Ice Glazes Area's Highways

Reels but Opens Up Records

Daily Worker Operating Despite Federal Seizure

NEW YORK (INS)—The Communist Party, reeling under the government's seizure of its records, assets and newspaper offices, agreed today to open all its safes to treasury investigators.

The first of the nationwide "operation safe opening" activities took place at the New York office of the Daily Worker in the presence of attorney Harry Sacher. A private firm is printing the paper.

T-men, who yesterday padlocked party headquarters and offices from coast to coast for non-payment of taxes, began an "audit and inventory" of the closely-guarded records.

The study is expected to give the government its first full-scale "inside look" at the party's propaganda and other functions in the U. S.

Meanwhile, attorneys for the party and the Worker, which continued to publish, met to figure out what, if any, legal steps they can take to void the foreclosing actions over alleged tax evasion of over $435,000.

The Internal Revenue Department refused to discuss the agreement to open all safes, insisting it was a "private matter between us and the taxpayer."

AGENTS SEE SECRET LISTS

But, a top spokesman for the Communist Party stated that treasury agents were being allowed to examine all the hitherto secret membership lists, financial records and other documents.

The government's action was the most severe blow to hit the party in its 37-year history in the U. S.—affecting not only its whole movement but also its inner workings.

All readily available funds—for propaganda, party workers and court actions involving party leaders—were tied up by the seizure.

The party records and Worker subscription list were expected to lead the government to "front" organizations and hidden backers.

Padlocking of party headquarters in Detroit, New York, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Chicago, and Newark, N. J., left the party with no official headquarters.

Dust Shrouds Six-State Area

Grime Beclouds West, Damages Crops, Stalls Transportation

DENVER (AP)—An eerie wall of dust shrouded a six-state area of the prairie West today along an 800-mile path from Cheyenne, Wyo., to Waco, Tex.

The first severe windstorm of the year sent grimy clouds boiling to 20,000 feet and forced rerouting of some airline flights.

CROPS DAMAGED

In its wake was untold damage to spring crops, grazing land and range animals. In Eastern Colorado alone, federal agriculture officials estimated up to 75 per cent of the state's 3,400,000 acres of winter wheat was blown aloft.

The weatherman predicted relief for southern Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico today. But there was little letup in the ferocious winds that battered Kansas, Oklahoma and North Texas.

Several eastern Colorado towns reported wind gusts to 85 m.p.h. Gusts were clocked at 75 m.p.h. at Cheyenne, and at 54 m.p.h. in Denver.

The Colorado highway patrol closed U.S. 40-287 and U.S. 24 between Limon and the Kansas border for more than eight hours.

Hold It, Pal—We're Friends, Remember?

FORT PIERCE, Fla. (AP)—Wayne Miller, director of the St. Lucie County insect control program, saved the life of a skunk yesterday—and got away with it.

Miller was at the airport getting ready for a day's warfare on insects when he heard a clanking on a nearby runway.

It was a skunk with his head stuck in a dog food can.

A nice problem, thought Miller. If I try to help him, will he know it's a friend?

Miller put his foot on the can and the skunk backed out, freed.

"Then we looked each other in the eye," Miller said. "The skunk made a threatening gesture. I tipped my hat and slowly walked away—well, as a matter of fact, I was running."

Car Hits Truck; Motorist Killed

Inkster Resident Victim as Crash Starts Blaze Among New Autos

An automobile salesman was killed early this morning in Southfield Township when his car collided with an automobile haulaway.

Four new cars on the haulaway were damaged by fire which apparently started from spilled gasoline. Southfield Township firemen worked for an hour to extinguish the blaze.

Witnesses said the salesman, 28-year-old Stanley W. Powell of Inkster, ran the red light at 10 Mile Road and Telegraph Road at "a high rate of speed" and crashed into the truck, driven by William Ford, 36, of Grand Blanc.

Powell was dead on arrival at William Beaumont Hospital. Ford, who suffered lacerations and bruises, was treated and released.

Powell was travelling west on 10 Mile Road. Ford's haulaway was going south on Telegraph Road.

Ford reportedly leaped from the cab of his truck at the impact, escaping injury.

Freezing Rain Closes Schools, Slows Traffic

Over 10,000 Students Get Vacation as Buses Forced to Halt

At least 10,800 Oakland County school students received an unexpected vacation today as freezing rain made many roads dangerous for bus travel.

Several area schools already were closed for Easter vacation or the figure probably would be higher. Pontiac and Waterford Township schools were open, although some buses ran behind schedule.

No traffic accidents were reported by Pontiac Police and Sheriff's Deputies which could be blamed on poor driving conditions.

Passenger car traffic on main roads was not seriously impeded this morning, the Road Commission reported. Slightly warmer temperatures predicted for this afternoon were expected to improve driving conditions.

Two minor service breakdowns were reported by the Detroit Edison Co.

Today, the ninth day of spring, saw .29 inches of freezing rain fall on the Pontiac area between 3 a.m. and 8 a.m.

MORE SLEET

The forecast was for freezing rains to continue today and tonight, changing to scattered snow flurries Thursday. The high temperature predicted for today was 36, low tonight 25-29 and high Thursday 30-34.

The 8 a.m. temperature in downtown Pontiac was 28. The thermometer registered 33 at 2 p.m.

Conditions were bad throughout the southern part of Michigan's lower peninsula.

Schools closed in Walled Lake affecting 4,800 students. Some 2,300 pupils stayed home in the Clarkston area and 2,700 who attend the Huron Valley Schools. The 1,000-pupil Our Lady of Sorrows School in Farmington also shut down.

The Pontiac Department of Public Works had seven trucks sanding city streets this morning. Pontiac Police reported traffic jams between 7 and 8 a.m. City buses ran on schedule.

Detroit Edison reported a line down in Hazel Park at 7:50 a.m., shutting off power in a small commercial-industrial area. The break was repaired by noon.

The Edison Wolfhill Substation in Brandon Township broke down at 7:59 a.m. affecting about 500 residences. Michigan Bell Telephone Co. and Consumers Power Co. reported no weather trouble.

The storm hit hardest in the Southwest Michigan area. Trees

Pontiac and Portland Will Swap City Heads

Pontiac's mayor will be making a trip to Portland on May 21 for Michigan's annual Mayor Exchange Day.

In return Pontiac will play host to Portland's mayor for the day which is held during "Michigan Week."

The pairing was announced yesterday in Lansing as top state officials drew the pairings for some 500 mayors and village presidents expected to participate.

Making the drawings were Gov. Williams, Lt. Gov. Philip Hart, House Speaker Wade Van Valkenburg, and Miss Michigan of 1955 Margaret Devereaux of Howell.

Portland is northwest of Lansing, midway between the state capital and Grand Rapids.

Pickets Halt Milk Truck Here

Pontiac Press Photo

MILK HALTED — First of several milk tank trucks which picketing farmers plan to bar from the Bordon Company depot was stopped, above, at 12:15 p.m. today. The driver, who had tried to deliver three tons of raw milk from farms in the Utica-Rochester area, said he would remain parked at 256 Norton St. to see what happens this afternoon. Four farmers this noon said their numbers would be augmented by other farmers who were attempting to halt trucks this morning at area farms. They said there would be no attempt to stop trucks along the highways.

Romeo Driver Crosses Line With Gun Drawn

Detroit Firms Making Usual Deliveries as Pickets Ring Offices

Dairy farmers' fight for higher milk prices moved into Pontiac today, when four pickets arrived at the Bordon Creamery Co. office at 256 Norton St. and began attempting to halt drivers.

Violence was skirted at the Romeo depot of the Bordon firm, when a milk hauler drove through the picket line with a drawn pistol at noon.

The driver, Robert Toles of Romeo, surrendered the gun to Macomb County Sheriff's Deputies at the scene.

Some 50 pickets milled around the building, and four deputies and two Romeo police officers stood by to quell possible trouble.

Yesterday one driver en route to the Romeo depot claimed a farmer tried to force his truck off the road.

Trucker James H. Roberts of Detroit was involved in a collision with a car driven by George F. Hill, 36, a Romeo dairy farmer, who Roberts said repeatedly tried to force him into a ditch.

Hill said he was trying to make a turn, and denied any attempt to ditch the truck.

Members of the Fair Share Bargaining Assn. began picketing Borden's and the Ira Wilson Creamery in Detroit Monday, seeking higher prices for milk.

Normal deliveries were maintained by Detroit dairies today in the face of picketing there. Members of the AFL-CIO dairy workers union refused to honor the picket lines of the farmers.

At the Pontiac plant, one truck was turned away by the pickets, who persuaded the driver to leave. There was no violence.

The four pickets said raw milk would be available free to those who wanted it, and that it would be dumped this afternoon.

According to Dr. Lyle Moffit, county veterinarian, raw milk may be made safe for drinking by boiling, followed by rapid cooling, preferably in a sealed container.

Four farmers who said free milk was available were Harold Fogler, 3320 N. Rochester Rd.; Ralph Fogler, 3905 N. Rochester Rd.; Marion Czechowski, 355 Lutts Rd., and the owner of Axford Farms, 390 Gunn Rd. and 4770 Sheldon Rd. All are in Pontiac Township.

Members of the Fair Share organization have appealed to milk producers to dump their milk, to back up the picket maneuver.

Some 27,000 pounds of milk had been delivered to the Romeo depot, which usually sends about 130,000 pounds to Detroit.

The line of about 50 pickets is made up largely of farmers from Berville, Armada, Richmond, Davis, Capac, Almont and Washington according to a witness on the scene.

Pickets were also active at Richmond, east of Romeo, and Fair Share leaders said more picketing is scheduled for Owosso, Marlette and Mason.

Leaders of the Fair Share Assn., a group of insurgent members of the Michigan Milk Producers Assn., said the full effect of their two-day-old strike would be felt today. They have been picketing Borden's and the Ira Wilson Creamery in Detroit since Monday.

Emerson Teal, manager of the Romeo Borden Depot, said 302 of the usual 320 shippers hauled milk to the local plant, and the amount shipped yesterday was only slightly below average.

He said 122,600 pounds of milk

Wilson Chooses Murphree

Name New Missile Boss

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon has ordered top priority for development of a missile powerful and accurate enough to deliver a shattering hydrogen charge, at supersonic speed, to targets thousands of miles away.

Secretary of Defense Wilson took this action yesterday in appointing Eger V. Murphree to be a new assistant with broad authority to direct the job of striving for victory in the missile race with Russia.

Murphree, 57, is president of the Esso Research and Engineering Co. He will serve without pay while on leave from Esso Research.

Wilson said in a formal directive that Murphree would "devote major emphasis to missiles of the long-range type, particularly ballistic missiles."

The defense secretary designated Murphree to speak for him in all matters pertaining to new missiles within the defense establishment and before the National Security Council and the President.

EGER V. MURPHREE

Wilson said Murphree will start work next week and stay on the job for at least a year.

Within this period, the secretary said, he thinks "a great contribution" can be made toward achieving an effective rocket-powered ballistic missile.

Some Democrats in Congress have been critical of Eisenhower administration efforts in the missile field, contending this country has been lagging behind Russia.

Sen. Jackson (D-Wash), one of these critics, said of Murphree's appointment: "Better late than never. . . I hope he will take a strong administrative control of the missiles work."

Jackson had urged a single civilian official in the Pentagon to coordinate and supervise the missile program.

Murphree will have more authority than any other previous official who has had the job of organizing and directing missile research and development operations.

In spelling this out, Wilson clothed his new special assistant with powers to utilize and cut across existing lines of responsibility in the areas of research, development, engineering and production.

However, Murphree — a veteran of more than 30 years in research engineering — will not be concerned with missiles the military services already have, nor with the question of which services will use any specific missile.

State Approves Parking Bonds

Give Nod to Issuance of $600,000 to Finance Off-Street Project

City Manager Walter K. Willman told the City Commission last night that the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission yesterday approved Pontiac's application for the issuance of $600,000 revenue bonds for the recently approved offstreet parking program.

He said bids on the bonds will be taken at the April 24 City Commission meeting.

In other action involving the program, commissioners granted Willman authorization to purchase lot 46 assessor's plat 112, and lots 21 and 22 and part of lot 23 assessor's plat 35 for use in the construction of the parking lots.

They will be paid for from the capital improvement program with the money to be reinstated into the fund from revenues derived from the operation of the lots.

Construction is expected to begin around the latter part of April on the project.

Tots to Scramble for Easter Eggs at 4 City Parks

Grab your Easter baskets kids!

Have Mom and Dad take you to the Annual Easter Egg Hunt Saturday, March 31 at either Beaudette, Oakland, Murphy, or Jaycee Park.

The hunt is being sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Dept. and the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce, and will begin at 2 p.m. weather permitting.

Two hunts are scheduled for each park, one for girls and boys six years and under, and the other for those seven through 11 years.

The Jaycees are providing 2,000 colored eggs and prizes. Children have been urged to go to the park nearest their home.

Ready for Easter?

Suggestions for the younger set on decorating Easter eggs, Easter baskets and making centerpieces for the family dinner table are shown on the opening page of The Press women's section today. Easter vacations, no matter how short, can be more fun with family decorating sessions with crepe paper, scissors and paste. Turn to page 15 for suggestions.

Stories of Easter—Pilate

His Policy Spelled Death

(This is the fifth of an Easter Week series about individuals in the human tide that carried Christ to His death.)

By GEORGE CORNELL
(AP Religious Writer)

The high-vaulted chamber was silent except for the swish of the governor's robe as he paced back and forth. He stopped beside a bowl of fruit and plopped a grape in his mouth.

Then, tight-lipped and annoyed Pilate turned to the prisoner and gazed at Him distastefully. "Art Thou a king?" The country was full of these vagabond soothsayers with fool's dreams and impractical notions.

This one, a rangy fellow with a calm, unprotesting manner, seemed harmless enough, but there was a subtle sting in His reply: "Sayest thou this thyself, or did others tell it thee of Me?"

* * *

Pilate swore silently. Rome, the astute mistress! Firmness but conciliation — that was the emperor's command. Would that great Tiberius himself had to deal with this one—not that the fellow's life mattered.

AMBITIOUS PILATE

But ambition burned hard in Pilate, whose ancestors had risen from slavery. He knew that diplomatic mastery over these troublesome Judeans was the key to power. Personally, he had no use for justice—a plague on it!

But already, his ruthless methods had brought scowls from Rome. He had to be careful, shrewd. He twisted the gold ring on his finger and turned, with sorely tried patience, toward this man called Jesus.

"Thine own nation—the chief priests—delivered Thee unto me. What hast Thou done?"

The man had some visionary answer: "My kingdom is not of this world . . . " Plainly, He was just a paltry mystic—with nothing to do with the weightier matters of running the actual affairs of men.

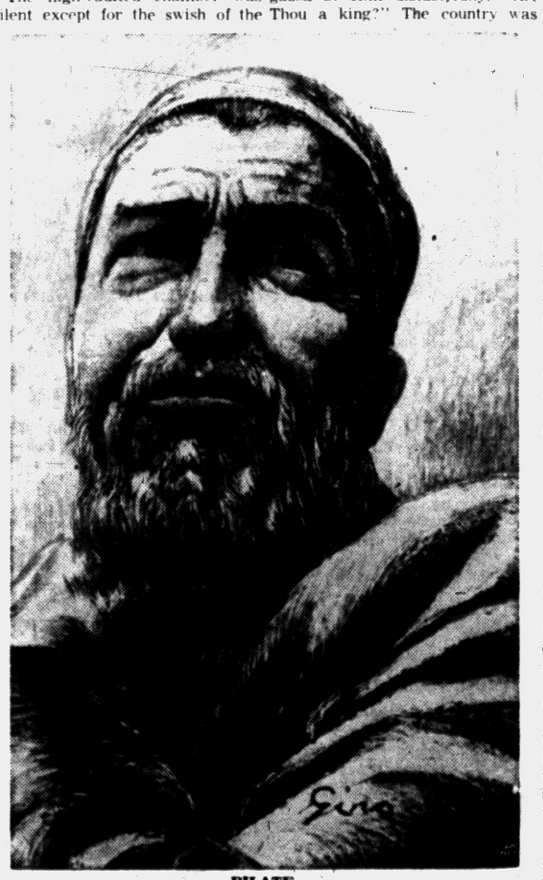

Pilate smiled. "Art Thou a king then?"

The prisoner didn't see the humor of it. "To this end have I been born," he said evenly. "To this end have I come into the world that I should bear witness to the truth."

* * *

Willman to Investigate City's Rights in Disposal of Courthouse Site

City Manager Walter K. Willman was requested last night to investigate whether title insurance would be furnished in the event the present courthouse property is sold to a private purchaser.

* * *

In a resolution offered by Commissioner Philip E. Rowston (District 2), the City Commission agreed that it was interested in a possible loss to taxpayers in the event the courthouse property at Saginaw and Huron streets cannot be sold for private uses, and reverts to the heirs of the original donor.

Willman will request an answer from local title insurance companies.

Rowston said the question had been raised by several local attorneys as to the salability of the courthouse site to private individuals for commercial purposes.

He claimed that the Oakland County corporation counsel said the county can tear down the building and sell it for commercial purposes.

"There is some serious doubt whether or not the title sits in the hands of the county," Rowston concluded.

and utility poles, weighted with ice, were knocked down by winds up to 45 miles an hour. (Pontiac Municipal Airport reported a 15-mile-an-hour wind this morning with gusts up to 20.)

Fallen trees blocked roads in the Kalamazoo area. A sleet storm in Grand Haven was described as "probably the worst in 20 years." Many utility wires were pulled from houses by weight of ice and falling limbs.

At Charlotte, the northeast section of the city was darkened for an hour by a power failure caused by ice covered wires. Nearly 200 utility poles fell between South Haven and Holland. In Detroit, morning rush hour traffic moved at a crawl and numerous minor accidents were reported.

In Muskegon, more than 500 telephone poles were snapped off during the storm. Doors and windows were iced shut, preventing many resident from leaving their homes.

Mrs. Ida Fowler, 56, of Muskegon, called firemen when she couldn't open her house doors. When the door was chopped free, Mrs. Fowler said she was all right but primarily interested in letting her dog out.

Cut off from phone communication were Middleville in Barry County, Saugatuck in Allegan County, Borculo in Ottawa County and Hickory Corners and Prairieville near Kalamazoo. These communities still had local service. Michigan Bell sent extra repair crews from Detroit and Saginaw.

General Telephone Co., of Michigan, reported about 500 poles down in its service area, blocking communications to Hart, Shelby, Whitehall, Hesperia, Coopersville and Ravenna. Early damage estimate was $50,000.

The Muskegon weather bureau said accumulated ice measured three-quarters to one inch.

JOHN A. DUGAN

PAT STOGLIN

Dugan Opposing Stoglin in District Five Contest

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fifth in the series of seven articles on the 14 City Commission candidates and their statements submitted to The Press. One candidate from each of the seven districts will be elected next Monday to serve a 1956-57 term on the City Commission.

DISTRICT 5

After a six year absence from the political circuit, Pat Stoglin has once again put in his bid for a City Commission post.

On Monday, Stoglin, 49, of 700 Joslyn Ave., will be vying with incumbent John A. Dugan for the District 5 seat.

Voters in this district, located in the northeast corner of the city, will mark an "X" for either Dugan or Stoglin, with the leading candidate winning a two-year term on the City Commission.

Stoglin, a salesman for the Jerome Motor Sales Co., was edged out in the 1950 primary for a seat on the City Commission.

Both he and Dugan were nominated to the April ballot this year as they were the only candidates to file nominating petitions in District 5.

Dugan, 46, has been an employe of Pontiac Motor Division for 26 years. He lives at 363 Nelson St. He is seeking a second two-year term after being elected to his present post in 1954.

Statements submitted by the candidates follow:

JOHN A. DUGAN

"I am seeking re-election in District 5 because I wish to help further the constructive program we have initiated in District 5 and the city as a whole.

"It is my goal to see District 5 completed with sidewalks, sewers, water, improved streets and lighting.

"While my first and basic interests lie in the problems of the citizens of my district, I will work diligently to formulate, and carry out, any city-wide program that will make our community a better place in which to live.

"I wish to reaffirm my attitude that it's a commissioner's obligation to maintain personal contact with individuals who have problems; and further assure you, that I, upon being elected, will continue this mode of duty for the next two years."

PAT STOGLIN

"If chosen to represent District 5, these are the things I will endeavor to accomplish: more playgrounds for the children of our city, especially in the Edison-Chamberlain area, widening of Joslyn avenue from Walton boulevard north to the city limits; extension of Joslyn avenue busline to the city limits.

"Assist and work with the proper authorities to increase our water supply, and extend services wherever possible.

"I will also give my wholehearted support to our Greater Pontiac Community Advisory Council to further their 10-point program as follows: a civic auditorium, recreation, long range study of our juvenile needs, a downtown rest room, extending our city limit to Square Lake road on the south and Opdyke road on the northeast.

"I will assist any civic minded person or group whose ideal or plan will make Pontiac a better place in which to live, work, and play."

Woman, Aged 115, Eats Hog Meat, Avoids Yankees

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — When a woman gets to be 115 she has to be more careful about what she eats and with whom she associates.

"That's why," says Mrs. Betty Talley, "I try not to eat anything that's not hog meat or batter cakes, and work to avoid meeting with the Yankees." She was born a Negro slave on a Tennessee farm.

Mrs. Talley says she will be 116 years old next Sunday and expects several friends and relatives to stop by to see her during the day at the nursing home where she lives.

"Whenever the Lord wants me, I am ready," she says.

Reveal New Witness in Chicago Slayings

CHICAGO (AP) — After new questioning, police and state's attorney officials said today they believe a 52-year-old deaf mute has important information in connection with the slayings of three Chicago schoolboys last October.

Asst. State's Atty. Robert Hare said Herman Rohlfes established several facts about the case last night during a lengthy interrogation session with police and sign language experts.

Hare said Rohlfes established "pretty conclusively" that he "saw a fight and a big man kill a small one" in the Robinson Woods Forest Preserve the night of Oct. 17.

The bodies of Robert Peterson, 14, John Schuessler, 13, and John's brother, Anton, 11, were found in a ditch in the forest preserve area Oct. 18. The boys were last seen alive Oct. 16 when they left their homes to attend a movie in Chicago's loop.

Rohlfes and his brother, Edward, 47, were questioned early in the triple slaying because they came forward to say they slept in their truck in the Robinson preserve parking lot the night before the bodies were found.

Mother, 3 Children Injured in Collision

A Clarkston mother and her three children were slightly injured yesterday when their car collided with one driven by William R. Martin, 31, also of Clarkston, on the Orion-Clarkston Road near M24.

Treated by their family physician were Mrs. Ilafaye Gardner, 27, and Susan, 5; Robert, 4; and Cynthia, 2.

Milk Strike Spreads to Romeo Creamery went to Detroit yesterday, and the usual amount was 130,000 pounds.

The Fair Share group appeared to be trying to halt the milk at its source in view of the fact that AFL-CIO members at the two Detroit dairies have chosen to ignore the farmer picket lines.

George McLean, secretary-treasurer of Dairyworkers Local 83, said that "while we support their desire for more money, we have contracts to live up to." His local represents about 90 per cent of the dairyworkers in the Detroit area.

The Fair Share wants to replace the MMPA as bargaining agent with the dairies. It is seeking an increase in the price of top-grade milk from $4.41 a hundredweight to $6.50.

Dairy farmers from the Detroit milk shed area gathered at Michigan State University for the annual business meeting of the Michigan Milk Producers Assn.

Members of the Fair Share group, sparking the milk strike and picketing for higher milk prices, were expected to demand a hearing at the meeting although they were told they could not talk.

Accuse 4 of Robbing Grocery at Gunpoint

Four alleged armed bandits were bound over to circuit court yesterday after their trial examination before Farmington Township Justice Allen C. Ingle.

The four were arrested by State Police after the $172 armed robbery March 18 of a Farmington Township grocery. Police charge David Pehrson, 19, and Thomas Kelley, 18, both of Detroit, were the masked bandits who took $160 from the till and $12 from owner Sam Abraham.

Pehrson and Kelley failed to furnish bond of $50,000 apiece, and were returned to jail to await circuit court arraignment April 9.

Their alleged accomplices, Alan Ginther, 19, of Detroit, and George Arnold, 20, of Livonia, failed to furnish bond of $15,000 apiece. They will be arraigned with Pehrson and Kelley.

PORT HURON (AP) — The city commission, facing a request for a pay raise from police and firemen, has approved a proposal that a study be made of integrating the two departments into a single safety division. Spokesmen said the plan would increase efficiency and cut costs.

Stock and Barn Lost at Lapeer

Early Morning Blaze Causes Damage Set at About $25,000

A barn fire near Lapeer early this morning destroyed 33 farm animals, burned up expensive dairy equipment and caused damage estimated at more than $25,000.

"There wasn't a chance to get the animals out," said Mrs. Allena Willis, who with her son, Carl, operates the farm at 2615 Daley Rd., about four miles north of Lapeer.

Killed in the blaze that leveled the barn were 20 milking cows, a bull, 3 heifers, 4 heifer calves, and 4 pigs.

A horse, burned in the fire, had to be shot by Lapeer County sheriff's deputies.

Equipment lost included a new hay baler, an elevator and rake for storing hay, two milking machines and farm tools, as well as hay, straw and grain stored in the barn.

Cause of the fire has not been determined. Mrs. Willis said no one is known to have been in the barn during the night. Lapeer Fire Department was called at 6:10 a.m.

Reds Offer Plan for Disarmament

Western Sources Now Think Soviets May Have Reached Nuclear Peak

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Union has proposed a new plan for world disarmament omitting the usual Communist demand for renunciation of atomic weapons.

* * *

Emphasizing cuts in conventional arms, the Soviet proposal was reported to have urged only a ban or strict control on atomic tests. Demands for outlawing of nuclear weapons—immediately or eventually—had been high on the Russian proposal list during previous disarmament negotiations.

ON PAR WITH WEST?

To some Western observers, the change seemed to indicate that the Russians believe they have reached nuclear parity with the West — and can depend on their atomic arsenal rather than enormous standing armies for protection and to carry out their policies.

The new Soviet plan was submitted to the five-power U.N. Disarmament subcommittee, where the United States already has proposed conventional arms cuts to reduce U.S. and Soviet armed forces to 2½ million men each.

Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko presented the Russian plan and discussed it for an hour at yesterday's session.

Details of the Russian proposals were not made public. But informants said they included "substantial" suggestions regarding the limitation of conventional arms.

Under state law, delegates elected at the 1954 fall primary are delegates to the spring county conventions, said County Republican Chairman Chad M. Ritchie.

Pontiac Deaths

Clayton Z. Ballard

Service will be at 11 a.m. Thursday from All Saints Episcopal Church for Clayton Z. Ballard of 4009 Mapleleaf Rd. The Rev. C. George Widdifield, his pastor, will officiate. Burial will follow in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery with military graveside service.

Mr. Ballard died Monday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after an illness of one month. He is at the Pursley Funeral Home.

Mrs. Etta M. Simkins

Mrs. Etta M. Simkins, 78, of 41 Augusta Ave., died Tuesday in Bloomfield Convalescent Hospital. She had been in ill health two years.

Born in Harrisburg, Ill., she was the daughter of Zachary and Margaret Bishop Rawlins. She had been a resident of Pontiac 35 years and was employed at the Pontiac State Hospital.

Surviving are three children, Dellis Reynolds of Pontiac, Zachary Reynolds of Berkley and Mrs. Stella Zimmerman of Lapeer, a step-child.

Other survivors include two brothers, Walter Rawlins of Harrisburg, Edgar Rawlins of Pontiac; two sisters, Mrs. Ila Russell and Mrs. Carrie Alvin, both of Pontiac.

Service will be at 1:30 p.m. Thursday from the Huntoon Funeral Home with the Rev. James Parker of Sunny Dale Chapel officiating. Burial will be in Oak View Cemetery, Royal Oak.

A VISIT WITH MAMIE — Four-year-old Sharon Rose Montelo, of Eaton Rapids, Mich., appears pleased as she sits in the lap of Mamie Eisenhower at the White House. Sharon called on the first lady to give her the first Veterans of Foreign Wars "Buddy Poppy" of 1956. Sharon lives with her mother and two brothers in a VFW home for widows and orphans.

Solon Thinks Ike'll Veto Compromise Farm Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Holland (D-Fla), one of 10 Congress members drafting compromise farm legislation, said today, "We may have sounded the death knell for any farm bill this session."

* * *

Holland indicated he thinks President Eisenhower may veto the bill if the final version contains two provisions adopted yesterday by the Senate-House conference committee trying to compromise different measures passed by the two branches.

* * *

Both provisions would have the effect of raising the level of government farm price supports. The Agriculture Department estimated they would cost the government, assuming an average crop year, at least a billion dollars more in 1956 than would the present program.

* * *

SEES FAINT HOPE

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt), also a member of the conference committee and chief Senate spokesman for the administration on farm policy, said in a separate interview that the "situation is not completely hopeless."

"When we conferees get through, both the House and Senate still must pass on these provisions," he said. "It is possible to send this back and demand we soften it somewhat."

Sen. Ellender (D-La), chairman of the Senate conferees, who favors the actions taken yesterday, said:

"I think the President will sign this bill. He's getting about everything he asked for, including the big thing, the soil bank. Of course, there are a couple of little gadjets he doesn't want."

Poison Revealed in Soda Drinks

Physicians Give Report as Investigators Still Search for Clues

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP)—Puzzled doctors and investigators dug deeper today into the mystery of the illness of three persons who drank ginger ale aboard a railroad car which President Eisenhower rode three days later.

* * *

Physicians reported that one of the three "definitely has uremic poisoning" and that another, also still hospitalized, is "coming along nicely" after being quite sick.

The third person who was stricken was recovered sufficiently yesterday to go out visiting.

* * *

All three became ill last Thursday evening after drinking bottled ginger ale aboard a private railroad car in which Eisenhower later traveled from Washington to this resort for conferences with Mexican and Canadian leaders. The President left the capital Sunday night and arrived here Monday morning.

CAUSE UNDETERMINED

So far, the doctors of all of the persons stricken have been unable to find the cause of their illness.

Meanwhile, Eisenhower arranged to travel back to Washington today aboard the same private railroad car.

The Secret Service and investigators for the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad have launched an inquiry to try to find out whether the ginger ale was poisoned.

* * *

Educational Confabs Urged by Kefauver

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver concluded five days of Southern California campaigning last night with a call for a White House conference on higher education, then left the field—temporarily—to rival Adlai Stevenson.

* * *

The Tennessean left by plane for Phoenix, Ariz. He returns to Washington next week.

Stevenson is scheduled to arrive by air for a television appearance here tonight and another in San Francisco tomorrow night. The 1952 Democratic nominee for president also will confer with campaign workers on his bid for the party's nomination this year.

Must Increase Traffic Control

Officials Urge Stiffer Penalties as Highway Toll Stays High

LANSING (AP) — Disappointed at the results of the state's new speed law, Michigan law officers and judges are turning to stricter enforcement and stiffer penalties in their fight against traffic accidents.

Gov. Williams called a group of sheriffs, police officers and judges together yesterday to discuss the new speed limit and work out a new traffic safety formula.

Consensus of the group was that the state needs better highways, better enforcement of existing laws, stiffer penalties, more and better stop signs and encouragement of good drivers.

Joseph A. Childs, state police commissioner, told the group the state's traffic death toll in February, 1955 was 117.

In February of this year, he said, the death toll was 115.

"The figure for this year is provisional," he said. "It can be expected to rise as late reports come in."

Gov. Williams said the figures "certainly don't show we are turning back the death rate the way we'd like to."

The new speed limit of 65 miles during the day and 55 miles an hour at night went into effect Feb. 6.

The group seemed agreed more unmarked police cars should be put in use, plus more radar and more police patrols.

They also recommended a uniform system of fines, stiffer jail sentences and more contact between judges and offenders.

Clark Olmstead, Kalamazoo municipal judge, recommended "safety patrols" at every tavern and drinking place to forcibly restrain drunks from driving.

Burial Set Saturday for Birmingham Man

BIRMINGHAM—Alexander Henderson, 90, of 342 Waddington, died yesterday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after a brief illness. Born in Aberdeen, Scotland, he came to Birmingham five years ago from Detroit.

He was works manager of the American Brass Company, Detroit, before he retired at 80 years of age and had been works manager of Detroit Copper and Brass, of which he was also a director.

He belonged to the North Woodward Congregational Church, was oldest member of the Red Run Golf Club, was a 32nd Degree mason in Zion Lodge of Detroit, and belonged to Moslem Shrine of Detroit and the Engineering Society of Detroit.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Arthur Hyde of Birmingham, and Mrs. John C. Munn of Colorado, four grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. John Gillis of Toronto.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton. Interment will be in Woodmere Cemetery, Detroit.

City Groups Study Need for Student-Driver Area

BIRMINGHAM — City agencies are studying a report on need for a driver-training area, that some believe could also solve school parking problems.

City Commissioners referred to the planning board a report presented Monday night by Dana Whitman Jr., assistant city manager.

Citing estimates that 450 public high school students would enroll next year when the course starts, Whitman said the city's part in the plans was to provide outdoor space for driver training. Classroom instruction space is the school's responsibility, he said.

A school auditorium to seat 1,000 is planned, he says, and the gymnasium might feasibly have programs on at the same time.

The 350 present parking spaces that he calls "not adequate even without the addition of the auditorium" could be added to by using a driver training area adjacent to the high school.

Police department personnel should work closely with the teachers, Whitman says, to "build and maintain a healthy relationship between the police force and young people of the community."

Parochial and private school students will be included in the courses at the high school, Whitman says, as well as adults who wish to enroll. He expects the adult enrollment to increase as time goes by.

Recreation use of the property would also be possible, he says, and his report is being studied by recreation board members.

The assessment roll for Birmingham has been submitted by Elmer W. Haack, city assessor. Total value the city puts on real and personal properties here is $58,759,940. Residents take care of 70 per cent of the values, with businesses next with 14 per cent.

Voting machines are being readied for Monday's election, with five new machines being ordered by City Clerk Irene Hanley to take care of voters in the 11 precincts. Voting places are Adams school, Municipal Building, Adams Fire Station, the Grand Trunk Station, the high school, Pierce School, the YMCA and Torry school, with several covering two precincts.

James Sidway

James Sidway, 57, of 6377 Muirfield, Wing Lake, died Tuesday at Henry Ford Hosptal, after a prolonged illness. Born in Pittsfield, Mass., he came to Wing Lake six years ago from Cleveland.

A former sales engineer with Westinghouse Electric, he was a 1921 engineering graduate of Cornell University. He belonged to Christ Church Cranbrook and Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Surviving are his wife, Jane Margaret; a daughter, Mrs. Arthur W. Palmer of Bloomfield Hills; a son, Peter, at home; a brother, Franklin, of Wolverine, N.H., and two grandchildren.

The body is at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Service and burial will be at White Chapel Memorial Cemetery's Temple of Memories, at 4 p.m. Thursday.

Pilate—His Policy Sealed Jesus' Fate

Pilate strode out of the praetorium, up the stairway and through the curtains out on the gallery.

The crowd quieted. "I find," Pilate said, "no fault in the man."

A lull, then a regally garbed priest spoke up gravely, "He perverts the nation. He says He is king. He stirreth up all Judea." A murmor arose in the crowd. Someone shouted, "An insurrectionist!"

JEALOUS PRIESTS

Pilate frowned, and went back inside. The rabble! Those priests, worried by their own waning authority, were behind it—wanting a scapegoat, a pawn to make an issue of Rome's curb on their punitive powers.

The crowd's temper disturbed him. Once before, a mass protest against his use of Temple funds to build an acqueduct ended only in slaughter by his troops.

Again, when he ignored the Pax Roman against offending native religions by affixing imperial medallions on military standards, it stirred a six-day melee. Instead of appreciating the gesture, Tiberius sent a reprimand.

PILATE SIDE-STEPS

Indecision tore at Pilate. Then he had a crafty idea. He'd turn the case over to Herod Antipas, a native puppet king of the prisoner's home province of Galilee. He also had come to Jerusalem for the tumultuous Passover period.

But Herod, though flattered, sent the prisoner back, dressed as a jest in royal purple.

Disgusted, Pilate returned to the outdoor tribunal seat. He gazed scornfully at the accusing dignitaries, whose very refusal to enter the inner "heathen" court—"it would defile them"—was an insult.

A new strategem came to him. A Passover custom was to pardon one criminal, and certainly the people wouldn't want him to free the vile Barabbas, a rebel and killer. Pilate raised his hand.

"I've found no cause of death in this man, Jesus." He paused. "Whom shall I release unto you—Him or Barabbas?"

The answer startled him. "Barabbas!" As he fidgeted and the crowd milled noisily on the pavement, an attendant handed him a note . . . in his wife's handwriting.

"Have nothing to do with that righteous man," it said, "for I have suffered many things in a dream because of Him."

Angrily, Pilate crumpled the note in his fist. What did Claudia know of rule? He should have left her at his regular palace in Caesarea, 100 miles north. He'd come here to keep down Passover riots—not argue with a woman!

He stood up, glowering. "What then shall I do with this man, Jesus?"

"Crucify him!"

* * *

Pilate reddened. So be it! He stormed back through the curtains. As fixed by law, he had the condemned man flogged with the three-thonged scourge, tipped with metal and bone. The regulation number of blows—39.

But back on the balcony, as he watched the soldiers bring out Jesus, bloody and staggering, he again vascillated. "I find no crime in him." An authoritative voice spoke out:

"If thou would release this man, thou art not Caesar's friend. Everyone who calls himself king speaketh against Caesar!"

Pilate quailed. The idea of dishonoring the name of Caesar—builder of the empire, the title of every emperor since—struck him with fear. Never! If such word got back to Rome, he'd be finished.

"Take Him," he rasped, "and crucify Him."

A weak, vain man, Pilate, fifth of the Roman procurators of Judea, later was recalled to Rome for his brutality in putting down a Samaritan religious disorder. In disgrace, tradition says, he committed suicide.

Burglars Enter Station, Escape With Over $32

Thieves last night broke in through an unlocked rear window of a gas station at 494 Orchard Lake Ave., according to the owner, who said $32 was missing from a desk drawer.

John Leonard, 65 N. Edith St. added that cigarette and candy vending machines were pried open and looted of change, Pontiac police said.

Insurance Rate May Go Higher

Manager of Blue Cross Says New Costs Can Last Only One Year

DETROIT (AP)—The general manager of the Michigan Hospital Service (Blue Cross) says the new 15 per cent increase in Blue Cross rates will not enable the organization to meet expenses for more than a year if hospital costs continue to mount.

William S. McNary thus forecast a possible new crisis in Blue Cross finances in opening testimony yesterday before the governor's study commission on prepaid hospital care plans.

Gov. Williams appointed the commission earlier this year to investigate rising Blue Cross costs and methods for halting the upswing. The group also is looking for means of improving Blue Cross and Blue Shield services without additional rate increases.

Blue Cross asked for a 23 per cent rate boost but was granted a 15 per cent increase. It became effective March 1.

Salary increases are the chief reason for spiraling hospital costs, McNary said. He said salaries now constitute above 70 per cent of the overall costs of operating non-profit hospitals.

In a six-page statement, McNary said there is some abuse of Blue Cross benefits by subscribers.

"Some of this abuse cannot be avoided or at least no way has been found to stop it without the use of police methods which are not believed to be in the public interest . . . " he said. Such methods, he continued, "would not be tolerated either by the people or by those who provide health services."

Among abuses of Blue Cross service, McNary said, are over-use of hospital facilities.

Horns of Bad Luck Followed This Man

FORT PIERCE, Fla. (UP)—It was just one of those days for City Commissioner R. F. Arnold.

He was late for jury duty in County Judge Flem C. Dame's court, and drew a $5 fine.

After an extra long City Commission meeting he found an overparking ticket on his windshield.

Arnold then went to a garage to have some repair work done on his car. The mechanics suggested a spin on U.S. 1 to test the repair job.

Lt. Clyde Pirtle of the State Patrol said he caught Arnold testing his car at 80 miles an hour.

The summons is answerable in County Court next Tuesday.

To Report on Clinic

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) — Morris Barrett, director of the Grand Rapids Alcoholics Rehabilitation Center, will report this week in New York on operation of the clinic, first of its kind in Michigan. The report will be made at the three-day meeting of the National Committee on Alocoholism. The center has treated 169 patients in the first five months.

Will Broadcast Easter Message of Pope Pius

VATICAN CITY (UP)—Pope Pius XII's Easter message to the world will be broadcast by the Vatican radio and by European networks.

The Vatican press office said today the broadcast will begin at noon (6 a.m. EST) Sunday and will be carried by Vatican radio on 41.21, 31.10, 25.67 and 19.84 meters wave lengths.

* * *

The Vatican radio will broadcast translations in English, Russian and Arabic. The Pontiff's speech is expected to last about 10 minutes. Last Easter he devoted it primarily to nuclear developments, urging world leaders that these be used for peaceful purposes and improvement of men's living conditions.

The pontiff will conclude his address by giving his blessing "Urbi et Orbi"—to the city of Rome and the world. He will speak from the center loggia of St. Peter's Basilica, overlooking St. Peter's Square. Thousands of Romans and pilgrims and tourists from many lands are expected to fill the square.

Common Cold - - - and You

Where Does a Simple Case of the Sniffles Originate?

(This is the third of four articles describing the research battle being waged against colds, influenza and other respiratory diseases that account for two-thirds of all illness.)

By EDWIN DIAMOND
INS Science Writer

The common cold is spread by direct contact between persons, as in kissing. But the chances are only one in 10 you will catch cold after smooching with a cold-sufferer.

* * *

Mothers get more respiratory illnesses than fathers do. But little boys get more colds than little girls. And babies between one and three months of age get no colds.

These are some of the facts and statistics science has assembled about the common cold. But there are many questions to be answered.

Answers to some of the questions are coming from laboratories in three cities with high respiratory disease rates—Cleveland, Chicago and Minneapolis.

* * *

For nine years, Dr. John H. Dingle, of Western Reserve University, and his associates have been studying 60 families in the Cleveland area. Among his tentative findings:

COLDS BEGIN AT HOME

Perhaps three-fourths of all common colds are acquired in the home, usually the young child is the "introducer." This also may explain why mothers get more colds than fathers—they are home with the children more.

* * *

Children get as many as eight respiratory illnesses a year, while parents get about half that number, indicating "that somehow or other in maturing the number of colds decrease."

Dr. Harry F. Dowling of the University of Illinois college of medicine has since June, 1953, been studying the effect of chilling and fatigue as possible contributing causes to respiratory illnesses.

Some 48 experiments were conducted in the aeromedical and physical environment laboratory on the college's Chicago campus. This is an ingeniously built chamber whose temperature and humidity can be adjusted to any desired level.

Here are some of the experiments performed with some of the reported results:

Eight medical students and nurses were split into four categories: Half were placed in a chamber at 60 degrees clad only in shorts or shorts and bras; half were placed in a warm chamber in a similar state of undress.

Of the four scantily-clad persons in the cold chamber, two were inoculated with known virus infections. The same was done to two persons in the warm room.

Another group of eight men and women were divided up in the same way at 10 degrees temperature and fully clad with overcoats.

CHILLING INEFFECTIVE

Results: In spite of the fact that one can get pretty cold sitting almost completely stripped for hours at 60 degrees, the chilling had no effect on the incidence of colds.

In other tests, volunteers first wore themselves down physically by walking on a treadmill. Then, some were placed in the cold chamber, given an infectious inoculation and studied.

* * *

Results of these infection plus chilling plus fatigue tests have not yet been announced. But, pending their publication, doctors agree it is best to follow the advice of the common cold foundation: Eat sensibly and get plenty of rest during the respiratory disease peak season.

One of the newest lines of attack on respiratory problems will be a study of the psychological and emotional factors involved.

Dr. Harold S. Diehl, dean of medical sciences at the University of Minnesota, reports that harmless dummy shots achieved a 30 to 50 per cent reduction in colds—proving to be just as effective as real medications.

Other studies show Monday is the day of greatest work absenteeism attributed to colds, sniffles, sore throats and runny noses.

Is this due to the exertions of the weekend or is it because, as some psychologists suspect, the person subconsciously doesn't want to go back to work after the fun of the weekend?

To answer these questions, Dr. Thomas G. Ward, associate professor of microbiology at Johns Hopkins University, began a new project on March 12.

* * *

A team of researchers at the baltimore school, including three psychiatrists and two psychologists, will observe volunteers before, during and after inoculation with identical doses of cold viruses.

Psychiatry may turn out to be the most expensive cure for a cold ever developed.

(NEXT—The future: A one-punch K. O. for colds?)

Medical Staff's Skill, Generosity Save Girl, 6

RULEVILLE, Miss. (UP) — A 6-year-old Negro girl owes her life in all probability to the skill and generosity of the all white staff of the North Sunflower County Hospital.

* * *

Lucy Mae Fletcher suffered third degree burns over 65 per cent of her body last December when her dress caught fire from a gas heater.

The hospital lacked the necessary skin-grafting equipment but it went out and bought it. Three white staff doctors donated their time and skilled hands.

* * *

The cost of the treatment to date, the hospital says, has been more than $2,000, exclusive of the fees the doctors waived. Completion of the grafting process will take another four months at a cost of another $2,000.

Tax Cut Hopes Slim

With the 10 day Easter recess just ahead for Congress, prospects for any Federal tax relief this year are reported slim.

Both Administration and Congressional sources agree that it is too early yet to know whether the Federal revenue situation would justify any cut. It is true, however, that current economic indicators point to the likelihood of increased revenues. On the other hand, signs also suggest a concurrent rise in Federal expenditures.

Meanwhile, Treasury Secretary Humphrey has denied reports that estimates of Federal revenue have been too low. He also stated emphatically that he had no intention of proposing a tax cut in May or June.

About the same time some revealing information reached the Joint Congressional Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation. This showed that one of the factors operating to delay relief is tax delinquency. Right now nearly 2,000,000 Americans owe Uncle Sam nearly two billion dollars in overdue Federal taxes.

Inasmuch as that two billion dollars adds up to about seven times the estimated Federal surplus for this fiscal year, it is easy to understand why nobody is predicting a tax cut this year.

No one knows, of course, whether any tax cut would result if every one of these delinquents paid what he owes the Government. But it certainly would help. Besides it would be fair to the rest of us taxpayers.

Irish Lure U.S. Firms

Because of depressed economic conditions both North and South Ireland are going all out in their efforts to lure American manufacturers to their island.

The governments of Belfast and Dublin are competing for the plants they think will help solve their basic problems and the rivalry between them has become intense.

★ ★ ★

North Ireland, with the backing of London, is offering substantial financial and other concessions to American industries. Among these are 25 per cent of such firm's capital expenditures for three years or part of the cost of dismantling and shipping the machinery and building a plant to house it.

★ ★ ★

Only recently Eire's Minister of Commerce, William Norton was sent here to make contacts with American industrialists. The principal inducements hard pressed Eire can offer are an abundant labor force and cheap power. In addition there are the attractions of preferential tariff treatment in British and Commonwealth markets and a protected home market.

★ ★ ★

In the struggle for new industries North Ireland, which has suffered less than Eire, has gone ahead of its rival. Several American factories already have been built, says U.S. News & World Report, and these are changing the look of things.

Whether the North can hold its lead, it appears that all Ireland will benefit from this increased industrial activity.

Nehru's July Visit

Everyone interested in good U.S. relations with India will welcome the news that Prime Minister Nehru will visit President Eisenhower here next July.

Despite the fact that some of Mr. Nehru's statements have aroused criticism in his country, he is recognized as an outstanding democratic leader. In addition, he has shown patience and wisdom in presiding over India's shift from colonial status to that of a world power.

★ ★ ★

Differences, of course, do exist between our two countries. Looming largest from our standpoint is India's cold war neutralism. Another factor is its attitude toward capitalist countries which still are suspected of colonial ambitions. Then there are New Delhi's own nationalist aspirations in Goa and Kasmir.

★ ★ ★

As a result, the Prime Minister undoubtedly under home front pressure, has been pushed from time to time into anti-Western statements. Such statements should be discounted here as for home consumption only.

The fact that President Eisenhower's invitation to the Prime Minister was conveyed by Secretary Dulles assures him a warm welcome to America. That welcome should be doubly cordial because of Mr. Nehru's latest heartening statement on India's position. In it he said that in case of any aggression or threat to freedom "India cannot and shall not be neutral."

The Man About Town Makes Suggestion

Proposed Subdivision Land Could Be Planted to Trees

Etiquetician: One who decrees that we must dip our soup from the other side of the dish although our mouth is on this side.

Thousands of acres of land in the Pontiac area are being bought up, with the idea of future subdivision. To these buyers, of the local soil conservation district, has a suggestion. Plant this property to pine or spruce seedlings and thus have a good start on the landscaping. And if the subdividing program does not materialize, the owner has a young forest that in a few years can be harvested for Christmas trees. The total expense for an acre of 1,200 pine seedlings, including their planting, is about $35.

Merrill Ray

Mr. Ray tells me that over 300,000 seedlings will be planted this spring on so-called rough land in Oakland County, but the subdivision planting is a new feature. This spring's quota for seedlings is exhausted, but now is the time to make reservations for next fall's planting. You can phone Mr. Ray at FE 4-7901 for further instructions.

"If your Easter stories continue to be as good as the first four," phones

Mrs. Muriel Millis

of Rochester, "they are one of the best newspaper features I ever read."

After a residence of 30 years in Pontiac,

Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Demo

Just How Effective Is a Silver Curtain?

David Lawrence Says:

Stock of American Good Will Soars by World Tours of Traveling Dulles

WASHINGTON — Some Americans occasionally become so provincial that they don't see the forest of world affairs for the trees of political partisanship and pettiness.

* * *

At a time when bold, imaginative policies are needed "to win the minds of men"—as the call for international understanding is so often phrased — the criticism now is being advanced by partisans here that Secretary of State Dulles does too much traveling.

Democratic senators, possibly for lack of any other issue, are foisting on their constituents this kind of criticism. The other day, for example, one Democratic senator said of Secretary Dulles: "He has spent weeks of precious time doing what others could do just as well on his behalf—indeed, I think better . . . he belongs at home. He should stop talking and, if it is not out of order, start thinking. Dulles should cease being a salesman and start being a statesman."

Such talk might be understandable if it came from a Republican isolationist but when it comes from an internationalist senator on the Democratic side in a public speech, it causes wonderment, though in a political year anything of a critical nature that belittles the secretary of state is considered by some politicians to be permissible even if it does tend to weaken and discredit America in the eyes of peoples abroad.

DULLES REPLIES CRITICS

Dulles, in his speech last Friday night, gave his answer over the radio to criticisms of this sort, but the Democratic senator in question made the above-quoted speech the next evening just the same. Dulles had said:

* * *

"I have just returned from a nineteen-day trip which took me to ten countries of Asia. It gave me the chance to talk intimately with the leaders of each of these ten countries. That is a great aid to good international relations. We can, of course, write each other notes. But talking face to face is the best way yet invented for enabling men to understand each other.

"I also took part in the annual meeting, held this year at Tokyo, of the heads of our fourteen United States Missions in the Far East area. I discussed our policies with them and answered their questions and received their suggestions."

What many Americans do not realize yet is that the airplane has made it possible for a U.S. secretary of state to make a trip to ten countries in Asia and be away from his desk only 19 days. European foreign ministers have always preferred personal contact to notewriting, especially since the distances between their capitals are short. But an American secretary of state traveling around the globe is something new. It pays dividends over and over again in moral values.

* * *

For every time a U.S. secretary of state visits another country, the newspapers give big space to his friendly utterances. It is publicity not usually obtainable for the American viewpoint and reaches millions of people whose friendship is important to the United States in the battle against Communist imperialism. Likewise, when a U.S. secretary of state visits a small nation, it is considered a compliment by the people who are visited.

MISSIONS SERVE PURPOSE

Why, for instance, did President Eisenhower go to Geneva except to show by his personal attitude that the American people wanted to be known as friendly to the people of Soviet Russia? Why did Bulganin and Khrushchev go to Yugoslavia and India, and now plan to go to Britain? Why is Nehru planning to come to Washington? Why is Eisenhower thinking about returning the visit of Nehru by going to India? The answer is that all these missions serve a tactical purpose in the new battle of ideas.

Couldn't ambassadors do the same thing? Hardly — because the prestige of a top man representing his government and his people means more than a hundred notes of old-fashioned diplomacy. The ambassadors themselves clamor for such visits and recommend them highly and do much to pave the way for the success of these missions. Many foreign secretaries come to Washington, too, and the U.S. secretary of state often feels it is necessary, as an international courtesy, to return the call.

Americans can be happy that they have a traveling secretary of state to carry in person to the peoples of the world constantly a message of good will and peaceful intent. What's bothering the Democrats, of course, is that the Eisenhower administration is doing a tremendous job to keep American boys from being sent to war. The average voter isn't interested in making Dulles punch a timec lock in his office but is anxious for the secretary of state to do what he can to advance the cause of world peace even if, as President Eisenhower has so often said, it means traveling to the ends of the earth.

Even British Medics Tell of Common Cold 'Fake'

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

A recent two-page special article in a popular magazine purported to inform readers on the progress of the campaign or drive against "the common cold"—which, though no such disease has been positively identified, costs so many man-hours and so many millions or billions of dollars annually.

The article, as scientific as all get out, cited half a dozen doctors, with biographical data, who severally explained the "problem," etc., etc. Scientists, the writer of the article observes, know with exactness that the human thermostat, regulator of body heat, is located in the hypothalamus.

While the reader is wondering dazedly what the heck the hypothalamus can be, . . . I am well aware that my teachings about "the common cold" irk the public health authorities and scientists who participate in these panel discussions of the "problem."

* * *

I believe and teach, for instance, that there is no illness that a reputable physician can or will positively recognize, identify, or diagnose as "the common cold" or just "a cold" without reserving the right to revise the diagnosis if the illness turns out to be something serious.

* * *

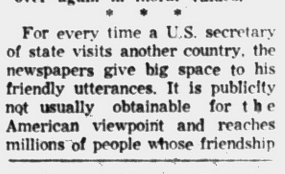

Why doesn't some physician, scientist, or research investigator tell me—or, if that would be beneath his dignity, tell the world—what benefit to public health or personal health, what preventive measure or what remedy for "the common cold," or for so-called "cold," has come from the past fifty years of research and "scientific" investigation? I do not expect an answer to this challenge, for the simple reason that there isn't any.

The medical and health authorities in America have no more scientific standing than the authorities in Britain. But, oddly enough, the conclusions reached by the British Medical Research Council's investigators, in as thorough and carefully controlled studies as any that have been made in this country, have been studiously ignored by our leaders.

The British findings confirm the truth of the teaching that exposure to everyday cold, damp, draft, sudden change of weather, wet feet, insufficent clothing, etc., has no appreciable effect on a person's susceptibility to respiratory infections.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'Prefer Depression to War if Choice Must Be Made'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

A recent letter stated that Truman could have ended the war. Well, General McArthur was about to end it, and Truman fired him.

A few months after World War II ended, we were headed straight into a depression. So Truman headed it off by sending our boys over to Korea to police. (War with a new name.)

If we have to have war or a depression, let's have a depression and get it over.

Some people complain about our government helping foreign nations too much. Which way is best? Give them food, clothing, etc., and gain friendship or go to war with them and spend billions of dollars for airplanes, bombs, battleships, and have our boys killed off by the thousands.

We taxpayers have to pay for all this destruction. The Bible says to give and it shall be given unto you. I prefer giving it to them instead of shooting it at them.

Western Allies Still Lack Effective Near East Plan

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Western allied leaders increasingly warn of the danger of a war in the Middle East—but no effective plan against possible hostilities has yet emerged publicly.

* * *

The U. N. Security Council has been asked to send Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold on a peace mission to the Middle East.

But the probable impotence of that veto-clad council in any real showdown was implied in the 1950 declaration by the United States, Britain and France.

That declaration provided for "action both inside and outside the United Nations," but frequent allied reference to this commitment has calmed no fears in Isarel which watches anxiously the steady stream of Soviet bloc arms to Egypt.

* * *

Observers also wonder if the declaration has had any effect on Arabs who note that the joint allied discussions begun in Washington more than a month ago have not yet reached the stage of staff talks.

MORE UNEASINESS

The apprehension of not only Israel but also the Western allies is deepened by British disclosure that the Egyptians are getting secret military training at a Communist base near the Polish port of Gdynia, and also from Czech officers inside Egypt.

* * *

The training schemes occurred after last year's Czech-Egyptian arms deal whereby Egypt thus is said to have received up to 40 Russian Ilyushin jet bombers and 30 to 35 MIG jet fighter planes.

Eventually, it is believed that Egypt is destined to obtain a total of 300 T34 Stalin tanks, 200 MIG fighters, 50 jet bombers and six submarines.

Hence the importance of the report that hundreds of Egyptian officers and non-commissioned officers are getting training in all three services in Red-ruled Poland.

Besides this flow of Soviet bloc weapons, Egypt already has approximately 80 British jet fighters of the Vampire, Meteor and Venom types, a squadron of Halifax bombers, and 40 British Centurion tanks.

SENT EARLIER

Britain, like the United States, is trying to prevent an arms race in the Middle East. But before the new war scare arose in the Middle East the British had sent Centurion tanks to Iraq and Vampire fighters to Jordan.

* * *

Although accepting an Israeli order last year for Centurion tanks, the British have held up shipment to Israel. In fact, there is a complete embargo at the moment on delivering any kind of arms to Israel.

The United States also has not agreed to frequent Israeli pleas for arms.

The Western allies admittedly are checking an arms race with their embargoes, but reports from Israel and London say there is a "fear race" which also could precipitate a war unless Washington, London and Paris get together on a publicly announced "Action plan."

Case Records of a Psychologist

Good Insurance for Happy Marriage Is Wide Circle of Dates While Young

Nora's problem is widespread so discuss this Case Record among your high chool classmates. It gives the psychological facts about going steady and cloping in the teens. You now can expect to live to be 75, so don't rush into a wedding too fast. You'll have plenty of years of marriage ahead, even if you wait till 25 or 30 to settle down.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case R-315: Nora M., aged 16, is a beautiful high school junior.

"Dr. Crane, I have been dating an older boy who is soon to enter the Army," she began, after I had addressed her high school assembly in Toledo.

* * *

"I like him very much, but he wants us to become engaged. He says he doesn't care for me to go with anybody else while he is away.

"My parents think that is unwise, so what would you recommend?"

TEEN DILEMMAS

The average age for marriage among modern American girls is close to 22 in our cities.

So Nora would have six years ahead of her before reaching that average age. During these years she should be preparing for permanent happiness, either as a single girl or as a wife.

That means she should finish high school, take business college training for a year, and then work for a time till she has learned how to earn and budget money.

But handling men is just as vital an asset for a successful modern wife as how to handle money shrewdly.

And it requires personal experience to learn human nature, so every girl should get acquainted with many desirable boys before she marries.

Thus, it is usually unwise for a high schooler to restrict her contacts to just one young fellow.

"Oh, he is the most wonderful boy in the world!" many girls exclaim about their first Romeo.

But their ability to estimate human nature is very limited unless they know many boys.

DIVORCE FODDER

We psychologists encounter many wives who dated only one boy and married him early; then found out later that there were other men who far excelled their husband in charm and social graces.

One reason for divorces is too early marriage, especially among teen-agers who have had very restricted social contacts with desirable members of the opposite sex.

It is usually good insurance for happy marriage to date a wide variety of persons before you pick your lifetime partner.

"Dr. Crane, I've been swept off my feet by a strange man who danced with me last week at an American Legion ball," said a young wife recently.

"He kissed me and I haven't been the same since. I realize now that I made a mistake in marrying so young."

* * *

But her major error was in not having dated widely so she'd learn that many men's kisses can thrill a woman.

She isn't really in love with this stranger, but she thinks she is because his personality is different from her husband's.

So study psychology at first hand before you become engaged. Shop around and date widely among desirable folks.

Then you'll have enough background of experience to be fairly sure that you have the most suitable boy when you finally decide to accept an engagement ring.

Wouldn't it be foolish for a girl like Nora to limit her food intake to nothing but starches. Her health would suffer from lack of proteins, etc.

Well, her emotional health will suffer by a similar restricted diet of only one boy friend during her formative years.

Date widely, therefore, and don't marry under 20 or 21. And to pick more surely, send for my "Tests for Sweethearts," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

If your sweetheart doesn't rate highly on these tests, better shop around some more for better matrimonial merchandise.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

U. S. Businessman Surviving 'Squeezes' of Reds

For the first time, in an amazingly, frank, fearless interview, the sole remaining American businessman still "free" in Red China relates herewith the story of Communist "squeeze" methods. This story was written by Philip Luker, the first Australian non-Communist correspondent to be granted a visa to tour the Communist mainland.

By PHILIP LUKER

SHANGHAI—The last American businessman still "free" in Red China, Charles S. Miner, related in an unusual private interview the extent of Communist pressure methods which bar him from leaving Shanghai for the United States.

* * *

"Their total disregard for the dignity of the human race," Miner said, "staggers me. They ruthlessly obliterate liberty."

He did not appear in the least concerned at the idea the Communist regime might take revenge for his outspoken attack. I asked him several times if he understood I was going to use his name in this account. He said he wanted the story told. He added:

"They are a gang of lecherous, blood-sucking shylocks."

Miner's story is similar to ones told to me by other Western businessmen in Shanghai, the others being Europeans. But they, understandably, wish to remain anonymous.

REDS SQUEEZING FUNDS

Miner, from Washington, D.C., has been trying fruitlessly for six years to obtain an exit visa to allow him to return to the U.S.

* * *

He referred to this barrier several times during a one-hour conversation in the 14-story building where Miner and some 100-odd other western businessmen still in Shanghai have apartments.

He said that the Communists have unmercifully "squeezed" the six companies owned by the corporation he works for, the C. V. Star organization. The six companies were an insurance firm, a bank, a newspaper, a real estate firm and two automobile companies.

"If the Chinese Communists were allowed a seat on the United Nations," he said bitterly, "they would probably steal the lead pencils from the tables."

* * *

Miner, sitting beside his attractive Chinese wife of 18 months, wanted the world to know his experiences. He said: "The people just don't know what's going on over here."

He outlined the Communists' policy as: "Stand and deliver. You can leave China when we've got all we want out of you."

Miner applied for an exit visa in 1950, but has received no answer. His wife applied last November, but also has not heard any answer. He said:

"We are dying of boredom here. The only thing that enlivens our life are the Communists' demands for money."

Miner has enough work to do to keep him in the office only in the mornings. He has lunch at the Royal Air Force Club, the only European club left in the once gay city of Shanghai.

* * *

"There's nothing much to do socially," he said, "only to go to private parties."

The Communists will not allow him or his companies to draw on any of their bank deposits. Other Europeans who have left China have not been allowed to take any deposits with them.

The American businessman has to have foreign currency sent to him to keep himself and his wife going and to finance his companies.

* * *

"It's unbelievable what they'll do to get money," he said.

"Time and time again I've asked them how much it will cost me to get an exit visa. They won't say. It's anyone's guess how much they will get out of us in the end."

EXPLAINS "SQUEEZE"

Miner gave several examples of how the Communists had "squeezed" his companies.

"The American Asiatic Underwriters Federal Inc., insurance agents, closed down in July, 1951, but we are still unable to complete liquidation because of the Communists excessive demands.

"They refuse to let us cut down our staff, except at great expense. We had to raise the wages in the insurance company and also bring in $82,000 to pay off the employes of our auto companies.

"And they don't let us sell these auto companies' stock."

* * *

"They have a simple method of squeezing the Metropolitan Land Co. Most of the tenants are government, and they make fantastic demands for repairs, yet pay no rent.

"We have had to bring in $350,000 to keep this company going.

"The Communists took a $58,000 house we owned. They said the evidence of ownership was not clear, although it was. A $200,000 building was taken over not even by the stroke of a pen—they never put anything in writing, but read you a proclamation."

Miner went on:

"We applied for official permission to sell the company, but received no answer. We asked for permission to sell to the government. No answer.

"So we asked the government to take the company, wiping off assets against liabilities. A contract was signed on Dec. 2 last year."

On March 13, Miner handed the Shanghai Evening Post over to the Communists, leaving his company with only the American Asiatic Underwriters and Underwriters Bank Inc., which he is trying to liquidate.

Clutching his fists, Miner concluded:

"There should be a limit to their greed. I don't know what they'll come up with next."

Patterson Street Set to Become One Way

Effective Monday, April 2, Patterson street between Saginaw and Cass will be converted to one-way westbound traffic only.

City Traffic Engineer Theodore M. Vanderstempel said the change was being made to reduce congestion at the Auburn and Orchard Lake intersections at Saginaw street.

Parking meters will be placed on the north side of Patterson. Parking will be permitted here only.

The conversion is being made preparatory to making Orchard Lake one-way east bound between Cass and Saginaw which would eliminate left turns off Saginaw onto Orchard Lake avenue.

Vanderstemple said he was conferring with state officials on the last change.

FBI Agents Nab Commie Chief

Quick Arrest Made in Chicago's South Side; Admits His Identity

CHICAGO (AP) — A reputed top Communist party leader was seized by FBI agents on a South Side street yesterday.

* * *

Emanuel Blum, who the FBI said headed various Communist party groups in New England and elsewhere, later complained of what he called the FBI "undue haste" in arraigning him before a U.S. commissioner.

* * *

"They brought me down in an FBI car so fast that we hit a taxi. They didn't even stop to exchange credentials," he declared. The FBI denied its car was involved in an accident.

OFFERS NO RESISTANCE

Blum offered no resistance and admitted his identity when he was seized. A federal warrant for his arrest had been issued Friday in Indianapolis.

* * *

The warrant accused him of violating a clause in the Smith Act making it a criminal offense to belong to the Communist party while knowing its aim is to promote the overthrow of the U.S. government through force and violence.

* * *

The FBI said Blum, formerly was chairman of the Communist party in New England, president of the Massachusetts branch and executive secretary of the New York state Communist party. Blum also had been a party organizer for Indiana before coming to Chicago in 1951, the FBI said.

* * *

Blum was held in lieu of $20,000 bond pending removal to Indianapolis after U.S. Commissioner C. S. Bentley Pike continued the hearing to April 4.

U.S.S.R. Offers to Buy U.S. Lend-Lease Ships

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Soviet Union is trying to clear up its World War II naval lend-lease bill with the United States by paying for 31 ships.

The State Department said yesterday the Russians made the offer to buy the 31 small icebreakers, submarine chasers and frigates.

It reported that the Kremlin listed these as the only seaworthy ships remaining in the group of 281 vessels the U.S. still lists the Soviet Union as still holding.

The Russians did not mention what price they would be willing to pay for the 31 ships.

Social Rabbits Giving Command Renditions

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — Portland area Pythians are using a white rabbit to multiply the number of visits between lodges.

The rabbit has stirred up so much interest and fun with its gastronomical victories over ice cream, hamburgers, egg sandwiches and standard rabbit fare from any table, that more than 10 lodges have had command performances.

Japanese Educator Warns of Fascism

TOKYO (AP) — President Tadao Yanaibara of Tokyo University today warned 2,202 graduates that Japan is moving toward prewar nationalism. He said Japanese democracy will crumble if people welcome the trend.

Michigan Bell Slates '56 Expansion Plan

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan Bell Telephone Co. announced today it will spend a record 91 million dollars in its 1956 construction program.

* * *

William M. Day, president, said the outlay will raise Michigan Bell's expeditures since World War II to about 577 million dollars.

* * *

Under the program, Day said the company will continue toward its goal of converting all remaining manually-operated exchanges to dial. Dial systems are scheduled this year for Ypsilanti, Niles, Buchanan, Manton, Marion, McBain, Unionville and Gagetown.

* * *

Michigan Bell now serves 2,400,000 telephones and currently is gaining more than 12,000 telephones a month, Day said. The company now is the state's fourth largest, non-governmental employer, having 27,600 employes with an annual payroll of $116,500,000.

The U.S. ranks first in the world in the production of electricity with 42.5 per cent of the total. Russia is second with 9.1 per cent and England third with slightly less than that.

How to Rinse Away Your Blackheads

By CLAIRE HOFFMAN

New York, N. Y.—A leading skin doctor today showed an audience of men, women and skin-troubled teenagers how to clean oily skin and shrink enlarged pores with a 10-minute home medical treatment he has perfected. Then he demonstrated how you may rinse away externally caused blackheads, whiteheads and dry up adolescent pimply skin eruptions.

Before our very eyes the doctor selected a 36-year-old woman with typically oily skin. This woman had blackheads around her nose, enlarged pores and whiteheads visible to the naked eye. To this woman's face the doctor applied a cream. Within moments it firmed into a plastic-like mask. Next he sprinkled her face with water, and handed her an ordinary washcloth to rinse the mask from her skin. To her utter astonishment, clinging to the washcloth were not only grimy streaks of dirt...but several blackheads which had marred her beauty for years.

As we stared at the washcloth in disbelief, the doctor's assistant turned to us and said: "You have just seen what looks like a miracle. Yet, what has just been done for this woman's skin, you can do at home just as easily. But to understand how this formula acts to help clear skin troubles you must first knock out of your head some silly notions most people have about their complexions."

The Truth About Cosmetics

Has it ever occurred to you that you lavish more care on your face than any other part of your body ...yet isn't that where you find the most pimples, blackheads, blemishes and enlarged pores? So what do you do about it?

Nine out of 10 women simply don't or won't understand that if they have oily skins, blackheads, pimples or enlarged pores, they may not only have a cosmetic problem...but a medical problem as well.

Now why is this so? Shocking as it seems, if nature gave you either a normal or oily skin, your face is always dirty! Why? Because 24 hours a day your face is always exposed to soot, smoke, factory dirt, car exhaust, coal dust, noxious fumes and other germ-laden dirt that pours into the air. It clings to the natural oils of your skin.

Your pores become choked and clogged. Your natural oils are stopped up and hardened into blackheads or pimples. They try to push out, forcing your pores to open wider and wider. Once this condition starts (especially during adolescence, when glandular disturbances make your skin extra oily) the condition usually grows worse and worse as you grow older. And when this happens...isn't it obvious that it may become impossible to correct unless you start to change your complexion care immediately?

Do This For A Cleaner Skin

If you want to rid your face of ugly blackheads, enlarged pores and externally caused skin eruptions, these are the three things you must do:

First you must soften the hardened dirt and oils that may have accumulated in your pore openings! Second, you must remove that dirt. (But don't squeeze it out. Squeezing only forces part of the dirt deeper into your skin.) And third, you must try to tighten your skin with shrinking and antiseptic agents, not only for beauty, but to guard you against reinfection! And unless you are prepared to do all three things, it's likely you will go on wasting your time and your money the rest of your life looking for "miracle cures!"

What Happens When You Apply This Doctor's 3-Way Formula

First to prepare your skin for treatment we are going to soften and loosen the buried dirt cemented into your pores. The scientific pore cleanser which is Part One of this famous skin doctor's treatment is unlike any other cleanser you have ever used in your life, regardless of how much you can afford to pay. And here is how you can prove it on your skin.

Apply the doctor's scientific pore cleanser. Tissue it off! Now look at the tissue!

When you see the gray streaks of dirt that come off—even after having creamed your face with any other cleanser—then will you begin to understand why you need a drastic change in complexion care.

(2) The second part of your doctor's treatment is a medicated masque which you apply.

Apply it to your face with your fingertips as you would any cream. A little thicker around the "danger area"...namely around the nose, lips, eyes and cheeks.

The first 3 or 4 minutes you will feel a strong stimulation. This is the massaging action of the medical ingredients going to work on your skin. Your face will feel alternately hot and cold. You will like it. Your skin will feel refreshed. It is like a massage without irritation, bringing fresh, purifying blood to your face to draw off the blemish causing wastes in your pores.

After a few minutes this hot and cold action goes away and a wonderful relaxation of all your tense, over-worked facial muscles sets in. Your pulse tends to slow down and you are so relaxed you feel a great tendency to fall asleep. In another moment you will feel your skin getting tighter and tighter. What is happening is this: A wonderful medical absorbing agent doctors call ARGILLA is drying on your skin. It is turning the cream on your face into a firm, plastic-like mask. You get a pleasant, drawing feeling, a relaxing feeling, there is a corrective action, there is an astringent action and an antiseptic action. You feel the ARGILLA drawing on the blackheads. Everything it touches perspiration, pore dirt, hardened oils even blackheads and whiteheads that have resisted removal for months.

After 10 minutes rinse the mask away. Hot or cold water makes no difference. It dissolves in a second. Your skin feels clean, refreshed, sparkling, smoother! Like velvet! But wait...you haven't finished your first treatment yet!

Now Apply Step 3 of Your Treatment...The Astringent

This is not merely a perfumed alcohol that tickles your skin for a few seconds. It's medicated. It penetrates into your pore openings. Kills bacteria lurking there. And even more important, leaves an invisible germ-destroying film on your skin that kills germs for hours.

Now Look Into Your Mirror!

Some of your blackheads should be gone with the very first treatment! Look for softened pimples and whiteheads that may break or be drawn out in your next treatment or two. Look at the corners of the nose, around your mouth, your cheekbones! See how your enlarged pores have tightened! Your skin will feel alive! And you will be amazed to see minor wrinkles softened—almost ironed out! And this fresh, buoyant, youthful effect will last for hours.

Is This For Normal Skin, Too?

Certainly. Simply because this is a doctor's formula doesn't mean that you have to have a "sick skin" to use it. You may be a woman past 30 who has never had a really serious skin problem, but who suspects that your skin is not as beautiful and freshlooking as it could be... but your cosmetic creams can't give it to you. In that case...we think you'll be thrilled by the sheer, smooth, silken beauty that one or two treatments can give you.

On the other hand...if you have an adolescent, broken-out skin; if you are a man who is troubled by blemishes or a "sandpaper skin" and you are sensible enough not to be ashamed to use a so-called "woman's treatment" in the privacy of your own home...or if you are a woman who has abused her complexion with improper and inadequate cosmetic preparations... then this is vital.

We promise you dramatic improvement with your first 15-minute home treatment. Your mirror will show it to you, and we promise you further rapid improvement for the next 14 days.

After 14 days, you will discover whether you have to keep using all or part of the treatment every day, once a week, or once a month, depending on how fast your complexion begins to clear.

Try This Skin Treatment In Your Own Home Without Risking A Penny!

The name of this 3-day doctor's formula is the Queen Helene Skin Treatment. It is named in honor of the nurse who worked at the doctor's side for 15 years while this formula was being developed. Your Queen Helene 3-way formula, enough for 33 home treatments, includes your scientific cleansing cream, your medicated mask cream and your medicated pore astringent. The cost is $3.98...less than 13 cents a treatment. Yes, less than 13 cents for a skin specialist's 3-way skin and beauty treatment.

Follow your daily progress in your mirror and after each treatment, if your Queen Helene treatment does not do for your skin everything we have led you to believe it will do. If you don't see dramatic improvement after just one 15-minute treatment, if you don't see a further improvement each day for the next 14 days, return the unused portion. We'll thank you for trying it, and refund your full purchase price.

But act today! The longer you wait the worse it is bound to get. And like any other condition, the worse it gets, the longer it takes to get well. So right now, while you're determined to help yourself, send coupon today!

Debbie's Birthday Mink From Eddie Is Early

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—I'd like to pass along this alleged golf dialog, dedicated to President Eisenhower and other linksmen:

"The traps on this course are very annoying, aren't they?" . . . "Yes, would you please close yours?"

★ ★ ★ ★

There's a great line in Sammy Davis Jr.'s "Mr. Wonderful" when Jack Carter says to his wife (played by pretty Pat Marshall): "You're only 36—you're young." She answers: "For a grandmother, that's young. For everybody else, that's old."

BARBARA

Debbie Reynolds has a full-length desert mink, a premature birthday gift from Eddie What's his name . . . Portland Allen flew to St. Paul to visit a sister for a few weeks.

In our contest for the Prettiest Girl in America: Barbara Hilgenberg, of Tucson, University of Arizona student, hostess to the Press Photogs convention at Phoenix Apr. 1 . . .

The "Mr. Wonderful" company was sad at Danny's Hideaway when the reviews came out—Jack Carter had given up big TV loot, Sammy Jr. had passed up half a million in cafe bookings. Yet both were undeniably wonderful and if the show fights back, the customers are assured a "Mr. Wonderful" evening of entertainment.

England's sent Philip Harben, its culinary ambassador, here to convince us that British food is delectable. At a gourmet's lunch given at 21 by Mark Kreindler, Harben spoke of salmon and admitted being an expert. "An expert," he said, "is a person who can tell you precisely what river that salmon came from when it actually spent its entire life in the Atlantic Ocean."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . . . . .

Mrs. Henry Fonda's off to get the divorce . . . Barbara Britton's husband, Dr. Eugene Czukor, who just got here, is hospitalized with dislocated vertebrae and a concussion. (Had an auto accident in L. A.) . . . .

Frank Sinatra arrives April 11 en route to Spain . . . Kim Novak got her driver's license . . .

Nicky Blair's doc put him on the wagon while an infection is being treated . . . Gina Lollobrigida ruined Sophia Loren's Paris premiere—she screened her own film the same night . . . Lee Solomon, whose two-month-old marriage to singer Micki Marlow will be annulled, sighs, "It happened so fast we're still getting wedding presents."

Earl's Pearls . . .

To restore humility, read the want ads. You'd be surprised at how many jobs there are for which you are too old, too unattractive or too ignorant.—Oren Arnold.

"Lowering the taxes gets votes" notes Herb Shriner, "and you know Congressmen—they figure they need the votes more than the country needs the taxes." That's earl, brother.

Firm Plans to Move

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Electric Sorting Machine Co., manufacturers of electronic devices which sort agricultural, chemical and industrial products automatically, plans to move "in the near future" to a new location in Grand Rapids. The firm, known as a world leader in its field, already has occupied its new $400,000 engineering and executive offices at the site.

Begins Law Work After 22-Year Halt

SUFFOLK, Va. (AP) — H. West Butler is beginning the practice of law at the age of 45 and some 22 years after passing the bar examination. He will take over a law office abandoned by his brother, Frank.

After passing the bar exam, Butler found he was needed in the family's manufacturing business. Then from 1941 to 1946 he was in the Army. But when brother Frank abandoned the law to enter a banking business, West decided to hang out his shingle.

"I've been keeping up with the law books somewhat," he said, "and I think my business experience will compensate for the length of time away from the books."

Bedloe's Island, which houses the Statue of Liberty, was used as a post by the United States Army until 1937, when the post was abandoned.

Hollywood Headlines:

Fate's Strange Workings Lead 'Marty' to Stardom

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) —Except for the workings of fate, Ernest Borgnine might today be a Navy pensioner, an air conditioning worker or an electrical equipment salesman.

* * *

Instead, he's the king of Hollywood, having won filmland's top prize, the Academy Award.

SAILOR FIRST

Ernie never gave a thought to acting until he was almost 30. His first career was the Navy. He enlisted in 1935, when the waning depression still made jobs scarce.

* * *

He went in the Navy at 18, weighing 135 pounds. When he came out 10 years later, he was exactly 100 pounds heavier. His service was largely on the World War I destroyer Lamberton and a converted yacht, the Sylph.

"If I had stayed in the Navy, I would have gotten out on a pension a few months ago," he observes. "I might have stayed in too if it hadn't been for the war. By 1945, I had had enough war and water and 'Yes, sir' and 'No, sir.' So I got out.

* * *

"But I wouldn't trade those 10 years for anything. The Navy taught me a lot of things. It molded me as a man, and I made a lot of wonderful friends." One of his most prized telegrams after he won the Oscar was from his former skipper.

SHUNNED TRAVELING

Ernie thought he would go into air conditioning, in which he had dabbled during a two-month period between Navy hitches. He almost took a job with a company, but the plant was in Syracuse. He didn't want to travel that far from his family's home in New Haven, Conn.

* * *

"So what happens?" he laughs. "I got into a business that has had me traveling ever since."

Largely on his mother's insistence, he tried acting. His only formal training was four months at the Randall School of Dramatic Arts in Hartford. He got his seasoning at the famed Barter Theater in Abingdon, Va.

* * *

He toured as a hospital attendant in "Harvey," did summer stock, played a small part in the film "Whistle at Eaton Falls" in New England and portrayed the villain Nargola in TV's "Captain Video."

LOTS OF IDLENESS

But there were long lapses between jobs, and Ernie almost despaired. His low point came after he had returned to New York from a Hollywood film, "The Mob," with Broderick Crawford.

* * *

"It was in 1951," he recalls. "I was walking down Broadway and I met a guy I had worked with in 'Whistle at Eaton Falls.' He said he had been looking for me, that he was now in the electrical business and doing great. He offered me a job starting at $8,000."

Ernie, who had earned $2,300 from acting that year, said, "This is for me!" He stood by for the job to begin, turning down a stage offer and a TV job. But he never saw the friend again, and he had to return to acting.

His career began to improve. He did some important things in TV, then came to Hollywood to play the sadistic Fatso Judson in "From Here to Eternity." Then came a stream of film heavies. Once director Nick Ray warned him: "Get out of Hollywood in two years or you will be typed forever."

Ernie often thought about the admonition. Two years later, almost to the day, he won the role of "Marty," the tender, love-starved butcher.

The Oscar winner was born Jan. 24, 1917, in Hamden, Conn. His father was a freight train brakeman, his mother the daughter of a count. She took Ernie to live in Italy for a few years when he was young. He can still recall seeing Mussolini, clad completely in black atop a white horse, parading through the Milan square. "My mother hated his guts," Ernie says.

Government to Teach Spanish to Mexicans

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The government is studying plans to teach Spanish to 3,000,000 Mexican Indians who apparently don't realize Spain moved in on Mexico four centuries ago.

An estimated 3,000,000 Indians still speak one of 55 native dialects and don't know a word of Spanish, Mexico's national tongue. Most of them live in the southern jungles of Mexico's tropics.

The most popular big game species hunted in New Mexico include bear and deer as well as wild turkeys.

Unlucky Thieves Miss Money in the Streets

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Thieves missed a golden opportunity here when the night depository got plugged up.

Money was practically running out on the street.

Deposit sacks were within easy reach when a policeman noticed the situation and called a bank official, who fixed things fast.

What, No Fig Leaves?

But Writer Couldn't Learn the Trick

Secret of Civilized Smoking: Don't Overdo

By RELMAN MORIN
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—About this business of not smoking . . .

* * *

Nearly a year has elapsed since I lit my last cigarette. It still seems like a miracle, difficult to believe after 25 years of heavy puffing. I don't intend to start again.

However, the subject of this essay is not "How I Stopped Smoking."

BENEFITS OVERRATED

It is, rather, that the benefits of not smoking may be greatly overrated.

* * *

As I understand it, each of us is a special little chemical works, different in some detail from every other. What is harmful to one person may have little or no effect on another. So doctors are by no means in agreement about the effects of tobacco.

My experience, for what it's worth, has been this—

I don't find that I work better now, have more energy nor sleep more soundly. My disposition hasn't improved. And writing a simple declarative English sentence is still likely to be an obstacle bigger than Mt. Everest.

* * *

In other words, I feel pretty much as I did when I was smoking.

DOCTOR'S ADVICE

Then why stop?

Well, there was an illness . . . doctor's advice.

* * *

However, he is among those physicians who believe that, used in moderation, tobacco eases tension and promotes relaxation. He thinks the beneficial effects of this may outweigh any physical disadvantages.

This, of course, would be the ideal way to smoke.

* * *

It seems to me that tobacco is one of the good things of life, one of the rare pleasures, and should be treated as such. A fine cigar, a cool pipe or a few cigarettes are the hallmarks of a civilized man. The trick is not to overdo.

OVER-INDULGENCE

I couldn't learn that trick. My daily average was two packs of cigarettes and, under pressure at the typewriter, it would go up to three. Out of pure nervous reflex, I often lit one cigarette, and put it down beside another already burning. Over-indulgence was my middle name.

* * *

So there was no alternative but to stop entirely.

It had a number of interesting results. For instance, it decomplicates your life marvelously. Once, I wakened on a train in the early hours after midnight, found myself out of cigarettes, and couldn't rouse the porter. Sheer panic! That will never happen again.

How do you stop?

There are a thousand different methods.

Some people have had success with the "stretch-out" system. In this, you postpone your first cigarette five minutes each day; after a month, you will have delayed the day's smoking by two and one-half hours.

* * *

Another, and similar, plan is the "reward" idea. You don't tell yourself you are going to stop entirely, but you hold off as long as possible, then "reward" yourself with a smoke. Then hold off again.

Trouble with all these is that they focus your thoughts on tobacco, whereas the key is to forget it entirely. I believe it was Mark Twain who said something to the effect that smoking is not the kind of habit you can lead downstairs, one step at a time.

* * *

"You have to throw it out the window, bodily," he declared.

Eccentric Woman Digs Real Deep for Money

PIERRE, S. D. (AP) — A woman walked into the Daily Capital Journal and ordered four copies of the newspaper.

Then she took off an overshoe and shoe to obtain a quarter to pay for them. She put a nickel change in her shoe, replaced the galosh, picked up her papers and walked out.

Road Hog Trouble

OWENSBORO, Ky. (AP) — A motorist stopped to avoid hitting a hog in the road. A car behind plowed into the first car, causing $400 damage to the autos. Damage to the hog: $0.00.

Americans Give 1½ Days of Pay to Tax Collector

NEW YORK, (INS) — The tax foundation reported today Americans now work three-an-a-half days for themselves each week and the other day-and-a-half for the tax collector.

* * *

The foundation, a private research organization, came up with those facts on how the pay check goes following a survey of tax effects on the 40-hour week.

* * *

A man earning $85 a week, which the foundation says is close to the average fulltime pay in private industry, works one eight-hour day for food, seven hours to pay housing costs, three hours for his clothing and two hours for medical expenses. Other outlays use up less than four hours pay.

* * *

Taxes — federal, state and local — take the biggest tingle bite out of the work week, 12-hours, or half again as much as goes for food, the next most costly item in laboring time.

Firefighter Answers Double Duty Fire Calls

RUSSELLVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Asst. Fire Chief Eddie Bush was burning trash in his back yard when the fire siren started. He left home on the double. When the fire was out, Bush rushed home.

The backyard fire was out of control. He phoned the fire truck to come help him put it out.

Woman Victim of Rare Ailment

Detroiter Suffers From Disease That Causes Height Shrinkage

DETROIT (INS)—A 41-year-old Detroit housewife is the sixth known sufferer from a rare disease that cause its victims to shrink in height.

* * *

She is Mrs. Alberta Elbode, a victim of Clarisse's Disease, named after Mrs. Leola Martha Clarisse, a Gulfport, Miss., mother.

Mrs. Elbode said she was five feet seven inches tall when the disease first struck her 13 years ago. She now is 5 feet, one inch tall.

The Detroit woman first believed she was suffering from arthritis and went to doctors seeking treatment for that ailment.

However, she finally entered Henry Ford Hospital in 1950 and X-rays taken there showed she had multiple small fractures of her pelvis, arms, hands and feet.

Doctors found her digestive system was not absorbing calcium phosphorus needed to sustain her bone structure.

Mrs. Elbode returned home three months later and since then the disease has been kept in check by huge doses of vitamin D and calcium capsules, a protein diet and a daily routine of exercises.

She will re-enter the hospital next month for phosphorus treatments. Such treatments cured Mrs. Clarisse after she lost 10 inches in height.

Mrs. Elbode is confined to a wheelchair but her spirits are high and she insists on doing all her own housework, even to mopping floors.

She disclaims any credit for her fortitude, giving it all to her husband, Arthur, and two sons, James, 15, and William, 13. She said:

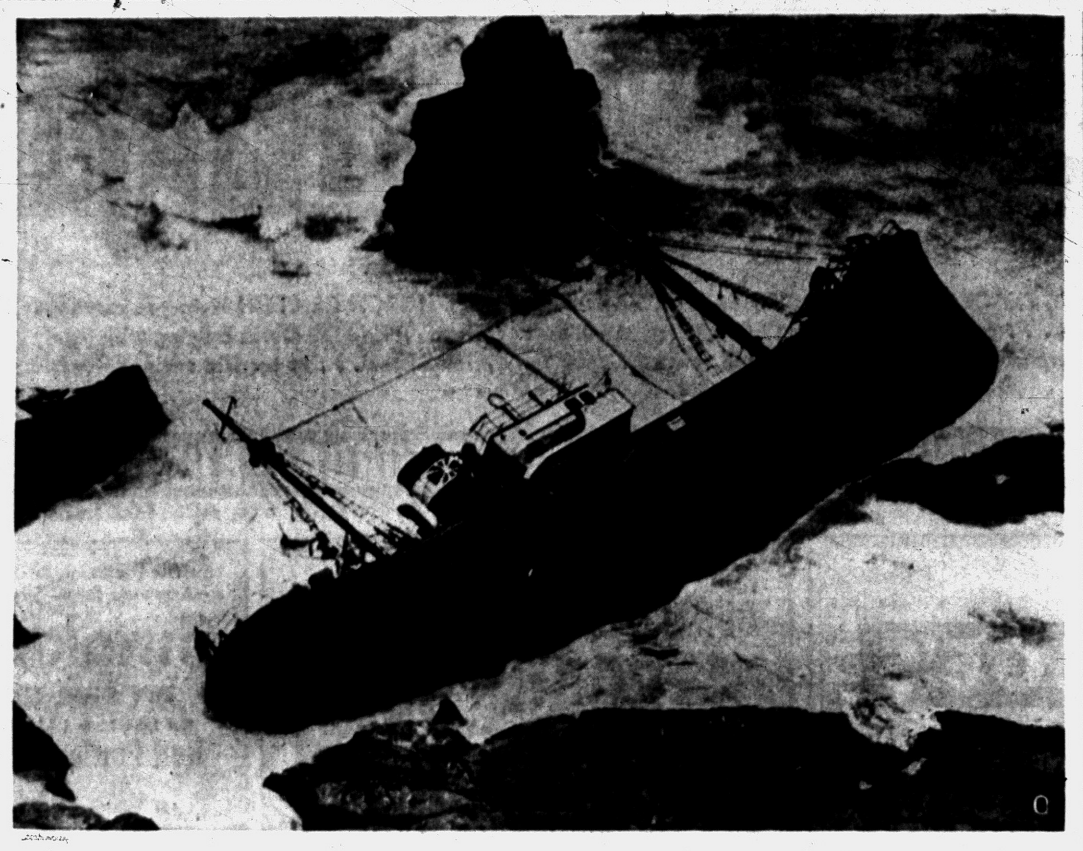

"There are the most loyal cheering section a mother could have. They have been loyal and loving all the way. They would even do the housework if I wanted but I guess I am a very independent person."

Signal Now Flasher, Traffic Head Reports

The traffic signal at Elizabeth Lake road and Dwight avenue will be a "flasher" except for the hours of 3 to 5:30 p.m., Theodore M. Vanderstempel, city traffic engineer, announced.

During the afternoon hours, it will be a regular red-green signal for the traffic from the Pontiac State Hospital.

Previously, the light delayed traffic on Elizabeth Lake road as little traffic was coming from the hospital, Vanderstempel said.

STRICKEN FRENCH TRAWLER IN 'GRAVEYARD OF SHIPS' — The 270-ton French trawler Vert Prairial lies awash on rocky British coast of Cornwall after becoming latest victim of area's surf-hidden rocks, long a death trap for shipping. Trawler ran onto rocks near Land's End and entire crew of 17 men drowned. Lifeboats couldn't reach the ship and helicopters found only bodies.

Chemicals Blamed for Alcohol Allergy

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Metal-cleaning chemicals are believed the cause of a strange allergy to alcoholic beverages for several workmen in a Grand Rapids industrial plant.

* * *

John C. Soet, director of industrial hygiene for the State Health Department, said investigation indicated the chemical gives off fumes which clash with alcohol.

* * *

The men complained they became nauseated, red-faced and experienced difficulty in breathing if they drank an alcoholic beverage at the end of a work day. One also reported severe heart palpitations.

* * *

George E. Tubich, regional director for industrial hygiene, declined to name the chemical. He began investigations almost two months ago on complaint of the workers.

He also said news reports of the investigation brought word of similar cases at industrial plants elsewhere in the nation.

Hint to Medics: Grind Bones With Blender

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — "Take a food blender and grind up a bone . . ."

* * *

Not for housewives but for surgeons.

Two researchers at the Indiana University Medical School, Drs. G. J. Garceau and C. F. Gregory, report their animal studies show why bone transplants are most effective when the bone to be grafted is pulverized.

Using dyes injected into the blood streams of animals, the research team found that a new blood supply is set up most quickly in the graft area when pulverized bone is used. The graft bone, itself, serves chiefly as support while new bone forms.

* * *

The surgeon works bone-fragment paste into the needed shape. As new bone forms in the paste the material hardens.

The veins are blood vessels that returns the human blood from the capillaries toward the area of the heart.

Dali's 'Last Supper' Set for Capital Exhibit

WASHINGTON (INS)—The National Gallery of Art has announced that Salvador Dali's "The Sacrament of the Last Supper" will be placed on public view for the first time Saturday.

The painting, which the Spanish surrealist has called his "greatest masterpiece of religious art" and which represents nine months of intensive work, is from the private collection of Chester Dale, president of the gallery.

The Dali "Last Supper" is focused on the figure of a transparent Christ and the composition is drawn together by the architectural form of the dodecahedron—the ancient symbol of the heavens.

Vandals Rip Schools

MASON (AP)—Vandals caused extensive damage at three schools near Mason recently. The Howlett, Hawley and Birney rural schools were entered and most extensive damage was done at the Howlett school were all windows were broken and desks were overturned and smashed.

Red Industry Supreme?

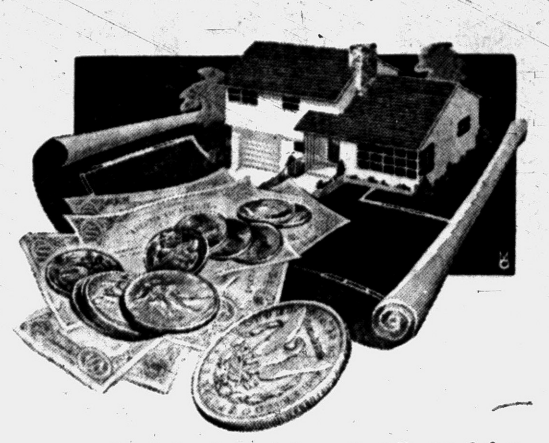

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Prof. Z. Clark Dickinson, University of Michigan economist, says that when Russia begin to prospect for natural resources within the sattellites she controls, she will provide a serious challenge to U. S. industrial supremacy.

ROK Sets May 15th as Date for Election

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — The South Korean government today set May 15 as the date for the presidential election which will pit Syngman Rhee against one of his long-time political foes.

* * *

The election date was announced a few hours after the opposition Democratic party named National Assemblyman P. H. Shinicky, 63, to oppose the 81-year-old President's bid for a third term.

* * *

Shinicky, a conservative, has been one of Rhee's bitterest political rivals since both fought the Japanese occupation of Korea before World War II. Rhee fled to Hawaii and the United States, Shinicky to China. Both are staunch anti-Communists.

* * *

Most observers consider Rhee unbeatable.

Tokyo Police Seeking Assailants of U.S. GIs

TOKYO (AP)—An American airman was stabbed in the back early today in downtown Tokyo. His condition was termed serious.

* * *

A few hours earlier another airman was beaten by assailants at the same downtown spot. His wounds were not serious.

* * *

Japanese police were looking for the assailants. The Air Force withheld the names of both Americans.

Juror's Opinion Costs $10 During Court Trial

LONGVIEW, Tex. (AP)—Juror R. W. Boone of Kilgore rendered an opinion in County Court yesterday and it cost him $10.

* * *

While testimony in a case involving a woman driver was being presented, Boone blurted out:

* * *

"Well, she must have been a mighty poor driver or she could have stopped."

* * *

Judge Earl Sharp declared a mistrial and dismissed all of the jury except Boone, whom he fined $10.

* * *

It wasn't a complete loss for Boone. He drew $5 pay for jury service.

Not one, but TWO grand-new mixes!
Duncan Hines introduces the BROWNIE TWINS

BLOND mellow butterscotch flavor—bake 'em tender or chewy

FUDGE rich as chocolate candy—a great dessert, a la mode

Now it's easy to keep the cookie jar filled with Brownies—the fudgiest Fudge, or Butterscotch for a delicious change

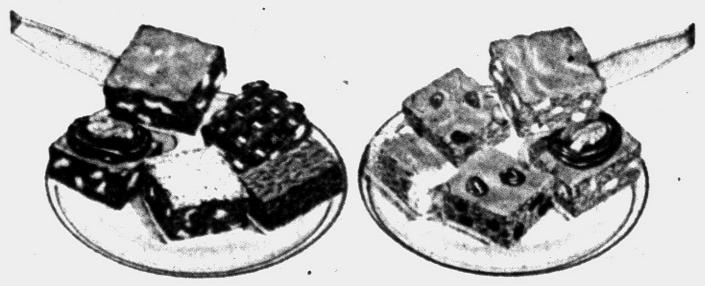

Duncan Hines says: "It's easy to understand why Brownies are America's favorites—they're half cake and half candy, and altogether delicious.

"I do hope you'll try both the Fudge and its twin, Blond Brownies . . . every bit as rich and delicious. We've perfected this mix for two reasons. First, everyone likes a change, when it's butterscotch! Second, there are many people who can't eat chocolate, much as they like it. Now we can all have our fill of Brownies!

"Both mixes are completely blended of the finest ingredients, ready for you to add water and a fresh egg (that gives them better texture and helps keep them fresh longer). And, of course, add whatever you like in the way of 'crunchiness' nuts, coconut, dates or raisins. Incidentally, they're so easy to stir up you can turn the youngsters loose on these two mixes."

Try the 8 variations pictured on packages

Bit of Imagination Makes Easter Eggs Extra Gay

Crepe paper and colored eggs with a jaunty Easter rabbit perched in a home made basket can serve as a centerpiece as well. Ingenuity and odds and ends of materials and ribbons are necessary for snappy looking Easter egg people.

Easter baskets are a part of the festive celebration of Easter . . . and they can be made by youngsters themselves for added enjoyment of the Easter season.

Rock 'n' Roll . . . This clown and others are found in one egg dyeing kit. The egg fits right into the clown's lap.

Create Jolly Little Bunny

By JOAN RITTER

There are some things about Easter that are taken for granted; for instance, colored eggs. But with a little initiative and a supply of paste, colored paper, egg dye and some scissors, youngsters can turn their pre-Easter vacation into a happy, productive time.

* * *

You can always dye Easter eggs solid colors or in the vari-colored style. To brighten up and add individuality to Easter eggs, draw faces on the eggs with crayons before coloring them.

Then, after the dye has dried, cutout small strips of fairly stiff construction paper in the shape of ears and paste them on your Easter bunny, for that's what you'll have, the head of an Easter bunny.

If you do crayon the face on the eggs be sure to use a single color dye so the facial features will show.

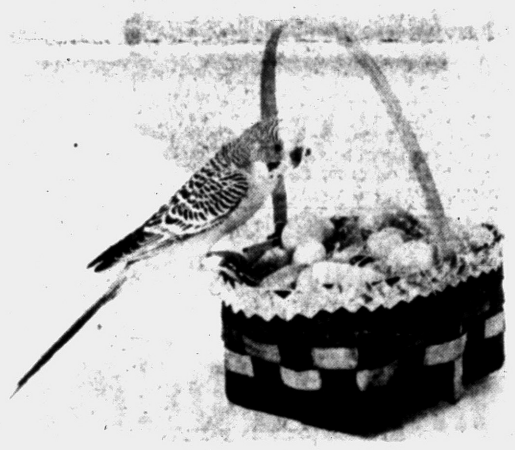

* * *

For something different with Easter eggs, take narrow strips of crepe paper in assorted colors and wind them around the egg, and for an added touch of color, paste stars on the crepe paper.

But please remember, whatever you do with eggs for Easter, be sure to have your mother's permission and, most important, be sure the eggs are hard boiled.

And why not color some extra eggs and make an Easter Sunday centerpiece for Mom for the family dinner table?

Colored eggs and jelly beans scattered on a small bunch of Easter grass with two candles on either side will make a handsome centerpiece for Mom to be proud of.

Parakeets, which are naturally endowed with Easter egg colors, are now gaining place as Easter pets for children. A New York Bird Institute points out that some states ban poultry as gifts. It also states that parakeets capable of learning to talk are easy to care for.

Girl Writes to Strange Servicemen

Neighbors Gossip About Her Letters to Cheer GIs

By EMILY POST

A young girl writes: "I am faced with a problem and would appreciate your help in solving it. Several months ago I put my name and address in at our local service club stating that I would be glad to write to anyone who was interested in receiving mail.

"I love to write letters and I thought I would be doing a service to the men in our armed forces by writing to those who were lonely and had no one to write to them. I received many letters from young men all over this country and quite a few from servicemen overseas who were happy to have someone to write to.

"Several of our neighbors found out what I was doing and as a result I have been the victime of some very unpleasant gossip. I can't see any harm in writing to these men but evidently my motive for doing this has been misunderstood.

"Will you please tell me if what I am doing is wrong and if this criticism is justifiable?"

Answer: I think this depends entirely upon what you are writing. If you write on general subjects—such as the news—there could not be any impropriety in what you are doing. On the other hand, if you are voicing any personal sentiment, this could justify your neighbors' criticism.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter is to be married soon. The bridegroom has grandparents living on both sides of his family. On the bride's side only the paternal grandparents are living—her maternal grandparents having died many years ago. In the newspaper write-up, would it be correct to mention her maternal grandparents?"

Answer: If the deceased grandparents were very well known they would be mentioned, but not ordinarily.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to know, when eating dry cake served with a custard or other sauce over it, does one use a dessert spoon or fork?"

Answer: Correctly, both are provided, and guests use either one or both.

ROMANA DUMBRIGUE

Robert A. Schultz Claims Bride in Parsonage Rite

Mrs. Esther Dumbrigue of South Paddock street and Cecil Dumbrigue of Drayton Plains announce the engagement of their daughter, Romana, to Curtis Hunt of Worland, Wyo. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hunt of Worland. No date has been set for the wedding.

At a ceremony performed Saturday afternoon in the parsonage of the First Congregational Church, Margaret Ann Darga became the bride of Robert Arden Schultz.

* * *

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Darga of Rogers City, and his parents are the Karl Schultzes of Clive street.

The Rev. Malcolm Burton read the 5:30 p.m. service in the presence of the families and close friends.

For her wedding the bride chose a white linen street-length dress with bolero jacket. Both the dress and jacket were trimmed with appliqued lace featuring petal pink inserts under the lace.

A small white cloche of lily-of-the-valley and net, elbow-length gloves and pink slippers completed her ensemble. Her corsage was of white carnations and sweetheart roses.

ATTENDS BRIDE

Mrs. Duane Fields served as the bride's attendant wearing a navy blue silk ensemble with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

* * *

J. Alan Brown performed the duties of best man.

A reception for 125 people was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents following the wedding. Mrs. Schultz received her guests wearing a navy blue dress with pink accessories.

Following a honeymoon trip in northern Michigan the newlyweds will make their home in Birmingham.

Patient in Detroit

Matt Shelton of Charlotte avenue is a patient at Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, where he is undergoing surgery.

Chapter Enjoys Easter Musicale at Putnam Home

Seven guests joined members of Chapter CL, PEO Sisterhood, for an Easter musicale on Monday Mrs. George Putnam of West Iroquois road was the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Carmi Odell.

* * *

Mrs. Martin Wager played two cello solos and Mrs. Clark Morgan, two piano solos.

Mrs. Putnam sang two vocal solos and one duet with Mrs. Charles Buck. Mrs. Wager, Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. W. Henry Sink were the accompanists.

Guests for the day included Mrs. Merlin Asplin, Charlotte Baird and Mrs. Robert Galf Jr.

Others were Mrs. John Nicolls Jr., Mrs. L. V. Ostrander, Mrs. Donald E. Redmond and Mrs. John F. Williams.

Let Small Fry Celebrate at Egg-Decorating Party

Youngsters Can Show Their Skills at Pre-Easter Get-Together

AP NEWSFEATURES

If the Easter egg hunt for smalry has grown too hard-to-cope with proportions, why not give a pre-Easter egg-dyeing and decorating party?

Plenty of hard-cooked eggs and several egg coloring kits are about all that is necessary to provide fun.

Set up card tables with newspaper or oilcloth covers in the kitchen or playroom, and step back and let the little geniuses take over.

Easter egg coloring kits are supposed to be safe, conforming to government standards. These contain certified dye tablets, decorating materials such as gay transfers of animals and clowns usually, and a mystic writer for personalizing eggs.

One new kit even contains a built-in party idea. The rock 'n' roll action toys may be assembled easily, and the eggs fit into them either rocking back and forth, rolling like hoop or working as a pull-toy by tying on a string.

OWN IMAGINATION

Children adore using their own imagination too, so supply them with bits of lace, flowers, broken beads, buttons, yarn, crayons, and perhaps even shells from the beach or old sequins. Colored drawing paper is a help for extra frills.

* * *

Each child might be given a small basket purchased at variety stores to nest their eggs after they finish decorating them.

If you think the idea will appeal to the children you might wind up with an exhibit offering prizes for the silliest or prettiest or whatever the case may be.

Plan a number of games for children to play after the eggs are finished. One might be pinning the cottontail on Peter Cottontail.

You may mount a big giant-sized rabbit cut from heavy drawing paper on cardboard. The children should try to pin the tail on the rabbit while blindfolded.

* * *

Ice cream and cake will be fine for this party. Top the cake with yellow frosting and decorate with jelly beans.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Schields of Rochester announce the engagement of their daughter, Norma Jeane, to Norman L. Goddard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmons A. Goddard of Bloomfield Hills. He is a graduate of Purdue University. A summer wedding is planned.

Make Your Own Basket to Add to Easter Festivity

If Easter baskets are a big part of the festivities at your home on Easter, why not make your own? Of course, a little help from mother with the pasting and cutting will give your handiwork a more "finished look."

* * *

Making Easter baskets can be part of the joy of preparing for the holiday. For materials, various scraps of pretty things around the house can be utilized.

Round cereal boxes and cut-down shoe boxes, covered with colored paper, can be disguised to add a festive touch to the celebration of Easter.

In the picture at the left, a round cereal box was cut in half and trimmed with bright colored crepe paper. In pasting the paper to the box, paste just half the crepe paper so the top will be free to stretch and appear crinkly. Then add artificial grass and some colored eggs.

* * *

The baskets pictured at the right are made on the same principle. For a rectangular Easter basket, cut down an old shoe box, paste white paper on the inside and colored crepe paper on the outside and fill with Easter eggs.

For a handle, cut a 2-inch strip of fairly heavy paper or light cardboard and staple it to each side of the basket.

TALL BASKET

The tall basket on the right above is made from a round cereal box trimmed with crepe paper, with a handle and a paper lace doilie pasted on the inside at the top for a frilly look. And the handle can be trimmed with a bow.

If there are no artists in your family to draw the happy bunnies in the baskets pictured above, simply cut out a bunny from an old color book for a model.

Trace it on cardboard and color it. It may not be the best formed rabbit in the world but your family will appreciate it all the more, knowing that it is your contribution to the family's enjoyment of Easter.

Impromptu Talks Given at Meeting

Mrs. J. Wendell Green served as program chairman for the Tuesday evening meeting of the Pontiac Toastmistress Club at Hotel Waldron.

The theme of the evening was "Idle Dreams." Each member drew an assignment for an impromptu speech. Mrs. J. R. Shafer was toastmistress.

Shirley Dovre spoke on "Traffic Problems." Her critic was Gertrude Foley. Mrs. Lewis Davidson spoke on "Pontiac, a Leading Industrial Center," with her critic being Mrs. Milton Freet.

"Vocations" was chosen as a topic by Mrs. Orben Wilkins, with Mrs. Georgé Gaches as critic. Mrs. J. E. McLeod spoke on "Fear," with Mrs. Howard Wheatley serving as critic.

Mrs. W. Arthur Vernon was chief evaluator; Mrs. Gerald McLeod, grammarian; Mrs. Robert Bunce, tail twister, and Mrs. Robert Sutton, timekeeper. The Oscar was presented to Mrs. Vernon.

Helen Davis and Mrs. George Cunningham were guests for the evening.

Leather, Fabric Gloves Favored for Spring Vogue

NEW YORK (NEA)—The delicately-gloved hand is the fashionable one for spring.

Many of the new gloves, both leather and fabric, are plain with narrow fingers. But they offer an unmistakably ladylike quality that follows out the soft, slim lines of ready-to-wear.

Because we have wandering sleeves this spring, glove collections offer lengths starting with the shorty (at watch-strap length), going on to the mid-arm length and ending with the glove that meets the elbow. And for ball gowns, the opera glove in black or white is back in favor.

The lighter, slimmer, neater glove is interpreted in fabric through use of faggotting to join the finger seams or to form a pretty pattern on the backs. Or, gloves are perforated or cut out for a look of fragility.

Election Conducted by VFW Auxiliary

Mrs. Paul Boelter was elected president of VFW 1008 Auxiliary when the group met Monday evening at the American Legion Home.

Mrs. Boelter will be assisted by Mrs. Allen Hersee, first vice president; Mrs. Norman Caverley, second vice president; Mrs. Ellis Witt, secretary; Mrs. Frank Finkle, treasurer, and Mrs. Walter Sauter, chaplain.

Mrs. Loren Beach is the newly elected conductress; Mrs. William Weaver, third-year trustee; Mrs. Edward Schram, second-year trustee, and Alma Cawley, first-year trustee.

No-Effort Salad Features Olives

Here's a no-effort salad. Take a box of frozen mixed vegetables, break them up into a salad bowl, add chopped pitted ripe olives and minced onion.

Pour over whatever French dressing you prefer and eat as soon as the frost is off the bean.

Man, 27, and Girl, 15, May Disprove the Rule

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I read your recent article about a 16-year-old girl who was taking very seriously the attentions of a guy 27. I agree with you that it was just fun on his part, but my case is different.

"I'm 15, a sophomore in school, and I've been going secretly with a guy 24 for the past three weeks.

"We're crazy about each other and both our families approve of our going together. But we've gone secret for fear people may talk about the difference in our ages.

"Do you think we should let other people see us? Or should we break up even though we like each other very much?

"I've known him for a year and have always liked him. And most of my girl friends go with guys much older than they are: Please give me your advice."

Answer: There always seem to be exceptions to disprove a rule. In general, there isn't much congeniality of interest between a girl of your age and a young man nearly 10 years older.

He's been out of high school, let's say, about six years. And you're not quite half through. Were you both 10 years older, the difference wouldn't be so obvious.

However, you two may be the exceptions. If he's a young 24 and you're a rather mature 15, there might be a meeting of minds. In any case, you like each other very much. And your parents have given your friendship their blessing. That's important.

Now, who would have any right to object if they saw you two out together? Your girl friends wouldn't, certainly. Not if their boy friends are older than the boys in your class.

The boys your age? Your relatives and neighbors? What does their approval or disapproval really matter so long as you have your parents' permission?

On the grounds of congeniality, it probably wouldn't be much fun for your boy friend or your other young friends if you tried to get them together at school affairs, parties and such. You're conscious of him as a person, while they'd be very much aware of his age, as he would be of theirs.

So continue dating, as you call it, "in secret." Only stop thinking of it as hiding yourselves away. Go out with him blithely, openly, but separately from your other friends.

If you must double-date occasionally, carefully select another couple like yourselves so the two young men will have something to talk about.

But reserve the right to go out with other boys occasionally. You won't, for instance, want to miss your sophomore hop. But will he want to go to it with you? Wouldn't that big deal be more fun with another sophomore?

This Spring, Styles Are Pretty, Chic

Fitted Jackets, Slim Lines Adapt to Any Woman's Figure

NEW YORK (NEA) — A spring that gives women the suit with fitted jacket and full, pleated skirt, the dress with little bolero and slim lines and the coat that has a look of width and almost no weight is offering pretty, wearable clothes.

* * *

And that's just what this spring does. Nothing radical, nothing drastic, nothing impossible to wear.

With some modification, these new fashions are meant for everybody. You needn't diet away to a toothpick to fit into them nor remove your hips (by magic, of course) overnight.

The look is one of ladylike elegance. This extends into accessories, of course. They've been designed to complement the new fashions, to point up the slim lines, to play upon the soft neutrality of beige.

Fabrics follow out the ladylike theme. Mixtures and blends and new lightweights have combined to produce fabrics that sit like a cloud on the shoulder, suits and dresses that are whisper light.

Best of all, these new, light fabrics retain their shape far beyond the powers of fabrics in past years. They stay in press, press with ease, come back from the cleaners with a fresh sparkle.

The spring, 1956 fashions are distinctly different from those of spring, 1955. The molded long-torso look is gone. In its place is the Empire look, often with a little jacket of some type.

* * *

Suits are fitted and feminine again and the tunic suit is gone. Lines generally (dresses, suits and coats) are prettier, more flattering, easier to wear.

Summer furs are shown in colors in the Paris collections. Thus, you can match or mix your fur and fabric colors for fashion harmony.

Quiet Kitchen With Plastic

NEW YORK (INS) — A quiet kitchen done in loud accent colors is the latest word for the homemaker.

If the clatter of beater against mixing bowl drives you mad, the obvious answer is one of the new "silent" plastic bowls. With the polyethylene and tenite items now available for the kitchen you can slam the lid of your plastic garbage pail and get nothing louder than a slight thud.

Further, if you like you can have a whole series of kitchen utensils in bright and fashionable colors to add to the kitchen decor. There are, for instance, such shades as turquoise, yellow, pink, raspberry, blue or green in bright and subdued shades.

Since the color in polyethylene goes all the way through instead of being painted on, and since it's unbreakable, you don't have to worry about your pretty pink garbage pail chipping or losing cast.

Other items available in these plastics include breadboxes, cake keepers, drain trays, sink mats, cleanser shakers, scouring pad holders, dish pans, basins, sink strainers and many other kitchen odds and ends.

Your Smaller Rugs Cleaned at Home

Small rugs can easily be washed at home if special care is taken. First vacuum and shake out, then soak 10 to 15 minutes in lukewarm suds to remove remaining dust. Wash individually in warm suds, leaving them in the washing machine for about 4 to 6 minutes.

A second washing is advisable in fresh suds if rug is badly soiled. Rinse once in warm water, twice in lukewarm. Then fluff dry in the clothes dryer.

A sound fashion rule is always to buy the best you can afford.

This Sours Cream

Dairy or commercial sour cream is made from sweet cream which is pasteurized, homogenized and inoculated with a culture of lactic acid bacteria. It is then allowed to develop acidity until the desired qualities are reached.

Residents Return From Sunny Vacations

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Buckner of Pine Lake road have returned to their home following a two-month cruise in the Orient. Among the places visited by the Buckners were Japan, Hong Kong, the Philippines and Hawaii.

* * *

Before Mrs. Fritzi Stoddard of Ottawa drive and Mrs. C. H. Purdy of Mary Day avenue returned home Sunday from several weeks' vacation in Florida they visited the Ben Jeromes of Dow Ridge, who flew back from Hawaii and are now at Fort Lauderdale.

They also visited Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hollenbacher of Forest avenue at their winter home in Lake Worth. There they were happy to find another friend, Mrs. Russell Bassett of East Iroquois road, who is a guest of the Hollenbachers.

The University of Michigan Symphony Band will present 10 concerts during its spring vacation tour. All but two of the appearances scheduled will be in the Upper Peninsula.

Members of the band from Pontiac are Jack D. Bittle of Fiddle road, Marilyn Keivit of Bennett street, Jeanne E. Leland of Middlebelt road and Judith A. Palmer of Dakota drvie.

William K. Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don F. Collins of LaBrosse avenue, and Donald C. Vance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merton C. Vance of Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills, are among the new students enrolled at Tri-State College, Angola, Ind., for the spri quarter.

New Clock Sympathizes

NEW YORK (INS) — There's a new alarm clock that has built-in sympathy for people with "morning after" woes.

It's also the answer to the sleeper's plea for "15 minutes more" nap time in the morning.

Previously you had a choice of dragging yourself out of bed at the appointed time, or turning off the offending alarm and going back to sleep — and oversleeping.

But the new clock has an innocent little bar on top that gives you a third alternative. When the alarm goes off in the morning the sleeper just pushes the bar, which shuts off the alarm.

All is peaceful for 15 minutes of blissful sleep, and then the alarm begins to sound again, insuring that you don't oversleep your bonus snooze time.

Except for the special bar at the top, the snooz-alarm looks like other electric clocks, rectangular with lightly traced scroll-work between the numbers.

Clocks in general, according to William Judson, design expert for G-E Telechron, will be shown in gold, brass, chrome

William is enrolled in the Department of Radio Engineering and Donald in the Department of Electrical Enginering.

James Hawisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hawisher of Silverside drive, was among the students placed on the dean's academic achievement list at Olivet College. This is the highest academic honor which can be attained at Olivet.

Hazel McGirr of Boston avenue is leaving Thursday on a tour of the Eastern states during the Easter holidays. Among the places she plans on visiting are New York City and Washington, D.C.

Raincoats in navy blue leather were shown in the Paris collections. Chic and waterproof, too.

Your Interests Can Educate You

By ANNE HEYWOOD

With the high percentage of young people going to college these days, there is an enormous number of older women — their mothers — who are beginning to feel stupid and uneducated. They shouldn't, of course, but according to my mail, they do anyway.

* * *

"I no longer speak the language my children speak," they will write me. Or, "I feel left out of things. My husband is successful, well-educated and can talk to the kids, but I just feel left out."

Sometimes such women frantically sign up for courses and sometimes they just settle into a dark pit of resignation, but occasionally, one of them really does overcome the problem, and then some.

The truth is, of course, that the children are not the key factor.

* * *

Feeling uncomfortably ignorant in the eyes of your children indicates that you really feel uncomfortably ignorant in your own eyes.

If your life satisfies and interests you, you don't give a darn if somebody else has more book-larnin'.

The answer is that there are many roads to a good education. If you take your own road, you'll be well-educated.

* * *

For example, one woman I know was interested in old glass. In reading about it, which she did voluminously, she learned a whole lot about history, art, decoration and philosophy.

A glass mug from the 17th Century helped her to learn about the habits and customs of that period, the wars that were fought the books that were written.

Another woman became interested in a pair of old earrings she inherited. She went to museums, studied old earrings, read all about the kind the Egyptians wore, and why, and what the sigificance was.

Before she knew it, she was dipping into history, mythology, early medicine and many other subjects.

NO SCHOLAR

A cousin of mine is no scholar, and never was, but his interest in antiques has made him the best educated and most well-informed person I know.

* * *

If you long for more "culture," don't go off half-cocked and sign up for course after course in unrelated fields.

Find one simple thing which interests you, trace back into its early beginnings and you'll become a really cultivated and educated person.

Chic Checks Top Spring Fashion List

NEW YORK (INS) — Fashion checks will be as good as certified this spring.

Checked fabric carries a guarantee of chic, especially if you make it into a sheath dress with white trim and perhaps a little jacket or cape to match.

You can have black and white checks, navy and white checks, brown and white or gray and white checks. But the checks have to be small, and the accents must be white.

Most popular check in the high fashion houses of New York for spring is the slim-skirted, unbelted or half-belted sheath. It invariably has a little white collar, and the collar invariably has a row of rickrack or lace around it,

The junior size manufacturers particularly love checks because they lengthen a short-waisted figure. But checks are popular in regular misses sizes, too, right up through size 20.

If you like checks but don't like sheaths, try a variation shown at Suzy Perette. It's a checked dress with white collar, smoothly fitted bodice and hips, but a big pleated checked skirt dropping from the hipbone.

Mrs. Lee A. Kremer Fetes Geraldine Worthman

Geraldine Worthman was honored at a tea Saturday given by Mrs. Lee A. Kremer at her home on Dwight avenue. Gerry will become the bride of Robert C. Irwin June 24 at Bluffton, Indiana.

* * *

Gerry is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Matthew Worthman of Bluffton, and Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Irwin of Delrose drive.

Presiding at the tea service was Mrs. Robert C. Anderson, sister of the bride. Purple violets flanked by pink tapers formed the centerpiece, and a deep purple organdy tablecloth and pink napkins carried out the color motif.

Attendants were announced, and Dorothy Worthman, another sister of the bride, will be maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Anderson, Jean Irwin, the groom's sister, Mrs. Floyd Minnich of Bluffton, Ind., Mrs. David Hughes of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Mrs. William Goodwin of Tiffin, Ohio.

John K. Irwin Jr. will serve as best man for his brother, and ushers will be Richard M. Irwin, another brother, Richard Worthman, brother of the bride, Bruce Jacobsen, Park L. Watson, Fred Zittel Jr. and James G. Aldrich.

Ring bearer will be the bridegroom's nephew, Bruce Irwin.

* * *

Guests at the tea were Mary Parrish, Mrs. Park Watson, Mrs. Donald Deeter, Mrs. John K. Irwin, Mrs. Worthman, Mrs. John K. Irwin Jr., Mrs. Richard M. Irwin, Jean Irwin, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Mayard Stephens, Mrs. Sam McManus, Mrs. Charles Fournier, Mrs. Orra Muter, Phyllis Schreider, Mrs. Bruce Jacobsen, Mrs. James G. Aldrich, Nancy Aldrich, Pat Soares, Gertrude Overton, Eliner Wiene and Lorraine Wiene of Birmingham, and Doris Moser of Flint.

Aid Members Hear Talk by Minister

The Rev. Theodore Allenbach spoke to members of the Ladies Aid Society of Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church when the group met in Fellowship Hall Thursday. The Rev. Mr. Allenbach used as his subject the 19th parable of Jesus.

Following the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Guy Caswell members sewed for the American Cancer Society. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Ralph Osborn and Mrs. Peter Niemi.

Wide Color Range Sparks Appliances

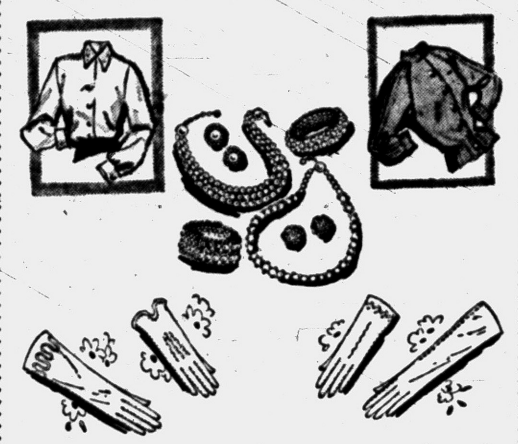

Homemakers today have a wide choice in selecting color schemes, as both kitchen-unit and appliance manufacturers are producing a wide range of colors in appliances.

Steel cabinets in two-tone shades are being used with white appliances, tied in with copper-tone cupboards by matching trim or with contrasting colors.

The rule of thumb seems to be that colored cabinets, woodwork, counter tops and walls combine best with white appliances, while colored appliances, sink and floors combine with white cabinets.

Clothing can get a periodic airing right in the closet. Set an electric fan or the wrong end of a just-emptied tank vacuum cleaner in the doorway and blow the stale air out.

Flowery Hats Preferred

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

America's 10 best-hatted women, as chosen by New York millinery designers, will set the pace for the rest of the country by wearing, almost unanimously, big flowered hats in the Easter parade.

Heading the hatters' list, as usual, is Mamie Eisenhower, named by Sally Victor, because "her hats are an integral part of a smartly costumed whole, expressing her exuberant personality with quiet good taste."

GAY FLOWER HATS

The First Lady has ordered a number of gay flower hats for spring, proving that she anticipates the national preference.

Others in the best-hatted list are as follows:

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, named by Mr. John because "she is one of the few women I know who hasn't got a nervous wardrobe."

Grace Kelly, named by Robert Dudley because "she brings a fragile womanly appeal to the new hats reminiscent of the turn of the century . . . and because, being Irish, she knows that a beautiful hat can beat the Irish themselves at flattery."

HITS HIGH NOTE

Rise Stevens, opera star, chosen by Walter Florell because "she hits a high note in hats as confidently as in an aria."

Mrs. Francis T. Hunter, the former Continental film star Lizette Verea, chosen by Gustavo.

Mrs. William Randolph Hearst Jr., named by John Frederics; Dorothy Kilgallen, named by Lilly Dache; concert soprano Mary Bothwell, named by Margaret Cody, Heddy Hopper, named by Laddie Northridge; Arlene Francis, named by Emme.

European Origin

The badge fad began in Europe. American members of a country club, a fraternity, a veteran's group or a Rotary club were quick to follow the trend in wearing their group's insignia, and the custom has been so widely accepted that badges and emblems — denoting nothing other than a stylish appearance—are now decorating many types of garment, from blazers and jackets to shirt, sweaters, swim trunks and walk shorts, in both men's and boys' wear.

BEVERLY ANN PLUMB

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Plumb of West Beverly avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Beverly Ann, to Clyde Nelson White of Chicago, son of Mrs. W. G. White of Lewis, Kan. A June wedding is planned.

BPW Hears Talk About Subversion

"How Subversive Organizations Can Ruin Civil and National Defense" was the topic discussed by Russell D. Thompson at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Pontiac Business and Professional Women's Club held at Hotel Waldron.

* * *

Mr. Thompson, of the Michigan Department of Internal Revenue, a past district commander of the American Legion and chairman of the Un-American Activities Organization, told of the manner in which communism is spread and stated:

"The Communist Party is not a political party but part of a worldwide revolutionary conspiracy." Today there are 900,000,000 people in the world who have been conquered by this conspiracy, he explained.

In describing Communist literature, the speaker stated that it is all of a definite nature, not saying "if" but "when," the true Communist believing that they will dominate the world.

* * *

Guests at the dinner meeting were Mrs. M. D. Stapp and Gladys West. Mrs. Charles Barrett, Mrs. Raymond L. Cole, Helen Mercer and Mrs. Edward Eickmeier were hostesses.

Members of the civil defense and national defense committee who arranged the program were Josephine Seeley, Julia Dimond, Roberta Tobin and Mrs. Eickmeier.

Coming Events

Ladies Auxiliary 1230, FOE, will meet for nomination of officers Thursday at 8 p.m. at 289 W. Montcalm St.

Friends Prayer Group will meet with Mrs. Mattie Jackson, 27 Miller St., Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

HAS PERSPIRATION EVER RUINED YOUR DRESS?

Once a dress has perspiration stains, no amount of cleaning will take them out. Well, here's a new vanishing cream deodorant that stops all that.

DRAMATIC STEAMBATH TEST SHOWS HOW

Arrid with Perstop* Keeps Skin Dry Stops Perspiration Stains

This woman was put in a steambath at 104 degrees. Arrid with Perstop* was rubbed into her forehead. Fifteen minutes later . . .

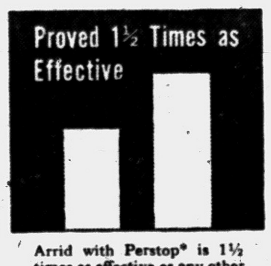

. . . her face was dripping with perspiration—but Arrid with Perstop* kept her forehead dry. Arrid will do the same for your underarms, too.

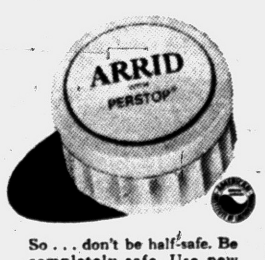

Just rub Arrid in—rub perspiration out. Rub Arrid in—rub odor out. When the cream vanishes you know you're safe even on hot, sticky days.

Arrid, used daily, keeps your clothes safe from ugly stains, keeps your underarms dry, soft and sweet.

Arrid with Perstop* is 1½ times as effective as any other leading deodorant against perspiration, against odor.

So . . . don't be half-safe. Be completely safe. Use new Arrid with Perstop* to be sure. 43¢ plus tax.

Dark Cake Made With Cocoa

Mrs. McGraw's Chocolate Cake Sure to Be Moist

BY JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Here's a recipe for a chocolate cake that is moist to start with and gets more moist as it stands. Mrs. Harold McGraw says it is delicious.

Mrs. McGraw belongs to the New Sylvanites Club. She is active in the Whitfield PTA and works one day a week in the school library.

CHOCOLATE CAKE
By Mrs. Harold McGraw

Combine:
½ cup cocoa
2 teaspoons soda
½ cup boiling water

Cream:
2 cups sugar
¾ cup shortening

Add:
Cocoa mixture
2 eggs, well beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift:
2½ cups cake flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt

Alternate with flour mixture:
1 cup sour milk

Bake 25-30 minutes in a 350-degree oven. Use a 9x13x2 pan or two 9-inch layer pans. Loaf cake will take longer to bake.

Grandma's Behavior Is Shocking

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Yesterday when Tommy, his mother and grandma were at his Aunt Lida's house, she showed them how well his baby cousin was walking.

* * *

Over and over she'd call, "Come to Mommy" — and with a look of intense concentration, baby Kathy would make her way to Aunt Lida's waiting arms.

Suddenly in the midst of this exhibition, Tommy discovered that his water pistol had jammed. When his mother fixed it, he complained of pain in an old knee cut. When this had been examined, he demanded that his mother take him on her lap.

"Don't fall for that stuff," said his grandma to his mother. "He's just trying to get attention."

* * *

The severe tone with which Tommey's grandma exposed his desire for attention put it into a class with desires for strong drink, drugs, other people's wives and other shocking appetites.

FELT ASHAMED

So his mother felt terribly ashamed of it. Instead of lifting him on to her lap, she shoved him away, saying irritably, "Can't you leave me alone a minute? Go on out to the yard and play with your water pistol."

* * *

Actually, of course, Tommy's desire for his mother's attention is natural. The fact that his grandma, instead of accepting it as natural, resists it so severely is what is shocking in the situation, meriting his mother's close attention.

For grandma is a person who doesn't like anyone to ask her for things. As a parent who took great pride in her "generosity," she always tried to anticipate her children's wishes so insistently that they got the idea it was somehow "ungrateful" to form or express any themselves.

* * *

Today, Tommy's mother still depends on grandma to do her thinking for her. To make her ashamed of her little boy's natural desire for her attention, all grandma has to do is speak of it contemptuously.

REMAIN SCARED

Parents who are tormented by a child's demandingness are usually people who have been trained in self-effacement. Until we can discard the values of the parents who made us afraid of our own demandingness, we will remain scared of Tommy's.

* * *

Only too often it is the relative who has demanded most who is most anxious for us to squelch all demandingness in our children.

HOW SHORT IS SHORT?

Will hair be short this spring? The term short hair or shorter hair is relative. It has to be! What is cute on one could be ridiculous on another.

The trend this spring is short, but in this trend are many variations. Be cautious in your choice of this year's mode. The proper hairstyle for you depends on the texture and color of your hair, your features and height. Line is often more important than actual length of the hair. Length and style of hair is individual. A decision must be made by each person . . . but this is an advantage, for it keeps us from all looking alike. Imagine a whole Pontiac of pixies.

Carol F. Wirth Repeats Vows in Candlelight Rite

In a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church, Carol Frances Wirth became the bride of William J. Joss. The Rev. Theodore Allebach performed the ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

* * *

The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Strand of Dick avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Joss of Lakeview avenue are William's parents.

A gown of imported French lace and nylon tulle was chosen by the bride. Her lace bodice was accented by rhinestones, and appliqued lace trimmed the accordion-pleated nylon tulle skirt.

Her fingertip veil was of nylon tulle, and her only jewelry consisted of pearl earrings and a pearl necklace.

* * *

Mrs. Stanley Strand served as matron of honor wearing a ballerina-length gown of pink crystallette with a matching headpiece.

GOWNED IN AQUA

Beverly Hyatt wore a ballerina-length dress of aqua crystallette for her duties as bridesmaid.

Venezuela Adds Roads

CARACAS—From January, 1950, through December, 1954, the Venezuelan Government built 1,795 miles of new highways and paved 1,589 miles, at a cost of $478,000,000. At the start of 1955 the country had 8,059 miles of highways, of which 2,695 were paved. During 1955 some 700 miles of new highways were under construction and about 550 miles of them were paved.

Among the natural resources attracting industry to Michigan are vast amounts of iron ore, gypsum, limestone, salt and copper.

MARYVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — When Mrs. Skeets Campell, 21, skidded her car from an icy road into a bank, she suffered face cuts which required 58 stitches to close. Bleeding and alone in the car, she stopped a passing woman motorist to ask for a ride to a hospital. The other woman refused, driving off with a terse: "I don't want to get my car bloody."

BOSTON — New England's sardine catch in 1955 was poor and production of 123,000,000 cans was the smallest in 15 years.

Hazard to Planes

HELENA, Mont. (AP) — A 12-foot cast iron marker on the U. S.-Canadian border will be removed because it is a hazard to aviation. Frank Wiley, Montana aeronautics director, says the marker will be replaced by a bronze plaque laid in concrete. The exchange has been sanctioned by the International Boundary Commission.

U. S. in the Cheese

WASHINGTON — The United States produces more than a fourth of the world's cheese, with annual production of about 1,400,000,000 pounds.

Army's Bizmac Almost Completed

DETROIT (AP)—Its "memory" at work already, the Army's giant new electronic brain, Bizmac, is nearing complete assembly.

* * *

Crews of workers are on 24-hour duty installing the intricate electronic data processing system at the Army ordnance tank automotive command.

When it is completed some time in June, the machine will be put to work keeping track of Army supplies all over the world.

Its job will be to record data on the more than 200,000 items from nuts and bolts to fuel pumps and tank engines on hand at Army depots. In minutes it can give a complete inventory when supplies fall below the safety level.

Right now engineers for Radio Corp. of America, which designed the machine, are supervising skilled electricians in the installation job.

16 BOSSES, 13 WORKERS

It's a project that has 16 bosses for 13 workers—16 engineers check every step as the 13 electricians wire each of Bizmac's 200 separate units together.

As each unit is put into place, its performance is tested. Then it is hooked up with connecting units and further tests are run.

In the first two months alone of the installation task, 600 miles of cables were linked. And now the main nerve center of the brain, its "memory" unit, has been put into operation.

RCA describes the complex assembly of copper wires and magnetic devices as an electronic scratch pad. It can remember information indefinitely or recall it in a split second.

A staff of 20 women workers is at work now writing up data for tapes to be given the machine.

One code number may act as the signal for the brain to release all stored information on, for example, the number of tanks the Army has in Japan. This might include number, type, base, performance—anything that has been filed under that code.

Besides its amazing memory file, Bizmac can add, subtract, multiply and divide.

An output device prints, at a rate of 600 lines a second, inventories, shipping orders and other business correspondence. A question on a certain item in stock can result in Bizmac's turning out a whole printed catalogue on the item.

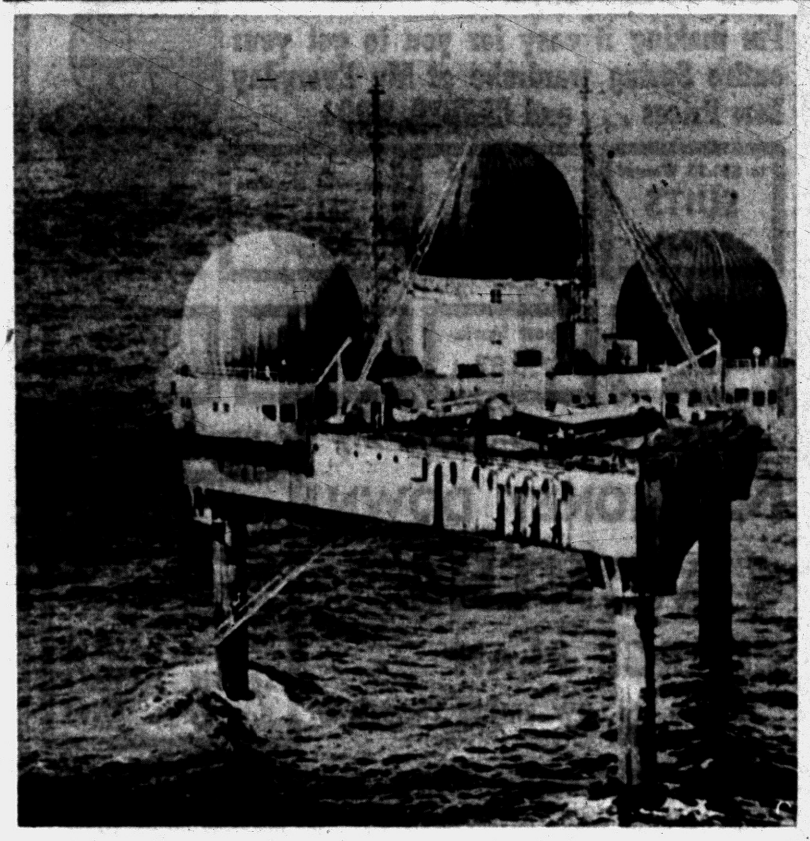

As a sample of the brain's speed—it files on a 10½-inch tape more than 2,500,000 characters at a recording speed of 80 inches a second.

Its pushbutton operations do in a matter of minutes what now takes months of paperwork by hundreds of clerks. Some 95 specially trained workers will be able to operate the machine.

The "brain" cost 5½ million dollars. But it is expected to more than pay for itself in six years through savings in manpower and paperwork.

Its designers say Bizmac cannot make a mistake. If an operation is not proceeding correctly, the unit stops and a light on a control board lights up.

Technicians thus can tell at a glance where the failure lies. Even a weak tube, which might affect accuracy of a unit, will immediately stop the whole system.

GETTING READY FOR OPERATION — The Texas Tower, a radar warning post in the Atlantic Ocean off Cape Cod, takes on a new look with the installation of three inflated rubber "radomes" atop its stilted triangular platform. The "radomes" were installed this week as the offshore warning station is readied for operation. On the platform is an Air Force helicopter, used to transfer supplies and personnel from the mainland. This photograph was released in Washington by the corporation building the tower.

Only about 49.2 per cent of the nation's high schools fielded 11-man football teams in recent years, according to one national sports survey.

First Aid, Radio League Planning Panel Discussion

Members of the Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross First Aid Instructor's Club, will meet with the Amateur Radio Relay League Operators for a panel discussion Thursday, Apr. 5.

* * *

The discussion will concern the coming Holiday Highway Patrol Program which is a "program of volunteers who have no legal responsibility to citizens and receive no pay for spending their holidays patroling Oakland County to be available to give first aid in case of accident," said Ralph S. Forman, chairman of first aid for the chapter.

Serving on the panel will be Herbert Straley, chief of police for Pontiac; Ross Miller, Oakland County deputy sheriff and Trooper Milo Thompson of the Michigan State Police Redford station.

The panel will discuss the merits and demerits of the program in the past and the program's future as it is related to saving lives on the highway in cooperation with law enforcement officials.

* * *

Forman also stated that the program is valuable as a dress rehearsal for first aid and civilian defense team's activity in time of natural or enemy borne disaster.

* * *

Red Cross officials attending the meeting will include Edward Caren, safety service representative for Michigan; Douglas Trites, general field representative for Michigan and Terry Townsend director of field service for the state.

Commission Takes Bids on 2 Homes

Bids for two of five city owned houses on the Civic Center property across from he City Hall were accepted last night by the City Commission.

* * *

Upon the request of City Manager Walter K. Willman an offer of a wrecking company to remove all five establishments, with the city to pay for the wrecking, was received and filed.

A bid was accepted at $175 for the home at 78 E. Pike St. and for $1,000 for the home at 8-10 Parke St.

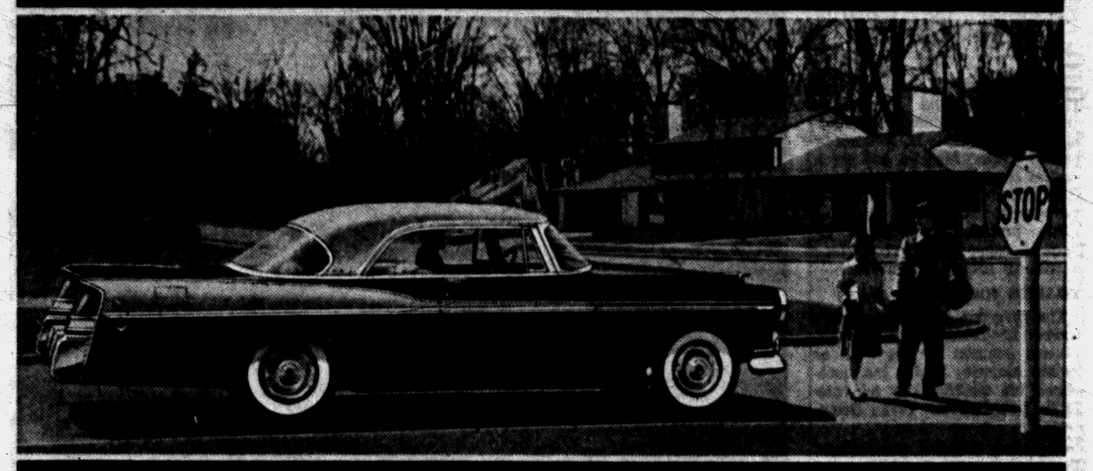

The city attorney was authorized to prepare an agreement with the buyers to remove the two houses by a July 1 deadline.

Democratic Club Meets, Planning Tea for TV

Mrs. Dave Simmons, president, presided at the Sunday meeting of the Democratic Women's Club of district one. Twelve members attended the gathering held at the home of Mrs. Norman Harper on Grant street.

During the business session plans were made to hold a Tea for TV at Town Hall on April 15.

Shivers Blasts Rayburn Plan

Latter Proposes That Johnson Be Favorite Son for Texas

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers last night labeled as "cynical and calculated" a proposal that Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson be named Texas' favorite son presidential candidate and head of the state's Democratic National Convention delegation.

The proposal was made by House Speaker Sam Rayburn, long a political enemy of Shivers.

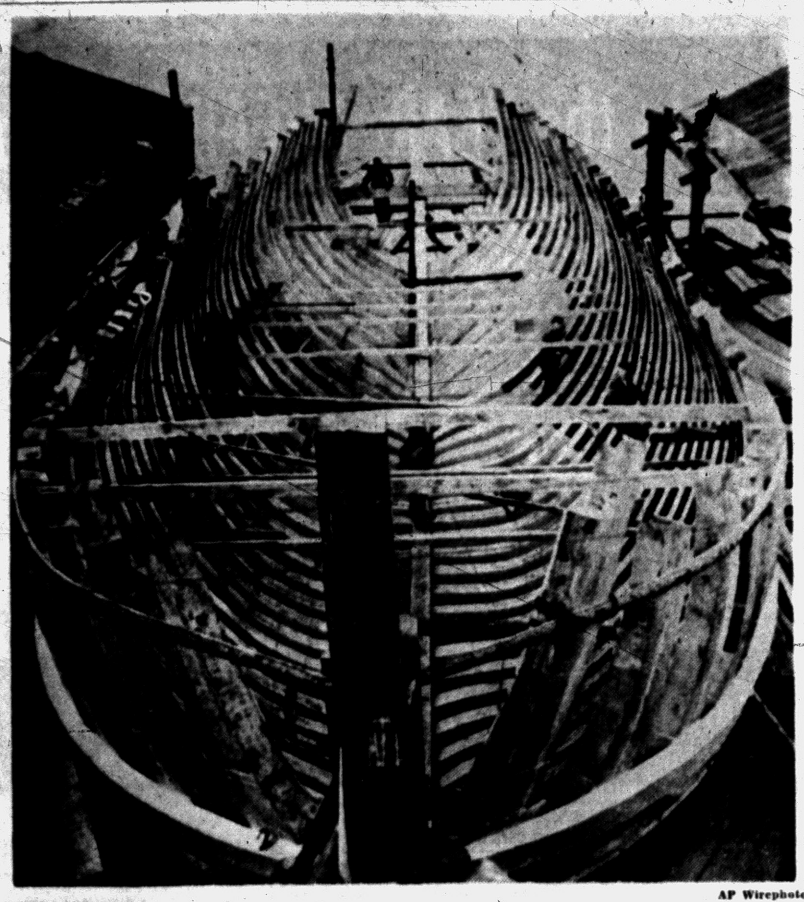

PRAISES JOHNSON

The governor, who also is being boomed for Texas delegation chief, praised Johnson for his work as Senate majority leader but questioned his qualifications as "majority leader for Texas Democrats."

Rayburn's proposal, Shivers said in a speech, "was a cynical and calculated effort to divide the conservative Democrats of Texas and maneuver the senior senator into the Democratic Advisory Council-Political Action Committee camp, where he does not belong."

Shivers and Rayburn's last big fight dates to 1952 when Shivers was among the Southern governors who bolted the Democratic party to support Dwight D. Eisenhower and Rayburn led the Adlai Stevenson campaign in Texas.

MAYFLOWER TO SAIL AGAIN — Workmen in shipyard at Brixham, Devon, England, work on hull of 183-ton model of the Mayflower, ship which carried the Pilgrim Fathers to America in 1620. The new Mayflower, financed through public subscription to the Mayflower Society, will sail the Atlantic to the United States this summer as a goodwill gift to America. Like the original Mayflower, the new craft will carry a crew of 21 and 30 passengers.

Use Antibodies Against Cancer

UM Researchers Try Units With Radioactivity Against Skin Disease

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Two University of Michigan medical researchers are using antibodies, tagged with radioactivity, to attack one of the deadliest forms of skin cancer.

* * *

Drs. A. Burgess Vial and Walter S. Callahan still have many problems, but their process shows some hope.

The disease they are aiming at is one of the swiftest spreading cancer types, melanoblastoma, a comparitively rare form identified usually by flat, colored moles which have grown, changed color or ulcerated.

By grinding up diseased human tissue and injecting it into rabbits, the doctors have been able to develop antibodies. The antibodies are the rabbits' defense, created in the rabbits blood, against the disease.

The rabbit blood is then converted into gamma globulin and tagged with radioactive iodine or chromium.

Injected into a patient suffering from the disease in its advanced stage, the antibodies seek out the diseased tissue, carrying with them the radioactivity.

* * *

Difficulties are encountered in getting enough radioactivity to the source of the tumor to destroy or inhibit it. By concentrating the antibodies and altering the gamma gobulin into smaller molecules, the doctors hope to deliver greater doses of radiation to the cancer.

Death Driver Jailed

MONROE (AP)—The driver of a truck in which nine railroad workers were killed at a railroad crossing Nov. 18 was sentenced Tuesday to 6 months to 2 years in prison. He is Jarvis C. Martin, 26, of Monroe. Circuit Judge Clayton C. Golden sentenced Martin, who was convicted of negligent homicide by a jury last Friday. The truck Martin was driving collided with a New York Central passenger train at a crossing eight miles north of Monroe. He and two other men in the truck survived.

Dow, UMW Agree

MIDLAND (AP) — Dow Chemical Co. and the United Mine Workers of America today announced agreement on a new 3-year contract carrying an immediate 14 cent hourly wage increase for 6,000 workers.

Canadian $10 Bill Has One Devilish Problem

OTTAWA (INS)—Canada's $10 bill represents a devil of a problem, at least to Parliament member John Blackmore.

Blackmore folded the bill for the benefit of newsmen and revealed how when it is pressed a certain way the Queen's curls meld to form a caricature of Satan's face.

Blackmore was relieved to learn that a move is under way in Commons to have new engraving plates made which will eliminate the Devil's face—no matter how the bill is folded.

Michigan Senate to Act on House-OK'd Land Bill

LANSING (AP) — The Senate today received a House-approved bill raising from 10 to 15 cents an acre state payments to local units for homestead and swamp land.

Supporters of the bill said it would increase annual payments to townships and school districts by about $175,000.

The state owns some three million acres of the land, held in reserve as public hunting and fishing sites.

The measure was sponsored by Reps. James Goulette (R-Iron Mountain) and Louis Mezzano (D-Wakefield).

MSU Research Unit Discovers New Drug

EAST LANSING (AP)—A Michigan State University research team has reported the discovery of a substance which, when purified, may prove as effective an antibiotic as penicillin.

The substance is made from hypericum, a common ornamental shrub weed, often called St. John's wort. It is yet unnamed by its finders, Drs. Eugene H. Lucas, professor of horticulture; James L. Fiarley and Hans A. Lillevik, assistant professors of chemistry at MSU, and Russell Y. Gottshall of the State Health Department.

They report that even in its present unpurified state the substance has one-tenth the effectiveness of penicillin. Once they succeed in purifying the mixture, members of the research team hope its ability to fight bacteria such as staphylococcus will come up to or exceed that of penicillin.

Sheriff Discovers Spring When Oldsters Are Spry

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb. (INS)—Spring has arrived as far as Cass County Sheriff Tom Solomon is concerned.

The sheriff reported he answered a disturbance call at a home and found an 85-year-old woman chasing her 92-year-old husband with a club.

"When the oldtimers get that spry, it's spring," the sheriff commented.

UM Announces Dates for Summer Music Camp

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The University of Michigan will hold its 21st all-state summer program of music and drama at the National Music Camp, Interlochen, June 25—August 19.

The deadline for applications is May 24.

The program is a two-week course of specialized training in orchestra, choir, band or piano and drama.

Cat Got the Tax

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—A Portales man recently wrote the Internal Revenue Service asking "another copy of the Quarterly Federal Excise Tax Return 720." He explained "I am sure the cat got the other one you sent on the first of the month as I can not find it."

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

Easter Egg Show

All the Junior Editors have been busy coloring Easter eggs, and some groups of them have held Easter egg shows, each one putting up his best work for the exhibit. Some of them are shown. Here's Annke the Dutch girl, and Pete the Pirate, Rajpoot the Rajah and an egg decorated with cut paper flowers. Of course these were beautifully colored and here is a chance to show just how you would color them.

Color the backgrounds and the stands and borders so the eggs will show up well, and then color the eggs in all the bright colors you like best, using either crayons or water color paints.

If you have colored some real Easter eggs you too might like to arrange a little home exhibit.

Have you an idea for Junior Editors? Send it in care of this paper and you may win $10.

W. T. Grant Firm Signs Center Lease

The signing of another lease for the proposed $35,000,000 Michigan Miracle Mile Shopping Center at Square Lake and Telegraph Rds. has been announced by the developers.

* * *

The W. T. Grant Co., national variety chain store operators, will lease a 36,000 square foot building in the project which is located in Bloomfield Township.

Other leases announced earlier are the S. S. Kresge Co., the J. C. Penney firm, and the Kroger chain.

Developing the project are Don M. Casto and Don M. Casto Jr., and their associate, W. B. Gibson, of Toledo. Construction of the project will begin around June 1, with completion planned for the spring of 1957.

Flint City Commission Drafts School Resolution

FLINT (AP)—The Flint City Commission has ordered the drafting of a resolution to request consideration of Flint as the site of a proposed third medical school in Michigan.

The commission directed that a copy of the resolution be sent to the University of Michigan's board of regents.

The commission's move followed an announcement by the Genesee County Medical Society saying the society was opposed to establishing a third school.

Officer Gets Blood of Man He Nabbed

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Patrolman Thomas P. Mulrooney, critically wounded during a holdup March 16, has received blood from a truck driver he once arrested.

* * *

"It's real simple to understand if you know what kind of guy this Mulrooney is," said William Hart.

When Mulrooney picked up Hart on a minor complaint four years ago, Hart explained, someone was making trouble without cause and he had papers in his hotel room to prove it.

But Hart was in jail. After Mulrooney went off duty, he got the papers which cleared Hart.

* * *

A Circuit Court grand jury yesterday indicted James Z. Bradley, 20, an ex-convict, and Thomas B. Crews, 27, also a former convict, on charges of assault with intent to kill Mulrooney and Patrolman James Prost. Mulrooney still is in serious condition at a hospital.

The Sudan, as an Arab State, will join the Arab League, Premier Ismail El Azhary of that country predicted in Khartoum. It will be announced as soon as a president is elected, he forecast. Sudan became a sovereign republic December 31, 1955.

Mysterious Tiny Mouse Runs Up Gal's Sleeve

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Who put the mouse in the pneumatic tube?

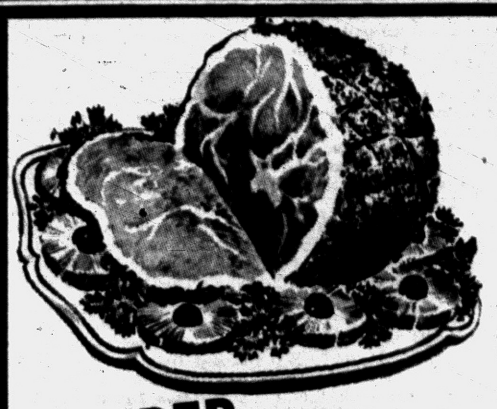

That's the big question around the University of Oklahoma Press building these days.

Mrs. Louis Skinner, a secretary, especially wants to know the answer because the mouse jumped out of the tube she opened and ran up her sleeve. Four other secretaries scurried for nearby furniture.

Mrs. Skinner suspects that a joke-provoking male in the shipping department was responsible.

Shift of Carnival Gets City's Veto

Commission Opposes Oakland Avenue Site as Unsatisfactory

A request from a local veterans organization to shift a 10-day carnival from a previously accepted site to an Oakland avenue area, was rejected by the City Commission as several residents of the area voiced objections to the change.

The Nichols-Conklin Detachment of the Marine Corps League and the Amvets post 16 requested moving the site to the rear of 630 Oakland Ave. instead of Franklin road which was approved by the commission in October 1955.

The communication said the Franklin road site had since been ruled unavailable for the carnival.

Commissioner Floyd P. Miles (District 4) said the Oakland avenue site was a "highly congested area with bad parking facilities." "I can't understand the thinking of wanting it here," he added.

Miles added that he would have to take exception to a communication from the group which said that out of 13 persons interviewed, nine said they had no objections to the carnival.

Commissioner Harry W. Lutz (District 7) favored the acceptance of the request. "For a period of ten days we should be a little more tolerant of people helping to keep Pontiac on the map."

Texas Woman Meets Her Alamo on TV Quiz Show

NEW YORK (INS)—Mrs. Celladore T. P. Crockett met her Alamo at the $16,000 level of the $64,000 question last night but unlike her famous frontier forebear, Davy Crockett, she rode from defeat in a Cadillac.

Mrs. Crockett, who is also related to Sam Houston, another famous Texan, failed to answer three parts of a four-part question in the English literature category on the CBS quiz show, "The $64,000 Question." She was given a Cadillac convertible for a consolation prize.

Although the personable Texan missed the big money, she expressed no disappointment and said she "was very happy with the car."

JOCKEY REACHES $8,000

Jockey Bill Pearson of Pasadena, Calif., rose to the $8,000 level on the show when he correctly answered a four-part question in the great art and artists category.

Pearson, the only jockey ever to win the Santa Catalina Handicap twice, and the first American jockey to ride in France in 20 years, correctly identified paintings and sculptures by Salvatore Dali, Rodin, Marcel Duchamp and Brancusi.

The jockey explained to emcee Hal March that he owns one of the ten best collections of primitive art in the United States, and has long been a student of art treasures and their histories.

A third contestant, 76-year-old Ida Mae Shurburn, mother of the Army's guided missile expert, Maj. Gen. Thomas L. Shurburn Jr. ran out of time at the $256 level. She will be back next week to continue answering questions about horse racing.

Barking of Dog Saves Woman in House Blaze

PORT HURON (INS)—The barking of Mrs. Stella Skiera's collie dog awakened her early today in time for her to escape a fire that destroyed her $16,000 farm home near Port Huron.

Mrs. Skiera awoke when she heard the dog barking and found the entire basement of her home was burning.

Firemen, who blamed the blaze on a furnace explosion, were able to save only the barn with 16 head of cattle.

Bad Axe Chief Dies

BAD AXE (AP)—Roy Harder, 53, Bad Axe's police chief for the past seven years, died of a heart ailment Tuesday night at his home. He had been discharged the day before from a hospital where he had been under treatment for three weeks. Harder was a Huron County deputy sheriff before he became police chief.

Cypriot Rebels Slay 2 British Policemen

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Cypriot rebels firing automatic weapons ambushed a British patrol last night and killed two British military policemen.

* * *

The attack came only a few hours after the British governor, Field Marshal Sir John Harding, appealed for an end to violence on this east Mediterranean island. He said the return of peace would "lay the foundation of a modern and efficient country."

In the past year Greek Cypriots seeking union with Greece have killed 62 persons, including 24 British soldiers. A customs official of Greek descent was killed yesterday in Limassol.

The British patrol was ambushed near Phrenaros in east Cyprus.

Three State Experts to Attend Gotham Clinic

LANSING (AP) — Three Michigan experts have been nominated to take part in the 11th annual conference of the National Committee on Alcoholism, Inc., in New York March 29-31.

They are Roland M. Athay, medical director of the Detroit Alcoholism Clinic, Dr. Roger W. Debusk, director of Grace Hospital, Detroit, and Audrey Shade, administrator, St. Luke's Hospital, Marquette.

RHEUMATISM CAUSED INTENSE PAIN IN MY HIPS AND LEGS

Don't waste your time and money on tablets or balms that give only temporary relief from rheumatism or arthritis. For more positive results use O-JIB-WA BITTERS, the medicine that has proven its merit for over 40 years to millions of people in every part of Michigan. Mr. Achille J. Goethals, 4825 Canton St., Detroit, offers this statement as more convincing proof that O-JIB-WA BITTERS takes away the pains and stiffness of rheumatism or arthritis.

"I tried rub-on remedys and other pain relieving products for my arthritis and rheumatism, without any help. As I had suffered for over 20 years, I was ready to try anything. Then a friend recommended O-JIB-WA BITTERS. He said it worked through the blood, so I was anxious to try it, as I could hardly walk because of the sharp pains in my hips and legs. I started on the quart size of O-JIB-WA, and by the time it was gone, I was a lot better. Soon after, the pain and swelling had completely left and I could actually jump around without any suffering. I'll always keep a bottle of O-JIB-WA in the house, and be happy to recommend it to everyone who suffers from rheumatism and arthritis like I did."

Pontiac Creek Storm Drain Project Subject of Hour-Long Public Hearing

An unexpected hour-long public hearing was held at last night's City Commission meeting on the $332,252 Pontiac Creek storm drain, as some 10 persons raised questions on the project.

Most queries tended to question notices of previous meetings held on the project while other residents of the northwest section of the city, where the project will be installed, voiced objections to assessments.

Both the city clerk and engineer explained legal notices had been published listing the taxpayers and their lots that would be affected in the one and three cent per square foot assessments totaling $98,885.97.

On Jan. 17, some 100 spectators packed the commission chambers to voice unanimous approval of the three-section project expected to begin this spring.

Last night's public hearing was considered held with the confirmation deferred.

Other action in the three-hour session, included adoption of an ordinance to rezone part of lot 78 on Telegraph road to commercial 1. It becomes effective on April 6.

In other action involving city ordinances, the commission heard the first reading of an ordinance to amend the building zone map of ordinance 944 for rezoning to residential 3 the south side of Auburn avenue from Perkins to Center, being lots 26 to 36 and lots 48 and 49 of assessor's plat 133.

A public hearing will be held April 17 on the ordinance.

Some 80 persons in the audience also heard City Manager Walter K. Willman announce plans for ground-breaking ceremonies for the $800,000 Public Safety Building to be held this afternoon at 4:30.

Other business taken up on the 38-point agenda involved an agreement with the A & A Asphalt Paving Co. for paving in the Glendale Manor Subdivision.

The commissioners authorized the city clerk and mayor to sign the agreement and the bonds.

Authorization was also granted to the city manager to execute a $10,000 mortgage to David Scece for lot 2 assessor's plat 132 in the Civic Center property across from the City Hall.

City Finance Director Oscar Eckman was authorized to make the down payment of $1,000 for the lot with the balance to be paid in yearly installments of $1,200 beginning April 1, 1957.

Action was deferred one week on a warranty deed to Oliver Motor Sales, and an agreement on a deposit for public improvements in the Chambers-Bowen Subdivision.

Engineer estimates totaling $67,039.51 for public improvements for Glenwood avenue relocated from Perry to Paddock and Grandview, and for Beverly avenue from Laurel to Highwood were accepted with April 3 public hearing dates set.

Hearings were held last night on the following projects with authorization granted to the city assessor to prepare rolls and report to the commission April 3:

Curb, gutter, and related work for Valencia drive from Mt. Clemens to south line of lots 144 and 253 of Eastview Subdivision, and for Hazel street from Telegraph to Starr.

Sidewalk and related work on north side of Michigan avenue from Jessie to Tasmania.

Sanitary sewer in Astor street from Maines to Michigan.

Other action last night saw previous motions on lots in the Chambers-Bowen Subdivision to receive storm sewers, rescinded as the plat of the subdivision has not been approved.

Public hearings will be conducted April 3 on the following jobs after the commissioners accepted the rolls on the projects last night:

Curb, gutter, and related work for Yale avenue and Hopkins street from Baldwin to University.

Water main for Peacock avenue from Joslyn to Fuller, Clara avenue from Joslyn to east line of lot 30 assessor's plat 102, and for Fuller avenue from Peacock to Colorado.

Confirmation was deferred after hearings were aired on special assessment rolls for the following:

Curb, gutter, and related work for Del Rey boulevard from East boulevard to 94 feet west, Princeton avenue from Baldwin to University and Baldwin to Stanley.

Combined sewer and related work for the west side of Joslyn avenue from Second to Third.

Water main in Grandview boulevard from Paddock to Omar, McGregor avenue from Paddock to Gilmour, and Gilmour drive from Grandview to Paddock.

Further action saw the request for the transfer of a tavern license at 30 S. Saginaw accepted, while another request for expansion to a Class C license was also granted with Commissioner Floyd P. Miles objecting.

Finally, a right of way agreement from George and Evelyn Howell for lot 28 assessor's plat 147 for sewer, drains and other work, was accepted by the commission.

Science Develops New Tablet:

Relieves "Hot Flashes," Irritation From Change-of-Life For 8 of 10 Tested—Without Costly Injections

Boston, Mass. (Special)—Medical science now offers women new freedom from much of the miseries of change-of-life! You no longer have to face those years with dread. Today, you can have relief from "hot flashes," tortured nerves and other functionally-caused distress... thanks to a remarkable tablet developed especially to relieve these discomforts. Doctors report amazing results using this home treatment alone ...and no expensive injections.

Irritability was calmed. Dizziness was relieved. Suffocating heat waves subsided. A feeling of "well-being" returned for woman after woman. 8 out of 10 women tested found complete or striking relief!

Unlike aspirin and "general-purpose" remedies, this new formula is a unique combination of special medicines ... that acts directly on the cause of these troubles. The new tablet acts through a woman's sympathetic nervous system to relieve the tense feelings and physical distress that have brought unhappiness to so many homes. Clinical tests prove it has positive medical action.

This amazing formula is now sold at drug stores, without a prescription, under the name of "Lydia Pinkham's Tablets." Developed by the world's largest manufacturer devoted exclusively to women's ailments! Easy-to-take, contain blood-building iron.

If you are going through change-of-life, don't let it rob those years of joy. Start taking Pinkham's Tablets at home today. See how fast you can feel your happy self again—without troublesome injections! (Also liquid Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.)

The Political Scene:

Farm Discontent May Switch Wisconsin to Dems

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

NEW RICHMOND, Wis. (AP) — Farm unrest is spilling over from Minnesota into Wisconsin. So is some of the sentiment for Sen. Estes Kefauver, who upset Adlai E. Stevenson in Minnesota's Democratic presidential primary a week ago.

* * *

Both are more apparent around here, in the northwestern part of the state near the Minnesota border, then elsewhere in Wisconsin.

But there is evidence even some of the bigger, more efficient, traditionally Republican farmers are turning against the administration farm program and beginning to wonder if they ought to vote Democratic this time. And among laboring men in some Democratic strongholds in cities Kefauver appears to be picking up.

* * *

Unless these feelings run more deeply than is apparent on the surface, Wisconsin's presidential primary April 3 is going to be pretty drab. The only major entrants are President Eisenhower for the GOP and Kefauver for the Democrats.

Should Kefauver come up with something like half the total vote, it probably would be considered an indication of a definite Democratic trend.

DEMS SATISFIED WITH THIRD

Democrats probably would contend a third of the vote would represent a good showing for Kefauver. In the 1952 primary, Democrats collected about 25 per cent of the vote, Republicans 75 per cent.

If the November election could be moved up to March, Eisenhower would be favored to take Wisconsin again, although probably by a smaller margin than his 3-2 edge of four years ago.

* * *

What brings out beads of political perspiration on Republican brows is the extent to which discontent among farmers may spread in the months before the general election.

Take Wilbur Renk of Sun Prairie, in south-central Wisconsin. He and his brothers farm 2,500 acres and operate an extensive seed corn business. Renk is considered one of the most prosperous farmers in the state. He is a member of the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin.

HEADED IKE GROUP

Four years ago, he headed the Citizens for Eisenhower Committee in the state. Now he is less than happy about the administration farm program.

He isn't saying he will vote Democratic, but he did say in an interview:

"I know the farmers are very discontented. I think they are going to be a very attentive political audience for the Democrats this year."

In northwestern Wisconsin there is a higher proportion of marginal farms and a higher ration of discontent.

* * *

Consequently, political feeling in the area has to be discounted to some extent as not entirely typical. But it is important because of the undetermined degree to which it may seep into other regions.

TURNCOAT PREDICTS DEFEAT

Tilting back in his chair in the office of the New Richmond News, Editor John Van Meter, a former Republican turned Democrat, declared:

"We're going to give the administration a licking out here this year. Kefauver is pretty strong. He appeals to the average person."

Thumbing through the last two issues of his weekly paper, Van Meter counted six auctions of farm stock and equipment in one week, five in the other.

Four years ago, New Richmond had five farm implement dealers. The only one left is Clarence Polfus. He pointed to his stock of 18 tractors and said ordinarily they would be sold by June 1—but not this year. So he won't place his usual order for the second half of the year.

Polfus said that "as far as our business is concerned, the farmer is rebelling and there isn't much question he will vote his pocketbook and vote Democratic." Polfus will stay with Eisenhower.

New York City to Be Site for National Auto Show

DETROIT (INS) — The Automobile Manufacturers Assn. has announced that the industry is reviving the National Automobile Show in New York City starting this year.

William J. Cronin, managing director of the association, said the first National Auto Show in 16 years will be held in Manhattan's new coliseum Dec. 8 through 16.

A 40-year prewar tradition, the National Auto Show was dropped following its last appearance in the old Grand Central Palace in 1940. Cronin said the show was not revived after the war largely because of the lack of a suitable exhibition building.

* * *

The AMA will sponsor the show, whereas all the other auto shows, including the annual one in Chicago, have been supported by dealer groups or by a single manufacturer.

All of the automobile manufacturers will participate, with the possible exception of Ford Motor Co. which is not a member of the AMA. Ford, however, participated in the 1940 show and will be invited to take part in the revival.

Auto industry officials were reported glad to revive the annual show in time for the 1957 models which are expected to have some of the most important design changes since World War II. The industry is said to be spending a billion dollars or more on the new offerings.

The new coliseum will give the industry 300,000 square feet of exhibit space, approximately five times as much as in the old Grand Central Palace.

The first National Auto Show was held in 1900 when 51 companies exhibited their models under the sponsorship of the old Automobile Club of America.

Funeral for Educator

OTSEGO (AP) — Funeral service will be held Thursday for Grover C. Baker, veteran educator who died Monday at Bronson Hospital in Kalamazoo. Baker, 70, taught 22 years at Ferris Institute before joining the faculty at Western Michigan College where he served 14 years.

Government Owns 753 Million Acres

WASHINGTON (INS)—The federal government owns over 753 million acres of land at home and abroad—about the size of the U.S. east of the Mississippi plus Texas and Louisiana.

This was disclosed in the first complete inventory of the government's worldwide real estate holdings.

The General Services Administration, which made the count for the Senate Appropriations Committee, reported that the acreage cost the government 38 billion dollars to acquire.

The tabulations showed holdings of 345 million acres—99.7 per cent under the Defense Department—in 108 foreign countries and eight U.S. territories and possessions.

Appointed to TB Group

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams has appointed Dr. Winthrop N. Davey of Ann Arbor to the Tuberculosis Sanatorium Commission, succeeding Dr. Cameron Height of Ann Arbor, who resigned. The appointment, for a term expiring Oct. 9, 1956, does not require Senate confirmation.

UM Official to Speak

ANN ARBOR (AP) — William E. Stirton, newly appointed vice president of he University of Michigan, will address a conference of 13 student chapters of the American Society of Civil Engineers Thursday, at the university.

City Manager Resigns

GAYLORD (AP) — Clifford Miles has announced his resignation as city manager to take a similar post at Three Rivers. He leaves the post May 1.

Zones for Bus Loading Moved From Corners

All city bus line loading signs will be moved 75 feet from corner building lines, Theodore M. Vanderstempel, city traffic engineer, has announced.

It is being done to prevent the buses from protruding into intersections and to allow buses ample space to pull into traffic after loading or unloading passengers.

The signs were previously located approximately 30 feet from building lines.

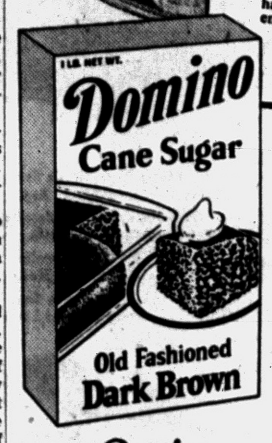

OK School Bond Issue

ROMULUS (INS)—A $1.3 million bond issue for school buildings and improvements has been overwhelmingly approved by Romulus Township voters. The money will be used to complete a new high school and for several elementary school improvements.

Lenten Guideposts—Champion Athlete Finds:

Just Talking to God - - - That's All Praying Is

By WALTER F. DAVIS
World's Champion High Jumper

There have been three trials in my life. All three are related to a fourth trial I now face. It is the most crucial one of my life.

W. F. DAVIS

When I was eight, I was playing ball with the other kids during a school recess in Nederland, Texas, my home-town.

Suddenly I couldn't move at all. I dropped to the ground. They rushed me home, and my mother called the doctor at once . . . it was polio.

My mother, who is a nurse knew all the implications of that terrible word. Then my mother bent her head, and through her tears, I heard her praying. My father and brother and sisters, too.

* * *

I was puzzled. That kind of stuff was for Sundays and a place called church.

The assistant pastor of our church came to see me almost every day. I told him everyone was praying every day. He told me why.

LIKE BEING ALONE

I'll never forget what he said: "It's like being alone in a storm. First, you're cold and lonely and afraid. Then you talk to God. That's all praying is, just talking to God. Pretty soon the storm blows away, and you feel no longer alone."

"If I talk to Him, will I stop hurting?"

"I don't know," he said. "Maybe. I do know the pain will be easier to bear." The pain was easier to bear when I talked to Him, though I didn't quite understand it.

My arms and legs were pretty useless. For eight weeks I was in bed. For another eight weeks I wore braces. It took seven years before I could walk normally.

GROWING FAST

As life came back to my limbs I began growing fast. I was so big in high school it was natural for me to play basketball and do a little high-jumping.

* * *

Both pursuits got me an athletic scholarship to Texas A & M. There I began to practice hard for perfection — and dreamed of breaking the high jump record of six feet, eleven inches set in 1941 by Les Steers of Oregon.

* * *

Margaret Tynan was the girl next door. We were brought up together, and dated steady in high school. We got married when I was a sophomore in college.

She was raised in a strong faith that is always part of her.

I could not escape the influence of Margaret's faith. I listened to her, not always carefully — but I listened.

* * *

In the greatest trial we ever faced together it was Margaret who further taught me that what you do on Sunday should be done every day of the week.

* * *

Our youngest baby, Colleen, arrived two months too early. She weighed six pounds at birth, and in a few days later Colleen turned blue. For five days she struggled for life, while doctors fed her through a tube.

* * *

On the sixth day Colleen won her struggle. Margaret insisted prayer gave her back to us. But they had been Margaret's prayers alone.

The National AAU Track and Field games were held in Dayton on June 27, 1953. And while I sought physical perfection Margaret's words kept flogging my mind.

"There's another kind of strength even the strongest man needs — the strength of belief. Without it a man's nothing."

In the stadium at Dayton, Dr. Ken Wiesner of the Navy and I paced each other inch by inch. He finally went over at six feet eight inches. I got over at six, ten.

They raised it to six, eleven and five-eighths. A new world's record if I cleared it.

Twice I tried it and shook the bar loose. You're only allowed three tries.

I sat down on the ground and looked up at the bar. Impulsively, I bowed my head in the silence, and asked God for that other kind of strength.

Then I got up and jumped, and barely cleared the bar.

Dizzy with triumph, I flipped over in a sommersault. But my head stopped spinning quickly, and I bent it once more — to give thanks.

No man prays fully without learning something. A power greater than human strength had resolved three trials: infantile paralysis as a child, my little daughter's fight for life, winning the world's high-jump record.

I also learned it's easy and natural to pray. That's the biggest jump I ever made. But I have a bigger jump to make: Putting Margaret's sure, unquestioned faith in my own heart.

That's my fourth great trial, I know I will pass it. Margaret will help me.

TOMORROW — Anita Colby, fashion and beauty consultant, brings a message of hope to unmarried women and tells the secret of escaping loneliness.

(From Guideposts, copyright, 1956)

TIMES HAVE CHANGED—One British umbrella designer seems to think women's fears have changed since Little Miss Muffet was frightened by a spider. His "Black Widow" umbrella, modeled above by Eve Vitt in London, is trimmed with chenille to form a web. The spider is of black velvet. And covering the frame is black net, which makes this umbrella of little use in the rain.

America and Canada are the only industrial nations which celebrate Labor Day on the first Monday in September. In other parts of the world, May 1 has been labor's holiday since 1889.

Great Epidemic Fells Another Celebrity

Dave Garroway Succumbs to Matrimoniosis

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Lovable David Garroway — his eyes a picture of rapture in their tortoise shell frames — has declared himself the latest victim of matrimoniosis.

* * *

This serious disease, with its creeping paralytic symptoms, can now be said to have reached the epidemic stage. Patients have been known to shake it off in a very few days (see Case Study 14 Zillion subtitled "Thomas Manville, 10th Recurrence of") but frequently it hangs on for a lifetime.

The greatest "carrier" in recent years has been a Grace Kelly who, even in her early traumatic stages, transmitted the germ of a nuptial idea.

Lovable Dave denies that Miss Kelly's case had anything to do with his recent announcement that he will marry sweet-faced Pamela Wilde. However, we've observed how frequently Garroway has featured the Kelly-Rainier romance on his TV show, "Today," and could tell that he was contracting something.

* * *

When he began showing films of Grace and the prince, he would comment cooly such droll Garrowayisms as "Well, now, there you are."

NEW ATTITUDE

Of late, he was not his old lazily terse self. He was saying — "Well, now, there you are, isn't romance wonderful?"

* * *

Even J. Fred Muggs, with his highly suspect IQ, could have spotted the truth. Garraway was in weakened condition, and babbling slightly.

As the sixth celebrated victim of the matrimonial bug for '56 (previously succumbed: Julius La Rosa, Kelly, George Jessel, Billy Rose and Margaret Truman) Garroway is following a long-standing personal tradition.

* He told me in an interview several months ago:

"I've never actively gone after things. I sort of go along with the tide."

* * *

Dave has always been too busy to be ambitious, he insisted. NBC and a number of good people who like easygoing gentlemen in horn-rimmed spectacles have looked after him with gentle care. Now he can add Pamela's name to the list.

TV's best-known bachelor is about as stingy about exposing his personal emotions as millionaires are about exposing their wallets.

* * *

He feels all, tells nothing. And he intends to keep the details of his present condition as silent as possible.

Co-workers on the "Today" show say that he doesn't want to make "a big thing" of his romance; in fact, he doesn't want to make "a thing" at all.

"The public isn't interested," is his modest attitude.

Poor fella, the disease has affected his brain. He has forgotten that he is in the middle of one of the greatest romance epidemics in modern history and that all the world loves a lover, et cetera.

* * *

Like every other patient, Dave you must go through the editorial observation period. And when the crisis comes, relax . . .

You will be given the full treatment.

Rider Downs Bourbon

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — The El Paso Herald-Post carried the headline "Cowboy Downs Bourbon in Rodeo Riding Contest." The cowboy was Ike Thompson of Billings, Mont. The mount he drew for the ride was named Bourbon.

His Hobby Is Horses; Complaint Dismissed

NEWTON, Mass. (AP) — Melvin L. Horowitz's defense that his hobby is horses won him an acquittal of charges of registering bets. After police testified they found a slip of paper on Horowitz apparently containing bets in code, Horowitz told District Court Judge Donald E. Mayberry:

"I handicap as a hobby, and often furnish information to my friends."

Judge Mayberry dismissed the complaint.

Dogs on Downswing?

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—The number of dogs licensed in the city in 1955 is some 2,000 less than the 16,263 in 1952.

Nebraska has had a unicameral legislature since 1937.

Bob Considine Says:

Reds Spin Cobweb Curtain to Snare Foes

NEW YORK (INS) — While the Russians were beaming their most radiant smiles at Geneva, and agreeing to an agenda that included freer communication through the Iron Curtain, Hungarian security police were busy rebuilding what Fred Thompson of Crusade for Freedom has named the Cobweb Curtain.

* * *

It is a diabolical blanket of strong but almost invisible wires spread in front of the normal barbed wire entanglements which restrain the residents of the "peoples' republic" from spilling into Austria in a human tidal wave.

Confirmation has come to the Crusade for Freedom from three escapees who were forced to work on this pitiless new trap at different places along the border.

The Cobweb Curtain is strung among stubby poles which rise 11 inches from the ground. The mess of fine wire, completely invisible at night, when most escapees attempt to cross to freedom, is 30 feet wide.

Not even Jesse Owens in his prime could have leaped it, much less frightened people staggering along under their possessions with eyes glued only on the electrified barbed wire—which can be cut by insulated pliers.

SETS OFF MINES

A pressure of anything over 8 pounds on the fine wire will touch off land mines in that vicinity, killing or maiming those who sought "freer communication." The efficiency of the device was tested by chasing dogs and rabbits across the lethal wires.

* * *

Cobweb Curtains have been raised at two of the busiest crossing points, Maria Liget and Hegyeschalom, also at Koszeg, Sopronkovsed and Agfalva. Laborers on the job were especially trained at Nemetboly Technical School.

There are curtains and curtains, and one of them can be our own Refugee Relief Act of 1953. It states that no visa may be issued to a refugee unless complete information concerning the applicant's history covering the two years preceding the application is made available.

This material is scrutinized by the C I A and the State Department. If the applicant passes muster he must then be sponsored by an American citizen who pledges a home and job for him upon arrival.

* * *

Last month a Russian soldier named Victor Semenovich Ilyinsky defected and reported to one of the relief agencies that he had served in Korea in Red Chinese uniform, along with other Russians.

He was an airman.

The International Institute of Jersey City, one of many organizations working to resettle immigrants in the U.S., points out that Ilyinsky (though the bearer of tremendous tidings that should rock U.N.) would not be permitted to enter the U.S. even if he had a sponsor.

WRITE HOME?

"Where would he obtain his two-year record," the institute's recording secretary asks. "Could he write to the minister of police in Russia?"

For some reason, Nikita Khrushchev hasn't replied to a cablegrammed question sent to him last week by Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, Poland's last free premier.

It read: "When you condemn the wrongdoing to the Communist Party in the U.S.S.R. by Stalin I ask you if you are ready to condemn also the wrongdoing by communism to Poland and other Iron Curtain countries and to agree to demands by President Eisenhower for the liberation of captive nations?"

Cat's got Nikky's tongue.

Area Cities, Villages to Be in 'Swap the Mayor' Program

Firemen to Seek Special Election

Waterford Fire Chief Wants Vote on Tax Hike to Double Staff

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Firemen of Waterford Township are planning to circulate petitions seeking a special election to obtain funds for expanding their department.

Fire Chief Ed Smith appeared before the Township Board Monday night to propose an addition of seven paid firemen for the township. This would double the present force. The expansion, he pointed out, is needed to serve the increased population of the township.

Township Supervisor Lloyd Anderson said that the township's financial status is such that it cannot support the proposed program. He advised that an increase in tax millage voted by the people would be the only possible way of securing funds for such an enlarged fire department.

Anderson indicated that a one-mill tax probably would cover the increased budget.

In other action, the board scheduled a public hearing on the Sylvan Shores sewer assessment role for 7:30 p.m. April 16 at the Township Hall.

Decision on whether a special assessment district will be set up for Edgefield drive and Donelson Park will be made at a public hearing at 7:30 p.m. April 23 at the Township Hall.

West Bloomfield Dramatic Club Seeks Members

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The Township Players are looking for amateur actors and actresses to join their newly-formed group.

A social get-together is planned for 8:30 April 13 in the township hall, with prospective members and persons interested in dramatic art invited to attend.

The meeting will include a workshop and casting session, followed by two short skits for entertainment.

Officers of the club, elected at the last meeting, are George Curran, president; Phyllis Batts, secretary; Dorothy McArthur, treasurer; and Franklyn Donegan and Hal Higgins, advisers.

This board of officers will draw up a constitution, to be presented for discussion and vote at the next business meeting, April 27.

Brandon Students Take 2 Firsts at Flint

BRANDON TOWNSHIP — Brandon School took two "firsts" in the recent district speech contest at Flint.

Barbara Lee Wood placed first with her humorous interpretation of "Ma's Speech at the PTA." Duane Porter also came in first with his extemporaneous speech on the United Nations.

The pair will represent the school at the regional contest in Swartz Creek in April.

Cancer Drive to Start in April in Lapeer Area

LAPEER COUNTY — The annual drive of the American Cancer Society will be held in Lapeer County during April. Cochairmen for the drive are Mrs. Howard Werner and Mrs. Chester Wadsworth, both of Lapeer.

Church Units to Meet

FOUR TOWNS — There will be a combined meeting of the official board and building committee at 8:15 p.m. tomorrow at Four Towns Methodist Church. The building fund to date is $2,988.84.

Fellowship to Meet

IMLAY CITY — The Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church will meet Thursday at 2:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. William Linsteadt.

SNOW LADY — Since old man winter insisted on lingering long into March, Walled Lake teenager Vancie Lutz decided to capitalize on the "white stuff" that fell in quantities. Vancie, of 5590 Loyalty, created "Snow Lady." Left, depicting a long-gone generation and the modern generation, they "pose" arm-in-arm. Right, Snow Lady's profile.

10 Accident-Free Years in County

Soil Conservation Unit Wins 2 Safety Awards

Ten years of accident-free service to the Oakland County Soil Conservation District by the U. S. Soil Conservation Service was announced today by Merrill Ray, work unit conservationist for the Pontiac Work Unit.

* * *

The work unit has just received two awards from E. C. Sackrider, state conservationist of the soil conservation service. One is for "Preventing Disabling Injuries" and the other is for "Preventing Motor Vehicle Accidents." These awards cover the period of Jan. 1, 1946 to Dec. 31, 1955.

During this time, Ray says, there has been nearly 250,000 miles driven in servicing farmers of the Oakland County Soil Conservation District. Some of the travel is to other parts of the state of Michigan.

"Our good showing to date," Ray explained, "is in part due to the policy of the service to have all trucks inspected monthly by local employes and twice yearly by a trained mechanic.

"During this period 12 different persons have been assigned to the county work unit," Ray says. "They were trained in the ways of safety, and held a safety meeting monthly.

"We feel sure this record did not just happen and fully expect it to carry for another decade," he concluded.

An accident is reported in the soil conservation service if it causes over $10 worth of damage or loss of time off the job.

Royal Oak Gets Revised Budget

$2,043,163 Will Keep Taxes Within $11.50, Commissioners Told

ROYAL OAK—City Manager E. M. Shafter submitted a tentative revised budget calling for $2,043,163 to the city commissioners Monday night.

Shafter told the commission that he did not favor a budget requiring a tax rate of more than $11.50, and sliced $93,928 off his original budget proposals to make the $11.50 rate possible.

Under the new state equalized valuations, the average Royal Oak taxpayer who owns a home assessed at $6,000 to $7,000 can expect to pay from $5 to $7 more in city taxes this year, the commission agreed.

Shafter originally asked for 14 more policemen and seven additional firemen, but reduced the number to 10 more policemen and four more firemen, as well as making other reductions.

The budget will be given final approval in late April or May.

REV. FAYE BLAKEY

Auburn Heights Church to Hold Revival Services

AUBURN HEIGHTS—The Stone Baptist Church of Auburn Heights will begin revival services Easter Sunday morning in the 11 a.m. Sunday morning in the 11 o'clock Blakey from Springfield, Mo.

The evangelistic services will continue every night through April 8.

There will also be a sunrise service at 6:45 a.m. Easter Sunday.

The Sunday School will try to double its present attendance, with a goal of 1,000 Easter Sunday. The classes will occupy part of the new Sunday School building which is nearing completion.

The Sunday School addition along with the church offices, will be 100 feet in length when completed, the Rev. Lawrence Dickens, pastor, pointed out.

Exchange Day Slated May 21

Gov. Williams and Miss Michigan Help at Name Drawing

In drawings held at Lansing yesterday, nearly 500 city and village mayors and presidents of Michigan were paired off in the "swap the mayor" program scheduled to take place on Monday, May 21.

Mayors Exchange Day, a part of Michigan week, is designed to help Michigan communities to become better acquainted with each other.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams, Lt. Gov. Philip Hart, House Speaker Wade Van Valkenburg (R-Kalamazoo) and Margaret Devereaux of Howell, "Miss Michigan" of 1955, helped at the drawings following a breakfast session.

First out of the hopper to be paired off were Harper Woods and Fairgrove.

Complete list of exchange for the Oakland County area are as follows:

Ontonagon, Ferndale; Armada, Grosse Pointe Woods; Brown City, Laurium; Fowlerville, Fremont; Grosse Pointe, Oxford; Imlay City, Schoolcraft; Newberry, Bloomfield Hills; Romeo, Sunfield; L'Anse, Birmingham; and Stanwood with Rochester.

Also: Marlette, Litchfield; Cass City, Deerfield; Lake Orion, Ravenna; Utica, St. Louis, Metamora, Marcellus; Ortonville, Parma; Holly, Grand Haven; Oak Park, Manistique; Lathrup Village, Pequamo; Leonard, Boyne City; Huntington Woods, Niles.

Kingston, Wakefield; Royal Oak, Buckley; South Lyon, Allen; Milford, White Pigeon; Dryden, Rockford; North Branch, Fenton; Sylvan Lake, Cedar Springs; Troy, Milan; Franklin, Suttons Bay; Keego Harbor, Eagle; Wolverine Lake, Marquette; Clarkston, Sandusky; and Lapeer with Mairne City.

Also exchanging are: Lake Angelus, Grosse Pointe Park; Walled Lake, New Lothrop; Farmington, Empire; Clifford, Elk Rapids; Almont, Hartford; Clawson, Norway; Berkley, Augusta; Hazel Park, Copemish; Orchard Lake, Decatur; and Mt. Clemens with Baraga.

In years past, welcoming cities and villages have gone all-out to hail the exchange mayors, putting on parades, tours, banquets and various civic ceremonies.

Justice Pleads Guilty; Sentencing Is May 7

LAPEER (AP) — A former Lapeer justice of the peace pleaded guilty yesterday to depositing public funds in his personal bank account.

Elmer S. Holman pleaded guilty to mixing $6,808 in public funds with his personal funds between 1951 and 1956.

Holman waived examination on arraignment before Isabel B. Hannah, present Lapeer justice of the peace.

Sentencing was set for May 7. The offense carries a possible 2-year prison term or a fine of $1,000.

Holman quit under investigation March 19 after serving as a justice for nearly five years.

Auditor General Victor Targonski said two more justices of the peace in Michigan face prosecution on charges of picketing public funds.

"SYMBOL OF A CROSS" — Rehearsing a scene from their first play, "The Symbol of a Cross," are members of The Crusaders, teenage youth group of Sunnyvale Chapel, Waterford Township. The play will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Easter Sunday at the Chapel, 5311 Pontiac Lake Rd. Reading the scroll in this scene is Dick Gidcumb while Jean Stayt (seated, foreground) looks up. Others, left to right, are Judy Hurley, Terry Walker and Richard Carr, all of Waterford Township.

Beef Cow Herd Can Pay Well

Suggested as Good Bet for Part Time Farmer by Farm Expert

For many part time farmers a beef cow herd is a good bet, according to John K. Trocke, assistant Oakland County agricultural agent. They use a minimum of labor and will return one of the highest hourly returns.

Producing beef calves in Michigan for sale as feeders can be profitable, but the margin between income and costs may be rather narrow.

Records on 20 herds each year found that costs averaged $75 per cow. The average yearly income was about $82. These figures are based on 1955 prices.

But the costs and incomes varied greatly among the herds in the study. The average annual cost, for instance, ranged from $65 to $120 per cow. Calf production per cow varied from 200 pounds to 450 pounds by mid-October.

Also, net return above costs on the most profitable herd was generally at least $75 per cow more than on the low profit herd.

After comparing the most profitable herds to the least profitable ones, Trocke came up with these suggestions for boosting profits:

Keep as large a herd as possible, feed cows inexpensive roughages and little or no grain in winter, study markets carefully and sell where and when prices are best.

Get as high quality cows and bull as possible and try to have the calves born early — March is a good time. Do everything possible to save a 100 per cent calf crop.

Trocke also says that good pasture and proper insect and disease control can add profits.

Auburn Heights Club Plans Community Dance

AUBURN HEIGHTS — Auburn Heights Community Club will hold a public dance at 8:30 p.m. Saturday at the Community House, 220 S. Squirrel Rd.

There will be both modern and old-time dancing, with Harvey Perry calling the square dances. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kibbey are in charge of the affair.

SHIRLEY IRWIN

The engagement of Shirley Ann Irwin to Airman 2.C. Gary H. Quick is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Irwin, 119 South Alice St., Rochester. Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Quick, 609 Ludlow, Rochester. Shirley's fiance is stationed in Hawaii, where the couple will live after an early summer wedding.

Sunnyvale Chapel Crusaders to Present Easter Play in Waterford Sunday Night

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — An Easter play, "The Symbol of a Cross," will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at Sunnyvale Chapel, 5311 Pontiac Lake Rd. The Crusaders, teenage youth group of the church, will stage the play.

* * *

According to the Rev. James Parker, pastor, this is the first play the Crusaders have presented, and they are hoping for a large audience. All residents of the area are invited to see the stirring Easter presentation.

The Symbol of a Cross is a story in dramatic form, of the influence that Jesus' life, death and resurrection had upon an Oriental carpenter and his family.

The choir, under the direction of Carolyn Phillippe, will give three numbers during the two-act play. The background of organ music is arranged and presented by Donna Lou McCallum.

Narrator for the play will be Alma Parker. The part of Abdiel, the carpenter, is played by Terry Walker; Patricia, his wife, by Joan Stayt; Lois, their daughter, by Judy Hurley; Ruben, their son, by Richard Carr.

Chloe, the maid servant, is played by Artis Bush; Caius, a Roman official, by Dick Gidcumb; and Phillip, a desciple of Jesus, by Dennis Snyder. The play is directed by Olivia Roth.

St. Andrew Church Services Listed

DRAYTON PLAINS — St. Andrew Episcopal Church will hold its Maundy Thursday Communion Service at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

* * *

The Tre Ore service is scheduled for 12:15 to 2:45 p.m. on Good Friday. There will be seven 20-minute connected services and meditations on the crucifixion, entitled "Seven Kinds of People Who Were There."

The Good Friday offering will be used to support the combined work of the Church of England and the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States in Jerusalem and the Holy Land.

On Friday at 6:30 p.m. the Bluebird Choir will sing Easter music at the Oakland County Infirmary, followed by a pre-Easter Communion service at 7:15 p.m. for the patients.

Father Officiates at Rite

IMLAY CITY — Donna Grace Harvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harvey, Yale, was married Saturday evening in the Church of Nazarene, Lapeer, to Bernard L. Woolner, son of Rev. and Mrs. Alvin Woolner, Imlay City.

* * *

The groom's father performed the ceremony and was assisted by Rev. Donald Rinner.

The bride wore white nylon over satin and a shoulder-length veil. Her flowers were white roses. Her maid of honor was Sharon Herstine of Detroit. Ruth Ann Harvey was her sister's bridesmaid.

The groom asked his brother, Frank, to be his best man and Garry Harvey, brother of the bride was the usher.

* * *

The reception followed the ceremony and was held in the Community Room in Imlay City.

Commerce Civilian Defense Head Calls for Volunteers

COMMERCE—No less than 40 per cent of the Commerce Township population will be needed for civilian defense duty to provide the area with complete protection in case of a disaster.

This estimate was made today by Harold M. French, civilian defense director of the township.

At present, pledges for duty have been received from about seven per cent of the Township adult residents.

In making a plea for new members, French pointed out problems that could arise in the event of an enemy attack of nearby Pontiac and Detroit, which could send thousands of people rushing into the area.

Interested persons must sign an application and take an oath in order to join the local CD unit.

The township civilian defense organization needs auxiliary policemen, auxiliary firemen, wardens, nurses, nurse's aides and people trained in the fields of transportation, rescue work and mass feeding. French also emphasized the value of first aid training.

He has spent nearly three years of spare time toward the building up of a CD unit, speaking before various clubs and PTA gatherings.

Since many people associate Civilian Defense as being valuable only in the event of war, French cited other dangers such as a tornado or a severe storm.

* * *

Arrangements can be made to train volunteers in any type of duty. Instructors are provided by either civilian defense or the Red Cross.

The township has been divided into seven territories. Sector wardens, who seek and sign up volunteers, are active in all but one section.

A sector warden is needed to cover the territory bounded by Benstein, Wise, Haggerty and Oakley Park roads.

Anyone wishing to sign up for duty is asked to contact French at 2309 Indiana, Walled Lake.

Journal Reports of Plot to Lessen Duke's Influence

LONDON (AP)—The tabloid Daily Sketch asserted today a plot is afoot to lessen the public influence of the Duke of Edinburgh, the husband of Queen Elizabeth II.

* * *

The Conservative newspaper said some recent newspaper articles reminded it of the way "critics, though much more mavolently, got to work on Victoria's Prince Albert."

Albert, Queen Victori's German-born consort, often was accused of making up the Queen's mind for her. There have been similar rumblings in some British newspapers about the duke, whose family origins are Greek and German.

* * *

Recently the Sunday Express, the Daily Mirror and the Daily Herald have all suggested that Elizabeth's husband caused unnecessarily large sums to be spent on the royal train, the royal yacht and royal aircraft.

"These attacks are being made with one object—to discredit the duke in the eyes of the public," declared the Daily Sketch.

Long Trek for Mayors

LANSING (AP)—The mayors of Ontonagon, in the upper peninsula, and Ferndale drew the longest trips in the exchange of mayors set for May 21 as a part of Michigan week.

Want Cinerama on U.S. Carrier

Seek to Outfit Ship for Propaganda Journey to 35 World Ports

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government wants to outfit an aircraft carrier with cinerama and send it on a propaganda journey to at least 35 world ports.

* * *

The project would cost an estimated 3¾ million dollars the first year.

A light carrier would be taken out of mothballs, disarmed and sailed from Africa to Asia as a floating theater and U.S. showcase.

U. S. Information Agency (USIA) Chief Theodore C. Streibert outlined the proposal before a closed House Appropriations Subcommittee hearing Feb. 17. His testimony was just made public.

An auditorium to seat more than 2,000 persons would be installed. Cinerama is a motion picture technique which gives the viewer a sense of being in the scenes shown.

The ship would also have exhibits of the peaceful uses of atomic energy, of the workings of the American economic system and of basic U. S. political documents.

* * *

Streibert said the vessel would have a 72-man civilian crew with salaries totaling about $1,500 a day. Putting the ship into commission would cost an estimated two million dollars.

Several subcommittee members expressed doubts about Streibert's plan.

Rep. Don Magnuson (D-Wash) said he was "flabbergasted" at the idea of providing USIA "with its private navy." Chairman Rooney (D-NY) figured the cost would be $9 for each native who saw the show. He suggested a jukebox would prove as popular.

Movie Stars Face Income Tax Liens

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The collector of internal revenue has filed income tax liens of more than $50,000 against a group of movie people.

The largest lien for taxes for 1952-53 was against actor's agent Sid Luft and his wife Judy Garland, $20,891.09. Other liens included:

Ethel Barrymore, 1951 and 1954, $12,142.80; Rita Hayworth, 1951, $7,541.41; Mickey Rooney and his wife Elaine, 1954, $3,295.93 and $3,709.23, respectively, and Carmen Castillo Cugat, one of bandleader Xavier Cugat's ex-wives, 1953, $4,377.81.

First settlement in Rhode Island was made by Roger Williams in 1636.

WELCOME TO PHENIX CITY
THE PHENIX CITY STORY

Through doors like these, in 30 cities, pass more than 20,000 men each month—sent by their dealers to learn about the latest engineering developments of GM cars.

Success is our business —and our dealers', too

That's why 30 new Training Centers for GM dealers' mechanics are filled month after month

IT ISN'T EASY to please the American public—and unless you do, you cannot expect to operate a growing business.

So we go all out each year, to win the public's favor.

Each year, General Motors cars present fresh new styling.

Each year, GM engineers come up with another crop of new advances.

They step up the compression ratios of engines, for better performance and better gas mileage.

They introduce new advances in automatic transmissions.

They develop new or better automatic controls of seats and windows.

They give a better "feel" to power steering—develop better brakes.

And—when the public likes what it sees—it rewards us by buying Chevrolets, Pontiacs, Oldsmobiles, Buicks and Cadillacs.

So—in a very real sense—success is our most important business.

The dealers who sell GM cars share in this success—but their share isn't automatic.

There are approximately 15,000 parts in an automobile, and it's the dealers' responsibility to see that they work satisfactorily.

But we don't ask them to carry this responsibility alone.

Each new crop of engineering advances creates the need for keeping the dealers' service mechanics abreast of the factory engineers.

They need to know how to match, with new knowledge and skills, the factory know-how which made these advances possible.

They need to know the simplest way to take each new thing apart and put it together—and how to use the special new tools developed to make their work easy.

So you'll find today, in 30 cities throughout the United States, GM's answer and GM dealers' answer to this challenge.

Specially equipped, specially staffed with trained experts, these Training Centers give individual training to every mechanic who enrolls—and enrollments of mechanics and other dealer personnel are running at the rate of more than 20,000 a month.

There's nothing like this Training Center program anywhere else in the automobile industry.

And now that it is in full operation, we believe this fact is clear:

The vast majority of General Motors dealers aim to deserve all the success that has come their way.

Besides providing a training and conditioning period for the Major Leaguers, the Grapefruit Circuit provides a good selling point for some of the lower division teams. It does wonders in spurring ticket sales for clubs which need a boost.

★ ★ ★ ★

If the Yanks or Dodgers go on a losing spree in the spring exhibition season, the fans in these respective cities would chalk it up to rookie experiment or just meaningless games.

But let Pittsburgh, Kansas City or Baltimore play .500 or better ball in the Citrus Leagues and the fans get all stirred up and really stream into these ball parks in the early season.

For a town like Detroit where the fans have poured through the turnstiles, win or lose, the situation has not been grave in proportion with other ball clubs.

Not that fans wouldn't stream to Briggs Stadium in greater numbers if the Tigers were 13-4 instead of 4-13 in the exhibition series, but even in the second division the Detroit franchise hasn't been forced to dust its seats from game to game.

The question is, how long will this last? Right now when the change of administration has been a persistent rumor with the Tigers, the Detroit club would do well to remember the Pittsburgh situation.

PITTSBURGH IS AN EXAMPLE

Pirate fans, once the most faithful in the National League, are no longer swallowing the promises of Branch Rickey.

★ ★ ★ ★

Rickey may have impressed St. Louis and Brooklyn fans during his stay in each city, but Pittsburgh diehards aren't throwing any laurels his way.

He might have won the hearts of some Pittsburghers with some compensation at home plate after the sale of Ralph Kiner, but his five year plan has cost the club over two-and-quarter million dollars and about 500,000 fans at the gate each year.

Maybe fans in other cities are asking," why should Pittsburgh fans be so angry, Kiner never won the pennant for them?" In fact the first division was something of a novelty.

★ ★ ★ ★

Well it would be the same if Detroit suddenly got rid of Kaline or Kuenn. The Tigers aren't winning any pennants with them but they are without doubt the fans' favorites.

Could you possibly imagine what would have been the reaction if Detroit had sold Kuenn a few weeks ago because he was a holdout?

The Pittsburgh picture provided a good example. The Tigers need a few trades or the gate at Briggs Stadium will be as sour as the Grapefruit League standing.

ROCK AND ROLL — This actually is action in a boxing match between Pvts. James Smith, left, and James Small at Fort Riley, Kans. Small won a decision as close as this clinch.

Kobs Ejected in MSU Loss

Umpire's Ruling Starts Argument as Marine 9 Beats Spartans, 6-5

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (AP)—An umpire's ruling helped the Parris Island Marines squeeze past Michigan State, 6-5, in a ball game here yesterday.

* * *

Star pitcher Bill Mills and MSU coach John Kobs were chased in the eighth inning after an argument that started when the umpires ruled that Mills had to be removed because Kobs had gone to the mound twice in the same half inning.

The Marines scored three times in the 9th off Ed Hobaugh, who relieved Mills. The markers came on four hits, a walk and the only Spartan error of the game.

* * *

Al Luce belted a homer for MSU in the 7th with one man on base.

Maple Leafs Prolong Red Wing Bid, 2-0

TORONTO (AP) — A desperate bid for survival has propelled the Toronto Maple Leafs into a 5th game of the Stanley Cup semi-finals. They dumped the tough Detroit Red Wings on their padded pants last night with a 2-0 victory that prevented the Wings from sweeping the best-of-seven series in four games.

The 5th engagement is scheduled for Detroit tomorrow night. The Wings still are hot favorites to wrap it up, thus getting the dubious privilege of meeting the Montreal Canadiens for the Stanley Cup.

Everything was against the leafs last night. They had to win or get out for another year. They had to buck Detroit's uncanny late-game bursts that beat them in the first three games. They also had to reckon with Glenn Hall, a rookie who promises to become one of Wings' greatest goaltenders.

The Leafs beat them all and it was largely a team production. But there was one outstanding man netminder Harry Lumley. He turned back the Wings with unbelievable stops, handling a total of 33 drives.

Team captain Sid Smith, who sent the Leafs into a 2-0 lead early in the 3rd period, summed it up this way:

"We gave Lumley some good protection for a change. He gave us some fantastic goaltending."

Rookie center Billy Harris, scored the first goal at 10:58 of the second period. He picked up Earl Balfour's rebound off the backboards and rammed a short shot behind Hall. It was his first Stanley Cup playoff goal.

The 12,918 customers, many of whom had seen Wings edge Leafs 5-4 in overtime in the 3rd game last Saturday, went into a frenzy, sensing it was the Leafs' night.

They were right. Smith, 30-year-old left winger who deteriorated into a so-so forward during the season after all-star rating in 1954-55, scored the clincher at 3:15 of the third period.

He did it with the old Smith flair. Stepping from the Toronto bench to take a regular turn, he grabbed a pass from right winger Ron Stewart, and closed in on Hall. He forced Hall to make a move before he flipped the puck into the net.

Hall had no chance on either goal. On the first, his vision was obscured by Detroit center Alex Delvecchio, who was parked in front of the net. He was at the mercy of Smith on the 2nd goal. All told, Hall made 30 saves.

BLOCKS TORONTO SHOT — Detroit goalie Glenn Hall blocks a shot fired by Ron Hurst of the Toronto Maple Leafs behind Marcel Pronovost (3). The Leafs won the game 2-0 to send the series into the 5th game at Detroit tomorrow.

AAU Mat Meet Enters Finals

Prospects for Olympic Team Expected From Wrestling Tourney

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—The Amateur Athletic Union's National Free-Style Wrestling Tournament, which is expected to furnish several members of this year's U.S. Olympic team, was in its championship rounds today.

* * *

It already had named one new winner—114.5-pound Dick Delgado, University of Oklahoma sophomore representing the Norman Sooner AC, and had reached the final round-robin eliminations for titles in four other weight divisions.

* * *

A few more matches were needed to determine the three finalists at 136.5, 147.5 and 160.5 pounds. But at 125, 174, 191 and heavy weight, the athletes were ready to grapple for the championship and runner-up honors that mean qualifying for the final Olympic trials April 28-May 5 at Hollywood, Calif.

* * *

Delgado, who recaptured the championship he won in 1954 while at the San Diego Naval Training Center, nabbed his crown in the fourth round with a fourth straight fall.

Jones Injured

Newcomb Beans Philly

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies faced the prospect today of starting the National League pennant chase for the second consecutive year without the services of a key player—this time third baseman Willie Jones.

Jones was beaned by pitcher Don Newcombe of the Brooklyn Dodgers in an exhibition game yesterday and while X-rays showed no fracture, Willie faced a possible prolonged hospital stay.

Newcombe shouted: "Look out, Willie," but Jones couldn't get out of the way of what Newcombe said was "a fast ball that slipped out of my fingers." Jones crumpled at the plate, bleeding from the left ear. He was given first aid and taken to the Phils' dugout where he lapsed into unconsciousness.

The X-rays taken later at Morton Plant Hospital were negative but doctors reported they hadn't determined the cause of the bleeding and that further tests were to be made.

Observers said it appeared likely that Jones would miss the rest of the exhibition season and the question of just when he would be able to suit up again was uppermost in the minds of Manager Mayo Smith and his teammates.

Chicago Sail Boat Wins Juhncke Cup

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — H. P. Williams of Chicago, winner of the Jahncke Cup series for Star Class Sail Boats, prepared today for the Western Hemisphere Sailing Championships.

The Western Hemisphere series begins tomorrow on Lake Pontchartrain, site of the Jahncke cup series.

Williams finished 5th, 2nd and 3rd in the three Jahncke cup races. He had a total of 138 points, 12 more than runnerup John Todd of Easton, Md.

Wojey Figured Good Chance to Stay as Tiger

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Pitcher Pete Wojey, at 33 one of the oldest rookies in spring training, appears to have a better than even chance of sticking with the Detroit Tigers this season.

Wojey had a brief trial with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1954 and has been in organized ball since 1941. So far this spring he has been effective.

Wojey came to the Tigers from Montreal during the winter. He's a righthander with a tendency to be wild.

Birmingham Babe Ruth Tryouts Set

Tryouts for Birmingham's Babe Ruth League will begin April 21st, it was announced by president W. R. Barrett.

The league which consists of five teams begins its regular season June 11th.

Boys between 13 and 15 are eligible to tryout for the teams. They must reside within the school district of Birmingham.

Last year 75 boys played on the five teams, but in order to extend participation to at least 150 youngsters, the league this year is planning a farm system.

Rather than ask sponsorship of a complete team, the league is accepting individual contributions this year.

Olympic Cager Added

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (INS)—The U. S. Olympic Basketball Committee announced today that John McCarthy of Canisius College will replace Joe Holup of George Washington on the college team that will represent this country in tryouts at Kansas City.

Montreal Routs Rangers, 7-0; Now Wait for Wings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Montreal's National Hockey League champions, after hustling past New York in their semi-final series, now have only to play a waiting game while Detroit and Toronto settle their dispute about who will meet the classy Canadiens in the finals of the Stanley Cup playoffs.

* * *

The Flying Frenchmen overpowered New York at Montreal in a brilliant 7-0 display last night to eliminate the Rangers 4-1 in their best-of-seven series and gain their sixth straight final berth.

New York Coach Phil Watson, who had fired the Rangers into their first playoffs since 1950, didn't discredit his crew a bit after the final walloping. "The Canadiens are a great team," he said, "and it's hard to stop them, with all their scorers."

* * *

Defenseman Doug Harvey, rookie Henri (Pocket Rocket) Richard and Dickie Moore each popped in a pair of goals in last night's rout. Jean Beliveau, the leading scorer in regular season play, got the other goal—his fifth in the five games.

Maurice (Rocket) Richard, Henri's big brother who scored three times in the series opener but hasn't scored since, triggered the rout with five assists. That tied the single-game playoff record set by Toe Blake of Montreal, now the Canadiens' coach, against Toronto in 1944.

* * *

The closing rush, capped by four second period goals, came at the expense of Gordie Bell, the one-time NHL castoff who was in the Ranger nets in place of regular Lorne Worsley in a last-ditch New York effort.

Lincoln Downs Still Trying to Resume Racing

LINCOLN, R.I. (AP)—Despite forecasts of snow and rain, Lincoln Downs will make its fourth attempt to resume racing today.

The track has lost 10 straight racing days and 11 of its first 21 due to three blizzards which buried the course in snow.

If the weatherman permits, the card will be the same as that scheduled for last Saturday, including the $10,000 Bill McAuley Handicap exclusively for 3-year-olds over the 7-furlong sprint distance.

Tigers Reject Offer

A's Will Trade—for Tuttle

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Unless the Detroit Tigers decide their second base problem is serious enough to trade away centerfielder Bill Tuttle it appeared today that any immediate trade with Kansas City is out.

General Manager Herold (Muddy) Ruel huddled with Arnold Johnson, owner of the Athletics, yesterday while the Tigers were bowing to the A's, 7-2. The conference broke up with no definite decisions. But it was understood Johnson was looking for a center fielder in exchange for a surplus second baseman or heavy hitting but slow footed Gus Zernial.

The Tigers have said they aren't considering parting with any of their first line infield or outfield talent.

They had hoped to pick up either Jim Finigan or Spook Jacobs from the A's. Both are accomplished second basemen and they managed two hits apiece yesterday as the Tigers bowed for the 13th time in 17 spring starts.

Ruel said Johnson seemed indifferent to a deal.

"I left him feeling the chances of getting anywhere were slim," Ruel said.

The general manager came right out and admitted that "we have to make some kind of a move, and I'm not going to sit around waiting for Kansas City to make up its mind."

* * *

The main flaw in that statement, is that almost nobody else has a spare 2nd baseman, with the possible exception of the New York Yankees.

The Tigers were held to a mere two hits—both singles—in yesterday's loss. Charlie Maxwell got a clean single to center in the 2nd inning and Earl Torgeson was credited with a hit on a scratchy roller down the 3rd base line in the 3rd inning.

Both of the Detroit runs came without hits. The A's had hits to spare. They got 15 off the combined offerings of starter Paul Foytack, Bob Tiefenauer, Joe Coleman and Jim Stump. Three Tiger errors, a passed ball and a wild pitch contributed to the Kansas City scoring.

* * *

The Tigers meet Kansas City again tomorrow and then face the A's in Briggs Stadium on opening day, April 17.

Today the Tigers came to Clearwater for a meeting with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Begins April 4th

Weekly Clinic on Arms Use

A clinic to instruct youth in the proper and safe use of rifles, pistols, and shotguns will be held Wednesday evenings, starting April 4, and run for six consecutive weeks.

The firearms classes, sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department, will be held at the C. R. Haskill Studio, 1 Mt. Clemens St.

Junior High school boys are scheduled to receive instruction each week from 6:30 to 8 p.m., followed by high school boys from 8 to 9:30.

John Zolman, Haskill's range master, and his assistant are in charge of the clinic. Both are well-qualified instructors in the handling of firearms.

Safety is of the utmost importance at all sessions and will be stressed repeatedly.

Advance registration for the program is necessary. The class limit for each group is 10 boys.

A fee of $2.50 will be charged to cover the cost of ammunition and targets. The fee is to be paid at the time of registration on a first come-first served basis.

All rifles, ammunition, targets, and other equipment will be furnished.

Registration and further information is available at the Parks and Recreation Department, 35 S. Parke St., FEderal 3-7131.

Archie Moore Gets Decision

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) —Howard King will agree that Archie Moore is a world's champ.

The Reno heavyweight, for the second time within a month, took it on the chin, chest and every other legal spot last night, in a nontitle fight that hardly had Moore, the lightheavy king, sweating at the end of the 10th and final round.

The champ, preparing for a June 5 London title defense against Yolande Pompey, has some sweating to do. He weighed in at 191, three pounds heavier than King. The light heavy limit is 175.

Wily Archie, taking it easy and boxing beautifully, dropped his younger opponent in the second and fifth, both for eight counts. The standing-room only crowd of 4,100 in Memorial Auditorium gave the champ a rousing ovation at the final bell.

The champ's next non-title fight is scheduled for Salt Lake City April 19. His opponent has not been selected.

JONES GETS BEANED — Philadelphia Philly infielder, Willie Jones, is downed by a pitch thrown by Brooklyn Dodger pitcher Don Newcombe in the game against the Dodgers yesterday. Bending over Jones is Dodger catcher Charley Thompson (21) and Newcombe. It happened in the 5th inning of their game. The Dodgers won 6-2.

$105,000 Suit Dismissed

NFL Clause Affirmed

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The U.S. Court of Appeals has affirmed the National Football League's players' reserve clause in upholding the dismissal by a lower court of a $105,000 suit brought against the NFL and the Detroit Lions by William Radovich, a former Lions guard.

Radovich played with the Lions from 1938 to 1941 and again in 1945. He later signed with the Los Angeles Dons of the old All-American Conference.

Afterward, when he tried to return to the Lions, they refused him on grounds he had broken his contract when he went to the Dons because he had violated the reserve clause which ties players to the club.

Radovich, who lives in Hollywood, sued the NFL and the Lions charging the reserve clause violates the anti-trust laws.

* * *

The suit has been in court since 1949.

In April, 1954, Federal District Judge George B. Harris, on the motion of the NFL, dismissed the complaint, saying the court lacked jurisdiction and that Radovich had failed to state a cause of action.

Harris acted following a U.S. Suprme Court decision in the Toolson vs. New York Yankees case, in which the high court held that baseball did not come under provisions of the anti-trust laws because Congress has not intended baseball to do so.

The court of appeals said yesterday "it seems reasonable to us to assume that if congressional indulgence extended to and saved baseball from regulation, then the indulgence extended to other team sports . . ."

Fort Wayne, Philadelphia After NBA Championships

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

St. Louis and Fort Wayne, knotted in a hot battle that already has led to fisticuffs, take their playoff for the National Basketball Assn.'s Western title into the fifth and final game tomorrow night while Philadelphia can lock up the Eastern crown at Syracuse tonight.

Fort Wayne's Pistons came bustling back to square their best-of-five semifinal by defeating the Hawks at St. Louis 93-84 last night. The Warriors, meanwhile, gained a 2-1 edge over Syracuse at Philadelphia by trouncing the Nationals 119-96.

The Pistons, who lost the first two games of the playoff, paired free-throw excellence with George Yardley's 30-point sniping to pull even with the Hawks in a game that was interrupted by flaring tempers.

The final game in the Western playoff is set for Fort Wayne tomorrow.

Byars TKO's Murphy

BOSTON (AP)—Walter Byars—boxer turned tiger—is a fast-rising welterweight with an eye on a match with Tony DeMarco.

Byars defended his New England welter crown by knocking down Bobby Murphy five times for a technical knockout at 2:23 of the fifth round last night at the Arena.

Olympic Choice

Little College Player Goes Amid Big Boys

NEW YORK (AP)—Bill Reigel, the only small college player chosen for the college Oympic basketball squad, already has acquired a healthy respect for the size of his teammates but isn't over - awed by their reputations.

* * *

Reigel, who set all sorts of scoring records of McNeese State College in Louisiana this season, is here to play in the Fresh Air Fund East-West All-Star game in Madison Square Garden Saturday. He got his first look at the All-Stars, including 13 other Olympic candidates, yesterday and his reaction was: "Gosh, they're big."

Reigel is a slim, modest, easily-embarrassed kid from Monaca, Pa., who wound up playing basketball in Louisiana after a hitch in the Army. He thinks being chosen as one of 14 college seniors to try for the Olympic team is about the greatest honor that could be bestowed on him.

* * *

At 6-5, Bill has to look up to such players as his West teammates, 6-10 Bill Russell of San Francisco and 6-8 Gary Bergen of Utah, and Dayton's 7-foot Bill Uhl, who will play against him for the East.

* * *

"I never saw so many big fellows," he gasped. "At McNeese we played mostly small colleges in our area. But I played my freshman year at Duquesne and my sophomore year at Duke, so I know something about the bigger schools. I don't think I'm exactly moving out of my class, but I'll have to jump a lot to get shots over these fellows."

Grand Rapids Stadium Future Business Site

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The Grand Rapids Stadium, an official said today, soon will be leased to an eastern mercantile firm which plans to convert it into a cut-rate shopping center.

The firm was unidentified.

Phil Simon, president of the Stadium Corp., said the future of the Grand Rapids Rockets hockey team still is to be decided.

Trout Project Gets Approval

Montana Agrees to Sale of Grayling Eggs for State Re-establishment

LANSING—A project which will attempt to establish Montana grayling trout in certain Michigan waters has been approved by the Conservation Commission.

The project was initiated by a newspaper offer of $1,000 toward the re-establishment of grayling, which have been extinct in Michigan for more than 20 years.

Conservation Department fish specialists strongly doubt that fishable populations of grayling will ever exist again in state waters, but think a small stock can be maintained for historical purposes.

The State of Montana has agreed to sell grayling eggs to Michigan for the project. Fish division workers will study various northern lakes to determine the most suitable location for grayling plantings.

More Wild Turkeys Slated for Release

LANSING—Michigan's wild turkey restoration program will continue this year with new releases of the big birds planned for this summer.

Some 400 turkey eggs will be shipped from Pennsylvania for hatching at the Conservation Department's game farm at Mason. The birds will be released in wild areas when they are 12 to 14 weeks old. A site for the new releases has not been selected.

A January census of the birds showed 118 turkeys in Allegan county, with 16 individual flocks reported. Best results were recorded in Newago county where 35 of the 79 originally-released turkeys were counted in January. Success in Lake county has been lower, with only 13 of 73 released birds sighted.

NOT QUITE READY — These Beagle pups won't be quite ready but they'll watch their parents in the annual Spring Derby of Beagle clubs which will hold their trials at the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club April 7-8. Holding the pups are Charles Chapman (left) and Jerry Rustem, members of the board of directors of the OCSC.

Trapping Dates Are Announced

LANSING—The March 20-31 season will be observed in all areas of the lower peninsula open to beaver and otter trapping except in northeastern counties where a March 25-April 7 season will be in effect.

• • •

In the upper peninsula, beavers and otters may be trapped from April 1 to 19 in western counties and in the northern part of eastern areas. An April 1-13 season will be in effect in the remainder of the U. P.

Winners Announced in Coon Dog Trials

The Pioneer Coon Hunting Association's annual coon dog trials were staged Sunday at the Groveland Township Grange Hall near Ortonville.

Mike, owned by H. Carter of Belleville, was the 1st line winner and paid $39. Lonzo, owned by C. Sower of Farmington, won the 2nd line and brought $36, and Sugar Cane, owned by Vic Vozel of Ferndale, took 3rd line and paid $25.

Sugar Cane won the 1st tree race to pay $39; Homer, owned by Ira Hollin of Detroit, took the second tree event to bring $36; and Dancer, owned by D. Negus of Jackson, won the 3rd tree race and paid $25.

Deer Prey for Dogs

LANSING, (AP) — Northern Michigan owners were urged today to restrain dogs which state conservation officials said have been taking a heavy toll of winter-weakened deer.

Water Sports May Have Highest Peak This Year

By JACK PATTERSON

The year 1956 may or may not be outstanding in many directions, but in one, the recreational use of waterways, it can't miss an all time high.

Manufacturers are overlooking few bets in their attempts to get all Americans on, under or above the water.

The list of available surface craft is virtually limitless. Power to go with them ditto—from lightweight Diesels to air-drive and water-jet propulsion.

Water skiing, which has been gaining in popularity each season will compete this year with a boat-towed, powerless helicopter.

• • •

Big trend in outboarding is toward off-shore stuff for bigwater (and big fish) work and toward sleep-aboard, live-aboard cruising types.

PATTERSON

If surface activity falls, the underwater venturer has available, in addition to a variety of safe breathing devices and swimming aids, two types of submarines and at least one electric-powered sub-surface "sled" to take the work out of undersea cruising and, more important, save air.

Improved underwater camera and flash equipment are available to the photographer.

If a captive helicopter doesn't satisfy the urge to get off the water, better get your order in early for floats for the family plane.

• • •

Actually, this interest in water sports is nothing new, although some of the forms it takes are.

The automobile age interrupted for awhile the orderly development of water activities, which had become extremely popular by the beginning of this century.

Now that driving can no longer be confused with pleasure, a return to relatively uncrowded waterways is a natural. The cycle is complete.

Another cycle which has run its course is showing up in a current rash of articles by outdoor writers on the virtue of spun fur bodies for wet flies and nymphs.

Spun fur was long the only body material acceptable to academicians. Then, as synthetic materials with certain desirable qualities such as translucency became available, the exact-imitation school took over.

Exact imitations looked swell. They looked alive. They were wonderful in all respects but one. They didn't catch fish. So now we're back to the good old days.

Otter fur is one of the best for rubbing on a waxed thread. It is translucent and "alive." Trouble is the otters around here move so fast we have difficulty getting a clutch of fur.

Maybe the best bet is to put the snatch on the Easter Bunny and help him shed a little. Actually, rabbit fur spins quite well and the stupid trout we catch wouldn't know the difference anyway.

Hunting Fatalities Higher Last Year

LANSING, (AP) — Michigan small game and deer hunting fatalities were up again last year as accidents killed 25 persons and wounded 200 others.

The comparable 1954 figures were 19 killed and 230 wounded. However, the 1954 death toll was six below the average of the preceding four years.

The State Conservation Department reported this week that the fatality rate and the ratio of deaths to injuries was higher during the firearms and archery deer seasons.

With about 425,000 sportsmen in the field, 10 persons were killed and 42 wounded. In the small game seasons which attracted 728,000 hunters, 15 persons were killed and 158 wounded.

The department blamed careless gun-handling for many of the accidents.

Spring Derby on April 7-8

The Oakland County Sportmen's Club will be host to the Northern Association of Beagle Clubs on Saturday and Sunday, April 7-8, for the annual Spring Derby.

Major plans are under way for the popular dog trials by the OCSC's Beagle Committee. The show will be held at the club's field trial grounds at the Sashabaw Ranch.

Beagle enthusiasts from 35 to 40 clubs throughout Michigan and Ontario will bring upwards of 150 young dogs for the Spring Derby trials.

Numerous beaglers who have run their dogs at the Sashabaw Ranch proclaim its facilities among the best in the state.

The Beagler's banquet will be held Saturday night in the OCSC clubhouse, with 300 persons expected. A dance follows the dinner.

OCSC Riflemen Defeat Windsor

Firing an actual score of 956 and a handicap total of 1020, the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club rifle team defeated the Windsor squad in its final league match of the season Sunday at the OCSC range.

Nancy Newman was the OCSC's high actual shooter with a score of 195, followed by Jane Martini with 192, Robert Waggoner with 191, and Frank Brusha and John Treeful with 189 each.

Martini and Waggoner were tops in handicap shooting with 205 apiece. Newman and John Strasser each scored 204 while Sheldon Roth hit 202.

• • •

The Windsor riflemen scored 888 in actual shooting and 1002 in handicap. The losers were led by C. Ouellette with 188 and R. Lawson with 216.

Lightburn Favorite Against L. C. Morgan

CLEVELAND (AP) — Those who feel they know enough about boxing to bet money on it were wagering today that the speed and experience of Ludwig Lightburn will prevail over the harder punching of L. C. Morgan in tonight's 10-rounder at the Arena.

The 21-year-old lightweights are meeting here for the second time. Morgan was favored six months ago when he lost a split decision in an eight-rounder. Today the odds were 2-1 on Lightburn.

Ernie White, new manager of the Nashville Vols of the Southern Assn., is putting in his 20th season in organized baseball. Only one of his teams has finished in the second division.

Matchmaker McCoy Finds Witnesses

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Matchmaker Babe McCoy, so-called czar of boxing in Southern California and a target for much of the testimony to date, found a champion today as the governor's committee resumed its investigation of the sport in the state.

* * *

McCoy, of the Olympic Auditorium, was not expected to resume his appearance on the witness stand until later in the week, because of poor health. But Chief Investigator James J. Cox summoned Willie Ginzberg, another "leg man" for the portly matchmaker.

McCoy's support came from Mrs. Aileen Eaton, manager of the Olympic and wife of the promoter, Cal Eaton, for whom McCoy works.

* * *

Mrs. Eaton, in a voluntary appearance at the hearing late yesterday, declared that McCoy could not possibly have been involved in a series of alleged fixed fights, "most of which were held far out of this state, in New York or Philadelphia or some other odd place."

* * *

She testified under oath after Eaton, whose son is married to Gov. Knight's daughter, pleaded that she be given a chance to refute testimony given the day before by a former heavyweight, Watson Jones.

Jones testified he had been in four "tank fights" and he involved McCoy in three of them. During the course of his testimony he observed that he had been "robbed" by both Mrs. Eaton and McCoy of purse money.

* * *

Mrs. Eaton denied the accusation and declared that "by conservative estimate, Mr. Eaton and I have given Watson Jones at least $1,000 since he quit fighting."

She then told the committee that only last week Jones had telephoned and told her he had been threatened with jail unless he "said some bad things about Babe McCoy."

* * *

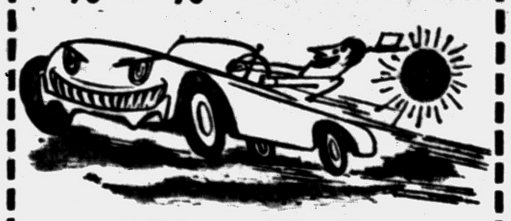

Jones, she continued, told her two "policemen" had taken him from his job to the state building and "tried to force him to testify against McCoy."

She said she told Jones just to tell the truth, that McCoy had nothing to hide.

"Someone," said Mrs. Eaton, "must have gotten to him after that."

Defending Titlist Bows Out of ABC

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—A new singles champion will be crowned in the 53rd annual American Bowling Congress Tournament.

Eddie Gerzine of Milwaukee, Wis., who took the title in Fort Wayne last year with a 738, lost his chance to repeat yesterday by shooting a low 589.

Tony Sparando of Rego Park, N.Y., still led the division with 719.

None of yesterday's entries succeeded in breaking into the top five of the four divisions.

Bill Lillard and Stan Gifford of Chicago, Ill., held their doubles lead with 1,331; Lillard topped the all-events division with 2,018; and Falstaff Beer of Chicago, headed the team division with 3,092.

Aragon Scores in 9th

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) —Art Aragon, 148, Los Angeles, connected with a crunching right and two peppery lefts to score a ninth round knockout Tuesday night over Danny Giovanelli, 149, Brooklyn, N.Y., in a scheduled 10-rounder at the Legion Stadium.

GRAPEFRUIT League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Considering that the Pittsburgh Pirates put together the best record among major league teams last spring, there's no reason for the St. Louis Cardinals to rejoice because they're making a juicy showing in the Grapefruit League.

But the fact is that the Cards, woefully weak in pitching the past few years, are getting loads of good chucking in the exhibition games. They've won 11 games and lost 7 for the best spring mark among National League teams.

* * *

Luis Arroyo and Tom Poholsky each have picked up two victories. The others went to Vinegar Bend Mizell, Larry Jackson, Ellis Kinder, Ben Flowers, Stu Miller, Harvey Haddix and Gary Blaylock.

Yesterday Arroyo got the win as the Cards nipped the Milwaukee Braves 2-1. The St. Louis trip, Mizell, Arroyo and Kinder, limited the Braves to only two hits. The Cards picked up the winning run in the seventh on singles by Joe Cunningham and Bill Virdon and an infield out.

The White Sox were knocked out of the lead yesterday, by dropping a 7-2 decision to the Red Sox. Jim Piersall paced a late Boston rally, driving in three of the four runs the Red Sox scored in the seventh and eighth innings.

In other games, the Dodgers beat the Phillies 6-2, the Pirates downed the Redlegs 5-4, the Cubs outslugged the Giants 13-10, the Athletics dumped Detroit 7-2 and Cleveland nipped Baltimore 8-7.

Yanks Huddle With Senators About Due Debt

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — President Calvin Griffith of the Washington Senators huddles today with General Manager George Weiss of the New York Yankees. Object: A transfusion for the Senators.

New York still owes Washington one player as a result of the Feb. 9 deal which sent Mickey McDermott and Bob Kline to New York for five Yankees.

Speculation was that the Senators will collect an outfielder.

AHOY! — While semaphoring the not-too-distant approach of swimming weather—using palm fronds as flags — Diane Williams at Miami Beach shows to best advantage the new white sharkskin lastex sheath. It features a removable halter and a "dog collar" of shiny gold sequins which, while completely adaptable for patios and cocktails, should, for the sake of practicability, be removed before plunging into the briny. Doffing the collar changes Nettie's new creation into a completely swimmable tank suit.

Naguib Nears Freedom

Former Leader of Egypt to Be Freed in Midsummer

CAIRO (INS)—Maj. Gen. Mohammed Naguib, post-revolutionary premier and first president of the Egyptian Republic, who has been held under house arrest for 16 months, will be freed by July.

A government source told INS that Naguib would by midsummer be "free to come and go as he pleases."

The former premier has been under what the government officially describes as "house confinement" since November, 1954, when he was accused of participating in a plot to assassinate his successor Lt. Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser.

Naguib was president at the time, having been promoted by the revolutionary council from premier to the largely ceremonial job to make way for Nasser.

ABOUT 1,200 TO BE FREED

In a weekend interview in the London Observer, Nasser announced that all persons detained for political reasons would be released in July when the new Egyptian constitution becomes effective.

Nasser later told Egyptian reporters that the total of political arrests was about 1,200.

The government source told INS, however, that persons imprisoned as Communists would not be included in the government amnesty. The number of Communists in jail never has been revealed officially but reliable estimates place the number at about 1,000.

Naguib, who is 55 and was fondly known as "papa" during the height of his post-revolutionary popularity, has been confined in his palatial country home at El Marg, 25 miles from Cairo. His wife and children live with him.

Armed guards patrol the 200-acre estate 24 hours a day. No visitors are allowed.

NASSER FEELS SECURE

The Naguib farm was confiscated by the government from Zeinar Nahass, wife of the Egyptian premier under King Farouk who was tried for corruption by the revolutionary command court.

Nasser apparently feels his personal position now is so strong that he no longer considers Naguib a dangerous rival.

After Nasser escaped an assassination attempt in Alexandria in October, 1954, Naguib was accused of abetting a revolt plotted by the outlawed fanatical Moslem brotherhood.

Foreign correspondents have been turned down in all attempts to interview Naguib and even attempts to drive near the farm have been stopped by armed guards.

Lawmaker Punished for Error of Spouse

DENVER (INS)—Colorado State Rep. Fred T. McLaughlin (R), Basalt, a law-observant motorist, couldn't understand it when Denver police padlocked his car at the Colorado state capitol.

The representative went down to police headquarters, protesting that he never in his life had been ticketed for a traffic violation.

Police produced a citation showing that McLaughlin's wife Katherine had failed to pay $15 in fines for running a red light nearly a year ago.

Valuation for '56 Up

MUSKEGON (AP)—City Assessor Harold D. Baker says Muskegon's assessed valuation for 1956 tax purposes should top $125,000,000, a gain of nearly $3,000,000 over last year.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

Jail's Record Saved

MAYSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Mason County jail's 76-year-old record of no escapes is still intact today. City, county and state police combined forces last night, pulled a surprise raid and confiscated 4 hacksaw blades, 3 knives and found some of the bars partially sawed. The inmates acted very much surprised at the sudden intrusion and denied any knowledge of a planned break or how the blades got there. Officials declined comment.

Pavan, Aumont Wedding Day Features Tieups

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The wedding day of Italian actress Marisa Pavan and French actor Jean Pierre Aumont was hectic.

The bride lost her diamond engagement ring just before taking off this morning for an Hawaiian honeymoon.

• • •

The diamond and another family heirloom ring Aumont had given her were lost in the powder room of San Francisco International Airport, the bride told police.

Pan American's midnight flight for Honolulu was delayed an hour while police organized a search but failed to find the ring. The distressed couple departed on the plane with police assurance investigation would continue.

The actor and actress were married yesterday morning in Santa Barbara in the chamber of Municipal Judge Frank P. Kearney. But first a clerk had to hustle back to the license bureau office where they had forgotten the marriage license.

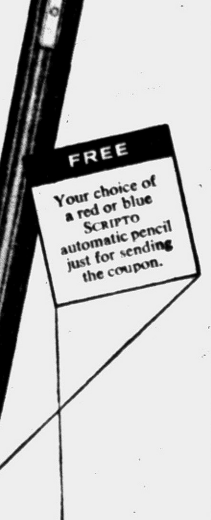

Aumont gave his age as 44, Miss Pavan 23.

Expect OK on Budget

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The Kent County Board of Supervisors tentative budget committee this week is expected to approve a record 1957 budget of more than $3,000,000 and submit it to the board for approval.

Michigan is said to have more than 6,000 inland lakes.

GOP Hopes Single Ballot Will Be Williams' Downfall

By JACK BELL

DETROIT (AP)—Michigan Republicans are hoisting their hopes of defeating Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams on President Eisenhower's name and a single state ballot next November.

* * *

"UPHILL BATTLE"

But in a perhaps more realistic appraisal of the state situation, State Chairman John Feikens says the Republican organization is going to put up "a strong, uphill battle against Williams."

* * *

"The base of popular support for President Eisenhower which exists in Michigan may be the secret weapon which knocks off Williams," he said.

He said he thinks the Democratic governor signed his political "death warrant" when he signed a bill combining the state and national ballots. The Republicans themselves separated state and national ballots when the late Franklin D. Roosevelt was sweeping national elections and carrying state Democrats into office with him.

* * *

Fortified with four victories in governorship contests — including a 253,000 margin in his latest run in 1954 — Williams says the consolidated ballot is likely to cost him "a few votes" in his fifth try. But he does not discount the appeal of the Eisenhower name in Michigan.

NATIONAL VIEW

"It is very difficult to say," he said, "whether the President can be beaten in Michigan, but he can —and I think he will — be beaten nationally."

* * *

Sen. McNamara (D-Mich) said he thinks Vice President Nixon, who appears likely to be Eisenhower's running mate again, will hurt the GOP ticket. He said that while Eisenhower's health won't be the principal issue, "the man in the street is more conscious about the health and age of candidates than he ever has been before."

* * *

Potter said he thinks that if the Democrats stress the health issue "the people will feel it is in bad taste and react against it." He said he figures the Eisenhower name will be worth 100,000 votes to the Michigan Republican candidate for governor, who hasn't been chosen yet.

FARMERS EYED

The big question mark in Michigan, however, centers around how the farmers are going to vote. They may well play a deciding role in the November outcome.

* * *

Organized labor, particularly in the state's automobile plants, is regarded as drifting back into the Democratic camp. Many union members voted for Eisenhower in 1952.

* * *

Republicans contend they will get a fair share of this vote. But if there is a serious defection among the state's farmers—about a third of whom work 40 hours weekly in an industrial plant and farm on the side—even Eisenhower could be in trouble in Michigan.

Wants U.S. to Loan $1 Billion to India

HONOLULU (AP)—Dr. Neil S. Jacoby, economic adviser to President Eisenhower, says the United States should loan one billion dollars to India, without strings and on a long-term basis.

* * *

Jacoby is on the President's Council of Economic Advisers and is dean of the University of California at Los Angeles School of Business Administration. He recently spent two months in India at that government's invitation.

Speaking to the Pacific and Asian Affairs Council, he said India is trying to walk a middle road between communism and capitalism.

He cited illiteracy, religious friction, the caste system and language barriers as some of the main problems in India—a nation of 400 million people with a per capita income of $50.

Glaciers in Europe Continuing to Melt

VIENNA—Glaciers in the European Alps have been melting steadily for about 100 years, Austrian scientist assert. Figures to prove it are advanced by the "Alpine Research Station of Innsbruck University", popularly know as the "Glacier University."

In their centers the Alpine glaciers are losing about 25 inches in thickness and up to 23 feet at their edges every year. Losses in length amount to 35 to 60 feet annually. The melting is due partly to solar energy and partly to less severe winters.

If all the world's glaciers were to melt the sea level would rise 130 feet and entire areas would disappear, it is estimated.

Sequoia National Park and nearby Kings Canyon National Park in California are the habitat of thousands of mule deer.

Stocks Lower and Irregular

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was irregularly lower in the early afternoon today.

* * *

The pace of trading slowed as prices backed down and was well under yesterday's 2,540,000 shares.

Most price changes in key areas were fractional but some changes went to around 3 points either way.

* * *

Coppers, quite weak yesterday, were narrowly mixed today in moderate trading activity. Aircrafts, higher yesterday, were mixed today. A mixture of gains and losses also was seen in the steels, rubbers, farm implements, airlines and railroads.

There were few features in the list, but there was considerable selectivity in trading.

Underwood, whose name has been linked with International Telephone, added as much as 3 points. Yesterday it retained a fraction of its best gain of better than 4 points. The switch came as officials of the two companies threw cold water on merger rumors.

Babcock & Wilcox, up 3 points yesterday at 122, gained between 3 and 4 points today. The company has a hand in development of atomicpowered merchantship plans.

At noon the Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off 20 cents at $189.00. The average yesterday was off $1.10 on the day as weakness in the coppers infected the rest of he market.

The stock market currently is near its record high reached last Friday. It has been advancing steadily for around six weeks, and brokers genrally have anticipated a normal consolidating reaction as a result of the long rise.

Military Honor Guard for Grace and Prince

MONTE CARLO (INS)—Monaco announced today that 160 United States sailors and 300 French soldiers will serve as honor guards at the wedding of Prince Rainier III and actress Grace Kelly next month.

An official statement added that American and French military bands will play during the festivities.

The newlyweds, it was decided, will drive through the streets in an open car immediately after the religious ceremony in the cathedral on April 19 before returning to the palace.

Two Jets Explode, Three Men Killed

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — An Air Force B47 exploded and crashed three miles northeast of Wichita today. Three men were reported killed.

Officials at McConnell Air Force Base said the plane had been identified as a B47 but not as one attached to that base.

PERRY, N. Y. (AP)—A jet plane exploded last night and a training plane crashed into it as it burned. The two fliers in the T33 training plane bailed out safely.

All were Air Force men stationed at Niagara Falls, about 40 air miles west of here.

Okay Name Change for Detroit Company

DETROIT (AP) — "Fenestra, Inc." is the new name of the Detroit Steel Products Co., building products and automotive springs manufacturer.

Stockholders approved the change at their annual meeting yesterday to avoid confusion between the company's former name and Fenestra, the trade name for its steel windows.

Fenestra, Inc., is scheduled to list for trading its common stock on the New York Stock Exchange about April 30, moving from the American Stock Exchange.

The company reported 1955 net earnings of $2,059,117, equal to $3.92 per common share. The figure compared with a 1954 net of $1,921,480 or $3.70 per share.

Grains Lower in Active Mart

CHICAGO (AP) — All grains turned lower on the Board of Trade today after a temporary rally in wheat faded out. Dealings again were very active.

* * *

Wheat opened strong, particularly in the new crop months. Immediately after the opening selling increased, however, and the initial gains were wiped out. Early buying was based on Southwest dust storms.

Corn and soybeans encountered fairly heavy profit-taking from the opening gong but losses did not run very far in either cereal. Oats had an easier undertone while rye followed the action of wheat.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛ to 1⅝ lower, May $2.25½; corn ⅝ to ⅞ lower, May $1.39½; oats unchanged to ¼ lower, May 64⅞; rye unchanged to ¾ lower, May $1.31¼; soybeans ¼ to 1 cent lower, May $2.66½, and lard 3 to 5 cents a hundred pounds lower, May $12.37.

Expert Will Speak on Water Problems

Water resources and problems of Oakland County will be discussed by an expert April 6 at 8:15 in Cranbrook Institute of Science. The talk is open to the public.

Dr. Andrew Mozola, assistant professor of geology at Wayne University, wrote his doctor's thesis on the subject and has worked with the U. S. Geological Survey on the water problems of the Finger Lake district of New York State.

He has published recent studies of water and waste disposal problems of the area, and has cooperated with the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Plan Commission on the subject.

Earnings

NEW YORK (INS)—American Broadcasting-Paramount Theaters, Inc., reports net income for the year ended Dec. 31 of $8,373,373, equal to $1.93 a common share. This compared with $4,931,487, or $1.11 a common share, in the preceding year. Revenues increased to $192,065,065 from $188,795,795 in 1954. Leonard H. Goldenson, president, noted that the ABC Division accounted for all the rise in total income and most of the profit gain. He disclosed that the theater income declined four per cent, reflecting fewer theaters and lack of top quality films during the final three months of 1955.

NEW YORK (INS)—Northrop Aircraft, Inc., announced net income for the six months ended Jan. 31 of $3,394,094, equal to $2.28 a common share. This compared with $6,601,618, or $4.44 a common share, in the same period of the preceding year. Sales declined to $140,243,928 from $145,506,426 the year previous. Whitley C. Collins, president, said that lower delivery price on Scorpion F-89 interceptor planes accounted for the company's drop in earnings. He was optimistic over Northrop's obtaining an Air Force contract for a new long-range interceptor.

NEW YORK (INS)—Combustion Engineering, Inc., reported net income for the year ended Dec. 31 of $5,624,741, equal to $5.33 a common share. This compared with $6,611,408, or $6.27 a common share, in the preceding year. Sales fell off to $133,778,139 from $150,462,174 in 1954. Unfilled orders at the end of 1955 increased to $216,065,000 as against $132,405,000 at the end of the previous year.

NEW YORK (INS)—Corn Products Refining Co. announced net income for the year ended Dec. 31 of $20,462,803, equal to $2.29 a common share. This compared with $16,281,461, or $1.79 a common share, in the preceding year. Sales increased to $290,174,585 from $285,152,477 in 1954. Ernest W. Reid, chairman, attributed the improved earnings to higher profits by foreign subsidiaries and lower corn costs in the final quarter of 1955.

Revive National Auto Show to Highlight Style Changes

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Editor

DETROIT (AP) — It may be more than coincidence that the nation's auto makers should consider the start of the 1957 model year to revive the national automobile show in New York.

It is something of an open secret that 1957 model cars generally will present some of the biggest design changes since World War II. The industry reportedly is spending a billion dollars or more on the 1957 model lines.

The National Auto Show, a tradition in the industry before the war, is the one industry-wide presentation sponsored wholly by the manufacturers.

Lack of adequate display space generally has been given as the reason for discontinuing the national show following the 1940 display. Like many of those immediately preceding it that show was staged in New York's Grand Central Palace. Display space there disappeared when the showrooms were converted into office space.

But New York has a new Coliseum in Columbus Circle. Space has been reserved there for a show that would start on Dec. 8 and continue through Dec. 16.

An international automobile show, featuring the automotive products of six leading nations, will be staged at the Coliseum from April 28 to May 6. Most American producers will have models on display.

A new German car to be known as the "Lloyd" will be unveiled at this show. It is a front-wheel car, which its producers reportedly hopes to put on the American market for about $1,200.

Among questions raised by disclosure that the industry has made plans for a national show this year is whether General Motors would again give its Motorama a New York premiere in January.

Because Motorama has become something of a fixture there has been no suggestion that revival of a national auto show might cause GM to discontinue it. There has been some speculation, however, that the initial presentation of Motorama might be made in some other large city with a New York showing later in the spring.

New York, Miami and Los Angeles already have seen the 1956 Motorama. It currently is showing in San Francisco and moves to Boston on April 19. It has been drawing record-breaking crowds.

A New York showing for Motorama next year probably would be staged at the new Coliseum.

Board to Study Classroom Cost

Company Will Present Pared Figures Tonight, Says Spokesman

A "more favorable" price on eight circular, multi-purpose classrooms, which the city Board of Education hopes to order for elementary schools, will be presented at a special meeting tonight, according to a spokesman for an architectural firm in Detroit.

He said today that meetings of local contractors with representatives of H. E. Beyster and Associates had resulted in "a lot of adjustment on the cost, which seems now to be within reason."

He declined to reveal exact figures which Henry Haberkorn, general manager of the firm, plans to show board members tonight.

The board asked Haberkorn last week to pare down the figures of low bids, after it was discovered that contractors priced construction at $700,000 more than originally planned.

Haberkorn said he believed the greater cost was a result of contractors' unfamiliarity with unusual aspects of the one-story, domed structures, which would house facilities for gym, auditorium, lunch and other school and community activities.

Deadline Extended for State Tax Filing

LANSING (AP)—A 15-day extension has been granted in the time allowed for filing of annual returns for the state business activities and intangibles taxes, the State Revenue Department said today.

* * *

Louis M. Nims, state revenue commissioner, said the deadline has been extended from March 31 to April 16 because so many people make out the state taxes and the federal income tax at the same time.

* * *

Business activities returns are due, Nims said, from all businesses that have a gross income of $20,000 a year or more, including the professions such as doctors, dentists, architects and attorneys.

Intangibles tax returns are due from all persons receiving $580 or more from interest or dividends.

Glider Display to Begin at Henry Ford Museum

The story of powerless flight will be told in an exhibit called "Gliders and Sailplanes," scheduled to open Saturday at the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn for a three-week showing.

Included among the 15 airships will be the "Alibi," 1955 national long distance gliding champion, and the Schweitzer 2-25, a high altitude craft used by the U. S. Air Force for wave and jet stream research.

The museum's display will stress glider history in Michigan which attracted worldwide attention as early as 1896 when Octave Chanute made over 2,000 flights from the sand dunes near Frankfort.

Reds Plan Tree Belt as Guard Against Desert

TOKYO (AP)—A belt of trees 3,000 miles long will be planted across northern China to protect it from the shifting Gobi Desert, Radio Peiping said today.

Some 50 million young trees and seedlings will be planted this spring. By fall the trees will outline a forest belt to "protect the country from shifting sands from the Gobi Desert . . . a menace for some 2,000 years," the broadcast said.

Don't Worry, Pal, We'll Keep the Soo Locks

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—Don't worry, friend Philadelphian. Barring a catastrophe, the famed Soo locks will still be here when you drive up this way next June.

This good news comes from the Chamber of Commerce here. Its tourist department received a letter from a Philadelphian saying there's a rumor that the locks are to be replaced by a bridge.

"We expect to start on a trip to the West, leaving here in June, and want to take in your area, either going or returning if the locks are still there," the letter said.

As a matter of fact, there is a proposal to build a tunnel or a bridge connecting this city with its Canadian neighbor of the same name. Bridge or tunnel, though, the locks are going to stay.

OK Two Contracts for Safety Building

In action at last night's City Commission meeting, two of the last three contracts were approved for the $800,000 Public Safety Building.

The commissioners okayed contracts for the prisoners' elevator for the building with the Detroit Elevator Co. for $23,094, and for the jail section to be constructed by the Pauley Jail Building Co. at $22,284.

Three other contracts were authorized signed at last week's meeting. One more contract, that for $2,125, remains to be approved by the city.

In other action involving the new building, which is to house the municipal courts, police department and fire staff offices, the commissioners amended an ordinance to establish a $400,000 in reserve fund for the building in compliance with the city charter.

Oldsmobile Tops 100,000 in Deliveries for Year

LANSING (AP)—Oldsmobile retailers delivered 12,069 new cars in the second 10 days of March. This brought total sales for the year from Jan. 1 through March 20 to 107,623 cars.

The March 11-20 sales total compares with 13,980 units delivered in the preceding 10-day period. Oldsmobile noted, however, that the first 10-day period had one more selling day than did the second like period.

Flashing Lights May Bring Fight

Businessman Claims Amber Signal OK, Not Confusing

A fight may be brewing in the recent Pontiac police crackdown on advertising gadgets which they say are traffic hazards.

One businessman claims that the amber - colored revolving light which calls attention to his business at 207 W. Montcalm St., "in no sense of the word could be confused with a traffic light."

A. Murray White, head of a building company at that address, said if legal opinion backs him up he will relight the flasher in front of his office and take the case to court if police issue a summons.

White, like three other Pontiac businessmen turned his light off when police alleged last week it was in violation of a state law.

"It's a little unfair," White said today. "There are hundreds of these lights in the state. Why should the Pontiac police crack down after we've had the light up a whole year?"

White said he'd be willing to change the color of the device, but pointed out that flashing red neon signs in front of businesses all over the city are far more distracting to motorists. He added:

"Our light is 25 feet back from the curb and 32 feet in the air, higher than any traffic signal. We took that into consideration when it was installed. We've never had any complaints about it."

Residents Lose Rezoning Fight

Commission Approves Manufacturing Change in Subdivision

An irate group of 35 residents from the city's northwest side last night lost out in thei rfight to block a rezoning in that area, but indicated that they had not given up the struggle.

With Commissioner Floyd P. Miles (District 4) voting against the rezoning, the City Commission adopted an ordinance to rezone to manufacturing 3 lots 145, 146, and 147 of the Dixie Highway Subdivision.

The rezoning was requested by a petition and will permit Louie's Auto Parts at 986 Oakland Ave. to expand in this area. The ordinance becomes effective April 6.

In an hour-long debate before passage, a spokesman for the anit-rezoning said the "people of the area are in a position where they will not let this thing be shoved down their throats."

"I don't know how far we can go but we will go the limit," he added.

Miles said he voted against the rezoning because it would be "moving away from the theory that these car wrecking places should be moved off the main arteries and into another area."

"I wish we could relocate them all in areas that would not be detrimental to surrounding areas," he said.

Brazil is the leading producer of beryllium in the world and exports upwards of $2 million worth a year.

Mexican Red Tape Delays Release

Jail Americans by Mistake in Kennison Murder Case

NOGALES, Sonora, Mexico (AP)—Three young Americans, one of them held in connection with the murder of a well-to-do Detroit couple, spent their fourth day in jail today while lawyers tried to cut through a snarl of Mexican red tape.

The trio were arrested when an immigration official noted one was named Thomas Joseph O'Brien, almost the same name as a Thomas Joseph P. O'Brien. The latter is sought in the fatal shooting of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Kennison of Detroit.

O'Brien, 22, of San Pedro, Calif., was crossing the border with two friends, Phil Ford of Salem, Ore., and Harold McGath of Lakewood, Ore. All three were jailed.

Mexican police soon realized they had made a mistake but Lt. Col. Joaquin Garcia, Nogales chief of police, said he was unable to release the three Americans until he had clearance from Mexico City. He said federal officers had notified him they were en route here from the capital.

SEARCH CONTINUES

Meanwhile, the search continues for the other O'Brien and his friend, William A. Shelton. They have been sought since the Kennisons were found murdered near Ciudad Victoria March 12.

Shelton and O'Brien had leased the motel where the Detroit couple were staying when they were last seen alive. The two men disappeared shortly before the bodies of the Kennisons were found.

DETROIT (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Everett Kennison, who were murdered two weeks ago while vacationing in Mexico, left estates totaling at least $130,000, according to their attorney.

Arthur A. Ude, attorney for the Detroit couple, filed Kennison's will for probate yesterday at the request of the dead man's brother, Adrian Kennison of Evansville, Ind.

Kennison's son and daughter by a previous marriage, Scott, 18, and Patricia, who is over 21, were cut off with one dollar each. They are living with their mother in Minneapolis.

* * *

Kennison left the remainder to his wife, Pauline, with the stipulation that in the event of her death the full amount should go to his brother, Adrian. Ude said it amounted to $80,000. He said Mrs. Kennison left an estate of her own of at least $50,000.

Kennison and his second wife had no children.

Pry Open Juke Box for Loot of $2

A thief who broke into Ted and Kay's Drive-In on the Dixie highway, Waterford Township, broke open the juke box and tried to pry open several other machines early Tuesday morning, Pontiac post State Police said today.

Owner Theodore Michael said the robber picked the wrong time. The juke box had been emptied the previous day, and his loot was about $2.

OUT LIKE A LAMB — The "roaring" pose may be frightening, but the "roar" is nonexistent. This is "Rota," Sir Winston Churchill's famous pet lion that died at the London Zoo. Now stuffed, he will rest quietly as a lamb in the showroom of a London taxidermist.

Electrical Equipment Stolen From Residence

While he was away working, somebody broke into his house on Elsie drive, West Bloomfield Township, and took electrical equipment worth $175, Alex Crawford told Pontiac post State Police.

Entrance was gained through a window, police said. The thief took several coils, condensers and batteries, and a length of tubing.

University of Rhode Island in 1898 offered the first complete course of study in poultry husbandry.

City Commission OKs Ban Against Junk Automobiles

A new city ordinance to license and regulate the storing, wrecking and dismantling of wrecked automobiles within Pontiac was added to the records last night when its adopiton was unanimously approved by the City Commission.

* * *

The ordinance had been a matter of public debate for a month and an hour-long pro and con argument was held at last week's meeting.

The law will require people in the wrecking business to secure a license at a fee of $50 after obtaining the approval of the City Commission. It may be suspended or revoked by the commission for proper cause.

The ordinance will also prihibit junk and waste products from collecting in "any lawn, yard, garden, or premises within the city."

This section will prevent residents from retaining any late model wrecked cars in their yrads that they do not intend to recondition.

A seven foot fence will be required to obliterate the auto wrecking establishments.

Violation of any part of the ordinance could result in a $100 fine or 90 days or both.

The ordinance becomes effective April 6.

Defense Department Gets Franklin Medal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department—which usually hands them out—receives a medal today.

* * *

Secretary Charles E. Wilson will accept, on behalf of the department, the Benjamin Franklin commemorative medal. Sen. Duff (R-Pa) arranged the presentation in Wilson's office.

* * *

The medal, authorized by Congress and issued as part of the observance of the 250th anniversary of Franklin's birth, is presented for distinguished service to institutions associated with activities in which Franklin played an early and important part.

* * *

In the defense field, Franklin has been called America's first great military engineer. He helped mobilize the volunteer militia in which he served as colonel.

He also was instrumental in the building of forts and other defense installations.

Mr. Roy Clayton and Family.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF BOBBIE Willis Jr. who passed away 2 yrs. ago March 28, 1954.
No stain was on his little heart,
Sin had not entered there,
In innocence, slept sweetly on,
That babe whose brow so fair.
He was too pure for this cold earth
Too perfect to stay,
And so God's Holy Angel bore
Our darling one away.
Sadly missed by Mommy and Daddy and sister, Mr. & Mrs. Robert Willis.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF LAYton H. Cramer who passed away 3 years ago today, March 28, 1953. Gone but not forgotten. Sadly missed by his daughter Willma, Son-in-Law Ed and two grandchildren, Edward and Jo-Ann Old of Milford.

Sinking of Titanic Will Be Dramatized on TV Tonight

Executives Advocate Closed Circuit Oscar

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Movie executives have outlined a plan to prevent television advertisers from "cashing in" on the annual Motion Picture Academy Awards ceremonies.

* * *

Producer Jerry Wald and others are advocating a closed circuit "Oscar" telecast to be piped to theaters across the country.

"Two million people paying 50 cents a head to see the Academy Awards in a theater," Wald said, "would support the academy for an entire year."

"Daily Variety" (the entertainment trade paper) said editorially, Hollywood is overlooking one of its greatest promotional opportunities by allowing the telecast to be used to sell automobiles instead of its own product.

Wales was once known by the ancient name Cambria.

Disney 'Talent Roundup'

NEW YORK (AP) — Walt Disney and ABC-TV have announced a juvenile "Talent Roundup" to be held this spring on the "Mickey Mouse Club." Boys and girls between 5 and 14 will be eligible to audition. Winners will appear on the show, which is televised each weekday.

A magpie that swooped at his head while he was cutting timber with a band saw caused R. Gibbs, of Melbourne, Australia, to have 16 stitches taken in his hand. He had put up his hand to ward off the bird and was cut by the saw.

Book Adapted for Video Show

'A Night to Remember' Includes Cast of 105 and 31 Settings

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — "A Night to Remember," a dramatization of Walter Lord's best-selling book on the sinking of the SS Titanic, will be presented tonight on NBC-TV.

* * *

A cast of 105 will be maneuvered among a maze of 31 sets in NBC's huge Brooklyn studios on Kraft Television Theater. The move to Brooklyn from the usual NBC Manhattan studios was forced because everybody agreed it simply wasn't safe to store 3,000 gallons of water in tanks on an upper floor of the RCA Building.

JUST ONE PROBLEM

That's the amount of water which will be used in two huge tanks for scenes simulating the sinking of the ship after it struck an iceberg. The water problem is only one of many that has designer Duane McKinney chewing his nails. Since scenery has been immersed in water for days during rehearsals, he can't shake off the dread that when some actor has to come through a cabin door on cue tonight that door may have warped and be irrevocably closed.

* * *

"A Night to Remember" is the fruit of nearly 30 years of research by Walter Lord. Since he's still a young man, his interest in the Titanic began while he was in grammar school.

LESS THAN A YEAR

"I simply began collecting everything I read or heard about the sinking of the Titanic," Lord said the other day. "And then one day I realized I had a book. The writing took less than a year."

* * *

Is he surprised by its success? "I knew the story had the elements of wide appeal," he said. "After all, you had many of the world's wealthiest and most glamorous people sailing on the maiden voyage of the world's biggest and most glamorous ship."

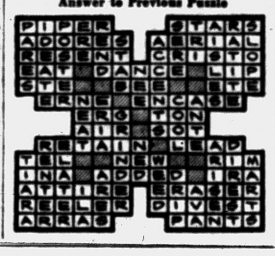

No 'Parade' on TV

NEW YORK (AP)—None of the television networks plans to cover this year's Easter parade on New York's Fifth Avenue next Sunday. The only special network pickups that day will be devoted to church services.

New Role for Riley

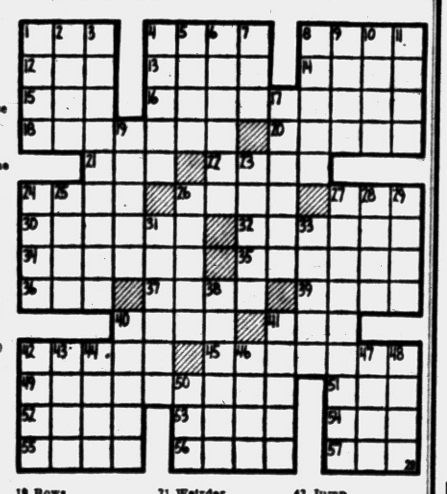

NEW YORK (AP)—William Bendix steps out of his "Riley" role Sunday, April 8, to costar with Martha Scott in "Foot - Light Frenzy" on NBC-TV's Goodyear Playhouse.

Filipino Solons Blast Close Ties of U.S. to Islands

MANILA (AP) — Congressional attacks on the Philippine government's relations with the United States mounted today.

* * *

More representatives joined House Speaker Jose B. Laurel Jr., who touched off the outbursts, in charging that American policy is to take the Philippines for granted. They demanded re-examination of economic and military agreements between the two countries.

* * *

President Ramon Magsaysay, whose administration favors strong ties with the United States, remained silent on the latest criticisms.

* * *

Some quarters viewed the concerted attacks as a move to discredit the Magsaysay administration preparatory to the 1957 presidential elections. However, the Manila Chronicle, commenting on Washington reports to this effect, said:

* * *

"Current criticism of American acts in the Philippines will stop, we are certain, only if the United States stops treating the Philippines like a colony."

Yugoslavia Pares Budget for Military

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Yugoslavia has cut its military budget 58 million dollars, apparently because of the new friendly relations between the present Soviet leaders and President Tito.

Parliament last night approved the government's 1956 budget totaling $708,333,333. Of this, some 70 per cent—or $528,333,333—was allotted to defense.

A government spokesman said the cut in defense spending was possible because of "lessening of tension in the world and the altered military and political situation of Yugoslavia."

He added that Tito expects to receive U.S. military aid again this year but gave no details.

Squirrels Beat Kiddies to Hidden Easter Eggs

POMONA, Calif. (UP) — The 14 fourth-graders of St. Paul's Episcopal Day School held their Easter egg hunt in Lincoln Park. Two room mothers wrapped the candy eggs in paper so they wouldn't get dirty.

* * *

Before the hunt the children had their lunch. While they were eating squirrels unwrapped 20 eggs and carried them off. The papers were left behind for the kiddies. Surprise!

Name Vice President

ANN ARBOR (UP) — H. R. Crane, professor of physics at the University of Michigan has been named vice president of the Midwestern Universities Research Assn. The association plans to build the world's most powerful atom smasher at one of the 14 member institutions. Prof. Crane and Wilbur K. Pierpont, University of Michigan vice president, are both on the board of directors of MURA.

Senators Fail to Agree on Electoral Amendment

WASHINGTON (INS) — The system of choosing U.S. Presidents by electoral rather than popular vote was left as it is today by the Senate's failure to agree on a way to change it.

The whole question of how to give the people a more direct voice in electing their Presidents was shelved by the Senate last night when supporters of one possible method realized they could not get the two-thirds approval necessary for a constitutional amendment.

Their plan would have ended the present "winner-take-all" system of giving all of a state's electoral ballots to whichever candidate won most of its popular votes.

* * *

Instead, a state would have been allowed to divide its electoral votes among the top three presidential candidates in proportion to their popular votes, or it could have picked its electors as it does its U.S. senators and representatives.

NINE VOTES SHY

The Senate approved this idea, 48 to 37, but that was far shy of the margin necessary. With 85 Senators answering the roll-call, 57 would have had to vote in the affirmative for the amendment to pass.

So, Sen. Price Daniel (D-Tex) author of the amendment, moved to have it sent back to the Senate Judiciary Committee in hopes a new draft could be worked out which would have the necessary support.

* * *

But, in the opinion of most observers, this is a forlorn hope. Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) floor leader against the amendment during the week it was up for debate, said electoral reform "is probably dead for this session."

Kennedy said it is "conceivable" some plan might be worked out which would be approved by the Senate, where each state has two members regardless of its size.

But he said "it would never get by in the House," where the more populous states have a much louder voice than the smaller ones.

It was pointed out that the Daniel Amendment lost out in the Senate even though it had 54 sponsors when introduced. Eight of the sponsors, in fact, voted against the proposal and seven didn't vote at all.

St. Patrick's Women to Attend Workshop

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Representatives of St. Patrick Church Women's Guild, which assists with volunteer work at the Pontiac State Hospital, will attend the hospital's workshop Monday night.

A mother and daughter Communion breakfast is planned for May 6. The men's club, assisted by the women's guild, will serve breakfast Sunday mornings after the early Masses, beginning May 27. The weekly Friday fish fries will be resumed June 1.

AFL Teamsters End Honolulu Convention

HONOLULU (UP)—The top crust of the AFL Teamsters Union, largest in the nation, headed back to the mainland today after compressing a scheduled six-day Executive Committee meeting into two sunny sessions.

* * *

President Dave Beck emerged still the undisputed boss with resolutions giving him "full power" to:

1. Move in personally to clean up any corruption, with New York and Minneapolis mentioned as specific targets.
2. Carry out an organizing drive for 250,000 new members.
3. Smooth over with the AFL-CIO a hassel about a proposed loan by the teamsters to the International Longshoremen's Assn.

* * *

The 61-year-old president said his move into New York City does not mean he plans to step into the current court battle over the Joint Teamster Council there.
