Chrysler Gets Orders to Push Missile Output

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

The Pentagon has given the green light to erection of a complete production line for Army Jupiter missiles at Chrysler Corp.'s plant in Warren.

Latest firing of a Jupiter weapon on May 18 apparently figured in the decision, a Defense Department official told newsmen.

The Army reported the firing a "complete success" after bringing a full-size nose cone back through the atmosphere and into the target area 1,600 miles from the firing point.

The 1,600-mile Jupiter, an intermediate range ballistic missile (IRBM), now will be turned out in volume production at both the Chrysler plant and the Army's Redstone Arsenal in Alabama, where the Jupiter was developed by Army and Chrysler technicians.

Chrysler Corp. today said it would hire about 100 employes a week over the next months for work at its government-owned Sterling Township missiles plant.

A prime contractor for both the Army Redstone missile and the later-developed Jupiter, Chrysler said both missiles have been in production at the Sterling plant for some time, although Jupiter production has not yet reached its expected peak rate.

Chrysler has been hiring about 100 a week ever sibce it got a $52 million Redstone and Jupiter production contract at the beginning of this year.

About 7,500 persons are now employed at the plant, where 5,500 worked in January, and Chrysler said it expects to have 10,000 working there by the end of this year.

"Manpower needs of missiles production require a hiring program that calls for 25 per cent qualified engineering personnel, 40 per cent qualified technical personnel," the company said.

The remaining 35 per cent needed are hourly rated and salaried persons ranging from the highly skilled to the unskilled.

AMC Contract Extension OK'd

Auto Union Returns to Bargaining Tables at General Motors, Ford

DETROIT (UPI) — The United Auto Workers yesterday agreed to a contract extension with American Motors Corp. and today returned to the bargaining tables at General Motors and Ford.

GM, Ford and Chrysler last weekend all turned down contract extension requests by the UAW. Monday the half-million workers of the "Big Three" began working without a contract.

The Big Three denied contract extensions to increase industry resistance to UAW demands.

But Edward L. Cushman, industrial relations vice president of American Motors (AMC), said AMC "historically never followed pattern bargaining and will not do so now."

AMC's contract was due to expire June 15. The extension agreement says either party must give 10 days notice to cancel the contract. Cushman and UAW Vice President Norman Matthews said the contract cannot be cancelled before June 25.

The extension continues all conditions of the contract. But the 12,000 AMC workers who got their last cost-of-living pay increase March 2, get no further pay increases.

While both AMC and the UAW said the contract extension was a matter of principle, it was also a practical move for both sides.

The UAW yesterday was publicizing early successes in dues collecting. At Local 235, Chevrolet Gear and Axle, Detroit, 500 of the 5,000 members have already paid June dues.

U. of M. Study Planned

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The University of Michigan's Legislative Research Center will undertake a two-year study of the legal problems of metropolitan areas. The study will be financed by $60,000 from the William W. Cook endowment fund of the law school.

De Gaulle Given Hero's Welcome by Insurgents

Greeted in Algeria by Top-Ranking Officers Who Sparked Revolt

ALGIERS (AP) — Premier de Gaulle landed in Algeria today for a fateful meeting with the French insurgents who seized control of the vast North African territory.

A tumultuous hero's welcome awaited the World War II leader brought back to power by the insurgency of French colonists and military chief in Algeria.

Waiting beside the runway were Gen. Raoul Salan, the top insurgent commander, and all the other leading military men and civilians of the Public Safety Committee now ruling Algeria.

Dressed in a sack-fitting general's uniform, the usually grim de Gaulle beamed as he stepped from the 500-mile-an-hour jetliner.

After the usual playing of the "Marseillaise" and review of troop units, De Gaulle went down the line of military leaders, shaking hands, and the insurgent leaders were introduced to him.

Tremendous cheers went up from the huge crowd, which broke through police lines at several points. However, the crowds were quickly pushed back.

Many, many more thousands awaited him along the 15-mile route into Algiers, and in the city's streets. The crowds had begun massing almost three hours before his arrival.

The general carried with him France's hopes that he can reunite the rebellious French in Algeria with the motherland and also that he can make a start toward settling the costly, bloody Moslem war for independence.

25 Special County Deputies to Patrol Busy Lakes in Area

By HARRY REED
City Editor, Pontiac Press

Twenty-five special Oakland County Deputies will soon be patrolling some of the busiest area lakes, bent on enforcing the new state law on boat registration and cracking down on careless boat operation.

Following a two-week training course under the instruction of Oakland County Sheriff Frank Irons and Robert Long of the Oakland County Prosecutor's office, the volunteer fledgling deputies will take up their water safety work.

Patrols will be working primarily on holidays and weekends, but since the special deputies are all residents of the lake community they will serve, they can be in action any time.

The men were selected by the property owner associations around the lakes, bonded and uniformed by the association, and screened by Irons. Patrols will be made in their own boats, clearly marked for police purposes.

Their job will be to curb recklessness and enforce the law which requires a state-issued registration number on all boats permanently or temporarily equipped with motors.

They will be armed with a specially drawn up traffic ticket for boat-operating offenders. Oakland County Justice Court Coordinator Gerald A. Terrien designed the new ticket, which is similar to traffic tickets now in use on the highways.

Primary intent of the registration law was to bring some order to the chaos on many of Michigan's lakes brought about by the increased popularity of boating as a sport and hobby.

With the upsurge of boat ownership and use, the lakes were becoming almost as dangerously congested as many of the highways, many Lansing lawmakers felt.

They saw the registration as a deterrent to reckless boat operators, who might be positively identified and prosecuted through the numbers on their boat.

Boat registration numbers are obtained by filling out an application available at either the sheriff's office or the Secretary of State's Office, and sending it to the Michigan Secretary of State in Lansing, with a $2 registration fee.

Boats which already bear a U.S. Coast Guard identification number need not be registered, and the registration is good for the life of the boat, or until it is sold or destroyed.

Exceptions listed in the law are boats propelled by muscular power, those less than 16 feet not permanently or temporarily equipped with a motor, and U. S. government boats.

The law the new deputies will be enforcing declares the operation of a boat while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotics illegal, and also covers the waterway equivalent of "reckless driving."

Included in the law is a section forbidding water skiing one hour after sunset, or an hour before sunrise.

"We cannot man every one of Oakland County's 423 lakes, but we can do our best to cut down the injuries, drownings, and near-drownings on many of the major lakes by this volunteer patrol work," Irons said.

I heartily urge all boat owners to cooperate with the special deputies, who are on the lakes to make them safe for all users.

"Our lakes are to be enjoyed by swimmers, skiers, sailers, fishermen and motor boat driv-

Planning to Act in Michigan but Method Unsure

Politicians Hassle Over Different Programs for Replenishing Fund

From Our News Wires

LANSING—Majority Republican legislative spokesmen and Gov. Williams vow speedy relief for unemployed Michigan workers whose jobless pay checks run out.

But the weekly amount of extended unemployment benefits, their duration and how to meet the cost—possibly 27 million dollars—were left high in the air after a two hour confab yesterday.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams and eight legislators, including four Republican leaders, agreed yesterday something must be done to provide supplemental payments to unemployed workers who have exhausted their normal benefits.

But the Republicans refused to endorse Williams' plan for providing the additional benefits and also refused to disclose any plan of their own.

It was learned, however, that the Republican leaders favored a program which would cost an estimated $13,000,000 to $15,000,000, a compromise between the federal program, which would cost an estimated $27,000,000, and the Faulkner Plan, a program now before the Senate Appropriations Committee which would cost about $8,630,000.

The main difference between the federal plan and the Smeekens-Van Peursem-Nakkula Plan which is favored by the Republican leaders is that the state would have control of the plan under the latter.

Airport Will Get Funds to Build

State Aero Commission Guarantees $218,000 for Terminal, Expansion

Pontiac Municipal Airport will get the $218,000 it planned on for a new terminal building and other expansion this year.

This was guaranteed by the Michigan Aeronautics Commission, which last night allocated $140,000 in available federal funds and $20,000 in state funds for the local project.

The $20,000 coupled with $50,000 already set aside by the commission for Pontiac brings the total state share up to the amount necessary to attract the maximum amount of federal aid proposed here.

The federal aid program is financed 50 per cent by the federal government, 25 per cent by the state and 25 per cent from local sources.

The legislature had allocated only $20,000 for Pontiac this year, meaning that under the formula, the total amount to be spent would be $80,000, or $200,000 less than hoped for.

James Ramsey, commission director, said that the aeronautics board dipped into reserve funds for $50,000 in order to bring up the total state allocation.

Ike Asks Federal Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today signed a bill providing emergency federal financing for additional jobless relief payments by the states. Immediately, Eisenhower sent to Congress a request for an extra appropriation of $665,700,000 to be used mainly for payments to those whose benefits have been exhausted.

179th Epsom Derby

Hard Ridden Is Winner

EPSOM, England (AP) — Sir Victor Sassoon's Hard Ridden won the 179th Epsom Derby today, with Paddy's Point second in a field of 20 horses.

There was a photo for third place, and when the picture was studied the judges gave the decision to Nagami over Boroco II.

Charlie Smirke, who had won the derby three times previously, rode Hard Ridden, who was trained in Ireland by J. Rogers.

Sir Victor won the 1957 derby with Crepello, and with Pinza in 1953.

City Pastors Association Asks End of Sunday Beer

Sparked by a stormy session of the City Commission, a move was under way in the Pontiac Pastors Assn. today to end Sunday sale of beer and wine here.

Members of the association were laying plans to marshall support behind a resolution that tied up the Commission in an hour's heated debate last night.

With Mayor William W. Donaldson pleading for unity, the matter was tabled two weeks for a decision. Pastors promised to come back then in force.

Rev. Duncan D. McColl, association president and pastor of First Christian Church, said he would call church leaders together and suggest the association take an official stand.

"I believe the majority of church people would like to see taverns and clubs closed Sundays," he told the Commission. "If sale of beer and wine were prohibited then, it would certain-

Dodgers Stadium Scraping By

Democrat Brown Victorious in California Primary Election

By United Press International

California Attorney General Edmund G. Brown ran up an impressive combined vote over Sen. William F. Knowland in the highlight of three gubernatorial primary elections yesterday.

But Brown's surprising victory over the Senate minority leader was overshadowed in the Golden Gate state by a tremendous turnout in Los Angeles inspired by the bitterly contested referendum election on the Los Angeles Dodgers Chavez Ravine Stadium site.

Latest returns indicated that the Los Angeles electorate had approved a city contract giving the erstwhile Brooklyn baseball team 315 choice acres of land for a new stadium. Returns from 4,519 of the city's 4,519 precincts showed 56,091 affirmative votes against 52,466 negatives.

However, officials said the final vote would not be tabulated until later in the day.

In other gubernatorial primaries, Alabama Attorney General John Patterson defeated Circuit Judge George Wallace in a runoff of their May 6 race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Since the Democratic nomination in Alabama is tantamount to election, Patterson seemed assured of succeeding Gov. James E. Folsom.

In South Dakota, Attorney General Phil Saunders won the Republican gubernatorial nomination over two opponents. He now faces Democrat Ralph Herseth, a farmer, in the gubernatorial contest to replace Gov. Joe Foss, who is ineligible to run for re-election.

The national spotlight, however, was focused on California. Many observers viewed the primary as Knowland's first hurdle in a possible bid for the Republican Presidential nomination in 1960 or 1964.

Under California's unique cross-filing system, the primary amounted to a "popularity" con test between Knowland and Brown. Each candidate filed on the opposite ticket as well as his own, thereby giving Republicans a chance to vote for Brown and Democrats the opportunity to cast ballots for Knowland.

Returns from 16,500 out of 26,363 precincts gave Brown a combined total of 1,143,875 votes to 723,921 for Knowland..

Brown hailed the election as "a victory for progressive leadership against radical conservatism."

Knowland, meanwhile, expressed confidence he would be elected governor in November.

Plan to 'Educate' Drivers on New School Bus Law

LANSING (UPI) — State traffic officials plan to "educate" Michigan drivers to obey the state's new two-way stop or school buses law even before it becomes effective.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett pointed out at a State Safety Commission meeting yesterday that the new law will not take effect until after the new school year begins next September.

"What are we going to do—let motorists start the school term under the old one-way stop or try to enforce a law that won't be effective?" Bartlett asked the commission.

All school buses will be marked for the two-way stop before the school term begins and state highways will be marked with signs informing motorists they are required to stop when a school bus stops, regardless of whether they are approaching the bus from the rear or from the front.

Showers to Drench Area Tomorrow

The weather outlook for Pontiac tonight is partly cloudy and a little warmer, with the low about 62.

Tomorrow will be mostly cloudy with scattered showers and thundershowers. A high of 80 is predicted. Scattered showers are promised tomorrow night with the low about 54.

For the next five days temperatures will average around six degrees above the normal high of 76 and the normal low of 56. Friday will be cooler with the weekend warmer.

Precipitation will total around one inch in scattered showers and thunderstorms Thursday and Sunday.

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 56 degrees. The thermometer said 78 at 1 p.m.

City Pastor to Address Pontiac Central Seniors

"What's the Big Idea?" will be the question the Rev. Karl Ostberg, associate pastor of the First Congregational Church, will propose to 410 Pontiac Central High School seniors Sunday when he is the main speaker at the baccalaureate service.

The service, to be held at the Central Methodist Church, 38 E. Huron St., will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. D. D. McColl, pastor of the First Christian Church, will deliver the invocation following the processional.

Charles A. Wilson, Jr. will play the organ prelude, "Voluntary in C Major" and "Trumpet Voluntary," both by Purcell.

Prior to the scripture reading by Rev. McColl, the audience will sing the hymn, "Come, Thou Almighty King."

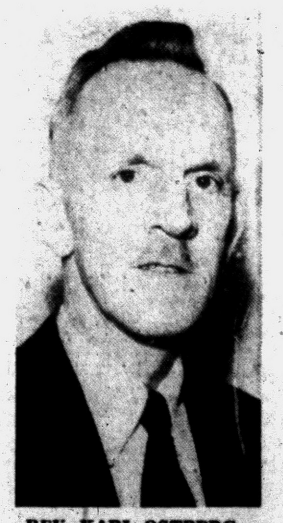

The high school a capella choir, under the direction of George H. Putnam, will sing the anthem "To Thee We Sing," followed by a prayer by the Rev. Carl W. Nelson, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church.

The "Seven-Fold Amen," by Stainer and the offertory anthem, "The Lord is My Shepherd," by Noble Cain will precede Rev. Ostberg's sermon.

Rev. Nelson will give the benediction after the audience has sung "Faith of Our Fathers."

The students, who will graduate June 12, will then march to the recessional "Chorale," by Boellmann.

Plan to Appeal Tax Allocation

Independence Township Aroused Over Levy Set by Oakland Board

For the second time in two years, Independence Township has given notice it will appeal its 1958 tax allocation handed down Monday by the Oakland County Tax Allocation Board.

Supervisor Duane Hursfall said he was instructed by the five-member township board last night to appeal the allocation of $1.32 for every thousand dollars of equalized valuation.

Hursfall said he was "burned up" that the allocation board didn't consult with him before trimming the township's preliminary allocation of $1.80 down 48 cents.

When the county board released its final rates Monday, Independence was the only township among 20 which had its preliminary rate changed. Board Chairman William J. Emerson said the 48 cents was passed on to the township schools.

"I feel the county made the gain and not the schools," said Hursfall.

Back in 1956 Independence Township won its appeal to the State Tax Commission. It received an additional 0.6 mill. The allocation board had granted 1.32 mills.

The decision then meant the loss of millage for three school districts tied to the township.

The 1958 six-member allocation board boosted the preliminary rate of $7.45 per $1,000 for Independence schools to $8.06, which reflects the 48 cents taken from the township allocation and another 13 cents which most of the school districts received from a trimmed county rate.

Showers Still Hopping Around Across Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation's weather pattern showed only minor changes today, a continuation of showers in scattered areas and mostly fair in the Northeastern third of the country.

Warm and humid weather also continued in many parts of the South while southerly winds held temperatures near 80 degrees during the night as far north as central Nebraska. In cooler air to the north and west, readings were mostly in the 40s and 50s from the northern Rockies into North Dakota.

Except for light showers in Northern Michigan, dry weather was the rule from the Great Lakes region eastward into New England and southward through the Ohio Valley. Showers sprinkled parts of Virginia and near the Carolina coast and there were thundershowers in the Gulf states.

Hurt Feelings Smoothed Over

UAW Agrees to Let GM Host Talks

DETROIT (UPI) — The United Auto Workers today has soothed the injured feelings of General Motors, a generous but sensitive host at the bargaining table for 20 years.

Early last Friday morning, UAW President Walter P. Reuther stalked from the bargaining room on the fifth floor of the General Motors Building and announced GM had turned down the union demands and cancelled the union contract.

Reuther ruefully admitted there wasn't much he could do about it. But he said if this was the way the company was going to act, the UAW no longer was going to come over to the General Motors' building to talk about contracts.

For 20 years, Reuther said, the UAW has been a polite and humble guest, giving up the homey conveniences to come to General Motors, leaving its staff and office equipment clear across town in Solidarity House. Hereafter, Reuther said, the meetings would be on neutral ground.

FEELINGS HURT

None of the cruel things Reuther said about GM's bargaining attitude ruffled the placid feathers of GM Vice President Louis G. Seaton. But, Seaton told newsmen, he was "hurt" by the unkind remarks about the accommodations.

Monday morning Seaton hurried to a meeting with a union delegation. Wages, benefits, profits for the moment were forgotten. What could he do to make his guest more comfortable? Seaton wanted to know.

Offices? Seaton promised four more. Parking places? Seaton promised at least six. The refrigerator in the union caucus room, the host pointed out, was already full of soft drinks and fruit juice, the strongest the law allows. The company has fresh coffee, doughnuts and sandwiches sent in continuously.

The UAW's E. S. Patterson was firm. The UAW would not darken GM's door again, a subcommittee must be named to look over sites at three downtown hotels.

But by yesterday Seaton's sorrow had softened the union hearts. The UAW agreed to return today if it was given extra office space and is allowed to share the cost of "incidental expenses," including buying its own coffee and doughnuts. The union had its pride, too.

"The coffee concession is the first given up by the company since we started bargaining nine weeks ago," quipped a union spokesman.

In Speaking on Alaska Statehood

Hoffman Slaps at Reuther

WASHINGTON (AP) — Walter Reuther is not only the favorite foe of Rep. Clare E. Hoffman (R-Mich) he is the fiery, 82-year-old congressman's favorite subject.

A recent House speech by Hoffman ostensibly was in opposition to statehood for Alaska. But he wound up talking more about the president of the United Auto Workers Union than anything else.

Although Hoffman started by contending the citizens of Alaska really don't want statehood, he rapidly shifted from Alaska to the Detroit redhead.

Hoffman told Democrats not to expect political gain from the admission of traditionally Democratic Alaska to statehood.

"We are told that Alaska bows the knee to Reuther," said Hoffman, adding:

"We will not get any Democratic senators from Alaska . . . If you admit Alaska, Reuther will name the senators from that state . . .

"If the Democratic party thinks for one moment it will get two Democratic senators if Alaska is admitted, it should think again . . . you may get socialists at best — something else at the worst."

The white-maned congressman moved quickly in his Alaska speech to cover these topics:

Reuther and the recession: "He has been attending the school of experience. The lesson is bitter — difficult for him to accept. He has found that employers are necessary if people are to have jobs."

Reuther and Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan: " . . . The combination of the two has not been too successful in providing jobs. In fact the contrary is true. As a direct result of their efforts, Michigan is in serious trouble."

UAW political activity: "They are efficient, far more than we are in organizing our political workers."

UAW picket lines: "Come over in my office some time and look at the pictures over there, where UAW-CIO boys are beating up the man who wanted to work."

Detroit and Wayne County: "The CIO runs that country down there at election time. They pick the candidates and they elect them. That is one reason why Republicans are out of office in Michigan, a bad, bad thing for the state and the country too, even though some may not realize it now."

City Pastors Ask End of Sunday Beer

ly lift the level of the community."

Commissioner John A. Dugan accused Miles of "popping the proposal on the floor without any forewarning." Mayor Donaldson predicted that it would "disrupt the Commission and end up in a dogfight."

By personally pleading for delay "to avoid hasty decisions," the Mayor won a two-weeks respite by a narrow four-to-three vote.

Commissioner Philip E. Rowston who had previously sided with Miles, came to the Mayor's rescue.

"We've granted delays to other Commissioners at their personal request, so we should do so now for the Mayor's sake," he said.

Rowston, Donaldson, Dugan and Commissioner Robert A. Landry voted for the motion to table, while Commissioners Milton R. Henry, Wesley J. Wood and Miles opposed the Mayor's request.

Another minister, Rev. Theodore R. Allebach, pastor of Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church, promised to return to City Hall with members of his congregation and said he would urge other ministers to do likewise.

"Although I am a peaceful man, I'm willing to see this issue cause disruption among the people, if that's what has to happen to put it over," said Rev. Allebach, who is public relations director for the association.

The drive by the clergy developed as a counter-move to a proposal by the Oakland County Table Toppers Assn., which represents about 55 Pontiac tavern owners. They want to repeal a local ordinance that makes public taverns open at 2 p.m. Sunday while private clubs, operating under state law, can open at noon.

Commissioner Floyd P. Miles introduced a resolution calling for abolishment of all beer and wine sales from 2 a.m. Sunday to the following midnight.

The ministers and Miles said they had talked the resolution over beforehand but had planned no organized movement.

Henry said, "This is not a question of who's going to make money on Sunday. It's strictly a moral issue. Setting aside one day a week for a little reverence isn't going to hurt anyone."

Miles accused the Mayor of sabotaging a vote on his motion.

"A vote would only have put us on record one way or the other about the issue. I think this Commission should take a stand," he complained.

Miles' resolution called for a new ordinance to be prepared for the Commission's consideration. It said "alcoholic beverages in all forms contribute to the general detriment of the community, and Sunday should be set aside for the worship of God."

Miles wanted all sales stopped, by glass or by package, in clubs and retail stores as well as taverns. Whether the Commission had sufficient powers to do this was undecided, however.

City Attorney William A. Ewart believed it didn't. Miles said the Liquor Control Commission, which regulates club and store hours, should be asked to cooperate.

Henry and Rowston said they favored the move only if it applied to all sale of beer and wine in Pontiac on Sundays.

Philip R. Sauer, a tavern owner, said Miles' proposal wouldn't work. "It wouldn't stop sale outside the city limits and there is no assurance the Liquor Control Commission would cooperate. This could end up with the clubs still operating and the public taverns closed. That would be even more discriminatory."

Federal Agents Arrest Sixteen

Net Top Underworld Figures in Crackdown on Nation's Dope Ring

NEW YORK (AP)—Federal authorities today announced the arrest of 16 persons, including a number said to be top figures in the nation's underworld, in a crackdown on a multimillion-dollar narcotics ring.

Two others were being hunted. One of them was Carmie Galente, alleged killer and notorious underworld figure sought recently in a number of cases.

Fourteen of those arrested were picked up in the New York area. Another, identified as Louis Fiano, 43, of Los Angeles, was taken into custody there.

The roundup also netted three women.

Authorities said some of those arrested had links to last November's underworld convention at Apalachin, N.Y.

U.S. Dist. Atty. Paul W. Williams said the ring had been in operation about three years, with New York as the headquarters for distribution of several million dollars worth of heroin and cocaine each year. Its activities also included smuggling narcotics in the United States, he said.

Federal agents were said to have spent a year and a half on the case.

Mercy Chaplain to Speak at St. Fred's Graduation

Sixty-six St. Frederick High School seniors, their parents and friends, will hear the Rev. Thomas Bresnahan, chaplain of Mercy College, Detroit, speak on "Our Response to Today's Educational Challenge" tomorrow night at commencement exercises.

The program will begin at 8 p.m. at the high school when the graduates are ushered in by a guard of honor of the Knights of Columbus.

Edward Higbee, organist, will play the processional "Grand Chorus," by Dubois and "Ave Verum Corpus," by Mozart.

The Rev. Thompson Marcero, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church, will give diplomas to the graduates.

The senior class will sing "Holy God We Praise Thy Name," by Ritter, preceding the benediction by Father Marcero.

The high school chorale group will then sing "Adoro Te Devote," by Gregorian and "Tantum Ergo," by Webbe. "Prelude and Fuge," by Bach, will be the recessional march.

Willow Run to Get New Lighting System

WASHINGTON (AP) — Detroit's Willow Run Airport is going to get a new, flashing blue and white lighting system for its runway approaches.

The new lights, set up in a string at 100-foot intervals, aid pilots in landing in mist, fog, rain or snow. The string of lights begins 3,000 feet before the runway starts.

The system is being installed at 19 airports in the country by the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

awaited some signal recognition of the key role their defiance of the French National Assembly played in De Gaulle's recall from retirement. And they hoped for the unveiling of an Algerian policy dedicated to keeping the territory forever French, and the French colonists in control.

Salan headed the official welcoming committee on the airport apron and shook hands with De Gaulle first. But right behind came Jacques Sousetelle, the National Assembly deputy and longtime Gaullist who fled Paris to take a leading role in the rebellion in Algiers. Sousetelle joined the Premier and Salan in reviewing the honor guard of paratroopers, sailors and infantry men.

Also in the receiving line for a handshake was Brig. Gen. Jacques Massu, the tough paratroop commander who first seized control in Algiers after the mob of colonists took over the government headquarters May 13.

The Premier also shook hands with all 72 members of the insurgent Public Safety Committee for Algeria, and with Pascal Arrighi, the National Assembly deputy from Corsica who has been suspended by his colleagues for leading the insurrection on his island.

The airport ceremonies, broadcast throughout Algeria and France, lasted less than 15 minutes. Then De Gaulle and Salan entered a car and sped into the city.

Accompanying De Gaulle on his historic flight were Gen. Paul Ely, the chief of staff of the armed forces; Adm. Henri Michel Mony, commander of the French navy; Max Lejeune, Cabinet minister for the Sahara; Andre Malraux, the famous author who is his information and propaganda expert; and a raft of other officials.

The French extremists in Algeria express public satisfaction at De Gaulle's installation. But privately they are bitter about the inclusion in his Cabinet of moderate politicians whose policy in former cabinets toward the Algerian war was not tough enough to suit the French colonists.

De Gaulle is almost certain to run into trouble if the colonists get the idea he intends to go easy with the Algerian nationalist rebels. The report has spread that De Gaulle has in mind an autonomous Algeria, federated with France, in which Moslems would have an equal status with the colonists. The colonists, who would be outnumbered almost 8-1, have furiously resisted any such idea.

De Gaulle set himself a crowded three-day schedule in Algeria, including visits tomorrow to Constantine and Tougart, in east Algeria, and on Friday to Oran, after which he was scheduled to fly back to Paris.

Post Office Department Unveils Air Mail Stamp

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Post Office Department unveiled the regular new blue and white seven-cent air mail stamp which becomes effective Aug. 1.

The stamp features a silhouette view of the wing spread and fuselage of a jet airliner — the coming mode of commercial air travel. The new stamp will be the same size as the current six-cent air mailer.

Mail patrons will be able to continue to use six-cent air mail stamps and six-cent stamped air mail envelopes by adding one-cent stamps.

PAUL D. BAGWELL

Bagwell Schedules Birmingham Talk

Republican hopeful for the governor's post in Lansing, Paul D. Bagwell, will climax several stops in Oakland County next Tuesday with a talk that night at the GOP headquarters in Birmingham, 351 N. Woodward Ave.

Bagwell, a Michigan State University professor, has made his trip to this area part of a whirlwind junket through the state. Here it will include a meeting in Davisburg, three meetings in Royal Oak and then the 8:15 session in Birmingham.

Arthur G. Elliott Jr., chairman of the Oakland County Republican Committee, urged all citizens interested in meeting Bagwell to attend the night meeting. It is being sponsored by the Birmingham-Bloomfield Republican Club.

Benefits for Jobless in State Up in Air

Two of the sponsors of the plan, House Speaker George M. Van Peursem (R-Zeeland) and House Labor Chairman Walter Nakkula (R-Gladwin), attended the meeting with Williams.

They repeatedly questioned state unemployment compensation experts on whether the state could exempt single men, married women and out-of-state residents from extended benefits if the federal program was adopted by the legislature.

WANTS TO FORGET DEBT

Williams wanted the legislators to endorse the federal plan without providing any means to repay the federal loan.

He said he felt sure Congress would excuse the states from repayment of this debt at some time in the future and the state would be able to provide the extended benefits without any real cost.

When the legislators objected and said the state should at least be prepared to meet its obligations, Williams said that question could be better considered in the 1959 legislative session than in the few days remaining in the 1958 session.

DETERMINED TO ACT

The lawmakers then insisted they would stay around as long as necessary to pass a law specifically designed to meet Michigan's needs, including provisions to pay for extended benefits.

MESC statistician Norman Barcus told the combined group Michigan's Unemployment Compensation Fund reserve, once $400,000,000, is now down to $177,000,000 and it will drop to about $45,000,000 by the end of the year, even if there is an upsurge in business in the last three months of the year.

He said the state was paying out of the fund at the rate of $4,000,000 a month. For this reason, he said, the MESC plans to borrow $117,000,000 under the current federal unemployment compensation law. He said this would be the maximum the state could borrow and it would leave little for a state extension of benefits unless the federal plan was followed.

Van Peursem said the federal program would mean an additional tax of about $15 on each job in Michigan, or a burden of about $1,500 for each employer of 100 workers.

"And I don't know if that extra burden would drive more business out of Michigan," he said. "I don't know if we can afford it."

Robber Drinks Soda

DETROIT (AP) — Two young bandit, one of whom calmly drank a chocolate soda first, robbed a Detroit drugstore of $2,400 Tuesday night. Harry Cohen, 48, store owner, said one bandit entered first and drank the soda. Then the other entered with drawn gun. Both forced Cohen to open a safe and turn the money over to them.

Steel Production Rises

DETROIT (AP) — Steel production in the Detroit area is expected to exceed 90,000 tons this week for the first time since the week that ended Jan. 4, according to Iron Age, national metalworking publication.

Upper New York and Vermont farm families tap about six million maple trees for the annual sap harvest.

The Day in Birmingham

Redding Road Project Dropped by Commission

BIRMINGHAM — "It's too bad we lost our audience," a Birmingham city commissioner said after the commission voted not to put in a 29-foot pavement on Redding road despite recommendations by the city engineer favoring the project.

In previous hearing on streets in the Quarton Lakes subdivision area, commissioners had been accused of having made up their minds before hearing the "voice of the people." All left Monday's meeting before the Redding vote was taken.

Lakeside, Midland, Lakepark and Pine street work was approved, along with Willow Lane. A public hearing on the assessment rolls will be heard at a later date.

Residents objected that improving the streets would increase traffic. It was pointed out by several commissioners, that the condition of those streets today does not make them safe for children playing along the right-of-way, and that they are a hazard to drivers.

On the Redding road protest, residents said they felt this is not the time to put in permanent improvements. They said that with Quarton road (the western continuation of 16 Mile road) unimproved because of the Evergreen sewer lines which will follow it, paving Redding now would be inviting heavier traffic. They also questioned the advisability of a 29-foot paving when the structurally strong bridge is only 20 feet.

The paving proposed for the other streets in the area will follow the present width which varies from 18 to 20 feet. The street work done this year will become a part of the permanent paving program at a later date which will consist of widening pavement, installing curbs and gutters and any drainage facilities that might be needed.

Commissioners promised residents to further check whether the contractor for the sewer work recently completed had damaged the pavement. Several said the street had been cracked by heavy loads and by the dropping of heavy buckets on the pavement.

On other hearings, commissioners approved the rezoning of properties on Bowers street, Haynes street and the corner of Landon and Ann streets from residential to business use.

Birmingham police are puzzled and admit it. Monday night someone tossed a 15-pound stone through a window at Birmingham High School. A seat near the window was broken by the weight of the stone. Investigation showed one thing missing from the classroom — a book in which student grades are kept.

If Police Capt. Walter Sluiter ever decides to leave the Bloomfield Hills Police Department he may take to taming wild animals. Sluiter, just back from a weekend fishing trip in Munising, tells of sweet-talking a wild bear into coming into the camp and licking bacon grease out of the frying pan while he held the pan.

In a telegram to city officials, G. C. Stewart, National Safety Council executive vice president, has announced another safety plaque for Birmingham. He extended his congratulations to Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley and his department for their efforts in maintaining good traffic control on city streets.

U.S. Orders Chrysler to Speed Missiles suppliers in Southern Michigan and 1,000 suppliers in 32 other states.

The Air Force has been pressing for exclusive production of its own IRBM, the Thor, which is made at the Santa Monica, Calif., plant of Douglas Aircraft. That question is still open, the official made clear.

The Chrysler assembly line in its presently planned form, will be adequate, when combined with Redstone Arsenal facilities, to produce the required number of Jupiters. But if the decision finally should be to produce only Jupiters, without Thor IRBMs, the Chrysler operation would have to be expanded, the official said.

Mystery of Holy Trinity Discussed by Graham

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham preached last night on the mystery of the Holy Trinity before an audience of 9,000, smallest of his San Francisco Bay area crusade.

The election night attendance at the 16,500-seat Cow Palace brought the 33-day crusade total to 514,600.

With 330 "Decisions for Christ" the crusade total reached 18,265

Only love, not the sword or a hydrogen bomb, can conquer the world, Graham said.

House Drips Honey

HOMESTEAD, Fla. (AP) —Mr. and Mrs. John Beenstra got rid of two swarms of bees which took up residence at their house but have been unable to eliminate the honey left behind. It's dripping down walls and screens from between the roof beams. Efforts to bore holes and siphon out the honey have been unsuccessful.

Poses Problem, Information Girl Says

New Trend in Travel Has Pets Going Along, Too

JOAN RICHARDS

"Move over and make room for the dog—he's coming along, too."

This appears to be the case in many modern families as they prepare for the vacations, according to pretty Miss Joan Richards, counter girl at the Automobile Club of Michigan office in Birmingham.

Joan, a 20-year-old Pontiac girl who lives at 662 LeBaron St., provides all types of travel information for motorists planning trips.

She said she still gets the usual requests to map routes and point out the spots of historial and artistic interest.

There is a new trend in making reservations, however. She said more and more people are taking their dogs along and this poses new problems.

Many hotels are now either admitting the pets or providing special quarters for them.

The most frequent questions by people planning to travel in foreign lands concern passports, physical checkups, currency value and international driving licenses — and again — pets.

The AAA has booklets with practically all the answers, she said. They will even tell the traveler how he can rent or purchase a car abroad.

New Detroit Buildings Costing Over Estimates

DETROIT (UPI) — A city official said today the architectural firm which designed the Convention Building and Cobo Hall made oversights in cost estimates, resulting in an increase of about three million dollars in the cost of the buildings.

Stephen T. Kish, administrative assistant of the Civic Center Commission, said eventual cost of the project now is expected to be about $54,358,000.

'Auntie Mame' to Keep Boner by Bea Lillie

NEW YORK (UPI) — Her furs were regal and her entrance was stately when Beatrice Lillie swept onto the stage in an early scene of her debut as "Auntie Mame" on Broadway.

Then she removed her hat, and off bounced her wig. She got such a laugh that the producers want her to keep it in the show.

Fire Puts Halt to Family Menu of Fish, Chips

Fire put a halt last evening to a menu of fish and chips for the Delmer Field family of 385 S. Winding St., Waterford Township.

Mrs. Field town township firemen that she was boiling two pans of grease to fry the fish in when they caught fire on the stove. While attempting to put one out under the kitchen faucet, the fire spread to the cupboards above the sink.

Mrs. Field tried to rush outdoors with the second pan to dump it. The grease spilled over and the kitchen floor caught on fire. Total damages to the kitchen were estimated at $100.

Township firemen also reported that children playing with matches caused a $375 fire at the home of Thomas Long at 2837 Chrysler St. in the township around 5:30 p.m.

Need One More Beach Location

Other Details Settled in 'Learn to Swim' Plans at Waterford Township

The only unsettled factor in the summer "Learn To Swim" program, conducted by the Waterford Township Recreation department, is one more beach site, according to director Thomas Belton.

The site for swim instruction for children and adults in the Lake Oakland, Drayton Plains area has not been secured as yet.

However, registrations for this vicinity will be accepted at Lake Oakland Beach which was last year's site, Belton said.

He added that any beach owners, private or association, located at a lake in the designated area, who would cooperate with the swim program, have been asked to notify the recreation office.

All classes will be conducted for three-hour periods twice weekly for seven weeks. A minimum 30 feet of water frontage is needed with parking space available near.

If a beach is not made available prior to June 16, classes for the Drayton area will be conducted at the Pontiac Recreation area beach, Belton said.

Last year classes were held at six different lakes with a registration of 600 children and adults.

Police Discover Young Burglars on the Prowl

Juvenile burglars are on the prowl, Pontiac police discovered yesterday.

Investigating a burglary at the Bagley School, 320 Bagley St., they found the only thing missing was five dixie cups of ice cream valued at 5 cents each.

Other evidence of juveniles was uncovered at 66 Motor Sales, 66 S. Perry St., where officers found a note reading, "Zorro was here." Missing was a portable radio.

Other burglaries reported yesterday were at Wolverine Lumber Co., 320 S. Paddock St., where a welding torch was taken, and Glenview Grill, 554 N. Perry St., where nothing was taken.

Fall From Moving Car Injures Rochester Tot

A two-year-old Rochester girl, Karen L. Reed, is reported in satisfactory condition today at Pontiac General Hospital after falling from a moving car Tuesday afternoon, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Karen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Reed of 2090 Jarmon Rd., was riding in a car driven by her father north on John R. road at South Blvd., Troy.

She apparently pushed down on the door handle as the car went around a slight curve, Reed told deputies.

Will Sentence Trio for Jewel Robbery

DETROIT (AP) — Three Detroit men convicted of shooting tear gas into a New York diamond merchant's face and robbing him of a million dollars worth of gems will be sentenced June 17.

A Recorder's (criminal) Court jury yesterday found Philip Dipalma, 39, Stanley Novak, 28, and Novak's brother Thomas Nowosielski, 22, guilty of armed robbery.

Mendel Monderer was in Detroit last Nov. 19 to sell diamonds when he was accosted in the lobby of a downtown office building by a man who fired tear gas into his face, seized his satchel of jewels and fled. He was driven off in a waiting car.

Police said Dipalma later came to them and admitted he and two other men staged the robbery.

SEVEN-SISTER ACT—All seven of the Dawson sisters will be in the annual Waterford Township Ballet Recital Friday and Saturday at the high school. Veteran performers Margaret, 12, Dolores, 11, Christine, 9, Kathy 6, and Barbara 5, will help their baby sisters Diane 3, and Mary 1, in their first time on the stage. Pontiac Press Photo

6th Waterford Ballet Scheduled

The sixth annual Waterford Township Ballet Recital will be held at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday at the Waterford Township high school auditorium.

Some 350 children between the ages of three and sixteen will participate in the recital sponsored by the Waterford Township recreation department, and under the direction of Mrs. Carol Wolfe.

The event climaxes 32 weeks of instructional classes with fifteen different hourly periods conducted weekly since September, Mrs. Wolfe said.

This year's recital is divided into two parts entitled "Heavenly Daze" and "The Four Seasons" the latter adapted from an old fairy tale.

One of the highlights of the recital will be the appearance of the seven Dawson sisters. Veteran performer, Margaret 12, Dolores 11, Christine 9, Kathy 6, and Barbara 5 will help their baby sisters Diane 3, and Mary 1, in their first experience on stage.

The girls are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dawson of 2147 Ferndale Ave., Waterford Township. There are also two boys in the family Charles 15, and James 13.

The same program will be presented both Friday and Saturday evenings using a different cast each night. This is planned to remedy the shortage of seats encountered by the audience at last year's single performance as well as decrease the length of the program, Mrs. Wolfe said.

More than 2000 spectators attended last year's recital, she concluded.

U.N. Council to Resume Debate

French-Tunisian Dispute Appears to Lose Steam

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The explosive French-Tunisian dispute appeared headed back toward friendly negotiations today, U.N. diplomats expressed the belief that conciliatory messages exchanged by Premier de Gaulle and President Bourguiba had averted a Security Council fight which might have had far-reaching effects.

The 11-nation Council was scheduled to resume debate today on French and Tunisian complaints against each other, but informed quarters said the emphasis would be on a renewal of private talks.

Tunisian sources said Ambassador Mongi Slim would declare his country's readiness to resume negotiations with France on the basis worked out by the U.S.-British good offices committee earlier this year.

French Ambassador Guillaume Georges-Picot was expected to say whether France would accept these terms or, if not, just how France proposed to approach the problem.

The good offices team of U.S. Undersecretary of State Robert D. Murphy and British Middle East expert Harold Beeley had recommended that both sides shelve frontier disputes while they negotiated on points where agreement appeared possible.

The major sore spot for Tunisia is the continued presence of 22,000 French troops at Tunisian bases where they have been stationed under a 1956 treaty. France complains of Tunisian aid to the Moslem rebels in Algeria.

Poet Byron Reece, 40, Found Shot to Death

YOUNG HARRIS, Ga. (AP) — Byron Herbert Reece, 40-year-old Georgia poet and novelist, was found dead of a gunshot wound last night in his campus apartment at Young Harris College.

Dr. C. R. Clegg, college president, said the writer had been in poor health for years and recently had become despondent.

Reece was a part-time lecturer in English at the school in north Georgia near the North Carolina line.

Reece was author of "The Ballad of the Bones," a book of poems, and of two novels, "Better a Dinner of Herbs" and "The Hawk and the Sun." He was at Young Harris under a Guggenheim Fellowship and was working on a prose trilogy.

In 1950 he taught verse and short story writing at the University of California at Los Angeles, and became associated with Young Harris in 1953.

Sheriff Ketron W. Shook said a revolver was found near Reece's body. He said an inquest would be held.

Roosevelt Wins Easily

LOS ANGELES (AP) — James Roosevelt, eldest son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, easily won renomination for a third term in Congress, rolling up a big lead in yesterday's Democratic primary. He faces Negro attorney Crispus Wright, Republican, in November.

Makes Part of Flight to Florida on Highway

ALPHARETTA, Ga. (AP) — C. G. Dutcher of Winnetka, Ill., made one leg of his flight to Florida on the ground.

Flying his light plane to West Palm Beach, where his wife is, he ran out of gas.

He landed in a corn field, got some gas from a filling station, then taxied down a highway about 10 miles to a baseball field, which provided enough room for him to take off.

Forests cover more than half of South Carolina.

Arrest 2 More for Thefts Here

Police Continue Their Investigation of Ring Operating in City

Two further arrests have been made by the Pontiac police burglary squad in the continuing investigation of a safe cracking and burglary ring.

Arrested were Frank M. Zeitek, 36, of 99 Orchard Lake Ave., and Lloyd H. Corey, 28, of 664 Davis St., Birmingham.

Sgt. Raymond Meggitt, head of the burglary squad, said that Zietek has been implicated in the burglary of Dolan's Drugs, 164 Auburn Ave., on Sept. 25, 1957.

Stolen at the time were a television set, a typewriter and some 2,000 narcotic tablets.

Sgt. Meggitt said his squad has recovered Dolan's typewriter and the television set.

Zietek was arraigned in Pontiac Municipal Court and stood mute. An examination will be held June 11.

Corey was turned over to Bloomfield Township Police who have charged him with participating in the looting of offices in the Jaikens Building, 1100 N. Woodward Ave.

Corey was arraigned before West Bloomfield Justice Elmer C. Dieterle and demanded examination. It was set for June 10.

Sgt. Meggitt said that more crimes may be solved as the investigation continues.

State to Accept Bids on Boys' Institution

LANSING (AP) — Bids for first work on the new Boys Vocational School at Whitmore Lake will be opened July 17 notwithstanding continuing opposition to relocation of the institution there.

While W. J. Maxey, state social welfare director, was disclosing the bid date, Gov. Williams was being deluged by protests from residents in the Whitmore Lake area near Ann Arbor.

Maxey said the first project calls for a start on a $2,400,000 security unit on the new site. The Legislature has provided $650,000 for the work.

The security unit is designed to handle 100 youths when completed, the entire institution 600.

Williams told newsmen yesterday no date has been worked out for a conference sought by the protesting group, headed by Edwin I. White.

Aides said 71 letters, postcards and telegrams have been received in the last few days supporting the position of White's Whitmore Lake Citizens League.

Tavern Patrons Told to Go Home by Robber

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A robber tied up the operator of a tavern in a back room yesterday, then calmly walked to the front of the bar and told customers the place was closing. He locked the door and left with about $330.

Mrs. Gladys Heotis, 47, co-owner of the Main Street Bar, said the man followed her when she went into the back room to turn on an air conditioner. She freed herself.

De Gaulle Ascends to Power

The National Assembly and the French Senate have granted Gen. CHARLES DE GAULLE sweeping powers to govern by decree for six months.

They were forced into this position by the threat of civil war and DE GAULLE's tacit encouragement of the military rebellion in Algeria and his refusal to speak out for law and order in Corsica, and indeed in France itself.

The personal traits which made Gen. DE GAULLE an inspired leader of the Free French Movement while in exile in London after France's defeat in 1940, may not be so well suited to the reorganization of France's civil government in 1958. He has indicated, however, that he has no intention of setting up a dictatorship but he hopes to amend the constitution.

Throughout his coldly aloof career he has regarded himself as the personification of France. His one goal has been to make his beloved country strong again and he regards himself as her appointed savior. He has been contemptuous of France's democratic government whose ineffectiveness is due mainly to the structural weakness in the constitution of the Fourth Republic.

Almost all executive power is vested in the legislature which makes it impossible for premiers to stay in office or to dissolve parliament. De Gaulle himself resigned in 1946 as head of the provisional government because of this flaw in the constitution which he predicted would bring the Fourth Republic to a dire end.

The General once said of himself "I am not a man for petty squalls, but a man for great tempests." Regardless of past difficulties Western leaders have had with this inflexible man, he will have the co-operation and sympathy of France's allies in his effort to help his distressed country to weather this "great tempest."

Coffee Overproduction Upsets Latin America

Because of artificial scarcity created by Latin American countries, coffee growing has increased elsewhere, particularly in Africa.

In 1957 while seven million bags of coffee worth $500 million were stored in Latin American warehouses, the world price of coffee was sky high. Barron's, a business and financial weekly, reports that Brazil and Colombia, principal coffee producers, have been getting big bank loans to finance holding coffee off world markets in order to keep the price up.

This they have done at the cost of inflation at home and damage to their credit abroad. Now these countries want Washington to back a "stabilization" program fixing quotas for all coffee producing countries. Last year Latin American growers pledged to limit their own exports in the Agreement of Mexico. This effort at control has encouraged other countries to compete for a greater share of the market and they are getting it.

The United States never has been in favor of worldwide commodity agreements. But in a recent speech Secretary DULLES indicated a more sympathetic attitude. In commenting on this Barron's makes the wise and timely observation:

"It (the United States) should think twice before endorsing a scheme which more producers, notably the Africans, neither want nor need and which in fact would work against their best interests. Diplomatically as well as financially, such a move could only serve to stir a witches' brew."

The solution, of course, as in our own farm surplus problem, is to work back toward a price set by supply and demand. This would discourage excessive planting and government meddling.

"THE average person's speaking vocabulary is less than 4,000 words," says an educator. Still, that's an ample vocabulary for talking shop, gossiping, making remarks about the weather, and giving tedious accounts of petty personal affairs.

WHAT to do about the north polar region is a current pressing international problem. Considering the deplorable state of the world and all, it is suggested that this region be jacked up and a new world slid under it.

Many More Deer

Pontiac Area Population Showing Marked Increase

Honeymoon: A vacation before going to work for a new boss.

Oakland County's deer population is increasing. Births of fawns in some of our few remaining wooded tracts are reported by

of Oxford, who has seen three in the Drahner wild life sanctuary east of that village; also by

Perry Northcutt

of Clarkston, who saw a buck and doe with a straddling offspring "not more than 18 inches tall" in the woods near the Grand Trunk tracks south of Andersonville, and by

of Lake Orion, who reports a blessed event for a pair who live in the big woods on Baldwin Road.

In the Webber woods southeast of Holly,

Jack Volks

says a buck and doe, with their fawn, are regular visitors to the Detroit Girl Scout camp there, on the shore of Rattalee Lake, while of Milford, says the herd in Kent Lake Park is in no danger of race suicide.

In connection with the deer, a letter from

of Flint says he killed a deer with his car, just northwest of Pontiac, on the Dixie Highway about 2:30 the other morning. Its fawn disappeared in the darkness, and two men in a pickup truck loaded the mother's carcass into their car and drove away while Holcomb was checking the damage to his car—about $100.

Starting with two kernels of corn sent him from China ten years ago, of Drayton Plains expects to harvest five bushels next fall. It is a rare blue variety.

Harvard Elston

Coffee grounds are a good fertilizer for all kinds of flowering plants, according to

of Waterford, who says it should be sparingly applied. Mrs. Stoneman avers that when he placed some grounds around the roots of an aspen tree the leaves shook more than before.

Washed Up!

David Lawrence Says:

No One Pressing 'Summit' Issue

WASHINGTON — There's nothing up in the air quite so much nowadays as the "summit" conference.

For, with the entry of General de Gaulle to the "summit" foursome, the truth is the West wouldn't be ready now to hold such a conference even if the Soviets welcomed it.

LAWRENCE

Nobody here knows just what kind of a confrere General de Gaulle would make if a "summit" meeting were held tomorrow. It may take several months to find out what General de Gaulle, speaking for France, will have to say on international questions.

He certainly isn't the kind of man who plays second fiddle to anyone and if he participates in a "summit" conference he may be expected to have his own ideas as to what should be discussed or agreed upon.

So far as the Communists are concerned it isn't clear that they would benefit from a "summit" meeting either, if held in the near future. The game seems to be to talk about a "summit" conference, but not to hold one.

Thus the conversations at the ambassadorial level are going on in Moscow with Foreign Minister Gromyko. Doubtless voluminous reports, recording the usual double-talk of diplomacy, are being made regularly to London and Paris and Washington, but there is no sign that anything tangible has been accomplished or will be.

Neither the West nor the East can afford to drop the subject since it has been given such worldwide publicity. There was a time when talk about the need for a "summit" conference was regarded as some kind of panacea surpassed only by the maudlin pleas for suspension of nuclear tests as a way to insure peace.

Nobody seems to have come forward with a plan that would end the use of the nuclear weapons themselves, but many people in the world have been led to believe that mere suspension of the nuclear tests will remove all tensions and bring peace on earth and good will toward men.

Meanwhile, the fact of the matter is that tension with the Soviet Union continues throughout the world with such supposedly harmless weapons as financial aid and infiltration. The "cold war" is indeed being intensified by the Moscow government in all parts of the world.

It may well be that General de Gaulle's accession to power in France could result in a solution of France's troubles in North Africa which would, of course, be a setback for the Communists who have been meddling in the situation there and have been hopeful it would bring about civil war inside France itself.

General de Gaulle is reported to be antagonistic to the continuance of Communist influences inside France, but willing to do business with Moscow in international affairs.

This may have been his view some time ago, but there are signs that he will go along now with the attitude of the West.

This is logical because General de Gaulle cannot afford to have a split with his Western allies. Too much is at stake for him on the Western side.

Certainly before there is any "summit" conference as between East and West, there will have to be a "summit" meeting separately among the Western leaders.

Prime Minister Macmillan is due in Washington this month, and it seems likely that General de Gaulle will want to come here a little later, after he has found some way to stabilize the Algerian situation.

Plainly, if the general triumphs in his Algerian policy, he will wish on the heels of that triumph to come to America and talk with President Eisenhower on broader questions of allied policy.

For the United States is not interfering in Algeria and is as anxious as are the leaders of other Western countries to see some sort of solution.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Vital Nutritional Elements Are Supplied by Cheese

I assert without fear of contradiction that:

(1) Any and every kind of cheese is wholesome, nourishing, easily digestible.

(2) From freshly made cottage or Dutch cheese to Limburger in an advanced state . . . any kind of cheese you may prefer is excellent food at any time anywhere.

DR. BRADY

(3) Cheese is almost completely digested and absorbed, leaving virtually no residue.

(4) It is stupid to exclude cheese from your diet because you imagine it is "binding."

No good food is "binding." Some foods leave less residue in the intestines than others, and so they are less laxative. This is a detail of no importance in a diet that includes greens, vegetables and fruits.

An Atlantic City reader says he has read carefully my booklet The Constipation Habit and Colon Hygiene (for copy send 35c and stamped, self-addressed envelope) and he finds no mention of cheese in it. So he would like to know — what I tell him and thousands of others in the foregoing paragraphs.

Besides being a good source of biologically complete (amino-acids) protein, cheese supplies considerable calcium, riboflavin (vitamin B^2 or G) and vitamin A, nutritional factors in which the diet of most Americans in poor.

INQUIRED ABOUT TREATMENT

A man, aged 32, says he has fairly good health but for the past year has had persistent hemorrhoids (piles), painful after bowel movements or during prolonged sitting.

A proctologist (specialist in rectal diseases) examined him, diagnosed internal hemorrhoids and advised operation. The young man inquired about injection (ambulant, office) treatment. The proctologist said injection treatment might give temporary relief but that eventually the hemorrhoids (piles) would recur, so he might as well have the operation now.

The proctologist told half the truth.

The whole truth is that hemorrhoids (piles) are as likely to "recur" after radical operation as they are after injection treatment, and a person who has had the radical operation for hemorrhoids is as subject to hemorrhoids in future as is the person who has had ambulant, office or injection treatment.

"The doctor wants to operate on my husband for hemorrhoids" (says a New Jersey reader). "He says the injection method is too dangerous, as blood clots can form and cause death . . ."

The doctor probably knows better, but he didn't imagine the patient could be very well informed about such things. The "danger" he conjured up doesn't happen.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'Russian Exchange Should Include Various Fields'

A recent editorial brought to our attention the current cultural exchange program between the United States and the Soviet Union. Such an exchange will do more to further the ambition of the United States to educate the Russians as to our goals and ideals than will any show of force.

However, the program shouldn't be limited to just cultural exchanges, but should include our business men, educators and especially our newspaper men. In this way, people that really know how to spread information about the United States would be there to give it.

'Letter Writer Misunderstood'

Someone named Hard Hearted Hand gave me a verbal shellacking in the Saturday Press. He or she misunderstood me entirely. I didn't object to "living" — I objected to destroying the right kind of living.

I'm in favor of progress, in fact I've lived here long enough to see real progress. And it wasn't done by destroying a whole residential section and ruining homes of people who've lived here and worked to bring about that progress.

There are other streets that would have served the same purpose without having to tear down trees and tear up sewers. I can submit names of two or three. High School Senior Presents Rebuttal Concerning E. W.'s letter on socialism, capitalism has brought the United States to the position of world leader and we have the highest standard any country has ever known. Why should anyone wish to destroy the very thing that has benefited him?

A socialist form of government would destroy the very foundation of America's greatness, that of free enterprise and the wish to better one's self. If socialism came, a businessman who has worked 50 years to build up a thriving business would be thrown in the same category as the laborer tightening a nut on an assembly line.

There would be no sense in showing brains because you couldn't use them anyhow. Our economy and scientific achievements would come to a standstill. E. W. is thinking in a purely idealistic way. There's no practical thought in his letter. I might say his ideals don't even make sense.

Speedboats Worry Resident of Lake

This pertains to most lakes in Oakland County. I came out here to Williams Lake 34 years ago. I did then and still think property around Williams Lake is the most beautiful spot I've ever seen. It was pleasing to see ladies in gingham dresses and straw hats out in rowboats fishing.

Then came small outboard motors, and now it seems each month brings larger crafts, more speed and very small rowboats. The speed age has taken over our lake. When will it stop? Many of these larger speedboats don't carry a license number and some come from great distance. I'm not trying to kill progress, but if you have dandelions in your lawn and you don't take care of them, soon you'll have only dandelions. Please God, there won't be a serious accident to make us sorry we didn't give this so-called progress the direction it requires.

It won't do any good to sit and wish, but if you give it serious thought and we get together and talk things over, we can come to solid thought of what the majority wants and everything can be accomplished.

'Better Tell Him That Old Fable'

In the last 10 years, industry's hourly wages have increased more than 60 per cent. Output per employe increased 26. Workers are hogging the show now. Will someone tell Reuther about the goose and the golden egg?

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Older People Should Keep Active

Eli Miller is 95. I tell him he may easily hit the 100-mark, especially if he gets out of his wheelchair and uses his aluminum walker. But he likes the wheelchair. It is easier for him, but old folks must beware of succumbing to the easy things of life or they will soon be bedfast and dependent solely on nurses.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE Y-327: Eli Miller, aged 95, is my father-in-law.

He lives alone on our little farm in Indiana, except for his faithful dog.

DR. CRANE

Mrs. Crane and I commute down there about once every two weeks so that she can cook him some fresh foods and I can check on his vitamins and health.

Although he cooks his own meals, he is like most men and thus stays on a very limited type of menu.

He finds it simple to fry potatoes and eggs. Sometimes he varies the menu by frying mush.

My Aunt Bess lives about two city blocks down the road and supplements his menu with baked goods, which is a great help.

But Grandpa Miller has a serious fault which will shorten his life, and that is a wheelchair.

He can hobble around quite well with an aluminum walker. But the wheelchair is easier.

And I think it gives him a throw-back to the few years ago when he still drove his old automobile. It gets him back on wheels again. At any rate, he can't stay out of that wheelchair!

"Dad, why don't you employ your walker?" I have reminded him on dozens of occasions.

"Oh, this is easier to get around in," he replies.

"That may be true, but it deprives you of the proper leg exercise you need." I remind him, though to little avail.

"Soon your legs will atrophy or shrink from disuse. Ultimately, you may find them so feeble you can't get on your feet and mount your wheel chair.

"Then you will be helpless and solely dependent on a nurse to look after you."

FORCED EXERCISE

He tactfully ignores my comments, so I occasionally try to scare him by adding:

"Once you are bedfast, your nurse will cut out the chewing tobacco! And she may even force the dog to stay out of the house."

This thought jolts him, so he may get his aluminum walker for a few minutes, but as soon as I leave the house, he reverts to that wheelchair.

Medically, your elderly folks must realize the danger of succumbing to ease. Force yourself to keep in action. Use a crutch or aluminum walker instead of a wheelchair as long as you possibly can.

For when you surrender to a wheelchair because the latter is easier, you are reducing the vigor of your legs.

And after the age of 60, we are only two feet from slavery. Those two feet are the pedal extremities housed in our shoes.

As long as we can force ourselves to get upon our feet and totter around, we exercise our legs, especially the thigh muscles that help lift us to a standing position.

The moment an elderly man cannot stand up and walk, he becomes a slave to his caretaker. He is like a vegetable, unable to move freely.

So face the facts. The easy chair seems attractive on the surface but it shrinks your leg muscles and may kill you ahead of schedule.

Resolve every day to WALK at least as far as you walked the day before. And if you wish to grow stronger, then WALK a little farther today than yesterday.

That's one secret of staying strong. When you exercise LESS today than yesterday, you are on the downgrade and will be weaker tomorrow.

So stand on your own two feet, if possible, and force them to carry you around the house every day.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Decision Faced on Army Cuts

Administration in Favor of Reducing Strength to 870,000 Men

WASHINGTON (AP) The House faced a decision today on whether to take "a calculated risk" and cut the strength of the Army from 900,000 to 870,000 men during the year starting July 1.

The administration favors the cut.

At issue is an amendment that would add 99 million dollars to a bill appropriating $38,310,561,000 to run the Defense Department during the 1958-59 fiscal year.

The big money bill, as sent to the House by its Appropriations Committee, provides among other things for an 870,000-man Army June 30, 1959. That is what the administration recommended. It is 30,000 less than projected strength at the end of this month and 127,000 below actual strength last June 30.

The amendment to block the cut is sponsored by Rep. Robert L. Sikes (D-Fla), who claimed enough backing to give him a 50 50 chance to win.

Sikes, voicing concern over what he called continued cuts in Army strength since the Korean War ended, said: "These cuts constitute a vital deficiency in our national defense posture. The calculated risk of a further reduction to 870,000 men for the Army is too great to accept. It was not proposed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff but was dictated by purely fiscal considerations."

Sikes argued the Soviet Union has military strength in excess of four million men, including an army of 2½ million.

Sikes is a member of the Defense Appropriations subcommittee, whose chairman, Rep. George Mahon (D-Tex), opposes the amendment.

Mahon noted that the committee's recommendations provide for increases in the strength of the Marine Corps, the Army National Guard and the Army Reserve and for a regular Army equipped with the most modern weapons.

There is no known controversy over the committee's manpower proposals for a 630,000-man Navy, 200,000 Marines, and Air Force personnel of 850,000 by June 3, 1959, for a total strength of 2,550,000 men.

South Dakota Holds Primary Election

PIERRE, S. D. (AP) — Atty. Gen. Phil Saunders, 38-year-old career politician from Milbank, won the Republican nomination for governor with a majority of nearly two to one in yesterday's primary.

With 75 per cent of the state's 1,969 precincts tabulated, Lt. Gov. Roy Houck and State Rep. Charles Lacey conceded defeat. At that point Saunders had 38,038, Houck 15,644 and Lacey 6,813.

Saunders will be opposed in the November election by Ralph Herseth, Houghton farmer and merchant, who was unchallenged for the primary.

Gov. Joe Foss, finishing out his legal two terms, will seek the 1st District congressional seat now held by Rep. George McGovern (D-SD). Neither had a primary contest.

Most U. S. cigarettes today contain about 2 per cent of nicotine. In 1915 the average content was 3 per cent.

Hidden Mail Yields $253 —if Checks Negotiable

NEW YORK (AP) — If it can cash some old checks, the American Foundation for the Overseas Blind will get a windfall of $253.

Workmen renovating offices of the Board of National Missions of the United Presbyterian Church found 32 pieces of unopened mail behind an old cabinet. The mail contained checks addressed to the Association for the Chinese Blind, which once had occupied the office.

The mail was taken to the American Foundation for the Overseas Blind, which absorbed the Chinese group in 1952.

India-Born Congressman Turns Back 2 Opponents

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—Rep. Dalip Singh Saund, the India-born congressman, turned back the challenge of two opponents and won the Democratic nomination for a second term.

Both of Saund's rivals in the Democratic primary yesterday were Republicans, cross-filing under the California system. One of them, John Babbage, a Riverside attorney, won the Republican nomination and will oppose Saund in November.

To Charge Ex-Executive With Tax Nonpayment

DETROIT (AP)—George E. Woods, assistant U. S. district attorney, states a former Detroit business executive will be charged with failure to pay $66,000 he owed in income taxes for 1951 through 1954.

Woods said the government would file suit to collect the money from John L. Killinger, former general manager of Arvey Corp., a Detroit automobile parts firm.

Seek to Identify Mexico Air Victims

Returning Looted Bodies

GUADALAJARA, Mexico (AP)—The looted bodies of the 45 victims of Mexico's worst air disaster were being brought to Guadalajara today for identification.

At the rain-swept, mountaintop scene five miles away, investigators sought to learn what caused the Constellation of the Aeronaves de Mexico line to crash into El Picacho Peak Monday night during an electrical storm.

The plane was climbing away from a takeoff. One official said 10 feet more altitude would have taken it safely over the peak.

The dead included 13 American and two Canadian passengers—all residents of California—and two American engineers of the crew.

The passengers from California had boarded the plane at Tijuana for vacations or business in Mexico City, the Constellation's destination 290 miles southeast of Guadalajara. Their bodies will be flown back to Tijuana as soon after identification as possible.

The rest of the victims were Mexicans.

The army was ordered to make a house-by-house search of Tlajomulco village, about four miles from the crash scene, in an effort to recover property looted from the wreckage.

Searchers arriving from Guadalajara more than eight hours after the crash found the bodies and luggage stripped of money, jewelry and some clothing. Officials charged that villagers, awakened by the explosion and flames, had raided the wreck.

Jordanians Reported Firing on Israeli Unit

JERUSALEM (AP)—The Israeli army said Jordanian positions fired on an Israeli unit near the frontier dividing Jerusalem today and wounded one Israeli soldier seriously.

An army spokesman said the incident occurred as the biweekly supply convoy for Israeli positions in demilitarized Mt. Scopus was assembling near the Mandelbaum Gate.

Foreign Policy Called Bankrupt

Survival of Civilized Life on Earth in Peril, Banker Warns

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former New York banker James P. Warburg said today U. S. foreign policy is bankrupt and its bankruptcy endangers the survival of civilized life upon this planet.

He called for a drastic overhaul of the nation's foreign policy and strongly urged negotiations with the Soviet Union to achieve disengagement in all major areas of potential conflict.

Warburg, author of several books on foreign policy and a student of German affairs, expressed these views in a statement on U. S. policy in Europe prepared for a hearing of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

He urged adoption of a firm American policy with respect to what he called French intransigence in North Africa.

He advocated a reunited Germany.

He said a mutual withdrawal of foreign troops would create the only conditions in which German reunification could reasonably be expected to come about.

Warburg said if the West did not quickly put its own house in order, it would be too late to negotiate with the Soviet Union about disengagement, disarmament or anything else.

It was at this point that he sharply criticized U.S. policies on France and North Africa.

"Are we," he asked, "for lack of common sense and courage, going to continue straddling the Algerian issue, helping the French just enough to alienate the Arabs and encouraging the Arabs just enough to infuriate the French?"

M24 Financing Set

Special assessment rolls for financing of the Perry street (M 24) widening and repaving project were approved without objection at a public hearing by the City Commission last night.

Approval means that property along the improvement will be assessed $4 per front foot to partially reimburse the city for money it has already earmarked for the State Highway Department project out of state gas and weight tax funds.

The total assessment is $130,113. The city is assuming approximately one-eighth of the total $1,300,000 cost. The rest is being split by state and federal government.

The project calls for a four-lane, divided highway to replace the present two-lane road from the northeast city limits to downtown Pontiac. Construction got underway last month and is expected to be finished this fall.

Hearings on intention to proceed with three other projects were scheduled for next Tuesday.

One involves curbs and gutters on S. Jessie street, Prospect to Wilson. The estimated cost of $3,241 was broken down as follows: assessed cost for curb and gutter, $2,600; assessed cost for sewer stubs, $144; city share $497.

The other projects involve gravelling and grading on Monticello avenue, Orlando to Inglewood, and Tallahassee Avenue, Inglewood to Sarasota.

On Monticello, the assessed cost would be $425 and city share, $1,216. On Tallahassee, the assessed cost would be $941 and city share, $1,852.

Another hearing Tuesday will be on assessment rolls for a proposed water line on the north side of Featherstone road from Kenilworth about 300 feet west. Deferred one week was action on assessment rolls for a sidewalk on Cherry court, east of Hill street.

Postponed two weeks was consideration of a petition for curb and gutter on Myra street, Voorheis to Sylvan court. The petition was signed by 33 per cent of the property owners who would be affected.

Voters OK Mansfield for 2nd Try at Senate

HELENA, Mont. (AP) — Sen. Mike Mansfield, assistant Democratic leader, won renomination yesterday to try for a second term in the U.S. Senate.

Mansfield, 55, piled up a 6-1 lead over the nearest of two newcomers to politics who challenged him—John M. Nickey and Thomas G. Stimatz.

Mansfield's Republican opponent in the November election will be either Louis W. Welch, 31, Anaconda millman, or Mrs. Blanche S. Anderson, 60, Helena widow and onetime county school superintendent. They were locked in a see-saw primary race.

Democratic Rep. Lee Metcalf was hard-pressed to win renomination as a candidate for a fourth term from the 1st Dist. James R. Shea, Walkerville mayor, held an early lead before Metcalf started pulling steadily ahead.

Metcalf will be opposed in November by Mrs. W. M. (Jean) Walterskirchen, 60, Missoula mother of five. She was unopposed in the Republican primary.

There was no primary contest in Montana's other congressional district.

Sets Up Strict Economy

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — Saudi Arabia's Radio Mecca has announced strict measures to preserve the Saudi economy, particularly foreign currency. They ban imports of cars, foreign loans, foreign currency to Saudi Arabian tourists and commercial contracts requiring foreign currency

RARE HONOR — Frances Clubb, World War II WAC sergeant, becomes the first woman commander of Bentley American Legion Post, Cincinnati, Ohio. The former WAC now maneuvers in the business world as a travel agent.

Hal Boyle Says:

Tear Down Suitor's Ego, Gals-He'll Fall

NEW YORK (AP) — Many a wouldbe June bride won't be this year.

The reason in many cases will be very simple — and her own fault. She will make a basic and human mistake. She will waste her time building up her suitor's ego.

This is all wrong. The best way for her to bring a reluctant bachelor to the point of marriage is not to build him up but to tear him down.

It is doubtful whether more than one out of every five men marry from strength. The rest marry from weaknesses of one kind or another.

In four cases out of five, then, the problem of a marriage-minded girl isn't to make her prospective mate feel strong and superior. It is to make him feel weak, helpless and indecisive—unable to face the terror of daily life alone, with no strong shoulder such as hers to lean upon. He must be made to feel utterly dependent upon her.

How can this be done? How can a girl break down a healthy, freedom-loving bachelor so that he willingly will embrace matrimony as a refuge?

Here are a few off-hand tips:

1. Take him to the beach and let him get sunburned the color of a lobster.

2. Send to his sickbed a gift of roses—embowered in poison ivy leaves.

3. Wine him and dine him and keep him out late until he gets circles under his manly little eyes. When he shows signs of collapsing under the pace, let him know that what you'd really like is a home where you could tuck him in bed early every night and let him rest.

4. Once you've got him really worried about his health, have an insurance company mail him a few facts on male mortality, pointing out that husbands live longer and have fewer diseases than bachelors.

5. Lend him money to pay his medical and racetrack debts. Hint that, if you were married, you' be willing to cancel not only the interest charges but the principal, too.

6. Tell him that you just got a raise and your job is safe, but that at your firm they are laying off the bachelors first and the married men last. This will really worry him.

7. Tell him that while he was ill, an Army recruiting sergeant called and wanted to know if he was interested in a fine new career that would enable him to see the world at little or no personal expense.

8. Finally, as a clincher, you wistfully inform him that a handsome new fellow at your office has proposed and that, while you don't love him, still a girl has to think of her future, et cetera, et cetera.

By now completely dependent upon you, broken in body and spirit, the fear-ridden bum of your choice will cave in at once and plead for you to marry him.

Which you cheerfully do. You may be getting a human wreck for a husband—a wreck you made yourself—and your conscience may trouble you a bit. But remember, June marriages are made on earth, not in heaven, and all's fair in love and war.

And, after all, you've got the rest of your life to build your new husband back into manhood again.

Imprisonment as a form of punishment for crime did not come into general acceptance either in the U. S. or abroad until sometime after 1800.

Downtown Bay City Wins Fight Against Suburban Shopping Centers

By AL PELOQUIN
Bay City Times Staff Writer

BAY CITY (AP) — Downtown Bay City is nailing the coffin lid shut on the threat of suburban shopping centers—with more than four million dollars of new downtown construction.

City Hall is helping swing the hammer too, with a modern five-million-dollar four-lane downtown bridge, one-way streets, more parking and new fluorescent street lights.

The Bay City story comes in the face of nationwide urban concern over the flight of retailers to the suburbs—and the threatened loss of tax dollars from the built-up blocks of valuable downtown property.

One big anchor for downtown Bay City is a two-million-dollar project for Sears, Roebuck and Co. Sears plans to lease a new store and warehouse, and provide its own parking area for 400 cars.

Ten blocks away, a $500,000-plus Wrigley Properties, Inc. downtown shopping center is now going up. It will have off-street parking for 300 cars, plus the city's first Federal Department Stores unit, a Wrigley supermarket and several smaller retail stores.

Between Sears and Wrigley, in the exact center of downtown, Peoples National Bank and Trust Co.—Bay City's biggest financial house—is rebuilding new and bigger. Estimated cost: $750,000.

Another block away, J. C. Penney Co. has announced plans to start this fall on a new store that will replace a 67-year-old office building in a $450,000-plus project.

Still another block away, Mutual Savings and Loan Association recently moved into a new $300,000 office building. It replaced an ancient dipalidated hotel.

A second downtown shopping center nearby, worth approximately two million dollars in new buildings, was completed less than a year ago. It has parking for 420 cars, two supermarkets, a Woolworth store, and banks of smaller retail stores and offices.

The story behind all this activity is one of cooperation between businessman, merchant, city official, county supervisor. It came slowly and grudgingly, out of suspicion and mistrust, but has built rapidly in recent years.

Merchants led off after World War II by asking for curbside parking meters. City Hall installed the meters after some argument, but began using their revenue for general fund purposes until several years ago.

A first big break for Bay City downtown came when Art Narlock purchased an entire city block on the southern fringe of the 50 blocks that make up downtown here. He built a first-run theater—the downtown's fifth—a night club and a bowling alley.

Developments went slowly until 1950, when City Hall finally agreed to earmark part of meter revenues to buy up a half-block and meter it for a municipal lot for 100 cars. Cost: $71,500.

It was in 1953 that Rail Development Corp. of New York gained control of four blocks of unused railroad depot property along downtown's northeast edge. With Chesapeake & Ohio Railway support, it put up its two million dollar shopping center—and the anchors for downtown began to fall into place.

In 1955, City Hall enlarged its big downtown Riverside Park, adding space for 175 more cars. Led by City Assessor Horace D. Hodge, who foresaw the problem of rebuilding downtown, City Hall also excepted most of the 50-block built-up area from off-street parking requirements.

It meant an old building could be torn down and a new one put up without the need for buying up expensive property for new off-street parking.

At the county government level, supervisors had meanwhile plunked $6,000 into an economic industrial potential survey. One of the recommendations—a suggestion that the "aging central business district" be revitalized.

The new downtown bridge opened in 1957. It links downtown via a four-lane bridge with a superhighway running straight as an arrow to Midland, and linking with another superhighway that ties to Saginaw on the south and northeastern Michigan on the north.

The State Highway Department took its trunklines out of downtown. Traffic congestion was helped along even further with establishment of one-way downtown streets.

The city's biggest downtown hotel, the Wenonah, poured $250,000 into modernizing.

The development of downtown Bay City has come without the usual frills of other Michigan communities. In this city of some 55,000, there have been no big parking garages or ramps, no parking revenue bond issues, no applications for urban renewal funds.

City officials have instead gone ahead on a "pay-as-you-go" basis, and emphasized the responsibility of merchants and property owners to provide off-street parking of their own.

There is little talk anymore about downtown fleeing to the suburbs, although there has been some retail construction around city limits.

City Hall has convinced downtown it wants to stay put, and downtown is happy to stay.

Soviets Bidding for More Trade

West's Economic Policy Likely to Be Reviewed at Top-Level Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States began looking into the possibility of increased trade with the Soviet Union today on the basis of a direct bid from Premier Khrushchev to President Eisenhower.

The issue of Western trade policy toward the Soviet Union seems likely to come up in top-level U.S.-German and U.S.-British policy talks in the next few days.

President Theodor Heuss of West Germany and Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano began a visit today with Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles. British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan will hold two days of conferences here beginning Monday.

The latest Khrushchev letter possibly was timed with those meetings in mind. The State Department announced only that "the subject matter concerns trade relations between Russia and the United States."

But it was learned that Khrushchev put before the President his announced desire to obtain large amounts of equipment for increasing Soviet industrial capacity for the manufacture of synthetic materials and plastics.

Officials said that Khrushchev probably would have no difficulty in buying in this or other Western industrial countries any machinery not barred from trade with the Soviet Union. But the Allies maintain a list of goods denied to Soviet commerce because, in the view of Western governments, they would increase Soviet military strength.

The definition of what industrial equipment would contribute to Soviet war potential, however, is a controversial problem among the Western powers. And Khrushchev's letter coupled with a long-time Moscow campaign against the strategic trade control system may very well stir the controversy afresh.

NORMAN G. HOMER

A graduate of Birmingham High School, Norman lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Homer, 5475 Middle Belt Rd., Orchard Lake.

Less Than 5 Million Unemployed in May

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government officials say unemployment figures for May, due out Friday, are expected to show fewer than five million persons jobless.

April figures marked a less-than-seasonal decline of 78,000 from March. After allowance for seasonal factors, the percentage of the civilian labor force out of work in April rose to 7⅛ per cent.

The officials said the May figures are not expected to show much change in this ratio. But they said the report will show an increase in employment—attributed chiefly to upswings in farming, construction and other outdoor work.

Total employment in April was listed at 62,907,000 or about 1¼ million below April 1957.

Globemaster Plunge Kills Six Crewmen

TRAVIS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — An Air Force C124 Globemaster crashed, burned and exploded while attempting a take-off yesterday, killing six of its eight crewmen.

The four-engine transport was en route to Honolulu and then its home base at Tachikawa, Japan, after being overhauled by Douglas Aircraft Co. at Long Beach, Calif. Its crew had picked up the plane here.

Air Force spokesmen refused to comment on the possible cause or to identify crew members although they said the plane carried 20,000 pounds of cargo.

Eyewitnesses blamed a power failure. They said the plane lifted, then made a 90-degree turn and plunged to the ground near a state highway.

Two crewmen escaped unburned but one was injured seriously.

The plane was attached to the 1503rd Air Transport Wing.

Fourth Body Recovered Since Boating Tragedy

BAY CITY (AP)—The body of the fourth and final victim of a boating tragedy on Saginaw Bay May 10 has been recovered 10 miles south of here. State Police reported today the body of David A. Fedchenko, 13, of Hazel Park, was spotted 100 yards offshore late yesterday.

Bodies of the boy's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fedchenko, and his sister, Carol, 16, were found earlier. The family drowned after their 14-foot boat overturned.

May Delay Payment

WASHINGTON (UPI) —New Premier Charles de Gaulle may postpone France's regular 78 million dollar loan repayment to the United States this year in an effort to prop up the sagging French economy, officials said last night.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt proclaimed the first National Wildlife week in the year of 1938.

JANET MARIE PITTMAN

The engagement of Janet Marie Pittman to Airman Second Class Richard C. Bowmaster has been announced by her parents, Mrs. Virginia Pittman of 1562 Maddox St., Union Lake, and Robert Pittman of 309 Orchard Lake Rd., Farmington. The prospective bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bowmaster of 118 S. Josephine St., Waterford Township, is stationed at Worksmith Air Force Base, Oscoda. The wedding date hasn't been set.

Detroit Police Chief to Quit on Sept. 1

DETROIT (UPI) — Edward S. Piggins today announced his resignation as Detroit police commissioner, effective Sept. 1.

He said he was resigning to return to private law practice.

Piggins, who has been police commissioner for four years, handed his resignation to Mayor Louis Miriani.

He conferred with the mayor this morning for a half hour and then wrote his letter of resignation.

Miriani declined to name a successor to the $19,289-a-year job. He said, "I have until Sept. 1 to worry about that."

Former GM Official Succumbs in Florida

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Funeral services will be held here Saturday for George D. Moore, an automobile industry pioneer who died Monday in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Moore was a former General Motors Corp. director and one-time vice president of Chevrolet of Ohio.

A native of Cincinnati, he came here in 1909 and helped found the Warner Manufacturing Co. He later became manager of a Toledo plant operated by General Motors' Chevrolet division, retiring from the plant manager post 28 years ago.

Safety Patrol Boy Awarded Scholarship

An 11-year-old Ferndale safety patrol boy who lost his leg protecting others has been rewarded with a college scholarship.

Ricky Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Andrews of 593 Saratoga, at pre-graduation ceremonies at Washington School last night, learned that Mervyn G. Gaskin, vice president of the Automobile Club of Michigan, will provide him with a four-year scholarship to the college of his choice.

This was a personal gesture by Gaskin, chairman of the Auto Club's safety and traffic committee.

The Auto Club, which sponsors the safety patrol throughout most of Michigan, presented Ricky with a gold life-saving certificate and a promise of a free trip to Washington.

Ricky, who also was graduated from the fifth to the sixth grade, was one of the few safety patrol boys to be injured in the line of duty.

He was pinned against a tree last January by one of two cars which collided in front of his post at Farmdale and LeRoys streets near his school. He lost his right leg.

CAROL PERKUCHIN

Graduating with honors Sunday from Michigan State University will be Carol (Brandeberry) Perkuchin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Brandeberry of 10086 Elizabeth Lake Rd., Milford. A graduate of Milford High School, Carol is a member of the Home Economics Council at MSU, president of the Home Economics Vocational Club, a member of Omicron Nu and Phi Kappa Phi. She has accepted a position as home economics teacher at the new high school in Holt.

Pick Board Trustee for Novi Township

NOVI TOWNSHIP — The Novi Township Board appointed Gordon Promo as board trustee to finish the unexpired term of Stanley Balon who became ineligible to serve when Wixom became a city May 19.

Balon, a resident of Wixom, had completed about a year of his four-year term.

In other action by the board Monday night, a health and safety swimming pool ordinance was adopted. The new law requires that residents erect fences around their private swimming pools.

Board members also decided to ask for bids for a new township police car.

2 Area Women Hurt Severely in Collision

TROY — Two Royal Oak women were injured seriously, one critically, when their car was struck broadside by a gravel truck yesterday at 3:30 p.m. at Crooks and 16 Mile roads.

Mrs. Helen F. Stebner, 53, of 403 W. Webster St., was on the critical list this morning at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac with head and chest injuries. A passenger in her car, Mrs. Marie Thomas, 44, of 509 E. Sixth St., was reported in fair condition by the hospital. She suffered concussion and multiple cuts about the head.

Witnesses told Troy Police Mrs. Stebner drove her car into the path of a northbound truck on Crooks road driven by James Simpson, 27, of 527 Paddock St., Pontiac.

She was headed west on 16 Mile, police said, and followed another car across the intersection after stopping for a stop sign.

Brandon High Will Graduate 43 Tomorrow

ORTONVILLE — Forty-three students will receive their high school diplomas at graduation exercises 8 p.m. tomorrow in Brandon High School Auditorium.

Ardell Henry, director of University of Michigan Extension Service for the Lower Thumb area, will deliver the commencement address.

The class is headed by Wayne Dickason, valedictorian, and Diana Weil, salutatorian. Music will be provided by the Senior Band, directed by Thomas Young.

At Milford High School

Present Awards to Pupils

MILFORD — Hundreds of parents and spectators were on hand at the gymnasium of the new Milford High School last night to witness the annual awards convocation ceremony for some 400 pupils.

For the first time in the high school's history, a senior, Patrick Kelley, attained a perfect, four-point academic rating, qualifying as the unanimous valedictorian.

Running a close second was salutatorian Sue Bourns with 3.89 points for her four years at Milford High.

One top-rating boy and girl from each of the four high school grades were given Board of Education awards for combined scholastic an extra-curricular achievements.

Representing the ninth grade were Mary Lawrence and Donald Coe, Susan Veresh and John Sheffler, tenth grade, and Marie Montante and John Stoughton, the 11th. Top seniors were Diane Leppala and Patrick Kelley.

A special Monday Literary Club Trophy was presented to Judith Crawford as the outstanding girl student, and a similar award, the Harold Gorsline Cup, went to George Johnstone.

One of the most coveted awards, the American Legion Trophy, was given to the Student Council as the organization in the school "contributing most to service for its members, its school and its community."

Three senior boys Arlen Thompson, Donald Campbell and John Boring, were presented special awards for having perfect attendance records for four consecutive years.

There will be 126 Milford High School seniors graduating on June 11.

$16,889 in Revenue to County for May

During May the Oakland County Register of Deeds office saw 11,007 papers come across the counters. This amount of business brought in $16,889.60 in revenue to the county.

Comparable figures for May of the previous year show $17,368.50 in revenue from 12,095 papers.

There were five new plats recorded in the office of Register Daniel T. Murphy Jr. last month.

Business then included handling 2,607 deeds ($4,257), 1,331 land mortgages ($4,527.75), 4,357 chattel mortgages ($54,357), 827 photos ($751.35), eight bills of sale ($4), and 1,977 miscellaneous items worth $2,992.50.

Lights Out in Lapeer

LAPEER — Residents of Lapeer and surrounding townships were without electricity for about 40 minutes yesterday morning. The power failure was blamed by Detroit Edison spokesmen on a fault in the Lapeer substation.

Japanese Princess Suga Hep to Modern Ways

TOKYO (INS) — A dozen years ago the Empress of Japan took her youngest daughter aside and told her:

"The war is over now, and it has changed the world completely. Change with it."

Princess Suga, the "hep" 17-year-old daughter of Emperor Hirohito, has taken this advice to heart.

Living in the tradition-bound Japanese court — which looks back at its colorful 2,618-year history oftener than it looks forward at its doubtful future — Suga has become an ardent fan of jazz music, western clothes and independent thinking.

"I make up my own mind," the bright, attractive Princess said in a rare question-and-answer interview with the Japanese-language weekly "Yomiuri."

She was talking about selecting dress materials, but the statement goes for just about everything else in her life.

SPURNS 'ROCKABILLY'

While most of Japan's fad-mad teenagers are going wild over something called "rockbilly," Suga the nation's number one teenager, has turned thumbs down on it.

"I like classical music," she says, "but I prefer jazz. And I don't like rockabilly."

Suga says she reads American magazines, skiis and plays tennis and avidly devours fashion magazines.

The Princess is being taught to dance by her 24-year-old brother, Crown Prince Akihito, for the closely-attended girl has no opportunities to learn outside the court.

NO FLASHY CLOTHES

She goes in for "sporty" western clothes, but she prefers "rather conservative, quiet colors to loud, flashy ones."

Suga selects her own materials. "Usually," she says, "I walk around department stores or shops on Ginza Street with Mrs. Takagi, my lady-in-waiting, and I make up my own mind."

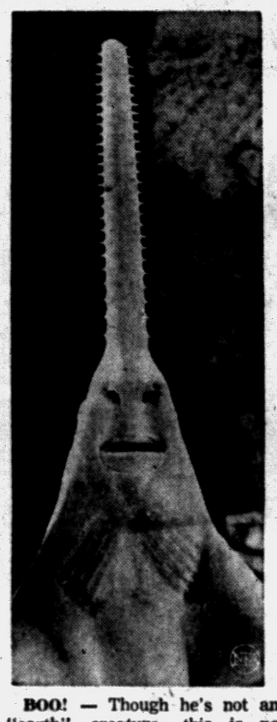

For her shopping expeditions, the Princess brings along clippings from the American magazines to help her select dress patterns.

Hirohito's youngest child now is attending college — the first Japanese princess ever to do so. At exclusive Gakushuin Peers' school, she specializes in English literature, and it appears to be paying off.

Japanese fashion designer Chiyoko Hirasawa credits Suga not only with "good taste in selecting dresses" but also with "good English pronunciation."

But despite her strong orientation toward the west, the Princess keeps a strong allegiance to things Japanese.

"I use Japanese materials," she says, "even for western dresses. I use mostly Japanese cosmetics. I have my hair done by my mother's hair-dresser in a combination western and classical Japanese hair-do.

BOO! — Though he's not an "earth" creature, this is no character from outer space. It's just a baby sawfish in the Seaquarium in Miami, Fla. That isn't a face, either. Those staring, heavy-lidded "eyes" are really gills. The eyes are on the other side.

Sailor Tells of Sex Equality in Russia

DUBLIN — Russian woman-power impressed 18-year-old Dublin seaman Brian Murphy, on a trip as a crew member of the British freighter Tempo. On his return to Eire after visiting Igaika, a lumber port in the Arctic Circle, he said: "The Russians believe in equality of sexes. Girls are tallying lumber, working shifts of 12 hours on and eight hours off, without a break.

Our men doing similar work had 12 hours on and 12 hours off, with breaks. When we got a tea break I offered a girl I was working with a cup of tea and sandwiches. An armed guard lowered his gun and refused to let her accept.

It was common to see women break the ice on a pond to wash their clothes there, without soap."

Victory an Easy Chore for Write-In Candidate

VENTURA, Calif. (AP) — Rep. Charles M. Teague, who failed to get his name on the primary election ballot, had little trouble winning the Republican nomination for another term in Congress.

Presented with a blank spot on their ballot, Republican voters by the thousands wrote in Teague's name in yesterday's primary to assure him of getting into the November election against Democrat William K. Stewart.

Say Careless Smoking Cause of Apartment Fire

Careless smoking set fire to the apartment of Mary Jo Worth, 24, of 23 Williams St., last night, firemen said. She suffered second degree burns of the hands and was treated at Pontiac General Hospital.

Damages are estimated at $500 to contents and $100 to the building.

Rising Cost of Living Erodes Its Value

Gen. De Gaulle Seeks to Bolster Shaky French Franc

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — One of Gen. de Gaule's first tasks will be to try to bolster the shaky franc.

French officials say that in international payments to settle foreign trade, France is near bankruptcy. Its participation in the European Common Market with five other nations is at stake.

At home the franc's problem is that old familiar one — the rising cost of living which steadily erodes its value.

That the U.S. dollar doesn't buy as much now as in 1947 is no news to Americans. But for Frenchmen the depreciation of money has been much worse.

In a study of what's happened in the last 10 years to the buying power of the currency of 24 countries, economists of the First National City Bank of New York measure the depreciation of money by the rise in the official cost of living or consumer price index.

The rates of depreciation vary widely year by year but the economists have compounded them and average them out to give an annual rate.

Taking the French franc's market value at an arbitrary 100 in 1947, they find that by the end of 1957 it was worth 56, or a decline of 6.2 per cent a year.

By comparison, the U.S. dollar, if valued at 100 in 1947, had dropped to 80, for an annual decline of 2.2 per cent.

Switzerland has the best record. But even its currency's value went down by 1.2 per cent a year and now stands at 89 on the bank's index.

Next best were Germany and Venezuela, each with an annual decline of 1.5 per cent.

The United States is fourth, followed by India with 2.3 per cent drop, Belgium 2.6 per cent, Italy 3 per cent, and Canada 3.5 per cent.

Although Canada's dollar now commands a premium over the U.S. dollar in foreign exchange, its depreciation measured by the Canadian cost of living brought it from the index figure of 100 in 1947 to 70 at the end of 1957.

Fourteenth down on the list is the United Kingdom. Britain's fight against inflation has been losing over the 10 years at an annual rate of 4.7 per cent and its currency now stands at 62 on the index.

Four South American countries have been hardest hit of the 24. Chile stands at the bottom of the list, its currency depreciating at an annual rate of 25.5 per cent, bringing it down on the index from 100 in 1947 to 5 as last year ended.

Argentina's annual loss was 16.5 per cent and Brazil's 12.1. Peru's money dropped to 37 in the 10 years, an annual loss of 9.5 per cent.

Brazil is particularly hard hit at the present time, with a threatening financial crisis.

But France's problem, it less drastic over the years, is real enough right now. At home, De Gaulle's problem will be to try to curb further wage and price rises. Abroad, it will be to seek some way out of the international payments crisis.

American businessmen note that this may very well stymie the European Common Market, supposed to get under way at the end of the year.

France, West Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg are scheduled to start a slow move toward removal of all trade and travel barriers between themselves. With France currently unable to meet its financial obligations in foreign trade, the whole scheme could be delayed.

Antivice Crusader Wins in Alabama

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Youthful John Patterson, son of the antivice crusader slain four years ago in sin-ridden Phenix City, swept to the Democratic nomination for governor in his first statewide campaign.

Patterson, 36, promised to continue the fight against organized crime, to rid the state of corruption in the capitol and to preserve segregation.

With 3,063 of the state's 3,154 boxes tabulated, Patterson had 304,080 votes to 239,029 for Judge George C. Wallace of Clayton in yesterday's runoff primary.

In Alabama, Democratic nomination has meant election for more than 80 years.

Albert L. Patterson, father of the winner, was shot to death in 1954 a few days after his nomination for attorney general on a pledge to rid Phenix City of its sin spots. John Patterson was named to the office, his first political job.

The present governor, James E. Folsom, cannot succeed himself.

Wayne State Professor to Speak Here Tonight

Thomas Coleman, associate professor of Wayne State University in Special education will be the guest speaker tonight at the monthly meeting of the Association for Handicapped Children.

Coleman will discuss teacher training for mentally retarded children at the meeting beginning at 8 p.m. at the American Legion Cook-Nelson Post 20, 206 Auburn Ave.

The National Parks in the United States cover 24 million acres.

Vanguard Tests Will Continue

Despite Failures, Navy Reassured by Pentagon of New Launchings

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite four failures in five attempts, the Navy will continue trying to blast Vanguard satellites into orbit.

This is the blunt answer given at the Pentagon to inquiries as to why the Vanguard project isn't dropped in favor of more satellite launchings with the Army's Jupiter-C rocket combine.

The Defense Department says its reasons for sticking with Vanguards are that they are the best vehicles available — when they work—and that the country requires a greater return on the millions invested in the program.

The Navy, administering the Vanguard project for the U. S. contribution to the International Geophysical Year program, already has poured at least 110 million dollars into development and preliminary testing.

Six or seven additional Vanguards with fully instrumented satellite spheres, each costing about one million dollars, already have been made or are under construction.

Dr. Wernher von Braun, the Army's rocket specialist, has described the Vanguard as a sophisticated rocket combination for earth orbiting satellites. In simple language, this means that the three-stage rocket and its specially designed 21½-pound moon are exceedingly complicated, which is one reason why it has been so difficult to make them work.

But when a Vanguard rocket works, as one did in getting a tiny satellite into orbit on St. Patrick's Day, it is far more efficient than the Jupiter-C as a moon launcher. It takes 2,200 pounds of fuel and hardware to orbit one pound of pay load instruments with a Jupiter-C rocket combine. The Vanguard lifts one pound of instruments into space with only 1,000 pounds of fuel and hardware.

The grapefruit - sized satellite launched by the Navy on March 17 worked so well that a nearly ideal orbit was achieved, leading scientists to prophesy a 200-year life for its tiny satellite.

New Parlor Game Goes Well With Martinis

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Probably to get their minds off the recession, New York's alert advertising crowd has introduced a new parlor game which some insist goes magnificently with martinis.

It deals with personal motivations, naturally, and money.

At parties, three questions are asked of each guest. Presumably, he must tell the truth, after some soul-searching.

The questions are provocative, eh, Elmer?

1—You are offered $5,000,000 if you will agree to live in a 50-square-mile area for the rest of your life. You may pick the location, but never venture off it. Would you accept?

2—For $1,000,000 you must give up all your present friends, and agree never to see them again. This does not include your family. Well, buddy?

3—You are on a sinking ship. With a small life raft. You can take to safety with you either five paintings by famous old masters, or an 80-year-old man suffering from an incurable disease. Which? (In this question, it is ruled unfair for questioned party to inquire "Is it contagious?")

The point of the little game is to get to know thy neighbor as thyself—and let down thy hair or guard thy throat accordingly.

Anita Colby, the beautiful lady long known as "The Face," now reveals herself as also being "The Smelliest." Nicely so, of course, but eternally wafting with aroma.

In a beauty book, she gives women some tips which they should observe if they're going to lure a man away from his cynical parlor pastime.

She suggests the following methods for leading a man around by the nose:

Keep a bottle of cologne in the refrigerator during summer, and dash it on wrists and forehead every time you drop by the kitchen.

After a bath, rub cologne into the skin all over. Your body will be warm enough to "seal in" the fragrance.

But don't stop there. . . . If you have oily hair, you can use cologne as a coiffure-setter. For dry hair, use scented lotions.

When you're covered with your first layer of clothes (the lingerie) spray yourself with perfumed water. Saturate a large twist of cotton and rub yourself down. Now spray the insides of hemlines, shoulder pads or linings of dresses, "to stir up a scent as you move."

Now, when you're fully dressed, dab perfume behind the ears, on the handkerchief, on the hair. Tuck a cotton pellet scented with perfume into your bra, where the heat of the body makes the fragrance rise.

And remember — perfume has only about a four-hour smell span. So if you're going out, carry a purse vial with you.

Miss Colby says you will bowl over the men.

Literally, probably.

Aged Chinese Cook Won't Be Deported

OMAHA (AP)—Harry Lee, 72-year-old Chinese cook, can forget his worries about being deported.

James A. Glasgow, acting Omaha District director of immigration, gives that assurance to Lee, who entered this country as a stowaway in 1918 and has lived in many cities since then.

The Chinese cook now lives in retirement in Davenport, Iowa. The government checking old records, had instructed Lee to produce affidavits that he had not left the country since 1924. He said he could not get them.

The immigration official said Lee may achieve the status of a permanent resident through registry proceedings to create a record of lawful entry that does not now exist.

Lee registered with the New York Chinese consulate some 24 years ago.

'Bath' for Rooster Kills Pet, Causes $10,000 Blaze

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP) — Gary Lawson, 3, and Billy Miller, 4, wanted to give Gary's pet rooster Cock-a-doodle-doo a drink.

They tipped over a can of gasoline.

A heater pilot light ignited the fumes.

The flash attracted Mrs. Barbara Lawson, who was across the street.

As she rushed home, Billy burst out shouting "Gary's trying to save his rooster. . . . There's a fire!"

Then Gary ran out and sobbed in his mother's arms: "I tired to save Cock-a-doodle-doo."

He clutched a single feather.

The rooster died in the fire, which caused $10,000 damage.

About 75 per cent of the U. S. commercial carrot crop is now weeded by the use of weed-killing sprays.

Navy Commander Gets High School Diploma

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Lt. Cmdr. Charles A. Betleyoun, 48, was awarded a diploma at the Meadville High School commencement last night.

Betleyoun quit high school while a sophomore in 1925. He enlisted in the Navy and rose from apprentice seaman to his present rank. He qualified for a diploma by passing the armed forces general educational development test.

He was unable to attend the commencement. He is at Moffet Field, Calif., in the process of being retired after 30 years of naval service.

Waterford's Burt School Plans Pancake Supper

An old fashioned pancake supper has been scheduled from 5:30 to 8 p.m. Thursday at the William Austin Burt school in Waterford Township.

Sponsored by Boy Scout Troop No. 166, all proceeds will go towards buying camping equipment for the troop.

Army Rocket Explodes Accidentally, 3 Hurt

FT. SILL, Okla. (AP) — Three Army officers at this artillery and missile center were injured slightly when an Honest John rocket exploded on its launcher.

Lt. Frederick U. Rorapaugh said he was placing fuses on the magnesium warhead yesterday when he heard one of them click. He shouted a warning to 25 soldiers in the area and leaped to the ground.

The warhead blew up, igniting the rocket motor which sent the 17-foot missile zigzagging 400 yards on the ground.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen . Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

School of Instruction Held by PTA Council

The annual school of instruction and mass installation of officers was held by Pontiac Council of PTA Tuesday at Central Methodist Church.

The Rev. Karl Ostberg, pastor of First Congregational Church, gave the invocation. Greetings to the group of 350 PTA members were extended by Mrs. William Mihalek, outgoing president of the council.

AIMS OUTLINED

Mrs. Charles Neldrett, president of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, explained the purposes of the workshops in training PTA personnel for leadership.

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of Pontiac schools, also extended greetings, saying that two of the schools' greatest assets are the cooperative understanding of the PTAs and the high level of leadership of the Board of Education.

Mrs. William Anderson, incoming president of the council, also spoke briefly.

The remainder of the morning was spent in individual conferences for officers and committee chairmen. Following a luncheon served at the church, officers of the council were introduced along with special guests, Mrs. Neldrett and the Rev. John Hall, pastor of Central Methodist Church, who gave the invocation at the luncheon.

Recipients of the PTA scholarships Charleen Deeg, Albion College; Virginia Baker, Wayne State University, Richard Lantz, and Marie Meyer, University of Michigan; and Sandra Sommerville, Michigan State University, were introduced.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

Installed by Mrs. Neldrett as council officers for the coming year were Mrs. William Anderson, president; Mrs. Wayne Weaver, first vice president; Mrs. L. D. McLaughlin, second vice president; Mrs. Roland Stephison, recording secretary; Mrs. Leonard Saari, corresponding secretary; Charles Coppersmith, treasurer; Mrs. Thomas Fowler, historian; and Arthur Bell, auditor.

Music was furnished by the honor choirs of Bagley, Bethune and Whittier Schools, directed by Albert Shaw. Mrs. Lawrence Curtis, Mrs. William White and Lillian Davidson had charge of decorations for the tables, which were in a boat-and-lighthouse theme, the lighthouses denoting the council and boats representing the local units.

Mrs. Weaver was general chairman of the all-day event, assisted by Mrs. William Wright, publicity; Mrs. Russel C. Bell and Mrs. Milton Blood, publicity; Mrs. William Thomas and Mrs. LeRoy Koch, reservations; and Mrs. Lyle Dusenbury, flowers.

Decorations for Tuesday's school of instruction and installation were carried out in a boat-and-lighthouse motif, boats representing the local units and the lighthouses denoting the council. Here, Mrs. William Mihalek (left), outgoing president, and Mrs. William Anderson, incoming president, are photographed while admiring the decorations.

Recipients of PTA scholarships were introduced at Tuesday's PTA gathering. They are (left to right) Charleen Deeg, Albion College; Richard Lantz, University of Michigan, and Sandra Sommerville, Michigan State University.

To Pontiac Journalism Students

Press Awards Four Scholarships

Four Pontiac Central High School journalists were awarded scholarships by The Pontiac Press last night at the school's annual Spring Publications Banquet.

Sherry Fink of the Quiver staff, the yearbook, and Dianne Flicker of the Tomahawk staff, the school newspaper, received the awards to attend a two-week high school journalism workshop this summer at University of Michigan.

Attending a similar program at Michigan State University will be Thomas Nichols of the Quiver and Susan Steinbaugh of the Tomahawk.

ANNOUNCED AT BANQUET

The winners of the scholarships were announced at the banquet by Robert B. Tarr, managing editor of The Press.

The students selected were in the upper third of their class scholastically and had achieved competence in writing skills. Previous service to the school publications was also a basis of selection.

Quiver staffers Rhoda Goldberg and Ann Pirochta and Harry Van Matre and Sarah Hetherington of the Tomahawk were each awarded certificates for their service to the respective publications by the Michigan State Press Association and the Michigan State University School of Journalism.

The editorial board of the 1958-59 edition of the Tomahawk was also announced at the banquet, sponsored by the Ottawa Chapter of the Quill and Scroll Society, the national honorary society based on service to publications and scholastic attainment.

The board will consist of Jeanette Ohanesian, news editor; Marjorie Crowder, feature editor; Dick Reynolds, sports editor; Sue Summerville, advertising manager; and Ellen Taylor, business manager.

QUIVER EDITORS

Appointments to the Quiver editorial board were also announced. The editors or co-editors of the various sections of the book will be: Kiki Sekles, faculty; Delores Shea and Dimmie Governess, senior; Sue Rhew, underclassmen; Santhy Annas and Valarie Armstrong, organizations; Thomas Nichols, athletics; Vicky Annas, girls' sports; Sharan Freeman, advertising; and Sherry Fink, copy writer.

Joyce Reynolds, president of the local chapter, announced the names of the new members of the society. They were Santhy Annas, Sherry Fink and Sue Rhew of the Quiver, and Ronald Sugg and Allan Tillema of the print shop.

Tomahawk staff new members of the society are Linda Cousens, Marjorie Crowder, Myrla Henry, Jackie Loomis, Jeanette Ohanesian and Richard Reynolds.

The banquet was the last for Robert Beauchamp as advisor to the Tomahawk. Beauchamp, who will head the English department at Pontiac Northern High School next fall, has served as the newspaper's advisor for the past 11 years.

Robert Richard, the advisor to the Quiver, will now supervise both publications.

The banquet also honored the science journal staff members and sponsor Wesley Maas; Epistolae Scholae, sponsored by Iama C. Hook, and the print shop under the supervision of Theodore Carlson.

Dear Abby....

Don't Be Party to Shady Affair

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: I have a very dear friend who is unhappily married. She is seeing a married man on the q. t. and although I know it's wrong I am the only one she can trust to help her. Her husband drops her off at my house every Friday night, thinking she is spending the evening with me. Then her boy friend picks her up here.

ABBY

"Her boy friend always gets her back in time for her husband to pick her up promptly at midnight. My own husband says I am as guilty as she is and if I don't wash my hands of this deal he will handle it his own way. Please tell me what to do."

A FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: I can't give you any better advice than your husband already has. Tell your friend that your husband forbids you to be a party to this affair, period.

"DEAR ABBY: Before I married my husband I was his bookkeeper. With pay, of course. Now that we're married, I am still his bookkeeper. But without pay. I am beginning to think I was better off before I married him. What gives?"

SLAVE GIRL

DEAR SLAVE: Not your husband. You are in a better bargaining position than you were when you were only his bookkeeper. Use your head.

"DEAR ABBY: I would like to tell every woman who has had her pride hurt by a philandering husband: 'Don't be proud—be practical!' I went through plenty with a husband who I knew was stepping out on me all the 26 years of our married life. I stuck until the kids were grown and married and then I finally divorced him.

"Believe me, if I had to do it over again there'd have been no divorce — REGARDLESS! Get a new hairdo, tint it if you like — fix up your home, take up painting or gardening, or anything to keep busy, but DON'T start out trying to live alone. It never works. I know. I have tried."

PROUD AND VERY SORRY

"DEAR ABBY: I am nine years old and I still suck my thumb. The doctor tells my mother not to worry that I will outgrow it but my mother is worried anyway and keeps after me. Now my mother says if I don't stop it she will take me to one of those men who makes you lay down on a couch and tell your dreams to. That would be awful. Please help me."

THUMB SUCKER

DEAR THUMB SUCKER: If your doctor says you will outgrow it, your mother should believe him. Help the doctor, and try a little harder.

Forty Reaps Harvest of Ten Year's Effort

By RUTH MILLETT

She is more attractive at 40 than she was at 30. Since that is quite an achievement for any woman, you might like to know how this woman managed it.

Here are a few—if not all—of the things she has done in those 10 years that make her a more attractive woman.

She got back the slender figure she lost during the years when she was having children, and through diet and exercise she has managed to keep it.

She has learned the type of clothes best suited to her and how to wear them. So you notice her now when 10 years ago she was easily lost in the crowd.

In taking on community work she has developed her talents and gained in self-confidence and poise.

She has done all the little things necessary to keep in touch with old friends and to make new ones. So, having made a place for herself, her personality has become easy and natural. But 10 years ago anyone meeting her would have described her as shy or unsure.

She has entertained enough to have become a charming, gracious hostess, one who makes each guest feel like a very special one.

She has moved right along at her husband's side as he has moved ahead in his career, instead of hanging back.

In a few words, what this woman has done is what more women could do. She left girlhood behind without trying to cling to it—and stepped out with head high on the road to becoming a charming, attractive, helpful, happy woman.

Use Soap to Remove Stains From Plastic

Did you know there is only one principle for removing stains from plastic articles? It's that if suds and water won't remove the stain, nothing will. So always use soap or detergent suds to wash plastics clean.

Tones Up Muscles

Massage has its value in reducing but it may not be what you think. It doesn't remove weight but does tone up muscles and stimulate circulation.

Blowing Top Can Establish Self-Respect

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Maida's mother had just finished her luncheon sandwich when a neighbor dropped in. Together with coffee they ate up some leftover chocolate layer cake.

Later, Maida brought home a high school friend. Upon learning where the cake had gone, she showed annoyance. As soon as the friend departed, she expressed it with force.

She said to her mother, "I thought you were on a diet! How do you expect to lose weight if you gobble cake all day? I was counting on serving that cake to Phyllis. But you can never count on anything in this house. Really, mother . . ."

Her parent blew up. "Who do you think you are—the Queen of Sheba?" she shouted. "Let's get this straight! I'll eat cake whenever I feel like it! And my diet is my business, not yours. I never heard of such cheek in my life . . ."

As her subdued offspring retreated, she became conscious of a great sense of relief. She felt so carefree and comfortable in herself that she thought, "Gosh, blowing up is wonderful. I must do it more often."

But blowing up had not caused her relief.

What caused it was the knowledge that she could present herself to an aggressive person as a woman who could assert her own value.

Child guidance experts mislead us when they extol the usefulness of a blowup to children. Our explosion does us no permanent good unless we register what it has really represented—an announcement of ourselves as a person entitled to consideration.

REAL CAUSE

It is important to register the real cause of our relief after a blowup so that we can hold on to our new self-respect—and begin to establish it so consciously in our minds that we don't have to blow up every time Maida attacks it.

When, like her mother, we attribute our relief to the explosion itself, we lose the whole benefit of our little adventure into self-assertion. We put our trust into angry explosions instead of into our new sense of importance. And every time Maida irritates us, we feel obliged to produce a temper tantrum.

This is a waste of energy.

A blowup's relief, insufficiently understood, can turn us into a bully instead of into a consistently self-respecting parent.

Mary Ann Lane Becomes Bride of James Maggard

Mary Ann Lane and James D. Maggard were married at 11 a.m. Saturday at St. Michael Church. The Rev. Norman Thomas officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lane of North Perry street, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Maggard of Isom, Ky., formerly of Pontiac.

The bride wore a gown featuring a fitted bodice of Chantilly lace with long tapered sleeves and scalloped Sabrina neckline trimmed with iridescent sequins. The floor-length skirt was fashioned of bouffant chiffon.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held by a crown of handmade lace trimmed with sequins. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bride's cousin, Mary Jo Murphy of Lansing, was maid of honor. She wore a waltz-length gown of orchid chiffon and carried a cascade of yellow carnations.

Bridesmaids were Patricia Byers of Lansing and Sally Lane, sister of the bride. They wore waltz-length yellow chiffon dresses and carried cascades of orchid carnations.

Coconut Crust Embraces Tart Red Cherry Filling

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Coconut and cherries combine to make an interesting dessert to serve with ice cream. When fresh cherries come in season, there's no reason why you can't use them.

Today's cook is Mrs. Frederick Lebersuch. She keeps busy with three young daughters and some church work. Gardening and reading are her hobbies.

CHERRY DESSERT
By Mrs. Frederick Lebersuch

1¾ cups shredded coconut
½ cup sugar
½ cup butter or margarine
1½ cups sifted flour
1 can frozen cherries
2 tablespoons cornstarch
½ cup sugar

Using a medium blade, grind the coconut. Add ½ cup sugar, butter or margarine and flour. Blend like pastry.

Press half the mixture into a greased 9-inch square pan.

Drain cherries, add cornstarch and other ½ cup sugar to juice. Cook until thick, stirring constantly. Add cherries and pour over coconut crust. Add remaining crumbs over the top of the fruit.

Bake 30 minutes in a 400-degree oven. Cut into squares and serve with ice cream or whipped cream. Serves 10-12.

Good Secretary Needs Skill Plus Personality

EAST LANSING (INS) — A Michigan State University study of the nation's top-flight secretaries has shown it takes a lot more than basic business skills "to be the boss's Girl Friday."

Girls, to reach the top of the secretarial ladder, have to be friendly, have a winning smile, be courteous, act like a lady, have a pleasing voice, dress properly and, of course, know your job well.

RESULTS OF SURVEY

These things were listed in the results of a survey conducted by Gene McCann of the MSU Department of Business Education and Secretarial Studies.

The survey included talks with secretaries who work for leading corporations listed on the New York Stock exchange, bank presidents and governors of several states.

McCann summed up his findings saying, "A stenographer with at least average intelligence and stenographic skills, but who is above average in initiative, courteousness and who has a friendly attitude toward people should make a very good secretary.

Bingo With Music

Here's a new idea for parlor fun: Name That Tune, the first game to be played on a phonograph, uses bits from 160 famous songs as the base for musical bingo.

The Picture You Make

Your appearance and the impression you leave are the sum total of all your beauty habits.

Let cleanliness be the basis of your beauty. Hair neat, shining and becomingly groomed. Hands well cared for and make-up skillfully applied. Dress with care . . . not necessarily expensively but in good taste. Don't stop here . . . for beauty alone is not enough. Develop charm, personality can take you farther, stay with you longer than beauty. Many times it can actually replace physical beauty.

The best advice we can leave with you is forgo speaking of your own interests first . . . instead ask about the interests of those around you.

In Cards Winners Take All

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: When guests in our house lose money at card games, should we take their money? Doesn't the fact that we are hosts make it seem inhospitable for us to consider their card debts seriously?"

Answer: No. You either play for money, or you don't. You are merely a player in the game and take exactly the same position as the others who are playing with you.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My niece has been living with her mother and stepfather ever since her parents' divorce 10 years ago. She has been seeing her father on and off throughout these years but there never has been any great love between them, and her stepfather has been very good to her.

"Now that she is to be married, she insists upon having her father give her away and also to have his name on the invitations along with her mother's, omitting her stepfather's name entirely. I think this is all wrong but before I say anything I would like to know from you if this is ever done?"

Answer: She is entirely correct in having her father give her away, but his name cannot appear on the wedding invitations which are sent out in the names of her mother and stepfather.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When the bridegroom has more than one brother, must the oldest one be asked to be the best man or might the younger one be asked? I have been told that the oldest brother should be the one to fill this position."

Answer: Not necessarily. If, for instance, one brother is several years older than the bridegroom and he has another almost his own age, everyone will understand that it is because he is much more intimate with the younger brother that he choses him to be his best man.

Never More Important

Vanity Demands Good Grooming

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

At no time is good grooming so important to both morale and physical attractiveness as it is during pregnancy. The bulging figure is a temporary blow to vanity. Don't allow fatigue, or any one of the possible annoying small discomforts cause you to be less meticulous than usual.

I already have written this week about the wisdom of wearing brassieres and girdles which have been specifically designed for expectant mothers. These should have an underlift with no crowding at the top. They also should be adjustable in order to meet the demands of the changing figure. These garments are aids to beauty as well as to health since they help preserve your silhouette.

ATTENTION TO FACE

The clever woman calls attention to her face and away from her figure by wearing white "choirboy" collars, or a white bow at the neckline. Chunky or dramatic beads, pearls and earrings, also focus attention upward. Add to these even newer fashion touches for top interest, such as gaily striped vestees, cleverly draped roll collars, yokes sprinkled with jet or embroidery, cardigan necklines of striped cotton knit, high turtle necks worn with contrasting scoop-neck jerkins in brilliant colors, or cut-out necklines that feature a lot of your own skin.

Even if your complexion behaves beautifully most of the time it may cut some capers during this nine months. If you find it unusually oily, wash your face several times a day with soap and water. At this period in your life you should be especially faithful about careful cleansing. If pregnancy has the effect of making your skin drier than usual, use an oily cream twice a day and pat an eye cream about the eyes at night.

You may have to change your make-up base and powder shades. Skin often becomes a shade or two darker during this nine months. delivery. Because of this change you may also want to wear a It usually returns to normal after brighter lipstick. Also finger-pat a light colored make-up subtly under your eyes if they tend to be circled.

Shampoo your hair once a week and wear it in a style that adds height. Do not allow your tresses to get full and bushy around the jawline. This adds to the chunky appearance you already have, or soon will have.

You may perspire more now than you usually do so be even more careful than usual about your baths and underarm deodorant.

If you would like to have my leaflet "Care During and After Pregnancy" No. 21 and "Reconditioning at Home" No. 49 send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Areme Chapter of OES Plans Officers Night

Areme Chapter No. 503, OES, met at Roosevelt Temple with Mrs. William Pfahlert, worthy matron, presiding.

Members were invited to attend a proficiency class meeting to be held at 7 p.m. Monday at the home of Norton Graham, worthy patron, on Joslyn avenue.

On June 16 at 8 p.m. the chapter will sponsor Advanced Officers Night at a special meeting. Mrs. Pfahlert announced that the Oakland County association breakfast will be held at Avon Park, Rochester, at 8 a.m. on July 20.

A memorial service was held for Mrs. Florence Rice. Following the Monday meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Raymond Swaney, who was assisted by Mrs. Furn Tubbs and Mrs. A. W. Robinson.

Student Musicale Meets for Picnic

Metropolitan Club Plans July 1 Supper

Metropolitan Club Spirit No. 6 Ladies Auxiliary met Tuesday evening for its monthly session. Plans were made to hold a cooperative supper at the next meeting, July 1.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. John Wilson and Mrs. John Depau.

Group Names Queen

Mrs. Sam Jones was crowned Fashionette Queen at the Fashionette Club meeting held Tuesday evening in Adah Shelly Library.

Mrs. Jones was awarded the title on the basis of points received for pounds lost, attendance and appearance during the contest which began Jan. 7.

Second place winner was Mrs. Edward Cook.

Arrangements for the event were handled by Mrs. Albert Lovse, chairman; Mrs. Edwin Bennett, Mrs. Virgil Lewis, Mrs. Bert Hellock and Mrs. Adolph Hohm.

The Fashionette Quartet consisting of Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Frank Reichert, Mrs. Edna Merts and Mrs. Cook, sang.

The club member losing the most weight since January will be entered in the Queen of Will Power Contest to be held June 26. Other contestants will be from the Fashion Your Figure Clubs of Pontiac, Waterford, Rochester and the Fashionette Club.

New members received were Mrs. Byron Barnes and Mrs. Pablo Banda.

Mrs. William Woodruff, president, won the trophy for most weight lost last week.

Election of new officers will be held June 24. Members on the nominating committee are Mrs. James King, Mrs. Wava Forker and Mrs. Edward Cook.

Touch Up Manicure

A touch-up will keep a manicure looking better longer. A coat of colorless polish applied about three days after a manicure protects the original application.

While in college she was active in the a cappella choir, college chorus, Valerian Literary Society, and the Gospel Team.

Neck Deserves Daily Ration of Beauty Care

If you wish to retain a lovely neck line, assure its youthful appearance with daily beauty care that will prevent premature creping and creasing in the delicate skin. Counteract the drying effects of wind, sun, heat and cold on the neck by massaging with a night cream or a dry skin cream before retiring.

Then, while the cream does its lubricating work, strengthen the neck muscles with exercise. Pull the muscles taut by clenching the jaws, and then rotate the head in a complete circle several times.

202 Pupils, Teachers Poisoned

Happiness Turns to Nightmare

MARION, N.C. (AP) — Food poisoning turned a gay year's-end school luncheon into a nightmare for 202 retching, screaming children and teachers at a small grade school yesterday.

The tide of ill youngsters completely overran the small community hospital and taxed emergency facilities at the school.

Doctors said all patients will recover.

The sudden emergency was met quickly when officials at Marion General Hospital executed a never-practiced hospital disaster plan.

The 60-bed Marion General Hospital admitted 202 children and teachers from the 227-pupil Eugene Cross Elementary School.

Dr. W.F.E. Lostin, public health officer, suspected that the poisoning came from ham.

The hospital, alerted by school officials when the first symptoms appears about two hours after lunch, started preparations immediately for handling an emergency situation. Hospital staff members moved 19 ambulatory patients to nearby nurses quarters, discharged four patients and emptied all hospital beds except four.

Additional beds—many of them cots and roll-aways donated by townspeople after a radio appeal —were placed in hospital corridors. The nurses' lounge and living room became wards.

The town's medical force was supplemented by nurses and rescue squads from nearby towns.

Pupils received first aid at the school. Ambulances shuttled the pupils and teachers to the hospital.

State highway patrolmen rushed additional medical supplies from Asheville, 35 miles to the west.

By early evening many of the children had recovered sufficiently to chatter excitedly about the situation.

Eight-year-old Buddy Honeycutt, a curly-haired second-grader in a bed near the third-floor staircase, whispered to a newsman: "Where's my britches? I want to go home now."

Set Peace as Your Goal, Ike Tells Navy Grads

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — President Eisenhower today told United States Naval Academy graduates their overriding goal in this nuclear age must be prevention of war and promotion of world peace.

But he said too that a just peace can be won only from a position of strength — and that the armed services "have become, indeed, great shields to guard the peace."

In sounding that note, Eisenhower also plugged for his controversial defense reorganization program without mentioning it specifically. He told the 900 academy graduates — being commissioned as ensigns in the Navy or second lieutenants in the Air Force or Marine Corps — to keep up to date on the principles of effective military management.

Then he added: "Obsolescence in military management and organization can be as dangerous to our nation as obsolescence in weaponry."

In an address prepared for the academy commencement exercises, the President said the target of all military officers in these times must be a just peace and prevention of war because winning that goal has become of transcendent importance.

"For modern war," he said, "is preposterously and mutually annihilative; peace is the imperative of our age."

The President traveled from Washington for this third visit to the Naval Academy since he took office in 1953. This was the first time he has attended graduation ceremonies here.

Jury Impaneled in Assault Trial of Mickey Cohen

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Five men and seven women have been warned of the worst—and impaneled as a jury to try Mickey Cohen.

Cohen was charged with assault after federal narcotics officer Howard W. Chappell claimed the little ex-convict slugged him March 26 in an argument in Chappell's office.

Prospective jurors were asked by the prosecution yesterday if they would be prejudiced because government witnesses would have to quote "lewd and obscene phrases and words Cohen used in his assault on Chappell."

Cohen's attorneys asked them if they would be prejudiced against Cohen because of his reputation.

Attacks Petrillo at House Probe

Director at Interlochen Gets Mixed Reactions From Congressmen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, founder of the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Mich., today got mixed reactions from a House subcommittee on labor-management relations.

Rep. Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich.) charged Musicians Union President James C. Petrillo (who is retiring) with "interfering with music education." But Rep. Elmer J. Holland (D-Pa.), a member of the Steelworkers Union, told Maddy, "I think you are biased against unions."

The reaction followed Maddy's charges yesterday that Petrillo was conducting "an insidious campaign" to crush his camp.

Maddy, who has been feuding with Petrillo for years, said the czar of 280,000 musicians in the nation had "made musical scabs of thousands of young musicians" by placing the camp on the union's "unfair list" for the last 13 years.

Maddy also said he was "thrown out" of the musicians union for criticizing Petrillo and that a number of musicians have been expelled for teaching at the camp.

The music professor at the University of Michigan said the most recent abuse was that Petrillo forced cancellation of an invitation to the camp's high school band to play at the dedication of the Mackinac Straits Bridge June 27. The union threatened to bring 3,000 pickets to the ceremony.

Moose Lodge Installs Baxter in State Post

John P. Baxter, past president of Pontiac Moose Lodge 182, was among the new officers of the Michigan Moose Legion No. 105 installed at a recent legion banquet.

Baxter, of 571 Third Ave., was installed to the chair of West Moose at the ceremony held in the Dearborn Lodge last weekend.

He has also been elected state vice president and will take the position at an installation to be held later this summer, it was announced.

Farley's Bid for Senate Job Stirring Up Some Misgivings

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans viewed with some misgivings today the entry of James A. Farley into the New York senatorial scramble.

Farley, the old pro of the first two elections of Franklin D. Roosevelt, announced in New York yesterday he will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Senate. Twice the Democratic national chairman, he retired from active politics in 1944.

This projected return to politics of the genial former postmaster general complicated an already involved situation in his own party. It gave no cheer to Republicans seeking agreement on a candidate to succeed retiring GOP Sen. Irving M. Ives.

Nominees of both parties will be chosen at conventions late in August.

Sen. Andrew F. Schoeppel (R-Kan), chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said Farley's move was not unexpected.

"If Jim Farley can get the nomination, he will be a formidable candidate," Schoeppel said. "If he is the nominee, our Republican friends in New York will have their work cut out for them."

Sen. George A. Smathers (D-Fla), head of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, noted in a separate interview that his group does not take sides before a nominee is chosen.

"But it is encouraging to us to see men of the stature of Jim Farley enter the rough and difficult field of politics again," he said. "We have several fine possibilities for the nomination in New York and I'm confident the Democrats there will settle on a certain victor in the November election."

Although Farley is 70 years old, his chances of getting the nomination were generally regarded as fairly good by party politicians to whom he is widely known.

However, Gov. Averell Harriman, a candidate to succeed himself, apparently is going to have a great deal to say about the state convention's choice of the senatorial nominee. Harriman stood by FDR when Farley broke with his chief over the third term.

Harriman is credited in some quarters with favoring Thomas K. Finletter, former secretary of the Air Force and a close friend of Adlai E. Stevenson, twice the party's presidential nominee.

Some Democrats here believe Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City would be the party's best vote getter. But Wagner is plagued by promises he made in his last mayoral election that he would serve out his term.

Republicans believe that Leonard W. Hall, former Republican national chairman, has the nod from former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and his associates for the nomination to contest Harriman for the governorship.

Hall announced his candidacy for the gubernatorial nomination on Monday.

His chief potential rivals are Nelson A. Rockefeller, philanthropist who has held federal posts under both Republican and Democratic administrations; and State Sen. Walter J. Mahoney of Buffalo, GOP majority leader.

Neither Rockefeller nor Mahoney has announced his candidacy.

No one is openly seeking the GOP Senate nomination in New York.

ROBERT TRICKER

Civitan President Gets Higher Post

The current president of the Pontiac Civitan Club, Robert Tricker, of 204 Dick Ave., has been elected lieutenant governor of the Civitan's Great Lakes District, it was announced today.

Tricker has been with the Pontiac club for just over three years, having served twice as vice president before becoming president.

He will officially take over his new district position on July 1, when he surrenders his position with the local Civitan group to the 1958 president-elect, Dr. George Ross.

Revisits Greece to Fix Memory With $25,000

DETROIT (AP) — Peter Meyers plans to close his restaurant in Dearborn Friday and make the long trip back to his native village of Taygetos in Greece.

Meyers, now 62, left Taygetos as a small boy. He is taking $25,000 back with him to recreate a boyhood memory.

There was a spring in Taygetos when Meyers was a boy whose water "was absolutely clear, and so cold as it came from the ground you had to let it set a minute before it was comfortable to drink."

Meyers returned to Taygetos three years ago. The spring was dry. It had been destroyed by the Germans in World War II.

"The people had dug some open wells in town," Meyers said, "but the water was bad and many people were ill from drinking it."

When Meyers returned to this country he contacted 300 former Taygetosians who had emigrated to the United States. The men put up the money which Meyers will use to bring the cold spring back to their home town.

13-Year-Old Saves Boy Buried in Sand

MUNISING (AP) — Newsboy Billy Kinnunen Jr., 13, worked very, very fast with a shovel in the aid of 8-year-old Robert Bowerman.

Billy came by on his paper route just at the moment a basement excavation for a house caved in yesterday.

The sand buried Robert. And Billy seized a nearby shovel.

Later Billy told of first uncovering Robert's elbow and then his face and head.

"I was sure glad to see his face and he was sure glad to see my face," said Billy.

Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bowerman, was taken to Munising hospital. He was slightly injured.

Colleges Beckon Oakland Area Prep Stars

By CHUCK ABAIR

Next stop for the top Oakland County area prep stars is college and many of the top athletes have made their choices.

Trackman Larry Beamer of Pontiac Central has decided on Michigan. Jerry Ohngren of St. Mikes is planning on Michigan State. John Herrington, Waterford cager, is set on Central Michigan with Birmingham golfer Pete Green planning on DePauw, Maple swimmer Tom Bechtel on Michigan and Lake Orion gridder and cager Nick Niera to Central Michigan.

Beamer played a key role in leading Pontiac Central to its 4th straight state track title. Ohngren impressed several college coaches with his line play at St. Mikes and Niera was a three sport ace at Lake Orion.

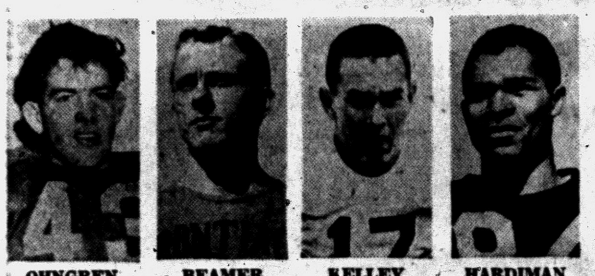

Bechtel has rewritten the swimming record books at Birmingham and Green is rated one of the school's outstanding golfers.

Many area athletes plan on college but no participation in sports, others are undecided and may enter the service.

Michigan will be getting baseballer Shan Griffith of Pontiac, gridder Jim Kearney of Bloomfield Hills, Todd Grant of Southfield, John Studebaker and Jim Ludwig of Cranbrook, Bill Tunnicliff of Ferndale St. James, Jim Marsh of Farmington, Dennis Van Sicklen of Walled Lake and Lou Pavloff of Hazel Park.

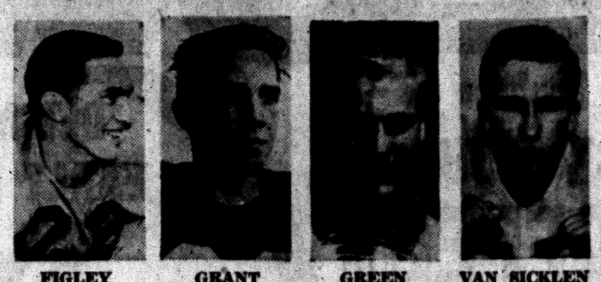

OHNGREN BEAMER KELLEY HARDIMAN

Going to MSU with Ohngren are Franz Nuebrecht and Ron Martens of Berkley along with other gridders Larry Lomako and Pat Hanes of Clawson, Ron Emerick of East Detroit with the big prize Gary Ballman of East Detroit. Others to MSU may be Bill Thomas of Brown City and John Ribner of North Branch.

University of Detroit should profit from the addition of Dave Robinson of Madison, Gary Banks of Royal Oak Dondero, Pete Madelans of Orchard Lake St. Mary and Bob Mineweaser of St. Mikes.

FIGLEY GRANT GREEN VAN SICKLEN

Central Michigan is planning on Pontiac's Mike Hardiman; Armada's Jess Placencia, Waterford's Chuck Kirken, Larry Clyma of Hazel Park and Gary Vanek of Royal Oak Kimball, while Alma will be seeing Duane Lau and Bob Minton of Avondale, Duane Hussey of Roseville, Skip Cameron of Imlay City and Ken Purdom of Rochester.

Another track ace heading for Eastern Michigan is Pontiac's Roger Coates, along with Ed Thompson of Armada, Dave Catherman of Farmington and Frank Redman of Milford.

Western Michigan is figuring on Waterford's Bill Cole, Romeo gridders John Lomakoski, Bud Dodge and Butch Dallwitz along with Pat McCary of Berkley and Bob Hoyt of Milford.

Bob Shull of Southfield, Art Stone and Hal Hadden of Holly, Curt Fiater of Dryden and John Rise of Waterford are planning on Albion while Hillsdale may get Rolph Gordhammer of West Bloomfield, Doug Storey of Lake Orion, and Bob Elston of Bloomfield Hills.

George Palalan of Pontiac and Don Heargan of Walled Lake are thinking about Ferris, and Tom Chapdelaine of St. Mikes, Lloyd Asbury of Cranbrook and John Erickson of RO Dondero are looking toward West Point.

Louisville beckons Bill Yahne of Northville, Milan Varajon and Ben Burkland of Troy.

OTHERS LOOKING TO COLLEGE ARE:

Pete Turner (Cranbrook) Stanford; Jerry Billiet (Imlay) Northern Michigan; Gary Emery (Almont) Flint J. C., Bob Stephenson (Birmingham) Duke; Bill Loveland and "Red" Farrar (Waterford) Northern Michigan; Wayne Figley (Troy) Dartmouth; Phil Valek (Holly) Adrian; Jerry Hackett (Milford) Wheaton, Ill.; Roger Lance (Clawson) Taylor Center.

BOYS STILL UNDECIDED AND THE SCHOOLS THEY ARE CONSIDERING:

Jim Hawkins (PCH) MSU; Bob Garrett (PCH), Flint J. C.; Bob Greenlees (Avondale) Alma; Paul Smuts (RO St. Mary) CMC or Louisville; Jim Sierens (RO Dondero) Louisville; Larry Gacki (St. Benedict) Eastern or Central; Tom Underhill (S. Lyon) Western, Eastern or Bowling Green; Tom Noteware (Cranbrook) Duke or Bucknell; Ed Grames (Walled Lake) CMC or Hillsdale; and Jim Drake (Lake Orion) Hardin-Simmons.

Also, Frank Birdwell (Pittsgerald) Flint J. C.; Al Dubois (West Bloomfield) Ferris; "Cap" Pethers (Northville) Ferris or Hillsdale; George Kish (Millington) Michigan; Earl McNeal (Ferndale) Western or Bowling Green; John Volk (Clawson) Navy; Manny Raimi (Oak Park) Iowa State or U. of D.; Gordon Rodwan (Ferndale) Western, U. of D. or Michigan; and Pat Kelley (Milford) Navy or Michigan.

Clarkston grid and hoop star Bill Noles, Pontiac's Joe Hill and speedster Dick Biery of Northville may enter prep schools before college.

Birds Still Masters Over Tigers, 2-0

Bunning Loses Even Without Giving Homers

Bengals Able to Get Only Six Singles Off Portocarrero

BALTIMORE (AP) — Jim Bunning solved his homerun ball problem against the Baltimore Orioles last night. But his Detroit Tiger teammates couldn't master Arnold Portocarrero's pitching as the big righthander set them down to a 2-0 defeat—Bunning's fifth against two victories this season.

Portocarrero, who came to the Birds on a trade from Kansas City, blanked the Tigers on six hits in pitching his second straight shutout. He got out of his only serious jam with a double play in the seventh inning.

Bunning gave up six hits before he was lifted in the sixth for a pinch-hitter and the Orioles nicked three more Detroit pitchers for another four hits.

Bunning set a Detroit record when he gave up 33 home runs last year on the way to 20 victories. But at the rate he has been going this season he stands to double last year's gopher ball figure.

He gave up 10 homers in 39 2/3 innings before last night's game —and that works out to one circuit clout for every four innings.

The only extra base hit the Orioles worked Bunning for last night, however, were doubles by Foster Castleman and Billy Gardner.

Castleman's double in the second drove home Jim Marshall for Baltimore's first run. Portocarrero added the insurance tally in the sixth on Gene Woodling's single.

The Oriole pitcher upped his record to 4-2 in handcuffing the Tigers.

After giving up a first-inning single to Harvey Kuenn, who collected two of Detroit's hits, Portocarerro retired 15 batters in a row before Frank Bolling and Billy Martin hit successive singles with two out in the sixth. With runners on first and second, Kuenn flied out.

Al Kaline's single in the seventh started Portocarrero's worst jam. The Tiger rightfielder moved to third on Bob Hazle's one-out single. But Ray Boone, batting for Reno Bertoia, grounded into a double play.

The game, attended by 33,992 spectators on Interfaith Night, was delayed 10 minutes in the seventh inning by a fireworks display and a 65-foot dive by a flaming high diver into a tank of water.

Frank Lary was scheduled to pitch for Detroit in tonight's game against the Birds. Connie Johnson will hurl for Baltimore.

Covington, Aaron Each Hit Pair

Braves on Home Run Spree

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Milwaukee Braves have rediscovered the home run, slamming back into the National League by walloping 12 in their last four games.

The champs belted five, their best one-game total of the year, and made them good for all but one of their runs in a 7-6 decision at San Francisco last night. The Giants were shoved back into second place, .010 percentage points behind.

Wes Covington and Hank Aaron each hit a pair. Covington's second hauled the Braves from behind in the eighth inning and Aaron's second clinched it in the ninth.

There were at least two home runs in every NL game yesterday —except at Los Angeles. That cozy-corner in the Coliseum gave up just one, a sliced shot by Duke Snider, as Cincinnati used a bunch of walks for an 8-3 victory over the Dodgers.

St. Louis defeated Pittsburgh 8-4 on two-run homers by Stan Musial and Joe Cunningham, and the Chicago Cubs clobbered Philadelphia 12-4 with Ernie Banks hitting his 14th homer, tops in the NL.

The Braves, who set a team record and led the NL in homers (199) for the first time since 1900 as they won the pennant last season, had been averaging less than one a game before the current spurt. Covington, with four in the last four games, hit his first in a two-run fourth that gave the Braves a 2-2 tie, matching Ray Jablonski's two-run homer in the Giants' third inning.

Aaron and Felix Mantilla hit consecutive homers for a 4-2 lead in the fifth, but starter Lew Burdette and reliever Gene Conley blew the bulge.

Unbeaten Don McMahon won his fifth in relief, but needed Ernie Johnson's help when the Giants scored with one out in the ninth on Willie Mays' triple and an infield out. The Giants had 11 hits. The Braves had a dozen, 10 off starter Ruben Gomez, who lost his fourth.

Cunningham's second home run of the season junked a 4-all tie against losing reliever Curt Raydon (0-2) in the fourth for the Cardinals. Musial slugged his 390th in the majors, ninth this year, in the sixth. He drove in three runs. Larry Jackson won his fourth although allowing 10 hits, including home runs by Bob Skinner and Bill Mazeroski.

The Redlegs had nine walks, five of them in a six-run third off loser Sandy Koufax, who didn't allow a hit while giving up five runs. Don Hoak's three-run double was the only hit in the big frame, and the ex-Dodger also stole home in the inning. Brooks Lawrence won it.

Banks was 4-for-4 for the Cubs, who also had a homer from Cal Neeman as unbeaten Taylor Phillips won his fourth. Curt Simmons lost his sixth.

Maple Leafs Get Goalie; Wings Buy Three

NHL Clubs Pick Up Nine Players

MONTREAL (AP) — National Hockey League clubs Tuesday picked up nine players from the minors in the annual draft just before a three-player sale by the Montreal Canadiens to the Detroit Red Wings was announced.

The player rated the biggest plum in the draft was goalie Johnny Bower, grabbed from the Cleveland Barons of the American League by the Toronto Maple Leafs for the $15,000 draft price.

The deal between Montreal and Detroit sent three Canadiens' farmhands to the Red Wings. They are Gene Achtymichuk, a center from the Montreal Royals of the Quebec League; defenseman Jim MacPherson, who has been with Edmonton of the Western League, and leftwinger Claude Laforge, who toiled last season with Shawinigan of the Quebec League.

Both Achtymichuk and Laforge saw brief service last season with the Canadiens in relief roles when injuries beset Canadiens.

The six NHL clubs spent, in all, $95,000 in picking up minor leaguers. The AHL spent $82,500. Springfield was the most prolific grabber of lesser talent, taking five players.

In taking Bower from Cleveland, the Leafs passed up an opportunity to get Charlie Hodge from Montreal. Hodge has been No. 2 goalie behind Jacques Plante.

The NHL draft price from the AHL was $15,000 for each player, from the other minors $10,000. The AHL forked over $7,500 for each player taken from the QHL and WHL.

Chicago, Toronto and New York each took two players in the NHL draft; Boston, Detroit and Montreal one each.

Toronto, as last-place finisher in the NHL last season, had first choice and promptly put the bite on Bower. Chicago in first and second choices took Autry Erickson, a youngster on option to Providence of the AHL, and Howie Glover, a forward, from Cleveland.

New York took forward Phil Maloney from Providence of the AHL and Jack McLeod from Saskatoon of the WHL.

Boston took forward Dan Pilizini from Cleveland of the AHL and Detroit, in the complicated deal to protect their purchase from Montreal, took Achtymichuk. Canadiens, in the same way, drafted Hodge.

City Golfer Shoots Ace

Euell Smith of Pontiac scored a hole-in-one recently at Twin Lakes Golf Club. Using his 7-iron, Smith aced the 155-yard par three 4th hole with Don Vantine and Ken Whitcomb as witnesses. He shot an 18-hole score of 76. It was the 2nd ace in his golfing career, preceded by one several years ago at City Municipal course.

Petoskey Names Coach

PETOSKEY (AP) — Petoskey High School has chosen Alvin Van Wie of Toronto (Ohio) High as its new football coach. Van Wie, 30, former line coach at Mancelona and athletic director at Evart, succeeds Hack Taylor. Taylor resigned to become coach at Charlotte.

MSU to Meet Broncos

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State closes out its baseball season Saturday by entertaining the NCAA district 4 champions, Western Michigan's Broncos.

From The PRESS BOX

The first of 10 Detroit Tiger baseball schools in Michigan will be held June 17-18 at Battle Creek. Pat Mullin and staff will be at Wisner Field in Pontiac June 19-20.

Jesse Diaz was the past month's champion in the city billiards league. He had 278 points followed by Tomas Reyes with 170 and Bob Chavez with 137.

Mickey Crawford of Saginaw will fight Gaspar Ortega of Mexico in a televised welterweight bout July 11th from Madison Square Karden.

A tennis club is being formed by the Recreation Department in Birmingham with free instruction to be offered at Eton Park each weekday morning for eight weeks starting June 23.

The Sanders' company has decided that the Tigers "take the cake." Each winning pitcher and each homer in every game will be presented with a cake.

Salvation Army Team Ties for Second Spot

Salvation Army moved into a second place tie in the City Church Softball League by defeating Trinity Baptist 4-3 last night.

Other games saw Church of the Brethren defeat Columbia Avenue Baptist, 9-6 and Liberty Baptist nose out Bethany Baptist, 12-11. Central Christian defeated St. John's Lutheran in a high scoring game.

Miami Golfer Ousts Champ in British Amateur Event

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (UPI) —Jack Penrose of Miami, a 43-year-old insurance broker, scored a stunning upset in the third round of the British Amateur golf championship today by eliminating defending champion Reid Jack of Scotland 3 and 2.

Jimmy McHale of Philadelphia and Pvt. John Franek of Newton, N. J., first of nine Americans to tee off, both were beaten but Bob Roos of San Francisco posted a victory and Penrose followed immediately with his superb performance against Jack. The Scot won the title last year by downing Air Force Master Sergeant Harold Ridgley of Havertown, Pa., who was beaten this year in the first round.

Roos defeated Wilfred Thompson of England 3-2 and was matched against Penrose in this afternoon's fourth round.

McHale lost to Lindsay Renfrew of Glasgow 1 up and Franek was eliminated by Ben Hanson of England. A third American went out when Brig. Gen. Keith Compton of St. Louis was eliminated by Bryan Williams of England 2 and 1.

In contrast to yesterday's bitter cold, rain, wind and foglike mist, a bright sun steamed over the old course at St. Andrew today. Miamian Penrose felt right at home and pulled off the greatest triumph of his tournament career.

The change in the weather, however, was no help to McHale.

The veteran former Walker Cupper was off to a bad start, trailed by one at the fifth hole, and couldn't crack his rival although they went the entire 18 holes.

McHale was one of the three top hopes of returning the British crown to the U.S. this year. A quarter-finalist in 1952 and veteran of Walker Cup matches in Britain, big Jimmy is an experienced internationalist.

With McHale on the sidelines, Tim Holland of Rockville Center, N. Y., and Frank Strafaci of Miami Beach, Fla., were the best bets to push through today's third and fourth rounds.

Gross of 51, Net of 37 Tops in Ladies' League

Mrs. Phillip Francis and Mrs. Max Richardson took first-flight honors yesterday in the weekly session of the Women's Silver Lake Golf League. Mrs. Francis had low gross, 51, and Mrs. Richardson low net, 37.

Mrs. Garry Looney shot a gross 73 and Mrs. Pearson Wood carded a net 38 for top prizes in the second flight. Mrs. Fred Stimpert won the low putting division with 15 while Mrs. Francis and Mrs. Roland Gegoux were winners of the "blind hole" event on the par four 6th hole with fives.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Can't Keep the Ball Down When Needed.

DIAGNOSIS: Uncertain Technique.

Treatment: The first step in producing a low-flying shot is to change the positioning of the ball at address. Stand so that the ball is positioned nearer the right foot. For a very low shot, the ball should be positioned just opposite the right toe.

6-5

Next, determine to hit the ball with a downward blow — BEFORE YOUR CLUBHEAD CONTACTS THE TURF. The hands will be well ahead of the clubhead at contact.

Naturally enough, you'll want to take one of your less lofted clubs when you need a low shot. Also, you should close the clubface a little to cut down on the natural loft of the club you take.

You'll find this technique very helpful when you need to keep the ball low to avoid overhanging tree limbs or some similar obstacle.

Pitcher Homers for Win

Pitcher Chuck Long of Deni's Corner won his own game last night in a City Softball League thriller at Beaudette Park with a dramatic two-run homer in the bottom of the 7th inning.

With Deni's facing a 3-2 deficit, Long belted a roundtripper with Jack Scott aboard for a 4-3 triumph over the Moose. Scott had singled after hurler Wilbur Wright retired the first two men, then Long connected.

Long, owner of the season's only no-hitter to date, gave up five blows yesterday and Wright allowed the same number for the Moose.

A three-run circuit clout by Shipp in the 3rd inning was all the Pontiac Post Office needed for a 3-1 conquest of the American Legion as Art Weiss hurled two-hit ball.

On the North Side field, George Smith bested Chuck Martin in a mound duel as O'Neil Realty nosed out Spence Rambler, 2-1. Each hurler yielded four hits.

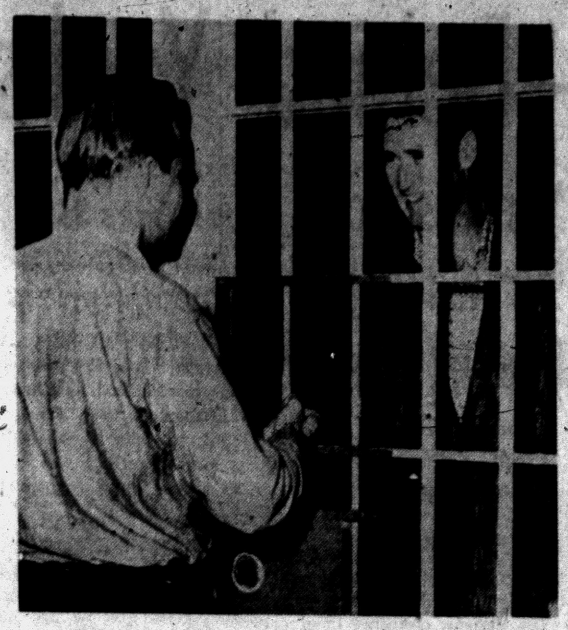

The 10-run rule halted the other game at the end of three innings with Franklin Products gaining an easy 14-2 victory over the Sports Shop.

Gets Bopped—Outside

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals lost a customer for last night's game. He was hit by a batted ball before he could buy a ticket.

Vote Close on Dodgers' Site

LOS ANGELES (UP) — The Dodgers held a slim lead today in voting to determine whether they will be permitted to build a glamorous new stadium in Chavez Ravine.

The last returns announced before counting was interrupted early today put the Dodgers ahead 47,471 votes to 43,453.

Dodger President Walter O'Malley met with newsmen today and said: "What can I say? It's just too close to say anything."

City Councilman Patrick McGee, one of the leaders of opposition to the stadium idea, said: "It's too soon to tell. But I'm satisfied. The issue has been submitted to the people. And that's what we wanted . . .

"The outlying districts are already showing a leading margin for the 'no' side. And this may offset the small margin the downtown districts showed in the early counting."

The extraordinary local interest in the Chavez Ravine issue was noted by O'Malley.

"I was intrigued," he said, "in the interest in the referendum as indicated by the leadlines in the Los Angeles newspapers. The senatorial and gubernatorial elections were secondary."

The unusual voter turnout was held largely responsible for the sluggish rate at which returns were being announced. Veteran newsmen said they could not recall when election results were so slow.

It would take a simple majority for the Dodgers to win the Chavez Ravine property, located just a mile from the Civic Center.

The deal submitted to the voters as Proposition B, would convey some 300 acres of Chavez Ravine property to the ball club in exchange for Dodger-owned Wrigley Field, a former Coast League park.

The Dodgers would spend up to 12 million dollars on a new four - tiered stadium seating about 52,000. They also would construct a 40-acre public recreation park in the ravine at a cost of up to $500,000 and would maintain it at a cost of $60,000 a year for 20 years.

The city would spend up to two million dollars grading the ravine site for the team and the county would invest $2,740,000 on access roads.

The whole deal was approved by the City Council last fall by a vote of 10-4. But opponents launched a referendum campaign and came up with more than enough signatures to have the matter referred to the electorate.

Opponents of the Chavez Ravine contract contended throughout the campaign that they were not trying to strangle baseball. They said they were trying to bail the city out of a poor deal.

The ravine property, they argued, was worth far more than the city was getting out of the contract. They called the deal a "fantastic scheme" and a "give-away." Wrigley Field, they said was virtually worthless to the city.

On the other side, proponents claimed that the Dodgers would bring millions of dollars in outside money to the city and would pay about $345,000 a year in property taxes. In addition, they said, the recreation park to be built by the ball club would involve an investment of $1,700,000 over 20 years. They contended Wrigley Field would give the city a badly needed recreational facility.

Maples Second in Tennis, Golf

Ferndale took the Eastern Michigan League baseball tournament championship by whipping Hazel Park yesterday, 8-0, while Mt. Clemens scored victories in tennis and golf in EML tourneys.

In the consolation baseball game, East Detroit shutout Mt. Clemens, 4-0.

The Mt. Clemens golf team surprised the state championship Maples by posting a total of 333 strokes while Birmingham had 340.

Medalist was Fred George of Port Huron with 38-39—77 at the Port Huron Country Club.

The Maples also were second in tennis. Birmingham doubles team Ron Hamner and John Sisson won from John Bucholz and Hank Rarkinson of Mt. Clemens, 1-6, 6-1 and 9-7.

You Can Order All-Star Ducats Starting Friday

BALTIMORE (AP) — You can begin writing for 1958 All-Star baseball game tickets Friday—at a cost of $4 per ticket—and you'll be limited to two.

Applicants for the reserved seats also must send 75 cents for handling of each order for the classic, set for July 8th in Memorial Stadium.

The host Baltimore Orioles, said orders postmarked earlier than Friday will be ignored, as will those seeking more than two seats.

For reserved seats send check or money order—no cash—to the "Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc., Agent, PO. Box 363, Baltimore 3, Md."

Bob Garrett Hurls, Bats Boys Club to 13-1 Win

Bob Garrett was the pitching and batting star yesterday as the Boys Club drubbed Varden's, 13-1, in a Class B City League baseball game at Jaycee Park.

On the mound Garrett allowed only three hits, struck out seven and walked none. At the plate he whacked two singles and a triple, drove in two runs and stole a base.

Wild Softball Games in Waterford Loop

Two Wall's Service teams gained victories last night in wild Waterford League softball games at Drayton Plains. Both were National loop contests.

Hubert Wall's team collected nine runs in the first three innings, then coasted to a 10-5 decision over Drayton Drug B. Drayton's Tony Hiller starred in defeat with a triple and inside-the-park homer.

In the wildest game of the two, Jim Wall's club rallied for two runs in the bottom of the 5th stanza to defeat the Eagles, 11-10. A sacrifice fly tallied the tying run and the winning marker came home via error.

Pacific Coast Loop School Joins Forces With 4 Others

SEATTLE (UP)—The Pacific Coast Conference, which has endured attacks from within and without for 43 years, was tottering on the brink of oblivion today.

The Stanford University board of trustees probably will administer the coup de grace to the PCC when the board meets at Stanford June 19.

At that time the board will undoubtedly be asked to permit Stanford to jump the PCC and line up with Washington, California, UCLA and southern California in a new "big five" athletic association.

Washington set the PCC up for the kill yesterday when the University board of regents said Washington could quit the PCC, if Washington can form a new alliance with California, UCLA and Southern California.

The only remaining members of the PCC, as of July 1, 1959, would be Washington State, Idaho, Oregon State and Oregon.

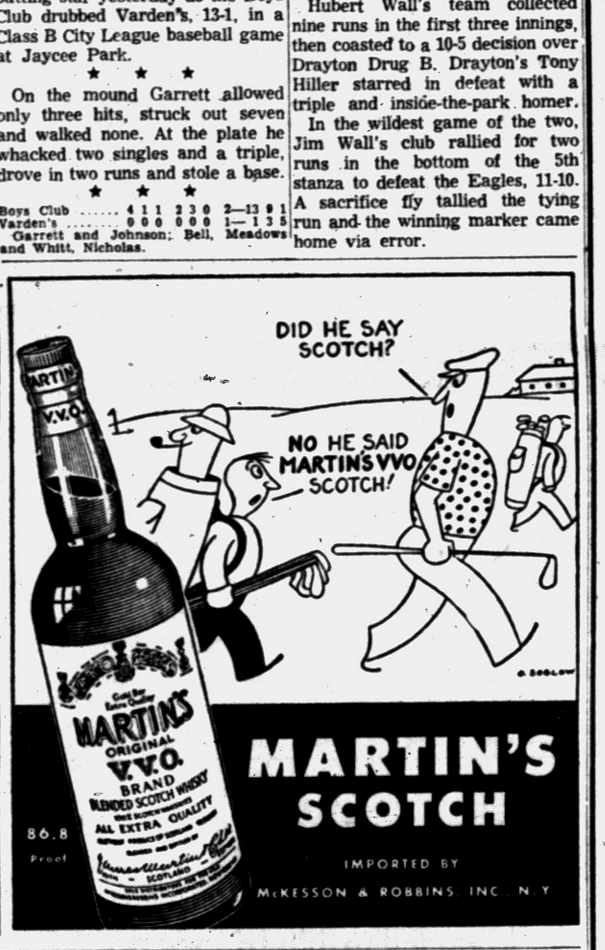

Aparicio Hand X-Rayed

NEW YORK (UPI) — Shortstop Luis Aparicio of the Chicago White Sox will have his right hand X-rayed today to determine the extent of an injury suffered in last night's 13-0 loss to the New York Yankees.

Coast Golfer Leads by 3

RYE, N.Y. (AP)—Johnny Dawson of the Eldorado Club, Palm Desert, Calif., grabbed a three-stroke lead by carding a sub-par 70 as the 54th U.S. Seniors Golf Championship began at Apawamis Club here Tuesday.

In his tourney debut, the long-time amateur star scored a pair of 35s lowering par by one stroke on each half of the 6,190-yard course, but it was an erratic round. Dawson bagged seven birdies, went over by a stroke at five holes and hit only six pars.

Robbins scored 78 after three-putting each of the first four greens, and was tied for 13th among the 198 players who went out. The total entry is 390, but the field is split approximately in half with the first section competing Tuesday and Wednesday and the second segment playing its two rounds on Thursday and Friday.

Three strokes off Dawson's pace came the 1949 winner, Joe Wells of Newell, W.Va., and the East Liverpool, Ohio, Country Club, and James McAlvin, of Chicago and the Onwentsia Club.

Frank Ross of West Hartford, Conn., 1953 champion, joined Clifton Neff of Rydal, Pa., and James Miller of Bronxville, N.Y., in the fourth place bracket, another two shots back at 75.

Jay Fullmer Makes TV Debut Tonight

WEST JORDAN, Utah (AP) — Youthful Jay Fullmer and seasoned welterweight Joe Miceli of New York battle here tonight in a 10-round bout that marks Fullmer's debut in television and against big time opposition.

Fullmer, 21, has more finesse and speed than his older brother, Gene, the former middleweight champion. But hometown partisans wonder whether it will be enough to counter Miceli's experience.

The bout will be televised nationally over ABC-TV, 10 p.m. EDT with the nearby Salt Lake City area blacked out.

Stars Missing From Tourney

Dallas Protests to PGA

DALLAS (AP) — Promoter Jim Ling of the $25,000 Dallas Open smouldered today over so many top golfers skipping his tournament but he still maintained that he would have one of the best fields of the year when the 72-hole grind starts tomorrow.

Ling fired a protest to the PGA yesterday when he learned that Masters champion Arnold Palmer, Bill Casper, Paul Harney and Jay Hebert had joined the growing list of players who won't be here because they reportedly want to practice at Tulsa for the National Open. He didn't expect to get anywhere with the protest since the four were not in the official tournament list.

Ben Hogan previously had passed up the tournament to practice at Tulsa. National Open champion Dick Mayer and National PGA champion Lionel Hebert can't make it because of National Golf Day. Several of the minor lights are staying out because of the travel involved and because of the injuries, etc.

But Sam Snead, a major attraction for any tournament, and Ken Venturi, the brilliant young man from San Francisco who has won more tournaments this year than anybody—three, are in the field.

That the Oak Cliff Country Club's par 70 is due for a hammering was indicated by practice rounds yesterday. Harbert dug a 6-under-par 64 out of the 6,500-yard layout, Snead did a 67 and Venturi eased around in 68.

Most of the touring golfers play in a $2,500 pro-amateur today with $250 top money for the low pro and $200 for the pro in the winning team.

AL Race Close--Behind Yanks

Teeing Off

By BILL CORNWELL

An intelligent, philosophical approach to playing golf is essential in a game where the ball bounces differently from day to day for the expert and the duffer alike.

Keith T. Jacobs Jr., who goes by the more familiar handle of Tommy, is a young professional with an attitude geared to success for the rigors and rapidly changing fortunes of tournament golf.

Jacobs, as you'll recall, was the 23-year-old California whiz who stole the show in the opening round of the Western Open last Thursday at Red Run with a spectacular eight-under-par 64.

He still held a two-stroke lead at the tourney's halfway mark, but slipped a little during the final 36 holes to finish in 4th place with 280, only five shots behind champion Doug Sanders.

JACOBS

Tommy's philosophy is not only intelligent, it's realistic. His "right" thinking toward golf can be neatly summed up in a statement he made on the winter tour:

"I decided that I would never get too elated about shooting a great score and never become too depressed after shooting a bad one. Your luck changes so swiftly, and things happen so fast that you can't afford to go way up or way down emotionally if you want to keep going."

Tommy revealed this philosophy when he was being interviewed by the press at the conclusion of his 64 round. He calmly answered all questions and displayed no outward excitement.

The pressure of being pursued by his fellow pros did tell on him to a degree, but nevertheless he stayed in contention until the finish.

His attitude is wise and a sensible one for all youngsters to follow who are thinking about playing golf for a living. It's the kind of attitude most of the touring pros maintain who finish in the money consistently. It's also a sensible viewpoint for the duffer.

Jacobs enjoyed a sensational amateur career, reaching the USGA semifinals in 1951 at the age of 16, winning the USGA Junior the same year and capturing the National Jaycees title in 1952.

He turned professional Nov. 12, 1956, and tied for 3rd in the 1957 Los Angeles Open. The high finish would have netted him $1,900, but he was ineligible to receive the money because his six-month waiting period had not expired.

His 64 at Red Run was his third such opening round score this year. He did it at Kansas City where he placed 5th and again at Memphis in a pro-am event.

Jacobs' best competitive round was a 62 at Clock Country Club in Whittier, Calif., his home town where his father manages Candlewood CC. Tommy's best 72-hole score was 269 at Garmisch in Germany during his two-year stint in the Army.

Tommy, who will be 24 next February, earned $1,100 Sunday at Red Run, more money than he earned during the entire 1957 tournament swing. As far as some PGA officials are concerned, it's a foregone conclusion that he'll make good in the pro ranks.

Jets Receive First Defeat

CIO Bats Around Twice, Makes 13 Runs in 16-5 Class A Victory

Our Jets absorbed their first setback of the season Tuesday in the Class A City Baseball League and it was a thorough licking.

CIO Local 594 assaulted three pitchers for 16 hits and received seven walks during a 16-5 rout of the Jets at Wisner Field.

Only two Union batters failed to dent the hit column with Chuck Graves, Al Hayward, Chet Woodmore, Kim Conroy and Roger Johnson pacing the attack with two safeties apiece.

The Jets, believe it or not, held a 5-3 lead entering the bottom of the 6th inning. Then the roof caved in as the CIO scored 13 runs on eight hits with 18 men strolling to the plate.

Jim Wagner pitched the distance for the CIO and yielded six safeties while walking two and fanning the same number.

Yankees Score 9th Shutout by Routing Chisox

Senators Take Twinbill From Kansas City as Bosox Dump Tribe

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

That's a heckuva race going on in the American League — behind the New York Yankees that is.

The Yankees clobbered Chicago 13-0 last night, rapping three home runs in support of Johnny Kuck's two-hit pitching that extended the White Sox' scoreless slump to 30 innings. It was the ninth shutout by the Yankee staff this season, the first for Kucks since he blanked the White Sox 3-0 on three hits May 5, 1957.

The Washington Senators, who hadn't managed a double-header sweep since Aug. 16, 1956, until they took two from the Yankees Memorial Day, now have done it twice in five days. They jumped into a third place tie with Boston. Just two games behind Kansas City, by beating the A's 5-4 and 10-9.

Boston beat Cleveland 7-3 and Baltimore shut out Detroit 2-0.

While Kucks, now 4-1 with his second decision over the White Sox, was giving up no hits over the final 6 2-3 innings, the Yankees shelled Dick Donovan before he retired a man in the four-run first. Mickey Mantle hit a three-run homer and Bill Skowron socked a solo homer on consecutive tosses by the big right-hander now 2-6 with his third straight loss, it was Mantle's sixth, Skowron's fifth.

Yogi Berra also hit his sixth home run for the Yankees who had 13 hits in piling up their biggest run total of the season.

They now have won four straight, and are 4-0 vs Chicago.

Billy Goodman out since May 6 with a leg injury, singled for both hits by the Sox, who have been shut out three times in a row. They were beaten 3-0 Saturday by Detroit's Paul Foytack and 3-0 Monday night by Whitey Ford of the Yankees.

Dick Gernert hit a three-run homer for a 5-0 Boston lead in the fifth against starter-loser Mudcat Grant (4-3). Tom Brewer won his first since April 23 with relief help in the ninth although all the Tribe runs were unearned.

Single Tickets May Go on Sale

EAST LANSING (AP) — Contrary to an early announcement, some of the Michigan State ticket allotment for the MSU-University of Michigan football game next fall may go to individual game purchasers.

However, if this happens, only a handful of ducats will be offered on this basis, said Clarence (Biggie) Munn, MSU athletic director.

Munn said 21,000 of the MSU share are reserved for public sale, but under long standing policy these will go to season ticket buyers. There were 18,000 last year, and the number is expected to creep up to 20,000 or higher by the Sept. 12 deadline for purchases.

Only tickets remaining after season ticket applicants get theirs will be made available to individual game buyers.

Frick Asks $100 Penalty Against Beanball Hurlers

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick says he expects the National and American Leagues to issue directives soon automatically imposing $100 fines against pitchers who have to be warned about deliberately throwing at batters.

In a letter to Judge Samuel A. Weiss of Pittsburgh made public Tuesday by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, Frick said he had discussed the matter of bean-balling with National League President Warren Giles on May 28 and added:

"I think you will see a note from the league offices within a few days that hereafter any pitcher who has to be warned will automatically be fined."

Big Ten All-Sports Crown to Spartans

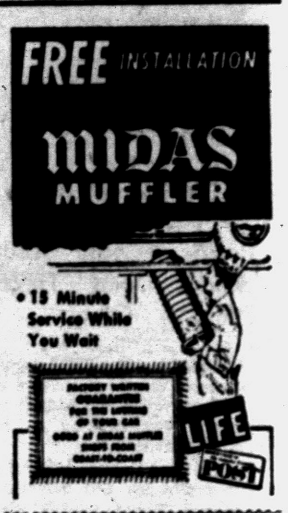

EAST LANSING (UPI)—Michigan State, which won only one outright championship, today claimed the unofficial Big Ten All-Sports crown for 1957-58.

Under a rating system which ranges from 10 points for a first place to one for 10th, MSU edged Illinois by two points for the all-sports championship.

Michigan State totaled 91-½ points, Illinois 89-½, Iowa 83, Indiana 75-12, Ohio State 71-½, Minnesota 59-½, Michigan 57, Purdue 46, Wisconsin 41, and Northwestern 24-½.

Michigan State's only crown was the cross country championship.

Trout Fraternity to Miss Colorful Lynn D. Allen

By JACK PATTERSON

The free and dedicated fraternity of trout fishermen lost a colorful member in the passing, Saturday, of Lynn D. Allen. Over the years Lynn had become a fixture on the Au Sable river's North Branch.

He knew the river and he knew the fish in it, and his remarkable one-handed dexterity with the tools of the trout fisherman's trade aroused the admiration and envy of two-handed casters who saw him at work in the stream.

PATTERSON

Conservationists, sportsman, indefatigable worker on behalf of the handicapped, and gentleman, Lynn Allen will long be remembered by the many friends who knew him and fished with him.

June, in the woods and on the meadows, is the month of babies of the animal world. Almost completely helpless, young of all species have built in safety devices to protect them from their natural enemies, that is, except man. Unable to outrun, or outfly danger, most small creatures rely on camouflage and immobility to keep them safe until danger passes. Consequently, one frequently almost stumbles over the young of many species, from deer to woodcock, and the young often appear to be abandoned.

There is a commendable urge on the part of most people to do what they can to "save" those "orphans." This is particularly true in bad weather; few things look more bedraggled than a fawn or a grouse chick in a rainstorm.

But these are outdoor creatures. Rain, bad weather are part of their life. And whether you see her or not, Mama is never far away. So give them a break. Resist the impulse to remove them to a "safer" spot. The place you found them is the safest place the old girl could find, and she probably knows more than you do about bringing up her brand of kids in the wilderness.

June is also the month when the night fisherman comes into his own, when big brown trout lash fiercely at animate flotsam or reasonable imitations thereof. Night fishing can be a nightmare of tangled gear and wet spills, because the darker the night, the better the fishing, as a rule. But there are advantages.

Nighttime is the only bet for a big trout for the sloppy caster. Night feeders don't care about technique. Wait for the slurp of a feeding fish. Sail something big in his direction. If he sees it chances are you'll have something to take home other than the usual horrible lies.

Big mayfly hatches are being reported all over the north. We have said it many times before and we'll probably keep saying it until someone has a better idea, but the next two weeks should be devoted to problems of keeping a dry fly afloat. It will be the easiest time of the year to hang into braggable fish. If you'd rather spend the time working that's your affair, but don't come crying to us, when you can't catch anything in August.

Shooting School Runs June 7, 14

The Williams Gun Sight Company, sponsors of the Williams Shooting School, will hold their 12th annual session from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on June 7 and 14. There is no charge for this school, and it is open to all boys and girls 12 to 18 years of age. The purpose of the school is to teach the youngsters how to handle firearms safely, the care of the gun, sportsmanship, conservation and lastly —competitive shooting.

The school is strictly supervised by well-known shooting authorities. There has never been an accident on the Williams ranges. All youngsters who complete the course will receive the school emblem and a diploma. If the shooter has a .22 rifle, he should bring it along — otherwise a rifle will be furnished. Two boxes of .22 LR bullets will be needed. The shooter can either bring them or purchase them on the range.

The Williams ranges are located at 7389 Lapeer Road, about 5 miles east of Flint.

Pontiac Junior Gets NRA Award

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The Expert Rifleman Medal, second highest award in American Junior shooting has been won by Larry Franklin Wharff, 14, 446 Elm Street, Pontiac, Michigan the National Rifle Association announced here today.

Shooting several hundred targets in the last few months the new expert marksman fired his way through 13 lower NRA qualifications to achieve his new high rating.

The new junior expert attends Eastern Junior High School and is a member of the Oakland County Sportsmens Club.

BIG BITE — G. N. (Jerry) Coughlan of Essex Fells, N. J., won the Miami Metropolitan Fishing Tournament with a 125-pound tarpon landed from a skiff off the Florida Keys in less than 25 minutes.

FIRST PLACE WINNERS — Michigan Rangers Saddle Club held their 12th annual exhibition Sunday on Davisburg Road and the top honors of the day went to Mrs. George Smith of Rochester and Robert Walls of Milford. Each won in the Western events.

State Booklet Offers Ways to Help Trouters

LANSING — Luckless trout fishermen may acquire some "luck" by reading the lead article in the May-June issue of Michigan Conservation magazine, just off the press.

The article, "Trout Fishing, by the dark of the moon," is designed to help the Michigan trout fishermen capture either "eat'n size or bragg'n size" fish, with emphasis on the latter.

The magazine also has articles on use of Michigan iron ore, on bird-watching, and on the sea lamprey. A guide to state campgrounds and various other features are included.

DURANT, Okla. — Paul Hayes went quail hunting three times. In all he fired 17 times and got 17 quail.

Pioneers Will Hold Horse Show Sunday

The Michigan Pioneers Saddle Club of Oxford will present its 3rd annual all-western horse show this Sunday on the club grounds at the corner of M24 and Drahner roads.

Co-sponsored by the Oxford Lions Club, the show starts at 10 a.m. and will have 23 action and judged events, including calf roping. A special attraction will be the performance of the Oakwood all-girl mounted drill team.

Signs are going to be posted to indicate the route to the show grounds.

Notes on Boats

Summer is the toughest time of year to keep a boat trailer operating smoothly—because the smoothness of operation depends on lubricating the moving parts, and because in hot weather the grease dissipates faster. The manufacturers of boat trailers suggest carrying a tube of heavy lubricant in the boat or car, and squirting a bit of it on the winch gears, tilting mechanism and other moving parts. It will only take a minute and it'll save you labor and avoid worn parts on the trailer.

When directional signals are installed on boat trailers, it is advisable to replace the regular flasher unit in the car with a "heavy-duty" flasher. Light bulbs will be brighter, and last longer.

Sway in a boat trailer is usually caused by the load being tail-heavy. Solution: Move the boat forward on the trailer, or move fuel cans and other gear forward. For smooth trailering, most boats in the 14 foot to 16 foot sizes should be 50 to 60 pounds tongue-heavy.

How Fast Does a Fish Swim?

Sailfish Rated Speediest

By DION HENDERSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

Everybody knows a fish can swim. But not how fast.

As a mater of fact, just how much early foot can be shown by a bass boggled by a mouthful of hardware has been the subject of strenuous debates.

An English expert, David Guston, summarized what the researchers have been able to find out, reporting in a recent issue of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission magazine.

In a nutshell, some fish swim faster than other fish, and sometimes fish swim faster than other times. The average speed of fish species, and the speed of one suddenly hooked are quite different, and small wonder.

Timing methods range from modern electronics to Zane Grey's classic estimate that a bonefish could travel about 45 miles an hour, based on how fast he ran 50 feet along a canal bank while a fish emptied his reel.

Anyway, a French professor named A. Magnan has established some more or less generally accepted average speeds. Pike, dogfish, salmon and sturgeon were among his high averages. But a typical salmon rate of 11 M.P.H. in his experiments makes quite a contrast, for instance, with the 25 M.P.H. emergency rate noted in hooked salmon.

Trout and pike both have hit 20 M.P.H. in a similar case. Perch and roach can dally with the 10 M.P.H. mark, carp 7.6 M.P.H. and the bream barely over 1 M.P.H.

The real high speed travelers in the aquatic world are the deep sea predators. Fastest of all without much doubt, is the sailfish, which can take out 100 yards of line in three seconds, which amounts to almost 70 M.P.H.

Gunston has evolved a rule of thumb for deciding whether any given fish is a swiftie. The fastest, he says, have long tapering bodies, cigar shaped and broad rather than high. High, laterally compressed bodies — the sunfish shape — always are slower moving. You can mull over your own nominations for exceptions.

The design does, of course, have a good deal to do with a fish's locomotion, since the resistance of water is something like 700 times that of air. And the world record for human swimmers is barely over 4 M.P.H., while a good fast human walker can get up to about 5 M.P.H.

Which leaves us with only the bream to feel superior toward.

U.S. Bow Team Will Be Picked in June 7-8 Test

Robin Hood himself would be envious of the archery skill to be displayed at Forest Park, St. Louis, Mo., on June 7 and 8.

Thirty-three of the nation's bow and arrow champions will be competing on those dates for a spot on the U.S. archery team, which will be sent to Brussels, Belgium, for an international tournament July 19-23.

Sponsored by the National Archery Association (N.A.A.), the St. Louis qualifying tournament will select a team of three men and three women to compete against approximately 20 other nations at Heysel Stadium on the Brussels World's Fair grounds.

The International Tournament is sponsored by Federation Internationale de Tir a L'Arc (F.I.T.A.), which is composed of 28 nation members.

Saddle Club Has Show

The Dixie Saddle Club will hold its annual spring show Sunday June 15th at 9:00 a.m. at the Glenn Ellis Farm, 9331 Dixie Highway near Clarkston.

Paddle Push Set Sunday

The 7th annual "Paddle Push," a six-mile dash down the Huron River from Proud Lake Recreation Area to Kensington Metropolitan Park will be staged Sunday starting at 2 p.m.

Trophies in seven classes will be awarded at a dinner at the new AYH Hostel at Dawson road, just west of Milford road, after the race.

Vantage points for spectators will be the starting point at Wixom road bridge in the Proud Lake area, the Milford bridge, the General Motors road bridge and at Kensington Park.

Duffields Start Boat Season With Victory

Skipper Guy Duffield and his wife Nancy started the Watkins Lake Boat Club season off by winning the snipe class race in their boat G-Wiz.

Runnerup was "Byaes" skippered by Frank Fleck with Chuck Norris and third was "Blue Boat" with Ron and Bob Newman.

OTHER RESULTS: Lightning Class—1. "Jo-Dee" owned by Glenn Fries with crew Joe Fries, Carl Shrisman. 2. "Green's Dream" owned by Dave Green with Joe Green and Art Hoover. 3. "Busy Bees" owned by Fred and Bruce Brede with Mrs. Fred Brede in crew. 4. "Yellow Dragon" owned by Jack Noble. 5. "Rablin Rascal" with Jack Berlien. 6. "Cygnet" with Gus Eldred, Judy Eldred and Dick DeShtler.

Thistle Class—1. "Kreitz Kraft" with Carl Kreitz, Velma Hensley and Fliff Lampson. 2. "Seaweed" with Don Zannoth and Phyliss Seebaldt. 3. "First Luff" with Norm Ledwan and Dave Moothart. 4. "Tarbaby" with Ed Nelson, Jim Marshall, Harm Gillen and Paul Saghy.

Are Burglars Eying Your House?

As you read these words, someone's home is being entered by a burglar. It could very well be yours.

Before you say "impossible!" consider this: There's at least one housebreaking a minute, day and night, from coast to coast, according to Police Chief Herbert W. Straley.

A huge floating population of professional burglars is constantly on the move, looking neighborhoods over for "break-in" possibilities. Yours may have already been looked over with a practiced eye, the chief said.

He added: "Failure to take precautions against burglary is not only inconvenient and expensive, but downright dangerous. A man who will take the risk of entering a house will sometimes not hesitate to kill if discovered.

"The trick is to keep the burglar out of your house, and you needn't put steel bars on your windows and dig a moat around your property to do so.

"This wouldn't work anyway, because there is no house that a burglar cannot enter. Fortunately, burglars don't like to take unnecessary chances.

"They prefer breaking into homes that are obviously empty, hesitating to try a house that 'might' have someone in it. If you put your house in the latter category, your belongings are relatively safe."

The chief gave the following rules:

Always close and lock all windows and doors, including basement, porch, and garage. Use pin tumbler cylinder locks on all outside doors . . . still the most secure key-operated locking device known to man.

Always leave a lamp or two connected to an automatic timer to turn lights on and off regularly each evening. This makes the home "lived-in," and is your best protective measure.

REPORT DATES

Always, if you are going away for a weekend or for a vacation, notify the police as to the date you are leaving, and the date on which you will return.

Always have the post office stop mail deliveries to your home while you're away, and make certain that no store deliveries will arrive during your absence.

Always cancel milk and news paper deliveries. An accumulation of milk bottles and newspapers is a sure sign that you're not home.

Always, if you are on vacation, have your lawn mowed and your sidewalk swept by a neighbor at least once a week.

Always have your phone disconnected, if you're going away. Burglars will sometimes call to see if someone is home.

Always tell one neighbor if you are leaving. Have him notify the police if he sees anyone prowling around.

KEEP THEM NORMAL

Never leave shades or blinds completely drawn. Leave them as you normally would when at home.

Never leave ladders and tools where outsiders can get at them. To do so is equivalent to giving a thief a key to your front porch.

Never leave your garage door open. An empty garage with the door open is a good sign that no one's home.

Never tell friends, neighbors, or work associates of the valuable possessions you have around the house. In fact, never leave valuables lying around the house. Place them in a safety deposit box.

These precautions are common sense. Start practicing them this week — Burglary Prevention Week — and make them a habit, Chief Straley said.

Improperly dressed for cold, a man can feel about as much pain at plus 40 degrees as at minus 40 degrees Fahrenheit. This is because the nerves that register pain from rapid loss of heat work at their limit as soon as the human body gets into trouble—which it does at about 40 degrees Fahrenheit. The warning system for overchilled bodies is like a fire-alarm bell; it rings just as loudy for a small fire as it does for a big one.

Hollywood Headlines

Formula for Blockbuster Sought in Movie World

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — How do you make a blockbuster?

If Hollywood could find the answer to that question, its problems would be over.

The film business definition of the wartime term for an immense explosive: a movie with a tremendous earning capacity.

"Giant" was a blockbuster. So are "Around the World in 80 Days," "The 10 Commandments," "The Bridge on the River Kwai," "Peyton Place," "Sayonara," "Old Yeller" and "South Pacific."

There is no rule of thumb for classifying blockbusters, except that they do enormous business. But that can be misleading.

A picture like "Raintree Country" can do enormous business yet still end up in the red because of its great cost.

On the other hand, films like "Old Yeller" and "Delicate Delinquent" can do the same or less business and be blockbusters because they cost a million dollars or less.

The impact of blockbusters on a company's economy is notable. Variety recently pointed out that five big earners from Columbia made as much money as 41 of the studio's other films. And Columbia would find itself in serious shape except for the present earnings of "Kwai."

MGM suffered a loss in a recent earning report despite drastic cost cutting. Its pictures had not done poorly, but the studio had failed to produce one big blockbuster.

Twentieth Century-Fox finds itself in the best position because it has been able to come up with a series of blockbusters. Five are now in release: "Peyton Place," "A Farewell to Arms," "The Long Hot Summer," "Young Lions" and "South Pacific."

Story editors are constantly on the lookout for literary properties that can be big box office winners. One of them told me what he looked for:

"Stories wiih big emotions. Stories that can be cast importantly. Stories that have fascinating backgrounds that can fill the big screen with spectacle."

AF Gleans Data on Atlas Shoot

Analysis Will Assist in Making Plans for Long Range Flight

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The Air Force continued collecting telemetry data today on the successful performance of its latest Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile.

The huge missile, this nation's only intercontinental weapon to reach the test stage, roared into the late afternoon sun yesterday on what appeared to be a beautiful start.

Analysis of the shoot will help Atlas technicians prepare for the first intercontinental-range flight which is expected within the next two months.

The success of yesterday's launching came after a series of disappointments which were climaxed last Thursday when a firing was halted at the last split second because of minor technical difficulties.

It was the first Atlas launching in two months. The rocket seemed to behave perfectly.

The test, eighth in the series, reportedly covered a limited range of 600 miles. The Atlas was built to travel more than 6,000 miles, but it hasn't come close to that distance to date.

Air Force officials and representatives of Convair Astronautics developers of the missile, say that besides its intercontinental capability the Atlas may be used for lunar shots, trips to planets and satellite attempts involving a payload of 1,000 pounds or more.

Kansas City Mayor Prevents Suicide

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Kansas City's 300-pound mayor clambered out on a 28th-floor ledge of the City Hall and helped prevent a man from jumping off the ledge yesterday.

Mayor H. Roe Bartle diverted the attention of E. J. Lamar Fairbanks and police and firemen grabbed the man.

Fairbanks, 40-year-old father of six, later told police he only wanted to preach to the crowd below.

A part-time postal worker and dental student, Fairbanks put this question to Bartle when the mayor appeared on the ledge: "Mr. Mayor, will you stop smoking to keep me from jumping?"

A cigar smoker, Bartle hesitated about answering. While Fairbanks was putting the heat on the mayor, the rescuers slipped up and grabbed him.

Fairbanks was admitted to a hospital for observation.

McElroy Criticizes Reorganization Bill

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary of Defense McElroy said today disputes within the military organization should be settled without running to Congress.

But he contended, in an address prepared for the U.S. Military Academy graduating class, that a congressional plan for defense reorganization would encourage the opposite.

The bill is now awaiting House action. President Eisenhower, like McElroy, has criticized a provision which would permit top officials in the military services to act on their own initiative in taking problems to Congress. Esenhower said it could lead to "legalized insubordination."

Family Gets Back $150 After Searching Refuse

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—It took an all-day hunt through 5,000 pounds of refuse, but the Rohde family finally recovered $150.

Unable to get to the bank, Mrs. N. W. Rohde wrapped the money in tissue paper and put it in a clothes hamper. Daughter Mary Jo found it and dumped it in a trash basket. The city picked up the trash.

Fortunately, the trash truck was sent to a city garage for repairs still loaded with the trash. Advised of this, the Rohde clan manned rakes and went to work.

Mary Jo found the money, all bills, still wrapped in the tissue.

Raids on Treasury Cause Inflation

Saudi Arabia's Princes to Taste Austerity

JIDDAH, Saudi Arabia (AP)—Saudi Arabia's scores of royal princes are in for a taste of austerity.

Princely raids on the treasury produced a situation in which inflation became a serious problem.

A revolution has been developing here ever since oil began transforming a nomad economy to the complexities of the 20th century. Now the critical point has been reached.

Nobody knows the exact population. Perhaps there are six millions here, give or take a million or two. Of these, only a tiny percentage can read and write.

But oil brought a rising generation of men trained in industrial skills, trained to participate in extracting the nation's natural riches. Oil also brought a fever of modernization that cannot be stopped.

Nor can Saudi royalty ever hope to be independent of the new generation of trained men. Without them, the royal family's income would dwindle. The young men, however small their number, are aware of their power.

Discontent among these men is visible. Trained and with incomes astronomical in comparison with their Bedouin brethren, they have no place to go. The oil industry turns out trained men by the thousands. Many have gone out of the oil company and into the Saudi economy, some as private businessmen, some in government jobs. The turnover in 1957 was the smallest in years. The economy and the government are running out of capacity to absorb such people, so they stay with the Arabian American Oil Co. (Aramco). At the same time, the 13,000 Saudi employes, many making huge salaries by local standards, do not belong to the world of the American oil people.

Aramco's graduates and even its current employes are a political factor here. If there is frustration among them, it seeps down through the population.

The royal family's first big jolt came with the late 1956 Suez crisis when Saudi Arabia suffered a sudden curtailment of her income. Income dropped but spending went on at the old rate.

This country leaped from the ancient to the modern world in one generation. Practically all its income is foreign exchange. Oil accounts for 90 per cent. Pilgrims to the Moslem shrines, Mecca and Medina, bring most of the rest. The economy would be sound enough, given sustained high oil production rates and prices. But difficulties arose when the royal family and government began spending more than the country was earning. The government began borrowing against prospective income.

Aramco paid Saudi Arabia $323,390,633 in 1957, but the government realized only $193,799,741. The rest went to debt retirement. Reserves were near zero.

Imports have been in a fantastically chaotic state. Every merchant has been his own importer, with no planning whatever. Now Premier Prince Faisal apparently plans to change that, to limit imports and regulate import licenses.

Public demand for imports rises steadily. But much of the nation's income went to such things as maintaining troops of princes, flagrant mismanagement, embezzlement and expensive investments in intrigue in the dark whirlpool of Arab politics. Not nearly enough went to banks and merchants. Inflation set in.

The riyal, valued officially at 3¾ to the dollar, slid to 5½ in the free, or black, market.

The royal family became frightened. Saudi Arabia invited the International Monetary Fund to recommend corrective measures. Early this year, steps were taken to strengthen the riyal. Faisal was behind them as he had been behind the March decree giving him full powers as premier-foreign minister. Financial reform was his main goal.

In April and May, for the first time in many months, the Saudi government stayed within its income.

Winter Wheat Prediction Up

CHICAGO (AP) — Early activity in grain futures was very light at prices about steady today on the board of trade.

Shortly after trading began Francis I. Dupont & Co. issued its estimate of winter wheat production this year at 1,060,012 bushels based on conditions as of June 1.

The estimate is about 74 million bushels more than the grain firm predicted a month ago and more than 50 million bushels higher than the May estimate by the Department of Agriculture.

The firm said indications are that the yield will average 25.2 bushels an acre which would be the highest of record.

Near the end of the first hour, wheat was ⅜ cents a bushel higher to ¼ lower, July $1.83⅝; corn ⅞ higher to ⅛ lower, July $1.29⅜; oats ¼ to ⅜ higher, July 60¾; rye ⅜ higher to ¼ lower, July $1.23½; soybeans ⅛ to ¾ lower, July $2.27⅜; lard unchanged to 5 cents a hundred pounds higher, July $12.37.

Market Refuses to Back Down

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market squeezed out further gains in active early trading today.

Leading issues made fractional gains. Small losers peppered the list.

B. T. Babbitt Co., maker of soaps and detergents, was an outstanding feature as it reached a new high for the year, opening at 9, up ⅛ on a block of 6,400 shares. It extended its gain in brisk dealings.

The market was moving forward with difficulty, having established three new highs for the year in as many sessions. The blue chips made little progress.

Among fractional gainers were U.S. Steel, Chrysler, Goodrich, Douglas Aircraft, Allied Chemical, General Electric, Standard Oil (New Jersey) and Royal Dutch.

International Paper dropped about a point. Small losses were taken by Continental Motors, American Smelting, Eastern Air Lines and American Airlines. American telephone eased.

Bell Telephone Pays Big Tax

$11,051,000 Goes Into State School Fund; Highest Contribution

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company announced its payment to the state primary school fund in 1957 was the largest in the company's history.

Amounting to $11,051,000, the payment again places Michigan Bell as the top contributor to the fund.

Raymond H. Storm, district manager here for the company, reported that $131,922 of the total tax payment was allocated to the public school system of Pontiac.

Schools throughout Oakland county, including Pontiac, received a total of $949,081 from Michigan Bell's payment.

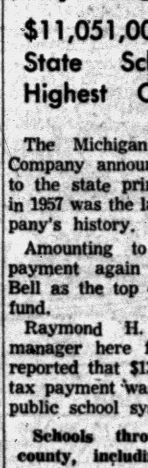

The payments were based on a school census of 22,824 in Pontiac, and 164,201 in the county.

The tax payment amounted to $5.78 for each of the 1,910,522 youngsters in the state between the ages of 5 and 19 who are on the census rolls.

Michigan Bell, in common with railroads, Pullman, railway express, telegraph, and other telephone companies, pays such a tax earmarked for the primary fund in lieu of other property taxes.

Du Pont Executive to Address Kiwanis

The West Pontiac Kiwanis Club will have Robert T. De Vore, midwest manager of the Du Pont Company's Extension Division, as its featured speaker at this week's meeting to be held tomorrow noon at Scrib's Restaurant, 130 S. Telegraph Rd.

DE VORE

De Vore, a former Washington, D. C., newspaper and magazine correspondent, will speak on the subject, "Strength for Tomorrow," it was announced.

De Vore is a native of Toledo, Ohio, and a 1927 graduate of the University of Michigan. He will emphasize the importance of understanding the parts played by large and small industry in helping to make the country stronger through research and industrial development.

Dividend Announced

DETROIT (AP) — American Metal Products Co. of Detroit today declared a quarterly dividend of 40 cents per share of common stock. It is payable June 30 to stockholders of record June 13.

HE'S IN TROUBLE — With his open-mouthed look of dismay, this rock cod might have been listening as New England congressmen urged the House Merchant Marine Committee to approve a five-year aid program to save the U. S. groundfishing industry. A rock cod, you see, is a groundfish. He and others of his type hang around the bottom of the ocean till a smart fisherman gets them. The legislation would provide groundfishermen federal grants-in-aid, low cost loans and incentive payments. Annual cost of the program was estimated at 43 million dollars.

Food Town Firm Opens Third Area Supermarket

Food Town Co., a Pontiac firm, has announced the opening of a $180,000 supermarket, the largest locally operated establishment of its kind in the area, on Dixie highway at the northwest corner of Telegraph road in Waterford Township.

The store is the third to be opened by the company here since 1943. A fourth is being planned for the northside area, said Edwin H. Adler, company president.

"Growing with Pontiac," is the company's policy, said Adler, and in keeping with this the new store is handily located in the fast-growing northwest suburban area.

The store contains 7,000 feet of selling space, featuring an extra large meat department combining self and personal service. It has a 75-car parking lot.

It will employ 30 persons, headed by manager Victor Mason, who has been assistant manager 1½ years at Food Town's store at 7580 Highland Rd., Waterford Township. The other store in the chain is at 1200 Baldwin Ave.

Adler said a grand opening is planned soon. The new store's hours will be from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily except Sunday. The other two Food Towns are open every day of the week, he said.

Oakland Heads Will Journey to Detroit Meeting

A bus caravan filled with Oakland County supervisors will journey to Detroit tomorrow afternoon to meet for the first time with nearly 300 supervisors from Wayne, Macomb, St. Clair, Monroe and Washtenaw Counties.

Joint problems and past achievements of the six southeastern Michigan counties will be discussed at the meeting. It is scheduled for the Veterans Memorial Building and sponsored by the Supervisors Inter-County Committee.

Delos Hamlin, of Farmington, and chairman of the 82-member Oakland County Board of Supervisors, is chairman of this committee.

About 69 of the 82 Oakland supervisors have indicated they will attend the meeting.

Mayor Donaldson to Travel to Israel

Mayor William W. Donaldson has announced he will visit Israel this summer under the sponsorship of the Pontiac Chapter 850 of B'nai Brith, a Jewish men's organization.

The chapter, along with various other organizations and individuals, has agreed to finance a ten-day trip in July as a good will tour, the Mayor said.

Mrs. Donaldson plans to accompany him on a more extended visit abroad which is being privately planned in conjunction with the official trip, he said.

Slate Meetings on Antarctica

11 Countries Including Russia Will Discuss Neutralizing Territory

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said today the 11 countries invited by President Eisenhower to take part in a conference to neutralize Antarctica have all accepted the invitation.

The final agreement came from the Soviet Union in a note received here Monday. The State Department kept the Soviet approval secret until Moscow radio announced it last night.

The Soviet letter, U.S. officials said, went beyond simple agreement to attend a conference. It also expressed accord with proposals by Eisenhower for an international treaty providing for freedom of investigation of Antarctica by scientists and guarantees dedicating the Antarctic continent to peaceful purposes.

Eisenhower sent his proposal early last month to Russia and 10 other countries. The others are Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Chile, France, Japan, New Zealand, Norway, South Africa and the United Kingdom.

Heuss Arrives From Germany

3-Day Visit to Ike Aims to Cement Friendship, Strengthen NATO

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower welcomed President Theodor Heuss of West Germany to the United States today. He said that the wounds of two great wars seem to have been wholly cured.

Eisenhower in a brief formal ceremony at Washington National Airport recalled that never before in history has the head of a German state visited this land.

"So it is with unusual warmth," said the man who led the West's victorious armies in World War II, "that I welcome you to this capital and this country."

Eisenhower said that the power of Germany and the United States has been engaged on opposite sides in two world conflicts but the wounds of those wars seem to be wholly cured.

The friendship of the American and German people, Eisenhower said, is stronger "because of the tribulations we have been through and because of the ways we have met in peaceful conference to overcome these old memories of disasters."

Heuss in reply said it is "fitting to recall the tragic misunderstandings and painful conflicts which have had to be overcome before this meeting of ours could demonstrate, for all to see, the renewed friendship between the American and the German people."

Studies Bird at Home

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Biology professor Ralph W. Dexter stays close to home for his research although his subjects are from South America's upper Amaozn Valley. He is studying the chimney swift, a bird that makes its summer home in chimneys and air shafts, including those at Kent State University where Prof. Dexter teaches.

Series Discontinued

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The University of Michigan's Upper Peninsula concert-education series has been discontinued. The university said the reason was reduced appropriations for next year.

Byrd Library Has Mementoes of Explorers

WASHINGTON—The newly dedicated Richard E. Byrd Library at Springfield, Virginia, will preserve for future generations books and mementoes of one of the great explorers of all time.

The family of the late Rear Admiral Byrd has offered the Library a number of Byrd's books and belongings. Already on display is a large photographic portrait presented by the National Geographic Society, which helped support his polar expeditions.

The modest-sized Library is located about 12 miles from Washington, in an area wealthy in historic associations. Mount Vernon, home of George Washington, stands a few miles away.

Up the Potomac River lies Alexandria where visitors may still see the apothecary shops that prepared medicine for Washington. In an adjacent Virginia county, "Stonewall" Jackson got his nickname at the First Battle of Manassas (Bull Run).

In a tribute to Byrd, Dr. Melville Bell Grosvenor, president and editor of the National Geographic Society, said that scientific work in the Antarctic during the current International Geophysical Year is the culmination of the explorer's lifetime of work and leadership.

"What the round earth was to Columbus, what circumnavigation of the globe was to Magellan, polar exploration was to Richard Evelyn Byrd," said Dr. Grosvenor. "No man in history contributed more knowledge of the Arctic and Antarctic than Byrd."

Business Notes

Mrs. Beulah Brown, of 62 Clark St., received a sports car as part of the recent Tel-Huron Shopping Center anniversary celebration.

MRS. BROWN

Fred Nieldelson, president of the Tel - Huron Assn. made the presentation, on the occasion of the center's fourth anniversary.

John H. Griesen, of 1062 Canterbury Dr., has qualified as a member of the 1957 Star Club of the New York Life Insurance Co., in recognition of having one of the company's top sales records last year, it has been announced.

Alfred L. Kasameyer, of 6320 Worlington Rd., Birmingham, has been named superintendent of Detroit Edison's building and properties department, it was announced today.

KASAMEYER

Kasameyer, former assistant superintendent, will succeed Charles J. LaMarre who retired June 1. He had been assistant superintendent since 1954. He joined Edison in 1928.

Earl F. Steiner, of 1784 Beverly Ave., sales representative of the Pontiac district office, Prudential Insurance Co., has been admitted into membership in the firm's Northern Star Club on the basis of his outstanding sales and service record in the past year.

Inventor Develops Car Flasher Device

BONN, Germany —Patent rights for making a new invention called "Signaling Device for Automobiles" are being offered to some American manufacturers by its German inventor, Frida Dirks, Bonn reports.

The inventor says the flasher is actuated by the movements of an electric time clock — the type normally used in cars — eliminating the need for additional switches and electric relays and also offering a reduction in the number and length of electric wiring now required for this type of mechanism.

The newly developed indicator can be used to indicate directional turning as well as for signaling before passing another car or signaling for an intended stop.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN OF A public hearing to be held by the Waterford Township Zoning Board at the Township Hall, Wednesday, June 11, 1958 at 7:30 p.m. to consider the following change to the zoning map.

To change from residential to commercial:

Lot 11 of Acre Heights, a Subdivision of part of the SW¼ of Sec. 31, Township of Waterford, Oakland County, Michigan, as recorded in Liber 39 of Plats, Page 29, Oakland County Records, and a portion of vacated Malcolm Drive of Acre Heights subdivision described as: Beginning at the southwest corner of Lot 11 of said Acre Heights subdivision thence west along the extension of the south line of Lot 11, a distance of 50 feet; thence north along the west line of said plat, a distance of 300 feet; thence east along the extension of the north line of Lot 11, a distance of 50 feet; thence south along the west line of Lot 11, a distance of 300 feet to the point of beginning. This property has a frontage on Cooley Lake Road of 150 feet and has a depth of 300 feet.

All persons interested are requested to be present.

A copy of the Zoning Map together with a list of the proposed changes is on file in the office of the Township Supervisor and may be examined by those interested.

Union Opens Canadian Campaign With Series of Proposals to GM

TORONTO (AP) — The United Automobile Workers Union, deadlocked in negotiations with the auto industry in the United States, has started its 1958 Canadian campaign with a series of proposals to General Motors.

The proposals, announced yesterday, ranged from wage boosts to pension and unemployment benefit improvements. They parallel those originally pressed in the United States.

General Motors' contract here expires Aug. 1. The agreement with Chrysler Corp. runs out Aug. 1 and that of Ford Motor Co. of Canada Ltd., Aug. 31.

The General Motors master agreement in Canada covers the company's Oshawa plant, with 10,000 employes; a smaller plant in Windsor, the London, Ont., diesel engine plant, the Frigidaire plant in the Toronto area and a subsidiary, McKinnon Industries in St. Catharines.

Bargaining on the union's proposals is expected to begin next week.

The union says it wants a substantial increase to narrow the gap between rates in the Canadian and U.S. plants. The union estimates the gap at 38 cents an hour for production and 70 cents an hour for skilled trades.

Don't Await Pallbearers to Take You Up Front

NEW BERLIN, Wis. (AP) — Parishoners reluctant to sit in the front pews at Holy Apostles Catholic Church recently received a not too-subtle hint to do so in the parish Sunday bulletin.

"Some people refuse to come up to the front of the church unless escorted by pallbearers," the bulletin said.

Sugar Capacity Rises

ANKARA — At the start of 1958, Turkey's sugar-production capacity stood at 361,000 tons a year compared with 118,500 tons at the start of 1950.

Shrine to Honor Cowboy Heroes

National Hall of Fame Planned on Outskirts of Oklahoma City

WASHINGTON — A national shrine for one of America's favorite folk heroes — the cowboy — is rising in the old Indian Territory.

Ground was broken recently for the National Cowboy Hall of Fame and Museum atop a hill on the outskirts of Oklahoma City. Near by is today's busy way to the west, Highway 66. And through this section of Oklahoma passed the famed Chisholm Trail from Texas to Kansas.

The shrine will honor the cattle industry for its brawny part in developing the American West, as well as notable cowboys, plainsmen, territorial governors, and others who pioneered or helped perpetuate western traditions.

Seventeen westerly states will have special sections in the hall for their own heroes, the National Geographic Society says. Among old-timers already chosen for enshrinement are Rough Rider Theodore Roosevelt, a one-time rancher in Dakota Territory; humorist Will Rogers of Oklahoma; cowboy artist Charley Russell of Montana; and Iowa's William F. (Buffalo Bill) Cody.

Deification of the American cowboy comes at a time when his modern counterpart appears to be heading for the last roundup.

He is an employee in a mechanized, multibillion-dollar industry that produces beef, leather, bones, felt, casings, glue, fertilizer, and pharmaceutical by-products for the consumer market.

The cowboy probably spends his summers in a hayfield and has little time to sing about tumbling tumbleweed. He is apt to roam the range in a pickup or jeep, and inspects fences in a plane. If he eats son-of-a-gun stew, its ingredients come from an electric refrigerator.

Rustlers operate in fast trucks. They are hounded not by posses carrying hangman's ropes but by inspectors, detectives, and attorneys of regional associations of cattle raisers.

Indian Artist Urges Help for Her Race

SANTE FE, N. M. (INS) — A noted Indian artist and muralist says nearly all American Indians possess artistic ability but few of them have the opportunity to develop their talents.

Pop Chalee, an Indian maid whose paintings have appeared in many leading art centers throughout the world, urges that others of her race be given the same opportunity she was given to develop their talents.

Said Miss Chalee: "I hope the day will come when scholarships and grants will make it possible for all deserving young Indians to attend schools of higher learning."

Miss Chalee said she was unaware that she had the talent for painting but that she had an overwhelming urge for creative expression. She took up painting seriously in 1935, and studied it at the United States Indian School in Santa Fe.

She married her art teacher, and her biggest boost came when she sold her first picture to a Philadelphia tourist for $25.

Concerning her style, Miss Chalee said:

"All of my pictures and murals tell a story. They are based on Indian symbolism, legends and ceremonials."

Her paintings and murals are exhibited in many art centers in the U.S. and as far off as Bombay, London, Paris and Berlin. Stanford University has a permanent collection of her work and her paintings were featured at the San Francisco World's Fair.

Bing Crosby Signed to 5-Year TV Deal

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — An announcement of Bing Crosby's plans to retire was apparently premature—by about five years.

The Groaner's agent said yesterday that Bing has signed a five-year television deal with the American Broadcasting Co. It calls for two live, 90-minute spectaculars a year. Terms weren't announced.

Latest report that Crosby was retiring came from a national magazine.

It's obvious that women are to blame for most of the lying men do; after all, they do insist on asking questions! . . . "With each generation," sighs a harassed parent, "children are growing taller, healthier and a little more aggravating." —Earl Wilson.

Yelling Cabbies Disturb Jennie's Dream World

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Miss Jennie Smith, the beautiful teen-age singer you may have seen on the Steve Allen show, could get me in trouble with the New York cab drivers—but I won't let her because they're powerful people.

"The cab drivers down home in Charleston, W. Va., are much more gentlemanly and sweet," Jennie told me while I was unraveling her success story.

Complained Jennie, who'll be 20 next November, "They scream 'Hey, watch it, lady! . . . Hey, don't you want to live, lady? . . . Hey, get the lead out, lady! . . . Make up your mind where you're goin', lady!' They yell at you like you're day dreaming—and you are," admitted Jennie.

She's been in a constant dream state because everything's been perfect since she came to N.Y. at 18.

"I'd had offers from bands and it was a problem to keep me in school," Jennie said, when I made a rare visit recently to a teen-ager's apartment. "All I had was $90 and a phone number," she said, remembering her arrival. The phone number was that of Ray Ellis, the music arranger.

JENNIE

She got a secretarial job at Look—and made so much progress that a year later, Life ran two pages on her. Everybody seemed discouraging at first. Jennie, being honest, thought she should tell one employer she was a singer and therefore might not be on an office job very long.

"Oh, that's all right," he shrugged. "Nothing'll happen to you."

Ellis introduced her to Michael Stewart, manager of the Four Lads, who was struck by her beauty and teen-age bounce . . . she "made a demo" of "Who Needs You?" . . . and RCA signed her.

"Now I can't wait to get out of my teens!" She flipped busily around the apartment. "It seems like I've been waiting all my life to be 20. You see," she pointed out, "I'm a teen-age singer but not a teen-age singer. I like to sing for the middle-age group, the Benny Goodman Era."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Vivian Blaine's lawyers are trying to renegotiate her long-term contract with her former manager (and ex-husband) Manny Frank . . . Patti Page'll undergo a tonsillectomy June 12, after her last TV show . . . Janet Leigh will fly in for the "Vikings" premiere; Tony Curtis, who won't fly, will come by train . . . Queen Soraya returns to Europe June 11 . . . Van Cliburn was offered a screen test.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "When the other guy talks that way, it's conceit; when we do it, it's honest self-appraisal." That's earl, brother.

He's Popular in California

Don't Underrate Brown in Race for Governor

By MORRIE LANDSBERG

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—If you didn't know him, you might think twice before picking out Edmund G. (Pat) Brown as anyone likely to become governor of California.

In politics and in personality, the cheery, round-faced attorney general is the complete opposite of his Republican opponent, Sen. William F. Knowland.

But Republicans don't underrate the 53-year-old Democrat. He's a hustler and a vote-getter. For eight years he has been the only Democrat holding statewide office. Yesterday's primary results confirmed his two-party popularity.

Brown, a self-styled moderate, has an average-man look. He's plain and informal, with an air of sincerity. Once a Republican, he has helped unify his present party after years of disputes.

Brown both worked and joshed his way through an intensive pre-primary campaign.

"I have a hard name to remember but I hope you'll try," the plumpish candidate told one audience.

Shaking hands through a Northern California town, he advised a barber: "Give 'em a campaign talk when you've got 'em collared with that thing around their necks."

He combined personal campaigning with sharply worded attacks against Knowland and Knowland's injection of the so-called right-to-work issue.

At various times, Brown called the Senate Republican leader "a foolish modern McKinley," "a grasping reactionary with eyes fixed on the White House," and central figure in "a cynical deal' to push Republican Gov. Goodwin J. Knight out of the gubernatorial race. Knight is running for the U.S. Senate.

Brown said he was all for cleaning up any labor union corruption. But as for right-to-work laws favored by Knowland, "I am against them, period."

The San Francisco-born attorney, of Irish-German descent, switched his registration to Democratic in 1934 after running unsuccessfully for the State Assembly.

As attorney general, he has taken a strong position against the death penalty, opposed wiretapping, advocated fair employment practices legislation and called repeatedly for a purity of elections law.

He and Mrs. Brown have five children, including a 19-year-old son who is studying for the Catholic priesthood.

If he's elected, Brown will be California's first Democratic governor since 1938, its second in this century.

Had Ice at Saginaw Shortly Before Crash

SAGINAW (AP) — A crew member of a Capital Airlines Constellation has testified that ice coated his ship at its landing shortly before Capital's Viscount crash Easter Sunday which killed 47 persons.

Flight engineer Robert F. Higgins gave the testimony yesterday before the Civil aeronautics Board (CAB) hearing on the crash at Tri-City Airport, Midland.

Higgins said air heater intakes leading to the engines of the Constellation were among parts of his ship which were covered with ice.

The Constellation landed safely about 11 minutes before the turbo-jet Viscount fell in a farmer's field just short of the runway on a snowy and rainy night.

A panel of six CAB representatives is determining operational factors of the crash here before considering other phases at a hearing in Washington in July.

Two eyewitnesses said the Viscount appeared lower than normal when it approached the runway. However, three other witnesses said the plane appeared to be flying at a normal altitude.

PAMELA DUNCAN

Her Versatility Harms Actress

She's Not Recognized Because Video Roles Are Too Varied

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Dark-haired, twinkle-eyed Pamela Duncan was watching herself play the role of a dizzy blonde in one of those half-hour home screen telefilms. For the first time in over 200 TV shows, 100 telefilms and six movies she had bleached her hair to play a part.

During the middle commercial the telephone jingled in her small Hollywood bungalow. An excited friend clipped off her "Hello" by saying: "Quick, Pam. Turn on Channel 4. There's a blonde actress who looks just like you."

It was no laughing matter but Pamela laughed into the phone. "Silly," she said. "That's ME. Have peroxide, will bleach."

Right now you're probably saying, "Pamela Duncan—hmmm—I just can't place her." And you're right. That's vivacious, 25-year-old Pamela's problem. She's television's most famous known unknown—and to any actress that's a problem.

She's little Miss What's Her Name? to the general public for a strange reason. She's too talented and too versatile.

Name any one of TV's big dramatic shows from New York a few years back—and Pamela was in the cast. All the way from Captain Video to Studio One. Name any one of today's Hollywood telefims—and Pamela is in the cast. All the way from M Squad, through Maverick to GE Theater.

One night you've seen her playing a juvenile dope addict and a week later you don't recognize her as a sexy femme fatale. You're not the only one, either, as her friend on the telephone will testify.

New York-born and Columbia-educated Pamela has had more telefilm acting jobs and movie bit roles than many actresses play in a lifetime. Because every performance, every role, is different than the last, Pamela lives and works in public anonymity; yet on Professional Street she's the girl everyone knows.

The role of a fiery chick opposite Sterling Hayden in the Current movie, "Gun Battle at Monterey," is helping establish Pamela as more than just an unknown.

But she's still going from telefilm to telefilm playing juvenile urchins in flatties, gun molls and high society girls and dreaming of the day when she'll be a "known instead of an "unknown."

In a recent Perry Mason TV show, "The Case of the Daring Decoy," Pamela played a girl in a flimsy negligee who was murdered. In the same film there was the role of a girl who wore horn-rimmed glasses and had all the meaty dialog.

"I would have preferred that role," says Pamela Duncan. "When you're a corpse, even in a sexy negligee, you have to stop acting—and I like to act."

Victim of Wife's Wrath Loser in Courtroom, Too

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A 225-pound man, injured seriously in a spat with his wife when she hit him with the family car, went to bat for the little woman in court yesterday.

John Albert Green Sr.'s efforts were successful, but he got the worst of it anyway.

He told the judge his tiny wife "didn't mean to hit me very hard" with the car. The judge dismissed charges of assault and battery against Mrs. Green.

But Green, whose drinking admittedly led to the spat, was fined $50 for public drunkenness.

Some Not Prepared for Marriage License?

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—"I love you, Minnie!" reads the record in City Hall.

It's not an official record. It's a revealing green blotter on a table where prospective couples fill out marriage license applications.

The blotter is full of the romantic scribblings, but one corner carries the plea, "Help mother." Another, "What'd you say your name was?"

Two Detroiters Die in Ontario Accident

CHATHAM, Ont. (AP)—Three persons, two of them Detroiters were killed last night in a head-on auto crash near here.

The victims were Charles C. Remington, 64 of Detroit, and his wife, Geraldine, 63 and Haskon Anderson, 53, of Chatham.

Police said the crash occurred when Anderson tried to pass another car and collided head-on with the oncoming Remington auto.
