Gunman Slays Toledo Deputy, Car Kills Nurse

Fugitive Trio Halted at Road Block, Hit Blind Man and Aide

TOLEDO (INS) — A New York gunman shot and killed a Lucas County sheriff's deputy at a barricade today and then in flight ran down a young woman and a blind man when his car went out of control, fatally injuring the woman.

Deputy Ray Westover was cut down by a shot fired by 35-year-old John Bowens of Brooklyn, N. Y. when the deputy and Toledo police stopped a speeding car bearing three fugitives from a New York robbery at a barricade at the intersection of Ohio route 2 and Wynn road.

The other men in the late model auto were identified by police as 24-year-old Philip Powell of Philadelphia and 32-year-old Walter Bryant of New York.

Ann Martin, 19, an X-ray technician at St. Charles Hospital in Toledo, was killed when she was leading 32-year-old blind Alva J. Francis, also an X-ray department employe, across the intersection of Navarre Avenue and Wheeling Avenue in Toledo.

Francis was critically injured and taken to St. Charles Hospital.

Bowen was captured by police, after his car went out of control, struck the two pedestrians and crashed into a house. The other two fugitives were held at the Wynn Road barricade.

The series of events started when Ohio highway patrolman, Robert Newell radioed to Toledo police and Lucas County sheriff's deputies to set up road blocks to try and stop a speeding auto he was chasing.

Westover set up two barricades at Route 2 and Wynn Road and Toledo police set up a barricade at Navarre and Wheeling Avenues.

The speeding auto stopped at Westover's barricade and he ordered the three men out of the car.

Supplementary Layoff Pay Labeled 'Taxable'

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Internal Revenue Service ruled today that supplementary unemployment benefits which auto manufacturers will start paying Friday are subject to the Federal Income Tax.

But Revenue Commissioner Russell C. Harrington said the payments are not wages, and therefore will not be subject to the withholding levy. They also will not be subject to the Social Security tax or the unemployment levy paid by employers.

Ike Names Aide to Interior Post

Swift Senate OK Seen for Fred A. Seaton as New Secretary

WASHINGTON (AP)—Swift Senate confirmation appeared assured today for Fred A. Seaton to be secretary of the interior in President Eisenhower's Cabinet.

* * *

Seaton, a 46-year-old Nebraska newspaper and radio executive, has been on the White House staff as deputy assistant to Eisenhower in charge of administrative affairs.

His selection for the Cabinet post, announced by the White House late yesterday, occasioned some surprise.

Fourteen Western Republican senators had publicly backed Undersecretary of the Interior Clarence A. Davis to succeed Douglas McKay. McKay resigned April 15 to run for the Senate against Sen. Morse (D-Ore).

Morse's colleague Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore) contended that Eisenhower had "repudiated the policies of ex-Secretary McKay" by going outside "the discredited Interior Department to obtain a new head."

Blinded Riesel Returns to Desk on Gotham Paper

NEW YORK (AP)—Victor Riesel, blinded by an acid thrower eight weeks ago, is back in his Daily Mirror office writing his syndicated labor column.

* * *

He says his news sources have increased since the assault, which he and authorities believe was motivated by his attacks on racketeers in some labor unions.

Riesel, who left a hospital last Wednesday, said after his return to the office: "The thing that pleased me considerably was that I sat down at the typewriter and knocked out the column with just a few typographical errors."

Scooter Crash Kills City Youth; 2 Others Hurt

Donald L. Gotz Dies in Collision With Car at Intersection

A city fireman returned from a false alarm last night to learn that his son had been killed in a motor scooter accident minutes before.

Shortly before the alarm which took him from the downtown fire station, Peter B. Gotz was eating ice cream with his son, Donald L., 15, who died in a collision at N. Sanford and Lois streets.

Injured in the crash were Sven Helle, 14, of 40 Parkhurst St., driver of the motor scooter, and Mrs. Ethel Walker, 27, of 176 N. Jessie St., a passenger in the car operated by her husband Allen, 30.

Helle, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sven Helle, is reported to be in "fair" condition today by Pontiac General Hospital officials, with chest injuries and a possible concussion.

Mrs. Walker, an expectant mother, is in "fairly good condition" a St. Joseph Mercy Hospital spokesman said, suffering from shock.

Pontiac police report that the two vehicles collided at the intersection, when the scooter apparently ran through a stop sign.

They said the car dragged the scooter about 30 feet before colliding with a parked car.

Gotz, riding behind Helle, was thrown over the parked car. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Deputy Oakland County Coronor Dr. Isaac C. Prevette.

Walker told police he did not have time to stop when the scooter shot in front of him.

Fireman Gotz's alarm was a call to Pontiac General Hospital, where an explosion had been reported.

His son became the third city fatality of 1956, and the second within three days.

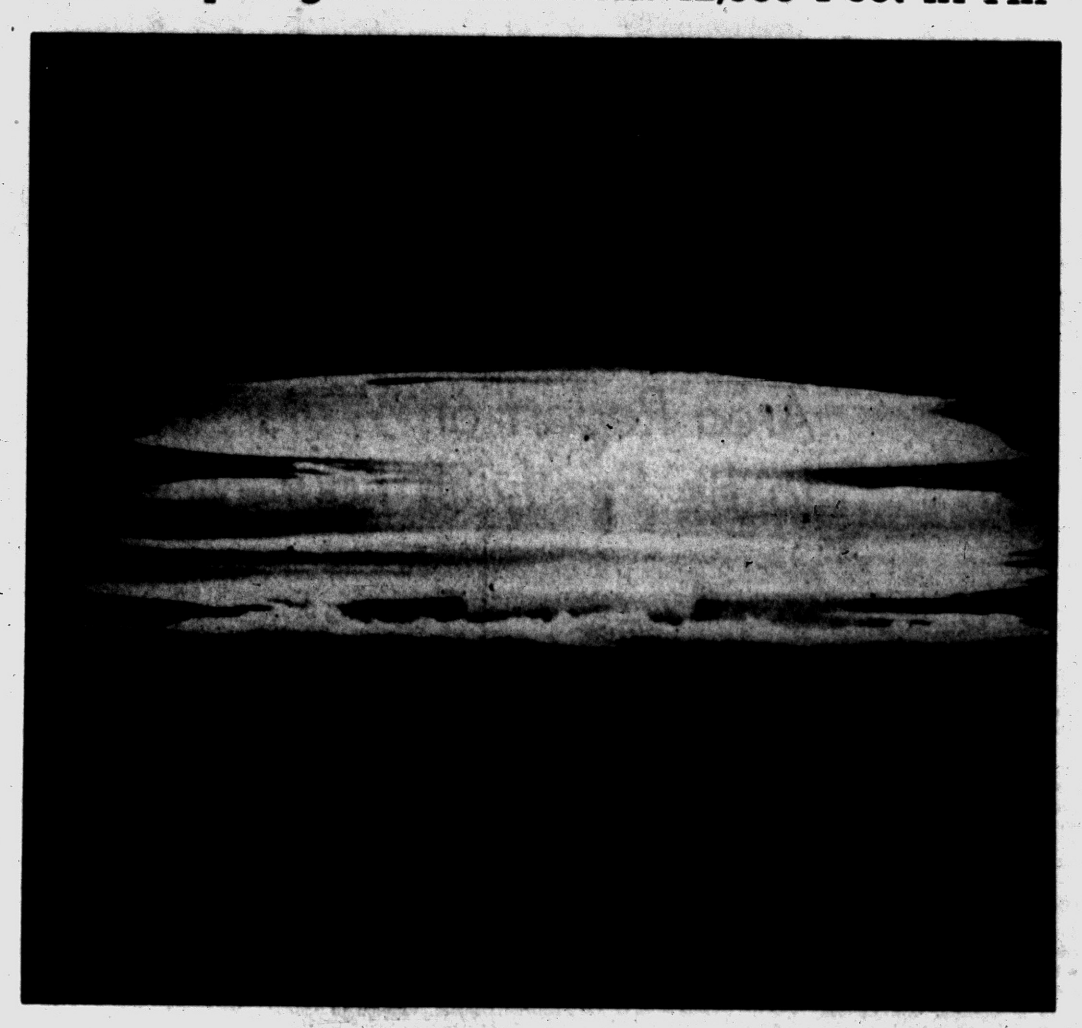

Conrad in 4th Round of British Tourney

TROON, Scotland (AP)—Defending champion Joe Conrad of San Antonio, Texas, led the way into the 4th round of the British Amateur golf championship today with a 3 and 2 victory over Tom Armstrong of Scotland in a 3rd round match.

Conrad's victory came after eight Americans, including four of the ranking favorites, had been eliminated in the 2nd round this morning. Only eight besides Conrad, who won his 2nd round match yesterday, had reached the 3rd round.

Frank Strafaci of New York, Billy (Dynamite) Goodloe of Valdosta, Ga., Ernest (Pete) Arend of Deal, N. J., and Hobart Manley Jr. of Savannah, Ga., were the American big four who lost out this morning.

Memorial Rites Planned for City

Veterans Organizations Will Honor War Dead With Wreaths

Although no Memorial Day parade is planned in the city, numerous services will be conducted and wreaths laid to pay tribute to Pontiac's war dead tomorrow.

Major memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. at the Veteran's Plaque at Perry Mount Park Cemetery, 878 N. Perry St. Expected to lay wreaths at the plaque are the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion, Amvets, the Disabled American Veterans, Gold and Blue Star Mothers, and the Spanish American War Veterans.

Floyd E. Cremer, deputy director of veterans' affairs for the county, said the public was invited to attend the service.

Dr. George N. Petroff, president of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce, is expected to place a wreath at Wisner Stadium to honor Pontiac's World War II dead.

The Cook-Nelson Post 20 of the American Legion will lay a garland of flowers below the Daughters of Union Veterans monument in front of the First Baptist Church, corner of Saginaw and Oakland streets.

The war dead in Oak Hill Cemetery will not be forgotten as many veteran groups are expected to place flags over the graves.

Cremer is attempting to organize a Memorial Association to coordinate the veteran and civic groups so that Pontiac will have Memorial Day parades in the future.

Waterford Teachers Study Idea

Discuss Merit Pay Plan

Waterford Township teachers are faced with the problem today of accepting or rejecting a plan for special merit pay awards outlined by Superintendent of Schools William A. Shunck.

The issue, long a controversial topic, was discussed by Waterford District Michigan Education Assn. members at a meeting at Isaac E. Crary Junior High School yesterday.

The Professional Problems Committee made up of a teacher from each elementary school and two each from the high school and junior high, will meet Thursday evening with Shunck to vote on merit awards.

Under the merit pay plan, teachers, administrators and the Board of Education would select the outstanding teachers.

Shunck recommended the plan for a three-year trial basis, with merit awards of not less than $800 nor more than $1,000 annually.

Teachers' salaries in almost all of the country are computed on the basis of years of training and experience, Shunck said. In Oakland County all the salary schedules are set up in this manner.

The merit pay plan, if incorporated in Waterford, would involve some 250 teachers in 16 different schools.

"I feel it is not right that we are unable to give financial recognition to the most outstanding people on our professional staff," Shunck said.

His plan to carry out such a program involves two separate groups, the Professional Problems Committee and an administrative council made up of principals of the schools and the superintendent. Each group would make up a list of teachers whom they felt were outstanding.

If a teacher's name was on both lists, his name would automatically

Will U. S. Accept the Offer?

Twining Invited to Attend Big Air Show in Moscow

WASHINGTON (INS) — The United States is expected to accept Russia's formal invitation to Gen. Nathan F. Twining to head a delegation of observers to Soviet aviation day ceremonies in Moscow June 24.

The written invitation to Twining, Air Force chief of staff, was delivered personally to the Pentagon yesterday by Soviet Embassy Air Attache Col. Philip Bachinsky.

Sen. Charles E. Potter (R-Mich), however, expressed hope that the Moscow visit might be made by all of the U. S. chiefs of staff.

Potter said: "They would be the hardest to fool" on Russia's war-or-peace aims.

The Michigan Republican, who lost both legs in World War II, said the nation's top military officers could return from such a trip with information "to end the conflict" over whether U. S. airpower is deteriorating in comparison with Russia's.

This was in reference to testimony by Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, head of the Strategic Air Command, that the Soviets will have airpower that could "destroy" the U.S. by 1959 or 1960.

Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson contends the U.S. has, and is maintaining, air supremacy.

Although the Defense Department was hopeful that other members of the Joint Chiefs would be invited to the Moscow air demonstration, experts can accompany the Air Force chief.

Mammoth Road Building Project Ready to Begin

Compromise Sessions to Review $37 Billion, 40,000 Mile Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate reaches the voting stage today on the mammoth highway construction bill which would inaugurate the biggest peacetime public works program in the nation's history.

Passage of the bill was expected by afternoon or night. Afterwards, the bill must go to a conference with the House to work out a compromise version.

As passed by the House, the bill calls for 51½ billion dollars in federal-state road construction over a 13-year period.

The measure before the Senate would authorize 37 billions in federal-state outlays. It provides for a 13-year program to develop a 40,000-mile interstate system equipped to handle up-to-date traffic.

Spending for the other three federal aid systems—primary, farm-to-market and urban—would be authorized only five years ahead.

PENNY A GALLON

The House measure would provide about $14,800,000,000 in new highway user taxes over 16 years to help pay for the program. The Senate version would cut this down to $14,500,000,000.

Both bills call for a penny-a-gallon boost in the present 2-cent federal gas tax, as well as increases in taxes on tires, trucks and the like.

In most cases, the Senate and House tax provisions are identical, and thus will not be subject to change in conference later.

Sharp controversy broke out in the Senate yesterday over how to apportion the federal money among the states. Other issues that produced differences involved the question of federal determination of wage rates on the interstate system, and a "pay as you build" amendment.

MAIN FEATURE

The 40,000-mile interstate system, contemplated as a modernized network connecting the nation's principal cities, is the main feature of the bill.

It would be allotted 25 billions in federal money in both House and Senate versions. Uncle Sam would put up nine dollars to every one furnished by the states.

The House bill would distribute the money on the basis of the needs of the states as they reported them to the Bureau of Public Roads.

Storms for Tonight, but Clear for Holiday

The U.S. Weather Bureau predicts possible scattered showers and thunderstorms tonight. The low will be near 55 degrees.

Sunny skies and warm weather are expected in the Pontiac area for tomorrow's Memorial Day holiday, with the temperature going to a high of 80 to 84 degrees. But showers are predicted for tomorrow night.

In downtown Pontiac, the lowest thermometer reading preceding 8 a.m. was 50 degrees. The mercury rose to 74 at 2 p.m.

AT TECHNICAL CENTER—President Sukarno of Indonesia is taken for a ride by his son, Guntar, 11, in scale model battery-operated Pontiac presented to Guntar by Harlow Curtice (left), president of General Motors, during Sukarno's tour of the General Motors Technical Center Monday.

'What I Learn Here Will Help My People'

Sukarno Amazed at Industrial Michigan

DETROIT (AP)—President Sukarno says he has found in Michigan what he thought he would find when he set out from Indonesia 10 days ago.

At a civic dinner honoring him in Detroit last night, Dr. Sukarno said a visit to industrial Detroit convinced him that the political inspirations and idealism of Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln had been combined with the technical genius of Edison and Ford.

Dr. Sukarno gave his impressions following a tour of Detroit automotive plants personally escorted by Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors; L. L. (Tex) Colbert, president of Chrysler, and Benson Ford, vice president of Ford Motor Co.

Michigan, he said, "showed me so much which I can use in leading my people 80 million strong."

Dr. Sukarno said the four freedoms proclaimed by the late President Roosevelt "raised in our hearts a big fire." These were freedom of worship, freedom of speech, freedom from fear and freedom from want.

"Being a nation which was then not yet independent," he said, "we added one more freedom—a fifth freedom—freedom to be free."

"We have at long last," he said, "obtained our independence and we will try to keep this independence intact in spite of counter-attacks."

For rebuilding Indonesia, he said, "we want the lessons, we want the experiences of others. That's why we are happy President Eisenhower invited us to visit the United States and why I am extremely happy to come to Michigan and to Detroit where I can learn so much."

Dr. Sukarno was presented by Mayor Albert E. Cobo with a medallion from the City of Detroit commemorating the occasion.

In a speech announcing work will start in Michigan Aug. 8 on construction of a "pioneering atomic energy" project, Walter L. Cisler, president of the Detroit Edison Co., told Dr. Sukarno, "I hope your people and your country can benefit too" from atomic energy for peacetime uses.

Cisler displayed a plastic model of the proposed atomic energy power plant.

PRAISES GM CENTER

Earlier at a luncheon in his honor at the General Motors Research Center, Dr. Sukarno said "industrialization is very much on our program" and he expressed hope "the near future will bring close cooperation between America and Indonesia, especially in industrialization.

Dr. Sukarno termed the research center "one of the brains of industrialization."

Dr. Sukarno said intensified agriculture also was on the program for his nation. "The islands, he said, now supporting a population of more than 80 million could feed a population of 250 million "if agriculture is exploited properly."

It also was a big day for President Sukarno's 11-year-old son, Guntur, who hand in hand accompanied his father on the Detroit tour.

GM President Curtice personally presented Guntur a boy's size model of a Pontiac powered with electric batteries.

"It's yours," Curtice said. Beaming happily, Guntur grabbed the wheel and took off. At the boy's urging, Dr. Sukarno sat astride the back of the car.

* * *

Little Guntur also talked his father in going for a ride in GM's Firebird II, a gas turbine experimental passenger car. GM officials said it was the first time a visiting dignitary had ever ridden the futuristic car.

Dr. Sukarno and his party planned to take off by plane today for Arizona.

Sylvan Residents Plan Parade

Will Honor War Dead of 3 Service Branches With Ceremonies

Sylvan Lake residents will pay tribute Wednesday to veterans of all wars at a Memorial Day parade and service in front of the Veterans' Park monument in the city.

The parade, scheduled to begin at 11:40 a.m., will pay tribute to the men and women that served in the land forces. A dropping of flowers over Sylvanite Haven Park from planes will honor the air service while a power boat flotilla will salute the naval services.

The 15-unit parade will assemble at the monument, Pontiac drive and Garland avenue, after following the route from Benvenue to Maplewood to Pontiac drive up to Garland to the Veterans' Park.

The parade will be led by Sylvan Lake Police Chief George W. Purdy. Following the chief's car will be the Parade Marshall's car containing Parade Marshall Anthony B. Osler, Mayor Anthony Kreps, and City Manager Ernest L. Ethier.

Also included in the parade will be the Oakland County Sheriff's Posse, the Daniel Whitfield School Band, veteran groups, girl, boy, and cub scout units, and other school children groups.

The rededication message and prayer at the veterans' monument will be led by Rev. Edward D. Auchard.

After the flag-raising ceremony at the park, the units will move to the lake front for the air and naval services.

New Farm Law Put Into Effect

Benson Using Haste to Apply Measure Signed by Ike Yesterday

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration moved today to put the new farm law into effect, but it may be days before farmers will know what benefits they can expect from it this year.

* * *

President Eisenhower signed the measure late yesterday, saying that it had shortcomings but that its advantages outweighed its "harmful provisions."

MANEUVERS END

Thus ended more than a year of maneuvering between his administration and the Democratic leadership of Congress, with some Republican backing, over new farm legislation.

The law carries provisions for a $1,200,000,000-a-year soil bank program, but just how much of the money may be made available this crop year is a matter which will be determined by decisions to be made by Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

Benson, who said he was glad Eisenhower approved the measure, said his department is "proceeding with judicious haste" to put the soil bank plan into effect this year. Under this program, farmers will be offered payments for taking land out of production of surplus crops.

SECOND MEASURE

The new law is the second farm measure passed by Congress this year. The first one was vetoed by Eisenhower April 16 because it carried provisions which would have raised price supports of some crops and products above levels favored by the administration.

Benson said in a statement last night that this year will not provide "a fair test" of the soil bank because practically all crops have been planted.

Nevertheless, soil bank money could be made available to a relatively large acreage if Benson offered liberal conditions.

Pontiac Deaths

Mrs. Henry Bowmaster

Mrs. Henry (Mary Bannow) Bowmaster, 82, of 13 E. Blvd. South died in her sleep and was found at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

She was born in Summit, Ill., Sept. 5, 1873, the daughter of Carl and Sophie Rowold Bannow. On July 4, 1897, the Bowmasters were married in Forest Park, Ill.

Mrs. Bowmaster came here from Grand Rapids 27 years ago. She was a member of Grace Lutheran Church.

Surviving are eight children, Mrs. Edna Robinson and Elizabeth Bowmaster, both of Cleveland, Ohio; Harold Bowmaster of San Diego, Calif.; Mrs. Irene Goodell of Milford, Mrs. Dorothea Kaphengst, Mrs. Katherine Faber, Carl Bowmaster and Laura B. Bowmaster, all of Pontiac, and nine grandchildren.

A sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Shannon, is living in Chicago.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Thursday from the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home. The Rev. J. C. Streit will officiate with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Donald L. Gotz

Donald L. Gotz, 15, of 68 N. Francis St. was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital at 7:45 p.m. yesterday after a collision with a car while riding his motor bike.

Donald was born in Pontiac March 15, 1941 the son of Peter B. and Violet Darling Gotz. He was a student in the ninth grade at Eastern Junior High School, a member of the Pontiac Boys' Club and of St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church.

Besides his mother and father, a brother, Robert R. Gotz of Pontiac, survives.

Donald will be taken to his home where friends may call after 7 o'clock this evening.

The Rosary will be recited there at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday. The funeral will be at 10 o'clock Thursday morning in St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church with burial following in Mt. Hope Cemetery. Arrangements were by the Voorhees-Siple Funeral Home.

Frederick L. James

Frederick L. James, 86, died yesterday at his home, 132 Washington St. He had been in ill health 18 months.

Born in Oshawa, Ont. Canada Feb. 16, 1870, he came to Detroit where he was married June 27, 1897 to Christina White.

Mr. James has been a resident of Pontiac since 1900. He retired from Fisher Body Division five years ago. He was a member of the IOOF Lodge.

He leaves two children, Harold James of Sylvan Lake and Mrs. Thelma Klett of Detroit.

A sister, Mrs. Peter Mathison, is living in Whitby, Ont.

Service will be at 1:30 p.m. Thursday from the Huntoon Funeral Home with burial in Perry Mt. Park Cemetery.

Russell R. Warren

Russell R. Warren, 58, of A 57 N. Parke St. died yesterday in Pontiac General Hospital after a short illness.

Born in Fayette County, W. Va. Dec. 19, 1897, he was the son of Charles and Nancy Kincaid Warren. He was married to the former Verna Shawver July 29, 1921 in West Virginia.

Mr. Warren, a coal miner, came here two years ago from Layland where he was a member of the Methodist Church and the Moose Lodge.

He leaves his wife and three children, Mrs. Octavus Gollardo, Mrs. Elmer Patterson and Mrs. Thomas Clifton, all of Pontiac.

Also surviving are three sisters, Mrs. C. W. MacAllister and Mrs. Fanny Callister, both of W. Virginia, and Mrs. H. A. Goodwin of Houston, Tex.

Area Report on Water, Sewage to Be Ready in Four Months

A comprehensive survey of water and sewage systems in a 3,600 square mile six-county area will be finished in four months, engineer George Schmid told members of the Supervisors Inter-County Committee at their meeting yesterday.

Schmid, on loan from the Southeastern Oakland County Water Authority to direct the $100,000 survey now being financed by the National Sanitation Foundation, said he expects to finish mapping Oakland and Macomb county water systems in 60 to 90 days.

The survey should answer pressing questions currently being raised, Schmid said. One of these is whether the city of Detroit can adequately handle all the sewage it has contracted for with outlying communities.

Four proposed interceptor sewers in Oakland County will be affected by the survey's findings on this point.

Supervisors also are concerned whether such communities have legal power to start sewage projects of their own in addition to the contract arrangements with Detroit. Schmid promised an answer.

The Committee heard a progress report from West Bloomfield Township Supervisor Hiland M. Thatcher, chairman of the group's Highway committee and chairman of the newly-formed independent Highway Commission.

Thatcher reviewed the Commission's progress, which has been mainly organizational, and reported on the committee's morning meeting.

He said committee members fear that present methods of distribution of state gas and weight tax money will be inadequate to support county and local roads when these have to bear the load of traffic brought by new highways and expressways now planned.

Supervisors from Bloomfield Township, David Levinson, reporting on the morning meeting of the group's executive committee, said his committee will ask authority to make a further study of long-range projects for the inter-county group.

Reports were also heard from Water, Recreation and Port committees. The group will meet next July 12 in Oakland County. Yesterday's meeting in Dearborn was sponsored by Ford Motor Co.

Florida Decides Today on Choice of Dem Aspirants

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The political feuding in Florida's Democratic presidential primary finally ended, and the voters took over today to decide the winner — Adlai E. Stevenson or Estes Kefauver.

* * *

For the Republicans, it was just a formality of adding 26 more delegates to President Eisenhower's collection. Florida was one of the four Southern states he captured in 1952.

* * *

Stevenson re-emphasized in closing his campaign that he raised pensions for old folks 18 per cent in his first three months as governor of Illinois. He said Kefauver had used "false accusations" and campaign tactics which Stevenson contended reflect on the high office they both seek and thus represent a "disservice to the country."

Preliminary to Adjusting 2 Highways on City Commission Agenda Tonight

Leading off a 22-point agenda facing the Pontiac City Commission tonight is a preliminary step towards adjusting two state highway routes in the city and an amendment to the 1956 appropriation ordinance.

* * *

City Manager W. K. Willman will be seeking a resolution from the commission authorizing him to confer with the State Highway Dept. in making route adjustments in M59 (Huron street) and M218 (Orchard Lake avenue).

The amendment to the 1956 appropriation ordinance will establish appropriations to city branches as the result of findings from the Board of Tax Review and subsequent to the finalized assessed valuations for the city.

The establishment of the tax rate per thousand of assessed valuation for the year might be forthcoming if the amendment is approved by the commissioners, Willman said.

* * *

Another item on the slate, which includes 10 public improvement items, will be a resolution authorizing the Pontiac General Hospital board chairman to make formal application for federal assistance from the Hill-Burton program. The request is for aid in the construction of the hospital addition.

There will be engineer estimates aired on four separate sidewalk projects in the city. The projects total $46,828.42 in construction cost, including both assessments and city costs.

Public hearings will be conducted on the city's intention to construct the following projects:

* * *

Concrete pavement, curb, gutter, and related work on Mansfield avenue from Baldwin to Kennett.

* * *

Sidewalks and related work for the southeast side of Montcalm street from Oakland to Corwin, the northeast side of Oakland avenue from Lounsbury to Montcello, and for the south side of Gillespie street from Howard McNeill to Bagley.

The commission is also expected to pass resolutions accepting three special assessment rolls for public improvement projects.

A request from Jack Greenwood for an alteration on a tavern license at 18-20 N. Perry St. is expected to receive action.

Commissioners will take action on a warranty deed from Lola M. Swift for lots 21 and 22 of assessor's plat 35.

A resolution authorizing the city to execute a quit claim deed to Consumers Power Co. for part of lot 12 assessor's plat 147 is slated for possible approval.

Other business confronting the commissioners will include a communication from the Michigan Liquor Control Commission regarding the reclassification of licenses as determined by the last federal decennial census.

Bids on the recapping of State and Osmun streets will be tabulated at tonight's meeting.

The commissioners will hear of the disapproval of a food and tobacco license to Dewey Jones, 151½ Bagley St. by the health and police departments.

Sunshine Dries Illinois, Indiana

Flood Waters Recede; Speedway to Be Ready for 500 Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Dry, warm weather today hastened the recovery of flooded areas of Indiana and Illinois.

* * *

A hot sun began to dry out the speedway at Indianapolis — and thus assured the running of the 500-mile automobile race there tomorrow.

EMERGENCY STATE

Indianapolis was placed under a state of flood emergency, yesterday by Mayor Phillip L. Bayt. Officials called out more than 2,100 Civil Defense workers and ordered policemen to remain on duty.

* * *

The flood troubles of Illinois and Indiana were caused by torrential rains during the weekend, and in some areas again on Monday.

* * *

But the skies began to clear today. The Weather Bureau said there was a chance of a few scattered thundershowers in both states, but no general downpours were in sight.

HOMES EVACUATED

More than 1,500 families were forced to evacuate their homes yesterday in Indianapolis and surrounding Marion County after weekend rains of 6 to 7 inches submerged much of the area. Twenty-one schools were closed as main highways blocked off the east and north sides of the city at the height of the deluge.

* * *

Heavy weekend cloudbursts dumped as much as 9 inches of rain on some sections of Illinois, washing out highway bridges and undermining railroad tracks. Swollen creeks led to the drownings of two Illinois children, a 12-year-old boy and a 15-year-old girl.

Tornadoes flirted about three widely separated states yesterday but caused only minor damage. One twister knocked down trees at Ely, Iowa, while three others were sighted near Cedar Rapids.

Announce Appointment of Mercury Assistant

DETROIT (INS) — Ford Motor Co. announced today appointment of Paul F. Lorenz as executive assistant to the general manager of Mercury Division.

F. C. Reith, general manager of Mercury and vice president of Ford, said Lorenz will be responsible for the coordination and general supervision of division-wide programs.

Waterford Teachers Mull Merit Awards

go before the Board of Education Personnel Committee composed of the superintendent and two members of the Board of Education.

A screening process here would recommend a final list to the Board of Education for presentation of the financial awards.

In outlining such a program, Shunck said that teachers selected would receive the annual increment for three years. During the third year, his name would come before the original two groups again.

If his name appeared on just one group's list, his name could go before the personnel committee for another possible award.

Questions raised by teachers included the criteria which would be used to select the outstanding teacher from the good teacher; the extra pressures added to the teacher's load; "uncomfortableness" among teachers and the ultimate good of the students.

Of criteria, Shunck said "At the present time I feel those selecting would have to set up their own criteria for judging. You know among you which of your fellow teachers are doing an outstanding job and which are not."

"We would have to be constantly evaluating, re-evaluating and modifying the program."

Teachers applauded Mrs. Gladys Rohrer, teacher at Stringham School. "Pressures from school work and parents are almost more than the outstanding teacher can stand now," Mrs. Rohrer said. "One more thing may be the straw that breaks the camel's back."

Of the plan itself, Shunck said, "If we incorporate such a plan in Waterford, the impact on public school education generally would be terrific. I do believe if it would work anywhere, it would work here."

A Committee of the White House Conference on Education last year recommended merit pay awards. "Teachers of outstanding excellence should be provided salaries in recognition of their contribution," the report said.

Shunck said today that to his knowledge, the plan was the only one of its kind in the state. He added that merit pay awards are not unheard of, but the degree of teacher participation in the plan is unique.

Sylvan Lake Stickers Distributed for '56

Sylvan Lake beach cards and automobile stickers for 1956 have been distributed according to City Manager Ernest L. Ethier.

They are presented to Sylvan Lake residents and property owners to prevent use of the Sylvanite Haven Park by non-residents.

Ethier asked that the sticker be placed in the lower right corner of the car windshield. Additional ones may be obtained at the city clerks' office.

He warned residents that dogs are not permitted at the lakefront park.

The Day in Birmingham

City Commission OKs Widening of Southfield

BIRMINGHAM — Southfield Street's pavement widening to 32 feet was approved last night, with the city's plan including 85 per cent on assessment on adjacent property owners and 15 per cent by the city at large.

The sector to be paved is between Lincoln and 14 Mile road, and will include widening the pavement at the Southfield-14 Mile Rd. intersection to provide for free flow of traffic.

An assessment roll for the paving of Holland street east of Eton was set aside by commissioners for further study.

Appointments approved included that of Engineer L. R. Gare as representative to the Southeastern Oakland County Water Authority, with R. S. Kenning as alternate; City Manager D. C. Egbert to the Southeastern Oakland County Garbage and Rubbish Authority and also to the North Evergreen Sewage Disposal Authority; and Dr. John D. Monroe, health officer.

Dr. Monroe is County health director. The Birmingham health office is now integrated with the county department, so commissioners decided Dr. Monroe was the logical man to appoint.

The motor bus ordinance was tabled indefinitely, so that commissioners may observe progress of the new bus company.

There may be no hotdogs at the doubleheader tomorrow that opens the Little League baseball season at Eton park. A request that Detroit caterer have food handling fees waived for the one-day stand was denied by city commissioners last night.

A Center Line youth is held by Birmingham police with his bond unpaid, pending his arraignment on charges of drunk driving and leaving scene of an injury accident. He was involved in an accident Saturday in which a Birmingham patrolman was injured.

Police Officer Clayton Jones, 440 Bennaville, received strained back and neck muscles when the police car he drove was struck from the rear by a car driven by Alvin McCloskey, 21, 22101 Van Dyke, Center Line. He and another patrolman were about to give chase to the McCloskey car in answer to a Bloomfield Hills police radio request. The accident occurred at 608 South Woodward. Other police cars captured McCloskey who had left the scene.

W. Walter Noble

Service for W. Walter Noble, 68, 2025 Quarton road, Bloomfield Hills will be at 11 a.m. Thursday at First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham. Mr. Noble died yesterday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after a three-week illness.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pa., in 1881 he had lived in Bloomfield five years and 25 years in Detroit. Retired in May, 1954 as Detroit district manager of the Pittsburgh Crucible Division, Crucible Steel Company of America, he had been with the firm for 25 years.

He was a 32nd Degree Mason, a Shriner, and a member of the Detroit Athletic Club and the Recess Club.

Surviving are his wife, Virginia Copp Noble, a daughter, Mrs. John E. Parrott of Birmingham, and three grandchildren.

Interment will be in Pittsburgh, Pa. Arrangements have been made by Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co.

Communists Lag in Italian Vote

Severe Reverses Seen With Pro-West Factions Controlling Positions

ROME (INS) — Italy's huge Communist Party suffered a severe reverse today in nationwide municipal and provincial elections.

Former President Harry S. Truman's presence in Italy was credited with contributing to the defeat of the Communists.

A record outpouring of voters in the two-day election strengthened the position of the strongly pro-Western democratic parties of the center.

Final tabulations were not expected until late today but enough votes had been counted to show Communism suffered a setback in the first free-world test of the Kremlin's new "soft" policies.

The Christian Democrats of Premier Antonio Segni were running from 25 to 40 per cent better than in 1951 as returns poured in from the 7,000 contests.

However, Communists and their left-wing Socialist allies managed to hold their grip on the industrial Po Valley's "Red Triangle." They remained in power in the city councils of Bologna, Leghorn, Ferrara and Roggio Emilia.

MONARCHIST WINS

Wealthy shipowner Achille Lauro, a Monarchist, scored a smashing personal victory in being re-elected mayor of Naples. But the right-wing parties generally lost ground in such key cities as Bari.

This was the general picture as the vote tabulating continued: Christian Democrats and some of their middle-of-the-road allies gained impressively; right-wing neo-Fascists and Monarchists dropped seats in city and town councils; Communists sustained considerable losses; left-wing Socialists, unsullied by the squabble over the new Stalin "line," scored significant gains.

More than 91 per cent of the eligible voters cast ballots, surpassing the 88.8 per cent record set in 1951.

Diver Finds Body of Drowned Youth

A volunteer diver from Detroit recovered the body of drowning victim Raymond Djalal, 16, of 2634 Elmhurst St., Detroit, from Woodhull Lake last night, it was revealed by the Oakland County Sheriff's Department today.

All previous efforts had failed since the boy failed to make it ashore from a swamped boat May 24.

Fred Shaft, one of three members of the Detroit Diving Club who came to the aid of area searchers, found the body in 60 feet of water about 300 yards off shore early last evening.

The arrival of the volunteers aided the cause considerably after Deputy William Jackson of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department had been forced to give up his diving due to a broken right eardrum suffered yesterday morning. He was aiding in the dragging when the boy was found.

Independence, Waterford, and White Lake Townships all aided in the search at the Independence Township lake.

Companions of the youth admitted to Oakland County Deputies they had left classes at Central School in Detroit and took the boat without permission following the incident.

Thug Slays Deputy, Kills Girl With Car

Bowen reached into the open door of the car, grabbed a German luger revolver and fired at Westover.

As the 31-year-old three-year veteran of the sheriff's department fell to the ground dead, Bowen leaped into the stolen Cadillac and headed for Toledo.

Newell arrived on the scene and cornered Powell and Bryant and did not give chase after the fleeing auto.

The 35-year-old fugitive roared into Toledo at speeds near 100 miles an hour and near the barricaded intersection, the car went out of control and hurtled into the two hospital employes and crashed.

Bowens emerged from the car with his luger in his hand, but he was surrounded by Toledo police, who were waiting at the barricade.

Straits Bridge Toll Considered

Flat $3 Per Auto Rate Would Average Less Than Ferry Fee

ST. IGNACE (AP) — A flat toll rate of $3 a car is being considered for the Mackinac Straits Bridge which will be completed late next year.

Prentis M. Brown, chairman of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, said the $3 rate would average slightly less than the present ferry fee of $275 for a car and 25 cents for ecah occupant.

He explained that bond indenture on the 100 million dollar bridge was based on tolls equivalent to ferry rates before the last two 25 cent increases. Officials hope tobase the toll on their original estimate.

The toll rate won't be fixed finally until a traffic survey determines the amount required to pay about $4,300,000 a year in debt charges.

Brown said the bridge will accomodate 6,000 cars an hour. The ferries have a peak capacity of 468 cars an hour.

State ferry revenue last year totaled almost 3 million dollars. Traffic across the Straits is expected to increase 75 per cent when the bridge goes into operation.

The authority rejected a low bid of $2,039,308 by the Bates and Rogers Construction Co. of Chicago for pavement to carry four lanes of traffic. The project had been estimated to cost $1,500,000. New bids will be taken.

Why Suffer Bleeding Piles Any Longer

Medical research has developed a miracle medicine called RECTORAL. It does away with the continual use of old-fashioned ointments, suppositories, injections, etc., that give little, if any, even temporary relief. RECTORAL has a tendency to shrink the piles and usually in a few days, the bleeding, soreness, irritation and pain start to disappear and in a few days more are completely gone. Thousands of sufferers have used this remarkable medicine and have never had any further trouble, even years afterwards. Many of these people had been advised that only an expensive and painful operation would help them. Why suffer any longer? Get well NOW! Stay well! Get a bottle of RECTORAL today at

Radioactive Lint Clings to One's Memory

NEW YORK (INS) — It's easy enough to bounce from one news assignment to the next. But you show up at the new one with the tint of the last on your suit.

* * *

There will be politics as usual, now, and other acts of God and man to observe. But the particular lint referred to is radioactive. There will be lingering effects.

These are a few of the memories of the H-bomb test, offbeat in that there will be no reprise on what the bomb looked and felt like. None who saw it agreed, descriptively, any more than fight writers agree on the punch or punches that knocked a man kicking or how he sprawled.

There was the almost embarrassing youth of the physicists and the technical people, for one thing. The traditional cartoonist's concept of the "professor" is up for revision.

* * *

The scientist in the endless lab which is the Eniwetok Proving Ground is a beardless youth of such tender years that a parent might hesitate to let him treat a child for measles, if he were an M.D.

They wear as few clothes and are as bronzed as counselors in a boys camp. The scapular of their calling is a dosimeter to measure the amount of the radiation their bodies absorb.

"What's strange about our youth?" one questioned me in the shielded bowels of a ship that was to sail by remote control and catch the fallout in wierd traps. "Einstein did his real work in his 20's. We're through—except as teachers—after 30."

And the search for a flier-scientist named Paul Crumley. It covered an area the size of Connecticut, though the man from Albuquerque had parachuted from 22,000 feet only 45 pinpointed miles out of Eniwetok.

On the McKinley, we talked a lot about the breaks. If Crumley and the other man in the B57 had arrived a few minutes late at the Eniwetok starting line, they would have been ordered back to their parking place. They were the last plane in the air for one of the three scheduled tests that had to be aborted.

Three minutes after they took off, the test was canceled for that day. On the ship we were afraid to throw anything over the rail during the search period. Once we stopped and put down boats because the radar and searchlights had found an object in the water. It was a beer can.

* * *

Then there was the American who is the high commissioner of the U.N. thrust area through that part of the world — a Hoosier named E. H. Nucker.

He was comparing the simple life of the 60,000 people flung over tiny coral islets in an ocean area as large as the U.S. He told of one little tribe that each year sends its young men and women 500 miles across the open sea in outriggers to become engaged or married on another island . . . to keep the blood pure.

* * *

He looked out across the expanse of gear, electronics, jets, ships, AEC "shot" towers and all other impedimenta of operation Redwing and said, of these "simple" people, "They've learned one other thing. They gave up war before you were born."

NONE CRUSHED

One wondered how we passed weeks of climbing into bobbing small boats from larger ones, and vice versa, without one of us falling between and being crushed like an egg. The law of averages seemed repealed.

It was hard to believe that 15 news people and 17 Federal Civil Defense Administration people could be cooped so long and suffer that many frustrations and yet remain friends.

There even were no arguments among those experts who measured the exact power of the bomb from 40 miles away by wetting their thumb and forefinger and holding them up to the passing gamma rays.

For them and all of us, Eddie Lahey wrote the ultimate lines: "Megations schmegations. It was a hell of a bomb."

Asthma---Public Enemy No. 1 of Allergic Diseases

(This is the second of three articles, written by a noted specialist in the field, on the major allergies which plague some 17 million Americans.)

BY DR. SAMUEL M. FEINBERG
Professor of Medicine, Northwestern University

Asthma is public enemy number one in an allout campaign to improve our knowledge and management of allergic diseases.

The "A" in asthma usually stands for "agony." No respector of age, asthma may begin past 60 or, more usually, early in life.

Of the two to three million asthmatics in America, the number disabled by this disease far exceeds the total crippled by the more publicly-feared polio.

If you have asthma your breathing is labored. Your bronchial tubes are obstructed by a swelling of the lining membrane, a spasm of the muscle fibers or from thick sputum.

BREATHING DIFFICULTY

Your difficult breathing may first come infrequently; later the spells may come daily or continuously.

In some cases, the obstructed or "trapped" air may cause permanent stretching of the lung sacs, producing continuous shortness of breath and disability.

Bronchitis and other complications may follow.

Loss of work and school absences from asthma complications are common. Because of a feeling of inferiority and frustration in our work, social life and play, profound personality changes may take place.

Asthma causes are legion. There are the seasonal culprits—pollen and molds. But among the nonseasonal causes, those that operate the year-round, the most common is house dust.

At Northwestern University, researchers are conducting experiments into insect dust as an asthma cause. In a report my colleagues and I made at the recent American Academy of Allergy meeting in St. Louis, insect dust was singled out as perhaps the main disease-spreading agent.

DRUGS ALLERGIC TOO

But insect dust is only one of the many culprits: Several years ago, for example, we traced an asthma epidemic in a pharmaceutical plant to the chemical dust of a water disinfectant manufactured there.

Drugs are another allergy source: Aspirin can give you one of the most violent attacks of asthma. The mysterious reasons for this are being probed at the University of Illinois where Dr. Max Samter has studied some 100 patients who are violently allergic to aspirin.

Bacteria and virus infections have been known to cause asthma

Dr. Horace Baldwin and his associates at Cornell University and Oscar Swineford at the University of Virginia are trying to find out why.

One of the areas in which such research is needed is the relationship of emotional upset to asthma attacks. Emotional situations such as job loss and broken engagements have been known to provoke attacks. Long term stresses probably play a bigger role.

OPINIONS DIFFER

But can these mental factors produce allergy without the underlying chemical reaction between antigen and antibodies? There is a difference of opinion here.

But suppose you have asthma; you want to know what you can do about it. When you go to your doctor, he will probably do the following to help you:

First, he will ask some questions designed to throw light on the nature of your trouble, possible complications and possible causes.

Then he will tap you and stethoscope you and perhaps make some laboratory examinations. Very likely he will give you some skin tests by the scratch or injection (interdermal) method. Very little discomfort is connected with these tests and when performed by an experienced physician there is virtually no risk.

If allergy is found, there are two ways of handling it: You eliminate the causing agents if possible and you get immunized through shots to those inhalants which cannot be gotten rid of for one reason or another.

Elimination involves avoiding the foods and objects to which you are thought allergic. Your dog may have to be given away. A room or house filter may be necessary.

You may even have to change your occupation. In exceptional cases a climate change might be advisable. But this should be done only after the most careful study of the patient, since the change may be unnecessary at best and even might make things worse. The very thing to which you are actually allergic fight be more common in the new locality.

The principle of the shots in that a small harmless amount of the allergy-causing substance stimulates the production of antibodies which give immunity. It is the same principle of the polio, small pox and flu shots.

The shots must be given over a long period of time but it is worth it in most cases. In some cases, the results are permanent.

Your asthma may be treated in other temporary ways—pills, capsules, sprays and so forth. No one medicine helps everyone on every occasion.

The new pituitary and adrenal harmones are being used effectively in severe cases but ACTH and cortisone are potent drugs and must be used only when under medical supervision.

At Northwestern we are studying this in guinea pigs to learn this reaction—with the hope of isolating the substance that confers relief.

All in all, the outlook for asthma is better than many asthmatics and their families are aware of. Increased research may result in further inroads on asthma.

Says U.S. Attracting Brains From Britain

BIRMINGHAM, England (AP)—A leading British educator says this country is losing its best scientific brains to the United States. He lists higher salaries and better opportunities as the main attractions.

* * *

Lord Chorley, general secretary of the Assn. of University Teachers, told the association's Central Council:

"A very serious drain is being made on our scientific manpower by the United States."

There has been some talk that British science students accept American offers to evade the two-year military service here.

Lord Chorley denied this, but the government to grant "permanent deferment of national service to graduates and those hold equivalent qualifications who are actively employed in the field of science and technology whether in teaching, in research or in industry."

Winter encampments are held at Sarasota, Fla. About 300 of the group's trailers are expected at the Traverse City meeting.

ROK Holds Them Hostage

Jap Fishermen in Prison

PUSAN, Korea (AP)—In a prison near Pusan Harbor are 539 Japanese fishermen. No one can tell them when they can go home.

* * *

They are here because Japan and its onetime colony Korea have failed to get along as equals.

South Korea captured the fishermen for crossing her Syngman Rhee Line, a no-trespassing zone she established 30 to 200 miles offshore, saying she distrusted the intention of a resurgent Japan. Korea continues to hold them pending settlement of other complicated questions between the two nations.

The prisoners are in a half acre fenced by walls and barbed wire. They look clean and healthy. They seem to get enough food, but complain about its quality.

Despite occasional smiles and laughter, they have the unhappy, haunted look of men overpowered by boredom, lack of exercise and homesickness.

Nobukichi Naakmura, 34, chairman of the internees' own self-governing body, told reporters:

"Tell our people and government we are praying every day for our release, the sooner the better."

The fishermen range in age from 18 to 40. They have spent six months to two years in captivity.

North Dakotan Says State Will Back Ike

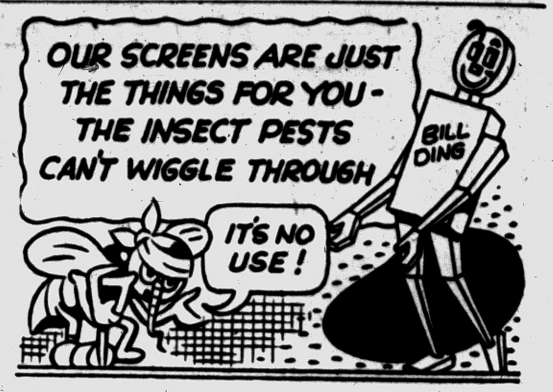

BISMARCK, N.D. (AP) — National Committeeman Milton Rue says North Dakota's delegation to the Republican National Convention, though unpledged, "will stand for Eisenhower—and Nixon too."

Rue, of Bismarck, made the statement last night after being re-elected national committeeman without opposition as the state convention wound up its business.

North Dakota will send 14 regular delegates and 14 alternates to the San Francisco convention in August.

Robert Morgan Doubles Give Dems Trouble

LILLINGTON, N.C. (AP)—Harnett County Democrats have a reason for scratching their heads over which.

The newly elected county judge is Robert B. Morgan. So is the county's state senator.

The two are not related, but both are Lillington lawyers and both are Wake Forest College graduates. To add to the confusion the wife of each is named Alice and each has a sister named Lucille.

Yesterday the senator still was receiving congratulations on the judge's victory in last Saturday's Democratic primary.

She Resents Sharing Reunion With Husband

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Candy Bennett was miffed, she told the court, when she flew to Omaha to meet her husband's train and discovered he was being met by another woman.

She was granted a divorce from TV commentator Myron J. Bennett yesterday when she also related that he was "cold and aloof . . . He had a chip on both shoulders." She charged cruelty.

Blonde Mink

By DAMON RUNYON

As I was telling you yesterday here I am in Mindy's restaurant eating tripe with garlic when in comes Julie the Starker who ups and tells me he is just finished talking to our mutual pal who is buried up in Woodlawn cemetery. Seems like Slats Slavin tells Julie the Starker he should maybe have a stone over his head so people should maybe remember him. Well, Julie the Starker brings up into the conversation Slat's old doll, Miss Beatrice Gee who was once a prominent show girl in one of Mike Tod's musical shows on Broadway. He is telling me this Miss Gee is an original brunette and conceded by one and all to be the most beautiful object on Manhattan Island. And he then tells me that—

(PART TWO)

Other dolls call Miss Beatrice Gee a clothes horse because it seems she wears clothes with great skill, and furthermore she is crazy about them although her best hold is not wearing them, which she also does with great skill but of course only on the stage. When she is not on the stage she is always groomed like a stake horse going to the post for a big race, and no one takes greater pride in her appearance than the late Slats Slavin, except Miss Beatrice Gee herself.

While I do not believe the story that once when she has a headache and Doc Kelton puts his thermometer in her mouth, to see if she is running a temperature, the mercury freezes tight, there is no doubt that Beatrice is not the emotional type and to be very frank about the matter many think she is downright frosty.

But of course no one ever mentions this to the late Slats because he is greatly in love and the chances are he maybe thinks Beatrice is hotter than a stove and personally I am in no position to deny it.

Well, in much less time than it takes me to tell you all this, Julie the Starker has his tripe and is eating it with more sound than is altogether necessary for tripe no matter how it is cooked and to tell the truth I have to wait until he pauses before I can make him hear my voice above his eating. Then I say to him like this:

"Why, Julie," I say, "I cannot understand why Slats is in the plight you describe with reference to the stone. I am under the impression that he leaves Beatrice well loaded as far as the do-re-mi is concerned and I take it for granted that she handles the stone situation. "By the way, Julie," I say, "does Slats say anything to you about any horses anywhere for tomorrow?"

"No," Julie says, "But if you have a minute to spare I will tell you the story of Beatrice and her failure to take care of the matter of the stone for the late Slats. It is really a great scandal."

Then without waiting to hear if I have a minute to spare or not, he starts telling me, and it seems it all goes back to a night in late September when Beatrice informs Slats that she just comes upon a great bargain in a blonde mink coat for twenty-three thousand dollars and that she desires same at once to keep herself warm during the impending winter although she already had enough fur coats in her closet to keep not only herself warm but half of Syracuse, too.

"Pardon me, Julie," I say at this point, "but what is a blonde mink?"

"Why," Julie says, "that is the very question Slats asks and he learns from Beatrice that it is a new light coloured mink fur that is sometimes called blue mink and sometimes platinum mink and sometimes blonde mink and he also learns that no matter what it is called, it is very, very expensive, and after Slats gets all this info he speaks to Beatrice as follows:

"'Baby,' he says, 'you cut right to the crimp when you mention twenty-three thou because that is exactly the size of the bank roll at the moment. But I just come off a tough season and I will need all my ready for navigating purposes the next few months and besides it looks like a mild winter and you can wear your old last season's leopard or caracul or ermine or Persian lamb or beaver until I get going again.'"

Now at this (Julie the Starker says) Beatrice flies into a terrible rage and tells Slats that he is a tightwad and a skinflint and a miser, and that he has no heart and no pride or he will not suggest that she go around in such shabby old floogers and that she will never humiliate herself in this manner. She says if she waits even a few minutes, someone else is sure to snap up the blonde mink and that she may never again meet with a similiar opportunity.

"Well, they have a large quarrel," Julie says, "and when Slats and I get back to his hotel apartment that night he complains of not feeling any too well and in fact he finally keels over on the bed with his tongue hanging out and I send for Doc Kelton who says it is a heart attack and very bad.

"He says to tell the truth it is 100 to 1 Slats will not beat it, and then Doc takes his departure stating that he has so many shorter-priced patients he cannot afford to waste time on long shots, and he leaves it to me to notify Slats that his number is up.

New Device to Ease Russian Translation

LOS ANGELES (INS)—The International Telemeter Corp. has announced that it is developing a new "memory" device to aid in translating Russian into English.

* * *

Dr. Gilbert King, an executive of the Los Angeles firm, said the first unit, which is being developed for the government, will be installed at Rome Air Development Center at Griffiss Air Force Base at Rome, N. Y.

* * *

He said the device will make it possible for 100 typists, none of whom understand Russian, to copy the Russian words as fast as they can type. The English equivalents will instantly be typed on adjoining automatic typewriters.

Think of this next time you're in heavy traffic –

No other transmission is so smooth as Dynaflow*

You know how it is.

Anyone who drives a car these days must sometimes drive in crawling, slow-moving traffic where it's stop-and-go or spurt-and-slow.

And if you're used to a car that handles such traffic with a continuous series of upshifts and downshifts—even automatically—then maybe you think that's the best you can have.

But it isn't. You can have Dynaflow smoothness in a new Buick—and you won't believe the difference until you try stop-and-go traffic.

For here you have absolute smoothness when you accelerate.

Here you have absolute smoothness when you decelerate.

Here you have absolute smoothness under every road condition and traffic pace—with no lags or bumps to mark upshifts and downshifts—because no gears ever shift in Dynaflow.

It's the only transmission on the American scene today where flowing oil does the work of gears every step of the way—and where smoothness is constant, absolute and infinite.

So maybe you ought to sample a new Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflow—and try the new thrills that go with this smoothness—

The flash-fast new getaway response—and new stepped-up gas mileage—when you press the pedal barely an inch—

The instant new full-power acceleration when you floor the pedal and switch the pitch for a needed safety-surge—

The walloping new might of the big new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine that puts the ginger to it all—

And the new ride, the new handling ease, the new interiors, the new bold look of racy sweep-ahead styling.

Drop in on us this week—today if you can—and see for yourself what straightforward truth we tell you here—and what great-buy prices are keeping Buick more firmly than ever in the top 3 of America's best sellers.

New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.*

House Should Restore Mutual Security Funds

That efforts will be made to restore funds slashed from the Mutual Security bill by the House Foreign Affairs Committee is good news.

The committee's action in lopping off $1.1 billion from the $4.9 billion measure was a severe blow to the Administration. Not only was it alarming to the Eisenhower forces but it indicated refusal of the committee majority to recognize the part played in our international affairs by mutual security funds.

★ ★ ★

The actual facts are as President Eisenhower has stated them. Funds for military aid and economic cooperation are "vital to the national security." Without them the Nation's ability to meet its obligations as leader of the free world would be greatly impaired.

Committee leaders still apparently refuse to recognize the importance of the skillful campaign Russia is waging abroad. By combining economic and military infiltration and capitalizing on the rising nationalism of Asia, the U.S.R.R. is making undeniable progress.

★ ★ ★

To cut U. S. mutual security funds under these circumstances does not make sense. As Defense Secretary Wilson has pointed out, it would have a "very bad psychological effect on our allies."

For these reasons it is encouraging to learn that Eisenhower lieutenants in both the House and Senate are girding for the fight to have the cuts restored.

Dr. Sukarno's Visit

For two days the people of the metropolitan area have had the privilege of entertaining one of the most interesting and charming men on the international stage today.

A very important person in his own right as President of the young Republic of Indonesia, Dr. Sukarno is doubly VIP because he is touring the Nation as the honored guest of President Eisenhower.

★ ★ ★

In Detroit where he saw automobiles assembled and at the University of Michigan where he received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree, the visitor charmed all he met. Speaking flawless English, he left the impression of a dynamic leader seeking earnestly to improve economic and social conditions in his homeland.

★ ★ ★

In his address to Congress and in all his other statements, Indonesia's President has extolled Thomas Jefferson as his "great teacher." At the same time, while saying he would avoid military alliances, he has dedicated his country to democracy, freedom and peace.

We hope President Sukarno will carry home with him pleasant memories of his tour and an even more ardent faith in democratic processes.

Israel's Oil Boom

No one knows how much oil there is in Israel but that fact hasn't reduced the young republic's spreading oil fever one degree.

The possibility that valuable oil deposits may underlie that country arose after the first well had been brought in at Heletz, eight months ago. The news of the strike, a few miles from the Gaza strip, was greeted with wild enthusiasm.

A second well was brought in near the first and the two now are producing 1,500 and 300 barrels per day respectively. Before these strikes it was difficult to find financing for wildcatting operations, says U. S. News & World Report. Now it is easy to get capital.

One of the reasons the country is so excited about oil prospects is that petroleum constitutes the largest item on its import list, $40,000,000 to $50,000,000 a year. This far overshadows total exports of $90,000,000.

Government officials naturally view the situation cautiously. Yet they do admit hoping that there will be enough oil to supply Israel's own needs. That would save the country the money it has been spending on oil imports and perhaps point the way to economic self sufficiency.

Realization of this hope certainly would be a wonderful boon for Israel.

'Now That Sentence Has Been Passed, The Defense May Proceed'

David Lawrence Says:

Psychological Offensives by the Soviet Are Masterminded by Western Turncoats

WASHINGTON—When the Soviet government wants to make a psychological move and weigh the probable impact on the people of Britain or America, they call in Burgess and MacLean, who know the western gullibility and political weaknesses.

* * *

When the United States is confronted with a move that could affect the psychology of the peoples behind the Iron Curtain, nobody knowing Russian reasoning sits in at the top councils. Decisions are made on what American officials think will be Russian reaction.

Thus, today there is a big problem facing the United States government—whether to open the way for the joint chiefs of staff to visit Moscow and invite Soviet military commanders here.

Men who know the Russian underground are constantly warning that the U.S. must not appear to give sanction to rule by Moscow tyrants over the satellite states and enslavement of Soviet people.

A RUSSIAN SPEAKS

Ever since the Geneva Conference, Moscow has been playing up the idea that the U.S. accepts the "status quo" in Eastern Europe. Many Americans think it's all right to abandon the peoples behind the Iron Curtain.

Dr. Vladimir Poremsky, president of the National Alliance of Russian Solidarists—an organization that carries on underground activities in the Soviet Union—flew to America a few days ago and, in a copyrighted interview with U.S. News & World Report, discussed the visit of Khrushchev and Bulganin to England. He says:

"I think Khrushchev and Bulganin have a double aim. The first aim, which we consider the main one, is to consolidate their prestige within their own country by showing their people that they are being well received abroad, and to use this prestige to stifle domestic opposition. They strive particularly to deprive their people of the hope to support from the free world.

* * *

"Their second aim, which we regard as secondary, is to try once more to deceive the West, in accordance with the Leninist line to which they have now returned. Lenin was very optimistic concerning the possibility of fooling people in the West, because he thought that there were many fools there."

ON GENEVA CONFERENCE

"What is your opinion concerning the wisdom of the Geneva Conference?" he was asked. Here is his reply:

"Personally, I would rather it had not taken place. Whether or not such meetings can be avoided in the future will depend on public opinion in the West. Only public opinion can give the Western governments solid ground to stand upon in refusing to participate in such meetings."

General Twining, chief of the U.S. Air Force, probably will go to Moscow for the air show next month along with air generals from Britain and France. But if the Russians invite the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff as a whole and the invitation is accepted, then the Russian chiefs will want to come here, too.

ONE WAY STREET

It would mean also that Khrushchev and Bulganin would feel that the U.S. could not fail to invite them. The number of military missions from Soviet Russia then would probably go to the Latin American capitals. This would aid the infiltration propaganda of the Soviets.

All this is in the face of the fact that sixteen nations which made military sacrifices to support the United Nations in Korea cannot even get permission for a general or any other military officer to visit North Korean camps where the armistice has been violated.

The neutral supervisory commission of the U. N. has given up all hope of going into North Korea. Yet visits by American military men to Moscow are applauded in America and there is a steady drive to invite Khrushchev and Bulganin to come here.

* * *

In propaganda the Soviets are outmaneuvering America largely because they have men in Moscow who understand the West. But in Washington evidently the Russians who have turned on the Kremlin and who understand Russia are not consulted when policy decisions are being made that could vitally affect the psychology of the peoples behind the Iron Curtain. Small wonder the "cold war" is going against us.

Two apples a day are said to be better than one for good health. Does that keep the dentist away, too?

Again Doctor Expostulates: Have Your Baby at Home

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

"In the fall of '54 you printed several articles regarding women having their babies at home instead of going to the hospital.

"At that time I was pregnant and had already spoken to our family physician about it. He highly approved. In fact he said home is the best place—just as you had said in your articles.

"Our friends all urged me to go to a baby specialist (no comment) or at least go to the hospital. One said I must be crazy, since I was past thirty-five.

"Well, Feb. 26, 1955 my beautiful baby girl was born at home. Her birth I will always remember because every moment was interesting and beautiful, and we were so much closer to each other than we could be in a hospital. . . .

"She was breast fed and broke herself of the 2 a.m nursing at six weeks and away from breast feeding by Christmas (ten months old).

"Now we are expecting another baby in August, at home, of course, and the new baby will be breast fed, too.

"I wish that more mothers would have their babies at home and nurse them too. The great joy, bliss and happiness it brings into a family is wonderful.

"You hear so many women say 'Oh, if you nurse your baby you lose your shape.' That is a lot of foolishness.

"Why are they so silly?"

(Signed) Mrs. . . .

The correspondent doesn't say so, but her description of the miracle might be that of one who has experienced natural childbirth. Contrary to the notion of some misinformed persons, an anesthetic is always available in natural childbirth, though never forced. The choice lies with the mother herself.

From experience as intern in a charity hospital with a large obstetric service, as a country doctor, as a private practitioner in the city, and as a member of the staff of a general hospital, I am of the considered opinion that the separation of man and wife by hospital "rules and regulations" contributes to the shamefully high desertion and divorce rate in Yankeeland.

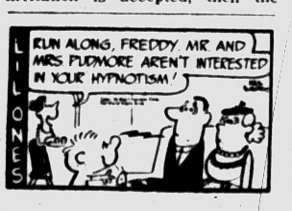

Home is the best place to have a baby.

If you must go to an institution, at least choose a hospital where the rooming-in method is used. There both partners learn that marriage and parenthood is a fifty-fifty matter and not the loose, undignified relationship our cold-blooded hospitals make of it.

"The great joy, bliss and happiness"—there the correspondent delivers a great sermon in six words.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan.

Carrier's Mother Urges Fairness Toward Boys

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I can't understand how people can beat the paper boy out of his money and I can't think of a thing lower in life. Maybe it's a few cents to the customer, but it is a lot of cents to a hard-working boy who is trying to learn and earn a living.

I also can't understand why they let their payments to the boy go on for weeks at a time. Don't they know that boy has to pay for his papers at the end of each and every week, and then try to collect his money from the customer.

It sure can't make this young boy's future look the brightest.

Don't move out without paying your paper boy. Leave the money next door if you can't catch him. Show him the world isn't so tough. Don't cheat your paper boy out of his wages. Who knows? Someday your son may be a paper boy.

Reporter Gives Up Glory for Beloved Hill Country

SYLVA, N.C. (AP)—Many men who dream a big dream and make it come true learn to their surprise that it isn't what they really wanted after all.

* * *

But what can they do? Most remain embittered prisoners of a phantom success they no longer enjoy but are afraid to give up.

A GOOD MAN

It takes a good man to give up his hard-won position at the peak and fight back down the rocky road he has traveled in order to regain something finer he lost earlier on the way up.

* * *

Such a man is John Parris, the only reporter I can name offhand who covers his beat in his own Cadillac.

John's ancestors journeyed from the coastal plain into the mountains of western North Carolina along rude horse and oxen paths shortly after the American Revolution, and the family has put its roots down pretty deep here since then.

* * *

But John, who became a reporter at 13 and never encumbered his mind with college lumber, got a yearning for the far places. Like most small-town newspapermen, he dreamed of becoming a top by-line writer in the big city.

NEW YORK JOB

He did. Before he was 23 he was writing daily feature articles out of New York for a news agency.

* * *

But more distant fields called. John went to London during the blitz raids. He landed as a war correspondent with the initial Allied forces that invaded Africa on Nov. 8, 1942.

After the war, John returned to New York, became a diplomatic correspondent for the Associated Press and covered the birth and development of the United Nations. He scored a number of notable beats. Covering the homburg hat set and its intrigues was heady, exciting and important. Yet something, he didn't know what, was missing.

* * *

In 1946 he met and within five weeks married Dorothy Luxton, a pretty art teacher from Topeka, Kan. But he had the forethought to tell her when he proposed:

"Honey, you may have to learn to use a double-bitted ax to cut up wood to keep a fire going."

BACK TO CAROLINA

Soon after, his father, a jeweler here, died, and John took a leave of absence to come down and settle the estate.

* * *

"Almost as soon as I got here," he recalled, "I realized what was missing in my life. It was a kind of happiness I had known in the hills, and hadn't been able to find anywhere else."

It took a lot of courage for John to resign his job as a diplomatic correspondent at the United Nations and start his career all over in his old home town. It took a lot of understanding on his wife's part to back him. But she did. Neither has regretted the decision.

* * *

Sometimes John and Dorothy get a bit lonesome for the antics of the striped pants crowd, but after a quick visit to old friends in New York they are glad to get back to a region where folks aren't ashamed of wearing overalls or showing their galluses in public.

"I've been lucky—I've had my 'druthers' twice," said John. "And now I'd 'druther' be here. If you are born in the mountains, you can't put them out of your heart and soul. There is a peace and quiet that makes you feel closer to God, or a star — a feeling I never had in big cities."

Doctor Crane Reveals Examples of College Students' Serious Thinking

Ned deftly presided at the Psychology Club at Hillsdale College which I addressed during a lecture tour there. Notice the stimulating questions which the college youth asked me. Observe their good English and wide mental horizons. Then resolve to go to college, at least for one year.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case R-368: Ned Kline, aged 21, was president of the Psychology Club at Hillsdale College (Michigan) when I was up there for some recent speeches.

Earlier in the day I had been invited by Prof. J. Brabner-Smith to address his large psychology classes and also speak at the college Chapel Program at 11 a.m.

* * *

But in the late afternoon the Psychology Club met and for an hour I tried to answer their questions.

The audience broke up into small groups, each of which developed special questions. To show you the way alert modern college youth think, I'll simply reproduce as many of their queries as space will permit.

(1) What are the main causes of divorce?

(2) Do you think advertising has been of benefit to this country?

(3) How much college training in psychology is needed to work in personnel departments in industry? Or in advertising?

(4) Is it true that the average I.Q. of college students is 120?

(5) How can a person cultivate better study habits?

(6) How do you select the cases for each week's series of articles in your daily newspaper column.

(7) Do all colleges offer a course in applied psychology to orient the students in this wide field of practical applications?

(8) What type of background in college psychology classes should we get to reduce our likelihood of divorce?

(9) Is there any merit in "faith healing"?

(10) How can we be sure we are truly in love instead of just infatuated?

(11) Would a return to prohibition eliminate juvenile delinquency?

(12) Is hypnosis a reputable form of therapy in modern medicine?

(13) After 20 years, can a person radically alter his personality?

STUDENTS ARE PRACTICAL

(14) Is it harder to change a person before or after marriage?

(15) Should sex education be taught in the public schools or colleges? If so, to what degree and when?

(16) Do you think an elaborate emphasis on wedding receptions may alter the true meaning of marriage and cheapen it?

(17) Does the use of tobacco shorten one's life by 5 or 10 years even if you don't develop lung cancer?

(18) What has been your most interesting case study in your private practice?

(19) What part does religion play in human relations?

(20) Do all people want to feel important?

(21) What is the psychology behind this 20th century religious movement?

(22) Evaluate the psychological basis of Billy Graham's evangelical type of decision.

(23) What happens to an individual when he tries to buck the group, as by not smoking or not drinking, etc.?

(24) How important are the first five years of a child's life regarding his personality and character development?

(25) Are there conflicts between our concepts of human relations and competitive enterprise with its cutthroat competition?

GO TO COLLEGE

Those are just the first 25 of a longer series of typical questions which the Hillsdale College students asked me.

It is well worth the cost of one year at college just so you young people can mingle with folks who are thinking seriously about so many vital problems.

Surveys also show that each year of college brings you $25,000 more in total earnings the remaining 50 productive years of your life.

And one reason for that high cash value is the keener metal stimulation and wider horizons which college offers you.

So go to college for at least one year!

So, Just Keep Dawn's Glories to Yourself!

Early Birds Don't Win All of Life's Honors

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—Aha. Fie on you foolheardy friends who arise with the rosy-fingered dawn so you can get your nosy fingers into the pie of life!

* * *

Sure, you are the early birds. But what's so great about that? . . . Unless you like worms.

For years, I have been sleeping as late as my job and breakfast dates would permit, and have been called everything from a slug-a-bed to a slit-eyed lazy-back.

Alarm clock salesmen have despaired of me, and my own father has observed, "There is more to life than will ever meet Phyllis' eye."

Today, however, the truth is out. Some of the greatest artists in the world have not only slept late, but have spent most of their lives bedded down in cots, sofas and easy chairs.

Not only that, they hated fresh air and detested exercise—which makes us, who only despise getting up, sort of lily-white laggards at worst.

SONG AND DANCE

Miss Cecil Woodham-Smith, an Englishwoman of immense foresight and ability, has written an article for a national magazine titled "They Stayed in Bed," in which she points out that children have too long been given this song and dance about the importance of being energetic at dawn.

All right, so Harry Truman gets a lot accomplished on the don't dally beyond dawn system. But what about greats like Charles Darwin, Elizabeth Barrett and Florence Nightingale?

Florence Nightingale, Miss Woodham-Smith reports, stayed in bed most of the time for more than 50 years and accomplished an enormous amount of work, writing reports and letters. Did her health good, too. She lived to be 90.

Darwin was a sofa man. He thought he had heart disease. But his mind kept going and he reached some mighty bold conclusions which he probably could not have mastered if he were distracted at 6:30 a.m. by the smell of bacon and hearty voices of early rising humanity.

As any lover of literature knows, Elizabeth Barrett spent three-fourths of her life in bed with a psychosomatic spine disease. What's more, she had heavy drapes and thick ivy over her window—rather debunking the theory that a poet needs dandelions under his bare feet.

RARE HUMANS

The author describes these and others who lie abed as people who "belong to a very rare class of human being, those who can flourish in silence and solitude, the people whom the Prophet Isaiah described when he wrote: 'Whose strength is to sit still.'"

There, dad. And the rest of you. Let's have no more of these aspersions. When the cock crows, to each his own:

We artistes for the couch. You for the birds.

California Panty Raiders Reprimanded by College

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Fourteen University of California students who joined in riotous panty raids May 16 have been stuck with penalties ranging from dismissal to censure.

Dismissal was recommended for one student and half-year suspensions for two. Two seniors were removed from the graduation list.

Officials estimated $10,000 damage to women's dorms and clothing. Two thousand men joined in the night raid.

Cypriots Given Greek Support

Anti - British Promise Given in Athens When Averoff Takes Office

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Greece's new foreign minister Evanghelos Averoff says he will work with "unflinching determination" to end British rule of Cyprus and to secure the return of Archbishop Makarios from British exile.

* * *

Averoff was named to head the Foreign Ministry aftre Spyros politicians accused Theotokis of pro-British sentiments.

Averoff said he would continue the government's foreign policy, "which coincides with the viewpoints of most political parties of Greece." He has served as undersecretary for foreign affairs in previous Greek governments and is regarded as anti-British.

On Cyprus, British troops were ordered to build a permanent barbed-wire barricade through the heart of Nicosia in a move to prevent clashes between the Greek and Turkish communities. Temporary barbed-wire barriers between the island capital's Greek and Turkish quarters have been credited with keeping intercommunal disorders from spreading in the past. Plans call for the permanent barrier to include five gates which can be sealed off by security forces in times of emergency.

Legion Head Approves Disputes by Services

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The national commander of the American Legion says it's a good thing for the branches of the armed forces to air their differences in the open.

J. Addington Wagner, who flew in from Washington yesterday to make advance preparations for the Legion's national convention in September ,said the squabble "is a healthy sign as long as it is kept within reasonable bounds."

Huron Valley School District OKs $1,200,000 Issue

Voters Approve School Program

Pass Two Propositions in Vote Monday; Work Begins Today

MILFORD—Residents in the Huron Valley School District gave the Board of Education the go-ahead of the building expansion program by approving a $1,200,000 bond issue at a special election yesterday.

Total ballots cast for proposition No. 1 were 638 "yes" and 442 "no."

On proposition No. 2, there were 626 yes votes and 404 no votes, which means that with both propositions carrying, the board can now borrow the money to finish the high school, build two more elementary units and construct an addition on the Brooks School.

Work on the new high school on North Milford road began sometime ago and bids were accepted for the additional building program in the event the bond issue was approved.

A firm bid for 90 days was accepted from the low bidder by the Board of Education.

Supt. Harold Hansen said "Work on building contracts or construction work will begin today. The voters have saved themselves both time and money by approving the new bond issue at this time."

The 100-square-mile Huron Valley School District covers parts of six townships in Oakland County.

Bike Riding Youth Killed at Lapeer

LAPEER — James Sweeny, 11 years old, son of John Sweeny of Lake Orion, who lived with his grandmother, Mrs. Katherine Moran at 2033 Imlay City Rd., was dead on arrival at Lapeer County General Hospital at 2:30 Monday after being hit by a car.

He was riding his bike down a steep embankment near Maple Grove School, which he attended and had apparently waited for a large semi-truck passing east, then started down the embankment to scoot across, going directly into the path of a west-bound auto.

This car was driven by Edward E. Smith, 1530 Wright St., Flint. Smith was taken to the office of Lapeer County Prosecutor George D. Lutz for questioning. However, Undersheriff William J. Porter indicated the driver would not be held because the accident was termed unavoidable.

Launches 2 Piece Boat Carried in Car Trunk

By DOROTHY JEAN ZACK

ORCHARD LAKE — Launched here Saturday was a new, two-piece fishing craft that its builder brought neatly carried in his car trunk.

The gray and black boat is ten-feet long, but its two boxy sections give the space of a 12-foot boat, points out its owner and designer, Eernest Kelly, 6059 N. Vernor, Dearborn.

The front end, which narrows to a squared-off transom, fits exactly into the nearly-square rear section. The two fit into Kelly's car trunk, and the only securing necessary for travel to and from fishing sites is tying down the trunk lid.

Painted gray, the boat has a black water line which follows up the prow and up the edges where front and back join. The two walls are held together with inch-wide metal clamps. A set of bolts and nuts hold the clamps in place and another set gives added strength just below the clamps.

Made just this spring by Kelly, the "Bluegill" is his first attempt at boat building. Kelly is a mason, and is superintendent with Birchard and Roberts, a general construction firm that has just completed an addition to Fordson High School in Dearborn.

His free time last winter went into studying plans and blueprints for small fishing boats, Kelly says. He finally worked out the idea for his two-piecer, and went to work building it.

"It rode the waves just like a cork," Kelly said Saturday, pointing to the choppy water where another fishboat had overturned near him just ten minutes before. He and other fishermen had pulled the less lucky fishermen from the water and retrieved their boat.

Long a fisherman on Orchard Lake, Kelly recalls he used to camp whole weeks along the shore. He launches his boat from the Public Fishing Site on Orchard Lake, and usually fishes in the lea of Apple Island.

Wilcox Reunion Slated June 9 at Dryden Club

DRYDEN — The annual Wilcox Reunion will be held June 9 at the General Squires Club, Dryden. A potluck dinner will begin at 1 p.m. Games and baseball have been planned for the entertainment.

Because many addresses are not available, those who have not received a card are asked to contact Marvin Dean of Brown City, president; or Mrs. Dorson Wilcox of Flint, secretary.

Memorial Day Services Slated

Parade at Lake Orion to Form at Sims School at 10 A.M. Wednesday

LAKE ORION — The annual Memorial Day Parade will form in the Blanche Sims School area and begin at 10 a.m. Wednesday.

Led by the Lake Orion High School Band, the parade will proceed along Flint street to M-24, and then to Evergreen Cemetery north of Church street. Boy and Girl Scouts, civic groups, Gold Star Mothers and veterans in uniform will be among the marchers.

The memorial address at the cemetery will be conducted by the Rev. William C. Hamm, rector of the St. Mary's in the Hills Episcopal Church. The parade will then move to the Village Park where a ceremony for those who lost their lives at sea will be conducted by Dr. Mont C. Oliver of the First Methodist Church. A wreath will be cast upon the water in token as the ceremony proceeds.

The firing squad and color bearers from the Charlton-Polar American Legion Post will participate in both memorial services, which conclude with "taps."

The American Legion Auxiliary will then invite parade participants to a lunch at the Legion hall.

Graves of all known veterans in the two local cemeteries have been decorated with flags by the American Legion.

South Lyon

Memorial Day will be observed in South Lyon with a parade at 9:30 a.m. led by the South Lyon High School Band. The parade will form at the new high school and proceed to the cemetery.

The memorial address will be given by the Rev. James Roberts, pastor of the First Methodist Church, at the soldiers' monument.

Following the services open house will be held at the Veterans Hall.

Dryden

A program and parade is planned for Memorial Day by the veterans of Dryden.

At 12 noon a short program will be given on the lawn in front of the Dryden Fire Hall, with the Rev. Stephen Chapko as preacher.

The assembly will then march to the cemetery where flags and memorial flowers will be placed on the graves of soldiers. There will be a special memorial service at the cemetery, and a flag will be dedicated to the memory of Walter Dittman, World War I veteran.

Board Meeting on Troy Schools

TROY—Troy Board of Education will meet tonight at 8 p.m. at Troy High School to discuss building program details and decide on new staff personnel.

Names of five teachers and a Principal are being presented for the board's approval.

A proposal to release property the board controls in Macomb County to Utica public schools is to be considered. Supt. of Schools Stuart K. Baker has talked with Harold LaFevre, Macomb County superintendent, in reference to the transfer.

The Board may petition the County Board of Education to complete the transaction.

The Troy district's portion within Avon Township could be taken over by Rochester Public Schools, the Rochester School officials have told Baker. He has requested they file a petition to transfer the section to Rochester.

Gerald Morgan Takes Bride

SOUTH LYON — Nancy Midland of Brooklyn, N.Y., became the bride of Gerald Morgan at a quiet ceremony at 11 o'clock Saturday morning at the First Methodist Church manse.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Magne Erickson of Brooklyn, N.Y. Gerald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Morgan of 9794 Matthews Rd., South Lyon.

The bride chose a pink brocade street-length gown for her wedding and wore a corsage of red rosebuds and lilies of the valley. The wedding was performed in the presence of the immediate families, and following the ceremony a buffet lunch was served to the wedding party at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Attendants were Mrs. Russell Morgan, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Charles Martin.

Following a wedding trip to Chicago and New York the two will make their home at Silver Lake.

5,000 Turn Out for Home Show at Rochester

ROCHESTER — Rochester's second annual 3-day home show which closed Sunday evening at Halbach Field was attended by 5,000 persons, according to a report from General Chairman Frank Firnchild.

Attendance figures this year showed an increase of 1,500 over 1955.

There were 65 exhibitors, nine of which were from out of town. The show was sponsored by The Rochester Lions Club.

Tax Allocation Hits Waterford

Township Supervisor Asking County to Hike Low 1-Mill Portion

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—Waterford Township Supervisor Lloyd Anderson planned to appeal today the one-mill tax spread allowed Waterford Township government by the Oakland County tax Allocation Board.

Last year, Anderson pointed out, the township was granted 1.38 mills of the total 15 mills spread over the township.

The township requested two mills for operation this year, the supervisor explained, and if only half of the tax request is allowed the budget will have to be completely revised and the proposed township road program dropped for lack of funds.

"This means a decrease of approximately $53,000, and I am unable to explain the reason," Anderson said.

Alert Officials at Troy Search for Pool Builder

TROY—A Troy housewife being interviewed on a radio yesterday from Northland was overheard by city commissioners of Troy who failed to catch her name. Last night her remarks were repeated to the Commission and members decided to search for her.

Talking of building a swimming pool in her back yard, the woman mentioned that she believed Troy did not require a pool permit. Commissioners emphasized a permit is required.

City officials are looking about in Charnwood's back yards this afternoon for a swimming pool under construction.

Marlette Girl Wins Award in Essay Contest

MARLETTE — A $50 U. S. Savings bond and a trophy will be presented Wednesday to Joy Sheridan at St. Joseph High School, Adrian, by the Adrian Loyal Order of Moose.

Joy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sheridan of Marlette, won the prize for achieving second place in a district essay contest.

Luncheon for Leaders

FOUR TOWNS — The Girl Scout leaders are meeting June 4 for a noon luncheon at China City.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM R. WATSON

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Watson of Rattalee Lake road, Davisburg, will observe their Golden Wedding anniversary Thursday. A celebration and reception to mark the couple's 50 years of marriage also will be held from 2 to 6 p. m. Sunday in Masonic Temple at Davisburg. The Watsons, who have spent the past 40 years in the Davisburg area, have four sons and daughters, Dick of Holly, Andrew of Greenville, Miss., Mrs. Donald Turner of Davisburg and Mrs. Jane Striggow of Holly, as well as 18 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN HINES SR.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hines Sr., of Route 2, Milford, will mark 60 years of marriage on June 2. They will hold open house Sunday, June 3, at their new home at 2388 East Highland Rd., from 3 to 5 p. m. Both, at the age of 84, are in good health. They have six children, 24 grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren. Their sons and daughters are: Mrs. Marian Hurford of Leslie; Byrle Hines of Novi; Mrs. Ethel Smith and John, Edward and James Hines, all of Highland Township.

Staebler Answers 'Millionaire' Charges

LANSING (AP)—State Democrats, smarting at Republican charges that they are the "party of millionaires," said today they are proud to have some well-heeled members in their ranks.

Neil Staebler, Democratic state chairman, said his Republican counterpart, John Feikens, was "silly" in saying last week that the Democratic Party is run by a "bunch of insincere millionaires."

"We Democrats are proud that we number among our members all kinds and classes of people," Staebler said. "We're not like the Republicans, who represent wealth and big business interests first, last and solely."

He said Feikens' statements were a "tired replay of the old Republican charge against Franklin D. Roosevelt, that because he was wealthy he was insincere."

* * *

"The voters' opinion of that nonsense was given in four straight national elections," Staebler said. Staebler added the Republican Party in 1954 spent $1,529,786 in 80 of the 83 counties, compared to the Democrats' $393,844.

Hollywood Headlines

Vera Miles Defies Jinx on Beauty Prize Winners

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Who says that beauty contest winners never succeed in Hollywood? Nobody has a brighter future here than Miss Kansas of 1948.

* * *

Her name is Vera Miles, and she's the pride of Wichita. Her home town will be more proud of her as time goes on, because she's destined for the top rung in Hollywood.

HITCHCOCK'S CHOICE

How can you tell? It's easy. She is tied up for three pictures a year by hit-maker Alfred Hitchcock. She is also committed to a picture yearly for the C. V. Whitney Co., meaning she'll work for another hit-maker, John Ford.

* * *

The last female star Hitchcock developed was a girl named Grace Kelly. Indeed, Vera seems destined to be compared with Mrs. Grimaldi. Both have an all-American kind of beauty, but their personalities are entirely different. While Grace was cool and aloof, Vera is down-to-earth and friendly.

Vera's husband, Gordon Scott, is the current screen Tarzan.

* * *

Vera was no overnight success. She was scouted at the Miss America Pageant and brought to Hollywood by RKO. After no pictures, she was dropped. Then 20th Century-Fox picked her up on the rebound, but once again her film credits were zero.

NOT REALLY HUNGRY

"But the picture business has been kind to me," she says. "I have never really gone hungry."

* * *

Her next contract was at Warners, where she appeared in "The Charge at Feather River" with Guy Madison. Again she was dropped.

After that she did a solid year of television. TV was directly responsible for the biggest breaks of her career. Alfred Hitchcock happened to catch her performance on a Medic show and was impressed—"but at that time he still was able to get Grace."

* * *

By an odd coincidence, the director saw a re-run of the same show six months later, when the price for Grace's services had skyrocketed. For the first time in his career, he decided to tie up a star contractually. She is now starring for him in "The Wrong Man" with Henry Fonda.

Do You Want Somebody to Care?

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"If only somebody loved me, cared what I did and believed in me, I could accomplish things. But it's very difficult to do it on your own, when nobody cares!"

* * *

That plaint, in one form of another, has come to me from hundreds of people throughout the years. And I know, all too well, how they have felt.

We want to write—or paint or sing or sew or cook or accomplish things—and if we only had someone who believed in us, applauded us and spurred us on, we could do it easily.

So we postpone doing anything until we find this somebody. But the trouble is, we get less and less attractive, doing nothing but waiting, and the somebody may elude us entirely.

Actually, we have to make the effort first, then the somebody who cares will come along afterward. And just as sure as we do make the effort, the somebody comes. I have never known that law to fail.

INITIAL BLOCK

But how to get started? How to get over the initial block?

* * *

Many people, of a strong religious inclination, do it from the simple motivation of serving God. They do their work for God and have a strong feeling of comfort and cooperation. And they are the truly lucky ones.

But if you can't get that feeling strongly enough, you'll just have to get to work, facing the fact that the only alternative is bleak loneliness and despair.

Elly did it. I'll never forget her. "I'm 51," she told me, "and I'm alone in the world, with a job that doesn't mean a thing to me. I've always wanted to play the guitar, but it never seemed worth the trouble because nobody would care if I did or didn't.

* * *

"I never had the patience to do the practicing every day without an audience.

"But one day I got panicky, and realized I would have to do something about my life, audience or no audience. I started learning the guitar in desperation.

SICK CHILDREN

"After a while," she went on, "my teacher suggested I play some folk songs for the sick children in the hospital. I tried it and the children really loved it.

* * *

"That was two years ago," Elly told me, "and you should see me now.

"I have dozens of children who drop in to see me when they get well. Their parents, some of them, are becoming close friends of mine.

"The staff at the hospital are so nice, and they include me in all their parties. My life is so full, my music is getting better and better and I have so much to live for, now!"

Exercises Correct Flabby Legs

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

The inner line of the upper leg becomes flabby early in life unless you are willing to work to avoid it. A great deal can be done to prevent this and to improve the condition once it exists. This figure defect is not attractive and is in evidence when wearing play clothes or swim suits.

* * *

There are many exercises which are beautifully corrective. Today I want to give you several.

1. Take four LONG steps. Then bounce up and down in place. When bouncing lift the heels from the floor and bend the knees about a third of the way down. Take another four steps and continue.

2. Stand with your left side toward a chair and slightly in front of the chair. Place the left hand on the top of the chair. Lift the right leg sideward-upward as far as comfortable. Now swing it across your body as far as you can.

Swing back across the body and again lift up to the right. Continue. Make this a smooth rhythmic swing, keeping the knees straight. Then turn your right side toward chair and swing your left leg.

To reduce upper leg—lift the right leg sideward-upward as far as comfortable. Swing it across your body as far as you can. Swing back across the body and again lift up to the right.

WEIGHT METHOD

3. Lie on the floor on your back, legs straight and arms resting on the floor at your sides. Drag your right leg as far to the right as possible. Place a brick or an iron or some other weight on the floor on the inside of your right foot. Push the weight along the floor until it touches your left foot.

Again drag your right foot to the side, place the weight and continue. After a while do the same thing with your left leg. This exercise will help firm the inside upper leg and also will fill out contour.

4. Lie on the floor on your back with your arms resting on the floor, palms toward the floor. Keep your knees straight throughout this exercise. Lift both legs halfway up. Swing them apart. Swing them together. Continue. Cling to the floor with your fingertips.

* * *

If you would like to have my exercises for slimming the hips or abdomen send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 3 for hips and leaflet No. 2 for abdomen. Send your request to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Surprise Ingredient Is in Cake

Mrs. Copp Melts Marshmallows for Chocolate Batter

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Have you ever heard of putting melted marshmallows into a cake batter? Mrs. Frank Copp gives us a recipe for such a cake. According to her, the marshamallows help keep the cake moist for days.

At this time of the year Mrs. Copp is busy in her garden. She has other interests outside her home, such as a child study club, the PTA and a bridge club.

CHOCOLATE MARSHMALLOW CAKE
By Mrs. Frank Copp

¼ pound marshmallows
2 squares bitter chocolate
½ cup water
1½ cups sifted cake flour
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, beaten
1 cup sugar
1 cup sour cream
1 teaspoon vanilla

Melt marshmallows, chocolate over hot water. Add ½ cup water. Cool. Beat eggs, add sugar, sour cream and vanilla. Add flour mixture, then chocolate mixture.

Pour into greased layer pans. Bake 35 minutes in a 375-degree oven. Frost as desired.

Make Nursery Edible When Baby Teethes

When your baby starts teething, the whole nursery must be kept clean enough for a baby to "eat." You can't tell what he'll use to teethe on next. This means that furniture, curtains, slip covers, rugs, and every single toy must be quickly washable in hot soap or detergent suds and rinses.

Plasticized or permanently glazed fabrics are good, since they can be given a "pick-up" sudsing, while still in place, in between machine washings. A good way to keep toys spotless is to keep a clean cloth and a jar of soapy water in the nursery out of sight. Then you can take care of possible germs before your cherub pops the toy or teething ring back in his mouth.

Mrs. John F. Williams was welcomed as a new member of the chapter. After the initiation ceremony, the afternoon was spent in making plans for next year's meetings.

She Wants to Decline Invitation

Musical Bachelor Asks Woman Over to Hear Records

BY EMILY POST

A woman reader explains: "I am an ardent opera fan. I recently met a man who is also very much interested in opera. I have had many interesting talks with him on the subject and have learned much from him.

"He has a collection of very select opera recordings and a brand new high-fidelity phonograph on which to play them. He lives in a furnished room and is a man in his mid-40s. I am 35. We are both single.

"He is a very nice person and I am sure perfectly honorable, but I do not think it would be right for me to accept his invitation to hear his records. Do you agree? If so, will you please tell me how I can decline his invitation without hurting his feelings and making him feel that I do not trust him?"

Answer: Going alone in the daytime to hear his records would hardly cause criticism. But if the invitation is for the evening, it might be wise to suggest bringing along a friend who would also love to hear his records.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and brother-in-law are not on speaking terms. My sister and her husband are giving a large reception shortly to announce their daughter's engagement. I have been invited. Would it be proper for me to go without my husband?"

Answer: If you don't mind going alone, and your husband has no objection to your going, I see no reason for your staying away.

"Dear Mrs. Post: What is the correct way for a woman alone to entertain a group of friends at dinner in a hotel dining room? There will be both men and women in the group. I particularly want to know how the payment of the bill is handled."

Answer: You either pay it in advance, or establish your credit to pay at a later date.

Cotton Knits Make Travel More Simple

Travel cottons, bright and bold, are going places this year. Brilliant plain colors, cool sheers, a kaleidoscope of prints offer a wide variety of vacation styles, reports the National Cotton Council.

* * *

Designers are using cotton in new ways for modern travelers. Cotton knits are smartly tailored, lightweight cottons are given feminine frills, and day-and-date frocks are brilliant in glowing prints.

Wrinkle-resistant knits are styled into sports separates, day dresses and ensembles, and date sheaths, all strikingly coordinated in textures and colors.

A complete wardrobe of separates can be planned in these knits. Shorts, camisoles and slacks are shown for active sports hours.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES SHEARER

Married Saturday at Central Methodist Church were Joyce Bickley and Charles J. Shearer. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bickley of Mechanic street. Charles is the son of Stuart Shearer of Mechanic street and the late Mrs. Shearer.

Joyce Bickley Becomes Bride in Double-Ring Rite

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Shearer were married Saturday at Central Methodist Church by Dr. Milton H. Bank. The bride is the former Joyce Bickley, daughter of the George Bickleys of Mechanic street. Charles is the son of Stuart Shearer of Mechanic street and the late Mrs. Shearer.

* * *

For the double-ring ceremony Joyce chose a gown of lace and nylon tulle. The bodice was of lace, and a lace insert in the skirt of nylon tulle extended into a cathedral train.

A bonnet of lace embroidered with seed pearls secured her fingertip veil. Her bouquet was an arrangement of white rosebuds.

Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

* * *

Mrs. Marilyn Konkle served as matron of honor. Sharon Stanton and Mrs. Carmen Tosto were the other attendants. Their cocktail dresses in shades of pink and aqua were of cotton silk with rows of lace in the skirts.

Pamela Livingston wore a nylon sheer dress for her duties as flower girl. Joseph Salvadore was ringbearer.

George Scantland was best man, and seating the guests were Carmen Tosto and James Shearer.

Following the receptions held in the church parlors and at the home of the bride, the couple left on a honeymoon to northern Michigan. The newlyweds will make their home on Mechanic street.

'Recovery' Movement Explained

Thirteen members of the Soroptimist International of Pontiac met at Hotel Waldron Monday eveing and heard Mrs. Treasure Rice explain Recovery, Inc.

"The movement was developed by the late Dr. A. A. Low, University of Illinois psychiatrist," the speaker started. "Under this program, the nervous persons, former mental patients, help each other and themselves by discussing in simple terms the trivial occurrences and thoughts that trouble them.

"Education of others in the families of nervous persons and former mental patients is an important phase of Recovery," Mrs. Rice continued.

"Persons who consided themselves completely well come and learn they can help a family situation by adjusting thteir thinking and doing some self-training," she asserted.

Mrs. Arnold Hillerman, president, conducted the meeting.

Judith Robinson Feted at Shower in Short Home

... and It Only Costs $45

CHICAGO (INS)—If your home is too modern for an old rockin' chair, famed sculptor Isamu Noguchi has the answer.

Noguchi has designed some stools to go with the low, round dining or cocktail tables that are appearing in some ultra-modern settings at the international home furnishings market in Chicago.

Grandma would never dream that the stools rock just like her rocker did.

Picture two mushroom caps of wood seperated by chrome plated steel rods, crossed together to form a "V" at the base. Top disc is convex and the bottom concave.

Unlike the conventional rocker, the stools sway whichever way the person sitting on them does—sideways or back and forth.

Although the stools have been designed for grownups, children will find them just their size, too. The two models are only 10 and 16 inches high. They will cost about $45 and come in either polished walnut or teak.

Noguchi, a world-famous sculptor, also has designed something for the kiddies. This is a modern wood and wire version of the old-fashioned ice cream parlor table of the gay nineties. It's only 20 inches high and sells for around $50.

Each Has Its Purpose

Consider the material when buying pots and pans for specific purpose. Some materials are perfectly suited to each use—cast iron to long cooking, for instance —and some to many.

FOR JAYCEE PARK—Mrs. James R. Wilkinson, Waterford Township, presents a $200 check from the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary to Melvin Eller, president of the Jaycees. The money will be used to purchase playground equipment for Jaycee Park in Pontiac.

A herd of American wapiti, 16,000 to 20,000 strong, ranges the National Elk Refuge at Jackson Hole, Wyoming, says the National Geographic Society. Early colonists named the big deer after European elk. Licensed hunting keeps the herd from outgrowing the food supply.

Although nuts of the buckeye—Ohio's tSate tree—contain poisonous toxics, Indians learned to make them edible by repeated boiling.

Great Lakes 'Soo'per Market Solves Supply Demands of Huge Freighters

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) — The men who "keep house" aboard Great Lakes freighters get non-stop shopping service, from a waterborne supermarket.

And unlike the comparatively new "one stop" shopping centers now offered to housewives, the Lakes shipping-shopping service has been in operation since 1901.

That's when Pittsburgh Steamship Division of U.S. Steel Corp. set up a warehouse below the locks of the Soo Canal to supply the varied needs of the men who sail the Great Lakes.

Vast storage rooms contain an inventory of 6,000 items ranging from a 12,000-pound anchor to a box of frozen strawberries or a head of fresh lettuce.

Ships moving up or down the St. Marys River can place orders via ship to shore radiophone. Men at the warehouse assemble the goods and store them in a bin marked with the ship's name.

Then on the return trip the ship gets delivery from the Ojibway, a derrick-equipped supply boat which ties up alongside the moving freighter and hoists her order up on deck.

Supplying some 25 ships a day, the warehouse—like the old general store but on a giant scale—keeps on hand a mountain of supplies. It has departments for groceries, hardware, dry goods and furniture as well as a sail loft and blacksmith shop.

At any given time the ship shopper can choose from 25 types of oil, 50 kinds of soap and cleaning compounds; 36 types of scrubbing and paint brushes and 55 types of manila, nylon and wire rope.

The warehouse annually distributes tons of boiler compound, cement, steel and bronze. From its food stores go 300,000 gallons of milk, 25 tons of butter and 100,000 pounds of flour. Each week it handles more than 30,000 pounds of meat and poultry.

SPECIAL ORDERS EASY

It has a "green room" for storing fresh vegetables at the proper temperature; meat coolers, a deep freeze and refrigeration room.

Orders can be placed either on upbound or downbound trips. Groceries and other supplies normally stocked at the warehouse are ordered upbound and delivered downbound.

But if the order is for equipment that might not be on hand, it goes in on the longer downbound trip to give the warehouse more time to fill it. Then the special order is delivered with the regular grocery order.

When a returning customer ship steams into the channel, she notifies the warehouse. The order is loaded on the Ojibway and the delivery boat goes out to meet the freighter.

* * *

She ties up alongside, transfers the cargo in about three minutes, picks up empty containers, casts off and returns to the warehouse.

* * *

There's no rolling a grocery cart up and down the store aisles, no long wait at the checkout counter. Service is quick and easy at the Lakes "Soo'per Market.

Auto makers expect America to have 75 million cars and trucks by 1970.

Well-known Newscaster, WJBK-TV, Detroit

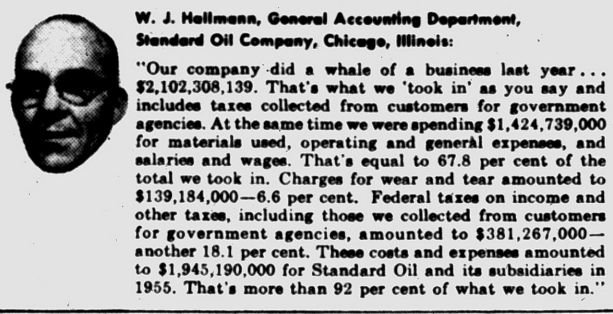

Jac LeGoff asks:

"What happens to the money a business takes in?"

W. J. Hallmann, General Accounting Department, Standard Oil Company, Chicago, Illinois:

"Our company did a whale of a business last year . . . $2,102,308,139. That's what we 'took in' as you say and includes taxes collected from customers for government agencies. At the same time we were spending $1,424,739,000 for materials used, operating and general expenses, and salaries and wages. That's equal to 67.8 per cent of the total we took in. Charges for wear and tear amounted to $139,184,000—6.6 per cent. Federal taxes on income and other taxes, including those we collected from customers for government agencies, amounted to $381,267,000—another 18.1 per cent. These costs and expenses amounted to $1,945,190,000 for Standard Oil and its subsidiaries in 1955. That's more than 92 per cent of what we took in."

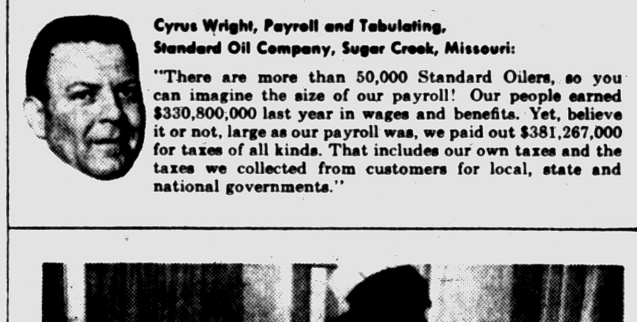

P. H. Towle, Research Group Leader, Standard Oil Laboratories, Whiting, Indiana:

"In a business as competitive as ours you can't stand still or you won't stay in business very long. You have to keep on improving your product and your service all the time—and that takes money. The two-octane number increase in gasoline made between July 1, 1954, and July 1, 1955, costs the consolidated company over $10,000,000 each year. And last year alone Standard Oil invested millions of dollars in research to bring our customers more powerful gasolines, all-weather motor oils, and other product improvements."

Cyrus Wright, Payroll and Tabulating, Standard Oil Company, Sugar Creek, Missouri:

"There are more than 50,000 Standard Oilers, so you can imagine the size of our payroll! Our people earned $330,800,000 last year in wages and benefits. Yet, believe it or not, large as our payroll was, we paid out $381,267,000 for taxes of all kinds. That includes our own taxes and the taxes we collected from customers for local, state and national governments."

Marvin L. Hayes, Treasurer's Office, Standard Oil Company, Chicago, Illinois:

"Well, it's a small part of the total taken in, but as a return on their investment, a company pays dividends to its share owners. Dividends were paid in 1955 for the 62nd consecutive year. Our last dividend of the 1955 year went to 132,400 owners, many of whom are educational or charitable institutions like Children's Hospital, Detroit (shown above). Dividends amounted to 2.7 cents of each dollar we took in. The rest of what we took in, 4.8 cents per dollar, was retained for use in the business. Including the market value of the special dividend in Standard Oil Company (New Jersey) stock our dividends were equal to about 1/2 of net earnings."

What makes a business a good citizen?

Being open-and-above board, for one thing. That's the American way. Standard Oil Company and its subsidiaries report fully each year to government, shareholders, employees, and the public just what use was made of the money we took in. Copies of our Annual Report for 1955 are available on request as long as the supply lasts. Our address—Standard Oil Company, 910 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago 80, Illinois.

"WE don't care if YOU never get there!"

Some Kid Stuff drivers hold up traffic in lanes meant for passing. They force others to cut in, causing many accidents. They should keep to the law—keep to the right—keep traffic moving. Truly adult drivers do care about others.

Adding New Building to Camp

Plans are in the making for a bigger and better season at Camp Oakland in Oxford Township this year, with a new building currently being constructed as an added feature of camp facilities.

Underprivileged children from throughout Oakland County will begin flocking to the camp July 2. Over 400 are expected to enjoy two weeks at the camp prior to the closing date in late August.

Members of Drayton Plains United Presbyterian Church men's club are donating their time weekends in helping put up the new building. Money for the material being used was contributed to the camp by the Royal Oak Rotary Club and the Hi-12 in Birmingham.

Current plans call for the completion of construction by July 1. The building will include a handicraft room, first aid station, a dispensary, quarters for the camp directors, and a storage place for sporting goods during the summer camp period. It will also be used as a mess hall by winter residents.

Camp Director William Matus said it will be impossible to comply with requests to take in 716 children this season but plans to house as many as possible. Over 384 attended the camp last summer.

The Drahner Road camp, which is under the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court, has been a great factor in battling juvenile delinquency since its beginning three years ago, officials believe. Children throughout the area are referred to the camp by various judicial or organized groups.

Twenty wards of the court live on the premises the year round and attend school in Oxford. They are supported by the county. The camp was built through donations of service clubs, church groups, and other interested people and is being carried on in the same manner.

Needy children from every part of Oakland County are offered a variety of recreational activities free of charge at the 80-acre camp located on Hammond Lake. Some of the sports they take part in are swimming, boating, fishing, baseball, softball, archery, and hiking.

There are indoor programs for rainy days and other functions to give every child who attends a full schedule of entertainment throughout his or her stay.

Shocking Story of Reward for Good Samaritan

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Stanley Geiser, 12, provided drama on a rooftop when he tried to do a good deed.

• • •

The youngster grabbed a live 220-volt wire last night while retrieving a friend's slipper off a second-story roof.

• • •

A neighbor, Robert Stephens, 26, heard the screams of Stanley's mates, rushed to the roof and knocked the boy loose from the wire.

• • •

"He collapsed in my arms like melted butter in an oven," Stephens said.

• • •

Stanley, more scared than anything else, said the hot wire "sent shocks going through my arms and hands and when I tried to get away it hurt more."

A Day to Pause in Reverence . . .

We owe a debt of gratitude to every person who has served in our Armed Forces in wartime. Most of all, we are indebted to those who have suffered, or have given their lives in defense of our country.

Thus, each year on May 30, we pause to quietly give thanks to God for their efforts that have provided so well for our protection.

"Lightning Clean"

Lightning clean . . . that's the only way the brewery can be when National Bohemian flavor is at stake. This rule of cleanliness was set down in the old, old journal for brewing to the National Bohemian formula.

Cleanliness, quality. Slow, patient brewing—all these are part of the National Brewing tradition. Now, this ART of brewing is advanced by today's SCIENCE. The result: An even greater uniformity. A clean, wholesome beer that's always light and mellow.

Enjoy the satisfying flavor of this fine beer today . . . at local prices!

NATIONAL BOHEMIAN

Light, mellow. Naturally brewed . . . for satisfying flavor.

Decline of Pitching Staff Disappointing to Higgins

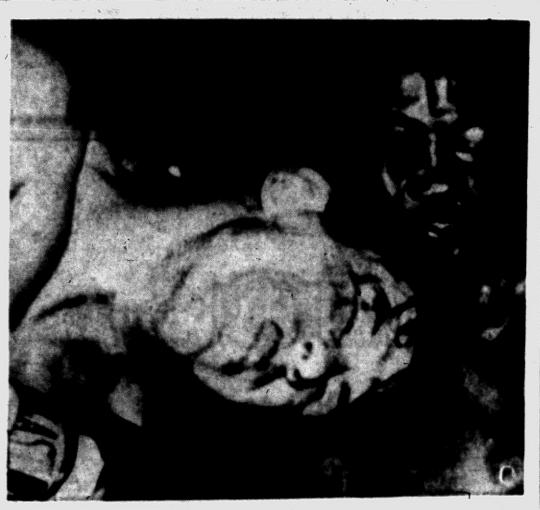

NEW YORK (AP)—Manager Mike Higgins of the Boston Red Sox acknowledged today his biggest disappointment, aside from Ted Williams' inability to play because of a foot injury, has been the decline of the pitching staff.

At the start of the season, Higgins was convinced that the mound corps would be the most formidable single department of the club. In a period of six weeks, it has deteriorated from the strongest link to the weakest.

Higgins tried hard not to appear too concerned over his club's snail-like pace that had them a poor third, 6 ½ games behind the front-running New York Yankees. But it was obvious he was plenty worried.

* * *

"Our pitching is thin and hurting," he said after the Red Sox had absorbed a 2-0 defeat last night, the fifth in six games with the Yankees this season. "It's not anywhere near as good as it looked during spring training and early in the season.

PAINSTAKING MOMENT — Ducking Joey Giardello of Philadelphia grimaces as he gets caught on neck by right thrown by Charley Cotton of Toledo in seventh round of bout in St. Nicholas Arena last night. Cotton made it two in a row over the favored Giardello, former top middleweight contender, by taking a split 10-round decision.

Strafaci, Manley Eliminated From British Amateur

U.S. Serviceman Gets to Third Round With Buffalo Officer

TROON, Scotland (INS)—Two of America's top contenders for the British Amateur golf crown—Hobart Manley Jr., of Savannah, Ga., and Frank Strafaci of Garden City, N.Y., were dumped from competition today by sharpshooting Britons.

Welchman Hugh Squirrell took advantage of Manley's weak putting over the ancient Troon seaside course to finish one hole up on the soft-spoken Georgia youth at the end of 18 holes.

Earlier, Strafaci, playing his 7th British Amateur, was eliminated by Dr. Frank Deighton of England, 3 and 2. Deighton, an ex-Walker Cupper was deadly up close and his putting was keen.

Line squalls and wind gusts from the sea tore at the course as play got underway this morning, possibly affecting the games of early-starting Americans. But by the afternoon, the skies cleared and sun splashed the rain-dampened course.

* * *

U.S. serviceman Ed Whalley of Salem, Mass, fought his way into the 3rd round with a 2 and 2 win over Ian MacDonald of Scotland. Lt. Gene Eyler of Buffalo also made 3rd round play with a 2 and 1 win over Minty Miller, a local Scot.

Whalley and Eyler have been paired to meet this afternoon.

Skippers Victors in Hot Golf Battle

By H. GUY MOATS
Pontiac Press Special Writer

Waterford's Skippers yesterday afternoon broke a three-year monoply on The Pontiac Press Prep Invitational golf championship. Pete Evarts five-man combination edged Royal Oak and Birmingham to capture the fine perpetual trophy held by Maples since 1953.

The Pontiac suburban squad came from behind a 4-stroke handicap held by a hot Royal Oak club, at the turn. Maples were close, but still back 14 strokes. Acorn shotmakers had carded 193, and looked like a real threat.

On the "home" nine at Municipal course Skippers buckled down, led by Jack Reynolds' one-under par 34. Johnny Wettlaufer came through with 38 to add to his 1st round 35 and Dale Wheeler hit 37 to go with his 1st nine 40. Bill Cumberworth and Cleland Charbaneau added a pair of 42s to hang up the winning 390 total.

Royal Oak was 2nd with 394, Maples 3rd with 396.

Not only did the Skippers take the big honors. They added the tourney medalist and Class A medalist trophies as well, plus a handsome plaque, emblematic of their championship.

However, it took a 3-hole "sudden death" playoff to determine who would get the two medals.

Both medalists fired 73s. Both were little fellows with tremendous power, fine skill in getting up to the carpets and sharp on the greens.

Johnny Wettlaufer won both baubles. He, and Maples Tim Baldwin, were even on the extra holes, to No. 3. There Wettlaufer carded a regulation 4. Baldwin bogied the hole.

A Class C school ace took home the B-C medal. Straight-shooting Bud Badger of Bloomfield Hills fired a brilliant 75 for the medal.

Another Class C school led the B-C division. St. Frederick's, with 436 strokes topped eight other teams for the honor. Rams and Bloomfield were only "C" schools. There were five "A" schools.

An extremely interesting angle in the tourney was the fact that four of the teams take part in state tournaments last of the week, at Port Huron. These include Waterford, Royal Oak and Birmingham, recent regional winners and Bloomfield Hills "C" regional champ.

How well these youngsters were shooting Monday is seen in the number of 70-shooters and those in the low 80s. Many more were listed between the medalist 73s and 80s, than ever before in this event. Thirteen got into the 70 section.

Team standings:

Class A—Waterford 390; Royal Oak 394, Birmingham 396; Pontiac 416; Southfield 423.
B-C—St. Frederick 436; Troy 450; Shrine 452; Milford 456; Brighton 461; Bloomfield 493; Fitzgerald 505; Avondale 515; Clawson 535.
Individuals under 80 — Wettlaufer, Baldwin (medalist) 73; Jack Reynolds (Wat) 74; Mike Conroy (Bhm) 74; Rick Bera (RO) 75; Bud Badger (Bloom Hills) 75; Larry White (RO) 76; Keith Fox (RO) 77; Dale Wheeler (Wat) 77; Bob Turner (Southfield) 77; Sam Coleman) 78; Pete Green (Bhm) 78; Dick Singleton (P) 79 and Ed Kast (St. Fred) 79.

PRESS TEST TITLISTS — What a determined comeback can do for a team is exemplified in the final round yesterday in The Pontiac Press prep golf tourney at Municipal Course. Above is the Waterford High team and its coach, new champions. Skippers cut four strokes off their 1st round 197 for a 193 to compile a winning total of 390 (4 under Royal Oak). Top PCC Brass Requested to Take Hand in Grid Row

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — The powerful president's council of the Pacific Coast Conference has been asked to move into the furore raging over penalties imposed against UCLA for overpayments to football players.

UCLA alumni have been making counter charges against other PCC members since the conference levied $95,000 in fines against their school, barred its football team from the Rose Bowl for three years and cut a year's eligibility off football players—all for undercover payments to some grid players by booster organizations.

* * *

Dr. Robert G. Sproul of the University of California last night requested the president's council to consider "the questions raised by the present situation since they obviously involve the basic principles on which the conference operates."

* * *

Sproul's statement was vague and he did not elaborate. However, some sportswriters interpreted this to mean the conference may ease the ban on UCLA using senior football players.

Dr. Sproul issued his statement after meeting with the chancellors of the Universities of California at Berkeley and Los Angeles and with the faculty representatives and athletic directors.

Waterford League Sees Triple Play

One big inning and a triple play highlighted Monday night's action in the Waterford Township Softball League at Drayton Plains.

Thrifty Drug exploded with six runs in the 5th inning to defeat Gidley Electric, 9-5. Gidley's converted a 3rd-inning liner by Joe Umphrey into a triple killing by tagging 2nd and then tossing to 1st base.

White Brothers scored three runs in the 1st stanza and added single tallies in the 2nd, 3rd, 5th and 6th to down the VFW, 7-5. Robinson hit a bases-empty home run for the losers in the 4th inning.

Fuentes Beats Gill

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Ramon Fuentes, Los Angeles welterweight, earned a hard-fought 10-round decision over Sonny Gill of Pasadena in the main event at the Coliseum Monday night.

Crary Thinclads Beaten

Isaac Crary Junior High's track team bowed to the Waterford Junior Varsity Monday in a dual meet at Waterford, 40½-36½. The Skipper JV's won six events and tied for 1st in another. Waterford's Mallory Berube won the broad jump and low hurdles while Jim Smith of Crary took the 75-yard dash, tied for 1st in the high jump and placed 2nd in the pole vault to score 12 points, high for the meet.

Runs Aplenty Mark City Softball Play

City Softball League players almost wore out home plate last night at Beaudette and North Side parks when 74 runs were scored in four games, 29 by one team.

Pulver Tire amassed 22 hits while walloping GMC, 29-1, in a girls' marathon at Beaudette. Toni Galante rapped a two-run homer in the 5th inning as North Side Auto Supply trounced Gingellville, 14-3, in a girls' game at North Side.

* * *

Don Williams pitched a two-hitter as Walled Lake Market thumped Lunsford Market, 9-1, in men's action at Beaudette. Pontiac Select a Drink swamped Franklin Products on the North Side diamond, 16-1, with Ed Rondo twirling two-hit ball.

Cotton Victor Over Giardello

'King' Accorded Split Decision in Argument at New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Charley (King) Cotton had his second straight victory over Joey Giardello, a reputation, and a few offers against more "name" fighters today.

* * *

"The breaks are finally coming my way," said the happy, 26-year-old ex-Marine from Toledo, Ohio. "I don't care how close the officials call 'em as long as they have me ahead. Of course knocking 'em out makes it a whole lot easier."

The officials gave Cotton a split-decision edge over Giardello in their bruising 10-round telecast tussle at St. Nicholas Arena last night. Cotton was an 8-5 underdog despite his close but unanimous triumph over the onetime top-ranking middleweight contender in the same arena three weeks ago.

Vikings Edge Pontiac, 6-5

A base on balls and back-to-back doubles in the 8th inning brought Flint Northern a 6-5 overtime victory over Pontiac in a Saginaw Valley Conference baseball game Monday at Wisner Field.

Arnold Larson was the victim of the assault in the 1st extra frame. Joe Buford walked to begin the uprising and moved to 3rd on Lee Johnson's hit. Ken Paul drilled a two-bagger to chase home Buford with the winning run.

The Chiefs outhit the Vikings, 10 to 7, and enjoyed a 5-3 lead entering the 6th stanza. Northern tallied twice in the 6th to knot the count and set the stage for the winning rally.

Jim Moore started on the mound for Northern, but gave way to Dick Starr in the 3rd inning. Starr received credit for the win. Bud Hayward slammed two triples and a double for the Chiefs and Art Poe and Larson each made two hits.

Bisons' Boss Calls Majors a 'Monopoly'

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—The general manager of the un-affiliated Buffalo Bisons of the International Baseball League says the major leagues have a "player monopoly" and he threatens to go as far as Congress, if need be, to fix it.

John C. Stigmeier, said last night he was trying to arrange a meeting with Ford Frick, commissioner of baseball.

Bald Mountain Golfer Scores Ace on No. 6

Third ace of the season on the Bald Mountain layout was turned in yesterday afternoon by another Pontiac shotmaker.

* * *

Playing in a foursome in a league match, Harley Lawson, 132 North Telegraph Rd., fired a neat five-iron shot to the No. 6 green. The ball hit the front of the green and rolled straight into the cup—the highly elated golfer reported to pro Ken Wilson.

* * *

Lawson had a 39 for the 9-hole round. No. 3 is a par 3 hole, 172 yards long.

* * *

Playing with Lawson were Ralph Eiler, Cecil Phillips and Tom Tininani, all of Pontiac.

Cranbrook, Clarkston Win

Cranbrook and Clarkston scored hard-earned victories Monday in area prep baseball activity.

The Cranes pushed across one run in the 6th inning to nose out visiting Birmingham, 4-3, for their 10th triumph in 17 games. Southpaw Bruce Richards hurled a three-hitter to outpitch Don Picman and Bob Clunan.

In the 6th stanza Pete Bedford singled, stole 2nd and went to 3rd on a throwing error. Lloyd Asbury's squeeze bunt sent Bedford home with the winning run.

Clarkston collected 11 hits, but was forced into overtime to defeat West Bloomfield, 3-1, in a Wayne-Oakland League game at Keego Harbor. Dave Gaddis struck out 13 and yielded two scratch singles while hurling the route for Clarkston.

John Lucadum was the victim of Clarkston's two-run uprising in the 8th frame. Safe blows by George Lang, Gary Nelson, Chuck Passage, Gaddis and Eddie Roberts handed the Wolves their 7th league win in 11 starts.

St. Mary Trackmen Overpower Oak Park

Orchard Lake St. Mary concluded the most successful track season in the school's history Monday by overpowering Oak Park, 85⅔-23⅓, in a dual meet at Orchard Lake.

The Eaglets took 10 1st places, tied for 1st in another, and slammed three events—the pole vault, shot put, and low hurdles. Felix Blaszczak of St. Mary won two events, the 100 and 220 dashes.

Yesterday's runaway victory gave Rev. John Gabalski's Eaglets a season record of 12 wins and two losses in dual and triangular meets.

Yanks Romp Along in AL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

This, in case you hadn't noticed, is a brand new year in the National League.

* * *

A year ago, the NL went into the Memorial Day milepost strung out behind Brooklyn, with the Dodgers enjoying a six-game bulge and St. Louis and Milwaukee 11 games back. Pittsburgh, going through its regular pantomime, was 18 games to the rear and in the cellar.

That was last year. Right now Milwaukee is winning what has been a two-way scrap for the lead with St. Louis, while the Pirates are just a game back.

* * *

And where's Brooklyn? Three games back in fifth.

* * *

In the American League, the race has the look of a romp. The New York Yankees grabbed a 4½-game lead, beating Boston 2-0 as Whitey Ford gained his seventh triumph and second shutout while the runner-up Cleveland Indians lost to Detroit 3-1. Kansas City dumped Chicago's White Sox 6-4, on a two-run homer by Enos Slaughter in the ninth, and Baltimore clipped Washington 6-5 in 10 innings.

* * *

Ford, in trouble only twice, scattered five Boston hits while the Yanks made the most of four singles off Frank Sullivan.

Invokes Dental Aid

BALTIMORE (AP)—A dentist was to yank three teeth from Billy Loes' mouth this morning and the result, hope the Baltimore Orioles, will be a winning pitcher.

* * *

Loes, the 26-year-old former Brooklyn Dodger righthander, has been suffering the sore-arm miseries during the past two years. After Oriole Manager Paul Richards bought him for as reported $10,00 or more two weeks ago. Loes was given a head-to-toe physical checkup.

MENASHA, Wis. (AP) — Howard Koplitz of Oshkosh High School, where Billy Hoeft of the Detroit Tigers first attracted attention, pitched a perfect seven-inning game here tonight in leading Oshkosh to a 4-0 victory over Fond du Lac high.

* * *

Koplitz, an 18-year-old right-handed senior, allowed no hits and no opposing runner got on base.

'Goosepimples'

Long 'Chilled' by Home Run Mark

PITTSBURGH (AP)—"I got chills all over. It was bigger than the one in Philadelphia. I am glad it happened in Pittsburgh for the people who deserve it."

Dale Long, who threatens to out-Mantle Mickey Mantle, stood in the Pittsburgh clubhouse after last night's 3-2 victory over Brooklyn. He was doing his best to tell how it felt to hit his eighth home run in eight games, breaking the major league record he set Saturday in Philadelphia.

"Have you got any left?" somebody asked.

"Who cares as long as we keep on winning," he replied.

Did you ever see a bunch of kids like this? They just keep bouncing back when they're supposed to be knocked out.

"At first I didn't think it was going in (the ball just did make the right field stands, about 375 feet from the plate.) I just put my head down and ran. When I passed Bobby Bragan (Pirate manager) at third, I just shook my head because it was hard to believe.

But the big thing was what happened next."

After Long trundled home with his 14th homer and disappeared into the gloomy confines of the dugout, the roaring crowd of 32,221 stopped the show. They wouldn't let the game continue until Long took a bow. They cheered wildly without a letup while Carl Erskine, Brooklyn pitcher, tried to throw to Frank Thomas.

Finally, Long popped his head out of the dugout, doffed his cap and waved to the frantic customers who are beginning to talk about Long, not Mantle, breaking Babe Ruth's record.

Here's Breakdown for Homer Record

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Here's the game-by-game breakdown of Dale Long's record-breaking home run performance. The Pittsburgh slugger extended the major league mark he set last Saturday by hitting his eighth home run in as many consecutive games Monday night (with opposing pitcher and club):

1. May 19, Davis, Chicago.
2. May 20 (1st game), Crone, Milwaukee
3. May 20 (2nd game), Spahn, Milwaukee
4. May 22, Wehmeier, St. Louis.
5. May 23, McDaniel, St. Louis
6. May 25, Simmons, Philadelphia.
7. May 26, Flowers, Philadelphia.
8. May 28, Erskine, Brooklyn.

Honchell's 2-Hitter Beats Viking JV 9

Backing up Charley Honchell's two-hit hurling with 14 safe blows, Pontiac High's Junior Varsity pastimers blasted out a 12-1 win Monday over Flint Northern here.

Little Vikings' one tally was unearned. Jayvees scored in about every inning, coach Arnie Wilson reported. Dave Kimball and Tom Conley banged the game's only extra base hits. PHS now has a mark of 4 wins, three losses and one tie, with two more tilts to go.

Porcupines, contrary to popular belief, do not "shoot" their quills in self-defense. The notion probably arises from the animal's habit of fighting back, when cornered, with lightning strokes of its dart-studded tail, says the National Geographic Society.

COMPLIMENTS—The Pontiac Press extended a fine compliment to PHS all-winning track team last night. It was a two-way compliment. The team, its coaches, head of the city's schools, the PHS principal, athletic director, members of this newspaper's sports staff and the honored speaker partook of a fine banquet at Stevens Hall. The team received little golden championship emblems, gift from The Press, and then heard compliments galore, from the officials. Karl Schlademan (right above) was the chief speaker. He complimented the team, the coaches and the Press. Hayes Jones, No. 1 man on the team (center) and Coach Wally Schloerke stand behind the MHSAA and huge Mansfield meet trophies, won this year.

Hitchcock and McGovern Scramble Race Winners

Dean Hitchcock from Jackson and Jerry McGovern from Grand Rapids were winners of the Pontiac Motorcycle Club's 2nd annual scramble races Sunday in a field at Opdyke and Auburn roads.

Hitchcock drove a Harley-Davidson to victory in the lightweight division, 125 to 350 cubic centimeters. Pontiac's Ed Wilson finished 2nd and Tom Glass of Flint took 3rd.

The heavyweight class, 350 c.c. to 750 c.c., was won by McGovern who piloted a Harley-Davidson. Rayon Molloseau and Cecil Tenny, both from Flint, finished 2nd and 3rd respectively.

Gardner Durfee of Detroit won the consolation race in the heavyweight division and Harlow Heck of Flint took lightweight consolation honors.

Trophies were presented to all place winners by club president Roy Wallace. Larry Colby of Keego Harbor was the referee. A large crowd attended the races.

M59 Races Memorial Day

A Memorial Day auto racing program, highlighted by a 50-lap feature race, a 25-lap semi-final and two other added events, will be held Wednesday at the Pontiac Speedway.

Old models and modified hardtops will compete in the holiday program, track manager Dick Dewey has announced. Time trials will get under way at 1:30 p.m., with the 1st race at 3 o'clock.

Jim Wilson, a Canadian driver, stole Sunday's show at the M59 oval. Wilson won the 25-lap feature race in the time of 8:39.68, with Chuck Partello finishing 2nd. Don Batter won the 15-lap semi-final with a clocking of 5:36.17.

* * *

Partello, yast year's track champion, captured the dash and pursuit races. Heat winners were B. Gatten, D. Baden, D. Coppersmith, Dick Price and Bud Wells.

All-Victorious Thinclads Honored at Press Banquet

The Pontiac Press last night spread a fine banquet at Stevens Hall, for its honor guests, Pontiac High School's all-victorious track team.

* * *

The event was a series of complimentary features, beginning with the dinner, paying honor to the Michigan schoolboy track and field champions (for the 2nd year in a row).

Practically ever member of the title winning squad that has written the finest page in PHS track history the last two years was on hand to partake of the generous chicken dinner, served by women of All-Saints Church.

* * *

Compliments continued with the presentation of handsome little golden track shoes (spikes and all) to the young athletes, as a token of appreciation for their outstanding record. The emblems were gifts from The Pontiac Press.

Supt. of Schools Dr. Dana P. Whitmer lauded the team for its fine job. Principal Francis Staley added more along the same vein, as did athletic director Tom Dodson. Head coach Wally Schloerke also did a job of back-patting for his fine squad.

It remained for MSU's veteran track coach, Karl Schlademan, to cap the evening with an interesting discussion of track events in this country, Japan and at the Olympics. He referred to the recent Big 10 meet where Michigan was hard-pressed to win, saying that "you're up one year, have to fight the next." Karl praised the team, its coaches and The Press for its recognition of the team's fine record.

New Record Seen for '500'

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Four former winners of the Memorial Day 500-mile auto race predicted today that Wednesday's 40th running of the event will produce a record several miles an hour over the late Bill Vukovich's 1954 mark of 130.84.

* * *

The prediction looked sound, in view of the fact that 15 drivers in the 33-car field qualified their cars at speeds above the previous Indianapolis Speedway record for the 10-mile trials.

* * *

Bob Sweikert of Indianapolis, last year's winner after Vukovich was killed in a four-car crash while leading the race, said it might take 136 m.p.h. to win.

Bill Holland of Indianapolis, the 1949 winner, also figured it would take a 135 or 136 m.p.h. pace.

* * *

Johnnie Parsons of Van Nuys, Calif., 1950 winner, said he was counting on a 135-plus pace and Troy Ruttman, 1952 winner, said it would take over 134.5 to win.

These experts represent all the winners since 1949 except Vukovich, the 1953 and 1954 champion.

Ruttman, Parsons and Sweikert are in Wednesday's field and all are rated as strong contenders. Ruttman has the Kurtis-Kraft in which Sweikert won last year.

Parsons, who qualified at 144.144 m.p.h. has a new Muzma racer owed by Promoter J. C. Agajanian of San Pedro, Calif.

Sweikert will drive another new Kuzma entered by an Indianapolis racing group.

* * *

The former winners had to yield qualifying honors to three veteran drivers who pushed the 10-mile speed above 145 m.p.h. for the first time. Pat Flaherty of Chicago set the record at 145.596. Johnny Thompson of Springfield, Mass., did 145.549 and Jim Rathmann of Miami, 145.120.

* * *

A flash flood from three days of rain sent rivulets trickling across the track Monday from a normally small creek that runs under the south end of the track. The water receded rapidly late in the day.

Officials decided the wet spots made the track too hazardous for any further qualifying attempts and 12 drivers were left at the line.

Tigers Leave Home, Beat Score, Tribe

CLEVELAND (AP)—Whatever the Tigers need to become a winning ball club this season it apparently is not home cooking.

Detroit left the friendly confines of Briggs Stadium for a 17-game road trip and promptly won its first start, 3-1 over Herb Score and the Cleveland Indians last night.

The victory gave the Tigers an 8-8 road record. At home they're 8-13.

Things turned out happily but for a few moments in the 1st inning it looked as if the Tigers thought they were still at home. Jim Busby led off the Cleveland 1st with a triple and romped home on the 1st of three singles by Bobby Avial. Al Smith promptly singled but Steve Gromek choked off further scoring and settled down to win his 3rd game in a nifty six-hit performance.

Detroit put its 1st man aboard in each of the 1st four innings but it wasn't until the 4th that a Tiger runner scored. In that frame Al Kaline singled, Ray Boone singled and Bob Kennedy bounced a ground rule double into the left field seats. Boone scored later on an infield out.

Boone homered in the 7th with the bases empty for Detroit's third run.

It was Score's 2nd loss to the Tigers this season. They beat him in Detroit on a 10th inning home run by Bill Tuttle last month.

Tigers are off today and invade Kansas City tomorrow for a morning-afternoon Memorial Day doubleheader.

June 23rd Bouts

Fight Tickets Available

Tickets have gone on sale for the 10-bout amateur fight card which will be held June 23rd at Waterford High School for the benefit of the National Nephrosis Foundation.

The bouts, which will be conducted under rules of the AAU, which feature amateurs from Flint, Detroit and Pontiac in three two-minute rounds per bout.

Spearheading the program is Stanley Allen, state chairman of the Nephrosis Foundation, who lost his twin son to the disease just three weeks ago.

Allen, a former bantamweight fighter who held the championship in 1946 when he was fighting out of Trenton, N. J., has arranged a program for fights in all divisions.

Tickets are presently available at Griff's Grill, Sam Bensons, Drayton Rotary and Junior Chamber of Commerce in Waterford. Other places of purchase will be announced later.

Record Homer Gives Long's Wife Big Thrill

NORTH ADAMS, Mass. (AP)—"It was one of the greatest thrills of my life. I jumped right out of my seat and woke up our son Dale Jr."

* * *

That was the statement of Mrs. Dale Long last night when asked how she felt about her husband hitting his eighth home run in eight games for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

* * *

Mrs. Long said she was listening to a radio broadcast of the game on a New York station and was hoping hubby Dale would come through with another homer.

"It was one of the greatest thrills of my life. I jumped right out of my seat and woke up our son, Dale Jr. He's only eight, but he's never without a ball or glove. Johnny, who's only 13 months old, woke up, but he didn't know what was going on."

Belgian 880 Star Plans 1st Workout

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Belgium's Roger Moens, holder of the world record of 1:45.7 for the 880-yard run, planned his first U.S. workout today in preparation for the nearby Compton Invitational track meet Friday night.

The trim, scholarly appearing Belgian, a criminal court investigator in Brussels, arrived last night after flying 6,000 miles to compete. He told newsmen his mark might be bettered in the meet if the right conditions prevail.

Collegians Shine in Western Test

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — More than half the field will be chopped from the Western Amateur Golf Tournament today and par figures or better may be needed to qualify for match play, starting Thursday.

College boys sparkled in the opening day of qualifying yesterday, when 20 of the 130 starters shot par-72 or better. Two college boys shared the first-day lead, with 67s, and another youngster from the campus fired a 68.

At the end of today's 18 holes, the field will be trimmed to the 50 low scores and ties. This group will play another 36 holes Wednesday.

Rex Baxter of Amarillo, Texas, a junior at the University of Houston, and Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn., fresh out of Memphis State, each posted a 67.

'Rookie' Vessels Fears He Can't Make Colts' 11

CLEVELAND, Okla. (AP) — Billy Vessels, who was named "best" in college, Canadian pro and service football, will be a rookie in the Nnational League this year — and he's afraid he won't make the team.

The former All-America halfback will join the Baltimore Colts in July after a 2-year hitch in the Army. He was discharged last week at Ft. Sill., Okla., and then visited his hometown here.

Vessels said he and other Colt rookies will begin practice July 19, with the veterans checking into camp a few days later.

15 Homers at Boys Club

Midget 9's Start Season

The Pontiac Federal Savings Bank's Midget Baseball League began Saturday at the Boys Club and James Clarkson, executive vice president of the bank, officially opened the 1956 season by throwing out the first ball.

Before the day was over, eight teams and 96 players saw action. Fifteen homers were clouted by the youthful sluggers during the four games. A home run is automatic when the ball passes the 175-foot mark on the fly.

Roy Moralis blasted a grand slam homer in the 4th stanza and later produced a game-winning single as the Orioles nipped the Senators in extra innings, 8-7. Jack Miller slammed three home runs plus another safety to lead the White Sox to a 16-7 victory over the Athletics.

The Yankees routed the Indians, 11-2, as pitcher Dede Lufkin limited the Tribe to four hits. Taking advantage of five straight walks in the final frame, the Tigers scored three runs to defeat the Red Sox, 10-8.

In last night's action at the Boys Club, Lufkin outpitched Ron Sutton for his 2nd triumph as the Yankees edged the Athletics, 4-3, and Miller hit his 4th home run in two games as the White Sox outslugged the Red Sox, 14-12.

Highland Ladies Golf League Starts Season

The Highland Ladies Golf League opened its 1956 season Monday at the Highland Golf and Country Club. A "poker" event was held, with Mrs. Roy Buffmyer serving as hostess.

Yesterday's winners were Mrs. William Smith in the championship flight; Mrs. Sam Lerner, 1st flight; Mrs. Robert Beach, 2nd flight; Mrs. William Ruckel, 3rd flight; and Mrs. Roger Bass, 4th flight.

"Crazy" golf day will be held Wednesday, June 6. The league welcomes new members.

Diamond Skit in Hall of Fame

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A gold recording of the "Who's on First?" routine of comedians Bud Abbott and Lou Costello will be placed on permanent display at the National Baseball Hall of Fame Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y., a spokesman for the pair said today.

Also to be exhibited late next month will be a framed copy of the dialogue they have performed more than 15,000 times in 20 years. The spokesman said word of the honor came to the comics from Paul S. Kerr and Sid C. Keener, Hall of Fame officials.

Cards Sign Tackle

CHICAGO (AP) — Larry Williams, 274-pound tackle, has been signed by the Chicago Cardinals as a free agent, Managing Director Walter Solfner announced today.

Williams, who now lives in Chicago, played football at Miller high in Helena, Ark., Xavier University and on an Army team in Germany.

School Clubs Are Losers After $500 Safe Robbery

At least one school club at Ferndale's senior high school will be the loser unless authorities step in before the semester end to cover losses resulting from a weekend robbery.

About $60 of an estimated $500 taken from the school wall safe belongs to co-operative students, who planned to spend it on a banquet before school ends June 15.

Co-operative students get school credit for parttime work. Their loss, as well as some $250 belonging to other school groups, was not insured.

Principal John J. Houghton explained the money had been placed in the safe at the request of teacher-advisors, along with operating funds, mostly cafeteria profits collected Friday.

He said he did not know why the operating funds had not been banked Friday afternoon, as is customary, but planned to enforce the rule rigidly from now on.

Houghton hoped that the Board of Education would offer to make up the loss. Superintendent of Schools Roy Robinson had said Saturday that the matter would be taken up at the next board meeting June 11.

A check Monday revealed these losses: $189 belonging to the music department from ticket sales; $25 raised to cover printing costs next year of the school yearbook; $15.50 belonging to the athletic club and $21 raised by the French club for an annual trip.

The music department loss may affect purchase of special sheet music and records next fall, according to Otto Brown, director.

He said that the money actually was for partial scholarships to Camp Interlochen this summer. "But we'll curtail spending next fall in order to help the students this summer," Brown said.

* * *

The department will give $25 to some half-dozen musicians to help cover two-week's training at the camp. The annual three-weeks special instruction at the camp for the school band will not be affected by the loss, he said.

Grains Advance Less Actively

CHICAGO (AP)—Grains advanced on the Board of Trade today although dealings were less active than in the previous session.

* * *

An exception to the general upturn was July soybeans, in which trading continued highly nervous. They opened a few cents higher but lost this advance as trading progressed.

* * *

In other pits gains ran from fractions to around a cent with no particular cereal showing outstanding strength.

* * *

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ¼ to ¾ higher, July $2.01½; corn ⅜ to 1 cent higher, July $1.48⅛; oats unchanged to ⅞ higher, July 63⅛; rye ½ lower to ¼ higher, July $1.18¾; soybeans 2½ lower to 1¼ higher, July $2.98½, and lard unchanged to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $11.80.

Two Unions Return to Grand Blanc Job

FLINT (AP)—Two unions involved in a bloody jurisdictional dispute at General Motors' Fisher Body Plant in Grand Blanc agreed to return to work today. A third refused.

* * *

Riggers and iron workers worked out a settlement yesterday in the Darin & Armstrong Construction Co. office at the plant. Darin & Armstrong are contractors handling the conversion of the former army tank plant to civilian production.

Millwrights said they wouldn't go back on the job until they were guaranteed against a repetition of the pipe-swinging melee Friday that sent 11 men to the hospital, two injured critically. Friday's brawl followed bickering over which union had the right to move heavy machinery in the plant.

* * *

About 200 men were involved in the head-busting fracas that saw steel-helmeted men swinging lengths of pipe and chain and baseball bats against their fellow workers. All the unions involved were members of the American Federation of Labor before that union merged with the CIO.

Revoked License Count Brings Term in Jail

Driving with a revoked license resulted in a 15-day term in Oakland County Jail for a Walled Lake man Monday. John Wilson Jr., 19, pleaded guilty when arraigned by Justice Joseph J. Leavy of Sylvan Lake.

The sentence followed his failure to pay fine and costs of $60. He had been arrested earlier in the day by Wolverine Lake police.

Stock Market Rises Smartly

NEW YORK (AP) — For the first time in more than a week, the stock market today advanced smartly and held to good gains.

* * *

In the early afternoon, there were many gains of 1 to 2 points throughout the list with activity pronounced in the steels, motors and other major divisions.

Trading was brisk at a pace around 2,500,000 shares for the session. That compares with 2,780,000 shares traded in yesterday's lower market.

The market began on a higher note with demand so vigorous that the tape fell behind briefly in reporting transactions. The gait slackened later and prices eased under their best, but it was not long before improvement began again.

Better acting issues included U.S. Steel, General Motors, Goodrich, Boeing, Douglas, Glenn Martin, American Telephone, Phelps Dodge, Allied Chemical, Southern Pacific, Royal Dutch Petroleum and Texas Co.

* * *

At noon, the Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up $1.10 at $176.30. That compares with a loss for all of yesterday of $2.20.

The whole background of the stock market at the present time is one of bearishness. In mid-February the stock market started a rally that carried ahead with unusual strength until early April. Then it faltered as prices on average reached a record high mark.

London Rumors Say Aga to Snub Aly Khan as Heir

LONDON (INS) — Rumors are circulating in London that the fabulously wealthy Aga Khan will name his youngest son, Prince Sadruddin, successor to his title and fortune.

If they proved true, it would mean the 79-year-old leader of Asian and African Ismaili Moslems would be passing over his eldest son, playboy Prince Aly Khan.

Price Sadruddin, a student at Harvard University in Cambridge, Mass., is the half brother of Aly Khan.

The rumors were prompted by the Aga Khan's announcement that Sadruddin will be his houseguest for the royal ascot race meet in England during June.

ALY MAY MISS OUT

The Aga Khan has rented a house near the racetrack, but it was doubted whether Aly Khan, onetime husband of screen actress Rita Hayworth, would join the house party.

The Aga Khan, who is one of the wealthiest men in the world, is entitled to nominate his own successor to the Moslem leadership and it need not be his eldest son.

Aly Khan is the Aga's son by his first wife, Italian Ballerina Gianetta Magliano. Sadruddin is the son of his marriage to the French "candy girl of Chambery," Andree Carron, who the Aga divorced in 1943.

Aly Khan has long been tagged as heir apparent to his father's titles. However, it has been suggested often that Sadruddin is the Aga's favorite and would inherit the fortune.

The Aga Khan is looked upon by his followers as the direct descendant of the prophet Mohammed and as a kind of deity on earth.

* * *

Each year the wealthy Aga is weighed in jewels or precious metals as a gift from his followers—which is no slight matter considering his multiple hundred pound weight. He gives the present back to the people, not needing it at all considering his wealth.

Slate Detroit Area for Defense Work

DETROIT (INS)—Two top government officials said the Detroit area will receive $40 million in defense contracts to help ease unemployment.

Army Secretary Wilber M. Brucker told the Economic Club yesterday that $18 million will be spent in Detroit within "the next 90 days."

Rocco C. Siciliano, Assistant Secretary of Labor, who also spoke at the meeting told Mayor Albert E. Cobo:

"We expect substantial contracts to come into the Detroit area within the next few weeks. This is our information from the Defense Department.

"It is possible that some could be effective immediately. Others may take up to 90 days. The picture here is not cheerful."

Car Sales Approach Four-Month Record

DETROIT (AP) — Motor vehicle sales by U.S. plants totaled 2,698,154 in the first four months of 1956, the Automobile Manufacturers Assn. reported today. It is the second highest sales figure on record for the period.

The four-month total includes 2,288,006 passenger cars and 410,148 trucks and motor coaches. In the month of April, factory sales amounted to 654,333, compared with 881,840 in April, 1955.

In the export markets, 41,628 new motor vehicles of all types were sold by U.S. manufacturers during April. That brings the export total for the first four months to 168,741—nearly 2,000 better than in a similar period last year.

News in Brief

Pleading guilty to reckless driving, Robert S. Magee, 21, of Hazel Park, paid fine and costs totaling $95 in Justice Court yesterday. The arraignment was held by Troy Justice Charles Losey.

Maxwell H. Graham, 63, of Sylvan Lake, was fined $75 and paid $15 in costs after pleading guilty to reckless driving Monday. He was arraigned before Keego Harbor Justice James Southart.

Conciliators Ask Session to Settle Port Strikes

CLEVELAND (AP) — A meeting may be called next week in an attempt to settle a strike that has slowed shipping operations in 15 Great Lakes Ports, federal labor conciliators indicated yesterday.

Captains and engineers of the Great Lakes Towing Co. tugboat fleet struck yesterday for pay raises. Negotiations for a new one-year contract to replace one which expired April 1 broke off Sunday when the committee for the licensed Tugmen's Protective Assn. of America walked out of a meeting rejecting a company offer.

Dad Kills Son in Car Squabble

Joint Auto Ownership Sparks Quarrel; Father Held Without Charge

CINCINNATI (AP)—Police say a two-day-old quarrel between a father and his son over use of an automobile they owned jointly resulted last night in the fatal shooting of the son.

* * *

Officers said Charles Miller Jr., 23, was shot to death as he scuffled with his father Charles Sr., 49, over a gun which the father said he had fired once into the floor. The shooting occurred in the elder Miller's home, next door to a bait and sporting goods shop he and his son operated in suburban Reading.

HELD WITHOUT CHARGE

Reading police ordered the father held without charge pending a further investigation.

Patrolmen said the father wept as he told them he and his son had quarreled two days about the automobile. He said his son then quit the bait shop yesterday but returned last night to get money due him.

The quarrel started again and police said they were told the elder Miller ordered his son out of the house and then went into the store. He returned a few minutes later with a gun, the officers said.

* * *

Police said the father kept repeating, "What made me do it? Lord knows I didn't mean to kill him. Why didn't he kill me?"

Evangelist Rise Seen for Nation

Presbyterians Endorse Grass Roots Campaign Within Church

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The 168th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. today was urged to carry on a wider program of evangelism at the grass roots level.

* * *

The church's National Commission on Evangelism, reporting on the sixth day of the assembly's seven-day meeting, said, "There has been a distinct change in the religious climate in the last 10 years."

"Church membership and church attendance have increased," the commission said. "There is a willingness to listen, if not necessarily to respond, to the message of the Christian church."

Along with this "heightened religious interest," continued the commission, there has come a return to evangelism.

* * *

The assembly passed two major milestones yesterday—approval of a merger with the United Presbyterian Church and the admitting of women to the ministry.

Czech Students Display Unrest Against Soviets

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Communist Czechoslovakia is experiencing an outburst of unrest among its university students.

They are accused of presenting ultimatums demanding reduction in Marx-Leninism courses, a cut in military training and the restoration of academic freedom.

Similar symptoms are reported among the students of Red-ruled Poland. They complain of lack of freedom and modern instructional methods, while the authorities accuse certain students of distributing anti-Communist leaflets.

These student revolts are being discussed openly in the Communist-controlled newspapers of the two countries—something unheard of in the past.

They appear to be the result of a wave of cynicism spreading among the youth of Russia's East European satellites in the wake of the denunciation of Stalin and the admission that many victims of Stalin era purges were innocent. These have been accompanied by some easing of controls to permit a measure of free speech.

* * *

The Czechoslovak students' revolt appears centered in Slovakia, although the national capital, Prague, has had a taste of it.

Shareholders Honor General Motors Head

DETROIT—An award for "meritorious achievement in the field of management — shareholder relationship" was presented to Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors, at the company's annual meeting of shareholders in Wilmington, Del.

The award hailed Curtice's "recognition of the concept that the American economy is geared to the 'average man'," thus re-emphasizing that "a broader and deeper base of shareownership in American management is one of the cornerstones of our way of life."

Presented by the United Shareholders of America, the 1955-56 Annual Meeting Award to the GM chief represented the choice of an advisory committee of experts in finance, management and public relations.

Edgar Guest Suffers Recurring Heart Attack

DETROIT (AP)—Edgar A. Guest, the poet, was in a hospital today for the third time within the last year. He has been suffering from a recurring heart condition and doctors said he had a "weak spell" yesterday.

The 74-year-old Guest's condition was listed as fair.

He suffered a heart attack last fall and subsequently had been back once for treatment before yesterday's trip to the hospital.

City Foundation Week Named by Donaldson

Donations to the Pontiac Foundation this week—Pontiac Foundation Week in Pontiac—may be earmarked as a memorial as the donor desires, according to Mayor William W. Donaldson, foundation president.

He added that any donations may be directed to any city project or any agency chosen by the donor, such as the additions at Pontiac General and St. Joseph Mercy Hospitals, the YMCA, or many others.

"Large accumulations of wealth are almost out of the picture now and that is why the individual donation, large or small, is needed to help the many projects seeking financial aid," Donaldson explained.

He said he had proclaimed this week as "Pontiac Foundation Week" because of the Memorial Day holiday during which many persons wish to pay tribute to their loved ones.

So far this year $5,000 has been donated to the foundation. The primary project of the trustees of the group is the construction of a civic auditorium in Pontiac.

Federal Censors Plan Exposed

Strategic Information Office Planned Extra News Restrictions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Moss (D-Calif) said today the partial unveiling of a secret order shows the Office of Strategic Information "planned to go far beyond its authority" and restrict the flow of information from federal agencies.

* * *

Moss, chairman of a House Govment in the auto industry and bad seeking release of more government information, accused the OSI of an "attempted power grab" as he made public part of a secret directive.

CENSORING RIFE

The order by the National Security Council, the government's top strategy group, dealt with internal security matters. Part of the directive ordered the Commerce Department to set up the OSI.

OSI has been accused of trying to censor nonsecret information. OSI officials have denied censorship, saying their job is to help keep important data from going to the Communists.

* * *

Moss announced the security council has agreed to remove the secrecy wraps from that part of its directive setting up the OSI.

Infanticide Rebels in Prison

Tongay Declared Insane by Florida Psychiatrists

RAIFORD, Fla. (AP)—Russell Tongay has been ruled insane and will be transferred from state prison to the Florida State Hospital.

* * *

The former Miami swimming instructor, serving 10 years for the death of his 5-year-old Aquatot daughter Kathy, is a maniac-depressive with suicidal tendencies, according to the order committing him to the hospital.

County Judge S. B. Brooks signed the order Wednesday after a sanity hearing suggested by Gov. Leroy Collins. The news did not become known until yesterday.

TROUBLESOME CONVICT

Warden DeWitt Sinclair said Tongay, now 39, has been a "very troublesome prisoner" since being confined at state prison after his conviction on manslaughter at Miami in 1954.

Collins gave Mrs. Tongay permission to visit her husband Sunday after he had a letter smuggled out of the "maximum security" block saying he was being abused by guards and prisoners.

Mrs. Tongay told newsmen that she found her husband had suffered "obvious abuse" and needs medical care. She said he has a broken arm and cuts in the neck and forehead.

* * *

Tongay, a former Coast Guardsman, was convicted on a charge that he forced Kathy to make a 33-foot dive that fatally injured her. Kathy and her brother Bubba performed at swimming exhibitions over the country under the billing "Aquatots."

Yacht Leaves Lake, Hits Car on Highway

GUNTERSVILLE, La. (AP) — An automobile and a cabin cruiser collided near here yesterday when the boat's controls jammed and it jumped out of Guntersville Lake.

* * *

Puzzled highway patrol officers couldn't decide at first whether they had jurisdiction but they made a report on the case.

Officers Crawford Barnett and Bill Stone said controls of a boat occupied by Bud Lattimer and Odell Long locked. The boat struck a highway causeway and bounced partly into the road.

* * *

Along came a car occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lee Isdell. The car struck the boat and Mrs. Isdell suffered a possible skull fracture and cuts on the face and head.

DSR Reports Dip

DETROIT (AP) — Business on Detroit's public transit system thus far in 1956 is 12 per cent below the comparable period last year, General Manager Leo J. Nowicki of the Detroit Street Railway said Monday. Nowicki attributed the slump mainly to rising unemployment in the auto industry an dbad weather. DSR's April income was $434,000 less than in April, 1955, and passenger load fell off 13 per cent.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

MR. AND MRS. BEAR

Ever play with finger puppets? It's lots of fun. Here are two finger puppets, Mr. and Mrs. Bear, who were visited by Goldilocks. The big hat marked B. B. — for Big Bear — belongs to Mr. Bear, and Mrs. Bear has a rose-trimmed hat to put on over her lace cap.

Color this picture with your crayons, and then paste it down on stiff paper. Cut out the parts carefully.

The strap attached to each figure is to hold the puppet on your finger, so fold it around and paste it, or fasten with gummed tape, to the proper size. The sketch at the top shows you how to fasten the puppet to your finger. If you wear the puppets on the inside of your fingers they will seem to stand on your hand and bend forward easily.

(Judith Lysowski, Santa Cruz, Calif. wins $10 for being the first to suggest this idea. Send in your idea for Junior Editors care of this newspaper and it may be worth $10 to you. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

Tomorrow: The Little Bear and Goldilocks.

1,200 Will Play in Giant Piano Event on Sunday

Twelve hundred white-clad youngsters will star in the world's largest piano concert to be held in Detroit's Olympia Stadium, Sunday. It will be the thirteenth Michigan Annual Music Festival, bringing into play more than 200 pianos and 50 organs.

Pianists will be divided into four groups according to age levels. There will be 392 children, ages 8 to 11 (Group I), group II will be made up of 352 Junior High youngsters, and Group III will include 220 Senior High students. Group IV will be composed of 85 adults, including college students and teachers.

Fifty organists and 200 accordionists will also participate, as well as a supporting group of artist pianists playing on 26 grand pianos.

Sponsor of this giant musical event is the Festival Teachers Association with the cooperation of Grinnell's. Francis W. Smith, Detroit music educator, will conduct.

Two performances will be presented at 2 and at 8 p.m. Free tickets are available at all Grinnell stores.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Mickey's Letter Moves People to Do Charity

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—"Mickey," whose touching letter to her "Mommy, care of God, Heaven," attracted national interest, has a $25 check waiting for her at Union Bank of Michigan.

The unknown little girl, whose unstamped letter found its way to Postmaster H. Wayne Parker's desk May 17, also has a stack of mail from across the nation waiting at the post office from persons moved by her note.

Ralph Willard, executive vice president and cashier of Union Bank, said the check for "Mickey" came from a banker in Elmore City, Okla.

"This little girl must not lose her faith," the Oklahoman wrote.

Parker still is unable to find "Mickey," whose note bore no return address or last name.

The letter read:

"Dear Mommy, I miss you very much since you went to live with God. I hope you're happy. I'm lonesome without you and Daddy since you have gone away.

"Please tell God to help me be good so I can come to heaven by you. Love, your baby girl, Mickey."

Boys' Ride in Tractor Proves Destructive

REVERE, Mass. (AP)—Two boys, ages 7 and 12, stepped into a 10-ton tractor at a construction job after the workers had gone home.

Seconds after they pressed down the accelerator a garage, a fence, a second garage and a 1955 automobile were demolished.

The boys, whose names police withheld, were not injured.

Way to Learn Acting: Imitating an Animal

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — If there are any camels reading this, I trust they won't be offended when I mention that Miss Carroll Baker, the "female Marlon Brando," looks quite uncamelish.

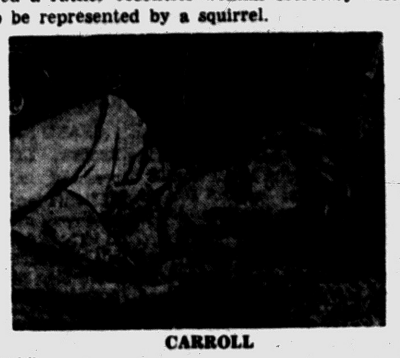

★ ★ ★

"Imitating some sort of animal helps many actors do a character," Miss Baker, Elia Kazan's latest discovery, who's from Carpentertown, Pa., says.

"A woman at the Actors Studio impersonated a squirrel.

"She portrayed a rather eccentric woman secretary who, to her seemed to be represented by a squirrel.

"For hours she watched a squirrel until she could toss her head and look up to you quite squirrellishly. She was very good and she readily attributed her success to becoming a squirrel."

CARROLL

Miss Baker, getting celebrated after two pictures, "Baby Doll" and "Giant," added:

"I tried unsuccessfully once to be a camel."

"I stood in the zoo for hours watching the camels. But the camel was too slow for this girl I played. I should have picked out a speedier animal, like a deer."

Carroll could perhaps have impersonated a zebra or chipmunk in portraying "Baby Doll"—she plays a young wife who sleeps in a crib to avoid her husband—but she used, as a model, an 80-year-old woman.

"Why animals?" asked Miss Baker, married now to director Jack Garfein, and once briefly the wife of furrier Lew Ritter. "Some animals are more interesting than humans.

"If you haven't been asked to impersonate an animal or maybe a tree," Miss Baker said, "perhaps this sounds silly, but if you've ever been a tree, you know it isn't."

Nanette Fabray and Marty Mills hopped to California—reviving the marriage rumor . . . Frank Parker, Carmel Quinn, et al. go off the air during Arthur Godfrey's summer vacation: part of his new nobody's-got-a-contract policy . . . Ezio Pinza, still out of "Fanny," officially attributes it to exhaustion, and his hotel won't put through phone calls, saying, "He isn't feeling well."

Paul Whiteman—at his 50th-year-in-Show-Biz party—thanked cosmetic tycoon Raymond Spector, his new sponsor, for the money clip, adding: "I know you'll keep this filled for me" . . . Nejla Ates, busted up from ex-fiance Jimmy Dell, kept the ring; she also has one from Shep King of Texas. "Shep's was bigger," she says; "he had five cars; Jimmy only has three."

Jayne Mansfield said at Gilmore's she likes Mickey ("Mr. Universe") Hargitay because he "has a lot upstairs"—and he returns the compliment . . . Hal March, who'll sing on an NBC-TV'er, is taking lessons from Julius LaRosa's coach. He says, "Worse he can't make me."

Ex-Amb. Joe Kennedy watched son-in-law Peter Lawford clown at the Copa. (Rhonda Fleming laughed so hard at Durante she split her dress down the side.)

The British cast of "The Matchmaker" went backstage at Radio City Music Hall. One of them saw the huge stage and gasped, "I've played cities smaller than that." . . . That's all, brother.

Admits Recklessness

Pleading guilty to reckless driving, Wesley W. Walker, 30, of 451 S. Telegraph Rod., paid a fine of $45 and $5 in costs in Justice Court yesterday. He was arraigned by Springfield Township Justice Emmett J. Leib.

Detroiter Fined $100

Robert J. Harrower, 25, of Detroit, was fined $100 and costs of $10 for driving while under the influence of liquor Monday after pleading guilty to the charge at an arraignment held by Milford Justice Floyd Harger.

Critics Fooled by Quiz Show

Program Ranks No. 1 as June 5 Anniversary Draws Near

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)— During the next week, a number of television critics will be busily eating some year-old words.

• • •

The reason is the forthcoming first anniversary show of a television phenomenon called "The $64,000 Question," the night of June 5.

COOL RECEPTION

When the CBS show premiered last June 7, in a form which has continued unchanged to date, the critics, pretty uniformly, took a dim view. Okay, was the consensus, so the top prize is an incredible amount of money, but once the viewing public gets accustomed to that, it will be just another in a long string of quiz shows.

• • •

When the show's overlords toted up recently, they found that during the past year they had awarded almost $700,000 in prizes, as well as 10 high-priced automobiles as consolation awards.

• • •

Four persons have grabbed the top prize, and twice that number stepped away with $32,000. A roster of men and women from walks of life ranging from shoemaker to clergyman, Marine to psychologist have walked into a national spotlight. A Pennsylvania grandmother demonstrated extraordinary knowledge of the Bible; a little lady who looked like a Dickens character turned out to be a Dickens authority; a clergyman demonstrated that a knowledge of jazz was no sin and a Marine captain persuaded a lot of men that the kitchen wasn't just a woman's world.

STAYS ON TOP

Within five weeks, the biggest quiz show to date had leaped over the competition to top the ratings—and has stayed there consistently. It also has had a pronounced effect on all the other quiz shows. Many of them started giving bigger and better prizes and the end is not in sight yet. At the moment a producer is working on a show to be called "Twenty Steps to a Million," due for fall production, in which the top prize will be—oh, yes, that's what the man told me—one million dollars.

English now is a compulsory subject in Norway's elementary schools, Oslo reports.

SPEAR FOR SPEAR — Television's jungle wild woman has sharp answers for her critics. To growing complaints that her "Shenna, Queen of the Jungle" is the worst show on TV, Irish McCalla retorts that the chimpanzee that swings through the trees with her is "much more intelligent than people knocking the show. I've taught him not to say bad things."

Tallahassee Starts Boycott of Bus Line

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—A second Southern capital has been hit by a boycott of Negro bus riders stemming from a dispute over segregated seating arrangements.

Some students at Florida A&M University for Negroes began walking yesterday in protest against the arrest of two Negro girl students for refusing to move to the rear of a Cities Transit Co. bus.

The Rev. C. K. Steele, president of the Tallahassee chapter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, said without elaborating that the boycott "will be continued beyond the university campus."

Charles L. Carter, manager of the transit firm, said last night, however, his company had experienced no general effects from any boycott.

Montgomery, Ala., has felt the effects of a bus boycott by Negro riders for several months.

Michigan Dems Convene Friday

Meet in Grand Rapids to Name 44 Delegates to National Parley

LANSING (AP)—Michigan Democrats will meet in Grand Rapids this weekend to select 44 delegates to the Democratic national convention.

The state convention is expected to be a routine affair, much quieter than the Republican convention last month in Detroit, where Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo announced he is a candidate for governor.

Next to the selection of delegates to the national convention, the most important task for the Grand Rapids convention will be the drafting of a "statement of principles"—a declaration of what Michigan Democrats think the national platform should be.

"FAVORITE SON"

The delegation will be instructed to support Gov. Williams as a favorite son presidential candidate at least on the first ballot at the national convention starting Aug. 13 in Chicago.

What the delegates will do with their votes after that is unknown at this point. Backers of Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver have remained quiet, so far.

Eight of the 44 delegates will be selected by the convention at large during the Saturday business session. The other delegates will be chosen in district caucuses Friday night.

In additioin, up to 52 alternate delegates will be named.

Gov. Averill Harriman of New York, originally scheduled to speak Friday night, will be replaced by Col. Arthur H. Levitt, New York state comptroller. Harriman underwent a minor operation and will be unable to attend.

Named AMC Executive

DETROIT (AP)—Bernard A. Chapman has been appointed vice president in charge of operations for American Motors Corp. He was formerly vice president and general manager of the Kelvinator Division of the firm.

Family Loyal to Dr. Sam

Sheppards Await Retrial Approval

By WILLIAM LEVY

BAY VILLAGE, Ohio (INS) — The Sheppards of Bay Village are waiting hopefully for the Ohio Supreme Court ruling on the appeal of convicted wife-slayer Dr. Sam Sheppard.

* * *

The court heard oral arguments last month, and the decision is expected before the second anniversary on July 4 of Marilyn Sheppard's death.

But even acquittal of the charge that Dr. Sam bludgeoned her to death could not completely heal the deep wounds left by one of the most publicized murder trials of this or any century.

The murder of pretty Marilyn Sheppard, the subsequent conviction of Dr. Sam and the rapid-fire deaths of the convicted slayer's parents have left an indelible mark on the remainder of what once was a proud and extremely happy family in this Cleveland suburb.

HARD TO DESCRIBE

"We are emotionally closer to a balance now than we have been in a long time," said Dr. Richard Sheppard, Dr. Sam's eldest brother. "The emotional turmoil that we experienced during the trial and then after the deaths of our parents was impossible to describe."

With most of the legal activity in the case now centered in Columbus, Drs. Richard and Stephen Sheppard are busily engaged in running the family-founded Bay View Hospital.

Business at the hospital slumped considerably between the time of the murder and the end of the 10-week trial the next fall. But things are running more normally now, according to Dr. Richard, and the hospital has announced a $200,000 expansion prgoram.

VISIT THE PRISON

Drs. Richard and Stephen and their wives visit Dr. Sam at the Ohio Penitentiary an average of once a month. They stagger their visits so that one of the doctors is at the hospital at all times. It means too that Dr. Sam gets visitors once every two weeks instead of only one visit a month.

"Dr. Sam looks healthy and he's trying to keep busy at the prison," Dr. Richard explained. "He's working in the prison hospital and that move has helped him a lot."

WRITES NOTES

"Chip has done very well in adjusting himself to the situation," Dr. Richard said. "Dr. Steve and his wife, Betty, have become just like a mother and father to him. They've done a terrific job.

"Chip writes notes to his father once in a while and his father also corresponds with him with notes in letters he writes to Dr. Steve."

The Sheppards were "heartened" when the Supreme Court admitted the case for review.

They remain convinced that an "outsider" — a "bushy-haired intruder" — killed Marilyn early in the holiday morning—not Dr. Sam.

* * *

"We are absolutely convinced that Dr. Sam is innocent," Dr. Richard said. "We are certainly hopeful that the court will reverse the decision and set Dr. Sam free or order a new trial. We feel very definitely now that the hysteria is over, a cool, objective evaluation can be made."

Grand Rapids 'Weapon'

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — The Cobalt Bomb — newest scientific weapon against cancer and other malignant diseases — began operation Monday at Butterworth Hospital. It is West Michigan's first such installtion and the third in the state. University hospital at Ann Arbor and Henry Ford Hospital at Detroit have similar equipment.

Reuther, Williams to Talk

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) —Walter Reuther, Untied Auto Workers president and vice president of ALF-CIO, and Gov. Williams will be among principal speakers June 11 to 14 at the Michigan CIO Council Constitutional Convention. More than 1,000 delegates are expected at the convention.

Drive with care . . . EVERYWHERE!

Holds the road like it loves it

(and Chevy does!)

It isn't just Chevrolet's record-breaking performance that makes it such a pleasure to drive. It's the solid, sure-going way Chevy covers the miles!

You don't have to drive a car for very long to tell if it was really built for the road. You can sense its balance in your hands on the wheel. You can feel whether or not it gets skittish in a cross wind or on a curve. You can see how true it holds to its course and how quickly it straightens itself out of a tight turn.

In all these ways, you'll find that the new Chevrolet is a car that's right for the road. And in other ways as well. In record-breaking performance with horsepower that ranges up to 225. In gunflash acceleration that gives you extra seconds of safety in passing.

Chevrolet, you know, won both the acceleration and flying mile events for its class in the NASCAR time trials at Daytona Beach—both in record time!

When you team up that kind of performance with Chevy's rock-steady way of going, you've got a car that loves the road! Why not stop in and see some sunny day soon?
