(This is the second of a two-part series showing how Royal Oak businessmen are redeveloping that city's downtown shopping district to revitalize the area and reverse the trend of decline in shopping downtown.)

BY PETE LOCHBILER

Two financial considerations lie at the heart of the Royal Oak Chamber of Commerce plan to turn downtown Royal Oak into a shopping mall.

The first is that parking should be free to attract as many customers as possible.

The second is that the business district itself, not the whole city, should pay the $2,610,000 construction costs.

CITY HALL SYMPATHETIC

Since public parking and vast changes in the downtown street system are controlled by city government, the chamber turned to City Hall and found a highly sympathetic ear.

With an ever-practical eye carefully watching property tax revenues, city officials realized that a prosperous downtown would result in a prosperous city.

The Royal Oak City Commission gladly gave approval, in principal, to the chamber's Central Business District Redevelopment Plan and a special Mayor's committee of business and professional men was appointed to study it.

The Mayor's committee held conferences with property owners and store building operators last year and with the help of the city administration was able to trim the cost of the project.

It appeared that nearly everyone agreed that the municipal parking should be free, if somehow this could be arranged legally.

"Free parking would, of course, attract a few more shoppers who want to save a nickel," explained Roland Powers, Chamber president.

"But more importantly it would attract a lot more shoppers who don't like to worry about whether their parking meters are about to expire."

"It's no fun to shop when you have to rush around in a hurry in order to get back to your car in time to avoid a parking ticket."

FEEL AT EASE

"It's no fun to get a parking ticket while shopping, either. That makes the shopper feel like a criminal and certainly discourages him from coming back taking a chance on a ticket again."

"We want our shoppers to feel at ease, to have lots of time to browse around, to visit a couple of extra stores if they want, to drop in somewhere for a bite to eat without having to run back to the parking lot first to put another nickel in the meter."

But if the proposed parking system were not to be financed through parking meters, another method had to be found and Royal Oak turned to Lansing for help in the answer.

Sen. Kennedy Says Ike Should Sign Labor Bill

Lacks Many Provisions Thought Necessary by Administration

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) said today he does not see how President Eisenhower could decline to approve the Senate-passed Labor regulation bill.

The bill, passed 90-1 by the Senate Saturday, went through that body without inclusion of several provisions the administration has insisted are needed for effective labor legislation.

Among these are provisions which would limit sharply organizational picketing, ban all secondary boycotts, and let state agencies handle labor cases in which the National Labor Relations Board refuses to take jurisdiction. There is no forum now for handling such cases.

Kennedy, author of the bill, resisted strong efforts in the nine days of Senate floor debate to write all three of these points into the bill. He contended that they either were unworkable or would harm legitimate union interests.

Kennedy said he was confident the measure would be recognized

Buildings Collapse After Blaze

SURVEY RUINS — Firemen look over the still smoldering ruins of buildings destroyed in a pre-dawn fire that roared through downtown Midland yesterday. Fire fighters from neighboring Bay

7 Must Switch Position to Pass Vet Fund Bill

Failure to Act Tonight Could Bring Stoppage of Welfare, Pay Checks

LANSING (AP)—Tension in the Capitol hit its highest pitch in years today as the state skidded toward the brink of financial disaster that would ruin its credit across the nation.

The focus was on 23 senators—18 Republicans and 5 Democrats—who have withheld support from a plan for emergency state treasury relief.

The question was whether the necessary seven would switch their position on cashing veterans trust fund securities when the Legislature returned at 8 p. m.

Action expected tonight was on a motion to reconsider the earlier unfavorable vote. Such a motion would need a majority of those voting in it to carry.

If it succeeded, a second passage roll call could be taken immediately or in a day or two. Unless the bill is reconsidered tonight, it would take 22 votes to revive it.

State Treasurer Sanford Brown has said he will lack funds to make a four-million-dollar payroll payment to counties on Thursday unless the lawmakers do something—tonight or in the next two or three days.

A week from Thursday, the treasury will have to delay a five-million-dollar payroll for 32,000 state employees, he said.

The Democratic organization took off the kid gloves over the weekend in dealing with five Democratic senators who strayed from the party line by opposing the trust fund bill last Thursday.

The State Central Committee called on them to honor the "clear and unequivocal" position taken by the Democratic State Convention in February in favor of trust fund utilization.

Party workers in their districts were instructed to call them to account.

The five bolters were Sens. Raymond D. Dzendzel and Stanley F. Rozyczki of Detroit, Garland B. Lane of Flint, William E. Miron of Escanaba, and Philip Kahoi of Iron Mountain.

County Traffic Claims 3 Lives

Weekend Accidents Kill 2 Men; Third Is Victim of Earlier Crash

Two persons died in Oakland County traffic accidents this weekend and a third succumbed Sunday to injuries received in a smashup a week before.

Dead are David Huling, 34, of 2390 Auburn Rd., Utica; Cass Milo, 34, of 4622 Mandalay Rd., Royal Oak, and Robert Steinert, 32, of 712 Lewis Rd., Royal Oak.

A father of four, Milo was dead on arrival at William Beaumont Hospital shortly after his auto smashed into the rear of another car on Woodward avenue at 14-Mile road at about 12:30 a. m. Sunday, said Royal Oak Police.

Police said a car driven by Mrs. June Seidel, 32, of 400 Pilgrim Rd., Birmingham, was waiting for a traffic light to change facing north on Woodward.

The Milo car struck her auto and knocked it 140 feet across the intersection into a tree, officers said. She is at William Beaumont Hospital in fair condition with spinal injuries.

Huling was killed instantly when his auto collided head-on with another car which was swerving to avoid a dog running across John R road in Troy.

The other driver, Arlie G. Compeau, 17, of 902 E. 14-Mile Rd., Royal Oak, told police a large dog ran in front of his southbound car and he swerved to miss it but failed to pull out of the path of Huling's oncoming car in time.

Compeau was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital for minor injuries and released. He was not held by police.

A passenger in his car, Howard Griffin, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Griffin of 4630 Rochester Rd., Royal Oak, is in satisfactory condition today with head and back injuries.

Huling, the father of one son, worked for the GMC Chevrolet Division in Flint. The accident occurred at midnight Saturday.

Steinert died at 11:15 a. m. yesterday after remaining on the critical list at William Beaumont Hospital with head and internal injuries suffered in an accident April 19.

The Steinert car rammed into the rear of one driven by Frank Dirks, 47, of 617 Florence Rd., Royal Oak, who was stopped at Washington and Lincoln roads, Royal Oak, waiting for a traffic light to change.

Royal Oak police said Dirks and three passengers were treated for minor injuries and released from William Beaumont Hospital. The smashup occurred at 2:55 a. m.

The two Royal Oak accidents brought that city's total to five traffic fatalities so far this year.

Midland Block Hit by $1 Million Blaze

MIDLAND (AP)—A spectacular million-dollar fire, roared through a Midland downtown block yesterday.

The pre-dawn blaze, spreading swiftly, destroyed the block-long Sears, Roebuck & Co. department store on main street and other establishments.

Walls collapsed and one fireman was slightly injured. Fifty firemen, including men and equipment from Bay City and Saginaw, fought the blaze for four hours.

With the entire front of Sears Roebuck aflame at one time, a witness said the windows were lit up like pumpkins.

Midland's industrial plants, which make this a "chemical city," were not endangered.

The cause of the fire was not determined. An explosion in the department store at 2:45 a. m. led to its discovery. Paints and varnishes fed the flames.

Taking precautions in the emergency, the Consumers Power Co. cut off electrical service in the area to protect firemen in event of collapse of high tension wires. Tenants were evacuated from nearby dwellings.

NOCK DOWN WALLS — For lighting, Consumers Power brought in portable generators. After the fire was brought under control, wreckers knocked down dangerously sagging walls.

The injured fireman, Orin Brown of Midland, was hurt when a section of wall collapsed. Debris showered on him. He was treated for a back injury at Midland Hospital and released.

Firemen said they found no evidence of arson. The fire was in the same block where a Christmas (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

Postpone Trial in Mississippi

Scour 2 States in Hunt for Abducted Defendant Accused in Rape

POPLARVILLE, Miss. (AP)—With the defendant the object of a wide-spread search in two states, the rape trial of a 23-year-old Negro was postponed today in this small town's term of Circuit Court.

Black Charles Parker, who was to have gone on trial today for the rape of a 24-year-old pregnant white woman, was dragged from his cell in the Pearl River County Jail by a band of masked raiders early Saturday.

A special team of about 50 FBI agents led the search for Parker and his abductors throughout southern Mississippi and eastern Louisiana.

William Stewart, the county's prosecutor, said the trial had to be continued. "We have no choice but to continue the case," he told Circuit Judge Sebe Dale. "We have no defendant."

A statement by the chief of the Mississippi Highway Patrol, William Hood of Jackson, showed he had vanished of finding the accused Negro rapist alive.

"We are here until every lead is exhausted and every clue run down," Hood said. "We are making the search for the body as well as for the perpetrators of this crime."

Parker, charged with raping a 23-year-old white mother last February, was to have gone on trial in Circuit Court today.

Berths at Toronto After Seaway Run Dutch Ship Races In First

TORONTO (AP)—A Dutch freighter churned in to Toronto Harbor today and became the first ocean ship ever to berth here.

The Prins Willem George Frederik tied up at 4:44 a. m. EST, completing the 350-mile run from Montreal after being the first ocean ship to enter the newly opened St. Lawrence Seaway Saturday.

She sped from Montreal to Kingston, Ont., in just under 30 hours, slicing the old seaway times by as much as two days. After hustling through the 135 miles of canals, locks and channels, the Dutch freighter staged a bow-to-bow race with the Prins Johan Willem Friso for the honor of being the first ship in Toronto.

Both ships are owned by The Netherlands Orange Line which had been waiting, working and planning for the seaway opening week-end for months.

The winning captain was Steve Aaldijk. Ships of six nations were in the race to Toronto.

The Grace Line's Santa Regina is the biggest ship to enter the seaway since it opened Saturday and the first of U.S. registry.

Her captain hoped to be the first to reach Chicago, but he may need plenty of home stretch fury.

FRISCO LEADS — Some 10 hours ahead is the Dutch Prins Johan Willem Friso, 2,338 tons and also Chicago-bound.

The Frisco escaped most of the traffic snarls that bedeviled the 14th place American ship.

After passing through the Snell and Eisenhower locks near Massena, N. Y., the Santa Regina faced one more of the seaway's seven locks and the Welland Canal between Lake Ontario and Lake Erie.

Once in the clear on the Great Lakes, the Santa Regina hopes to overtake the smaller Friso.

Questions and Answers Page 21

This year, backers of the Kennedy bill in the House contend they have the votes to put it through in much the same shape as the Senate version.

The 90-1 Senate tally compared with an 88-1 passage vote for the Kennedy-Ives bill last year. Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) cast the only negative vote this time.

He called the measure "a flea-bite" which might mislead the public into thinking adequate steps were being taken against union corruption.

The way was cleared for overwhelming approval of the bill in the Senate Saturday by 77-14 adoption of a toned-down substitute for the bill of rights amendment offered by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.).

Russia Denies Any Knowledge of British Plane

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Union says it knows nothing about a big British freighter plane missing near Soviet territory with 12 men and secret equipment aboard.

The Soviets Sunday denied knowledge of the four-engined Avro Tudor which disappeared over mountainous East Turkey Thursday. British officials speculated foul weather had forced the aircraft into Soviet Georgia or Armenia.

Soviet jet fighters forced down a U.S. Air Force transport in the same area last June.

A Supply Ministry spokesman said the British aircraft carried "certain classified items" for the British rocket range in Australia.

But Mao Still Top Man

China Has New President

TOKYO (AP)—Liu Shao-chi, province, had been expected to succeed Mao in the presidency. Instead, the 72-year-old marshal got the job. Liu's old job as chairman of the important Standing Committee of the National People's Congress, the Red Chinese parliament, was given to Chou En-lai was re-named premier.

Mao relinquished the presidency to free himself for his more important duties as chairman of the Chinese Communist party. Choice of Liu, a 61-year-old Hunanese, strengthened his position as Mao's heir-apparent.

Peiping radio indicated, however, that Liu was not unopposed early this month when the party command chose him to be chairman—or president—of the government, which under Mao had been a largely ceremonial post. It said that he "had the support of a large segment of party members," suggesting the choice was not unanimous.

Mme. Sun Yat-sen, widow of the founder of republican China, and veteran revolutionary Tung Pih-wu were named vice chairmen, succeeding Marshal Chu Teh who had held the job alone.

Bomber Crews Always 'Alert'

U.S. Planes Ready at Minute's Notice; Pilots Live in Flight Suits

OFFUTT AIR FORCE BASE, Neb. (UPI)—The Strategic Air Command, founded on the theory that the best defense is a good offense, is poised for the day it hopes will never come.

Even as you read this, SAC planes could, if necessary, deliver hundreds of nuclear weapons to already-plotted targets anywhere in the world. The crews would be winging their way within minutes after receiving the signal they hope never comes — the signal that the enemy had attacked.

They know that the atomic and hydrogen bombs in their bomb bays are so destructive they could obliterate every key factory, city and military position of the enemy.

SAC moved its global headquarters to Nebraska 10 years ago, a decade dedicated to perfecting the Free World's No. 1 striking force, a force so powerful that no one would dare attack America or its allies.

It was a small force with a handful of men and propeller-driven aircraft when it moved here in 1948. Today, its bases ring the world. Virtually all its planes are jets, with missiles being "phased in" rapidly.

The Strategic Air Command is now capable of launching one-third of its bombers — the "alert force" — on a few moments' notice. The remainder of its 3,000 B47s and B52s, and one wing of out-moded B36s would be right behind in keeping with SAC's determination to hatch all its nuclear eggs at once.

Bomber crews on alert pull shifts around the clock, sleeping and eating near their planes. Ground crews keep the planes ready to zoom skyward.

The fliers live in their flight suits, waiting for the squawk of a siren peculiar to all SAC bases — the siren that sends them on daily practice alerts but some day could mean the real thing.

The alert force is strengthened further by SAC's dispersal program.

By keeping a number of its aircraft scattered at bases around the country and around the world, the alert force has more runways from which to take off, making it possible to put more planes in the air simultaneously.

Governing the dispersal and alert concepts is the fact that there would be a dangerously short period of time during which SAC could get its bombers bound for Russia.

The goal of the dispersal program is to have not more than one B47 medium bomber wing and not more than one B52 heavy bomber squadron at each base.

Astrologers Pick October--and Fine Weather--to Meet

NEW YORK (NEA)—This town being what it is, and conventions being what they are, it was not surprising that a New York hotel's main ballroom should be booked solid for 18 months ahead.

"But," said Adrian M. Ziegler (Ph.D., Ps.D., F.A.S.), consulting a curious chart as he talked with the convention sales department, "if you will check this morning's mail you will find a cancellation for the first week of October, 1959—which is the week we want for our convention."

And lo, it was as Dr. Ziegler had predicted. Consequently, the Astrologers International Ltd. (a professional organization) will hold its annual convention next year at the Hotel New Yorker, Oct. 2-10.

"The weather will be superb that week," Dr. Ziegler said, consulting his chart. "There will not be enough seats in the ball room for all our people. One of our members will try to change our aims and purpose, but we will be able to reason with him."

While Dr. Ziegler prefers to specialize in vocational guidance ($15 per horoscope), the presidency of the A.I.L. requires his reading the complete astral picture.

"It's all there, of course," he said, tapping the horoscope for the 1959 convention. "And an expert astrologer can read it. But most of us specialize in one field or another."

"For example, I usually rely on

There are 1,500 A.I.L. members all over the world, and all of them tops in the field. Tools of the trade: A book of the houses of the stars, an Ephemeris—astronomical tables fixing heavenly positions for any time—and plenty of experience.

"I always tell novices," Dr. Ziegler said, "not to attempt an interpretation until they've cast at least 1,000 horoscopes. And even then, you keep seeing new things in the horoscope long after you've first cast it."

The doctor himself has been a working astrologer for the past 40 of his 67 years. In that time he's seen all kinds of air and railroad wrecks long before they occurred. He is also on record for having told the New York World's Fair of 1939 not to open on the date they had set or pay the penalty of heavy monetary loss—which happened.

Today, Dr. Ziegler lives in California with his wife, a pleasant blonde who is quick to explain that she is not an astrologer but she said, "It has worked out beautifully."

"It's a wonderful way to live," she said, "It has worked out beautifully."

"Yes," her husband said, "It is wonderful. And that's why there are 80 million followers in this country alone. These are people who are not afraid to face the truth, not afraid to learn, not afraid to see the road signs ahead so they can alter their course and avoid trouble."

In addition to personal affairs and work as a guidance counselor, Dr. Ziegler uses his astrological tools to advise several professional people in California.

"We began our relationship," Dr. Ziegler said, "when the doctor had to perform an emergency operation. He was in a real panic—a typical Aries. He gave me the birth time of his patient and I worked out the details. Unfortunately, there was no hope for the patient. I told the surgeon what he'd find and... well, the stars are always right."

But Backs Macmillan Idea

Nikita Rejects Ike's Plan

LONDON (UPI)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev's week-end notes to President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan were intended to drive a wedge between the Western allies, diplomatic sources said today.

Khrushchev in effect rejected a U.S. plan for step-by-step limitation on nuclear tests, while pointedly accepting previously-secret Macmillan proposal for a limit on inspection trips to suspected test sites.

The Macmillan proposal, advanced tentatively to Khrushchev while the Prime Minister was in Moscow recently, is known to have found no favor with Eisenhower.

The Khrushchev notes were the latest development in a systematic propaganda campaign to exploit differences between the Western allies.

Father Denies Pouring Coffee on Daughter

ATLANTA (AP)—A 41-year-old unemployed father of seven today denied that he poured a pot of boiling coffee over his 9-year-old daughter.

"Good gracious alive, I couldn't do such a thing," said Joseph Clarence Lane from his jail cell. "What kind of a father would I be to burn one of my babies?" He is charged with suspicion of assault and battery.

Betty Ann Lane, suffering first and second degree burns over the left side of her body, said her father poured the boiling coffee over her last night as she cowered behind a stove.

She said he then locked her and a smaller brother in the bathroom but they smashed the door and ran to the home of a neighbor.

Two persons had their missing wallets returned over the weekend but not the money inside.

Roger Vella of 609 S. Paddock St. reported to Pontiac Police Saturday that he'd lost his wallet containing $50 and miscellaneous papers at a local car wash. The wallet was found later but not the $50.

Lucy L. Morris of #20 Lake Angelus Rd., Pontiac Township, reported her pocketbook was stolen while she shopped at a local store. A clerk recovered the purse but $3 and miscellaneous papers were missing.

Don't Call 'Em Fly-by-Nights

Insects 1st Creatures in Air, but Information on Them Uncertain

WASHINGTON—Several decades ago, it was thought that a deer fly could buzz along at 820 miles an hour. The belief still is popular, despite studies of muscle weight and efficiency that show such a speed to be impossible.

On the other hand, according to aerodynamic principles, a bumblebee shouldn't be able to fly at all.

Some insects are especially effective at distance flights. The familiar orange-and-black Monarch butterfly apparently has flown the Atlantic Ocean, and desert locusts fly hundreds of miles, says National Geographic.

Wings have been found in the earliest fossil insects, but their origin is uncertain.

It is generally accepted that they developed from lobes on the back, making insects the only animals to have mastered the air without sacrificing a pair of limbs.

Doubtless insects were destined to fly when the first tall plants appeared in prehistoric swamps. They climbed the plants and then, as the lobes developed, began gliding to the ground.

Their rudimentary wings vibrated. This promoted muscular changes that enabled the insect itself to initiate the vibrations.

Insects were alone in the skies for perhaps 100 million years after they learned how to fly, when birds and bats took to the air, they ate and otherwise eliminated the less efficient species of insect flyers.

The survivors flourished mightily because of their special ability to find food, homes, and protection. It is easy for a tiny insect to seek out a new place to live.

Two acres are needed to support a horse or a cow, for instance, but eight million insects can live comfortably in the same area.

About 39 per cent of the deaths and 35 per cent of the injuries resulting from motor vehicle accidents occur on Saturdays and Sundays.

Suggest He Give the Pin to a Friend

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: A old friend of mine gave me a pin which was his mother's (his mother passed away recently). It isn't the kind of pin that I would have much use for. I think it is more suitable for an elderly woman.

"There is just such a person who was very close to his mother who I'm sure would appreciate it much more and it would be a nice remembrance of her for this friend to have. I would like to suggest this to him but hesitate to do so for fear of hurting his feelings. What do you advise?"

Answer: Unless he is a very sensitive person, I don't think it will hurt his feeling if you tell him how much you appreciate his wanting you to have his mother's pin but that you know "Mrs. A." would love to have it and would have much more use for it than you. This will be better than your accepting it now and then let him discover later that you rarely if ever wear it.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I plan to be married soon and both my fiancé and my brother, who is going to give me away, are officers in the army. They both would like to wear their uniforms for the wedding but the best man and the ushers are not in the army and would be wearing civilian clothes. Would it be proper to mix the military and civilian clothes in this manner?"

Answer: While it looks better to have all the men dressed alike in either military or civilian clothes, it will be quite proper for your fiancé and brother to wear their uniforms even though the best man and ushers have to wear civilian clothes.

"Dear Mrs. Post: How should the professional cards of a dentist be engraved, and how the 'personal cards that include his wife?"

Answer: Professional cards would be engraved John Henry Smith followed by the letters of his degree, and his personal cards Dr. and Mrs. John Henry Smith.

First 5 Pounds

Beware of Those Nibbles

Over she goes to touch the toes. At to do this Spring Makeover exercise, looks difficult but you should be able

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

There are two facts which I believe will be helpful to those women who constantly fight the battle of the bulges. Many women who gain easily find the scales going up and down periodically like a seesaw. If these women are the least bit careless, they gain from five to 10 pounds in between zippings! Of course the smart thing is never to allow a greater gain than five pounds before attacking the enemy, EXTRA POUNDS.

Make it a point to keep your weight at the ideal for you for several months. If you will do this, you will find that you can get away with some splurges in food without gaining immediately. There is a scientific basis for this. Your weight becomes stabilized. Naturally you cannot take this too far or go haywire with the theory.

THEY NIBBLE!

Then, too, many women who have too many pounds really do not eat large meals, but they do nibble during the day and sometimes even during the evening. They may eat very small bits of this or that at these times and probably would be astonished if they knew how many calories they consume in this way.

A couple of cookies, a portion of cream cheese mix left over from a party served on four crackers, two dozen salted nuts, one scoop of ice cream and one or two other little (?) nibbles—and soon you have close to 1,000 calories.

This is the seventh day of my Nine-Day Reducing Diet and those of you who have been following it must be feeling pretty pleased with yourselves. BUT—don't give in now. You have just two more days to go.

Here are tomorrow's menus:

Breakfast
One egg poached or broiled
One thin dry slice of whole wheat toast
Black coffee
One glass skimmed milk

Luncheon
1 portion salmon
Celery sticks
One-half cup steamed carrots
One-half grapefruit

Dinner
Minute or club steak (small)
One-half cup string beans
One-half cup squash
One glass skimmed milk
Orange slices

Here is today's exercise. Lie on the floor on your back with your arms resting on the floor at your sides. Raise both legs up and continue on over until your feet are touching the floor behind your head. Slowly return legs to the floor. (Knees stiff throughout exercise.)

If you would like to have my 9-a loss of from five to 10 pounds in nine days, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Waterford Board Tonight to Get Citizen Requests

Several Waterford Township residents are expected at tonight's Waterford Township Board meeting for various business reasons, according to Clerk James Seeterlin.
Home builder Samuel Block has protested water supply assessments on seven lots in his Lorraine Manor subdivision on Walton boulevard.
A request for sidewalks to newly-constructed school buildings on Hatchery road will be presented by Leslie Powell of 2336 Georgetown St., Drayton Plains.

fic to the Drayton fishing site down Solway street. He says there are more direct routes to the site and a traffic hazard has developed on Solway.
The Board is expected to discuss the appointment of a member to the Township Zoning Board to replace Lewis Ruelle who resigned from the seven-man board recently.

So What if Tigers Lost—They Gained 1/2 Game

Sunday Results:
16 Hits, 4 Walks
and 4-3 Defeat

Bengals Leave 15 Men Stranded as Athletics Sweep Series

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

So what if the Tigers lost another game yesterday?

Tiger fans will be happy to note that their favorite team picked up a half game on the league leading Cleveland Indians who dropped a double-header to the Chicago White Sox and also a half game on the New York Yankees who lost twice to Baltimore.

It was the Tigers' good fortune that the schedule was in their favor, having them playing only one game yesterday.

(This bit of sarcasm is offered for the expressed purpose of giving die-hard Tiger fans hope that all is not lost. Now the Tigers are only 8 1/2 games behind.)

From Our Wire Services

Detroit's stumbling Tigers can't lose today — they're not playing.

After dropping a three-game series in Kansas City to stretch their losing streak to six and 12 of 13 starts, the Bengals have only to face the fact that the Cleveland Indians will be in town tomorrow.

Cleveland has already won five games without a loss to Detroit.

Despite 16 base hits and four walks, the Tigers were unable to capture the right side of a 4-3 decision with the Athletics yesterday. They left 15 men on base.

Kansas City took an 8-7 victory Saturday night when the A's stuffed a Detroit rally in the ninth inning.

Jim Bunning, last season's no-run, no-hit hurler, yesterday took his second loss of the season.

Once again, Detroit had the tying and winning runs on base in the ninth, but got only one run. Bob Grim took credit for the Kansas City win, but needed relief from Bud Daley in the ninth inning when the Tigers looked like they might get tough.

The deciding hit for Kansas City was an inside-the-park home run with two men on by Bob Serv in the third inning. Cerv's drive was lost in the fog by centerfielder Harvey Kuenn and hit the base of the center field fence, 421 feet away.

The ball bounded toward the infield and Cerv circled the bases before the relay home.

The A's other run came in the second when Roger Maris was hit by a pitched ball. Cerv singled and Frank House singled to send Maris home.

Detroit scored in the first inning for the third day in a row. Eddie Yost opened with a single, but was forced by Frank Bolling who scored on Kuenn's double when Bill Tuttle fell while fielding the ball in centerfield.

Kuenn's single, a fielding error by Grim and Al Kaline's single picked up the second Tiger run in the fourth.

Then in the ninth, Kuenn again led off with a single, Gail Harris fanned and Kaline flied out. But Larry Doby blooped a single to center and Rocky Bridges singled to load the bases.

Daley went in to pitch for the Athletics and walked pinch-hitter Johnny Groth to force in Kuenn. Daley then fanned another pinch-hitter, Red Wilson, to end the game.

Where's Yanks?--In 2nd Division!

By United Press International
Paul Richards says the sky is the limit for his Baltimore Orioles and who's going to argue with him after a weekend sweep that has the New York Yankees off to their worst start in five years?

Richards had a right to crow a bit Sunday because his Orioles swept a double-header from the Yankees, 5-4 and 3-2, and thus dumped the world champions into the second division. With seven losses in 13 games, the Yankees have made their poorest start since 1954 — when they failed to win the American League pennant.

The Orioles themselves are tied with the Chicago White Sox for second place one game behind the Cleveland Indians. The White Sox cooled off the Indians Sunday by beating them, 6-5 and 5-2, as Early Wynn and Billy Pierce doubled in spades as pitching and hitting heroes.

The Orioles, who won a three-game series at Yankee Stadium for the first time in their history, pushed over two runs in the ninth inning to take the first game and then got a dazzling knuckleball performance from Hoyt Wilhelm in the nightcap. Along the way, Richards also managed to "out-think" Casey Stengel by tossing 20 players into the opener and also bunting on the wet grass after a 16-minute interruption caused by rain.

The Washington Senators shaded the Boston Red Sox, 2-1 in the other American League game.

The Los Angeles Dodgers took over first place with a 17-11 win over the St. Louis Cardinals, the Cincinnati Reds outslugged the Milwaukee Braves, 11-10, the San Francisco Giants beat the Chicago Cubs, 3-2, and the Philadelphia Phillies bounced back from a 9-2 loss to down the Pittsburgh Pirates, 10-5, in National League activity.

Jim Flanagan tied the opener with a ninth-inning pinch single and Brooks Robinson then singled home the decisive run to beat Whitey Ford in relief. Wilhelm was the whole show in the nightcap, limiting the Yankees to five hits and striking out eight while scoring his second straight win.

Wilhelm's knucklers were working so well that Baltimore catcher Gus Triandos tied an American League record by being charged with four passed balls.

Wynn doubled with the bases filled during a six-run third inning rally and Gerry Staley's four shut-out innings of relief preserved Big Early's 25th big league win. Then Pierce pitched an eight-hitter, doubled home two runs and scored himself after a ninth-inning triple to win the second game almost single-handedly.

Roy Sievers and Jim Lemon hit homers for the Senators and Bill Fischer scattered nine Boston hits. Fischer, who pitched 10 shutout innings against the Yankees last Wednesday, didn't yield the Red Sox run until the ninth when Jackie Jensen doubled and scored on a two-out single by Bill Renna.

The Dodgers soared into first place for the first time as a Los Angeles entry by scoring four runs in both the eighth and ninth innings. Charlie Neal went 5-for-5, Carl Furillo had four hits and Gil Hodges drove in five runs with three hits to pace the 20-hit attack. The home crowd booed the Cardinals derisively in the last two innings.

The Reds, who hadn't beaten Warren Spahn for almost two years until Saturday, did it for the second time in 24 hours when Johnny Temple doubled in the ninth and scored on Frank Robinson's sacrifice fly. Spahn, now 51-17 with Cincinnati over the years, struck out the side to end a threat in the seventh but yielded a game-tying homer to Frank Thomas in the eighth. Fourteen pitchers, eight Reds and six Braves, saw action.

Jackie Brandt's seventh-inning homer was the decisive blow for the Giants who beat fireballer Glen Hobbie. Jack Sanford pitched a four-hitter and fanned four in winning his third game in four decisions for the Giants.

Dick Groat's first grand slam in the Majors led the Pirates to their opening win but then Dave Philley and Willie Jones homered to gain the Phillies a split. Vern Law pitched a three-hitter for Pittsburgh in the opener and Jack Meyer picked up the win for Philadelphia in the second game.

SPORTS

Detroiters Champs as ABC Ends

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—They were tearing down the lanes and tearing up the record books today at the American Bowling Congress headquarters.

The 72-day meet closed yesterday with the Pfeiffers Beer of Detroit and that team captain, Ed Lubanski, accounting for two all-time marks.

The Pfeiffers bowled a 3,242 total which replaced the 3,234 scored by the Birk Brothers team of Chicago in 1938 and which had been the highest team total in the 56-year-history of ABC tournaments until the Pfeiffers won their strike spree.

Lubanski wrote his name in the new record book with a 2,116 all-events score which replaced the previous high of 2,088 rolled by Jim Spaulding of Louisville, Ky., at Fort Worth, Tex., in 1937.

Several team records were set at the 1959 ABC. There were 10 series over 3,100 which supplants the old mark of six such scores bowled at Syracuse in 1958. Thirty teams managed to go over the 3,000 total mark, bettering the old record of 25 set at Fort Worth in 1957.

Even more important to the huge field of bowlers who traveled here from all parts of the country, including Hawaii, Alaska and Saudi Arabia, are the low in-the-money totals.

The unofficial totals, with little chance of any major change are:

Open team division, 2,746; booster teams, 2,659; doubles, 1,091; singles, 555 and all-events, 1,721. This means all scores rolled over these figures will share in the $385,977 ABC prize fund.

High individual games rolled were three 289 scores. Elmore Brodhage of St. Louis, Robert Orth of Kenosha, Wis., and Allan Port of Las Vegas, Nev., rolled the 289 single games. The best team game was a 1,176 by the Pfeiffers.

Meanwhile, at Buffalo, the WIBC had its biggest excitement yet as Katie Gesaman of Canton, Ohio rolled a 266 game and 680 series for the highest scores since the event started while rolling in doubles. She and her partner in the only major week-end change.

Al Andressi, a 22-year-old Rochester, N.Y. cab driver, moved into 4th place yesterday in Peter Senne's Classic. His eight-game total was 1,645. Chevy Chase Chevrolet of Washington held its lead in the National Duckpin tourney at Baltimore despite strong bids by Maryland entries.

Terry Grosslight of Michigan captured the all-events and singles championships in the week-end annual Big Ten keg meet. He hit 622 in singles and 1739 for nine games. Michigan State's Joe Zambrano and Dick Pricco won doubles with 1142. Minnesota took team honors with 2697 followed by Illinois with 2685.

Final standings: Open team: Pfeiffer Beer, Detroit, 3,242; Old Fitzgerald, Chicago, 3,202; Budweiser Beer, St. Louis, 3,185; Hamm's Beer, Minneapolis, 3,162; and Pacific Pump, Tulsa, Okla., 3,142.

Doubles: Oil Pischbach and Barney Velige, St. Louis, 1,372; Anthony Malone and Ray Smith, Erie, Pa., 1,366; Duke McGraw and Roy Reicher, Los Angeles, 1,341; Glenn and Bob Gersch, Chicago, 1,316; and Grove Smith and Jim Todd, Los Angeles, 1,214.

All-events: Ed Lubanski, Detroit, 2,116; Fred Potter, Erie, Pa., 2,048; Fred Eastwood, St. Louis, 1,981; and James Amani, River Grove, Ill., 1,890.

City, Clarkston Keglers Win Tourney Honors

Phyllis Shaul and Gerald Weber are the 1959 Elks Mixed Doubles champions and 61-year-old Leo Roy is the Howe's Lanes Singles titlist after several weekends of heated competition in both tournaments.

The Shaul-Weber duo sat back and watched a 1322 rolled the previous week stand up as the Elks event concluded Saturday and Sunday.

Big Lou rolled 707 for the only 700 of the season in tournament or league play at the Lodge 810 alleys.

One other Ferndale team finished on the board making 12th. Port Huron gained the 10th and 13th slots and Ann Arbor No. 14. All completed Saturday and Sunday.

The pins really took a beating in the two-day Howe's windup as Ortonville's Ray Ball had to be satisfied with 2nd after leading all the way with 942.

Roy, who has been bowling only two years, took the crown with a 960 handicap total.

Other last round standouts were Bill Horton of Milford and Gene Shell of Drayton Plains.

Horton fired the meet's high actual game of 258 and also took handicap honors with 297. George Cross hit a 257 actual in the wind-up. He is from Flint.

Horton finished 4th and Shell 6th. The latter's 830 was the best actual series of the annual Clarkston feature.

The Michigan State Men's and Moose State came up with new leaders. Coca Cola of Monroe now heads the Men's teams with 3292. Frank Weir and Leo Schnerstine of Ann Arbor hit 1423 to head the pack in Moose doubles.

227 Turn Out for MPAA Meet

The largest representation in history turned out for the year's first tournament of the Michigan Public Golf Association yesterday at Sylvan Glen.

Of 300 players registered in the MPAA, 227 played in the MPAA handicap event with Bill Ickes, 44-year-old toolmaker from Livonia shooting 37-55—72 to take the honors.

Ickes' bright spot as a MPAA member came in 1946 when he qualified for the National Public Links tournament.

Mike Andonian, state Public Links champion, and Wally Smith, both of Pontiac shot 73's along with Doug Wilson of Ann Arbor.

The next MPAA handicap event will be held at Sunnysbrook instead of Maples Lanes, May 7th.

OTHER LOW ACTUAL RESULTS: Ray Case 74, Sam Lima 75, Hank Glad 76, Lee Gosh 76, Allen Thompson 76, Jay Law 76, Roy Cullenbine 76.

FIRST FLIGHT NET SCORES: Sherman Chute 75 minus 8—69, Earl Wilkie 76 minus 9—67, SECOND FLIGHT: Stan Ricks 82 minus 13—69, THIRD FLIGHT: Lou Dinggrass 88 minus 20—68.

Bruins, Rangers Head for London

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League were scheduled to depart for Europe today where they will play 23 exhibition games in six countries against their arch-rivals, the New York Rangers.

The first game will be played Wednesday night at London's Wembley Stadium.

According to NHL rules, the Rangers will travel in a different plane from New York with referee Red Storey accompanying them. Storey resigned from the NHL of officials' crew during the first round of the playoffs amidst a turmoil.

Bob Leppan of Detroit led a field of 178 drag racers at the Michigan Hot Rod Association strip Sunday in Detroit. Leppan joined the "Hundred-Mile-an-Hour Club" when he piloted a Canibal II, powered by a Triumph engine, at a speed of 107 m.p.h.

The new Western Intercollegiate Hockey Association voted yesterday to adopt a playoff system for determining its two entries in the NCAA tournament. A two-game series will be played between the 1st and 4th place teams and the 2nd and 3rd place teams. The two winners, decided on the basis of most goals scored, will represent the WIHA in the NCAA meet.

Alma, Hope and Albion college baseball teams are tied for 1st place in the MIAA race with 5-1 records following weekend double-header action. Hope's 1st loss came in the nightcap of a twin bill with Hillsdale as Walled Lake's Jerry Taylor pitched a 6-hitter for the Dales to beat the Dutchmen, 5-1. Jim Northrup of Alma hurled a no-hitter against Calvin.

Richard Berry of Birmingham took 3rd place in the epee division of the state fencing championships at Birmingham's Derby Junior High School. Judy Goodrich of Lapeer won the women's title in foil with Mary Ann Saghy of Pontiac finishing 4th.

Chuck Kocsis is No. 1 on the honor roll of the Detroit District Golf Association for 1959. The top 10 selections are based on 1958 tourney performance. Completing the DDGA honor roll, in order of rating, are Glenn Johnson, Bud Stevens, John Myles, Bud Badger, Fred Wilt, Tommy Grace, Tom Draper, Dick Whiting and Jack Zinn. Badger and Grace are 18-year-olds.

Maury Rose, three-time winner of the Indianapolis 500-mile race, was the guest speaker at the annual Father-Son banquet at the Lake Orion Masonic Temple Saturday night. Romeo High athletic director Dan Barnabo was honored at a testimonial at the school Saturday for 34 years service.

The South Lyon Tuesday Night Businessmen's League has been won by the same bowling team for the 8th time in the last 10 years. Howard's Market, captained by Dale Segrest, clinched the title recently.

Farb's hopes skyrocketed yesterday when 3,500 fans turned out to see the two fighters in a double header workout at the Fairgrounds Coliseum, where the bout will be staged.

Both boxers will return to heavy drills today then begin tapering off tomorrow.

The champion sparred three rounds yesterday and then London, who is training at Municipal Gardens, climbed into the same ring for three rounds with his sparring opponents.

London, former British heavyweight champion, is a 10-1 underdog in current betting.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Strokes being lost in sand traps.

DIAGNOSIS: Wrong technique.

Treatment: The simple explosion shot will take you safely out of almost any sand trap situation. The technique is simple but effective.

1. Take a slightly open stance, meaning that the right foot is advanced about three inches ahead of the left.

2. Settle your feet down into the sand to insure firm footing.

3. Pick out a spot in the sand about two inches behind the ball. Your club-head should enter the sand there on the down-swing. Keep your eye on the spot.

4. Take a normal swing of about three-quarters maximum power. Hit on through and under the ball, taking a divot of sand about the size of your hand.

5. Keep the head in place, with the eye riveted on the spot you picked out for the clubhead to enter the sand. This is the basic sand shot.

Otherwise, he said, the state debt likely will soar to 178 million dollars, or considerably more.

Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), chairman of the House Taxation Committee, made the appraisal after a series of conferences with government experts on the state's financial condition.

He also concluded that:
1. Because of obligations yet to be fulfilled, expanded spending in some fields can't be avoided.
2. A tax program can't be drawn up until the Legislature estimates state government expenses for the 1959-60 fiscal year starting July 1.
3. "Strong arm pressure groups" and "certain lobbyists" stand in the way of a tax program "acceptable to the people and beneficial to the people and beneficial to the state as a whole."

Conlin estimated state spending this year will total about 379 1/2 million dollars, about 86 millions above anticipated income. Coupled with a 21 million dollar deficit carried over from last year, the debt will rise to 107 millions by July 1 — about three millions less than estimates earlier this year.

SEE DEBT MOUNTING

By maintaining the current spending level, he said, debts would mount to more than 178 million next year, barring utilization of the 50-million-dollar veterans trust fund.

However, Conlin added, the legislature is committed to providing funds not included in the current budget. These include six million dollars in additional support for Wayne State University, a 10-million-dollar pay raise for state employees decreed by the State Civil Service Commission and 10 million dollars more for state school aid, assuming no change in the $190 per pupil formula, to take care of an expected 70,000 enrollment increase.

There are other possibilities, including a proposed boost in state contributions to welfare costs, a capital outlay program financed by the general fund and a $1,250,000 yearly appropriation to help support needy veterans if the trust fund is utilized.

Once the legislature sets a spending program, Conlin said, it can get to work on a tax program.

There is no question in my mind but that there will be a long and bitter quarrel over taxes unless there is a general feeling that the problem must be approached calmly and with open minds," he said, but added:

"I have little hope that this will be the attitude in view of some of the activity already under way."

Conlin struck out at "certain lobbyists" who, he said, "misrepresented facts" in attacks on all income tax proposals.

Unfortunately, he said, the legislature can't be "insulated" against these and other pressure groups.

Guess the cost of one page of advertising... in one copy of the daily newspaper!

ONE OF A SERIES

ANSWER:... JUST ABOUT A PENNY! In spite of greatly increased costs of production and moderate rate increases, you can still buy a big full-page newspaper ad, to run in every daily in the U. S., for about a penny a copy. And an advertiser can continue to plan future newspaper campaigns secure in the knowledge that any cost increase will be moderate and will not disrupt his budget. That's why so many use newspapers.

Airports Expand to Meet Jet Age

Plan New Gimmicks to Help Passengers at Crowded Terminals

WASHINGTON (NEA) — U.S. airports are undergoing a gigantic face-lifting program in an effort to meet the streamlined demands of the commercial jet age.

Terminals are expanding, plans for new airports are taking shape and a multitude of time-saving passenger service gimmicks are being invented to handle the airborne traveler boom.

The problem of adequately serving the growing number of passengers is expected to become especially acute when more of the new jet airliners start delivering people at faster intervals to the country's already overcrowded airports.

Officials of the Federal Aviation Agency estimate that by 1960 the nation's terminals will handle 15,000 passengers every hour. This is an increase of 4,000 over last year's hourly passenger load.

Thus, emphasis in airport improvements is being placed on finding ways to speed passengers through the terminals to and from the planes. A solution, which is already being adopted by some airports, is to separate incoming from outgoing passengers.

One way this is done is by constructing two-story terminal buildings. Passengers who have just landed use one level while those who are getting ready to depart are directed to the other.

Plans to end long waiting lines call for increasing the number of check-in and baggage weighing counters and providing special counters for passengers with lengthy, complicated ticket problems.

Doing away with the long walk from the terminal to the plane is another headache that architects are tackling in their future airport designs.

After checking their luggage at the terminal entrance, passengers will go to several smaller structures attached to the main building to await their planes. When a plane pulls up next to a waiting room, passengers will go through an enclosed ramp which can be lengthened or shortened like a telescope from the side of the building to the aircraft entrance.

Battle Insects With Bacteria

Spray Disease Germs on Plants in Effort to Kill Larvae

WOOSTER, Ohio (UPI) — Scientists at the Ohio Agriculture Experimental Station here are putting a variation of the "fight fire with fire" theory to work in their battle against bugs.

They are trying to fight insects with living bacteria. So far, though, the "living insecticide" has met with success only against moth-type pests.

Live spores of a bacterium are being produced in the form of a powder which can be mixed with water and sprayed on plants in the same manner as chemical insecticides.

The spores, when eaten by the larvae of many insects, cause a fatal disease. In initial experiments, the effectiveness of this method has been limited largely to the larvae of moths and butterflies.

The method has a number of advantages over chemical sprays: —It leaves no residues harmful to man, domestic or wild animals or fish.

—Persons applying the material face no hazards. Chemical insecticides often are dangerous. —Insects apparently cannot develop resistance to the bacteria.

—The bacteria are so specific to moth-type insects that they do not upset the balance of nature by killing beneficial insects.

The bacteria were sprayed on corn here and at Toledo and Marietta last summer by Dr. C. A. Triplehorn, but they had no apparent effect on the corn earworm. Although early tests have not been encouraging, entomologists are not abandoning this new idea for insect control. The bacteria this summer to test their ability to kill the cabbage looper, European corn borer and other pests.

Truman to Give Lecture Series at Columbia

NEW YORK (AP) — Columbia University students learn more about the presidency today from lecturer Harry S. Truman.

"I'm no college professor," the former president said as he arrived here. "I'm going to deliver lectures to these kids as I've been doing ever since I left the White House."

"I'll try to explain what we have and how to keep it," Truman said. "I've got no degrees except those I didn't earn." He has been awarded honorary degrees by a number of colleges and universities.

Truman's lecture today was titled "The Presidency." Tuesday he will lecture on "The Constitution." On Wednesday his subject will be "Hysteria and Witch Hunting."

After each lecture a student panel will be given an opportunity to question him.

Native 'Breed' of Horses Gone

Pullers of Conestoga Wagons Last Noted in 1863 Reports

WASHINGTON—Once king of the road, the Conestoga horse was perhaps the closest approach ever made to a true native American breed of draft horse.

Thousands of Conestogas plodded the high roads of the colonies, hauling the towering, sway-backed wagons which gave them their name.

They were mentioned in the annual report of the United States commissioner of agriculture as late as 1863. Today, the Department of Agriculture reports that the Conestoga horse no longer exists.

Never a true breed, with reasonably stable characteristics, the Conestoga horse was developed to meet a specific need, says the National Geographic Society.

Undoubtedly the most efficient freight hauler of its time, the Conestoga was originated in Lancaster County, Penn., by German settlers along the valley of Conestoga Creek.

It probably was patterned on English-style farm wagons. Superbly built, the Conestoga wagon's prime virtue lay in its light weight and immense strength, coupled with an efficient design that curved the wagon bed to keep cargo from shifting on the rugged roads.

European draft horses were excellent for pulling heavy loads relatively short distances over paved roads, but they proved unsuitable for the great distances and dreadful roads of the colonies.

The Conestoga Valley farmer's riding horse, which also pulled his buggy and worked in the fields, was too light and lacked the stamina for the job.

Mexicans Go After Tourists

New Administration to Set Up Department for Attracting Visitors

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — The new administration of President Lopez Mateos is determined to make tourism a leading Mexican industry.

The government has decided to take responsibility for its success through a new Department of Tourism set up by the president soon after his inauguration last Dec. 1. At its head is Alfonso Garcia Gonzalez, who says Mexico's tourist potential will be exploited methodically and efficiently.

Formerly, tourist matters were handled by the Tourism Bureau of the Interior Ministry. This agency, neglected by the government and choked by red tape, did little more than compile data on how many tourists came to Mexico and how much money they spent.

The bureau was a favorite target of spokesmen for the hotel and travel industries because it conducted no sustained publicity program outside the country.

But now, said Garcia, the government will work more closely than before with private tourist interests.

He said a good starting point for this cooperation will be in the planning of Mexico's year-long, Independence Fiesta set for 1960. The year will mark the 150th anniversary of the country's independence as well as the 50th anniversary of the social movement known as the "Mexican Revolution" which eventually ended the Porfirio Diaz dictatorship.

A "Panamerican Fair of Independence" is planned for a specially built structure in the Federal District, and provincial cities will stage regional fiestas.

"All countries of America will be invited to the fair," the 40-year-old tourist chief told Vopalis. "and it will attempt to impart a true picture of Mexican life during the past 150 years."

A planning committee will be formed soon, and private organizations will be asked to assume most of the responsibility. But they will cooperate with governmental agencies under coordination of the Tourism Department.

Greek Meets Old Friend on Way to California

NOGALES, Ariz. (U) — Lucas Loucopoulos of Bartlesville, Okla., stopped at a Nogales restaurant en route to a California vacation. In a talk with the waitress, he learned the restaurant owner's name was Peter Pappis.

Loucopoulos gave a loud shout and he and Pappis had a happy reunion. Both are natives of Greece and both worked in the same cafe in Memphis, Tenn. They hadn't seen each other in 42 years.

Explanation Thorny

HOBART, Okla. (U) — Numerous residents telephoned police headquarters reporting they saw fire balls floating in the air. Turned out they were thistles blown into an electric power plant and caught fire. Strong wind carried them into the air.

Education on Move

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (UPI) — Classes at a one-room school in suburban Webster were quickly transferred to the new West Webster elementary school after a skunk apparently got trapped under the floor.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture was established as a separate federal government agency in 1862.

STARRING TRIO — Gary Cooper, Maria Schell and Karl Malden star in "The Hanging Tree," the story of a runaway doctor from the East who settles in Montana and treats a blind girl living there. The technicolor movie is playing now through Thursday at the Blue Sky Drive In.

Hollywood Headlines

Emmy Bid Lands Role as Film Star for Phyllis

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD — So pleased is MGM over Phyllis Kirk being the first actress to win an Emmy nomination for the studio (they've had hundreds of Oscar contenders) that Phyllis is being given the biggest movie role she's ever had. She is the first star set by Pan Bernhan for "The Bixby Girls," story of a Texas family and the loves and heartaches of two beautiful daughters who cut capers in Dallas and Fort Worth in the 1920s.

Of course, Phyllis' Emmy nomination is for her work in "The Thin Man" TV series in the category of "best actress in a dramatic series." You might say this is Miss Kirk's big year — she's in love, you know, with the beatnik idol, Mort Sahl.

I have just heard that author James Michener, with whom I had several pleasant conversations in Honolulu, is arriving here to talk to Burl Ives about Michener's story, "Leetag, the Legend," to be filmed in Tahiti.

Burl plays the California artist who became as celebrated for his drunken sprees as for his unusual technique of doing oil paintings on velvet.

Burl's attorney Edward Schofield, and Leroy Prinz will co-produce the movie for Burl's own Morea Productions.

He won an Academy Award as best supporting actor in "The Big Country," but Burl gets the full star treatment in "Leetag," which will be made as soon as he finishes "Our Man In Havana."

NINA FOCH BACK When flow flew out the window for Nina Foch she flew back to movieland and is now back in business. After getting her divorce from James Lipton she decided that her place is in Hollywood, and apparently Hollywood agrees with her, for she's just been signed for a top part with Natalie Wood and James "Maverick" Garner in "Cash McCall" at Warners.

She will wear stunning clothes in "Cash" and has an ardent romance with him.

Previous to that she completed a role in "Spartacus" with Kirk Douglas. She's a good actress and we all welcome her back.

A close friend of Francisco "Baby" Pignatari, Jorge Guinle told me you could have knocked him over with a feather when someone telephoned him from Rio to say that "Baby" is marrying Ana Marie de Carvalho, 18-year-old beauty from Bahia, early next month.

This will postpone "Baby's" return to Hollywood indefinitely, unless he should come here for his honeymoon.
