Hatoyama Wins Prime Minister Post in Japan

May Retain Position Only Until Election Set in Next 3 Months

TOKYO (AP)—Ichiro Hatoyama, a pro-American Conservative who wants increased trade with Russia and Red China, tonight was elected Prime Minister of Japan—a post he may not hold for more than three months.

A coalition of Hatoyama's Democrats and the Socialists moved the 71-year-old diplomat into the spot from which Shigeru Yoshida was forced to resign two days ago.

The vote was 257 for Hatoyama and 191 for Taketora Ogata, Yoshida's deputy and new president of Yoshida's Liberal party.

For their support, Hatoyama promised the Socialists he would dissolve the Diet next month and call new national elections before March 10.

The Socialists threw their support to Hatoyama because they frankly figure to be the only party to gain house seats in any general election.

Yoshida, who stepped down Tuesday in the face of overwhelming opposition from the unusual coalition of Conservatives and Socialists, was not present for the vote. His resignation did not affect his status as a member of the Diet.

Despite the Socialists' support in forcing Yoshida's resignation and electing Hatoyama, the new Prime Minister is not expected to name any Socialist to his Cabinet.

There are only two major points of agreement between the Hatoyama Democrats and the Socialists—revived trade and diplomatic relations with Russia and Red China and resistance to any attempt by Yoshida's Liberals to recapture the government.

Hatoyama has declared he will continue Yoshida's policies of working closely with the West. The Socialists opposed Japanese rearmament and U.S. bases in Japan, both of which are favored by the new Prime Minister.

City Taxpayers Get County Tax Notices

Some 30,000 Oakland County tax bills now in the mail to Pontiac property owners are payable starting tomorrow, City Treasurer Murray M. Ashbaugh said today. The taxes are payable through Jan. 19, 1955. After that date, a flat four per cent penalty will be added, Ashbaugh said. Mailed payments must be postmarked not later than Jan. 19 to avoid penalty. Ashbaugh also announced that unpaid city and school taxes are still payable at his office. The bills, due Sept. 20, have a one per cent penalty added for each month of tardiness. After Feb. 28 all unpaid tax bills will be turned over to the county for collection, he said. A 1/2-of-one per cent fee per month will be charged by the county.

Local Industrialist Heads Auto Parts Manufacturers

Goodloe H. Rogers, president and general manager of the American Forging and Socket Company, was elected president of the Automotive Parts Manufacturers' Association at the annual meeting of the board of directors in Detroit Wednesday. He has served as vice president of the association for the past year.

Other officers named are Guy S. Peppiatt, president of Federal Mogul Corp., Detroit, as vice president; and John W. Dixon, vice president of Cleveite Corp., Cleveland, as secretary-treasurer. Frank Rising is general manager of the association and Clarence Skinner manager of the Washington office.

The APMA is comprised of 300 firms employing about 300,000 persons engaged in making parts for the automotive industry.

Sign Pledge Backing Safe Driving Day

WORKERS SIGN UP—S-D Day petitions, pledging a conscious effort to keep Dec. 15 completely accident free, are being circulated at the GMC Truck & Coach Division here. The first man to sign a petition at the plant was Leonard B. Wisner (above) of 119 Wolfe St. Number two signer was William B. Adair of 301 Hillside, Milford. Both men work at plant two of the division. Collecting the signatures is Stanley C. Barker, of 6235 Williams Lake Rd., who works in the personnel department.

Warns Against Hasty Action

Broomfield Asks Fair Share of Road Money in County

By BURDETT C. STODDARD

Oakland County's newly elected state senator, William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), today said he will work toward an extensive state road-building program, but warned against "too hasty action."

Referring to a proposal for a $500,000,000 or more bond issue to finance highway expansion, the former state representative advised that the plan be presented for a statewide vote only after careful study.

Party for Labor Gets Fast Veto

Reuther Tells CIO Meet New 3rd Political Group Not Workable

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A move to have organized labor form a third national political party came up at the CIO convention but was quickly vetoed as impractical. Michael J. Quill, of New York, president of the CIO Transport Workers Union, suggested the third party idea, but CIO President Walter Reuther said it wouldn't work. In a lively convention discussion yesterday Quill said "Tammany Hall bosses" recently dictated the Democratic nomination of Averell Harriman over Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. as New York governor. Harriman was elected.

"I am afraid," Quill said, "that as we roll along year after year we are tying ourselves tighter and tighter to the Democratic party. I think it is a danger."

Reuther said he wished the labor unions' most serious political problem was having "governors (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7)

Democrats Plan Anti-Ike Theme in Campaign Talk

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (INS)—Democratic party leaders came away from Kansas City today optimistic about their 1956 chances and with a new "anti-Eisenhower" line to stress.

Former President Harry S. Truman, Gov.-Elect Averell Harriman of New York and new Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler spoke at a Jackson County (Mo.) party "victory dinner" last night and confidently predicted victory in the 1956 presidential race.

Truman hit the dominant note at the party gathering when he declared "We will have a Democratic President in 1956," and added:

"And I sure feel sorry for Ike." All three speakers were unanimous in their criticisms of President Eisenhower and served notice that the President would be the target of Democratic orators with increasing frequency in the next two years.

Keep Five Alive S-D Day Slogan

State Police Want to Cut Average Daily Number of Fatalities

"Keep Five Alive" is the slogan of the Michigan State Police in connection with the S-D—Safe Driving Day—which is to be observed nationally Dec. 15, according to Sgt. Melvin Will, commanding officer of the Pontiac Post.

S-D Day, sponsored by the President's Action Committee for Traffic Safety, has been set up as a challenge to motorists and pedestrians alike, to go 24 hours without accidents.

"The significance of 'Keep Five Alive' lies in the fact that last year there was an average of five traffic fatalities each day in Michigan," Sgt. Will said. "We're calling on drivers and pedestrians to show that we can save these five lives by having a death-free day through careful driving and walking."

"We're asking them not to be involved in one of the more than 500 accidents that occur in our state each day and to avoid being one of the 160 persons injured in them."

"This may sound like a large order, but it can be done if everyone faithfully observes all traffic regulations, practices courtesy to the driver and pedestrian and gives full attention to what he is doing," Sgt. Will emphasized.

The sergeant pointed out that President Eisenhower himself has appealed for observance of the day and that Michigan, as the automobile state, has a special responsibility to co-operate fully and "Keep Five Alive."

Pius' Condition Termed Worse; Cough Develops

But High Sources Say There's No Cause for Undue Alarm

VATICAN CITY (UP)—The condition of Pope Pius XII was reported worse today only a few hours before a team of doctors called a consultation at his bedside.

Sources close to the papal household said the slight but steady progress recorded by the 78-year-old pontiff in the past week had halted.

These authoritative sources described the Pope's condition this morning as "not too good."

They said his pulse, which has been fluctuating in a disturbing manner, was irregular.

He has developed a cough with signs of catarrh in it, a discouraging sign to the doctors who had been amazed at his progress.

The Pope spent a restless night and today, for the first time since the collapse which left him near death a week ago, he failed to register further slight improvement.

Authoritative sources said he over-exerted himself yesterday and apparently ate more than his ailing stomach was yet ready to receive.

The pontiff left his bed for the first time Tuesday night on the advice of his doctors.

Men of his advanced years tend to develop complications, such as pneumonia if they remain constantly in bed, so he took the first cautious steps Tuesday night about his bedroom.

During his 30 minutes of exercise he made a brief appearance at his window to observe the crowds below in St. Peter's Square for the closing of the Catholic Marian Year.

One person, either a doctor or a nurse, was hovering at his side as the weakened pontiff shuffled slowly through his bedroom and the adjoining papal studio.

When the cough with signs of catarrh was first noticed doctors attending the Pope, the greatest team yet assembled to treat him, decided to have him leave his bed to prevent complication. The fear of pneumonia has always been latent in the Pope's weakened state.

However, high sources said there was no cause for undue alarm and that the present halt in the Pope's recovery was not considered a relapse.

Colder, Snow Flurries for Tonight, Friday

After 11 of an inch of snow last night, rain hit the Pontiac area this morning and the U.S. Weather Bureau says there will be more snow flurries this evening.

The forecast is for mostly cloudy skies and colder with snow flurries tonight and Friday. After a warm spell yesterday with a low of 33 last night and high Wednesday of 37, the mercury is expected to drop again to 26 to 30 degrees tonight with a high tomorrow of 31 to 35. Friday night it will be colder, with a low of 20 predicted.

Saturday will bring more cloudy skies and snow flurries. Today at 8 a.m. the thermometer reading was 37 degrees, but dropped to 33 by 10 a.m. and stood at 32 at 1 p.m.

Press Publishes Largest Edition for Yule Season

Pontiac stores will remain open until 9 p.m. Friday night and for convenience of Christmas shoppers will remain open until 9 p.m. each weekday evening until Christmas eve.

Today the Press publishes 96 pages, the largest regular edition of the paper ever issued. In pages of today's Press will be found, in addition to all regular news and entertainment features, special holiday shopping news and in the advertisements, holiday offerings of Pontiac merchants.

Our presses used slightly over 30 tons of newspaper for today's papers.

Local Girl to Visit Mamie

READY FOR TRIP—Mary Lynn Gravelle, 14, (right) and her chaperone, Mrs. William Gorsline, North Oakland Girl Scout Council president, check the itinerary for their trip to Washington where Mary will present Mrs. Dwight D. Waterford Girl Will Invite 1st Lady to Scout Roundup

By AL LOWMAN

About the most excited girl in the United States is 14-year-old Senior Girl Scout Mary Lynn Gravelle of Waterford Township—she's going to meet Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower at the White House next Tuesday.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Gravelle, 1321 Malcolm Rd., Four Towns, was chosen to present the first lady with an invitation to attend the first national Girl Scout "Senior Roundup" to be held here in 1956. Highland Recreation Area northeast of Milford is the site for the encampment.

Informed that she had been named to represent the nation's Girl Scouts, Mary's first thought was: "What on earth will I wear?" But this will be no problem because the brown-eyed Waterford High School freshman will wear the regulation, Senior Girl Scout uniform.

"I was so surprised I couldn't even talk at first. I didn't even know I was being considered for the honor," she said.

Asked if she thought she would be nervous when she meets Mrs. Eisenhower, Mary replied: "I don't think so. I'm going to ask her to sign my scout registration card."

"Aren't you afraid you might lose the card?" she was asked. "Oh I'm not going to carry it. I'm going to have it framed," was the reply.

And Mary's family is just as excited. "I'm very proud of her and I hope she realizes what a chance in a lifetime this is," her mother said.

Mary was chosen from about 150 scouts in the Oakland County Council, hostess group for the roundup. After the field was narrowed to five contestants, Mary's name was drawn, the only way officials could come to a decision. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Gifts Come in Many Price Ranges

Many Attractive and Useful Articles Are in the Stores for $1 and Under

By JANET ODELL

While gifts for Christmas giving are available in many price ranges to fit any purse, you certainly can find gifts of a dollar and under.

We were out snooping this morning and found lots of ideas for stocking stuffers or those gift exchanges we get mixed up with at Christmas.

On the feminine side we saw soft angora collars trimmed with pearls; wool gloves and large woolen head scarves. Members of the high school set love to exchange friendship rings; we saw both silver and gold colored ones for a dollar.

Younger gift buyers can get puzzles for their cronies, spending anywhere from twenty-nine cents up.

If they collect china animals for their whatnot shelves, they can find unusual ones for less than a hundred pennies. Little girls would like Christmas corsages that include a wee Santa's head. Some do-it-yourself leather kits are inexpensive. Kits to make PT boats and many car models also fall in this category.

Know someone who just adores playing scrabble? Give him a book on how to be even better, or one that lets him solve scrabble problems all alone.

You may buy shaving lotion and men's cologne for a dollar. If he

America, Allies Push Assembly to Speed Action

Override Strong Soviet Opposition to Placing Item on Agenda

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States and its 15 Korean War allies pressed today for speedy action on their bid to throw the moral weight of the U. N. Assembly behind their campaign to free 11 U. S. airmen jailed by Red China on spy charges.

The Assembly's ready agreement to debate the case despite Soviet delaying tactics indicated the Allies' stand would win strong support.

Day and night sessions were scheduled today on a 16-nation resolution denouncing the jailing and demanding the airmen's release.

Launching the debate last night, Chief U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. said an overwhelming vote in favor of the resolution would make it clear to Peking that world opinion considers the detention of the 11 fliers a violation of the Korean armistice.

The U.S. delegate also called on the Communists to send home a total of 2,940 U.N. personnel he said had not yet been repatriated under Korean armistice terms. He charged the Reds still have not accounted for 470 Americans.

Lodge said earlier the Chinese have admitted holding four U.S. jet pilots in addition to the 11 Peking says have been jailed as spies.

Lodge took the floor after the 60-nation Assembly beat down dogged Soviet attempts to keep the item off the agenda and voted 44-5 to begin debate at once without going through committee channels.

U. S. sources predicted there would be no opposition except from the five-nation Soviet bloc and perhaps a few Asian-Arab nations. In his attempt to kill off the item, Russia's Jacob Malik argued that the Assembly had no right to intervene because the Americans were on a spy mission and could not be classified as war prisoners covered by the armistice. Malik's spy charges were echoed by representatives of Poland and Czechoslovakia, who tried to put up procedural barriers to immediate debate.

Press Search for Jet Missing Near Oscoda

OSCODA (INS)—A land, sea and air search was resumed at sunrise today for a jet training plane believed to have crashed near Oscoda Tuesday night.

Planes from Selfridge Field, Wurtsmith Air Base and the Coast Guard and Civil Air Patrol have flown a total of 381 hours in hopes of spotting the downed T-33 jet and Coast Guard boats and other craft have joined the search.

The pilot was flying a routine mission from Oscoda to Stewart Air Base in New York.

Independent Morse Lashes Fear Tactics in Lecture

By JEANNE J. LUTKE

BIRMINGHAM—While making no direct comment on the attack made on President Eisenhower this week by Sen. Joseph McCarthy, Independent Sen. Wayne Morse (Ore) told a responsive audience at the Community House last night, "We must wage war on fear tactics."

He quoted Chicago Bishop Bernard J. Sheil who recently lashed out at McCarthy, saying:

"...You cannot effectively fight tyranny with tyranny...an America where the accused is guilty until he is proved innocent, where means don't matter but only ends, an America which has lost faith in the integrity of the government, the army, the schools, the churches, the labor unions, the press, and most of all an America whose citizens have lost faith in each other—such an America would not need to bother about being anti-Communist; it would have nothing to lose."

Elected officials should be guided by conscience and compromise, the senator stated at the lecture sponsored by the American Assn. of University Women.

"The legislative process is one of compromise, but within the brackets where no political moral is involved...A legislator has two freedoms—to promote and perpetuate."

Morse said he at first felt he was "committing political suicide," when he took his independent stand, but, "there were many funerals over my name following the 1952 election, but it began to be obvious there wasn't a corpse in the coffin."

The senator said he backed Eisenhower completely on foreign policy.

"History has taught that a country which lives unto itself alone finally destroys itself. Political freedom can't reign without free economy."

Rotary Club members will brave the early morning cold tomorrow for their annual newspaper sale, hawking over 2,000 papers for the benefit of the Oakland County Crippled Children's Society.

John Mason Brown, noted drama critic and contributing editor of the Saturday Review, will use "Seeing Things," the title of his weekly column, as his topic at tomorrow's third Town Hall program sponsored by St. Anne's Guild of St. James Episcopal Church. Tickets are not available.

Secret gift packages to be exchanged at Sunday's Christmas party of the Business Women's Club should be delivered by today, a spokesman reminded, to any of the following persons: Margaret Rowe, Mrs. G. H. Bosworth or Corinne Small.

"Great Women I Have Known" will be the subject of Mrs. Maurice Garabrant when the First Presbyterian Church Westminster Guild meets with the Sarah Hunter and Jennie Keyes Guilds at 8:15 tonight.

Agnes Ross Guild members of the church have included husbands on a hayride at 7 tonight at Hayride Lodge, Rochester.

High schoolers in the Junior Musicals recently presented a Christmas program at Pontiac Children's Home. The group will meet with the Keynotes Club at 8 tonight at Kathie Lafer's home on Amberly road, Bloomfield Township.

The Women's Society of Redeemer Lutheran Church will take time out from a Christmas party at 8 tonight to wrap gifts for the Detroit Lutheran Home for Girls. A yuletide musicale will then be presented by Mrs. Theodore Wug-gazer Jr. and Nancy Chesna.

Following a party given for the Oakland County Children's Home on Tuesday, the Kanabans Hi-Y Club will meet at 8:15 tonight at the home of Mrs. J. H. Bosworth.

Surviving are his widow and three children—Mrs. John Salow, Alma, Cpl. Edward W. Hawley, with the U. S. Army, and Mrs. Gene Jones, Pontiac.

Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Bertha Habkirk, Flint, and Mrs. Orval McPeck, Pontiac, and one grandchild.

The funeral will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. from Voorhees-Siple Funeral Home with Rev. George D. Murphy of the United Missionary Church officiating. Burial will follow in Perry Mount Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Amos Lock

Mrs. Amos (Jennie V.) Lock, 77, 1255 Amos St., died yesterday at Elizabeth Lodge after an illness of five months.

Born in Oxford, she was the daughter of Augustus and Mary Sheardy. She moved to Pontiac from Ortonville 10 years ago.

Surviving are two sons, John of Keego Harbor, and Martin of Pontiac.

Also surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Eva Guest, Lake Orion; Mrs. Dorothy Cox and Mrs. Gladys Jeffries, both of Drayton Plains.

Other survivors are a sister, Mrs. Linnie Rodenbo of Kingston, 18 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Funeral service from Sparks-Griffin Chapel will be Saturday at 1:30 p.m., with Rev. A. H. Meyer officiating. Burial will follow in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

A prefabricated bomb shelter, the only model of its type in the nation so far as its builder, Philip F. Sheridan, knows, has found a home in the back yard of a Birmingham residence.

Sheridan's equipped shelter, available through FHA financing, sells for under $1,000 and has the approval of Brig. Gen. Clyde E. Dougherty, head of Detroit's OCD. It may get still further backing when it is soon put through tests at Yucca Flats atom bomb testing site.

after the Legislature convenes in January, the lawmaker said. "Then many of these questions may be answered."

The state's financial soundness also enters in, he asserted. "We have over $1 billion in bonded indebtedness now."

While the road problem is reaching the critical stage, Broomfield stated, other needed facilities must not be forgotten.

The St. Lawrence Seaway will bring "a tremendous influx of population" into this area above the present rapid rate of growth.

Long-range plans are needed to assure adequate water and drainage as well as highways, he said.

"All five were qualified," they said.

Her ranking as a top-flight scout didn't happen by accident. She's been active for eight years and is a member of Waterford Troop 114.

Her brother, Michael, 16, is a star scout, her mother is an outdoor trainer for scout leaders and her father, employed by the Blair Trans-sit Co. here, is also active in Boy Scout activities.

Mary and her chaperone, Mrs. William Goralline, president of the North Oakland County Girl Scout Council, will leave Detroit Sunday by train, arriving in Washington Monday. They are scheduled to return Wednesday.

The choice of Michigan as the first state to host the roundup was announced by national scout officials Wednesday, the roundup, which is expected to bring an estimated 5,000 Girl Scouts to the county, will be held June 29 to July 10.

Officials said the choice of Michigan was based in part upon a study to determine most favorable weather. Records going back 10 years were examined in deciding on the state for the roundup.

Floor of the store front is in terrazzo designed tile in black and gray speckled diagonal stripes. For the area of the store designed for customer fitting, dark gray and black carpeting covers the floor.

Offices will be located in the back of the store and the full basement provides storage space.

Of steel and masonry, the building has an acoustical tiled ceiling, air conditioning and is heated with a gas furnace. Fluorescent lighting has been installed.

Specializing in nationally known brands, Diem's will carry Weyenberg, Trampere and their own make for men; for women they stock California Cobblers, Foot Flair, Wilbur, Coon, Paramount, Tread Easy and Krippendorff; for children, Little Yankee and Modern Age are carried.

Diem said he would cater to orthopedic shoes and will carry a complete stock of working men's shoes.

The new building was built by Paul Toretta & Sons of Pontiac. It is open for business today with a grand opening planned for sometime in January.

Plane Passengers Met by Scene From Past

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP)—Airplane passengers thought for a moment they had flown straight into the past. They were greeted by a group of people wearing old-fashioned clothing and sitting in a 1912-model car. The gals wore high button shoes, floppy hats and long dresses. The men sported long mustaches, and the driver was attired in duster, motoring cap and goggles. The group was composed of relatives of Bill Lindsay, one of the passengers arriving home from New York. They wanted to startle him. They did.

Birds often wear symbols of ancient Greek gods — the heron for Athene, the cuckoo for Hera, the swan for Apollo.

Manufacturers estimate that about 14 million cameras in the United States are equipped for use of photo flash.

Distracting Influences Eliminated From Start

WEST DES MOINES, Iowa (U.P.)—The ceiling in the new West Des Moines Methodist Church is made of acoustical board with the holes scattered at random, instead of set in straight lines.

The Rev. J. Henry Teele explained:

"The committee chose the kind with the holes scattered across it. Now nobody who happens to glance up when he's in church will begin to count the lines of perforations and forget to listen to my sermon."

Claiming Rabbit Feed Too Healthy for Tests

GREENSBORO, N. C. (U.P.)—The federal government is suing two feed companies for $8,500, charging their rabbit feed caused failure of medical experiments.

The suit contends the Public Health Service experiments at the University of North Carolina were spoiled because the feeds contained aureomycin.

The average housewife walks about 8½ miles a day.

Artificial Leg Saves Healthy Right Foot

Biers, who lost a leg in a traffic accident in 1939, was changing a wheel drum on a car when the jack slipped. The drum landed on the artificial leg and across the instep of his right foot. Neighbors jacked up the car to free Biers. The only mark on his right foot was a bruise.

Pony Roughs Up Cop

DANVILLE, Va. (U.P.)—Traffic Officer William Lee Carter, brought a stray pony to book, but feels the motor car is less dangerous. The pony charged him, bit him and knocked him down.

TODAY'S FOREIGN ASSIGNMENT FOR

JUNIOR EDITORS

PIERRE GOES FOR BREAD

The greatest natural resource of France is its soil. And farming is the country's chief industry. From the land comes grain, including wheat, oats, rye and barley. French bakers use this grain to make many good things to eat. Among the favorite products are large loaves of French bread. Today's picture shows a typical French schoolboy and a loaf of bread. You can make the boy hold the bread under his arm, as though he were on his way home from the bakery.

1. With water colors or crayons, make Pierre's clothing any bright colors you think he should wear. His hat (a beret) probably would be dark blue and his apron light blue. His short pants might be green, his stockings red and white striped and his wooden shoes brown. Color the flowers around his feet green, and make the bread yellow with brown shading around the edge of the crust.

2. With white library paste, mount the picture on cardboard. When dry, cut out the loaf of bread and the two parts of Pierre. Paste the front and back sections of the boy together as far down as the bottom of the pants. Spread the legs apart and Pierre will stand up.

3. Cut through the dotted line under Pierre's arm. Fold the bread down the middle, paste together, and slip it through the slot under his arm.

Says Russia Stressing
Long-Range Bombers

LONDON (U) — An authoritative British aircraft survey says the Russians are stressing long-range heavy bombers in a huge aircraft production race with the West that embraces 360 Soviet factories.

The 1954-55 edition of the unofficial "Jane's All the World's Aircraft," published last night, reported that Russia also is concentrating on building up a modern fighter screen in the satellite countries.

Kefauver Plays Mechanic Role at Home

WASHINGTON (UP)—I said to the senator, why don't we talk politics and about who's going to be in the White House if Ike does not run.

Estes Kefauver, whose name has been mentioned as a possible candidate on the Democratic ticket, was, as always, coy.

He forked his salad, looked over his eye-glasses and said:

"Let's talk about electric trains and how to fix them."

It was a lunch break and the Senate was fixing to adjourn until the 8th comes along.

"David," said the senator, "I'm afraid will never grow up to be an engineer. He's too careless with his trains. And here I am about to have some free time, and what do I face? A repair job on diesel, caboose, switches, rails and toy pullman porters which are supposed to jump in and out of the cars, lugging luggage. They don't lug any luggage because some connection is busted. And who has to fix things around my house? Me!"

The gentleman from Tennessee said that some unthinking reporter once wrote a little piece for the papers suggesting that Kefauver was one-third senator, one-third lawyer and one-third mechanic.

"Linda, my 13-year-old, read that to her two sisters, Diane and Gail, and David, who is eight," the senator said. "And now I not only have to fix electric trains, but mechanical dolls and other things as well. It can wear on a man who has his head set on a bit of 'coon shooting.'"

So that's what the senator will be doing with his free holiday time. Fixin' and some more fixin'. Not only trains and busted doll houses, but the repairing of bike tires, plumbing around his house here, and taping up some of the wiring around the place.

"I could write a companion piece to that hit song called 'This Old House,'" Sen. Kefauver said.

And when the senator gets finished with repair jobs for the kids and his lovely wife, Nancy, he like as not will get some calls for help from some of his neighbors.

Charlie A. Halleck, a Republican from Indiana, may well have a leaky faucet. Or perhaps Lister Hill, the senator from Alabama, will come up with faulty wiring. Or another neighbor, Sen. John J. Sparkman of Alabama, the Democratic candidate for vice president in the last election, might need some advice on how to wire up an electric train.

And after he has his pinkies worn to the nub, he'll have to take the paint and grease off his hands, dress up and go with Nancy to a parent-teachers meeting.

The senator doesn't mind. He has an interest in his children and is popular as an ordinary stand-upper at the PTA sessions.

"All I do is raise my hand at these small gatherings," the senator said. "Then I get up and say my little piece. Sometimes I make my point. A few times I have been shouted down. Like the time—well, never mind."

LOOKS REAL — Golden tuba is made of Bakelite plastic, but looks like a real thing. It makes a fine tuba noise.

Pilot Waiting for Reply on Airborne Proposal

BOYNE CITY (UP)—At last report, Carl Demier, 40, was waiting anxiously for an answer to his unique proposal.

Demier, a professional crop duster from Deer Lake, took to the air yesterday to ask the girl of his choice to become his bride.

His plane cruised through the sky for 15 minutes carrying a banner which read:

"Evelyn, I love you. Marry me, Carl."

Escaping Convict Eludes Guards, Finds Own Trap

MCLESTER, Okla. (UP)—Sam Ramos, 32-year-old convicted armed robber serving time at the Oklahoma State Penitentiary, bolted himself inside a steel cabinet outside the main prison wall after working hours in the industrial area. Only a chain link fence stood between him and freedom—he thought.

When darkness came he tried to remove the nuts with which he had secured the door on the 36x20x20-inch cabinet. Ramos is 5 feet 8 1/2.

He was so cramped he couldn't budge to twist the nuts. After 16 hours, he gave up and aroused guards by screaming. He tumbled out like a pretzel.

Production of mustard seed in the U. S. dropped to 11 million pounds in 1949 after the all-time peak of about 73 million pounds in 1941.

Waits 4 Years for Trial, Dies Hour After Verdict

BOSTON (UP)—After waiting 4 1/2 years for a damage suit to come to trial, Baden Leon, 63, won an $8,000 verdict from a Superior Court jury yesterday—then died of a heart attack an hour later.

The civil suit arose from an automobile collision in Brimfield, Mass., in May 1950. Leon was convicted of dangerous driving and fined $50. Seeking to clear himself, he sued the driver of the other car, claiming personal injuries.

Asks Own Pay Cut

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UP)—Orville Cheney, who'll become state revenue commissioner next month, told the Arkansas Legislative Council that the commissioner's salary should be cut $1,000 a year because of declining revenues. The council agreed. Cheney will make $7,500 annually instead of the usual $8,500.

Woman Imprisoned for Torturing Boy, 5

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP)—A woman accused of using matches to torture the 5-year-old nephew left in her care has been sentenced to one year in prison. Mrs. Gettie Lee Cook pleaded guilty to a charge of mayhem yesterday. Her daughter Charlene Lindsey, 16, told officers she held little Connie Thomas while her mother pressed burning matches against his skin. Charlene was given a six-month suspended sentence.

Over 200 Birds Flitting Around Couple's House

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—The bird population at F. Patrick Flinn's house is increasing by leaps and bounds.

Flinn, who lives in a modest row house in the Kensington section, bought two parakeets while recuperating from an operation two years ago. Now he has 200 of the feathered creatures, plus three dozen canaries.

Despite a food bill of 30 cents a week per bird and a lot of daily housecleaning, Flinn and his wife never think of the birds as expensive or bothersome.

It's a lot of work looking after them, but can you imagine a world without birds? Mrs. Flinn asked. "Their song is beautiful and they're beautiful to see."

The parakeets are free to fly around a large, airy room on the third floor, while the canaries are caged on the first floor.

The house, filled with the song of birds by day, is silent at night. "The birds are good neighbors," said Flinn. "They keep quiet at night."

Light Colonel Satisfied With Sergeant's Rank

NEW YORK (AP)—Lt. Col. Gerald Crosson came home recently after flying 105 helicopter missions in Korea to become a sergeant—but that was the way he wanted it. Crosson, who holds the air medal with two clusters and a special citation, went back to his old job of flying a "whirlybird" for the local police department's aviation division.

Science Takes Drudgery Out of Ham Preparation

"Soak ham overnight in a wash boiler of water. Parboil until tender." These were the directions for preparing the ham of some 50 years ago.

In those days of no walk-in coolers in the markets and few refrigerators in the homes, the hams had to be heavily cured with salt so they would keep, even in hot weather. Soaking and parboiling were necessary in order to remove that excess salt.

Who has a wash boiler today? Who has time to soak and parboil a ham? Thanks to modern science, hams have kept pace with today's mode of living.

The ham of today is one of the easiest meats to prepare. It requires no soaking, no parboiling and no long baking.

It was in the early 1930s that the first big change came. Improved refrigeration facilities meant that salt was no longer needed to preserve the hams.

New phrases appeared on the wrapper: "Do not soak. Do not parboil. Keep in refrigerator."

The late 1930s brought another improvement. A new-cure formula (salt, sugar, nitrites and nitrates) a new method of curing made it possible for the processor to leave the hams in the smoke ovens for longer periods of time.

This meant that the home baking time was shortened. It was no longer necessary to start baking in the early morning hours in order to have ham for a Sunday noon dinner.

Next came fully cooked hams, a type of ham which is completely cooked in the plant, chilled, and wrapped for shipment to food stores. The phrase on the wrapper of this ham reads, "Slice and Serve."

This ham can be served hot merely by reheating in the oven or by broiling the slices. The main advantage is the fact it is ready to slice and serve, right from the package. This is a far cry from the days of the wash boiler.

But the research didn't stop here. The next big change came in 1953 when George E. Brissey, a scientist in Swift & Company's Research Laboratories, formulated and patented a new type of cure which included phosphate.

The result is a more uniform color and a more tender, juicy ham. This cure is used for both the cook-before-eating and the fully cooked hams.

In 1954 more improvements have been made in hams. This time the news is a skinless, shankless ham. The bony shank is gone. The tough skin is gone. Excess fat is gone.

All these have been left in the plant. No longer are they a disposal problem for the homemaker. These hams, too, are available in two styles: The uncooked, which can be baked quickly and easily at home; and the fully cooked, slice-and-serve meal.

Research reveals that it is chunkier, this shankless ham requires a longer baking period than a ham of the weight.

The set schedule on the should be followed in order to ensure a tender, delicious, ham.

For Quick Mint Sauce

Roast lamb on the menu for Sunday dinner. You can make a mint sauce for it by adding a couple of tablespoons of water and a couple of teaspoons of cider vinegar to a half cup of mint jelly; stir the jelly mixture over low heat until it dissolves.

CENTERPIECE COOKIES—Use a huge cookie to center your plate of Christmas cookies. It's made of molasses cookie dough and decorated with bright colored sugar. Surround the tree with other molasses cookie cut-outs, also decorated.

Cut Big Christmas Tree From Yule Cookie Dough

For that something different use some of your molasses Christmas Cookie dough to make a large tree for the center of your cookie tray. You'll need to draw a paper pattern, but anyone can draw a creditable Christmas tree.

Christmas Cookies
2½ cups sifted all purpose flour
½ teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon ginger
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon cloves
½ teaspoon allspice
½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup sugar
1 egg
½ cup New Orleans molasses
1 tablespoon vinegar

Sift flour, soda, salt and spices together. Cream shortening; add sugar gradually and cream until fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Beat in molasses. Add vinegar, then dry ingredients. Stir until well blended. Chill thoroughly. Roll out about ¼ to ½" thick on floured board. Shape as directed, decorating as desired. Place on cookie sheet and bake at 375 degrees (moderate oven) 10 minutes. Cool. Frost if necessary. Makes about 6 dozen small cookies.

For Centerpiece Cookies
Roll out above dough ¼" thick on floured board. Cut with Christmas cutters. Decorate before baking with silver dragees, candy sprinkles, red cinnamon drops, raisins, currants or green-and-red-colored sugar.

To make large tree for center of tray, roll out dough ¼" thick on greased and lightly floured cookie sheet. Draw pattern for tree on white paper and cut out. Place on dough and cut around with sharp knife. Remove excess dough. Decorate.

Broil Beef Chunks, Pepper on Skewers

Chunks of beef, marinated in a savory mixture, are strung on skewers and broiled.

Skewered Beef
1½ pounds sirloin tip beef (about 1 inch thick)
½ cup salad oil
½ cup lemon juice
½ teaspoon salt, pepper
1 teaspoon sugar
½ teaspoon oregano
1 small clove garlic, (crushed)
1 large green pepper
Cut beef into 1 to 1½-inch chunks; remove any outside fat or sinews.
Mix lemon juice, oil, salt, pepper to taste, sugar, oregano and garlic.

Put beef cubes in flat container; pour mixture over them, cover tightly and refrigerate for one or two days before using. Turn cubes over in marinade several times.

To use, remove seeds and membranes from green pepper and cut in 16 pieces; string beef and green pepper alternately and loosely on skewers.
Broil close to high heat to desired doneness; make a small slit in a cube of the beef to test. Makes four servings.

Juice Flavors Prunes

Dried prunes with apple juice poured over and allowed to stand overnight are delicious as a fruit dish for breakfast. In serving, add more apple juice if you wish, or light cream.

DEVILED FLANK STEAK—Flank steak always makes a nice change for dinner—and deviled flank steak is an especially tasty way to serve this fine flavored beef cut. Serve with buttered peas and carrots and baked potatoes with sour cream-chive topping (made by blending dairy-soured cream with chopped chives or finely chopped green onion tops).

Cook Deviled Flank Steak in a Tangy Liquid Sauce

Flank steak usually comes to the table stuffed and baked with a tasty dressing. It's probably best known when prepared in this popular way.

Actually, flank steak—a good buy, along with many other beef cuts these days—can be prepared just like round steak. It can be cooked, either whole or cut into pieces, in a tasty liquid with added seasonings. It's somewhat easier to prepare this way than as a stuffed meat dish.

Here's a tasty way to braise flank steak—deviled style.

Deviled Flank Steak

1 flank steak
2 tablespoons flour
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1½ teaspoons Worcestershire sauce

Have meat man score flank steak. Combine flour, salt, pepper, and mustard; pound into steak on both sides, using a meat pounder or the edge of a heavy saucer. Cut steak into four pieces and brown on all sides in a little hot fat. Mix Worcestershire sauce with ½ cup water and add to meat. Cover and cook over low heat until tender, about 2 hours, adding more water as needed. 4 servings.

Swiss-style: After the steak has been browned, add ½ cup catsup, ½ cup chopped onions, 1 teaspoon dry mustard and 1 cup beef bouillon. Add more bouillon or water as needed during cooking.

Vegetable flank steak: Brown the steak, then cook slowly in canned consommé with sliced carrots, chopped celery and onions added.

Flank Steak Accompaniment
A favorite accompaniment for any steak is baked potatoes. Served with a sour cream-chive topping, they're ideal with braised flank steak.

Sour cream-chive topping: Blend dairy-soured cream with chopped chives or finely chopped green onion tops; add salt and pepper to suit taste. Or mash a package or two of chive cream cheese (3 oz. packages) and add enough dairy-soured cream or fresh cream to moisten well.

Company Sandwiches Are French-Toasted

These sandwiches are good enough for company. Use a slice of cheese and one of ham between two slices of bread; dip the sandwiches in a French toast batter, then brown on both sides in butter or margarine.

Serve with your favorite variety of pickles or with olives. Tiny bouquets of watercress sprigs and radish roses will look pretty with the sandwiches, too.

Apple Chutney Is Welcome Gift

A food gift that you make yourself is a most welcome Christmas present. It's the "different" gift—one that's a pride to produce and a pleasure to receive. And it costs little.

Here, for example, is the recipe for a wonderfully spicy-rich apple chutney—made with canned apple slices.

Fill jars with the lovely stuff, wrap them in aluminum foil, tie fat red bows around the tops... and there you are with as gay gifts as you can give. You make the chutney this way:

Christmas Chutney
2½ cups (1 can) sliced apples
1 cup light brown sugar
¼ cup cider vinegar
½ cup silvered candied ginger
½ cup thinly sliced onion
1 cup seedless white raisins
1 teaspoon chili powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon mustard seeds
½ cup dried pimiento
½ cup chopped walnut meats

Chop apples; combine with sugar, vinegar, ginger, onion, raisins, chili powder, salt and mustard seeds. Bring to boil; simmer about 30 minutes. Add pimiento and nutmeats. Makes about 2½ cups.

Lima Tomato Rabbit Ideal on Cold Day

Here's a hearty dish that is fine to serve on a cold day.

Lima Tomato Rabbit
2 cups grated cheddar cheese
1 can condensed tomato soup
2 tablespoons water
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon dry mustard
2 cups cooked large dry lima beans
2½ tablespoons chopped dill pickle

Place cheese in top of double boiler. Cook and stir over simmering water until melted. Stir in tomato soup, water, salt and dry mustard.

Cook and stir constantly until smooth and very hot. Heat lima beans and drain; divide among four shallow individual baking dishes.

Sprinkle each with a teaspoon of green onion and dill pickle; cover with tomato-cheese rabbit. Sprinkle with remaining onion and pickle. Makes four servings.

An egg of high quality covers a small area. Its white is very thick and stands high; its yolk is firm, high and well centered.

Too Rushed for Dessert? Bananas Are the Answer

A riddle for your kitchen, Madame. What fruit is ready for dessert the minute you take off its jacket? Why, the banana, of course. Peel it, serve it on a plate, let folks eat it with knife and fork for dessert. If you've got a moment more for making dessert in this hectic pre-holiday bustle, you can try some of the sliced banana variations that make really wonderful desserts in a few seconds flat.

The basic banana for this hurry-up business is always the fully ripe one, the banana that has yellow peel flecked with brown. This banana is at peak of flavor, sweetness and digestibility.

File these dessert "Hurry-ups" in your pre-holiday file because you'll never want to be without them, once you find how good, how quick, they are.

Quick Banana Desserts

Slice fully ripe bananas, yellow peel flecked with brown, and serve with milk or with cream for an American dessert that is a classic. Sliced banana toppers that are terrific are: Custard sauce, butter-scotch sauce, orange sauce, lemon sauce, pineapple sauce. Sour cream with a light sprinkling of cinnamon or nutmeg also makes a wonderful topper for sliced bananas that takes but a twinkle to serve. Homemade banana split requires only ice cream, chocolate or fruit flavored syrups, a ripe banana sliced lengthwise. Keep this in reserve for dessert when the meal has been hurried and plain.

Banana split is a grand climax that will make any meal seem festive, yet it is quick to fix.

Quick banana shortcakes are made with sliced ripe bananas, whipped cream, and biscuits, sponge cake, gingerbread or chocolate cake from the store, or quick mix cakes that bake while dinner is being prepared.

Sliced or diced ripe bananas molded in fruit-flavored gelatin or combined with cubed gelatin make a wonderful, quick dessert you can prepare in the morning. It will be ready to serve when the going gets hectic before dinner.

Pumpkin Dessert Is Smooth, Delicate

The spicy flavor of pumpkin-pie filling combines with a smooth and delicate texture in this delicious dessert.

Pumpkin Cream Mold

1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
1 cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon ginger
¾ cup light cream
3 egg yolks
1½ cups canned pumpkin
1 cup heavy cream

Mix gelatin, sugar, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and ginger together thoroughly in the top of a double boiler. Stir in light cream.

Beat in egg yolks with a fork or a whisk, then the pumpkin. Cook and stir constantly over boiling water for 10 minutes. Gelatin and sugar will be dissolved and mixture hot.

Remove from heat; chill until mixture begins to set—a spoonful of it dropped back will hold its shape well in a mound.

Beat heavy cream until thick (but not stiff) and fold into pumpkin mixture. Turn into mold—one that holds about 5 cups—and chill until set.

Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Idea for Sunday Tea

Like to have friends for Sunday tea? For a delicious sandwich filling, mix cream cheese with well-drained crushed pineapple. Make the sandwiches of thinly sliced bread, the cream-cheese mixture and sprays of watercress. A bowl of salted almonds goes well with these sandwiches.

Cookies Spell Yule Hospitality

At this season of the year, hospitality reflects from every holly-wreathed window and evergreen-decked door.

Inside, the promise of hospitality is fulfilled graciously with cookies. They have become a homey tradition of Christmas. Perhaps the reason for this is because cookies are identified with children.

Children, guests, everyone will like these spicy Christmas cookies. They are deliciously crisp and rich, says home economist Reba Staggs.

She suggests that you cut them with cookie cutters which have Christmas motifs such as stars, trees, wreaths and bells.

Cinnamon Christmas Cookies
6 cups sifted enriched flour
½ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup lard
2 cups sugar
2 eggs
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift together flour, salt, baking powder and cinnamon.

Thoroughly cream lard and sugar. Add eggs and beat well. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk and vanilla, mix thoroughly.

Roll one-eighth-inch thick on lightly floured surface. Cut with floured cookie cutter; sprinkle with sugar if desired.

Bake on greased cookie sheet in moderate oven (375 degrees) about 15 minutes. Yield: Six dozen cookies.

Spoon a little whole cranberry sauce into the cavities of broiled canned peaches; makes a pretty garnish for a platter of roast chicken or turkey.

Dance Band Benefactor Plays Piano

Goldkette Returns to Keyboard for Fund Raising Drive

By DONNA ANDERSON

Jean Goldkette has returned to the keyboard. Most people connect his name with great dance bands and the "era of swing" claims Mr. Goldkette as its founder. He started such musicians as Jimmy and Tommy Dorsey and Glenn Miller, on their way to history making fame.

But, whatever direction a musician's life takes, his beginning rests on the study of the classics.

During this year, the 25th anniversary of the first triumphal tour of the Goldkette recording orchestra, the friendly French-American is seeking the relaxation and inspiration of his first love, the grand piano and serious music.

The artist is assisting service organizations all over the country with a wide spread fund raising project to aid worthy young artists in their chosen field.

Pontiac branch of American Association of University Women sponsored the Goldkette concert which was held Wednesday evening at Pontiac High School. The association is particularly interested in bringing foreign women to this country for study. Members also want a hand in the cultural and educational entertainment in Pontiac.

Mr. Goldkette's concert selections included the most familiar works of Mendelssohn, Liszt, Johann Strauss and Chopin with an American popular medley and a group of impressionistic works of Ravel, Debussy and Rachmaninoff. He even sneaked a little Morton Gould boogie-woogie into the program.

Virtuosity perhaps lost a little of its technical flavor during the swing years, but this concert was a relaxing one and the artist's easy, neighborly manner certainly won the hearts of his holiday stricken audience.

Bureau Plans Recruit Drive

Plans are under way by Pontiac's General Volunteer Bureau for an intensive volunteer recruiting program to start early in 1955.

Arrangements for the drive were made when the bureau's advisory board met Wednesday afternoon in YWCA. The board is headed by Mrs. George Petroff.

Mrs. Calvin Dennison, executive secretary of the board reported on a state wide gathering of volunteer bureaus held in Detroit last week. Pontiac bureau has joined others throughout the state in forming a new Michigan organization.

Party Is Held

Hotel Waldron was the setting for the Tuesday evening Christmas party given by members of the women's auxiliary to Pontiac Master Plumbers Association. Mrs. Floyd Temple was chairman for the affair and was assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Thornton, Mrs. Ezra Mason and Mrs. T. F. Cook.

Gift Exchange Held

A Christmas gift exchange and visit from Santa Claus highlighted the Tuesday evening meeting of American Gold Star Mothers, chapter nine. The meeting was held in the American Legion home on Auburn avenue.

FOR SMALL FOLK—Special department in most stationery stores where the children can pick cards offers a boost to initiative and grown-up feeling to the youngsters.

For Any Occasion

Be Yourself in Fashions

The what-to-wear panic can strike a grown woman as easily as it strikes a girl going to her first party. And it strikes harder because she feels she ought to know instinctively.

A tale told of Gertrude Lawrence, a woman who knew how to wear her maturity with magnificence, is of a party given her by the university at which she taught. At first she planned to wear a wonderfully flamboyant dress that represented all she was as a glittering star.

Then at the last moment she reconsidered. After all, she decided, I am guest of honor as a professor, not as a star. She wore a modest suit and was the hit of the evening, as befits a guest of honor.

And that's the key to the situation. Represent who you are and what you do at whatever the occasion may be.

If you are the mother of the bride, be the mother of the bride, not the bride. Be good-looking background for your daughter, fit in with her color scheme for the affair. Don't try for the foreground.

If the party is in honor of another woman, don't try to surpass her. Dress well to compliment her, but don't strain for compliments and rolled eyes.

And, of course, if you are the guest of honor, cut loose. Dress to the best of your ability to be what you are.

Big Parade Saturday to Carry Santa to Rochester

Armada Couples Will Celebrate Golden Weddings

ARMADA — Golden wedding anniversary bells will ring out simultaneously Sunday for two couples who have made their homes here for 50 years of marriage.

Celebrating will be Mr. and Mrs. James Sumner, of 80740 Ono Rd., and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kaiser, of 2535 Center Rd.

The Sumners will mark the occasion with a family dinner Saturday evening, with 20 members.

The Kaisers also will formally mark the day with an open house, from 2-5 p.m. Sunday. They were married in 1904 in the Methodist church parsonage in Armada.

Also holding open house Sunday from 2-5 p.m. will be the Kaisers, assisted by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Kaiser.

Permit Required

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP — Individuals or organizations wishing to sell Christmas trees within the township must obtain a permit from the township, and deposit a $25 bond to insure clean-up of all trees and refuse by Jan. 1, it has been announced.

6 Bands to Pace Yule Procession

Festive March to Begin on North Hill at 2 P.M., Big Turnout Expected

ROCHESTER — The big annual Christmas parade to be held Saturday at 2 p.m. will be paced by six bands, including the famed Detroit Police Band and the Chrysler Scotch Kiltie Bagpipe Band.

Highlights of the village's program of yuletide decorations and programs, the parade welcomes Santa Claus to Rochester, where he will maintain headquarters until Christmas.

Hudson G. Hill and Lafayette Maynard, both of the Rochester Lions Club, are general chairman and parade chairman, respectively.

The parade, an annual event, is expected to draw thousands to the downtown area.

School bands from Rochester High, Avondale, and Troy will also strut along in the parade, in addition to dozens of floats and colorful clowns.

The prominent North Pole resident visiting here will enter town on top of the Rochester Fire Department's biggest red truck.

Chairman Maynard has revealed that some 18 floats are entered in the parade, along with numerous other vehicles.

The parade will form at 1 p.m. on the North Hill, and begin the march promptly at 2 p.m. It will proceed south on Main street to Second, west on Second to Walnut Boulevard, then north on Walnut to Fourth St.

The winning floats, Santa Claus, bands and entertainment personalities will return to Main Street in front of the grandstand, where a short ceremony will include the introduction of Santa Claus.

Free movies for youngsters will follow at the Hills Theater.

Church to Hold Smorgasbord This Saturday

SASHABAW — The Sashabaw Presbyterian Church smorgasbord will be served Saturday, beginning at 5:30 p.m.

A variety of salads, relishes and homemade hot breads and pastries will supplement the main dishes of baked ham and other meats.

A free will offering will be taken, with proceeds to be earmarked for the church building fund.

Santa Parade Slated at Milford Saturday

MILFORD — A Santa Claus parade will open festivities for kids here, beginning at 10:30 Saturday morning.

The Huron Valley school band will lead the parade, marching down Main street into the center of town, where Santa will distribute free candy and gifts to the children.

After a short band concert, the whole group will see a free movie at the Milford theater. The event is being sponsored by the Milford Board of Commerce, with Charles Newell, president, in charge.

The Board of Commerce will also offer first, second and third prizes again this year for the best decorated homes in the village. As in previous years, yule decorations on the exterior of the homes will be judged and cash prizes awarded.

County Calendar

Big Beaver — The Boy Scouts of the Big Beaver Methodist Church are holding a scrap metal drive Saturday.

Royal Oak Judge Retires at Age 81

J. E. Brondige, Blind Jurist, Has Completed 33 Years on Bench

ROYAL OAK — Municipal Judge John E. Brondige of Royal Oak will retire from the bench Dec. 31.

His resignation, accompanied by that of his wife and court clerk, Maude Brondige, has been presented to the city commission. The blind judge will not finish his 11th consecutive term, which ends in July.

The 81-year-old judge was first elected as justice of the peace in 1921 when Royal Oak became a city. A lawyer since 1900, he was recently honored by the State Bar of Michigan for completing 50 years of practice.

He is the only South Oakland County official whose career spans so long a time.

He lost his sight in 1925 and has been unopposed since. His first wife, Harriett Campbell, died in 1938. In January, 1940, he married his present wife, the former Maude E. Zwayer. She has been his clerk and stenographer since 1918.

Troy Township Goodfellow Sale Set Tomorrow

TROY TOWNSHIP — More than 40 Troy Township Goodfellows, police and firemen will be selling local newspapers for their annual goodfellow drive tomorrow throughout the township, starting at 6:30 a.m.

Lauren Ford is the chairman of the drive which seeks to give all residents a happier Christmas. He is being assisted by treasurer Ollie Schroeder and William Renshaw, locality chairman.

Besides Christmas baskets, the funds collected through the paper sale are used throughout the year for similar purposes.

Requires Notification on Zoning Changes

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP — The township board has ruled that in the future all proposed zoning changes will require notice by card which will include a simple boundary description map as well as property description sent to all affected property owners.

The ruling is in line with a suggestion made by township board member Luther Wagner, and will be incorporated in the zoning ordinance requirements.

The move is to make the affected area more easily outlined and understood.

Man in Good Condition After Car-Truck Collision

Clinton J. Benard, 38, of 291 Starr Ave., is listed in good condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with injuries suffered yesterday when his truck and an auto collided at James K Blvd. and Telegraph road.

Benard, according to Sylvan Lake Police, attempted to turn left onto James K from northbound Telegraph road and cut in front of a southbound car driven by Miss Doris J. Zolman, 29, of 45 Pinegrove Ave. Miss Zolman was treated for knee cuts.

Plane Spotters to Honor Jackie See

Boy, 14, Wins Top Award of Milford Observers Corps

LYLE SEE JR.

MILFORD — A 14-year-old boy will be awarded top honor for 250 hours service with the Milford Ground Observers Corps, as the group celebrates its second birthday Saturday night at the Presbyterian church.

Out of the 150 members of the Ground Observers here, Lyle "Jackie" See Jr. has piled up more hours than any member in the two year period.

This is the second time in a year that Jackie has received a top award. In April, he was given the coveted Eagle award in Boy Scouting and was the youngest boy in Michigan ever to receive that honor. He was the third Eagle Scout in Milford.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle See, of 316 Crystal St.

At the birthday party Saturday night, along with Jackie, fifteen other members will receive 150-hour merit awards, and 35 will be given their 100-hour medal.

Lieut. Col. Val W. Bollwerk, Selridge Field Air Base, will make the presentations, and Lieut. Herbert Welch will represent the Grand Rapids Filter Center. Both will speak briefly.

One of the few volunteer posts in the United States serving 24-hour duty, the Milford Ground Observers Corps received the "Post of the Month" award, last December, then in July was given a Jet-Citation from the Michigan Filter Station at Grand Rapids for continuous service.

Mrs. George Ederie heads the Milford group, who are one of the 450 posts in Michigan.

Perry Orvis has taken the 4 a.m. to 6 a.m. watch on Thursdays for two continuous years, without missing a single watch due to illness, vacations or anything else that may have come up.

Agnes Kinstle has never missed a week for two years, and has done much substitute work. She has 212 hours to her credit.

Brandon High Seniors to Stage 3-Act Comedy
