Employees Flee Capital in Mock Atom-Raid Test

Nearly 2,000 Federal Workers Running U. S. From Secret Offices

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nearly 2,000 key federal employees, in mock flight from an atomic raid on the capital, today "operated" the government from 30 emergency headquarters sites within a 300 mile radius of Washington.

President Eisenhower stayed on the job at the White House, but arranged to take part in the drill by communicating with some of the emergency offices from an underground bomb shelter.

All 10 Cabinet departments and a score of other agencies were putting in a six-hour day at secret rendezvous points in at least four nearby states in a test of the "continuity of government" under enemy attack.

All but one of the agencies—the exception was not named—have picked out emergency sites from which they will operate if and when orders arrive to evacuate Washington. All but one have cached away important records, at or near the rendezvous site, in a repository unlikely to be a target for enemy bombers.

The departments have been given to understand that the relocation, if once ordered, is for the duration of an emergency.

The sites are resort towns, colleges, and communities which have unoccupied federal buildings in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, and North Carolina and possibly elsewhere. All are within 80 miles to the west and north of Washington and 300 miles to the south.

In today's test, each agency is called on to deal with specific problems which would arise under conditions of attack or threatened attack.

It is assumed that some areas in addition to Washington have been hit by the enemy. The Office of Defense Mobilization, for instance, will have the problem of

Oakland's Role in Air Attack Under CD Study

Oakland County Civil Defense officials are making a check of available facilities to accommodate a major portion of an estimated 2,500,000 people who would flee Detroit after an air attack.

Lewis C. Jarrendt, county CD director, said a check of housing facilities is being conducted but no plans for feeding the large refugee influx have been made.

Pointing out that Oakland borders a major portion of Wayne County, Jarrendt said the county would probably receive the greatest amount of northbound traffic.

Lake Orion Man Killed in Crash

Mother, Son in Hospital After 2-Car Collision on M 24

A Lake Orion stone mason died last night after his station wagon went out of control on M 24 north of Silverbell road in Orion Township and struck another auto head on, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

John James McKenzie, 60, of 339 W. Clarkston Rd., the victim, was pronounced dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital with head injuries and multiple fractures.

Witnesses told Deputies Harry Jones and Fred Pender that McKenzie's auto slipped off onto the road's shoulder and swerved out of control into the path of a southbound car driven by Mrs. Lucille Richardson, 46, of 153 S. Josephine Ave.

Mrs. Richardson was admitted to the hospital with a broken left arm and hip injuries, and her son, Victor, 12, was hospitalized with a possible concussion.

Both are in fair condition today, hospital authorities said.

McKenzie, who came to Oakland County 40 years ago, had lived in Lake Orion for 15 years. He was born in Kingston Feb. 19, 1894 and was married to Esther D. Kurzer here in 1920. He was a member of Bricklayers Union Local 29.

Surviving besides his widow are three daughters: Mrs. Leo Walsh and Mrs. Myra Galpin of Pontiac; and Barbara at home; a son, Jay R. McKenzie of Lake Orion; and three grandchildren.

Service will be Monday at 11 a.m. from Allen's Funeral Home in Lake Orion. Burial will be in Eastlawn Cemetery.

He Keeps His Pigs in the Basement, Not 'in the Parlor'

HOGMAN'S "CASTLE"—Hal White, a 32-year-old Chicago sports-goods businessman, and his one-year-old son, Scott, look over 3 choice Tamworth barrows which he has been raising in his basement. White, who says: "A man's home is his castle. You can do anything you want in your home as long as it's not immoral," raises porkers for competition in the International Live Stock Exposition. White had to move his hogs outside city limits when neighbors complained to the health department two years ago, but recently revealed that he smuggled the hogs back into his home. Some dogs smelled out his secret and began barking at the windows. White says by keeping hogs around home they can acquire a veneer city culture which they need to compete with prize animals from agricultural colleges. Whether or not this statement is correct, White's porkers have won several blue ribbons. The city-slicker hogman has been raising pigs for the past 10 years.

Censure Vote Seen in Time

Morse Says McCarthy Issue Will Be Reoffered in '55 if Necessary

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) said today that a resolution to censure Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) would be reoffered in the next Congress if necessary but that "the American people are going to demand a vote" by the present Senate.

"This issue, in a sense, is out of the hands of the Senate," Morse said in an interview. "The people are demanding that the members of the Senate stand up and be counted" before the Dec. 24 adjournment deadline previously set by Congress.

Morse, who bolted the Republican party during the 1952 presidential campaign, is one of the three senators who filed 46 charges considered by a special bipartisan senate committee that unanimously recommended McCarthy be censured.

A friend of McCarthy's, Sen. Mundt (R-SD), likewise indicated in a separate interview he expects the censure issue to crop up in the (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (UP)—A Cheyenne bar owner might have known the $5 check he cashed for a customer yesterday was phony. It was endorsed: "U. R. Stuck."

In honor of the occasion, a special low-cost turkey dinner, with all the trimmings, will be served employees in all plant cafeterias at noon. A filmed address by Harlow H. Curtice, GM president, will be shown.

While employees are lunching, civic and business leaders in Pontiac will be guests at a luncheon in the Pontiac engineering building auditorium.

They will later view a telecast direct from Flint of a talk by Curtice.

The public, too, will have a hand in the celebration. Open houses are scheduled for all three GM division plants here.

Sheppard Clues Probed in State

Ohio Officers in Detroit to Investigate T-Shirt, Bottles, Wood File

DETROIT (UP)—Two Cleveland detectives said today they were in Detroit to investigate "one of more than 1,000 leads" in the slaying of Marilyn Sheppard, attractive wife of a Bay Village, Ohio, brain surgeon.

The detectives, Peter Becker and Vincent Morrow, said they came to the motor city at the request of Dr. Stephen Sheppard, brother of Dr. Samuel Sheppard who is on trial charged with the slaying of his pregnant wife.

Becker and Morrow met with three middle-aged persons at Detroit Police Headquarters last night and were presented with a stained T-shirt, three small bottles and a rusty wood file.

The detectives refused to disclose where the three informants got the articles but said they were not obtained in Detroit. They said there were no plans for an immediate arrest.

Becker said he and his partner would remain in Detroit to investigate (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Police Vice Raid Nets 30 Here

Three Face Gambling Charges, 27 in Custody for Loitering

Pontiac Police vice squad officials, assisted by Michigan State Police of the racket squad, seized 30 men during a gambling raid last night at 95 Bagley St., a club which had been under surveillance about five months, according to authorities.

Armed with a search warrant signed by Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan, Pontiac Detective Sgt. Raymond E. Meggitt, who lead the raid, said the establishment known as the "Big 6 Republican Club" had been padlocked twice previously in 1948 and 1951 for gambling.

Booked on charges of aiding, abetting and operating a gambling place, three men to be formally charged today, according to Meggitt, are:

Charles D. Bank, 54, of 154½ Wessen St.; John Taylor, 52, of 40 Harris St., and Charles Williams, 54, of 16 Esther St.

Twenty-seven are being held for loitering.

Meggitt and Detective Herbert C. Cooley said they and state police converged on the establishment at 11 p.m. when an informer, who police planted inside, said several gambling games were taking place.

"We tried breaking the front door down with an ax, but we couldn't even budge it," said Meggitt. However, police were finally admitted after five minutes of pounding and warnings that the occupants were under arrest.

Five decks of playing cards and two pair of dice, were found inside when the officers had been let in. Meggitt and Cooley said they asked for state police help after information led them to believe the club was still operating.

'Pontiac Foundation Week' Proclaimed by Donaldson

By ARNOLD S. HIRSCH

Mayor William W. Donaldson, sparkplug of the Pontiac Foundation since its first glimmerings 10 years ago, has proclaimed next week "Pontiac Foundation Week."

In the official proclamation, Donaldson calls upon Pontiac's citizens "to thoroughly investigate the Pontiac Foundation and its tremendous possibilities for civic betterment."

Donaldson first perceived the need for an institution which would serve as a key-stone for improving the city culturally and socially in 1944.

He narrowed his goal to a civic auditorium in 1948 and presented a $1,000 bond to Mayor John C. Cowe as a start toward the Pontiac Foundation.

The foundation's purpose was and is—to be a legal trusteeship through which donors may channel their gifts for physical civic improvement.

When appointed a foundation trustee later in 1948 by Mayor Cowe, Donaldson explained that donated funds would be held in trust and invested until sufficient money was accumulated to carry out the wishes of the donors.

In 1949, a resolution to construct a civic auditorium was (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

West Pushes for Quick U.N. Okay on Atom Pact; New U.S. Plants Near Completion

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UP)—Rejecting an 11th hour Indian bid to widen talks on President Eisenhower's plan for a peaceful international atomic program, Western sponsors pushed today for final acceptance of the program.

Some Western diplomats predicted the political committee would okay the plan unanimously, possibly Monday.

India's V. K. Krishna Menon blocked committee attempts to reach a vote last night by demanding an opportunity to speak Monday on the seven-nation resolution endorsing the program. The resolution has been virtually assured of Soviet support.

Menon first caused a stir by suddenly tossing in an amendment to increase the circle of nations taking part in negotiations to set up an international atomic energy agency.

U. S. Chief Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. quickly made plain the sponsors would agree to no such change which, he said, would open the door to nations outside the U.N.

Menon has been dickering all week with other delegates in an effort to get backing for his proposal. He gained some satisfaction when Ecuador, Burma and Yugoslavia advocated a widening of the circle of participants. But all three made clear they would not insist on the resolution being changed.

Lodge said the sponsoring nations believed such proposals "would delay matters for such a long time as to jeopardize this whole project if not indeed destroy it."

Throughout the atomic debate, Menon has complained that the seven-power resolution placed the position of being asked to rubber-stamp a closed-door agreement. Nations sponsoring the proposal are United States, Britain, France,

Canada, Australia, Belgium and South Africa.

Menon's stand cast some shadow on hopes that the compromise plan, evolved after painstaking days of bargaining with Russia, might receive unanimous support. But veteran diplomats predicted that despite his criticisms and amendments Menon would approve the resolution when the time came to vote.

Meanwhile in Oak Ridge, Tenn., the U. S. government is nearing completion of two huge atomic plants which already have greatly increased the nation's production of fissionable U235 for atomic and hydrogen weapons.

The two plants, costing nearly one billion dollars, are additions to existing installations there and at Paducah, Ky. A third facility now under construction near Portsmouth, Ohio, will add substantially to our U235 output.

BUT CAN IT BE FOUND IN THE BIBLE?

People often indignantly demand that Catholics prove their teaching from the Bible.

The Bible is their "rule of faith" and they argue that every man has the right and ability to discover for himself, by his interpretation of the Bible, what he must believe and do in order to be saved.

We do not question the sincerity of these people and we applaud all who strive earnestly to understand and observe the Scriptures. But—are they right in calling the Bible, privately interpreted, the sole source of Christian teaching?

"Hold the teachings that you have learned," wrote St. Paul, "whether by word or by letter of ours" (2 Thess. II:15). He refers to Christian teachings, some oral, some written... and demands that all be received.

Christianity did not begin with the Bible. It began with the coming of Christ. The Lord instructed His Apostles to "go forth... teach all nations"—and to insure that His truths would always be maintained, Christ established His Church, "... the pillar and mainstay of the truth" (1 Timothy III:15).

The last part of the Bible... written by St. John... was not completed until 60 years after the Crucifixion of Christ. There was no Bible in anything resembling its present form until nearly 400 years after Jesus had died on the Cross. And the widespread distribution of the Bible as we know it today was impossible until the invention of printing, some 1400 years after the Savior's death.

By what "rule of faith" did the millions of Christians live during those 1500 years?

The answer is, of course, that the teaching of the Church was the rule of faith for the Christian world. And St. Paul reminds us that Christianity consists of "one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism" (Eph. IV:5). "God is a God of peace, not of disorder," St. Paul said further (1 Cor. XIV:33).

Yet today we have nearly 300 different religious denominations in the United States, all calling themselves Christian... all professing the Bible as their rule of faith... and all differing to some extent or another in their understanding of what the Bible means. Could Christ have left a "rule of faith" that would permit such confusion? Would He have left the interpretation of His Word to the fallible and changing judgments of men—when our very souls depend on a correct understanding and observance of the things Christ has taught us?

Because this question is all important... because it certainly does matter what a man believes... we invite you to examine the rule of faith of the first Christians—a rule that is still maintained by the Catholic Church. Because the Bible is God's Word, and because He gave it to us for a purpose, we invite you to see what this purpose is. We have an interesting pamphlet on the correct use of the Bible, and we offer it for the inspection of all who are sincerely interested in following the teaching of Christianity as Christ revealed it. Church Airlift Takes Livestock

Cattle, Sheep Shipped by Church Relief Group to Afghanistan

By Religious News Service
COLUMBUS, Ohio—Twenty-four head of cattle and 15 sheep were shipped to Afghanistan by plane from Columbus Airport by Heifer Project Inc., cooperative church relief and rehabilitation agency, in what is believed to be the longest livestock airlift ever undertaken.

The airlift will end at Quetta, Pakistan, some 8,000 air miles away, and from there the livestock will be trucked through mountain passes another 150 miles to Kandahar, Afghanistan.

The cattle all are Brown Swiss, 16 of them hiefters and eight bulls. The sheep, Columbias, are 10 ewes and five rams. The hiefters and ewes will serve as a foundation herd for purebred stock, while the bulls and rams will be used for crossbreeding with native animals to produce a strain with the hardiness and disease-resistant qualities of the native stock and the milk, meat and wool producing qualities of American breeds.

Cooperating in Heifer Project activities are the Brethren Service Commission, the Evangelical and Reformed Church, the American Baptist Home Mission Society, the Mennonite Central Committee, the Rural Life Association, the National Catholic Rural Life Conference, the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, and the United Christian (Disciples) Missionary Society's department of social welfare.

Everyday Religion

The Right Thing

By DON D. TULLIS

Good health is one of life's greatest boons. It depends not only upon bodily care, proper diet, temperate habits, and normal exercise, but even more upon the condition of the mind and spirit, the doing of the right thing at all times.

Many physicians are stressing this fact today. In his book IS THE KINGDOM OF GOD REALISM, (The Abingdon-Cokesbury Press), Stanley Jones quotes some of their statements. One says, "One half of all my patients are ill through moral conditions." Another states, "There is not a tissue in the body wholly removed from the influence of the spirit." Still another adds, "I have discovered the kingdom of God at the point of a scalpel. It is written in the tissues. THE RIGHT THING IS ALWAYS THE HEALTHY THING."

If one secret of good health is found in the mind and spirit, what are the things of mind and spirit that are not right? ONE IS ANGER. The psychoanalyst, Dr. Leon J. Saul, advises his patients, "If you get angry at your boss and tell him, you will probably lose your job, but if you stay angry at him for years, without spilling over, you will damage your arteries. Hostility, suppressed for years, is the fundamental cause of high blood pressure."

In addition to ANGER and HATE, FEAR, SELFISHNESS, AND A SENSE OF GUILT are contributing factors to ill health. There is a direct connection between fearfulness and strength, a clear conscience and a strong constitution, a clean spirit and a dynamic, prudent personality.

The Great Physician's prescription for the treatment of illness resulting from mental and moral conditions is plain, "Thy sins be forgiven thee, rise, take up thy bed and walk." His comrades in medicine will tell you that hatred, fear, selfishness and a sense of guilt are enemies to good health.

Many modern physicians are reminding their patients that THE RIGHT THINGS are love rather than hate, faith rather than fear, service rather than self. (Man's debt to man, if unpaid, poisons the soul), and forgiveness rather than the sense of guilt.

Every one should set up his own private clinic and search his inner self to discover the secret of a more wholesome life. If he seeks until he finds, he will make this truth the measure of his every act. "THE RIGHT THING IS ALWAYS THE HEALTHY THING."

lay of nylon tulle which fell into a chapel train.

Teachers Paid After Meeting

Assistant Prosecutor
Orders School to Stay
Open

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — Teachers and employees of the George Washington Carver School in Royal Oak Township were paid yesterday following a special school board meeting, watched over by State Education Supt. Clair L. Taylor and Chief Assistant County Prosecutor George F. Taylor.

The school, closed Tuesday afternoon being picketed by over 100 parents, is expected to open Monday.

The demonstration followed a school board meeting Monday night which broke up in a fight between board member Chester
Carter and school janitor Cash Bates.

The board Monday was attempting to organize following a recount of a July 12 election. The recount found Samuel Jackson defeating former board secretary Lonnie Cash for membership.

Jackson and member James Harrison are supported by a Citizens Improvement Committee which is attempting to recall the other three members, Carter, board president Mrs. Lucille Taylor and Mrs. Loretta Baker.

At yesterday's meeting in the county office building, which Prosecutor Taylor said was to "open the school and keep it open," Mrs. Baker was elected secretary.

Mrs. Magnolia Sims, a Carver teacher, was escorted out of otherwise quiet meeting after she stood up "to set (Prosecutor) Taylor right about his statement concerning the teachers."

She said Taylor was wrong in earlier statements when he said his office had "certain facts" indicating teachers were involved in a "conspiracy" resulting in the shutdown.

Taylor said he wanted no discussion of the past, but only "to look toward orderly procedures in the future."

He ordered Mrs. Sims out when she continued speaking, saying she might be charged with a misdemeanor for disturbing a legally constituted meeting.

This week's flareup followed three years of intermittent squabbles in the independent school district with parents contending they were not properly represented on the board.

Teachers interviewed yesterday complained of poor upkeep of school facilities, but stated they had not struck for their pay Tuesday when they learned no checks could be issued until the board elected a secretary to sign them.

Teachers stated they had reported for work every day, but had not been allowed to enter the school.

Attorney for the Citizens Improvement Committee, V. John Manikoff read a Michigan statute, against strikes by school employes.
He advised the citizens group to follow legal procedures in attempting to oust the three-member majority.

TRIPLE THREAT—Too much of a good thing?
Never, says Mrs. Stanley Garwood, mother of the trio shown above, who insists that triplets are always a triple treat. Demonstrating their satisfaction on reaching the age of one are, 1 to r, Grace, Giles and Gale, who celebrated their first birthday
yesterday at their home at 3805 Green Lake Rd.,
West Bloomfield Township.

Triplets Just Wonderful, Says Mother as First Birthday Party Rolls Around

By HARRY J. REED
WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—After the shock wears off, it's wonderful.
That's the way Mrs. Stanley
Garwood feels about her triplets.

Born Nov. 19, 1953, at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, the cheerful and healthy trio brought company and added excitement to the Garwood family which lives at 3805 Green Lake Rd.

Other children in the family are Dennis, 13, Kenneth, 11, Stanley Jr., 10, Arlene, 8, Kathleen, 7, Julia, 3, and Mary Jane, 2.

The girls had a 4-3 edge on the boys in voting on family matters until last year, when their margin of control increased still more.

Heating contractor Garwood reports that Giles and Grace currently outweigh Gail by a couple of pounds, but all three are at the same stage of development.

It consists of a rubber-legged chair on reaching the age of one are, 1 to r, Grace, Giles and Gale, who celebrated their first birthday
yesterday at their home at 3805 Green Lake Rd.,
West Bloomfield Township.

Present were the immediate families and close friends. A wedding dinner and reception followed the rites.

Warm Air Heating Grows in Popularity

In the short history of central heating, warm air heating has grown in popularity to a point where it accounts for about 80 per cent of central heating systems now being installed.

Warm air heating of homes came into use in the 1880s and 90s. Furnaces of that period were of the gravity type, which merely heated air and let it circulate uncontrolled through ducts and registers.

Controlled warm air circulation came in the 1920s, when forced air heating was introduced by adding a booster fan to a gravity furnace.

The greatest improvements began in the 1930s. Compact, automatic gas and oil furnaces were developed. Devices were introduced to "air-condition" warm air by filtering and humidifying it.

Modern Stove Allows Flexible Kitchen Area Planning

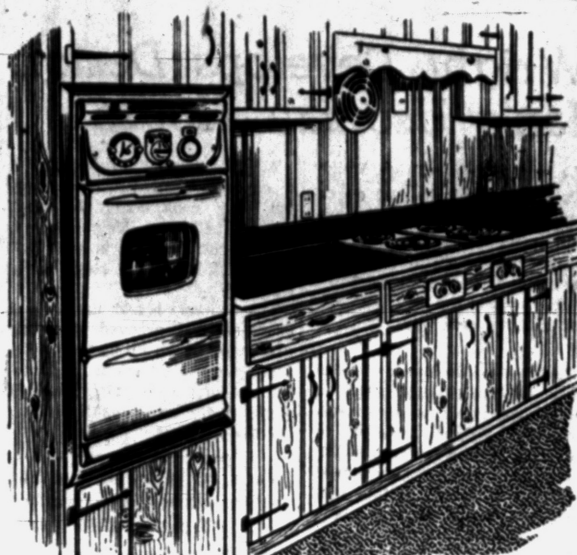

Part of a modern-mannered kitchen is the new built-in cooking unit with its oven set apart from the counter top stove.

The housewife dictates the location and the height of her oven and also the color. Available in seven different finishes including stainless steel, the cooking units are made for both electric and gas.

Built by Suburban, locally the new built-in ranges are being shown by H. H. Smart at 55 North Saginaw-St., Pontiac. Controls are at eye level. The oven doors are glass and recessed lights are part of good oven vision.

Unusual features of the Suburban allows the cook to both roast and broil at the same time. Permitting complete flexibility of planning, the units are made in drop-in groups or multiples of two. They can also be had in complete cabinet top units in various widths each unit including four burners.

Between 1909 and today, U. S. per capita consumption of eggs increased 40 per cent, green vegetables 60 per cent, citrus fruit and tomatoes 80 per cent.

BUILT-IN COOKING UNIT—Flexibility in kitchen planning is possible with the new built-in cooking units put out by Suburban and on display by H. H. Smart at 55 North Saginaw St., Pontiac. A variety of color is available as well as stainless steel and porcelain enamel. Interesting feature of the oven is that broiling is possible at the same time as baking. Ovens can be placed at several different heights.

Use Upholstery Brush to Save on Cleaning

A man's felt hat should receive every bit as much attention as the best of his clothing, but many men do not seem to be hat-conscious and often wait until it is hopelessly soiled before doing anything about it.

Use the upholstery brush of your vacuum cleaner to rid the hat of dust. It's surprising how much cleaner the hat will stay and how much cleaner it will be to wear, too.

Food Man Describes Tomorrow's Kitchen

WASHINGTON (INS)—A top U.S. food processor believes that the kitchen of the future—if it exists at all—will be as different as today's is from the wood stove and flour bin of grandma's era. General Foods President Charles G. Mortimer told the National Press Club he is sure tomorrow's kitchen will have more freezer space, larger package space, and probably a smaller range.

He added that the food chopper, the pressure canner and other implements of the hand-prepared meal probably will disappear.

There is no good evidence that snakes swallow their young when danger threatens.
