Lots of Loot, No Luck for Flint Bandit

Pulls $35,000 Holdup at Bank, but Then Things Get Rough

FLINT (UPD)—James L. January, a bank bandit who got plenty of loot but no luck, was held today in the wake of Flint's biggest holdup since 1956.

January meekly surrendered yesterday when police found him hiding in a garage loft after a wild chase punctuated by pistol shots.

January fled with $35,000 from a branch of the Genesee Merchants Bank & Trust Co. after forcing several persons to stand against the wall while he rifled the vault and tellers' cages.

But his troubles started when he fled.

Chester Miller, branch manager, followed him and hailed Patrolman Larry Wilson. January drove away with Wilson in hot pursuit, firing as he drove.

January abandoned his car and Wilson lost sight of him. But no one would cooperate with the bandit, gun or no gun.

First he knocked on the door of a home.

Karen Brown, 15, answered the door. But instead of covering in fear at the sight of the man with the gun, she slammed it.

Her German Shepherd dog came wailing to the scene.

BACK DOOR

Exit January, to the back door of another home where Mrs. Delilah Leverette, 21, was talking on the phone to her sister.

She answered the door, leaving the phone off the hook, but kept the screen locked.

She ran back to the phone, told her sister to call police, grabbed her four children, ran into a bedroom and locked the door.

January could find no haven but the garage loft. Two policemen found him there.

"I did it," January said. "I won't give you any trouble." He was jailed.

Freeway Mishap Fatal

Will Reduce Defects, Says Auto Industry

DETROIT (AP)—The U. S. auto industry promised to do better after disclosing yesterday that shortcomings, ranging from major fire hazards to misplaced ash tray lights, had been found in thousands of cars since 1960.

General Motors, Ford, Chrysler and American Motors submitted detailed reports to a House committee indicating that one out of every five cars built in the past six years had been involved in a check of possible defects.

Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., head of a subcommittee probing auto safety, said he was "startled and surprised by the size of the percentages" but added that the American car still is "the safest on the road."

Ribicoff told a news conference he was confident labor and management could work out better quality control on assembly lines before cars get to dealer hands.

Sen. Ribicoff had asked the four auto firms to supply his committee with a list of "product defects and deficiencies found in the 47 million cars built since 1960."

EVALUATES REPORT
He said of the company reports:

"In the last six years, 8,700,225 cars have been involved in so-called recall campaigns. Thus, in six years, 18.5 per cent of the cars have been defective in some respects.

It should be clear that many of the defects were not safety related."

Michigan May Build Capitol Under Earth

LANSING (AP)—Michigan may build a special underground capitol from which top officials could run the state during any emergency, including atomic attack.

The fallout shelter and emergency operations center for 100 or 120 top state officials is included in plans for a state government building complex on Lansing's south side.

The idea, said State Police Capt. Jack Nemrava, is that as long as State Police hope to move to bigger headquarters, the new building could include the emergency center in the basement or subbasement.

It would serve full-time duty as a training center where State Police recruits would live, work and study.

But, for emergencies, food, water and equipment would be stockpiled.

The center also would serve full-time as a State Police communications center.

The shelter would not be built to withstand a direct bomb hit, Nemrava said, because costs for such a shelter would be prohibitive.

"THINKING OF FALLOUT"

"We're thinking of fallout," Nemrava said.

"I expect there's going to be some fuss over this when someone finds out he's not on the select list," said Clarence Rosa, deputy director of the State Building Division. "But I think it's a good idea."

Nemrava, deputy state Civil Defense director, said such a center also would be valuable in cases such as the 1965 Palm Sunday tornadoes.

Emergency operations would work more smoothly and quickly, he said, if top planners all were at work in one communications center.

"NO DUPLICATION"

"If the center were in use 365 days a year," he added, "We would not be duplicating instruments, equipment and furniture."

The plane was piloted by Jim Kiesling, 33, Willow Grove, Pa., a veteran pilot and father of five children.

Unusual Tattoo on Leg

Check Clues to Body in Lake

An unusual tattoo may lead to the identity of a man whose weighted body was found yesterday in a lake at Stony Creek Park, five miles northeast of Rochester.

Preliminary results of an autopsy disclosed that the victim died of strangulation and could have been in the water since November or December.

Sgt. Earl Johnston of the Romeo State Police post said a tattoo — one of two on the body — may help in identification of the victim.

The State Police crime laboratory also was checking the victim's fingerprints, he said.

The tattoo on the man's left leg depicted a man in an overcoat, the collar turned up, with a wide brim hat and a halo over the figure, according to Johnston.

KILLED FIRST

After performing an autopsy, Dr. Robert Silary, said the victim was probably dead before he was thrown into the water.

He described the victim as a white man about 5-foot-11, 25-35 years old, black hair, brown eyes and weighing about 200 pounds.

The body was spotted about 10:30 a.m. by two boys as it hung over the edge of a dam. The arms were tied in back and two cement blocks were attached by a clothes line, which also was wrapped around the neck and body.

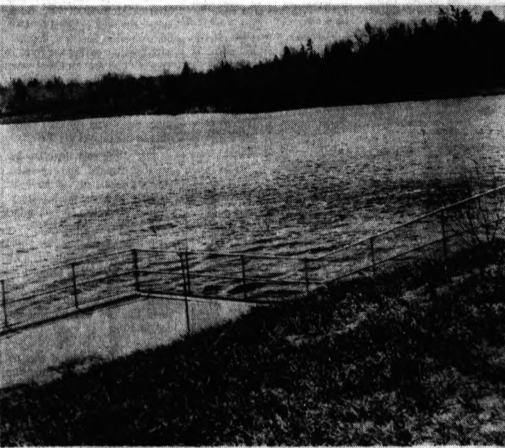

The blocks were described as patio-type about four inches thick.

SHALLOW WATER

Johnston said the body was recovered in water four to ten feet deep.

The body, said Johnston, had a second tattoo — a cross — on the upper right arm.

Besides the tattoos and possible fingerprints, police have only one other item — a single hand ring — that might lead to the victim's identity.

Vows to Fight if Future Rule Not Anti-Red

Transition to Civil Government to Take Time, Says Premier

CAN THO, South Viet Nam (AP)—Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, who has promised early elections in South Viet Nam, said today his military government will stay in power at least another year.

It will take that long to elect a civilian government, he told newsmen.

Ky also said that if the government eventually emerging from the elections is neutralist or Communist, "I and my friends will fight it."

But he added, "I am sure the majority of Vietnamese are anti-Communist. I am sure no such government will be elected."

The premier made the statements at a news conference at nearby Binh Tuy airbase which was turned over to Vietnamese authorities by the United States today.

FALL ELECTION

The election, expected to be held some time between Sept. 15 and Oct. 1, will choose an assembly charged with drafting the nation's constitution, Ky said.

Once the constitution has been drafted, another vote will be held to elect a legislative assembly which, in turn, will appoint a civilian government. The process will take at least a year, Ky said.

His statement was likely to provoke sharp reaction from the country's power-seeking Buddhists.

It was under pressure from the Buddhists, a majority in South Viet Nam, that the 10-man Ky junta agreed to hold elections. However, the military government did not set a specific time for turning the country over to civilian rule.

TOLD OFF PLANS

Ky's statement was the first clearly spelling out his plans since the recent political turmoil.

Asked whether he or any of his military colleagues would be candidates for the legislature, Ky replied: "I don't know yet. It is possible. I am fatalist and I believe in my destiny."

OTIS J. COGGINS

City Worker Top Suggester

A Pontiac Motor Division job-seeker, Otis J. Coggins, has been selected as the "Suggester of the Year" by the Detroit chapter of the National Association of Suggestion Systems.

Coggins of 41 E. Colgate made 50 suggestions last year. He had 27 accepted and was awarded $5,380 for them by Pontiac Motor Division.

His latest honor came at the hand.

Employed in Pontiac's axle plant, Coggins received the symbolic gold football helmet and a $100 gift certificate for participation in the suggestion program based on the number of suggestions submitted, the number accepted, total amount of awards earned and ingenuity and originality shown in his suggestions.

The suggestion on which his ingenuity and originality was based concerned an improvement in controlling the amount of heat and length of heating time for hardening axle shafts.

OPPORTUNITY

"Of course I am very happy to have been selected and I am also grateful for all the opportunities our suggestion program has offered me," Coggins said.

Coggins has been a Pontiac employee for 31 years. He made his first suggestion in 1956.

Since that time, he has had 120 suggestions adopted and has been awarded a total of $18,430.

Fake Looney Admits Giving Lions' Name

DETROIT (AP)—One of two men arrested today on bad check and burglary charges has admitted posing as Detroit Lions football player Joe Don Looney at the scene of a traffic smash-up April 18, police said.

Witnesses told investigating officers a man—apparently tipsy—went around to motorists stopped by the accident and identified himself as Looney. After this was reported, Looney denied from his home in Fort Worth, Tex., that he was the man. He was in Texas at the time, he said.

Police Lt. James Bannon said Donald Shear, 34, one of the two men arrested, volunteered information that he was the man posing as Looney.

Shear and C. Hunter Sawders of McKeesport, Pa., were charged with bad check, conspiracy and burglary in connection with an alleged break-in at a building company office in Redford Township early last year. Bannon said Shear declared he was posed as Looney on the radio. The two men resemble each other in some ways, police said. Shear has no known address, police said. Sawders is charged with reckless driving in the April 18 incident.

Man Arrested on Dope Court Is Bound Over

A 28-year-old Detroit man was bound over to Circuit Court yesterday for arraignment May 17 on a charge of fraudulently attempting to obtain narcotics.

Farmington Township Justice Byron D. Waller ordered Richard Goins and the Oakland County Jail in $500 bond after Goins waived preliminary examination on the charge.

Goins was arrested April 20 by Farmington Township police on a tip that Goins had attempted to buy narcotic drugs with a false prescription.

Detective William Kelly said Goins had stolen prescription blanks from a doctor's office and written out the prescription himself.

Car Improvement Vowed

dent, said in a covering letter to Ribicoff:

"We realize it is not possible to assure that every car off the production line is a perfect vehicle. We now manufacture passenger cars which average 14,000 parts each, and it is hardly surprising under these circumstances that imperfections crop up. Defects do occur."

Roche summed up GM's procedures of quality control and car testing and said many of the defects found in GM cars had been found in laboratory and test track experiments much more rigorous than a car ever would in the ordinary driver's hands.

A capsule summary of the four auto firm's reports to Sen. Ribicoff showed:

GENERAL MOTORS

In seven model years, GM has had 171 recall campaigns which involved 4.8 million of the 23 million cars it built in that period.

Many of the items were minor, but the list included such things as a potential fire hazard from a carburetor adjustment in the 1966 Oldsmobile.

Some 1.8 million 1964 and 1965 Chevrolet division cars were called back for correction of a splash shield problem, but only 159,000 of the car owners have had the work done as yet, GM said.

FORD

Ford listed 184 recall campaigns, the biggest being the 157,000 Fords, Falcons, Fairlane, Comets and Meteors recalled about 8 p.m.

McEwen and his wife told firemen they were grocery shopping at the time of the fire.

Boy Saves Kin in Home Blaze

A 15-year-old Rose Township boy led his younger brother and sister to safety last night when fire broke out in the family's home while the three children's parents were away.

Charles McEwen Jr., son of Charles McEwen of 7255 Buckhorn Lake, was credited by Oakland County Sheriff's deputies with possibly saving the lives of Thomas and Ann McEwen when the furnace in the house exploded about 8 p.m.

McEwen and his wife told firemen they were grocery shopping at the time of the fire.

The youth told deputies he noticed smoke and checked the furnace, only to have it explode and send the two-story frame house into flames minutes later.

Fire departments from Highland, Holly and White Lake townships as well as Milford responded to the alarm, and fought flames until midnight when the fire was brought under control.

Damage to the home was estimated by Highland Township fire chief Asa Smith at about $6,000.

THICK SMOKE

The McEwen youth told deputies he attempted to make his way back into the flaming house to save some of the family's belongings, but said that smoke was too thick and drove him back.

Enemy Death Toll Put at 416

Heavy Fighting Ends in Central Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The U.S. Command claimed today the annihilation of a reinforced Communist battalion in two days of savage fighting in central Viet Nam.

A military spokesman said there was "precious little left" of more than 400 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops encountered 10 miles north of Bong Son and 220 miles northeast of Saigon in Operation Davy Crockett. The fighting has taken place near the coast along the South China Sea.

The spokesman said troops of the helicopter-lifted 1st Cavalry, Airborne, Division killed 332 enemy soldiers Thursday and Friday.

A South Vietnamese spokesman reported that Vietnamese paratroopers and reconnaissance units who supported the American action killed 84 more. This raised the total enemy dead to 416.

HEAVY ACTION

The heavy ground fighting, the biggest action in three weeks, dominated a day in which there were also these developments:

The U.S. Air Force, in a delayed report, said its fighter-bombers had wrecked two spans of the vital Bac Giang railroad and highway bridge 25 miles northeast of Hanoi. The bridge is a key link in the rail and road system from the North Vietnamese capital to Communist China.

Air Force B-52 bombers again bombed a suspected Viet Cong troop concentration near the Cambodian border, 5 miles northeast of Saigon. It was the seventh day in a row that the giant bombers returned to the Viet Cong stronghold, to support U.S. 1st Infantry Division troops.

In addition to more than 400 killed in Operation Davy Crockett, the military spokesman reported the capture of 40 Communists and 515 suspects.

LOSE CONTACT

He said that there had been no significant contact with the enemy since midnight, indicating that the remnants of the Communist force had fled.

The spokesman said 12 U.S. air sorties were flown in support of the action and credited pilots with killing 45 of the Viet Cong.

Sen. Dodd Files $5-Million Libel, Conspiracy Suit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thomas J. Dodd has answered columnist Drew Pearson's and Jack Anderson's charges of misconduct by filing a $5 million libel and conspiracy suit against them.

The suit, filed in U.S. District Court late yesterday by Dodd's attorney, accuses the columnists of falsely picturing the Connecticut Democrat as unfit to be a senator, as an agent of foreign interests, as interfering with the award of government contracts in return for bribes, and as unlawfully diverting campaign funds for his personal use.

Among other things, Dodd denies in the suit that he had made a trip to West Germany in 1964 to help Communist propaganda man Julius Klein "hang out his clients," that he had ever made any Senate speeches written for him by Klein, or that he had accepted expensive gifts from Klein or acted as his "errand boy."

The spokesman said 12 U.S. air sorties were flown in support of the action and credited pilots with killing 45 of the Viet Cong.

No Bike Means Hike 'Peddlers' Need a License

Failure to secure an annual license plate could result in the impounding of a person's bicycle, according to City Attorney Philip E. Rowston.

He reviewed the city's bike ordinance at the request of the City Commission.

Rowston said it was his opinion that the police could impound unlicensed bikes for up to 30 days.

In addition to providing that all bikes operating on a street or public right-of-way be licensed, the city ordinance also stipulates how such licenses are to be attached.

Certain regulations for riding public streets are also specified in the ordinance.

The penalty for violating any provisions of the ordinance is a fine of not more than $5 or imprisonment for not more than five days, or detention of the license plate or impounding of the bike.

Rowston said the police department advised him that no bicycles have been impounded for violation of the ordinance in recent years.

"There is authority to do so," noted Rowston.

Defense Department to Hike Pork Purchases

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department today reversed itself and announced it soon will increase pork purchases.

The announcement noted that the Defense Department had Feb. 17 ordered a reduction in pork purchases for feeding troops in the continental United States after hog and pork prices had risen sharply late in 1965 and early this year.

"We cannot give legal advice," emphasized Adams. Adams and Kreps estimate that nearly 7,000 complaints are received each year. All complaints must be in writing.

COPY OF COMPLAINT A copy of the written complaint is passed along to the merchant or businessman involved. Sixty days are allowed for settlement. The merchant is urged to contact the ethics board when he disposes of a complaint.

In any event, the complaint is placed on file by the ethics board. After 90 days, the appropriate comment is added to the card file — noting whether the complaint was ignored, settled satisfactorily, unjustified or what ever the disposition might be.

In addition to receiving consumer complaints, the ethics board also serves a clearing-house function, checking and registering out-of-town businesses doing business here, as magazine salesmen.

Most of these businesses are temporary or door-to-door solicitation. Both the general public and businessmen will check to see if a firm or individual is registered, according to Kreps.

The chamber officers said no one field of commerce received more complaints than another, although a time-payment contracts, the quality of merchandise and service on merchandise are involved in a larger number of instances.

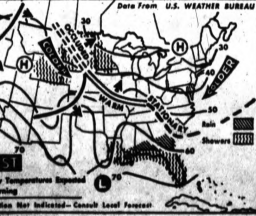

The business ethics board is a separate corporation, but there are plans to make it a division of the chamber of commerce since the work is done by chamber personnel.

City Ethics Board Basically 'Mediator of Differences'

By L. GARY THORNE
A shady merchant is not a person who sells lamp shades. But, he is a merchant that is certain to attract the attention of the Pontiac Business Ethics Board.

Pontiac does not have a Better Business Bureau, the usual watchdog of business practices. Instead, there is the business ethics board.

Incorporated separately, the board is actually a long arm of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce.

The arm is protective of both business and the consumer. The arm has muscle, but the bigger role is as a peacemaker — a mediator of differences.

In the strictly physical sense, the business ethics board is the arms, legs, ears, eyes and mouth of Max T. Adams, chamber manager, and Earl Kreps, assistant manager, respectively.

ALL FIELDS
Adams and Kreps touch all fields in handling consumer complaints.

They tread softly.
"I would say 90 to 95 percent of the complaints are settled satisfactorily," estimates Adams. "We primarily serve a peacemaking role."

Adams, a gravel-voiced, jovial-type, pegs the cause of most complaints to lack of communication. Once the anger subsides, there is understanding and the problem is corrected.

EAGER TO SETTLE
In the vast majority of cases, he explains, the merchant is eager to settle a complaint, hoping to retain a satisfied customer.

China Official Rips Soviet-U.S. Alliance

TOKYO (AP) — A leading Red Chinese official has called for a united world front to crush what he calls a U.S.-Soviet "holy alliance."

Ten Hsiao-peng, general secretary of the Chinese Communist party, said Friday night the Russians and Americans were "rallying monsters of all kinds" to knock together a counter-revolutionary "holy alliance," in an attempt to isolate China, Albania, all Marxist-Leninist parties, all Marxist-Leninists and all revolutionary forces.

Teng addressed a crowd of 10,000 gathered in Shanghai to honor visiting Albanian Premier Mehmet Shehu. Chinese Premier Chou En-lai attended the rally. The official New China News Agency distributed the text of Teng's speech today.

"With the aim of isolating U. S. imperialism to the maximum and dealing it the heaviest possible blows," Teng said, "we have consistently stood for the formation of an international united front, the broadest united front and not a narrow one, the most genuine one, and not a sham."

He urged a "fight to the finish" against the Soviet leadership and said there could be no compromise with it. Teng's speech reflected a further toughening of the Chinese line both at home and abroad. It coincided with new purges of Chinese intellectuals and stepped-up attacks on the Russians, who are accused of selling out the Viet Nam war effort on behalf of the United States.

Hyun Kapo, of the Albanian Communist party Politburo, echoed the Chinese line on Viet Nam. He said the Russians "are undermining the heroic struggle of the Vietnamese people behind the facade of 'aid,' and are attempting to profit from it and strengthen Soviet-U. S. collaboration."

He urged a "fight to the finish" against the Soviet leadership and said there could be no compromise with it.

BACK YARD CHAT—Ronald Reagan, campaigning for the Republican nomination for governor of California, charms suburban housewives at a backyard political meeting in Los Angeles. The 55-year-old actor, making his first try at a political candidate, appears to be in a close race with George Christopher, former mayor of San Francisco.

California Governor's Race Spiced by Berkeley Charges

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—A State Senate committee's report charging widespread Communist and homosexual activity at the University of California's Berkeley campus today became an issue in the state's governorship race.

Ronald Reagan, the actor who is seeking the Republican nomination for governor, demanded the man he hopes to unseat—Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown—take immediate action "to restore the university to its once high standing."

A Reagan aide, who declined identification, said Reagan "definitely will make the UC mess a campaign issue."

Brown and George Christopher, former San Francisco mayor and Reagan's chief rival for the GOP nomination, both said they would have to read the report thoroughly before commenting on it.

Action Due on Carnival Ride Law

The Waterford Township Board Monday night will consider adoption of a proposed amendment to an ordinance regarding inspection of carnival rides. Also slated for approval are specifications for a pedestrian overpass on Scott Lake Road.

Revision of the ordinance would shift responsibility for structural inspections or rides from the township to amusement operators.

Electrical inspections would still be conducted, by township officials. A license fee schedule for amusement rides also will be considered.

The $15,000 pedestrian overpass would be the third to be built in the township to upgrade walking safety conditions for school children. Cost would be shared equally by the township board and board of education.

Action on specifications for the structure have been tabled twice.

In other business Monday night, first notice will be read on three rezoning requests—all recommended for denial by the township planning commission and county coordinating planning and zoning committee.

The proposed zoning changes are:

- A request to rezone from local business (C-1) to extensive business (C-3) a parcel at 7670 M59 for which the applicant proposes to enlarge a restaurant establishment.
- A request to rezone from general business (C-2) to light industrial district (M-1) a parcel at 5340 M59 for establishment of retail stores and offices.
- A request to change from C-2 to multiple dwelling residential district (R-2) a parcel on the northeast corner of Pontiac Lake Road and M59 for apartment units.

Final action is scheduled for the May 16 meeting.

State Group Plans Private High School

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Their children's high school is going out of business next year, so seven Ann Arbor couples plan to open their own.

Dr. Richard Judge, whose family is one of the seven planning to create the school, said the school would be open to option to buy a 26-acre estate in Ann Arbor for $180,000.

He said a 15-room home on the estate will be converted to a private junior and senior high school.

The parents are planning the school because the University of Michigan High School, a "laboratory" school operated by U. of M. to provide high quality education, is to be phased out of operation in June 1967. U-M, which charged $85 tuition each semester, said the school was too expensive to operate.

Judge said the new private school would be opened to 40 seventh and eighth grade pupils in the fall 1966. Plans call for expansion of the school to grades 7-12, with an expected enrollment of 250.

Thais Stepping Closer to War

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Little by little, Thailand is getting closer to the war in Viet Nam.

The government announced this week that at South Viet Nam's request, Thailand is sending a logistical support group consisting of a landing ship tank, a coastal patrol boat and two C123 transport planes.

The craft will be manned by about 180 Thais, this country's first official military contingent to South Viet Nam.

Thailand heretofore has provided only indirect assistance to the Viet Nam war. It has been hesitant to acknowledge that U.S. planes are using Thai bases for strikes against North Viet Nam.

There is a theory that if South Viet Nam falls, Laos would be overrun by the Communists without too much trouble and Thailand will find itself facing Communist guns.

Communist terrorists operate in north and northeastern Thailand.

If Child Snores, Don't Scold Him, Says Real Expert

By Science Service
CHICAGO — If a child snores and many youngsters under the age of 10 have the habit, don't scold him. Roll him over on his side.

This is one of a number of suggestions made by Dr. Marcus H. Boulware of the Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University, Tallahassee, in Rehabilitation Literature (May).

Dr. Boulware has a snoring problem himself and has done considerable research on the subject.

Allergies, respiratory disease, growths and swollen tissues are among the numerous causes of snoring.

A doctor may be able to ferret out the cause and remove it, but none of the 300 or more "anti-snore" inventions should be inflicted on a child.

They are too bulky and often are painful. Included are wood cuffs and antismore balls to prevent a person from sleeping on his back.

Wilson Keeps 'Blind' Date With 'Wait Until Dark' Star

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The afternoon I was going to interview Lee Remick about how she so successfully plays a blind girl in the thriller, "Wait Until Dark," I happened to mention my appointment to the actress Anita Louise.

"Ask her," said Miss Louise, "if all the stage furniture in the play isn't round, and whether it was deliberately built round so she wouldn't hurt herself falling against it?"

"My gosh, I guess it is all round!" said Miss Remick when I asked her about it in her dressing room.

"Yes, the table's round, the two seats are round . . . I never thought of it, and nobody ever mentioned it before, so I'm sure it isn't deliberate. But it's true it is all round."

But everything else is carefully planned which enables Lee Remick to give one of the great performances.

"We've got the thing kind of choreographed," Miss Remick says. "My shoes take a lot of punishment. In one scene where it looks and sounds like I knock myself out, the noise is really made by my feet."

Sitting in her dressing room with her skirt above her knees, Miss Remick didn't appear to be suffering from household's knee, but she said that during rehearsals "I did wear kneepads . . . I bruise very easily, I think."

And she did briefly suffer hematomas, a sort of blood clot under the skin.

The play, which concerns a blind housewife whom three con men try to rob of a doll because it contains valuable narcotics, could hardly have been so well done if Miss Remick hadn't prepared by going to the Lighthouse and working with a blind man, Bill Gallagher, in their mobility department.

Stock Market Loss Is Biggest Since 1962

By ED MORSE

AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK—The stock market this week was jolted to the steepest weekly loss since the week immediately preceding the Black Monday crash of May 28, 1962.

The 1962 week was the worst on record.

If not for a surprise news item Friday that General Motors would resume normal operations at all its assembly plants Monday, this week would have ended for worse than the 1962 week.

Less than an hour before the close, the market was battered down to extremely sharp losses on average. When the GM news came, stocks reversed themselves and the Dow Jones industrial average ended the day with a rise of 3.06 instead of the loss of 10.41 it showed an hour before the close.

SHARP SETBACK

Even so, the Dow industrials declined this week by 30.85 to 902.83, the sharpest setback since the drop of 38.82 in the 1962 week.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks this week fell 12.0 to 331.8, its lowest level since the end of last August.

Trading conditions were turbulent at times. The ticker tape ran 23 minutes late Friday, the biggest delay in the newly improved ticker since it was instituted on Dec. 1, 1964. Volume of 48,021,589 shares was piled up compared with 38.3 million the previous week. It was the largest since the record weekly turnover of 53.5 million in the week ended April 16.

UNCERTAIN PALL

Analysts agreed that statements by federal officials and ex-officials did much to create a pall of uncertainty over Wall Street. These statements, having to do with the anti-inflation drive and the question of possible tax increases, seemed to pose a threat to the business and financial community.

The market had one of its steepest drops Thursday in response to a statement by Gardner Ackley, President Johnson's chief economic adviser, questioning whether a further profit rise in the national interest.

Federal Reserve Board Chairman William McChesney Martin was blamed by some for the Thursday retreat after he proposed a "simple, clean-cut, across-the-board increase in taxes."

The decline that day had a double-barreled impetus. The market was rising a little when news came that GM had cut back production at four auto assembly plants.

OPPOSITE EFFECT

News that GM would resume full operations Monday had the opposite effect, rescuing prices from a dizzy decline.

GM sank to a low of 86 Friday but recovered partially to 88½ for a net gain of ½.

Robert H. Stovall, an analyst of E. F. Hutton & Co., said, "The market has been accident-prone all year. My forecast Jan. 1 was that we would have not one, but two or three 'crashes'—of which this is No. 2."

Stovall thought the 1966 market might eventually find support around 875 in the Dow industrials. Other analysts looked for resistance to further decline around 890, or 860, or 850. All of this is sheer guess work in a market ruled to such an extent by emotion, brokers said.

"I may end up with egg on my face," said Sidney B. Lurie of Josephthal & Co., "but I feel sembles 1962. It takes time for a storm to blow itself out." Of 1,388 issues traded this week, 1,297 fell and 174 rose.

It Was A Question Of Who Acted First

Not Many Yanks Have Met Cong Face-to-Face - and Lived

By TOM TIEDE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
DA NANG, Viet Nam — A man seldom meets his enemy here.
He hears them, to be sure, fires at them, of course, and even kills them, but very few have ever gotten close to the guy on the other side of the firing line.
Heinz Strehle has.
He has rubbed a hard nose with a Viet Cong, and only the other guy's was bloodied.
Strehle, a 22-year-old German immigrant from Rapid City, S.D., was at the lead of a small Marine reconnaissance patrol the night it happened.
He and three others were using the cover of a moonless evening to sneak along and around a village full of Viet Cong.
GATHER FACTS
Their mission was to gather facts, not medals, and thus they were using stealth and secrecy to remain out of enemy ear and rifle shot.
Each man wore a night vision device that would cause a glint. Their faces had been blackened to cut down on glare. Slings on their rifles, equipment on their belts, even the dogtags around their necks had been tied tight to guarantee against a telltale tinkle.
Book Gives
All Sides of the Viet War

Reporter Tom Tiede shows our men in Viet Nam are not always heroic (they admit the fear) and that not all moments of the war are grim (some are downright humorous).
Tiede knows because he's been there since the Yanks entered the heavy fighting. His dispatches appear regularly in The Pontiac Press and the Newspaper Enterprise Association has published a book of them, "Your Men at War," available for $1 with the coupon below.

One-Fourth of Mankind

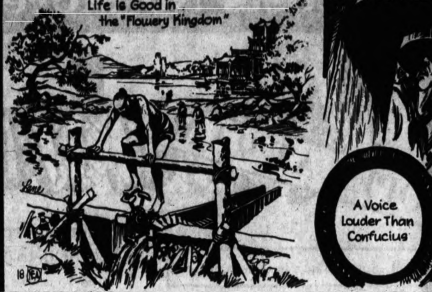

Under the wide heaven, there is no land, there is none who is not a subject of the emperor.

—Book of Odes

This was China as the 18th century flowed into the 19th: The Manchus, who had taken the dynastic name of Ch'ing, or "Pure," had ruled for 150 years from the traditional institutions and were considered legitimately Chinese.

Under two model Confucian emperors, K'ang Hsi and his grandson Ch'ien

(18) Last Days of China

Lung, both of whose reigns lasted 60 years, China reached its greatest territorial extent.

Population had soared to some 300 million and for the first time there was serious overcrowding.

That population was overwhelmingly peasant, uneducated and superstitious.

GENTRY CLASS

Above the peasantry was the gentry class, whose wealth was based on land ownership. The gentry were the

Math Linked to Reading in Education

Mathematics teachers will have to help teach reading if the students in the lower ability groups are going to learn mathematics, 50 Oakland County educators have been told.

Dr. Eugene Smith, professor of mathematics education at Wayne State University, listed inability to read, along with poor work habits and insufficient motivation as reasons students fail to learn mathematics.

"Where better can you teach reading for meaning than in mathematics?" he said.

He indicated that teaching accuracy in reading was, perhaps, the special province of the mathematics teacher.

"Speed reading is definitely out in the mathematics class," he declared.

In revising the high school mathematics curriculum to provide courses for noncollege bound students, Dr. Smith said one of the major difficulties would be interesting teachers in working with low achievers.

"There is little problem in finding teachers who want to teach honors courses or classes for the mentally retarded,"

Sheriff Clark Cries 'Injustice'

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Sheriff County, was at odds at times with Baker, then safety director of Selma.

ARREST THEM

The sheriff followed a policy of mass arrests of demonstrators. Baker supported a more moderate course.

The Justice Department entered the election fight Thursday, with a petition in Federal Court seeking an order the disputed ballots be counted.

The department claims some 1,700 votes in the boxes would make Baker the sheriff-nominate.

U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr., in an order Friday, Justice Department contended the County Democratic Executive Committee Baker.

Clark, who became a segregationist symbol last year during racial demonstrations in Dallas and Baker declared the winner.

Jail Klansman; Wife Was Shot Ex-Suspect in Race Killing Surrenders

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) — Ku Klux Klansman Joseph Howard Sims, sought since Thursday when his estranged wife was shot, was in jail here today on a charge of assault with intent to murder.

Sims, who two years ago was acquitted of charges of murdering Washington, D.C., educator Lemuel Penn, surrendered to Butts County Sheriff J.D. Polk Friday and was returned to Athens.

FBI agent Joseph Ponder of Atlanta, who helped return Sims, 43, to Athens police, said a federal warrant charging Sims with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution had been dropped.

Sims' wife was shot while at work in the maternity ward of the Athens General Hospital.

Mrs. Sims, a mother of eight who had been separated from her husband for about two weeks, is recovering at the hospital, where she worked as a nurse's aide. The bullet struck her in the cheek.

Sims' surrender to Polk near Jackson after a friend approached the sheriff and told him Sims was ready to give himself up.

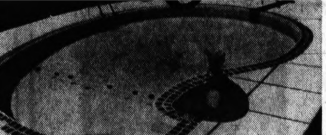

Ponder said Sims gave no reason for giving himself up.

Chief Doesn't Look for Crime at Home

SABATTUS, Maine (AP) — Police Chief Lester Dobbins wasn't looking for crime in the right place recently.

One morning after he went to work, burglars stole six chairs, a wood ice chest and tools from his barn.

Frosts Dim Chances for Fruit Surpluses

By The Associated Press

Recent frosts have nearly wiped out probabilities of surpluses in Michigan fruit crops this year, some experts believe.

Clifford Conrad, horticultural agent for Berrien County, reported "quite a bit of damage" to most types of fruits in low areas and pockets. He indicated the result would lessen the chance of a surplus crop year.

The Coloma Canning Cooperative estimated its tart cherry loss would range from 10 to 50 per cent.

O. E. Herkner of Traverse City, president of the National Cherry Growers Council, said "quite a lot of damage" had shown up in northwestern Lower Michigan orchards.

Herken was at home Friday after attending a national meeting in Chicago.

"People from New York State said ground in their cherry orchards was frozen 1 1/2 inches deep by the frost last week and even part of their apples look hurt," he reported. "Pennsylvania has been hurt pretty hard," he said.

EXTENT OF DAMAGE

Herkner said cherry growers in southern and central Michigan "say they're cutting into 80 to 100 buds before they find one good one."

Some areas still await a stretch of warm weather to learn the extent of the frost damage.

"We still have the whole polarization period ahead of us which is a very critical time," said B. I. Freeman of Grand Rapids, secretary-manager of the Great Lakes Cherry Producers Marketing Cooperative, Inc.

"We know the crop potential is much less than at this time last year," he said, "but how much less is anybody's guess."

"This becomes more serious when one considers the tight labor situation. There is a great reluctance to say the crop is short until we know more."

Waterford Group Will Hear Farnum

Congressman Billie S. Farnum, D-Waterford Township, will be guest speaker at the annual spring banquet of the Waterford Township Education Association at 7 p.m. Monday at the Elks Temple.

Officers will be elected for the 1966-67 school year.

WEA President Robert Crumpton will summarize the group's accomplishments for the current school year.

Charm Course Begun in Area

A five-session charm and grooming course was to have begun today for girls enrolled in special education classes in the Waterford Township School District.

The Waterford Organization for Retarded Children has arranged for 18 girls, ages 11 through 17, to enroll in the Wendy Ward course offered by Montgomery Ward and Co. for grooming girls.

Mrs. Floyd Beauchamp, mother of one of the girls in the group and a member of WORC, has arranged for the course in cooperation with the store and Waterford Township Schools.

Classes also will be held the next four Saturdays.

The debating society organized by Benjamin Franklin was known as the Junta; this developed into an American Philosophical Society in 1743.

Deadline Extended for Water Confab

Registration deadline has been extended to Monday for a water resources conference to be held Wednesday at Oakland University.

County officials and Michigan State University specialists will discuss water problems and pollution with interested persons.

Reservations can be made at the Oakland County Cooperative Extension Service office, 155 N. Saginaw.

Surrounded by acres of meadowland and woods full of crooning frogs and caroling birds, the homestead of the Lloyd Radells is ideal for pursuing their artistic vocations as well as the rearing of their five children, Nerissa, 12, Kevin, 11, Thad, 9, Marc, 7, and Raissa, 2½.

The rambling ranch, designed and built by the Radells, incorporates private work studios and family living areas.

Reflecting the family's appreciation of art forms are paintings, sculptures and other art objects.

"We change paintings," chuckled Mrs. Radell, "like other families change sheets and pillowcases."

A mosaic tile 'ell-shaped counter and a free-standing brick fireplace separate the central living section into open kitchen, dining and socializing areas.

Set into the redwood paneling of the living room is a still-to-be-completed bas relief by Mrs. Radell symbolizing the warmth and feeling of the family situation.

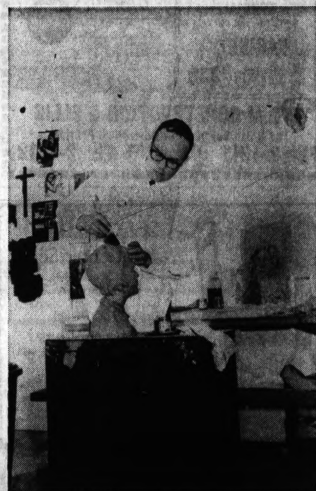

Musically talented, all of the children with the exception of the baby play the room's portable harpsichord, handmade by Norman Scheck of Romeo.

The parquet floors were created by arranging maple printing blocks in a random pattern.

"Much of our home came from materials that were more or less cast-offs. For instance," said Mr. Radell, pointing to the floor inset in the living room, "that marble came from the Penobscot Building's remodeling."

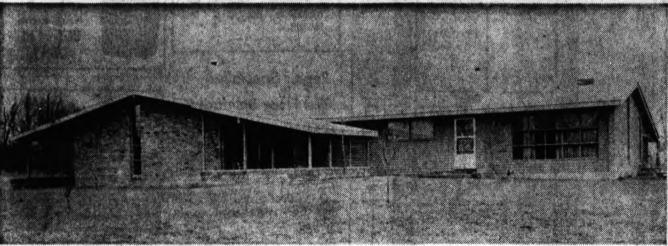

"And I actually tore down a house to obtain the brick used in the fireplace and the end wall."

"The lumber and cement blocks salvaged also went into the construction of our home."

the notion that all A-frame houses look alike may have been true at one time. But the increasing popularity of this type of construction, both for vacation homes and year-round residences, has stimulated the creative abilities of architects.

As a result, there are many variations of the basic idea of a roofline extending from its uppermost point all the way to the ground on two sides.

A recent A-frame house presented in this series brought a new, memorable message, as well as a demand for a variation of it.

In that particular structure, the utilities and recreation viewed the outdoors from the living room, since even the two sliding doors are of glass.

In combination with the dining room, the living area is 23' wide, with a stone fireplace at one side.

ENTIRE SHELL

The two side walls are 6' high, a variation that provides extra living space that would not be available in the original A-frames, which had ridge-to-floor rafters forming the entire shell.

Placement of a dining room table at the fireplace side of the room, yet close to the kitchen, would provide both atmosphere and convenience.

The kitchen, completely modern, has a breakfast bar with plenty of room for at least three persons.

Still a third eating place is available, this one an outdoor porch.

Directly off the kitchen, it has a barbecue set into the stone chimney.

Two first-floor bedrooms, each with double closets, look out on a terrace.

In addition to the main bathroom, there is a stall shower just inside the side "clean-up" porch.

Also in this area is the laundry, including a deep utility sink, and a closet for storing gear.

Thus, the sportsman returning from activities could come in the side entrance, place his equipment in the closet and take a shower or wash up at the sink before going into the living portion of the house.

The bedrooms and bath on the second floor would not have to be finished at the time of the original construction if no need is felt.

The room would make an excellent den if desired, with perhaps a couch-type bed to take care of guests.

In any case, the plans call for an attractive stairway and ra-

To its right are two bedrooms: "BEDROOM 2" (11'-4\" x 10\") and "BEDROOM 1" (11'-4\" x 12'-6\"). Below Bedroom 2 is a row of three closets, each represented by a small square with the letter 'C'. Below Bedroom 1 is a bathroom (labeled "Bath") and another row of three closets, also marked with 'C'. A "PORCH" area is located at the top center, between the den and the bedrooms.

A detailed floor plan of a house. The layout includes a central hall connecting to several rooms: a living room (12' x 16') with a fireplace, a dining room (12' x 12'), a kitchen (8' x 11-2') with a breakfast nook, a bathroom (5' x 7'), a bedroom (11' x 12'), and a bedroom (11' x 12'). There is also a bathroom (5' x 7'), a bedroom (11' x 12'), and a bedroom (11' x 12'). The plan shows a front porch, a rear porch, and a central hall. Dimensions are provided for most rooms.

FLOOR PLANS: There is every possible convenience on the first floor of Design G-35 to permit complete living for a small family, including four outdoor areas: a larger family can utilize the extra space on the balcony overlooking the living room.

Add Ironing Board to Master Bedroom

Remodeling the master bedroom? Plan to include a drop-down ironing board in the closet wall and save yourself steps when pressing dresses and suits.

The ironing board can fit behind a full-length, mirrored door which makes a pleasing and practical contrast to bifold louvered pine closet doors.

If tile walls in your bathroom or kitchen have seen better days, or the cement adhesive is darkening with age, you may cover these signs of distress with a fresh coat of enamel. Make sure however, the surface is thoroughly cleaned to insure longevity of the coating.

Economical, Too

Floor Magic, a Delight to Eye

Floors for 1966 continue to play a talented game of delight—glazing, foiling the eye, the touch, and now even the pocket-book with new vinyls that seem painstakingly cut and laid by hand, but go down swiftly, by the tile or roll.

The 16th century fashion for "Parquet de Versailles" sprang from a wish to compliment the king by imitating the flooring of the royal palace.

Today's vogue for the same intricate elegance underfoot is partner to the fresh but formal manner of the French country style.

With a new tile, called Trianon, Amico cleverly bypasses costly custom cutting and presents a readymade parquet; neatly designed to meet at the corners with a graceful interlaced.

Design has been scaled down from palace dimensions to those of current room sizes, now measures a twelve-inch square, and every detail of the handsome original has been faithfully translated: the basket-weave patterning, beveled for accent; the grainy oak surfaces; the traditional wood tones; even a group of custom colors that mirror painted boiserie.

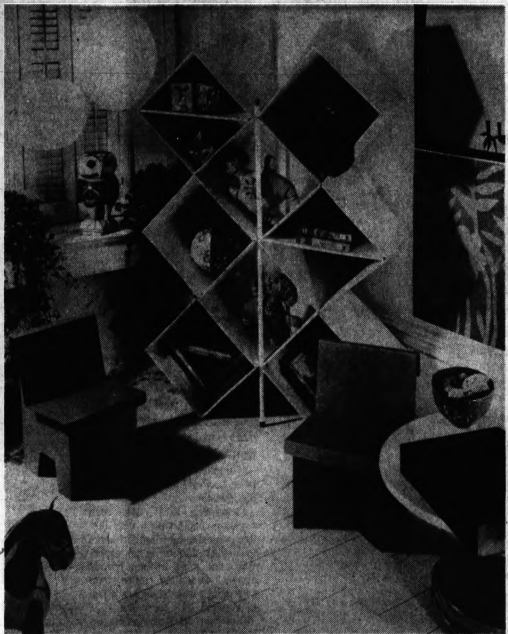

WOOD VARIETY

Walnut, Rosewood, Teak, Birch and Bleached Oak will be priced at about $1.80 a square foot; White, Sienna, Blue and Olive make the custom palette, to be tagged at slightly more.

Indoor gardens continue to flourish and the flagstone look has many a fan without the funds for the slicing and stripping that custom floors demand.

chemes, above or below stairs, of pitted stone seem to be laid comes with Amico's new Trav-tat random for an airy terrace pleasant news for pennywise erline sheet vinyl where blocks floor.

PRETTY PLAYROOM—Decor unfolds in a matter of minutes and a playroom comes into bright being with a floor of new vinyl that rolls out in one sleek sheet yet seems to be laid of weathered flagstones, each individually set by a master mason. Atop Amico's new Travertine sheet vinyl, furnishings are speedily conjured of knock-down cardboard—colorful, sturdy and made to the measure of pint-size players.

Flocking Now on Wallpaper

Easy to hang, easy to live with, easy to wash—that's the new flocked wall coverings made for the first time with Creslan acrylic fiber.

The flocking doesn't crush when these new wall coverings are applied with a roller, and adhesive won't stain them.

The flocking can actually be scrubbed with soap or detergent suds—assuring years and years of beauty to any room.

ELEGANT DECOR—Harking back to the pretty country palace where Marie Antoinette played at dairymaid, Amico's new Trianon translates Versailles parquet into sturdy vinyl that goes down swiftly, square by square. All seems a triumph of the woodworker's art; strips are beveled, the textured graining is nature's own, and corners meet in an interlacing basketweave. Furnishings here are faithful reproductions by Roundtree of country French pieces like those at Le Petit Trianon where the fashion for provincial decor was born.

Check Home Exterior for Winter Damage

Spring is a good time to inspect the exterior of the house to see what havoc winter has wrought.

Your checklist should include a look at the foundation, window and door frames, siding, hardware, roof, chimney, gutters and downspouts.

Shellfish Gets Around

Plaster ceilings, concrete roads and chalk for blackboards have something in common: they all originated nearly 500 million years ago as shellfish.

The calcium in the remains of the shellfish settled and solidified to help form much of the limestone from which men make lime, a chemical with an ability to neutralize acids economically.

The purpose of correspondence courses in agriculture and home economics at Penn State is to take technical information to people on subjects they have interest.

The material is intended to meet the needs of people at home, on their jobs, on farms and in their gardens. Most of the courses are of the how-to-do-it variety.

A Debt That Few Children Can Ever Repay Parents

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: May I say something for the thousands of us who are retired? Most of us draw small social security retirement benefits and have no other income. We can't work for various reasons.

Maybe a wife or husband is disabled and can't be left alone. Then our children write us, "Don't do this," and "Don't do that." And, "Can't you get someone to do it for you?" I wonder where they think the money is coming from to get things "done" for us?

They also say, "If you need anything, let us know." Abby, they know we aren't going to ask them for anything. Why can't each son and daughter send a few dollars every month in case mom and dad "need" something? It would mean so much to us. Parents are proud, and they don't like to ask their children for anything. What do you say, Abby? ONE WHO KNOWS

DEAR ONE: I say, I'd like to see the child who had to ask his parents for something he "needed." Parents know how much it costs to feed and clothe each child, and there was always enough for "extras" because mom and dad denied themselves luxuries.

The son or daughter of an aging parent who says, "If you need anything, let us know," needs to know something of the debt he never can repay — the one he owes his parents.

DEAR ABBY: I have a 22-year-old son who is only human. There is a big, overgrown, 14-year-old girl who lives up the street from us, and she runs after my son all the time. Her parents have given her permission to date. She is forever bouncing over here, asking my son to carry her places or to take her to the movies or somewhere.

I told him he had better not because if anything ever happened to her he would go to jail. I am worried to death all the time, Abby. I have even talked with this girl and tried to warn her about what could happen, but she won't listen to me. What do I do now?

WORRIED MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: If you think your son could become dangerously involved with this girl, why don't you lecture HIM? It won't help to "warn" Little Red Riding Hood if the "wolf" is loose and bent on mischief.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "JUST ASKING" IN ENDCOTT: If your husband is unreasonable, inconsiderate, and an out-and-out cheap skate, take him apart during the daytime about it. But to go thru his pants pockets while he's asleep is just plain wrong!

Elaine Wins Post Book for Question

By ELIZABETH L. POST
Here is this week's prize-winning letter from readers on "my most puzzling etiquette problem." A copy of Emily Post's "Etiquette," revised by Elizabeth L. Post, has been sent to the questioner.

Dear Mrs. Post: What can a young couple with a very limited entertaining budget serve to drink? Liquor is an expensive, but most of our friends expect something more than soft drinks when they are asked to a party.

Can you offer some suggestions?—Elaine K.

Dear Elaine: You have a variety of sensible ways to help keep your expenses down. To begin with, go to your liquor dealer and ask his advice.

Prices of liquor vary widely: Gin, for instance, costs much less than whisky.

Don't, however, buy the cheapest brand of any type. Choose a liquor whose best brand is within your budget because there's nothing worse than an alcoholic beverage of poor quality.

Your dealer may also suggest recipes on ways to serve mixed drinks with whatever liquor you choose. You can stick to sherry or Dubonnet for cocktails and serve domestic wine with dinner, which can be both cheap and good.

In hot weather, wine and soda is a refreshing after-dinner drink. You might serve a fruit punch with some liquor in it instead of individual drinks but be sure in advance that your guests like punch. Lots of people don't.

And finally, you can have wonderful informal parties serving hot dogs, hamburgers and beer. Whatever solution you decide on, always have soft drinks available: cola drinks, gingerale, tomato juice and so on, are preferred by lots of people, and they certainly help you to keep within your budget.

What is your most puzzling etiquette problem? To the sender of the most interesting question that we receive each week, we'll send a free copy of Emily Post's "Etiquette," revised by Elizabeth L. Post.

Send your question to Elizabeth L. Post, in care of The Pontiac Press, and don't forget to include your name and address!

Advice From First Lady

'Listen to Your Children'

By HELEN THOMAS
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Lady Bird Johnson, who has two lively daughters, gives this advice to busy mothers: "Listen to your children."

"When one of your children wants to talk to you — not always at a convenient time for a busy mother — about something on her mind — school, a beau or general philosophy — listen," the President's wife said.

She advises mothers to clamp down on that instinct to say, "Oh dear I have so many things to do."

"A good friend of mine once told me that the only time to talk to your 10-year-old daughter is when she is 10 years old," said Mrs. Johnson. "If you really want to understand, share and perhaps formulate the lives of your teen-agers — listen."

Mrs. Johnson's girls, Lynda, 22 and Luci, 18, frequently are called on to speak in public.

"When one of them goes to a microphone to make an impromptu speech at the request of her daddy, I hold my breath in terror — But they always come through with something that is sensible and interesting," Mrs. Johnson said.

In the case of hip-shooting Luci, never at a loss for a revealing comment, Mrs. Johnson has said "I raise my eyes to heaven and hope for the best."

The First Lady has a warm, affectionate easy-going relationship with her daughters, who are caught up these days in a whirlwind of romantic activities. Luci is starry-eyed with plans for her wedding Aug. 6, when she will march down the aisle of the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception with Patrick J. Nugent of Waukegan, Ill.

Lynda, slim and dark-haired, has become one of the nation's new glamor girls since movie star George Hamilton has been giving her a big rush and introducing her to jet set and Hollywood life.

Mrs. Johnson practices what she preaches. When Luci bounces into her room after classes at Georgetown University in her gym shorts, flops on the bed and wants to talk about her bridal plans, "She comes first," said a White House aide.

Lynda, a senior at the University of Texas, calls mama after a big date. She telephoned after the glittering Academy Awards dinner in Hollywood when she stole the show from the big stars.

Mrs. Johnson, 53, likes to lie back and listen to her daughters' happy chatter about their friends, clothes and romance. They share their big moments with her.

At times the Johnson girls have described themselves as "deprived." Luci complains in a recent magazine article that "Politics took my parents away from me."

There is no doubt that the demands of public life deprived both the President and his wife of many happy hours with their children during their growing-up years when they had to divide their time between Washington and Texas.

But the White House has a way of bringing people closer together. First Family members now see more of each other than ever before.

Mrs. Johnson is well aware of the extra pressures on her daughters. Lynda more and more these days is talking about the need for "privacy" and a "personal life" and is more and more aloof to extra White House demands.

Mrs. Johnson finds that her daughters are the "most interesting companions I have had."

Her first suggestion to mothers is to "know what your children are doing. As for discipline, she says of her own brood, "I let them know they are trusted as to judgment and character and leave them considerable leeway. People are likely to live up to what you believe of them."

Garden Unit Says Present Slate Stays

The Brookside branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, re-elected this year's slate of officers at Thursday's meeting in the home of Mrs. William W. Donaldson on Chippewa Road.

Mrs. Sherwood Nye is president; Mrs. Adolph H. Magnus, vice president; Mrs. F. Milton Hathaway, recording secretary; Mrs. John Dickson, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Eugene R. Nielsen, treasurer.

Mrs. Asa L. Drury will serve as auditor. Heading committees are Mesdames L. A. Currie, Carl W. Bird, Clifford C. Grovger, L. R. Sampson, E. Gilmour Winn, Charles E. Galloway, Edward F. Lewis, Calvin J. Werner, Alger B. Scott, Thomas L. Harris, also Mesdames Donaldson, Magnus and Nielsen.

CONVENTION SOON

At the 32nd national convention of WNFGA May 16-19 in the Hotel Pontchartrain, Detroit, Mrs. Winn will be co-chairman of the branch scrap book displays.

Delegates Mrs. Nye and Mrs. Magnus will also attend the Michigan Division spring council meeting at the hotel on the 25th.

Twins' Moms Plan Dinner

Members of the Oakland County Mothers of Twins Club will gather for their sixth annual dinner Thursday.

Crowning of the Mother of the Year will highlight the affair at Holiday Inn. Mrs. Robert Green is the group's president.

hosts at a reception in the Amvels Hall following the double ceremony performed by Rev. James Hayes.

ORGANZA GOWNS

Re-embroidered Alencon lace accented an Empire A-line gown of white silk organza with fan-shaped train for the new Mrs. Johnson.

Her sister's gown of the same fabric was styled with controlled fullness and chapel train. They chose cluster headpieces for their soft illusion veils and both carried white roses.

Matron of honor for Ellen was her sister Mrs. Daniel Johnson with Mrs. Gerald Corkins bridesmaid.

The bridegroom, son of the Merritt L. Johnsons of Vinewood Avenue, had his brother Duane for best man. Philip Bridger was an usher.

Mrs. Tom Reagan led group singing with Mrs. H. L. Stout accompanist.

Very Victorian

We had always thought that lapel/buttonholes were adapted from a military convertible collar. Now we're assured that Queen Victoria was responsible — as she wanted Prince Albert to always wear a flower in his lapel.

Your Neighborhood Pharmacist
NEW LAW PROTECTS YOU

Federal law has long required us to get your doctor's okay before refilling prescriptions for many drugs. But a brand new law cuts down considerably the number of drugs you can get so certain dangerous drugs that are subject to abuse. Here's what the new law says: A prescription may not be filled more than five times — or more than 6 months — unless the doctor gives us a new authorization. This law was enacted by Congress in order to protect the public health — your health.

State's 2 GOP Girls Are Late Arrivers

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty
Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON — The two young Michigan "GOP Girls A Go-Go" were the only late arrivals of the 85 Michigan Republican women attending the breakfast that opened the 14th annual Republican Women's Conference on Thursday.
Looking a bit chagrined when introduced by State Chairman Ely Peterson were Patricia Mulder of Lansing, who won the trip as a high school graduation present, and Dee Ann Ringle of Flint, who is plugging the election of her brother, Ron, to the House of Representatives.
Each state has its "GOP A Go-Go," dressed in white with a bright red sash, which gives a new twist to politics for these too young to vote.

The No. 1 breakfast attraction was Gerald Ford of Grand Rapids, who is the first Michigan congressman to be the Republican House leader.
He and Gov. Romney, who arrived later in the day, were "audited off" (to quote Gerry) as Ella Koeze, Michigan national committeewoman, announced the winners of a drawing for the privilege of escorting Ford and Romney to the platform.
Congressman William Broomfield of Royal Oak tossed a salute to Ely Peterson as "the greatest of state chairmen."
He noted that "it was shameful that many of the administration bills get passed by less than 10 votes even in a Democratic-dominated congress."

Shelby Township Pedestrian Is Killed by Auto

A 53-year-old Shelby Township man was killed last night when he walked from the shoulder of a road into the side of an automobile, according to township police.
Stanley Trieschuch of 49477 Ryan was pronounced dead on arrival at Mt. Clemens St. Joseph Mercy Hospital shortly after the 9:30 p.m. accident.
Manuel J. Crimando, 40, of 4951 Brunswick, Shelby Township, driver of the car, told police he saw Trieschuch at the roadside ahead of him, but was unable to avoid a collision when the victim suddenly turned into the road.
Police said Crimando was not held in the mishap, which took place on Ryan a fourth of a mile south of 22 Mile.

New School Chief Challenged

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — The Michigan Education Association, unhappy with the selection of Ira Policy as state school chief, decided yesterday to challenge his legal qualifications to hold the job.
The question involves a state school code requirement that the superintendent "shall have had at least five years' experience as a teacher or superintendent of schools."
Policy has taught seven years at the college level, but the MEA has questioned whether that meets the requirement.
The MEA board of directors instructed E. Dale Kennedy, MEA executive secretary, to "take whatever action necessary" to obtain an attorney general's opinion whether Policy is qualified.
If Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley does not rule on the question, today when his car ran off a road through legal channels.

To Eye Mental Health Budget

Disagreement yesterday on a budget prepared for state scrutiny led the Oakland County Mental Health Services Board to call a further meeting next Wednesday night at 7:30 p.m. at 1 Lafayette.

Purpose of the executive session called by acting chairman William H. Wagner is to further discuss differences in an attempt to reach accord.

Chief criticism of the $1,425,449 budget prepared by the board's administrative staff was that provision for expansion of a program for moderately retarded adults was not included.

The 1966-67 budget, which must be approved by the state, specified $31,000 for the New Horizons program.

Some board members thought that this amount, the same as in the current budget, should have been doubled.

FEAR OFFENSE

Wagner explained that officials of the State Mental Health Department would be offended if provision for expansion of the New Horizons program were included.

Then Dr. Robert E. Walde, director of mental health services for the county, suggested that unspent funds from the current budget might be applied to a stepped-up New Horizons program.

This provoked a protest from Daniel T. Murphy, chairman of the County Board of Auditors and a mental health board member.

He noted that the County Board of Supervisors had already approved a tentative 1967 county budget which absorbs 25 percent of the mental health operation. The state appropriates the balance.

HOW MUCH MORE?

"Now, I'm wondering how much you've salted away in the 1967 county budget that could be used other than specified," he said.

Another board member, Mrs. Elizabeth Mitchell, then suggested a special meeting to study the budget, which was released only Wednesday, and that action be taken at the board's June meeting.

Member Ken Morris supported the idea, stating that he had questions on several points of the budget.

Referring to the New Horizons appropriation, Morris said he was curious why state officials were opposed to expansion of the program and he asked for correspondence to clarify the objection.

FOUR TOWNS METHODIST CHURCH — The Four Towns Methodist Church founded in 1866 will celebrate its centennial all next week beginning tomorrow. The white frame church is shown with the new addition added in 1961 at the left. The sanctuary, remodeled in December 1965, has walls of white with red velvet drapes and red carpeting. Pulpit furniture is white. A colonial theme was followed throughout the building. The church was first used as a schoolhouse. Dr. Dwight E. Loder is presiding bishop of the Methodist Church in Michigan. The Rev. Wilbur E. Courter is minister at the Four Towns Church.

Plaque Placed on Old Church

Families of Four Towns Methodist Church will turn back the clock 100 years Sunday and all next week, as they attend festive functions and worship services in commemoration of the founding of the church.

Women and girls will don sunbonnets, shawls and long dresses trimmed with embroidered ruffling and starched petticoats.

Men with sideburns, beards and cutaway coats will be at services tomorrow tipping their stiff rounded crown derbys.

A reception and coffee hour is scheduled to follow the 11 a. m. worship hour. A centennial dinner at 6:30 p. m. will precede evening worship at 7:30.

An anniversary Boy Scout program is set for 7:30 p. m. Monday, and Methodist Men will get together for an old time session entitled "Do You Remember" at 7:30 Tuesday evening.

An appreciation luncheon for the Ladies Aid is planned for noon Wednesday. Fun night is scheduled for 7 p. m. Friday.

ON GROUNDS

A Centennial Festival and Carnival on the church grounds with booths, pony rides, fun and food is slated from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. on May 14.

The festival dinner will be held at 5 p. m. the same day.

On May 15 a family breakfast sponsored by the Men's Club will be held at 7:30 a. m. with the worship service of dedication, "The Next 100 Years" at 11 a. m.

Mrs. Donald E. Adams, of the Michigan Historical Commission will dedicate the centennial site and marker on the church at 12:30 p. m.

Mr. Colvin gave land for a cemetery from his farm, then offered land for a school site. This was in the early 1860s. A frame schoolhouse was built in 1866. In this same building the church has remained to this day.

It shared the building with school districts until 1930 when District No. 2 of Waterford Township terminated its lease and moved across the street into a new building. The church then assumed full responsibility for the building and property.

In 1925 a Ladies Aid was organized. It was through this group that almost all expenses were taken care of during a most difficult period of the church development.

KIMBALL IN CHARGE

About this time George Kimball and his wife had charge of the Church School. They worked with young people by holding picnics, outings and other activities of interest.

On Jan. 18, 1931 the Methodist congregation saw the conversion of an old schoolhouse into a beautiful sanctuary with new furniture and redecorated. The minister was the Rev. Bertram Ede.

About 1947 during the pastorate of Rev. Charles H. Wright, the church was raised, a basement dug, a heating plant, kitchen installed, and a large room for church school and diners constructed.

Rooms were added to the back of the church in 1961 when the Dr. Ray M. Hardy was pastor.

In 1963 when Rev. W. Cadman Prout occupied the pulpit, the interior was rearranged so more pews could be added to accommodate the growing congregation.

In 1960 a Fellowship Hall was constructed with a fireplace, stainless steel cabinets and a new dishwasher. This supplied a meeting space for dinners and family social gatherings.

The congregation of nearly 200 families now look forward to the construction of a much needed educational unit and some day perhaps to an entire new church building.

100TH ANNIVERSARY—Arriving at Four Towns Methodist Church, Waterford Township, dressed in costumes of long ago are (from left) Robin Kenyan of 1650 Cooley Lake, Ametta Courter of 4847 Halbert, Larry Hemmerly of 359 Reymont and Mrs. Douglas Shafo of 650 Lochaven. The four will attend festivities and worship at the Four Towns Church tomorrow and during the week as the congregation celebrates the 100th anniversary of the founding of the church.

SCHOOL OF LOGS

The first school was built of logs on the M. L. Hunt farm as it called today, on the corner of Lochaven and Hunt roads. It became the center of activities for these families. This was in the 1840s.

About this time a young layman came to the region from Connecticut. He attended Commerce Methodist Church for a while, and, being of a missionary nature, secured an appointment to found a church in a school near Elizabeth Lake.

After a few years the appointment was moved to the log schoolhouse near Four Towns. He worked with the local people to found a congregation.

The first official services were held in the Colvin home.

The Methodist Episcopal Church established regular services once every two weeks in the log schoolhouse. The Sunday School met weekly through the summer.

When L. B. Colvin became the superintendent some years later, Sunday School was continued even through the winter months.

The congregation couldn't support a full-time minister, but was served by the traditional circuit rider whose parish was in Wallied Lake. He made the rounds in a horse and buggy to Commerce and Four Towns.

STAGE ESTABLISHED

A stage line was established between Pontiac and Milford by way of Four Towns and Commerce.

The stage drawn by four horses carried passengers and mail, making the trip three times a week. A post office was opened more than a mile west of where the townships of Waterford, Commerce, West Bloomfield and White Lake meet. It was given the name of Four Towns Post Office.

Mr. Colvin gave land for a cemetery from his farm, then offered land for a school site. This was in the early 1860s. A frame schoolhouse was built in 1866. In this same building the church has remained to this day.

It shared the building with school districts until 1930 when District No. 2 of Waterford Township terminated its lease and moved across the street into a new building. The church then assumed full responsibility for the building and property.

Pontiac Minister Testifies at Trial

The Rev. Malcolm Burton of the First Congregational Church of Pontiac testified this week in Sanford, North Carolina trial over the ouster of a minister who had opposed the merger of the Congregational Church with the United Church of Christ.

The week-long trial went to jury yesterday at 5:30 p.m. At 7 p.m. a decision was reached favoring the defendant, Rev. W. Clay Farrell, 60, pastor of Grace's Chapel of Congregational Christian Church.

The United Church of Christ had sought to have him permanently restrained from the pastorate of the 300 member church because of his opposition to the proposed merger, which has had a stormy 18-year history of legal actions.

Memories of Mussolini

University Brawls Stir Italian Fascists

ROME (AP) — The fighting lapsed of his flimsy empire, a dihard remnant of the Fascist world still exists in this country. Black Shirts who once strutted in uniforms resplendent with gold braid and medals are potting and left-wing students warmed the hearts of those who still live in the lingering world of Italian fascism.

Twenty-one years after Mussolini's death and the utter col-

Mussolini was determined to have their own social circles. They have their own press, a newspaper and a magazine still written in the bombastic style of Mussolini's time and still recalling with relish adventures like the Ethiopian war.

Last week, the magazine carried a sentimental cover showing a naked Ethiopian girl wearing a Fascist soldier's tropical helmet and hugging his guitar.

UNEMPLOYABLES

Many of the newcomers were the chronic unemployed of those days — high school and university graduates with a general education but no technical skill, mainly from the poverty-stricken south.

They found jobs and titles in Mussolini's inflated bureaucracy and militia. They never had it so good.

Understandably, many of the old-timers have refused to give up their emotional attachment to what was the best time of their lives. They have stayed on in Rome, and they have made a little world of their own. They must never be allowed again.

Texans Voting in First Primary Since State Was Redistricted

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Texans vote today in the first primaries since the state was redistricted, and interest centered on nominations to U.S. House seats and a contest for control of the state Democratic party leadership.

Precinct conventions following the voting probably will determine whether the forces of Gov. John B. Connally or Sen. Ralph Yarborough will control the Democratic party for the next two years.

The final decision will come at the state convention in September, although precinct delegate elections today were expected to set the pattern.

Connally, a former secretary of the Navy who was wounded when President John F. Kennedy was assassinated, considers his views conservative and has campaigned more for control of the party precinct conventions than for renomination for a third term.

NOT UP FOR REELECTION

Yarborough, backed by groups considered liberal, almost controlled the state convention two years ago. His Senate term does not expire this year.

GOP precinct conventions were expected to be uneventful.

The Democrats had seven statewide races but Republicans had no statewide contests. The election in November, running for Democratic nomination to the Senate are Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and Jack Willoughby, Houston advertising agency owner.

Connally is opposed by Stanley Woods, Houston businessman, and Johnnie Mae Hackworth, a Bible school operator.

MOST VIGOROUS RACE

The most vigorous campaign has been for attorney general. In that race are State Sens. Galloway Calhoun and Franklin Spears, and Crawford Martin, former Texas secretary of state. The race could produce the only runoff in the second Democratic primary June 4.

This will be the first primary since the state was redistricted after the 1960 census. Dallas and Houston each got an additional congressional and portions of some large-vote counties were added to so-called rural districts.

The redistricting, in effect, caused only two U.S. House incumbents to face each other. This was in District 4 where Democratic Reps. Ray Roberts and Lindley Beckworth met.

Tips on 'Quacks' Will Be Given Senior Citizens

"Duck the Quack" is a game Pontiac area senior citizens will play Tuesday at 1 p.m. at United Auto Workers Local 594 Union Hall, 525 S. East Boulevard.

Sponsored by a dozen state and local organizations, the "game" consists of a series of demonstrations of fake medicines and health practices.

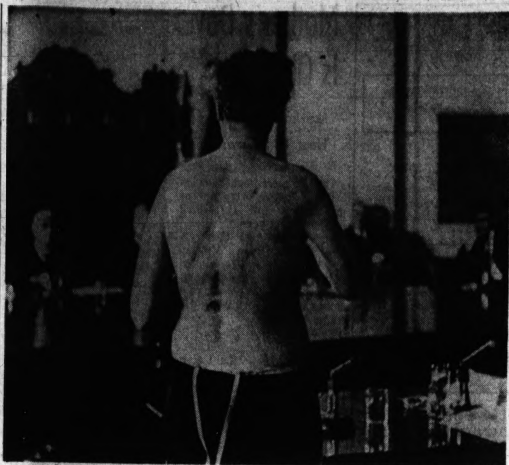

Senior citizen club members, factory retirees and other prey of "quacks" have been invited.

Local unions and the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department are sponsoring Tuesday's meeting.

Reynolds Tobacco Co. Ups Cigarette Prices

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP) — R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., which rescinded a cigarette price increase in March at the urging of the White House, says it no longer can avoid a boost.

The company announced Friday the price of regular-sized cigarettes will go from $9.80 per thousand to $9.95, less 2 per cent discount. King-sized brands will go from $9 to $9.20. Reynolds said this still would be 20 per cent less than the price hike it announced in March.

TORTURE SCARS — The Rev. Richard Wurmbrand, a refugee Lutheran pastor, took off his clerical garb yesterday at a Senate internal security subcommittee hearing to reveal scars he said were the result of torture at the hands of Romanian Communists.

Rev. Wurmbrand was released from a Romanian prison in 1964 and came to the U.S. about a month ago.

Forum Slated on Arthritis at UF Office

A public forum on arthritis — "Face Arthritis with Facts" — will be held at the Pontiac Area United Fund office, 132 Franklin, Wednesday, at 8 p.m.

Bruce J. Annett, UF president, will be master of ceremonies for the two-hour program.

Featured speakers will be Dr. George R. Thompson, director, rheumatology section, Wayne County General Hospital, and Mrs. Barbara Hartman, registered occupational therapist at Sinai Hospital, Detroit.

"Newest Methods of Medical Management" and the "Future of this Nation's No. 1 Crippling Disease" will be Dr. Thompson's topics.

Mrs. Hartman will discuss "Therapy and the Arthritis." The program is being presented as part of arthritis Month by the Michigan Chapter, Arthritis Foundation, an agency of the Pontiac Area United Fund.

Flower Emblem Idea 'Creepy'

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (AP)—Picture, if you will, a huge floral arrangement composed of 50 blossoms of assorted sizes, shapes and colors.

And now that you have pictured it, tell me what in the name of Luther Burbank you would do with the thing.

If nothing springs readily to mind, permit me to suggest a few possibilities.

You could use it as a wreath to hang around the neck of a winning horse. Or you could send it to a gangster's funeral.

Or, as proposed in a Senate resolution introduced this week, you could call it the "National Floral Emblem."

The emblem plan was advanced by Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., who said he got the idea from a fifth grade class in Clarksdale, Miss.

Noting that Congress had been unable to agree on an individual blossom to serve as the national flower, he advocated that the official flowers of all 50 states receive that honor.

As to whether Eastland would have been equally enthusiastic if the idea had come from a fifth grade class in Clarksdale, Mo., I am not prepared to say.

Actually, Dirksen was only one-third right. The petunia, the zinnia, the dahlia and the canna are not state flowers. But since four states have adopted the violet, you can give him extra credit for having mentioned it.

Eastland said a national contest might be held to produce an official arrangement for the 50-flower emblem. At any rate, he said, "the actual arrangement would present no great problem."

I fear, however, that he may have overlooked a big thorn. The trouble is that some states have early bloomers and some late.

An arranger would have to deal simultaneously with the bitterroot of Montana, the sagebrush of Nevada, the forget-me-not of Alaska, the mistletoe of Oklahoma, the lilac of New Hampshire and so on.

A florist with whom I discussed the matter said it would be difficult to synchronize the blossom countdown of so many different varieties, even in a hot house.

He said it probably would be necessary to stick in a few plastic flowers to understate the carnation or possibly avoid a goldenrod gap.

Sooner than have a national floral emblem that is partly artificial I would vote to make the stuffed eagle our national bird.

MAKING A MOVIE — Sonny and Cher (above) whose bizarre dress and musical inanities have put them in the $1-million-a-year bracket, are now making a movie, called "Good Times." It concerns young married singing stars named Sonny and Cher who make a movie. In real life Sonny and Cher are also Mr. and Mrs.

Are Sonny and Cher Just Putting Us On?

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD — Somehow I have had this nagging thought that Sonny and Cher are putting us on.

In case you're not conversant with the current expressions, "putting on" is a current favorite to express the act of performing a hoax of various proportions. Could THOMAS be this true of Sonny and Cher?

His usual animal-skin jacket. Cher was, in a blowzy wig and short skirt as his model.

I asked the burning question: "are you putting us on?"

"The Music?" answered Sonny, who was born Salvatore Bono in Detroit 26 years ago. "There's nothing put-on about it. It's what we believe in."

SHE LIKES THEM

"The pajama outfits," said Cher (Last name: La Piere, 26, from El Centro, Calif.). "They're what I like. It's great to have an outfit that you can wear anywhere, for any occasion. I saw a pair one day and fell in love with them."

"The same with my jacket," said Sonny. "I saw one like it in a movie—'List for Life,' only it was lambskin. I said to myself, 'I want a jacket like that.' Then one day I saw a bobcat vest in a store and I had to have it."

"As for my hair, it's me. I've been wearing it this way since before I got in the business—four years ago. I remember someone showing me a picture of the Beatles in a magazine and saying, 'Here are four guys who look like you.'"

Put on or not, Sonny and Cher are big business.

OVER A MILLION

"Last year we made over a million," said Sonny. "This year? I dunno. I lost a lot of this money. I worked on it for six months, because I wanted to make sure it would be right. And it's going to be."

Sonny is a one-time truck driver, masseur and waiter who landed in the music business as an assistant to record producer Phil Spector. Cher was a high school dropout and drama student. They met on a double date. Their marriage, on Oct. 27, 1964, would seem to have ruled them out as teen-age favorites.

"But we never tried to hide the fact we were married," said Sonny, "and it seems to have made no difference with the fans. In fact, they like it."

Free Dental Program Set

Will Begin Tuesday at OCC Campus Site

The Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity (OCCOE) will launch a free dental program for adults in northern Oakland County beginning Tuesday at Oakland Community College's Highland Lakes Campus.

Persons who qualify for war on poverty assistance are eligible for dental services.

Appointments will be scheduled each Tuesday and Thursday from 9 a.m. to noon, according to Luther J. Flanagan, deputy director of the commission.

One part-time dentist has been retained for the service.

Dental services are available for children through the county health department.

CARVER SCHOOL
A dental program for adults in the southern part of the county was started this week by the commission with patients treated at the Carver School in Royal Oak Township.

This also is being conducted on a part-time basis.

Services at both locations include x-rays, fillings, extractions and denture work.

Referrals to dental service will be made through the commission's two opportunity centers.

Utah's Pioneer Day (July 24) commemorates the date Brigham Young and his Mormon followers arrived at Great Salt Lake valley in 1847.

Ky Says He'll Run S. Viet for One More Year

MOTHER'S DAY — Helping the state's first lady, Mrs. George Romney, observe Mother's Day tomorrow will be her daughter, Mrs. Lynn Keenan, and the six Keenan youngsters (from left) George, 3; Thomas, 6 months; Pamela, 2; Jody, 7; Brett, 6; and Susan, 4. The flowers were sent to Mrs. Romney from the American Mothers Committee convention in Washington, D. C.

SOMETHING'S COMING — Little boys or big — they'll all be Momma's boys tomorrow. Making an entrance with his handpicked Mother's Day gift is 4-year-old Dean Saigoon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rennie Saigoon, 930 Elira, Waterford Township. Something's coming — something good.

Warmer, Overcast Tomorrow

The weatherman says skies will be overcast and temperatures a little warmer with lows about 37 to 43 tonight. Tomorrow will be mostly cloudy and warmer with occasional showery lows, highs near 60 to 68. Partly cloudy and somewhat cooler is Monday's forecast.

Will Reduce Defects, Says Auto Industry

DETROIT (AP) — The U. S. auto industry promised to do better after disclosing yesterday that shortcomings, ranging from major fire hazards to misplaced ash tray lights, had been found in thousands of cars since 1960. General Motors, Ford, Chrysler and American Motors submitted detailed reports to a House committee, indicating that one out of every five cars built in the past six years had been involved in a check of possible defects. Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., head of a subcommittee probing auto safety, said he was "startled and surprised by the size of the percentages" but added that the American car still is "the safest on the road."

Ribicoff told a news conference he was confident labor and management could work out better quality control on assembly lines before cars get to dealer hands. Sen. Ribicoff had asked the four auto firms to supply his committee with a list of "product defects and deficiencies found in the 47 million cars built since 1960."

He said of the company reports: "In the last six years, 8,700,225 cars have been involved in so-called recall campaigns. Thus, in six years, 18.5 per cent of the cars have been defective in some respects. It should be clear that many of the defects were not safety related."

Lots of Loot, No Luck for Flint Bandit

Pulls $35,000 Holdup at Bank, but Then Things Got Rough

FLINT (UPI)—James L. January, a bank bandit who got plenty of loot but no luck, was held today in the wake of Flint's biggest holdup since 1956.

January meekly surrendered yesterday when police found him hiding in a garage loft after a wild chase punctuated by pistol shots.

January fled with $35,000 from a branch of the Genesee Merchants Bank & Trust Co. after forcing several persons to stand against the wall while he rifled the vault and tellers' cages.

But his troubles started when he fled.

Chester Miller, branch manager, followed him and hailed Patrolman Larry Wilson. January drove away with Wilson in hot pursuit, firing as he drove.

Exit January, to the back door of another home where Wilson lost sight of him. But no one would cooperate with the bandit, gun or no gun.

First he knocked on the door of a home.

Karen Brown, 15, answered the door. But instead of cowering in fear at the sight of the man with the gun, she slammed it.

Her German Shepherd dog came woofing to the scene.

BACK DOOR

Exit January, to the back door of another home where Mrs. Della Leverette, 21, was talking on the phone to her sister.

She answered the door, leaving the phone off the hook, but kept the screen locked.

She ran back to the phone, told her sister to call police, grabbed her four children, ran into a bedroom and locked the door.

January could find no haven but the garage loft.

Two policemen found him there.

"I did it," January said, "I won't give you any trouble." He was jailed.

Freeway Mishap Fatal

FLINT (AP)—A car ran off 175 south of Flint and plunged down an embankment today, killing its driver, Vernon Badoun, 61, of Bay City. Badoun's wife was injured.

Michigan May Build Capitol Under Earth

LANSING (AP)—Michigan may build a special underground capitol from which top officials could run the state during any emergency, including atomic attack.

The fallout shelter and emergency operations center for 100 or 120 top state officials is included in plans for a state government building complex on Lansing's south side.

The idea, said State Police Capt. Jack Nemrava, is that as long as State Police hope to move to bigger headquarters, the new building could include the emergency center in the basement or subbasement.

It would serve full-time duty as a training center where State Police recruits would live, work and study. But, for emergencies, food, water and equipment would be stockpiled.

The center also would serve full-time as a State Police communications center.

The shelter would not be built to withstand a direct bomb hit, Nemrava said, because costs for such a shelter would be prohibitive.

"THINKING OF FALLOUT"

"We're thinking of fallout," Nemrava said.

"I expect there's going to be some fuss over this when someone finds out he's not on the select list," said Clarence Rosa, deputy director of the State Building Division. "But I think it's a good idea."

COURT LIKELY

If Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley does not rule on the question, the board instructed Kennedy to "proceed through legal channels," which could mean going to court, a spokesman said.

Thomas Brennan, president of the State Board of Education which appointed Polley, said he had no objections to the MEA seeking an attorney general's opinion.

"It might be a good thing to clear this matter up," he said. But, Brennan added, "there was no question in the board's mind that he is qualified under the law."

Unusual Tattoo

Check Clues to Body in Lake

An unusual tattoo may lead to the identity of a man whose weighted nude body was found yesterday in a lake at Stony Creek Park, five miles north-east of Rochester.

SHALLOW WATER

Johnston said the body was recovered in water four to ten feet deep.

Preliminary results of an autopsy disclosed that the victim died of strangulation and could have been in the water since November of December.

Sgt. Earl Johnson of the Romeo State Police post said a tattoo — one of two on the body — may help in identification of the victim.

The State Police crime laboratory also was checking the victims' fingerprints, he said.

The tattoo on the man's left leg depicted a man in an overcoat, the collar turned up, with a wide brim hat and a halo over the figure, according to Johnston.

KILLED FIRST

After performing an autopsy, Dr. Robert Silsby, said the victim was probably dead before he was thrown into the water.

He described the victim as a white man about 5-foot-11, 25-35 years old, black hair, brown eyes and weighing about 200 pounds.

The body was spotted about 10:30 a.m. by two boys as it hung over the edge of a dam.

It arms were tied in back and two cement blocks were attached by a clothes line, which also was wrapped around the neck and body.

PREMIER KY

'Jeep Junked' While Troop Supply Short

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Army Jeep that could have been repaired for $4.47 was junked instead, says a Senate investigator, despite a shortage of Jeeps in South Vietnam.

The investigator, Joseph Lippman, told the Senate subcommittee on foreign aid yesterday the Army is writing off as junk hundreds of heavy-duty vehicles which then are repaired and distributed by the Agency for International Development as foreign aid.

This is happening, he testified, although there is now an unfilled requirement in the Asian war zone for 1,851 Jeeps, trucks, cranes and other backup supplies.

Lippman told the committee that the Defense Department has discarded 1,851 pieces of used equipment in Asia alone within the past year.

Lippman, staff director for the subcommittee, said the Jeep that could have been repaired for $4.47 needed minor front end adjustments, a new canvas top and similar accessories. The 1952 model had only been driven 13,161 miles but the Army decided it was too old.

JUNK CHARGE

The testimony came during the second round in an investigation hearing that has drawn a Pentagon charge that the subcommittee chairman, Sen. Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, wants to equip American forces with junk.

It was under pressure from the Buddhists, a majority in South Vietnam, that the 10-man Ky junta agreed to hold elections. However, the military government did not set a specific time for turning the country over to civilian rule.

TOLD OF PLANS

Ky's statement was the first clearly spelling out his plans since the recent political turmoil.

Asked whether he or any of his military colleagues would be candidates for the legislature, Ky replied: "I don't know yet. It is possible. I am fatalist and I believe in my destiny."

Vows to Fight if Future Rule Not Anti-Red

Transition to Civil Government to Take Time, Says Premier

CAN THO, South Viet Nam (AP)—Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, who has promised earlier elections in South Viet Nam, said today his military government will stay in power at least another year.

It will take that long to elect a civilian government, he told newsmen.

Ky also said that if the government eventually emerging from the elections is neutralist or Communist, "I and my friends will fight it."

But he added, "I am sure the majority of Vietnamese are anti-Communist. I am sure no such government will be elected."

The premier made the statements at a news conference at nearby Binh Tuy airbase which was turned over to Vietnamese authorities by the United States today.

"I expect to stay in power for at least another year — perhaps until the middle of next year," he said. "There is no doubt about that."

FALL ELECTION

The election, expected to be held some time between Sept. 15 and Oct. 1, will choose an assembly charged with drafting the nation's constitution, Ky said.

Once the constitution has been drafted, another vote will be held to elect a legislative assembly which, in turn, will appoint a civilian government. The process will take at least a year, Ky said.

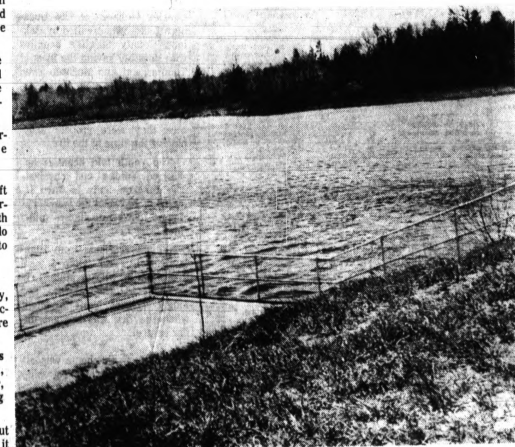

His statement was likely to provoke sharp reaction from the country's power-seeking Buddhists.

It was under pressure from the Buddhists, a majority in South Vietnam, that the 10-man Ky junta agreed to hold elections. However, the military government did not set a specific time for turning the country over to civilian rule.

Ky's statement was the first clearly spelling out his plans since the recent political turmoil.

Asked whether he or any of his military colleagues would be candidates for the legislature, Ky replied: "I don't know yet. It is possible. I am fatalist and I believe in my destiny."

DISCOVER BODY — This is the site, near the north end of a lake in Stony Creek Park in Macomb County where sheriff's deputies and State Police yesterday fished out the body of an unidentified man. Two boys spotted the body as it slipped over the dam, landing in four-to-10-foot-deep water.

Respiratory Study Aimed at Smoking

By Science Service
BOSTON — Twice as much time was lost to lower respiratory infections by cigarette-smoking student nurses as their nonsmoking classmates lost, a one-year study reported in the New England Journal of Medicine showed.

Forty-seven smokers and 47 nonsmokers in the senior class at the Vancouver General Hospital School of Nursing in British Columbia were compared.

The frequency and duration of pure upper-respiratory-tract infections were not significantly different in the two groups.

Smokers suffered more non-respiratory illnesses, including hepatitis, than nonsmokers, however. In the total group of 47 smokers, there were 43 respiratory illnesses.

Like Regular Army

Cong Force Gaining Strength

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Despite many successful efforts to intercept supplies, military authorities here see evidence that the combat strength of the Viet Cong force is becoming more and more that of a regular army. Once consisted largely of poorly armed guerrillas.

This year 120mm mortars were added to the arsenal of insurgent regiments crisscrossing South Viet Nam. Military sources say these are of Soviet design but 95 per cent of them were made in Communist China.

A U.S. spokesman spoke this week of a critical shortage of supplies among the insurgents, but this shortage was mainly in food, clothing and medical supplies in some areas.

The primary aim is to supply weapons to fighting units. The assumption is that they can survive by requisitioning and pilaging food in the countryside.

BASE AREAS

Authorities are aware of at least 80 Viet Cong base areas—centers of training, supplies and command posts. Although pounded by bombs and artillery shells, these bases continue to train and process recruits and carry on a large-scale war effort.

The military Viet Cong build-up, which has reached an estimated 100 combat battalions, averaging 500 men each, is paralleled by an intricate political organization spread throughout Viet Nam.

Men trained in Chinese-type indoctrination and military schools constitute the backbone of the Viet Cong military and political apparatus. They are backed by an estimated 17,000 regular North Vietnamese troops.

The battalion continues to be the main operational Viet Cong unit, harassing isolated posts, villages, towns, bases and communication lines.

CHINESE EQUIPMENT

Modern Chinese equipment began to infiltrate South Viet Nam in 1964. By now it has spread to virtually all areas where the Viet Cong is in action. The military strength is supported by an intricate politico-administrative setup with Communist district, province and village chiefs. The propaganda apparatus works relentlessly to undermine the central government's effort to rally the population.

Class Told to Wear Nothing But Shoes

COTTONWOOD, Idaho (AP) — Prairie High School here takes the wraps off its graduating class of 1966 next Thursday. Here's the way a school bulletin instructs seniors to prepare for group picture-taking:

"Absolutely. The girls will wear nothing but all-white heels. The boys will wear nothing but all-black shoes."

Pony Takes Cues Like an Elephant

By Science Service
CHICAGO — Though he has a smaller brain, the pony is as talented as the elephant in learning to recognize visual cues, the Midwestern Psychological Association learned today during its annual meeting.

Perhaps this ability explains the appearance of "trick" horses in the entertainment world, said Dr. Jane C. Dixon of Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio.

Dr. Dixon taught a seven-year-old gelding pony with 20 pairs of patterned cards, mostly geometric patterns.

After the pony had selected one of a pair, the cards were switched back and forth through successive trials.

Each time he had to distinguish his original choice in order to win a carrot.
