions governing the hours they may operate, what roads they may use and other pertinent issues.

Best Commercial Class Replaced by Service Clubs

UTICA — One major change has been made in the list of categories for parade entries in the Utica Lions 13th annual Fourth of July celebration and homecoming, Steve Skula and Gerald Moll, parade cochairmen announced today.

The best service club float will replace the best commercial float as a classification.

Other categories will remain the same, with prizes to be offered for best entries in the most beautiful and most patriotic float divisions.

The other classifications, in addition to most beautiful and most patriotic floats, are most comical float, best comic adult float, most beautiful pleasure car, best horse-drawn vehicle, best decorated doll buggy, most unusual pet, best dressed, comical kiddie and best marching group.

The day-long celebration will open at 9:30 a.m. with the coronation of "Miss Utica," Gwendolyn Beer, by Gov. Williams on the reviewing stand at Cass avenue and Auburn road.

According to tradition, the governor will act as honorary marshal of the parade which will start at 10 a.m. from Cass avenue and Stead street.

★ ★ ★

Other dignitaries expected to march in the parade will include U. S. Sen. Philip A. Hart, U. S. Representative James G. O'Hara and Lt. Gov. John Swainson.

Parade participants will march down Cass avenue to Auburn road then west to Ramona Park where the rest of the day's events will take place. Also taking parts in the parade will be high school bands from Utica, Romeo, Roseville and New Haven.

The Drum and Bugle Corps of Port Huron and the Mount Clemens Amvet Post 29 marching band, Warren police band and Eddie Ritter Ntwit Kids also will be featured.

★ ★ ★

"Miss Utica" and her two attendants, Judy Jambriska and Geraldine Czerwinski, will ride on the Utica Lions float, and floats from other nearby communities also will be entered in the parade.

★ ★ ★

Other events of the day will include games for boys and girls at the park, a carnival, refreshments and other amusements for all members of the family, according to Moll, who is also general co-chairman of the entire program with Truman Burgess.

Romeo Council Wants Building

Takes Option on Wilbur Furniture Site for New Village Hall

ROMEO — Upon the recommendation of its Ways and Means Committee, the Romeo Village Council has taken an option to buy the Wilbur Furniture building on W. St. Clair street for a future village hall.

★ ★ ★

Presently renting the first floor of the Masonic Temple, the council has decided it needs permanent quarters and more space to consolidate all the village's mechanical departments.

The option provides for payment of $24,000 with $4,000 down and $200 a month. The building will be paid for in just over 11 years.

★ ★ ★

If the Council approves the purchase at its next meeting July 13, the move will take place in about 60 days. The clerk's office and the police department will make the change first with the other departments to follow.

Owner of the building is Lee J. Wilbur of 68991 Mound Rd.

Church Service To Honor Minister at Congregational

ROCHESTER—Dr. Ray Morton Hardy will conduct his final service as interim minister of the First Congregational Church here on Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Following the worship service at 9:30 a.m., a farewell coffee has been planned to honor Dr. Hardy, who has served the church since January.

The Colonial Guild of the Women's Fellowship with Mrs. George Holtz as chairman will have charge of the coffee hour.

Backs Military Extension

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Armed Services Committee has approved a four-year extension of programs under which 17 to 18½ year olds may volunteer for six months of military reserve training. The House already has passed the bill.

Charge Reduced to Felonious Assault

Faces Hearing in Shooting

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — Having been held on a charge of assault with intent to murder, Clifton Johnson, 37, was bound over yesterday to Oakland County Circuit Court for a further hearing sometime in September.

★ ★ ★

Justice of the Peace Lonnie Cash reduced the charge to felonious assault with intent to do great bodily harm.

Alfred Dillard, 27, of 10685 Foxton Ct., was found lying in his back yard June 6 after he had been shot, allegedly by Johnson from his adjoining back yard at 10768 Hinsdale St.

Dillard was discharged from William Beaumont Hospital June 21 and appeared with other witnesses before Justice Cash yesterday. Dillard and the witnesses claim that the shooting was unprovoked and that Johnson had been drinking at the time of the shooting.

Dillard has lost the sight of his right eye and must return to the hospital for head surgery as a result of the shooting.

JOANNE LIKO

Only One Candidate Files in Clarkston

CLARKSTON — Only one candidate has filed a petition to seek a post on the Board of Education in the annual school election July 13.

Incumbent Walter R. Wilberg, 42, of 9520 Sashabaw Rd., is seeking election to the position for a second consecutive term. He is married, has two boys in the Clarkston school system, and is a superintendent for the Schurrer Construction Co.

White Lake Set to Honor Trustee, Ex-Supervisor

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — An open house honoring Forrest Brendel, former township supervisor, and LeRoy Thompson, Township Board trustee here, is scheduled for 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday at White Lake Township Community Hall on M59 at Porter road.

Brendel retired in April after 24 years of service to the community as township supervisor. Thompson, who served for the same period, was known first as justice of the peace and for the past several years as Township Board trustee.

Both men will receive a plaque for their services at the event which is open to the public.

Will Organize Library 'Friends'

To Exhort Clarkston Residents to Reconsider Proposition

CLARKSTON — Because the library proposal lost by such a small majority in the spring election, a group of residents will meet at 8:30 p.m. Monday at the library and organize for a new campaign.

★ ★ ★

Organizing as the "Friends of the Library," a six-member executive committee will outline prospective educational plans to acquaint the public with "what they have, and what is needed," according to chairman Merle Bennett.

A proposition to establish a free public library in Independence Township was defeated by a slim margin of 12 votes, 554 to 542.

At the present time, the library is operating from a small building owned by, and next to, the Township Hall on Main street. All work toward the operation and maintenance of the building and contents has been volunteer, with the Clarkston Women's Club sponsoring the project.

★ ★ ★

The main purpose of Monday's meeting is to establish a date for a general public meeting in early September to "get the feeling of residents regarding a self-sustaining library," Bennett said.

About 33,000 navigation aids are operated by the U.S. lighthouse service.

Newlyweds Head West for Honeymoon, Home

AVON TOWNSHIP — On a honeymoon trip to California where they will reside are newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Augino Jr.

The bride is the former Judith Ann Pineau and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred P. Pineau of 2284 Livernois Rd. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Augino of Kenmore, N.Y.

The wedding ceremony was performed at the Shrine of the Little Flower in Royal Oak by the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, pastor.

A gown featuring a bouffant skirt of French tulle and a brocade lace bodice was worn by the bride. Her fingertip veil fell softly from a double tiara crown and she carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations in a cascade arrangement.

Sister of the bride, Rebecca Carol, assisted her as maid of honor.

Duties as best man were performed by Thomas Yormick of Buffalo, N.Y. Ushers were the bride's brother, David, and her cousin, Henry Pineau of Royal Oak.

MRS. CARL E. AUGINO JR.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the cermony.

★ ★ ★

The newlyweds will reside in Van Nuys, Calif.

State Senate Adds $100,000 to Bill

LANSING (AP)—Senate budget planners have slipped $100,000 into the state safety and defense bill for 1959-60 to keep alive a $468,000 state armory project at Sault Ste. Marie.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield), Appropriations Committee chairman, said yesterday he understood bids on the project were to be opened today.

Despite a near "austerity" budgeting policy, Porter said it was decided to put up the state money rather than risk the loss of federal funds that will pay most of the shot.

★ ★ ★

Earlier, legislators had turned down Department of Administration recommendations for money for several armory projects.

The safety and defense bill, already approved by the House, is on the Senate calendar after being favorably reported by Porter's group.

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP—After three years of satisfactory operation, the High Haven subdivision developers have been released from any obligation to the township.

A check for $3,000 deposited by the real estate company "in good faith," was presented to the council, at a special meeting, giving the township operation of three good-sized water systems.

High Haven is located near Pelton and Sashabaw roads, and approximately 200 homes are connected to the water system, according to Township Clerk Harold Doebler.

Tall Cuts for Greener Lawn

By WAYNE B. SIEFERT
County Horticultural Agent

Does a browning lawn spoil a good spring start? Does a lot of advice from neighbors, local experts and wives seem to fail? Maybe something as simple as the height of cut is a big part of the problem.

* * *

Not only is "teamwork" the theme in industry, but is pretty vital in lawn management to. Regular fertilizing, good grass, occasional water and long cut.

It takes green leaves to make any plant grow, and grass is no exception. The more leaf we have the more growth we get, especially roots. If we can get deep roots, it will stay green longer.

Set your mower for a two inch cut and try it out this summer. You certainly have nothing to lose.

EXTRA BOOST

Side dress your garden for a 20 per cent profit. An extra shot of fertilizer will skyrocket your prestige as a miracle man in the garden.

After many plants get established, a shot of Nitrogen fertilizer will double the small investment. When corn is knee high tomatoes have their first fruit and melons and cucumbers begin to blossom — give them a high Nitrogen fertilizer.

* * *

For many this will mean the left over lawn fertilizer. If your plants are in clumps (tulips) punch 4 or 5 holes in the soil about six inches deep and eight to ten inches from the nearest plant.

Dump a medium tablespoon of fertilizer in each hole, then cover up. Treat each tomato plant the same as a hill crop. If your garden is getting a little dry, additional watering will speed up the action.

* * *

Many home owners have been baffled by the problem of how to slow down and shape up the young pine trees on their property. Christmas tree growers have the same problem with several acres of young trees, but are learning that pruning is easy and plenty profitable.

June 20 to July 20 has proven the most satisfactory when the new "candles" are still growing. They cut off about half of the new growth of young trees. This not only includes the top candles and leader but the candles on all the side branches.

Many lopsided and homely trees have been transformed into attractive and valuable plants.

If you would like to attend a meeting and see professionals trim trees, call the Cooperative Extension Service for location of a meeting this Sunday morning or next Tuesday evening.

PINE SHOOT MOTH

Pine shoot moth has ruined lots of pines, including Mugho Pines, not because they are so tough to control, but because we didn't know when. If you have had trouble with an olive colored worm which causes the new shoots to wilt and die, this note is to you.

The moth of this worm will begin to lay eggs for next years' worms sometime around June 25. DDT stops this pest cold by killing the adults and destroying the hatching larve. Make two applications at 10-14-day intervals, starting as soon as possible. The liquid formula is somewhat more effective than the wettable powder.

Watering Theory Doubted

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

CHAPPAQUA, N. Y. — Another fondly-held gardening belief has now been attacked: the theory of watering.

As every owner of a lawn mower knows, if you can't water your lawn thoroughly, it's better not to water at all. Why? Because grass roots in their search for moisture will grow close to the surface of the soil instead of going down deep.

Well, apparently that isn't true at all. The current issue of a little magazine on lawn care sent out by a national company which specializes in the care and culture of grass reports that a five year study of the best ways to water grass, conducted at an agricultural station at Fort Collins in Colorado, reveals that a light watering is sometimes better for the grass than a thorough drenching; that a little water is far better than none, and that roots do not "reach" for water. They grow in the top six inches of soil no matter what your watering practice.

I tell you, you've got to have a flexible open mind to be a gardener these days. My own attitude toward garden experts — the raised eyebrow — started a long time ago when a nurseryman suggested a foundation planting of laurel in quite strongly alkaline soil located in a sunny southern position beside my garage.

Almost every beginning gardener knows that laurel is an acid-loving plant which appreciates some shade. My nurseryman told me however, that he had found laurel thrived nicely in fairly sweet soil — and he has been proved right.

BONE MEAL

Through the years other experts in print, have sought to shake my own implicit faith in the value of bone meal as a fertilizer. And one horticulturist wrote a passionate and convincing book extolling the virtues of plants considered to be noxious weeds in enriching soil, preventing erosion and keeping moisture in the ground.

No one, as far as I know, has yet attacked the widely held gardening belief that a mulch is a fine way to reduce the amount of garden maintenance during hot weather, to prevent a broiling sun from evaporating moisture from the top soil and to improve ultimately the texture of not so good dirt.

Certainly if one does a good job of cleaning the garden beds of weeds, a good thick mulch of some sterile material: peat moss, buckwheat hulls, straw, salt hay, even stones does discourage weed growth and evaporation.

DECORATIVE BOWL — A handcrafted clear crystal epergne, consisting of a ten inch bowl and three eight inch trumpet vases, can create a most beautiful floral arrangement for use on a console or as a centerpiece for the table, since it looks equally attractive from any angle. Remove the vases and you will have a perfect bowl for a low arrangement of flowers.

Flowers Perk Up a Room

Nothing can perk up a room faster than the addition of flowers. With the right ingredients and good common sense, it is an easy matter to make a handsome flower arrangement.

Handcrafted American glass can contribute greatly to the beauty and decorative harmony of a floral arrangement.

Remember, though, that the container should agree with the color of the room and its size should be selected in accordance to the area where it will be placed.

The container should not be too large for the flowers, nor should the flowers overwhelm the container.

Bowls and vases are the obvious selections which immediately come to mind, but there are many other glass items that can easily be transformed into pretty holders for blossoms. A hand-crafted crystal pedestaled candy dish is just the right size for a center-of-the-table floral arrangement.

PERFORM NICELY

Berry bowls and goblets perform nicely as planters for small posies. A glass cruet can be used for a single rose.

Brandy snifters are wonderful for a massive bouquet or for foliage. Pilsner glasses or glass mugs, because they are informal in feeling, are eye-catching when filled with wild flowers.

* * *

Handsomely formed ashtrays, or large square-shaped cigarette boxes, lead a double life when they hold a floating flower arrangement.

An epergne is a bit of magic for floral arrangements. It can be put together in a variety of ways. Just by a twist of the wrist it can serve for a tall or low one.

Epergnes come in all types of glass. There are clear crystal ones, colored glass ones and milk glass ones. Some are modern in design, while others are Early American in feeling.

Make Dogs, Rabbits Take Safe Detour

When a dog or rabbit heads directly for your landscaping, it is generally a matter of utmost convenience for them and often part of their routine romp.

Of course, they don't know that they are causing a nuisance problem that not only stains but sometimes kills plants . . . they don't know it, but you do!

Is there a humane, yet effective method of controlling this nuisance? The U.S. Department of Agriculture suggests:

"Simply spray flowers, shrubs, or premises with a dilute nicotine sulphate."

This method utilizes the animal's own sharp sense of smell to keep them away from trees, plants or house corners. They will make their own detour if you use this formula:

APPLY TWICE

Mix two tablespoonsful of nicotine sulphate in a gallon of water. Apply once every two weeks to shrubs, flowers, corners of buildings, and tree trunks. Renew after rain.

* * *

Dip three or four pipe cleaners in the mixture, curl the tops of the cleaners cane-fashion and hook them over low branches of your evergreens at the nose-level of the average dog.

Or saturate a one-inch strip of cloth with nicotine sulphate and wrap it around the tree trunk at about the height of a dog's nose.

Tree Needs Burp if Wetwood Ill Causes Sap Spill

Internal gases cause as much distress in trees as they do in humans. Home owners, who claim they take care of their woody pets like babies, may have to have the gassy ones mechanically "burped" too.

The cause is an ill called wetwood, otherwise known as slime flux. Almost anyone can spot the tell-tale symptom—sap of flux ooze down the trunk, wetting large bark areas.

There are other more subtle manifestations of the infection, when grass are completely bottled up, which call for diagnosis by the qualified tree doctor. The symptoms are somewhat similar in elms, one of the favorite victims, to Verticillum wilt, phloem necrosis or Dutch Elm Disease.

Frequently there is yellowing or browning of the leaves, dieback of twigs and branches and brownish streaking of branches. The disease is an aftermath of bacterial invasion of the heartwood with gases forming by fermentation of the sap. Scientists have found gas pressures as high as 60 pounds per square inch.

For arresting the slow declines of arboreal wetwood sufferers, the surgical technique is to provide means for the gases to escape harmlessly. This is accomplished by installing drain tubes placed in a slanting hole drilled through the trunk to tap the wetwood area.

Trees other than elms commonly afflicted include maple, mulberry, oak, willow, birch, walnut, plane, poplar and horsechestnut.

MSU to Hold Florists' Day

Opportunity to Observe Research Work Being Done by Floriculturists

EAST LANSING—Florists from the Pontiac area will have an opportunity to inspect research work being done by Michigan State University at the annual "Florists' Day in College" at MSU July 14.

About 200 growers, wholesalers and retailers of cut flowers from Michigan and surrounding states will meet at the Kellogg Center for Continuing Education for the day-long event.

Florists will also hear reports from practical growers and industry leaders on the latest developments in the production and marketing of floricultural crops.

A review of MSU research will include topics on air cooling, nutrition, fertilization and growth regulation.

DISEASE CONTROL

Other discussions will focus on grading and packaging, California growing techniques for snapdragons and carnations and new developments in insect and disease control.

Visits to the plant science greenhouses and the horticultural display gardens will be included in the program activities.

★ ★ ★

The Michigan State Florists Association and both the MSU College of Agriculture and Cooperative Extension Service are joining to present the continuing education activity.

HOSE REEL INCENTIVE — Pretty Marianne Gaba demonstrates a convenience that will make gardening easier and give the man in the house incentive to get out in the yard. The hose reel is an important piece of equipment for the summer months. The reel saves damage to grass, flowers and the deterioration of the hose in the sun.

Hose Reel Can Add Zest to Yard Work

Sometimes a fellow can put off his spring work at the office or factory, but there's no putting off his spring work in his wife's flower beds. Husbands all over the country are at it these days.

You see one in every yard and right behind him stands the missus, with a determined look in her eye, pointing where to dig.

It's easier to interest the governor in a little yard work if you have a few conveniences. One is a good looking hose reel; one that can be fastened on a water pipe, on the side of your house, on a fence or any other place that you wish to keep your garden hose.

After all, a hose reel is going to be an important piece of equipment for the summer months that lie ahead. Handy too. In a matter of seconds you can crank as much as 200 feet of hose on it.

That's lots better than having the hose lying all over the lawn or flower bed where it kills the grass and flowers and deteriorates in the sun.

KEEP NEAT

There's nothing like a hose reel to keep a neat looking yard, then too, a hose should always be handy in case of fire.

You can easily build the reel pictured in a couple of hours when you use the full size pattern. Just trace the pattern on wood, then saw out the parts and finally put them together. A few scraps of wood are all you need. Even the flower is drawn full size for you, all that's necessary is to trace it on the wood and paint over the tracings.

★ ★ ★

This is one of our easiest projects. It's so easy that anyone of you girls can do it yourselves even if you have never built anything before. Simple hand tools are all you need. It's an ideal project for a young boy too.

To obtain the full size hose reel pattern No. 178 send 50 cents in coin to Steve Ellingson, Pontiac Press, Van Nuys, Calif.

Senate Action Urged on Revealing Payroll

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors has urged quick Senate action on a recommendation by the Senate Rules Committee that payroll information on Senate employes be made available to the public.

J. R. Wiggins, the ASNE president and executive editor of the Washington Post and Times Herald called the committees action "gratifying."

★ ★ ★

He said in a statement that the step was "one that is consistent with the position that the Congress has so frequently taken on the right of the people to know about the transactions of their government."

The committee urged in a resolution that names, job titles and salaries of all Senate employes be published five times annually.

DR. LAWRENCE TAYLOR

Class of 1929 to Hold Reunion

Hillsdale College Head to Address Alumni of Pontiac Central

Dr. Lawrence B. Taylor, president of Hillsdale College, will be the guest speaker at a reunion of the Pontiac Central High School classmates, vintage 1929.

The 30th anniversary of the class will be celebrated at 6 p.m. Saturday at the Elks Temple.

Dink Welden, former head football and basketball coach, will also help to "bring back the past" to old schoolday friends.

A concert pianist, Mrs. Taylor will play for the occasion. She is the former Arlene Walton, also of the class of '29.

The subject of Dr. Taylor's speech is "Growing Old Gracefully."

★ ★ ★

One alumnus, Mrs. Marian McNeil Peise, this year was graduated from Purdue University.

Prizes will be given to the person who came from the farthest distance, the heaviest man, the man with the least amount of hair, the parents of the youngest child and the parents with the most grandchildren.

January president of the 1929 class, Lyle Passmore, is co-chairman of the reunion along with June president George Stout.

The Rev. Harold Sessell, also an alumnus and minister of a Detroit church, will give the invocation.

Howard Powers will be the evening's toastmaster.

Approximately 130 alumni are expected to attend. There were 388 graduates in the 1929 class. Their age status qualified the male members for service during World War II.

Judge-Elect Hughes Takes Office Monday

Circuit Judge-elect Theodore E. Hughes will be sworn into office during brief public ceremonies at 9 a.m. Monday in the Oakland County Courthouse.

★ ★ ★

The oath of office will be administered by Donald F. Shupin, Oakland County clerk-register.

Circuit Judge William J. Beer will speak briefly in behalf of the present four members of the County bench which Judge Hughes is joining for a six-month term.

Members of the Oakland County Bar Assn., city and county officials and the public have been invited to witness the ceremony scheduled to take place in the second floor courtroom of Circuit Judge Frank E. Doty.

Air Force Thor Missile Hurled on Test Flight

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — The Air Force fired its Thor intermediate range ballistic missile on a 1,500 mile reliability flight Thursday night.

The 65-foot Thor, which doubles as a space vehicle booster and a long range weapon, roared a fiery path through the sky on what appeared to be a perfect launch.

★ ★ ★

Earlier another Thor served as the first stage for a Discoverer satellite put into orbit at Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif. The satellite did not orbit, however.

Cardiograms Show No Heart Condition

Satchmo Better, Sits Up and Walks

SPOLETO, Italy (AP)—Trumpet man Louis Armstrong sat up in bed today, chuckled over telegrams of good cheer and joked with his nurse.

Doctors even let him walk to the bathroom unaided.

The king of jazz appeared to have rallied strongly from a grave attack of pneumonia complicated by a strained heart and stretched lungs resulting from 45 years of blowing on his magic horn.

★ ★ ★

Despite Armstrong's apparent improvement, doctors still were watching closely for any sign of complications.

Thursday Armstrong's temperature shot up to a dangerous 102. He survived two fever crises.

A medical bulletin shortly after 7 a.m. said his temperature was down to normal. His blood pressure was described as low and his pulse 100.

★ ★ ★

The medical bulletin said he "showed notable improvement."

That was reflected in other reports coming from Armstrong's room on the third floor of the little hospital here.

His wife left his bedside. Anna Venturini, his English-speaking nurse, said he joked with her cheerfully.

"If this continues without complications," a doctor said, "he will be all right in two or three days."

Attendants said he was treated with antibiotics and kept under sedation during most of Thursday. A careful watch was kept for heart complications.

Dr. Alexander Schiff of New York, the musician's personal physician, said before leaving the hospital just before midnight that his patient had responded to the treatment.

He lifted his head to take some water from a glass held by Mrs. Armstrong. He smiled and winked at the other two visitors but said nothing to them. He whispered something to his wife.

During the evening the trumpeter's valet read to him some of the hundreds of telegrams from friends and fans around the world. Among the well-wishers were Bing Crosby, Danny Kaye, Brazilian President Juscelino Kubitschek and Prince Rainier and Princess Grace of Monaco.

★ ★ ★

Armstrong, whose silver trumpet tone and gravel-voiced song have made him the king of jazz to millions, came to Spoleto Monday with his band to play at the "Festival of Two Worlds."

He was stricken early the next day.

★ ★ ★

Schiff said he felt part of his patient's trouble was his 45 years of blowing the horn, which the physician said had weakened his heart and stretched his lungs.

Frequent cardiograms were being made. But up to midnight none showed a heart condition, Mrs. Armstrong said.

Cincinnati Horse Takes Two Wins at Bloomfield

Two victories by Colonel Crow, owned by Mrs. Warner Atkins of Cincinnati, highlighted the Detroit Horse Show's morning program today at Bloomfield Open Hunt.

The green novice working hunter and green working hunter back were the events won by Colonel Crow.

Mary Hagen of Waverly Farms, Va., took top honors for lightweight green hunters as did Tom Wilson of Metamora on Rough Tour in the middleweight working hunter division.

Sally Sample rode Bob Cree to win the ASPCA horsemanship class title while Colt, Inc. was green novice hunter champ. The latter is owned by Harold A. Knight of Toronto and was ridden by his daughter.

Housewife Wins Battle With Auto Agency

A Mount Clemens auto agency, managed by a Drayton Plains man, has been ordered to pay $3,500 to a customer who claimed the firm set back the speedometer on the car she purchased.

The judgment was handed down yesterday by Macomb County Judge Alton H. Noe against Midway Motors Inc. in favor of Mrs. Bertha M. Yonkers, a Mount Clemens housewife.

Mrs. Yonkers testified that she bought a demonstrator with 586 miles showing on the speedometer.

George E. Merriam, 2400 Empire Dr., Waterford Township, general manager of the car agency, told the court the car had 4,500 miles on it when the speedometer was turned back.

Mrs. Yonkers said the agency had refused to return her purchase price.

State Spends $403 Per Pupil

Rated 10th in Outlay, Well Above National Average of $361

LANSING (UP) — Michigan's state and local governments spend $403 per pupil on their public schools more than 38 other states, the Citizens Research Council of Michigan reports.

The combined state and local outlay is about $17 per pupil under the average for eight of the big industrial states, including Michigan, the council said. But it is more per $1,000 of personal income than any of the other seven.

The council, a non-partisan and non-profit organization, drew its figures from the U. S. Bureau of the Census and U. S. Office of Education.

Michigan ranks fourth among the eight industrial states and tenth in the nation for total per pupil expenditures, the report showed. A 48 state average, not including Alaska, is $361.

The state appropriates $178 per pupil, second highest among the eight state group and eighth in the nation.

State and local governments pay out $36.63 per $1,000 of personal income to schools — $7.73 over the national average. Michigan stands 8th in this category.

Franklin D. Roosevelt was President of the United States longer than any man—more than 12 years.

Memorial Day Assn. Elects Five Officers

Five new officers of the Pontiac Memorial Day Assn. were elected last night at a meeting held at the Bemis-Olsen Amvets Post Hall on Oakland avenue.

Elected president was Paul J. Boelter, of 49 Clarence St., a veteran of World War I and a member of VFW Post 1008. Elected vice president was Ralph Allison, of 632 Balboa Place, associated with the Boy Scouts.

Named secretary was Mrs. Robert Conant, of 24 Summit Ave., a member of the Cook-Nelson American Legion Post No. 20. Mrs. Otto McCrae, of 37 E. Rutgers Ave., of the Blue Star Chapter No. 4, was elected treasurer.

Chosen to fill a three-year post on the association's executive board was Kenneth Hackett of Drayton Plains, a member of the Bemis Olsen Post.

Town Has Dog Problem

CLAREMORE, Okla. (UPI) — Mayor Jim Hammett said the town is still seeking a solution to a drastic problem of overpopulation. All 1959 dog tags were exhausted. The city then issued all the 1958 tags it had left. There's still a waiting list.

Suntan in Celery

DETROIT (UPI)—A chemical compound in "suntan pills" is also found in small amounts in celery, reports Dr. Francis P. Roades, of Detroit. The chemical is known as 8-methoxypsoralen. It augments the normal sun-tanning process and helps protect against accidental or negligent overexposure.

Iraq's Premier Wants Middle Road

Kassem Sits on Sharp Political Fence

(The future of U.S. relations with the Middle East may depend upon men like Premier Kassem of Iraq. Here is a closeup of the Iraqi leader, brought out of Baghdad by a correspondent who spent three months there.)

By STAN CARTER

ROME (AP) — Suddenly your driver slams on the brakes in Baghdad's busiest street and jumps out of the taxi—clapping his hands. A tan station wagon passes by, accompanied by a ripple of applause from sidewalk crowds.

The driver gets back in and grins. "Abdel Karim Kassem. He is good."

The obvious spontaneity is evidence of the popularity of Iraq's Premier Kassem, the solitary passenger in the chauffeur-driven station wagon.

★ ★ ★

In his defense ministry office the career army officer who led the overthrow of Iraq's monarchy last July, is surrounded by portraits of himself—one of them encircled by peace doves.

Almost everyone who meets the 44 year old Kassem considers him shy.

He gives the impression of being an idealist, but he has shown his shrewdness by outwitting plotters against him.

A moderate member of his cabinet says Kassem's views lie somewhere between those of Britain's Labor and Liberal parties. His expressed views indicate he favors some form of socialism.

The Communists stood behind him when other groups plotted against him. After the unsuccessful Mosul rebellion of pro-Nasser army officers in March, the Communists demanded their price — elimination of the forces opposed to them, arming of the people and creating of a national front government with themselves in key positions.

Kassem bowed with the wind. But during the past month he has infuriated the Communists by calling on them to cease political activity and by releasing hundreds of persons arrested after Mosul.

The Communists have stated in their newspapers that they do not like what he is doing, but they still refer to him as the "faithful son of the people."

★ ★ ★

Kassem indicates he dislikes the violent attacks on the West made in the leftist press and from the bench of the people's court, where his cousin, Col. Fadhil Abbas Mahdawi, presides. But Kassem does nothing about them.

Kassem still says, as he did immediately after the revolution, that he wants to maintain Iraq's old friendships with the West as well as make new friends among the Communist bloc.

Kassem was born in Baghdad Nov. 21, 1914. His father owned a small farm on the Tigris river. One brother works in commerce and another is an enlisted technician in the Air Force. One of his two sisters is married to a clerk and the other to a fellow army officer, Brig. Abdul Jabbar Jawad.

Kassem says he has never married because he vowed in his youth to devote all his energies to overthrowing what he considered the corrupt former regime.

County Motorists Punished

Lift Driving Rights of 30

Thirty Oakland County residents lost their right to drive recently, according to the Michigan secretary of state's office.

Losing their licenses for drunk driving were:

J. D. Balch, 595 Thomas Rd., Oxford.
Clifford Barrick Jr., 3680 Adams Rd., Pontiac.
Bernard Blank, 3720 Livernois Rd., Birmingham.
Etna Cross, 2143 Ellwood St., Berkley.
Clyde Henry, 351½ Rockwell St., Pontiac.
Harry Kiser, 559 Oakland Ave., Lake Orion.
Edwin Oren, 143 W. Livingston Rd., Milford.
William Peterson, 2677 Tyler St., Berkley.
Robert Wiles, 9614 Buckingham St., Pontiac.
James Yoes, 1210 Columbia St., Berkley.

The licenses of the following persons were revoked due to unsatisfactory driving records:

Ronald Brewer, 25644 Telegraph Rd., Birmingham.
Michael Chaykowski, 24340 Roanoke St., Oak Park.
Edward Cook, 1176 Forest Lake Rd., Lake Orion.
Lawrence Hohm, 590 Melrose Ave., Pontiac.
Leonard Hueston, 2563 Bender St., Drayton Plains.
William Ivis, 1683 Annebella St., Ferndale.
Paul Koch, 3498 Pineview Dr., Pontiac.
Dennis Miller, 1440 Eaton Rd., Berkley.
Louis Miller, 163 Princeton Ave., Pontiac.
Robert Nelson, 15 Wellesley Dr., Pleasant Ridge.
Bruce Scott, 1329 Hoffman St., Royal Oak.
John Wrbel, 30744 Helmandale St., Birmingham.
Hafiy Zeeman, 147 Prospect St., Pontiac.

Five men lost their licenses for unsatisfactory judgment. They were:

Frank Monnett, 19 Norton Ave., Pontiac.
Arthur Pitts, 21393 Creston Lane, Ferndale.
Jack Terrell, 25275 Fairbrook Rd., Birmingham.
Russell Thornton, 522 Kenilworth Ave., Pontiac.
George Tsoukalas, 50 W. Dallas St., Madison Heights.

Inability to pass the driving test caused Dennis Howell, 55 E. Burdick St., to lose his license. Dennis Dillon, 105 Clarence St., Holly, lost his license for car theft.

Ike Signs Bill Soaring Life Insurance Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has signed into law a bill raising federal income taxes on life insurance companies by about 60 per cent.

★ ★ ★

The new law provides for insurance companies to pay the 52 per cent corporate income tax on about one-fourth their income from investments. It also taxes for the first time underwriting profits, those earned from policy premiums. About one-half such earnings will be taxed.

Miles, Years Later but Same Physician

HONOLULU (AP)—Four years ago, William Drury lived in Singapore, was troubled by sinus and went for treatment to Dr. John Watson.

Since then, Drury has gone to London, Trinidad, Nassau, back to Singapore, back to London, then to Chicago and finally arrived in Honolulu, where he is now columnist for the Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

★ ★ ★

Recently, his sinus bothering him again, Drury visited a medical center here and asked for a nose and throat specialist. He was referred to Dr. John Watson, the same doctor who treated him in Singapore four years earlier.

Named Among Best-Dressed Men

Nixon, Tito in Top Eleven

LONDON (AP) — Two new pinup boys took a bow today in the world of men's fashion — Vice President Richard M. Nixon and President Tito of Yugoslavia.

Along with Fred Astaire, Rex Harrison and Douglas Fairbanks Jr. they were among the 11 best dressed men of 1959 selected by Tailor and Cutter magazine, British arbiter of masculine elegance.

Nixon, said the magazine, finds a neat line between the wigwam shapes of U.S. drape and the ludicrously tight togs of U.S. ivy leaguers."

Tito won a citation because "He's the ritziest dictator in the business."

Others on the list were millionaire Nubar Gulbenkian, Sir David Eccles, president of the British Board of Trade, the young Duke of Kent; the photographer, Cecil Beaton, and British Gen. Sir Frederick Browning, husband of novelist Daphne du Maurier.

The 11th name was not given, "a matter of pure modesty," said the magazine.

Identify Victim of Norway Fire

Woman 1st American of 17 Believed Dead to Be Traced

BERGEN, Norway (AP) — The body of one of the American victims of the Stalheim fire was identified today. It was that of Irene Brown of Winnette, Ill.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Brown's was the first body to be identified. Her husband, George E. Brown is in a hospital at Voss with injuries suffered in the fire.

★ ★ ★

Crews searching the ashes and debris of the resort hotel found another body today, bringing the number recovered to 16. Eight other persons are missing.

★ ★ ★

The State Department issued a list of 17 Americans not accounted for and presumed dead in the fire.

The head of the medical team trying to identify the bodies said his group believed it could identify six more, but it had no hope of identifying the other six. It had examined the teeth of the bodies studied three of the bodies.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Brown was identified from her dental chart, initials on a ring and an appendectomy scar.

Police today questioned three persons who were visiting a Norwegian tourist guide's room in which the hotel fire is believed to have started.

Police said they are certain the blaze was started by a cigarette. A cigarette smoker, but they are not sure who he is.

The guide already has been questioned.

★ ★ ★

Some 60 experts and rescue workers continued to search the ashes and debris left from the fire, seeking remains of the missing.

One of the Americans, named Claire Proctor of Lincoln, Neb., was released from the hospital at Voss today.

★ ★ ★

Seventeen other Americans are still in the hospital. All were reported making satisfactory progress.

MITZI TAKES OVER — Shown here in the famous hair-washing scene from "South Pacific," Mitzi Gaynor will play the lead role of Nellie Forbush. Rossano Brazzi plays opposite her with John Kerr and France Nuyen in supporting roles. The color movie is now playing at the Strand Theater.

New Plan Discussed by McElroy, Chiefs

QUANTICO, Va. (AP) — Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy has called a special conference of U.S. military chiefs to get their views on the operation of the new streamlined command system.

★ ★ ★

McElroy told newsmen today that he will meet Sunday morning, after the annual service secretaries conference, with about a score of military leaders from the Pentagon and the field.

★ ★ ★

The meeting will follow the seventh annual service secretaries conference, which opened at this Marine Corps base Thursday night to continue through Saturday. About 160 civilian and military officials are attending.

The chains of command were altered substantially early this year with operational control of the services over units in the special commands shifted from the service secretaries to the defense secretary and his Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Rat Bites Kill Baby Boy in His Carriage

NEW YORK (UPI) — A three-month-old boy died yesterday of multiple bites from a rat or rats which invaded his carriage in his mother's kitchen.

The City Health Department said it was the first death ever recorded as resulting from rat bites, although 267 bite cases have been reported so far this year.

The infant, Richard Fox, died of shock resulting from the bites less than an hour after his mother had been awakened by his screams.

Richard and two sisters, Marguerite 2 and Beatrice 13 months, lived with their mother in a three-room, beach bungalow at Coney Island. The mother is separated from her husband and an adult, police said. She was admitted to a hospital after her child's death, for treatment of shock.

The owner of the bungalow, who lives next door, was given a summons by the Health Department for maintaining a building with active rodent holes.

2 Buildings Hit in Hancock Fire

Wooden Structures Are Destroyed as Business District Is Threatened

HANCOCK (UPI) — Two wooden buildings, both landmarks of Hancock's earlier days, virtually were destroyed by fire of undetermined origin last night. For a time the entire business district appeared endangered.

★ ★ ★

The Mason Building was gutted by flames that spread to an apartment building owned by Edward Somero. Six apartments had to be evacuated, but no one was injured and most personal belongings were saved.

Both two story structures, made of wood, were in the 400 block of Hancock's main street. The blaze was fought by firemen from Hancock and six neighboring communities.

The Mason Building, which had four apartments upstairs, was built by the late Col. William Mason before the turn of the century. Other Mason estate buildings in the area appeared doomed for a time.

★ ★ ★

Among the Mason structures threatened was the Orpheum Theater, Hancock's last. The Kerridaw Theater was destroyed by fire in April.

Claims Self Defense in Shooting Husband

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Genie McDonald said she shot her husband in self defense Thursday after the county attorney, district attorney and police turned down her pleas for protection.

She was charged with assault to murder. William Robert McDonald.

McDonald, 34, remained in serious condition with three wounds in the abdomen.

Mrs. McDonald said her husband, a former mental patient in state and veterans hospitals, struck her and threatened to kill her. When she asked the three agencies for help, she said, she was told they could not enter the case.

She said she purchased a pistol and shot her husband after he slashed her across the face with a knife at the home of a relative in nearby Hempstead.

Bank Executive Asks Pay for House Jobs

CHICAGO (AP) — Mildred Baughman, 41, complained in Superior Court that her husband, Max, 45, an $18,000-a-year bank vice president, is willing to do odd jobs around the house only if she pays him union scale rates.

★ ★ ★

And, said Mrs. Baughman Thursday in her petition for a divorce, she has to pay for all of her personal funds for painting, fixing the screens, waxing floors and other household chores.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Baughman charged cruelty. She asked that Baughman be ordered out of their suburban Lyndworth home. She said she owns it.

Two Tigers Reprimanded Despite Win

Manager Claims Pitching Pair Not in Condition

Bridges' Grand Slam Helps Trip Bosox, 10-5; Play Orioles 2 Tonight

DETROIT (AP) — Even in victory, Jimmy Dykes has reprimanded a couple of Detroit Tiger players for not working hard enough to get into proper pitching condition.

The Tigers rapped Boston 10-5 yesterday at Briggs Stadium and broke a four-game losing streak.

Although elated that his club found a way out of its worst slump since he took over on May 3, Dykes was disturbed about one fact: Detroit pitchers have not turned in a complete game since Paul Foytack tamed the New York Yankees in the second game of a June 14 doubleheader.

Jim Bunning was knocked from the box yesterday. That makes it 10 games without a route-going performance from the staff that has been touted as one of the strongest in the Major Leagues.

★ ★ ★

Dykes asked newsmen to withhold names of the players involved, but made it clear he would see to it they got the message.

Dykes thinks he knows at least one of the reasons for the failures.

"A couple of our starters aren't serious enough about their running," he said. "They're just going through the motions, and things are going to change — but fast.

"Conditioning of the legs is just as important as conditioning the arm. A pitcher tires easily if his legs aren't in tip-top shape. That's why running and calisthenics are vital. A couple of our pitchers are getting tired because their legs aren't in shape. But we'll fix that."

It marked the first time the 62-year-old manager has hinted at anything critical of the club since he replaced Bill Norman.

But no one can argue with his criticism, especially since the Tiger staff led the American League last season with 59 complete games. This year, starters have gone the distance only 23 times in 68 tries.

Bunning failed to survive the eighth inning against the Red Sox. He was routed when that old jinx of his, the home run pitch, caught up with him.

Dick Gernert and Marty Keough hit successive home runs when Bunning had a 7-3 lead, so Dykes brought in Tom Morgan who quelled the uprising and preserved Bunning's seventh victory. Four of them have been against the Red Sox, whom he has beaten 12 times in 17 lifetime decisions.

Bunning yielded two runs in the first and another in the seventh before throwing the gopher-ball in the eighth.

★ ★ ★

But the Tigers won the battle with home runs of their own, Al Kaline hitting his 13th and Morgan his second.

But the key blow — and one that blasted Boston bench strategy — was a grand-slam job by little Rocky Bridges. It came in the third inning when the Tigers scored five times and took a 6-2 lead.

The Tigers had scored one in the second off starter Tom Brewer on Kaline's 420-foot smash, and added another in the third. They had two runners on base and two out when Boston decided to give Gail Harris, the slumping slugger, an intentional pass.

The Red Sox preferred to pitch to Bridges, a spray hitter with little power. But Bridges crossed them up, hitting Brewer's first pitch into the left field seats. It was Rocky's first Major League grand slam.

The Tigers got some insurance when Harvey Kuenn doubled home a sixth inning run and they added three more in the ninth off Murray Wall, the fifth Boston pitcher. After Morgan homered leading off, two walks, a fly ball, an infield out and a single produced two more runs.

The Tigers have an opportunity to strengthen their first-division situation tonight when they tackle the Baltimore Orioles in a twi-night doubleheader. Ray Narleski and Frank Lary are the Detroit pitchers, with Billy O'Dell and Jerry Walker going for the Orioles.

Dawson of Chicago West Seniors King

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — George Dawson of Chicago started badly but regained his touch on the back nine Thursday to win his second straight title in the Western Seniors' Golf Assn. tournament.

The 57-year-old Dawson, who led by five strokes at the midway point Wednesday, finished with an even-par 140 for the 36-hole distance at the Highland Country Club.

Face Beats Giants, Braves Bow

Dodgers 1 Point Out of 2nd

By The Associated Press

Put the wreaths on ice, Duke Snider and Gil Hodges are hammerin' homers again, the Dodgers have hit a winning pattern of pitchers and Los Angeles is just two games shy of the National League lead.

★ ★ ★

Those dead Dodgers of last season have come alive, moving within one percentage point of second place on a three-hitter by Don Drysdale backed by Snider and Hodges home runs for a 5-2 victory over Philadelphia.

★ ★ ★

Drysdale (8-5), who also homered, had a no-hitter for six innings while winning his third in a row in a 9-out-of-12 rally that has hoisted the Dodgers from fifth place. A bloop single by Harry Anderson, leading off the seventh inning, and Wally Post's follow-up 10th homer junked Drysdale's no-hit and shutout bid quick. But the big right-hander was home free for the eighth complete game by the Dodger staff in the spurt.

And while Sandy Koufax, Danny McDevitt and Roger Craig have each won twice, Snider and Hodges have hit at .409 clips, each clubbing four home runs and driving in 26 runs between them.

★ ★ ★

Second place San Francisco blew a chance to move within a game of first, losing 3-1 in 12 innings to Pittsburgh when Ramon Mejias' two-run homer gave reliever Roy Face his 17th consecutive victory. First place Milwaukee gave St. Louis three unearned runs and lost 3-2 to the Cards. Chicago's Cubs rapped Cincinnati 6-2.

★ ★ ★

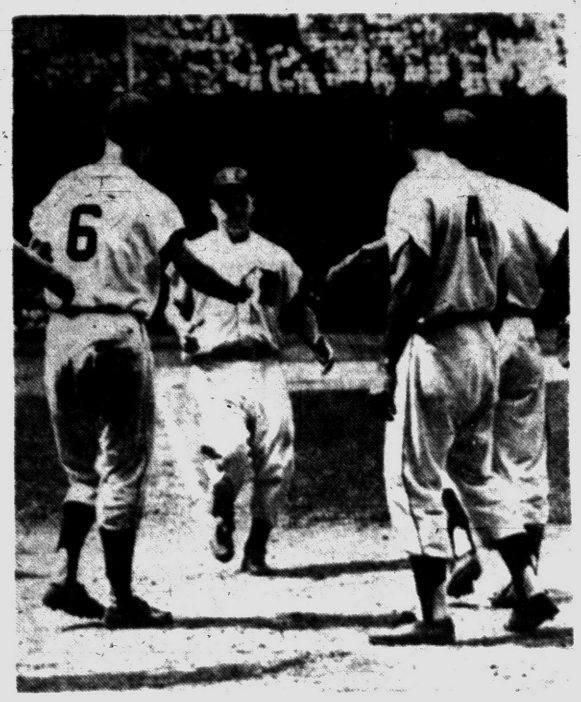

Snider and Hodges, 10th and 11th in the all-time major league home run list, connected in a four-run first inning against loser Robin Roberts 6-6. Snider, batting 8-for-22 in six games as a regular in the current Dodger suprt, belted his with a man on. Hodges, hitting 18-for-44 in the dozen games, got his with the bases empty. The Duke is batting .310, Hodges .302.

The Cards, gaining a tie with two runs in the sixth after Felix Mantilla's two-out error, won it in the seventh when Hank Aaron bobbled the ball on Joe Cunningham's single and Ken Boyer followed with an RBI single. Lew Burdette (11-6) was the victim after getting a 2-0 lead on Hank Aaron's 21st homer. Lindy McDaniel (6-8) was the winner with four innings of hitless relief.

Face, top winner in the majors at 12-0 and unbeaten since May 20, 1958, worked three shutout innings in relief of Harvey Haddix, who allowed the Giants four hits in his nine frames. Ed Bressoud homered for the Giants in the fourth inning, but bounced to Face for the final out with the bases loaded. Rookie Ed Fisher lost it in relief after Stu Miller had given up but five hits in 11 innings.

A single by Lee Walls scored the clincher for the Cubs in a four-run eighth. Reliever Bill Henry saved the victory for Bob Anderson (4-6) by retiring Johnny Temple on a fly and fanning Vada Pinson and Jerry Lynch with two on in the ninth.

Gene Hunt Gets 68 at Rochester for Medal Honor

Sudden-Death Playoff Is Needed to Decide Cutoff Score

By BILL CORNWELL

Pontiac's Mike Andonian, calm and confident, began defense of his Michigan Publinx Golf Championship today in head-to-head combat at Rochester Country Club.

Bidding for an unprecedented 5th consecutive State Publinx crown, Andonian met Detroit's Ron Mueller at 8 o'clock this morning in the first of 32 opening round matches.

The 33-year-old Pontiac Central High School mathematics teacher took it easy on the sidelines Thursday while 98 other public links golfers sweated it out in 18-hole qualifying rounds for the 63 available match play positions.

Andonian, exempt from the trials, played a few practice holes and waited for the remaining 63 berths to be filled.

This was finally accomplished in a twilight sudden-death playoff as seven men deadlocked at the 82 cutoff point battled for the last six places with Bob Hawthorne of Detroit losing out on the 3rd extra hole.

Medal honors in yesterday's qualifiers went to 20-year-old Gene Hunt of Flint who rifled a four-under-par 68 that was as scorching as the hot and humid weather. The Flint Junior College links star shot five birdies.

Detroit's lanky John Kurach, runnerup to champion Lloyd Syron of Pontiac in the 1957 Michigan Amateur tournament, was right on Hunt's heels with a 69 and two bad holes cost him a chance to be the medalist.

Seven players managed to equal or better par over Rochester's 6,333-yard layout where par is 36-36—72.

Taking 3rd place was Ypsilanti's Doug Wilson, a State Publinx semifinalist last year, whose score card read 35-35—70. Dick DeWitt of Pontiac and Detroit's Jim McLaughlin tied for 4th spot with 71s, followed by Tom Stevens of St. Clair Shores and Bill Healy of Bloomfield Hills, each at 72.

Hunt, a 5-foot 7-inch, 140-pound better and one of the best golfing prospects to come out of Flint in recent years, hit 17 greens in regulation while compiling a brace of 34s.

Kurach, playing in the same foursome with Hunt, gave the Flint JC ace a stiff fight for medal laurels despite bogeying the 1st hole and getting a double-bogey on No. 14. Five of Kurach's six birdies came on the back side, three in a row, as he carded nine-hole scores of 36 and 33.

Pontiac's Wally Smith was among three shooters at 73. The 74 bracket included two past State Publinx titleholders, Roy Iceberg of Pontiac and three-time winner Jay Law of Grosse Pte. Woods, plus Pontiac's Charley Barker and three others.

Another Rain Threat Hangs Over Title Bout

NEW YORK (AP) — Another threat of rain and a ticket-rhubarb today hung over the once-postponed Floyd Patterson - Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight—probably the most harassed heavyweight promotion ever.

The fighters and promoter Bill Rosensohn peered anxiously at the glowering sky, wondering whether the 15-round show would abe able to go on tonight at 9:30 p.m. (EST) at Yankee Stadium.

The forecast was far from promising. The weatherman predicted another warm, humid day with scattered thundershowers this afternoon and night.

It was virtually the same forecast that was made yesterday and came true. Rain muddied the field at the Stadium, forcing Rosensohn to announce the postponement at 1:05 p.m. (EST).

Another bad break like that may delay the long-awaited scrap until Monday. Rosensohn, and Irving Kahn, president of TelePrompTer which is running the closed circuit telecast to theaters, said that if the weather was bad today and the forecast was not optimistic for Saturday, they might put it over until Monday. Saturday night is the big night of the week for the movie houses and they don't need anything special.

The ticket hassle may come to showdown today. Rosensohn refused to make refunds Thursday. After the postponement was announced despite an order to do so by Gen. Melvin Krulewitch, chairman of the state athletic commission.

Krulewitch said the commission rules require the promoter to make refunds at demand. Rosensohn said he and his lawyer's interpretation of the rules indicated no refund was mandatory.

★ ★ ★

"I don't want to hurt any people but I've got to protect the promotion," said the weary, hollow-cheeked Rosensohn.

The commission rule is somewhat vague but it has been observed by other promoters in the past. Krulewitch said he would take it up with counsel.

If another postponement is required, however, Rosensohn said the refund policy would be reviewed. He said he is making refunds for hardship cases.

That would have to include Swedes and out-of-towners who have booked transportation today.

Note Womenfolk: Frank Lane Says Men Must Relax

CLEVELAND (AP)—Frank Lane has asked the wives of Cleveland Indians' players to help the Tribe's drive toward a pennant.

The general manager's plea to the womenfolk: Don't load your braves down with household chores; see that they get adequate rest.

On the road, where the Indians have compiled their best record, the players "stay in air conditioned hotels and sleep from eight to 12 hours a day," Lane remarked.

"But at home, the kids get them up early in the morning, their wives send them shopping and they've got a thousand and one things to do."

The Indians have won 14 and lost 17 at home while winning 22 and losing only 12 on the road.

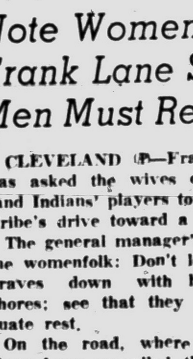

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: "Pulling and hooking ruin my game!"

DIAGNOSIS: Wrong! Backward sway ruins it!

TREATMENT: To hit the ball straight, you must keep the body from turning laterally during the backswing—you simply TURN the body. This involves the old standard rule, "Keep Your Head Still."

Going a little further into this point, you can see that if you sway the body backward during the backswing, you'll find yourself lined up on a different target than you were at start — a target well to the left of the original one.

This is bad enough, but this swaying makes the trouble worse because it increases the distance the hands must travel before the ball is hit, thus giving the hands much more time in which to roll over and "close" the clubface.

Badly pulled shots are generally caused by the body's being behind the ball at impact. And those bad hooks are caused by the hands rolling over too soon.

Your stance can also cause you much unnecessary trouble "direction-wise."

Suggs, Hagge at 71

2 Share Women's Lead

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Louise Suggs, two-time winner of the Women's National Open golf championship, is determined to wrap it up again.

Miss Suggs of Sea Island, Ga., enters the second round at the Churchill Valley Country Club today tied for the lead with Marlene Bauer Hagge at 71.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Hagge, representing the home course, had the lead locked up until she tossed it out the window with a 5-over par performance on the last three holes, including a double-bogey on the 17th.

Miss Suggs, winner of the 1957 Ladies PGA on this same 36-34—70 layout, shot a 71.

★ ★ ★

I was very happy with my round," said Miss Suggs, who less than two weeks ago finished as runnerup to Beverly Hanson in the American Women's Open at Minneapolis.

★ ★ ★

In contrast, Mrs. Hagge was disappointed with the play in her own back yard. "Maybe I played too fast, but I always do.

She drove into the creek at No. 16, hit into the woods and a trap on No. 17 and then pushed her drive behind a tree on the last hole and hit her second shot into a creek.

Mickey Wright of San Diego, Calif., the defending champion, and veteran Patty Berg, were tied for third with 72s.

42 Cars Swell Sunday's Field

Promoter Pete Spanos disclosed today that the entries for Sunday's "Freedom Festival" 100-mile new stock car race at the State Fair Grounds already has swelled to 42.

The sanctioning Midwest Association for Race Cars will permit last-minute entries right up to Sunday's 1:30 p.m. qualifying trials. Three eight mile preliminary races starting at 2:30 will set the stage for the "100," which will get under way shortly after 3 p.m.

Although automobile manufacturers have withdrawn officially from the racing scene, they haven't stopped the public from arguing about the relative merits of the nation's leading models. More fuel will be added to the fire by Sunday's results on the Fair Grounds' one-mile dirt oval.

Of the definite entries submitted to Spencer so far, there are 14 Fords. Another 11 drivers will pilot Chevrolets. Plymouths will be chauffered by six drivers. The balance include four Pontiacs, four Oldsmobiles, and three Edsels.

Area Drivers Fare Well

Pontiac area drivers fared well in last night's Modified Hardtop program at the Detroit Metropolitan Speedway in Mt. Clemens.

Norm Rust posted fastest qualifying time with a clocking of 26.42 seconds for one circuit of the clay half-mile oval. He also won the third heat. Long-time favorite of local racing fans, Don Del Duca of Flint won the Dash for the four fastest qualifiers ahead of Rust, Jimmy McCune of Toledo, and Pontiac's Joy Fair.

Chuck Partello won the first Heat Race, and the ten-lap Pursuit Race for the ten fastest qualifiers.

For the second week in a row, Jimmy McCune of Toledo won the Main Event, with Del Duca and Wallace chasing him under the checkered flag.

★ ★ ★

Partello lost his left rear wheel on the sixth lap of the main event and Norm Rust, unable to avoid Partello's careening racer, smashed into the retaining wall thereby earning a trip to the hospital. He was released after emergency treatment.

Saturday night the "Flying Stox" return to the speedway, with many local competitors gracing the entry lists.

Oregon Star Leads National Decathlon

KINGSBURG, Calif. (AP) — A blond sophomore from the University of Oregon held a slim lead today over Nationalist China's decathlon champion as the National AAU decathlon moved into its final evening.

Crew-cut Dave Edstrom, who finished second to world champ Rafer Johnson in last year's nationals, had 4,387 point total after five events.

Bonus Baby With Yanks

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — A bonus contract has been signed with the New York Yankees by 21-year-old Mike Mathiesen, Fresno State College shortstop.

Mathiesen will report to the Binghamton, N. Y., class A league team. The bonus price is reported to be $25,000. Mathiesen had a batting average of .323 this season.

Lefthander Leads by 2

GALESBURG, Ill. (AP)—Bob Johnson of Charleston, W. Va., took a two-stroke lead Thursday in the 72-hole national tournament for left-handed golfers.

Pott 1-Stroke Leader in Chicago Open

CHICAGO (AP) — Johnny Pott, a recent bridegroom seeking his first pro tourney victory, today marched into the second round of the $57,000 Chicago Open tourney with a one-stroke lead after a record-smashing 63.

Pott, 23, former Louisiana State star who turned pro in 1957, said he was still "on my honeymoon and higher in the clouds than ever" after his 7-under-par attack on Gleneagles 6,350-yard acreage.

Pott, who was married 20 days ago to a Biloxi, Miss., teacher, Mayrose Kettering, held a one-stroke lead over the 1958 Chicago Open champion, Ken Venturi.

Venturi was one stroke in front of Ted Kroll, father of four whose last victory was in the 1956 "World" tourney at Tam O'Shanter.

★ ★ ★

A batch of players, including two 66 shooters, George Bernardin and Bo Wininger, finished under Gleneagles' par 70 mark.

U.S. Open champion Bill Casper needed a 75, buried deeply in the field of 151. The ever-popular Sammy Snead took a par-matching 70, well off the pace.

Pott's 63 on the sun-baked Gleneagles acres included a closing 29, lowest back nine ever shot on the compact course.

★ ★ ★

The previous course record was 64 by Casper, who shot a pair of them last year after opening with a horrendous 80. The Chicago Open started at Gleneagles last year after Tam O'Shanter dropped its long-standing All-American and "World" tourneys.

Because the course, thoroughly dried, had considerable roll, more than 30 players bettered par 70.

★ ★ ★

Pott's best previous finish as a pro was 7th in the Houston Open last winter. He was 19th in the recent National Open.

Both Pott and Venturi, hot on the trail of the $9,000 first prize, agreed that the best way to play Gleneagles was to go for the rough on certain holes.

They named five holes, Nos. 1, 8, 11, 16 and 17, where going for the rough cut down the distance and set up better approaches for the greens.

The leaders:

Johnny Pott	34-29—63
Ken Venturi	33-31—64

Knights Gains 2-1 'A' Victory

Determined Talbott 9 Whips Don Nicholie 8-5 in Class B

The Knights of Columbus and Talbott Lumber were city baseball victors yesterday.

Don Picman hurled two-hit ball as the KC boys nipped the Pirates 2-1 in Class A. Loser Larry Demrich allowed just four.

Singles by Al Barkley and Stu Dell coupled with two outfield errors broke a 1-1 deadlock in the 4th.

Talbott had to come from behind twice to beat out Don Nicholie by an 8-5 count.

Two in the 5th and 6th wrapped up the verdict with Duane Sheffer slamming singles in each inning. He had three hits for the day as did Alex Comparoni of the losers. Bob Pickett was the winner in relief besting Gary Orr.

Yanks-White Sox Meet in Big Weekend Series

Diamond Dust

By CHUCK ABAIR

Pontiac could be headed for its best year ever in softball the way the three league races have gone so far.

The American, National and International all have had excellent balance thus far and there are strong indications each will have a battle to the wire to decide a champion.

Shaw's had previously dominated the American loop but when the Jewelers dropped out their players were scattered around the league helping create a more interesting setup for the fans who follow the games at Beaudette and Northside parks.

Blue Star and Arro Realty continued their hot duel in the National with hard-earned triumphs last night while Sport Shop was walloping Rogers Electric in the International.

Lloyd Harper allowed only two hits in a 3-1 Blue Star win over Wright's Upholstery. Rod Treais singled and stole three straight bases to spoil his shutout in the 7th. Del Wheele had three singles. Dayton Patterson's homer provided Arro a 1-0 victory over Buttercup Drive-In. Art Weiss scattered six hits.

A two-run home run by pitcher Al Urbaniak got Sport Shop off to a good start towards a 13-5 romp. All the scoring was in the 1st four innings.

The only scheduled AL contest resulted in a forfeit win for Casa-Mia when UAW 594 could field only eight players.

★ ★ ★

Standings at the end of this column indicate how close the three leagues are at this point although it should be noted that the records released by the Parks & Recreation Department for the American and International loops are incorrect since the won and lost columns are not equal.

★ ★ ★

All area baseball and softball leagues on the adult or junior level are reminded that The Press will print their league standings on Thursday if they are available no later than early that morning.

EXTRA INNINGS

Lapeer got off to a good start in the western division of the seventh district Legion league . . . Some of the Farmington High players are on Detroit Federation teams . . . Northside Kiwanis junior nine has a slick-fielding shortstop in Mike Burklow.

Bombers Could Get by Chisox in Title Chase

Current Yankee Spurt Started Against Sox 11 Days Ago

By The Associated Press

The New York Yankees aren't the swaggering champs of old, yet, but there's no sign of any more staggering as they slam into Chicago for the opener of a four-game weekend series tonight.

They roll into Comiskey Park in fourth place, just two games out of the American League lead on an 8-out-of-11 spurt that began with a three-game sweep over the second place White Sox 11 days ago.

Then they were fifth, five games out of first and four games back of Chicago. Now they're within a single game of the White Sox after finishing a fattening four-game series in Kansas City with a 5-4 victory over the A's.

While the Yanks were bashing the A's, the White Sox managed to win two of three from Washington, regaining second place Thursday with a 4-1 victory. Cleveland beat back Baltimore's bid for first place by skidding the Orioles to third, 3-2, and regaining a one-game lead.

Elston Howard and Norm Siebern hit home runs for the Yankees, with Siebern's leadoff shot scoring the clincher in the eighth and Ryne Duren put it away for winner Duke Maas (6-4), who left for a pinch-hitter in the sixth. Ex-Yank Tom Sturdivant (1-4) lost it.

The White Sox, naming Billy Pierce (8-7) against the Yankees' Art Ditmar (5-5) tonight, beat the Senators behind the five-hit pitching of Barry Latman.

Latman (1-2) extended his shutout string to 21 innings before the Nats scored in the fourth on Bob Allison's triple and Roy Sievers' single. Then the White Sox, also held to five hits, beat Pete Ramos (7-7) in a two-run fifth. Earl Torgeson hit a two-run homer in the sixth.

Tito Francona's fourth hit and second home run of the game broke a 2-2 tie in the eighth for the Indians. Rookie Jack Fisher (0-1) was the loser in relief of Hoyt Wilhelm. Reliever Mike Garcia won it.

Holmberg, 'M' Netter Beaten

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Notre Dame's Max Brown pulled the second major upset of the NCAA Tennis Tournament by eliminating third-seeded Ron Holmberg of Tulane in the singles quarter-finals Thursday 6-4, 6-2.

He was joined in the upper bracket semifinals by top-seeded Whitney Red of San Jose State, who rallied to defeat Art Andrews of Iowa 2-6, 6-1, 6-1.

Andrews Wednesday produced the tournament's first upset when he eliminated seventh-seeded Jon Erickson of Michigan in the fourth round.

The lower bracket quarter-finals will be played Friday. Donald Dell, Yale, seeded No. 2, will meet Crawford Henry of Tulane, seeded No. 5. Fourth-seeded Jerry Moss, Miami, will face sixth-seeded Ned Neely of Georgia Tech.

Cass Tarchalski burned up the front nine at Pontiac Country Club with a 32 on the front nine featuring three straight birdies and a total of four. He parred the other five holes playing with Joe Petroff and Glen Harding. Pat Harrington, a former local golfer now in Arizona, was on hand as a spectator. Play was in the KC loop. Tarchalski is president.

Vasquez Wins Again

2-Hitters Matched in 'D'

Ritter's Market showed yesterday how a weak defense can ruin a pitcher by committing five errors while Ray Collins was losing a two-hitter 5-2 to Lytell Colegrove. Dave Jones allowed the same number for the Class D winners. Jim Lucadam of West Bloomfield got four hits but St. Michael won the other loop game 10-5.

In Class F, State Farm scored 11 times in the 2nd after trailing 2-1 to drub Don Nicholie 16-2, the Yankees buried the American Leaguers 21-1 combining 7 hits and 11 errors, the Tigers won by forfeit, West Side Kiwanis outscored Willis 15-13, Jim DeFlorio of the Falcons blanked Utans Variety 6-0 on one hit and Dave Carney led the Warriors to a 12-4 battering of the Fire Fighters with three bingles.

Pete Vasquez of Pontiac Boys Club hurled another gem limiting West Bloomfield to one hit and fanning 14 in a 19-0 "E" breeze which saw the losers make 13 errors. Tel-Huron scored twice in the bottom of the seventh without a hit to nip Lake Orion 6-5. Two walks, an outfield error, two passed balls and a steal turned the trick. Arnold Drugs tripped the Junior Jets 7-3 and Independence won over the Eagles 5-1.

Three hurlers combined for a one-hitter as Ultra Stone whipped the Aces 10-3 in Widget ball. East Side trounced Atlas 11-3 with Dave Head getting the losers' three hits. Baldwin Church downed the Fighting 69ers 5-1 and the Wild Dogs won by forfeit over the Mets.

Teeing Off

By BILL CORNWELL

Although it has never been emphasized and is not generally known, it is a fact that girls are as welcome and every bit as eligible as boys for the golf tournaments sponsored annually by Junior Chamber of Commerce chapters throughout the nation.

This frequently overlooked fact was pointed out by Bob Weddle of the Pontiac Jaycees who are holding their annual 18-hole junior golf tourney next Monday at Municipal course.

Such a revelation is certainly not earth-shaking, but it helps to stress the idea that the local Jaycee chapter has a great interest in attracting numbers as well as skill to the city links.

"Just because a boy might not be as strong a player as the neighbor boy should not prevent him from entering the tournament this time around," said Weddle, chairman and tourney manager.

"Naturally, the Pontiac Jaycees will send their three best golfers to the state meet," Weddle said, "but we're also going to give a trophy to the golfer who shoots the best score on a handicap basis, something we've never done before."

"There will also be enough other prizes available to make it definitely worthwhile for any interested teenager to play in the tourney," declared Weddle.

In short, everyone has an equal no chance of being medalist or qualifying for the state meet. What is there to lose? Just an entry of one dollar.

SHORT PUTTS

If Mrs. Carl Rehbine hadn't entered the scene, this week's competition in the Women's Silver Lake Golf League would have been strictly for the Looneys.

Mrs. Rehbine captured low net honors with a 29, followed by Mrs. Gary Looney at 36. Mrs. Elbert Looney won the low putt division with 15 and the two Mrs. Looneys tied for 1st place in the blind hole event with fours on No. 7.

★ ★ ★

There are some exciting faces taking place in Elks League competition at Pontiac Country Club. Current leaders by slim margins are Howard McKinney and Bill Whitlow in the 1st division, Bill Winters and Jerome Barry in the 2nd division and McClellan and Jones in the 3rd division.

The best score in Elks play this week was a 68 by Bob McManus and Clint Plympton.

★ ★ ★

Onalee Heusch, a 14 handicapper, is leading the women's Fairway League with 9½ points. Rath and Ferency have 14 points to head the American Forging & Socket Co. loop.

★ ★ ★

Three Oakland County golfers succeeded in qualifying for the National Public Links golf tournament for the first time in their careers last Monday at Orchard Lake and Tam O'Shanter. The trio includes Bill (Buster) Pembroke of Pontiac, Birmingham's Stan Sabat and Veikko Juhola of Clawson.

Wallace Bids for Jumper Title

Takes One Win Plus Place in 'Big Jump' Test

Horse Show Fans Pack Stands During Colorful Evening Exhibition

By H. GUY MOATS

Johnny Wallace, genial Northville horseman, and the big brown hunter Duke of Paconian yesterday made solid moves towards coveted championships at the Detroit Horse Show.

Wallace, bidding for the show's jumper championship, sent his chestnut gelding, Fearless Fred, over the demanding obstacle courses at Bloomfield Open Hunt club for one victory and 4th place in another.

★ ★ ★

The Duke, hunter champion at the recent Grosse Pte. show, is piling up the points at BOH. Yesterday he took model hunter honors, hunter ridden by an amateur and the hunter hacks class, to become the day's biggest winner. He is owned by John Pettibone of Virginia.

Showing before packed stands and filled ringside boxes, the show's biggest audience so far, Wallace won the tricky knockdown and out event on Fearless Fred, who didn't perform quite so handy in the BOH "Big Jump" at night. Johnny won the trophy given by Mrs. Wallace in memory of their great jumper, Mountain Breeze, now deceased.

Day's top feature was the "Big Jump" in which a surprise winner emerged. Oscar Riepp's (Toledo) stocky chestnut gelding, Challenge, negotiated the extremely difficult, 8-obstacle course, that included two water jumps, rail, gate, and 2 3-4 bar rails, with a brilliant 12 fault run.

His rider was Mrs. Mary (Bruce) Campbell, who was in command all the way — a fine ride. Wallace was 4th with 22½ faults. Tamerlane, a spectacular big gray, and an enthusiastic performer, was only three points off the top, after a fine ride by Bill Queen. Bob Egan of Birmingham rode Innkeeper to a 13 fault 3rd place.

Other highlighted features included another day of sharp riding by juniors, with 12-year-old Alison Cram of Birmingham, and her horse, Sonnino figuring in several events and with her brother, Rick, went one-two in the open equitation event (13 years and under). Their mother, Mrs. Stewart Cram, presented the awards.

★ ★ ★

The Coulson Memorial trophy went to Ten Pin farm's Apt Pupil, ridden by a newcomer to BOH, 17 year old Gay Dodge of Chicago. Gay has been riding with Ten Pin, owned by Chicago bowling alley operator, Harold Marzano, only since last fall.

Bob Sample, 16, of Northville, won the Michigan Hunt's perpetual junior challenge event. Mrs. Graham J. Graham's fine hunter, Battle Fashion, was number one in the ladies working hunter class and 2nd in working hunter hacks.

One of the evening's extra features was the parade of glittering 1959 automobiles about the show ring. All the big manufacturers were represented, including Pontiac Motors, with several models.

Saturday's show, opening at 8 a.m. with afternoon and night programs, will feature the regular hunter jumper competitions, westerns, and the junior BOH "big jump."

Tonight's program, at 7 p.m. will provide more of the kind of action, witnessed last night.

Four American Men Still Left at Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Only four American men remain in the All England tennis championships singles unless you want to count top-seeded Alex Olmedo, the Peruvian who starred for the United States in winning back the Davis Cup last December.

★ ★ ★

The four are fifth seeded Barry Mackay, former University of Michigan ace, youthful Earl Buchholtz of St. Louis, veteran Gardnar Mulloy of Miami, Fla., and Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif.

★ ★ ★

All are in the round of 16 but one is slated to be eliminated today since Buchholz plays Mulloy. Both were idle yesterday while Olmedo knocked out Ramanathan Krishnan of India 6-4, 3-6, 6-4, 7-5 and Mackay eliminated John Leschly, an 18 year old Dane, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4.

4 Newcomers in NCAA Semis

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Four newcomers to NCAA match play battle it out over 36 holes today for berths in tomorrow's finals of the 62nd annual National Collegiate golf championships.

Jack Lucetti of San Jose State meets Bot Moser of Georgia, and Dick Crawford of Houston faces Ted Weiss of Yale in today's semifinals over the Eugene Country Club course.

Waterford Teams in Scoring Extremes

Waterford Recreation softball clubs staged extremes of scoring in the two games on Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

Drayton Drugs' Jim Cuthrell won a pitching battle with Sno Boi's Dale Badder, 2-1, giving up only two hits, both by Harvey Render, whose triple produced his team's only tally. All runs in the game were scored in the seventh with Cuthrell getting his 2nd double o help the win.

The night's first game was a 9-1 runaway for Eagles over Waterford Merchants. Jerry Redman hurled a two-hitter. The win was iced in the sixth when two runs scored. Eagles added six more in the seventh.

Lions Sign 3 More 1959 Draft Choices

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Lions now have 22 rookies under contract for the 1959 season.

★ ★ ★

Three more draft choices signed yesterday. They are fullback Bill Davis of Richmond, tackle George McGee of Southern A&M and center-linebacker Jim Baldwin of McMurray College.

★ ★ ★

Baldwin was the Lions' 14th draft choice. Baldwin is 6-feet-1 and 225 pounds and regarded as a good kickoff man.

★ ★ ★

McGee is 6-feet-2 and 250 and scouts rate him a fine defensive prospect. Davis is a top blocker and punter.

The Lions begin their workouts July 23 at Cranbrook School.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Barry Mackay's flat first serve is one of the fastest in amateur tennis. The Dayton, Ohio, native has an equally impressive second shot with a small amount of spin, but from there on he is apt to be very good or very bad, depending on how well he does on low shots to the corners.

Rail, Truck Men Think So

Will Seaway Change Trade Ways?

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — President Eisenhower and Queen Elizabeth II dedicate the St. Lawrence Seaway today while business still tries to assess how much it'll change the nation's trade patterns.

The first month's rush of traffic upset some ideas, uncovered some weaknesses, disillusioned some businessmen, fired others with new optimism.

★ ★ ★

Competing truck and rail lines also divided on how much the Seaway will hurt them. Some point with glee at the first month's record of delays—both at locks where waiting vessels piled up, sometimes for days, and at various harbors where docking facilities proved inadequate.

Some rail and truck men think business will turn back to them because they can promise greater speed and more accurate delivery dates.

Others gloomily look for the Seaway, once the early trouble spots are rubbed out, to cop the largest share of the handling of bulk cargo, such as grain, ore, steel, autos, coffee and canned goods.

Probably none will know for sure until after the harvests are moved in the fall and the Seaway closes for the winter, and for reassessment of its operations.

Early results stack up like this: United States and Canadian authorities report that 2,243,450 tons of cargo moved through the 27-foot channel during May. This was 50 per cent more than used the 15-foot channels in May of 1958. The 15-foot depth was achieved in 1901, replacing 9-foot channels established in 1848.

Heaviest traffic this year has been ingoing. Outgoing tonnage was only 9.2 per cent above a year ago.

Lining up export business has been hard so far for the 40 or so shipping lines. Part of their trouble has been the general decline in U.S. exports. Part has been seasonal, with the fall harvests expected to reverse the flow of traffic.

But part, they say, has been the difficulty of breaking business traditions in firms used to shipping their goods by rail and truck to Atlantic ports for overseas shipment under long-term contracts with shipping lines.

On the other side of the coin is the report that a number of new businesses are starting up in cities along the Great Lakes. The new merchants plan to sell such things as foreign cars which the Seaway can deliver to them more cheaply.

The new channels mean that ocean-going freighters can now reach 2,300 miles into the interior of this nation and Canada. The 602-foot drop between Duluth and Montreal is taken care of by a series of locks.

★ ★ ★

The ingoing rush has been heavier than expected. This has led to traffic jams at the locks and in the channels, with costly delays both for the shipping companies and for some senders whose goods were held up.

In many cases the delays were repeated when the ships reached inland harbors. Some are too shallow, others hadn't enough docking space.

The question of tolls has been debated angrily and is still an issue. Seaway authorities count on the tolls to repay the cost of the new channels and locks within 50 years.

★ ★ ★

Railroads and trucks wanted these tolls high enough to give them a competitive break. Shippers naturally want the tolls low enough to make up in cost savings what the longer shipping period loses in other ways.

The Queen's yacht is plying a course still choppy with problems.

63 Years Behind Wheel Nought at Testing Time

HENDON, England (UPI) — Experience apparently wasn't the best teacher for 91-year-old Edward Milton. He failed the first driver's test he has ever taken since he started driving in 1896.

Milton, who estimates he has driven a million and a half miles, was ordered to take the test yesterday after a conviction for careless driving. He has had only one other such conviction in 63 years.

"Travesties of justice," he called his brushes with the law.

Saved by the Turtles

VICKSBURG, Miss. (UPI) — The anonymity of turtles won Ernest Glidewell Jr. his freedom yesterday. Glidewell was freed of a grand larceny charge in the theft of 589 baby turtles valued at 10 cents each from Kermit Aldridge when the state admitted it would be impossible to tell whether turtles in Glidewell's possession were those taken from Aldridge.

Stock Rally Slackening

NEW YORK (AP) — The current stock market rally entered its third session early today but the rise was slackening. Trading was moderately active.

Pivotal issues rose from fractions to around a point. Rails were conspicuous losers on profit taking after their advance of the past two days.

The opening was active with the ticker tape lagging for a seven-minute spell. Some fairly big blocks were traded. Oils continued their rally of yesterday from an oversold condition and with no particular news to help them.

Motors were narrowly mixed as traders cashed profits on their recent strength. Steels were firm.

Gainers among chemicals, aircrafts and rubbers helped bolster the average.

As the strike deadline neared, U.S. Steel and Bethlehem were ahead fractions.

Fractional losses were taken by such carriers as Northern Pacific, Illinois Central, Pennsylvania Railroad and Southern Railway. New York Central was up a fraction.

International Paper added more than 2 points to its recent gains. American Machine & Foundry spurted about 4.

Upjohn, General Tire & Seiberling Rubber were up about a point each, the latter helped by news of a 10 per cent stock dividend.

American Motors and Studebaker-Packard, both strong yesterday, dropped fractions.

Police Additions 6 Weeks Away

Waterford's General Fund Being Tapped for Other Projects

It will be six or seven weeks before the Waterford Township Police Department will be operating with a full force of 16 people according to Township Supervisor Elmer Johnson.

In a move to strengthen the police and fire departments, the township board in approving the annual budget this week authorized the hiring of five additional paid policemen and three more full time fire fighters.

Although the Board approved a police budget of $88,700 mainly for salaries of the new men, there is much juggling of figures and red tape to be taken care of before actual police hiring can begin, Johnson said.

One reason for the delay is that money from the township's general fund will be borrowed for the blacktopping of Lansdowne, Manor and Cawley streets pending the sale of roadpaving bonds in mid October. Borrowing the funds will speed up the work, board members said. Contracts for the project have been awarded.

The change-over of radio service operation from the Sheriff's Department to the Township Police Department will take time and money, and police applications must be thoroughly screened before any hiring is accomplished, added Johnson.

* * *

Harry Wormuest, one of the three additional firemen to be hired, has been placed on the Township payroll as a trainee for one month.

He will work out of all three stations while on a month's leave of absence from his former job with the United States Truck Company.

Grain Steady in Early Deals

CHICAGO (AP)—The grain futures market was generally steady today in early transactions on the board of trade with some tendency toward firmness in corn and weakness in soybeans.

Trade was not more than moderate and included an increasing volume of hedging in wheat although dealers said it still was rather small for this time of year with the winter crop harvest almost at its peak in the central great plains.

* * *

The lower bids, they said, suggested an expected decline in corn prices at the expiration of this crop year.

Wheat was unchanged to ⅛ cent a bushel lower after about an hour. July $1.85⅜, corn ¼ higher to ⅛ lower, July $1.25¾, oats unchanged to ¼ lower, July new type contract 66⅛, rye unchanged to ½ lower, July $1.23⅛, soybeans unchanged to ¼ lower, July $2.22⅞.

Lodge Annoyed by Slams at State Legislature

Sen. L. Harvey Lodge (R-Drayton Plains) said today he's getting "sick" of seeing the Legislature blamed "for the so-called mess in Lansing."

"It's about time the people of Michigan realized the Legislature is trying to do something for them," Lodge said.

Lodge made his remarks during debate on a motion by Sen. Haskell L. Nichols (R-Jackson) that the Senate work tomorrow instead of going home for the weekend. The motion was defeated, but the senators agreed to come back at 2 p.m. Monday instead of the usual 8 p.m. time.

Nichols said he thought the public was getting "a little bit sick" about the way things have been going in Lansing.

Parley Cut Off by Steel Union

Breaks Industry Talks, Asks Direct Dealings With Firms' Executives

NEW YORK (AP)—The United Steelworkers Union refused today to hold further meetings with the steel industry's bargaining team. The union, instead, invited direct talks tonight with steel company executives.

David J. McDonald, the union's president, said there was no point in continuing what he called "a farcical filibuster" with the industry's four-man bargaining team.

He said two union settlement offers have been made and rejected, but that the four-man industry team had refused to make any counter-proposal of any character.

* * *

The industry said earlier that the union broke off negotiations after a two-hour morning session.

McDonald denied a charge made by R. Conrad Cooper, head of the industry's bargaining team, that the union had broken off negotiations.

"We're trying to get real negotiations started," McDonald told a news conference. "We've had no negotiations yet."

* * *

McDonald said that the last steel labor settlement, reached in 1956, was made as a result of direct conferences with steel industry executives.

Present steel contracts expire Tuesday. The possibility of a strike beginning Wednesday of 500,000 steelworkers seemed to be increasing.

Reveal Architectural Firm Establishment

Peter Tarapata, 3351 High Meadow Ct., and Charles MacMahon, 3248 Woodside Ct., Bloomfield Township, have announced the formation of Tarapata MacMahon, Architects with offices in the Barbour Building in Bloomfield Hills.

Mechanical-electrical and civil structural engineering departments will coordinate with the architectural planning on all projects.

A number of school construction projects, already are under contract with the new organization.

JEEP'S SUCCESSOR — Ford Motor Co. has received an Army contract to produce this new quarter-ton passenger and cargo vehicle, nicknamed the MUTT. Designated M151 by the Army, MUTT will replace the Jeep as the service's standard tactical and reconnaissance vehicle.

Ford Gets $15 Million Contract to Build MUTTs

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co. has been awarded a 15 million dollar contract to build 4,050 new one-quarter ton Army vehicles to replace the Jeep of World War II fame.

The new contract was announced yesterday by the Detroit Ordnance district. It followed more than eight years of research by Ford in designing the combination passenger and cargo-carrying vehicle.

The lightweight truck, M151, has been nicknamed the "MUTT" for military utility tactical truck.

Most of the work on the new vehicle will be handled by Ford's suburban Livonia plant, plus many subcontractors throughout Michigan.

Two Berkley firms are on the partial list of companies tentatively expected to supply major subassemblies and components for the new vehicles.

Berkley Machine Co. and Fuller Manufacturing Co. are listed as machined parts suppliers.

The engines will be built by Continental Motors Corp. of Muskegon, while bodies will be produced at the Mitchell - Bentley Corp. at Ionia.

* * *

Electric Auto-Lite Co. facilities at Port Huron and Bay City; Kelsey-Hayes Co. of Detroit and Jackson, and Monroe Auto Equipment Co. of Monroe, also are among the suppliers listed to help build the vehicles.

About 100 employes will be engaged in assembly in Livonia. An estimated 2,000 will be required by supplier firms, Ford said, with about 60 per cent of all subcontract work assigned to Michigan companies.

The first vehicle is scheduled for delivery next spring.

Features of the MUTT include light weight, durability, ease of maintenance, gas economy, low silhouette, and a high degree of mobility.

The truck is about 400 pounds lighter, has more power, 30 per cent more cruising range on the same amount of fuel and improved ride compared to the Jeep. It has a new four-cylinder engine weighing only 247 pounds.

Detroit Times in Shakedown

Rackets Group Told Teamster Official Was Paid for Little Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate rackets investigators were told today that the Detroit Times — "to avoid any trouble" — has been paying a full-time drivers' salary to a Teamsters official who does little work.

Charles P. Obermeyer, Times business manager, said the salary has been paid for about five years to Joseph Prebenda, secretary-treasurer of Teamsters Local 372.

Asked whether he considers this proper, Obermeyer replied: "Absolutely not." He said the practice has been discontinued —"as of last Wednesday."

"It was in the nature of a shake-down, was it not?" Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) asked. "I don't know whether you would construe it that way," Obermeyer replied.

"Could you construe it any other way?" McClellan inquired.

"I don't think so," Obermeyer answered.

* * *

The committee placed in evidence figures which it said showed that Prebenda in the past five years had collected $36,072.77 in wages from the Detroit Times and $48,240 from the union.

Obermeyer, questioned by committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy, said Prebenda has done less and less work for the paper in the last five years, but has been on the payroll as a "wholesale agent" — a job he has held since 1921.

Asked why the Times would continue to pay a man who did little work, Obermeyer replied:

"The main reason was we want to avoid any trouble."

Kennedy said this meant labor trouble, but Obermeyer never did use that expression.

For the last three years, Obermeyer said, Prebenda has done hardly any work except on Saturday nights.

Prebenda, called to the stand, insisted that while he didn't drive every day he did perform some work regularly in connection with his route.

Business Notes

Twenty-two employes of the Cooley Soft Water Co., 4761 Elizabeth Lake Rd., Waterford Township, are expected to attend the company's first annual banquet at 6:30 p.m. July 4 in Pontiac.

The J. R. Watkins Company has won the top award for the most outstanding program of public relations for 1958-1959 in the entire direct selling industry, reports Clarence H. Smith, local distributor for Watkins Products, 150 N. Perry St.

The presentation was made at the 45th annual convention of the National Association of Direct Selling Companies. This is the fifth consecutive year the Watkins firm has won this award.

Richard M. Weir, of Lathrup Village, is a new shareholder and partner in the corporation of Watt, Manuel & Snyder, Inc., Realtors, 298 S. Woodward Ave., Birmingham.

He will assume duties as vice president. Weir has been a sales representative for the Birmingham corporation since 1954.

Xway Hearing Slated Tonight in Royal Oak

TROY — A public hearing on a proposed section of the Walter P. Chrysler Expressway has been scheduled here for July 9 at 2 p.m. in the auditorium of the Dondero High School, 709 N. Washington St., Royal Oak.

Troy's interest in the $50 million project, which is planned to extend from Hazel Park to Pontiac, centers on the section of the expressway that is proposed to enter the village at 14 Mile road, east of Rochester road.

From the point of entry the route would bend in a northwesterly direction leaving Troy at the intersection of Square Lake and Adams roads.

Economic and engineering data will be presented by the Michigan Highway Dept. at the hearing together with testimony taken from interested citizens.

Public reaction is expected to be taken into consideration before final plans for the new expressway are approved.

Southfield Woman Dies in Car Crash

A Southfield Township woman died in Receiving Hospital, Detroit, this morning of injuries sustained yesterday in a two-car collision in Detroit.

Dead is Mrs. Joan A. Bigham, 30, of 28554 Marshall St.

Detroit police said Mrs. Bigham's car entered an open intersection (no stop signs) at Harrison and Pine streets, near Briggs Stadium, simultaneously with another car at 4:35 p.m. The other driver was not held.

Mrs. Bigham and her four children were on their way home from the Detroit Tigers-Boston Red Sox baseball game. The children and four other passengers in Mrs. Bigham's car escaped injury.

Chile is said to have about two-thirds of the known mineral resources contained in all of South America.

Senate Stymies Road Progress

Refuses to Vote More Funds; Favors Repeal of Dividend Tax Credit

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate rejected today two proposals for providing more highway building funds as it passed a bill to continue corporate and excise tax rates at wartime levels for another year.

But it wrote other amendments into the three billion dollar tax measure, making further congressional action necessary before the July 1 deadline. The Senate session lasted 15½ hours, into the early morning.

Unless the bill is signed into law by Tuesday midnight, tax rates drop on corporate income taxes and on excises on automobiles, auto parts and accessories, cigarettes, liquor, wine and beer. The House bill extending them for a year had no other provisions.

* * *

Committees from the House and Senate hoped to meet today to agree on a final draft of the measure so the Senate and House can pass it early next week.

In votes taken after midnight, the Senate rejected both Eisenhower's proposal for a gasoline tax increase, and an alternative Democratic plan to prevent an eventual heavy cutback in the big interstate highway program.

The result was to throw in question whether any action would be taken to keep the program on schedule for the years ahead.

ASKED MORE MONEY

Both the rejected amendments would have provided more money for the special highway trust fund from which federal grants are made.

Four other amendments to the tax extender were adopted, all of them strongly opposed by the administration.

It was expected at least some of them would be thrown out in conference; some House leaders had indicated they would give a cold reception to any Senate changes.

* * *

The four were:

1. Sponsored by Sen. George A. Smathers (D-Fla), to repeal the 10 per cent passenger travel tax, effective Aug. 1, 1959. This would slice about 235 million dollars a year from tax income.

2. Sponsored by Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla), to repeal the 10 per cent communications tax on such items as telephone service, effective July 1, 1960. It would cut revenues 735 million dollars a year.

3. Sponsored by Sen. Eugene McCarthy (D-Minn), to repeal most of the tax credit for stockholders on dividend income, effective Jan. 1, 1960. It would bring in about 335 million annually.

* * *

4. Sponsored by Sen. Russell B. Long (D-La), to increase federal grants to the states for old age assistance and other relief programs by 142 millions annually, effective in October 1959. Adopted 42-36.

Hart Backs Repeal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Philip Hart (D-Mich) voted with the majority as the Senate voted 47-31 yesterday to repeal most of the benefits of the 1954 dividend credit provision. Sen. Patrick McNamara did not vote but said he favored repeal.

Judge Saw Reason

WORCESTER, Mass. (UPI)—Lawyer James L. Clifford asked for postponement of a client's case yesterday so he could attend a graduation exercise. Asked by Superior Court Judge John H. Meagher what the graduation was, Clifford replied: "My dog is finishing training school." Meagher granted the postponement.

City's Army Reserve Runs Into Rain, Mud

By JOE SINGLETON

CAMP McCOY, Wis. — As Pontiac's new 2nd Infantry Battalion gets midway into its first week of field training at this huge military reservation, rain is the biggest enemy.

But the spirits of the 151 Army reservists have not been dampened by the downfall that have turned training areas into muddy swamps.

* * *

The new outfit is busy organizing its top echelon of officers.

Commanded by Maj. Frank D. Thompson, 867 Berwick Blvd., the 2nd battalion has Capt. Robert V. Cissell, 685 W. Marshall St., Ferndale as executive officer.

Also on the staff are Capt. Dale A. Rector, 4830 Linwood Dr., operations officer; Lt. James R. Bickerstaff, 103 Seneca Ave., adjutant; and M. Sgt. Florian A. Funke, 1010 W. 11 Mile Rd., Berkley, sergeant-major.

Handling line duties are Lt. Robert C. Julin, 569 W. Huron St., company 'E' commander, and M. Sgt. Homer Howard, 455 Walton Blvd., first sergeant; James W. Helmrick, 17350 Roseland Blvd., Royal Oak, Company 'F' commander, and M. Sgt. Theodore R. Pearson, 6066 Northrup St., first sergeant; Capt. Thomas W. Coucel, 7595 Barnsbury Rd., Union Lake, Company 'G' commander, and Cpl. Allen B. Levy, 520 Aspen St., Birmingham, first sergeant; and Capt. William H. Anderson Jr., 2068 Glencove Rd., Walled Lake, Company 'H' commander, with Sgt. 1 C. Allan R. Pearson, 1227 Alhi St., as first sergeant.

Stressing the training of individual soldiers in basic combat subjects, the battalion's training also includes classes on communism, especially communist methods of interrrgation, indoctrination and exploitation of prisoners of war.

A big objective is training to enable the battalion's men to become proficient instructors themselves in infantry techniques.

* * *

The training also serves as a refresher for men who entered the Army under the new program that provides for six months active duty followed by reserve training afterwards.

Late Session Delays Debate

Roberts - Clarkson Talk on State Cash Crisis Doesn't Materialize

State Reps. Farrell E. Roberts (R-West Bloomfield Township) and James Clarkson (D-Southfield) had their debate on Michigan's cash crisis last night, but it wasn't in Birmingham as scheduled.

* * *

Roberts and Clarkson had to postpone their discussion on the state's money problems before the Young Republicans of Oakland County because the Legislature remained in session into the night in Lansing.

So a handful of Young Republicans — and visiting Democrats who had come to hear Clarkson — heard scheduled moderator Donald A. Brown, a former state representative himself, substitute for Roberts and Clarkson.

Brown, now an assistant prosecutor for Oakland County, presented a brief talk on the history of Michigan's tax structure.

* * *

In the audience was Marvin Scott, county chairman for the Young Democratic Clubs of Oakland County. Clarkson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mowat Clarkson of Highland Park and Mrs. Donald S. Morgan of Bloomfield Hills, Clarkson's sister.

100 Ships Await Entry in Welland Canal Backlog

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. (UPI)—The backlog of ships waiting to enter the Welland Canal stood at 100 today.

Thirty-five were anchored in Lake Ontario, 34 in Lake Erie, five in Port Weller harbor, six in Port Colbourne harbor and 20 were in transit or moving into position.

The ships, including ocean-going vessels, Great Lakes freighters and bulk freighters carrying iron ore for lake ports, were put on a priority basis following a two and one half day closing of the canal earlier in the week because of a broken lock sill.

"The bulk freighters have been given priority whether they are heading for a destination to unload or are traveling light on their way to pick up another cargo because of the race to stockpile Niagara Peninsula foundries with iron ore before a threatening U.S. Steel strike.

Officials estimate it will take two weeks to clear the backlog which is expected to be further increased when the royal yacht Britannia goes through next Wednesday.

Squirrel Dims Lights

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)—A squirrel put out the lights in three suburban communities and parts of two others recently. He climbed a utility pole and chewed into a 44,000-volt line. Service was restored shortly but the squirrel didn't survive to see the lights go back on.

Tie X-Rays, Leukemia

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Doctors at the University of California found in a survey that 251 children with leukemia had had more exposure to medical x-rays than did boys and girls who did not develop leukemia.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ROBert Diamond, who passed away 1 year ago today, June 26, 1958.
The rolling stream of time flows on
But still the vacant chair,
Who recalls the love, the voice, the smile
Of father who once sat there.
The flowers we lay upon the grave,
May wither and decay,
But the love we have for you,
Will never fade away.
A loving father, so true and kind,
No friend on earth like him divine,
For all of us he did his best,
May God grant him eternal rest.
Sadly missed by his wife, Rose, children William, Florence, Doris Marie, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

IN MEMORY OF JAY GLADstone, who passed away June 26, 1958.
In our hearts, a memory is kept
Of one we all love, and will never forget.
Sadly missed by his Wife, Children and Grandchildren. Mrs. Laura Gladstone

IN LOVING MEMORY OF A DEAR husband and father, Robert B. Diamond, who passed away June 26th of 1958.
Beside your grave we often stand,
And try in vain to understand,
Forgive us, Lord, in tears we pray,
For this ends the first sad year today.
Sadly missed by his wife (Rose) and family.

Nurse Clears Up Hospital Woes With 'Logistics'

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Logistics — the Army term for moving men, supplies and equipment to the right place at the right time — is also a problem in hospitals but it has been solved to a great extent by a nurse at Mount Sinai Hospital here.

★ ★ ★

Hospitals throughout the nation are copying the methods of Mrs. Margaret Lee, supervisor of the Mount Sinai Central Supply Department.

Perhaps her most important innovation is a "Cardiac Cart" which contains equipment and drugs for treatment of emergency heart cases.

The moment a cardiac patient is assigned a room at Sinai, a cart is wheeled into the room, ready for instant use.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Lee also has redesigned trays to the specifications of physicians and surgeons, using lighter and quieter materials.

In addition, she has substituted paper and other disposable materials for linen used on the trays, thus chopping costs and eliminating laundry and sterilization problems.

Watch Exhaust Puffs From Motorist Ahead

CHICAGO (UP) — The National Safety Council suggests that, when passing, watch the exhaust pipe of the car ahead for smoke puffs.

A lazy puff, means the driver has taken his foot from the accelerator. Perhaps he's slowing for a turn.

A sharp gust of smoke may mean the motorist ahead is speeding up so that you will be unable to pass.

Watchdog Is Among Items That Were Taken

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UP)—Joseph R. Valle told Phoenix police his surplus sales company was robbed.

Stolen were a bolt cutter, some drill bits—and a watchdog.

Post Office Hiring Dogs?

RICHMOND, Va. (UP)—Chippy, a Chihauhau, is just as regular as the mailman at the Ernest M. Hunters. The tiny dog meets mailman Wilson Brown every day between 10:30 and 11 a.m., takes the mail and carries it in. If there isn't any mail, she is given a piece of paper so there will be no disappointment.

This Theft Thorough

TUCSON, Ariz. (UP) — Burglars stole a safe containing $7,200 in cash and checks from the Hayden Flour Mills. They hauled it away easily in a company truck.

Madagascar is the fourth largest island in the world.

'Always Put You on the Skids'

Many Anxious for Cliburn's Fall

NEW YORK (NEA)—This is the parable of Van Cliburn who is an American and 25 and a world-renowned concert pianist—so far from the pinnacle this year—except in this space.

★ ★ ★

It is recited here because the warm weather drives other, older Americans out of the woodwork and onto the graduation day platform with the counsel of despair: the ladder to success is steep and treacherous.

Well, a little more than a year has passed since Cliburn made his dazzling appearance in Moscow. Since then, his concerts have been mobbed; his records have sold out; his autograph and smile are requested everywhere.

In short, he is the answer to traditional commencement addresses: the threshold is the career; the foothold is the pinnacle, the first rung on the ladder is the top rung.

FORBIDDEN LESSON

But if this sort of lesson is tempting, it is also forbidden by the American school system. So it is unlikely that Cliburn will be called on for a few remarks quietly: "Americans love to see prodigies on the skids.

"A lot of people are just waiting for me to slip," he said quietly. "Americans love to see prodigies on the skids.

VAN CLIBURN—"A lot of people are just waiting for me to slip."

"It's the big hazard in this country: you're only as good as your last performance. If you have a bad day, you're on the skids. If you're tired — after 98 concerts in a row, for example — you're on the skids.

"If you're scared of a bad day, you don't even try anything new and you slip. If you give in to public pressure, you can get scared into serious missteps.

Now, nobody wants to hear this kind of thing, especially at the commencement exercises. What we want to know is how to skip the bottom rungs. After all, it's much nicer to be successful when you're young and can enjoy it.

"There are an awful lot of vindictively hopeful people around," he said. "It's so much easier for them to help the struggler than to accept the celebrated.

Look at your newspapers. Almost everybody likes to read stories about what once-famous people are doing in obscurity.

"Honestly: the only way to get away from public pressure is to travel around with a psychologist who can keep you from raising people's anxieties."

And so he will not discuss foreign places, foreign people, fate, luck, chance, politics—although he has strong opinions on them—because all of us have some anxieties and too many artists have gone down the drain by offending their audiences.

"I can't even talk about the spirit and how insignificant we all are because somebody is sure to sneer. 'Of course he can talk like that, look at how big he is.'

Barbara Cook (who's expecting) had let out her costumes just as far as they could be let out, so Arlyne Frank went into her role in "Music Man" a week earlier than planned. Barbara played a spinster librarian, and the producers just couldn't see letting her stay in and year a maternity dress.

Billy Graham's perfectly right in his attack on London's lack of morals. Working newspapermen consider London far more evil than Paris, the wickedest city in the world."

Paulette Goddard told Ingrid Bergman's husband, Lars Schmidt, some weeks ago that she was considering taking some "Adenauer shots" — special injections which, according to rumor in Europe, give prolonged vitality to Adenauer, Sir Winston Churchill, and others quite elderly. Paulette didn't look at all elderly or in need of shots at Luchow's with her husband Erich Maria Remarque — nor did Marlene Dietrich with actor Kurt Kazner.

'The Second Happiest Day' Sad End for Playhouse 90

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI)—CBS-TV's Playhouse 90 declared its recess for the regular season with "The Second Happiest Day," a rather unhappy choice.

★ ★ ★

The play, adapted by Steven Gethers from a novel by John Phillips (he's John Marquand's son) was a curious hybrid: a mixture of Scott Fitzgerald type people and Marquand point of view.

What's more, it received some curious performances — an inadequate one by Margaret O'Brien, a very solid one by Judith Anderson, a woeful one by Fay Wray and a see-saw one by Tony Randall.

Randall bore the brunt of the proceedings and passed an uneven night — at some points, particularly an early drunk scene, he was excellent; during other key moments, a crying bit, the love scenes he was off-target.

★ ★ ★

The play itself trembled on the lip of adolescent fantasy: young man rocketing to the top job, joining the top set, snaring the top girl, all without much more talent than the knack of insulting the wrong people.

A bid was made to retrieve the play's innards by giving it an ironic twist, but I found the irony rather incredible, too.

SHORT SHOTS: Fred Astaire was a charming addition to last night's NBC-TV Jack Paar show, but I sure wish people would stop plugging their books on the program — it's beginning to look like an ad lib Saturday Review . . . ABC-TV's Pat Boone rounded up his staff and trotted them on camera for his final show of the season, an effort of medium attractiveness . . .

THE CHANNEL SWIM: There's a report afloat that a cigar firm is trying to coax George Burns into a weekly series — not a situation comedy — for next fall. ABC-TV could be the network. CBS-TV announced yesterday that Person to Person would return to TV next season with a new emcee — Arthur Godfrey pulled out of the emcee job Wednesday. Ray Walston is now the likeliest candidate to join William Bendix and Teddy Rooney in the cast of the NBC-TV special, "Ransom of Red Chief," set for Aug. 16. NBC-TV will present a one-hour Jimmy Durante special Sept. 25 and Milton Berle specials on Oct. 11 and Nov. 1. Danny Thomas will guest on the first Berle show and Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz on the second.

Anti-Frondizi Threat Slackens

Split of Military Officials Adds to Economy Crisis in Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—The military threat to President Arturo Frondizi's government appeared to have slackened today. But Frondizi's new economic czar was having trouble recruiting aides to push his program to rebuild Argentina's economy along free-enterprise lines.

The military officers who brought on the current crisis were split among themselves. Some still insisted on Frondizi's resignation. Others appeared appeased, for the time being, by the changes he has made in his Cabinet.

★ ★ ★

Alvaro Alsogaray, Argentina's chief exponent of free enterprise, was sworn in as economic minister and acting labor minister Thursday. He said he hopes to make progress toward halting inflation and labor unrest within half a year.

★ ★ ★

But when he started looking for assistants, the prospective candidates refused. They apparently were frightened off by criticism heaped on Alsogaray by labor unions, many of them packed with supporters of Ex-President Juan Peron, and by political parties, including some of Frondizi's own Radical Intransigents.

Commercial circles showed their confidence in Alsogaray, however, and the peso strengthened from last week's level of 97 to Thursday's mark of 86 to the dollar.

Senate Wastebasket Gets Jury Repealer

LANSING (AP) — The one-man grand jury repealer reposed today where it was expected all along to land—in the legislative wastebasket.

The bill was routed to its final destination yesterday by the Senate Judiciary Committee, which reportedly lined up five to two against it.

Approved by the House, the proposal would have stripped Michigan of a legal mechanism unique in the country, and probably meant a return to the 23-man grand jury system.

★ ★ ★

The committee had been on the verge of killing the bill last week but held off long enough to allow a "courtesy" hearing for supporters before it acted yesterday.

Among those who pleaded in vain for the bill were Atty. James C. Daner of Mt. Clemens, Counsel for Mayor Thomas H. Welsh of St. Clair Shores in his grand jury difficulties; Martha Stanislaw, former interim supervisor of Taylor Township, once a grand jury witness; former Rep. Kenneth Sanborn (R-Mt. Clemens), and ~~Reps.~~ Josephine Hunsinger, Joseph A. Gillis Jr. and William Romano, all Detroit area Democrats.

Lost 3-Year-Old Found After Seven-Hour Search

ALPENA (AP) — Three-year-old Lee Gagnon was found in good condition yesterday after being lost for seven hours in a woods about one mile south of his home here.

The child was discovered by Mrs. Blaine DeCharne, a local volunteer who joined a party of some 100 State Police, Explorer Scouts, National Guardsmen and conservation workers in the search.

State Police said the child wandered into the woods while picking strawberries with an older brother.

He's Not AWOL at All

Senate Removes Lid of Secrecy From Its Payrolls

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate voted early today to push aside the secrecy that has surrounded office payrolls of its members. It agreed to publish the names and salaries of all Senate employes every three months.

Office payrolls of individual senators have been kept secret since 1948. Members could make public their own payrolls if they wished.

Demands for opening the payrolls to public inspection arose earlier in the year after newspaper stories about House members with relatives working for them. In the House, payroll records are available for examination.

The American Society of Newspaper Editors petitioned the Senate on June 3 to open up its payrolls, saying the people are entitled to know how public funds are spent.

Bagwell Boosters Want More Members

LANSING (AP) — The Bagwell Boosters Organization of Michigan has announced plans for a stepped-up membership drive to enroll 100,000 persons in the next six months.

The group now claims 5,000 members organized around 14 recommendations for governmental improvement advocated by Paul D. Bagwell, the Republican candidate for governor in last year's election.

A $1 membership fee has been set by the group "so as not to exclude anyone who might not be able to afford more." The group also placed a $200 ceiling on contributions from any individual.

Part of the membership fee will be used to offset cost of publishing the "Bellringer" magazine which is being introduced this month.

Apple Sauce and Plexiglass

Two Firms Reveal Plans to Enter State

LANSING (AP)—An apple processing firm and a manufacturer of plastics and plexiglass—both from out-of-state — have announced plans to go into operation in Michigan.

The State Economic Development Commission said National Food Products Co. of Winchester, Va., has purchased the former Larson Co. canning plant in Kent City near Grand Rapids.

As soon as this fall's crop comes in, the firm will start producing vinegar, apple juice, apple sauce and other canned apple products. Employment will range from 30 to 400 depending on the season.

The plastics and plexiglass manufacturer, Pam Co. of Portland, Ore., has leased a building in Hillsdale formerly occupied by Fidelity Fabricators.

The commission said Pam Co. expects to start shipping from Hillsdale in July and will eventually shift all its operations there. An employment estimate for the new concern was not available.

Texas holds about 48 per cent of the nation's proved petroleum reserves.
