Pontiac Will Get New Library, Air Terminal

Assurance was given Pontiac city commissioners last night that Pontiac can build the new city library and tower-terminal project at the municipal airport.

Cheered by the news presented by City Manager Walter K. Willman, commissioners moved ahead immediately and set ground-breaking ceremonies for the $500,000 library for next Tuesday afternoon.

It will be built across from the City Hall and Public Safety Building on Parke street.

Willman had to dig deep to come up with some $65,000 in new funds after bids on both projects exceeded money available.

For the long-awaited terminal building, it appeared the city came out better than it anticipated in negotiating for extra funds.

Bids submitted Sept. 10 reached $344,154, including contingencies and fees, while the city had set aside but $300,000 in city, state and federal funds.

The city still must move fast to meet next Wednesday's deadline for federal participation.

Commissioners are expected to formally approve the newly-discovered monies and move ahead with the project the night before.

According to Willman, an advance of $24,832 from the Michigan Department of Aeronautics will be provided from the city's 1960 appropriation. This is dependent upon the city coming up with $23,615, which the city manager said will be taken from the capital improvement fund.

The state and city are kicking in these funds under a stipulation by the federal government that it will restore at least $8000 of the $12,000 taken from the original federal grant.

Willman told commissioners it was possible that the entire $12,643 might be given back.

Willman today, however, is counting on just the $8,000, which, combined with the state's promise of $24,832, and the city's share of $23,615, totals $56,447. But $44,000 was needed in the first place.

Willman now places a $435,000 price tag on the airport project. This includes architects' fees, inspection, site improvements and other contingencies. In round figures, $131,000 of this will come from local funds and $304,000 state and federal funds.

On the library, Willman pleased some commissioners by announcing a cut of $20,363 from three low bids, bringing the project within $500 of the half million dollars allocated.

He said this was done with the help of the architects, by "shopping around" for less expensive materials and deleting some provisions.

But Willman emphasized, "We didn't cheapen the building materially. We did cut out some work that was planned for the rear of the library and adopted a new type window sash."

"The architects agreed that all these changes will still result in a very fine building," the manager said. "I recommend that we get this project under way immediately."

All commissioners agreed with the exception of Milton R. Henry (District 1) who questioned the legality of changing materials without allowing other than the low bidders to submit new bids.

Willman replied that materials

Give Air Force Control Over All U.S. Rockets

Interceptor Jet on Way Out as F108 Contracts Due for Scrapping

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department today designated the Air Force as America's future space force. This was a jolt to the Army and Navy.

The department turned over to the Air Force sole military responsibility for all "space transportation" and space vehicle rocket boosters.

The Defense Department apparently also has decided to halt further development of interceptor airplanes and stake America's future air defense entirely on guided missiles.

Barring any last-minute change, the Air Force shortly will cancel the contract of North American Aviation Inc. to develop the long-heralded, 2,000-miles-an-hour F108 jet interceptor.

More than $150,000,000 has been invested in the project to date and another $50,000,000 may be required before the contract is finally terminated.

The experimental model of the F108, the only new type of interceptor presently under development, was due to fly next year. Squadrons were expected to be in service in the North American Air Defense Command in about three years.

★ ★ ★

Airmen from Gen. Thomas D. White, Air Force chief of staff, on down were known to be bitter about the move. They felt it was compelled entirely by a money squeeze rather than any new appraisal of the Soviet bomber threat. They viewed it as a risk that the Defense Department ought not to take.

SAVES 2½ BILLION

Lt. Gen. Joseph H. Atkinson, head of the Air Force Air Defense Command, told newsmen on Sept. 3, before the decision had been made to eliminate the F108, that "we can't take a chance."

Atkinson said "we had better have it in case we need it" to defend against any supersonic Russian bombers of the future.

The plane, last of the manned interceptors, was included in the Pentagon's so-called master plan for air defense as presented to Congress last spring.

Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy and the Joint Chiefs of Staff then envisioned the F108, armed with missiles, as providing long-range defense while ground-based anti-aircraft missiles backed it up at shorter ranges.

F108 VERY ADVANCED

The F108 was to have been a radically advanced airplane. It was designed to fly three times the speed of sound and operate at altitudes above 17,000 feet.

It would have carried radar equipment that could spot an enemy bomber 200 miles away and a missile able to attack at distances up to 100 miles.

Fall Will Be a Little Late in Pontiac Area

Despite the arrival of fall at 2:09 p.m. today, summer weather appeared reluctant to leave.

Temperatures in the Pontiac area were expected to be in the 80s this afternoon.

Partly cloudy skies and a low of 58 with a chance of showers and cooler weather was forecast for tonight by the weatherman.

Tomorrow will be partly cloudy and cooler with the high 74 to 78.

This morning's winds southwesterly at 10 to 15 miles an hour will diminish, shifting to westerly late tonight.

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 68 degrees. At 2 p.m. the reading was 86.

TRAGIC STORY — It was to be an enjoyable day. There would be a nice boat ride and then some cranberry picking. But only bewildered sorrow is seen on the face of Leonard Larson, 42, of Skandia. He's giving Schoolcraft County Coroner Robert Broullire the names of his wife, brother and 10 children. They all drowned when the fun turned to tragedy on McKeever Lake near Munising Tuesday.

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

MUNISING — "They wanted to get in the same boat because it would be more fun." A bewildered father—the only survivor of a boating accident that took the lives of his wife, 10 children and his brother—was too grief-stricken for tears as he described the tragedy to State Police.

"I was very confused — it all happened so suddenly," said Leonard Larson, 42, as the bodies were brought ashore from Lake McKeever in Upper Michigan's Hiawatha National Forest Tuesday.

The family, on a day's outing to pick wild cranberries, had piled into a 12-foot outboard motorboat. It capsized 40 feet from shore. None could swim. The father saved himself by climbing atop the overturned boat.

Helpless, he saw his wife, children and his brother Harry, 64, go under in water so clear the bodies could be seen 15 feet down.

All the Larsons' children but the oldest daughter, Doris May, 16, were along. She was attending high school in Marquette.

"I didn't cry when I heard the news," Doris May said. "I just wanted to see my father."

HAPPY BUT POOR

A short thin man with wispy brown hair, Larson asked: "What is there that anybody can do for me now?"

Like most big families, the Larsons were happy but "poor as church mice," fellow villagers said.

"We've been coming to this lake for several years to pick wild cranberries," Larson said. "We preserved them.

"All the family wanted to come along. They wanted to go in the same boat because it would be more fun."

The children were out of classes because the village school was closed for the day for repairs.

The boat belonged to the uncle,

Price was driving west on Wilson when his car collided with Bowman's which was traveling north on Motor, according to Pontiac police.

Price was thrown 20 feet from his car by the crash impact. He was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital. He suffered a fractured skull.

Rogers, a passenger in Price's car, died at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after the accident. He suffered a crushed chest and fractured skull.

Hollis, also riding in Price's car, was in satisfactory condition with chest injuries at Pontiac General Hospital. Bowman was treated for minor injuries at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

HOSTAGES JUMP TO SAFETY—Two women hostages, held by a red-headed gunman during an attempted holdup today, jump to safety through the shattered glass of the Cleveland Trust Co. branch office in Cleveland. The gunman released the branch manager and several other branch employes without harming them. The gunman was found dead on the floor of the bank when police finally rushed into the building.

LED TO SAFETY — Police, with their pistols drawn, lead employes of a Cleveland Trust Co. branch office to safety today during an attempted holdup. The gunman, trapped inside the building, took several hostages and then released them as the police closed in. Tear gas shells were fired into the bank, and when the police found the gunman, dead on the floor, there was a revolver beside him.

Gambling Case Evidence Nixed by Judge Beer

Says Warrants Were Inadequate for Sweep Which Nabbed Five

The prosecution's conspiracy case against four alleged gamblers, accused of operating a million dollar bookie racket by State Police, fell further apart today when charges were dropped against two, including the reported ring leader.

Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer granted two motions, one suppressing evidence and the other quashing information, freeing Basil W. Burke, the alleged kingpin and Mrs. Gladys J. Gullett, wife of the former Pontiac deputy city treasurer.

That left Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem with two defendants, Charles D. "Whitey" Apley and James "Chinaboy" Pruzor.

Although his case appeared to be collasping, Ziem said his office's contend that Gullet, his wife, and Burke are still co-conspirators with Apley and Pruzor.

After Judge Beer this morning granted the first defense motion, suppressing evidence against Burke and Mrs. Gullett, Zeim did not oppose the second motion "because we had no evidence left to support it."

Defense attorneys for Apley and Purzor immediately moved to quash all the information against their clients, or have dropped three of the five counts on which they were bound over to Circuit Court from Pontiac Municipal Court.

Beer denied dismissal of two of the counts, and said he'd wanted until 9 tomorrow morning to rule on the other three.

"There were no facts set forth in the affidavit for the search warrants which justified their issuance," the judge said.

"No one's home may be invaded or searched, under the federal and state constitutions, unless in a sworn affidavit the warrants set forth the facts that a crime is is probably being committed," he said.

Hoax Ad Draws 10,000 Applicants to Woman's Door

DETROIT (UPI)—Approximately 10,000 persons, by police department estimate, jammed the sidewalk and street in front of Mrs. Anna D. Fay's home in suburban Grosse Pointe Woods last night, looking for a non-existent chauffeur's job.

They appeared in response to a newspaper advertisement placed by a boxer offering $80 a week and the use of Mrs. Fay's Cadillac on weekends.

Applicants began arriving at 6:30 a.m. The traffic jam soon got beyond control of three police car crews who had to call for help.

First Kidnaps West Cleveland Firm Manager

Robber Threatens With 'Bomb,' Family Gets Word to Police

CLEVELAND — A daring gunman kidnaped the managed of a branch of the Cleveland Trust company today and tried to hold the banker's family hostage in an unsuccessful robbery attempt.

He shot himself to death when cornered by police.

A woman accomplice and another man believed involved in the plot were sought by police.

The robber's body was found in the basement of the bank after an hour-long gunfight with police. Bank employes held captive in the bank cowered as the shots were exchanged. The robber had released the employes before the final police fusillade.

When no further shots were fired by the robber, police entered the west side branch bank and found him dead.

LEAVE A BOMB

The couple had taken Fox from his home to the bank, leaving behind a device they said was a bomb that would destroy his family if he did not cooperate.

Fox' daughter, Marilyn, 18, freed herself from bonds and called police, who surrounded the bank and posted men on the roofs of nearby buildings.

Chicago Jumps Until Dawn as Sox Win

CHICAGO (UPI) — The victory jag went on all night and into the dawn in the horn-blowing, siren-sounding windy city today.

★ ★ ★

From the "world's busiest corner" at State and Madison, where some young celebrants were ushered into a paddy wagon, to the far suburbs and beyond, this was the day to remember.

★ ★ ★

This was the proud day after the glorious night when the White Sox brought the American League pennant, the first time in 40 long years, to the folks back home. A few of the oldsters remembered that the last one was won by a team which later became the "Black Sox," but who cares about that gang 40 years ago?

The cork popped, emotionally and physically, at 9:43 p.m. (CDT) last night, when the Sox clinched the pennant at Cleveland.

GOP National Chairman Here Oct. 22

Oakland County Republicans will gaze into the crystal ball with Sen. Thruston B. Morton, chairman of the Republican National Committee, on Oct. 22 when he predicts "Victory in Michigan in 1960."

The Kentucky senator will be the featured speaker at a $50-a-plate testimonial luncheon at Northwood Inn, 2593 Woodward Aave., Berkley. He will also speak at a fete at Devon Gables the same day.

★ ★ ★

Sponsoring the luncheon, is the Republican Committee of Oakland County. Chairman is W.A. P. John, of MacManus, John & Adams, Inc., Bloomfield Hills advertising agency.

Cochairmen are Arthur G. Elliott Jr., GOP committee chairman, and Merritt D. Hill, finance director for the county group.

SEN. THRUSTON MORTON

Morton yesterday told a Trenton, N. J. news conference a Nixon and Rockefeller ticket would be the best the party could offer in 1960.

MUST ASSUME CONTEST

Asked if he thought Vice President Richard M. Nixon and New York Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller would battle over the presidential nomination, Morton said:

"I have no choice except to assume a contest."

He said Nixon has more support among the party politicians now but "that can swing very rapidly if the people should swing."

Multiplication, Division for First Grade

Elementary Math Altered Here

For the first time in the history of the Pontiac school system, all four arithmetic processes will be taught in the first grades, this year.

Previously, first grade pupils learned only addition and subtraction. Multiplication and division now will be introduced, also.

Gerald E. White, coordinator of elementary education, said:

"The arithmetic program in the past has been too limited on the first grade level. The new program provides opportunities for all children to do more advanced arithmetic and is designed to do a better job of providing for individual differences."

White said that trial work was accomplished last year in a few of the first grade classes and that its success prompted the installation of the program throughout this year.

"We found the students were enthusiastic about arithmetic and achieved at substantially higher levels than the national average," White said.

"We think the new program will make arithmetic more fun for children. We are attempting to make it a more enjoyable subject so that more students will be interested in it later on."

White said the length of arithmetic periods will not be extended and that he foresees "no tensions developing" as a result of the additional subject matter.

Two workshops were conducted last week to brief 78 elementary school teachers on arithmetic instruction.

Heading one of the workshops was Dr. Andrew Schott, formerly professor of education at Marquette University. Schott is the author and originator of the "Individualized Arithmetic Program."

Schott's program uses abacus (a bead system of learning based on 10) and other instructional materials to teach understanding of the number system.

The second workshop was headed by Dr. David Wells, mathematics consultant for the Oakland County Board of Education, who introduced new classroom constructional materials.

White announced also that an all-city arithmetic committee has been organized in an effort to improve instruction in the elementary grades. The committee will meet periodically and make recommendations to the superintendent of schools.

White said the teachers' workshops and the committee are a step to develop the potential of the students.

"Our children are capable of achieving more than they have in the past with the introduction of these new methods," he said.

City Policeman Retires; Recalls Brush With Death

By MAX E. SIMON

Death flashing from a shotgun almost ended Clark M. Wheaton's police career 26 years ago.

But the veteran police inspector's alertness saved his life, and he has seen many a new day dawn since then.

Today the 62 year old inspector will be the guest of honor at a reception given by his fellow officers in the Public Safety Building. He retired from the Pontiac Police Department Monday after more than 37 years of service.

Wheaton's brush with death came early on a hot summer morning in 1933 when he was about to arrest a young, drunken husband involved in a party brawl.

The pleas of the drunk's 15-year-old expectant wife melted the then patrol lieutenant, and Wheaton deposited the husband at home instead of at the hoosegow.

CAUTIONS WIFE

While Wheaton stood outside the home cautioning the wife to keep her spouse under control, the husband suddenly emerged from the house waving a shotgun, screaming "I'll kill you!"

The policeman dived into his patrol car and slammed the door shut as shotgun pellets perforated the metal below the door.

It was one of the closest shaves he ever had, Wheaton recalled.

Despite his long service record Wheaton joined the local police force comparatively late in life. He was 26 when he first put on a uniform. Before that time, he had had enough interesting and varied experiences to write a novel.

Born in Galien in 1897, he spent his boyhood on his father's farm where, he recalls, "the snow was piled so high you could drive a tractor right over the fences."

He was a farmer, lumberman, sailor, factory worker and hospital attendant before he chose the badge, gun and nightstick for his life's work.

Wheaton came to Pontiac at 17 after a year in high school and was

His first full time job in 1914 was at the Continental Motor Car Co. in Detroit.

During the early part of the First World War, young Wheaton worked at the American Car and Foundry in Detroit making shells for both the Kaiser and the Allies until America entered the war," he said.

WAS TOO YOUNG

Too young for the draft, Wheaton then worked for a Great Lakes shipping line operated by the government until he was of age to fight.

He was still waiting when Armistice Day came. He returned to Pontiac where he worked a year at the Oakland Motor Car Co.

In 1920 he joined the staff of Pontiac State Hospital and stayed there until July of 1922 when he elected to become a policeman.

Rising through the ranks, Wheaton was promoted to detective, detective - sergeant, uniformed lieutenant, detective - lieutenant and captain.

Then in 1955 he was appointed inspector—the first person in the department's history to hold the rank.

Royal Oak Hosts Final Governor's Road Conference

The last of a series of five Governor's Regional Highway Safety Conferences is being held today at the Elks Temple in Royal Oak.

The meetings are designed to study and find solutions for the sudden increase in Michigan traffic fatalities.

Last year the state traffic death toll was 1,329. For the past three years the toll has steadily decreased, but unless the current trend is stopped, more than 1,400 deaths will occur on Michigan highways in 1959, traffic authorities predict.

Oakland County's toll was 96, the first time it finished under 100 since 1949 when only 88 deaths marred highways.

The conferences are sponsored jointly by the Michigan Citizens Highway Safety Action Committee and the Michigan State Safety Commission.

How Oakland Created DPW Topic of Speech

How Oakland County created its Department of Public Works — the first of its kind in Michigan — will be told tomorrow by Harold K. Schone, director, at the monthly meeting of the Supervisors Inter-County Committee to be held at the Botsford Inn.

Schone's topic will be "Oakland County Department of Public Works — Organization and Standards."

were changed without altering original specifications.

City Attorney William A. Ewart said he saw no grounds for legal action, such as Oakland County fell into when it accepted other than the low bidder for the new courthouse.

Compared to the costs when bids were submitted, which totaled $520,895, trimming here and there has resulted in a new cost of $500,531.

Willman said $14,010 was cut from the general, $3,170 from the mechanical, and $3,183 from the electrical bids.

With Commissioner William W. Donaldson proclaiming the library a "cultural keystone" of the city's 1961 centennial celebration, the Commission authorized Willman to execute contracts based on the reduced costs.

Burning of Auto Linked to Strike

ROYAL OAK (AP) — An automobile belonging to the father of a man arrested in connection with the Cross Co. strike at Fraser, burned in front of his home near here yesterday.

Bigger's son, James F. Bigger, 33, also of Madison Heights, was arrested in a field near the Cross plant yesterday when State Police reported finding a switchblade knife, and a 34-inch sledge hammer handle, in his pickup truck. He is a member of the United Auto Workers Local 212. The UAW is striking the Cross plant in a new contract dispute.

Detroit Living Cost Declines .6 Per Cent

DETROIT (AP) — The cost of living in Detroit declined six-tenths of one per cent from July to August, compared with a nationwide drop of only one-tenth of one per cent.

This was reported today by the Chicago regional office of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

July to August decreases were recorded in Detroit on reading and recreation, 4.3 per cent; food, .6; transportation, .2 and housing, .1. Increases were reported in apparel, .9, and personal care, .1.

The medical expenses index was unchanged, but compared with a year ago this item is 3.7 per cent higher.

Fred Poole, Commercial Division chairman, 1959 Pontiac Area United Fund, was speaking to more than 60 division solicitors at a breakfast orientation session Tuesday at the Waldron Hotel.

Retail 1, retail 2 and the finance sections of the division were present.

New Hurricane Eyed Nervously by Southeast

shooting when a bullet struck him under the heart.

Police said the man had a New York driver's license in the name of Lee C. Terry and had a rental car slip in the same name.

The man and a woman, described by Marilyn as a "dirty blonde with short, straggly hair," between 30 and 35, came to the Fox home about 7 a.m. and asked to use the telephone. They said they had had trouble with their car, Marilyn said.

After Fox showed them in, Marilyn said, she heard a struggle and went to the living room. The woman pulled a gun to stop a fight between her father and the man, Marilyn said.

Then, the couple took Fox into another room to "show him something" they had in a brief case.

"When dad came out he was white," Marilyn told a reporter. She said the couple had showed her father an object that was ticking and told him it was a bomb.

The "bomb" was described by police as two dry cells fastened inside the brief case and wired to a box.

The box contained a black powder that turned out to be coal dust. There was an alarm clock in the brief case ticking away.

Some 200 police and FBI agents were summoned to the bank, where they showered tear gas shells and fired revolvers and shotguns at the bandit during the 45-minute siege.

Fifteen or 16 bank employes were involved, most of them apparently coming in after Fox was brought to the bank.

The holdup man reportedly made no effort to keep them from leaving after the tear gas started coming in. Two girl tellers were seen leaving through a broken window.

When police called for surrender, the man told them the bomb was planted at Fox' home and demanded to be allowed to escape.

The man, who was wearing a red wig, and his companion came to the Fox house about 7 a.m., and it was 9:40 when police rushed into the bank to end the siege.

Project Report Off to Chicago

Has Approval of Full Commission; Is Big Urban Renewal Step

On its way to Chicago today is Pontiac's final project report on the proposed urban renewal program and a loan request from the federal government to carry it out.

The City Commission last night gave unanimous approval to the report, which is one step closer to taking the $4 million rehabilitation program out of the planning and into the actual work stage.

The report, which outlines in detail what areas the city plans to spruce up, is headed for the Housing and Home Finance Agency office in Chicago, which will review it and return it to Pontiac in two to three months. Then a public hearing on the project will be held in Pontiac.

So the public wouldn't be misled in believing "the city is going to pay the full shot" of a $5,354,087 loan, Commissioner William W. Donaldson asked an explanation of what this loan constituted.

"It amounts to the operational capital we need to carry out this phase of the program," answered Robert A. Stierer, assistant city manager and coordinator of the program. He said it would be mostly for property acquisition and site improvement.

"At any one time," Stierer continued, "we probably won't have available more than two million dollars of the total loan."

Commissioners learned from Stierer and planning consultants last week what work the program constitutes. Formal approval came as expected last night.

It was emphasized, after a question from Commissioner Floyd P. Miles, that the city's net share of $1,378,470 will be absorbed, for the most part, by city planned public improvements in and around phase one of the project.

This is an area bounded by Pike on the north, Saginaw on the west, Osmun on the south, and an irregular line along Paddock, Perkins and Parkhurst on the east.

In reply to a commissioner's question, Stierer said the city today "cannot legally" restrict building permits in this area to keep down property acquisition costs.

The "carrying out" phase of the project will begin sometime next year, it is hoped, Stierer said.

Rain Is Forecast for Most of U.S., Including Us

By The Associated Press

Thundershowers and scattered rains were forecast for most of the country today.

The Weather Bureau said the precipitation would fall from Texas northeastward into the north Atlantic states from Kansas northeastward into the eastern Great Lakes, along the Gulf and Southeast coasts, most of Florida, Colorado and Montana and sections of the plateau region.

Fair weather was forecast for the West Coast, the desert Southwest, parts of the Atlantic Coast, and partly cloudy skies in the northern plains states and the lower Mississippi Valley.

Wide sections of Texas had rain Tuesday. At Pampa, in the Panhandle 5½ inches of rain and some small hailstones were reported. Hail also fell at Corydon, Iowa.

RAIN AT SAULT

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., reported 2.43 inches of rain; Lamoni, Iowa, nearly 2 inches, and Madison, Wis., 1 inch.

A funnel cloud was observed north of Williamstown, Mo., Tuesday night. Wichita, Kan., had wind gusts up to 59 m.p.h.

Foytack, Harris Leave Autographs

Burned Pontiac Boy, 12, Visited by Tiger Heroes

A visit by two of his Detroit Tiger heroes has brightened the hospital confinement of 12-year-old Gene Grassi.

Gene, a member of the Pontiac Boy's Club, suffered first and second degree burns of the face, neck and left forearm and hand Friday evening.

The youth, who lives with an uncle, Joseph Grassi of 302 Russell St., was doing an Indian tribal dance in a skit Thursday evening when he lit a match to too much gunpowder and was burned.

The youth was despondent because he missed a banquet at the Federal Savings and Loan Assn. dining room Monday evening which was given for 300 youngsters in the Boy's Club junior baseball program.

After the banquet, Cressy B. Larson, executive director of the Boy's Club, told Tiger pitcher Paul Foytack and first baseman Gail Harris of Gene's plight.

The two athletes surprised Gene and other youngsters on the floor by paying a special visit at Pontiac General Hospital.

Siri von Reis Says Wedding Only Delayed

Evidently the candle still glows between Siri von Reis and the 51-year-old electronics expert she stood up just before their planned trip to the altar in Boston, Sept. 11.

Siri, 28, beauteous daughter of wealthy industrialist Gustav von Reis of 1150 Westview Rd., Bloomfield Township, said yesterday that the marriage was not canceled, only posponed.

However, no new wedding date has been chosen, she said.

The intended bridegroom, Arthur G. Metcalf, has issued a statement denying he was jilted by his fiancee. He is president of the Electronics Corp. of America.

The already twice-wed Metcalf said "We love each other very much."

Siri has resumed her studies at Harvard University in Cambridge, Mass.

Her father, a native of Goteburg, Sweden, who has been knighted by the King of Sweden, is president of the Detroit Broach and Machine Co. at Rochester.

CHILDREN'S HOME GIFT—Arthur L. Brandenburg (left), chairman of the West Side Kiwanis Club's boys' and girls' work committee, yesterday presented this movie projector to the Oakland County Children's Home. Receiving it is Isaac C. Prevette Jr., superintendent of the home. Such needy gifts are purchased from proceeds of the annual Peanut Sale to be conducted this Friday and Saturday in downtown Pontiac.

Nikita Keeps Geiger Counters Clicking Away

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—A hot dog Nikita Khrushchev ate at a Des Moines packing plant here Tuesday — the first he ever tasted — was checked by security men with Geiger counters before he ate it.

So were the gift packages, food and even the whisky and ice cubes set out in the presidential suite at the Soviet Premier's hotel.

Suggests Alaska Issue Land Scrip to Taxpayers

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI) — The promise of free land helped settle the West and now a certified public accountant here has come up with a similar idea to attract the people and industry that Alaska needs.

The accountant, R. L. Rettig, based his proposal on the belief that every man wants to own a piece of land. Rettig suggested that the new state consider the issuance of land scrip to taxpayers.

According to his plan, the scrip could be applied, in lieu of cash to the purchase price of land included in the 103,000,000 acres which Alaska will receive from the Federal government under the terms of the statehood bill.

He feels the scrip would attract thousands of potential property owners and also reward those who have lived in Alaska despite its high taxes and high cost of living. In addition, he believes, it will hasten the transfer of property from state control to private developers.

To handle the influx of new residents, Rettig also proposed that the state consider a bond issue of 100 million dollars to 500 million dollars to encourage development of the state's natural resources and to provide new jobs.

* * *

Proceeds from the sale of the bonds would be placed in a revolving fund and loaned to new industries on a long-term basis at a reasonable rate of interest.

Rettig said he realizes such an undertaking would not be simple.

"We would have to decide what taxes would entitle the taxpayers to scrip and establish a formula for applying scrip to the purchase of land.

"We would also have to determine whether scrip should extend to land rights out of the state. And once these things were laid out, we would have to make sure the plan was completely fair to everyone."

Rettig proposed that Gov. William A. Egan appoint a special committee of 25 to 50 "dedicated Alaskans" to work out the details.

There were 1,411,000,000 pounds of cheese manufactured in the United States in 1957, requiring about 11 per cent of the total milk produced.

CAMOUFLAGE — Here's how some ingenious person has tricked-up a new oxygen dispenser to make its use attractive to small fry. Clown's left "eye" is a pressure gauge that moves when oxygen is dispensed; hose unit is given a candy-stripe effect with tape, and a party hat screens the mixer mechanism.

Ordered to Sell Philly Stations

RCA, NBC Get Edict From Atty. Gen. Rogers in Antitrust Suit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers Tuesday announced an antitrust consent judgement requiring Radio Corp. of America and National Broadcasting Co. to dispose of NBC's radio and television outlets in Philadelphia.

★ ★ ★

The stations involved, WPTZ-TV and KYW, were acquired by NBC nearly three years ago through a swap with Westinghouse Broadcasting Co. The government charged coercion figured in the deal.

In the transaction, Westinghouse got NBC's Cleveland, Ohio, stations, WNBK-TV and WTAM-AM-FM, plus three million dollars in cash.

After the exchange had been sanctioned by the Federal Communications Commission, the Justice Department filed suit in the federal district court at Philadelphia alleging that NBC and its parent company, RCA, had conspired to bring about the exchange by threatening Westinghouse with a loss of its NBC network affiliation in Philadelphia and elsewhere.

Mount Clemens Man Heads State Jewelers

★ ★ ★

Green was elected Monday at business sessions concluding the 52nd annual MJA convention and jewelry show which ran for three days and drew about 80 persons to Grand Rapids. Roger A. Losey of Hillsdale was elected vice president. Re-elected was Secretary-Treasurer Robert Heglund of Bay City.

Teamsters May Quit in Protest

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Some Teamster locals may secede from the international union in an effort to block cleanup moves by court-appointed monitors, it was learned today.

★ ★ ★

This possibility has been discussed by Teamster President James R. Hoffa and other top officials at union headquarters here, a spokesman said.

He said Hoffa was not advocating secession but felt it might occur as a protest against the monitors' reform drive.

For example, a Teamster official under fire from the "watchdog" group but with strong backing from his local membership might pull them out of the Hoffa-led union.

QUESTIONABLE STEP

It would be questionable whether the monitors could demand ouster of officers from such new "independent" unions.

This step may be taken by Ray Cohen, secretary-treasurer of the 13,000-member Local 107 in Philadelphia, union sources said.

The monitors want Hoffa to put Cohen on trial for alleged misuse of union funds. But there has been no trial because of a legal battle over the monitors' powers.

The same strategy could be used by Owen (Bert) Brennan, head of Local 337 in Detroit, and other Teamster chiefs who have been marked for removal by the monitors. Presumably they could reaffiliate if the monitorship ever was dissolved.

Tipoff to this development within the 1,600,000-member union came in the Teamsters' bid to the Supreme Court Friday to stay an appeals court order giving broad housecleaning power to the monitors.

The union's petition, addressed to Chief Justice Earl Warren, said Teamster officials "have reason to anticipate in various locals a wave of resentment and dissension leading, in some cases, to a disruption of the international."

In Atlanta, Hoffa last night challenged Sen. John McClellan (D-Ark) to a televised debate over the new labor reform bill.

Hoffa said he would foot the bill for the air time if McClellan would agree to the debate. McClellan headed the congressional subcommittee which recently investigated Teamster affairs.

Conscience Bites Man After 50 Years

Fatal Smashup Could Doom City 'Yield' Signs

After yesterday's fatal traffic accident at Wilson and Motor streets, in which two were killed, Pontiac city officials have agreed to launch an investigation which could result in elimination of "yield right-of-way" signs.

★ ★ ★

District 1 Commissioner Milton R. Henry demanded that a city ordinance establishing the signs be repealed. He showed fellow commissioners a petition supporting this move from friends of the two persons killed.

The accident happened at the intersection marked with a "yield right-of-way" sign, he said.

"This accident probably wouldn't have happened if the people knew they had to stop completely instead of yield," Henry said.

Promising a study of possible replacement of the signs with stop signs, City Manager Walter K. Willman said the city traffic engineer "never had any use for them," but they were installed as part of a state program.

State Liquor Sales Up $4½ Million Over 1958

LANSING (UPI)—Liquor sales in Michigan at the eight-month mark of 1959 were nearly $4,406,000 ahead of the comparable period for last year, the Liquor Control Commission said today.

August sales of $11,668,394, nearly a million dollars over August of 1958, brought the total for the first eight months to $97,335,637, or 4.7 per cent higher than the same period last year.

Urges Dope Crackdown to Fight Teen Terrorists

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner called today for a national crackdown on the narcotics trade. He said it would be the most important federal weapon against teenage gang terrorism.

Wagner, whose city streets have been scenes of 11 juvenile slayings in less than nine months, was the first witness in the start of a Senate subcommittee's national inquiry into "violent eruptions of youthful gangs."

Sen. Thomas C. Hennings (D-Mo), chairman of the subcommittee to investigate juvenile delinquency, opened the two-day hearing here with a statement that the investigation — in several sections of the country—would concentrate on gangs and the reason "why a very small — but extravagant — group goes wild."

Wagner said the city was meeting the problem of youthful crime with police action—and the problem of the juvenile delinquent, who could become a criminal, with virtually every approach known to society."

"I should like you gentlemen of the Senate committee to consider the cutting down of the international and national narcotics trade as one field of action in which you may be helpful in reducing crimes of violence by our youth," the mayor said.

"I believe it to be the most important role the federal government can play . . . in attacking the criminal aspects of our youth problem.

"There are others, of course, like prohibiting the transportation of weapons into states which prohibit their possession . . ."

He said New York will "vigorously champion" all federal legislation sponsored by the committee.

Hennings said the committee was not here to point an accusing finger at city or state but asking local youth experts to tell how Congress can help.

"We are not dealing here with the so-called juvenile delinquent," Hennings said. "We are dealing with teenage terrorists—actual and potential murderers. New Yorkers have seen the tragic results . . . so, too, have other cities."

Muskegon County Cuts Sheriff Staff

MUSKEGON (AP) — Confronted by a looming county financial crisis, the Muskegon County Sheriff's Dept. has been advised to cut its staff in two.

The Sheriff's committee of the County Board of Supervisors Monday voted to advise Sheriff Arthur Davis to reduce his staff immediately from 34 to 17 members.

The action resulted from a board meeting yesterday in which a two-part resolution attempting to ward off a threatened cash emergency was approved.

The board agreed to ask industry to attempt to make a total of $125,000 in pre-payments on 1960 taxes and to empower the Board's finance committee to apportion the pre-payment money.

The county's operating funds for the rest of 1959 have dwindled to an estimated $440,000.

British Elections Differ From American Ways

British election campaigns are running in high gear and will continue that way from now to election day which is October 8.

Britishers are enjoying much better business conditions now and the possibility of a meeting at the summit seems like a pretty good risk, and consequently, Prime Minister MACMILLAN has called a general election.

An election in England varies in two ways from our American methods. One of the prime differences is that the campaigning does not run forever and a day. This we like. Most people we believe get completely fed up with our long, drawn out campaigns.

This particular British election will be of three weeks duration with all the stops pulled out which is unlike our American custom where we get dizzy rehashing political speech after speech to a many times numbed audience.

The other big difference is unique, but we question its fairness. The Prime Minister and his cabinet can call an election when the political omens favor their side. This is a distinct political advantage which American office holders do not have.

The only hard and fast rule is a statutory limitation of five years on the life of Parliament. The present five year limit would not have run out until next May so it is obvious that Prime Minister MacMillan figures this is a propitious time for such an election.

The Conservative election prospects look good, but don't necessarily foreshadow a landslide. At the last vote, in 1955, they won 344 seats in the House of Commons as against 277 for Labor, but the total was more evenly divided — 49.7 per cent for Conservatives, 46.4 per cent for Labor, 2.7 per cent for Liberals.

Because of the near equilibrium in voting strength, neither the two big British Parties dares to venture very far from the middle ground for fear of alienating independents whose support is necessary for victory at the polls.

Labor has grown hesitant about pressing further nationalization proposals and the Conservatives have accepted the welfare state. As a result, no bitterly contested issues are due to be fought over in this year's campaign.

Must Good Manners Be Abandoned in Our Rush?

In all our rush and push to get along in today's fast moving world, the little niceties seem to be overlooked by many of us. Just stop and reflect and see if you won't agree.

There seems to be an increasing motion about, to judge from Americans' public behavior, that manners are something to be held in reserve for family and friends.

If you want the evidence, just keep a sharp eye as you wander the public places, or just read the daily reports in your local paper.

Manners are long gone and we wonder why. The shoving, the elbowing, the snarling and the glaring are getting to be all too common.

The other day a government official in one of our big states took note of complaints that his state motor vehicle inspectors were gruffing arrogantly at people who bring their cars for a required checkup.

In countless spots people who encounter from dozens to hundreds a day growl sullenly at the customers as if they were doing them a big, fat favor for just being there and were being victimized. And it goes the other way, too.

There are just all kinds of barking from irritable customers who want and expect the moon in ten seconds flat. We ask why.

Manners are not something we can leave at home. To have any meaning at all we must take them wherever we go.

They're your recognition of the other fellow's humanity—and that doesn't end on your own door step.

Piling Up

86th Congress Left Much Undone

WASHINGTON—As every session of Congress has ended during the last several years, this correspondent has been tempted to say: "It's remarkable that anything gets passed at all!"

LAWRENCE

There are so many cross-currents of influence and so many pressures, both for and against proposed legislation, that the net result is hard to describe in a phrase or two except perhaps to say that compromise is the essence of congressional existence.

The public is told primarily of the legislation actually passed. Emphasis is placed on major measures, for example, such as the labor reform law adopted at the last session, or the foreign aid bill, or the bills passed to maintain the nation's armament and security.

But what is often lost sight of is that much legislation that ought to be passed doesn't get to first base. It's true, of course, that the present Congress still has another session next year and that the laws which were not enacted this time still have a chance of passage in the session which begins in January.

It is interesting to make a survey of some of the major legislative proposals that were put aside by the session of the 86th Congress which ended this month. Here is a list of some of them:

1. Interest rates. The administration wanted to have the ceiling on the interest rates on long term securities removed. The Congress refused to do this.

The President has said this is one of the most serious situations that has confronted the government in many years. Whenever the Congress fails to do what ought to be done to enable the executive branch of the government to operate effectively, it is a cause for concern.

NO POSTAL HIKE

2. Postage rate increases. The administration wanted to advance the rate from four to five cents on first-class mail and from seven to eight cents on airmail. This would have reduced the current annual postal deficit by about $350 million. Congress virtually ignored the request.

3. The item-veto power. This is one of the most important reforms that has ever been suggested to make the American system of government more efficient. The President asked a right which many states of the Union grant—namely, that the executive may veto particular items in a piece of legislation without necessarily vetoing the rest of the measure. The request was greeted by laughter. Nothing was done about it.

4. Appropriation methods. The President suggested that Congress stop granting "new obligational authority" so as to end "back-door" financing. Congress refused.

5. Sedition. The House passed a bill to provide that state laws in a field where Congress has already acted, including sedition, should be concurrently enforceable unless a federal statute has specifically taken over a monopoly in that particular field. The Senate took no action.

6. Criminal trials. The House passed a bill providing that evidence, including confessions, shall not be regarded as inadmissible in courts just because of a delay in arraigning a criminal suspect. This was intended to offset the so-called "Mallory" decision. The bill got no further than hearings in the Senate.

7. Communist recruiting. The House passed a bill to clarify the word "organized" as used in the Smith Act. The Supreme Court has said that only persons who were concerned with the "organizing" of the Communist Party itself could be prosecuted—in other words, if they didn't have anything to do with the inception of such activities, they were immune.

The new proposal would make it unlawful for subversive groups to continue to operate even after the organizational stage. The House bill is up for consideration by the Senate next year.

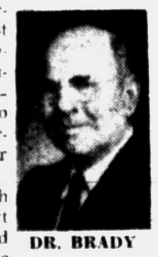

8. Loyalty program. Neither House acted on proposals to apply security requirements to nonsensitive federal posts.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Heart Victims Require Graduated Exercise

The three ingredients of my prescription for heart trouble — almost any kind of heart trouble — are (1) graduated exercise, (2) vitamin B-complex - iron-manganese instead of digitalis, and (3) natural breathing.

DR. BRADY

In order to get the greatest benefit from the most important ingredient — graduated exercise — it is necessary to have close supervision by your physician.

Anybody with any kind of heart trouble may and should use the second ingredient, for it is food, not medicine, and hence it can't do any harm when used day by day the year around, either along with digitalis when or if you take digitalis, or by itself as a real heart tonic.

Many doctors and most people scarcely associate breathing with heart trouble. Yet the main purpose or function of the lungs (breathing) and the heart (circulation) is to keep the cells of tissues or organs supplied with oxygen and to carry away combustion products such as carbon dioxide.

So we should not become so preoccupied with murmurs, blood pressure, electrocardiograms and oxygen tanks that we forget natural breathing.

The explanation of the pain in angina pectoris is anoxia (lack of oxygen) in a portion of the heart muscle, due to spasm or constriction of a branch of a coronary artery which normally supplies blood (oxygen) to that portion.

The quickest and most dependable relief for angina is nitroglycerin. In the CVD booklet, about heart and artery troubles, I say:

"Every sufferer from angina pectoris should carry at all times a few tablets of nitroglycerin (otherwise called glonoin or glyceryl trinitrate), each containing 1/200th to 1/200th of a grain. Such a tablet dissolved in the mouth" — acts in two minutes.

RELAXES SPASM

Nitroglycerin relieves the pain or distress of angina by relaxing the spasm or restriction of the coronary arteries so that more blood can bring some much needed oxygen to the portion of heart muscle affected.

★ ★ ★

It would be impractical for most angina patients to carry small oxygen tanks all the time, nevertheless, if I were subject to anginal spells, I'd prefer to have 'em within reach of an oxygen.

It is my theory that, even though no nitroglycerin or oxygen be available, one subject to angina can stave off many seizure by immediate use of the oxygenator everybody always has with him — his bellows.

Signed letters not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene (not disease, diagnosis or treatment), will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

The Country Parson

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Creating Happiness Most Vital Job

Al Warden gives us another true story about Jack Dempsey which shows Jack's extreme thoughtfulness for his mother and his desire to shield her from any unnecessary uphappiness. Although she traded off a brand new car during the war for an old jalopy, notice how neatly Jack changed her tears to smiles.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

He and his lovely wife Melba had taken me to dinner, and our conversation veered around to Jack Dempsey.

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane," Al began, "Jack certainly was good to his mother. Since she lived on a ranch, Jack bought her a new car at the outset of World War II.

"For he wanted her to have new tires and the latest model so she would be sure to have good transportation into town.

"But a glib salesman called on Jack's mother and fast talked her out of the new car. He offered her $1,200 and an old jalopy for that shiny new automobile.

"In those war times of severe tire shortages, the rubber on the new car alone was probably worth more than the old jalopy.

"It wasn't long till Jack's mother decided she had made a bad mistake on the trade. She grew tearful and was so upset that she finally called Jack long distance and insisted he come home at once, saying something terrible had happened.

"So Jack flew out and I met him at the airport. When he asked her what was wrong, she told him she had been cheated on her trade.

"But Jack said, 'Wait a minute, Mother, till I go out and see the car you got in return.'

"Well, I went along with him to the barn and we saw that she had certainly been out-traded, all right.

"But Jack never let on when we returned to the house. In a cheery, optimistic voice he told his mother she had no cause to fret or worry, for she had a good deal.

"'Mother,' he began, 'you now now have a good car and $1,200 cash with which to run it, whereas before the trade you only had a car and no cash.'

"Well, Dr. Crane, that thought mollified her so she dried her tears and felt happy once more.

"Later, however, when I had Jack alone, I asked him why he had given her such a rosy view of her car deal.

"And he told me that a year earlier when all the family had been gathered around the dinner table, an argument developed. His mother held one view but everybody else, including Jack, had taken the opposite stand.

"She refused to be convinced of their logic but insisted she was right. And they just as vigorously told her she was all wrong.

"Finally, she broke into tears and ran upstairs. She remained tearful and unhappy for a week.

"Later Jack was again at the table with all the family except his mother, so he informed them: 'Now let's get this straight. Hereafter, Mother is ALWAYS to be right, regardless of how the rest of us feel about the matter, for we don't want her upset like this again.'

"Dr. Crane, that's why he supported her judgment in trading off his fine new car, equipped with new rubber tires.

"Her deal was unwise, for she lost probably $2,500 in cash and had no good rubber on the jalopy she got in trade.

"But Jack said, 'I made her happy, anyhow, and that's what counts.'

★ ★ ★

"And Jack was correct. She had been blue and moody for several days till he buoyed up her spirit again. He was always a mighty fine son to her."

Praises Richman and Retail Merchants' Work

The retail merchants deserve credit for the work they are doing to beautify our downtown. The new benchs are an improvement to our downtown — as I walked past these benches I noticed how many people were using them. The committee is a very atcive one — George Richman deserves a vote of thanks from our citizens.

Pontiac should be proud of him and should back him in rerouting trucks with explosives through our main streets. It is dangerous.

Cheers for Wife, Jeers for Mayor

I agree with the recent cheers for the wife of the slain policeman which we all silently give and for the "jeer" to the mayor of New York City for his laxness in dealing with disturbances occurring in his crowded streets. Edgar Hoover says this is costing us more money in taxes than anything else.

'Reporters' Trivial Barbs May Ruin It'

I'm afraid some of our reporters will undo any good toward creating better relationships with the Russian people that might have been accomplished by their rude and petty remarks about such trivials as the manner of dress of the Soviet Premier and his wife.

I'd hoped love, diplomacy and kindness from the American people would send the Khrushchev family home wondering, if not longing to know, of the God that we know to be everywhere present.

★ ★ ★

President Eisenhower is undoubtably just as embarrassed and humiliated as we are at the reference to Mr. Khrushchev wearing the same suit and at such remarks about the doudiness, plump ankles and cheap wrist watch of Mrs. Khrushchev. Can't we be bigger than this petty criticism?

Courthouse Site Needs Public Vote

The board of supervisors are going around with smiles on their faces, but there are a lot of people in the City of Pontiac who are very sad about it. I can't understand how a few men can do what they want to. Why not a vote of the people? Show me a city the size of Pontiac with a courthouse in the country. If they want to do what the people want, why don't they do something about the rest rooms in the courthouse.

'TV Commercials Are Even Worse'

As the new TV season opens, some of the singing commercials are even more horrible than they used to be. Can't the newspapers do something to shame the stations into a higher class? And my family says the radio singing commercials are worse than the TV ones, for they don't have the musical help that TV gets and the words are worse. Come on, you back-sliders and park up.

'Let's Give Credit to Our Station, Too'

Several months ago there were a couple of letters in Voice of the People complaining because WJR couldn't broadcast from outside Detroit without it sounded like a man with his head in a rain barrel. Well, WJR corrected that and they now broadcast well and someone else wrote in to the newspaper and said so.

At the same time, WPON was just as bad or worse and now they have their own set up modern and when they broadcast from outside the city, you can understand it, which you could hardly do before. We should give credit to the local station just like we did to the Detroit one.

'Why Don't Men Like Harlan Run?'

Why doesn't C. Allen Harlan run for office since he's a prominent Democrat? The trouble is the Democrats offer too many unqualified office seekers and they have no one but themselves to blame for the caliber of some of the monkeys that get elected to office.

Tattooed Bandit on FBI's 10-List

Frederick Seno Called 'Extremely Dangerous'; Fled in Chicago

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A heavily-tattooed midwestern bandit who once stole his mother's life savings and left her penniless, was placed on the FBI's list of 10 most-wanted criminals today.

The fugitive is Frederick Anthony Seno, who has been sought since fleeing from a Chicago courtroom where he was awaiting trial. Described as "armed and extremely dangerous" he has threatened to murder his ex-wife.

Seno's criminal career dates back to 1926 when he was sentenced in Illinois for grand larceny. He has pursued his stick-up activities mainly in the Midwest and has served prison terms in Minnesota and Indiana.

The fugitive is known to like high living and is an avid gambler particularly on horses. He is reported to attend regularly the annual Mardi Gras celebration in New Orleans and has expressed a desire to live in California.

Hal Boyle Explains:

Bet With Boss Incentive for Diet

NEW YORK (AP)—Can you lose up to 40 pounds in 90 days without using drugs?

Can you do it without feeling starved, without losing your strength or sense of humor, without feeling sorry for yourself?

You can indeed. You're listening to an ex-fatty who just did it.

BOYLE

All you need is the right incentive. A fat man with the right incentive can do anything. I had a real good incentive.

"Hello, fat daddy!" said my 6 year-old daughter Tracy, when my wife and I returned in mid-June from a trip to France.

The truth was I weighed a record 217 pounds.

★ ★ ★

The gang at the office poked at my midriff and asked, "How did you smuggle it through customs?"

THE BET DID IT

That did it! I had my incentive, an incentive greater than personal vanity.

"You've got a bet," I told the boss.

★ ★ ★

Handing me a standard diet, he said: "Follow this. Exercise sensibly. Take a couple of vitamin pills a day. Cut your liquor intake to two highballs a day, but don't take any medicines. You don't need them."

★ ★ ★

"Well, Doc," I said, "two drinks a day is taking medicine—for it sure ain't drinking."

So I went on the wagon altogether, and within three days was enjoying the taste of water—straight.

The diet was simplicity itself. I cut out all sweet desserts.

I all but cut out butter, corn, beans—except string beans—and had potatoes just once a week. I limited myself to a piece of rye or whole wheat bread a day. If I ate a sandwich for lunch, the next day I did without bread.

★ ★ ★

I cut my usual portions in half, and concentrated on lean meat, eggs, cottage cheese and filled up on penty of raw and cooked green and yellow vegetables.

★ ★ ★

Mild exercise is the best way to cure your restlessness when you're on a diet—or any other time. I bowled and swam some, but walking is the ideal exercise in the city.

HE FELT FINE

The first week I walked a mile a day, then gradually stepped it up. On weekends I got up to seven or eight miles. Solitary walking can be a great joy. You learn the trees, the store window sights and the people in your town as you can in no other way. One tip: In the city be sure to wear rubber-heeled shoes.

Strangely, I felt exhilarated rather than depressed most of the time. Only once did I break my diet to eat a chocolate sundae. I felt as guilty as if I'd robbed the church poor box, and never was tempted again.

The pounds came off in fits and spurts—six the first week, none the next, some weeks 2 to 5. On the 90th day I had a surgeon friend ready to amputate a leg if necessary—anything to keep from losing to the boss!

But the scales said 177 pounds. I had taken off not 30 pounds, but about 40. The boss forked over a $50 bill.

★ ★ ★

There's one other reward. They told me that if I slimmed down I'd have the girls in the office standing in line. I do, too. But all they whisper in my ears is: "What's your secret, skinny? I'd like to lose a little myself."

The incentive is the secret. Bet the boss!

Says School District Bill Will Be Back

MACKINAC ISLAND (UPI)—Michigan's top school official says the controversial K-12 bill for school district reorganization will come up again in the next legislative session.

But Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett, superintendent of public instruction, told the Michigan Assn. of School Administrators (MASA) Monday the bill may require a constitutional amendment to make it workable.

The K-12 bill failed in the last Legislature. It would have reorganized all Michigan's schools into kindergarten through 12th grade districts, forcing all elementary districts into a complete K-12 district, either through annexation or consolidation.

The bill was opposed by big city districts which would have had to annex rural districts.

Segni Will Skip Trip to Canada This Weekend

ROME (UPI) — Premier Antonio Segni has cancelled a scheduled visit to Canada this weekend and reduced the length of a visit to the United States "for reasons connected with domestic policy commitments," it was announced Tuesday.

Segni was scheduled to start his visit to Canada Saturday and then to visit the United States from Sept. 30 through Oct. 5.

Today's announcement said the Premier was skipping the visit to Canada entirely and leaving here Sept. 29 for the visit to the United States which will include talks with President Eisenhower.

Wife Saves Battle

During the famous Bennington Battle of the Revolutionary War on Aug. 16, 1777, Gen. John Stark is said to have rallied his men by saying: "We have to beat them today, or Molly Stark's a widow."

The first state to regulate security sales was Rhode Island which passed such a statute in about 1910.

Castro Applauds as Sugar Kings Win

HAVANA (AP)—Premier Fidel Castro cheered along with 13,021 other Cuban fans last night as the Havana Sugar Kings beat Richmond 1-0 and won the International League final baseball playoffs, 4-2.

★ ★ ★

The only run came in the second inning on singles by Roy Shearer, Leonardo Cardenas and Enrique Izuquerdo.

The victory put Havana into the Little World Series against the American Assn. playoff winner, either Minneapolis or Fort Worth, now tied 2-2 in their series. The Little World Series will be a history making event in Cuba as well as in Latin America.

Plaque to Honor Doctor Linked to Lincoln's Death

—WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Samuel A. Mudd, who gave medical aid to the assassin of Abraham Lincoln and was jailed as a result, will be honored for his services to fellow prisoners during a yellow fever epidemic.

Congress has authorized erection of a memorial tablet at Garden Key, Fla., honoring Dr. Mudd's performance during the epidemic in 1867. The tablet will cost about $300.

The doctor had been imprisoned at old Fort Jefferson at Garden Key after his conviction as an accessory after the fact in Lincoln's assassination in 1865.

History says that John Wilkes Booth broke his leg in leaping to the stage of Ford Theater here after he shot Lincoln and went to Dr. Mudd's home in Maryland for aid.

In authorizing the memorial, Congress skirted the issue of whether Dr. Mudd knew of the assassination when he treated Booth.

Ferris Enrollment Hits Record Figure of 3,050

BIG RAPIDS (UPI) — President Dr. Victor F. Spathelf of Ferris Institute announced Tuesday that the school's enrollment for the new term has reached a record 3,050.

A freshman class of 1,300 was reported as the largest in Ferris history, and Spathelf said the Ferris student body this year is nearly five times larger than in 1952.

Two Years Ahead

Almost two years before the Fourth of July, 1776, the citizens of Chester, Vt. issued a declaration of Independence of their own. A proclamation on Oct. 10, 1774, said that "all acts of British Parliament tending to take away Rights of Freedom ought not to be obeyed."

Rip Van Winkle couldn't sleep with nagging backache

Now! You can get the fast relief you need from nagging backache, headache and muscular aches and pains that often cause restless nights and miserable tired out feelings. When these discomforts come on with over-exertion or, stress and strain—you want relief—want it fast! Another disturbance may be mild bladder irritation following wrong food and drink—often setting up a restless, uncomfortable feeling.

Doan's Pills work fast in 3 separate ways: 1. by speedy pain relieving action to ease torment of nagging backache, headaches, muscular aches and pains. 2. by soothing effect on bladder irritation. 3. by mild diuretic action tending to increase output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.

8-Mile Drain Fight to Judge

Southfield Casts Lot With Residents in Battle Against Costs

Southfield yesterday unofficially joined a group of its residents who have placed their long fight against the cost of the stymied Eight Mile road storm drain in the hands of Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer.

James C. Allen, Southfield city attorney, made an unexpected visit to Judge Beer's courtroom authorized him to intervene in the late Tuesday and served verbal notice that his City Council had court fight.

The Eight Mile Road Storm Drain Special Assessment District Taxpayers' Assn. is carrying out its lawsuit protesting the "confiscatory" assessments for the $4,760,000 drain despite Judge Beer's refusal to grant a temporary injunction to stop it.

With the consent of attorneys, a hearing has been set for next Monday at which time both sides will chart the course of the trial.

WILL HELP

Robert Hodge, one of the attorneys for the group, said Southfield should help "annihilate these present illegal drain proceedings" and convince Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry to create new ones.

Hodge emphasized, however, that he and Allen, plus drain attorneys, were merely "exploring a basis for settlement" of the case.

Members of the association alleged in their lawsuit filed in August that assessments for the drain, which is supposed to stop their flooded basements and runoffs into Detroit after heavy rains, are so high that residents would have to sell their homes to pay them in most cases.

Besides Southfield, which makes up the majority of the drainage district, Oak Park would benefit. Oak Park so far has kept out of the court battle.

Developing Sky Platform for Star Observation

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Dr. J. Allen Hynek, noted astronomer, is working on a method for observing the stars from a platform suspended high above the earth by huge helium-filled balloons.

The Air Force Office of Scientific Research Monday announced in Washington a $50,000 grant to further Dr. Hynek's project.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Hynek said he has been working on the assignment several months, with associates in the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory and Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

★ ★ ★

The objective is to send the balloons up to 40,000 to 100,000 feet altitude, with telescopes and other instruments on the platform controlled by a pilot in one of the balloons.

STUDENT TO FLY

Dr. Hynek said the balloon will be flown by George Nelson, "a former student of mine, very good in the field of electronics, and he has the spirit and the youth necessary for such a flight."

Forced From Road, Driver Knocked Out

Oakland County sheriff's deputies report a Milford woman was knocked unconscious, but escaped serious injury, yesterday when she tried to avoid a head-on collision in Commerce Township.

Mrs. Howard Heintzelman, 39, of 2365 Wixom Rd., told deputies her car was forced off Commerce road between Carey and Bogie Lake roads by an approaching motorist attempting to pass two other cars at the crest of a hill.

Mrs. Heintzelman sustained only a minor head bump after her car tore down a wire fence, uprooted two small trees and finally came to rest in a corn field.

Deputies said the motorist, Paul Jackson, 39, of 257 Cole Rd., Southfield Township told them he did not see the dip in the road until it was too late.

Williams Picks Seeterlin for Planning Commission

Exhausted Dick Powell Confined to Hospital

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Actress June Allyson has reported her husband, actor-producer Dick Powell, is in St. Joseph Hospital in an exhausted condition.

"Dick had a bad cold and he simply is worn out from work," she told a reporter. "Dr. John Shary thought he would be better off in the hospital."

Declare War on Sign Drifters

State Chiefs of Police Start Campaign This Week With Posters

EAST LANSING (UPI) — The Michigan Assn. of Chiefs of Police is beginning a campain this week against "stop sign drifters."

The association, through local police departments, will post 15,000 posters throughout the state alerting Michigan drivers to the danger of being killed or maimed by failing to make a complete stop at an intersection guarded by a stop sign.

"Many drivers don't deliberately violate traffic laws, the association said. "They roll through a sign because they know traffic on the cross street is generally light.

"And many times nothing happens and a so-called minor violation soon becomes a habit. Until one day, that little violation becomes serious. Too late, the stop sign drifter realizes he has made a mistake. Such little mistakes are what make the big statistics in Michigan's traffic accident records."

Last year in Michigan, the stop sign drifter killed 108 and injured 987 men, women and children and cost Michigan citizens an estimated $14,500,000.

Pontiac City Affairs

Plan Commission Vacancy Is Filled

Wayne Weaver, assistant manager of the Pontiac Chief Credit Union, last night was appointed to fill a vacancy on the City Plan Commission.

Weaver, 46, of 616 Third Ave., a Pontiac resident since 1934, received the unanimous approval of the Pontiac City Commission to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of H. Robert Ryerse. Ryerse resigned last week because he was moving out of the city.

Commissioner John A. Dugan recommended Weaver, the father of three and first president of the credit union.

Soon after Weaver's appointment, commissioners were confronted with another resignation that of T. W. Bradford from the Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees.

Mayor Philip E. Rowston urged commissioners to have recommendations for a successor ready by next Tuesday's meeting.

Written into law last night was a city ordinance redefining several of the 40 voting precincts to fit into registration requirements for a single precinct. Ada R. Evans, city clerk, read the long ordinance, after which it was adopted without discussion.

City Manager Walter K. Willman was given the go-ahead to have the city engineer install a one-inch water main on Fern avenue from Highland to Bloomfield instead of a more costly sized one requested by a resident of the street.

A public hearing was set for next Tuesday on a request, which was signed by 81 per cent of the residents to be served, for a water main in West Walton boulevard from Telegraph road to a point 525 feet west.

Assessed cost of the $2,694 project will be $1,180 while the city's share will be $1,513.

No objections were aired during public hearings on intention to construct sanitary sewers on Richmond and Harvey avenues.

The number of assessment payments for five completed improvement projects was set by commissioners.

Despite objections from Commissioners Floyd P. Miles and Wesley Wood, a new liquor license was approved for Harvey L. Farr, 240 Osmun St.

Commissioners agreed to waive a $2.25 quarterly sewer charge to the Oakland County Animal Welfare Shelter when a letter from the group said it was a "hardship on its budget." Willman said the city shouldn't be hurt by losing the $10.

Lexington, Ky. was named in 1775 by a party of hunters who were encamped there when they received news about the Battle of Lexington.

Rights Solution Up to Citizens

Member of Commission Says Washington Can't Do Whole Job

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Local citizens bear the primary responsibility for solving complex problems of civil rights, the vice chairman of the federal Civil Rights Commission says.

"The commission shares with the members of its advisory committees the firm conviction that the resolution of civil rights problems cannot be accomplished exclusively in Washington," Robert G. Storey of Dallas told a civic club audience Tuesday.

He said "grass-roots understanding" is necessary to deal with issues such as the right to vote.

Storey, retired dean of the Southern Methodist University school of law, defended a commission recommendation that federal registrars be appointed to administer tests of voting qualifications.

Stressing that the registrars would be local people Storey commented "We have not urged a return of 'carpetbaggers.'"

Carpetbaggers were Northerners who came to the South after the Civil War, reportedly carrying all their belongings in carpetbags, and gained reputations as swindlers and plunderers.

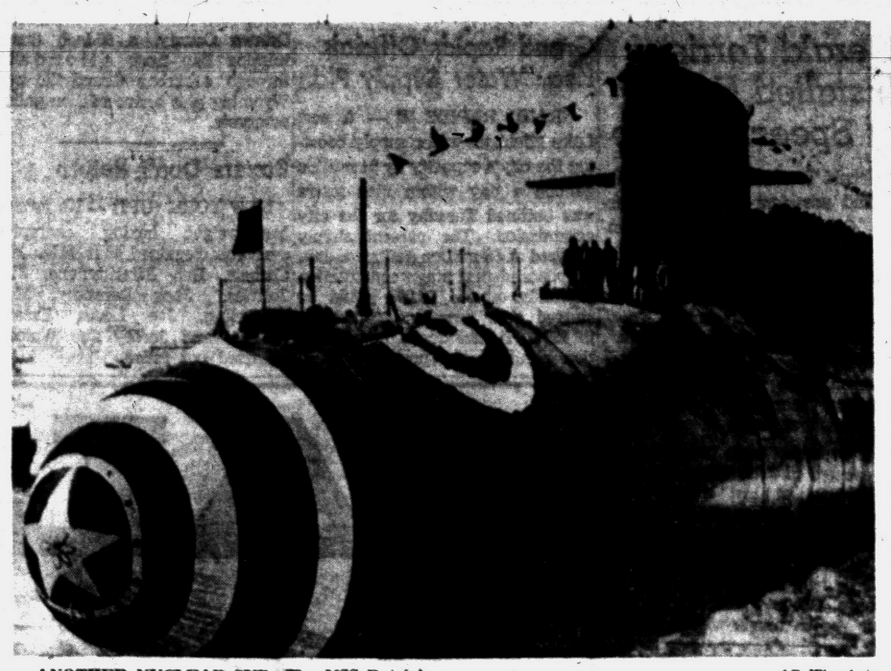

New Hampshire Dems Want Kennedy

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — The New Hampshire Democratic State Committee has unanimously asked Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) to enter the state's first-of-the-nation presidential primary March 8.

A resolution adopted Tuesday night termed Kennedy "the only prospective candidate" who can "win the support and confidence of all the people and lead our national, state and local tickets to victory."

State sales taxes, novelties 25 years ago or so, now comprise about 40 per cent of all state revenues.

Hecklers May Have Hampered Chances

By JOHN SCALI

WITH KHRUSHCHEV IN DES MOINES (AP)—Premier Krushchev's free-wheeling, sometimes angry, American tour appears to have reduced prospects of successful talks with President Eisenhower at Camp David, Md.

Top American officials accompanying him now believe Khrushchev will make no significant cold war concessions until he resumes talks with Eisenhower in Moscow—if then.

These diplomatic authorities have never been very optimistic about the outcome of the Eisenhower-Khrushchev discussions. At the mid-point of his visit, they are even less so.

Privately, they've sought to assure Khrushchev that sharp comments hurled at him in Washington, New York and Los Angeles do not represent a White House or State Department-directed plot to embarrass him.

During the long train ride from Los Angeles to San Francisco, both Ambassadors Henry Cabot Lodge and Lewellyn Thompson sought to impress on him that the remarks, while perhaps unfortunate, are part of the American tradition of free speech.

But Khrushchev, who has had some experience with plots himself, is still suspicious. He seems to be in a belligerent, chip-on-the-shoulder mood.

His stay in San Francisco, which turned out to be a virtual Russian-American love feast of warm compliments, has eased worries he will suddenly cancel his tour, pack up, and fly home.

But, despite this San Francisco mellowing process, there is strong evidence that any further needling comments will set him off on another of the angry outbursts that stunned his listeners in Los Angeles.

Khrushchev's anger may be partly an act. He conceivably could have seized on the plain-spoken remarks of Los Angeles Mayor Norris Poulson to put on a public display calculated to frighten future speech makers who greet him.

★ ★ ★

But no one can be sure. The American delegation unanimously believes that Khrushchev was genuinely angry. Even so, most of them doubt he would have followed through on his threat to fly back to Moscow.

Mackinac Bridge Voted Nation's Most Beautiful

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan's Mackinac Bridge has been voted the most beautiful bridge in America by the American Institute of Steel Construction.

Judge in the institute's annual competition were four architects and an engineer.

Study K's Plan, Herter Advises

It Is Propaganda, but the Goals Are Proper, U.N. Writers Told

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Secretary of State Christian A. Herter said Tuesday that while Nikita Khrushchev's total disarmament plan is propaganda, "the goals set forth must be taken seriously."

The Soviet Premier's plan, Herter told a luncheon of the U.N. Correspondents Assn., "requires the closest attention and study."

Herter spoke shortly after the General Assembly's 21 - nation steering committee unanimously agreed to put Khrushchev's proposal on the agenda.

Herter said the complete disarmament idea is not new, nor does the Soviet plan contain any other very novel features. But, he added, the omissions also are important.

★ ★ ★

The American diplomat said Khrushchev's suggestion of international controls must be explored more fully the possibility of an international police force to preserve peace will have to be studied if the nations ever agree on total disarmament, Herter said.

Early age cave men and cave women had a simple method of doing their housekeeping. They simply spread fresh earth over the debris on the floor.

Vanguard 'Beep' to Help Dedicate New Lear Plant

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — The 50-pound Vanguard III space capsule will reach from its orbit around earth next Friday to help dedicate a new five million dollars Lear, Inc., plant in suburban Grand Rapids.

A radio "beep" from the satellite sent up last Friday will be relayed to the Grand Rapids plant from the astro-observation station at Fort Monmouth, N.J., by the Army signal and research development laboratory.

It will actuate a mechanism to let fall drapery from a plaque dedicating the new Lear installation to "progress in air and space science, technology and human security."

Lear Vice President R. J. Benecchi said use of a satellite signal symbolized development work being done by the firm's instrument division.

★ ★ ★

Roy W. Johnson, director of the advanced research projects agency of the Defense Department, and William P. Lear Sr., chairman of the board of Lear, Inc., are scheduled principal speakers at the dedication.

On a clear night an average person can see 7,000 stars.

Surviving besides her husband are four daughters, Mrs. Eva D. Castor of California, and Barbara L., Nancy and Charlotte, all at home; a son, Richard L. of Lapeer; a sister, Mrs. Jewel Flemming of Lapeer, and two brothers, Lucky and William Letterman, both of Oklahoma.

Use Half a Case of Fizz to Put Out the Fire

They couldn't put it out by stomping so Selsi and Rice shook up half a case of carbonated water. Opening the bottles one by one, and regulating the squirting liquid with their thumbs, they successfully put out the fire.

SHIP MURDER — Police are searching for the person who beat Chicago divorcee Lynn Kaufman, 23, above, unconscious and then apparently hurled her from the Dutch freighter Utrecht into Boston Harbor. The daughter of a Chicago industrialist, she had been listed as being among the passengers of the craft, which was bound for Brooklyn, N.Y. Dr. Stanley Spector, professor of Oriental studies at Washington University in St. Louis, identified the body of his secretary, Mrs. Kaufman, in Boston and then came to New York to aid in the investigation of her death.

Thieves Always Hungry

BRATTLEBORO, Vt. (UPI) — Four times thieves have broken into the home of Daniel Fox. And on each occasion they only raided the refrigerator.

Only about one in 10,000 persons may be an albino.

Gerald Terrien Installed Head of Speech Group

Gerald Terrien last night was installed president of the two-year-old Oakland County Male Employees Speech Improvement Association.

The table topic award was presented to John Dumas by the chairman of last night's program, Ike Prevette. John Winthrop won the speech award.

The association's next meeting will be held 6 p.m. Oct. 6 at the County Office Building. A half-hour speech movie will be shown.

Runs Obstacle Course in Race With Stork

MARION, Ill. (UPI) — Mrs. Norman Bailey's race with the stork was run over an obstacle course. She started out for the hospital in the family car but was transferred to an ambulance with 13 miles to go.

The ambulance had a flat tire. A funeral director who owned the ambulance delivered the baby. A second ambulance took the mother and baby to the hospital where both were reported in good condition.

Carpenter Is Thwarted

Grand Rapids Officials Hear Water Supply Plan

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A new Lake Michigan water supply boosting the city's capacity by 94 million gallons a day within nine years was outlined Tuesday for the city commission. The present supply is rated at 66 million gallons a day.

Proposed first stage construction estimated at $14,500,000 would be started next year and completed in 1964. It includes a new filtration plant at the present site in Ottawa County, a 66-inch transmission line from Allendale through suburban Grandville and Wyoming plus a five million gallon reservoir.

Boxers Don't Return

NEW YORK (UPI) — No former heavyweight boxing champion ever has regained that title. Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons, Jim Jeffries, Jack Dempsey, Max Schmeling, Joe Louis, Ezzard Charles and Jersey Joe Walcott all tried but failed.

Young Mrs. Rockefeller Starts College Course

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mrs. Steven Rockefeller, the recent bride of the son of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, has registered at Columbia University for a course in reading, writing and recitation for foreign students.

Mrs. Rockefeller will begin the first of her three-hour weekly sessions this Saturday.

Matches Cross, Kohler Strikes

Irked Williams Says Mediation Board Will Make New Attempt

MOUNT CLEMENS (UPI)—The 50-day strike at Cross Co.'s automation equipment plant in nearby Fraser "has all the makings of another Kohler case," says Gov. Williams.

In a statement yesterday, the governor said the state labor mediation board will make another attempt to bring about a settlement at the Cross plant.

Williams referred to the long dispute between the United Auto Workers union and the Kohler Co., a plumbingware firm at Sheboygan, Wis.

"Michigan hasn't had anything like this for more than 10 years, and I think the union and the company owe it to the public to arrive at some kind of settlement," Williams said.

The UAW struck the Cross plant in an effort to negotiate a new contract. In refusing to bargain with the union, the company said a majority of its employes does not care to be represented by the UAW.

The UAW yesterday asked the Macomb County Circuit Court to halt all production at the Cross plant on grounds that the company is violating state and federal laws.

Judge Alton H. Noe set a hearing for 2 p.m. Thursday when he also will consider a company demand for an order banning all pickets from the plant gate.

Gov. Williams has ordered a strengthening of state police forces near the plant. His move followed a plea Monday by Mayor Edgar Beck of Fraser, who declared a state of emergency in the community and asked the state to take full responsibility for keeping order.

Man Who Quit CAB Raps Federal Agencies

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Louis J. Hector, who resigned recently from the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) in protest of its policies, has told President Eisenhower that federal agencies are ineffective and need "radical reorganization."

★ ★ ★

The Miami attorney made a 75-page report to the President in which he described the agencies as "an ideal breeding ground for ex parte (one-sided) presentations and improper influence."

Hector said the CAB and other agencies are charged with incompatible and conflicting duties.

★ ★ ★

Open Fall-Winter Season

Waterford PTAs Begin Meetings

Four Waterford Township parent-teacher associations will begin the fall-winter season Thursday evening with faculty introductions, panel discussions and open houses.

After a brief business meeting beginning at 8 p.m. at the Waterford Village School, teachers will be introduced to PTA members. Later there will be a panel discussion on "Child Discipline."

Parents and teachers participating are Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Jackson Byers, Richard Morgan and Mrs. William Mercer. Refreshments will be served by members of the Executive Board.

A talk on the origin of Michigan State University Oakland will be presented at 8 p.m. at the Donelson school by J. R. Alexander, director of student affairs at the university. He will discuss the availability of extra credits for adults and tell parents what the chances are for grade school children in the township to acquire a college education locally. A coffee hour will follow the talk.

Following an open house at 7:30 p.m. at the Leggett School one of the members of Waterford Library Committee, Mrs. William Van, will present the complete picture of the proposed library that residents will vote on at a special election Oct. 27.

"Special Services" will be the subject to be discussed by a panel at the 7:45 p.m. meeting at the McVittie School Thursday.

Teachers from the school system's special service department, Mrs. Kay Hood, Ayleen Wright, Marylou Kachmarchik, Janet Grimes and Donald March, will serve on the panel. A "buzz-session" will follow.

PTA President Mrs. Henry Kline will present the 1959-60 budget for the membership's approval. She will also introduce the school's personnel and room mothers who will serve during the school year. The PTA executive board will be hosts during a coffee hour.

Police Find Escapee on Farm Near Sparta

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — Ionia reformatory escaper Everet Ruck was in custody at Kent County Jail today after leading police units and volunteers a 10-hour chase through wooded thickets near Kent City.

Billy Graham Will Crusade at Alma Mater

Graham graduated from Wheaton in 1943 and met his wife on the campus when she was a coed. The crusade will be the first major event in a year-long celebration of the college's centennial.

The evangelist has been limited to one sermon a day because of an eye ailment. A crowd of about 14,000 was expected Sunday in Centennial Field to begin the crusade.

Union Tackles Toughest Woes

AFL-CIO's Convention Takes Up Jurisdiction, Race Discrimination

The convention gave a clean bill of health yesterday to the International Longshoreman's Assn., formerly ridden with corruption, voting to take it into the merged AFL-CIO.

Delegates will vote today upon a compromise which is a big step toward eliminating disputes, often erupting in strikes, over what unions should have exclusive rights to which jobs.

President George Meany and his labor high command have proposed creation of a board with power to make final decision in jurisdictional disputes — something labor has never had before.

The proposal comes to the floor with the approval of the movement's 29-man executive board made up of AFL-CIO vice presidents.

But many unions have historically refused to submit to arbitration under any circumstances.

Too Many Sleeping Pills Puts Actress in Hospital

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Vicki Cummings, 39, rushed to Bellevue Hospital after apparently taking an accidental overdose of sedatives, was reported in fair condition today.

Her husband, William Gibberson, said she had been taking the sedatives since she suffered a broken leg in June. Despite the injury, she had made a number of appearances in summer stock.

Cost of Living in Slight Drop Due to Food

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cost of living edged down one-tenth of one per cent last month from July's record high, the Labor Department reported today.

★ ★ ★

A big seasonal drop in food prices, nine-tenths of one per cent, was solely responsible for halting the summer spurt of consumer prices.

The figures mean it now takes nearly $1.25 to buy what cost a dollar in the years immediately after World War II.

At least one international street car line still exists. A three-mile loop runs between El Paso, Tex., and Juarez, Mexico.

Russ Magazine Has American Cartoons

MOSCOW (AP) — That Soviet humor magazine Krokodil Tuesday published a page of salutes to Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's U. S. tour by American cartoonists.

The cartoons in the magazine that frequently features barbs at the United States were:

One by Paul Carmack of the Christian Science Monitor showing the Statue of Liberty welcoming Khrushchev's plane. It bore the caption: "Favorable occasion, the torch will burn with light and friendship."

One by Dan Dowling of the New York Herald Tribune showing a Soviet and a U. S. miner drilling at a column of rock labled "better understanding among peoples." The caption said "there is progress." The Russian is saying "We understand one another better." The U. S. drill is giving off the words "exchange Program, 1959."

The bottom of the page had a reprint cover of the Chicago humor magazine Maverick, showing front pages covers of Maverick and Krokodil clinking glasses. The caption said: "Contact? There is contact."

The humor magazine had invited leading cartoonists of Britian and the United States to submit contributions and offered them 1,000 to 1,500 rubles convertible into their own currencies. The official rate is four rubles to the dollar.

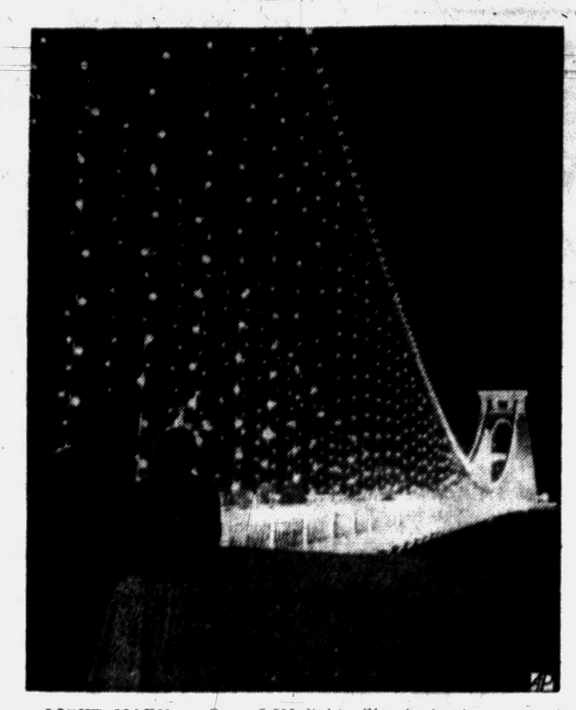

Phenix City Reformers Are Out of Power

PHENIX CITY, Ala. (UPI) — The reform group which dominated the Phenix City commission since the assassination of Alabama Gov. John Patterson's father and a vice cleanup here was out of Power Tuesday.

A reform candidate lost yesterday in an election to fill the vacancy on the three-man city commission created by the resignation of Mayor Arnold Thompson, a declared reformist.

That gave a 2-1 edge to a group not identified with the reformists.

Sault Man to Head Michigan Lawyers

DETROIT (AP) — Burney C. Veum of Sault Ste. Marie will be next president of the State Bar of Michigan.

Ernest C. Wunsch, Grosse Pointe Park, secretary, and Howard W. Fant, Grand Rapids, Louis H. Charbonneau, Grosse Pointe Park, secretary, and Howard W. Fant, Grand Rapids, treasurer.

Elected commissioners were Elden W. Butzbaugh, Benton Harbor; John P. Purcell, Saginaw, and Theodore Messner, Houghton.

Won't Comment on Romantic Link With Margaret

MONTREAL (AP)—Bachelor John Turner Tuesday declined to comment on reports of a romance with Princess Margaret.

A London Sunday newspaper — The Empire News—said the friendship of the pair had reached the stage "where the Princess has discussed the matter with the queen." But the Princess' friends denied this.

Ask about the reports, the 30-year-old lawyer, stepson of John Ross, Lieuterant Governor of British Columbia, said: "I have nothing whatsoever to say about these reports."

The Princes met Turner when she toured Canada last year. At a ball in Vancouver, she danced and talked with him for hours.

Don't Push Mr. K, They Say
Britain Fears U. S. Needle

LONDON (AP)—Anxiety is being expressed in Britain—where Nikita S. Khrushchev complained on a 1956 visit of piggish treatment—that Americans may needle him to the danger point.

★ ★ ★

Several London newspapers suggest the Soviet Premier's trip to the United States can still change history's course and should not be endangered.

Khrushchev is too easily rattled, said the Liberal News Chronicle, but America's mayors and union leaders "are not entitled to sabotage the journey in which hundreds of millions outside America are involved."

"A section of American opinion has behaved like oafs to the President's official visitor," it said. "There never was any duty on Americans to turn out and cheer. But what will their screams be like if President Eisenhower is similarly treated in Russia?"

Others believed the tough talk has done some good.

"The baiting of Mr. Khrushchev has served to reveal to the American people what sort of man they are up against," the Times said.

The London Telegraph commented: "If knowing your enemy is an advantage, then the United States and the whole free world stands to benefit from Mr. Khrushchev's first week in the United States. His performance has been astonishingly revealing."

Ike Promotes Head of Reed Hospital

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower Tuesday by recess appointment promoted Brig. Gen. Clement F. St. John, commanding general of Brooke Army Army Hospital, to be a temporary major general.

Col. Robert B. Skinner, comcanding general of Brooke Army Hospital, San Antonio, Tex., was nominated to be a temporary brigadier general.

Tourist Industry Grows Steadily

Williams Would Push Program for Higher Pay, More Leisure

DEARBORN (AP)—A billion-dollar-a-year tourist industry "is not unlikely in Michigan in a few years," Gov. Williams said last night.

The governor noted that the state's tourist industry this year will gross about 650 million dollars.

★ ★ ★

"We have every expectation of a steady increase over the years ahead," he told a meeting of the Northern Great Lakes Area Council.

Williams suggested that the tourist industry should look beyond its immediate concern with accommodations, routes, hunting, fishing and historical sights.

The industry, he continued, should:

Back programs to expand education because this results in a know-how which makes possible increased leisure.

Push full employment plans since the unemployed worker and his family obviously are seldom able to be customers of the tourist trade.

"I ask," Williams said, "that those in the tourist industry be among the leaders in supporting the public investments without which a steady and adequate growth of our private enterprise economy will not be forthcoming."

Ike Probably Set Record With His 2 Double Vetoes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower apparently will go down in history as the first chief executive to veto two bills twice each in a single session of Congress.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen (Ill.) pointed out this distinction in a veto "box score" which he compiled for the Congressional Record.

Dirksen said a preliminary check of presidential vetoes in the past failed to show anything to match Eisenhower's double veto of the housing and public works bills during the recent session.

"It is necessary to go back more than 100 years (117 to be exact) even to find another instance in which a president vetoed only one bill on the same subject matter twice in the same session of Congress," Dirksen said.

★ ★ ★

Now Adviser to Sec. Herter

Bohlen Knows Russia

By United Press International

Charles Eustis (Chip) Bohlen will bring to his new job as adviser to Secretary of State Christian A. Herter on Soviet affairs a long history of blunt negotiations with the Russians.

TO AID HERTER — Charles E. Bohlen, presently U.S. Ambassador to the Philippines, Monday was named special assistant on Soviet affairs to Secretary of State Christian Herter.

Bohlen was picked to specialize in Russian affairs by the State Department in 1929, two years after he graduated from Harvard and was sent to Moscow when the first U.S. Embassy was set up in 1934.

AT EVERY CONFERENCE

This was the first of four assignments there. One stay there played a vital part in his personal life. He met his wife, Avis Thayer, who was visiting Moscow.

Two of his three children were born in the United States while he was in Moscow.

He later attended nearly every top level international conference involving Russian-American relations. He was at Tehran and Yalta with President Franklin D. Roosevelt, and at Potsdam with President Harry S. Truman.

His long career in Russia was climaxed when he served as ambassador to Moscow from 1953 to 1957.

The blunt-spoken Bohlen spent more hours in the presence of Soviet Premier Josef Stalin than any other American. Stalin once told the American official, who was fluent in Russian, that he ought to brush up on his grammar. But, in fact, Bohlen spoke Russian with less accent than Stalin, a native of Soviet Georgia.

ARGUED OVER NATO

Nikita Khrushchev, the present Soviet premier, knew Bohlen well. The two once exchanged sharp words over the question of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Bohlen was one of the first Americans to call for a "realistic" approach toward the Soviet Union, declaring during World War II that the United States should not be blinded by the fact that Russia was an ally.

'I Lied,' Says Woman of Detroit Shooting

DETROIT (UPI)—A 22-year-old Dearborn woman who charged that a married Detroit policeman was romancing her and then shot at her when she tried to break it off was held for observation Tuesday in Receiving Hospital.

Miss Patricia Kingsbury collapsed in the hall outside the office of Wayne County Prosecutor William R. Bolio.

"She laid her head down on my desk and began to cry she had lied about the shooting and that she didn't want to prosecute," Bolio said.

"I told her the matter was in the hands of the presiding judge of Recorder's Court and that she would have to see him."

He said she fell to the floor in the hall outside his office and screamed "I lied! I lied! I don't want to prosecute."

Prosecutor Samuel Olsen said his office would not permit the woman to drop her charges.

On Aug. 20, Miss Kingsbury said Patrolman Robert L. Bush, 31, shot at her car four times as she drove out of a Rouge Park parking lot. Police found two bullet holes in the rear fenders of the woman's car.

A veteran of 10 years on the force, Patrolman Bush was suspended and is awaiting trial on a felonious assault charge.

Meeting With Relatives of Americans in China

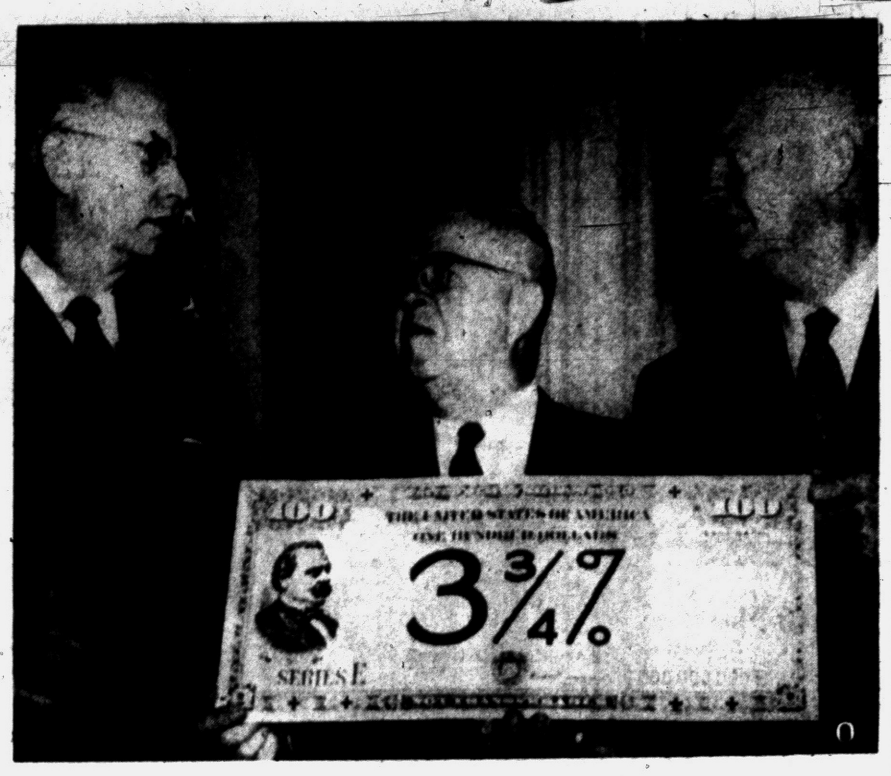

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The State Department announced that Secretary Christian A. Herter will meet today with relatives of five Americans still imprisoned in Communist China to assure them of continued efforts to seek their release.

At least 158 Americans have been jailed or held under house arrest in China since the Communist regime was set up in 1949.

Bad Water—Good Beer

MONTPELIER, Vt. (UPI) — State tax commissioner Austin Noble said the revenue from beer sales increased considerably in towns where "the people complained that the water didn't taste very good."

AP Wirephoto

Investors Wary of Cuban Policy; Castro Regime Is Facing Trouble

It covers all phases of life in this island nation, especially the political, economic and military.

Critics of the revolutionary program of Prime Minister Fidel Castro say uncertainty, created by his government, is wrecking the Cuban economy and will bring down the rebel regime within six months.

★ ★ ★

His supporters describe the uncertainty as a counter-revolutionary weapon of Castro's opponents, exploited in an effort to create trouble for the various phases of his admittedly ambitious program.

INVESTORS HOLD BACK

Investors, both foreign and Cuban, are hesitant to involve funds in building projects. Industrialists are postponing planned expansions or improvements in many cases.

Operators of the nation's 161 sugar mills, heart of Cuba's major industry, are dragging their feet in renovating their machinery. Some labor groups have urged government intervention to force what they call normal repair programs.

"Who knows what the agrarian reform program will do to our holdings?" said one such executive. "We would be foolish to spend more than an absolute minimum on renovations when by this time next year we may be out of business."

Despite the uncertainty, economists report some good signs.

Bank clearings are up and still rising.

Retail trade is good in all except luxury items of great expense. Collections on current accounts are generally good.

★ ★ ★

Economists claim the unemployment problem is not as severe as was feared, that government public works programs may be less expensive than was expected. Castro himself once said there are 750,000 Cubans without work.

The 1959 carryover of sugar, Cuba's greatest revenue crop, has been estimated at about a million tons, well below the 1½ million tons feared earlier this year.

Financially, supporters of the Castro regime report it is more than holding its own. They say new tax programs are bringing in more money than Batista's government ever had.

★ ★ ★

Among the greatest sufferers from Cuba's national uncertainty are the luxury hotels which in normal times cater to thousands upon thousands of free-spending tourists most of them from the United States. Each of Havana's largest tourist hotels is still losing from $85,000 to $150,000 a month.

The Battle Creek Enquirer & News sent a reporter into the streets with $1 bills for those who could spell Khrushchev correctly.

Williams Leaves Friday for Poland, Jerusalem

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams will lay down his official burdens Friday to take a four-week trip with his wife, Nancy, through the Middle East, Poland and West Germany.

The itinerary also calls for stops in Athens and Rome.

A VACATION TRIP

Some have seen in the journey an intent to promote the governor's presidential ambitions. Williams himself and those close to him say it's a vacation trip.

By far the most time has been budgeted in Israel and the Holy Land area, Poland and West Germany with roughly one week alloted to each.

After stops of a few hours apiece in Rome and Beirut, Lebanon, the Gov. and Mrs. Williams plan to start sightseeing in the Jerusalem - Jordan area on Sunday. They will go to Israel on Oct. 1.

A stopover is scheduled in Athens Oct. 6, with the following two days in Rome. The week in Poland will start with arrival in Warsaw Oct. 9.

Most of the remaining time beginning with Oct. 15 will be spent in West Berlin and Western Germany, including visits to Duesseldorf and Bonn. The Williamses are due back in Lansing Oct. 22.

In Germany, the governor hopes to learn more about the speedy recovery from the economic depths of the post World War II period.

Williams, a long time student of the Bible and an amateur reader in Holy Land archaeology, has an abiding interest in the Middle East. He traveled there in 1955.

The following year he toured South America and in 1958 traveled overseas to Liberia and Ghana.

Mrs. Williams a few months ago took an around-the-world tour for the World Health Organization but because of scheduling difficulties bypassed the Middle East.

Aquarama Allowed to Sail the Ocean

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill permitting the S. S. Aquarama, Great Lakes passenger - auto ferry, to operate on the oceans has been signed by President Eisenhower.

Technically, the measure removes restrictions that limited six Great Lakes vessels to lake operations, but the five others have been converted to bulk carriers unsuited for ocean use.

Virginia Convicts Study

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — An all-time high of 1,797 prisoners in Virginia penal institutions took high school courses offered by the state in the 1958-59 school year. Sixty-four received certificates.

Despite His Diet

Mr. K. Digs Into a Mighty Menu

His lunch in the employe cafeteria at International Business Machine Co., San Jose, was a simple affair: fried chicken and French fries (49 cents), fruit salad (15 cents), iced tea (10 cents).

Obviously hungry when he returned to the Royal Suite in the Mark Hopkins, but mindful that he had to attend a banquet in his honor at the Sheraton-Palace, Khrushchev ordered this menu for the rest of his party:

Sliced tomatoes and cucumbers, shredded butter lettuce, small abalone steaks, choice of cream of cauliflower soup or New England clam chowder, filet of sole, whole roast pheasants, whole cooked sweet carrots, fresh boiled broccoli, medium roast prime ribs of beef, Russian pumpernickel, hot rolls, melons, fruits, fruit tarts with whipped cream; California wines.

That taken care of, Khrushchev hurried over to the Sheraton-Palace banquet where partook of shrimp cocktail with Russian dressing, stuffed squab chicken smitane, rice with mushrooms, carrots and peas, petit fours, demitasse, wine and champagne.

Returning to the Mark Hopkins he asked that yogurt, tea, milk and mineral water be sent up to his suite.

Those serving the party remarked that Mrs. Khrushchev eats little, compared to others in the Russian group. Her Monday breakfast was cottage cheese, breast of chicken and tea.

Break Ground Saturday for Avon Hospital Wing

LAUNCH MEDICAL CENTER — Dr. Donald Stackable turns the first spade for construction of a $500,000 medical center in Independence Township at ground breaking ceremonies yesterday. Also present to mark the event were Township Supervisor John Carey, two council members from nearby Clarkston, Robert Jones and Herbert Beach, and Doctors Rockwood Bullard and John Nash. The new center, with space for nine doctors' offices, radiology and x-ray rooms, will face across a plaza from the existing medical center on M15 near Dixie highway.

AVON TOWNSHIP — Ground will be broken for a $40,000 addition to Avon Center Hospital during special ceremonies to be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Mrs. Hazel Smith, hospital administrator, announced today.

The addition, which will join the present administration building to the main hospital, will provide space for 10 more beds and a laboratory and X-ray room.

This move will enable hospital officials to relocate the kitchen and emergency room in the administration building, Mrs. Smith said.

The original structure, located at 55 E. Avon Rd., was built in 1954, and gave the hospital a total of 18 beds and six bassinets.

Last fall the Hospital Board purchased the J. W. Eastman house next door, and the administration offices were moved into this building, providing room for 10 additional beds in the vacated space.

The emergency room, laboratory, X-ray room and kitchen in the present hospital will be converted to patient use with a recovery room and lounge under the proposed expansion program, Mrs. Smith said.

The target completion date for the addition, which will increase the hospital capacity to 40 beds, is Dec. 15. The architect is Harold H. Barley of Rochester.

Expected to be present for the ground-breaking are members of the hospital's Board of Directors, staff doctors and township officials.

RETURN WITH NAVY BAND — Two former Pontiac and two former Oxford men will be playing with the U. S. Navy Band when it appears tomorrow in Oxford. They are, from left, Erik E. Schrader, bassist, of Pontiac; Keith C. Swailes, trombonist, of Pontiac; Paul Allen, cornetist, of Oxford; and Peter C. Geiger, clarinetist of Pontiac. The band will present a concert for high school students in the afternoon, and a public evening performance at 8 p.m. at Oxford Area Community High School. The two-fold event is sponsored by the Oxford Lions Club.

Adult Classes Set Tuesday at Waterford

A 10-week adult education course will get under way at the Waterford Township High School beginning at 7 p.m. Tuesday. Early registrations will be taken from 7 to 8 p.m. Thursday, or residents may enroll the first night of class instruction.

If there is sufficient interest, the following courses will be available to Waterford Township residents, according to director of adult education, Byron J. Merritt:

Applied mathematics, auto mechanics, bookkeeping, ceramics and painting.

Also included will be introductory drafting, advanced and beginner's sewing classes, advanced typing and office machines, beginning typing, woodworking and world problems.

Addison Development Group Draws Up Its Constitution

ADDISON TOWNSHIP — The Board of Directors of the newly-created Addison Township Development Assn. last night drafted a constitution which will be presented to the membership at the first general meeting Oct. 1.

The association, as planned, will be a non-profit organization designed to promote the general welfare of Addison Township.

Its purpose will be to advance the commercial, agricultural, residential, industrial and civic interests of the community, the proposed constitution reads.

Any person or organization may become a member, and an organization which is a member may authorize any person to represent it at any meeting. Such a person will have all the rights of an individual member at that meeting, according to the constitution.

★ ★ ★

Regular meetings will be held the first Thursday of every month at Rowland Hall unless otherwise specified.

TO ELECT OFFICERS

A president, vice president, secretary-treasurer and a five-man Board of Directors will be elected to serve for one year.

Temporary board members are Robert Trask, Russell Davidson, Carl Kuechenmeister, Donald Tripp Mrs. Frank Webber and Jesse Sutherby. Another temporary board member, Walter Griffin, was added last night.

Terry presided over the session with Township Supervisor Frank Webber acting in an advisory capacity.

It was decided that no dues will be assessed against the membership, but instead that donations will be accepted.

The officers and board of the new organization have expressed their collective belief that the association will serve to cement township relations in addition to serving the purposes listed in the constitution.

Frost Damage to Crops Slight

Mostly Leaves Hurt by Michigan's Chill Last Week

LANSING (UPI) — Michigan crops had some trouble with frost last week with tender vegetables getting the worst of it, the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service said today.

★ ★ ★

However, only leaves of plants were harmed. Some late fields of dry beans were touched but the acreage was small.

Annual crops in the upper peninsula and northern lower peninsula have been mostly stopped by several hard frosts.

More than three-fourths of the corn crop is mature and safe from a killing frost. The frost is even considered helpful in some areas where it starts grain drying down to a point safe for cribbing.

BEAN HARVEST DELAYED

The harvest of dry beans was put back by rains last week in the east central section of the state but more than two-thirds of the acreage has been harvested.

Apple picking is more active after last week's low temperatures which helped put color in the crop.

Main variety being harvested now is the McIntosh but Jonathans and Delicious are beginning to appear on markets in quantity.

Peaches are still being harvested in some northern areas, the service said, and pears and plums are being harvested in large volume.

Fullers Honeymooning in Northern Michigan

CLARKSTON — Honeymooning in Northern Michigan are newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Fuller following their wedding in Our Lady of the Lakes Catholic Church in Waterford.

A chantilly lace gown with a scooped neckline was worn by the bride, the former Mary Ellen Hogan for her wedding. Her waistline was fitted with a matching lace apron going into a corner of her chapel-length train.

Her skirt of net had nylon insets of rose point lace and she wore a necklace and earrings of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a colonial cascade of white rosebuds.

MRS. FREDERICK E. FULLER

Parents of the bride are Mrs. Josephine Hogan of 6200 Waldon Rd. and John Hogan of 342 East Blvd., Pontiac. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fuller of 733 Broadway St., Davisburg.

★ ★ ★

Maid of honor was Patricia Hennessy of Berkley. Bridesmaids were Barbara Gobel of Pontiac and Barbara Sexton of Clarkston.

Donald Sheldon of Drayton Plains was best man and ushers were Dick Tridinick and Bill Linahan, both of Waterford.

A reception was held in the VFW Hall on Walton boulevard, Waterford, immediately after the ceremony. The newlyweds will reside in Drayton Plains.

Police Search for Oxford Girls

3 Teenagers Missing Since Monday Morning School Absence

OXFORD — Area police today are conducting an all-out search for three teenage Oxford girls who have been listed as missing since 11 a.m. Monday.

The trio, Oxford Police said, decided to skip school and allegedly took a bus to Pontiac or Detroit and have not been seen or heard from since.

Missing are Linda M. Martin, 16, of 22 S. Broadway; Barbara A. Hamilton, 13, of 106 East St., and Anita L. Dehnke, 13, of 136 S. Washington St.

Linda is described as weighing about 135 pounds, having brown hair and eyes and wearing a white pullover sweater, grey and black striped skirt, black coat and shoes.

Barbara is five feet, five inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. She has reddish blonde hair and hazel eyes, and when last seen was wearing a beige sweater, green tweed skirt and green plaid jacket.

Anita has blonde hair and blue eyes and was wearing a plaid tweed skirt, white blouse, brown loafers and carrying a brown purse.

Both local police and the Oakland County Sheriff's department have contacted relatives and all known friends of the girls seeking further information concerning their whereabouts but to no avail.

Royal Oak Dems Will Discuss Fund Drive

ROYAL OAK — The Royal Oak Democratic Club will hold its first monthly meeting of the 1959-60 year at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the DAV Hall on Rochester road.

★ ★ ★

The Dollars for Democrats drive, which begins Friday and will last through Oct. 4, will be discussed. The club plans to canvass all Democrats in the city for contributions to the party during the fund campaign.

David L. Pepple Repeats Vows in Connecticut

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. MacDonald of Uncasville, Conn. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Pepple of 991 Schuyler Dr.

★ ★ ★

Her fingertip veil of illusion silk fell softly from a small lace cap trimmed in seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Donald L. MacDonald of Uncasville was matron of honor and Leanne Harris of Greenwich, Conn., and Judith Ducotey of Torrington, Conn., were the bride's attendants.

Duties of best man were performed by Claude Nusom Jr. of New Bedford, Mass. Ushers were Ensign Bryson Randolph and Ensign Stanley Mincks, both also of New Bedford and Cadet George Ireland of Rochester, N.Y.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

High Court Striving to Resolve Tax Issue

DETROIT (UPI)—State Supreme Court Justice Eugene Black said yesterday the state's highest court has concentrated all its efforts on making an early decision on the constitutionality of Michigan's controversial penny hike in the use tax.

He told a gathering of state and federal lawyers and judges in Detroit a decision should be made by mid-October.

Your PTA Is Planning:

Meetings at Avon, Wixom

AVON TOWNSHIP—The PTSA of Avondale High School will hold its first meeting of the current school year at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. J. L. Walters, association president, will introduce Superintendent of Schools LeRoy R. Watt members of the Board of Education and the new teachers.

A special feature of the evening program will be a panel discussion of teenage problems between students and parents. Margaret Rose will act as moderator.

A get-acquainted hour will follow the business session. Refreshments will be served by the PTSA executive board.

WIXOM—The Wixom School PTA will hold its introductory meeting of the new school year at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Teachers will be in their respective classrooms for a half hour preceding the meeting to become acquainted with parents of their pupils.

Main speaker at the meeting will be Clifford H. Smart, superintendent of Walled Lake Consolidated Schools. His topic is "Know Your School."

Refreshments will be served by the PTA Executive Board.

Second Victim Dies After Saturday Crash

ROYAL OAK — A second victim whose car was involved in a collision with a bulldozer on 12-Mile road and Dequindre road Saturday night has died in William Beaumont Hospital here.

★ ★ ★

Ballint Szabo, 76, of 926 Whitcomb St., died without regaining consciousness. His companion, at the time of the accident, Nicholas Chutoras, 72, of 941 W. 14-Mile Rd., Madison Heights, died six hours after the crash.

★ ★ ★

Szabo rammed his auto into the back of a bulldozer working on the wrong side of the street. The driver of the bulldozer, Albert E. Nieman of Romulus, has been cleared of any negligence, according to Warren Police.

Both victims died without making a statement. They suffered severe internal injuries.

Commodities Pile Up

U.S. Surplus $8.6 Billion

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The government's investment in price-supported wheat, corn, cotton and other surplus farm commodities totaled $8,648,779,000 June 30.

The Agriculture Department said the investment was made up of $6,200,267,000 in commodities owned outright by the Commodity Credit Corp. and $2,448,512,000 in outstanding loans on farm products still held by producers.

The investment on June 30 of last year was $7,029,695,000.

Wheat retained its position as the most costly item in the government's investments. The government owned 1,146,576,168 bushels valued at $2,924,384,356.

$158 MILLION IN LOANS

Loans on 88,027,635 bushels were valued at $158,184,647. The total investment in wheat was $3,082,569,003.

The corn investment of $2,374,738,813 covered more than 1,500,000,000 bushels. More than 1,000,000,000 bushels were owned outright by the government.

The net realized loss on price support operations for fiscal year 1959 totaled $821,127,779. The loss for fiscal 1958 was $1,006,548,967.

Edith Piaf in Hospital 3rd Time in 7 Months

PARIS (UPI) — Songstress Edith Piaf, 44, was under hospital care today for the third time in seven months.

The diminutive torch singer was rushed by ambulance yesterday to the American Hospital.

The diagnosis was inflammation of the pancreas. After a two-hour emergency operation, she was reported to be in no danger and her condition was described as satisfactory.

In 1788, the three children of Col. Jacob Davis, the oldest a boy of 15, were marooned in their log cabin in Vermont for three months and were found unharmed.

Good Losers' Club Meets Thursday for Another Try

CLARKSTON — The first meeting of the Good Losers' Club will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the high school cafeteria.

Members of the six-month-old club have been asked to attend the meeting "dressed for exercise," and to take a rug or blanket for the work-out. All women in the area who are interested in losing weight have been invited to attend the meetings.

IS "IRON-HUNGRY BLOOD" MAKING YOU ONLY "HALF" A WOMAN?
Are You So Run-Down You Can't Give Your Husband and Family Real Companionship? Then Discover The Wonderful Blood-Strengthening Action of This Special Iron Tonic for Women!
How tragic when a woman feels so tired, so weak and run-down she can't be a real companion! Luckily, it's often due to "Iron-Hungry Blood" ("simple iron deficiency anemia"). Then it's needless for those women to suffer such awful weariness.
Now, a wonderful iron tonic can help relieve this condition... thus renew your vitality! It's Lydia E. Pinkham's Tablets, only iron tonic made especially for women! Rich in iron, Pinkham's Tablets start to strengthen "Iron-Hungry Blood" in one day! Thus quickly help build rich, red blood... to restore strength and energy so you feel fine again fast!
Pinkham's unique formula can also bring blessed relief from functionally-caused monthly cramps and "Hot Flashes" of change-of-life! No wonder so many women use Pinkham's Tablets all through their lives!
If "Iron-Hungry Blood" has left you weak and run-down — only "half" a woman—get Pinkham's Tablets from druggists. Then see if you don't soon feel "all" woman again!
FOR FEMALE AILMENTS! Doctors' tests prove famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound (liquid) also brings quick relief from discomforts of monthly pain and change-of-life.

Presiding over the Waterford township meetings at 1 p.m. Thursday and 9:30 a.m. Friday is Mrs. M. G. Prosser, Waterford co-chairman, assisted by Lake Angelus co-chairman, Mrs. Myron Leighton.

The correct way to ask for dollars for this year's UF campaign will be explained by the volunteer training chairman Joseph H. Schultz.

Mrs. Noel Buckner, Women's Division Chairman for the 1959 campaign, has asked all women canvassers to be present for one of the orientation sessions.

"How quickly and successfully we arrive and top our $25,157 goal is directly related to how well our women are trained. We expect to have an overflow attendance at all the sessions," she said.

This year's house-to-house solicitation will begin immediately following the early evening Oct. 1 kickoff parade and torch lighting ceremony on Saginaw street. The drive extends through Oct. 22.

Dear Abby Offers Advice:

Give Out the Word, Dear Widow, if You Would Like to Remarry

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have been a widow for eleven years. I am in my late fifties, but look younger. My husband left me a little store which keeps me tied down all day. I am too busy during the day waiting on customers to be alone. But at night I get the blues. I have prayed and cried. I would like to meet a good man and get married.

ABBY

I hate to think of living alone until I die. I have no family. Don't use my name because I wouldn't for the world want any of my customers or friends to know how I feel. Please advise me. LONELY

DEAR LONELY: Marriages are not made in heaven — they are made in your store, in church, or where lonely people gather. Let your friends and customers know that you would consider marriage to the right man. False pride can be your worst enemy.

DEAR ABBY: I recently returned from a 6-week stay at the hospital. I am 80 years old and so is my wife. One of our neighbors heard of my return so she called my wife and offered to send over some turkey bones that were left over from a turkey feast. She said my wife could make some broth out of it.

My wife politely refused because she thought some of the guests might have chewed on them.

Isn't it customary to send convalescents only food that is ready to eat? Or am I mistaken? This neighbor was better able to make the broth, than either of us. I thought my wife did, right. What do you think?

80 BUT STILL LEARNING

DEAR EIGHTY: Your wife was justified in politely refusing. Even though your neighbor's intentions might have been good, her judgment was poor. Don't look for any more bones to pick with her.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am 13 years old and try to do the right thing. My retired Grandpa, who lives with us, is always asking me to play cards with him. Just him and me. When I play with him I always beat him. He gets very mad and hollers at me. I decided that I will not play with him any more, then my mother says, "Play Grandpa a game or two as he has nothing else to do." So I do. But the same thing happens again. I win and he gets mad.

My father says for me to let Grandpa win once in a while. I refuse to do this because it is cheating. Am I wrong or not?

REFUSE TO CHEAT

DEAR REFUSE: Cheating to win is morally wrong. Playing to let the other fellow win is morally acceptable when the other fellow is a retired Grandpa who loves to play and hates to lose.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: May the Lord have mercy on that poor misguided soul who drives sixty miles every day to "find God." Doesn't she know that the kingdom of God is within all of us?

Golden Age Club Groups Hob-Nob Twice in Week

The two groups of the Golden Age Club, sponsored by the Pontiac YWCA, met Sept. 15 and 22 at the home of the YWCA president, Mrs. Fred Stimpert of Watkins Lake.

★ ★ ★

Birthday corsages were presented to Mrs. Lillian Walls of Group I and Mrs. Ada See of Group II.

Four generations of a local family were represented at the meeting on the 15th. Mrs. John Allan, who served as a hostess, had as guests her mother, Mrs. Ralph Cromis; her grandmother, Mrs. Emma VanNordstrand, and her daughter, Susan Allan.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Ben Zannoth who entertained Group II with several piano selections also was a guest.

Hostesses were Mrs. Marcus Scott, chairman, and Mrs. William Donaldson, Mrs. Howard Reeves, Mrs. Everett Russell, Agnes Hilton and Mrs. Frank Kirby.

Mrs. Bessie Royce accompanied in group singing.

Her Cards Are Sold All Over

Sentiment Is Brownie's Watchword

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Sentiment never goes out of style, says Henrietta Strong, known to her friends and a few million sentimental Americans as "Brownie."

Proof of her statement is the story of her life, most of which has been spent marketing sentiment in mass quantities. While still in school Brownie started illustrating letters to her friends, decorating them with birds and flowers and including bits of philosophy in verse.

Today her greeting cards and decorated "conversation cards" are sold all over the United States and Canada in astronomical numbers, and soon will be distributed in England, Germany, France, Italy, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, with verses translated in the language of the country.

"I just don't feel that people really like these macabre, super-sophisticated 'studio' cards that seem to be the current rage," says Miss Strong, looking pensively out the window of her skyscraper office in mid-town Manhattan. "If you want to send a card to a friend, why send an insulting one? This is a kind of humor I don't understand, and I predict it will be short-lived."

On the other hand, Brownie's sentimental cards have been selling in landslide quantities for more than 30 years, with sales increasing in the midst of the greeting-insult fad.

"Cards with dignity and spiritual quality are always in demand," says Brownie. "I like to think they are an antidote for the 'beat' trend in greeting cards."

Brownie writes many of the verses on her cards herself, but also has a large library of poetry and anthologies from which she selects appropriate sentiments.

She turned out her first collection of Christmas cards in 1926, cutting the designs on linoleum blocks and printing them with the aid of a hand-turned clothes wringer. She also turns out decorated paper napkins, table mats, guest towels and such. Says she:

"I guess one reason the business is a success is that I love every minute of it. I'm not ashamed of being sentimental. I believe sentiment is something of which there's all too little in our busy modern world."

Logical Punishments Are Most Effective

Mrs. Muriel Lawrence is on vacation. This is the second of six articles that will appear during her absence, reprinted by permission of Random House, Inc., from "The Happy Child," by Irene M. Josselyn, M.D., Copyright, 1956, by Irene Milliken Josselyn.

The most effective form of punishment is that which is the logical consequence of an act.

If a child does not complete his bedtime routine promptly enough to allow for reading, deprivation of a story is a logical punishment. Parents often, because they love their child, weaken when given such an opportunity to teach cause and effect.

A touch of weakness is an extremely desirable component of parental love, but parents should not be weak every time a punishment can fit a crime. Children need to learn the casual relationship between misbehavior and punishment within the sheltering environment of loving and loved parents.

Sometimes a logical punishment cannot always follow a bit of misbehavior which must yet be curbed.

For example, a small child who is too young to judge danger runs out into the street. The incredibly logical punishment would be to have the child safely but emphatically hit by a car. No parents would plot such punishment.

If no other technique works it is preferable that the parent, acting for the car, hit the child, thus establishing a conditioned reflex against running out into the street, even though the punishment is not the actual effect of this action.

There are times when only spanking works. This may occur particularly with a child too young to grasp the significance of other disciplinary methods but who must be taught to check certain behavior. Certainly there is no justification whatever for merciless beating of a child. Other methods of control should be attempted before spanking is resorted to.

PARENTAL RELEASE

There is an implication of failure when parents can only gain obedience by physically hurting the child. It is often pointed out that spanking is more important as a release for the parent than as a learning experience for the child. That is probably true at times.

But if parents can handle unpleasant child behavior at all times only by hitting, it is hard for the child to see why it is not an equally effective way for him to handle unpleasant parents, teachers and playmates.

The pros and cons of spanking have probably been argued since Adam and Eve. Each view has its own validity and fallaciousness.

It's Personal, for Future Bride

Pearl Hopkins of Scott Lake road, bride-elect of Laverne McCallum of Harper Woods, was honored at a personal shower Saturday evening in Adah Shelly Branch Library.

Hostesses were Mrs. James F. Purcell, Mrs. Daniel Hooper and Mrs. J. Amos Wilmot.

Large Pasties Enough Food for Whole Meal

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Publishing a recipe for Pasties is a litle like putting one in for spaghetti sauce. Everyone who has a pet recipe is sure hers is the only origional one. This one was given Mrs. William Nixon by her mother-in-law. When the Nixons have Pasties, they have only milk for the rest of the meal.

★ ★ ★

The Nixons who live in Walled Lake have three little girls. Mrs. Nixon is the chairman of the Mary Circle of her church. She belongs also to the Walled Lake Study Club and to the PTA.

PASTIES
By Mrs. William Nixon

1 recipe for pie crust
2 medium potatoes
1 onion
½ pound ground round steak or ground beef

One pie crust makes one pasty. If you want to make the crusts ahead of time, store them in the refrigerator in layers, with waxed paper between.

Roll pastry out into circle. Put diced potatoes and onions on crust. Crumble uncooked meat and put over vegetables. Season with salt and pepper. Dot with butter or margarine.

Fold over into half-moon shape and crimp edges with a fork. In the Nixon kitchen the initial of each member of the family is put on top of his pasty with a fork. Bake 1 hour at 400 degrees.

Alumnae in Call Drive

Seek Wellesley Aid

Wellesley College Alumnae in the Birmingham area have joined other Wellesley groups throughout the continental United States and Hawaii in a program of importance to the future of their college.

Wellesley's "Personal Call" program started Sunday and will continue through Oct. 1. During this time, some 25 women, under the chairmaanship of Mrs. Robert Knight of Wing Lake road, will get in touch with all other Wellesley alumnae in the vicinity.

The object of the calls is to raise $15,000,000 for the improvement of faculty salaries.

Mrs. Knight, district chairman, is receiving close cooperation from Mrs. William Norvell of Lone Pine road, district representative of the development fund, and Mrs. James Barnard of Kennesaw avenue, president of the Birmingham Wellesley Club.

Alumnae who will make calls in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills include Mrs. Eleanor Gafill, Mrs. Raymond Husband, Jeanne Lloyd, Mrs. Gordon White, Mrs. William Barney, Mrs. Wayne Andrae, Mrs. John Sugden and Mrs. Vernon Myers.

Mrs. Robert Lake and Mrs. Clair Magoon are calling in the Pontiac and Rochester area.

Encourage Savings Not Debt for Youth

By RUTH MILLETT

"Did you know," asks a college dean, "that the standard graduation gift on many campuses from parents to a son or daughter is the down payment on a new automobile?"

"Mama and Papa help the graduating senior pick out a car and make the down payment on it. And the young man or woman assumes the responsibility for making the rest of the payments.

"That means, of course, that the young person begins his adult life in debt. No matter what, he has to keep up those car payments. And by the time the car is paid for it is about time to trade it in and so the debt is always hanging around his neck.

"The amazing thing is that parents obviously don't see what they are doing. They are so accustomed to being tied to monthly payments themselves, that they apparently see nothing wrong in starting their kids off in debt."

I didn't know about the custom. But it does seem kind of mixed up. Time was when parents tried to give their children something to help them earn a living, a money stake, a few acres of land taken from the home place, furnishings for a home.

But to saddle 'em with a debt in the name of a gift isn't quite the same thing. Instead of making the down payment on a car why don't the parents say, "We are holding the money for part payment on an automobile for you. When you have saved the balance we'll turn the money over to you for a new car."

That way the kids would start out even — instead of in debt. And they'd get by all right without a car until they could pay for one.

Encouraging young people to save their money for what they want is a lot better gift than teaching them to buy everything they think they have to have and then struggle to keep up monthly payments. Or is that just too, too old-fashioned?

G. ONALEE PARNALL

Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Brendel of White Lake announce the engagement of their daughter, G. Onalee Parnall of Salmer street, to Robert E. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin S. Davis of Detroit. Mr. Davis is a graduate of Central Michigan University. An April wedding is planned.

This is the way to get your kicks; make them count for your figure. Kick the left leg up toward the ceiling.

Good for Figure

Have Some Kicks Coming

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

When a person frets, fumes and fusses, it can only lead to unhappiness. BUT, there is some kicking which will do wonders for your figure! Today I will give you a few of these kicks.

1. Lie on the floor on your back. Bend your left knee up close to your abdomen. Then kick toward the ceiling with your left leg. Lower the leg to the floor (knee stiff). Now bend your right leg up and then kick toward the ceiling. Lower right leg to the floor. Continue, alternating left and right legs. Do this briskly, extending the legs full length when kicking.

KICK BACKWARD

3. Stand with your left side toward the wall and left hand on the wall. Bend your right let up in front of you and then kick toward your right side. Lower right leg with a stiff knee. Continue. After a while turn your right side toward the wall and place your right hand on the wall. Bend your left knee up in front of you and kick toward left side. Lower left leg with a stiff knee. Continue.

4. Lie on the floor on your back. Bend your left knee up close to your abdomen. As you straighten your left leg bend your right knee. One leg straightens and the other bends. The feet do not touch the floor.

These are all easy exercises. The last is the most difficult. If you will indulge in them, you will find that they are beautifully beneficial to your abdominal, thigh and leg measurements.

If you would like to have my exercise slimming routines for the abdomen, thighs or legs send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 5 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Tomorrow: "Hey, Lady! Did You Know You Were So Important?"

Can't Let Guests Go Hungry

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My son will be confirmed shortly. The ceremony will take place in a temple at a morning service. A large reception will be held that evening in a hotel. I am having several out-of-town relatives and friends. Must I ask them to come back to my house for lunch after the ceremony?

"I don't think this is necessary but other members of my family feel that since they are from out of town, it would be rude not to. Other guests will go back to their own houses after the ceremony. Will you please tell me what is correct in this situation?"

Answer: If you expect your relatives and friends coming from a distance to wait from the end of the morning ceremony until the evening reception, you must invite them for lunch because you cannot leave them to fend for themselves in a strange town.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When seated in a restaurant with a friend and her mother happens to come by and she stops and we are introduced, should I rise to meet her mother?"

Answer: If you are a man, you do of course; if a woman, you don't in a crowded restaurant unless you, at the other extreme, are very young, or at the other extreme, she is very old. In any case it would be polite to make the gesture of rising if obviously that is all you can do without standing in the way.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it necessary to give and accept invitations in consecutive order?"

Answer: The "invitation for invitation" applies only to those whose acquaintance is formal as well as new. Friends never keep any such account. Naturally when Mary and John invite Jim and Jane time and time again, they may expect the latter to invite them to something sometime, but the invitations do not alternate first from one and then from the other.

LIPSTICK IS THE EXCLAMATION POINT

to your appearance. If you reach for your old standby red lipstick when you wear clothes in high-key colors, set it aside and see what a brighter shade can do. All lipsticks range from light to medium to dark, with undertones of blue or yellow. Pink, rose and plum tints are related to blue. Coral, orange and rust are underscored by yellow.

Choose a blue-red for garments with a blue cast and a yellow-red for orange tones and yellow greens or browns. Your faithful shade of red will compliment your darker clothes and white.

Fashion Plans Styles for College Girl

Happy subject of study for this year's college girl — or any smart, young woman—is fall's new fun-curricula clothes. On fashion, her top adviser is Sewing Expert, Anne Adams, whose 3-part wardrobe plan is geared to meet and make the most of every social situation.

Traveling smartly to and from any campus is the Chanel-inspired suit. For informal evenings, Pattern 4676 uncovers a shapely, little dinner blouse with scooped neckline.

The daytime dress that goes from the Dean's Tea to a Saturday date in town is slim, dashing and topped by a wide, wide cape collar. The waist, long and lean beneath midriff banding, creates a jacket effect. Pattern 4700.

For the dance that follows the big game, the look is romantic and alluring. Pattern 4907 bares the neck and shoulders beautifully above a floating-on-air skirt.

Best of all, you don't need a degree to sew these Anne Adams fashions. They're printed patterns in sizes 9 to 17. No special course is required to put in the zipper, either. Talon's marvelous Magic-Zip has a woven sewing guideline right on the tape. Follow it as you stitch—presto! It zips smoothly, looks professional, remains forever invisible.

Printed Patterns 4676 and 4907 are 50 cents each; Printed Pattern 4700 is 35 cents. Add 10 cents for each pattern for first-class mailing. Send order with coins to Anne Adams, care of (The Pontiac Press), Pattern Department, P.O. Box 13, Old Chelsea Station, New York 11, N.Y. Please print plainly your name, address with zone, size and style number.

Have You Forgotten?

Before the church bells chimed, the man in your life always saw you at your best. You had a date, and you dressed for it. But what about now? Have you forgotten your appearance in the frantic rush of housekeeping and child rearing?

It's not easy to look your best while you try, at the same time, to tidy your house, do your marketing and keep junior from pounding baby sister with a sauce pan. But if you succeed, it will have immeasureable effect on your personal pride, on your husband's morale and on your youngsters, too.

★ ★ ★

Your children will carry their early memories of you through their mature years. And it's up to you to make sure that they don't remember an unattractive woman, with untidy clothing and hair either flying or perpetually set in pincurls.

PAULA J. LUSCOMBE

At an open house held Sunday, Mrs. Jewell Luscombe of Birmingham announced the engagement of her daughter, Paula Joanne, to Daniel Thomas Michaud, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Michaud of Detroit. A November wedding is planned.

McGee-Livingston Vows Exchanged in Pontiac

The bride is the daughter of the Louis B. Livingstons of Woodbine drive and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McGee of Birmingham.

Marylynn Long of Birmingham was maid of honor. She wore a beige and rust dress. Bridesmaids were Mary Anna Summers of Harper Woods and Janet McGee, sister of the bridegroom. They were dressed in aqua dresses with teal blue cummerbunds and matching headpieces. They carried bouquets of bronze and gold chrysanthemums.

Robert Eugene Livingston, the bride's brother was best man. Ushers were James Kelly and Thomas Hendrickson of Birmingham.

The couple will live in Bellaire Manor. Before leaving for a honeymoon, the bride changed to a dark blue tunic dress also designed and made by her mother. She used black accessories and wore the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Livingston wore a dress of beige lace over taffeta with beige and brown accessories and Mrs. McGee was dressed in blue lace with black accessories. Both had corsages of cymbidium orchids.

She Explains 'Whistle-Bait' Hats

Millinery Designer to Address Men

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

It is a fact increasingly recognized by big business these days that man-talk always perks up with the introduction of a little woman-talk.

★ ★ ★

That may be why millinery designer Sally Victor has been asked to be a featured speaker at one of the country's most august gatherings of big business men, the Boston Conference on Distribution, sponsored by the business schools of Harvard, Boston College, Boston University, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Northeastern University and the Boston Chamber of Commerce, plus 82 cooperating business and educational institutions.

"Gracious, I'm no Ph.D," says the strictly feminine and often frivolous Sally. "I don't know why they asked me, except that I've noticed that most men love to talk about women's hats."

Sally has been designing hats for no better reason than to make women look pretty for about 30 years but never has taken either herself or her hats seriously.

★ ★ ★

"I never believed a hat was a necessity, and I still don't," says Sally. "No woman wears a hat just to keep her head warm or to avoid sunstroke—or if she does, she doesn't deserve it. A woman wears a hat to enhance what she has or to hide what she hasn't. She wears a hat to make her look glamorous. And if a man whistles at her, she knows the hat is a success."

Now about this speech.

"It's no use for me to make like a professor," says Sally. "I'm just not the type. I guess I'll just take along a pretty model and some hats, maybe I can call them Exhibit A and Exhibit T and so on, and show the gentlemen the difference between just a hat and one the boys will whistle at."

What kind of hat evokes a whistle?

"Well, it's sort of hard to explain," says Sally "It has to have a come-hither look. It has to dramatize the woman who wears it—make people want to take a second look. It doesn't have to be fussy or have a lot of flowers or veils. In fact most men like simple hats on women. But the hat must have something—color or silhouette or slant—that gives the wearer a lift.

"It's kind of cause and effect operation, if you want to get technical about it. A woman puts on a new hat, walks down the street, gets whistled at, and all at once she feels wonderful.

Cornstarch Takes Place of Flour in Cake

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Newsfeatures Food Editor

This very very English cake should be a terrific American success.

★ ★ ★

To our knowledge this is the first time a recipe quite like this one has ever been published in this country. So if you enjoy piquing taste buds, and are interested in cake-making development, here's your chance to be one of the first cooks in the United States to offer the London Sponge.

What's so different about the cake? It has the flavor and airy texture of good sponge cake, but it calls for no flour. Its secret ingredient is corn starch — the product the English name corn flour. Because corn flour is a starch, it took a great deal of test-kitchen experimentation to work out this rule, so use the ingredients and proportions specified.

And weight-watchers take note. Cut the London Sponge and a standard chiffon cake (both unfrosted) each into 10 pieces; a portion of the sponge will have 122 calories, the chiffon 170. Enjoy the sponge and you will be 48 calories ahead.

In England two-layer cakes such as this London Sponge are called "sandwiches" because usually they are filled with jam, sprinkled with castor (very fine granulated) sugar and served at teatime. If you want to turn the "sandwich" into a "gateau" as the British sometimes do, fill and top it with peaches and whipped cream.

London Sponge

1 cup sifted confectioners sugar
¾ cup sifted corn starch
5 eggs (separated)
½ teaspoon cream of tartar
2 tablespoons water
½ teaspoon vanilla

Sift together 3 times ½ cup sugar and the corn starch. Beat whites, cream of tartar and water in a large bowl with a rotary (hand or electric) beater until peaks that bend over slightly form. Beat in remaining ½ cup sugar a little at a time; continue beating until stiff peaks form.

Add egg yolks and vanilla; beat in just until blended. Fold in sugar-cornstarch a little at a time, making sure it is all blended.

Bake in 2 ungreased unlined round layer-cake pans (each 8 by 1¼ inches deep) in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 30 minutes or until top springs back when touched lightly. Place pans on wire racks to cool. Cut cake edges away from sides of pans and ease out.

If you like baking powder biscuits with soft sides, place them so their sides touch each other in the baking pan.

Vegetable Medley Blended Into Soup

Melt 3 tablespoons of butter or margarine, add ½ cup of chopped celery and cook 5 minutes.

Add 3 cups of water, bring to boil, and gradually stir in 1 (1½-ounce) package of dehydrated onion soup mix. Cover and cook 10 minutes over medium heat. Add 1 (1-pound) can of peas, undrained, ½ cup of grated raw carrot and 2 tablespoons of chopped canned pimiento. Mix well, cover and cook 5 minutes. Serves 4.

"TAKE ME TO YOUR EATER!" — Simple, inexpensive hamburger comes to a party transformed into boys and girls from outer space . . . with stuffed olive eyes, bright pimiento smiles and stylish pimiento hats. They hear through Swiss cheese ears and the girls wear parsley curls. For kids they are "out of this world!"

Common 'Burger Changes for Appeal in Space Age

What young eater could resist the command of these tasty people from outer space?

★ ★ ★

Here's how simple, inexpensive hamburger comes to a party transformed into outer space characters by garnish tidbits you probably keep on hand at all times: canned pimientos, Swiss cheese, stuffed olives, carrots, celery, cocktail onions, parsley . . . the usual snack ingredients.

For each space man or his equally attractive girl friend, season and shape hamburger into a flat round, cook as usual and drain on a paper towel. Place on open bun and then the fun of decorating begins.

For the eyes, use pimiento-stuffed olive slices, or stuffed olives placed at a slant to give that helpless feminine look. Large pieces of whole pimiento make stunning caps and smaller pieces are used for beautiful red mouths. All boy space people surely have pointed ears made of Swiss cheese and sometimes of through the holes), while the girls sometimes make their hats of Sfiss cheese and sometimes of red pimiento and sometimes of both!

But they always have green parsley curls to go with their olive green eyes. Noses can be little round onions, bits of celery, carrot slivers, pickle, or even a nut placed at the proper angle.

These little figures are almost too enchanting to be eaten but they will be. Space people love to be eaten! Their scarlet pimiento decorations add a delightfully zesty flavor and when combined with the Switzerland Swiss cheese, the result is "Out of This World!"

Hot Breads Help Balance Fall Meals

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

If the menu you have planned for tonight seems a bit skimpy, make some kind of hot bread. Nothing picks up a meal like biscuits or rolls.

★ ★ ★

Sweet potatoes are in the stores in great abundance. Use a couple of fresh potatoes or some canned ones to make these interesting sweet rolls. They'll give the rolls a beautiful golden color and an unusual flavor.

Yam-Yam Honey Buns

2 cakes compressed yeast
½ cup lukewarm sweet potato liquid (drained from canned sweet potatoes) or water
½ cup mashed sweet potatoes or yams (canned or cooked)
3 tablespoons melted butter or other shortening
¼ cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 unbeaten eggs
3¼ to 3½ cups sifted enriched flour
2 tablespoons melted butter
¼ cup firmly packed brown sugar
¼ cup pecans or walnuts, chopped

Combine mashed sweet potatoes, the 3 tablespoons melted butter, sugar, salt, vanilla, and eggs in large bowl. Add softened yeast. Stir in flour to form a stiff dough. Cover with waxed paper or towel.

Let rise in warm place (85 to 90 degrees F.) until light and doubled in size, about 1½ hours. Meanwhile prepare Honey Nut Topping.

Toss dough on well-floured board until coated with flour and no longer sticky. Roll out to 24x8-inch rectangle. Brush with 2 tablespoons melted butter. Sprinkle with brown sugar and chopped pecans or walnuts.

Roll as for jelly roll, starting with 24-inch side. Cut or "tie-off" with strong thread into twelve 2-inch slices. (To tie-off slices, place thread under roll and pull ends around, crossing as if to tie in knot.) Place cut-side down over topping. Cover.

Let rise in warm place until light and doubled in size, 30 to 45 minutes.

Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Cool 2 minutes then invert on serving plate or on rack over waxed paper. Let stand 30 seconds, before removing pan. Makes 12 large rolls.

Honey Nut Topping

⅓ cup honey
½ cup firmly packed brown sugar
¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup pecans or walnuts, chopped

Combine honey, brown sugar, butter and salt in saucepan. Bring to boil and cook, stirring constantly, until a little syrup dropped in cold water forms a soft ball (234 degrees F.) about 1½ minutes. Pour into greased 19x9x2-inch pan. Sprinkle with chopped pecans or walnuts.

(Rolls may be baked in two 8- or 9-inch round layer pans for 20 to 25 minutes.)

Maybe there isn't time to make yeast rolls. Add an appetizer course to your dinner and serve juice and tiny cocktail biscuits. The family may demand more of the biscuits to eat with their meal.

Rich Cocktail Biscuit

2 cups sifted flour
1½ teaspoon double acting baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
⅓ cup butter or margarine
1 egg, lightly beaten
Milk

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Cut in butter until mixture resembles coarse meal. Pour beaten egg into a 1-cup measure and fill until three-quarters full with milk. Gradually stir into flour mixture.

Knead 20 seconds on lightly floured board. Roll to ¼-inch thickness. Fold over and roll again to ¼-inch thickness. Cut with 1½ inch cutter.

Bake on ungreased cookie sheet 10 minutes or until brown in 450-degree oven. For cocktails, split and serve with ham filling. Makes 3½ dozen.

If you're really pushed for time, start out with a loaf of unsliced rye bread and make up a Rye Cheese Loaf. This will be done in less than half an hour, counting preparation time.

Rye Cheese Loaf

1 (1-pound) loaf unsliced rye bread
½ cup soft butter or margarine
1½ teaspoon prepared mustard
¼ teaspoon paprika
17 slices process cheese, 3"x3"

Cut bread, almost through to bottom crust, into 16 slices. Combine butter, mustard and paprika. Spread butter mixture and 1 cheese slice between each slice of bread. Place on a cookie sheet and heat in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) for fifteen minutes, or until piping hot and crusty. Yield: 16 servings.

Tuna Omelet

You can add drained flaked tuna to a plain French omelet to vary it. Or prepare a puffy omelet, American style, and fill it with the creamed tuna.

Local Peaches Are Starting

It's peach time in Michigan! From now until September 20, three million bushels will be harvested, reports the MSU Marketing Agent.

About twenty-five to thirty per cent of the peach crop will be the early Red Haven variety. This is one of the best from freezing or canning, suggests Mrs. Josephine Lawyer. You can expect Red Havens in volume by August 1. Most will be picked by August 15.

The mid-season varieties include the Hale Haven, Golden Jubilee, Fair Haven and Kalhaven. These will total about a million bushels this year.

The late varieties, coming after September 1, will be Elberta, J. H. Hale and Red Skin. This will total about a third of the crop also.

The hot sunny weather early in summer has developed peaches of fine flavor and color. The hot weather helped keep the peaches free of brown rot and fungus disease. Growers say that good soaking rains at this time will add considerably in the size of the peaches.

Full flavor-goodness develops only on the peach tree. Many Michigan peach growers will pick peaches at the firm-ripe stage, then cool them in an ice-cold water spray before shipment to market.

Firm-ripe peaches will be firm, but will have a creamy white or yellow background color depending upon the variety. They will become full-ripe at room temperature in 3 to 4 days. Peaches with greenish background may become soft, but will never have a good flavor.

If you need directions for canning or freezing peaches, contact the Cooperative Extension Office, 1260 West Boulevard, Pontiac for free bulletins with up-to-date directions.

Cottage Cheese Called by Many Names

Cottage cheese is known by many names in America. Belonging to the basic family are these: Schmierkase, Dutch, baker's, pot, cup, hoop, block, dry, creamy, pressed, popcorn, flake and homemade style. Farmer cheese, still another member of the family, originated in France and there too is known by many names, including fromage a la pie, Mou, Maigre and Ferme.

★ ★ ★

By definition, cottage cheese is a "soft uncured cheese made from skim milk or finely reconstituted concentrated skim milk or nonfat dry milk solids." Its moisture content by government standard is not more than 80 per cent. Creamed cottage cheese containing four per cent or more of buttertat.

★ ★ ★

Whatever its style or texture, cottage cheese is an uncured variety of cheese, snowy-white, mild in flavor, high in milk nutrients and popularity.

Demand High Despite Strike

Steel Walkouts Fail to Dent Consumption Levels of Economy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The steel strike failed to cut into high demand and consumption levels in the domestic economy through early September, the Commerce Department reported Tuesday.

The department's office of business economics said in its monthly survey of current business that capital investment continued to expand and most major types of construction continued well ahead of a year ago.

The influence of the steel strike has been reflected chiefly in employment, personal income, manufacturing and mining production and freight transportation, it said.

Secondly — adjusted non - farm employment in August, the survey noted, was over a half million less than in July. Personal income in August stood at an adjusted annual rate of $381,000,000,000 — down $2,500,000,000 from the highs reached in June and July.

In a separate analysis on consumer goods, the survey noted that an expansion of consumer buying and a sharp rise in consumer goods output has been a feature of the general business recovery.

Graham Is Sad That K Hasn't Been to Church

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) — Evangelist Billy Graham is disappointed that no attempt has been made thus far to make a spiritual impact on Nikita Khrushchev during the Soviet Premier's American tour.

The 40-year-old evangelist said the failure to get Khrushchev to church or to show him America's spiritual strength "may prove the greatest blunder" of those who arranged his tour.

Khrushchev proably would be greatly impressed if he could see the interest of the American people in religion, Graham said in an interview. The Soviet Premier talked a great deal about religion on his recent trip to Poland, Graham said.

The great strength of America, the evangelist said, is not its gadgets, material wealth or military strength, but its spiritual life.

Phone Cable Links Europe, New World

NEW YORK (UPI) — The first telephone cable linking North America to the mainland of Europe opened Tuesday.

Officials of the 40-million dollar enterprise here exchanged pleasantries with their partners in Paris over a 4,400 mile route to open the new service.

The transAtlantic section consists of two cables extending 2,500 statute miles between Clarenville, Newfoundland and Penmarch, France. The cables, one carrying voices eastward, the other westward, lie 20 to 30 miles apart on the ocean floor at depths up to three miles.

From Clarenville, a single cable, designed for two-way transmission, extends across Newfoundland, then through the water of Cabot Strait to Sydney Mines, Nova Scotia. From there, they extend southward over a radio relay system to Portland, Maine, and the U.S. network of American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The system, owned jointly by AT&T and the French and German governments, can carry 36 simultaneous conversations, and techniques now under development may approximately double this capacity.

About 5,000 unpaid volunteers furnish data to the U. S. weather bureau.

One-Third Ply Even Older Trade to Live

Geisha Girls Are Practicing Dying Art

That's the word from Tsusai Sugawara, financier, essayist, art connoisseur and chairman of the Council for the Prevention of Prostitution.

There are still about 26,085 Geisha in Japan, Sugawara wrote in the October issue of Bungei Shunju, a popular monthly magazine, but their numbers are dropping steadily.

"Few girls now want to become Geisha," he said. "They prefer to become dancers, models and cabaret and bar hostesses rather than start training in music and dancing at the age of seven or eight knowing they cannot become full fledged Geisha until they are 18 or 19 years old."

Sugawara came up with the astounding fact that the average age of a Geisha is 42 in Osaka. In the Akasaka Geisha district of Tokyo the average age is 37.

ONE IS 76

Seven of the Geisha in Tokyo are in their 60's and there is even one venerable oldster practicing her profession at the age of 76.

Another big factor in keeping girls from entering the profession is the rise in the cost of living.

But a Class A Geisha spends about $179 monthly for expenses, the Class B spends about $123 and the Class C about $47. These expenses do not include payments for kimono, musical instruments and other articles of the Geisha art.

DEBTS MOUNTING

Very few Geisha, therefore, can earn enough to make both ends meet and find their debts continuing to mount.

As a result, said Sugawara, many of the Geisha are turning to prostitution to earn extra money.

Of the 26,085 Geisha in Japan, he estimated that 7,055 are known or suspected of at least part-time prostitution.

The Tokyo Metropolitan Police Board issued a confidential memo last year which listed one third of the Geisha in Tokyo as occasional prostitutes.

Louisiana Widow Takes Bake-Off

Wins $25,000 With Cake

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A 58-year-old Louisiana widow's cake has won her $25,000.

Eunice Surles of Lake Charles walked off with the top prize of Pillsbury's 11th grand national bake-off Tuesday.

Despite her victory, Mrs. Surles wasn't too satisfied with her result.

★ ★ ★

"I'm never satisfied with anything I bake and I may have done this better at home," she said.

Her elaborate creation features melted butterscotch morsels in the batter and filling and a crown of either brown sugar frosting or whipped cream.

Second grand prize went to Joyce S. Anderson, Orchard Park, N. Y., $5,000 for her strips-of-beef casserole.

Tory Candidates Running Scared?

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Conservative Party appeared today to be losing ground with the approach of the Oct. 8 general election. Many Tory candidates were reported "running scared."

Public opinion polls as well as party workers' reports to Conservative headquarters showed a sharp drop in Conservative popularity, although only weeks ago the Tories were heavily favored.

Macmillan and his Labor Party opponents took off their gentleman kid gloves last night and started slinging verbal brickbats at one another. Previously both sides had promised a "clean" campaign.

Take Note, Nik: 'Our Government Not Capitalistic'

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says he wants to straighten out Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev on one important point

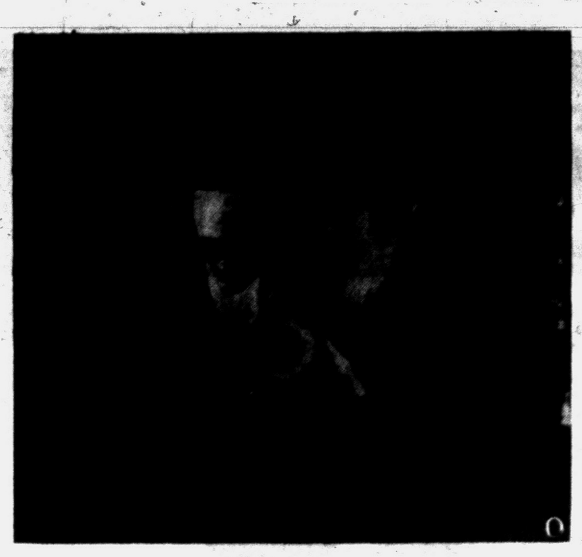

Khrushchev has been speaking of capitalism versus communism.

★ ★ ★

"This country does not have a capitalistic system of government," the millionaire New York governor says. "We have a democratic system of government. Capitalism is the economic and financial process which functions within our democratic system."

★ ★ ★

Hollywood Headlines:

Nikita Hits Sore Points About U. S. Intellectuals

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev's visit to Hollywood has come and gone, but the memory will linger a long, long time.

Never have so many stars appeared for a single event. "Curiosity," was Glenn Ford's explanation for the turnout.

THOMAS

The film famous were curious to see the No. 1 Communist in action, and they saw plenty of action. This was due to the needling of host Spyros Skouras, whose extolling of capitalism prompted Khrushchev to heated reply. Said David Niven of K's speech: "He had some of the greatest feed lines in history."

★ ★ ★

Some criticized the film boss's rambling speech. But Bob Hope pointed out: "He had a right to make it. He was picking up the tab for the lunch."

★ ★ ★

Khrushchev often interrupted Skouras's speech with pointed comments, and this seemed a delightful custom. Political speeches can be enlivened by such give and take.

Skouras also interrupted the Soviet leader but it wasn't the same. The filmsters finally shouted "sit down" to Skouras. They wanted the star to have the full stage.

STAYED TOO LONG

Khrushchev held it for 45 minutes. Thus he committed the unpardonable sin to show business: staying on too long. "He should have quit when he was ahead," observed Frank Sinatra.

★ ★ ★

I doubt if any of his Hollywood listeners were swayed by the Khrushchev's arguments. But he definitely touched a nerve. This came when he was praising Soviet achievements in the arts. "Which country has the best ballets?" he demanded.

★ ★ ★

Fred Astaire, Gene Kelly and others have pointed out that we have just as good dancers as the Soviets, but no place for them to train to perfection.

Khrushchev pointed out that America has no permanent ballet or opera theater—"your theaters must thrive on what rich people give them."

Commented one producer-director: "How can we compete for the minds of men when 'intellectual' is considered a dirty word among large segments of this country?"

In praising Soviet intellectual achievements, Khrushchev cited Mikhail Sholokov, author of "Quiet Flows the Don" and other novels, who is traveling with him.

This prompted one star to inquire: "So is President Eisenhower taking along Carl Sandberg or Robert Frost or Ernest Hemingway when he goes to Russia?"

U.S. Pays All Bills for Nikita and Party

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States is playing the perfect host to Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev and his official party in at least one respect —by paying all the bills.

★ ★ ★

Government funds are taking care of transportation, food, lodging and other outlays necessary to conduct the premier and more than 100 other Russian officials around this country.

★ ★ ★

The State Department and the White House are taking the necessary cash from their special funds set aside for such purposes.

Better Michigan Road Slogans Pouring In

LANSING (AP)— If Michigan goes much longer without a better roads slogan, a lot of persons are going to want to know why.

A slogan contest that is part of the Michigan Highway Week observance already has attracted more than 5,000 entries, J. Carl McMonagle, chairman of the Oct. 4-10 event, said yesterday.

McMonagle said the object is to come up with a catchy expression of 10 words or less reflecting advantages of a modern road and street system both for motoring and as an aid to Michigan's economic growth.

Winner in the competition will receive a week's paid vacation for two on Mackinac Island. It closes Sept. 30.

Appeals Court Delays Trouble

Integration Is Postponed at Dollarway School in Pine Bluff, Arkansas

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Public schools in the Dollarway School District probably will open Friday on a segregated basis, avoiding for the time being an integration crisis that segregationists vowed would make the Little Rock situation look like a tea party.

Lee Parham, president of the Dollarway School Board, said the board would issue a definite ruling after it has studied a report from the 8th Circuit of Appeals at St. Louis.

The court ruled Monday that three Negro pupils seeking admission to all-white Dollarway High School would have to ask assignment to the school under the state's pupil placement laws.

The court thus upset a lower court order that the Negroes be admitted to the school immediately. The court also refused to issue a stay of mandate pending appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court.

The opening of the Dollarway schools had been postponed from Sept. 8 until the appeals court could rule on the U. S. District Court decision.

The decision probably means that no Negroes will be admitted to Dollarway High School this fall.

Tracy Ann Pelissier to Wed British Actor

LONDON (AP) — The engagement of Tracy Pelissier, 18, stepdaughter of British film producer Sir Carol Reed, and actor Edward Fox, 24, was announced today.

"This," said Lady Reed, "should put a stop to all those ridiculous rumors about Tracy and the Aga Khan."

Human Ear Selective

The human ear, it is said, can distinguish about 500,000 different tones.

Model of House for Use on Moon Shown in Iowa

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — A model of a "moon house," was put on display yesterday for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's visit to this country.

A Chicago construction firm built the cigar-shaped corrugated metal cylinder, designed to house explorers on the moon's surface. It was put on display in the Savery Hotel, press headquarters during Khrushchev's visit.

The "moon building" would be made of aluminum alloys and is designed to float above the moon's surface anchored by heavy weights. It would be 340 feet long, 160 feet in diameter and 65 feet high.

Typhoon Sarah's Toll Reaches 669 Deaths

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — The official death toll from Typhoon Sarah — South Korea's worst natural disaster in 50 years—has shot up to 669.

The Ministry of Health and Social Affairs said the tropical storm, which smashed into South Korea last Thursday with winds up to 138 miles an hour, also injured 2,784 persons.

Authorities estimated the property damage at 43 million dollars with 53,000 houses flooded or destroyed.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Ingemar Johansson is a much better boxer than he is a singer. Yesterday at the Detroit Athletic Club the world's heavyweight champion joined in a chorus of Sweden's favorite songs.

Host of the luncheon and singing session was Gustav von Reis, Rochester manufacturer, with area press people as guests.

Detroit was Ingemar's first stop on his current trip to the United States and naturally there were many numerous questions directed at him.

The big Swede has one big difficulty. He has to be careful how he answers. He admits that because of his English, he is apt to be misconstrued or misquoted.

Ingemar has several primary interests for being in this country at this time.

One big reason is to find out about the money due him from the title fight. There's $169,000 of his in a New York bank which he can't touch. It's there in escrow until his rematch with Floyd Patterson.

"Rosensohn did not do me bad. He take my money and put it in a bank. He has been fair with me, but I hear things not so good with him," said Johansson.

What about the charge against Rosensohn that he pocketed $1,600 in money from the sale of press tickets?

"I don't know if that is true, if it is then it not so good," he answered.

One has to see Ingemar, talk to him and listen to him to realize what a remarkable person he is.

★ ★ ★

He talks slowly and softly. He has an innocent face with a rock jaw. He is polite and very mannerly, and most noticeable he always appears very confident.

Sometime Ingemar's frankness in his limited English language makes it seem he is boastful about his ring abilities.

He didn't say how he would handle Patterson in the rematch and for those who think his only asset is his right hand he says, "My left is really my best, but my right is my strongest."

Someone suggested that Johansson might have one noticeable quality which might be understandable to his youthful personality. Could it be he is a little mercenary?

This was gathered from two respects. His decision to set up all the fights he could in this country because there was more money to be made here, and his decision to establish residence in Switzerland to get away from Sweden's heavy tax load.

He is now a national hero in Sweden and the Swedes may not like the idea of his forsaking his homeland to get away from paying taxes.

But as some will ask, can you blame him? After all, a young man 27 years old doesn't make $169,000 in one lump too often, and his rematch might be worth $350,000 for a one nighter.

Tigers' Main Thoughts on Holding 4th Place

DETROIT (AP)—The first division, nothing more than a spring training prediction for seven of the last eight years, today appeared within grasp of the 1959 Detroit Tigers.

They got a firmer hold on fourth place yesterday by beating the Kansas City Athletics, 6-4. It was the eighth straight time the Tigers have beaten the A's, and marked Detroit's ninth victory in 10 starts in Briggs Stadium against the downtrodden Kansans.

Since 1950, only one Tiger team has reached the first division. Jack Tighe led the club into fourth place with a 78-75 mark in 1957, but was fired the following June when his club couldn't get going.

Bill Norman, who succeeded Tighe, had a chance to finish fourth with the 1958 Tigers but the team blew two of its last three games and finished fifth, one-half game behind the Cleveland Indians.

Now the club is Jimmie Dykes' to run, and it may have been a sort of a celebration for the manager yesterday when Jim Bunning won his 17th game and Harvey Kuenn wrapped up his first American League batting championship.

Dykes was armed with a contract to manage the club in 1960 when his team took the field. His team trailed 2-0 for two innings, but Kuenn lashed a three-run homer into the upper left field seats and the Tigers never trailed again.

Kuenn also singled in the seventh inning, the two hits giving him 194 safeties for the season and a .357 batting mark.

★ ★ ★

Bunning required help when an aching back forced him out in the sixth inning. He had yielded a run in the first inning and another in the third on Russ Snyder's home run, the 37th roundtripper off the lean righthander this year.

Bunning's back trouble may keep him out of a pitching turn this weekend against the Chicago White Sox. He struck out five batters, raising his league-leading total to 201.

Bunning, who has lost 13 times, had a hand in the Tiger scoring. His infield single started the third inning splurge, and he singled home Ted Lepcio, who had doubled in the fourth.

Al Kaline tripled and scored in the fifth. Lepcio's second double, followed by Eddie Yost's single, produced Detroit's final run in the sixth inning. The loss was charged to rookie Ken Johnson, making his first major league start. He lasted four innings.

Drop Milwaukee Open

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Open Golf Tournament, a $35,000 feature of the professional circuit for five years, will not be held in 1960, the sponsoring Miller Brewing Co. announced today.

Miller President Norman R. Klug said that the tournaments were undertaken on a five-year basis in 1955 as part of the company's centennial celebration.

Go-Go Chisox Are Really 'Gone'

CHICAGO (AP) — The Go-Go White Sox returned to find their city really gone in the wee hours this morning over Chicago's first American League pennant in 40 years.

Some 15,000 wild-eyed fans waited from before midnight to past 2 a.m. (CDT) at the airport for the return of the victorious Sox from Cleveland. Long before that, sirens had blasted out the news that the White Sox were in the World Series.

Tears of joy glistened in the eyes of both club vice president Chuck Comiskey and Manager Al Lopez as the big four-engined plane, delayed two hours, wheeled into the arclighted setting at the airport.

While the Chicago Fire Department band played and the thousands cheered, the players poured out of the plane to a hilarious greeting. It was almost 4½ hours after the White Sox had won their thrilling pennant-clincher from the Indians, 4-2, in Cleveland.

★ ★ ★

The loudest cheers went to Luis Aparicio, the phenominal little shortstop, who started a game-ending double play; Al Smith, who made a great run-killing throw and hit a homer; and veteran Early Wynn, who got credit for the big win.

First to greet the players were Sox President Bill Veeck and his wife, and Mayor Richard J. Daley. Veeck missed the clincher because of a speaking engagement in Bloomington, Ill.

Little Aparicio, the defensive ace from Caracas, Venezuela, commented just before the plane landed: "This is the best play I never correct make in my life." He was referring to his quick scoop of Vic Power's hot bounder with the bases loaded—his dash across second base—and his sharp relay to first doubling Power.

★ ★ ★

Smith, the former Cleveland Indian who has had his share of boos from fans in both Cleveland and Chicago, kept repeating:

"The magic number now is zero."

Who would start in the World Series for the Sox?

"You can make a good guess," Lopez told sports writers on the victory plane. He winked knowingly when they suggested Wynn or Bob Shaw, his two mound stalwarts all season.

★ ★ ★

Lopez said he could put Coach Tony Cuccinello in charge of the Sox as they play out the season against the Tigers in a three-game set in Detroit this weekend.

★ ★ ★

"I'll stay in Chicago and scout San Francisco against the Cubs today, and either Los Angeles against the Cubs or Philadelphia at Milwaukee this weekend. It depends on how things go in the next few days, whether I'll watch Los Angeles or Milwaukee."

Lopez refused to state what team he preferred to face in the World Series, which begins in Comiskey Park Wednesday, Sept. 30, barring a National League playoff.

American League President Joe Cronin visited the bedlam-filled Sox dressing room after the conquest of Cleveland. So did General Manager Frank Lane of the Indians and field manager Joe Gordon.

"I told Joe Cronin," Lopez smiled, "that we'd like to win this World Series to give him a good start in his first year as league president."

Lane complimented Lopez, saying "you beat the club you had to beat, so you deserved the pennant." Chicago finished with a 15-7 edge over Cleveland.

Comiskey, the last of the clan of "Old Roman" Comiskey still in baseball, beamed proudly as he joined the whooping, shouting players in the dressing room.

Players were pouring beer all over each other and wildly dancing and kissing each other. Jungle Jim Rivera, easily the club's clown prince, did his version of a Russian cossack dance on a rubbing table.

Aboard the plane, Lopez, a man with a nervous stomach, sighed as he slumped joyfully in his seat; "I'm going to sleep for a week."

As Giants Go, So Goes Story of Their Life

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A book about "The San Francisco Giants" came out last season at $2.50 per copy.

By the end of the team's first year here, when they finished third in the National League, the book was selling for $1.

When the 1959 Giants were riding the crest of the National League some stores marked the book back up to $2.50.

Tuesday the Chicago Cubs clipped the Giants 5-4 third place again.

Today the book is marked down to 69 cents.

Braves 1-Up in NL Race

Pizarro Wins Crucial Game at Pittsburgh

Milwaukee Gets Closer to Third Straight Flag With 4 to Play

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Juan Pizarro, a young man who seems to profit by an annual trip to the minors, has pitched the Milwaukee Braves over the hump in the National League race. From now on it will be Bob Buhl, Lou Burdette and Warren Spahn with a one-game lead and four to play.

Manager Fred Haney has his pitching staff in enviable condition for the final four games that will determine whether the Braves are to win a third straight pennant.

Buhl (14-9) goes tonight in the finale with the Pirates. It will be Burdette (21-14), Spahn (20-15) and Buhl in the final three with the Phillies at home in Milwaukee.

★ ★ ★

"This fellow has the potential to be one of the greatest," said Haney of Pizarro. "It is all up to him. Sometimes he fires the ball. Sometimes he lobs it up. Sometimes he can't get it over. Tonight he was firing."

★ ★ ★

Pizarro was farmed out to Whicita in 1957 and again in 1958. This year he spent from June 7 to June 23 with Louisville where he pitched a no-hitter and other low-hit efforts.

★ ★ ★

"Let's face it," said Haney in explanation. "Pizarro can't pitch relief. We had Spahn for a left-hander starter so we sent Pizarro down where he could pitch regularly.

★ ★ ★

"When he came back he pitched great ball for two or three games then got off the beam. He has the stuff to be one of the best. It is all up to him."

Pizarro agreed that the stay in Louisville was a help to him.

Pizarro said he mixes a curve and a screwball with his fast ball that accounted for 318 strikeouts at Jacksonville, Fla., in 1956, his first year.

The Braves eagerly listened to reports of the Los Angeles-St. Louis game. By the time they were dressed and ready to leave the clubhouse, the Dodgers were losing 11-7. They finally lost 11-10, dropping one full game behind Milwaukee.

Stolen Sign May Have Cost Giants Pennant

CHICAGO (AP)—A stolen sign by a veteran and a two-out ninth inning homer by a rookie. That's the story that will haunt the San Francisco Giants this winter.

The Giants were all but eliminated from the National League pennant race yesterday when George Altman crashed a two-run homer to give the Chicago Cubs a 5-4 triumph over the once hopeful Giants.

Altman was at the plate with an 0-1 count on him when Alvin Dark, who had led off with a double, intercepted the Giant catcher's signal and flashed the fast ball sign to Altman. Sam Jones delivered. It was fast, and Altman swung.

The ball traveled high and far into the centerfield bleachers and with it went San Francisco's pennant hopes.

Drop Milwaukee Open

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Open Golf Tournament, a $35,000 feature of the professional circuit for five years, will not be held in 1960, the sponsoring Miller Brewing Co. announced today.

Miller President Norman R. Klug said that the tournaments were undertaken on a five-year basis in 1955 as part of the company's centennial celebration.

One Dramatic Relief Pitch Stops Indians

Staley Rescues Decision for Wynn, 4-2, as Sox' Pennant Famine Ends

By The Associated Press

The White Sox did it.

And they did it like champs, clinching that long awaited American League pennant in their final meeting with the one club that could snatch it from them.

They did it with a 4-2 victory over the second-place Indians at Cleveland last night, hauling in Chicago's first AL flag since 1919. And they did it not with their magic singles, but with power—a pair of scoring doubles by Luis Aparicio and Billy Goodman, and successive sixth-inning home runs by Al Smith and Jim Rivera.

And they did it with pitching and defense. Early Wynn, the Old Man the Injuns didn't want, won his 21st, getting relief help from young Bob Shaw, the right-hander Detroit didn't want, and Gerry Staley, the reliever nobody wanted.

Staley, like Wynn a 39-year-old right-hander, wrapped it up. He made his 65th trip from the bullpen in the ninth inning with one out and the bases loaded. With one pitch it was all over.

Vic Power swung at that first pitch of Staley's, Aparicio gobbled it up at short, stepped on second and threw to first for the Sox' fourth double play, the double play that ended 40 years of waiting.

The end was so sudden the White Sox seemed startled. It took them a second to realize they had it. Then they knew, and they swarmed all over each other with 54,293 mourners looking on in Cleveland's massive mortuary for dead Injuns.

The victory gave the White Sox a 4½-game lead over the Indians, who have but four games to play. The Sox have three left—before playing the opening game of the World Series in Chicago's Comiskey Park a week from today.

In the National League Milwaukee's surging Braves, driving for a date with the Sox and a third straight flag, jumped into a one-game lead with a 5-3 victory at Pittsburgh. Los Angeles tumbled out of a first place tie with an 11-10 loss at St. Louis. And third place San Francisco plunged two games behind, losing 5-4 to the Cubs at Chicago. Each of the contenders has four games left.

★ ★ ★

The White Sox, who had lost two in a row as their pennant push sputtered, whipped the Indians 15-7 for the season. This one climaxed a drive that began with a four-game sweep at Cleveland in late August. They won nine of the 11 games they played at the Indians' park.

★ ★ ★

Wynn, claiming his 270th career victory and tying Burleigh Grimes for 15th place on the all-time winners' list, made it 10 out of 11 against the Indians since they bundled him off to the White Sox with Smith two years ago for Minnie Minoso and Fred Hatfield. The Old Man looked like a master in this one before weakening in the fifth. Still, he became the fourth pitcher and first right-hander to beat the Indians six times in one season over the past 25 years.

★ ★ ★

He had the Indians blanked on four hits until the fifth, working out of a two-on, none-out jam in the second inning. He did it by getting Rocky Colavito on a fly to left, where Smith put it away and threw home to nail Minoso, trying to score from third. Woody Held then fouled out.

A walk and two singles gave the Indians a run in the fifth, which ended with Power hitting into a double play. Manager Al Lopez then replaced Wynn with Shaw when two singles and Colavito's sacrifice fly gave the Injuns their other run in the sixth.

Cardinal 'Spoilers' Hold Dodgers' Fate

LA Belted Out of NL Tie

ST. LOUIS (AP)— Los Angeles faces the prospect tonight of winning — or else — against a team that served as pall bearers for the Milwaukee Braves here three years ago while the Dodgers were winning the pennant.

This time, the Braves are riding atop the National League, one game ahead of the Dodgers, with just four to play. And the Braves won't call again at Busch Stadium, home of the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Cards, all but assured of a seventh place finish this season, blew L. A. out of a tie for the lead last night with an 11-10 victory.

"We threw everything we had at them," said Redbird Manager Solly Hemus, still smarting from his eighth ejection of the season, "and that's the way it'll be the rest of the way. My club is ready to cut loose."

Miller, a cocky bonus baby, beat the Dodgers the last time he faced them. His overall record is 4-2 and his earned run average a tidy 3.05.

If Miller gets into trouble, Hemus will come right back with Larry Jackson, who gave up four singles and a walk to the first five Dodgers he faced last night and then was yanked.

Dodger Manager Walter Alston, who was philosophical about the loss that dumped his club into second place, will use Roger Craig (9-5) and 2.27 ERA.

"We'll go with the same lineup that started last night," said Alston, "and everybody else if we need them."

"There's going to be days like this," said Alston, referring to the weird series opener. "It was one of those games where we just couldn't get them out.

"We'll just have to win all we can," he said. "That's all anybody can do."

Then Alston, whose club had won four straight before running into the Redbirds, looked up at the writers surrounding him and said: "I don't think Milwaukee can go straight through without losing one."

"They might, though," he added.

If they do—it'll be all over no matter what the Dodgers and the third place Giants do. San Francisco is two games behind.

Cellar Certain for Nats After Loss to Yankees

By The Associated Press

The Washington Senators missed an opportunity to escape from last place in the American League Tuesday night as they dropped an 8-4 decision to the New York Yankees.

Art Ditmar restricted the Senators to six hits in pitching his 13th victory, a season high for him in the majors. The Senators remained a half-game behind seventh place Kansas City, which lost to Detroit 6-4.

In topping his 12-win seasons of 1955 and 1956 at Kansas City, Ditmar helped his cause with a single and double. He scored twice, knocked in a run and stole a base.

The Senators made it easy for the Yankees with five errors.

Pete Runnels made a diving stab of a smash by Jerry Adair Tuesday night to cut off a Baltimore rally and preserve Boston's 4-3 decision over the Orioles.

Runnels' defensive gem came in the eighth inning when the Orioles loaded the bases with two out. Adair lashed a sharp ground ball toward right field. Runnels left his feet in a dive, speared the ball and threw him out.

Runnels scored what proved to be the winning run as the Red Sox broke a 3-3 tie in the seventh. He greeted reliever Hal Brown with a triple to deep center, then scored on Dick Gernert's single.

The Philadelphia Phillies banged out a total of 20 hits in defeating the Cincinnati Reds 3-1 and 3-2 in a twinight doubleheader Tuesday night.

The Phils collected 12 hits in the opener and eight in the nightcap as they knocked the Reds out of fifth place. As a result of the double loss, the Chicago Cubs, who beat San Francisco in a day game, took over fifth place.

Trailing 2-0 in the fifth inning of the second game, the Phils got one tally on successive doubles by winner Humberto Robinson (2-4) and Solly Drake.

Sparky Anderson tripled to open the seventh and Richie Ashburn, batting for cacher Joe Lonnett, drew a walk. Anderson scored on Drake's grounder to second, as Johnny Temple missed the throw to the plate. Ed Bouchee singled Ashburn home, and Wally Post struck out to end the inning.

Vada Pinson's 20th homer after Temple's triple accounted for the Reds' two runs in the fourth inning. Bob Purkey (12-18) was the Reds' starter and loser.

Prep Golfer Aces Indianwood's 5th

Buzz Lewis, a member of the Birmingham Seaholm High School golf team which won the annual Pontiac Press Invitational tourney last May, is still knocking the ball in the hole—and yesterday he did it with his tee shot.

Lewis, now a senior at Seaholm, rifled a hole-in-one on the tough 215-yard 5th hole at Indianwood Country Club. Buzz fired a 3-wood shot into the cup for the 1st ace on that hole this year and the 3rd of the season at Indianwood.

College Football

by "RED" BLAIK

When I was an assistant coach under Biff Jones at Army 31 years ago, he sent me down to Dallas to scout Southern Methodist. Southwest Conference football had made great strides, yet the East, which can be as insular as any other section, hadn't heard much about the SWC teams and was inclined to underrate them.

I returned to West Point and advised Biff we were going to be in for one heck of a game with Southern Methodist. Some of the other assistants believed I was spreading the usual scouting "wolf" story. On the whole, however, they took me seriously—Biff certainly did, anyhow—and it was a good thing. We got the scare of our lives from the Mustangs and were very content to end up ahead, 14-13.

I remember SMU had a back named Redman Hume, who admitted he was a fine player and proved it. I also recall that a Col. Frank McJunkin was among the rooters who accompanied the Mustangs (Peruna was there, too, and the jazz band) to picturesque Michie Stadium. At half-time, Col. McJunkin went on the loud speaker and invited the entire Cadet Corps, including the plebes, to come down to Texas as his guests. This warm, expansive gesture was appreciated, although we were unable to accept.

It was to be 30 years, in fact, before Army, which is continually approached for games by schools in all areas, was able to arrange a football visit to Texas. We went down to Houston last fall and received a typically warm Texas reception, friendshipwise, weatherwise and footballwise from Jess Neely's fine Rice team. Once again, Army got a first-class scare and was glad to escape with a last-ditch 14-7 victory.

ANOTHER EXCITING RACE

For a long time now, the Southwest Conference has rated up with the best, as its inter-sectional exploits attest. Texas is one of the most prolific high school feeding grounds in America. The boys are tall, rangy, fast, whipcord tough, serious and spirited. And there are enough of them to supply not only the SWC and Border Conferences but to help Oklahoma put together its remarkable records.

This year, my reports reveal, the SWC will stage its usual exciting, unpredictable race. I give a slight edge to Southern Methodist. I believe that if quarterback Don Meredith can escape injuries, which dogged him the last two years, the Mustangs will not only win the league crown but will finish high nationally.

There is no doubt Meredith has a chance to rate up with Texas Christian's Sammy Baugh and Davey O'Brien, generally called the best of all the great passers who have decorated SWC history.

The Mustangs, however, will get a hard scrap all the way, especially from TCU and Texas. Coach Abe Martin almost invariably has TCU in the title fight. With players like fullback Jack Spikes, halfback Marv Lasater and tackle Don Floyd, they'll again be hard to handle. At Texas, Darrell Royal has been building steadily and now has more backfield speed to support halfback Rene Ramirez, top ends in Maurice Doke and Monte Lee and a promising line led by guard Bob Harwerth.

Just below the top three, I'd rate Rice and Arkansas and then Texas A. & M and Baylor. Jim Myers of the Aggies, and John Bridgers, former Baltimore Colts assistant who has taken over Baylor, are in rebuilding phases.

Sophomores Take Spotlight for MSU

At Least 15 Slated to Go Against A&M

Ballman Leads Soph Pack With Starting Halfback Job

EAST LANSING (AP)—At least 15 sophomores will see their first action when Michigan State opens its football season against Texas A & M here Saturday.

That many newcomers have won positions on the first offensive and defensive units and the reserve outfit scheduled to go both ways in a relief role.

"No Big Ten team has ever gone very far without some blue chip sophomores," said Coach Duffy Daugherty. "We have to figure on them to contribute a lot this year."

Running first at the spot is Gary Ballman, the 6-1, 200-pounder from East Detroit, regarded as the most promising yearling. Coaches already are comparing Ballman to Walt Kowalczyk, the "sprinting blacksmith" who also starred as a sophomore.

Don Stewart, a 190-pounder from Muskegon, is first string at the position on defense. Larry Hudas, 6-4, 200-pounder from Detroit, holds down the spot on the third team.

John Sharp, from Flint Northern, a go-all-the-way-type sprinter, is on the utility unit at right half. Carl Charon, chunky fullback from Boyne City, has been ripping off good yardage in the workouts and is another relief team regular.

Leroy Loudermilk, from Wilkinsburg, Pa., moved up to quarterback the alternate team as all the signal callers advanced a slot with the injury to Dean Look.

Ed McLucas, 215-pounder from Newark, N.J., is No. 1 offensive left tackle. Jim Corgiat, 195-pounder from Bessemer, plays right end on the defensive unit.

Art Brandstatter, 210-pounder from East Lansing, is right end with the relief unit and has been assigned the extra point and field goal duty. Wayne Fontes, 180-pounder from Canton, Ohio, is second in the lineup of defensive quarterbacks.

Britain Names 3 Players for Ryder Cup Team

LONDON (AP) — Two veterans and a newcomer were named Tuesday to complete Britain's Ryder Cup golf team that will defend the trophy against U.S. professionals at Palm Desert, Calif., Nov. 6-7.

Bousfield has been on the Ryder Cup squad four times since 1949. Brown is unbeaten in three Ryder Cup matches.

Thomas never has played in the Ryder Cup before. He is a big, strong player and he has made frequent trips to the United States.

Bears Trade Tackle

CHICAGO (AP) — Owner-coach George Halas of the Chicago Bears announced the trade of rookie tackle Gerald De Lucca, 23, to the Philadelphia Eagles for a draft choice yesterday. De Lucca, a 6 feet 2½, 248-pounder, played three years for the University of Tennessee and one year for Middle Tennessee State.

All-Star Pin Points

THINK IT OUT IN STANCE
By ED LUBANSKI

The mechanics of the stance are simple.

It's just another word for standing. Keep the weight equally distributed, the feet together with the left slightly ahead of the right, elbows close to the sides.

That's fundamental, but there's one thing you have time for here, so take advantage of it. Concentrate on what you're going to do.

The right foot moves first if you use a four-step delivery—and this is the delivery I'd have any normal bowler use.

But think of what you're going to do with that foot. You're going to dance with it, not take a step. You don't walk up to a line, you shuffle up to it. Get yourself prepared for a gliding movement of the foot. The moment you lift it off the floor, good-by balance.

If you have your foot ready to react properly—and you're conscious of the pushaway—you have a good start to higher scores.

If you do this the foot will come off the floor and the pushaway will be wrecked.

Return 'Heavy' Bout in Philly?

Informant Claims Yes if Promotional Group Passes Investigation

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The return heavyweight fight between champion Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson will be staged in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium next June 7, providing two conditions are met, the Associated Press learned today.

A reliable source close to the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission said that "according to Vincent Vellela we'll get the fight." Vellela is a dierctor of Rosensohn Enterprises Inc., which was associated in the promotion of last June's match when Johansson dethroned Patterson.

But the source, who did not want to be identified by name, made it quite clear that Philadelphia would take the fight only if:

Dearborn 9 Winner of Amateur Tourney

BATTLE CREEK (UPI) — Dearborn, Cinderella team, won the American Amateur Baseball Congress championship yesterday by defeating San Antonio, Tex., 4-3.

Dearborn players went into the tournament here with borrowed uniforms and lost the first games of both the Eastern division and National playoffs, but they came out of the tourney victors.

The un-sponsored Dearborn squad scored the winning run in the seventh when San Antonio shortstop Billy Holden threw the ball away.

Dearborn pitcher Craig Van Schiever pitched four hitless innings but had to have help in the fifth when the Texas nine scored two runs. Reliefer Mike Yuskowatz pulled it out of the fire for Dearborn and went on to toss hitless ball for the remaining innings.

Double Eagle Wins Tourney at Davisburg

Jim Seltzer of Flint, former Michigan Publinx golf champion, unloaded a spectacluar double eagle on the 9th hole to bring him and partner Val Bleech a one-stroke victory in Davisburg Golf Club's annual best ball tournament.

★ ★ ★

Seltzer rifled a 240-yard 3-wood shot onto the green and into the cup for a deuce on the par five hole to give him and Bleech, also from Flint, a winning best ball total of 63. Bleech eagled the same hole for a dazzling team finish.

★ ★ ★

The double eagle two climaxed a sensational round for Seltzer, ex-Flint Central golf coach. Seltzer eagled the 4th hole and No. 6 twice. He and Bleech were next to last in the field of 38 teams.

★ ★ ★

Another Flint tandem, 20-year-old Gene Hunt and Charles Johnson, gained 2nd place with 64. Hunt is the current State Publinx champ. Roy Cullenbine of Detroit and Al Krol of Mt. Clemens finished 3rd with 65.

Fair Wins Memorial Race

Fair crossed the finish line of the 50 lap event with Nelson Ward of of Hasting and Mickey Katlin of Battle Creek, Gordon Johncock Howell close behind in the 36-car field, the largest of the season.

Timmy Kelly, son of the former Pontiac driver who was killed at the Toledo Raceway a year ago, made the trophy presentation to Fair.

Preliminary events were won by Wayne Landon of Hastings, Johnny Wallace of Madison Heights, Erv Baumgarten of Mt. Clemens, Leon Blanchura of Pontiac and Ward.

Glen Woodhall of Pontiac electrified the crowd when he crashed through the first turn fence into the parking area. He was not injured.

FBI Arrests Five Boxing Figures in Big Crackdown

Truman Gibson Held With Men of Underworld

10-Count Indictments Face Notorious Bosses of Fight Game

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Frankie Carbo, notorious underworld boss of boxing, and Truman K. Gibson, Jr., the fight game's top promoter, are under FBI arrest today, along with three other boxing figures, in an unprecedented federal crackdown on prizefight corruption.

They are charged with trying to "muscle in" on the earnings and career of welterweight champion Don Jordan with threats of violence in the 10-count indictments against each.

Others arrested in the FBI round-up were Frank (Blinky) Palermo, well known Philadelphia boxing manager; Joseph Sica, a Los Angeles sports promoter; and Louis Tom Dragna, described as a West Covina (Calif.) bookmaker.

In addition, William Daly, fight manager of Englewood, N. J., was named as a co-conspirator but not as a defendant.

If the five indicted are found guilty they face long prison terms or heavy fines, or both.

Announcing the arrests last night, the justice department said the round-up was part of a drive against underworld infiltration into the sport.

The indictments were handed down by a federal grand jury at Los Angeles yesterday.

Fifty-five-year-old Carbo, whose hoodlum career since the age of 11 has been highlighted by three murder charges and one manslaughter conviction, was arrested in his room at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore. Acquaintances say he is being treated for diabetes. He will be arraigned in his room late today.

Forty-seven-year-old Gibson, president of National Boxing Enterprises, Inc. and former president of the government-busted International Boxing Club monopoly, was arrested at his home in Chicago. Gibson is a long-time associate of millionaire Jim Norris.

The other three were arrested at or near their homes.

The indictments charge that the five defendants threatened physical harm and violence against Donald Paul Nesseth of Covina, Calif.; manager of welterweight champion Jordan. Also threatened was Jackie Leonard, a Los Angeles fight promoter, who refused to cooperate in the alleged muscling-in.

The grand jury charged that the defendants not only tried to cut in on Jordan's ring earnings but also to gain control of his career as undercover managers.

PCH, PNH Gridders Go on Road Friday Night

Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern, both off to a winning start, try their luck again Friday night to headline a high school football schedule crowded with standout attractions.

Central, a 31-6 winner over Waterford last Friday night in the 1959 season opener at Wisner Stadium, invades Wyandotte to battle a team which frequently has been nothing but trouble.

Northern, a 13-0 victor over Lake Orion last Friday in the first grid contest in the school's history, clashes with Hazel Park of the Eastern Michigan League on the Parker field.

Both Pontiac opponents took it on the chin in their opening games. The Dottes were rudely upset by Trenton, 12-6, while the Parkers absorbed a 33-20 thumping from Fitzgerald after leading at the half.

Numerous other outstanding contests are on the docket Friday as the young season swings into its second week.

One of the most important games on the slate will take place at Birmingham where Seaholm, favored to win the Eastern Michigan League title, collides with Royal Oak Kimball in the conference opener for each school.

Kimball is expected to be the Maples' toughest contender for the crown and this game amounts to being an early season showdown.

Defending champion Northville, once more the Wayne-Oakland favorite, goes to Holly for an important league opener. West Bloomfield, also holding title ambitions, entertains Clarenceville while Milford visits Clarkston and Bloomfield Hills plays host to Brighton.

The Oakland B slate lists Lake Orion at Madison, defending champion Avondale at Troy in a crucial outing and Fitzgerald at Clawson.

The No. 1 game in the South Central loop pits Oxford against North Branch on the latter's gridiron and defending champ Imlay City visits Ortonville. In the Southern Thumb, Almont is host to Dryden in the top encounter with Armada at Capac, Anchor Bay at Brown City and Memphis at New Haven.

A handful of attractive non-conference tussles is highlighted by Farmington's scrap with Rochester at Rochester. Others include Waterford at Lapeer, Howell at Walled Lake, Southfield at Ferndale, Berkley at Royal Oak Dondero and Lake Shore at Romeo.

Rams and Browns Favored in Other NFL Openers

Lions Underdogs to Colts

By United Press International

The Baltimore Colts, defending National Football League champions, are 9½-point favorites to defeat the Detroit Lions Sunday when they begin defense of the Western Division title in the Maryland city.

The New York Giants, defending Eastern Division champions, are 3-point underdogs for their season opener with the Rams in the Los Angeles Coliseum Saturday night.

The Cleveland Browns also begin their campaign Saturday night. Coach Paul Brown's Cleveland club, which has won Eastern honors seven times in nine seasons since entering the league, is a 3-point choice to down the Steelers at Pittsburgh.

The Chicago Bears, Chicago Cardinals and San Francisco Forty-Niners are favored in Sunday's other openers. The Bears are favored over the Packers at Green Bay by 6½ points. The Cardinals are favored over the Washington Redskins by four at Chicago. The Forty-Niners are 2-point choices for their game with the Philadelphia Eagles at San Francisco.

The Rams-Giants game Saturday night will be nationally televised (CBS) at 11:15 p.m., EDT.

This class will pit the Los Angeles offensive unit, probably the league's fastest, against a New York defense that allowed fewer points than any other NFL club last season. Sam Huff, New York's all-league center linebacker, was injured in the club's final preseason game and may not be in top shape.

Several other outstanding players may miss the openers or compete at less than top physical condition because of training season injuries.

Jimmy Orr and Jack McLairen, Pittsburgh's No. 1 offensive ends, are nursing leg injuries. Jack Butler, Pittsburgh's all-league defense back, has a sprained ankle. Mike McCormack, Cleveland's captain and offensive right tackle, is recovering from a knee injury.

The Forty-Niners have lost halfback Jim Pace for the entire National Football League season. He was placed on the injured reserve list yesterday.

Doctors said the former Michigan All-America, counted on for regular service, must undergo surgery for a torn cartilage in his right knee.

★ ★ ★

Pace injured the knee when he made a quick turn while running out for a pass in a non-contact drill last week.

The Detroit Lions got down to their 36-player limit Tuesday when they released end Perry Richards. The former University of Detroit player got into three games with the Lions last season.

In County Grid Scoring Race

Christian Opening Leader

His closest competitor thus far, Herb Harris of Avondale, trails by six. The glue-fingered end tallied 19 1st time out.

Jim Kennedy of St. Frederick and hustling Joe Krause of Bloomfield Hills complete the list of area gridders with three touchdowns. Each has an even 18 points.

Kennedy is figured a strong threat to give the Rams a repeat champion in scoring since Jack Lyon took the honors in 1958. He is a versatile quarterback.

Conserve Lives; Use Guns Carefully

By The Press Outdoors Editor

The shorter days are here again, and the air is taking on some of that invigorating tang of autumn that presages the beginning of hunting seasons.

Michigan's huge army of outdoorsmen is once more itching to get afield with its shotguns and rifles, all of which brings to mind that this week is being observed nationally as Gun Safety Week. It's time again to remind every hunter to be careful afield. It's purpose is plain. As in any other safety move the object is to cut down the fatalities and maimings from unnecessary accidents, and the application of good, old-fashioned common (horse) sense is about the best means of doing it.

Veteran hunters who take pride in their respect for their fine guns, who follow all the accepted rules for safe and full enjoyment of the outdoor sport, point out there are two cardinal precautions, that if followed out would reduce accidents greatly.

Every gun should be looked upon with the respect demanded by a loaded weapon. Equally important — never point a gun at anything you do not intend to shoot.

POINTERS ON WHAT NOT TO DO

"It might be a good idea," our friend, Jack Greathouse, reminded this observer, "to point out that a careful, safe hunter never—not ever, picks up a loaded gun by the muzzle, and never pulls it through a fence (or pushes it through, with muzzle pointing at his stomach."

Hunting alone it's better to lift the gun OVER the fence, barrel up, at a safe distance, and place in safe position on the other side.

Always be sure gun is cased, or broken-down in a car. Be certain it's unloaded until time to use it.

Walking with other hunters be certain to keep gun pointed at safe angle, with respect to your companions. With a rifle always keep the safety on until ready to shoot.

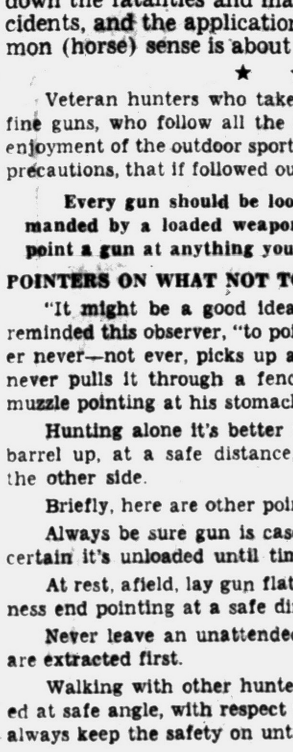

And, among other reminders, be sure of your target. Be certain it's something you want to shoot, BEFORE pulling the trigger. Mistakes yearly cost many lives, so, never shoot at anything you cannot identify instantly as game.

Also at this time there's the question of where to hunt. Using another's lands is a privilege, not an inherent right, and it should be earned by respect, and gratitude, for the owner's rights. See the farmer, first!

WHO SAID FISHING ISN'T GOOD?

DUPLICATES

"I've taken bigger bass in my 21 years of fishing in lakes around Pontiac," Samuel H. Thurber, 303 West Pike reported to this writer. "But I never before had taken at the same time, and in the same spot, a pair of identical fish. They were exactly alike, each being 20½-inches long, four and one-half pounds in weight." Thurber's prizes were taken Tuesday on Bald Eagle Lake, with a big sucker minnow as the lure.

OPEN WESTERN RANGE TESTS RIFLEMAN

Big, jovial Pontiac area outdoorsman Ray R. Soncrant for years had longed to try antelope hunting on the western mountain foothills. And when he resolved his longings recently, he found the thrills even greater than the anticipation.

"I've hunted Michigan deer for years," says Ray. "But I never experienced a thrill like taking a fast-moving antelope, or huge mule deer. Those open western (Wyoming) range antelope offer a real test for the rifleman, who doesn't shoot from 100 to 200 yards as in Michigan, but has to down his prize at anywhere from 300 to 500 yards.

Brief Pictorial Lesson in Gun Safety

All Photos by H. Guy Moats

GUN CASE IN CAR — Proper and lawful way to transport hunting firearms. They must be unloaded, of course. (Jack Greathouse, Drayton Plains, is the demonstrator.)

GUN UNLOADED — The right way.

OVER THE FENCE — Correct way to lift gun over obstruction.

DOUBLY WRONG — Pulling a gun from a car, or any place, by the muzzle is dangerous and a loaded gun may not lawfully be transported in an automobile —both are wrong.

You're the Skipper

By JOHN BOHANNAN
Syndicated Boating Writer

How can a boat sail against the wind? This seemingly impossible feat is accomplished by trimming the sheets so the breeze passes across the sails at an acute angle while heading the boat about 45 degrees from the direction of the wind.

The sails are struck a glancing blow by the moving air. The keel (or centerboard, as the case may be) prevents the hull from slipping sideways, and it moves forward instead.

By a series of tacks, in which the wind is taken on first one side and then the other, the zig zag of courses averages out as progress directly to windward.

To make the greatest effective speed to weather calls for an extreme amount of skill. No man has ever been a perfect racing skipper. As in playing a violin, perfection can only be approached, never attained.

On the other hand, if you sail far enough off the wind to reach maximum speed through the water, you'll sail too great a distance to reach the weather mark and again you'll be the loser.

There is an angle somewhere between these two extremes which is most effective, and it is the ability to come closest to this ideal angle that makes a great racing skipper.

How can you find this angle? Try sailing as close to the wind as possible, using only the finger tips to hold the tiller. The boat feels sluggish, unresponsive.

The boat has come to life and she's moving fast, but she's too far off wind.

Now head up until there is only a slight reduction in the lively feel of the helm and you'll be coming close to the best angle of sailing to windward.

Obedience Pre-Class Programs Nearing End

Tonight's demonstration at CAI building, Waterford, and that at Rochester's Woodward School, Sept. 30 will wind them up.

Four-Day Trial and Bench Show for Fox Hunters

There'll be hound-music aplenty, come the weekend of Oct. 1-4, when Michigan Fox Hunters Assn. convenes at Lapeer Sportsmen's Club on Lake George road.

The association has set up its annual fall field trial and bench show with hound entries being taken at 7 p.m. Oct. 1. First dogs will be cast at 5:30 a.m. Oct. 2.

Derby and all-age hounds will be run together, but be scored separately. Trophies and ribbons go to top 10 hounds in each class.

A children's pet dog show takes place at 7 p.m. Oct. 2, and at 7 p.m. Oct. 3. Mort Neff will be the speaker along with conservation department men. Art Law of Pontiac will discuss the bounty system. Bench show for hounds will follow, at 8:30 p.m.

Sharks on Increase

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP) — The Virginia Fisheries Laboratory thinks a dry period, which increased salinity, followed by northeast winds was responsible for a marked increase in sharks in Cheaspeake Bay this year.

It has advised swimmers to stay out of water where the sharks have been seen. No attacks on swimmers have occurred although many large sharks have been seen and captured.

MBH Event at Midland on Weekend

Annual Silhouette Shoot

The 1959 archery deer season gets its official sendoff in Midland Sept. 26-27 when the Michigan Bow Hunters hold their 10th annual silhouette shoot.

Hundreds of bowmen from all parts of the state — plus some outstaters — are expected for the big two-day event, at which archers will use their hunting bows and broadheads on lifelike cutouts of deer and black bear.

Hosts are the Mid-Michee Bowmen of Midland. The club's 28-target sand-backed broadhead range duplicates the same wild forest conditions bow hunters will face when their season opens Oct. 1.

Large camping and picnic facilities are being readied at the west of Midland just off M-20. Special events — including a 28-target animal round with field arrows and a Michigan Bow Hunter sponsored dance Saturday night — are planned.

Tight Money Hits Your Pocketbook

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Tight money is moving off the debating platform. It's getting to be an everyday fact of life.

If you want to buy a new home, you know about it. If you're looking for a new car on time payments, you're likely to find carrying charges a bit higher. If you want an installment loan from your bank to buy a new appliance or redecorate your house, it costs more—and your credit standing is examined more closely.

★ ★ ★

If you're a businessman needing a bank loan to carry inventories for the Christmas trade, you'll run into higher interest charges—and maybe find the banker more choosy about to whom he lends, as he has only so much money to parcel out.

Tight money is being blamed for everything from postponement of home town improvements to the break in the stock market.

PLENTY OF DEBT

Banks and other lenders say too many persons — including Uncle Sam—are wanting to borrow more money just now. Americans aren't saving as much of their incomes as before. So the lenders don't have enough funds to meet the increased demand. Thus money is tight and interest rates rising.

About the only things now going for less than 5 per cent interest are the shortest-term Treasury securities. They are commanding about 4 per cent, higher than any time since the bank holiday in 1933.

Part of the squeeze is purely seasonal. Part is intentional upon the part of the money managers —the part you've been hearing all the debate about. The money managers say easier money might set off a speculative boom and further depreciate the dollar.

Tightening of money comes at this time of the year because banks are called upon to finance movement of crops from farms and through processing plants, and because manufacturers borrow to produce fall and winter goods, and merchants borrow to buy and carry these goods until the Christmas trade—they hope—empties their shelves again.

CREDIT EASED

The Federal Reserve Board has eased up on credit just enough to give banks lendable funds for what it considers necessary for these legitimate seasonal needs, but no more, holding that more than that would only set off a speculative boom, breeding place for higher prices.

★ ★ ★

The board's fear of another round of inflation is based on several things: The general belief that the end of the steel strike will see a quick spurt in business activity; continuing wage hikes in other industries than steel; steadily rising installment debt; slow but steady increases in consumer prices; and the increased demand for bank loans.

After Christmas, the demand for funds usually drops, both from business and from individuals busy paying off incurred debts. This could ease the credit squeeze automatically—unless a big boom is under way.

Airline Unions Plan Common Strike Pact

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Airline unions are making common strike plans to match an airline industry pact to pool profits during walkouts.

★ ★ ★

Six airline unions have decided to let their contracts drift to a common expiration point to bring industrywide pressure on the carriers. This is designed to counter a plan put into effect by major airlines last fall to pool profits when any one of them is strikebound.

The agreement among the AFL-CIO airline unions also has the effect of further isolating the expelled Teamsters Union.

★ ★ ★

James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union which was ousted by the AFL-CIO two years ago on corruption charges, has tried to draw both the ILA and the airline unions into a nation wide transport alliance.

Brig. Gen. Kennedy Due to Command State Unit

LANSING (AP) — Brig. Gen. Cecil J. Kennedy is expected to be placed in temporary command of the 46th infantry division in the absence from the state of the division commander, Maj. Gen. Gordon A. MacDonald.

An aide to Gov. Williams said Kennedy, assistant division commander, will be moved up by order when MacDonald, who will retire later this year, leaves for Oklahoma soon on business.

Kennedy has figured in speculation on a successor to MacDonald as commanding general when the latter steps out.

Convention Trips Prizes for Dem Fund Raisers

LANSING (AP) — Six Democratic fund-raisers will win round trip plane tickets to the party's 1960 convention in Los Angeles plus reserved tickets for the convention.

★ ★ ★

Democratis will stage a 10-day drive for funds from Sept. 2 through Oct. 4. Winners will be chosen by lot from among volunteers who report contributions from 10 or more party supporters.

Stocks Showing Steady Rally

Brokers said the market was entitled to a rebound after four straight days of decline. They noted that late yesterday a recovery move was under way and that this greatly cut that day's losses.

Ford rose more than a point while General Motors, Chrysler and American Motors gained fractions. Up about a point each were U.S. Steel, Republic Steel and Jones & Laughlin.

Find 9-Year-Old Girl Raped, Dead in River

MARION, Ind. (UPI)—A nine-year-old girl who failed to return home from a grocery where she bought some candy, was found dead in the Mississinewa River today and authorities said there were "definite signs she was raped."

State Police broadcast an alarm for a tattooed suspect believed hitchhiking from here to St. Louis. They said he was carrying a brown zipper suitcase.

The blood-covered body of Linda Ebroth was found by two city detectives in the river, about two miles from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Sprong.

Authorities said they believed her death was caused by strangulation.

Grain Prices Hold Steady

CHICAGO (AP)—Prices in the grain futures market were steady to firm all along the line today in fairly active early dealings on the Board of Trade.

Most advances were in minor fractions but rye was up as much as a cent during the first several minutes and soybeans up almost a cent on the nearby months.

The buying appeared to be led by commission houses with cash dealers active corn buyers on processor accounts. The firmness in soybeans was linked with reports that as the harvest approaches its peak offerings of the new crop into commercial channels have declined somewhat.

After about an hour wheat was ⅛ cent a bushel higher to ⅛ lower, December $1.94⅜; corn ¼ to ½ higher, December $1.09¾; oats unchanged to ⅛ higher, December 69⅜; rye ⅜ to ¾ higher, December $1.31⅜; soybeans ½ to ¾ higher, November $2.09⅝.

Nikita Spends 'Jovial Day' in Iowa's Corn Country

COON RAPIDS, Iowa (AP)—Nikita S. Khrushchev, tired but happy-looking, arrived in the heart of Iowa's tall corn country today and announced: "This is going to be a jovial day."

Swarms of Army, Air Force, police and other security people stood guard all over the farm of Roswell (Bob) Garst while feverish preparations proceeded for a bountiful luncheon under a huge brown tent in the farmyard.

Thousands of persons, including school children, had lined the route along Highway 141 from Des Moines toward Coon Rapids. The children waved and cheered for the broadly beaming Communist boss.

The Soviet Premier gave no sign that he noticed a gray-haired woman standing among the crowds holding a small American flag draped in black.

SHOWS KEEN INTEREST

En route the Khrushchev party stopped at one of the several Garst farms along the highway, where workers were busily harvesting a crop of grain sorghum.

Khrushchev showed keen interest in the proceedings. He tramped through the field with his host, asking Garst all sorts of questions about the crop and the machinery used to harvest it.

Khrushchev's look of fatigue began to drop away and was replaced by one of eagerness as he questioned Garst about the methods he used to feed hogs and chickens.

★ ★ ★

Security near the Garst home was at least as tight as it was in Washington or any other point on Khrushchev's American tour.

Helmeted soldiers of the Fifth Army were in evidence everywhere, on hilltops, behind fences, in barns, at crossroads.

They kept in touch with one another through portable radio transmitters. Armed guards were on every little bridge along Route 141.

Mr. and Mrs. Garst, Khrushchev's hosts, are old acquaintances. They met him in the Soviet Union several years ago, when Khrushchev was beginning to express a keen interest in American corn-growing techniques.

Although he had displayed signs of fatigue last night at a civic dinner in his honor in Des Moines, the Communist leader still looked forward eagerly to his farm tour.

HAPPY OVER RECEPTION

He was happy over his Des Moines reception, apparently. And as he left his city hotel for today's trip, a crowd of several hundred lined the circular ramp of a parking building across the street, and other crowds stood behind police barricades.

There was a spattering of applause from the crowd as he appeared. The sun was shining brightly, though the weather had turned cool.

A few miles east of Bayard at the intersection of highways 141 and 25 the Khrushchev party turned off to look at a big field of a fairly new Iowa crop, hybrid grain sorghum.

Banker Reports His Own Thefts

Dwight Halstead From Mount Clemens Gives Self Up to FBI

DETROIT (AP) — A Mount Clemens bank cashier was charged today with embezzling $33,000 over the last 18 months.

★ ★ ★

Dwight F. Halstead, 33, voluntarily surrendered to the FBI in Detroit yesterday, saying he wanted to give information about bank thefts.

Halstead was assistant cashier at the First National Bank of Mount Clemens, and the FBI quoted him as saying he had taken the money through fictitious loans.

Agents said they had reason to believe more than the $33,000 reported by Halstead might be involved.

Halstead, charged in a federal warrant, was to be arraigned later today before U. S. District Judge Frank A. Picard on an embezzlement count.

Fire in Detroit Building Causes Heavy Damage

DETROIT (UPI) — A stubborn three-alarm fire roared through a Detroit plastics factory and four other business firms late last night causing an estimated quarter of a million dollars in damage.

Fire Marshal Glenn Thom said the blaze was brought under control shortly before midnight.

Thom said the fire began in the Plastomer Comp. at 10640 Cloverdale and spread to the other firms in the same building.

IN PLANT BOUDOIR — Shiny new 1960 Pontiac front bumpers, en route from final rinse to inspection on a rack conveyor, provide an effective mirror for plating plant employe Mrs. Robert R. Miller, 3579 Mark Rd. The new line of Pontiac automobiles will be unveiled to the public on Oct. 1.

Bloomfield Judge Levies Fine

Bars Boater From Lakes

West Bloomfield Township Judge Elmer C. Dieterle fined a Coldwater woman $75 and took her off the lakes for one year in his "campaign to put a stop to the slaughter on the lakes that is mounting each year."

"And," said the judge, "I would have given her a jail sentence if she weren't a woman."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Gibson was ticketed by Deputy Robert Snow of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department Water Patrol. Dieterle said three witnesses who were "provoked by Mrs. Gibson's recklessness" gave testimony at yesterday's trial.

They said she nearly swamped a fisherman, came within 15 feet of a diving raft and zoomed close past a skin diver flag at full speed of approximately 25 miles per hour. Law requires a safe distance of 90 feet from a skin diver flag.

"She said she wasn't a good judge of distance," said Dieterle, "but that she didn't think what she did was so badl."

Dieterle said he is going to "throw the book" at all violators of water safety in the future.

"It is my policy to give all reckless operators of boats on the lakes the maximum penalty, $100 fine and, or, 90 days. All violators can look forward to a jail sentence if they appear in my court," Dieterle said.

Party Losing Flavor?

MANCHESTER, England (UPI) — A Conservative Party rally opened with a rousing tradition of "Does your chewing gum lose its flavor on the bedpost overnight?" An official immediately announced that the song had no political significance.

EDWARD POMPEIAN

Pontiac Amvets Post Installs Officers

Pontiac Board Gets Agreement

Special Classes Action Due

The Pontiac Board of Education will act on a "facility agreement" with the Oakland County Board of Education to provide for special education classes here.

The Pontiac Board meets 8 p.m. tomorrow at its offices, 40 Patterson St.

As it stands drafted at present, the contract requires that the Pontiac school district provide one room for the deaf and hard of hearing in the newly constructed Square Lake School, one room for the blind in the Alcott School, one secondary room for the mentally retarded in the new addition to the Washington Junior High School and one elementary room for the mentally handicapped in the Malkim School.

The County Board will in turn pay the Pontiac school district $71,245 for the development of the four facilities plus expenses for the furnishings and equipment for the four rooms.

Also on the agenda for tomorrow's meeting is a proposal by Vernon L. Schiller, treasurer, to invest a portion of the current tax collection check from the city.

Ford Trucks Range Through 480 Models

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. said today its 1960 line of trucks will be available in 480 models ranging in gross vehicle weight from 4,600 pounds to 51,000 pounds.

Gross combination weights will go as high as 76,000 pounds.

The line includes seven engines, both six-cylinder and V-8 models. Three of the engines, with horsepower from 220 to 270, are new.

NEW FORD PICKUP — This is the F-100 pickup, one of the more than 480 Ford truck models available in the 1960 line. Consumer research showed truck operators intensifying their efforts to offset inflationary-type operational costs, and fuel economy has been increased throughout the line of truck engines, Ford officials said.

Exec's Home Blast Is Laid to Gas Leak

DETROIT (UPI)—Authorities in Grosse Pointe Farms today blamed leaking gas for an explosion which ripped apart the home of Mrs. Thomas E. Millsop, wife of the president of National Steel Corp.

No one was in the home at the time of the explosion yesterday. It was such a violent blast that a man mowing his lawn nearby was almost knocked down.

Ash trays in a home 600 feet from the scene were flipped off a table and Mrs. Millsop's two-story dwelling was "opened up like a doll house."

Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. investigator Don Groendal said he was mystified by the explosion. He said the furnace and hot-water heater were intact and he was unable to pinpoint the cause of the leak.

New Building Completed on West Huron

Valued at $78,000, it is the seventh building in the shopping center he has constructed in that location.

'No Progress,' McDonald Says

Ike and Mitchell Will Confer on Steel Strike Today; Caterpillar Hurt

From Our News Wires

NEW YORK — United Steel Workers president David J. McDonald said today there has been "absolutely no progress" made during almost two weeks of subcommittee bargaining on local issues in the nationwide steel strike.

McDonald said members of the 12 union subcommittees meeting with subcommittees of the nation's largest steel firms accused the industry negotiators of "arrogant adamancy."

McDonald spoke to newsmen as he was going into another joint top level bargaining session with industry negotiators.

In Chicago the Caterpillar Tractor Co. announced yesterday the steel strike was forcing it to lay off 11,500 of its 40,000 employes Oct. 3.

C. A. Woodley, executive vice president of the machinery firm, said that by Oct. 3 the company would be down to a bare minimum of steel supplies.

G.M. Steel Position Serious, Not Critical

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. said today that reports of its difficulties with steel supplies have been slightly exaggerated.

★ ★ ★

General Motors' far-flung divisions have reported scattered layoffs and one plant shutdown —the Ternstedt Division plant at Columbus, Ohio.

But Chevrolet Division said reports that it will begin plant shutdowns on Oct. 1 are so far without foundation.

News in Brief

An instructor, Richard Ayling, reported to Pontiac Police that a classroom was broken into early yesterday at Pontiac Central High School by removing a wood panel off the door and $50 in cash taken from a pried open filing cabinet.

Pontiac Police are investigating the burglary early yesterday of Gerzanic's Grocery, 750 S. Saginaw St. Pending an inventory, nothing has been reported missing as yet.

PUBLIC SALE

At 9:00 a.m. on September 28, 1959, a 1957 Ford Sunliner Conv. Serial No. D7FC151560 will be sold at public sale at 22500 Woodward Ave., Ferndale, Mich., that address being where the vehicle is stored and may be inspected.

Sept. 22, 23, '59.

RESCUE BEACON—This miniature blimp may save the life of some airman. Designed to be released from a downed plane either by the pilot or by the jar of a crash, the helium-filled balloon carries a radio antenna some 50 feet above the ground. For 24 hours it sends out distress signals that can be heard great distances away. It was developed by Crosley Division of Avco Corp.

China's Battles Aid U.S. Move

Blocking U.N. Entry Made Easier by New Aggression Outbreaks

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Diplomats speculated today the United States might have had a hard time getting the U.N. to block the seating of Red China this year had it not been for Peiping's rash of trouble with her neighbors.

★ ★ ★

Even with the widespread violence in Asia and Western charges of Chinese Communist aggression, the United States emerged with its narrowest victory since the issue first came before the Assembly nine years ago.

The 82-nation body Tuesday approved 44-29 with 9 abstentions the U.S. resolution asking it to postpone discussion of proposals to admit the Chinese Reds or eject the Chinese Nationalists.

★ ★ ★

The outcome narrowed the steadily diminishing U.S. victory margin by one more vote as Guinea, the newest U.N. member, joined the many Asian-African members supporting admission of Red China.

Space Engineers Will Be Trained at Oklahoma

NORMAN, Okla. (UPI)—A new breed of men — space engineers — will be trained at the University of Oklahoma.

The OU School of Aeronautical Engineering is setting up its space engineering program in the belief that imagination must be backed up by practical know-how if man is ever to blaze the trail to other planets.

Bruce V. Ketcham, chairman of the school, said the demand for space engineers is increasing as most aircraft companies convert to missile work.

"In another two years more than half of the aeronautical engineering students may be in space work," Ketcham said. "We must start a formal program now to supply the industry's future demands."

Ketcham said his school has facilities to test liquid and solid propellant rockets in its jet propulsion laboratory. It also has a supersonic wind tunnel capable of developing velocities two and a half times the speed of sound.

OU has offered a course in rocket propulsion for the past seven years. This fall a course in space propulsion is being given for the first time.

Vermont Dairymen Find Flies Costly

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP)—Flies are drinking up $750,000 a year in profits that would otherwise be realized by Vermont diarymen.

Dr. George MacCollom of the Vermont Extension Service says the loss comes in wasted feed, lowered production and damaged hides.

"It has been estimated that the draining of blood by large numbers of horse and stable flies can result in loss of more than a third of a cup of milk a day," he says.

★ ★ ★

"Most important of all, however, is that flies cause cattle to lose much valuable grazing time, resulting in less food intake."

Labor Attacks John Kennedy

Scored for New Law; Textile Leader Advises Voting for Liberals

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Labor leaders sharply criticized presidential hopeful John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) while endorsing a resolution to seek out and support liberal candidates of both political parties yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy and other Democrats were charged with being "sunshine soldiers who took our dollar," by Michael J. Quill of the Transport Workers Union.

Joseph Curran, head of the National Maritime Union, called Kennedy "no friend of mine." When Kenneth Kelley of the Massachusetts State Labor Council said his organization was supporting Kennedy for the presidency, Curran answered:

William D. Ducheffi, vice president of the Textile Workers of America, attached the coalition of northern Republicans and southern Democrats which he said was responsible for anti-labor legislation.

"We must no longer concern ourselves with Democrats and Republicans as such," he said. "We should elect liberals of both parties."

Reluctant Bridge Club Accepts Negro Member

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—Alvin Arnold, center of a recent controversy over whether to let Negroes into the Albuquerque Bridge Club, was voted into the organization Tuesday night.

Club President Bill Wolffarth said 23 persons, including Arnold, were approved for membership in balloting by 117 members.

All Ex-Wives Welcome at Sinatra's Apartment

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Perfect host Frank Sinatra had ex-wife Ava Gardner stop off in his N.Y. apartment on her current visit—the same apt. ex-wfie Nancy's also used. Frank's not due till December, but Hollywood-bound Ava, whose lean classic beauty is more striking each visit, will probably see him there and thank him for helping solve the hotel problem.

Groucho then went to a party for Eddie Fisher and Liz Taylor given by Danny Welks. Looking down at shapely Liz, Groucho said, "I'll see you when you get rid of your bodyguard, and"—to Eddie—"if I had a body like that, I'd guard it, too."

Now we can tell that when Mr. K got stuck in that elevator, Waldorf boss Joe Binns, who was also in it, thought, "The saboteurs have got us!" Premier Khrushchev lightened the situation slightly by saying jokingly to the worried Binns, "I have always heard of your great American superiority in Technology." Forced to bend over to get out, Mr. K said, "I don't mind; I got used to this when I was a coal miner."

A Red cap on the K train from Washington to NY, who took care of the coats and hats of more than 40 visiting Russians, told a detective later: "All the tips I got was a quarter and four dimes. I know they're Communists, but man, they tip like Capitalists."

Judy Garland told Alan (Rolls-Royce) King that she lost 24 pounds . . . Gisele MacKenzie opened her smart and talented show at the Waldorf with one lyric, "Tell yourself things couldn't be sweeter, pretend there isn't any Nikita" —and then a tribute to our new state; "April in Fairbanks is so appealing, When you feel your blood congealing."

EARL'S PEARLS: Marriage, says Ima Washout, is another union that defies management.

U.S. Moon Shot Coming Soon

Commands From Earth Would Place Package in Lunar Orbit

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U.S. scientists will try early next month to pilot a 375-pound space package into orbit around the moon with radio commands from the earth.

Apparently it will be the first use of so-called midcourse and terminal guidance in space history. All other space vehicles, including Russia's Lunik II, have relied solely on "initial guidance" to reach their destination.

According to radio Moscow, Lunik II was put on course by guidance mechanisms which operated only as long as its rockets were firing. Then, like an Intercontinental Ballistic Missile (ICBM), it coasted on a long trajectory to its target.

It was fine marksmanship but could not be depended upon for deeper penetrations into space. A spacecraft using initial guidance only would miss Mars or Venus by many thousands of miles.

TEST RADIO GUIDANCE

One purpose of the U.S. moon shoot is to test radio guidance equipment designed to correct the vehicle's course from time to time and then, at the right moment, to direct it into a lunar orbit.

The 375-pound instrument package, it is understood, will contain small rockets which will be aimed and fired by remote radio control.

The package will be launched by an Atlas-Able rocket at Cape Canaveral, Fla., in the early days of October when the moon is in a favorable position.

The Atlas-Abel consists of an Atlas ICBM as the first stage plus second and third stages evolved from the Vanguard rocket.

A COUPLE OF LOVEBIRDS — French actress Brigitte Bardot cuddles with her husband, Jacques Charrier, amid a bevy of youngsters in a Paris theater Sunday where they watched Brigitte's latest film, 'Babette Goes to War.' The Charriers invited the children to see the movie. It is the first time a Bardot film has been passed for exhibition in Paris to children under 16 years of age. This is the movie in which Brigitte and her husband first met.

NBC Jerome Kern Salute Pleasant When Simple

By FRED DANZIG

Take last night's NBC-TV special A Toast to Jerome Kern. The writer-producer, Bob Wells, hired a brigade of singers and dancers to bat out the tunes by Kern for about 90 minutes.

Results: pleasant listening (most of the time) and attractive viewing (most of the time).

My qualified praise is due to lapses such as a raucously uptempo and tasteless version of "yesterdays," the toothy ineptness of host Bob Cummings and some attempts at jokes that were, to say the least, superfluous in a show of this sort.

Highlights were dances by Bambi Linn and her new partner, Kelly Brown, to 'Poor Pierrot" and "All the Things You Are." And an excitingly choreographed "I Won't Dance."

I watched only half of ABC-TV's new hour-long western, Bronco, because I wanted to be on hand for all of the Dennis O'Keefe show on CBS-TV.

(See what TV reviewers go through at this time of year; how we are continually being torn between first one treasure and then another?)

What I saw of Bronco, which stars Ty Hardin, came as a surprise. I'm not referring to my surprise to watching some of the worst acting and directing ever seen on TV, but of the opening scene.

They must figure the laughter is always there — prerecorded, you know — so why waste time dreaming up gags to go with it?

The play is about a newspaper columnist (for realism, he's a jerk and a madcap) and last night he had to escort a teenage girl to night clubs.

O'Keefe matched the fatigued characterizations and dreary dialogue with a comedy style that consisted of bugging his eyes, wrinkling his brow and pursing his lips (sometimes simultaneously).

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Art Carney's appearance in "Our Town" has been advanced to Friday, Nov. 13 on NBC-TV instead of Jan. 8, which means his originally-scheduled November special, "The Man in the Dog Suit," is being postponed indefinitely.

Arthur Godfrey, noting the good reviews his first CBS-TV special received last week, told a New York audience on Tuesday, "You will never again see me on the TV screen unless I've rehearsed, rehearsed, rehearsed. . ."

Court Action Oct. 5 on Use Levy

Lawmakers to Fix Flaw in One Tax, Await Test

LANSING (UPI) — Lawmakers convened today to correct one tax mistake but will have to wait at least until early October to see if they made another.

★ ★ ★

The major portion of Michigan's new tax package, a one-cent hike in the use (sales) tax, faced a test of constitutionality in the state Supreme Court, which yesterday set oral arguments on the matter for Oct. 5.

The Legislature, which started its 145th day of session this afternoon after a six-day recess, indicated before it recessed it would wait for outcome of the court test before deciding on the final amount of a capital outlay program.

Senate Republicans also have insisted on waiting for the Supreme Court to rule on the 120-million-dollar use (sales) tax levy before deciding whether to tap the 50-million-dollar Veterans Trust Fund for stop-gap financing.

Another waiting period was expected on a House-approved plan to boost pay for lawmakers.

But little time was expected to be taken in the Senate on a House-approved measure than would erase a blunder the Legislature made last month in allowing certain business firms double deductions in determining income for tax purposes. The Revenue Department estimated the mistake could cost at least five million dollars in lost tax dollars.

One threat to the tax package that was to ease Michigan's fiscal woes appeared to be ended at least this year.

Sen. Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo) conceded he didn't expect the Legislature would adopt his bill to wipe out the $8,500,000 in new business taxes included in the package.

"GLAD TO BE BACK" — Nicholas Petrulli, 38, who renounced his U.S. citizenship in Russia and then changed his mind, walked from the plane on arriving at Idlewild Airport yesterday. Petrulli, a sheet metal worker from Valley Stream, N. Y., a Long Island suburb of New York City, said he was glad to be back. He obtained a one-way visa to the U.S. from the American Embassy in Moscow. He now plans to enter a hospital for a psychiatric checkup. His lawyer said: "He's still a little mixed up."

Senators Warming Up

Big Show Awaits Voters in 1960 Battle for Ballots

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American voter apparently is going to get the full treatment on everything from the pocketbook issue to foreign policy in the 1960 presidential campaign.

In the warmup phase of next year's contest for the White House, Sens. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) and Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) injected international policy into the battle Tuesday. Both are regarded as available for their party's top nomination in 1960.

Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill) accused an anti-inflation committee headed by Vice President Richard M. Nixon of engaging in propaganda instead of trying to find a cure for rising prices.

Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn), one of President Eisenhower's staunchest supporters, denied this and in turn accused Douglas of bringing politics into a Senate-House committee's inquiry into economic conditions.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa) said "so-called economizers" are letting America fall far behind in meeting the needs of the people for public services. In a speech at Danville, Pa., he proposed moves to expand the economy, close tax loopholes, curb tax evasion and to cut wasteful expenditures.

In a report to constituents, Sen. Hugh Scott (R-Pa) quoted Lord Macaulay that "a government which attempts more than it ought will perform less." Scott said President Eisenhower's vetoes, "a militant Republican minority" in Congress and "the outrage of the American people" had killed Democratic spending programs.

Johnson and Humphrey called for a positive program in the cold war battle with communism. They made it clear they do not think the Eisenhower administration is providing such a program.

Loans of $1,667,675 Okayed for Schools

LANSING (AP)—Borrowings in anticipation of taxes totaling $1,667,675 by 14 school districts were approved yesterday by the state Municipal Finance Commission.

With the signing of the new school aid bill, the state Department of Public Instruction now has assumed responsibility for requests to borrow against state aid.

The department reported more than 200 borrowing applications have been distributed. Requests are expected to start flooding in by the end of the week.

About three-fourths of the total area of Maine is timberland.

Sec. Benson Off for Yugoslavia

Will Also Visit Russia, Poland, Germany and Scandinavia

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson takes off today for a trade and good will trip that will take him into the Soviet Union, Yugoslavia and Poland.

He was to be accompanied by three members of his family, Mrs. Benson and daughters Beverly and Bonnie; four Agriculture Department officials and 10 members of the agricultural press.

★ ★ ★

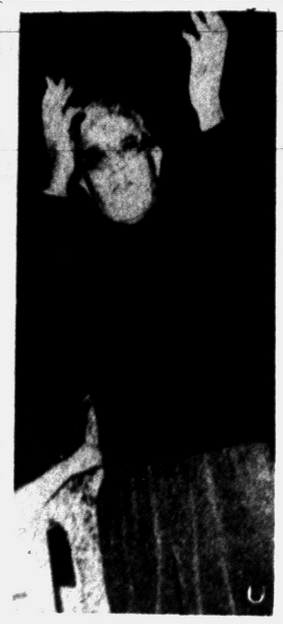

Benson will be the first U.S. official to go to the U.S.S.R. since Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev came to this country.

The first scheduled stop on the air flight was to be Belgrade, Yugoslavia.

Other countries on the schedule included Western Germany, Finland, Sweden and Norway.

The principal purpose of the 16-day trip was to weigh possibilities of selling more U.S. farm products in Europe, although no sales were envisioned within the Soviet Union. The visit there was set mainly to give Benson a view of Soviet agriculture and any progress it is making toward the Soviet goal of matching—and eventually surpassing — U.S. farm production on a per capita basis.

Do Reds Plan to Continue Jamming Voice?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Large-scale U.S. shortwave broadcasts about the Khrushchev visit have produced inconclusive results so far. The benefit to the United States, if any, may not show clearly for a long time.

★ ★ ★

The broadcasts by Voice of America transmitters aimed at the Soviet Union have been accompanied by at least one dramatic ocurrence, the silence of Soviet jammers for the first time in a decade.

★ ★ ★

A more important question is will the Communist radio noisemakers start up again full bast after Premier Nikita Khrushchev leaves America? Or will Soviet listeners have acquired a yen for hearing the U.S. viewpoint which will help melt Moscow's cold war stance?

Four Teenagers Baffle Mr. K's Security Force

DES MOINES (AP)—Four Des Moines teenage school girls slipped through security officers at Hotel Fort Des Moines Tuesday and made their way up 10 flights to the penthouse suite reserved for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

The girls were sent back down on an elevator and in the lobby they met Khrushchev who had just arrived at the hotel. The Premier greeted each girl with a smile and said he was happy to see them.

★ ★ ★

The four were Robin Downey, Barbara Boots, Mary Jo Ferguson and Marge Landwehr. They said they had skipped school to see Khrushchev.

Railroads Talk Pay Cut in Contract Confabs

CHICAGO (UPI) — The nation's railroads began contract negotiations with three unions of operating employes yesterday by proposing a 15-cents-an-hour pay cut. The railroads already made the same proposal to 11 off-train employes unions.

The operating unions are demanding pay raises of 12 per cent and continuation of the cost of living escalator clause.

DeSapio's a Shoo-In to Lead Tammany

NEW YORK (UPI) — Tammany Chief Carmine G. DeSapio was re-elected chairman of the New York County Democratic Committee last night, defeating nominees of two rival factions.

The victory made his re-election tomorrow as chairman of the county organization's executive committee a certainty. This post is the Tammany chieftainship.

The Tammany chief easily defeated Harlem district leader J. Raymond Jones, nominee of Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, and Lloyd K. Garrison, a law partner of Adlai Stevenson.

Garrison was the candidate of a reform group headed by former Sen. Herbert H. Lehman, Thomas K. Finletter and Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

Chicago Cabby Ouster NLRB Hearing Delayed

CHICAGO (UPI) — A National Labor Relations Board hearing trying to oust Joseph (Joey) Glimco from his post as head of the Chicago Taxicab Drivers Union was recessed yesterday until Oct. 6.

Attorneys for both sides and Gerald S. Patterson, the NLRB hearing officer, indicated the recess was arranged to enable opposing sides to have off-the-record discussions before the hearing resumes.
