Bomb Halt Terms Surprise U.S. Allies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Diplomatic sources say U.S. allies in Vietnam were surprised by Secretary of Defense-designate Clark Clifford's statement that "normal" North Vietnamese resupply activities wouldn't stand in the way of an American bombing halt.

★ ★ ★

U. S. diplomatic sources said Monday that Clifford's comments before the Senate Armed Services Committee last week spelled out in new detail U.S. conditions for a bombing halt and that they were privately brought to the attention of Hanoi.

Many of the allies fighting with the United States in Vietnam asked the State Department for clarification of Clifford's remarks. The sources indicated the allied nations were unhappy they hadn't been consulted first.

The State Department has publicly said Clifford's comments were "certainly consistent with the San Antonio formula" laid down by President Johnson last September.

The Senate today confirmed unanimously the nomination of Clark M. Clifford to become secretary of defense, and Sen. Everett M. Dirksen called him a patriot who merits "the confidence and the trust" of the nation.

Johnson had said he would be prepared to halt the bombing of North Vietnam if prompt and productive talks resulted. He said he would assume the Communists wouldn't take advantage of the bombing pause.

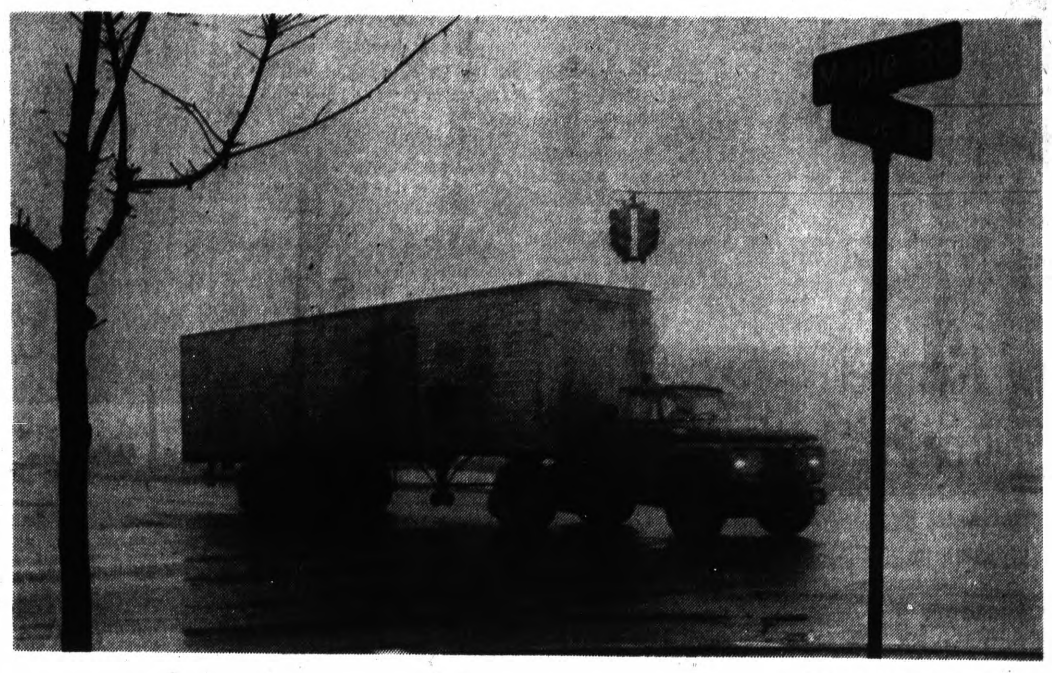

EXPERTS UNAWARE

But it was learned that even high-level Asian experts at the State Department weren't aware of the formula as explained by Clifford.

Clifford, whose nomination as secretary of defense is expected to be confirmed by the Senate this week, said of the North Vietnamese Communists:

"Their military activity will continue in South Vietnam, I assume, until there is a cease-fire agreed upon. I assume that they will continue to transport the normal amount of goods, munitions and men to South Vietnam. I assume that we will continue to maintain our forces and support our forces during that period.

"So what I am suggesting is, in the language of the President, that we would insist that they not take advantage of the suspension of the bombing."

SEARCH YIELDS SKELETONS — Dr. Edwin N. Barron Jr., physician at Cummins Prison Farm, Ark., stands in one of three unmarked graves which were discovered yesterday after a search of the grounds was ordered to check reports that inmates had been killed and secretly buried at the prison through the years. Barron said an investigation at the prison might turn up "as many as 100, if not more" bodies. The search, which was halted after three coffins were discovered, was to resume today.

Graves Unearthed at Arkansas Prison

CUMMINS PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP) — The skeletons of three men have been discovered in unmarked graves at Cummins Prison Farm, spurring an investigation that the prison physician said might turn up "as many as 100, if not more" bodies.

The skeletons, resting in three wooden coffins about a mile from the prison administration building, were recovered yesterday from graves 4½ to 6 feet deep.

Prison Supt. Thomas O. Murton had ordered a search of the grounds to check convict reports that inmates had been killed and secretly buried at the prison through the years.

Murton said a prisoner, identified as Reuben Johnson, 59, pointed out the site of the graves yesterday.

Dr. Edwin N. Barron Jr., prison physician, quoted Johnson as saying that he helped bury a convict called "Jake" at the site Dec. 24, 1947. The doctor said Johnson reported that "Jake" was beaten to death.

Murton declined to speculate on what had caused the deaths of the men, but he said "according to testimonials of inmates on the farm . . . there have been burials that were other than legal."

Murton said one of the skeletons had been decapitated and that the head of another had been crushed. He said the leg bones of one of the skeletons had been broken, apparently in order "to get him into the casket." He said there was no way of knowing whether the mutilation took place before or after death.

Murton said each of the graves was in a depression and each could have been there 15 to 25 years.

Murton said the names of more than 200 inmates were on a list of unapprehended escapees that date back to 1900 and that convicts had claimed that some did not escape but were killed and buried on the farm.

Barron said he had death certificates dating back several years and that, in one year, six or seven inmates died within an eight-day period. He said their cause of death was given as organic heart disease, but there was nothing in their medical records to indicate heart trouble.

VC Raid Cities, 4 U.S. Airfields

SAIGON (AP) — The Vietcong attacked seven provincial capitals, South Vietnam's second largest city and four American airfields today, ushering in the lunar new year with the biggest coordinated assault of the Vietnam war.

★ ★ ★

By midafternoon, the guerrillas were reported still in control of parts of two coastal cities — Nha Trang, 190 miles northeast of Saigon, and Hoi An, 365 miles northeast of the capital.

Some fighting also was reported still going on at Pleiku, in the central highlands, while the situation was not clear at Kontum and Ban Thuot, both in the highlands, and at coastal Tuy Hoa and Qui Nohn.

Associated Press Correspondent Robert D. Ohman reported that South Vietnamese Rangers and U.S. Marine MPs wiped out the last pocket of enemy resistance in Da Nang, South Vietnam's second city, at 3:15 p.m. and reported 63 Vietcong killed.

The Vietcong guerrillas and demolition teams caught the South Vietnamese defenders off guard, with many of them celebrating Tet, the lunar new year festival. The guerrillas raced through the streets of Da Nang and the seven provincial capitals, all in the central and northern part of South Vietnam, terrorizing the population and seizing key installations.

The attacks on the U.S. airfields destroyed or damaged at least 42 jet fighter-bombers, cargo planes, observation aircraft and helicopters. The loss was estimated at more than $25 million.

Ex-Rep. Dondero Dies at 84

George A. Dondero, a founder of the St. Lawrence Seaway and long-time Oakland County Republican congressman until his retirement in 1957, died last night in his Royal Oak home. He was 84.

Cause of death was not immediately determined, but he had been in ill health since suffering a stroke two years ago.

Dondero authored the bill in the U.S. House of Representatives for the St. Lawrence Seaway and served as chairman of the House Public Works Committee. The committee fathers legislation on rivers and harbors, flood control, highways and public buildings and grounds.

'MR. REPUBLICAN'

Dondero, known by many as Mr. Oakland County Republican, served 24 years in the House and half a century in public office before retiring.

Dondero also was a noted authority on President Lincoln and was a close friend of the late Carl Sandburg, poet and the biographer of Lincoln.

Born and reared on a farm in Greenfield Township, now part of Detroit, Dondero was elected to Congress in 1932 and voluntarily retired in January 1957.

As a youngster, he attended a one-room school before moving to Royal Oak where his brother operated a hotel.

PRESIDENT OF CLASS

He graduated from Royal Oak High School in 1903, the president of a class of four. The school's name was later changed to Dondero High in his honor.

He taught in one-room schools in nearby Oxford and Big Beaver and attended night school at the Detroit College of Law, from which he graduated in 1910.

Dondero also served as the first mayor of Royal Oak, and held other positions in the community, from assistant prosecutor to village clerk, village assessor and member of the board of education.

Dondero fought for more than 20 years to open up the Midwest to international trade with the St. Lawrence Seaway, which provided a waterway for oceangoing vessels between the Great Lakes and the Atlantic.

SHIP CHANNEL

A ship channel in the seaway is named for him and for the late Sen. Alexander Wiley, R-Wis., who authored the bill in the Senate.

The bill for the St. Lawrence Seaway was passed in 1954, after opposition from what Dondero called "one of the most cleverly organized lobbies in history."

Lansing Adopts City Income Tax

LANSING (AP) — The Lansing City Council adopted a controversial city income tax Monday night, but a petition drive is expected to force the issue to a public referendum before the levy goes into effect July 1.

The Lansing Junior Chamber of Commerce announced immediately after the meeting that they would spearhead a petition drive.

The council approved the tax by a 5-3 vote. It calls for a one per cent tax on residents and one-half per cent on nonresidents who work in Lansing.

The proposal carried two companion resolutions calling for a $6 per $1,000 of assessed valuation reduction in property taxes and commitment of 35 per cent of all income tax revenue to capital improvements.

The income tax, long a smoldering issue in the politically conscious state capital, was vetoed by Mayor Max Murninghan following a 4-4 council vote Nov. 6. At the time, Murninghan said he favored the tax but wanted council majority support for passage.

VOTE SWITCHES

Councilman John T. Anas, who voted for the tax Nov. 6, voted against it Monday, saying he favored the package but preferred additional discussion before a vote.

Councilman Roger T. May and Louis F. Adado, who voted against the tax Nov. 6, switched their votes Monday. Adado said he voted for the tax this time to give people a chance to petition for the showdown referendum.

Murninghan said the income tax would raise about $4 million annually in new taxes, but said the property tax cut would reduce this to a net $1.5 million.

LBJ Asks More Benefits for GIs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson asked Congress today to revise the GI home loan so veterans can buy better, more expensive houses.

★ ★ ★

In a special message, Johnson also called for a new law to help subsidize veterans who train for teaching, police and fire-fighting work, hospital employment and jobs in the antipoverty program. This would cost $50 million in 12 months beginning July 1.

Johnson urged the maximum guarantee on GI home loans be increased to $10,000 from $7,500. Guarantees normally cover about 15 per cent of the value of a loan.

Johnson also urged congressional action to increase group life insurance for servicemen from a maximum of $10,000 to a pay-based range running from a $12,000 minimum to a maximum of $30,000.

★ ★ ★

Johnson said he will sign an executive order to offer priority hiring for lower grade civil service jobs without competing in the regular examinations, providing a veteran agrees to pursue a part-time educational program under the GI bill.

OU, Romney Discuss Budget

DURWARD VARNER

The members of the executive committee of the Oakland University Foundation and some of the key administrative officers of OU met yesterday in Lansing with Gov. George Romney, Lt. Gov. William Milliken, and other members of the governor's staff to discuss the serious implications of the governor's recent budget message.

The governor's recommendations singled OU out as the only institution in the state to receive an actual net reduction in the per-student level of support.

"It is quite obvious to those of us associated with OU that there are strong policy implications in the governor's budget recommendation," Chancellor Durward Varner said.

"We pointed out to Gov. Romney and his staff that the program which has been developing for almost 10 years can no longer be sustained with the level of support being recommended. Therefore the central issue revolves around the appropriate role for OU in Michigan's system of higher education.

"Gov. Romney, who was generous in his comments about OU's growth, development and educational stance, agreed that this was a policy rather than a fiscal question and that the matter warranted further consideration," Varner said.

THOSE ATTENDING LISTED

Those attending from OU were Harold A. Fitzgerald, president of the OU Foundation, and Mrs. William Gossett, L. C. Goad, Theodore Yntema, Marvin Katke, and Norman Weston, all members of the Oakland University Foundation Executive Committee.

From OU in addition to Chancellor Varner were Provost Donald O'Dowd; Robert W. Swanson, director of business affairs; and Mrs. June Bennett, director of community relations.

LBJ Budget Stirs Warnings of Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's record $186.1-billion budget generated immediate congressional warnings that spending must be slashed before the administration's 10 per cent income tax surcharge will be considered.

But while calling for cuts, members of the Senate and House seemed likely to oppose trimming expenses along those lines suggested by Johnson.

Since the general outlines of the budget had been known, Congress wasn't surprised when the formal message submitted Monday called for a $10.4-billion spending increase.

The budget also included a built-in 8-billion deficit—down from this fiscal year's $19.8-billion red ink forecast but certain to go higher if the tax hike isn't approved.

CUT STRESSED

Most Republicans, while not slamming the door on the possibility of a tax increase, continued to put heavy emphasis on chopping spending before—or even instead of—asking taxpayers for further sacrifices.

Terming the budget "unbelievable," House Republican leader Gerald R. Ford said it contains no belt-tightening of "the kind we need to avoid a tax increase."

★ ★ ★

The Democrat with most to say about the tax increase, Chairman Wilbur D. Mills of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, kept his counsel for the present. Interviewed in his Arkansas district, Mills said he would have more to say when he has studied the budget.

When his committee last week shelved the income tax surcharge proposal for the third time, Mills told administration witnesses he thought they could do a bit better at budget cutting.

ASKS CUTS

"I have no doubt Congress can and will make meaningful reductions," said Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., of the House Appropriations Committee.

Ev, Mansfield Split on Pueblo

Reflects Restiveness Over U. S. Course

WASHINGTON (AP) — Conflicting views by Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield and his Republican counterpart, Everett M. Dirksen, sum up the sharp congressional split over what course the United States should chart in seeking to retrieve the USS Pueblo and her crew from North Korea.

"We must avoid a bloodbath such as we have in Vietnam," Mansfield said yesterday.

Dirksen declared: "We can't take this lying down."

Other reaction reflected growing restiveness in Congress over the failure to gain through diplomatic channels the release of the Navy intelligence ship and her 83-man crew.

★ ★ ★

The U.N. Security Council canceled indefinitely its meetings on the Pueblo crisis amid signs that private talks were't getting anywhere.

ON OTHER FRONTS

But White House press secretary George Christian said diplomatic activity would continue on other fronts to solve the dispute peacefully.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, cautioned in a separate interview against any move to bring on a new war, maintaining "we can't afford to have a war on two fronts in Asia."

Republican Sens. Robert P. Griffin of Michigan and Karl B. Mundt of South Dakota urged inquiries into such matters as military command procedures used after the capture and why the ship did not have protection.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., a member of both the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees, said the United States doesn't have the man and equipment to invade North Korea and such an invasion might require use of tactical nuclear weapons.

Nixon Aide Says N.H. Verdict Near

NEW YORK (AP) — An aide to Richard M. Nixon says the former vice president will have a statement Thursday about whether he will enter the New Hampshire Republican presidential primary.

There's every indication the answer will be yes.

Nixon still insisted yesterday he hasn't made the final decision, but there were these facts to consider:

- He plans a news conference Friday in Manchester, N.H., a locale which he conceded is "significant." The deadline for entering the New Hampshire first-in-the-nation primary is Wednesday, but a condidate can be nominated without his consent, and has until Feb. 10 to withdraw.
- Nixon-for-President headquarters in Washington issued a list of campaign chairmen in 20 states and the District of Columbia.
- A campaign office has been opened in New York's Fifth Avenue, with a busy full-time staff of Nixon aides — but no name on the door yet.
- Nixon has said repeatedly he must win primaries to erase the loser image he might have acquired from defeats for the presidency in 1960 and for governor of California in 1962.
- The Nixon organization in New Hampshire, active for months under State Rep. David Sterling, has said it expects Nixon to make his first campaign appearance in that state on Saturday.

Gov. George Romney of Michigan is the only other major candidate expected to be on the ballot in the New Hampshire primary. Romney has said he believes the GOP race is between himself and Nixon.

Romney aides have expressed concern over a possible write-in vote in New Hampshire for Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York.

Inkster Voters Nix School Tax

INKSTER (UPI) — Voters in this Detroit area community rejected a 10-mill school tax yesterday, and School Supt. Dr. Edward Forte reaffirmed his decision to shut down the district's schools Feb. 2.

★ ★ ★

The vote on the millage, which would have given Inkster one of the highest tax bases in Michigan, was 749 no and 546 yes.

Earlier, Forte said he would close school doors because of a shortage of payroll funds.

He appealed to the State Legislature to allot more funds to the district but lawmakers have as yet made no move.

SAFE IN LAW'S ARMS — Charles Doerr, 2, a paraplegic victim of cerebral palsy, is comforted by Ray Gies, a Denver policeman, after the boy was taken hostage by a gunman fleeing an attempted holdup of a supermarket. The youngster was one of seven hostages forced to accompany the gunman on a 250-mile chase across eastern Colorado yesterday.

Gunman, Out of Gas, Gives Up at Denver

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Threatening death to seven hostages—"I'll shoot them one at a time if I have to"—a frustrated bandit led officers on an all-day, 250-mile chase Monday, then surrendered to a captive police sergeant when his commandeered hospital van ran out of gasoline.

★ ★ ★

Daniel Williams, 26, of Denver was jailed for investigation of armed robbery, kidnaping and assault with a deadly weapon. His roommate, Louis Maple, 23, was arrested at the scene of a bungled northeast Denver supermarket holdup that launched the drama. He was held for investigation of armed robbery.

★ ★ ★

Store employes were getting ready to open when the two gunmen slipped in behind a delivery man. They ordered everyone into the basement but one employe slipped away and signaled their predicament to two passing girls who notified police.

★ ★ ★

One gunman got the drop on Denver police Sgt. Lawrence P. Morahan and forced the officer to drive him away along with three other men in a police cruiser. Twice during the subsequent chase the gunman switched vehicles, ending up in the hospital van.

SEVEN-HOUR JUNKET

By the time the gunman and his captive band made their winding seven-hour tour of the eastern Colorado plains, two of the hostages had been wounded, three had been released and the rest of the party was within four miles of the supermarket where it all started.

★ ★ ★

Neither of the two shooting victims was injured seriously. One was released shortly after the shooting and taken by helicopter to a hospital. The other was among the four persons still in the van when Williams surrendered.

★ ★ ★

In the end, it appeared to be the constant pleading for surrender by Sgt. Morahan, a 46-year-old father of eight, and pursuing officers' strategy of waiting it out that brought the ordeal to a halt.

"He kept on him all the way down to give up," said Andy Anderson, 29, the market's meat department manager, who suffered a slight leg wound.

Finally, that's how it happened.

RAN OUT OF GAS

"We ran out of gas," said Morahan, a 20-year veteran with the police force. "I was hoping we would run out sooner. I didn't want to get into a populated area."

More than 60 carloads of police, held at bay by the man's repeated threats to shoot his hostages, waited momentarily.

UAW, GM Gain Accord at Third Plant

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors and the United Auto Workers bargainers reached an agreement today on a new local contract for GM's Tonawanda, N.Y., foundry, pointing towards the end of layoffs that threatened to cripple the giant automaker.

★ ★ ★

Some 2,300 union members walked off their jobs at the foundry Jan. 19 in a dispute over the union's demand for six minutes of company-paid wash-up time before lunch.

The settlement was announced at 3:45 a.m. today after a marathon bargaining session begun at 1 p.m. yesterday.

★ ★ ★

SETTLED ON SUNDAY

The other strikes, at foundries in Saginaw, Mich, and Defiance, Ohio, were settled Sunday.

Sources close to the bargaining said the Tonawanda settlement included provisions for three minutes of company-paid wash-up time, as did the Saginaw and Defiance pacts.

Details of the settlement were withheld pending a ratification vote yet to be scheduled.

News Briefs off Our Wires

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Security Council members met privately today on the Korean crisis as council action was blocked by a U. S.-Communist deadlock over an invitation for North Korea to participate in the council debate.

Diplomatic sources said the United States refused to go along with a Soviet suggestion that North Korea be invited to the council table unconditionally. The United States said it would agree to an invitation only if North Korea released the captured U. S. spy ship Pueblo and its 83 crewmen, the sources said.

Subs Hunted

TOULON, France (AP) — From helicopters, planes and ships searchers scanned the Mediterranean again today for a French submarine missing with 52 men aboard and an Israeli sub lost with its crew of 69. But hope of finding either one diminished.

Sonar echoes picked up around Porquerolles Island, southeast of Toulon, quickened the search for the 800-ton French sub Minerve which disappeared Saturday night after a drill in that area. But further checks produced no trace of the underwater craft.

Israeli officials said the search for their missnig sub, the Dakar, "will go on until we find something."

Book Store Probe

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said yesterday he is interested in pursuing a Michigan State University professor's request for an investigation of possible violation of antitrust laws by book stores in East Lansing.

Kelley added, however, that he now has neither the staff or funds to delve into "the promising preliminary clues" mentioned to him by Dr. Walter Adams, MSU economics professor.

Fair Housing Up for Final Vote Tonight

Pontiac's open-housing ordinance will be up for final approval tonight at 8 at the City Commission's regular weekly meeting at City Hall.

The ordinance received preliminary approval on a 4-3 vote last week.

Also scheduled for consideration tonight is an amendment to the ordinance proposed by District 7 Commissioner James H. Marshall.

Marshall has proposed an amendment that would exclude certain types of housing, such as duplex dwellings and three-apartment dwellings, from provisions of the ordinance.

In other business tonight, the commission is to receive a report on the status of the litigation regarding the city's income tax.

The commission also will consider bids for construction of water mains, sanitary sewers and storm sewers in the city's projected industrial park.

An advisory committee has recommended that the bids be turned down.

Hearing Slated March 4 on Vacating Abbey Road

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission last night set March 4 as the date for a public hearing on the proposed vacating of Abbey Road south of Wimbleton.

City Manager Robert S. Kenning had recommended that the request be denied, on the grounds that the vacating would leave the city's 17-acre Poppleton Park, located south of Wimbleton between Hunter and Oxford, without a convenient access route.

The commission also adopted a program calling for residents-only use of the city's two golf courses, Lincoln Hills and Springdale.

Parks and Recreation Director Darrel C. Middlewood had recommended that the course be opened to nonresidents on weekdays to bring in added revenue. Income from the courses in 1967 was about $98,000, expenses about $128,000.

★ ★ ★

In his report to the commission, Middlewood said, "It is the opinion of the department of parks and recreation that a substantial deficit will result if the present policy of restricting the use of the courses for residents and guests only is continued, and that additional promotion, paid advertising and normal growth will not substantially offset this deficit."

OTHER MEASURES

In light of the commission's decision, however, Middlewood said that such measures as allowing additional league play on the courses and allowing service clubs or other organizations to lease them for fund-raising affairs, would be considered.

★ ★ ★

The plan approved by the commission call for senior and youth memberships to be available to the regular membership rate of $2. Season and family memberships, however, are not planned.

Green fees will be maintained at the present level of $2 per round at Lincoln Hills and $1.75 at Springdale.

Rep. Dondero Is Eulogized

Congressman William Broomfield of Royal Oak today paid tribute to the late George A. Dondero, whom he succeeded in the House as the U.S. Representative from the 18th District.

On learning of the death of Dondero yesterday, Broomfield said:

"Oakland County has lost a true pioneer, a dedicated statesman and one of the finest gentlemen I have known.

"The world will remember him for his long record of achievement in the House of Representatives, perhaps most of all for his leadership in the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

★ ★ ★

"But I will always remember George Dondero as a fine gentleman, a staunch defender of Constitution and Free enterprise system, and one of the best liked men in Congress.

INSPIRATION

"He was always the first to come to the defense of the dignity and decorum of the House of Representatives, an institution he loved with all his heart. It has been an inspiration and a great challenge to follow in the foot steps of such a man."

★ ★ ★

Dondero served from the 73rd Congress through the 84th, retiring from public life in 1957 to enter private law practice in Royal Oak. Broomfield took office in February 1957.

Suez Duel Rages

By United Press International

GM Workers Are Returning to City Plants

Workers in Pontiac General Motors plants idled by a parts shortage were being called back to the job today as the last of three foundry strikes was settled. Some 6,000 workers were off the job in Pontiac yesterday.

Settlement was announced at the plant in Tonawanda, N.Y., and previous agreements were reached at Saginaw and Defiance, Ohio.

At Pontiac Motor Division, where 5,000 were idled, Department 975 in the engine plant was back at work today.

The management announced that tomorrow most other employes will return to their jobs. Included in this group will be all production, sanitation, material and reliability employes of plants 1, 9 and 18. They are requested by Pontiac management to return to work at their regular starting times tomorrow.

A spokesman also said all skilled and nonskilled employes of Department 26 and 28 should report to their regular work stations tomorrow. All other employes are to be notified at a later date when to report back.

Management and union negotiators are still working on a local contract agreement. Contracts have been approved at General Motors Truck and Coach Division and the Fisher Body plant.

Long-Time County Congressman Dies

He said, when the seaway was opened in 1959, that "special interests involving rail and inland water transportation and Atlantic and Gulf seaport trade was successful in defeating for many years what they imagined would be strong competition."

Dondero called the seaway the "master project of the North American continent."

ON HISTORICAL BOARDS

He served on many historical boards and was elected recently to his twelfth term as president of the Abraham Lincoln Civil War Roundtable.

In 1959, he was presented a certificate of honorary membership by the Lincoln Sesquicentennial Commission for his work as an historian of Lincoln.

Among Dondero's possessions is the original letter written Oct. 15, 1860 by an 11-year-old girl, which was said to have made Lincoln decide to grow a beard. Dondero got the letter from Mrs. Robert Todd Lincoln, widow of the President's son.

Dondero's wife died Aug. 23, 1966. A son, Stanton Dondero, who was a circuit court judge, died 2½ years ago.

Service will be at 3 p.m. Thursday at the First Methodist Church, Seventh and Washington, Royal Oak, with burial in Oakview Cemetery.

His body is at the William Sullivan and Son Funeral Home.

Township Employe Pact OK'd

The Waterford Township Board last night approved a three-year noneconomic contract for township employes other than policemen and firemen.

The pact, approved by a 5-0 vote, affects about 45 township employes.

The economic package for the members of Local 574, AFL-CIO, still is unresolved. The employes have been offered a $480-a-year across-the-board pay increase by the board.

One of the final two issues of the noneconomic contract agreed on by both sides provides for time-and-one-half pay for employes who work on holidays, in addition to the regular holiday allowance.

The other provision gives full pay to injured township employes for a three-month period, the township making up the difference between the worker's net pay and workmen's compensation.

TWO ABSENT

Presiding over last night's meeting in the absence of vacationing Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson was Republican Trustee E. Frank Richardson. Treasurer L. Catherine Wolters also was absent.

The board agreed to pay an extra $188 annually to Wilkinson Insurance Agency to include false arrest coverage, along with the general liability policy for township employes, "as protection for police officers."

Lt. David Putnam of the township police department asked board members if two policemen currently involved in false arrest cases would receive assistance from the township.

Richardson assured Putnam that the police officers would be represented by township attorneys, Booth and Patterson, and that the policemen have the full support of the Township Board.

PROBATIONARY PAY

In other business, the board tabled action on an item involving probationary pay for police department personnel — namely Lt. Putnam and Capt. Frank Randolph — pending clarification by Supervisor Johnson.

Putnam and Randolph were promoted last March and, consequently, placed on the next highest salary level.

Last May, Police Chief William Stokes requested that the two policemen be granted full pay for the positions rather than wait until the duration of the six-month probationary period.

Johnson apparently did not respond to the request.

Also last night, the board adopted a law requiring that all lot splits be effected by township ordinance instead of by resolution.

The board also approved the transfer of a Class A permit from MB & B Recreation at 4825 M59 to Airway Enterprises, Inc., permitting the serving of alcoholic beverages on the bowling alley concourse.

The resignation of Robert C. Beattie from the Waterford Township Canvassing Board also was accepted by the board.

Beattie indicated he has moved to another community, necessitating the resignation.

13 tips to save money and time by telephone

(Read just 12 if you like!)

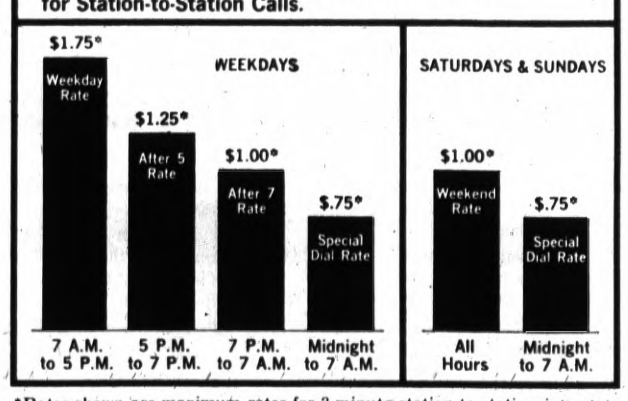

1 Cut your Long Distance telephone bills by planning your calls. Jot down those things you want to talk about in advance and you'll cover more conversation in less time.

2 Youngsters away from home? Set a specific time for them to call you so they can call station-to-station. Business people use this idea all the time. It pays! They know.

3 When you're fairly sure the person you want to talk with will be there, it's faster and cheaper to dial your Long Distance calls direct, station-to-station instead of placing them person-to-person.

4 New Long Distance station-to-station rates for interstate calls are lowest all day Saturday and Sunday and after 7 p.m. other days. There's even a special dial rate on calls after midnight. This Long Distance rate chart will help you save money.

New Long Distance Interstate Rates and Hours for Station-to-Station Calls.

*Rates shown are maximum rates for 3-minute station-to-station interstate calls, plus tax, to anywhere in the Continental U.S., except Alaska. The 75¢ or less special dial rate applies only to station-to-station calls dialed direct from midnight to 7 a.m. and operator handled station-to-station calls in areas where Direct Distance Dialing is not yet available.

5 If you want the Information Operator in a distant city, you can reach her by dialing 1, then the area code for that city (if other than your own area code) and 555-1212. There's no charge for this service.

6 Ever reach a wrong number on a dialed Long Distance call? Dial the operator immediately and tell her. She'll see to it you're not billed.

7 Poor Long Distance connections are rare but if you have one, hang up and the party who placed the call should dial the operator. She'll give you a better connection and adjust the charges.

8 Before making a Long Distance call to a store in another community, check your local telephone directory first. They may have a local number or an "Enterprise" number you can call toll-free.

9 Don't overlook the front pages of your telephone directory. It lists emergency numbers and provides space for other special numbers important to you. Area codes for Long Distance are conveniently arranged by state. Using the directory can save plenty of time and money, too!

10 You can't beat a personalized list to keep often-called telephone numbers handy. And if you need out-of-town directories, we supply them free of charge.

11 It's smart to print your telephone number and area code on business letterheads. It helps people to reach you easily and quickly. It could mean "money" to you.

12 When traveling, your personal Bell System credit card lets you bill Long Distance calls to your home or office. It's especially useful when calling from pay phones.

13 If you make a lot of Long Distance calls to nearby communities, one of our special telephone calling plans may save you money. Just call your Telephone Business Office and a Service Representative will help you. No obligation, of course.

(P.S. If you pressed your luck and read all 13 tips, please avoid walking under any ladders the rest of the day. Just in case!)

Council President Has to Break Tie

Clarkston Says No to Annexation

By JEAN SAILE

CLARKSTON — Annexation has been voted down here, at least for the present.

A special meeting of the Village Council last night, attended by some 150 interested spectators — most of whom seemed to object to the proposal, saw President Robert Wertman called on to break a 3-3 tie vote on the issue.

Said Wertman, "I don't feel we have done a good selling job (on annexation). I am not criticizing the village planning committee which worked so hard to put it across, but it just hasn't jelled. I have to vote 'no,' but I hope the selling will continue beyond this point."

Councilmen David Leak, James Mahar and W. E. Kushman voted in favor of annexation and Harry Fahrner, Keith Hallman and Donald Cooper against.

The council earlier heard the pleas of several citizens — some of whom, while seeming to favor annexation, asked that it be voted down at the present time in the interests of harmony.

Among those speaking was former State Rep. Lloyd Anderson, 6549 Phelan, who presented a two-point plan for consideration.

Asking first for an advisory vote on the matter, he suggested also that a committee of seven, representing both township and village, be appointed to fully consider and sell such a proposal.

The committee, as suggested by Anderson, would comprise three residents of the village including two council members, and four township residents, including two from the affected area, one from the township board and one resident from outside the affected area.

While no action was taken last night on Anderson's proposal, it was referred to frequently with some hope by members of the audience and was at one point the subject of an amendment to the annexation motion.

ORIGINAL MOTION

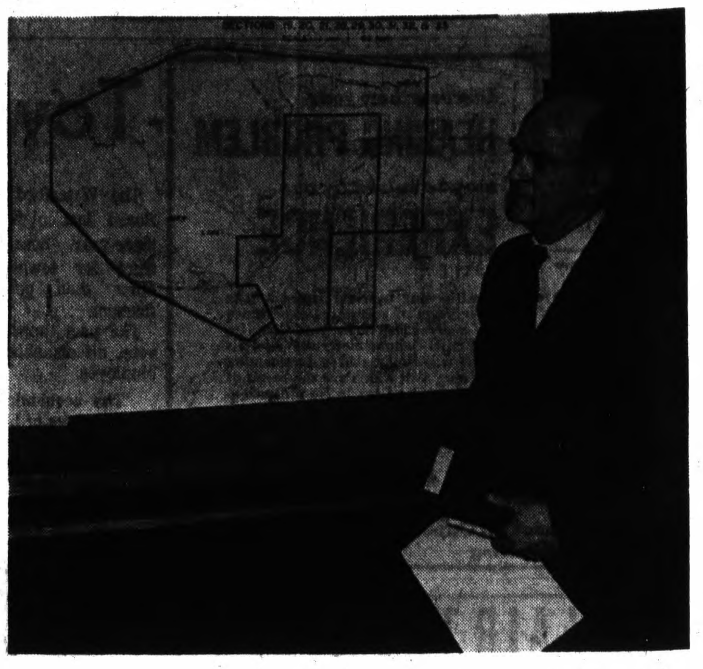

Leak's original motion to seek annexation of township property encountered several amendments during the course of the evening, including another which excluded Dollar Lake and the M15 business district.

Councilman Hallman, not a member of the council's planning group, struck out against those who claimed the measure was being rammed through without democratic process.

"If you didn't have a voice, the council would have acted on this last summer when it was first brought up," he said.

Councilman Leak, who has promoted the idea of annexation, said, "My main purpose for support of this measure is for the village to have a choice when and if Independence Township chooses either a charter township or city form of government.

"We could decide whether we wanted to become a part of the township or remain a village with small town services and small town taxes. Today, in our present boundaries, we couldn't exist without township support."

Sterling Files Complaint Over Troy Drainage

TROY — The first step has been taken toward court action to halt new construction in the southern half of this city.

Acting on a complaint from neighboring Sterling Township, Judge George R. Deneweth of Macomb County Circuit Court has scheduled a show-cause hearing Feb. 5.

On that date, Troy must show why the court should not issue an injunction barring the city from granting building permits in the Big Beaver Drainage Area until adequate storm drains have been installed.

Since land in Troy is higher than that in Sterling, drains in the Big Beaver Area, which includes 18.1 square miles of city land, flow east from Troy into Sterling.

★ ★ ★

For several years the township has contended that inadequate drainage facilities in the area have been responsible, at least in part, for its flooding problems.

SPECIFIC REFERENCE

The complaint makes specific reference to a flood which occurred in February 1965 in Sterling, stating that the capacity of Big Beaver Creek at the point where it receives Troy drains is 700 cubic feet per second and that during the flood, peak flow was 830 cubic feet per second.

The complaint also states that despite the flooding, Troy has continued to issue building permits for subdivisions and other construction, without making improvement to the Big Beaver system.

Troy and Sterling attempted in the past without success to agree upon a common drain improvement. Troy then retained an engineering firm to study the problem.

★ ★ ★

The firm, Hubbell, Roth & Clark, reported that a drain running from north to south and intercepting the drains flowing into Sterling would be more economical.

REACHED AGREEMENT

Troy subsequently reached agreement with Madison Heights, its neighbor to the south, on the proposed interceptor drain, which would flow through Madison to the Red Run Drain.

Plans were submitted to the Red Run Drain Board, and are awaiting final approval from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, which helped improve the Red Run facility with federal funds.

Board Members, Administrators Ask State Probe of Finances

TROY — Members of the board of education and district's school administrators this morning issued statements calling for an immediate investigation of the district's finances.

The requests that the state attorney general's office and the state board of education take action followed an announcement yesterday by one board member, Harold Janes, that he had conferred with state officials on "possible misuse of public monies."

One statement, signed by board members Robert W. Dolmage, Donald W. Richards, Richard C. Snoad, Lloyd A. Stage, Alex Tunstall and John Vagnetti, denied Janes' charges "unequivocally."

The statement continued, "We sincerely regret that Mr. Janes has seen fit, unilaterally and by statements issued to the press, to confuse the mind of the public, thereby placing in jeopardy the faith and trust they have for this body and the administration of its affairs at such a crucial point in time."

★ ★ ★

The statement concluded by "requesting and demanding" an investigation be made, and asking further that it be made before the Feb. 19 millage election.

The second statement, issued by administrators including Supt. of Schools Dr. Rex B. Smith and principals and assistant principals of the district, echoed the call for an investigation into Jones' charges.

Freshman Member of Troy Board Charges Misuse of School Funds

TROY — A freshman school board member here has charged school officials with misuse of public funds and has taken his allegations to the state attorney general's office.

Trustee Harold A. Janes, 6204 Herbmoor, an accountant, announced yesterday that he had conferred with representatives of the attorney general's office and the state department of public instruction.

Janes said he had submitted evidence substantiating his charges and "requested that all responsible parties be relieved of their duties and prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law."

Elected to the board in June 1967, Janes has clashed sharply with other board members and administrators on fiscal matters, most recently when he challenged the board's request for additional operating millage.

'EXTREMELY SERIOUS'

Janes called the alleged misuse of money, which he said involved the district's building and site fund, "extremely serious" and emphasized "I feel that justice should be served."

He said other members knew about the alleged mishandling, but "have elected to suppress it."

Despite the strong language of Janes' complaint, school officials yesterday appeared to think that the alleged misuse — even if eventually considered such — might merely be a technical violation of the proposition's provisions.

★ ★ ★

Detailing his charges, Janes said the building and site bond proposition approved by voters in 1965 provided for construction and equipping of new buildings. However, he claimed that $500,000 of the money had been used to buy equipment for old buildings, such as Troy Senior High School.

ATTORNEY QUERIED

Board President Alex Tunstall said the board had asked its bonding attorney, Stratton Brown of Miller, Canfield, Paddock & Stone, for an opinion on interpretation of the ballot proposal, but had not as yet received it.

"I think the intent of the resolution was to include remodeling and equipment," Tunstall said. "Whether it was to be nailed-down or portable equipment is the question."

He added, "I think any action on Mr. Janes' part was a little premature. I had felt all along that if we didn't get a favorable opinion from our bonding attorney, we should ask the state for its opinion on the matter."

★ ★ ★

Supt. of Schools Dr. Rex B. Smith concurred with Tunstall: "We have been waiting for the bonding attorney's opinion as to whether there is an error, and if so, what to do to correct it."

BOARD CALLED AWARE

Janes, however, insisted the board was aware of the alleged misuse. "They did it, and they did it knowingly," he said, adding, "The expenditures would make both the district's deficit and cost per child greater."

★ ★ ★

Walter Naftaly, auditor for the district, said there had been some correspondence with the bonding attorney. However, Naftaly said, he didn't know of any misuse of funds, commenting, "If I had found any, I would have tried to report it."

Teacher Gets New Job

ROCHESTER — Daniel Bird, 528 Meadowlane, Rochester Junior High School teacher and coach, has been hired as a Mason County Central School District elementary principal. He is scheduled to begin his duties in Scottville on Feb. 5, according to district superintendent, Richard C. Weaver.

Stevenson High School Day Lengthened to 8 Classes

UTICA — Administrators in this school district have solved the age-old problem of how to get more into a day.

Students attending the new Adlai Stevenson High School next fall will be table to take as many as two more classes in a school day — because the school will be run on an eight-period schedule instead of the usual six.

The new format, suggested by Stevenson Principal Dr. Robert S. Ulrich, has been approved by the board of education.

Ulrich pointed out that a cut in class length from the present 55 minutes to 45 would be enough to allow two more classes, and in doing so broaden elective capabilities.

★ ★ ★

The board also approved plans to add courses in basic electricity (electronics preparatory), power mechanics and French to the secondary curriculum.

FUTURE COURSES

Further electronics courses of a more advanced nature are planned for the 1969-70 and 1970-71 school years.

Power mechanics will deal with methods of utilizing sources of power and converting their energy into mechanical and electric power.

A contract for site development at Stevenson High School was awarded to the J. D. Armstrong Co. of Fraser, low bidder at $95,710. The development will include landscaping and layout of athletic fields.

Walled Lake Schools Add Seven Courses for Adult Education

WALLED LAKE — Seven new courses are offered this semester in the adult education program of Walled Lake School District.

★ ★ ★

Registration is tonight from 7:30 to 9 at Walled Lake High School, 2978 S. Commerce.

The classes begin Feb. 5 and last from six to 12 weeks.

Fees for the courses range from $5 to $20. The new courses are federal income tax, parents' course in sex education for children, Bishop sewing method I and II, welding, beginning knitting, intermediate and refresher shorthand, and woodworking.

★ ★ ★

In addition, there are about 20 noncredit and five high school credit courses.

This is the first year that Oxford has conducted a blood bank independently of Lake Orion, she said.

Donors aged 18 through 59 will be accepted, with those under 21 requiring consent slips from parents or guardians unless they are married or in the armed services, Mrs. Hight reported.

The commission has recommended the low bid to the State Administrative Board for final approval.

Emergency Clinic Aids People in Emotional Crises

By ED BLUNDEN

A new mental health service for the northern part of Oakland County has been set up to bring emergency care for acute emotional distress.

★ ★ ★

The service, using "crisis intervention" methods, is relatively new in mental health care practices. It is an extension of "suicide prevention" bureaus that have been in existence in large metropolitan centers for some time. Local authorities are initiating the emergency clinic to meet needs in areas lacking such services.

Sponsoring agency is the Oakland County Community Mental Health Services Board. Cooperating is Pontiac State Hospital, site of the clinic.

The service is intended primarily for the northern tier of 14 townships — Holly, Groveland, Brandon, Oxford, Addison, Rose, Springfield, Independence, Orion, Oakland, Highland, White Lake, Waterford and West Bloomfield.

The emergency clinic is not directly connected with the state hospital, but it is located on the grounds in the outpatient clinic building.

FORMATIVE STAGE

The new service at present has use of two part-time psychiatrists and two full-time psychologists. The psychologists, Jayne Hufnagle and Mrs. Sylvia Kennedy, in explaining its operation, said the emergency clinic is still in a formative stage and the extent of demand is not yet known.

Such clinics are an increasing trend in mental health services and as time goes by more data will be available, they said.

The mental health board hopes to see this service greatly expanded and put on a 24-hour basis sometime in the future. A round-the-clock staff could be provided if the need is present in the northern part of the county.

The southern parts of the county can get emergency mental health aid through large area hospitals, not present in the north.

FEELING OF CRISIS

Employing "crisis intervention," the clinic is available to persons who "have reached a crisis in their lives," Miss Hufnagle said.

This feeling of crisis, she explained, can be cared for by the emergency clinic before it leads to more-serious consequences.

What does the emergency clinic staff do when a troubled person calls them on the phone or walks into their office?

First they determine what the problem is and what, if anything, can be done immediately. The staff is in contact with general hospital and public service agencies.

A certain amount of diagnoses are made and the staff determines whether the case can be handled best through their office, a private physician, a hospital or some other agency.

Care is administered through the appropriate means.

However, the emergency clinic staff doesn't wish to limit their services to any formula. They hope that residents will call on them for "preventative" help.

★ ★ ★

Staff members see themselves, hopefully, as helping to avert more serious complications when early symptoms are present. They are prepared, with their training, to advise persons who foresee trouble in themselves or their family members.

Being hospitalized is a serious matter both for the patient and the family; the staff is aware, and their objective is to prevent hospitalization, but also to expedite it when needed.

The emphasis is on prompt care, outpatient care and preventative measures with the added hope that those who feel an approaching mental crisis will call advice.

"Often in these situations, having someone outside to contact is vitally important," said Miss Hufnagle.

What are some of the warning signs of disturbance?

The clinic's psychologists say the key is sudden changes in behavior which are not typical of the individual's usual behavior.

POSSIBLE INDICATIONS

This may take the form of: sleeplessness or excessive sleeping; overeating or loss of appetite; unusual tenseness; withdrawal and complete indifference; sudden extravagance or miserliness; exaggerated fear; uncontrollable laughing, crying or anger.

Acknowledging that human behavior covers a wide scope in what can be considered "normal," the psychologists point out that most people still have a great lack of understanding as to what constitutes "emotional illness." When help is needed, families often say "He'll get over it," or "she's just having a little spell."

But the staff at the new clinic hopes to be of help in these cases. They will be able to provide advice if help is needed and explain where and how help is available.

The clinic office is open 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. The telephone number is 338-0357. During the off hours a recording will tell where help can be reached in emergency cases.

Action on Rezoning for Development Is Tabled

To the dismay of developer Donald White, action on a rezoning request for apartment units and a shopping complex at Dixie and Midland was tabled for two weeks by the Waterford Township Board last night.

To assure that proper procedure is followed, the board voted to introduce the zoning change proposal at next Monday's meeting and to take action the following week.

White and his attorney urged the board to decide the matter last night despite a tabling request by an attorney representing developer Aben Johnson.

"It's now gone into 11 months," said White. "I don't see any reason why it should be postponed week after week after week."

★ ★ ★

The lengthy delay had been ascribed, in particular, to disagreement between White and Johnson concerning a road easement from Johnson's proposed single-family residential development through White's property.

EASEMENT GRANT

White reportedly now has offered Johnson an easement grant. Johnson's attorney wants time to review the proposed right-of-way.

Democratic Trustee Robert E. Richmond questioned whether "there was ever a legal first notice given," prompting the board to decide to introduce the request next Monday.

White's proposed 32-acre development includes 21 acres for eventual apartment construction. Fifty apartment units would be built in the near future.

Ultimately, 186 apartment units would be constructed on the site. The proposed development is situated adjacent to the Drayton Shopping Center.

SEVERAL PROTESTS

Several residents have protested against the rezoning request.

Three other rezoning requests, introduced last night, will be up for action at next Monday's board meeting.

They are:

- A request to rezone property on M59 near Whittier from single-family residential (R1A) to restricted office (RO1) for an office building.
- A request to rezone property on Scott Lake Road at Alliance from general industrial (M2) to R1A for a church.
- A request to rezone property on Telegraph at Premont from local business (C1) to general business (C2) to eliminate restricted zoning.

Tax Protesters Join to Battle Assessments

An association has been formed in Waterford Township to protest what the group's leaders call "high taxes."

Leaders of the Waterford Taxpayers' Association feel that several property owners in the community are illegally being required to pay more than their share of local taxes because of what they refer to as "the non-uniform assessment of all properties."

The group hopes to carry the fight to the township's Board of Tax Review and to the State Tax Commission, through legal counsel, in an effort to reduce property taxes.

A minimum donation of $5 is requested from persons interested in joining the cause.

★ ★ ★

Apparently gaining momentum, the drive is aimed at seeing that taxpayers are legally assessed, or treated fairly and can be heard regarding local government expenditures.

Contributions also will be used for lawyer fees.

Association President Donald Gardner of 3325 Whitfield said that public meetings will be held "to keep everyone informed of the progress of the association."

Gardner said representatives of 26 subdivision associations have been contacted and have indicated an interest in the movement.

★ ★ ★

The association's first public meeting, held Jan. 22, drew more than 200 persons, according to Gardner.

OFFICERS

Other officers of the group are Donald Kratt, vice president, and Mary Stoughton, treasurer.

The board of directors also includes Dr. William Crommett, Art Crebassa, Clair Kelley and Bud Chambers.

TV Gag Line Is No Joke to 'Rescuers'

NEW YORK (AP) — A gag line on an NBC television comedy show Monday night didn't seem so funny to some people, and in a couple of instances the cops had to get into the act.

On the network program, "Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In," viewers have been accustomed to see terse, humorous messages flash across the bottom of the screen.

★ ★ ★

On this occasion came the line: "Help, help, I'm being held prisoner in the newsroom."

Police in Alexandria, Minn., received a telephone call from a lady in nearby Glenwood who had been watching the program via KCMT-TV and had become concerned. Two patrolmen were to the station's newsroom but all was well.

PATROLMAN DISPATCHED

Another woman at Little Rock, Ark., also took the joke seriously. Police, acting on her call, dispatched a patrolman to the KARK-TV newsroom. No one needed help.

At NBC headquarters in New York, a spokesman said the line occasioned "a number of calls."

★ ★ ★

The spokesman stressed that such underlines on the TV screen "normally are used strictly as an NBC news function."

JA Points Way to Business Savvy

Friday winds up the 49th annual National Junior Achievement Week. Area activities, participated in by the Pontiac, Rochester, Utica and Royal Oak Centers featured open house programs, product sales displays, and recognition and social dinners.

Junior Achievement, born in Springfield, Mass., was initiated by an industrialist on his belief that urban youngsters could profit from a program which would provide "learning by doing," much as the 4-H serves farm youths.

★ ★ ★

Although primary emphasis was on development of handicraft skills, it was shifted in 1939 to that of practical business experience embracing the phases of organization, operation and merchandising.

The movement has grown nationally to more than 6,800 JA "companies" supported by 50,000 business firms. It has exposed millions of enterprising and impressionable youngsters to the rudiments of American business.

Junior Achievement of Southeastern Michigan began in 1949, the Pontiac Center being activated in 1951. Its 12 "companies" are sponsored by the Pontiac and GMC Truck & Coach Divisions, and Consumers Power Co.

Countywide, JA had grown to 415 operating units with 8,000 members supported by 100 sponsoring firms.

Junior Achievement is performing outstanding service through the development of responsibility and business understanding in America's youth. We commend the leaders of the movement, its supporters, and volunteer advisers on the superb job being done.

Edward N. Moseman

It is given to few men to find fulfillment in life comparable to that achieved by EDWARD N. MOSEMAN whose death came at 79.

Mr. MOSEMAN, of ancestry distinguished as area pioneers, was born in Pontiac and attended the universities of Michigan and Chicago.

★ ★ ★

An ardent devotee of dramatic art, he was active in the Chicago Little Players Group, and for many years pursued a professional stage career. Subsequently, with characteristic determination, he changed course, attended the Detroit College of Law and became an outstanding attorney.

Mr. MOSEMAN's outstanding contribution to the Pontiac scene was the part he played in the organization of the Pontiac State Bank in 1945, whose progress he guided as director and chairman of the board for many years thereafter.

★ ★ ★

A longtime resident of the Farmington area, his wide circle of friends and acquaintances mourn the passing of a personality whose imprint on the record of his times was impressive.

LBJ Tops Polls Despite Criticism of Policies

The latest opinion polls indicate that President JOHNSON would beat any of the leading GOP presidential contenders if the election were held right now.

All except one poll. Purdue University's Measurement and Research Center reveals that Sen. ROBERT KENNEDY is the favorite to win both the Democratic presidential nomination and the election.

If high school students could vote, that is, for they were the ones questioned in this survey. The Purdue polsters say, however, that past polls of high school students accurately mirrored actual adult voting behavior.

★ ★ ★

Coincidentally, Sen. Javits of New York had an article in Playboy magazine urging the enfranchisement of the Nation's 12 million 18- to 21-year-olds. Javits is one of 40 congressmen who have cosponsored a resolution calling for a constitutional amendment to lower the voting age to 18.

He doesn't think it has a chance, however, because the prospect of these 12 million voters being added to the rolls overnight "scares the political pants off" many local and state officeholders and party functionaries. They visualize a veritable hippie take-over of the Country, with everyone over 30 being thrown out of office.

★ ★ ★

This wouldn't happen, of course. The Nation's parties have always been able to assimilate transfusions of new ideas and new people, JAVITS points out.

Besides, Bobby Kennedy is over 30.

Auto Theft Statistics Are Staggering

By RAYMOND MOLEY

In the time you spend reading this newspaper, four or five automobiles are stolen in New York city. If you use the crime statistics in your own city, you can apply that sort of measurement where you are. The national total is staggering.

MOLEY

I use the New York figures here because the 1967 statistics have just been released. In the last six months of 1966 there were 25,904 auto thefts in New York City. In the same period in 1967 the figure was 34,828. That increase of 34.5 per cent was the highest of all the crime categories.

Some interesting facts about auto theft are in a report by what is called the National Auto Theft Prevention Campaign with which the Department of Justice is associated.

Six of 10 persons who have been arrested and charged with auto theft are under 18 years of age. And nearly one in five stolen cars has been involved in an accident. Thus, the impact of auto theft is greater than the property loss. It affects nearly every other sort of crime and personal tragedy.

★ ★ ★

The accident rate for stolen vehicles is 200 times greater than for owner-driven cars. Thirty-seven per cent of the accidents caused by stolen cars have involved police pursuit. The excitement of the chase, the stolen-car driver's unfamiliarity with the car, the thief's youth and nervousness all contribute to the peril of the public and the police.

NO LIMITS

The statistics collated by this campaign show that this crime is not limited to the ghettos and the homes of the underprivileged. It extends into the high- and medium-income areas of the suburbs. Again this proves that crime is not necessarily caused by poverty.

But the car owner must shoulder his share of the blame for so many auto thefts. Of the more than 500,000 cars stolen last year, four-fifths were left unlocked by their owner; two out of five were left with the keys ready for the thief.

Locked and keyless cars were activated by manipulation of wires under the hood or by master keys. These "jiggler" keys are sold without discrimination.

★ ★ ★

The automobile companies are already making changes in design. A federal safety standard now under consideration would require that cars will have ignition switches which will automatically lock either the steering column or the transmission.

PROFITABLE INDUSTRY

The stolen auto, an accessory in most crimes, is also a profitable industry. According to the criminal division of the Department of Justice, there are nearly 300 rings which receive and pay for purloined cars, destroy identification and resell the vehicles in a black market.

Thus, the stolen car is a vital item in the criminal complex which ranges from the teen-age hoodlum to the hardened members of lawless professionalism.

David Lawrence Says:

'Freedom to Listen' Is Imperiled

WASHINGTON — "Freedom to listen" would seem to be the right of every nation, particularly if it is merely an attempt to record conversations that are openly broadcast through various devices of transmission. The airwaves themselves are not the property of any nation.

LAWRENCE

Yet a crisis has arisen between the United States and North Korea over the right of an American vessel to use its own equipment to listen to what is being said over the air.

The North Korean government, backed by the Soviet Union and Red China, seized the USS Pueblo and imprisoned its 83-man crew, though no violation of international law was committed by the American ship.

Even if, as the North Koreans claim, the American vessel were within the 12-mile limit — something the United States government denies vigorously — its presence was not hostile or a threat to peace.

Both Moscow and Peking will be taking the risk of intensifying the crisis if they advise the North Koreans not to release the American crew. For a precedent of far-reaching importance would be established which would hurt the Communists more than America.

There are, for instance, many Russian trawlers with monitoring equipment traveling up and down the Alaskan coast in the Pacific and in areas closer than 12 miles along the Atlantic coast of this country.

WITHIN 100 MILES

Will their future activities now be imparied? If each nation sets its own limits, maybe the United States can prohibit any monitoring within 100 miles of its coast. Chile, Peru and Ecuador claim that their "territorial limits" extend 200 miles into the Pacific.

International law has never sanctioned the 12-mile limit just because a country claims it. Three miles has been the customary rule.

The League of Nations in 1930 tried unsuccessfully to get a compromise on a six-mile limit. In 1958, 86 nations at a world conference in Geneva sought an agreement on the wider limit but again failed.

★ ★ ★

Many Americans are wondering why the Pueblo was not protected by our own airplanes or destroyers or other warships as it cruised in international waters off the coast of North Korea.

The simple answer is that the U.S. Navy would have to be 20 times as large as it is today if protection had to be given constantly to all our small vessels which are on the high seas and picking up by electronic apparatus the messages that are passing to and from various countries.

It is vital to the security of the United States that ships with such equipment move to every area in the world.

Submarines from unfriendly countries can travel invisibly for long distances and can actually approach our own shores and fire missiles without warning.

The U.S. Navy, therefore, feels it is imperative to keep track of the departures of submarines of potential enemies. The messages about their movements become public property but can be heard only by ships that are close to the sending apparatus — usually near harbors or ports or naval bases.

Bob Considine Says:

Garrison a Bit Confused in His Probe Statements

NEW ORLEANS — Will the real Jim Garrison stand up?

Almost every time the district attorney opens his mouth about the conspiracy he says took place here and culminated in the gunning down of John F. Kennedy he gives the incredible charge a different interpretation.

CONSIDINE

From last June until October he said that Lee Harvey Oswald was an agent for the Central Intelligence Agency, but never for the FBI.

Last December Garrison said Oswald tipped off the FBI in advance of the assassination.

As time moves on, long past the assorted dates on which he promised to deliver the real murder ring, the Warren Commission has changed from "innocent dupes" of the CIA to a panel that "perpetrated fraud.

★ ★ ★

As for Garrison's hazy estimates about the number of gunmen involved in the tragedy at Dallas, the wonder is that only one person — the President of the United States — was killed that day in what Garrison would have one believe was massive gun play.

STORIES CHANGE

Garrison's assassins range in number from seven to 15. They pumped away at the president from "the grassy knoll," behind "the picket fence," and recently he proposed that somebody might have been shooting from "the sewer."

There was a period in Garrison's strange case when he put the onus on "Anti-Castro Cubans," meaning, presumably, Cubans in exile who were embittered by President Kennedy's refusal to back up the Bay of Pigs assault force with U.S. air support.

Now the culprits are not only anti-Castro Cubans, but "neo-Nazis and some Texas millionaires." And there are dark hints about the tracks of others involved, even leading to the door of the White House.

The archivists in Washington are pictured as evil chaps harboring all kinds of information that would support the Garrison thesis.

BLUNT FACT

So much for the implausible side of the case.

The blunt fact is that Clay Shaw, Garrison's first named suspect, goes on trial for conspiracy, February 15, in Criminal Court before Judge Edward Haggerty and a jury of his peers.

Shaw was indicted months ago on the charges leveled by Garrison. He has pleaded innocence.

★ ★ ★

He could get from two to five years if convicted of arranging the death of the leader of the free world!

SUBPOENAS ISSUED

Garrison has issued subpoenas to the widow (since remarried) of Oswald, to one Edward Eugene Bradley, a hawker for an itinerant right wing preacher, and is said to be considering trying to bring Jacqueline Kennedy to Judge Haggerty's little courtroom.

Friends of Garrison — and he has many in the state — still assume "he must have something." They cannot conceive of his going so far out on a limb as to have it break and plunge him into scornful political limbo. They say he's much too ambitious a man to go off on any fool's chase.

They recall his clean-up, relatively speaking, of the Bourbon Street brothels and dives — even though, as they admit, he had been a "real swinger" himself in his pre-district attorney days.

Reader Gives Support to War on Communism

Many say the war in Vietnam is morally wrong. I do not agree. I believe that anyone who supports the war against communism is morally right. The Communists have violated every major agreement made with the free world.

I believe that anyone in the U.S.A. who does not support our boys in Vietnam is guilty of treason. If not legally guilty, they are morally guilty.

'Pontiac Needs Adequate Police Protection'

Pontiac residents and nonresidents must realize the invaluable worth of the Pontiac police department and Chief William Hanger. It is incomprehensible that the City Manager could refuse to do everything necessary to insure continuance of this exceptional protection. The main reason for the city income tax was to provide better police and fire services in Pontiac but as with all promises on taxation it apparently means little when the money is received.

★ ★ ★

As nonresidents our one comfort in sharing this increased taxation was knowledge that the City of Pontiac would have police protection equal to the challenge of any lawlessness. Since most surrounding areas lack adequate protection, what can the City purchase that is more important to all the taxpayers than security? Will citizens realize what is at stake and demand the increased policemen promised by the income tax?

'Strength of Nation Continually Weakens'

What fools we Americans be. We are growing weaker and weaker, fast becoming the paper tiger we have been called. In our attempts to be the protector of smaller nations we are condemned when do and damned when we don't. In the name of God, some clergy, politicians and others condemn us for fighting the Communists but not the Communists for fighting us. The Supreme Court has done everything in its power to aid communism in this country, destroying the legal means of controlling it from within.

★ ★ ★

In Vietnam 40,000 of the enemy are poised to destroy all Americans who stand in their way. Yet we shouldn't fight. In Korea we are told to fight only to a certain line and then stop. We did. Now we face Korea again. They violated international law and captured one of our ships. Already some say don't do anything to offend them—they didn't mean any harm. What fools we are. Must we have another Pearl Harbor to wake us up?

'West Bloomfield Township to Vote on Tax'

The January 23rd issue of The Pontiac Press carried a story that the West Bloomfield Township board has agreed to hold a March 25th election to get a one mill renewal and a two mill increase on property taxes in the township for a five-year period. By this letter I hope to call attention of other residents of the township to this for their proper action.

A RESIDENT

Two Disagree With Comparison of Airports

You neglected to mention in your airport editorial that O'Hare and Midway Airports are 30 miles apart, not eight miles as are Oakland-Pontiac and Oakland-Orion. There is not one shred of evidence which substantiates any comparison between the Chicago area and the need of another major airport in Oakland County.

★ ★ ★

Your statement "But we need action" is correct. The action must be taken by Oakland County taxpayers to put a stop to an airport which the Federal Aviation Agency in 1963 recommended with a runway of 3,000 feet as the longest. What committee has been named to study this problem and who are the members? The County is already committed to $4.5 million on improvements at Oakland-Pontiac and Berz will not be closed. Taxpayers, we need action now.

MRS. DOROTHY V. OSTRANDER
1027 BROWN

In answer to your airport editorial, comparing Oakland County with approximately 750,000 people to Chicago with over five million people is as farfetched as the moon. Besides, Midway isn't eight miles from O'Hare Airport as Oakland-Pontiac is from the proposed Oakland-Orion (Allen) Airport. The cost of reactivating Midway for $11 million doesn't compare with the cost of over $100 million to expand Oakland-Orion Airport.

★ ★ ★

The revenue that Oakland-Orion might bring in 10 to 20 years away will never make up for the loss of over 200 homes, the St. Basil Basilica, the churches, schools, mobile homesite that was approved by the County, or the 1,400 acres that could be used for homes, business and industry for revenue to Orion and Pontiac Townships now.

★ ★ ★

If air freight and private flying expand at such a rate let those using and needing it pay for it. We need action to protect the people of Oakland County. The people of Oakland need more necessary things.

Question and Answer

In that the State Civil Rights Commission has been selected to administer open housing legislation, can you tell us how many charges of discrimination have been brought before this board? How many have been upheld by conviction?

DAVID BRADBURY
BLOOMFIELD HILLS

REPLY

From Jan. 1, 1964, through Dec. 31, 1967, 3,666 complaints were made to the Civil Rights Commission. Burton Gordin, Executive Director, tells us the Commission doesn't use the term "conviction," but makes a finding of probable cause to credit the claimant's allegation of discrimination. Of the 3,666 complaints, 2,400 were terminated, 726 of which were closed as adjusted after a finding of probable cause.

County Quota for Draft: 301

Oakland County will provide 301 of the 2,865 Michigan men to be drafted into the armed services in March.

It will be the largest number of inductees called for the draft since 1966.

Draft calls earlier this year were 2,542 for January and 1,668 for February. The largest call in 1967 was for 2,036 men in September.

A total of 13,022 men were inducted by Michigan draft boards in 1967 compared to 23,241 in 1966.

★ ★ ★

The March call will be filled from among Class 1-A and Class 1-A-O registrants ages 19 through 25, either single or married after Aug. 28, 1965. The oldest men will be called first.

Wayne County draft boards will induct 539, while Lapeer and Macomb counties will be responsible for providing 33 and 246 inductees, respectively.

Data Found on Regulator of Heartbeat

MELBOURNE (AP) — Melbourne scientist Dr. Winifred G. Nayler has returned from Germany to work on heart findings she accidentally discovered in Heidelberg.

Dr. Nayler, associate director of the Baker Medical Research Institute, said the findings indicated some heart disorders were caused by a liver abnormality.

Dr. Naylor added that the discovery gave strong leads on where a substance—kinekard—which is believed largely responsible for regulating the heart's beat, was produced in the body.

A research team headed by Dr. Naylor and the Baker Institute director Dr. T. E. Lowe, was the first to publish details of having isolated the agent about three years ago.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Naylor said that she had learned in Germany that Heidelberg Prof. Rien had found evidence that kinekard was made in the liver. Prof. Rien died five years ago without detailing his findings in scientific journals.

DATA

Dr. Naylor said the material was only in note form but contained much important data which would certainly influence work at the Baker Institute.

"Briefly, what he did was to show that there was a high concentration of a substance like kinekard in the blood from the liver," she said.

"It appears that Prof. Rien had spent a lifetime searching for kinekard and made his important discoveries shortly before his death."

★ ★ ★

Dr. Naylor said the next step would be further checking on whether kinekard was produced in the liver.

County GOP Exceeds Goal

The Republican Committee of Oakland County announced today it raised $32,527 during its 1967 Neighbor-to-Neighbor Fund Drive.

County Chairman Joseph R. Farnham said the amount raised in the off-election year was more than $500 over the announced goal.

Funds raised in the drive are used to operate the party's headquarters in Birmingham and to support all GOP candidates elected in the primary.

Royal Oak attorney John N. O'Brien was chairman of the campaign.

TORINO
sweeps first 5 places in Riverside 500!

(How's that for a new broom.)

Riverside is Ford Country. Torino takes the first five places in the Riverside 500 . . . the year's first and toughest test of endurance and dependability. Two weeks earlier, Ford Motor Company dominated the Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials at Riverside. In tests which included economy, acceleration and braking, the company won more classes than all other automobile manufacturers combined. See the man with Better Ideas . . . your Ford Dealer.

HERE ARE THE FACTS

Riverside 500 . . . Forty-four high-powered stock cars of all makes, modified to meet the special demands of competition racing, took off from the starting line on the twisting sports car circuit at Riverside. And only 13 of them went the full 500 gruelling miles. Five of these were Torinos. The first, second, third, fourth and fifth cars across the finish line. In this very first try in open competition Torino left no doubt about what it could do: in accelerating, hard braking, standing up to the most extreme demands for five solid hours. Winning this kind of competition takes real pro drivers. But it takes real cars, too. Well-balanced stable cars. Maneuverable cars with engines, transmissions and drivelines that can take the terrific punishment and never quit. When 5 out of the 8 Fords we entered take the first 5 places, you can bet the cars are as outstanding as the drivers. And when you remember that this is the sixth time in a row Ford has won the Riverside 500, you know we know something about real durability.

Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials . . . Experts have called the Trials America's most exacting and revealing test of all-around car performance. This year Ford Custom and Ford Galaxie 500 won first and second place in Class IV. Mustang was overall winner in Class IX. Fairlane Six won both the braking and economy events in Class VI, proving that it could go farther on a gallon and stop shorter than its competition. The Performance Trials do what a lot of car shoppers wish they could do. They take all the cars in a class and, with expert drivers at the wheel, compare the braking, acceleration and economy under equal conditions. NASCAR officials select entries at random off the showroom floor, run the Trials, and score the performance of each car. Results are truly impartial. So if you are looking for a new car, what happened at the Performance Trials can be especially meaningful. No matter what size car you're thinking of, you can start your own winning streak right now by seeing your Ford Dealer.

PRACTICE SESSION—Lahser High School sophomores (from left) Teri Malwitz, Maureen Sullivan and Curt Ostermann prepare for the high school's first dramatic production, "Our Town." The play will be presented, under the direction of Mrs. Jack Strait, Friday and Saturday at 8:15 p.m. in the Little Theater of Bloomfield Hills Andover High School.

New School's First Drama

Lahser Plans 'Our Town'

By GRETCHEN HAAS

Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" will be presented Friday and Saturday evenings by the drama players of Bloomfield Hills Lahser High School. The curtain will rise at 8:15 p.m. in the Little Theater at Bloomfield Hills Andover High School..

The production marks the beginning of drama presentations in the new school..

Students featured in the production include Phil Leach as Stage Manager; Curt Ostermann, George; Maureen Sullivan, Emily on Friday night; Teri Malwitz, Emily in Saturday's production; Jim Altman, Mr. Webb; Gigi Maganus, Mrs. Webb; Gary Diehl, Dr. Gibbs and Gildana Hegyan, Mrs. Gibbs..

Other players are Jim Balmer, Debbie Brooks, Pat Hall, Steve Knickerbocker, Tim Martin, Ellen Moss, Bob Newsham, Frank Reid, Brad Shimp, Marc Tirrell and Bob Weingarden.

The play is under the direction of Mrs. Jack Strait, drama teacher at Lahser. Student director is Martha Freitag.

The Pulitzer prize-winning "Our Town" was written to be produced without scenery and with a minimum of props. These aspects of the play challenge the actors in their ability to involve the audience in the action..

Although the play centers around life in a New Hampshire town, the lack of scenery and props promotes comparisons with other communities of any year or locale.

Wilder's development of the characters and their lives represents his views on life and death.

★ ★ ★

A second play is being planned for performance in the spring. It is hoped that Lahser's auditorium will be completed at that time.

Brazilian Student Attending Kettering

By DONNA FURLONG

A new face in the crowds at Waterford Kettering High School is Maria Cristina Affonso of Sao Paulo, Brazil..

Cris is a member of the Youth for Understanding foreign exchange program. She lives with the Harry McGrath family of 2391 Georgeland. In Brazil her family is made up of her mother and father, who is a doctor, and four sisters.

The Affonso family is not new to the exchange program. Cris' twin sister is living in Los Angeles, and an older sister is on a scholarship at Dunbarton College in Washington D. C..

"Confusion" and "excitement" are two words to describe Cris' feelings as she got off the plane. Cris had never seen snow before. In Brazil, winter is just a season of rains.

For the first few weeks at Kettering, Cris attended classes with her American sister, Missy. However this semester she will have her own schedule. Among the courses will be American literature, U.S. history and U.S. government, which are all suggested by the exchange program officials..

SHE LIKES IT

When asked about her impressions so far of this area Cris stated, "I like very much the people, everybody accepts me very well. It's different, very beautiful. I had never seen the way you live here." She continued, "I'd like to stay here with everyone!"

Upon graduation, Cris, who is a junior at Kettering, hopes to become a social scientist.

Elected vice president to the newly formed Office Education Association of Michigan is Shelly Aderholdt. The club's purpose is to bring together office co-op students from around the state and nation.

Pontiac Central Students Return to Study Routine

By KATHY McCLURE

Life at Pontiac Central High School is getting back to normal after a week sent in final exams, a trial run of new schedules and schedule changes.

This year's exam schedule was an innovation at Central. Monday, students attended their first, second and third hour classes for two hours each. Tuesday, the same schedule was followed for the fourth, fifth, and sixth hours.

Screams of anguish and cries of joy were heard Wednesday morning as students received their new schedules. As usual, students were told to follow their schedules, regardless of how much they were in error.

Some students had too many study halls while others didn't get any. A few students found themselves scheduled as lab assistants for home and family living classes. As usual, a few boys were scheduled for girls' gym classes and vice versa.

Students supposedly had Thursday and Friday off while teachers were grading final exams and averaging marking period and semester grades.

SCHOOL ACTIVITY

However, the school did not lack students. Many were resolving schedule conflicts with their counselors. Cheerleaders and members of the "King and I" cast were practicing, while the Quiver staff was working on the 1968 yearbook.

With this week beginning a new semester, students are getting back into the groove of homework and studying. Even "senioritis" has died down a bit. Of course, it is expected that the epidemic will be back in full force within a couple of weeks.

Central has beaten Northern again. The latest triumph was in the annual clothing drive. Central collected 3,228 pounds while Northern collected 1,888.

★ ★ ★

Brother Rice Nears Traditional Game

By GARY MILLER

Several students of Brother Rice High School will journey with the Brother Rice basketball team to witness a traditional basketball game as Birmingham Brother Rice plays Brother Rice of Chicago in the annual game Friday night in the "Windy City." Last year the Chicago team visited Birmingham.

John Cruitt, Jim Wilde, Steve Reiber, Ed Safar and Kevin Byrnes felt that the team needed fans at the game so they decided to make the trip with the team.

The group plans to stay at the homes of Brother Rice of Chicago students or "sleep in the gym."

After students took a week off for exams, intramural hockey started up again yesterday with a few games taking place. Teams headed by Tom Vittiglio and Tom Guy are currently in a tie for first place.

2-School Dance Leaves Dating Up to Computer

By DAVID DYE

Every year the Kingswood-Cranbrook social committees have an interschool "computer" dance. But this year the couples at Saturday's dance will be matched by a real computer.

★ ★ ★

Katie Lerchen, a senior committee member, wanted to have a computer do the matching this year instead of the social committees.

★ ★ ★

The committee members (Mary Darwall, Kitsy Hanson and Leslie Sott from Kingswood; Rick Beer, Ralph Margulis, Jim Nordlie, Bob Snyder and Dave Troxel from Cranbrook) agreed to have the Boston Computer Dance Co. do the arranging.

Some 340 Kingswood-Cranbrook students signed up for the dance, each filling out a 50-question answer card.

The far-ranging questions ask the student what kind of person he is and what type of date he wants.

★ ★ ★

The questionnaire covers simple but important questions like, "I am a: (1) boy (2) girl," as well as penetrating questions like, "The quality I most admire in others is: (1) athletic ability (2) intelligence (3) honesty (4) sense of humor."

TWO OR MORE

From this combination of questions, the computer selects two or more people best suited for a student.

★ ★ ★

The band Fife Ness and the Firth of Tay will play at the dance accompanied by a psychedelic light show. Students are expected to dance at least twice with their computerized date.

Kingswood Resumes Classes

By MARY STEWART

Classes resume again at Kingswood after four days of exams and the extended semester-break weekend..

Results from each two-hour exam will be discovered when students receive their blue books (examination booklets) in their academic classes..

Kingswood's grading system is based on a five-point scale; accordingly, a 5 is the highest mark..

To qualify for the Merit Roll, a student must have a 3.5 average, no 10-week marking period grade less than a 3, and no grade of a 2 or below on examinations.

★ ★ ★

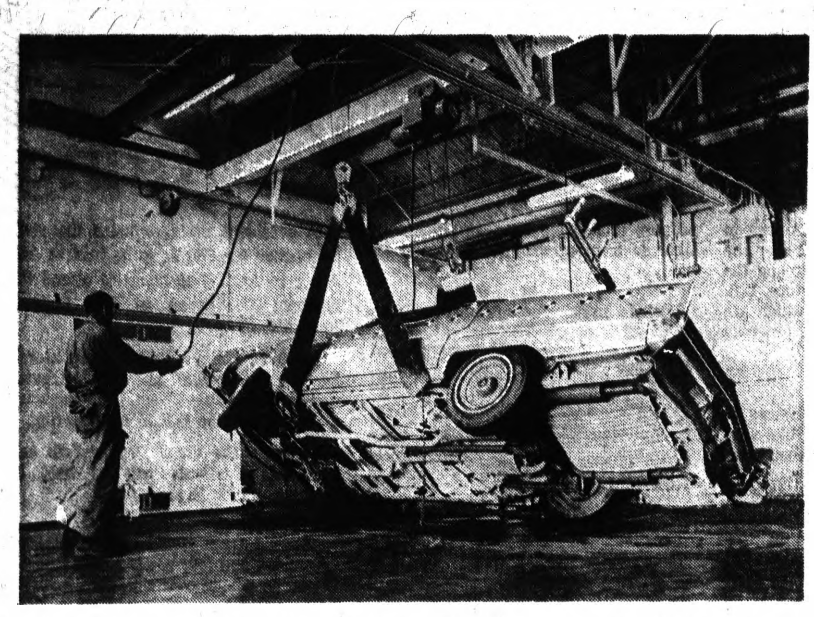

The Honor Roll qualifications are: no period grade less than a 4 and the same as Merit Roll for examination grades..

If a student is having difficulty scholastically, a "white card" is sent home at midmarking period.

Also, teachers' comments and suggestions are included with the transcript of academic grades for each student's classes at the end of a marking period..

GM Engineers Track Improvements

Crash-Test Aim: Safer Cars

1—A Test Car Being Prepared For Photographing And Measuring

Witnessing the rending crash of a new car colliding with an immovable object is unnerving Most people don't have to put up with it too often.

But a group of engineers employed by General Motors witnesses just this sort of thing an average of 26 times a month.

And each time they keenly await that moment when a collision brings twisted, tortured metal.

Their interest is academic rather than pleasurable, however.

The engineers are conducting safety tests at the General Motors Proving Ground near Milford. They study effects of collisions on a variety of GM cars with the aim of finding what happens to the autos after impact.

FINDINGS FOR SAFETY

These scientifically studied findings are then used to determine better and safer ways to build cars.

Safety test engineering at the proving ground embraces a variety of tests but the most spectacular is the crash.

The chief crash site at the proving ground is a track which runs into a 21-ton concrete barrier.

For test crashes the engineers line up a car 440 feet away. A dolly pulls the car down the track and releases it just before impact, at about 30 miles an hour.

The car is measured exactly before the test and markings are made on it, and measured, so that engineers can tell afterward just what disfiguration results from the crash.

In addition, the cars are loaded with electronic sensing devices and high-speed motion picture cameras attached to outrigger frames.

The cameras take pictures before, during and after the crash. Cameras also record the crash from a 30-foot tower above the crash site, from a 12-foot pit — covered with gratings — beneath the impact site and from both sides.

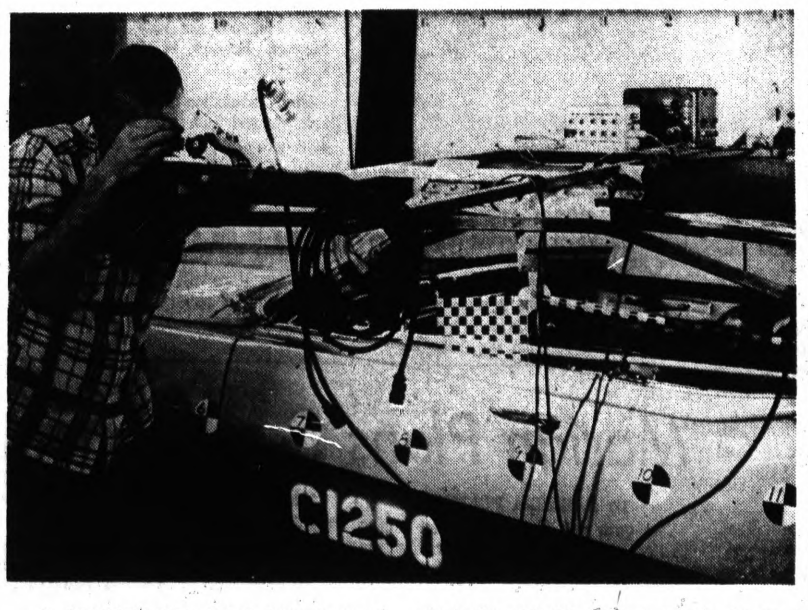

The cameras are started electronically before the impact.

Test techniques and instrumentation have become highly sophisticated since crash testing began.

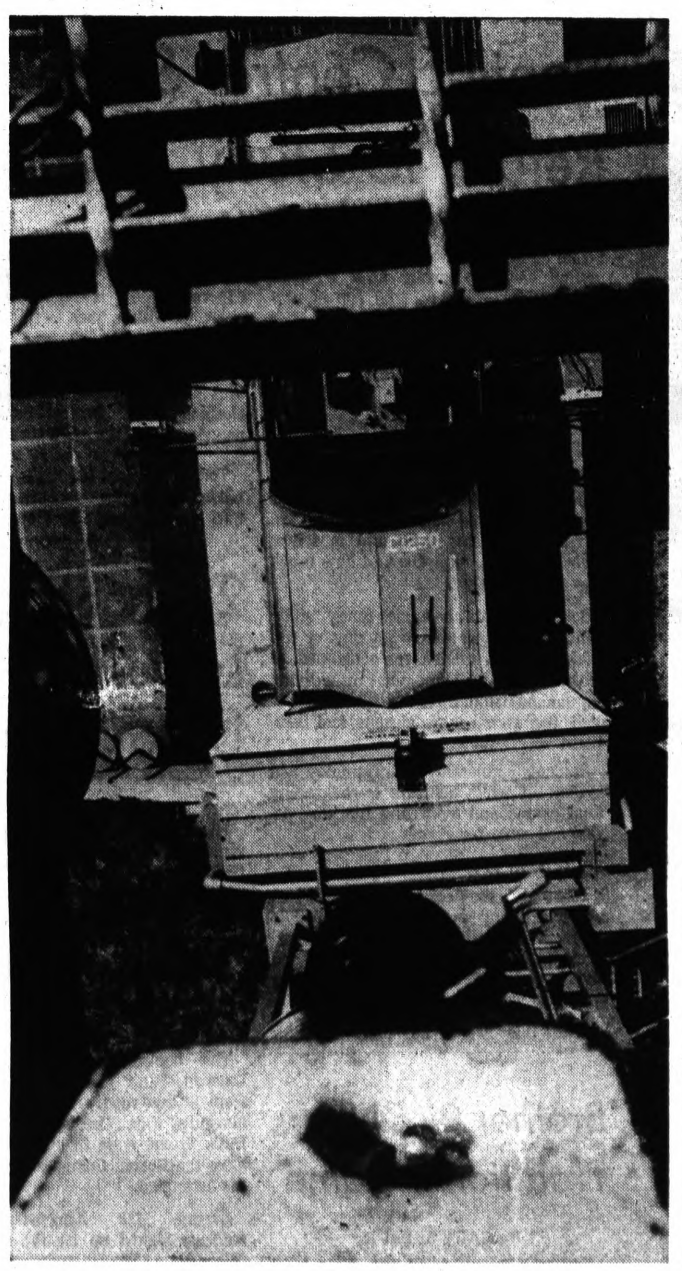

For example, engineers use a photo-analyzer data reduction system to assess results. High-speed motion pictures are run through the analyzer frame by frame.

Engineers using this equipment translate the visual information into mathematical notation for computer processing.

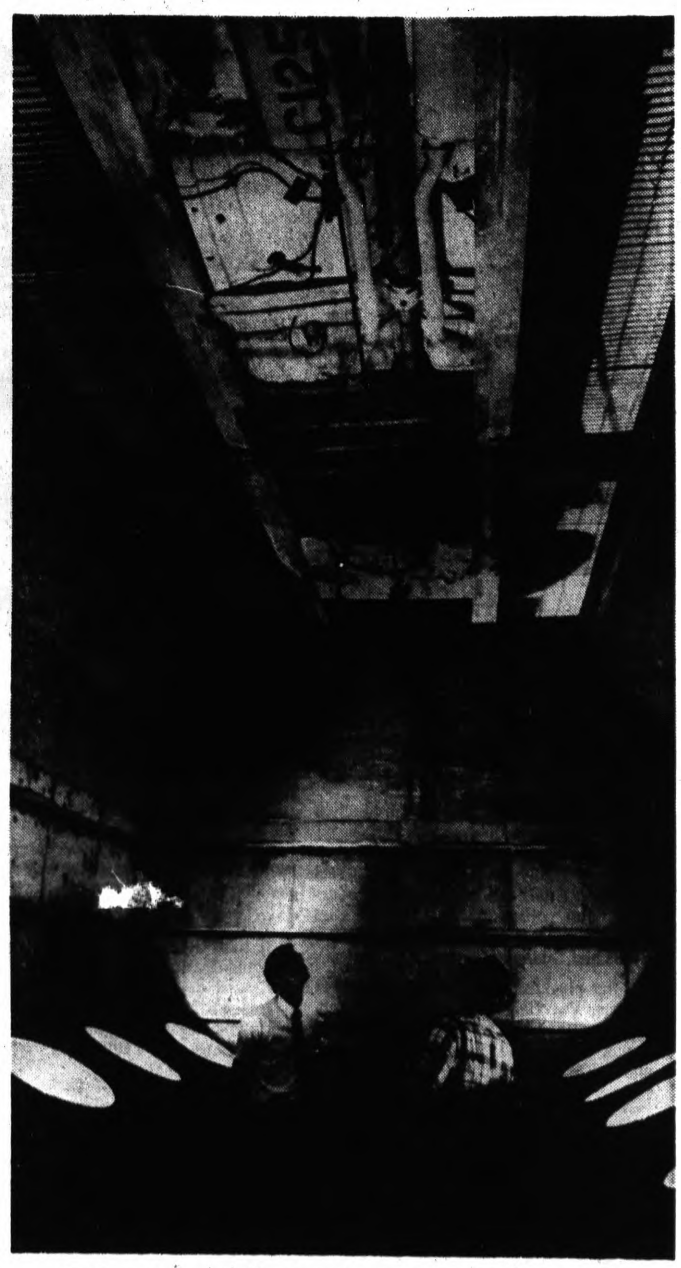

Almost all components of the car are designed — in part — using information obtained through crash testing including the frame, sheet metal and body structures.

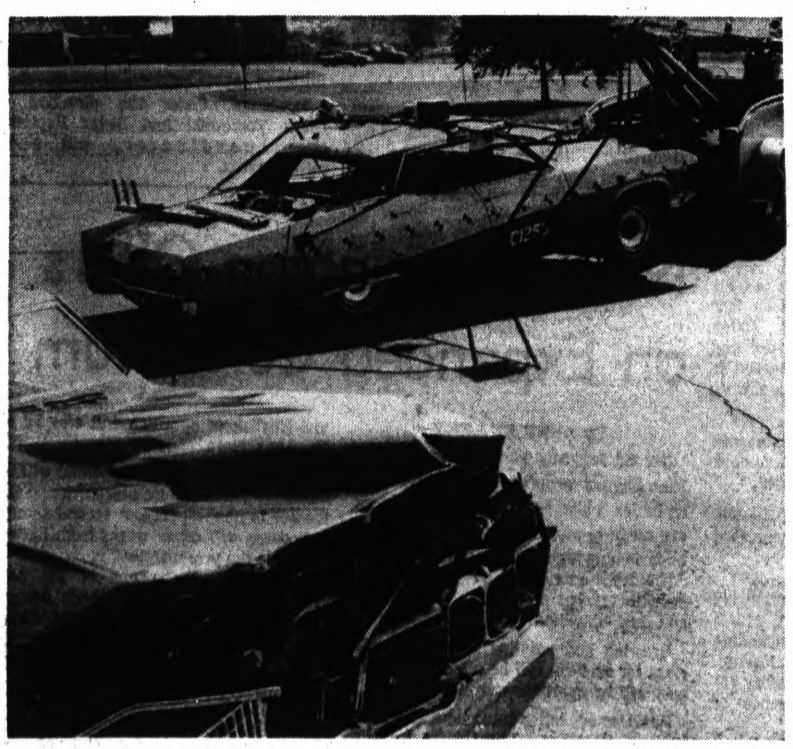

2—ADJUST LENS—A technician prepares a high-speed camera which will focus on the checkerboard inside the test car for pictures before, during and after a test crash.

6—Cameras Will Record Damage To Underbody

3 — NOW READY — Fully prepared, marked, measured and painted, a test car is towed to the crash scene. In foreground, a car shows typical damage from a test crash.

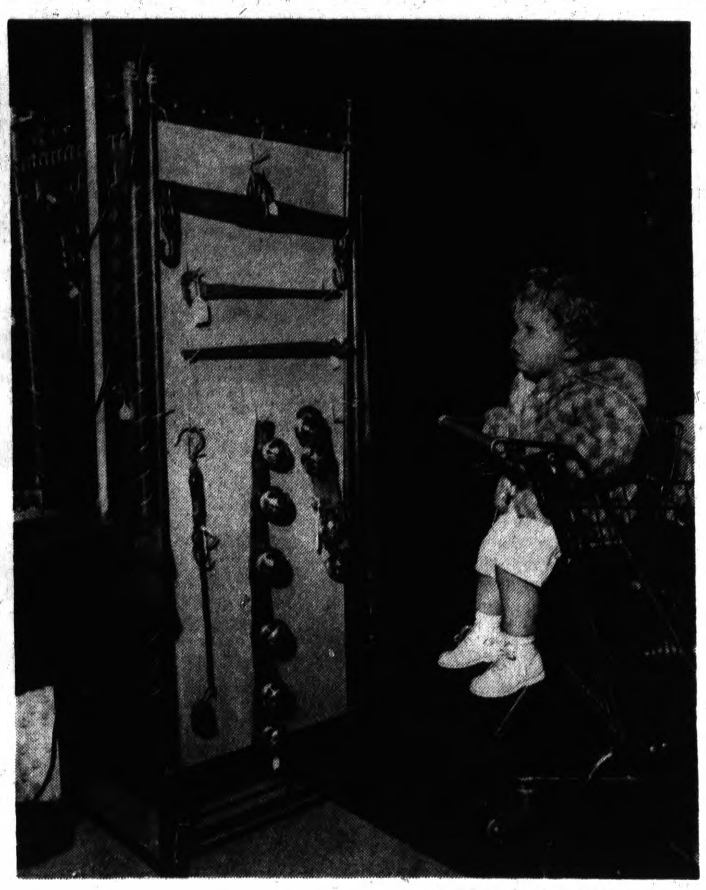

7—Moments After The Test Crash, Engineers Study Effects And Extent Of Damage

4—CRASH SITE—The test auto is placed in impact position while photographers focus stationary cameras above, beneath and on the sides of the impact area.

One of the joys of a show at The Pontiac Mall is being able to eat while you browse. Phyllis Bass, Elm Street, enjoys her lunch as she looks over the items offered by McIntosh Antiques of Highland Park. The Mall's first antique show is being held all this week.

★ ★ ★

In 1946 the J. L. Hudson Company registered the name "Fashionscope" — that was the year Hudson's and the Women's Association began their fruitful association by having the fashion show at the Music Hall. Since the Hudson store now has its own auditorium, the performances take place there.

Dates are Feb. 27 and 28.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Nederlander is the patroness ticket chairman for this area. Among those assisting her are: Mesdames: Frederick C. Matthaei Jr., Leonard Latos, John Mathews, William DeVault, J. E. Goodman, Edwin O. George, Robert Aiken, Clifford Parisi, Ted Lindsay, John E. Hauser and Cecil Akroyd.

★ ★ ★

Luncheons are being planned and bus arrangments made for the convenience of patroness ticket holders who do not wish to drive. There will be a luncheon at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club and at the Red Fox restaurant.

★ ★ ★

These events are in the hands of Mesdames: Harry Calvert, Ralph Hesler, W. Calvin Patterson, Robert A. Thom, Leonard Weldman, Herman Reichert, J. A. McCullough and Robert P. Lapham. General ticket chairman is Mrs. Robert B. Winter.

All Female Olympic Athletes to Undergo Chromosome Test

By JOHN FARROW
Associated Press Sports Writer

GRENOBLE, France — Winter sports girls from 38 countries started arriving in France Monday for the Winter Olympics — and all of them were wondering how the sex test would work out.

★ ★ ★

The International Olympic Committee decided that all girl athletes at the Games would be subjected to the test to decide whether girls are half men.

The IOC let it be known that each athlete in principle would be tested.

★ ★ ★

"It's the first time that olympic athletes have been put to the test.

The first time such a thing happened in international sport was in Jamaica in 1966 before the British Empire and Commonwealth Games.

★ ★ ★

On that occasion, girls lined up in their nighties to be tested by women doctors.

Nobody was barred.

ONE CASE

Then last year came the case of Polish sprinter Eva Klobukowska AA, the girl disallowed from the European Track and Field Championships.

So the girl skiers and skaters and toboggan riders now are left wondering: "Is somebody going to be thrown out of the Olympics?" Their next question is: "Who could it be?"

Monique Berlioux, editor of the IOC Magazine, wrote an editorial about the situation and headlines her piece:

"Femininity."

She wrote;

"The chromosome formula indicates quite definitely the sex of a person and, some years ago, it was discovered that a simple saliva test will reveal its composition."

★ ★ ★

She pointed out that in Grenoble and in Mexico for the Summer Olympics "saliva samples will be taken and analyzed in laboratories. This will be the first time that such a control will be carried out, thanks to the experts named by the IOC and approved by the International Sports Medicine Federation."

The international commission is composed of experts from countries throughout Europe. Doctor Hay of Mexico is the only member from a country outside Europe. Prince Alexandre de Merode of Belgium heads the IOC Medical Committee.

The organizers have not yet said when the sex tests will take place.

★ ★ ★

The results are supposed to be secret — with only the medical officer of the team and the IOC official doctor being informed.

Man Crying on Teen's Shoulder--- Too Old for This Sort of Thing

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a 15-year-old girl with a problem. I made friends with a 27-year-old guy I'll call Paul, who works at a gasoline station near school. I used to stop in there to talk to him. He sort of confided his troubles to me. The poor guy has really had a messed up life.

He had a "forced" marriage, then his wife ran off and left him for another man. He says he doesn't love her, but he misses the baby. I feel sorry for Paul, but he says it does him good just to have my shoulder to cry on.

★ ★ ★

Anyway, from certain things he's said and done lately, I thought Paul was getting to like me too much, so I stopped going to the station. Then he started calling me up at home to talk to me. If my mother knew his background, she'd have a fit. I tell her it's some kid from school calling. How can I tell Paul not to call me anymore without hurting his feelings?

FIFTEEN

DEAR FIFTEEN: Never mind his feelings. A 27-year-old man who looks for a 15 year old to "cry on her shoulder," could have designs on the rest of her. AVOID him. And when he calls you, tell him not to call anymore. And if he asks you why, you may use my name and quote my advice.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "HOPING": If he wants to be "improved," you may be able to help him, but don't expect to "mold" a man of his character. Rotten wood cannot be carved.

Apply Heat to Minimize Cold Harm

CHICAGO (UPI) — Prompt treatment of forstbite is essential to avoid serious damage, the American Medical Association (AMA) reports.

In true frostbite, crystals of ice form between the cells, freezing the tissue. A part of the body can become frostbitten even when the temperature isn't startlingly low.

★ ★ ★

"Wind is important and the chilling effect of air at 20 degrees above zero moving at 45 miles an hour is the same as 40-below zero air on a still day, the AMA said.

One of the dangers of frostbite is that the victim often doesn't feel it. Someone else usually notices that an ear or nose is turning white.

TREAT WITH HEAT

To treat the condition warm the affected part as rapidly as possible, authorities say. Use hot compresses to warm. Apply gently. If no hot water is available, place the person in a sleeping bag or cover with coats and blankets. Feed hot liquids to the person.

See a doctor as soon as possible, it was suggested. He can determine the extent of injury and treat it.

Ottoman Is Also a Kind of Fabric

What's ottoman? That's a question many women are asking this fall as they scan the fashion pages and see the word turning up again and again. The confusion arises from the fact that ottoman is also a kind of sofa.

But, as a fabric, ottoman is a corded silk or rayon fabric with large cotton cord for filling. Ottoman is favored by designers for garments with little detail, since its cording provides textural interest.

Female Fire Fighters

Guard Texas Town

WOODBINE, Tex. (UPI) — When the little North Texas community of Woodbine has a fire, it is ladies first. The whole volunteer fire department consists of women.

★ ★ ★

Most of the men in the farming community are usually in the field. When an occasional fire breaks out, there is nobody nearby for volunteer firefighting. So the women stepped in.

Mrs. Bonnie Jeffcoat said her husband got the idea.

★ ★ ★

"We were at a meeting, trying to find something constructive the women could do and my husband asked me why we did not start a fire department," Mrs. Jeffcoat said. The ladies did just that.

Mrs. Jeffcoat, 27, became the fire chief. Her sister, Faye Jeffcoat, 29, is assistant. A niece, Tina Brazil, 26, is secretary.

★ ★ ★

"None of us is an experienced firefighter," Mrs. Jeffcoat said. "But Mr. Hal Wood of Dallas, fire marshal for the State of Texas, has arranged training for us at the Duncanville Fire Department."

BABYSITTING

She said she hoped to have a score or more of volunteers and will even give the women a nursery to take care of their children when the women go to fight a fire.

★ ★ ★

The department will also have to raise enough money to buy a building for a fire department. And there is no engine yet.

"We are having bake sales and accepting donations," Mrs. Fire Chief Jeffcoat said.

Favor Velveteen for Little Tykes' Dress-Up Clothes

Velveteen is the most popular fabric this season for toddlers' dress-up occasions and party treats are no hazard to this regal-looking but sturdily washable pile fabric.

★ ★ ★

It is best to wash pint-sized velveteens by hand, to keep deep colors separate from other clothes to avoid transferring excess color. Use warm soap or detergent suds and rinses, then allow the garment to drip dry without wringing.

For touch-ups, use a steam iron or dry iron over a damp press cloth, holding it just above but never touching the fabric.

Useful Bulletin Board Can Be Pretty, Cheerful

Bet you'd be at a loss without a bulletin board to remind you where and when the fun is — or was.

★ ★ ★

Big dates will never come as a bolt out of the blue . . . or be missed . . . if you tack up notices of parties and "dos" to come. Nor will the fun soon be forgotten with your last corsage, noisemakers, and all the souvenirs that mean so much to you right in view.

Bulletin boards bear a charmed life in most teens' rooms. But following this fad needn't produce look alikes. Have a fling with kooky shapes, unusual materials, and flashing bright colors that swing with your room and needs.

SHAPE

One idea: a mini board shaped to suit even a very small space — a niche between windows, the back of a door, the end of bunk beds. You can adapt it, by mini-mizing the size, to fit on the back of a kitchen cabinet, as a gift to your mother, perhaps.

And it's so breezy, easy to make with white glue-all and a self-sticking, plastic coated cloth tape that comes in a bright rainbow of colors and several widths.

How-to-do: First, glue two large sheets of corrugated cardboard together, back to back. Then, glue heavy white paper (or whatever color you choose) to one side of the cardboard and cut into a diamond shape. Or experiment with an octagon, a rectangle with crasy-cut corners, or a sunburst. Edge your bulletin board with gaily colored tapes for a smooth, decorative look.

Plant some posies by placing strips of the same color tape as the border, or a complementary one, on a sheet of flexible cardboard, overlapping each strip at the center. Cut the tape's edges in a flower shape.

★ ★ ★

Trim the center with a circle of contrasting colored tape. Glue each flower to the top and bottom of the board. They'll look so pretty you may need a note: "Please Don't Pluck the Posies."

Case No. E-544

What About Their Duty?

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE E-544: Alma G., aged 34, is president of her PTA.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "it seems to me that most of the child psychologists criticize us parents and teachers.

DR. CRANE

"For we are constantly being told what to do and say to our kiddies.

"But don't children have responsibilities, too, especially by the time they reach Junior High School?

"So why don't educators stress more heavily the duties of the grammar and high schoolers?"

BEHAVIOR TESTS

Alma is correct in saying most of the stress in child psychology has been slanted toward parents.

Yet children are also members of their family team and thus have definite duties.

That's why I used my staff of trained interviewers to devise a special "Behavior Test for Teen-Agers."

Actually, it fits any youngster who can read.

And it definitely states the rules of the game, for children are thus shown what is standard behavior of American boys and girls.

They can then rate themselves and see exactly how they compare with the normal youngster.

For example, do you young folks brush your teeth twice per day without Mama's prodding? ding?

★ ★ ★

Do you make your own bed in the morning, or still rely on her to do your work and "nursemaid" you?

Do you tell fibs or take money out of her purse without asking?

Are you able to "boss" yourself ahd thus force yourself to do the homework and other necessary chores without waiting for your parents to nag you?

Remember, if you think your parents are too bossy, that usually means you are immature and childlike.

For babies must be bossed!

Even if you are in Senior High, if you still act much like an infant then you have no excuse to criticize your parents for being "bossy."

Do you hang up your clothes carefully or toss them on a chair?

How about your time sense? Can you catch the school bus or get to an appointment on time without constant prodding by parents?

The very teen-agers who cry the loudest about their desire to be independent, are usually the most babyish of all!

For the self-reliant teen-agers don't require such supervision and nursemaiding.

ADVERTISE

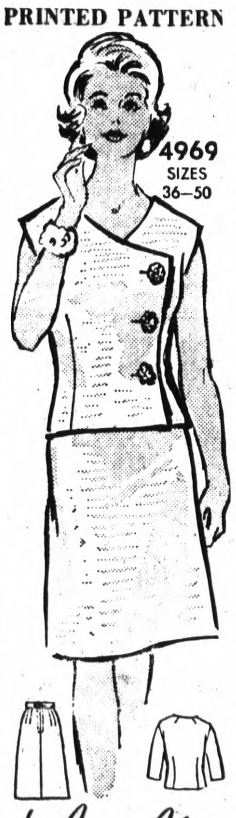

It is the immature or babyish folks who hope to advertise their independence by smoking cigarettes, drinking liquor, fast driving and late curfew hours.

For a person who subconsciously feels immature is thus likely to compensate by trying to adopt the visible signs that he thinks are evidence of maturity.

Advertisers thus stampede about 5,000 new high schoolers every day into lifelong addiction to tobacco. Why?

Because these young people are unsure of themselves and thus stampede as two-legged sheep if the TV ads make it appear that sucking on a cigarette suggests adult sophistication!

BY OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

South's bidding represents the modern trend to inflation. In theory his bid of two no-trump followed by four no-trump followed by four no-trump showed 18 or 19 points. With a normal two no-trump he would have let the hand play at game. Of course, South had only 17 points but he liked his four card fit for his partner's clubs.

JACOBY

He was right to like that fit. If he had thought to give some sort of club raise, his partner could have played at six clubs. With the heart finesse working he would have had no trouble with the club slam, even if he lost a trump trick.

★ ★ ★

Six no-trump was a different matter. The ten, king and ace of hearts went on the first trick, and South played ace, king and another club. East was in with the queen and since West had signaled strength in spades. East led his deuce of that suit.

As anyone can see, South was doomed to defeat unless the defense slipped — and the defense did slip. East and West were supposed to be experts and the play made West look mightily silly, but strangely enough we have to give East full blame. Note that East had led the deuce of spades. This was proper in that partnership since they led low from three small.

South played its four of spades to save the jack for later. Then he cashed the queen of hearts and the last two clubs. He discarded the three and nine of spades in that order. West had discarded two spades and two diamonds at this point. Then the jack of hearts was led from dummy. South let a diamond go and West unguarded his queen of spades!

As we said before, West looked silly but it was East's fault. When you led low from three, you show down and out with the next two so East should have thrown the nine of spades first and the three next. His actual discards had indicated that he started with four, not three, so that West was entitled to mark him with the spade jack.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
	2 ♥	Pass	3 ♦
Pass	4 ♥	Pass	?

You, South, hold: ♠ A K 7 6 ♥ 2 ♦ K Q 6 5 4 ♣ 7 5 4

What do you do now?

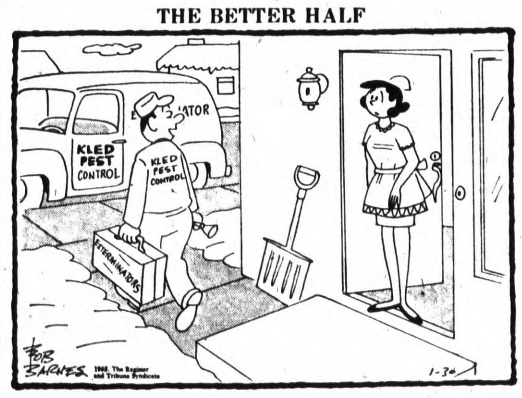

A—Bid four no-trump. Your partner has shown that he can play hearts without any trump help from you. You want to find out about aces and will go to six if he shows you two aces.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner bids five spades to show three aces. What do you do now?

CHAPTER 18

Kathleen Royal's mount had built up a considerable lead. Dan Briscoe decided against attempting to shorten the gap, for the time being. He was hoping she might relent and turn back.

She continued to push her horse. After half a mile, she left the road and took to the flats along the river.

At first, Dan believed she was heading for the shacktown the homesteaders had created.

However, her horse forded the stream at a shallow stretch half a mile from the settlement, and passed through a break in a two-wire fence that skirted the south fringe of the river — the same break, no doubt, that had brought on Baldy's encounter with Shep Sand and Gid Marko.

Kathleen veered west, paralleling the river. This carried them abreast of Shacktown, and Dan could see two or three women and several children staring at them from among the habitations.

KNEW OF PURSUIT

Even though he had not seen her look back, Dan was certain Kathleen knew he was following her. She was making a point of ignoring his pursuit in an attempt to prevail on him to abandon the attempt.

What ever purpose she had in mind, she evidently was determined to go through with it.

Dan continued to stay within reasonable distance. There was no rifle on the saddle, and no pistol in sight, but that did not mean she could not have a short gun concealed.

She passed an opening in a barbed wire fence by way of a wooden cattle guard, which her horse picked its way carefully across. Dan's mount also negotiated the guard.

START CLIMBING

Not far beyond the fence, they skirted the river again. Flat Butte rose massively to the right.

They soon began mounting a steady ascent toward a rounded hogback which connected the big butte with a second, table-topped eminence that had been previously hidden from view by its larger neighbor.

Springwater River had cut its way through this ridge. Their route led them at times along the rim of the forge. Dan glimpsed white water now and then and heard the roar of rapids that must have been two hundred feet below.

Dan knew now that they had left Spanish Bell range when they had crossed the line fence. This was sheep country. Shannon country.

COMMANDING VIEW

The elevation they reached commanded miles of the basin eastward. Looking back, he could see Royal House and its web of corrals and meadows, tiny at that distance, but sharply defined.

He followed the way across the rounded summit. An easy slope descended to a plateau, broken by draws and small gorges.

Two miles or more ahead, on a wide flat, stood the buildings of a sheep ranch, shaded by cedar, with a windbreak of poplar along the channel of a ditch that brought water to a sizeable pond.

Sheep pens, and long shearing and lambing sheds, all unused at this season, flanked the pond. Wool wagons stood with tongues elevated beneath shed roofs, along with three unused herder wagons with their typical round, sheet-iron tops from which stovepipes jutted.

GAP CLOSES

The main house, like that home of Kathleen Royal, was built of stone, and apparently in the same pattern, by the same artisans. And dating back as many years.

Kathleen was riding directly toward the sheep ranch. Dan spurred his tiring horse and began closing the gap between them.

There was activity at the ranch ahead. Men were saddling horses. Harness teams were being brought out and hooked to two of the wool wagons.

★ ★ ★

All this halted. Faces turned to stare as Kathleen Royal came riding in. There were six men, and all were Basques by their garb, except one. The exception was the tall, sinewy man who had met Lavinia Shannon at the stage station.

LAVINIA APPEARS

Lavinia Shannon appeared from the main house. She looked old and gray and tired. And also unyielding.

Kathleen Royal did not slow the pace of her horse as she rode past the men. The tall one took a stride to intercept her, but she lifted the coiled quirt from the saddle horn and raised the loaded handle menacingly, driving him back.

She raced her horse toward Lavinia Shannon. The older woman, instead of retreating, moved on foot to meet the threat of the oncoming animal. She stood straight and challenging in the face of this danger.

Kathleen Royal dragged her mount to a halt only a few yards short of riding down the other woman. "Lavinia," she said between lips that were still ashen and taut, "if another of your hired ruffians ever again injures any of my crew, I'll hold you for it, personally."

CONFRONTATION

The tall man came running to intervene. Dan arrived and yanked his horse into the man's path. "Stay out of this," he said.

Lavinia Shannon spoke. She had never taken her eyes off Kathleen Royal. "The next time any of your people cross that line fence, they'll be shot. That includes you, Katey. We've buried enough dead. We've endured our last pile-up."

"I've also reached a limit, Lavinia," Kathleen said. "Baldy Stapp was beaten within an inch of his life today by those gunmen who pose as homesteaders.

"Baldy is up in years. I had pensioned him to an easy job for the rest of his life, but, because riders are afraid to hire out to Spanish Bell these days, Baldy went back to working cattle out of loyalty to me.

"After this, turn your wolves loose on someone who has a chance of defending himself."

SHEEP SLAUGHTERED

"Speaking of wolves, there'll be plenty to fatten them for the next few days," Lavinia hannon said. Her voice had the same metallic quality Dan had heard in Kathleen.

"We were just starting out with the wagons to salvage what pelts we can. If the river smells of tallow and rotting mutton for the next few days as it flows past Spanish Bell, you'll know your night riders did their job well."

"What are you talking about, Lavinia?"

★ ★ ★

"As if you didn't know! Ride over to The Narrows. It's only a couple of miles. You might enjoy the sight of 200 head of our lambs, mangled on the rocks, or floating dead in the river.

DRIVEN OVER BLUFF

"They were driven over the edge of the bluff at daybreak by masked men. Two of our best dogs were killed.

"The herder escaped with his life only because he managed to get away into the brush. They were shooting at him."

"I know nothing about this," Kathleen said.

★ ★ ★

"Perhaps. Perhaps not. At least your father does. When you ride to The Narrows, take a look at the brand on a dead horse that's lying near where the sheep were driven over the bluff.

SPANISH BELL BRAND

"I believe you'll recognize your own Spanish Bell brand. It's one of your quarterhorses that your father bred. We found it with a broken leg at daylight.

"My son shot it to end its misery. It had been ridden by one of the masked men who piled up the flock."

"That can't be true!" Kathleen exclaimed. She wheeled her horse and headed in the direction Lavinia Shannon had pointed. Dan joined her.

★ ★ ★

They rode in silence. The distance was less than two miles. Reaching the gorge where the river boiled more than a hundred feet below, they followed the rim for a distance. They pulled up and stared in silence.

Cut Your Own Taxes—8

Dependent Claims Raise Thorny Queries

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the eighth of 14 articles by a tax expert and veteran newsman aimed at persons with average incomes.

By RAY DE CRANE
NEA Publications

Questions on the claiming of dependents cause more problems for taxpayers than any other single situation.

Told by an Internal Revenue auditor that they cannot claim a certain person as a dependent on their tax return, taxpayers are apt to exclaim: "But that isn't fair."

And the only reply the IRS auditor can give is: "But that is the law."

Perhaps a better understanding of the legal requirements will help to end some of the confusion.

★ ★ ★

Let us first separate the various kinds of dependents into three broad categories and see how the rules apply to each. The groupings are:

UNDER 19

Children under 19.

Children 19 and older who are full-time students.

All others, including parents and relatives.

There is one common rule that applies to all cases: The person making the dependency claim must furnish the chief support for the one being claimed. This means more than 50 per cent of the total support.

For children under 19 their gross earnings are not a factor. A child movie star could make $50,000 a year, have it all put into a bank account and the parents could claim the star as a dependent so long as they furnished the chief support.

★ ★ ★

Once 19, children do not qualify as dependents if they have gross income of $600 or more, UNLESS they are students. To be so classed, they must have attended a school full-time at least some time during five months of the year.

COMPARISON CASES

Since the element of chief support is important, it is easy to see that a 19-year-old attending high school and earning $1,400 a year by working after school and during summer vacation might not qualify as a dependent if he spent his earnings for himself.

But another 19-year-old attending an engineering school far from home where tuition, transportation expenses and board and room must be paid could easily be classified as a dependent, although having the same income.

All other children 19 and older lose their dependency status if they are not students and earn at least $600.

★ ★ ★

How about parents and relatives?

GROSS INCOME FACTOR

Do they have $600 gross income? It could come from gross rents, savings interest, dividends or wages. If so, they are out as dependents, regardless of how much you might contribute toward their support.

What if they don't have gross taxable income but do have Social Security and other non-taxable income? The question here is what they do with their money. Whatever they spend in their own support has to be more than matched in your contributions toward their support before they can be claimed.

The fact that you got little or none of their money is unimportant. The only question is how much you spent and whether or not it contributed their chief support.

Gambling and Weapons Rulings Irk Enforcers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal law enforcement officials say Supreme Court decisions restricting application of federal gambling and weapons laws will hamper crime-fighting and possibly endanger current prosecutions.

"What can you say when a man has his right arm cut off?" commented Henry E. Petersen, chief of the Justice Department's Organized Crime and Racketeering Section, when asked about Monday's high court gambling decision.

★ ★ ★

Officials of both the Justice and Treasury departments predicted the decisions would hamper state and local law enforcement as well.

Senators pushing for a gun-control bill said meanwhile they feel the court's decision raised no barrier to its passage.

LANDMARK DECISIONS

In the two decisions, the court:

- Ruled 7 to 1 that the laws forcing gamblers to register and pay special taxes require them to provide evidence that could lead to their conviction, thus violating the Fifth Amendment guarantee against self-incrimination.
- Used identical reasoning in an 8-1 vote barring prosecution of persons who refuse to register such weapons as sawed-off shotguns and machine guns. The court also ruled out prosecution for possession of such weapons.

Petersen said the laws requiring gamblers to register, buy a $50 gambling stamp and pay a 10 per cent excise tax on wagers led to identification of gamblers and thus helped local law enforcement. Police departments could easily find out who intends to gamble in areas where it is illegal.

"Generally, many government-organized crime cases have been predicated on the failure to pay the tax," added Petersen. In many instances the existence of the wagering tax law—and failure of some gamblers to pay the tax—has enabled the government to break up sizable gambling operations.

CASE COULD BE DROPPED

Among key government prosecutions that could be dropped as a result of the ruling is one against Ruggiero Boiardo Sr., a well-kinown New Jersey figure, who has been charged with failure to purchase the stamp, register as a gambler and pay the excise tax.

U.S. Attorney David M. Satz Jr. of Newark, N.J., said the court decision "could have an effect on it—and it very well might."

★ ★ ★

Satz said his first impression of the Supreme Court decision was that it "would seem to knock out the entire regulatory pattern in regard to gambling."

Boiardio was indicted last spring. He is to come up for trial this spring.

941 CASES

An Internal Revenue Service official said that of 2,015 tax fraud cases the government brought last year, 941 were attributable directly to the gambling tax or registration requirement. There were 665 such indictments, and 408 persons pleaded guilty or no contest.

The government issued 5,917 gambling stamps and collected $572,000 for them. It also collected more than $5.6 million in gambling excise taxes.

★ ★ ★

An official of the Treasury Department's Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Unit, which administers firearms registration, said the purpose of the weapons law is "to maintain some control on gangster-type weapons."

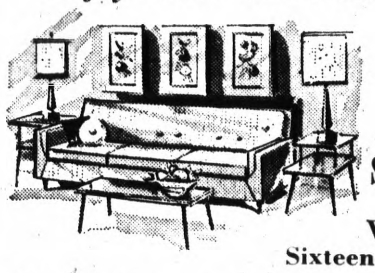

The law, enacted in 1934 against the backdrop of gang warfare of the 1920s and early 1930s, called for registration of weapons that gangsters commonly use.

FEWER CASES

"It will mean there are going to be fewer cases susceptible to successful prosecution," the official said. Before the ruling it was relatively simple to convict an individual simply of possessing an unregistered sawed-off shotgun. Now, a conviction will be obtained only if it can be proven that taxes have not been paid either before the weapon was made or when it was transferred.

He explained that convictions simply for possession of an unregistered weapon frequently were obtained when local police arrested habitual criminals on minor charges. The additional federal charge—which carries a maximum penalty of five years in jail and a $2,000 fine—also was often pressed.

Local Diver Looking Toward Olympics

Micki's Future Speckled With Gold, Silver and Bronze

BY JERE CRAIG

Maxine J. (Micki) King's future appears rosy. It is also blue, tinged with maize and very likely speckled with gold, silver and bronze.

The blue is United States Air Force basic issue since she is Second Lieutenant Micki King in the second year of a four-year tour of duty.

The duty presently is a rather "artificial situation" in the words of the shapely 23-year-old administrative officer who spends approximately five of her eight working hours in the swimming pool at the University of Michigan.

Hence the tinge of maize in the future of the blonde 1966 University of Michigan graduate.

The gold, silver and bronze understandably represent the medals she will be competing for not only at this April's National Amateur Athletic Union Women's Indoor Diving championships at the University of Pittsburgh, but hopefully at the 1968 summer Olympic Games in Mexico City.

Micki King currently is the top-ranked woman diver in the U.S.

FIRST PLACE VOTES

In the Associated Press' 1967 Woman Athlete of the Year balloting she finished eighth, earning four first-place votes. There were no other divers in the voting.

★ ★ ★

She was the only diver nominated in the AAU's prestigious balloting for the coveted Sullivan Award — emblematic of the outstanding male or female amateur athlete of the year. It has only been won by two women.

A 5-7, 130-pounder, the strong-willed charmer drew support by claiming championship gold medals on the one- and three-meter springboards at the Philadelphia national AAU Outdoor championships, on the Canadian National springboards and on the three-meter board in the Tokyo World Student Games.

In addition, Lt. King placed second in the women's diving at the Pan-American Games in Winnipeg.

Success has come slowly and not always steadily for the still quite-eligible Micki who admits to being too in love with the diving board to take the marital plunge yet.

She began diving at age 10 in the Pontiac YMCA pool. By 15 she was winning AAU age group events regularly. While a 16-year-old junior at Pontiac Central High School, she bid unsuccessfully for a berth in the Olympic Trials diving finals at Detroit in 1960.

But that gave her the encouragement she needed to make a concerted effort to improve herself. During her senior year at Central — despite being editor-in-chief of the school newspaper and an ardent follower and participant in most sports — she concentrated on her diving form.

"I could see what I wanted," she reveals. "Diving has kept me interested in competing beyond high school."

Life very definitely has been interesting for Micki — and her parents, the Leonard Kings, and younger sister Lorraine, who live at 19 Norton.

She suffered a jolt to her Olympic ambitions in 1964 at New York City when she tumbled from second to sixth place in the final three dives at the U.S. team trials and failed to make the squad.

★ ★ ★

But Micki's determination paid off the following year.

DRIVE FOR FUNDS

Her coach in high school, Ed Dauw, spearheaded a fund drive among Pontiac fans and friends of hers, and they provided the expense money to send her to California for the AAU Women's platform (10-meter tower) championships where she claimed her first national title.

Later that year at Toledo she captured her first national three-meter crown. She toured Europe with a U.S. team and took the Spanish national women's title at Madrid.

Although 1966 wasn't nearly as successful on the diving board, Micki did accomplish two things that were equally important: she gradauted from the U. of M. with a degree in physical education and received her commission in the Air Force.

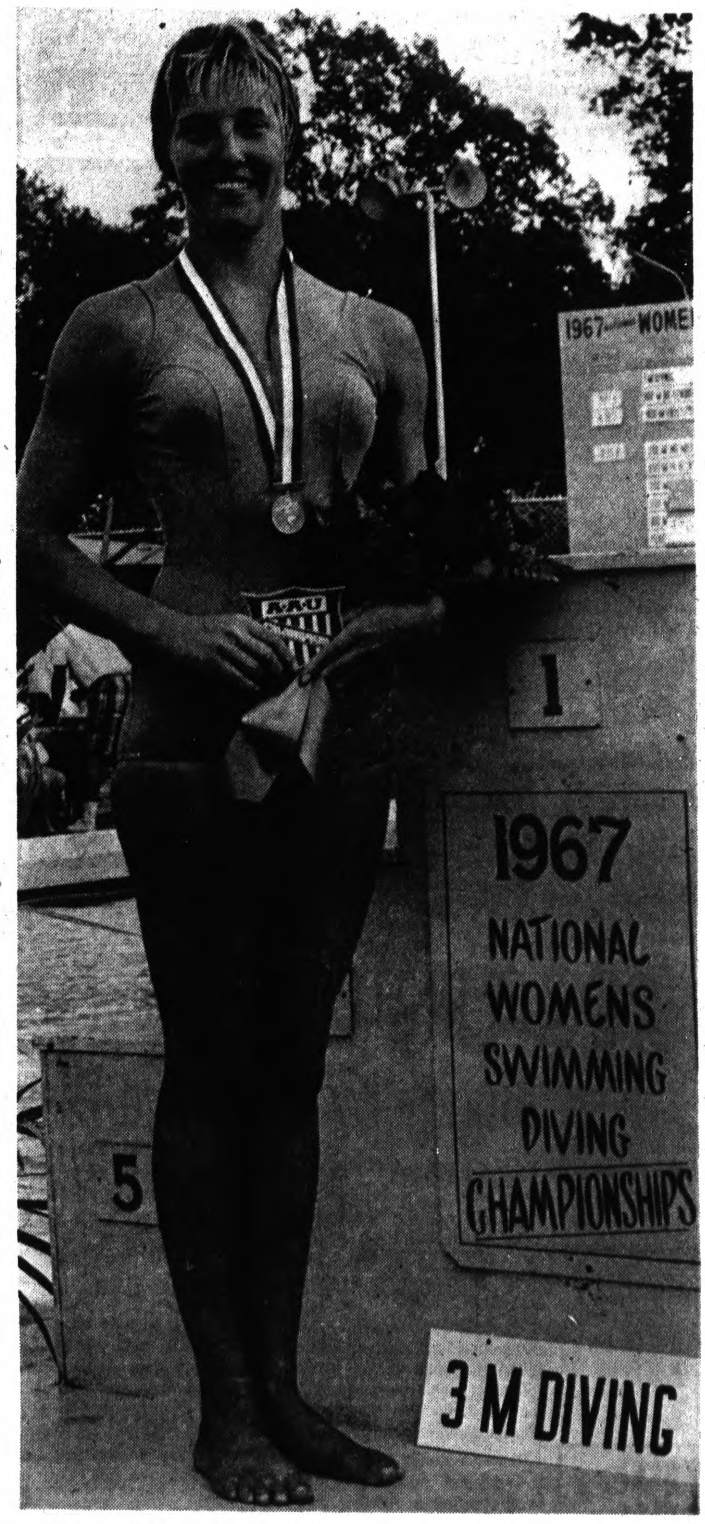

While the degree will prove valuable eventually when she retires from competition and expects to pursue a career in coaching and teaching, the USAF arrangement has been invaluable.

★ ★ ★

"I can still work, have a career; yet I'm able to continue my diving ambitions at the same time," she explains.

While serving under Lt. Richard Kimball as the administrative officer in the Reserve Officers Training Corps office on the U. of M. campus, she also trains ("the Air Force is encouraging my

KING OF THE DIVERS — Pontiac Central graduate Micki King, now living in Ann Arbor while on active duty in the U.S. Air Force, hopes to repeat her trip to the winners' stand at Amateur Athletic Union Women's Indoor Diving Championships this April at Pittsburgh and then carry her gold medal quest to Mexico City as a member of the U.S. Olympic team.

Physician Says Pulled Muscles Need Exercise

TORONTO (AP) — The team doctor for the Toronto Maple Leafs hockey team has some advice for professional coaches — send that player with pulled muscles back into action as soon as he can stand the pain.

★ ★ ★

Dr. N. Tait McPhedran said that if a player is kept out of a game for the usual convalescent period of four weeks, fibres in a pulled muscle shorten. The first time he plays again, the muscle injury recurs.

If the player keeps moving as soon after the injury as he can stand the pain, "he'll be back playing in a week to 10 days."

Dr. McPhedran was one of a dozen Toronto surgeons who spoke to the trauma committee of the American College of Surgeons.

Children, he said, should wear mouth guards for contact sports.

Quarterback Drafted by Lions

THE PONTIAC PRESS
SPORTS
TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1968 C—1

Massachusetts' Landry Picked; Beban Bypassed

Quarterback Greg Landry of Massachusetts University was the No. 1 draft choice today of the Detroit Lions who had the 11th selection in the NFL-AFL common draft of players.

★ ★ ★

Landry was the first quarterback named by any team, a surprising choice in as much as Heisman trophy winner Gary Beban from UCLA, Ken Stabler at Alabama and Dewey Warren at Tennessee were not among the early choices.

★ ★ ★

The trend in today's selections was toward linemen as indicated by the first seven choices. The first back to be chosen was Larry Csonko of Syracuse, selected by the Miami Dolphins who had the eighth pick.

First player to go in the regular draft was Bob Johnson, All-America center from Tennessee, who was the first draftee ever picked by the new Cincinnati Bengals of the AFL.

Johnson, 6-4 and 231, led Tennessee to a 9-1 season and the No. 2 ranking in the nation.

★ ★ ★

The Minnesota Vikings, who had the bonus pick as the result of the Fran Tarkenton trade to the New York Giants, selected Ron Yary, a 6-6 and 245 pound offensive tackle from Southern Cal. He was the winner of the Outland Trophy as the nation's outstanding interior lineman for the National champion Trojans.

OTHER CHOICE

Following in order of picks were 6-5 and 248-pound tackle Claude Humphrey from Tennessee A&L, by the Atlanta Falcons; Russ Washington, 6-6 and 275-pound tackle from Missouri, by San Diego obtained as Denver's choice for the trade of quarterback Steve Tensi.

The Green Bay Packers, getting New Orleans' choice as compensation for Jim Taylor, took linebacker Fred Carr, 6-5 and 230 pounds from Texas El Paso; Boston Patriots followed with tackle Dennis Byrd, 6-4 and 260 of North Carolina State; New Orleans then took 270-pound Kevin Hardy of Notre Dame.

The Saints got this choice from Minnesota for the deal yesterday sending quarterback Gary Cuozzo to the Vikings.

★ ★ ★

After Csonko to Miami, Buffalo took Haven Moses, a 6-3 end from San Diego State, and Pittsburgh grabbed 250-pound tackle Mike Taylor from Southern Cal.

SOUGHT LINEMEN

Before making the choice of Landry, the Lions were apparently going after a pair of linemen, presumably Yari and linebacker Carr.

Last year, Landry, a 6-3 and 190-pounder, had a offense of 1,819 yards, passing for six touchdowns and running for eight more.

In the North-South game, he passed for two touchdowns to lead the North to a 24-0 victory Christmas Day. He was honored as the outstanding football player among New England colleges.

★ ★ ★

Following the Lions choice of Landry, the Redskins selected defensive back Jim Smith from Oregon; the Cardinals took running back MacArthur Lane of Utah State; the Eagles picked a third Southern Cal player Tim Rossovich as defensive end; the 49ers chose center Forrest Blue, 245-pounder from Auburn.

★ ★ ★

Southern California struck for the fourth time when fullback Mike Hull was taken by the Chicago Bears of the NFL. Hull was hampered by injuries but helped sensational junior O. J. Simpson carry the USC running attack. He is 6-4, 220.

Adolph Rupp Gains Winningest Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Elvin Hayes, Pete Maravich and four of the nation's Top Ten college basketball teams sparkled on the court Monday night, but the biggest star was Kentucky Coach Adolph Rupp, the best benchwarmer in the business.

"This means a lot to me," the Baron said after his 10th ranked Wildcats diverted Mississippi 85-76 for his 772nd career coaching victory, more than any other college coach in history. "I really feel great."

"I was a little tense when the game started, but then it was just like all the rest," said the 68-year-old Rupp, who from his seat on the sidelines has masterminded Kentucky's nationally prominent fortunes for the past 30 years.

The triumph at Oxford also kept Kentucky in the thick of the glowing Southeast Conference race with a 6-3 record and 12-4 over-all. Three of its competitors, two in the Top Ten, also won.

Tennessee, 7-1 and 13-2 and ranked sixth, overcame Mississippi State 65-57 at Starkville; Vanderbilt, 6-3 and 14-3 and ranked seventh, turned away Louisiana State 99-91 at Baton Rouge despite 54 points by Maravich, and Florida, 9-3 and 12-6, held off Auburn 65-60 at Gainesville.

SEASON HIGH

Top-rated Houston, the only other ranked team in action, easily handled visiting Fairfield, Conn., 108-76, as Hayes hit a season high 48 points.

In two other games involving top conference races, Kansas State dropped into a tie for first in the Big Eight with Iowa State by losing at Oklahoma 73-62 and Missouri Valley Conference leading Drake 5-1 and 14-2 trimmed visiting Tulsa 63-58 in overtime.

Kentucky had its trouble against Ole Miss and needed six free throws in the last minute to protect a 75-74 lead. Mike Casey led the Wildcats with 24 points and Ken Turner had 26 for the Rebels.

Rupp, grinning broadly, was given a standing ovation by the Mississippi crowd and Rebel Coach Eddie Crawford presented him with the game ball.

The victory put Rupp one up on retired Kansas Coach Phog Allen, for whom Rupp played in college.

★ ★ ★

Tennessee, trailing 26-23 at the half, scored the first four points after the break and was never headed as Tom Boerwinkle and Tom Hendrix split 34 points.

Vanderbilt used a trio of Bo Wyenandt, 25 points, Tom Hagan, 24, and Kenny Campbell, 21, to overcome the one-man show by Maravich, the nation's major college scoring leader who was in bed under medication all day fololwing a 104-degree fever Sunday.

The loss dropped LSU, 5-3 and 10-5, from third to sixth in the SEC.

New AL Franchises to Stock Teams in Slated October Draft

NEW YORK (AP) — Each of the American League's existing 10 teams will lose six players in the expansion draft to stock the new Kansas City and Seattle baseball franchises which begin play in 1969.

According to the expansion plan released Monday by Joe Cronin, president of the American League, each team will protect 15 players on a 40-man roster.

Kansas City and Seattle will pick a total of 30 players with the old teams protecting three more players each time they lose one.

That means the established teams will lose their No. 16, No. 20, No. 24, No. 28, No. 32 and No. 36 players.

The teams must submit their player lists to Cronin no later than 48 hours after the conclusion of the 1968 World Series. The draft will be held October 15, presumably in Boston, headquarters of the American League.

Mark Howe on Target

PORT HURON (AP) — Mark Howe scored three goals and picked up an assist when Detroit blanked London, Ont., 7-0 Monday in opening play of the sixth annual North American Silver Sticks Hockey Championships.

The week-long competition includes 63 teams from Canada and the United States. Mark is the son of Gordie Howe, great right winger with the Detroit Red Wings of the National Hockey League.

Lombardi to Hold Rare News Confab Amid Speculation

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Vince Lombardi, Green Bay Packer coach and general manager, the most consistently successful coach in National Football League history, has called a rare postseason news conference—feeding speculation he may step down as coach.

Lombardi, whose nine-year reign in Packerland was climaxed recently by an unprecedented third straight NFL title and a second Super Bowl victory, invited the press and the Packer board of directors to a Thursday night dinner.

The Brooklyn-born football genius has been saying for years that the work of coach and general manager is too much. And, it was considered unlikely he would call the postseason session merely to announce his position in Green Bay would go unchanged.

The most persistent rumor has been that Lombardi will not coach the pro football champions in 1968. Speculation has it that he plans to turn over the coaching duties to long-time assistant Phil Bengtson, the defensive coach, and stay on as general manager.

Hickok Belt to Bosox Ace

'Yaz' Throws Robinson Curve

BY MILTON RICHMAN

NEW YORK (UPI)—Carl Yastrzemski, proud new owner of that gold, diamond-studded $10,000 belt, doesn't want to fight with anyone, but . . .

Frank Robinson started first.

"This is positively the last thing I'm gonna say on the subject," insists Yaz, "but I've got one question I'd like to ask Frank Robinson: when I was hitting .316 the last two days of the season and he was hitting .313, what was he doing sitting on the bench?"

In case Robinson doesn't recognize that, it was a curve. Low and away.

Yaz served it up Monday after receiving the S. Rae Hickok belt which is awarded annually in Rochester to the Professional Athlete of the Year. Robinson won the same belt a year ago after he picked up the Triple Crown for Baltimore and Yastrzemski took over all three titles with Boston the past season.

FEUD STARTS

The fuss between the two Triple Crown winners was kicked up by Robinson in statements he made about the Boston left fielder to a Baltimore newspaper.

Yastrzemski read Robinson's statements on a plane trip between Minneapolis and Washington.

"He said I wasn't that good," says Yaz. "He also said the Red Sox were lucky and we'd finish sixth or seventh this year. I have no idea why he said what he did. But it really doesn't matter. I've never spoken with the man before and I don't intend to say anything to him when I see him.

"I'm not gonna get into any controversy with Frank Robinson. I've got more important things to do. Whether I hit .260 or .270 next season doesn't matter so much to me, as long as we win again."

★ ★ ★

There is evidence that Robinson's remarks do matter to Yastrzemski.

As recently as Sunday night here in New York when he got up at the Baseball Writers' dinner to accept two other awards, Yaz thanked everyone, including "Frank Robinson, vice president of my fan club."

AP Wirephoto

NEW VIKING — Quarterback Gary Cuozzo was obtained by the Minnesota Vikings yesterday from the New Orleans Saints. The Vikings gave up their first round choice in today's pro grid draft and again next year.

Carl added, laughingly, that White Sox manager Eddie Stanky is the president of the club. That was an obvious reference to Stanky's statement last summer when he called Yastrzemski "an All-Star from the neck down."

There is no animosity between these two, however.

GOOD FRIENDS

"We're good friends," says Yaz. "We put a lotta people in the ballparks and Eddie is like me. He loves the game and wants to win all the time. I like him. He met my father and mother one day last summer and talked Polish with them. Eddie Stanky is all right."

★ ★ ★

The White Sox manager causes Yaz to laugh at himself; Robinson doesn't.

Yastrzemski thinks he's "an outstanding ballplayer" but he's not particularly crazy about his opinions.

On the other hand, Frank Lane, Baltimore's super scout, sees nothing so wrong in what Robinson said.

"It's controversial, isn't it? That's great," declares Lane. "This is what baseball needs. More controversy. I think it's wonderful."

Starr to Try Acting

NEW YORK (AP) — Bart Starr, quarterback of the world champion Green Bay Packers, will make his acting debut in a cameo role on Gentle Ben, a Sunday night children's television show.

The program in which Starr appears will be filmed in April for showing during the 1968-69 television season.

Officials Silent Over Boycott

Event in New York Faces Troubles

NEW YORK (AP) — The movement by Negroes to boycott the New York Athletic Club indoor track meet Feb. 16 appears to be gathering momentum but meet officials are continuing their official silence on the subject.

The meet, the first scheduled for the new Madison Square Garden, is the target of several Negro groups and individuals who allege that while the NYAC meet is open to all competitors, the club itself is not.

Several Negro colleges and clubs that usually send strong contingents are bypassing the meet and coaches of several New York area teams have said that though they will enter teams they will not force individuals who support the boycott to compete.

Ray Lumpp, director of the meet, denied Monday that the meet would not stage high-school relays, usually a staple item, because of the boycott.

Lumpp would not say if any entries had been withdrawn after the boycott movement started, nor would he comment on the boycott itself.

Ice Glare Draws Complaints

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — Peggy Fleming, America's two-time world champion, and other figure skaters complained Monday about the color of the ice at the Stade de Glace, or ice stadium, where the Olympic Gold medals will be decided, starting Feb. 7.

"The white base gives it an awful glare," the 19-year-old Miss Fleming, from Colorado Springs, Colo., said. "It's like skating on a mirror. I can't see my tracings. I doubt that the judges can, either."

★ ★ ★

"We are greatly disturbed," added Carlo Fassi, Peggy's coach. "Peggy's big advantage lies in her superiority in tracing the school figures. I'm afraid this condition will cost her 20 per cent of her edge."

"I suppose it's the same for everybody, but it penalizes the good skaters," said Miss Fleming's widowed mother, Mrs. Doris Fleming. "We don't like it, but we'll just have to grin and bear it."

Other figure skaters, including Peggy's U.S. teammates and members of the Japanese and South Korean teams, also found the ice not to their liking, but the greatest concern appeared to come from Miss Fleming and her supporters.

BIG GOAL

It's Peggy's ambition to win the gold medal here — for which she is favored — and then retire from competition in order to complete her schooling.

"Our lives are wrapped up in this one event — it's the thing we have worked and prayed for so many years," said Mrs. Fleming.

Michel Berthier, responsible for the ice, acknowledged that a white base was applied against his judgment on order of the organizers.

"I think the purpose was so the ice would show up better on television," he said. "They wanted the red and blue lines to show up well for the hockey matches. We hope we can help the situation by placing lights on the side instead of using overhead."

The figure skaters must share the modernistic new arena with the ice hockey tournament.

Tim Wood, the U.S. men's champion from Bloomfield Hills, agreed with Miss Fleming that the white ice made compulsory figures difficult.

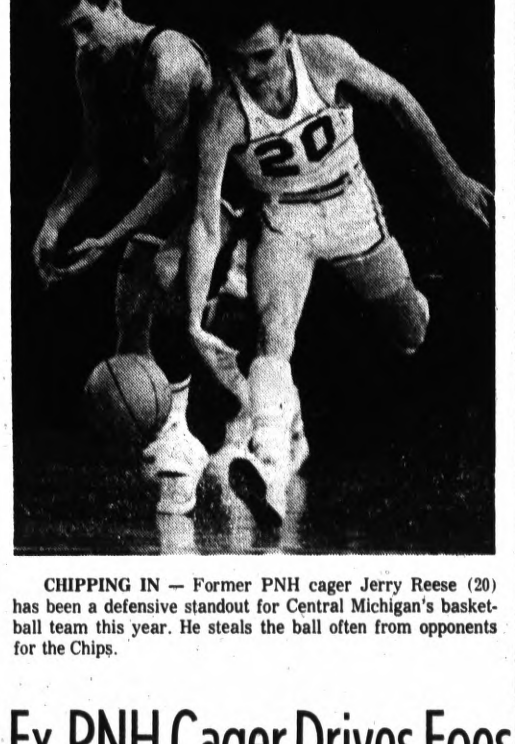

"You can see your own shadow in the ice," he said. "It's like looking in a mirror."

ALSO PROTEST

Similar complaints came from Gary Visconti of Detroit, John Petkevich of Great Falls, Mont., Tina Noyes of Boston and 14-year-old Janet Lynn of Rockford, Ill., other singles competitors on the U.S. team.

Tsukasa Kimura, manager of the Japanese team, said the white ice bothered his competitors. The South Koreans also reported having difficulty.

The South Koreans and the Americans shared the ice in morning and afternoon workouts. The Americans were scheduled to alternate with the North Korean Team, but the latter hasn't shown up.

CHIPPING IN — Former PNH cager Jerry Reese (20) has been a defensive standout for Central Michigan's basketball team this year. He steals the ball often from opponents for the Chips.

Ex-PNH Cager Drives Foes Buggy by Defensive Play

MT. PLEASANT — As a biology major, Central Michigan University's Jerry Reese knows a lot about bugs. As a guard on CMU's basketball team, Reese knows how to drive the opposition "buggy."

"Defense" is the name of the game for Coach Ted Kjolhede's squad, and one of the leading defenders on the squad is Reese, a former standout at Pontiac Northern High School.

Reese, a senior this year and a two year letterwinner, has been splitting a starting guard spot with former Mt. Pleasant Sacred Heart all-stater Bill Collins, with the other guard position being held by second team little all-American Willie Kjolhede contributes much of the squad's success in recent weeks (the Chips have won five straight games and are unbeaten in 1968) to the play of his three senior guards who have combined scoring average of almost 30 points per game.

GETS HIGH PRAISE

Reese and Collins play about half a game each on a squad which considers a strong bench an important asset. Of the 15 men on the team, 10 have played in all the Chips 15 games.

★ ★ ★

Kjolhede is high in his praise for Reese and said, "Jerry has been a real dependable senior for us and has given excellent leadership. But his real value is in pressure defense.

"He is one of the soundest defensive players we have on the squad."

Reese also has a good outside jump shot and twice has been high point man for the Chips this winter. Despite playing with a pulled hamstring muscle since the Wayne State Tournament in last December, he is making over 40 per cent of his field goal attempts.

★ ★ ★

Hawks' Beaty Chases Piston in Point Race

NEW YORK (AP) — Zelmo Beaty of the St. Louis Hawks is the latest runnerup to Dave Bing in the red-hot battle for second place in the National Basketball Association scoring race.

Bing of Detroit, despite a poor week of only 31 points in two games, still holds a 157-point lead over Beaty with 1,394 points for a 27.3 point a game average.

★ ★ ★

Beaty became the third man in as many weeks to take the second spot with 1,237 points and a 22.5 average. Still, he holds only a 16-point lead over fifth-place Walt Hazzard of Seattle.

One Close Tilt in Heavy Slate of Rec Action

Booth Is 67-60 Loser to One Spot; Perry Quintet Winner

Club 1 Spot outdueled Booth Homes, 67-60, Monday night in the only close game on the six-tilt city men's recreation basketball schedule.

Three teams used strong middle-period outbursts to overcome early deficits and coast to wins. Two others built big leads in the opening quarter and held off the opposition.

In addition to the Club 1-Booth contest, Perry Drugs overtook P.O.O.B.Y. for a 74-64 American League victory.

The Questionables dumped Petrolanes, 72-56, and Sam Allen & Sons trimmed Local 594, 71-39, in the National loop. International play saw the Pontiac Police whip Local 653, 68-50; and Local 596 thump Town & Country, 90-74.

FIGHTS BACK

Booth cut into an early Club 1 Spot lead to trail only 47-46 after three quarters, but the clubmen hit eight free throws in the last period to pad their margin. Chuck Phillips of the losers led all the scorers with 34 points.

P.O.O.B.Y. led Perry Drugs, 17-10, after one session, but the store team tallied 45 points to 25 for its opponents in the next two quarters.

Petrolanes also led the Questionables, 17-11, after the opening eight minutes; but a 39-19 advantage in the second and third sessions put the latter in complete charge.

Sam Allen jumped into a 24-9 lead and the Police led 22-11 after one period as they had easy wins. Willie Craft's 20 paced the policemen.

A 31-point spree by Willie Peck included 19 as Local 596 outscored Town & Country, 48-25, in the middle periods and overcame a 21-20 first-quarter disadvantage. Ed DeRoeck posted 25 for the losers.

Hialeah Shows Profit

Officials Silent Over Boycott

Event in New York Faces Troubles

NEW YORK (AP) — The movement by Negroes to boycott the New York Athletic Club indoor track meet Feb. 16 appears to be gathering momentum but meet officials are continuing their official silence on the subject.

The meet, the first scheduled for the new Madison Square Garden, is the target of several Negro groups and individuals who allege that while the NYAC meet is open to all competitors, the club itself is not.

Several Negro colleges and clubs that usually send strong contingents are bypassing the meet and coaches of several New York area teams have said that though they will enter teams they will not force individuals who support the boycott to compete.

Ray Lumpp, director of the meet, denied Monday that the meet would not stage high-school relays, usually a staple item, because of the boycott.

Lumpp would not say if any entries had been withdrawn after the boycott movement started, nor would he comment on the boycott itself.

Ice Glare Draws Complaints

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — Peggy Fleming, America's two-time world champion, and other figure skaters complained Monday about the color of the ice at the Stade de Glace, or ice stadium, where the Olympic Gold medals will be decided, starting Feb. 7.

"The white base gives it an awful glare," the 19-year-old Miss Fleming, from Colorado Springs, Colo., said. "It's like skating on a mirror. I can't see my tracings. I doubt that the judges can, either."

★ ★ ★

"We are greatly disturbed," added Carlo Fassi, Peggy's coach. "Peggy's big advantage lies in her superiority in tracing the school figures. I'm afraid this condition will cost her 20 per cent of her edge."

"I suppose it's the same for everybody, but it penalizes the good skaters," said Miss Fleming's widowed mother, Mrs. Doris Fleming. "We don't like it, but we'll just have to grin and bear it."

Other figure skaters, including Peggy's U.S. teammates and members of the Japanese and South Korean teams, also found the ice not to their liking, but the greatest concern appeared to come from Miss Fleming and her supporters.

BIG GOAL

It's Peggy's ambition to win the gold medal here — for which she is favored — and then retire from competition in order to complete her schooling.

"Our lives are wrapped up in this one event — it's the thing we have worked and prayed for so many years," said Mrs. Fleming.

Michel Berthier, responsible for the ice, acknowledged that a white base was applied against his judgment on order of the organizers.

"I think the purpose was so the ice would show up better on television," he said. "They wanted the red and blue lines to show up well for the hockey matches. We hope we can help the situation by placing lights on the side instead of using overhead."

The figure skaters must share the modernistic new arena with the ice hockey tournament.

Tim Wood, the U.S. men's champion from Bloomfield Hills, agreed with Miss Fleming that the white ice made compulsory figures difficult.

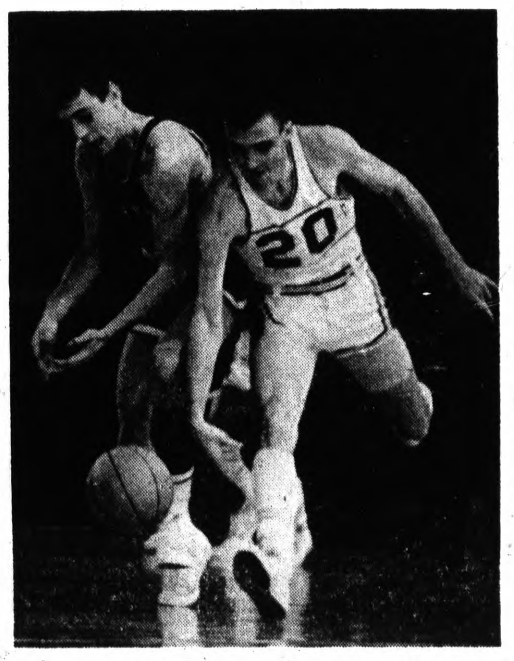

"You can see your own shadow in the ice," he said. "It's like looking in a mirror."

ALSO PROTEST

Similar complaints came from Gary Visconti of Detroit, John Petkevich of Great Falls, Mont., Tina Noyes of Boston and 14-year-old Janet Lynn of Rockford, Ill., other singles competitors on the U.S. team.

Tsukasa Kimura, manager of the Japanese team, said the white ice bothered his competitors. The South Koreans also reported having difficulty.

The South Koreans and the Americans shared the ice in morning and afternoon workouts. The Americans were scheduled to alternate with the North Korean Team, but the latter hasn't shown up.

CHIPPING IN — Former PNH cager Jerry Reese (20) has been a defensive standout for Central Michigan's basketball team this year. He steals the ball often from opponents for the Chips.

Ex-PNH Cager Drives Foes Buggy by Defensive Play

MT. PLEASANT — As a biology major, Central Michigan University's Jerry Reese knows a lot about bugs. As a guard on CMU's basketball team, Reese knows how to drive the opposition "buggy."

"Defense" is the name of the game for Coach Ted Kjolhede's squad, and one of the leading defenders on the squad is Reese, a former standout at Pontiac Northern High School.

Reese, a senior this year and a two year letterwinner, has been splitting a starting guard spot with former Mt. Pleasant Sacred Heart all-stater Bill Collins, with the other guard position being held by second team little all-American Willie

Kjolhede contributes much of the squad's success in recent weeks (the Chips have won five straight games and are unbeaten in 1968) to the play of his three senior guards who have combined scoring average of almost 30 points per game.

GETS HIGH PRAISE

Reese and Collins play about half a game each on a squad which considers a strong bench an important asset. Of the 15 men on the team, 10 have played in all the Chips 15 games.

★ ★ ★

Kjolhede is high in his praise for Reese and said, "Jerry has been a real dependable senior for us and has given excellent leadership. But his real value is in pressure defense.

"He is one of the soundest defensive players we have on the squad."

Reese also has a good outside jump shot and twice has been high point man for the Chips this winter. Despite playing with a pulled hamstring muscle since the Wayne State Tournament in last December, he is making over 40 per cent of his field goal attempts.

★ ★ ★

Hawks' Beaty Chases Piston in Point Race

NEW YORK (AP) — Zelmo Beaty of the St. Louis Hawks is the latest runnerup to Dave Bing in the red-hot battle for second place in the National Basketball Association scoring race.

Bing of Detroit, despite a poor week of only 31 points in two games, still holds a 157-point lead over Beaty with 1,394 points for a 27.3 point a game average.

★ ★ ★

Beaty became the third man in as many weeks to take the second spot with 1,237 points and a 22.5 average. Still, he holds only a 16-point lead over fifth-place Walt Hazzard of Seattle.

One Close Tilt in Heavy Slate of Rec Action

Booth Is 67-60 Loser to One Spot; Perry Quintet Winner

Club 1 Spot outdueled Booth Homes, 67-60, Monday night in the only close game on the six-tilt city men's recreation basketball schedule.

Three teams used strong middle-period outbursts to overcome early deficits and coast to wins. Two others built big leads in the opening quarter and held off the opposition.

In addition to the Club 1-Booth contest, Perry Drugs overtook P.O.O.B.Y. for a 74-64 American League victory.

The Questionables dumped Petrolanes, 72-56, and Sam Allen & Sons trimmed Local 594, 71-39, in the National loop. International play saw the Pontiac Police whip Local 653, 68-50; and Local 596 thump Town & Country, 90-74.

FIGHTS BACK

Booth cut into an early Club 1 Spot lead to trail only 47-46 after three quarters, but the clubmen hit eight free throws in the last period to pad their margin. Chuck Phillips of the losers led all the scorers with 34 points.

P.O.O.B.Y. led Perry Drugs, 17-10, after one session, but the store team tallied 45 points to 25 for its opponents in the next two quarters.

Petrolanes also led the Questionables, 17-11, after the opening eight minutes; but a 39-19 advantage in the second and third sessions put the latter in complete charge.

Sam Allen jumped into a 24-9 lead and the Police led 22-11 after one period as they had easy wins. Willie Craft's 20 paced the policemen.

A 31-point spree by Willie Peck included 19 as Local 596 outscored Town & Country, 48-25, in the middle periods and overcame a 21-20 first-quarter disadvantage. Ed DeRoeck posted 25 for the losers.

Prep Front

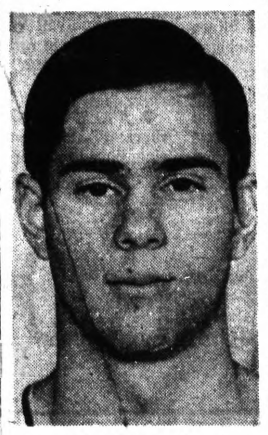

By FLETCHER SPEARS

Occasionally, there comes along a little guy who stands tall among big men.

Most of the time it's the big guy who commands the bulk of publicity in the world of athletics.

But there is room for the little fellow, like Mile Wilson of Farmington, for instance.

Wilson is 5-feet-11, which doesn't put him in the shorty class, but it's short in the field where young Wilson is excelling.

MIKE WILSON
Sets Albion Cage Mark

He's a basketball player, a product of Farmington High School, who is now a sophomore at Albion.

EXCELLENT SEASON

So much has happened for him on the basketball court this season that the next two years may be of the ho-hum variety.

Just before the semester break earlier this month, Wilson turned in record-breaking back-to-back performances.

His feat was getting rid of a single-game scoring record of 38 points set back in 1953 by Ced Dempsey.

Against Calvin College, Wilson cracked the mark with 42 points. Three days later he poured in 46 against Olivet to up the record.

★ ★ ★

"Outstanding, almost unbelievable, especially in this age of giants," said coach Dean Dooley.

In those two contests, Wilson connected on 33 of 59 field goal attempts — 56 per cent — and 22 of 31 free throws — 71 per cent.

TIPTON AILING

Bill Tipton, a graduate of Pontiac Central and now a freshman at Eastern Michigan University, has been hampered by a pulled leg muscle in preparing for the 1968 track season.

★ ★ ★

A knee injury has apparently taken guard Bob Finkle from the lineup at Waterford Township. Finkle, a 6-foot junior, injured the knee against Pontiac Northern Jan. 12 and reinjured it against Walled Lake Friday.

And a further complication for coach Bob Taylor and the Skippers was an ankle sprain suffered by forward Bob Pullins.

The Pontiac Press Invitational Golf Tournament is slated for Friday, May 24, at Pontiac Country Club.

Pros Seeking Top Women Tennis Aces

MELBOURNE, Australia (UPI) — Mrs. Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., and Australian Mrs. Margaret Smith Court are pondering offers to join the professional tennis tour directed by American George McCall.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. King won the Australian national women's title at Melbourne Monday when she defeated Mrs. Court 6-1, 6-2 in the final.

McCall said today he had made professional offers to the two women, considered the top distaff players in the world.

McCall said Mrs. King indicated she would give him her decision after returning to her California home next Sunday and discussing it with her husband and manager, Larry.

★ ★ ★

He said Mrs. Smith also wanted to give the proposition careful consideration before making a decision.

Houston Still Holding No. 1

By the Associated Press

Houston remains on top of college basketball's Top Ten today, but there's a slight change at the bottom.

In the latest Associated Press poll, Duke climbed out from the unranked into the No. 9 spot as Kentucky slipped to 10th and Utah tumbled out altogether.

★ ★ ★

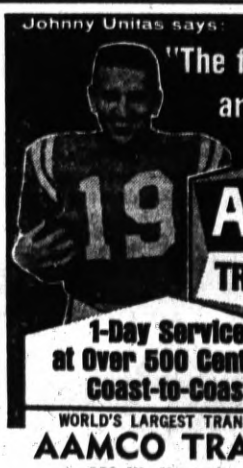

Houston, unbeaten in 18 games, drew 28 first-place votes and 325 points while UCLA, which has lost only to Houston in 16 starts, compiled 302 points, including five votes for first.

The rankings from three through eight remained the same as last week with the order going North Carolina, New Mexico, St. Bonaventure, Tennessee, Vanderbilt and Columbia.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, season records through games of Sat., Jan. 28, and total points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1. Houston (28)	18-0	325
2. UCLA (5)	15-1	302
3. North Carolina	12-1	253
4. New Mexico	16-0	220
5. St. Bonaventure	15-0	179
6. Tennessee	12-2	145
7. Vanderbilt	13-3	113
8. Columbia	11-3	74
9. Duke	10-2	58
10. Kentucky	11-4	31

Others receiving votes, listed alphabetically: Army, Boston College, Bowling Green, Cincinnati, Davidson, Drake, Florida, Kansas, Kansas State, Marquette, New Mexico State, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Princeton, St. Joseph's, Pa., Temple, Toledo, Tulsa, Utah, Villanova, Washington State, Wyoming.

OU Cagers Ranked in Small College Stats

Oakland University's basketball team may be near the bottom record-wise, but the Pioneers are making some noise in the national small college ranks.

OU ranks 12th in this week's NCAA small college team free throw statistics and center Tom Allan is 18th in rebounders.

The statistics don't include last week's contest with Grand Valley in which the Pioneers hit 80 per cent and Allan grabbed a school record 27 rebounds.

"Counting the Grand Valley game, we should be in the top 10 in free throws and Allan should be a couple of notches higher," said OU coach Dick Robinson as he prepared the Pioneers for tomorrow night's home game with Alma. Tipoff will be at 8 o'clock.

Officially, the Pioneers are averaging 75 per cent of their [illegible]osses and the 6-7 Allan is average 18.9 rebounds.

Robinson will make two lineup changes for the Alma rematch.

STARTING GUARD

Freshman Glenn Beier will start at guard and Ozzie Carlson will open at forward. Carlson, however, will only play two or three minutes at a time. He is hampered by the effects of a long illness.

"When Ozzie is in there, we seem to go," said Robinson. "Then, when he comes out, we slack off."

Beier is getting a start because of improved scoring in recent games. He scored 23 against Grand Valley while playing slightly over half the game.

Robinson credited Beier with stabilizing the floor play that had turned over the ball 17 times in the first half without a shot. OU had only five turnovers in the second half.

★ ★ ★

Other starters will be Gordy Tebo at guard. Jon Blocher at forward and Allan.

Alma inflicted one of Oakland's 10 losses two weeks ago and is favored to make it two straight over the Pioneers who have won two.

Leader Upset in Township Hoop Action

The National League basketball race of the Waterford Township men's recreation basketball program tightened Monday night due to a resounding upset.

Lighthouse Lanes grabbed sole possession of third place with a thorough 69-47 victory over previously unbeaten O'Neil Realty as Stan Whitcomb hit 19 points and Mike Landsdorf 17.

A 29-18 field goal advantage made the difference. John Parks' 18 led O'Neil.

Runner-up Drayton Drugs moved within a game of the realtors by trimming Irwin Realty, 74-49. Four men were in double figures, topped by Mike Miley (19) and Art Stoddard (16).

The LLB's also used superior shooting from the field for a 55-44 win over the winless Huntoon Cougars. The lawyers made five more field goals in staying in the running for third place. Tim Dinan's 18 and Tom Wood's 16 led the scoring.

Lt. Micki King Executes Dive From High Board

competiton") under her college coach Richard Kimball — no relation to her commander — daily with the Maize and Blue varsity swimmers.

While she lost her AAU National championships in 1966, she did register the first of her two straight Canadian national conquests and began travelling under the sponsorship of the Air Force.

"It's really a proud feeling to walk into an airport with a patch on, and since I've been in the Air Force I have felt it even more.

"Tokyo was the most inspiring trip. It seemed to be the way the people accepted us in Tokyo. We were treated as if it were another Olympics."

While the 1968 Olympics are her ultimate goal, Micki won't look past the AAU meet at Pittsburgh to the Olympic Trials at Long Beach next summer.

MUCH TO LEARN

Judging can be a problem since styles and mechanics differ. There are nine dives to learn for the tower, and 11 for the two springboards.

"I wouldn't change my pattern for anything," Micki emphasizes. "We're rated by personal opinion . . . the opinion of one individual. That's why they discard the highest and lowest score in rating each dive."

This approach has earned her gold medals internationally as well as nationally. The most coveted one — an Olympic gold medal — is now on the rosy horizon.

But the pretty, blue-uniformed Lt. King keeps reminding herself: "I've got to make that team before I can think about it."

Purdue Soph Leads Victory

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Sophomore Rick Mount scored 37 points Monday night in pacing Purdue to a lopsided 105-79 basketball victory over Northern Michigan.

Mount ran up his total in a shooting duel with Ted Rose, 6-6 Northern Michigan soph from Louisville, Ky., against whom he played two years ago in the annual Indiana-Kentucky high school all-star series. Rose finished with 35 points and was the game's top rebounder with 14.

Northern Michigan sped to a 13-2 lead in the first five minutes, but the Boilermakers rallied for a 14-14 tie, took the lead at 18-16 and led at the half 46-34. In 2½ minutes of the second half they mounted a 56-36 lead and were never threatened afterward.

Andover Six Scores Loop Victory, 3-2

Bloomfield Hills Andover moved into a first place tie in the International Prep Hockey League Third Division by defeating Birmingham Country Day, 3-2, at the Detroit Olympia last night.

After spotting Country Day a 2-0 lead, Greg Eddy and Rick Gibout hit goals in the second period and then Eddy hit the clincher in the third period on an assist from Randy Marshall.

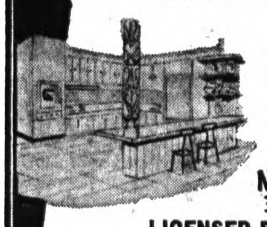

Andover's record is 6-6-3 tying Ann Arbor Huron for the lead in the division.

Glamor Stocks Hard-Hit

Market Backs Down Sharply

NEW YORK (AP) — Glamor stocks were hit hard as the stock market backed down sharply early Tuesday afternoon following a hesitant start. Trading was active.

Losses of several points were taken by some of the higher-priced conglomerates, computer stocks and others whose prices have been the subject of comment recently in Wall Street.

★ ★ ★

The market was on an even keel at the start, drifting aimlessly as uncertainty continued about the Pueblo crisis and the nation's fiscal policies. President Johnson presented a record $186.1 billion budget and it was received critically in some areas of Congress.

As the market showed no disposition to improve, some traders began to dump the glamor stocks an dselling spread to a wide range of blue chips.

The ratio of losses to gains increased to over 7 to 4.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was dow n4.79 to 858.88.

IBM lost 7 points, Control Data and Xerox 4, Monogram Industries and McDonnell Douglas about 3 each. International Telephone, Teledyne and Raytheon around 2 points each.

★ ★ ★

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was down 1.1 at 314.5 with industrials off 2.0, railsoff .1 and utilities off .6.

Eastman Kodak bucked the down trend with a rise of nearly 2. Public Service Electric & Gas rose more than a point.

Romney Asking $4.9 Million

Senate Gets Fund Bill for OU

Gov. George Romney's operating fund request for Oakland University — which stunned the university's administration — was introduced in the State Senate yesterday.

★ ★ ★

OU's $4.9-million suggested appropriation was included in a bill which would appropriate $254.3 million for the administration and operation of Michigan's 12 state colleges and universities.

The bill, introduced by Sen. Frank Beadle, R-St. Clair, chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, was not acted upon.

Another bill for $56.1 million for capital outlay appropriations recommended by the governor is yet to be introduced. The two bills would total Romney's proposed $310.4 million for higher education.

★ ★ ★

Recommended capital outlay funds for OU are $3.8 million. They are included in $6.4 million earmarked for its governing institution, Michigan State University.

APPROPRIATIONS

The OU appropriations are:

- $1 million toward construction of a $4.4-million classroom-office building to go out on bid soon and be completed by fall 1969. About $1-million was included in the current budget.

★ ★ ★

- About $2 million toward a $3-million central heating plant to go out on bid soon and be completed late this year. Some $900,000 for the project was appropriated this year.
- $510,000 to pay the total cost of a public safety and services building. Construction is scheduled to start in August.

Oakland had asked for a capital outlay funds totaling $9.6 million.

Construction of a $7-million education and social science building and $4-million library addition planned for 1968-69 will have to be delayed because funds are not included in the recommendations, Business Director Robert W. Swanson said.

Capital outlay funds earmarked for University of Michigan is $7.4 million and $8.4 million for Wayne State.

11 Vehicles Pile Up on Fogged-In I-696

Fogged-in I-696 west of Inkster in Farmington Township was the scene yesterday afternoon of accidents involving five trucks and six cars, according to current police reports.

Two persons were injured and one auto demolished by fire, reported township police.

Traffic being diverted from this scene by police stationed where I-696 and I-96 split was involved in about nine other collisions.

The pile-ups began about 1:50 p.m. after the truck and trailer driven by Warren Moses, 59, of Lima, Ohio, got stuck in the U-turn median, said police.

The front of the truck was jutting into eastbound lanes, said township police. Moses told them he was trying to turn off of westbound and onto eastbound I-696.

He explained that he was lost when he decided to make the turn, said police.

PICKUP STOPS

A pickup truck going east, beckoned by Moses' carrying a flare, pulled to the side of the expressway. Another large truck and trailer also traveling east collided with the pickup.

The driver of a van truck stopped and was trying to flag down other drivers when another truck hit his, police said.

In the westbound lanes, across from the trucks, occurred three separate collisions each involving two vehicles, said township police.

Two girls were reportedly injured. No one was hurt, however, when one car was demolished by fire.

TRAFFIC UNSNARLED

The accidents were cleared by about 4:30 p.m. The township police department being aided by police from Southfield, the Oakland County Sheriff's department and the Redford State Police Post, and by firemen from Southfield.

About nine other accidents tied up traffic from about 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. west of where I-696 splits into I-96 in Novi Township.

Officers from Farmington Township, Wixom, Novi and the county and state were diverting vehicles from I-696 onto I-96 when the accident happened.

Wixom Police Chief D'Arcy Young said fog was dense, and cars were backed up some distance.

Police departments, with reports still incomplete, indicate more collisions may have occurred.

State Senate OKs First 3 Bills of Session

LANSING (AP) — The State Senate passed its first three bills of the regular session Monday night, turned down another and introduced a package of measures aimed at protection of tenants rights.

Approved were bills eliminating bars to married women making contracts, providing for filing of surveys and setting up systems of accounting in units of local government.

★ ★ ★

The Senate approved 29-0 a bill which would allow a husband and wife to enter into any contract with each other, or any other person which they might enter into if unmarried.

However, in the case of a contract between themselves, they would be subject to the laws controlling the actions of persons occupying confidential relations with each other.

MUST FILE

The survey bill, approved 30-0, provides for filing in the office of the register of deeds surveys relative to land divisions.

The accounting measure, approved by a 29-1 vote, authorizes the state treasurer to prescribe a uniform system of accounting for all local units of government.

★ ★ ★

It also requires local units to make an annual financial report to the state treasurer and provides for annual audits of local units with populations of more than 2,000.

Turned down 14-15 was a measure sponsored by Sen. Robert Richardson, R-Saginaw, to allow use of facsimile signatures by public officials.

QUESTIONED NEED

Several Democrats questioned the need for such a bill and supported by enough Republicans to defeat the measure.

However, the Senate agreed to reconsider the vote on the bill and planned to take it up again later in the week.

★ ★ ★

Discussed, but laid over until later in the week was a bill to require the five-year suspension of the driver license of any person convicted three times within a two-year period for drunk driving or reckless driving or any combination of the two.

The measure, also sponsored by Richardson, was opposed by Democrats as too severe.

'IT'S EASY TO DO'

"I'm not trying to defend those who drive under the influence of alcohol, but it's easy to pick up a ticket for reckless driving in Detroit," said Sen. Michael O'Brien, D-Detroit.

"With a penalty like this you better get a good lawyer," he added.

★ ★ ★

The five-bill package of tenants rights measures was sponsored by Senate Majority Leader Emil Lockwood, R-St. Louis, and cosigned by Sens. Sander Levin, D-Berkley, and Coleman Young, D-Detroit.

Levin said the bills were designed to:

—Protect the tenant from eviction where there is no just cause.

—Provide a voice for the tenant in the adopting of rules applicable to public housing.

—Strengthen housing code enforcement by requiring landlords to carry out certain ordinances, mostly relating to health and public safety, unless specifically superseded by a written lease.

★ ★ ★

The measures are similar to recommendations made last fall by the New Detroit Committee and by Gov. George Romney in his State of the State message earlier this month.

Freighter Grounded Near Cuba Is Freed

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A Dominican freighter, Abaco Wanderer, went off course and grounded itself near the southwest coast of Cuba Monday but freed itself and proceeded toward Fort Pierce.

★ ★ ★

The 155-foot vessel, returning from Belize, Honduras, after delivering fertilizer, is due in Fort Pierce Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

During the eight hours the ship was stuck in the coastal sand bank, Cuban authorities did not approach the vessel, the Coast Guard said.

GTW Route Shows Spurt in Commuters

Grand Trunk Western Railroad commuter traffic between Pontiac and Detroit jumped 70.4 per cent in the first 25 days of January, compared to the same period in 1967.

John W. Demcoe, Grand Trunk vice president and general manager, said the route has averaged 2,893 daily commuters as against 1,698 last January.

★ ★ ★

The growth, which began last year, is the first sustained increase in commuter traffic since 1954. This month's average of nearly 3,000 commuters a day inducates a 40 per cent gain over 1967's average daily commuter traffic, Demcoe said.

Regular GTW commuter trains begin in Pontiac and reach the Brush Street station in Detroit at 7:30, 8 and 8:30 a.m. Return trips leave downtown Detroit at 5, 5:30 and 6 p.m. (6:20 on Fridays).

Youth Arrested in Assault Case

A 19-year-old Waterford Township youth was arrested yesterday after allegedly threatening a 13-year-old girl with a knife.

Ths suspect, Douglas H. Gilboe of 3905 Lotus Drive, stood mute at his arraignment yesterday in the court of Waterford Township Justice Patrick K. Daly on a charge of assault with intent to commit rape.

Preliminary examination was scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Feb. 7. Gilboe was released after posting $2,500 personal cash bond.

The girl told township police Gilboe had offered her a ride home Sunday night. She said the suspect placed the knife to her throat and that she jumped from the moving car on M59 near Airport Road.

Police said the girl escaped injury.

Gas Blast Rocks Clarkston Home; 2 Escape Injury

A Clarkston mother and her young child escaped yesterday when an explosion, believed caused by escaping gas, rocked their ranch house off its foundations, broke several windows and peeled the paneling off the living room walls.

Mrs. Martin Johnson and her baby were in the bathroom at 6515 E. Washington yesterday when the explosion occurred, at 10:56 a.m. according to Independence Township firemen who stoody by though no flames resulted.

Fire Marshal Frank Ronk said the ground about the 10-year-old home was saturated with gas. He said the main explosions occurred in the basement and in the breezeway between the garage and house.

No damage estimate was available.

TED'S CORNER
Trading your house is the same as listing your house with ONE EXCEPTION, your realtor guarantees the sale. His expenses are similar, if it take 90 days to sell it could cost the realtor in the neighborhood of $200 for the advertising alone. What can you expect if you trade? You can expect more advertising, you only move once, you stay in your present home until your new home is available, you are sure of a definite price, no offer to ponder. And you're sure that your house is sold after you have purchased your new home. Your deal will not have to wait or fall through because yours isn't sold.

A Look at TV

'Luther' Is Cruelly Cut

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI—ABC-TV last night presented a sharply truncated, 90-minute adaptation of John Osborne's superb play, "Luther," and the slashing of the length was the unkindest cut of all.

★ ★ ★

The epic drama of the 16th Century Catholic monk who started the Reformation was hardly epic any more after the cutting had been done. It was more of a miniepic, with the shortened form requiring a more pronounced episodic result, and all the shortcomings that accompany this type of structure.

It was a pity, too, for even in its truncated form, the play often blazed with the brilliance of Osborne's words and the excellence of an outstanding cast that deserved more time to spread its abilities.

Robert Shaw starred in the title role, Robert Morley appeared briefly as Pope Leo X, and the supporting players included Max Adrian, Ronald Fraser, Kenneth J. Warren, Bernard Kay and Frank Middlemas — all expert.

In fact, for the first hour or so, it seemed the television version might even gain a triumph of a sort over the truncation, as there was a series of powerful verbal confrontations, with only a few routine transitional scenes interrupting.

PETERED OUT

For the last third or so of the adaptation, however — after Luther finally broke from the church — the play dwindled down into a series of relatively minor sequences that more or less just petered out after a while.

★ ★ ★

There were numerous scenes in the early going that won a viewer's admiration. The confrontation of Luther as a young monk — driven, full of self-doubt, tortured by a sense of guilt and plain physical problems — and of his father, crude, vulgar, not understanding his son or why he was choosing this way of life, was wholly gripping.

HEART PACER — Dr. Constantine Cerkez of Pontiac State Hospital holds a small device which was inserted into the heart of a mental patient to make it beat faster. It could be the first operation of its kind in the country.

PSH Heart Surgery Is Possibly a First

By DICK ROBINSON

A surgical team at Pontiac State Hospital may have performed the first heart operation of its kind anywhere in the United States.

★ ★ ★

A six-person team successfully implanted a small device to step up the heartbeat into the heart of an 83-year-old female patient.

Medical Supt. Dr. Donald W. Martin said he believes that this type of operation "was never attempted in any Michigan state hospital and perhaps in any state setting anywhere in this country."

Major chest surgery involving the implantation of a permanent pacemaker in the patient had not been performed in other hospitals because of possible complications from a senile mental condition, Dr. Donald Dawson, medical-surgical division director, explained.

He said patients requiring this type of cardiac surgery were previously sent to large medical centers.

SUCCESS NOTED

The 1½-hour surgery performed by consultant Dr. Lazaro Gelstein of Pontiac General Hospital proved so successful that the patient continually had to be shooed away from watching television on the third post-operative day, hospital personnel said.

Essentially a battery-operated generator, a cardiac pacemaker is smaller than a pocket-sized transistor radio and weighs about four ounces. It was first used in humans in the early 1960s.

Its function is to stimulate the heart by means of two electrodes which are sutured to the heart muscle. Both generator and electrodes are replaceable.

Dr. Constantine Cerkez, chief hospital cardiologist, decided that the hospital would undertake the operation of the woman's diseased heart which was shown to be abnormally slow by a electrocardiogram .

EXTERNAL PACEMAKER

A transvenous pacemaker catheter (tube) was first inserted into the patient's heart through the arm, Cerkez said. Its electrodes were connected with an external pacemaker.

By this test technique, the heart rate was increased by means of electrical artificial pacing, he reported., A faster rate improved the patient's circulation and helped to lessen the risk of the anesthesia needed for the chest operation.

Information on the operation, which was performed two months ago, was released today.

Pontiac State Hospital is getting more pacemakers to perform similar operations, according to Dawson.

EXPANDED DIVISION

The hospital's medical-surgical division was expanded last summer by adding 60 staff members and tripling the operating unit.

Before the expansion, the hospital had performed about 110 surgeries a year. Estimates of major surgery cases for 1967-68 range from 850 to 900.

Since last spirng Pontiac State Hospital has been the central surgical facility for state hospitals in Ypsilanti, Northville, Newberry and selected cases from Kalamazoo.

PSH's medical-surgical unit numbers 200 nurses and attendants, seven full-time psysicians, and consulting surgeons drawn from Pontiac General and William Beaumont Hospitals.

Junior Editors Quiz on WHETSTONE

QUESTION: What is a whetstone made from?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: To "whet" means to sharpen, so a whetstone is a stone used to sharpen various kinds of tools. Primitive men rubbed softer stones against harder ones to get an edge.

★ ★ ★

When metals came to be used, cutting edges were obtained by working metal tools back and forth on pieces of hard stone. The familiar grindstone used for so many purposes on farms (upper left) has a large circular whetstone which is spun around by a treadle worked by foot.

Natural stones used as whetstones were often of a kind of quartz called novaculite, which was quarried in Hot Springs, Ark. Its hard grains were so uniform that it lasted a long time in use.

Nowadays, grinding wheels and flat whetstones are often made artificially. The materials used to make them are likely to be silicon carbide and aluminum oxide.

★ ★ ★

Whetstones are used in a great many ways to shape and polish metal. They work by removing material from an object being ground. By doing this on both sides of a blade, a sharp edge is left. Water or oil is often used to prevent friction and heating.

Tallulah Will Not Be Party to Birthday Party for O'Hara

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Tallulah Bankhead will ignore hell out of her birthday this week.

And she wants a certain idiotic columnist (me) to know she and Carol Channing are not giving John O'Hara a party on their mutual birthday . . . "John O'Hara should give US a party — he has more money."

WILSON

The report that she and Carol were giving such a party incited droves of friends to ask why the unprintable unprintable unprintable they weren't invited.

'I don't want people sending me enough flowers for a funeral, darling," Tallulah said.

Once she had a bad experience with a birthday party. The invitations said Cyril Ritchard was giving a party.

"Cyril and I — or is it Cyril and me? I'm anti-semantic, darling, I never know which is which — met at the party. He said, 'What are you doing here, darling?' and I said 'What are you doing here, darling?' "

★ ★ ★

In her most Tallulahish fashion, Tallulah's excited about having a 6-months-old grandniece in Rock Hill, Md., named "Tallulah Brockman Bankhead," who'll carry on the name.

I framed a question about her age but it never got out of the frame. So I asked "Is it true you've been on the stage 50 years?"

"Is that all, darling?" Tallulah said.

One of the great lines of Tallulah's career is one in which I was innocently involved. Because of her deep down-in-the-basement voice, I inquired, "Tallulah, were you ever mistaken for a man on the telephone?" Her answer was, "No, were you?"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Bobby Kennedy mentioned to Dustin Hoffman that he hadn't yet seen Dustin's movie, "The Graduate," and added jokingly, "But then again, you haven't seen me in the Senate." (Bobby made a short speech to his staff at a Rockefeller Plaza skating party, and later told them: "I hope you notice how I said 'New York,' instead of mumbling it, as I used to do three years ago!")

★ ★ ★

Frank Sinatra flew to Miami Beach. His Feb. 9 opening date at the Fontainbleau was one he'd requested — it's his parents' wedding anniversary . . . Composer Jule Styne says "Darling of the Day" could be his last Broadway show for a long time; he has offers to write movie musicals.

★ ★ ★

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: The new "War & Peace" film runs seven hours, and Mickey Freeman figures parents should love it: "It'll be cheaper than sending the kids to camp."

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "He that falls in love with himself will have no rivals." — Benjamin Franklin.

EARL'S PEARLS: Jack Herbert suspects he should feel insulted: "I went to a mind reader, and she charged me half price."

Jack Carter says Jackie Gleason would be a rarity in Las Vegas: "He'd be the only acre Howard Hughes hasn't tried to buy." . . . That's earl, brother.

Do-It-Yourself Drain Blasted

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The Salt Lake County Flood Control Office said Monday it takes a dim view of do-it-yourself flood-control projects such as the one Gordon Merrill undertook over the weekend.

Melting snow had formed a small lake in front of his suburban home because of apparently inadequate drainage facilities. So Merrill, pick and shovel in hand, proceeded to hack a drainage trench across the asphalt road on his block.

★ ★ ★

The county said it planned to have a new storm sewer completed in the residential area by April and warned against such do-it-yourself projects in the future.

Fund for Lines

WASHINGTON (AP) — Noton Township near Muskegon has been awarded a $672,000 federal grant for water and sewer facilities, U.S. Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said Monday. Construction will begin within four months and will be completed within 18 months.

Museum Will Get Historical Uniform

FREDERICKSBURG, Tex. (AP) — The uniform of 1st Lt. Louis Jordan of Fredericksburg, believed to be the first U.S. officer killed in World War I, will be presented to the Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz Memorial Naval Museum here.

Jordan was a track and football star at the University of Texas.

★ ★ ★

William G. Galbraith, national commander of the American Legion, makes the presentation today to the museum, which honors members of the armed forces.

U. S. Troops at Khe Sanh Base Await Big North Viet Push

By PETER ARNETT
Associated Press Writer

KHE SANH, Vietnam — Mountains, hills and jungles surround Khe Sanh, and the U.S. Marines at this combat base know North Vietnamese are in them—perhaps more than any American outfit has ever faced in a single battle in the Vietnam war.

Intelligence reports put the enemy's strength around Khe Sanh at about 30,000 men—three divisions—positioned to the south, west and north. Another 10,000 to 20,000 are believed strung along the demilitarized zone to the northeast.

★ ★ ★

"We know they are there," a Marine officer said. "They know we know they are there. One of us will act."

A week ago there were 5,000 Leathernecks in this northwest hot corner of South Vietnam. They have been reinforced, and U.S. Army troops have been moved into easy reach, but the total American strength at Khe Sanh is a military secret.

AT END OF WEEK

The men at Khe Sanh expect the fighting to start at the end of the week, with the close of observance of Tet, the lunar new year festival.

This is what Marine officers expect the enemy to do:

● Shell the airstrip at Khe Sanh to try to close it to supply planes. If this happens, the Marines expect supplies by air-drop.

★ ★ ★

● Attack to the east in an effort to close off Highway 9, the main ground supply route. But the Marines say they can open the roadway with tanks.

● Make one or possibly two major infantry assaults on this combat base itself. The Marines express confidence they can beat the attacks off. (But enemy shells could mean heavy Marine casualties. In shelling last week the Communists scored direct hits with devastating results, particularly because of the nature of Marine positions.)

● Attack the two Marine battalions holding Hills 881 to the south and 861 to the west of Khe Sanh. The hills, scenes of bloody fighting last spring, are deemed vulnerable.

As of now, the Marines are proceeding with caution.

★ ★ ★

"I do not intend to get one more Marine killed than is necessary," declared Lt. Col. Frank Heath of Detroit, commander of the 2nd Battalion, 26th Regiment on Hill 558 two miles west of Khe Sanh.

Rather than use infantrymen to rout the enemy, Heath calls in planes and artillery. A knoll one mile in front of his position has been hammered for three days, and the North Vietnamese can still be seen moving over it.

ELSEWHERE IN REGION

The reluctance of the Marines to tangle directly with the Communists now is evidenced elsewhere in the region. The combat base commander who also commands the 26th Marine Regiment, Col. David Lownds of Plantation, Fla., said his units had not returned to the nearby town of Khe Sanh after it had been abandoned by civilian inhabitants.

"We were shot out of the town by the Communists," Lownds said. The town is made up of several Montagnard villages. To do an effective job of routing the Communists, the Marines would have to destroy the villages.

★ ★ ★

"The Bru Montagnards who live at Khe Sanh have been kind to us. I would hate to destroy their homes," Lownds said. Only in a time of military necessity, he added, would he order them destroyed.

★ ★ ★

The abandonment and possible destruction of the town are in ironic contrast to early last year. Fierce battles fought on Hills 861 and 881 then were said to be for the defense of the town. This year the town was given up virtually without a fight.

"It is more important to defend ourselves this year than that tiny town," a Marine officer said.

The reluctance of the Marines to go into the mountains after the Communists is the result of lessons learned in bloody fights during the past two years in the northern regions. Now that they are in possession of the combat base and most of the important hills in the area, the Marines figure they can let the Communists make the first moves. This will give the Marines an advantage that the enemy has enjoyed in other hill battles.

But should the magnitude of the enemy buildup be translated into fighting over the whole area, the U.S. Command might have little choice but to go after the Communists with ground troops to destroy them.

THREE COLORS

MICHIGAN IS Big Ski Country

WINTER PLAYGROUND FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

Few, if any, areas in the world offer winter sports enthusiasts a wider selection of snow fun facilities than does Michigan. The cost of a winter holiday of a day, weekend, week or even longer in Michigan can be tailored to any size vacation budget.

Few Slopes Open After Warm Spell

This is when the "basis" of the ski industry becomes vital for the resort operators.

The wet, warm thawing weather that hit practically all of Michigan over the weekend and Monday has shut down many resorts around the state.

Only those with good bases of snow are still operating or will be able to return to operation quickly. At best, those running now have fair conditions.

One Southeast Michigan resort has remained open: Alpine Valley.

TWO RUNNING

In East Michigan, The Pinnacles and Sylvan Knob, both east of Gaylord, were reportedly able to operate. All others likely won't be running before Saturday.

★ ★ ★

The West Michigan report was similarly discouraging; though Boyne Mountain, Boyne Highlands, Walloon Hills, Thunder Mountain, Nub's Nob and Barn Mountain all had fair skiing Monday.

The Upper Peninsula outlook was generally limited to Pine Mountain, the only resort in that region with snowmaking equipment.

Check Binding for Adjustment

Frayed Cables Could Be Troublesome

An improperly adjusted release binding will not give you the protection you paid for and need. Before leaving for the slopes, determine that all moving parts of the binding operate smoothly. Some lubrication may be needed.

Then check for frayed cables or a bent heel plate, each of which would prevent timely and smooth release.

Rear hitches should be flush with the heel plate, never extending above.

To check side release, mount your boot with moderate tension, place your thumbs one quarter of the way from the toe, and apply pressure. The binding should release smoothly and completely in both directions when correctly adjusted.

If it is a spring unit, such as the Look Nevada, Tyrolia or Cubco, the contact mechanism should return to center after a release.

Honoree Named

NEW YORK (UPI)—Tom Lockhart, president of the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States and the Eastern Pro Hockey League, has been named winner of the third annual Lester J. Patrick Memorial Award for the meritorious service to hockey in the United States.

Coach Lists U.S. Skiers

MEGEVE, France (AP) — Bob Beattie, the American Alpine ski coach, has named a team of seven men and seven girls to represent the United States in the 1968 Olympic Winter Games.

He dropped Penny McCoy, 18, of Bishop, Calif., and Sandra Shellworth, 23, Boise, Idaho, to the reserves to make room for youngsters Kiki Cutter, 18, Bend, Ore., and Judy Nagel, 17, Enumclaw, Wash., who were not even on the original Olympic team.

Penny had won the only medal for the United States at the 1966 world championship in Portillo, Chile, capturing third place in the slalom. She subsequently was injured.

Miss Cutter, and Billy Kidd, Stowe, Vt., will be entered in all three Olympic races, Beatie said.

The other nominations were: Men — Jim Heuga, Squaw Valley, Calif., giant slalom and slalom; James Barrows, Steamboat Springs, Colo., downhill; Rick Chaffee, Rutland, Vt., slalom; Spider Sabich, Kyburz, Calif., giant slalom and slalom; Jere Elliott, Steamboat Springs, Colo., downhill, and Dennis McCoy, Bishop, Calif., downhill.

FOURTH MAN

Either Elliott or McCoy will be the fourth man in the giant slalom.

Reserve is Kenneth Phelps, Lyons Fall, N. Y.

Girls — Wendy Allen, San Pedro, Calif., slalom; Rosie Fortna, Warren Vt., slalom; Judy Nagel, slalom, giant slalom; Suzanne Chaffee, Rutland, Vt., giant slalom and slalom; Karen Budge, Jackson, Wyo., downhill, and either Robin Morning, Santa Monica, Calif., or Miss Nagel, fourth, in downhill. Miss Morning or Miss Budge will be fourth in the giant slalom.

COMMENTS

Commenting on the selections, Beattie said:

"We waited with the selections until the very last minute to try to be sure. The results speak quite clearly for the selections which we have made. We made them on the results of the winter.

"We also defied tradition which usually dictated that we have eight men and six girls. We selected seven men and seven girls that we could further strengthen our women's team."

The Americans are regarded to have best chances for medals in the women's slalom, and with Kidd in any of the races.

Shows Strength in Norway Tour

OSLO, Norway (AP) — The U.S. Olympic biathlon team wound up their four-week stay in Norway with a fourth and sixth-place finish in the final pre-Olympic competition.

John Ehrensbeck of Old Fort, New York, surprised experts with a strong performance, ending up in fourth place in the final standings behind three Norwegians, including 1966 world champion Jon Istad. John Chaffee of Lyme, N.H., placed sixth.

The biathlon is a 20-kilometer cross country ski race with shooting at intervals on four ranges.

BRAKES FOR THE SLOPES — Slowing down and stopping on a slope is vital to the skier, not only for control but also for safety. Doak Walker (left) and Skeeter Werner practice the snowplow braking system for skiers —tips of the skis together, tails displaced at equal angles from the fall line and knees bent slightly forward toward the tips of the skis.

SKI AMERICAN

Skiing Brakes

By SKEETER WERNER
with Doak Walker
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Movement of any sort becomes dangerous when it's not accompanied by braking action.

A man on skis who can't stop is like a runaway locomotive. The basic way to slow down is the straight snowplow. Kids go into it without even being told.

The tops of the skis are together. The tails of the skis are displaced at equal angles from the fall line (by the fall line I mean an imaginary line that's the steepest point of descent from your position on the hill).

The knees are bent slightly forward towards the tops of the skis.

The ski poles are pointed straight back and the hands should be held hip high.

FIRST STEP

Because the straight snowplow is one of the beginning steps, you can go into it from a standstill position and then by forcing the heels of the skis out, hop into the basic snowplow.

Once this position is accomplished, you can begin on a gentle slope with a good runout and let yourself down.

Don't let the skis ride absolutely flat or the outside edges may catch. At the same time, don't dog the inside edges too much. It's mostly a matter of feel and getting used to the rate of movement.

U. S. Ski Team Picks Coaches

NEW YORK (AP) — Willy Schaeffler of the University of Denver, and John Cress of the University of Wyoming have been named ski coaches of the U.S. skiing team in the Winter Student Games at Innsbruck, Austria, Jan. 21-28.

Schaeffler will coach the Alpine skiers and Cress the Nordic team. Members of the squads will be named later.

West German Squad Can't Use Defector

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) — The International Olympic Committee and the International Ski Federation jointly have decided not to allow defected East German skier Ralph Pehland to compete for the West German team at the forthcoming Olympic Winter Games.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman for the International Olympic Committee said the committee was informing Willi Daume, the president of the West German National Olympic committee, of this decision.

★ ★ ★

Pehland, who defected during a Nordic ski meet at Le Brassus in Switzerland last weekend, cannot compete for West Germany at the Grenoble Games because of a rule of the International Ski Federation.

★ ★ ★

This says that no athlete may compete for two different ski federations in the course of one racing season.

U.S. Team Confident of Medal

Amateurs Fill Bobsled Berths

ALPE D'HUEZ, France (AP) — The 13-man U.S. Olympic bobsledding team which will compete in the Winter Games at Grenoble is managed by a patrolman, coached by a salesman and includes a neurosurgeon, a real estate agent and a construction worker.

"Anybody who says that we are not pure-bred amateurs is nuts," said Coach James Lamy, a strapping six-footer from Saranac Lake, N. Y.

"We have assembled the best line-up since the 1956 Olympics at Cortina D'Ampezzo, and we are all out to win a medal," he added.

The last olympic honors for U.S. bobsledders date back to the Winter Games held in the Italian dolomite resort where the Americans took the bronze medal in the four-man race.

"We have been working very hard this year," Lamy said. "What spurred us into action was the third place two of our boys won at last year's world championships here."

LINEUPS

As each country is allowed to enter two bobsleds, the pilots and their brakemen will be named after the training runs, which will end on the eve of the race.

The team has been practicing for four weeks on the Swiss track at St. Moritz.

"All the boys are fit and well," said team manager Patrick H. Martin from Massena, N.Y. "I am confident we shall have a good showing."

* * *

The neurosurgeon is David Dun, 32. A native of Milwaukee, Wis. He is a staff member of the hospital of the University of Pennsylvania and will be a crew member of the four-man sled.

The U.S. team is equipped with seven steel bobs, all but one Italian-made.

Sets Skating Record

OSLO (UPI) — Norway's Fred Maier established a world record in the 10,000-meter speed-skating event Sunday by taking the European championship with a time of 15 minutes 20.3 seconds.

LUGE VET — The luge events at the 1968 Olympic Games in Grenoble, France will find one veteran returning on the U.S. Team. Oregon's Michael Hessell finished 22nd at the Innsbruck (Austria) Olympics in the singles. Luge is a form of sledding, similar to tobogganing.

U. S. Sextet Triumphs

BADTOLEZ, Germany (UPI) — Tom Hurley, Larry Stordahl and Herb Brooks each scored once Sunday night to pace the United States Olympic hockey team to a 3-1 victory over West Germany in an exhibition game.

NEW HEAD PRO—Ron Brown of Bloomfield Hills has taken over as the head of the Alpine Valley Ski School this season after serving several years under Dave Delpiere and Ed O'Neil. Delpiere now is the manager at Alpine while O'Neil has curtailed his ski instructing this winter.

Insurance Firm Announces Sale of Skiing Resort

HOLLAND (AP) — Purchase of Carousel Mountain Ski Resort three miles west of Holland from the United Insurance Co. of Chicago for $300,000 has been announced by the Macatawa Development Corp.

★ ★ ★

Dr. J. Raymond Christy of Holland, president of the newly formed corporation, said the new owners plan to take over operations of the 60-acre winter sports development April 19 and intend to develop it into a year-around recreational center.

★ ★ ★

The Chicago firm obtained the property about a year ago on a mortgage foreclosure.

France Welcomes Return of Olympics

After 44 years, the Winter Olympic Games are returning to the nation that hosted the initial event — France.

It was in Chamonix (in 1924) that the first of these competitions was held, pitting the world's finest amateur athletes against one another for the coveted gold, silver and bronze medals.

Subsequent hosts were St. Moritz, Switzerland (1928); Lake Placid, New York (1932); Garmisch-Patenkirchen, Germany (1936); St. Moritz again (1948) after a 12-year hiatus due to World War II; Oslo, Norway (1952); Cortina, Italy (1956); Squaw Valley, California (1960); and Innsbruck, Austria (1964).

The 2,300 entrants who will parade at the Opening Ceremonies in Grenoble on February 6, will more than double the previous record of 1,111 who took part in the 1964 Winter Olympic Games and approximately eight times the number that participated in Chamonix in 1924.

At that time, 13 women and 280 men competed. A total of 33 nations will be represented at Grenoble, as compared to the 16 who were in the first events.

The increases of both nations and entries can be attributed to the addition of events, including those for women While there were but 16 events in 1924, and only one, figure skating, open to the distaff athletes, there will be 35 different chances for gold medals at Grenoble.

OFFICIAL SPORTS

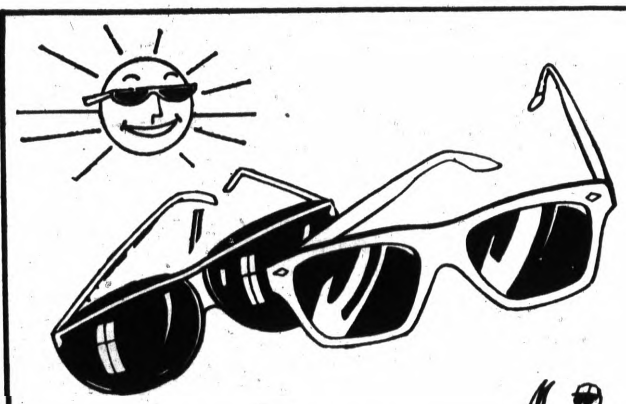

The International Olympic Committee, parent body for all Olympic Games, recognizes seven sports as official. They are Biathlon (cross-country skiing and rifle marksmanship); bobsledding; figure skating; ice hockey luge (tobogganing); skiing (Alpine and Nordic), plus speed and figure skating.

★ ★ ★

This, of course, does not mean that there are just seven events. In speed skating, as an example, there are four different events for the women, races ranging from 500-meters to 3,000 meters; and another four races for the men, from 500-meters to 10,000-meters.

There will be a total of 20 events for the men; 14 for the women; and, pairs in figure skating.

It is anticipated that Grenoble will produce a wealth of new records because of the great amount of time, effort and money expended at the various sites by the French Government.

Manufacturer Names Barred on Skis, Poles

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) — Marc Hodler, Swiss president of the International Ski Federation, has announced that manufacturers names will be barred from all skis and ski poles used by competitors at the Grenoble Winter Olympics next month.

★ ★ ★

The decision was taken after a joint meeting between the International Olympic Committee and the general assembly of the international sports federations.

★ ★ ★

Sources reported a sharp clash between the two bodies over financial benefits from television coverage of the Olympic Games — winter and summer.

★ ★ ★

The sources said the international federations agreed to waive the question for eight years, but have demanded 33 per cent of all money paid by television companies to the IOC from 1976. The IOC is expected to give its reaction at its next full session in Grenoble Feb. 2.

Sigi on Skiing

Selecting Skis

By SIGI ENGL
Sun Valley Ski Director

The number of fine skis on the market is increasing almost in direct relation to the cost.

Most of you have an instructor or friend who knows more about skiing than you do. Recruit his aid.

Ninety per cent of the time he will have a truer picture of your ability and idiosyncrasies than you do.

He will also be aware of your ability to pay. Less expensive skis, particularly wooden skis, are apt to vary more than metal or glass fiber, but with care he can pick you out a pair that will give both pleasure and service.

In the competitive ski industry, the policy is growing to permit a prospective buyer to try out a pair of skis much like driving a demonstrator car. If you can find an area where this opportunity is available, by all means make use of it.

To the beginning skier, my advice is, as it always has been, rent until you are sure what you want.

Most areas have upgraded their rental equipment so that quality skis are now available.

I am starting more and more of my pupils on five-foot skis. In a short time, you will be able to tell whether you feel more comfortable on these short skis or whether your progress is such that you want to try longer ones.

EXPERT

For the beginner or intermediate faced with buying skis without advice of instructor or friend, the best policy is to go to a reliable ski shop and place yourself in the hands of one of their experts.

Remember that the old rule of selecting skis that come to the break in the wrist may not always hold true. Age, weight, strength and the area where you ski are all matters that must be taken into consideration.

★ ★ ★

With improved engineering in the manufacture of skis and improved snow conditions, the shorter ski is often better. If there is any question about the length, select the shorter ski.

(Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

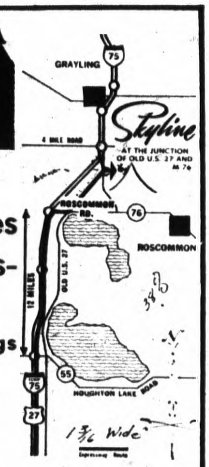

German Skier in Distance Win

REIT-IM-WINKL, Germany (UPI) — Walter Demel of West Germany won the 15-kilometer cross-country event Sunday on the final day of the "Leutschland Shield" Nordic skiing tournament but Poland took the top three places in the combined standings.

Michael Elliot of the U. S. was sixth in Sunday's race and fellow Yank Mike Gallagher was ninth.

SENATOR FLOPS—U.S. Sen. Robert Kennedy is an ardent skier but he does have problems maintaining control occasionally as depicted above during a skiing holiday in Idaho. However, the senator maintains his composure and regains his feet, continuing on uninjured. Several members of the family—including Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy and her children—are avid skiers.

Tech Students Ship Snowballs

SAN MARCOS, Tex. (UPI) — Five-hundred "Michigan" snowballs were scheduled to arrive at 3 p.m. today for Southwest Texas State College's fourth annual snowball fight.

The snowballs were shipped together by Michigan Tech students and packed in dry ice. They were shipped by Braniff Airlines to the Texas college.

★ ★ ★

The snowball fight was scheduled for 5 p.m., pitting 18 fraternity men and 18 non-Greeks. Some snowballs will be saved so sorority women can battle it out with a team up of women faculty members and secretaries.

SUPERFLUOUS

It all began in 1965, when Michigan Tech students decided it would be a good idea to ship some superfluous snow from Tech Snow Carnival to some needy Southern college which did not have any.

★ ★ ★

Two years ago, San Marcos had a rare heavy snow right after the snowball fight. So the Texas students rolled up two 15-pound snowballs and shipped them to Michigan Tech.

Last year there was no snow in San Marcos. Southwest Texas students sent a cactus plant.

Statement on Bomb Halt Surprises Allies in Viet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Diplomatic sources say U.S. allies in Vietnam were surprised by Secretary of Defense-designate Clark Clifford's statement that "normal" North Vietnamese resupply activities wouldn't stand in the way of an American bombing halt.

U.S. dipomatic sources said Monday that Clifford's comments before the Senate Armed Services Committee last week spelled out in new detail U.S. conditions for a bombing halt and that they were privately brought to the attention of Hanoi.

Many of the allies fighting with the United States in Vietnam asked the State Department for clarification of Clifford's remarks. The sources indicated the allied nations were unhappy they hadn't been consulted first.

The State Department has publicly said Clifford's comments were "certainly consistent with the San Antonio formula" laid down by President Johnson last September.

★ ★ ★

Johnson had said he would be prepared to halt the bombing of North Vietnam if prompt and productive talks resulted. He said he would assume the Communists wouldn't take advantage of the bombing pause.

EXPERTS UNAWARE

But it was learned that even high-level Asian experts at the State Department weren't aware of the formula as explained by Clifford.

Clifford, whose nomination as secretary of defense is expected to be confirmed by the Senate this week, said of the North Vietnamese Communists:

Their military activity will continue in South Vietnam, I assume, until there is a cease-fire agreed upon. I assume that they will continue to transport the normal amount of goods, munitions and men to South Vietnam. I assume that we will continue to maintain our forces and support our forces during that period.

"So what I am suggesting is, in the language of the President, that we would insist that they not take advantage of the suspension of the bombing."

SEARCH YIELDS SKELETONS — Dr. Edwin N. Barron Jr., physician at Cummins Prison Farm, Ark., stands in one of three unmarked graves which were discovered yesterday after a search of the grounds was ordered to check reports that inmates had been killed and secretly buried at the prison through the years. Barron said an investigation at the prison might turn up "as many as 100, if not more" bodies. The search, which was halted after three coffins were discovered, was to resume today.

DARKNESS AT NOON — Oakland County was shrouded in fog yesterday, but work went on as usual. The fog lasted all day and into the night but was dispersed for morning motorists today.

VC Raid Cities, 4 U.S. Airfields

SAIGON (AP) — The Vietcong attacked seven privincial capitals, South Vietnam's second largest city and four American airfields today, ushering in the lunar new year with the biggest coordinated assault of the Vietnam war.

★ ★ ★

By midafternoon, the guerrillas were reported still in control of parts of two coastal cities — Nha Trang, 190 miles northeast of Saigon, and Hoi An, 365 miles northeast of the capital.

Some fighting also was reported still going on at Pleiku, in the central highlands, while the situation was not clear at Kontum and Ban Thuot, both in the highlands, and at coastal Tuy Hoa and Qui Nohn.

Associated Press Correspondent Robert D. Ohman reported that South

President Nguyen Van Thieu canceled the rest of the 36-hour truce he had proclaimed for Tet, the new year festival.

★ ★ ★

The Vietcong guerrillas and demolition teams caught the South Vietnamese defenders off guard, with many of them celebrating Tet, the lunar new year festival. The guerrillas raced through the streets of Da Nang and the seven provincial capitals, all in the central and northern part of South Vietnam, terrorizing the population and seizing key installations.

The attacks on the U.S. airfields destroyed or damaged at least 42 jet fighter-bombers, cargo planes, observation aircraft and helicopters. The loss was estimated at more than $25 million.

Graves Unearthed at Arkansas Prison

CUMMINS PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP) — The skeltons of three men have been discovered in unmarked graves at Cummins Prison Farm, spurring an investigation that the prison physician said might turn up "as many as 100, if not more" bodies.

The skeletons, resting in three wooden coffins about a mile from the prison administration building, were recovered yesterday from graves 4½ to 6 feet deep.

Prison Supt. Thomas O. Murton had ordered a search of the grounds to check convict reports that inmates had been killed and secretly buried at the prison through the years.

Murton said a prisoner, identified as Reuben Johnson, 59, pointed out the site of the graves yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Edwin N. Barron Jr., prison physician, quoted Johnson as saying that he helped bury a convict called "Jake" at the site Dec. 24, 1947. The doctor said Johnson reported that "Jake" was beaten to death.

Murton declined to speculate on what had caused the deaths of the men, but he said "according to testimonials of inmates on the farm . . . there have been burials that were other than legal."

Murton said one of the skeletons had been decapitated and that the head of another had been crushed. He said the leg bones of one of the skeletons had been broken, apparently in order "to get him into the casket." He said there was no way of knowing whether the mutilation took place before or after death.

Murton said each of the graves was in a depression and each could have been there 15 to 25 years.

Murton said the names of more than 200 inmates were on a list of unapprehended escapees that date back to 1900 and that convicts had claimed that some did not escape but were killed and buried on the farm.

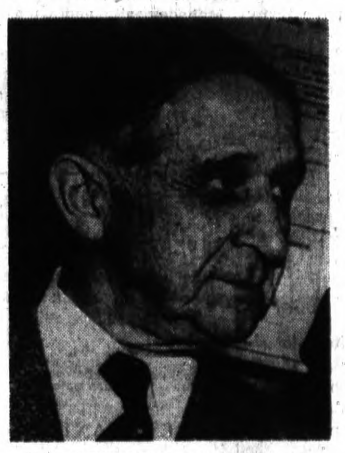

Barron said he had death certificates dating back several years and that, in one year, six or seven inmates died within an eight-day period. He said their cause of death was given as organic heart disease, but there was nothing in their medical records to indicate heart trouble.

TOKYO (AP) — The Foreign Ministry said today the Soviet Union has failed to cooperate and respond to Japan's longstanding proposition for a peaceful settlement of the Vietnam conflict.

Ex-Rep. Dondero Dies at 84

George A. Dondero, a founder of the St. Lawrence Seaway and long-time Oakland County Republican congressman until his retirement in 1956, died last night in his Royal Oak home. He was 84.

GEORGE A. DONDERO

Cause of death was not immediately determined, but he had been in ill health since suffering a stroke two years ago.

★ ★ ★

Dondero authored the bill in the U.S. House of Representatives for the St. Lawrence Seaway and served as chairman of the House Public Works Committee. The committee fathers legislation on rivers and harbors, flood control, highways and public buildings and grounds.

'MR. REPUBLICAN'

Dondero, known by many as Mr. Oakland County Republican, served 24 years in the House and half a century in public office before retiring.

Dondero also was a noted authority on President Lincoln and was a close friend of the late Carl Sandburg, poet and the biographer of Lincoln.

Born and reared on a farm in Greenfield Township, now part of Detroit, Dondero was elected to Congress in 1932 and voluntarily retired in January 1957.

As a youngster, he attended a one-room school before moving to Royal Oak where his brother operated a hotel.

PRESIDENT OF CLASS

He graduated from Royal Oak High School in 1903, the president of a class of four. The school's name was later changed to Dondero High in his honor.

He taught in one-room schools in nearby Oxford and Big Beaver and attended night school at the Detroit College of Law, from which he graduated in 1910.

Dondero also served as the first mayor of Royal Oak, and held other positions in the community, from assistant prosecutor to village clerk, village assessor and member of the board of education.

Dondero fought for more than 20 years to open up the Midwest to international trade with the St. Lawrence Seaway, which provided a waterway for oceangoing vessels between the Great Lakes and the Atlantic.

SHIP CHANNEL

A ship channel in the seaway is named for him and for the late Sen. Alexander Wiley, R-Wis., who authored the bill in the Senate.

The bill for the St. Lawrence Seaway was passed in 1954, after opposition from what Dondero called "one of the most cleverly organized lobbies in history."

Lansing Adopts City Income Tax

LANSING (AP) — The Lansing City Council adopted a controversial city income tax Monday night, but a petition drive is expected to force the issue to a public referendum before the levy goes into effect July 1.

The Lansing Junior Chamber of Commerce announced immediately after the meeting that they would spearhead a petition drive.

The council approved the tax by a 5-3 vote. It calls for a one per cent tax on residents and one-half per cent on nonresidents who work in Lansing.

The proposal carried two companion resolutions calling for a $6 per $1,000 of assessed valuation reduction in property taxes and committment of 35 per cent of all income tax revenue to capital improvements.

★ ★ ★

The income tax, long a smoldering issue in the politically conscious state capital, was vetoed by Mayor Max Murninghan following a 4-4 council vote Nov. 6. At the time, Murninghan said he favored the tax but wanted council majority support for passage.

Winds, Light Rain Lift Area Fog

Light rain and northeasterly winds early last night raised the fog which has played havoc with traffic since creeping into the area Saturday night.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. Weather Bureau forecasts mostly sunny and colder late this afternoon, and fair and colder tonight with a low of 18 to 24.

Tomorrow's outlook is a bright sunny day and not so cold. The mercury is expected to dip again Thursday and there's a chance of snow flurries.

Morning winds northeasterly to east at 10 to 20 miles per hour will become light easterly tonight.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: today 10, tonight near zero and tomorrow 10.

The low temperature in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. was a brisk 31. By 12:30 p.m. the recording was 37.

Romeo District Votes No on Tax

Romeo voters sent their school district's millage request down to a resounding defeat yesterday. It was the second time the issue had failed.

An unofficial tabulation showed results of the vote to be 683 yes and 1,045 no.

At stake was approval of a request for eight mills — three renewal and five new—for five years for operating expenses.

Voters in precinct 1 (Bruce Township) rejected the proposed increase by nearly a 2-to-1 margin, with 165 voting yes and 319 no.

★ ★ ★

In precinct 2 (Washington Township), the vote was more even, 518 for approval and 726 against.

FACES DEFICIT

Supt. of Schools T. C. Filppula had said earlier that the district faces a $65,000 deficit by the end of this school year and that cuts in many areas would be necessitated if the millage proposal failed to pass.

★ ★ ★

Board member Walter W. Sewell called yesterday's vote a "general taxpayer revolt." Sewell added, "taxpayers are paying more money in many areas, and the only way they can get a voice is in school elections."

The same millage request failed in November by seven votes.

DURWARD VARNER

The members of the executive committee of the Oakland University Foundation and some of the key administrative officers of OU met yesterday in Lansing with Gov. George Romney, Lt. Gov. William Milliken, and other members of the governor's staff to discuss the serious implications of the governor's recent budget message.

The governor's recommendations singled OU out as the only institution in the state to receive an actual net reduction in the per-student level of support.

"It is quite obvious to those of us associated with OU that there are strong policy implications in the governor's budget recommendation," Chancellor Durward Varner said.

"We pointed out to Gov. Romney and his staff that the program which has been developing for almost 10 years can no longer be sustained with the level of support being recommended. Therefore the central issue revolves around the appropriate role for OU in Michigan's system of higher education.

"Gov. Romney, who was generous in his comments about OU's growth, development and educational stance, agreed that this was a policy rather than a fiscal question and that the matter warranted further consideration," Varner said.

THOSE ATTENDING LISTED

Those attending from OU were Harold A. Fitzgerald, president of the OU Foundation, and Mrs. William Gossett, L. C. Goad, Theodore Yntema, Marvin Katke, and Norman Weston, all members of the Oakland University Foundation Executive Committee.

From OU in addition to Chancellor Varner were Provost Donald O'Dowd; Robert W. Swanson, director of business affairs; and Mrs. June Bennett, director of community relations.

NY Fires Kill 6, Hurt 11

NEW YORK (AP) — Six persons died and 11 were injured in overnight fires which flashed through the top floors of a Lower East Side tenement and a brick row house in the Park Slope section of Brooklyn.

LBJ Budget Stirs Warnings of Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's record $186.1-billion budget generated immediate congressional warnings that spending must be slashed before the administration's 10 per cent income tax surcharge will be considered.

But while calling for cuts, members of the Senate and House seemed likely to oppose trimming expenses along those lines suggested by Johnson.

Since the general outlines of the budget had been known, Congress wasn't surprised when the formal message submitted Monday called for a $10.4-billion spending increase.

The budget also included a built-in 8-billion deficit—down from this fiscal year's $19.8-billion red ink forecast but certain to go higher if the tax hike isn't approved.

CUT STRESSED

Most Republicans, while not slamming the door on the possibility of a tax increase, continued to put heavy emphasis on chopping spending before—or even instead of—asking taxpayers for further sacrifices.

Terming the budget "unbelievable," House Republican leader Gerald R. Ford said it contains no belt-tightening of "the kind we need to avoid a tax increase."

★ ★ ★

The Democrat with most to say about the tax increase, Chairman Wilbur D. Mills of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, kept his counsel for the present. Interviewed in his Arkansas district, Mills said he would have more to say when he has studied the budget.

When his committee last week shelved the income tax surcharge proposal for the third time, Mills told administration witnesses he thought they could do a bit better at budget cutting.

ASKS CUTS

"I have no doubt Congress can and will make meaningful reductions," said Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., of the House Appropriations Committee.

Mahon, who helped steer through a mandatory spending cut last year, said he thinks Congress was right not to raise taxes then. But he added that now "we must provide additional revenue—there is no doubt about that in my mind."

Ev, Mansfield Split on Pueblo

Reflects Restiveness Over U. S. Course

WASHINGTON (AP) — Conflicting views by Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield and his Republican counterpart, Everett M. Dirksen, sum up the sharp congressional split over what course the United States should chart in seeking to retrieve the USS Pueblo and her crew from North Korea.

"We must avoid a bloodbath such as we have in Vietnam," Mansfield said yesterday.

Dirksen declared: "We can't take this lying down."

Other reaction reflected growing restiveness in Congress over the failure to gain through diplomatic channels the release of the Navy intelligence ship and her 83-man crew.

★ ★ ★

The U.N. Security Council canceled indefinitely its meetings on the Pueblo crisis amid signs that private talks were't getting anywhere.

ON OTHER FRONTS

But White House press secretary George Christian said diplomatic activity would continue on other fronts to solve the dispute peacefully.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, cautioned in a separate interview against any move to bring on a new war, maintaining "we can't afford to have a war on two fronts in Asia."

Republican Sens. Robert P. Griffin of Michigan and Karl B. Mundt of South Dakota urged inquiries into such matters as military command procedures used after the capture and why the ship did not have protection.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., a member of both the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees, said the United States doesn't have the man and equipment to invade North Korea and such an invasion might require use of tactical nuclear weapons.

Nixon Aide Says N.H. Verdict Near

NEW YORK (AP) — An aide to Richard M. Nixon says the former vice president will have a statement Thursday about whether he will enter the New Hampshire Republican presidential primary.

There's every indication the answer will be yes.

Nixon still insisted yesterday he hasn't made the final decision, but there were these facts to consider:

- He plans a news conference Friday in Manchester, N.H., a locale which he conceded is "significant." The deadline for entering the New Hampshire first-in-the-nation primary is Wednesday, but a condidate can be nominated without his consent, and has until Feb. 10 to withdraw.
- Nixon-for-President headquarters in Washington issued a list of campaign chairmen in 20 states and the District of Columbia.
- A campaign office has been opened in New York's Fifth Avenue, with a busy full-time staff of Nixon aides — but no name on the door yet.
- Nixon has said repeatedly he must win primaries to erase the loser image he might have acquired from defeats for the presidency in 1960 and for governor of California in 1962.
- The Nixon organization in New Hampshire, active for months under State Rep. David Sterling, has said it expects Nixon to make his first campaign appearance in that state on Saturday.

Gov. George Romney of Michigan is the only other major candidate expected to be on the ballot in the New Hampshire primary. Romney has said he believes the GOP race is between himself and Nixon.

Romney aides have expressed concern over a possible write-in vote in New Hampshire for Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York.

Inkster Voters Nix School Tax

INKSTER (UPI) — Voters in this Detroit area community rejected a 10-mill school tax yesterday, and School Supt. Dr. Edward Forte reaffirmed his decision to shut down the district's schools Feb. 2.

The vote on the millage, which would have given Inkster one of the highest tax bases in Michigan, was 749 no and 546 yes.

Earlier, Forte said he would close school doors because of a shortage of payroll funds.

He appealed to the State Legislature to allot more funds to the district but lawmakers have as yet made no move.

There are 5,000 students in the Inkster district.

Area Man, 46, Dies of Auto Crash Injuries

A Waterford Township man died last night at Pontiac General Hospital of injuries suffered in a head-on collision in Pontiac more than two weeks ago.

The victim, Martin E. Hurst, 46, of 5801 Cambrook, was a passenger in a car driven by his wife, Mary Lou, 40.

Police said that the Hurst car crossed the center line on West Walton near New York and collided with an auto driven by Esther Rice, 48, of 249 Chamberlain. The accident occurred Jan. 13 at 11:30 p.m.

SAFE IN LAW'S ARMS — Charles Doerr, 2, a paraplegic victim of cerebral palsy, is comforted by Ray Gies, a Denver policeman, after the boy was taken hostage by a gunman fleeing an attempted holdup of a supermarket. The youngster was one of seven hostages forced to accompany the gunman on a 250-mile chase across eastern Colorado yesterday.

Gunman, Out of Gas, Gives Up at Denver

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Threatening death to seven hostages—"I'll shoot them one at a time if I have to"—a frustrated bandit led officers on an all-day, 250-mile chase Monday, then surrendered to a captive police sergeant when his commandeered hospital van ran out of gasoline.

★ ★ ★

Daniel Williams, 26, of Denver was jailed for investigation of armed robbery, kidnaping and assault with a deadly weapon. His roommate, Louis Maple, 23, was arrested at the scene of a bungled northeast Denver supermarket holdup that launched the drama. He was held for investigation of armed robbery.

Store employes were getting ready to open when the two gunmen slipped in behind a delivery man. They ordered everyone into the basement but one employe slipped away and signaled their predicament to two passing girls who notified police.

★ ★ ★

One gunman got the drop on Denver police Sgt. Lawrence P. Morahan and forced the officer to drive him away along with three other men in a police cruiser. Twice during the subsequent chase the gunman switched vehicles, ending up in the hospital van.

SEVEN-HOUR JUNKET

By the time the gunman and his captive band made their winding seven-hour tour of the eastern Colorado plains, two of the hostages had been wounded, three had been released and the rest of the party was within four miles of the supermarket where it all started.

Neither of the two shooting victims was injured seriously. One was released shortly after the shooting and taken by helicopter to a hospital. The other was among the four persons still in the van when Williams surrendered.

★ ★ ★

In the end, it appeared to be the constant pleading for surrender by Sgt. Morahan, a 46-year-old father of eight, and pursuing officers' strategy of waiting it out that brought the ordeal to a halt.

"He kept on him all the way down to give up," said Andy Anderson, 29, the market's meat department manager, who suffered a slight leg wound.

Finally, that's how it happened.

RAN OUT OF GAS

"We ran out of gas," said Morahan, a 20-year veteran with the police force. "I was hoping we would run out sooner. I didn't want to get into a populated area."

More than 60 carloads of police, held at bay by the man's repeated threats to shoot his hostages, waited momentarily.

★ ★ ★

"He told me to tell the officers to stand back," Morahan said. "And he stopped momentarily and then he says, 'Tell 'em to come here' and he touched my shoulder and I looked around and he turned the guns over to me."

The man had been armed with a 45-caliber pistol and Morahan's 38-caliber service revolver.

UAW, GM Gain Accord at Third Plant

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors and the United Auto Workers bargainers reached an agreement today on a new local contract for GM's Tonawanda, N.Y., foundry, pointing towards the end of layoffs that threatened to cripple the giant automaker.

★ ★ ★

Some 2,300 union members walked off their jobs at the foundry Jan. 19 in a dispute over the union's demand for six minutes of company-paid wash-up time before lunch.

The settlement was announced at 3:45 a.m. today after a marathon bargaining session begun at 1 p.m. yesterday.

The walkout was one of three foundry strikes that idled 117,900 General Motors workers, including 106,700 laid off by resulting parts shortages.

SETTLED ON SUNDAY

The other strikes, at foundries in Saginaw, Mich, and Defiance, Ohio, were settled Sunday.

Sources close to the bargaining said the Tonawanda settlement included provisions for three minutes of company-paid wash-up time, as did the Saginaw and Defiance pacts.

Details of the settlement were withheld pending a ratification vote yet to be scheduled.

News Briefs off Our Wires

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Security Council members met privately today on the Korean crisis as council action was blocked by a U.S.-Communist deadlock over an invitation for North Korea to participate in the council debate.

Diplomatic sources said the United States refused to go along with a Soviet suggestion that North Korea be invited to the council table unconditionally. The United States said it would agree to an invitation only if North Korea released the captured U.S. spy ship Pueblo and its 83 crewmen, the sources said.

Subs Hunted

TOULON, France (AP) — From helicopters, planes and ships searchers scanned the Mediterranean again today for a French submarine missing with 52 men aboard and an Israeli sub lost with its crew of 69. But hope of finding either one diminished.

Sonar echoes picked up around Porquerolles Island, southeast of Toulon, quickened the search for the 800-ton French sub Minerve which disappeared Saturday night after a drill in that area. But further checks produced no trace of the underwater craft.

Israeli officials said the search for their missnig sub, the Dakar, "will go on until we find something."

Book Store Probe

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said yesterday he is interested in pursuing a Michigan State University professor's request for an investigation of possible violation of antitrust laws by book stores in East Lansing.

Kelley added, however, that he now has neither the staff or funds to delve into "the promising preliminary clues" mentioned to him by Dr. Walter Adams, MSU economics professor.

Fair Housing Up for Final Vote Tonight

Pontiac's open-housing ordinance will be up for final approval tonight at 8 at the City Commission's regular weekly meeting at City Hall.

The ordinance received preliminary approval on a 4-3 vote last week.

Also scheduled for consideration tonight is an amendment to the ordinance proposed by District 7 Commissioner James H. Marshall.

Marshall has proposed an amendment that would exclude certain types of housing, such as duplex dwellings and three-apartment dwellings, from provisions of the ordinance.

In other business tonight, the commission is to receive a report on the status of the litigation regarding the city's income tax.

The commission also will consider bids for construction of water mains, sanitary sewers and storm sewers in the city's projected industrial park.

An advisory committee has recommended that the bids be turned down.

Hearing Slated March 4 on Vacating Abbey Road

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission last night set March 4 as the date for a public hearing on the proposed vacating of Abbey Road south of Wimbleton.

City Manager Robert S. Kenning had recommended that the request be denied, on the grounds that the vacating would leave the city's 17-acre Poppleton Park, located south of Wimbleton between Hunter and Oxford, without a convenient access route.

The commission also adopted a program calling for residents-only use of the city's two golf courses, Lincoln Hills and Springdale.

Parks and Recreation Director Darrel C. Middlewood had recommended that the course be opened to nonresidents on weekdays to bring in added revenue. Income from the courses in 1967 was about $98,000, expenses about $128,000.

★ ★ ★

In his report to the commission, Middlewood said, "It is the opinion of the department of parks and recreation that a substantial deficit will result if the present policy of restricting the use of the courses for residents and guests only is continued, and that additional promotion, paid advertising and normal growth will not substantially offset this deficit."

OTHER MEASURES

In light of the commission's decision, however, Middlewood said that such measures as allowing additional league play on the courses and allowing service clubs or other organizations to lease them for fund-raising affairs, would be considered.

★ ★ ★

The plan approved by the commission call for senior and youth memberships to be available to the regular membership rate of $2. Season and family memberships, however, are not planned.

Green fees will be maintained at the present level of $2 per round at Lincoln Hills and $1.75 at Springdale.

Rep. Dondero Is Eulogized

Congressman William Broomfield of Royal Oak today paid tribute to the late George A. Dondero, whom he succeeded in the House as the U.S. Representative from the 18th District.

On learning of the death of Dondero yesterday, Broomfield said:

"Oakland County has lost a true pioneer, a dedicated statesman and one of the finest gentlemen I have known.

"The world will remember him for his long record of achievement in the House of Representatives, perhaps most of all for his leadership in the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

★ ★ ★

"But I will always remember George Dondero as a fine gentleman, a staunch defender of Constitution and Free enterprise system, and one of the best liked men in Congress.

INSPIRATION

"He was always the first to come to the defense of the dignity and decorum of the House of Representatives, an institution he loved with all his heart. It has been an inspiration and a great challenge to follow in the foot steps of such a man."

★ ★ ★

Dondero served from the 73rd Congress through the 84th, retiring from public life in 1956 to enter private law practice in Royal Oak. Broomfield took office in February 1957.

Egypt, Israel Duel

By United Press International

Israeli planes attacked the town of Ismailia on the west bank of the Suez Canal today and Egyptian and Israeli artillery dueled across the waterway, an Egyptian spokesman in Cairo reported.

The clash was triggered by Egypt's defiance of an Israeli warning not to send ships into the northern section of the canal.

GM Workers Are Returning to City Plants

Workers in Pontiac General Motors plants idled by a parts shortage were being called back to the job today as the last of three foundry strikes was settled. Some 6,000 workers were off the job in Pontiac yesterday.

Settlement was announced at the plant in Tonawanda, N.Y., and previous agreements were reached at Saginaw and Defiance, Ohio.

At Pontiac Motor Division, where 5,000 were idled, Department 975 in the engine plant was back at work today.

The management announced that tomorrow most other employes will return to their jobs. Included in this group will be all production, sanitation, material and reliability employes of plants 1, 9 and 18. They are requested by Pontiac management to return to work at their regular starting times tomorrow.

A spokesman also said all skilled and nonskilled employes of Department 26 and 28 should report to their regular work stations tomorrow. All other employes are to be notified at a later date when to report back.

Management and union negotiators are still working on a local contract agreement. Contracts have been approved at General Motors Truck and Coach Division and the Fisher Body plant.

Long-Time County Congressman Dies

He said, when the seaway was opened in 1959, that "special interests involving rail and inland water transportation and Atlantic and Gulf seaport trade was successful in defeating for many years what they imagined would be strong competition."

★ ★ ★

Dondero called the seaway the "master project of the North American continent."

ON HISTORICAL BOARDS

He served on many historical boards and was elected recently to his twelfth term as president of the Abraham Lincoln Civil War Roundtable.

In 1959, he was presented a certificate of honorary membership by the Lincoln Sesquicentennial Commission for his work as an historian of Lincoln.

Among Dondero's possessions is the original letter written Oct. 15, 1860 by an 11-year-old girl, which was said to have made Lincoln decide to grow a beard. Dondero got the letter from Mrs. Robert Todd Lincoln, widow of the President's son.

Dondero's wife died Aug. 23, 1966. A son, Stanton Dondero, who was a circuit court judge, died 2½ years ago.

Survivors include another son, Robert Lincoln Dondero of Royal Oak; a daughter, Mrs. Marion Wilson of Grand Blanc, Mich.; nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Sullivan and Sons Funeral Home in Royal Oak.

Action on Rezoning for Development Is Tabled

To the dismay of developer Donald White, action on a rezoning request for apartment units and a shopping complex at Dixie and Midland was tabled for two weeks by the Waterford Township Board last night.

To assure that proper procedure is followed, the board voted to introduce the zoning change proposal at next Monday's meeting and to take action the following week.

White and his attorney urged the board to decide the matter last night despite a tabling request by an attorney representing developer Aben Johnson.

"It's now gone into 11 months," said White. "I don't see any reason why it should be postponed week after week after week."

★ ★ ★

The lengthy delay had been ascribed, in particular, to disagreement between White and Johnson concerning a road easement from Johnson's proposed single-family residential development through White's property.

EASEMENT GRANT

White reportedly now has offered Johnson an easement grant. Johnson's attorney wants time to review the proposed right-of-way.

Democratic Trustee Robert E. Richmond questioned whether "there was ever a legal first notice given," prompting the board to decide to introduce the request next Monday.

White's proposed 32-acre development includes 21 acres for eventual apartment construction. Fifty apartment units would be built in the near future.

Ultimately, 186 apartment units would be constructed on the site. The proposed development is situated adjacent to the Drayton Shopping Center.

SEVERAL PROTESTS

Several residents have protested against the rezoning request.

Three other rezoning requests, introduced last night, will be up for action at next Monday's board meeting.

They are:

- A request to rezone property on M59 near Whittier from single-family residential (R1A) to restricted office (RO1) for an office building.
- A request to rezone property on Scott Lake Road at Alliance from general industrial (M2) to R1A for a church.
- A request to rezone property on Telegraph at Premont from local business (C1) to general business (C2) to eliminate restricted zoning.

Tax Protesters Join to Battle Assessments

An association has been formed in Waterford Township to protest what the group's leaders call "high taxes."

Leaders of the Waterford Taxpayers' Association feel that several property owners in the community are illegally being required to pay more than their share of local taxes because of what they refer to as "the non-uniform assessment of all properties."

The group hopes to carry the fight to the township's Board of Tax Review and to the State Tax Commission, through legal counsel, in an effort to reduce property taxes.

A minimum donation of $5 is requested from persons interested in joining the cause.

★ ★ ★

Apparently gaining momentum, the drive is aimed at seeing that taxpayers are legally assessed, or treated fairly and can be heard regarding local government expenditures.

Contributions also will be used for lawyer fees.

Association President Donald Gardner of 3325 Whitfield said that public meetings will be held "to keep everyone informed of the progress of the association."

Gardner said representatives of 26 subdivision associations have been contacted and have indicated an interest in the movement.

★ ★ ★

The association's first public meeting, held Jan. 22, drew more than 200 persons, according to Gardner.

OFFICERS

Other officers of the group are Donald Kratt, vice president, and Mary Stoughton, treasurer.

The board of directors also includes Dr. William Crommett, Art Crebassa, Clair Kelley and Bud Chambers.

TV Gag Line Is No Joke to 'Rescuers'

NEW YORK (AP) — A gag line on an NBC television comedy show Monday night didn't seem so funny to some people, and in a couple of instances the cops had to get into the act.

On the network program, "Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In," viewers have been accustomed to see terse, humorous messages flash across the bottom of the screen.

★ ★ ★

On this occasion came the line: "Help, help, I'm being held prisoner in the newsroom."

Police in Alexandria, Minn., received a telephone call from a lady in nearby Glenwood who had been watching the program via KCMT-TV and had become concerned. Two patrolmen were to the station's newsroom but all was well.

PATROLMAN DISPATCHED

Another woman at Little Rock, Ark., also took the joke seriously. Police, acting on her call, dispatched a patrolman to the KARK-TV newsroom. No one needed help.

At NBC headquarters in New York, a spokesman said the line occasioned "a number of calls."

★ ★ ★

The spokesman stressed that such underlines on the TV screen "normally are used strictly as an NBC news function."

Local Diver Looking Toward Olympics

Micki's Future Speckled With Gold, Silver and Bronze

BY JERE CRAIG

Maxine J. (Micki) King's future appears rosy. It is also blue, tinged with maize and very likely speckled with gold, silver and bronze.

The blue is United States Air Force basic issue since she is Second Lieutenant Micki King in the second year of a four-year tour of duty.

The duty presently is a rather "artificial situation" in the words of the shapely 23-year-old administrative officer who spends approximately five of her eight working hours in the swimming pool at the University of Michigan.

Hence the tinge of maize in the future of the blonde 1966 University of Michigan graduate.

The gold, silver and bronze understandably represent the medals she will be competing for not only at this April's National Amateur Athletic Union Women's Indoor Diving championships at the University of Pittsburgh, but hopefully at the 1968 summer Olympic Games in Mexico City.

Micki King currently is the top-ranked woman diver in the U.S.

FIRST PLACE VOTES

In the Associated Press' 1967 Woman Athlete of the Year balloting she finished eighth, earning four first-place votes. There were no other divers in the voting.

★ ★ ★

She was the only diver nominated in the AAU's prestigious balloting for the coveted Sullivan Award — emblematic of the outstanding male or female amateur athlete of the year. It has only been won by two women.

A 5-7, 130-pounder, the strong-willed charmer drew support by claiming championship gold medals on the one- and three-meter springboards at the Philadelphia national AAU Outdoor championships, on the Canadian National springboards and on the three-meter board in the Tokyo World Student Games.

In addition, Lt. King placed second in the women's diving at the Pan-American Games in Winnipeg.

Success has come slowly and not always steadily for the still quite-eligible Micki who admits to being too in love with the diving board to take the marital plunge yet.

She began diving at age 10 in the Pontiac YMCA pool. By 15 she was winning AAU age group events regularly. While a 16-year-old junior at Pontiac Central High School, she bid unsuccessfully for a berth in the Olympic Trials diving finals at Detroit in 1960.

But that gave her the encouragement she needed to make a concerted effort to improve herself. During her senior year at Central — despite being editor-in-chief of the school newspaper and an ardent follower and participant in most sports — she concentrated on her diving form.

"I could see what I wanted," she reveals. "Diving has kept me interested in competing beyond high school."

Life very definitely has been interesting for Micki — and her parents, the Leonard Kings, and younger sister Lorraine, who live at 19 Norton.

She suffered a jolt to her Olympic ambitions in 1964 at New York City when she tumbled from second to sixth place in the final three dives at the U.S. team trials and failed to make the squad.

★ ★ ★

But Micki's determination paid off the following year.

DRIVE FOR FUNDS

Her coach in high school, Ed Dauw, spearheaded a fund drive among Pontiac fans and friends of hers, and they provided the expense money to send her to California for the AAU Women's platform (10-meter tower) championships where she claimed her first national title.

Later that year at Toledo she captured her first national three-meter crown. She toured Europe with a U.S. team and took the Spanish national women's title at Madrid.

Although 1966 wasn't nearly as successful on the diving board, Micki did accomplish two things that were equally important: she gradauted from the U. of M. with a degree in physical education and received her commission in the Air Force.

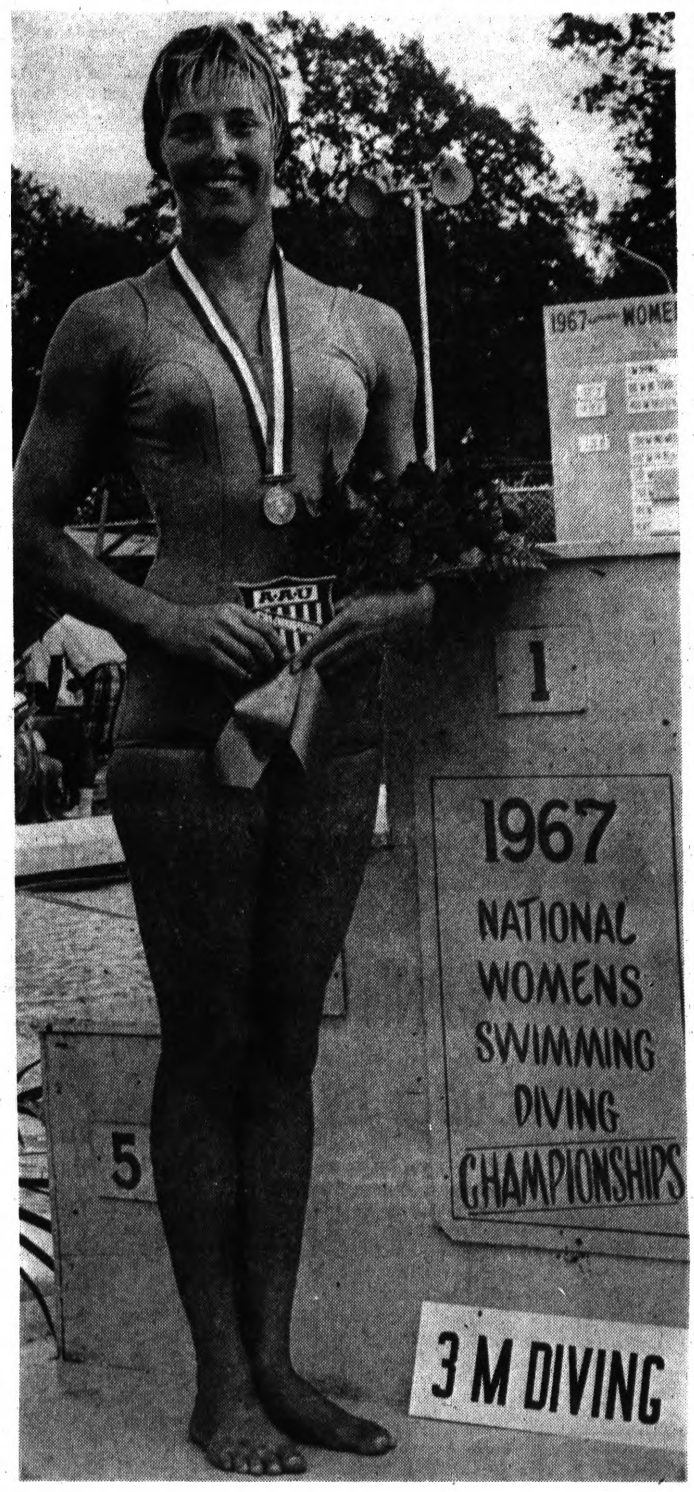

While the degree will prove valuable eventually when she retires from competition and expects to pursue a career in coaching and teaching, the USAF arrangement has been invaluable.

★ ★ ★

"I can still work, have a career; yet I'm able to continue my diving ambitions at the same time," she explains.

While serving under Lt. Richard Kimball as the administrative officer in the Reserve Officers Training Corps office on the U. of M. campus, she also trains ("the Air Force is encouraging my

KING OF THE DIVERS — Pontiac Central graduate Micki King, now living in Ann Arbor while on active duty in the U.S. Air Force, hopes to repeat her trip to the winners' stand at Amateur Athletic Union Women's Indoor Diving Championships this April at Pittsburgh and then carry her gold medal quest to Mexico City as a member of the U.S. Olympic team.

Physician Says Pulled Muscles Need Exercise

TORONTO (AP) — The team doctor for the Toronto Maple Leafs hockey team has some advice for professional coaches — send that player with pulled muscles back into action as soon as he can stand the pain.

★ ★ ★

Dr. N. Tait McPhedran said that if a player is kept out of a game for the usual convalescent period of four weeks, fibres in a pulled muscle shorten. The first time he plays again, the muscle injury recurs.

If the player keeps moving as soon after the injury as he can stand the pain, "he'll be back playing in a week to 10 days."

Dr. McPhedran was one of a dozen Toronto surgeons who spoke to the trauma committee of the American College of Surgeons.

Children, he said, should wear mouth guards for contact sports.

QB Cuozzo Goes to Vikings

THE PONTIAC PRESS
SPORTS
TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1968 C—1

Saints Receive Top Choices in 1968-69 Drafts

NEW YORK (AP) — The Minnesota Vikings have acquired an experienced quarterback and still retain the No. 1 choice in today's professional football draft.

The Vikings traded their regular first round pick in the 1968 and 1969 drafts to New Orleans Monday for quarterback Gary Guozzo, but still retain the special No. 1 pick they acquired last year in the trade that sent quarterback Fran Tarkenton to the New York Giants.

With Cuozzo joining Joe Knapp, Ron Vanderkelen and Bob Berry, Minnesota has four quarterbacks and that means the Vikings could decide to bypass UCLA's Gary Beban, the Heisman Trophy winning passer, in today's draft.

The Vikings' top prospects then would seem to be Notre Dame's Kevin Hardy, a 270-pound defensive tackle, Syracuse's Larry Csonka, a tough running fullback, and Ron Yary of Southern California, an offensive tackle.

SECOND TIME

It was the second straight year that Guozzo has been traded for a high draft choice.

Last year, he was swapped to the Saints by Baltimore for the No. 1 pick in the draft. The Colts used the choice to select defensive lineman Bubba Smith of Michigan State.

Monday's Cuozzo trade could be the first of many for the pro teams.

Several players including Los Angeles' Bill Munson, Cleveland's Leroy Kelly, and San Francisco's George Mira played out their options last season and could be dealt in last minute pre-draft moves.

Last year there were several draft-day trades, the most noteworthy the one sending quarterback Daryle Lamonica to Oakland. Lamonica led the American Football League's passers and was named the Most Valuable Player.

★ ★ ★

After Minnesota makes its initial pick, the new Cincinnati Bengals choose the first of 42 players they will select.

The Bengals, who begin playing in the AFL next season, will draft first and last in each round and get an extra choice in the second, third and fourth rounds as well as all AFL selections except Miami's in the sixth round.

Adolph Rupp Gains Winningest Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Elvin Hayes, Pete Maravich and four of the nation's Top Ten college basketball teams sparkled on the court Monday night, but the biggest star was Kentucky Coach Adolph Rupp, the best benchwarmer in the business.

"This means a lot to me," the Baron said after his 10th ranked Wildcats diverted Mississippi 85-76 for his 772nd career coaching victory, more than any other college coach in history. "I really feel great."

"I was a little tense when the game started, but then it was just like all the rest," said the 68-year-old Rupp, who from his seat on the sidelines has masterminded Kentucky's nationally prominent fortunes for the past 30 years.

The triumph at Oxford also kept Kentucky in the thick of the glowing Southeast Conference race with a 6-3 record and 12-4 over-all. Three of its competitors, two in the Top Ten, also won.

Tennessee, 7-1 and 13-2 and ranked sixth, overcame Mississippi State 65-57 at Starkville; Vanderbilt, 6-3 and 14-3 and ranked seventh, turned away Louisiana State 99-91 at Baton Rouge despite 54 points by Maravich, and Florida, 9-3 and 12-6, held off Auburn 65-60 at Gainesville.

SEASON HIGH

Top-rated Houston, the only other ranked team in action, easily handled visiting Fairfield, Conn., 108-76, as Hayes hit a season high 48 points.

In two other games involving top conference races, Kansas State dropped into a tie for first in the Big Eight with Iowa State by losing at Oklahoma 73-62 and Missouri Valley Conference leading Drake 5-1 and 14-2 trimmed visiting Tulsa 63-58 in overtime.

Kentucky had its trouble against Ole Miss and needed six free throws in the last minute to protect a 75-74 lead. Mike Casey led the Wildcats with 24 points and Ken Turner had 26 for the Rebels.

Rupp, grinning broadly, was given a standing ovation by the Mississippi crowd and Rebel Coach Eddie Crawford presented him with the game ball.

The victory put Rupp one up on retired Kansas Coach Phog Allen, for whom Rupp played in college.

★ ★ ★

Tennessee, trailing 26-23 at the half, scored the first four points after the break and was never headed as Tom Boerwinkle and Tom Hendrix split 34 points.

Vanderbilt used a trio of Bo Wyenandt, 25 points, Tom Hagan, 24, and Kenny Campbell, 21, to overcome the one-man show by Maravich, the nation's major college scoring leader who was in bed under medication all day fololwing a 104-degree fever Sunday.

The loss dropped LSU, 5-3 and 10-5, from third to sixth in the SEC.

STRONGER HOLD

Unranked Florida strengthened its second-place hold in the SEC with a 65-60 decision over Auburn despite missing highscoring, high-rebounding Neal Walk for 16 minutes because of foul trouble.

New AL Franchises to Stock Teams in Slated October Draft

NEW YORK (AP) — Each of the American League's existing 10 teams will lose six players in the expansion draft to stock the new Kansas City and Seattle baseball franchises which begin play in 1969.

According to the expansion plan released Monday by Joe Cronin, president of the American League, each team will protect 15 players on a 40-man roster.

Kansas City and Seattle will pick a total of 30 players with the old teams protecting three more players each time they lose one.

That means the established teams will lose their No. 16, No. 20, No. 24, No. 28, No. 32 and No. 36 players.

The teams must submit their player lists to Cronin no later than 48 hours after the conclusion of the 1968 World Series. The draft will be held October 15, presumably in Boston, headquarters of the American League.

Mark Howe on Target

PORT HURON (AP) — Mark Howe scored three goals and picked up an assist when Detroit blanked London, Ont., 7-0 Monday in opening play of the sixth annual North American Silver Sticks Hockey Championships.

The week-long competition includes 63 teams from Canada and the United States. Mark is the son of Gordie Howe, great right winger with the Detroit Red Wings of the National Hockey League.

LONG STANDING SUPPORT — Kentucky coach Adolph Rupp offers verbal support to the nationally ranked Wildcats who defeated Mississippi 85-76 last night thus giving the veteran coach his 772nd college victory. This makes him the winningest coach in college basketball history with 38 years at Kentucky.

Lombardi to Hold Rare News Confab Amid Speculation

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Vince Lombardi, Green Bay Packer coach and general manager, the most consistently successful coach in National Football League history, has called a rare postseason news conference—feeding speculation he may step down as coach.

Lombardi, whose nine-year reign in Packerland was climaxed recently by an unprecedented third straight NFL title and a second Super Bowl victory, invited the press and the Packer board of directors to a Thursday night dinner.

The Brooklyn-born football genius has been saying for years that the work of coach and general manager is too much. And, it was considered unlikely he would call the postseason session merely to announce his position in Green Bay would go unchanged.

The most persistent rumor has been that Lombardi will not coach the pro football champions in 1968. Speculation has it that he plans to turn over the coaching duties to long-time assistant Phil Bengtson, the defensive coach, and stay on as general manager.

Hickok Belt to Bosox Ace

'Yaz' Throws Robinson Curve

BY MILTON RICHMAN

NEW YORK (UPI)—Carl Yastrzemski, proud new owner of that gold, diamond-studded $10,000 belt, doesn't want to fight with anyone, but . . .

Frank Robinson started first.

"This is positively the last thing I'm gonna say on the subject," insists Yaz, "but I've got one question I'd like to ask Frank Robinson: when I was hitting .316 the last two days of the season and he was hitting .313, what was he doing sitting on the bench?"

In case Robinson doesn't recognize that, it was a curve. Low and away.

Yaz served it up Monday after receiving the S. Rae Hickok belt which is awarded annually in Rochester to the Professional Athlete of the Year. Robinson won the same belt a year ago after he picked up the Triple Crown for Baltimore and Yastrzemski took over all three titles with Boston the past season.

FEUD STARTS

The fuss between the two Triple Crown winners was kicked up by Robinson in statements he made about the Boston left fielder to a Baltimore newspaper.

Yastrzemski read Robinson's statements on a plane trip between Minneapolis and Washington.

"He said I wasn't that good," says Yaz. "He also said the Red Sox were lucky and we'd finish sixth or seventh this year. I have no idea why he said what he did. But it really doesn't matter. I've never spoken with the man before and I don't intend to say anything to him when I see him.

"I'm not gonna get into any controversy with Frank Robinson. I've got more important things to do. Whether I hit .260 or .270 next season doesn't matter so much to me, as long as we win again."

★ ★ ★

There is evidence that Robinson's remarks do matter to Yastrzemski.

As recently as Sunday night here in New York when he got up at the Baseball Writers' dinner to accept two other awards, Yaz thanked everyone, including "Frank Robinson, vice president of my fan club."

AP Wirephoto

NEW VIKING — Quarterback Gary Cuozzo was obtained yesterday by the Minnesota Vikings by giving up two top draft choices to the New Orleans Saints. The Saints will thus have the Vikings' No. 1 choice in today's player draft.

Carl added, laughingly, that White Sox manager Eddie Stanky is the president of the club. That was an obvious reference to Stanky's statement last summer when he called Yastrzemski "an All-Star from the neck down."

There is no animosity between these two, however.

GOOD FRIENDS

"We're good friends," says Yaz. "We put a lotta people in the ballparks and Eddie is like me. He loves the game and wants to win all the time. I like him. He met my father and mother one day last summer and talked Polish with them. Eddie Stanky is all right."

★ ★ ★

The White Sox manager causes Yaz to laugh at himself; Robinson doesn't.

Yastrzemski thinks he's "an outstanding ballplayer" but he's not particularly crazy about his opinions.

On the other hand, Frank Lane, Baltimore's super scout, sees nothing so wrong in what Robinson said.

"It's controversial, isn't it? That's great," declares Lane. "This is what baseball needs. More controversy. I think it's wonderful."

Starr to Try Acting

NEW YORK (AP) — Bart Starr, quarterback of the world champion Green Bay Packers, will make his acting debut in a cameo role on Gentle Ben, a Sunday night children's television show.

The program in which Starr appears will be filmed in April for showing during the 1968-69 television season.

OU Cagers Ranked in Small College Stats

Oakland University's basketball team may be near the bottom record-wise, but the Pioneers are making some noise in the national small college ranks.

OU ranks 12th in this week's NCAA small college team free throw statistics and center Tom Allan is 18th in rebounders.

The statistics don't include last week's contest with Grand Valley in which the Pioneers hit 80 per cent and Allan grabbed a school record 27 rebounds.

"Counting the Grand Valley game, we should be in the top 10 in free throws and Allan should be a couple of notches higher," said OU coach Dick Robinson as he prepared the Pioneers for tomorrow night's home game with Alma. Tipoff will be at 8 o'clock.

Officially, the Pioneers are averaging 75 per cent of their [illegible] tosses and the 6-7 Allan is average 18.9 rebounds.

Robinson will make two lineup changes for the Alma rematch.

STARTING GUARD

Freshman Glenn Beier will start at guard and Ozzie Carlson will open at forward. Carlson, however, will only play two or three minutes at a time. He is hampered by the effects of a long illness.

"When Ozzie is in there, we seem to go," said Robinson. "Then, when he comes out, we slack off."

Beier is getting a start because of improved scoring in recent games. He scored 23 against Grand Valley while playing slightly over half the game.

Robinson credited Beier with stabilizing the floor play that had turned over the ball 17 times in the first half without a shot. OU had only five turnovers in the second half.

* * *

Other starters will be Gordy Tebo at guard. Jon Blocher at forward and Allan.

Alma inflicted one of Oakland's 10 losses two weeks ago and is favored to make it two straight over the Pioneers who have won two.

Leader Upset in Township Hoop Action

The National League basketball race of the Waterford Township men's recreation basketball program tightened Monday night due to a resounding upset.

Lighthouse Lanes grabbed sole possession of third place with a thorough 69-47 victory over previously unbeaten O'Neil Realty as Stan Whitcomb hit 19 points and Mike Landsdorf 17.

A 29-18 field goal advantage made the difference. John Parks' 18 led O'Neil.

Runner-up Drayton Drugs moved within a game of the realtors by trimming Irwin Realty, 74-49. Four men were in double figures, topped by Mike Miley (19) and Art Stoddard (16).

The LLB's also used superior shooting from the field for a 55-44 win over the winless Huntoon Cougars. The lawyers made five more field goals in staying in the running for third place. Tim Dinan's 18 and Tom Wood's 16 led the scoring.

competiton") under her college coach Richard Kimball — no relation to her commander — daily with the Maize and Blue varsity swimmers.

While she lost her AAU National championships in 1966, she did register the first of her two straight Canadian national conquests and began travelling under the sponsorship of the Air Force.

"It's really a proud feeling to walk into an airport with a patch on, and since I've been in the Air Force I have felt it even more.

"Tokyo was the most inspiring trip. It seemed to be the way the people accepted us in Tokyo. We were treated as if it were another Olympics."

While the 1968 Olympics are her ultimate goal, Micki won't look past the AAU meet at Pittsburgh to the Olympic Trials at Long Beach next summer.

MUCH TO LEARN

Judging can be a problem since styles and mechanics differ. There are nine dives to learn for the tower, and 11 for the two springboards.

"I wouldn't change my pattern for anything," Micki emphasizes. "We're rated by personal opinion . . . the opinion of one individual. That's why they discard the highest and lowest score in rating each dive."

This appraoch has earned her gold medals internationally as well as nationally. The most coveted one — an Olympic gold medal — is now on the rosy horizon.

But the pretty, blue-uniformed Lt. King keeps reminding herself: "I've got to make that team before I can think about it."

Black Hawk Sidelined

CHICAGO (UPI)—Pat Stapleton, Chicago Black Hawk defenseman, will be sidelined for a week because of a broken frontal bone in his face and severe facial cuts suffered against Toronto Saturday night.

Purdue Soph Leads Victory

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Sophomore Rick Mount scored 37 points Monday night in pacing Purdue to a lopsided 105-79 basketball victory over Northern Michigan.

Mount ran up his total in a shooting duel with Ted Rose, 6-6 Northern Michigan soph from Louisville, Ky., against whom he played two years ago in the annual Indiana-Kentucky high school all-star series. Rose finished with 35 points and was the game's top rebounder with 14.

Northern Michigan sped to a 13-2 lead in the first five minutes, but the Boilermakers rallied for a 14-14 tie, took the lead at 18-16 and led at the half 46-34. In 2½ minutes of the second half they mounted a 56-36 lead and were never threatened afterward.

Andover Six Scores Loop Victory, 3-2

Bloomfield Hills Andover moved into a first place tie in the International Prep Hockey League Third Division by defeating Birmingham Country Day, 3-2, at the Detroit Olympia last night.

After spotting Country Day a 2-0 lead, Greg Eddy and Rick Gibout hit goals in the second period and then Eddy hit the clincher in the third period on an assist from Randy Marshall.

Andover's record is 6-6-3 tying Ann Arbor Huron for the lead in the division.

Uncertainty of Future

Stock Mart Drifts Aimlessly

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market drifted aimlessly early today, uncertain as to the future regarding the Pueblo crisis and the nation's fiscal policies.

A few more stocks fell than rose, but the list was virtually on an even keel.

★ ★ ★

The Dow Jones Industrial Average took a slight loss of .17 at 863.50.

The trendless pattern was established right from the opening.

GENERAL RULE

Fractional changes were the general rule. Among wider movers, Goodyear and Eastman Kodak advanced a point or so while Boeing and Raytheon dropped about 1 each.

The rise in weekly steel production to almost a three-year high left the major steel makers virtually unchanged.

★ ★ ★

Brilliant earnings reports by some of the big oil companies also had no apparent effect on their prices.

★ ★ ★

Among the early volume leaders, fractional losses were taken by McDonnell Douglas, Chesebrough-Pond's, Hess Oil, Brunswick, Scott Paper and Teledyne.

Up fractionally on volume Petroleum, Freeport Sulphur, Purex, Alleghany Corp., Chrysler and St. Regis Paper.

U.S. Treasury bonds showed no change in early dealings.

Opening blocks included:

American Motors, up ⅛ at 13½ on 12,000 shares; Freeport Sulphur, unchanged at 76 on 11,500; Standard Oil (New Jersey), up ⅛ at 69* on 6,400; Union Carbide (ex dividend), up ● at 46⅛ on 5,500; and American Cyanamid, unchanged at 25¼ on 5,000.

★ ★ ★

On Monday the Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose .4 to 315.6.
