Looks Over MSU Blast Scene

AP Wirephoto

LAB WRECKED — A reporter looks over the scene of an explosion and flash fire in a Michigan State University chemical laboratory. Two graduate students were critically burned in the blast while conducting routine distillation experiments. Three other students were injured. Windows were blown out of adjoining rooms. The fire was confined to the lab.

Two Students in Critical Condition

MSU Blast Injures Five

EAST LANSING (UPI)—Two of the five Michigan State graduate students injured in an explosion and fire in a chemistry laboratory last night remained in critical condition today.

★ ★ ★

A third student was listed as serious as a result of the blast and fire that caused "several thousand dollars" damage to the lab in the MSU Kedzie Chemical Building.

In worst condition was Harlow M. Mork, 24, of Trenton, who was operated on this morning. Phillip A. Shreiner, 25, of Lansdale, Pa., who also underwent emergency surgery this morning, was also in critical condition. Both suffered severe burns and shock.

Mork was transferred this morning from the Lansing hospital where he was kept overnight to University Hospital at Ann Arbor for "specialty work on his eyes."

STANDING AT COUNTERS

All the injured suffered the most burns from the waist up because they were standing at counters when the blast occurred.

Fillmore Freeman, 23, of Chicago, suffered first and third degree burns over 20 to 30 per cent of his body. He was described by officials at St. Lawrence Hospital as serious.

Ernest P. Benson Jr., 23, of New Castle, Pa. and James L. Corbin, 24, East Lansing, were treated for minor burns and cuts and released.

★ ★ ★

The chemistry building is "obsolete by today's standards." University President John A. Hannah said today.

Hannah said the 35-year-old building, which had $15,000 damage, was not built to accommodate "the kind of work now demanded of students in chemistry, especially at the advanced level."

"We continue to hope that funds will be forthcoming in the future to add a fireproof addition to the building . . ." Hannah said.

Dr. Lawrence Quill, head of the MSU Chemistry Department, said he was "still in the dark as to exactly what caused the explosion."

"We know they were working with compounds in a distilling experiment," he said. "We have to go back today and check through the debris to try to piece together an explanation."

★ ★ ★

Quill said windows in several adjoining rooms in the chemistry building were blown out, but fire damage was confined to the one lab room.

He said Shreiner was "probably doing a routine distillation experiment when the blast occurred." Four of the students managed to run from the room, but Shreiner was trapped.

East Lansing Fire Department Lt. Arnold Gordon, who said he was guided into the blackened laboratory by Shreiner's cries, dragged the injured student out.

One witness described the confusion as "an explosion and soot everywhere."

Cool, Possible Rain Forecast for City Tonight

Ghosts and goblins will have to don warm jackets under their costumes tonight as the temperature will continue cool with a low of 44 degrees.

★ ★ ★

A light drizzle is possible.

A little rain or drizzle is predicted for Saturday's football games. The high will be 56.

For the next five days' temperatures will average about four degrees above the normal high of 54 and normal low of 38.

★ ★ ★

Precipitation will total about one half inch in rain Saturday or Sunday.

Lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 38 degrees. Easterly winds at 1:15 p.m. were gently blowing at two miles an hour.

At 2 p.m. the thermometer read 58.

Nine Months Figure Is Double; 200,000 Men Now Strike-Idled

DETROIT (UP)—The steel strike will put huge General Motors out of the car-building business next week.

The world's largest manufacturing company has run out of steel. Most of its auto assembly lines are closed or will be by tonight. An estimated 200,000 GM employes will be idled.

Even more layoffs will come next week as the remaining assembly plants at Flint and Willow Run, Kansas City, Mo. and Oakland, Calif. run out of parts.

This labor situation develops just as GM issued its third quarter financial report Thursday night, showing net earnings of 135 million dollars for the July-September period and 725 million for the first nine months.

★ ★ ★

GM's profits, equal to $2.55 per share for the first nine months and 47 cents a share for the third quarter, compared with 339 million dollars for the first nine months of last year and 65 million for the third quarter of 1958.

★ ★ ★

Board Chairman Frederic G. Donner and President John F. Gordon, commenting on the steel situation, said the shortages didn't bother third-quarter operations because the company's supplies of steel were as large as it was possible to accumulate.

★ ★ ★

How long the shutdowns last depends on when fresh supplies of steel become available. Industry sources say it will take at least three and possibly up to five weeks after steel production begins before sufficient parts can be made to bring assembly lines into operation again.

Normally, automakers consume 15 to 20 per cent of all steel output. It takes about two tons of steel to build a car.

Bishop Performs Rite at New Novitiate

Consecrate Chapel at St. Basil's

The main altar in the chapel of the new St. Basil's novitiate in Pontiac Township was consecrated yesterday by Bishop Henry E. Donnelly, D.D., auxiliary bishop of Detroit.

PARTICIPATE IN CEREMONY — Taking part yesterday in the consecration of the altar at the new St. Basil's Novitiate in Pontiac Township were (from left) Bishop Henry E. Donnelly, auxiliary Bishop of Detroit, the Rev. George B. Flahiff, C. S. B. of Toronto, superior general of the Basilian Fathers, and the Rev. Bernard M. Regan of St. Basil's.

Immediately following the consecration ceremony, the Rev. George B. Flahiff, C.S.B., of Toronto, superior general of the Basilian Fathers, offered Holy Mass upon the newly-consecrated altar with a number of Pontiac area clergy, priests and monsignori in attendance.

The former Basilian Fathers' novitiate was located in Rochester, N.Y., but with the great increase in vocations to the community in the past five years, the new novitiate became a necessity, according to the Rev. F. J. Grescoviak, C.S.B., superior and novice master.

Situated on the crest of a hill at the corner of Giddings and Lake Angelus roads the three-winged building overlooks the city of Pontiac, some six miles away. The site covers 80 acres on one of the highest hills of the county.

★ ★ ★

Modern in design, the chapel is unique for its triangular motif—chapel, altar, tabernacle, windows and candlesticks. Even the missal stand and the Holy Water fonts follow the triangular pattern.

Charles D. Hannan, A.I.A., of Farmington, was the architect, and the general contractor was the Shurrer Construction Co. of Pontiac.

The solid marble altar, imported from Naples, Italy, is unusual in that it is shaped like a huge chalice, and the French imported windows are similar to those in only three other churches in the United States.

Father Grescoviak said an open house is planned for next May.

Williams, GOP at Bay on Total Amount Needed

Republicans Agree on 70 Million and GI Fund; Governor Says 110

From Our News Wires

LANSING — A new impasse developed in Michigan's cash crisis today when Republicans in both houses rejected Gov. G. Mennen Williams' demand for 110 million dollars in new taxes.

Caucus sessions in both houses produced agreement on a figure of 70 million dollars in new tax revenue, in addition to one-shot use of the veterans trust fund, which has a market value of about 40 million dollars.

★ ★ ★

The Republican stand cleared the way for screening of tax proposals but left Democrats and Republicans deadlocked over how much money would be needed.

Williams insisted on 110 million dollars in addition to the trust fund.

A House spokesman, when asked if Democrats there would agree to the Republican figure for annual revenue, said, "We can't."

The development apparently followed removal from consideration of one lucrative potential source for raising additional money—the wholesalers tax.

Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams held the proposed levy unconstitutional as now drawn. The one per cent tax had been regarded as capable of producing 95 million dollars a year.

A Senate source on the 12-man inter-house steering group said the 70 million figure was regarded as "tops"—that is, subject to reduction by any retrenchments or administrative economics.

"It does not contemplate any reduction in appropriations already made for 1959-60" he said.

The ball was in Republican hands as the Legislature went into the second day of tackling the new crisis brought on by invalidation of the 110 million dollar use tax increase by the State Supreme Court.

A $10 one-shot tax on car and truck drivers has zoomed high on the list of emergency levies put forward. Backers said it might produce as much as 35 million dollars by March 1.

She's a Big Girl Now

HER FIRST HALLOWEEN—Little Tina Marie Stowe, who weighed only one pound, four ounces at birth last Halloween at Pontiac General Hospital, is big enough now to be curious about the traditional Halloween symbols, the pumpkin and black cat. Now a plump 17 pounds, Tina Marie still resembles the curly haired doll who left nurses misty eyed at the hospital last year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Stowe of 4410 White Lake Rd., White Lake Township.

School Board Receives 5-Year Financial Plans

Administrators last night in executive session submitted alternative financial plans for support of the Pontiac school system through 1965 to the Board of Education.

The measures, based primarily on salary and building costs needs, will be studied by Board members and brought up in open meeting for discussion in about one month.

★ ★ ★

Exactly what proposals to meet future budget requirements were submitted to the Board were not disclosed.

Superintendent of Schools Dana P. Whitmer said he expects the Board will arrive at a modification of the alternatives.

★ ★ ★

A commitment on whether a tax hike is planned will not be made until the Board and administrators reach a satisfactory solution from their studies.

If a millage increase is deemed necessary, a vote may be asked next spring, officials said.

Assistant Superintendent of Schools Otto C. Hufziger said Pontiac is no different from other school systems all over the state and is faced with mounting financial pressures.

ENROLLMENT RISES

Enrollment increases by approximately 400 students each year, according to Dr. Philip J. Proud, assistant superintendent of schools.

Enrollment in 1958 was 19,415. By 1964 it is expected to climb to 22,185.

It costs the school system $390 a year per student. With other variables static, the school system needs an additional $160,000 each year.

Ten years from now, when the Pontiac schools will have realized a 20 per cent, or 4,000 student increase, the figure would be an additional $1,600,000.

Proud points out that these figures are not realistic. It is obvious to everyone that conditions are not static, he says.

"Prices are not stable," Proud says.

"Costs are rising. The cost of living increases annually by 2.3 per cent.

"We'll need more teachers to

2nd High School Initially OK'd

Waterford Board Backs Basic Plans Covering $2½ Million Project

Waterford Township's Board of Education last night approved basic plans for a new $2,500,000 senior high school on a 50-acre site at the end of Bender street near Hatchery road.

The project is part of a 5-million-dollar school building program under way in the township. Funds were approved by voters in a special election last March.

The second senior high school will accommodate some 1,500 students. It will be designed along the same lines as John D. Pierce Junior high school, according to George D. Mason Architects, that building's designers.

The over-all plan outside the school includes a football field and track on the west side of the property. In the northwest corner there will be a softball field and on the north side a baseball diamond and tennis courts.

CIRCULAR DRIVE

A landscaped circular drive will wind across the eastern section. There will be parking for more than 450 automobiles on a blacktopped lot to the south.

The driveway will connect to Van Zandt street and Williams Lake road on the north, with another drive from the building to Hatchery road in the southerly section.

Special emphasis is being worked into the science rooms of the new high school.

There will be a transformer and dark room with 15 two-student work tables in the center of the labratory. A greenhouse and work room will complete this section.

Reading tables, an audio visual room and informal reading corners have been included in the library plan.

The home economics department will have a washer, dryer, all kitchen equipment, movable sewing tables and a child care unit.

Several details and minor changes will be worked out between the board members and architects before construction bids will be asked, according to Superintendent William Shunck.

Hundreds More May Be Victims of Wind, Floods

3 U.S. Women May Be Aboard Freighter Lost at Sea in Disaster

COLIMA, Mexico (AP) — With 1,000 or more believed dead from a sneak hurricane and widespread floods, the dazed people of this smallest of Mexico's 23 states today struggled against privation and swarms of poisonous scorpions.

The disaster — Mexico's worst in recent history — covered an area on the Pacific Coast slightly larger than New Jersey with a population of about 100,000.

★ ★ ★

The violent storm that roared through the port of Manzanillo Tuesday and the floods that followed drove thousands from homes, knocked over communication lines and overran highways, hindering rescue efforts.

The dead may include three U. S. women who were aboard a small coastal freighter apparently lost at sea.

Colima State Gov. Rodolfo Chavez Carrillo estimated that about 800 persons were killed in Minatitlan, a farming village of about 1,000 located 24 miles northwest of Colima.

HUNDREDS MISSING

Other preliminary fatality figures included: Manzanillo, 74; Tecoman, 16; Cihuatlan, in adjoining Jalisco state, 14; Coahuayama, in Michoacan state, 7.

The federal government officially put the drown dead at 438 but conceded that many hundreds were missing.

The navy announced that 21 of 38 persons who had been aboard the 1,800-ton freighter Sinaloa were missing. The navy report did not say whether the rescued included the three American women passengers — Lucille Pette, 55, Laguna Beach, Calif.; and Margaret Gower, 43, and her mother, Viva Whaley Harris, 65, both of Acapulco and formerly of San Bernardino, Calif.

Emergency appeals for food, clothing and medicine continued throughout most of the disaster area despite 'round-the-clock supply drops by all available planes and helicopters.

Motorists: Be Careful, Goblins Out

Keep a close lookout for small-fry witches and goblins tonight and tomorrow evening.

That was the message issued today by Oakland County law enforcement authorities as the kids prepared for Halloween.

Both Pontiac and Oakland County Sheriff's Dept. urged area residents to drive carefully because of the trick-and-treaters, who will be out on city streets tonight and in other county areas tomorrow.

Parents were advised to accompany children across busy intersections.

"The vision of children will be cut down by their masks and their costumes will make it hard for motorists to spot them," said Police Capt. Donny Ashley, patrol bureau commander.

Sheriff Frank Irons warned that vandals would be taken into custody and prosecuted.

Nearly Complete '59 UF Drive Totals Announced

Nearly complete campaign figures for the three fund-raising divisions of the 1959 Pontiac Area United drive were announced today by Robert R. Eldred, general campaign chairman.

The report of the Industrial Division, headed by Thomas F. Wiethorn, shows that employes of the nine plants which are members of the Pontiac Manufacturers Assn. contributed $279,651.43, or 42 per cent of the entire campaign goal, $647,698.

Plant corporate gifts added an additional $134,774.12, or 20.8 per cent of the campaign goal. The Industrial Division contributed a total of $414,425.55, or 62.4 per cent of the goal, according to Wiethorn.

Additional industrial monies are still coming in from 65 smaller industrial plants. At present, Wiethorn said, this group's contribution stands at $3,000.

The tentative total of $417,425.55 is the largest amount of money contributed by the Industrial Division in the history of the Pontiac Area United Fund.

Fisher Body Division, with 2,600 contributing employes giving an average of $13.38 each, contributed $34,779.64.

Close behind were the 8,498 contributing employes of General Motors Truck and Coach Division and the 10,074 contributing employes of the Pontiac Motor Division. Employes of the two divi-

Thor Squadrons Being Cut to Four

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Defense Department today canceled out one of the 1,500-mile Thor missile squadrons scheduled to be deployed abroad. Four squadrons rather than five will now be sent overseas.

★ ★ ★

The Pentagon announcement also said "production of the missile by the Douglas Aircraft Co. is being phased down immediately" at Santa Monica, Calif.

The announcement said that "since special requirements by the defense department and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration still exist, limited production of the Thor will continue until these needs are met."

The reduction, which may save $100,000,000 in the billion-dollar Air Force Thor program, presumably was because many European countries refused to receive the missiles.

Reuther Calls Bigamist Story a Lie; Says Nikita Angered in Frisco Visit

DETROIT (UP)—Walter P. Reuther says a personal attack made on him in Moscow, picturing him as a bigamist and a lackey of General Motors, is based on "complete fabrication and falsehood."

The Soviet Union's government-controlled trade unions leveled a bitter blast yesterday at the United Auto Workers president, accusing him of deserting a Russian wife in the 1930s.

The attack was made in Trud, a trade union newspaper.

Reuther attributed the attack to an encounter he and other U.S. labor leaders had with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev in San Francisco last month.

Reuther, who also is an AFL-CIO vice president, made headlines with his account of how Khrushchev was told off by labor leaders. Reuther said Khrushchev had referred to himself as dictator of the working classes. Later union leaders said Khrushchev had not used the word dictator but "head."

CALLS HIM A LACKEY

Moscow Radio reacted angrily to Reuther's account of the talks.

Trud devoted a page to Reuther under the headline: "Get acquainted with Mr. Reuther, lackey of the monopolists."

In the early 30s Reuther, who is now 52, spent three years in Europe and the Orient observing auto plants and machine shops. He was for a time in a group of American workers at the Soviets' Gorky auto plant.

Trud's article purported to give an account of Reuther's activities in Russia.

★ ★ ★

The denunciation included letters from persons who said they worked with Reuther at Gorky. A document said to be Reuther's employment card showed he left the Gorky job March 27, 1935, and was not a Communist Party member.

PRINT HIS PICTURE

Among Trud's photographs was a 1934 picture of Gorky workers, with one identified as Reuther. Next to it was a more recent photograph of Reuther shaking hands with a General Motors executive under a caption saying: "Having sold out the interests of the workers to become a lackey of the monopolists, see with what servility Reuther shakes hands with one of the directors of General Motors, Louis Seaton."

Seaton is GM vice president in charge of personnel and acts as the company's chief negotiator in contract talks with the UAW.

Trud then added a romantic touch to its story.

A woman, signing only N—the Russian signature for anonymity — wrote that she first met Reuther when she passed the place where he lived and heard a voice call "Hello Miss, one moment."

She turned around and saw a red-haired man who asked to walk her home.

"That is how we got acquainted. We went to the cinema once," she wrote, and registered their marriage a week later.

"I was 19 years old. I grew up without a mother and no one to warn me — we went to dances, but talked of other things —" he vowed his love at first sight. He said he had dedicated his life to the workers and needed a true girl friend.

"He spoke about the chains of capitalist labor which must be broken, about bloodthirsty exploiters — my God, what didn't he talk about. Anyone's head would have been turned, let alone an inexperienced girl.

"Soon after we got married, he stopped talking about politics and I no longer heard beautiful speeches about class struggle. There was next to me merely a miserly, reticent man. He reiterated without end that one must be careful with money.

"After we had lived together eight months, he told me 'I am leaving for America.' He promised to write but I knew it was a lie. Before me he was a scoundrel, egoist, a man who would do anything for the sake of personal comfort.

"But all wounds heal and this one did too. I have been married again for a long time. My husband is an engineer esteemed by everyone. We have a wonderful daughter."

3rd Pneumonia Spell Hits Reb Vet, 116

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Walter "Old Reb" Williams, the last surviving veteran of the Civil War, struggled for life today against his third attack of pneumonia this year.

The old soldier, who expects to observe his 117th birthday on Nov. 14, was thrust back under an oxygen tent yesterday.

Williams contracted pneumonia a week ago and Dr. Russell Wolfe kept the old veteran under an oxygen tent three days.

★ ★ ★

But by Monday, Williams seemed improved enough to breathe naturally and Wolfe removed the tent. The old man's daughter, Mrs. Willie Mae Bowles, managed to get her father to eat scrambled eggs rather than be fed liquids with an eyedropper.

★ ★ ★

But late Wednesday the Confederate suffered a relapse.

"He seemed to get worse yesterday so I had to put him back under the oxygen tent this morning," Dr. Wolfe said yesterday.

"He's not critical, but he's pretty seriously ill," Mrs. Bowles said. "We're having to feed him liquids again."

Dartmouth College Lauds 4 Seaholm High Grads

BIRMINGHAM — Seaholm High School here has been notified that it will receive a citation and plaque from Dartmouth College in the near future on the merits of four graduates of the high school now attending the New Hampshire college.

★ ★ ★

Ross A. Wagner, principal of Seaholm, said he received a letter yesterday telling of the awards.

He said the annual award goes to the school which has four or more students in the college's freshman year for their combined scholastic record over the past year.

Students receiving the Dartmouth honors were all Seaholm graduates in June 1958.

★ ★ ★

They are David Muhlitner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Muhlitner, 1215 Brookwood; James Barnum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barnum, 1369 Westwood; Richard Bragaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bragaw, 1033 Kennesaw, all of Birmingham; and Peter Brink, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Brink, now living in New Jersey.

★ ★ ★

The four will graduate from Dartmouth in 1962.

"This is a wonderful award for the school," Wagner said, "It speaks well for all the students of Seaholm.

"This is the first time we have received an award for the combined efforts of past students," Wagner added.

★ ★ ★

"However, we have received awards from Dartmouth College for past achievements of individuals who have graduated from here."

"Only last year," Wagner noted, "one of our past students was distinguished with the Haskins and Sells Foundation Award in the Dartmouth School of Business."

Wagner said that the letter stated a local resident, James D. Tracy, a Dartmouth alumnus, will present him the award.

Seaholm High School has the distinction of having four students chosen to study in a foreign country. It is one of three schools in the U.S. to have that many pupils go abroad.

The four students are Natalie Gingell, studying in Norway; Dan Rodgers, Switzerland; Jane Thompson, the Netherlands, and Eleanor Sims, Belgium.

Requirements to go abroad are high since each student has to learn and study the language of the country where they are attending the winter program.

Cost of road oiling on Birmingham streets was only one-eighth of the amount the city had set aside for its share in the program, reports James H. Purkiss, city finance director.

Special assessments levied against private property totaled $22,263, while the cost was only $22,160, a savings of $103, Purkiss said.

The city had only to pay $449 toward the program out of a reserve fund of $4,000.

Want Tax Refund Blank? Get It Here

The office at 10 S. Mill St. promises to become an unusually busy place.

★ ★ ★

The Department of Revenue Office serving most of southeastern Michigan is located there.

If you want a refund on the unconstitutional use tax, go there. That's where the application blanks are — the first step in getting a refund.

"We've only had two requests for application blanks so far," said L. C. Horton, assistant district manager of the office.

"Both were from persons who paid the use tax on new automobiles."

★ ★ ★

But the office has had dozens of inquiries over the telephone, he said, and expects a flood of people to drop in for application blanks.

The telephone inquiries, he said, were made by people who had paid the tax on big purchases—cars, furniture, building materials.

★ ★ ★

Apparently there won't be much demand for refunds on smaller purchases.

The Pontiac office has only a few application blanks at present, but expects more soon, said Horton.

★ ★ ★

The Pontiac office serves Oakland, Macomb, Washtenaw and Monroe counties and all of the thumb area.

In order to save money, Horton said, the Pontiac office has decided not to distribute the application blanks by mail.

The blanks — relatively simple to fill out—are to be mailed to Lansing, where the Department of Revenue headquarters will process them.

★ ★ ★

A copy of the bill of sale, indicating that the use tax was paid, must accompany the application to Lansing.

It's best if the one per cent use tax is shown separately from the three per cent sales tax on the bill of sale.

The Department of Revenue will send out the refunds by mail.

JERRY L. KOCH

Press Carrier Looks to Career in Engineering

Looking forward to a career in engineering is Pontiac Press carrier Jerry L. Koch of 3551 Coseyburn Dr., Waterford Township.

★ ★ ★

This 14-year-old John D. Pierce Junior High student plans to make engineering his field of study at the University of Michigan some day.

Jerry delivers The Press to subscribers in the Lake Oakland area. He's been making his daily rounds two years.

For Jerry, his route and his hobbies go hand in hand.

★ ★ ★

He's an avid water skier and has bought his own boat and water skis with earnings, as well as buying a bike and maintaining his own bank account.

When fall rolls around, Jerry says hunting takes up where the boating and skiing leave off.

He was one of 10 Pontiac Press carriers named by the Inland Daily Press Assn. to receive award certificates as outstanding newspaper boys.

Funds Added to Flood Study

Government Allocates $4,900 for Survey of Tri-County Conditions

Federal funds in the amount of $4,900 have been allocated for a preliminary survey of flooding conditions in the three-county area of Oakland, Macomb and Wayne, it was announced today.

Congressman William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland County) said the money supplements funds previously appropriated to study flooding conditions of the Clinton River, River Rouge and Huron River.

As a member of the House of Representatives' Public Works Committee, Broomfield said he has been striving to encourage the Federal government to look into the serious situation of flooding in the rapidly-increasing populated area.

Broomfield said he was informed of the grant in a letter from Col. W. W. Wilson, district engineer for the Army Corps of Engineers in Detroit.

"I feel we have finally succeeded in getting the government to recognize we really do have some flooding problems in the metropolitan area," Broomfield said.

The survey allocation will greatly aid the city of Pontiac in its projected $8,000,000 for relief of flooding conditions of the Clinton River and Pontiac Creek, said Walter K. Willman, city managre.

"Anything like this would help us get the project moving," he said.

★ ★ ★

Purpose of the survey is to determine "justification of federal work for flood control" in the three-county area, Broomfield said.

★ ★ ★

The money will be used to initiate a study on all streams in the area that flow into the St. Clair and Detroit Rivers. It will determine what channeling and major drainage requirements are needed as the result of floods aggravated by or due to wind or tidal effects.

★ ★ ★

He said Col. Wilson announced that a public hearing will be held in Detroit within 90 days to inform governmental units about the nature and course of the study.

Elvis Out of Hospital After Tonsillitis Bout

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—Elvis Presley has been released from the hospital after a bout with tonsillitis.

The U. S. Army said the 24-year-old rock 'n' roll idol left the hospital here late Thursday.

He was given three more days to convalesce at his home in nearby Bad Nauheim, where he lives with his father and grandmother. He is scheduled to return to full duty with his unit next Monday.

★ ★ ★

Presley was stricken last Saturday while his unit was on a field exercise. He is a jeep driver with an armored unit.

Orders Inquest in Knifing Death

Louis Vanitvelt Dies in Hospital Today, Result of Brawl Over Beer

Oakland County Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor today ordered a coroner's inquest into the death of a Pontiac man knifed in an Auburn Heights brawl last Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Louis Vanitvelt, 26, of 45 Franklin Rd., died at 8:30 a.m. today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

The inquest will be held in the Oakland County supervisor's office within 10 days by Oakland County Coroner Dr. J. D. Monroe, Taylor said.

Vanitvelt was slashed across the chest, neck, right arm and left side of his body in a fight in front of an Auburn Heights bar shortly before 2 a.m. Sunday.

There were six other men involved in the battle. Four were friends with whom he had been drinking at the Old Dutch Mill Tavern, 3211 Auburn Rd.

Taylor huddled with Oakland County sheriff's detectives this morning to discuss the inquest in an effort to see if charges might be brought against any of the others involved in the knifing.

TWO ARRESTED

Two Pontiac men, Bill H. Whitmire, 19, of 3715 Grafton St., and Wayne H. Conner, 28, 79 Parkdale Ave., were arrested for questioning Tuesday night.

They were the two "unidentified men" that Vanitvelt and his friends charged with wielding knives in the battle, police said.

"Both men said the brawl started when Vanitvelt and his companions tried to take away beer from them that they had just purchased," said Undersheriff Donald M. Francis.

"They admitted slashing at their attackers in self defense and then running from the scene," he added. Conner submitted to a lie detector test, results of which indicated he was telling the truth.

Both were released from custody yesterday. Also slashed in the brawl were Robert Leach, 21, and Richard Cooper, 21, both of Orion Township. Cooper was released from the hospital Tuesday and Leach on Wednesday.

Ronnie Shane, 21, and Clarence Reed, 21, both of Lake Orion, were the remaining members in the Vanitvelt party. Both were released by deputies after being questioned earlier this week.

Steel Union Spurred by 3rd Small Pact

WASHINGTON (UP)—The United Steelworkers Union today appealed to the Supreme Court to overturn a Taft-Hartley injunction that ordered 500,000 strikers back to work for 80 days, and to continue stay of the injunction beyond Monday.

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (UP)—The United Steelworkers—heartened by agreement with a third small company—try again to make peace with major steel firms in the 108-day nationwide steel strike.

The union and Granite City Steel Co. signed a new labor pact Thursday night. It followed the same pattern as union agreements with Kaiser Steel Corp. and Detroit Steel Corp. earlier in the week.

Granite City, the nation's 17th largest producer, employs 3,250 workers in mills in Granite City, Ill., with capacity to produce 1,440,000 tons of steel a year.

The company had been operating under terms of a contract extension.

★ ★ ★

The newest agreement came several hours after top-level negotiators for the union and the industry's Big 11 companies failed to make any progress in a meeting that lasted nearly three hours.

Government mediators told the top negotiators to meet in Washington Monday unless they can reach agreement before then. A settlement before Monday seemed unlikely.

A Taft-Hartley injunction to end the dispute for at least 80 days also is hanging over the heads of the negotiators and the half-million strikers.

Enforcement of the injunction has been delayed by the union's appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court.

"I don't think we'd ever accept the Kaiser Steel Corp. union contract," Arthur Homer, president of Bethlehem Steel Corp., said Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Homer's comments were made at a news conference following issuance of a third-quarter operating report which disclosed two records. One was a record loss for any quarter and the other was a record backlog.

Homer said this contract was inflationary, but he wouldn't say what it would mean in terms of steel prices.

"Our whole objective," Homer said, "is to get a settlement which will not force a steel price increase."

The company reported a net loss of $38,926,943 for the three months ended Sept. 30. Homer said, "This is the only big loss we've ever had for a quarter."

However, the company earned $84,231,916 for the nine months ended Sept. 30, equal to $1.75 a share. The regular quarterly dividend of 60 cents a share was declared, payable Dec. 1 to stockholders of record Nov. 9.

Halloween Party at YMCA Tonight

The annual Halloween Party of the Pontiac YMCA will be held tonight in the 'Y' building, 131 Mt. Clemens St.

Lasting from 7-9 p.m., the party will feature ghost stories, a spook walk, costume contest, prizes and refreshments.

All members of the Youth Department are invited to attend, according to Robert Wisdom, director of the youth program.

meet the growing enrollment. Salaries must go up. We will need more buildings to accommodate growing enrollment.

"Building costs are going up. Facilities and supplies continue to become more and more expensive."

★ ★ ★

At the same time, Proud says, the equalized valuation of the school district goes down by $13 million each year. This is a loss of $275,000 to the school system.

The present tax rate is 18.75 mills.

Wife of Red Wing Dies of Polio in Detroit

DETROIT (UPI)—The 22-year-old wife of the Detroit Red Wings' Billy McNeill died today in Ford Hospital of bulbar polio.

McNeill's wife, Joanne, was eight months pregnant and doctors were unable to save the unborn child.

McNeill, a right winger for the Red Wings, learned of his wife's death in Boston where Detroit played the Bruins last night in a National Hockey League game.

cine against the deadly sting of scorpions—driven from their nests in flood-crumbled adobe walls.

"Thousands of persons have been stung and need inoculations," Gov. Chavez Carrillo reported. "Scorpions are everywhere."

He reported that 100 bodies already had been buried in Minatitlan, another 100 were still to be buried and officials believed that possibly 600 more would be found in the rubble.

"We also have plenty waiting for us in the town of Zacualpa, north of Colima," he said. "We flew over it. We saw only the tower of the church and a piece of the school. The place has about 1,000 population which hopefully may have found refuge on a hill and survived."

"Everywhere they are sending messages for food. Already we've dropped relief supplies from planes but much is still needed."

Broomfield Tells Monday Stops for Mobile Office

Congressman William S. Broomfield announced today his mobile trailer office will be situated in Union Lake, Milford and Highland Monday for citizens wishing to question him on any federal matters.

★ ★ ★

The trailer will be in the Union Lake business area from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m., in front of the Milford Post Office from 1 to 3 p.m. and in front of the Highland Post Office from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.

★ ★ ★

The three stops are part of a countywide excursion of Broomfield's to inform his constituents of the goings on in the past session of Congress and to listen to any questions citizens might want answered.

Looks Like a Dictatorial Blood Bath

This Is Castro's Cuban Democracy?

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — If Fidel Castro is earnest about wanting a democratic Cuba, then why all the blood?

Prime Minister Castro has been in effect dictator since his rebel army last New Year's Day threw out Fulgencio Batista's dictatorship and took over.

★ ★ ★

He has called for land reforms, probably badly needed, and other social changes. But Cuba is in growing turmoil. Criticism of his regime is rising.

He was an inspired rebel military leader but now gives the impression of a man too emotional, chaotic and disorganized to run a government.

WANTS VENGEANCE

As the heat increases, he thinks of vengeance. He calls for death for his enemies by firing squads and depends not on ballots but on mobs for support.

His government suspended Congress Jan. 6, put off new elections for 18 to 24 months, suspended criminal courts, and, through military courts, rolled up 555 executions by firing squads. .

★ ★ ★

Yet he said Cuba will remain a democracy. "We are men of the law."

The firing squads worked for months, were finally stopped. But his troubles continued. This week he summoned 250,000 Cubans to a rally in Havana.

He outdid Hollywood by arriving in a helicopter, gun in hand, denounced the United States and asked the mob for approval for new firing squads. He got it.

★ ★ ★

This was reminiscent of last January when the firing squad execution of so-called war criminals was being severely criticized abroad and he called together a rally of a million Cubans to approve what he was doing to his enemies.

His idea of justice was to try a foe in a sports stadium, with not a single witness appearing in his defense, before 18,000 people. The crowd included American newspapermen his government invited down to see the spectacle.

HE SCREAMS

When Castro addresses a mob he harangues, he screams, he appeals to hate in a way Hitler or Mussolini might have found refreshing.

He denies he is a Communist but turns with fury on any who say he is or complain that Communists are infiltrating his government.

★ ★ ★

He has done this three times to men once close to him.

Liner, Freighter Crash in Harbor

One Crewman Missing in Collision Near Statue of Liberty

NEW YORK (AP) — The liner Israel and a freighter collided Thursday night in clear weather just north of the Statue of Liberty. One crewman of the Israel was reported missing.

The Coast Guard said the 264 passengers aboard the Israel, towed to Todd Shipyards in Brooklyn, remained on the 9,831-ton ship overnight. Although some passengers were shaken up, no serious injuries were reported.

The accident, which occurred shortly after 8 p.m. during 10-mile visibility off Bedloe's Island, was the third collision this year of ocean-going vessels in the New York Harbor area. Bedloe's Island lies across the harbor from the lower tip of Manhattan.

The 8,277-ton freighter, the American Press, with two gaping holes in her prow, was towed safely to a Hudson River pier. No one aboard was hurt.

The Israel, hit amidship on its portside, suffered damage extending from the boat deck to the water line. The Coast Guard said the vessel took on a negligible amount of water.

The cause of the crash was not immediately determined.

Much of the ship traffic moving into and out of the Brooklyn piers must cross traffic in the channel moving up the Hudson River from the upper bay.

U.S. Tax Bite Down to $568 Per Capita

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Americans paid $98,400,000,000 in federal, state and local taxes in 1958, or about $568 for each man, woman and child.

Taxes per capita in 1957 were $580. The decline resulted from a rise in population and a dip of 200 million dollars in total tax collections, a census bureau report said yesterday.

Taxes in Delaware were lightest in relation to income, totaling $81.96 per $1,000 of personal income. The bite was deepest in Wyoming, where the tax ratio was $193.41 per $1,000.

U.S. Weatherman Explains:

Winter May Be Stormy; Wind Patterns Unusual

WASHINGTON (AP) — Never mind the woolly caterpillars and almanacs—now it's the U.S. Weather Bureau that says there may be a rough and stormy winter ahead.

This isn't definite. The bureau's top long-range forecaster said Thursday November's wind patterns will tell more about what's in store.

Dr. Jerome Namias, chief of the bureau's extended forecasts section, said if present wind patterns continue, the nation may experience an unusually stormy winter with sharp temperature contrasts between one section and another.

He said the high westerly winds, which normally blow from West to East, have generally been moving from North to South during the fall.

This has created conflicting channels of air movement, with polar air moving South in one channel and tropical air moving North in another. Where these channels brush against each other, Namias explained, temperature contrasts often produce unusually stormy weather.

During most of the fall, he said, polar air has been pushing down into the Plains states, while tropical air has warmed the East. However, he said, these channels have tended to move gradually eastward.

So the East is having cooler weather now after weeks of unusually mild temperatures.

Whether these patterns will prevail throughout the winter can not be predicted now, Namias said, since wind patterns often change between October and November.

If the North-South patterns continue, he said, this would not necessarily mean unusually heavy snows and extreme cold for all sections. He said the storms could bring either rain or snow and temperatures could either be cold or mild, depending on the movements of tropical and polar air. Presumably, he said, there would be sharp variations between one section of the country and another.

British Ford Opens Long Assembly Line

LONDON (AP) — A new nine-mile assembly line costing 28 million dollars began to roll at the British Ford Co. Dagenham auto factory Thursday.

The plant, with a 1,000-vehicle conveyor belt, is part of a 210 million dollar modernization and expansion program started in 1954.

Currently Ford is producing 540 Anglias daily. The aim is to boost this to 1,000 a day by December or early 1960.

French Can Take $300 as Tourist Lid Raised

PARIS (UPI)—The French government has increased to 150,000 francs (about $300) the amount a French tourist may take abroad.

The move follows Britain's relaxation of tourist money restrictions. The old French limit was about $100.

Antique Alarm Clock Auctioned for $12,348

LONDON (AP)—An alarm clock 8¼ inches high sold at auction Thursday for 4,410 pounds ($12,348) — the highest auction price ever paid for a clock.

The 279-year-old timepiece, built by the father of British clock making, Thomas Tompion, was bought by Ronald Lee, a London dealer. Christies—London antique auction house—sold the clock for W. J. E. Lonsdale of Auckland, New Zealand.

1913 Income Tax Grew and Grew

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — This is the birthday month of the most hated institution of modern government—the income tax.

The birth date was Oct. 3, 1913. On that day the Congress enacted a new form of tax law authorized by the 16th Amendment to the Constitution which became effective the previous February.

That was 46 years ago. Many taxpaying citizens thought the new burdens were outrageous. They should be around now. If they were, they would realize how fortunate they were to have paid at the rates first imposed.

You wouldn't believe how lightly the income tax flicked the pocketbook when Woodrow Wilson began first to collect it in the fiscal year 1914. A married person with two dependents and a net, taxable income of $5,000 paid just $10.

The $8,000 family man paid $40; at $10,000 the tax was $60; at $25,000 of net taxable income the tax liability was a mere $260 a year. These rates were considered outrageous by some taxpayers. The whole system was denounced as a socialistic invention which would lead no telling where.

TAX IS SOCIALISTIC

These denunciations, it must be acknowledged, were right on the target. The income tax was socialistic at least by adoption. Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels published in 1948 their "Communist Manifesto." This document became the Socialist or Communist creed.

Marx and Engels said their program could not be effected "except by means of despotic inroads on the rights of private property." They proposed a 10-point program, or which the first three points were:

"1—Abolition of property in land and application of all rents of land to public purposes.

"2—A heavy progressive or graduated income tax.

"3—Abolition of all rights of inheritance."

The idea of a heavy progressive or graduated income tax caught on and was proposed to the states in 1909 in the form of a constitutional amendment. There was no mention in the language of the proposed amendment of heavy, progressive or graduated taxation. Heavy, progressive or graduated taxation was implicit, however, in the proposition.

Congressional debates indicate that supporters of the new form of taxation had no idea of the high rates which ultimately were to be imposed. The income tax did not remain in Communist or Socialist custody. The 1908 Democratic platform endorsed the income tax. The progressive wing of the Republican Party endorsed it.

It was argued that so long as tariff duties and excise taxes was the main source of federal revenue, those best able to pay were escaping a fair share of the load. Also, it was argued that additional taxing power was needed against future emergencies such as war.

That proved to be correct. Less than four years after the first income tax law, the United States was in a big war and needed big money.

Yes, Rollo, the income tax is here to stay.

Says Lack of Funds Is Hindering NLRB

DALLAS (UPI)—A member of the National Labor Relations Board called Thursday for a crash program to keep up with the Board's responsibilities under the new labor reform law.

Philip R. Rodgers said in a speech prepared for the sixth annual Institute of Labor Law that the NLRB's days may be numbered unless it shows more speed in handling labor-management disputes.

He criticized what he called the agency's "second class" status within the government, saying it has been forced to get along with insufficient money and manpower for years.

World's Fair City Recommendation Soon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A presidential commission studying possible U.S. sites for a 1964 world's fair is expected to give its recommendations to President Eisenhower within a week, the White House says.

Los Angeles, New York City and Washington are vying for the fair.

Castro Throws Away High Hopes for Cuba

Most Americans earnestly hoped that Cuba's Premier FIDEL CASTRO would succeed in establishing his publicly stated ideals of political democracy and economic reform.

But in the 10 months since the successful revolution he has done more than his opponents to injure Cuba's economy. The all important sugar industry has been thrown into confusion by land seizure, American investment has dropped to a quarter of its previous rate and tourism has all but disappeared.

★ ★ ★

CASTRO says that he needs and hopes for foreign investment to diversify Cuba's economy and that he welcomes the tourist business. He has suggested that the U.S. extend $30 million in aid! However, American and other property has been expropriated and payment offered is ridiculously low. A mild protest from our Government brought a savage five hour television attack on the U.S. even while international tourist agents were meeting in Havana.

★ ★ ★

In Cuba itself the revolution seems to be devouring its own children. Some revolutionary heroes see danger in CASTRO's hate filled speeches and rabid nationalism and have said so. They are now termed "traitors" and are under arrest. Some may have been executed.

Irrational attacks on the U. S., a country anxious to help, are denying the economic and political stability Cuba sorely needs. The premier is dissipating the good will he has had in all free nations. Calling a general strike to prove his popularity is nothing but demagoguery.

Whether Communist controlled or not Cuba appears to be headed for complete economic disaster and more needless bloodshed.

Hoover Tells Parents to Take Child to Church

J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director of the F.B.I., insists in a few well chosen words that church and Sunday School can do much to combat our increasing juvenile delinquency problems.

Since we wholeheartedly agree and have had numerous requests for a copy of Director HOOVER's statement we are reprinting it:

"Shall I make my child go to Sunday School and church? Yes! And with no further discussion about the matter.

★ ★ ★

"Startled? Why? How do you answer Junior when he comes to breakfast on Monday morning and announces to you that he is not going to school any more? You know! Junior goes.

★ ★ ★

"How do you answer when Junior comes in very much besmudged and says 'I'm not going to take a bath.' Junior bathes, doesn't he?

"Why all this timidity then in the realm of his spiritual guidance and growth? Going to let him wait and decide what church he'll go to when he's old enough? Quit your kidding!

★ ★ ★

"You don't wait until he's old enough to decide whether he wants to go to school or not, to start his education. Do you wait until he's old enough to decide if he wants to take his medicine when he's sick? Do you?

★ ★ ★

"What shall we say when Junior announces he doesn't like to go to Sunday School and church? That's easy. Just be consistent. Tell him, 'Junior, in our house we all go to church and Sunday School, and that includes you.'

★ ★ ★

"Your firmness and example will furnish a bridge over which youthful rebellion may travel into rich and satisfying experiences in personal religious living.

★ ★ ★

"The parents of America can strike a telling blow against the forces which contribute to our juvenile delinquency if our mothers and fathers will take their children to Sunday School and church regularly."

—J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director of the F.B.I.

"IF YOU would use a lion as a 'watchdog' you wouldn't have to worry about burglars," says an animal trainer. You probably wouldn't have to worry about becoming old and feeble, either.

UF Chairman Expresses Gratitude for Press' Help

I've always had some appreciation and awareness of the kind of job The Press does for the United Fund, but until this year, I've never been fully cognizant of all the wonderful contributions you and your staff make toward the success of every campaign.

Members Support Union Activities

I'm sorry for Mrs. Auto Worker's rattling, because she has no facts. Before the union came in I had a family. The boss had a pet. He worked that man four days a week and I only worked two days, because I didn't have the money to take the boss out.

★ ★ ★

We are all equal now in the shop. We have equalizing of hours. Once I had a job as set up man. They hired a new man and the boss told him he would give him a good job if he'd buy a car from the boss. He got my job, I found out later.

★ ★ ★

God bless you, but please rattle facts.

Auto Worker

A letter spoke of the money unions spend. It takes a lot to run them. They're like any other big business. They must have lawyers, writers, good speakers, and these people don't work for their health.

★ ★ ★

Our first public school was gotten by organized labor, as was social security, vacation pay, time and a half and many other things. A strike anywhere in the UAW-CIO takes money.

★ ★ ★

Reuther gets $25,000 a year, while some big industries pay $300,000 or more. The investigating committee said Solidarity House and the heads of the auto workers kept the best set of books of any business they had.

★ ★ ★

Our dues are raised to $5.00 a month, but that isn't high considering what the union has done. Unions are on a forward march and they won't be broken up. You must have a strike fund for our members.

Wants Campaign to Support State

It is the duty of everyone to support the government and state in which he lives. Our recent success with United Fund gives me the idea of a United for Michigan Drive, the money to be used to support Michigan in its financial crisis.

★ ★ ★

The payroll deduction plan is good, along with cash contribution. Additional sources of revenue could be obtained by profits from fund-raising projects of churches, lodges and clubs.

★ ★ ★

Now's the time for action. By supporting Michigan in this crisis, you're supporting yourself. A united effort for a just cause is sure to succeed.

A. L. Butorn
Drayton Plains

'Why Do You Do Nothing at All?'

You must have some kind of control for the labor man, but it's been shown that after they organized, they were out for themselves, regardless of even the Government. This is the members' fault.

★ ★ ★

If unions were for the members, the money should be making money for those members. Strikes have made members pay double for homes, cars, public service and almost everything went beyond the raises.

★ ★ ★

They haven't gained one thing but tragedy and suffering, and members are the only ones who can act. If a man called you a nasty name or stole five cents, you'd probably fight to your last breath. I don't understand why you do nothing.

David Lawrence Says:

Heavy Steel Losses Only Part of It

WASHINGTON — U. S. Steel Corp. lost $31 million in the third quarter of this year.

Bethlehem Steel Corp., the next largest, lost $38 million in the third quarter.

Jones & Laughlin, the fourth largest steel producer reported a loss of $16 million.

LAWRENCE

Inland Steel reported a net loss $7.5 million.

Wheeling Steel reported a net loss of $4,263,000.

Lukens Steel reported a net loss of $3 million.

Those are the figures just announced and they add up to about $100 million—but they do not tell the whole story.

For the government of the United States lost taxes equal to these amounts and foregoes as well the taxes on profits that would have been at least $200 million.

Also, the Treasury lost far more in tax receipts usually collected from the many industries indirectly affected by the steel strike.

But the losses in wages to the workers are even larger than the deficits of the corporations involved in the strike. This, too, means a loss of taxes.

MORE TAXES

So the American people must continue to pay more taxes to meet these deficiencies and thus the hoped for day of a reduction in tax rates is postponed.

Nobody gains by a strike and yet struggles arise periodically that are eventually ended by "negotiation" after which euphemistic statements are issued about "victories" won.

The truth is that every big strike is due to the failure of the processes of reason and a breakdown in the communication system between adversaries.

Sometimes union politics keeps a leader from making an agreement that he fears will make him unpopular with his constituency. Sometimes management hesitates to make a concession for fear that next year it will face a strike again as advantage is taken by the union to press later for further concessions.

Collective "bargaining" nowadays means that anything granted in a previous year is permanent and not subject to change.

★ ★ ★

So far as the public is concerned, it can hardly bring its influence to bear except through government and this, too, leads to "settlements" of strikes that are likely in the long run to do more harm than good.

In fact, today's strike in steel is largely the result of the mishandling of labor-management relations in the past with too much government pressure of the political sort that forced unsound settlements in order to get a resumption of production at almost any cost.

Today's impasse between the steel companies and the unions will not be solved overnight. The Taft-Hartley Act injunction when imposed will not necessarily bring a "cooling off" period or even a disposition toward conciliatory moves on either side.

LACK CONFIDENCE

The fact is that no machinery for settlement exists today in which both sides can have confidence. The spokesmen talk vaguely to each other but they know all along what are the basic issues and what must be done to get a settlement.

One thing that has to happen is an acceptance by the union leaders of the concept of change in "working rules" in the steel industry, just as they have had to be changed in other industries to meet the new conditions brought about by new machinery and equipment.

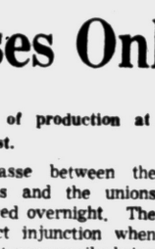
The Country Parson

"I like to see a fellow more concerned about his behavior than what people think of his behavior."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Digitalis Impedes Flow of Oxygen to the Heart

The right and left coronary arteries branch from the first half inch of the great artery (aorta) to supply the heart (muscle) itself with the purest, most freshly oxygenated blood.



DR. BRADY

Next to vital brain centers, the heart muscle is more sensitive than any other structure of the body to restriction or brief interruption of a constant supply of oxygen. The typical chest, belly, neck or arm pang of angina pectoris is due to deprivation of oxygen.

Likewise the pain of coronary thrombosis or coronary occlusion; and the best emergency relief for angina pectoris or coronary distress is inhalation of amyl nitrite (from glass pearl crushed in handkerchief) or ingestion of a nitroglycerin tablet dissolved in the mouth.

In the first of these two articles about care of the coronaries I mentioned factors which constrict the coronaries and so prevent or impede delivery of oxygen to the heart muscle, namely, digitalis; unpleasant emotions, particularly fear, anger and worry (diluted fear); alcohol; and overexertion in an emergency where anxiety prevails.

I took pains to say that observation and study of a large series of cases show that as a rule angina pectoris or coronary thrombosis is less likely to occur when one is moderately active than it is when one is at rest, that alcohol constricts the coronaries and reduces the supply of blood (oxygen) to the heart muscle when it reaches a concentration of 0.1 per cent — that is to say one part of alcohol in 1000 parts of blood.

I did not say that digitalis invariably causes constriction of the coronary arterioles. I said that some physicians believe it is dangerous in cases of angina pectoris or coronary insufficiency. Personally, I wouldn't take the stuff in any circumstance—unless a doctor in whom I had great faith ordered me from day to day to take it or else.

There is still tobacco. The subject of the effects of tobacco—cigarettes, cigars, pipe, snuff or chewing — on the heart, arteries, lungs, stomach, digestion, nerves, vision and general health — is a vast jumble of theories and fancies from which it is practically impossible to draw sound deductions.

In the first place as it seems to me, if the nicotine in tobacco is as deadly as the old timers imagined, how does the ball player who comes to the plate ingesting a cheekful ever get to first base?

The best I can say about tobacco and the coronary arterioles is this:

1. I believe the cause of the pathological effects of smoking is the carbon monoxide generated by incomplete combustion.

2. The signs and symptoms presented by a person made ill by tobacco smoke, whether his own or others', are strikingly like the signs and symptoms of carbon monoxide gassing.

3. I am not prejudiced, although I prefer a pipe, when I say that I gather from the clinical records that cigarette smoking is most harmful, cigar smoking less harmful and pipe smoking less harmful of the three—perhaps depending on the amount of carbon monoxide inhaled.

Of course this is only my belief —which may or may not seem plausible to 100,000 other doctors.

Signed letters not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

The market place is wonderful . . . With products that are good . . . And prices that defy the stores . . . In any neighborhood . . . Of course you have to purchase them . . . In larger quantity . . . Yet certain items do provide . . . For real economy . . . Like bushels of tomatoes and . . . Of peaches and of pears . . . That you may want to cook and can . . . To store beneath the stairs . . . Fresh sea food is available . . . Fish, shrimp, and lobster tails . . . Oysters, clams and quahogs caught . . . Beneath New England sails . . . The market place is wonderful . . . But as for staple goods . . . The stores that save you money are . . . Right in all neighborhoods.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Teacher Must Use Salesmanship

Use Dr. Buley as an admirable yardstick for rating good teachers. And don't make the mistake of thinking a Ph. D. automatically means a good teacher. A lot of Ph. D. professors put their students to sleep and exude no more vital enthusiasm than a dead fish. Send for the Rating Scale below.

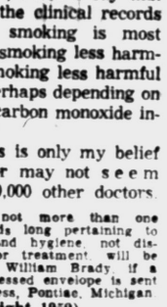
By GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE C — 483: Dr. R. Carlyle Buley is professor of American History at Indiana University.

★ ★ ★

"And he is an excellent prof," one of his students informed me.

"In the first place, he doesn't use his lectures ready in the text-just to parrot again what is already in the textbooks.



DR. CRANE

"Instead, he amplifies and illustrates his history lectures with dramatic cases and 'human interest' examples NOT in the text. And he can reduce abstractions to simple terms. He uses clever analogies that clinch his points.

"For example, he recently gave us a very lucid case to illustrate the production, consumption and acquisition of goods or capital.

★ ★ ★

"He told the story of a primitive native who spent all day trying to catch fish for his family. The native averaged one good fish per day.

"That was his usual production. But his family devoured that fish in one day, so their consumption equalled his total production.

★ ★ ★

"Then he worked overtime on a certain day and managed to catch TWO fish. That gave him an extra day's food supply.

"So he didn't have to go fishing the next day. Meanwhile, he sat around in his new leisure and began to THINK.

"As a result, he evolved the idea of a net. And by weaving bark or wild grape vines together, he fashioned a crude net.

"Next day, when his food supply had run out, he went fishing with his new equipment.

"And now he caught three fish, whereas he used to average only one. As a consequence, he had even more time to perfect his net. And soon he made a second net.

"Some of his neighbors now wanted to use the first net, so he rented it to them on the shares. They caught three fish and gave one of them to the owner of the net for rent.

★ ★ ★

"It wasn't long till he was in the net-making business. He was a manufacturer and a capitalist.

"Wasn't that a dandy analogy, Dr. Crane? And don't you agree that Dr. Buley typifies a topnotch teacher?"

BRAVO, DR. BULEY

Yes, I salute Dr. Buley as an example of our finest type of teacher.

For good teachers have a fondness for students and an enthusiasm to convert them into zealots for the course, so they try to dramatize their lectures.

A good teacher is thus a "salesman" of ideas. He doesn't mechanically parrot what is already in the textbook.

★ ★ ★

Instead, he uses his lectures to emphasize the highlights. And he dramatizes the subject-matter with fascinating stories and new cases.

A good teacher is thus half actor and half artist. And he always exudes enough vital enthusiasm to keep his students awake.

It thus takes far more than a mere Ph. D., to produce a superlative teacher.

In fact, many men with only a B. S. or an A. M. degree are far better teachers than some of the older professors, for they understand the interests of the under-graduates in their classes and can slant the material better.

But a good teacher like Dr. Buley never loses his audience appeal for he follows the surefire public speaking formula outlined in tomorrow's case.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, send to the "Test for a Good Teacher," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit). It helps all teachers improve.

★ ★ ★

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Holland's Tulip Festival Loses $798 This Year

HOLLAND (Mich.) — The internationally prominent Holland Tulip Time Festival suffered a net loss of $798 this year.

Manager L. A. Wade's financial report disclosed the loss after voluntary contributions of $2,459 to the nonprofit festival fund eased general loss caused by unseasonably cold weather last May.

In other action, The Tulip Time Corp. named Nelson Bosman president of the Board of Directors. It also confirmed May 11-14 as dates of the 1960 festival.

TV Bulb Dustproof

CORNING, N. Y. (UPI) — The Corning Glass Works has developed a twin-panel television picture tube which eliminates the need for the safety plate that usually covers the front of a set. The new bulb is shatterproof and dustproof and is expected to allow manufacturers to design smaller more compact sets.

Diploma Mills Get U.S. Blast

Branded Low Grade Infections on American Education System

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government Thursday began a campaign to wipe out diploma mill operations.

Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Arthur S. Flemming, announcing the campaign at a news conference, called diploma mills "persistent low grade infections in the American education system."

The target of the drive, Flemming said, will be organizations that award degrees without courses of instruction such as all reputable educational institutions require before conferring degrees.

Flemming said the first step would be compilation of a list of all alleged educational institutions whose activities are believed to be questionable.

"An institution will be labeled questionable if it purports to grant educational degrees without requiring the usual academic performance," Flemming said.

★ ★ ★

This list compiled by the office of education will be made public, Flemming said, and added to in the future Flemming gave no indication when the list may be announced.

Flemming said the campaign also will include studies to clarify what powers now are available to cope with the diploma mill problem both inside and outside the United States.

Religious leaders, Flemming continued, also will be asked to help in finding a solution to the problem because, he said, degree mills award many so-called religious degrees.

Flemming cited several examples of what he called "enterprises illustrative of those that do a disservice to American education."

★ ★ ★

He named as examples the College of Divine Metaphysics, 2811 N. Illinois St., Indianapolis, Ind.; Neotarian College of Philosophy of the Neotarian Fellowship, Pickwick Building, Kansas City, Mo.; Midwestern University Inc., St. Louis; and Metropolitan University, 111 E. Broadway, Glendale, Calif.

Bob Considine Views Cuba With Alarm

Castro Turns His Coat. What a Pity!

NEW YORK — Nine months ago I was convinced that Fidel Castro had the makings of a 20th Century Simon Bolivar, and so wrote. Now I think he's just another 19th Century Latin dictator, wired for sound.

News travels faster and hits with more impact these days. Castro's threats and mutterings are no more intemperate than much of the condemnation of the U.S. by other Latin big wheels in bygone and pre-electronics history.

About the time I did a stretch in the records section of the State Department we were being hated with great enthusiasm by Colombia — an old simmering anger that dated back to Theodore Roosevelt's meddling in Colombian affairs (out of which came the Panamanian Revolution and our Panama Canal.)

The only two times we made even mild diplomatic protests came 1) when a book named "Uncle Sham" appeared there in english, and 2) when some Colombians stoned Charles A. Lindbergh at the Bogota Airport. Lindy, on a good-will tour, took one look at the reception committee and fled in an American legation car. The committee threw rocks at it.

The experiences of the vice president and his wife in Venezuela and elsewhere is fresh in memory. Mr. and Mrs. Nixon might very easily have been killed in those circumstances.

CASTRO 'GOOD GUY'

But there is something about the Castro situation that is at once more depressing and more alarming.

He was going to be the different kind of Latin revolutionist. He had university training, looked like an El Greco apostle, lifted men's hearts everywhere as he came charging on Havana like a Robin Hood in the sugarcane brakes.

He was the clearly etched Good Guy, as incorruptible as a TV marshal. Fulgencio Batista was the Bad Guy. As indeed he was.

The scenes in Havana last January defied description. In the first flush of accomplishment, the revolution was all that any man could wish for. Castro was a deity. I saw men and women pluck at his sleeves, try to take a lock of his beard, follow him like children following a circus parade.

I saw him silence an enormous crowd of excitedly chattering Cubans with a simple gesture—a finger to his lips. Not even Stalin could have done it as effectively.

Then he spoke, and it was the voice of irrationality . . . the voice of hate, not compassion . . . of thirst for blood, not a desire to give food and shelter to the poor. It demanded heads, not hearts.

The trial of Maj. Jesus Sosa Blanca, which followed in the clamoring Sports Palace, would have shocked the Nazis at Nuremburg.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS!

Since that time, here are Castro's accomplishments: He has raised most workers salaries 20 to 25 per cent, cut rents 30 to 40 per cent, reduced rail, bus, and public utilities rates. But the cost of living continues to rise, negating these boons.

He has promised new schools, hospitals, roads, year-round employment and the end of U.S. "domination." The "domination" consists of paying Cuba more for her sugar than any other nation will, and the most enlightened foreign investment program in our annals — creating thousands of jobs for Cubans, good housing, schools, hospitals, etc.

He has crushed freedom of assembly, freedom of the press and air, filled his prisons with political foes real and imagined. A person who seeks to resign his post in government is automatically a "traitor," and so treated.

Urutia, the first president of the revolution, is under house arrest. Tourism, "the second crop," has been killed. Youth brigades march and are indoctrinated.

Audiences are gathered by trucks, promises and threats. Relations with Peiping improve each day. The history books are being rewritten under the aegis of a minister of education who addressed Latin Communists at Santiago de Chille instead of attending the meeting of American Republics.

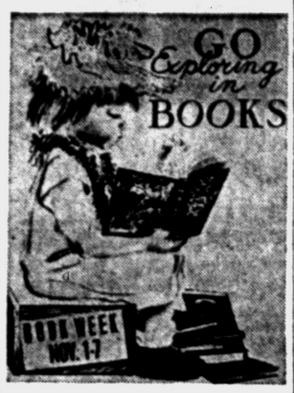
NO LAND PAYMENTS

Government cattle are placed on private ranches to fatten up on the cuff. Private farming equipment is being appropriated from owners.

There has been no payment, even in 20-year Cuban bonds, for many of the expropriated lands under the agrarian reform. The return of the military courts looms, the influence of the irresponsible Raul grows.

A pity. And beyond that, a mounting tragedy at our doorstep.

The brain of thunder lizard (Brontosaurus) weighed only about a pound. The animal weighed about 35 tons.



FOR THE CHILDREN—The official bookmark, above, and the poster on which the girl is sitting signify National Children's Book Week, Nov. 1-7.

Eyeglasses Revealed in Spectacular Shot

DENVER (AP) — As Woldemar Kima told it Thursday, he was so interested in taking snapshots in the Arizona desert last week, he didn't notice that his eyeglasses were missing.

Kima, a laboratory technician at National Jewish Hospital in Denver, made a fruitless search, then came home and bought new glasses. He also had his snapshots developed.

One showed a desert bush and on the bush, in perfect focus, lay the eyeglasses.

Deaths in Pontiac and Nearby Areas

MARRIO CHIAPELLI

Prayers were offered this afternoon at the Melvin A. Schutt Funeral Home for Marrio Chiapelli, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Chiapelli of 174 Florence Ave. Burial was in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Surviving besides the parents are a brother, James; and six sisters, Yolanda, Diana, Cynthia, Narda, Leah and Lisa, all at home.

The baby was dead at birth yesterday at Pontiac General Hospital.

JOSEPH F. HANCOCK

Joseph F. Hancock, 69, of 957 Cameron St., died at his home yesterday after a long illness.

He was retired from Pontiac Motor Division where he worked for 31 years.

Surviving are his wife, Ethel; a daughter, Mrs. Gerald F. Verno of Pontiac; a son, Joseph E. of Pontiac; five grandchildren; and a brother, David of Detroit.

Service will be held at 11 a.m. Monday at the Voorhees-Siple Chapel with burial in Perry Mount Park Cemetery.

SAMUEL E. LAWSON

Samuel E. Lawson, 54, of 2964 Watkins Lake Rd., Waterford Township, died yesterday at his home. He had been in ill health about a year.

Von Braun May Get Extra Funds Asked

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Prospects appeared bright today for Dr. Wernher von Braun to get the extra $100,000,000 he wants for the Saturn super rocket that may put America ahead in the space race.

The Defense Department is recommending a new Saturn budget of $140,000,000, compared to the $240,000,000 Von Braun wants, but the Army missile expert is believed certain of support from the civilian space agency to which he is being transferred.

A Pentagon spokesman conceded that the department's recommendation was based only on military requirements. No military need for the super rocket is foreseen in the next four or five years, the spokesman said, so there was no reason to complete the program before 1964 or 1965.

But the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), which will have charge of the project after Von Braun's transfer receives the approval of Congress, is eager to get a payload-carrying Saturn into space as soon as possible.

Ford Dance Band Leader Clayton A. Perry Dies

DETROIT (UP) — A fiddler who gained fame as the leader of the late Henry Ford's old-time dancing band, Clayton A. Perry, is dead at 70. He died of cancer yesterday.

Perry joined the Ford staff in 1925, when he came to the attention of Ford and his dancing master, the late Benjamin B. Lovett.

With Lovett, Perry did research work into folk songs and dances. This led finally to a national fiddlers' contest sponsored by Ford.

With the deaths of Henry Ford and his son Edsel, the old-time music and dancing project folded.

Perry then became a security officer at Greenfield Village and worked there until his retirement in 1957.

Chairman of the Board at Phelps-Dodge Dead

NEW YORK (UPI) — Louis Shattuck Cates, 77, board chairman of Phelps-Dodge Corp., died last night.

Cates joined the copper firm in 1930 and built it to a giant in the field through a series of mergers.

Earlier, he helped develop low-cost earth-moving methods which made it practical to work low-grade ore mines in the Southwest.

Cement Is an Adhesive

Cement is any adhesive material which can hold solid substances in place when it hardens.

CLOSED IN—Army's new uniform for handling toxic missile fuel completely "seals in" wearer against contact with air. Suit has own 20-30 minute oxygen supply.

She Carries Jet Fuel

ESCANABA (UP)—The first tanker to bring jet fuel to the new fuel terminal near here is scheduled to arrive Saturday. The ship, the Meteor, will be the first to unload at the terminal, which is to provide fuel for jet aircraft at nearby Sawyer Air Force Base.

Says Rocky Can Top Nixon in New Hampshire

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt) said today Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller would defeat Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the March 8 New Hampshire presidential primary if both campaign actively.

★ ★ ★

Aiken, professing his own neutrality, said in an interview that the New York governor also would be favored over Nixon "in most of New England" in a two-way race for the GOP presidential nomination.

The Vermont senator said, "There is no question that Nixon is ahead now." He added, "He would win the nomination easily if the convention were held today."

However, he continued, "It could be a very close fight" if Nixon and Rockefeller both become active candidtaes to head the Republican ticket next year.

Aiken said he felt Nixon has "malignant political assets" in some conservative backing.

The vice president "is still suffering from some of his supporters" such as advocates of "right-to-work" legislation, he contended.

Laos King Dies, Son Now Ruler

Death Comes During Lull in Survival Fight With Red Rebels

LUANG PRABANG, Laos (AP) —King Sisavang Vong of Laos, the world's senior monarch, died Thursday night during a lull in his tiny Indochina kingdom's fight for survival against the threat of Communist rebels.

The 74-year-old King passed away in his red-roofed, gold-spired palace on the Mekong River where he has lain for five years, bed-ridden with rheumatism and neck cancer.

★ ★ ★

Crown Prince Savang Vathana, appointed regent by his ailing father two months ago, becomes ruler of the revolt-torn land of a million elephants and the white parasol.

The Paris-educated, 52-year-old prince has already been acting as commander in chief of the 25,000-man, U.S.-equipped Laotian army in the campaign to crush a Red revolt.

Prince Savang has visited America twice. In 1952 he led the Laotian delegation at the San Francisco conference to sign the peace treaty with Japan, and three years ago he made a state visit.

The pineapple originated in South America.

Waterford Sets Up Committee

Seeks New School Sites

At a special meeting last night, the Waterford Township Board of Education authorized a committee to look into the possibility of acquiring property for future school sites, outside the township.

★ ★ ★

In an effort to relieve crowded conditions and provide for future growth in the Pontiac Lake area, the building site commitee will seek land around Highland and Williams Lake road section in White Lake Township.

Approximately four square miles of the Waterford Township School District extends into White Lake Township. Several ground tests have been made of available land along the township line at that point. None have come up to the state specifications, however.

The Board believes that although there always will be a possibility that the proposed area of the school district might some day be annexed by another district, the immediate need for a school in that portion is evident.

★ ★ ★

In other business, basic plans were presented by George D. Mason & Co. architects for an addition to the Board of Education and the maintenance buildings. These were approved and construction bids will be asked as soon as land contracts have been finalized.

★ ★ ★

A new elementary school now under construction on Walton boulevard at Dill street has been named the David Grayson School. The name was approved because of the Board's policy of naming new schools after famous early American pioneers. Grayson was one of Michigan's most famous authors.

Sentenced 14-15 Years in Mount Clemens Killing

MOUNT CLEMENS (UPI) — Joseph R. Troyer, 39, convicted of manslaughter in the fatal beating of Mrs. Mary Douglas, 85, was sentenced today to a term of 14 to 15 years in the state prison at Jackson.

Mrs. Douglas was killed in her home here last March 17.

Judge Howard Carroll pronounced sentence on Troyer, also of Mount Clemens.

2 County Legislators on House Committees

Two Republican state representatives from Oakland County have been named to several study committees, it was announced today by House Speaker Don R. Pears (R-Buchanan).

Rep. Farrell E. Roberts (R-Third District) has been named by Pears as a member of a committee on pension and retirement plans.

Nafed to a study of consumer credit was William Hayward (R-District 5).

One of the committees, on which there were no Oakland representatives appointed, will investigate unfair trade practices in the milk industry.

QUEEN CANDIDATES — One of these five candidates will reign as queen tonight over homecoming festivities at Avondale High School. The contest is with Clawson High School, scheduled for 8 p.m. A dance will follow the game in the school gymnasium. In contention for the crown are (from left) Marjatta Eskelinen, Starr Featherstone, Karen Lane, Judy Lunsford and Susan Randall.

5 Vie for Homecoming Queen Title at Avondale High School

By IRVIN GINGRICH

Students and faculty are preparing for homecoming activities at Avondale High School.

The cheerleaders sponsored a pep rally last night on the football field. The band played and the candidates were presented. They include Susan Randall, Starr Featherstone, Judy Lunsford, Karen Lane and Marjatta Eskelinen.

A large "A" for Avondale was set ablaze. This added to the spirit and enthusiasm already accumulated for the Avondale-Clawson game at 8 tonight.

The theme for the Homecoming dance, 9:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m., is "Welcome Alumni," and the setting will be that of autumn leaves. It should prove to be a fine dance as well as a colorful one.

★ ★ ★

The Future Homemakers of America, as well as everyone at Avondale, are quite proud of Jean Carpenter. She was elected treasurer of Region 7 of the FHA in Michigan.

GLEE CLUB

Ten members of the Glee Club, along with Director Claude Wiseman, will be attending a music clinic held at Rochester on Nov. 7.

★ ★ ★

Those going are Starr Featherston, Nancy Fowler, 1st soprano; Jo Ellen Crawford, Elaine Crabb, 2nd soprano; Vicky Williams, Sharel Isanhart, alto; Mike Carry, John Westerman, tenor; and Bob Evans, Chuck Moss, bass.

★ ★ ★

The director of the clinic will by Maynard Cline.

★ ★ ★

Judy Lunsford, Ruth Torretta, and Delores Dunlap attended a District Intra-Council meeting last Saturday at Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital. The theme of Avondale's Future Nurses' club is: Nursing as a Career.

New Design Adorns Tomahawk

By BARBARA GRIFFIN

Readers of the Tomahawk, the Pontiac Central High School newspaper, were attracted to the new nameplate adorning the top of the front page when it was introduced last Friday.

Designed by Sharon Young, the nameplate is mostly black, featuring a rising sun, birch bark, three feathers and a tomahawk. The symbols are characteristic of our Indian chief tradition. The tomahawk handle is inscribed with Sharon's name.

Sharon has worked on the design since May. She spent a total of 21 hours on the final design, three times the size of the actual nameplate, using India ink on white poster board.

A senior, Sharon plans to major in art at Western Michigan University after she graduates from Central.

She began to study art in junior high school and is now in Jean Smith's commercial art class.

DESIGNED POSTERS

Sharon has designed the posters and programs for the play, "The Bad Seed," and also planned the seal and lettering layout for the new Pontiac Central sweatshirts.

The artist is active in many school organizations and activities, including the A Capella Choir and varsity cheerleaders squad.

Tonight, immediately following the Ferndale football game, Pontiac Central Pep Club is sponsoring a dance, the "Foot Ball," to be held in the gym from 10 to midnight.

A local disc jockey will be on hand to spin records for dancing. Tickets are on sale for 75 cents drag, 55 cents stag.

General chairman of the dance is Lynne Vieriech. Committee chairmen are Judy Hinkley, decorations; Fran Austin, tickets; Carol Boutin, publicity; and Lynne Vieriech, cleanup.

Three Central students have been named semi-finalists in the 1959-60 National Merit Scholarship competition. They are Sherry Fink, Sue Koprince and Valarie Vasbinder, who ranked in the 99 percentile group. The girls are among 10,000 across the country who survived a rigorous qualifying test last spring.

Tryouts were held last Friday after school for the "Diary of Anne Frank," to be given by the dramatics department in the Central auditorium the first weekend in December.

The cast includes Judi Johnson, Anne Frank; Jim Baker, Peter; Peggy Warren, Meip; Marilyn Vernon, Mrs. Frank; Xavier Garza, Mr. Frank; Evelyn Kerr, Mrs. Van Daan; Bruce Bishop, Mr. Van Daan; Kay Slater, Margot Frank; Gary Relyea, Mr. Kraler; and George Sarros, Mr. Drussel.

CO-DIRECTORS

The play will be directed by Garth Errington, dramatics instructor, with James Bank as student director. Committee heads include Sue Smith and Judy Kenney, publicity; Barbara Alton and Karen Kessler, tickets; Douglas Sputlock, stage manager; Leroy Cheyne, lights; Judy Whitmer and Susan Constantino, props; and Kathy Beebe, makeup.

Tomorrow, the Linnean Society will host the annual convention of the Michigan Junior Academy of Science-Arts-and-Letters at Michigan State University Oakland.

At 9:30 a.m. the club will be welcomed by D. B. Varner, chancellor of MSUO. He will give a short address which should be of interest to those planning to attend this university. Club members will then hear a short talk given by Loren Pope, assistant chancellor.

After the meeting, delegates will then go on a tour of the campus, headed by Ron Hoekman. Ron is presently a student at MSUO, is a past president of the Linnean Society and is now a student member of Junior Academies. Executive Council. The group will then leave for a tour of the Cranbrook Institute of Science and Arts.

Four Girls Join Cheering Squad at Oxford High

By BEATRICE KRUG

Oxford High School had four girls added to the junior varsity cheerleading squad. All freshmen then, are Carol Roberts, Sharon Sites, Cookie VanHentenryck and Connie Wilkinson.

The varsity cheerleaders from last year are Shirley Smith, squad leader; Genine Collier, Linda Jacobs, Janie Langely, Ronnie Kintz and Kitty McMillan.

The cheerleaders have been making and selling blue and gold shakers to the students and faculty for the games. They are also sponsoring a dance after the game with Ortonville tonight.

★ ★ ★

The profits from both of these projects will go toward their new uniforms which will be metallic blue pleated skirts and white sweaters.

Waterford Pupils Tell Why Gentlemen Prefer Blondes

By JOHN TEEUWISSEN

The Waterford Township High School Dramatics Club launched its publicity campaign for "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes."

Highlight of the campaign is an essay contest on the subject, "Why do gentlemen prefer blondes?" The student who best answers this question in 50 words or less will receive two free tickets to the production. The runnerup will get one free ducket.

There were free tickets in some of the balloon decorations for the Coronation Ball last Saturday. Homeroom captains will take ticket orders.

The student selling the most tickets will be awarded a free dinner and a trip to Paris.

Proofs for senior pictures arrived this week for those who had their pictures taken by Powell's Studios. They were greeted with mixed emotions. Most students were quite pleased with the photos which had "done them justice."

TOO LIFELIKE

There was, however, some slight dissension from a few whose pictures were only too lifelike.

The annual fall festival of the Choral Music Department was greeted with praise by the audience last night. The choirs, glee clubs, ensembles and soloists did a job that they may well be proud of, according to those present.

★ ★ ★

Another event which was looked upon with mixed emotions was the first report cards of the year this week. A few pleased and happy faces dotted a crowd of otherwise sadder but wiser Waterford students on the day of reckoning.

St. Mike's Rejoicing Continues

By BARBARA ARDELAN

After scoring a 54-7 victory over our crosstown rivals, St. Frederick's, there was much rejoicing and celebrating at St. Michael's this week.

★ ★ ★

The Stephen Griffin Memorial Trophy, signifying the inter-city championship came back to St. Mike's last Sunday after spending a year at St. Frederick. This trophy can be viewed in the case at the school where we hope it will be retired.

The students and faculty were entertained Friday at the pep rally by a skit starring "beatnicks" Mike Keasling and Russell Greenlees.

The seniors are preparing for a field trip to Greenfield Village in Dearborn next Monday. Both United States history classes will view the displays of early American history.

★ ★ ★

Sunday opening day for National Catholic Youth Week, all high school students attended solemn high Mass. During the week, Holy Name services were conducted for all the students.

FIRST ISSUE

The first issue of the school newspaper, the Michaelite, was issued this week after days of typing, stenciling and mimeographing. The new mimeograph machines presented to St. Michael's by the senior class produced clearer copies than was ever expected.

Typists Jean Cassabon, Jane Bentham, Judy Klinghamer, Sharon Daugherty and Barbara Ardelan have put in many hours of work along with mimeograph operator Patrick Donahue. Stencils were prepared by Jane Bentham, Jean Cassabon and Barbara Ardelan.

★ ★ ★

Won German Friendship

Student Was Ambassador

At 17, Sue Koprince is an experienced ambassador to a foreign land.

★ ★ ★

Her role as a participant in the American Field Service exchange student program is considered effective in the U.S. scheme to win friends and influence people of other countries.

Sue, 319 W. Iroquois, returned as a senior to Pontiac Central High School this fall after spending the summer with a German family and attending school in the industrial city of Hannover.

German youth, she found, were bright and alert with interests comparable to those of their American counterparts. There were, however, some misconceptions about the United States.

LIVE BY IT

"An East Berliner said, 'We would believe more in democracy if we could see you living by it.'

★ ★ ★

"Their views were often exaggerated. I showed them a copy of the Pontiac Central High School yearbook, 'Quiver,' and they were at first amazed at the pictures of Negroes and whites together in classroom, social and athletic scenes.

★ ★ ★

"They thought all schools were segregated in America."

The Pontiac girl describes Hannover, population 600,000, as a place where nothing is older than 15 years, all rebuilt and modern.

Teen-agers there go to school half-days, six days a week. A German student who majors in a foreign language studies that language for eight years. Their subjects are varied and many. Sue studied 13 subjects in the brief period she attended school.

Classrooms are crowded as are living conditions in Hannover where the great majority of residents live in apartments rather than homes. As a result of the war and the sociological and economic conditions in Germany's rapid construction era, families are small.

"The new housing developments in Hannover are considered very modern, but Americans would probably view them as substandard," says Sue. "Almost everyone lives in an apartment and they are small and overcrowded.

SMALL FAMILIES

"Most families I met had only one child. One girl in my class had three other children in her family and all the other students were aware of this and considered it out of the ordinary."

★ ★ ★

Schools are not coeducational in Hannover, according to Sue, and teen-agers enjoy doing much the same things as U.S. youngsters.

★ ★ ★

"More value is placed on culture by the German teen-agers, but they love American rock 'n' roll, too. They seem to participate in sports more, rather than be content as spectators.

On a visit to West Berlin Sue found the people very worried about the "split," but hopeful.

"They talk about the division of Berlin quite a bit," says Sue. "The people wear emblems on their lapels of the Bradenburg Gate, which separates Berlin, showing they want to keep it open."

The American Field Service program is intended to show other nations how Americans really are. Sue says:

★ ★ ★

"The family I stayed with treated me as if I were their own daughter. The Germans don't regard Americans as the ostentatious stereotype. I think they now have a pretty good idea of us."

St. Frederick's to Have Court?

By PAT VILLELLA

A ratification of the proposal for a Student Court at St. Frederick High School has been brought before the student body by Student Council President Jack O'Reilly.

The president expressed the wish of the Student Council in asking the student body to back up the Student Court.

The purpose of such a court is to show student reaction against students who are consistently causing trouble. Often in the past, extra-curricular activities have been cut out because of these people.

If these students are not willing to hold to the rules and regulations for the good of the school and themselves, it is felt that action should be taken against them.

Under the court operation, any student charged with seriously disturbing the class would be brought before the court.

FAIR CHANCE

He will be given a fair chance to tell his side of the story, or to plead guilty.

Following this will be an account by the accusing student or faculty member. If found guilty he will be sentenced or put on probation.

A second appearance before the Court will give the Court the power to advise either a suspension or expulsion.

★ ★ ★

So far the Court hasn't been called upon. It is the hope of the Student Council that it shall never have need to be called upon. If this is possible, then we have obtained one of the goals of a good school and a fine Student Council.

Kearns Is Heard at Northern

By ED SANTALA

Bruno Kearns, sports editor of The Pontiac Press, spoke to the Polaris staff Wednesday on newspaper style and makeup.

★ ★ ★

The editor offered suggestions valuable to any newspaper staff. This was Kearns' second appearance at Northern as a guest lecturer.

The annual Fall Festival of the Pontiac Northern High School and Pontiac Central High School music departments will be held at 8 p.m. Monday in Northern's gymnasium.

★ ★ ★

The several groups from the two schools will combine for part of the program and also will perform separately.

★ ★ ★

Conductors for the evening will be Melvin Larimer of Northern, George Putnam, Mrs. Doreen Voltmann and A. Micheal Dempsey of Central.

GUEST CONDUCTOR

Guest conductor will be Don Craig of Ithaca College, Ithaca, N. Y. He is a former member of the Fred Waring orchestra. This will be Craig's fourth appearance in Pontiac.

Members of the vocal classes are selling tickets at 50 cents each.

★ ★ ★

A new college club has been formed at Northern. It's main purpose is to provide information to the college-bound seniors and juniors. It is limited to upperclassmen because most students have realized their college ambitions by then.

★ ★ ★

The club is sponsored by Victor Lindquist, assistant principal.

Members will gather at dinner meetings to hear college representatives and find out more about obtaining their higher education. Field trips to colleges and universities are planned also.

The results of the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test will be discussed with the students concerned and their parents 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at Northern.

Black and White Cover

Clarkston Sells Hilltopper

By PAULETTE KIMBALL

This year's Clarkston High School yearbook, the Hilltopper, has been on sale during the noon hours this week. A deposit of $2 was required to order. There will be no sales after this week.

★ ★ ★

The black and white covered annual is featuring a student index, 144 pages, and many pictures covering each and every important event of the school year.

The theme will be "Past, Present, and Future," and will be skillfully displayed throughout the entire book by use of art, copy and pictures.

Pictures for publication, which cover both the Wolf Cry, our school newspaper, and the Hilltopper staff, will be taken by specially picked boys to work with Powell Studios.

Once a month, they will assist the studio while learning more about the business.

WORK IN PAIRS

They will split into pairs. The first working there will be Larry Blackett and Paul Bennett. Headed by Dan Cooper, Barry Breidenbaugh, and Bart Connors, teachers of the high school, are the remaining staff.

★ ★ ★

Seniors: Cliff Irwin, Paul Bennett, and Ron Highlin.

Junior: Larry Blackett.

Freshmen: Dave Smith, Peter Wilford and Mike Simonson.

Dennis Kruthers, John Jones and Jim Manfield also participate in the staff.

★ ★ ★

Responsible for the great work done on project are Thespo Christidies, editor; Sue Larkin, Business Manager; Lucy Oakley, Art Editor; Carolyn Talmadge, Mary Upward, Joyce Galligan, Craig Smith, Michael Beaumont, Norman Masters, Fay Ann Burley, Sue Turek, Callie Douglas, Larry Blackett, and Nancy Peters.

Union Leader Says Schools Let Down

DETROIT (AP) — Leonard Woodcock, vice president of the United Auto Workers Union, said today that schools should be freed "from primary dependence upon property taxes for support."

In a speech prepared for the Detroit Teachers' Institute, Woodcock, who is a member of the board of governors of Wayne State University, said such dependence "is now politically dangerous."

He declared "the incipient taxpayers' revolts are instinctive reactions against unfair systems of taxation."

The solution, Woodcock said, "is greater state aid through revenues collected in a fair and equitable manner and, most necessary of all, federal aid to education in all its forms."

FALLING DOWN

Woodcock said "America is falling down on the job" of education of its youngsters. He said less than 4 per cent of the nation's gross national product goes for education as against an estimated 10 to 15 per cent in Russia.

$4 Million Will Go to Schools

LANSING (AP)—After first balking, the Legislature has cleared the way for Michigan's public schools to collect four million dollars in federal matching monies for science projects.

The House yesterday passed the Senate-approved measure 82-16 and sent it to the governor for signing. Some supporters voiced reluctance at accepting federal help.

"I'm opposed to federal aid to education," said Rep. Frank D. Williams (D-Detroit). "But we would be very foolish as one of the nation's biggest taxpaying states if we did not get at least a portion of all this money that is being spread all over while we sit on our hands."

Rep. Robert E. Waldron (R-Grosse Pointe) warned that federal aid might lead to federal local control.

MUST MATCH

Local school districts must match federal aid dollar for dollar under the National Defense Education Act. It must be used for purchase of scientific equipment, construction of laboratories or related purposes.

All other states but Arizona and Wyoming have taken advantage of the program.

The office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruciton has agreed to administer the program on the state level without a special appropriation.

Rochester High Clubs Organize

By MARCIA SEED

Rochester Senior High School has 21 juniors who have applied to be exchange students to any free foreign country in the summer term of 1960.

The various clubs at Rochester High held their first meetings of the year last Friday. Among the business conducted at the Science, Art and Junior-Senior Girls' clubs was the election of officers.

Top officers of the respective clubs are George Griebe, Ron Reeves and Kay Brannack.

Other officers named were Dian Rankin, secretary, and Kirk Collins, treasurer, for the Science Club. In the art organization, Wendall Evans is vice president, Pat Gerczack, secretary, and Lou Ann Carlson, treasurer.

Class representatives for the club are Sue Rock and Tom Cullen, seniors; Cecily Donnelly and Carol Galusha, juniors; Vicky Wood and David Price, sophomores.

A new system of report card distribution has been employed at the Rochester Senior High School in which parents of the students have been asked to pick up the report cards each marking period.

FIRST CARD

The first card distribution took place last Monday in homerooms, after which the parents had an opportunity to talk to the different teachers.

This system was considered a success by faculty members and participating parents.

Nineteen students made the first marking honor roll.

"A" average students were Sharon Carpenter, Janice Anderson, Sharon Smith and Judy Spangler.

"B" average students were Jim Carie, Lita Carpenter, Nancy Hallenbeck, Jenifer Marion, Carolyn Brewer, Douglas Eroh, Jack Gillespie, John Landon, Carolyn Lingle, Virginia Vincent, Martha Mercer, Jane Mercer, Donna Buck, Sonny Green and Frank Watts.

W. Bloomfield High Takes Tenpin Aim

By DODI DWYER

The familiar cry of "strike" is once again being heard at Sylvan Lanes Bowling Alley as the junior and senior Bowling League of West Bloomfield High aim for the elusive ten pins.

★ ★ ★

The 10 teams vying for championship are Little Joes, Alley Kittens, Holy Rollers, Pin Queens, 300 Club, Wood Choppers, Bony Rollers, Pin Pointers, Gutter Girls and Frantic Four.

The Girls Athletic Association of West Bloomfield High School, under the watchful eye of its sponsor Evelyn Vershire, has begun a new year of activities.

★ ★ ★

Karen Farley was elected president and Salle Erwin, vice president. Both girls are seniors. The two junior officers are Nancy Barringer, secretary; and Jo Crawford, treasurer.

LEARNING SOCCER

The girls are now engaged in learning the rules of soccer. The teams will participate in interschool competition.

★ ★ ★

Homecoming Was Big, Colorful at Walled Lake

By PAUL PROULX

Homecoming is still the topic of conversation at Walled Lake this week. The exciting game and festive program were highlighted by the presentation of the queen and her court. Queen Donna Neighbors, a senior, looked lovely on her pink, white and aqua float. She was gowned in white chiffon.

Senior attendant, Linda Doyle, wore a dress of yellow and orange chiffon. Barbara Kreza, junior attendant, chose red organdy and sophomore attendant Sharon Brown, pink chiffon.

A pep assembly was held last Friday to produce pre-game spirit. Denny Garrels and his pep band and varsity and reserve cheerleaders led the student body in cheers and songs.

George Beeman, the 1959 cross country team captain, presented E. V. Ayres, principal, with the Inter-Lakes Conference Championship Trophy to be placed in the sports award showcase. Bob Christian and John VanSicklen, football team co-captains, spoke to the students urging them to come to the game.

Another topic of discussion is the language laboratory for French, Latin and Spanish students. The lab has nine booths with earphones and microphones. Students listen to their own pronunciation and also to recordings done by professionals.

Lake Orion High Hosts Parents at Game With Troy

By DAVE NORTON

Lake Orion High School annual Family Night will be observed at 8 tonight when Troy High School invades the home gridiron.

The parents will be issued numbers to correspond to those on their sons' jerseys and will seat directly behind them on the field.

After the game, there will be a get-together in the high school cafeteria where refreshments will be served. The program is sponsored by the Lake Orion Athletic Association.

Asks Candidates to Announce Makeup on TV

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore) proposed Thursday that political candidates join television's honesty campaign by telling the viewers when they are wearing makeup and using prompting devices.

★ ★ ★

"No one who has followed political campaigns in America in recent years can help but be concerned over the tendency to substitute play acting for reality.

"This may be all right for the theater. It is not all right when it comes to selecting individuals to govern the United States," Neuberger said.

★ ★ ★

He made the suggestion in a letter to President Frank Stanton of the Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) who recently banned "canned" applause and simulated spontanitey on his network's TV shows.

Citizens Rebel at Dirty Look of '30s Movie

CLEVELAND, Tenn. (AP)—In a bow to public opinion, 20th Century-Fox plans to retake depression scenes filmed at nearby Charleston.

The popular outcry was over what local critics called the "skid row" look of extras who portrayed unemployed in a breadline. The scenes were filmed Thursday.

"There were plenty of us walked the streets in those days, unable to find work," said one resident. "Our clothes got pretty threadbare but we kept them clean. We didn't look like that."

Extras hired for today's retake were told to dress "like the typical east Tennessean of the depression days."

The movie, not yet named, depicts early days in the development of the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Michigan Cities Lead Traffic Safety Count

CHICAGO (AP)—Two Michigan cities led their population groups in traffic safety and another placed third in the first nine months of 1959, the National Safety Council reported yesterday.

Detroit, with 2.6 traffic deaths per 10,000 registered vehicles, led cities with over one million population. Wyandotte, with a 0.0 rating, was first in the 25,000-50,000 group.

Flint was third in the 200,000-350,000 classification with 1.2 deaths for every 10,000 registered vehicles. Toledo, Ohio, was second in the same group with a 1.0 rating.

Truman Likes Symington?

Says Adlai Couldn't Win

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman sees Adali Stevenson as a "loser" in the Democratic presidential nomination sweepstakes and is out to see that he doesn't get it, a political leader says.

Jack Matthews, Harris County Democratic Executive Committee secretary, said Thursday night the ex-chief executive told him as much during a Texas visit Oct. 18.

★ ★ ★

Truman refused to say whom he favors when questioned at a Dallas news conference. He conceded that Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson is a leading contender.

★ ★ ★

He also remarked, "Texans could wait until Missouri is heard from." Observers interpreted it as a plug for Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo), frequently mentioned as a possible nominee.

Matthews said that at a Dallas breakfast for Democratic leaders he was introduced to Truman as the president of the Texans-for-Stevenson clubs.

"He said, 'You're backing a loser,'" Matthews related. "And I said 'No, I'm not.' Then he said to go ahead and I said, 'I certainly intend to.'"

★ ★ ★

Matthews said Truman continued: "You're going to get beat."

The Houston man said he inquired who would beat him and Truman replied, "Me." Then, he said, Truman told him he should support his state's favorite - son candidate.

Now in Battle for Mayor of Philadelphia

Stassen Descending GOP Ladder

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold Stassen has had a hard time selling whatever it is he thinks he has to offer.

He's more than just a hard man to discourage. He's a hard man to embarrass. And it doesn't necessarily follow that because he said something yesterday he will be saying the same thing today.

He's been trying for office ever since 1944, three times for the presidency. Then he aimed at the governorship of Pennsylvania. Always his Republican party refused to nominate him.

At last this year he got the Republican endorsement to run for the job of Richardson Dilworth, a Democrat and mayor of Philadelphia. This is quite a comedown for a man who panted for the White House. The Philadelphia election will be held Tuesday.

It doesn't mean his ambition has dwindled. If he became mayor and got control of the Pennsylvania Republican organization and through that could win the governorship later, he'd be in a spot to try for the presidency in 1964. He is now 54 years old.

Yet, if anyone looks washed up in national politics it's Stassen. As much as a political party can hit a man with the back of its hand, Stassen was hit in 1956 when he tried to prevent Vice President Richard M. Nixon's renomination.

Stassen was a pathetic political sight that year. He not only got no support that counted but wound up in a situation which to another man might have been unbearably humiliating: at the convention he seconded Nixon's nomination.

His 1956 repudiation, plus the other times his party had ignored his own personal ambitions, didn't seem to dent him at all. In 1958 he was back on the anti-Nixon theme again.

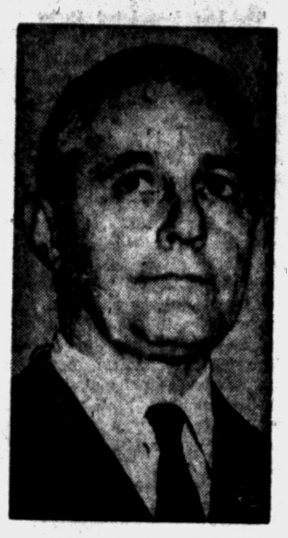
This time, after a conference with Presudent Eisenhower, he walked out on the White House steps and announced he might run for the Republican presidential nomination in 1960 if only to stop Nixon from getting it.

That was in March 1958. Two months later this man, who was thinking in terms of a presidential race in 1960, sought but couldn't get the Pennsylvania Republican nomination for governor.

Now, running for mayor of Philadelphia, he's done a switch on Nixon. He says he will stay clear of any presidential contest between Nixon and New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

UNDER WATCH

Stassen was considered a liberal back in the 1930s—when he was governor of Minnesota and before he got the presidential bug—but liberals may look twice at his tactics in the mayor's race.



RICHARDSON DILWORTH

HAROLD STASSEN

In this campaign he has promised to ease Philadelphia's employment problem by keeping migratory workers out of the city.

When one Philadelphia Democrat heard about Stassen's promise on migratory workers, he said: "Stassen is a migratory worker himself." It is just because of his working whereabouts that he got into his most recent difficulty.

* * *

Recently Philadelphia's revenue commissioner, Mortin Rothman asked Stassen: what about paying city wage taxes for the four years from 1953 through 1956, while Stassen was in Washington on the government payroll?

Stassen said he not only had paid the taxes but said he had receipts to prove it. But in a showdown Thursday he didn't produce the receipts and, instead, claimed exemption from the tax for the years she worked for Uncle Sam in Washington.

Rothman said he will fight Stassen in the courts for the money and let them decide.

Army and Air Force Buy Debated Movie

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Army and Air Force, overruling a screening committee's recommendation, decided Thursday to purchase the film "They Came to Cordura" for showing at military bases.

The screening committee had recommended against purchase on the ground that the film, starring Gary Cooper and Rita Hayworth, disparages the Medal of Honor — the nation's highest military award.

* * *

A joint statement from Army and Air Force headquarters said the picture will be shown at military installations "throughout the world." The Navy had previously decided to buy the film "as good entertainment."

* * *

Cooper, as an Army major in the film, selects five men to serve as ready-made heroes and to receive the medal. The story revolves around difficulties created by their lack of heroism on a mission.

Delay by U.S. With Big Rocket May Prove Good

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The chief of the Air Force Research and Development Command thinks the delay by this country in building a big rocket may have been a blessing of sorts.

* * *

Lt. Gen. Bernard Schriever told a civic club Thursday the Soviet Union at the end of World War II began concentrating on a powerful rocket capable of throwing heavy loads into space—such as the one which boosted the first Sputnik.

"In the United States we waited until 1954 to begin intensive development of lighter warheads and showed it was not necessary to build such a rocket.

"This is the reason why our rocket payloads are smaller, though no less efficient, than those of the Soviets. So the delay of 10 years could be considered an advantage," Schriever said.

Iranian Father Can't Tolerate Son's U.S. Wife

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Two years ago a young Iranian student married an American girl while studying here. Last year he was ordered home by his parents.

His wife Cleo stayed here—because he feared his parents objected to the East-West marriage.

Mrs. Sarraf Thursday obtained an uncontested divorce from Hadi A. A. Sarraf. A letter from Sarraf explained that his mother didn't object to the marriage, but his father wouldn't tolerate it.

"He (the father) swears he will divorce her if we stay married," Sarraf said. "I cannot destroy a complete family because of my selfish welfare. I had to sacrifice to avert complete disaster to a family of 10 boys and girls, many of them still young.

"I envy you because you are free and can do what you like. Pray for me because I need it badly. All my love always."

Strike Could Came Next April

Rail Featherbedding Issue Aired Sunday

By ROBERT GOLDENSTEIN

CHICAGO (AP)—The most explosive issue between the nation's railroads and railroad unions—a controversy that has brought threats of a possible nationwide strike—will come out in the open Sunday.

The carriers will make their formal proposals for changing the rules that have governed railroad work for more than four decades.

★ ★ ★

The railroads call the work agreements "featherbedding" — forced payment for work not done or needed. They claim the practices they want to eliminate are obsolete and wasteful and cost them more than 500 million dollars a year.

★ ★ ★

The unions counter that the working rules are essential to insure safe and efficient railroad transportation. They claim that railroad workers have a higher record of increased productivity than any other class of workers.

EYE APRIL DATE

The management proposals will reach union officials Monday or Tuesday. Industry spokesmen estimate that if neither side yields or compromises in later negotiations, a legal nationwide strike could be called by around next April 1. Dispute-handling provisions of the Railway Labor Act would prevent a legal walkout over the issue before that date.

★ ★ ★

If a nationwide strike is called, more than 800,000 railroad workers would be made idle.

Wage negotiations are deadlocked with three key unions. A walkout over this issue conceivably could come as early as next January if all settlement and delaying efforts fail.

★ ★ ★

The unions have demanded a 12 per cent pay boost and the carriers countered with a proposal they take a 15-cent hourly pay cut.

★ ★ ★

A three-year moritorium expires Monday on the working rules affecting 210,000 employes engaged in the actual operation of the trains.

MANAGEMENT READY

Management planned its frontal attack on he work agreements several months ago. Handley Wright, vice president of the Association of American Railroads, said the action was prompted by "dire economic necessity and we are dead serious."

The railroads have run large ads in newspapers across the country headed, "Railroad Featherbedding, $500,000,000 Loss Every Year—and It's Your Loss Too."

★ ★ ★

This management campaign has drawn the ire of union leaders. The Railway Labor Executives Assn. has planned a massive labor rally in Chicago Nov. 5 billed as "rail labor's counterattack upon the industry's propaganda campaign."

COMING OR GOING? — It's hard to tell when you see her just where two-year-old Cathy Higgins of Taunton, Mass., is going. Her mother knitted the extra face on the back of her hat, but she seems very unconcerned as she sits in the "driver's seat" of a supermarket shopping cart.

American Legion Book Burners Are Told of Hitler

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—Fifteen admittedly not so well-read American Legion members halted a public book burning yesterday when a reporter reminded them that was how Hitler got started.

★ ★ ★

Reese Wells, education reporter of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, a Scripps-Howard newspaper, assigned to cover the book burning at the city dump, asked the legionnaires:

★ ★ ★

"Weren't the last famous book-burnings in Munich about 1937?"

The legionnaires, all members of the Memphis Post No. 1 youth antismut committee, agreed.

★ ★ ★

"Let's go to the garbage pile. We'll throw garbage," Post Commander Guy Bates said.

★ ★ ★

One of the books spared was "Follow Me Down," a crime of passion story in the Mississippi Delta written by Shelby Foote, Memphis writer and historian.

★ ★ ★

"It's a sad and strange thing that men can go off to fight a war against something and 15 years later be guilty of the same thing themselves," Foote said.

Saginaw UF Slams 13.7 Pct. Over Top

By The Associated Press

Saginaw completed its United Fund drive last night by raising $888,910, which was 113.7 per cent of the community's goal of $794,438.

This topped last year's Give-Once-For-All charity campaign by more than $100,000.

In the Detroit area, the United Fund drive has raised 68½ per cent of the $17,650,000 goal to be raised by next Thursday for 195 health and welfare services. Factory workers in the Detroit area also are contributing generously.

The Ford Motor Co. fund and Ford employes contributed $2,611,859. Benson Ford, Ford vice president, said this was the largest charitable gift of its kind in American history.

Unhurt in Plane Mishap

SAGINAW (AP) — Leo A. Cummings of Mount Morris and Gordon D. Teakle of Saginaw escaped injury Thursday when Cummings' plan was damaged in landing at Tri-City Airport. The plane on a flight from Flint developed engine trouble on approaching the airport near Saginaw. It missed the runway and sheared off a wing when it struck a road stop sign.

Governor Angry at U.S. Probing in His Alabama

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI)—Gov. John Patterson said Thursday night that U.S. Civil Rights Commission agents are investigating new Negro voter registration complaints in Alabama and urged state officials to refuse to cooperate.

★ ★ ★

"I resent this interference from Washington," Patterson said. "This is just another election attempt to win votes for (Vice President Richard M.) Nixon from minority groups in the North."

★ ★ ★

He said there are peaceful race relations in Alabama.

"Washington should spend its money investigating muggings, killings and stabbings in New York and Chicago. Nelson Rockefeller knows more about race riots than I do," he said.

U.S., Britain, Soviets Talk Year on Test Ban

GENEVA (UPI) — The United States, Britain and Russia Thursday completed a year of arguing over how to ban nuclear weapons tests. They still were deadlocked over rival East-West plans.

★ ★ ★

A 75-minute meeting produced no further agreement on techniques to detect underground nuclear blasts and differentiate them from natural earth tremors.

Russian suspicions that inspection teams might be used for military reconnaissances has blocked all efforts to make headway on the item.

The argument is so crucial that today's meeting was canceled to give both sides a long weekend to reconsider their positions.

★ ★ ★

Dispatches from London quoted Western military experts as saying reported Soviet advances in nuclear weapons were forcing the Western powers to think twice about extending the present moratorium on nuclear tests.

Salt Lake is the largest inland body of salt water in the Western Hemisphere, 75 miles long and 40 miles wide.

Muskegon Votes Tax to Aid County Airport

MUSKEGON (AP) — Muskegon County voters yesterday approved a one-mill tax for four years to develop the county airport at a cost of $2,750,000. The tax was authorized by a vote of 6,878 to 5,981.

★ ★ ★

In the last 20 years, the county has voted eight times on the project and turned it down. Yesterday's vote was the third in the last two years.

Textile Industry in Black With Whopping '59 Year

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — With the steel strike hogging the headlines, one very cheerful note in the economy has slipped by almost unnoted.

That up-and-down industry—textiles—has been having one of its up years.

★ ★ ★

Profit increases over 1958 are little short of sensational. Unlike many other industries, its gain held at the same rate right through the third quarter.

★ ★ ★

All of 30 companies in various sectors of the textile industry show increases over a year ago. Combined, the earnings of the companies reporting for the first nine months so far total 90 million dollars, a whopping 127.5 per cent over the 43½ million the same firms racked up in the first three quarters of 1958, when three of them were operating at a loss and many others were visibly limping.

★ ★ ★

And, unlike many other industries, the prospects for the final months of this year are bright. Most textile makers and finishers say the steel strike has had little effect on sales, even in the mill towns. Retail sales of textile products have generally continued lively.

PRICES STIFFEN

The gain in sales this year has been a prime reason why the textile industry is making such a good showing. But there are others.

Fabric prices have stiffened this year, while the cost of raw materials, especially cotton, has been less.

★ ★ ★

And more of the sales gain has been carried over into profits. This is because the industry has freed itself of the inventory surplus that plagued it a year ago, and because there has been little tendency to overproduce this year—an ailment to which the mills are prone whenever sales in one line or another perk up.

★ ★ ★

And the textile mills are now benefitting from the new equipment installed in recent years which makes for cheaper production. Also there has been a lessening of competition as some marginal mills folded during the lean period.

U.S. Fires Kill 11,500 in 1958

Property Loss Is Less Than Year Before, but Home Toll Sets Mark

BOSTON (AP)—Nearly two million fires cost the United States some 11,500 lives, 1¼ billion dollars in money loss and a new high in the destruction of homes in 1958, the National Fire Protection Assn., reporte dThursday.

The over-all property loss was a little less than that of the year before. The association noted the approximate 1,994,000 fires logged represented a reduction of 32,000 from 1957 and a decline of $1,100,000 in losses.

But, while total losses were checked slightly, the report said, "more American homes went up in smoke than ever before in history."

The record shows fire destroyed or damaged 558,000 dwellings in 1958, causing a loss of about 309 million dollars. These totals which are new highs, represent an increase of 28,000 in dwelling house fires and nearly 33 million dollars loss to home owners over the previous year.

The main causes of fires in buildings in 1958 were defective heating and cooking equipment, and careless smoking.

Grand Rapids to Take Bids on Planetarium

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI)—Grand Rapids museum director Frank Dumond said the city will take bids Nov. 18 on construction of a $35,000 planetarium.

The new building will be constructed as an addition to the museum's east building and will include a 30-foot dome to provide a background for projection of constellations.

Young GOP to Get 'Blueprint for Peace'

Mrs. Max Williams, widely known speaker and civic leader, will present a "Blueprint for Peace" when she addresses the Oakland County Young Republican Club Monday night.

Mrs. Williams, a resident of Royal Oak, has long been active in civic and political affairs. She is an invitational member of the Speakers Research Committee for the United Nations.

She is also a member of the advisory council of the Oakland chapter of the American Assn. for United Nations.

Monday's meeting will be held at the GOP headquarters in Birmingham, 351 N. Woodward Ave. It will begin at 8 p.m.

The Century plant, a relative of the desert yucca, takes from 25 to 100 years to bloom. As soon as blossoms appear, it dies.

County's Road Post His Goal

Ex-Ferndale Supervisor Lilly Seeks Unexpired Commission Term

A former Ferndale supervisor has kicked off the race for an unexpired term of Oakland County road commissioner by announcing his candidacy.

★ ★ ★

In letters sent to all Board of Supervisors members, Clayton G. Lilly, 40, announced he is a candidate for the unexpired term of Commissioner Lee O. Brooks.

Brooks, on the Board of Road Commissioners since 1937, this week submitted his resignation, effective Dec. 31, because of ill health.

Speculation immediately mounted as to Brooks' successor for the $7,500 position.

NAMED IN DECEMBER

Supervisors will name the new commissioner at their December meeting. Nominations are made from the floor.

If the commissioner is to be a present supervisor, he must first submit his resignation to his city or township before he can be eligible for the new job, Norman R. Barnard, county corporation counsel said.

Reports have circulated that Hiland M. Thatcher, veteran member of the Board of Supervisors and its vice chairman, is eying the post.

★ ★ ★

Lilly, a Democrat, served on the Board of Supervisors for seven years until August when the Ferndale City Commission refused to reappoint him.

His removal followed his support of an opponent of Mayor Bruce D. Garbutt.

While on the Board, Lilly was chairman of the Drain Committee, a member of the Board of Public Works, and a member of the Boundaries Committee.

He also served as Oakland's representative on the Huron River Watershed Intergovernmental Committee.

"Through my work on the Board I have come to appreciate the vital importance of roads, water, sewers and drainage in the present and future growth of our county," Lilly said in asking support for his candidacy from supervisors.

It's Halloween Light Up Porch 'Tween 6 and 7

The time? Six to 7 this evening.

The place? Your house if you want to distribute gifts to the youngsters celebrating Halloween in Pontiac.

What to do? Turn on your porch light—that's the signal in Pontiac.

Anything else? Yes, says the Pontiac Department of Parks & Recreation. Turn off your porch light at 7 p.m. so the little ones know it's time to go home, safe and sound after an evening of fun.

To insure a happy Halloween for Pontiac youngsters, the department issued a last-minute message today, urging public cooperation in the above recommendations.

They reminded everyone within the city limits that Halloween is to be celebrated tonight, not tomorrow night, Oct. 31.

Experience has shown, the department said, that a weekend Halloween isn't as much fun for the youngsters as a weekday.

★ ★ ★

Children who get home tonight by the recommended deadlines are eligible for prizes in the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce Mystery Treat telephone event.

★ ★ ★

The hours are 9 p.m. for elementary school youngsters; 10:30 p.m. junior high school and 11 p.m. senior high school. The prizes range from a bicycle and wrist watches to five silver dollars.

Says Ike Golfed as Europe Bled

English Field Marshal Alanbrooke Flays U.S. Military Leadership

LONDON (UP) — A new book of wartime memoirs says Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower played golf instead of guiding allied military preparations at a crucial stage of World War II in Europe.

★ ★ ★

The book is based on the diaries of Field Marshal Viscount Alanbrooke, who as Sir Alanbrooke was chairman of the British chiefs of staff in the war.

The second instalment of his diaries and correspondence is incorporated in "Triumph in the West," which goes on sale here Monday. It was compiled by Sir Arthur Bryant from the private papers of Alanbrooke, now living in retirement in the south of England.

In the first instalment, Alanbrooke rapped Eisenhower as a man whose strong point was charm rather than military ability. He also criticized the wartime leadership of Prime Minister Churchill, saying his drive made him troublesome and "he never faces realities."

★ ★ ★

The new instalment, quoting from diary notations of November 1944, said there was "a very unsatisfactory state of affairs in France with no one running the land battle."

"Eisenhower, though supposed to be doing so, was on the golf links at Rheims — entirely detached and taking practically no part in running the war," Alanbrooke wrote.

Matters got so bad, he added, that a deputation of Maj. Gen. Sir John Whitely, a senior British officer on Eisenhower's staff, and U. S. Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith and others decided to tackle the supreme Allied commander.

They "went up to him to tell him that he must get down to it and run the war," Alanbrooke wrote.

There is a contention that shortcomings in American leadership threw away a chance to end the European war in 1944.

Alanbrooke puts much of the blame on Eisenhower, picturing him as a poor strategist.

Gil Hodges 'Bats' for Jimmy Hoffa on Celebrity List

CLEVELAND, (UP)—Gil Hodges now batting for Jimmy Hoffa.

How that unusual switch came about was told yesterday by Cleveland Amory, noted author and editor of the forthcoming "International Celebrity Register," an 864-page directory that includes more than the persons usually referred to as blue-bloods.

★ ★ ★

James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, was scheduled to be among the 2,400 celebrities listed in the directory. "But a scream went up from industrialists," Amory related.

★ ★ ★

Since the part of the book that was to include Hoffa already was in type, a search was made in the same part of the alphabet for someone who would fit.

The man picked was Hodges, the veteran first baseman for the

JUDGE PARKINSON

Federal Judge Missing 4th Day

CHICAGO (UPI) — Police and the FBI, armed with fresh clues, conducted a two-pronged search along Chicago's South Shore and in northern Indiana today for missing U. S. Appeals Court Judge W. Lynn Parkinson.

Promising leads in the four-day search for the distinguished jurist were uncovered yesterday.

A blue-black homburg identified as belonging to the 57-year-old judge was found by a striking steelworker on the sandy shore of the 63rd street beach.

At the same time, Indiana State Police reported that a man answering Parkinson's description was seen twice Wednesday night at a lunch room in Chesterton, Ind.

Police said the developments were the best clues since the judge began his strange journey Monday afternoon after complaining of a pain in the back of his head.

His family said he was worried about low blood pressure and was under a doctor's care because of overwork. They said they were certain he was suffering from amnesia.

Attorney Checks Miss Aadland's Mother's Ideas

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The district attorney wants to know how much Florence Aadland knew of her 17-year-old daughter's relationship to the late Errol Flynn.

The girl, blonde Beverly Aadland, raised some official eyebrows this week when she told a news conference she was disappointed in not having a child by the swashbuckling actor.

Dist. Atty. William B. McKesson said a parent who countenances a minor child's intimacy with an adult male could be charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Mrs. Aadland insisted to newsmen Thursday that she had never seen anything to suggest that the actor and her daughter were intimate.

Waterford Man, Girl Injured in Collision

A Waterford Township man and his daughter were injured in a two-car collision at 6 p.m. yesterday at Telegraph road and Myrtle street.

Samuel Pill, 47, of 2401 E. Hammond Lake Dr., told police that he was traveling south on Telegraph when a car driven by Ronald Wilson, 49, of 2356 Middle Belt Rd., attempted to make a left turn onto Myrtle and cut in front of his car.

Pill's auto, after hitting the Wilson car, ran into a telephone pole on the west side of the highway.

Pill was taken to Pontiac General hospital with chest and facial injuries. His daughter, Lynn, 14, suffered cuts to her forehead.

Fine, Jail Term in Cross Strike

Judge Holds UAW in Contempt for 2nd Time for Violence

MOUNT CLEMENS (UP) — Local 155 of the United Auto Workers Union and its president, Russell E. Leach, were held in contempt of court a second time today in picket line incidents stemming from a long strike at the Cross Co. in nearby Fraser.

★ ★ ★

Circuit Judge Alton H. Noe fined the union $100 and sentenced Leach to 10 days in jail, this sentence to run concurrently with one handed Leach by Noe on Wednesday. The union was fined $250 previously.

Judge Noe today made permanent an an injuction limiting union pickets at the plant to 10. He also ordered that a 20-foot strip be painted off for use of non-strikers with which Cross has continued partial operation since the union's Aug. 4 walkout.

The judge also banned congregating at the union's trailer strike headquarters across a road from the plant, and said the injunction's prohibition against violents or threats applied anywhere, not just in the plant area.

★ ★ ★

Cross Co. asked the contempt citations handed down today. It based its plea on what it said were incidents happening between Aug. 19 and Sept. 2.

The previous contempt citation, also sought by the company, stemmed from mass picketing which caused a traffic jam throughout the area of the plant on Sept. 15 and 18.

The company lost its request that the judge ban all picketing at its automation machinery making plant.

In fining the union and sentencing Leach anew, Judge Noe granted a 20-day stay of execution to permit appeal to the State Supreme Court.

★ ★ ★

In today's case, Leach was accused of threatening a non-striking truck driver.

Seven Children Die in Slum Home Fire

OTTUMWA, Iowa (AP)—Seven young children, crowded into a small two-room house with a baby sitter, died today when fire destroyed the slum area dwelling.

The baby sitter, Sharon Ann Dooley, 14, owes her life to a fireman who was familiar with the house, having helped remodel it several years ago.

Six of the victims were children of Patricia Van Horne, about 28, who police said was out with Lorraine Campbell, whose only child, Carla, 4, also was killed.

Death Cheats Student, Age 63, of His Degree

ANN ARBOR (UP) — Death yesterday cheated a 63-year-old University of Michigan student of his dream of getting a college degree.

Philip R. Banghart, who entered the university at the age of 60 because "I was in a rut," collapsed in the school's health center yesterday and died shortly afterwards in University Hospital. Death was attributed to a cerebral hemorrhage.

The university's oldest undergraduate, who knew hundreds of students by their first names, was to be graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in June.

Only last month Banghart said he planned to go on to law school, "if I can hold out that long."

President in Hospital for Annual Checkup

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower is in Walter Reed Army Hospital today for his annual physical examination.

The 69-year-old President entered the medical center late Thursday. The White House said he expects to check out Saturday or Sunday.

Eisenhower still is bothered by a lingering cold which he caught early last month. And he said a week ago that during the last three years has developed chronic bronchitis.

But press secretary James C. Hagerty says those ailments did not cause the President to go to Walter Reed.

U.S. Ponders Cutting Military Assistance

WASHINGTON (AP)—A study is under way in the highest levels of the Eisenhower administration on whether to cut military aid abroad in order to trim this country's trade deficit with other nations.

The move comes two weeks after the government announced that henceforth a large part of the development loan fund's loans must be spent in this country.

That action also was aimed at cutting the trade deficit, but it reversed a long-standing policy of making these loans available with no strings attached.

It is known that there was a vigorous backstage fight over the new loan policy. But Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson is considered to have gotten his way.

'Vote Republican' Big Private Sign Tells Passersby

ATLANTA (UPI) — Republican Henry Alexander makes no bones about his politics. He has a huge sign in his front yard exhorting passersby to "Vote Republican, Nov. 8, 1960."

★ ★ ★

His "front yard" consists of a 50-acre estate in an exclusive northside Atlanta section. The sign—or billboard — is located within a few feet of Peachtree road across from the South's largest shopping center, Lenox Square. Thousands of persons bound for a day of shopping or going to work in downtown Atlanta are exposed every day to Alexander's message.

★ ★ ★

The billboard stands eight feet high and is 18 feet wide. It is painted in a patriotic red, white and blue motif and cost Alexander, a wealthy attorney, $381 to erect. But he considers the cost a worthy contribution to the Republican cause and well spent if the people get the message.

Builder of Trailers Dies in Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Norman C. Wolfe, 62, of Cassopolis, a national leader in the manufacture of mobile homes, died Thursday at Ferguson-Droste-Ferguson Hospital after a brief illness.

He was president of American Coach Co. and executive vice president of West-Wood Products Co., both of Cassopolis, and chairman of the Board of Park Development Corp. of Chicago, a trailer park promotion organization.

Wolfe also was past president of Mobile Home Manufacturers Assn. of America.

'Other' Mona Lisa May Be Bought for $1,500,000

NEW YORK (UPI)—The "other" Mona Lisa, a disputed version of the Da Vinci masterpiece valued at $1,500,000, may get a home in a Texas museum.

★ ★ ★

The Vernon family, owners of the painting, and the prospective purchasers in Houston, Tex., confirmed that negotiations "are going on and have been for some little time." But neither party would say how near to a sale the negotiation have gotten.

Purchase of the painting would rank as one of the biggest art transactions in American history. A reliable report indicates the Vernon family already has turned down an offer of $800,000 for the work. But this could not be confirmed.

"The price under discussion is $1,500,000," said Christian W. Slagle, a Vernon in-law and family spokesman. "This painting is the hottest thing in the art world even though it is an eighth of an inch away from complete authentication. But one must remember that the Louvre Mona Lisa has a mystery of its own.

★ ★ ★

The beautifully preserved Vernon Mona Lisa is believed by many experts to have been painted by Leonardo da Vinci in 1502, five years before he painted the nearly identical but more famous canvas which hangs in Paris' Louvre. The Vernons keep it in a bank vault in Summit, N.J.

Traffic Takes Lives of 3,330

September Toll Same as Last Year; '59 Tally Stands at 27,140

CHICAGO (AP) — Traffic accidents in the United States killed 3,330 persons last month and 27,140 in the first nine months of this year, the National Safety Council reports.

The September toll was the same as in September 1958, the council said, and the nine-month toll was 870 more than for the same period last year.

★ ★ ★

"It isn't much to shout about," the council said, "but at least it's better than the unbroken increases that prevailed during the first seven months of the year."

No fatalities were recorded in 512 of the cities reporting, the council said. Buffalo, N.Y., Providence, R.I., and Wichita, Kan., were the three largest. Perfect records for the first nine months of 1959 are held by 191 cities. The three largest are Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Evanston, Ill., and Charleston, S.C.

TB Top State Killer on List of Diseases

LANSING (UPI) — It is dangerous to think tuberculosis is no longer a problem "and that we can all now relax," Dr. John L. Isbister Thursday told an annual bacteriology seminar.

Isbister, state TB control officer for the Health Department, said TB germs sometimes resist drugs. He said Michigan should be "on the alert against this demon in our midst."

He said TB takes more lives in Michigan than all other communicable diseases combined and last year, 395 people in Michigan died from the disease.

More than 2,500 new cases of TB are discovered in the state each year, he said.

7 Children Made County Wards

Parents' Home Labeled Unlivable; Placed at Cottages on Telegraph

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — Seven children of a family here were made temporary wards of the county until their parents can provide a suitable home for them, a juvenile court official reported yesterday.

Assistant Director of Juvenile Court James H. Leuven said the children, who range in age from 2 to 10 years, were taken into custody after township police filed a charge of neglect against the parents.

Police told Leuven they had filed the charge against the parents, Matt and Betty Smith, 22580 Tulane Rd., because their home was in "an unlivable condition."

At a preliminary hearing this week before Juvenile Court Judge Arthur E. Moore, who ordered a full investigation, the parents agreed it would be best for the children to stay with the court until they could take some positive action in fixing the house.

Leuver said the children are at the Children's Home cottages on Telegraph road until an investigation can be completed in two or three weeks.

Grand River Span to Open

Businessmen Bank on Bridge

NOVI — Revitalization of business along a 22-mile stretch of Grand River avenue from Brighton to Farmington is expected soon with official opening of a new bridge near here Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

The bridge, which is expected to bring back a flow of traffic past business on the forgotten stretch of road, connects Grand River with the U.S. 16 expressway. The Huron river is spanned by the new bridge near Kensington Park.

When the expressway was built nearly two years ago the state used the old Grand River bridge for expressway traffic, virtually eliminating through traffic on the former trunkline.

Then merchants along the strip organized the Greater Grand River Assn. to promote business and resolve problems that arose.

PRESSURE SUCCEEDS

Their pressure on Lansing prompted the state to build the $180,000, 200 foot long bridge.

At noon Wednesday, State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie will cut a ribbon officially opening the bridge. It has been unofficially opened a week. Gov. Williams is expected.

Also attending will be county highway and local officials.

★ ★ ★

Ceremonies will begin with the ribbon cutting and shaking of hands on the bridge by the mayors of Brighton and Farmington, cities at both ends of the strip.

From the bridge, a motorcade will carry officials to brief stops at New Hudson and Novi and then into Farmington.

After the parade, merchants, state, county and community officials will attend a luncheon at Saratoga Farms restaurant on Grand River.

Lapeer Hospital Still Jammed

Shortage of Special Bath Tables Blamed for Present Delays

LAPEER — The transfer of mental patients from the Lapeer State Home and Training School to state tuberculosis sanatoriums is being held up by an equipment snag, Michigan's health commissioner reported today.

The move also involves patients in jammed mental institutions at Kalamazoo, Newberry and Mount Pleasant.

Health Commissioner Dr. Albert E. Heustis said difficulty in procuring special bath tables limited the number of transfers in the past month to 22. The tables are needed to facilitate washing of the patients, all of whom are adult, full-time bed cases.

The transfer program is aimed at easing the pressure on overcrowded state mental hospitals and making use of available bed space at TB sanatoriums at Kalamazoo, Howell, Hancock and Gaylord.

Seventy patients have already been moved with 25 placed at Kalamazoo, 22 at Howell and 23 at Hancock. The Gaylord sanatorium has yet to receive its first transferee because of the special bath table problem.

★ ★ ★

"Once the tables are available, the program should proceed swiftly," Heustis said.

Original plans called for a total transfer of 270 — with 50 going to Kalamazoo, 80 to Howell, 40 to Hancock and 100 to Gaylord.

"If we can get the money, we now plan to construct facilities for another 80 patients at Howell and an additional 15 at Kalamazoo, bringing the total involved in the program to 365," Heustis said.

'COPPER HIGHWAY' — Over a million tons of copper-veined rock were used to build the base for this eight-mile section of reconstructed U. S. 45 through the Military Hills area of the Upper Peninsula. Engineers estimate the roadbed contains a million pounds of copper. Use of the waste rock from nearby abandoned mines cost one-fourth as much as using ordinary gravel or other aggregates. The new stretch of road will be opened officially on Tuesday. A driver can now travel from Lake Superior to the Gulf of Mexico on all-paved U. S. 45.

Orion Groups Discuss Schools

See Growth Problem Action Necessary Now as Enrollment Rises

LAKE ORION — Some 50 representatives of organizations, clubs and churches in the Lake Orion Community School District last night heard a discussion by school officials of the growth in student enrollment throughout the district.

The study group heard that total enrollment in all schools on Oct. 19 was 3,194 representing an increase of 246 students over last June.

Superintendent of Schools A. A. Reed said predicted enrollment in 1965 is 4,200. This is mainly due, he said, to the increase in new subdivisions outside the village.

It was generally agreed that it is better to talk about the needs of the district now rather than to wait until it is necessary to take drastic measures.

The study session was held at Blanche Sims School.

Another meeting is planned in about two weeks at which time participants will try to determine the first steps to take in a program of school expansion.

School officials say that some move must be made to provide additional classrooms for the anticipated student increase plus money to pay for staffing them.

Don't Annoy Them While Sleeping or Eating

Study Reveals Why Dogs Bite People

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A government publication has come forth with a study of why dogs bite people.

One of the conclusions boils down to this: let sleeping dogs lie — or at least awaken them gently.

An article in the October issue of Public Health Reports advises humans that if they're bitten, the odds are two to one it's their fault not the dog's.

★ ★ ★

It also said dog bites could be reduced by 40 or 50 per cent if people followed these rules:

—Don't awaken sleeping dogs abruptly.

—Don't play ball with a dog if it excites him.

—Do not intercede in dog fights.

—Don't pet, startle or snatch food from a dog while feeding him.

The publication, published by the Public Health Service, said a research team has decided that in two-thirds of all dog bite cases, the biter bites without malicious intent.

The article, entitled "Epidemiology of Dog Bites" was prepared by Drs. Henry M. Parrish of the University of Vermont, Frank B. Clack and James F. Mock of the Allegheny County (Pa.) Health Department, and Duane Probst of the University of Wisconsin. It cited these findings:

Dogs bit more children than adults and more boys than girls.

"High-risk groups" among possible dog bite victims are "school children, preschool children, persons coming to the dog owner's house in line of work (delivery men etc.), newspaper boys, mailmen, and veterinarians."

Young dogs are worse biters than old dogs, females bite oftener than males, and so-called working and sporting dogs are more likely to nip than hounds. Working dogs, "the worst offenders," include boxers, collies, Eskimo dogs, German shepherds, great Danes, Saint Bernards, and Doberman pinschers. Sporting dogs include pointers, setters, retrievers, and spaniels.

★ ★ ★

Dogs bite least in winter, more often in spring, and oftenest in July and August.

PAULINE GERKIN

The Rev. and Mrs. Walter C. Gerkin of 1003 W. Fifth St., Rochester, announce the engagement of their daughter Pauline to the Rev. Carl M. Kummer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Kummer of Colden, N.Y. An early summer wedding is planned.

Finish Planning Bazaar, Fair at Orion Church

ORION TOWNSHIP — Final plans for a bazaar and fair Nov. 6 and 7 at St. Alfred's Episcopal Church have been made by women of the church.

Mrs. Ralph Precious and Mrs. Emily Dalgleish are cochairmen.

The fair and bazaar in the church building on M24 at Indian Lake road will be open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. both days.

Among the colorful booths will be a children's corner planned by Mrs. Donald C. Davidson. The holiday booth will have ornaments and decorations for both Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Other booths will offer religious articles and books, candy, house plants and many unusual gift items.

Mrs. Frank Dalgleish and Mrs. John Tulloch, cochairmen of the bake sale, said their booth will feature foods representing several foreign lands, as well as a tempting variety of homemade pies, cakes, cookies and breads.

Mrs. William Toll is in charge of entertainment.

Hot dogs, coffee, soft drinks and ice cream will be available.

Thieves in Almont Ready for Hunting

ALMONT — Thieves who broke into the Almont Hardware sometime Wednesday night are well-equipped for hunting today.

★ ★ ★

Taken were two shotguns, a rifle, six boxes of shells, a box of heavy socks and some $50 in cash from two cash registers.

Romeo State Police and Almont Police Chief Edward D'Arcy are investigating.

Troy Presbyterian Church to Celebrate 30th Year

TROY — Climaxing a period of growth paralleling that of Troy which achieved city status only a short time ago, Troy Presbyterian Church will observe its 30th anniversary Sunday.

The Rev. W. Donald Pendell, who became the first full-time pastor of the church in January 1958, will preach the sermon during the 11 a.m. worship service. His topic will be "Coming of Age."

Following the service, the church will hold its annual meeting of the congregation at 4 p.m. On the agenda is election of officers and presentation of the 1960 budget as prepared by the ruling elders and trustees.

State Bars Expansion

Halts Southfield Sewers

SOUTHFIELD — This city has been told by the Michigan State Health Department that it cannot build any new sewer laterals or tap into existing sewer lines along the city's eastern border until the 12-Town Drain is completed.

Southfield now joins all the other south Oakland County Communities that would be affected by the 12-Town Drain in the no construction policy started by the health department almost two years ago.

State Health Director Donald M. Pierce said existing sewers will not take any more sewage and still maintain adequate health standards.

The ruling affects the city's plans to build 180 foot of sewer line along Hilton road between Fairfax and Greenfield roads.

A second request to use the Murray street drain at Pierce street and 10-Mile road was pending at Lansing. No action is expected now.

Southfield Zoning Battle Will Resume

SOUTHFIELD — A court battle over proposed commercial zoning on Southfield road near 12-Mile road between local developers Lieberwitz-Lezell Co. and Bedford Subdivision residents will resume again on Monday.

The firm has been trying for three years to get its Southfield property rezoned from residential to commercial for construction of a million and a half dollar, 14-store shopping center.

After repeated refusals to rezone by the city council, the company took the matter to Oakland County Circuit Court.

In the meantime, residents in the area filed a separate suit protesting the proposed rezoning.

Circuit Court Judge William J. Beer last week agreed to a tentative settlement permitting the developers to construct office buildings only on the disputed site.

The settlement was signed by the city and the firm, but residents who filed suit refused to sign.

All parties concerned will appear before Judge Beer Monday morning for a pretrial hearing.

Government Buys Lard to Bolster Hog Prices

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The government bought 7,863,000 pounds of lard for $918,000 yesterday in a move to bolster hog prices.

The lard will be donated to needy people and nonprofit institutions.

At the same time, the Agriculture Department announced it had purchased 84,000 pounds of frozen ground lamb for the school lunch program. The price tag was $50,000

Where State Grange Stands

Seeks Dairy Commission

SAGINAW (UPI — The Michigan State Grange wants a state commission created to exercise certain authority over the dairy market.

★ ★ ★

The Grange also has come out in favor of limiting anyone's right to be governor of Michigan to three consecutive two-year terms. There is no limitation now.

In other expressions in and outside the field of agriculture, the farm group also:

Called for stricter censorship of movies and laws to supress obscene literature.

Demanded that drunk drivers lose their driving licenses for good.

Favored increased taxes on alcoholic beverages.

On the dairy market question the Grange urged that a state commission be given authority over the merchandising of certain products. The commission would set prices for limited periods of time during emergencies and would set up rules and penalties under a system of fair trade practices.

Would Build Apartments on Polo Grounds Site

NEW YORK (AP) — The Polo Grounds, where once the cry "play ball" rang out, is going to become a low rent public housing site.

The city housing authority is going to ask the board of estimate for approval to erect 1,700 apartments where the former New York Giants baseball team played.

Federal funds would be used for the project.

Interfaith Bible Is Suggested

Catholic Journal Lends Its Voice to Cry for a Common Translation

By LOUIS CASSELS

For more than four centuries, the reformation split in the Christian family has been underscored by the existence of "Protestant Bibles" and "Catholic Bibles."

Now biblical scholars are saying that the time is ripe to eliminate this particular symbol of division. They believe it is quite feasible for Protestants and Catholics to get together on a joint translation of the scriptures.

The idea got a powerful boost this week from the respected Catholic Journal America. In an article entitled "The Bible Is a Bond," Associate Editor Walter M. Abbott, S. J., said a common translation of the Bible "would be a great achievement in the history of Christianity."

While agreement on the exact wording of the Bible would by no means settle all doctrinal differences between Catholics and Protestants, Fr. Abbott pointed out, it would put an end to a number of mutual irritants such as different renditions of the Lord's Prayer, and different numberings of the Ten Commandments.

★ ★ ★

When all Christians are "talking about the same Commandments," said Fr. Abbott, "there would be hope for better observance of the one great commandment—to love one another.

Fr. Abbott's article drew an immediate, warm response from a leading Protestant authority.

Dr. Robert M. Grant, president of the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, said it would be "hard to overestimate" the importance of a universally recognized translation of the Bible as a "unifying force" among Christians.

A joint translation is, of course, easier to propose than to accomplish. Biblical translators, even when they are of the same denomination, can spend months in heated debate over the meaning of a single phrase. But the very fact that the project can now be seriously considered is evidence of the strong current of unity which is now running in all branches of the Christian church.

Photographers Steal Show at Met Opening

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — I love to go to the Metropolitan Opera openings or other performances to listen to the photographers.

★ ★ ★

They toss off genuine Americana in their comments about the dressed-up celebrities shoving into Sherry's saloon.

WILSON

Accustomed to exciting events, they feel that these Big Names are a lot of mummies. "This assignment I wouldn't wish on my crummy brother-in-law," snorts one . . .

Now the evening gowns are pushing into the bar at intermission. "This is certainly a flat-chested year," growls one photog . . . "Everybody step to the rear of the bus, please! . . . Third race comin' up . . . Who's that old broad with her neck on upside down? . . . Sure you saw her somewhere; in a mausoleum . . . They should title this opera 'Zircons Are a Girl's Best Friend!' . . . Whaddaya mean, listen to a little of the opera? After 15 years of not listenin'? . . . Tell Mr. Bing nighty-night, I'm cuttin' out . . ."

Yet there were many beauties there—Mrs. Max (Debbie) Kettner in such a tight-fitting all rhinestone dress she couldn't squeeze into her row of seats and had to stay in the bar . . . busty opera star Rosalind Elias with Van Cliburn . . . Patrice Munsel with a cane . . . Roz Russell wearing a Grace Vanderbilt headache band . . . Greer Garson attired in sheer money . . . Faye Emerson with Jack Herlihy in one room . . . and Skitch Henderson, to whom she announced her engagement at another opera opening, in another room with his German bride Ruth Michaels.

DEBBIE

Also Hope Hampton (with James Roller) was being the photographers' darling and also exclaiming about Antoinetta Stella having "a D flat above a high C." Hope recently suffered a broken wrist, so somebody told her in the future she shouldn't wear so many diamond bracelets on one arm.

Frank Sinatra is the first motion picture star ever to be given the right to approve all publicity and all still pictures used in exploiting a film. It happened with "Can-Can," which Frank just finished. He personally went over the releases which he considered vital. Glamour gals in the past have been given approval of still pictures but not the publicity yes-or-no, which Sinatra had written into his contract at 20th Century-Fox. Frank explained, "The time has come for some people to have that right."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

CBS staffers are really jittery. Sam Levinson, who was on "Masquerade Party," called to ask from which theater it would originate, and was told: "Sorry, we can't give that information." . . . Deborah Kerr and Peter Viertel set the date: June 11 at Klosters, Switzerland . . . Sarah Churchill got her father's OK to write her memoirs.

Edith Piaf, recuperating from a circulatory ailment, will be back at work in January . . . Singer Jimmy Rodgers, touring Australia, bought two racehorses . . . Roy Campanella was offered a supervisory job in Cuban baseball this winter . . . Actor Melvin Douglas' daughter joined a collective farm in Israel.

Farmer's Almanac(k) Cries 'Foul'

Get Out Your Galoshes, Grandma

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — By cracky, the Old Farmer's Almanac(k) made it to the newstands for the 168th year today. As usual, its rheumy old eyes peer into the future to forecast the weather — and if you were planning a picnic for next Decoration Day, Ma, skip it.

The Old Farmer's says it'll rain on Memorial Day, 1960, and I wouldn't bet against it. The Almanac's predictions are not always as dependable as radar, but they're at least as valid as wooly worms, and deserve a certain amount of respect, if only in deference to age.

There will be more long weekend vacations than usual next year, though unfortunately the weather will be unconducive to frolics in the great outdoors.

Compared with five long weekend holidays this year, there will be nine in 1960: New Year's (Friday), Lincoln's Birthday (Friday), Washington's Birthday (Monday), Memorial Day (Monday), Independence Day (Monday), Labor Day (Monday), Veteran's Day (Friday), Thanksgiving and Christmas. Columbus Day, alas, falls on a Wednesday — but as Queen Isabella told him, you can't have everything.

Here is the way the weather shapes up, as the old farmers feel in their bones:

New Year's — mild and clear.
Lincoln's Birthday — overcast.
Memorial Day — rain.
Bunker Hill Day (celebrated in Suffolk Co., Mass.) — stormy.
Independence Day — hot.
Labor Day — unsettled.
Columbus Day — showers.
Election Day — stormy.
Veteran's Day — unsettled.
Thanksgiving — storms.
Christmas — mild.

As for the over-all picture of the upcoming winter, starting with this Nov. 1, the Old Farmer's predicts it will be "warmer than last year — and close to average temperature. There will be much more snow and precipitation, but this will occur in storms of some severity. . .

"Look for about 45 inches precipitation and 46 degrees average temperature — a cold January, February, March, late spring, hot dry summer and fall."

Can you believe these predictions?

Well, the Almanac claims that for last year (1958), the daily weather forecasts were 71 per cent correct. And in a few of its 168 years of predicting, it has had nearly 100 per cent accuracy in weather trends.

★ ★ ★

They point to this story from a 19th century year in Almanac annals:

As the book was being set up in print, one of the composing room boys asked Mr. Thomas (Old Farmer's first editor) what prediction was to be placed under July 13.

In careless haste, he answered — "Anything, anything."

The lad, literally obedient, set these words in type — "Rain, hail, and snow."

Readers were genuinely amazed the next July when, in various parts of America, it rained, hailed and snowed.

Tips to Newsboy Return to Aid School Fund

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP)—Waynesburg College presiden's nickel a week tip to his newsboy was returned with dividends Wednesday.

The newsboy, 13-year-old Rickey Stafford, gave a $5 donation to President Paul R. Stewart for the school's new science building.

Said the newsboy:

"Five dollars isn't much towards the $800,000 needed but at least it will buy a few bricks and someday I hope to be studying science there myself."

Reviews Wisner History

State Chapter of Founders Society Meets Here

The annual meeting of the Michigan Chapter of the National Society, Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America, was held at Devon Gables Tuesday.

Mrs. Earl S. Mastick, state president, introduced Richard Poole, guest speaker, who reviewed the history of the Wisner Home and the restoration work supervised by the Oakland County Historical Society.

The Wisner Home on Oakland avenue, now a century old, was built by Gov. Moses Wisner and occupied during his term as governor of Michigan.

Members were informed that the home is the only example of Greek revival architecture in Michigan.

★ ★ ★

Following Mr. Poole's talk, a gift was voted to the home by the chapter.

Annual reports were read by state officers and chairmen, four of whom are from Pontiac: Mrs. Ray S. Falk, corresponding secretary; Mrs. L. Lee Dunlap, registrar; Mrs. Ernest G. Clark, chairman of nominations; and Mrs. Harry D. Chapman, chairman of press relations.

Others present were Mrs. Glenn D. Curtis, vice president, of Grosse Pointe; Mrs. Fred Lindbloom of Bloomfield Hills, chaplain; and Mrs. Laura Clark Cook of Hillsdale, honorary national president.

Can it be the Shaggy Dog? Seems to be a junior-size version of the now famous pooch. All dressed up for Halloween, he sits placidly behind his jack-o-lantern and sucks on a lollipop. Even the youngest child wants to be in on the fun of dressing up for the night when spooks and witches run wild.

Dear Abby Uses Golden Rule

Be Generous, Treat the Poor Girl as You Would Like to Be Helped

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We are two girls with a problem. There is this girl at school who has a terrible reputation. And she won't leave us alone. Everywhere we go she is right behind us. She hangs around our locker and tries to eat lunch with us.

ABBY

It is causing us to lose all our friends because people are beginning to think we are just like her.

We don't want to hurt her feelings because she hasn't any friends. Please help us. We are all 14.

DESPERATE

DEAR DESPERATE: Be kind to her. She needs it. Showing this unfortunate girl common courtesy when she latches onto you will not damage your reputations. It is not necessary to cultivate her friendship outside of school. But when she seeks you out, treat her as you would want to be treated if you were in her unhappy shoes.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What is the matter with our young people today? I never forget the young people in our family on birthdays, confirmations and all special occasions. I don't expect them to reciprocate because many of them cannot afford to—but is it too much to expect a "thank you" note?

After a lapse of much time, I usually wind up writing to find out if they ever received my gift. Then I get a letter from their parents asking me to please forgive the young folks because they are "so busy." Would you please give me your opinion of this?

DISGUSTED RELATIVE

DEAR DISGUSTED: No duty is more urgent than that of returning thanks. Anyone who is old enough to print his name can sign a "thank you" note. If parents took the time and effort to teach their children this courtesy when they were very young, they would not have to apologize for them later.

DEAR ABBY: I am expecting my first baby within the next few weeks. This is my problem:

I want to name my baby (if it's a boy) "BURTON JUNIOR" after my husband. But my husband has been married before and he already has a son named "BURTON JUNIOR" after him.

Would it be all right to have another "BURTON JUNIOR?" I suppose this would cause a lot of confusion because the first BURTON JUNIOR lives in the same block with us, but you have no idea how much I want to name this baby after my husband.

EXPECTING

DEAR EXPECTING: Name the baby something else. Your block is already "over Burton'd." Why complicate matters?

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO SCOTTY: Let her go. She'll make a better memory than she would have made a wife.

★ ★ ★

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY, care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Introduced at School

McCarroll School room mothers, helpers and PTA executive board members were introduced at a get-acquainted tea Tuesday. Mrs. Russell Ridley was chairman.

Mrs. Eugene Hoisington, chairman of room representatives for the Pontiac Council of PTA outlined duties of room mothers and helpers.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Lewis Carpenter demonstrated methods of making Christmas corsages and decorations.

Mrs. Sidney Olson, president, and Mrs. Howard Shelley poured.

Starch Softens

If your hands are rough when mending, tiny snags occur. Try washing your hands in warm water with a small amount of starch added to the water. You'll find it makes the rough spots smooth and prevents snags in the material on which you're working.

Halloween Party Tonight!

A Halloween party will be held this evening from 7 to 8:30 at the Wever School gymnasium.

Sponsored by the PTA, the Wever-Owen-Hawthorne Community Club and Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department, the party will include refreshments and costume prizes.

Mystery telephone calls will be made at 9 p.m. and prizes will be given children who are at home when called.

Telephone chairmen are Arthur Bell and Mrs. Vernis Whitehead.

Other chairmen include Gale McLaren, decorations; Mrs. Carl Pearson, judges; Mrs. Loren Kay, prizes; Kenneth McQueen, outside patrol; Mrs. Kenneth McQueen, registration; Robert Norberg, refreshments; and Kenneth Kendig, master of ceremonies.

Red Cross Sets Training Course

The Oakland County Chapter of the American Red Cross has announced a home nursing course at the Franklin boulevard chapter house from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. beginning Tuesday.

Frances Giuliani, RN will teach the seven week course. It will emphasize care of the aged and convalescent, and bed care of children.

Local Sorority Council Meets

The October educational meeting of Pontiac Council of Pi Omicron national sorority was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Dunham in Drayton Woods.

Guest speaker was Dr. Norman Smith, a certified graphoanalyst and dentist of the Pontiac area.

Chairman and hostess was Mrs. Leon Skelley. Mrs. Robert Young, Mrs. Delmer Fields, Mrs. Buhl Burt and Mrs. Dunham assisted.

Beta Sigma Phi Party Honors Mrs. Eggleston

Epsilon Rho Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi gave a combination Halloween and going-away party Wednesday evening at the Sugden Lake cottage of Dorothy Phelps.

First prize for the most original costume was won by Mrs. Robert Colfer.

The party was in honor of Mrs. Thomas Eggleston who is moving to Arizona. Handkerchiefs, cards and a Beta Sigma Phi bracelet were presented to her. Miss Phelps served refreshments.

Philathea Class Holds a Party

The Eunice Philathea Class of First Baptist Church held a Hard Times Party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. V. F. Shelton on Barkman street.

Mrs. H. H. Savage told of her recent trip to Quito, Ecuador, where she visited her two sons and daughter who are missionaries there.

Mrs. Charles Norris, Mrs. Glenn Ebey and Mrs. Martin Jackson directed the program and refreshments.

MRS. RUSSELL COSTELLO

Delta Zeta Presents Chimes

Mrs. Russell T. Costello of Pine Lake road presented chimes in behalf of Delta Zeta sorority to the new Inter-Faith Chapel at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, recently.

★ ★ ★

The chimes resulted from the combined efforts of individuals, college and alumnae chapters and the national councils of recently merged Delta Zeta and Delta Sigma Epsilon sororities. Both groups were founded at Miami University.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Costello is National Panhellenic Conference delegate from Delta Zeta.

★ ★ ★

She will attend the conference at Boca Raton, Florida, Nov. 9.

Laura Belz, left, president of the Pontiac League of Women Voters, talks over plans for the Altrusa Club dinner meeting with Mrs. Hope Lewis, member of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors. The dinner meeting will be held at the Birmingham Community House at 6:30 p.m. Nov. 10.

Altrusa Club to Hear Growth Talk

The Altrusa Club of Greater Birmingham, which includes Pontiac and Royal Oak, will hold a dinner meeting at 6:30 Nov. 10 at Birmingham Community House.

Dr. Walter Blucher, executive director of the Southeastern Michigan Community Research Organization, will be the featured speaker.

★ ★ ★

The organization is a six-county effort to handle problems stemming from the growth of Metropolitan Detroit.

Dr. Blucher will talk about Oakland County's participation in this project.

He is a consultant on the National Committee on Urban Transportation and the only American honorary corresponding member of the Town Planning Institute of Great Britain.

★ ★ ★

Since this is a program the League of Women Voters is studying on a statewide level this year, members of the group are especially invited.

Reservations may be made by calling Edythe Peck of the Birmingham branch of the Detroit Bank and Trust Co. or Kathryn Vedder of Sloan, Whitfield, Jenkins, Price and Eshman.

Hospital Attendant Becomes Author

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Dariel Telfer, Pueblo, Colo., housewife, once fattened the family income by working in a state mental hospital.

When her legs gave out, she gave up her $200 a month attendant's job.

It's been three years since Mrs. Telfer turned in her uniform. Today, partially due to her hospital work, Mrs. Telfer is about to come into "enough money to pay all the family bills"—with plenty left over.

The road to riches commenced when Mrs. Telfer began a short story about hospital life. The short story grew to novel length.

Mrs. Telfer, unknown author, sent her pounds of pages to a literary agent in New York. In three months she heard the word that flutters a writer's heart and pads the bank book: Sold.

The book, "The Caretakers," is fiction, Mrs. Telfer said in an interview. "It is about the lack of heart in mental hospitals."

Mrs. Telfer, fortyish, still can't believe that Simon and Schuster will publish her book Nov. 2. She gasps when she mentions that paperback rights have been sold for $90,000. She gasps some more when she tells about movie companies dickering over the book. That means more money.

Mrs. Telfer is a music teacher by profession. "There's not much opportunity for music teachers in Pueblo," she said.

That's why she went to work in a mental hospital. And when that job didn't go smoothly any more, that's why she took to writing.

HERO AN ATTENDANT

The heroine of the book is Millie, an attendant. But Mrs. Telfer, like a pro, points out that "any likeness between me and fictional Millie is purely coincidental."

"Mental hospitals," Mrs. Telfer said, "never have enough help. They don't pay enough and the help is transient.

"My book doesn't end on a happy note. How could it? It is life."

Too many within state mental hospitals, she said, seem to forget that they are taking care of sick people. That is why, she said, many hospitals "seem more like penal institutions than hospitals."

Mrs. Telfer, wife of Forrest Telfer, a chemist, said she's going to fix it so her children get most of the income from the book.

Her son, Forrest Telfer Jr., is a college student. Her daughter, Mrs. Penny Brunette, recently married, She is 18.

When you get right down to it, said Mrs. Telfer, "I suppose you might say I'm a writer."

While she was waiting to hear about her first book, she turned out one novel-length detective story. Her third book is in the works.

Virginia Bedrosian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Osgian Bedrosian of Detroit married Harry Topalian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Topalian of Navajo road recently.

MRS. HARRY TOPALIAN

Wedding Rites Are Held at St. Sarkis Church

In a recent wedding, Virginia Bedrosian of Detroit married Harry Topalian of Pontiac at St. Sarkis Apostolic Church. A reception was held at the Piementese Club after the ceremony.

★ ★ ★

The bride wore a white peau de soie gown. Matron of honor was Mrs. Margaret Stephanian. Bridesmaids were Rose Aprahamian, Ruth Vartanian, Doris Sarafian and Mary Topalian. All wore gowns similar to the bride's.

★ ★ ★

John Stephanian was best man and ushers were Nick Stephanian, Harry Yangouyian, Paul Begian and Oscar Topalian.

Michael Stephanian was ringbearer and Jane Demirgian and Vicky Badorian were flower girls.

A party was given by the bridegroom's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Stephanian, a few days before the wedding.

★ ★ ★

Highlight of the evening was a skit, "This Is Your Life," in which the bridegroom's friends and relatives participated.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the newlyweds are living on Navajo drive.

Cora Garbutt Weds Clifford Clare Guyett

Cora Garbutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Garbutt of Cherrylawn street married Clifford Clare Guyett, son of Mrs. Mildred Guyett of South Astor street, Oct. 24 at Columbia Avenue Baptist Church.

The Rev. M. F. Boyd officiated at the candlelight ceremony before an altar decorated with vases of mixed white flowers.

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle with a fitted bodice, a scalloped waistline and a bateau neckline. The floor length gown had a front and back panel of lace and ended in a chapel sweep.

★ ★ ★

Her headpiece was a crown of pearls securing a fingertip veil of pure silk illusion and she wore a pearl necklace and earrings, gifts from the bridegroom.

Her bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white carnations with a corsage of white roses in the center.

MRS. CLIFFORD GUYETT

Annette Tippett, maid of honor, wore a pastel pink chiffon dress with white pearl accessories and carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations.

Bridesmaid Norma Reid wore a blue chiffon dress with pearl accessories and carried blue carnations.

Cindy Lou Lintemuth, the flower girl, wore a pastel pink chiffon dress and carried a pink lace ribbon basket with rose petals.

Robert Boneman was best man. Ushers were Kenneth Guyett of Rochester, Robert Guyett of Belleville and Ronald Guyett of Waterford, brothers of the bridegroom. Bobby Guyett was ringbearer.

★ ★ ★

A reception was held at the UAW-CIO Hall following the ceremony.

The bride's mother wore a pink taffeta dress overlaid with white lace, and pink accessories. Her flowers were white rosebuds.

The bridegroom's mother wore white lace over a blue taffeta gown with white accessories and a red rosebud corsage.

Harts of Utica Are Honored With Reception

The Merry Mixers Room at the CAI Building was the scene Sunda evening of a reception honoring the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. George Hart of Utica. Mrs. Hart is the former Mrs. Isabel Cummings of Waterford.

Mrs. Harold Wilson presided at the punch bowl.

★ ★ ★

Guests were from Utica, Commerce, Linden, Smith's Creek and Mt. Pleasant.

Mrs. Murlin Vaughn, Mrs. Junior Baum and Mrs. Lee Kaines were hostesses, all of Waterford.

Huron Gardens Club Hears Budget Talk

The Huron Gardens Extension Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Romeo Guibord on East Beverly avenue.

Following a cooperative dinner, a lesson on "Planning the Family Dollar" was conducted by Mrs. Norman Brown and Mrs. Howard Reynolds.

Drag your legs apart and then drag them together. Continue. Do not lift legs from the floor. This is to correct the hollow and the bulge beneath it on the outer hipline.

Common Fault

Work on Hip Bulge

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Q. "Please give me an exercise to correct the hollow and the bulge beneath it on the outer hipline. I know you have given an exercise for this in the past. I did not save it because I did not have this defect then. I know lots of women have this same trouble. Would you please repeat it?"

A. I often give exercises for this figure fault because it is one many women have even quite early in life. There are many good ones. Here are a couple.

Lie on the floor on your left side. Place your right hand on the floor in front of you to brace yourself. Now raise your right leg up as far as comfortable. Lower right leg. Continue raising and lowering leg. Turn onto the right side and raise and lower the left leg.

Another: Lie on the floor on your back, arms resting on the floor at your sides. DRAG your legs apart and then drag them together. Continue. Do not lift the legs from the floor.

Q. "I am 36 years old, 5 feet 1½ inches tall and weigh 95 pounds. My bust measures 32 inches, waist 22 and hips 32. I feel wonderful but my friends tell me I should gain weight. Please give me your advice in your Question Box column."

A. You are underweight. Even with a small frame you should weigh 110 pounds.

Q. "Is there a cream or exercise for saggy flesh under the chin and on the neck."

A. There are exercises which are beneficial. Circulation creams which whip up circulation are also an aid. Of course you should use a lubricating cream also.

If you would like to have my exercises for the chinline, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 10 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper. I have given several of these recently in this column.

Q. "I would appreciate your opinion concerning my weight. Some hint that I am overweight. I have gone on diets for three days and then stopped because I do not know whether I should lose or not. I am 19 years old, 5 feet 1 inch tall and weigh 115 pounds. I think I am small boned."

A. You are the correct weight.

Q. "While vacationing at a friend's house I was told "You're so fat." Please tell me the truth. I am almost 13 years old, 5 feet 7½ inches tall and weigh 131 pounds."

A. You rae the correct weight.

Klobnock-Koop Wedding Witnessed by 200 Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pease of Emerson avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Frances Elaine Koop, to Ronald J. Klobnock Oct. 17 at St. Michael Catholic Church.

White carnations banked the altar before some 200 guests.

★ ★ ★

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Klobnock of Emerson avenue.

Of white lace and satin, the bride's gown was fashioned on colonial lines and featured a Sabrina neckline trimmed with pearls and sequins, short sleeves and a chapel train.

A crown of pearls and rhinestones secured the fingertip veil made by the bride's mother. A white orchid with purple center on a white prayer book accented by stephanotis streamers comprised her bouquet.

★ ★ ★

Judith Ann Needham was maid of honor. She wore pink and carried white carnations.

Attendants were Mrs. Pattrick Duggan, Mrs. Dale Davis and Patricia Klobnock, the bridegroom's sister. They wore nylon chiffon over taffeta gowns in blue, mint green and lavender, respectively, and held white carnation arrangements.

Flower girl Buffy McFarland wore a pink frock and carried pink rose petals.

The bridegroom's brother Gerald Klobnock was best man. Ushers were Edward Sage, John Pease and Lewis Collins.

After a reception at the UAW-CIO Hall, the bride changed to a royal blue nylon dress with black accessories for travel to northern Michigan. The couple will reside in Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Pease wore a blue lace dress with white gardenia and pink rosebud corsage. Mrs. Klobnock was dressed in beige taffeta with a pink carnation corsage.

Guests from Greenville, Flint and Iowa were present.

Planning a Halloween Party?

With holiday entertaining just around the corner, October has turned up with a bonus on this year's party calendar.

Halloween, favorite night for witches' frolics, falls on a Saturday.

It's made to order for planning a teen party with a minimum of fuss and a maximum of fun.

Furthermore, it's a ready-made ooportunity for teen-agers to try their hand at entertaining "on their own."

No need to struggle over a color scheme; black and orange is it.

THEME APPARENT

No hunting about for a party theme; witches and ghosts have made Oct. 31 their special property for hundreds of years.

No struggle with special decorative effects, either — department and variety stores are stacked to the walls with everything the most ambitious Halloween party giver might need.

As for refreshments, suppliers and manufacturers of food specialties and soft drinks are doing their part to make party planning for teen-agers easier than ever.

★ ★ ★

Thanks to transparent, moisture-proof plastic film, cold cuts and cheeses can be bought presliced, trimmed and ready to serve.

Manufacturers of ginger ales, root beer, colas and other soft drink favorites have come up with dozens of exciting new thirst quenchers to add zest to sandwiches and snacks.

A Halloween party is a natural for a tricks and treats table, using the same idea. Just set out plenty of sandwich makings, let everybody make his own and don't spare the mustard!"

BEVERAGES TOO

The same thing goes for the beverage department. An easy way to add variety to a party menu is to include two or three "new and different" soft drink sparklers, provide plenty of ice cream in different flavors and give a prize for the most bewitching "Hobgoblin Soda."

If you want to set up a 'sundae bar' as well all you need is a variety of the new syrups and toppings, a spoon for each and plenty of paper cups and plates.

The two primary rules are plan ahead and keep it simple.

Here are some practical tips:

CHECK THE MUSIC . . . Be sure the phonograph, radio, or hi-fi set is in working order. If you're borrowing records, get them before party time, and clear plenty of space for keeping them safe and sound.

Plastic film, either clear or in party colors, will protect table tops and other surfaces from moisture rings, scratches, and other calamities. Do your part to help your guests relax and they'll do theirs to avoid accidents. (Lots of coasters help).

CHECK THE GROCERIES . . . Make a list, and be sure there's plenty of everything. Don't forget, plenty of ice cubes are a must.

Give Waiter Guest Order Then Yours

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: Recently I took friends out to dinner. The waiter came over to me first to take my order and I gave it to him. I have been told that I was wrong to do this and that as hostess, I should have been the last to order. Will you please tell me if I was wrong, and if so, what should I have said to the waiter?"

Answer: I am sorry but you most certainly were wrong to order before your guests. You should have asked your guests what they liked and then given the order for all to the waiter.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it necessary for a lady to get up to shake hands goodbye with another lady who is leaving earlier? Does she ever rise for a man?"

Answer: She usually stands if she is much younger than the one leaving, or if the latter is a stranger and crosses the room in order to shake hands. She doesn't rise for an intimate friend except in her own house or if the friend is very much older.

In her own house, a lady always rises to greet a guest and bid one good-bye, even though she is sixty and her guest a young man of twenty. One who is not a hostess does not rise for a man.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I adopted a little girl about a year ago. The final papers will be coming through very soon, making her our own daughter. We are so happy about this that we would like to give a party for friends and relatives to celebrate the occasion. Would such a party be in order, and if so, will you please tell me how the invitations should be worded?"

Answer: A party certainly would be in order — in fact, sounds very happy. Some such wording as this could be used: "At last Mary is ours! Will you come in to afternoon tea to celebrate with us."

JUST SAY "Charge It"

Unjust Blame Often Sign of Guilt Feeling

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

A young wife, realizing that she didn't love her husband, consulted a psychologist. Her realization was confirmed. On her return from Reno her worried parents invited her to visit them before resuming her job. Two days after her arrival, she blamed her mother for her marital mistake. She said bitterly:

"You brought me up to be afraid of hurting people. You've always looked so injured when I didn't do what you wanted me to do, that all Joe had to do was look injured when I said I didn't want to marry him to make me do it. Your training has made a mess of my life."

Shocked, wounded, her mother refused any responsibility for her marital failure. So, after a painful scene, the girl packed her bags and left to spend the rest of her vacation with a friend.

If her parent had not been so scared of the accusation, she would not have run away to her friend.

Of course, listening to unjust accusation isn't easy. Whether a child blames us for the milk he's spilled or for his marital misjudgment, it is hard to stand by quietly while he accuses us of making his mistakes.

Unless we can perceive that his need to blame us for them is his intolerable guilt at having made them,

Then the accusation goes in one ear and out the other. Instead of rushing to defend ourselves, we can dispense with the need to remind him that he was the person who spilled the milk or chose the wrong marriage partner.

We can ignore the whole problem of who did the terrible thing—and begin to make it appear less terrifying. We can say, "Children often spill their milk" or "Why are you so frightened to discover that you are capable of misjudgment?"

We do not accept the responsibility for what we didn't do; but make it more realistic for the child.

★ ★ ★

Always another person's need to condemn us for his failures confesses the intensity of his own self-condemnation. If we are interested in justice, we will, of course, insist on his solitary guilt. But if we're interested in him, we will help him take responsibility, not for some fancy self he thinks should be above mistakes but for the real one that will often make them.

Spook Time Is Here, With Safety Warning

It's time for that skeleton costume to come out of the closet and get together with the other spooks for some Halloween merriment. An old-fashioned party, with bobbing for apples and "pin the tail on the witch's cat," can be fun for the youngsters, but it should be safe as well.

Safety experts say that burns are the chief sources of Halloween danger and they recommend avoiding them by substituting flashlights for candles in Jack-O'-Lanterns, using metal or plastic ornaments rather than those made of paper and sturdy fabrics for costumes instead of crepe paper or gauze. To guard against falls, they suggest checking children's masks to see that eye openings are large enough for good vision.

But even the most circumspect "ghost" can have an unexpected mishap when romping at a party, so be prepared to give first-aid for a hurt thumb or skinned knee. Have petroleum jelly, sterile gauze bandages and antiseptic on hand for treating minor burns, cuts and bruises.

And if while the spooks at your party are occupied, other spirits rise to the occasion and mark your windows with wax or crayon, don't despair. These markings can be removed with turpentine followed by a soap and water washing. However, an ounce of prevention, as usual is worth a pound of cure, so have little packs of candies or cookies ready in advance, if you'd rather give treats than get the treatment.

Hearty Lima Bean Dish Calls for Mushroom Soup

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Mrs. Rolland Langerman of Walled Lake shares an interesting casserole recipe with us. She says her family will eat lots of lima beans if she fixes this hearty dish.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Langerman belongs to an Extension group. She is also an enthusiastic gardener. The Langermans enjoy traveling and camping.

QUICK LIMA BAKE
By Mrs. Rolland Langerman

1 package frozen lima beans
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
3 hot dogs, sliced
1 tablespoon instant minced onion
Salt and pepper to taste

Cook and drain lima beans. Mix with undiluted soup, meat, onion and seasonings. Put in greased one-quart casserole and sprinkle with grated American cheese. Cover top with buttered bread crumbs.

Bake at 350 degrees for 25 minutes. Makes 4 generous servings.

Every playroom can be a circus this season since so many Jacks and Jills will be wearing these clown pajamas. Colorful pompons at ankles and chest trim this polka dot pajama suit. It is finished off with a ruff around the neck, and there is a matching clown hat for the outfit. Of sanforized flannelette, these pajamas are available locally.

Sees Red Unity Cracking in Asia

China's Forays Cement India-Pakistan Split, Pain World Movement

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

Communist China's activities may be creating a solid anti-Communist front in South Asia and raising a threat to the unity of the world Communist movement.

These developments tend to support a conviction which is growing among qualified observers: that the main threat to global peace today is Red China.

★ ★ ★

The Red Chinese activities can eventually become a severe headache to the Soviet Union's leadership and to the main body of the world Communist movement, which still takes orders from Moscow.

Already the Red Chinese have contributed to a sudden thaw in a long and bitter cold war between India and Pakistan, who had been feuding over a number of stubborn issues for about 12 years.

★ ★ ★

Talk is heard in New Delhi and Karachi of an all-round reconciliation between the two nations. There is even speculation about common defense measures by the two countries. Possibly Burma, also feeling the Red Chinese threat, will join her South Asian neighbors in such an enterprise.

DISPUTED CONFERENCE HOUSE — This is the "conference house" built by Central Michigan College, Mount Pleasant, on remote Beaver Island, which is a hunting and fishing paradise. It cost $30,000. Sen. Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield) said Thursday he disputed the judgment of the university in spending the money for it at this time. CMU vice president N. C. Bovee said the building did not involve state funds but was financed through operation and sale of veterans' housing and sale of surplus equipment. The house, which sleeps 40, is not for students, he said.

Hollywood Headlines:

Aldo's Loaded With Talent – Heavy Drinker and Actor

By ROBERT MUSEL

LONDON (UPI) — Film star Aldo Ray chased his breakfast coffee with a triple vodka and said the trouble these days was that too many film heroes not cut out for riotous living were trying to get into the act.

"No wonder they're dying like flies," he told one reporter and one beautiful but unidentified breakfast guest. "Just because a guy is a star, and maybe good-looking, doesn't automatically make him a Casanova or give him the capacity to be a heavy drinker.

"Thes are special talents. Har. Har. Take my word for it."

The phone rang and the 220-pound actor moved lithely toward it, his great shoulders rippling under a tight sweater. He hung up.

"How do you like that?" he asked. "I was thrown out of that apartment house and now they don't want to give me back the rent I paid in advance."

Why did they throw him out?

"We had a few parties," roared the happy-go-lucky blond giant "by which I mean 14 in the 14 days I was there."

Aldo poured a "salty dog"—vodka and grapefruit juice—with a hand whose fingers were heavily bandaged.

"Burned 'em in the last scene of 'The Day They Robbed the Bank of England,' the picture I've just finished. I was using oxy-acetylene to steal one million pounds out of the bank when the stuff ran wild. But what the heck. We had a great party on the set afterwards and a big blowout in town and here I am after two hours sleep.

'GORGEOUS'

"How do I look, baby?"

"Gorgeous," said incognito Baby.

Aldo denied he is the remarkable physical specimen he appears to be—ex-football star and swimming champ.

"Actually I got high blood pressure," he said, "and me only 33. The doc says it's 187 and I ought to slow down. But I had it when I was 17 and it didn't stop me from getting into the Air Force or from being a frogman. So I say if I'm all right for war—I'm all right for peace.

"And as for maybe checking out. Who cares? Man, I've lived—two wives and about 200 engagements."

Ray was advised that British movie people admired his diligence on the set and were speaking highly of his performance in "The Day They Robbed the Bank of England."

He blushed—then angrily waved a letter which he said was from his American agent complimenting him on his deportment this trip to Europe.

"Shucks I'm wilder than ever," he claimed. And rang for more vodka.

Cheboygan Ferry Shifts From Cars to Lowly Spuds

WASHINGTON ISLAND, Wis. (UPI)—The "City of Cheboygan," a former Straits of Mackinac car ferry, will begin a new career Saturday as the Great Lakes largest potato boat.

The boat was sold by the Michigan Highway Department to Edward H. Anderson, Franklin Park, Ill., potato processor for $25,000. Michigan had no more use for the City of Cheboygan and other car ferries after the 100 million dollar Straits of Mackinac Bridge was opened in 1957.

★ ★ ★

Anderson had the City of Cheboygan refitted in a Sturgeon Bay, Wis. shipyard. Its power plant was torn out to make room for the spuds.

A tug will tow the boat Saturday when it will make a trip from Washington Island to either Sturgeon Bay, Kenosha or Milwaukee, depending on the weather.

He said he will use the City of Cheboygan as a floating warehouse and processing plant. When the boat puts into port the potatoes will be washed, graded and bagged on board, then shipped to their destination by rail and truck.

Novelist Caldwell Now on Visit to Soviet Union

MOSCOW (AP) — Novelist Erskine Caldwell is back in the Soviet Union for his first visit since World War II.

The Soviet news agency Tass said Caldwell and his wife were entertained at the Union of Writers of the U.S.S.R. Some of Caldwell's novels are widely read here.

2 State Airmen Missing After Jet Blows Up

CHIPLEY, Fla. (AP) — An F101 Voodo jet fighter was blasted to bits by an earth-shaking explosion yesterday.

A Tyndall Air Force Base, Fla., spokesman said one of its F101s was missing on a flight to Ogden, Utah. Two airmen were aboard, the pilot and a radar observer. Both are Michigan residents.

Tyndall identified the men aboard the missing plane as Capt. David J. Herman Jr., of Park Lake, Mich., the pilot, and Maj. Robert A. Le Beuff of Detroit.

A collection of the works, personal effects and pictures of Herman Melville, author of "Moby Dick," are on display in the Berkshire Athenaeum of the public library in Pittsfield, Mass.

Red China Expands India Border Checks

NEW DELHI (UPI) — The Chinese Communists have extended their checkposts over a wider area of the Ladakh section of the Indian states of Jammu and Kashmir, reports from the frontier said today.

★ ★ ★

Foreign policy experts said it appeared likely the Communists may attempt to penetrate even farther into Indian territory.

Unofficial reports said the Chinese were not only continuing their "incursions" of troops across border areas but also violating Indian air space.

The Chinese were also reported to have warned Indian outposts at Khinzamane to withdraw, on the ground that this area north of the traditional McMahon Line border belongs to China.

★ ★ ★

The Chinese were said to have spread their checkposts in northeast and northwest directions from Ladakh, scene of a clash Oct. 21 between Chinese troops and Indian police in which nine Indians were killed.

Playhouse 90 'Misalliance' Spouts Delightful Talk

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — It was time for a talk-talk-talk show on Playhouse 90 last night.

And rousing good talk it was, too.

★ ★ ★

George Bernard Shaw's high-speed, high-penetrating comic romp, "Misalliance," was run off in a delicious style on CBS-TV by a clever cast that consisted of Robert Morely, Claire Bloom, Siobhan McKenna, Rod Taylor, Kenneth Haigh, John Williams, Isobel Elsom and last but by no means least, Robert Casper as the "over-bred" Bentley.

The twinkling epigrams poured fourth as Shaw touched on some inconsistencies in the attitudes of the lower classes toward the upper classes and vice versa.

Stuffiness can be found in unexpected places, said Shaw, as he also paid his compliments, in passing, to such institutions as love, the arts and law.

★ ★ ★

Robert Stevens' direction provided a stimulating pace. He clicked it off as quickly as a Sgt. Bilko smow — highest praise for this sort of show when done on TV.

At times the speed threw Morely for a loss, but nevertheless, his verbal blurrings were minor compared to the spirit he displayed for his part.

Closeups were superb and the Camera's movement heightened the airy atmosphere.

I also enjoyed having brief scenes that led into commercials repeated when the commercials ended. It added a smooth flow to the production.

DIALING AND FILING: Why is it that the high spots on Pat Boone's ABC-TV half hour rarely find him among them? Last night's enjoyment came from a halloween costume ballet and Ella Fitzgerald's singing.

After a couple of solos, Ella was obliged to join Pat in some songs. I know it's Pat's show an all that, but his sluggish voice has no business tackling a swinging melody when Ella's voice is in the vicinity.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Although under "exclusive" contract to ABC-TV for three years, Debbie Reynolds will be seen on CBS-TV next year. She'll be in a Lucile Ball-Desi Arnaz comedy hour, in exchange for which Lucy will appear on Debbie's first ABC-TV special, tentatively set for next September.

Tom Poston and Fess Parker are the latest additions to "Merman on Broadway," the Ethel Merman startime special slotted for Tuesday, Dec. 1 on NBC-TV . . . CBS-TV's Sunday, Nov. 22 presentation of Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic is being planned as an all-Mozart hour, filmed last summer in Venice, Italy.

Has Long-Range Plan for Michigan Waters

DETROIT (UPI)—A long-range research and financing program to preserve Michigan's water resources was proposed by Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, at a U.S. Senate Committee hearing in Detroit yesterday.

Dr. Heustis said research was needed on such problems as municipal sewage and water treatment, waste disposal in streams and the Great Lakes, and sanitation aboard boats. He urged joint planning on waste among communities along the Rouge, Clinton, Huron, Flint, Cass and Saginaw rivers.

Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla), chairman of the committee, and Sen. Philip A. Hart (D-Mich) conducted the hearing on national water resources. It was one of a series being held by the committee in the nation.

Magic Spell Ends for Red Wings, 2-1

Bruins Defeat Detroit Icers by 2-1 Count

Detroiters Now Show Only Tie in Past Three Contests

BOSTON (AP)— The Detroit Red Wings' magic spell is definitely over and they seem to have lapsed back into their woeful pattern of last season.

★ ★ ★

Defeated 2-1 last night by the always-troublesome Boston Bruins, the Wings have only a tie to show for their last three games.

It was an old nemesis, Bronco Horvath who singlehandedly ruined Detroit in its first visit this season to Boston Garden.

★ ★ ★

The Wings dropped six of seven games in the garden last season.

Horvath increased his National Hockey League goal leadership to eight, scoring both Bruin goals. He beat goalie Terry Sawchuk less than four minutes after the game started and Detroit battled the rest of the way without pulling even.

The Bruin scoring star again scored on a blazing 20-footer midway in the final period. Then, with goalie Harry Lumley fighting to preserve a shutout against his old teammates, Gary Aldcorn notched Detroit's only goal less than 10 minutes before the end.

★ ★ ★

The Wings were hot at the start, outshooting the Bruins 14-7 in the first stanza. But the veteran Lumley cooled them off.

It was a lackluster performance for the Wings, coming a night after their disappointing 3-3 tie at New York.

Only their sensational six-game unbeaten streak at the start of the season keeps them in second place. It's a repeat story for the Wings—inability to score.

★ ★ ★

Detroit scored the fewest goals in the NHL last season and finished last. This year the Wings have scored fewer times than any team except Chicago.

★ ★ ★

And there's little encouragement for the Red Wings. They play their next game tomorrow at Montreal and the Canadiens are as hot as ever, four points in front of the pack.

SPORTS

Despite Earlier Romp at Detroit

49ers Expect Busy Sunday

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"I'd settle for a one-point victory," says coach Red Hickey about Sunday's National Football League game between his San Francisco 49ers and the Detroit Lions.

★ ★ ★

The 49ers routed the Lions 34-13 two weeks ago in Motor City but the margin was a big surprise to Hickey.

"They are not as bad as their record (1-4) indicates," the 49ers' mentor said. "Believe me, we've got a lot of respect for the Lions."

San Francisco, 4-1, shares the NFL Western Division lead with Baltimore. Detroit shares the cellar with the Chicago Bears.

★ ★ ★

As Hickey said, the Detroit squad that trots onto the field at Kezar Stadium Sunday will be a tougher one than the 49ers trampled Oct. 11.

For one thing, Charlie Ane, a 260-pounder out of Southern California, will be back at offensive center. Bill Glass, 245, will switch back to defensive end where he can zero in on Y. A. Tittle, the 49ers' pass-throwing QB.

The 49ers also will see the familiar face of Earl Morrall in the offensive quarterback slot. Morrall entered pro football on a 49ers draft after making All-America at Michigan State in 1955. He was then traded to Pittsburgh, which passed him to Detroit.

★ ★ ★

"It could be Morrall is coming into his own," speculated Hickey. "Sometimes quarterbacks float around, like Johnny Unitas of Baltimore, for some time before catching fire. However, I'd like to think that he'd wait one more ball game."

Lou Creekmur, 225-pound left tackle, is another Lion who missed the game in Detroit but returned to action against the Los Angeles Rams last Sunday, helping smash the favored Rams 17-7. Creekmur retired after last season but was recalled to help bail out the fading Lions.

★ ★ ★

If an unhappy fate befalls Detroit, the 49ers figure the Lions have it coming. Twice in the past six years the Lions have edged the 49ers out of the division title, in 1953 and 1957. Two years ago Detroit defeated the 49ers 31-27 in a tie-breaking playoff for the division title and then crushed Cleveland 49-14 for the world championship.

★ ★ ★

Hickey said the 49ers couldn't be in better shape for their showdown with the win-hungry Lions. There's not a serious injury on the squad. Tittle is expected to stay at his offensive quarterback post straight through, barring injury. J. D. Smith will start at left half, Fred Dugan at right half and Joe Perry at fullback.

TARGET, NL PENNANT — Chuck Dressen, new manager of the Milwaukee Braves went along with this gag shot of him pointing for the National League pennant next season. With him in the picture is Tom Harmon, former University of Michigan football star, who attended a sports dinner with Dressen in Modesto, Calif.

PCH Tackles Unbeaten Ferndale

Dales Hold 6th Spot in State Class A Ranks

Chiefs Hope to Put Damper on Dreams of South County Team

By BILL CORNWELL

Pontiac Central's embattled football team will be meeting an ambitious foe tonight when the Chiefs tackle unbeaten-untied Ferndale at Wisner Stadium at 8 o'clock.

The Dales, proudly sporting a flawless 6-0 record, come here with two major ambitions.

They include:

1—Gain their 1st victory over PCH in five years.

2—Successfully continue towards their 1st perfect season in 11 years.

In order to accomplish those goals, the fleet-footed Dales must conquer a squad generally regarded as the finest PCH grid representative in the last decade or longer.

★ ★ ★

The Chiefs dropped a 19-0 decision to Flint Northern a week ago in a crucial Saginaw Valley game at Flint, but there has been no indication in workouts this week that they have their "dobbers" down because of the setback.

Coach Jesse MacLeay's spirited gridders are anxious to rebound from the loss at Flint and at the same time ruin Ferndale's unblemished mark.

Ted Meister, now in his 17th year as head coach at Ferndale, has not enjoyed an undefeated-untied campaign since 1948. The Dales have not whipped Central since 1954 when they won a 7-6 verdict on the Ferndale gridiron. Their best effort since then was a 7-7 tie in 1956, also at Ferndale.

★ ★ ★

Ferndale's spotless 1959 slate includes victories over Berkley, Southfield, East Detroit, Mt. Clemens, Birmingham and Port Huron, in that order.

This evening's contest gives the Chiefs an opportunity to chalk up a prestige win by knocking off a highly rated Class A club. Ferndale is ranked 6th in the weekly UPI prep poll and 7th by the AP panel.

The Dales boast a veteran lineup with both speed and depth and junior quarterback Mike Brown runs their tricky wing-T offense. At the moment they look like a shoo-in for the Eastern Michigan title.

★ ★ ★

There is one note of trouble from the Central camp. Regular quarterback Fred Staley, bothered by a sore back, has not practiced all week and he may see only limited duty. Junior Lawrence Brennen is expected to get the starting call.

Only part-time action, if any, can be expected from Joe McCauley, who reinjured his ailing knee at Flint. Scheduled to join Brennen in the PCH backfield are Isaac Jones at fullback and halfbacks Allen Howze and Dick McCauley.

Two Valley games are on the docket tonight — Flint Central at Arthur Hill and Saginaw at Bay City Central. Flint Northern has an open date.

Eastern Woman Wins Seniors Golf Tourney

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Mrs. Charles Bartholomew of Brookline, Mass., put together a 36-hole total of 159 to win the North and South women's senior golf tournament here yesterday.

Mrs. Bartholomew, the Massachusetts seniors champion, had rounds of 80 and 79 over the par 73, No. 3 course of the Pinehurst Country Club.

One stroke behind her was Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Chapel Hill, N.C., with 82-78—160. The 78 for the 1937 national amateur champ was the best round of the tournament.

NFL Season Reaches Midway Point

By The Associated Press

The National Football League season reaches the midway point Sunday with the three top teams all in trouble spots.

★ ★ ★

The 1958 champion Baltimore Colts and the surprising San Francisco 49ers are tide for the lead in the Western Conference with 4-1 records and the New York Giants, losers in last year's title game, top the Eastern Conference with the same mark.

★ ★ ★

The Colts take on the Cleveland Browns, only a game behind the Giants in the East and the Giants face the Green Bay Packers, just a game back of the Colts and 49ers. They're a couple of real tough customers and there's an added touch of interest in that each game has a former assistant coach sending a team against his old boss.

The Rams entertain the puzzling Chicago Bears this week. The Philadelphia Eagles, tied with Cleveland for the runner-up spot in the East, are at home against the Washington Redskins and the Chicago Cardinals, after three games on foreign fields, return home to take on the rugged Pittsburgh Steelers.

★ ★ ★

Cleveland Coach Paul Brown not only will be opposing his former assistant Weeb Ewbank, who came out ahead in their only previous clash, but he'll be having his first experience with a Baltimore crowd. Some NFL veterans claim the Colt fans, who turn out 57,000 strong every Sunday, are worth about five points to the home team.

The crippled Giants go up against a Packer team smartly coached by Vince Lombardi, until last year offense coach for New York's Jim Lee Howell. The Packers have dropped their last two games after winning three. Frank Gifford, the Giants' top halfback, is out with a rib injury.

Chicago's Cardinals also are in difficulty because of injuries to quarterbacks King Hill and M.C. Reynolds on the doubtful list. Washington's Eddie LeBaron, Jim Podoley and Ed Sutton, out last week, all are expected to be ready to play

8 Schools Sent 'Feeler' Letters by Cotton Bowl

DALLAS (AP) — The Cotton Bowl, which paid its competing teams $177,000 apiece last Jan. 1, has its eye on eight schools from which to select the visitors next New Year's Day.

The Southwest Conference champion gets the host spot.

Jack Lowe, president of the Cotton Bowl, said letters had been sent to Syracuse, Penn State, Air Force Academy, Clemson, Mississippi, Louisiana State, Tennessee and Georgia Tech regarding the possibility of being a participant.

"These were very informal and did not constitute an invitation at all," said Lowe.

Boston College Rated Third Nationally With 'Twin' Passers

DETROIT (AP)—The first man to gain fame passing a football — Gus Dorais — will be recalled tonight at the University of Detroit, where he coached 18 years.

★ ★ ★

The forward pass — the weapon that the late Dorais dusted off with Knute Rockne and brought Notre Dame a surprise upset over Army — is the chief threat to Detroit against Boston College.

The Eagles, a team with two top-notch passers, are rated the third best passing outfit in the nation.

The high-flying Eagles are touchdown favorites over Detroit because of their passing. John Amabile and George VanCott are Boston College's passing twins. Both stand 5-feet-8 and they have combined for about 30 passes in each of the Eagles' five games.

★ ★ ★

Boston College, like Detroit, has paid the price of an over-ambitious schedule. The Eagles started out with Navy and Army and lost both. Then they beat Villanova, Dartmouth and Marquette.

Detroit has lost to Kentucky, Tulane and Tulsa. The Titans have whipped George Washington, Marquette and Xavier. The three victories came over pass-minded teams, giving Detroit some hope for tonight.

The Titans received another cause for hope yesterday. Their regular backfield was back together and in top condition for the first time in four weeks.

Three Join Golf's 'Hall'

PALM DESERT, Calif. (AP) — Jock Hutchison, Paul Runyan and Harry Cooper — three all-time greats who still whack a solid drive — have been elected to the Golf Hall of Fame.

Harold Sargent of Atlanta, president of the Professional Golfers' Assn., announced their selection Friday. Sargent is here making preparations for next week's Ryder Cup matches.

He said Hutchinson received 555 votes, Runyan 528 and Cooper 504 in balloting by PGA members. Johnny Farrell was next with 394 and Fred McLeod fifth with 383 votes.

Hutchinson, 75, retired five years ago as professional at the Glen View Golf Club, Golf, Ill. He lives at Golf during the summer and Fort Lauderdale, Fla., during the winter.

★ ★ ★

Runyan, 51, is professional at the La Jolla Country Club, La Jolla, Calif. Cooper, 55, serves as a professional at the Metropolis Country Club, White Plains, N.Y., during the summer and as a golf instructor aboard a ship making Caribbean cruises during the winter.

The three will be inducted into the Hall of Fame at a PGA banquet in Clearwater, Fla., Dec. 8. Their selection brings to 23 the number selected since the hall was established in 1940.

Hutchison, born in St. Andrews, Scotland, came to this country at the age of 20. In 1921 he became the first American to win the British Open. He finished as runner-up in both the PGA and USGA championships in 1916 and the next year won the Open Patriotic Tournament, a wartime substitute for the USGA Open.

★ ★ ★

Runyan, a native of Hot Springs, Ark., won the PGA championship in 1934 and 1938. He was selected to five Ryder Cup teams.

Cooper is a native of Leatherhead, England. He won seven Open championships and was the PGA's leading money winner as well as Vardon Trophy winner in 1937.

By CHUCK ABAIR

Two teams can clinch league championships and three others would be assured co-titles by winning their most important games of the 1959 season tonight.

Walled Lake, which is host to strong Pontiac Northern, and Rochester are the contingents seeking outright crowns on this big 7th night of the prep season.

Northville, Imlay City and Anchor Bay can wrap up a tie for top honors in their respective leagues.

The PNH-Viking contest shapes up as a "dream" battle which could be the highlight of the grid year.

★ ★ ★

Unbeaten Walled Lake has already won a portion of the Inter-Lakes pennant although coach Dave Smith says his boys still have not shown their "top potential."

Northern is 4-2 overall and 3-1 in the loop but could very well have a spotless record.

Huskie boss Ed Heikkinen is hoping his squad's great competitive spirit will offset such Walled Lake advantages as being favored and at home.

★ ★ ★

"If we win it will be an upset but we'll take them any way we can," exclaimed the popular coach looking ahead to the 8 p.m. kickoff.

Northern has the edge of being in top shape physically while WLHS has question marks. Linemen Jerry Meyer and Bill Eakelinen missed the Farmington game with ailing legs and have shown little improvement. Mike Hinkley, a little speedy halfback, injured his back last week.

Smooth Bruce Norton will operate the PNH backfield of George Graves, Bob Hocking and Jan Lawrence. Norton's passing should be well tested by a secondary which has made 12 interceptions.

★ ★ ★

Bob Christian, outstanding both ways, will head the Viking offensive seeking to boost his county point lead. Keith Green, rugged Neil Salo and Norm Smith will round out the backfield.

The I-L teams will complete loop play. Waterford will be at Southfield and Berkley at Farmington.

TRI-COUNTY

Rochester will be a heavy favorite at Romeo in league's final game. Bulldogs are improved with return of injured boys.

WAYNE-OAKLAND

Northville appears on its way to its 4th straight title. Clarkston will attempt to be an unruly guest. Bloomfield Hills goes after an upset at West Bloomfield. Milford and Holly collide and Brighton vs. Clarenceville.

OAKLAND B

Avondale is trying to stay unbeaten in its battle with Fitzgerald. The defending champs will be a crippled host against Clawson. Fullback Ken Mather returned to shine last week but now is lost with a broken rib. Bud Peel and Jim McDonald, both backs have leg injuries and will see little if any service. Avon has only four healthy backs — one up from the jaycees. Troy visits Lake Orion.

EASTERN MICHIGAN

Birmingham entertains East Detroit, Royal Oak Kimball goes to Port Huron and Hazel Park invades Mt. Clemens. Kimball retains the best chance of catching Ferndale.

SOUTH CENTRAL

Millington, fresh from outplaying Oxford in a tie, hopes to help prevent another Imlay SCC sweep. Oxford goes against Ortonville.

SOUTHERN THUMB

Anchor Bay is at home against Armada, Brown City invades Almont, Dryden plays Memphis and Capap vs. New Haven.

OTHERS

South Lyon home against Lansing Vocational, Utica at Warren, Lamphere entertains Huron, Royal Oak Dondero at Highland Park, Kinde at North Branch, Roseville at L'Anse Creuse, Lapeer at Flint Southwestern, Fitzgerald host to Oak Park and Madison at Garden City. Saturday games have Cranbrook meeting Western Reserve at home and Country Day in Indianapolis, Ind.

Goes Eight Over Par in Final Round Yet Wins by 4 Strokes

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—When the leader goes eight over par in a golf tournament, he usually becomes the ex-leader.

★ ★ ★

But the $7,500 Shara pro-amateur was no ordinary tournament. And its winner, Doug Sanders of Miami Beach, Fa., actually increased his lead by three strokes with an 80 in the final round yesterday.

★ ★ ★

The explanation lies in a villainous wind that blew one contender 21 over par. The weather bureau estimated it was coming in at 40 m.p.h.

★ ★ ★

Sanders, who collected $1,000, finished with a 54-hole score of 219. He was four strokes ahead of Ed (Porky) Oliver of Denver, who shot a third-round 82. Two strokes back of Oliver was Jimmy Clark of Los Angeles, whose 75 was yesterday's best round. Don Whitt of Borrego Springs, Calif., was the unfortunate player with the 21-over-par 93. He was only a stroke off the lead yesterday.

Vickers Win Again

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — The Wichita Vickers, National AAU basketball champions in the United States, last night won another game on their South American tour. They defeated the local team of the Catholic University, 85-63. At half time Wichita led 37-26.

The Vickers play next in Valparaiso Saturday.

Boat Designer to Seek Record on Saginaw Bay

KAWKAWLIN, Mich. (UPI) — Boat designer Les Staudacher said yesterday he still has hopes a world's record speed trial with the jet-powered Tempo-Alcoa hydroplane will be made on Saginaw Bay.

Staudacher said he sent the boat through a trial spin at over 200 miles per hour on the bay Wednesday. He said the weather would have to be right for a trial on the bay in the next month.

Staudacher's statement came after orchestra leader Guy Lombardo, owner of the boat, was quoted in Los Angeles as saying the world record attempt would be made on Western waters.

Murtaugh Signed for '60 by Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP) — To no one's surprise, the Pittsburgh Pirates announced today they've signed Manager Danny Murtaugh for the 1960 season.

General Manager Joe L. Brown who announced the signing, had indicated some time ago Murtaugh would be back.

Murtaugh signed a one-year contract, a custom with the Pirates. His salary wasn't announced but it was believed to be around $30,000.

Brown said he didn't blame Murtaugh for the Pirates' fourth place finish this past season. The general manager pointed out that the Bucs had been plagued by injuries and said Murtaugh did as well as possible under the circumstances.

The Pirates also announced Murtaugh has retained his entire coaching staff.

Buckeyes Would Enjoy Spoiler Role

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—You can't help but hate the fresh new kid who comes into your own back yard and licks you.

That's why Ohio State is aching to play the spoiler against Michigan State in the Big Ten football race here Saturday.

The Buckeyes, with two conference losses, have to be counted out of title competition. Michigan State still has a foot in the door with two wins and a loss.

The Spartans beat the Buckeyes 35-20 in 1912, 24-20 in 1951 and 28-13 in 1953. All games were at Columbus.

★ ★ ★

Michigan State was in its first year of Big Ten football competition in 1953 and that year was the last in which a team coached by Woody Hayes lost three conference games.

The role of an also-ran is a loathsome one for the scrappy Hayes. Ohio State was conference champ in 1954, 1955 and 1957, and hasn't been out of the first division since 1947.

The Spartans made their 1955 Rose Bowl trip on a second place finish because the Buckeyes were barred from repeating.

★ ★ ★

Columbus is noted as a city of riotous football rooters—they clear the moveable furniture and potted palms out of the downtown hotel lobbies on football Friday nights.

A sellout crowd of more than 82,000 frantic Buckeye fans will jam the big horseshoe stadium to howl for Spartan blood.

It'll be Duffy Daugherty's debut against Ohio State as a head coach although he was an assistant under Biggie Munn in the last two wins.

Daugherty named 15 sophomores to his 38-man traveling squad. The team was traveling down by chartered plane this afternoon with the jump taking only an hour — less than the bus ride to Ann Arbor.

Making their first away trip was a pair of linesmen from Daugherty's home state of Pennsylvania—Pat Chirdon, 220-pound junior tackle, and Jake Lewandowski, 195-pound sophomore guard.

★ ★ ★

Blanche Martin, recovered from the bruises that allowed him only spot duty last Saturday, was ready to start at fullback. Park Baker, his top replacement who missed the Indiana game entirely, also was on the fullback roster along with Carl Charon and Ron Hatcher.

★ ★ ★

The MSU lineup was expected to be unchanged from the offensive and defensive units that did so well in wins against Notre Dame and Indiana.

ANN ARBOR (AP)—It looks like it'll be all tricks and no treats for Michigan when the underdog Wolverines tangle with rugged Wisconsin before an expected homecoming crowd of 74,000 here tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

But coach Bump Elliott's charges aren't ruling out chances of pulling a few Halloween pranks of their own against the tenth-ranked Badgers in this first meeting between the two teams in nine years.

Wisconsin, making a strong bid for the Big Ten title and a trip to the Rose Bowl following their 21-0 loss to Purdue, will unleash one of the finest lines in the nation against the lightweight Wolverines.

The Badger forward wall, which averages 221 pounds per man, is anchored by three potential All-Americans: tackle Danny Lanphear, last week's lineman of the week; Guard Jerry Stalcup and tackle Jim Heineke.

★ ★ ★

Operating behind this beefy Badger line is a flock of bruising backs, which averages about 200 pounds per man, and one of the nation's top quarterbacks, Dale Hackbart.

The 6-4, 200 pound signal-caller who has completed half of his 46 passes, also represents Wisconsin's top breakaway threat. Hackbart has tallied 26 points and averaged 3.5 yards per run, but has failed to toss a single touchdown pass all season.

To offset the Badgers' superior manpower and size, Elliott is expected to stick with his three-platoon system which has paid off in victories in two of the team's last three outings. Michigan's record stands at 2-3.

★ ★ ★

Elliott's use of an average of 38 players a game has given the team more late staying power and a potent second-half scoring punch. Nearly all of Michigan's scoring has been concentrated in the last two periods. Wisconsin, on the other hand, has tallied only one touchdown in the second half.

★ ★ ★

Wisconsin has just finished slamming out crunching victories over Iowa and Iowa State and is eager for a breather as it looks forward to next week's all-important meeting with unbeaten Northwestern. The Badgers' season mark thus far is 4-1.

LOOKOUT, "M" — Michigan will have to stop the passing of Dale Hackbart if it hopes to pull any tricks in upsetting the Wisconsin Badgers tomorrow at Ann Arbor. Hackbart is one of the country's top quarterbacks.

Cross Country Regionals on Saturday

Nine Oakland County high schools in Class A and eight more from the "B" ranks are entered in the MHSAA regional cross country meet Saturday at Farmington Country Club at the corner of Haggerty and 12 Mile roads.

A total of 15 schools will compete in the "A" meet, headed by Birmingham and Pontiac Central which finished 1-2 in last year's regional run over the same course. PCH won the Saginaw Valley harrier title a week ago at Swartz Creek.

There are 23 schools running in the Class B competition tomorrow with the Oakland County area represented by Avondale, Bloomfield Hills, Clarkston, Milford, Clawson, West Bloomfield, Orchard Lake St. Mary and Northville.

Central's Joe Anderson, the 1959 Valley champ, will be the defending individual champion in tomorrow's Class A run.

★ ★ ★

Anderson has compiled a truly remarkable record for the Chiefs so far this fall, placing 1st in nine straight runs and setting new course records in eight of them.

The star PCH runner will have plenty of competition Saturday over the two-mile Farmington CC course.

Area schools joining the Chiefs and Birmingham in the "A" bracket are Pontiac Northern, Waterford, Walled Lake, Southfield, Berkley, Oak Park and host Farmington.

★ ★ ★

Ace harriers from Redford Union, Detroit Thurston, Livonia, Bentley, Mt. Clemens, Plymouth and Port Huron will complete tomorrow's Class A field.

Seven hill-and-dalers will be competing for each school with the final team score based on the best five runners. The top three teams from each division will qualify for the state prep cross country meet at Ypsilanti on Saturday, Nov. 7.

MSU Soccer Tilt on TV Tomorrow

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI)—Michigan State's soccer team, looking for its third straight victory after a 25-game unbeaten streak was broken two weeks ago, meets Wheaton College tomorrow.

The university station, WMSB-TV (channel 10), will telecast the game in a 75-mile radius starting at 9:45 a.m. EST, in what is believed to be the first telecast of a complete soccer game in the nation.

The Spartans, league leaders in the eastern division of the midwest soccer conference with a 3-1 record, need a win over Wheaton, a team which has never beaten them in three attempts, to keep alive their chances for an NCAA playoff berth.

Cuban Welter Favored

ONE SHARP EYE—Bob Schloredt, University of Washington's ace quarterback sharpens up his one good eye in preparation for the California game Saturday. Schloredt, is almost blind in his left eye having only 10 per cent vision in it. He has completed 22 of 40 passes with no interceptions this year.

Practice Hours Are Announced for City Cagers

Ten teams were represented at this week's first meeting for the organization of the men's City League basketball program. Three other teams indicated entry at the meeting in the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department office.

There still is room for more entries so managers or representatives who want to enter teams in classes A, B and C should call John Streit at the Parks and Recreation office, FE 3-7131.

Basketball practice hours for the 10 registered teams have been arranged. All workouts will be held in the boys' gymnasium at Pontiac Central High School. Here is the practice schedule.

Town & Country—Nov. 2, 9 p.m.; Nov. 4, 8 p.m.
Pontiac Police—Nov. 2, 7 p.m.; Nov. 4, 8 p.m.
Shaw's Jewelers—Nov. 4, 9 p.m.; Nov. 5, 7 p.m.
Newman A.M.C.—Nov. 2, 7 p.m.; Nov. 4, 7 p.m.
Lakeside Royals—Nov. 4, 7 p.m.; Nov. 5, 8 p.m.
Commerce Lakers—Nov. 2, 8 p.m.; Nov. 5, 9 p.m.
Rochester—Nov. 5, 9 p.m.
Clarkston—Nov. 5, 9 p.m.
Griff's Grill—Nov. 2, 8 p.m.; Nov. 5, 7 p.m.
Booth Homes—Nov. 4, 9 p.m.; Nov. 5, 8 p.m.

Thomas High Jumps 7-1—He's Recovered

BOSTON (AP)—Amazing John Thomas today had a glittering seven-foot, one-inch high jump to dispel all doubts about his recovery from a foot injury.

★ ★ ★

The leap, made in an unscheduled practice session to test Boston University's new takeoff yesterday, came on the seventh and final try of the first serious jumping this fall by the 18-year-old world record holder.

Thomas, who cleared 7-1¼ last February to better all previous marks, hurt his left foot so badly in an elevator accident in March he required lengthy hospitalization and a skin graft.

★ ★ ★

After three warmup jumps yesterday, Thomas almost effortlessly cleared the bar at 6-7, 6-9, 6-10 and 7-1.

Homecoming at Wayne

DETROIT (AP)—Wayne State will celebrate 1959 homecoming tomorrow against Western Reserve, a team the Tartars figure to beat to snap a two-game losing streak.

Wayne will be without 210-pound guard Barry Sarver.

Garcia Given Release by Cleveland Indians

By United Press International

Mike Garcia and Dusty Rhodes, Major League stars only five years ago, got the bad news yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Garcia, a 19-game winner in 1954, received his unconditional release from the Cleveland Indians while Rhodes, the Giants' pinch-hitter deluxe five seasons ago, was returned to the Minors by San Francisco.

★ ★ ★

The Indians said Garcia, who won between 18 and 22 games four times, was free to sign with another Major League team or is welcome to go to spring training with them next year. The 35-year-old right-hander had a 3-6 record and a 4.00 earned run average this year but isn't going to give up without one more chance.

More Sandlots Proposed

CLEVELAND (UPI) — General manager Frank Lane of the Cleveland Indians would like to see more competition made available for amateur baseball players between the ages of 15 and 18. The little leagues for younger players are very helpful, he said. "We need something more in the 15-18 age group to augment the American Legion program."

BLANK EXPRESSION — Rising from the depths of a Toronto pool, this ball-headed creature seems to be giving up. Actually it is Al Grosjean, who got the ball smack in the face tending goal for a New York water polo team which lost to group of Canadian stars.

Ivy League Family Ties

PRINCETON, N.J. (UPI)—Star Princeton halfback Hugh Scott finds some divided loyalties in his family on certain football Saturdays. He is the son of a Yale grad and grandson of a Harvard grad.

National Mythical Title at Stake

Ole Miss-LSU Clash in Top Game

By The Associated Press

Mississippi, without costume or mask, visits Louisiana State's home on Halloween Night with its trick or treat bag full of gimmicks that may decide the mythical national collegiate football title.

★ ★ ★

Tomorrow night's game at Baton Rouge, La. is the biggest game of the year and tops a weekend card that begins tonight with a handful of games. It continues Saturday afternoon with the beginning of a new service rivalry when the Air Force Academy travels to New York to meet Army in the town's biggest college game in 10 years.

Tonight, Kentucky meets Miami, Fla. (3-2) in the Orange Bowl, in an intersectional game. The Wildcats (1-5) have left the wrath of both LSU and Ole Miss., losing (9-0) and (16-0), respectively, for the only comparative scores between the nation's No. 1 and 3 ranked teams.

In other action tonight, Boston College is at Detroit, Texas Tech at Tulane and College of Pacific at Hawaii.

★ ★ ★

But none can touch the LSU-Mississippi game. Ole Miss has been on the outside looking in for the past two years, after losing (14-0) last year in a game that had additional billing like tomorrow night's-for the Southeastern Conference title and the ensuing host spot in the Sugar Bowl.

The possible No. 1 spot in next week's Associated Press poll has whipped the interest to a frenzy. Both teams are so even that this becomes a dream-game maker's delight.

Ole Miss has the statistical edge with its No. 3 ranking nationally in offense and defense. LSU is second defensively, but will dare the Rebels to stop its three first units of the White, Go and Chinese Bandits. The Bengals also have quarterback Warren Rabb and All America halfback Billy Cannon.

Mississippi's offense is built around quarterbacks Jake Gibbs, and Bobby Franklin, and fullback Charley Flowers. This group is a one-point underrog.

The Army-Air Force game pits two unranked teams but still has sold out Yankee Stadium for six weeks. A crowd of around 72,000 will watch the expected passing battle between Joe Caldwell of Army (3-2) and Richie Mayo of the Air Force (4-1). The game will be televised regionally over NBC-TV beginning at 1:30 p.m. EST.

The other members of the top ten are not pausing too long to look over the two tasty morsels on Saturday's card. Northwestern (6-0), ranked second, has a Big Ten battle with Indiana (3-2), while 10th ranked Wisconsin (4-1) plays Michigan in another Big Ten game.

★ ★ ★

In the East, fifth-ranked Syracuse (5-0) sends its top-ranked offense and defense against Pitt (3-3) while Penn State, (6-0) and ranked seventh, plays rival West Virginia (3-3).

Texas No. 4 meets Southern Methodist (3-1-1) with SMU's passing wizard Don Meredith hoping to shoot down the Longhorn's (6-0) overall record, and Southwest Conference-leading (2-0) mark.

Eighth-ranked Auburn (4-1) has an SEC date with Florida (3-2-1) and ninth-rated Georgia Tech (5-1) plays Atlantic Coast Conference representative Duke (2-4). Southern California No. 6 plays northern state rival California (1-5), going after its sixth 1959 win without a loss.

★ ★ ★

The other major unbeaten, untied team, Yale, plays Ivy League foe Dartmouth, which won its first in five last week. The Eli are the only team yet to yield a point as they share the Ivy lead with Penn (4-0-1), which meets Harvard (3-2). Yale (5-0) and Penn have it out next week.

There are no major tests involving other major conference leaders. ACC leader Clemson meets Rice in an intersectional tilt; Big Eight kingpin Oklahoma goes after its 75th conference game without a loss against Nebraska; and North Texas, unbeaten in five games, and (2-0) in the Missouri Valley Conference, plays Wichita. Skyline leader Wyoming comes to North Carolina State.

Dodgers Rehire Alston

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Walter Alston, the quiet man who turned out to be quite a man, will manage the Los Angeles Dodgers again next year.

While this may not be the most astounding development since Columbus demonstrated the earth is shaped like a baseball, there was a time this year when Alston's career was rumored heading into eclipse.

But such speculation had long since expired when the Dodgers announced yesterday that the foremost citizen of Darrtown, Ohio, will be back in 1960 with a pay increase.

Alston, who took the Dodgers from seventh place in the National League to first place in the world in one year, probably will make about $40,000 with the raise. The club didn't mention any figure.

"Alston has accepted terms for a one-year contract," said General Manager Buzzie Bevasi, "and he was awarded a nice raise.

"We usually wait until the major league (winter) meetings to sign our managers, but we have a coaching situation this year and of course, we would want Alston to sit in on the selection of a man to replace Chuck Dressen."

Dressen has left the World Series winners to manage Milwaukee.

Wynn Awarded Young Trophy as Top Hurler

BOSTON (AP)—Burly Early Wynn, the Chicago White Sox' batter-hating right hander, is the 1959 winner of the Cy Young memorial award as the season's outstanding pitcher in the Major Leagues.

"I'm tickled pink," Wynn chortled at his home in Nokomis, Fla., when informed of his selection by the Baseball Writers Assn. of America.

Wynn led the majors with 22 victories last season, while losing 10, and was given credit as being a major factor in Chicago's drive to the American League pennant.

Wynn, who leads all active pitchers with 271 victories, started 37 games last season at the age of 39. He was around at the end of 14 of them, and turned in an earned run average of 3.13.

"RED" BLAIK

NEW YORK (AP) — Among the undefeated, Syracuse, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Northwestern and Southern California, are involved this week in "homecoming" games. "Homecoming" is the return of old and young grads to alma mater for a social weekend built around the football game. Although it is supposed to be a happy time, it is anything but for the coaches. In fact, the mere prospect of it makes them quail.

The imminent hordes of quietly ominous, if not loudly threatening, grads are not a picture to quiet the nerves of a losing coach. But the winning coach is no better off. Suppose his victorious streak should be terminated at this inaspicious time? No, "homecoming" can scarcely be regarded without stirring ulcers, not even by those hardened characters who have survived several hangings-in-effigy and a rash of blistering editorials by the undergraduate editor.

This forecaster, who was both hung in iffigy and blistered after last week's games, looks to this week's with a slightly scarlet face and a psychological creak in the neck.

Boston College over Detroit. Tonight. The Eagles are New England's best.

Miami Fla. over Kentucky. Tonight. They call Miami the Hurricanes, and the same could be said of their schedule.

★ ★ ★

Mississippi over Louisiana State. Ole Miss to end LSU's streak, finish undefeated, win the Southeastern Conference championship and play in the Sugar Bowl. This is not merely going out on the limb, it is also handing you the saw.

Michigan State over Ohio State. Coach Duffy Daugherty of Michigan State says he appreciates having the alumni behind him, win or tie.

Wisconsin over Michigan. With two out of three against Purdue, Iowa and Ohio State, the Badgers are in a good spot to make the big move toward "The Big Apple."

★ ★ ★

Purdue over Illinois. So are the Boilermakers, with two out of three against Wisconsin, Ohio State and Purdue.

Northwestern over Indiana. The Wildcats, three for three in the Big Ten, can stay in the fight and lose one. I doubt they lose here.

Penn State over West Virginia. Penn State was incensed at Illinois Coach Ray Eliot's remark after his team lost to State: "We've got lots better in the Big Ten." But the Nittany Lions have only themselves to blame for beating Illinois.

★ ★ ★

Syracuse over Pittsburgh. Pitt's line may give the Sizeable Seven a tough scrap, but Syracuse will still be among the first five come Saturday night.

Army over Air Force. The battle of the Pentagon—Yankee Stadium version. Coach, put me in, I'm ready to play now.

Georgia Tech over Duke. The Blue Devils sound like a good Halloween pick, except Tech isn't scared of goblins.

Tennessee over North Carolina. The Vols' single-wing blocking gets sharper in November.

Auburn over Florida. Trick or treat? No treat to play Auburn, some trick to beat them.

Barefoot Runner Sets New X-Country Record

BAY CITY (AP) — Running barefooted, Jim Bruce of Grand Rapids Junior College won the Michigan Junior College cross country championship yesterday.

Bruce ran the three-mile course at the Bay City Golf Club in 15 minutes and 46 seconds, setting a new course mark. The old record of 16 minutes 27 seconds was set earlier this year in a JC dual meet.

Of the eight teams competing, Grand Rapids was first with 34 points and Flint was second with 35 (least points wins).

Other team scores:

Henry Ford Community of Dearborn 88, Northwestern College of Traverse City 119, Bay City JC 124, Jackson JC 143, Alpena Community 159 and Port Huron JC 231. The eight schools had 64 runners.

Over 125 boys and girls belong to the Wolverine Racing club and over 70 per cent hail from the Pontiac area. Other drivers come from Detroit, Warren, Toledo and parts of Canada to race at the track.

Windsor Prep Team Makes Up for Forfeits

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — Earlier this week, Riverside High School was upheld in its protest that three games won by Corpus Christie High were won with an ineligible player in the Corpus Christi line-up.

Corpus Christi dropped the ineligible man, and forfeited the three games.

Last night, Corpus Christi played Riverside.

Final: Corpus Christi 93, Riverside 0.

Cellar Position Faces St. Fred

Mike-Eaglet Tilt Saturday

Third place and a possible chance for a share of second will be at stake here Saturday night when St. Michael collides with Orchard Lake St. Mary in a Suburban Catholic League football game at Wisner Stadium at 7:30.

The Mikes and Eaglets will enter the contest in a tie for 3rd spot with 3-2 conference records, one step behind runnerup Ferndale St. James at 4-1.

There is little or no hope of anyone catching front-running Highland Park St. Benedict, which boasts a 5-0 loop record and is well on the way to a 2nd consecutive championship.

But there still is a wide-open race in full swing for runnerup honors among the Dales, St. Mike and Orchard Lake.

The winner of the Shamrock-Eaglet clash can clinch a share of 3rd position and would also move into a tie for 2nd if the Dales stub their toes against unpredictable Detroit St. Rita in a Sunday afternoon battle at Ferndale.

★ ★ ★

St. Frederick, which probably feels like the last rose of summer after the 54-7 drubbing dished out by St. Mike, hopefully eyes a return to the victory column Sunday afternoon on the Wisner gridiron against winless Royal Oak St. Mary.

The pace-setting St. Benedict gridders try to move one notch closer to the title when they play host to Center Line St. Clement, also on Sunday, to complete the weekend SCL schedule.

Until St. Mike's thrashing of the Rams, Orchard Lake looked like a cinch to beat the Shamrocks tomorrow night. Now the battle is rated a tossup.

Both schools handed St. Fred a terrific battering. St. Mary's Eaglets gave the Rams a 53-14 pasting the preceding week.

It seems certain that the St. Mike-Orchard Lake scrap will be a dandy from the word go. They appear to be evenly matched and their rivalry is strong.

How to keep the other fellow from crossing the goal line is St. Fred's greatest problem. The Rams have yielded 16 touchdowns and a total of 107 points in their last two starts while scoring only three TDs and 21 points themselves.

However, this may not be too much of a problem against the hapless Irish from Royal Oak. A look at the record reveals that the Irish have scored only three TDs in six games and their porous defense has given up a whopping 281 points.

★ ★ ★

Despite harsh beatings from the Mikes and Eaglets, St. Fred will be a heavy choice to win. Quarterback Jim Kennedy's passing arm alone is enough to give the Rams the nod.

St. Fred, listing a 1-4 league record, must win to avoid falling into the cellar with RO St. Mary. The Irish stand 0-5 in the SCL.

Hillsdale Meets Hope

MIAA Grid Title at Stake

HOLLAND (AP) — Countdown tension was absent or well-disguised at Hope College today, the eve of a high-powered football battle with Hillsdale College.

The game at Holland tomorrow is a collision of Michigan's only two undefeated college teams. It could well decide the M.I.A.A. championship since both teams now share the league lead.

"I doubt if there are any pregame jitters among our kids," said Hope coach Russ Devette. "We have a lot of important games every season. It should be just another ball game."

Hope isn't revising its entire offense, but Devette said Hillsdale would be treated to something new. "We usually have something new for each ball game," he said, explaining "it's a matter of emphasis on different maneuvers."

Devette shrugged off a claim by Hillsdale coach Frank (Muddy) Waters that the Dales are "80 per cent better" than Hope on passing, speed and versatility.

"They haven't impressed us as being any different than any other Hillsdale team," he said. "They're always good, but not necessarily 80 per cent better. I think it's a little more even. Saturday afternoon is when they'll have to prove it."

The teams sport identical season records of 6-0. Hillsdale leads the state in offense with 209 points while holding opponents to 36.

Hope has racked up 120 points while allowing only 33.

Reminded that the winner of tomorrow's game could be bowl bid bait, Devette said he was "not at all interested."

"We wouldn't accept one if offered," he said. "I coach basketball too, and couldn't be working in two places at once."

Trial of Fight Figure Begins

First Witness Gets Called in Proceeding Against Carbo

NEW YORK (UPI)—Hymie (the Mink) Wallman, New York furrier and ex-fight manager, was expected to be the first witness today at the trial of Frankie Carbo, alleged underworld boss of boxing.

The jury of 12 men was completed yesterday in general sessions court, where Carbo is being tried on charges of acting as an undercover fight manager and matchmaker.

Alfred J. Scotti, assistant district attorney, scheduled Wallman as his first witness because he claims Wallman teamed up with Carbo in a fashion that permitted Carbo to gain tremendous undercover influence, while Wallman was "fronting" for him.

★ ★ ★

Scotti told the jury yesterday that Carbo became so powerful he gave orders to former matchmaker Billy Brown of the monopolistic International Boxing Club, "and thus Carbo filled the dual role of undercover manager of Wallman's fighters and undercover matchmaker for the I.B.C."

Seaway Effects Will Come Slowly

By WILLIAM SINNOTT

LANSING (AP)—For three decades spokesmen for the Great Lakes have pushed for creation of the St. Lawrence Seaway. What can be expected now that the dream is a reality

Nothing spectacular right away, but in time:

★ ★ ★

1. More jobs for clerks and secretaries with foreign language skills.

2. A spurt in growth for Michigan's already expanding chemical industry.

4. Stiffer competition for the state's pulpwood industry but cheaper prices for users of this product.

6. Possible relocation in the Great Lakes area of copper and manganese industries.

6. Reduction of truck and rail freight rates.

7. Huge investment in port development.

8. Only moderate use of the Seaway by the auto industry.

9. A heavy influx of tourists.

10. A gradual shift of coastal industries to the area.

★ ★ ★

These are only a few of the thousands of changes the seaway will effect, says Dr. John Hazard of Michigan State University.

STEEL FAVORED

Hazard, a marketing consultant for the St. Lawrence Seaway Corp. since 1954, maintains the steel industry will be the major user—and major beneficiary—of the new waterway.

He says the seaway will stabilize and assure a disproportionate growth of this industry in the mid-continent region of which Michigan is the focal point.

"The seaway's contribution," he adds, "will not be sudden or dramatic but it will touch every industry, wage earner and consumer in Michigan."

★ ★ ★

Hazard reports huge petroleum reserves in western Canada now offer "tremendous potentialities for development of a new petrochemical industry in Michigan."

As for pulpwood, Hazard believes the waterway will benefit consumers, please conservationists but put producers in stiff competition with foreign suppliers.

He foresees a dramatic increase in the import tonnage of pulpwood from Scandinavaian ports — 60,000 tons in 1960 and 100,000 tons in 1965.

However, the MSU expert adds, the domestic pulpwood industry will not be put out of business and may even grow with the expansion of the market.

★ ★ ★

Turning to copper, Hazard points out that the seaway will open up a wide range of copper reserves to bolster dwindling domestic supplies.

The area now has three copper smelters and two refineries—all in Michigan.

The seaway also makes the Great Lakes region an optimum site for relocation of manganese operations—the most necessary metallic mineral for steel production.

Hazard says the implication of this would be immediate savings to the steel—and possibly the battery and chemical—industries as well as to the industries using their products.

Harrison K. Miller, an area development specialist for the state economic development department, says he foresees:

1. Only moderate use of the seaway by the auto industry since model changeovers take place in October just before the waterway starts to freeze.

★ ★ ★

2. New jobs in port areas and more shipbuilding, repair and servicing.

3. Reduction of truck and rail freight rates, particularly on grains for export and wood pulp for import.

The department's research chief, Paul T. Herbert, says its too early to estimate the increased tonnage which lake ports will handle.

But, he adds it is significant that private companies in Detroit are putting up eight million dollars for port development and that Muskegon is advertising its port in Europe.

The department notes that foreign trade furnishes one out of eight jobs to Michigan workers compared to the national average of one out of 12.

State Advances Bill on Jobless Funds

LANSING (AP)—The House Thursday steered to the governor a bill bringing Michigan into conformance with federal legislation controlling distribution of unemployment compensation funds to the states.

★ ★ ★

It requires employers having an "unfavorable" balance in the fund because of a high layoff record to wait three years before paying reduced rates levied on employers with steady employment records.

Without conforming legislation, Rep. Joseph J. Kowalski (D-Detroit), said Michigan employers could have lost between 36 and 50 million dollars in federal jobless pay allocations.

The bill also raises the pay of the director of the Michigan Employment Security Commission from $16,750 to $18,000.

★ ★ ★

Salaries of MESC Appeal Board members will go up from $40 to $45 a day and that of the board chairman from $42.50 to $47.50.

Soybeans Take Forward Leap

CHICAGO (AP)—Soybean futures leaped well ahead while the grains held within a steady to firm range in early activity today on the Board of Trade.

★ ★ ★

Soybeans were up more than a cent a bushel in spots on opening transactions as short interests bid prices higher to cover commitments. There was fairly general opinion that offers to deliver November contracts in the pit would be small. The open interest for that month was an excess of 24 million bushels at the close of trading yesterday.

France, after buying about 350,000 bushels of soybeans yesterday from Red China, took 370,000 bushels from the United States overnight. It is understood to be in the market here for another 700,000 bushels or more.

After about an hour wheat was ¼ cent a bushel higher to ¼ lower, December $1.99⅜; corn unchanged to ⅛ higher, December $1.09⅞; oats unchanged to ¼ higher December 75; rye ¼ higher to ¼ lower, December $1.35¾; soybeans ¾ to 1¼ higher, November $2.16.

Street Commissioner Quits Utica Post

UTICA — Street Commissioner Sreten Novak, 41, who has been suspended from his $4,620-a-year job for the second time in three months, resigned today.

★ ★ ★

Acting in his new capacity of supervisor of all city departments, Police Chief Hazen Anderson said he told Novak that if he resigned, charges against him would not be published.

Anderson said the former city official was just "not qualified" for the job.

Novak's second suspension was to go into effect Sunday. He had been reinstated from his former layoff on Sept. 14 by order of the Utica Civil Service Commission.

★ ★ ★

Seven charges were leveled against him earlier by Mayor Edward R. Church. Chief among them were that he made certain purchases without authorization and that he could not get along with local businessmen or city employes.

Arraignment Bores Prisoner, So He Leaves

A glum Chris Christianson slumped in a chair this morning at the rear of Southffeld Municipal Court, while Judge Clarence A. Reid Jr. and Southfield Det. Richard Bice huddled at the other end of the room.

★ ★ ★

They were discussing details in the arraignment of Christianson, 27, of 28925 Grand River Ave., Farmington Township, on a charge of breaking and entering.

The discussion ended, the officials turned to call Christianson forward, but —

No Christianson — only an open door at the rear of the courtroom and a stairway beyond it leading to freedom.

★ ★ ★

Five law enforcement agencies helped Southfield Police look for Christianson this afternoon.

The court is in the basement of a realty office at Southfield and 10-Mile roads.

Says Pasternak Set to Talk in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—Joe Polowsky, a brush salesman who hobnobs with Soviet bigwigs, says he will be host to the famed Boris Pasternak.

Polowsky told newsmen that he had invited the Soviet author to speak at a dinner Dec. 27 in Chicago, and that an official of the U.S.S.R. had telephoned approval of the plan Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

Pasternak was named winner of the Nobel Prize for literature in 1958. But he did not travel to Stockholm to accept the award after the Communists criticized his book "Dr. Zhivago."

The dinner will honor an earlier Russian writer, Feydor Dostoevski.

U.S. to Protect Investors in New Notes on Loss

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Treasury, pleased by what it feels is new enthusiasm of "little" investors, is taking steps to make government securities even more appealing.

To safeguard investors against possible theft or loss of their securities, it is offering to print their names and addresses on two recent issues and one new issue.

The Treasury disclosed this "registration" plan yesterday in announcing terms of a November refinancing. It said it would offer holders of $8,895,000,000 (B) of maturing issues a choice of cash, a new 4¼ per cent one-year certificate or a new 4⅞ per cent four-year note.

Registration will be available for the four-year notes, 5 per cent notes sold earlier this month and 4¼ per cent, five-year notes sold in July.

These securities—like all marketable Treasury issues—are so-called bearer securities. In the financial world, physical possession is considered proof of ownership. Anyone stealing or finding a marketable Treasury security can sell it.

Electronics Rise in Uneven Trade

NEW YORK (AP)—Electronics and a scattering of selected issues performed well in a narrowly uneven stock market early this afternoon. Trading slowed after an active morning.

★ ★ ★

Gains and losses of the pivotal issues were mainly fractions.

Studebaker-Packard and American Motors continued heavily traded, American Motors rebounding a couple of points and Studebaker dropping around a point.

The steels backed away on balance, apparently not affected by the signing of Granite City Steel, a comparatively small producer, by the union.

★ ★ ★

The market seemed to be pausing for breath following some exciting prior sessions this week.

To normal preweekend caution was added uncertainty as to next week's action by the U. S. Supreme Court regarding a Taft-Hartley injunction.

Traders also bore in mind that most exchanges will be closed next Tuesday for election day.

★ ★ ★

Bethlehem was off only a fraction following news of a record quarterly loss.

General Motors was firm despite a warning from the firm that it faces "a virtual standstill" in auto production due to steel shortages.

Riding on renewed confidence of missile spending by the government, Zenith and Motorola rose about 3 apiece and Ampex picked up a point.

Report Figures on Steel Wages

Hourly Rate Big Issue in Strike; Range Runs From $2.13 to $4.14

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Steelworkers' hourly wage rates — a key issue in the 108-day-old steel strike — range from $2.13 for laborers to $4.14 for top rolling mill specialists.

★ ★ ★

Three of every five workers normally can increase their pay by 10 to 15 per cent under incentive plans based on the more-you-work, more-you-earn theory.

The wage structure in the basic steel industry is based on 32 job classifications. Common laborers are placed in grades 1 and 2. The pay and skill increases as you go up the ladder. A tool maker with a grade of 18, for example, makes $3.20 an hour.

Government figures show the average steelworker earned $3.11 an hour in June, the month before the strike began. This figure includes overtime pay, incentive pay, holiday pay and other premiums.

★ ★ ★

The Labor Department says the steel wage rates, measured in these terms, are higher than those in most other industries. The $3.11 figure compares with $2.68 for the auto workers and $2.23 for factory workers as a group.

LAYOFFS CUT PAY

The United Steelworkers argue, however, that this comparison is misleading. The Union contends that lengthy layoffs cut the yearly income of its members so that one-third receive less than $4,070 a year.

Steelworkers have averaged 40 hours a week for an entire year only once since 1946, the Union claims.

Management spokesmen counter by citing payroll cost figures averaging $6,456 per worker in 1958. This includes premium pay and fringe benefits such as insurance and pensions for all employes.

Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell's background study published statistics compiled by the American Iron and Steel Institute on yearly wages.

The average production or maintenance worker earned $5,350 in 1957. This fell to $4,840 last year because of recession layoffs, the institute said.

★ ★ ★

This data showed that less than one-third of all steelworkers earned $6,000 a year or more in 1958. About 22 per cent made less than $3,600 last year, the figures showed.

The so-called fringe benefits in the steel industry were valued at 63 cents an hour in 1957 by the American Iron & Steel Institute.

★ ★ ★

This includes premium pay for overtime, shift differentials, paid vacations, paid holidays, jury duty pay, severance pay, unemployment benefits and employer payments for insurance, pensions and social security.

Castro Aide Missing on Cuban Plane Trip

HAVANA (AP)—Cuba's revolutionary army commander, Maj. Camilo Cienfuegos, has been missing for more than 36 hours on a short flight across central Cuba, the air force reported early today.

A widespread search began Thursday for the 28-year-old comrade in arms of Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

Cienfuegos vanished Wednesday while flying with two others from Camaguey to Havana, a distance of 300 miles. There was no immediate explanation for the delay in announcing he was missing.

Air force officials refused to comment on the possibility that Cienfuegos' plane had been sabotaged.

Cienfuegos, a onetime bus boy in New York restaurants, is one of the more colorful members of the Castro hierarchy. His trademark is a Texas-style cowboy hat which he wears all the time. He toured New York with Castro last February.

Business Notes

Otto Trzos, a dealer for Janitrol Heating and Air Conditioning Division of the Surface Combustion Corporation in the Pontiac area, has returned today from the firm's three-day conference in Columbus, Ohio.

It was the second "Select-Dealer-Get-Together" in its history.

Trzos was among 1,000 other dealers to witness the introduction of two new lines of heating and air conditioning products.

Richard P. Huttenlocher, a partner in the H. W. Huttenlocher Insurance Agency representing the Aetna Casualty and Surety Company in the Pontiac area, has been awarded a blue ribbon for high scholastic standing in the 178th session of the company's sales course.

Huttenlocher, who has offices in the Riker Building, was presented the award at the conclusion of the five-week school at the Aetna Casualty home office in Hartford, Conn.

People who live longest are people whose body weights and blood pressures are below normal — on the average. Weight tables, above, are a distillation from a massive, 20-year study representing life-and-death experience of 26 life insurance companies with almost five million policy holders. Actuaries — insurance statisticians — determined, for example, that men who weighed 20 pounds more than the average for their height and age had a 10 per cent higher death rate. A 25-pound average shot the death rate to 25 per cent above the norm. When the excess reached 50 pounds, the death rate reached from 50 to 75 per cent above the average. As with all averages, figures are conditioned by your own personal physical condition, and your own physician's advice should be sought in dealing with your problem.

Reds Up Budget by Billion Rubles for Year 1960

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government today increased its record-breaking budget of expenditures for 1960 by slightly more than a billion rubles.

★ ★ ★

Deputy Premier Alexei Kosygin told the Soviet parliament, the Supreme Soviet, that the budget committee had allotted additional funds for the manufacture of consumer goods in response to requests made during the parliament's budget debate.

★ ★ ★

Both houses of the Supreme Soviet unanimously approved the budget as well as the Kremlin's 1960 economic plan.

(The ruble is valued officially at 25 cents, but the tourist rate of 10 cents is considered a more accurate index of its purchasing power.

Kiwanis Plans Flare Nights for Youngsters

The Drayton-Waterford Kiwanis Club will light the way tonight and tomorrow night for more than 500 trick-or-treatin' area youngsters.

"Flare Night" starts at 7 p.m. today at the Lake Oakland Heights subdivision, the same time tomorrow at the neighboring Lotus Lake subdivision.

Three hundred Lake Oakland homes will have lighted flares on each front lawn. The flares will burn for approximately 15 minutes.

Youngsters' costumes will be judged on the beach at 8:30. Free cider and donuts.

★ ★ ★

More than 200 Lotus Lake homes will participate in tomorrow's event.

Cecil Schemel, first vice president of the Kiwanis organization sponsoring the flare nights, say the novel experiment has been well received.

The flares were sold to the home owners. Any profits realized will go to the underprivileged children of Drayton and Waterford Township, according to Schemel.

Scientists Puzzled by Balloon's Lights

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Puzzled scientists sought an explanation today for the mysterious "dancing lights" reflected from the giant space balloon launched Wednesday evening at Wallops Island, Va.

They had expected the aluminum-coated balloon, big as a 10-story building, to glow brightly as it caught the rays of the setting sun.

But they were completely unprepared, said a spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), for what they actually saw.

This has been variously described by competent observers as dancing lights, scintillations, shooting sparks and flashing beams reminiscent of twinkling Christmas tree lights.

Engine Gas Explodes, Injuring Repairman

Glen R. Westfall, 22, of 290 N. Paddock St., suffered first degree burns of the face yesterday when gas in the motor of a car he was repairing ignited, causing an explosion.

The accident occurred at Al Smith's Gulf Service, 1144 N. Perry St. Westfall was treated at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Pleads Guilty in Boxing Trial

Frankie Carbo Admits Three Charges, Waits for Sentencing

NEW YORK (AP)—Frankie Carbo, underworld figure in boxing, interrupted his conspiracy trial today to plead guilty to three counts of a 10-count indictment.

He pleaded guilty to acting as a manager in a boxing match without a license and acting as a matchmaker without a license.

General Sessions Judge John A. Mullen held Carbo for sentencing Nov. 30. The 55-year-old defendant was sent to the city penitentiary hospital on Rikers Island because he suffers from diabetes.

In his opening at the trial yesterday, the prosecutor told the jury that Carbo's underworld grip on boxing was so tight that he once represented both fighters in a championship elimination bout.

He said Carbo held "a summit meeting" with James D. Norris, onetime head of the now-dissolved International Boxing Club (IBC), at which Carbo dictated the terms.

"The power Carbo had to secure boxing matches stemmed largely from his great influence over the International Boxing Club," the prosecutor continued.

He said Carbo was spokesman for both Virgil Akins and Isaac Logart in secret meetings to arrange their fight on March 21, 1958. Akins eliminated Logart and won the world welterweight championship on June 1, 1958.

Paper Firm Merger Okayed in Kalamazoo

KALAMAZOO (AP) — A merger of Sutherland Paper Co. and KVP Co. has been approved by directors of the two paper making firms.

KVP president Dwight L. Stocker was named general manager of Sutherland in anticipation of stockholder approval of the merger.

At separate directors' meetings, both companies declared quarterly dividends. Sutherland approved 30 cents per share Dec. 15 for shareholders of record Nov. 13. KVP will pay 40 cents per share Dec. 10 to stockholders of record Nov. 23.

Sutherland reported a net profit of $1,725,748 for the first nine months of 1959. KVP had a profit of $2,789,876 for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30.

City NAACP Sets Halloween Dance

The Pontiac Chapter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People will hold a Halloween Dance tomorrow night at the UAW-CIO Local 653 Union Hall, 386 E. Kennett Rd.

Rebecca Moreau, chairman, said the five-hour membership dance will begin at 9 p.m.

"The event is open to the public and we hope any persons interested in becoming NAACP members will attend," said Charles Harrison, chapter president.

Guest of the evening was Pontiac District Scout Commissioner Glenn Lackey.

New York City Vies With Vienna for Fair

WASHINGTON (AP) — After beating its American rivals, New York City now takes on Vienna in the scramble for the 1964 World Fair.

★ ★ ★

President Eisenhower recommended Thursday night that New York be picked as the site. Washington and Los Angeles had been the rivals.

The recommendation will be made to the International Bureau of Expositions at its Paris meeting Nov. 3-4. The bureau also has a bid from Vienna.

★ ★ ★

Without the bureau's approval, a fair does not have much chance for success.

McLouth Quarter Loss $3 Million Due to Strike

DETROIT (AP)— McLouth Steel Corp. lost $3,193,566 in the third quarter ending Sept. 30 because of the steel strike, M. A. Cudlip, president of the company, reported today.

In the same quarter a year ago the company earned $2,766,781, or $1.39 a share.

Despite the third quarter loss, McLouth earned $7,463,567, or $3.93 a share, in the first nine months of 1959. In the same period a year ago the company earned $5,083,618, or $2.25 a share.

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Don Wilson makes his debut as a dramatic star this fall in "Gates Ajar Morgan," a "Death Valley Days" TV episode based on the career of one of the West's most successful confidence men who posed as an itinerant preacher.

'60 Auto Plates on Sale Monday

Price Same, Color Is Reversed; Deadline for Tags Set Feb. 29

You can register your car for 1960 beginning Monday, but it won't look as if you're getting much for your money.

The price is the same as last year, when the yellow and green license plates were distributed. But this year, all you'll get is a little green and yellow tab, bearing the number "60."

The tabs go on sale at 9 a.m. Monday at the Secretary of State's branch office in Pontiac, 96 E. Huron St.

You'll have 121 days to get one before the Feb. 29 deadline for driving on 1959 license plates without the '60 tab.

The state is putting out the little tab in an effort to save money. There'll be a serial number on the back to show it's yours.

The tabs will be attached only to passenger cars. Trucks and other vehicles will have to have new plates, the same color as the 1959 plates.

Willis M. Brewer, Pontiac branch manager, reminded drivers that they have to bring their car titles when they purchase the '60 tab.

Ruling on Firemen Due in About a Week

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — Macomb County Circuit Judge James E. Spier has taken the court dispute between township officials and nine township firemen over pay cuts and suspensions under advisement with a ruling expected in about a week.

★ ★ ★

The trial started yesterday and both sides were presented. The firemen are seeking a writ of mandamus to compel the township to restore them to their previous status and to reimburse them for lost wages.

The pay cuts and suspensions were put in effect last May 1 in an economy move by the township.

★ ★ ★

Among the plaintiffs are Clyde Schmidt, recently suspended fire chief whose case is before a civil service commission and Acting Fire Chief Marvin E. Meitz.

Gas Chamber Ordered in Southern Rape Case

BURLINGTON, N. C. (UPI) — A Negro convict was sentenced last night to die in the gas chamber for raping a white grandmother.

An all-white male Alamance Superior Court jury deliberated less than three hours and brought in a verdict of guilty of the capital crime of rape against Jesse Graves, 36. The death sentence was mandatory because the jury did not recommend mercy.

Judge Leo Carr sentenced Graves a few minutes later to be executed in the gas chamber in Raleigh Dec. 11.

Hal Boyle Says:

Hayes and Healy to Part Professionally

NEW YORK (AP)—Peter Lind Hayes and Mary Healy, for a dozen years one of the best-known husband-and-wife teams in show business, have decided to start parting company — but only professionally.

They jointly and cheerfully announced their impending career separation the other day.

"We're not going to be as much of a team in the future as we have been in the past," said Pete.

"Mary's enchanted with the theater, but I don't like long runs. I want to go more to writing and TV dramatic acting, not comedy."

MARY WANTS TO STUDY

Both pointed out that since 1947 they'd teamed mostly in night club comedy and song routines. Now they want to concentrate more on individual dramatic careers.

"Actually, I don't want to work terribly hard. I want to go to school and study archeology, foreign languages and dramatics," Mary said.

Pete looked surprised.

"Almost 19 years we've been married," he marveled. "And I didn't even know she could say archeology."

"Well, I've always wanted to know about rocks," said Mary. "I always figured if you knew about rocks you'd know about everything."

"Yes," said Pete, "if you get them out of your head."

Many have wondered how a married team could work so pleasantly and cheerfully together in so nerve-wearing a field as show business.

"We simply had an agreement that nothing emotional would pass between us between breakfast and dinner. Usually, on the way home at night, when the day's work is done, we turn and say hello to each other — as if we were just meeting for the first time that day," Pete said.

But the light-hearted pair, who live in suburban New Rochelle with their two children, are still busy collaborating as a team on a couple of projects.

PETER LIND HAYES AND MARY HEALY

Both are starred with Ed Wynn in a program scheduled on the NBC-TV network on Nov. 27. And together they are writing a book, the story of their domestic life.

Pete — whose wife calls him "Peter Grim Hayes" when he's at the typewriter — is also finishing a second book, largely a collection of theatrical anecdotes.

One chapter is entitled "The Tragedy of Comedy."

"All the comedians who made America laugh for the last 50 years had tragic lives," he observed.

"My theory is that it all started in grammar school because they weren't physically attractive. So they chose another route to be admired."

"Most comedians are sad. It probably is because they feel they can never be attractive romantically," he said.

★ ★ ★

"Even the woman a comedian marries eventually comes to laugh at him rather than with him. Then, I feel, he becomes a more tragic figure than any dramatic figure — because he is so lost.

"The compulsion for him to go on making people laugh becomes almost psychotic. He's always on stage. There are people in the business world — the life of every party type — who do the same thing.

"The only cure is to stop trying to be funny all the time. Comedy is the hardest thing in the world to sustain anyway."

He has no appetite for the comedian's common doom—personal sadness.

So Thankful for American Aid

South Viet Nam Proud of Record

By ARTHUR J. DOMMEN

SAIGON (UPI) — These are days of preparation in South Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

The nation celebrated the fourth anniversary of its formation Monday, the date on which a skilled administrator of Mandarin descent named Ngo Dinh Diem proclaimed an independent republic which was to tolerate neither foreign domination nor internal bickering.

Today South Viet Nam is still a functioning, independent state, and Diem is still serving his first term as president, a state of affairs which would have seemed incredible to those who held little hope for anything but a Communist take-over amid the chaos and corruption following the Indochina War and the Geneva agreement of 1954.

★ ★ ★

Viet Nam could hardly have avoided becoming a Communist satellite without American aid. This is stressed by both American and Vietnamese officials, who fully realize the importance of the massive aid program — second largest after Korea — that was put into effect here after 1954.

TO VISIT SAIGON

The American Embassy and the various aid administrations here are making preparations of a different sort these days. Attracted by the size of a program which has pumped more than one billion dollars into this country of 12½ million inhabitants, a sizable number of congressmen are putting Saigon on their itinerary through the Far East.

Within the next month or so, at least four members of the House of Representatives and two senators will be in Saigon, expecting to find out in as short a time as possible as much as they can about the "situation" in Viet Nam.

Some of these congressmen will be looking for specific facts and figures. They are expected to bring with them a number of staff members to help them in wading through piles of data.

★ ★ ★

Their trip here during the present congressional recess is a direct result of a series of articles published last summer in the Scripps-Howard newspapers.

★ ★ ★

The articles, written by Albert M. Colegrove, contained several specific charges against the American aid program in Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

During hearings held in Washington immediately after publication of the six articles, the three top officials connected with the aid program made point-by-point denials of the charges, but an on-the-spot investigation was decided upon.

★ ★ ★

The investigation is due to open within the next few weeks. It will look into charges of mismanagement of aid funds, alleged violation of international cooperation administration rules in awarding contracts connected with the aid program, local sentiment toward Americans, and such matters.

In short, the investigators will seek an answer to the blunt question: "Are we getting our money's worth?"

What will the investigators see when they look for evidence as to whether the one billion dollars has been spent wisely?

Both the military and the economic aid programs have scored some remarkable successes. Americans are working with Vietnamese in the fields of health, education, agricultural production, industry, public works, and in many others.

★ ★ ★

The physical evidence of America's impact is inescapable: American-built jeeps belonging to nearly half a dozen agencies of the Vietnamese government run up and down the streets; American-furnished machines dig wells, haul concrete for new highways, clear virgin land for settlement, manufacture cigarettes, and fly VIPs from one tip of the country to the other. American arms in the hands of the military and para-military organizations guard the nation against attack from without and subversion from within.

★ ★ ★

One of the most spectacular examples of the aid program is the 19-mile-long highway which is being built for completion in 1961 with American machinery and Vietnamese operators, running from Saigon to the town of Bien Hoe.

The road, a veritable superhighway for Asia, pushes straight through rice paddies whose ancient pattern had never been disturbed by more than teams of buffalo.

★ ★ ★

The congressmen will have to look hard to find examples of anti-American feeling. No one makes threatening gestures at Americans, or throws rocks at American cars. It is the easiest thing in the world to get a broad smile out of a Vietnamese on the street.

★ ★ ★

There is, nevertheless, a certain lack of understanding between the two communities, separated as the Americans are with their own collection of houseboys and cooks, their own entertainment and their own round of domestic problems.

2nd Europe Trip by Ike Certain

Will Make Another Try to Solidify the West's Presummit Front

LONDON (UPI)—President Eisenhower's second peace mission to Europe within four months to patch up differences among the Western Allies appeared a certainty today.

★ ★ ★

Informed government sources in both London and Paris said last night that French President Charles de Gaulle has invited Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to confer in Paris Dec. 19. They were expected to accept.

★ ★ ★

The meeting, scheduled to last about three days, was designed to produce a common Western front for forthcoming summit talks with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

★ ★ ★

As it stands now, there are some major cracks in that front.

Schoolbells Ring at State Prison; Diplomas Given

ATTICA, N.Y. (UPI) — Attica State Prison had its biggest year—education-wise—in 1959.

★ ★ ★

Fifty-six inmates received high school equivalency diplomas from Warden Dr. Walter B. Martin at special ceremonies inside the prison walls. That made a total of 379 men who have qualified for such diplomas over an 11-year period.

Joseph P. Buckley, who directs the prison education program, noted there were 256 inmates enrolled in classroom courses through correspondence.

★ ★ ★

"That's about 38 per cent of the prison's population," remarked Buckley.

Was First Coed College

OBERLIN — Oberlin college in northeastern Ohio was the first American college to adopt a co-educational system.

There are six federal prisons in the U.S.

CRAZY DAYS
The Boss was crazy to buy so many refrigerators, freezers, automatic washers, dryers and ranges when he thought there would be a Shortage. Now take advantage of the crazy prices, after 9:00 p. m., Friday. (We also have specials on radios, clock radios, portable phonographs and 1959 Hi-Fi Stereos for Christmas Lay-a-ways).
