ALL THE NEWS THATS FITZ TO PRINT NOW IN THE 4TH WEEK OF EDITORIAL FREEDOM

MR. FITZGERALD TO MATCH FIREPLACE FUND

We may have a fireplace in the lounge sooner than expected. It was announced Monday night that Mr. Fitzgerald will match dollar for dollar up to three hundred dollars.

The concession stand operated at the play Dark of the Moon has added twenty five dollars to the kitty. Private donations have brought the total to over three hundred dollars. YOUR DONATIONS ARE NEEDED TO HELP GET A FIREPLACE FOR FITZ. GIVE YOUR DONATIONS TO TONY OR JUDY.

SUGGESTION OF THE WEEK

That Glenn Goldman's wish (in the play) come true.

YOU CAN REST IN PEACE NOW. THERE IS LITTLE THREAT OF NUCLEAR WAR IN THE NEAR FUTURE. A BUILDER OF BOMB SHELTERS IN THE WASHINGTON AREA IS NOW GIVING UP TO FIVE YEARS TO PAY.

Due to the laziness of the poet laureate, POETRY BY LAMAR will not be seen this week. Address your angry letters of protest to Lamar and place in the suggestion box. We will see that the letters reach the lazy bum.

LETS GET GOING LAMAR!

DORM COUNCIL GOODIES

The dorm council will help host the International Conference on March 26 -27. They will make arrangements for room and board for the delegates

The kick off for the Oakland V.I.P. program was called a success. Dr. Harold Taylor was the first guest.

This sunday there will be an open house for the professors and administrators. The time is from two until four.

THATS ALL UNTIL NEXT WEEK AT THE SAME TIME, SAME PLACE. BE SURE AND READ THE DORM COUNCIL NEWS EVERY WEEK. ONE OF THESE WEEKS THERE MIGHT BE SOMETHING IMPORTANT IN THE DORM COUNCIL COLUMN.

Ray Cole wishes to inform his fans that he is now the best free throw shooter in the I.M. league. He is hitting 100%.

It is rumored that the numerologist is trying to hush up the fact that our poet Lamar is actually suited to be a milkman and not a poet. Cheer up, there are some good stories about milkmen.
