Ike Makes Pitch for Pentagon Reorganization

Raps Back at Critics, U.S. Survival May Rest on Plan, Editors Told

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today accused congressional critics of his defense reorganization plan of talking nonsense and raising farfetched objections.

His speech was prepared for a luncheon meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors and the International Press Institute.

Urging swift approval of the controversial plan by Congress, Eisenhower said "peace, national safety—survival itself—demand of America the utmost strength in Its every respect—spiritual, intellectual and scientific, as well as economic and military."

Formally opening the fight he has pledged to make for the reorganization program, Eisenhower appealed for support.

The President spoke out in the face of a sharp challenge to his proposal from one of the most influential lawmakers at the Capitol—Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Armed Services Committee.

Within hours after the President sent his proposal formally to the Congress yesterday, Vinson cut loose in a House speech in which he called it a move toward setting up a "Prussian" type supreme high command.

Vinson also moved to give uniform critics of the reorganization plan a public forum for their objections. He announced that hearings on the plan, which his committee will start Monday, will be open-door affairs.

Some other members of Congress besides Vinson have been sharply critical of the reorganization plan.

Taking note of Vinson criticism without mentioning him by name, Eisenhower said foes of the plan will contend it seeks to set up "a monstrous general staff—usually called 'Prussian'—and that such a staff in the critics view would be set up "to dominate our armed forces and in due course will threaten our liberty."

"That is nonsense," Eisenhower said.

Eisenhower also hit at those who contend the plan, which would concentrate much new authority in the secretary of defense, would make that official "a czar" who will overwhelm our liberty." He denied this.

Eisenhower said the fears of critics are at the least misconceptions and at the most misrepresentations.

"I repeat," Eisenhower said, "there will be:

- "No single chief of staff;
- "No Prussian staff;
- "No czar;

Sullenberger Planning Clinic, Court Appeal

Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger, preparing to make a Michigan Supreme Court appeal, plans to open a medical clinic in Pontiac diagonally across West Huron street from Pontiac General Hospital.

He hopes to practice there as a general practitioner, performing only minor types of surgery.

This latest development in the heart-surgeon's struggle to remain in Pontiac although ousted from the Pontiac General medical staff, was disclosed today by his wife after a conference with his attorney.

Dr. Sullenberger himself was ill at home, 208 E. Iroquois Rd., and not available for comment, she said.

He has, however, discussed the idea privately since Friday, the day his controversial suit for reinstatement at Pontiac General and $250,000 damages was tossed out of Circuit Court by visiting Circuit Judge Timothy C. Quinn.

The appeal, to reverse this action, probably would not be heard until next fall. "It is the opinion of counsel that the legal position relied upon by Dr. Sullenberger was and is sound," she said.

Although short on funds due to legal expenses and the fact he has not practiced surgery for several months, Dr. Sullenberger hopes to remodel a two-story frame home he owns at 404 W. Huron St.

Mrs. Sullenberger said she and the doctor purchased the building 11 months ago, with the idea in mind that it might eventually be turned into a clinic.

Without the facilities of a major hospital, she said, he would be limited in practice to minor surgery.

She said that friends and former patients would help him with the remodeling now.

She said a local builder, whose name she did not mention, has promised to provide building material at cost and several patients who are employed in the building trades have offered their services free of charge.

The West Huron street address is in the block west of the hospital. From the front door, there is a clear view of the new Seminole avenue entrance of the hospital.

A vacant lot west of the building is also owned by them, she said. "We hope eventually to erect a new building on both lots," Mrs. Sullenberger said.

Architects Studying MSUO Building Bids

Bids for the Michigan State University branch college building are being evaluated by Swanson Associates, Inc., of Birmingham, architects, and will be presented to the State Board of Agriculture May 1.

Construction is expected to start shortly after the awarding of the contracts, with completion set for Aug. 1, 1959.

The branch will open in September of 1959 on the former estate of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson near Pontiac.

Hits Confession of Van Horn

Attorney Seeks to Strike Statement Off Record Before Murder Trial

The attorney for accused killer Billy Ray Van Horn moved yesterday to have an alleged confession stricken from evidence when the trial of the 24-year-old welder begins April 29.

Court-appointed Burke J. Orr charges in an order of suppression filed yesterday, that Van Horn's constitutional rights were violated in obtaining the confession 22 hours after he was arrested.

Van Horn was arrested shortly after Mrs. Hazel Murdock, 39, was found strangled and stabbed to death by her husband in their Waterford Township home Jan. 25.

Orr said the confession was "inadmissible" because Van Horn's "detention was unlawful, he was not arraigned before a judge without unnecessary delay and the confession was obtained 22 hours after arrest."

Circuit Judge H. Russell Holland scheduled a hearing on the motion April 28 at 11 a.m. The first-degree murder trial is set to begin the next day.

Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem will answer Orr's charges at the hearing.

Pays $300 Million as 1st Tax Installment

NEW YORK (AP)—A payment of 300 million dollars by a corporation as the first installment of its federal income tax is this year's largest payment in the lower Manhattan district. The district is the wealthiest in the country in terms of corporate taxes.

Raphael Meisels, director of the district, reported the figure but declined to identify the corporation.

Reuther Raps Size and Glitter of American Car

WASHINGTON (AP)—Walter Reuther said Wednesday the size and glitter of American automobiles are silly and the industry should get busy making moderate priced small cars.

Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers Union, said this is what President Eisenhower was talking about in a news conference remark that the American people are "fed up" with some of the products manufacturers are trying to shove down their throats.

"I think the auto industry should make a car which at least could be parked in a single block," Reuther joked.

The first question popped at Reuther, after a speech on economic and world affairs to the International Press Institute, was about the size of American cars. Editor Joop Luckert of the Amsterdam de Volkskrant said he likes American cars but they have gotten too big.

"They're getting sillier and sillier and bigger and bigger," Luckert said.

Reuther said he agrees.

The auto union leader conceded, however, many Americans buy big gaudy cars as a mark of social distinction, many times when they can't afford it.

It's Going to Be Hot Through Mid-May

The U.S. Weather Bureau said today the outlook up to mid-May calls for "unseasonable warmth" over the Great Lakes Region, with subnormal rainfall and considerable sunshine.

A low of 50 degrees is forecast for the Pontiac area tonight, followed by a high of 75 tomorrow and a low of 40 tomorrow night. Last night's low was 50 degrees.

The lowest thermometer reading preceding 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac was 50 degrees. The temperature was 80 at 2 p.m.

Warm Weather Softens Lake Huron Ice Pack

PORT HURON (INS)—Captain Evor Kerr, commander of the Coast Guard cutter Mackinaw, said today the ice field in Lake Huron is breaking up rapidly in 70-degree weather and southerly winds.

The Mackinaw, which has been smashing the ice jam at the lower end of Lake Huron for two weeks, is expected to end its labors Saturday.

It's a Man's World... Until About 13 or 15

Girls in Boys' Club?.. Horrible Thot!

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP)—Women may wear overalls, drive trucks, throw the discus, operate jackhammers and steal their husbands' razors.

But never will girls violate the sanctity of one of the world's last great masculine strongholds, the San Pedro Boys' Club.

Club director Nick Trani was dredging around for a topic for the club's annual essay contest. He finally came up with this: "Should the boys' club allow girls to use club facilities?"

The 10-year-olds in the organization, stunned that such a question should even be brought up, put their feet down with indignant finality. Quotes from a few of their essays:

"No, because they take off their shoes and shoo (show) their toes."

"No! But if they come in, let us have some nasal (national) guards... to defend ourselves."

"No. I don't want girls because this is a man's club."

From the 11-year-olds:

"No. Boys can't think with girls around."

"No... The YWCA is for girls and that is where they should belong. If we boys tried to join the YWCA... Do you think they would let us join? No!"

"No. They were shoes instead of tennis shoes."

The unanimity began to fade with the 13-year-olds, one of whom acknowledged: "Yes! Girls would make it popular. And also I like them."

But another wrote: "No! There would be fights because of them buttin in."

The 15-year-olds, although heavily outnumbered, were about all snagged by nature's tender trap. Said one: "Yes! You might be helping both boys and girls on their way to the Olympic Games."

And another: "Yes, I like girls and I think it would be more fun."

Director Trani's decision: A girl couldn't get into the San Pedro Boys' Club if she smoked a pipe, used snuff and wore a derby.

Americans Cheer Exhibit

By BOB CONSIDINE

BRUSSELS (INS)—A thousand cheering Americans, the Vanguard of many tourist task forces to come, cheered the opening today of the stunning U.S. Pavilion at the Brussels World's Fair.

The dedication of the American exhibit climaxed a day which saw 26-year-old

The President expressed the view that the Brussels Fair, first of the nuclear age, would be a lasting contribution to peace.

A U. S. Air Force band was flown in from Fontainebleau in France to boom out the national anthems of the U.S. and Belgium.

Seven-year-old Anne Marie Daymont freshly divorced from her tonsils, cut a yellow silk ribbon across the main door of the beautiful U.S. Pavilion.

PRIDE EVIDENT

There was a burst of evident pride at the sight of the U.S. exhibit and a determination to enjoy it even though it cost only one-fifth of the $50 million the Russians spent on their enormous exhibit nearby.

Howard Cullman, America's commissioner-general, was praised by U.S. Ambassador to Belgium Clifford Folger for creating an exhibit which "has caught the feeling of our country—gay, lively and optimistic."

Cullman deprecated his own role and said he owed everything to his staff. He singled out, among others, architect Ed Stone.

The eyes of the assembled Americans searched the little speakers' platform for a sight of the renowned architect and designer.

Lack of Funds May Close Child Guidance Branches

Two branches of the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic will have to close their doors next year unless additional funds are secured from Oakland County, declared Miss Madeleine Half, clinic director today.

She said representatives of the clinic would appeal to the Board of Supervisors Monday for an extra 1959 appropriation of $15,000. Present allocation is for $32,500.

"And the $15,000, if we get it, will only prolong our life a little longer," she said. Increasing use of the clinic makes the additional money necessary, she said.

REQUEST SLICED

Without it, the Birmingham office and the South Oakland branches will close down next year.

The clinic, created in 1944 under the State Department of Mental Health, asked Oakland County for $72,000 for next year. Supervisors and auditors preparing the proposed $12,762,380 budget sliced the request to $32,500 in a countywide economy move.

The clinic provides diagnostic treatment service for children with emotional problems.

Broomfield Says About $21 Million Ready Now; $35,000,000 July 1

Enactment of a new highway construction act by Congress will mean millions of dollars in new road money for Michigan "almost immediately," according to Oakland County Congressman William S. Broomfield.

In Washington, Broomfield said the bill will make available $56,500,000 for work in the state almost at once.

The state will be eligible for more than $150 million over the next several years, the Associated Press reported. The $56 million, however, should mean immediate work.

President Eisenhower signed the $1.9 billion highway bill into law Wednesday afternoon, the final day on which he could act.

"Michigan should move quickly to take full advantage of the money it will receive," said Broomfield.

"Some $21,000,000 will be available for new highways and roads within a few days. The remaining $35,000,000 will be available on July 1."

The extra money will create hundreds of new jobs for Michigan workers, said Broomfield. "In addition we will be building the roads and highways we so badly need in our metropolitan and urban areas."

The act increases interstate highway funds for the nation from $2 billion to $2.2 billion for the fiscal year starting next July and from $2.2 billion to $2.5 billion for the following fiscal year.

The bill signed by the President contains a provision sponsored by Broomfield to permit the full amount of federal funds to be spent whether there is money in the highway trust fund or not.

The money will be borrowed from the Treasury and repaid from federal gasoline taxes.

The highway bill also contains an incentive clause for states to control billboard construction along the federal highway system.

In addition to the interstate highway system $900 million of regular federal aid and $132 million in federal primary and urban roads is provided.

Another $400 million in additional

Huge Loan Bill for Public Works Gets Senate OK

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has passed another on the list of Democratic-sponsored antirecession bills—a billion-dollar federal loan fund for city public works projects.

The measure now goes to the House, where key Democrats have introduced similar legislation.

The senate passed the bill last night 60-22 despite Eisenhower administration opposition and after overriding Republican attempts to tone down major provisions.

Forty Democrats and 20 Republicans voted for passage, with 4 Democrats and 22 Republicans opposed.

Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson D-Tex called the public works bill an extremely important measure. He said more proposals to combat the recession would be coming along.

AMC, Union Talks Recess

28-Day Break Agreed on to Let UAW Locals Negotiate at Plants

DETROIT (U) — American Motors Corp. and the United Auto Workers Union have agreed on a 28-day recess in top level talks on a new wage contract.

But the negotiations will continue on the local level in an attempt to reach agreement in seniority, grievance procedures and shop working conditions.

AMC and the union took only two days to exchange proposals on a new contract before agreeing on a recess yesterday.

In a joint statement, the negotiators said the long recess will permit UAW locals to negotiate on secondary phases of the contract at plants in Michigan and Wisconsin.

The AMC-UAW contract expires June 15, more than two weeks after the expiration of UAW contracts with General Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

The union presented to AMC the same demands, including profit sharing, which have been made upon the big three. AMC proposed a wage freeze for the next two years, claiming that its wage rates are higher than the $2.40 an hour average in the auto industry.

The UAW had bargaining talks scheduled today at Ford and at Chrysler.

Negotiations at General Motors were recessed yesterday until Friday.

Much of Nation Begins to Believe Summer Is Here

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More summer-like weather was in prospect for much of the mid-continent today with the warmer air headed into most of the Eastern third of the country.

Wet weather was the outlook for many sections in the Western half of the country.

Skins cleared during the night in the mid and south Atlantic coastal areas after heavy downpours and gusty winds swept wide parts of the Southeast for two days. Although it was generally cool along the Atlantic coastal region during the night, fair and mild weather was expected during the day.

The mild weather belt extended from the Plains to the Appalachians and temperatures during the night ranged in the 60s through the Plains and upper Mississippi Valley.

Know the Weather

By E. H. SIMS

Nature has a number of weird antics with which she startles us, or amuses us, at times. Some people see in these phenomena signs telling us something about tomorrow's weather, or the week's weather.

Others think such occurrences as St. Elmo's Light, Fox-Fire, various lights caused by phosphorus either in water or in the ground, portend the coming of weather events. This is not true, except in cases where weather conditions, by coincidence, produce a clue to tomorrow's weather.

Fox-fire, for example, tells us little or nothing about the weather. Seen at night, usually in forests or wooded areas, or areas where trees were felled or lay for some time, fox-fire is nothing but a fungus breathing!

More about it, and other phenomena tomorrow.

Carry, Wood Square Off to Represent District 6

Two candidates, chosen out of a wide field of five at last month's primary, will battle Monday to represent District 6 on the City Commission.

Voters will select either incumbent John E. Carry, who is seeking a third two-year term, or Wesley J. Wood, a newcomer to politics.

Carry, 38, of 576 E. Pike St. is a native of Pontiac currently employed as a sales representative for Oakland Vending Co.

A World War II veteran, he serves on the Pontiac Planning Commission.

Wood, 51, of 137 Michigan Ave. came to Pontiac in 1925 and has worked at General Motors Truck & Coach Division since 1941. He is a service follow-up man.

A native of Rapid City, Wood lived in several southeastern Michigan communities before coming to Pontiac.

Statements to The Press by the two candidates follow:

JOHN E. CARRY

"Honest and sincere representation for Pontiac generally and for District 6 specifically is the platform I pledged four years ago, two years ago, and again today. My record in the past speaks for itself.

"Progress in the past four years is visibly evident.

"The new City Hall has been completed and occupied, as have the branch library, west side fire station and Public Safety Building. Best of all, these projects are debt-free. It is contemplated that a new central fire hall will be erected in District 6, complementing the civic center site. In the not too distant future, we can expect an additional sewage disposal plant benefiting our district and the whole city.

"Sound planning is behind these accomplishments. I feel that, if re-elected, my experience will insure continued progress."

WESLEY J. WOOD

"I believe that we should carry on a strong improvement program as at present on a pay-as-you-go basis.

"I am in agreement with the recent action of the City Commission in reducing the tax rate per thousand and will endeavor to maintain this reduction in keeping with adequate service.

"I do not favor public housing. I believe it will be our responsibility as City Commissioners to lead the city on a high moral and spiritual plane and will work to the end that Pontiac will be a better city in which to live."

"I believe that any citizen who might present a problem or question to his Commissioner should have the courtesy of a reply, be it affirmative or negative.

"I shall carry out the wishes of the majority of the people in District 6 to the best of my ability."

Air Force 1st Service to Endorse Ike's Plan

ST. LOUIS (U) — The Air Force last night endorsed President Eisenhower's defense reorganization plan. It was the first service to do so.

Gen. Thomas D. White, Air Force chief of staff, told the St. Louis Chapter of the American Ordnance Assn. that the Air Force was "wholeheartedly in accord with the President's proposal."

He said it "will be of great benefit to the security of our country" in that it will "ally technical progress and efficient use of modern weapons to a modern, efficient military organization structure."

The chiefs of the two other armed forces, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor of the Army, and Adm. Arleigh Burke of the Navy, have remained silent on the President's demand for concentration of more power in the secretary of defense and joint chiefs of staff.

Mushroom Soup Started Williams on Bow Tie Road

LANSING, Mich. (U) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams' affection for green polka dot bow ties can be traced back to a bowl of mushroom soup.

That's what the governor's 15-year-old daughter, Nancy says in an article in her junior school newspaper.

In the late 1930s, she said, the Williams family was entertaining Gov. Frank Murphy at dinner. Williams seated the guests and started to eat himself.

"Then it happened," Nancy wrote. "With one elegant movement he leaned over, pulled his chair up behind himself and simultaneously dunked almost his entire tie in his mushroom soup."

Williams splattered soup down the front of his suit and Mrs. Williams let the rolls burn in her rush to clean up the mess.

"Ever since that memorable evening, my father has always worn bow ties," Nancy said.

Husband No Gospel

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (U) — Actress Patricia Owens, 26, has divorced film writer - producer Sidney (Sy) Bartlett, 49, on testimony that: "He told me it was up to a woman to accept everything her husband said as gospel law and never question him." This amounted to cruelty in the opinion of the court.

Actor Not Happy Fellow

VAN NUYS, Calif. (U) — Actor Troy Donahue was sentenced to 14 days when he appeared on a speeding ticket. The judge discovered Donahue, 22, had five other warrants outstanding. Donahue had to cancel a personal appearance tour to plug his film "The Happy Feeling."

Sullenberger Plans to Open Own Clinic

Sullenberger said. "This is in the future, however. We want to get the remodeled building operating as a clinic as soon as possible."

She made the disclosure in the form of a written statement prepared today by herself and attorney Harry H. Dell.

The statement indicated the surgeon would appeal the court decision to the Michigan Supreme Court and "cooperate" with the hospital Board of Trustees.

It made no demands, however, for a final hearing on the suspension, which was made on a temporary basis last Nov. 13.

It cited "the many expressions of confidence and friendship on the part of (Dr. Sullenberger's) numerous patients and listed as tentative conclusions:

That the doctor has decided he will remain in Pontiac and practice medicine here;

That "in order to protect the doctor's legal and professional position" an appeal would be filed to the high court after Judge Quinn's written order is filed; and

"If at any time the affected persons and organizations would deem it desirable, Dr. Sullenberger will be happy to cooperate with the board of trustees in a full exploration of the matters which were and are involved in the pending litigation."

This last was in part a reference to the surgeon's charge his ouster was forced by "professional jealousy of a ruling clique of doctors" at the hospital.

It also referred to Hospital Director Carl I. Flath's counter-charge that Dr. Sullenberger had violated professional standards in 25 cases, in six of which the patient died, he said.

After the suit was dismissed, Dr. Sullenberger asserted that he "would never leave Pontiac until the charges hanging over my head are settled, one way or another."

Henry, Whithers Seeking to Represent District 1

Much attention this election is focused on District 1, the only one in which an incumbent is not seeking re-election.

Two candidates, paired off at last month's primary, will vie Monday for the City Commission seat being vacated by Dr. Roy V. Cooley Jr. after six years.

They are Milton R. Henry, 32, of 191 Bassett St. and Samuel J. Whithers, 45, of 483 Harvey St.

Henry, a Pontiac lawyer, is running for office the first time. A native of Philadelphia, he came to Pontiac in 1932 after graduation from Yale Law School.

A World War II veteran, he also attended Lincoln University, Pa. and Temple University.

Whithers was an unsuccessful nominee for the seat two years ago. He came to Pontiac in 1917 from Memphis, Tenn.

Owner of Sam's Electric store, 331 Orchard Lake Ave., Whithers is treasurer of the Urban League of Pontiac and housing chairman of the local National Association of Colored People.

Statements to The Press by the two candidates follow:

MILTON R. HENRY

"Basically, I believe that government should exist for the benefit of the people, and that there are many things which the City Commission must do yet to make Pontiac the type of democratic city we all believe it should be.

"I am in favor of bonding all city officials who have anything whatever to do with either the lives, the liberty or the property of Pontiac citizens.

"I am in favor of (1) the protection of the civil liberties of all the citizens of this city through legislative enactment; (2) the acquisition of federal projects and grants-in-aid for the city of Pontiac; and (3) the active participation of the city in programs designed to promote inter-racial and inter-cultural understanding."

"I believe Pontiac is capable of much more than is in evidence at present, and that there is just too much lethargy in relation to the business of city government."

"I am in favor of using all of the Commission's powers as defined by the City Charter to achieve these ends."

SAMUEL J. WHITHERS

"Your Commissioner must be able to recognize the needs of the city as well as your district, and bring such needs to the Commission's attention. He must be capable and prepared to decide impartially the kind of laws, regulations and projects that will bring the most beneficial results to the city's health and welfare.

The Day in Birmingham Report Estimates 7,700 in Playgrounds Activities

BIRMINGHAM (U) — About 7,700 youngsters participated in Birmingham playground activities last summer, according to the annual report made by Robert Girardin, recreation board director. This was an increase of 1,500 over the previous year.

New activities and equipment were added last season, with emphasis placed on entertainment which at the same time would challenge the abilities of the participants, Girardin said.

Attendance by parks was: Adams, 1,548; Elton, 1,940; Pembroke, 1,361; Pierce, 1,603; and Quanton, 1,231. There also were many activities at neighborhood parks as well as baseball and softball games, model plane flying, and targetry at other centers.

The year saw the installation of new items such as the ski and toboggan slides, archery range, tennis backboard, baseball diamonds and a shuffleboard court.

The teenage recreation program featured dances, Teen Center activities and television appearances of young people.

One of the most popular programs during the summer was the eight-week course in instrumental music in which 6,832 persons enrolled.

The recreation program, however, was not designed for the young people only. Family swim nights were held, and the shuffleboard courts attracted a great number of men.

Girardin said he and members of the board felt the past year's program was very successful, and he predicted an equally good response in the future.

Facilities will be broadened as the demand for them grows, he said.

Frisky Porker Leads Police on Wild Chase

DETROIT (INS) — A 300-pound hog led five carloads of police on a 40-minute chase around the Michigan Central Depot park in Detroit today.

Traffic jammed up as drivers stopped to watch the chase. Some 300 pedestrians lined sidewalks around the park.

Police rushed to the park after a taxi driver reported the hog was running around the depot cab stand.

Officers said the hog was roped after it fired. A dog pound truck was summoned, but its door wasn't wide enough for the hog and a second truck had to be dispatched.

The porker will be quartered at the pound until calmed.

Report Estimates 7,700 in Playgrounds Activities

BIRMINGHAM (U) — About 7,700 youngsters participated in Birmingham playground activities last summer, according to the annual report made by Robert Girardin, recreation board director. This was an increase of 1,500 over the previous year.

New activities and equipment were added last season, with emphasis placed on entertainment which at the same time would challenge the abilities of the participants, Girardin said.

Attendance by parks was: Adams, 1,548; Elton, 1,940; Pembroke, 1,361; Pierce, 1,603; and Quanton, 1,231. There also were many activities at neighborhood parks as well as baseball and softball games, model plane flying, and targetry at other centers.

The year saw the installation of new items such as the ski and toboggan slides, archery range, tennis backboard, baseball diamonds and a shuffleboard court.

The teenage recreation program featured dances, Teen Center activities and television appearances of young people.

One of the most popular programs during the summer was the eight-week course in instrumental music in which 6,832 persons enrolled.

The recreation program, however, was not designed for the young people only. Family swim nights were held, and the shuffleboard courts attracted a great number of men.

Girardin said he and members of the board felt the past year's program was very successful, and he predicted an equally good response in the future.

Facilities will be broadened as the demand for them grows, he said.

Await Soviet Word on Summit Confab

MOSCOW (U) — The Western Big Three's ambassadors to Moscow awaited word from the Kremlin today on whether it would begin talks with them on possibilities for agreement at a summit conference.

The envoys of the United States, Britain and France left the next move-up to the Soviets. They had no plans to call at Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's office or take other steps toward the summit unless the Kremlin asked them to.

The Western allies accepted the Soviet proposal of April 11 for a low-level meeting — but only if their ambassadors could take up major issues and explore them fully. The Soviets proposed that the talks start today.

Frisky Porker Leads Police on Wild Chase

DETROIT (INS) — A 300-pound hog led five carloads of police on a 40-minute chase around the Michigan Central Depot park in Detroit today.

Traffic jammed up as drivers stopped to watch the chase. Some 300 pedestrians lined sidewalks around the park.

Police rushed to the park after a taxi driver reported the hog was running around the depot cab stand.

Officers said the hog was roped after it fired. A dog pound truck was summoned, but its door wasn't wide enough for the hog and a second truck had to be dispatched.

The porker will be quartered at the pound until calmed.

Best Foot Forward Decided by Doctors

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., (AP)—The National Assn. of Chiropractors is changing its name to the American Podiatry Assn., effective Jan. 1.

Dr. Jonas Morris, president, explained to the Middle-Atlantic Assn. of Chiropractors-Podiatrists that the change results from a more accurate interpretation of the Greek bases for the two words.

The base for chiropody, he said, meant "of the hands and feet," while that of podiatry meant "of the feet."

Morris, professor of practical administration at the Temple University College of Chiropractic, estimated that 5,000 more podiatrists are needed in this country.

He said there are fewer than 7,000 in practice now, and that many cities and towns have none. He also estimated that 70 per cent of Americans have some foot disorder.

Town Reports Lost in Massachusetts

SCITUATE, Mass. (AP)—The big question at the town hall is, who tore an entire section out of the newly bound copy of the 1952-53 town reports, and why?

The town has bound copies of all the reports from about 1850 on, available for inspection at the selectmen's office.

The loss was discovered when the town counsel attempted to look up something concerning the March 1952 town meeting.

Thief Foils Police in Ali Baba's Cave

ST. GERMAIN, France — Ali Baba's cave, 1937 version, was partly hidden by bushes. It was just a 16-inch wide hole in the forest here.

Robert Morano showed it to police after they had caught him selling a stolen shotgun. He admitted 30 burglaries and offered to show where the loot was stored.

A long, dark tunnel opened into an Ali Baba cave packed with stolen articles. The police heard running water — an underground river, Morano said.

While they were examining the loot, he suddenly jumped a wall, waded across the "river," ran down another passage and up a flight of stairs to an ancient cottage and escaped. Police still are hunting him.

U.S. Population Climbing

Population forecasts are always interesting.

There is a certain speculative feature in all prognostications but at the same time, the experts become reasonably accurate and they study reasons and underlying causes.

There are somewhere in excess of 170 million people in this country today. Many students of the trends unite in believing that this will increase five per cent within the next two or three years.

Then, by 1965, they expect to see the number past the 200 million mark. And some of the more optimistic, freely predict 250 million by 1980.

Well, 1980 isn't far away. It's only 22 years.

Should the 250 million figure come true, the nation would step upward in excess of 40 per cent. If Pontiac followed the national average precisely, it would reach 120,000. Oakland County, meanwhile, would attain a size somewhere between 800,000 and 900,000.

These national figures are not based on hopeful optimism. They are predicated on the best studies and forecasts made by intelligent people who study populations and tendencies. In 1980, the current "recession" or "decline" or whatever you choose to call it, won't loom very large.

British Troops Invited to Remain in Malaya

In contrast to other developments in that part of the world, the people of Malaya have asked that British troops not be withdrawn from their country at this time.

This was in response to a demand made of the Secretary for Commonwealth Relations by a group of 35 Labor members of the British Parliament that British troops be called home.

Malayan Prime Minister TENGKU ABDUL RAHMAN's reply is realistic: "It is as much the duty of the British people as the Malayan to meet the Communist challenge," he said. "Malaya is fighting not only for its own life but also to free this part of Asia from the Communist menace."

Britons have suffered loss of life and have spent large sums of money to defeat the Communist menace in Malaya and to see that the country was prepared for self-government. Prime Minister RAHMAN knows he has nothing to fear from "colonialism" but he does fear Communism, whose followers have terrorized the whole country. Continued presence of British troops is a safeguard not only to Malaya but to all Southeast Asia.

If President SUKARNO had followed Prime Minister RAHMAN's reasonable course, Indonesia now would not be in the throes of a civil war from which only the Communists can gain.

Underdeveloped Areas Given U.N. Assistance

A recent United Nations report shows that in the past two years $5.5 billion in economic aid has been extended to underdeveloped countries. More than half this sum, $2.8 billion, was contributed by the United States with France, Britain, Australia, Canada and The Netherlands donating sizable sums.

Of the total about $50 million was spent on the U.N. technical assistance program, the balance was paid directly by one country to another or to a group, as in the Colombo Plan. For "lack of adequate information" the U.N. does not present any figures but our State Department estimates that about $1.5 billion has been promised or loaned by Communist countries between 1954 and 1956. Comparisons can't be made because the free world's figures show the sums actually expended, U.N. technical assistance was begun in 1950, but Russia did not participate financially until 1953 and total contributions of the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe is said to be only five per cent of the total.

Fear of the spear of Communism to backward nations has spurred our fight against hunger, disease and ignorance in those areas where such conditions provide fertile soil for Communist propaganda. Apart from that, however, is the realization by the free world that it has a moral obligation to help less fortunate countries for the benefit of all the world.

The Man About Town This Is Final Call Still Time to Enter the Contest—if You Move Fast

Baseball: What can be worth $250 to you. But you must hurry.

Your equity in that $250 is dwindling. It will be gone if your entry in our baseball contest is not received by Friday noon.

And that's TOMORROW, when the contest closes.

Better make personal delivery on your entries. The hour is late. Less than a day remains. Over 70 entries were disqualified last year because they did not arrive on time.

The box in the cement post on the west side of the outside entrance to The Pontiac Press office is at your service 24 hours in every day. Lift up the lid and drop your entries into the slide. All deposited there before Friday noon will be counted. The $250 in U. S. Savings Bonds goes to the person making the nearest correct answer to the following question:

What player who has been at bat at least 25 times will be leading the American League on the night of Thursday, May 1, and what will be his batting average?

Every member of your family can compete, but each entry must be on a separate piece of paper. All can be enclosed in the same envelope.

Your favorite player is doing his best. Will you give him a minute or two of your time. You may get $250 for it.

John W. Wulff of Oxford, takes me back to Spanish-American war days. John served in that conflict, but I was rejected (6-3 tall and 125 lbs.), so I stayed at home, and canvassed most of Northwest Oakland County, taking orders for a history of the war, to be delivered 90 days after peace was declared. I was ashamed of that product, and wonder if any of them still are in existence.

David Lawrence Says:

Must Clarify Oppenheimer Case

WASHINGTON — J. Robert Oppenheimer, who was ruled to be a "security risk" by the Atomic Energy Commission in 1954, made a speech here Tuesday before the International Press Institute.

Whatever mistakes he might have made in the past would not have come into public notice again, but the American chairman of the meeting, in introducing Dr. Oppenheimer, gave to the assembled journalists from all over the world an erroneous impression of why the scientist was denied access to security data.

This needs to be clarified lest an important group of newsmen from foreign lands depart with a mistaken concept of what American policy was in this case. The chairman said:

"The charge, in brief, was excessive loyalty to one or two very old friends, and an occasional disdainful attitude toward the cops, and I submit to you, ladies and gentlemen, those are two solid, sterling American traits. Unfortunately they were somewhat out of style during a few months in 1954."

The chairman added that there is "right now an ever-growing demand in these United States, and particularly in the scientific community, that Dr. Oppenheimer be returned to active work for his government."

No doubt there are some Americans who feel that way and sincerely believe that what Dr. Oppenheimer did should not have caused him to be removed from the government councils on scientific matters.

There are others who feel that, had Dr. Oppenheimer's advice against developing the H-bomb been followed, an important weapon would not perhaps have been available to the United States and that this country would subsequently have been at a serious disadvantage against Soviet Russia.

But the facts show the Atomic Energy Commission did not remove Dr. Oppenheimer from government councils because of the advice he gave against making the H-bomb, but solely because of his lack of cooperation in security matters.

Thus the decision of the Atomic Energy Commission in June 1954 reads in part as follows:

"Dr. Oppenheimer has now admitted under oath that while in charge of the Los Alamos laboratory and working on the most secret weapon development for the government, he told Col. Pash a fabrication of lies."

"Col. Pash was an officer of military intelligence charged with the duty of protecting the atomic weapons project against spies. Dr. Oppenheimer told Col. Pash in circumstantial detail of an attempt by a Soviet agent to obtain from him information about the work on the atom bomb.

"This was the Haakon Chevalier incident. In the hearings recently concluded, Dr. Oppenheimer under oath swears that the story he told Col. Pash was a 'whole fabrication and tissue of lies.'"

"It is not clear today whether the account Dr. Oppenheimer gave to Col. Pash in 1943 concerning the Chevalier incident is the true version."

"If Dr. Oppenheimer lied in 1943, as he now says he did, he committed the crime of knowingly making false and material statements to a federal officer."

"Concern for the defense and security of the United States requires that Dr. Oppenheimer's clearance should not be reinstated."

If it was "excessive loyalty" to his friends by Dr. Oppenheimer and less concern for the maintenance of the security regulations of his own government, can this be regarded in the circumstances as a "solid, sterling American trait"?

Dr. William Brady Says:

Cause of Heart Cramp May be Lack of Calcium

That legendary teacher, Dr. William Osler, mentioned in his "practice," four theories of the cause and nature of stenocardia, breast-pang or angina pectoris.

One theory: "Heberden's belief that it was a cramp of the heart-muscle itself."

While the doctor considered Heberden's theory worth mentioning he gave it one line, whereas he gave "the theory of Allan Burns—that the condition is one of transient ischemia (local, temporary deficiency of blood) of the heart-muscle in consequence of disease, or spasm, of the coronary arteries"—a paragraph.

Dr. Osler's apparent preference for the theory of Allan Burns probably accounts for the general acceptance of this theory today.

This Allan Burns must have been a smart cookie. He wrote his book on the heart, 150 years ago—not long after the old woman of Shropshire had imparted to Dr. William Withering a brand new idea, namely, that foxglove (digitalis) was a good remedy for the dropsy.

That was in 1776. Withering, in turn, introduced it to the medical profession; and before long, the profession had removed all traces of its old-womanish origin and converted the herb into a remedy having magical power to relieve heart trouble.

Heberden's belief that angina pectoris was a cramp of the heart muscle interests me because extremely painful cramps in the feet, legs, hands, wrists or arms, characteristic of tetany, are due, I believe, to calcium deficiency from years of calcium-poor diet.

In the pamphlet Adult Tetany (for which send stamped, self-addressed envelope), I tell how to prevent such cramps, which mature adults find so distressing, by supplementing the diet with an adequate daily ration of calcium and, of course, vitamin D, which is essential for good calcium utilization in the body.

Contrary to the prevailing notion of doctors who know little about nutrition, I believe that calcium deficiency is a contributing factor of cardiovascular degeneration (heart and artery troubles, described in the booklet CVD, for which send Wm. Brady, M.D., 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope. My address is 265 El Camino, Beverly Hills, California.

Calcium deficiency may manifest itself as heart cramp, so follow a high calcium diet and supplement the diet with a few calcium capsules every day.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, "quack" or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Record of a Psychologist:

Psychology Needed in Business

Claude was about to sign a lease for a wonderful showroom—but it was on the wrong side of Michigan Boulevard!

Nowadays, our "consumer surveys" have made the selection of a business site a very scientific process. And small merchant David can often defeat chain store Goliath, for psychology still makes or breaks retail stores.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
CASE X—32: Claude R., aged 42, is an Englishman.

"Dr. Crane, I met a friend of yours in London before I sailed," he began, "and he advised me to ask your advice."

"I am opening a showroom for European cars. I have located a very attractive spot on Michigan Avenue, near the bridge."

"What do you think of my choice? Our mutual friend asked me to get your opinion before I signed any lease."

APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY

Claude was not familiar with Chicago so he felt he was getting a bargain in the showroom space he had in mind.

But Applied Psychologists have developed a very vital check list of things to consider before you open any new business.

For example, Claude didn't realize the fact that Chicagoans prefer the west side of Michigan Boulevard.

Very few people traverse its east sidewalks, at least downtown. Yet it was on the east side of the street that Claude was planning to locate.

Voice of the People

'We Find We Can't Afford Fine Cars We Demanded'

I'm one of millions making $100 a week, raising a family and buying my home. Our car is a necessity. American people have demanded more horse power, longer, wider and more decorative cars. Now we find they've outstepped our pocketbooks. Our old buggies need repairs and we can't raise payments for new ones. Therefore, many men are laid off. We appreciate the high cost of labor, materials and overhead, as we live it every day. We know you can't build these luxury liners for less, so hear our plea, auto manufacturers.

Put your automotive talents to work on a new model, conventional size, without endless, wonderful gimmicks. Make accessories "do-it-yourself." Make a car within our income. Then put your fabulous advertisers to work. Don't use words like "standard" or "strip down" model. Make us believe we're getting all the luxuries an auto like this can give. Tell us we can afford to trade every year and pay for it in 18 months. Men would be working and two cars would be more common.

We have to say we're licked. You've built everyone's dream car. We've tasted Utopia, but now we must come down out of the clouds. We need our cars.

Backs Further Nuclear Tests

Russia wants to stop all nuclear tests because she's through. We may have months of work ahead. And also, we may be working on something new Russia doesn't know anything about. It's all to Russia's advantage to stop now. Keep at work, Uncle Samuel. We're all for you and your activity.

'Better Go Back; He Sure Needs It'

McNamara walks out on the Senate investigation. Someone ought to persuade Reuther to order him back. He needs the education—badly.

Two More Oppose 'Modern' Education

I was very much interested in a letter protesting against progressive education. In a current magazine article, progressive education was given as the reason "universities are forced to teach third grade English to freshmen." It also said engineering colleges are compelled to give "bonehead math courses" because the high schools failed so miserably in teaching math. Another writer said public education is "bad in theory, bad in practice and abysmal in results."

Are the public schools in Pontiac using this progressive thing? I'm not as much interested for the moment in juvenile delinquency as I am in juvenile ignorance.

Poor Parent

Progressive education—ha! That's where they teach our young people to "make appeasement" instead of learning long division. That's where they show them "how the boilers operate" instead of proving that "they was" probably "ain't correct."

Progressive education—that's where they teach them "how to plan vacation" instead of how to read rapidly. (Oh, yes, I read that magazine article, too.)

They try to teach the necessary things also, but they just give them a lick and a promise to make time for the educational monkey shines.

Asks Enforcement of City Ordinance

Why is the ice cream vendor permitted to sell ice cream to minors without the aid of an attendant?

Such an ordinance exists, however, it isn't enforced. I've seen vendors in my neighborhood several times this spring and never with an attendant. What's the use of having ordinances and not enforcing them?

Perhaps after some children are injured someone will see to enforcement of the ordinance.

Portraits

By JAMES J. METCALFE

At home or in a hospital... A visitor should always be... A very special guest... He may not want that treatment but... He does deserve it well... As he takes time to call on you... And linger for a spell... He puts aside all other things... To stop and say hello... With kind and friendly feelings that... He wants to let you know... There is that lone exception of... The lowly hypocrite... Who flatters you, and hopes to gain... Some profit out of it... But visitors in general... Are those who are sincere... Who really love you for yourself... And hold your friendship dear.

'Bugs' Baer Says:

(DISTRIBUTED BY INS)
Question is has the recession come and went? The average man has fifty-two a year and isn't even average.

I never had any moola to recess and can ride those things like an Arab on a sway-backed camel.

The Democrats play it up like it was Tommy Manville's 11th wedding. Tommy made only one mistake in his life when he married the same girl twice.

Back in the panic-leaned days of 1929 I made the proud boast that I was a bum before the depression. Moola got so scarce that even bad debts started to look good.

chain store outlets, for many housewives are good shoppers and like to view the contents of several stores.

That is also why we have "automobile row" in many cities, with the salesrooms of many different automobiles being located side by side for maybe a full city block.

Even after you finally locate your store, however, and have it stocked with the latest brands of merchandise, you may still go bankrupt if your sales clerks aren't on their toes.

For a stolid face instead of a cheery smile can bankrupt a retail store. People still react to a gay conversational tone and an infectious grin, so the human element in selling is even more important today than 30 years ago.

So send for my booklet "The New Psychology of Advertising & Selling," enclosing a stamped return envelope plus 20 cents (non-profit).

It can often help the little fellow succeed in the face of gigantic competition, for a small merchant may still use better psychology than a huge chain store.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope and the cover to the booklet. When you are sent his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Cullman Stages World Show

Broadway 'Angel' Heads U. S. Exhibits at Brussels

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Howard Stix Cullman, the "angel" of many Broadway shows, had a devil of a time raising money for a production of his own, but it opened on schedule today—and will probably be a hit.

Cullman is this country's commissioner general to the World's Fair at Brussels, Belgium. As such, he is in charge of the U. S. exhibit, two magnificent buildings whose contents are designed to show the face of America to the rest of the world.

His troubles in financing the venture were with an economy-minded Congress that refused to give Cullman all the money he said he needed.

As a result, there have been fears that the U. S. show will be a flop, but these fears are not shared by those who know Cullman's own habit of associating only with success.

This season, for example, his money is comfortably invested in two of Broadway's biggest smashes, "The Music Man" and "Look Homeward, Angel." In the past, he has helped finance "Life With Father," "Arsenic and Old Lace" and many other box office successes.

HEADS TOBACCO BUSINESS

Nominally, Cullman is president of his family's tobacco business, an owner of real estate and an investor in Wall Street. But, actually, he has devoted far more of his time and energy to two public service jobs, neither of which pay him a cent.

Since 1927, he has been a member of the Port of New York Authority, which runs most of the tunnels, bridges and transportation terminals in the New York City area. In 1945 he became chairman of the authority, and since 1955 has been its honorary chairman.

His second non-paying job has been as president of New York City's Beekman-Downtown Hospital, a modern medical institution which, until Cullman took over, consisted of several run-down facilities.

A tall man, Cullman was born on Sept. 23, 1891. He played what he describes as "very bad football" at Yale and later went to work as a newspaper columnist in Colorado Springs, Colo., while recuperating there from tuberculosis.

In 1935 he married the former Marguerite Virginia Sanders, a descendant of Patrick Henry, who was then working on a theatrical publication.

It's Cullman who puts up the money for those Broadway shows—but it's Mrs. Cullman who reads the scripts.

Rockefeller Report to Call for Tax Cut

NEW YORK (U. S. A.)—A forthcoming report by the Rockefeller Brothers Fund is expected to recommend a substantial and broadly based federal tax cut.

The report may not include a figure, but it was reported today that discussions on the size of the cut to be recommended centered around five billion dollars.

Members of the fund's economic panel met here last night to put the report into final shape.

The report, due to be made public next week, is said to deal with every phase of the nation's economy, except education and human resources. These angles will be the subject of a third report. The fund's first report, made last January, dealt with the nation's security.

The forthcoming report is expected to give a detailed picture of the nation's present economic situation and discuss steps that may be taken to alleviate existing ills and assure future economic health.

It is understood that the report will deal with the farm problem and the question of public works.

FLORIDA ALLIGATOR: Rarer than dog bites ...

Wildlife Expert Believes Alligators Taking Rap

CLEVELAND (NEA)—The alligator, that creature from the misty past, may be taking the rap for a real criminal these days.

That's the opinion of wildlife expert R. F. Dooley, head of the Cleveland Zoo's reptile department.

CAUSED UPROAR

Dooley says he thinks the uproar caused by a nine-year-old boy's death by an alligator in Eau Gallie, Fla., recently is the same type that follows any animal "killer" scare.

"You don't destroy all dogs because one bites a human," Dooley says. "It's that kind of thinking in this case."

"I firmly believe," he says, "the alligator gar is responsible for most attacks attributed to 'gators.'"

The garfish also is something of a throwback. He's a toothy individual with an elongated body and reaches lengths of seven feet or more. He is very destructive of other fish.

An 11 1/2-foot 'gator dealt a blow to protection of his tribe when Alan David Rice's badly mangled body was found on the bank of a creek near his Eau Gallie home. Hunters killed the 'gator and found portions of the boy's body in its stomach.

While the boy's father swore vengeance, he was reminded it's illegal to kill a Florida 'gator less than six feet long. The state protects 'gators as tourist attractions. The 'gators also dig water holes, often providing the lone source of water for wildlife during droughts.

ALLIGATORS ATTACK

While Dooley says he knows an alligator will attack — he's been bitten several times—he feels the attacks are far more rare than dog bites. It's the gar that has to be watched. And the gar has a far greater range, being widely distributed in the eastern and central U.S.

Dooley destroys the opinion held by most laymen that cold portions of the nation are too inhospitable for 'gators to exist in.

"Gators can stand cold weather," he said. "It's only that cold weather hinders reproduction. The adult 'gator makes out all right, but the eggs suffer. I know of three spots in Pennsylvania where 'gators live.'"

'Gators' ability to survive intense cold is shown in the recent capture of a specimen a bit under five feet from Long Lake near Pontiac, Mich. The capture ended a two-year search for the reptile that had lived through Michigan winters and had only a weight loss to show for it.

However, the alligator generally ranges from the Gulf of Mexico coast to southern Virginia. 'Gators found far from their native habitat usually were pets who'd grown too big for their owners and been released, Dooley says.

SOLD AS PETS

"Actually, most of the so-called alligators sold as pets aren't American alligators at all," Dooley said. "They're caymans, a South American species. They do a terrific mail order business with them."

A somewhat more vicious beast, the cayman can't stand cold.

The alligator has changed little, if at all, since its appearance on earth millions of years ago. It's not very intelligent, Dooley says, and doesn't make a "Come here, Fido" type of pet. The male reaches lengths of 10-12 feet. A 'gator may live 75 years.

Dooley warns that it's not smart for people with young children to keep one of the reptiles after it's grown to two feet, or even less.

"A child may offer its hand to it," he says, "and the 'gator thinks it's food. It may be a small 'gator but he'll leave a wicked wound."

New Swedish Plant Blasted From Rock

HOLJES, Sweden — Sweden is to have a new privately owned hydroelectric power plant, built in the rock.

It will be located in the Swedish Province of Varmland at Salgforsen, near Holjes, 12.42 miles from the Norwegian border. To be known as Holjes Kraftverk, the plant will cost around $24,000,000 and have a total capacity of 130,000 kilowatts.

A Swedish and a Norwegian company, one a wood pulp producer, are cooperating in the cost and will be joint owners.

Both the control room, with operating equipment and panels, and a transformer room, will be blasted out of the rock close to the generator.

Not Pessimistic About Slump

World Bank Head Says Prospects for Economy in Long Run Good

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Eugene R. Black, head of the World Bank, said today "I am not pessimistic about the current economic situation."

Black made the statement in a report to the U.N. Economic and Social Council.

The 58-year-old banker from Atlanta, Ga., conceded that the slowing down of economic activity in North America is being watched throughout the world with some fear that it may forebode a slowing down of investment and economic growth everywhere.

"Whatever the prospects for the short run, I think it is clear that in the longer run they are good," he added. "There is still great momentum in the economic progress of the underdeveloped countries. It would be deeply unfortunate if a preoccupation with domestic economic problems in the developed countries should lead to such a diminution of international aid and investment that this momentum were lost."

"But it would be a greater tragedy still if the developing countries were not to realize that their economic growth depends on their own efforts more now than at any time in the past decade."

He said the times call for intelligent planning, hard work and thrift.

The bank's program of loans for productive purposes, and encouragement of investment hit a peak this year, Black said in his annual report.

In the fiscal year to end June 30, the bank probably will have lent well over $50 million dollars—a record.

Black, just back from six weeks in Africa, said he was impressed by the amount of dormant resources that can be awakened there.

Education Board to Act on Budget

Review of School Plan Is Also Scheduled at Waterford Meeting

Approval of the Waterford Township school district budget, and reviewing of architect's plans for the Thomas M. Cooley school, are scheduled for the Board of Education's meeting tonight.

A record budget of $3,570,668 will be presented by superintendent William Shunk. It is $326,703 higher than last year's $3,243,965 figure.

One of the biggest reasons for the increase, Shunk said, was the opening of the new John D. Pierce school, now under construction and scheduled for operation next fall.

Also, the figure was based on the assumption that there would be some 600 more children in the school system, necessitating an increase of 25 additional teachers.

Shunk said there would be at least 1,200 more children enrolled in the kindergarten next year, with only 300 graduating and another 200 pupils considered "drop-outs," the figure totaled 600.

Architect's plans and specifications for the Thomas Cooley elementary school will be presented to board members, and a date for receiving of bids will be set, according to Shunk.

Lack of Hotels Holds New Caledonia Back

SYDNEY.—While the whole South Pacific area yearns for tourist trade, scarcely an island can provide proper accommodation for visitors, Sydney reports. Among the territories which are being held back by this lack of hotels is French-controlled New Caledonia, Australia's nearest and most accessible "foreign" country.

Noumea, its capital, cannot provide first-class accommodation for all the tourists wanting to visit the island and at a recent press conference there the head of the government tourist organization said that a big, first-class hotel must be built there.

However he did not explain where the capital was coming from.

6,300 Tons of Welfare

DETROIT.—Detroit Welfare Director Daniel Ryan says 12,673,744 pounds of surplus food valued at $5,081,000 have been distributed to needy families by his department since January, 1935. He said there were 25,297 Detroit families receiving such aid last March 1.

Americans Cheer Exhibit at World's Fair Rayco Firm Accused of False Advertising covered him standing obscurely among the crowd below.

King Baudouin's inaugural address contained an earnest prayer that science will be the salvation and not the destruction of man.

With tens of thousands of eager fairgoers held outside the gates of the Brussels Exposition, the 26-year-old bespectacled monarch, dressed in a general's uniform, spoke before a distinguished array of royalty and visiting diplomats in the auditorium of the wonderland.

Immediately after his short speech of warning and welcome, which followed similar talks by Belgian government officials, the King and his party proceeded into the main fairground area and kindled a flame which will dance until the fair closes Oct. 19.

Fifty jet fighters of the Belgian Air Force shot across leaden skies overhead. One group formed a large letter B which took care of both the name of the country and its monarch. Other jets trailed the black, yellow and red colors of the nation.

A colorful parade of 48 girls dressed in all the native costumes of the countries represented at the exposition swept past the young king like a chorus line.

When the outdoor ceremony concluded, the King entered a car with his grandmother, Elizabeth, who returned from a Russian visit for the occasion, and made a tour of the veritable fairyland which is expected to attract 30,000,000 people during the coming months.

Baudouin warmly thanked the nations for "assembling here the most human and remarkable aspects of their national life."

He said humanity had entered a phase of its history where "more than ever civilization is conditioned by scientists. Forces which a century ago people could not have dared to imagine have now been put at the disposition of man."

He said mankind must decide now whether "the genius of its scientists will lead it to war or peace."

The United States exposition opened at 1:15 p.m. (7:15 a.m. EST), 15 minutes before the human avalanche swept over the colorful grounds.

An army of carpenters was still swinging on nails in the hours before the gates opened.

The $50,000,000 Soviet Pavilion and the nearby U. S. exhibit were major objects of interest.

The exhibits of the two major powers are as different as Maxim Gorky and Benny Goodman, caviar and the banana split. Each will get its full share of the estimated 35,000,000 customers who will pay off the nut between now and the Oct. 19 closing date.

The huge French Pavilion, which looks something like a tin cave for prehistoric bats, emulated the government of Premier Felix Gaillard yesterday by threatening to sink.

It seems that by unlucky chance the French were assigned a spot on the huge fairground that is akin to quicksand. The building was given a solid vote of confidence by several piles driven into the uncertain earth.

A commission complaint alleged that Rayco furnished deceptive advertising material to 111 independent franchised retail stores which sell its products.

The commission said Rayco falsely claimed to offer its products for prices much lower than those regularly charged and also falsely claimed its products were made to order for each buyer's car rather than ready-made.

The company has 30 days in which to answer the complaint.

Daily Check Required

CHICAGO—A railroad man must buy his own watch and pay for its upkeep, but its type, design, and precision must meet his employer's rules. Among other things, the watch must have an open face, an unmarred crystal, and a jeweled movement that doesn't vary more than 30 seconds from accuracy in 168 hours. Its owner must check its accuracy daily with a standard mercury clock or with the watch of another employee who has made such a comparison recently.

Develop New Way to Drill for Oil

RAMAT GAN, Israel—A petroleum engineer in Ramat Gan, Israel, Leon Nissimov, has developed a new physicochemical method for oil drilling which he thinks United States firms in that industry may want to use.

By adding certain chemical products to the mud, the hardness of rock is reduced to the extent that the bit's penetrating speed is substantially increased, Mr. Nissimov claims. Efficiency of the method also is assured by automatic measurement.

The construction of an apparatus measuring simultaneous action of penetration of rotating bits is of all factors affecting the rate therefore proposed.

Money for Highways Available at Once

funds will be spent on non-interstate highways including urban extensions "particularly to stimulate employment in critical areas," said Broomfield.

Michigan's full benefits from the new fund, as reported by the Associated Press, will include:

An apportionment of $13,900,000 from the special 400 million dollar federal fund for primary, secondary and urban systems for fiscal 1959, starting July 1, 1958.

An apportionment of $7,200,000 from a special 200 million dollar fund for the interstate superhighway system for fiscal 1959.

An apportionment of $98,300,000 from a 2½ billion dollar allotment for the interstate system for fiscal 1960.

An apportionment of $31,200,000 from a 900 million dollar allotment for the primary, secondary and urban systems for fiscal 1960.

The President, in signing the bill, expressed "serious misgivings" about what he called serious defects in it. He criticized the $400 million dollar special fund, on the provision which changed for it the long-standing 50-50 matching formula and which permitted the loans to states of part of their share. He said he would resist any attempt to repeat these provisions in the future.

Wilson Calls Interest in Shipping 'Side Line'

DETROIT (AP)—Former Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson described his recently acquired interest in a shipping firm as "just a small side venture." He is a director of General Motors Corp., which he formerly headed.

Wilson said he and several friends have acquired the Oswego Shipping Corp., a holding company which owns 80 per cent of the stock in the Marine Transport Co. and the Marine Navigation Co.

"They are both old established companies," Wilson said. "They operate about 60 ships in the coastal trade—mostly in the Atlantic and the Gulf of Mexico—and own nine of them."

Former assistant Air Force Secretary Lee White is president of Oswego.

Ike Makes Pitch for Reorganization

"No 40 billion dollar blank check;

"No swallowing up of the traditional services;

"No undermining of the constitutional powers of Congress."

LISTS PROBLEMS

Among other international problems, Eisenhower listed:

"Germany remains divided. Eastern European nations remain enslaved.

"Turmoil and bitterness plague North Indonesia, the Middle East and parts of North Africa.

"France, our historic ally, has major difficulties.

"New weapons of fantastic power appall the world. Humanity now threatens its own existence."

Eisenhower said prevention of war—"or, in the tragedy of war, to win it"—is the whole purpose of America's huge defense establishment.

"Its success requires one single basic scheme, under single direction," the President said. "That scheme is our strategic plan."

Masked Thug Holds Up CNR Express Today

SYDNEY, N.S. (AP)—A masked gunman held up the mail car on the Canadian National Railway's Sydney express early today, looted it and escaped after locking two mail clerks in a washroom.

It was the first train robbery in Cape Breton Island's history. Royal Canadian Mounted Police and postal authorities said they don't know yet what was stolen.

They said the bandit was masked and carried a sawed-off shotgun. He told them "This is a stick-up. Turn around and go to the washroom or I'll blow your brains out."

The bandit missed by one day a large money shipment to Sydney banks. Today is payday for more than 5,000 workers at the Dominion Steel & Coal Corp. Sydney plant. On Friday about 6,000 coal miners in the area draw pay. Money shipments to cover these payrolls arrived here Wednesday officials said.

Ladybirds Rushing to Aid of Farmers

JOHANNESBURG — Ladybird beetles and wasps have been swarming to the rescue of farmers in the Free State area of South Africa.

They are saving wheat farms threatened by a devastating locust plague. With the aid of the insects and Methasaytox spray the battle against locusts is being won, according to Dr. Bernard Smit, of the Department of Entomology in Pretoria.

Both ladybirds and wasps feed on the locusts, the ladybirds gobbling them up at an amazing rate, he says.

Dr. Smit dismissed a theory that the plague was serious this season about 1955.

because the balance of nature had been upset by the destruction by man of swarms of hungry red-billed finches. "The finches do not feed on the locusts," he said.

Smash Bike Theft Ring

DETROIT — The Wayne County Sheriff's Department reports it has broken a teenage bicycle theft ring in Dearborn Township with three arrests. Thirty bikes were found in a garage behind the home of one of the teenagers held. The arrests followed when three youths police saw wheeling a bike late at night dropped it and ran. Two were caught and confessed, implicating a third, deputies said.

South Lyon Bank Gains 295 Places in Size Rank

SOUTH LYON — The State Savings Bank of South Lyon, which reported deposits of $3,766,096 Dec. 31, gained 295 places in its standing among the 5,800 largest banks in the nation.

This was revealed in the 1958 annual roll call published yesterday by the Daily American Banker of New York, a trade newspaper of banking.

The South Lyon bank now ranks as the 5,771st largest in size in the nation, compared with its 6,068th place at the end of 1956.

There are 14,000 banks in the United States.

Bengal to Try Work Rather Than Jails

CALCUTTA, India — Work centers as a substitute for jails for offenders with short-term sentences will be tried out in West Bengal, India. The plan was explained in Calcutta by Mrs. Purabi Mukherjee, the State's Minister for Jails.

Short sentences have scarcely any deterrent effect or reformatory influence, she said. The government therefore will enforce compulsory attendance at production centers by such prisoners. It will be a great advantage, she said, if instead of being sent to prison they can be made to attend a work center for certain hours of the day during the period of their sentence.

There will be a condition that in the event of default they will be liable to arrest, Mrs. Mukherjee pointed out.

In Hospital Together

DETROIT — A 68-year-old grandfather suffered a serious heart attack while excited about a 14-year-old grandson trapped on the second floor of a burning house Tuesday night. Oscar Saks, the grandfather, was rushed to a hospital. So was the grandson, Gerald Cohen, who suffered burns and then cuts as he leaped from a second-story bedroom in escaping.

Britain Sees Need for Less Doctor

BELFAST, N. Ireland — Under its "Free Health Plan," Britain is now preparing to govern the supply of physicians to be graduated in future years, Belfast reports.

The Northern Ireland Ministry of Health has heard from its observer on a committee which, after two years' study, has recommended a 10 per cent reduction in the number of medical students.

The committee is said to have reached three conclusions: Up to now, British medical schools have not been producing too many doctors. After 1961, however, a reduction in student intake by about one-tenth is advisable.

In about 1975 an increased output of doctors is likely to be needed, but a new survey should be made before then.

Male Students at Illinois Never Had It So Good

URBANA, Ill. — This is the week the men students at the University of Illinois never had it so good.

It's called the men's "Economic Recovery Campaign," part of a spring campus celebration. The men are not allowed to pay for dates—the coeds pick up all the tabs. The girls also are required to open car doors, carry books and call for the men for dates.

Woman Struck by Car, Report Condition Poor

An elderly woman is in poor condition at Pontiac General Hospital after being knocked down by a car yesterday.

Agnes W. McIntyre, 71, of 255 Cottage St., was struck by an auto driven by Francis L. Chatter, 50, of 3111 Livernois Rd., Avon Township.

The driver said he was making a left turn from Perry into Pike street behind another car, when Mrs. McIntyre stepped off the curb into his path.

Tower That Is Paris, Scene of Many Stunts, Still Drawing Millions

PARIS—The Eiffel Tower has been the setting for a number of daredevil stunts. A Hungarian tailor jumped to his death from the first platform in an attempt to test a homemade parachute in 1912. The mayor of Montmartre rode a bicycle down the steep steps.

A German Alpinist scaled the rafters in the dark of night. (He was caught and forced to pay the entrance fee). Balloons were launched from the peak.

Planes threaded the arches. An elephant was lugged up to the first platform and fed a bale of hay.

Stunt men swung through the lattice-work for the benefit of Hollywood cameras. Soldiers of two wars threw bottles from the balconies.

FELL OR PUSHED?
The Tower, incidentally, has an insurance policy against injury to pedestrians from flying bottles. The policy specified sarsaparilla bottle in 1919, but now includes champagne and coca cola. The insurance company has also paid off on a lump of sugar which sliced off the tip of a passerby's nose, far below. "It is not known," Etienne Marc, custodian of the Tower, once quipped, "whether the lump fell or was pushed."

Though the Tower has been popular for suicides, accidental deaths have been few. It is, however, a matter of wild pride with paint crews never to wear safety belts, though they do wear rope-soled shoes to keep from slipping. The Tower, which has been painted every seven years since 1907 to prevent rusting, is due for another coat in 1960.

Gustave Eiffel always wanted the Tower to be painted silver, but was persuaded that brown blended better with the Paris sky. When a bright yellow trim was tried out in 1912, a minor French revolution broke out and the color was quickly switched back to brown.

Today, the color is described as "three-tone cognac brown." The whole repaint job takes two years. No painting is done in the summer lest one of those cans of three-tone cognac brown drop or drip on the head of a paying visitor.

ALWAYS POPULAR
The Eiffel Tower lost her crown for height to the Chrysler Building in New York City in 1929. Yet, her popularity remains assured and unalloyed. Close to a million and a half sightseers trooped to the top for a bird's eye view of Paris in 1957. Fifty per cent of this total are English-speaking, and 15 per cent are Americans.

Owned by the City of Paris, the Tower is leased until 1980 on a royalty basis to the Eiffel Tower Corporation, owned largely by descendants of Eiffel.

Those who want a share in the fabulous Tower, however, can still buy stock in it on the Paris Bourse. The investment seems sound, since the Tower has grossed well over ten million dollars in its lifetime from its restaurants, cafe, souvenir stands and the gate receipts of 30 million tourists. There is little doubt that the Eiffel is in the running as the Number 1 money-making tourist attraction of the world.

More Aged in State Than U.S. Average

ANN ARBOR — More than 80 per cent of Michigan's counties have a higher proportion of aged residents — those over 65 — than the national average.

This is a major finding of a report published by the Legislative Advisory Council on Problems of the Aging, an independent state organization.

Written by Anthony Lenzer, the council's executive secretary, the report lists late details on population statistics, financial security, employment, housing and health for senior citizens.

Lenzer predicted an increase of 200,000 in Michigan's over 65 population by 1970. The current census is 600,000. About 20 per cent of them live at a "level of bare subsistence," Lenzer said.

One reason cited by Lenzer is that the depression of the

Dedicate Country Day School Sunday

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP — The new Detroit Country Day School building, at 13 Mile and Lahser roads, will be dedicated Sunday.

Principal speaker at the ceremonies marking completion of the school will be Dr. Harlan H. Hatcher, president of the University of Michigan.

The modern one-story structure, which has more than 30,000 square feet of floor space replaces the white country-style building at Seven Mile and Wyoming in Detroit which has housed the school since 1923.

Founded in 1914 by the present headmaster, F. Alden Shaw, the school places an emphasis on basic education and offers Detroit area youngsters programs of rigorous training from kindergarten through high school levels.

From a modest beginning on Ferry avenue, Detroit Country Day School has grown steadily in size, service and stature.

Headmaster Shaw started the school with four pupils and now heads a staff of 23 instructors and has more than 250 students.

Although enrollment was originally limited to boys, girls now are admitted to the first six grades.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH H. RABIDEAU

Rabideau-Capanda Rite Performed in Detroit

ORION TOWNSHIP — Frances Capanda and Joseph H. Rabideau were married Saturday morning in St. Augustine Church in Detroit before an altar banked with Easter lilies and baskets of carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Capanda of Healy street, Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Rabideau of Joslyn road, Orion Township, are the bridegroom's parents.

The bride's gown had a bouffant bodice of lace over satin, with neckline and yoke etched in pearls and sequins. The back closing was covered with tiny satin buttons to below the waist.

Gov. Williams Signs Reorganization Bill

LANSING — Gov. Williams today signed into law a bill which permits the governor to take the initiative in reorganizing state agencies.

The new law empowers the governor to submit proposals for reorganization of executive agencies during the first 30 days of a legislative session. If not rejected by the Legislature during the next 60 days, they would become effective immediately.

The reorganization law stems from recommendations of a state "Little Hoover Commission." Sen. Frank Andrews (R-Hillman), co-chairman of the commission, led a long fight to finally push the measure through the Senate.

Williams termed the bill "one of the most important legislative achievements of our generation."

The governor said he would start preliminary studies to lay the groundwork for a reorganization program. He said he also would establish an advisory committee to aid in reorganization planning.

Warns of Possible Bad Check Forging

WALLED LAKE — Police Chief James A. Decker of Walled Lake today warned there may be attempts in this area to cash bogus checks forged on an estimated 250 blanks stolen last night from the offices of the Walled Lake Metal Co., 1377 W. Maple Rd.

The missing checks, light green in color and drawn on the Detroit Bank's Novi Branch, bear serial numbers between No. 3,500 and No. 4,000 Decker said.

The checks and $400 were taken from a filing cabinet, he said. Entry to the office was gained through a small window high up on a side wall. Decker said tile was piled up under the window.

The company, he said, has notified the bank to stop payments on the missing checks.

AT&T Construction to Exceed $2 Billion

NEW YORK — The American Telephone & Telegraph Co. will spend $2,000,000,000 on construction this year, its president told more than 2,000 stockholders yesterday.

Frederick R. Kappel, presiding at the 73rd annual meeting said the big construction outlay for 1958 equals the amount spent in 1956, although it is 300 millions under last year's record outlay.

Kappel told a news conference preceding the meeting that the business downturn has just about bottomed off. The speed of economic recovery, he said, depends on the degree of statesmanship exhibited by government, politicians and economists.

During the meeting he said AT&T, despite the general business slowdown, added more than 1,400,000 telephones and the number of conversations handled has gone up more than five million a day.

But excessive spending coupled with tax cuts right now, he said, would mean another rash of inflation.

Efforts to improve equipment and methods have helped to keep costs down, Kappel said, adding: "Certainly we don't enjoy increasing telephone rates, but if, in the long run, inflation continues to increase our costs, I see no alternative."

Drayton Parents Report Daughter's Engagement

DRAYTON PLAINS — Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Schlut of 4240 Linda Ct. have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jean L., to Donald L. Rhoads, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Rhoads of Charlotte.

Both the bride-elect and her fiancé are seniors at Emmanuel Missionary College at Berrien Springs.

A June wedding is being planned.

Children to Get Awards

ROMEO — Winners of the annual safety poster contest for grade school children will receive their awards at 8 this evening at the Romeo Youth and Civic Center.

Some 800 children in grades 1-6 entered the competition sponsored each spring by the Elementary Schools Club of Romeo. From this group, judges last Friday night picked room winners, grade winners and a grand prize winner.

All children who made prize-winning posters have been notified, but which awards they will receive remains a well kept secret. During tomorrow night's ceremonies, room winners will be given pins, grade winners, plaques, and the top prize winner, a trophy.

The presentation of awards will be made again this year by Police Inspector Francis E. Davey, head of the Detroit Police Youth Bureau.

Poster contest judges were former Romeo police chief, Gordon Osgood, Councilman Fred C. Herbert and Romeo State Police Capt. Beryl Amburgey. Completing the panel were Mrs. Carl Rossetti, Mrs. George West and Mrs. Charles Komraus.

They based their decisions on originality, artistic ability and appropriateness to the theme of "Safety at School, at Home or on the Streets."

Contest chairman was Mrs. Harvey Rankens.

Glengary PTA Set for Saturday

School Fair to Offer Variety

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — A host of attractions for children and adults will be set up in Glengary Elementary School Saturday as PTA members present their annual school fair.

Proceeds from the event will be used to add new playground facilities at the school.

There will be baby-sitting facilities in the morning kindergarten room enabling mothers to bring babies to the fair. The room will be equipped with play pens, hobby horses and toys.

The first grade will offer games of all kinds for small children in a Tomb Thumb room with Mrs. Robert Gregg in charge.

Girl Scouts will hold a bake sale under direction of Mrs. Tracy Miller. Mrs. Henry Hadac will conduct a cake walk.

The afternoon kindergarten room will have green plants for ladies and kiddie car races for boys. Mrs. Arthur Haight and Mrs. Robert Zecher will supervise these activities.

Other attractions will include movies, a rummage sale, a fish pond, parlor games, skill games, a spook room and an auction sale. Refreshments will be available.

Mrs. Frank Nevins is chairman of the fair committee.

Civil Service Group Has Stormy Session

Politics and personalities combined at the Pontiac Civil Service Commission meeting last night to produce a stormy session.

The meeting opened with a letter from City Manager Walter K. Willman to Commission Chairman Theodore Carlson.

Carlson had written the manager and asked for a copy of the Police Department's new organizational chart, threatening court action if refused. He said he had been denied a copy by Assistant City Manager Robert Stierer.

Willman sent the copy of the chart, but enclosed a legal opinion from City Attorney William Ewart which said the manager was under no obligation to furnish the chart.

CITES AUTHORITY — Carlson called Ewart's attention to the first chapter of the Civil Service Act which gives the commission authority over police personnel transfers.

Lt. Donny Ashley, member of the Civil Service Committee of the Pontiac Police Officers Assn., asked for a copy of the chart.

He also said he had heard rumors that the study of the department by Public Service Administration (PSA) of Chicago, was already at City Hall but was being withheld until after the city elections.

Chief Herbert W. Straley retorted that Ashley was not a member of the police administration and not entitled to see the chart.

Straley took exception to Ashley's remarks, which he said implied the department might have something to hide.

UNION LEADER SPEAKS

Two spectators then entered the argument. Harold A. Grant, president of Fisher Body Local 596 and candidate for state representative, said he understood Mayor William

W. Donaldson to say at a public meeting that the PAS report is now in Pontiac and has been for some four to six weeks.

Gerald Kehoe, candidate for City Commission, chimed in to ask what the administration was hiding by keeping the report from the people.

The commission members and Ewart said they knew nothing about the rumor that the PAS report was in Pontiac.

Milford Council OKs Property Value Hike

MILFORD — A 20 per cent increase in the assessed valuation of property in Milford has been approved by the Village Council.

The tax rate, however, was dropped from 17 1/4 to 10 mills, so there will be no increase in taxes, according to Dennis Boyle, chairman of the council's finance committee.

Milford's former valuation was placed at 4 million dollars. After the board's action it now is set at 7 million dollars, with property taxed at the maximum, 50 per cent of the market value.

Taxation losses caused by the relocation of the Ford Motor Co. Carburetor plant and a new system of tax writeoffs of the gas and electric companies have been equalized by taxes from new home development in Milford, Boyle said.

Selling Autos for Two Bits at Milford

MILFORD — Want to buy a car for 25 cents?

It's possible if you register with any of seven Milford automobile and truck dealers who are participating in a "You Auto Buy" sale Friday and Saturday.

Two cars will be sold Saturday night for 25 cents each.

The off-street parking lot east of Main street has been reserved for the dealers to display choice automobile and truck buys, and special decorations have been planned for the area.

The sale is being sponsored by the Milford Board of Commerce in conjunction with promoting Main street as the "Milford Shopping Center" of the community, according to Archie Noon, board president.

Oxford, Orion Ready for 'You Auto Buy' Days

OXFORD — "You Auto Buy" days will be sponsored in the twin towns of Oxford and Lake Orion on Friday and Saturday.

Cars will be exhibited on E. Burdick street in Oxford and on W. Flint street in Lake Orion on these two days with an auto auction at 2 p.m. Saturday in Oxford and at 4 p.m. in Lake Orion. Free prizes, donated by other merchants, will be given then.

Parades with the combined high school bands have been scheduled for the two towns, beginning at 4:30 p.m. tomorrow.

At Milford High Dedication Ball

Tex Beneke Band to Play

MILFORD — "Music in the Mood" will be presented by Tex Beneke and his nationally-famed band at the new Milford High School Dedication Ball, Friday evening, April 25.

This will be the first dance to be held in the big gymnasium, and invitations have been extended to adults as well as pupils in all of surrounding communities, Principal Gerald Rasmussen said.

Tex Beneke, who took over the Glen Miller band after the war, has continued to use the unique arrangements and styling of the immortal Miller.

The informal dance will get under way at 9 p.m. and conclude at 1 a.m. Special lighting and spring decorations are being made by the art and manual training classes to add a festive touch to this important occasion.

Rasmussen pointed out that there is parking space for some 500 automobiles.

He added that there are only 500 tickets available, and although they can be purchased at the door for $5 a couple, it would be advisable to reserve them in advance by calling the school, or procuring them from Milford merchants.

PREPARING THE FLAPJACKS — The Clarkson Pioneer Club will give a public pancake party at the Community Center from 5:30 to 8:30 tomorrow evening. This is the first fund raising project of the club which is composed of

U.S. Sold Bill of Goods on Education in Russia

(This is the last of four articles in which a top American educator who has recently visited Russia provides a first-hand, frank and authoritative analysis of Russian schools.)

By WILLIAM W. BRICKMAN
Professor of Education
New York University

We Americans have sold ourselves a bill of goods.

Last fall the Russians launched their Sputniks and we fell all over ourselves proclaiming Soviet superiority over us in science and technology. The Russians, we may be sure, are pretty much satisfied with their technical and scientific achievements, and they are very proud of them.

U.S. RAVED

But I doubt that, even in their wildest dreams, they could have raved as much as Americans did about their own science.

When Prof. Gerald Read and I were interviewed by Radio Moscow, we were asked if the proved superiority of Soviet science was due to the superiority of the Soviet school system. My answer was as follows:

"Americans acknowledge that the Sputniks prove that Soviet Russia has achieved remarkable results in one branch of applied science, but this does not prove that Soviet science in general is superior."

Furthermore, I said, we can only test if a school system is superior if we obtain a report by an impartial committee of international specialists in education.

In my previous articles I have discussed briefly the teaching of science in the Soviet schools. I have no doubt that they are doing fine work, but what I saw of it did not convince me that the Russians were running ahead of us. They do seem to pick up speed in the universities, where the carefully selected students spend a considerable amount of time in studying their scientific specialties.

But let us never forget that a Soviet scientist is not simply an expert in physics or chemistry, but also a citizen who is well trained and loyal to communism.

There is one type of activity in science which the Soviets have developed to a high degree of efficiency and that is the gathering of the latest results of research from all over the world. I had the opportunity of interviewing some of the leading experts who have been responsible for the success of the Institute of Scientific Information of the Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R.

QUICKLY FAMOUS

This institute, founded in 1932, has become famous very quickly. Its major aim is to print a series of magazines which sum up the latest findings in scientific and technical research in many countries. At this time, there are 13 magazines of scientific abstracts which publish material taken from 18,000 scientific and technical journals issued in 88 countries.

In this way, the practicing Soviet scientist can get up-to-date information from any part of the world on his specialty—chemistry, physics, mechanical engineering, metallurgy, geology and so forth.

The institute has a staff of 1,300 scientist-editors out of a total staff of 4,000, which includes translators and printers. It can call upon 22,000 scientists, some of them from the satellite nations, to translate and abstract the foreign journals.

PROGRESS SHOWN

The scientists working for the Soviet government—Soviet citizens, Poles, Czechs, East Germans, Hungarians, and the rest of the satellite peoples—have shown much progress toward making the U.S.S.R. an important technological power. They have not proved, however, that Soviet science is superior, in general, either to American science or the science of the other advanced nations.

In summing up this series of articles on the Soviet schools, I can say that I am convinced that the only way we can really understand what is taking place in them is to spend some time in the classrooms and to talk to the principals, teachers and pupils. In this way we can appraise how efficient they really are.

Generally speaking, I feel that they are not better at education than any other free or even satellite nation. I would even go so far as to say that they are not doing as well, in several scholastic respects, as other countries, and this includes also the United States.

The communistic aim of Soviet education, I feel, is an important factor which weakens the effectiveness of a genuine educational program. When so much time and energy are put into communistic instruction, the other subjects tend to suffer.

Our boys and girls will turn out to be hard-working, cultured, evenly educated citizens who will

Scientists Throughout World Disagree

Is Fallout Peril to Children of Future?

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter
(3rd in series)

NEW YORK (U.P.) — Fallout is presumably dooming some of tomorrow's children to disease or death.

But then so are radium-dial watches that glow in the dark. In fact, X-rays from the watch could be many times more dangerous to your descendants than fallout.

Fallout frightens and causes moral concern primarily because of the hereditary damage it is, will, or might be causing.

Scientists disagree on the extent of this risk because so little is known directly about the effects of radiation on human heredity. They have to guess from studies of fruit flies, plants and small animals, which don't take 20 years to produce one generation.

One expert guess is that natural radioactivity is causing about 10 per cent of all changes in human genes, the carriers of hereditary traits. Most — but not all — geneticists think any dose of radiation, however small, adds to this risk of genetic damage, especially if it is continued long enough. So therefore fallout would be producing some genetic damage. Some scientists say the addition is practically imperceptible. Others say that, in time, fallout means hundreds of thousands of infants will be lost in miscarriages, or be doomed to sickly, feeble, or shortened lives.

No one can prove he is right. Continuing and intensified studies of radiation will produce the facts. Atomic Energy Commission experts say the added risk of genetic damage from fallout is not as great as the added risk of moving from a wood house to a brick or stone house. Reason: the brick or stone house exposes you to increased natural radioactivity, an increase greater than average exposure from fallout.

One AEC scientist calculates the average radium-dial wrist watch exposes the wearer's sex glands to about twice the radiation he gets from natural sources. X-rays from the watch hit the glands when his arm is at his side. Other scientists think the AEC is estimating the effects of fallout far too low. And they say fallout is not evenly distributed, so some persons are getting a heavier dose than average. Some also argue that radioactive strontium-90, which accumulates in bones, will cause thousands of cases of leukemia and bone cancer.

AEC spokesmen say there's no proof for this. They report the amount of strontium found in children's bones so far is about one one-hundredth the amount considered a very safe dose.

Many argue a moral issue. You don't have to wear a wrist watch, they point out. But you can't avoid fallout drifting down upon you from somebody testing bombs. They say we have no right to expose others to any risk.

Another point which some make is: Suppose fallout dooms only 1,500 children the world over. That means 1,500 human lives, not a cold statistic. The counter-argument is that tests aimed at producing cleaner bombers and an arsenal of specialized weapons are needed for defense of the free world; other nations benefit from this, and the genetic risk is worth it.

Bob-Lo Vessel From Toledo Given Blessing

TOLEDO, Ohio (U.P.) — City Council has approved a proposal by Seaway Excursion Co. of Detroit to run a cruise ship between here and Bob-Lo Island in the Detroit River near Detroit.

In presenting the proposal, Capt. Philip Thorpe said his 48-year-old boat has a capacity of 2,207 passengers. He estimated the rate would be $2.50 for adults and that he would need 1,200 fares a day to break even.

Under the agreement, the city would get $1,100 a year for a berth at the municipal dock in the Maumee River or one half per cent of the gross for the last two years of a 3-year lease, whichever is greater.

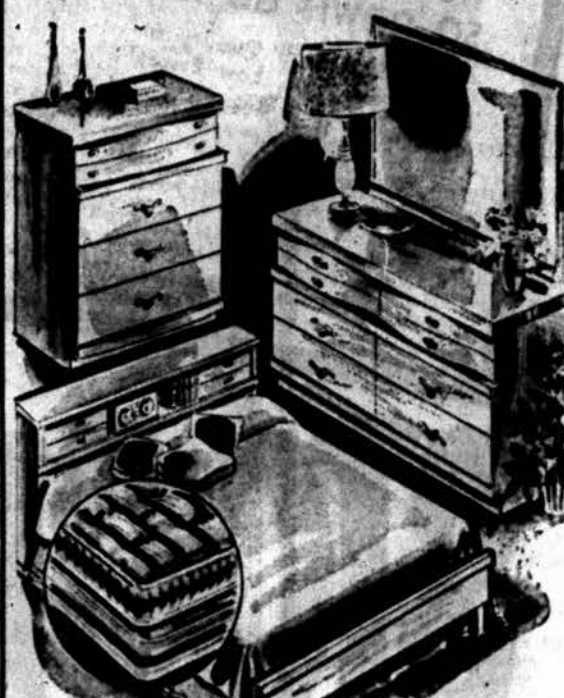

The season would run from May 20 to September.

The German town of Dortmund will hold "Days of Swedish Culture," May 30 to June 17.

Asked to Trim Spending in Half

Huron-Clinton Authority Hears Request for Ease in Oakland Economy

The Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority has been asked by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors to trim its spending for next year in half to help ease current economic condition in Oakland County.

Supervisors yesterday concurred with R. Clare Cummings, Oakland's representative on the authority, that tax demands on counties should be cut next year from one-fourth to one-eighth mill.

Cummings, Pontiac supervisor, pointed out that Oakland, Wayne and Macomb counties contribute 55 per cent of the recreation authority's budget.

He assured the board the authority could operate on this reduced budget "without hindering operation of the parks or recreational program."

Cummings, who later was appointed to his third six-year term on the authority, said taking care of thousands of families on welfare in Oakland County was more important than purchasing more recreation land.

House Clears Bill to Refund Tax Pennies

WASHINGTON (INS) — It's taking an Act of Congress, but George Schultheis, of Rochester, N.Y., may get back 14 cents owed him by the U.S. Government for a decade.

A bill to give Schultheis and a group of other workers there a total of $432 refunds of employment tax erroneously withheld from their wages has cleared the House and is now before the Senate Judiciary Committee.

A companion measure to give the State of New York an equal sum is on the House consent calendar, and its passage is expected shortly. Both bills were introduced by Rep. Kenneth Keating (R-NY).

What is unique about the first measure is the smallness of some of the sums to be refunded. It points up to the steadfastness of the law which says the government cannot spend money— even 14 cents—without a specific Act of Congress.

Besides Schultheis, Elmer Hancock has a claim for 42 cents, Frank T. Johnson the sum of 32 cents, Robert E. Perry 39 cents, and Herbert Wauson 18 cents. All are from Rochester.

Other claimants will receive around from $2 to $20 once the measure passes the Senate, and is signed by President Eisenhower.

The snafu in erroneously withholding too much employment tax occurred between Sept. 26, 1946 and Sept. 30, 1947. Refunds could not be made by the Treasury because the claimants had allowed the period for filing claims to expire.

Now 11 years later, their claims finally may be recognized.

A spokesman for the House Judiciary Committee which approved the measure said it was doubtful if the claims would have been considered at all if each claim had been made the subject of a separate bill.

The lowest individual claim bill that ever was approved by the Congress was for $34.50.

Hunt Bargain Burglar Who Steals Key First

HONOLULU (UP) — Honolulu police are trying to track down the city's "key burglar" — a daring individual who commits two crimes for the price of one.

On four occasions recently, the burglar first went to the homes of cafe proprietors, stole their keys and then went to the cafes and burglarized them.

Hal Boyle Says:

Science Poses Chance to Regain Youth

NEW YORK (UP)—Science raises the possibility that a man can buy a ticket to the nearest star and come back maybe a boy. This idea is based on the theory that the faster you go the younger you get. We have seen this tried many times and can't count any winners — although we recall a number who died smiling among their wrinkles. The conception of time is a hard thing for any human to embrace. It makes him a prisoner of the calendar, the moon, the seasons, the years, the watch upon his wrist, his own suspicions or the estimate of others. He tells feels — even though his years cannot accurately be measured by his falling hair — he still, like a tree, has his inevitable annual rings, made visible to others in ways he does not know. Is he older than he feels? Is he younger than he knows? How to

Here is a Baedeker of personal antiquity: You're older if you pause before a flight of stairs, take a deep breath — then gallop up them a step at a time. You're older if you boldly wink at a pretty girl, and don't pretend to wipe clinker out of your eye. You're older if your wife has to gear your pride up to make you ask for a raise. You're younger if you think raises come for merit and you feel proud to ask for one. You're older if you forget to wear your rubbers in the rain. You're younger if you wear a hat in the summer merely to be better dressed and hope that'll make a sale. You're older if you see a beautiful girl and she reminds you of a girl you used to know. You're younger if you see the same girl and feel your life won't be complete until you know her. You're older if you think that over the hill lies the poor house. You're younger if you think that every molehill is a fresh stepping stone to opportunity. You're older if the boss puts his arm around your shoulder and you feel the loneliness in his fingers. You're younger if, putting your own hand around the boss's shoulders, you absent-mindedly feel for a soft spot. 300 Workers Agree on Strike Settlement

PORT HURON (INS)—More than 300 workers from the Marysville plant of the Almsworth Precision Casting Co. agreed last night to a settlement of a strike which began March 24.

More than 500 Detroit workers were involved in the strike at three plants.

The strike arose over the company's refusal to transfer 112 workers to a new plant in Springfield, Tenn.

Archie Beveridge, business representative of Local 155, UAW-CIO, said the company already has called back some of the workers.

Food Poisoning Delays James Roosevelt's Talk

DENVER (AP)—A mild attack of food poisoning caused Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Calif.) to delay for about an hour an address to the Allied Jewish Community Council last night.

Apologizing to his audience, Roosevelt blamed the attack on food he ate at the House of Representatives restaurant in Washington.

The congressman flew here from Washington for his address, in which he said the Eisenhower administration has led this country into "the unfortunate position of being on the defensive in foreign affairs."

Potter Denies Racial Charges

Says Michigan GOP
Does Want Negroes
in Organization

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Potter (R-Mich.) has issued a vigorous denial of charges that the Michigan Republican Party doesn't want Negroes in its organization.

His protest followed a statement yesterday by George A. Isabell who said "Republicans in Michigan don't want intelligent Negroes in their political organization" in resigning as secretary of the Wayne County Republican committee. Isabell is a Negro.

"We want all we can get," Potter said in pointing out that he has recommended several Michigan Negroes for appointment to federal posts.

Potter also denied that Postmaster General Summerfield controls the Michigan Republican party.

Isabell had said in his resignation statement that "Postmaster General Summerfield still runs Republican politics in Michigan and Sen. Potter just says amen."

In Washington, Summerfield said, "I think the statement is unworthy of my comment."

Told that Isabell had backed Detroit Negro attorney John W. Roxborough for appointment to a federal judgeship in the Virgin Islands, Potter said he was not aware Roxborough wanted the post.

The Senator said he understood Isabell was supporting a red herring, another Detroit Negro attorney, for the appointment. Potter said he had recommended Burr.

Potter said he had recommended

Roxborough for the post of personnel administration consultant in the State Department, a job he held in 1954-55.

Government Puts Gambler to Work on Income Tax

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Birmingham, Ala., gambler who filed the sort of simple income tax return everybody dreams about today had orders from the U.S. Tax Court to do some complex recalculations.

The court said that U. O. Popwell oversimplified the matter in 1949-50-51. He filed returns consisting of a single figure representing as showing how far he was ahead as to wins and losses at the end of the year.

The court quoted Popwell as explaining: "At the end of the year I filed enough to take care of the government and I thought that was all that was necessary to stay out of trouble with them."

The Internal Revenue Service contended that under the method employed, Popwell underpaid his taxes for the three years by about $30,000 and claimed he owed some $175,000 in penalties on this amount.

The court directed a refiguring of the returns—in detail.

U.S. Consulate Rocked by Blast in Algiers

ALGERS (AP)—A bomb exploded in the entryway of the U.S. consulate in Algiers today. Reports said a Moslem woman was wounded.

It appeared likely the bombing was the work of extremist Frenchmen angered by U.S. pressure on the French government to reach a settlement with the Arab government of neighboring Tunisia.

Mother Says Navy Covering Up Slaying

DETROIT (AP)—A Detroit mother says the Navy is trying to cover up a murder in a ruling that her 18-year-old sailor son died by suicide.

"It was murder and they're just sloughing it off," said Mrs. Edna Ernst last night after a naval board of investigation ruled that her son, Airman John E. Rutan took his own life.

Rutan was found strangled in a paint storage room of the aircraft carrier Bon Homme Richard Feb. 16 while the ship was at berth in the Navy yard at Bremerton, Wash.

At Segerquist, Kitsap County coroner, also took exception to the board's ruling. Segerquist previously said the death looked like murder.

"I don't compromise on a homicide case and I never will," the coroner said last night. "I will forward my report to Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) and Sens. McNamara (D-Mich.) and Potter (R-Mich.). Maybe they can do something about this."

The board ruled that no evidence of violence was found in connection with Rutan's death.

Jayne's Girl Can Go to England With Mom

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jayne Mansfield has Superior Court permission to take her 8-year-old daughter to England next Tuesday.

Her ex-husband Paul Mansfield had opposed the trip for little Jayne Marie. Mansfield, now remarried and working as a public relations man in Chattanooga, Tenn., was not present at yesterday's hearing.

The actress assured the court that her daughter would keep up with her studies while Miss Mansfield is making a picture in England.

You Can Pay or Stay, Judge Tells Cohen

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A judge gave Mickey Cohen this alternative for slugging a waiter last January:

A $500 fine or 30 days in jail. Cohen promptly appealed the sentence yesterday.

The pudgy gambler-turned-floater was convicted of battery in the slugging of Arthur Black, a waiter in a Hollywood bistro.

Security for You

SS Insures Funds for Retired Workers

By RAY HENRY

Here's a question often asked by people who've reached 65:

"Why can't I collect Social Security, no matter how much I earn?" For an answer, you have to look at Congress' attitude down the years since 1935, the year the Social Security law was passed.

INCOME FOR RETIRED
Summed up, the attitude has been this: Social Security should be an income for people who've really retired. It shouldn't go to people who can and do work regularly.

This attitude has been reflected in five different ways by changes Congress has made in the Social Security law since 1935.

The best example is found in the law as it was originally passed. Under it, a person couldn't collect payments in any month in which he received wages from a regular job.

Congress changed this provision in 1939. The new provision permitted a person to draw Social Security in any month in which he earned less than $15. Obviously, few regular jobs at that time paid less than $15 a month. So a person 65 or older drawing payments could be considered retired for all practical purposes.

The $15 a month limit stayed in the law until 1950 when Congress raised the earnings limit to $30 a month and allowed persons who'd reached 75 to collect

India to Divide Land Among Refugees

CALCUTTA, India — Tribal people inhabiting the area and refugee families from East Pakistan are to share the development that follows completion of India's Dandakaranya Project, Calcutta learns. The first group of about 100 refugee families is about to be placed on the grounds surrounding the dam.

Initially, about 10,000 acres along the national highway will be developed. Each refugee settlement will consist of about 100 families, according to A. L. Fletcher, Chief Administrator of the Dandakaranya project. Each family will be given 7½ acres. Most of the areas are considered ideal for developing minor irrigation facilities.

"We shall not allow a settler to keep his land idle," said Fletcher. "If he is not able to cultivate it himself the Government will plow the land for him."

Social Security without regard to their earnings.

Another change in 1952 raised the earnings limit to $75 a month, but didn't change the provision for persons who'll reach 75.

The present limits on earnings were put in the Social Security law in 1954. In general, a person may make up to $1,200 a year without affecting his monthly payments. Persons who've reached 72 have no earnings limit.

As you can see from the changes in the law, Congress' attitude has stretched some regarding earnings since 1935. But, it's still not likely that a person can hold down a regular job and still collect Social Security. The earnings limits won't permit it.

Here's one reason why Congress has stuck to its original attitude: It would take a lot of money to pay Social Security, regardless of earnings, to everyone who reached retirement age.

For example: Lifting the earnings limits now would add about two million people to the Social Security rolls and raise the yearly cost of the program by two billion dollars.

Where would the money come from? No doubt it would have to come out of the pockets of working people in the form of additional Social Security tax.

To remove the earnings limits now, the Social Security Administration figures a tax increase of 3.5 per cent would be required from each worker and his employer. This could mean an additional $25 a year in tax just for a worker alone. A self-employed person would have his tax increased by nearly one per cent which could mean an additional $42 a year.

(Questions on Social Security problems may be addressed to "Social Security," care of The Pontiac Press. Questions will be answered by mail from the Pontiac office of the Social Security Administration. There is no charge for this service. You may obtain Ray Henry's new social security handbook by sending 25 cents in coin to this newspaper and requesting "Security for You" booklet.)

Junior Editors Quiz on CAMELS

QUESTION: When did the U. S. Army use camels?

ANSWER: You probably remember Jefferson Davis as the president of the southern Confederacy that tried to defeat the United States army. But in 1853, he was U.S. Secretary of War and interested in strengthening the Army.

To solve transport problems in arid country, such as parts of the Southwest, Davis ordered camels imported from Arabia. Some 50 camels were shipped to America and tried out in southern Texas.

The whims, ailments and temper tantrums of the camels turned out to be too much for the American soldiers. The whole idea was abandoned and the camels were turned loose. For several years thereafter, visitors to the Southwest would often rub their eyes in amazement at the sight of a camel lumbering across an American desert.

FOR YOU TO DO: Here's a question for you to look up in books: Why are camels so valuable as beasts of burden in desert lands?

(An award of $10 has been sent to Mary Graham of Baltimore for today's question. If you have a question, mail it on a postcard to Violet Moore Higgins, AP Newfeatures, in care of The Pontiac Press. Tomorrow: Did Paul Revere finish his famous ride?)

U. S. May Shoot Man 150 Miles Within Year

WASHINGTON (U) — The United States may rocket a man 150 miles into space within a year—and bring him back alive.

Dr. Werner von Braun, one of the world's leading missile experts, said he's sure it can be done with his Redstone rocket if the Pentagon gives him a go-ahead.

Von Braun, chief of Army missile development, also told the new House Committee on Space Problems the Soviets could shoot a man 200 miles up with the equipment they have now. The former German scientist, who developed the Redstone and Jupiter missiles, estimated it would cost 10 million dollars to develop the American space man project.

The man would be shot up in a one-ton bullet-like capsule at a speed reaching 5,000 feet per second.

In his missile, he would hang motionless far higher than man has ever gone for about five minutes. Then a parachute device would slow his descent so that he could land—perhaps unconscious but still alive—in the ocean with a ship waiting to pick him up.

Von Braun said some animals such as chimpanzees would be used on test firings. But he said he had no doubt a human being could survive the ordeal. He said a volunteer had already been picked, but he declined to name him.

He said the project was submitted to the Pentagon several months ago. The question, he said, is whether the cost can be justified by the propaganda value and by the medical findings—that is, the constantly recorded physical changes in the space man.

Plastic Surgeon's Wife Gives Birth to Quads

OAKLAND, Calif. (U) — Quadruplets were born yesterday, one month premature, to the wife of a Piedmont plastic surgeon. The three girls and a boy—weighing a total of 18 pounds and 3½ ounces—were delivered within 13 minutes and were placed in an incubator.

Dr. and Mrs. H. Dean Hoskins have three other girls—Judith, 14, Barbara, 12, and Martha Jean, 6.

Dr. Hoskins is 40 and his wife Dorothy is 38.

British Money Law Freeze Looms

Yank's $56,000 May Be Stuck

HARDEN, England (U) — American milkman Henry Riley today picked up a gift check of 20,000 pounds—$56,000—and promptly fell prey to the worries of wealth. "I don't know if I'll be able to take it out of the country and back home to the States," said the 37-year-old visitor from Canton, Ohio.

"But it's the sort of problem I like worrying about. Who wouldn't?"

"One thing's for sure," he added. "I'm not coming back to live in this smoky grimy old village." Riley's parents Mr. and Mrs. Tom Riley gave each of their two sons and two daughters 20,000 pounds from the 200,079 pounds ($385,421) they won recently on a 2-cent football pool bet. The son from America came over for a month's celebration of the fortune, bringing his wife and two sons, 11 and 7.

"If I can't get the money out because of currency restrictions, I'll send my sons to England for their college education and I'll be over here regularly for a high old time," Henry said.

Tom Riley made 8 pounds a week as a miner at the Harden coal mine before hitting the jackpot. He's still living in his four-room cottage, a few yards from the mine's smoke and fumes. The visitors from America have swelled the household to seven, with Henry sleeping on a couch in the kitchen.

The elder Rileys plan to return to Ohio with Henry for a three-month holiday.

"Then we're going to look for a nice little house out in the country away from all this smoke," Tom Riley said.

In London, a treasury official said that normally Henry would not be allowed to take his 20,000 pounds out of Britain because Britons are not allowed to make "charitable gifts" to people living abroad without special permission. But if "genuine hardship can be proved, then permission often is granted," he added.

Segregation Party Leads in S. Africa

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (U) — The governing Nationalist party appeared today headed for an extension of its 10-year rule of South Africa based on strict racial segregation.

The opposition United party held an early lead in Assembly seats after yesterday's parliamentary elections but late returns from rural Nationalist strongholds were expected to wipe this out.

With half the votes counted, the Nationalists had won 28 seats, two of them from United incumbents, while the United party added 19 seats to its 24 uncontested places in the 163-seat Parliament. The Uniteds also won the four seats filled by colored (mixed race) voters in Cape Province two weeks ago.

Only South Africa's three million white citizens were eligible to vote yesterday. The 10 million Negroes have no vote but will be represented in the new Parliament by three white men to be selected later.

Cancer's death toll is still a quarter million annually, says the American Cancer Society.

Gets Stuck in Chimney Going After His Toys

DENVER (U)—His parents told him that's the way Santa Claus entered, and besides, how else is a fella going to get his toys from a locked house?

That was 5-year-old Sparky Moore's reasoning when he went to retrieve his toys from a neighbor's home.

Halfway down the 7-by-15-inch chimney, Sparky got stuck. His walls attracted a passing saleswoman who climbed the roof and calmed him. Sparky's mother also arrived. She and the saleswoman rescued the youngster with a garden hose.

REMODELING VETS PLOT — The veterans plot at Perry Mount Park Cemetery is undergoing a face lifting in preparation for Memorial Day. The large steel cannon which marks the plot, has been moved by local National Guardsmen. Its former position in front of the flagpole interfered with funerals. The Pontiac Memorial Day Association is hoping to have the mall com-

Renew Digging for Gold

DALLAS (U)—A gold-hunting family, its hopes dimmed somewhat, attacked the bottom of a pit again today after a man with a mine detector told them "there is either gold or iron down here."

James Gayton, 38, and Jesse Gayton, 54, acting on the advice of Miguel Rodriguez of Del Rio, Tex., discovered markings on a flagstone which he said indicated early Spaniards had buried gold beneath the home. He said if the Gaytons dug to 12 feet, they would find a boulder blocking the entrance to underground rooms in which the gold was stored.

The boulder was found and removed, but only more rocks lay beneath it.

7 Areas Give Nod to Evergreen Sewer
Seven communities which will make up the proposed Evergreen Sewage Disposal System have given tentative approval of contracts with Oakland County for construction of the $4,900,000 project.

But all are awaiting the court decision testing the similar Farmington disposal system. Circuit Judge George B. Hartick has heard the case brought by Detroit real estate attorney Irwin I. Cohn. Cohn charged the act under which both systems were created is unconstitutional.

Judge Hartick has not as yet ruled on Cohn's request for an injunction.

The areas in the Evergreen project giving tentative approval are Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Bloomfield Township, Troy, Lathrup, Southfield and Westwood.

Suspect Threats in Union Probe

Rackets Group Seeks to Determine Fear in Philadelphia Inquiry

WASHINGTON (U) — The Senate Rackets Committee sought to show today whether threats have scaled the lips of Philadelphia Teamsters Union officials on alleged big-scale thefts of union funds.

The committee called more business agents and organizers of Philadelphia Local 107.

Fourteen other union officials and members refused to answer questions yesterday, claiming the Fifth Amendment's protection against self-incrimination.

They included the local's president, Joseph Grace, who refused to tell the committee whether he had profited from stolen union funds, including thousands of dollars from allegedly forged checks drawn on the union's treasury. Answers, Grace said, "might incriminate me."

But he also told the committee's chairman, Sen. McClellan (D-Ark): "Senator, for your information, I never done a dishonest thing in my life."

John Flanagan, a committee investigator, had testified earlier he has been informed that the local's secretary-treasurer, Ray Cohen, had threatened to "fix" any unionist who gave testimony adverse to Cohen in the committee's investigation.

The committee has described Cohen as the real boss of the local.

Committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy said Cohen will be called, probably tomorrow, for questioning about the allegation that he has intimidated witnesses, and has misused large sums of union money.

Witnesses refused to answer questions about association with Cohen, or about the alleged kiting of financial records and forging of checks, Kennedy says the total will run high into the thousands of dollars.

Kennedy asked several of the 14 whether it wasn't true that they had suddenly become silent after first cooperating with the committee. They either denied this or invoked the Fifth Amendment, but said they were not afraid of Cohen or anyone else.

Grace invoked the Fifth Amendment on many questions, but denied vigorously that either he or Cohen had accepted money or favors from firms with which their union bargains collectively.

Grace was called to the stand after James C. Cadigan, an FBI expert on forgery cases, testified that Grace's endorsement had been forged on 32 checks totaling $4,966.47 drawn on union funds.

To Honor Joseph Dodge

ANN ARBOR (U) — Joseph M. Dodge, chairman of Detroit Bank and Trust Co., will receive the first annual business leadership award of the University of Michigan's School of Business Administration May 9.

She Jilts Train but It Doesn't Give a Hoot

WOODBRIDGE, N.J. (U) — The 7:10 may be just a train, but it's got feelings. Its iron heart was pained when a lady left it waiting at the station here two mornings in a row.

The Pennsylvania Railroad's 7:10 had been making unscheduled stops here for about a week to accommodate the lady, who had some temporary work here.

When she failed to show up twice earlier this week, rumor spread that she had been seen aboard a Jersey Central train.

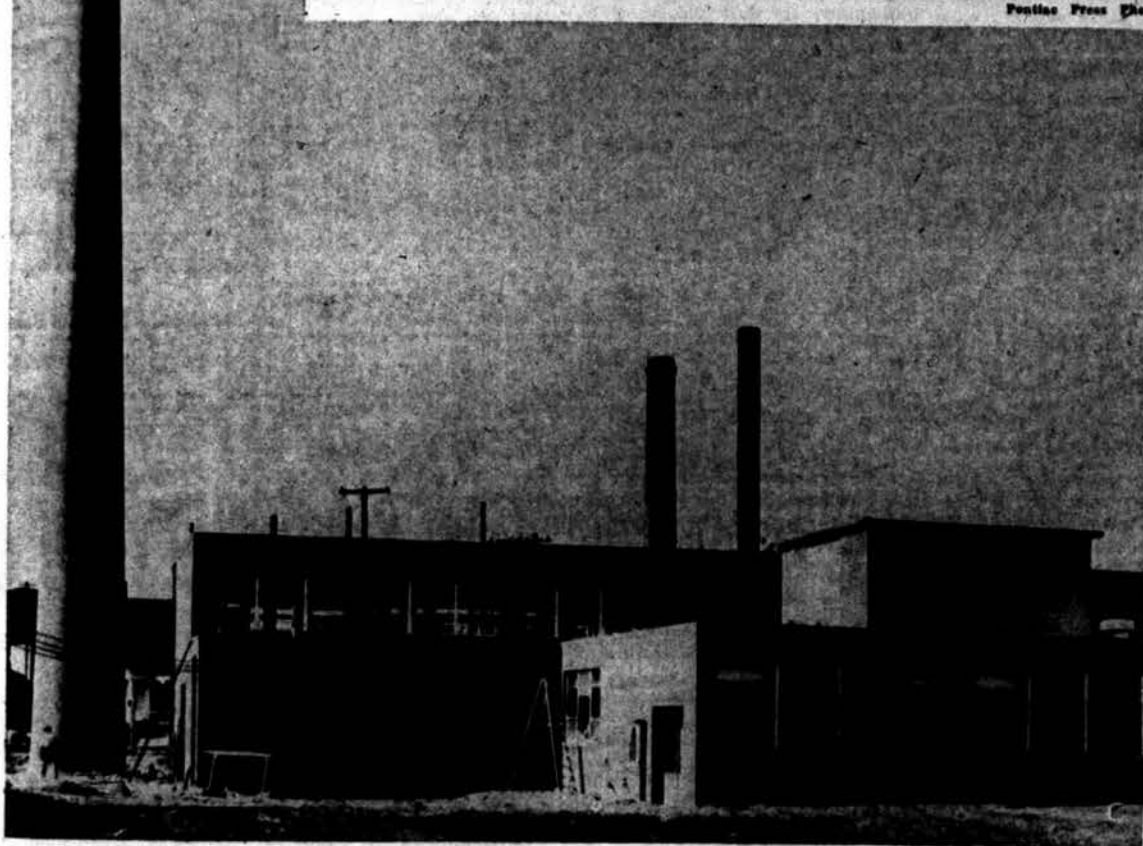

The jilted 7:10 felt it was time to call off the romance. It roared nonstop through town yesterday and didn't even give a hoot.

No One Cause Found for Crashes of B47s

OMAHA (U) — A Strategic Air Command spokesman says no single cause for a recent series of B-47 medium bomber crashes has been found.

Capt. James Brady said investigations of the recent series of crashes are not complete and therefore no corrections have been recommended and "we see no reason to ground the B-47 now." Two B-47 crashes killed eight airmen.

HOSPITAL ADDITION — Pictured is the new $639,000 powerhouse and nursing station which St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today accepted from contractors. The combined unit, begun last fall, has the powerhouse next to the chimney at the left and the nursing station at the right. It is situated immediately to the rear of the hospital's west wing. The 30-bed nursing station, which eventually will become a laundry, will open May 5 for emergency patients. The general contractor was Darin & Armstrong of Detroit.

Baltimore-New York Runs Ended by Railroad

BALTIMORE (U) — The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, the nation's oldest, is discontinuing its Baltimore to New York passenger service April 27.

The B&O has been running the trains for 72 years. The railroad said the six daily trains became too much of a financial burden because patronage had dropped 46 per cent since 1946.

Daylight Savings to Dot Nation

Time Change Madness Near

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A crazy-quilt pattern of daylight saving time will dot the nation starting April 27.

Some states will observe it; some not. Parts of other states will join in. Most of those that do go on "fast time" will end it Oct. 26; others on Sept. 28 and other dates.

Generally, the pattern is about the same as last year.

All the New England states will observe daylight saving time from April 27 until Oct. 26, as will New York, New Jersey, most of Pennsylvania, Delaware and Washington, D.C.

Others setting the clocks ahead an hour will be Indiana, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Nevada and California.

Parts of Indiana, in the Central time belt, already are an hour ahead. Some areas in the northeast part of the state, including Fort Wayne and Elkhart, and in the southeast near Cincinnati have been on Eastern time by local option all through the winter.

States with split schedules include Illinois, Ohio, Missouri, Kentucky, Virginia, West Virginia, Alabama and Florida.

In Illinois, where local option prevails, about 500 communities, including the Chicago metropolitan area and large downstate cities, will go on daylight time April 27. Most will resume standard time Sept. 28, but the Chicago metropolitan area will stay on daylight until Oct. 26.

The northeast corner of Ohio will go on daylight time, with the rest of the state on standard. In Missouri, daylight time will be observed in the St. Louis metropolitan area and Poplar Bluff but not elsewhere. It will end Oct. 26 in the St. Louis area and Sept. 28 in Poplar Bluff.

Virginia will remain on standard time except in the northern suburban areas near Washington, where daylight time will be observed from April 27 to Oct. 26. In West Virginia, daylight time will be confined largely to the northern Panhandle, including Wheeling and Weirton, and the eastern Panhandle, centering at Martinsburg.

Kentucky has a complex situation. The Legislature banned fast time after June 19. Louisville will go on daylight time from April 27 until June 14, then switch back to Central Standard Time unless the new law is defeated in court. Louisville schools and many factories will leave the clocks on standard time but start the day an hour early.

Alabama, with the exception of Huntsville, where the Redstone Arsenal is located, and Florida, with the exception of Eglin Air Force Base, will remain on standard.

In New Mexico, Los Alamos will go on daylight time April 27, but the rest of the state will stay on standard.

Other states generally are staying on standard time.

U.S. Population Gain Dips

WASHINGTON (AP) — The month-to-month increase in the nation's population was less in February than in any month in the past five years.

Census Bureau statisticians said today the February slump was caused by an increase in deaths because of respiratory ailments including the second wave of Asian flu.

Here's what the bureau figures happened to the civilian population in February:

For the first time since February 1953, the month-to-month gain did not top 200,000; the civilian population increased by 195,000 to a total of 170,562,000.

With the armed forces added, the estimated population on March 1 was 173,210,000, representing a February gain of 199,000. Here again the increase was at a five-year low.

High School Seniors Going to College Via TV

DETROIT (AP) — Outstanding high school seniors in the Detroit area will be given a chance to attend college via television next fall.

Students of superior scholastic ability will be offered courses in English and mathematics for college credit. Classes will be televised over UHF station WTVS in a program sponsored by the University of Detroit.

Participants will receive lectures by watching television screens at home. They will attend the university one hour a week for each course for reviews and tests.

TWO-IN-ONE-CAKE — Save time and effort by making one recipe of cake and giving each half of it a different flavor. In the busy days, mothers will appreciate any labor-saving methods. Honey in the cake helps to keep it moist.

Divide Honey Cake Recipe Flavor 2 Different Ways

You who have become efficiency experts at the home level will rejoice at this Two-In-One Layer Cake. It saves time in the baking process, and it insures your dessert for freshness, because it is made with honey which has the power to help baked goods retain moisture.

This Two-In-One Layer Cake thus gives you more time to spend with your guests and gives you the security of being prepared for the unexpected guest. Try it today.

Two-In-One Honey Cake

2 cups sifted cake flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 cup soft shortening
1/2 cup honey
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
2 eggs
1 cup white vinegar
1 cup milk
1/2 cup squares (2 1/2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate, OR 1 teaspoon pumpkin pie spice, OR 1/2 teaspoon grated orange rind

Sift together flour, baking soda and salt. Cream shortening, honey, sugar and vanilla until fluffy. Beat in eggs. Blend together vinegar and milk; add alternately to creamed mixture along with dry ingredients, add flour mixture first and last; beat well after each addition.

Grease and flour two 8 x 1 1/2 inch round layer cake pans. Pour half of batter into one pan. Beat melted chocolate, or spice, or orange rind into remaining bat-

Mushrooms Are an April Treat

Fresh mushrooms are in such plentiful supply this month that they are bargain buys in most food stores.

The biggest crop of the year comes in April, says the American Mushroom Institute, and just now this versatile vegetable with its unique flavor and texture is at its best. Mushrooms, grown in special houses with controlled temperature and humidity, have not been affected by winter snows and cold. In fact, recent cold weather has seemed to help bring on a bumper crop.

Fresh mushroom prices have recently been 25 to 50 per cent lower in some areas than they were a year ago. These compare favorably with those of some fresh vegetables that have been curtailed by freezes.

While they are so plentiful, the Institute suggests eating fresh mushrooms raw as appetizers or as a snack. Simply cut off a thin slice from the stem end (it is never necessary to peel mushrooms), cut in quarters if they are of medium size, and chill well. Holding by the little "handle" ends, dip into a favorite dunking sauce and enjoy. Small mushrooms may be eaten as they are without slicing.

A new and zippy dunking sauce for Spring consists of two 3-oz. packages of cream cheese; a whole cucumber with skin on, grated; two tablespoons grated onion; 1 teaspoon prepared mustard; 1/4 teaspoon Tabasco; salt and pepper to taste. Serve in a hollowed-out medium head of cabbage or pineapple halves for added interest.

Try fresh mushrooms as a vegetable while they are priced so low. Wash and slice one to one-half pounds of mushrooms. Heat three or four tablespoons of cooking oil or one-half stick of butter or margarine in a skillet and add mushrooms. Sprinkle with juice of half a lemon, and cook over low heat. Stir frequently till mushrooms are lightly browned in their own juice. 5 to 8 minutes. Season lightly with salt and pepper. Serves 4-6.

Plentiful Prunes Fill Pockets of Pork Chops

Prune stuffing is suggested for pork chop pockets by home economists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, who say prunes are plentiful. Prune stuffing may be made by combining rather flexible amounts of dried prunes, which have been cooked, pitted and then chopped, with cubes of fresh bread, finely chopped celery and nuts.

Bake in covered pan in moderate oven for 45 minutes. Stuffing remaining after pockets are filled may be shaped into balls and baked about 25 minutes.

Dry Milk Solids Budget's Best Pal

How to cut food costs and still give the family the food it needs for good health is a challenge many homemakers are meeting today. If this is true at your house, let dry milk solids be one of the foods to come to your rescue.

Dry milk solids are milk minus the water and fat. You can use dry milk in every way you use whole milk for just about half the cost, relates the Marketing Information Agent.

For a recipe booklet using dry milk, write Mrs. Josephine Lawler, 1269 West Boulevard, Pontiac.

Cutting food costs without cutting the foods you need for health takes good planning and wise shopping. Dry milk can be a real help.

Lamb Roast Can Benefit From Spicy Marinade

When planning on a 5 to 6 pound lamb roast (leg or shoulder make good roasts), let stand first in the following marinade for several hours: Combine 1 teaspoon salt, 1 bay leaf, 1/2 teaspoon sage, 1/2 teaspoon thyme leaves, 1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper, 1 1/2 teaspoons whole allspice, 2 tablespoons lemon juice and 2 1/2 cups beef bouillon.

Bring to a boil. Cool. Pour over lamb. When ready to cook, brown first and then add marinade. Cook until tender in a covered roaster in oven or top of range. Strain marinade to make gravy.

Nutritious Heart Is Good Eating

Is your family as enthusiastic over a menu featuring a variety of meat as they are when porterhouse steak is in the spotlight? In many instances, the answer is probably, No!

To the homemaker who knows the value of serving a nutritious and mineral-packed variety meat recipe, this attitude may seem quite disturbing.

Whether you're serving heart, liver, tongue, sweetbreads or kidneys, they're all considered as an outstanding source of food nutrients and provide them in extraordinary amounts.

One such variety meat recipe features veal hearts and is called Heart Imperial. It can't help but win praise and admiration from your family as well as your friends. Yes, this recipe is suited for party service, too.

Heart Imperial

2 veal hearts
1/2 cup lard or drippings
1 small clove garlic, minced
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1 teaspoon paprika
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed mushroom soup
1/2 cup water
1 package (10 1/2 ounces) frozen green beans

Wash hearts and remove hard parts. Cut into 1/2-inch cubes. Brown in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Add garlic, onion, paprika, mushroom soup and water. Cover tightly and simmer 1 1/2 hours.

Add green beans. Cover and continue simmering 15 to 20 minutes or until heart is tender and beans are done. Yield: 6 servings.

Doughnuts Top Orange Pudding

You'll welcome these new orange doughnut desserts as a delightful variation of the old favorite combination of pudding and cake. All you need are fluffy white cake quality powdered sugar doughnuts from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department, bright juicy sections of fresh oranges, a package of coconut pudding and 1 1/4 cups of fresh or frozen orange juice.

1 package coconut pudding mix (see instant)
1 1/4 cups fresh or frozen diluted orange juice
6 powdered sugar doughnuts cut in half crosswise

Cook pudding mix and juice in heavy saucepan over low heat, stirring, until mixture thickens. Cool to lukewarm stirring frequently. Pour 1/2 of mixture into 6 large dessert dishes. Press a doughnut half, sugar-side down, into pudding mixture. Stand 6 orange segments upright around edge of dish. Cover doughnut halves with remaining sauce and, if serving dishes are large enough, top each with a doughnut half, sugar-side up.

If the dishes are too small to accommodate both orange pieces and doughnut, cut each doughnut half into 6 wedge-shaped pieces and alternate orange segments and doughnut pieces on top of pudding. Chill. Makes 6 servings.

If you want scrambled eggs to be really creamy, cook them over hot water.

The Recipe

Squeeze and reserve juice from 1 large orange. Measure juice and add milk to make 1 cup liquid. Grind orange rind and pulp with 1 cup seedless raisins and 1/3 cup nut meat; grind twice and set aside. Sift together 2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour, 3 teaspoons Clabber Girl Baking Powder, 1 teaspoon salt, and 1 cup sugar into large mixing bowl; add 1/4 cup shortening and 2/3 cup liquid. Beat 2 minutes using medium speed of electric mixer, or by hand beating 150 strokes per minute. Keep batter scraped from sides and bottom of bowl with rubber scraper. Add 2 eggs and remaining 1/3 cup liquid. Beat 2 minutes longer as before. Blend in fruit mixture. Pour into a greased and floured 9 x 9 x 1 1/2 inch baking pan. Bake in a 350° F. (moderate) oven about 45 minutes. Cool. Frost and decorate as desired. Cut in squares. Yield: 1-9 x 9-inch cake.

The "most important" thing about baking...

It's the balance of ingredients in baking powder that governs its leavening action. Only when these are scientifically balanced can you be sure of uniform action in the mixing bowl plus that final, balanced rise to light and fluffy texture in the oven.

Balanced Double Action means Better Baking!

SPICY MOLASSES SAUCE—A spicy molasses sauce, made with sweetened condensed milk and molasses nicely spiced, perks up the breakfast interest in crisp, hot waffles.

Creamy Sauce Bettors Waffles

Some people are monotonously satisfied 365 days a year at breakfast with a soft boiled egg and a piece of toast. But most of us crave variety at the first meal of day. And a "different" breakfast can be as rewarding to the chief cook, in terms of praise and appreciations, as an interesting dinner.

A novel contribution to the breakfast menu is this spicy molasses sauce. It is served hot over waffles or pancakes—a spiced combination of sweetened condensed milk and light molasses. It is a real taste-teaser, and adds delicately to the tempting quality of crisp, golden waffles. With or without bacon, but surely with coffee, this waffle-sauce twosome is delectable.

The sauce practically makes itself. Just heat the ingredients together in a double boiler for 10 minutes.

Spicy Molasses Sauce
1 (15-oz.) can sweetened condensed milk
1/2 cup light molasses
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 cup water
Combine all ingredients in top of double boiler. Cook over hot water, stirring occasionally, until hot, about 10 minutes. Serve hot over waffles or pancakes. Makes about 2 1/2 cups sauce.

Piquant Relish Molds Ideal With Cold Meat

Here are two tempting meat accompaniments that will lend a festive touch to company meals and add zest to Sunday night suppers. Spiced Cherry Relish, made with black cherry-flavored gelatin and luscious Bing cherries, is especially compatible with roast duck or cold meats. Its spicy flavor and cheerful color will appeal to both eye and palate.

Equally zesty is Piquant Emerald Relish which features lime-flavored gelatin, cucumber, onion and horse-radish. Try it with savory slices of baked ham and you'll be surprised how good it tastes.

Spiced Cherry Relish
1 package black cherry-flavored gelatin
Dash of ground cloves
Dash of allspice
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup hot water
Cherry juice and water to make 1 cup
2 tablespoons vinegar
1 cup (17 ounce can) drained Bing cherries, pitted and halved
Combine gelatin, spices, and salt and dissolve in hot water. Add cherry juice and vinegar. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold in cherries. Pour into small molds. Chill until firm. Unmold. Serve with meats. Makes 8 servings.

Piquant Emerald Relish
1 package lime-flavored gelatin
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup hot water
1/2 cup cold water
1/2 cup vinegar
1/2 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1/2 teaspoon ground onion
2 tablespoons prepared horse-radish
3 cups drained chopped cucumber
Dissolve gelatin and 1/2 teaspoon salt in hot water. Add cold water and vinegar. Chill. Add 1/2 teaspoon salt, pepper, onion and horse-radish to cucumber.

When gelatin is slightly thickened fold in cucumber mixture. Pour into small molds. Chill until firm. Unmold. Serve with fish. Makes 12 relish molds.

Cranberry Juice Adds New Tang
This spring chiffon pie heads the list of favorite desserts. This recipe substitutes cranberry juice cocktail for the water in packaged fillings. A new flavor team that's really special!

Cranberry Chiffon Pie
1 cup cranberry juice cocktail
1 package strawberry or lemon chiffon pie filling mix
1/2 cup sugar
1 cooled baked 8-inch pie shell or graham cracker crust
Chill 1/2 cup cranberry juice. Heat remaining half cup to boiling. Add to pie filling mix in large mixing bowl and stir well. Add the chilled juice and beat vigorously with rotary egg beater or electric mixer at highest speed until mixture is very foamy. Add sugar and beat until mixture stands in peaks. Takes 1 to 3 minutes. Spoon into pie shell. Chill until set (about 2 hours). Serve plain or with whipped cream.

Don't Insult Guest With Weak Coffee

Nowadays, it seems, Etiquette with a capital E is much more flexible than it used to be and even our most formal parties are considerably more relaxed. However, according to Amy Vanderbilt, noted author of "Amy Vanderbilt's Complete Book of Etiquette," there are some manners that always need minding! For instance, she insists that coffee should be "hot, freshly made and inspiring strong" when you're entertaining. "Many housewives," says Miss Vanderbilt, "are getting 20 extra cups of coffee per pound, producing a beverage that resembles coffee-less coffee—or coffee-colored water. Certainly, this is not the kind of coffee that should ever be offered to guests." And there's no denying that weak coffee can discourage the most amiable conversation and ruin the most elegant meal!

Even though you've been making coffee for years, it's possible that you've never really known some of the finer points of proper brewing. They're really quite simple and so rewarding. The next time you entertain, use your prettiest coffee service and follow the directions given below... then you'll see how "proper" your party can be. (Pay close attention to measuring in order to avoid "coffee-less" coffee.)

First, of all start with a clean coffee maker, fresh coffee of the proper grind and fresh cold water. For one average-strength cup of coffee, use one Standard

Coffee Measure (or 2 level measuring tablespoons) of coffee to each 1/2 cup of water. If you want coffee a bit on the weaker side, dilute with water after brewing according to the directions above.

Always be consistent in brewing time: Percolate gently no more than 8 minutes; for a vacuum coffee maker, stir and hold in upper bowl no more than 3 minutes; or for drip, boiling water should go through the coffee in 4 to 6 minutes. Always use at least 1/2 capacity of your coffee maker and serve the coffee at once.

Don't forget—brewing too long (or boiling) makes your coffee bitter.

Chicken Good Bet for First Barbecue

On a warm day when the family has a yen to get out of doors, a fryer is an easy choice for your first spring barbecue.

The Consumer Marketing Information Agent reports that broiler-fryers, supplies are increasing slightly. This should bring some slight decrease in price during April.

Small fryers weighing under three pounds are the best size for cooking outdoors, states Mrs. Josephine Lawyer.

Stop Mid-Morning Sag With Ample Breakfast

Breakfast, in many ways, is the most important meal of the day. It supplies us with the basis for the morning activities—study, work or play.

Meat in the breakfast menu provides high quality protein which gives us that get-up-and-go feeling.

ing. It helps to prevent mid-morning lag and helps restrict those high-calorie snacks that so often are part of the morning coffee break.

Deviated canned shrimp varies in saltiness—so add extra salt to a dish in which the shrimp is used with a careful hand until you've tasted.

Peaches a la India

Curried peach halves add a sunny color and tantalizing garnish for ham platters. Sprinkle curry powder generously over cling peach halves. Place a teaspoon of lemon juice and a dab of butter in the center of each and put the peaches under broiler for 15 to 20 minutes. They are good with chicken, and turkey, too.

Food a Must at Pajama Party

By JANET ODELL

Postage Press Home Editor
Three things are essential to a good pajama party: girls, food and music. It's easy enough to assemble a bunch of girls, once the parents' consent has been given. Food is pretty standardized. The only requirement for the music is that it be the latest records.

Remembering the pajama parties we have gone through with Miss Teenager, we are of the opinion that the guests talk and eat most of the night. Sleep is a secondary consideration. Beds are thought totally unnecessary. Girls who otherwise would complain of a hard mattress think nothing of spending what few hours they sleep on the floor.

The potato chip industry should offer a vote of thanks to American teenagers for consuming so many chips at their slumber parties. It's incredible how many they can eat. Bottles of soft drinks disappear almost as fast.

Potato chips taste good just as they come from the package. But a bowl of dip is always welcome. One the girls might like is this cheese-out dip.

CRUNCHY DIP

Mash cream cheese until it is soft. Add enough cream to make it the right consistency for dipping. Beat well. Add chopped salted peanuts just before serving.

Another interesting dip is made with equal parts of deviled ham and peanut butter. Add a little mayonnaise for smoothness. Use either smooth or crunchy peanut butter.

Morning dawns at last, even with the most talkative gang of girls. Of course, they may wake up early; but getting up for breakfast is another matter.

Some mothers prepare a breakfast, thinking it will speed up her youthful guests. Others think the girls should get their own. What is served is often a matter of tradition within a group. One group may always have french toast; while a different bunch of girls may prefer bacon and eggs. Suggested below is a new breakfast idea to appeal to teenagers.

COVERED WAGONS

1/2 pound brown 'n' serve sausages
1 package refrigerator biscuits
Remove biscuits from package. Fold each biscuit around a sausage link, pressing edges of biscuit together. The sausage will be exposed on both ends. Place on baking sheet. Bake 5-8 minutes in a 475-degree oven. Serve at once.

Vegetable Duo Has Distinctive Flavors

A divine vegetable dish!

Tomatoes and Onions Supreme

2 medium-small onions
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 teaspoon sugar
4 medium-large tomatoes (1 1/2 lbs.)
1 tablespoon flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup heavy cream
Extra salt
Peel onions and cut into thin round slices. Melt 2 tablespoons butter in skillet (10 to 12 inches), add onions; cook slowly about 10 minutes, stirring often and separating onion slices into rings. Sprinkle with sugar. Remove onions from skillet with fork and spoon, leaving as much of the fat as possible in the pan.

Cut a thin slice from each end of each tomato; slice tomatoes into halves. Stir flour, salt and a dash of pepper together on a sheet of waxed paper; dip cut ends of tomatoes into mixture. Add 1 tablespoon of butter to skillet; add tomatoes and cook rapidly turning to brown cut sides. Watch heat so as not to scorch pan.

Add onions and cream to skillet; reheat, adding extra salt and pepper to taste. Makes 4 large or 8 small servings. The tomatoes should be soft but hold their shape; the onions should be slightly crisp.

Gourmet Dish Utilizes Spinach

Reba Staggs, meat expert and home economist, gives this suggestion concerning the use of leftover ham. Serve it ground, combined in a Spanish Souffle.

It's a rewarding sight to see this epicurean dish emerge from the oven, puffy, light and ready to serve. Budget-wise, this dish is a lifesaver for the purse strings.

Some people say that they don't like spinach. . . just try this ground ham and spinach combination. Your opinion will probably change.

Ham and Spinach Souffle
1 1/2 cups finely chopped, cooked ham
1/2 cup cooked fresh or frozen spinach, finely chopped
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup cheddar cheese, grated
2 egg yolks, lightly beaten
3 egg whites, stiffly beaten
Melt butter or margarine and blend in flour, pepper and mustard. Add milk and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Stir in cheese. Add mixture slowly to egg yolks. Add ham and spinach and fold in egg whites.
Four mixture into a 1 1/2-quart ungreased casserole. Bake in a slow oven (300 degrees) for 45 minutes.

Variation for timbales: Spoon approximately 3 tablespoons of mixture into 6-ounce ungreased custard cups. Bake on aluminum tray or sheet in slow oven (300 degrees) for 45 minutes.

Sauce and Wine Enhance Shrimp

A hurry-up dish!

Quick Shrimp and Tomato Sauce
1 package (8 ounces) peeled deveined frozen shrimp
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) Italian tomato spaghetti sauce with mushrooms
2 tablespoons cooking sherry
Hot cooked rice

Cook shrimp according to package directions and drain off any liquid. If shrimp are a large enough size, cut each in half lengthwise. Heat tomato sauce; add sherry and shrimp. Reheat but do not boil. Serve over hot cooked rice. Makes 3 servings.

One medium-sized banana usually yields three-quarters cup of thinly sliced banana or about one-half cup of mashed banana.

Fish, Salad Greens Go Easy on Purse Today

Why not do things the easy way? The easy-way-to-prepare a family meal may mean more time to share a small boy's enthusiasm for the after school ball game. May give you time to relax before the family comes "bursting in."

FOR THE MAIN DISH — The main dish can be meat or some other food high in protein value reminds the Marketing Information Agent. Those easy-to-prepare might include meats that roast, broil, cook in a casserole, or cook within a few minutes on top of the range.

If you choose a roast, the following comparisons showing cost per serving may help you make decisions: lamb shoulder 22 to 26 cents; lamb leg 23 to 26 cents; rolled rump of beef 30 to 35 cents; picnic 19 to 24 cents; Boston butt 16 to 20 cents; roast chicken 25 to 30 cents; turkey 21 to 30 cents; rib-end pork roast 16 to 29 cents.

What can you broil? It might be grade steaks at 35 to 40 cents per person. It might be ground beef or lamb patties. It might be open-faced sandwiches — thick with cheese.

Casseroles will make use of leftovers and hide their identity. Ham with scalloped potatoes, ground meat with tomatoes and corn, meat casseroles using rice or macaroni are easy-to-prepare.

On top of the range is a quick way to prepare ground meat, fryers, fish and liver. Fryers will cost 25 to 40 cents per person. You may have enough for a vegetable with what you can save by cutting a fryer at home. Fish to check this week are smelt at 13 to 18 cents per serving; frozen perch at 7 to 16 cents or cod at 13 to 16 cents each portion. Beef liver will be 10 to 14 cents per serving (each pound serves 4 or 5).

WHAT GOES WITH THE MAIN

DISH — Vegetables, salads and dessert are additions need to complete the meal.

Each week brings a few changes in the produce department. Keep a close check. Fresh green beans are gaining in supply, improving in quality and lowering in price. One pound will make four half-cup servings.

The salad greens look especially good. Lettuce, endive and escarole will serve five people from each pound. The ten-ounce package of spinach will serve three. Combinations of these greens will make salads as perky as spring weather.

Radishes and green shallots or onions will add much for little cost. Carrot strips in or out of the salad will give crispness and quantities of Vitamin A for 8 to 12 1/2 cents a pound.

In fresh fruits there are few at less than 30 cents a pound. You can find some apples, bananas, grapefruit, pineapple and watermelon. A few stores have some of the first strawberries of the season.

Food ads are reminders of canned foods in good supply. Ten to 17 cents will buy a one pound can (No. 303 size holding 2 cups of food and liquid) of many fruits and vegetables.

DAIRY AND EGGS—Dairy supplies are increasing at this season. Will reach their annual peak in June.

Dollar for dollar, the investment for milk is wide use of your food money. Three to four cups a day for children; two or three cups for adults is a health requirement.

If you must cut milk costs, do not cut the amount of milk. You might change the cost by using more dry milk, evaporated or condensed milk.

Eggs—the easy way to get plenty of protein into breakfast. Prices for the large size Grade A eggs are 49 to 59 cents a dozen or 32 1/2 to 39 cents a pound this week. You will agree that by the pound eggs are an economical buy.

Candy Mints Top Broiled Grapefruit

Broiled Minted Grapefruit

2 large grapefruit
4 tablespoons finely crushed white buttermilk candies
Cut each grapefruit in half. If necessary to have the grapefruit halves stand straight, cut a very thin slice from bottom rind. With small sharp knife, cut around each grapefruit section to loosen from dividing membranes; do not cut around entire outer edge of fruit.

Spread 1 tablespoon crushed mint candy over grapefruit half. Place on aluminum foil on baking sheet. Bake in very hot (450 degrees) oven 10 minutes; if candy has not all melted, place under broiler for a few minutes. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

Note: The peppermint candy used in this recipe comes in 7-ounce packages and is available in many grocery markets.

Fresh Green Beans Help Make Meals Interesting

Green beans have made their come-back at the fresh produce counter. Quality varies from fair to good, so take a second look when you choose suggests the Marketing Information Agent.

A pound of green beans will make five one-half cup servings. This means 6 to 10 cents per person if you serve fresh green beans on the menu this week.

Brunch Eggs Cook in Double Boiler

Give yourself ample time to prepare these eggs.

Double Boiler Scrambled Eggs

4 eggs
1/2 teaspoon salt
Pepper
1/2 cup homogenized milk
2 tablespoons butter
Beat egg with rotary beater just until yolks and whites are combined. Beat in salt, pepper to taste and milk. Melt butter in top of double boiler; add egg mixture. Cook over hot (not boiling) water; occasionally stir the cooked portion of the egg from the bottom and sides of pan so you have creamy flakes. Makes 4 servings. Note: Scrambled eggs may be garnished with a dusting of minced chives or parsley, strips of canned drained pimientos, sliced pimiento-stuffed olives or chunks of black olives cut from pits in large pieces.

Keep creamed soups hot in a double boiler until serving time.

Company Food Pampers Budget

A dish that disguises its thrift in a cloak of elegance is a Pea and Chicken Souffle Salad. This, incidentally, is one kind of souffle that doesn't use eggs. Instead, it uses gelatin to achieve the traditional fluffiness of a souffle.

Dissolve 1 package of lemon gelatin in 1 cup hot water. Add 1/4 cup cold water, 4 teaspoons vinegar, 1/2 cup mayonnaise and a bit of salt and pepper. Blend this well with a rotary beater put in refrigerator tray for 15 to 20 minutes, then turn into a bowl and beat until fluffy.

Fold in 1 cup canned peas, 1 cup sliced, cooked chicken meat, 1/4 cup finely chopped celery and 1 tablespoon finely chopped onion. Pour into quart mold or individual molds, and chill in refrigerator (not in freezing compartment) until firm, about 30 minutes. Unmold and garnish with lettuce, water-cress or other salad greens.

Change-Boiled Rice With Coconut

This recipe for rice will come in handy for a buffet supper.

Our Coconut Rice

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/2 cup loosely-packed flaked coconut
2 cups hot cooked drained converted rice
Melt butter over low heat in 9-inch heavy skillet; add coconut and toast until lightly browned, stirring often. Add rice and stir with fork so coconut is well distributed. Makes 4 servings.

Note: If you start from scratch, you'll need to cook two-thirds cup rice to get the amount called for. If you use leftover rice, rinse it with boiling water and drain thoroughly before adding to skillet.

Play safe when you are adding herbs! Start with 1/4 teaspoon of a dried herb for each pint of sauce, gravy, soup, vegetable; use the same amount for each pound of meat, fowl or fish. More can be added after tasting.

Oriental Style Crabmeat Pleases

Piquant flavor in this crabmeat dish.

Crabmeat Biddleme
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon chili sauce
2 teaspoons lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon curry powder
1/4 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Tarragon seasoning powder
Salt

Pepper
1 can (4 1/2 ounce) king crabmeat
Melt butter in 1-quart saucepan over low heat; stir in flour. Add milk; cook and stir until thickened and bubbly. Add chili sauce, lemon juice, curry powder and Worcestershire sauce. Add tarragon seasoning powder pinch by pinch to suit taste. Add salt and pepper to taste.

Drain crabmeat and rinse; remove all cartilage. Add to sauce and reheat. Serve over rice. Makes 2 large servings.

Tass Censors Khrushchev's Speech

Russian Overtures Insincere—Dulles

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has accused Russia—meaning Premier Nikita Khrushchev—of prostituting and debauching historic peace processes with a stream of propaganda-laden messages to the West.

Khrushchev, a man of a few thousand words on most every occasion, is at the top in Russia. But he too, is subject to his own censorship.

A good example is how his Lenin Stadium last Thursday was decorated by the official Tass agency for distribution at home and abroad.

James Critchlow, top analyst for radio liberation, said it probably was one of the fastest rewrite jobs in Soviet history. Of the 3,700-word Tass version of Khrushchev's speech on his return from Hungary, only 14 sentences were left intact.

Khrushchev may have been hitting the bottle heavily, the Radio Liberation expert says, and he may have been affected by the "exceedingly frigid reception" he got from Hungarians, whose revolt he crushed in 1956.

In the live Moscow broadcast monitored by Radio Liberation in Munich Khrushchev showed "incoherence, vulgarity and absurdity."

But Tass—no doubt with Khrushchev's consent—fixed all this up in its account broadcast abroad and at home for the press. A comparison of the original speech and the Tass account shows:

—Khrushchev "threatened the West with an indecipherable Russian idiom," which the Radio Liberation analysts says defies direct translation but is equivalent in force—saying vulgarly—to saying "We'll show the b---a." This was deleted in the Tass version.

—The chunky premier referred to former Hungarian Socialist Premier Matyas Rakosi as "guilty of what happened in Hungary." This, and three other passages mentioning Rakosi, were omitted.

—Khrushchev's admission that the present Hungarian Red leader, Janos Kadar, spent five years in prison under the Communist regime, also was deleted.

—Once Khrushchev said "It is not in our power" to destroy capitalism "any more than the capitalists could overthrow communism." This remark was erased, presumably as a defeatist statement, although the premier in another portion of his speech corrected his lapse by claiming "a flank attack," or "economic competition," could overthrow capitalism.

—At one point the unpredictable Khrushchev burst into song. He recalled that he and Hungarian Premier Ferenc Muennich once lived in the same military training tent in Moscow in 1936. Tass removed this. Perhaps the censor thought it undignified. Perhaps he thought the words of the song—"Our cannons roared, our machineguns rattled"—was out of place in any reference to crushed Hungary.

—A statement that "We're going to open the door" to tourists, so they would know "what fools" they supposedly were to misjudge the Soviet system, disappeared from the edited official version. The fact that no liberal visa policy is actually in sight is the possible reason.

—Mr. K. claimed that Western newsmen "either distort the truth or don't report it the way they should to serve the people." This never saw official print. Such a statement implies that telling the truth and serving "the people" are not always the same thing in Communist teaching.

Radio Liberation, the voice of former Soviet citizens who have found freedom abroad, is beaming what Khrushchev really said—plus what Tass said he said—to all parts of the Soviet Union.

Sisterhood Hears Plans

The Sisterhood of Temple Beth Yarn presented Dr. Durwood Varner, vice president of Michigan State University, as speaker for its annual open meeting Tuesday evening.

The Temple Men's Club and members of the Pontiac City Federation of Women's Clubs joined the sisterhood to hear Dr. Varner speak on Michigan State University Oakland to be erected on the former Alfred G. Wilson estate east of Pontiac. Mrs. Herman Stenbuck introduced the speaker.

Dr. Varner discussed enrollment problems, stating that the actual enrollment in Michigan colleges far exceeds the estimated enrollment made in 1954. Michigan State University's enrollment alone has nearly doubled in comparison with that previously estimated, he said.

Dear Abby

Dame Nature Has No Sense of Time

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: What on earth is wrong with you? How can you advise people to start raising a family when they are in their forties? You said that 'nature should determine when children should stop being born.'"

"Don't you know that some men are capable of having children when they are 75 — and some women can have them when they are 60? How would you like to be born to a father of 75 and a mother of 60?"

STRAIGHT THINKER

DEAR STRAIGHT: It would be all right with me. My only regret would be that I probably wouldn't have any living grandparents.

DEAR ABBY: I have a husband who has a very crazy sense of humor. When we moved into this flat he went and told all the neighbors that we weren't married — we were just living together.

"Abby, we have kids running around all over the place. I am so embarrassed because I sometimes think people don't know he is joking and they don't care to make our acquaintance. Please print this so he will take the hint. Are there other men who make jokes like this or am I all alone?"

NOT LAUGHING

DEAR NOT: If your husband knows you don't think this "joke" funny, he is being very inconsiderate. Have your marriage license reproduced (at his expense) and paper the living room wall with it.

DEAR ABBY: Here is a clever trick for the girl who loves to dance but can't keep the men from dancing so close she would like to slap their faces. Place one of her hands on his collar bone and by a very slight leverage she can make him keep his distance. If she smiles while pushing him, he won't suspect a thing.

TRICKY

DEAR TRICKY: You could also take a course in judo and you'd NEVER have to worry about a thing.

DEAR ABBY: I am 15 years old and go roller skating every Saturday night. There is an older boy who is always skating there and he doesn't take his eyes off me. He makes me nervous. I don't care for his looks or his language. He is always asking me to skate with him. Can you think of a gracious way to say "get lost" without hurting his feelings?"

TOO GOOD

DEAR TOO: What's wrong with a plain old-fashioned, "No thank you?"

CONFIDENTIAL TO WOR-

RRIED SICK: No one in this country has to walk around with a sore that refuses to heal for two years. This could be very serious. Go to your local COUNTY MEDICAL SERVICE at once. They will see you—money or no money.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

The next Gamma Chapter meeting will be held in the Cheltenham road home of Mrs. Richard DeWitt.

Church Slates April 25 Banquet

First Methodist Church will be the scene of a mother and daughter banquet at 6:30 p.m. April 25. A highlight of the program will be the appearance of a magician.

Mrs. Robert Alton will handle welcoming and introductions at the affair. Toastmistress for the evening will be Mrs. Clayton Rule. Nancy Smith will present a toast to mothers, and Janet and Joyce Livingstone will offer a violin and piano duet. Community singing will be led by Mrs. Oliver Dunstan.

Elected at Dinner Meeting

Mrs. Gardner to Head Teachers Exchange Club

Mrs. Ralph Gardner was elected president of Teachers Exchange Club Wednesday evening at a dinner meeting in Bethany Baptist Church. Mrs. Irene Albright, Mrs. Marjorie Cotterman and Mrs. Elmer Thorpe were hostesses. Other officers named were Betty Halsey, vice president; Mrs. Wilson Roback, treasurer; Mrs. Martha Robertson, recording secretary, and Mrs. Cotterman, corresponding secretary.

Among the guests were Alysae Mae Stephens, Elmer Thorpe, Wilson Roback, Ruth Ann Harmon, Mrs. Lewis Cornell, Mrs. Herbert Barsuhn, Lenn Kennaday, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kutz, Mrs. James Morse and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mitchell.

MR. and MRS. RAY H. LINABURY

Sunday marks the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Linabury of Carter street. The occasion will be observed at an open house in their home from 2 to 6 p.m. She was the former Carrie Chapman of Holly. The Linaburys have made their home in Pontiac for the past 42 years.

These three youngsters, members of Cherub and Carolers Choirs of First Methodist Church, were photographed while attending a meeting with their mothers in preparation for the mother-

Salons Cut, Don't Set New Hairdo

Women who want a haircut but not a set, who want to get in and out of a beauty salon in half an hour, who want a natural-looking hairdo, will welcome a new cutting technique just developed.

Your hair is shampooed, then cut, arranged but not set, dried for five minutes and you're finished and ready to leave.

You have a hairdo that's easy to manage. Your stylist will give you directions for taking care of it until your next visit.

The new cutting may be had in salons across the country. This shaped cutting is based on a knowledge of your hair texture and type. It works for everything but very limp or fine hair.

It's a kind of beauty service that salons have not offered before. It means a real saving in time for busy women as well as a finished hairdo that looks neither "set" nor stiff.

April 21 Dinner Set

In charge of reservations for an April 21 mother-daughter dinner at Ascension Lutheran Church is Mrs. Lewis Crew. The Rev. William LaFountain will lecture on mother-daughter relationships. The dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Subtract Pounds for Added Style

Bulges Detract From Clothing

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

How would you like to be rid of that tight feeling your clothes have, that sensation of bulging just enough in the wrong places to spoil the charm of a dress or suit you particularly like? Or, maybe a loss of from 5 to 10 pounds would make it possible to get into a dress or suit you have discarded because of a gain in weight.

I gain weight very easily and have to fight it constantly. Therefore I know that this can happen to us even when we have the best intentions. Every once in a while I begin to fret and sigh. Nothing looks right, not my hair or my hats or my clothes.

I KNOW, but being an optimist, I HOPE I may be wrong so I climb on the scales. I find that I have gained 5 to 8 pounds. If it is 8 to 10 pounds, I cannot wear clothes which were fitted snugly before my downfall.

BIG DIFFERENCE

A few pounds can make a big difference and you can get rid of from 5 to 10 pounds in nine days on my Nine-Day Reducing Diet. Many of you have been clipping the menus from the paper each day and many have written for the 9-Day Diet Booklet in order to have it for reference in the future and for convenience now.

Here are your menus for tomorrow.

MENUS FOR FRIDAY

One-half cup spinach or greens

Today's exercise: Lie on the floor on your back with your legs straight and your arms resting on the floor at your sides. Bend your left knee up close to your abdomen and kick toward the ceiling. Lower leg to the floor.

Bend your right knee and kick toward the ceiling. Continue, alternating left and right. Do this briskly. The exercises I am giving you this week are easy but effective.

If you would like to lose from 5 to 10 pounds in nine days, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for the Nine-Day Diet Booklet to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Tomorrow: "Don't Weigh Self Until After Four Days of Diet."

Train Hubby Early for Better Marriage

By RUTH MILLETT

The training a mother neglects to give a son, a wife has to put across in the first year of marriage after that he'll claim she's "nagging."

So here are a few of the little (eventually they'll look big) lapses a wife should watch for, so that she can correct them right at the start.

Leaving the bathroom a mess. Instead of ship-shape, after he has had a shower. A bride of a few months may be able to laugh at the mess, but she won't laugh at it five years later, or even one or two.

Acting like a guest in his own home when the couple is entertaining. A husband who can't be bothered to play host not only throws all the work on his wife, he makes their home seem much less hospitable than it might be.

Not hanging up his clothes and putting away the things he uses. No wife enjoys, for long, following around after her husband and restoring order. No wife wants to feel like a valet.

Failing to let her know when he is going to be late to dinner, if possible, so she can delay preparing it. The first dinner that is ruined because a man didn't have the common courtesy to make a telephone call can be the last if a bride gently puts her foot down.

Hurrying his wife or sitting down and impatiently tapping his foot, instead of helping her, when there are last-minute things to be done before the couple can leave home.

Boys Vehement in Denunciation

Chemise Strictly Sad-Sack With Teenagers

By EUGENE GILBERT

The chemise, known in the vulgate as the sack dress, is strictly for sad sacks, as far as the nation's teenagers are concerned. Fickle fashion's most controversial item since the new look of a decade ago has definitely struck out with the pony tail and blue denim set. The boys, in particular, regard it as an abomination. Of those we polled in a nationwide survey, 86 per cent roared abuse at the Roaring '30's. Only 8 per cent said they liked it, and the rest hadn't seen it yet. Girls were almost as vehement in their denunciation of the sack dress but did not always practice what they preached. When asked if they liked it, 65 per cent of the bobby-soxers answered with a definite "No."

But not all had the courage of their convictions. Almost three out of every 10 sheepishly admitted that, as slaves to fashion, they already had bought one or more chemise dresses, even though 86 per cent of the boys and girls — especially the boys — say it never will last.

one of those things," she protested. "but when you go shopping, there's nothing else to buy. I guess I'll end up wearing it like the rest of them."

A similar defeatist attitude was noted in other sections of the country. "You just can't find anything else on the racks," said Susan Acks of Brooklyn.

PARENTS DIVIDED

Parents, who usually have to foot the clothing bill, were drawn into the argument by our pollsters and seemed about equally divided between pro and anti-sack factions.

"My mother thinks the chemise is improper because when she was a girl they didn't wear anything underneath them," answered one young respondent who declined use of her name for obvious reasons.

Jill Laura of Hartford, Conn., found her parents gratefully receptive to the new fashion trend.

"Mom thinks it's a lot better than the sloppy Jo sweaters and blue jeans we used to wear," said Jill.

"I hate it," confessed Marilyn Peters of Toledo. "But what can you do? You have to keep up with the times."

Morris Oppal of Cleveland neatly summed up the feelings of his fellow men with a few infirmatory adjectives: "absolutely hideous, horrendous, terrible and vile."

Boys were outspokenly concerned about the camouflage job that the new sack dresses perform on the feminine figure. "I want my girl to look like a girl, not a potential butterfly wrapped in a cocoon," complained a Chicago teenager.

Added Tom Brickley of Medford, Mass.: "I'd strangle my girl if she ever bought one of them things. Worse, I'd ask for my ring back."

SOME ADVANTAGES

Girls, however, were quick to see the advantages in this formless, shapeless attire.

"I don't see what all the fuss is about," commented Nancy Jilowsky of Dallas. "I think the chemise is a boon to girls who don't do too much for a tight-fitting sheath dress and who look too heavy in a flared skirt."

But junior misses who didn't like it were hardly less restrained in their invective than the boys.

"The chemise is the most ghastly thing I've ever seen women wear," said Patricia Kaplan, a freshman at New York's Barnard College, who declined to say whether she had included chemises in her collegiate wardrobe.

At Atlanta, Ga., Louann Bates was equally perturbed over the sack fad, but earnestly wondered what one southern belle could do against a phalanx of Parisian designers.

"I wouldn't be caught dead in

MR. and MRS. ARTHUR ANDREWS

Betty Jane Berg Becomes Bride of Arthur Andrews

Betty Jane Berg and Arthur A. Andrews exchanged wedding vows at 12:30 p.m. Saturday in St. Michael Catholic Church in a ceremony attended by relatives and close friends.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Eric M. Berg of East Montclair avenue, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Andrews of East Montclair avenue.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of Italian silk and Alencon lace, styled on princess lines, with a yoke of Alencon lace and long sleeves which tapered to points over the wrists. The dress buttoned down the back to the waist, which was accented by a bow.

Her fingertip veil was held in place by a crown of Alencon lace which matched the yoke of the bridal gown. The bridal bouquet was a crescent-shaped arrangement of moth orchids and lilies of the valley.

The bride's only attendant, Ellen Jones, was dressed in an Alice blue floor-length frock featuring a satin bodice and a skirt of net.

Laughing at Puppy Love Can Be Costly

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

At 5, Midge fell violently in love with her cousin Jerry, who was 17.

It happened one Sunday when she found a toy watch she'd lost under a bush. Running to the house to show it to her mother, she stumbled and fell. Jerry stopped polishing his family's car to pick her up.

He had dancing blue eyes and brown hair, and the strength with which he held her, combined with the gentleness with which he wiped dirt from her grazed knee, moved her deeply — and her heart burst into love.

She made no attempt to hide this sudden love. At lunch when Jerry asked someone to pass him the butter, she scrambled down from her chair, ran around the table, got the butter and presented it to him, her heart in her face for all to see.

Someone snickered. Jerry's big sister drawled, "It's that old black magic again in the boy."

SOMETHING ODD

Even Mommy was smiling as though she were funny. There was clearly something queer about her feeling for her cousin Jerry.

She never showed it again. When Jerry was around and someone said, "Hey, how's your boy friend?" she ran away as fast as she could.

Now 15, she still hides important feelings from her family. When they inquire about them, she says offhandedly, "So what if I didn't get a bid to her party? ... How do I know why I date him so often? ... I'll let you know if I want to go to college."

So her mother is always saying worriedly, "Honestly, young people today live like strangers in the house. They never tell you a thing."

The first love feelings of little children should not seem comic to us. If they do strike us as funny, it's because the children have not become human to us.

We smile at the little son or daughter so obviously enamored of a pretty new aunt or the good-looking young TV repairman because they are still toys to us, little mechanical things that amuse us because their behavior is so cunningly contrived to resemble that of real people. Our amusement is often expensive. We pay for it in anxiety over their adolescent secretiveness.

MR. and MRS. LOREN R. BRAY

Claudette Rickard Wed

Claudette E. Rickard and Loren R. Bray exchanged wedding vows Saturday evening in All Saints Episcopal Church. The Rev.

C. George Widdfield performed the ceremony before 100 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude J. Rickard of South Cass Lake road are the parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodward Bray of Calvert street.

The bride wore a French Chantilly lace sheath gown with scalloped square neckline and bouffant bow and drape at the back. A tiara of seed pearls held her ballerina-length veil in place. She carried a bouquet of pink roses with white hyacinth petals and white streamers on a white prayer book.

Honor maid Vicki Everett wore a pink nylon sheath dress featuring a square neckline and short sleeves. The street-length gown featured a crushed cummerbund of taffeta. Her headpiece was of taffeta petals with a nose veil, and she carried a carnation and hyacinth bouquet.

Judy Rickard, sister of the bride was junior bridesmaid. She wore a blue gown similar to the honor attendant's, and carried blue carnations with white hyacinths. Sister of the bridegroom, Kathy Bray, the other junior bridesmaid, also was gowned in blue.

Seating the guests were Wayne Chenoweth of Millard and Lawrence Brown, Larry R. Rickard, brother of the bride, was best man.

To receive guests at a reception in the Rose Kneale Room of the church, Mrs. Rickard chose a sheath dress of powder blue embroidered silk organza over taffeta, with blue accessories and a white cymbidium orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece ensemble consisting of a beige faille sheath dress with nylon coffee coat. Her accessories were beige and brown and her corsage was of yellow cymbidium orchids.

The newlyweds will make their home in Drayton Plains.

Wednesday's recipe for frosted salad left out 1/4 cup of boiling water to be used in dissolving the gelatine. The correct amount is 1 1/2 cups.

Dislikes Subway Kissing

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I both leave for work in the morning at the same time and ride part of the way together on the subway. When he gets off, he always kisses me goodbye."

"My sister, who happened to be with us one day, looked rather shocked when he did this and later told me that it is in bad taste to show any display of affection in public. Will you please give me your opinion on this?"

Answer: According to strict rule, your sister is right, but at the same time it would depend very much upon how quickly and inconspicuously he did this.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My son plans to be married this June. My husband and I are divorced. He has remarried, but I have not. However, I am engaged to a man whom I have known for some time. We cannot marry at present because of financial obligations."

"What I would like to know is this: Would it be proper for him to sit beside me in church at my son's wedding? I would like this very much if, of course, it is proper. Also, if he may sit next to me, should he enter the church with me, or should he be seated several minutes before?"

Answer: It will be quite proper for him to sit beside you, but he should be seated before you.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter tells me that when vegetables are served in little side dishes instead of on the dinner plate, they may be — or rather should be — taken out of these dishes and put on the dinner plate. Is this true?"

Answer: The vegetables are generally, and most correctly, taken out of these dishes when served to you in a restaurant. In a private house, if you should encounter this practice it will be best to do what you see your hosts do.

Jauss-Hertel Nuptial Rite Solemnized in Pontiac

Palms, candelabra and vases of carnations and gladioli decorated Oakland Park Methodist Church for the Saturday evening wedding of Kathleen Marie Hertel and Donald Jauss. The Rev. James W. Deeg performed the ceremony with William Hertel, brother of the bride, assisting.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Karl Hertel of North Perry street are the bride's parents, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Irma Jauss of Birmingham.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of embroidered tulle fashioned with a fitted bodice, boat neckline and long sleeves tapering to points over the wrists. A cloche type headpiece of lace re-embroidered with pearls and sequins held her fingertip veil of French silk illusion.

The bridal bouquet was a white orchid with shredded carnations and lilies of the valley on a lace covered Bible.

Honor attendant Elaine Hertel, sister of the bride, and bridesmaid Barbara Oldenburg, were gowned in strapless ballerina-length frocks of powder blue embroidered sheer ruffles with matching off-shoulder capeslets. Both carried cascades of pink carnations.

ATTEND BRIDEGROOM

John Brown of Birmingham was the best man, Donald Moorhead of Grand Rapids, George Jafano of Birmingham and Stanley Hertel, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

To receive 200 guests in the church parlors Mrs. Hertel chose an aqua shantung sheath dress with black patent leather accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Jauss' choice was a beige linen sheath dress with beige and black accessories.

Before leaving on a southern trip the new Mrs. Jauss changed to a light blue wool suit with black patent leather and white accessories and an orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple will live in Birmingham.

Dior Accents Rich Fabrics Swimsuits Go One-Piece

PARIS (INS) — If you want to plunge in Paris style, wear a sleek one-piece bathing suit. Yves Saint Laurent, the boy wonder of the house of Dior, is against two-pieces. His new suits are all one-piece.

One is of white and gold lame latex buttoned down the front and cut with a tiny overskirt. Because of its rich fabric, the swimsuit looks so dressy that worn with a cocktail skirt it could provide a summer evening outfit.

SHOW OFF TAN

Other one-piece Dior swimsuits come in bright turquoise or lemon latex. The smartest ones are all white to flatter a girl's suntan.

Saint Laurent has carried his "trapeze" line also into beachwear. He advises you to wear all your blouses and tops

"shorts" over pants or shorts. And 1958 slacks have been shortened just like the skirts. Dior trousers for females now stop two inches above the ankles.

When shopping for a playsuit, try to get an additional full skirt in the same fabric to do double duty.

Saint Laurent has designed a swimsuit of blue cotton with a camisole top and shorts. A matching full blue skirt trimmed with red cross-stitch embroidery can be buttoned over the playsuit to convert it into a charming summer dress.

Dior-labeled silk blouses for sports wear have a hound-tooth pattern in pink, blue or beige on white. For the high-style touch they are worn with identically printed silk squares used either as turban or muffler.

Lost Some Weight? Make It Permanent

Maybe the classic book title, "The Five-Pound Look," applies to you right now. Many a woman's Lenten fast has melted off as many as five pounds — and usually where she needed them least. It's a question of feel better and look five pounds better in your new spring clothes.

And while you've got excess fat on the run, why not keep it in permanent retreat with regular exercise followed by vigorous massage with good quality witch hazel.

New Toll Road Open in Chicago

Calumet Skyway Runs From City's South Side to Indiana Border

CHICAGO (U) — The nation's newest toll road — the Calumet Skyway Bridge — is now in business.

The elevated steel span runs diagonally from 68th and State Sts. on the South Side to the Illinois-Indiana border at 106th St. and Indianapolis Ave.

The bridge is 7 1/2 miles long. The opening timetable yesterday listed these events:

The six lane bridge cost 101 million dollars, financed by a bond issue. The bonds will be retired from revenue collected on the span.

The charge of passenger automobiles is 25 cents. The fee for trucks and buses range from 40 cents to $1, depending on the number of axles on the vehicles.

Measured in miles, the skyway is short. But it's long on convenience, providing a broad lane over one of the city's most congested areas.

The southeastern end of the skyway is at the western end of the Indiana Toll Road. Thus, it is an extension of the system of toll highways that now runs between Chicago's South Side and the Atlantic Coast.

Wholesale Prices on Food Nosedive

NEW YORK (U) — Wholesale food prices, as measured by the Dun & Bradstreet Food Index, dropped sharply this week from last week's 1938 high.

At $6.62 the index compared with $6.72 a week ago and was 6.9 per cent higher than the figure of $6.19 in the similar week last year.

Lower this week were oats, lard, butter, eggs, potatoes, steers and cocoa.

Tax Deals on St. Croix Appeal to Millionaires

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

ST. CROIX, Virgin Islands (INS) — There is a great charm about this island — a certain loose and lovable tax situation — that makes it most appealing to millionaires. Should a man of wealth ever pass on while a resident of St. Croix (this is not easy, with all the sun and salubrious air), the tax on his inheritance is slightly over 2 per cent.

Not only that, the local property tax is 1 1/4 per cent of the assessed valuation. And assessments are very low by stateside standards.

As a result, there are a lot of wealthy retired Americans moving to St. Croix from the east and midwestern states, giving it an air of lazy luxury that is quite different from the bustle of that more famous of the Virgin Isles — St. Thomas.

St. Thomas is the transient port of call for cruise ships; St. Croix is the permanent headquarters for folks who would stop drifting.

They call this the island of "do-it-yourself," which means that the natives are not restless to-night.

The 11,000 "Cruzians" are perfectly contented with their lot. Their "lot" consists of eating salt fish and rice, buying a radio on time and lying in the scalloped shade of the palms.

"If one man in a family works for a few days," reports a retired continental, "the family can live very well for a few months. When they need money, another one in the family will work for awhile. This is why we call it the 'do-it-yourself' island: Laborers cost you only $4 a day — but it's a trick finding one who's hungry enough to work."

The island of St. Croix, which was named by Christopher Columbus for a cross of stars he saw in the tropic sky, became the easternmost territory of the United States when our government purchased it from Denmark in 1917. It is square in the middle of the hurricane belt, but hasn't had a bad storm since 1928.

The natives know why. They have a special holiday, called "Supplication Day," every July 25. Everybody goes to church gives antihurricane prayers.

On Oct. 25 every year, they celebrate Thanksgiving, with the emphasis again on weather protection.

Whatever their religions — and almost all faiths are represented here — the Cruzians have a mutual awareness that their supplications protect their island from onslaught. "We know," explained one native, "that God sends the hurricane. On other islands, they goddess."

Bottle Capping Checked

NEW YORK — An electronic bottle-cap detector has been developed that is said to inspect 410 soda-pop bottles a minute. In use, a sensing unit rings a bell if an uncapped bottle passes the detector. The filling machine is stopped by electronic "memory" if a second uncapped bottle passes within 4 seconds.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Van Patrick figures this year will be "Lucky 7" for him and the Detroit Tigers.

"One thing I want most in this field of sportscasting is to do the Tigers in the World Series," said Patrick, "and I'm not ruling out this season."

The Texan, who traveled 80,000 miles as "The Voice of the Tigers and the Lions" last year, is a controversial sports personality as far as Detroit and Michigan fans go.

But the mode is the same in all professional sports cities.

You hear it everywhere. The hometown fans always claim, "That sportscaster is prejudiced. The home team can do nothing wrong, he always moans when the other team plays better."

They say it in Pittsburgh, they say it in Philadelphia, Cleveland, New York, Chicago, St. Louis and in all the major pro centers.

"The reason is simple," says Patrick, "the fans hear the same sportscaster day after day in baseball, then football, and it becomes so that they know the meaning of every inflection in his voice."

"The home sportscaster obviously gets to know a lot more about the home team, and every bit of information about the individual player is often construed to be prejudiced," he added.

SHOULD HE BE PARTIAL?

Actually, we see no reason why any sportscaster who broadcasts the home team for 154 games in baseball and another 12 or more football games should do so on strictly a neutral balance.

He is employed by the home team and the home team's sponsor and his broadcast is done in an area which is primarily for hometown or homestate contention. So why shouldn't he show partiality?

It's as sensible as having this newspaper give preference to the Tigers rather than the Athletics, or the Red Wings rather than the Black Hawks. Home area reading warrants such preference.

"I must get from 300 to 400 letters a week from fans all over the state," says Patrick, "and only about five per cent are harsh or critical—and three per cent of these aren't signed."

Patrick started his career in sportscasting at Texas Christian University and after a football career at TCU he moved right to the microphone in the Texas League in 1937.

In 1946 Bill Veeck brought him from Buffalo to Cleveland and in 1948 he did the Cleveland-Boston World Series. To him this was one of the "big thrills" in his life.

He came to Detroit late in 1948 and after aiding Harry Heilmann for a couple years, he took over the Tiger mike in 1952 and has been at it since.

"People think I'm an old man, especially Texas folks who remember my doing games down there in 1937, but I'm only fat and 40," laughed Patrick.

Of his greatest thrills, he lists the "four no-hitters he has broadcasted, one by Bob Feller, one by Don Black and two by Virgil Trucks," and then the Lions' championship last season, especially the playoff game with San Francisco.

As he noted, Patrick still has one great desire . . . to see the headlines, "Tigers Meet ?????? in World Series."

FIRST SHOWING FRIDAY—The new $250,000 scoreboard at Briggs Stadium will get its first public showing at the Tigers' home opener Friday afternoon. The huge scoreboard, which measures 129 feet by 75 feet, will be the largest and most modern all electric scoreboard in the world. It will contain three colors of light and it can be converted to football in 30 minutes. There are 1,088 keys inside the board to control operation. Inning by inning developments of all games will be shown on the board.

Shades of 1950! Tigers' Best Start

Bolling's Blast Makes Believer of Jack Tighe

Two Opening Victories in Succession Is Best Mark in 8 Years

CHICAGO (U)—There were some misgivings last month when manager Jack Tighe picked Frank Bolling to lead off the Detroit Tiger lineup. Many said the slender Alabamian just didn't have it . . . he couldn't drive in runs.

But with the season under way Tighe appears vindicated. Bolling blasted a three-run homer on a three-two pitch with two out in the ninth yesterday and handed the Tigers a dramatic come-from-behind 5-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox. It was the Tigers' second straight triumph over their season-opening opponents.

Not since 1950 when Detroit won its first four games have the Tigers managed to follow an opening-day victory with a successive triumph.

For what it may portend, Detroit went on in 1950 to finish second in the American League. Tighe admitted frankly when he picked Bolling over Harvey Kuenn to lead off that he was told the 26-year-old second baseman would fall short of requirements.

"I didn't believe it then and I don't believe it now," Tighe declared after yesterday's game. Bolling's blast off starter Dick Donovan hit the yellow-painted steel foul marker on the left field line and bounced back into the park for an automatic homer. It was preceded by three straight singles that boosted Bolling's two-day output to six hits in nine trips to the plate.

The Tigers trailed 4-2 going into the ninth after Sherm Lollar and ex-Detroit Bubba Phillips homered for Chicago to offset Charlie Maxwell's second-inning solo four-bagger.

Donovan, who allowed only two hits in his first five innings, got into his ninth inning jam when shortstop Luis Aparicio bobbled a hot grounder by Maxwell. With one out, Tim Thompson singled Maxwell to third. Donovan got pinch hitter Lou Skizas on a foul pop. But Bolling then unleashed his homer. Joe Presko, who pitched the ninth inning for Detroit, retired the Sox in order.

Ray Boone scored Detroit's other run on Rene Bertoia's sacrifice fly in the seventh inning. Six Detroit pitchers, including winner George Spencer who hurled the eighth inning, gave up a total of 10 hits. Detroit nipped Donovan for 12.

TIGER HEROES—After beating the White Sox for the second straight day, the Tigers had reason to celebrate in the clubhouse and these were yesterday's big guns. Pitcher Joe Presko (seated) retired the Sox in the bottom of the 9th, after Charley Maxwell (left) homered in the game and Frank Bolling put a finishing touch on everything by hitting a three-run homer in the 9th. George Spencer (right) was the winning pitcher in the 5-4 decision.

Podres Hurls Five-Hitter, Fans 11

Dodgers Club Giants, 13-1

SAN FRANCISCO (U)—San Francisco's Giants and Los Angeles play the deciding game of their first Pacific Coast series today after lefty Johnny Podres squared accounts for the Dodgers last night.

The pitching hero of the Dodgers' 1955 World Series triumph cut down the Giants and his teammates clubbed five San Francisco hurlers in a 13-1 triumph.

"I've never seen Podres pitch that well against us," Giants manager Bill Rigney declared in a clubhouse that was in marked contrast with the happy afternoon the day before when his team won the opener 8-0.

Podres, who won two World Series games from the New York

Yankees in 1955, set a personal strikeout mark, fanning 11 Giants. His previous best was 10 Chicago Cubs in 1953.

The left hander allowed the Giants just five singles. Rookie third baseman Dick Gray and veteran outfielder Duke Snider sent the Dodgers winging with two-run homers in the only National League game scheduled.

Duke's traveled more than 400 feet and completely over the right field bleachers. He connected in the third inning on a low change-up pitch from Giants starter Ramon Monzant who also served up the ball that Gray put into the left field bleachers in the second inning.

"Monzant didn't have his fast ball working at all and we didn't get too much help from the relief hurlers," Rigney declared after Paul Giel, Jim Constance, Ray Crone and Stu Miller all had shots at the Dodgers. Giel was charged with six runs and Crone three as Los Angeles batters collected 15 hits.

Included was a pair of doubles by Dodger Captain Pee Wee Reese who declared in the dressing room "we're always loud when we win."

"I want to give him a rest and this will be a good day with a left hander pitching," Alston declared. So his outfield will have Junior Gilliam in left, Cimoli in center and Carl Furillo in right.

Last night's crowd of 27,735 sat in chilly 54-degree weather for the 3 hour game and was just slightly smaller than the capacity 23,448 that sat in on the sunny Tuesday afternoon opener. With another big

Record Crowd Forecast When Road Teams Go Home Tomorrow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Major league baseball stages its second "opening" day tomorrow—home affairs for the clubs that started the 1958 season on the road Tuesday—and figures to write in an all time attendance record with 90,000-plus expected at the Coliseum for the home debut of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

That multitude would top all baseball records, whether for a World Series game, doubleheader or single game in either league. It also gives an indication of what Los Angeles Mayor Norris Poulson had in mind when, while making his pitch to Dodge brass in the spring of 1957, at Vero Beach, Fla., he declared "We think big out there."

By way of comparison, it took the Dodgers eight home dates to count 90,000 fans last season at cozy Ebbets Field in Brooklyn—where it was easier to dodge time payments on a TV set than to battle subway crowds or find a parking space and see the game live.

While the Dodgers mine gold in their California opener against the San Francisco Giants, the Philadelphia Phillies will beam their night game home opener against Milwaukee via TV into New York's National League vacuum.

The full schedule, with estimated attendance, last year's pitching records and starting times, EST:

NATIONAL LEAGUE
San Francisco at Los Angeles, 4:45 p.m.; 90,000—Al Worthington (8-11) vs. Carl Erskine (5-3).
St. Louis at Chicago, 2:30 p.m.; 20,000—Sam Jones (12-9) vs. Dick Drott (15-11).
Milwaukee at Philadelphia, 8 p.m.; 20,000—Bob Buhl (18-7) or Bob Rush (6-16) vs. Jack Sanford (19-8).
Cincinnati at Pittsburgh, 1:30 p.m.; 33,000—Bob Furley (11-14) vs. Ron Kline (9-16).

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Baltimore at New York, 2 p.m.; 25,000—Billy Loes (12-7) vs. Whitey Ford (11-5).
Cleveland at Detroit, 1:30 p.m.; 45,000—Herb Score (0-1, 1958 record) vs. Billy Hoelt (9-11).
Chicago at Kansas City, 2:30 p.m.; 25,000—Jim Wilson (15-8) vs. Alex Kellner (6-5).

Only games scheduled. Commissioner Ford Frick and National League President Warren Giles, who attended the Tuesday opener at San Francisco, will be in Los Angeles for the Dodgers' introduction to their home fans. American League President Will Harridge will be on hand at New York.

Right-handers Al Worthington (8-11 last season) of the Giants and Carl Erskine (5-3) of the Dodgers are the probable starting pitchers as the Horace Greeley twins officially convert Los Angeles' mammoth football, track and radio yard into a ball park.

The biggest crowd ever to see a ball game, up to now, was the 86,288 who showed up for the fifth game of the Cleveland-Boston World Series in Cleveland in 1948. The NL record is 60,747, for a Giant-Dodger doubleheader at New York's Polo Grounds, May 31, 1937. The single game high is the 54,922 who watched the Dodgers and Giants at the Polo Grounds April 20, 1941.

Thus the Dodgers and Giants still will serve as the NL's biggest draw.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

Patient's Complaint: Pulled Shots.
Diagnosis: Flat-footed Swing.

Treatment: Shift the weight properly. To complete the backswing for a full shot, the weight must shift over to the right foot. This shift can and should be made gradually as the backswing progresses.

But as the downswing starts, the bulk of your weight must go over to the left foot immediately. If not, you'll be swinging around on the ball in such a way that you'll send it far to the left of where you're aiming.

This flat-footed swing often results from placing the feet too far apart when you take your stance. The feet should be about as far apart as the shoulders are wide for your long shots. This puts them far enough apart to give you a stable base, and also allows for freedom of movement.

If pulled shots are giving you trouble, narrow your stance a bit and keep your footwork LIVE.

Beat Tribe Again; Boston Downs Yanks, 3-1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. Outfielder who doesn't fit the svelte new look their club is modeling this year. The 200-pound, taciturn outfielder is Bob Cerv, not so fast on his feet, weak on the throws that cut down base runners but whose bat has driven in seven runs in two games of the infant baseball season.

The A's shipped handsome Gus Zepko and lefthanded Lou Skizas to Detroit as part of a 15-player swap that brought Bill Tuttle, a strong armed first baseman to Kansas City. Tuttle has played occasionally alongside Woody Held, another swift outfielder who came from the Yanks along with Bob Martyn, still another scuffling outer gardener.

first two, got rolling with Jensen's second homer in the first inning against Tom Sturdivant. Sider, 6-2 lifetime against New York, then blanked the Yanks until Hank Bauer and Gil McDougald doubled in the fifth. Gene Stephens, still subbing for ailing Ted Williams, was 2-for-4 and singled with two out ahead of Jensen's blow.

Bloomfield Lanes Proprietor Thiel Stars New ABC Leader Hits 299

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Ed Kawolies and Dick Karas of Chicago stole the limelight in another day of torrid shooting at the 53th American Bowling Congress tournament yesterday when they romped into first place in the doubles division with a 1,327 series.

Karas, 32, dramatized the duo's climb to the top of the standing board by rolling a 299 in the third game of the set. After eleven perfect pocket pitches, he Brooklyned and left the seven pin intact.

Kawolies was, nevertheless, the scoring star of the performance. The 50-year-old bowling instructor, who finished second in last year's ABC singles department with 726, supplied a 669 series in the big doubles thrust.

Chuck Wagner and Don Ellis of the Chicago's Hamm's took ninth place in the doubles yesterday with 1,273.

Frank Celebre, another member of the Hamm's, took fourth place in the singles with 704. His 1,825 all-events total earned eighth place in that category.

The 3,210 series that has kept the St. Louis Falstaffs atop the Open team standings since April 10 survived some serious threats yesterday.

The powerful Helin Tackle team of Detroit blasted a 1,005-1,008, 1,030 — 3,043 series to wangle third place. Robert Crawford and Sylvester Thiel, Bloomfield Lanes proprietor, rolled 653 and 652, respectively, to supply most of the driving power.

Boston finally won one, defeating the New York Yankees 3-1 on a two-run homer by Jackie Jensen and Dave Sider's seven-hit pitching.

The A's, perched in an unfamiliar spot at the top of the American League standings, have looked every inch the battling, running ball club manager Harry Craft

"We will play a tighter defense this year with more daring base running," Craft said after spring training. "If we had a long ball hitter to drive in more runs it could be very interesting."

If Cerv keeps up anything near his present pace he is just the man Craft is looking for. The Red Sox, who lost their

Excited Bruins Invade Montreal Again

Only 17 Lettermen Among 102 Grid Candidates

Michigan Starts Rebuilding

ANN ARBOR — Michigan's Wolverines have begun the difficult task of trying to pull out of their football slide.

Coach Bennie Oosterbaan yesterday opened what he hopes will be a brief leveling off period at the first spring practice session. The blueprint calls for the Wolverines to start climbing again about the middle of next fall.

"This is our rebuilding stage," Oosterbaan said. "We have more regulars to replace than usual and there will be more player switches this spring because of it."

Oosterbaan had 102 hopefuls in uniform yesterday. He worked them more than two hours, even going into contact work under the warm sun.

Seventeen of last year's 40 lettermen are on the 1938 roster.

But only three starters remain from the team that compiled a mediocre 5-3-1 record.

The Michigan coach, inaugurating his 11th season, was mighty cheerful for a man whose team has been picked to tailspin again this fall.

He happily told what his spring plans are, who would be shifted where and why.

"You never win or lose any games in the spring," he quipped. "But nevertheless Oosterbaan must develop a sound nucleus this spring. Otherwise his first losing season since 1931 is in prospect."

Oosterbaan immediately began tinkering with two players who

"Deskins looked good at guard for the first day," said line coach Jack Bloft. "We have better tackle strength so Deskins goes to guard. Sure he has enough speed. He's one of our fastest linemen, despite his size."

The shift of Ptacek was puzzling until Oosterbaan explained it. At quarterback, Ptacek finds Stan Noskin already ahead of him. Michigan will scrimmage Saturday for the first time.

choice to start at left half this fall. "He's our second-best passer and we have good halfbacks coming up," said Oosterbaan. "Ptacek is familiar with quarterback because he played there as a freshman. He'll still be able to play halfback, too."

What Oosterbaan does in the spring and what he does in the fall could differ. He cited the case of using Ron Kramer at right half two springs ago. Kramer never played anywhere but end in a game the following fall.

"But he always was ready for halfback in case of emergency," said Oosterbaan.

SOVIET IN TROUBLE — Dick Delgado, University of Oklahoma flyweight, had Olympic champ Meriyan Tsalkamanidze in trouble in their bout in Tulsa yesterday. Referee Joe Henson watches closely. The Russian team swept three Oklahoma matches and tonight they appear in New York to windup their U. S. visit.

3 Valley Squads Make Trip

Chiefs, Maples in Mansfield Relays

By H. GUY MOATS

Pontiac's hopeful, and capable high school track team fresh from a sharp comeback victory in its opening Saginaw Valley Conference duel campaign, will lead a delegation of area and SVC squads into the big nationally rated 27th annual Mansfield Ohio Relays, this weekend.

The Ohio relays will provide the setting for the third hot duel between Flint Northern and the Chiefs. PCH won the first test in the Huron Relays, lost by less than a point in CMC's indoor test. Vikings were top competition in both. Flint Central, 3rd at Mt. Pleasant, has entered its first Mansfield team.

Only other area squads, besides Pontiac, since Farmington's hurdler, Warren Cawley isn't going, are Kermut Ambrose's Birmingham Maples, a Mansfield "regular" and Lake Orion.

However, Michigan will have athletes from some 30 schools, including a number from the Detroit area. Two of last year's Mansfield stars, Willow Run's sensational jumper Willie Prewitt, and sprinter Bishop Young of Detroit St. Joseph's will be back.

Maples' 4-mile relay team will be one of 33 teams in Friday's only event for Class A schools.

More than 130 schools are entered at present, veteran meet director Harry Meheok of Mansfield said today. Meheok pointed to entries for PCH's speedster Bob Manning and Cleveland Latin High's Louis Drayton as promising a probable hot 100-yard dash battle. Manning turned a 9.8 at Flint and Drayton has hit 9.5 last year.

Chiefs' squad, leaving Friday, will include:

Manning (100-220), Dan Howell (broad jump, shuttle hurdle), Jim Hawkins (same events), Reg Coats (200), Larry Beamer (mile), Joe Hill (200), Jim Keller (100), hurdler, rel., broad jumper, Marc Turner (200), Bill Pritchett (shuttle hurdle, rel.), Fred Brooks and Charley Berger (high jump).
Ace vaulter Bill Alcorn leads Maples last — Bob Benson, Doug Booth, Dick Boyd, Fraser Coats, Les Dunham, Chuck Olson (ace shotputters), Mark Hall, Phil Ingraham, Jack Groll, Bob Keller, Jim Reilly, Rich Riley, Bob Stephenson, Lee Tost, 4-mile, 2-mile and half-mile relay teams.
Flint Northern's 14-man team will include, says coach Norb Bader, two hurdlers, broad jumper, Reg Gillard, Phil Gaines, miler, Jim Lynch, half-miler, Harvey Martin and vaulter T. T. Mudev. Central will have Roy Wylie (half-mile), Ken Baxter (440), a medley relay team and others.

Russo Will Handle a Novi in Big Race

INDIANAPOLIS — Veteran driver Paul Russo will pilot a Novi Special in the 500-mile Memorial Day auto race this year for the third straight time.

The car was entered by Lewis Welch of Novi, Mich., the manufacturer. Welch also entered his other supercharged Novi but no driver was named.

Russo, of Webster Groves, Mo., finished fourth last year.

Mosconi Wins National Pocket Billiards Title

PHILADELPHIA — World billiards champion Willie Mosconi Wednesday won the first National Invitational pocket billiards tournament, easily defeating U.S. champion Jimmy Moore 150 to 35 in five innings.

Moore, of Albuquerque, N. M., defeated Mosconi of Hadron Heights, N.J., last night, forcing the championship playoff in the 10-day tournament.

Mosconi took a quick 71-0 lead and never was headed.

Boston Seeks Third Playoff Win Tonight

Visitors Out to Win 1st Cup Since 1941; St. Laurent Injured

MONTREAL — The worried Montreal Canadiens and the happily excited Boston Bruins meet tonight in the fifth game of the Stanley Cup final, a series that is fast running out on the deadlocked clubs.

The Bruins are a hungry hockey team. The prized cup has been won by Boston teams only three times. The last time was in 1941. The Canadiens have won it nine times and are aiming for a three-straight mark.

The Bruins are jubilant over their 3-1 win in Boston Tuesday, a victory that put them even at two games each with the club that was a red-hot favorite before the best-of-seven series started.

The Canadiens were a subdued bunch of players when they arrived home yesterday. There was more gloom when it became known defenseman Dollard St. Laurent had suffered a fractured left cheek-bone.

St. Laurent was injured when he was checked by or collided with Boston's Leo Labine in the second period of the game. The Montreal player suffered a slight concussion but the fracture was not revealed until X-ray examinations were made in Montreal.

It was the second fracture for St. Laurent in a month. His right cheek-bone was fractured March 15 in a game against the Chicago Black Hawks.

Coach Milt Schmidt hustled his players up to their Hideout Inn, 50 miles north of Montreal, where they stayed for the first two games of the series.

Schmidt said he thought his team's skating, checking and positional play were the big factors in Tuesday's victory and he is looking for a repeat job tonight.

New Local Keg Group to Hold Tourney April 25

A decision to hold a singles tournament and the election of a secretary-treasurer featured the 1st meeting of the newly-formed 600 Bowling Club here last night.

Plans were completed to hold a singles classic April 25 at Rochester Lanes as the 1st event to be staged by the group now consisting of 38 members from Pontiac, Lake Orion, Rochester, Utica and Oxford.

Shirley Pointer was named to the secretary-treasurer post. Anyone who has ever bowled 600 and has a membership card in the national 600 Club is eligible to join the local group.

Five Contests Yesterday

Area Preps OK Multiple Track Events

Prep coaches, and athletes, apparently like the multiple track meet idea, that has provided at least half a dozen triangular meets in area school circles this week. First quadrangular of the season, and first in many a moon for the area, outside of league meets, has been set for next Tuesday at Clarkston, with Brighton, Holly and West Bloomfield taking part.

Five meets were held Wednesday, including the Oakland-B league triple-double, at Fitzgerald. This event was under the lights, was run off speedily. All Oakland-B meets will be "triples," and all will be at Fitzgerald, the next one a week from Friday.

Clawson won last night, 72 1/2 over Lake Orion 36 1/2; Fitzgerald defeated Avondale 66 1/3 to 42 2/3; Troy swamped Madison 79-30.

Orion's Jim Drake tied the league century mark at 10.6, after setting a vault record at 21 feet, Monday night. He won the vault, 100 and broad jump for 15 points. Clawson's John Volk had 11 1/4 points, Bill Laney's 11 1/4 led.

Fitzgerald, with Al Alcorn getting 10 for losers, Madison's Leroy Hill, with 10 and Troy's Gary Littleton, with 9-1/4, were top scorers in their meet.

Clawson and Troy are tied for first place in loop standings with 2 points; Fitzgerald and Lake Orion have one each. Avondale and Madison are without points.

Clarkston ran away with the triangular, at Oxford, yesterday, scoring 85 2/3 points to 40 and 1 1/2 for Orionville and 12 1/2 for the host school.

Mel Joseph of Clarkston set a school mark of 10.6 for the century, had 11 1/4 points, but Chuck Syler (13 1/4) and Jim Jensen (12 and 7/12) led the win. Winners took 9 firsts, Orionville 3 and Oxford one. Chuck Graves, Jim Cleveland and Dickerson led Orionville. Roland was Oxford's only winner (half mile).

What had been scheduled as a triangular meet at Orchard Lake St. Mary's field yesterday afternoon turned out to be a dual, when Mt. Clemens St. Mary failed to show up.

Eaglets turned in their 2nd straight win of the season, 77-31, over Oak Park. Orchard Lakers collected nine firsts to four for the visitors, led by cocaptains

Prep Front

By CHUCK ABRAH

The heaviest schedule of the prep season was on tap today around the Oakland County area with more of the same planned tomorrow for teams in all sports.

Track and baseball have dominated the early schedule with a scattering of golf and tennis matches. Plenty of action in all four can be expected through June 3 with something doing every day until then. That includes Saturdays and Sundays.

The bulk of the sports slate is divided between Monday and Friday with Wednesday the "lean" day during the week in most cases. Track invitations, Pontiac High baseball and various Cranbrook events make up the Saturday action while Suburban Catholic track meets keep the ball rolling Sundays.

Some of the big events coming up in chronological order are: Mansfield, Ohio Relays, this weekend; Howell Invitational, April 25; Class B Relays at Central Michigan, May 2-3; Saginaw Valley track meet, May 9; Utica Invitational and Monroe Relays (track), May 10; Oakland B track meet at Van Dyke, May 14; State track regionals, May 17; Inter-Lakes golf meet, May 19; Wayne-Oakland track meet, May 20; Tri-County track meet at Romeo and Inter-Lakes meet at Farmington, May 21; and W-O golf meet at Meadowbrook, May 22.

Also, tennis regionals at Cranbrook, May 23-24; track finals at Ann Arbor and East Lansing, May 24; golf finals at Battle Creek and Kalamazoo, May 24; Pontiac Press Invitational golf tourney, Saginaw Valley golf meet and Catholic Invitational track prelims, May 26; Catholic track finals at U. of D., May 27; Eastern Michigan baseball tourney, May 27, 29 and June 3.

Thurston track Invitational, May 28; U. of D. Relays, Inter-State League track and tennis meets, May 31; EML tennis and golf tournaments at Port Huron, June 3; EML track event at Birmingham, June 4; and tennis finals at Kalamazoo, June 6-7.

Orders $30,000 Paid to Attorney

Jury Awards Figure to Lawyer for Services in Rockefeller Divorce

NEW YORK (AP)—A jury yesterday awarded $30,000 to a Wall Street lawyer for services connected with the divorce of Winthrop Rockefeller and Barbara (Bobo) Sears Rockefeller. The attorney had sought $100,000.

A State Supreme Court jury deliberated three hours before ordering payment to Leo C. Fennelly. After the verdict, Fennelly asked for a new trial on the ground that the amount awarded was not enough. Justice Aron Steuer turned him down.

Mrs. Rockefeller, who had testified in the case, was not present when the verdict was reached.

Before the jurors began deliberation, Fennelly told them: "If I am awarded the $100,000... it will be the hardest money, cent for cent, I have ever earned."

Fennelly, one of Mrs. Rockefeller's former attorneys, said that when she first consulted him in November 1933—Rockefeller had offered a $9,240,000 settlement for her and her son Paul. But, the attorney added, "she wanted more."

After extensive legal wrangling, Mrs. Rockefeller and her son received about six million dollars.

With disbursements and interest, the Fennelly award actually amounted to more than $26,000. Of this, Mrs. Rockefeller is liable for some $14,000. Under an agreement with her former husband, she pays approximately a third, and he about two thirds.

Mental Home Head Testifies

Patient Abuses Forced 27 Coldwater Aides to Quit

LANSING (AP)—Twenty-seven attendants have left Coldwater State Home and Training School in the past 14 years because of alleged patient abuses, the head of the institution told a legislative committee today.

Dr. E. J. Rennell, medical superintendent at Coldwater, produced the figure for the House Ways and Means Committee in an investigation of charges of brutality at two state mental institutions.

Under questioning by Joseph Cox, attorney for the Legislative Service Bureau, Dr. Rennell reported he has fired 20 attendants for mistreatment of patients during his 14 years at the institution for the mentally retarded.

Seven others have quit during investigations of similar charges, he said.

No dismissals resulted from repeated hassles involving the late Ivan Tobias, who was a patient at the hospital from 1951 until his death two years ago, Rennell said.

The Tobias case was the focal point of the investigation, touched off Friday night on the House floor by his brother-in-law, Rep. Carroll C. Newton (R-Ipsion).

The investigation also was to cover alleged patient abuses at Caro State Hospital for Epileptics. Rep. Edward H. Jeffries (D-Detroit), told lawmakers he had received reports of at least 15 incidents of maltreatment at Caro.

Photographers were barred from the hearing once it got under way, but several women were admitted. Women were to have been banned because of the expected nature of the testimony.

Newton charged that Tobias had been severely beaten on several occasions, and once, while confined in a restraining jacket, had his jaw broken by an attendant.

Rennell recalled the incident, saying it occurred in January, 1952. He named the attendant involved in the incident as John Dennis.

Dennis, he said, struck at Tobias "instinctively and defensively" when the patient assaulted him unexpectedly.

Records of the institution showed

Tobias had been injured at least nine times during his first year of confinement with injuries ranging from a cut lip to the broken jaw.

Rennell told the committee the incidents almost invariably grew out of Tobias' assaults on attendants or other patients. During that period he was transferred from one cottage to another for fear other patients would "gang up on him and beat him up severely," Rennell said.

Ordinarily, the doctor said, action might have been taken against attendants or the patient would be transferred to another hospital. "But this was a very unusual case," he said.

Others expected to testify were Vernon M. Borgert, attendant at Coldwater, who was named by Newton as one of those who most frequently assaulted his brother-in-law; Charles F. Wags, state mental health director, and Dr. W. W. Dickerson, medical superintendent at Caro.

Happy Birthday, Nikita

MOSCOW (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev was 64 today but the Soviet press made no fuss about it. None of Moscow's leading morning papers commented on the Soviet Premier's anniversary.

North Carolina Solon W. Kerr Scott Dies

BURLINGTON, N.C. (AP)—U.S. Sen. W. Kerr Scott died in a hospital here yesterday.

Scott, who would have been 62 today, suffered a coronary attack a week ago.

His death reduced the Democratic majority in the Senate to one, 48-47, and made 34 Senate seats up for election in November.

Gov. Luther H. Hodges, a Democrat, will appoint a successor to serve until the November general election. The Democratic State Executive Committee will nominate the party's candidate for fall elections.

Funeral services for Scott, a tobacco-chewing dairy farmer who championed the rural people all his life, will be held at the Hawfields Presbyterian Church near his Haw River home tomorrow. Burial will be in the Scott family plot in the church cemetery.

Scott began his public life as a county farm agent. He served 12 years as North Carolina's agriculture commissioner before winning a four-year term as governor in 1948. He won his seat in the U.S. Senate in 1954 by defeating Alton A. Lennon, who had been appointed to succeed Willis Smith. Smith also died in office.

Survivors include his widow, two sons and a daughter.

Hollywood Headlines

Producers Still Anxious to Feature Lana in Films

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (U)—"Would you hire Lana Turner for a movie?" This question was put to a dozen producers this week at the Screen Producers Guild dinner. These are the men who make the casting decisions, who can make or break a star.

Their answer was unanimous: absolutely yes.

"I wouldn't hesitate to cast her in a picture if I had the right property," said Buddy Adler, production chief at 20th Century-Fox. "I not only would cast her, I'm actively seeking her for 'The Sound and the Fury,'" said Jerry Wald, who produced Lana's current starring film, "Peyton Place."

He added: "We've had a spot check around the country of reactions by audiences watching 'Peyton Place.' The response has been warm and sympathetic."

Said David O. Selznick: "Certainly I would cast Lana if I had the right part for her. Church authorities have stated that they will not censure performers because of their private lives."

Producer-star John Wayne was vehement in his reply: "Sure, I'd hire her! If people don't stop picking on that poor girl, I'd star her in the green rushes." He referred to the uncut versions of a day's work in a studio.

Veteran Bryan Foy remarked: "Lana will be bigger than ever. The tide of public opinion is going in her direction."

William Thomas, a veteran exploiter of films, had this realistic comment: "I'd like to have a small piece of her next picture. It'll be a smash. It's what you call a freak attraction—people who haven't even seen a movie will go to watch her. After the first picture, her career will settle down to what it was before."

It is ironic that Lana's first picture after her daughter Cheryl's fatal stabbing of Johnny Stompanato will be the one on which she stands to profit the most. The film is "Another Time, Another Place," the first production by her own Lantana Productions. Paramount is releasing the film and is rushing it into the nation's theaters in the next few weeks.

Seeks Subsidies on Copper, Iron

McNamara Asks U.S. to Buy Products From Marginal Mines

WASHINGTON (U)—Sen. McNamara (D-Mich.) has called for government subsidies to help the hard-hit domestic copper and iron industries.

McNamara said he would introduce a bill proposing that the government purchase copper from marginal mines unable to operate at the current market price and return a fair profit to the owner.

The price paid by the government would be higher than the market price.

The senator said he also is drafting legislation to provide similar help for marginal iron mines.

McNamara said he probably would not go along with a proposal by Rep. Bennett (R-Mich.) to establish a quota on iron imports. Iron now is imported tax-free and quota-free.

"I'd rather approach it from a subsidy base because of the international aspects," McNamara said yesterday.

The lawmakers said his proposal "would have the very important effect of providing a livelihood to thousands of copper mines deprived of work when the mine owners close down a marginal mine."

Michigan's Upper Peninsula is the only important U. S. copper mining area east of the Mississippi River. It also is one of the nation's leading iron mining regions.

One's Work Believed to Influence Taste

NEW YORK (U)—The work you do is believed to have a strong connection with your tastes. Dr. Myron Helfgott, president of the Package Research Institute, which is making a survey aimed at finding out the sources and standards of taste in the United States, says:

"Taste standards seem to be firmly rooted in the personality make-up of people, which, in turn, is directly related to the kind of work they do. Among manual workers, taste tends toward the exhibitionistic. Higher up the social ladder more importance is placed on the control of impulses. Consequently the taste standards of the 'upper' groups tend toward simple, clean, reserved designs."

First attempt at optical glass manufacture in the United States was made in 1838. But good quality and quantity were not perfected until 1915.

Farm Leader Lashes at Labor's Monopoly

WORTHINGTON, Minn. (U)—Charles Shuman says what he terms big labor is the most dangerous monopoly in this country and presents the greatest danger to farm income.

Shuman, national president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, said the danger comes from soft settlements. He described these as pacts arranged between big business and big labor.

"They decide first what the traffic will bear and then determine how much of the pie should go to each," Shuman told a dinner meeting of the local federation, attended by some 1,000 guests last night.

Lana, 2nd Spouse 'Want the Best' for Daughter

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (U)—"Lana and I have but one thought—what's best for Cheryl."

Steve Crane was speaking of his ex-wife Lana Turner and their 14-year-old daughter. The daughter has been held by juvenile authorities since her mother's boy friend was fatally stabbed April 4.

Cheryl said she plunged a kitchen knife into Johnny Stompanato's stomach when the onetime gambler's bodyguard threatened to disgrace her mother.

The slaying of Stompanato was ruled justifiable homicide by a coroner's jury. But Cheryl faces a closed hearing April 24 on whether she will be returned to her actress mother or placed in the custody of her father, in a foster home or the California Youth Authority.

"Lana and I met yesterday and discussed Cheryl," said Crane, second of the actress' four husbands. "We have no disagreement—we both want what is best for our daughter."

No decision has been made, he said, as to whom will seek custody.

Rivalry With Ford Intense

Chevrolet Again Leader in Output, Retail Sales

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Editor

DETROIT (AP) — Chevrolet again leads the nation's car makers in output and retail sales. It appears destined to stay in front this year, although it, too, is planning inventory-adjusting production cuts.

The big General Motors division, production and sales leader through most of the last quarter century, was ousted from the top sales spot last year by Ford Division. It topped Ford in assemblies by 144 units.

Last year Chevrolet built 1,522,350 cars; Ford Division 1,522,406. Retail sales figures were: Chevrolet 1,456,288; Ford Division 1,433,617.

Chevrolet is running farther ahead of Ford Division both in production and sales than it has in many months.

In this year's first quarter Chevrolet built 393,867 cars against 403,952 in like 1957. Ford Division, meanwhile, built 288,968 cars compared with 428,934 in comparable 1957.

Neither Chevrolet nor Ford has disclosed its retail deliveries for the year to date. Combined official tabulations and unofficial estimates indicate about 1,100,000 cars were sold during the January-March quarter. Chevrolet getting an estimated 296,000 of the total and Ford Division 229,000.

The changing pattern that put Chevrolet back in the No. 1 spot emphasizes the uncertainties that mark the auto industry's activities. Ford's 1957 line was entirely new; Chevrolet's largely a face-lifted one.

For 1958 Chevrolet had the entirely new line; Ford made more than customary changes for an off-year. Both spent lavishly on their 1958 models in the battle for the industry's top place.

Hundreds of millions of dollars will go into that battle again this year as the two giant producers get their 1959 model cars ready for the assembly lines. Both are making major changes for next year.

The Chevrolet-Ford rivalry grows more intense with each new model year. Each watches the other's price schedules. On several occasions each has revised its suggested list price after scanning the other's prices.

Ruth Engle, 41, of 608 E. Columbia St., pleaded guilty to reckless driving yesterday. Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum fined her $75 and 90 days probation.

Stock Market Prices Uneven

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock Market prices were uneven in quiet early trading today.

Changes of most key stocks were narrow, going to about a point.

Lorillard was an exception in the generally sluggish picture. It rose 1/4 at 53 1/2 on an opening block of 5,000 shares and held the brick dealings.

This fast-running stock had additional stimulus from news of first quarter net income which was almost four times as great as in the year ago quarter.

Aircraft and oils showed slight losses. Steels were unchanged to easy. Motors were mixed as Chrysler recouped a fraction of a 2% point loss yesterday. General Motors eased.

Rubbers were slightly ahead, nonferrous metals practically unchanged and chemicals mixed.

Road-building stocks continued to respond to signing of the highway construction bill by President Eisenhower. Caterpillar and International Harvester gained fractions. Bucyrus-Erie was firm.

Radio Corp., Consolidated Edison, American Cyanamid and Baltimore & Ohio made small gains. Slight losses were taken by Standard Oil (New Jersey), Douglas Aircraft, Boeing, Allied Chemical and General Electric.

Hundreds of millions of dollars will go into that battle again this year as the two giant producers get their 1959 model cars ready for the assembly lines. Both are making major changes for next year.

The Chevrolet-Ford rivalry grows more intense with each new model year. Each watches the other's price schedules. On several occasions each has revised its suggested list price after scanning the other's prices.

Saginaw Plans Buying Drive

3,000 Clerks to Open Campaign Tomorrow With Pep Rally

SAGINAW (AP)—An all-out promotional effort to stimulate buying opens tomorrow in Saginaw with a rally expected to draw 3,000 sales persons to the city auditorium. Retail stores will remain closed until 10 a.m., then open with special sales.

Under the banner of "Jobs make prosperity—buy now," the campaign covers all stores and industries in the area.

A slogan writing contest among Saginaw school children produced this $100 prize winner: "Buy with enjoyment to stop unemployment."

Tonight, the sales drive will promote a parade with some 50 floats and at least six high school bands.

Chairman Richard J. Garber said promotional funds have been raised by selling replicas of stock certificates at $5 a copy. The certificates are labeled "one share of highly uncommon stock in Saginaw's prosperity."

About 10 per cent of Saginaw's labor force is unemployed. The national average is just over 7 per cent. The Michigan average is estimated at 15.5 per cent.

Garber said the promotion is not aimed at the man without a job, but rather at the prospective buyer who for some reason might decide to hold off a purchase now.

Subsidize Exporters to Match Soviets?

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States may have to subsidize exporters in order to compete with Soviet prestige price-cutting abroad, says Henry Cabot Lodge.

Lodge, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, spoke last night before 1,400 persons at the annual dinner of the Brand Names Foundation.

In a few years, Lodge said, "we should expect to see one or another Soviet product underselling American products in world markets for the sake of Soviet prestige. A total state can easily do such things because it can actually put the state into the export business."

Lodge continued: "To meet such tactics, the individual who is in the export business in a free country must compete as an individual with the total resources of the Soviet state. This may prove to be a competition which the individual businessman who pays good wages to free labor cannot win."

"If this sort of Soviet competition gets going, we may have to face the question of whether or not to support American products by the resources of our government."

Marie McDonald Obtains Final Divorce Decree

YAN NUYS, Calif. (AP)—The off-again, on-again marriage of actress Marie McDonald and Harry Karl is officially off.

Her attorney obtained a final divorce decree for the actress yesterday in Superior Court. Neither Miss McDonald nor Karl, a millionaire shoe manufacturer, was present.

The action made final an interlocutory decree along with a million-dollar property settlement, granted to Miss McDonald July 25, 1956.

The couple married in 1947, were divorced in 1954 and married again in 1955. They have two adopted children: Denise, 8, and Harrison, 7, and a daughter, Tina Marie, 18 months.

Show-Purpose Autos Imported Duty-Free

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower yesterday signed a bill authorizing temporary duty-free import of automobiles intended solely for show purposes.

But the President also promptly asked Congress to amend the new law by eliminating a provision permitting such imports of foreign cars only when the nation of origin grants reciprocal privileges to the country.

In a statement Eisenhower said he had signed the bill "because I believe that increasing the opportunities for the display of foreign products would be of benefit to the United States."

Prior Commitment

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—No reason on the list applied to Ralph Morgan's excuse for not wanting to serve on a jury, but Judge Lester Loble excused him anyway. Morgan, just 21, had a date with his draft board.

Globe-Trotting Wilson Reports His Travels

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Such is flying today that the other nighttime I was helicoptering from Paris to Brussels—and a couple of noons later we were in St. Louis.

We skimmed the red-tiled rooftops and the tall, graceful poplars of France and Belgium in Sabena's 12-passenger Sikorsky in a fascinating hour-and-a-half-trip. We'd hopped to Paris to see Brigitte Bardot—but she had just left for Spain.

"What's she like?" I asked the Marquis Guy de la Passardiere, husband of musical comedy star Lilo. We were walking down the Champs Elysee.

"What sex appeal!" he said. "She looks undressed dressed."

Knowing of her love for a young married French singer, I asked another Frenchman, "Does she appreciate American men?"

I wanted to make a report to Frank Sinatra. "What's there to appreciate about them?" wondered the Frenchman.

Next stops, Shannon, Montreal, Idlewild—then not many hours later we were in limousines in St. Louis, riding with Nat (King) Cole and Pearl Bailey to the premiere of "The St. Louis Blues."

"Can Nat"—so slim and youthful in appearance—"carry it off as W. C. Handy?" we wondered.

He did! And Eartha Kitt, the gal who doesn't get him—quel sexpot!

I found a sure way to start a hot argument—ask any group: "Whom would you prefer for President—Symington or Kennedy?"

The women mostly pant for glamour-boy Kennedy, but men—particularly in Missouri—like Symington, who has a special qualification for the White House: he's a terrific golfer.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Gregory Peck phoned Sugar Ray Robinson, asked him to appear in his war film, "Porkchop Hill" . . . The Pakistan ambassador bought a swank Sutton Place apartment for his U.N. delegate—Aly Khan . . . Eva Bartok arrived at the "Broken Date" ballet in London with the Marquis of Milford-Haven, wearing a wedding ring . . .

Pat Boone, visiting Paris, refused to attend the Lido cafe—figured it was too raucy . . . Singer Ann Blyth will tour the night club circuit . . . Sammy Davis Jr. will own a hunk of the picture, "Anna Lucasta," in which he'll star . . . The Las Vegas hotel where Sinatra's starring says it never expected Brigitte Bardot after all. (Said one hotel exec, "Somebody's press agent was working overtime.")

Duo: Susan Strasberg with Helen Hayes' son, James MacArthur. TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: The best thing about color TV, many families feel, is that the neighbors can't afford it yet, either . . . That's earl, brother.

CLEAR, DIRECT, SIMPLE—Wayde Preston believes television Westerns are popular because "good is good and bad is bad and people don't get tangled up in a lot of psychological complications." Wayde plays the role of Christopher Colt in "Colt .45," which is presented by ABC-TV Fridays at 8:30 p.m.

Good-Bad Tales Attract Viewers

Star of 'Colt .45' Gets Most of His Fan Mail From Women

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—"I've spent nearly all of my life in the West," says Wayde Preston, "and I've done some research in how it used to be. I don't think there ever was one sick cowboy in a million."

"Life was simple. The only thing a cowboy ever worried about was his horse. He didn't get wrapped up in himself."

"He knew just how small a man can be in a big country and he wasn't always quite sure of himself under every situation."

Preston is the big, blond guy who plays the role of Christopher Colt in "Colt .45" (ABC-TV, Friday nights).

"He believes that his audience likes 'Colt .45' because in the series 'good is good and bad is bad and people don't get tangled up in a lot of psychological complications.'"

ALL THERE IS TO IT
A good Western, he says, "is pure escape from the dull routine and nervous pressures of everyday living. It's clear, direct, simple—and that's all there is to it."

Questioned on the theory expounded in this department recently that women are even more enthusiastic viewers of TV Westerns than men, Preston replied:

"On 'Colt .45' I receive between 400 and 500 letters a week from viewers. Just about 99 per cent of these letters are from women between the ages of 13 and 60."

Preston's real name is William Strange. He was born in Steamboat Springs, Colo., 27 years ago and grew up in Laramie, Wyo., where his father is a high school teacher.

He found time both to master the bass violin and to travel the rodeo circuits as a bareback rider.

TESTED, HIRED
An agent helped him land a few minor roles in television shows—and then he was tested and hired for "Colt .45."

He is married to film actress Carol Ohmart and they live at Malibu Beach.

Arctic sled dogs can travel up to 100 miles a day.

Students Now Have Own Bus Company

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Members of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity at the University of Texas here solved their portal-to-portal transportation problems by going into the bus business.

As owners, operators and customers of the Ivy League Bus Line, about 90 Phi Psi's ride to and from classes in a 1948 model former school bus.

Three members take turns driving the bus on an hourly schedule over the 10 blocks between the new fraternity house and campus. At the end of each month each of the 90 riders chips in his share of the upkeep for the bus.

Prized Irish China Fetes 100th Year

BELLEKE, Ireland — Ireland's Belleke Pottery Company in County Fermanagh, recently celebrated its 100th birthday. Belleke Pottery is a prized heirloom in many Irish families. The firm marked the celebration by giving all its workers an extra week's vacation with pay.

Foundation of the plant in 1857, followed the discovery of feldspar on his estate at Castle Caldwell by John Caldwell Bloomfield. The feldspar has long been worked out from Sweden and England.

About 120 workers now make the company's famed paper-thin china-ware, exported largely to the United States and Canada.

Blind Woman Is Able to Use Television Set

DALLAS (AP) — Sara Suwal, blind for 20 years, has the smallest television set in town.

For obvious reasons, it has no picture tube. Yet Miss Suwal uses it instead of a radio.

The set is actually a small cabinet about the size of a table model radio, but its dial has numbers for TV channels. Plugged in, it picks up the audio portion of television programs.

Predict Faster Plane With Turbojet Engine

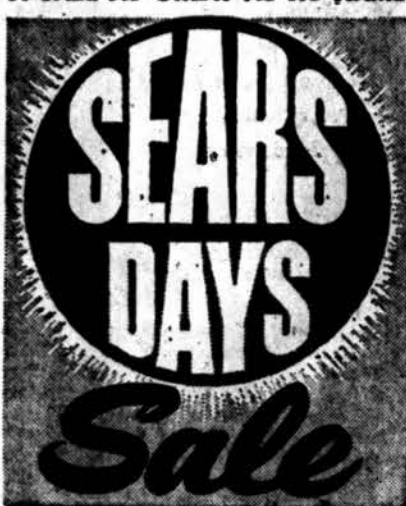

WASHINGTON (INS) — Scientists of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics predict that turbojet-powered aircraft will attain speeds of 2,600 miles per hour — or four times the speed of sound.

Planes, official publication of the Aircraft Industry Association, says the aircraft engine industry today is producing engines capable of propelling aircraft at twice the speed of sound. Engines of even greater power are now in the experimental stage.

The new Parts fashions seem to be ideal for women with small figures and large incomes. . . . More and more, we are learning that you can't tell a book by its movie. — Earl Wilson.
