

Saturday, May 17, 2008

Voice instructor featured in MOT production

Barbara Bland, Department of Music, Theatre and Dance applied music instructor in voice, is singing the role of "Flora" in Michigan Opera Theatre's presentation of La Traviata now through May 22.

La Traviata, a 19th century tragedy, relates a tale of forbidden love that ends in heartbreak. Verdi's masterpiece closes out MOT's spring 2008 opera season. Visit the Michigan Opera Theatre on-line.

Read the Detroit Free Press story HERE.

Read the Detroit News story HERE.

SUMMARY

Barbara Bland, an applied music instructor in voice, is singing the role of "Flora" in Michigan Opera Theatre's presentation of La Traviata now through May 22.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Saturday, May 17, 2008

Modified by Carly Uhrig (uhrig@oakland.edu) on Tuesday, February 15, 2011

Article Start Date: Monday, May 19, 2008