Negroes Enter School Under GI Guard

350 Paratroops With Bayonets Escort Students

Spectators Orderly as Integration Proceeds in Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—One white man was clubbed and another stabbed with a bayonet in a clash with paratroopers who guarded the entrance of nine Negroes to Central High School today.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Negro students walked calmly into the front door of Central High School today while 350 armed U.S. paratroopers of the 101st Airborne Division guarded their way.

An Army station wagon driven by a soldier brought "about six or seven" Negroes to the front entrance and the students filed in. The soldiers walked with them with fixed bayonets.

An undetermined number of white students started leaving the school as the Negroes walked in.

There were no casualties, no incidents as the students arrived. Troops formed a protective shield around them and escorted them into the building.

There was a cheer at the 18th street side of the school as the station wagon carrying the Negroes passed through barricades and through the line of grim-faced troopers.

The car rolled up to the main entrance and the students got out. As newsmen and photographers swarmed toward the car, paratroopers lining the street kept barking, "Back on the sidewalk. Stay back on the sidewalk."

GUARD IN RESERVE
The 1,000 regular federal troops flown in here are being relied upon almost entirely by the Army today for prompt settlement in the school dispute.

Although the 10,000-man Arkansas National Guard has been placed under federal command and will draw active duty pay during the crisis, it is anticipated that only a few "selected units" of the guard will see actual service.

At the same time, the complete federalization of the state's army and air National Guardsmen is believed to have tied the hands of Gov. Orval Faubus, since he has no militia left to call upon. The guard is normally under state control.

Navy Reports Planes Missing

4 Aircraft With 10 Men Vanish During NATO Exercises in Atlantic

LONDON (AP)—The U. S. Navy reported today that four of its planes, carrying 10 men, were missing and are feared to have crashed in the Atlantic while taking part in giant NATO sea exercises.

The Navy identified the planes as two F4D Skywarriors, single-seater jet fighters capable of speeds of more than 1,000 miles an hour, and two S2F antisubmarine planes each carrying four men.

A Navy spokesman said the anti-submarine planes were based on the 33,100-ton carrier Essex. He said he did not know on which carrier the Skywarriors were based.

The carriers are part of a seven-ship NATO fleet taking part in exercise "Strikeback," designed to guard the Atlantic against Russian attack, especially from submarines.

The exercises were immediately suspended and ships and planes were ordered to search for the missing planes and possible survivors.

Clear Weather, Cooler Tonight and Tomorrow

The weather man promises clear weather this evening, with temperatures becoming somewhat cooler. Tonight's low will be around 47 degrees.

Tomorrow will be cool with the mercury reaching a high near 67.

An extended forecast from the U. S. Weather Bureau predicts generally fair and cool for Pontiac on Friday.

Scattered showers and a slight warming trend are expected Saturday and Sunday.

The lowest temperature recorded in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 51. At 1 p.m. the thermometer read 69.

Free entry blanks will be available at association members' shops during the three-day promotion only.

Pages of coupons, denoting the extra values available for Dividend Days, appear today in The Press.

The President was smiling. He went immediately to the temporary White House for a round of conferences with aides.

In a hastily scheduled radio-TV address to the nation, he appealed to the American people last night to unite in understanding that he had no choice but to dispatch the troops.

"Unless the President did so," he declared, "anarchy would result."

TO STOP INTERFERENCE

And he emphasized that the troops are there "solely for the purpose of preventing interference with the orders of the court" which directed the admission of nine Negroes to Little Rock's Central High School.

Eisenhower said he personally knows that "the overwhelming majority of the people in the South—including those of Arkansas and Little Rock—are of good will, united in their efforts to preserve and respect the law even when they disagree with it."

But he said at another point that "certain misguided persons, many of them imported into Little Rock by agitators, have insisted upon defying the law and have sought to bring it into disrepute."

In other nations, he said, "our enemies are gloating over this incident" and seeking to undermine the nation's prestige and influence around the globe.

As he spoke last night 1,000 paratroopers flew to Little Rock. The 9,900-member Arkansas National Guard prepared for its first day (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Claims That Girard Chased Scavengers

SOMAGAHARA, Japan (AP)—A prosecution witness testified today that minutes before William S. Girard fatally shot Mrs. Naka Sakai he chased other Japanese brass collectors on a U. S. firing range.

The witness, Hidetsugu Onezaki, said Girard pursued six or seven Japanese for more than 50 yards on the range near Somagahara.

Girard, of Ottawa, Ill., is charged with placing an empty cartridge case in a rifle grenade launcher and killing Mrs. Sakai. Testifying at the final outdoor session on the range, Onezaki gave this account:

"After chasing the scavengers, Girard returned to his foxhole and threw cartridge cases toward the Japanese. Mrs. Sakai approached and Girard called to her in Japanese:

"Old woman, there's really a lot of brass, isn't there?"

Mrs. Sakai went to a foxhole to which Girard pointed and climbed in, Onezaki said. Girard fired at Mrs. Sakai and she tumbled to the ground, he said.

The testimony was taken as rain fell on the firing range. Presiding Judge Yuzo Kawachi was dressed in a raincoat and a large straw hat.

The trial will resume tomorrow. There will be no further outdoor hearings.

The testimony of Onezaki agreed in part with that of soldier Victor Nickel, of Inkster, Mich., who was with Girard just before Mrs. Sakai was shot Jan. 30.

Nickel testified yesterday that Girard called to Mrs. Sakai shortly before firing the shot that killed her. Onezaki gave the same testimony.

Nickel, the only American witness for the prosecution, said he believed Girard fired at Mrs. Sakai as a joke. Nickel said he did not believe Girard intended to hit her.

If approved, fares would be increased from 15 cents to 20 cents for adults and from 10 cents to 15 cents for students. Tokens would be three for 50 cents for adults and two for a quarter for students.

Hoffa Campaigns Around Clock to Win Election

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—In the face of new attacks from the Senate Rackets Committee, Detroit Teamster boss James R. Hoffa campaigned virtually around the clock today to succeed retiring president Dave Beck of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters.

Hoffa, heir-apparent to the top post in the sprawling transportation union with more than a million members, ignored latest developments in Washington.

One of the announced candidates who is opposing Hoffa, Teamster Vice President Thomas L. Hickey of New York, set up campaign headquarters in one of the hotels on Miami Beach.

Hoffa has opened his headquarters in the oceanside resort hotel which has been taken over as convention headquarters by the Teamsters.

Peter J. Hoban of Chicago, campaign manager for Thomas J. Haggerty, another of Hoffa's rivals for the presidency, said he will appear before the Credentials Committee today to challenge delegates from 105 locals in trusteeship.

Charge Acts Occurred Under Trusteeship of James Hoffa

Senate rackets probes in Washington were expected today to look into reports that James R. Hoffa kept on Pontiac Local 614's payroll two teamster officials serving prison terms for extortion.

The two officials were not named. However, Daniel J. Keating, 54, and Louis C. Lintean, 42, of 615 Tennyson Ave., were sentenced in October, 1954, for their part in a $100,000 shakedown of Detroit-area contractors.

Keating was president of Local 614 at the time of his conviction. Lintean served under him as secretary-treasurer and business agent.

Keating received a six months sentence and a $1,000 fine while Lintean went to prison for five months and was fined $500.

Sentenced with the pair were the president and a business agent of Local 247 in Detroit. Indictments followed a two-months one-man grand jury investigation by Detroit Circuit Judge Miles N. Culehan.

Hoffa, top choice to take over Dave Beck's presidency of the Teamsters organization, was appointed trustee by Beck over Local 614 because of Keating and Lintean's convictions.

Witnesses in 1954 testified that the four demanded tribute from contractors, truckers, road builders and others engaged in large-scale building, using threats of labor trouble if they didn't comply.

Contractors involved were then working on the John C. Lodge and Edsel Ford Expressways and the City-Country Building in Detroit.

The four were accused of asking and receiving a fee—reportedly five cents for each load of dirt excavated from the jobs—from contractors.

The offenses were committed between Jan. 1, 1948 and Aug. 31, 1953.

Orders Cleanup of Bakery Union

AFL-CIO Expected to Give Similar Ultimatum to Teamsters

NEW YORK (INS)—The AFL-CIO Executive Council today reportedly gave the 138,000-member Bakery Workers' Union 30 days to set its house in order and get rid of officials charged with corruption. A similar ultimatum is expected to be handed to the 1,400,000-member Teamsters Union later. The obvious alternative will be expulsion from the federation.

Such action would mean that the Teamsters, the nation's largest union, would have to travel alone.

The council is winding up a two-day session in New York devoted mainly to the federation's crusade for clean unions.

AFL-CIO President George Meany indicated the Teamsters will be given until Oct. 24 to clean up conditions the federation has been complaining about since the senate rackets committee investigation began months ago.

The Executive Council is expected to make much the same demand on the Bakery Workers.

In the Teamsters' case, the Executive Council will act on a report by the ethical practices committee which contained a blistering indictment of Teamsters Vice President James R. Hoffa and President Dave Beck.

It is recognized on all sides that unless the Teamsters install a new leadership at their Miami Beach convention next week they will be making their exit from the AFL-CIO, since the convention delegates alone have the supreme power of decision in the union.

Indications are that the Executive Council's demands would mean not only that Hoffa not be elected president, but that he not be re-elected vice president, if the Teamsters are to stay in the federation.

Usher In New Year With Symbolic Ritual, Penance

Jews Mark Rosh Hashanah Today

Jews in the Pontiac area tonight begin the observance of the Jewish New Year, Rosh Hashanah. In homes and synagogues they will mark the start of the Jewish calendar year 5718, as figured from the time of creation.

The holiday starts at sundown tonight and ends on sundown tomorrow for Reform Jews and at sundown Friday for Orthodox and Conservative synagogues.

Rosh Hashanah ushers in the Jewish high holy days or "Days of Awe," a 10-day period of self-examination and rededication to the laws of God.

According to the Jewish faith, it is determined during this period who shall live and who shall die during the coming year; who shall prosper and who shall become poor; who shall have rest and peace and who shall wonder and suffer.

CAN CHANGE JUDGMENT
Repentance, prayer and right living, however, can change an adverse decision, it is believed.

On the two days of Rosh Hashanah, Jews greet each other with the hope, "Leshanah tovah tikasev v'shegagim." ("May you be inscribed and sealed for a good year.")

In the Jewish home, the Kiddush (sanctification prayer) is recited over wine, and festive lights are kindled on the eve of Rosh Hashanah.

As a piece of sweet apple is dipped in honey, the person who performs this symbolic act says, "May it be God's will to grant us a good and sweet year."

Likewise, bread is dipped in honey to symbolize the hope that, as the bread is sweet, so may the experiences during the approaching year be only the most pleasant. The Biblical writers do not know the holiday as Rosh Hashanah.

They designate it as the "Day of Memorial" and the "Day of Blowing the Alarm."

The former name suggests that men are to recall and review the events of the past year and attune themselves to the higher purposes of life during the new year by learning how to "count their days" properly and thus to resolve their hearts to wisdom.

The latter name suggests that by the sound of the shofar, a flattened ram's horn heard in three distinctive blasts in the synagogue on this day, Jews are summoned to the return of religion and all its blessings.

The blowing of the shofar holds an important place in synagogue and temple services. It had its (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

6 Persons Die as Planes Crash

Crippled B26 Bomber, Air National Guard Jets in Separate Accidents

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two U.S. planes crashed yesterday, killing a total of six persons. At Dayton, Ohio, four persons were killed yesterday when a crippled B26 bomber, attempting to land with one of its two engines out, plummeted to earth a mile short of Wright-Patterson Air Force Base and crashed into a suburban housing development.

HOME DESTROYED

Authorities said the Air Force bomber destroyed one home, tore sections off four others, and started fires in two others. Debris from the wreckage injured one person.

Killed were the plane's pilot, Maj. James E. Melancon, 36, San Antonio, Tex.; his copilot, Capt. Wilho R. Heikkinen, 31, Kansas, Mich.; and two occupants of the demolished house, Mrs. Mildred VanZant, about 40, and her brother Joseph Feisler, about 33.

Wright-Patterson officials said the propeller-driven plane developed engine trouble immediately after takeoff and was granted permission to return to the base. The aircraft approached the field from the southeast, authorities said, but during its descent, had to veer sharply to avoid hitting a high steel tower.

At an altitude of 70 feet, the B26's landing gear tangled in high tension wire and the plane plunged into the housing development on Dayton's East Side.

And at Van Nuys, Calif., an Air National Guard T33 jet plane smashed with a fiery roar into two dwellings, killing both pilots and nearly trapping a terrified housewife.

Mrs. Beatrice Stone, 42, said she was talking to her son on the telephone yesterday when she saw the plane coming. "It was already flaming—flames shooting out all around," she said.

"I sat stunned. It hit the roof. I ran to the back door but flames had spread from the roof and I was trapped."

"I started to jump from the dining room window, but a burning tree fell through it into the house."

"I screamed. Flames by this time were shooting down the stairway well. I made my way to the front door and finally escaped."

The fliers, identified as Capt. Joseph C. Bryant, 28, of Arcadia, Calif., and 1st Lt. Edison B. Gistler, 30, Los Angeles, died strapped in the jet trainer.

The plane which had just taken off from Van Nuys Airport on an instrument training flight, hit high tension lines before plowing into the two-story residence.

Does a red sunrise mean probable rain in the afternoon—as the old weather proverb contends?

No, a red sunrise is not an indication of rain in the afternoon. Usually, it means there is dry weather to the east (dust in the atmosphere), but that does not mean rain is due from the west immediately. Indeed, several dry days may lie ahead.

It is the red sunset which indicates dry weather (not rain), since it is caused by dust in the air to the west—which is on its way towards you, and this air will be over you in a day, more or less. The red sunrise has little use as a weather omen.

Thus, the red sunset is a weather clue, as we explained in an earlier column, but the red sunrise is of little value as a forecast of weather to come.

'Satch' Changes Mind, May Visit Russia After All

DAVENPORT, Iowa (AP)—Louis Satchmo Armstrong says he may go to Russia after all. After hearing President Eisenhower's televised explanation of why he sent troops to Arkansas, the famous Negro jazz trumpet player last night declared: "Things are looking better than they did before."

Armstrong had planned to make a government-sponsored tour of Russia but canceled it in bitterness when the school integration problem developed in Arkansas this month.

After the speech by the President, whom Armstrong had criticized previously, Satchmo said he decided to walk into the schools with the little colored kids, take me along daddy. God bless you."

Armstrong heard the speech while here to play a concert. "It was just wonderful the way he explained it. It was all in good faith," he said.

Of his proposed trip to Russia he said, "I won't say that I won't go. We may get to Russia on our next trip. We have Germany, Italy and France in mind and Russia isn't far away."

"All I want to do is blow that horn," Armstrong insisted. "Music puts everybody in good spirits."

TRUMPET OF ALARM

According to Maimonides, a walked out immediately. The attendance room inside the school was full of students signing out to leave school.

Inside the school, Gen. Edwin A. Walker, commander of the troops, told the students, "I intend to use all means necessary to prevent any interference with the execution of the school board's plan" for integration.

'NOTHING TO FEAR'

He told the white students "you have nothing to fear from the soldiers" but added "this is what I have been ordered to do, and I intend to carry out my orders."

The entrance of the Negro students today contrasted strangely with their attempt Monday. Today the few spectators kept scattered by the paratroopers said nothing. Monday they screamed, cursed and fought.

Later the school said six Negro boys and girls entered the building to attend classes they've been trying to enter since Sept. 3.

Earlier the tough paratroopers pointed stubby bayonets at clusters of white men and women today to keep a crowd from congregating at the school before Negro students arrived.

The troops made no threatening gestures. They simply lowered their bayonets and moved the clusters of people away.

Maj. James Meyers of San Antonio, Tex., told the few spectators, "You are instructed again to return to your homes peacefully. Disperse and return to your homes."

SKIRMISH LINES

The 350 battle-ready troops were deployed to skirmish lines about the sprawling school.

Maj. Louis Breault said 1,000 men would be on duty at the school before the day is over. Negro troops that rolled in with the convoy last night were not at the school and Capt. James A. Smith said, "Gen. Walker is not ready to say how they will be used."

In his talk to the students Gen. Walker said Supt. Virgil Blossom had asked him to speak to them. "One last word about my soldiers," he said. "They are here because they have been ordered to be here. They are seasoned well-trained soldiers, many of them combat soldiers."

The troops, he said, would maintain "a peaceful atmosphere in the school and in the vicinity." He cautioned that loitering, assembling in large groups and otherwise making it difficult for them to perform their duties may bring orders from the troops for them to disperse.

He pleaded with the white students for cooperation.

Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon, acting governor until midafternoon yesterday when Faubus returned to the state after attending the Southern Governors' Conference at Sea Island, Ga., said: "I don't like it. Sending troops in here won't help the situation in the long run. I wonder if they are going to put a soldier with each student?"

Faubus had no new comment on Eisenhower's action.

Steere Offers Land for Township Center

Frank Steere of 4230 S. Shore Rd., Waterford Township, has formally offered approximately 17 acres of scenic land to township residents for the purpose of creating a cultural center.

The offer stipulated that part of the site which is located on Pontiac Lake Road near M39 be used for a library, part as a bird and wildlife sanctuary and another part for a library park.

Other conditions of the grant stipulated that title to the land would be conveyed to the township when Steere was furnished with satisfactory proof that an estimated sum of $250,000 for construction of the library and ground improvements would be available.

Steere also desired that action necessary for the raising of the annual operating expenses estimated at $36,000, be assured.

None of the land is to be used for any purpose other than projects classed as cultural with one possible exception of a hospital site in the southeast area if the township desired.

The library building would have to be erected so that additions could be made without disturbing the aesthetic setting.

In the event the township could not furnish proof that they could comply with these stipulations by January 1, 1961, the offer will be withdrawn and cancelled, Steere said.

Also, if the township board does not tentatively accept or reject this offer within 90 days of the date the offer was made, the entire proposal would be null and void, he added.

County Group Picks 2 Leaders

The Oakland County Republican Party today announced two appointments filling key positions in its 1958 campaign.

John A. Gibbs, who has headed the county's young Republican group, has been named the party's executive secretary, county chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr. announced.

Gibbs, 25, of 65 Bloomfield Terrace, has the job of establishing and operating a new county headquarters as the hub of the 1958 campaign, Elliott said.

The other appointment was of Reverend G. Counselman as chairman of the party's membership drive. His appointment was announced by Richard C. Van Deusen, of Birmingham, county finance chairman.

Counselman, who lives at 1730 Winthrop Lane, has been active in the party for many years, heading the Birmingham and Bloomfield Republican Clubs.

He has been a delegate to several county and state conventions and headed the Birmingham precinct organization during the 1956 campaign.

He said that a drive to raise $5,000 from new party members pledging from $1 to $5 monthly is tentatively scheduled from Nov. 9-17.

on four counts of alleged income tax evasion of $29,620 between 1949 and 1952.

Linteau was indicted this year for allegedly filing false information with the Veterans Administration in connection with GI mortgages with a home development in Waterford Township.

Today's hearings in Washington before Sen. John L. McClellan's committee will be the second day in the resumed investigation of Hoffa which resulted from Detroit and Pontiac visits of Chief Counsel Robert F. Kennedy.

EYE TEAMSTER LOAN

Details of a Teamsters' Union loan of $1,000,000 to a Minneapolis department store and of Hoffa's interest in a horse betting partnership were also on tap for airing today before the committee.

But the 44-year-old Midwest Teamsters boss was not expected to appear. He was in Miami Beach putting the finishing touches on his bid for the $50,000-a-year throne of the 1,500,000-member union.

Yesterday Kennedy and committee member Sen. Mundt (R-SD) challenged Hoffa and 17 other Detroit local officials' legality as delegates to the Sept. 30 convention.

Their charge was that the Local 299 and Local 337 delegates were not selected according to the union's constitution.

From Florida Hoffa countered by declaring his legality as a delegate was up to the union's Credentials Committee to determine.

Kennedy yesterday said he loans of $25,000 obtained by Hoffa in 1952 from subordinate Detroit Teamster business agents.

He declared that Hoffa has paid back the money to all agents last week after selling some bonds to raise the money.

One of the four testifying Tuesday on this matter was Herman Kierdorf, who was hired by the Teamsters vice president in 1948 just after being released from the Ohio Penitentiary for armed robbery.

The testimony today on Hoffa's betting stems from his testimony before the committee in its initial hearings that he draws $5,000 to $10,000 a year from the races in partnership with Owen (Bert) Brennan, a Detroit Teamster official. Brennan has been subpoenaed as a witness.

McClellan said he would ask for an examination of Benjamin Dranow who has failed to answer a subpoena reportedly because of a heart attack.

Dranow heads the John W. Thomas department store in Minneapolis which allegedly received a million dollar loan of Teamster funds from Hoffa to help it ride out and recover from a strike by the Retail Clerks Union.

County Group Picks 2 Leaders

The Oakland County Republican Party today announced two appointments filling key positions in its 1958 campaign.

John A. Gibbs, who has headed the county's young Republican group, has been named the party's executive secretary, county chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr. announced.

Gibbs, 25, of 65 Bloomfield Terrace, has the job of establishing and operating a new county headquarters as the hub of the 1958 campaign, Elliott said.

The other appointment was of Reverend G. Counselman as chairman of the party's membership drive. His appointment was announced by Richard C. Van Deusen, of Birmingham, county finance chairman.

Counselman, who lives at 1730 Winthrop Lane, has been active in the party for many years, heading the Birmingham and Bloomfield Republican Clubs.

He has been a delegate to several county and state conventions and headed the Birmingham precinct organization during the 1956 campaign.

He said that a drive to raise $5,000 from new party members pledging from $1 to $5 monthly is tentatively scheduled from Nov. 9-17.

Enrollment at U. of M. Highest With 27,035

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The University of Michigan announced enrollment has hit an all-time high of 27,035 students at the main campus here, at the Flint branch and at extension centers throughout the state.

More than 23,000 students are attending classes in Ann Arbor, said Edward G. Groesbeck, director of registration.

The statewide figure a year ago was 25,810.

BIRMINGHAM—A Birmingham resident told commissioners that he thinks the swimming program in the city is "almost too popular."

James Rast, 551 Oak St., appeared at this week's commission meeting and said he was amazed Monday when his wife made an attempt to register their youngster for the Saturday morning swimming lessons.

He said that shortly after 8 o'clock the city hall switchboard was busy and that that condition prevailed until about 1 p.m.

Mrs. Rast, unable to go to the hall herself, asked a neighbor to handle the enrollment for her.

Budget Funds Made Flexible

It developed that the morning

Commissioners agreed with Rast that it was a difficult situation. One member of the official body said his own family had gone through the same experience.

They pointed out, however, that at the moment, they could see very little hope of solving the situation.

Child Guidance Clinic Appropriation May Be Increased Later

Oakland County supervisors left the door open yesterday for a bigger appropriation next year to the Oakland County Child Guidance Clinic.

They held their budgeted contribution to the clinic at $32,500, the same amount as appropriated last year, but placed in contingency another $15,000 that may still be made available to the independent organization.

The clinic had wanted $62,500, with $20,000 of it going to develop the new center in Royal Oak and the remainder for the established centers in Pontiac and Birmingham.

While holding that the clinic provided a good service to the county, many supervisors questioned whether more money should be given to an organization over which the county has no control.

The question was referred to the Miscellaneous Committee for consideration, after supervisors set aside $15,000 which had been earmarked as raises for themselves.

Hal Boyle Says:

Gen. Ike Ready to Defend U.S. at Little Rock

NEW YORK (AP)—President Eisenhower has doffed his Homburg hat and reluctantly put on again Gen. Ike's old garrison cap.

The President's angry reactions to events in Arkansas show he is ready, willing and able to assume a role more aggressive than any he has assumed since he was victorious commander of the Western Allied forces against Germany.

This is a man who commanded millions of men in a war against an outside enemy, and was most effective in creating unity to win that war. He has been stirred to anger, never to panic.

A man who has been a victorious general and is presently commander in chief of the armed forces of the United States cannot indefinitely sit idly by when his chain of command is challenged. Nor can a corporal.

Thus President Eisenhower, the statesman-politician, might want to look the other way when a state governor calls out the National Guard on a controversial day, but Gen. Eisenhower, both as soldier and president, is by oath committed to the federal duty.

Ike, the golfing President, became again the general, when he issued a statement—which, to those who knew Eisenhower in war, is an order of the day:

"I will use the full power of the United States, including whatever force may be necessary, to prevent any obstruction of the law and to carry out the orders of the federal court."

To those who think of Eisenhower as a compliant president, it may be pertinent to point out that the foregoing statement is the promise of a general not unused to challenge, not strange to trial, not foreign to victory.

"I will use the full power of the United States," he said, "including whatever force may be necessary, to prevent any obstruction of the law and to carry out the orders of the federal court."

This is Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of the United States, speaking.

Plenty of Peppers

LOS ANGELES — California farmers grow nearly two thirds of the nation's chili-pepper crop. This year they planted 3,315 acres of peppers, 6 per cent more than in 1956. Last year's harvest of 5,110 tons represented an increase of 40 per cent over the 1946 crop.

The commander in chief, explaining to the nation last night why he ordered federal troops to Little Rock, said "mob rule" there menaced the safety of the United States and the rest of the free world.

In a TV-radio broadcast from the White House, he solemnly called upon citizens of Arkansas to help bring an end to all interference with legal processes. "Mob rule cannot be allowed to override the decisions of the courts," he declared.

The President pledged: "If resistance to the federal court orders ceases at once, the further presence of federal troops will be unnecessary."

He said the safety of the United States and the free world had been menaced because "gloating" Communists abroad were using the school integration riots to misrepresent this country and undermine its prestige and influence around the globe.

Park Hotel Bought by Salvation Army

DETROIT (INS)—The Salvation Army today is the owner of the $600,000 14-story Park Avenue Hotel (at Park and Spruett) in Detroit.

The SA announced yesterday it had purchased the building as a residence for old people.

Brig. Clyde Cox stated an adjoining brick rooming house will be leveled to provide space for an outdoor garden. The former hotel will be known as Eventide Home and renovation is expected to be completed next spring.

Cox said it would accommodate 200 guests.

Paper Publishes Late After Printer Fouls Up

DOUGLAS, Wyo. Detroit Firm Opens Store Here

The first local branch of an established Detroit firm, the Monarch Men's Shop, will open this week at the new Miracle Mile Shopping Center.

The new store is Monarch's first move into suburban areas since the firm was established by two brothers, Dore and Robert Novitz, in Detroit, 23 years ago.

Named as manager of the new shop is Orville Springer, of 447 Montclair St., who has been a Pontiac resident for 26 years. Springer has spent 20 of these years in the clothing business.

The new Monarch Men's Shop will carry a complete line of men's and boys' furnishings with a vast stock of everything from casual wear to formal clothing.

Among the nationally advertised brand names to be found at the store are Arrow, Clipper Craft Clothes, and a complete array of Stetson hats.

The interior will be designed to make browsing more easy and enjoyable for patrons. A color design of soft shades of tans and yellows is blended together pleasantly by their indirect, recessed lighting system.

The store will consist of casual wear, trouser, and clothing departments, situated to make self selection an easy task.

The front of the store is of enameled steel construction with two doors and straight and "L" shaped window displays. Open wall cases will be found in the front of the store, displaying casual wear in a manner designed for semi-self selection.

The building is of steel and concrete construction and will be uniformly air conditioned and heated.

Wilson Orders Guard in Army

Secretary of Defense Moves Fast to Carry Out Ike's Directive

WASHINGTON (INS) — Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson moved quickly yesterday afternoon to designate troop units to carry out President Eisenhower's order to enforce school integration in Little Rock.

Here is the text of Wilson's order federalizing the Arkansas National Guard:

"I, Charles E. Wilson, secretary of defense of the United States of America, by virtue of the direction to me from the President of the United States under Executive Order dated 24 September 1957, entitled 'Providing Assistance for the Removal of an Obstruction of Justice Within the State of Arkansas,' hereby call into the Federal service all of the units and the members thereof of the Army National Guard and the Air National Guard of the state of Arkansas, to serve in the active military service of the United States for an indefinite period and until relieved by appropriate orders.

"I order the members of such National Guard units to hold themselves in readiness for further orders as to the time and date of reporting to active duty by the secretary of the Army acting for me.

"Copies hereof shall be furnished forthwith to the governor of Arkansas and to the commanding officers of the Army National Guard and the Air National Guard in the state of Arkansas.

"I further direct that the secretary of the Army take such action as he deems necessary to implement such executive order and this order, and I hereby vest in the secretary of the Army the right to exercise any and all of the authority conferred upon me by sections 2 and 3 of the above mentioned Executive Order of 24 September, 1957."

The President's order makes nearly 10,000 Arkansas National Guardsmen available for Federal service. Wilson also may use any Regular Army troops he believes are necessary.

The Arkansas National Guard, as of July 31, included 8,605 men in ground units and 1,331 in the Air National Guard. Eisenhower's sweeping order embraced both branches of the service.

Cost of Living Rises to Set August Record

WASHINGTON (INS) — The government reported today that the cost of living increased in August for the 12th consecutive month and was 3.6 per cent higher than a year ago.

Higher prices for food and housing were the main reasons for the advance in August although all other major groups of goods and services also rose.

Prices of goods and services went up two-tenths of one per cent in August and at the end of the month stood at 121 per cent of the 1947-49 average.

Food, which accounts for one-third of the consumer price index, declined one and one-half per cent in August last year but went up four-tenths of one per cent last month.

At 117.9 per cent of the 1947-49 average, the retail food index was at a record high in August, 4.2 per cent higher than a year ago.

Galapagos Finch Is Living Text on Evolution of Birds

WASHINGTON — Galapagos finches form a living text on evolution. Scientists believe all the forms found in the islands are descended from a single species. In time, they took over the various niches customary to bird life.

One finch became, in effect, a warbler, with a thin beak and insect-hunting habits. Others became seed eaters, modifying their beaks for small or large grains. Another species has grown a parrotlike beak for eating fruit and tree buds.

Convictions of 2 to Be Reversed

Access to FBI Records Concerned in Cases of Lightfoot, Scales

WASHINGTON — The Justice Department says two Smith Act convictions must be reversed in view of a recent Supreme Court ruling that defendants must have access to pertinent government files in certain cases.

In a memorandum yesterday to the Supreme Court the department said the two cases involved the same government records issue decided in the Jencks case. The two men involved are Claude M. Lightfoot, a Chicago Negro who served as executive secretary of the Illinois Communist party, and Junius I. Scales, Communist leader in Tennessee and the Carolinas.

Lightfoot was sentenced to five years in prison and fined $5,000. Scales got a six-year sentence. The Supreme Court heard arguments on their appeals last November, but on June 3 it set re-arguments for Oct. 14.

It was also on June 3 that the court ordered a new trial for Clinton E. Jencks, a former labor official convicted of filing a false non-Communist affidavit. The court said Jencks should have been given access to FBI reports made by undercover agents who testified against him at his trial.

Congress last month passed a bill to let trial judges decide what parts of a government document, if any, should be shown a defendant.

The Justice Department said presumably any new trials for Scales and Lightfoot would be governed by provisions of the new act.

New Miracle Mile Center Has Sibley Shoe Store

For years one of Michigan's largest dealers in Florsheim Shoes, the Sibley Shoe Stores will open their fifth store, Thursday, at the Miracle Mile Shopping Center.

The new store, Sibley's Miracle Mile Shoes, will be one of the largest in the company chain, and first in the Pontiac area.

Their original store was founded in 1921, located next to the Fox Theater Building in downtown Detroit.

The company has named Nathan Weiner, who has been with them for six years, as manager of the new store. Weiner is being transferred here from his former position as manager of the Grand River-Southfield store.

Sibley's, as has been their practice, will specialize in better grade men's, women's and children's footwear.

The store's interior is of an unusual and striking design. With the lighting and color scheme created by world famous designer, Raymond Loewy, the shop is decorated to create a very casual atmosphere directed at the present trend toward casual living.

Each department will be separated, with something to catch the eye and mood of each member of the family. The plush carpeting is in gold and blends softly with bamboo-type wallpaper and modern bamboo furniture.

Atop all this is a pleasant blue ceiling blended with the remainder of the design by soft recessed lighting.

The children's department will no doubt be enjoyed as much by adults as the kids. It is featured by a four-horse merry-go-round and a crazy mirror.

Many men will find they can actually "get a lift" out of shopping.

NATHAN WEINER

for their shoes at Sibley's. The company has been exclusive dealers for elevator shoes in Michigan for many years and can guarantee men that they will "walk out two inches taller."

The Sibley Shoe chain has other stores at Grand River and Southfield, Livernois and Seven Mile Roads, and in the Lincoln Park Plaza Shopping Center.

Gomulka Tells Bonn to Accept Frontier

WARSAW — Wladyslaw Gomulka says there is only one alternative to permanent acceptance of Poland's disputed frontier with Germany — "the alternative of war."

"We cannot remain blind to this truth," he told a meeting at the Warsaw auto works Saturday in a speech made public only last night.

"That is why we stress that the present policy of West Germany is a great danger for Eastern Europe. We must secure ourselves against this danger by building our own military forces and by a system of alliances."

Poland's western frontier now runs along the Oder-Neisse River line. It was imposed by the Soviet Union after World War II. The line takes in some former German territory to compensate Poland for Polish territory taken by Russia.

The line never has been recognized as permanent by the Western powers or by West Germany.

Warped Thinking of Red Students Shocks American

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. — Divinity student Stanley Mumford, 21, returned home today from Moscow, where he was twice arrested for strolling too close to a Soviet factory with his camera.

"I'm even more anti-Communist now than I was when I arrived in Moscow," said Mumford, who attended the Russian youth festival there.

"It was shocking to see how a Marxist education can warp the thinking processes of the students. They think of everything in terms of class struggle."

Small Women Get Big Break

Small-sized women will get a special break at the new Miracle Mile Town & Country Shoppers City.

Opening there tomorrow will be a new branch of Nadon's, Inc., a Michigan company that specializes in women's junior-size wearing apparel.

Nadon's is a relatively new firm, nine years old, with two other stores in Detroit.

Although the company is new to Pontiac, its manager is not. She is Bertha Hunt, who has been in the retailing business many years and is former millinery manager at George's-Newport's department store in downtown Pontiac.

Nationally-known brands, including medium-to-better-priced sports wear, suits, coats and a full line of dresses will be featured in the store's 3,000 feet of selling space.

Decorations throughout take their cue from a large fireplace, giving the store a suburban setting, in which its merchandize is best displayed, said Miss Hunt.

She was quick to point out that though the store specializes in sizes 5 to 15, these are not necessarily styled for youngsters, but rather for short or slim women. Nadon's two Detroit stores are at 13516 W. McNichols Rd. and at 33 W. Putnam St.

Upper Peninsula Gets Tracks Railroad Day Returns

GRAND MARAIS — Railroad building—which is something new to these times—is going on in Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

Men and machines are cutting and smoothing a grade and laying down steel track.

It is only for a distance of 16 miles. But it is regarded as significant as a recognition of new potential wealth from the forests.

The Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railroad is building an $800,000 16-mile line from its present terminal at Cusino to a new terminal southwest of Grand Marais, a few miles from Lake Superior's Pictured Rocks.

Wood products from timberlands of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co. and the State Conservation Department are to be hauled on the new line.

Cleveland Cliffs, which owns the L&S Railroad, says it has been determined that the timber products are of sufficient commercial value to support the new operation.

To a large extent mechanical, the methods used in building the line contrast sharply with the past.

Men's muscle was predominant in the old construction of America's railroads.

But the L&S is strictly modern, also much faster.

"Tumblebugs" built the grade rapidly in place of the slower slip scrapers of another day.

Trucks haul the rails and other track equipment on newly bulldozed roads, staying ahead of the track layers. A special crane sets the rails gently into place.

The rails are spiked to the ties with a pneumatic hammer. Another device bolts the rails together. There has been one problem—ties.

In the great days of railroad building, the Upper Peninsula was a big producer of ties. A treating plant west of Ishpeming is being worked 24 hours a day to supply the ties.

The new terminal has a name. It is "Ewalt Landing," named for Richard Ewalt, forester of Cleveland Cliffs.

Son of Burns and Allen Sentenced for Speeding

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. — Ronnie Burns, actor son of George Burns and Gracie Allen, has been sentenced to spend two Saturdays doing "manual labor" for the Beverly Hills police chief.

Burns, 22, was given the sentence in Municipal Court yesterday as a condition of a 10-day jail term. He also was given one year's summary probation. Burns was sentenced for speeding 85 m.p.h. in a sports car in a 25-mile zone here.

The largest Kinsel Drugstore in the company's chain will open this week at the new Miracle Mile Shopping Center.

Manager of the new store will be George Gust, who has been with the organization for 30 years. Gust has spent 15 of these years managing Detroit area stores and for the past seven months has managed the Kinsel Drugstore at Huron and Saginaw streets.

The new store, covering 10,000 square feet, will be the second in this area. One of the most modern drugstores in the state, it is designed on the self serve basis with check-out facilities.

The store will carry a complete line of drug needs and confections, as well as major cosmetics and various types of housewares and cutlery.

The prescription department will spread across the back of the store, being constructed along colonial designs and offering a refreshing contrast to the modern design of the store itself.

The department will be set off by four colonial type pillars and housed in woodwork following colonial architectural lines, in white against a burgandy background.

The side walls of the store will be gay shades of pink and yellow, with a soundproof fiberglass ceiling. Canopy lighting will be used around fixtures, while the overhead lights will be neon.

The interior decoration is designed to make shopping a pleasant venture, with plenty of floor space between the racks and shelves displaying merchandise.

The new Kinsel's store will also feature a large soda fountain well equipped to serve lunches to patrons or employees at the shopping center, as well as those desiring only a quick cup of coffee.

One factor allowing customers more shopping space will be the lack of window displays. The front of the store will consist of plate glass from ceiling to floor with no inner display cases using up floor space which will permit shoppers the advantage of moving about and browsing more easily.

The modernistic store will be completely air conditioned during warm weather and warm during cold weather. The building is of a steel and concrete construction.

ON RESERVE LIST — Linebacker Sherman (Sonny) Gandee, who will undergo surgery next week for cartilage injuries, was one of the three players pared from the roster of the Detroit Lions today. He was placed on the reserve list, while end Tom Rychlec and guard Chuck Muehlaupt were cut from the squad.

Is Robinson Hanging Up Gloves?

NEW YORK (AP)—Was Sugar Ray Robinson serious when he said he was thinking of hanging up his gloves for good?

No, according to most expert opinion. Robinson threatened to retire after Carmen Basilio lifted his middleweight title Monday night, but most insiders agreed he would try to regain the crown. They point out that Sugar Ray more try. If he can beat Basilio in a return, he'll call it quits. He's 37, and can't go on forever.

Basilio is perfectly willing to go through with the return. The contracts stated that it was to be held in 90 days, but that is purely legal terminology. Because of taxes, neither fighter would want to make it again this year.

It probably will be held sometime between February and June. There is talk of holding it either in Miami or New York if it takes place in February or in Chicago if it goes outdoors in June.

The promoting International Boxing Club lost about $100,000 on the Monday bout, and a Basilio-Robinson return is really the only remaining big money bout left to put on. The loss, incidentally, was the biggest the IBC has taken in its eight-year existence.

Robinson went into seclusion to lick his wounds and hurt pride right after the fight and still has not come out of hiding.

Basilio's brain trust has been toying with keeping the welterweight title which he also wears (or wore), figuring there might be more money involved. But that appears to be out.

"The New York State Athletic Commission ruling on this is specific," said Chairman Julius Helfand. "The moment a champion wins a title in a division heavier than his own, he must abandon the title in the lighter division. Basilio is the world middleweight champion, nothing more."

The National Boxing Assn., which is not affiliated with the New York commission, gives a dual champion a 10-day period to decide which title he wants to keep.

Akins Hand Is Broken

ST. LOUIS (AP)—X-rays disclose Virgil Akins of St. Louis, a contender for the middleweight title, broke a bone in his left hand in the second or third round of the bout he lost to veteran Gil Turner last week at Atlantic City.

PGA Drops Round Robin

NEW YORK (AP)—The Professional Golfers Assn. last night announced that the 16-year-old Round Robin tournament had been dropped from next year's schedule. The PGA said it did not approve of the format of the tournament in which only 16 players are permitted to participate.

Open Season at Baltimore

Lions Pare Roster

Yesterday was the day for chopping heads around the National Football League as the teams prepared for their season openers this weekend.

The Detroit Lions reached their 35-player limit by placing veteran Sonny Gandee on the injured reserve list, Tom Rychlec on the military reserve list and putting guard and linebacker Chuck Muehlaupt on waivers.

This left the team with five rookies and 30 veterans. One of the newcomers who battled his way to stay on the squad was little Marvin Brown, 149-pound speedster from East Texas State.

Other rookies on the squad are tackle Ken Russell of Bowling Green, defensive back Terry Barr of Michigan, end Steve Junker of Xavier and tackle John Gordy of Tennessee.

Gandee, who injured his knee last week, will undergo surgery next week to correct the injury.

In workouts for the regular season opener Sunday afternoon at Baltimore, two of the Lions' first stringers missing from last week's game were back in action today.

Jim Doran, out for three games with a bad leg was running well, and Dave Middleton, leading pass receiver of the team, has completed studies for the summer at Tennessee medical school.

The absence of Doran and Middleton along with Dorne Dibble was a hurting factor in the 17-0 loss to the Giants Sunday.

Baltimore will have nine rookies on its roster when it opens against the Lions. Yesterday, the Colts placed veteran defensive back Don Shula, linebacker Bill Koman and halfback Ronnie Underwood on waivers.

Shula has been with the Colts since 1953 when he was obtained from Cleveland.

In other player transactions around the league yesterday:

CHICAGO BEARS — Fullback Dick Washington and halfback Dick Breez Tackle Willie Lee, Florida A&M was sent to Pittsburgh Steelers in cash deal.

CLEVELAND BROWNS — Quarterback Jim Haluska, fullback Frank Purnell and end Carl Isaacs.

WASHINGTON REDSKINS — Halfback Rex Shiver, end Glimmer Spring and guard Jack Davis.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES — Halfback Harold Giancanelli and center Bob Kelly.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS — Ends Charley Smith and Charley Mackey and halfback Bill Rhodes.

LOS ANGELES RAMS — Sent tackle Charley Two good to Chicago Cardinals in exchange for a draft choice.

MAKES GRADE—When the roster of the Detroit Lions was pared down to the 35-man limit yesterday, little Marvin Brown, 149-pound whiz from East Texas State found he had made the grade as the NFL season opens this weekend.

St. Fred's Lyon Leads County Scoring

St. Frederick junior back Jack Lyon, who ran wild tallying five touchdowns Sunday in the Rams' 1st victory in four seasons, is the leading individual scorer for Oakland County and the surrounding area following the opening weekend of prep football with 30 points.

The speedy fullback scored better than half his team's points in a 50-0 walloping of Holy Cross of Marine City despite the fact he is not an experienced ballcarrier.

"I think those touchdowns were the 1st Jack has scored in high school ball. We used him mostly as a blocker last year when we were passing a lot," said his pleased coach Gene Wright.

Lions takes a big two touchdown lead over his nearest competitors in both the county and area into a Sunday game at Ferndale St. James.

In the opposing backfield that day will be one of the six area gridirers who has 18 points on three tallies. He is rugged veteran Bill Tunnell.

Lake Orion pass catcher Jim Drake, Frank Redman of Milford and Troy's Wayne Figley are others with 18.

Ed Thompson of Armada and New Haven back Bob Petty are area players with three six-pointers to their credit already.

There is certain to be a new county scoring champion this fall with Ron Brewer of Southfield graduated. He tallied 128.

A strong threat may be 1958 runnerup Jim Kearney, Bloomfield. He scored 12 points opening day.

Gary Ballman, area leader easily with 144 points for East Detroit a year ago, will have a tough time defending that crown due to a summer injury which has sidelined him for the early games.

The scoring:

Last Game at Ebbets Field?

Dodgers' Home Is Like Ghost Ball Park Today

BROOKLYN (AP)—Ebbets Field looked the same as always today. The admission price signs still were hanging. The flags of the eight National League teams still wafted in the Flatbush breeze. Even the tarpaulin was spread across the infield.

There was one big difference, though.

It was a ghost ball park. Barring an unforeseen miracle, the Brooklyn Dodgers never will play there again. Only the official signing of contracts stood between them and moving to Los Angeles next year.

Major league ball players are not supposed to have any feeling about where they play. But to a man—even the native Californians — the Brooks were sad at the thought of leaving the little band-box.

"It's an eerie feeling," admitted Duke Snider, who resides in California.

Said Manager Walt Alston:

"When I came here, I heard that this was a tough town, but the fans could get on you. But they treated me good. I'm slow making friends but when I make them I hate to leave them."

Roy Campanella refused to give up hope that the team would stay in Brooklyn.

"Gosh, I hope last night's game wasn't our last one in Brooklyn," said the usually jovial catcher, suddenly realizing that it was the season finale at Ebbets Field.

"I'm afraid it was the last game in Brooklyn," observed outfielder Carl Furillo sadly. "This is a sorry bunch to have to leave here. It is a good town."

Gil Hodges, the big first baseman, who married a Brooklyn girl and has resided the year-round here the past eight years, said simply:

"I hate to leave."

"It's a funny feeling," said veteran pitcher Carl Erskine. "Every play you watch, you realize that you'll never see the same thing at Ebbets Field again."

Captain Pee Wee Reese, the senior Brook in point of service, shook his head and said:

"I don't think any ball player anywhere ever had better treatment than I here in Brooklyn. It's tough."

A crowd of 6,702 turned out for the finale and it resulted in a 2-0 victory for the Brooks over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Organist Gladys Gooding kept up a running selection of reminiscent songs and when the ball game was over, she played Auld Lang Syne.

And the wake ended.

DR. HOMER HAMMONTREE

Start Evangelist Series Tonight

2 Outstanding Leaders to Hold Nightly Services at Mandon Lake Church

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP—Dr. Homer A. Hammontree and Paul Beckwith are holding a series of evangelistic meetings at the Mandon Lake Community Church on Round Lake Road.

The meetings which start tonight, will conclude on Sunday, Oct. 6, with services held at 7:30 p. m. each evening.

Dr. Hammontree was for six years the head of the music department at the Moody Bible Institute and has served as song leader for many of the nation's leading evangelists, including work with the "Billy" Sunday team. He has an outstanding ministry with servicemen during the last two wars.

Beckwith, a native of Michigan is a graduate of Dallas Theological Seminary and has been active with the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship. He has edited hymnbooks and authored many articles that have appeared in Christian magazines.

Both men, active on the conference programs of many churches, have a unique teaching ministry.

The church is located north of Cooley Lake road. The Rev. Dorr W. Fockler, pastor of the church has extended an invitation to the public to attend the meetings.

Dr. Leslie Greene to Talk Thursday at Clarkston

CLARKSTON—Dr. Leslie Green, Superintendent of Clarkston Community Schools, will be guest speaker at the general membership meeting of the Clarkston Gardens Improvement Assn., Thursday, at Clarkston Methodist Church.

Topic for the evening will be "Plans for Future Development."

The Association now is publishing a monthly newspaper, with Mrs. Douglas Griffiths as chairman of publications. A bowling league also is in the process of being formed.

A "Hard Times Dance" is planned for members and friends of the group Oct. 11, at the Community Center.

level garage, other "rodders" driving by — come to a screeching stop to investigate and examine the progress made.

Originally, the scat-going vehicle was a 1932 Ford pick-up truck. A 1948 Mercury engine with a stroked-Cam aluminum flywheel and triple carbs were installed. Special chrome racing type domed pistons dominate the top.

The chassis was stripped, the cab cut way down, then mounted on the framework. Inside, the most important item is the unusual Stewart-Warner dash board for the various instruments. Soon a safety belt will be attached to the sides.

Up front, there are 670 x 15 inch tires, while on the rear wheel there is 800 x 15 rubber. Ned has a fine radio installed, too, but is "not concerned about a heater."

Other equipment includes airplane-type tube shocks, and the protective roll-bar, so necessary in hotrod racing. In contests, "Baby-Mint" takes the curves at 84 miles per hour, Ned said.

Although Milford does not have a Hot Rodders organization at the present time, plans are being made to re-organize the "Clipped Angels," which folded up in 1955.

Most of the local teenagers belong to the "Spark Plugs," in South Lyon, according to Watson, and they are affiliated with twenty active clubs in Michigan.

Each Monday night the boys get together and help members work on their cars. There are nine rods under construction now, and "as far as that goes," Ned

Prices of Eggs Won't Be Aided by Flu Vaccine

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Agriculture Department has announced officially that diversion of eggs to produce Asian flu vaccine will make practically no difference in retail egg prices.

"The department noted yesterday that egg prices have been rising since June because farmers reduced their laying flocks. The trend has nothing to do with production of an estimated 85 million doses of the vaccine.

In the "Poultry and Egg Situation," the department noted that total demand by drug companies for eggs will be about 20 to 30 million over a five-month period. This amount is regarded by one informed poultry specialist as "a drop in the bucket."

He explained that about 130 million eggs are laid in the U. S. every day.

Martin Charges Rival Coercion

Says MMPA Compels Members to Sign Up; Asks Aid of Williams

LANSING (INS) — The organizing boss of a fledgling dairy group has accused a rival organization of resorting to coercion and intimidation in building up its membership.

The Michigan Milk Producers Assn. has 8,000 "prisoners" among its 10,000 members, Homer Martin, organizational director for the Dairy Farmers Cooperative Assn., told Gov. Williams yesterday.

"Farmers are told to sign up with the MMPA or they won't have a market, sign up or the dairy inspectors will be out to see them," Martin said. "The MMPA doesn't represent the dairy farmers at all."

Martin and directors of the year-old cooperative group called for the Governor's help in Michigan's milk price battle.

"Dairy farmers are ready to strike for what they feel is necessary to give them a decent living," said Martin, Plymouth farmer and former leader of the Fair Share Bargaining Assn., another dairy group.

Williams told the delegation he was sympathetic to their plight, but that dairy farmers must stop tending among themselves and settle on a course of action before the state can come to their rescue.

Asked to outline the group's program, Martin said:

"Our goal, simply put, is more money for less milk." He called for legislation setting up bargaining powers for dairymen which would allow them to control milk prices and milk production through contracts with dairies.

Paul Dehring of Armada, treasurer of the organization, told Williams dairy farmers hope eventually to "get government off our backs." Rather than rely on government help, he said they aim to set up an organization to bargain for themselves.

Auction of Ewes, Lambs to Be Held in St. Louis

Oakland County farmers will have the opportunity to buy native ewes and feeder lambs Friday during an auction sponsored by the Michigan Livestock Exchange.

Held in St. Louis beginning at 8 p. m., the auction will consist of more than 500 ewes and 500 lambs. They will be sorted into uniform lots of 20 to 50 head according to age and quality, Jay Poffenberger, assistant county agricultural agent reports.

The sheep are from flocks throughout the central Michigan area and many come from farmers who are shifting their sheep program to large flocks of western ewes, he added.

Oxford Scene of Big Campout

Clinton Valley Youths to Leave Friday for Weekend 'Jamboree'

More than 1,000 Clinton Valley Boy Scouts and Explorers will head for Oxford on Friday night to participate in a weekend "Roundup Jamboree."

Largest camping event ever sponsored by the local Scout council, the activity will be based on the program and layout of the National Boy Scout Jamboree held during the summer at Valley Forge, Pa.

It also will provide a panoramic view of Scouting for boys who have joined troops and posts in the past few weeks.

Coming by car, truck and bus from all parts of North Oakland and Macomb Counties, the boys will put up their tents at the Paul White farm, four miles east of Oxford on the Lake George Rd.

MIXED CAMPING

Dave Vogt of Rochester, chairman of the miniature Jamboree, pointed out that this event will incorporate many changes from previous council-wide jamborees. "Scout units will not camp by districts, but will be assigned to tent areas in the order in which they arrive. In this way, the boys will meet more scouts from other parts of the council. A Romeo troop may be next to a Farmington unit and a Milford explorer post next to a Utica troop.

"Program events will not be on a contest basis, but will be offered for participation by the unit. An award will be given to those entering at least four of the nine events," he said.

Saturday's program events include: rope and knots, orientation compass, axmanship and sawing, nature, friendship exchange, whittling, first aid and camping. Neighborhood commissioners from the four districts of the council will be in charge of these events.

CAMPFIRE PROGRAM

Sherry Mapley of Oxford, in charge of a big campfire program on Saturday night, reports highlights are to be a bull whip demonstration, trick roping and horseback riding, Civil Air Patrol fancy drill team marching and Indian dancing. "And, of course, there'll be singing," he said.

On Sunday, field services will be conducted by church officials for Scouts of the Protestant, Roman Catholic and Lutheran faiths.

Accenting the miniature Jamboree theme, boys of Pontiac troop 244 will set up a camp similar to their site at the Valley Forge Jamboree.

PLENTY OF WORRIES

Ervin Schilke of Rochester, director of physical arrangements, readily admits that his committee had "plenty of headaches" in arranging for the many unusual needs of a group of this size.

"For instance," he said, "we have to provide plenty of water for the boys to use for drinking, cooking and washing." The Michigan Milk Producers Association is going to bring in a tank truck with water.

State police and the sheriff's department was contracted for assistance in parking and traffic control. A Red Cross first aid truck will be on hand.

Inasmuch as little firewood is available, Scout units will bring their own charcoal for cooking. And, fire pails for fire protection. "The Jamboree staff of leaders will sleep in a circus tent. That's probably indicative of the size and of the fun we're expecting," Schilke said.

Four Towns Methodist Guild Meets Thursday

FOUR TOWNS — The Elizabeth Russell Guild will meet at 8 p. m. Thursday at the Four Towns Methodist Church. After the business meeting a representative from the Detroit Edison Home Service will give a talk on "How to Make Your Home More Attractive at Low Cost."

Guided Missiles Mix With Boots, Saddles

WHITE SANDS PROVING GROUND, N. M. (INS) — Boots and saddles mix well with guided missiles at White Sands Proving Ground in New Mexico.

The missiles belong to the Army, Navy, and Air Force. The cowboy gear belongs to the five men who keep stray cattle and humans out of the missile paths.

Floyd Adams and four cowpokes under his direction, patrol the 100-mile-long range from sunrise to sundown five days a week. In two years they have "corralled" 200 horses, nearly half of them wild.

The modern cowboys are not surprised to bring in as many as 300 stray cattle in one week alone. Trespassers of the human kind aren't nearly so numerous but they frequently dare sudden death by wandering past the danger warnings.

The four riders working under Adams are Donald Graham, Fred English, Tom Dayberry, and Delph Pate, all with at least 15 years of cowboy know-how.
