Gun Went Off by Accident During Struggle—Finch

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The major mystery at the Finch murder trial — how Dr. R. Bernard Finch would explain his claim that he shot his wife in the back by accident—is a mystery no more.

It happened, his attorney says, when a gun the two were fighting over fired by mischance as the doctor tried to throw it out of harm's way.

The wealthy surgeon, on trial with his mistress, Carole Tregoff, was expected to tell full details of the death struggle with his socialite wife when he returned to the stand today.

"Doctor, did you, on the night of July 18, 1959, murder your wife?" his lawyer asked about a minute after the handsome, graying defendant took the stand for the first time Wednesday.

"Absolutely not," Finch answered firmly and clearly. "Or at any other time?" "No."

"Dr. Finch, did you at any time conspire, combine, confederate or agree or enter into any kind of conspiracy with Jack Cody, with Carole Tregoff or with any other living person to kill and murder your wife?"

"No, sir. I certainly did not."

Finch, 42, appeared calm and assured. The witness-stand microphone was shoved away from him.

Little did Hamlin know that a supposedly quiet night with his fellow Farmington Exchange Club members and their wives would turn into a 1½-hour spectacular with himself in the starring role.

Hamlin had just settled back after dinner at the Botsford Inn, awaiting an announced weekly club program, when Kenneth Loomis, local insurance man and Hamlin's best man at his wedding 35 years ago, stepped forward and hung up a sign reading: "This Is Your Life, Delos Hamlin."

Hamlin's immediate expression was one of great surprise, then one of "Who, me?" and finally one of "I'll get even with you rascals!" as he stroled smiling to the front of the room with his wife Mildred.

Television's Ralph Edwards could have learned some tricks from master of ceremonies Ed Connor, Detroit councilman and a long-time friend of Hamlin.

Indiana Group Buys Third of Baldwin Rubber

Brewery Firm Places Three on Local Board, Sees Good Investment

Announcement was made today by Harry M. Pryale, chairman of the Board of the Baldwin Rubber Company, of the accumulation of a substantial block of Baldwin stock by the Centlivre Brewing Corp., of Indianapolis, Ind.

"Centlivre interests have acquired something in excess of 30 per cent of our shares," stated Pryale to The Press, "and we are adding three members of their group to the Board of Directors."

"From a study of our position and activities, they believed that Baldwin Rubber Co. represented an unusually promising investment. The local management concurs in this estimate," Pryale said.

"Originally we added Herbert Stepi to our Board as the chief spokesman for Centlivre, and after the death of Harold Howlett, his vacancy was filled by J. J. Rochlin. In the meantime, A. C. Girard has resigned and his place will be taken by J. L. Reuss, president of Centlivre."

This leaves seven directors, four of whom are local men.

A part of the new arrangement was predicated upon the continuance of Harry M. Pryale as chairman of the Board, Milo D. McLintock as president and Paul C. Richardson as vice president and sales manager.

All three of these officers have signed long term contracts, guaranteeing a continuance of present policies and management activities.

Baldwin Rubber stock has experienced unusual activity recently and has risen sharply by virtue of the amount bought by these investors.

The defeated plan, by Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.), would have provided $1,100,000,000 a year indefinitely for those purposes.

Senate leaders expressed hope that action on the school aid proposals can be completed by tonight.

The Senate held its longest session of the year—12½ hours—on the education bill Wednesday but packed most of the excitement into the last hour.

In that period, after prolonged debate, the senators defeated Clark's proposal by a 44-44 tie vote.

Nixon could have broken this tie and put over the proposal, but did not do so presumably because he opposed it. The Eisenhower administration is heavily against any broad system of grants in this field.

But then the Democrats maneuvered quickly to get the vice president on record on the issue.

Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) one of Nixon's potential opponents in the 1960 presidential election, moved to reconsider the 44-44 vote in an effort to change the result.

Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) stepped in with a motion to table, and thus kill Johnson's proposal.

Dirksen's motion at first appeared lost on an almost identical 44-44 tally, but Nixon cast his vote in favor of it, tabling reconsideration 43-44. This laid the effect of killing any chance to revive Clark's amendment.

The Clark proposal won votes of 39 Democrats and 5 Republicans. It was opposed by 17 Democrats, mostly Southerners, and 21 Republicans.

"During the long day, the Senate defeated a number of plans offered as substitutes or amendments for the basic bill before it. That measure, by Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich.), would provide $20 million dollars a year for two years in grants to help with school construction. It remained unchanged as the Senate headed into today's session."

Dirksen told the Senate Wednesday night President Eisenhower was flatly opposed to any teacher salary aid.

Dirksen said he would offer some time today a new administration's education bill but it appeared to have little chance of success.

Under it, the federal government would undertake to pay over the next 30 years about $2,200,000,000 covering one-half of the principal interest charges on three billion dollars worth of school construction bonds to be issued in the next five years.

The railroads agreed yesterday to a proposal by the National Railroad Mediation Board that the carriers and union, locked in unsuccessful negotiations and mediation efforts since early last fall, submit their wage differences to an arbitration board.

A BLE spokesman in Cleveland said there were no strings attached to the decision by the 40-000-member union.

The Engineers' Union's action heralded a possible peaceful settlement of the entire railroad wage dispute, which involves four other operating unions (on-train employees) and 16 non-operating unions.

The engineers traditionally are the pace-setters in railway wage negotiations and their settlements with the carriers often form a pattern for the industry.

Mediation efforts broke off last week in a parallel wage dispute between the railroads and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

The mediation board has not yet proffered arbitration in that case. The Switchmen's Union of North America, the Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, together with the non-operating unions, also have been negotiating under mediators. The Switchmen's Union threatened an imminent break-off.

Broomfield told the Civil Aeronautics Board that Pontiac is the logical air center for half the Detroit Metropolitan Area. Birnkranz urged the CAB to grant Pontiac air service to Chicago as well as Cleveland and Pittsburgh. Broomfield points out the latter route on the map.

School Aid Bill Killed; Senators Eye 2nd One

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today takes up a new Democratic proposal to boost the size of the school aid bill after a dramatic night session in which Vice President Richard M. Nixon helped kill one such increase.

The newest proposal, by Sen. A. S. (Mike) Monroney (D-Okla.), would provide $80 million dollars a year for four years in federal grants for both school construction and teacher salary aid.

The defeated plan, by Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.), would have provided $1,100,000,000 a year indefinitely for those purposes.

Senate leaders expressed hope that action on the school aid proposals can be completed by tonight.

Plant Accidents Kill 2 Workers

Die in Freak Mishaps at Rochester Paper Co., and Oakland Foundry

Industrial accidents at two Rochester plants yesterday claimed the lives of two men, one from Pontiac, the other from Rochester.

The victims were Charley F. Harper Jr., 45, of 75 Branch St., Pontiac, and Frederick Michael Mull, 22, of 125 Albertson St., Rochester.

Harper was killed instantly when a furnace door fell on his back at the Oakland Foundry and Machine Co., 607 Woodward St. His body was almost severed when the door dropped spilling hot coals over him.

He leaves a wife and grown children.

Mull was working on the loading dock at the Rochester Paper Co. on Mill street. Suddenly the steel ramp between the dock and a New York Central boxcar slipped and a fork-lift truck fell off, pinning him underneath.

Unmarried, he lived at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Mull. Two sisters also survive.

Pontiac Sales 12 Pct. Over 1959 Period

Pontiac dealers in January delivered 38,511 new cars, with the daily selling rate for the last period in January showing a substantial increase over a like period in 1959. It was announced by S. E. Knudsen, GM vice president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division.

Despite the present shortage of steel that caused a six-week production shutdown, Pontiac retail sales for the 1960 model year, October through January, show more than a 15 per cent gain over the same period in 1959, Knudsen said.

The mediation board has not yet proffered arbitration in that case. The Switchmen's Union of North America, the Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, together with the non-operating unions, also have been negotiating under mediators. CAB Told Link to Cleveland Is 'Serious' Need

Senator Singles Out Local Requirements in Listing Michigan Hopes

Special to The Pontiac Press
WASHINGTON, D.C. — Sen. Philip A. Hart (D-Mich.) today threw his support behind Pontiac's bid for air service to industrial centers in Ohio.

"There is a serious need for Oakland County to be included in air service to Cleveland through Pontiac Municipal Airport," the Michigan senator told the Civil Aeronautics Board in Washington.

Hart's plea came during a half-hour address that otherwise was concerned with Michigan air needs in general.

Pausing to call attention specifically to Pontiac's request for local, direct service across Lake Erie, the former Birmingham resident said:

"I am not speaking simply because I'm a local boy in Oakland County, but because this request for service to Cleveland is serious and imperative."

A Pontiac delegation was ready to speak late today or early tomorrow, both for air service to Cleveland and to Chicago.

SID DAY OF HEARINGS

The CAB is in the third day of hearings on requests for more local air service in Michigan and the Great Lakes area.

Hart described the state's air needs as three-fold.

He told the hearing that "we need to get to the trunkline hubs" of Detroit, Chicago and Milwaukee.

He said also that the fact that Michigan consists of two peninsulas has surrounded by the Great Lakes makes surface transportation costly and makes "the need for air transportation even greater than it is in many other areas of the country."

In an initial decision, a CAB examiner recommended authorization of a new air service between Escanaba and Traverse City.

But Hart said this did not meet all of Michigan's needs.

Spokesmen for about 60 cities, state aviation departments and business interests will make their allotted 10-minute plea before the CAB finally takes the case under advisement late tomorrow, according to the timetable.

Examiner B. A. R. Fredricks spelled out his recommendations in an initial decision last Sept. 29.

Meetings Help Him Decide

Griffin Eyes Senate Race

Rep. Robert P. Griffin should know after eight Lincoln Day appearances—beginning with three in Pontiac Monday—what strength he could muster in a race for U.S. senator.

Observers of both parties feel that his jaunts around the state between this Saturday and Feb. 15 will provide the Republican congressman from Traverse City with the answer to the question he's been toying with the last three months.

Should he seek the Republican nomination to later oppose Democratic Sen. Patrick V. McNamara.

The handsome, young legislator, who since 1958 has been representing Michigan's 11-county Ninth District, has promised an answer this month.

Helping him with the decision will be some 600 Oakland County Republicans who will pack the Elks Temple in Pontiac Monday night to applaud Griffin, picked as the principal speaker at the 70th annual Lincoln Republican Club banquet. It begins at 6:30.

Honored in 1½-Hour Spectacular

Farmington Has a Ball—for Delos Hamlin

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Farmington did it up big last night for its favorite son, Delos Hamlin, a long-time leader in city and county government.

Little did Hamlin know that a supposedly quiet night with his fellow Farmington Exchange Club members and their wives would turn into a 1½-hour spectacular with himself in the starring role.

Hamlin had just settled back after dinner at the Botsford Inn, awaiting an announced weekly club program, when Kenneth Loomis, local insurance man and Hamlin's best man at his wedding 35 years ago, stepped forward and hung up a sign reading: "This Is Your Life, Delos Hamlin."

Pontiac State Wants Children's Unit, but . . .

Already Short of Staff: Official

Express Doubt on How More Could Be Found — Moore Skeptical

A Pontiac State Hospital official today said he didn't know where the personnel would come from to staff an additional 110-bed unit for children. The recommendation was made by a study group of the Michigan Probate Judges Assn. and the American Assn. of University Women.

Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore said this notion is a "bugaboo" that retards progress.

Moore is chairman of the committee which today announced it would recommend a $3.60 million program to provide for children's facilities at the six main state mental hospitals.

The hospital's assistant superintendent, Dr. Theodore Salzman, agreed with the judge that the kids are the ones who suffer "as facts were bared showing the institution to be grossly understaffed and lacking in provisions for the youngsters."

Salzman disclosed that the hospital has only 23 per cent of the number of registered nurses it would have for the hospital's 3,100 patient population, 48.8 per cent of the number of doctors prescribed and about 90 per cent of the required psychiatric attendants.

70 JUVENILE PATIENTS

Pontiac State Hospital now cares for 70 juvenile patients ranging in age from 8 to 18. Eight of the children are under 10 years of age.

"We would welcome an additional unit for children," said Salzman. "But the most important problem is staffing such a unit. We are greatly understaffed now."

"Children need specialized facilities, techniques, treatment and attention. We do have a school, but we have a separate ward for juveniles, but there are only 10 nurses. The others and the girls are housed with adult patients."

"We have a little section in the basement chapel which is used for the children. But the chapel is sometimes for recreational and occupational therapy."

Moore said there is a waiting list of 150 inmates for admission to the six state hospitals which now care for 450.

"These hospitals are set up for adult inmates. Patients are emotionally sick children," Moore said. "When I visited Pontiac State Hospital recently, I saw three children I knew with adult patients."

"The thing that is wrong with the way that children are treated is the same way and shouldn't be intermingled with adult patients. I've definitely done the children harm. It retards their possibility of recovery."

Moore said his committee will ask the legislature for a new hospitalization program that will include provisions for staff as well as for buildings. He said the program could be completed in three years.

"We expect the legislature to get it started with a declaration of policy to have these units for children. Some new buildings and the conversion of existing buildings could accomplish the program in three years."

"All we've got now is a big hospitalization act that is always lagging and the kids are the ones who suffer. This program for the kids could pave the way to take care of the adult patients adequately."

and had a habit of leaving rain coats and hats in offices.

Most knew Hamlin, 55, as former councilman and mayor of Farmington and today chairman of the Board of Supervisors and head of the six-county Supervisors Inter-County Committee.

Son of a Durand grain elevator operator, the honored guest came to Farmington when 18, started at a butcher, later bought the meat market and ventured into real estate sales with his old friend, Devere Fleming.

For his unselfish efforts for the city and county, club members and friends presented Hamlin with a movie camera to be taken on his April trip to Europe to visit one of his daughters, Jane, a teacher in Paris.

Durward B. Varner, chancellor of Michigan State University, was on hand to present a framed replica of the dedication of the six-county Supervisors Inter-County Committee, named in honor of the supervisors who have financially enabled its construction.

WONDERFUL EVENING — Varner described Hamlin as "a friend, a citizen and a man of great distinction."

Overwhelmed with the special tributes, Hamlin found it difficult to say thanks. "Certainly is a wonderful evening for me and unexpected," he said.

A Republican, Hamlin smiled when Connor, a Democrat, read a telegram from Democratic Sen. Philip A. Harter. Harter was sent by Congressmen in William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland County) and Harold A. Fitzgerald, Pontiac Press publisher.

HIDDEN BEHIND CURTAIN — So Hamlin wouldn't suspect anything, the speaker's table and two others seating his county associates were hidden behind a curtain when he walked in.

Farmington Mayor Robert B. Lindberg and City Manager Earl F. Sherrill praised Hamlin for his unselfish efforts toward bettering the county's table and two others seating his county associates were hidden behind a curtain when he walked in.

Those who had hunted deer with him recalled the trips to his farms in Farrell and Hutton north of Mount Pleasant.

"I've never found a nicer person in my life," said Hamlin's 70-year-old hunting companion Harrison Johnson. "And I've had quite a lot of life."

For helping toward construction of a hospital in Livonia, W. W. Edgar, former Detroit newspaper sports editor, applauded him.

Edgar, a bowling expert, is associated with Hamlin in another way, as proprietor of a bowling alley in Farmington.

Also saluting Hamlin were his fellow county supervisors, David Levinson, Harry W. Horton, John G. Semann and former Supervisor Willis M. Brewer and William M. Thatcher.

Connor closed out the evening with an Irish toast to Hamlin: "May the road ahead always be clear and straight before you and may the wind always be at your back."

er had sexual relations, Finch said. The following January Finch first dated Miss Tregoff, a one-time model then working as a receptionist in the doctor's clinic. Defense Attorney Grant B. Cooper, outlining his case to the jury, said the doctor and his young receptionist became intimate in March of 1957.

It was to talk to Mrs. Finch about a divorce settlement that they drove to the Finch's luxurious hilltop home in suburban West Covina last July 18, Cooper said.

He said that Mrs. Finch pulled the pistol from her car when they met in the garage of the home. Cooper said Finch grabbed the gun from her, knocked her unconscious, grabbed the gun and ran into the night — Carole having already fled the scene.

Cooper gave a dramatic account of the story he said Finch would tell of the violent encounter.

"He (Finch) was concerned that in her anger that Mrs. Finch might shoot Carole; he will tell her he looked for her, didn't see her, walked around and finally," Cooper said, "that when he saw her with the gun, he jumped her, they struggled for the gun, and he grabbed it."

"He will explain that while during the struggle for the gun, that he finally did wrest the gun from her, how she started to flee, how he started to throw the re-

Primary Vote Registrations Lag in Pontiac

Vote registration for the March 7 city primary election apparently will fall slightly short of the 1957 figure.

Registration to date totals a little over 36,300, while at primary time two years ago it was near 37,000.

New registrations are coming in this week at the slow rate of about a half-dozen a day, reported City Clerk Ada R. Evans.

Deadline for registration for the primary is Monday.

The clerk's City Hall office will be open for registrations from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday. Tomorrow, the hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Persons of voting age who have lived in Pontiac 30 days and in Michigan six months are eligible to register as electors.

Voters who have moved from one Pontiac address to another since their last voted must also file changes of address.

Voters who have not cast ballots in the past four years must re-register in order to qualify as electors again.

Two-Car Accident Injures Woman

A 25-year-old Pontiac woman was injured in a two-car accident this morning on Pine street north of West Huron street.

Mrs. Shelby M. Weber, 119 Hudson Avenue, was treated for a shoulder injury and leg bruises at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

She was a passenger in a car driven by her husband Thomas, 24. Weber told Pontiac police he was driving south on Pine street when his car collided with one driven by Lillian R. Hoard, 30 of 150 Lakeview Dr., Bloomfield Township.

Mrs. Hoard was turning off Pine into a parking lot. The accident occurred at 7:35 a.m.

First forestry school in the United States headed by Gifford Pinchot, was located on the Vanderbilt estate grounds just outside Asheville, N.C.

Stanley Brown in Senate Race

Former Candidate Set to Ask GOP Nomination in August Primary

Bidding for the Republican nomination for state senator representing Oakland County is Stanley M. Brown, Birmingham manufacturer's representative for industrial goods products.

Brown, 40, of 632 Ardmore Dr., Bloomfield Township, in 1952 sought the GOP nomination for the county's congressional seat against veteran George A. Dondero, and in 1956 finished fifth in the primary behind Sen. L. Harvey Lodge, the man he hopes to defeat this August.

The candidate, an Air Force pilot and squadron commander during World War II, was elected justice of the peace in 1953 in Southfield Township. He had to relinquish the position six months later when he moved to Bloomfield Township.

Active in aviation, Brown was recently recommended by Congressman William S. Broomfield and Rep. Farrell E. Roberts to the Metropolitan Aviation Authority.

The New Jersey native and resident of this county since 1945 is a GOP precinct delegate from the township. He is married and the father of four children.

Brown states in his announcement he is "100 per cent" for a constitutional convention as proposed by the Michigan Chamber of Commerce and League of Women Voters.

The Day in Birmingham

Teen-Ager on Probation Leads Police at 90 M.P.H.

BIRMINGHAM—A Pontiac youth on probation for reckless driving led police here on a wild auto chase at speeds over 90 m.p.h. last night before his car was stopped at a roadblock in Swartz.

Luzerne L. Swartz, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis R. Swartz, 4105 Baldwin Rd., Pontiac, was driving without lights on Webster street at 11:20 p.m., arresting officers said.

Instead of pulling over when they tried to stop him, the youth sped his car through two red lights after turning onto Maple street at high speed, police reported.

They continued to chase Swartz's car from Maple to Elton street where it turned north on Crooks road. They radioed Troy police who hastily set up a roadblock at Crooks and Big Beaver roads.

The speeding auto barely braked to a stop in time to avoid slamming into the roadblock.

A juvenile passenger in the car was released, and Swartz was hauled off to spend the night in the Birmingham jail. He was released on $50 bond today and is to appear in Municipal Court Feb. 8.

Swartz was placed on probation in Pontiac Municipal Court Jan. 13 for reckless driving.

"The booklet would be particularly valuable to members of Citizens for Michigan groups," Miss Lloyd said.

A League of Women Voters publication, it shows where the state gets its funds and how they are spent, she said. Drawings illustrate how a bill becomes Michigan law.

Bentley Proposes Housing Bias Bar

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich.) Tuesday submitted a bill aimed at preventing racial bias in public housing.

"I feel that it is essential that the Housing and Home Finance Agency, the Veterans Administration and any other federal agency in this field be given authority to withhold federal benefits when racial bias is evident," he said in a statement.

Bentley said his legislation would carry out recommendations contained in the first report of the Commission on Civil Rights.

"I am not attempting here to impose any residential pattern of racial integration but, like the commission, I am championing the right of every American to equal opportunity for decent housing," he said.

A "small business," according to the U. S. Department of Commerce, is one that employs fewer than 500 persons.

GOP Leaders Favor State Building Project

LANSING — Gov. Williams' Stevens T. Mason State Office proposal for a state building in Lansing.

The governor, in his "State of the State" message, noted the Legislature declared a virtual moratorium on new state construction the last three years.

"We cannot afford to wait another year or two before undertaking needed building, repair and expansion programs," he said.

Williams proposed to finance state construction projects with revenue bonds issued by the authority, whose members would include the state treasurer, auditor general, controller and four citizens. The Legislature would approve each project.

Bonds yielding up to five per cent interest would be retired by rentals charged to state agencies occupying the new buildings. The same procedure was used to build it, too.

'L'I Abner' Has Dreams of Leaving Dogpatch

CLOSTER, N.J. — Peter Palmer, the husky star of both the stage and screen versions of "L'I Abner," has loftier ambitions than playing a Dogpatch hillbilly.

He is a tenor and is studying opera, with a goal of singing at the Metropolitan Opera within three years. He feels he has one distinct advantage: Most tenors are short but Palmer is 6 feet 4, good for heroic opera roles.

Palmer lives here with his wife and four children.

3rd Generation Joins Force to Carry Tradition

LANCASTER, Ohio — This is the 46th year that you can get an answer by phoning the Lancaster Police Department and asking for "Hutslar."

In fact, you can get two replies. Sam Hutslar is chief of police, with jays (a country bumpkin who He was sworn in as a patrolman's chatterbox.)

Aug. 1, 1940, the day his father, Sgt. Charles Hutslar, retired after 25 years. And Chief Hutslar's son Ronald, 26, has followed family tradition. He joined the force Jan. 1.

O. Henry said that New York City was "an aviary overstocked with jays (a country bumpkin who of food for the nation's blast furnaces."

Steel Industry Hunts New Iron Ore Supply

NEW YORK (AP)—The American steel industry is on a global hunt for new sources of iron ore to offset the depletion of the richer deposits on Minnesota's Mesabi range, traditional source of food for the nation's blast furnaces.

Steelways, publication of the American Iron and Steel Institute, says the industry has invested more than two billion dollars into this project in the last 10 years in Canada, Venezuela, Chile, Peru, Brazil and Liberia.

Geneva, scene of many international diplomatic conferences in Switzerland, is 2,000 years old.

Book Reveals Sellout by Roosevelt at Yalta

"Roosevelt's Road to Russia," a book by GEORGE N. CROCKER, again emphasizes the awful ride this nation and the whole world took under FDR's bungling at Yalta.

"Memorized from the start," it says, "Roosevelt presented a spectacle that can only be described as pitiful—a fading President, floating slowly out of this life, outmatched and outwitted at every point, mouthing meaningless clichés, and dripping with flattery in the presence of the dictator (Stalin)."

"No man at the table could have doubted that STALIN would make an alliance with the Devil or with angels, if it would be to his advantage, or break it whenever it suited him."

"Poland was to be dismembered. Some eleven million people who lived in the eastern half of prewar Poland were to be surrendered to the Soviet Union without a semblance of a plebiscite. Stalin, Roosevelt and Churchill decreed Soviet annexation of 48% of Poland's territory and one-third of her population."

"For four days CHURCHILL fought against his faithfulness (to STALIN), but his American colleague would not stand with him. Never has there been such a millionfold uprooting of human beings and CHURCHILL admitted in the House of Commons in August of 1945, 'It was not a good augury for the future of Europe.'"

The book goes on in great detail to establish the ineptness of the President who represented the greatest and most powerful nation on earth and who bent low before the bloodthirsty Stalin. Well, that's that and we can't do much about it today except bow in shame, but it stands as a horrible example of futility for President Eisenhower to bear in mind when he deals with the Reds.

Improved Radar Set Has Exciting Future

A new radar transmission set with the code name Project Madre has been developed for early warning defense purposes. It can "see" over the horizon and detect moving objects 2,600 miles away.

Ordinary radio beams do not follow the earth's curve but travel in a straight line so that low flying craft or surface vessels can not be detected. Beams from Project Madre however, bounce off the electrically charged layer of the upper atmosphere.

This scientific advance could replace the radar warning fences now extending across Canada and the picket ships and radar search planes that guard our sea coasts. In the Atlantic this protection extends to the Azores and in the Pacific to Midway.

Peaceful uses of the improved radar are of great interest too. Long range television transmission, improved air safety and other forms of communication might be developed for the benefit of mankind.

Make Out Wills Now, Not Tomorrow

Recently The Chicago Tribune carried an editorial urging people to draw a will.

The response was gratifying. Lawyers reported many.

What is good for Chicagoans is good for Pontiacers. Very often people neglect the matter simply through inattention. They expect confidently to "do it tomorrow." But this is often another one of those tomorrows that never come.

Wills can go into great detail, but a general document that points the way roughly and indicates what is wanted, actually serves a very desirable purpose. And the individual that leaves the property knows that things will be done in accordance with his general wishes.

Give it some thought. If you intend to act "sometime," accept this nudge as a reason for taking care of the matter right now. We suggest a lawyer, but that isn't absolutely necessary if you understand the procedure.

"Your Hat Will Always Be in the Ring to Me"

David Lawrence Says:

Ike Unruffled by Defense Critics

WASHINGTON—There is something inspiring about the calm and dispassionate way that President Eisenhower deals with the alarmist talk that has been filling the headlines of late about the safety of the United States against Soviet attack.

Eisenhower, in his delicate position, naturally cannot do any more rattling. For the Soviets would criticize him as a "war-monger."

Yet he must answer the criticism at home that comes from generals, as well as politicians, who think America is "losing the race" to failing to "catch up" in missiles, trips to the moon, and various other endeavors in the field of science and exploration.

"I am always a little bit amazed about this business of catching up. What you want is enough—a thing that is adequate. A 'deterrent' has no added power, once it has become completely adequate, for compelling the respect of any potential opponent for your 'deterrent' and, therefore, to make him act prudently."

This is but another way of saying that the United States has the military power today to destroy the Soviet Union and doesn't have to feel inferior because some other country may have more of certain types of weapons. If it's the case, the Soviets can't do anything about it.

But, it is asked, how is it that Gen. Power of the Strategic Air Command can testify that, with 300 missiles, the Soviets can destroy our ability to fight back?

The answer to that is the one that the general himself gives—namely, "Airborne Alert." This means that the United States would have in the air at all times enough manpower to deliver a destructive blow in retaliation, and the mere knowledge that this can happen is enough to deter the Russians from making the attack.

Gen. Power wants more money for the "Airborne Alert." He is sincere about it. He thinks this is essential.

But the President, and his other military advisers, including the Joint Chiefs of Staff, think that until a crisis is imminent—and it certainly doesn't seem to be for the next few months at least—the same money, about $750 million, can be put into the development of missiles and the improvement of other weapons of warfare. In fact, the President put it this way in his budget message to Congress recently:

"It is neither necessary nor practical to fly a continuous Airborne Alert at this time. Such a procedure would, over a relatively short period of time, seriously degrade our overall capability to respond to attack. What I am recommending is a capability to fly such an alert if the need should arise, and to maintain that alert for a reasonable period of time, until the situation which necessitated it becomes clarified."

The Country Parson

"The fellow who comes to church weekly is a weakling."

But a general naturally isn't satisfied with this. It's his business to keep his defenses up. The civilian side, however, takes what are called "calculated risks."

It means that in this era of Soviet policy the belief is that Moscow will not take a chance on a nuclear blow at the United States for the Soviet Union would have to face

Dr. William Brady Says:

Training Requirements for Nurses Hoity-Toity

Recently, I quoted here a statement about nurse training which writer Inez Robb ascribed to "A distinguished doctor, one of the nation's most brilliant surgeons," as follows:

"The bright girls who go into nursing could learn in one year of hard, earnest study to make money as nurses. It is required of them or that most of them will ever be called upon to perform."

I think the three and four-year courses now required of nurses are full of drudgery and often degrading tasks that have little bearing on what they will be doing once they are graduated. And there is no reason that the girl who wants to go on and specialize shouldn't be given every opportunity."

I hesitated whether to print the piece in the first place, because the doctor who made the statement was not identified.

I'm afraid some readers inferred that I think "the bright girls who go into nursing could learn in one year of hard, earnest study to make money as nurses. It is required of them or that most of them will ever be called upon to perform."

I don't. It is my belief that after high school graduation a two-year course in nurse training school, in a hospital, of course, is entirely adequate to qualify a young woman to practice as an R.N.—registered nurse, graduate nurse, trained nurse.

I agree with the unidentified "brilliant surgeon" that "there is no reason that the girl who wants to go on and specialize shouldn't be given every opportunity."

But the serious shortage of nurses today is a shortage of ordinary nurses, not specialists.

A student nurse in one of our training schools says the chemistry course runs for four months and includes writing equations, understanding Dalton's atomic theory, electrolysis, drawing atomic structures of the alkylic, aromatic and heterocyclic compounds. She flunked the course and most students get by on a slim D grade.

The mother of another student nurse who quit half way through the course tells me a good many students quit or flunk out or don't go into training at all because it is so difficult. Girls who might make good nurses if the hospital training course were not cluttered with so much non-key business, I agree.

General duty nurses, an R.N. tells me, are not as well paid as laboratory and X-ray technicians, whose training is about one year. She deplors the situation where a girl feels she can qualify as a teacher with less difficulty and less expense than as a nurse. Still the R.N. thinks most girls just out of high school are too immature to enter nurse training manned bombers from European bases as well as missiles from naval vessels, and the Russians would not wish to risk such destruction.

"I don't believe," said the President, "that anyone today can destroy all of our capabilities for retaliation, and they cannot destroy today enough of them that we couldn't retaliate very effectively to the point of destructiveness to them."

right away; and if they do something else until they are more mature they'll probably never enter nursing at all.

It seems to me that a girl who is mature enough to graduate from high school is mature enough to matriculate as a probationer in nurse training class.

Anyway, as some of these correspondents remark, no wonder there is a serious shortage of trained nurses—a shortage which is quite likely to become serious and serious as the hoity-toity requirements become ridiculous and ridiculous.

BY DR. GEORGE W. CRANE, CASE D. 470: Henry M., aged 35, is the platoon husband of Mavis described yesterday.

Since Henry weighed 210 and was a chain smoker, I persuaded him to cut out tobacco and go on a diet at the same time. And his obese wife joined him in the diet.

"But, Dr. Crane, Henry added, 'I find that I grow hungrier if I eat at a restaurant with some of my co-workers. Why?'"

CRANE: That, for I am content on your diet when I munch a sandwich at my office desk."

RAYNE'S HENS If a lot of food is set before us, we subconsciously "let out" our stomach in advance so that we eat far more than we need.

And this influence of the size of the pile of food applies to other creatures, including humans. A famous German scientist thus starved a group of hens for 34 hours to make sure they all had a hearty appetite.

If he then placed one hungry hen before a 100-gram pile of wheat she'd eat 50 grams before calling it quits.

But if he'd place her before a 300-gram pile, she'd consume from 83 to 100 grams (from 69 per cent to 100 per cent more).

Voice of the People Readers Leap to Defense of Pontiac General Hospital

My, the changes in 10 years in size, modernization and the building itself of Pontiac General. The strides in science and the management staff are wonderful.

They seem to know in rotating nurses just which ones to change. I suppose sometimes the nurses don't think they do it just right, but it seemed every day we had just the nurse that was good for those in my room.

So I am convinced if people who need hospitalization would not be quite so selfish and so quick to find fault with everything, from food to service, we would have less complaints about our hospital. I've been hospitalized 14 times since 1950.

Mrs. Geraldine Trego 1927 Grandview Rd.

After reading the letter from Mrs. Weingarth, I'm wondering what hospital she stayed in.

In September I had a baby in General Hospital. I had wonderful and constant care. The nurses were so cheerful and willing to make my stay comfortable. As busy as they were, they always were there to help. The food was wonderful and it was served hot and on time.

I think the help deserves a raise. They really work hard for their wages.

Mrs. James Arnold 694 Emerson

I guess some people just dislike the whole world. I've been in General Hospital three times and I can't say enough in praise of the place and the people.

Offers Advice to Agnostics

To Agnostics and others who'd like to learn about Christianity, join a church and associate with real believers. Work at prayer; asking for understanding and spiritual growth. Be willing to wait, as God is eternal and measurement of time is only an artificial contrivance of man.

If you are of the intelligentsia, go where other educated people do, but remember, Christians are also human and subject to error. We don't pretend to be better, but Christian growth does increase one's sense of right and wrong, providing direction and meaning of life.

Good religious education also makes child raising infinitely easier and it clarifies your goals and identifies the ultimate authority. So don't just "try it," but really work and pray sincerely for guidance and spiritual strength and you will receive it.

Crash Program Exterminating Eel

Great Lakes Lamprey Meeting Its Fate

OTTAWA (AP) — Canadian and U.S. scientists feel confident they are winning their battle against the sea lamprey that has been killing off the trout in Lake Superior.

For four years the scientists have been teaming up in a crash program to exterminate Lake Superior's lamprey colony and preserve the trout's last refuge in the five Great Lakes.

Using underwater electric shocks and a powerful spawning ground poison, they have killed millions of the ugly bloodsuckers lately.

and now appear to have the upper hand. Ontario, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota are cooperating in the restocking of the lake with hatchery-reared trout yearlings, about 700,000 of them last year.

The scientists of the Great Lakes Fisheries Commission plan this year to use their techniques in Lakes Huron and Michigan, where huge trout colonies were wiped out several years ago. They will also try them out in Georgian Bay, where the lampreys have ground poison, they have killed millions of the ugly bloodsuckers lately.

The lamprey, a primitive, eel-like fish, has been in the St. Lawrence River and Lake Ontario for centuries. Measuring 1 to 2 feet, it kills by fastening itself to a fish by the pointed teeth lining its circular mouth.

The opening of the Welland Canal in 1929 enabled the fast-swimming killers to bypass Niagara Falls. Because they prefer cold water, it took them 100 years to migrate across warm, shallow Lake Erie.

They were first spotted in Lake Huron in 1932. Within 12 years they had reduced the lake's annual trout catch from six million pounds to virtually nothing. They moved into Lake Michigan and by 1953 had wiped out a commercial trout fishery which had yielded 5½ million pounds a year. They have cut Lake Superior's trout catch from 4,700,000 pounds in 1950 to 1,500,000 last year.

Canadian Births High but Marriage Sinks

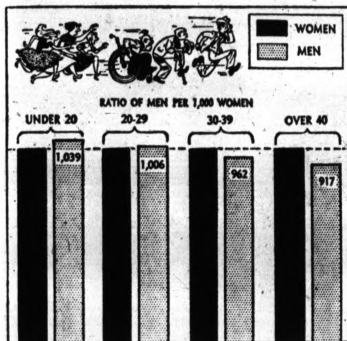

OTTAWA (UPI) — A record 486,000 Canadian babies were born in 1959, the Bureau of Statistics estimated today.

The unofficial figure compared with the old mark of 470,100 set in 1958.

At the same time, the number of marriages sank to its lowest point since 1951.

An estimated 127,000 couples wed last year, down 4,500 from 1958.

The bureau also estimated that 111,000 Canadians died during the past year. That compared with the previous year's 135,201, the lowest rate in history.

LEAP YEAR NOTE — Girls who plan to take advantage of Leap Year may have to do some fast stepping to catch a mate. How fast depends on their age group, as chart above shows. As of last July, there were 87,651,000 males and 89,432,000 females in the nation, says the Census Bureau. That made an average of about 980 men for each 1,000 women in the country.

Wants Congressional Authority Expect Special Message From Ike on A-Partnership

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower probably will send Congress a special message later this session asking authority to supply some U.S. allies with atomic weapons.

A final administration decision on taking this step has yet to be made. It may be influenced by congressional reaction to the idea of sharing the weapons as well as by the impact on world opinion.

Present law permits limited sharing of some types of nuclear information, but requires that this country keep full control of nuclear weapons it produces.

Distribution of atomic weapons to nations which do not have them has long been a controversial issue. The present atomic powers are the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union. France has been reported at the point of exploding its first atomic test device.

The President told a news conference Wednesday that he had always believed "what we should not deny to our allies what the enemies, what your potential enemy already has."

"We do want allies to be treated as partners and allies, and not as junior members of a firm who are to be seen but not heard."

"So I would think that it would be better, for the interests of the United States, to make our law more legal."

Later his press secretary, James C. Hagerty, indicated the administration was actively exploring the desirability of seeking amendment to the present law.

In addition, administration officials said privately that it is entirely probable the President will ask Congress to change the law so that in some cases at least the United States can provide its allies with the most modern atomic weapons suitable to their military requirements.

France particularly has rejected exclusive U.S. control of atomic weapons at French bases. A change in the law, officials said, could strengthen both diplomatic and military ties with the allies.

Administration thoughts of seeking a change in the law developed after it was unable Tuesday to obtain support from the Senate-House Committee on Atomic Energy for a new interpretation of the present law. The new interpretation would have permitted some limited sharing of control over weapons.

Insurgents Flee Into Legion

Sign Up to Get Around Legal Investigations on Algerian Uprising

ALGIERS (AP) — About 100 rightists who helped stage last week's insurrection in Algeria have signed up with the Foreign Legion to avoid legal investigations, sources here said Wednesday.

They were the followers of jailed insurgent leader Pierre Lagallarde who marched out of the barricaded insurgent camp followed by 430 men.

The terms given all but Lagallarde—who is charged with endangering the security of the nation—was a hitch in the Legion or a possible investigation which could lead to legal charges. Apparently some 300 of Lagallarde's men have decided to face such an investigation.

Those who volunteered for the Legion must serve at least six months, one source said. This was unconfirmed.

Other arrests were expected in Algiers. News from Paris that there had already been many arrests in France and that warrants were out for other wanted persons increased apprehension.

Deputies Mourad Kaouah and Jean-Baptiste Biaggi, who were seized on their arrival in Paris for the special session on Parliament, were well-known figures in Algiers. Their arrest shocked friends and supporters. Now both are with Lagallarde in a Paris prison.

Joseph Ortiz, political head of the revolt, was variously reported as in flight or directing further operations from a secret hideaway.

One TV Film Critics Won't Get to Chew Up

COLUMBUS, Ohio (U) — When a television station failed to find some program film left on its back porch by a deliveryman, an investigation was started.

It was found that some youngsters had taken the film, which was found in fields, garbage cans and in one youngster's home. To top it off, a station official said, "The boy's mother was using the containers to bake pizza pies."

Senate Post Race Eyed by Griffin

Michigan politics for their biggest rally of the year. It will officially kick off the county's GOP drive to hang out all elected county officers again, capture six state legislative posts, and keep a Republican in the state senate and U.S. House of Representatives. County Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr. will start the ball rolling.

Introducing Griffin, who lived with his parents in Pontiac between college terms, will be Oakland Congressman William S. Brownfield, who this year will be seeking his third term in Washington.

The 36-year-old Griffin, who practically sprang out of nowhere into national prominence when he co-authored the controversial labor reform bill last year, comes into a county which claims the first "Griffin-for-Senator" draft movement.

He's expected to confer privately with initiators of this campaign as to the reception received to date from some 1,500 "pledge of support" invitations they sent out to top GOP leaders around Michigan.

REPORTS ON MAIL

Theodore Koella, a member of the group and president of the Lincoln club here, said the "mail is piling up." Although he couldn't give any indication of how the pros and cons were running, another drafter said he was "encouraged" with the letters received.

Also weighing the decision whether to seek the same nomination to Rep. Alvin M. Bentley of Owosso, Bentley has promised a decision Feb. 11.

He's scheduled for two appearances around the state as part of the 32 dinners planned for Michigan to commemorate Lincoln's 151st birthday.

Griffin will be guest of a local congregation of National Federation of Independent Businessmen at a noon luncheon Monday at the Waldron Hotel.

This will be followed by a tea at the hotel sponsored by the Republican Women's Federation of Oakland County.

Toastmaster for the evening banquet will be Merritt D. Hill, finance director for the county committee.

Tickets "are going well" for the dinner, Koella said. None will be sold at the door.

Griffin's appearance in Pontiac will follow his first of eight appearances scheduled for Saturday in Standish. Others will be Feb. 11 in Ottawa County, Feb. 12 in Ann Arbor, Feb. 13 in Romeo, and Feb. 15 in Battle Creek.

Swiss Attorney Gets 7 Years

Found Guilty of Murder Even Though He Killed Wrong Man

GENEVA, Switzerland (UPI) — Brilliant lawyer Pierre Jaccoud was found guilty today of the "mistake" murder of a man whose son won the love of Jaccoud's long-time mistress.

A jury convicted Jaccoud, 54, former president of the Geneva bar, of shooting and stabbing to death 22-year-old Charles Zumbach, the father of the man who had stolen the affections of Jaccoud's pretty, blonde mistress, Linda "Baby Doll" Band, 28.

Police said Jaccoud lay in wait in front of the Zumbach home one night in May 1958, and killed the elder Zumbach in a jealous rage. The lawyer, who before the trial was considered to have had a brilliant political future, originally was accused of the more serious crime of assassination which under Swiss law carries a mandatory penalty of life imprisonment. The jury reduced the charge to murder and prosecutor Charles Cornu asked a sentence of 10 years imprisonment. The judge made the sentence seven years.

3 Will Attend Meeting Slated for Detroit

Three local members of the Michigan Cemetery Assn. will attend the organization's 15th annual convention Sunday through Tuesday in Detroit.

They are Kenneth P. Anthony of Oak Hill and Ottawa Park cemeteries and a member of the MCA board of directors, A. H. Lossee and Floyd E. Lossee of Perry Mount Park Cemetery.

Legislation, public relations, accounting and sales methods and new developments in the care and maintenance of cemeteries will be topics during the three-day session.

Wants Details From Lobbyists

Dem Legislator Files Bill to Get Breakdown on Expenditures

LANSING (AP) — A Detroit Democrat wants to know how much Capitol lobbyists spend to influence legislators and legislation.

Rep. Joseph A. Gillis today filed a bill to require the 184 registered lobbyists, and others as well, to submit details of their expenditures to the secretary of state each year.

Congress and 17 state legislatures require a similar accounting, he said.

"I'm not trying to curtail lobbying or damage lobbyists," Gillis said. "But I think we should bring to public view the amount of money that is spent on lobbying activities."

$5 ANNUAL FEE

Michigan lobbyists, except those who limit their appearances to legislative committee rooms, must pay a $5 annual registration fee.

Following the Senate lead, the House also proposed to ban lobbyists and other non-house employees from committee rooms and offices during sessions.

"We have found that people are playing cards in these rooms and keeping secretaries from doing their work," said Republican Floor Leader Allison Green of Kingston.

Unauthorized persons now are banned from the House floor from 20 minutes before the session opening till 10 minutes after adjournment.

The Senate last month voted to confine lobbyists to the galleries during sessions.

Good Gas Mileage Comes With Few Basic Rules

"Obtaining good gas mileage with your car can become a reality only if the driver practices a few basic rules of 'economy' driving," according to E. M. Estes, chief engineer for Pontiac Motor Division.

"Like finger prints," says Estes, "no two drivers are alike and thus no two cars will give the same, identical mileage. Our engines are specifically designed to give excellent gas mileage along with top performance, but it still remains for the driver to operate his car to his best interests."

Estes, whose engineers are responsible for the development of Pontiac's economy engine, maintains that good mileage and lower operating costs can easily be achieved by learning and following certain skillful driving habits. He suggests that economy-conscious drivers:

Develop the constant speed habit. Best fuel economy is achieved on most cars at a constant speed of 35 to 40 miles per hour.

Avoid high speed driving since conservative speeds require far less fuel. At high speeds gas consumption is greater because of increased wind resistance and engine and tire friction.

Under normal traffic conditions high speeds are difficult to maintain without excessive acceleration and braking. A 40 mile per hour average speed can be maintained while seldom exceeding 50 miles per hour, but to maintain a 50 mile per hour average requires driving whenever possible at 70 miles per hour.

Suppress that desire to surge away from stop lights and save fuel. Many people who complain about poor fuel economy are the same ones who are most proud of their car performance and who find it necessary to have their brakes adjusted most often. The weight of excess luggage also decreases gasoline mileage.

Watch the road ahead and try to avoid congested traffic and stop lights. When a stop is unavoidable, coast to the stop. Whenever the brakes are used, energy (and thus fuel) is being wasted.

Avoid leaving the car standing

Sunday Sales Ban Measure Introduced

LANSING (AP) — Cities, villages and townships could regulate doing business on Sunday under a proposal by two Democratic senators from Detroit.

A similar bill offered last year by Sen. Harold M. Ryan (D-Detroit) failed to get anywhere. Church groups have promised a drive for state legislation to curb business on Sunday.

Ryan said there was a rising sentiment in the Detroit area against Sunday operation of super, markets, and department and furniture stores. He said the problem could be dealt with more equitably on a community than on a statewide basis.

Abandonment of ROTC at MSU was termed utter folly in a resolution filed by Democratic Reps.

Long Distance Calls Soon to Go Via Sky Route

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A scientist predicts telephone calls from New York to California soon will be routed via an instrumented balloon orbiting a thousand miles above earth.

Some Are Outside

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — California is treating 63,313 mental patients — 48,433 in hospitals and 14,880 outside of hospitals.

Dr. John Pierce, research director of the Bell Laboratories in New York, told a convention on military electronics Wednesday that westbound messages will be received at a laboratory near Barstow, Calif.

Such a plan would eliminate the need for costly telephone wires. If you glaze someone, you flatter him.

State Retailers Hit Gas Pricing

See Discrimination by Use of Selective Cut; Lash Station Increase

LANSING (U) — Wholesale gasoline pricing practices in Michigan came under heavy fire Wednesday from the industry's retailers.

The board of directors of the Michigan Retail Gasoline Dealers Assn. went to the state capital to ask legislators for a state trade commission.

John W. Nerlinger, executive secretary, said the association is opposed to "basic discrimination" in present wholesale pricing practices. The group claims membership of more than 3,000 retailers in 57 counties.

In Detroit, Nerlinger said, the wholesale price of gasoline has at times dropped to 11.3 cents a gallon. In Ann Arbor, meanwhile, the price was 16.8 cents a gallon.

Nerlinger also was critical of what he described as the practice of giving selective price cuts to certain stations to meet competition.

WANTS CUTS SPREAD — Under this plan, he said, the distributor agrees to cut the price of wholesale gasoline if the operator will cut his profit margin, sell at a price designated by the company and post a company-supplied sign designating the price. "Something should be worked out so the reductions could be passed out to everybody," he said.

The association also is opposed to the overbuilding of gas stations, Nerlinger said. Because of this practice, he said, gasoline stations have a national failure rate of 37.5 per cent.

"Major companies are more interested in seeing their flags flying than in giving the operators a chance to make a living," he said.

Establishment of a state trade commission, Nerlinger said, would enable control of pricing practices not governed by the Federal Trade Commission and would act as a deterrent against unfair pricing.

Otto Harbach, librettist and lyric writer for scores of Broadway musical hits, was first a professor of English, then a newspaperman.

Receipts at Mackinac May Reach New Highs

ST. IGNACE (UPI) — Revenues from the Mackinac Bridge for January were up 12.4 per cent over January 1959 and 10.5 per cent over January 1958.

Bridge revenues were up 47.4 per cent over the last January of the ferry operation in 1957.

Bridge Authority Chairman Prentiss M. Brown said that "perhaps it is too soon to predict a trend but we are optimistic that bridge revenues in 1960 will reach new highs."

Traffic over the bridge in January was 10.8 per cent ahead of last year.

Dem Brass to Attend Detroit Conference

LANSING (U) — U. S. Sens. Kennedy and Humphrey and Harry S. Truman will appear at the Democratic Midwest Conference March 25-26 in Detroit. It was announced today.

Other acceptances have been received from National Chairman Paul Butler and Gov. Robert Meyner of New Jersey. Gov. Williams will serve as host chief executive.

The conference is expected to produce the biggest turnout of Democratic Party brass between now and the 1960 National Convention at Los Angeles in July.

Felt Like a Dog

NOGALES, Ariz. (U) — Even dogs apparently are getting hangovers these days. A Nogales housewife said her dog was feeling out of sorts recently, "but he snapped right back when I gave him a saltine tablet and a drink of coffee."

Transportation Tax Deduction?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two congressmen have introduced legislation that would allow you to claim a $200 income tax deduction for expenses to get to and from work.

But don't rush out and spend the money yet.

The chances of the proposal winning congressional approval appeared slim.

The bill could chop hundreds of millions of dollars from Uncle Sam's revenue and plunge President Eisenhower's balanced 1961 budget into the red ink.

Maker of 1st School Bus in Michigan Dies at 95

MENOMINEE (U) — William B. Winter, credited by the Stephenson Board of Education with building Michigan's first school bus, died at nearby Stephenson yesterday. He was 95.

The Board of Education and members of Winter's family said the then blacksmith and wagon builder constructed a motor-driven school bus for the board in 1900.

Growing Adult Recreation Set-Up Gears for an Even Bigger Year

By PETE LOCHBILER

Pontiac's community school recreational program for adults is getting into high gear.

More than 500 adults participate in various nighttime activities which the Parks & Recreation Department sponsors every week.

In the past year, the number of neighborhoods in the three-year-old program has increased to six and city officials are ready to add as many more as they can.

The adult programs provide varied activities in those neighborhoods which want them, said Leonard T. Buzz, recreation supervisor.

COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

They are carried out in cooperation with the Board of Education, which lets the city use school gymnasiums and classrooms at cost.

Programs are in progress this winter at Lakeside Community Center and Herrington, LeBaron, Weaver, Webster and Bagley schools. A seventh program is to begin soon at Alcott School.

Activities range from athletics and flower arranging to bridge games and woodcarving.

The programs are designed for the adults living in the vicinity of the participating schools. "We will design and carry out an adult program for any Pontiac neighborhood which wants one," Buzz said.

The only qualification for an adult program, he added, is that sufficient demand has to be demonstrated to assure nighttime attendance.

Classes are taught mostly by school teachers, but in some cases by lay people with special skills.

Some of the other activities which the department often offers adults are painting, arts, crafts, cake decorating, ceramics, metal work, landscaping and gardening, sewing, and tailoring.

FOLLOWS INTEREST

The department tries to organize those activities in which there is special interest, Buzz said.

For instance, a dramatics coach is helping a group of adults prepare a comedy at Herrington.

Women at Webster School are learning to play golf.

At Alcott there will be choral singing for a special group of song enthusiasts.

Alcott adults have also asked for gym session and a cake decorating class, Buzz said.

Alcott area adults arranged for their activities through their PTA. Buzz said other PTAs could do the same.

The department is able to schedule men's and women's activities on separate nights or co-educational activities on the same night, and even family night programs in which the whole family can participate.

A special mother and daughter program was designed for Bagley. Fees are based strictly on the cost of materials used. For instance, the fee for cake decorating classes is $1 and for art classes $10 or more.

$26,000 BUDGETED

This year the department has $26,000 budgeted for afternoon and evening programs for adults and teen-agers.

These programs are carried on separately from the men's athletic leagues which the department sponsors.

Home Loan Financing Is a Revolving Matter

CHICAGO (UPI) — More than half of the money which savings and loan associations lend to families to build or purchase homes comes from repayments on loans outstanding, according to the United States Savings and Loan League.

The balance comes from new savings.

LEARNING NEW HOME SKILLS — Mrs. Thomas Peterson, 414 Emerson St., delicately fashions a roebud in the cake decorating class. Pictures of the painting and flower making classes were also taken at LeBaron.

FAST-MOVING SPORTS—Men in the Herrington School area get together on Tuesday nights for athletic activities such as this vigorous volleyball game. While most men prefer sports, some participate in the classroom activities sponsored by the Parks & Recreation Department.

Pontiac Press Photos

TOUCHE! — Mrs. Robert Pritchard, 615 Second Ave., gets a pointer from fencing instructor Eldon Gardner. Women find fencing is fun and figure trimming at Wednesday night sessions at Pontiac Central High School.

FLOWER-MAKING—Artificial flowers make attractive home decorations, according to Mrs. Duane Justin (seated), 430 Emerson Ave. So she enrolled in a Parks & Recreation Department course and receives instruction from Mrs. Lewis Smartt (standing) one night a week.

BUDDING ARTIST—Mrs. James Watt, 494 Moore St., puts final touches on a still life painting that she plans to hang in her own home.

Terrier Guards Car Even From Owner

DEFIANCE, Ohio (AP) — Nobody gets in Rudy Camp's car when his 2-year-old terrier Ike is inside, Nobody.

Camp learned this painfully while the car — dog inside — was on a service station hoist. The keys were inside and Camp couldn't get in the locked car. When he tried to pry open the ventilator window, his dog snarled. Camp finally had to call for his wife, who brought a spare set of keys.

2,000 Knives Seized

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Indian police recently seized more than 2,000 long-bladed knives in a campaign to curb crimes of violence. The weapons were collected during simultaneous raids throughout the city of New Delhi.

UNEF a Peace Guardian, No Fighter

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Mounting tension between Israel and the United Arab Republic has focused attention once more on the role being played in the Middle East by the 5,000-man seven-nation U.N. Emergency Force (UNEF).

It is the first "peace force" ever put in a specific trouble area by the United Nations. But it is not stationed at the current trouble spot around the Sea of Galilee, the scene of armed clashes this week.

It was created in November 1956, when the Middle East was in a period of crisis, by vote of the U.N. General Assembly.

It was given a two-fold mandate:

1. To secure and supervise the cessation of hostilities and the withdrawal of armed forces from Egyptian territory following the Israeli and French-British attacks on Egypt in November 1956.

2. To maintain peaceful conditions in the area.

It patrols the frontier between Israel and the Egyptian part of the United Arab Republic—all on the U.A.R. side—and maintains an outpost at Sharm El Sheikh at the entrance to the Gulf of Aqaba.

(Syria, where the current border trouble centers, joined Egypt in the U.A.R. after the force was set up.)

Dag Hammarskjöld has praised UNEF as a "significant decisive factor in preventing hostilities and restoring calm in a troubled area."

But the secretary general has also pointed out UNEF is not a fighting force, and can be used only for the specific purpose outlined by the general assembly. It is not equipped or intended to cope with a major military force.

Among the firm supporters of UNEF is the United States. It costs about 20 million dollars a year to maintain the force. The United States not only pays about 31 per cent of the total as its regular assessment, but makes substantial additional contributions on a volunteer basis.

This is in marked contrast with the Soviet Union and other members of the Soviet bloc, which have not paid a penny toward UNEF since it was established.

The seven nations making up UNEF all volunteered their forces. They come from Brazil, Canada, Denmark, India, Norway, Sweden and Yugoslavia. In the past contingents were furnished also by Colombia, Finland and Indonesia.

All wear their national uniforms, but are distinguished by UNEF badges, light blue berets, fatigue caps, turbans and helmets. Normally each contingent serves as a unit and is rotated home after 6 to 12 months duty.

SPACE IN THE BUDGET — Outer space expenditures will take about a billion-and-a-half dollars of the coming year's budget. Chart shows comparison with previous years.

The bite of a mamba snake in both an African pygmy who Africa will kill a white man in makes an antivenom of forest two minutes. But, the bite seldom herbs.

Air Alert Debate Tied to Your $$

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A substantial sum of money out of everybody's pocket is involved in the current debate over whether America's nuclear bombers should be put on a continuous airborne alert.

To keep no fewer than 200 of the big bombers constantly aloft the Air Force estimates, would cost an additional billion dollars a year, or approximately six dollars a year for every man, woman and child in the country.

Gen. Thomas S. Power, chief of the Strategic Air Command, contends that unless this is done Russia will be able to destroy the U.S. nuclear fleet in a 30-minute attack whenever it has deployed as many as 300 intercontinental missiles.

Power believes the Russians could have 300 missiles ready to fire as early as 1962.

Much of the airborne alert's cost stems from the fact that an engine B52 bomber consumes $376.93 worth of gasoline and oil per hour while in the air.

County Records Fewer Deeds and Mortgages

Fewer deeds and mortgages registered last month in the office of the Oakland County register of deeds put the month-end total of receipts at $3,899 less than received for January 1959.

Clerk-Register Daniel T. Murphy Jr. said the decrease in deeds (2,620 last year and 2,146 last month) and reduction in home mortgages (1,347 last year and 963 last month) resulted from a seasonal dip in building last fall and winter.

There was an offset, however, in that 12 new subdivision plats were recorded last month.

"If we keep up at this monthly pace in plats we could close out the year with a record number," Murphy said.

Total papers for last month came to 10,846 and receipts $13,981. Comparable figures for the same period in 1959 were 14,941 papers and $19,762.

Plays, Says Only the Best

Martin Block—Responsible DJ

NEW YORK (UPI)—"You have a tremendous responsibility because the things you say and the music you play can influence your audience."

Martin Block, a slight man with a mustache, spoke with the authority of 35 years of visiting millions of homes through the medium of radio. The occasion was the silver jubilee of his disc jockey program, "The Makebelieve Ballroom."

"When Mr. and Mrs. Public extend an invitation to enter their home and permit you to share it you become a member of the family. If they have any regard for you they place a great deal of credence in what you say," Block said.

The weight of this responsibility has been Block's main concern since his idea of a program of recorded music became a reality Feb. 3, 1935, on an independent New York City radio station.

WROTE OWN THEME
Block's "Deen of Disc Jockeys" began his radio career as a freelance announcer in California. He came to New York in 1934 and a few months later played the ballroom's old theme "Let's Dance" for the first time. The program's present theme, "The Makebelieve Ballroom," was written by Block and two others and recorded by the late Glenn Miller with the Modernaires.

"Radio stations at the time were paying big money to hire bands and singers to perform live," Block said. "I thought if people wanted to escape through music why not invite them to dance at a makebelieve ballroom and tell them whose music they were listening to? It was the first time it was done and I guess that's why they call me the 'dean'."

Block, the father of five children, spends almost a full day of every week broadcasting. He commutes daily to his studio (WABC) near Central Park from his English Tudor style home in Englewood, N. J.

Much of his time is spent selecting the records he will play from hundreds he receives every week. He chooses those he thinks his audience will like and sometimes is wrong. Many of his young listeners think he doesn't play enough rock 'n' roll.

"A disc jockey's job is to play popular music," Block said. "But who is to define popular music? If you like ballet, ballet music is your popular music. If you like opera, that's your pop music. But certain big rock 'n' roll hits I just don't think have lyrical content fit for consumption by my listeners. So I won't play them."

4 Liquor Law Violations Cited

County Establishments' Owners Are Warned or Fined by State

The owners of four Oakland County establishments were fined or warned for violations of the state liquor laws at a hearing of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission.

Charged with allowing an intoxicated person to loiter on the premises of Club 88, at 88 Bagley St., were the club owners, Frederick F. Joseph P. Mitchell M. and Theodore F. Figa.

They were fined $100 by the Commission.

Fined $150 for selling an alcoholic beverage to a minor were Verna L. Frattangelo and Arline P. Karasch, owners of the L&N Grocery, 3044 W. Eight Mile Rd., Farmington.

FINED $200

The Royal Oak Aerie 2092 of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, 401 E. Fourth St., was fined $200 for selling alcoholic beverages for consumption off the premises.

Harold N. and Marge A. Szalay, owners of Harold's Store, 2158 E. Maple Rd., Troy, were issued a letter of warning after being charged with selling to a minor and improperly displaying their liquor license.

All fines are due and effective Feb. 22.

Lansing-Jackson Area Dairies OK Milk Hike

LANSING (UP)—Lansing-Jackson area dairies have agreed with two milk producing groups on an average $4.90 per hundredweight price to farmers for class one (drinking) milk.

The agreement announced yesterday between the dairies and the Michigan Milk Producers Assn. (MMPA) and the Independent Milk Producers Assn. boosted the price farmers receive by about 30 cents per hundredweight.

Dairy spokesmen said consumers could expect an increase of about one-cent-per-quart for retail store and home-delivered milk. The settlement parallels earlier agreements for dairy farmers in the Detroit, Flint and Saginaw Valley markets.

IT'S FUN-TASTIC

STEP OUT IN IT

Get the quiet proof of Chevrolet's superior performance on the road

thoughtful of your pleasure:

Supple Full Coil suspension—Dynamic coil springs at all four wheels melt bumps as no other suspension system can. Taking the punch out of the roughest of roads is their only function—they don't have to anchor the rear axle.

Butyl rubber body mounts—Thicker, newly designed body mounts of resilient butyl rubber further insulate you from road shock and noise.

Body by Fisher—Only Chevy in its field offers the polish and craftsmanship of Body by Fisher.

Foam cushioned seats—Chevy offers foam cushioned seats in both front and rear in all model series but one. Its nearest competitors do not.

Safety-Girder frame—X-built and not merely X-braced, the Safety-Girder frame affords greater rigidity to prevent twisting and minimize squeaks.

Hydraulic valve lifters—Oil hushed hydraulic valve lifters reduce engine noise to a whisper.

Cushioned steering shaft—A universal joint and cushioned coupling keep those annoying road tremors from the steering wheel.

Two-piece drive shaft—A neat way to a smoother, quieter flow of power. Chevy has it.

Precision balanced wheels and tires—Here again Chevy has shown concern for your comfort by eliminating vibration in this vital area—tire life is longer, too.

Easy steering ratio—Chevy's high ratio Ball Race steering takes the work out of steering for you.

Superior weight distribution—Chevy rides better, handles better and stops better because the car's weight is more equally divided between the front and rear wheels. The new Chevy also resists "diving" when you brake and resists squatting when you accelerate.

Wide choice of power teams—You can expect a better ride in Chevy because you can choose the engine and transmission best suited to your driving needs. In all, Chevy offers 24 different power combinations to satisfy the keenest driving foot—more than any other car.

School Children Need Eye Care

Researchers Estimate 77 Per Cent of Eighth Graders Nearsighted

EVANSTON, Ill. (UPI) — About 17 per cent of all school children need eye care, two doctors and a nurse reported in Pediatrics, official journal of the American Academy of Pediatrics.

The article, "Eye Health Program in Public Schools" was written by Drs. Lawrence J. Lawson Jr. and Robert A. McGuigan and Irma B. Fricke, a registered nurse. All three are associated with the Northwestern University Medical School and Evanston Hospital. Their findings were based on a study of 15,391 children in the Evanston Community Consolidated Schools.

While the researchers found 17 per cent of the children in need of eye care, they discovered an even higher percentage with some degree of near-sightedness. They estimated that near-sightedness among school children ranged from 29 per cent among kindergartners to 77 per cent among eighth graders.

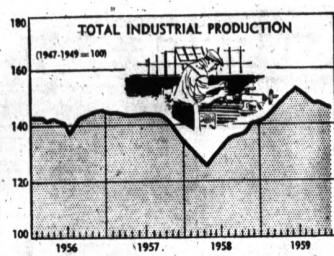

The article advised prompt treatment of eye conditions among school children to avoid psychological maladjustment and long therapy. It suggested that school systems set up a program for early recognition of eye defects that require professional care.

Here Comes the ??? Hey That's Not Her

ROCKY FORD, Colo. (AP) — An out-of-town couple drove here for the wedding of a relative. Cars were parked around the First Christian Church. The couple went inside, deposited their gift in the reception room. The bride walked down the aisle. "That's not her," the wife exclaimed. The couple departed hurriedly, finally found the wedding they planned to attend in progress at the First Methodist Church.

2 Promotions, 3 Shifts Made by State Police

EAST LANSING (AP)—State police have announced the promotion and transfer of two officers in the Fire Marshal Division and transfer of a third. Detective Hershel G. Barton was promoted to detective sergeant and transferred from Rockford to East Lansing. Trooper William J. Cran was promoted to detective and transferred from Bay City to Rockford. Detective Sgt. Thomas K. Tobin was transferred from East Lansing to Marquette.

Afraid They'll Drive Her to Bankruptcy

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Wilma Scroggins, 30, now is a confirmed pedestrian.

She told police she paid a man 75 cents to drive her home from a dry cleaning shop, only to have him speed away with clothing worth $100 when she got out.

Later the same day she went to a market, bought $5 worth of groceries, and hired another man to drive her about in search for the first man.

The hunt was fruitless and the second man took her home, took a dollar for the ride and drove off with her groceries.

'How to Give Dog a Bath'AF Blushes, Dumps Its Book

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has sheepishly withdrawn a brochure Wednesday and drawn a nicely illustrated manual telling enlisted men how to wash the general's dog, set his tea table, make drinks for his guests and shine his shoes.

Addressed to enlisted men assigned as aides or stewards to general officers, it said at one point: "Occasionally pets require baths. The best way to accomplish this is by using soap, water and plenty of elbow grease. The fingers are better than any mechanical device for applying soap. Rinse the animal thoroughly by pouring water over him, then keep him warm until he is dry."

Jackson and Brig. Gen. Albert B. Clark, Air Force personnel director, listened uncomfortably. The red-faced Clark contended the manual was a mistake, especially the part about the dogs. Jackson said it would be withdrawn, and a new directive would prohibit assignment of enlisted personnel to duties which contribute only to the personal benefit of officers.

But the subcommittee members made them squirm for awhile before they reached this stage. Rep. Frank J. Becker (R-N.Y.) sarcastically quoted this from the manual: "Your contribution to the over-all mission of the Air Force can be even more important than that of an aircraft member, a mechanic, or any other individual airman."

If the manual had been written by a Communist, shortened Becker, it couldn't have been better calculated to destroy morale.

The manual provided instruction on cooking, personal services and chauffeurage.

"Answer the door properly and invite the guests in," it said, "At times you will be called upon to prepare beverages such as cocktails. Generally it is only necessary for you to know how to mix a few of the most popular ones."

For luncheon, the manual said, "Lace is one of the correct (table) cloths," and cautioned "light damask is never used."

"Shoe polishing isn't a large task, but does require some exacting effort," said the manual. Then it went on for five paragraphs on the proper way to polish shoes.

The rhinoceros was once the most common and widespread of all land mammals.

Mikoyan Lands in Cuba Today

Has Tons of Exhibits; Likely Planning Some Trade Deals Also

HAVANA (AP) — Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan, an old revolutionary himself, arrives today in the revolutionary Cuba of Fidel Castro on a trade and friendship mission.

The Soviet Union's top traveling salesman has 70 tons of visual propaganda — a Soviet exposition — to help him succeed.

Mikoyan's visit is expected to take in far more than the announced purpose — to swing open the gates on the scientific, technical and cultural exhibit. It is the same one he opened in New York and Mexico City last year. U.S. Officials in Washington look for Mikoyan to make propaganda hay as a result of the low ebb in American-Cuban relations.

They say the 64-year-old Soviet leader may be carrying a briefcase loaded with trade offers, since Castro has indicated he will deal with Moscow. These might propose Soviet technical aid, or an exchange of Soviet agricultural machinery for Cuban sugar.

Another possibility is that he might push for a renewal of Soviet-Cuban diplomatic relations. They were broken off in 1952 by Dictator Fulgencio Batista, who accused the Soviets of stuffing their diplomatic pouches with propaganda material.

Won't Let Case Drop

Judge Has No Sympathy for Roy Campanella's Son

NEW YORK (AP) — An angry magistrate Wednesday held 16-year-old David Campanella for trial on a petty larceny charge, saying the former baseball star's stepson deserves "whatever he gets."

The boy was sent back to jail where he has been held since his arrest Jan. 25.

Magistrate James LoPiccolo was angered because the Campanella youth was in court after his third arrest in less than a year.

When a grocer allegedly robbed by Campanella and two other Negro youths offered to drop his complaint, the magistrate would not allow it.

"I have no pity for the Campanella boy," he said. "He's been in and out of courts in a short space of time and should have learned his lesson. He has humiliated his family. He has violated his curfew."

David Campanella is on probation in a case involving the burglary of a Queens drugstore last spring. At the time of that burglary he already had been adjudged a juvenile delinquent on charges growing out of a street fight.

The youth will appear in court again today to answer charges he violated his parole.

The youth, son of Mrs. Roy Campanella by a previous marriage, is accused with Ronald Garrett, 18, and Isadore Fisher, 20, of stealing $40 worth of merchandise from a Queens grocery Jan. 25.

When attorneys for the other two youths asked for a closed session, LoPiccolo refused.

"Just because one of these boys happens to be related to a famous figure who is admired all over the country by everyone, including myself, he doesn't deserve special privileges," he said.

Roy Campanella, former catcher for the Dodgers, has been semiretired since an auto crash two years ago.

The family lives in suburban Nassau County.

Hawaii's Lava River Extends Destruction

KAPOHO VILLAGE, Hawaii (AP) — A steaming, hissing river of lava continued on its slow but devastating way today, destroying everything in its path.

Six fashionable weekend houses were burned Wednesday along the Hawaii Island shoreline.

The fiery flow was more than two miles from Kapoho Village, now but a burned-out shell.

Kilauea volcano, meanwhile, was still erupting, sending molten lava streaming from three vents. The continuous outpour showed the lava further and further along, rolling along the coast in shallow water until it found an exposed area along the beach.

School Board Group to Assist in Study

The Michigan Association of School Boards will co-sponsor the second phase of "Studying Michigan Schools" with the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Local educators will be well represented at the session beginning at 8:45 a.m. Saturday at Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Phase 2 will deal with "A Study of Basic Issues in Education."

Its plan is to provide local groups interested in education an opportunity to discuss and become aware of various opinions concerning many of the problems of education.

A spokesman for the two groups sponsoring the meeting said, "A concerted effort will be made to clarify controversial issues by providing facts and figures."

TO CONTINUE PLAN

Those involved in the project, including the speakers, aim to continue the involvement of the general public in a study of their schools.

Parent-teacher organizations in this area will be special guests at Saturday's conference.

The welcoming address will be delivered by Dr. Lowell Eklund, director of Continuing Education at MSU, and the keynote speaker will be Dr. William Emerson, superintendent of Oakland County Public Schools.

Hoffa Cites Loan to Florida Diocese

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa says the union's pension fund has lent one million dollars to the Roman Catholic diocese of south Florida.

The Miami Herald quoted him as saying the loan was negotiated by the diocese with the Teamsters' 80-million-dollar Central States and Southwest Area pension fund.

Officials at the diocesan headquarters in Miami said they knew nothing about the transaction. The Most Rev. Coleman F. Carroll, bishop of the diocese, was out of town and could not be reached.

French Roundup Rebel Leaders

De Gaulle Puts Off Trip to Algeria, Starts Use of Dictatorial Powers

PARIS (U) — President Charles de Gaulle postponed his Algerian trip and began a sweeping round-up today of ringleaders of the revolt against his government.

Armed with near-dictatorial powers, he will preside over a special Cabinet session here Friday instead of going to North Africa as planned.

De Gaulle was reported planning a drastic shakeup of civilian and military leaders in Algeria in the first step to bring the uneasy French African territory back under the firm control of Paris.

Some Cabinet changes also are expected. One of the first to go may be Jacques Soustelle, one-time hero of right-wing French settlers in Algeria.

He Finds Being Human Just Ducky

Waddle They Do With Ol' Pal George?

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—George, apparently convinced he's a full-fledged member of the Al Thomas family of Phoenix, but he's not.

He's a duck that won't go near the water. If he's a he.

It all began last November when Leslie Thomas, 9, won the duck in a coin tossing game at the Arizona State Fair. Lots of kids did. Most of the ducklings were short-lived. Not so George.

EXPANDED

He grew. First he grew out of small cardboard boxes. Then out of a parakeet cage. Given the run of the yard, he started longingly into the house through a glass door.

His odd mental quirk showed up this week when the family, with hard won consent from Leslie, tried to ditch him in the lap of a city park. There were lots of other ducks there.

"Go on, George," said Mrs. Thomas, as she, her daughter and the reluctant duck arrived at the water's edge. "This is your new home and this will be your new farmstead was repeated.

George wanted no part of it. Mrs. Thomas gently placed him in the lagoon. George flew out as though jet propelled.

Mrs. Thomas teased him out into the lagoon. George sank for a moment, then clumsily clawed his way back to shore. The performance was repeated.

NO THANKS!

"Mother, daughter and slightly bedraggled duck returned home. Now George has a fenced off section of the yard all to himself.

"I guess we're stuck with him," said Mrs. Thomas. "We annual maintenance costs at $10,000 more than present requirements.

Suggest Improvement of Detroit River Channel

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Army engineers have recommended improving the Detroit channel of the Detroit River to handle the increased traffic brought by the St. Lawrence Seaway, a report to the House Public Works Committee shows.

The interim report, signed by Lt. Gen. E. C. Ingham, chief of engineers, estimated construction dredging costs at $5,570,000, and annual maintenance costs at $10,000 more than present requirements.

However, the engineers estimated the average annual benefits in vessel traffic hauling iron ore and limestone would exceed the costs by a ratio of better than four to one.

Make Punch of Trees

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — The American Forest Products Industries reports a new use for trees—as punch. The ladies of the Lebanon Herb Tea society made the punch by chopping up a half cup of Douglas fir needles, adding a quart of water and letting the brew steep overnight. Strain twice before serving.

Contractor's Widow Dies

Mrs. G. S. Brodie, 82, Came From Family of Michigan Pioneers

Mrs. G. Sherman (Hattie) Brodie, whose late husband was a building contractor in the Pontiac area, died yesterday afternoon at her home at 211 W. Walton Blvd. after a brief illness. She was 82.

Mrs. Brodie came from a family of Michigan pioneers. Her grandfather, Eli Benedict, came to Michigan by canal boat from Saratoga, N. Y., in 1845.

With his wife and eight children he settled in Detroit and lived in a house which was located where the Michigan Central Railroad Station now stands.

One of his sons, Eli, who was Mrs. Brodie's father, moved to a fruit farm north of Birmingham in 1854.

The red brick house on Woodward avenue across from the Unitarian Church was her birthplace.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Helen Pickering of Franklin; two sons, John W. of Pontiac and Robert of Birmingham; six grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Clara E. Benedict of Birmingham.

Service will be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Sparks-Griffin Chapel with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery.

When he travels abroad, President Eisenhower needs no passport.

Only Corvair Has One

See Delay in Aluminum Engines

By BEN PHILGAR
Automotive Writer

DETROIT—More aluminum engines for American cars may be delayed beyond the 1961 model year.

So far only Chevrolet's rear-engine Corvair is using the lighter weight power plant.

Current word is that both Chrysler and the Buick and Oldsmobile Divisions of General Motors, all of which had been reported ready to take the plunge this coming fall, have decided to hold off a while.

Nothing definite has been announced and probably won't be. Neither Buick nor Olds has even confirmed plans to build their new, smaller cars in which the aluminum engines were to have been used.

Pontiac, too, will be out with a small car but with a different engine. One engine highly tested by this GM division is a four-cylinder power plant mounted at a 45 degree slant. In effect this is one-half of a normal Pontiac V-8 engine and can be made with much the same tooling Pontiac already is using.

On the other hand, Chrysler has made no secret that its new slanted six cylinder engine being used now in the Valiant, Plymouth and Dart was designed so that it could be made of either aluminum or gray iron.

ANTIFREEZE A PROBLEM
Trade sources say engineers still haven't licked all the problems aluminum engines present in connection with antifreeze.

The Corvair engine is air cooled and so avoids the antifreeze problem. It has been suggested the eventual answer may be something different than the conventional method of filling the radiator with water and adding antifreeze to keep it from icing up in the winter.

The Dow Chemical Co. recently announced a coolant which lasts a full year and which consists of intensely purified water, antifreeze and corrosion inhibitors. Dow says this can be adapted easily to aluminum engines.

The magazine Steel reported recently that both Buick and Oldsmobile will introduce their compact cars with conventional gray iron engines developing about 140 horsepower. These cars will be in addition to the standard Oldsmobile and Buicks.

All of the companies have expressed definite interest in aluminum engines and current delays are bound to be only temporary. J. Donald Shircliff, regional automotive sales manager for Reynolds Metals Co., said recently his company is convinced that "within three years every major American car manufacturer will have at least one line of aluminum engines."

The magazine Steel said Buick has signed contracts for tools for aluminum engines but first deliveries are not scheduled until one year from now.

American Motors has been experimenting with aluminum for several years and some observers feel it may be closer to actual production than any of the other companies.

Aluminum's big fascination for designers is that it could result in a reduction of engine weight by several hundred pounds. This in turn could lead to a reduction in the over-all weight of the car and accompanying savings in fuel consumption.

Willis to Increase Output of Its Jeeps

TOLEDO, Ohio—Willis Motors Inc. will put a second final assembly line into production this week to meet increased demand, Vice President E. C. McCleary announced Wednesday.

Some 250 workers, most of them new, have been hired to meet expanded production requirements, McCleary said. The current work force numbers 6,200.

The company announced recently that demand for its Jeep is running 300 per cent ahead of a year ago.

Decimal Point Dither

TULSA, Okla. (U. S. — Tulsa County Treasurer W. E. McIntosh says he received one $40 check when the tax payment due was only 40 cents and another $12.12 of Texas army.

check when 12 cents was due. He returned both checks.

Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston, graduate of West Point, resigned as staff officer in the U.S. Army to become a private in the Republic of Texas army.

Deer Wins Over Guns but Loses to Traffic

HARRISBURG (AP)—A big, 10-point buck deer seen roaming with a herd in north central, Pennsylvania was sought eagerly by sportsmen during the 1959 deer season.

The magnificent animal finally was killed, two days after the season ended, when it ran into the side of a car at night.

16 From County Join Navy During Month of January

Sixteen men from Oakland County enlisted in the U.S. Navy through the Navy Recruiting Station in Pontiac during the month of January.

The only two Pontiac men were Roy Green, of 620 Balboa Pl., and Kim Newton, of B-61 N. Parks St.

Other area enlistees were Larry Moore, Brook Barr, and Timothy Pardy, all of West Bloomfield Township; James Profit of Orion Township and Dale Simpson, Lambert St., Cerna Hargreaves and John Hines, both of Highland Township; and Robert Mathews of Bloomfield Hills.

Rounding out the list were Paul Fruhm and David Lockhart, both of Birmingham; John Schlappi of Auburn Heights, Bruce Edmonds and John Hines, both of Highland Township; and Robert Mathews of Bloomfield Hills.

THE LADY AND THE GIANT

XXII
We reached the canal and crossed the bridge. It was not far down the towpath to the basin and Lizzie Ann. The huge body of water was Zacharias sat on the after rail and was putting placidly on his pipe. His big blue eyes above his brilliant golden whiskers did not seem to see us, but as we came abreast he lifted his voice in a below.

"Woman," he shouted so it could be heard down the reaches of the canal, "they're come!"
With which he reached down and swung Lizzie aboard as if she had no more weight than a feather, and held her aloft.

"It," she said contentedly, "I could wade through your beard I'd give you a big kiss."
"Aim for my nose," Zach said lightly. "My mouth's just underneath it!"

It was warm and cozy in the cabin, and there was the pleasant odor of baking and maple burning in the cookstove. One could not imagine a higher state of cleanliness, and Maw Wheelright was as neat as the cozy room, with hair tightly combed and twisted into a bun on top of her head.

"Ye look right part, darlin', what with the frost on your cheeks," she said comfortably. "The purest age," she added, "is just when a gal's comin' to life and hasn't yet aware of what's happenin' to her... What's vexin' you 'n' her, Orrin?"
"We're just worried,"
"It," Zach's woman said, "ye hain't obliged to keep aet about it, ye fetched it to the right place. Zach got the muscles and I got the mother wit."

"PLEASE, TELL ME
Zach was amused. "Up," he said fondly, "and ye got what turned Lizzie's wife into a bag of salt."
"When I was here earlier today," I said to him, "you told me there was talk along the canal. That you might be willing to tell me about it." Zacharias said, "That ye run, a medicine show out of town."

"It should be gone by this time," I answered. "An' aweekin' that disjuncter 'em with the boy?"
"Yes," I told him.
"When two, three boats ties up together fur the night," Zach said, "the's gossipin'."

"Like a parcel of crows congregatin' in a hickory tree," interjected Maw Wheelright. "Canawlers talks to canawlers. But this here medicine troupe licked up and talked 's anybody."

"So," said Zach, "we come by the knowledge that they want't jest 'stravlin' 'n' sellin' their remedies 'n' tendin' to their other normal business. Like pickin' pockets. But they was seekin' somebody."

"I think I know," I said. "A man who was strangled and put in our barn."

Zach shook his head. "That hadn't happened yet," he said. "Nay! 'Twas that murdered man they was aseekin'. From what we cal'lated it was a female. We kind of come to the conclusion she jumped ship down in Pennsylvania 'n' gobbled up all the money was in the car. Quite a sum they'd took in durin' a favorable season."

"You wrung his neck!" yelled the man beside the pickpocket, and he leaped for me.
(To Be Continued)

Arthur Kellogg, composer of "Mother O' Mine" and other hit ballads, was educated in the Ohio State School for the Blind.

"After that," Zach's woman said, "seems like they couldn't hold the show together."
"Some performers skeddaddled," said Zach. "A knife throwin' artist 'n' another they called the Cook."

HAVE A COOKY
"Who," I told him, "was the murdered man we found in our barn."
"Dew tell!" Zach exclaimed. "Them," said Zach's woman, "that live by the sword shall die by the sword."

"'Twas a sword that killed 'em," said Zach. "I was miled to git our advice about suttin'," said Maw.

She rose and lifted the pot from the stove and poured its aromatic contents into four cups. From the cupboard she took a great plate of ginger cookies and fat, sugared white cookies.

"Growin' children," she said, "should eat frequent."
Lizzie and I moved up to the table. It was growing dark and outside could be heard the whistling of a northwest wind which was likely to bring snow. The Lizzie Ann was motionless, not stirred by the gale, because the thickening ice held her firmly.

While we munched cookies and drank scalding tea there was no conversation, just comfort and companionship. Then there came the sudden tramping of heavy feet on the deck above and a rasping voice called down the hatchway. "You Applegate! If you're down there, come up!"

Zach stood up, his big blue eyes narrowing.

"Upo be you," he asked in his great voice, "and what's wanted?"
"We want Applegate," said the same unpleasant voice.

Zach climbed through the opening and stood on deck. I followed him and stood at his side. Confronting us were eight onto a dozen men, and in the twilight I recognized them as members of the Umatilla Indian patent medicine troupe. Some were performers, other teamsters or laborers of some sort. But tall, handsome Gideon Weeks was not among them.

"What," I asked, "are you doing in town yet? What do you want with me?"
"We come," grunted the pickpocket, "to do you like you done to Gideon Weeks."
"And what," I demanded, "did I do to Gideon Weeks?"

Use of Contact Lenses Reported Up 50 Per Cent

Miles and Feinberg Optometrists of Pontiac said there has been a better than 50 per cent increase in the use of contact lenses over the past 11 months in the U. S.

Dr. Arnold A. Miles and Dr. Paul C. Feinberg, with offices at 103 N. Saginaw St., reported this at the Second Peninsular Optometric Contact Lens Conference end today in Detroit. The session began Sunday.

The contact lens specialists said more than six million people in the United States now are wearing contact lenses to correct a wide variety of vision problems.

Backstage Rights Battle Moves Into Open Today

By WILLIAM M. ARBOGAST — The House Rules Committee, starting public hearings, brings into the open today a backstage battle over sending a civil rights bill to the House floor.

Prospects are that the committee will clear the measure for a vote on Feb. 15, when the Senate is committed to start consideration of the same subject.

JOHNSON MAY SUFFER — Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas had hoped the House would pass a bill to change the relatively mild bill before Feb. 15, and some House leaders had planned it that way.

But opponents of civil rights legislation, who have helped keep the measure bottled up in committee since last August, feel they have to resort to parliamentary maneuvering which could produce a long delay.

For that reason the rules committee, under control of Republicans and Southern Democrats, isn't likely to expedite the hearings starting today.

Behind the maneuvering is the desire of some House Republicans to do nothing that might enhance Johnson's prestige as a leader, and the dissatisfaction of many Southern Democrats with Johnson's active role in getting a civil rights bill enacted in 1957.

I Saw It,
I Liked It,
I Charged It,
at the Hub
Clothiers

THANKS TO THEIR THREE CONVENIENT CREDIT TERMS . . .

At last I've found an easy way to enjoy my clothing purchases while I'm paying for them. No more skimping with just half an outfit . . . No more bit by bit buying for me! With the Hub's 3 easy credit plans, it was simple to find the one tailored to my needs. Check them, you'll find one here to suit you, too!

REGULAR CHARGE ACCOUNT is designed to speed up shopping for everyday purchases. No need to carry a lot of money . . . or to wait for change. Each month you receive a statement. Full payments made monthly.

2.

EXTENDED CHARGE ACCOUNT is a special charge account partially paid for each month with an agreed-upon amount. It operates like a regular charge except that payments are split up over two or three months.

3.

6 MONTH CHARGE ACCOUNT is the easy way to pay for your major clothing purchases. You simply decide yourself how much you can afford to pay each month and then you can charge 6 times that much. For example: If you wish to pay $10.00 per month, you can charge $60.00. Or if you can pay $25.00 per month, you may charge up to $150.00. Once your account is open, you may charge additional purchases up to the credit limit decided upon by yourself.

Honor Lincoln With Log Cake

TO HONOR LINCOLN — Since Lincoln and logs seem to go together, this ice cream log is in an appropriate dish to serve on Lincoln's birthday. It's filled with ice-cream which means it's kept in the freezer until just before serving time.

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor
Cake rolls are interesting desserts. Jelly rolls are, of course, the most common version. It is easy to make your own roll cakes and the variety is infinite.

All these cakes are of the sponge type. You bake them in a jelly roll pan which is a cookie sheet with sides. As soon as the cake is baked you turn it out of the pan onto a clean towel sprinkled with confectioners' sugar. Cut off the crisp edges (the children will love them) and roll up the cake immediately. Then when you are ready to add the filling it is simple to unroll and re-roll the cake.

First of all, let's try the recipe pictured. Add cherries and maraschino cherries in the batter and cherry-vanilla ice cream as filling. Garnish with whipped cream and serve with pride.

Gradually beat in $\frac{1}{4}$ cup of the sugar and vanilla. Whip egg whites until soft peaks form. Gently whip in remaining $\frac{1}{4}$ cup of sugar; continue whipping until very stiff. Fold egg yolks into whites until completely blended.

Carefully fold stiff dry ingredients into egg mixture. Turn into a waxed paper-lined pan about 10x15x1 inch and smooth the top of the batter. Bake in a 375-degree oven about 15 minutes or until the top springs back when pressed with the fingers.

Have a clean tea towel ready, sprinkled with confectioners' sugar. Immediately loosen sides of cake; turn out onto towel. Remove waxed paper; trim off crusts with a sharp knife. Cover with fresh waxed paper and roll up tightly. Wrap in towel and cool.

Unroll; remove the paper and spread with apple butter. Reroll and frost top and sides with whipped cream that has been tinted a delicate pink with food coloring. Serve immediately. Makes 6 servings.

Our last recipe is another one for Lincoln's birthday. The ingredient that will surprise you the most in this one is potato chips. We'll wager your guests will never be able to guess what's in that filling.

Lincoln's Chip Nut Log
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar, sifted
4 eggs, separated
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sifted cake flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups heavy cream, whipped
2 tablespoons chocolate syrup
1 teaspoon instant coffee
1 cup confectioners' sugar
1 cup ground nut meal
1 cup finely crumbled potato chips
Beat egg yolks until light. Add sugar gradually and beat until creamy. Add vanilla. Beat flour and baking powder. Add gradually to egg mixture. Beat batter until smooth.
Beat egg whites and salt until stiff but not dry. Fold lightly into cake batter.
Line a 15x10-inch pan with heavy, greased unglazed brown paper. Spread batter in it. Bake in 375-degree oven about 15 minutes or until cake tests

Defy Winter's Chill With Hearty Cookout

Midwinter cookouts can be as much fun as an old-fashioned "sugarcorn" party in the snow. Build your fire or set your grill in a sunny spot sheltered from the wind, and save a hearty menu than usual. Beside the steaks, franks, or burgers, cook individual servings of vegetables, each tightly folded in aluminum foil. Season frozen green peas and dried celery with salt, pepper, and a little butter or margarine.

They'll taste marvelous cooked this way for 10-15 minutes alongside the meat, to eat piping hot straight from their wrappings. And how about chestnuts to roast over the glowing coals, or a mince pie heating slowly till you're ready to finish your feast with pie and fragrant coffee?

Birthday Gift: Bake large soft chocolate cookies and decorate each with initial out of white frosting. Soft cookies stand travel, but wrap each individually and cushion cookie layers with crushed tissue paper or cellophane straw.

Two Flavor Bars Are Crunchy Eating

Good lunch menu for school children. You'll like the cookies. Egg and Cherry Sandwiches. Cherry Bars. Two-Flavor Bars.

TWO-FLAVOR BARS
1 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup granulated sugar
1 cup finely chopped walnuts
1 cup finely chopped dark brown sugar
1 cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces
1 cup small-caramel pieces (increased for use in cooking)
Sift together the flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt. Melt butter in 1-quart saucepan; remove from heat. Mix in sugar well. Beat in egg and vanilla. Stir in flour mixture, a little at a time. Fold in nuts and chocolate and caramel pieces. Turn into buttered pan (9 by 9 by $\frac{1}{4}$ inches).

Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 20 minutes—center will still be slightly soft. Place pan on rack to cool; cut into bars and remove with spatula. Store in tightly covered container.

Waffle Iron Needs Gentle Cleaning, Not Scouring

Avoid scouring waffle irons, the manufacturers advise. Let the iron cool with the cover open, then wipe the chrome-finished outside surfaces with a damp cloth and mild soap. Remove waffle grids from the baker and wash in a dishpan.

Strawberries Float in Wine Punch

Great for two small punch bowls! If you have only one, borrow the other.
Gala Strawberry Punch
2 bottles (each 4 1/2 quart) seltzer
1 bottle 1 quart champagne
2 packages (each 10 ounces) frozen sliced sweetened strawberries
1/2 cup rice (triple rice) instant
1/2 cup wild with 2 maraschino cherries
Have seltzer and champagne chilled. About an hour before serving, turn frozen strawberries into 2 small punch bowls with seltzer. At serving time, add ice rings; pour half the champagne into each bowl; stir gently. Serve at once. Makes 12 to 16 servings—about 1/2 cup each, with seconds.

Supermarkets Could Do Even Better

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Supermarkets go to infinite trouble to please the woman shopper—but they're one small area they're missing: They provide the parking space, the flattering color schemes for the interior, the non-household products for one-stop marketing, piped-in music (which ought to be piped down in most stores), even nursery services.

Then, why not a list of staples near the entrance? Something the housewife could tear off as she picked up a cart, and use as sort of a string around the finger to remind of regular needs. Such a list would be especially helpful if the woman is among the majority who market from memory.

For, a new study of shopper forgetfulness shows we most often leave the store minus the everyday needs — coffee, milk, bread, butter, oil, orange juice.

Saul Nesbitt, an industrial designer for 15 years and a specialist in food packaging and marketing, said he queried 50 women in three heavily-populated suburban New York and Connecticut counties and found that coffee is the item most often forgotten.

Next were milk and bread, and in homes where there were small children, peanut butter. Other edibles the women were prone to forget included sugar, salt, vinegar, cooking oils, pepper, mustard, ketchup and flavorings.

Non-edibles included light bulbs, laundry starch and bleach, household ammonia, furniture polish, cleaning fluids and all types of paper products.

The most over-looked are what I call the non-glamorous products," said Nesbitt. Frozen foods, cereals, cake and pie mixes, rarely were forgotten.

Nesbitt said several of the women suggested that stores make available their advertised list of specials also at the entrance. And the tear-off want list should provide some white space for her own jottings. "This need to me is so obvious," said the designer, "I'm amazed it wasn't done years ago."

The designer said his studies of shopping habits indicated that most women market minus a list brought from home. They plan menus as they go—relying on specials and displays for suggestions.

Those who do plan ahead use a variety of reminders, from kitchen memo pad or blackboard to scraps of paper stuffed in the pocket of the coat usually worn to market. He blames some female forgetfulness on the way some staples are packaged. A narrow "window" panel of transparent film in cartons and bags of sugar, salt or other "dry" products would signal when the supply is low.

We Borrowed It From France

On Saint Valentine's Day, serve your party guests that traditional February 14th dessert, Coeur a la Creme. The perfect red fruit for the day is strawberries and these make a luscious sauce for the coeur. Frozen at their peak of perfection, California strawberries have a year-round fresh flavor. If you prefer, you can serve the sauce on a plain cake, baked according to package directions in 8-inch heart-shaped layer pans.

Coeur a la Creme
2 pounds creamed cottage cheese
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups heavy cream
1 1/2-pound package frozen whole strawberries, thawed
1/2 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup strawberry syrup
Combine cheese and salt. Gradually add cream, beating constantly until smooth. Line a colander with cheese cloth. Fill with cheese mixture. Place in bowl to drain; chill 12 hours.

Place cheese cloth and cheese mixture in 8-inch heart-shaped aluminum foil layer cake pan or 1 1/2-quart mold. Press down firmly. Chill 1 hour. Unmold. Remove cheese cloth.

Meanwhile, drain strawberries; reserve 1/4 cup syrup. Blend cornstarch with lemon juice. Add lemon rind and strawberry syrup. Cook over low heat until thickened and clear, stirring constantly. Add strawberries; mix well. Cool. Serve Coeur a la Creme with strawberry sauce. Makes 6-8 servings.

One ounce of dehydrated mushrooms is equivalent to one pound of fresh.

Nuts Replace Flour in Old World Recipes

There were times in this country, back in our grandparent's day and even when used in cake batter, before, when whole families went "nutting" together each fall, gathering their own supplies of hazelnuts, walnuts and chestnuts which, kept in a cool dry place, would last each family through the winter. Now we gather them at the nearest grocery store, already wrapped in cellophane. Not half as much fun, but awfully convenient!

The fact that our domestic nuts are so wonderfully flavorful makes it a puzzle that, as a nation, we don't take fuller advantage of their abundance. We use them lavishly at Thanksgiving and Christmas but sparingly the rest of the year. Europeans use them far more than we and in many delectable ways, predominantly as a substitute for flour in special types of fine cake baking.

This custom, attributed to the Austrians and Hungarians, dates back several centuries when the coarsely ground flour of the period was acceptable for breads, but in France when used in cake batter, each yogurt for a minimum of effort and a maximum of satisfaction.

The European housewife artfully pulverized nuts, ground them tediously by hand till they were like powder for use, along with sugar and eggs, as one of the three basic ingredients of the famed Continental confections, the nut torte.

Here are three recipes for Old World delicacies, adapted to American palates and to Twentieth Century cooking short cuts. The day of laborious, laboriously pulverized nuts and other such ingredients are gone. Today's homemaker watches, with a trace of grateful amazement, as her electric blender does the job for her in a twinkling. The flourless cake, formerly a chore to prepare, is now easy as a breeze.

For desserts that are rewardingly different, try this towering cake soufflé, the cream-filled nut roll or the one layer cake split and rejoined with a butter cream filling, each yogurt for a minimum of effort and a maximum of satisfaction.

Pecan Torte
4 eggs, separated
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup pecan meal
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup vanilla
1/2 cup baking powder
Put egg whites into a mixing bowl. Put remaining ingredients in order listed, into container of an electric blender. Cover and turn motor on high speed. Uncover and stir surface of the mixture with a rubber spatula, pulling the paste from the sides of the container into the center, until smoothly blended (about 40 seconds).

Beat egg whites until very stiff and fold in the nut paste, carefully, but thoroughly. Spoon mixture into a 7-inch springform pan and bake at 300 degrees F. for 1 hour. Run knife blade around side of cake and let it cool and settle in the pan.

When cool, slice into two layers and put layers together with French Butter Cream or your favorite frosting.

French Butter Cream
1 package (8 oz.) chocolate bits
1 cup boiling water
4 egg yolks
1 cup (1 stick) soft butter
1 teaspoon vanilla

Into dry container of an electric blender put the chocolate pieces. Cover and blend on high speed for 6 seconds. With motor off, scrape chocolate away from sides of container with blade of a knife. Add water, cover and blend on high speed for 6 seconds.

Add egg yolks, butter and vanilla, cover and blend for 15 seconds longer, or until frosting is smooth. In warm weather, chill frosting until it is the right consistency to spread.

Nut Roll
Follow directions for making the Pecan Torte, eliminating the baking powder. Spread the batter on a baking sheet, oiled and lined with waxed paper, and bake in a 350 degree oven for 15 minutes. Invert cake over a sheet of waxed paper and remove baking sheet and the waxed paper from bottom of cake.

When cool, spread generously with whipped cream, sweetened and flavored to taste, roll up like a jelly roll and sprinkle with confectioners' sugar.

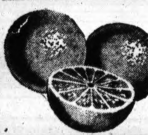

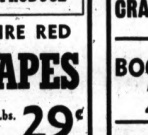

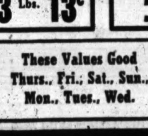

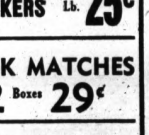

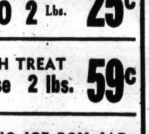

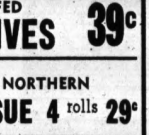

Nut Soufflé
4 eggs, separated
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup pecan meal
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup vanilla
1/2 cup baking powder
Put egg whites into a mixing bowl. Put remaining ingredients in order listed, into container of an electric blender. Cover and turn motor on high speed. Uncover and stir surface of the mixture with a rubber spatula, pulling the paste from the sides of the container into the center, until smoothly blended (about 40 seconds).

Beat egg whites until very stiff and fold in the nut paste, carefully, but thoroughly. Spoon mixture into a 7-inch springform pan and bake at 300 degrees F. for 1 hour. Run knife blade around

Teeners Extra Active for Church This Week

By MARY ANGLEMYER

Thousands of young people throughout the country are expressing their faith in church and community this week by taking part in the program of their church in observance of National Youth Week. "Thy Kingdom . . . On Earth" is the theme.

Sponsored by the United Christian Youth Movement of the National Council of Churches, the observance seeks to build and strengthen a fellowship between adults and young people in the church; to bring youth into active, full relationship with the church; and to help bring a greater awareness of Christ into everyday living.

Local young men and women are participating in worship services by reading the Scripture lesson; offering prayer; giving brief talks; singing in youth choirs; and ushering.

Others are taking part in plays and programs at annual youth banquets.

At the Church of God on East Pike street, young people are replacing the superintendent and department heads of the Sunday School for a week. The youth of Columbia Avenue Baptist Church called on area residents in groups and extended an invitation to the youth revival the past weekend.

According to the Rev. Amos G. Johnson, pastor of New Bethel Baptist Church, Thomas Lewis Jr., a member of his congregation and a senior at Pontiac Central High School, recently decided to go into the ministry.

As a part of the youth observance, members of youth groups will attend meetings of the various boards at Bethany Baptist Church this month.

Protestant and Catholic leaders are urging young people to take up a Christian calling for their life work.

Of the Jewish faith, Rabbi Nathan Hersfield of Temple Beth Jacob said: "There is a great need for Jewish educators, teachers and rabbis. We would like to encourage our youth to consider this type of vocation. It is a great challenge to serve."

Dr. Milton H. Bank of Central Methodist Church said, "The Methodist Church is calling for many qualified and consecrated workers."

"There are pastorates without adequately trained ministers, schools needing teachers, churches seeking in vain for directors of Christian education, settlements short of social workers, hospitals needing doctors, nurses and administrators."

"Overseas in the face of unprecedented need and opportunity, we find services held up and advance blocked because there are too few missionaries."

The World Youth Project program of ecumenical sharing among the world's Christian young people was described this week by Umeko Kagawa, secretary for the program of the World Council of Christian Education.

"Although badly in need themselves, Christian young people on Taiwan have for the first time contributed $25 toward a World Youth Project. Indonesian church youth are undertaking a project for Singapore young people, while a Portuguese youth group has just given $50 for a project in Mozambique and another $50 for one in Brazil," said Miss Kagawa.

Her father is the internationally known Christian educator and social worker, Dr. Toyohiko Kagawa of Japan.

In this country contributions make possible leadership training, youth centers and exchanges of young people in Ecumenical Work Camps and other programs.

Miss Kagawa said some 160 American young people are expected to attend the Ecumenical Youth Assembly in Europe which will be held July 12-24 in Lausanne, Switzerland.

Brotherhood Month Marked by Sisterhood

In charge of tickets are Mrs. A. D. Esler, Mrs. F. M. Hathaway, Mrs. V. M. Lindquist and Mrs. H. G. Woolcock.

RYABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is 17 and, believe me, we are not square parents. But how can we convince her that we put down certain rules for her own good?

For instance, her father absolutely forbids her to park on a lonely road. She says all the kids do it and she is hurt because it looks like we don't trust her. We DO trust her, Abby.

She has never given us reason to worry. But so many young people have been victims of sex maniacs and robbers who look for kids in isolated places. Do I dare frighten her with these facts? Can you put some advice into words to help us, Abby? I'm sure other parents have this problem.

MOM

DEAR MOM: If awakening

her to reality is "frightening"—then I say, frighten her. Young couples parked in deserted places are set-ups for all kinds of criminals. All parents should alert their children to this growing danger.

DEAR ABBY: For nine years I have been married to a man who grinds his teeth in his sleep. I have been putting up with this like a good scout. But sometimes it gets so unbearable that I have to go to sleep on the couch. He claims it is my imagination, but I know it isn't. Is there any cure for this? Maybe a dentist could help. Am I alone in my problem? Can't someone help me?

GRINDER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: I don't know what a dentist could do, short of pulling all his teeth. Your only solution is to sleep apart or get used to the same old grind.

DEAR ABBY: All winter I bought bird seed and corn for the birds and squirrels. The people across the street have three big cats. These cats are always in my yard after the robins and baby squirrels. The cats have already killed two baby squirrels.

I told these people to keep their cats in their own yard, but they laugh in my face. They even watched their cat kill a baby robin and they thought it was a joke. Is there any protection for wild life or is it just for domestic pets?

SENIOR CITIZEN

DEAR CITIZEN: Your local SPCA should be notified. If there is none, call the police.

DEAR ABBY: Can a child born out of wedlock be christened? I have heard that it can not.

NEED INFORMATION

DEAR NEED: You have heard wrong. A child born out of wedlock CAN be christened and special efforts are usually made to do so.

"What's really going on?" For a personal reply, write to Abby in care of this paper and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Couple to Reside in Iowa After Chicago Honeymoon

The Rev. C. George Widdfield, solemnized the marriage vows of Barbara Jean Fling and Billy Gene Willis Saturday in All Saints Episcopal Church.

Altar flowers were white snapdragons, chrysanthemums and gladioli.

The couple will live in Marshalltown, Iowa, after a Chicago honeymoon.

Receiving guests in the church parlors after the nuptials, were parents of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Fling of Oak Leaf street, Orchard Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Willis of Niagara avenue.

Red and white candy-striped carnations were carried by bridal attendants in waist-length red tafeta with skirt drape held by red bows.

GIFTS FROM BRIDE

Pearl earrings and necklaces, gifts of the bride, were also worn.

Ann Churchill of Orchard Lake was honor maid. Mrs. James Lash of Oxbow Lake and Mrs. Arthur Bowes of Clarkson were the sister's bridesmaids.

Their daughters, Deborah Lush and Linda Bowes, flower girls, wore red and white nylon dresses and a small gold cross, a gift from their aunt.

What Three? . . . Joan Crawford, Miss America and Pauley

Three Gals Talk of Beauty, Glamor and SA

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Two women whose faces are their fortune agree that beauty is a present from nature. But the elusive quality called glamor comes from planning.

The two are Joan Crawford, a spellbinder in the grand manner, and Lynda Lee Mead, who as Miss America of 1960 is a relative newcomer to the field.

Over soft drinks (what else?), the three of us sat in Miss Crawford's suite at the Waldorf-Astoria when met for the first time this week, when Miss Mead, an English major at the University of Mississippi, came to New York for an annual soft drink firm's convention.

The beverage firm, which Miss Crawford's late husband, Alfred Steele, headed, is one of the sponsors of the annual Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City.

Both dismissed the Brigitte Bardot types as something less than beautiful, male votes to the contrary.

Ingredients of beauty, glamor and sex appeal.

"Well," said Miss Crawford of the big eyes and red-gold hair, "I don't think that confection-like prettiness . . . that the candy box look . . . is beauty."

"On the long haul, it's bone structure that counts. And that you're born with."

Both dismissed the Brigitte Bardot types as something less than beautiful, male votes to the contrary.

This is a good stretch exercise. Stretch from your fingertips to your toes so that you feel the pull over the abdomen and the diaphragm. Maintain this for a few moments. Relax and continue.

Two Easy Exercises

Stretch to Straighten Up

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

If you have determined to add exercise to your health and beauty care, you can and should begin with easy ones. As a matter of fact stretching and an awareness of posture are two splendid exercises in themselves.

If you will think of the way you are holding yourself many times a day, and make a real effort to keep your spine straight and your ribs cage lifted, to tuck your hips under and pull your abdominal muscles in, you will be indulging in one of the best exercises possible.

Don't think you will not know it! If you have been accustomed to slumping and make an effort to correct it, your poor, weak muscles will scream and you will feel fatigue and perhaps even an ache across the back of your shoulders.

BACK ACHED

One time long ago after an illness which left me with a tired feeling, I suddenly realized that my posture had deteriorated and that I had been slumping. I remember how my back ached when I determined to remedy the situation with better posture.

I kept myself straight but I had to lie down on the floor or the bed periodically all through the day to rest those muscles. The floor is better.

When resting like this bend both knees and place both feet flat on the floor. Twisting and stretching in every direction, slowly and thoroughly, in bed before you get up; and standing after you get out of bed, is a splendid exercise.

STRETCH

The following is also a good one. Lie on the floor on your back with your legs straight and your arms resting on the floor overhead. Stretch from your fingertips to your toes so that you feel the pull over the abdomen and diaphragm. Maintain this for a few moments. Relax and continue.

After a while let the arms rest at the sides. Now make yourself as long as possible, pushing forward from the hips and back with the top of the head. You will feel the stretch through the region of the neck. This is corrective to poor posture and also most relaxing.

If you would like to have my short routine of exercise planned especially for women, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 19. Address Josephine Lowman, care of The Pontiac Press.

Special School Election Slated Feb. 29 in Holly

2 Millage Issues Face Decisions

Board Asks Extension of Operating Tax and New Capital Levy

By JIM LONG
HOLLY — Continuation of a six-mill operating tax and approval of a one-mill levy for capital improvements will be proposed in a Feb. 29 special election by the Holly Area School Board.

However, voter approval of the two propositions will not increase taxes, school Superintendent Ray Barber said today.

Last year, residents of the school district were taxed 15.3 mills above the county allocation of which 9.3 mills went toward retiring bonded indebtedness, plus six mills voted only last year for operating expenses, he said.

Recently, however, the School Board committed itself to reduce the 9.3 mills to 8 mills because of the improving financial condition of the school district.

If the seven additional mills are approved, total school taxes to be levied next year would be reduced an estimated 2.3 mills for a total of 21.8 mills.

"Because of increased valuation in the area during the past seven years, Holly has been able to reduce its bonded indebtedness more rapidly than anticipated," Barber said.

The bonds had gone toward construction of the Davison Elementary, Holly Elementary and Holly High schools.

DEFICIT TO SHRINK

Under the current budget, it is estimated that the $100,000 deficit will be cut nearly in half by the end of the fiscal year in June, he said.

The six-mill proposal will be asked to be continued for two years, while the one-mill proposal will be sought for a three-year period.

The six mills is expected to bring in $108,000 annually for operating expenses and the one-mill levy to achieve $18,000 a year.

When residents voted the additional six mills last year, the Board of Education pledged a return to curriculum subjects and services that had been dropped the previous year.

To do this, the staff has been increased by eight teachers.

The School Board set the election following reports and recommendations of the School Advisory Committee, organized last fall, at the request of the board.

FROM STEERING COMMITTEE

The group is an outgrowth of a steering committee formed a year earlier in a drive to receive voter approval of the six-mill levy.

President of the advisory committee, Freeman W. Peace, said that until the original committee had been organized three attempts to raise school taxes were defeated.

"Only last year, the six-mill proposal nearly squeezed by the voters by less than 40 votes," he said.

The one-mill increase would provide landscaping at the new Holly Area High School and improved playground areas around Davison Elementary School and Bennett Junior High.

It would also provide for development of the area south of the senior high for parking and outdoor facilities, for senior high curriculum, including physical education classes, study of biological sciences, band, athletic and recreational facilities, the school board noted.

Voters will have until Feb. 19 to register in clerk's offices of the five townships in which the school district is located.

They are Holly, Groveland, Rose, White Lake and Springfield.

One election day, polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. at both Davison Elementary School and Bennett Junior High School.

Avon Aerie Sets Birthday Dinner

ROCHESTER — Members of Avon Aerie 2834, Rochester area chapter of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, will mark the 62nd anniversary of the organization at an annual dinner Saturday evening.

The event will take place at 6 p.m. in the Rochester Eagles Hall, and is free to all members of the Avon Aerie and its auxiliary.

The order was founded in Seattle, Wash., Feb. 6, 1898. It numbers among its members four past presidents of the United States as well as notables in the fields of government, labor, sports, youth guidance and entertainment.

Utica's Pat Leidholdt Chosen Rhubarb Queen

UTICA — Pat Leidholdt, 17-year-old Utica Community High School senior, begins her reign today as the 1966 Michigan Hothouse Rhubarb Queen.

She won the title last night over 13 other Macomb County contestants in competition staged in the local high school auditorium.

Pat, who has brown hair and green eyes, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Leidholdt of 8871 Sumner Dr., Sterling Township.

A talented musician, she plays the French horn in the high school band and also in the Mount Clemens Symphony Orchestra.

In addition, the new queen plays and teaches piano. She hopes to attend Wayne State University and major in piano which she wants to teach privately upon graduation.

When her name was announced as winner, Pat said she "couldn't believe it"—that she was in a state of joy and excitement.

The judges selected Sue Perrine, another 17-year-old UCHS senior, as first maid of honor. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Perrine of 4764 Ryan Rd., Shelby Township.

Named second maid was Betsy Lee Simms, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erving Simms of 17400 Clinton River Rd., Sterling Township. She is a 1959 graduate of UCHS.

All the girls appeared on stage first in street dress for interview by Master of Ceremonies Harry Maghary.

They returned later in formal attire for further questions in front of the judges and the audience.

The judges were Louis Walter, Mount Clemens photographer; Dale Bottorff, Detroit florist; and Mrs. Patricia Schweinhart, Utica speech teacher.

They graded each contestant on personal appearance, social poise, self-confidence, speech, knowledge of rhubarb and cooking ability.

The queen and her court will reign over the fifth annual Michigan Hothouse Rhubarb Festival, March 5 in Utica.

Beginning today the queen will make numerous radio, television and public appearances to publicize the forthcoming festival.

The annual event is sponsored by the Wolverine State Growers Assn. and the Utica Rotary Club. Charles H. Bannow was contest chairman.

Other candidates for the crown were Judy Eldred and Ruth Ann Fisher of Armada, Carol Krippl of Warren, Rita Moore of New Haven, Marilyn Mertz of Washington, Joan Niedzielski of Roseville and Phyllis Martin, Joyce, Malinsky, Sandra Lambert, Sherri Riehnart and Dorothy Malburg, all of the Utica area.

Formal Opening of 'Y' Scheduled

Ceremonies at Rochester Will Be Saturday at 423 Helen Street

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Branch YMCA is holding open house and formal opening ceremonies at its new activities center from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday.

The former home which now houses the center at 423 Helen St. has been in the process of renovation by several of the "Y" members and interested clubs since mid-January.

Bob Wisdom, "Y" secretary, said the acquisition of this center is a "tremendous step" in the progress of the Rochester Association which has been in existence less than a year.

Members and affiliated groups now total over 1,200 persons.

YMCA activities prior to the opening of the new center have included swimming programs at the Pontiac "Y" of which the Rochester "Y" is a branch.

Several school-centered YMCA activities have been organized in addition to the Rochester Indian Guide Nation, for fathers and sons, which is a home-centered activity.

The building which houses the activities center was leased to meet the steadily growing demand for handicraft hobby clubs, movies, camping, and other programs of similar nature in the Rochester area, Wisdom said.

Those interested in membership in the Rochester Branch "Y" may inquire about joining during the open house on Saturday.

Re-Elected Secretary of MSMS Council

UTICA — Dr. D. Bruce Wiley of 6223 East Ave., has been re-elected secretary of the Michigan State Medical Society's Executive Council.

Dr. H. J. Meier of Coldwater, was named new chairman of the council, replacing retiring Dr. A. E. Schiller of Detroit.

Others re-elected were Dr. William A. Hyland of Grand Rapids, treasurer; and Dr. Wilfred Haughey of Battle Creek, editor of The Journal of MSMS.

Proper PTA to View National, Local History

GINGELVILLE — A program of past history of Proper School, its PTA and the National PTA Congress will be presented at the Monday evening meeting of the Proper PTA.

Mrs. Richard Schaller and Mrs. George Lombard will narrate the 8 p.m. program. Past presidents of the local PTA will be honored.

Second grade room mothers will serve refreshments.

For Almont Community Hospital Trustees Elected by Foundation

Ligon of Almont and Mrs. Franklin O'Connor of Armada.

Eleven Foundation members were named to serve another year. They include James Hough, Sam Maroupan and John Reiman, all of Romeo; and Mrs. Thomas K. Richards, Gartham Terry, William Muir and Mrs. Charles Ferguson, all of Almont.

Others are Peter Brower of Leonard, John Dunn of Lakeville, Miss Jane Scott of Washington and Leo Bollert of Almont.

New members of the Foundation are William Knight and P. C. Ewbank, both of Inlay City; Dr. A. Nostrand of Armada, Richard Poljan of Washington and Thomas Williams of Addison Township.

In his report hospital director James Cary stated that the total filled to capacity with three extra number of patients admitted last year, including both adults and children, was 1,331. He also revealed that 213 babies had been born in the new facility during 1965.

The previous high of patient days of service set at 1,429 in November was exceeded last month when the total reached was 1,196. The total of January a year ago was 409, Cary said.

The number of operations performed during the past year was 479.

All in all, members of the Foundation and Board of Trustees who attended the annual meeting Tuesday night were "very much pleased" with all reports of the first year of operation, they said.

They also learned that last Thursday the 8-bed facility was James Cary stated that the total filled to capacity with three extra number of patients admitted last year, including both adults and children, was 1,331. He also revealed that 213 babies had been born in the new facility during 1965.

Ex-Police Chief's Case Waits

Royal Oak Twp. Goofts

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — Because the Township Board postponed the absence of a court reporter last night, the Civil Service Commission and members of the Police Chief William Ware.

They rescheduled the meeting for Saturday at 1 p.m. in the Township Hall.

Ware is one of five police officers and three firemen who were fired from their jobs Dec. 17 for alleged theft of Good-fellow charity funds.

Ware and Patrolman Ernest Wilson were convicted of larceny by conversion, charges against five of the others were dismissed and the eighth man was acquitted.

All eight men appealed their case to the Civil Service Commission. The charges of misconduct against seven of the men were dismissed, and they were reinstated by the Commission.

The men showed up for duty Tuesday.

The Township Board, objecting to the reinstatement of Wilson on the grounds that he had been dismissed, suspended him again the day he showed up for duty.

Ware and Wilson have appealed their conviction and will appear in circuit court Feb. 16.

Legislators Boo
Benefit Hike BidState Employees Make Plenty Already, Claim
Senators Acidly

LANSING (AP)—A request for two million dollars a year in new fringe benefits for state employees fell with a thud in the Senate today.

The State Civil Service Commission outlined a plan to install group life insurance and hospital-medical-surgical coverage for 30,000 classified workers.

The idea was to finance half the cost from public funds, La Roy Froh, Commission research chief, explained, to the Appropriations Committee yesterday.

Froh said the benefits were being proposed in lieu of a salary increase. There would be a $10,000 maximum on life policies.

Sen. Clarence F. Graebner (R-Saginaw) reacted critically, saying state workers had it pretty chintzy already. Others on the committee were cool to Froh's presentation.

"You've got your salaries where people don't dare leave their jobs. They couldn't go anywhere else and get the same salary and benefits," Graebner said.

Froh had said annual turnover in state employment—above 40 per cent in 1945—was down last year to just over 10 per cent.

of Finances Shows
30 Per Cent Rise

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co. reports its 1959 sales of $5,336,900,000 were 30 per cent ahead of 1958.

The Ford preliminary financial statement, issued yesterday in advance of a more complete report to stockholders in March, showed Ford earnings were $5.24 a share in 1959 and $2.12 in recession-ridden 1958.

Ford's net income in 1959 was $41,400,000, compared with $116,300,000 in 1958. The year's total was second only to the 1955 profit of $454,700,000 or $5.31 a share.

Factory sales of the company's cars and trucks totaled 2,091,061 units in 1959, compared with 1,466,802 the previous year.

India Reds Beaten
Despite Vote Gain

NEW DELHI (AP)—Final election figures from Kerala State showed today that Prime Minister Nehru's Congress Party came just one seat short of an absolute majority in the new legislative assembly. The Congress won 63 out of a total of 126.

The Communists have been definitely beaten in the poverty-stricken state on India's southwest coast—but only as far as legislative seats are concerned.

The Reds actually boosted their popular vote total, indicating they still have significant support among India's masses, despite alarm at the recent border trouble with Communist China.

JERUSALEM (AP)—The sensitive demilitarized zone on the Syrian-Israel frontier was reported quiet today.

The report came from Syrian observers after Israel charged Syrian gunners with firing Wednesday night despite U.N. requests that both sides withdraw their armed forces from the disputed area.

Damasca's newspapers said Arab villagers in the Tawafik area, who fled artillery and tank fighting there Monday, had moved back to resume their farming.

Israel charged that Syrian troops armed with automatic rifles and mortars fired on an Israeli settlement southeast of the Sea of Galilee Wednesday night and wounded a guardman.

Bentley to Tell Plans
at Owosso on Feb. 11

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Alvin Bentley (R-Mich.) played it coy at a news conference yesterday and said he will announce his plans for running for the U.S. Senate at Owosso, Mich., Feb. 11.

Bentley, who has made no secret he'd like to be a senator, declined to state flatly that he will be a candidate. But he made it apparent he will try to unseat Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich.).

The Michigan Republican said he has invited 12 Republican County chairmen and vice chairmen and four members of the state central committee from the Eighth Congressional District, as well as nine members of his own campaign committee, to attend a Feb. 11 dinner in Owosso.

There was no immediate comment from McNamara or Rep. Robert Griffin (R-Mich.) a group pushing Griffin for the Senate already has been organized.

Reds Accuse U. S. of Welshing on Talks

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Soviet Union today charged the United States with bad faith in breaking off negotiations on settling Russia's lend-lease debt.

A statement by the Soviet Embassy said Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev made it plain in his Camp David talks with President Eisenhower last fall that settlement could be made only if the United States agreed to relax trade restrictions.

The statement said U.S. representatives at the talks refused to discuss either this or the granting of long-term credits to the Soviet Union. The talks were broken off last week.

Snow Clobbers Halifax

HALIFAX, N. S. (AP)—The worst winter storm since weather records were started slammed in from the Atlantic Wednesday and buried the southern half of Nova Scotia under 30 inches of snow.

When hot coals started popping out of the fireplace and onto her floor, Juanita Dove, 38 Hibbard Ct., had some work for city firefighters last night.

She called the Pontiac Fire Department at 11:45 for help. Firemen made short work of the blaze.

Beck Conviction

Sentence for Stealing
Car Sale Proceeds

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP)—Justice Dave Beck, former president of the Teamster Union took another setback Wednesday when the State Supreme Court upheld his conviction on a charge of stealing $1,900 in proceeds from sale of a union-owned automobile.

Beck's attorney, Charles S. Burdell, said in Seattle he will ask the court for a rehearing. If this is denied, he said, he will appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court.

HAS BEEN CONFIDENT

Beck, 65, said he had been confident of a reversal on grounds he did not get a fair trial. He was convicted in King County Superior Court Dec. 14, 1957, on a grand larceny charge. He was sentenced to 15 years in the state penitentiary, but has been free on bail.

Beck has also been convicted in U.S. District Court of cheating the federal government out of $240,000

Talk about inconsistency and you talk about the Michigan High School Athletic Association.

We've talked about the inconsistencies of the basketball tournament rules, the classification system and the out-dated laws of the MHSAA.

Just to show where precedent is set and then violated by the MHSAA can be seen in the recent case involving the eligibility of 14 prep athletes in Detroit.

The ruling in the Detroit case—hits close and hard to many people in Pontiac.

This was the Detroit situation:

There were 14 Detroit prep athletes who accepted $28 jackets for playing Junior Legion basketball. Since the awards were in excess of the $3.00 maximum allowed for awards, the athletes were all ruled ineligible.

However, the adult manager assumed the responsibility for failure to seek and follow advice, and thus when the boys returned the jackets, the MHSAA gave notice their eligibility would be reinstated.

This is fair to the boys and actually is the way it should be. After all, they were misled by an adult who was supposed to be aware of the rules in such cases.

But this is not what happened 10 years ago to eight Pontiac High School athletes.

In the fall of 1950, these athletes were presented jackets for playing baseball. The person presented the awards, giving indication that all had been cleared with the school officials.

Immediately the next morning school officials, upon hearing of the awards, called the boys together and made them all bring the jackets into the office.

A violation had been committed and the school officials were bound to report the incident. They did so in good faith rather than unethically hide the situation. They did, however, expect some understanding from the MHSAA since the awards were immediately recovered and the donor of the awards testified that he was fully responsible for "failure to abide by the rules."

The result was entirely different. All eight boys were ruled ineligible for one year.

Ron Hetherington, who lost his junior year of basketball and baseball eligibility, said "the players were shocked at the ruling."

"Nothing like that ever happened to us before and we weren't aware of doing anything wrong. As soon as it was explained to us, we all gave them back right away. Some never took them out of the packages."

"And besides, the jackets were so cheap they hardly looked like they were worth three dollars," he added.

Warren Gunther, another one of the eight victims, never attended the banquet. His jacket was given to him the next day and he never even took it out of the wrapping. But he still lost his last year of baseball, basketball and football.

The points in question—1. The ever-inconsistent MHSAA; 2. The apparent hold which Detroit has in the MHSAA.

World Titles at Stake

Pontiac Central Cagers Try Again for 8th Win

both scored victories in the regional preliminaries last Saturday night. Bouts are scheduled to start at 8:00 p.m.

Finals of Golden Gloves Saturday

All Local Mat Teams in Action Again Tonight

Wrestling heads the local high school sports calendar tonight with five matches involving area teams.

Pontiac Central will be at Flint Central as Pontiac Northern puts a win streak of five on the line at Farmington. Waterford visits Southfield.

One of the top matches of the night may be at Farmington where Wallied Lake will be competing.

East Detroit and Port Huron meet.

Matchmaker Teddy Brenner, in today, said the 26-year-old strong man from the Georgia hills expects to weigh a svelte 280 for his ring debut.

The bull-necked Georgian weighed 303 pounds when he lifted a total of 1102 pounds to win the gold medal at Melbourne, Australia, Nov. 28, 1956.

Hockey Final Tonight

Standard Forge and the Village Snack Shop will clash for the Junior Hockey League championship tonight at 6:30 on the ice rink at the Northside Park softball diamond.

The Snack Shop has lost one in the double elimination tournament for boys 16 to 18 years of age.

Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the local fights. Tickets are available at Huron Bowl, Gruffs, Miracle Mile Record, Club 59, Good Housekeeping, Clonon Drugs, Pontiac Recreation and O'Brien Heating.

First bout is slated to start at 8:00 p.m. Saturday. Tickets will also be available at the windows.

Compton Is Best Hope to Earn Finals' Berth at PCH Gym

A crack at the state Golden Gloves championship will be the aim of approximately 24 boxers who will battle for honors in the regional finals at Pontiac Central.

Six Pontiac fighters and six others from Port Huron scored victories in the preliminaries last Saturday night and they will be joined with another group of heavier weight, open division boxers, in the finals.

Winners Saturday night will earn a trip to Grand Rapids next weekend and from there a trip to Chicago where the National tournament awaits the winners.

Pontiac's best chances of getting a fighter in the state finals lie with state AAU welterweight champ Dick Compton who made the trip last year and was beaten.

In the featherweight division Alex Trevino and welterweight novice Ruben Flores were impressive winners last week and could earn themselves a trip to Grand Rapids.

Other Pontiac representatives in the regional finals Saturday are Thomas Peters, Gerald Gennell and a possible state entry Glenn Hill.

TIGER TRIPS — Ralph Tiger Jones trips over the foot of Will Greaves in the 9th round of their middleweight fight in Chicago yesterday where Greaves of Detroit won a unanimous decision. Greaves is Canadian middleweight champion.

Art Houtteman Goes on Retired List

DETROIT (AP)—Everybody always said that Art Houtteman looked the part of a baseball pitcher. Tall, slender and ruggedly handsome, he had the motion and form and style that young boys try to imitate.

But now, after a career of 14 years in the major leagues, Houtteman has retired.

Houtteman, 32, called it quits yesterday. He didn't plan to make any kind of an announcement. Someone simply asked him where he would report this spring and Art replied that he was on the Dallas roster and Kansas City property, but that he was going to devote his time to the insurance business.

Houtteman, a Detroit boy, was only 18 when he broke in with the pennant-winning Tigers in 1945. He had a 9-2 record and split six decisions with the Buffalo farm club. After a fine performance at Buffalo in 1946, Houtteman made it as a full-time Tiger the following year.

Brought up after the season was well along, he racked up a 7-2 record and a sparkling 1.86 earned run average.

From then, until now, Houtteman's career has been dotted with a series of personal tragedies and an odd succession of good and bad fortune.

Pistons Spank Royals, 117-105

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Pistons will be looking for a sweep of their home-and-home series with the Cincinnati Royals here tonight.

The Pistons took a 117-105 decision over the Royals in Detroit last night, Cincinnati's 10th consecutive loss.

Detroit jumped off to a 61-30 lead at halftime, with 20 of the points coming from spectacular Gene Shue. Shue had 12 rebounds for the night and 28 points.

Eight of the 10 Pistons who saw action last night scored in double figures.

Flint Central at PCH Friday in Valley Game

Chiefs Hope to Break 2-Game Losing Streak on Home Court

BY BILL CORNWELL

That 8th victory of the season has been a mighty elusive thing for the Pontiac Central basketball team.

After winning their first seven games of the 1959 campaign with relatively little trouble, the Chiefs have stumbled twice in their bid for No. 8.

Arthur Hill felled them last Friday with a 45-41 victory, then the tough Highland Park quintet halved them again Tuesday with a 47-41 win on the small Parker floor.

Now Art Van Ryzin's cagers get another chance to grab that 8th triumph.

The opportunity arrives Friday night when the Chiefs collide with off-beat but dangerous Flint Central at the PCH gymnasium in a Saginaw Valley Conference contest.

This will be Pontiac's 1st home game since Jan. 8, and no one will appreciate the friendly atmosphere of the PCH court any more than the PCH players themselves.

The Chiefs just completed a strenuous four-game road swing, three of them in Valley cities, and they managed to break even for the long haul.

Pontiac handed the Indians a 45-36 pasting in their last meeting at Flint's Ballenger Fieldhouse, but there is no reason to suspect that the Chiefs will have such an easy time in the rematch.

Rarely does Flint Central have such a miserable cage campaign as the Indians are having now. Seldom do the Indians go such a long stretch without a victory.

At the moment the Indians, coached by Joe Dowdy, are mired in the league cellar with a 1-4 record and their over-all mark is 1-9.

Their lone victory of the season was an 81-52 rout of Bay City. Fitzgerald won his 8th of 9 meets defeating Utica, 63-41, aided by three particularly dangerous at this time.

They gave city rival Flint Northern a bitter fight Tuesday evening at the IMA before bowing in the final minute, 54-52.

Van Ryzin hopes that Pontiac's two straight setbacks are only a brief recession. He believes that his cagers are ready now to return to their earlier impressive form and chalk up a few victories.

The Chiefs cannot afford to under-rate or overlook a run-and-shoot club like Flint Central, which can break out with a flurry of points on any given occasion.

The Chiefs, aiming for their 2nd straight win, have won 3 of their last four years, currently lead the race with a 5-1 record, half a game ahead of Northern and a full game in front of Arthur Hill.

Arthur Hill and Northern clash tomorrow night at Flint with the local facing virtual elimination in the title chase. Bay City visits Saginaw High in the other Valley game.

'Y' Basketball Results

Clarkston Hi-Y noosed out First Christian Church, 29-26, in a WMAA Community League basketball game last night at the Pontiac 'Y' gymnasium. In other games, the Pontiac Central Gladiators massacred Waterford Hi-Y, 78-9, and Rochester Hi-Y dumped Lake Orion Hi-Y, 32-24. Hunt of the Gladiators was the evening's leading scorer with 24 points.

my body — my left knee and hip as I slide through my first step. The proper way is to keep the body loose, allowing the knee to bend considerably.

Because my knee is fairly straight, I do not get close enough to the floor and so I must dig my right shoulder to get the ball onto the lane without dumping it from a severe angle.

When I come through with the ball my right arm pulls across my body, thus providing the side-arm effect. This doesn't keep me from earning my share of cash in the make money, but it isn't likely that many ten-pinners could score well if they copied this unorthodox habit.

Now that you know how to do it, let me tell you the right way — the way I teach bowling in Los Angeles.

2—Bend the right hip with it.

3—Use a pendulum swing parallel to your body.

4—Keep your shoulders level.

SIDE-ARM DELIVERY

Gonzales Wins 6th Straight Net Duel

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pancho Gonzales, the pro tennis champion of the world, won his sixth straight match Wednesday night by defeating Ken Rosewall, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4.

Earlier, Alex Olmedo won the opening match of a two-day series at the arena with a 10-8, 9-7 defeat over Tony Trabert.

Gonzales, undefeated on Jack Kramer's pro tennis tour, overpowered his young opponent, although Rosewall displayed excellent passing shots and rallied in the final set from 1-3 to 4-5. His record now is 2-4.

About 2,000 persons attended.

Dickie's Quintet Rallies for 79-74 Waterford Win

Dickie's Marathon came from behind to defeat Weedon's Home Equipment 79-74 in a free-wheeling Class B Waterford League basketball game Wednesday night at Pierce Junior High.

Weedon's held a 35-31 halftime lead. Dickie's went ahead in the 3rd quarter and the score was tied at 74-74 with one minute to go. Two driving layup shots by Clarence Beers in the final minute iced the decision for the Dickie cagers.

Beers took scoring honors for the winners with 22 points, but individual laurels in the contest went to Weedon's Tim Underwood who scored 29.

In yesterday's other Class B game, Kuhn's Auto Wash handed Gabriel's Golden Greeks a 59-38 shellacking. Cleland Charbonneau tallied 24 points for Kuhn's, while Ernie Savas led the Greeks with 10.

Rookie Faces Rangers Tonight

Sawchuk to Get Rest

DETROIT — The slumping fourth-year Detroit Red Wings play host to the New York Rangers tonight with a new goalie in front of the nets.

Terry Sawchuk, the regular Wing goal, asked for and got a rest of three games or so. Dennis Riggins, the No. 2 goalie in the Detroit system, flew in from Edmonton as a replacement. It will be Riggins's National Hockey League debut.

Riggins, 25, also will work Saturday's game at Toronto and Sunday's tilt here against Chicago.

"Then we'll take stock of things and decide upon our next move," said coach Sid Abel.

Abel said Sawchuk asked for relief because his legs are bothering him again. Terry missed three games earlier in the season when he was stricken by a form of virus neuritis.

The Wing coach said Sawchuk also has had personal problems. His wife, Pat, went home from the hospital yesterday after giving birth to their fourth child. She had been hospitalized six weeks while awaiting the baby.

"Terry has been under a lot of tension worrying about his wife and the rest will do him good," Abel said.

While the Wings haven't won in five games, Sawchuk's work has been about the same and Abel stressed he had no complaints about Terry's play.

Riggins, a slender, 160-pounder.

Kansas City Open Golf Event Has No Sponsor

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Open, a PGA golf circuit tournament since 1948, has lost its sponsor and may not be played this year.

Kansas City Golf Ass'n. sponsorship was withdrawn from the $20,000 event yesterday. The KCGA blamed financial reasons, pointing out that last year's tournament lost around $1,000.

This year's tourney is scheduled for June 25-26. If another sponsor isn't found, the dates will be turned back to the PGA.

U. of M. Goalie Tops

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — Jim Coyle of the University of Michigan is the leading goalie in the Western Collegiate Hockey Ass'n. He has yielded 15 goals in 6 games for a 2.5 average, half a goal better than his nearest competitor.

Michigan Tech's production line is among the top five scorers in the league. Paul Coppo has 28 points. Gerald Fabbro 27 and John Kosianiec 25. Leading scorer is Bill Masterson of Denver with 32.

NEW YORK — Christy Mathewson won more than 30 games in nine others.

Fresh Snowfall Greet Foreign Ski Arrivals

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (U) — Fresh snow in the Sierra today greets the first large foreign contingent arriving for the Winter Olympic Games.

Seventy-three persons, from Italy, Austria, France and Switzerland, were due to arrive by charter airliner at Reno.

The 22 from Austria will proceed to Heavenly Valley at the south end of Lake Tahoe and reach Squaw Valley on Sunday night.

The 35 from Italy, 15 from France and one official from Switzerland will proceed directly to the Olympic village.

Fresh snow will greet the new arrivals. A fall lasted all day yesterday with more forecast today. An estimated foot of new snow fell in the valley.

Despite the storm, a seven-man telephone crew began installation of $250,000 worth of television gear atop KTTZ in preparation for telecasting the games.

During the storm, stomping Marines boot-packed the men's downhill course, Lt. Col. Joseph Bruder and Major Albert Snell said the past few encountered tricky snow conditions and slippery going.

Dr. Jean Carole, secretary-general of the French National Olympic Committee, arrived in Squaw Valley to make preparations for the arrival of the French team. He appeared confident of good Olympic games.

"There is no reason to worry about the slopes, the snow or the preparation of the tracks," he said. "I think they are little too much of the military type."

While Oscar was establishing two 3-year standards, most points (2571) and most free throws (767) and moving within striking distance of Dick Henrich's 4-year mark of 2587 points, Tom and Sam Stith threatened to become the highest scoring family combination in basketball history.

NCAA Service Bureau statistics released today show that the St. Bonaventure brothers are averaging 50.6 points a game. Tom is runner-up to Robertson with a 30.5 average. Sam is scoring at a 23.1 clip.

High scoring brother acts in basketball are rare. But the records show no pair ever has before combined for as much as 50 points a game over an entire season.

Robertson continues to lead the scoring parade with a 25.8 average through games of Feb. 1. Ohio State held its first place in team offense with an average of 82.4 points in compiling a 14-2 mark.

The scoring leaders:

1. Oscar Robertson, Cincinnati: 17 219 171 696 31.6

2. Tom Stith, St. Bonaventure: 14 168 91 427 39.5

3. Sam Stith, St. Bonaventure: 16 190 71 451 28.3

4. Jerry West, West Virginia: 19 187 122 391 27.9

A GENERAL TIRE FOR EVERY TRUCKING NEED!

No matter what the job—long distance hauling, stop and go city deliveries, off-the-highway... off-the-road service. General truck tires help you to do that job better, faster! No job is too big—no job is too tough... for General has a different tire, a different tread for every job... designed especially to do that job better than any other tire.

Traction Rib: Engineered for longer mileage on the main country or local cartage runs. Years of use have proven the Traction Rib to be today's greatest "bonus" mileage bargain. (Available in Nylon or rayon cord construction)

Super Expressway: Here's the tire that has been labeled "the long mileage tire" because of its deeper tread—44% deeper than tread on regular truck tires—gives many more original miles. (Available in Nylon or rayon cord construction)

DCL: Strong Nylon cord construction gives the DCL a body of unusual strength—resists lane change, potholes—gives a longer life. (Available in Nylon or rayon cord construction only)

Super All-Grp: Wide, flat tread and sharp-edged cleats make this tire excellent as drive wheel tire on delivery trucks, school buses and vehicles that travel on or off the highway. (Available in Nylon or rayon cord construction)

HCT: For transit concrete mixers, oil haulers, dump trucks and most types of freight hauling vehicles. Thicker tread cushions the ride by putting more rubber on the road. (Available in Nylon or rayon cord construction)

LCM: Ideally suitable for operation under any road conditions. For use on drive and front wheels on dump trucks, logging, mining and most types heavy road building equipment. (Available in Nylon or rayon cord construction)

California Gives Okay to Fund of $1,000,000

SACRAMENTO (U) — The California Legislature late Wednesday approved a million dollar fund to insure that the Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley won't run short of money if a blizzard cuts ticket sales.

The fund was approved 54-21 by the assembly, exactly the required two-thirds of the 80-member House. The Senate passed the bill with exactly the required votes Monday.

The state already had put up eight million dollars for the Games, and many legislators thought that was enough.

Big Dave Breaks Sparrow's Mark

DETROIT—Known for his great strategy, coach Ed Hickey was called the "Little Emperor" while he was coaching at St. Louis in the Missouri Valley Conference.

Now at Marquette, Hickey is still the strategist, but last night his strategy backfired and it helped the University of Detroit to its 15th victory, 65-58.

With a minute and a half to play and trailing by two points, 60-58, Marquette went into a weave and controlled the ball hoping to work in for the good shot.

With 38 seconds to play, Detroit's Ray Albee intercepted a pass and that killed Marquette's hope for the tying shot.

In the final 22 seconds, U. of D. scored five points and it was Walled Lake's Larry Hughes, who had a bad night on the floor all through the game, contributed the crucial basket.

Charley North made a free throw to make it 63-58 and his missed second shot was pushed through by Hughes on the rebound for the clincher.

schere slipped in 27 points to break Guy Sparrow's record for a sophomore. He now has 431 points in 17 games, Sparrow had 19 points in 26 games during the 1955-56 season.

Walt Mangham of Marquette popped in 26 points, 22 in the first half. Marquette bounced to an early 14-8 lead, but just before the half Albee stole a pass and went in to tie the score 36-36 at intermission.

Marquette was ahead only 46-44 with 12:38 in the second half. The Warriors tied it twice but never went ahead after that.

Another capacity crowd of 9,300 watched the game bringing the Titans closer to the 100,000 season mark with two games left at home. Saturday night, 14th ranked U. of D. faces 12th ranked Toledo on the Toledo court. The game has been sold out for a month.

Salary Cut Is Too Much Says Unsigned Mantle

CHICAGO (U.P.)—An adamant Mickey Mantle says he is not going to sign a contract for the pay cut which the New York Yankees have asked him to take.

"I can't afford not to play," said the high-salaried Mantle, "but I'm not going to take the pay cut they gave me."

Mickey, who along with other Yankees had a bad year which saw the Bombers drop into third place, said he felt that he and the Yankee management would meet "somewhere along the way."

"But if it gets that bad that they won't try to meet my terms—well anything might happen."

Asked if this meant he might quit baseball, Mantle said: "I told you I can't afford not to play but in a few years it might be different."

Mantle made no bones about the fact that he is the No. 1 drawing card for the Yankees and that his and their downfall had no effect on his power at the gate.

Mantle reportedly received $75,000 last year when he batted .285, hit 31 homers and batted in 75 runs. Rumors are that the Yankees want to cut his salary to $60,000 this year.

"I'm willing to take a cut," said Mantle, "but not that much." "Certainly," he continued, "we're not as bad as we looked last year. We had key injuries and that didn't help."

Of the Presidential Hopefuls, That Is

We Are Speaking of Religion...

By LOUIS CASELLES
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Of the six men most often mentioned as possible presidential candidates, five are members of Protestant churches and one—Sen. John F. Kennedy—is a Catholic.
Kennedy's catholicism has been the subject of a good deal of public discussion. But relatively little attention has been focused on the religious affiliations of the other potential candidates.
A distinguished Catholic editor, John Cogley of Commewell Magazine, suggests that there is a reason, other than mere prejudice, for this differential of interest.
" We all have legitimate interest in how the President reaches his ideas of wrong and right, good and bad," Cogley wrote recently.
" In the case of Protestant presidents, with the Protestant emphasis on individual judgment, it has largely been a question of sizing up the man himself. The influence of his church, we have been led to believe, was comparatively indirect.
" A Catholic president, on the other hand, would have to acknowledge that the teachings of the church are of prime importance to him... unlike the Protestant, the Catholic believes that the church is a visible body, hierarchically organized, which speaks with God-given authority on questions of faith and morals."
It is possible, of course, to conjecture situations in which the religion of a Protestant candidate might become a political issue.
Take, for example, the case of Vice President Richard M. Nixon. Nixon is usually described as a Quaker.
One who subscribed to the traditional Quaker teaching of pacifism, many Americans might feel that his religion was a matter of political concern since the president must serve as chief architect of the nation's defense and commander-in-chief of the armed forces.

Actually, Nixon has made it clear that he is by no means a pacifist. In fact, there is some question whether Nixon should now be described as a Quaker or as a Methodist.
Although he is still listed as a member in good standing of the Friends Meeting of East Whittier, Calif., Nixon and his family regularly attend the metropolitan Memorial Methodist Church in Washington. The Nixon children are enrolled in Sunday School there.
The same situation obtains with regard to three other potential candidates.

Adlai Stevenson has been a Unitarian most of his life, but in recent years has frequently attended Presbyterian churches.
Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson was baptized into the Disciples of Christ denomination, which is best known in his native Texas as the "Christian Church."
But when Johnson goes to church in Washington, it is usually at St. Mark's Episcopal Church on Capitol Hill...
Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey is listed as a member of the First Congregational Church of Minneapolis. Minn. But he and his family regularly attend the Chevy Chase Methodist Church in Washington, and are regarded there as "associate members."

Sen. Stuart Symington is the only prospective candidate besides Kennedy whose church affiliation can be given in a single word. Symington is unequivocally an Episcopalian.
He attends Washington Episcopal Cathedral and was chosen last year to represent the laymen of his denomination at installation ceremonies for the new Episcopal presiding bishop, The Most Rev. Arthur C. Lichtenberger.

Congo Will Have Discrimination in Reverse

BRUSSELS (UPI)—Racial discrimination with a unique twist will be practiced in the Belgian Congo when that African colony gains its independence June 30. The Congo's 100,000 white residents will be denied the right to vote.
That privilege of citizenship will be reserved only for the Congo's 11 million Negroes.
Most of the white Europeans in the Congo are civil servants or employees of large colonial firms, but could have qualified as bona fide residents.
The decision to deprive the whites of the vote was made yesterday by a committee of whites and Negroes. The committee is part of the Belgocongo Round Table Conference charged with drawing up rules for the May and June elections to fill the Congolese Senate and National Assembly.
" And to think we were once so eager to hear her say her first word."

File Bill to Restore 50-50 Welfare Plan

LANSING (UPI)—Detroit area legislators Wednesday launched a move to restore the 50-50 formula for state and local sharing of direct welfare costs.
Similar moves failed the last two years.
Nine House Democrats and two Republicans filed a bill to revise the formula under which communities and the City of Detroit pick up 70 per cent of the welfare tab and the state 30 per cent.
They also proposed to require the state to take over the entire load after local governments have paid an amount equal to one mill of the state equalized valuation. The current figure, set by the State Welfare Commission, is 4 1/2 mills.
In Detroit, where agitation for restoration of the 50-50 formula is strongest, the state would assume full payment when the city has paid out $5,400,000. Currently, the figure is $8,300,000.
The Legislature set the current sharing formula in 1957, agreeing in return for the state's cut in welfare costs to pay up to 90 per cent of the county hospitalization costs for welfare recipients.
Wayne County and others with heavy industrialization moved to return to equal sharing when business recessions sent welfare costs soaring.

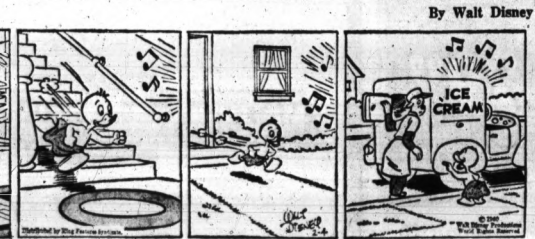

Prices of Comet Will Be Bit Over Those of Falcon

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Ford Motor Co. says its new line of Comet passenger cars, which goes on sale March 17, will be priced $79 to $86 over the Ford Falcon.
Ben D. Mills, general manager of Lincoln-Mercury Division, said the Comet two-door sedan will carry a sticker price of $1,998 and the four-door sedan $2,055. Those prices include federal excise tax but transportation charges and state and local taxes are extra.
Mills is attending the annual meeting of the National Auto Dealers Assn.
The Comet is in effect a luxury version of the new Falcon. It has the same 90-horsepower six-cylinder engine but different styling and a more luxurious interior.
The Comet has a 114-inch-wheelbase, 4 1/2 inches more than the Falcon, and at 15 feet is about one foot longer overall.
Mills emphasized he considers the Comet directly competitive with all of the new compact autos.

Exceptional Child Will Be Theme of Haviland PTA

The problems and progress of the exceptional child will be the program theme of the Laura Haviland School monthly PTA meeting Feb. 11, at 8 p.m.

Two state educators will attend to handle the program, according to Sally Johnson, Haviland principal.

Dr. Helmut Hoffman, Wayne State University expert on child psychology, and Jack M. White, director of public relations for the Michigan Education Assn., will present the crucial areas in special education of the exceptional child.

A film entitled "The Responsibility is Ours" will be shown. Prepared by the M.E.A., it singles out the work being done with cerebral palsied, mentally handicapped, speech defective, hard of hearing and physically handicapped children.

About 75 persons are expected to attend the meeting. The Haviland School is located at 5305 Cass, Elizabeth Lake Rd., Waterford Township.

Finds Michigan Sign New York Could Use

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The Beautiful Wife and I were driving through Michigan a few days ago when the B.W. spotted a restaurant sign between Ann Arbor and Lansing that said, "All you can eat for $200." A few N.Y. restaurants could use that sign—if they'd change the 2 to 5.

Frank Sinatra introduced Sen. Kennedy at Las Vegas a couple of nights ago and there was wild cheering from the audience. Then Dean Martin stepped from the wings and said to Sinatra, "What was his name?" (Sammy Davis Jr.—appearing there with Sinatra, Martin, Peter Lawford and Joey Bishop also making the movie, "Ocean's 11"—collapsed from lack of oxygen and lack of sleep, and was ordered to rest.)

Gov. Rockefeller at the Baseball Writers' dinner said he was there, "because I've been told I'm the No. 1 holdout this spring." Leo Durocher was missing and a friend said: "He's got a better game now—gin rummy."

Nancy Kovack, the beauty from Detroit, studied Italian, so she could do films in Europe. And sure enough a producer she met at a party at Kirk Douglas' house asked her to audition here for a European TV series, "About Paris," he explained.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL

What a cat! "La Plume De Ma Tante" had at the benefit raising $35,000 for French food victims! Water Pidgeon came from a streetwrecker following a horse. Claudette Colbert played a stewardess. Gwen Verdon an out-of-step chorus girl. Laurence Harvey a monk, and Sir Laurence Olivier was a ventriloquist with a dummy singing "I've Grown Accustomed to Her Face"—the voice ofstage, that of Rex Harrison... Dizzy Dean reveals he's zoomed up to 280 pounds... The famous boxer Thers is due to shutter Feb. 12... Eddie Cantor's doctor won't OK his coast-to-coast travel, unless urgent.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: With the amount of wonder drugs fed farm animals (says Lester Kilmke) it's a wonder you need a prescription to buy a pound of hamburger.

According to Recent Poll:

Michigan Dems Prefer Kennedy Over Williams

DETROIT (AP)—A Detroit news also proved himself labor's favor: paper said today its presidential tie. It said:

"Unskilled laborers declaring themselves Democrats gave him 38.8 per cent of their votes. Skilled workers from the same party gave him 35.1 per cent."

"Williams got 29.2 and 25.4 per cent, respectively, in these categories—usually his prime source of election day support."

The poll is by Richard W. Oudersluys' Market-Optim Research Co.

Kennedy won 29.9 per cent of the preferences expressed by all voters—Democrats, Republicans and Independents. Williams was second with 15.2 and Stevenson third with 14 per cent.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota got only 7.3 per cent of the Michigan Democrats' votes, trailing Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, who had 10.1 per cent.

Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri and Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas each got 3.2 per cent, and Gov. Robert Meyer of New Jersey 1.5 per cent.

Republican voters, asked to express their choice for a Democratic presidential candidate, approved Kennedy with 24.7 per cent. They gave Williams only 3.4 per cent. Among Republicans, Kennedy declined to state a preference as to a Democratic candidate.

Only nine-tenths of one per cent of the Democrats polled had no preference at this time.

The poll showed the loyalty of Negro voters to Williams. He collected 44 per cent of all Negro votes. Stevenson was second with 19.9 and Kennedy third with 17 per cent.

Reckless Driver Gets Probation, Fine, School

Alvin R. Benton, 21, of 431 Hurler St. was found guilty of reckless driving today by Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

He was put on six months probation, fined $10 probation costs and ordered to attend the Oakland County Driver Safety School.

Judge McCallum also ordered Benton to make restitution of $100 to a motorist whose car was damaged in a recent accident with Benton's auto.

Oosterbaan's Mother Dies in Muskegon at 89

MUSKEGON (AP)—Mrs. B. G. Oosterbaan, member of a pioneer Muskegon family, died yesterday at her home. She was 89.

Born Feb. 25, 1870, at Muskegon, she was the mother of Bennie G. Oosterbaan who is assistant University of Michigan athletic director and former football coach.

Her husband, who died in December 1934, was a one-time Muskegon postmaster.

Could Make Enemies, Government Unit Told of Lansing Meeting

LANSING (AP)—County officials have been warned they will make a lot of enemies if they proposed a method of selecting jury lists passes the Legislature.

D. Hale Brake, president, told a meeting of the Institute of Local Government yesterday that county officials would have to interview and reject unfit jurors under a bill to revise the municipal code.

"You'd make a lot of enemies that way," Brake said. "No one has been told he isn't fit for jury duty."

The annual meeting of the institute, which claims representation from 63 counties, attracted an attendance of 38. The institute, supported by dues and foundation grants, conducts clinics for newly-elected local and county officials.

Brake said talks are continuing on a proposed reform of the institute with the Michigan Supervisors Assn.

Delegates avoided taking a stand on the controversial constitutional convention issue.

Brake, a former state treasurer, was re-elected president. C. Ross Hillard, Ingham County Clerk, was re-elected first vice president.

Named as directors were Fredland Suggen, Caru, Ruth Bacon, Port Huron, Mich. Humberg, Mason; Gerald Shepherd, Bath; and Willis L. Moore, Adrian.

American Motors to Split Stock 3-1

DETROIT (AP)—President George Romney told American Motors Corp. stockholders yesterday the firm is eyeing diversification.

Stockholders at a meeting here approved an increase in authorized common stock from 10 to 30 million shares in a 3-for-1 stock split. They also re-elected all directors.

Romney said $2 million dollars spent to bring American Motors' automobile production capacity up to 625,000 Ramblers a year has been paid for entirely out of earnings.

AMC expects to complete its expansion program, by next fall.

"We have no bank debt and relatively little long-term debt," Romney said. "We are in a favorable position to weather economic reversions, which would increase the percentage of low price, compact car sales."

'Tempest' Easy to Take, Cohesive, Fresh, Honest

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UP)—To all those schoolchildren who had to watch "The Tempest" on TV last night as a homework assignment:

Now, that wasn't hard to take, was it?

I believe William Shakespeare himself, a pre-TV playwright who worked off Broadway, would have been entranced by this Hallmark Hall of Fame production on NBC-TV.

Produced and directed by George Schaefer, beautifully mounted by Ruben Ter-Arutman, the 90-minute adaptation by John Edward Friend was cohesive, fresh, imaginative and honest.

Friend did more than edit lines and censor some of Shakespeare's lusty language. He slipped scenes skillfully, lifted them out with loving care and shuffled sequences around in order to make the production easier to follow, without violating the Shakespeare spirit.

GOOD TECHNIQUES
The tale of wizardry, love and benevolent vengeance on a small storm-tossed island also benefited from electronic techniques that gave it new visual attractiveness.

Thus, we had fanciful spirit magic and the wild creatures ingeniously brought to life. We were able to see Roddy McDowell as Ariel, an airy spirit, around like a tall, thin spunk, complete with antennas. He did an outstanding job.

The colors, generally subdued, pastel tones, also added to the other-world aura that is so essential to the production mood.

Another factor in the lively pace of the show was the handling of Shakespeare's blustery comedy scenes.

The way to do the "Tempest" comedy is all-out and that's how it was done last night. This also served to add to the importance of the contrasting scenes of tender-

The most impressive acting job that of Richard Burton as the savage, deformed slave, Caliban. His tones ranged from loud to pitiable as he dominated his scenes. His impact was powerful.

As Prospero, the deposed Duke of Milan, Maurice Evans created sympathetic, appealing figure. He succeeded completely in submerging Maurice Evans as he played his part. Tom Poston, as Trinculo, William Bassett as Ferdinand and Ronald Radd as Stephano were happy choices for their widely disparate roles. All performed with fine effect, as did Liam Redmond as Gonzalo, Geoffrey Lomb as Alonso and William Le Massena as Antonio.

Le Massena, as the beautiful Miranda, had trouble controlling her lines in her scenes with Evans, although she did better during later scenes with Bassett.

George Schaefer, who has had such great success with Shakespeare on TV, maintained his record for high quality, taste and beauty with this memorable adaptation of "The Tempest."

Far Understaffed Already, Need More Help: Official

A Pontiac State Hospital official today said he didn't know where the personnel would come from to staff an additional 110-bed unit for children. The recommendation was made by a study group of the Michigan Probate Judges Assn. and the American Assn. of University Women.

Probate Judge Arthur A. Moore said this notion is a "bug-a-boo" that retards progress of the committee which today announced it would recommend a $3,450,000 program to provide for children's facilities at the six main state mental hospitals.

"The hospital's assistant superintendent, Dr. Theodore Saterstrom, agreed with the judge that 'the kids are the ones who suffer' as facts were bared showing the institution to be grossly understaffed and lacking the provisions for the youngsters.

Saterstrom disclosed that the hospital has only 22 per cent of the number of registered nurses it should have for the hospital's 100 patient population, 48.8 per cent of the number of doctors prescribed and about 80 per cent of the required psychiatric attendants.

79 JUVENILE PATIENTS Pontiac State Hospital now cares for 79 juvenile patients ranging in age from 12 to 18. Eight of the children are under 10 years of age.

"We would welcome an additional unit for children," said Saterstrom. "But the most important problem is staffing such a unit. We are greatly under-strength now."

"Children need specialized facilities, techniques, treatment and attention. We do have a school, and we have a separate ward for juveniles, but there are only 23 beds. The others and the girls are housed with adult patients."

"We have a little section in the basement which is used for other things, but the children use it sometimes for recreational and occupational therapy."

Moore said there is a waiting list

Stanley Brown in Senate Race

Former Candidate Set to Ask GOP Nomination in August Primary

Bidding for the Republican nomination for state senator representing Oakland County is Stanley Brown, Birmingham manufacturer's representative for industrial and defense products.

Brown, 40, of 632 Ardmore Dr., Bloomfield Hills, in 1952 sought the GOP nomination for the county's congressional seat in 1956 finished fifth in the primary behind Sen. L. Harvey Lodge, the man he hopes to defeat this Aug. 2.

The candidate, an Air Force pilot and squadron commander during World War II, was elected justice of the peace in 1953 in Southfield Township. He had to relinquish the position six months later when he moved to Bloomfield Township.

Active in aviation, Brown was recently recommended by Congressmen William S. Bromfield and Rep. Fawcett E. Roberts to the Metropolitan Aviation Authority.

The New Jersey native and resident of this county since 1948 is a GOP precinct delegate from the township. He is married and the father of four children. Brown states in his announcement he is "100 per cent" for a constitutional convention proposed by the Michigan Chamber of Commerce and League of Women Voters.

BARGAINS IN SUITS—Dr. E. Arthur Calkins, 538 Bagley Dr., Orion Township, was one of the first to take advantage of the annual suit sale at Osburn's Town & Country store in the Tel-

Huron shopping center. Mrs. Calkins inspects the fit. The store has placed 535 suits on sale for $33 apiece. The sale began at 8 a.m. today and runs through Saturday.

He will officially kick off the county's GOP drive to hang onto all elected county officers again, capture six state legislative posts, and keep a Republican in the state senate and U.S. House of Representatives. County Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr. will start the ball rolling.

Introducing Griffin, who lived with his parents in Pontiac before college terms, will be Oakland Congressman William S. Bromfield, who this year will be seeking his third term in Washington.

The 36-year-old Griffin, who practically sprang out of nowhere into national prominence when he co-authored the controversial labor reform bill last year, comes into a county which claims the first "Griffin-for-Senator" draft movement.

He's expected to confer privately with influencers of this campaign as the campaign received to date from some 1,500 "pledge of support" invitations they sent out to top GOP leaders around Michigan.

REPORTS ON MAIL Theodore Koella, a member of the group and president of the Lincoln club here, said the "mail is piling up." Although he couldn't give any indication of how the pros and cons were running, another drafter said he was "surprised" with the letters received.

Also weighing the decision whether to seek the same nomination is Rep. Alvin M. Bentley of Owosso. Bentley has promised a decision Feb. 11.

He's scheduled for two appearances around the state as part of the 32 dinners planned for Michigan to commemorate Lincoln's 151st birthday.

Griffin will be guest of a local congregation of National Federation of Independent Businessmen at a noon luncheon Monday at the Waldron Hotel.

The will be followed by a tea at the hotel sponsored by the Republican Women's Federation of Oakland County.

Toastmaster for the evening banquet will be Merritt D. Hill, finance director for the county committee.

"Tickets are going well" for the dinner, Koella said. None will be sold at the door. Griffin's appearance in Pontiac will follow his first of eight appearances scheduled for Saturday in Standish. Others will be Feb. 11 in Ottawa County, Feb. 12 in Ann Arbor, Feb. 13 in Romeo, and Feb. 15 in Battle Creek.

The Day in Birmingham Here's a Chance to Learn About State Government

BIRMINGHAM—Interested in learning more about Michigan government? If so, you can buy an informative 88 page booklet, "Know Your State," at the Baldwin Public Library, according to Jeanne Lloyd, librarian.

"The booklet would be particularly valuable to members of Citizens for Michigan groups," Miss Lloyd said.

A League of Women Voters publication, it shows where the state gets its funds and how they are spent, she said. Drawings illustrate how a bill becomes Michigan law.

"The text discusses the state constitution and its history, duties of state officials, officers, boards, departments and commissions," she said.

It also points out the work of the Legislature and the courts as well as state services such as education, public health, and highways.

Reference librarian Marguerite Anderson invites Citizens workers to visit the reference desk for a variety of loan material concerning Michigan government.

A reading list has been prepared, and books and magazines have been made available at the library, she said.

"Some material may be used only in the library, but most may be taken out for three days or one-week periods," she said.

An intensive information program is being launched this month in Oakland County by the Organization and Development Committee of the Northwestern Deacons of the Detroit Archdiocese Council of Catholic Women.

It is under the direction of Mrs. K. Powers, 1235 E. Maple Rd. Cooper said they hired Cody to follow Mrs. Finch—in the hopes of finding her committing an indiscretion with a man.

en route he threw (away) the gun and her purse, that he found he still had in his hands.

The state was never found. The state also charged that Cooper and Finch hired an escaped convict named John Patrick Cody to kill Mrs. Finch.

Cooper said they hired Cody to follow Mrs. Finch—in the hopes of finding her committing an indiscretion with a man.

Book Reveals Sellout by Roosevelt at Yalta

"Roosevelt's Road to Russia," a book by GEORGE N. CROCKER, again emphasizes the awful ride this nation and the whole world took under FDR's bungling at Yalta.

"Mesmerized from the start," it says, "Roosevelt presented a spectacle that can only be described as pitiful—a fading President, floating slowly out of this life, outmatched and outwitted at every point, mouthing meaningless clichés, and dripping with slumbery in the presence of the dictator (Stalin).

"No man at the table could have doubted that STALIN would make an alliance with the Devil or with angels, if it would be to his advantage, or break it whenever it suited him.

"Poland was to be dismembered. Some eleven million people who lived in the eastern half of prewar Poland were to be surrendered to the Soviet Union without a semblance of a plebiscite. Stalin, Roosevelt and Churchill decreed Soviet annexation of 48% of Poland's territory and one-third of her population.

"For four days CHURCHILL fought against his faithfulness (to STALIN), but his American colleague would not stand with him. Never has there been such a millionfold uprooting of human beings and CHURCHILL admitted in the House of Commons in August of 1945, 'It was not a good augury for the future of Europe.'"

The book goes on in great detail to establish the ineptness of the President who represented the greatest and most powerful nation on earth and who bent low before the bloodthirsty STALIN. Well, that's that and we can't do much about it today except bow in shame, but it stands as a horrible example of futility for President Eisenhower to bear in mind when he deals with the Reds.

Improved Radar Set Has Exciting Future

A new radar transmission set with the code name Project Madre has been developed for early warning defense purposes. It can "see" over the horizon and detect moving objects 2,600 miles away.

Ordinary radio beams do not follow the earth's curve but travel in a straight line so that low flying craft or surface vessels can not be detected. Beams from Project Madre however, bounce off the electrically charged layer of the upper atmosphere.

This scientific advance could replace the radar warning fences now extending across Canada and the picket ships and radar search planes that guard our sea coasts. In the Atlantic this protection extends to the Azores and in the Pacific to Midway.

Peaceful uses of the improved radar are of great interest too. Long range television transmission, improved air safety and other forms of communication might be developed for the benefit of mankind.

Make Out Wills Now, Not Tomorrow

Recently The Chicago Tribune carried an editorial urging people to draw a will.

The response was gratifying. Lawyers reported many.

What is good for Chicagoans is good for Pontiacers. Very often people neglect the matter simply through inattention. They expect confidently to "do it tomorrow." But this is often another one of those tomorrows that never come.

Wills can go into great detail, but a general document that points the way roughly and indicates what is wanted, actually serves a very desirable purpose. And the individual that leaves the property knows that things will be done in accordance with his general wishes.

Give it some thought. If you intend to act "sometime," accept this nudge as a reason for taking care of the matter right now. We suggest a lawyer, but that isn't absolutely necessary if you understand the procedure.

Ike Unruffled by Defense Critics

WASHINGTON—There is something inspiring about the calm and dispassionate way that President Eisenhower deals with the alarmist talk that has been the headlines of late about the safety of the United States against Soviet attack.

Eisenhower, in his delicate position, naturally cannot, with any sabre rattling, for the Soviets would criticize him as a "warmonger."

Yet he must answer the criticism at home that comes from generals, as well as politicians, who think America is "losing the race" or failing to "catch up" on missiles, trips to the moon, and various other endeavors in the field of science and exploration.

The President said at his press conference Wednesday:

"I am always a little bit amazed at this business of catching up. What you want is enough—a thing that is adequate. A 'deterrent' has no added power, once it has become completely adequate, for compelling the respect of any potential opponent for your 'deterrent' and, therefore, to make him act prudently."

This is but another way of saying that the United States has the military power today to destroy the Soviet Union and doesn't have to feel inferior because some other country may have more of certain types of weapons. It is the adequacy of our overall power that Eisenhower explicitly reaffirms.

But, it is asked, how is it that Gen. Power of the Strategic Air Command, who is in charge of the 100 missiles, the Soviets can destroy our ability to fight back?

The answer to that is the one that the general himself gives in the "Airborne Alert." This means that the United States would have in the air at all times enough manpower to deliver a destructive blow in retaliation, and the mere knowledge that this can happen is enough to deter the Russians from making the attack.

Gen. Power wants more money for the "Airborne Alert." He is sincere about it. He thinks this is essential.

But the President, and his other military advisers, including the Joint Chiefs of Staff, think that can be put into the development of certain doesn't seem to be for the next few months at least—the same money, about $750 million, can be put into the development of missiles and the improvement of other weapons of warfare. In fact, the President put it this way in his budget message to Congress recently:

WAIT FOR NEED "It is neither necessary nor practical to fly a continuous Airborne Alert at this time. Such a procedure would, over a relatively short period of time, seriously degrade our overall capability to respond to attack. What I am recommending is a capability to fly such an alert if the need arises, and to maintain that alert for a reasonable period of time, until the situation which necessitated it becomes clarified."

But a general naturally isn't satisfied with this. It's his business to keep his defenses up. The civilian side, however, takes what are called "calculated risks."

It means that in this era of Soviet policy the belief is that Moscow will not take a chance on a nuclear blow at the United States, for the Soviet Union, would have to face manned bombers from European bases as well as missiles from naval vessels, and the Russians would not wish to risk such destruction.

"I don't believe," said the President, "that anyone today can destroy all of our capabilities for retaliation, and they cannot destroy today enough of them that we couldn't retaliate very effectively to the point of destructiveness to them."

Training Requirements for Nurses Hoity-Toity

doctor, one of the nation's most brilliant surgeons, as follows:

"The bright girls who go into nursing could learn in one year of hard, earnest work all that is required of them or that most of them will ever be called upon to perform."

"I think the three and four-year courses now required of nurses are full of drudgery and other degrading tasks that have little bearing on what they will be doing once they are graduated. And there is no reason that the girl who wants to go on and specialize shouldn't be given every opportunity."

I mediated whether to print the piece in the first place, because the doctor who made the statement was not identified.

I'm afraid some readers learned that I think "the bright girls who go into nursing could learn in one year of hard, earnest work all that is required of them or that most of them will ever be called upon to perform."

I don't. It is my belief that after high school graduation a two-year course in nurse training school, in a hospital, of course, is entirely adequate to make a nurse a competent nurse, graduate nurse, trained nurse.

I agree with the unidentified "brilliant surgeon" that "there is no reason that the girl who wants to go on and specialize shouldn't be given every opportunity."

But the serious shortage of nurses today is a shortage of ordinary nurses, not specialists. A student nurse in one la-di-da chemistry course runs for four months and includes writing equations, understanding Dalton's atomic theory, electrolysis, drawing atomic structures of the alkylic, aromatic and heterocyclic compounds. She finished the course and most students get by on a slim D grade.

The mother of another student nurse who quit half way through the course tells me a good many students quit or flunk out or don't go into training at all because it is so difficult — girls who might make good nurses if the hospital training course were not cluttered with so much money-busy, I agree.

General duty nurses, an R.N., tells me, are not as well paid as laboratory and X-ray technicians, whose training is about one year. She deplores the situation where a girl feels she can qualify as a teacher with less difficulty and less expense than as a nurse.

Still the R.N. thinks most girls just out of high school are too immature to enter nurse training

Readers Leap to Defense of Pontiac General Hospital

My, the changes in 10 years in size, modernization and the building itself of Pontiac General. The strides in science and the management staff are wonderful.

They seem to keep in rotating nurses just which ones to change. I suppose sometimes the nurses don't think they do it just right, but it seemed every day we had just the nurse that was good for these in my room.

So I am convinced if people who need hospitalization would not be quite so selfish and so quick to find fault with everything, from food to service, we would have less complaints about our hospital. I've been hospitalized 14 times since 1950.

1927 Grandview Rd.

After reading the letter from Mrs. Weingarth, I'm wondering what hospital she stayed in.

In September I had a baby in General Hospital. I had wonderful and constant care. The nurses were so cheerful and willing to make my stay comfortable. As busy as they were, they always were there to help. The food was wonderful and it was served hot and on time.

I think the help deserves a raise. They really work hard for their wages.

Fears Fund Drives Sap Self-Reliance

It's disgusting me most every day when I think what a nation of beggars this is getting to be. Begging for the March of Dimes, the United Council for the Physically Handicapped, Veterans Association, Muscular Dystrophy and many other afflictions.

This on the face that billions are begged from Congress at Washington for foreign aid. We're saved just as happy and healthy a country if every project to raise money was stopped right now, and everyone expected to stand on his own feet and pay for his own bills, and his everlasting welfare solidification.

Do-gooders with mistaken zeal have wrecked the self-reliance and pride our people were long noted for.

Cushions Inflating on Impact Could Replace Car Seat Belts

By JACK VANDENBERG
UPI Automotive Editor

DETROIT — Automobile seat belts may become obsolete before New York or any other state can make them required equipment on cars.

Two Flint men plan to market a new system of holding car passengers in their seats, during a collision, with inflatable "pillows." Consumer interest in seat belts has been lagging despite statistical evidence from safety experts showing they can cut traffic deaths substantially.

The New York Legislature is considering legislation requiring all cars to be equipped with seat belts as one means of overcoming public apathy.

But the auto industry has not favored the New York approach and the new alternative, which could prove more practical than belts, has been greeted by the industry with eager interest.

Harry A. Bertrand and John M. Byers, owners of the Crash-Cushion Co., say they expect to begin marketing their new safety system July 1.

The system will be composed of a deflated cushion, packed away in some area like the glove compartment, and a tank of nitrogen, installed in the most convenient place in the car.

Impact valves to inflate the cushions instantaneously would be placed on the front and rear bumpers and at possible point of impact along the sides. They would be adjusted so it would take a felt capable of throwing the passenger out of his seat to activate them.

In addition, a panic button would be placed near the driver so he could inflate the cushions if he saw a crash was inevitable. Nitrogen is used because it is an inert, nonflammable gas which is easily obtained for refilling the cylinders.

Byers said best estimates indicate that when a car traveling 55 miles an hour hits an immovable object like a tree, it takes seven tenths of a second from the time the bumper hits the tree for the passenger's head to strike the windshield. With the cushion inflating in less than half a second, it would form a barrier between the passenger and the windshield and instrument panel.

The cushions, made of an extremely sturdy synthetic material, deflate within 10 seconds after the crash.

The idea of protective cushions is not new but the problems always had been how to inflate them instantly. Bertrand solved this with a patented valve.

The cushions are inflated with what is called "zero" pressure. This means the pressure in them is equal to the pressure of the surrounding air. Bertrand says zero pressure provides the best shock-absorbing quality because there is virtually no recoil or "ump-back" which could cause injury.

It also has the advantage of making the cushion extremely pliable, permitting the driver to push it out of his line of sight.

At the moment, Bertrand and Byers are thinking largely in terms of cushioning the shocks in an auto accident. But they point out the cushions also could be used in airplanes. In this case, they would not deflate so they could be used as life preservers if a plane crashed in water.

The cushions have been tested more than 200 times on cars and are being constructed according to National Safety Council standards.

They have one big handicap, however.

A unit which would protect all the front seat passengers would cost about $150. A unit to protect all passengers in the car, including a ceiling cushion to protect against roll-over accidents, would cost about $350.

Detroit Will Seek Tax for Automobile Owners

DETROIT — Glenn C. Richards, public works commissioner, disclosed Wednesday Detroit plans to ask the Legislature for authority to levy a local tax on automobile owners.

Richards said the plan would permit the city to tax owners 15 cents for each 100 pounds of their car's weight. He estimated this would be $450 to $5 for the average automobile and said the money raised would be used exclusively on streets and roads.

The Loire River, 620 miles in length, is the longest river in France.

Dem Legislator Files Bill to Get Breakdown on Expenditures

LANSING (AP) — A Detroit Democrat wants to know how much Capitol lobbyists spend to influence legislators and legislation.

Rep. Joseph A. Gillis today filed a bill to require the 184 registered lobbyists, and others as well, to submit details of their expenditures to the secretary of state each year.

Congress and 17 state legislatures require a similar accounting, he said.

"I'm not trying to curtail lobbying or damage lobbyists," Gillis said. "But I think we should bring to public view the amount of money that is spent on lobbying activities."

$5 ANNUAL FEE
Michigan lobbyists, except those who limit their appearances to legislative committee rooms, must pay a $5 annual registration fee.

Following the Senate lead, the House also proposed to ban lobbyists and other non-house employees from committee rooms and offices during sessions.

"We have found that people are playing cards in these rooms and keeping secretaries from doing their work," said Republican Floor Leader Allison Green of Kingston.

Unauthorized persons now are banned from the House floor from 30 minutes before the session opening till 10 minutes after adjournment.

The Senate last month voted to confine lobbyists to the galleries during sessions.

Good Gas Mileage Comes With Few Basic Rules

"Obtaining good gas mileage with your car can become a reality only if the driver practices a few basic rules of 'economy' driving," according to E. M. Estes, chief engineer for Pontiac Motor Division.

"Like finger prints," says Estes, "no two drivers are alike and thus no two cars will give the same, identical mileage. Our engines are specifically designed to give excellent gas mileage along with top performance, but it still remains for the driver to operate his car to his best interests."

Estes, whose engineers are responsible for the development of Pontiac's economy engine, maintains that good mileage and lower operating costs can easily be achieved by learning and following certain skilful driving habits. He suggests that economy-conscious drivers:

Develop the constant speed habit. Best fuel economy is achieved on most cars at a constant speed of 35 to 40 miles per hour.

Avoid high speed driving since conservative speeds require far less fuel. At high speeds gas consumption is greater because of increased wind resistance and engine and tire friction.

Under normal traffic conditions high speeds are difficult to maintain without excessive acceleration and braking. A 40 mile per hour average speed can be maintained while seldom exceeding 40 miles per hour, but to maintain a 50 mile per hour average requires driving whenever possible at 70 miles per hour.

Suppress that desire to surge away from stop lights—and save fuel. Many people who complain about poor fuel economy are the same ones who are most proud of their car performance and who find it necessary to have their brakes adjusted most often. The weight of excess luggage also decreases gasoline mileage.

Watch the road ahead and try to avoid congested traffic and stop lights. When a stop is unavoidable, coast to the stop. Whenever the brakes are used, energy (and thus fuel) is being wasted.

Avoid leaving the car standing

Sunday Sales Ban Measure Introduced

LANSING (AP) — Cities, villages and townships could regulate doing business on Sunday under a proposal by two Democratic senators from Detroit.

A similar bill offered last year by Sen. Harold M. Ryan (D-Detroit) failed to get anywhere. Church groups have promised a drive for state legislation to curb business on Sunday.

Ryan said there was a rising sentiment in the Detroit area against Sunday operation of supermarkets, department and furniture stores. He said the problem could be dealt with more equitably on a community than on a statewide basis.

4 Legislators Ask State to Hit Slap at ROTC

LANSING (AP) — Four lawmakers have asked the Legislature to condemn a proposal that compulsory military training (ROTC) be discontinued at Michigan State University.

Abandonment of ROTC at MSU was termed utter folly in a resolution filed by Democratic Reps. Petri of Ecorse, E. D. O'Brien of Detroit and Sterling of Monroe, and Republican Rep. Waldron of Grosse Pointe.

Growing Adult Recreation Set-Up Gears for an Even Bigger Year

By PETE LOCHMILLER

Pontiac's community school recreational program for adults is getting into high gear.

More than 500 adults participate in various nighttime activities which the Parks & Recreation Department sponsors every week.

In the past year, the number of neighborhoods in the three-year-old program has increased to six and city officials are ready to add as many more as they can.

The adult programs provide varied activities in those neighborhoods which want them, said Leon and T. Buzz, recreation supervisors.

COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

They are carried out in cooperation with the Board of Education, which lets the city use school gymnasiums and classrooms at cost.

Programs are in progress this winter at Lakeside Community Center and Herrington, LeBaron, Weaver, Webster and Bagley schools. A seventh program is to begin soon at Alcott School.

Activities range from athletics and flower arranging to bridge games and woodcarving.

The programs are designed for the adults living in the vicinity of the participating schools.

"We will design and carry out an adult program for any Pontiac neighborhood which wants one," Buzz said.

The only qualification for an adult program, he added, is that sufficient demand has to be demonstrated to assure nighttime attendance.

Classes are taught mostly by school teachers, but in some cases by lay people with special skills. Some of the other activities which the department often offers adults are painting, arts, crafts, cake decorating, ceramics, metal work, landscaping and gardening, sewing, and tailoring.

FOLLOW'S INTEREST

The department tries to organize these activities in which there is special interest, Buzz said. For instance, a dramatics coach is helping a group of adults prepare a comedy at Herrington.

Women at Webster School are learning to play golf.

At Alcott there will be choral singing for a special group of song enthusiasts.

Alcott adults have also asked for gym session and a cake decorating class, Buzz said.

Alcott area adults arranged for their activities through their PTA. Buzz said other PTAs could do the same.

The department is able to schedule men's and women's activities on separate nights or educational activities on the same night, and even family night programs in which the whole family can participate.

A special mother and daughter program was designed for Bagley. Fees are based strictly on the cost of materials used. For instance, the fee for cake decorating classes is $1 and for art classes $10 or more.

$36,000 BUDGETED

This year the department has $36,000 budgeted for afternoon and evening programs for adults and teen-agers.

These programs are carried on separately from the men's athletic leagues which the department sponsors.

Home Loan Financing Is a Revolving Matter

CHICAGO (UPI) — More than half of the money which savings and loan associations lend to families to build or purchase homes comes from repayments on loans outstanding, according to the United States Savings and Loan League.

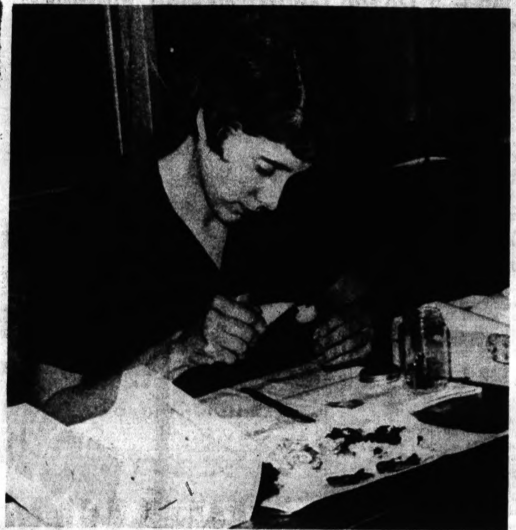

The balance comes from new savings.

FAST-MOVING SPORTS—Men in the Herrington School area get together on Tuesday nights for athletic activities such as this vigorous volley ball game. While most men prefer sports, some participate in the classroom activities sponsored by the Parks & Recreation Department.

LEARNING NEW HOME SKILLS — Mrs. Thomas Peterson, 414 Emerson St., delicately fashions a rosebud in the cake decorating class. Pictures of the painting and flower making classes were also taken at LeBaron.

TOUCHE! — Mrs. Robert Fritchard, 615 Second Ave., gets a pointer from fencing instructor Eldon Gardner. Women find fencing is fun and figure trimming at Wednesday night sessions at Pontiac Central High School.

FLOWER-MAKING—Artificial flowers make attractive home decorations, according to Mrs. Duane Justin (seated), 430 Emerson Ave. So she enrolled in a Parks & Recreation Department course and receives instruction from Mrs. Lewis Smartt (standing) one night a week.

BUDDING ARTIST—Mrs. James Wait, 494 Moore St., puts final touches on a still life painting that she plans to hang in her own home.

UNEF a Peace Guardian, No Fighter

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Mounting tension between Israel and the United Arab Republic has focused attention once more on the role being played in the Middle East by the 5,000-man seven-nation U.N. Emergency Force (UNEF).

It is the first "peace force" ever put in a specific trouble area by the United Nations. But it is not stationed at the current trouble spot around the Sea of Galilee, the scene of armed clashes this week.

It was created in November 1956, when the Middle East was in a period of crisis, by vote of the U.N. General Assembly.

It was given a two-fold mandate:

1. To secure and supervise the cessation of hostilities and the withdrawal of armed forces from Egyptian territory following the Israeli and French-British attacks on Egypt in November 1956.
2. To maintain peaceful conditions in the area.

It patrols the frontier between Israel and the Egyptian part of the United Arab Republic—all on the U.A.R. side—and maintains an outpost at Sharm El Sheikh at the entrance to the Gulf of Aqaba (Syria, where the current border trouble centers, joined Egypt in the U.A.R. after the force was set up.)

Dag Hammarskjöld has praised UNEF as a "significant decisive factor in preventing hostilities and restoring calm in a troubled area."

But the secretary general has also pointed out UNEF is not a fighting force, and can be used only for the specific purpose outlined by the general assembly.

It is not equipped or intended to cope with a major military force.

Among the firm supporters of UNEF is the United States. It costs about 20 million dollars a year to maintain the force. The United States not only pays about 31 per cent of the total as its regular assessment, but makes substantial additional contributions on a volunteer basis.

This is in marked contrast with the Soviet Union and other members of the Soviet bloc, which have not paid a penny toward UNEF since it was established.

The seven nations making up UNEF all volunteered their forces. They come from Brazil, Canada, Denmark, India, Norway, Sweden and Yugoslavia. In the past contingents were furnished also by Colombia, Finland and Indonesia.

All wear their national uniforms, but are distinguished by UNEF badges, light blue berets, fatigue caps, turbans and helmets. Normally each contingent serves as a unit and is rotated home after 5 to 12 months duty.

County Records Fewer Deeds and Mortgages

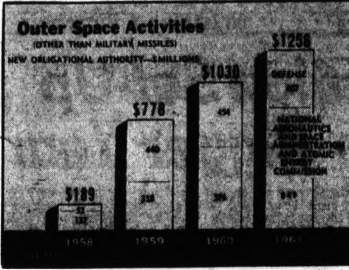

Fewer deeds and mortgages registered last month in the office of the Oakland County register of deeds put the month-end total of receipts at $3,899 less than received for January 1959.

Clerk-Register Daniel T. Murphy Jr. said the decrease in deeds (2,630 last year and 2,146 last month) and reduction in home mortgages (1,347 last year and 983 last month) resulted from a seasonal dip in building last fall and winter.

There was an offset, however, in that 13 new subdivision plats were recorded last month.

"If we keep up at this monthly pace in plats we could close out the year with a record number," Murphy said.

Total papers for last month came to 10,846 and receipts $15,863. Comparable figures for the same period in 1959 were 14,941 papers and $19,762.

Air Alert Debate Tied to Your $$

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A substantial sum of money out of everybody's pocket is involved in the current debate over whether America's nuclear bombers should be put on a continuous airborne alert.

To keep no fewer than 200 of the big bombers constantly aloft, the Air Force estimates, would cost an additional billion dollars a year, or approximately six dollars a year for every man, woman and child in the country.

Gen. Thomas S. Power, chief of the Strategic Air Command, contends that unless this is done Russia will be able to destroy the U.S. nuclear fleet in a 30-minute attack whenever it has deployed as many as 300 intercontinental missiles.

could have 300 missiles ready to fire as early as 1962.

Much of the airborne alert's cost stems from the fact that an eight-engine B52 bomber consumes $78.93 worth of gasoline and oil per hour while in the air.

Plays, Says Only the Best
Martin Block—Responsible DJ

NEW YORK (UPI)—"You have a tremendous responsibility because the things you say and the music you play can influence your audience."

Martin Block, a slight man with a mustache, spoke with the authority of 25 years of visiting millions of homes through the medium of radio. The occasion was the silver jubilee of his disc jockey program, "The Makebelieve Ballroom."

"When Mr. and Mrs. Public extend an invitation to enter their home and permit you to share it you become a member of the family. If they have any regard for you they place a great deal of confidence in what you say," Block said.

The weight of this responsibility has been Block's main concern since his idea of a program of recorded music became a reality Feb. 3, 1935, on an independent New York City radio station.

WROTE OWN THEME

Block, the "Dean of Disc Jockeys" began his radio career as a freelance announcer in California. He came to New York in 1934 and a few months later played the Ballroom's old theme "Let's Dance" for the first time. The program's present theme, "The Makebelieve Ballroom," was written by Block and two others and recorded by the late Glenn Miller with the Modernaires.

"Radio stations at the time were paying big money to hire bands and singers to perform live," Block said. "I thought if people wanted to escape through music why not invite them to dance at a makebelieve ballroom and tell them whose music they were listening to? It was the first time it was done and I guess that's why they call me the 'dear'."

Block, the father of five children, spends almost a full day of every week broadcasting. He commutes daily to his studio (WABC) near Central Park from his English Tudor style home in Englewood, N. J.

Much of his time is spent selecting the records he will play from hundreds he receives every week. He chooses those he thinks his audience will like and sometimes is wrong. Many of his young listeners think he doesn't play enough rock 'n' roll.

"A disc jockey's job is to play popular music," Block said. "But who is to define popular music? If you like ballet, ballet music is your popular music. If you like opera, that's your pop music. But certain big rock 'n' roll hits I just don't think have lyrical content fit for consumption by my listeners. So I won't play them."

County Establishments Owners Are Warned or Fined by State

The owners of four Oakland County establishments were fined or warned for violations of the state liquor laws at a hearing of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission.

Charged with allowing an intoxicated person to loiter on the premises of Club 88, at 88 Bagley St., were the club owners, Frederick F. Joseph P. Mitchell M. and Theodore F. Figa.

They were fined $100 by the Commission.

Fined $150 for selling an alcoholic beverage to a minor were Verna L. Frattungolo and Arline P. Karaschin, owners of the L&N Grocery, 30444 W. Eight Mile Rd., Farmington.

FINED $300

The Royal Oak Aerie 2882 of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, 401 E. Fourth St., was fined $300 for selling alcoholic beverages for consumption off the licensed premises.

Harold N. and Marge A. Seclap, owners of Harold's Store, 228 E. Maple Rd., Troy, were issued a letter of warning after being charged with selling to a minor and improperly displaying their liquor license.

All fines are due and effective Feb. 22.

thoughtful of your pleasure:

- Supple Full Coil suspension—Dynamic coil springs at all four wheels melt bumps as no other suspension system can. Taking the punch out of the roughest of roads is their only function—they don't have to anchor the rear axle.
- Butyl rubber body mounts—Thicker, newly designed body mounts of resilient butyl rubber further insulate you from road shock and noise.
- Body by Fisher—Only Chevy in its field offers the polish and craftsmanship of Body by Fisher.
- Foam cushioned seats—Chevy offers foam cushioned seats in both front and rear in all model series but one. Its nearest competitors do not.

- Safety-Girder frame—X-built and not merely X-braced, the Safety-Girder frame affords greater rigidity to prevent twisting and minimize squeaks.
- Hydraulic valve lifters—Oil hushed hydraulic valve lifters reduce engine noise to a whisper.
- Cushioned steering shaft—A universal joint and cushioned coupling keep those annoying road tremors from the steering wheel.
- Two-piece drive shaft—A neat way to a smoother, quieter flow of power. Chevy has it.
- Precision balanced wheels and tires—Here again Chevy has shown concern for your comfort by eliminating vibration in this vital area—tire life is longer, too.

- Easy steering ratio—Chevy's high ratio Ball Race steering takes the work out of steering for you.
- Superior weight distribution—Chevy rides better, handles better and stops better because the car's weight is more evenly divided between the front and rear wheels. The new Chevy also resists "diving" when you brake and resists squatting when you accelerate.
- Wide choice of power teams—You can expect a better ride in Chevy because you can choose the engine and transmission best suited to your driving needs. In all, Chevy offers 24 different power combinations to satisfy the itchiest driving foot—more than any other car.

Won't Let Case Drop

Judge Has No Sympathy for Roy Campanella's Son

NEW YORK (AP)—An angry magistrate Wednesday held 16-year-old David Campanella for trial on a petty larceny charge, laying the former baseball star's stepson deserves "whatever he gets."

The boy was sent back to jail where he has been held since his arrest Jan. 26.

Magistrate James LoPiccolo was angered because the Campanella youth was in court after his third arrest in less than a year.

When a grocer allegedly robbed by Campanella and two other Negro youths offered to drop his complaint, the magistrate would not allow it.

"I have no pity for the Campanella boy," he said. "He's been in and out of courts in a short space of time and should have learned his lesson. He has humiliated his family. He has violated his curfew."

David Campanella is on probation in a case involving the burglary of a Queens drugstore last spring. At the time of that burglary he already had been adjudged a juvenile delinquent on charges growing out of a street fight.

The youth will appear in court again today to answer charges he violated his parole.

The youth, son of Mrs. Roy Campanella by a previous marriage, is accused with Ronald Garrett, 18, and Isadore Fisher, 20, of stealing $40 worth of merchandise from a Queens grocery Jan. 26.

When attorneys for the other two youths asked for a closed session, LoPiccolo refused.

"Just because one of these boys happens to be related to a famous figure who is admired all over the country by everyone, including myself, he doesn't deserve special privileges," he said.

Roy Campanella, former catcher for the Dodgers, has been semiparalyzed since an auto crash two years ago.

Hawaii's Lava River Extends Destruction

KAPOHO VILLAGE, Hawaii (AP)—A steaming, hissing river of lava continued on its slow but devastating way today, destroying everything in its path.

Six fashionable weekend houses were burned Wednesday along the Hawaii Island shoreline. The fiery flow was more than two miles from Kapoho Village, now but a burned-out shell.

Kilauea volcano, meanwhile, was still erupting, sending molten lava streaming from three vents. The continuous outpour showed the lava further and further along, rolling along the coast in shallow water until it found an exposed area along the beach.

Backstage Rights Battle Moves Into Open Today

By WILLIAM M. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Rules Committee, starting public hearings, brings into the open today a backstage battle over sending a civil rights bill to the House floor.

Prospects are that the committee will clear the measure for under a procedure permitting amendments. Numerous attempts to change the relatively mild bill are expected.

But opponents of civil rights legislation, who have helped keep the measure bottled up in committee since last August, feel they have accomplished much of their purpose.

The House is not likely to have a chance to pass the bill by Feb. 15, when the Senate is committed to start consideration of the same subject.

JOHNSON MAY SUFFER

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas had hoped the House would pass a bill before Feb. 15, and some House leaders had planned it that way.

Without a House bill with which to work, Johnson's job will be more difficult and he may have to resort to parliamentary maneuvering which could produce a long delay.

For that reason the rules committee, under control of Republicans and Southern Democrats, isn't likely to expedite the hearings starting today.

Behind the maneuvering is the desire of some House Republicans to do nothing that might enhance Johnson's prestige as a leader, and the dissatisfaction of many Southern Democrats with Johnson's active role in getting a civil rights bill enacted in 1957.

THANKS TO THEIR THREE CONVENIENT CREDIT TERMS . . .

At last I've found an easy way to enjoy my clothing purchases while I'm paying for them. No more skimping with just half an outfit . . . No more bit by bit buying for me! With the Hub's 3 easy credit plans, it was simple to find the one tailored to my needs. Check them, you'll find one here to suit you, too!

1. REGULAR CHARGE ACCOUNT is designed to speed up shopping for everyday purchases. No need to carry a lot of money . . . or to wait for change. Each month you receive a statement. Full payments made monthly.

2. EXTENDED CHARGE ACCOUNT is a special charge account partially paid for each month with an agreed-upon amount. It operates like a regular charge except that payments are split up over two or three months.

3. 6 MONTH CHARGE ACCOUNT is the easy way to pay for your major clothing purchases. You simply decide yourself how much you can afford to pay each month and then you can charge 6 times that much. For example: If you wish to pay $10.00 per month, you can charge $60.00. Or if you can pay $25.00 per month, you may charge up to $150.00. Once your account is open, you may charge additional purchases up to the credit limit decided upon by yourself.

Rorganization Slow at Capital

Williams Mulling Over
Idea of Combining All Agencies Into Three

LANSING (AP)—The outlook for progress in state government reorganization darkened today as Gov. Williams mulled over exactly what to ask of the Legislature.

He will submit his recommendations next week, presumably a choice from among seven proposals tendered yesterday by Insurance Commissioner Frank Blackford.

Blackford, heading up the administration research effort in the field, called among other things for combining existing agencies into three major new departments—commerce, labor and financial institutions.

He conceded that the package was something of a rush job and that the mood of the Legislature didn't offer encouragement.

Because the 1959 Legislature dragged into December and due to pressing problems in his department, Blackford was unable to clear the proposals with the governor's Advisory Committee on Reorganization headed by Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams of Pontiac.

Under the 1958 executive Reorganization Act, Williams has until the end of the week to submit his recommendations as executive orders for the Legislature to accept or veto.

The substance of what he advocates also may be presented in bill form—until Feb. 17.

Sen. Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville), whose Senate Business Committee will screen the proposals, said he still felt the executive procedure was "patently unconstitutional."

As to dealing with the issues in bill form, Hutchinson said lack of time before an expected final adjournment in mid-April made it unlikely much would be accomplished.

"Personally, I haven't gone over these proposals. Some of them sound pretty ambitious," he said.

STARRING FOR PONTIAC—Star of Pontiac Motor Division's display at the Detroit Auto Show Feb. 6-14 is this platinum pearl Bonneville convertible trimmed in natural Cereulian mink. Adding interest to the exhibit is lovely Jessie Atkins of Detroit, wearing a high-fashion gown that matches her powder blue mink stole. For naming this unusual car some fortunate show visitor will be presented with a $5,000, full length mink coat. Floor areas are carpeted with rich mouton and the instrument panel is decorated with mother of pearl.

Rockets Match Russian Quality

Chiefs of Convair and U. S. Missile Divisions
Agree on Matter

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—American missiles, particularly the Atlas, can now "match the Russians qualitatively," the head of the Air Force Ballistic Missile Division said Wednesday night.

Maj. Gen. Osmond J. Ritland said the Atlas can equal or better the range and payload potential of the ICBM the Soviets reportedly fired 7,700 miles in the Pacific recently.

SUPPORTED BY CONVAIR

He made the statement to visiting and local newsmen at a dinner meeting.

Ritland's remarks were supported by J. R. Dempsey, general manager of Convair-Astronautics, builder of the Atlas, who said: "We can hit any target in Russia with an Atlas."

Thomas G. Lanpher, Convair vice president and outspoken critic of the administration's defense and space policies, said American ballistic missiles are fewer than the Soviet ICBMs.

"You can be just as dead for lack of quantity as for lack of quality," Lanpher said. Both Lanpher and Sam Hoffman, general manager of Rocketdyne division of North American Aviation, said the industry has more capabilities than the government now is exploiting.

Audrey Hepburn Lauded by British; So's Harvey

LONDON (AP)—Audrey Hepburn and Laurence Harvey were chosen today by the Variety Club of Great Britain as the best movie actress and actor of 1959.

Miss Hepburn was chosen for her performance in "The Nun's Story," and Harvey for his performances in "Room at the Top" and "Espresso Bongo."

100th Anniversary for Famed Russian Writer

Reds Beat Drums for Chekhov

By ALVINE MOSBY

MOSCOW (UPI)—A little red brick 19th Century house, looking lost on a bustling modern boulevard in Moscow, is winning almost more attention this week than the Seven-Year Plan.

In that bay-windowed house from 1886 to 1890 lived Anton Chekhov, one of Russia's greatest writers, as much alive here as ever for such treasured plays as "The Cherry Orchard."

This is the 100th anniversary period of his birth. No modern Soviet writer has received such reverence as the country is paying to Chekhov. For more than a month, he has been showered with nearly as much publicity as Khrushchev's trip to America.

Movie theaters are showing films from Chekhov works. The famous Moscow Art Theater which first produced his plays is presenting a Chekhov Festival.

Literary groups all over the Soviet Union are drawing crowds at lectures and exhibits. Radio newscasts and newspapers have been beating the anniversary drums—surprising to some Westerners who regard his plays as reproducing the leisurely, mannered days of the old Russian era.

MANY SIGHTSEERS

Chekhov's eight-room house at No. 6 Sadovo Kudrinsky, only one of the Soviet Union's four Chekhov museums, has been swarming with sightseers.

Little boys in young pioneer uniforms and elderly ladies with spectacles and felt hats inspected the Chekhov manuscripts and letters that fill some of the rooms. Even the great man's bath soap, wallet and toenail scissors are preserved under glass.

Some of the rooms are just as the writer left them. On the simple desk in his cozy living room are an unfinished manuscript and photographs of the Chekhov clan—beards, place-nez and lace, and family bunched in a troika (sleigh) for a spin to the country. Or Chekhov with Tolstoy, Gorky and Pushkin who also still are more honored here than any present-day Soviet writer.

Except for some framed comments by Lenin about Chekhov, there is nothing of the era in the rooms with dark green wallpaper, old brass beds and settees. It could be a set for a Chekhov play.

But walk through the now snow-covered garden, through the graceful iron gate and it is all very near—a new towering apartment house next door, a wedding cake skyscraper from the Stalinist architectural era down the way, a scientific institute across the noisy, car-filled street.

Actor Claims His 300 Pounds Helps Career

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Dan Blocker admits his size has aided his stage career. "It was a springboard, but it wouldn't last if you couldn't act," says the 6-foot-4, 300-pound television actor.

He began acting while attending Sul Ross State College in Texas.

"They asked me to do a non-speaking part in 'Arsenic and Old Lace,'" he says. "They needed someone strong enough to carry the bodies out of the basement."

As a schoolteacher after graduation from college, his pupils paid attention.

But attentive youngsters were not enough to make Blocker like his small $2,900 per year teaching salary. His work now on TV earns him $40,000 a year.

Blocks of salt and bricks of tea are used as negotiable money in some parts of Africa.

Golden Jubilee Year

Boy Scout Membership Passes 5-Million Mark

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Boy Scouts of America, whose ardent supporters have run a historical gamut from Theodore Roosevelt to Dwight D. Eisenhower, announced today on the eve of its 50th anniversary that active membership had passed the five-million mark.

Next week is "Boy Scout Week," marking the beginning of the golden jubilee year for the movement that has become a national institution. The anniversary day is Monday, Feb. 8. On that date in 1910 the organization was incorporated by the late William D. Boyce.

Boyce, a Chicago publisher, had been impressed with the way a British Boy Scout a year earlier had helped him when he was lost in a London fog.

The announcement of the new high in active membership was made by Dr. Arthur A. Schuch, chief Scout executive. He said that as of the end of 1959 there was 5,043,195 boys and adult leaders enrolled. By the end of 1960, it was estimated, more than 33,500,000 persons will have been affiliated with American scouting since 1910.

During the coming year, national events will include the dedication of the Johnston Historical Museum at Scout headquarters in New Brunswick, N.J., and the fifth "National Jamboree," in which 50,000 Scouts, Explorers and leaders will camp together at Colorado Springs, Colo., July 22-28.

Well-Oiled Ants Drain College Jewelry Unit

OKMULGEE, Okla. (AP)—The jewelry department at Oklahoma State Tech found the thieves who had been filching oil from a device used to lubricate watches.

They turned out to be ants who apparently were attracted by a fish oil ingredient in the mixture.

In one night's time the ants drained enough oil to lubricate 100 watches.

Some of the rooms are just as the writer left them. On the simple desk in his cozy living room are an unfinished manuscript and photographs of the Chekhov clan—beards, place-nez and lace, and family bunched in a troika (sleigh) for a spin to the country. Or Chekhov with Tolstoy, Gorky and Pushkin who also still are more honored here than any present-day Soviet writer.

Beck Conviction Upheld by Court

He Seeks Rehearing in
Sentence for Stealing
Car Sale Proceeds

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP)—Jaunty Dave Beck, former president of the Teamster Union took another setback Wednesday when the State Supreme Court upheld his conviction on a charge of stealing $1,900 in proceeds from sale of a union-owned automobile.

Beck's attorney, Charles S. Burdell, said in Seattle he will ask the court for a rehearing. If this is denied, he said, he will appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court.

HAS BEEN CONFIDENT

Beck, 65, said he had been confident of a reversal on grounds he did not get a fair trial. He was convicted in King County Superior Court Dec. 14, 1957, on a grand larceny charge. He was sentenced to 15 years in the state penitentiary, but has been free on bail.

Beck has also been convicted in U.S. District Court of cheating the federal government out of $240,000.
