Pioneer Food Court to close Sunday, May 3

Closure and major renovation of the Pioneer Food Court during summer sessions I and II will mean that dining options that many campus community members are accustomed to taking advantage of will not be available.

All Pioneer Food Court outlets, except the Grizz Express convenience shop located on the southwest corner of the Oakland Center's main floor, will close on Sunday, May 3, and not reopen until Thursday, Sept. 3.

For students, faculty and staff who will be on campus over the summer and who wish to still utilize convenient food service locations, various sites across campus will remain open. Listed below, all of these locations will maintain adjusted summer hours, and all will be closed on Saturdays, Sundays and official University holidays.
