Pro-Hoffa Corps Sweeps Local Teamster Vote

By PETE LOCHBILER

Pro-Hoffa forces were in power at Pontiac Teamster Local 614 today following a two-day election ending the international president's 4½-year trusteeship.

A clean sweep of the seven executive board positions was scored by their slate, while another supported by critics of James R. Hoffa went down in defeat.

"I interpret the results not only as a vote of confidence in the incumbents," said Leaun Harrelson, victorious candidate for president, "but also as a vote of confidence in the "big boss—Jimmy."

Harrelson, 39, of 26 Delaware Dr., a former Pontiac state representative, who was appointed president by Hoffa when the trusteeship began in Oct., 1953, got 471 votes to 344 for his nearest rival, Frank Bryant, of the opposition slate. Also elected for four-year terms:

Vice president—Alvy Bush, a business agent and trustee, also appointed by Hoffa; secretary-treasurer Floyd B. Harmon, a business agent since 1951, unopposed for office; and recording-secretary — Donald Stone, another business agent.

Three trustees elected were Gerald Simmons, a steward at Norwalk Truck Line Co., who has not held office before; James Paschal, who served as vice president under Hoffa's trusteeship; and Frank Orsini, a business agent since 1951.

DEPUTIES WATCHING

The election, held Saturday and Sunday at Local 614 Hall, 1410 S. Telegraph Rd., under the watchful eyes of sheriff's deputies, was the first in 10 years and returned local autonomy here.

Hoffa, who took over after a shakedown scandal involving local officials, ordered the election early this year following criticism of his trusteeships by the AFL-CIO.

There has been local opposition to the Teamster leader and to the executive board he appointed almost from the day he took over.

Following election returns last night, Robert Holmes, vice president of Detroit Teamster Joint Council 43, who has supervised the local under Hoffa and was in

Auto Negotiations Enter Homestretch

DETROIT (AP) — Negotiations between the United Auto Workers and the industry's Big Three entered the final fortnight drive today before current contracts expire.

The union resumed bargaining on all three fronts — General Motors, Chrysler and Ford.

The UAW gave an explanation of a meeting at the summit last Tuesday with top officials of Ford. But the union denied the conference had anything to do with current contract negotiations.

Ken Bannon, the UAW's Ford Department director, said UAW President Walter Reuther got together with Ford President Henry Ford II. Other top-level officials from both sides also attended.

Bannon said the conference dealt with "procedural matters related to the expiration (June 1) of the current contract in the event a new agreement has not been reached by that time."

★ ★ ★

Big U.S. Planes Land in Europe Just in Case

'No Orders Yet,' but Transports Poised for Flight to Lebanon

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—Eighteen huge U.S. Air Force Globemaster transports today had arrived at various bases in Germany and France for possible use in the troubled Middle East.

The Globemasters were ordered by the U.S. government Saturday, possibly to evacuate Americans from Lebanon or to ferry arms to that strife-torn nation.

The exact whereabouts of the giant three-decker C124s was not disclosed. At least five of them landed at Frankfurt's Rhine-Main Airport last night, then left for other bases in Europe.

"There have been no orders yet for them to fly to Lebanon," an Air Force spokesman said. "They will sit on their haunches over here in Europe in case there is a need for them to be used."

Several of the planes which passed through Frankfurt reportedly went to a base near Chaumont, in France. A spokesman said they could not be kept in Frankfurt because of the "parking problem."

The Frankfurt base also has on alert six of the twelve Globemasters regularly stationed here as the 3rd Troop Carrier Squadron.

When the United States sent arms to Jordan and Tunisia last year, Rhine-Main air base was used as a loading point.

Lebanon government forces held control again today in the streets of Tripoli after a weekend of bitter fighting between loyalists and insurgent Moslem nationalists.

At least 60 persons were reported killed in the bloodiest fight of Lebanon's internal strife. Government forces finally stormed through the twisting streets of the northern coastal city to end the fray.

President Camille Chamoun, who heads the pro-Western government of this tiny Middle Eastern nation, charges President Nasser's United Arab Republic with inciting Lebanon's Moslems to revolt.

Van Horn Gets Life in Prison

Told by the judge he had committed "the most brutal crime in Oakland County history," Billy Ray Van Horn this morning was sentenced by Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty to spend the rest of his natural life in prison.

★ ★ ★

The mandatory life sentence for first-degree murder in Michigan was received calmly by the 24-year-old Van Horn after he was refused permission by the judge "to explain a few things."

"I tried to explain a few things on the stand but the prosecutor wouldn't let me," he told the judge.

Van Horn, who police describe as a drifter and alcoholic, was found guilty by a jury May 6 of murdering 39-year-old Mrs. Hazel Murdock in the Murdock home at 127 N. Josephine St., Waterford Township, on Jan. 24.

She and her husband, Drulard, 55, were seeking to stop Van Horn's excessive drinking.

The court-appointed attorney for the unemployed Van Horn, Brakie J. Orr, said his client wanted to tell Judge Doty that he had written a note with his name on it found on a table near the strangled and stabbed body of Mrs. Murdock.

Her husband testified that the note, reading "Bill Van Horn," was in his wife's handwriting. Police officers believe that Mrs. Murdock had scribbled the note fearing death at the hands of Van Horn.

Low Tonight 48, Warming to 70s Here Tomorrow

Fair and cool is the U. S. Weather Bureau's outlook for Pontiac and vicinity tonight. The low will be near 48 degrees.

In an extended weather outlook, the Bureau has predicted that temperatures will average near the normal 70 high and normal 50 low for the next five days.

A warming trend is expected Wednesday and Thursday with cooler temperatures returning Friday and Saturday. Showers are likely Thursday or Friday.

The lowest temperature recorded in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 53. At 2 p.m. the temperature was 69.

Japanese Incomes Low

TOKYO (INS)—The average monthly income of wage earners in Japan in 1957 was about $58 for men and $29 for women. A nationwide survey, covering a total of 786,000 wage earners at 28,600 concerns, was conducted in 1957 and the report was issued Saturday.

RONALD COLEMAN

Ronald Colman Dies Today at 67

Known for TV Series 'Halls of Ivy'; Suffered From Lung Infection

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — Veteran screen star Ronald Colman died today. He was 67.

Details of his death were not immediately available.

He had been ill with a lung infection a year ago and was treated at Santa Monica.

Colman and his wife both appeared in the television series, "Halls of Ivy," a story of college life that went off the air about two years ago. Since then he had made one TV appearance.

An associate in Hollywood said that after the television series was completed Colman and his wife and their daughter, Juliet, went to Europe and that Colman contracted a lung infection while there.

Colman, who won an Oscar in 1948 for his role of an egomaniac Shakespearean actor in "A Double Life," starred in such movies as "Lost Horizon," "Random Harvest," "A Tale of Two Cities," and "The Late George Apley."

During his long movie career, Colman was known as a man of culture and distinction. He lived the part in real life. Quiet and studious, he was fonder of browsing in antique shops and puttering around in his garden than in living in the Hollywood spotlight.

Deems Nation Facing Chaos in Hopeless State

Paris Subways, Buses Halted by Communists in Protest Strike

PARIS (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle today repudiated the role of dictator but said he remains ready to try to lead France out of chaos.

The wartime hero described himself as "a man belonging to nobody but belonging to all."

"Have I ever attacked the fundamental liberties of the republic? No, I have restored them. How would you have me at 67 start a career at a dictator?" he added.

But he made it clear he feels the present situation, with party enmities in Paris and the army in near-revolt in Algeria, is hopeless. He said the parties have betrayed France.

The strike was called by the Communist-led General Workers Federation (CGT) to protest what was termed threatened Fascism. The Communists are De Gaulle's bitterest enemies.

Current used to operate the subways was cut at 3 p.m. Paris police all returned to their depots.

Meanwhile, the political bureau of the Communist Party issued a statement chastising the government for permitting De Gaulle to hold the news conference,

"DEEPLY REGRETTABLE"

The statement said it was "deeply regrettable" that the government had authorized the news conference.

GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE

The Communists charged that the news conference was "at heart, a plot against republican institutions and the unity of the nation, and has, at the same time, forbidden counter-demonstrations

Cardinal Stritch Suffers Stroke; Condition Grave

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Samuel Cardinal Stritch, whose right arm was amputated three weeks ago, suffered a stroke today. Word reached the Vatican was that his condition was grave.

★ ★ ★

The Roman Catholic archbishop of Chicago previously had been recovering well from the amputation which was made necessary by a blood clot in the arm.

Yesterday he had celebrated Mass for the first time since the operation.

He was stricken early today but by noon had recovered consciousness. A source close to Vatican authorities said he had improved slightly, can talk again and can recognize people.

★ ★ ★

Retrieve Cone of Jupiter, Solves Re-Entry Challenge

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Jupiter intermediate range missile—a project the Army almost lost five months ago — apparently is the first ballistic weapon to solve the re-entry challenge.

Army rocket men at the nation's missile test center agreed the re-entry success was due to an almost perfect shot of the mighty Jupiter shortly after midnight yesterday.

Some 4½ hours after the launching the huge nose cone—the first full-sized warhead ever mounted on a Jupiter IRBM—was plucked out of the Atlantic by frogmen and the crew of a Navy auxiliary submarine rescue ship.

First reports indicated the re-entry test was a complete success.

The precious nose cone was taken to Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Ala., where Army scientists will study its intricate instruments to learn the secrets of re-entering the earth's atmosphere without burnout after a cruise through space.

It was the first time a full-scale ballistic missile nose cone has been recovered intact. The only other recovery came last Aug. 8 when a four-foot nose cone was retrieved from the sea.

The Jupiter, now in mass production by Chrysler Corp. and expected to be operational with troops late this year, was designed for a range of 1,500 miles.

It reportedly has traveled as far as 2,200 miles.

Chromier and Finnier Than Ever?

'59 Model Cars Expected Month Earlier

By FRANK SNYDER

DETROIT (INS) — The auto companies intend to bring out the 1959 models as much as a month ahead of last year despite the possibility there may be more than a half-million 1958 cars unsold at the time.

And according to most reports the majority of the new models will be longer and wider and "chromier" and "finnier" than ever before. They also will have more glass area, with windshields and rear windows curving into the roofs as well as the sides of the cars.

Chrysler Corp. is planning on introducing its 1959 cars around mid-October, at least two weeks earlier than last year. General Motors will be a month or more ahead of last year's November dates.

One industry spokesman said that "GM may very well make all of its new car anouncements Sept. 16 to coincide with the corporation's 50th birthday anniversary."

★ ★ ★

The Ford announcements still are in the speculation stage, outside of Ford Motor Co. itself. But they'll have to keep "competitive."

According to "Automotive News" the 1959 GM announcements will inaugurate a new program "which will give each of its divisions a new car every year."

Instead of splitting up three "basic" body shells between Chevrolet, Pontiac, Buick, Oldsmobile and Cadillac, Automotive News said the Fisher Body Division will use only one basic body shell every year for all five cars. There would be "mutations," producing a longer body shell for the Cadillac 62, as well as other differences for Buick and Oldsmobile.

The changes in the Ford line of cars may be less pronounced than the others. The Ford will keep its canted fins, Chrysler plans to tilt its sweeping ones at even more rakish angles, while GM is expected to hold to the Chevrolet "soft roll" type rear fender dressing.

The Chevy will be wider and longer in spite of arguments that it is too much so already. There still is good reason to believe that GM will produce a smaller, economical companion car for Chevy sometime next year. So it has no intentions of cheapening its "best selling" auto at this stage of the game.

Meanwhile, the industry's "advance thinking" on the upcoming new models is both confusing and contradictory.

For instance, George Walker, vice president and director of styling for Ford, says the competition "will adopt some of the basic styling themes of the 1958 Edsel."

While you're trying to figure what made the Edsel so successful so suddenly that others want to copy it, you hear an admission

Water, Traffic Claim 13 Lives

Warm Weather Draws Flocks to State Lakes Where Six Perish

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Highway accidents took seven lives in Michigan over a warm, showery weekend, a sharp drop from last weekend's toll of 16.

In addition, six persons drowned as crowds flocked to lakes and fishing sites.

Donald Moss, 21, Kalamazoo, drowned Sunday in Gun Lake, southwest of Kalamazoo, when he fell from water skis while being towed by two companions in a motorboat.

Thomas Sullivan, 13, Flint drowned in 12 feet of water Saturday while trying to swim across a 75-foot wide gravel pit near Flushing.

Charles Mellor, 20, Washington, was killed Saturday when his car ran off a road near Mt. Clemens.

Richard Siterlet, 17, Livonia, was killed Friday night when the car he was riding in ran out of control near Plymouth.

Gerry DeRidder, 10, Holland, was killed Saturday when hit by a car that swerved out of control after an accident at an intersection in Holland.

A 14-year-old Benton Harbor boy, Richard Carlyle, was killed Saturday when his bicycle was hit by a car south of Scottsdale.

Charlene Austin, 18, Perry, was injured fatally Sunday in a two-car collision near Morrice.

David E. Van Horn, 27, Kalamazoo, was killed Sunday when police said he ran a stop sign and was rammed by another car.

Mrs. J. C. Roberts of Birmingham Dies

Mrs. J. Cliff (Mary) Roberts, 58, of 480 Yarmouth Rd., Birmingham, whose husband is vice president of the J. Walter Thompson Co., died unexpectedly Saturday while visiting relatives in Zanesville, Ohio.

She was president of the Detroit Garden Center, a member of the Birmingham Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Assn., Past president of the group's Michigan Division and a member of its Executive Committee.

Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, Richard H. at home and Lt. John W. in the Navy; three sisters, a brother and four grandchildren.

Service will be held at 3 p.m. Wednesday at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. in Birmingham.

HONORED BY CRANBROOK — Founders Medals are presented to Lee A White, left, and Ray Allen Billington on behalf of his father, the late Cecil Billington, for their work in developing Cranbrook Institutions. Making the presentation is Henry Scripps Booth. Both men were associates of the late George G. Booth, publisher of the Detroit News who founded Cranbrook. Mr. Billington an outstanding amateur botonist, designed the famous grounds and gardens at Cranbrook, while White served as a director for 20 years and was its public relations director before retirement.

Bloodmobile Due at Pontiac Motor

Pontiac Motor Division employes will be donating blood tomorrow, through Thursday, toward a goal of 450 pints as the Red Cross Bloodmobile makes its first of two yearly company solicitations.

The goal is based on the 75 pints per month rate drawn from the General Motors Blood Bank during 1957 by Pontiac Motor employes and their immediate families living under the same roof, and is designed to stock reserves for the latter half of 1958.

From October, 1953, when the blood bank was inaugurated, through December, 1957, Pontiac employes have contributed 7,029 pints at semi-annual collections. Better than half of this total was distributed both as whole blood and blood derivatives to the U. S. military in Korea and for replenishment of national civil defense reserves.

Hoffa Slate Retained by Local Teamsters charge of conducting the election, called for harmony.

"I hope this election puts an end to the bickering that has been going on," Holmes said. "I hope you men can all pull together from now on. You're on your own now, for the first time in years. I wish you success.

For the benefit of the defeated campaigners, he added that in case of reprisals, "Detroit headquarters will want to hear about them."

"It was a clean election and an honest one," said Bryant, a self-employed trucker, of 248 W. Hopkins St., who led the opposition slate. "I have no complaints at all."

Simmons, 35, of 82 E. Longfellow Ave., got 388 votes; Paschal, 45, of 2021 E. South Blvd., 354; and Orsini, 39, of 61 N. Ardmore St., 376. Their nearest rivals were Robert Godfrey, 343; Ellsworth Bain, 321; and Ronald Smith, 286, Godfrey and Smith were on the anti-Hoffa slate.

Harmon, 43, of 2990 Barnes, Drayton Plains, chalked up 720 unopposed votes. Two candidates nominated against him last month were ruled ineligible to run by Holmes.

APPEALS RULING

One of them, Charles Fetherlyn, who was backed by the opposition slate, has appealed the ruling to the international board.

A total 986 members applied to vote, according to Holmes, out of 1,800 to 2,000 members he estimated as eligible to vote by virtue of being dues-paying members on the job last month.

Although the local normally has between 2,500 and 3,000 members, the eligibility list was low, he said, mainly because of recent layoffs.

Of the ballots applied for, 41 were not counted. Of these, he said, 16 were absentee ballots improperly returned or not returned at all and 25 were voided because of ineligibility status.

No Dictator, but Ready to Take Over—De Gaulle

He explained his views at a news conference. As he spoke, the first signs of a Communist-called order to stop work were being felt in Paris.

The general appeared young for his 67 years. He was dressed in a gray suit and spoke in a firm voice.

He made a statement and cut off questioning after half an hour.

"I am going back to my village but I remain at the disposition of the country," he said.

As he left, "De Gaulle to power" shouts were heard outside the hotel where he met the press.

At the outset, De Gaulle made it clear he felt that the present regime, encompassing many parties, could accomplish nothing.

He said France's future and past are entwined with that of Algeria, which is now in near revolt against the current Cabinet in Paris.

De Gaulle said he is ready to head the government of France as he did in a previous great national crisis.

De Gaulle said he had kept silent until the moment when he felt he could serve the country.

The general spoke to a room packed with an audience of nearly 700. He stood behind a table and before a battery of microphones.

He started the news conference with a brief statement. He then said he would answer questions only concerning French institutions and relationships with Algeria.

Referring to the last four years in North Africa, he said the present situation could lead to an extremely grave national crisis.

"But it can also be the start of a kind of resurrection," he said.

He said that in "this moment of grave confusion, all should be aware that the party regime could not and would not solve the enormous problems confronting France —the association of France with the peoples of Africa, and within the communities living in Algeria."

De Gaulle said the fighting in Algeria and the boiling emotional fever there grew out of the failure of the regime in Paris.

"The population of Algeria sees in Paris crisis upon crisis. How does one avoid rebellion in this population of Algeria? The population of Algeria is looking somewhere else, outside the parliamentary combination, for a way to end its troubles," he said.

"In these conditions, the army, which was able to see this feeling, prevented disorder. The army has acted."

He said the army sees the "mediocrity" which prevails.

"I understand perfectly well the attitude of the high command in Algeria," he said.

De Gaulle implied that if he assumed leadership of the French nation he would insist only on those powers freely given him.

"If things continue the way they are going," De Gaulle said "we all know perfectly well that the regime as it is can not accomplish anything."

It might produce programs, intentions and even make efforts toward actions but would not achieve anything, De Gaulle said.

De Gaulle again did not specify the exact terms under which he would assume national leadership. But he insisted this would have to be on his terms—not in the way a long string of premiers have followed since 1946, through solicitation of support from various parties. The present government is the 25th since World War II.

Gave Wrong Address to Pontiac Police

In Saturday's raid on an alleged liquor place, one of the men arrested for loitering, Frank C. Watkins, gave police his address as 484 Branch St.

The resident at that address, Mrs. Vivian Thomas, today notified the police she did not know Watkins and he did not live there.

Junta Quakes in Venezuela

Government May Fall as Attacks on Nixons Reveal Weakness

WASHINGTON (AP)—The political crisis in Venezuela appears so serious its government may fall, informed sources said today.

Resignation over the weekend of two civilian members of the junta came after repeated reports here that the two civilians, and many military officers, have been dissatisfied with what they called the junta's soft policy toward Communists.

State Department officials declined to be interviewed, but it was obvious they are deeply concerned.

★ ★ ★

Several thousand Communists and leftists returned to Venezuela from Mexico and other countries after the overthrow of the dictatorship of Gen. Marcos Perez Jimenez on Jan. 23.

★ ★ ★

Communists were the chief civilian organizers of the revolution which upset the Perez Jimenez government, and they have come to occupy an even more important position politically since then.

Expect '59 Models Perhaps Month Early

from Harley Earl, vice president and styling director for GM, that some of the 1958 GM models are too-adorned and that a lot of chrome has to go.

While you're pondering this one, along comes Benson Ford, a Ford vice president, to knock Earl's statement for a loop.

As chairman of Ford's dealer policy board, Benson Ford recently asked:

"How does today's market square, for example, with the view that people no longer want long, low cars with plenty of chrome?"

The second of Edsel Ford's three sons, has his own indisputable answer:

"A curious fact is that two of the three outstanding performers (better selling) in today's market, the Chevrolet Impala and the Oldsmobile, are both luxury products and the latter is undoubtedly the king of chrome (the Olds carries 44 pounds of it)."

Ford lists his own company's four-passenger Thunderbird as the remaining outstanding car of the year, adding:

"Though it is relatively innocent of chrome, it offers evidence that strong, individual styling will sell in any kind of a market."

Ford, with others in the industry, discount the importance of small, foreign car penetration of the American market. While admitting there is a place in our market for the small economy car, he thinks the demand will level off to around 300,000 a year, compared with the potential larger car market of six million to possibly 10 million annually in years to come.

The industry hopes the early advent of the 1959 car models will supply the antirecession shot-in-the-arm that our economy needs.

The Day in Birmingham

Open Air Square Dance Reslated for Saturday

BIRMINGHAM — Much needed rain fell here Saturday night but couldn't have been less appreciated. It came just in time to cancel the open air square dance in the parking lot at Pierce street.

The dance, part of the nine-day Birmingham Arts Festival, will be rescheduled for next Saturday if the City Commission approves it tonight.

At Water Fall Park Saturday morning, the official opening of the festival included a brief address of welcome by Mayor Carl Ingraham and a woodland ballet dance by a group of Birmingham High School girls.

Throughout the community, stores are displaying the works of local and out-of-town artists. At the Bloomfield Art Association Building, 361 N. Woodward Ave., the annual showing of the Birmingham Women Painters will be held until the festival ends next Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Special events also will continue at Baldwin Library, Baldwin School, Community House, Clawson Playhouse, Cranbrook and Kingswood Schools, Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills high school, Village Players Playhouse, the Little Gallery and at Shain Park.

In a letter to Birmingham city commissioners, retiring Municipal Judge John J. Gafill recommended the appointment of Associate Judge John C. Emory for the balance of his unexpired term.

Gafill has resigned, effective July 1.

A group of 85 residents in the Lincoln avenue-Cranbrook road area are asking commissioners to take action to eliminate the offensive odors from the sewage disposal plant in that vicinity.

Mrs. Betty Ellis of Birmingham was elected secretary of the Michigan Young Republicans yesterday at the organization's two-day meeting in Detroit.

Robert Hoard of Redford Township was elected state chairman; Mrs. Joyce Britton of Battle Creek, vice chairman; Don Ackerman of Kalamazoo, political science professor at Western Michigan University, national committeeman; Miss Mary Bosco of Detroit, national committeewoman, and Richard Stiles of Lansing, an Ingham County assistant prosecutor, treasurer.

Robert Girardin, Birmingham recreation director, will attend a meeting at Lansing tomorrow to plan the summer conference of Recreation Directors at Wilderness Park near Petoskey. The conference will include an exchange of ideas and the discussion on programming and equipment.

Ike Will Vote in Gettysburg

He's Going On to Speak on Nation's Economy in New York Tomorrow

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower plans to go to Gettysburg tomorrow to vote in the Pennsylvania primary and then travel on to New York for a major speech tomorrow night on the nation's economy.

Weather permitting, the President will take off from the south White House grounds by helicopter about 10:30 a.m., on the 30-minute flight to Gettysburg where he has a farm home.

After voting Eisenhower will go on by helicopter to Harrisburg, Pa., about 35 miles away. There he will board his private four-engine plane, Columbine III, for the flight to New York.

He is scheduled to arrive at La Guardia marine terminal about 12:30 p.m., and then will motor immediately to the Astor Hotel.

Eisenhower expects to spend the afternoon in his hotel suite and perhaps have a few business engagements.

The President's speech at the Astor Hotel will be carried nationwide on television and radio (9:30 p.m. EDT).

In the dinner audience will be about 2,000 business leaders on hand for a meeting of the economic mobilization conference of the American Management Assn.

The President plans to fly back to Washington immediately after the speech. He will be accompanied by an old friend, British Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery. Montgomery will be Eisenhower's guest at the White House for a few days.

Mrs. Steinbaugh Out of School Election

Mrs. Sally Steinbaugh has been disqualified as a candidate for the Pontiac Board of Education, leaving three to contend for two seats.

Vernon L. Schiller, board treasurer who handles election procedures, said that Mrs. Steinbaugh's nominating petitions were not technically valid because she circulated them under the name of Mrs. Fred Steinbaugh rather than her "legal" name of Mrs. Sally Steinbaugh.

Mrs. Steinbaugh is a second grade teacher at Crofoot School. Last week, two other candidates withdrew from the race in her favor.

5 City Burglaries Occur on Weekend

Five burglaries were reported to Pontiac police over the weekend including a church.

On Saturday night, thieves entered the First Methodist Church, 1532 Baldwin Ave., by breaking out the front door glass. It is not known what is missing.

Sears, Roebuck Store, 154 N. Saginaw St., was burglarized Saturday night, but burglar alarms scared off the thieves before they could take anything.

Other thefts reported were at Rick's Pizza House, 819 Woodward Ave., $35 in change from coin machines; Florida Bar, 522 S. Saginaw St., undetermined amount of change from coin machines; and City Service Station, 435 Auburn Ave., change from machines and mechanic's tools.

Dozes Through Theft

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—Martin Glem told police he awoke from a nap and found someone had sliced off his rear trouser pocket containing his wallet and $12. The thieves also had raided his refrigerator.

Lose Stolen Goods

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Thieves stuffed a load of stolen auto accessories into the back of a stolen pickup truck and drove off. Making a turn, the rear of the truck came loose, sailed the other way, and with accessories inside, was later recovered. Police said it hadn't been bolted to the front.

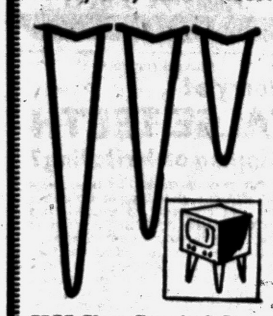

Tugs Refloat Freighter Reefed With 71 Aboard

The liner severely damaged her hull when she grounded 400 miles southeast of Hong Kong, stranding her 12 passengers and 59 crewmen.

The vessel was en route from Hong Kong to Saigon. She is being returned here for drydock inspection.

National Parks Bracing for Invasion by 63 Million

WASHINGTON (NEA) — If you want to spend your summer vacation gazing at scenery in a national park, you had better wait until one is established on the moon.

Chances are that the greatest natural wonders you'll be able to see on earth this summer are people—millions of people.

Park Service officials of the U. S. Interior Department expect that at least 63,500,000 men, women and children will feed the bears, light camp fires and get cricks in their necks watching geysers before the year has ended.

Agriculture Department experts, who run the national forests, won't be surprised if more than 66 million tourists converge on the wooded territory under their jurisdiction.

Both agencies find this anticipated tourist boom both startling and disturbing. So many people are suddenly getting the urge to return to nature that government expansion programs can't move fast enough to take care of them.

Two years ago, the Interior Department started a building program designed to get the parks ready for an estimated 80 million tourists in 1966. Now, however, officials believe that park attendance will reach that figure by 1964.

The situation faced by the national forests is even more serious. The approximately 66 million attendance record they expect this year is slightly higher than that originally estimated for 1962.

Actually, though, the booming crowds will be the only drawback to a pleasant back-to-nature vacation. The expansion programs have put the parks and forests in better condition than ever before.

Since it started a year ago, Operation Outdoors has equipped the forests with 200 new camp and picnic grounds and expanded 700 others. The five-year program calls for doubling existing camping and picnicking facilities to about 83,500 family units.

This year's Yellowstone Park tourists can enjoy a new cabin development capable of housing 1,650 guests. It's scheduled for completion by July 1 along with a new cafeteria, general store and service station.

The Grand Canyon has 96 new cabin units capable of holding 400 guests. And on June 30 Yosemite National Park will open a new 270 guest development complete with restaurant, service center and souvenir shop.

Park officials warn, however, that these improvements have made no change in the disposition of the bears.

TELLING AMERICA ABOUT OUTSTATE MICHIGAN

The advertisement below is another in a series through which Consumers Power Company is telling America about the industrial advantages of OUTSTATE MICHIGAN. It is appearing in U. S. News & World Report, Wall Street Journal, Fortune, Barron's and other publications.

Outstate Michigan's "BIG MAC"

THE WORLD'S GREATEST BRIDGE IS A BRIDGE TO GREATER INDUSTRIAL OPPORTUNITY!

Now you can go from one of Michigan's magnificent peninsulas to the other in just a few minutes.

The Mackinac Bridge, five miles long, provides a fast motor car route across the Straits of Mackinac.

Come and see this greatest of all bridges. It links some of America's most popular vacation lands. It also brings the manufacturing and marketing centers of the two peninsulas closer together and cuts shipping time between Michigan and the Canadian West.

As you look out upon the waters of the Straits, remember that Michigan is almost surrounded by the Great Lakes, the greatest fresh water supply in the world. Remember, too, that the St. Lawrence Seaway is making international ports of Michigan's port cities.

Michigan has abundant fresh water for vacation fun, for industrial processing, for transportation of cargoes. For this reason and many others, Outstate Michigan is an unsurpassed location for many types of industry.

If you are a manufacturer, let our Area Development Department supply you with confidential information on specific sites.

Ballplayer Shot on Lansing Field

Assailant Pulls Trigger Before Large Crowd, Then Flees Scene

LANSING (INS) — A sandlot baseball game in Lansing, Michigan was halted yesterday when one of the players was shot and wounded.

★ ★ ★

Police said Dario Merrando, 28, of Lansing, was shot in the left hip while he was playing in right field. Medrano was taken to St. Lawrence Hospital, Lansing, where his condition was listed as serious.

The player was shot while a large crowd was watching a game between two Mexican teams — the Lansing Cardinals and a club from Saginaw.

Police Lieutenant Okie Peterson said two other men were held for questioning, but had nothing to do with the shooting.

Peterson said Medrano was stationed in right field when Gonzales approached him. The officer said Gonzales was ordered from the field but returned.

Lt. Peterson said Medrano, thinking Gonzales was carrying a knife, ran to the bench to grab a bat and defend himself when he was shot.

New Jewish Congress Head Says Segregation Caused Nixon Incidents

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (INS) — The American Jewish Congress has for its new president a German-born Newark, N. J., rabbi who links Vice President Nixon's riotous reception in South America to segregation troubles at home.

Dr. Joachim Prinz was elected national president yesterday at the end of the AJC national convention.

The organization, which takes pride in making strong stands on controversial issues, fought over and then adopted a watered-down resolution voicing its concern over nuclear weapons tests.

But it swung hard on race, Southland bombing and Middle East policy, issues which were the main concern of the AJC throughout its convention. It went on record, by unanimous votes, with criticism of the Eisenhower administration on these issues.

Prinz, who succeeded Dr. Israel Goldstein of New York as president, said in an acceptance speech: "The events in South America point clearly to the fact that we have failed to understand that Lima, Peru, and Caracas, Venezuela, are but a stone's throw from Little Rock, Ark., and that our fight for civil rights here in America might well be understood in terms of the foreign policy of the United States and in the battle for the souls and minds of the untold millions of yet-uncommitted peoples in the world."

Prinz is rabbi of the largest Jewish congregation in New Jersey, Temple B'Nai Abraham. He also has an international reputation as a Jewish leader and is prominent in the World Jewish Congress.

For 12 years, until the Nazis threw him out in 1937, he was a rabbi in Berlin.

Detroit Sewer Plan to Benefit Oakland

More of Southeastern Oakland County will benefit from a $33,000,000 expansion of Detroit sewage treatment facilities which will begin this fall.

Expected to be served by the enlargement will be Southfield, Westwood, Bingham Farms, Franklin, Farmington Township, West Bloomfield Township, Orchard Lake, Keego Harbor, Sylvan Lake, Bloomfield Township, Bloomfield Hills, Birmingham, Westchester and Troy.

The present sewage treatment plant in Detroit serves more than 2,667,000 people in Detroit and 34 suburbs, including many in Oakland County, according to Gerald Remus, general manager of the Department of Water Supply.

The expansion will eventually serve 4,000,000 people, he said.

When additional parts of southeastern Oakland County will hook up to the system depends on when the areas "do necessary work on their own systems and Detroit treatment capacity is available," Remus said.

A rate increase, to be paid as now with the water bill, of 10 cents per 1,000 cubic feet of water used will become effective Jan. 1, 1959 to meet the cost of providing service.

"Most families use about 1,000 cubic feet of water a month," Remus explained, "so the increase will cost the average householder only 10 cents monthly."

★ ★ ★

Attempts to Discredit Dick Nixon Backfire

Several writers and political figures have commented upon an unusual angle in Vice President NIXON's unhappy experiences on his recent "good will" tour.

It is reasonably well established that Communist agitators instigated much of the trouble. True, local gendarmes compounded the difficulties by looking out the window, but the fact remains that Russian sympathizers were high on the list of "those most culpable."

★ ★ ★

Richard Nixon has been one of the most implacable foes the Commies have in this country. He has been vigorous and outspoken against their various rackets — both at home and abroad—right from the start.

Hence, he's a big foe.

But see what happened.

Their crummy tactics built him up in this country as almost nothing else could have. They contributed mightily to his popularity. An attempt to discredit him and make him look ridiculous brought the opposite results.

He becomes a hero.

★ ★ ★

The man they sought to discredit and destroy has been elevated to the highest pedestal he ever occupied, just because of their own stupidity. And don't think for a fraction of a minute that the two Nixons didn't handle themselves superbly. They were champions, every inch of the way.

★ ★ ★

Historians, check this man NIXON's progress towards the nomination and election in the next two years. At the moment he's ahead of the pack—running swiftly with no serious obstacles ahead.

Tito and Khrushchev in Dogma Troubles

Relations between Moscow and Yugoslavia again have reached bottom in the current war of words, the worst since TITO's 1948 break with STALIN.

The reason then as now is Tito's refusal to accept Russian dictates on policy and his outspoken independence. The Soviet Communist Party warned the Yugoslavs of their "mistake" in refusing to accept the view on dogma of the majority of the world's Communist parties.

This means that Yugoslavia may lose about $300 million in economic aid from the Soviet Union and that Moscow will wage an all-out war against "Titoism." Yugoslav leaders, who were hopeful of better relations with Russia after Premier KHRUSHCHEV's 1955 visit and more conciliatory attitude, are said to be "severely shaken."

★ ★ ★

KHRUSHCHEV himself is in trouble at home over his attempt to give Communist satellites a measure of freedom. Old line Communists opposed this policy and point to the Polish riots and revolt in Hungary as evidence that STALIN's iron rule should have been maintained.

It is not these Stalinists however who are out to get Premier Khrushchev, but a young group raised to power by the Premier himself. Of these men a Western Soviet expert says "with them in power the ruthless type of totalitarian rule would be fully revived."

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile TITO is defying the Soviet bloc and declares that Yugoslavia will continue to steer an independent course of "its own road to socialism." This time the split with KHRUSHCHEV seems final.

United Fund Is Still Aiding Salvation Army

The Pontiac Area United Fund office reports a few phone calls asking whether The Salvation Army has been dropped from The United Fund.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

That has nothing to do with the Army's original activities. They continue as usual. The Army continues in The Chest as usual for that part of its work. The fine new building is an entirely independent operation .....are completely self-supporting.

The night before the race somebody stole all of the fuel for the wood-burning locomotive that had been placed at convenient places along the railroad. The engine ran out of steam before it reached Birmingham—and the horses won.

Peep, Peep!

David Lawrence Says:

Reds Spend Fortune to Jam Truth

WASHINGTON — What are the men in the Kremlin afraid of? They talk glibly about wanting better understanding between the Soviet and the American peoples. But the jamming of broadcasts of news from the United States into the countries behind the Iron Curtain continues with renewed intensity.

LAWRENCE

It is reliably estimated that, out of the several billions in its propaganda budget, the Soviet government is spending $100,000,000 a year just to jam radio broadcasts from stations in the free world to Russia and the captive countries.

This is about the same amount that Congress appropriates for the entire program of information disseminated through radio, movies and books by the U.S. Information Agency.

The number of persons inside Russia who understand English is limited, so the broadcasts by the "Voice of America" when made in English are not interfered with—besides, the Moscow authorities like to transcribe for themselves what is being said.

The broadcasts in the Russian language, however, and in all Slavic languages sent from stations in Europe both by the United States and her allies are always jammed. This means that electronic devices are used in various places to interfere with transmission.

The authorities also censor every newspaper and magazine published in the Soviet Union, and instructions are regularly issued banning the publication of certain kinds of information.

Throughout the Soviet Union, the radio is used 24 hours a day, with considerable repetition and persistence, to explain the government's point of view to the people.

The apologists for the Soviet Union claim they practice "democracy." They use the phrase "Union of Soviet Socialist Republics" and often refer to "freedom" but, curiously enough, the men in command are afraid to let the Soviet people get both sides of public questions.

The people are told that the government has made up its mind as to what is right and proper for them to know, and anyone who differs is suspected of treason.

While the existence of this sort of intimidation is well known outside the Soviet Union, there is no clear explanation as to why the Kremlin is afraid to let the truth come in.

No such timidity is shown with respect to the admission of musical groups or ballets or works of art, and there are even token examples of government tolerance of a few Christian churches.

What is behind the fear that causes the Soviet authorities to spend so much time and money jamming the "Voice of America" broadcasts in the Russian and Slavic languages?

There was a time when the Communists said they were proud to have the Russian language extolled outside the Soviet Union.

Can it be that the Communists really fear the effect on the people of their own country and on the minds of the inhabitants of the captive countries if the truth is allowed to penetrate?

Why, it may be asked, do the Soviet officials exhibit such anxiety about the American point of view? They have no hesitancy in rebutting it day in and day out in their own broadcasts sent to foreign lands.

This correspondent listens often to the English language broadcasts from Moscow, and they are a monotonous repetition of the Soviet rejection of the American viewpoint.

But if this is felt to be a persuasive rebuttal, why are the Soviets afraid to let the debate of both sides be heard inside their country by their own people?

Dr. William Brady Says:

'Pop' Addicts Can't Hope to Have Healthy Teeth

In New Zealand, per capita consumption of milk products is the highest in the world, yet New Zealand has the highest dental decay rate in the world.

DR. BRADY

Drs. Bettington, Hill and Norris, commenting on this in the New Zealand Medical Journal, drew the questionable conclusion that this "surely proves that milk plays no part in the physiology of healthy teeth."

If by "physiology" the New Zealand doctors mean the development, structure, formation, freedom from decay, regularity, soundness and preservation of the teeth, I must confess their condemnation of milk as a food for growing children and adults worries me.

All along I have advised every one to consume not less than 1½ pints (three large glasses of milk daily, because I believe 1½ pints of milk a day is highly desirable of not essential to maintain good nutrition.

The New Zealand doctors did not mean to imply that milk plays no part in the building of good teeth in the young infant. Their condemnation of milk in the diet of older children, youths and adults was not warranted on any evidence they brought forward.

'POP' GO TEETH!

I don't know about customs in New Zealand, but I assume pop (colored, sweetened, flavored, carbonated beverage) of one kind or another is as popular among the youngsters there as it is in America. Occasional indulgence in pop, say on the child's birthday, or at a picnic or the circus, is harmless—although lemonade, orange juice or other fruit or vegetable juice drink is always more refreshing and more healthful, in my judgment.

But youngsters who are permitted to guzzle pop as a regular daily habit get a poor start in the world and generally suffer from malnutrition. The child who is permitted to get a large part of his or her daily calories from sugar has little or no interest in or appetite for more substantial food.

Each glass of pop, containing perhaps a tablespoonful of sugar, gives the youngster a brief "lift" for a spurt of energy which lasts a few minutes. Then when the sugar is burned up, the youngster quickly loses interest in the game and instead of playing the game or doing things himself joins the great American majority, who sit back and "relax" as they watch others play.

Our public schools train children for make-believe life. Watch the show staged by the local high school cheering section, cheer leaders, drum majorettes etc., on any occasion when they can perform before a captive audience. Compute the cost of, say, 10 per cent of school time which is wasted to train the youngsters for these monotonous performances.

In the school time wasted in this way, it might be possible to teach high school pupils how to read and write.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Men Are Planning Ahead for Hot, Open Shirt Days

For the last three years, The Pontiac Press "open shirt policy" for men on hot days has set the limit at 90 degrees. We had very few days that were 90 last summer.

★ ★ ★

But it was awful hot and it was very sticky and a lot of us felt cheated at having the mercury just below the 90 mark so many times.

★ ★ ★

My group figures you ought to lower the limit to 85 and our wives agree. What chance is there for you and President Paul Sparrow to make it official at 85?

P. S. Are Paul Sparrow and Guy Sparrow any relation?

Neighborhood Group

Hey! When does that "no necktie" deal start? Is The Press going to support the suffering men in 1958?

Anxious

(Editors Note: Boys, shortly we'll "take you to our leader" and go into a huddle with President Sparrow. If Paul hasnt "gone soft" and knocked off 50 or 60 pounds, he'll probably favor the new limit. However, without an official pronouncement from the throne, it would be strictly illegal to crash the gates. The Emily Post of Pontiac's masculine styling must be consulted.

And to answer the other question, Paul Sparrow is the pappy of Guy Sparrow, the 1958 basketball rookie sensation with New York.)

Man Offers Tips on Recklessness

A reckless driver never seems to get very far, for beside him in the next seat death rides with him. Sooner or later he'll meet his doom and will wind up in the morgue or a hospital room. And when he speeds down the highway, he'll have no pity for one like you, so while you're out on a pleasure trip, I hope you'll take this little tip. Watch all stop lights and cross walks, for there are always some crazier than you.

Says Socialism Is Our Answer

When I see the lines of unemployed men and women trying to get work, on relief and some drawing unemployment, it's unbelievable it could happen in this great country of ours. Younger people are getting a sample of what we had in 1929. I thought this was free enterprise. If that's so, it's time for a change, because we have Hoover's days back. The only answer to wars and depressions is socialism. God speed the day.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

What's Answer to Her Problem?

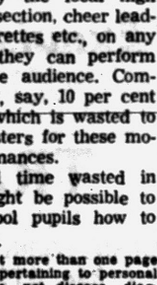

Donna is heartbroken. She first insisted on a divorce when she heard her husband's confession. But she was miserable when her husband left, yet she says she is just as miserable when he is back at home. They have two children who likewise have a stake in Donna's final decision. You readers be the jury today.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Y-313: Donna Q., aged 26, has been married eight years.

★ ★ ★

"'Dr. Crane, I am desperate,'" she began and started to cry. "for my husband confessed last week that he had been unfaithful.

DR. CRANE

"We have two lovely children and had been so happy. Now he says he has venereal disease and the doctor asked him to bring me in for a medical test, too.

"Should I divorce my husband and try to forget about him? I made him leave last week, but I was miserable, so in a couple of days I asked him to come back home.

"But I can't forget his affair with this girl he met at a tavern. Dr. Crane, have you ever run into this type of case before?"

YOUTHFUL EGOTISM

Notice Donna's final question? Because of her limited experience, she thinks her dilemma is very unique, and even wonders if I have ever run into it before!

★ ★ ★

Alas, doctors meet it thousands of times, and I have unfortunately had it brought to my attention tens of thousands of times because of the vast number of you readers who write for advice.

That is one reason why your progressive editor runs this clinical column in everyday psychology, for I can offer the mature judgment gleaned from many years of wide experience and thus bolster teenagers, as well as young married people like Donna.

Donna says she can never forget. And she is sincere in thinking she can't.

But the affair was brought to her attention only a week ago. She hasn't had time to forget!

Like the person who has lost a loved one by death, Donna feels inconsolable and incapable of forgetting.

But with wide experience, we all learn to forget and compromise and make new adjustments.

"ADVICE" COLUMNS

"Advice" columns render a great service by helping widen the limited experience of young people "vicariously."

That means you can read yourself into the problems of the other patients whom I discuss in this column and profit from their mistakes without having to suffer the actual experience, personally.

Jesus said when a man smites us on one cheek, we should turn the other also, which means we are to give an erring person at least a second chance.

And when a wife is willing to forgive her mate's accidental mistake, she should not nag him about it forever.

Donna admitted she has been nagging her husband every day until he quarreled with her and finally told her to "Shut up!"

Even if a person makes an error, he doesn't want to be reminded forever about it! Donna will ruin all the value of her forgiveness if she becomes a chronic shrew and nags her mate continually.

Another lesson derived from this case is the evil effect of liquor on happy homes. As high as 50 per cent of venereal disease starts with a liquor bottle! And in some army camps the figure has exceeded 90 per cent.

So abhor liquor if you wish to play the batting averages and maintain a permanently happy home for yourselves and your children.

A third lesson to be derived from this case, is the fact that a wife may endanger her home by her sins of omission. Donna's husband is guilty of a sin of commission.

But Donna isn't guiltless, as note tomorrow's follow-up. For a satisfied husband seldom succumbs to the wiles of other sirens!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Sentences 3 Youths for Possessing Beer

Three youths arrested for possession of beer pleaded guilty this morning in Pontiac Municipal Court.

★ ★ ★

Arrested Sunday afternoon were John Golberg, 17, of Detroit, Donald Budnick, 19, of Detroit, and Norman Painfetti, 17, of Warren.

Judge Cecil B. McCallum sentenced them to a $35 fine and two days in jail or nine days.

★ ★ ★

Another minor in possession of beer who was arrested Sunday night also pleaded guilty. Richard W. Bondshuh, 19, of Royal Oak, was sentenced to $35 fine and two days or nine days by Judge McCallum.

U. of M. Doctors Equipped With Pocket Radios

ANN ARBOR (INS) — A device similar to a two-way wrist radio is being used at the University of Michigan Medical Center for assembling emergency and security personnel.

★ ★ ★

Key personnel at the hospital carry small shirt pocket receiving sets which emit a steady high tone similar to the "beep" noise on a telephone recording machine when the hospital switchboard operator signals.

★ ★ ★

The receiver goes to the nearest telephone as soon as he hears the tone, calls the operator and gets the message.

Light Vote May Stop Stassen

Trend in Pennsylvania Favors His Opponent for GOP Nomination

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—The prospect of a light vote may hamper Harold Stassen's chances of winning the Republican nomination for governor on an independent ticket in Pennsylvania's primary election tomorrow.

A light vote in a Pennsylvania primary traditionally favors candidates backed by state political organizations.

Stassen is running against the Republican organization candidate, Arthur T. McGonigle of Reading, head of one of the largest pretzel firms in the country. Williams S. Livengood Jr., former state secretary of internal affairs, also is making an independent bid for the GOP gubernatorial nomination.

Pittsburgh Mayor David L. Lawrence, 68, is the Democratic organization candidate for governor. His chief opposition is Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman, running on an independent ticket.

Rep. Hugh Scott (R) of Philadelphia is running with McGonigle for the U.S. Senate seat being vacated by the retirement of Sen. Edward Martin (R) next January. Weldon B. Heyburn, former state auditor general, is Stassen's running mate for the Senate. Heyburn has been inactive since he suffered a slight stroke at the beginning of the campaign. Livengood is running alone.

★ ★ ★

Gov. George Leader is the Democratic state party choice for the Senate nomination. Clarence P. Bowers, Reading battery manufacturer, is opposing him on the Furman ticket.

★ ★ ★

Stassen, 51, was governor of Minnesota three times. An issue during a listless campaign has been his Pennsylvania residence. He also was President Eisenhower's disarmament aide and in 1956 he strongly opposed Vice President Nixon's bid for renomination at the Republican National Convention.

The state GOP leadership looks favorably on Nixon as a 1960 presidential candidate and a Republican governor would wield great influence over the direction the Pennsylvania delegation takes in 1960.

★ ★ ★

McGonigle, also 51, was tapped by the state leadership as a new face to spark a GOP rally from defeats in the 1954 gubernatorial election and the 1956 senatorial election. He has never run for political office before.

Credit Leader Tells Detroit Convention

Expect 10 Million Car Sales in 10 Years

DETROIT (UP)—A credit expert says the next decade will bring a year in which 10 million new cars will be sold and in which there will be at least 1½ million annual new housing starts.

Henry W. Heimann, executive vice president of the National Assn. of Credit Men, made the group's 62nd annual convention forecase in an address to the group's 62nd annual convention today.

Heimann also defended new model policies of the car industry, saying:

"I have faith in the management of automobile companies. I do not agree with the general statement that automobile management has paid little attention to the customers' desires.

"The customer in the last analysis has the final word on the cost and design of the car, and you can be sure managements are seriously desirous of pleasing the customer."

He said the nation's auto companies, alert to customer wishes, in the future will produce cars more in keeping with existing highway facilities, cost of insurance, parking facilities and horsepower.

Heimann said "credit, more than atomic discoveries, celestial excursions or depth-probing into the seas, will remake the world in the next 50 years."

He criticized as false the "philosophy of balancing a budget by greater tax collections rather than the historic method of reducing spending."

"Our growth in a normal year provides an increase in tax collections equivalent to an amount of money that would permit a 7 per cent reduction in all personal income tax," he said, "unless we proceed to a plan of trusteeing these growth taxes for reduction of debt and lowering of tax rates we will spend our way to economic enslavement."

"We must realize that a lower tax rate frequently carries its own reward by expanding business, creating new commerce and actually yielding more dollars at the reduced rate."

★ ★ ★

He also said sound credit conditions can do as much as all the missiles and all the military effort to liquidate communism, "for sound credit in a free world brings a decent standard of living."

Makes Strange Bedfellows

WASHINGTON (UP)—The cold war against Communist dictatorship of the left makes strange bedfellows for the United States, which preaches democracy but does business with dictatorships of the right.

The immediate effect may be to limit the spread of communism. The long-range effect can be bad. For example: in Latin America which has thrown out seven strongmen since 1955 and has three left. The effect can be bad elsewhere too.

This is why Vice President Nixon — home after being stoned and spat upon in Latin America — has reportedly decided to recommend this kind of American policy in the future:

To be stiff and formal in dealing with Latin-American strongmen but friendly with democratic regimes.

In the meantime this country has close ties with dictatorships abroad. For example: it does business with the Spanish dictator, Francisco Franco, because it wants to keep American bases in Spain.

The United States, anxious to keep the Middle East oil lines open, only last year gave a warm reception to the King of Saudi Arabia, who gathers in all the American money he can for his family. Little trickles down to his people.

Nixon received his worst and most violent treatment in Venezuela. Only last January that nation threw out its dictator, Gen. Marcos Perez Jimenez, who then was given asylum in the United States.

In 1953 Milton Eisenhower, the President's brother, made a Latin-American good will tour similar to Nixon's this year. When he reached Venezuela he announced he was carrying a personal message to Jimenez from President Eisenhower.

That same year in Colombia the U. S. Embassy gave a banquet honoring Milton Eisenhower and the Colombian strongman, President Gustavo Rojas Pinilla. Pinilla was thrown out in 1957.

That same year in Peru Eisenhower and President Manuel A. Odria, military dictator, toasted each other in champagne. Odria was thrown out later.

But the strongmen are still going strong in Cuba (President Fulgencio Batista); in Paraguay (President Alfred Stroessner, military dictator); and the Dominican Republic (Rafael Trujillo).

In the meantime the Communists — blithely ignoring the fact that their regime any place they establish it is a dictatorship — make propaganda against this country for its footsie-playing with dictatorships of the right.

But the American problem goes even deeper. For example, in its desire to keep France in the Western fold it has had to watch the colonial-minded French unsuccessfully try to hold Indochina.

And this country, advocate of democracy and by the very nature of democracy a foe of colonialism, has had to sit on the fence while the French sought to crush the revolt of the Algerian natives.

Yet this Algerian effort has now brought France — because of the internal pressures — to the edge of chaos today.

Curtice Condemns Foregoing '59 Models

DETROIT (UP) — General Motors President Harlow H. Curtice is in disagreement with Senator Arthur Watkins (R-Utah) over his suggestion to forego new auto model designs this year.

Watkins proposed the auto makers could pass along resultant savings by not re-tooling.

"I have heard it argued, particularly in times like these, that it would be better to forego changes and reduce prices," Curtice stated. "To me, this is a little like suggesting that a magazine offer the same issue two months in succession but reduce its price the second month."

Curtice said the yearly change over to new designs gives the American motorist the desire to buy.

Hidden Weapon Charge Brings 3-5 Year Term

For carrying a concealed .32 caliber revolver in his car when stopped in Oak Park Jan. 22, Henry J. Dombrowski, 30, of Detroit, was sentenced this morning by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty to from 3 to 5 years in the State Prison of Southern Michigan at Jackson.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac State Doctor Dies

Harold Houseman, 36, Succumbs to Illness; Burial in New Jersey

Dr. Harold S. Housman, 36, director of the psychology department at Pontiac State Hospital, died Saturday evening at Sinai Hospital, Detroit, where he had been ill for about six weeks. He resided at 2550 Ivanhoe St., West Bloomfield Township.

Born in New York City, Dr. Housman had been at Pontiac State Hospital for the past five years. He graduated from New York University in 1946 and received his master of arts and doctorate degrees from the University of Michigan.

Dr. Housman was past president of the Psychologists of Michigan Civil Service, and a member of both the American Psychological Assn. and the Michigan Psychological Assn. He was a veteran of World War II, having served in the U.S. Army.

Surviving are his wife, Charlotte; a son, Mark, 3; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Hausman, and a brother, Marvin, all of New York City.

Service will be held tomorrow at the Blau Funeral Home at 410 Grand St., New York City. Burial will be in Degel Yehudo Cemetery, Deans, N.J. There will be no service in the Detroit area where the Ira Kaufman Funeral Home has been in charge of funeral arrangements.

Deaths Elsewhere

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Louis Ferrari, 79, retired Bank of America vice president and counsel, died Saturday of a heart attack. He had played a leading role in organizing the giant Transamerica Corp. of the Bank of America.

★ ★ ★

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—Dr. Gerald M. Cline, 61, former associate professor of pediatrics at the University of Illinois, died Saturday. He formerly lived in Bloomington, Ill.

★ ★ ★

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Samuel P. McNaught, 75, who retired in 1953 after 45 years of temperance work, died Saturday. He had served as head of the Anti-Saloon League in Indiana, Iowa and Ohio and later was superintendent of the Temperance League of Ohio.

Air News Analyst Elmer Davis Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Elmer Davis, long-time radio-TV news analyst, died yesterday of the effects of a stroke he suffered two months ago. He was 68.

He interrupted his broadcasting work during World War II to serve as chief of the government's Office of War Information. In addition, he wrote novels, short stories and essays, and worked for the New York Times for 10 years.

Davis classed himself as a liberal and he helped found the Americans for Democratic Action in 1947. That organization was winding up its 11th annual convention here when Davis died at George Washington University Hospital.

★ ★ ★

Davis, born in Aurora, Ind., is survived by his widow, the former Florence MacMillan; a daughter, Caroline Ann of Chicago; and a son, Robert Lloyd Davis, an assistant professor of mathematics at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville.

Judge's Attorney at Washington to See Supreme Court

Huff in Detroit, But Still Fighting

DETROIT (AP)—Circuit Judge Eugene Snow Huff was in Detroit today obedient to the State Supreme Court. But a fight before the U.S. Supreme Court was foreshadowed.

Bowing to firm directive, Judge Huff came here last night from Saginaw prepared to "carry out my assignment" though unyielding on what he called "principle."

★ ★ ★

The 47-year-old jurist, engaged in a history-making joust with his superiors of the state bench, repeated that he will carry his fight to

"I can't describe my feelings about being here now except to say that whatever happens I'm ready for it," he said.

Chief Justice John R. Dethmers of Michigan told Huff last week he could clear himself of a second contempt count by accepting the Detroit assignment.

CHANGES MIND

At first Huff said he would ignore that order also. But he changed his mind Saturday after conferring with his attorney.

★ ★ ★

Huff has been required to turn his court over to Circuit Judge Timothy C. Quinn of Caro to clear up an "above average" backlog of cases on the Saginaw docket.

The State Supreme Court at Lansing will go ahead with its examination of the Saginaw Circuit Court docket as announced a week ago, Dethmers said today.

Court Administrator Meredith H. Doyle was directed to examine a backlog of more than 300 cases pending in the Saginaw circuit for two years or longer.

the highest court of the land with a request for review.

With his own counsel now in Washington, he already has undertaken this.

Friday, Judge Huff was convicted by the court at Lansing of contempt and was fined $250. He had defied the court's order to take a temporary assignment in Detroit while a backlog of cases in his Saginaw County jurisdiction was to be cleared.

PREPARED FOR COURT

The mild - spoken jurist's attorney, Robert J. Curry of Saginaw, is in Washington prepared to go before the Supreme Court.

Before leaving Michigan, Curry said he hoped to be able to present the Judge Huff case tomorrow.

At the root of the dispute is Judge Huff's contention that the state court has no right to take him away from his constitutents' legal problems in Saginaw County.

★ ★ ★

Upon arriving here last night Judge Huff said "I'm here to carry out my assignment."

Air Crash Kills 65 in Casablanca

4 Escape as Sabena Liner With Bad Engine Misses Runway

CASABLANCA, Morocco (AP)—Sixty-five persons died in flames yesterday when a Belgian Sabena airliner crashed while landing for repairs to a bad engine. Many of those killed were returning from vacations and visits to the World's Fair in their native Belgium.

Only four passengers escaped through a hatchway before the plane exploded in flames. At least eight of the dead were children. No Americans were listed on the manifest.

It was the worst crash in the airline's history.

The four-engine DC6B had taken off from Brussels with the Belgian Congo as its final destination. Heading south from Portugal, the pilot radioed that one of his engines was vibrating and he planned to land at Casablanca for repairs. He jettisoned gasoline before reaching Casablanca's Cazes Airport.

Eyewitnesses said the plane's approach was bad. The pilot gunned the engines but the big ship did not respond. It missed the runway, plowed through a building and came to a stop against another airport structure.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain, Stops Itching as it Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Rules School Buses to Carry ALL Pupils

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — The New Jersey Supreme Court today ruled public school buses carrying children to junior and senior high schools may also carry children to parochial elementary schools.

The court voted 6-1 to reverse a ruling by the State Board of Education. The case involved a junior-senior high school in Berkeley.

In its opinion the court said state law permits regional school buses to carry parochial school children. Previous court rulings make no distinction between the grades involved, the opinion said, and the Legislature has done nothing to make the law more restrictive.

He said everyone in the case agreed that carrying parochial school children at public expense was constitutional.

Travel Spending Doubles

NEW YOR K— The total expenditure of Americans traveling outside the United States has more than doubled since 1947, when the figure was $573,000,000. Europe, however, has more than quadrupled its 1947 American-tourist earnings of $107,000,000.

Speaking in San Francisco

Graham Foretells Doom

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Evangelist Billy Graham, who began the fourth week of his San Francisco crusade yesterday, takes his customary day of rest today.

Speaking to an overflow crowd of nearly 20,000 at the Cow Palace, he warned of the end of the world, chided churches for failing to give "both warning and hope and then offered some hope of his own.

★ ★ ★

"The Bible says that when the conditions that were present in Noah's time are present again, God will come to judge the world. These conditions are here now," he said, "but we are living in the days of grace in which God says 'You can be saved' by having faith in Christ."

Neither scientists nor college degrees can save the world, he told a Stanford University audience before his Cow Palace talk.

"Some of our finest brains and intellects are being given to the creation of the weapons of war instead of to the weapons of peace," he said. "We don't need more Ph. D.'s, but more Christ."

The evangelist said he didn't know when God's judgment would come to the world, although "it can come at any time. The church has failed to give the people both warning and hope. This is where the Communists have us over a barrel — they promise a new world."

★ ★ ★

Some 671 people stepped forward at Graham's plea that there was "never a more convenient time than now to make your decision for Christ."

College Students Riot for Beer on Florida Campus

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (UP) — More than 1,000 men and women students of University of Florida staged a five-hour riot Saturday night on the campus.

★ ★ ★

Three students were charged with aggravated assault. The others were charged with disorderly conduct.

★ ★ ★

The demonstration followed a police crackdown on the sale of beer to students under 21. The rioters chanted "We want beer." Officers dispersed the mob by firing tear gas pellets.

Anyone for Tennis?

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (UP)—Police used tennis rackets to swat down and dispatch a band of bats that invaded the Garlock Nursing Home. Having used their best forehand and backhand strokes to bring them down, police explained tennis rackets were used because the bats couldn't feel them coming.

Missing Her Jewels Valued at $20,000

OJAI, Calif. (UP) — Police said $20,000 worth of jewelry belonging to former actress Vera Ralston Yates has disappeared mysteriously.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

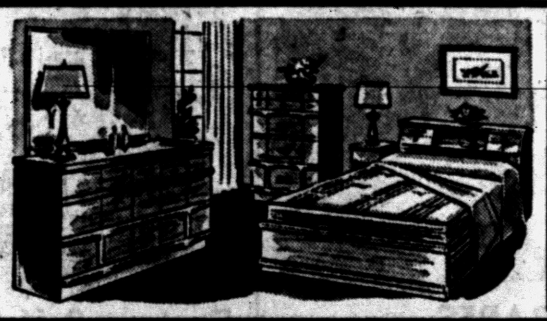

Police Chief James Alcorn said he was at a loss to explain how the gems disappeared since two huge watchdogs, especially trained to guard property, were in the Yates cottage at the time. He added that there was no evidence of a break-in.

Upset Mother Kills Daughters

Shoots Two Youngsters in Texas Home Before Granddad Takes Pistol

HENDERSON, Tex. (AP) — Dist. Atty. H. H. Wilburn said murder charges were being prepared today against a divorced mother whose two small daughters were shot and killed in their sleep early yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Thelma Crelie, 34, the mother, told officers she had been worrying over finances and family troubles, and decided the children would be better off dead, Wilburn said.

The little girls—Cecilia Ann, 11, and Sandra Lucinda, 10 — both were shot in the temple at the farm home of Mrs. Crelie's father L. C. Johenkin, 12 miles northwest of here in east Texas.

Johenkin heard the shots and took a revolver from Mrs. Crelie, Wilburn said.

Another daughter, Mary Catherine, 5, was not harmed.

Mrs. Crelie's former husband Bill is an oil field worker near here at Kilgore, Tex. He had charged her with assault several weeks ago, claiming she shot at him during an argument. Crelie said he was visiting the children with court permission at the time.

Wilburn said Mrs. Crelie, in her statement to officers, told of preparing for some time a 34-page leter recounting her troubles. It was found in a Bible.

Mrs. Crelie told Wilburn her only regret was that her father seized the pistol before she could take her own life.

Boy's Monarch Tule Jim Wins Frog Hop Title

Tule Jim spanned 14 ft 5½ inches in three hops yesterday and won the 32nd annual international jumping frog derby, which is based on Mark Twain's yarn, "The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calavaras County."

Tule Jim landed two fet short of the world mark of 16 feet 10 inches set in 1954 by a lady frog named Lucky.

Owned by Chuck Basacker, Tule Jim was only an inch and a quarter ahead of his stablemate Maggie, owned by Basacker's son Larry. Maggie was followed by Tule Pete (no known relation to Tule Jim), who leaped 13 feet 7 3-8 inches for third place. Pete is the pride of Mike Voitich, Stockton, Calif.

Qualifying trial jumps don't count, otherwise the record would have been broken this year by several frogs.

The best an imported frog could manage was the 12 feet 10 inches hopped off by Veni Vidi Vici, a South African frog entered by Piem Eourie and Mrs. Teuns Botha of Elsburg, Transvaal.

Rolli, a frog from Sunne, Sweden, did 4 feet 9 inches. Rolli may have been imcompletely recovered from laying 5,000 eggs here during training last week.

Believes a Proper Diet Can Cut Delinquency

★ ★ ★

Dr. Milton Tobias told a group of nutrition experts that a study of 1,100 third-graders showed many were too tired—because of dietary deficiencies—to stay in school.

★ ★ ★

He added that delinquency problems of the future could be avoided by making the child physically and mentally fit through proper diet.

Sees 80 Million Jobs Within Next 10 Years

NEW YORK (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Weeks said today the U. S. economy should provide 80 million jobs and a 600-billion-dollar annual production rate within 10 years.

But business is the key to revival and future expansion, he said in an address prepared for an economic mobilization conference of businessmen, organized by the American Management Assn.

He said the government is determined to be "a stepping stone and not a stumbling block" in the path of recovery from the business recession.

President Eisenhower will address the conference tomorrow, in what the White House has described as a major speech on the state of the economy. Businessmen have expected him to provide some substantial clues to the administration's thinking on possible stimulants to employment, sales and production.

Weeks said the prospect of great growth is clear to economists. Population will rise from 173 million to 205½ million in 1968, he said, and employment will climb from the present 66,700,000 civilian and military job holders to 80½ million employed men and women.

Total national output, in terms of 1957 dollars, will rise from the present rate of 416 billion dollars to 600 billion dollars, he said, while personal income per capita will climb from the present annual rate of $1,931, to $2,310.

★ ★ ★

"Sure, we see some weaknesses now — and with the help of business, we are getting rid of them," he said. "But with equally sharp eyes we also can see our nation's great strength and its great future possibilities."

Venezuela Fears General Strike

2 Civilian Members of Junta Resign; Demand Nationwide Election

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — The ruling government junta grappled today with the most serious political crisis since it seized power from Gen. Marcos Perez Jimenez's dictatorship in January.

The junta's two civilian members have resigned without explanation.

The three remaining military members were threatened with a general strike if they showed signs of breaking the junta's promise to hold nationwide elections.

"The people will go into the streets in a general strike just as they did in January," said Fabricio Ojeda, whose Junta Patriotica was one of the key civilian groups in the January revolution.

Ojeda said the strike could come if the government command remained entirely military or if the two civilians who resigned, Eugenio Mendoza and Blas Lamberti, are replaced with reactionary elements.

However, he expressed confidence that liberal civilians would be appointed to the government junta, which now consists of Adm. Wolfgang Larrazabal; Col. Pedro Quevedo, chairman; and Col. Carlos Luis Araque. They have promised to hold elections but have not set a date.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, Col. Miguel Ramon de la Rosa, former governor of the federal district of Caracas, told newsmen seven high officials of the Perez Jimenez regime were arrested during the weekend and apparently charged with planning a political upheaval.

★ ★ ★

Those arrested included a former vice president of the Chamber of Deputies, a former senator and a millionaire banker, said De la Rosa, who was fired as district governor Friday. Informed sources said the junta removed him because of the riots against U. S. Vice President Nixon last Tuesday.

Omega Mu Sigma Sorority met Sunday morning for its annual May breakfast, held in the Colonial Room of Hotel Waldron. Mrs. W. V. LaPlante and Mrs. Leonard Coster, new members, were honored.

★ ★ ★

Speaker was Mrs. Earl Floyd, child welfare worker from the Oakland County Juvenile Court. She spoke on the topic of delinquent and neglected children and the manner in which the cases are cared for.

Mrs. Floyd outlined the new facilities which Oakland County has provided for children who have been before the court.

★ ★ ★

She stated that no child is confined to a detention home until the case has been heard by a referee and then proper disposition made by a judge.

Program chairman Mrs. John Jadwin of Clarkston (left) and Mrs. Kuga Kojima of Dubay drive, secretary of the group, check over their plans for the Sunday morning event.

Concert Set by Women Vocalists

Pontiac Women's Chorus under the direction of George Scott, will present its 26th annual spring concert Wednesday evening at Crofoot School. The program, which is scheduled to begin at 8:15 p.m., will be the third invitational performance held by the group.

Mrs. Carl Leonard, Mrs. John Kunert and Mr. Scott will be soloists. The chorus will be accompanied by Donald Green and Marshall Rice, flutists, when they present a highlight of the program, Bach's "Sheep and Lambs May Safely Graze."

Mrs. Paul McKibben is accompanist for the group. Following the program, a coffee hour will be held.

MR. and MRS. FRANK KINNEY

Celebrating their 59th wedding anniversary with an open house Sunday from 1 until 5 p.m. in the Raeburn street home of Mrs. Frank Souler will be Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kinney. Their daughters include Mrs. Souler, Mrs. Ethel Preseau of Drayton Plains and Mrs. Lyle Schell of Sterling. Sons include Mark Kinney of Mt. Clemens street, Ellsworth Kinney of Atlanta and John Kinney of Ortonville.

Dear Abby....

Home Shines With Love

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a teenaged girl who likes a teenaged boy. I live with my grandparents, whom I love, because my parents are both dead. My grandmother keeps telling me to bring my boy friend home and not to meet him on a street corner but I meet him on the corner anyway because I am ashamed of the house I live in.

ABBY

"It is old and shabby and not in a very nice part of town. I think he would like to meet my grandparents, but I haven't got the nerve to ask him over. Help me, Abby!"

ANNA

DEAR ANNA: You need never be ashamed of a home that has love in it . . . no matter where it is, or how plainly furnished. If he is a nice boy, it won't matter to him, either. Invite him.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: That letter from the lady who said after umpteen years of baking rhubarb pies her husband suddenly blew his top and declared he never liked them, hit close to home.

"My husband pulled the same trick on me with chocolate cake. I cured him in a hurry when I very politely turned the cake upside down on his head and told him he either eats what I put in front of him or goes hungry. We've been married 24 years, so I guess it worked!"

CHOCOLATE CAKE BAKER

DEAR BAKER: I don't recommend this to the average wife, but if this worked with you, your husband sure does "take the cake." Lady.

"DEAR ABBY: I will make a long story short. I did wrong. I am 22 and the man in the case is 36 and married. I knew he was married but I thought he loved me. I am going to have his child.

"He says that I can't nail him for child support because I was of age when I went out with him and I also knew he was a married man. Is this a fact? Please reply and give me a clue as to where there is a home for unwed mothers who have no money."

GONE WRONG

DEAR GONE: This married man is responsible for child support and the law will make this clear to him if he has any doubts about it. Your nearest Florence Crittenton Home will help you. Or contact your local Community Chest.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: My husband wants to spend every Friday evening with his folks and it is wearing me down. His mother can't even speak English well enough to hold a conversation and she has been in this country for amost 40 years. They are old and we are young and we have nothing in common. How can I explain to my husband that if he wants to see his folks he should go over there alone and leave me home or drop me at a show?"

YOUNG AMERICAN

DEAR YOUNG: You can explain it to your husband, but how can you explain it to your conscience? He is trying to show proper respect and affection for his parents. If you were wise, you'd help him.

★ ★ ★

Tea table hostesses were Mrs. Elden J. Bemis, Mrs. Lester L. Dobyns, Mrs. Kenneth D. McGregor, Grace Fry, Mrs. Hugh Davisson, Joan Mcbride, Mrs. Charles McGee, Mrs. Edward A. Schirmer, Mrs. Howard B. Steggall, Mrs. Henry L. Woolfenden, Mrs. Russell Barnes and Dorothy Inglis.

Can Offer Gift Back to Donors

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: We are a group of women belonging to a bridge club. The husband of one of our members was being transferred from here to another city and we, as a group, gave her a going away present. The husband preceded the family to the new location and after looking it over decided he did not like it well enough to stay.

"He has since come back to this city where the family will stay. Would it be proper for her to keep the gift or should she return it to the club members?"

Answer: She should ask you if you wish her to return the gift, and then if you tell her to keep it she can show her appreciation by giving some sort of a party for all of you.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When a boy calls me up and asks me for a date, is it proper to ask him where we are going? I like to know beforehand so that I can dress accordingly.

"Two weeks ago a boy asked me for a date but didn't say where we were going. I got all dressed up and when he came to the house to pick me up he told me that he had two tickets for a basketball game. There was no time to change my dress so I went as I was. I felt very much out of place as everyone else was in sports clothes."

Answer: If the boy does not tell you where you are going you certainly have every right to ask him before you accept his invitation.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to know just who is supposed to sign the register at a funeral home. I have been told that close relatives do not sign it. Is this right? I thought that everyone who came to the funeral home signed the register — close relatives as well as friends and acquaintances."

Answer: The immediate family would not sign but other relatives as well as friends and acquaintances should to show that they came to the funeral home.

Spaeth-Ward Nuptials Are Solemnized

Ann Ward, daughter of Harold Lee Ward of Ottawa drive and the late Mrs. Ward, was married Saturday to George Link Spaeth, son of Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Benjamin Spaeth of Philadelphia.

The bride wore a dress of heavy antique ivory satin with a very full skirt pleated from the waistline, with oval neckline and small leaves of satin appliqued on the bodice and forming short sleeves.

VEIL IS HEIRLOOM

The wedding veil of rosepointe lace belonged to the bride's great-grandmother, and the small wreath of orange blossoms which encircled her head, was the same one used on her mother's wedding veil.

Bridesmaids included Eleanor Lea Spaeth of Philadelphia, niece of the bridegroom; Sherrill Diggs of San Francisco, Anne Fairburn of Mendham, N.J., Mary Morrision of Chatham, N.J., Barbara Barker, Virginia Beresford and Anne Coulter of Bloomfield Hills.

All were gowned in full length dresses of light ivory silk organza with oval necklines, short sleeves and small crowns of ivy on their heads. They carried bouquets of ivy and alstromaria.

★ ★ ★

Elizabeth Palmer DeVine, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a short dress of light ivory silk organza which hung full from the smocking around the shoulders. On her head was a tiny wreath of ivy.

ATTENDS BRIDEGROOM

★ ★ ★

The reception was held in the century-old Huron street home of the bride's grandmother, the late Mrs. Palmer Bradfield, where the bride's mother and father were married and where her great-aunt, Virena Palmer, was married. It was the home of the bride's great-great grandfather, Charles Henry Palmer.

★ ★ ★

For traveling, the new Mrs. Spaeth wore a suit of light blue wool with navy accessories. The couple will live in Boston, where Mr. Spaeth is a student at Harvard Medical School.

★ ★ ★

The bride attended Kingswood School Cranbrook and Smith College. She is a member of Sigma Gamma and a provisional member of the Junior League. The bridegroom is a graduate of Germantown Friends School and Yale University where he was a member of Elihu and Phi Beta Kappa.

MRS. GEORGE LINK SPAETH

Married Saturday in Grace Lutheran Church were Virginia Lee Flath and Paul T. Odell. She is the daughter of the Curtis Flaths of South Winding drive, and his parents are the Paul R. Odells of West Huron street.

MRS. PAUL T. ODELL

Virginia Flath Becomes Bride of Paul T. Odell

A gown fashioned of eyelet embroidered Swiss organdy over blush pink taffeta was worn by Virginia Lee Flath when she became the bride of Paul T. Odell.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Flath of South Winding drive, and Paul's parents are the Paul R. Odells of West Huron street.

IN LUTHERAN RITE

The wedding was performed at 8:30 p.m. Saturday at Grace Lutheran Church with the Rev. Richard C. Stuckmeyer officiating.

The bridal gown was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and tiny cap sleeves. The bell-shaped skirt of connecting tiers extended into a chapel-length train. Accenting the skirt was an apron-effect overskirt which gathered at the waistline in back forming a huge bustle-bow.

A heart-shaped headpiece of matching eyelet embroidered Swiss organdy secured the bride's fingertip veil of illusion, and she carried an arrangement of white roses and lilies of the valley on a prayer book.

ATTEND BRIDE

Mrs. Larry Cates was matron of honor and Mrs. Edward McManus, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Houshang Wekill of Birmingham were bridesmaids. Mary Lou Flath was her sister's junior bridesmaid.

Their gowns were fashioned alike in silk shantung along princess lines with Sabrina necklines. Floating back panels extended to the hemlines of their ballerina-length gowns.

Matching bow headpieces held tiny nose veils, and they carried identical cascade arrangements of daisies, roses and lilies of the valley.

ASSIST BRIDEGROOM

Best man was Ronald M. Slack and ushers were Frederick A. Bulman and Robert Kuklinski.

Mrs. Flath wore a dusty blue silk taffeta sheath dress for her daughter's wedding, and pink camellias were pinned to her purse. The bridegroom's mother wore a mint green sheath with a corsage of pink and white carnations.

The couple will reside on Crescent Lake road following a honeymoon in Washington, D.C., and in the state of Virginia.

Mom Can't Admit Jealousy Is Human

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

One morning an old school friend of Mrs. D.'s dropped in for lunch.

They didn't get much chance to enjoy it. Instead of attending to his creamed chicken, 5-year-old Joe kept teasing his younger brother. At dessert when he hid Toby's spoon, he had to be sent to the kitchen to finish his baked apple.

Later, apologizing for him, Mrs. D. said to her guest, "You know, kids of his age are so full of beans they have to be up to something every minute."

"Oh, he'll outgrow his jealousy of Toby," her guest said. "After all, he's lived three years as the only pebble on the beach."

Immediately Mrs. D. rejected this comfort. Flushing, she said defensively, "Oh, Joe isn't jealous of Toby! He's crazy about him. He was just showing off before company."

Yet Mrs. D. knows very well indeed that Joe is jealous of Toby. Why did she pretend he wasn't?

Because, like others among us, she has inherited a conscience that requires her to be an irreproachable person. So, as her child, poor Joe must be irreproachable, too.

This conscience is strain and a bore. It isn't even moral, forcing her as it does to deny the truth that she is subject to faults and mistakes.

It is also cruel, punishing her with panic every time Joe's faulty jealousy demonstrates that he is a human being instead of the faultless little monster her wicked conscience tells her that she is entitled to.

As he will increasingly demonstrate that he is a human being capable of bad feelings as well as good ones, she'd better start right now asking herself these questions? "Can I trust a conscience that tells me I have no problems? Why does it deny me the right to perplexities and failures when everyone else in the world experiences them? What kind of conscience is it that requires me to be superior to the rest of the human race?"

The answers are very vital to Mrs. D. If she doesn't get on to the wickedness of her conscience, it will not only whip her with panic every time she fails it but start to infect Joe, too.

Already he's so ashamed of his jealousy that he has to express it in furtive teasing instead of in open and honest protest.

Paradoxical, but only tall figures are flattered in high crowns. They make short women, through contrast, seem shorter. Moderation for petites.

As skirts shorten, hat crowns go higher. More brim and higher crown balances the noticeably shorter hems. However, delicate, dainty features and the petite figure must not let the hat overpower her size.

Keeping Mind Busy Defeats Worry Habit

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Chronic worry penalizes folks by causing them to exist in a state of constant apprehensiveness. Even when they are not actively worrying they live in a fog of vague uncertainty. They are jumpy.

It is easy to say, "Replace an unhappy thought with a happy one." It is easy to say and harder to do—but it CAN be done. We learned the worry habit through practice and we can unlearn it the same way. In this way we can create a beneficial habit.

ANTIDOTE

Many experts feel that it is beneficial to discuss our troubles with someone. This of course should be someone we can trust and who also has emotional stability and good judgment. This may be a member of your family, a close friend, your minister or physician or a counselor.

If you are a victim of the worry habit, see to it that most of your time is occupied so that there will be no temptation to mull over your trials and tribulations. Throw yourself wholeheartedly into hard work or keen interests.

If you have any idea of going through life on the wings of vitality, of building up a health reserve with which to meet future crises, or of remaining youthful long past the usual age for deterioration, you MUST give up the worry habit!

The house we live in happens to have extremely high ceilings. The other day a guest remarked about this and asked if I had ever heard the old superstition that those who grow up in houses with high ceilings will be tall, while those who mature in dwellings with low ceilings will be short in stature.

I had never heard this one. I often wonder where such ideas, as well as the jokes we hear, all start.

However, this did bring to my mind the thought that we must have high ceilings in our minds and hearts if we are to grow tall in spiritual and emotional stature. So long as we are crowded by the low ceilings of negative thoughts, selfishness, envy, sensitiveness or irritability and dourness, our personalities and outlook are apt to be petty and stifling.

NEED PRIVACY

Many complex family situations, especially those in which several generations are living under the same roof, would have been carried off gracefully if there had been a little more space. We all require some privacy for emotional health.

Of course it is not possible for everyone to have desirable space, but everyone can look as high as the sky and as far as the farest horizon. Take time to look up physically as well as emotionally. The flowers you plant in your yard give you another vista as does the picture you hang on the wall and any sunflooded window you may have.

Provide yourself with as many vistas as you can, but always remember that you can be as tall as you want to be, no matter how low the ceilings of your house are!

If you would like my leaflet "Worry" send a stamped-self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 64. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Three Generations Used Sorghum Cake Recipe

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Today's recipe is one that has come down in the Skaggs' family for three generations. It is for a sorghum cake, one that keeps very well.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. James Skaggs belongs to an Extension club. She has two small children. Sewing and gardening are her hobbies.

SORGHUM CAKE
By Mrs. James Skaggs

1 cup sugar
½ cup shortening
2 eggs
2 cups sifted flour
1 cup sorghum or dark molasses
2 teaspoons soda
1 cup boiling water
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
2 teaspoons vanilla

Put all ingredients except hot water into a bowl. Pour in hot water and stir until mixture is smooth. It will be thin. Bake about one hour at 350 degrees. Use a 9x13 greased pan.

May Convince Boys to Veto Going Steady

By RUTH MILLETT

Mothers the country over seem to have had little luck in persuading their teen-age daughters that a girl misses a lot of fun by going steady when she is still in high school.

The girls have a mother-proof argument. They just say, "If you don't go steady you have to wait around hoping some leftover boy no girl is going steady with will ask you for a date. If you go steady you know you'll have a date for everything that comes along."

But if the fathers of the country really put their minds to it, they might be able to sell their sons on the idea that going steady isn't very bright from a teen-age boy's point of view.

Fathers might have luck with this kind of an approach: "I don't blame girls for wanting to go steady. Since they can't ask a boy for a date, they like the security of going steady with one boy so they can always be sure of having a date.

"But a boy is a sucker to tie himself down to one girl, when he could be going out with different girls every week.

BOY NEEDS FREEDOM

"A man gives up that kind of freedom when he marries and settles down to one woman for life—and that is as it should be. But he's silly if he gives up the right to date any girl he pleases before he is engaged to be married.

"So if you have as much sense as I think you have, you won't let the first girl who decides you are the best chance she has at the moment for solving all her dating problems sell you on the idea of going steady."

So far weve been working on the girls in trying to discourage steady dating. Maybe it would be a lot easier to convince the boys that going steady isn't such a smart idea.

Gasoline Blast Kills Detroit Boy at Play

DETROIT (INS) — A smal lDetroit boy lost his life and his playmate was critically burned yesterday when a can of gasoline exploded.

A third boy, hurled off a back porch by the force of the explosion, escaped serious injury.

Terry Daley, 10, was burned over 70 per cent of his body and died at 12:45 a.m. today in Deaconess Hospital.

Rickey Meal, 12, is in the same hospital with burns over more than half his body. Jimmy Henry, 12, who was standing closeby was unhurt.

★ ★ ★

The tragic accident occurred while the mother of the boy who was fatally burned was pulling weeds in her garden only 10 feet away.

New York Patrolmen to Get Pocket Radios

NEW YORK (AP)—Within a month, foot patrolmen in Central Park will have pocket-size transistor radios to help in a new drive on crime.

At first, receiving sets only will be issued to these officers. If experiments prove successful, tiny radio transmitters will be provided for two-way communication.

Warns 2 'Stay Out of Harlem'

Rep. Clayton Powell Fights Tammany Hall After Being Ousted

NEW YORK (AP) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. has told two Tammany Hall leaders to stay out of Harlem.

In a talk to 800 persons at the Harlem church where he is pastor, Powell declared yesterday: "I just think Carmine (DeSapio, head of Tammany Hall) and Hulan Jack (Manhattan's Negro borough president) better not walk up and down Harlem streets too much.

"We're not going to give them the same treatment the Communists gave Vice President Nixon and his wife, but we will make it mighty uncomfortable for them."

Last Thursday, Tammany leaders in the 16th Congressional Dist. which Powell represents, voted to read him out of the Democratic party on the ground that he is not a Democrat and supported Eisenhower because of the civil rights issue.

Powell has vowed to oppose the regular Democratic candidates in as many Negro and Puerto Rican areas as he can.

Last Saturday, Jack, who has sided with Tammany in its dispute with Powell, was booed at a Harlem rally.

After preaching a sermon at the Abyssinian Baptist Church, Powell announced that he was beginning a "political school" in the church.

He said the school will have one purpose: to train workers in the complexities of preparing and gathering valid petitions to enter his name in the Aug. 12 primaries.

No Thought of Policing Industry

NAM Issues Ethics Book

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Assn. of Manufacturers has issued an ethics guidebook for management.

The guidebook, released yesterday, mentions the AFL-CIO code of ethics for organized labor.

A spokesman for the manufacturers association said the standards for industry represent policies that have been part of the association's principles for many years.

He made it clear there is no thought of setting up any policing machinery to enforce the code.

The spokesman said the association has absolutely no control over the policies of the companies which are members.

U.S. Senate rackets investigators have been studying corruption in union-management relations for more than a year.

A foreword to the manufacturers association pamphlet says both industry and labor have "obligations to the general public, to people as individuals and to the nation's economy, which should be recognized and, when necessary, given precedence over their own organizational interests."

The manufacturers' code calls for fairness by employers in all dealings with workers, customers, creditors and suppliers. It warns that all forms of monopoly, whether practiced by capital, labor or government, are detrimental to the public interest.

The association says a worker has a right to join or refuse to join a union, and it calls for protection of this choice. It urges that collective bargaining be conducted in good faith and that both sides seek to make the negotiations fruitful.

The code urges employers to use all means in their control to stabilize employment and foster productive efficiency as a means of guaranteeing good wages and steady jobs.

It denounces mass picketing and "monopolistic combinations by labor unions, with or without employer concurrence."

The manufacturers' guidebook contains a synopsis of the ethics code adopted by the AFL-CIO, which deals with such topics as financial honesty in the conduct of union affairs, union internal democracy and the exclusion of racketeers from leadership.

★ ★ ★

The manufacturers' pamphlet presents the labor code without editorial comment. But a concluding paragraph in the digest said: "No codes have yet been adopted by the AFL-CIO which deal with the obligation of a union to society, to employers, to the economy of the nation or to the individuals who constitute its membership. As time goes on, it is to be hoped such codes will be developed."

Clarenceville Files to Break Away From Township

Fourth Petition in Farmington

Group Wants to Form City in Southeast Sector on Base Line

By JOEL RIPPA

They were received in the Oakland County Clerk's Office for the incorporation of a 4½-square mile area in the southeastern part of the township as the City of Clarenceville. Submitted by Allan C. Ingle, Farmington attorney and justice of the peace, the petitions contained more than 400 signatures.

The proposed city would be bounded on the north by 10-mile road, on the east by a portion of Inkster road and the western boundary of the proposed City of Farmington Woods, on the south by 8-Mile road and on the west by the City of Farmington.

Members of the Clarenceville Civic Assn. which pushed the incorporation say they hastened to file the petitions in an attempt to block annexation of the area to the city of Farmington by another group.

The petitions now will go to the Board of Supervisors' Boundaries Committee which will act on their validity and recommend an election date.

Last week a 15-square mile area in the northern half of the township petitioned for an election to incorporate as the City of Farmington Woods.

The Board of Supervisors already has set Aug. 5 for a referendum on Farmington's proposed annexation of eight square miles in the southwestern part of the township and the election on the incorporation of a 1½-square mile area as the village of Quaker Town.

The township would be reduced to less than six square miles if all the proposed changes are approved.

FLUFFY TAKES OVER — To test the mother cat's concern for her four adopted baby rabbits, the bunnies were taken from the cat's nest and placed nearby. Fluffy immediately went to work and brought them back one-by-one to the nest with her own off springs. Here she scampers across the yard of the Ervin Hill farm near Oxford, carrying one of the bunnies.

Cat Adopts Four Rabbits on Farm Near Oxford

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

OXFORD — Four orphaned baby rabbits have been adopted by "Fluffy," a big hearted mongrel cat with an unusually strong mother instinct.

This may have been done before by other cats, but with Fluffy, who knows the difference between her own four new kittens and the bunnies, it is definitely a life and death matter.

When the abandoned nest of baby rabbits was found on the Ervin Hill farm near Oxford recently, Mrs. Hill called the local veterinarian for advice on what to do with the brood.

She was told to sneak the bunnies into Fluffy's basket — one at a time — and eventually the cat would think they were hers. This turned out to be a waste of time.

From the moment the first bunnie was placed beside her, Fluffy took over. She washed and fed the newcomer as if she sensed its unfortunate predicament.

If the cat leaves the basket for a few minutes, there is an immediate chorus of protest-mewing from the kittens combined with squeeks from the wildlife section.

To prove Fluffy's undying devotion to her family, Mrs. Hill placed all eight kittens and rabbits on a sheet in the back yard, then put the mother cat's basket in the open-doored tool shed.

Fluffy immediately went to work. One by one, she carefully picked up each by the knap of the neck and bounded across the yard to the shed.

There was no partiality shown, it was first come, first go for which ever was nearest.

Fluffy had a little trouble getting a secure hold on the first rabbit for fear of hurting it, but finally she found the right spot back of its one-inch ears, and away she went.

What happens to the bunnies, Floppsy, Mopsey, Cottontail and Peter, as they grow older is anybody's guess, but farmer Hill has a mighty fine looking cabbage patch out back of his big red barn.

Former Ortonville Man Marries in Florida Rite

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil E. Vanderwerp of Madeira Beach, Fla., and formerly of Ortonville. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Janet E. Bonsal of Redington Beach.

Miss Carrol Vanderwerp, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Mrs. Douglas Brandt of Lake Worth, Fla., another sister of the bridegroom.

Best man was Ivan Westerby of Ortonville, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Ushers were Douglas Brandt, also of Lake Worth, Clifford Marsh of Ortonville, and Luther S. Bonsal, the bride's brother.

The bride wore a gown of imported white Chantilly lace and taffeta with a sculptured neckline and a modified infanta skirt. Her headpiece was a ringlet of imported orange blossoms with leaves of nylon tulle and a fingertip veil. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and orange blossoms.

May Transplant Human Organs in Near Future

NEW YORK—Reports made at a recent New York Academy of Sciences conference on transplantation of human tissues indicate that researchers are optimistic that they will be able to transplant organs from one human to another within a few years.

The barrier to transplantation now is not surgical technique, but the rejection of so-called foreign tissue. One discovery being explored is that an animal can be conditioned to accept grafts from a non-identical member of its species by injections, before or immediately after birth, of cells from the future donor.

Through a mechanism that is not understood, the injections are said to enable the young animal to accept alien grafts.

3 Robbers Jump Man Here, Take Wallet, Ring

Johnny Hawkins, 65, of 16 Maple St., told police he was walking by 23 Jackson St., at 1:30 a.m., when the bandits jumped him from behind.

Hawkins said his wallet contained only $2, plus miscellaneous papers. He was treated at Pontiac General Hospital.

Youth Drowns in Pit Near Utica

East Detroiter Perishes Trying to Swim Across Gravel Waterhole

UTICA — A 17-year-old East Detroit youth drowned Sunday afternoon, in his attempt to swim across a water-filled gravel pit in the vicinity of Hamlin and Ryan roads in Shelby Township, three miles northwest of Utica.

Clifford E. Jackson of 22370 Hayes Rd., was at the pit with another youth and two girls. He attempted to swim across the pit, apparently decided he couldn't make it and turned back.

About 20 yards from shore, he yelled for help and his friend, Thomas Loch, swam to his aid but couldn't hold onto him.

Almost two hours later Jackson's body was recovered in 20 feet of water by Romeo State Police.

There was a "No-Trespassing" sign at the pit.

Twin Beach PTA to Meet Tonight

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Twin Beach School PTA will meet at 8 p.m. today in the multi-purpose room of the school.

A musical program will be presented by 4th, 5th and 6th grade pupils under the direction of Mrs. Frank Novak, instrumental music director. The 5th and 6th grade chorus, under the direction of Miss Reba Balz, will do a number of vocal selections.

A short business meeting will precede children's program. Classrooms will be opened at 7:30 for viewing of a student art exhibit. Refreshments will be served.

Brandon Township

Brandon Township School PTA will meet at 8 p.m. today in the Brandon School gymnasium for an installation of officers.

They are Vern Mayhew, president; Richard Tilwick, teacher vice president; Frank Sherman, father vice president; Mrs. Don Frick, mother vice president; Mrs. Merlin Sellers, secretary, and Mrs. Dale Burt, treasurer.

It will be followed by a round-table discussion in the school cafeteria.

Child Tries to Steer, Causes Car Accident

A child who decided to take over the steering of her father's car caused an accident last night in which her mother was slightly injured.

Roy D. Fuggitt, 19, of 210½ Elm St. told Pontiac police he was driving on Auburn, near Perkin street, when his 2-year-old daughter grabbed the wheel. He lost control and hit a fire hydrant.

Mrs. Susan Fugitt, 18, was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital for a stiff neck.

No Boat Race—No Boats

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP)—Junior Chamber of Commerce members had to call off their Great Whale Boat Race.

They were assembled at Los Angeles Harbor for the start of the second annual event yesterday. Then the truth came out.

BONNIE KAY VANDENBOS

MR. AND MRS. JOHN G. GILLIAM

WED IN BIRMINGHAM — The First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham was the scene of the recent marriage of Geraldine Mary Johnson and John G. Gilliam. The rite was performed by the Rev. W. Glen Harris. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Johnson of Rochester. Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Robert Howie of Birmingham and Mr. Jack Gilliam of Livonia. Following a reception at the American Legion Hall in Rochester, the newlyweds left on a honeymoon to Niagara Falls.

2 Survive When Convertible Flips

Area Father Dies in Crash

WASHINGTON — A Washington father of two was killed instantly and his two companions injured Saturday evening when their open convertible car overturned on Jewell road, just north of 28-Mile road in Washington Township.

Charles E. Mellor, 30, of 11054 Pearson St., died of a fractured skull and broken neck when he was hurled onto a pile of stone as the car rolled over.

Driver of the car, John H. Jones, 29, of 4641 Pearson St., suffered cuts about the head, arms and legs. Another passenger, Edwin J. Bellman, 27, of Detroit, had a broken shoulder, back injuries, cuts and bruises. They also were thrown from the car, but missed the rock pile.

Jopes and Bellman were taken to St. Joseph Hospital in Mount Clemens. Jones was released later the same night. Bellman was expected to go home today.

The driver told Romeo State Police he lost control of the car on loose gravel and that the vehicle left the road, hit a tree and rolled over several times.

Funeral service for Mellor will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Milliken Funeral Home in Utica.

He leaves his wife, Linda; a son, Thomas, and daughter, Marsha, all at home.

King and Queen Elected at Webber School Fair

ORION TOWNSHIP—Two third-grade pupils were named king and queen in the first Webber Elementary School Fair Saturday afternoon.

They were Oween Wyka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wyka of 923 Lakefield Lane, and Peter Daugherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Daugherty of 1451 Beach Dr.

The winners were named from a field of 14 contestants. Votes costing a penny each were cast by pupils and adults who attended the fair.

Gets 3-15 Years for Check Theft

Joseph Kochan Hears Sentence for Robbery of Walled Lake Store

Sentenced to 3 to 15 years in the State Prison of Southern Michigan at Jackson this morning was Joseph Kochan, 30-year-old Pontiac Township man who stole 285 blank company checks from a Walled Lake milk and ice cream store.

Kochan, of 164½ Baldwin Ave., heard the sentence handed down by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

Last week, his brother, Stephen, 29, of 1113 N. Oak St., Rochester, was sentenced to from 1 to 15 years in prison for his part in the Jan. 30 breakin of Sealtest Inc., at 257 Ladd Rd.

Their theft of the checks and $550 in cash was followed by the passing of 14 of the worthless checks, totaling $1,320, by Mrs. Betty Lou Harris, 23-year-old widowed Pontiac mother of two.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Harris, of 241 W. Ann arbor Ave., was placed on probation for two years and ordered to pay $100 court costs and $89 restitution by Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick last week.

Romeo High School Diploma to Fulfill Mom's Long Dream

By LEE WINBORN
Romeo Correspondent

ROMEO — Graduation Day at Romeo High School will mean the fulfillment of a long-standing dream for a Romeo wife and mother in her mid-twenties.

Mrs. Doris Kolman will receive her diploma next month and with it the satisfaction that she has completed her high school education.

Doris quit school during Christmas vacation of her senior year in 1949, and because she never took her mid-year examinations, she has had to repeat the full year.

"It's been a hard job," she said, "but well worth every minute of it. My only regret is that I didn't go back a few years ago when it might have been easier for me to apply myself to studying."

Going to school has been a real challenge for Mrs. Kolman. In addition to attending classes five days a week, she still has to do the usual tasks at home — housecleaning, preparing meals and the washing and ironing for husband Ronald and their two children, Steven, 7, and Rhonda Sue, 5.

★ ★ ★

Steven is in school all day himself, but the job of looking after Rhonda Sue—not quite old enough for kindergarten — has fallen to Mrs. Kolman's mother, Mrs. Cecil Flansburg.

Doris is the only adult attending daytime classes at Romeo High School, and being youthful-looking herself, few students realize that she is married 1 and a mother besides.

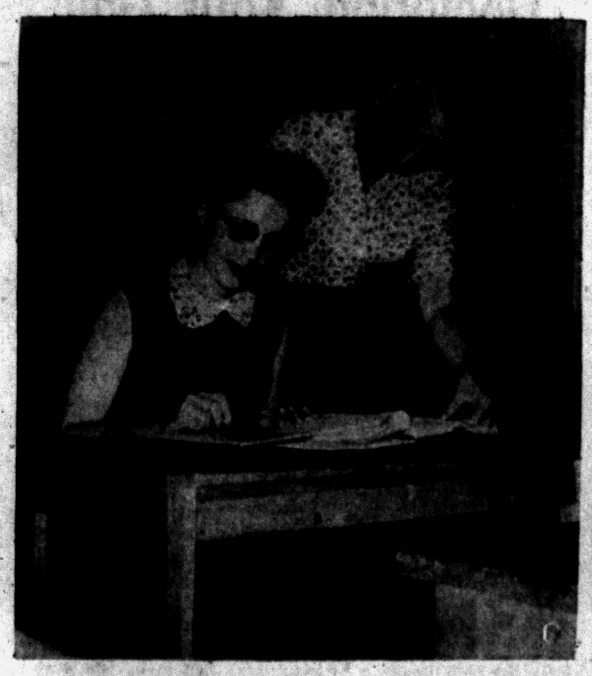

She is taking English literature, government, typing and shorthand. Her classes are over at 2:30 p.m., allowing her to go home and do some housework before dinnertime.

★ ★ ★

"I was always sorry I didn't finish high school, but now I think I'd like to work again when the children grow up; so I decided to go back and complete my education."

Mrs. Kolman's husband, an employe of the National Twist Drill and Tool Co., Rochester, is just as enthusiastic about his wife's accomplishment as she is.

He echoes her sentiment that "an education for a wife and mother is as good as an insurance policy." And the Kolman household at 160 Benjamin St. will be a happy one when mother dons her cap and gown.

MOM IN SCHOOL — Married and the mother of two school-age children, Mrs. Ronald H. Kolman of 160 Benjamin St., Romeo, returned to Romeo High School to earn her diploma. Checking her lessons is teacher Mrs. Arthur Miller (right). Mrs. Kolman will graduate next month.

OPEN FOR BUSINESS — Romeo's new Post Office at 119 Church St., next to the Romeo Public Library, opened Thursday. Inspecting their new quarters are Assistant Postmaster Preston Coay (left) and Postmaster Almon Schoch. There are 80 additional boxes in the corner of the lobby, bringing the total to 185. The modern, one-story building has a yellow brick veneer front with planters, spacious picture window and large covered loading area in the rear.

Maas Is Now 'Toast' of Kansas City

Utica Pitcher Posts 2-0 Win Over Bengals

Fifth Straight Defeat Shoves Tigers Into 7th Place in AL

DETROIT (AP) — Duke Maas was the toast of the Detroit Tigers' pitching staff a year ago today.

Others—Frank Lary, Paul Foytack and Billy Hoeft—had trouble winning. Jim Bunning, who went on to post 20 victories, had won once. Maas was the most effective.

But before midseason he faltered. He collected only 10 triumphs for the season. In November the Tigers included him in the 13-man trade with Kansas City that brought Billy Martin to Detroit.

Maas earned his first victory in a Kansas City Athletic uniform yesterday. He shut out his former teammates 2-0 at Kansas City on two hits.

★ ★ ★

The right-hander from Utica has good cause to scoff at his old team. His brilliant hurling dropped the Tigers into seventh place. It was their fifth straight loss as the A's swept a three-game weekend series and moved into second place.

Maas rubbed salt in the Tigers' wounds by facing 28 batters, one above minimum. He offset Detroit's best pitching job of the season—a three-hitter by Foytack—with a better one.

★ ★ ★

Both safe blows off Maas, who didn't walk a batter, were solid. Charlie Maxwell singled in the fifth. He was wiped out in a double play. Charley Lau, pinch-hitting for Foytack, tripled with two out in the ninth. He died there as Frank Bolling ended the game with a grounder.

★ ★ ★

All three hits off Foytack were doubles. Vic Power opened the second, when the Athletics scored both runs, with a two-bagger off the left field wall. He scored as first baseman Maxwell mishandled the relay from the outfield. After an out, Woody Held walked and rode home on ex-Tiger Frank House's double.

Foytack didn't permit another hit until Joe Demaestri doubled in the eighth. Foytack suffered his third loss against three victories.

★ ★ ★

The victory was Kansas City's fourth straight. The Tigers were idle today. They open a long homestand against the Eastern clubs tomorrow when the Baltimore Orioles make their first Briggs Stadium visit.

★ ★ ★

Maglie, Turley Win Boosting Lead to 6½

Yankees Pulling Away Early

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bring back the old split season. That's what the American League ought to be yelling today as they look at the fast-widening gap between the streaking New York Yankees and the rest of the field.

Six straight Yankee victories and 10 in their last 11 games put Casey Stengel's gang almost out of telescope range with a 19-5 season record. Only one other club is playing better than .500 ball and Kansas City is just barely doing that. The A's pulled into second place with a 13-12 won-lost record but they're struggling, 6½ games back.

This is no record. The 1955 Dodgers, then the Brooklyn Dodgers, swept their first 10 and won 22 of their first 24 starts. By the end of May they were 11 games in front. The 1946 Boston Red Sox had pulled ahead by 10 lengths at the end of May by winning 32 of their first 41 games.

Unless somebody can trip the Yanks on their first western trip, this pace could kill off interest in the league. It is fast becoming a case of wait until the Yankees come and then forget it. The Yanks also are feeling it at home with a slow turnstile start.

The Yanks knocked over Washington twice Sunday 5-2 for Sal Maglie and 3-0 behind Bob Turley. Duke Maas boosted the A's into second place with a 2-0, two-hitter against his former Detroit mates. Dick Gernert hit two home runs and Jackie Jensen a tremendous three-run 450-foot drive in Boston's 8-4 victory over Baltimore. Cleveland swept a pair from Chicago 7-4 and 10-6, winning the first in the 11th on rookie Carroll Hardy's three-run homer.

Turley seems determined not to allow any runs at all except in dire emergencies. His shutout was his fourth in six winning starts, all complete games. His earned run average dropped to 0.83 per nine-inning game over a stretch of 54 innings. Bob Cerv's homer gave Kansas City a run off Turley May 2. Washington scored five off him (but lost 9-5) May 11 after the club had been rained out for a week.

To celebrate his arrival back on the starting line, Maglie slugged a three-run homer, his first in the American League, Ryne Duren bailed him out of ninth-inning trouble. Mickey Mantle also homered in the opener.

Washington had its largest crowd since opening day 1956, with 27,704 including Vice President Nixon.

Gernert drove in four Boston runs with his two homers and a double while Jensen added three singles to his long homer. Frank Sullivan was the winner over Billy Loes who was warned for throwing a suspected spitball to Ted Williams in the second inning.

WARNING — Umpire Charley Berry warns Billy Loes of the Baltimore Orioles after being suspected of throwing splitballs against Ted Williams of Boston in their game yesterday. Loes, charged with his 4th loss, rolled the ball on the ground when Berry called for it. Williams then banged a singled off Loes' legs as Boston won, 8-4.

Rathmann Hits 145.974 For '500' Trial Record

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Rain washed out most of the Sunday's scheduled time trials for the 42nd 500-mile auto race May 30 but didn't cool the hottest combination in pre-race activities—master mechanic S. J. Watson and Dick Rathmann, 32-year-old Miami racing veteran.

Rathmann jumped into a Watson-built McNamara Special Saturday and smoked off 17 other qualifiers with a record 10-mile run at 145.974 miles an hour.

Rathmann thus will start in the pole position, inside of the front three-car pole, in the Memorial Day classic. Watson sold the new lightweight car to Lee Elkins of Kalamazoo, Mich., only a few day ago.

The weather permitted only one qualifying run yesterday and Bob Christie, Grants Pass, Ore., did 141.900—slowest of the first 19 qualifiers.

Pat Flaherty's record for one lap, 146.056 for the 2½ miles, was erased Saturday. Ed Elisian of Oakland, Calif., wheeled another Watson car, from the John Zink garages at Tulsa, Okla., around the big brick and asphalt track at 146.508.

Watson and the Zinks also added to their brilliant days's performance by filling out the three-car front row with another Watson-Zink Special, driven by veteran Jimmy Reece of Indianapolis at an average of 145.513.

Old timers dominated the opening qualifications, which will be continued next Saturday and Sunday.

Only rookies who qualified were A. J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., in the Dean Special in which Bryan won the Monza 500 last year; Paul Goldsmith, St. Clair Shores, Mich. and Dempsey Wilson, Hawthorne, Calif.

Former Olympic star Glenn Davis of Ohio State led the Buckeyes to an 80 2-3 to 50 1-3 victory over MSU in a Big 10 track meet Saturday. Davis won the 440 and 220 dashes, the broad jump and was anchor man on winning mile relay team.

★ ★ ★

Purdue won seven of 13 individual events but Michigan's depth enabled the Wolverines to tie the Boilmakers at 66 points in their track meet Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Bill Bull finished with the highest season average in the Huron Bowl Classic with 203 for 102 games. J. Nickell had 201 for 104 games and Les Rothbarth 197 for 105.

Tim Tam Needs Win at Belmont

BALTIMORE (AP)—Jimmy Jones, trainer of Derby-Preakness winner Tim Tam, faces a seemingly tough decision if the Calumet Colt goes in the Belmont Stakes June 7:

Should he switch jockeys two-thirds of the way across the stream in the try for the third triplecrown for Calumet?

The injured leg of regular Calumet rider Bill Hartack is mending. If he's in shape for the Belmont, should Jones substitute Hartack for Ismael Valenzuela, the little Texan who is batting a thousand aboard Tim Tam?

When Hartack broke his leg a week before the Kentucky Derby, Valenzuela was called in to substitute. He road Tim Tam to victory in the Derby trials. The derby itself and did it again in the preakness Saturday at Pimlico.

If Tim Tam goes in the mile and a half Belmont and wins, Calumet Farms will become the only stable with three triple wins in the Derby, Preakness and Belmont. And it'll be the first capture of the triple crown since 1948 when another Calumet Colt, Citation, did it.

Win Pair as Braves and Pirates Bow

Giants Take Over NL Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The time has come to take seriously the dashing play of the San Francisco Giants. Far removed from the friendly surroundings of their new fog-swept home, the Giants have taken over first place in the National League.

Johnny Antonelli and Stu Miller pitched the Giants into the lead Sunday with back-to-back complete games in Chicago. Left-handed Johnny held the Cubs to five hits in the 7-3 opener and slow baller Miller, who failed to finish a game in 13 starts a year ago, threw a three-hitter, 4-0, in the second game.

The combination of these victories, before a Chicago crowd of 33,224, and Cincinnati's 11-7 blackjack job on Milwaukee left the Giants on top by one full game but only two percentage points. The difference in total games played accounts for the slight percentage table edge.

Philadelphia may have exploded the Pittsburgh bubble, completing a four-game series sweep by knocking off the Bucs 6-4 and 6-2. Jack Sanford, the 1957 Rookie of the Year, and Ray Semproch did the pitching job. Semproch went all the way but Sanford needed help from Dick Farrell.

Carl Erskine stopped the Los Angeles spin for at least one game when he shut out St. Louis 4-0 to gain an even split for the Dodgers. The Cardinals won the first game 6-5, helped by Ken Boyer's grand slam homer, for their 10th victory in 11 games.

★ ★ ★

Danny O'Connell, Willie Kirkland and Jim Davenport were the big men for the Giants at Chicago. O'Connell had two triples in the first game and a single, double and triple in the second. Kirkland drove in three runs in the first game with a single and a triple and added two more singles in the second. Davenport had three hits, including a pair of doubles, in the second.

Antonelli held the Cubs hitless for five innings until pinch hitter Bobby Adams slammed a triple to open the sixth. The Cubs hit only six balls out of the infield on Miller's slow stuff.

George Crowe and Dee Fondy hit home runs for Cincinnati before Bob Purkey finally sneaked in with a 13-hitter. Lew Burdette was chased by the Redlegs al-homers to Joe Adcock and one each to Johnny Logan and Eddie Mathews.

A beaning controversy flared in the fourth when Frank Robinson was hit by Milwaukee's Dick Littlefield. The pitcher was warned. A similar rhubarb had developed Saturday night when two Braves were hit by pitched balls.

★ ★ ★

Erskine maintained his old hex over the Cardinals who always have been his favorite victims. Although St. Louis had eight hits the crafty veteran was tough with men on base. Boyer's grand slam homer in the first inning of the first game came off Fred Kipp. Rube Walker and Johnny Roseboro homered for the Dodgers in the first game, Gil Hodges and Charlie Neal in the second.

★ ★ ★

Chuck Essegian and Rip Repulski hit home runs for the Phils while Dick Groat and Frank Thomas homered for the Pirates in their first game. Harry Anderson led the Phils' 13-hit attack in the second with a home run and two singles.

Close Race Ends This Weekend

Spartans Lead Big Ten by Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The tight Big Ten baseball race spins into the final week with Michigan State on top but with Minnesota and Ohio State challenging.

The Spartans took over first place Saturday with a double triumph over Purdue 8-5 and 3-1 while Minnesota eased into second place, one-half game behind MSU, by beating Iowa 4-1 and 6-1. Ohio State dropped out of a first place tie with Michigan State on a split with Wisconsin. The Bucks lost 7-1 and came back with a 4-3 victory.

With only three games left, Michigan State leads with a 9-3 record; Minnesota is 8-3 and Ohio State 8-1.

Illinois retained its slim title hopes by whipping Michigan 5-3 and 11-2. Northwestern and Indiana split with the Wildcats winning the first 5-4 and the Hoosiers taking the nightcap 2-1.

★ ★ ★

Michigan State is at Iowa and Minnesota takes on Michigan Friday. Saturday finds Michigan State at Minnesota in a doubleheader which could decide the Conference championship.

Ohio State, meanwhile, is at Purdue Friday and at Illinois for a doubleheader Saturday. Other games Friday find Indiana at Illinois and Northwestern at Wisconsin.

Ron Perranowski pitched his fourth Big Ten triumph against no defeats in Michigan State's first game victory over Purdue and Larry Foster held the Boilermakers to five hits in the second game triumph.

Three-hit pitching by both Dick Siebert and Saxe Roberts helped Minnesota to its double triumph over Iowa.

Wisconsin tagged Ohio State ace Ron Nischwitz for 12 hits in the opener while George Schmid held the Buckeyes to four hits. Ohio State came back to take the second game on homers by John Edwards, Tom McManus and Dick Youngpeter.

★ ★ ★

Illinois' double triumph over Michigan was fashioned by John Kating's big bat. Kating drove in 10 runs on two homers—one a grand slam—and a triple and a double.

Detroit's New Pitcher Still Refuses to Fly

DETROIT (AP) — George Susce, who has yet to pitch for the Detroit Tigers, again defied general manager John McHale's edict to fly with the team.

Susce rode the rails back to Detroit after yesterday's 2-0 loss to the Kansas City Athletics. The ex-Boston Red Sox right hander has been threatened with banishment to the minors because of his dislike for airplanes.

The Tigers shelled out $25,000 for Susce last week. It would seem strange to spend that kind of money for a pitcher and then dispatch him to the minors.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Inconsistent Putting.
DIAGNOSIS: Unsteady Position.

TREATMENT: For putting, the body must remain still throughout the stroke. The proper putting stroke is made with just the arms and hands. And since putting is a complicated business, let's not throw in any unnecessary elements to further complicate the picture.

First, get a comfortable stance with the head in such position that the eyes will be directly over the ball. Then determine to remain in this position until after the ball is hit and on its way to (we hope) the hole.

Either a backward sway or a forward sway—however slight—will cause you to hit the ball a little off line. And you don't have to hit the ball but just a little off line to miss the putt.

The backward sway is relatively easy to avoid. But as you come into the ball on the downstroke of your putt, it's easy to get a little anxious and move the body forward a bit. The best way to avoid this putting fault is to get solidly set before you start the putting stroke—then stay put.

Lane Will Fight Dave Dupas Next

DALLAS (AP) — Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., rated No. 1 lightweight contender, will meet Davey Dupas of New Orleans here May 26 in a 10-round fight.

The bout will be a warmup for Lane's title shot at world champion Joe Brown, scheduled within three months. Lane has been undefeated since October, 1955.

Dupas is unranked. He has a 9-9 record and recently upset Dale Kerwin here.

Crawford Fights at N.Y. Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Most boxing fans go for the free swinging, slambang fighters who provide plenty of action. Young Mickey Crawford of Saginaw, Mich., is one of the few class boxers to make a hit with the paying as well as video-viewing customers in recent days.

★ ★ ★

Winner of three straight this year, Crawford is a 3-1 favorite to stretch the streak to four tonight at the expense of aggressive Andy Figueroa of New York at New York's St. Nicholas Arena, over Dumont, 9 p.m. EST.

Oosterbaan Uses Ptacek to Run Old 'Michigan' System

Wing Back in 'M' Grid Scene

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

ANN ARBOR — When University of Michigan football coach Bennie Oosterbaan junked the single wing in favor of the T-formation last fall, he did it because he felt the Wolverines did not have a line potent enough to use the old U. of M. system effectively.

Apparently, Oosterbaan must feel the Wolverines now have the qualified material in the forward wall, because Saturday at the annual Michigan spring game, he indicated he would revive the wing and mix it with the T-formation next Fall.

"We have experimented quite a bit this spring," said Oosterbaan, "and we have decided to use Bob Ptacek as our wing quarterback and Stan Noskin for the T."

"We figure Ptacek can handle the wing quarterbacking pretty well, and we also plan on using him at halfback when operating under the T," Oosterbaan pointed out.

In Saturday's game, which saw Ptacek doing most of the quarterbacking for the varsity, because Noskin was out with a sprained ankle, the Blues defeated the Whites 21-6.

Royal Oak's Darrell Harper, who Oosterbaan said "was not affective this spring," turned out to be the individual star of the game.

He was on the receiving end of five passes, led the Blues in rushing and scored a touchdown on a 17-yard dash. He also scored a 2-pointer after one of the touch downs.

★ ★ ★

Harper, who was on the All-Oakland County team three years ago, is figured to start at left half in place of Ptacek when he is quarterbacking.

Walled Lake's Johnny Walker also saw a lot of action in the game behind Tommy Rio who started at fullback. Regular fullback Johnny Herrnstein is playing with the baseball team.

One of the standouts in the game was halfback Fred Julian a junior from Detroit Pershing. Julian was hampered with leg injuries during his sophomore year, but Oosterbaan said he has been outstanding throughout the spring.

Little Jack Zanglin of Wyandotte brought the first applause of the game when he grabbed a pass from Jack McPherson and raced for a touchdown for the Whites. The play covered 80 yards and Zanglin did an outstanding job dancing away from tacklers.

The Meyer W. Morton trophy, which goes annually to the most improved player of the last two weeks of spring drills, was awarded to Dick Syring, former Bay City Central guard who started at center for the Blue team.

Syring played most of the game with a cast on his left arm. "Considering that he was moved to a new position and had many things to learn, Syring has developed well and could be a great asset to our team next Fall," said Oosterbaan.

Wiffi Smith Wins Rawls Tournament

SPARTANBURG, S.C. (AP) — An improved swing put Wiffi Smith back in the groove for a fine final round and an $831 victory in the 6th annual Betsy Rawls-Peach Blossom golf tournament here yesterday.

★ ★ ★

The St. Clair, Mich., miss birdied two late holes for a final round 72 and a 54-hole total of 216 to come home two strokes ahead of Beverly Hanson of Indio, Calif.

★ ★ ★

Tied for third were Mickey Wright of Chula Vista, Calif., and Marlene Bauer Hagge of Del Ray Beach, Fla., with 219s.

★ ★ ★

Next was Bonnie Randolph of Naples, Fla., at 220, followed by Joyce Ziske of Waterford, Wis., at 221 and Jo Ann Prentice of Birmingham, Ala., with a 222.

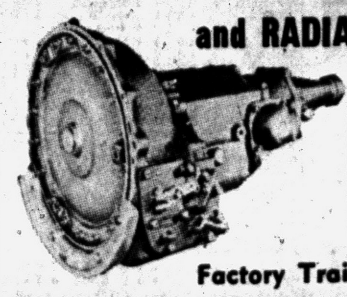

Kansas Wins Track Title for 7th Year

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—The Kansas Jayhawks won their seventh consecutive outdoor Big Eight track and field championship with their customary hefty point advantage but the individual honors went to hurdler - sprinter Keith Gardner of Nebraska.

★ ★ ★

Coach Bill Easton's Jayhawks piled up a total of 145½ points to second place Nebraska's 70. Gardner, a lean senior from Kingston, Jamaica, set new meet records in both the 120-yard high hurdles and the 220 dash here Saturday.

Whips Player in Playoff

Snead Festival Champion

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP)—Sam Snead, having staved off an assault on his castle by a promising young aspirant to golf's throne, turned his mind today to the one major title that has eluded him—the U.S. Open.

Snead, who will be 46 next week, was carried five extra holes yesterday before he warded off 22-year-old Gary Player of South Africa in the Snead Festival.

★ ★ ★

Player gave two of golf's best, Snead and Ben Hogan, fits throughout the tourney before succumbing. He played seesaw with them for the first three rounds of the regulation 72, and then tied Snead at the end.

★ ★ ★

The South African's bid to take the measure of the two greats more than twice his age died on the fifth sudden death playoff hole when he couldn't make a five-foot putt. Snead, who had blown two short putts on the second and fourth, made his from a yard away to win.

★ ★ ★

It was the fourth time in 11 of the tournaments on the course where he has been pro for 21 years that Snead has won the $2,300 first prize.

The 72-hole score of 264 equalled by Player was only one stroke higher than the best Snead has ever shot in a pro career dating back to 1934.

Snead recorded 263 in winning the 1951 tourney named for him. Par for the route is 280.

Hogan, also preparing for the Open next month in Tulsa, Okla., where he will try for a record fifth championship, pulled up in third place with 265.

He and Snead started the last round deadlocked one stroke better than Player.

Maxwell Wins Memphis Meet

Defeats Middlecoff by One Stroke to Win $2,900

MEMPHIS (AP)—A sandy-haired Texan who polished his golf on the hardpan courses of the Southwest fired a cluster of clutch birdies yesterday to win the $20,000 Memphis Invitational.

★ ★ ★

Billy Maxwell, a former National Amateur champion now playing out of Odessa, Tex., capped his 5-under-par round with a birdie on the 18th that gave him top money by a stroke.

★ ★ ★

Maxwell finished the 72-hole medal play tourney over the 6,700-yard, 34-36—70 Colonial Country Club course with 69-65-68-65—267. That was good for $2,800 cash and another $1,000 when he appears at the Tournament of Champions in Las Vegas next year.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Army PFC Mason Rudolph of Fort Chaffee, Ark., an amateur who went into the final round with a 3-stroke lead, lost his putting touch. He managed, par, but it wasn't enough.

★ ★ ★

Marty Furgol of Lamont, Ill., who was tied with Middlecoff and Maxwell in second place at the start of the final, wound up in a fourth place tie with Paul Harney of Worchester, Mass., both with 271 and $1,300.

Chiefs, Maples, Cranes Win Regionals

Pontiac Press Photo

NEW STAR RISES — A new star has hit the zenith for Pontiac High. In Saturday's MHSAA regional track meet at Ypsilanti, Arzo (Arz to teammates) Carson leaped 6 feet 2 and ¾ inches to wipe out a record set in 1956 by Hudson Ray. Observers say Carson went over 6-3½ on a later try, but officials ruled the 6-2 and ¾ would stand as a record. Carson is a junior, and (above) won his first important title, as PCH rolled to its 6th Ypsi crown.

PCH Qualifies Squad of 17 for Defense of State Title Saturday

By H. GUY MOATS

Three area prep squads came through MHSAA regional track tests, Saturday, with championships and another finished in the runner-up spot.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac's Chief thinclads led the parade of title efforts with a smashing 81-point victory for their 6th Ypsilanti regional crown at Eastern Michigan College. Birmingham rolled to a 59½-point win at U. of Detroit, where OL St. Mary was runnerup in Class C. Cranbrook grabbed the Class B title at Fitzgerald where Grosse Pte. edged E. Detroit for the Class A honor.

Area Class A squads finished in four of the top five places at Ypsilanti. Walled Lake was 3rd with 23; Farmington 4th with 21 and 1-5; Waterford 5th with 18.

Chiefs won 8 of 13 events, set five new records and qualified 17 boys for their 4th defense of the state prep title, Saturday, at Ann Arbor.

First new mark was a surprising one. Arzo Carson, junior, erased long Hud Ray's high jump record of 6 feet 1 and ¾ inch, made in 1956. "Arz" won at 6-2 and ¾, with Charley Barge and Freddie Brooks a half inch or so under.

Bob Manning hit 9.9 in the century and 21.8 in the 220 to wipe out Alonzo Harris' (Pontiac) 10 flat (1953) and Walt Beach (Pontiac) in 1951. Harris' 220 mark was 22.3.

But the biggest, most spectacular efforts were those of Larry Beamer and Rog Coats, co-captains, Ypsi and State 1957 half mile and mile champs. This year they have switched events, and Saturday each broke the other's record, but good. Early in the afternoon Coats ran a good field into the ground with his 1:58.4 time, the first PCH runner ever to hit that figure.

Beamer caught the crowd's fancy with the first mile under 4:30 for the meet and for PCH. Larry (Coats did it also) snatched the lead at the start, widened the gap over Farmington's Jim Marsh who finished 2nd, to 30 yards and opened the final 220 yards with a terrific kick, for a driving 4:29.5. He had lots of reserve, and could hit 4:25 or better in the state, if pushed. Fans gave him a big ovation.

PCH qualified 17 for the state meet; Manning, Hill (100); Beamer, Jefferson (mile); Burtch, Munson (440); Sowell (LH); Manning 220; Coats, Cox (880); Carson, Barge, Brooks (high jump; Sowell, Keller (bd. jump); Finley (vault); Richards, Keller, Hawkins, Pritchett (med. relay); Keller, Hawkins, Hill, Manning (880-relay).

Farmington's ace hurdler, Warren Cawley won both high and lows, wiping out Hayes Jones' (Pont) 19.6 low stick mark with a 19.1 effort, 5th record for the meet. Hayes witnessed the meet, (judged "C" broad jump) saw his mark go. "That boy really moved" said Hayes.

Winners and area placements:

100-yard — 1 Manning (P); 3 Hill (P); 4 Find (WL); 5 Ratcliff (P), time 9.9 (rec)

Mile — 1 Beamer (P); 2 Marsh (Farm); 3 Jefferson (P); 4 Devine (Wat), time 4:29.5 (rec)

220-yard — 1 Manning (P); 3 Fink (WL); 4 Ratcliff (P), time 21.8 (rec)

High jump — 1 Carson (P); 2 Barge and Brooks (3) all Pontiac. Height 6 feet 2¾ inches (rec)

Shot put — 1 Wright (Wat); 2 Van Sicklen (WL); 4 Rush (P); distance 45 feet 11 in.

Med. relay — Pontiac (Richards, Hawkins, Keller, Pritchett); 2 Walled Lake; 3 Waterford); time 2:32.4.

SUNDAY'S STARS BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

PITCHING — Bob Turley, Yankees, blanked Washington 3-0 with five hits for his fourth shutout in six straight victories, all complete games.

BATTING—Dick Gernert, Red Sox, hit two home runs and a double, drove in four runs and scored three in Boston's 8-4 victory over Baltimore.

St. Mike Honors Athletes May 20

St. Michael will honor its athletes and cheerleaders Tuesday night at the school's annual all-sports banquet in the parish hall.

Highlight of the evening's festivities will be the presentation of the Steve Griffin trophies, awarded annually by Miss Rose Griffin to the outstanding boy and girl athletes at St. Mike.

Bill Yeoman, assistant football coach at Michigan State University, will be the guest speaker, Chuck Lewis, sportscaster for radio station WPON, will be toastmaster.

Milford to Defend W-O Track Crown

Other schools are Clarenceville, Holly, Brighton and Northville.

Drake Is Star in Marysville Meet

Although his team finished in 3rd place (33 points) in the Marysville Class B regional track test, Saturday, Lake Orion's husky Jim Drake was the big star. Drake took four firsts, broad jump, pole vault and dashes. Marysville's depth was the winning factor.

Other area squads finished 5th (Romeo), 7th Avondale, 9th Rochseter. Avondale took one first, Ray Goforth in the high jump. Rochester's points came mostly from the shot put, with two places.

Maples' Class A win at U. of D. (59½), was an easy one, with Kermit Ambrose's squad qualifying 15 for the state, led by Alcorn in the vault (11-11), Gibson in the shot (50 feet ½ inch), for Maples 3rd regional title in four years.

Also at U. of D. (Class C) OLSM took three firsts, including Waluk in the shot (50-3½), Donakowski in the 440 and qualified nine for the state meet. St. Michael's (5th) qualified four, Flanigan winning the 220, 2nd in 100; Mineweaser 2nd in 440 and Call, Chapdelaine, Mineweaser and Flanigan 3rd in 880 relay.

★ ★ ★

Cranbrook qualified 10 in seven events for the state, in its easy Class B win at Fitzgerald. Cranes had four firsts (3 of them in the 440) with Noteware, Butzbaugh and Ben Aurand winners. Williams won one 880. The 880 relay team also qualified as did Graham and Colloin in the shot. Cranes scored in all but the pole vault and high hurdles.

★ ★ ★

Gary Ballman, E. Detroit star, was a four-event winner at Fitzgerald in Class A, taking the low hurdles, the shot and a tie in the highs and anchoring the 880-relay team. But Grosse Pointe had balance and won the final event, the medley relay, to grab its 4th title.

Flint Northern was winner of the Ann Arbor regional (A) with 82½ points, with Flint Central runnerup with 63. Northern qualified 11 and relay teams, Central seven. Watkins of Central won both dashes, the hundred at 10.1 and 220 at 22.3.

Track Victory Assures Albion of MIAA Trophy

Albion clinched the title, based on year-round records in seven sports, by winning a conference track meet Saturday. Other competition is in football, basketball, cross country, baseball, tennis and golf.

Final scores in the all-around contest were Albion 76, Kalamazoo 68, Hillsdale 67, Hope 66, Alma 53, Calvin 43, Adrian 10 and Olivet 7.

The Britons marked up their fifth MIAA track title in a row, scoring 82 13.15 points. Hope had 57 2-5, Calvin 28 5-6, Kalamazoo 24½, Alma 16 1-5, Hillsdale 11 and Olivet 4 1-5.

Jim Taup of Albion set meet records in the mile and two-mile events. Other meet records were set by Casey Clark of Kalamazoo in the high jump, John Kleinheksel of Hope in the broad jump and Bruce Foulke of Albion in the pole vault.

Les Dodson of Kalamazoo won his second tennis title in three years by defeating teammate Mike Teal 6-0, 6-0, 7-5. Rain forced postponement of the tennis doubles playoff today.

Chassell Among U.P. Teams in Track Finals

HOUGHTON (AP) — Trackmen from Calumet, L'Anse and Chassell led their schools to respective Class B, C and D victories in a weekend Upper Peninsula regional high school track meet. The championship meet will be at Marquette next Saturday.

Calumet scored 57.3 points to win in Class B, followed by Ishpeming with 39.7, Negaunee 32.6 and Hancock 13.7.

In Class C L'Anse had 49 points with Houghton next with 39, Lake Linden 38 and Baraga 30.

Teeing Off

By BILL CORNWELL

Doug Ford, who is at his best when the chips are down, will be bucking heavy odds next week at Red Run when he tries to win the Western Open golf championship for the second straight year.

Tradition will be working against him when the 72-hole tourney begins its four-day grind May 29. So will the finest collection of touring pros on the PGA circuit. The combination is hard to beat.

Only five golfers have successfully defended their titles since the famous tournament was inaugurated in 1899. Sam Snead became the last golfer to turn the trick with victories in 1949 and 1950.

FORD

The first one to repeat was Willie Anderson (1908-1909). James M. Barnes won the crown in 1917 and 1919 with World War I interrupting the tournament for a year. Fabulous Walter Hagen (1926-1927) completes the elite group.

Ford, who hails from Mahopac, N. Y., is perhaps the greatest scrambler in golf today. By his own admission, he seems to play better after he gets into trouble.

His deadly short irons and accurate putter have rescued him more than once. They were the difference last year at Plum Hollow when Ford defeated George Bayer, Billy Maxwell and Gene Littler in a playoff to win the title.

These factors, plus a great competitive spirit, will be working for him when the Western Open has its 55th renewal at Red Run.

After winning the 1957 tourney, Ford shook his head, smiled and confessed that he was lucky. He'll need heaps of luck again to make a successful title defense.

SHORT PUTTS

Dr. Cary Middlecoff, who lost to Ford in 1955 in the finals of the National PGA at Meadowbrook, is the latest "name" player to enter the Western Open. Middlecoff was Western Open champion the same year.

Arnold Palmer, Masters champ and this year's leading money winner, has also filed entry. Snead is still missing from the list.

★ ★ ★

Paul Bada, last year's city champion, eagled successive holes over the weekend at Pontiac Country Club. Playing with Dick DeWitt, Pete Peterson and Bob Hausman, Bada fired eagle threes on the 9th and 10th holes and wound up his round with a five-under-par 69.

★ ★ ★

Two holes-in-one were scored Sunday at area links. Pete Barley of Detroit shot an ace on Sunnybook's 163-yard hole with a 7-iron. Carl Kovac of Dearborn aced the 147-yard 12th hole at Warren Valley, also using a 7-iron.

★ ★ ★

Girls' Softball Season Begins

All-Stars, Gingellville Post Opening Victories at North Side

Women's City League softball activity began Sunday night at North Side Park and Gingellville and the All-Stars had the honor of winning the inaugural games.

Gingellville collected 10 hits, including a home run by Bendig, for a 7-4 decision over Michigan Bell. The All-Stars defeated Commerce Drive-In, 6-2, in the nightcap.

A three-run outburst in the bottom of the 6th inning broke a 4-4 deadlock and brought victory to Gingellville. Martin of the winners and Brown for the Bell team each made three hits.

Katy Boykins picked up three safeties in four attempts to park the All-Stars' verdict over Commerce.

Crane Nine Romps but Netters Lose

Cranbrook romped in baseball but lost in tennis in Inter-State League events at Nichols in Buffalo, N.Y., Saturday while Highland Park St. Benedict was downing Orchard Lake St. Mary 3-1 in a non-league baseball tilt.

Bill Pollard, the winning hurler; Larry Crowley, John Studebaker and Lloyd Asbury combined for seven of 10 hits in the Crane's 12-2 diamond triumph, the 1st against one setback in the loop. The season record is 8-4.

Bob Klein won in singles and the double duo of Bill McQuilkin and Osman Jacobsen were victors in a 3-2 tennis defeat.

A two-run homer by Mike Markiewicz produced the St. Ben win early for Art Massucci, Jr. Loser Tony Chojnowski allowed only three hits. Larry Minski homered for the Eaglets.

Cranes Win, Lose

Cranbrook's baseball team won a 12-2 victory and its tennis squad dropped a 3-2 match on a weekend visit to Nichols Prep of Buffalo, N. Y.

Led by catcher Dan Crowley's two singles and a double, Cranes took an early lead and were never headed. Contests were inter-State League affairs.

Errors Aid 3-1 Triumph

Jets Take Baseball Opener

Aided by four errors, the Jets scored three runs in the 5th inning for a 3-1 victory over Griff's Grill as the 1958 Class A City League baseball season got under way Sunday at Wisner Field.

After Pontiac Mayor William W. Donaldson pitched the first ball, Jim Coperonie of the Jets and Griff's Ted Reaver hooked up in a scoreless mound duel for the first four innings.

The roof caved in on Reaver in the 5th when four miscues, a hit batsman, two walks and singles by Roosevelt Fernandiz and Fletcher Davis produced three runs for the Jets and all they needed to win.

Detroiters Take 4th in State Tournament

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—Ted Karp and John Gavie, both of Detroit, combined to roll a 1,385 yesterday and moved into fourth place of the handicap doubles of the Michigan Men's State Bowling tournament.

In the only other change, Ira Harvey of Battle Creek went into fourth place of the handicaps all events with a 2,083.

U. S. Blanks Venezuela

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Perry Jones' charges completed a 5-0 sweep of Venezuela yesterday when Barry MacKay and Bill Quillian won the final two singles at Caracas.

MacKay squeezed past Iyo Pimental 6-3, 6-4, 5-7, 1-6, 6-1, and Quillian, substituting for Ham Richardson, crushed Manolo Suarez, Jr., 6-0, 6-0, 6-1.

Sven Davidson, an ex-U.S. indoor champion and Ulf Schmitt, the current titlist, swept to victories to give Sweden a 2-0 lead over Spain at Bacelona. Davidson turned back Andres Gimeno, 3-6, 6-2, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3, while Schmitt decisioned Manual Santana, 6-3, 6-2, 7-5.

Germany and Poland both wound up their second round business yesterday. Germany edged Belgium, 3-2, and Poland triumphed over Switzerland. In the other second round matches, Mexico swept Finland, 5-0, Denmark whipped Czechoslovakia, 4-1, Great Britain shut out Brazil, 5-0, and France eliminated Chile, also by 5-0.

Bud Blemker set a record for Georgia Tech's basketball team last season by making 182 field goals. He held the former record of 161 set the previous season.

Switch to 'Country Life' Often Causes Tensions

Many Families in Suburbia Soon Discover Grass Is Not All Green

(Since the end of World War II, the biggest housing boom in the nation's history has ringed America's cities with hundreds of new communities. Millions of city dwellers have flocked to them. But life in Suburbia, though it may be better, is not life in Utopia. There are problems, and problems cause tensions. Here, in the first of four articles, begins a report on the tensions of suburban living — what causes them and how they can be handled.)

By PATRICIA McCORMACK
INS Medical Science Editor

Around America's suburban homes, the grass is greener than it was in the city, the birds chirp more and the sky overhead is bluer.

Ask anyone who lives in Suburbia, U.S.A.

TENSIONS PRODUCED

And yet, many suburban families are twitching with tensions produced by the transition from crowded cities to sapling-lined country lanes, and by the vastly different life they are virtually forced to live in their sleek split-level or ranch houses.

So many suburbanites are seeking professional help to deal with their tensions that the Family Service Association of America recently increased its consultant staff by one-third to aid suburban communities in setting up their own family service agencies.

The FSA social scientists say the families with tensions are disappointed by assorted things, but most of all they can't accept the truth: Suburbia, with all its advantages, is not Utopia. There are problems.

They can have psychological and physical effects on parents and children. For example, some persons under tension grit or clench their teeth. Dental experts say this causes serious damage to the bones and tissue in the mouth. Others get hives or allergies from their tensions. And still others keep their tension bottled up and induce high blood pressure.

Psychologically, the stress may drive some to drink, others to changes in behavior such as becoming irritable and impatient on a steady basis.

According to the social scientists, these tensions are rooted in social, emotional, educational and psychological situations largely peculiar to the suburbs and hit hardest at the tension-prone members of the family.

—Being able to live on a "fixed" budget. Upsetting this notion are bills the landlord used to pay, club dues, stocking the bar, a second car, buying things to conform.

—Suburbia is quiet. Power mowers, dogs, the little Indians next door (and your angels), garbage collectors, do-it-yourselfers, the late evening barbecue parties add up to noise.

—More leisure. The highly organized life, more time spent getting to and from work, driving "everywhere," manicuring a lawn, patching the house and squiring the scouts are a few of the sponges that soak up time ear-marked for relaxation.

Other duties: Committee work in the PTA and church, shopping, child-rearing and entertaining—all in a bigger and better way than was her habit in the city.

Living away from the city she must go it alone for longer periods, too, since her husband spends more time getting to and from the office.

For some wives, tension starts building from the moment she awakens. She makes breakfast for the family with one eye on the clock, so that she can pack father and the offspring into the car in time to make the train and the school bell, respectively.

If she doesn't get father to the train on time, he may blow up. But if she does go to the train first, the chatter of the children may upset their father—or both parents are upset because they can't talk to one another.

The wife who can't have the family car because her husband needs it to get to work is, after a fashion, completely isolated. She may need a change of scene badly, but she can't get it. She must do her household chores, work in the yard, and do her committee work and shopping over the phone.

The social life in Suburbia produces a whole string of tensions in some wives. These women worry first about getting invited to parties, and then, once invited, start fretting about where to find the money for the right clothes, baby sitters and returning the invitation.

According to the family life experts at the Family Service Association, the tense suburban wife frequently reacts to her tensions by taking it out on one or all members of the family. For example:

—She may become hyper-sensitive to her husband's faults and nag more than she did in the city.

—She may demand more and more of her children as she attempts to get into the swing of the highly-organized life.

—She may develop a whole string of psychosomatic illnesses and take to seeing doctors more frequently and babying herself or demanding that others be more considerate of her.

No one has any statistics on the number of wives who cheat on their husbands, or vice versa. But with couples separated sometimes as much as 14 hours out of the day, Mrs. Camper points out there are temptations that weren't there in the city.

(Tomorrow: Tension and suburban husbands.)

'Spartacus' Production Explodes on Movie World

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Universal-International is literally EXPLODING back into production with the announcement that Laurence Olivier, Kirk Douglas and Charles Laughton will be the stars of "Spartacus," a $4,000,000 production which Olivier will direct!

This is the second deal Milt Rackmil and Ed Muhl, top brass of U-I, have set with Kirk Douglas and Ed Lewis of his Bryna Independent Company. The first was "Viva Gringo" with Kirk and Rock Hudson, both films to be produced by Bryna and financed and released through U-I.

"Spartacus" carries the highest budget in U-I's history and is scheduled to start in the fall after Kirk and Olivier complete their costarring appearance in "The Devil's Disciple." The novel by Howard Fast has sold 3,000,000 copies in Europe and deals with the drama of a slave who leads a rebellion against the Roman Empire. Publication in this country is scheduled for late summer.

Despite the infamous attacks on Vice President Richard Nixon and his lovely wife Pat in Venezuela and Peru, the market for Hollywood motion pictures is at an all-time high in South America!

I verified these facts with the Johnston office that Venezuela, for its size, is one of the biggest customers of American motion pictures. And Venezuela is where the most disgraceful attacks on our vice president and the American Flag were made.

A large quantity of mail received by the studio fan mail departments is postmarked from South American fans. Visiting movie stars are treated like royalty. This gives credence to the belief that the demonstrations in Venezuela were inspired by our giving sanctuary to one of their political refugees.

★ ★ ★

One of Broadway's most delightful stars, Dorothy Stickney (she played the mother in "Life With Father" over three years), comes to Hollywood for an important role opposite my favorite smoothie, Clifton Webb, in "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker." The comedy starts May 30 at 20th Century-Fox with Charles Brackett producing and Henry Levin directing.

★ ★ ★

Gary Cooper's severest critic, Rocky, believes Gary reaches his all-time high as an actor in "Ten North Frederick," and I agree with her. She said some friends of theirs ran it in New York after which they had many telephone calls praising Gary. Gary starts "The Hanging Tree" at Warners June 8, so the Coopers will be here this summer I'm glad to say.

Urges Congress OK Labor Bill

Senator Ives Cautions Against Haggling Over Problems for Politics

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress has its best chance in a decade to pass major labor reform legislation, Sen. Irving M. Ives (R-NY) says.

But he cautioned that Congress must avoid a partisan approach, saying, "It is tragic to approach these problems as a political issue."

For the first time since passage of the Taft-Hartley law in 1947, Ives said in a radio address, responsibile union leaders now are offering to cooperate on what he called reasonable labor legislation.

Without naming them, he said some senators favor drastic anti-union legislation and would prefer no law at all than one short of their demands.

This "rule or ruin attitude is no way to tackle the problems uncovered by the Senate Rackets Committee," Ives added.

He is senior Republican on the committee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark) which has been probing improper labor-management activities.

Referring to the group's disclosures, he said some union leaders have made progress in cleaning up labor's house, "but they need the federal government's help in this effort."

The proposed legislation is designed primarily to protect rank and file union members, Ives said, but "it also will benefit management by introducing greater responsibility into labor-management relations."

Secretary of Labor Mitchell, in a television interview, said Congress has a mandate to legislate protection for all labor union funds.

★ ★ ★

He expressed hope the House will pass a bill, already passed by the Senate, to regulate welfare-pension funds. But he urged Congress to go further and enact President Eisenhower's labor proposals, including legislation to regulate handling of dues and initiation fees and to provide secret balloting for union officers.

Guntoter Told to Leave

BALTIMORE (AP)—The gold rush days are over, said the judge in ordering a man convicted of toting a six-gun on the streets to leave town — without waiting for sundown. Warren Van Meter, 64-year-old retired Arcadia, Calif., businessman, was fined $250 for pointing a loaded revolver at a passing motorist and possessing a deadly weapon.

All About Men . . . Chapter Seven

You Must Be Patient, Be Gentle

It's wise to get the right advice.

By JOSEPH H. PECK, M.D.

The first hazard of mariage occurs within a few hours after the wedding ceremony, provided, of course, that no torrid rehearsals have been enacted.

The male wants to prove his masculinity, and the bride expects him to do just that, but they may both wish they hadn't come to the party.

★ ★ ★

They silently blame each other for what happened. The possibility that he is less than perfect is so repulsive to the man that he refuses to accept the idea, preferring to blame his companion for his shortcomings.

And sometimes he is right. An aggressive female throws him on the defensive, and his bodily urges concentrate in a subconscious desire to run. He must be the aggressor or he just cannot play the game.

To flower as a complete man he must have confidence in his ability to dominate the situation; he must believe that he is the greatest lover since Casanova.

If he loses this feeling, he becomes so neurotic he feels all his other accomplishments are ashes, and he will follow any female who tells him he is wonderful, regardless of consequences or the siren's looks.

YOU MUST COMPROMISE

★ ★ ★

The young (or old) husband should develop tricks that will increase his bride's ardor, while the woman should learn to hold him off without hurting his feelings or getting him discouraged.

★ ★ ★

Compare a man to a modern car equipped with power steering, quick starts and high speed, but minus brakes and absolutely helpless if the starter fails to work.

There is nothing worse than a car that won't start if you want to go any place, and many apparently insignificant things can prevent it from starting.

A woman is more like the old-fashioned Model-T in performance: it is more dependable once it gets going, but what a job to start it on a cold morning! Unlike a modern car, the more you work at it, the more likelihood there is of starting the motor.

Since there was no antifreeze in Model-T days, the last thing a driver did on a cold night was to drain the radiator, and in the morning the first thing he did was fill it with hot water. Then he raised the hood and poured hot water on the manifold and carburetor, jacked up one hind wheel, advanced the gas lever and retarded the spark.

BE PATIENT, BE GENTLE

He grabbed the choke-wire in his left hand and the crank in his right and began to wind her up. This was a slow and tiresome procedure and it seemed endless; his eyes popped, his breath was gone and his back felt broken, but he decided to give her one more whirl, and if that didn't work, he figured he'd get a horse.

During that last crank the engin exploded with a rattle that sounded like a cement drill, and if he wasn't prepared for it, the crank flew around and knocked him clear across the garage.

But if you are remiss in this duty, you'd better prepare for trouble. Some girls will cheat; others will make the doctor rich and acquire a miserable outlook on life.

Now, if ever, is the time to realize that gentleness and patience are the cardinal virtues and the key to happy marriage.

Most Grains Firm, Steady

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat futures were steady to weak but other grains and soybeans were steady to firm in slow early dealings today on the Board of Trade.

★ ★ ★

May wheat, with the largest open interest, was the weakest although a strong demand for short-covering had been expected. It was off a cent a bushel or more within the first few minutes.

All the grains had firmed up somewhat toward the end of the first hour. Wheat was unchanged to ½ cent a bushel lower, May $2.17½; corn unchanged to 1 cent higher, May $1.28¾; oats ⅜ to ¼ higher, May 64¼; rye unchanged to 1 cent higher, May $1.38; soybeans ¼ to 1 cent higher, May $2.25½; lard 2 to 5 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $12.35.

U. of M. Pupil Hurt Badly in Area Lake

A University of Michigan student was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital yesterday in critical condition after diving into 2½ feet of water in West Bloomfield Township's Pine Lake.

Fred E. Charm, 20, of Newton, Miss., was one of 70 college and high school students at an all day beach party being held by Steven and Michael Bloom, of 3092 Middlebelt Rd., said Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies.

Hospital authorities said Charm's neck was broken and he was completely paralyzed. Deputies said Charm knew the water was not deep but said he was "going to make a shallow-water dive."

He is a junior at the University of Michigan.

North Ireland Ousts Dealer in Diamonds

BELFAST — Northern Ireland has deported Nathan Ascher Glatt, a 37-year-old Dutchman found guilty of trying to illegally export $112,000 worth of diamonds.

Before being deported he had been sentenced to nine months in prison and fined $14,000. It was learned that, as a penniless refugee, Glatt fled to Britain in 1940 from the Germans and built up a big business in diamonds. During the hearing of his arguments on appeal, in Belfast, it was stated that he had very large sums of money deposited in a private bank in Zurich.

The diamonds he sought to smuggle out were found on his person as he enplaned for Eire.

Their Auto Runs Amok, Pontiac Couple Injured

A Pontiac couple was injured Saturday evening when their auto went out of control and overturned on M24 just south of Silverbell Rd., Orion Township, according to Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies.

Melvin Chamberlain, 45, of 184 Mt. Clemens St., the driver, was treated for minor injuries at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and released, said deputies.

Standard Gas Price Cut in Detroit Area

Standard Oil Co. today announced a slash of wholesale gasoline prices by 1.3 cents a gallon on regular and 1.9 cents on premium.

The reduction, which will be passed on to motorists will not affect Pontiac at this time. It will apply in Detroit and Birmingham.

It was expected that other major producers and independents will follow suit in the growing Detroit area price war.

Trade Moderate Irregular Mart

Changes of most leading stocks were fractional. A few moved about a point up or down.

The opening was active, then turnover slowed.

Weekend economic news was fairly favorable. Some increase in steel output was anticipated and there was a decline in the number of workers collecting unemployment insurance.

Moderate gains were made by Chrysler, Kennecott, Du Pont, Southern Pacific and International Paper.

Cerebral Palsy Unit Picks New Officers

Other officers elected to the association at the annual meeting were: George Watson, of Bloomfield Hills, first vice president; Mrs. Thomas White, of Sylvan Village, second vice president; Mrs. John Gearhart, 58 S. Johnson St., secretary; and Vernon Schiller, 216 Oneida Rd., treasurer.

Elected to serve on the board of directors were Beverly Eaton, 172 Bassett St., Josephine Seeley of Drayton Plains and Dr. Glenn A. Sanford, Bloomfield Highlands.

The organization plans to conduct a summer recreation program for physically handicapped children. The program will be held at the Mark Twain Elementary School from 9 a.m. to noon daily June 16 through August 1.

The association is financed by the United Cerebral Palsy Assn. of Michigan, a United Fund organization.

Predicts Plenty of Ticks Due in Arkansas

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., (INS) — There's bad news for picnickers and other persons who spend much of their time in the great open spaces.

An entomologist at the University of Arkansas warns there will be an abundant supply of bothersome ticks this summer, even though the past winter has been hard and cold.

Dr. J. L. Lancaster says many people hold the belief that a cold winter will freeze ticks. But it's not true, he says.

"Cold weather, just makes ticks sleep more snugly, and they become well rested before they wake up in the spring," Dr. Lancaster notes.

The entomologist says that all types of ticks are capable of carrying diseases such as Rabbit Fever and Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever. Although the risk of contracting a disease from ticks is remote, Dr. Lancaster says that preventative vaccines are available.

Regardless of the disease angle, the little pests can often make things uncomfortable on picnics and when you're lounging around the yard. Ticks also provide misery for the family dogs and cats.

Reality Nears for Seaway

Some Shippers Not Prepared to Use New Great Lakes System

DETROIT (AP)—The administrator of the St. Lawrence Seaway says construction is going ahead so fast on the giant waterway "quite a few" people won't be ready when it opens to navigation next year.

★ ★ ★

Lewis G. Castle, administrator of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp., told the Detroit Economic Club today that "several decades of argument and controversy" about the seaway have left shippers unprepared for it to become a reality.

In a prepared address, Castle said the seaway is scheduled to open in April 1959, to deep draft navigation between the Great Lakes and Montreal.

It will provide a 27-foot deep waterway, Castle said, for vessels with 9 or 10 times the capacity of vessels now accommodated in the existing 14-foot canal system along the upper St. Lawrence River.

Castle said it will permit shipping "of a far greater volume of freight more expeditiously and more cheaply" between the Great Lakes and overseas than is now possible.

However, he added:

"I do not wish to convey the impression that the mere availability of the seaway will automatically result in a deluge of new business."

The extent to which communities can benefit by the seaway, he said, will depend on what port facilities are available in Great Lakes communities.

He mentioned Muskegon and Bay City, and the Dow Chemical Co. at Midland as "foresighted enterprises already developing their business for expansion" when the seaway opens.

He cited direct export of agricultural products at the Port of Muskegon; contracts at a Bay City shipyard for construction of navy warships to be delivered through the seaway, and Dow plans for a marine terminal on the Saginaw River.

Castle noted that there has been "a considerable increase in price levels" on construction costs since preparation of original estimates and actual placing of contracts.

"The seaway project is intended to be a modern waterway for handling of ships," he said, "rather than merely providing minimum facilities."

He added that toll revenues will retire the total cost of the seaway, which he estimated at 450 million dollars.

Pet Dog Attacks Girl, 4, Tears at Face

Before bystanders could rescue the screaming child, her father said, the animal ripped a four-inch wound near her right eye, and gashed both cheeks, her scalp and right shoulder.

The father, Edward Ray Helms, pulled the dog away while his wife snatched up the little girl. They were here from Euless, Tex., to visit the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McQueen.

Police took the dog to the pound for rabies observation and ticketed its owner for a leash law violation.

Water Safety Topic for Board

Lake Traffic Problems to Be Discussed Tonight at Waterford Meeting

One of the biggest problems in Waterford Township—water safety on township lakes—will be discussed by law enforcement officials and board members at tonight's regular board meeting.

Justice of the Peace Donald E. Adams will present data and information regarding the control and penalties of "boat hotrodders" endangering other lake users.

Adams is one of the chairmen of the newly-formed Michigan State Water Safety Committee. Others meeting to help solve water traffic problems will be Police Chief Millard J. Pender and Justice of the Peace Patrick Daly.

Other business before the board will include final negotiations of the Weissman Construction Co. for sewer construction in the Huron Gardens Subdivision.

The water system in the Indianwoods Manor Subdivision on Walton boulevard will be discussed by board members and developers tonight.

News in Brief

James W. Jones, of 8634 Edgewood Park Drive, Commerce Township, reported to Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies Sunday, that someone had stolen a sport coat and a trophy worth $45 from his car while it was parked at the Hickory Hill Country Club, Commerce Township.

Cecil Matlock, 41, of 28505 Everett St., Royal Oak, pleaded guilty to drunk driving before Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum. He was fined $100 or 20 days in jail.

Dems to Spend Millions for My Post—Potter

DETROIT (AP) — The Democrats will spend more than two million dollars trying to unseat Sen. Potter (R-Mich) next election day, Michigan Young Republicans were told yesterday.

★ ★ ★

The author of the statement was Potter himself.

"I am flattered in a way by all this attention the opposition is paying to me," Potter said at the final session of the annual convention of Michigan Federation of Young Republicans.

"But let me assure you of this," he told 300 cheering delegates. "Charlie Potter doesn't exterminate easily."

★ ★ ★

Potter said more than one million dollars would be spent in Wayne County alone during the last month of the campaign. He said this money would be used to pay Democratic precinct workers to "sweep the streets" to see that all anti-Potter voters cast ballots.

Anti-Slump Measures Create Favorable Climate for Future

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Halfway through the year's second quarter what steps are being taken to halt or reverse the recession in the highly industrialized sections of the nation? And how are they working?

At government level: The supply of credit and money has been increased and interest rates lowered; mortgage terms have been liberalized; awarding of federal contracts, especially for defense, has been speeded.

At industry's level: Sales efforts have been stiffened, accompanied in some cases by lower prices or by discounts; cost cutting is fashionable; efforts to bring output in line with demand and to trim inventories is widespread.

More and cheaper money hasn't halted the decline in business bank loans nor noticeably induced business to resume the free spending habits of previous years. But it has brought about a condition that will be highly favorable to business once it is ready again to step forward.

★ ★ ★

And it has helped state and local governments to sell a record volume of securities to finance such civic improvements as schools and water systems. The U. S. Treasury's cost of servicing an increasing total of federal debt has been held in check.

★ ★ ★

More liberal mortgage terms, plus a greater supply of investment funds, have strengthened the home building industry. They are bringing out some marginal customers who couldn't find or afford the funds for home buying when money was tight and dear.

★ ★ ★

Speeding up the awarding of federal defense contracts and plans for super highways haven't done much for the economy yet. The hard cash will be pumped into the economy only months hence when the goods are being delivered and newly ordered roads being built.

★ ★ ★

Industry's own efforts may have helped slow the rate of decline in business but some of these efforts, too, will take effect later. Right now some may seem to be more of a cause than a cure of present ills.

Sales promotions usually have been effective when price cutting has lured consumers. The general level of consumer buying has scarcely budged and the ailing sectors of industry — durables for consumers and capital goods for industry — still limp.

Cost cutting is helping many companies to bolster a threatened profit margin. And healthier corporate finances will bear fruit later on. Now, however, cost cutting is hardly the same thing as the resumption of business spending that many think will spell the end of the recession.

Bringing output in line with demand also is sound business policy; in fact, it's often necessary for survival in this era of seemingly built-in high prices. But its immediate visible effect is likely to be rising unemployment and a slump in the business of a company's suppliers.

Living off inventories is a correction of previous overly enthusiastic building of stocks. In time, inventories will be brought into proper ratio to sales and ordering will be resumed. So far, however, there's little evidence this ratio has been reached generally. And so new orders mostly continue to languish and there's no mass move to recall laid off production workers.

That's why the majority of business men who are speaking out these days seem to think that although the turn in the tide is inevitable, it is some time off yet.

'Better Selling' Said Necessary

Top Executive Urges 2,000 Businessmen to Go All-Out Now

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN

NEW YORK (INS) — A top business executive declared today that "better selling" can be a big help in pulling the nation out of its current recession.

Harry A. Bullis, chairman of the board og General Mills, Inc., of Minneapolis, told some 2,000 businessmen assembled in New York that the public is price conscious and that they must work to "break the psychological freeze on consumer goods."

"We can do more and better selling, advertising and servicing," he said. "We can speed up product improvement and new products.

"The consumer is price conscious. Prices must be within the realm of what consumers are willing to pay. Therefore, costs, including wages, must be held in line with productivity. We cannot afford to go into another spiral of inflation."

★ ★ ★

Bullis was one of half a dozen speakers at the opening of a two-day session of the Economic Mobilization Conference sponsored by the American Management Assn. and held in the Hotel Astor.

The purpose of the meeting is to exchange ideas on how to combat the recession.

Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks assured the businessmen that the federal government will do what it can to create and maintain a climate in which private initiative can function successfully.

"The government intends to be a stepping-stone and not a stumbling block," he asserted. "It will do everything possible to build a firm foundation for confidence."

Weeks characterized America's free enterprise as "the most powerful economic system on earth," and said the prospects for great growth in the coming years is clear to realise with vision.

"There today is a re-emphasis on healthy, hard-hitting selling," he said. "We believe that people will buy when stimulated by new products, properly and aggressive merchandised."

He reported his corporation expects to spend 18 million dollars this year for capital improvements and expansions as against 20 million dollars spent in 1957.

Vandal Terrorizes Youngster

Smashes Up Rich Home

DETROIT (INS) — Police said a 48-year-old man broke into a Detroit home Saturday night where his estranged wife was baby-sitting, smashed $5,000 worth of rare china, furniture, a TV set and splintered chairs and tables.

The vandal also terrorized a nine-year-old boy whom the woman had been looking after.

Mrs. Taylor said her husband came to the $50,000 home on the northwest side of Detroit and demanded money. She said he smashed the glass in the door after she refused to open it, cutting himself badly.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Taylor said her husband went through every room in the house smashing things.

Police estimated the damage at about $5,000 although the owner, Leonard Olshansky, 39, said it will probably run much higher.

★ ★ ★

Actor Develops Desert Acreage

Would Give Up Career in Television Comedies for Rural Living

By CHARLES DENTON

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Can you imagine Gale Gordon, of the resonant, stentorian voice, dapper dress and lordly manner, plowing up a chunk of desert real estate in bib overalls and straw hat with an asparagus spear between his teeth?

★ ★ ★

And the fact is that he was born with the latter, does the former between acting jobs and yearns to become a full-time farmer.

Gordon, one of TV's busiest actors—"Our Miss Brooks," "The Brothers" and "Sally," to name only the series he's brightened—has 32 acres of what he hopes will be a farm someday in the desert near Borego Springs, Calif., a sun-baked hamlet about 120 miles from Hollywood.

"I'm going very seriously into farming," says Gordon, "I'm not kidding one bit. My wife even gave me a tractor for Christmas.

"We want to make this place our home for the rest of our lives. I really hate to come into town, but I've got to keep earning gas money for the tractor."

HATES CITY LIFE

Gordon, whose off-stage seriousness contrast sharply with the bombastic, bumbling characters he has created on stage, even insists that he could "give up the theater tomorrow."

★ ★ ★

"I know a lot of people don't believe that," Gordon sighs, "including my wife at first, but now she knows I mean it. I've always wanted a ranch or a farm. I love the out-of-doors, and I simply hate city life, always have.

"Oh, I'd like to do a couple of shows a year, but I wouldn't really care if I didn't. I have no desire to die in harness and no ambition to drop dead at the end of the third act."

Oddly enough, Gordon, who specializes in TV comedy, played nothing but serious roles on the stage and in radio for years, which is even more remarkable when one considers that as a pre-speaking infant, his cleft palate prevented him from uttering a word-like sound.

He was taken to England for surgery to close the split palate. The operation was successful, and he learned to speak like any other youngster.

Poor Eyesight Called Big Cause in Auto Accidents

From National Safety Council

If you drive a car the condition of your eyes should be of great concern to you, naturally. Yet, according to a professor of opthalmology, poor eyesight probably is one of the basic causes of traffic accidents.

About 35,000 drivers in motor vehicle accidents in 1956 were reported to have defective eyesight, according to the National Safety Council. Add to that the number of accidents that result from blocked vision, and you can see just how important sight is to motorists.

In more than a million auto accidents in 1956, not being able to see clearly was a contributing factor. In about half of the million accidents, obstructions on the vehicle—most important of which were rain or snow on the windshield—were factors.

Highway obstructions such as trees, bushes, buildings and signboards were the culprits in more than 200,000 of the million accidents.

1. Don't drive if your eyesight's so bad it can't be corrected with glasses.

2. Reduce your speed 5 or 10 m.p.h. so you'll have more time to spot hazards ahead.

Lot of Loose Change

DALLAS (AP) — Mrs. Annie Mae Moore, 54, tripped at a curb and money from her purse rolled out of reach into a storm sewer. Policemen H. A. Amos and H. Remes couldnt lift the heavy steel grating. Undaunted, they hunted up a three-foot stick, tipped it with chewing gum and fished out $1.20 in coins for Mrs. Moore.

3 Plane Firms Resume Work

Union Members Back at Jobs After Favoring Strike Outcome

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The tensions of long weeks of bargaining are over for three major aircraft firms and 42,000 union members.

Approval of new two-year contracts was voted yesterday by production workers for Douglas, North American and Lockheed Aircraft and for missile plants in California, Arizona, Oklahoma and Ohio.

Eight plants were involved in the balloting. Two unions — the United Auto Workers and the International Assn. of Machinists—figured in negotiations.

Nearly 30,000 of the workers are employed in aircraft and missile plants in the Greater Los Angeles area.

Basic terms of the new contracts are wage boosts ranging from 2 to 11 cents an hour, cost of living clauses incorporated in the contracts, and an automatic wage hike of 3 per cent or 7 cents an hour, whichever is higher, the second year.

Also included are a seventh paid holiday—Christmas Eve—and improvements in seniority and transfer provisions.

At North American's Los Angeles area plants, the vote was 94 per cent for acceptance. IAM members at three Lockheed missile plants—Sunnyvale, Palo Alto and Van Nuys, Calif. — voted 84 per cent in favor of acceptance.

Company announcements said the contracts received substantial margins also at North American's Columbus, Ohio, plant and at Douglas plants in Tucson, Airz. and Tulsa, Okla.

The UAW said approval of Tulsa was 4-1.

Las Vegas Has Found Answer to Recession

By EARL WILSON

LAS VEGAS—I don't know whether the economists can do anything with this, but Las Vegas has found the answer to the recession: dames.

WILSON

Big stars get big salaries but pretty gals are cheap. Minsky's gals have made good. Now a new hotel, biggest west of the Mississippi—1061 rooms—opens around July 2 at a reported cost of $15,000,000. It will feature . . . the Lido naked girl show from Paris.

The recession here is tiny. High rollers have become low rollers, 25c plungers have become 10c plungers. More people are coming—9,000,000 this year to 8,500,000 last—but they're losing less.

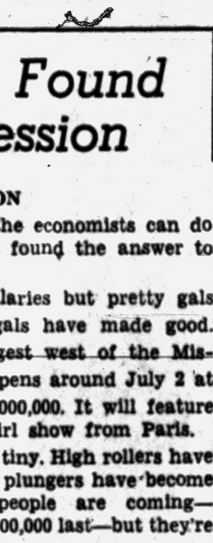

Of the stars: Marie McDonald ("Nobody ever called me 'The Brain' ") was with Jackie Miles who said the favorite sport at his golf club is not golf but drinking.

Danny Thomas mentioned that his TV rating has gone from 107th to 3rd. "The meek shall inherit the earth," Danny said. "Lawrence Welk and me, a couple of cornballs. He plays it and I say it."

Joe E. Lewis is doing four shows a night—two on stage, two at the "Round Table" between shows. Suffering from a slight speech impediment, Joe E. tells the customers, "I lost my bridge on the river Kwai."

ANDREA

Even the Ernie Kovacs-Edith Adams act emphasizes gals—particularly Edie's brilliant if slightly lop-sided impersonations of Jayne Mansfield and Marilyn Monroe. Ernie gets cultural, of course, of course, when he suggests a movie title: "I was a Teen-Age Supreme Court Justice."

Mrs. Dennis Crosby's in the line there and so's Leona Gage, who was Mrs. U.S.A. for a few minutes.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN NEW YORK . . .

Marilyn Monroe and Arthur Miller halted construction temporarily on their Connecticut home; they'll stay in the big gardener's "cottage" . . . Comic Alan King's returning from Britain with a great souvenir—an English valet . . . Chorus girl Andrea Jaffe is studying acting with Mira Ristova of Actors Studio.

★ ★ ★

Natalie Wood's sister, Lana, will make movies in London . . . Carol Lawrence's understudy, Marlis Waters, will head the London company of "West Side Story" . . . Song-writer Ross Bagdasarian (who's also David Seville of "Witch Doctor" fame) was asked how he's doing. "As Ross, not so hot," he said, "but as David, just great!"

Hunter Kills Woman Mistaken for Prey

Mrs. Sugg, her husband, the two friends and another couple had come here to hunt woodchucks together.

Replies to Charges U.S. Is 'Police State'

NEW YORK (AP)—Richard Arens, staff director of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, will make a television rebuttal tonight to Cleveland industrialist Cyrus S. Eaton's charge that the United States is turning into a police state.

Arens will appear on ABC-TV from 7:30 to 8 p.m., EDT.

Don Coe, director of special events and operations for ABC-TV, said Walter is occupied with a primary election in Pennsylvania and designated Arens to make the TV appearance.

In a filmed interview on a May 4 ABC-TV program, Mike Wallace Interview, Eaton attacked what he called "police state" activities in this country. He said, "Every department of government now has its own investigators, its own police force, and is creeping up on the citizens."

5,000 Attend Vermont Man's Birthday Party

WASHINGTON, Vt (AP) — Nate Flint, helped by some 5,000 guests celebrated his birthday yesterday and now he's looking forward to his 62nd anniversary which comes tomorrow.

Flint, a Barre lumber dealer, explains he held his party early because both his parents as well as a sister and two brothers all died at the age of 62 and he wanted to be sure he'd be around for his party.

Invited through newspaper ads, so many people came that few were able to say more than happy birthday to Nate, He and his wife and brother, Jake, were hemmed in most of the day by crowds, all eager to shake hands.

Nate reckons the ice cream and cake as well as burro rides for the children—and there were plenty of them—would cost at least twice the $300 to $400 he estimated.

Two bands entertained and a large tent protected the throng from a hard rain which fell for a time during the five hour festivities.

Police were busy most of the day with traffic, which at one time was backed up a mile. The police estimated more than 2,000 cars were parked on Route 110.

Britain Begins Worrying Over De Gaulle Prospects

LONDON (AP) — Gen. Charles de Gaulle once more is giving the British the uneasy feeling he did during World War II.

He is respected as a patriot who rallied the Free French forces to the side of the Allies during the Nazi occupation. His courage and determination are admired. Yet British are wary about the prospect of his return to power in France.

De Gaulle is still a paradox.

He frequently irritated Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt by his demands. Sir Winston years later wrote: "He (De Gaulle) felt it essential to his position before the French people that he should maintain a proud and haughty demeanor towards 'perfidious Albion.'

"He had to be rude to the British to prove to the French eyes that he was not a British puppet. He certainly carried out this policy with perseverance."

The Englishman closest to De Gaulle in the days when Britain was fighting for her own life as well as France's was Maj. Gen. Sir Edward Spears.

Spears, who headed the British mission with the Free French, sizes up De Gaulle this way in a newspaper article: "He is a man of untarnished honor, devoid of meanness in his private life. Yet in his dealings with international affairs he is capable of duplicity in what he considers a game without rules.

★ ★ ★

"When negotiating, he is hard and shrewd. He does not hesitate to browbeat and intimidate an opponent if he can."

Yet the British general said if the present French government falls, "the sooner De Gaulel takes over the better."

Sir Edward cautioned, however, that the other two members of the Western Big Three must be prepared for a possible shock.

"If he comes to power he will certainly seek, while suppresisng communism in France, to use the Soviets as a balancing force against the Anglo-Americans, as he did during the war," he said.

No Sacks for WACS

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—There'll be no sacks for the WACS. "Hattie Carnegie designed our uniforms in 1950—to fit," says Lt. Col. Hattilu W. Addison, chief of recruiting for the Women's Army Corps. "We have dress blues and taupes and in the next two years we're getting greens. But chemises and trapezes—never!"

Males Sickened by Miladies' Beach Styles

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

He lurches away, down Fifth Avenue, in revulsion.

The third man is ferrying, by his elbow, a wife. "My dear," he says, "My G–."

All this blasphemy, in the period of perhaps five minutes, could only have been caused by the first showing in New York of the 1958 swim-suit fashions: Loose at the top, loose in the middle, loose at the hips, and tight-fitting over the thighs and calves.

Yes, grandfather, the latest styles for the beach are almost exactly what the demure ones wore in the days before Annette Kellerman got arrested (in 1910) for wearing the first form-fitting water woolies — only these are perhaps more baggy than those of the turn of the century.

They are guaranteed to hide any bulges between the neck and the knee, and to allow the utmost freedom of movement.

"Will they sell? Of course, they'll sell," says the saleswoman in charge of swimming atrocities. "Women are tired of over-exposing themselves, and leaving nothing to the imagination. And what's more, men are tired of seeing everything, and having nothing to imagine. . .

"This goes along with the chemise look, which is the most seductive look we've had in years. The more you hide, the more you leave to be discovered. Let me tell you, honey, the day of the 'mystery woman' is returning."

Meantime, back on the street, people are either laughing or seething, in about equal proportions. Both men and women.

They realize what every man and woman who has met up with fashion dictates of the past must inevitably realize—that brand new fashions are usually a set-back to grand-old fashions, and that the style cycle must go on endlessly. But this one? This swim suit that not only conceals the female form but threatens her with drowning by fabric inflation? Surely it will never go.

"This costume," says a man we asked to comment, "was designed for a woman who feels that her figure is only good enough for a bathtub behind locked doors." He scratched his head thoughtfully. "And women like that are the old ladies who have the money to set the fashions.

"I suppose I'll want to drown my wife when she gets a suit like this, but I haven't the slightest doubt she will. And I'll get used to it. Funny how fast you get used to the crazy things women do . . ."
