Rogers' Statement on Leadership Elections

THURSDAY, February 2, 2006 – U.S. Rep. Mike Rogers, MI-08, issued the following statement today following a Republican Majority leadership elections:

“Today’s election is a reinvigoration of who we are as Republicans. It has been an opportunity to refocus our conference on issues important to the people of Michigan and all Americans. This campaign has made it possible to build bridges and engage in policy discussions with nearly every member of the Conference. The best thing is that the process has helped elevate our principles and advance our efforts to improve Michigan’s economy, protect our manufacturing jobs, and deal with the issues families are talking about around their kitchen tables.”
