Motor City Hails 59-14 Victory Over Cleveland

Championship Is Fourth in NFL History for Detroit Pros

By BRUNO KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Detroit became the professional football capital of the world yesterday in convincing fashion.

The Lions, who fought an uphill battle all season under new head coach George Wilson, handed the Cleveland Browns a humiliating 59-14 setback.

For veteran coach Paul Brown who has guided the Cleveland pro team to seven championship games in eight years, it was one of the worst defeats of his coaching career.

A crowd of 55,263 watched the slaughter and at least 53,000 of them kept up the chant all afternoon, "We want more." The other 2,000-plus fans were Cleveland rooters who sat stunned in the right-center field stands as their favorites were being spanked.

The victory, sparked by four aerial touchdowns by quarterback Tobin Rote, gave Detroit its 4th World's Championship since 1933, three of the titles coming against the Browns since 1952.

Just how convincing was the victory is noted in the fact that the Lions scored on nine of the 13 different times they had possession of the ball.

This was the same Lions' squad which was blasted by its former coach Buddy Parker as the "Worst team I have ever seen. It has no life, no drive."

WILSON REACHES TOP

Parker made this statement only 36 hours before the opening exhibition game of the year against the Browns at a banquet designed to honor the 1957 Lions.

Wilson then succeeded Parker and yesterday reached the greatest height of his football career.

"With all the injuries we've had all year, it was only team spirit and desire that kept us going," said Wilson. "We won the title as a team."

Ike Passes Plan for Billion-Dollar Science Training

By ALVIN SPIVAK

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (INS)—President Eisenhower today approved an emergency four-year, one-billion-dollar program to improve science education, starting at the high school level.

Health, education and Welfare Secretary Marion B. Folsom outlined the plan to newsmen after a one-hour meeting with Eisenhower at the President's Gettysburg farm.

White House News Secretary James C. Hagerty said the administration is "hopeful" of getitng it through Congress, where previous aid-to-education proposals have had rough sledding.

Except for a system of direct federal grants to graduate schools, nearly all of the new program would be operated on a 50-50 matching basis with states.

Folsom said that the federal share of matching funds probably would come to about 800 million dollars over the four-year period, meaning an additoinal 800 millions would have to be supplied by state governments.

The program approved by Eisenhower stressed that the plan is aimed at stimulating "state, local and private action" necessary to boost the nation's scientific know-how to meet Russia's missile-satellite challenge.

Folsom insisted the program had been under consideration for about two years but he agreed that Russia's Sputnik achievements gave it "stimulus."

Its highlights are:

— A program of about 10,800 federal scholarships annually for four years to be allocated to states on a population basis and awarded by state officials according to scholastic, ability and financial need.

— These scholarships would "supplement the college and university scholarships which are financed today by the states, by

Why Not Make This Your New Year's Resolution?

Win That $1,600 Now in the Pot-O-Gold

Looking for a good (and maybe profitable) resolution for the New Year?

Here's a suggestion: Win the $1,600 which is bulging the seams of the Pot-O-Gold. You don't have to wait until Tuesday night to start keeping this one, either.

Now that we're entering the second, and maybe final, week of the Pot-O-Gold "playoffs," you won't want to delay a minute in getting to work on your own entry. The pot now contains $1,600, but if a winner is found, that will be the end of Pot-O-Gold puzzles.

Because no winners were found for the last puzzle which allowed one error, judges will accept as winning entries all those that have no more than two mistakes.

If your solution is mailed according to the rules and contains all but two right answers, you may be the winner.

Of course, if an entry contains a perfect solution, that person will be the winner. Or if someone submits a puzzle with only one mistake, he will have preference over those with more errors.

If two or more contestants have the same number of errors, they will split the pot, providing no one has less mistakes.

But at $1,600, even a two or three way split would still yield a handsome prize.

This may be your last chance, so turn to page 2 and get started on your solution of the puzzle appearing for the first time today.

Gunman Slaying Suspect Dies in Head-On Collision

WRENS, Ga. (AP)—One of two gunmen wanted in the slaying of two men in Washington, D.C., was killed last night in the flaming crash of a stolen car being chased by police at speeds of up to 110 m.p.h.

The state patrol said Henry Clay Overton, 44, of Martinsville, Va., died when the car he was driving swerved and smashed head-on into another auto.

The crash occurred on U. S. Highway 1 about four miles north of this east-central Georgia town.

The driver of the other car, listed as Charlie Wray of Cocoa, Fla., and High Point, N. C., also was killed.

The patrol said a massive hunt was in progress for Overton's companion, Russell Wayne Carpenter, 21, of Washington.

Troopers armed with submachineguns and tear gas searched a nearby tourist court for Carpenter after occupants of one of the cabins reported hearing someone break into another unit.

"We still don't know whether the other man was with Overton," Patrol Sgt. R. L. Knight said. "It

Expect Budget of $74 Billion

Ike's Request for 1959 Will Go to Congress Early Next Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration's first post-Sputnik budget may total nearly 74 billion dollars—a new peacetime record.

And Congress, alarmed by recent signs of Russian strides in missiles, satellites and space science, is expected to give a friendly reception to at least the military part of the budget request for the fiscal year starting next June 30.

Defense items probably will account for about 40 billion dollars of the new budget total, an increase of more than a billion dollars over the current spending rate.

Whatever budget cutting Congress may undertake may be aimed at requests for civilian programs. Present indications are that these requests may be held at previous levels, but not reduced appreciably.

Snow at Houghton Worst in Decade

HOUGHTON (AP)—A weird snowstorm out of Lake Superior dumped 7 to 13 inches of snow on several towns in Michigan's Upper Peninsula over the weekend. One death was attributed to the freezing weather.

Snow on the ground measured 18 inches at Houghton on the Keweenaw Peninsula and at Sault Ste. Marie at the opposite end of upper Michigan. Houghton got 13 inches over the weekend and the Soo got 7 inches. A five-inch snowfall was reported at Munising. Grand Marais on Lake Superior had 10 inches on the ground today.

The freakish snowstorm completely missed several nearby towns.

The snow at Houghton was described by the Civil Aeronautics Administration as the heaviest in a decade.

There was little wind and no drifting. Main roads were reported clear. Sheriff's offices said they had received no calls for help from stranded motorists.

At Iron River, Sheriff Edward P. Sandri said 67-year-old Kaarlo Kovero froze to death Sunday, apparently after he fell outside his house and knocked himself out on his way to stoke his furnace. The temperature at the Iron County town reached 10 below zero. Kovero, a widower, lived alone.

Snow was reported at several lower Michigan points over the weekend. In the upper section of the Lower Peninsula, Pellston had nine inches on the ground and Traverse City three inches.

In southern Michigan, Grand Rapids had four inches, Lansing two and Muskegon and Flint one inch.

The U.S. Weather Bureau in Detroit said the storm moved into Michigan from Canada

Report Pontiac Girl Weds 'Sonny' Kresge

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. (INS)—News that M. Ruth Freeman, of Pontiac and Howard Carrington (Sonny) Kresge, son of S. S. Kresge, dime store magnate, were married, was revealed by the groom today.

The wedding, which took place Dec. 23, was the second marriage of Kresge. His previous marriage to the former Ann Walker, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William M. Walker ended in divorce in 1953.

The newlyweds plan a Mediterranean cruise of indefinite duration. Kresge did not say where they planned to make their future home.

Efforts to locate an M. Ruth Freeman here this afternoon were unsuccessful.

Scratched, Dirty, Cold, but Uninjured by Exposure

Lost Toddler, 3, Safe in Hospital

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. (AP)—A 3-year-old toddler who wandered for two days and two nights through rugged, mountainous terrain, lay in a clean, white hospital bed today.

Blonde Shirley Ann Ramsburg, tired and hungry, scratched and dirty, lay beside a tree yesterday when a volunteer searcher stumbled upon her. She cried as soon as she saw him.

Dr. Donald K. McIntyre said the little girl was only suffering from exposure, and her condition was satisfactory.

Her scratches were minor. She had lost her coat, shoes and socks, and was clad only in a thin dress. Her toes were blue from the cold.

A tiny footprint in the mud along the Shenandoah River had led to fears she had drowned after wandering away from home Friday afternoon.

Later, one small shoe was found.

At 5 p.m. yesterday, volunteer Bill Rogers of Martinsburg came upon the grimy-faced child. It ended a ground and air search by police, firemen, National Guardsmen and more than 100 volunteers who included radio-TV personality Arthur Godfrey.

Little Shirley Ann was anything but happy here at Charles Town Hospital.

By late last night, she hadn't said a word—just cried and cried to go home. Dr. McIntyre, however, wanted to keep her in the hospital for a day or two.

The child raised such a fuss that the hospital finally sent the father, Robert Ramsburg, home last night. Ramsburg, 25, is a laborer. His wife, 21, was at home with 1-year-old Robert Jr.

When her mother looked out the window a few minutes later the child and her dog were gone.

Melody Circus Founder Dies

Richard A. Connell Jr. of Bloomfield Township Suffers Heart Attack

Officials believe Connell suffered a heart attack. His wife, Mary, found him at 5:30 a.m. today motionless in his bed. Efforts by the township fire department to revive him with a resusitator failed.

Connell was the son of the president of the Hazel Park Racing Association.

He and several others had founded the summer theater, Melody Circus, on Grand River near Eight Mile, in 1955. Connell was a past president of the Raco Realty Co., and had been in the automobile business for 15 years.

He was a first lieutenant in the paratroopers during World War II.

Connell was a member of the One Hundred Club, Sigma Nu Fraternity and the Bloomfield Volunteer Fire Department.

Besides his parents and wife, Connell is survived by two sons, Richard IV, 9; Paul, 4; and a daughter, Annette Rahody, 8.

Service will be held at the William Vasu Funeral Home, 4375 N. Woodward at 2 p.m. Thursday. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

The body may be seen at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Tuesday.

is possible there might have been a second man in the vehicle."

The patrol said, however, a gas station attendant at Swainsboro on U. S. 1 about 50 miles south of Wrens reported he sold gas to a man answering Overton's description. He said there was only one man in the car at that time.

Knight said officers found a sawed-off shotgun and "enough ammunition to stand of a company of men for a week" scattered about the 1958 car Overton was driving.

Death of the gunman climaxed a spree of violence which began early Friday with the fatal shooting of two men in a Washington bar.

Overton's death came after Knight and his partner, Capt. F. R. Calton, spotted the stolen car in Wrens, and gave chase at speeds up to 110 m.p.h.

"Suddenly he swerved across the center line and hit this other car headon. It was awful," Knight said.

THREE CHARGES

Overton and Carpenter were charged in warrants with kidnaping, unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for murder and auto theft.

The FBI said that Overton, described as a diabetic requiring 15 units of insulin a day, also had a long record of assault, housebreaking and larceny.

The murder warrants were issued after the Washington shooting. The men spent several hours drinking in a bar, argued over a $20 tab and left. About 15 minutes later they returned and opened fire with a .45 caliber pistol and a sawed-off shotgun, police said.

The restaurant operator, George P. Kaldes, 33, was killed as was Kenneth Fisher, 32, a guitar player in the restaurant's small band. A blind pianist, Bernard J. Mainer, 28, was shot and was reported paralyzed from the waist down.

Police said the men fled in a car driven by Overton, abandoned it and took a car occupied by Doris Mattingly, 19, and Army Pfc. Larry Lee Monteith, 21.

Ike OKs Billion-Dollar Science Education Plan

communities and by private organizations" which also should "be continued on a greatly expanded basis."

— Grants to states, on a 50-50 matching basis, "to encourage earlier, improved, and more systematic testing of the abilities and aptitudes of students" starting in the seventh, eighth or at least the ninth grade, and continuing through high school.

— Matching grants to states "to support improved counseling and guidance of young students."

— Matching funds "for a four-year period to encourage the states and local school systems to provide more and better teaching of science and mathematics."

— 1,000 graduate-level college fellowships the first year, and 1,500 for each of the next three years "to encourage more able college students to continue into graduate study and prepare for college teaching careers."

— Federal aid in financing establishment "and operation of training centers in languages which are critically important today but which have traditionally received little or no attention in this country."

The program, Folsom said, would require new appropriations of about 225 million dollars in its first year. Of this, 145 millions would go to Folsom's department and about 79 millions to the National Science Foundation.

The foundation's activities include summer training institutes for high school and college teachers, programs to interest students in science careers and improve the teachings of sciences as well as programs for graduate training and fellowships.

Appropriations for these foundation activities amounted to about $14,500,000 this year, Hagerty said.

Folsom indicated that the four-year limit on the overall program was fixed to overcome what some lawmakers consider to be federal "interference" with education.

Describing the plan as vital to "meet the critical security needs" of the nation, Folsom said:

"As these national needs are more fully met through increased state, local, and private action, federal support would no longer be needed."

Folsom said the program was motivated by "some plain truths" which he listed as:

"First, education is not more crucially important to long-term national security than ever before.

"Second, there are deficiencies in education which, if allowed to continue, could seriously weaken our national security effort.

"Third, the main support for education must come in the future, as in the past, from state, local and private sources. We must work to strengthen—not weaken—the American tradition of state and local control of education."

Folsom emphasized that "we want to help the states play their full and proper roles in developing their educational systems to meet the pressing demands of national security in the years ahead."

The primary problem, he said, is "to reduce the waste of talent" shown in studies which "indicate that even in high school, one out of five students in the upper fourth of their class drops out of school before graduation."

The Eisenhower-approved memo declared: "The nation simply cannot afford to continue such a tragic waste of its most valuable resource —the talents of its young people."

Folsom said that if Congress enacts the necessary legislation, he hopes to issue the first federal scholarships "in the next academic year."

He said that the scholarships "could be awarded in various fields of study, but preference would be given to students with good preparation in science and mathematics."

Folsom said, however, that there would be no requirements that the scholarships go to students majoring in those fields.

He said science advisers, including presidential missiles adviser James R. Killian, feel that the most important step is to get able young people into college regardless of what studies they pursue.

The secretary explained: "We think it is greatly important for people, in whatever fields they are trained, to know something about science . . . if we get these able youngsters in there, we believe the scientists can get their hands on them."

year of the National Football League kept the quiet Cleveland dressing room closed for 25 minutes after the game.

When he finally opened the door, his face was flushed, but he did manage a smile for newsmen. "The Lions had the competitive edge, the ball was destined to bounce the way it did," Brown said.

He noted that the turning point of the game was the 78-yard touchdown play from Rote to Jim Doran in the third period just after Cleveland had scored its second touchdown.

PASS BROKE GAME

"When we got that touchdown we were only 17 points behind and I really thought we could come back, but that long pass was the game breaker."

Pandemonium broke loose after the game as thousands of Lions' fans streamed onto the field to hoist players on their shoulders.

Captain Joe Schmidt was paraded on the fans' shoulders with the game ball for 10 minutes.

Police and stadium guards formed a solid wall around the goal posts as fans tried to pull them down.

The largest players' share of receipts in pro football's history was netted from the game. Each member of the Lions, in a 42-way split, gained $4,295.41, while each of the Browns got $2,750.30.

Philippine Chief Takes His Oath

Garcia Pledges to Keep Vigorous Pro-American Policies as President

MANILA (INS) — Carlos P. Garcia took his oath of office as the fourth president of the Philippine Islands and promptly pledged to continue his vigorous pro-American policies.

The leader of the Nacionalista Party told the inauguration ceremony crowd at Manila's sea-front Luneta Park that the Philippines will work with the United States and any other "sincere effort" towards world disarmament and peace.

Garcia, 61, assumed the duties of chief executive last March when President Ramon Magsaysay died in a plane crash, and won the right to a four-year term in November's national election.

He stressed America's part in maintaining the defenses of the Philippines and noted that any minor differences between the two countries will be overcome by a "spirit of mutual willingness and capacity to overcome them."

Touching on the problem of preserving world peace, Garcia said:

"The Philippines stand squarely behind every sincere plea and effort to stop the armament race that is leading nations of the world to material and moral bankruptcy.

"World peace based on the balance of terror maintained by a relentless contest in the development of devastating nuclear weapons can lead only to the total destruction of civilization."

Commission Will Study Legality of Snow Removal

BIRMINGHAM — The question of the legality of removing snow from sidewalks with a tractor-powered rotary broom faces commissioners tonight. It has been pointed out that according to a city ordinance no vehicle may be operated on sidewalks except to cross the walk by using a driveway.

James Howlett, city attorney, said he sees no reason why discretionary action by police cannot permit such mechanized snow removal. Serveral cities have gone into the matter thoroughly and in each case the power removal has been upheld, he said.

Assistant City Manager Robert Kenning said the work was being done mainly around schools, the Library, Municipal Building and other city-owned properties. He said that in some instances private property is cleared of snow in the process.

In one case, a property owner complained that he would not pay for the snow removal. When told he would not be charged, he said he didn't want the snow removed anyway, Kenning said.

There have been very few complaints and, to the best of his knowledge, no compliments from individual owners who benefit from the program, he said.

The agenda tonight also includes the proposed weed mowing on the property bounded by Adams road and Bowers street. Kenning said that in his contact with the owners he found they were not only interested in weed removal but also in general cleanup of the property and drainage improvement.

Russell T. Berger, city treasurer, reminded city taxpayers today that Jan. 20 is the deadline for payment without additional charge. Up to Feb. 28 there will be a four per cent charge added.

On March 1, unpaid taxes will be turned over to the Oakland County treasurer in Pontiac and will carry additional charges of one half of one per cent a month until date of payment.

Two separate skating classes will start Jan. 4 and Jan. 9 at the Eton Rink with a limited number of vacancies in each group.

William C. Shaughnessy

Requiem Mass will be said for William C. Shaughnessy, 69, of 448 E. Southlawn, Birmingham, at 10 a.m. tomorrow at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church. The Rosary will be recited at 8:30 this evening at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. He died Friday after an illness of several months.

A resident of Birmingham for 35 years, Mr. Shaughnessy retired recently after 39 years with Detroit Edison. He had been a foreman of Overhead Lines Division.

During World War I he served with the U.S. Army in Russia.

He was one of the founders of Holy Names Church here and later helped found the parish of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church. He was a member of Bishop Gallagher Council, Knights of Columbus, Royal Oak, and Birmingham VFW.

Surviving are his wife, Agnes M.; a daughter, Mrs. Don J. Stoddard of Farmington; three sons, Robert C. of Birmingham, William G. and C. Patrick, both of Royal Oak; two sisters, Mrs. William Allen, Mrs. Carrie Wilson, and three brothers, Howard, Kenneth and Jule, all of Detroit.

DETROIT (AP) — Pressmen prepared to resume publication of the afternoon Detroit News shortly after noon today following a 3½-hour work stoppage because of a seniority dispute.

Press room Supt. Everett Hall said the pressmen decided to return to work on the advice of union attorneys after a union chapel meeting.

Hall said the presses stopped after 1,000 newspapers had been published. The work stoppage threw the press run about 64,000 newspapers behind schedule, he said.

This May Be Last Chance to Win Prize

We're entering the second week of "sudden death" competition with Pot-O-Gold, and this week two errors are allowed. Sixteen hundred dollars is waiting for someone to claim the pot, but don't expect it to be there much longer with the new relaxed rules. This may be your last chance, so get busy right now. This week's puzzle is due January 7.

The new puzzle contains a series of squares which are alphabetically lettered and a corresponding list of sentences with two clue words. Each of the words is numbered. The object is to select the word which you think best fits the clue sentence. You then place the number of that word in the square which has the same letter as the clue sentence.

In other words, you will read the clue labeled A and decide which of the two words makes the most sense in the puzzle square marked A.

Do the same with all other squares. Read all the clues carefully and be sure the right numbers are in the right squares.

Negro Students Nix Noncurricular Mixing

DALLAS (AP)—Melba Patillo, 16, one of the nine Negro students attending Little Rock's Central High School under military guard, says she and her fello wstudents don't care to participate in extracurricular activities.

"We don't want to mix that way," she said. "We just want to get a good education."

African-Asians Plan Reports

Preparing Propaganda Resolutions Along Line Set by Soviets

CAIRO (AP)—Delegates to the African-Asian conference put finishing touches today on a fistful of propaganda resolutions following the broad Soviet line.

Subjects ranged from nationalization to nuclear weapons.

This afternon's plenary session promised another round of anti-Western speeches by spokesman for the 40 delegates from 42 nations and colonies. None represents his government officially, and many come from lefist groups either frowned on or outlawed at home.

The question of nationalization first arose during the conference Friday in a speech by the Soviet delegate. The economic committee quickly picked up the theme and was reported ready to adopt a resolution approving governmental appropriation of private property.

An informed source said the resolution, which would have to be approved by the full conference at its closing business session Wednesday, considers nationalization a "lawful means and a right which is acknowledged for every nation in accordance with the principles of national sovereignty."

Some delegates also were discussing the possibility of a resolution thanking Russia for her offer of economic aid or loans to all African and Asian countries.

Refuses U.S. Passport Barring China Travel

The State Department refused to renew Worthy's passport unless he agrees under oath to abide by the bans.

Th ACLU, which has takn up Worthy's case, is a privately supported organization devoted to the preservation of Constitutional liberties.

Money Quietly Vanishes Out of Detroit Safe

DETROIT (INS) — Detroit police today were faced with solving the mystery of the disappearing money.

James Dailey, 36, manager of a gasoline station in Detroit told police he had placed $1,160 in the safe at 4 p. m. yesterday.

He was relieved by two afternoon workers and returned later that evening to put the afternoon receipts in the safe. He said he found the day receipts missing.

Police reported there was no indication anyone tried to force the safe.

Chicago requires at least 325 carloads of coal every 24 hours for the generating of electric current alone.

Woman's Death Called Murder

Blows on Back of Head Indicated by Autopsy on Mrs. Helen Henson

A label of murder has been placed on the death of a 57-year-old Hazel Park housewife, at first believed to be the victim of an accident.

An autopsy has indicated that Mrs. Helen Henson, found lying on the kitchen floor of her home, 62 W. Maxwell St. last Monday, was killed by "several blows on the back of the head," Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem said today.

Mrs. Henson was discovered by her husband, Frank, 53, late Monday afternoon. At first it was believed that she had fallen from a chair while reaching into a high cupboard.

Ziem said today that the woman's injuries were not the type caused by a fall.

Although there are no suspects named by authorities so far, Hazel Park police have reported several other clues pointing to murder, Ziem said.

A bloody pitcher, found near the woman's body, may have been the murder weapon, he said. This is being checked by police to see if the blood and bits of hair stuck to it match the dead woman's.

In another room, Ziem said, one section of the wall appeared recently washed. Scrapings from this wall also have been taken to see if there is any evidence of blood.

Ziem said that when police first viewed the body, one of the victim's legs was still on the chair, lending strength to the accident theory.

However, Ziem said, he ordered an autopsy as a matter of routine to determine the cause of death.

DETROIT (AP) — Circuit Judge Thomas F. Maher of Detroit died at his home Saturday following a long illness. He was 55. Funeral services will be held at 9:15 a.m. tomorrow at St. Eugene's Roman Catholic Church in Detroit.

NATO Members Agree on Need for Missiles

The decision of the NATO Council to place intermediate range ballistic missiles (IRBM) at the disposal of the Supreme Allied Command for Europe was unanimous.

It was recognized that the Russians have increased their military and economic power vastly under a totalitarian system; that NATO nations must build more unity and defenses to be able to talk from a position of strength in dealing with Soviet Russia.

Prime Minister MACMILLAN of Britain did much to strengthen President EISENHOWER's hand in the Paris conference and Britain became the first country, followed by the Netherlands, to give parliamentary approval to the so called "arm and talk, talk and arm" NATO program.

As Secretary DULLES said in a recent report on the NATO meeting, "We are trying to get a disarmament agreement and while the Soviets go on piling up their armaments, our own armament must proceed . . . if they are going to have armament, we surely ought to have it in the most efficient way that is practical."

Arguments of some NATO members that they did not want missile bases on their soil for fear that Russia would destroy them first in the event of war, can be countered with the question, "Since when has military weakness protected any country from anything?"

The Cairo Conference

The Afro-Asian People's Conference which opened a few days ago in Cairo has devoted much of its effort to attacks on the Western powers and to praise of Russia.

While U.N. Secretary HAMMARSKJOLD holds private talks in Cairo in the interests of peace, President NASSER is putting on this conference to support his own ambitions. The purpose is to unite public opinion of the 44 Asian and African countries represented against "imperialism and colonialism" and for Moscow's "disarmament" plan. It is ironical that some of the delegates come from Russia's enslaved colonies.

A chief target of criticism was the Eisenhower Doctrine of military and economic aid to Mideast countries who feel they are threatened by Communist aggression. Russia's offer of economic and technical aid to all peoples of Asia and Africa "as brother to brother" was greeted with loud cheers. The Soviet delegate commended Egypt for its seizure of Suez Canal and Indonesia for nationalization of Dutch property.

Communists had high hopes of running the 29 nation 1955 Bandung conference. They failed thanks to Filipino Delegate Carlos P. Romulo and Sir John Kotelawala, then prime minister of Ceylon. These men eloquently defended democracy and attacked Soviet colonization and oppression.

The Cairo conference, held on a non-governmental level, is advertised as growing out of the Bandung meeting, which had not included Russia nor its Asian satellites. Actually it is so obviously another Soviet instigated move in the cold war that some democratically inclined countries refused to send delegates.

PARENTS shouldn't fear that if their children attend the movies a great deal they will not get enough exercise. Children choose seats in the front rows and pile up considerable mileage running to and from the drinking fountains and rest rooms.

IT IS well and good that Vice President NIXON, in referring to the failure to launch a "moon," urged Americans to get their chins up, as the chins of many of them were resting on breastbones.

O, for the good old day, when there was little to argue about except the tariff and religion, and little to fear except starvation, which seemed to be around the next corner.

Pontiac's Average Is Far Above That of the Nation

Jan. 2: What our merchants decree is the final day for present swapping.

Pontiac ranks high in the proportion of its households which have telephones. Figures just issued by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, of which is the local manager, show that on the average in this area, 84 residences out of 100 have phones. The national average is 76.

Raymond H. Storm

Detroit, Saginaw and Bay City all have the same average as Pontiac. Among Michigan cities over 50,000, Kalamazoo is tops with 93. Others are: Royal Oak, 92; Jackson, 90, and Grand Rapids and Flint, 89. Other cities are below the above figures.

Few people are better posted on local history than was

James W. Clapp

Coming quite a distance was a Christmas card received by

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

If We Could Just Shake That Guy

David Lawrence Asks:

What Policies Do Critics Want?

WASHINGTON — Do the American people want another global war? Of course not.

Do they want to surrender control of the whole world to the Communists in Moscow? Of course not. Then what policy do the critics of American policy, both here and abroad, want the United States to follow?

LAWRENCE

This is the bewildering question of the year ahead. For what has been said heretofore by the critics affords no clue to the answer.

There has been inside Washington in recent months a steady propaganda from prominent Democrats in Congress who claim "America has no friends abroad," or that our allies "have lost confidence in us," or that America has "lost ground to the Communists."

WHAT SUBSTITUTE

Conceding every one of the criticisms to be true—for when America stops sending abroad as many billions as before, it does lose friends—the question is what do the persons who oppose the Eisenhower-Dulles policies propose as a substitute? They seem to hold the President and the secretary of state responsible for the misbehavior of the Soviet rulers but do not reveal what remedy there is to control such behavior.

Would they go to war or use force to coerce the men in the Kremlin to behave? Would they threaten the Communist regime with military measures to compel them to stop their aggressions and penetrations in different parts of the world? Certainly no responsible leader of the Democratic Party advocates any such course however vehement may be his criticism.

The line of thought that lately has gained substantial support not only among Democrats in Congress but even among some independent newspapers in this country is that the time has come to "negotiate" with the Russians. It is argued that nothing can be lost by talking and that, even if the talks come to naught, the western world will "know where it stands."

THEY BREAK THEM

This is the same kind of argument that has been made again and again ever since the close of World War II. The Soviets have made agreements and broken their pledges repeatedly. One need not refer just to the record of agreements violated under the Eisenhower administration. For Dean Acheson, secretary of state under the Truman administration, once read to a meeting in Washington of the American Society of Newspaper Editors a list of more than 30 specific violations of written agreements made by the Soviets with the United States and other governments.

The simple truth is that the present rulers of the Soviet Union cannot be trusted. Yet there is a persistent demand in some quarters that America ignore her own allies and negotiate alone with the Moscow regime. It isn't as if there has not been plenty of opportunity for the Soviet government to indicate confidentially in advance through the 25 or more individual ambassadors representing western countries in Moscow just what type of concessions, if any, would be forthcoming.

What the Kremlin is after, of course, is an accepantce by the West of all the territorial conquests made in eastern Europe by the Soviets. The different captive countries are to remain under Soviet control and the West is supposed to agree to this. The United States, furthermore, is to be asked to withdraw her troops 3,000 miles across the ocean, take home her missiles and atomic weapons, and a similar withdrawal by the Soviets for only a few hundred miles would take place and certain areas in eastern and central Europe would then be "neutralized."

DON'T LIKE INSPECTION

No commitments, of course, would be given to insure effective inspection to see if the agreements are thereafter maintained. The Russians don't believe in inspection, though President Eisenhower has offered to open our own defenses to such a periodic examination.

The whole problem was canvassed from every angle at the London disarmament conference to no avail. The Soviets feel confident that, if they persist, the West will disintegrate anyhow and that the opposition politicians in each country can be counted on unwittingly to bring to fruition the important Soviet demands.

What do the critics in the western countries, including the United States, actually advise? They are still vague about it.

Dr. William Brady Says:

What to Do When Child Swallows Foreign Object

"My boy had three fluoroscope examinations, one a month. We thought he might have swallowed a foreign object. Since then I have heard that fluoroscope examinations may make a person sterile, but X-ray doesn't do so. (F.M.)"

DR. BRADY

Fluoroscope is X-ray.

There is virtually no danger of sterility from the examinations.

The correspondent does not say what sort of foreign body the boy might have swallowed. He does not say what symptoms, if any, the boy developed within a day, a week or a month after the possible swallowing of the foreign body, that warranted X-ray examination.

If the boy actually swallowed a foreign body, the probability would be that the object would be expelled via the natural outlet in 48 hours, more or less.

When a child or anyone else swallows a foreign body, don't get hysterical. Remember, in most instances parents never miss the coin, or button, or other object the baby swallowed. It passes through the alimentary canal without any trouble.

HERE'S WHAT TO DO

If you know or strongly suspect the child has swallowed a foreign body, instead of calling the fire department, the police, an ambulance, or a plumber just follow these sensible rules:

1. Do NOT give an emetic or a laxative or physic.

2. Give a young infant all the ripe banana, mashed potato, scraped apple or applesauce and gruel he will eat, for a day or two. Give an older child a bowl of mixed vegetables such as cabbage, celery, carrots, green beans, spinach, parsnips, beets or beet greens, spinach, lettuce, and any fruit the child likes. This should be cooked not more than fifteen minutes.

The purpose of such diet is to provide a bulky residue which will collect around the foreign object and embed it in a comparatively smooth mass. Thus it will be more easily carried through the canal and evacuated.

In any case, my advice is that you leave to the doctor the question of when and what kind of X-ray examination is necessary.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Sheepskin No Reason to Be Sheep

When Dr. Phillips asked me to deliver the commencement address, I paraphrased my formal title to read: "Don't Act Like a Sheep Because You Have a Sheepskin." College graduates should puncture fallacious reasoning everywhere by offering a few salient facts on the other side of each question.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case W-385: Dr. J. Donald Phillips is president of Hillsdale College in Michigan.

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane," he telephoned me late one night last semester, "I wonder if you could be with us to deliver our commencement address."

After we had visited over the phone for a few minutes and I had agreed to speak before his graduating class, Dr. Phillips added:

"For the sake of our printed program, could you tell me how you wish your title listed?"

An I facetiously gave him the subtitle first, for I informed him that I'd tell the graduates;

"Don't Act Like a Sheep Because You Have a Sheepskin!"

In other words, don't behave like a 'Mutton Head.'"

Obviously, that was not dignified enough to fit into a commencement program, so I then told Dr. Phillips to list my formal title as "The Moral Responsibilities Devolving Upon College Graduates."

ARMY SCOUTS

In my official address I told the graduating class that they were specially trained men and women who should "scout" new ideas and help furnish the army of mankind the information to prevent illogical "ambushes."

"You don't need to form the final conclusions for your fellow men," I added, "but at least see that plenty of facts are available to them on both sides so they will not act unwisely or too fast."

Then I cited a common notion which you have doubtless heard a dozen times in the past year to the effect that the "fall-out" from our atom bombs caused the terrific rainfall and floods last spring.

Frequent repetitions of such ideas can soon make an entire nation stampede, hysterically.

"Recently I read our Chicago weather report which said we had had the third heaviest rainfall in our history," I added.

"But that means there were two other seasons when it was still wetter than in 1957.

"So if our atomic bombs caused the present rainy year, what accounted for those two wetter years prior to the atom bombs?"

This is the strategy by which college men and women can provoke more logical debate and thus checkmate mob hysteria.

GRAND RAPIDS REPORT

"In a recent national magazine," I continued, "Grand Rapids was cited as a case against fluoridation of drinking water.

"The magazine tried to scare readers against fluoridation by saying that the cancer rate had risen in Grand Rapids.

"Well, the cancer rate is rising everywhere, because we are living longer, and hence, more of us reach the cancer bracket of 50 years and upwards.

"But if fluoridation causes cancer, then why isn't Deaf Smith County in Texas overflowing with cancer patients?

"For in that county, the drinking water has many times the fluorine content of our fluoridated city water systems.

"And Texans have been swallowing that heavy fluoridated water down there for over 100 years."

This is the technique which I urged upon the Hillsdale College graduates, for college men and women should always dispel the fallacies in reasoning that can promote mob action, even in this 20th century.

Just see that the proper rebuttal arguments are thrown into the discussion to offset the glib, one-sided debates that many people launch.

"When the blind lead the blind," states the Bible, "they both shall fall into the pit," so college graduates should avoid the sheeplike tendency to stampede.

'Why Are We Paying Traffic Engineers?'

I read with interest Mr. Critchfield's letter concerning the traffic lights on Saginaw street. Mr. Critchfield and others are very diplomatic, but I would like to come right out and ask, what is the City paying a traffic engineer for?

There are other streets in Pontiac that could be regulated to relieve the traffic congestion downtown, namely Perry and East Boulevard, but how far can one go on these without stopping? One block in most cases.

There is a sign on East Boulevard that says the lights are timed for 30 m. p. h. Brother, is that a joke? And have you noticed the lights on Perry at Mt. Clemens and E. Huron both change at the same time? That must have taken a great deal of thought by an engineer. Let's get Pontiac out of low gear.

'Where Do They Get Such Ideas?'

What's all this about man developing from a seaweed? What will people think of next? The Bible tells us in Genesis 2:7, "And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul." This verse does not mention anything about seaweed, so where in the world do they get such ideas?

David Brien

'New City Bypass Needs More Light'

That new bypass at Telegraph and Orchard Lake is very nice and handy, but I wish the highway department would do something about putting lights at the sections where traffic merges. At night it's almost impossible to see where the road forks until you're right on top of it. Unless some lights are put up, I'd be willing to bet there will be a good many accidents at those points.

Suggests Parents Use This Advice

Just before Christmas I read an article which told how parents should handle the toys children get from Santa. After seeing all the many, many playthings most children get nowadays, I'd say the article was right to suggest putting some of them away for later use. It said children enjoy them much more when they get a few at a time, and that way they have Christmas for a good part of the year. Why not try it, parents? I'm going to do that.

British Talk of Pressure

Press Hits America for Meddling in Their Plane Contract Bid

LONDON (AP)—Rumblings grew louder in the British press today over suggestions that U.S. pressure caused West Germany to decide against buying Britain's latest rocket-jet plane.

The Germans turned down the rocket-jet SR177, reportedly in favor of American fighters. The decision cost Britain a 280-million-dollar order and has threatened 3,000 workers at the Saunders-Roe Factory with unemployment.

The British government is reported to believe that the Germans, who were impressed by the SR177 at first, changed their minds after American pressure.

"Let's have some plain talk with the Americans," the Conservative Daily Sketch said. "Let's ask them if it is true that West Germany's decision . . . was due to high-pressure American intervention on behalf of U.S.-built machine."

The Laborite Daily Herald seized on the reports of American intervention to attack the British government.

"A week ago," the Herald said, "this order was in the bag. Suddenly it is allowed to slip out again. For a government of big businessmen we seem to be showing peculiarly little business acumen."

Pravda Hails 35th Year of U.S.S.R. Formation

LONDON (AP) — Pravda today hailed the 35th anniversary of the formation of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics—the USSR—as "the triumph of Lenin's national policy of the Communist party."

The article, broadcast by Moscow radio, said:

New Zealander Enjoys Contest Against Nature's Barriers

Hillary Battles Polar Ice

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Sir Edmund Hillary is once more experiencing what he has described as a "certain fierce joy" in throwing himself against the barriers of nature.

The lean, lanky-jawed New Zealander has climbed the world's highest peak, Mount Everest. Now he has been reported pushing over icy peaks and plateaus to the South Pole.

Under original plans for the overland attack on the Pole, Hillard was to wait for Dr. Vivian Fuchs. But Hillary made good time to his waiting post. Fuchs was delayed, causing doubt whether he could make the polar assault before onset of winter late in February. According to last reports, Hillary set out on his own for the chill southernmost spot in the world.

Such action might have been expected of the 38-year-old former bee-keeper from Auckland in the North Island of New Zealand.

RESTLESS ENERGY

Sir John Hunt in his story of "The Ascent of Everest," which he led, describes Hillary as "quite exceptionally strong and abounding in a restless energy, possessed of a thrusting mind which swept aside all unproved obstacles."

Hillary was educated at Auckland grammar school and has described himself as a "tall, bony, clumsy-looking youth, far from being the brightest boy in the class."

After Hillary's two years of university life, his parents were convinced he was, in his words, "unsuited to an academic career," and he joined his father's business as a full-time bee-keeper.

It was good conditioning. The business included the hard physical labor of caring for 1,600 hives, and in winter Hillard had time to "tramp round the lovely bush-clad hills." At 20, he scrambled to his first summit in the Sealy Range on the South Island of New Zealand.

During the war, he was a navigator on Catalina flying boats in the Pacific, and by 1946 had claimed many big peaks in New Zealand.

FIRST TO TOP EVEREST

In 1951, he joined a New Zealand expedition to the Himalayas, worked at climbs of Mount Everest, and in 1953 he and Sherpa Tenzing became the first humans to set foot on the world's highest peak.

He was knighted, returned to New Zealand to wed Louise Mary Rose, daughter of the president of the New Zealand Alpine Club, continued climbing, and volunteered for the South Pole expedition.

Soviet Propagandists Working Overtime to Sell U.S. Short

VIENNA (AP) — "Recession in U.S.A. — Steel furnaces shut down."

"Boom in Soviet Union — new homes provided."

These contrasting headlines appeared this week in Volksstimme, newspaper of Austria's Communist party.

They made little impression in prosperous and Western-minded Austria, but they were samples of the kind of philosophy that is being echoed in the press and radio of Eastern European countries where nearly 100 million persons live under Communist rule.

The idea is to try to convince these people that things are going bust in the West and that Soviet advances prove the inevitable triumph of communism and the promise that pie in the sky will soon become pie on the table.

Communist propagandists, inspired and serviced by the official Soviet news agency Tass, are stepping up their campaign to convince the world that this time the U.S. economy is really headed for bust and that it will drag America's allies along.

Communist propaganda organs cull American newspapers for any item of economic recession. These are pumped around the world. Volksstimme's two-column headline on the steel cutback was based on a report that Bethlehem Steel Corp. had ordered a cutback in operations at its Lackawanna, N.Y., plant. It added that worse was to come for the American steel industry, already working at "only 65 per cent of capacity."

A Western diplomat stationed in a Communist-ruled country who came here for a Christmas vacation said that Red propaganda is going hot and heavy now to sell the United States down the river.

"One of its main purposes is to cover up the erosion and silent rebellion that is continuing in Communist-ruled countries." He said, "Moscow sees the retreat from collectivization, the revolt against thought control and the yearning for incentives that stay alive in the hearts of peasants and workers which are occurring in the satellites."

Girl Says Policeman Supplied Whisky

Directives in Soviet Press Tell Story

Middle East May Be the Focal Point of Communist Drives Next Year

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

The Middle East, relatively quiet now, seems destined for an all-out concentrated Communist drive in 1958.

A Kremlin intention to concentrate on the Middle East almost to the exclusion of other areas is indicated in the Soviet press. The Soviet news agency, Tass, has distributed directives telling the Communists where the point of greatest Moscow pressure will be in 1958 and what means will be used.

The basic outline of the Red program, says one of the directives, will be found in the declaration and peace manifesto adopted Nov. 22 in Moscow by representatives of 64 Communist parties.

"The Communist party of the Soviet Union considers the declaration and peace manifesto as the most important documents, which will serve as a guide to action for Soviet Communists," says the directive.

The manifesto appeals to all people to demand "an end to the machinations and war provocations of the imperialists in the Near and Middle East."

Outlining tasks for Communists, the declaration says the next one is "the struggle for independence against colonial aggression and the feudal yoke." That fits the Communist conception of the Middle East.

A general peace offensive demanding prohibition of nuclear weapons provides an over-all cloak behind which the Communists can work in the Middle East. Communist party boss Khrushchev is reviving and revitalizing the front groups to advance the drive. This information comes from a Central Committee directive to trade unions, which includes an international section intended for guidance of foreign Communists.

The World Federation of Trade Unions is told to step up its international activity, concentrating its efforts on infiltrating all other groups an dextending "its contacts and cooperation with trade unions of the dependent and colonial countries, irrespective of their belonging to one or another international center."

The WFTU, long active in the Middle East, is totally Communist.

One tough problem on the White Sands Proving ground in New Mexico, where Army, Navy and Air Force missiles are being tested, is chasing stray cattle back to neighboring ranches where they will be out of danger.

May Put A-Ash in Lazy Lakes

Scientists Eye Bodies of Water Which Have No Circulation

INDIANAPOLIS — Lazy lakes may solve a great headache of the atomic age—where safely to stow the radioactive ashes from atomic power plants.

The lazy lakes are ones in which there is absolutely no circulation of water from top to bottom. The bottom layer just stays there, a kind of 'fossil water.

Therefore these lakes could be fine spots to dump dangerous radioactive wastes, said Curtis L. Newcombe of the U. S. Naval Radiological Defense Laboratory, San Francisco.

A problem to be explored is whether heat from the decaying radioactive atoms would start the water circulating, Newcombe told the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science. He said there is a good chance it wouldn't happen.

Dangerous, long-lived radioactive ashes are increasing as more and more atomic power plants go into operation. Storage in underground tanks is very costly. Dumping them into the open sea might ruin fish life.

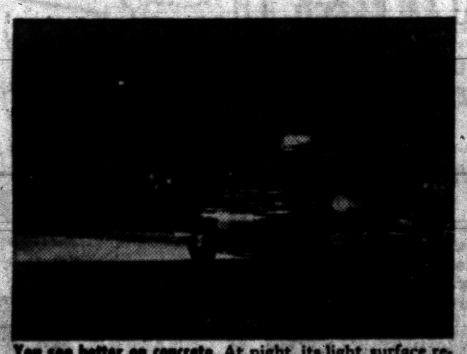

In 1851 Dr. Hermann Helmholtz, a German philosopher and scientist, invented the opthalmoscope which enables a doctor to see the interior of a living eye.

More riding pleasure and extra safety are yours on beautiful, new concrete highways

You see better on concrete. At night, its light surface reflects up to four times more light than a dark surface.

You get safe, sure stops. Concrete's grainy surface resists skids. Wet or dry, concrete assures quick stops.

You get new highways fast. Modern equipment speeds construction, assures top quality pavement.

Michigan drivers prefer concrete 9 to 1 according to a recent survey. They like the safety, durability and economy of smooth-riding concrete streets and highways.

You'll ride in style and even greater safety in 1958. New concrete highways are here today and many miles more are coming soon. These are the finest highways it's possible to build, thanks to your state highway engineers. They're designing your highways to take full advantage of the latest advances in highway engineering and construction. They're using top-quality concrete. These are the first-class roads that Michigan drivers have been demanding.

And what could be safer? Rain or shine, concrete's grainy surface gives dependable skid resistance. At night, its light color lets you see far better than on dark surfaces. Your car handles more easily. There are no ruts or ripples, no "fighting the wheel." Laid flat, concrete stays flat!

You save as a taxpayer. Michigan's new concrete roads will last 50 years and more, yet cost no more than asphalt built to carry equal traffic. They're even better than older concrete roads which have outlasted second choice pavements nearly two to one. And maintenance costs are low. Concrete costs 26% to 58% less to maintain. You also save as a driver. Tires run cooler . . . there's no surface "drag." Studies show you save as much as 4% on your car expenses—gas, oil, brakes, steering.

Next time you glide down a new concrete highway remember it's the finest in modern highway engineering. It's the result of years of research, testing and production progress. Many people helped develop this better concrete, including your highway engineers.

Spectators Injured When Wall Tumbles

BOLIVAR, Mo. (AP)—An explosion of accumulated gases tumbled a section of brick wall onto spectators watching a fire which destroyed two buildings and damaged two others at the northwest corner of Bolivar's Courthouse Square Sunday afternoon.

Clyde Edward Fish, 34, and his 11-year-old daughter, Linda, were injured critically. Three others were hurt. Both Fish and his daughter had skull fractures and the girl's legs were broken.

Owners of the four buildings and the firms they housed estimated the damage at $150,000.

Sharp Curve Tosses Tanker Truck Off Road

TRUCKEE, Calif. (AP)—An empty tanker truck missed a sharp curve last night, ripped out 108 feet of guard rail and plunged down an embankment.

A California highway patrolman said the driver, Edward Silva, wasn't hurt and drove the truck away.

Junior Editors Quiz on LIVING FOSSILS

QUESTION: Do prehistoric animals still exist?

ANSWER: Before man lived on earth, scientists tell us, an astounding number of strange creatures were here. We know about them from fossil bones found from time to time in rocks. What most people do not know is that a number of these creatures are living right today. One is the famous whooping crane, which looks now very much as its ancestors did hundreds of thousands of years ago, but which may not survive much longer. Another is a great fish found recently in African waters. Scientists had learned about it from fossils before they became familiar with the living fish. One of the best known of all "living fossils" is called the horseshoe crab—although it is not a true crab but a seagoing relative of the scorpion. A foot or so in diameter, it is found along the seacoasts and is familiar to bathers because it comes ashore to lay its eggs.

FOR YOU TO DO: Watch for horseshoe crabs if you visit the shore this summer, and meantime color this picture for your scrapbook. You can make the crab a drab green.

Himalayan Kingdom to Build Distillery

CALCUTTA (AP)— Premier Rustomjee Dewan of Sikkim says his tiny Himalayan kingdom is going into the scotch business.

Reports reaching Calcutta today quoted the premier as saying experts believe Sikkim's water closely resembles Scotland's, and so it "would not be difficult to distill good quality scotch."

Sikkim's seven-year plan gives top priority to construction of a distillery.

Man Believed Felled by Tossed Beer Bottle

FRANKLIN, N.C. (AP) — Weaver Wikle, 30, of Franklin, was walking along a highway near here with two friends when he suddenly slumped to the ground unconscious.

He awoke in a hospital. He had a broken shoulder. Wikle's companions said he was struck by an empty beer bottle tossed from a passing automobile.

French Report Killing 26 Algerian Rebels

ALGIERS (AP) — French forces claimed they killed 26 rebels and captured a big supply of arms over the weekend. The Arab nationalists hit back with attacks on farms, trains and road traffic.

The 26 rebels were reported killed near Turenne, in western Algeria.

A rebel mine blasted the engine and 17 cars of an Algiers-Oran freight train from the tracks near Perregaux.

Ten persons were wounded by other rebel attacks at various points.

Hickenlooper Hits Chorus of Pessimists

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) said today a "chorus of destructionists" is creating unnecessary confusion about the nation's missile and satellite programs.

Hickenlooper, a member of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, referred in an interview to Democratic critics who have contended that administration complacency has permitted the United States to lag behind Russia in rocketry.

"There has been a lot of unnecessary confusion created by a whole chorus of destructionists about our defense program," he said. "Despite all the wild talk about how we are dropping behind Russia, we have a tremendous number of missiles.

"I am satisfied that we are making good progress in the missile field."

West Won't Bow to Red Restrictions

BERLIN (AP)—The West made clear today it will not bow to new Communist travel restrictions imposed to force the Allies to recognize East Germany's Red regime.

East Germany announced yesterday that, effective Jan. 1, civilian travelers must have East German instead of Soviet visas to enter and pass through the Russian satellite.

This could prevent Western government officials from entering West Berlin except by air, since the West has refused to recognize East Germany's Red regime. Under four-power occupation accords, accredited civilians have been able to get Russian visas to travel through East Germany. Air travel to and from Berlin is not subject to Communist checks.

"We have no intention of applying to the East Germans for visas," commented a U.S. mission spokesman. Similar reaction came from the French and British.

The Allies planned to protest to the Russians.

Ed Gardner to Do Movie on Advertising Gimmicks

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — My old friend Ed ("Duffy") Gardner tells me about his first independent motion picture. Ed and Jerry Devine have bought Vance Packard's provocative book, "The Hidden Persuaders," dealing with advertising motivation research. This fascinating book reveals various precarious devices employed to get the American public clamoring to buy certain products.

Gardner, who did "Duffy's Tavern" on radio for so many years, and Devine, who wrote and directed "This Is Your FBI," on radio, will personally adapt "Persuaders" which is high on the best seller list.

AUDREY BUYS PLAY

Since Audrey Hepburn will be tied up until the fall of 1958, Billy Wilder, who was planning a motion picture with her, has decided to film another property.

He has acquired the rights to Ferenc Molnar's play, "One, Two, Three." Billy was lucky enough to get that fine actor Edward G. Robinson for the comedy which will be filmed in East and West Berlin.

When I was told about the Molnar play I was reminded of the time I met Molnar in Budapest before the Communists made such shambles of Hungary. I visited the theater where Molnar was rehearsing one of his plays ("Good Fairy") and I was impressed that even at rehearsal he used real flowers.

I had my picture taken with him and I still have it among my souvenirs. He was supposed to be a lady's man, but language barriers kept me from appreciating this quality.

MALA IN WESTERN

The New Year is starting out very well for Mala Powers, who moves onto the 20th Century-Fox lot for "Sierra Barons." Plato Skouras is the producer and James Clark the director. Mala and the other members of the cast, Brian Keith, Rick Jason and Patricia Owens, all go to Mexico Jan. 20 on location.

Mala, who is happily married to Monte Vanton, welcomed her first child last August, and this is her first movie since the birth of the baby.

LIKED EDIE ADAMS

I could see Edie Adams' impersonation of Marilyn Monroe, Jeanette MacDonald, and the boop-boop-a-doop girl Helen Kane again and again. Although I had seen Edie in Las Vegas I went to the Mocambo for her opening.

Edie was helped immeasurably by her cigar-smoking husband, Ernie Kovacs, who sat at a table with a spotlight on him, and while she was changing costumes gave a running patter in his usual style.

She pulled a new gimmick, singing a few words of well known tunes, and to anyone who guessed the name she sent champagne to the table.

The announcement of Julie Ann Burns' engagement to Richard Ray, of MCA, will be made this week by Mr. and Mrs. William Burns. Willie Burns is associated with his brother, George Burns, in business and is an old friend of mine.

The newest twosome in town, Eva Gabor with Frank Yestmore, are at Phil Ahn's Moongate Cafe.

Good to have Ethel Merman back in town. She and her nice husband, Bob Six, arrive tonight and they'll be here for the Tex Feldman party at Romanoff's Tuesday night.

Although Patricia Owens is noncommital about her marital status with Sy Bartlett, she had lunch with Sy's sister a few days ago.

When Roz Russell reports to Warners she'll be dazzled by the new dressing room being constructed especially for her.

Ann Todd is in New York conferring with Burgess Meredith about a Broadway play. She'll then go on to her home in London.

That's all today. See you tomorrow.

Vacationing Students Warned of Rabid Dog

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—One hundred vacationing Florida Southern College students have been notified by telephone they might have come in contact with a sorority house pet dog which died of rabies.

The entire student body of about 2,000 was informed by letter that the dog died of rabies, which is fatal to humans who do not take anti-rabies treatment.

College officials said they had a report the pup might have been slipped into a physical education class.

The college already had telephoned 83 girls in two sororities and then reached the 17 members of the physical education class by telephone yesterday.

The pup was taken into a sorority house in violation of college rules and kept as a mascot for several weeks. He was taken home for the Christmas holidays by a girl student and died last Monday.

Bob Hope Entertains Sailors From Airplane

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The crew of a weather ship 1,000 miles out in the Pacific was treated to a special Bob Hope show from the comedian's plane 17,000 feet overhead.

Hope, home from an 18,000-mile Christmas tour of America's Far East bases, told of the impromptu show, beamed to the lonely Coast Guard ship over the plane's radio.

ELIZABETH KIRK

Mrs. A. Dale Kirk announced the engagement of her daughter, Elizabeth, to Ens. John W. Cramer Jr. Sunday at a party in her Birmingham home. His parents are the John W. Cramers of North Tonawanda, N. Y.

Betrothal Revealed to Guests

An "at home" party Sunday was the occasion for announcing the engagement of Elizabeth Kirk and Ens. John W. Cramer Jr.

The party was held at the Birmingham home of Elizabeth's mother, Mrs. A. Dale Kirk. Her father is the late Dr. Kirk.

SURPRISE REVEALED

Guests from Flint and Birmingham who attended the "surprise" event found the engagement news in the mantel decorations and on a tree with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Jack's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cramer of North Tonawanda, N. Y. He is a graduate of Nichols School for Boys, Buffalo, and Dartmouth College where he is affiliated with Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Liz attended Pinebrook School, Leelanau, and was graduated from Kingswood School Cranbrook. She is a junior at Skidmore College, N. Y. No date has been set for the wedding.

Juliana M. Hauser Wed in Cranbrook Ceremony

Christ Church Cranbrook was the setting for the Saturday evening wedding of Juliana Mary Hauser and Ens. Gerald Gilbert. The Rev. Lester L. Dobyns performed the ceremony.

Dr. and Mrs. John Eugene Hauser of Birmingham are the bride's parents, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Gilbert of Royal Oak.

IVORY-HUED GOWN

The bride chose a princess-style gown of pale ivory peau de soie fashioned with inserts of Alencon lace re-embroidered with seed pearls and sequins bordering the scoop neckline. A small bow gave back interest to the full skirt.

A fingertip veil of illusion fell from an open shell cap of lace, and the bride carried a prayerbook ribboned with white camellias and roses.

Matron of honor Mrs. Richard Paul Mabee of Bowling Green, Ohio, bridesmaids Gay Wright, Patricia Bauervic, Christine Libby and Kathleen Gleason and junior bridesmaid Penny Hauser were gowned alike in roseglow velvet.

The gowns were fashioned with scoop necklines, cap sleeves and floating back panels of matching satin. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of white camellias and pine, while the matron of honor's bouquet was of white camellias and American Beauty rosebuds. Mrs. Lloyd Mason was an honorary bridesmaid.

ASSIST BRIDEGROOM

Household Hints

Old-fashioned festive lace tablecloths have a new look this year! They're being made of washable nylon, dacron or orlon fabrics that thrive on laundering in your washer and automatic clothes dryer. For best results enclose fragile tablecloths in a mesh bag before using your automatic laundry equipment.

Interview Can Hinge on Timing

NEW YORK (INS)—Timing is very important in a job interview.

This means knowing when to talk, when to shut up, when to stay and when to go.

As far as talking is concerned, watch the person interviewing you. If he consults his watch, shifts in his chair, coughs nervously or otherwise seems to be drifting away from the conversation, wind up fast.

Many a job applicant has talked his way into a position, then talked his way out of it again.

ANSWER FULLY

On the other hand, you must answer all questions put to you fully. By answering concisely, you will prove you have an organized mind.

The same clock-watching signs will signify that an interviewer is over. Usually interviews last from 20 to 30 minutes, and if the interviewer is too polite to show that he has heard enough, cut yourself off anyway.

But don't make the mistake of deciding the interview isn't going well and departing before it would normally be over. You may say something in the last few minutes that will change the interviewer's mind.

It also is possible that what you judge to be disinterest is just professional detachment.

Couple Exchanges Vows in Birmingham Service

Two hundred guests witnessed the Saturday evening wedding of Barbara Ann Speicher and Robert Donald Ferguson. The Rev. Glen Harris performed the ceremony in First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Quinn Jr. of Royal Oak are parents of the bride, and the bridegroom is the son of the Donald A. Fergusons of East Yale avenue.

GOWNED IN SATIN

The bride was gowned in an ivory satin sheath dress with attached train. A seed pearl crown held a double veil, and the bridal bouquet was composed of lilies with a removable corsage.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Kurt Lauckner of Ypsilanti. Mrs. John Harrington of Midland and Marjorie Lea Speicher of Royal Oak were the bridesmaids and Christine Quinn of Royal Oak was junior bridesmaid.

The senior attendants were gowned in red velvet gowns with white satin sashes. The junior bridesmaid wore green velvet. All carried red feathered carnations with holly on white fur muffs.

For a reception at Roosevelt Temple Mrs. Quinn chose a beige dress with brown accessories. Mrs. Ferguson's choice was a two-piece brown knit suit with matching accessories.

MRS. ROBERT D. FERGUSON

Before leaving on a northern Michigan trip the new Mrs. Ferguson changed to a cinnamon-colored suit with matching accessories. The bridegroom attends Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Wife Needs Her Humor in Capital

Advice Given by Mrs. Brucker at Luncheon

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Wilber Brucker, wife of the secretary of the Army, advises Washington official wives a sense of humor is a most valuable asset in the capital whirligig.

She put her preaching into practice for their benefit recently, when illess prevented Mrs. Neil H. McElroy, wife of the secretary of defense, from attending a luncheon Mrs. Brucker was giving in her honor.

Pinch-hitting for Mrs. McElroy in the receiving line was Mrs. Reuben Robertson Jr., wife of the former deputy secretary of defense, and an old friend of Mrs. McElroy who had come from her home in Cincinnati especially for the party.

ARMY CHORUS

A highlight of the show Mrs. Brucker had lined up for the 50 guests, who included diplomatic, Cabinet and Defense Department wives, was the singing of the famous Army Chorus which had composed a special song for the wife of their new chief.

Mrs. Brucker, who had planned to give "some tips" to a newcomer to the Washington scene, Mrs. McElroy, passed them on to the guests instead.

On how to best keep their heads, health, and happiness during their stay in the capital, Mrs. Brucker, a veteran of more than three years here, said:

"You must have a good sense of humor, know how to work hard, not take yourself seriously, and learn to talk small talk."

Privately, Mrs. Brucker confided it's equally important for an official wife to see that her responsibility - burdened husband gets enough rest and relaxation from his chores and that she "watches his diet."

LIGHT DINNERS

The Cabinet wife does all her own cooking, preparing "light things" for the secretary's dinner, which he frequently doesn't sit down to until after 9 o'clock.

"I always wait until his secretary calls to tell me he's on his way home before I put dinner on the stove," she told me.

"We try to limit our social evenings to early receptions and avoid dining out whenever possible. Long hikes are our main form of exercise."

Mrs. Brucker, who once took a course in magazine and short story writing, sends an article to be read at monthly meetings of the School of Government Club she helped organize in 1940 in Detroit, where her husband was engaged in private law practice after serving as governor of Michigan.

Usually she writes about Washington and her travels abroad with her husband.

MRS. ROBERT H. RICHARDSON

Barbara J. Reinhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Reinhardt, and Robert H. Richardson were married Saturday evening. Robert is the son of the Harry S. Richardsons.

Barbara J. Reinhardt Wears Taffeta for Rite

Baskets of white carnations, chrysanthemums and gladioli banked the altar of Central Methodist Church for the Saturday evening wedding of Barbara Jean Reinhardt and Robert Harry Richardson.

Dr. Milton H. Bank of Central Methodist Church and the Rev. Gordon Jones of All Saints Episcopal Church, East Lansing, performed the ceremony before 200 guests.

COUPLE'S PARENTS

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Reinhardt of South Francis street, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Richardson of Drayton Plains.

The bride wore a white taffeta gown which featured a square neckline outlined in white lace and a bouffant skirt. A silk cap of seed pearls completed the bridal ensemble. She carried a semi-cascade arrangement of white roses, shattered carnations, stephanotis and ivy.

A sister of the bride, Marilyn Reinhardt, was the honor attendant and Mrs. Daniel Maroney of Ferndale and Betty Orr were bridesmaids. All were gowned in waltz-length red taffeta dresses with Sabrina necklines and matching accessories.

The honor attendant carried a semi-cascade of variegated red and white shattered carnations. The bridesmaids carried semi-cascades of white shattered carnations.

ATTEND BRIDEGROOM

Serving as his brother's best man was Lt. James G. Richardson of Martin, Tenn. Seating the guests were Henry James Reinhardt, a brother of the bride, and John L. Richardson of Drayton Plains, a brother of the bridegroom.

For a reception in the church parlors Mrs. Reinhardt wore a Dior blue street-length dress with powder blue accessories and a corsage of white shattered carnations. Mrs. Richardson's choice was a royal blue street-length dress with dusty pink accessories and a dusty pink shattered carnation corsage.

The bride was graduated from Michigan State University and Mr. Richardson attended Michigan State University where he is affiliated with Lambda Iota Tau honorary fraternity. He is now attending Virginia Theological Seminary.

Turry Welden, Edwin Eustice Repeat Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Welden of Illinois avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Turry, to Edwin J. Eustice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eustice of Monticello avenue. The couple exchanged vows Friday in the First Congregational Church.

Compulsory Retirement Cannot Be Sidestepped

By BEULAH STOWE

"Why can't I decide for myself when I want to retire?" asks Mr. Warren B., 64, a printer.

"My company says I have to go when I am 65. They will not make an exception in my case or in any other. I like my job and I'd like to keep on working."

Some companies allow their employes the option of continuing in their jobs from 65 to 70, if they prefer. Most companies, however, hold firm to the retirement age set for their employes—usually 65.

MORE UNDERSTANDING

Management is, however, becoming more understanding of the problems of retired people every year. Many far-sighted companies are engaging personnel men to set up retirement programs to help employes prepare for their later years.

These programs stress interviews with future retirees well in advance of their 65th birthdays, to let them know exactly what the company will do for them after retirement in pension, insurance and other of other research now in progress is to set standards upon which retirement can be determined.

Warren B. will have to retire when he's told to. It may be that management will be less arbitrary in future years.

Fifty-eight per cent of a group of men between 60 and 65 questioned in a recent survey said that they would rather continue to work past 65. Seventy-five per cent of a group of men between 40 and 45 years old said they would rather retire then.

DECIDE THEMSELVES

Both groups reported that they would like to decide for themselves when they would retire, but agreed that the doctor, company and union should also have something to say about it.

Q — "I'd like to move down South and get away from the snow and ice when I retire. Can you suggest a place?"—W. J. M.

Dear Abby....

Reader Advises 'Disgusted With Life' to Stop Feeling So Sorry for Himself

DEAR ABBY: I just read that letter from the 15-year-old boy who wrote saying that he couldn't make any friends because he wasn't any good at sports and he signed himself "DISGUSTED WITH LIFE."

I have news for him! My uncle was stricken with polio when he was 4 and he never walked again, but he made more friends in his wheel chair than anybody else in town.

ABBY

He graduated from high school with honors and went on to college and medical school and is now a well-known doctor. So tell that kid to stop feeling sorry for himself!

DANIEL McKENZIE

DEAR ABBY: What do you do about friends who are always bragging about their children? Others in our crowd have children, too, but you never hear them (or us) talk about our children the way this one couple does.

I am so fed up-to-the-teeth with what "Dickie and Judy said" that I am ready to blow my top whenever these people come near us. Please, Abby, tell me how to handle this. I don't like to insult this couple but I can't stand it any more.

FED UP

DEAR FED: You can't close people's mouths, but you can remove yourself from the audience if their company becomes unbearable.

DEAR ABBY: While overseas for 18 months I was faithful to my girl back home because I love her. I lived for her letters and slept with her picture under my pillow every night. She said she loved me and would wait for me.

When I got home I found out she had been running around with every Tom, Dick and Harry. Then she married a fellow she had known only six weeks.

Her mother told me she kept writing me because she didn't want to break down my spirits when I was away. I still love this girl no matter what she has done. Please, Abby, tell me how I can get her out of my heart?

HEARTBROKEN

DEAR HEARTBROKEN: You can get her out of your heart by facing the facts. She is married. It's better to have had a two-timing girl friend than a two-timing wife. Maybe you are luckier than the boy she married.

DEAR ABBY: How can I get my husband to leave our appliances alone? Everytime a screw comes loose on our toaster, or the light in my electric coffee-maker goes out, my husband takes the whole thing apart and starts to monkey around with it.

So far he has never fixed anything — just broke it so much worse that when I take it to the repair shop they say, "Don't let your kids try to fix these again." I hate to hurt his feelings, but honestly this is the limit. Any suggestions?

NO APPLIANCES

DEAR NO: The next time any appliance goes on the blink, quietly take it to the shop without informing your husband. It's cheaper in the long run.

CONFIDENTIAL TO CY: You're lucky it was only a fur coat. Next time it may be your hide. It takes a lesson to learn.

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of The Pontiac Press. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Stop Expecting Too Much of Grown Child

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

One night soon now your telephone will ring.

It will be your son calling long-distance. He'll ask how you and his father are. You'll tell him.

Then he'll clear his throat and say, "Ella and I can't make it for Christmas, Mother. This year her folks want us to spend it with them. After all, I'm a married man . . ."

After a moment, you'll say, "But you'll be able to make it for New Year's, won't you, Bob?"

"Oh, we'll certainly try," he'll tell you heartily. "But you know how things can turn up . . ."

Then you'll both agree that it's too expensive to talk any more—and you will hang up.

LIKE A COLD FOG

Depression will settle over you like cold fog. You'll think, "What was the use? What was the use of the work and the worry and the sacrifices? This holiday season Dad and I will be right back where we started—alone."

The depth of your disappointment in your child will exactly measure the height of your expectations of him.

So your depression indicates that your expectations of him are too lofty. And the question to ask yourself is, "Is this misery I feel caused by Bob—or by my rage at his refusal to let me control him?"

But those of us who know how tenacious is our expectation of controlling children will have a fine time.

AN OLD STORY

It's an old story to us. So when Bob's news starts us planning Christmas bleakness for ourselves, we find it easy to think, "What's my frustrated will-to-power up to now? Why aren't Dad and I reserving a table at the town's best restaurant for Christmas dinner? Why don't we invite some friends?

"Could it be that I'm sitting here planning misery for myself to punish Bob and Ella for not giving me what I want—and make their Christmas as guilty and conscience-stricken as possible? Is this depression of mine just vengefulness?"

We have a fine time for ourselves because we know ourselves.

She Exerts Extra Effort to Be Gracious, Charming

This Rare Woman Devotes Herself to Making Others Feel Happy

By RUTH MILLETT

She always produces that little extra effort that makes for graciousness and charm.

If she hears that an acquaintance is ill or in the hospital she doesn't just say, "I'm sorry to hear that." She writes a note to the person immediately.

If a friend has a house-guest, she finds time to call and plan some kind of entertainment for the guest.

When she meets a newcomer she makes him feel comfortable and welcome by steering the conversation toward matters he can take part in.

When she reads or hears about an achievement of someone she knows, she makes a point of letting the person know she heard the good news, and she also makes a point of telling others about it.

When she offers to do a favor for someone, she has the knack of making it seem like no trouble at all. And she never afterward mentions the favor she has done, because she doesn't want to make anyone feel indebted to her.

She can be counted on to put in a good word or soften an indictment, whenever an absent person comes in for criticism. But she does it without making those who are less charitable feel she is trying to put them in their places.

She builds her friends up to each other, so that to have her for a friend is to have a personal press agent.

She is never in too big a hurry or too preoccupied to listen attentively to anyone who wants to talk to her.

She is that rare woman, the one who always makes the little extra effort it takes to make others happy, pleased with themselves and comfortable in her company.

Common Courtesy

If you telephone a man whose wife you know and she answers the telephone, tell her who you are. It is only a common courtesy to treat her like something more than an answering service.

Like Your Husband as He Is!

Don't Take Marital Clashes Too Seriously

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

The most fundamental and the most natural and the greatest interest of woman is man. Women should be most interested in their husbands, and usually are. Therefore, since I am bringing you some old thoughts for the new year, it seems to me that you may be interested in some of the things which have been written about husbands.

For instance, "All husbands are alike, but they have different faces so you can tell them apart."—Anonymous.

Since men are individuals, and husbands are men, they therefore have varying personalities and characters but there IS a discernible pattern. It may be comforting to remember that some of the arguments and disagreements you and your husband may have are due to the fact that he is a man and you are a woman.

A recognition of this fact would oil the wheels of many a marriage. For years I thought that the fact that I liked to "talk out intelligently and frankly" any differences we had, while my husband wanted to forget the whole thing, was because we are so different in temperament.

It took me a long time to realize that it was just an intensified male and female situation. If you will think of it in this way, you will discover the same sort of humor in many of your domestic problems.

I solved the "talking it out" irritant in this way: The day after our difference I would write a letter to my husband and I would have his promise to answer it. It's amazing how few letters I have written because I had to wait until the following day to do so!

Folks are so apt to believe that their problems are unique. Most problems you have are universal. This is probably truer in marriage than in any other human relationship.

So, do not take your clashes or yourself too seriously, and if you really wish to enjoy marriage, do not expect to change your husband. Like him as he is!

At this season I always bring you a few old thoughts for the new year. Beauty always has been a theme of the philosophers as well as the poets. Man always has been drawn by it and women always have longed for it.

However, it seems to me that in this day of emphasis on physical loveliness, we may have lost sight of the charm and power of real beauty. Listen to what these two quotations have to say:

"All kinds of beauty do not inspire love: There is a kind which only pleases the sight, but does not captivate the affections," Cervantes—Don Quixote.

Another:

"She is not fair to outward view
As many maidens be;
Until she smiled on me:
Oh! then I saw her eye was bright,
A well of love, a spring of light."
—Hartley Coleridge.

True beauty consists of warmth and vitality, of enthusiasm, tenderness, gaiety and understanding. These light the face and reflect the heart, and make both captivating. The plainest face can be transformed by love.

Women should be most interested in their husbands, and usually are.

BUT, in case you think that I believe in shunning the paint pot and the modern artifices, let me quote again:

"Where none admire, 'tis useless to excel;
Where none are beaux, 'tis vain to be a belle."
—Lord Lyttleton.

Admiration and love are the greatest of all activators of self-improvement. Many women find themselves in a vicious circle. They neglect their appearance because they do not have love and admiration, and they do not have these partly because they have neglected themselves.

Everyone is so busy, and we often meet so briefly those we would like to know better, that a little window dressing is much to be desired. It provides the pause which allows our inner light to shine through.

How foolish we are to allow imperfection of feature to sabotage us and how short-sighted we are if we do not become as attractive looking as possible! Attractiveness and magnetism are within the reach of every woman if she will strive for her highest potential in both categories.

Criticized for Leaving Trio Alone

Son, Girl Friends Watch TV After Mom Retires

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My son, who is in his late 20s, invited two of the young women in his office home to dinner. Both are working away from their homes. After dinner we watched television and about 10:30 I excused myself and went upstairs to bed. They all wanted to watch the next program.

"My husband came in about 12. The next morning he took me to task for leaving them alone. This has been preying on my mind ever since and I would like to have your opinion of this situation."

Answer: I can find nothing wrong in leaving the three of them alone. One girl and no television would have been another situation entirely.

"Dear Mrs. Post: We have some friends whose house cat can do no wrong, in their opinion, that is. They take for granted she is welcome wherever they go. Accordingly, twice now they have come for a weekend, complete with cat.

"She is perfectly housebroken and no trouble except she watched her chances to sharpen her claws on some of our chairs and rugs. We discovered the snags after the visit. Is there any possible way to let them know the cat is not welcome?"

Answer: From their point of view, there is probably no way you can refuse to have their pet. Even the serious allergies and phobias of others are not always understood by such people.

However, it is certainly your prerogative—if you are willing to risk the possible results — to explain that you are not able to invite "Sneakers" this time unless she has her claws clipped.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When teenagers are introduced to the parents of their friends, do they proffer their hands, or must they wait for the older person to proffer his (or her) hand first?"

Answer: Academically, it is better manners for young ones to wait. However, I doubt that any older person would consider the other way around bad manners.

Teamsters Get Wage Increase

Tentative Agreement Reached; Hold Details Until Final Votes

CHICAGO (AP)—Teamster Union leaders and negotiators for trucking operators in 12 Central States disclosed yesterday they had reached a tentative agreement on new wage increases and other benefits.

The agreement must be approved by union members and employers. Details were not announced.

James Hoffa, Teamster president-elect and head of the union's Central State's council, said the union got substantially what it asked for—a package increase of 42 cents an hour.

However, an employer negotiator, Barney Cushman of Chicago, said increases "won't reach that proportion."

Results of the negotiations will affect some 96,000 cartage and intercity drivers in the Central States. They also are expected to set the pattern for about 500,000 other members of the giant union.

Hoffa said representatives of about 100 locals will meet Jan. 9 in Chicago to hear the proposed agreement.

Current base pay for drivers involved is $2.27 an hour.

The weekend negotiations were opened under a provision of a contract signed in 1955 providing for new talks on wage and benefits during the life of the agreement. The contract runs through Jan. 31, 1961.

Negotiations covered teamsters in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas and the City of Louisville, Ky. Teamster members from Southern states also attended.

Ike Leads List of Best Dressed Men in America

NEW YORK (INS)—President Eisenhower leads the list of the Fashion Foundation of America's 10 best dressed men of 1957.

In naming the 10 best dressed, the foundation predicted that men will be wearing tighter, "dressier" clothes in 1958.

"Jackets and trousers will be shorter and trimmer," the foundation said. "The trouser cuffs will be at least three inches from the floor. They will be similar to what grandfather used to wear—straight hanging, pleatless with top pockets, tight at the waist, a 21-inch knee and no more than a 17-inch bottom."

Everything adding bulk, such as pocket flaps and ornamentation, will be de-emphasized, the foundation predicted. The trend is toward light weight fabrics and bold stripes.

The list of the 10 best dressed follows: Statesman — President Eisenhower; society — Henry Ford; press—Roy Howard, publisher; screen — Cary Grant; business — Jerome K. Ohrbach, department store owner; stage—Robert Preston; producer—Bob Finkel, television producer; host—Wilbur Clark, owner of Las Vegas nightclub; Music — Sammy Kaye, and radio-TV—Jack Benny.

Training School Hit by $100,000 Blaze

COLDWATER (AP)—A three-story building at the Coldwater State Home and Training School suffered damage estimated at $100,000 yesterday from a fire believed caused by defective wiring.

Fireman Richard Reppert, 25, of Coldwater, suffered minor cuts and bruises when a wall collapsed and fell on a fire truck.

State Trooper Injured

Youths Caught in Chase

Two youths are being held in the Oakland County jail for investigation of felonious driving following a 100-mile-an-hour chase Saturday night which resulted in serious injuries to a state trooper.

State Trooper Lloyd Sterns of the Brighton Post is reported in serious condition at the Vann Hospital, Brighton, with a fractured skull. He was injured when his scout car left Milford road near Rose Center and crashed into a log pile while chasing four beer-drinking youths.

Held are John Minch, 20, of 31625 Bella Vista, Farmington, and John F. Mager, 19, of 59 Oxbow Lake Rd., Milford.

Sterns and Trooper David Needham spotted the two youths and two 17-year-old girls at 10:45 p.m. Saturday drinking in a car parked in a field off Harvey Lake road, about four miles north of Milford. The youths sped away when police approached, State Police said.

The troopers said they noted the license number of the fleeing car, driven by Minch. The youths were arrested Sunday morning. The girls, one from Commerce and the other from Milford, were not held.

Minch and Mager also face charges of possession of alcohol, State Police said.

Nervous Driver Hits Scout Car of Waterford Police

It started out when a Waterford township police car pulled over a Flint driver, Ossie Riley, 30, of 17 E. Laredo St., for running a red light on Dixie highway early Sunday.

Riley halted his auto in front of the police car at the top of the Frembes street hill and the two officers, Patrolmen Jack Hart and Merrle Finkle, walked over to quiz the driver.

As they were talking, Riley's car began rolling down the hill. Nervously, Riley put his car in reverse and stepped on the gas—too hard.

The officers said Riley and his four passengers all had been drinking. Riley had no operator's license on his person, they said, and was wanted in three Michigan cities, including Flint, for failure to appear in court on traffic violations.

Riley was lodged in Oakland County Jail pending arraignment today on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor. The township planned to bill him for about $300 damage to its patrol car.

Dulles Will Attend Baghdad Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles will attend a meeting of Baghdad Pact nations in Turkey next month. It will be the first time he has done so in the pact's three-year history.

The United States does not belong to the pact, whose members include Iraq, Turkey, Pakistan, Britain and Iran. But this country supports the organization and has sent observers to each of its meetings since it was formed in February 1955.

The State Department announced yesterday that Dulles will head the U. S. observer delegation to a meeting of pact foreign ministers in Ankara Jan. 27-30.

Pentagon to Decide on A-Plane Plans

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today that the Defense Department expects to decide within a few days "the type of atomic-powered airplane it wants and the flight date to shoot for."

The story, by Richard Witkin, said numerous alternatives—on type of plane and time schedule—have been worked out in cooperation with the Atomic Energy Commission and a choice is expected to be made and forwarded to the White House for approval within a few days.

The newspaper quotes informants as saying that if the administration "is concerned with trying to score a propaganda beat, it can fly a nuclear plane in three years by installing a nuclear engine in an exisiting aircraft.

Constable Gets $1,000 Excess; Didn't Know It

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — Township Constable Henry Maxey, 40, of 21431 Cadwell Ct., Friday had a thousand dollar bill he didn't know about.

Maxey was sent Friday to the City Bank of Detroit Branch on Stephenson highway, Hazel Park, to cash a $3,300 check for the Credit Union of the Ferndale Co-op. He put the currency in his pocket and returned it to the Credit Union without counting it.

A few hours later he received a telephone call at his home from the Credit Union telling him he had delivered $1,000 too much. It was returned to the bank.

The next day, Maxey, said, he got another call — this one from the clerk asking him if he had another $500. She was still short, but Maxey couldn't help her this time. He didn't have any more.

Clawson Motorist Killed in Accident

CLAWSON—Kester W. Firman, 32, of 505 S. Marias St., was fatally injured about 5:30 yesterday afternoon when his car hit a tree at North Main St. and Girard Ave., in Royal Oak.

Accident in Kentucky Kills Ferndale Woman

She was dead on arrival at a hospital.

News Events of '57 Recorded by Press Cameras

By the Associated Press

WHEN THE WATER RECEDED — A boat left high and dry on highway next to shattered homes is mute evidence of the fury with which Audrey, first hurricane of 1957, struck the small Louisiana coastal town of Cameron in June. Storm's death toll was over 500.

UNREGAL MOMENT — Queen Elizabeth II, attending dinner that climaxed her New York visit in October, shows that she too experiences trouble with her gown's shoulder straps.

DISORDER OUTSIDE SCHOOL — Alex Wilson, reporter for a Negro weekly, is kicked by white man in crowd outside Little Rock's Central High School. Wilson was escorting Negro students to the integrated Arkansas school when racial violence erupted in September.

MISSILE FAILURE — The Vanguard rocket, its nose cone toppling, bursts into flame during attempted takeoff at Cape Canaveral, Fla., in December as the U. S. rushed to get a satellite into outer space after successful Soviet launchings.

CRUSADER — Billy Graham, using all the gestures and oratory of an old-fashioned evangelist, stirred New Yorkers in May during a crusade against sin. Giant rallies were held in Times Square and Madison Square Garden.

ADDED PARADE STARTER — Nearly all eyes are on a stray dog passing the reviewing stand in front of the White House during the January inaugural parade. Vice President Nixon couldn't refrain from smiling as he stands with the President and Mrs. Eisenhower.

STORM VICTIM — Dick Shaw carries body of five-year-old Jeanette Munson, one of five children in one family killed by the tornado that hit Fargo, N. D., in June. Storm was among the many that plagued middle part of country this year.

MAKING HIS MARK — Nikita Khrushchev, making July tour of earthly satellites, dispenses autographs for workers in Pilsen, Czechoslovakia. During 1957 he tightened his grip on power in the Soviet Union by removal of key Red figures.

CANINE OF THE YEAR — This dog and cabin, about to see the world according to Pravda, were sent aloft in November by Russia in the satellite Sputnik II. Dog, called Laika, became first animal to be orbited around earth. Laika reportedly died in its flying chamber.

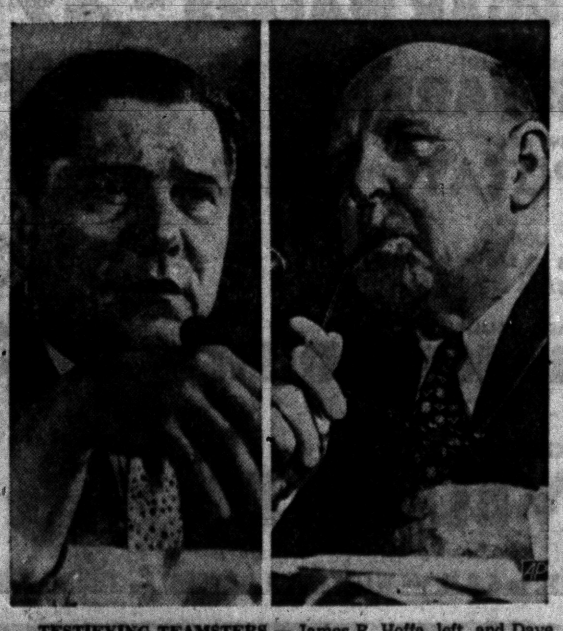

CONVICTED — Army Specialist William S. Girard of Ottawa, Ill., was found guilty by a Japanese court of the fatal shooting of a Japanese woman scrap collector on a firing range. He was given a three-year suspended sentence.

'BOMBER' BARRED — George Metesky, 54-year-old bachelor, smiles after January arrest in Waterbury, Conn. He admitted he was the "Mad Bomber," who planted bombs for 16 years in New York, and was committed to a mental institution.

DEFEAT FOR DEATH — Young Benny Hooper, with life-giving oxygen mask upon his face, lies in ambulance minutes after his release in May from 24-hour entrapment in well dug by his father near their Long Island home. Mrs. Hooper stays close to her son — waiting.

TESTIFYING TEAMSTERS — James R. Hoffa, left, apd Dave Beck, Teamster union chiefs, came under the fire of the special Senate Rackets Committee in Washington as they were questioned about their activities as union officials.

ORDER BY BAYONET—Troopers of the 101st Airborne Division, with fixed bayonets, bring smiles from coeds and order to Little Rock's Central High School in September racial violence. Federal troops were used to enforce integration of Negro students in school.

Security for You

Benefit for Child Stops at Her Marriage

By RAY HENRY

From P. H. of Oakland, Calif.: "I'm a widow and have been receiving Social Security payments as a survivor and because I've been supporting a child. I know the payments to my daughter and to me stop when my daughter reaches 18. But, suppose she marries before she's 18. When will my payments stop?"

The payments to both of you stop when your daughter reaches 18 or marries, whichever comes first.

From G. V. of Albany, N. Y.: "According to the local Social Security office, I'll receive $96 a month in payments when I quit work in February. If I continue to work beyond 65, will the size of my payments be affected?"

They could go higher, but they'll never be lower than $96 a month. They could go up if, as a result of your work, your average monthly earnings go up. It's this earnings figure which determines the size of your payments. However, if your average monthly earnings stay the same or go down, your payments will still be $96.

From Mrs. H. G. J. of Washington, D. C.: "Before I was married, I worked from 1941 to 1952 for a law firm as a secretary. I'm now 38 and I probably will never go back to work. Will I ever be entitled to Social Security for all my work?"

Having worked under Social Security for 10 years, you are what is called "fully insured." This means that when you reach 62 you'll be entitled to Social Security payments because of your work and that there'll be a lump sum paid at your death.

From Mrs. E. M. of Ventura, Calif.: "My husband is 68 and plans to continue to work until he's 70. I'm 63 and have always been a housewife. Can I draw Social Security now or must I wait until my husband retires?"

You'll not draw payments until your husband becomes eligible to them.

From W. R. of Cape Girardeau, Mo.: "My father died last July and my mother will be able to collect Social Security payments next year at 62. She has lost her birth certificate and it can't be replaced because all the records in her home town were burned in a fire some years ago. She does have an insurance policy and a marriage license which show her age. Will these be enough?"

Yes.

From A. F. H. of Fall River, Mass.: "I work as a federal Civil Service employe and pay into the retirement fund. I paid into Social Security for every year since it started until just recently. When I reach 65, can I draw Social Security and Civil Service retirement too?"

Since you've worked under Social Security for 10 years, you'll be entitled to payments at 65. Your Civil Service retirement would not affect these payments.

(Questions on Social Security problems may be addressed to "Social Security," in care of The Pontiac Press. Questions will be answered by mail from the Pontiac office of the Social Security Administration. There is no charge for this service.)

A NEW EXCITING MYSTERY NOVEL

"EYEWITNESS TO DEATH"

by

AGATHA CHRISTIE

"Somebody," said Miss Marple, "has committed a very successful crime. There has been no hue and cry, no real suspicion. Two elderly ladies have told a rather improbable story, the police have investigated it and found nothing in it. So everybody is nice and quiet." But for Miss Marple, fluffy and dithery in appearance but inwardly as sharp and as shrewd as they make them, murder by strangulation was neither nice nor quiet. From the moment that redoubtable amateur sleuth enters the story it is in full stride. With her usual technical brilliance, Miss Christie leads her and Inspector Craddock through a series of baffling red-herring by-passes while the suspense rises to the breaking point. The solution, as usual a complete surprise to the reader, is acceptable and satisfying. "Superb entertainment" is once again the acclaim for Agatha Christie's latest!

Wilson Happy, Brown Glum
Dressing Room Quotes

Happy George Wilson, who in his first year as head coach of the Lions, guided Detroit to the National Football League championship, paid tribute to the team and to his rivals after yesterday's resounding 59-14 romp over Cleveland.

WILSON SAID: "Paul Brown is the best coach in the National Football League, we got every break and we played one of our best games." "We used everything we had in the books, we had no reason to hold back." "This was team victory from the coaches to the players to the trainers."

PAUL BROWN SAID: "The Lions had a tremendous burning desire to win. Rote was magnificent, his choice of various pass patterns kept our defenses guessing."

TOBIN ROTE SAID: "These guys in front of me on that line were just great, and some of those catches by Doran, Middleton, Junker and Hoppy were sure great. Last week I was tossing up my coffee, but I felt real good for this game."

JOE SCHMIDT SAID: "We were determined to play ball right from the start. It took us a half to overcome the tension in Frisco, we were more relaxed and fired up for this game."

CHET HANULAK (Brown halfback): "Now I know how it feels to be run down by a squad of tanks."

LOU CREEKMUR: "Great, huh? Now they know how we felt in 1954."

Lions Remember '54 Humiliation for NFL Crown

Rote Passes for Four Touchdowns to Start Rout Early

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

DETROIT — Vengeance was sweet and easy for the Detroit Lions. On the chalk board of the Lions' locker room for the past week was the line, "Remember 1954 — Cleveland 56, Detroit 10."

After yesterday's game the old line was scratched and the new line read, "We did remember— Detroit 59, Cleveland 14."

It was one of the worst beatings ever given to Paul Brown and Browns who yesterday made their 7th appearance in eight title games.

A crowd of 55,263 roared approval as the Lions scored the first three times they had their hands on the ball. Four touchdowns came on Tobin Rote's passing.

Jim Martin, who tied the record in a title game with eight points after touchdowns, climaxed a drive from the 11-yard line with a 31-yard field goal.

A moment later, Bob Long intercepted one of Tommy O'Connell's passes and after a 17 yard return, the Lions took over on the Brown 19. In three plays highlighted by Rote's 17 yard sprint, the big Detroit quarterback went over and Martin's point made it 10-0.

On the kickoff, U.S. decathlon champion Milt Campbell fumbled and Terry Barr recovered on the Brown 15. On the third play after a 13-yard pass to the one to Steve Junker, the Lions made it 17-0 with Gene Gedman hitting paydirt.

To start the second quarter the Browns made it 17-7 with rookie Jim Brown shaking off two secondary tackles and going 27 yards, with only 10 second gone in the period.

The drive went 78 yards in only four plays plus a five yard penalty against Detroit. Lou Groza converted his 23rd point of the season without a miss.

Detroit started its next march on the 13 and in 11 plays for 87 yards, Junker grabbed a pass on the five and bulled his way for the touchdown. The scoring play called by Rote was a bit of razzle-dazzle.

Martin lined up for the field goal with Rote holding on the 33. On the snap from center, Rote took the ball and started racing toward his right end. As the secondary defenses were pulled in, Rote stopped dead at the line of scrimmage and hit Junker on the five.

From his own six yard line, O'Connell tried to hit Darrel Brewster on the 19 but Barr intercepted and went all the way unmolested into the end zone to make it 31-7 with Martin's point.

With the Carpenter brothers, Lew and Preston, doing most of the running, Cleveland struck early in the second half by going 80 yards in 10 plays. Lew went the last five yards and Groza's point ended the Browns' scoring.

After the kickoff, the Lions struck fast with Rote hitting Jim Doran on the 42 yard line and Doran going all the way for a 78 yard play to make it 38-14. This was Detroit's longest scoring pass play of the season.

It was big Steve Junker's turn on the next Detroit touchdown. Rote found the red-headed rookie on the 10 yard line with his pass and Junker took two men with him into the end zone completing a 23 yard touchdown. This made it 45-14.

Another interception, this time by Jerry Perry, started the Lions to a 30 yard march. On the second play, Dave Middleton made a spectacular catch of Rote's pass and it was 52-14 after only seven seconds of the fourth quarter.

Jerry Reichow made his first appearance at quarterback this year with seven minutes to play and the ex-Iowa ace passed to Hopalong Cassady for a 16-yard touchdown.

It was Detroit's third world championship in six years and all three were against the Cleveland Browns, the others coming in 1952 and 1953.

BROWN STOPPED — Cleveland's outstanding rookie Jim Brown (32) goes nowhere on this run as captain Joe Schmidt of the Lions hits him low. Jack Christiansen (24) is being moved out of the play by a Brown blocker. The Lions humiliated the Clevelanders, 59-14, at Briggs Stadium.

Team Was Called 'Worst' by Ex-Coach

'57 Bumpy Road for Wilson

By BRUNO L. KEARNS

DETROIT — The year 1957 is only two days away from taking its place with the past, but for 43-year-old George Wilson the year will probably go out as the most memorable in his life.

It was a long hectic struggle for Wilson, the rookie coach of the Detroit Lions, but the climax came yesterday at Briggs Stadium to the tune of 59-14 over the humiliated Cleveland Browns.

Wilson inherited a team after seven years under head coach Buddy Parker. When Parker made his bombshell speech at the banquet four months ago, he called the Lions "the worst team ever seen in training camp."

Wilson was appointed to succeed Parker and immediately he renounced Parker's statement.

The road the Lions and Wilson took was a bumpy one. It started with a 43-14 spanking at the hands of Baltimore. After nine games with a 5-4 record, things looked dismal for the Lions.

Besides the problems on the gridiron, other woes were added to Wilson's shoulders.

His star quarterback Bobby Layne was arrested on a drunk driving charge, his former boss, Parker blasted him verbally and then Layne was put out of action with a broken ankle.

Parker and Wilson crossed words twice, and the second time the Steeler coach told Wilson, "You're no coach, I helped the Colts and the Bears beat the Lions."

Wilson was praised by newsmen for keeping his composure during the public outburst by Parker. Then came the surge.

Thanks to three second-half comebacks, the Lions went on a four-game winning streak including the playoff for the Western Division title against San Francisco.

Then came December 29th, the last Sunday of 1957. The experts said Cleveland was three points better than Detroit, and one wire service had already picked Paul Brown as the "Coach of the Year."

It was a day of decision for Wilson, and at 5:00 p.m. it was all over. Wilson himself could not believe what happened in Briggs Stadium would have been so decisive.

Now the Lions can look ahead to 1958. They will represent the NFL against the College All-Stars next August.

One thing Wilson has to fear is the jinx which has befallen championship teams of the past few years.

When the Lions won the Western Division title in 1954, they finished in the cellar in 1955. When the Browns won the Eastern Division title in 1955, they finished last in 1956, and after the Bears won the Western Division title in 1956, they finished last this year.

Detroit is the NFL king. Long live the king!

Each Lion will take home $4,295 while each Brown will receive $2,750.

This was the highest individual share in history of the championship game.

Previous high shares were in 1952 when each Lion got $2,274 and each Brown got $1,712; in 1953 each Lion got $2,424 and each Brown $1,654; in 1954 each Brown $2,478 and each Lion $1,585; in 1955 each Brown $3,508 and each LA Ram $2,316; and in 1956 each Giant $3,779 and each Bear $2,485.

Tracy Suffers Ankle Sprain

Fullback Tom Tracy, who scored two touchdowns in the Lions' 31-27 comeback victory against San Francisco for the Western Division crown last week, suffered a sprained ankle against Cleveland yesterday.

In the Lions' drive for their third touchdown in the second quarter, he took a 16-yard pass over the middle from Tobin Rote and got a first down on the Cleveland 25. He was hurt on the tackle.

He had to be helped from the field and did not get back into the game.

Businessmen Move to Keep Reds in Cincy

CINCINNATI (AP)—The enhanced possibility that Cincinnati's Redlegs may shift to another city has prompted a group of businessmen here to propose building a complete new stadium.

Atty. J. A. Lloyd Jr., spokesman for the privately-organized group, said yesterday the proposal calls for a stadium with parking space for 8,000 cars built at Lunken Airport on the eastern edge of the city. He estimated the cost at six million dollars.

Lloyd's group was also spurred yesterday by a report that a major league baseball committee in Minneapolis has invited the Reds to move to the Minnesota city.

JUNKER SCORES — End Steve Junker of the Detroit Lions dives into the end zone for a touchdown in the 3rd quarter as Lowe Wren (42), Cleveland Browns' halfback, attempts to stop him. Junker tallied on a 23-yard pass play from quarterback Tobin Rote. Detroit won the NFL title with a 59-14 victory.

Bell Can't Stop Lions' Rooters

Taverns Have Busy Day as Fans Lick Blackout

DETROIT (AP)—Many taverns and at least one service station did a brisk business yesterday as Detroit Lions fans found ways to circumvent a Detroit-area television blackout of the National Football League championship game with the Cleveland Browns.

Public places with antennas lofty enough to pick up stations outside the 75-mile radius defined by NFL Commissioner Bert Bell were crowded with customers eager to see the Lions' most important game of 1957.

The blackout was imposed and rigidly adhered to by Bell, despite an avalanche of entreaties, including several from Gov. Williams. Bell said allowing the game to be televised in the Detroit area would not be fair to fans who purchased tickets.

More than 200 viewers perched on chairs borrowed from a funeral parlor at a service station in suburban Wyandotte. John Groat, 36, one of the owners, said he put up a 55-foot antenna.

"It cost $200 to set this up," Groat said. "But it was worth it to show this Belly guy we can see the game if we want to."

Robert E. Lee, 28, of Southfield Township, watched the game in his living room with friends. He brought in an outside station by erecting a 30-foot antenna consisting of a wire and some clothesline.

"Bell should live so long," said Lee. "I just decided to beat him at his own game."

About 300 fans lined up at the Pioneer Inn in Lincoln Park before it opened at noon, some with portable radios so as not to miss anything, and others with field glasses in case their seats were too far from the set.

Victor Binokurow, 35, owner of the Oak Gardens bar in Hazel Park, looked at a "full house" and said:

"In a way, it's too bad people have to go to bars to see the championship." But he added, "Of course, I'll have to admit it's awfully good for business."

Wings Deadlock Bruins, 2-2

Detroit Trainer Stars as Goalie for Visitors

Wilson Stops 23 of 24 Shots as Replacement for Injured Simmons

DETROIT (AP) — Ross (Lefty) Wilson, genial assistant Detroit Red Wings trainer, never skates into public view unless there's an emergency.

Such a crisis confronted the Boston Bruins last night when early in the first period of their 2-2 tie game with the Wings goalie Don Simmons suffered a dislocated shoulder.

Simmons will be sidelined from three to six weeks.

The 38-year-old Wilson, who twice before has been an emergency net keeper in games at Olympia Stadium, made 23 saves while fans encouraged him good-naturedly. Despite an inclination to overweight, he gave up only one goal.

Wilson, who played five seasons of minor league hockey with St. Paul and Indianapolis, was up to the occasion: he egged the Bruins on in a high pitched voice with such comments as "hold him tight" and "pin him in."

The substitute goalie's entrance into the game was among the highlights of an action-packed but poorly played evening.

Despite the final score, the Bruins were by far the most spirited players on the ice with the Red Wings turning in one of their worst performances of the current National Hockey League campaign.

Boston opened the scoring early in the first period when Vic Stasiuk went in close to the Red Wing net and rifled the puck past goalie Terry Sawchuck. Detroit came back five minutes later and tied the score when Don Poile feinted Simmons out of position.

The Wings moved ahead late in the first period on a 10-footer by Jack McIntyre. Boston came back in the second stanza to tie it up for keeps on Bronco Horvath's goal, his 8th of the season against the Red Wings.

The game was one of the longest of the season because of frequent delays.

In Chicago, Ron Murphy scored a goal in the final period to give the Black Hawks a 2-1 triumph over Toronto. It was the first home victory in 10 games for the Hawks, who had two ties and seven losses in nine previous Stadium showings.

Buckeyes Wary After West, Vols Win

Upsets Worry Hayes

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Weekend gridiron developments, in which apparent setups turned in upsets, had their effect today on the Rose Bowl picture.

Ohio State's Big Ten champions, 21-point favorites to defeat Oregon in the "daddy of the bowl games" New Year's Day, were wondering whether the lightning could hit them, too.

The wave of upsets which made the highly-favored Bucks a bit wary were Saturday's 3-0 Tennessee victory over Texas A&M, and the West's 27-13 conquest of the East in the Shrine game.

Coach Woody Hayes of the Bucks said:

"The possibility of an upset has been mentioned to our boys. It will be reiterated now."

Len Casanova of Oregon's Webfoots, figured as doormats in the pre-game figuring, observed:

"I hope the boys are setting an upset trend and that it carries right on into 1958. Nothing would suit me and my boys better — but every game is played on its own merits so I figure we are just where we were."

The teams with the big names took it on the chin in the East-West Shrine game and the Gator Bowl last weekend.

The East and its four All Americas were dropped, 27-13. Gerald Nesbitt, an unheralded fullback from Arkansas, scored three touchdowns for the underdog West at San Francisco.

Tennessee, a six-point underdog, overcame Texas A&M, 3-0 in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla. The Vols boxed in halfback John Crow, the Aggies' All America and Heisman Trophy winner. Crow gained 46 yards in 14 carries.

The Blue-Gray game at Montgomery, Ala., was neatly on form. Ken Ford of Hardin Simmons threw 12 completions in 23 tries for a touchdown and 185 yards as the Gray bested the Blue, 21-20. The South was favored by a point to win their 13th in a 19-game series.

Nesbitt picked up 91 yards rushing, nearly double the total of Michigan's All America Jim Pace (21 in 14 carries) and Michigan State's Walt Kowalczyk (33 for 14) for the East. Other East All Americas were tackles Alex Karras of Iowa and Lou Michaels of Kentucky and end Jim Phillips of Auburn.

The Vols Sammy Burklow kicked Tennessee's first 1957 field goal, a seven-yarder, with five and a half minutes remaining for the Gator Bowl margin. The Tennessee scoring drive started on the 50.

Ford had the edge in the passing battle with the Blue's Bobby Cox of Minnesota. Cox completed eight of 14 passes for 143 yards.

Spartans, 'M' Prosper Away

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Michigan and Michigan State basketball teams enjoy a 3-1 edge on their opposition from weekend competition far afield.

Michigan State won both its games on the west coast while the University of Michigan split two games in the southwest at Albuquerque, N.M.

The Spartans, protecting their undefeated record, dazzled a Los Angeles crowd with a 77-61 victory over Southern California Saturday night.

That made a clean sweep for State. The night before the Spartans won from UCLA 63 to 61.

Michigan defeated New Mexico University Saturday night 78-66 to avenge the loss of the night before to Wyoming 88-76.

Both Michigan State and Michigan were guests in holiday doubleheaders over the space of two nights.

Georgia Tech Wins Tourney

DETROIT (AP) — Georgia Tech won the Motor City basketball tournament with a 70-66 victory over the Detroit Titans in a game that hinged on the work of the guards.

That's the way Bob Calihan, coach of the losing Detroit Titans, looked at today.

"In a game that close," he said, "I knew that whichever team had the upper hand going into the final minutes probably would be the winner. The reason is that both teams had good guards able to control the ball."

And that's just what happened. When Georgia Tech surged into a seven-point lead, 60-53, with eight minutes remaining in the championship game Saturday night, the Yellowjackets had the guards they needed to keep control.

Marquette smothered Columbia 82-51 in a consolation game for third place.

Chiefs Aim for 3rd Win; Maples Shooting for 8th

While there are no swimming meets scheduled for the Pontiac area during this New Year's week, Pontiac Central and Birmingham prep natators have not let up their drilling for opening tests of 1957.

Coach Bob (Des) Boyce has kept his Chiefs busy, pointing for a visit to Bay City Central, Jan. 10, where his crew will seek its 2nd SVC win and 3rd victory in four starts. Pontiac has won from Ypsi Central (52-40) and Flint Central (55-41), lost to Arthur Hill (78-18).

Last Friday the Chiefs held an interesting, fun-filled workout with Jay Myers' unbeaten Birmingham squad. He started today in earnest for the test against the Wolves.

Maples go after their 8th straight dual win of the season, on Jan. 7, entertaining Royal Oak Kimball in a night meet. Birmingham meets Mt. Clemens in a EML test Jan. 1 and on the 14th goes against another league foe at Ferndale.

Schedule for the next two weeks in the area:

Jan. 7 — Kimball at Birmingham (night); Ferndale at Southfield (afternoon).
Jan. 9 — (EML) Ferndale at Hasel Park.

2 Russian Economists Miss Speech Date

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two Russian economists failed to attend an American convention where they were scheduled to make speeches—but they blamed the weather.

The two Russians, T. S. Khachaturov of the Academy of Sciences of the USSR, and Prof. V. J. Aboltin of Moscow, cabled Morris Copeland, president of the American Economic Assn. yesterday their arrival in the United States was canceled by "bad weather."

Previous Grain Selloff Extends

CHICAGO (AP) — Liquidation continued in the grain markets today, extending a selloff that started late last week.

Nearby wheat futures dipped as much as 1½ cents a bushel in early Board of Trade dealings. Brokers representing a St. Louis advisory service reportedly sold heavy quantities of wheat at the outset of trading.

Corn futures declined nearly a cent a bushel at the outset, led by the nearby March delivery. Dealings were light and mixed. Northwest interests were reported buying March corn and selling the more distant September. Corn receipts at Chicago today were 255 cars compared with 469 a week ago.

Soybeans held about steady with prices unchanged to off slightly around the opening. An export house bought a fair amount of March beans and locals were the best sellers.

Rye declined, influenced by action in wheat.

Near the end of the first hour, wheat was ⅝ to 1½ lower, March $2.17⅝; corn ½ to ⅞ lower, March $1.13¾; oats ¼ to ⅜ lower, March 62⅜; rye ¾ to 1¼ lower, March $1.27; soybeans to ¾ lower, January $2.20; and lard was unchanged to 15 cents a hundred lbs. lower; January $11.65.

Aircrafts Rise, Trade Active

NEW YORK (AP)—Aircrafts rose in a mixed and active stock market early today.

Gains and losses of fractions to around a point spotted the list.

The aircrafts rose as reports from Washington forecast more military spending in 1958. Utilities also were generally higher. Rails were mixed.

While Republic Steel was up around a point following reports it will resume steelmaking in the Youngstown, Ohio, area sooner than expected, other major steels were generally lower.

Activity in motor shares was heavy with the tendency in this group slightly lower.

The ticker tape was late for five minutes in the opening rush. A generally lower price drift in initial dealings was corrected as more plus signs were posted in brisk turnover.

Boeing, Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft and General Dyamics were all fractionally higher.

Westinghouse Electric was ahead around a point. Other gains were posted by International Telephone, American Cyanamid, Baltimore & Ohio and Sinclair.

Volkswagen Makes Its 2,000,000th Car

WOLFSBURG, Germany (INS)—The 2,000,000th Volkswagon rolled off the assembly line at the Wolfsburg central plant today, looking virtually the same as the first one which started that automobile's post-war boom 10 years ago.

Police Fish Man From Icy Clinton After Robbery

An ex-convict who braved the icy waters of the Clinton River in an attempt to escape arrest has been charged with unarmed robbery by Pontiac police.

Theodore Gholson, 25, of 607 Nebraska, on parole from Jackson Prison, was chased by three officers shortly after he allegedly strongarmed a motorist early Saturday morning and took his wallet containing $15

Gholson jumped into the Clinton and ducked under the Wessen street bridge. He stood in the icy stream up to his chin until the officers fished him out.

He told them he had thrown the wallet into a mail box at Bagley and Wessen after taking out the money.

Gholson was taken to Pontiac General Hospital where he was treated for exposure.

RELIEVES ALL 5 KINDS OF MINOR ARTHRITIC—RHEUMATIC—BURSITIC PAIN

New Rub-On Medicine Gives Quick, Temporary Relief of Pain Due To: (1) Stiffness (2) Aching Joints (3) Irritated Nerve Endings (4) Muscle Spasms (5) Swelling

From Anahist Research Laboratories comes a new, safe, medically proved formulation named Stim-U-Rub, because it stimulates blood. Minutes after you apply it, you can see a warm, red glow appear on the skin . . . as blood is rushed to the area.

You can also feel the blood heat spread like a blanket of soothing warmth over painful joints and muscles. Scientists, using electronic skin thermometers, report: "Stim-U-Rub raises skin temperature over pain areas as much as two full degrees, in minutes." Stim-U-Rub also speeds pain-relieving medication right to where blood circulates.

(1) Pain of stiffness is relieved. (2) Joint aches eased. (3) Irritated nerve endings soothed. (4) Muscle spasms decreased. (5) Soreness of swelling eased. So, Stim-U-Rub relieves all 5 kinds of minor arthritic-rheumatic-bursitic pain for periods that may last for hours, helping you to sleep the whole night in comfort.

Get Stim-U-Rub at any drug counter. If not 100% satisfied, return the unused portion and your money will be refunded. Anahist Research Laboratories, Yonkers 2, N. Y.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY dear daughter Margaret W. Cunningham, who passed away Dec. 30th, 1956.
It is lonesome here without you,
And sad and weary the way;
The flowers we placed upon your grave,
May wither and decay,
But the love for her who sleeps beneath,
Shall never fade away.
Sadly missed by her mother, brothers, sister, and friends.

You Remember Singing Open the Door, Richard?

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Around holiday time, my mother comes in from Fort Wayne to visit us, and we sit around the kitchen table playing "Do You Remember?"

It must get a little boring to our teenage son Slugger when I'm saying "Do you remember penny pencils . . . peekaboo waists . . . footscrapers down by the porch steps . . . portieres . . . and, much later, Fred Allen and Portland, and 'Titus Moody' on the radio every Sunday night?"

WILSON

So Slugger replies with his own "good old days" recollections.

"Do you remember Jerry Lewis always yelling 'Melvin' . . . and Pinky Lee's lithp . . . Jerry Lester and Dagmar saying 'Everything's real George' on Broadway Open House . . . and Laurie Anders saying 'I li-i-i-ke the wide open spaces' to Ken Murray and his cigar on his program?"

They're pretty distant to Slugger but like yesterday to me.

"Remember Herb Polesie's puns on '20 Questions'?" I say. "Remember when $64 seemed like a fortune on 'Take It or Leave It' m.c.'d by Garry Moore? . . . When the FCC got agitated about 'Stop the Music' and gas going to stop ALL quiz shows?"

"Remember 'Open the Door, Richard' . . . 'Martin Kane, Private Eye' . . . how Sid Stone used to do the pitchman commercials for Milton Berle . . . 'Mairzy Doats and Doazy Doats and Little Lambsidivey'?" retorts Slugger.

About this time the B.W. and Gorgeous Mother-in-Law throw in with me and say: Remember lighted candles on Christmas trees . . . side curtains on automobiles . . . expressions like "the cat's pajamas," "Oh, shoot," "Oh, pshaw," "So's your old man," "Your father's mustache," "Ye gods and little fishes," and "He's very sot in his ways"?

And it looks very much like we've won our little game until Slugger looks at his old man and says, "Tell me, Daddy, were you a pioneer?"

Anyway, sit down and have a few memories for the new year. Charge them to me.

MURRAY AND ANDERS

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Rita Hayworth protested to Look about an article which says she found a new life at 40 (she says she's 38) and intimates that fiancee Jim Hill gave her a $14,000 mink coat. She says she bought it herself and asked Publisher Mike Cowles to correct the piece . . . Henny Youngman reports that when Bob Hope got to Japan he said, "Your flu has caught on real good in America."

Louis Armstrong couldn't attend the wedding of Met star Mattiwilda Dobbs and Swedish columnist Bengt Janzon but invited them to have a honeymoon supper . . . a gal singer and record star borrowed 10 G's for Christmas . . . Hope Hampton may sing at Monsignore . . . Don Murray's mad at Playhouse 90 'cause he couldn't mention his pet charity (HELP, Elgin, Ill.)

Mary LaRoche is the only gal with Gable and Lancaster in "Run Silent, Run Deep." When hired she said, "You mean I get paid, too?" . . . Director Morton DaCosta, a B'way walk-on in '51, is making about $6,000 a week from "Auntie Mame," "Music Man" and "No Time for Sgts".

FBI Helps Man Prove He Served in First War

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI has come to the aid of a man who has been trying for years to prove that he served in the Army in World War I.

Herbert Gurley of Brooklyn, N. Y., had no luck when he tried to convince the Army and the Veterans Administration.

Recently he saw a television program showing how the FBI can make identifications from its vast fingerprint files. So he got off a letter telling his troubles to the FBI and enclosing his fingerprints.

Gurley said that he entered Howard University here in September 1918 and enrolled in the Student Army Training Corps, which made him an Army private. Gurley explained that at the time he used the name Charles Herbert Gurley.

When the war ended, he told the FBI, his unit was disbanded and he received no papers of any kind.

The FBI made a search of its fingerprint files. Sure enough, there was a Gurley—Charles H. V. Gurley—who was inducted into the Army at Howard University Oct. 2, 1918. And the fingerprints Gurley sent along matched those of the Gurley who was inducted into the Army.

The FBI passed the information along to Gurley who said all he wants out of "all my efforts to prove that I was a soldier" is an honorable discharge.

Hungary Cancels Cut in Aid to Calvinists

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—The Communist Hungarian government is pressing its campaign to gain support from religious leaders by not reducing the state subsidy to the Calvinists.

A 25 per cent cutback in the aid to the nation's second largest denomination had been scheduled under a 1948 agreement signed before the Reds gained complete control of the government.

The new agreement cancelling the reduction, Budapest newspapers reported, was signed last week by Bishop Albert Berecky, head of the Calvinist (Reformed) Church in Hungary, and Janos Horvath, chief of the government Church Affairs Bureau.

A similar agreement was made in October with Archbishop Josef Groesz of the Roman Catholic Church, which has more than six million members in Hungary. There are about two million Hungarian Calvinists.

Marine Guard Pleads Innocent of Charges

Painter, 21, is one of 16 former brig guards accused. Thirteen others have been tried. Five were acquitted and eight convicted.

MARIAN ANDERSON

Murrow Show Slated Tonight

Films Made as Singer Traveled, Performed for U. S. Government

By JANET KERN

NEW YORK (INS)—This evening in the hour usually reserved for "Studio One," CBS-TV's "See It Now" will present a most unusual, most important special telecast with the somewhat unwieldly title "The Lady From Philadelphia: Through Asia With Marian Anderson."

Be warned that this "See It Now" will be no concert. It's importance will lie in a realm far broader than that of musical taste.

What this show will be presenting will be the closest possible approximation of the "on-the-spot" coverage of an arduous seven week, 40,000-mile tour of seven Near East countries; a tour arranged by the American National Theater Association and the U. S. State Department and supervised by the United States Information Service.

So far as I can recall, there has never been anything quite like this "See It Now" on TV. Previously, this Ed Murrow series has presented films of Danny Kaye's tour on behalf of UNICEF — a semi-charity branch of the United Nations — and has accompanied Louis Armstrong on a tour of European concerts.

But on tonight's program we will see, as closely as the accompanying CBS camera crew could distill and approximate it, the purpose and dimension behind the sometimes mystifying performer tours approved by the U. S. government. As Ed Murrow enthused:

"People who have seen Marian Anderson for 25 years have never seen her like this! She not only sings, she talks—and in' some cases she talks sheer poetry:"

The show, filmed in the course of Marian Anderson's recent tour, will at least provide some insight into the motives and methods behind our government's efforts to use stars to help counteract the images and misconceptions created and fostered by the Communists' two billion dollars' worth of anti-American propaganda and to create and foster our own pro-American sentiment in imoprtant foreign quarters.

Use of IRBM Mapped by AF

Rocket Plans Included in Overall Blueprints for Wartime

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force's constantly revised strategic plans now include detailed arrangements on how and where intermediate range ballistic missiles would be used in event of war.

The operational plans for both long-range, air-breathing guided missiles and intermediate range ballistic missiles are understood to have been completed and incorporated in the over-all wartime plans of the USAF about six months ago.

This was done even though the IRBM weapons may not become a part of the available arsenal for another year.

The Air Force maintains three basic strategic blueprints which cover periods ranging from the next 60 days to as much as 13 years. They are the short-range "wartime capabilities plan"; the "mid-range wartime" plan containing D-day data up to four years in the future; and the "long-range wartime objectives plan."

The air-breathing Snark guided missile, with a range of 5,000 miles, is now considered operational by the Air Force and units and launching sites are being organized. While the Snark has the range of the still-developmental intercontinental ballistic missile, its speed is below that of sound and its operating altitude down in the earth's atmosphere.

The Air Force expects the first deliveries of the Thor IRBM—with a maximum accurate range of 1,500 miles—to be made late in 1958. But as part of the forward planning, details for the operational use and command structure of IRBM squadrons have been put into the war plans folio.

Presumably these details include not only the proposed bases from which IRBMs would be launched (depending on the outcome of negotiations with the NATO nations) but a "target list" like those prepared for operation of conventional manned bombers.

Lone Man on Bridge Stirs Brooklyn Crowd

Borda, 40, the only bridge pedestrian, said he was merely watching for the arrival of a vessel on which his brother, Mario, was assigned—not contemplating suicide.

Borda said he is chief officer of the Monte Abril, a Spanish vessel docked at Hoboken, N.J.

Some 1957 Crime News Read Like the Comics

WASHINGTON (AP) — There was humor as well as heartbreak in the crime news of 1957.

There was, for instance, the case of the errant bookkeeper of a New York bus firm who was arrested when he accidentally bumped into his boss while boarding a plane for Florida. The boss promptly had him arrested for embezzlement.

A department store in Lansing, Mich., decided to take precautions and hired a detective to check on the honesty of its employes. He quickly nabbed a shoplifter—the store's regular detective.

A private detective agency in Toledo, Ohio, had troubles of its own and called the local police to report the theft of its paychecks.

In Detroit, William P. Brown staked a claim to being soundest sleeping man in the country after pulling off the road one night for a brief nap. When he awakened, all five tires were missing, plus the car jack. The thieves had pried open the rear trunk while Brown slept blissfully on.

The thief who entered the home of Francis Harman at Ewing Township, N. J., was willing to take his chances too. Climbing in a window while the Harmans were away, the intruder (1) cooked himself a dinner, (2) showered and shaved and (3) donned Harman's tuxedo.

The prowler who went calling on a New Brunswick, N. J., lumber company found a greeting awaiting him on the office safe. The note said there was no money inside, so the burglar might as well not bother. He didn't, but stopped long enough to scribble "Thanks, I believe you" in a note of his own.

More resourcefulness was shown by a clever check passer charged with using nearly 350 aliases and passing upwards of half a million dollars in phony paper. Police who arrested him near Cleveland found among his possessions a book entitled: "How to Use Your Imagination and Make Money."

Marital Knot Binds Songsters for Duet

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Singers Eydie Gorme and Steve Lawrence are going to make it a duet. They were married yesterday in Las Vegas where Miss Gorme is appearing in a night club.

The 22-year-old singers, both recording, television and night club stars, met four years ago when they sang on Steve Allen's "Tonight" show on television.
