Family of Six Suffocates to Death in Flint Fire

2 Train-Car Crashes Hurt 1

Injured in a car-train collision yesterday afternoon, a Detroit dentist with offices in Pontiac was in critical condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

A 63-year-old Commerce Township man narrowly escaped death in a similar accident in Waterford Township.

Pontiac police said Dr. Joseph Forbes, 58, of 941 Merion Rd., Detroit, failed to stop for a red light and blinker signals at the Grand Trunk railroad crossing on Saginaw street.

The train struck the rear of Dr. Forbes' car and it went out of control, police said. It hit a street light pole and a parked car on the west side of Saginaw street, swerved to the opposite side and stopped as it struck a wooden fence.

He suffered head injuries.

His office is at 12½ N. Saginaw St.

Edwin Olsen, of 316 Farrar St., Commerce Township emerged with just scratches after his car was struck by a train on Airport road near Andersonville road in Waterford Township. Only 58 hours earlier a Drayton Plains man had been killed at a railroad crossing two miles away.

Olsen told Trooper Alfred Biland of the Pontiac State Police Post he saw blinker lights flashing but couldn't stop because of icy pavement.

The engine of the Pontiac-bound train sheared off the front of Olsen's car at the windshield. The train spun the car around, ripped the rear portion to shreds and catapulted the vehicle 85 feet through the air.

Three dogs in the car also were uninjured.

Told he'd have to go to Pontiac General Hospital, Olsen worried about his dogs but a near-by dog fancier assured him they'd be watched.

X-rays taken at the hospital showed nothing wrong with Olsen. Doctors were amazed when Olsen told them he was returning from a Flint hospital where he goes each week for treatment of a heart condition.

Olsen, a retired GMC production supervisor, now maintains his own kennels and breeds dogs.

CAR SHEARED IN HALF—A 63-year-old Commerce Township man and his three dogs escaped with just scratches when a Pontiac-bound passenger train cut the front of this auto off yesterday afternoon at a crossing at Airport road in Waterford Township. Edwin Olsen, who was on his way home from a Flint hospital where he had received a weekly treatment for a heart condition, appeared cool, calm and collected about it all, police said.

Winter's Revisit Leaves Roads Slippery, Causes Many Accidents

After a week of spring-like weather, winter made a surprise return to the Pontiac area yesterday, glazing streets and roads.

Traffic was slowed throughout the county, and State Police and sheriff's deputies were kept busy for several hours handling auto accidents.

The forecast for today calls for snow flurries, partly cloudy skies and rather cold. The high will be about 34 with a low of 17 expected tonight, the Weather Bureau reports.

Northwesterly winds from 18-28 m.p.h. will diminish late today and tonight. Tomorrow will be a little warmer with a predicted high near 39 and partly cloudy skies.

Monday's outlook is for cloudy skies and warmer temperatures.

Pontiac State Police reported several slippery spots on U.S. 10 in the northern part of the county today.

Police said all side roads were slippery, but that the worst smash-ups were occurring on the slippery spots on main highways.

Fifteen was the lowest recorded temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The thermometer registered 28 at 1 p.m.

Ballot Rights of 3 Minority Parties Disputed

Oakland Vote Officials Claim They've Failed to Comply With Law

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Oakland County election officials have challenged the rights of the Prohibition, Socialist Labor, and Socialist Workers' parties to be on statewide April 6 ballots.

Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore, chairman of the Election Commission here, late yesterday sent a telegram and letter to Secretary of State James M. Hare asking for "a directive to correct this error on a statewide basis."

Moore and County Clerk-Register Daniel T. Murphy Jr. contend that the three so-called minority parties have not complied with a 1955 election law to properly win spots on next month's ballots.

Moore cited figures to show that the Prohibition Party's candidate for governor last November failed to get at least one per cent of the total votes cast for Hare, the successful candidate for Secretary of State.

The chairman said in the letter to Hare that returns show this candidate received but 3,622 statewide votes while Hare received 1,290,759.

"This is roughly three-tenths of the necessary one per cent," Moore pointed out.

Besides, he added, the Prohibition and other two minor parties did not exercise an alternative of filing with Hare's office petitions bearing the signatures of electors equaling one per cent to qualify for the April 6 ballots.

No figures were shown for the gubernatorial candidates of the other two parties in last November's election because, Moore said, he believed them to be even less than the 3,622.

Blame Cigarette for Smoldering, Killing Blaze

Neighbors See Heavy Smoke, Get No Answer to Knock on Door

From Our News Wires

FLINT—A family of six apparently suffocated today when a discarded cigarette started a long smoldering fire in their small frame home.

Firemen said the mother, father and their four children all died in their sleep.

The victims were Richard Pelch, 29, his wife, Audrey, 24, and their children, Diane, 8, Carol, 7, Richard Jr., 5, and James, 3.

The fire was discovered shortly before 4 a.m. by neighbors, Philip Pitts and his wife, Daveta.

Pitts said he awoke and smelled smoke. He and his wife were unable to find a fire around their house, "but I looked out the window and saw heavy smoke" coming from the Pelch home next door.

Pitts, a factory worker, notified the fire department while his wife went next door to try to awaken the family.

Mrs. Pitts said she knocked on the front door, got no response and could only see heavy, black smoke and a few flickering flames. She said she then went to a back window, broke it open and called.

"I didn't hear anything," she said.

Mrs. Pitts tried to summon help from Pelch's mother, Mrs. Nina Pelch, a widow who lived next door.

But by that time the fire department arrived and broke into the house.

Firemen found all four children in one room, with the two girls lying on the floor, their arms around each other.

The smallest boy, James, was rushed to Flint Hurley Hospital but he was dead on arrival.

The parents were found dead in their room.

Firemen said the blaze apparently started from a cigarette in an overstuffed chair in the living room.

They said the flames smouldered for a long time, filling the house with dense smoke. Damage to the house was relatively minor, firemen said.

The inside of the small, 24-by-24-foot home was charred, and a hole was burned in the floor under the chair.

Pelch was a part-time mechanic at a local trucking firm.

He got the job only a few weeks ago after recovering from a broken leg suffered a year ago.

Northern Michigan Blast Worst in 21 Years

Old Man Winter Shows His Teeth Again

From Our News Wires

Michigan weathermen rated yesterday's storm the worst in 21 years in the state's Northern Lower Peninsula and it was the worst in 10 in Iowa, showing that winter still had plenty of bite left even though it bows out in 15 days.

The Upper Peninsula and northern sections of the Lower Peninsula got most of the snow. More than 13 inches of new snow fell at Marquette in Northwestern Upper Michigan and the Soo at the eastern end had 7.6 inches.

Numerous highways remained blocked in snow-choked sections of Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan as high winds whipped snowfalls of up to 22 inches into 20-foot drifts.

In Michigan, about 30 persons were stranded south of Marquette as the roughest blizzard of the winter carrying 12-inch snowfalls blocked U.S. Route 41. All of them crowded into a nearby house for the night.

Nearly three dozen cars were tied up along another section of U.S. 41 near Harvey and Negaunee.

Snow squalls in the Detroit area produced a rash of accidents Friday night. No serious injuries were reported.

The gusty winds raking the storm area died down during the night in most sections, but falling temperatures turned packed snow and slush to a treacherous ice coat in Ohio.

Deaths blamed on the storm numbered 33—12 in Iowa, 10 in

Ike, Khrushchev Attempt to Look United on Berlin

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev are locked in a strange kind of contest—each trying to convince the other his side is united on the issue of Berlin's future.

With Secretary of State John Foster Dulles on the sidelines fighting cancer, Eisenhower moved into a more active foreign affairs role.

In East Germany Khrushchev was busy assembling his allies.

The President met for 90 minutes at the White House yesterday with the four top Republican and Democratic leaders in Congress.

He followed that up with a White House session with eight other key Republican and Democratic members of Congress.

A proclamation of complete bipartisan support came from the four top leaders—Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson and Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn, both of Texas, Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and House Republican Leader Charles Halleck of Indiana.

They all said they are four square behind Eisenhower's policy of standing firm against Soviet efforts to oust the Allies from Berlin while keeping flexibly disposed to negotiate a settlement.

Officials said today Eisenhower may make a radio-television appeal for public understanding and support.

They said the President does not yet think the situation warrants such a broadcast. But they foresaw it as a possible move if there is a further heightening tension.

Khrushchev, busy talking up peaceful coexistence at a trade fair in Leipzig, East Germany, let it be known he will consult with his satellite leaders next week in East Berlin.

Khrushchev has proposed that Poland and Czechoslovakia attend a foreign ministers meeting along with the Big Four and both Germanies.

West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt said today if the Russians sign a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany, they will ruin chances of a German settlement.

Rep. Clarkson Finds Out Bells Toll for No One

A freshman legislator from Oakland County has found out for whom the bells toll on railroad locomotives.

His answer: No one.

State Rep. James Clarkson (D-Southfield) points out that state law requires engineers to ring their bells at every grade crossing.

But, the train whistle must be blown, too, because the bell can't be heard over the train noise.

Clarkson knows this is true. He rode the cab of a Chesapeake and Ohio locomotive from Detroit to Lansing last week to find out.

Therefore, he says he will file a bill stipulating that bells don't have to be used where they can't be heard.

Will use of the train whistle alone help put railroads back on the prosperity track?

You're darn tooting, says Clarkson, "repairs to the ineffectual bells cost thousands annually."

Hostage-Taker Captured as Police Shot Fells Him

TRENTON, Ga. (AP)—Alabama desperado William E. Smothers was shot down and captured today as he attempted to shoot it out with a Georgia sheriff.

Police Chief H. H. Hutchings felled the crafty, cigar-smoking fugitive with a single shot from his .38-caliber pistol at Hooker Road and U.S. Highway 11.

Dade County Sheriff Allison Blevins and Hutchings had surprised Smothers, 38, standing on a road near a railroad crossing, the latter related.

"He threw his gun in the sheriff's face," Hutchings said. "I beat him to it."

The police chief said Smothers was identified by a gray coat, white shirt, blue trousers, and red cap which he wore in a desperate flight through Alabama and into nearby Tennessee.

The wounded criminal was taken to the Tri-County Hospital at Fort Oglethorpe, some 15 miles from the capture scene. Hutchings said his bullet shattered the wanted man's left shoulder but that he did not believe the wound was critical.

Lawmen from Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama combed this tri-state hill country for Smothers since he overpowered an Alabama patrolman Thursday and fled northward with four hostages.

He released his captives unharmed in north Alabama and later abandoned his getaway car near South Pittsburg, Tenn., about 15 miles from where he was caught.

Smothers had gained control over Alabama patrolman Otto Dees and the driver of the car, Ted Easley, a prison trusty serving 25 years for murder.

About noon Thursday, armed with Dees' revolver, Smothers added Mr. and Mrs. Noel Keith to his group of hostages.

Following a cautious drive to Flat Rock, Ala., about 25 miles south of here, the hostages were released unharmed. It was the Keiths' auto that later was found near South Pittsburg.

Lenten Guideposts Looks Beyond Horizon

What Is Death?... Some Have Lived to Tell

By JOSEPHINE CRISLER
Arlington, Virginia

Many of us know some individual whose life has been revitalized by a brush with death. We know others whose concept of life eternal gives them an inner radiance. Call it what we will—a miracle, a vision, a revelation—such experiences set up a chain reaction of inspiration to others.

I have had more than one such friend, and several of them were very young. There was a 19-year-old pilot, killed early in World War II. He had scribbled a poem on the back of an envelope and tucked it in his last letter home; it reached his family the day after news of his death.

Miss Crisler

There are those who will tell you that it ranks with Keats and Shelley. Perhaps you have read John Magee's "High Flight" which ends with that majestic line:

"I put out my hand and touched the face of God."

The young poet's mother told me: "I don't allow myself to think of the crash. I think instead of what he would want me to remember."

But no amount of self-discipline can completely eradicate the very natural wonder as to what passed through the mind of a loved one when death approached. For these, there is comfort in the words of an eminent doctor, who told me:

FEW SHOW FEAR

"I have practiced medicine for 40 years. I have seen sudden death, and I have watched lingering death. Few people show any fear at the moment of passing, some, indeed, seem transfigured.

"My young brother was like that. At 17, he lay dying of a long and incurable illness. I was sitting beside him, my hand on his pulse, waiting for the end. He seemed too weak to move again.

"Suddenly, he sat bolt upright, crying, 'Oh, isn't that beautiful? Isn't that the most glorious music you ever heard?'

"His face was radiant as he fell back in my arms, dead. I, who would have rejected the speculative proof of a theologian, could not reject the fact that my young brother, in the moment of his passing, had seen and heard something incredibly beautiful . . . something I could neither see nor hear."

But most spectacular of all is the experience of Mrs. R. B. Counts of Memphis, Tenn., who met death, and who no longer fears it because—as she told me—"while I was 'away,' I had a glimpse of Paradise."

Lest you should think she is some sort of crank, let me assure you that she is one of the sanest, most intelligent and consistently hard-working individuals of my acquaintance. She supports herself and her mother in the highly competitive business of real estate. Here is her story as she told it to me:

"We were returning from a visit to our married daughter. A man driving a truck pulled out of line or a hill . . . he had been drinking . . . the blacktop road was wet. When he saw us, he slammed on his brakes.

"I have no memory of the crash. My glasses were imbedded in my face . . . my jaws were broken in five places . . ." Her voice dropped a little:

"I am so grateful. I could have been blinded or terribly mutilated.

"My first moment of consciousness was the realization that I had 'come back' from something so beautiful, I can't describe it even to myself. Every night before I go to sleep, I try to recapture it again. I remember trees and flowers . . . color and the most glorious light!"

Her voice trembled and for a moment I thought she would not go on. Then she said:

"The beauty of it was secondary, really . . . it was the utter peace . . . the sense of security . . . the sure conviction that everything was all right. You see, I had been a chronic worrier all my life . . . about bills, about every little problem . . . about things that never even happened.

ONLY GRATITUDE

"But during those seven months, when I had to be fed through a tube, I never seemed to mind the pain. I felt only gratitude for the Second Group Getting Ready in Detroit for Trek to Alaska

CHICAGO (AP)—A band of homesteaders traveling in automobiles and trucks headed out of the Chicago area today on the third day of their long trek to Alaska.

The 37 men, women and children rolled northwest on the Illinois toll road toward the Wisconsin state line after spending the night at a campground near suburban Hinsdale.

The little group of modern pioneers, all from Michigan, left Detroit Thursday morning on the 4,300 mile trek to the nation's newest state. Bitter weather and road troubles beset the party from the start.

"We are two days out of Detroit and we're already two days late," said Marino Sik, 32, a member of the party.

The former oil company employe is taking his wife and 8-month-old daughter to homestead land in Alaska's Kenai Peninsula. He said he is hopeful the group will reach its destination in three or four weeks.

The 13 men, 10 women and 14 children are traveling in 14 vehicles, most of them pulling house trailers.

High winds, blurred with snow, and slick roads cut the caravan's speed to about 25 miles an hour. The poor visibility also led to the group making wrong turns off the complicated cloverleafs of express highways.

"Be prepared" is the slogan of a second group of 59ers in Detroit getting ready for a migration to Alaska.

The second group hopes to profit from the mistakes of the first which at the last minute had to get an old van to haul heavy equipment.

Mrs. Helen Webb of suburban Livonia said the second group is enlisting the help of local businessmen to expedite the 59ers' future efforts to reach the 49th state.

The group hopes to obtain use of an Air Force C-119 Flying Boxcar to ship heavy material from Selfridge Air Force Base to Anchorage. They plan to ask Sen. Patrick V. McNamara (D-Mich) to help them in the project.

Yvonne Stevens, the 22-year-old Detroit redhead who got left behind when the 59ers left Detroit for Alaska two days ago, hit the road today in a flashy red truck.

She hopes to travel fast to make up for lost time.

"We hope to catch them before they reach North Dakota," she said. "The way things are going I think we will."

Miss Stevens and four others missed the main caravan because of various troubles with their four vehicles.

Delaware May Erase News Libel Protection

DOVER, Del. (AP)—The Delaware general assembly has approved changes in the state's libel law which would wipe out certain protection for newspapers under a "good faith" provision.

The bill would repeal a section of the law which requires persons intending to sue newspapers for libel to give five days' notice of their intentions.

It also would wipe out a provision that in criminal cases, where it appears an article in question was published in good faith and a full and fair correction, retraction and apologies are printed, "the defendant shall be fined a penny and the costs and no more."

Alsop Says We'll Never Know Times Without Cold War

By RHEA VIETOR

Stewart Alsop, newspaperman and author, closed the current Town Hall series in Birmingham Friday with an address on "The Balance of Power."

Alsop opened his talk at the Birmingham Theater with the observation that "this is hardly a gay, cheerful or entertaining topic." He was right.

In an extremely serious vein, he outlined the situation that faces the United States today in regard to the Berlin issue.

"The cold war will go on as long as you and I are alive," he said.

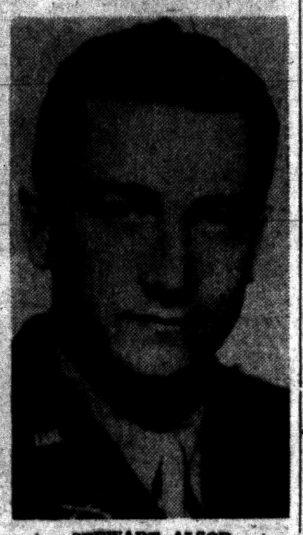

He quoted Khrushchev's remark that Berlin was a "malignant tumor" and said that the Soviet premier regards Berlin in exactly that light, adding that it is a tumor he is determined to cut out.

"Russia has forced us into a game of chicken," Alsop quoted a U. S. official as saying about the crisis in Germany.

Alsop pointed out that in a study of the balance of power in the world, Khrushchev himself is the logical starting point.

He confessed that his contact with the Red premier was brief during his stay in Moscow and chiefly distinguished by Khrushchev's remark: "Mr. Alsop, I have read what you have written from the Soviet Union and I do not like it."

STEWART ALSOP

Alsop observed that Khrushchev has a sense of humor, although it is a rather macabre one by American standards. He pointed out that a man with humor is also a rational man—in contrast to Adolph Hitler, for example.

"This man also is a gambler—a 'go-for-broke' man who is willing to take great personal risks to achieve his goal," Alsop said later.

He also stated that Khrushchev is an utterly ruthless individual. Alsop explained that Khrushchev has an odd and dangerous quirk: he is fascinated with the terrible new weapons that the Soviet scientists have developed for him.

According to Alsop, these are the possible thoughts of the Russian premier at this time:

"If I can win Berlin, I can win the ball game. . .If America is crazy enough to force the issue, my missiles can knock out their Strategic Air Command bases."

Alsop says that as long as a missile gap exists, we are in a jam, perhaps the worst in history." He called the lag in the missile program "inexcusable."

Trying to see a ray of light through this gloomy picture, Alsop believed that the situation is not hopeless even now. He mentioned the Air Alert plan brought up by President Eisenhower Wednesday, in which a constant defense would be maintained in the air.

"The United States is faced by a hostile power capable of destroying civilization," said Alsop, "and the entire situation may come down to one word—guts."

He believes that the United States must be willing to face possible destruction, knowing what the consequences may be.

A graduate of Yale University, Alsop was an editor with Doubleday Doran before World War II. During the war he distinguished himself in both the British and the American armies, winning the Croix de Guerre. In 1945 he started a column, "Matter of Fact," with his brother, Joseph, which was syndicated in over 200 newspapers. Last year he visited Russia.

revelation of divine love that had come to me."

At this point I interrupted: "Now that you seem to have lost all fear of death, do you want to die?"

"Lots of people have asked me that. I can only tell you that I love life and I want to live as long as I can be useful.

"As a matter of fact," she added, "life is ever so much better in every way. I have quit worrying and fretting. If there is something I can do about a situation, I do it. If not, I put that problem behind me and go on to something I can do something about.

"I shrink from trying to force my own thoughts on people who have a different viewpoint, but if I knew that death would come tomorrow, or next week, it would seem as natural as a journey.

"I wish all those who are afraid and those who mourn, could know what I know, that I had a glimpse of Paradise. There is indeed no death; what seems so is transition."

Old Man Winter Shows Teeth Again

Indiana, 6 in Wisconsin, 2 in Michigan, 2 in New York and 1 in Pennsylvania.

The pre-spring dose of winter claimed its victims through snow shoveling heart attacks, traffic accidents and asphyxiation.

Winds gusting up to 50 miles an hour swept the heavy snow area as the storm moved northeastward into Canada.

Two 300-foot radio towers were downed by 45 m.p.h. winds in Bowling Green, Ohio, and a house trailer was overturned while being towed on a highway near Lancaster, Ohio.

Temperatures took a sharp skid east of the Mississippi River, and early morning readings were up to 20 degrees colder than a day earlier.

Snowfall tapered off to flurries in most of the Northeast, although locally heavy flurries deposited a fresh blanket near the lower Great Lakes.

In New England, the precipitation came as heavy rain in mild 50-degree temperatures. A rainfall of 2.17 inches soaked Portland, Maine, halting air traffic and harbor activities. The rain produced local flooding in Western Massachusetts and Connecticut.

Highway maintenance officials in Iowa said some communities in the northeastern part of the state would be snowbound for several days in the wake of drifted 20-inch snowfalls.

Intercity bus travel over the state was almost non-existent after the worst snowstorm in 10 years.

An Illinois Central Railroad passenger train engine was derailed by snow east of Webster City, in north-central Iowa, for a time and got under way again after a five-hour delay.

Unestimated thousands of cars were abandoned on Iowa highways and city streets, and the situation was little better in Wisconsin where the snow measured up to 22 inches at La Crosse.

Monday Final Day to Register to Vote April 6

Monday at 8 p.m. is the deadline for new registrations for the April 6 election, City Clerk Ada R. Evans reminded voters today.

Persons newly qualified as electors must be registered by then to be eligible to cast ballots for state judicial and administrative posts and county judicial positions. Three local issues are also on the ballot, said Mrs. Evans.

The Clerk's Office in City Hall will open for registrations at 8 a.m. Monday.

Answers Staebler's Blast

Elliott Defends 10 Pct. Cut

Arthur G. Elliott Jr., chairman of the Republican Committee of Oakland County, has lashed back at Democratic State Chairman Neil Staebler's criticism of the Oakland GOP's suggestion that state spending be cut by 10 per cent.

Staebler said in Detroit this week that this plan is "incredibly irresponsible."

"If trying to balance spending with income is 'incredibly irresponsible' as Staebler charges, then there are millions of incredibly irresponsible housewives and wage earners in the State of Michigan," Elliott said in a prepared statement.

The Republican State Central Committee last weekend adopted a four-point resolution proposed by Elliott and Oakland's delegates to the state committee.

They urged the trimming of state spending as the first step toward bringing spending into balance with state revenue.

The Democratic state chairman questioned whether this plan of "the 10 per cent less party" means that 10 per cent less persons would be receiving welfare, 10 per cent less children in schools and 10 per cent fewer patients in mental hospitals.

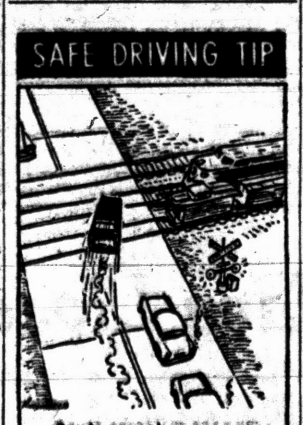

"I have yet to see any reports of Mr. Staebler criticizing Walter Reuther for cutting 78 people off the payrolls at UAW headquarters in Detroit, a budgetary move," Elliott retorted.

"In this one instance we completely agree with what the Democrats have been preaching for 10 years: what's good for Solidarity House (UAW headquarters in Detroit) is good for the State of Michigan," he added.

Elliott challenged Stabler "to quit the political tom-foolery and start thinking like a taxpayer."

SAFE DRIVING TIP

Grade crossings are a particularly dangerous kind of highway intersection.

Many grade crossing accidents are the result of carelessness, inattention, and excessive speed. In the illustration the motorist has started across a multiple track crossing only seconds after a train has passed. He has forgotten about the other track completely, and a collision is unavoidable.

The Chicago Motor Club advises that in the interest of saving their own lives, drivers should: Watch for and obey all grade crossing signs and other warnings; approach crossings at reduced speeds; look both ways before crossing; and, under adverse driving conditions, stop completely to make sure the crossing is clear.

Atlantic Storm Gives 'Queen Liz' Rough Crossing

Boards Control Most Selling

Dowagiac Farmer's Plan to Migrate Popular Topic in Pubs

By GORDON TAIT

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—"Ha-ha," guffawed the Aussie.

"What's the joke, mate?" asked his companion in a country pub.

"Look," said the man with the horse laugh as he passed over a newspaper. "Here's a story about a joker in America who's selling his farm and coming to Australia because he doesn't like the government telling him what to do.

"What! With all our egg boards and apple boards and meat boards?"

And he read the story of Stanley Yankus, the American who said he would sell his chicken and wheat farm at Dowagiac, Mich., and migrate down here. Yankus since 1953 has been fighting the U.S. government's wheat acreage allotment program and was assessed about $2,000 in fines and penalties on charges that he violated the program.

If Yankus does come to Australia, he'll find plenty of control over the sale of much of what he grows. There won't be any government dictation on what he plants or breeds—as long as he doesn't breeed common rabbits, the national pest.

There are countless boards set up by Australian governments to organize and control the sale of products—boards for butter, wheat, eggs, apples and pears, meat, milk, sugar, potatoes and coal. There are also prickly pear and rabbit boards—both aimed at controlling these pests.

Most boards are set up by state governments, so they vary in functions and authority.

But let's say Yankus decides to be a wheat and chicken farmer in New South Wales state—and that would be a strange mixture of interests anywhere in Australia. He could buy his farm, plant his wheat and run his chickens.

But he would have to sell his wheat through the Australian Wheat Board—he couldn't make a deal with a local flour mill. The Wheat Board, set up by the federal government, comprises representatives of government and growers. It has a wheat marketing monopoly, puts wheat into a pool and averages the price. This year, Yankus would have got a first payment of 11 shillings ($1.32) a bushel for bulk wheat, less freight. Further payments would come, depending on the price received.

Then Yankus has to do something with the eggs from his chickens. These must be sold through the egg marketing board set up by the New South Wales state government. The board would charge him 4½ pence (about 4 cents) for handling and 7 pence (about 6½ cents) for a stabilization fund for each dozen it handled.

The fund aims to give all the growers the same return whether the eggs are sold on the local market or on a cheaper export market. He could get special permission to sell eggs outside the board, but would still have to pay the board those 11½ pence a dozen.

If Yankus decides to change from wheat and chickens to sheep, that's okay by the government. There is no board controlling the sale of wool.

But all the time, the farmer would have to be on the lookout on his property for such things as erosion or some plant the local authorities might have declared a noxious weed.

Suppose Yankus decides to quit farming and try a business. He settles for a corner shop sort of family business that sells everything.

If its in Sydney, he has to watch the clock. He must stop selling groceries at 5:30 p.m., fruit and vegetables at 6:30, delicatessen lines at 10:30, soft drinks at 11:30. Also, he has to have his shop registered and located in a street where shops are permitted.

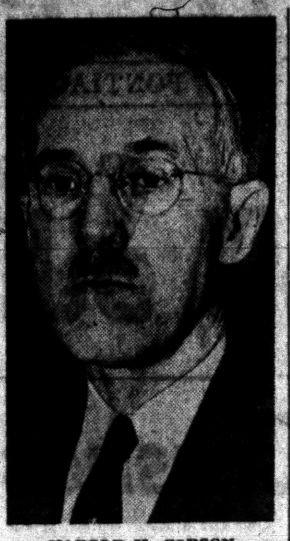

Or he decides to change to a backyard factory. The local council has to approve the factory, and then the government has to give the nod. But if everything is okay, he and his wife can run the factory day and night—providing the police don't say the noise is a nuisance outside daytime hours. He can make the factory turn out what he likes and sell the products as he chooses.

During this time, Yankus' three children must go to school—until they are 15. The government will pay the bill at one of its schools. But—as in the United States—he would normally have to pay for a church school or a private school. If the kids are bright enough, they could go through university virtually for free on government and other scholarships.

Over-all, Yankus and his family probably would like Austria. Australians like Americans, and welcome them with wide open arms.

HAROLD H. CORSON

Ex-Birmingham Official Dies

Harold Corson Served 21 Years in Various City Positions

A retired Birmingham city official, Harold H. Corson, 72, of 979 Chesterfield Rd., died this morning at his home.

Corson, a native of Birmingham, retired in 1948 after 21 years of service in Birmingham municipal government. Prior to 1927, when he became Birmingham village engineer, he was employed with the Michigan State Highway Department.

A University of Michigan engineering graduate, he combined his duties as city engineer with those of treasurer from 1932 to 1943. During this time, he helped organize the city's accounting system.

From 1943 to 1946, Corson also held the position of city manager in the absence of Donald C. Egbert who was in the Armed Forces. From 1946 to 1948, he again devoted full time to his city engineering position.

During World War I he served as a captain in the chemical warfare department. He was a past commander of Charles Edwards Post, American Legion; past president of the Northwest Detroit and Pontiac Astronomical Society, and past master of Birmingham Lodge 44, F&AM.

He was also a member of the Scottish Rite Bodies, Valley of Detroit; the American Society of Civil Engineers, and was one of the founders of the Oakland County Engineering Society.

Surviving are his wife, Gertrude H.; two sons, John R. of Cleveland, Ohio, and Theodore R. of Grand Rapids; and 13 grandchildren.

Service will be held at 3 p.m. Monday at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery under Masonic auspices.

Dulles' Treatments May Resume Today

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles may resume massive radiation treatments today for his abdominal cancer.

State department press officer Lincoln White said doctors expected to resume therapy from the one-million volt x-ray machine at Walter Reed Army Hospital, possibly today.

The treatments were begun Feb. 20 but halted earlier this week after Dulles received a one-shot injection of radioactive gold.

Dulles' future as secretary of state apparently still was undecided.

The Japanese representative in the United States was elevated to the rank of an ambassador on April 5, 1905.

The Day in Birmingham

Campaign Being Planned Against Dutch Elm Disease

BIRMINGHAM — Area residents will have a chance March 16 from 2 to 4 p.m. to join city officials in planning their battle to protect public and privately owned trees against Dutch Elm disease.

Charles Gale, city forester, said a panel made up of municipal employes, three nursery men, the Audubon Society and Dr. George J. Wallace, University of Michigan zoologist, will discuss the problem at the Birmingham Community House.

New techniques of the disease's control and proper spraying methods will be described. A special feature will be discussion of the protection of birds and small animals, sometimes poisoned by the spray.

The program, according to Gale, is being sponsored by the forestry and parks departments of Birmingham, Pontiac and Ferndale and the Oakland County Cooperative Extension Service.

Three Parties Face Ballot Challenge

Dec. 4 by Hare to all county election chairmen certified the three parties, plus the Democratic and Republican parties, as being properly qualified for the April ballot.

"This certificate is apparently in error," Moore wrote Hare in asking for an immediate clarification as Oakland is ready to print its ballots.

"Ballots bearing political parties and nominees must be either reprinted or some method devised to exclude from the vote the three minority parties," Moore wrote. Some ballots probably are already printed in other counties, he said.

Upon his discovery, the judge phoned State Elections Director Robert Montgomery to tell what he had found.

"Montgomery says he's following a 1949 attorney general's opinion and that the law doesn't apply in this case," Moore commented.

Judge Moore said the challenging of the three parties had nothing to do with Republican attempts, which failed, to persuade Kenneth W. Cole, a Saginaw attorney, from withdrawing as a Prohibitionist candidate for the Supreme Court on the April ballots.

Oakland Republicans feel his name on the ballots will hurt the chances of their "favorite son" candidate for the same post, Maurice F. Cole, a Circuit Court commissioner from Ferndale.

Judge Moore led the fight at the Republican State Convention in Detroit last month to get Maurice Cole nominated.

The judge came upon the law for political parties to qualify for ballots, along with Murphy, as they studied election laws governing what designations the two Coles can legally have under their names on the ballot.

He said the designations—Maurice Cole wants "Circuit Court commissioner" and Kenneth Cole wants "attorney" — would, if approved, remove any possible confusion among voters.

Clerks in Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and Bloomfield Township remind voters that Monday is the registration deadline to be eligible for the April 6 election.

Newcomers and persons who have not voted during the past four years are urged to register.

About 600 persons visited the "Christmas Village" an annual feature at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Farmer, 1376 Bennaville St. and contributed $35 for muscular distrophy research. The village, made up of hundreds of tiny dolls and many typical village scenes is being packed away again after a three month display.

The Senior High Pilgrim Fellowship of the Congregational Church of Birmingham has started its ticket sale for the pancake supper to be held at the church at 6:45 p.m. Thursday. Proceeds will be used to help finance the group's annual spring trip.

Another ballroom dancing class will begin at the Community House at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday if enough registrations are received. Myra Showman, registrar, said the class taught by Charles Doan has exceeded its registration and, therefore, the second class is being offered.

State Bar Won't Check Trombly

Decides to Wait Until Macomb Judge Returns to Bench May 1

LANSING (AP) — The State Bar's Board of Commissioners has declined to initiate proceedings to determine the physical and mental fitness of Macomb County Probate Judge Joseph V. Trombly.

The Macomb County Bar Assn. had asked the commissioners to petition the state Employes Retirement Board for an examination of Trombly.

But, the board voted unanimously yesterday to defer any action until after May 1.

That's the date when Trombly, whose operations of the Macomb court have been under fire, will end a two-months leave of absence.

Supreme Court Administrator Meredith H. Doyle recently investigated the Macomb Probate Court. His report listed several conditions there as "detrimental to sound judicial administration."

But, the bar board said any action on Trombly's status now would be premature.

Trombly's long court service, the board said, has earned him "every opportunity of restoring himself to a sufficiently healthy state so that he can carry out his duties as a senior probate judge."

Trombly has completed a check-up in a Detroit hospital. His Macomb post has been temporarily taken over by Probate Judge Donald T. Anderson of Kalamazoo under a Supreme Court directive.

Doctor Lists Justified Anxieties

No Worries? You're Sick!

LOS ANGELES (AP)—If you're not worried in times like these, you're neurotic, says Dr. Rollo May, a New York psychologist.

Here to lecture at the University of California at Los Angeles, Dr. May said the goal of psychology is to help people to be anxious about the right things.

He listed as justified anxieties of the age problems such as whether man will survive, how he can learn to know himself and how he can learn to love.

Among wrong things to worry about, Dr. May listed how to make a million dollars.

Formula Will Tell You How Miserable You Are

Weatherman Plans 'Discomfort Index'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Weather Bureau announced today that when the heat and humidity return next summer many of its stations will keep the public apprised of the "discomfort index."

This will let you know at a glance whether you are just uncomfortable or "acutely miserable."

Calculation and announcement of the discomfort index, derived from heat and humidity measurements, will be on a purely experimental basis until it is determined whether there is enough public demand to make the service permanent.

"Index figures," the bureau predicted, "will enable managers of office buildings, hotels and movie houses to judge when they should turn on the air conditioning machinery. They will also enable utilities to judge the power load for air conditioning that their customers require."

The "discomfort index" was worked out, and the term invented, by climatologist Earl C. Thom. He realized, of course, that some people start clawing at their collar long before others.

After considerable study, he arrived at a sort of curve showing roughly for various values of the index what percentage of the population will be uncomfortable and in what degree.

The index may be stated in terms of temperature and relative humidity. The index reaches 75, for example, when the temperature is 75 degrees and the relative humidity 100 per cent, or 80 degrees and 60 per cent, or 85 and 30.

Thom's curve shows that in summertime 10 per cent of the population will be uncomfortable even before the index hits 70. When it passes 75, more than half will be uncomfortable, and at 79 everybody will be uncomfortable.

At 79, in fact, many persons will feel "acutely miserable."

Above 80 "discomfort increases rapidly." In Washington, D. C., federal employes may be sent home when the index reaches 86 in office buildings.

In fall, winter and spring, when people are accustomed to lower temperatures, discomfort sets in at lower index values. In these seasons, 10 per cent of the population will find it stuffy when the index is only a little above 66. In winter, "nearly everybody will find 74 unpleasant."

The bureau is leaving it up to the participating stations to decide just how to communicate the index to the public. Ultimately, if the service catches on, the index may be forecast daily, along with temperature and other predictions.

In that event, if you wanted to find out how bad you felt, you could just dial the automatic forecast number, and the girl with the mechanical voice would tell you.

Avon Youth Held in Stolen Car Case

FBI agents in Detroit are holding an 18-year-old Avon Township youth today on a charge of conspiring to transport a stolen car across state lines.

Arrested yesterday was Eugene Wade Franzel of 3158 Longview St. Authorities said they believe Franzel, who allegedly stole a car from the Associates Discount Corp. of Lansing Township, was linked with a robbery gang in Lansing.

A Tail Story About Waiting for the Kill

OKMULGEE, Okla. (AP) — Mrs. Elsie Whetsel declared war on a mouse she saw in her home. After spending her energy trying to hit it with a broom she sat down in a rocking chair to rest.

The mouse darted past her chair and she rocked back, pinning the mouse by the tail. She waited in that position two hours before her husband got home and killed the rodent.

Tulsa Vital Cog for Air Force

All Supply Requisitions Come Into This Office in Nontarget Area

TULSA, Okla. (UPI) — One of the smallest — and yet most vital — cogs in one of the world's biggest machines is located in Tulsa. Without this little cog, the mighty U.S. Air Force would slowly come to a standstill.

Located on a busy street and looking like any one of hundreds of small office buildings nearby is the Air Force Transceiver Control Center, the only one like it in the world.

Into the center comes hundreds of telephone lines from Air Force bases, supply points and commercial manufacturers all over the world.

Through it pass all Air Force supply requisitions — from tiny cotter pins to giant aircraft engines.

Watching over this most crucial operation is a civilian — J. D. (Jerry) Havnen, 39, a former officer.

So important is the center to the Air Force, however, that Havnen is one of the few civilians to have the title of "officer-in-charge" and he operates directly under Maj. Gen. Thomas P. Gerrity, commander of the Oklahoma City Air Material Command.

Behind closed doors marked "restricted" is a battery of complicated IBM machines, each receiving coded messages from Air Force bases ordering supplies.

All these messages are reduced to punched IBM cards. They are then sorted, classed by priority, and stacked for retransmission to the supply points, warehouses or manufacturers who can supply the needs.

The whole operation — from the remote base that needs an item to the storehouse that can supply it—need take only a few minutes. The supply point always sends back an acknowledgment, telling how soon the item will be shipped and where from.

In an average day, the center will receive, sort and send a quarter of a million cards. The record for one day was 328,000.

Why was Tulsa picked for the "cog"? Because of its central location and also because it is not a prime target area for any potential enemy, Havnen said.

Courtesy Box Plan Saves Parking Fines

KITANNING, Pa. (UPI)—Police here have instituted a "courtesy box" system for improving relations with overtime parkers.

A motorist ticketed for overtime parking can get away with a bargain-rate $1.25 fine if, within an hour of receiving the ticket, he deposits a quarter in the "courtesy box" attached to each parking meter and later pays another dollar at police headquarters.

Police chief Meldron Bowers said about 85 per cent of all violators have been taking this "easy way out." He added that "almost all the women" who receive tickets are making use of the new system, while the men seem to be more suspicious.

Pontiac Auto Club Calls May Hit All Time High

The Pontiac Division of the Automobile Club of Michigan may be headed for an all-time high in road service calls, following a statewide trend.

Arthur Bogue, division manager here, estimates that garages in his area handled 190,700 calls in 1958.

"The figure should be much higher this year with more than 124,300 calls handled since Dec. 1," he said.

Bogue cited weak batteries, heavy snow and an excess of ice as the chief causes for the calls. "Our 'can't start' and 'stuck' calls, which normally account for 65 per cent of all complaints will near 80 per cent this year because of the severity of winter," he said.

Figures throughout Michigan are on a decided upward trend, according to Robert C. Nisbet, the club's road service manager.

"Our figures show that calls in Michigan this year are 65 per cent higher than last winter," he stated.

Explaining the increase numerically Nisbet said:

"Last year an estimated 3,480,000 calls set a new record, but garages throughout the state came within a million of this mark during the past three months alone."

Garage owners throughout the state have suffered considerable breakdowns of equipment because of the frequent snow and ice.

It Seems to Me . . .

Late Winter Miscellany

Here are some significant figures to evaluate when you think the Russians are "becoming supreme." The New York Journal American dug up these comparative facts and every American should have a general idea of the situation.

IN THE U.S.		IN RUSSIA
175 Million	Population	220 million
3 mil. sq. mi.	Land Area	8.6 mil. sq. mi.
1 out of 10	Farming	1 out of 2
220,000 miles	Railroads	75,000 miles
2.3 mil. miles	Good Roads	13,000 miles
56 million	Pers'n'l autos	700,000
(See across)	Air travel	1-10 U. S.
63.6 million	Phones	3.5 million
45 million	TV sets	2 million
344 sq. ft.	House space Per person	52 square ft.

Russia may have passed the United States in certain areas of the arms race, but you can't eat each day on the fact your nation possesses a 5,000 mile rocket; and there's very little personal pleasure in contemplating the fact that your dog whirls for months in space.

Keep these figures in mind.

A greater stockpile of death-dealing instruments doesn't guarantee a single thing if the lesser stockpile is still big enough to wipe you out of existence yourself. There comes a time in the arms races when a greater surplus becomes meaningless. If you drown in ten feet of water you're just as far gone as though it had been 300.

New Finance Idea . . . .

Financing Republican and Democratic political campaigns becomes increasingly difficult.

In a way, the burden on the GOP may be the greater as union money has poured into strategic Democratic campaigns in breath-taking gobs.

A Philadelphian has worked out a formula but it could well apply to either party. The Easterner would form a nationwide group called the "Republican Association." Membership would be $2 a year, payable Spring and Fall at a dollar a crack. Basically, this would become a precinct organization. The plan would start from the bottom and work up instead of beginning on a high level and filter downward. This process usually peters out long before the bottom is reached. Political fund raising campaigns have essentially been aimed at the big givers. The GOP has sought to finance its work with hunks of coin poured in from a few lucrative sources. The Dems tap the union tills and multi-millionaire candidates.

The new plan would consist in an attempt to enlist ten million members. This money would be split five ways:

Precinct 40c
Ward or Township 40c
City or County 40c
State 40c
National 40c

If the GOP secured five million contributors who, faithfully paid their two dollars each year, the total contributions in four years would total $40 million.

Each division would get ten million.

If double that number contributed, the amount would be twice as great.

Those who felt the urge and obligation to give "in larger" amounts would still be greeted with great enthusiasm, but they would give strictly outside of the Republican Association.

Perhaps both parties should institute such a system. It would heighten the interest in the campaigns for we're always more interested in the things we finance.

Can't Wait for Dulles . . . .

With JOHN FOSTER DULLES happily "recovering," but with a long, long trail ahead and with CHRISTIAN HERTER badly crippled with arthritis, it looks as though President DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER should have a couple replacements warming up on the side side lines.

I hope Dulles recovers 100 per cent, and I hope Herter does too, but world diplomacy won't wait. It won't even slow down. And we're the Head Man in the International show, so it behooves the President to protect us all by some definite action. The President hints that Dulles can make important decisions "from his bedside."

Tosh and nonsense.
Let's face the facts.
Let's take action.

And in Conclusion . . . .

Jottings from the well thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

The U. S. lost the international bridge tournament for the fifth year in a row . . . . . Three attractive New York State high school girls, age 17, will spend six months in jail for telephoning a series of bomb threats to their school. It's time the whole nation cracks down . . . . . Friends tell me that ALVIN BENTLEY, Owosso's young and energetic Congressman, has made up his mind to run for the Senate against MCNAMARA in 1960. He's a very likely candidate . . . . . Polls in eight states show KENNEDY running first and NIXON second as popular Presidential choices . . . . . In case you don't know it, the "most wanted" woman in the U. S. is JANETT CARROLL CRUSENBERRY. (Wanted, that is, by the FBI, which says she's a "vicious, rough talking gun moll.") If I spy JANETT, she'll never spy me.

Governor Nelson Rockefeller appeared at the National Outdoor Exposition at the New York Coliseum and was roundly and soundly booed. The demonstration has nothing to do with the Exposition. N. Y. taxpayers were sounding off on his new budget . . . . . Purely personal nomination for an especially attractive young woman: Mrs. John Hirlinger . . . . . Members of the armed forces get a big break. All those dizzy commercials are thrown in the ash can . . . . . May is the "top tornado month" followed by June and April . . . . . Someone just told me that Stuart and Dorothy Whitfield do about the best husband-wife job of holding their weights at a constant level in this area.

PAULA HALL, actress, says some of these Hollywood marriages are so short the lawyers have to argue over who will get possession of the wedding cake . . . . . ZSA ZSA GABOR declares there's no such thing as a "dull millionaire." Nuts! I know several myself . . . . . GRETCHEN WYLER avers a drive-in movie is a good place to turn off the ignition and try the clutch . . . . . Only 10 per cent of the people who buy Dr. ZHIVAGO finish it.

The POWER of FAITH

by Howard Brodie

Each Friday, amid the tensions, wars and tyrannies of the Middle East, a dedicated band of Franciscan Fathers relives the events of the Via Dolorosa, the last path of Jesus Christ from His condemnation to His tomb.

Recently, I joined them in their sad journey past the stations where Jesus received His cross, where Simon of Cyrene helped Him to carry it, where He met the women of Jerusalem, and on to Calvary.

I marveled that, throughout the years of man-made violence that have swept the Holy Land, this simple act of devotion has prevailed for six centuries, demonstrating that the enduring love Christ taught us is stronger than the passing tensions of the day.

Days of All Faiths:

Time of Lent Varies in Churches

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

The western churches are now well along in Lent, this being the fourth Sunday, but in the Eastern Orthodox churches the Lenten season will not begin until Monday, March 16. The reason for this is somewhat complex, having to do mainly with the easterners' different way of computing the date of Easter which sets the days of Lent. Their Easter this year falls on May 3.

The second Sunday before Lent is traditionally known as Meat Fare Sunday. In former times this was the last day on which the faithful were allowed to eat meat. Through this coming week they might still have milk, cheese, etc., but on the next Sunday (called Cheese Fare Sunday) all that had to stop, too. From then on—no meat or dairy products until Easter.

The obvious purpose of Meat Fare and Cheese Fare Sundays was to give the people an opportunity to ease gradually into the strict dietary discipline of Lent and, from a practical standpoint, to give housewives some leeway in clearing out their supplies of these foods. There is something to be said in favor of this gradual approach as contrasted with the western custom of using up all the rich food in one big gastronomic spree on the day before Ash Wednesday.

Both Meat Fare and Cheese Fare Sundays are now mostly pleasant resemblances of an earlier, more severe era in church life. Dietary restrictions are much more lenient now, with the first week and the last week in Lent being the only rigid times.

Dispensations and exceptions also have become more widespread nowadays. The old laws have been greatly relaxed in regard to sick people, travelers, laborers, etc.

Note that the Orthodox churches begin Lent on Monday, not on Ash Wednesday as westerners do.

Church World Service, an organization numbering many Protestant and several Orthodox communions among its members, operates on the principle that man is his brother's keeper. Concerned about the millions of undernourished, underprivileged people overseas, this agency of the National Council of Churches each year raises funds—$11 million this year—with which to buy American surplus foods and distribute them overseas. Clothing and medical supplies are also sent.

A dollar goes a long way for these dedicated people. With the cost of government surpluses at a very low figure and most of the administration and distribution handled by volunteer workers, overhead is kept down to a point where Church World Service is able to deliver in foreign lands goods worth three to four times the money spent. Thus, the $11 million will provide close to $40 million worth of materials to distressed persons abroad.

No questions are asked about color, politics, or religious beliefs. The goods go to those who need it, no matter where they are or what they believe in Greece, Japan, Germany, Korea, India, Latin America and many other places. The list of countries is a long one. Church World Service has no axe to grind. Its single purpose is to relieve human want.

This humanitarian service has been going on under the present auspices since 1946, when three separate organizations merged to become Church World Service. In 1950 the unit joined with the National Council of Churches.

Dr. William Brady's Mailbag

Claims Doctor Puts Bee on Rheumatism, Arthritis

"I read about a doctor using bee stings to cure arthritis, bursitis, rheumatism, neuritis, etc. Is there any truth in this?

DR. BRADY

Answer—No.

"I'm a junior at _____ college and expect to marry at the end of this year. I realize now that I don't know as much as I thought I did about how to make marriage a success . . ."

Answer — Here are two suggestions:

1. Have a talk or several talks with your minister, priest or rabbi.

2. Send The American Institute of Family Relations, 5287 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles 27, California, 25 cents for the pamphlet Preparing for Marriage, and the Institute's list of other excellent publications on all aspects of sex and marriage.

"We have lived in Hamilton, Ont., for 30 years. My wife has had rheumatic arthritis and sciatica for ten years. Is the weather or climate here a factor . . ?"

Answer—Probably no healthier weather or climate anywhere than you have in Hamilton, except in paradise, and after all, we're overcrowded here now.

"Is bacon as likely to contain the miscroscopic trichina worm larvae as fresh pork?"

Answer—No. The larvae, encysted in meat, are generally destroyed by curing, pickling before smoking. However it is a good rule to make doubly sure by thoroughly cooking of bacon, sausage, ham or fresh pork. Fresh pork must be cooked until it becomes white and is no longer pink or red even at the center of the piece.

"I have been doing the face-making exercises prescribed in your pamphlet and in three months my hearing has become so much better that I don't need my hearing aid any more . . ."

Answer—Send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope for a copy of the pamphlet Deafness and Tinnitus (head noises). It contains instructions for the exercises, which many followers have found helpful.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

Today's Voice of the People Carries Last Gall Letters

The little Gall girl won't ask for help anymore. I, as well as those others, am guilty. Who are we? Why, society. That's why I weep. Not for the child but for me and society.

Mrs. R. E. V.

(Editor's Note: Because the Gall case has been covered quite thoroughly in Voice of the People, these will be the last letters printed on the subject.)

I, too, think it's terrible that Judith Gall had to die from her mother's beatings. I didn't die from mine, but when a child, I wished I could have died many times. I have plenty of scars and poor health from the beatings. I weighed 42 pounds when I was 11 and was always black and blue. The law is the same today as then. Nothing was done for me. She always lied to her husband about how I got the scars and bruises, and he believed her.

An Old Beaten Up Girl

Mrs. Gall's treatment of Judith is unforgettable, not unforgivable. Our tears were shed for her long before her death, but to no avail. Over the years we realized Mrs. Gall needed help and we discussed her disciplinary actions, going so far as opening our homes to Judith and suggesting she be placed in a school if she presented a problem to her family.

There were three known reports to authorities, but nothing was done. Each of us neighbors has blamed himself for not "doing something," but what would we have done? And we must remind you, also, what a good friend we had in Mrs. Gall. She altered our clothes, decorated our cakes, gave us permanents, offered her car for shopping, potted plants, worked long hours on church projects, each week taught 10 girls sewing, cake decorating, etc. Which of these many deeds have you offered your neighbors?

True, charity begins at home, but how tragic that help never came to enable Mrs. Gall to see this. The trouble was too deep for any of us to reach. You'll forget the child's picture in the newspaper soon, but her face will remain with us much longer. We want those of you who find fault with us to understand why we hate the sin and not the sinner.

Neighbors

My children got spankings but I didn't beat them to death. The other children must have been afraid to say anything, but Mr. Gall was old enough to see and do something.

Mrs. Dorothy Polick
103 Green St.

To think such a thing could happen in America right under our noses should wake up a lot of people. The mother must have been bothered by many problems and took her spite out on her daughter, just plain devilishness is the word. I've been guilty in a minor way of this, too, and have been ashamed and repented. But here's the same thing on a grand scale with enough people who didn't care.

Jack Robb
Commerce

We're all grieved over the little girl, but let's stop all talk against her mother. There are other children in the family and it will only make things worse for them. I don't know the family but I'm sure the children would like a fair chance to become good adult citizens. Let's help them by making this the last of the subject.

Mrs. Ronald Bird
Clarkston

The Gall case should be given serious treatment but other cases should be looked into by Friend of the Court, such as broken homes and remarried men and women where children are involved, to see that the children are taken care of adequately.

Some years ago the Friend of the Court sent a nurse to see such children. Why not now? A nurse sent to these homes once a month at different times would stop a lot of mistreatment. Also, the court should work with schools to detect such cases as the Gall girl.

Taxpayer

I don't condone what Judith's mother did, but God tells us "Judge not lest ye also be judged." The mother could be mentally sick or she could just hate her child, but two wrongs won't bring the child back.

If we all try to see the signs of danger and make an honest effort to report such things, this won't happen again. But like all

Income Tax Notes

NONTAXABLE INCOME

Certain types of income which you receive are specifically excluded from tax by law. If the item is specifically excluded, it need not be shown on the tax return at all.

In other cases, only a portion of the income is nontaxable; such as pensions, dividends, or sick pay.

The income for this type must be shown on the return and then the amount excludable is shown on the tax return.

Social Security payments are not taxable and if a person has only that type of income, he need not file a tax return.

The same applies to government payments and benefits to veterans and their families. This does not apply to nondisability retirement pay.

Unemployment compensation payments are not taxable, but the "SUB pay" received is taxable income. Your employer or union can tell you how much was received if you didn't keep a record.

Whether you use the Form 1040 or the card Form 1040-A, be sure and read the instructions. The instructions give more details regarding taxable and nontaxable income and where it should appear on the returns.

If you still have a problem, telephone your local Internal Revenue Service office for the answer.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Even Clergymen May Be Jealous

Please note Sam's comments below. For jealousy occurs among professional men and even shows its green eyes among local clergymen of all faiths. Christ was a clergyman-at-large and doubtless received the same juvenile criticisms nowadays directed at Bishop Sheen, Billy Graham, Oral Roberts, Dr. Peale, et al.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case A-472: Sam J., aged 23, is a seminary student.

"Dr. Crane, I am puzzled by the comments of certain local pastors," he began meditatively.

"For example, my parents are very devoted radio and TV followers of Billy Graham, Bishop Sheen, Ora Roberts and Dr. Peale.

DR. CRANE

"But I have heard these evangelists belittled and criticized behind their backs by pastors who occupy important pulpits.

"These critics say such men are overly dramatic or else they intimate that evangelists commercialize religion too much and indulge in excessive fanfare.

"What makes pastors of local parishes damn our nationwide evangelists by faint praise, if not by actual criticism? Is it jealousy?"

RELIGION NEEDS ADVERTISING

Whenever a person starts preaching or teaching on a nationwide basis, his former local colleagues tend to vent their jealousy by damning him with faint praise.

"Bishop Sheen is verging on the melodramatic," said a priest with whom I was dining recently.

"Billy Graham makes a spectacle out of religion," I have overheard ministers comment, by way of faint praise.

"Oral Roberts may be a religious 'showman'," others state, "but he never graduated from a theological seminary."

"Dr. Peale is overdoing his emphasis on Positive Thinking," several clergymen have remarked in my hearing. "And he is spreading himself too thin."

Why do you suppose these local pastors or priests made such comments?

Well, when I moved from my psychology classrooms at Northwestern University to the larger educational field of modern journalism and started "teaching" via this syndicated newspaper column, some of my former supposed friends began to say:

"Dr. Crane is cheapening psychology by writing for newspapers! And he belittles our prestige by over-simplification and use of 2-syllable words."

So use your shrewd "horse sense" when you hear jealous criticisms of great evangelists like those we have in America.

For Jesus believed in advertising! He sent his 70 Disciples ahead of him, two by two, to recruit larger crowds. These 70 served as advance press agents or publicity and advertising men!

ELIJAH IN 1960

In the days of Elijah, there were many local Hebrew priests in the synagogues of Israel.

But God needed a "clergyman-at-large" who could focus the national spotlight on crucial issues like Jezebel's idolatry of Baal.

So Elijah became the Bishop Sheen and Billy Graham and Oral Roberts and Dr. Peale of his generation. And Elijah probably suffered similar backbiting by local clergymen who resented his being in the nation spotlight.

Billy Sunday and Dwight L. Moody were similar clergymen-at-large a generation ago.

Our modern evangelists, now aided by radio and TV, carry inspiring religious messages to the 70,000,000 non-church members who never get to hear the local pastor or priest! That is adaquate justification alone.

But they also inspire the 110,000,000 of us who are nominal members of Jewish, Catholic and Protestant faiths.

So never be guilty of childish envy in trying to belittle such nationwide leaders, just because they are clergymen-at-large and employ special methods suited to their vast radio or TV congregations.

There is always a vital need for local pastors as well as these modern Elijhs!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

More Letters In on Mother Care

such things, this will be forgotten in a few weeks and may happen again soon unless we try to help.

Christian Believer

How can a mother uphold the way that child was punished? No mother would do such a thing if she loved her child as to tape her mouth and send her to school. She should have talked to her about how she should do instead of beating her.

Mother

Thank heavens my thinking doesn't coincide with Another Mother's. If Mrs. Gall had loved her daughter so desperately she would have appreciated help and even sought it for her child. And the father isn't entirely blameless. Even animals will protect their young.

As for the child being irresponsible, what can you expect from one that was punished constantly and severely? I could feel compassion had the woman suddenly gone berserk, but to beat and persecute a child over a period of years makes me shudder. Could it be that Judith Ann, being her mother's name sake, was being punished because the mother had a guilt complex?

Finland Keeps Its Independence Despite Russia

WASHINGTON — Presently beset by economic problems born of World War II, Finland sturdily maintains its independence as the last survivor of the Baltic republics established after World War I.

Lithuania, Estonia and Latvia, all former Czarist provinces, have been reabsorbed by the Soviet Union. Finland was obliged to surrender important land areas to Russia in 1944 after the collapse of efforts to recapture territory seized by Red troops in the Russo-Finnish war of 1939-40.

Today, Finland remains the only European country having an extensive common border with the Soviet Union but not a Communist government. The Russians nevertheless, exert powerful economic influences on Finland's affairs, as reflected in several recent Finnish cabinet crises.

Despite present conditions and long association with Russia as a nearly autonomous grand duchy under the Czars, Finland considers itself primarily a European nation, says the National Geographic Society. Its culture has a Western orientation and its traditional friendships have been centered in the West.

Troy Told Dire Effects If School Tax Doesn't Pass

TROY—A group of volunteers this week fired their last volley of information toward those who will vote Tuesday on the proposed 5.5 mill tax increase for school operation here. This will be in addition to the 2.5 "increase" which is about to expire, making an eight mill special tax levy.

A summary of school operational costs sent out recently shows a per-pupil cost in Troy of $301 per year, against a county-wide average of $330. It shows, too, that taxes here are 15.18 mills, as against 20.94 for a county average.

A classroom population study revealed each Troy teacher has slightly over 27 pupils, one more than the average figure for the whole county.

Troy schools are presently rated well in the county, with the high school among the top third for scholastic achievement. The committee also points out that students have won awards for classroom work, along with band and sports activities.

With the failure of the tax increase Tuesday, the group warns that this picture may end. The entire district, kindergarten through high school, may face half-day sessions.

When a previous vote failed last year, bus service was curtailed as an economic measure. A strong protest by parents persuaded the board to restore bus service even though it meant operating on a deficit program.

This, and other cuts, will be necessary, the committee states, should the issue fail again.

In its most recent announcement the committee reminds voters that district school precincts are the same as those of the city.

The committee was made up of representatives of the district's several PTA groups, Troy Meadows Assn., Troy Education Assn., Big Beaver Methodist Church, Troy Rotary Club, Troy Women's Club, East Troy Central Improvement Assn., Northeast Troy Property Owners Assn., Charnwood Property Owners Assn., and several persons not associated with school or civic organizations.

Girl Selling Candy Gone in Spokane

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—A frantic search was under way this morning in the rainy, pre-dawn darkness here for a slight, nine-year-old girl who disappeared while selling candy mints yesterday afternoon.

Scores of volunteers were combing a brush-strewn area inside the city for Candice Elaine Rogers, who was last seen about 5 p.m. as she went around the neighborhood selling candy to raise money for the Camp Fire Girls.

The only clues were two boxes of mints and an empty container, found several blocks apart near a bridge across the Spokane River. The area is in the crook of the river, which makes a half circle in the western section of the city.

Amateurs Like Curling Game

Team Has 4 Players; It's on Ice With Stones Which Spin or Curl

WASHINGTON — In the game of curling, each player bowls two granite stones in turn along a 130-foot alley toward a circular target painted into the ice. Teammates armed with brooms sweep the path of the oncoming stones in an attempt to influence their course and speed.

The team whose stone or stones are nearest to the target's center at the completion of an end, or inning, scores accordingly. The usual game consists of 10 ends. An end gives each player one turn and takes about 15 minutes to play, says the National Geographic Society.

Contestants wear boots or rubber-soled shoes to give them good footing on the ice. A team is called a rink, and it consists of four players. One is the skip, or captain. He decides on strategy and tells the other players when to sweep in front of an advancing stone.

Sweeping is the most striking feature of curling. A stone that is going to stop short of its goal can be "brought along" by brooms, which smooth the ice and create air currents. Vigorous sweeping can encourage a stone to travel many feet farther than it would have gone.

As a stone glides towards the goal, it spins or curls. This is doubtless the origin of the game's name.

REMAINS TRULY AMATEUR

Curlers are proud that the game has remained truly amateur and has retained its traditional good sportsmanship. No curler plays for pecuniary profit, and each is honor bound to do nothing to distract his opponents.

An old Scottish rule book shows how seriously courtesy is taken in the game: "When a member falls the rest shall not laugh, but render him every assistance to enable him to regain his former erect position."

No fewer than 1,519 isotopes of the 102 known elements have been discovered compared with fewer than 1,000 five years before and only a few hundred in 1940.

U. of M. Treats Dog for Severe Allergy Case

ANN ARBOR (UPI)—Pansy is a dog who really leads a dog's life — she has what one doctor calls "the worst case of hayfever allergy I have ever seen in man or beast."

In fact, of the three major signs of ragweed allergy — hayfever, bronchial asthma and skin eruptions — poor Pansy suffers from all three, despite the fact each is quite rare in animals.

The flop-eared terrier was sent to the University of Michigan Medical Center by her owner last summer for relief of her condition. There, she received anti-histamines, epinephrine, balms and ointments. She did get relief, and she was so grateful she adopted the doctor who treated her.

He is Dr. Roy Patterson, an instructor in internal medicine and a member of the team of allergy researchers at Michigan.

Pansy is now one of his most trusted assistants, lending herself enthusiastically to any research project he has in mind.

Patterson said, "In discovering what helps Pansy, we will learn more about helping humans who are suffering allergies. If we can help her, we can help anybody."

Calls Earth Satellites New Sun Worship

LITTLE HAMPTON, England (UPI)—Launching earth satellites and firing rockets to the moon is just a new form of the old pagan cult of sun worship, complains the Rev. Phillip Barry, Anglican vicar here.

Condemning outer-space projects as crazy, Barry said in his parish magazine that it is not only fantastic but downright wicked that hundred of millions of dollars are being spent on research while millions of persons are in need.

The vicar said nations should devote themselves to rehabilitating the world's homeless and destitute. By spending on such pursuits one-quarter of the money they spend on weapons of destruction, he said, the underlying causes of war would be removed.

BAIT is for catching FISH!

However a few advertisers use bait to lure you to their places of business—or to gain entrance to your home — to sell you something other than what is advertised.

How Can You Recognize "Bait and Switch" Ads?

1. During the sales pitch, the advertiser runs down the advertised merchandise.
2. The salesman "just happens to have" a more expensive article that is much superior to the one advertised.
3. It is almost impossible to really buy the advertised merchandise.

REPUTABLE ADVERTISERS DO NOT USE THIS METHOD OF ADVERTISING

They may show you other merchandise in the line at different prices, but will offer no resistance to the sale of advertised bargains.

Girl Scouts to Observe 47th Year

7-Day Celebration to Mark Birthday, Begins Sunday

Forty-seven years of Girl Scouting will be celebrated by more than three million girls throughout the nation beginning Sunday and continuing through Saturday.

On Sunday, the girls will attend the church of their choice in observance of Girl Scout Sunday.

Scouts will show that "You Can Count on Her," by their seven service days which are Monday, homemaking; Tuesday, citizenship; Wednesday, health and safety; Thursday, international friendship; Friday, arts and crafts; and Saturday, out-of-doors.

BIG DAY

On the Girl Scout Birthday, Thursday, neighborhoods will observe the 47th birthday of scouting by spring sings, scouteramas, workshops, folk dancing, cooperative dinners, skits and programs with an International theme.

The Girl Scout program is geared to include girls 7 years old through 17. In the Northern Oakland County Girl Scout Council, there are 501 active troops.

"You Can Count on Her to Be Creative," is the theme of this year's anniversary celebration. Special emphasis is being given to arts, homemaking and service projects. Girl Scouts believe it is essential for every youngster to develop self-confidence, initiative and specific talents.

Church Women Gather

Groups of the Women's Association of United Presbyterian Church met this week.

A surprise pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Theodore Allebach was given by the Lucille McBane Group when members met at the home of Mrs. Howard Tanner on Francis street. Audrey Limkeman, Mrs. Gerald Shafer and Mrs. Tanner participated in the program.

IRAN IS TOPIC

Mrs. Carl Buchner of Gerdon avenue was hostess for the Eleanor VanLierop Group. A question-and-answer period on the subject, "The Position of Women in Iran," was conducted by Mrs. Walter Napersky, who had charge of the program. Mrs. Edna Matheny also assisted with the meeting.

Shirley Cox entertained the teenage Mary Jo McCurry Group at her home on Pingree avenue Tuesday. Exchange students Jacqueline Baron of France and Renate Walterskirchen of Austria gave talks on their respective countries and their impressions of the United States. Marilyn Bell also took part in the meeting.

The Elizabeth Lake avenue home of Mrs. Stanton Levely was opened to the Peg Creswell Group for a coffee. Mrs. Robert MacCormack and Mrs. David Duvall took part in the program. Mrs. Gerald Barnhart appointed Mrs. Duvall, Mrs. Lottie Waldon and Mrs. Donald Upton Jr. to the ways and means committee.

SKIT PRESENTED

The Dorcas Room of the church was the meeting place for the Eleanor Creswell Group. All members of the group acted in a skit "The Petition of Muslim Women," under the direction of Mrs. John Gemmell. Mrs. Marion Brown and Mrs. Howard Hall were hostesses. Mrs. Vern Dillahunt also participated in activities.

Dear Abby . . .

By All Means Tell Mother Her 15-Year-Old Girl Smokes

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: A little neighbor girl who is friendly with my daughter comes by every morning to get a ride to school. This girl is 15 and has a bad case of asthma. Her mother does not allow her to smoke but the minute she gets in my house she lights up a cigarette and she smokes all the way to school in the car.

ABBY

It hurts me to see this child coughing and wheezing and smoking. She has the habit so bad it's pitiful. My daughter won't let me tell her mother because it will get the girl in trouble and that would be cruel. Since she's not my daughter I have no right to tell her not to smoke. How would you handle this, Abby?"

DON'T KNOW

DEAR DON'T: If this child were your own daughter, wouldn't you want to know? Sometimes we have to be cruel to be kind. Tell her mother.

"DEAR ABBY: Am I ever in a picklement? I like two guys very much. One (let's call him 'Taller' because that's what he is) likes me and is very good looking but sort of shy. The other ('Shorter') is shorter than I am but he is a living doll and is the most popular kids at school.

"My parents think 'Taller' is a little on the 'hoody' side because when they met him he needed a shave and a haircut, but he isn't. I wish you'd help me make up my mind. I am 16."

IN A PICKLEMENT

DEAR IN: Why must you make up your mind about one or the other? At age 16—the more the merrier. I wouldn't say this was a "picklement." I'd say it was a good "dill."

"DEAR ABBY: Our son, who is trying so hard to bring his grades up, told his father at the dinner table last evening that he got an 'A' in a test. All his father answered was, 'How about cleaning up that plate before leaving the table?' I could just see the sunshine go out of the child's face. What does one do with such a husband?"

FRUSTRATED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: If your husband is thoughtless, give him a gentle kick under the table. If he's heartless, explain (when you get him alone) how much a little encouragement and praise would mean to the boy.

"DEAR ABBY: I am very serious about a young man and I know he feels the same way about me. I am 28 and he is 26. He has never been married but I have been married twice. He is ideal for me but he told me that a few years ago he had had a few visits with a psychiatrist. My mother said if he has seen a psychiatrist he is a 'mental case.' Would you say he was a poor risk?"

IN DOUBT

DEAR IN: A few visits to a psychiatrist does not make one a "mental case." If this bothers you, find out more about those "visits" and possibly have a talk with his doctor. You could be a greater risk than he.

CONFIDENTIAL TO END OF ROPE: The time to start correcting children is before they start correcting you.

No Longer Vanity

Interest in Appearance Is Healthy

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Time was when an interest in one's appearance was called vanity. This is no longer true. To the contrary! Our emotions and mental outlook now have been definitely correlated with our health. Good grooming and improvement in the way we look rate high as emotional and physical therapies.

I was interested to learn that the Welfare Committee of The Hairdresser's Board of Trade of New York does a year round job in helping build the moral of many underprivileged women. The members of this committee go from institution to institution throughout the year volunteering their services to those in homes for the aged, mental institutions and orphanages.

The help of these professional hairdressers is in constant demand because it has been proven that a good haircut, a new hairdo, a new permanent wave lift women out of depression and busy them with a new feeling of personal identity.

I think it is wonderful work! According to the members of the committee, nothing they do for the general public is quite so gratifying as the "thank you" in the eyes of these women when they see themselves with a smart, new hairdo. Their appreciation and the light in their eyes reflect a new attitude of hope and cheer.

Remember, many of these women had been accustomed to looking attractive, to spending money for such aids and to good grooming.

Imagine what this would mean to you if you had no family and no money to spend in this way, if you were a shutin with limited interests. This seemingly small service can make the difference between hope and despair.

Good grooming and improvement in the way we look rate high as emotional and physical therapies.

Youngster Needs His Own Room

Children should have bedrooms of their own as soon as possible. This statement, issued by the Congress on Better Living, provides a challenge to homemakers.

What are some of the things to keep in mind when planning a room for the child? First of all, keep it simple. Children, by nature, are active and give their belongings a great deal of wear and tear The furniture should be sturyd and the floor covering made of a material that can take the tramping of young feet and the scratching of toys. Use washable fabrics for drapes, spreads and upholstery. The bed, of course, should have a mattress that is firm and resilient assuring a good night's sleep after a busy day.

BRIGHT COLORS

Pain t the room in bright colors that will delight the children, giving them a cheerful outlook on life. Be sure that the lighting is ample, with the switches low enough for the boy orgirl to use. Buit-in or hanging lamps are better than table or floor lamps which can easily be broken.

Ample storage space for toys, books and other objects which children collect is another must when designing the room. Built in shelvves are an attractive possibility. Beds can double as storage units with hide-away drawers attached underneath. Large bulletin or pegboards on the wall can also serve to keep a neat room. Children love to tack up their cutouts, dolls and other precious belongings of all kinds.

Spadea's american designer pattern

Nobody, but nobody has more know-how about shaping a dress than the queen of the party dress designers: Ceil Chapman. Here she cuts the bodice in one with the shoulder strap which is on the bias and overlaps a bow. The two-piece flared skirt has imaginative hem interest, but if you prefer just a simple full skirt, you can skip this detail.

At either side the bottom of the skirt is folded into double box pleats, with a tailored bow passed through the box. It is especially newsy this season, and recommended to give full balance to the silhouette.

For important parties choose 50' goods such as peau de soie, novelty silks. In shantung, taffeta, fancy rayons, it is ideal for spring cocktail parties and in lawn or other printed cotton with contrasting bows of ribbon it has endless possibilities for summer.

From this size chart select the one size best for you.

Sizes	Bust	Waist	Hips Inches	Length From Nape of Neck to Waist
8	33	23	34	16½
10	34	24	35	16½

Announce Wedding in Invitations

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: I've been married for the last two years secretly to a young man who just graduated from college. Now that he has finished school and about to enter the business world we're going to announce our marriage.

"My parents have always wanted me to have a formal wedding so for their sake my husband and I have decided to have a renewal of vows ceremony in church and a reception for approximately 100 guests immediately following. How do we go about it?

"Do we first announce the marriage and then send out invitations to the ceremony and reception. Also, what kind of invitations would be proper? Will you please help me as I haven't any idea where to begin?"

Answer: In the situation you describe, it would be best to have a very simple church ceremony with only immediate families and fewest closest relatives present and then send out a combined announcement and invitation to others, reading:

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith request the pleasure of your company at a reception on Saturday, the seventh of February at nine o'clock
10 Park Lane
in honor of the marriage of their daughter Mary Louise
to
Mr. Richard Greene
on Friday, the fifteenth of May one thousand nine hundred and
Elkton, Maryland

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am a recent bride and have a problem which I hope you can help me with. On different occasions since my marriage some of my husband's relatives have invited my husband and me to dinner. Instead of calling me they call my mother-in-law (who is usually invited too) and ask her to call me.

"I resent this secondhand invitation very much and feel that if they really wanted us to come, they would call me directly. Am I wrong in feeling this way?"

Answer: They should invite you personally, but as a new member of their family I would advise you to try and make yourself attractive and not go out of your way to find things to resent.

Victorian Belles Used False Hair

If you've ever wondered how Victorian belles achieved those impossible-looking hairdos, the truth is that they weren't any handier with hair styles than anyone else.

They used false hair in great quantity. This, in turn, was hard on their own hair. Magazines for ladies in the 1860s were filled with "receipts" for curing baldness.

Color With Care

Courage with color is the one thing that keeps the clothes we wear from looking drab. But it doesn't mean, ever, that a red hat and green shoes will mix. To look well, colors must blend, not clash.

Plans are being made to attend the 67th annual state convention in Detroit April 9-11.

'Get Tough' Not Answer to Delinquency

Editor's Note: This is the last of three columns dealing with juvenile delinquency. Mrs. Muriel Lawrence has taken as her immediate point of departure the interest recently expressed by the U.S. Children's Bureau in her 1955 "Operation Help" proposal for forestalling delinquency.

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

A toddler is a captivating creature. He's also a ferocious little egotist who just can't register any feelings but his own.

If he wants to finish his mud pie, he has only one response to your wish to feed him supper: he doesn't want to be bothered with it. You may be tired; your best friend may have died in the night. Whatever the feeling behind your wish to feed him supper, it doesn't exist for him.

ONE FEELING

There's only one feeling—his. So if you call attention to yours, he'll shove you away. He'll roar with rage. He'll kick you in the shins to get rid of the inconveniences your different feeling presents to him.

Police commissioners who advocate crackdown on juvenile crime closely resemble toddlers. So do the people who want bad parents punished.

For them too, the only feelings that exist are their feelings. Their one response to the intrusion of different ones is the toddler's—shove them away, roar with rage, kick the social inconvenience of juvenile lawlessness in the shins.

Time develops maturity in most toddlers. But it has failed to develop it in the retarded adults who see crackdown as the one solution to feelings different from theirs.

It would be lovely if we could always get rid of what we don't like by slapping it away. But this is not possible outside of nurseries. To process the 550,000 youngsters who are annually involved with the law, we spend millions of dollars getting nowhere. Our toddler solutions just don't work. Every day more children break the law. Every day their degree of violence grows more terrifying.

Soon we're going to have to grow up. We will have to stop slapping and kicking—and accept the inconvenient fact that long experience with neglect, ignorance, shame, fear and brutality creates feelings which are different from ours.

And we are going to have to absorb it, not because it is noble to, but because if we don't the juvenile criminal and the different feelings that possess him can destroy us.

If your town is afflicted with young lawlessness, I suggest that you write to the Children's Bureau, U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington, D. C.

Confident Living

Lincoln Knew It's Never Too Late to Gain Success

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

I am indebted to W. Alton Jones, chairman of the board of the Cities Service Co., for the biography of a "failure." This is how it reads:

PEALE

"Failed in business '31
Defeated for Legislature '32
Again failed in business '33
Elected to Legislature in '34
Defeated for Speaker in '38
Defeated for Elector '40
Defeated for Congress '43
Elected to Congress '46
Defeated for Congress ' 48
Defeated for Senate '55
Defeated for Vice President '56
Defeated for Senate '58."

Obviously, this is the story of a man who, although his successes were few compared with a long record of failure, didn't stop trying. And his efforts were rewarded, because one other entry should be added to his biography: "Elected President '60."

His name, was, of course, Abraham Lincoln and, only last month, on his birthday, people all over the world honored the memory of a great American who knew that failure should not bring about the loss of faith or hope and that it's never too late to succeed.

This principle of action is true because your failure can make you as well as break you. It all depends on how you take hold of them and what you make of them.

James Russell Lowell once wrote, "Mishaps are like knives, that either serve us or cut us, as we grasp them by the blade or the handle." So, grasp it by the blade and you cut yourself; grasp it by the handle and you can use it to get what you want in life.

And the Russians have a proverb I have always found worth remembering: "The hammer shatters glass but forges steel." If you are brittle and delicate in your mind, your failures will shatter you and take away from you the strength to rise and fight again. But, if you have the stuff of steel in you, your failures will hammer out in you new strength and determination to win your way to success.

Success, after all, is the path of courage. James Barrie, in his famous essay on the subject of courage, quotes an old Scotch ballad that makes the point another way:

"Fight on, my men," says Sir Andrew Barton,
"I am hurt, but I am not slain;
I'll lie me down and bleed awhile,
And then I'll rise and fight again."

The important thing to remember is that failure is a fact of life. None of us is able to succeed every time he tries.

I believe that God faces each of us with failure for a purpose. His purpose is to make men of us, strong men, even great men. And manhood, strength and greatness are achieved by learning to handle failure, learning to rise from it, learning to try again, learning that it's never too late to succeed.

Parable of Prodigal Son to Be Presented Mar. 20

Christ Lutheran Church will present the parable of The Prodigal Son set to the music of Debussey on March 20 at Isaac Crary Junior High School.

The group of 20 singers from the Detroit Institute of Musical Arts will be directed by Anthony Marlowe, internationally known tenor who has just returned to the United States after a three-year engagement as leading tenor at the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, London.

A graduate of Curtis Institute of Music, Marlowe made his debut at the age of 17 with the Philadelphia Civic Opera Co.

Prior to his European engagements, he sang with the Metropolitan Opera Co. of New York where he appeared in leading roles for six seasons.

He has also sung with the Chicago and San Francisco Opera companies as well as Teatro Colon in Buenos Aires and Teatro Municipale in Rio de Janeiro.

Proceeds of the program will be given to the Luther League Choir of the Pontiac area to finance its way to the International Youth Conference in San Antonio, Tex. where members will sing in a thousand voice choir.

Instruction Class Set for Monday Evenings

The adult religious class of St. Stephen's Church, Waterford Township, will begin at 8 p.m. Monday at the Community Activities, Inc., 5640 Williams Lake Rd.

Classes will be conducted by the Rev. Guy B. Smith, pastor of St. Stephen's. The course is for those wishing to know more about the Lutheran Church and those who might wish to join it.

Scout Sunday to Be Observed at Crescent Hills

Girl Scout Sunday will be observed at Crescent Hills Baptist Church tomorrow with Intermediate Scouts and Brownies attending the 10 a.m. service.

Mrs. A. E. Ostrander and Mrs. Norman Wylie are scout leaders.

Sunday morning the Rev. Benjamin A. Bohn, pastor, will preach the second in a series of pre-Easter sermons entitled "Behold the Man." Clayton Murphy will be soloist.

Judy Burleson will be youth assistant at the service.

Instead of the regular monthly meeting, the Men's Fellowship will attend the Eastern Baptist College Choir concert.

Women Plan Program

Mrs. John Little, president of the 19th district of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, will speak at the Women's Day program at 3:30 p.m. Sunday in the Southside Church of God. Others participating in the service will be Mrs. Mary Woods and Mrs. John Beaber. Mrs. Edward Bradley will preside.

Junior College Quartet to Sing

First Free Methodist Church to Participate in Sunday School Plan

The Evangelaire Quartet of Spring Arbor Junior College will sing at the Sunday School and morning worship service Sunday at the First Free Methodist Church.

One of the members is Grace Stevens of 117 Parkdale, a graduate of Pontiac Central High School last June.

The Rev. John Beegle, field service director for the college, will be the speaker at the 11 a.m. worship hour.

First Free Methodist Church is participating in a church-wide enlargement program during March and April. The goal this year is 550. For the past two months the average attendance has been 458.

Each Sunday something special has been arranged as an added attraction. On March 15, "Neighbors Sunday," Miss Ruth Smith, missionary from Rhodesia, will speak at morning services.

Dr. Myron F. Boyd, director of "The Light and Life Hour" radio broadcast, will conduct Lenten services from March 22-29.

'Race Relations' to Be Subject at St. Andrew's

The Rev. Joseph A. Pelham, executive director of the department of Christian Social Relations of the Diocese of Michigan, will speak on "Race Relations" at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Drayton Plains.

Sponsored by the women of St. Andrew's, the meeting is open to all members and friends of the church.

A graduate of Flint Junior College, the speaker was graduated from the University of Michigan and Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Mass. In 1955 he was awarded the Adams Prize for Teaching.

The Rev. Mr. Pelham received clinical pastoral training at the University of Michigan Hospital and attended the Yale University Summer School on Alcohol Study.

Besides his social relations position, he is the resident chaplain at St. Peter's Home for Boys in Detroit.

Detroit Choir Slated at Marimont Baptist

The Detroit Bible Institute Choir under the direction of the Rev. Howard Schoof will present a concert of sacred music at the Sunday evening service of Marimont Baptist Church.

Ten new members will be received into the church fellowship at the 11 a.m. service. The Rev. Philip Somers, pastor, will preach on "The Cup."

The pastor announced that Fred Meyer of the primary department, Mrs. Jane Matthews of the intermediate department and Mrs. Ernest Stewart of the junior department had outstanding classes in the six-point record system last Sunday.

The second annual Missionary Conference sponsored by the Waterford Community Church will begin Sunday morning and continue through March 15.

Sunday services are scheduled for 8:30 and 11 a.m. and 7 p.m., with Sunday School at 9:45 a.m.

Each night except Saturday sound-color missionary films will be shown in the lower auditorium at 6:30. The regular service will follow in the main auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Among the speakers will be the Rev. Stewart McDougall, missionary for 21 years to Africa under the Sudan Interior Mission.

Representing the Slavic Gospel Assn. will be the Rev. George Lambert, who was born in Russia but is now an American citizen.

Other speakers will be the Rev. and Mrs. Henry Hungerpiller from Liberia, Africa; and the Rev. Robert Lytle, the associate secretary of the Evangelical Union of South America.

Providing special music for the conference besides the church choir will be Jerry Libby, Helen Coventry, Dave Van Kuren, Connie Barens, Stait Lloyd, the Ladies Trio of Emmanuel Baptist Church and Mr. and Mrs. George Underwood.

The Rev. Robert Winne, pastor, said the public is invited.

Eastern Pastor Accepts Call

Detroit Choir to Give Concert at 4:30 P. M. at Trinity Baptist

The Rev. Joseph W. Moore of Schenectady, N. Y., has been called to the pastorate of Trinity Baptist Church. He will arrive in Pontiac with his family next week. He will preach March 15.

The First Baptist Institutional Choir of Detroit will present a concert at 4:30 p.m. Sunday at Trinity Church. The 60-voice choir is under the direction of Lindsey Bellinger.

Some of the numbers the group will present include "Father Most Merciful," "Hark, Hark My Soul," "Holy Ghost With Light Divine," "He," "Ole Ark's a Moverin" and "Lift Every Voice and Sing."

Others will be "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen," "Bye and Bye I'm Going to Lay Down My Load," "Swing Along Chillun," and "The Sinner and the Song."

Mrs. Sarah Gary, Mrs. Amanda Goodwin, Mrs. Mary Ramsey, Mrs. Ann McGuire and Mrs. Rosa Kinder are in charge of the affair sponsored by the missionary department.

Refreshments will be served in Fellowship Hall following the musicale.

Be strong, and let your heart take courage.

Our Plea for Christ
Our plea for Christ INVOLVES A PLEA FOR THE UNITY OF BELIEVERS. For in Jno. 17:21, Jesus prayed for the unity of all believers, He said, "THAT THEY ALL MAY BE ONE." We believe that Jesus intended for all of His disciples to worship and serve God in one common church. He prayed in Jno. 17:21 that all who believed upon Him might be one, even as He and the Father were one. This unity we believe can be realized if all are willing to accept the gospel as a final authority in all matters pertaining to Christian service. If the organizations designed by men were removed, and the rituals and innovations in worship since apostolic days were given up; then men could lay aside party names and creeds and be CHRISTIANS ONLY. By following the ORIGINAL PATTERN of the church which the New Testament gives, all men would be members of the church which Jesus built. This is the reason why churches of Christ have continued to try and convert all men to the simple Gospel of Christ. In view of this prayer by Jesus, all confusion and division among believers is repugnant to the spirit of Jesus and contrary to the prayer of Christ, it is therefore SINFUL, as well as a fruitful source of infidelity and skepticism. Is sectarian divisions, party divisions, factious groups wrong? when they tangle over the personality and character of God, Christ, and the Holy Spirit, when they differ over salvation, justification, faith, repentance, confession, baptism, church name, origin of the church, church policy, terms of membership, worship of the church, function of the church, government of the church, EVEN JESUS' PRAYER FOR UNITY YOU ANSWER IT. Many try to justify such division by saying, "it does not matter" but friends if these things do not matter then I submit to you that the entire christian system is unimportant. This I cannot believe for Christ died to set it in operation, Heb. 9:14-17. We are not suggesting that one group give up their creed for the creed of another, but that all give up all creeds and "faithfully adhere to the word of God." Jesus prayed for UNITY AMONG BELIEVERS, Jon. 17:20, 21, therefore all DIVISION AMONG BELIEVERS IS WRONG AND SINFUL. BELIEVEST THOU THIS?

Central Methodists to Hear Presbyterian Minister

DR. ALLAN M. FREW

Speaking at The School of Christian Living dinner at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday in Central Methodist Church will be Dr. Allan MacLachlan Frew, minister of First Presbyterian Church, Detroit.

His message will be "The Vocation of the Church."

Born in Glasgow, Scotland, Dr. Frew became a United States citizen in 1938. He was educated at Davidson College in North Carolina and Princeton University Theological Seminary.

Waynesburg and Davidson Colleges have conferred the Doctor of Divinity Degree upon him.

Dr. Frew serves as a member of the Board of Trustees of Princeton Theological Seminary and Beaver College, Philadelphia.

Soloist for the evening will be Melvin Larimer, director of vocal music at Pontiac Northern High School.

During the program, which begins at 7:10 p. m., children through kindergarten age will be cared for in the nursery.

Dr. Milton H. Bank, pastor, will preach on "Called to Speak for God" at the 8:30 and 10:45 a. m services Sunday.

At 5:30 Sunday evening the Intermediate Fellowship will discuss the subject, "My Church and Other Churches."

"Recreation for Youth" will be the topic of the Senior High Fellowship at 6 p. m. with William Poffenberger, chairman. Cornelia Riggs will be in charge of recreation and Barry Horst, refreshments.

All single young adults over 18 years of age are invited to the Aldersgate Fellowship at the parsonage on M-59 at 8 p. m. Dr. Bank said. The group will discuss the topic, "The Difficulty of Feeling Forgiven."

College Choir to Give Concert

Executive Secretary of American Baptist Convention to Preach

The 35-voice choir of Eastern Baptist College from St. Davids, Pa., will present a concert of sacred music at 7:45 p. m. Sunday at Bethany Baptist Church.

Arriving Sunday afternoon, the choir will be guests of the Board of Missions at supper and stay Sunday night with members of the congregation.

The Rev. Richard Cummings, executive secretary of the Detroit Association of American Baptist Convention, will be guest speaker at 8:45 and 11 a. m. Sunday. Youth assistants will be Judy Hunt and Darlene Woodhull.

The Brownie Troop from Waterford will be guests at the 11 o'clock worship hour.

A demonstration school sponsored by the children's work committee is being held at Bethany from 9:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. today.

Leaders are Mrs. Cecil King and Mrs. Charles Morse of Birmingham, Mrs. Ray A. Bailey, director of children's work for Baptists, and Mrs. T. M. Brown of Grand River Avenue Baptist Church, Detroit.

Church of Christ Has Bible Verse Behind Baptistry

"Worship the Lord in the Beauty of Holiness," a verse from Psalm 29, has been placed on the bronze colored masonry wall behind the baptistry in the Sylvan Lake Church of Christ.

Using the verse as a text, the Rev. Martin W. Hastings, minister, will speak on "The Beauty of Holiness" at 10:45 a. m. Sunday. Bible School will be held at 9:45 a. m.

"A Christian — His Character" will be the subject of his sermon at 6 p. m.

At 7:30 Tuesday evening members of the Churches of Christ in the Pontiac area will meet in the auditorium to discuss a fund raising campaign for North Central Christian College which is scheduled to open in September. The campus is located on Avon road near Rochester.

Members to Hear Temperance Talk

The Rev. James Kavanagh will speak as a representative of the Michigan Temperance Foundation at 11 a.m. Sunday in the Church of the Brethren, 46 N. Roselawn Dr.

A graduate of Taylor University, he has held pastorates in Indiana and Michigan.

For two years he studied at Western Theological Seminary and was graduated from the National Training School of the National Temperance League at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky.

Cash Crisis, 59ers Top Week's News

By United Press International

One of the most memorable stories of the week in Michigan was the motorized "wagon train" that left Detroit Thursday bound for a new life in Alaska.

The story gained nationwide interest as the members of the caravan did something thousands would like to do but are afraid to.

Michigan's cash crisis got shoved back into the cooler late this week. Gov. G. Mennen Williams and the members of the Legislature left Lansing Friday without reaching any kind of agreement on money-raising plans. Williams traveled to Marquette for a Midwestern Democratic conference.

In Hillsdale, the Patrick Flannery murder trial got under way Tuesday and adjourned Friday until next Tuesday. The prosecution claims the 18-year-old college student from Berkley beat his roommate, Thomas Neitling, to death "in a heat of passion."

Defense attorneys for Flannery claim he was insane at the time and still is. The defense will call psychiatrists as witnesses next week when the prosecution winds up its side of the case.

Lawsuits against the owners of the ill-fated limestone carrier, the Carl D. Bradley, are still piling up. They reached the $6 million mark this week.

Another main story that broke this week involved an order to integrate Negro and white policemen in Detroit scoutcars. As a result, there was a brief ticket holiday for motorists when the officers cut down the number of tickets issued. The "strike" petered out when high police officials said, in effect, "obey or quit."

Major news of the week wound up howling as Old Man Winter showed that he was far from dead.

Paralyzing snow storms swept across the state Friday, taking several lives. Two persons died in their stalled car in the Upper Peninsula trying to keep warm sometime Friday morning.

SITS ALONE—Frank Duncan is alone for a time during one day of testimony in the case where his mother, Mrs Elizabeth Duncan, is being tried for the killing of his wife in Ventura, Calif. In testimony yesterday, Frank cried: "I loved my mother . . . but I loved my wife too." He maintains his mother is innocent but said he had a hard time going back and forth like a yo-yo, trying to keep them both happy.

Duncan Admits Yo-Yo Act Between Mother, Bride

VENTURA, Calif. (AP)—Frank Duncan blew his top, he says, when he learned his mother once planned to carry him away from his bride by force.

"It was such a stupid thing," Duncan testified at his mother's murder trial. "It sounded something like a grammar school child might think of."

The handsome young attorney, appearing in Elizabeth Duncan's behalf, said he went "back and forth like a yo-yo" between her and his wife.

Mrs. Duncan, 54, who admits to 11 marriages, is accused of hiring two men to kill the daughter-in-law. The prosecution contends jealousy was the motive. Olga Duncan, 30, a Canadian nurse, was beaten and strangled on a desolate mountain road last Nov. 18.

Duncan returns to the witness stand when the trial reconvenes Monday. The case will go to the jury of eight women and four men about midweek.

Friday's developments included:

Mrs. Duncan's hot declaration that Dist. Aty. Roy Gustafson was lying when he accused her of hiring Olga's killers.

A statement by Duncan that his mother was hysterical when he returned home to her after his wedding.

Mrs. Duncan's firm denial that she plotted Olga's death—"I never desired Olga killed," she cried. "I didn't want harm to come to anyone."

Asked why he returned to his mother's apartment to live, after he married Olga, Duncan replied:

"I loved my mother. And I love her still. But I loved my wife also."

Two laborers, Luis Moya and Augustine Baldonado, have admitted the actual slaying. They say Mrs. Duncan hired them to do it.

Glad to Retire a Year Later

Battle Creeker Whose Operation Was on TV Works Until 66

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—Two years ago Carl Miltenberger thought he would have to retire early because he was becoming crippled from a circulatory condition.

But he underwent an operation a year ago that restored the normal flow of blood to his legs.

Instead of retiring at 65 he worked an extra year in the Grand Trunk Western Railroad shops here. He will retire Monday on his 66th birthday.

Miltenberger, who has worked 46 years for the railroad, said he considers retirement in his case "better late than early."

His operation at Ford Hospital was televised. The public watched a surgeon remove a piece of artery that had become clogged with fatty deposits and replace it with a plastic-like tube.

The operation was on the main artery that carries blood to the legs. It was successful, and Miltenberger soon returned to his job. He also was able to resume his favorite hobbies—hunting and fishing.

Miltenberger will be back at work Monday for his last day, and after that he says, "I'm just going to fish and hunt and take it easy."

"I figure I'm a pretty lucky guy to still be around," he said.

Stands in Line for Fee to Get License Tags

WINDSOR, Ont. (UPI)—Frank Poupart of Windsor, unemployed nearly a year, has been making money for waiting.

For $1 the 30-year-old father of two children, will stand in line for Ontario automobile license plates on behalf of people too busy to wait themselves.

Poupart says he made $50 at it last year, hopes to do better this time.

His other ventures while laid off from his factory job have included retrieving golf balls and selling salt from door to door when streets were icy.

Will Play Host to Young People

'Forgiveness' Theme of Sermon at Church in Orchard Lake

Young people of the Church of the Atonement, Lake Angelus will be guests of the Senior High Westminster Fellowship of Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian Sunday evening.

The Rev. Edward D. Auchard, pastor, will preach at both morning worship hours on "The Gospel of Forgiveness," the fourth sermon in a series on the Lord's Prayer.

Donn Olin will sing "The Good Shepherd" at both services. The Chancel Choir will present "Seek Ye the Lord" at 9 a. m. and at 11 a. m. the Cherub Choir will sing directed by Gloria David.

Plans for the new kitchen will be discussed at the trustee's meeting Monday evening. The session will meet Tuesday.

Mary Reeves, Sharron Burnely and Diane Hedges will report on stories from "Always an Answer," the mission text, at the Junior High Westminster Fellowship.

Mrs. Eric Lundquist, Mrs. Earl Thornton and Mrs. Edward D. Auchard will be guides for the committees study missions in Cuba, Mexico, Alaska, and some parts of the United States.

Alaska Wealth Buried Deep

Only Hard Work Can Fulfill Raw Promises of New State

JUNEAU, Alaska (UPI)—Statehood is to Alaska what a coming out party is to a beautiful debutante.

Suddenly, the tomboy of the far north has become the belle of the ball, and if she wasn't so gosh-darned big, the rush of popularity would sweep her right out of her mukluks.

A record number of travelers visited Alaska during the past summer, and they couldn't help but say "wow!" when they took a gander at her raw, rugged beauty and considered her incomparable dowry.

The capital here has a problem keeping up with the fan mail. Chambers of commerce at Anchorage and Fairbanks likewise are swamped.

Much of the mail comes from school children. Geography teachers have rediscovered Alaska as a bright, new subject for term papers.

Other inquiries come from potential investors, large and small, and a lot of letters are from job seekers who expect Alaska to work miracles for them.

Alaskans are happy to have you come looking for a job or land, and they figure they can help you, but they warn: "Come with enough cash to take you back where you came from if you don't like it here or can't find what you're looking for."

When it comes to what Alaska has to offer, no state has ever joined the union with such an untapped treasure chest.

There are billions of tons of high grade iron ore near Haines in the Alaska panhandle.

Ralph Brown, an economic consultant at Anchorage, says this mountain of magnetite has a potential value "estimated to be worth more than the national debt." Another huge iron ore deposit has been explored on Prince of Wales Island where there are good uranium prospects as well.

Alaska also claims it has near Seldovia the largest chromite deposit under the United States flag.

In fact, there isn't much you can't find in Alaska if it's mineral or metal. And surveys show the big north country has a potential hydroelectric power capacity equal to nearly two-thirds of the total for the entire nation.

Totally-Blind Mother Raising Five Children

BOSTON (UPI)—Though totally blind, Mrs. Aldo Marchisio is raising her five children unassisted.

Her husband, who is 90 per cent blind, works for the State Division of the Blind, tuning and repairing pianos and often is out of town for a week at a time.

Mrs. Marchisio does all her own housework—and has enough energy left at night to read a bedtime story in Braille to her children, Alison, 11, Peter, 8, Paul, 6, Caroline, 9, and Rosemarie, 3.

John Barrymore Jailed on Hit-Run Charge

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Actor John Drew Barrymore was jailed on felony hit-run and felony drunk driving charges Friday night after his car smashed into the rear of another auto, police reported.

Barrymore, 26, son of the late Great Profile, has been jailed previously on traffic counts.

Investigators said the actor's white sports car backed off and sped away after the accident. Barrymore was arrested later in a service station.

No Bright Lights in Old Santa Fe

Heart of 'Spanish' City Historic Zone by Law; Buildings Adobe

SANTA FE, N. M. (UPI)—"Progress," in its usual sense, is a dirty word in this town of 35,000—where many residents trace their ancestry to the Spanish conquerors who founded Santa Fe in the 16th Century.

"Progress" means bright lights and wide streets, just what the historic-minded art colony and tourist-minded businessmen do not want.

The townspeople have gone to unusual lengths to preserve Santa Fe.

Since 1953, the heart of the city has been declared by law to be a "historic zone." As such, new buildings must conform to existing architectural styles and old ones of historical significance cannot be razed except with special permission of the city fathers.

Violators may be hauled into court, under penalty of fine or jail.

But Mayor Leo T. Murphy contends the law's value is mostly psychological. "It discourages them before they get started," he says.

The legal building material is adobe—sun-dried mud—covered with an earth-colored plaster. This is officially "Old Santa Fe style."

The zoning law also provides for a "recent Santa Fe style."

But "the intent of this style," the ordinance reads, "is to achieve harmony with historic buildings by retention of a similarity (to Old Santa Fe style) of materials, color and general detail. The dominating effect is to be that of adobe construction."

In fact, 80 per cent of the visible facade must be adobe finish or stucco that simulates adobe.

Although roofs are flat, the city fathers have made on concession to modern living. Skylights, air conditioning devices on the roof, flues and television aerials are permitted—if hidden from view.

Stores and shops may hang out shingles but that is about all. The few bright signs in the downtown area were there before the law went into effect.

While, under certain circumstances, larger signs may advertise merchandise "no sign" (shall) flash, blink, revolve . . . or seem to be in motion."

Billboards are not allowed in the "historic zone." Elsewhere they are so unpopular that "parties"—reputed to include upstanding citizens—slip into the countryside and chop them down. Police have no record of conviction for this offense.

Supermarkets Shut in Minneapolis

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Only neighborhood groceries were open in Minneapolis today as a strike closed 242 supermarkets.

There was an aisle-jamming rush on the big stores Friday.

The shutdown at closing time was ordered by the Minneapolis Retail Food Distributors, representing the affected stores, after Food Handlers and Meat Cutters Local 653 set up pickets around a few markets Thursday.

Picketing began after negotiations broke down around union demands for job security for employes working less than 40 hours a week. Wage issues had not been reached.

The stores which closed their doors do about 80 per cent of the city's grocery business.

Owner of 50 Service Stations Runs Out of Gas

EFFINGHAM, Ill. (AP)—Several miles north of Greenup, Ill., Lolami Keller's car stopped running.

No gas.

Truck driver Carl Simpson of Kansas, Ill., picked up the stranded Keller and took him to a service station in Greenup.

The service station operator recognized the now embarrassed Keller as a candidate for mayor of Effingham—and his boss.

That service station and some 49 others in a five-county area in southern Illinois are owned by Keller.

Color of Sunlight Actually Is Silver

WASHINGTON — A flood of unfailingly constant sunlight is what keeps the earth from turning into a giant snowball, but what is the sun?

Earth's old reliable is one of hundreds of millions of stars that spangle the galaxy, the National Geographic Society says.

By cosmic standards, it is a very ordinary star, though as the source of the earth's light and heat, it is a remarkable machine. Had the sun been bigger thus a more accelerated stellar furnace, it might have used up most of its fuel eons ago.

Physically the sun is a great sphere of hot gases, with a diameter of 864,000 miles. Its mass is 330,000 times that of the earth, which swings about it as on a string at an average distance of 93 million miles.

The sun's light is silvery, not golden, and it is not afire as Aristotle thought. The prodigious outpouring of light and heat comes from atomic fusion deep within the core. Each second the sun scatters a largess of energy equal to that of a billion or so exploding hydrogen bombs.

New CD Center to Open

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Formal dedication of the new civil defense and disaster training center on the University of Michigan North Campus will be held March 12. State, city and defense officials will attend.

Breakfast to Benefit St. James Missionary

A breakfast to benefit St. James Missionary Baptist Church will be served at 8 a.m. Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Russell, 4 Lee Ct. At 7:30 p.m. in the St. James Church, 345 Bagley St. the Mourning Doves quartet will provide special music.

St. Louis News Strike Continues Into 15th Day

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Negotiations in the 15-day-old strike of the St. Louis Newspaper Guild against the Globe-Democrat broke up Friday night and no new meeting was scheduled.

The Guild struck over a demand for a guaranteed, funded pension plan.

J-Hop Dance to Continue

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The Student Government Council has decided that the University of Michigan J-Hop will continue next year. The dance has had financial difficulties in the last few years. A tentative financial report on this year's dance shows a profit of $304.

4-H Clubs

J. L. VOORHEES

M. E. SIPLE

4-H Clubs are based on Heart, Hands, Head and Health. Their objectives are wholesome interest in anything that will build healthy bodies, an understanding heart, jobs that keep their hands constructively busy, and a course of study to push back horizons.

Every child wants adventure; his 4-H Club provides it in a tiny seed: new life emerges. A dog provides adventure of love and unselfish devotion; a cow that eats hay, manufactures milk and butter fat, a highly nutritious food for human beings. These adventures do more than entertain but build boys and girls into useful citizens.

Give members of the 4-H Clubs the praise they rightfully deserve. They have earned it.

Norwegian Boy Was at Helm

Find Youth, Under Supervision, Steering Tanker as It Crashed

NEW YORK (AP) — A 15-year-old boy was at the helm of the Norwegian tanker Jalanta, but under the supervision of elder seamen, at the time the tanker was in collision with the liner Constitution.

Carl Henrik Hoff, who gave his age as "actually 15½," testified Friday in the Coast Guard inquiry of the collision last Sunday in dense fog about five miles outside the entrance to New York Harbor.

Hoff said he had been assigned to steer the tanker by magnetic compass about 41 minutes before the accident. The crash sliced off the tanker's bow, and a hole was gouged in the liner's hull. No one was hurt.

With the boy was the vessel's skipper, Capt. Anders Lovald, who was studying the radarscope. The third officer, Sigsten Olsen, was on the starboard wing of the bridge.

Concerning the youth of the wheel-man, a Norwegian Shipping Federation spokesman said:

"There is nothing unusual in assigning a boy who has completed apprenticeship in a training school ship to any job the master thinks him capable of doing under supervision of elder seamen."

Hoff, of Trondheim, Norway, joined the crew of the Jalanta after completing the required six-month training ship course.

The hearing was the last of four days of investigation into the cause of the accident. The board said its findings would go to Coast Guard headquarters in Washington.

Bold Teen Beauty Robs Bank

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A bold, teenage beauty, wrestled off a bus in the middle of the desert, has been charged with robbing a Las Vegas bank of $1,761.

The FBI said Ida Belle Ingram, 19, blonde and belligerent, is the youngest bank robber they've had to deal with. Certainly, she's the prettiest.

The girl, a former bank teller in Washington, D.C., drew a trail of admiring glances as she strode into a downtown Las Vegas bank Friday. So when teller Mary Herring, 21, announced moments later that she had been robbed, police had numerous descriptions to go by.

"A beautiful champagne blonde, really a knockout," was the way Miss Herring described the girl who had handed her a note demanding $8,000 and told the teller she was covered by a gun.

"A gorgeous girl," said night-club singer Shirley Scott, in the bank at the time.

"White, American female, champagne blonde, 5 feet 6, extremely good looking," said the police broadcast.

Alert detectives found that Miss Ingram had taken a cab to the bank, had it wait for her and then sped in the cab to the bus depot. The cabbie remembered clearly, because she was so pretty. And for the same reason, a ticket seller remembered she took a bus to Reno.

The bus was 50 miles out along the lonely desert road to Reno when Dept. Sheriff Clark Olson spotted it, flagged it down, and stepped aboard. He went up and down the aisle looking for "an extremely pretty girl."

When he came to Miss Ingram, he didn't say a word. He took one look and slapped handcuffs on her.

The girl shrieked, swore and battled the deputy all the way as he dragged her out of the bus and put her in his patrol car. Olson opened her purse and said he found the $1,761, with only $2.20 in addition.

She refused to answer questions. But the FBI said papers in her purse revealed she was from Roanoke, Va.

She was arrangined on a charge of bank robbery and held in lieu of $10,000 bail.

Doctor Finds 20 Per Cent of Ministers Overweight

TV Series Reunites Star With Long-Lost Brother

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A young man approached TV star Peter Breck on a movie set.

"What's your full name?" the man asked.

"Joseph John Peter Breck," the actor replied.

"Was your father Joe Breck, the Prince of Pep?"

"Yes," said Peter. "What's it to you?"

"I'm your brother."

Thus Peter and George Breck met again after 22 years apart.

They can thank television for bringing them back together.

Recently George, a machinist in nearby Glendale, was watching the Saturday night Western, "Black Saddle." He thought he detected a family resemblance in the show's cool, straight-shooting hero. When he learned the actor's name was Breck, he felt his long search for his older brother would be ended.

"We both had been looking for each other for years," Peter Breck explained. "Since I became an actor 14 years ago, I've toured with plays in 36 states. In every town I visited, I tried to find some trace of George. I had just about given up hope."

The brothers were the sons of Joe Breck, a popular show business figure of the '30s. They last lived together when Peter was 8 and George was 2. Now they're 30 and 24.

As part of a divorce agreement, Peter went with his father and George stayed with his mother. Their paths grew farther apart, then the two families lost touch.

"We both were in the Navy at the same time," Peter remarked. "But we never met up with each other. George served on the West Coast and I was on the East coast."

After his Navy service, George settled in Glendale. Peter started an acting career at the University of Texas, appeared in 140 plays before he was tapped for a Robert Mitchum movie while playing in a Washington, D.C., theater. He came to Hollywood and did four pictures in 14 months before landing the TV series.

"I've been lucky," he said, "but the luckiest part about my career is finding my brother again."

Lawn Work Can't Wait

MSU Official Advises Salvage Must Come With Spring

EAST LANSING (UPI)—Homeowners had better begin salvage work on their lawns at the first signs of good weather, a Michigan State University grass specialist warned today.

James Tyson, extension turfgrass specialist said the hard winter put its marks on just about every lawn in the state. He said snowmold, smothering under ice sheets and salt injury are the most common damage resulting from the winter.

Snowmold produces a circular pattern and is caused by fungi growing under the snow in winter. Traces are seen when the snow first melts.

But by the time the mold is seen, the damage is done.

Excessive accumulation of salt will kill plants or only injure them, Tyson said, and the only way to remedy damage is to leach it out with a solution of calcium material.

Smothering is a common lawn injury in Northern Michigan and is caused by heavy formation of ice.

Avon Grabs 'B' Title, Rochester Wins

Falcons Region Qualifiers With 49-38 Conquest

Bentley 58-46 Winner Over Farmington Five in 'A' at Southfield

By BILL CORNWELL

Rochester's first venture into Class A tournament basketball competition Friday night was hardly spectacular but nevertheless successful.

Forced into "A" tourney warfare this season by swelling enrollment figures, the Falcons met and passed their initial district test in Michigan's highest public school division.

Sparked by Eugene Hohf's 20 points, Rochester scored a ragged but well-deserved 49-38 triumph over Redford Union last night at Southfield to qualify for next week's Class A regional on the same Southfield court.

Livonia Bentley became the 2nd regional qualifier some 90 minutes later with a 58-46 victory over scrappy but outgunned Farmington.

Pontiac's two big "A" schools take charge of the Southfield floor tonight in a doubleheader to wind up the Southfield district tourney.

Central, rated the state's No. 1 quintet, squares off against U. of D. High at 8:30 in the nightcap of the twin bill. New Northern tangles with Detroit Catholic Central at 7 o'clock to open the program.

Regional berths go to this evening's winners. The Chiefs, Saginaw Valley Conference champs with an overall 14-1 record, will be favored to stop U-D. The Huskies, on the other hand, are underdogs to the Shamrocks from the Motor City who trounced them during the regular season.

Rochester pulled away from the Redford cagers in the 3rd quarter after the two teams battled to a 20-20 standstill at halftime. With Hohf firing nine of Rochester's 14 points in the 3rd period, the Falcons stormed to a 34-25 lead and held command the rest of the way.

The Falcons actually led Union most of the time, but until the decisive 3rd quarter their advantage was never safe. Bill Mason added 11 points to the Falcon attack while Ron Hagen and John Kraft each tallied the same number for Union.

Farmington made a gallant effort to halt Bentley, but the Livonia outfit, with Tom Eveland and Don Phillippi setting the offensive pace, harbored too much firepower for the Inter-Lakes Falcons.

It was a nip-and-tuck 1st half with Farmington holding an early 9-4 edge and trailing by only two at halftime, 26-24. Until the early moments of the 3rd stanza when Bentley began to widen the gap, the lead changed hands three times and on five occasions the score was tied.

Bentley secured a 43-36 cushion entering the 4th period and the outcome was never in doubt. Eveland scored 26 points, giving him a total of 57 for two district games, and Phillippi tossed in 15. Harvey Chapman topped Farmington with 17 points.

Pontiac Press Photos

Avondale Cagers Earn First District Crown in Final at PCH

By CHUCK ABAIR

The best way any prep basketball team can make everyone forget about a losing record during the regular season is to start winning when tournament time rolls around.

Avondale has done just that this week. The Yellowjackets, rated only about 3rd best among four entries, made school history last night by whipping Oxford 60-51 for the District Class B championship at Pontiac Central High School.

The determined Auburn Heights lads led right from the opening whistle with center Walt Arnold pacing a strong team performance. It was the 1st district crown to be won by an Avondale team. The best previous finish had been when AHS was beaten by Rochester in the 1956 final.

By winning, coach Dick Bye's charges became eligible for the four-team regional slated for the same PCH gym next week. Drawings will be held Monday with the Troy, Bloomfield Hills and Port Huron champs slated to come here.

Arnold's steady rebounding and 17 points and 15 more by Darryl Thorpe offset a 26-point showing by Wildcat standout Doug Stott. He made 12 foul shots—10 in succession.

The Oxford boy tried to keep his team in the game but had little help as the South Central contingent lacked the spark it had displayed in upsetting Lake Orion Wednesday.

Avondale, only 6-9 before the tourney, played some of its best ball of the year in the opening half with impressive shooting and passing in a battle of zone defenses. The intermission ended 29-15.

Oxford made it more interesting in the last half but never came closer than nine as Thorpe and Arnold kept the victors going despite some ballhandling lapses on numerous occasions.

Avondale got ahead by 20 at 44-24 before Oxford made its only real bid of the night.

Starting the final quarter with the score 48-30, the Wildcats clicked off six quick points slicing the difference to 12. It was down to nine when reserve Val Sausser slipped in for a layup with two minutes left only to have the leaping Arnold match it with a difficult tip-in reaching away from the basket following a missed free throw.

They traded points in the final 70 seconds with the Avon reserves getting a workout.

The runnerup finish was the best Oxford has done since joining "B" ranks in 1953. The Wildcats had won six district Class C events and reached the state semifinals in 1948.

Oxford had been 4-10 in regular play—splitting with Avondale.

WHAT NOW—COACH?—That seemed to be what Avondale center Walt Arnold was ready to say as he glanced toward coach Dick Bye while down on one knee in the 60-51 Avon district championship win last night. Oxford's Phil Bogert is looking on. Arnold knew what to do every other time as he scored 17 and controlled the rebounds.

Big Ten Clears the Way to Continue 'Rose' Game

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—The Big Ten has cleared its decks for continuing in the Rose Bowl football game.

By a majority vote believed to be 6-4 or 7-3 the conference, which has won 12 of the last 13 Pasadena New Year's Day classics, flashed the green light for continuation beyond the 1960 game.

The exploratory ballot was taken by faculty representatives and athletic directors in their annual spring meetings yesterday. The matter now must go before each Big Ten faculty council for certification and then be voted on officially in the conference's meetings at the University of Michigan, May 21-23.

The vote of sentiment makes way for the Association of Western Universities (AWU), successor to the Pacific Coast Conference and the Tournament of Roses committee, to issue a formal Rose Bowl invitation. It is believed this has not yet been done because the Big Ten first had to clear the air on how it stood.

"We presume that the AWU and Tournament of Roses stand ready to negotiate a new Rose Bowl contract," said Asst. Big Ten Commissioner Bill Reed.

The PCC served notice on the Big Ten last August that its indefinite term Rose Bowl contract would expire because the PCC dissolves officially this June 1. The 1960 game will be played under a contractural trusteeship of the PCC.

Pistons Edged by Gift Throws

DETROIT (AP)—Minneapolis came from behind in the final 31 seconds last night and downed Detroit 99-98 in a National Basketball Assn., basketball game here.

Larry Foust sank two free throws to give the Lakers a victory and second place in the Western Division.

The defeat was a bitter pill for the Pistons. It eliminated them in the battle for second place.

Detroit had rallied from 10 points behind in the final period to take the lead only 12 seconds before Foust's clinching foul tosses.

Ed Conlin tossed in a brace of free throws to give the Pistons a short-lived 98-97 advantage that capped their rally. It was the first Detroit lead since early in the second period.

Philadelphia's Paul Arizin swished 38 points for a personal season high of 1,827 in a 118-114 win over Syracuse in the only other game.

Jones Opposes World's Best in K. of C. Meet

By The Associated Press

One of the features of tonight's Knights of Columbus games at Madison Square Garden will be the 60-yard high hurdles as Hayes Jones of Pontiac, Mich., Elias Gilbert of Winston Salem Teachers and Lee Calhoun of Durham, N.C. meet for the 1st time this winter.

The trio are rated by many to be the greatest hurdlers in the world and could wind up as the top three in the 1960 Olympics.

Ron Delaney will be seeking his 37th straight indoor triumph and 31st in mile and a pole vault duel between Don Bragg and Bob Gutowski will be other highlights.

Newsman Called by Peoria Jury

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—A radio newscaster Friday was subpoenaed to appear before the Peoria County grand jury to explain his source for a broadcast in which he said between $20,000 and $30,000 per basketball game was being bet in the city.

In the same broadcast, announcer George Barrett said odds for games that Monday night had Bradley favored by 13½ points over Houston. Bradley won the game by 14.

In the national basketball scandal of 1950-51, six Bradley players admitted they had rigged point spreads, but said they never threw any games.

Maples Advance to Regional

Holly and Hills in District Finals

Wayne-Oakland League members Holly and Bloomfield Hills advanced to Class B district basketball finals and Birmingham became a surprise Class A regional qualifier to highlight Friday night's high school tournament action in the Oakland County area.

Holly popped up with a big 3rd quarter to eliminate stubborn Howell, 60-50 in the Fenton district. Bloomfield Hills came from behind to eke out a 46-44 upset victory over Clarenceville on the Hill's court.

Birmingham avenged a regular season loss to Royal Oak Dondero by pinning a 56-50 defeat on the Acorns at Birmingham. The triumph sent the Maples into next week's regional tourney on their own floor.

Brown City of the Southern Thumb loop failed in its bid for a Class C district crown at Deckerville. Deckerville found the home court to its liking and led all the way to defeat Brown City, 61-49, in the title round. Bob Fisher scored 19 points in a losing cause.

Holly meets Durand tonight for the "B" district championship. Durand gained the final round by squeaking past host Fenton, 67-65.

Six-foot-six George McDaniel pumped in 26 points to spearhead Holly's victory. Holly had only a 30-26 lead at halftime, but a whopping 21-9 bulge in the 3rd period iced the decision.

The Hills blew a 12-6 1st quarter edge and made a late rally to chalk up a mild upset conquest of Clarenceville. The Barons trailed by five in the 3rd stanza, but pulled even at 42-42 late in the final session.

John Dixon's two free tosses gave the Hills a 44-42 edge and Dennis Hall bagged a clinching field goal in the last 26 seconds. Scoring honors went to Cliff Simons of the losers with a dozen points while Bob Thompson hit 11 for the Hills.

Redford St. Mary will be Bloomfield's foe tonight in the district final. St. Mary earned the playoff spot last night by downing Detroit Lutheran West, 55-46.

Birmingham piled up a 47-33 cushion after three quarters, then was forced to fight off rallying Dondero which cut the Maples' lead to a skimpy 52-50 with three minutes left.

Dondero's rangy John Meadows fouled out in the final two minutes and his absence helped the Maples preserve their win. Merv Gallop meshed 19 points and Phil Russell added 12 to lead the Birmingham cause. Meadows netted 20 for point-getting honors.

Sets 2 Marks in Big 10 Swim Meet

Tashnick Puts 'M' Ahead

EAST LANSING (AP)—A record-busting tear by Tony Tashnick that included 2 new American times helped jump Michigan far in the front today in the 49th annual Big Ten swimming championships.

Michigan had 80 points with nine finals and seven to go this afternoon. The defending champion Wolverines were certain to top the current point high of 129 by Ohio State in the 1951 conference championships.

Ohio State, mostly because of a monopoly on the diving, was second with 40 points, Indiana was third with 36 and Michigan State fourth with 29. Other point totals: Iowa 19, Illinois and Wisconsin 7 and Minnesota 2. Northwestern and Purdue were shut out.

Tashnick, from Detroit's McKenzie high, won the first individual event of last night's finals — the 200-yard butterfly — and the last — the 200-yard individual medley.

His butterfly time was 2:02.2, bettering the American mark of 2:03.8 by William Yorzyk of the New Haven Swim Club in 1956.

His medley time of 2:06.5 clipped three-tenths off his afternoon's qualifying time of 2:06.8. This in turn bettered the former American mark of 2:07.5 by Al Wiggins of Ohio State in 1957. Both of his winning times also were new NCAA and Big Ten records.

Michigan also won the point-important 400-yard freestyle relay — worth 14 points as compared to 7 for an individual win. The time of 3:20.5 bettered Michigan's Big Ten record of 3:23.8 of last year.

Frank Modine of host Michigan State set a fresh NCAA and Big Ten time with his 1:04.8 in the 100-yard breaststroke. Modine held both former records, 1:05.0 in the NCAA and 1:06.7 in the Big Ten.

M's Robinson Equals Big 10 Marks

Head Start for Illinois

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Defending champion Illinois and Michigan—with Tom Robinson equalling two conference records—stood 1-2 as expected today as the Big Ten Indoor Track championships approached the finish line.

The Illini got off to a head start by picking up six points on second and fourth place finishes last night in the broad jump, the only final event.

Michigan's Lee Bird, a product of British Antigua, won the event with a leap of 24 feet, 2¼ inches to give the Wolverines 5 points. But the Illini's Paul Foreman, a Jamaican, and Del Coleman grabbed second and fourth place. They jumped 24 feet 1½ inches and 23 feet 3¼ inches, respectively.

The chunky Robinson, who won the British Empire games' 220 championships last year, tied Big Ten standards of 6.1 seconds in the 60-yard dash trials and 30.8 seconds in the 300-yard run heats.

Michigan landed 14 berths in the finals, twice as many as Illinois and Minnesota. Indiana took eight.

This disparity doesn't necessarily mean that Illinois' crown is in jeopardy because the field events—with the exception of the broad jump—come up today and they are an Illini strong point.

Among those who qualified in two events were Coleman in the 60-yard dash and 300; Wisconsin's Bob Guerts in the 70-yard high and low hurdles; Ohio State's Glenn Davis in the 60 and 440; Willmer Fowler of Northwestern in the 60 and 300, and George Kerr in the 440 and 880.

Davis, who has been slowed down by a back ailment, is defending champion in the 60 and the high hurdles. He stuck to the flat races rather than risk more injury. Kerr copped the 440 a year ago and Purdue's Ron Eterton, the only other defending champion to compete last night, qualified in his specialty, the 300.

From The PRESS BOX

Philadelphia manager Ed Sawyer gave his players a verbal blasting centering around the word hustle yesterday and said he would tolerate no nonsense. Joe Adcock of the Braves and Bob Avila of Baltimore continued as holdouts. Adcock says he will go home if not signed by Monday. Avila may quit to enter business. Frank Thomas may open the season at 1st base for Cincinnati.

Hope College will meet powerful Wheaton today in the 2nd round of the Great Lakes Regional NCAA Small College hoop tourney. Hope walloped Loras of Iowa 102-73 as Wheaton romped 102-83 Friday. Dearborn and Flint reached the Junior College Regional finals at Flint.

Minnesota led in team scoring but defending champion Iowa had the most qualifiers for the finals at the end of Friday's Big Ten semifinals. Michigan and MSU each had three men in the finals. Michigan's 19 qualifiers headed the pack in the league gymnastics meet today but Illinois remained the favorite. State has 13 in the finals.

Wally Burkemo of Franklin Hills was in a tie for 3rd yesterday after the 1st round of the New Orleans Open. He had a 70 trailing surprise leader Bill Collins by two strokes. Bob Gajda had 71 and John Barnum 72.

Michigan fired three goals in the last 5:15 of play to upset Michigan State 4-2 in hockey last night. The Wolverines can even the season series and endanger MSU's NCAA hopes by winning again tonight. Minnesota tripped Michigan Tech, 7-5. The crippled U. S. skaters tripped East Germany 9-2 Friday and go against strong Russia today in the world amateur tourney.

Tigers Begin Grapefruit Play

Play Senators Today, Sunday; Rookies to Hurl

Ed Yost and Bridges Go Against Ex-Mates; May Not Make Trade

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

ORLANDO, Fla.—The Grapefruit Circuit, 30 days of baseball activity for 12 Major League teams training in Florida, got under way today with six games on the exhibition schedule.

Two other games are being played in Arizona where four Major League teams are in training.

At Orlando, the Detroit Tigers are facing their biggest nemesis of the 1958 season, the Washington Senators.

The Senators may have finished in last place 31 games behind the Yankees last year but against the Tigers they played like champions. Detroit was the only team over which the Nats held the season's edge, winning 13 of 22 games.

A squad of 20 players made the trip to Orlando and manager Bill Norman has called on pitchers Pete Burnside, Don Lee and Bob Bruce to share the mound duties in that order.

Burnside, a 28-year-old southpaw, was purchased by the Tigers last October from Phoenix where he had a 11-7 record and an earned run average of 3.91. He pitched in 182 innings giving up 131 hits, 82 walks and striking out 113.

His only appearances in the Majors came in 1955 and 1957 while with the Giants in New York. His big league record with New York stands at 2-5.

Burnside's best mark in pro baseball was with Dallas in 1955 when he won 18 and lost 11 just before joining the Giants.

This is the third training camp trial for big Don Lee, 25-year-old son of former Major Leaguer Thornton Lee. He won 14 and lost 7 with Charleston last season.

Bruce, former Alma College pitcher, came out of the service in 1957 and spent the 1958 season at Charleston and Birmingham. His over-all record was 7-5.

It will be sort of a homecoming for members of both teams. The Senators have called on ex-Tiger Vito Valentinetti to start on the mound, followed by Bill Fischer and Dick Hyde.

Fischer was with the Tigers also. He came in the deal with Tito Francona who came from the White Sox for Ray Boone and Bob Shaw. He was later released and he was 0-3 for Washington.

The Tigers will have ex-Washington players Eddie Yost at third and Rocky Bridges at short. Neil Chrisley who also came in the trade for Reno Bertoia, Jim Delsing and Rom Samford will also see action on the outfield.

Bertoia is slated for short stop for the Nats since Harmon Killebrew is playing third and hitting the ball hard during spring training. J. W. Porter, another Tiger castoff, is slated to do the catching duties for Washington.

The Senators, who finished last in the American League in batting and pitching, are hoping they have picked up some help in these departments through trades by sacrificing players like Yost who had the best defensive record for third basemen last season.

Sunday afternoon the Senators play a rematch at Henley Field in Lakeland and Monday the Tigers play the Cardinals at St. Petersburg.

Other Grapefruit Circuit games today have the Orioles facing Kansas City at West Palm Beach, the White Sox versus the Redlegs at Tampa, Cardinals versus Yankees at St. Petersburg, Phillies versus Dodgers at Sarasota and Braves versus the Pirates at Fort Myers. In Arizona games the Red Sox play the Cubs and the Giants play the Indians.

The Tigers may not swing another major deal after all. General manager Rick Farrell hinted as much yesterday with a casual remark that "I like this team the way it is."

Kimball Takes Over EML Tank Crown

Early Lead for Hills

By H. GUY MOATS

Saginaw Arthur Hill's aquatic team got off to a fast start last night, in defense of its Saginaw Valley Conference swimming and diving championship. Dave Gainey's ace distance splasher Dee Young retained his 400-yard freestyle crown, and with the help of a 4th place by Bill Hyslop gave the Lumberjacks an early lead with 10 points.

The 400, and diving qualifications were the only events held last night, but a good-sized gallery was on hand. Preliminaries in 10 other events will be held this afternoon. All finals, including diving, take place tonight, starting at 8 o'clock.

Flint Central placed two in the 400 for six points. Pontiac Central's Chiefs had five, and Saginaw one, for a 6th place. PCH's Ted Gaensbauer was 2nd with a 4:45.6 clocking, back of Young's 4:41.8. Lynn Whipple, Flint Central, was 3rd with 4:49.2.

Pontiac Press Photo

FIRST WINNER—Unbeaten in dual competition this season, Arthur Hill's Dee Young, above, splashed to the first victory in the 4th annual Saginaw Valley Swimming Championships in Pontiac Northern's pool, last night. Young's win in the 400-yard freestyle gave his team its 1st meet title, and with a 3rd by Bill Hyslop put Hillites ahead with 10 points. Other finals are set for tonight following preliminaries this afternoon.

Hyslop was caught at 4:49.4, with Whipple touching him out for the place. They swam the first heat. Gaensbauer swam the 2nd heat, and like Young touched in by a wide margin over his closest competitor.

The PCH swimmer was 10 seconds under Flint Central's Earl Holloway. Young beat Saginaw High's Chuck Rambo by 16 seconds. It was apparent that the powerfully-built Young could have shaved several seconds off his time. He has hit 4:32.5 this season. Marks were all well above the Valley record of 4:29.1, set by AH's Ernie Dewell in 1957.

Both Arthur Hill and Saginaw qualified two divers for today's three-dive final. Chiefs were not represented in the event. However, there was no question, barring unforseen events, where the springboard title will go. Pete Cox, state and SVC champion, gave a polished performance to lead the field with close to 200 points.

The talented, confident Cox performed beautifully in the required numbers, was superb in optionals, like the front twist one-and-a-half layout. Teammate, and state runnerup, Bill Williams, also turned in a smooth job to follow Cox in points.

Others of the qualifiers in the field of 12, included in order:

Dave Bale, a clever Flint Central lad; Carl Heinsenrich, Flint Northern; Don Lichon, Saginaw High; Jack LaForest, Bay City Central and Saginaw High's Jerry Londrey.
ry Londrey.

Start of the Hills' title defense was sobered by the tragic death of Ron Lazarus' father. The Arthur Hill diver was practicing for the prelims, when word arrived relating that his father had been fatally injured in an upstate automobile accident. A friend of the family returned Ron to Saginaw.

Most of the Valley coaches were warm in their praises of Northern's fine pool and facilities. This was the first time a Valley swimming chmpionship had been held in Pontiac.

Birmingham's defending Eastern Michigan League champs fell last night to a well-balanced BO Kimball team, despite the Maples' six firsts (four records). Kimball took five firsts but had the depth, sweeping one event, and setting two records. Meet was held in Kimball's pool.

Winners compiled 123 points, Maples 102. Mt. Clemens, Hazel Park and Ferndale finished in that order.

New records:

150-yard ind. medley—First 3 bettered state record of 1:37.5—Barry Johnson (K) and Dave Smith (B). Time 1:32.9 (even finish, nod to Johnson)
100-yard butterfly—Carl Goeckel (K). Time 1:00.8 (old 1:01.5)

Regional 5-Team Battle

Pontiac Northern had three boys still in the running and Pontiac Central had a pair as the wrestling regionals entered the semifinals at Farmington. Championships will be decided tonight.

Winfred Miracle (138), Maurice Lackey (154) and Jerry Fields (145) were the Huskies to survive Friday's prelims in compiling nine team points. PCH survivors were 175-pound star Duke Relyea and Jerrel Reid (165).

Heavyweight Jim Black was Waterford's only remaining entry today, while Walled Lake was blanked. Each school had four points to match East Detroit behind Central's eight.

It shaped up as a five-team race today with Hazel Park and Port Huron deadlocked at 20 points while Inter-Lakes victor Berkley, runnerup Farmington and Royal Oak Kimball were close behind with 17. Southfield had 15, Davison and Fitzgerald 10, Oak Park 3 and Van Dyke 1.

Others in the semifinals are:

95—Butler (S) and Cunningham (HP)
103—Hendryx (Farmington) and Black (HP)
113—Peckham (Farmington) and Vickers (HP)
120—Tribula (HP), Kreag (ROK) and Gleason (S)

Jewelers Ousted in City Playoffs

Shaw's Jewelers, who ousted the defending champion Lakeside Royals from the Class A City League basketball playoffs Thursdays, were in turn eliminated by the Sports Shop, 78-73, in Friday night's action at Pontiac Northern.

The Sportsmen piled up a commanding 32-18 1st quarter lead and coasted home to enter the Class A title round against the Knights of Columbus.

Booth Homes rallied in the 4th period to nose out Field's Landscape 80-78 and move into the Class B championship round against Griff's Grill.

The "A" and "B" finals on Monday night will switch from Northern to Central. K. of C. and Sports Shop, 2nd division teams during the regular season race, tip off at 8:30 p.m.

Big Day, Sunday, in Lakeland

Florida City Observes 25th Year With Tigers

LAKELAND, Fla. — Sunday is a big day in Lakeland. The residents of this community have dressed up the streets and business establishments with flags and pennants in celebration of the 25th anniversary of the first Tiger team to train in Lakeland.

That was in 1934, the year the Tigers won their first pennant since 1909. They repeated again in 1935, 1940 and 1945.

The Tigers have come to Lakeland every year except for two when they trained in Evansville, Ind.

Many members of the 1934 team are on hand for the festivities, along with club officials and Florida celebrities.

George Kell, ex-Tiger third baseman who will assist in the play-by-play broadcasts this year, will handle the introductions prior to the Tiger-Senator game Sunday at Henley Field.

Billy Rogell, shortstop on the '34 club and now Detroit City Commissioner, will speak on behalf of the former stars.

Those who accepted invitations to attend are Mickey Cochrane, manager of the 1934 and 1935 teams; Hank Greenberg, Charley Gehringer, Pete Fox, Gerald Walker, Goose Goslin, Vic Sorrell, Tommy Bridges, Schoolboy Rowe, Marv Owen, Ray Hayworth, Rip Sewell and ex-managers Fred Hutchinson and Red Rolfe.

Spike Briggs, Jr., former owner of the club is in town along with President Harvey Hansen.

Last night all former and present squad members, along with press and radio representatives, got together for dinner at Tigertown, and Sunday night the Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring an outdoor barbecue for all the guests present.

Today the Tigers also had ceremonies for the opening of a 5th diamond at Tigertown to be known as "Greenberg Field." Presently, the four other diamonds along with this one are named after Tiger hall of famers; "Cochrane Field," "Cobb Field," "Gehringer Field," and "Heilmann Field."

Unbeaten Hawks and Rochester Gain 'Y' Finals

The undefeated Hi-Y Hawks and the Rochester Hi-Y advanced into next Friday's YMCA Community basketball tournament finals with victories last night.

Balanced scoring enabled the Hawks to romp over the Pistons by a 62-26 margin while Rochester had to work hard for its 45-40 nod over Stone Baptist. Dave Graybill and Dick Perkins combined for 27 points for the winners as Ray Goforth canned 18 in defeat.

Hits 300 in Practice

Ray Bowhall turned in a 300 game in practice at Pontiac Recreation yesterday. The city keggler concluded a three-game series with 14 successive strikes for a 654 total. His earlier games had been 178-176.

STRENGTHEN AMERICA'S PEACE POWER

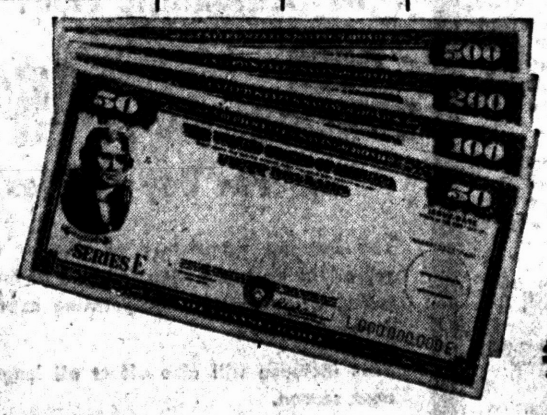

You'd give him the world if you could—a peaceful world. But in these troubled times it's hard to know what one person can do to help keep the peace.

Fortunately, there is something you can do. Peace costs money. Money for the strength to keep the peace. Money for science and education to help make peace lasting. And money saved by individuals to help keep our economy strong and healthy. Every Bond you buy helps strengthen America's Peace Power.

The chart at right shows how your Bonds will earn money for you. But the most important thing they earn is peace. Are you buying enough?

background for LIVING

OPEN PLAN — A large doorway between living room and kitchen in the Viking Fairlane creates a feeling of spaciousness. The dining area is big enough to accommodate full-size furniture. Colored wall and base cabinets with yellow Formica counters are standard in these Judah Lake Estates homes. Interior walls are dry wall construction, applied with machine driven nails. Kitchens are designed by Paul McCobb.

JUDAH LAKE ESTATES NO. 4 — This all-aluminum house, built by National Homes and put up by Diorah Building Company, is one of 43 being erected in Judah Lake Estates No. 4. Called the "Viking Fairlane," it is 37 by 25 feet. There are three bedrooms, living room, kitchen with dining space, utility room and bath. Fruitwood is used in the kitchen and for closet doors. This subdivision has black top streets, community water and recreational facilities. The houses sell for $10,350.

ANGELUS MEADOWS — Work is progressing on the three-bedroom ranch home Ray Rapaport Inc. is building on Meadowleigh. The exterior will be bricked. There is a full basement under this house and a garage at the left. The multi-paned bay window is in the living room. Other features of the house include a six-foot sliding glass door to a future patio, a paneled activities room, built-in oven and range with hood and all screens and storm windows. With the 100 by 150 foot lot the house sells for $17,950.

IN THE PROCESS — Work is going on daily on this Watkins Hills home, called the "Convertible 24." Three of the 52 homes are under construction. There are two versions of these brick homes, one with basement and two-car attached garage, the other a slab model. Buyers may also choose between four bedrooms and a smaller living room, or three bedrooms and a larger living room. There is a glassed-in shower in one of the bathrooms. The basement models sell for $18,800; the slab models are $15,950.

KENSINGTON HILLS — On the hills overlooking Kensington Park, southwest of Milford, bi-level ranch homes are being built by Norsam Construction Company. "The Hillside '59" is built on a 70 by 130 foot lot. The exterior is brick with wood trim on the ends. Full basement, bath and a half and gas heat are features. This area has city water and sewers. Houses sell for $13,390.

Home Building in Area Anticipates Spring

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

To some the first robin or a crocus peeking through the grass is the first sign of spring. To others the welcome sound of hammers and the whine of saws, signifying the building of another house, means that the backbone of winter is broken.

There is, of course, sporadic building going on all the year, although some of the coldest days have halted outside construction work. But with the easing of the cold a rash of spring building breaks out.

As a change from our usual Saturday home, we decided to show our readers some of the new houses that are under construction in the Pontiac area. These are by no means ALL of the new homes. They are but a sampling in several areas. They represent a number of different types of homes in a variety of prices.

One of the most interesting new homes is the Viking Fairlane, an all-aluminum house. Produced by National Homes and erected in this area by Diorah Building Company, the houses are what we once called "pre-fabs." Now they are termed "component housing."

Three major aluminum companies, ALCOA, Reynolds and Kaiser, cooperated in the development of this home. It represents the first major breakthrough in the technology of home building for some years, according to company officials. They estimate that owners can save as much as $4,000 in maintenance and repairs over a span of 20 years.

For the past year National Homes has been creating a community of approximately 150 homes in Judah Lake Estates. The first three units of the subdivision have been sold out. Forty-three homes are in Judah Lake Estates No. 4 and 62 are planned for unit No. 5. Judah Lake Estates is about three miles north of Pontiac, out Joslyn road.

This new aluminum house has dry wall applied to the interior with machine driven nails. Even the roof shingles are aluminum on wood sheathing.

It takes about three weeks to complete one of these aluminum houses after the parts have been delivered. The walls are up and the roof is on the first day.

These three-bedroom homes on 80 by 125 foot lots sell for $10,350. The purchase price includes community water and paving.

WATKINS HILLS

West of Pontiac, Ward W. Ross is working on Watkins Hills No. 3. Already 110 houses have been built in the first two Watkins Hills. One new model is completely done and two others are in the process of construction.

Named the "Convertible 24," Ross' new model is larger than last year's. The house has four bedrooms and one and a half baths. If the owners want only three bedrooms, the living room can be made larger.

The brick homes have full basements and double attached garages. Living room carpeting is included.

Lots in this area are about 75 by 150. The house with basement and two-car garage sells for $18,800. With slab construction and no garage the price is $15,950.

Angelus Meadows is a subdivision north of Walton boulevard in the vicinity of Clintonville road. Here Ray Rapaport, Inc., is putting up three-bedroom homes. They are 25 by 68 feet,

WATKINS HILLS NO. 3 — This is the furnished model of the new home Ward W. Ross is building in the third unit of Watkins Hills subdivision. Contemporary furniture has been used. If buyers prefer, the living room may be increased in size, in place of a fourth bedroom. A dining ell is part of this room. Carpeting in the living room is included in the purchase price. This model is open from noon on every day.

DANISH MODERN — Danish Modern furniture is used to furnish the model home in Kensington Hills. Windows in the living room are high enough for furniture to be placed underneath. This home has a 36-foot family room in the basement. This is being used at the present time as a display room for the subdivision. This model is located just off Milford road, east of the Park.

Prefab Fireplaces Add Charm to Any Home

Among many reasons why prefabricated fireplaces are becoming so popular in homes is that they add charm to either a contemporary or a traditional home. Low cost is another of their advantages.

The placement of prefab fireplaces is unlimited. They can go in almost any room. They require no masonry work, no special foundation or reinforcing of floors. And they can be freestanding, built-in, flush or recessed in a wall.

About 47 million Americans live in the suburbs.

SEWING CABINET — Next to a sewing machine, the most important piece of equipment is a sewing cabinet. The one pictured here with NBC's television actress Jewell Lain is designed to hold all of the supplies which Mother needs when she sews. There's space for patterns, fabrics, yarn and things of that kind along with a removable tray for the different threads, scissors, pins, needles and so forth. It's just as handy as it can be and when Mother isn't sewing, it doubles as a comfortable stool. The cabinet is good looking and certainly easy to build when you use the full size pattern. All you need do is trace the full size pattern on wood, then saw out the parts and finally put them together. It may be stained or painted to harmonize with your other furniture pieces. The cost, when you do-it-yourself, is slight. A list of needed materials along with easy to read directions and lots of pictures are printed on each pattern to make the project easy. To obtain the full size sewing cabinet pattern No. 195 send $1 by currency, check or money order to Steve Ellingsen, Pontiac Press, Van Nuys, Calif.

Keep Out That Moisture

In any masonry-painting job, the need is to prevent moisture devastation. If you want to insure such protection without changing the color of the masonry, use a transparent coating prepared for that purpose. If you wish to change the color, you have a choice of house-paint, cement base, synthetic rubber, chlorinated rubber, or special emulsion paint, all excellent for masonry.

including the 22x23 foot garage. Lots are 100 by 150 feet.

Wet plaster is used throughout the house. All homes have basements. Eating space is provided for in both living room and activities room.

A feature of the living room is a bay window. Storms and screens are included in the purchase price. These houses sell for $17,950.

In the rolling countryside near Kensington Park, west of Milford, new bi-level ranch homes are going up. Norsam Construction Company is building these brick homes to fit the terrain. Lots average 70 by 130 feet. City water and sewers serve the area.

LARGE FAMILY ROOM

Called "The Hillside '59," the house contains 1350 square feet of space. This includes a 36-foot family room. It has a bath and a half, a full basement and gas heat. The kitchen-dining area, seventeen feet long, offers a choice of solid mahogany or knotty pine cabinets and paneling.

Houses in Kensington Hills are selling for $13,390 with both Veteran and FHA terms.

All homes featured in today's home section are open daily for inspection.

Use That New Tray

Don't be afraid to really use and enjoy that handsome new serving tray. The chances are good that it has ben coated with a protective coating based on vinyl resins. This clear vinyl coating is resistant to moisture, alcohol, food and beverages. It will also withstand any normal kitchen abuse. The surface is clear so that the lovely design shows through. It is odorless, imparts no taste and may be easily cleaned. It is also flame-resistant.

Build in Tile Ashtrays

Your playroom is a place for conviviality—and guests sometimes become forgetful about their cigarettes. For safety's sake, why not have ceramic tile ashtrays built at intervals in the wall? When the party's over, collect the ashes and butts in a metal container and wipe the tile with a damp cloth or sponge.

Want to Rehang Pictures? Plug Up the Old Holes

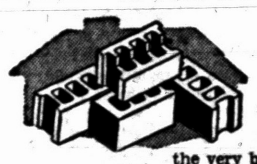

Many a woman is bored with pictures hanging in the same spot on the walls of her house. She thinks she can't change them about because the walls will be pock-marked with nail holes. As a matter of fact, this is no handicap.

It's a simple matter to plug the nail holes with a material specially prepared for this purpose and sold in all paint stores. The material can be smoothed on with your finger. Then when it has dried and you have applied the desired coating of new paint to the walls, you can enjoy yourself thoroughly with a new scheme of picture hanging.

Develop Water-Repellent Masonry Fill Insulation

A new low-cost water-repellent insulation fill wihch solves the problem of moisture in masonry walls will make possible substantial savings in the cost of new homes and other types of construction, it was predicted recently.

Developed in the laboratories of the Zonolite Company of Chicago, the new material will enable architects and builders to use comparatively inexpensive masonry walls without additional insulation or costly finish materials.

"Elimination of the moisture problem removes a major objection to block and cavity walls," according to Daniel J. Boone, Zonolite vice president. "Now architects and builders will be able to take full advantage of this economical type of construction in homes, schools, farm buildings, commercial buildings, churches and other types of buildings where comfort is an important factor."

He said that because of the lack of an economical water-repellent masonry fill many homes, schools and other buildings with this type of construction have not been insulated, with resulting high costs for heating and air conditioning them.

As an indication of the insulating efficiency of the new material, Boone pointed out that a block or cavity wall insulated with the new masonry fill has a heat transmission rating well below the .27 "U" coefficient customarily required by FHA in most sections of the country.

"This eliminates the need for additional insulation or interior wall finish," Boone explained, "another important saving in construtcion costs."

With Zonolite's new Water-Repellent Masonary Fill Insulation, a block or cavity wall can be insulated at a cost of 10 cents a square foot, he said. This compares with a cost of 25 to 32 cents for other insulation methods, Boone said.

Tests of identical homes, one with insulated walls and one without insulation, showed that the new material can reduce heat loss by as much as 60 per cent, he reported.

One of the outstanding advantages of the new material, according to Boone, is the "comfort environment" it provides in an insulated building. With an outside temperature of zero and an interior temperature of 70 degrees, the Zonolite-filled wall has a temperature of 57 degrees, compared to 45 degrees on the uninsulated wall, he said.

Zonolite Water-Repelled Masonry Fill insulation is a result of more than 10 years of research and experiment by Zonolite, which has been a pioneer in the development of lightweight vermiculite products for the building industry. Also a vermiculite product, the new masonry fill is treated under a patented process to make it water-repellent.

A free-flowing granular material, it is easily installed by pouring directly into the cores of the block or the wall cavity either directly from the bag or from a hopper which can be slid along the top of the wall as the insulation is applied. It flows readily into all voids and crevices and it will not bridge, cake or snag, and does not leave any uninsulated areas.

Because the material is water-repellent, it is not affected by moisture which might penetrate the outside wall. Water penetrating into the core or cavity simply drains down through the insulating material and escapes through "weep holes" at the base of the wall.

A 4-cubic-foot bag of the Zonolite water-repellent masonry insulation will provide insulation for form 13⅓ to 14⅓ square feet of wall area, depending on the type of block used. In cavity wall construction, one bag will fill a 48 square foot area with a 1-inch cavity, or 24 square feet with a 2-inch cavity.

May Have to Order Custom Made Screen

Every fireplace merits a screen for safety as well as decorative value. Screens are usually designated as portable, attached or special.

It's no trick to find a handsome portable or hanging, attached screen for the traditional wall fireplace.

As many people living in modern homes have discovered, it's not so easy to fit an odd-shaped fireplace with a screen, especially if you don't live near a city with specialty stores.

Recently, however, one of the leading manufacturers of fireplace equipment has expanded its custom-order division to fill this need.

Your local retailer can probably help you.

The value of all U.S. homes is estimated at 500 billion dollars with approximately 15 billion dollars a year being spent for new housing.

Cedar Paneling Can Take It From Boy

Many's the decorator who's found herself slightly stymied in choosing the proper decor for her son's bedroom. Decorating a boy's room will pose no problems, however, if it is remembered that boys need a masculine flavor in their rooms and that indestructible walls, floors and furnishings are a must.

Latest wrinkle in wall treatments for a boy's room is to use rough-sawn western red cedar exterior siding as wall paneling. Rough cedar has a rugged quality that has immediate appeal to a boy. It's tough, too, and will take kicks and bruises with far more grace than perishable plaster or delicate paper.

Rough cedar tongue-and-groove paneling can be finished with clear rez to capture the wood's native ruddy brown coloring, or it will take interior stains if color is called for.

Surveyor Corrects Placing of Fences

On Saturday, February 28 the Pontiac Press Home Section carried a small item about building fences six inches inside your lot line.

G. H. Curtiss of Lake Orion, a surveyor for 34 years, called The Press to portest this advice. Mr. Curtiss said that if you build your fence inside the lot line and do not serve legal notice on your neighbor and have that notice recorder, you can lose the land outside your fence.

In 15 years, if the above notice has not been served legally and recorded, the land can be claimed by the neighbor by "adverse possession."

Mr. Curtiss' advice to homeowners in urban areas is to put the fire or pickets right on the lot line. All courts recognize lot line fences.

In the average house, the structure will have about 2,000 pieces of lumber.

TWO-STORIED TWIST — Here's something new in two-story design, producing an attractive modern house with all the old-fashioned advantages. It has four bedrooms, 2½ baths, in a total of eight rooms.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN — SECOND FLOOR PLAN

FLOOR PLAN — Unusual two-story design is achieved by running second floor at right angles to the first floor, making an "L" on two levels. Entry foyer, dining and living rooms share a "cathedral" ceiling. A landing at the half-way point breaks up stairway.

Plans Show New Twist on Old Favorite Idea

By DAVID L. BOWEN

In this day of the rambling ranch and suburban split-level, the idea of putting all the bedrooms on the second floor of a two-story house has a revolutionary ring.

But many people, with a memory of comfort in the home of their childhood and an eye on economy, are giving the two-story a second thought. Even more thought may be inspired by the new twist Architect Samuel Paul has given the old faithful of early American residential architecture.

Paul's major variation is literally a "twist." He has run the second floor at 90 degrees to the first, forming an "L" on two levels.

This gives the home a light, graceful modern look, while retaining the tried and true two-story advantages: complete privacy in the bedroom section and the construction economy of building "up" rather than "out."

The design is X-48 in the House of the Week series. Here are some more of its unusual features:

The entry foyer, dining and living room all share the same "cathedral" ceiling. Separation of the three areas is attained by a free-standing guest closet which forms a divider between entry and dining room, and a translucent screen extending from the rear corner of this closet to mark the boundary between living and dining room.

The dividers clearly define the three different rooms, but the sloping ceiling embracing them all creates an illusion of size none would have with standard wall partitions.

Kitchen and stairway serve as a natural buffer between the formal entertaining rooms at one end of the ground floor and the big family room at the other. The kitchen has direct access both to the dining room and the section of the family room where most meals would be served. There is no wall between kitchen and family room — division is provided by counter-top cabinets below and overhead cabinets above with space in between.

A lavatory is handy to the family room and service entrance. Winter coats and boots can be stored in either one of two convenient closets.

FIRST FLOOR LAUNDRY

Provision for a laundry is made on the ground floor, so that once the family is up and about all Mother's work can be largely confined to one floor. While a two-story house is supposed to be less efficient than a split-level, a woman with busy children may have less stair climbing to do in this home than she would in a split with kitchen on the middle level and recreation and laundry rooms on a lower one.

Three big bedrooms and a luxury-model master bedroom are isolated on the second floor. The master bedroom has its own bath plus a dressing room, and the other three bedrooms are served by the main bath.

In addition to these essential living conveniences, the house has a big fireplace in the living room, a dramatic low planter that extends from the outside into the entry foyer, and a practically unbroken glass wall across the back at the ground level providing the possibility of beautiful views from living, dining and family rooms.

Plans call for a full basement, which can be subdivided at owner's option into storage, recreation and utility rooms.

The dimensions of the house are 50' width by 45' depth. The habitable area is 2,130 square feet about equally divided between first and second floors. The carport, which has outside storage facilities, covers 528 square feet.

Ton-Miles Formula Will Be Discarded

Gas Economy Run to Be Longest

By DAVID J. WILKIE

DETROIT (AP)—The 1959 Mobilgas Economy Run, designed to determine fuel-mileage capabilities of American stock automobiles, will move over the longest route in its 23-year history—from Los Angeles to Kansas City, Mo. Starting on April 5, the test will finish on April 9.

To prevent any preliminary practice runs, details of the route will not be disclosed until a few hours before the start.

Discarded for the 1959 run will be the traditional ton-mileage formula for judging winners. In its place the winners will be determined on the basis of actual miles traveled on the amount of gasoline used.

Under the ton-mileage formula, the weight of the car and its passengers was multiplied by the miles traveled and the resulting figure divided by the number of gallons of gasoline used. The result was the car's score.

The contest sponsors said the straight gasoline mileage formula was more meaningful for the average motorist.

The sponsors expect more than 40 new cars to participate. They emphasize that the run is not a race but strictly a test to determine fuel economy, under driving conditions encountered by the typical motorist. The route will take the cars through heavy city traffic, over mountain roads and through long stretches of open country.

An economy winner will be named in each of six competition classes. The classes range from one for cars with less than 110-inch wheelbase (Ramblers and Larks) through low, low medium, upper medium and high price makes. Separate classes for six and eight cylinder low priced models are established.

Selection of the contesting cars is by officials of the United States Auto Club, which conducts the run. The selections are made without advance warning to the entrants, and the cars are impounded immediately. Sixty-four seals are placed on various parts of each car to prevent unauthorized substitution of parts.

Cars may be entered by manufacturers, dealers, dealer associations or individuals, but after its selection the car remains under United States Auto Club supervision until the end of the run.

Further to assure strict observance of all regulations, two observers ride in each car.

The economy run began in 1936 as a one-day affair from Los Angeles to Yosemite, about 300 miles. Last year the course was from Los Angeles to Galveston, Tex., over a course of nearly 2,000 miles.

Twenty-two men and seven women drove cars in the 1958 run. Class winners were: Low price, Plymouth Belvedere with 48.3 ton-miles per gallon; low medium, Oldsmobile "88" with 50.5 ton-miles; upper medium, Chrysler New Yorker, 58.4; high, Imperial Crown with 62.7.

With the discontinuance of the ton-miles formula, there will be no sweepstakes winner this year.

Sardines Return to West Coast

Pacific Is Heating Up; Warm Winds and Smog Possible Reasons

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Not long ago an Indian in Juneau, Alaska, landed a fish he had never seen before. It was a white sea bass, rarely found north of San Diego, Calif.

At about the same time a warm water albacore tuna and barracuda were spotted off the Washington State coast.

And the once-famed "cannery row" of Monterey, Calif., began stirring this summer with the reappearance of sardines after several years' absence.

All of which points to a dramatic change in the mighty Pacific — it's heating up. At least, it's getting warm in coastal waters stretching from Peru to the Gulf of Alaska.

The trend began in the south in 1955 and gradually spread northward until, by late summer of 1957, the water ranged up to eight degrees warmer than the 30-year average. The average increase in temperature was four degrees.

Effects of the phenomenon have not been limited to the northward migration of warm water fish. Some scientists believe the warmth of the ocean has resulted in increased rainfall and higher temperatures on land.

Dr. Robert C. Miller, director of the California Academy of Sciences here, also pointed out that on the western edge of the Pacific the tropical rainy season lasted almost six weeks longer than usual; Hawaii had its first recorded hurricane and at Point Barrow, Alaska, the ice went out on July 1 last year, the earliest date in history.

What's the reason for the warm-up?

Miller believes the temperature of the water depends a good deal on the strength of the prevailing northwesterly winds.

"When these winds are strong they speed up the California current and the upwelling of cold water from the ocean bottom," he said. "If the winds slow down there is less upwelling and the water is warmer along the coast. Winds have been lighter than usual in the past few years."

Another possible reason for warmer water is the increased accumulation of smoke and other carbon dioxide products of combustion in the atmosphere.

"This forms a blanket in the atmosphere that absorbs solar radiation in a greenhouse effect," Miller said. "The heat gets in but can't get out. Any increase in solar radiation over the ocean tends to heat up the water."

New Deal Supporter, Sen. Guffey, 88, Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Sen. Joseph F. Guffey of Pennsylvania, a Democratic stalwart during the New Deal era, died Friday night of a heart ailment at the age of 88.

Guffey, a power in Pennsylvania politics for decades, had lived in Washington since losing his Senate seat in the 1946 Republican landslide.

The eight campuses and 43,478 students of the University of California make it the largest university in the world.

Baby Drowns in Water-Filled Garbage Pail

HAMPTON, Va. (AP) — A 20-month-old baby drowned Friday night when he fell into a water-filled garbage pail at his home.

Dr. Norman Cohen, assistant state medical examiner, said Thomas McMillen's death was due to accidental drowning.

The boy apparently was playing on the back steps of his home when he fell into the open pail. He was found by his parents five minutes later, head down in more than a foot of water.

Thief Steals Dirty Auto

How to Split GM, Du Pont Argued

Chemical Firm Ready to Counter U. S. Plans on Separating Giants

CHICAGO (AP) — Lawyers for E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co. are lining up expert witnesses to counter a government proposal to divest the huge chemical firm of its multibillion-dollar investment in General Motors Corp.

The latest phase of the government's antitrust suit to divorce Du Pont and General Motors was recessed Thursday after the government completed nearly three weeks of testimony in support of its plan.

The hearing before U.S. Dist. Court Judge Walter J. La Buy will resume March 16 when counsel for Du Pont and General Motors will ask the court to reject the government plan and adopt one proposed by the firms involved.

Judge La Buy must determine how to end Du Pont's influence over General Motors with the least possible economic upheaval.

The Supreme Court has ruled that Du Pont's holdings in GM—63 million shares with a value of nearly three billion dollars—constitutes a tendency toward monopoly and are in violation of the Clayton Act. The high court directed Judge La Buy to take whatever steps are necessary to end the close association of the firms.

Castro Flies to Santiago to Attend Airmen Trial

SANTIAGO, Cuba (UPI)—Premier Fidel Castro flies here today for the sentencing of 43 Batista airmen he ordered retried after a revolutionary tribunal freed them of "genocide" charges.

The "review" tribunal wound up the second trial last night and chief defense attorney Aristides D'Acosta flew to Havana, where he said he believed the airmen would receive prison sentences. He also said he doubted whether any would be sentenced to death.

Union Slates D. C. Rally

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The AFL-CIO has scheduled a big mass demonstration on unemployment for April 8 in the biggest hall in the nation's capital. The rally will be in the National Guard Armory, which has a capacity of 5,300. The union said thousands of unemployed workers are to join in demanding more administration and congressional action to aid them.

Station wagons now account for 10 per cent of all new motor vehicle sales in Australia.

Japanese Fed American Food Grow Faster

IOWA CITY (UPI)—A research professor at the State University of Iowa says studies indicate the whole pattern of human growth may be affected by the type of nutrition the body receives.

Dr. Genevieve Stearns, of the Department of Orthopedics, said it has been found that Japanese children in this country who were fed a typically American diet grew considerably taller than children of the same economic level in Japan.

Dr. Stearns said a good diet shortens the period of growth and "it appears from animal studies" that such a diet may increase the length of the period of active maturity.

She also said that "children should be introduced to meats in infancy which provide a different, interesting texture and help them learn to chew."

She said if a child waits until the age of two to try "chewy" foods, he will have more difficulty learning.

Convicts Seize 4 Prison Guards

Five Inmates at State Jail in Massachusetts Demand Hearing

WALPOLE, Mass. (AP) — Five inmates at Massachusetts State Prison were reported today to have seized four guards including a deputy warden and to have holed up in the prison metal shop.

State troopers from southern and central Massachusetts barracks were rushed to the scene, about 23 miles from Boston.

State police said they had no other information on any disturbance.

The prison is a modern structure which replaced the old prison in Charlestown, the scene of an outbreak a few years ago.

One of the prisoners involved reportedly was Martin Feeney, 43, of South Boston who escaped from the Norfolk prison colony two years ago.

Initial reports from the prison said that Feeney was demanding to talk with prison Supt. John A. Gavin.

The prison was virtally surrounded by troopers within an hour after the alarm.

7 Found Dead at Ohio Farm

Suicide and Murder Thought Cause; Four Children Victims

LANCASTER, Ohio (AP)—The bodies of seven persons were found at a farm house about eight miles northeast of here today. Authorities said all the deaths appeared due to murder and suicide.

A man and four children were found in a locked automobile parked beside the house. Apparently they had died from carbon monoxide fumes, Sheriff Dale George reported.

Two women were found on a blood-stained bed in a bedroom of the house. There was something resembling an electric extension cord around their necks.

Cause of the deaths of the two women, identified as Mrs. Vila Soper and her daughter Laura, could not be determined immediately.

Roland Soper, whose age was not available, was dead at the wheel of the parked car, with one dead child beside him. Another child was on the floor of the car in the rear, and two other children were dead on the rear seat.

Rooms in the two-story frame dwelling showed no signs of any fight or disturbance, the sheriff said.

He and Prosecuting Atty. E. Raymond Moreheart were on the scene trying to find out the sequence of events which had led to the deaths. Coroner L. L. Kersell also was at the farm house and unable immediately to give any official verdicts.

The farm house is on the Lancaster-Pleasantville road just north of the small community of Colfax.

The sheriff said the bodies had been discovered at 8 a.m. today by Mrs. David Might, a neighbor.

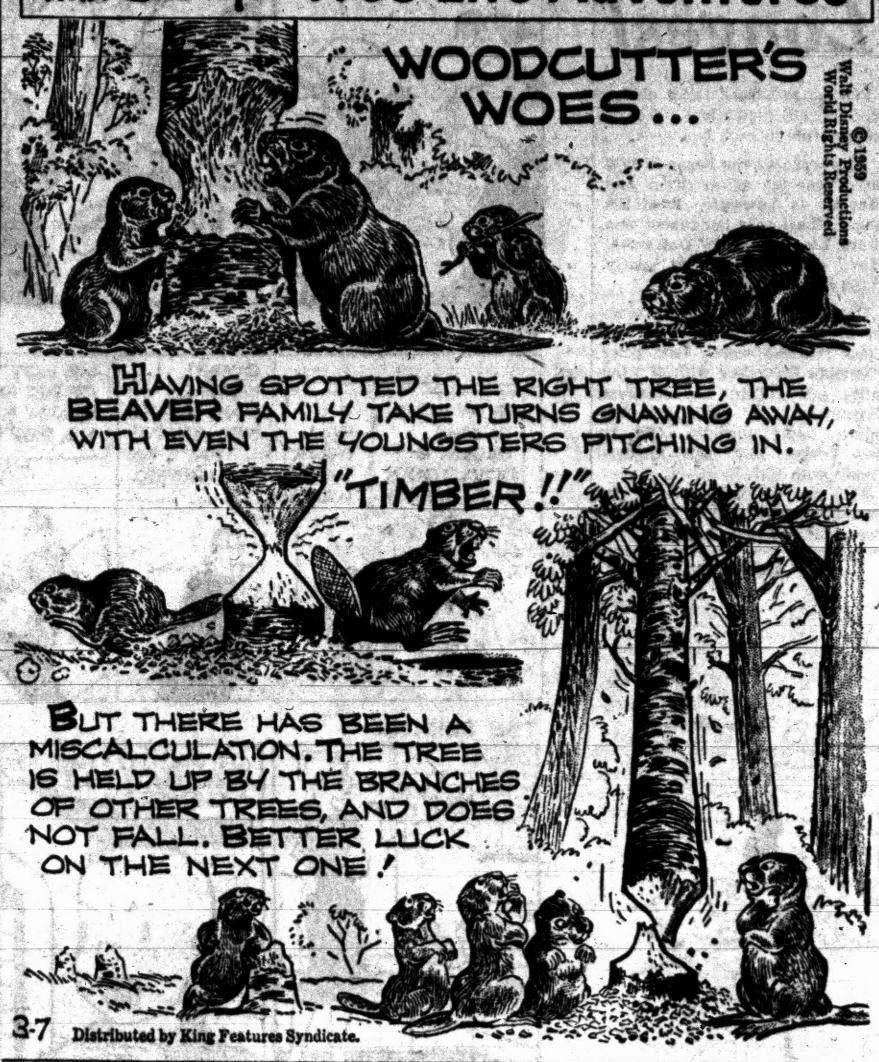

Writes End to 'Finalize'

Over 3,000 in County Expected to Attend In-Service Workshops

More than 3,000 Oakland County teachers and administrators are expected to attend the Michigan Education Association's annual Region 7 institute Friday.

The in-service training workshop, to be held in elementary and secondary schools throughout the county, will cover practically every phase of school curriculum.

Groups meetings in Pontiac are art and physical education at Pontiac Northern High School and elementary social studies at Will Rogers Elementary School.

Other area meetings include: counseling and guidance, homemaking, and visiting teachers at Birmingham High School; elementary arithmetic at Beverly School in Birmingham, and late elementary reading and professional ethics at Derby Junior High School, Birmingham.

English and secondary mathematics will meet at the Bloomfield Hills Junior High School; special education at Lamphere High School in Madison Heights; and early elementary reading at Clear Lake Elementary School, Oxford.

The Michigan Education-National Education Associations luncheon will be held at the Royal Oak Kimball High School at noon. Dr. E. Dale Kennedy, executive secretary of MEA, will speak.

Oxford Youths Jailed Today on Alcohol Charge

ROMEO — Three Oxford youths are in Macomb County Jail today, two charged with having alcoholic beverages and the third charged with disorderly conduct, Romeo Police report today.

In jail are Lewis C. Rider, 20, of 3450 Lakeville Rd., his brother, Guy, 17, of 157 Drahner Rd., and Gerald R. Haynes, 19, of 59 E. eBurdick St.

They were arrested last night after a local citizen reported to police that the trio were throwing beer bottles out of their car.

At the station, Lewis Rider ripped an officer's coat, police said. The three youths were to be arraigned this morning in justice court, Mt. Clemens.

Flint Bar Owner Held Up, Beaten, Shot to Death

FLINT (AP)—A 52-year-old Flint bar owner was brutally beaten, then shot to death today in a holdup at his tavern.

Lawrence Vamos, owner of the J-J tavern near downtown Flint, died at Hurley Hospital 25 minutes after he was found in the storeroom of his bar.

He had been badly beaten on the head and was shot through the hip with an automatic pistol bullet. Police said Vamos died without making a coherent statement.

Singer, Dancer Fred Stone Dies

Also Famed as Acrobat, He Reveled in Musical Comedy for 50 Years

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Fred Stone, whose nimble song and dance acts and amazing acrobatics delighted musical comedy audiences for decades, is dead at 85.

The veteran of 50 years on stage and screen died Friday at his home from a complication of ailments. A heart attact about two years ago was soon folowed by total blindness.

Stone's sight had been failing for five or six years, the delayed effect of injuries suffered in a 1927 plane crash.

He was flying solo between his Connecticut farm and rehearsals for a Broadway show when he crashed. Both legs were broken, an ankle crushed, his jaw broken. His friend, Will Rogers, flew from Hollywood to replace him in the show, "Three Cheers."

A barber's son, born in Valmont, Colo., Fred started as a circus acrobat and worked in medicine and minstrel shows before teaming up with Dave Montgomery in 1895 to form a song and dance act.

Montgomery and Stone starred in 1902-06 at New York's Majestic Theater in "The Wizard of Oz," Fred as the original scarecrow, Montgomery as the tin man.

Victor Herbert and Henry Blossom wrote "The Red Mill" for them. Another hit was "Jack O' Lantern."

Two of Stone's three daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Stone Collins and Carol Montgomery Stone were with him when he died. His third daughter, Paula Stone, is in England.

He will be buried Monday in Forest Lawn Hollywood Hills Memorial Park.

Slippery County Roads Bring Raft of Accidents

A sudden late afternoon snowfall yesterday gave State Police and sheriff's deputies a busy time in Oakland County.

With roads glazed over, it appeared winter was starting all over again, deputies complined.

Sgt. Herbert Dolby, deputy in command of the 4 p.m. to midnight shift said: "The phones started ringing and didn't stop until nearly 7 p.m. There were people skidding into ditches, abandoned cars and minor accidents everywhere."

Deputy William P. Addis reported seeing "eight or 10 cars in ditches along the Dixie (U.S.10) in the northern part of the county' shortly after the highway began to glaze over with ice.

Of the accidents not involving personal injury a four car pileup reported at 5:44 was the most outstanding. Deputies reported one driver slowed down when she saw a minor accident ahead on Milford road north of Davisburg road, Rose Township.

A car behind skidded into her auto and started the chain reaction pileup, deputies said.

Three minutes later a phone call sent deputies rushing to the scene of a head-on collision north of Shields road on U.S. 10 in Groveland Township.

One driver, Nickie Mae Aeno 38, of 445 W. Garfield St., Hazel Park, was treated and released at Pontiac General Hospital.

The other driver, John F. Lowry, 17, of Grand Blanc, told deputies a gust of wind caused him to lose control of his car and skid across the center line into her northbound auto.

A two-car collision on U.S. 10 just north of W. Walton boulevard, Waterford Township, sent Walter M. Beyette, 37, of 3039 Airport Rd., Waterford Township, to the same hospital where he was treated for minor injuries.

The other driver, Peter Imbrunnone, 49, of 4344 Waterloo St., Waterford Township, was uninjured. Deputies said the two men were making left turns onto the highway from opposite sides of the street and collided in the middle.

Pontiac State Police had two injury accidents in Waterford Township involving six cars within five minutes at one point.

A three-car pileup on Elizabeth Lake road at Linabury street at 4:25 p.m. resulted in minor injuries to one driver, Mrs. Annabell Larson, 53, of 1673 Petrola St., and her passenger, Virginia Speer, 23, of 1876 Allendale St.

Another three-car smashup occurred at 4:30 p.m. on Telegraph road almost in front of the Post, state troopers said. One of the drivers, Dorothy H. Morrow, 51, of Saginaw, was treated at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

She told officers her car went out of control on the ice, skidded across the center line, and smashed head-on into one oncoming auto and bounced into another.

Neither of the other drivers were injured.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF INGA Strom who passed away one year ago, March 8, 1958
Her thoughts were all so full of us
She never could forget!
And so I think that where she is
She must be watching yet.
Waiting 'til we come home for her
Anxious if we are late,
Watching from Heaven's window
Leaving from Heaven's gate.
Her daughters, son and grandchildren.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF HENRY Johnsen, who left us March 8, 1949
God knows how much we miss him,
Never shall his memory fade
Loving thoughts shall ever wander,
To the spot where he is laid.
Sadly missed by his wife, son and granddaughter.

Indiana's Harmon Denies Gun-Toting; Defends Drawing $100 for Porch Rent

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Randall S. Harmon, uninhibited Indiana Democrat, states he never has owned a gun and doesn't carry one.

He coupled his denial of gun-toting with a new defense of use of his closed-in front porch in Muncie as a $100 a month office.

And, he added an assertion that he could balance the federal budget if people would just listen to him — "What we ought to do is get all this money that's in savings accounts all over the country out into circulation."

Earlier this week when asked about reports he carried a gun, Harmon had replied: "I don't think that's anybody's business but mine, it's a personal matter."

An Indianapolis news reporter said he had been shown a gun in Harmon's office.

The reports of gun-toting brought a suggestion today from Rep. Wayne Hays (D-Ohio) that there ought to be a rule against Congressmen carrying guns on the House floor.

"Personally, I'm in favor of checking guns at the front door," said Hays, chairman of a house administration subcommittee.

Harmon, a tool and die worker in a General Motors factory at Muncie, Ind., before his election last fall, was unperturbed about the current national publicity about his front porch office and the alleged gun.

"I got two poison pen post cards about using my front porch in Muncie as an office," he said, and exhibited them with considerable pride.

One of the cards, signed "an Ex-Hoosier," said in large inky letters: "You bum!" The other suggested that the 55-year-old Harmon "ought to be impeached."

Both cards were a reaction to stories about Harmon's front porch, district office for which he gets $100 a month rent from the government, as his district office. Harmon's wife is paid $344 a month to run the office. Members of Congress are entitled to a home town office in a federal building if space is available. If there is no federal space they may rent office quarters.

"All this publicity is giving us fits back home," Harmon said in an interview. "My wife told me they worked 14½ hours yesterday taking care of visitors and telephone callers.

"People didn't know where the office was until this week. Now they're finding out and it's working my wife to death.

"Now about that gun," Harmon said. "I don't know who started the story, but I'll tell you I never in my life owned one and I don't carry one.

"I live in a pretty rough neighborhood in Washington though," he added. "It might not be a bad idea."

Harmon also pointed proudly to a shiny little time clock, probably the first ever used in a Congressional office. "I think that shows," he said, "I mean to run an efficient office. I'm checking my staff in and out just like a factory."

On his savings account budget-balancing theme, Harmon continued, "I believe the answer to all our financial troubles is in getting that money into circulation."

"It doesn't do anybody but the bankers any good where it is now."

Harmon, who maintains that he doesn't read any newspaper except his home town paper, and only the comic section of that one, ended with his usual admonition:

"Just spell my name right. I don't care what you write."

Former Leader of Japan Dies

Heart Attack Takes Hatoyama, Friend of the West

TOKYO (AP) — Ichiro Hatoyama, 76, crippled former prime minister who helped restore Japan's postwar diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union, died today of a heart attack.

Hatoyama, prime minister three times from December 1954 to December 1956, died at his Tokyo home before a doctor could arrive after he had suffered severe chest pains.

He had been in poor health since he suffered a stroke in 1951. It left him partially paralyzed and with a slight speech impediment.

In 1956 he made a sudden trip to Moscow and returned with a World War II peace agreement, signed a short time later in Tokyo. A formal treaty is still pending.

Hatoyama was considered a firm friend of the West.

The ailing politician was instrumental in forming the Liberal-Democrat party in 1955 from two quarreling conservative factions. It still is the ruling party in Japan under Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi.

Hatoyama sat out World War II in the mountain resort of Karuizawa.

In 1946 he was elected Japan's first postwar premier but was purged by U.S. occupation authorities as he was about to take office.

His removal was based on prewar writings praising Italian dictator Benito Mussolini. Years later Hatoyama said they were ghost written.

His funeral will be Wednesday.

Senate Group Plans News Union Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Labor-Management Committee has scheduled a closed-door hearing in New York City Monday to look into some aspects of a strike that hit the city's newspapers in December.

Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark), a committee chairman, said he would preside. McClellan said he ordered the hearing there because he would be in New York on another matter and that the expense of bringing witnesses here would be saved.

All nine of the major New York newspapers were involved in the strike. The Newspaper Mail and Deliverers Union which called the strike finally won a wage increase but failed in its demand that the work week be cut from 40 to 35 hours.

Nearly Nude Man Found Chained Outside Hotel

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A young man clad only in a breechcloth was found chained to a lamppost Friday night just outside one of this city's most fashionable hotels.

"It's just that I'm one of the smallest members of my fraternity," George Saywell, 20, a University of California junior, explained to policemen who unchained him.

Saywell said seven neophyte Phi Delta Theta snatched him from class, stripped him, drove him from Berkeley to San Francisco and chained him.

He said it was the annual pledge prank against an active fraternity member.

Kennedy Tells of Bribe Try

Senate Counsel Says Labor, Management Offered Aid for Brother

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Robert Kennedy, chief counsel of the Senate Labor-Management Committee, says some elements of both management and labor offered him political support for his brother, Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), in exchange for laying off parties summoned by the committee.

Sen. Kennedy is regarded as a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Robert Kennedy told a news conference Friday "the most serious attempt came from management" but added he also had a serious offer from labor. He declined to name names and said no money was offered.

Asked how many offers were made, Kennedy said "several—more than one."

Later in the interview Kennedy referred to "both cases" in which he received rather specific talk about the support offered for his brother.

Asked whether this was political or financial aid, Kennedy replied: "political support."

In two cases, he said at another point, those making the proposals were in a position to execute the offer. Both offers "in which the people making the offer had some power," he said, came within the last year.

One union has been involved in a "similar" offer, Kennedy said. But he declined to discuss the case any further except to say that the union has been under investigation.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Shari's 'Lamb Chop' to Get New Co-Stars

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Shari Lewis, the brainy 25-year-old TV redhead who discovered that even adult Wall Streeters like to watch playthings, was just waiting to be asked whether she was creating any new puppets.

"Uh huh! Just got these!"

WILSON

Plunging across the room to a black hatbox, this five-foot, 90-poupd female rocket, a professor's daughter, whisked out "Mi-mi-ow," a purplish cat, and then a tannish animal I didn't recognize—although he had a mustache and resembled a British Army officer.

"Isn't he a sweetie?" she demanded. "He's a walrus.

"No name yet," she added—after she'd quietly gone into her ventriloquist's routine. The walrus had demonstrated that he was bashful and couldn't pronounce my name. "I can't call him Si Beria, or Art Tick, of Al Alaska, or any of those horrible things. I have another one—a rabbit with a brogue.

"His name is Hop Scotch!"

Shari, a New York-born triple-threat gal (dancer, singer, ventriloquist), is quitting her daily TV "Hi, Mom" show so she can burst forth upon the whole nation in a nighttime show.

SHARI

"We have a slew of offers—just under a dozen." But the two puppets may be introduced to the world when she is a guest star shortly for Pat Boone or Dinah Shore.

"This is really why I'm leaving the morning show—there's no time to develop new things," Shari said. "It takes hours of sitting in front of mirrors to get character to come out of puppets."

The fact that Sammy Davis Jr., Jerry Lewis, even Errol Flynn, stay up all night to catch her working with puppets "Lamb Chop" and "Charlie Horse," wasn't enough to keep her on the daily morning schedule.

"You're cheating on your husband," she explained.

"Mine"—TV producer Jeremy Tarcher, to whom she's been married 11 months—"is an angel. He gets up at 6 and comes to the studio with me. We can't go to the theater and stay because at 10 o'clock at night I'm as limp as a dishrag and probably asleep on his shoulder."

It's partly because of Dr. Abraham B. Hurwitz, professor of child guidance at Yeshiva University—and a magician—that Shari's done so brilliantly in the field of Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy.

"He's my dad," she said. "While I was dancing, I broke my ankle.

"He was trying to take my mind off of that and he brought me a couple of books on ventriloquism."

Sixteen then, and already graduated from the High School of Performing Arts (she had skipped four grades and was one of the IGC's or "Intellectually Gifted Children"), Shari found that she was a natural-born voice-thrower.

Shari's long-playing album, "Fun in Sahriland," is a big success and so is her book, "The Shari Lewis Puppet Book."

"We're writing four more," she added briskly. "I wanted to call this one 'How to Pull Strings and Influence Puppets,' but the publisher was a real square."

Of all her fan mail, Shari treasures most one from a father who says his little boy is very modest and always turns Shari's picture to the wall at night when he strips to put on his pajamas. When he's decent, he turns the picture back.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "He's not a drunk," Peter Lind Hayes was saying about a showbusiness failure, "but he's got a tapeworm and it's a lush." . . . That's earl, brother.

8 Convicts May Be Stockholders Soon

HONOLULU (AP) — Eight Oahu prison convicts may become stockholders in a big dredging company.

Warden Joe Harper said yesterday he had received a letter from Lee P. Warren, a former employe of Hawaiian Dredging and Construction Co., now living in Nice, France.

Harper said Warren asked him to choose eight prisoners, each to receive gifts of stock with a market value of $5,000, and paying dividends of $250 yearly.

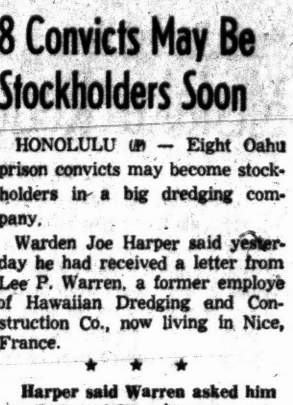

Harper said he did not know Warren's purpose, but he selected armed robbery and burglary convicts who have served at least five years and "contributed to inmate society."

Walter F. Dillingham, the construction company's board chairman, commented:

"It's a most unaccountable gift to the biggest crooks we have in Hawaii."

Security for You

Mistake Requires Refund

By RAY HENRY

From L.S. of Clearwater, Fla.: "Some months ago in one of your columns you said there were certain limits on the earning a person could have and still collect Social Security. Suppose a person goes beyond the limits and doesn't know it. Does he end up owing the government money?"

Yes. If it's found that a person received more Social Security checks during the previous year than he should have, it'll require him to refund the overpayments.

From Mrs. R.J. of Mitchell, S.D.: "For nearly seven years my daughter and I have been getting Social Security as survivors because my husband was covered by Social Security. My daughter will be 17 next month and plans to be married. Will her marriage have any bearing on our continuing to get Social Security? I'm 55."

Yes. When your daughter marries, the payments to both of you will stop. The law says a child may receive survivors benefits until he or she reaches 18 or marries and that payments must stop when either occurs. Your payments, however, probably may start again when you reach 62.

From Mrs. D.W. of Pittsburgh, Pa.: "A neighbor tells me that I should be paying Social Security tax for my maid. She said she'd read one of your columns on the subject, but she couldn't remember the details. Under what conditions must I pay Social Security for my maid? She only works one day a week."

If you pay your maid $50 or more in wages every three months, you're required by law to pay Social Security tax for her. You can get the proper forms and complete details about how to pay the tax from your nearest Social Security Revenue Office.

From Mrs. F.C. of Schenectady, N.Y.: "My husband died in December and I collected $255 from Social Security in a lump sum toward his burial. Recently, I heard that I might also be able to collect a lump sum from the Veterans Administration toward the cost of his funeral. He was a World War I veteran with seven months in France and an honorable discharge. Is my information right?"

Yes. The VA pays up to $250 toward the burial expenses of most veterans. You should apply immediately at the nearest VA office.

From K.R. of Elizabeth, N.J.: "I'm getting Social Security. In April, I'll be 72. Will my payments go up then?"

No, but there'll no longer be any limit on the amount of earnings you may have after that age.

From P.K. of Cleveland, Ohio: "I got my first Social Security check in February, but I don't believe I got the correct amount. What should I do?"

You should ask your Social Security office to review your case. There's always a chance that an error has been made. In any case, I'm sure the Social Security people will be glad to give you a compelte explanation of how your payments are figured.

But U.S. Autos Won't Be Really 'Small'

Car Trend Moving Away From Larger and Longer

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT (AP) — A trend away from larger and longer cars appears to be growing in the U. S. market but it is not because of small, imported vehicles.

It is developing because a steadily increasing number of American motorists are seeking greater economy of operation as well as lower initial cost.

U. S. car makers will try to meet the trend with vehicles of smaller wheelbase, but not with cars as small as the heavier-selling imported units. With the exception of a few of the top-priced models, American-made automobiles of the future will not boast increased wheelbases and longer over-all length.

The more popular of the imported automobiles are built on wheelbases of approximately 94 inches. No vehicles of that size are planned by any U. S. car maker.

What will come from the American automobile assembly lines are cars on wheelbases of approximately 109 inches. American Motors' success with its Rambler line has demonstrated that there is a broadening market for cars of that size. American Motors also builds a 100-inch wheelbase Rambler, but the company's growing sales volume has come in the somewhat larger models.

Considerable confusion is apparent about the forthcoming new smaller cars planned by General Motors, Ford and Chrysler. They constantly are called "small" cars.

With wheelbases of 108 to 110 inches they cannot properly be called small vehicles. They will approximate in size several of the conventional lower-priced pre-war cars. Their planned wheelbase and over-all length will make them only a little shorter than the present popular lower-priced models of GM, Ford and Chrysler.

Most industry authorities believe definite decisions already have been made to introduce the smaller units for the 1960 model year.

The decision stems substantially from resistance to increasing price tags and operating costs for cars that have been growing steadily larger and longer. General Motors, Ford and Chrysler have been watching the increasing demand for American Motors' ambler line as closely as they have the expanding market for imported units.

American Motors delivered more than 186,000 Ramblers last year. That was almost as many as Volkswagen, Renault, English Ford, Fiat and Hillman combined sold in this country. The latter were the leading five foreign producers in the U. S. market in 1958.

Imported car sales in this country last year numbered 377,548. In 1957 they totaled 206,827.

Further reflecting the rebellion against higher prices and operating costs is an increasing demand for six cylinder cars in the lower priced lines. Only a few years ago some industry experts were predicting the early disappearance of the six-cylinder model in favor of the V-8 in the lower price brackets.

George Romney, American Motors president, long a proponent of what he calls compact cars, has predicted their sales will number three million units annually by 1963. Whether Romney is right or wrong, it seems like a safe bet that the car makers will go slow about adding anything to the length of their standard size models in the future.

Million Running for Councilor Jobs in France

PARIS (AP) There's an old song that goes: 50 million Frenchmen can't be wrong.

A new version might be just call an election and you'll get at least a million Frenchmen running.

Politics is as enticing to the French as romance or a glass of wine.

No one has taken the trouble to make an exact count, but statisticians say there are at least a million candidates for jobs as municipal councillors.

The voting begins Sunday in almost 38,000 cities and towns to elect 480,000 councillors and mayors.

There are plenty of big name politicians running—including Premier Debre and seven members of his Cabinet—but they don't faze Jacques who runs the cafe or Pierre who picks the grapes.

The mayor's job in France carries a unique distinction that none other overshadows. And more than a political machine is required to win.

Castro Halves Rents in Cuba

HAVANA (AP) — Home rentals for most Cubans were reduced by 50 per cent under a law passed Friday by Premier Fidel Castro's Cabinet.

The Cabinet, which has legislative powers during the period of the provisional government installed by the rebels, ordered rentals not exceeding $100 a month cut in half.

Those between $100 and $200 a month are to be reduced 40 per cent and those above $200 a month by 30 per cent.

At the same time persons who build homes for their own occupancy during the next two years are exempted from paying taxes on them.

Exempted from the reductions are properties on which rentals were frozen under 1939 law.

But the residences of a majority of Cubans are included in the reduction law.

The average two-bedroom apartment in Havana rents from $50 to $75 monthly. Small suburban two-bedroom houses are rented for $40 to $60 a month.

The law is one of several passed recently designed to lower the cost of living.

Senators May Have to Cut Easter Recess

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's traditional Easter recess may be bobtailed this year unless the senators buckle down and start working faster.

That's the word from Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex).

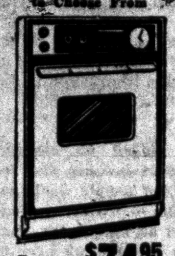

Johnson read off a long list of bills Friday for possible Senate floor action before the Easter recess begins March 26.

Johnson said a House-passed bill to extend the Military Draft Act for four years should be ready for Senate passage Wednesday.

He added that he will take the Hawaiian statehood bill to the floor on Thursday. Debate on the bill may run into the next week.
