Procedures OK'd for Wider Talks

PARIS (AP) — The four representatives at the new Vietnam peace talks reached full agreement today on all procedural matters and real negotiations will begin early next week, the U.S. delegation reported.

After a five-hour and 15-minute meeting with representatives of South Vietnam, North Vietnam and the Vietcong's National Liberation Front, Ambassador Cyrus R. Vance told reporters: "I am happy to report that we have reached full agreement on all procedural questions for the first plenary session which will take place early next week."

The U.S. ambassador gave no immediate details on the procedural format for the peace negotiations. But he said: "I am happy that we are getting down to the serious business of making peace in Vietnam."

★ ★ ★

The swift disposal of procedural questions means that there will be no more haggling over matters not directly concerned with the achievement of a Vietnam peace.

The meeting, which began at 10:30 a.m. in the International Conference Center, got off to a flying start when North Vietnam at once proposed that the first meeting on matters of substance should begin early next week.

This is just what the Americans had said they wanted.

According to the North Vietnamese spokesman, Nguyen Thanh Le, the National Liberation Front had proposed to hold the first plenary session Tuesday.

But, Le said, Vance had declared he must report to Washington. He said Vance promised to get in touch with the other side early next week.

'NO IMPORTANCE'

Le said the North Vietnamese would consider that the talks should be referred to as "The Paris Conference on Vietnam." Asked if other delegations agreed, he said, "This has importance."

The United States and South Vietnamese had proposed calling the talks the "Paris meetings."

In the conference hall, Col. Ha Van Lau, deputy chief of the Hanoi delegation, when it came his turn to speak, said: "I propose that the procedural points already agreed upon for this first session be used for all sessions to come."

This meant that procedural matters could be swept aside, representing dramatic and astonishing progress for the first session after having been stalled two months in quarreling over table shapes, speaking orders and other matters of procedure.

As the meeting began, Vance told the North Vietnamese and front delegations it was the American desire, shared by Saigon, to "arrange an early end to the fighting and bloodshed that Vietnam has suffered."

Therefore, he said, "we hope that we can quickly agree on procedures so that you and we can begin promptly the discussion of matters of substance."

The No. 2 man of Saigon's delegation, Nguyen Xuan Phong, presented a list of items on procedural problems, pertaining to the name of the conference, the order of speaking, language, security and other aspects.

The Hanoi statement included attacks on the Americans and South Vietnamese, but these seemed more restrained than those of the past.

Yet there was a faint hint in his statement that Hanoi might accept survival of the Saigon government in a settlement. Lau said that if the United States and South Vietnam really wanted peace, the Americans must renounce "their scheme of aggression" and the Saigon administration "must renounce its bellicose policy."

Governor of Alaska Alone on Firing Line

WASHINGTON (AP) — Alaska Gov. Walter J. Hickel remains alone on the firing line with the other 11 Nixon Cabinet nominees cleared informally for speedy Senate approval after the inauguration Monday.

Indications were the Senate Interior Committee, after reviewing Hickel's plans for avoiding conflicts of interest, would endorse his nomination by the time Richard Nixon takes the oath Monday.

In developments yesterday:

● The Senate Armed Services Committee approved the nominations of Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin to be secretary of defense and David Packard of California to be deputy secretary. The action involved approval of Packard's plan to put in a charitable trust his substantial holdings in a firm doing government business.

● The Senate Finance Committee endorsed the appointments of David Kennedy of Chicago as secretary of the Treasury and Robert Finch, lieutenant governor of California, as secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

AGREEMENT WORKED OUT

After five hours of discussion, that committee and Kennedy worked out an agreement on his plan to put into a trust his stock in the Continental Bank of Illinois, which he has headed. The trustee will be instructed to diversify his holdings.

Chairman Henry M. Jackson of the Senate Interior Committee said he was fully satisfied with millionaire Hickel's plans to divest himself of holdings and make other financial arrangements to avoid conflicts of interest.

★ ★ ★

"I don't see any possibility of conflict," Jackson said.

The committee was to meet again today after three days of public hearings during which Hickel was questioned intensively about his views on water pollution and conservation and, his handling of natives' land claims and oil leases while governor.

Most other Cabinet nominees appeared only once before Senate committees handling their respective appointments.

TOUCHED OFF FUROR

Hickel's statements on conservation and water pollution shortly after his appointment touched off a furor among conservation groups. He said he had been misunderstood.

The closing witnesses at his hearing included the representatives of the Sierra Club, a 70,000-member conservation organization, that opposed him.

Thieu: Some GIs to Leave in '69

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu announced today some American combat troops will be withdrawn from South Vietnam this year, and he has directed his military chief of staff to draft a timetable with the U.S. Command.

Thieu did not say how many of the 532,000 U.S. troops in the country would be withdrawn, and added "Detailed plans will first have to be developed by the military staffs of the two countries before specific timing can be developed."

But sources said the initial withdrawal might affect 20,000 troops and 100,000 might be phased out by the end of the year.

The U.S. commander in Vietnam, Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, is understood to have reluctantly accepted the fact that some American troops will have to be withdrawn soon, but he is opposed to any cutback until mid-July.

FOLLOWS MEETING

Thieu's announcement came a few hours before the first scheduled meeting of the enlarged Paris peace talks and followed a two-hour meeting yesterday between Thieu, U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker and Abrams.

Thieu's office also released a message sent by the president to President Johnson on his leaving office.

★ ★ ★

"Free Vietnam," Thieu said, "is today substantially stronger than it was, militarily as well as politically, and we shall not forget that it was mostly thanks to you that we have achieved these results."

On the battlefield there were no reports of major sustained fighting.

★ ★ ★

U.S. Marines supported by Navy bombers, tightened a cordon around the Vietcong-controlled Batangan Peninsula 340 miles northeast of Saigon, killing 32 enemy soldiers, a military spokesman reported. Four Marines were killed, and 28 wounded.

Two 'Panthers' Murdered in LA

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two local officials of the militant Black Panthers were shot to death yesterday as a meeting on a proposed Afro-American studies program was breaking up at the campus of the University of California at Los Angeles.

About three hours later, police arrested 17 persons whom they said were fellow Panthers or friends of the victims apparently planning revenge. Officers said none were charged with the killings.

★ ★ ★

Most of those arrested were booked on suspicion of illegally possessing weapons after officers seized 14 guns, a homemade bomb and hundreds of rounds of ammunition. The arsenal was found, police said, around one victim's home in the Watts area, about 20 miles south of the UCLA campus.

Police said they were investigating an apparent rivalry between the Panthers and another group which they did not identify.

4 FLED SCENE

Police said they questioned 12 persons who heard the shots and witnessed the confusion that followed. After the shooting, four persons were seen running from the building where the meeting was held, but their identity was not determined.

The dead men were identified as John Jerome Huggins, 23, an area Panther captain, and Alprentice Carter, 26, Panther deputy minister of defense. Both were UCLA students.

★ ★ ★

About 150 Negro students had attended the meeting during which qualifications were discussed for a new director for an Afro-American studies center.

By the time police arrived, the building, Campbell Hall, which is a classroom and office building, was empty except for the two bodies.

District Dems Back Expulsions

Democratic party conventions of the 18th and 19th Congressional Districts last night supported 13 County Board of Supervisor Democrats who expelled two of their party from caucus Thursday.

A resolution by William Merrill of Birmingham passed a convention of both districts on a voice vote. An observer said it was the first time in the history of the county Democratic party that such action was taken.

Considerable discussion dealt with the actions of Democrats George Grba and Carl O'Brien (Pontiac supervisors) who voted with Republicans on the county board to give the opposition party control.

County Democratic Chairman George Googasian told the meeting: "This is not only a matter of failing to vote with fellow Democrats on organizational matters . . . It is first of all a matter of shattering the platform and program of our party, or smashing the hopes of those who worked so hard to achieve victory in November.

"It is also a matter of the deceit and misrepresentation practiced by two members for their own personal advantage."

Grba and O'Brien both responded to the accusations. Grba noted alleged defections by other Democratic members of the party and cited intracaucus disagreement, which he said led to his action.

COUNTY SEAT

O'Brien denied that Republicans now have control of the county.

During his rebuttal, O'Brien offered to give Philip O. Mastin, Democratic caucus chairman, his seat on the powerful county finance committee. Grba is chairman of that committee, under the plan put through by Republicans Thursday.

The action will mean an absence of party help for Grba or O'Brien in future political contests.

Police Guard Teddy After Threat

FAIRFAX, Va. (AP) — Police established a patrol around the home of Sen. Edward T. (Teddy) Kennedy, D-Mass., after being informed of a threat on his life, authorities reported today.

A spokesman for the Fairfax County, Va., police said "There's a patrol car cruising the general area" when asked whether special precautions were being taken to guard the Senator, sole survivor of the three Kennedy brothers.

The police said they were informed yesterday by the senator's office of a threat on his life.

One of Kennedy's aides, reluctant to discuss the matter, said only that "Similar things have happened before" and that the senator was spending the day at home.

Key Milliken Talk Expected at County GOP Club Dinner

William G. Milliken will make his first major political address as governor at the Oakland County Lincoln Day Republican Club dinner, according to GOP sources.

LT. GOV. MILLIKEN

District Judge Robert L. Shipper, current club president, said Milliken will speak at 8 p.m. Feb. 12 at Raleigh House in Southfield.

★ ★ ★

His speech is expected to deal with general state policies and with the future of the Republican party in the state.

Attorney Gilbert Davis of Royal Oak, Michigan State Bar Association president, and a member of the Oakland County Abraham Lincoln Civil War Round Table, will serve as toastmaster.

REPRESENTATIVES INVITED

Congressmen William S. Broomfield and Jack McDonald have been invited to attend. Broomfield is to make a presentation honoring the late Congressman George A. Dondero. A plaque from the District of Columbia Lincoln Day Club will be presented to Dondero's son, Robert Dondero of Royal Oak.

SCENE OF ILLINOIS RAIL CRASH — Railroad workers are busy repairing track of the Illinois Central Railroad following a head-on train collision that killed three crewmen and injured 47 persons yesterday near Kankakee, Ill. The crash occurred when a stopped freight train was rammed by a passenger train in dense fog. None of the injured is in serious condition.

4th Cosmonaut Down; Red Success

MOSCOW (AP) — Cosmonaut Boris Volynov landed safely in the Soviet Union today, successfully completing a four-man mission in which the Soviet Union achieved the world's first crew transfer between orbiting spaceships.

The official Soviet news agency Tass said Volynov's Soyuz 5 craft made a soft landing at 11 a.m. Moscow time, 124 miles southwest of the city of Kustanay. This would put him a few hundred miles northwest of the space center at Baikonir, where Soyuz 5 was launched Wednesday.

Volynov "feels good," Tass reported. "All experiments were fully completed."

His landing came one day after three other cosmonauts made a soft landing in the Soviet Union aboard Soyuz 4. Two of them, Alexei Yeliseyev and Yevgeny Khrunov, had made space walks Thursday from Voynov's craft to join Vladimir Shatalov aboard Soyuz 4.

PARACHUTES USED

Tass said a breaking rocket on Volynov's spaceship was fired at a predetermined time and the craft descended into the atmosphere, slowed by parachutes.

★ ★ ★

Volynov was met on the ground by the recovery team, friends and newsmen, Tass added.

Soviet radio and television interrupted normal programming to give the announcement.

★ ★ ★

Apparently using the same landing technique as Soyuz 4, Soyuz 5 separated into two sections during the landing, Tass said. Volynov was aboard the crew capsule, while the working quarters in a section called the orbital compartment descended separately.

★ ★ ★

The flight of Soyuz 5 last 72 hours 46 minutes. Counting the launching of Soyuz 4 on Tuesday, the entire mission lasted 96 hours 21 minutes.

'MISSION COMPLETED'

"The safe landing of Air Force Lt. Col. Volynov, 34, successfully completed the multi-manned mission," Tass said.

Western experts have acclaimed the Soyuz mission as a step toward assembly of permanent space stations and orbiting laboratories, where scientists and cosmonauts can be ferried back and forth from earth.

★ ★ ★

In addition to the world's first crew transfer, the mission also achieved the first docking of two manned orbiting spacecraft. The United States pioneered docking techniques years ago with its manned Gemini craft, but they linked only with unmanned ships.

U.S. Plan Differs With France on Mideast Talks

By The Associated Press

France has called for a Big Four conference aimed at settling the Middle East crisis, but the United States is reported backing a peacemaking plan which would include provisions for direct talks between the Arab states and Israel.

The Washington Evening Star, in a story following the French announcement yesterday, quoted qualified sources as saying Secretary of State Dean Rusk outlined a form of two-track negotiations in a note handed to Soviet Charge d'Affaires Yuri N. Tcherniakov.

The Star said Rusk's note proposed talks between the United States and the Soviet Union, and separate talks between Israel and the Arab states under a U.N. "umbrella."

County Airport Reports '68 Profit

Oakland-Pontiac Airport made about $7,000 last year on operations, county figures indicate. It was the first time since the airport's early days that such a profit was made, officials believe.

"Operations, excluding capital improvements, paid for all airport salaries and upkeep," according to Daniel T. Murphy, chairman of the Oakland County Board of Auditors. By the end of last November, total operating expense was $128,000, Murphy reported.

★ ★ ★

There were 215,945 takeoffs and landings during the year — up 15,187 from 1967, according to Frank Gineman, Oakland-Pontiac tower chief. The millionth operation since the opening of the tower in 1961 was recorded Aug. 9.

About 25 lands per day were freight hauls, and the major credit for improvement in freight traffic was given to Cryderman Air Service.

DOUBLE

Clark Cryderman, owner of the service, said his volume of freight traffic had doubled in the last year.

Facility improvement at the airport during the past year included the awarding of a $339,350 contract by the county for the construction of 51 new hangars in the northeasterr part of the field.

★ ★ ★

A $25,000 paved crossover between the main runway and taxi strip was constructed. The state and county shared costs.

Private operators put an estimated $450,000 into improvements during the year, according to airport officials.

The airport received Federal Aviation Administration approval for a partial instrument-landing system to be installed in 1970 and for a full system to be installed in 1972. $84,000 was awarded by the FAA for that purpose.

A survey showed 410 airplanes permanently based on the field, 125 of them multiengine.

The total number is 24 planes less than last year, due to Commander Aviation having removed its operation to company headquarters at Memphis, Tenn., officials said.

Joseph Davis Jr., appointed airport manager last January, said however that the volume figure is gradually improving.

All airport-owned lots along Airport Road were leased out during the year, and revenues consequently improved from that source, said Davis.

★ ★ ★

County officials noted that the $57,000 appropriation for 1968 had been cut $6,000 to $51,000 for the current year.

★ ★ ★

The money is to be used for operations if necessary, otherwise to be spent on capital improvements.

★ ★ ★

Another $800,000 has been budgeted for airport land acquisition at the site.

"We hope eventually to have the airport entirely on a self-sustaining basis," Murphy said.

★ ★ ★

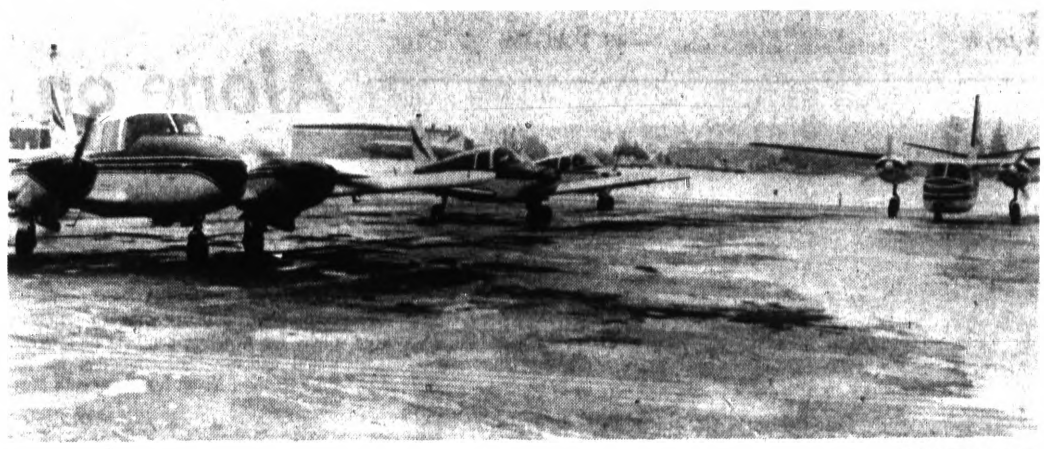

A report to the Oakland County Board of Supervisors by its aviation committee notes however that the maximum capacity of Pontiac-Oakland Airport will be reached by 1970.

★ ★ ★

The report states: "As stated in the master plan, the maximum operations can be accomplished only if the recommended improvements are made.

★ ★ ★

"It will be imperative that another facility be made available to accommodate the overflow" after 1970.

Sirhan Jury May Be Named by Tuesday

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A surprise prosecution maneuver may make it possible for a jury to be seated as early as Tuesday in the Sirhan Bishara Sirhan murder trial.

★ ★ ★

Chief Deputy Prosecutor Lynn Compton startled the packed courtroom yesterday afternoon by announcing the state would relinquish its right to dismiss the 11 tentative jurors.

Grant B. Cooper, the chief defense attorney, then asked that the trial adjourn until Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

"We need time to assess the acceptance of this jury as it is now constituted," he told Superior Court Judge Herbert V. Walker.

SHORTENED BY WEEKS

Jury selection had been expected to take weeks.

Sirhan's three attorneys said they will decide over the weekend whether to yield their peremptory challenges—as the prosecution has done—or continue exercising them against jurors it finds objectionable.

★ ★ ★

If the defense waives the challenges, it would mean the 11 tentat ve jurors would be permanently seated.

★ ★ ★

"Don't be surprised at what happens Tuesday," Cooper told newsmen. "We just might have a jury."

ONE MORE TO GO

The 12th seat in the jury box, however, remains vacant.

★ ★ ★

The prospective juror, Helen Woodworth, a retired legal secretary, told Walker in chambers yesterday she must consult her doctor to learn whether a long trial would injure her health.

★ ★ ★

Either side could dismiss Miss Woodworth because the prosecution yield its peremptory challenges before she was seated.

Before the prosecution waived its remaining peremptory challenges—by which prospective jurors are excused without argument or explanation—each side had used one challenge.

JURORS SELECTED

Excused were Alicia Duke, a divorcee in her early 30s, and Sharon Engle, young wife of a suburban Glendale undertaker.

Among two jurors added during the day was Dora Jacobi, a retired university instructor who once worked in an Army psychiatric center at Ft. Edwards, Mass.

★ ★ ★

Sirhan's courtroom demeanor remained jaunty at the close of the trial's first full week.

★ ★ ★

At one point in the afternoon, as an associate defense attorney, Russell Parsons, was quizzing a prospective juror, Sirhan stood up and whispered in the lawyer's ear.

A guard told him to sit down.

Oil Deliverer Slips

FLINT (UPI) — To fuel truck driver Edward Worcham, it was a simple matter of hooking onto the filler pipe outside a house here and pumping in 250 gallons of fuel oil.

To Mrs. Donald R. Rose, who came home to find her basement full of fuel oil, it was a mess.

★ ★ ★

Mundy Township fire officials said Worcham went to the wrong house. While helping to clean up, he found out the filler pipe didn't connect to anything but the basement because the Rose basement has no fuel oil tank.

NATIONAL WEATHER—Snow is predicted tonight over portions of Montana, Wyoming, the Dakotas and the Great Lakes. It will be colder in most of the nation, but continued mild along the Atlantic Coast.

18th District Dems Pick Zemmol Chairman

Allan Zemmol of Southfield became chairman of the Democratic 18th Congressional District in a secret ballot last night at the Oakland County Courthouse as delegates were elected to the state convention Feb. 1 in Detroit.

He defeated G. Vernon Leopold of Royal Oak, his only competition, by a vote reported to be 124 to 74. The totals were never made public.

The spread apparently was something of a surprise to backers of Leopold, largely those members of the New Democratic Coalition, a recently formed liberal group.

Others elected to office in the 18th were Mrs. Pat Mitchell of Birmingham, Martin M. Doctoroff of Royal Oak and William Jenkins of Madison Heights, vice chairmen; Charles Demos of Madison Heights, treasurer; and Mrs. Ethel Schwartz of Southfield and Donald Morse of Birmingham, secretaries.

Members of the Oakland Democratic 19th District did not elect officers, but will wait until Feb. 1 at the State Democratic Convention to meet with Wayne County counterparts to choose leaders.

Resolutions seeking wider representation and a greater voice for all people in the party were adopted by both caucuses.

★ ★ ★

Former Congressman Billie S. Farnum of Waterford Township asked that his 18th District not endorse him as a candidate for state Democratic chairman.

★ ★ ★

He said the support needed to win the post had failed to materialize. The New Democratic Coalition failed to endorse Farnum at a meeting earlier this week.

★ ★ ★

Asked later if his statement constituted a withdrawal, Farnum said "No."

Kresge Confirms Move to Troy Site

The president and board chairman of the S. S. Kresge Co. yesterday officially confirmed reports that the firm plans to move its national headquarters from Detroit to a site at Big Beaver and Coolidge in Troy.

H. B. Cunningham, head of the nationwide variety store chain, expressed "extreme regret" at the move from Detroit, but said it was necessitated because of "obligations to stockholders and employes."

★ ★ ★

The board president praised Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh for "persistence, eloquence and comprehensiveness" in attempting to persuade Kresge to move its headquarters to a different site within the city.

However, Cunningham said that the firm's needs of at least 30 acres for its operations ruled out other Detroit sites.

Kresge is planning a 500,000-square-foot office building on 30 acres of a 60-acre site owned by the Biltmore Development Co. northwest of the Big Beaver-Coolidge intersection, according to company officials.

The new building, construction of which is scheduled to begin late this year and be completed by 1971, will provide for an increase in staff from the present 1,250 to 1,800.

The company, founded in 1899, operates about 1,000 variety, department and discount stores in the U.S. and Canada with 50,000 employes and projected annual sales of over $2 billion for this year.

The Troy headquarters will become part of a multimillion-dollar office-shopping center planned by Biltmore which previously developed the mammoth Somerset apartment complex southeast of Big Beaver and Coolidge.

GETS FEDERAL POST — President-elect Nixon yesterday named James E. Johnson, a California Republican, to the Civil Service Commission. Johnson, 42, is the first Negro to be named to the commission in its 86-year history. Two years ago, he joined the administration of California Gov. Ronald Reagan as director of veterans' affairs.

Tenure Group Gets Case of Fired Teacher

LANSING (AP) — Thirty books of hearing transcripts and a foot-high stack of exhibits were dumped into the lap of the State Tenure Commission Friday as a former Royal Oak high school teacher appealed his dismissal.

William L. Bennett, a former Dondero High School social studies teacher called excellent if unorthodox by his attorney, was fired last October by the Royal Oak Board of Education.

The tenure commission gave his attorney, Bernard Fieger, 60 days in which to file briefs and school board attorneys another 60 days in which to reply.

Those time periods, plus the heavy amount of transcript and exhibit reading, could mean a decision will not be reached by the commission for some five or six months, said Philip Frangos, law consultant for the State Department of Education.

The Royal Oak board fired Bennett on 10 charges ranging from insubordination to "irregular teaching methods." The board said Bennett, a 13-year veteran of Royal Oak schools, had sworn at the daughter of a school board trustee, called an administrator "a jerk" and circulated an antiadministration newsletter, "the social critic," among students.

Fieger maintained that reasons given for Bennett's dismissal "do not indicate a failure to carry out the duties assigned or that he carried out the duties in an unsatisfactory manner."

★ ★ ★

He also defended his client's right as a citizen to publish and distribute the newsletter to students.

Bennett may appeal his dismissal in circuit court if the Roval Oak board action is upheld by the tenure commission.

State Dem, Wife Agree on Divorce

DETROIT (AP) — U.S. Rep. William Ford is being divorced by his wife, Corinne, after 21 years of marriage.

Ford, a Taylor Democrat, and his wife reportedly reached a private agreement on custody of their 15-year-old son, John, alimony and a property settlement last June 26, the day Mrs. Ford filed her divorce suit in Wayne County Circuit Court.

The couple has two other children, Margaret, 19, and William D. Jr., 20.

Neither of the pair appeared last week for a scheduled court hearing on their divorce. Mrs. Ford had claimed her husband had been cruel to her.

Annual Meeting Is Next Week

COG Will Air Big Health Study

Plans for a seven-county comprehensive health study and the contracting of a public relations firm for the Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG) will be recommended to the main body at the 9:45 a.m. annual meeting next Saturday in Cobo Hall.

The executive committee meeting yesterday voted to hire Ron N. Linton, a Washington, D.C., consultant, and his staff in a study for the formation of a comprehensive health planning agency. The study will be conducted in connection with the United Health Organization.

★ ★ ★

A $50,000 federal grant will be used to fund the study. William L. Mainland of Milford, chairman of the group, said some $24,000 would be required for Linton's services. The study will encompass the six counties involved in SEMCOG plus the county of Livingston, Mainland said.

The executive committee also approved a $1,000-a-month contract with the Metropolitan Fund for a public relations program. Mainland said federal funds were also available for this project.

Of eight nominees for the seven delegate-at-large positions to be voted on during the annual election next Saturday are R. J. Alexander, Oakland County DPW director, and David Levinson, former chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors Ways and Means Committee.

★ ★ ★

Mainland said he will also seek reelection as chairman of the group.

★ ★ ★

The executive committee also recommended several appointments to special advisory committees. Among those named were Oakland County men, Thomas J. Dillon for the advisory council on regional planning. Dillon is the newly elected chairman of the Oakland County Planning Commission.

★ ★ ★

Lyle B. Tyler, president of the Huron Valley Schools, was recommended to the educational policy advisory committee, and John J. Houghton, superintendent of the Ferndale School District, to the joint purchasing advisory commitee.

Shaw Trial Is Facing an Indefinite Delay

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison has asked for an indefinite delay of the trial of Clay L. Shaw, 55, charged with conspiring with Lee Harvey Oswald and others to murder President John F. Kennedy. The trial was scheduled to start Tuesday.

Garrison claims that federal secrecy has crippled his case.

★ ★ ★

Asst. Dist. Atty. James L. Alcock filed a motion for postponement Friday with Criminal District Court Judge Edward A. Haggerty Jr. A hearing was set for Monday.

The motion marked an abrupt reversal by the prosecution. A few weeks ago, Garrison said only his death could stop the trial.

STRONG HINT

Alcock's statement in announcing the new motion carried a strong hint that the Shaw case might never reach the courtroom.

Alcock's action—opposed by the defense—came shortly after a Washington hearing in which Court of General Sessions Judge Charles Halleck rejected Garrison's subpoena of autopsy photographs and Xrays of Kennedy.

Halleck told New Orleans Asst. Dist. Atty. N. V. Bertel Jr. that he would have to show that the autopsy records are necessary to the case and that "this is something more than a fishing expedition."

Saying he wanted to be sure Garrison was not simply trying to "obtain what surely must be sensational photographs," Halleck gave Bertel two weeks to produce evidence.

CONSPIRACY ALLEGED

Garrison contends that Kennedy, slain in Dallas in 1963, was the victim of a conspiracy. The Warren Commission report said it found no evidence of a conspiracy. It said Oswald, acting alone and for reasons unknown, killed the President with rifle shots fired from a window as the presidential car passed by.

The conspiracy case contends that Kennedy was fired upon from at least two directions and that the autopsy material would prove it.

The autopsy photographs and Xrays were placed in the National Archives by the Kennedy family, with the stipulation that they not be made public.

In seeking delay of the trial of Shaw, a retired businessman, Alcock asked that it be postponed until Garrison's office receives "all of the evidence called for in our subpoenas, of the evidence used in the autopsy report and all other evidence secretly held by the federal government."

CLARK CRITICIZED

"In the event the federal government does not honor our subpoenas and blocks our attempts to present all the evidence, this case cannot be brought to trial," he added.

Alcock criticized U.S. Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark for releasing Thursday night a report by a panel of four medical experts who checked the autopsy materials and backed up the Warren Commission.

Justice Dept. Suit to Seek IBM Breakup

NEW YORK (AP) — The federal government has filed suit against the giant International Business Machines Corp. accusing it of monopolizing the $3-billion general-purpose digital computer market.

The Justice Department, in the suit filed Friday in U.S. District Court, indicated it would seek some form of partial breakup of the company and asked a restraining order against IBM.

Replying to the government charge, IBM declared the very growth of the industry and the proliferation of firms within it over the past 20 years served as evidence against any stifling competitive practices on its part.

The government alleged in the suit that IBM had engaged in marketing practices which prevent "competing manufactuers of general purpose digital computers from having an adequate opportunity effectively to complete for business."

2 WEEKS LATER

The suit followed by two weeks a $1-billion damage suit filed against IBM by Data Processing Financial & General Corp., which was based on alleged antitrust law violations. Data Processing claimed IBM's practices had prevented it from attaining higher profits.

★ ★ ★

Last December, Control Data Corp. also filed a civil antitrust suit against IBM asking the courts to consider breaking up the firm which netted a record $871 million last year.

★ ★ ★

The Justice Department suit, said to be the largest monopoly action filed during the Johnson administration, was ordered by Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark.

Nicholas Katzenbach, outgoing undersecretary of state and a former attorney general, is expected to lead IBM's defense against the charges as he is about to become the firm's general counsel.

Among the practices complained of in the suit were:

IBM quotes a single price for a computer system, programming know-how and related support — a practice the suit said discriminates among customers and limits development of computer programming and support industries.

The firm introduced new models of computers, the suit said, "with unusually low profit expectations, in those segments of the market where competitors had appeared likely to have unusual competitive success."

★ ★ ★

The company was said to have announced "future production of new models for such markets when it knew that it was unlikely to be able to complete production within the announced time."

The suit said finally that IBM dominated the educational market for general-purpose digital computers by granting exceptional discriminatory allowances to universities and other educational institutions.

DISCUSSIONS CITED

An IBM statement said the firm has been engaged, along with other computer companies, in discussions with the Justice Department for three years.

"One of the key issues in these discussions has been whether there is sufficient competition in the data-processing industry or whether IBM has such monopolistic power that fully effective competition does not exist.

"Evidence of the open and strongly competitive nature of the computer industry is abundant. Virtually nonexistent 20 years ago, it has grown into a multibillion-dollar industry that has attracted more than 60 manufacturers of computer systems and some 4,000 companies dealing in related equipment, support and services.

"New companies as well as major and established ones have been freely and effectively entering the industry, whether they have a competence in electronics, a background in business machines, or simply a technical innovation which can be developed into a business."

The company said it "will defend itself forcefully against this action, which it believes is unwarranted and without foundation."

Aussie Gets a Fare Treat by U.S. Army

PERTH, Australia (AP)—Reluctant U.S. Army conscript Darryl Arnold arrived home today and had a tearful reunion with his wife, Irene, thanks to President Johnson.

She had written to President Johnson pleading that Darryl be returned to her, and word was passed down to the Army, which complied.

★ ★ ★

"It's great to be back. There were times I thought I would never see my wife again," said Arnold, 24, after the plane landed at Perth Airport.

★ ★ ★

Arnold, who was born in Australia, lived 10 years in the United States before returning to Perth four years ago. He met his wife while working here as a bus driver—she is a conductress—but 10 days after the wedding he was called up to serve in the U.S. Army and was flown to the United States.

INSUFFICIENT FUNDS

After Arnold was in the Army, a doctor pronounced him unfit for service and he was discharged. But the army would only fly him to Fortuna, Calif., his home of registration.

"I couldn't get a job and had no hope of raising the fare home," Arnold said. "A television station in California got hold of the story and from there things started moving."

★ ★ ★

The Army eventually decided to fly him back to Perth after his wife wrote to the White House.

Arnold said he planned to go back to bus driving after he and Irene complete their honeymoon.

His Holdup of Club Just Pipe Dream

DETROIT (AP)—The patrons of a social club on Detroit's East Side are a refined lot—they check their guns at the door.

And when the management takes a gun, it wouldn't dream of insulting the patron's integrity by asking if he has a second.

But the rules apparently don't cover lead pipes, and that proved the undoing of one customer who allegedly tried to hold up the joint with his second gun early Friday.

Police say John T. Toles, 28, checked his gun at the illegal, after hours drinking spot, enjoyed two hours of conviviality, then presented his second weapon and announced a stick-up.

Each of about 15 patrons was summoned to kneel before Toles, offer up his wallet and receive a resounding swat on the skull in return, according to police.

But Toles' assembly-line system misfired when the final would-be victim drew a length of lead pipe and administered a mighty clout.

Police found Toles unconscious when they arrived at the scene. Most of the victims and witnesses had fled. The contents of the billfolds also had disappeared. Police theorized an opportunist had taken the loot from Toles on the way out.

NY Wallows in Rough Fiscal Sea

Gov. NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER of New York is expected to present to his state legislature on Tuesday a budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 estimated at slightly more than $6.4 billion. This would be more than triple the size of the budget when ROCKEFELLER took office in 1959.

The Governor in his 11th annual "State of the State" message on Jan. 8 indicated the need for a 5 per cent across-the-board cut in state spending and an increase in the state sales tax from its present 2 per cent to 3 per cent. The magnitude of the demands on the state budget will make it impossible to grant the $496 million in new aid sought by New York City Mayor JOHN V. LINDSAY. The city also could be deprived of as much as $85 million it was counting on under old aid formulas.

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller has said of Lindsay on Jan. 1: "His requests will be given the most sympathetic and understanding consideration. But there are 61 other mayors with problems, too. New York City is receiving $1.525 billion in state aid in the current fiscal year. A mandated $225 million increase in state aid would bring next year's total to $1.750 billion.

★ ★ ★

The rapid rise of state revenue needs indicates increasing pressure for Federal-state tax sharing. The AFL-CIO American Federationist, which advocates higher state and local progressive income taxes, observes (December 1968): "Because of the great mismatches in resources and needs . . . more help must flow from higher to lower levels of government—from the Federal government to the state and local units, and from the states to the localities."

★ ★ ★

But as far as the struggling taxpayer is concerned, the Federationist begs the question. Regardless of whether tax dollars are raised and expended locally or preempted by higher taxing authorities for allocation to lower governmental levels, there will be slight difference in the total amount of taxation needed for government and public services.

U.S.-U.S.S.R. Rivalry Fuels Middle East Turmoil

International law lags at least 6,000 years behind national law in development.

The attack of Israeli commandos on the airport at Beirut, Lebanon, an outrageous act of retaliation for a barbaric act of terrorism committed against an Israeli airliner in Athens, is but the latest proof that in the handling of grievances between nations, we are still in the primitive stage where it is every man for himself and the verdict of "justice" is unto him who is strong enough to seize it.

★ ★ ★

The United States and Russia, in the judgment of their governments, have vital interests to protect, or strategic ends to further, in this critical area of the world. But surely their larger interests dictate that no conflict between lesser nations be permitted to draw the two greatest nations in the world into a mutually suicidal war.

★ ★ ★

And yet both have provided, and continue to provide, Arab and Israeli with the wherewithal that enables them to kill or threaten to kill one another on a large scale, to terrorize each other's populations and destroy each other's property and keep the world on the edge of panic.

Lacking international law, or the effective means to enforce it, the United Nations—which to all intents and purposes means the U.S.A. and the U.S.S.R.—ought in all good sense to declare a military quarantine of the whole festering Middle East.

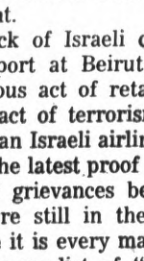

Let no one give or sell another weapon to either side in this area, where, despite the disparity in size between Israel and the Arab world, the strengths and weaknesses of both make the situation pretty much of a standoff—a standoff neither the United States nor Russia can change or has anything to gain from trying to change.

Let humanitarian aid be given when both sides tire of war and sincerely want to talk about peace. Until then, hands off, and a strict watch to ensure that the contagion does not spread beyond the infected area.

Reviews Electoral Vote Procedure

By EVERETT DIRKSEN

As the inaugural of our 37th President nears, the thoughts of many of the nation's legislators go back several weeks to the moment when Dr. Lloyd W. Bailey of Rocky Mount, N.C., a Republican presidential elector, changed his mind about casting his electoral vote for Richard Nixon and Spiro Agnew and did in fact cast that vote for George Wallace and Curtis LeMay.

DIRKSEN

Quite probably Dr. Bailey didn't realize that at some subsequent time that vote would stir up the dogs and make some history. He was one of the 13 electors from North Carolina. The other 12 cast their votes for the Nixon-Agnew ticket.

★ ★ ★

Over the years there have been electors who were elected on their pledge to support a certain candidate for the Presidency and who then later changed their minds. On the basis that the theory of the electoral college was to preserve complete independence of judgment on the part of the electors, those men undoubtedly changed their minds so that the man each judged to be the best man would be selected as our President.

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie (D-Me.) and Rep. James G. O'Hara (D-Mich.) decided between them that the issue should be tested, that when the electoral vote for last November's election was counted at a joint session of the Senate and House they would submit an objection to the filing of the vote on the ground that it violated the elector's pledge, a pledge that should be considered binding.

All this pageantry took place in the chamber of the House of Representatives Jan. 6, as provided by law enacted 87 years ago.

★ ★ ★

There was much jollification as members of both bodies watched the president pro tempore of the Senate hand the sealed envelopes containing the states' electoral votes, one by one, to a clerk to be announced to the joint body and then to the tellers to place them on the record.

When North Carolina's turn came to be counted, the objection to counting its electoral ballots was submitted. That was the end of the joint session.

The senators marched back to their own chamber and then undertook to debate the matter for two hours. Under the law set forth, no senator could speak for more than five minutes.

★ ★ ★

At first it was decided to file the objection and with it an instruction that the one electoral vote in question should be cast for the Nixon-Agnew ticket. One second thought, that instruction was dropped so that the only thing to be considered was the objection to including the Bailey vote in the total.

It was a spirited discussion, indeed, before the Senate voted to override the objection and permit the entire North Carolina electoral vote to be cast, including that of Dr. Bailey.

At that point it became necessary for the senators to once more march back to the House chamber for resumption of the joint session. The House, meanwhile, had also devoted two hours to the debate, and it had arrived at a similar conclusion.

★ ★ ★

Thus was the momentous issue resolved, and thereupon the joint session disbanded. The moment in history for Dr. Bailey had arrived.

I am informed that Dr. Bailey is an estimable person who had no idea that his change of heart on the presidential candidates would provoke so much research, so many speeches and so much agitation over whether his electoral vote should be counted.

This session of Congress most certainly will take up the matter of the electoral votes and Dr. Bailey, I understand, will be called as a witness. Who knows? His vote and his testimony may make up the key to a change in the entire electoral vote procedure.

The POWER of FAITH

BY WOODI ISHMAEL

Sister Mary Thomas More, M.D., of the Marist order of nuns loves life and is dedicated to giving to others. As young, active, funloving Elizebeth O'Brien of Brooklyn, N.Y., she always found time to read to the blind or collect drugs for the missionaries. She wanted to become a doctor and also a nun. She has done both.

After receiving her pre-medical B.S. degree at Fordham University, she entered the Missionary Sisters of the Society of Mary. Her Superiors gave her the opportunity to get her M.D. at Marquette University. She was the first nun to intern at Bellevue Hospital in New York in its 223-year history. She then went on to get her masters degree in public health at Harvard University.

Today Sister Mary Thomas More, or Dr. More, is stationed at the Marist Dispensary in Lima, Peru. She has been cited for her efforts in combating tuberculosis in that country. Long years of study and hours of tiring work are worthwhile when Dr. More sees the hope and faith she gives to those she serves. For herself she finds prayer a need when she is tired from work. She says, "Without prayer, life is incomplete."

Confident Living:

To Win, Work With Abandon

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

What a person! What a supreme football coach! A man I admire tremendously.

DR. PEALE

I recently spoke on a program with Vince Lombardi, coach of the Green Bay Packers; and he "turned me on" just like he inspires everyone—players and fans alike. As a longtime admirer of Vince Lombardi but knowing of his reputation as a hard driver, very tough with his players, I had pictured him as a man of gruff personality. Instead I found him affable, friendly and very good company. I communicated my impression of this genial affability to one of his players later. He said, "Heck, you're not on his team!"

★ ★ ★

"One thing I always want above all," Lombardi told me, "is to win. There is no sense playing a game unless you aim to win it. Your playing, working, thinking — everything — should be geared to winning." Referring to the job of a coach he said, "the big thing is to make men — men who want to win and are willing to give all they've got to roll up a victory."

Jerry Kramer, Green Bay Packer guard, has written a book called "Instant Replay: The Green Bay Diary of Jerry Kramer." He remembers Lombardi telling the backs one day: "This is a game of abandon. You run with complete abandon. You care nothing for anybody or anything, and when you get close to the goal line your abandon is intensified. Nothing, not a tank, nor a wall, not a dozen men can stop you from getting across that goal line!"

No wonder the Green Bay Packers became under Lombardi's inspired leadership one of the most terrific teams in football history! And when you think about it isn't that how you make something of your job also? You don't fool around with it. You don't dabble. You go at it with abandon. You go all out. You make up your mind to win, nothing less.

A man whom I met at a sales convention says the biggest thing that ever happened to him was when he grasped this one dynamic idea about abandonment — and going all out and winning, and running with it. Today he is a top producer on the sales force of a giant company. This, he assured me, is a complete reversal of how things used to be.

"For years," he said, "I was a total flop. I felt life wasn't treating me right and I moped around hoping for better breaks. But those breaks didn't come. Then I happened to hear a fellow say it was no use waiting for life to do more for you — for it wouldn't until you got busy and put more into life.

"Now that was exactly what I had not been doing at all. But suddenly I got a whole new slant on myself. Saw what a jerk I'd been. And the solution wasn't at all complex. I just made up my mind that I was going to give living everything I had and I got going.

★ ★ ★

"So the first thing I did the next morning was to get up earlier. 'This is the day I go all out,' I said aloud. I took the list of customers I was going to sell that day and started out. I got to the first store before it was even open and actually helped the man open up. What's more, I enjoyed doing it. And I showed a lot of enthusiasm for his business. As a result I made my first sale before normally I would even have been out of bed, and without any effort. In fact, all my talking was about him and his business.

"And that's how things went all through the day. My whole world seemed different. I was amazed. Oh, I've got to admit I've felt like slumping back into the old dopey-Joe attitude at times, but I just can't go it for the present pace is too exciting. It pays off too well. What was wrong with me all those mixed-up years?" he concluded.

Well this, of course, is the $64 question. What is wrong with us that we are not motivated and activated? Why are we listless and dull, holding back and not giving out? Obviously there may be physical reasons but a doctor can take care of that aspect of failure. But by and large it is how alive you are in your thoughts. Give yourself a mental shampoo, washing out all those old dull listless thoughts and let your natural vibrant throught-energy have clear right-of-way. Work with abandon. Work to win. Get going and enjoy every moment of it.

Voice of the People:

'County Takes No Action on Funds for Our Roads'

You have been editorializing for several months on the need for roads in Oakland County, yet the County government has done nothing. In August the voters defeated a road millage which was, as you stated at the time, a clear indication that the taxpayers wanted another source of money found for roads. What action did the Board of Supervisors take? It took none. Instead, it voted to spend millions on four more buildings for its empire within a month after the road millage defeat.

★ ★ ★

One member of this same body, praising its past performance, called for a standing ovation from the new Board at its first session. The new Board obliged.

★ ★ ★

Let the new Board know that the taxpayers will sit on their hands and hold their applause until after it takes action to allocate local funds to local roads.

'Why Let North Korea Push Us Around?'

I am happy that the 82 men that were captured on the high seas are back home. The part I can't understand is how our leaders in Washington can sit on their hands and let a so-called half a country like North Korea push us around. It also seems strange that we are fighting a no-win war in Vietnam. We are spending billions of dollars plus thousands of young lives.

★ ★ ★

As I look around and see the good times we are having under the "Great Society," this great nation is being led down the path to world government. I thank the good Lord for opening my eyes and pray that others will see the light and join me in standing up for America.

'What Can Be Done About State Hospital?'

I am a teen-ager in high school and I was disturbed over the pictures in the January 10th Pontiac Press concerning the Pontiac State Hospital. I would like to know how anyone sick could become well. It's sickening to see how those people live. I never knew such places existed in Pontiac. What's being done about it? If nothing, how can a fund or drive be started? Couldn't all tradesmen donate even just a few hours to fix up these buildings? Surely God will repay each one.

Submits Correction to Space Travel Figures

I offer corrections to the article "Trip to Star Called Impossible" which appeared recently. The figures given in regard to the distance to the nearest star and the time required to get there are incorrect, and I am sure Sir Martin Ryle of Cambridge University would be embarrassed if they were attributed to him. The nearest visible star, excluding our sun, is Alpha Centauri which is 4.3 light years distant. That is 25 trillion miles, not a mere 17 billion miles as the article stated.

Instead of being 35,000 times farther than the Apollo 8 journey, the figure should have been nearer 2,500,000. The astronauts were reported as attaining a speed of 25,000 m.p.h. At this pace it would take not a mere 1,000 years but over 100,000 years to reach Alpha Centauri.

'Write to Legislators About Amendment'

It's not so incredible that Romney's school proposal totally disregards the rights of citizens, as State Representative Ryan says. Peoples right are disregarded every day all over this country, and will be until the Liberty Amendment is passed. I urge all citizens concerned for their rights to look into the amendment and write to their legislators about it before we have completely given in to socialism.

Supports Astronauts' Right to Pray in Space

Regarding your editorial on the astronauts' right to pray, I think what those men did was wonderful. I, too, have wondered why so much attention has been given to what Mrs. Madalyn Murray O'Hair says. We are supposed to be a religious nation. There were objections to Mary and Baby Jesus being on our Christmas stamps, and I noticed they were not on the last ones. How much more are we going to give in? I am not ashamed for the whole world to know I am a Christian. Without prayer, how void this life.

MRS. CLEO DENTON
7780 MACEDAY LAKE RD., WATERFORD

I agree that people like Mrs. O'Hair who are anti-God and anti-prayer should have the privilege of the first flight to the moon. This country was founded on freedom. The astronauts were as free to pray as Mrs. O'Hair was to turn off her television.

REPLY

We checked several large department stores. Hudson's was the only one carrying that brand, and they do have size 10. If the branches are out, call the downtown store.

Agnew Shot to Prominence After 1965

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sprio Theodore Agnew became a household word as the result of a metoric rise in politics.

Until a little more than two years ago, he had held no public office higher than county executive.

★ ★ ★

In 1966, he was elected governor of Maryland in a victory made possible by a sharp split in the usually dominant Democratic party.

On Aug. 8, 1968, to the surprise of Agnew and just about everyone else, he was tapped by Richard M. Nixon to be his running mate.

SON OF IMMIGRANT

The son of a Greek immigrant who changed the Anagnostopoulous to Agnew after settling in Baltimore, Agnew is the first American of Greek ancestry to be elected vice president.

Agnew was born in Baltimore Nov. 9, 1918. He attended public schools and Johns Hopkins University, where he studied chemistry for three years before switching to law. He received his law degree from the University of Baltimore in 1947, after serving during World War II as a company commander with the 10th Armored Division in the European theater.

★ ★ ★

After 10 years in private law practice, he broke into politics in 1957 as a member of the Baltimore County Board, handling appeals from zoning decisions. In 1961, he was elected county executive, or over-all administrator of the populous county.

In 1966, with Democrats deserting their own party ticket in droves, Agnew was elected governor. As governor, he worked to improve Maryland's highways and waterways, strengthen local government, and curb crime.

WON PALUDITS

He won paludits from Negroes and white liberals for sponsoring the first statewide fair housing bill enacted south of the Mason-Dixon line.

But then later got into a row with the same groups for sharply criticizing Negroes involved in ghetto riots.

Warren to Give Oath to Nixon

Pair Had Falling Out at '52 GOP Confab

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Richard M. Nixon will be sworn in as President of the United States by the man who almost wasn't there—Chief Justice Earl Warren.

Warren, who has administered the oath of office to three previous presidents, announced his intention to retire last July. But the Senate's refusal to confirm Justice Abe Fortas as his successor disrupted Warren's plans and he will be on hand for Nixon's Jan. 20 inaugural.

★ ★ ★

The moment of the oath-taking will bring together two fellow Californians whose relations over the years have been politely cool at best.

Yet it was Nixon who personally asked Warren to swear him in and to remain on as chief justice for the rest of the current Supreme Court term.

FALLING OUT IN '52

Their falling out, according to most accounts, dates back to the 1952 Republican convention when Warren was governor of California and Nixon a first-term senator from the state.

Warren, considered a possible contender for the presidential nomination, was the favorite-son candidate of the California delegation.

★ ★ ★

Nixon, however, was credited with swinging a sizable bloc of the delegates to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for a second-ballot commitment and then later wound up as Eisenhower's vice presidential running mate.

Neither has ever discussed the matter for the public record but a few years after Eisenhower named him chief justice, Warren was reported as telling a newsman at a cocktail party:

"I don't care what you write about Nixon as long as you don't try to build him up over my dead body."

News in Brief

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. reported to Pontiac police yesterday that coin telephones at 585 and 137 Oakland were broken into and that $40 was taken from one phone and an unknown amount from the other, with $102 worth of damage done.

Wayne County Has No Funds for Probe

DETROIT (UPI) — For the third month in a row, lack of money has prevented Wayne County Prosecutor William Cahalan from calling a 23-man grand jury to investigate wrongdoing around the county.

Cahalan said Friday he was short two staff members and has no one to staff the grand jury. Also, the board of supervisors had refused to grant any money, saying it does not have the necessary funds.

The grand jury was first called in november, when it returned 16 indictments, including 13 against Highland Pakk police officers charged with offenses including burglary, property destruction and abortion.

Cahalan had asked the jury to look into several other areas, including the shooting deaths of a State Police detective and an Inkster youth during a night of civil disturbances last summer.

Air Force Plans to Keep Area Reservists on Duty

A group of Pontiac-area Air Force Ready Reservists, called up during the Pueblo crisis, will be kept on duty for about another six months, the Defense Department has announced.

★ ★ ★

Some 20 from the area are in the 180-man 305th Aerospace Rescue and Recovery Squadron based at Selfridge Field in Macomb County.

★ ★ ★

The outfit was called to active duty in January 1968 shortly after the Pueblo seizure.

★ ★ ★

The men of the 305th are to be returned to Ready Reserve status on June 18, it was announced.

'DISASTER UNIT'

The 305th is a specialized unit which performs pararescue work in cases of disaster, flying from Selfridge to wherever they are needed in long-distance Stratocruisers.

★ ★ ★

Since being activated, elements of the units have taken part in such operations as helping the hunt for an atomic bomb missing in an air crash in Iceland, finding propectors lost in Africa and thousands of hours of flying standby over military operations.

Prayers Praised

3 Found Dead at Their Home in Richfield Twp.

FLINT (AP)—A man, his wife and granddaughter were found dead in their outlying Richfield Township home Friday night.

State Police said they suspected the deaths were due to gas or food poisoning and that there were no signs of foul play. An autopsy was ordered today to fix the cause.

Incoming First Lady Is Practical Homemaker at Heart

By JOY MILLER
AP Woman's Editor

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Nixon says she has always tried to look her best, but she deplores what she calls "too much emphasis on glamor in politics in recent years."

She believes in wearing the same good suit or coat over and over again in public.

Pictures of her doing this very thing recently moved Norman Norell, dean of American designers, to comment approvingly: "She's putting fashion in its proper perspective. A First Lady should not be so enthralled with fashion that she has to wear something different every day."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Nixon is a practical, sensible, thrifty woman, taking pride in being considered primarily a homemaker. She likes to cook and garden, and she has called herself "old maidish" about keeping a house spotless and everything in its place.

In the White House the new First Lady will have a large and experienced staff to cope with keeping it tidy.

She'll handle the workers with her usual friendly efficiency, but, since she doesn't like people to wait on her "it is easier to do something for myself," she says, she may have some inner struggles about resisting the urge to move a piece of furniture herself or to whip out a hot iron for a quick touchup on a dress.

The White House itself Pat Nixon regards almost with awe. "It's historical and beautiful and belongs to the people I wouldn't tamper with it," she says.

★ ★ ★

The private living quarters will be as homey and comfortable as Mrs. Nixon can make them. The Nixons — a close family — like familiar furniture, and have carried favorite pieces with them — from Washington, when Vice President Nixon lost his bid for the presidency in 1960, to California, where he practiced law and made an unsuccessful attempt to win the governorship in 1962, to New York, where he practiced law and in 1968 achieved the presidency.

COOKING

Mrs. Nixon has said she considers herself a good cook. She started compiling a recipe file when she was 13, after her mother died and she took over the task of making a home for her father and two brothers on a small ranch in Artesia, Calif.

An ideal Nixon family meal, she said, would comprise. "A tenderloin, easy to prepare, 45 minutes: puffed potatoes, fresh peas, zucchini and tomatoes—Dick likes that — and fruit popovers."

Entertaining foreign potentates on state visits won't be difficult for Mrs. Nixon, who dined with presidents and royalty all over the world when she accompanied her husband on visits when he was vice president.

The social event, though, that would give her the greatest pleasure would be a White House wedding of her very pretty blond daughter, Tricia.

She isn't serious about anyone right now, her mother says, but anything can happen in four years.

Tricia is "more introverted, like me", says Mrs. Nixon. She was a history major at New York's Finch College, from which she was graduated in 1968. During the summer of 1967 she worked in the office of Sen. George Murphy of California "and enjoyed it."

Tricia would like to be a legislative researcher, working on Capitol Hill, "when she works up to it," explains her mother.

When she looks back over her life, Mrs. Nixon sees the American dream come true. She was born Thelma Catherine Ryan on March 17, 1913, in Ely, Nev., daughter of William Ryan, an Irish hard rock miner who called her Pat. He moved the family to the Artesia ranch when she was small and he died when she was 17.

COLLEGE

She desperately wanted to go to college and she worked hard to achieve that goal, one prime reason why she is so concerned with making quality education available today to everyone.

She worked as an X-ray technician in New York for two years before beginning at the University of Southern California as a scholarship student. Before she was graduated cum laude four years later in the class of '37 she had worked as a department store clerk, researcher, movie extra in mob scenes and college paper grader.

★ ★ ★

Pretty young Pat had majored in merchandising and planned to be a buyer, but an offer to teach commercial subjects at Whittier High School came along and she took it.

ROMANCE

One night at the community theater she met a young lawyer named Richard Nixon, who had come home to set up practice after graduating from Duke University.

He quickly proposed marriage but they were not married until two years later, June 22, 1940, in a Quaker service at Riverside, Calif. Two years after that he was in Navy service in World War II and she was still working.

When he returned to civilian life he entered politics. Most of the money she had saved for a house went for his 1946 campaign for a seat in Congress.

★ ★ ★

In six years Pat Nixon saw her husband elected a congressman, senator and vice president. Through it all, she worked behind the scenes as a volunteer except when she was by his side listening to him speak or attending women's gatherings as wife of the candidate.

★ ★ ★

Through sheer hard work the Nixons, who started humbly, have gone up the ladder to become the First Family in the nation, and that is the American dream to Pat Nixon.

★ ★ ★

As First Lady, she believes, she can help her husband make the American dream come true for everyone. That is the project, the "thing" that will come first in her order of priorities.

Spring Preview of Menswear Sets New Pace

ROME (AP) — Top Italian menswear designers, proved Friday night it is possible to combine snappy new style ideas with elegance, scoring a resounding triumph in spring-summer collections over some rather girly male styles presented earlier.

Angelo Litrico, the Sicilian menswear designer who claims crowned heads and top statesman among his clients, showed smart knit suits in black and white trimmed with square gilt buttons. The male models were escorted by girls in identical knit outfits. It was monosex dressing at its best and it got resounding applause.

FABRICS

Fabrics were the big feature of the Baratta show. His jacket style was the same throughout —elongated with sharply jutting lapels and very fitted and flared at the back. But the fabrics kept up the interest from bright-colored houndstooth checks to coin-spotted jacquards in sunny colors.

Pastel-colored gaberdines were also used and the Baratta show proved that menswear can look attractive in fabrics that are usually reserved for the females.

★ ★ ★

Datti was another who liked "women's" fabrics, using them for patch-pocketed leisure jackets and matching slacks in pale silk shantung.

Also lifted from the ladies were printed linen vests worn over full-sleeved shirts in dark-colored crepe.

On the same lines were Datti's evening vest and pants in cream and cocoa-brown linen velvet worn with white silk shirt-blouses open at the neck. Handsome link belts in pewter metal were worn with these threesomes.

Most expensive item of the shows was Litrico's guru-necked shirt with real diamond buttons, tagged at $13,000.

He also produced the most elegant outfit, an evening suit in black barathea with jacket shaped like an intern's and elegantly tapered pants. A gold link belt circled the waist.

Avon Players Set Performances of 'The Odd Couple' by Simon

A sportswriter, discarded by his wife because of his sloppy habits, invites a poker pal, in the throes of divorce, to share his bachelor apartment.

In Avon Players upcoming production of "The Odd Couple," Skip McCully plays Oscar, the host, who soon finds that Felix, formerly a happy guest at the weekly-poker parties, is a very different character in the role of roommate. Felix is played by Don Weston.

Felix's neatness phobia throws both men back into the same marital-type situations which blew up their respective marriages.

Bridget Wilde and Norma Tazzia, both from Britain, play the Pigeon sisters, English chicks living in a neighboring apartment.

The roles of the card players are taken by Marty Rosalik, Dave Holderness, Roger Slee and George Vishnia.

John Long is directing Neil Simon's comedy, assisted by Jane Ramsey. Producer is Rosemary Jackson.

PERFORMANCES

Performances are scheduled Jan. 23, 24, 25, 26, 30, 31 and Feb. 1. Curtain times are 8:30 p.m. except Sunday, when the action starts at 7:30 p.m. in the Playhouse on Washington Road, Rochester.

★ ★ ★

Tickets may be purchased at the box office at 100 East University Drive, Rochester, each Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10 a.m. to noon and from 3 to 5 p.m. For mail orders, write Avon Players, P.O. Box 332, Rochester.

The "First-Nighter" audience is invited to attend an Afterglow, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Contrucci, in the Playhouse.

Taking the leads in Avon Players' production of "The Odd Couple," are (left) Skip McCully of Fieldstone Drive, Avon Township, as Oscar and Don Weston of Nesbitt Lane, also Avon Township, who plays the womanish Felix. Here they argue the difference between a ladle and a spoon. Opening night is Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in the Playhouse on Washington Road.

Joint Notice Is a Matter of Own Taste

By ELIZABETH L. POST
Of the Emily Post Institute

Dear Mrs. Post: My fiance and I will graduate from college this spring and will be married three days later. The salesman who spoke to our class suggested that we might wish to send our graduation announcements out jointly a few days after our marriage using a "Mr. and Mrs." card.

★ ★ ★

Would this be proper since at the time of our graduation we will not be married? Would it be proper to send out wedding invitations before graduation announcements (although the events are reversed)? If so, how far apart should they be spaced? — Kathy

★ ★ ★

Dear Kathy: Your wedding invitations will go out before the graduation announcements, since they should be sent at least three weeks before the date of the wedding.

★ ★ ★

The graduation announcements should be sent soon after the event takes place. You and your fiance may have them ready to send separately in your own names immediately after commencement, or if you prefer, you may wait until after the wedding and send them as you suggest — with your "Mr. and Mrs." card.

Grandparent's Demands Are Unreasonable, Cruel

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My three children and I drove 150 miles for a visit to my hometown recently. (My husband couldn't go. He was working.)

We stayed with my parents, but I contacted my in-laws so we could make plans to see them, too.

I think my in-laws are unreasonable. Let me explain: I married a widower with two small children. We now have a third child, also. Since these in-laws cared for the two children of my husband's former marriage until we wed, they figure my husband and I owe them something. Of course, we do. But how much?

They demanded that I drop off the two older children to visit them, and when I left town I could pick them up. They don't care to see me, or my other child.

I flatly refused, saying we would ALL come to see them, but no, they didn't want us. My mother-in-law even refused to talk to me.

I don't know what I have done except to try to give the children a home with a mother and father instead of grandparents. They seem to resent me for this.

Since they didn't want all my children, I refused to let them have the two older ones. Was I wrong?

I invited them to my home anytime to visit the little ones, but they refused. I'd like your views.

BEWILDERED

DEAR BEWILDERED: If you invited your in-laws to visit the children, you have no reason to feel guilty. Your husband should tell his parents that showing such obvious favoritism to his two older children creates problems that he and his family will have to live with, so to please be more reasonable.

DEAR ABBY: Medical science has sure given folks a lot of excuses for their shortcomings. We don't have any more drunks, tyrants, or ill-tempered and unreasonable people anymore. They are all "sick." same goes for liars. I know a woman who would rather lie than tell the truth, and do you know what? I am told to have "compassion" for her because she's "sick." So now, lying is a disease, too! I would sure appreciate your comments on this.

CICERO

DEAR CICERO: People lie because they feel insecure, inadequate and inferior. It takes a truly healthy-minded courageous person to tell the truth, no matter how "bad" it makes him appear. So since lying is a symptom of a character deficiency, perhaps your friend IS "sick."

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "NICE BUT INSULTED": If a "nice" girl is constantly being "insulted" by propositions, she should check her appearance. There is something wrong with her packaging.

★ ★ ★

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Audrey Hepburn Weds Italian Doctor

MORGES, Switzerland (AP)—Actress Audrey Hepburn and Italian psychiatrist Dr. Andrea Dotti were married today in a civil ceremony at this Geneva resort.

Several hundred spectators thronged the cobbled streets in front of the City Hall to watch the arrival of the bride, star of the movie "My Fair Lady."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Hepburn looked radiant in a high-neck cashmere pink dress with a pink hood to match. The groom was smiling and relaxed as he walked the few steps from her chauffeur-driven limousine to the City Hall.

It was Miss Hepburn's second marriage. The 39-year-old actress' 12-year-marriage to American actor Mel Ferrer ended in divorce last November.

Newsmen were barred from the tiny, dimly lit room where the civil ceremony was performed. It was crowded with 40 guests.

The couple was married by Madame Denise Rattaz, mayor of Morges.

Miss Hepburn's witnesses were Mrs. Yul Bryn er, wife of the American actor, and French actress Capucine.

Case No. H-567

Husband Needs Fantasy

CASE H-567: Lois G., aged 33, is worried.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "it's my husband that troubles me.

DR. CRANE

"He is a wonderful man — cultured, generous and kind.

"But when he craves erotic indulgence, he talks about other women who are loose morally. He tells vulgar stories.

"And he employs coarse language that is not in keeping with his usual cultured personality.

"So why will a man do such a thing, for I have found that other wives make the same complaint about their husbands, too?"

APPETIZERS

This is an age-old problem that wives have confronted since the days of Adam and Eve.

And it merely indicates an attempt by the husband to whet his own ardor to the point where he feels justified in approaching his wife.

For the average husband, after 10 years or more of marriage, may desire marital relations, yet not be adequately aroused.

★ ★ ★

So he conjures up risque mental pictures to serve as erotic appetizers for his sluggish verve.

You wives are really at fault in such cases, for if you became more aggressively cooperative, he wouldn't need so much mental imagery of the pornographic sort.

Lois doesn't realize it, but those lascivious tales her husband tells her in their boudoir are actually good insurance against a divorce.

For they indicate her husband is still trying to remain devoted to her, even though she fails to arouse him sufficiently.

★ ★ ★

So he is trying to supplement her possible 50 per cent seductive allure by adding enough salacious imagery and stories to produce another 50 per cent thereby enabling him to function.

Alas, many of the most educated wives don't understand male psychology very well.

For example, they seem to think that men can turn on their passion at a moment's notice.

That's not true, especially in older husbands whose wives have lost much of their bridal allure.

Those husbands may crave erotic indulgence, yet not be physically able to function till their wife, with her alluring perfume, diaphanous nightie and seductive behavior will giver her mate an emotional throwback to his younger days.

When such a wife remains passive and fat, stodgy and diffident about such matters, her husband then makes a desperate attempt to remain faithful to her by conjuring up salacious imagery to supplement her waning allure.

You wives need to perk up erotically, instead of feeling offended by your mate's lascivious stories at such a vital mement.

For he is really trying to remain faithful to you!

★ ★ ★

If you don't cooperate properly, he may finally kick over the traces in actuality and seek those other more stimulating paramours.

If you don't cooperate properly, he may finally kick over you can offer your children a happy home, with devoted parents; otherwise, your kiddies may find themselves shuttled back and forth between feuding mates.

So send for my medical booklet "How to Prevent Platonic Marriage," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Recent Rites Unite Two Area Couples

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard C. Marchetti of Novi announce the recent marriage of their daughter, Sharon Ann, to Lance Cpl. Neil H. Josephson, USMC. He is the son of Mrs. Judith Josephson of Point Drive, Commerce Township, and the late William Josephson.

Honor attendants for the nuptials in St. William's Catholic Church, Walled Lake, were Mrs. Kenneth Allio and Jack Josephson, brother of the bridegroom.

Bridesmaids were Penny Marchetti and Judy and Tina Josephson with Elisabeth Marchetti as flower girl. William Josephson, Russell Anderson, and Richard Marchetti ushered with Gerald Garcia as ring bearer.

The newlyweds were feted at the Middle Straits Community Center, Orchard Lake.

McTigue-Meade

A reception at the Royal Oak home of the E. Lee Meades followed the recent wedding of their daughter, Teresa A., to Pvt. Donald W. McTigue, USA.

★ ★ ★

Claudia Leskowitz of Berkley was maid of honor with Frank L. Meade as best man for his brother as vows were exchanged in Our Lady of LaSalette Catholic Church, Berkley.

★ ★ ★

Other members of the wedding party were Karen Laible, Patricia Meade and Steven Mitchell.

Following the reception, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. McTigue of Birmingham and his bride departed for a northern Michigan honeymoon.

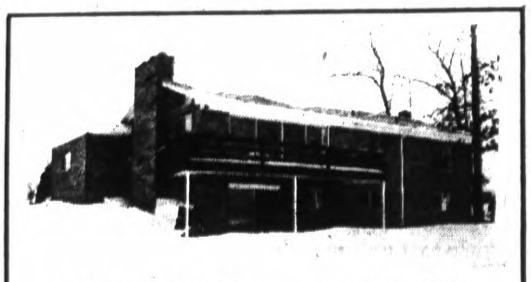

Son Arrives

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Roach Jr. of Okemos announce the recent birth of son, Darren Sheridan.

Darren's grandparents are the senior Mr. and Mrs. William J. Roach of Canterbury Drive.

Huskies Handle Waterford; PCH Hits Mark

THE PONTIAC PRESS SPORTS
SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 1969 B-1

Suspense About Over in I-L After Northern's 84-74 Win

By FLETCHER SPEARS

The suspense is over in the Inter-Lakes League basketball race.

Coach Dick Hall of Pontiac Northern isn't likely to say as much, but it's true nevertheless.

The latest outing for Hall and the Huskies was an 84-74 triumph over a good Waterford Township club last night and a number of little things that make winners were noticeable in this one.

TIGHT DEFENSE

First of all, Northern displayed a tight defense, one that kept the pressure applied, except for a couple of lapses, throughout the game. Secondly, Hall was forced to go to his bench because of personal foul problems and he found the reserves quite ready. And for a third point, the Huskies continued to show poise in trips away from home.

★ ★ ★

From a record standpoint, Northern is now 4-0 in league play, 5-1 over-all and is almost halfway home in its bid for a sixth league basketball title. It was the fifth straight win over Waterford.

BIG ROAD WINS

Among those four league decisions are wins over Farmington and Waterford, the two teams picked to give the Huskies the most trouble in this year's race. Now, PNH has downed both on the road and will now have the advantage of the home floor in the rematches.

★ ★ ★

While Northern was scuttling the Skippers, Walled Lake (1-3) checked in with its first league triumph, a 75-50 nod over Southfield Lathrup (0-4), and Livonia Stevenson (3-1) handed Farmington (1-3) a 57-48 setback.

COMFORTABLE LEAD

PNH built up a 44-33 lead at halftime over the Skippers, and except for a brief flurry by Waterford in the third stanza, the Huskies were in command the rest of the way.

★ ★ ★

SUBS SHARP

Williams made it into the game as a replacement for starter Joe Bradley, while Hall called on Cummings when high-scoring Ernie Crawford ran into foul trouble.

★ ★ ★

Crawford, with a scoring average of 19 a game, had his fourth foul midway in the second frame and was whistled out at 1:13 of the third stanza. The loss of his scoring and rebounding hurt, but Cummings took up the slack.

LEADING SCORERS

Williams finished the evening with 19 points, Clancy had 15, and Moncrief topped all scorers with 20. Cummings, who tipped in a couple of baskets near the end of the third stanza as PNH opened up a 63-54 lead, managed nine markers. Chapman tossed in 11.

★ ★ ★

The Huskies weren't exactly hot in the shooting department. They canned 36 of 100 shots and posted a 53-38 edge in the rebounding department.

WATERFORD HOT

On the other hand, Waterford shot a hot 61 per cent — 29 of 47 shots — a fact that is a tribute to their marksmanship and to the PNH defense.

★ ★ ★

The Huskies harrassed the Skippers throughout the game and forced Waterford into 32 turnovers. Mike Sheldon and Craig Whetstone led the Skipper attack with 19 markers apiece, while Bruce Carlson added 17.

EARLY RUSH

Walled Lake bolted to a 44-30 lead at intermission and coasted past Lathrup.

★ ★ ★

Bob Serra sparked the Vikings with 25 points. Thirteen of the Vikings broke into the scoring column. Bob Brodsky tossed in 22 markers for Lathrup.

Northern plays host to Flint Northwestern in a none-leaguer Tuesday and then entertains Southfield Lathrup next Friday. Waterford visits Stevenson next Friday, while Walled Lake has a date at Farmington the same night.

Ortonville Nips Hartland, 51-50

Ortonville Brandon weathered the last-minute attempts at glory by Hartland's Tim Daltan to overcome the Eagles, 51-50, and tie the visitors at 4-1 for first place in the Genesee Suburban C Conference last night.

Brandon's sophomore guard Ron Wagner sank two free throws with 14 seconds to play to give the Blackhawks a 51-49 lead after Daltan had knotted the score at 49 on a jump shot with 43 seconds left.

However, Daltan wasn't done. After Wagner's clutch free shots, the Hartland sparkplug was fouled with eight seconds to play. He hit the first toss; however, he watched forlornly as his bid to tie the game bounced off to the right and Leland Loutzenhiser hauled down the crucial rebound for Brandon.

FOUR IN A ROW

The Ortonville victory — its fourth in a row — was paced by another sophomore, Mike Wilcox who had 15 points. Loutzenhiser had 12 points and Barney Brown posted 10 for the winners.

The Blackhawks trailed much of the game but tied it at 39, then fell behind again and had to overcome a five-point deficit in the closing minutes of play.

★ ★ ★

Ralph Cone led Hartland (5-3) with 14 points. Daltan finished with 12. Ortonville is 5-2 over-all.

Charity Stripe Hampers Mott 5

Waterford Mott ran afoul of the charity stripe Friday night and dropped a 59-46 verdict to Dearborn Annapolis.

The Corsairs, losing their sixth game against one victory, came within one basket of the visitors, but couldn't match Annapolis' proficiency at the foulline.

The Dearborn quintet sank 15 of 19 charity tosses while Mott made only four-of 15.

The winners led by just two points at the half, and it was 40-38 for Annapolis going into the final period. The Corsairs slipped in front at 42-41, but the visitors then sank eight straight free throws to pull safely ahead.

Part of Mott's problem was their lack of charity tosses in the final half, having only two free throws in the last 16 minutes.

Steve Miller paced the winners with 17 points. Bill Ziem of Mott hit 12. The Corsairs will visit Novi (3-6) next Friday.

Eagles' Owner Wolman Finds Buyer for Club

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The owner of the Philadelphia Eagles has revealed a conditional agreement to sell the National Football League team for more than $15 million, but he declines to disclose the name of the buyer.

Reports are that financially troubled Jerry Wolman is selling the team to Leonard Tose, a trucking executive from Norristown, Pa.

Wolman confirmed Friday that he had signed a conditional sale contract. But when he was reached at his Silver Spring, Md. home, he refused to identify the purchaser.

Skiing Event Planned

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) — Twenty schools from three states have been invited to participate in the Michigan Intercollegiate Ski Championships Feb. 1. Lake Superior State College will host the event at Iroquois Mountain. Top contenders are expected to be Wisconsin, Michigan State and Michigan Tech.

Millington Stands 8-0 After 81-61 Triumph

Undefeated Millington pulled away from visiting Imlay City in the closing half Friday night for its eighth straight triumph, 81-61.

Four players were in double figures for Millington, while Imlay City (1-5) also had four but they were grouped from 10-13 points led by Randy Whitkopf's 13.

Millington led, 38-31, at the intermission.

Dondero Halts Monroe to End Losing Streak

"It's good to win," was the only way a greatly relieved Dave Parks could express himself Friday night after Royal Oak Dondero completely crushed Monroe, 80-36, in a Border Cities League game.

The Dondero victory was its first in six games this season and ended a 31-game losing streak in regular season encounters over the past three years.

Berkley, Hazel Park Rally in Surprising SEMA Foes

Two upsets jolted the Southeastern Michigan Association's basketball race Friday night with Southfield and Hazel Park making it a four-team title chase.

Berkley provided one shock by upsetting Ferndale, the state's sixth-ranked Class A quintet in the weekly Associated Press prep poll, with a come-from-behind dash for a 53-51 verdict.

Royal Oak Kimball, tenth ranked in the poll, also took its first loss when Hazel Park rallied in the fourth quarter for a 61-45 decision.

Kimball and Ferndale thus remain tied for the top spot, standing 3-1 in the SEMA. Hazel Park joins Southfield — a 66-39 winner over Birmingham Seaholm — at 2-2 in third place.

HECTIC SCRAP

THE Vikings-ROK contest was a hectic one. Hazel Park took a 14-4 lead after one period and was still ahead by nine at the halftime.

But Kinmball's Knights shot in front with a 23-10 third quarter spurt. Down 41-36, Hazel Park retaliated with a 24-4 advantage in the final quarter to stun the Knights.

Flashy guards Jim Merchel (25 points) and Al Petracich united for 41 ponts for the victors. Kimball's only double-figure scorer was Dave Jatho at 14. A 23-3 margin in free throws earned the win for Hazel Park.

Ferndale, who had been pulling out the close ones in beating its first seven rivals, ran out of luck against the strong shooting of Berkley's Jack Benning.

The Eagles held a 31-24 lead at the half. Benning, hitting for 16 of his 27 markers in the last half, spearheaded a rally by the Bears that caught Ferndale at 47 on Benning's jump shot midway through the fourth period.

He had eight straight points in the drive. For the night, Benning made 12 of 27 from the floor. Mike Statton was the Eagles' only big scorer, netting 17 points.

★ ★ ★

Raising its over-all mark to 10-3, Southfield trimmed Seaholm as 11 Blue Javs made the scoring column. Brad Allen's 13 points for Southfield led all scorers in the game.

The winners outshot Seaholm, 25-15, from the floor, and 16-9 at the foul stripe. The Maples sagged in the last part of each half.

Coach Pulls Boner, Team Falls, 66-62

FLINT (AP) — Coach Jim Smith of Flint's Carmen High School pulled out his ace scorer and rebounder Dan Pero in the third quarter of the team's 62-66 loss to Swartz Creek Friday night.

He reportedly thought Pero had fouled out, but it was discovered later Pero only had three fouls at the time. Up to that point Pero had scored 15 points and grabbed 12 rebounds.

Chiefs Capture Sixth in Row, Hit 98 Points

Special to the Press

BAY CITY — The streaking Chiefs of Pontiac Central set a new school scoring record Friday night with another of their patented point sprees at Bay City Handy, registering a 98-46 triumph for their sixth straight win.

The PCH junior varsity set the pace with its record 94-74 win over Handy in the opener of the Saginaw Valley Conference clashes.

Unfortunately, the big win still leaves the Chiefs in second place since Flint Central won its fifth straight in the conference as league scoring leader Ken Brady notched 37 points in an easy 87-63 success at Midland.

★ ★ ★

Saginaw Arthur Hill stayed close behind PCH in the scrap for the runner-up berth with an 88-62 romp over Bay City Central, and Flint Northern trimmed Flint Southwestern, 72-61, in the other SVC tilt.

A field goal by Howard Welsh with 18 seconds remaining handed Flint Northwestern a 60-58 overtime victory at Saginaw in a nonleaguer.

QUICK MARGIN

At Bay City, Central ran off to a 16-0 lead before the host Wildcats managed their first point on Dave Kopec's free throw with nearly five minutes elapsed.

Tim Oettmeier managed Handy's first first field goal with 1:24 left in the quarter, and PCH led at the buzzer, 28-6. Monte Herring scored 11 points in the opening session for the winners. Seven players had at least one bucket for the winners during the period.

The lead continued to grow although the pace slowed in the second quarter. Senior Larry Walker came off the Chief's bench to his four baskets in the period.

★ ★ ★

At the half it was 47-20 for PCH. The alert Central defense again limited the Wildcats to one field goal in the next period. Anthony Styles sank 10 points for the Chiefs in the same eight minutes.

Reserves Dave Thomas, a junior, and Myron Brock, a sophomore, took over in the last quarter. Thomas had 10 of his 13 points and Brock 7 of his 10 in the session as both set personal point highs.

GOOD BALANCE

In all, six Chiefs were in double figures with Walker being the only senior in the group. Styles topped the lineup with 16 and Herring, who led the PCH domination of the backboards, finished with 15.

Central's 98 points top the previous school record of 93 set four years ago at Handy and equalled at BC Central last month. The Chiefs had one final desperation shot at the 100 mark but the try bounced off the rim.

Oettmeier tallied 19 for Handy who is 2-6 this season but winless in the league.

★ ★ ★

At Midland, Flint Central opened up a 40-33 intermission lead by scoring the final six points of the first half, then roared out of a comfortable margin by hitting the first seven points in the third quarter.

Brady had 9 points in the Indians' 13-point streak. He also contributed 21 rebounds to winners' performance.

Ski Title Taken by Traverse City

Traverse City St. Francis captured first place in both the boys' and girls' races Friday afternoon during a quadrangular prep ski meet at Mt. Holly.

Rochester's girls and West Bloomfield's boys were the runners-up, with St. Francis edging the Lakers' boys by only 2.2 seconds. Grayling was third among the boys and West Bloomfield was the third coed squad.

All-Stater Mary Sanborn and Tim Ameel paced Traverse City's victories with individual triumphs. Wendy Willis of Rochester was the only girl to keep pace with St. Francis' top three entries.

Rick Stanker and Kim Woodruff from West Bloomfield placed two-three behind Ameel.

No. 1 in Rebounding

DETROIT (AP) — Latest figures released from the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics show Michigan Lutheran College to be leading the nation's small college basketball teams in rebounding. Michigan Lutheran has grabbed 1,168 rebounds for a .644 percentage. The team is fourth in winning margin, beating opponents by an average of 24 points a game.

West Bloomfield's Lakers Keep Rolling

Resurgent Clarkston Turns Back Milford

Powerful West Bloomfield clearly is in charge of the Wayne-Oakland basketball picture, and the unbeaten Lakers apparently have an ally in resurgent Clarkston.

The Wolves last night produced their second strong performance this week against one of West Bloomfield's potential challengers. They knocked Milford into a tie for second place with a 63-54 conquest.

West Bloomfield meanwhile toyed with Northville, 71-58, to stretch its winning streak to eight games and open a two-game lead in the W-O race.

Bloomfield Hills Andover, who will tangle with the arch-rival Lakers next Friday, joined Milford at 4-2 in the W-O standings by trimming Brighton, 75-56.

MISSES CHANCE

Waterford Kettering, jolted by Clarkston Tuesday, fell back further by suffering a 57-56 defeat at Livonia Clarenceville when one of the Captains missed a one-and-one free throw with two seconds to play.

★ ★ ★

Milford led Clarkston, 15-12, but slipped behind when the Wolves spurted into a 33-25 halftime lead. They added to the margin in the third quarter, moving in front by 20 points.

With Rich Porritt running the attack and Chuck Granger and Eric Hood dominating the backboards, the Wolves showed a mark improvement over their efforts during a five-game losing skid. John Craven's 21 points for Clarkston led all sharpshooters.

★ ★ ★

West Bloomfield's easy win was manufactured in the opening quarter when it jumped into a 22-8 lead. The Lakers never let Northville closer than seven points after that.

Steve Westjohn riddled the nets for six field goals and 12 of his 19 points during the early surge. He had 16 points by the time the winners had a 35-15 lead and coach Art Paddy substituted freely.

HAMPERED

Northville stayed within striking range mainly on the efforts of slender marksman Ron Hubbard who led all scorers with 21 points despite playing with a broken finger.

★ ★ ★

The Mustangs hit 26 free throws but couldn't overcome the home team's 30 field goals and rebounding superiority.

Andover's Barons won their fourth straight by outscoring host Brighton in every quarter. Bob Foreman poured in 16 points in the final half to lead all scorers with 24 tallies.

The output was a team high both for an individual and for the quintet. The Barons' largest lead came at 73-51. Dick Souther came off the bench again to hit 16 points for the winners, and Tony May added 14.

Andover and Brighton matched field goal tries but the Barons netted six more baskets, and they also made 21 free throws to equal the losers' attempts at the charity stripe.

★ ★ ★

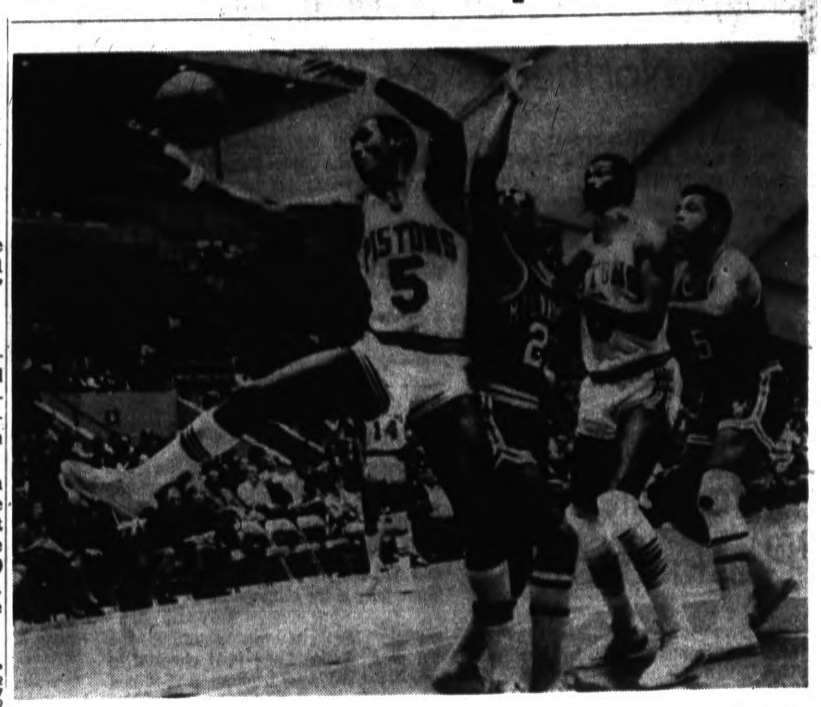

At Livonia, Dave Brandemihl's 25 points featured Clarenceville's cliff-hanger victory against WKHS who tumbled into a fifth-place tie with the Trojans and Clarkston.

The narrow win spoiled a strong Kettering surge in the final period that almost overcame a 48-39 Clarenceville cushion. Dave Powell's 20 markers sparked the Captains. The losers missed 21 of 45 free throws in the game.

Parochial Teams Pull Away

Brady Rescues Titans, 75-74

OLSM Wins, Megge Hits 40; Lakers Lose

Pontiac Catholic, intent on catching Orchard Lake St. Mary's Eaglets in what has become a two-team runaway, had to concentrate on catching Royal Oak St. Mary Friday night.

The surging Titans — upping their school record victory streak to five in a row — rallied for a 25-19 final period and a 75-74 conquest at ROSM when Sam Brady hit two free shots with nine seconds remaining in the game.

OL St. Mary, meanwhile, had no trouble coasting past winless Detroit St. Rita, 89-35, behind the 40-point shooting of All-Stater Tim Megge.

Waterford Our Lady of Lakes couldn't handle two Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows' shooters and came out a 58-48 loser; while St. Francis de Sales dropped Ferndale St. James, 74-66, to tie the Dales for third place — four games behind unbeaten OLSM.

The Eaglets (9-0) maintained their one-game edge on PCHS as Megge had his second-best game of the season, aided by a 16-of-20 night at the charity stripe. His 10 straight free throws broke a 4-4 tie and sent St. Mary into a lead that kept blossoming.

EARLY LEAD

Pontiac Catholic led after one quarter, but its four-point margin vanished and ROSM's Irish charged to a 55-50 lead after three quarters.

Brady (10 points), Herb Larson (9) and Steve Hoffman (5) hit all but one of the Titans' points in the final quarter.

★ ★ ★

Mike Hart's 19 tallies and Terry Doyle's 14 sparked FOLS past Waterford OLL. Ahead 34-29 midway through the third quarter, the host Lakers hit a scoring slump and were outdistanced, 29-14, the rest of the way.

A 7-for-11 effort at the foul line helped the victorious Lancers (3-6) in the last period. WOLL (2-7) had no one in twin figures.

Lahser Whips Novi '5' With Best Effort

Bloomfield Hills Lahser reached its peak performance of the season Friday night with a 75-43 conquest of undermanned Novi, the Knights' fourth straight victory after three opening losses.

Dominiating the backboards and controlling the game with a tough defense, Lahser amassed 34 field goals in compiling its highest point total of the campaign.

The Knights limited Novi to two field goals in each of the second and third quarters. The Wildcats sank to 3-6 for the season.

★ ★ ★

Lahser spurted to a 23-5 lead as Bernie McPheely and Bob Roehig hit six points each, and Tim Graham added five. With Bill West controlling the backboards — he had 19 rebounds in the game — Novi wasn't able to reduce the gap noticeably.

West also passed off for five baskets and matched teammate McPheely's 12 points for the winners. Roehrig finished with 10. Dave Bingham was high for Novi with 11.

PCH Tankers Slip Past Handy, 53-52

A well-earned triumph in the closing 400-yard freestyle relay carried Pontiac Central's swimmers to a 53-52 conquest of Bay City Handy last night in the PCH pool.

Although PCH captain Jeff Bisanz captured two freestyle races and Bruce Markham paced the butterfly and individual medley events as the Chiefs won 7 of the 11 events, Handy led going into the last event.

But Ed Chovanec, Dan Martyn, Rick Dudas and Jerry Breen overcame the Wildcats' three-point edge with a 4.1 seconds victory in their best showing of the season.

Troy Routs Romeo in O-A

Lake Orion, Rochester Remain in First Place

KEEP AWAY — Daryl Iwankovitsch of Oakland University holds the ball away from Ferris State's Jesse Mangham during last night's game. However, Mangham was able to handle the ball enough times to net 43 points.

Troy recovered from two straight setbacks for a stunning 73-48 rout last night that just about eliminated Romeo as a title threat in the Oakland A League cage chase.

The victory boosted the Colts (5-2) into sole possession of third place behind once-beaten Lake Orion and Rochester.

Orion had too much strength for Madison, 62-50; while the Falcons of Rochester crushed visiting Utica, 70-44. Avondale still is seeking its first loop victory after a 64-56 defeat at Clawson.

The win raised Clawson into a tie with Romeo for fourth place at 4-3.

OFFSET MISSES

Troy, after a fast start this season, had encountered foul shooting woes in losing its last two starts. The Colts were a bit better Friday night, making 19 of 37, but their 27-19 edge in field goals provided plenty of cushion against Romeo.

The Bulldogs' offense failed to penetrate the Troy defense unttil the final quarter when it was too late. A 27-8 outburst in the third quarter settled the issue.

★ ★ ★

Gary Sovey scored 16 points while only playing half of the game and Fred Harrison added 13 in Rochester's win. The Falcons built a 40-17 margin in the opening half.

Rochester hit better than 50 per cent from the field in compiling 28 field goals and overcoming its own ineptness at the charity stripe. In all, 12 Falcons made the scoring column.

Gary Pokley tallied 15 points for Utica.

PULLS AWAY

Lake Orion managed a two-point lead in the opening 16 minutes of action, then gradually fattened its cushion in the second half.

Avondale stayed close to Clawson from the floor, but the Trojans registered their third win in a row with a good effort from the free throw line.

★ ★ ★

After dropping behind, 18-12, in the first eight minutes, Avondale inched back to a 49-48 deficit in the final quarter only to see Clawson sink seven charity shots without a miss and protect its triumph.

Four Avondale starters fouled out.

Rockets Jolt Anchor Bay; Armada Toppled by Capac

Anchor Bay's honor seat atop the tight Southern Thumb League hoop battle lasted only one game.

After assuming sole possession of the lead last week, the Tars were upended last night by host New Haven, 71-67, to fall into a tie with the Rockets and Capac.

★ ★ ★

The Capac Chiefs stopped Armada's challengers, 71-63, leave the Tigers one game back of the top trio — each of whom now has lost once.

Dryden continued to slump, dropping an 88-62 decision to Richmond, while Almont was a 76-51 conqueror at Memphis in the other league outings.

At New Haven, the host Rockets struggled to a 36-30 lead in the opening half and made it stand up against Anchor Bay.

Eli Sims notched 27 points, and teammates Roy Lee and Scott Belt each added 14 in the winning effort. Jerry Genso's 22 led Anchor Bay.

TRIO STARS

Dryden put four players in double figures but Richmond's trio of John Hicks (22 markers), Scott Scofield (22) and Tom Hartway (18) managed a 65-54 superiority on the Cardinals' quartet.

The Blue Devils had a 35-21 edge in field goals, amassing a 73-40 cushion against the weak Dryden defense in the first three periods.

Dryden will visit neighboring Almont Tuesday. In a key tilt, Capac will journey to Anchor Bay to resolve at least part of the first place deadlock.

Pistons Continuing Surge

Detroit Halts Milwaukee; Barnes Spurs Celts' Win

By the Associated Press

The sputtering Detroit Pistons are finally sparking and spurting.

And with sparkling team play, the Pistons rose from a 79-78 deficit in the third period and got seven straight points to pull away Friday night in defeating Milwaukee, 123-108, in a National Basketball Association game.

★ ★ ★

It was the Pistons' third win in a row — their longest of the season — as they moved into the second half of the season in sixth place in the NBA's seven-team eastern division, 15½ games out of first place.

To gain a playoff spot, the Pistons need to climb to fourth place, at present held by New York. Eleven games separate them in the standings.

In Friday's game at Detroit's Cobo Arena, Hap Hairston led the Pistons' third-period rally, getting four of the points in the seven-point outburst. Detroit carried a 90-84 lead into the final period. Then Jimmy Walker, Walt Bellamy, Eddie Miles, Hairston and Howard Komives exploded, as Detroit soared to victory.

★ ★ ★

Hairston led Detroit with 27 points and 21 rebounds while Miles hit for 23 points. Flynn Robinson had 23 points for Milwaukee.

★ ★ ★

In another NBA game, Jim "Bad News" Barnes, injured 2½ weeks ago in a freak airport mishap, returned from the injured list and sparked Boston to a 102-99 win over San Francisco.

The brawny, 6-foot-8 veteran came off the bench in the fourth quarter and put in three big baskets as the third place Celtics remained one game behind Philadelphia and 1½ ahead of streaking New York in the Eastern Division race.

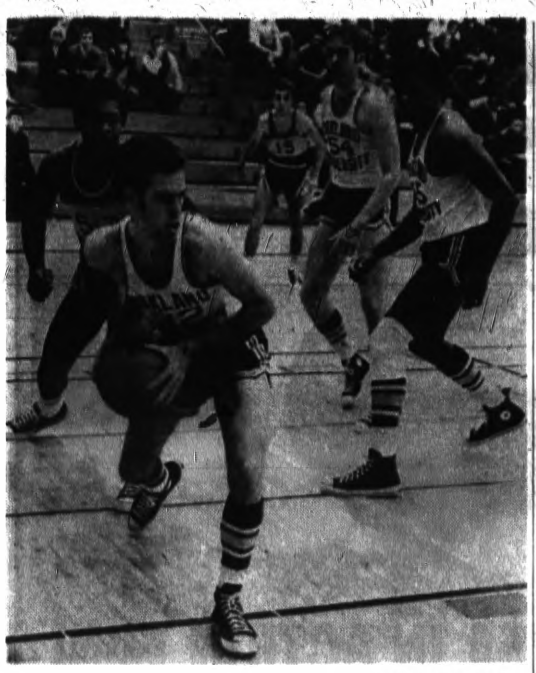

★ ★ ★

Barnes had missed nine games with multiple injuries after being caught in the exhaust of a jet engine and hurled 50 feet against a steel fence.

Walt Frazier's 27 points led the Knickerbockers past Seattle, 114-94, for their 15th triumph in 16 games and Hal Greer hit 27 as the 76ers trimmed San Diego, 129-124, in a Philadelphia doubleheader. Elsewhere, Atlanta topped Phoenix, 112-107, and Los Angeles beat Cincinnati, 128-107.

READY TO MOVE — Gordon Tebo of Oakland University gets ready to head down the court after grabbing a rebound in last night's contest. Teammates John Eley (right) and Tom Allan (54) await his move. Ferris State's Rudy Churchwell, former Pontiac Central player, is behind Tebo. Ferris won, 88-75.

RECORD AHEAD — Oakland University's Steve Yedlin swims toward a new school record in the 1,000-yard freestyle against Buffalo State in the OU pool last night. The former Pontiac Northern tanker was timed in 11:32.6. He also won the 500 freestyle.

Jets, Colts Get Last Picks in Pro Draft

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Jets, out front of the pro football pack since their Super Bowl conquest of Baltimore, will take a back seat to the Colts and 24 other clubs for two days when the National and American leagues conduct their third combined draft.

The Jets, first AFL world championship team, will be the first from their league to pick last in the Jan. 28-29 draft, which appears certain to open with the selection of Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson of Southern California by the AFL Buffalo Bills.

WORST RECORD

The Bills get the No. 1 choice because they had the worst 1968 won-lost record in either league. Except for the Jets and the Colts, who pick next-to-last, all other teams will draft according to their won-lost percentages. Coin flips determined the first-round order for 10 deadlocked teams.

Ferris Shooter Downs OU

Mangham Hits 43 in Victory

Churchwell's Board Work Aids Visitor

By DON VOGEL

Jesse Mangham was the shooter on Flint Southwestern's basketball team for three seasons. Rudy Churchwell's main function at Pontiac Central was rebounding.

The two have continued these talents in college at Ferris State. Mangham poured in 43 points and 6-6 Churchwell came up with two clutch rebounds as the Bulldogs downed Oakland University, 88-75, last night in the Pioneers' gym.

★ ★ ★

OU will try to improve on its 4-6 record tonight at Hillsdale. Mangham is the main reason Ferris has a 7-2 mark.

He is the Bulldogs top scorer and his teammates see to it that the 6-5 junior forward has plenty of opportunities by constantly passing him the ball.

Mangham connected on 16 of 41 shots against OU and converted 11 of 14 free throws. He hit seven of the charity tosses in the final two-and-a-half minutes as the Pioneers repeatedly fouled while trying to gain possession.

This opened up an otherwise close game.

NINEREBOUNDS

Churchwell, a freshman, started and played about half the game. He pulled down nine rebounds and was instrumental in giving Ferris almost complete control of the backboards the last 10 minutes of the game.

He grabbed two straight missed shots by Mangham and went back up for layups both times to put Ferris ahead for good, 64-63, with 9:14 to play.

★ ★ ★

Oakland, led by Tom Allan, had a decided rebounding edge in the first half and led, 31-24, at one point. But the Bulldogs rallied to grab a 39-35 halftime lead.

OU opened a 57-49 advantage in the first seven minutes of the last half, but 6-5 John Eley fouled out and the boards went over to Ferris. The Bulldogs slowly pecked away at the lead as Churchwell and 6-3 Art Tetzlaff rebounded almost at will.

Three School Marks for OU Swimmers

Oakland University swimmers set three school records last night while posting their most impressive victory of the season.

The Pioneers swam past visiting Buffalo State, 67-46, with Steve Yedlin, Greg Allar and Rick Bishop establishing new OU standards.

★ ★ ★

It was the fifth victory against three losses for the Pioneers who are at Albion College today for a dual meet. Buffalo State is 3-2.

Yedlin stroked his way to a 25-yard victory over teammate Tom Davies in the 1,000-yard freestyle. His time of 11:32.6 clipped two seconds off the former school record set a year ago by Mike Campbell.

DOUBLE WINNER

Yedlin also won the 500 freestyle.

Allar's 2:18.2 in the 200 butterfly broke the oldest school record at OU. It was 2:18.4 set in 1965 by Leon Mellon. A new 200 backstroke standard of 2:13..8 was established by Bishop. The former mark was 2:13.2 set last year by Ed Engelhart, the swimmer Bishop beat last night.

★ ★ ★

Campbell won the 100 and 200 freestyles and Dick Reff of BSU captured the breaststroke and individual medley.

The Pioneers next home meet will be Jan. 24 against Loyola of Chicago and Kalamazoo College.

Oxford Falters in Road Game

2 Quintets Sharing League Lead

The Central Suburban basketball league lead continued to be a hot item Friday night but Oxford's Wildcats weren't in on the juggling.

Lutheran East dropped Madison Heights Lamphere from the No. 1 slot with a 67-59 victory, and joined Chippewa Valley atop the race after the Mount Clemens' quintet upended Harper Woods, 60-53.

Both the leaders are now 3-1, while Lamphere is 3-2.

SINKS LOWER

Oxford, however, sank into the basement at 1-4 when Warren Woods sent the visiting Wildcats home with an 80-60 beating. It was only the second league triumph for Warren Woods.

Oxford only trailed, 59-53, early in the final quarter, but the Warriors suddenly erupted and outscored the losers, 21-7, the rest of the way.

★ ★ ★

Both teams made 43 per cent of their field goal tries. However, the winners had a 10-point edge both in baskets and free throws.

Chuck Kohn of the Warriors scored 20 of his 25 points in the final half, while Dave Gemmel's six buckets in the third quarter highlighted his 16-point night for Oxford.

Fouls Hurt Cranes in Loss to C. Day

Winless Cranbrook battled improving Country Day for three periods but the departure of four starters on personal fouls led to a 74-67 defeat for the Cranes last night.

★ ★ ★

The host Yellow Jackets erupted for a 20-12 final period advantage to hand the Cranbrook squad its sixth loss of the campaign. Country Day now has won three straight for a 5-2 log.

★ ★ ★

Senior Jack Zewmer and cool sophomore Mike Page each tallied 22 points for Country Day, and Mitch Hanson chipped in with 17.

Oneal Sanders' 16 and Scott Babcox's 14 paced Cranbrook. The Cranes actually made one more field goal than Country Day, but the winners hit 16 of 32 charity tosses while Cranbrook was held to 13 attempts and 6 points.

Miller Barber Forges Ahead in Kaiser Open

NAPA, Calif. (AP)—Miller Barber, a plump bespectacled pro from Sherman, Tex., recovered from a bogey on the first hole to post a five-under-par 67 Friday and take a one-stroke second round lead at the $135,000 Kaiser International Open Golf Tournament.

Barber's 36-hole total at the Silverado Country Club was 135, nine strokes under par, one stroke ahead of Bruce Devlin of Australia. Two strokes behind the leader was the ever-dangerous Arnold Palmer.

Devlin shot a five-under-par 67 on the shorter but tougher South Course, a par 72 layout stretching 6,602 yards.

Barber and Palmer played the 6,849-yard North Course, which also is par 72. Arnie shot a 68 for his 137 total.

Tied in fourth place were Bob Lunn, the first-round leader from Sacramento, Calif., who shot 65 Thursday but skied to 73 Friday, and Charles Coody, who had a 68 as both had 138 at the midway point.

Bunched at 139 was a flock including Lee Trevino, Gene Littler, and Jacky Cupit.

Debut Is Tough for OCC Mentor

Dick Osgood, ex-Michigan States winner who just took over the swimming post at Oakland Community College, had a tough assignment for his debut.

Competing in a triangular at Grand Rapids, the host Junior College team outclassed St. Clair and OCC with 108 points. St. Clair JC had 37 and Oakland 13.

Top time was posted by Chuck Seidelman in the 200 ind. medley with 2:17.1. Best time for the local Community College squad was Dave Pyke's third place time of 2:37.2 in the 200 backstroke.

Peggy Wilson 4 Shots Ahead

MIAMI (AP)—Peggy Wilson fired a sizzling five-under par 67 Friday to forge a four-stroke lead in the first round of the richest women's golf tournament ever, the $35,000 Burdine's LPGA Invitational.

Cynthia Hill, a University of Miami junior who is one of 1 amateurs battling 35 pros, managed a hole in one, but ended the day in a four-way tie for second.

Miss Wilson, from Boca Raton, Fla., carded a 35-32 despite strong winds on the 6,434 yard, par 36-36 Country Club of Miami course.

2 Continue Tie in Thumb Loop

North Branch kept pace with unbeaten Greater Thumb B leader Millington last night by handing Harbor Beach a 78-62 lacing.

Dave Graham registered 31 points for the winners. Jerry Sauder added 17, Gary Thompson contributed 12 and Bob Mayberry 10 for North Branch who is 6-0 in the league. John White's 15 sparked Harbor Beach who has a makeup game tonight with Imlay City.

Player Strike Threat Increases

Vote Rejects Owners Offer

Statement Is Signed by Long List

NEW YORK (AP) — The threat of a strike by major league baseball players increased again Friday when the Players Association revealed that the owners' offer to increase their pension fund by a million dollars had been overwhelmingly rejected.

According to a release from the Players Association, the vote by the players on whether to accept or reject the offer made by the owners on Dec. 17 was described tersely in the following manner:

"Accept the owners offer—6

"Reject the owners offer—461."

LIST OF NAMES

At the end of the statement was a list of names, reading like a who's who of baseball, of players who were allowing their names to be used in support of the policy of not signing 1969 contracts until a satisfactory benefit plan is worked out.

The list included Hank Aaron, Richie Allen, Lou Brock, Orlando Cepeda, Robert Clemente, Bob Gibson, Frank Howard, Al Kaline, Harmon Killebrew, Mickey Lolich, Mickey Mantle, Juan Marichal, Willie Mays, Tony Oliva, Vada Pinson, Brooks Robinson, Frank Robinson, Pete Rose, Ron Santo, Maury Wills and Carl Yastrzemski.

* * *

In elaborating on the statement, Marvin Miller, executive director of the Players Association, said that meetings with representatives of the owners will continue but he also pointed out that "time is getting narrower."

The specter of a strike looms when baseball's spring camps begin opening late next month, at which time it is presumed unsigned players would not report to camp if an agreement had not been reached.

* * *

At the center of the dispute is the amount of money to be contributed to the players' pension fund. The owners have offered a million dollar increase over the previous $4.1 million contributed but that has now been rejected.

Groves Falls in Overtime

Raiders Eying Northwest Title

North Farmington continued its steady push toward the Northwest Suburban AA hoop crown with a 65-56 breeze past preseason favorite Livonia Franklin last night.

Birmingham Groves tried to give the Falcons a helping hand but fell in overtime at Oak Park, 80-78, when Paul Kutnick hit the vital points for the Redskins.

Westland John Glenn trimmed Detroit Thurston, 91-68, in the other encounter in the circuit.

North Farmington built a 50-38 lead in the first three periods and withstood some late pressure by Franklin who was sparked by Charlie Wiggins' 14 points in the last half for a game-high 20.

* * *

At Oak Park, Kutnick's jump shot tied the game in regulation at 73 with 33 seconds to play. The Oak Parker sent the Redskins ahead for good in the extra session with two charity tosses at the 32-second mark, 79-77.

Mark Shada sank a foul shot for Groves, then Larry Sherman closed the scoring with a free throw as eight seconds showed on the clock. Groves' bid to tie the game missed the mark.

* * *

Sherman led the winners with 27 points; Kutnick had 22. Dave Logan topped the Falcons with 21. Groves will entertain North Farmington's pacesetters next week.

Northern Matmen Down Waterford's Skippers

The Huskies of Pontiac Northern ran their season record to 5-1 while at the same time giving coach Bill Willson his 98th triumph last night in a 31-15 decision over Waterford.

Northern won nine of 12 events, with Tom Mash (95) scoring the team's lone pin. Three Waterford grapplers posted pins — Eric Alsup (145), Paul Shallman (154) and Jim Main (175).

In other bouts, Walled Lake downed Southfield Lathrup, 47-3, Oak Park handed Birmingham Groves a 27-20 setback and Birmingham Seaholm gained a 24-19 verdict over Southfield.

Walled Lake's Vikings hiked their over-all record to 6-2 and they headed for Fenton this morning where they'll play the role of defending champion in that school's invitational.

Seaholm's 95-pounder Dave Long remained unbeaten in dual meets as the Maples ran their record to 3-4.

SCRAMBLER

A NEW IDEA IN ACTION FUN!

A new concept in mobility. Six wheels of go-anywhere, do-anything excitement. A "SCRAMBLER" is for anywhere that roads aren't. It makes its own. Through sand, swamp, snow or whathave you. "SCRAMBLER" is amphibious. It'll ford a stream. Cross a pond. Get you to a duck blind. You can Scramble up 45 degree grades. If there's snow on the ground, "SCRAMBLER'S" a snowmobile. If there's a swamp to romp through, it's a swamp buggy. If there's ground around, it's a go-kart. But mostly a "SCRAMBLER" is just plain fun. For sportsmen, hunters and families. Reading about a "SCRAMBLER", even seeing one in action doesn't communicate the thrill of Scrambling. You have to try it yourself.

Mood Is Relaxed in Hungary 12 Years After Soviet Invasion

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Chunks of ice float slowly down the Danube.

Slush-splattered cars make their way across the ornate iron bridges that span the river.

A young couple sips an espresso in a cafe on the Grand Boulevard. The atmosphere is relaxed and it seems that 12 years after Soviet tanks crushed a revolution, Budapest and its people are at peace.

There is none of the excitement or fervor of preinvasion Prague. Neither is there the regimented drabness of east Berlin.

FAVORABLE COMPARISON

The lights are only slightly dimmer than in Vienna and the goods in the stores compare favorably with those in the Austrian capital's neighborhood stores.

To the casual visitor, the city looks well off by central European standards. The cars—still a luxury—are mostly new, and many are of Western manufacture. People are well-dressed, and elegance has official blessings.

This is the country of the 1956 revolution, but it is also the country where Nikita Khrushchev first enunciated the concept of goulash communism, the idea that a better standard of living is as desirable as producing heavy machinery.

The Hungarian Communist leadership under party chief Janos Kadar is carrying out an economic reform. Its aims—to make Hungarian goods more competitive in world markets and to make prices correspond to production costs—resemble those planned in Czechoslovakia before the Soviet-led invasion last August.

Unlike those in Czechoslovakia, the reforms are being carried out quietly, without fanfare. Hungarian leaders are careful to enunciate their loyalty to Moscow-style communism with each step.

Hungarians, with the Poles, traditionally regarded as the most hot-blooded people in the East European Communist world, speak of the Czechoslovak invasion with a sophisticated I-told-you-so detachment.

The feeling among Hungarian officials is that Czechoslovakia was headed out of the Communist camp before the invasion because its Communist party had lost control of developments.

"The military intervention was necessary. Like all solutions it was not perfect, but it will work out in the end," said one official.

HIGH INTEREST

Hungarian troops participated in the invasion, and interest in it runs high.

A book on the subject by a senior correspondent of the official Hungarian news agency MTI has gone into its third printing with more than 50,000 copies sold. This makes it a best seller in the country of 10 million

* * *

Published by the Communist party's publishing house, the book is a chronology of events in Czechoslovakia, drawn mostly from Hungarian, Czechoslovak and Western sources.

Its conclusions echo the party line that the military invasion saved Czechoslovakia from "counterrevolution," but it gives full details of the pertinent Czechoslovak documents, including the controversial "manifesto of 2,000 words," labeled as counterrevolutionary by orthodox Communist parties.

* * *

"While the conclusions are supplied by the author, an intelligent reader can draw his own from the facts in the book," said one man who read it. "That is how things are done in Hungary."

River Is Stopped to Permit Repairs

JACKSON (AP) — Muskegon River water was held up for six hours Friday in ponds at Consumers Power Co. facilities at Croton and Hardy dams to permit the city of Newaygo to repair two water lines across the river.

Both lakes had been lowered several feet Thursday to permit impoundment of the river water until the repairs, seven miles southwest, were completed.

Lose 10 Lbs. in 10 Days on New Grapefruit Diet

NEW YORK (Special) — This Is the revolutionary new grapefruit diet that everyone is suddenly talking about. Literally thousands upon thousands of copies have been passed from hand to hand in factories, plants and offices throughout the U.S. and Canada. Word of its success has spread like wildfire, because this is the one diet that really seems to work for most overweight people. A well known Toronto columnist recently praised it to the skies. He reported losing 20 pounds quickly and easily, long after he despaired of ever getting down to his wartime weight of 165 pounds. All this without cutting out the occasional beer or rye. If it is followed exactly the average overweight person should lose 10 pounds in 10 days. There will be no weight loss in the first four days. But you will suddenly drop 5 pounds on the 5th day. Thereafter you will lose one pound a day until the 10th day. Then you will lose 1½ pounds every two days until you get down to your proper weight. Best of all, there should be no hunger pangs. Now revised and enlarged, this new diet plan lets you stuff yourself with foods that were formerly "forbidden." Such as big steaks trimmed with fat, Southern fried chicken, rich gravies, mayonnaise, lobsters swimming in butter, bacon, fats, sausages and scrambled eggs. You can eat until you are full, until you cannot possibly eat any more. And still you should lose 10 pounds in the first ten days, plus 1½ pounds every two days thereafter until your weight is down to normal. The secret behind this new "quick weight loss" is not generally known. Fat, it has been theorized, does not form fat. Perhaps fat fights fat, And the grapefruit juice in this new diet might act as a catalyst (the "trigger") to start the fat burning process. You stuff yourself on the permitted foods listed in the diet plan, and still lose unsightly fat and excess body fluids. When the fat and bloat are gone you will cease to lose weight, and your weight will remain controlled. A copy of this new and startlingly successful diet plan can be obtained by sending $2 to The Cambrian Press, Dept. 385, Second Floor, 71 York Street, Toronto 1, Canada.

Unconditional money-back guarantee. If after trying the diet plan you have not lost 7 pounds in the first 7 days, another 6 pounds in the next 7 days, and 1½ pounds every two days thereafter, simply return the diet plan and your $2 will be refunded promptly, and without argument. Tear out this message as a reminder. Decide now to regain the trim attractive figure of your youth, while still enjoying hearty breakfasts, lunches and dinners. Order now before others snap up the limited supply.

Powell Praises White Radicals

EAST LANSING (AP)—Young whites should unite behind Sen. Edward Kennedy and young Negroes behind Julian Bond and "if necessary" form a third political party, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell said Friday.

"I'm proud of you white militants who are joining hands with the black militants," the controversial Harlem Democrat told a largely white crowd of 4,000 Michigan State University students.

"If we could get a meeting of the minds between Ted Kennedy and Julian Bond (a young Negro Georgia legislator) this year, we could, if necessary, build a new national party to save this republic," Powell said.

* * *

"We should stand together, walk together, picket together and vote together—and we can win together," he saidl "But that's the only way."

He called on young whites to "throw aside the ancient shiboleths that were taught to you by your parents and your priests and your preachers and politicians."

Powell, who was evicted from Congress in 1967 for alleged misuse of funds, then reseated this year with a fine and loss of seniority, said he would be willing to bolt the Democratic party to join such a third-party effort.

* * *

"We are not aggressors, we are defenders," Powell said. "We don't believe in total nonviolence. We are not going to stand idly by and see our friends—or even strangers, even white strangers—be beaten and kicked and not do something to help the cause."

Yippies Expect 10,000 for In-hog-uration Protest

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders of the so-called counterinaugural say they expect up to 10,000 protesters to join in peacefully mocking Richard M. Nixon's installation.

The Yippie contingent plans to "in-hog-urate" a pig as President of the United States.

A reviewing stand to be surrounded by barbed wire and fixed bayonets is to be set up along the route of the protesters' counterinaugural parade Sunday.

Nixon has been invited to sit in it, Rennie Davis, a coordinator for the three days of counterinaugural activities, said Friday.

TWIST ON PRICES

At the demonstrators' counterinaugural ball Sunday night the best seats will cost $2, the worst $35.

Predictions of demonstrator turnouts have consistently been far higher than actual attendance in the past. The leaders predicting 10,000 persons for the counter inaugural agree the weather and midterm college exams will keep many protesters away.

* * *

Davis, national coordinator of the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, has repeatedly pledged leaders' intent that the counterinaugural will be peaceful.

He and other leaders say their parade was scheduled for Sunday to avoid physical conflict with the official Inaugural Parade Monday.

But authorities in Washington say violence is possible from right-wing groups embittered by the nature of the demonstration.

And there were reports that some local chapters of the Students for a Democratic Society—which has voted to boycott the counterinaugural — may be on hand.

Workshops today on campus organizations and other subjects were the first scheduled events of the counterinaugural.

The counterinaugural parade in reverse—from the White House to the Capitol along the same route the official parade will take in the other direction—is to follow a 1 p. m. rally Sunday.

* * *

Kathleen Cleaver, wife of fugitive Black Panther leader Eldridge Cleaver, is to be principal speaker at the rally.

The counterinaugural ball will be in a massive tent near the outdoor Sylvan Theater where folk singer Joan Baez gave a free concert two years ago after the Daughters of the American Revolution refused to let her use their Constitution Hall.

Entertainers announced to appear at the ball include folk singers Judy Collins and Phil Ochs and the Children of God rock group. The Yippie's "in-hog-uration" is also planned at the ball.

The demonstrators, wearing "Peace" pennants, plan to take up four positions along the official inaugural parade route Monday, shouting slogans and singing songs.

7 Police Air Bribery Case Claim Today

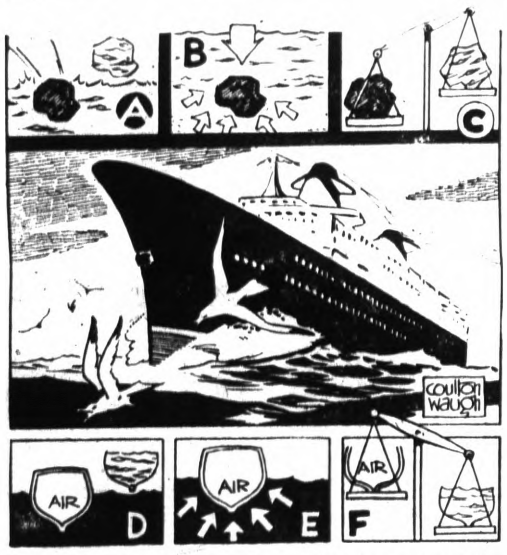

DETROIT (AP) — Seven suspended Detroit policemen get their chance today to air their claim that they were forced a judge to testify against their will during a bribery investigation in 1966.

The seven men were charged with perjury by Judge Edward S. Piggins, a former one-man grand jury, after they denied they had accepted gifts or bribes from bar owners.

In the course of their trials, the men claimed they had been told by Piggins they could be suspended from their jobs if they refused to answer his questions.

Last Dec. 31, the Michigan Court of Appeals ordered today' hearing on the allegations made by the officers. The Appeals Court ruled that if it is shown the policemen were threatened with loss of their jobs before they testified, their testimony cannot be held against them.

Junior Editors Quiz on SHIPS

QUESTION: How can a heavy ship stay on top of the water?

* * *

ANSWER: Long ago, the Greek mathematician Archimedes was also thrilled by this question, and provided a simple and thrilling answer. Archimedes said every object put in water displaces or pushes aside an amount of water equal to its own size or bulk.

In (A) a rock falls into water; the water displaced is shown above the surface. In (B), the small arrows at bottom represent a force that is pushing up on the rock.

This force, called buoyancy, is exactly equal to the weight of the volume of water the rock has displaced. But there is another force, pulling the rock down. This is the rock's own weight, represented by the larger arrow. Which of these forces will win out?

If we could weight the rock with the water it has displaced as in (C), we would find the rock is heavier. Therefore, the rock's weight overcomes its buoyancy force; so it sinks.

But a ship is not solid rock. It is a hollow shell. As shown at bottom, in (F), its weight is less than the water it is displacing in (D). Thus, the buoyancy force wins out over gravity, (E), and holds the ship on the surface.

(You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

But Much Public Disdain

LBJ Leaves Towering Record

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson leaves the White House with a towering record of public service and accomplishment. Millions of his fellow countrymen, instead of being grateful and admiring, are glad to see him go.

Why this public disdain which, at times, has reached new depths of vilification? The simple answers are a war which Johnson inherited, then escalated, plus the fact that he succeeded the assassinated John F. Kennedy.

★ ★ ★

There are other answers, too, answers as complicated as Johnson himself. His presidency coincided with the outburst of long pent-up feelings of protest in young people all over the world and with the determination of American blacks to break out of the ghetto and seize a larger share of the life enjoyed by whites.

In spite of any and all of the answers, Johnson heads back to his Texas ranch home with a distinct, characteristic feeling that if there were to be any stars in his crown, to borrow from an old hymn, they would have to be put there by future historians.

'NO FAIR SHAKE'

He does not feel he had received a fair shake or proper credit from most recorders of contemporary history, particularly editorial writers, cartoonists, columnists and commentators.

Most men in public life would derive enormous satisfaction simply from having toiled and clawed up jagged political and professional mountains, as Johnson did, from the lowly role of a country schoolteacher in Texas to the presidency and undisputed world leadership that went with it.

★ ★ ★

The outgoing President, however, is leaving the nation's capital in a typically mixed mood of pride, nostalgia and downright bitterness. For all his years in public service, Lyndon Baines Johnson does not appear to have developed ability to separate unreasoned scorn and ridicule from justified or well-intended criticism.

ELECTION NOTICE

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF SYLVAN LAKE, OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that at a special election to be held at the City Hall in said City of Sylvan Lake, Oakland County, Michigan, on Tuesday, the 25th day of February, 1969, the following question will be submitted to you:

Do you favor the confirming of a franchise to THE DETROIT EDISON COMPANY, granting permission to erect, construct, lay, operate and maintain, within the CITY OF SYLVAN LAKE, all needful and proper poles, towers, mains, wires, pipes, conduits, and other apparatus requisite for the transmission, transforming and distribution of electricity for public and private use, subject, however, to all conditions and restrictions of said franchise, as passed at a session of the City Council of said City, held on Wednesday, the 8th day of January, 1969.

A copy of said franchise is on file with the City Clerk, and it is open to the inspection of the electors of said City.

At said election the form of ballot will be as follows:

Confirming grant of franchise to THE DETROIT EDISON COMPANY, for the purpose of the erection, construction and maintenance of towers, poles, mains, wires, pipes, conduits, apparatus, etc., requisite for the transmission, transforming and distribution of electricity for public and private use

YES ( )

NO ( )

The polls of said special election will be opened at 7 o'clock a.m. and will remain open until 8 o'clock p.m. of said day of election.

REGISTRATION NOTICE

I, the undersigned Clerk, will be at my office at the City Hall on Friday, the 24th day of January, 1969, from 8:00 o'clock in the forenoon until 8:00 o'clock in the evening, for the purpose of completing the registration of electors of said City.

I will be at my office on Saturday, the 18th day of January, 1969, from 8:00 o'clock in the forenoon until 5:00 o'clock in the evening, for the registration of electors of said City.
Dated this 8th day of January, 1969.

ROSALIND WILDGEN,
City Clerk

I hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true copy of resolutions adopted by the City Council of the CITY OF SYLVAN LAKE, Oakland County, Michigan, at a regular meeting held on Wednesday, the 8th day of January, 1969.

Rich Author of 'The Fiddler' Seen Toting a Guitar Case

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — A small, vital, middle-aged man with bushy hair that flared out at the sides and at the back was rushing along W. 57th St. a cold day recently carrying a guitar case.

"Do you know who that is?" I said to a girl trotting along in the cold. "That's Joe Stein. . ."

"Joe Stein?"

"The millionaire writer who wrote 'Fiddler on the Roof' and 'Zorba' and 'Plain and Fancy' and recently produced 'We Bombed in New Haven'."

WILSON

Joe doesn't seek fame. He has a little workshop hideaway in the mid-50s. The guitar case that suggested he might be a musician really contained a guitar he'd bought for one of his 3 sons. Joe has been around Broadway since 1945 when he and Alan Jay Lerner composed the funnies for Hildegarde in NBC's "The Raleigh Room" on radio. Until then he had been a psychiatrist case worker after getting out of Columbia University.

★ ★ ★

"Fiddler" really brought the modest little Joe to the world's attention.

"I've found that the most dangerous thing to do in writing is to figure what's commercial," Joe said the other day in Gallagher's. "'Fiddler' was the least commercial show imaginable. What was it about? A lot of old Jews who were poor and oppressed! Who'd buy that?

Joe has since attended "Fiddler" openings in eight countries including Japan where the Japanese exclaimed, "Do they really understand this in America?"

"The Japanese said 'This is very Japanese.' I told them, 'I guess this is very everybody.'"

★ ★ ★

Joe and his wife don't care about the Celebrity Whirl and while he may be seen around the Beverly Hills Hotel pool (while doing the movie script for "Fiddler"), he says, "I am not a coast fellow."

The People Who Fly Their Own Airplanes Propose

14 WAYS TO HELP REDUCE AIR TRAFFIC CONGESTION

Aviation has taken man from Kitty Hawk to the Moon in a single lifetime. With such a record of achievement, it is difficult for those of us who use airplanes in the same way you use your private automobile to understand why some government officials and most of the scheduled airlines are approaching today's air traffic problems with only a negative view.

Restrict. Deny. Regulate. These are terms suggested for reducing delays encountered by all who travel by air.

The Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association rejects this negative approach. The airports and airways system which are provided in the public interest by public taxation can and should be used by all the public.

As you share the highways, we share the skyways with the buses and trucks of the air. Like ground transportation, there are many times more private airplanes than airliners. The privately operated airplanes carry as many or more people than do the air buses.

Unlike ground travel, however, we who use our own airplanes pay substantially more taxes for the airports and airways than do the airlines. In fact, this year general aviation —as we are called—will pay about $9,000 a day more in Federal fuel tax than we did five years ago. The airlines, because jet fuel is not taxed, will pay about $24,000 a day LESS than was paid five years ago. The excise tax on tickets which passengers pay is lumped by Treasury Department reports along with other similar taxes collected by the vendors of cigarettes and liquor.

Despite these facts, we in general aviation believe it is in the public interest for the companies which operate airlines for a profit to continue to serve the public through facilities provided by the tax money which we all pay.

We do not believe air commerce — and the economic and social benefits it brings to all people of the nation — can serve the people of this country if any part of it is torn down or encumbered in its growth.

This is why we have made positive suggestions to the Federal Aviation Administration to help alleviate the air traffic delays while long-range development programs are undertaken.

These proposals all are consistent with safety. But safety is not the issue in the delays. Inconvenience and economic loss are products of delay. General aviation, the airlines and the Federal Aviation Administration all have safety as a primary interest.

Whether you travel on the airlines, use your own airplane, or live near an airport, you should know the positive proposals which we have made to the Federal Aviation Administration.

1. Increase capacity of runways by greater use of intersection takeoffs. Many airplanes need only a fraction of the runway length built for large airliners. Takeoffs from runway and taxiway intersections clear the airport area faster.

2. Reduce pressure on the air traffic control system by prohibiting flight under Instrument Flight Rules below 10,000 feet except when visibility conditions require it. There are flight rules now by which most general aviation flies when visibility is good. There is also a speed limit below 10,000 feet. Greater volumes of traffic can be accommodated in safety under these existing rules.

3. Establish climb and descent corridors at major airports. Certain airspace approaching and departing major airports should be set aside for high-speed aircraft.

4. Reduce schedule bunching by the airlines. The airlines serve 525 airports in the 48 contiguous states with about 1600 airplanes. This is one airport for every three airplanes. The line-ups and delays you see are evidence that the schedules are bunched at peak times resulting both in congestion at a few cities and poor service to many others. Shift International and connecting flights to less congested airports. Many international flights should be moved from the few busy airports to less congested airports. Similarly, airlines should rearrange flights to use less busy airports more for connecting flights where passengers are merely changing from one airplane to another.

5. Revaluate all noise abatement procedures. At many airports, some runways cannot be used because of procedures to reduce noise levels. These should be studied and changed where practical. General aviation — the quiet side of flying — can use all runways.

6. Increase runway capacity through dual operations by small aircraft. The width and length of runways at major airports make it safe for two small aircraft to use the runway simultaneously.

7. Close traffic control towers during night hours to make more controllers available during peak periods. Only 313 airports in the U.S. have FAA traffic control towers. Thus, 97% of the airports operate under established rules without any local radio control. By eliminating the late night shift of controllers at most airports, a substantial increase in the number of controllers could be immediately available for busy terminals at peak hours.

8. Reduce controller workload by eliminating certain unnecessary communications. Some radio transmissions now required can be eliminated entirely — others can be replaced — by signs at runway exits.

9. Special VFR should be reinstated. Until several weeks ago, many aircraft conducted flights under Special Visual Flight Rules when visibility did not permit regular visual flight but did not require full instrument operation. This was discontinued by FAA order at 33 airports throwing an unnecessary load on the IFR air traffic control system. It should be reinstated.

10. Speedup runway availability by establishing more runway exits. Many long runways have exits spaced so far apart that aircraft must remain on the runway longer than necessary until reaching a place to turn off. More exits would clear the runways faster.

11. Use available taxiways for runways. The size of many taxiways is sufficient for takeoff and landing of light aircraft.

12. Increase airport capacity by using more runways. Some existing runways are not now being used to capacity because of unrealistic crosswind restrictions, noise abatement or traffic flow patterns. These should be studied and present restrictions amended or removed where and when they can be done with safety.

13. Revise operations manuals of airlines to remove impractical limitations on pilots. The FAA should examine each manual with a view to eliminating or modifying all such limitations that have a bearing on the flow of traffic and which do not have substantial factual justification as being necessary for safety.

14. Return more control to local controllers. The manuals telling controllers how to handle traffic should be revised. Controllers should once again be permitted to exercise their judgements and skills to vector aircraft of differing performance toward runways on the basis of each airplane's characteristics and the traffic situation at that moment.

Facts You Should Know About Air Transportaion

General Aviation is people operating their own airplanes for much the same reasons as you operate an automobile.

• • •

General Aviation is 98% of all civil airplanes, flown by 97% of the pilots, covering 79% of the flight hours, traveling 71% of the airplane miles, carrying 50% of the air travelers to 100% of the nation's airports.

All aircraft operate by the same Federal Air Regulations and all pilots are trained and licensed to the standards set by the Federal Aviation Administration.

• • •

General aviation accounts for 74% of all airplane movements at 313 airports with traffic control towers, virtually all movements at all other airports, yet is only about 15% of the movements at an airport like Kennedy in New York. This demonstrates both the importance of general aviation to total air transportation and the small effect this movement is having on the few airports where traffic delays are occuring.

Prayer for Unity Week Begins

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity in Pontiac begins tomorrow with the sixth annual Ecumenical Bible Service sponsored by the Pontiac Area Council of Churches and Area Council of Church and the Roman Catholic churches of the community.

The program will be held at 7:30 p.m. in First Presbyterian Church, Huron at Wayne.

★ ★ ★

The service has become a model for other services now being held throughout Michigan, the Rev. Jack H. C. Clark, executive director of the council, said.

Archbishop John F. Dearden of the Detroit Catholic Archdiocese, heralded the Pontiac service as "the way to do it" in observing the annual Christian Unity event.

Chairmen of the service are the Rev. Edmond I. Watkins, pastor of Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Charles Rooney, associate pastor of St. Michael Catholic Church.

LAYMAN SPEAKS

Departing from the tradition of having three speakers, each from a different denomination, the featured speaker this year will be a well known Negro Catholic layman, William Hawkins, director of Community and Social Development for the Metropolitan Detroit Citizens' Development Authority.

Lyndon Salathiel, organist at First Presbyterian, will play "Prelude and Fugue in E "Rigaulon" by Campau.

The Pontiac Choir Union will be joined by the Orchard Lake Seminary Choir in choral numbers.

★ ★ ★

Others participating in the service include the Rev. Amos Johnson, New Nethel Baptist Church; the Rev. Ronald Tallman, associate pastor of Central United Methodist Church; Father Rooney; the Rev. Mr. Watkins; the Rev. Mario Giulio, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church; the Rev. Tom Wilson, associate pastor of All Saints Episcopal Church; and the Rev. Costas J. Kouklis, pastor of St. George Greek Orthodox Church.

Church Women United of Pontiac and the board of deacons of First Presbyterian Church will serve as hosts for the coffee hour which follows.

All interested individuals are welcome to attend.

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP

The "Week of Prayer for Christian Unity" will be observed in Our Lady of the Lakes Catholic Church, 5481 Dixie Highway at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

The evening will emphasize the unity Christians have in Christ.

The Rev. Roy Lambert of Lakeland United Presbyterian Church will lead hymn singing. The Rev. Crea M. Clark of the Church of the Atonement will deliver the meditation.

Other ministers participating include the Rev. John Cooperrider, Ascension Lutheran Church; the Rev. Timothy Hickey, Trinity United Methodist; and the Rev. Ronald Rein, Mt. Hope Lutheran.

Others are the Rev. Gerald Switzer, Christ of the Lakes Lutheran; the Rev. Ronald Tallman, associated pastor of Central United Methodist; and the Rev. Lawrence Kaiser, assistant pastor at Our Lady of the Lakes Church.

Discussion with an hour of fellowship and refreshments will follow.

PLAN PRAYER SERVICE — The Rev. Edmond I. Watkins, pastor of Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church (from left) the Rev. Charles Rooney, associate pastor of St. Michael's Catholic Church and the Rev. Galen E. Hershey of First Presbyterian Church talk over plans for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity service in First Presbyterian Church tomorrow. The time is 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Mr. Watkins is president of the Pontiac Area Council of Churches, cosponsor with Roman Catholic churches of the community.

IN VIETNAM — During service on the Landing Zone at Vandergrift Combat Base, South Vietnam, Chaplain Wallace B. Turner (right) baptises Corp. Antony Cleaton of Los Angeles, Calif. Chaplain Turner, a member of Grace Lutheran Church and former Pontiac resident, makes his home with his family in El Toro, Calif.

Turner Conducts Baptism

When Corp. Antony Cleaton of South Los Angeles, Calif. was baptised in Vietnam during a worship service of Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, he became a member of Christ Lutheran Church Military in Washington, D.C. until his return to the States.

He will receive a personal letter welcoming him to membership. Tracts and spiritual publications will also be mailed him.

★ ★ ★

Where families are stationed at military bases abroad, Sunday School materials are sent to children, from cradle roll to confirmation class.

★ ★ ★

A quarterly letter is sent to parents, birthday cards and special magazines to children.

Chaplain Wallace B. Turner of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod baptised Corp. Cleaton.

Turner grew up in Pontiac and served Grace Lutheran Church under Pastor Richard C. Stuckmeyer.

★ ★ ★

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner of 2930 Old Orchard, Waterford Township.

★ ★ ★

Some 1,400 persons are enrolled in Christ Church Military, Chaplain Turner reported.

The Rev. Edgar J. Mundinger is pastor of the overseas membership.

Guest Speaks

Mrs. Christine Page of Johnson Temple will speak at the 7 p.m. service sponsored by the Missionary Society of South Side Church of God, Motor at Nebraska. The sextet of the host church will provide musical selections.

Preachers, Soloists Appear at Services

The Rev. James MacDonald, pastor of First Baptist Church in Spring Lake and missionary appointee to Italy, will be guest speaker for the Teen Banquet at Calvary Baptist Church, 3750 Pontiac Lake, Waterford Township, at 6:30 tonight.

★ ★ ★

Gilbert Kerr will be master of ceremonies. A magician, skits and music also will be featured. Junior and senior high Sunday School teachers will be honored guests.

The Rev. Mr. MacDonald, pastor in America for 24 years, will tell why he has accepted a call to be pastor in Italy when he speaks at the 9:45 a.m. Sunday School, and 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. worship services.

★ ★ ★

Last summer MacDonald and his wife visited a servicemen's center in Naples on their trip to the Middle East. He saw a great need for a church for the thousands of English speaking Navy personnel and their families stationed in Naples.

When the MacDonalds returned home they couldn't forget about the need in Naples. About 10,000 Navy personnel with their families are stationed in the seaport city.

He will serve with the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission Society of Wheaton, Ill.

Bloomfield Hills Baptist

Howard Correll, song evangelist and soloist, will lead the singing at the 11 a.m. worship and at 6 p.m. tomorrow in Bloomfield Hills Baptist Church, Bloomfield Township.

★ ★ ★

Born in Toronto, Ont., Correll began his career as a concert artist after training at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto under George Lambert.

Featured on radio programs, as the "Singing Stars of Canada" he was heard over the Trans Canada Network of CBC. He has appeared as soloist with the Toronto Symphony & Mendelssohn Choir. Presently Correll devotes his life to the ministry of music singing at citywide campaigns, church meetings and sacred concerts.

Waterford Community

Johnny Ambrose, well-known Canadian tenor, will appear at Waterford Community Church, Airport and Olympic Parkway, Waterford Township at both the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services.

★ ★ ★

Ambrose known for his radio and television work as well as recordings, will present a sacred concert in the evening worship hour.

He will also give his life story "From Night Clubs to Christ."

Lutheran Church Starts With Handbill

The congregation of Gethsemane Lutheran Church will celebrate its 25th anniversary with varied activities throughout the year beginning tomorrow.

Services will be held at 8:30 and 10:45 a.m. with the Rev. Norman Kirk of Decatur, Ind., guest speaker and Pastor William Otten, officiant.

★ ★ ★

Gethsemane Church really had its beginning on May 7, 1939 when a handbill announced Sunday School would be held in a rented church building on Harrison in Avon Township-Brooklands.

★ ★ ★

Ed Swartzkoff was Sunday School superientendent.

★ ★ ★

The first worship service was that evening.

A minister in Rochester was assigned the task of founding a congregation.

BUY BUILDING

In 1941 a white frame church building was purchased in Detroit, moved to a site at Auburn and Dequindre and dedicated on April 19, 1942.

The Rev. E. N. Schule was called as pastor on Oct. 7, 1945.

★ ★ ★

The Gethsemane Church received its paper of incorporation on Dec. 26, 1944 from the State of Michigan.

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Mr. Kirk became pastor in 1949 and served until 1960. During this period the congregation built a new school and dedicated the present church on Dec. 1, 1957.

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Donald Krueger was installed and served as pastor until 1968. Membership now includes 750 baptised persons and 450 communicant members. The Rev. William Otten is present pastor of the congregation.

Missionary to Irian Speaks

Once termed an undesirable character by the Indonesian government, Dr. Desmond Evans, evangelist and musician will preach at First Open Bible Church, 1517 Joslyn at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Evans, 36, of Gardiff, Wales was missionary to the cannibal tribes of Irian Barat for many years. The son of a minister, he was a research chemist before entering the ministry.

★ ★ ★

The guest speaker makes his base of operations in Australia, but spends most of his time traveling around the world speaking and preaching the Gospel.

★ ★ ★

Three years ago he had his passport stamped "undesirable" by representatives of Indonesia. He was held captive in a small unused turret for a month, until released by the British.

★ ★ ★

In Irian missionaries have set up 700 schools for study through grade three. But in the inland where Dr. Evans worked with cannibal tribes there were none.

★ ★ ★

He said that life there is most primitive and women still wear the bones of their deceased husbands.

He explained that cannibals do not eat people out of hunger, but from fear. Primitive tribes believe there are two distinct persons in each body.

If a person is evil in any way, only by eating the body does the other self die.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Evans will speak of the witchcraft and other customs of the tribes at the service Tuesday evening.

DR. DESMOND EVANS

Missionary Conference Jan. 22-26

The 34th Annual Missionary Conference of First Baptist Church, Oakland at Saginaw, will begin Wednesday evening and continue through Jan. 26.

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Philip E. Armstrong, executive director of Far Eastern Gospel Crusade, will be moderator for the missionary panel starting at 7 p.m.

★ ★ ★

Other missionaries on the program include the Rev. Tom Klaus who works with the Indians in Oklahoma, the Rev. Dan Wiegman of El Salvador under Central American Mission and the Rev. Robert Phillips of Hong Kong, under Conservative Baptist Foreign Missionary Society.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Holman Johnson of Camp Barakel near Fairview will be present for the annual women's luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Thursday.

ANNUAL BANQUET

A very special time during the conference is the annual Missionary Banquet scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Clyde Taylor, executive director of National Association of Evangelicals, Washington D.C., will be guest speaker. Frank Floreck, violinist from Detroit, will provide special music.

★ ★ ★

Missionaries will speak in many Adult Sunday School classes on Jan. 26.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brock will conduct children's meetings each evening of the conference. The Brocks are missionary appointees with Wycliffe Bible Translators.

The poor man is not he who is without a cent, but he who is without a dream. —Harry Kemp, American writer, poet and vagabond.

Musical Groups Sing for Nazarenes

The Dyes Sisters, a local singing group, will present several selections at the 9:45 a.m. Sunday School hour of First Church of the Nazarene, 60 State tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Pastor U. B. Godman will bring a message on "How to Handle Trouble When It Comes" at the 11 a.m. worship service.

★ ★ ★

During the evangelistic hour at 7 p.m. the congregation will hear the Journimem, a trio composed of John Marine, Dave Thomas and Tom Malone Jr. of Emmanuel Baptist Church. The public is invited.

Missionary Doctor Is Guest Speaker

Dr. Roland Stephens, missionary doctor to Rhodesia for six years, will be guest speaker at the 6:30 p.m. service tomorrow in Five Points Community Church, 3411 E. Walton, Pontiac Township.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Stephens who has completed his work in cornea transplants, will return to Africa with his family on Jan. 24.

★ ★ ★

A fellowship hour will follow in the church parlors so the congregation and friends may become better acquainted with the missionary family.

★ ★ ★

The TNT Sunday School Class will meet at 6:30 p.m. today for a cooperative dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ohs, 124 Northwood, Rochester.

Sing Sunday

The Pastors' Chorus of St. James Missionary Baptist Church will present selections along with the Wandering Travelers and other singing groups of the city at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow. The musical program is sponsored by Quartet No. 6 of Pontiac.

Green Tiffany-Shaded Fixture Lights Round Cherry Table In Dining Area

Perfect Spot to Be Snowbound

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

Neither ice nor sleet nor snow dims the hospitality and congeniality of the Clarence M. Ruhmanns of Lapeer. Mrs. Ruhmann simply puts on a fresh pot of coffee and her husband tosses another log on the crackling fire and everybody sits back to enjoy the comfort-oriented family room.

* * *

Carpeted in a burnt-orange shag, the room features natural burlap above the cherry-paneled dado. Flanking a spoon-legged dropleaf coffee table in front of the fireplace are matching love seats in a gold, burnt-orange, brown and olive-green plaid.

Holding the ample wood supply on the hearth is a copper wash boiler. Continuing the Early American theme on the fireplace wall are cigar molds, horse-collar brackets, a spice cabinet, a brass horn from Greenwich Village, a peg maul, a single whiffletree and a brass horn from Holland.

Twin swivel rockers in olive-green nylon serve the gold-felt covered table topped by a gold lamp with a gold parchment shade and an amber hobnail footed vase with a colorful leaf and cattail arrangement accented by yellow fresh chrysanthemums.

Two steps lead to the dining area. Carpeted in moss green, the area uses an inn print of gold and burnt-orange on white. Sparkling white eyelet cafes and valances dress the three-window bay.

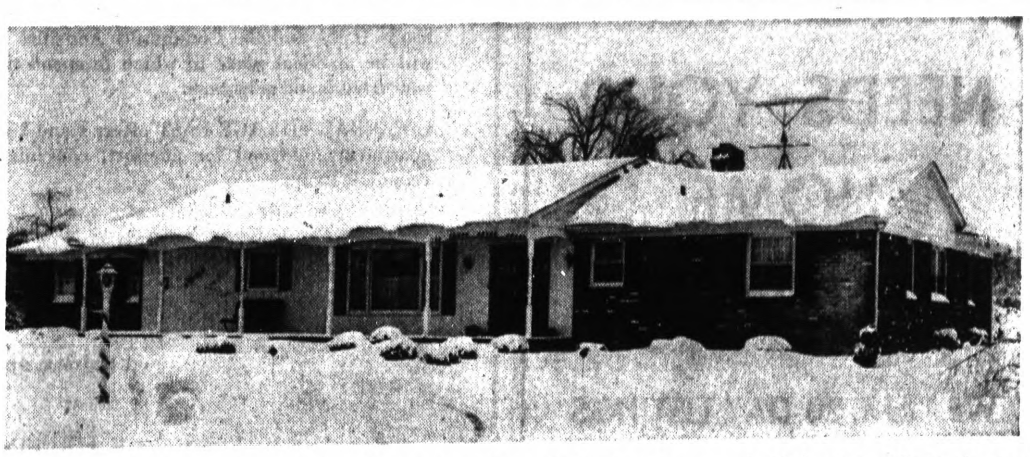

"The tea cart," said Mrs. Ruhmann, "proves to be a most valuable asset for entertaining. It's so versatile."

Pumpkin candles in polished-brass candlesticks and an artificial arrangement in shades of green in a wicker container adorn the round cherry dining table.

The breakfast bar, for quick meals and impromptu snacks, adds another touch of homey whimsey to the informality of the open family room, dining area and kitchen. A ceramic squirrel scrambles down the bar's cedar shake roof to peer at the diners.

"We had the lamps lighting the bar turned upside down," said Mrs. Ruhmann, "to give the old street light effect."

The Ruhmanns chose a more formal approach for their living room, following the regal Colonial theme. Setting the background are white walls, olive green antique satin draperies, white half curtains and olive green carpeting.

WELCOME—The dutch door at the Clyde Hagerman home on Eastways Drive, Bloomfield Township; gives visitors a hint of the delightful interior awaiting them. The leaded-glass window was rescued from Birmingham's old Methodist Church. When it was installed, Mrs. Hagerman had it framed. A flower shelf allows for a seasonal floral arrangement as the final touch of welcome.

Spaghetti-Shellac Polo Introductions

Spaghetti and shellac have something in common. They were both brought from Asia to Europe by Marco Polo. While their affinity ended there, they have had parallel journeys to popularity, winning quick public approval and maintaining it throughout the centuries.

Shellac's popular appeal, in the face of a large assortment of new finishing materials, can be traced to a number of reasons, among them its versatility, ease of application and quick-drying properties.

★ ★ ★

Hobbyists, in particular, like it because it lends itself to experimentation in ways and means of mixing and applying.

Professional wood finishers of the past carefully guarded their own secret recipes for using shellac on expensive violins and fine furniture.

Today, there are different schools of thought on the proper mixture of shellac and denatured alcohol, the type of abrasive for smoothening the hardened finish, the manner of application and the various uses to which it can be put.

The newcomer need have no qualms about these differences of opinion. He can achieve good results by using a 50-50 mixture of shellac and denatured alcohol and applying it with a brush which is not used for any other purpose.

★ ★ ★

Two or three coats are recommended, with a light sanding between coats.

While shellac dries rapidly, so much so that dust will not cling to it after the first few minutes, several hours should elapse between coats.

When shellac is to be used as a sealer or undercoater, less of it can be used in the mixture. A good starting point would be three parts of denatured alcohol to one part of shellac.

Once you have become acquainted with shellac, you will find your own favorite mixture — as a sealer, an undercoater or a finish coat.

★ ★ ★

And it is inevitable that you not only will find it, but that you will soon be proclaiming it an ideal combination, better than that one used by your neighbor or the one recommended in an article on wood finishing.

Lest it be supposed that shellac is a fool-proof material which can be successfully applied by anyone under any conditions, it just isn't so.

WHITE CAST

It will develop a whitish appearance if it is put on in an atmosphere of high humidity or if the wood isn't completely dry.

A good practice is not to use shellac during rainy weather, even if you are doing the finishing inside the house, although it must be admitted that it can be done if you are absolutely certain the inside humidity is low and that the temperature is somewhere in the vicinity of 70 degrees Fahrenheit.

You should buy only enough shellac to last for a few months, since it is inclined to deteriorate after that period of time.

★ ★ ★

Continue to keep it in the original container and protect it from air and sunlight. In applying it, work fast, flowing it on and never brushing it out completely as you might do with most kinds of paint.

Hardboard Panels Popular for Siding

Hardboard exterior panels have become a popular siding material due to their extreme durability, low-maintenance and good looks. The panels are weatherproof, dent-resistant, and won't split, splinter or crack.

★ ★ ★

Because the surface is smooth and knot-free, paint or stain is easily applied.

★ ★ ★

The siding is available in a variety of styles — such as board and batten panels, rough-sawn surfaces, grooved vertical siding, and horizontal lap siding — to suit any architectural decor.

Add a Vestibule

Adding a vestibule is a favorite project of home remodelers. Costs can be kept down by installing an easy-to-clean, long-wearing vinyl asbestos tile floor. This is one of the most popular resilient floor coverings in America and it is also one of the least expensive.

A Wise Buyer Investigates Heating Plant

House hunters are understandably concerned about a home's appearance, layout, size, landscaping and neighborhood, but many of them seem to lose their curiosity when it comes to finding out about the home's heating system.

It isn't enough to just ask if the heating is adequate or what kind of fuel is used. It will pay you dividends in comfort and savings to learn all you can before buying that home.

★ ★ ★

The trade group says the wise buyer will investigate the soundness of the furnace or boiler and the duct or pipe network used to distribute heat through the house.

He will determine the heating system's response to thermostatic control, which should be sensitive to even a one-degree change in room temperature; the placement of the thermostat itself; the types and positions of room registers or floor-level, baseboard radiators; the floor area to be heated; window location, and wall insulation.

EXPERT

If you can't do this detective work yourself, call in an expert to do it for you.

Gas heating systems are being installed in four out of every five new homes. A gas furnace, for example, is durable, easily serviced and gives cleaner and cheaper heat than furnaces fired by other fuels. In a forced warm air system the only moving parts are the blower and its motor.

★ ★ ★

Both gas furnaces and boilers that heat large homes are as small as a two- or three-drawer filing cabinet, leaving basement room for conversion to living, work and recreation areas.

Most warm air furnaces can be easily adapted for year-round air conditioning, either at time of installation or later on.

Always use non-rusting nails and fasteners for garden structures.

New Alarm Protects Housewives

The rising incidence of crime and lawlessness has made many women afraid to be alone in their homes and apartments.

A new electronic prowler alarm has been developed to provide night and day security to housewives.

★ ★ ★

Developed by Radar Devices Manufacturing Corporation, St. Clair Shores, Mich., the new device consists of a tiny remote transmitter, similar to a TV Remote Control, but smaller, and an alarm system. The housewife who hears an intruder at the window or door can trigger the alarm simply by pressing a button on the transmitter.

The alarm is an ear-splitting bell or a police type siren, designed to frighten the intruder away.

CONNECTION

Optionally, the remote transmitter can be connected directly to police headquarters. The alarm can be programmed to sound in the home, in police headquarters, or both.

A second option is a pushbutton which can activate the alarm from any convenient place where the housewife spends a lot of time, such as over the sink.

★ ★ ★

According to Gil Groehn, President of Radar Devices, police welcome the new unit as "another weapon in the fight against crime."

"Further," he said, "it provides protection and peace of mind to the wife whose husband is away much of the time."

Plan Home for Leisure Year-Round

The term — leisure home — is somewhat limited in application and practice, directed almost exclusively to dwellings of the part time or vacation variety.

This seems unduly restrictive. No matter what you call it, a house should be a place where you can relax and enjoy leisurely living. Certainly that privilege should be shared by the residents of year-round abodes.

★ ★ ★

As a matter of fact, there's no reason why a conventional home can't have all the attributes of a leisure home with the possible exception of a lakeshore or woodland setting.

One reason why leisure homes in general are so delightfully distinctive and practical in design is that they are built in secluded locales where there is no compulsion to conform to existing neighborhood patterns. With no ties to tradition or local customs, the designers have complete freedom of form and expression in indulging the fancies of fun-loving families.

ENCHANTING

The results have been so enchanting, in fact, that urbanites and suburbanites might be wise to get with it, kick custom out the window, and make their neighborhoods conform to the free and easy leisure home pattern.

Some of the more refreshing features of leisure home design are complete harmony of home and landscape, abundant opportunity for recreation, a practical adjustment of form to the exigencies of comfort and convenience and an overall feeling of the outdoors inside the home.

★ ★ ★

Such details are just as pleasing in a city or suburb as in a rural setting. Wood patio decks surrounded by discreet fencing can create a holiday atmpsohere on a year-round basis. Exposed plank-and-beam or A-frame ceilings can procide a cheerful feeling of the forests within the home — even in a bustling metroplis.

These are ideal media for jointly utilizing the high strength and attractive appearance of pre-shrunk Southern Pine lumber.

EVERYTHING FITS nicely into place on the exterior of this small ranch, with traditional features giving it the desired charm and appearance of hospitality. From the front, it seems larger than it is, but it's actually designed for families with modest budgets.

An Economy Ranch Designed for Luxury

Here's a real budget house. With only 1,180 square feet of living area, an important consideration in building costs, it has the additional economy feature of a completely rectangular foundation.

Z-76 STATISTICS

Design Z-76, a small ranch, has 1,180 square feet of habitable area. Rectangular in shape, it has a fireplaced living room, dining room, kitchen, three bedrooms and two baths. The one-car garage has a rear door and an inside entrance to the kitchen. The plans call for a basement, but the house could be constructed on a concrete slab if desired. In that eventuality, space for utilities could be provided to the right of the kitchen, widening the garage or moving it over. A carport is another possibility in areas where the climate permits. The over-all dimensions, including the garage, are 58' 10" by 25' 8".

In designing a house of this size and shape, especially when it is to have three bedrooms, the architect faces a number of problems.

★ ★ ★

Architect Herbert C. Struppmann, who designed this one, feels that the highest obstacle to be hurdled is the creation of a good traffic layout. Somehow a room seems bigger if you don't have to use it to get to another room.

TRAFFIC PLAN

The traffic plan here has a center hall entry that joins the bedroom hall, a dead-end living room to the side, and a dining room at the back.

A rear entrance to the kitchen via the garage means that anything can be brought in and stowed away in either the garage, broom closet, kitchen or the rest of the house.

★ ★ ★

An arrangement of this sort is easier in a large house, but it's especially profitable in a small house where any inexpensive aid to general good living doubles in value.

The windows, fireplace and wall space are as equally important as the non-traffic location of the living room. There is a separate door that goes into the dining room, but if desired, the wall can be left a full, unbroken sweep; access to the dining room then would be via the main hall for formal occasions, or the kitchen for service.

LIVING ROOM

The living room has an interesting front window arrangement, with one large pane of glass flanked by small panes.

The corner location of the kitchen makes for good accessibility for all service needs. While not a large kitchen, the compact L-shaped setup of counters and appliances is easy on the feet.

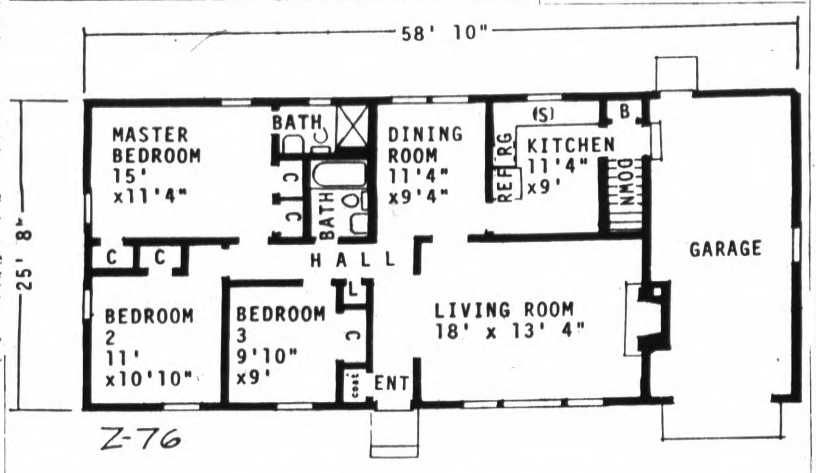

Occupying the opposite corner of the house, at the rear of the bedroom wing, is the master bedroom.

This gives parents two exposures, as well as three closets, a private stall-shower bathroom and as much privacy and seclusion as you could expect in a much more expensive home.

BEDROOMS

The two family bedrooms at the front are for the children; if it's a smaller family, one bedroom, preferably the one nearest the entrance foyer, could be used as a home office or study.

Despite the rectangular design of the exterior, the excellent detailing of materials transforms it into a residence that makes it look like something special rather than an economy model.

FLOOR PLANS: Because it has only 1,180 square feet of living area, excluding the garage, this layout required full use of every inch of space. Architect has done good job of providing traffic circulation in both living and bedroom wings.

Eliminate Cold Spots With Heat

Does your home have "cold spots" that your family avoided all last winter — places like the basement, attic or garage?

It's a shame to let such potential living areas go to waste, especially if your family is outgrowing your house. The remedy is simple and practical if you have a hydronic (hot water) heating system: Extend the heating system into the cold areas.

Most boilers have the capacity to handle the extra load, so it's mainly a matter of extending the piping to the additional areas.

A heated garage can mean the end of cold morning car startup problems. It provides an excellent place for children to play. If it has hot and cold running water, it's a perfect year-around mud room where both children and adults can clean up and remove muddy boots before entering the house.

Heated basements make excellent family rooms or play rooms for children. They're real house-savers and mom-savers because the kids can play indoors during bad weather without being underfoot or messing up the rest of the house.

Families that are outgrowing their homes often find that attics can be converted into functional living space — one or more bedrooms, a bathroom, a den, studio or sewing room. The bathroom usually can be installed directly above the bathroom on the floor below — thereby saving substantially on piping costs. And if the area is heated, it can be used as uflly by the family as the kitchen or living room.

Keep a cedar closet as air tight as possible. Close the door securely after storing or removing articles.

Wood Moldings Decorate Quickly

Do you want to decorate a room quickly and inexpensively? Try wood mouldings.

Termite Shields Actually Offer Little Protection

Metal termite shields afford homes little actual protection against subterranean termites, a Georgia survey disclosed recently.

The report is based on the inspection of 310 houses in Northeast Georgia to determine whether termite shields — metal flashing installed between the foundation and wood members — meet the Federal Housing Administration's minimum property standards.

★ ★ ★

Conducted by James B. Cobb, School of Forestry, University of Georgia, the survey revealed a total of 1,423 installation defects — an average of 4.6 a house. No house was found with properly installed shields!

Dr. Thomas E. Snyder of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C., inventor of the shield, acknowledged that it has fallen into disrepute. To replace shields as a termite deterrent, he now urges home owners to chemically treat the soil under their houses before construction.

This work, he noted, should be performed by professional termite control operators.

From Pegs to Balances

Modern Colonial-style wood windows are a far cry from the original.

For instance, in older days windows were kept open with pegs stuck in holes drilled in the frame.

Today's wood windows made of ponderosa pine are fitted with non-stick metal and plastic hardware, including clock-spring balances, that assures easy operation and allows the window to be raised or lowered to any desired height.

Pine Market Gains Steadily

The nation is increasingly dependent on Southern forests for pleasures and necessities of life. The extent of this dependency is evident from the following facts and figures:

Production of pine lumber has increased steadily during the past six years, and this looks like the seventh in a row. If the rate maintained during the first half of this year continues through the second half, total 1968 output would be 25 per cent higher than the 1961 figure.

★ ★ ★

Southern pine supplies a large share of the nation's construction lumber — notably for the structural frameworks of homes. It is also rapidly becoming a prime source of plywood. Southern plywood production — only 402 million square feet in 1965—rose to 1.1 billion feet in 1966, 1.7 billion in 1967 and this year is expected to approach 2.6 billion feet, more than 17 per cent of the nation's total supply.

★ ★ ★

Growth of the region's pulpwood industry is equally impressive. The south's 1967 pulpwood production — 34 million cords — was nearly double that of 10 years previous and represented three-fifths the nation's total. From this source come essentials such as newsprint, food and beverage containers, rayon clothing, paper napkins and towels and other products.

TREATED POLES

Southern pine supplies nearly 85 per cent of the nation's pressure treated wood poles, vital to the telephone communications system and to the pole frame method used in the construction of most farm service buildings.

Still another major product is glued laminated lumber. Because of its strength, pine is well adapted to this engineering process whereby one and two-inch thick lumber are bonded with powerful adhesives and built up into arches, beams and columns of any desired dimensions. Most modern churches use these engineered timber products.

Sagging Fences Have No Useful Purpose

A sagging fence serves no useful purpose, even failing to satisfy its purely esthetic function — appearance. Fences hastily or improperly assembled begin to fall apart first, though all fences are subject to the wear and tear of wind and weather.

Lack of wood preservative on post ends leads to rotting. Ordinary nails will rust through in time. Pickets or side rails set too close to the ground will show the affect of rotting.

A post not set deeply enough will sway and lean. Posts set too far apart will not support the weight of the fence.

★ ★ ★

If posts have started to rot or were not set deeply enough in the ground, the first big wind that comes along will blow the fence over. Even a short post should be set fairly deep. Though not high enough to blow over, it still may be affected by frost action which then leaves it subject to the wind.

★ ★ ★

If not neglected too long, most fences can be repaired. Don't try patching. A bad section should be dismantled. Good wood can be salvaged and the rest thrown away.

Sometimes a post that has rotted at ground level can be patched by cutting off the rotted portion, and nailing or screwing one-inch thick lumber to each side of the post end and extending the post to its original length. By notching the post the extension will de flush with the surface of the post.

If you can, however, it is best to replace the post. This means dismantling everything attached to it. Most posts are 4-by- lumber. Fir or pine is the material you are likely to find, but cypress and redwood (more expensive) will withstand weather better.

The cheaper post can be used, though, if you soak the end in a good wood preservative. Soak it, don't brush on.

★ ★ ★

Post holes should be 18 to 24 inches deep. They should be no more than 8 feet apart, 6 feet if the fence is a high one.

Use a post-hole digger and wet the ground if it is dry. This will keep it from crumbling and you will not dig a hole that is too wide. That compacted earth around the post will help to support it.

Put a flat stone in the bottom of the hole and set the post on that. In heavy clay, concrete may not be necessary. Compact the earth or concrete around the post. If you use concrete, bring it an inch above grade and taper away for drainage.

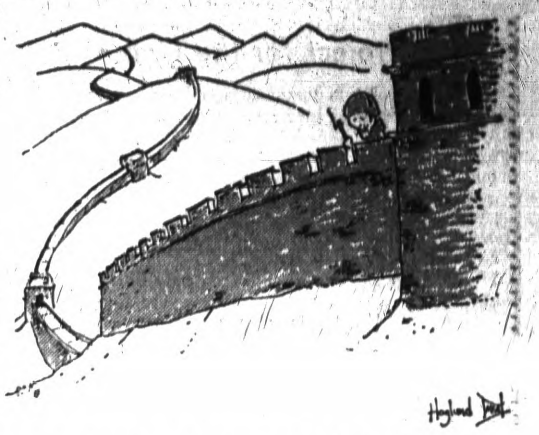

When you replace pickets and side rails use copper, aluminum or good galvanized nails. Set the nail heads below the surface and cover with filler.

Best protection from rotting can be obtained by painting posts, rails and pickets before assembling. Then water seeping in will not soak into unprotected wood.

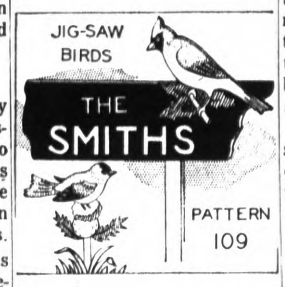

Keep the bottom rail several inches above the ground level. This will prevent it from picking up ground level. This will prevent it from picking up ground moisture.

★ ★ ★

Keep your fence painted. Do not allow low spots to develop around post holes. These will catch water.

A well-constructed fence will last a long time.

LIFE-LIKE BIRDS are fascinating to cut out and paint. Make a name sign with letters from the hardware store; then perch a cardinal on it, or a finch on a garden stake. Hang a life-size parrot in a window or outdoors. Pattern 109, which gives actual-size guides for six birds and two butterflies, is 35 cents. It also is in Jig-Saw Packet No. 45 for $1.

The Pontiac Press Pattern Dept. P.O. Box 50, New Windsor, N.Y. 12550.

When locating a patio right outside large windows or sliding glass doors, make it a weathered fir or cedar deck to prevent the problem of sun glare.

To House Character

Front Door Is Key

They say clothes are a key to a woman's personality. The same may be said of a house exterior.

House styles and "accessories" — doors, windows, trim, decorative accents, color schemes — are all indications of the tastes and preferences of the family that lives inside.

★ ★ ★

Whatever your house choice happens to be, you can — and should — give it full rein.

★ ★ ★

Manufacturers of modern building materials have made it easy to do this by offering a wide range of product styles to suit various types of architecture.

PANEL DOORS

For example, ponderosa pine panel doors now come in designs to match practically every house style. They're available at local lumber dealers in stock sizes, precision-made for easy fit and installation.

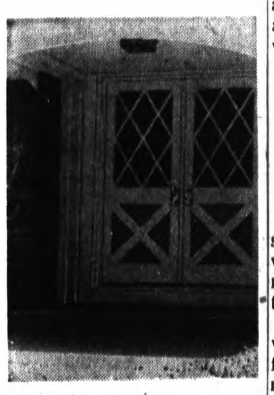

Here are some of the choices:

- Colonial Cross - and - Bible door, so-called because the upper four panels form a cross and the lower two panels simulate an open Bible.
- Dutch door, appropriate for Early American "farmstead" homes. Has two separately operating halves — upper section usually glass, lower section wood panels. Many design variations are possible.
- Panel door with fan or cathedral lights, often chosen for traditional houses. Generally four, six or eight wood panels topped by a series of fan-shaped glass panels (fan lights) or round-topped little windows (cathedral lights).
- Contemporary doors usually have three large wood panels. Some have glass inserts, or decorative accents such as carving or brass plaques. A popular choice for double entries.
- Spanish or Mediterranean—as many as 32 panels, some exquisitely carved, some with glass inserts.

★ ★ ★

Most of these ponderosa pine door styles are available as complete stock entrances, with matching pediments, sidelights or side panels.

They are factory-treated with a chemical preservative for durability and protection against weather abuse.

DOUBLE ENTRY — As a focal point of the house exterior, the front door should personify a home's architectural style. Complete entrances — such as this handsome Early American double entry — are available as stock ponderosa pine units to suit any house style.

Let Shutters Provide Lift

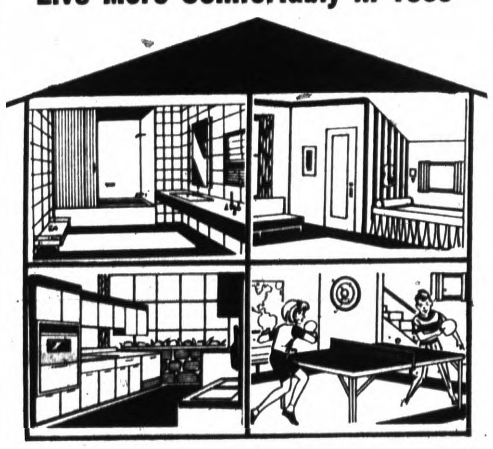

Tired of curtains? Designer shutters which may be antiqued, varnished or stained to compliment any room offer an effective option.

With spray paint, an endless variety of colors are at your fingertips. Antiquing offers a novel touch. Stains or varnish can bring out the warmth of wood to accent any room.

★ ★ ★

You may cover the windows totally with shutters or do just half of a window—with curtains on the upper or lower portion. For a dramatic effect, paint the stiles one color and the louvers in a contrasting shade.

ANNOUNCING A DELIGHTFUL NEW WAY OF LIVING

This is especially welcome news if you are already retired—or if you are five years, or so, away from retirement! We're talking about Avon Park, a fine new mobile home community. Please don't make the mistake of confusing Avon Park with other kinds of mobile home settlements you may have seen. For Avon Park is totally unlike them—and is truly a new way of living.

Ours is a carefully planned 106-acre community that will have paved streets and a luxurious 6000 square-foot clubhouse—along with generous size mobile homes on sites that measure 50′ x 80′ at the very minimum.

Avon Park has an abundance of natural charm with its wooded, gently rolling layout. We are adding the further charm of a man-made, three-acre lake (which will be amply stocked with fish). Avon Park will also feature gas lights at every homesite. And full, professional landscaping of the entire community.

There's even more to make life enjoyable at Avon Park. For instance, you have your choice of several leading makes of mobile homes—equipped exactly the way you want them. Appliance names include General Electric, Frigidaire, Magic Chef, and others equally well known. Your home will have its own private (and paved) patio. And your own private, paved two-car parking area.

As a resident, you will be entitled to free rubbish pickup and free snow removal. Even lawn care is available, if you want it. So are Laundromat facilities—right at Avon Park.

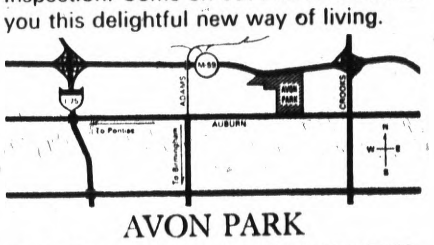

All public utilities (including gas heat from Consumers Power and electricity from Detroit Edison) will be underground to preserve Avon Park's natural beauty. And, for better TV viewing, you will be able to hook on to our big community TV antenna. In short, nothing has been overlooked. Nothing, that is, that will contribute to your pleasurable living at Avon Park.

We haven't even mentioned one of the best features about Avon Park living. And that is its superb location in the heart of Metropolitan Oakland County. Avon Park is just three miles east of Pontiac on Auburn Road (see map). Only minutes away from Birmingham, Troy, Rochester and Bloomfield with all their cultural and shopping advantages. Avon Park is three miles from the I-75 north-south expressway, and one mile from the new M-59 east-west expressway. Wherever you want to go, the fastest routes are at your door.

But, most important of all, Avon Park offers you "the best of both worlds." All the ease and convenience of apartment living plus the complete comfort and privacy of living in your own home.

Avon Park has to be seen to be fully appreciated. We've really only been able to hint at its many advantages than can be yours.

Avon Park is open from Noon to 5 PM seven days a week. We have seven elegantly furnished models ready for your inspection. Come on out and let us show you this delightful new way of living.

Plan a Project for the Home

To keep your home in tip-tip condition for pleasant living, pick a project to complete every year.

It might be redecorating this time, but if you did that last year, what about your family's recreational needs? If there's no "rec" room, why not install one in the basement or on a porch?

★ ★ ★

Now's the time to plan for a spare-time home improvement project.

★ ★ ★

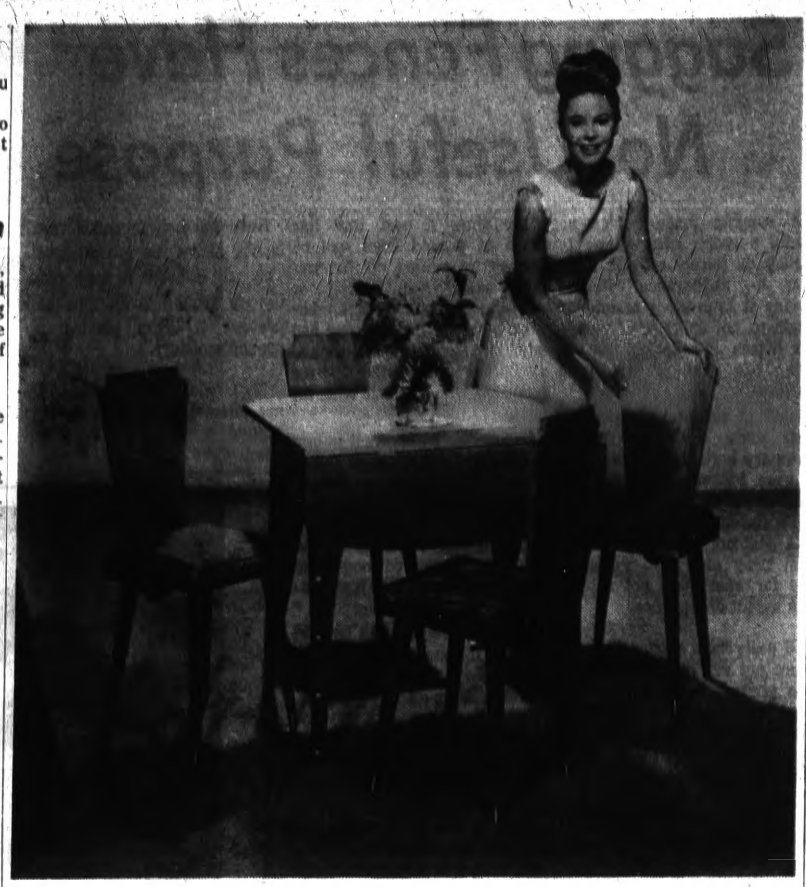

Porch-to-room conversions, for example, are relatively simple and inexpensive. So are attic modernizations. In each case, some of the six room surfaces are present; you simply need to cover them.

Visit your lumber dealer to get advice and inspect materials you'll need.

Walking on Corn

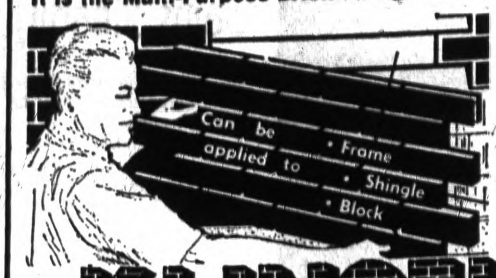

Every time you take a step, corn helps your shoe soles bend more easily. Tanners have long used corn syrup or dextrose (corn sugar) in making stiff leather more pliable.

Eight organizations supervise the grading of western lumber. They employ a total of 76 quality control supervisors at a cost of some $1.25 million annually.

EXPANDABLE — Extra dining space is readily available with the build-it-yourself dining set pictured. Tables and chairs are all made of veneered plywood. The full-size pattern makes it easy to trace the parts onto the plywood for sawing. The chair legs and cushions are standard sizes available everywhere. To obtain the princess dining set pattern number 347378, send $1 (add 25 cents per pattern for airmail delivery) by currency, check or money order to: Steve Ellingson, The Pontiac Press Pattern Dept., P.O. Light Wood Takes Stain Much Better

The bleaching of wood came into its own some years ago when so-called blond furniture first became popular. But there is evidence that wood bleaching was utilized centuries ago by professional wood finishers for an entirely different purpose — as a preparation for making wood darker.

This old-time theory, which still has many adherents today, is that wood will take a stain better if it is first made as light as possible. In fact, many of the novelty finishes of recent years are achieved after the wood has been bleached.

Anyone who has ever done much wood finishing has had the experience of removing paint or varnish from an old piece of furniture only to find that some of the old finish remains imbedded in the wood. This is expecially true when a dark stain had been used, either when the furniture was made or at some later time.

Sanding or steel wooling is useless in such a case if the stain is too deep. Bleaching then is often the answer, provided that the remaining stain is not too dark, which it usually isn't if a good varnish remover has been used.

COMMERCIAL

While it is possible to get good results from a home-made bleach, a commercial bleach usually will work better, since it is scientitifically prepared by experts.

Bleaches vary somewhat in content, making it very important that the instructions on the container be followed to the letter. Especially vital is the necessity of wiping off the bleach residue with whatever solution is recommended by the manufacturer.

★ ★ ★

A bleach is a strong chemical solution. Therefore, no bleaching project should be attempted unless you wear rubber gloves and work cautiously. Incidentally, if the furniture piece has any hardware on it, be sure to remove it ahead of time.

Bleaching usually raises the grain of the wood. Therefore, about 24 hours after the bleach has been used, sand the wood lightly with a fine grade of paper, no matter how much the wood previously was sanded. If a stain is to be used, it should be given a light coat of sealer before the final finish is applied.

NEW FINISH

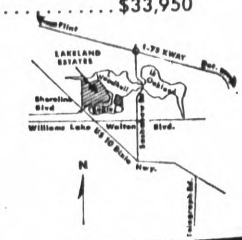

Some of the newer finishes on the market are designed to do away with bleaching. While pigmented, they allow the natural grain of the wood to show through. Should you decide to try one of them, read the label first to determine whether they will produce the kind of effect you want, as some work well only on light woods.

Phoenixlike Nixon Shuns Old Controversy, Seeks Consensus

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard Milhous Nixon, returned from the politically dead to become 37th president of the United States, is shunning the controversies of yesteryear in a new search for consensus.

Whereas Republican Nixon takes office with the good will and proffered assistance of Democrat Lyndon Johnson, back in the 1950s Democrat Harry S. Truman threatened to punch him on sight.

More remarkable is the fact that he sits in the White House just six years after many politicians and commentators presided at what they were certain was his political autopsy.

The Nixon career has been marked by obstacles encountered and, one way or another, overcome.

ECONOMIC DISTRESS

His Quaker parents, Frank and Hannah Nixon, never knew dire poverty yet flirted frequently with economic distress, because of ambitious plans gone awry and costly illnesses that claimed the lives of two of their five sons.

The frame house where Nixon was born at Yorba Linda, Calif., on Jan. 9, 1913, sat in the middle of a failing lemon grove his father had planted. The elder Nixon, a rolling stone and man of many jobs, sold the porperty years before it produced oil enough to have made him a millionaire.

The Nixons then moved to the Los Angeles suburb of Whittier — founded as a utopian colony for Quakers — and set up the town's only gasoline station. The enterprise later was expanded when Frank Nixon converted an abandoned meeting house nearby into a general store.

Richard Nixon, as a schoolboy, pumped gas and operated the vegetable counter at the store.

A BENCH-WARMER

Odd jobs did not claim all of Nixon's spare moments. Both in high school and college he sought glory on the football field — one goal that did not fall before his persistence. Nixon warmed the bench.

Part-time jobs, a scholarship and some help from the family enabled Nixon to graduate from Whittier College and the Duke University Law School. He was elected student body president at each, excelled on the debating teams and won high scholastic honors.

★ ★ ★

With law degree in hand, Nixon considered becoming an FBI agent and was promised an interview with J. Edgar Hoover. Instead he returned to Whittier and worked in a private law firm headed by the Republican city attorney.

As a young lawyer, Nixon was a diligent "joiner" of civic clubs and local prominence as a trustee of Whittier College and president of the alumni association.

HE MET PAT

Nixon was interested in amateur theatricals, a circumstance that led to a meeting with Thelma Catherine (Pat) Ryan, a strawberry blonde Whittier High School teacher who had played walk-on parts in two Hollywood films. He was 25 and quick to propose marriage to her. She was in no hurry so they waited a couple of years, until 1940.

With the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, Nixon offered his services to the federal government and moved to Washington to help set up rubber rationing for the wartime Office of Price Administration. Pat Nixon went to work for Uncle Sam, too.

★ ★ ★

After a few weeks in the capital, Nixon sought a Navy commission, although as a Quaker he could have claimed exemption from active service. The commission was granted in the summer of 1942.

While still wearing the uniform of a lieutenant commander, Nixon entered politics in 1946 by invitation — not through his own initiative.

'NIXON'S THE ONE'

Republicans back in Whittier were seeking a candidate to challenge a 10-year House Veteran, Jerry Voorhis; they even ran a help-wanted advertisement in a local newspaper. Someone suggested "Nixon's the one" and he flew home for a job interview; he got the assignment — not a particularly eviable one inasmuch as Voorhis was well-entrenched and popular with Republicans as well as Democrats.

The campaign transformed Nixon into a controversial political figure — and a winner.

Repeatedly, the Nixon vote-seeking effort focused on a claim — denied by Voorhis — that the embattled congressman was the choice of the CIO Political Action Committee and, futher, that the PAC was a tool of communism.

The Republican challenger, winning by 65,586 votes to 49,994, argued that "Our campaign was a very honest debate on the issues." Since Voorhis was known to be anti-Communist, Nixon critics were quick to accuse him of capitalizing the below-the-belt tactics — a charge that was to be repeated in the years ahead.

THE HISS CASE

Nixon easily won reelection, with the nomination of both parties, in 1948 — a year that saw him play a leading role in the investigation of Alger Hiss, former State Department official accused before the House Committee on Un-American Activities of having links to Communist spy ring. Hiss, who denied the allegation, subsequently was convicted of perjury and served a federal prison term.

In 1950, after barely three years in the House, Nixon challenged Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas, a liberal Democrat, for the Senate. Nixon won with better than 59 per cent of the vote but again was accused of unfair campaign tactics. He linked the House voting record of Mrs. Douglas with that of the then-Rep. Vito Marcantonio of New York, who was often pictured as following the Communist party line.

After serving 18 months in the Senate, Nixon was thrust onto the national political stage by a political amateur, Dwight D. Eisenhower. As the 1952 Republican presidential candidate, Eisenhower asked national convention delegates to nominate Nixon for vice president. They did so, by acclamation.

In the autumn, the Eisenhower-Nixon campaign was gathering the momentum of a runaway freight train when the New York Post disclosed that a group of California businessmen had contributed $18,235 to a fund aimed at helping Nixon meet the expenses of public office. Some GOP leaders urged that the vice presidential candidate be dumped from the ticket.

The crisis reached a climax when Nixon, deciding to make a fight of it, went on national television to defend himself.

Eisenhower, impressed by his running mate's emotional defense, kept Nixon in the race.

At 39, Nixon became the youngest vice president in 96 years. And Eisenhower assigned to him a larger role than any other occupant of the office. During their two terms together, the Prisident sent Nixon as his emissary to 56 countries — travel that sometimes was dramatic, sometimes dangerous, sometimes merely tedious.

In Moscow, the youthful vice president argued ideology with Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev in a much-reported and impromptu kitchen debate" that took place in an exhibit of a model American kitchen.

AS EASY CHOICE

The Republican National Convention of 1960 did not have much difficulty arriving at Nixon as the party's choice to succeed Eisenhower.

Ironically, a key factor in Nixon's defeat was his decision to join Kennedy in a series of televised debates.

Trying to put his political career back together, Nixon went after the next available high position — governor of California in 1962. But the incumbent Democrat, Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, prevailed by 297,758 votes.

In the end, Nixon invited himself back into politics. He campaigned vigoriously for GOP candidates in 1964 and 1966, building a reservoir of good will among the party faithful. He entered six presidential primaries in 1968 and won them all.

With the coming of the autumn campaign against Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, Nixon was determined to avoid past mistakes.

The cautious approach carried the day — but not by much. Yet Richard Nixon is no less the president that if he had won in a walk. And having achieved the office so long sought, Nixon is determined not to "blow it."

If East had not been a dealer North and South would have no trouble getting to six spades. When the hand was played in the 1968 Summer Nationals' International Match Team game, one North-South pair was allowed to get in the first bid. East backed in with diamonds at his second turn but this delayed diamond call only served to speed South on his way to six.

At the other table East chose to open with three diamonds. This didn't bother Bobby Wolff of Dallas who sat South. He doubled.

West looked at his nothing hand and was certain that his opponents could make a slam. He decided to try to upset their apple cart with a three no-trump call. This put things squarely up to Ira Corn of Dallas who sat North.

He had a lot of bids at his disposal. He could double and be reasonably sure that either East or West would run out, he could bid spades or clubs but there was one outstanding bid at his disposal and he made it. He bid four diamonds!

This cue bid did not necessarily show first-round diamond control. All it did was to show that he had a good hand and wanted to be in the game or higher.

This didn't solve all of Bobby Wolff's problems. He had a very good take-out double of three diamonds, but could not be sure that his partner held spades with him. Note that Ira did hold spades but did not hold much in hearts.

Bobby was too strong to just bid four spades; his spade suit was too weak to insist on a spade slam. But Bobby had a perfect bid available. He simply jumped to five spades.

After this bid it was easy for Ira to go to the slam.

Q—You, South, are dealer and hold: ♠AQ6 ♥KJ7 ♦A104 ♣KQ108 What is your opening bid?

A—Bid one club. You are too strong to open one no-trump and too weak to open two no-trump.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You bid one club and your partner responds one diamond. What do you do now?

Answer Monday

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Sunday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Friend may express money problem. Be a good listener. But steer clear of complicated involvement. Stress today is on originality, creative resources. You receive praise, compliment.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Pressure exerted by mate, partner—concerns special responsibilities. Key is to be receptive. Battling only complicates issues today. Play passive role. Then you gain objective.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Be versatile. Social invitation should be accepted. Have fun but don't make too many promises. Be careful around the home. You could be accident-prone. A bit of care avoids difficulty.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Emotions run high. Tendency is to be extravagant. Key is to balance logic with impulse. One close to you needs face-saving situation. Let him pick up check!

LEO (July 23-Aug. 23): Progress may appear to be moving at slow pace. Key is to understand why some family members appear ultraconservative. If you argue, others become doubly stubborn. But charm, humor win the day.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Study LEO message. There is conflict between ideas and necessities. Means you may be "ahead" of family, associates. But it is necessary to slow pace. This avoids conflict, senseless debate.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): You are tempted to spend, to be extravagant. Show your good thoughts, love through simple approach. Not necessary to be garish. Talk things over with member of opposite sex.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Some around you today may appear destructive. Patience and humor are best allies. Set example. Be mature. Remember obligations—especially to family. Maintain principles.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Trips, visits appear to dominate. You finish rather than begin; you learn lessons. Much of past experience can be utilized. One in trouble consults you. Be interested, sympathetic.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Some friends appear aggressive. Steer clear of money disputes. State your views with clarity, but avoid arrogance. Accent on possessions. Not wise to lend—or borrow.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Stress personality. Take initiative. Be sure, direct. Cycle high. You are sensitive to feelings of others. Your intuitive intellect is sharply honed. Trust hunch — follow through.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): One who attempts to involve you in clandestine activity should be ignored. Intrigue keynotes day. Be quiet within. Find out what's best for yourself. Don't go off on tangent.

★ ★ ★

IF SUNDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you are withdrawn, but inner feelings are powerful. You are completing important phase of life; take steps to insure future.

★ ★ ★

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for AQUARIUS, PISCES. Special to LEO: permit others to call the plays. You win if patient.

For Monday

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Decline invitation to out-of-way locale. Friend is not apt to be aware of changing conditions, rules. Do some personal checking. Best to remain in background. Be discreet.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Stick to issues at hand. There are numerous distractions. Many want to be here, there and everywhere. Key is to select wisely. Study ARIES message.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Deal intelligently with those in authority. Be gracious—if you don't know, ask. Check details. Tendency exists for messages to go astray. Know this and be alert.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Changes are due. Message received could cause revision. Give full play to intellectual curiosity. Obtain hint from GEMINI message. Member of opposite sex plays important role.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Agreements are subject to delay. Don't count on immediate occupancy. Means what is signed goes through maze of red tape. Realize this and plan accordingly. Stress family harmony.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Some who perform routine but necessary tasks fail to make appearance. Work schedule is apt to be altered. Know this — have alternate plan. Thinking ahead could save money.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Children may make financial demands. Be fair and firm. Give some — but also receive your money's worth. Past obligations require attention. Don't permit emotional strain to hold reins. Balance!

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Combine work and play. Avoid excess. Accent on creative endeavors. You succeed by enjoying tasks. Means put individual touch on efforts. A burden is lifted. Greater freedom is due.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Stress independence of thought, action. Mobilize forces. Get family backing. Push ahead with knowledge that what you do is essential. Property value is brought to your attention.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Money indications create disturbance. Your appeal is wide. But outside forces cause slight dismay. Tensions exist. You are in spotlight. Try to remain poised. Others observe.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Check belongings. Study CAPICORN message. Some personal affairs, desires are subject to delay. Be flexible. You can add to income. Key is confidence, ability to make contacts.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Your desire for attention should be controlled. Some who mean well—say embarrassing things. Be lenient. Cycle high. You get your way. But don't demand perfection. Smile!

IF MONDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you are sensitive, often withdrawn. But you are also loyal—and you will fight for a cause. New cycle opens up; you meet people and embark upon adventure.

★ ★ ★

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Communication disruption could center on national event.

LARRY CAMERON

Ninth Grader at Eastern Is Teen of Week

This week's Teen of the Week is Larry Cameron, a ninth grader at Eastern Junior High.

Larry, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cameron of 196 Judson, maintans an A-minus academic record and has never failed to make the school's honor roll.

★ ★ ★

He is president of the student council, captain of the hall guards and a member of the school choir and the student human relations council.

Larry's plans include college and pursuing a career in missionary medicine.

★ ★ ★

His advice to fellow teenagers is to stay in school and make the best of school experiences which are so necessary for a full life.

Boy, 12, Arrested in Pontiac Theft

A 12-year-old Pontiac boy was apprehended by police yesterday for allegedly stealing $60 from an unlocked Pontiac home.

Police took the boy into custody after they spotted him in the neighborhood where Anna Neidrick, 43, of 65 Court reported that the money was taken while she was in another part of the house.

Card of Thanks 1

THE FAMILY OF Zelpha S. DeWitt wish to think their friends, neighbors and members of Central Christian Church for their expressions of sympathy in flowers, cards, visits and food in the passing of their loved one. Special thanks to the neighbors of Susin-Lake Subdivision for their kindness and thoughtfullness and their beautiful floral basket. Daughter-Gladys Bump, Grandson D. Max Bump, granddaughter and husband, Joyce and Melvin Bailey.

WE WISH TO thank our neighbors, friends and relatives for their many acts of kindness and flowers. Special thanks to Rev. Marvin Foster and the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home. From the family of Mary Sanders.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY of our Grandfather and Great Grandfather, Lester H. Smith who passed away January 18, 1968.
Down a road that's calm and peaceful
Guided by God's loving hand;
He has gone upon a journey
To a distant brighter land.
And although our hearts are heavy
With sorrow we must bear;
It helps to bring us comfort
Knowing he is happy there.
Sadly missed by Gary, Sharon &-Children.

IN LOVING MEMORY of Orville Lee Elam who passed away January 17, 1964.
If all the world
Was ours to give,
We'd give it all and more
To see the face we love,
Come walking thru the door.
To hear his voice,
To see his smile,
To sit and chat with him a while
A wonderful brother,
So loyal and true.
A one in a million,
That, brother, was you.
Loved and sadly missed by Mom, Dad, Sisters, Brothers and their families.

IN LOVING MEMORY of our husband and father, Lester H. Smith who passed away January 18, 1968.
It broke our hearts to lose him,
But He did not go alone;
For a part of us went with him
The day God called him home.
God gave us strength to bear it,
The courage to take the blow;
But what it meant to lose him
No one will ever know.
When the evening shadows are falling
And we sit here alone;
To our hearts there comes a longing
If he could just come home.
Sadly missed by wife Marguerite and son Gene.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF our dear father, LeRoy J. Tindall, who passed away, Jan. 19, 1965.
When links of life are broken,
And loved ones have to part,
It leaves a wound that never heals,
On every aching heart.
They say time heals all sorrow,
And helps us to forget,
But time, so far, has only proved
How much we miss him yet.
Sadly missed by Marilyn, Ida, Eileen and our families.

IN LOVING MEMORY of our dear mother and grandmother, Ella M. Kerr, who died 6 years ago today, January 18, 1963.
Sadly missed by her daughter-Louise and family.

IN LOVING MEMORY of Willie Mattingly who passed away January 19, 1967.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sadly missed by wife, daughters and grandchildren.

IN LOVING MEMORY of Clovis J. Miller, who passed away, January 19, 1968. God saw you getting weaker, So He did what he thought best, He came and stood beside you, and whispered come to rest. You wished no one a last farewell, not even to say goodbye, you had gone before we knew it, and only God knows why. Sadly missed by his wife, son, and family and daughter and family.

ATTENTION

All Cookware, Vacuum Cleaner, Encyclopedia and Fire Alarm salesmen. If you are tired of chasing leads, car expenses and are looking for something new and different in sales we have what you're looking for. The newest concept in sales today.

NO CHASING DOWN LEADS

People come to you by Appt. only

YOU HAVE YOUR OWN EXECUTIVE OFFICE

Beautifully draped, carpeted and paneled

NO CAR AND NO TRAVEL EXPENSES

Every other day off.

Your home at night

You can earn up to $200 per week, plus. This is a National Company who needs a top salesman. In the Pontiac area to fill this unique position.

For personal interview please call Mr. McCoy at 682-8310 bet. 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. Friday, Monday and Tuesday.

DO YOU LIKE SALES?

We need a young, aggressive and reliable automobile salesman with knowledge of sports cars to work in a local dealership. Excellent working condition and many fine company benefits. Phone 335-9421, ask for Rick.

COPIER SALESMAN

Sell your way into a management job.

If you want a career in sales that can lead to more than sales, come to Pitney-Bowes. Particularly in our new Copier Division — our newest and fastest-growing separate division.

Right now Pitney-Bowes is making a dramatic entry into the copying machine field. The men who make the sales can't help but be noticed. And since the Copier Division is forming its own separate management and separate field sales force, there's a great opportunity for promotion into management.

We offer you a protected territory, generous commissions, a distance bonus for travel AND one of the most extensive packages of company-paid benefits in industry.

Sales experience is preferred, but the right man with no experience can qualify. Call today for your personal interview.

ROYER
WASH FOR PROFIT
Own your own business where your customers do all the work. Here is a self-service laundromat which is showing a good profit now and the potential is great. The business is good, but the owner must retire due to poor health. Included in the price is the building, lot with city water and sewer and all equipment which would cost $20,000 new. The business is located in a rapidly growing area only blocks from 2 large apartment complexes and 2 trailer parks. Call today for more information on this excellent investment opportunity!

Tokyo Police Oust Students From All but One Stronghold

TOKYO (UPI) — An army of 8,500 riot policemen, firing water cannon and hurling tear gas grenades from helicopters, stormed Tokyo University today. They attempted to dislodge radical students who have paralyzed the institution for almost a year.

★ ★ ★

By the afternoon, blue-clad police armed with metal shields and protected by gas masks and face guards had driven students from all strongholds but the main administration building.

The students defended the red brick building and its nine-story clock tower with homemade fire-bombs and giant slingshots.

Prime Minister Eisaku Sato's Conservative government ordered police to clear the campus. Sato is a graduate of the university which for 93 years has produced most of Japan's leaders in government and business.

OPPOSE TREATY

The students have demanded a voice in the university's administration. They also oppose Japan's military security treaty with the United States, which is supported by Sato's government.

Police invaded the campus after dawn in a militarylike maneuver. Helicopters flew circles over the campus, dropping tear-gas grenades on rebels holding rooftops. Police drenched students with freezing water from high-pressure hoses.

★ ★ ★

The last student rebels, numbering no more than 200 among the university population of 13,000 students, held police back for hours at the administration building.

Members of the most radical wing of the Zengakuren, a national organization of university students, hurled rocks and glass jug fire-bombs at the attacking riot squads.

Police first captured a law school and an engineering building.

Students, most of them bruised and some bleeding, were led in handcuffs from the two buildings and put into police vans or ambulances.

More than 250 students were arrested, police said.

Procedures OK'd for Wider Talks

MAKE OVER PAGES

PARIS (AP) — The four representatives at the new Vietnam peace talks reached full agreement today on all procedural matters and real negotiations will begin early next week, the U.S. delegation reported.

After a five-hour and 15-minute meeting with representatives of South Vietnam, North Vietnam and the Vietcong's National Liberation Front, Ambassador Cyrus R. Vance told reporters: "I am happy to report that we have reached full agreement on all procedural questions for the first plenary session which will take place early next week."

★ ★ ★

The U.S. ambassador gave no immediate details on the procedural format for the peace negotiations. But he said: "I am happy that we are getting down to the serious business of making peace in Vietnam."

★ ★ ★

The swift disposal of procedural questions means that there will be no more haggling over matters not directly concerned with the achievement of a Vietnam peace.

The meeting, which began at 10:30 a.m. in the International Conference Center, got off to a flying start when North Vietnam at once proposed that the first meeting on matters of substance should begin early next week.

This is just what the Americans had said they wanted.

★ ★ ★

According to the North Vietnamese spokesman, Nguyen Thanh Le, the National Liberation Front had proposed to hold the first plenary session Tuesday.

But, Le said, Vance had declared he must report to Washington. He said Vance promised to get in touch with the other side early next week.

'NO IMPORTANCE'

Le said the North Vietnamese would consider that the talks should be referred to as "The Paris Conference on Vietnam." Asked if other delegations agreed, he said, "This has importance."

The United States and South Vietnamese had proposed calling the talks the "Paris meetings."

In the conference hall, Col. Ha Van Lau, deputy chief of the Hanoi delegation, when it came his turn to speak, said: "I propose that the procedural points already agreed upon for this first session be used for all sessions to come."

This meant that procedural matters could be swept aside, representing dramatic and astonishing progress for the first session after having been stalled two months in quarreling over table shapes, speaking orders and other matters of procedure.

As the meeting began, Vance told the North Vietnamese and front delegations it was the American desire, shared by Saigon, to "arrange an early end to the fighting and bloodshed that Vietnam has suffered."

Therefore, he said, "we hope that we can quickly agree on procedures so that you and we can begin promptly the discussion of matters of substance."

The No. 2 man of Saigon's delegation, Nguyen Xuan Phong, presented a list of items on procedural problems, pertaining to the name of the conference, the order of speaking, language, security and other aspects.

The Hanoi statement included attacks on the Americans and South Vietnamese, but these seemed more restrained than those of the past.

Yet there was a faint hint in his statement that Hanoi might accept survival of the Saigon government in a settlement. Lau said that if the United States and South Vietnam really wanted peace, the Americans must renounce "their scheme of aggression" and the Saigon administration "must renounce its bellicose policy."

Governor of Alaska Alone on Firing Line

WASHINGTON (AP) — Alaska Gov. Walter J. Hickel remains alone on the firing line with the other 11 Nixon Cabinet nominees cleared informally for speedy Senate approval after the inauguration Monday.

Indications were the Senate Interior Committee, after reviewing Hickel's plans for avoiding conflicts of interest, would endorse his nomination by the time Richard Nixon takes the oath Monday.

★ ★ ★

In developments yesterday:

● The Senate Armed Services Committee approved the nominations of Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin to be secretary of defense and David Packard of California to be deputy secretary. The action involved approval of Packard's plan to put in a charitable trust his substantial holdings in a firm doing government business.

● The Senate Finance Committee endorsed the appointments of David Kennedy of Chicago as secretary of the Treasury and Robert Finch, lieutenant governor of California, as secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

AGREEMENT WORKED OUT

After five hours of discussion, that committee and Kennedy worked out an agreement on his plan to put into a trust his stock in the Continental Bank of Illinois, which he has headed. The trustee will be instructed to diversify his holdings.

Chairman Henry M. Jackson of the Senate Interior Committee said he was fully satisfied with millionaire Hickel's plans to divest himself of holdings and make other financial arrangements to avoid conflicts of interest.

★ ★ ★

"I don't see any possibility of conflict," Jackson said.

The committee was to meet again today after three days of public hearings during which Hickel was questioned intensively about his views on water pollution and conservation and, his handling of natives' land claims and oil leases while governor.

Most other Cabinet nominees appeared only once before Senate committees handling their respective appointments.

TOUCHED OFF FUROR

Hickel's statements on conservation and water pollution shortly after his appointment touched off a furor among conservation groups. He said he had been misunderstood.

The closing witnesses at his hearing included the representatives of the Sierra Club, a 70,000-member conservation organization, that opposed him.

Thieu: Some GIs to Leave in '69

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu announced today some American combat troops will be withdrawn from South Vietnam this year, and he has directed his military chief of staff to draft a timetable with the U.S. Command.

Thieu did not say how many of the 532,000 U.S. troops in the country would be withdrawn, and added "Detailed plans will first have to be developed by the military staffs of the two countries before specific timing can be developed."

★ ★ ★

But sources said the initial withdrawal might affect 20,000 troops and 100,000 might be phased out by the end of the year.

The U.S. commander in Vietnam, Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, is understood to have reluctantly accepted the fact that some American troops will have to be withdrawn soon, but he is opposed to any cutback until mid-July.

FOLLOWS MEETING

Thieu's announcement came a few hours before the first scheduled meeting of the enlarged Paris peace talks and followed a two-hour meeting yesterday between Thieu, U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker and Abrams.

Thieu's office also released a message sent by the president to President Johnson on his leaving office.

★ ★ ★

"Free Vietnam," Thieu said, "is today substantially stronger than it was, militarily as well as politically, and we shall not forget that it was mostly thanks to you that we have achieved these results."

On the battlefield there were no reports of major sustained fighting.

★ ★ ★

U.S. Marines supported by Navy bombers, tightened a cordon around the Vietcong-controlled Batangan Peninsula 340 miles northeast of Saigon, killing 32 enemy soldiers, a military spokesman reported. Four Marines were killed, and 28 wounded.

Two 'Panthers' Murdered in LA

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two local officials of the militant Black Panthers were shot to death yesterday as a meeting on a proposed Afro-American studies program was breaking up at the campus of the University of California at Los Angeles.

About three hours later, police arrested 17 persons whom they said were fellow Panthers or friends of the victims apparently planning revenge. Officers said none were charged with the killings.

★ ★ ★

Most of those arrested were booked on suspicion of illegally possessing weapons after officers seized 14 guns, a homemade bomb and hundreds of rounds of ammunition. The arsenal was found, police said, around one victim's home in the Watts area, about 20 miles south of the UCLA campus.

Police said they were investigating an apparent rivalry between the Panthers and another group which they did not identify.

4 FLED SCENE

Police said they questioned 12 persons who heard the shots and witnessed the confusion that followed. After the shooting, four persons were seen running from the building where the meeting was held, but their identity was not determined.

The dead men were identified as John Jerome Huggins, 23, an area Panther captain, and Alprentice Carter, 26, Panther deputy minister of defense. Both were UCLA students.

About 150 Negro students had attended the meeting during which qualifications were discussed for a new director for an Afro-American studies center.

By the time police arrived, the building, Campbell Hall, which is a classroom and office building, was empty except for the two bodies.

District Dems Back Expulsions

Democratic party conventions of the 18th and 19th Congressional Districts last night supported 13 County Board of Supervisor Democrats who expelled two of their party from caucus Thursday.

A resolution by William Merrill of Birmingham passed a convention of both districts on a voice vote. An observer said it was the first time in the history of the county Democratic party that such action was taken.

Considerable discussion dealt with the actions of Democrats George Grba and Carl O'Brien (Pontiac supervisors) who voted with Republicans on the county board to give the opposition party control.

County Democratic Chairman George Googasian told the meeting: "This is not only a matter of failing to vote with fellow Democrats on organizational matters . . . It is first of all a matter of shattering the platform and program of our party, or smashing the hopes of those who worked so hard to achieve victory in November.

"It is also a matter of the deceit and misrepresentation practiced by two members for their own personal advantage."

Grba and O'Brien both responded to the accusations. Grba noted alleged defections by other Democratic members of the party and cited intracaucus disagreement, which he said led to his action.

COUNTY SEAT

O'Brien denied that Republicans now have control of the county.

During his rebuttal, O'Brien offered to give Philip O. Mastin, Democratic caucus chairman, his seat on the powerful county finance committee. Grba is chairman of that committee, under the plan put through by Republicans Thursday.

The action will mean an absence of party help for Grba or O'Brien in future political contests.

Police Guard Teddy After Threat

FAIRFAX, Va. (AP) — Police established a patrol around the home of Sen. Edward T. (Teddy) Kennedy, D-Mass., after being informed of a threat on his life, authorities reported today.

A spokesman for the Fairfax County, Va., police said "There's a patrol car cruising the general area" when asked whether special precautions were being taken to guard the Senator, sole survivor of the three Kennedy brothers.

The police said they were informed yesterday by the senator's office of a threat on his life.

One of Kennedy's aides, reluctant to discuss the matter, said only that "Similar things have happened before" and that the senator was spending the day at home.

Key Milliken Talk Expected at County GOP Club Dinner

William G. Milliken will make his first major political address as governor at the Oakland County Lincoln Day Republican Club dinner, according to GOP sources.

★ ★ ★

District Judge Robert L. Shipper, current club president, said Milliken will speak at 8 p.m. Feb. 12 at Raleigh House in Southfield.

★ ★ ★

His speech is expected to deal with general state policies and with the future of the Republican party in the state.

Attorney Gilbert Davis of Royal Oak, Michigan State Bar Association president, and a member of the Oakland County Abraham Lincoln Civil War Round Table, will serve as toastmaster.

REPRESENTATIVES INVITED

Congressmen William S. Broomfield and Jack McDonald have been invited to attend. Broomfield is to make a presentation honoring the late Congressman George A. Dondero. A plaque from the District of Columbia Lincoln Day Club will be presented to Dondero's son, Robert Dondero of Royal Oak.

SCENE OF ILLINOIS RAIL CRASH — Railroad workers are busy repairing track of the Illinois Central Railroad following a head-on train collision that killed three crewmen and injured 47 persons yesterday near Kankakee, Ill. The crash occurred when a stopped freight train was rammed by a passenger train in dense fog. None of the injured is in serious condition.

4th Cosmonaut Down; Red Success

MOSCOW (AP) — Cosmonaut Boris Volynov landed safely in the Soviet Union today, successfully completing a four-man mission in which the Soviet Union achieved the world's first crew transfer between orbiting spaceships.

The official Soviet news agency Tass said Volynov's Soyuz 5 craft made a soft landing at 11 a.m. Moscow time, 124 miles southwest of the city of Kustanay. This would put him a few hundred miles northwest of the space center at Baikonir, where Soyuz 5 was launched Wednesday.

Volynov "feels good," Tass reported. "All experiments were fully completed."

His landing came one day after three other cosmonauts made a soft landing in the Soviet Union aboard Soyuz 4. Two of them, Alexei Yeliseyev and Yevgeny Khrunov, had made space walks Thursday from Voynov's craft to join Vladimir Shatalov aboard Soyuz 4.

PARACHUTES USED

Tass said a breaking rocket on Volynov's spaceship was fired at a predetermined time and the craft descended into the atmosphere, slowed by parachutes.

★ ★ ★

Volynov was met on the ground by the recovery team, friends and newsmen, Tass added.

Soviet radio and television interrupted normal programming to give the announcement.

★ ★ ★

Apparently using the same landing technique as Soyuz 4, Soyuz 5 separated into two sections during the landing, Tass said. Volynov was aboard the crew capsule, while the working quarters in a section called the orbital compartment descended separately.

★ ★ ★

The flight of Soyuz 5 last 72 hours 46 minutes. Counting the launching of Soyuz 4 on Tuesday, the entire mission lasted 96 hours 21 minutes.

'MISSION COMPLETED'

"The safe landing of Air Force Lt. Col. Volynov, 34, successfully completed the multi-manned mission," Tass said.

Western experts have acclaimed the Soyuz mission as a step toward assembly of permanent space stations and orbiting laboratories, where scientists and cosmonauts can be ferried back and forth from earth.

★ ★ ★

In addition to the world's first crew transfer, the mission also achieved the first docking of two manned orbiting spacecraft. The United States pioneered docking techniques years ago with its manned Gemini craft, but they linked only with unmanned ships.

U.S. Plan Differs With France on Mideast Talks

By The Associated Press

France has called for a Big Four conference aimed at settling the Middle East crisis, but the United States is reported backing a peacemaking plan which would include provisions for direct talks between the Arab states and Israel.

The Washington Evening Star, in a story following the French announcement yesterday, quoted qualified sources as saying Secretary of State Dean Rusk outlined a form of two-track negotiations in a note handed to Soviet Charge d'Affaires Yuri N. Tcherniakov.

The Star said Rusk's note proposed talks between the United States and the Soviet Union, and separate talks between Israel and the Arab states under a U.N. "umbrella."

County Airport Reports '68 Profit

Oakland-Pontiac Airport made about $7,000 last year on operations, county figures indicate. It was the first time since the airport's early days that such a profit was made, officials believe.

"Operations, excluding capital improvements, paid for all airport salaries and upkeep," according to Daniel T. Murphy, chairman of the Oakland County Board of Auditors. By the end of last November, total operating expense was $128,000, Murphy reported.

★ ★ ★

There were 215,945 takeoffs and landings during the year — up 15,187 from 1967, according to Frank Gineman, Oakland-Pontiac tower chief. The millionth operation since the opening of the tower in 1961 was recorded Aug. 9.

About 25 lands per day were freight hauls, and the major credit for improvement in freight traffic was given to Cryderman Air Service.

DOUBLE

Clark Cryderman, owner of the service, said his volume of freight traffic had doubled in the last year.

Facility improvement at the airport during the past year included the awarding of a $339,350 contract by the county for the construction of 51 new hangars in the northeasterr part of the field.

★ ★ ★

A $25,000 paved crossover between the main runway and taxi strip was constructed. The state and county shared costs.

Private operators put an estimated $450,000 into improvements during the year, according to airport officials.

The airport received Federal Aviation Administration approval for a partial instrument-landing system to be installed in 1970 and for a full system to be installed in 1972. $84,000 was awarded by the FAA for that purpose.

A survey showed 410 airplanes permanently based on the field, 125 of them multiengine.

The total number is 24 planes less than last year, due to Commander Aviation having removed its operation to company headquarters at Memphis, Tenn., officials said.

Joseph Davis Jr., appointed airport manager last January, said however that the volume figure is gradually improving.

All airport-owned lots along Airport Road were leased out during the year, and revenues consequently improved from that source, said Davis.

★ ★ ★

County officials noted that the $57,000 appropriation for 1968 had been cut $6,000 to $51,000 for the current year.

★ ★ ★

The money is to be used for operations if necessary, otherwise to be spent on capital improvements.

★ ★ ★

Another $800,000 has been budgeted for airport land acquisition at the site.

"We hope eventually to have the airport entirely on a self-sustaining basis," Murphy said.

★ ★ ★

A report to the Oakland County Board of Supervisors by its aviation committee notes however that the maximum capacity of Pontiac-Oakland Airport will be reached by 1970.

★ ★ ★

The report states: "As stated in the master plan, the maximum operations can be accomplished only if the recommended improvements are made.

★ ★ ★

"It will be imperative that another facility be made available to accommodate the overflow" after 1970.

Sirhan Jury May Be Named by Tuesday

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A surprise prosecution maneuver may make it possible for a jury to be seated as early as Tuesday in the Sirhan Bishara Sirhan murder trial.

★ ★ ★

Chief Deputy Prosecutor Lynn Compton startled the packed courtroom yesterday afternoon by announcing the state would relinquish its right to dismiss the 11 tentative jurors.

Grant B. Cooper, the chief defense attorney, then asked that the trial adjourn until Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

"We need time to assess the acceptance of this jury as it is now constituted," he told Superior Court Judge Herbert V. Walker.

SHORTENED BY WEEKS

Jury selection had been expected to take weeks.

Sirhan's three attorneys said they will decide over the weekend whether to yield their peremptory challenges—as the prosecution has done—or continue exercising them against jurors it finds objectionable.

★ ★ ★

If the defense waives the challenges, it would mean the 11 tentat ve jurors would be permanently seated.

★ ★ ★

"Don't be surprised at what happens Tuesday," Cooper told newsmen. "We just might have a jury."

ONE MORE TO GO

The 12th seat in the jury box, however, remains vacant.

★ ★ ★

The prospective juror, Helen Woodworth, a retired legal secretary, told Walker in chambers yesterday she must consult her doctor to learn whether a long trial would injure her health.

★ ★ ★

Either side could dismiss Miss Woodworth because the prosecution yield its peremptory challenges before she was seated.

Before the prosecution waived its remaining peremptory challenges—by which prospective jurors are excused without argument or explanation—each side had used one challenge.

JURORS SELECTED

Excused were Alicia Duke, a divorcee in her early 30s, and Sharon Engle, young wife of a suburban Glendale undertaker.

Among two jurors added during the day was Dora Jacobi, a retired university instructor who once worked in an Army psychiatric center at Ft. Edwards, Mass.

★ ★ ★

Sirhan's courtroom demeanor remained jaunty at the close of the trial's first full week.

★ ★ ★

At one point in the afternoon, as an associate defense attorney, Russell Parsons, was quizzing a prospective juror, Sirhan stood up and whispered in the lawyer's ear.

A guard told him to sit down.

Oil Deliverer Slips

FLINT (UPI) — To fuel truck driver Edward Worcham, it was a simple matter of hooking onto the filler pipe outside a house here and pumping in 250 gallons of fuel oil.

To Mrs. Donald R. Rose, who came home to find her basement full of fuel oil, it was a mess.

★ ★ ★

Mundy Township fire officials said Worcham went to the wrong house. While helping to clean up, he found out the filler pipe didn't connect to anything but the basement because the Rose basement has no fuel oil tank.

It will be colder in most of the nation, but continued mild along the Atlantic Coast.

18th District Dems Pick Zemmol Chairman

Allan Zemmol of Southfield became chairman of the Democratic 18th Congressional District in a secret ballot last night at the Oakland County Courthouse as delegates were elected to the state convention Feb. 1 in Detroit.

He defeated G. Vernon Leopold of Royal Oak, his only competition, by a vote reported to be 124 to 74. The totals were never made public.

The spread apparently was something of a surprise to backers of Leopold, largely those members of the New Democratic Coalition, a recently formed liberal group.

Others elected to office in the 18th were Mrs. Pat Mitchell of Birmingham, Martin M. Doctoroff of Royal Oak and William Jenkins of Madison Heights, vice chairmen; Charles Demos of Madison Heights, treasurer; and Mrs. Ethel Schwartz of Southfield and Donald Morse of Birmingham, secretaries.

Members of the Oakland Democratic 19th District did not elect officers, but will wait until Feb. 1 at the State Democratic Convention to meet with Wayne County counterparts to choose leaders.

Resolutions seeking wider representation and a greater voice for all people in the party were adopted by both caucuses.

★ ★ ★

Former Congressman Billie S. Farnum of Waterford Township asked that his 18th District not endorse him as a candidate for state Democratic chairman.

★ ★ ★

He said the support needed to win the post had failed to materialize. The New Democratic Coalition failed to endorse Farnum at a meeting earlier this week.

★ ★ ★

Asked later if his statement constituted a withdrawal, Farnum said "No."

Kresge Confirms Move to Troy Site

The president and board chairman of the S. S. Kresge Co. yesterday officially confirmed reports that the firm plans to move its national headquarters from Detroit to a site at Big Beaver and Coolidge in Troy.

H. B. Cunningham, head of the nationwide variety store chain, expressed "extreme regret" at the move from Detroit, but said it was necessitated because of "obligations to stockholders and employes."

★ ★ ★

The board president praised Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh for "persistence, eloquence and comprehensiveness" in attempting to persuade Kresge to move its headquarters to a different site within the city.

However, Cunningham said that the firm's needs of at least 30 acres for its operations ruled out other Detroit sites.

Kresge is planning a 500,000-square-foot office building on 30 acres of a 60-acre site owned by the Biltmore Development Co. northwest of the Big Beaver-Coolidge intersection, according to company officials.

The new building, construction of which is scheduled to begin late this year and be completed by 1971, will provide for an increase in staff from the present 1,250 to 1,800.

The company, founded in 1899, operates about 1,000 variety, department and discount stores in the U.S. and Canada with 50,000 employes and projected annual sales of over $2 billion for this year.

The Troy headquarters will become part of a multimillion-dollar office-shopping center planned by Biltmore which previously developed the mammoth Somerset apartment complex southeast of Big Beaver and Coolidge.

Incoming First Lady Is Practical Homemaker at Heart

MAKE OVER PAGE

By JOY MILLER
AP Woman's Editor

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Nixon says she has always tried to look her best, but she deplores what she calls "too much emphasis on glamor in politics in recent years."

She believes in wearing the same good suit or coat over and over again in public.

Pictures of her doing this very thing recently moved Norman Norell, dean of American designers, to comment approvingly: "She's putting fashion in its proper perspective. A First Lady should not be so enthralled with fashion that she has to wear something different every day."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Nixon is a practical, sensible, thrifty woman, taking pride in being considered primarily a homemaker. She likes to cook and garden, and she has called herself "old maidish" about keeping a house spotless and everything in its place.

In the White House the new First Lady will have a large and experienced staff to cope with keeping it tidy.

She'll handle the workers with her usual friendly efficiency, but, since she doesn't like people to wait on her "it is easier to do something for myself," she says, she may have some inner struggles about resisting the urge to move a piece of furniture herself or to whip out a hot iron for a quick touchup on a dress.

The White House itself Pat Nixon regards almost with awe. "It's historical and beautiful and belongs to the people I wouldn't tamper with it," she says.

★ ★ ★

The private living quarters will be as homey and comfortable as Mrs. Nixon can make them. The Nixons — a close family — like familiar furniture, and have carried favorite pieces with them — from Washington, when Vice President Nixon lost his bid for the presidency in 1960, to California, where he practiced law and made an unsuccessful attempt to win the governorship in 1962, to New York, where he practiced law and in 1968 achieved the presidency.

COOKING

Mrs. Nixon has said she considers herself a good cook. She started compiling a recipe file when she was 13, after her mother died and she took over the task of making a home for her father and two brothers on a small ranch in Artesia, Calif.

An ideal Nixon family meal, she said, would comprise. "A tenderloin, easy to prepare, 45 minutes: puffed potatoes, fresh peas, zucchini and tomatoes—Dick likes that — and fruit popovers."

Entertaining foreign potentates on state visits won't be difficult for Mrs. Nixon, who dined with presidents and royalty all over the world when she accompanied her husband on visits when he was vice president.

The social event, though, that would give her the greatest pleasure would be a White House wedding of her very pretty blond daughter, Tricia.

She isn't serious about anyone right now, her mother says, but anything can happen in four years.

Tricia is "more introverted, like me", says Mrs. Nixon. She was a history major at New York's Finch College, from which she was graduated in 1968. During the summer of 1967 she worked in the office of Sen. George Murphy of California "and enjoyed it."

Tricia would like to be a legislative researcher, working on Capitol Hill, "when she works up to it," explains her mother.

When she looks back over her life, Mrs. Nixon sees the American dream come true. She was born Thelma Catherine Ryan on March 17, 1913, in Ely, Nev., daughter of William Ryan, an Irish hard rock miner who called her Pat. He moved the family to the Artesia ranch when she was small and he died when she was 17.

COLLEGE

She desperately wanted to go to college and she worked hard to achieve that goal, one prime reason why she is so concerned with making quality education available today to everyone.

She worked as an X-ray technician in New York for two years before beginning at the University of Southern California as a scholarship student. Before she was graduated cum laude four years later in the class of '37 she had worked as a department store clerk, researcher, movie extra in mob scenes and college paper grader.

★ ★ ★

Pretty young Pat had majored in merchandising and planned to be a buyer, but an offer to teach commercial subjects at Whittier High School came along and she took it.

ROMANCE

One night at the community theater she met a young lawyer named Richard Nixon, who had come home to set up practice after graduating from Duke University.

He quickly proposed marriage but they were not married until two years later, June 22, 1940, in a Quaker service at Riverside, Calif. Two years after that he was in Navy service in World War II and she was still working.

When he returned to civilian life he entered politics. Most of the money she had saved for a house went for his 1946 campaign for a seat in Congress.

★ ★ ★

In six years Pat Nixon saw her husband elected a congressman, senator and vice president. Through it all, she worked behind the scenes as a volunteer except when she was by his side listening to him speak or attending women's gatherings as wife of the candidate.

★ ★ ★

Through sheer hard work the Nixons, who started humbly, have gone up the ladder to become the First Family in the nation, and that is the American dream to Pat Nixon.

★ ★ ★

As First Lady, she believes, she can help her husband make the American dream come true for everyone. That is the project, the "thing" that will come first in her order of priorities.

Spring Preview of Menswear Sets New Pace

ROME (AP) — Top Italian menswear designers, proved Friday night it is possible to combine snappy new style ideas with elegance, scoring a resounding triumph in spring-summer collections over some rather girly male styles presented earlier.

Angelo Litrico, the Sicilian menswear designer who claims crowned heads and top statesman among his clients, showed smart knit suits in black and white trimmed with square gilt buttons. The male models were escorted by girls in identical knit outfits. It was monosex dressing at its best and it got resounding applause.

FABRICS

Fabrics were the big feature of the Baratta show. His jacket style was the same throughout —elongated with sharply jutting lapels and very fitted and flared at the back. But the fabrics kept up the interest from bright-colored houndstooth checks to coin-spotted jacquards in sunny colors.

Pastel-colored gaberdines were also used and the Baratta show proved that menswear can look attractive in fabrics that are usually reserved for the females.

★ ★ ★

Datti was another who liked "women's" fabrics, using them for patch-pocketed leisure jackets and matching slacks in pale silk shantung.

Also lifted from the ladies were printed linen vests worn over full-sleeved shirts in dark-colored crepe.

On the same lines were Datti's evening vest and pants in cream and cocoa-brown linen velvet worn with white silk shirt-blouses open at the neck. Handsome link belts in pewter metal were worn with these threesomes.

Most expensive item of the shows was Litrico's guru-necked shirt with real diamond buttons, tagged at $13,000.

He also produced the most elegant outfit, an evening suit in black barathea with jacket shaped like an intern's and elegantly tapered pants. A gold link belt circled the waist.

Avon Players Set Performances of 'The Odd Couple' by Simon

A sportswriter, discarded by his wife because of his sloppy habits, invites a poker pal, in the throes of divorce, to share his bachelor apartment.

In Avon Players upcoming production of "The Odd Couple," Skip McCully plays Oscar, the host, who soon finds that Felix, formerly a happy guest at the weekly-poker parties, is a very different character in the role of roommate. Felix is played by Don Weston.

Felix's neatness phobia throws both men back into the same marital-type situations which blew up their respective marriages.

Bridget Wilde and Norma Tazzia, both from Britain, play the Pigeon sisters, English chicks living in a neighboring apartment.

The roles of the card players are taken by Marty Rosalik, Dave Holderness, Roger Slee and George Vishnia.

John Long is directing Neil Simon's comedy, assisted by Jane Ramsey. Producer is Rosemary Jackson.

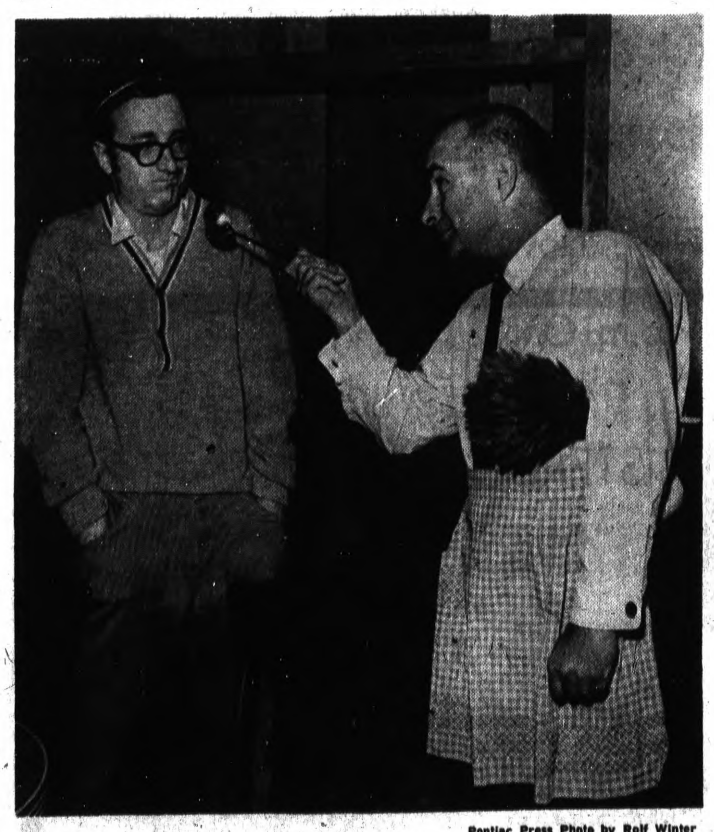

PERFORMANCES

Performances are scheduled Jan. 23, 24, 25, 26, 30, 31 and Feb. 1. Curtain times are 8:30 p.m. except Sunday, when the action starts at 7:30 p.m. in the Playhouse on Washington Road, Rochester.

★ ★ ★

Tickets may be purchased at the box office at 100 East University Drive, Rochester, each Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10 a.m. to noon and from 3 to 5 p.m. For mail orders, write Avon Players, P.O. Box 332, Rochester.

The "First-Nighter" audience is invited to attend an Afterglow, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Contrucci, in the Playhouse.

Joint Notice Is a Matter of Own Taste

Of the Emily Post Institute

Dear Mrs. Post: My fiance and I will graduate from college this spring and will be married three days later. The salesman who spoke to our class suggested that we might wish to send our graduation announcements out jointly a few days after our marriage using a "Mr. and Mrs." card.

★ ★ ★

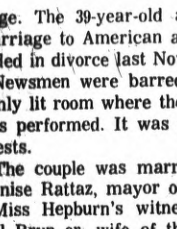

Would this be proper since at the time of our graduation we will not be married? Would it be proper to send out wedding invitations before graduation announcements (although the events are reversed)? If so, how far apart should they be spaced? — Kathy

★ ★ ★

Dear Kathy: Your wedding invitations will go out before the graduation announcements, since they should be sent at least three weeks before the date of the wedding.

★ ★ ★

The graduation announcements should be sent soon after the event takes place. You and your fiance may have them ready to send separately in your own names immediately after commencement, or if you prefer, you may wait until after the wedding and send them as you suggest — with your "Mr. and Mrs." card.

Grandparent's Demands Are Unreasonable, Cruel

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My three children and I drove 150 miles for a visit to my hometown recently. (My husband couldn't go. He was working.)

We stayed with my parents, but I contacted my in-laws so we could make plans to see them, too.

I think my in-laws are unreasonable. Let me explain: I married a widower with two small children. We now have a third child, also. Since these in-laws cared for the two children of my husband's former marriage until we wed, they figure my husband and I owe them something. Of course, we do. But how much?

They demanded that I drop off the two older children to visit them, and when I left town I could pick them up. They don't care to see me, or my other child.

I flatly refused, saying we would ALL come to see them, but no, they didn't want us. My mother-in-law even refused to talk to me.

I don't know what I have done except to try to give the children a home with a mother and father instead of grandparents. They seem to resent me for this.

Since they didn't want all my children, I refused to let them have the two older ones. Was I wrong?

I invited them to my home anytime to visit the little ones, but they refused. I'd like your views.

BEWILDERED

DEAR BEWILDERED: If you invited your in-laws to visit the children, you have no reason to feel guilty. Your husband should tell his parents that showing such obvious favoritism to his two older children creates problems that he and his family will have to live with, so to please be more reasonable.

DEAR ABBY: Medical science has sure given folks a lot of excuses for their shortcomings. We don't have any more drunks, tyrants, or ill-tempered and unreasonable people anymore. They are all "sick." same goes for liars. I know a woman who would rather lie than tell the truth, and do you know what? I am told to have "compassion" for her because she's "sick." So now, lying is a disease, too! I would sure appreciate your comments on this.

CICERO

DEAR CICERO: People lie because they feel insecure, inadequate and inferior. It takes a truly healthy-minded courageous person to tell the truth, no matter how "bad" it makes him appear. So since lying is a symptom of a character deficiency, perhaps your friend IS "sick."

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "NICE BUT INSULTED": If a "nice" girl is constantly being "insulted" by propositions, she should check her appearance. There is something wrong with her packaging.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Audrey Hepburn Weds Italian Doctor

MORGES, Switzerland (AP)—Actress Audrey Hepburn and Italian psychiatrist Dr. Andrea Dotti were married today in a civil ceremony at this Geneva resort.

Several hundred spectators thronged the cobbled streets in front of the City Hall to watch the arrival of the bride, star of the movie "My Fair Lady."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Hepburn looked radiant in a high-neck cashmere pink dress with a pink hood to match. The groom was smiling and relaxed as he walked the few steps from her chauffeur-driven limousine to the City Hall.

It was Miss Hepburn's second marriage. The 39-year-old actress' 12-year-marriage to American actor Mel Ferrer ended in divorce last November.

Newsmen were barred from the tiny, dimly lit room where the civil ceremony was performed. It was crowded with 40 guests.

The couple was married by Madame Denise Rattaz, mayor of Morges.

Miss Hepburn's witnesses were Mrs. Yul Bryn er, wife of the American actor, and French actress Capucine.

Huskies Handle Waterford; PCH Hits Mark

Suspense About Over in I-L After Northern's 84-74 Win

By FLETCHER SPEARS

The suspense is over in the Inter-Lakes League basketball race.

Coach Dick Hall of Pontiac Northern isn't likely to say as much, but it's true nevertheless.

The latest outing for Hall and the Huskies was an 84-74 triumph over a good Waterford Township club last night and a number of little things that make winners were noticeable in this one.

TIGHT DEFENSE

First of all, Northern displayed a tight defense, one that kept the pressure applied, except for a couple of lapses, throughout the game. Secondly, Hall was forced to go to his bench because of personal foul problems and he found the reserves quite ready. And for a third point, the Huskies continued to show poise in trips away from home.

★ ★ ★

From a record standpoint, Northern is now 4-0 in league play, 5-1 over-all and is almost halfway home in its bid for a sixth league basketball title. It was the fifth straight win over Waterford.

BIG ROAD WINS

Among those four league decisions are wins over Farmington and Waterford, the two teams picked to give the Huskies the most trouble in this year's race. Now, PNH has downed both on the road and will now have the advantage of the home floor in the rematches.

★ ★ ★

While Northern was scuttling the Skippers, Walled Lake (1-3) checked in with its first league triumph, a 75-50 nod over Southfield Lathrup (0-4), and Livonia Stevenson (3-1) handed Farmington (1-3) a 57-48 setback.

COMFORTABLE LEAD

PNH built up a 44-33 lead at halftime over the Skippers, and except for a brief flurry by Waterford in the third stanza, the Huskies were in command the rest of the way.

★ ★ ★

SUBS SHARP

Williams made it into the game as a replacement for starter Joe Bradley, while Hall called on Cummings when high-scoring Ernie Crawford ran into foul trouble.

★ ★ ★

Crawford, with a scoring average of 19 a game, had his fourth foul midway in the second frame and was whistled out at 1:13 of the third stanza. The loss of his scoring and rebounding hurt, but Cummings took up the slack.

LEADING SCORERS

Williams finished the evening with 19 points, Clancy had 15, and Moncrief topped all scorers with 20. Cummings, who tipped in a couple of baskets near the end of the third stanza as PNH opened up a 63-54 lead, managed nine markers. Chapman tossed in 11.

★ ★ ★

The Huskies weren't exactly hot in the shooting department. They canned 36 of 100 shots and posted a 53-38 edge in the rebounding department.

WATERFORD HOT

On the other hand, Waterford shot a hot 61 per cent — 29 of 47 shots — a fact that is a tribute to their marksmanship and to the PNH defense.

★ ★ ★

The Huskies harrassed the Skippers throughout the game and forced Waterford into 32 turnovers. Mike Sheldon and Craig Whetstone led the Skipper attack with 19 markers apiece, while Bruce Carlson added 17.

EARLY RUSH

Walled Lake bolted to a 44-30 lead at intermission and coasted past Lathrup.

★ ★ ★

Bob Serra sparked the Vikings with 25 points. Thirteen of the Vikings broke into the scoring column. Bob Brodsky tossed in 22 markers for Lathrup.

Northern plays host to Flint Northwestern in a none-leaguer Tuesday and then entertains Southfield Lathrup next Friday. Waterford visits Stevenson next Friday, while Walled Lake has a date at Farmington the same night.

Ortonville Nips Hartland, 51-50

Ortonville Brandon weathered the last-minute attempts at glory by Hartland's Tim Daltan to overcome the Eagles, 51-50, and tie the visitors at 4-1 for first place in the Genesee Suburban C Conference last night.

Brandon's sophomore guard Ron Wagner sank two free throws with 14 seconds to play to give the Blackhawks a 51-49 lead after Daltan had knotted the score at 49 on a jump shot with 43 seconds left.

However, Daltan wasn't done. After Wagner's clutch free shots, the Hartland sparkplug was fouled with eight seconds to play. He hit the first toss; however, he watched forlornly as his bid to tie the game bounced off to the right and Leland Loutzenhiser hauled down the crucial rebound for Brandon.

FOUR IN A ROW

The Ortonville victory — its fourth in a row — was paced by another sophomore, Mike Wilcox who had 15 points. Loutzenhiser had 12 points and Barney Brown posted 10 for the winners.

The Blackhawks trailed much of the game but tied it at 39, then fell behind again and had to overcome a five-point deficit in the closing minutes of play.

Ralph Cone led Hartland (5-3) with 14 points. Daltan finished with 12. Ortonville is 5-2 over-all.

Charity Stripe Hampers Mott 5

Waterford Mott ran afoul of the charity stripe Friday night and dropped a 59-46 verdict to Dearborn Annapolis.

The Corsairs, losing their sixth game against one victory, came within one basket of the visitors, but couldn't match Annapolis' proficiency at the foulline.

The Dearborn quintet sank 15 of 19 charity tosses while Mott made only four-of 15.

The winners led by just two points at the half, and it was 40-38 for Annapolis going into the final period. The Corsairs slipped in front at 42-41, but the visitors then sank eight straight free throws to pull safely ahead.

Part of Mott's problem was their lack of charity tosses in the final half, having only two free throws in the last 16 minutes.

Steve Miller paced the winners with 17 points. Bill Ziem of Mott hit 12. The Corsairs will visit Novi (3-6) next Friday.

Eagles' Owner Wolman Finds Buyer for Club

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The owner of the Philadelphia Eagles has revealed a conditional agreement to sell the National Football League team for more than $15 million, but he declines to disclose the name of the buyer.

Reports are that financially troubled Jerry Wolman is selling the team to Leonard Tose, a trucking executive from Norristown, Pa.

Wolman confirmed Friday that he had signed a conditional sale contract. But when he was reached at his Silver Spring, Md. home, he refused to identify the purchaser.

Undefeated Millington pulled away from visiting Imlay City in the closing half Friday night for its eighth straight triumph, 81-61.

Four players were in double figures for Millington, while Imlay City (1-5) also had four but they were grouped from 10-13 points led by Randy Whitkopf's 13.

Millington led, 38-31, at the intermission.

Chiefs Capture Sixth in Row, Hit 98 Points

Special to the Press

BAY CITY — The streaking Chiefs of Pontiac Central set a new school scoring record Friday night with another of their patented point sprees at Bay City Handy, registering a 98-46 triumph for their sixth straight win.

The PCH junior varsity set the pace with its record 94-74 win over Handy in the opener of the Saginaw Valley Conference clashes.

Unfortunately, the big win still leaves the Chiefs in second place since Flint Central won its fifth straight in the conference as league scoring leader Ken Brady notched 37 points in an easy 87-63 success at Midland.

★ ★ ★

Saginaw Arthur Hill stayed close behind PCH in the scrap for the runner-up berth with an 88-62 romp over Bay City Central, and Flint Northern trimmed Flint Southwestern, 72-61, in the other SVC tilt.

A field goal by Howard Welsh with 18 seconds remaining handed Flint Northwestern a 60-58 overtime victory at Saginaw in a nonleaguer.

QUICK MARGIN

At Bay City, Central ran off to a 16-0 lead before the host Wildcats managed their first point on Dave Kopec's free throw with nearly five minutes elapsed.

Tim Oettmeier managed Handy's first first field goal with 1:24 left in the quarter, and PCH led at the buzzer, 28-6. Monte Herring scored 11 points in the opening session for the winners. Seven players had at least one bucket for the winners during the period.

The lead continued to grow although the pace slowed in the second quarter. Senior Larry Walker came off the Chief's bench to his four baskets in the period.

★ ★ ★

At the half it was 47-20 for PCH. The alert Central defense again limited the Wildcats to one field goal in the next period. Anthony Styles sank 10 points for the Chiefs in the same eight minutes.

Reserves Dave Thomas, a junior, and Myron Brock, a sophomore, took over in the last quarter. Thomas had 10 of his 13 points and Brock 7 of his 10 in the session as both set personal point highs.

GOOD BALANCE

In all, six Chiefs were in double figures with Walker being the only senior in the group. Styles topped the lineup with 16 and Herring, who led the PCH domination of the backboards, finished with 15.

Central's 98 points top the previous school record of 93 set four years ago at Handy and equalled at BC Central last month. The Chiefs had one final desperation shot at the 100 mark but the try bounced off the rim.

Oettmeier tallied 19 for Handy who is 2-6 this season but winless in the league.

★ ★ ★

At Midland, Flint Central opened up a 40-33 intermission lead by scoring the final six points of the first half, then roared out of a comfortable margin by hitting the first seven points in the third quarter.

Brady had 9 points in the Indians' 13-point streak. He also contributed 21 rebounds to winners' performance.

Ski Title Taken by Traverse City

Traverse City St. Francis captured first place in both the boys' and girls' races Friday afternoon during a quadrangular prep ski meet at Mt. Holly.

Rochester's girls and West Bloomfield's boys were the runners-up, with St. Francis edging the Lakers' boys by only 2.2 seconds. Grayling was third among the boys and West Bloomfield was the third coed squad.

All-Stater Mary Sanborn and Tim Ameel paced Traverse City's victories with individual triumphs. Wendy Willis of Rochester was the only girl to keep pace with St. Francis' top three entries.

Rick Stanker and Kim Woodruff from West Bloomfield placed two-three behind Ameel.

Berkley, Hazel Park Need Rally to Surprise Southeastern Foes

SPARKS PNH—Guard Eddie Williams came off the bench last night to tally 19 points and spark Pontiac Northern to an 84-74 victory over Waterford Township.

Two upsets jolted the Southeastern Michigan Association's basketball race Friday night with Southfield and Hazel Park making it a four-team title chase.

Berkley provided one shock by upsetting Ferndale, the state's sixth-ranked Class A quintet in the weekly Associated Press prep poll, with a come-from-behind dash for a 53-51 verdict.

Royal Oak Kimball, tenth ranked in the poll, also took its first loss when Hazel Park rallied in the fourth quarter for a 61-45 decision.

Kimball and Ferndale thus remain tied for the top spot, standing 3-1 in the SEMA. Hazel Park joins Southfield — a 66-39 winner over Birmingham Seaholm — at 2-2 in third place.

HECTIC SCRAP

THE Vikings-ROK contest was a hectic one. Hazel Park took a 14-4 lead after one period and was still ahead by nine at the halftime.

But Kimball's Knights shot in front with a 23-10 third quarter spurt. Down 41-36, Hazel Park retaliated with a 24-4 advantage in the final quarter to stun the Knights.

Flashy guards Jim Merchel (25 points) and Al Petracich united for 41 ponts for the victors. Kimball's only double-figure scorer was Dave Jatho at 14. A 23-3 margin in free throws earned the win for Hazel Park.

Ferndale, who had been pulling out the close ones in beating its first seven rivals, ran out of luck against the strong shooting of Berkley's Jack Benning.

The Eagles held a 31-24 lead at the half. Benning, hitting for 16 of his 27 markers in the last half, spearheaded a rally by the Bears that caught Ferndale at 47 on Benning's jump shot midway through the fourth period.

He had eight straight points in the drive. For the night, Benning made 12 of 27 from the floor. Mike Statton was the Eagles' only big scorer, netting 17 points.

★ ★ ★

Raising its over-all mark to 10-3, Southfield trimmed Seaholm as 11 Blue Jays made the scoring column. Brad Allen's 13 points for Southfield led all scorers in the game.

The winners outshot Seaholm, 25-15, from the floor, and 16-9 at the foul stripe. The Maples sagged in the last part of each half.

FLINT (AP) — Coach Jim Smith of Flint's Carmen High School pulled out his ace scorer and rebounder Dan Pero in the third quarter of the team's 62-66 loss to Swartz Creek Friday night.

He reportedly thought Pero had fouled out, but it was discovered later Pero only had three fouls at the time. Up to that point Pero had scored 15 points and grabbed 12 rebounds.

No. 1 in Rebounding

DETROIT (AP) — Latest figures released from the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics show Michigan Lutheran College to be leading the nation's small college basketball teams in rebounding. Michigan Lutheran has grabbed 1,168 rebounds for a .644 percentage. The team is fourth in winning margin, beating opponents by an average of 24 points a game.

Pistons Continuing Surge

Detroit Halts Milwaukee; Barnes Spurs Celts' Win

By the Associated Press

The sputtering Detroit Pistons are finally sparking and spurting.

And with sparkling team play, the Pistons rose from a 79-78 deficit in the third period and got seven straight points to pull away Friday night in defeating Milwaukee, 123-108, in a National Basketball Association game.

★ ★ ★

It was the Pistons' third win in a row — their longest of the season — as they moved into the second half of the season in sixth place in the NBA's seven-team eastern division, 15½ games out of first place.

To gain a playoff spot, the Pistons need to climb to fourth place, at present held by New York. Eleven games separate them in the standings.

In Friday's game at Detroit's Cobo Arena, Hap Hairston led the Pistons' third-period rally, getting four of the points in the seven-point outburst. Detroit carried a 90-84 lead into the final period. Then Jimmy Walker, Walt Bellamy, Eddie Miles, Hairston and Howard Komives exploded, as Detroit soared to victory.

★ ★ ★

Hairston led Detroit with 27 points and 21 rebounds while Miles hit for 23 points. Flynn Robinson had 23 points for Milwaukee.

★ ★ ★

In another NBA game, Jim "Bad News" Barnes, injured 2½ weeks ago in a freak airport mishap, returned from the injured list and sparked Boston to a 102-99 win over San Francisco.

The brawny, 6-foot-8 veteran came off the bench in the fourth quarter and put in three big baskets as the third place Celtics remained one game behind Philadelphia and 1½ ahead of streaking New York in the Eastern Division race.

★ ★ ★

Barnes had missed nine games with multiple injuries after being caught in the exhaust of a jet engine and hurled 50 feet against a steel fence.

Walt Frazier's 27 points led the Knickerbockers past Seattle, 114-94, for their 15th triumph in 16 games and Hal Greer hit 27 as the 76ers trimmed San Diego, 129-124, in a Philadelphia doubleheader. Elsewhere, Atlanta topped Phoenix, 112-107, and Los Angeles beat Cincinnati, 128-107.

RECORD AHEAD — Oakland University's Steve Yedlin swims toward a new school record in the 1,000-yard freestyle against Buffalo State in the OU pool last night. The former Pontiac Northern tanker was timed in 11:32.6. He also won the 500 freestyle.

Jets, Colts Get Last Picks in Pro Draft

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Jets, out front of the pro football pack since their Super Bowl conquest of Baltimore, will take a back seat to the Colts and 24 other clubs for two days when the National and American leagues conduct their third combined draft.

The Jets, first AFL world championship team, will be the first from their league to pick last in the Jan. 28-29 draft, which appears certain to open with the selection of Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson of Southern California by the AFL Buffalo Bills.

WORST RECORD

The Bills get the No. 1 choice because they had the worst 1968 won-lost record in either league. Except for the Jets and the Colts, who pick next-to-last, all other teams will draft according to their won-lost percentages. Coin flips determined the first-round order for 10 deadlocked teams.

Brother Rice Bounces Back

Birmingham Brother Rice bounced back from its only loss of the season for a 68-54 frolic Friday night at Harper Woods Notre Dame as five Warriors bracketed their point production between 10 and 13 points.

★ ★ ★

Frank Lutostanski of Notre Dame took game honors with 18 points and teammate Gary Coakley had 15, but Brother Rice earned its 7th win in 8 outings with a balanced attack.

★ ★ ★

Don MacAloon and Kevin Keating notched 13 points each, Steve Jones sank six field goals for 12 points as did Mike Biallis, and Bill Hart produced 10 markers.

Ferris Shooter Downs OU

Mangham Hits 43 in Victory

Churchwell's Board Work Aids Visitor

By DON VOGEL

Jesse Mangham was the shooter on Flint Southwestern's basketball team for three seasons. Rudy Churchwell's main function at Pontiac Central was rebounding.

The two have continued these talents in college at Ferris State. Mangham poured in 43 points and 6-6 Churchwell came up with two clutch rebounds as the Bulldogs downed Oakland University, 88-75, last night in the Pioneers' gym.

★ ★ ★

OU will try to improve on its 4-6 record tonight at Hillsdale. Mangham is the main reason Ferris has a 7-2 mark.

He is the Bulldogs top scorer and his teammates see to it that the 6-5 junior forward has plenty of opportunities by constantly passing him the ball.

Mangham connected on 16 of 41 shots against OU and converted 11 of 14 free throws. He hit seven of the charity tosses in the final two-and-a-half minutes as the Pioneers repeatedly fouled while trying to gain possession.

This opened up an otherwise close game.

NINEREBOUNDS

Churchwell, a freshman, started and played about half the game. He pulled down nine rebounds and was instrumental in giving Ferris almost complete control of the backboards the last 10 minutes of the game.

He grabbed two straight missed shots by Mangham and went back up for layups both times to put Ferris ahead for good, 64-63, with 9:14 to play.

★ ★ ★

Oakland, led by Tom Allan, had a decided rebounding edge in the first half and led, 31-24, at one point. But the Bulldogs rallied to grab a 39-35 halftime lead.

OU opened a 57-49 advantage in the first seven minutes of the last half, but 6-5 John Eley fouled out and the boards went over to Ferris. The Bulldogs slowly pecked away at the lead as Churchwell and 6-3 Art Tetzlaff rebounded almost at will.

Three School Marks for OU Swimmers

Oakland University swimmers set three school records last night while posting their most impressive victory of the season.

The Pioneers swam past visiting Buffalo State, 67-46, with Steve Yedlin, Greg Allar and Rick Bishop establishing new OU standards.

★ ★ ★

It was the fifth victory against three losses for the Pioneers who are at Albion College today for a dual meet. Buffalo State is 3-2.

Yedlin stroked his way to a 25-yard victory over teammate Tom Davies in the 1,000-yard freestyle. His time of 11:32.6 clipped two seconds off the former school record set a year ago by Mike Campbell.

DOUBLE WINNER

Yedlin also won the 500 freestyle.

Allar's 2:18.2 in the 200 butterfly broke the oldest school record at OU. It was 2:18.4 set in 1965 by Leon Mellon. A new 200 backstroke standard of 2:13..8 was established by Bishop. The former mark was 2:13.2 set last year by Ed Engelhart, the swimmer Bishop beat last night.

★ ★ ★

Campbell won the 100 and 200 freestyles and Dick Reff of BSU captured the breaststroke and individual medley.

The Pioneers next home meet will be Jan. 24 against Loyola of Chicago and Kalamazoo College.

Oxford Falters in Road Game

2 Quintets Sharing League Lead

The Central Suburban basketball league lead continued to be a hot item Friday night but Oxford's Wildcats weren't in on the juggling.

Lutheran East dropped Madison Heights Lamphere from the No. 1 slot with a 67-59 victory, and joined Chippewa Valley atop the race after the Mount Clemens' quintet upended Harper Woods, 60-53.

Both the leaders are now 3-1, while Lamphere is 3-2.

SINKS LOWER

Oxford, however, sank into the basement at 1-4 when Warren Woods sent the visiting Wildcats home with an 80-60 beating. It was only the second league triumph for Warren Woods.

Oxford only trailed, 59-53, early in the final quarter, but the Warriors suddenly erupted and outscored the losers, 21-7, the rest of the way.

★ ★ ★

Both teams made 43 per cent of their field goal tries. However, the winners had a 10-point edge both in baskets and free throws.

Chuck Kohn of the Warriors scored 20 of his 25 points in the final half, while Dave Gemmel's six buckets in the third quarter highlighted his 16-point night for Oxford.

Fouls Hurt Cranes in Loss to C. Day

Winless Cranbrook battled improving Country Day for three periods but the departure of four starters on personal fouls led to a 74-67 defeat for the Cranes last night.

★ ★ ★

The host Yellow Jackets erupted for a 20-12 final period advantage to hand the Cranbrook squad its sixth loss of the campaign. Country Day now has won three straight for a 5-2 log.

★ ★ ★

Senior Jack Zewmer and cool sophomore Mike Page each tallied 22 points for Country Day, and Mitch Hanson chipped in with 17.

Oneal Sanders' 16 and Scott Babcox's 14 paced Cranbrook. The Cranes actually made one more field goal than Country Day, but the winners hit 16 of 32 charity tosses while Cranbrook was held to 13 attempts and 6 points.

Miller Barber Forges Ahead in Kaiser Open

NAPA, Calif. (AP)—Miller Barber, a plump bespectacled pro from Sherman, Tex., recovered from a bogey on the first hole to post a five-under-par 67 Friday and take a one-stroke second round lead at the $135,000 Kaiser International Open Golf Tournament.

Barber's 36-hole total at the Silverado Country Club was 135, nine strokes under par, one stroke ahead of Bruce Devlin of Australia. Two strokes behind the leader was the ever-dangerous Arnold Palmer.

Devlin shot a five-under-par 67 on the shorter but tougher South Course, a par 72 layout stretching 6,602 yards.

Barber and Palmer played the 6,849-yard North Course, which also is par 72. Arnie shot a 68 for his 137 total.

Tied in fourth place were Bob Lunn, the first-round leader from Sacramento, Calif., who shot 65 Thursday but skied to 73 Friday, and Charles Coody, who had a 68 as both had 138 at the midway point.

Bunched at 139 was a flock including Lee Trevino, Gene Littler, and Jacky Cupit.

Peggy Wilson 4 Shots Ahead

MIAMI (AP)—Peggy Wilson fired a sizzling five-under par 67 Friday to forge a four-stroke lead in the first round of the richest women's golf tournament ever, the $35,000 Burdine's LPGA Invitational.

Cynthia Hill, a University of Miami junior who is one of 1 amateurs battling 35 pros, managed a hole in one, but ended the day in a four-way tie for second.

Miss Wilson, from Boca Raton, Fla., carded a 35-32 despite strong winds on the 6,434 yard, par 36-36 Country Club of Miami course.

Debut Is Tough for OCC Mentor

Dick Osgood, ex-Michigan States winner who just took over the swimming post at Oakland Community College, had a tough assignment for his debut.

Competing in a triangular at Grand Rapids, the host Junior College team outclassed St. Clair and OCC with 108 points. St. Clair JC had 37 and Oakland 13.

Top time was posted by Chuck Seidelman in the 200 ind. medley with 2:17.1. Best time for the local Community College squad was Dave Pyke's third place time of 2:37.2 in the 200 backstroke.

Prayer for Unity Week Begins

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity in Pontiac begins tomorrow with the sixth annual Ecumenical Bible Service sponsored by the Pontiac Area Council of Churches and Area Council of Church and the Roman Catholic churches of the community.

The program will be held at 7:30 p.m. in First Presbyterian Church, Huron at Wayne.

★ ★ ★

The service has become a model for other services now being held throughout Michigan, the Rev. Jack H. C. Clark, executive director of the council, said.

Archbishop John F. Dearden of the Detroit Catholic Archdiocese, heralded the Pontiac service as "the way to do it" in observing the annual Christian Unity event.

Chairmen of the service are the Rev. Edmond I. Watkins, pastor of Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Charles Rooney, associate pastor of St. Michael Catholic Church.

LAYMAN SPEAKS

Departing from the tradition of having three speakers, each from a different denomination, the featured speaker this year will be a well known Negro Catholic layman, William Hawkins, director of Community and Social Development for the Metropolitan Detroit Citizens' Development Authority.

Lyndon Salathiel, organist at First Presbyterian, will play "Prelude and Fugue in E "Rigauion" by Campau.

The Pontiac Choir Union will be joined by the Orchard Lake Seminary Choir in choral numbers.

★ ★ ★

Others participating in the service include the Rev. Amos Johnson, New Nethel Baptist Church; the Rev. Ronald Tallman, associate pastor of Central United Methodist Church; Father Rooney; the Rev. Mr. Watkins; the Rev. Mario Giulio, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church; the Rev. Tom Wilson, associate pastor of All Saints Episcopal Church; and the Rev. Costas J. Kouklis, pastor of St. George Greek Orthodox Church.

Church Women United of Pontiac and the board of deacons of First Presbyterian Church will serve as hosts for the coffee hour which follows.

All interested individuals are welcome to attend.

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP

The "Week of Prayer for Christian Unity" will be observed in Our Lady of the Lakes Catholic Church, 5481 Dixie Highway at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

The evening will emphasize the unity Christians have in Christ.

The Rev. Roy Lambert of Lakeland United Presbyterian Church will lead hymn singing. The Rev. Crea M. Clark of the Church of the Atonement will deliver the meditation.

Other ministers participating include the Rev. John Cooperrider, Ascension Lutheran Church; the Rev. Timothy Hickey, Trinity United Methodist; and the Rev. Ronald Rein, Mt. Hope Lutheran.

Others are the Rev. Gerald Switzer, Christ of the Lakes Lutheran; the Rev. Ronald Tallman, associated pastor of Central United Methodist; and the Rev. Lawrence Kaiser, assistant pastor at Our Lady of the Lakes Church.

Discussion with an hour of fellowship and refreshments will follow.

Mr. Watkins is president of the Pontiac Area Council of Churches, cosponsor with Roman Catholic churches of the community.

IN VIETNAM — During service on the Landing Zone at Vandergrift Combat Base, South Vietnam, Chaplain Wallace B. Turner (right) baptises Corp. Antony Cleaton of Los Angeles, Calif. Chaplain Turner, a member of Grace Lutheran Church and former Pontiac resident, makes his home with his family in El Toro, Calif.

Turner Conducts Baptism

When Corp. Antony Cleaton of South Los Angeles, Calif. was baptised in Vietnam during a worship service of Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, he became a member of Christ Lutheran Church Military in Washington, D.C. until his return to the States.

He will receive a personal letter welcoming him to membership. Tracts and spiritual publications will also be mailed him.

★ ★ ★

Where families are stationed at military bases abroad, Sunday School materials are sent to children, from cradle roll to confirmation class.

★ ★ ★

A quarterly letter is sent to parents, birthday cards and special magazines to children.

Chaplain Wallace B. Turner of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod baptised Corp. Cleaton.

Turner grew up in Pontiac and served Grace Lutheran Church under Pastor Richard C. Stuckmeyer.

★ ★ ★

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner of 2930 Old Orchard, Waterford Township.

★ ★ ★

Some 1,400 persons are enrolled in Christ Church Military, Chaplain Turner reported.

The Rev. Edgar J. Mundinger is pastor of the overseas membership.

Guest Speaks

Mrs. Christine Page of Johnson Temple will speak at the 7 p.m. service sponsored by the Missionary Society of South Side Church of God, Motor at Nebraska. The sextet of the host church will provide musical selections.

Preachers, Soloists Appear at Services

The Rev. James MacDonald, pastor of First Baptist Church in Spring Lake and missionary appointee to Italy, will be guest speaker for the Teen Banquet at Calvary Baptist Church, 3750 Pontiac Lake, Waterford Township, at 6:30 tonight.

★ ★ ★

Gilbert Kerr will be master of ceremonies. A magician, skits and music also will be featured. Junior and senior high Sunday School teachers will be honored guests.

The Rev. Mr. MacDonald, pastor in America for 24 years, will tell why he has accepted a call to be pastor in Italy when he speaks at the 9:45 a.m. Sunday School, and 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. worship services.

★ ★ ★

Last summer MacDonald and his wife visited a servicemen's center in Naples on their trip to the Middle East. He saw a great need for a church for the thousands of English speaking Navy personnel and their families stationed in Naples.

When the MacDonalds returned home they couldn't forget about the need in Naples. About 10,000 Navy personnel with their families are stationed in the seaport city.

He will serve with the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission Society of Wheaton, Ill.

Bloomfield Hills Baptist

Howard Correll, song evangelist and soloist, will lead the singing at the 11 a.m. worship and at 6 p.m. tomorrow in Bloomfield Hills Baptist Church, Bloomfield Township.

★ ★ ★

Born in Toronto, Ont., Correll began his career as a concert artist after training at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto under George Lambert.

Featured on radio programs, as the "Singing Stars of Canada" he was heard over the Trans Canada Network of CBC. He has appeared as soloist with the Toronto Symphony & Mendelssohn Choir. Presently Correll devotes his life to the ministry of music singing at citywide campaigns, church meetings and sacred concerts.

Waterford Community

Johnny Ambrose, well-known Canadian tenor, will appear at Waterford Community Church, Airport and Olympic Parkway, Waterford Township at both the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services.

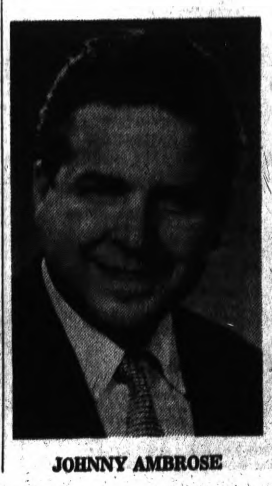

★ ★ ★

Ambrose known for his radio and television work as well as recordings, will present a sacred concert in the evening worship hour.

He will also give his life story "From Night Clubs to Christ."

25th Birthday Is Celebrated

Lutheran Church Starts With Handbill

The congregation of Gethsemane Lutheran Church will celebrate its 25th anniversary with varied activities throughout the year beginning tomorrow.

Services will be held at 8:30 and 10:45 a.m. with the Rev. Norman Kirk of Decatur, Ind., guest speaker and Pastor William Otten, officiant.

★ ★ ★

Gethsemane Church really had its beginning on May 7, 1939 when a handbill announced Sunday School would be held in a rented church building on Harrison in Avon Township-Brooklands.

★ ★ ★

Ed Swartzkoff was Sunday School superientendent.

★ ★ ★

The first worship service was that evening.

A minister in Rochester was assigned the task of founding a congregation.

BUY BUILDING

In 1941 a white frame church building was purchased in Detroit, moved to a site at Auburn and Dequindre and dedicated on April 19, 1942.

The Rev. E. N. Schule was called as pastor on Oct. 7, 1945.

★ ★ ★

The Gethsemane Church received its paper of incorporation on Dec. 26, 1944 from the State of Michigan.

Phoenixlike Nixon Shuns Old Controversy, Seeks Consensus

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard Milhous Nixon, returned from the politically dead to become 37th president of the United States, is shunning the controversies of yesteryear in a new search for consensus.

Whereas Republican Nixon takes office with the good will and proffered assistance of Democrat Lyndon Johnson, back in the 1950s Democrat Harry S. Truman threatened to punch him on sight.

More remarkable is the fact that he sits in the White House just six years after many politicians and commentators presided at what they were certain was his political autopsy.

The Nixon career has been marked by obstacles encountered and, one way or another, overcome.

ECONOMIC DISTRESS

His Quaker parents, Frank and Hannah Nixon, never knew dire poverty yet flirted frequently with economic distress, because of ambitious plans gone awry and costly illnesses that claimed the lives of two of their five sons.

The frame house where Nixon was born at Yorba Linda, Calif., on Jan. 9, 1913, sat in the middle of a failing lemon grove his father had planted. The elder Nixon, a rolling stone and man of many jobs, sold the porperty years before it produced oil enough to have made him a millionaire.

The Nixons then moved to the Los Angeles suburb of Whittier — founded as a utopian colony for Quakers — and set up the town's only gasoline station. The enterprise later was expanded when Frank Nixon converted an abandoned meeting house nearby into a general store.

Richard Nixon, as a schoolboy, pumped gas and operated the vegetable counter at the store.

A BENCH-WARMER

Odd jobs did not claim all of Nixon's spare moments. Both in high school and college he sought glory on the football field — one goal that did not fall before his persistence. Nixon warmed the bench.

Part-time jobs, a scholarship and some help from the family enabled Nixon to graduate from Whittier College and the Duke University Law School. He was elected student body president at each, excelled on the debating teams and won high scholastic honors.

★ ★ ★

With law degree in hand, Nixon considered becoming an FBI agent and was promised an interview with J. Edgar Hoover. Instead he returned to Whittier and worked in a private law firm headed by the Republican city attorney.

As a young lawyer, Nixon was a diligent "joiner" of civic clubs and local prominence as a trustee of Whittier College and president of the alumni association.

HE MET PAT

Nixon was interested in amateur theatricals, a circumstance that led to a meeting with Thelma Catherine (Pat) Ryan, a strawberry blonde Whittier High School teacher who had played walk-on parts in two Hollywood films. He was 25 and quick to propose marriage to her. She was in no hurry so they waited a couple of years, until 1940.

With the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, Nixon offered his services to the federal government and moved to Washington to help set up rubber rationing for the wartime Office of Price Administration. Pat Nixon went to work for Uncle Sam, too.

★ ★ ★

After a few weeks in the capital, Nixon sought a Navy commission, although as a Quaker he could have claimed exemption from active service. The commission was granted in the summer of 1942.

While still wearing the uniform of a lieutenant commander, Nixon entered politics in 1946 by invitation — not through his own initiative.

'NIXON'S THE ONE'

Republicans back in Whittier were seeking a candidate to challenge a 10-year House Veteran, Jerry Voorhis; they even ran a help-wanted advertisement in a local newspaper. Someone suggested "Nixon's the one" and he flew home for a job interview; he got the assignment — not a particularly eviable one inasmuch as Voorhis was well-entrenched and popular with Republicans as well as Democrats.

The campaign transformed Nixon into a controversial political figure — and a winner.

Repeatedly, the Nixon vote-seeking effort focused on a claim — denied by Voorhis — that the embattled congressman was the choice of the CIO Political Action Committee and, futher, that the PAC was a tool of communism.

The Republican challenger, winning by 65,586 votes to 49,994, argued that "Our campaign was a very honest debate on the issues." Since Voorhis was known to be anti-Communist, Nixon critics were quick to accuse him of capitalizing the below-the-belt tactics — a charge that was to be repeated in the years ahead.

THE HISS CASE

Nixon easily won reelection, with the nomination of both parties, in 1948 — a year that saw him play a leading role in the investigation of Alger Hiss, former State Department official accused before the House Committee on Un-American Activities of having links to Communist spy ring. Hiss, who denied the allegation, subsequently was convicted of perjury and served a federal prison term.

In 1950, after barely three years in the House, Nixon challenged Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas, a liberal Democrat, for the Senate. Nixon won with better than 59 per cent of the vote but again was accused of unfair campaign tactics. He linked the House voting record of Mrs. Douglas with that of the then-Rep. Vito Marcantonio of New York, who was often pictured as following the Communist party line.

After serving 18 months in the Senate, Nixon was thrust onto the national political stage by a political amateur, Dwight D. Eisenhower. As the 1952 Republican presidential candidate, Eisenhower asked national convention delegates to nominate Nixon for vice president. They did so, by acclamation.

In the autumn, the Eisenhower-Nixon campaign was gathering the momentum of a runaway freight train when the New York Post disclosed that a group of California businessmen had contributed $18,235 to a fund aimed at helping Nixon meet the expenses of public office. Some GOP leaders urged that the vice presidential candidate be dumped from the ticket.

The crisis reached a climax when Nixon, deciding to make a fight of it, went on national television to defend himself.

Eisenhower, impressed by his running mate's emotional defense, kept Nixon in the race.

At 39, Nixon became the youngest vice president in 96 years. And Eisenhower assigned to him a larger role than any other occupant of the office. During their two terms together, the Prisident sent Nixon as his emissary to 56 countries — travel that sometimes was dramatic, sometimes dangerous, sometimes merely tedious.

In Moscow, the youthful vice president argued ideology with Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev in a much-reported and impromptu kitchen debate" that took place in an exhibit of a model American kitchen.

AS EASY CHOICE

The Republican National Convention of 1960 did not have much difficulty arriving at Nixon as the party's choice to succeed Eisenhower.

Ironically, a key factor in Nixon's defeat was his decision to join Kennedy in a series of televised debates.

Trying to put his political career back together, Nixon went after the next available high position — governor of California in 1962. But the incumbent Democrat, Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, prevailed by 297,758 votes.

In the end, Nixon invited himself back into politics. He campaigned vigoriously for GOP candidates in 1964 and 1966, building a reservoir of good will among the party faithful. He entered six presidential primaries in 1968 and won them all.

With the coming of the autumn campaign against Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, Nixon was determined to avoid past mistakes.

The cautious approach carried the day — but not by much. Yet Richard Nixon is no less the president that if he had won in a walk. And having achieved the office so long sought, Nixon is determined not to "blow it."
