Pontiac Teachers to Get Raise in Pay

Board Approves $250,000 Boost Monday Night

Increases Plus Deficits Expected to Put System $700,000 in Red

The Pontiac Board of Education raised the pay of some 800 teachers, principals and other employees Monday night, but some raises weren't as high as employees asked.

The action boosted Pontiac's starting salary for a new teacher with a bachelor's degree to $3,700—the same as Royal Oak, Grosse Pointe and other nearby schools.

The board, meeting in school offices at 40 Patterson St., approved about $257,500 worth of pay hikes. This raised next year's tentative school budget to $4,844,061.21, approximately $400,000 over this year's.

School officials say the raises, plus twin deficits of $210,000—one this year and one next year—will put the school system some $700,000 in the red by June 30, 1955. The board has not yet adopted the new budget, holding it open until it decides on pay hikes for a few key staff people.

At Monday's meeting, the school board:

1. Boosted all teachers' salaries by $300 and added an extra $100 (a total of $400) to salaries for the first three years. Teachers had asked for a flat $400 increase.
2. Gave non-teaching employees—bus drivers, maintenance men, and others—a $25 a month raise, or $300 a year. The employees had asked for $33 a month.
3. Gave school principals the teachers' $300 raise, plus an extra $100 to widen the margin between principals' and teachers' salaries. The principals had asked for an extra $300 over the teachers' raise.
4. Gave Vernon L. Schiller, school system treasurer; Cloyd I. Houts, maintenance foreman, and (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Building 175-Car Lot in Downtown Pontiac

The Outdoor Parking Co., Inc., has begun work on a new 175-car parking lot at Wayne and W. Lawrence Sts., according to Sam L. Stolorow, president.

President buildings on the site are being torn down, Stolorow said. The lot will front 182 feet on Lawrence and 160 feet on Wayne.

The lot's front portion will open April 1 and the back 83 feet May 1. There will be a rate for hourly parking and an all-day fee, he explained.

The surface will be blacktopped, with barriers, new driveways and a complete lighting system installed along with a cashier's building.

"The lot will cater to shoppers, with easy access and service stressed at all times," Stolorow stated.

400 Area Taxpayers Owe Penalty for Late Returns

Some 400 Pontiac area taxpayers face a 5 per cent penalty on their total income tax payments because they failed to meet the deadline of the Bureau of Internal Revenue last night.

Acting Pontiac Postmaster Leslie Dean said the majority of the late returns missed the midnight postmark by three hours. About 104 returns were over nine hours late.

More of the returns addressed to the bureau were reported on their way to the post office this morning, according to Dean.

More than 1,200 persons flocked to the local Bureau of Internal Revenue branch yesterday before the office closed at 5 p.m. A total of 5,629 returns have been processed by the office from Jan. 1 up to the deadline.

A. M. Menninger, district director of the internal revenue, said the office is still processing returns for latecomers today.

Atom Smashing Giant

UNVEILING AT BERKELEY—The success of the Bevatron, newest in atom smashing giants unveiled yesterday at the University of California, Berkeley, is reflected in the faces of the group largely responsible for its construction. Left to right (foreground) are Dr. Edwin M. McMillan and Prof. Ernest O. Lawrence. Drs. Edward Lofgren and William Brobeck are standing.

U. of California Christens Mammoth Atom Smasher

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—The greatest thing yet in atom smashers—a mammoth machine which will lead scientists onward into the exciting mysteries of the atomic nucleus—was unveiled today at the University of California. With this electronic giant scientists may turn up some more surprise discoveries such as those which led to the atom bomb. A vast new field for deriving energy from matter is among the possibilities.

Although scientists had to learn something about the nucleus to make the A-bomb, they still don't know much about it. To find out more they must bust the atom more thoroughly than ever before.

The new machine, called the bevatron, is designed to do that. The bevatron, a part of famed Prof. Ernest O. Lawrence's radiation laboratory, is a racetrack-shaped affair of steel and copper 135 feet in diameter and 14 feet high—the largest nuclear research instrument in existence.

It weighs 10,000 tons, about the weight of an ordinary-sized U. S. cruiser. It cost $1½ million dollars and was financed by the Atomic Energy Commission.

Six years were required to design and build the machine. The actual construction required four years.

A month ago the machine was cautiously started for the first time. It whipped up a thin beam of atomic projectiles to a feeble 20 million volts. Gradually it was accelerated until on March 12 it produced atom bullets of five billion volts in energy.

The previous record was 2.3 billion volts, made by the cyclotron in the AEC laboratory at Brookhaven, N. Y.

When scientists were smashing atoms in the days preceding the atomic energy era the only known nuclear particles were protons, (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

French Hold On as Battle Rages at Dien Bien Phu

Vietminh Bodies Litter Battlefield as Outcome Remains in Doubt

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—Broken, bullet-riddled bodies of thousands of crack Vietminh troops dangled like scarecrows in the barbed wire of Dien Bien Phu today as heavily outnumbered French Union troops fought desperately to keep their last big fortress in northwest Indochina out of rebel hands.

It was the most savage battle of the seven-year Indochina war. Early today the outcome—certain to have a major effect on the Geneva conference next month—was still in doubt.

The fighting which began Saturday afternoon raged furiously through last night as thousands wildly screaming Communist-led rebels, backed by artillery from Communist China, charged repeatedly into the bristling, American-armed defenses of the fortress plain.

The "do-or-die" fanatic rebel charges over the mounting bodies of their own dead resembled the Communist onslaughts on United Nations troops in the Korean War. For the first time in the long Indochina war, the Vietminh abandoned their guerrilla tactics for an all-out frontal assault.

In the first 48 hours of fighting, the Vietminh wrested two northern and northeastern strongpoints from the French Union defenders. But the French high command said the center of the Vietminh-encircled plain was still intact and the balance of the outer perimeter also was still holding.

They predicted the defenders would hold until the rebels had worn themselves out. The French said they had killed 2,500 attacking Vietminh and wounded as many more. They admitted "appreciable" losses out of their own garrison of French, Moroccan, Vietnamese, Algerians, German Foreign Legionnaires and Thai tribesmen.

The French in Saigon predicted the Vietminh could not maintain their intense attacks of the past 48 hours longer than two more days. By that time, they said, the rebel troops and their supplies—the latter painfully trekked by coolies over the hundreds of jungle miles from Chinese dumps—would be exhausted.

Chavez Ouster Voted by Group

Showdown in Senate Expected Next Week on New Mexico Seat

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Senate Rules Committee today approved 5 to 4 an elections subcommittee report recommending the ouster of Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM).

The action cleared the way for a Senate showdown on the question of whether Chavez shall be seated permanently or his seat declared vacant. The issue is expected to be decided on the Senate floor early next week.

The 5-4 vote was along strict party lines, with five GOP senators outvoting the rules group's four Democrats.

The elections subcommittee has conducted a 14-month investigation of alleged irregularities in the 1952 New Mexico senatorial race in which Chavez defeated Republican Patrick J. Hurley, former secretary of war.

The subcommittee, headed by Sen. Frank A. Barrett (R-Wyo.), recommended in a report adopted on a 2 to 1 party line vote last week that the election be declared "no contest" and that Chavez seat be declared vacant.

Cloudless skies shoved the mercury from 24 degrees at 8 a.m. today to 40 at 1 p.m. in downtown Pontiac.

Monday's temperature here ranged from 19 to 34 degrees.

Detroit Suspends 13 Policemen

Men Are Accused in Numbers Racket Action; Have Been Watched

DETROIT (UP)—Suspension of 13 Detroit policemen was announced today, Mayor Albert Cobo said. The police department has moved some of the suspended patrolmen taking money from known numbers racket operators and acting as pickup men for the gamblers.

Three of those suspended are members of the vice bureau. The others are attached to the Woodward Avenue station.

The mass suspension came as vice bureau officers raided three homes and arrested 28 men on gambling conspiracy charges. One of the homes was within five blocks of the Woodward station.

Deputy Police Supt. Kennedy Lawrence said the officers were detailed five months ago to keep the house near the Woodward station under close surveillance.

The he added: "Around the first of January, we learned that some of the policemen assigned to the case were conducting it in a highly irregular way. They were not handling the case as police customarily do in gathering evidence."

"So for the last two and a half months the police who were assigned to the case have been under secret observation."

"The case is just opening. There will be fast developments. They may come today."

Army-Committee Row

McCarthy Says He'll Fight to Handle Probe Himself

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) said today he would fight any moves within his own probe subcommittee to step aside for some other group to investigate the row he and his aides have been having with Army officials.

He called the subcommittee, which is divided on this issue, into closed session to set ground rules for the showdown.

McCarthy accuses Secretary of the Army Stevens and John G. Adams, the Army's general counsel, of using "blackmail" tactics to block his investigations of alleged Reds in uniform.

Army officials accused McCarthy and Roy Cohn, the subcommittee's chief counsel, of exerting improper pressure to win special favors for a drafted pal, wealthy Pvt. G. David Schine, a former member of their staff.

Worried Senate Republican leaders called a closed-door session of their own to consider their course in the blazing fight which pits Republican against Republican in this campaign year.

McCarthy has agreed to step aside temporarily and let another senator preside as chairman of the subcommittee in the inquiries, but declared firmly he would fight for the right to sit in the hearings and participate in the questioning of witnesses the same as any other member.

Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.), the man McCarthy has picked to preside at the inquiry, started a last-ditch effort to induce McCarthy to let some other committee take over. Mundt is a member of the subcommittee, second senior Republican to McCarthy.

"I still think the country would be best satisfied by having a neutral committee handle it," he said.

But failing in that—and he clearly expected to fail—he said he will (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Dems and GOP Scramble to Get House Majority

Ike Opposition to Hike in Exemptions Adds Fuel to Raging Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's head-on opposition to a Democratic tax cut plan sent Republican and Democratic House leaders scrambling today for the few votes that may decide the issue.

The President carried his opposition to the country last night in a radio and television address in which he denounced the Democratic proposal to boost individual income tax exemption as unsound and politically inspired.

House Speaker Martin (R-Mass) said he is "quite sure the President's address will have the effect of rallying many Republicans and Democrats to his stand."

But Rep. Rayburn (D-Tex) the Democratic House leader, indicated by his comment that his party plans to press the tax cut campaign in the House. He said the Eisenhower tax program gives "favored treatment to a few taxpayers but not to the many."

Rayburn was picked to state the Democrats' case in a radio and

TV broadcast tonight on the eve of the House battle opening tomorrow. Aiding him will be Sen. George of Georgia, senior Democrat on the Senate Finance Committee, and Rep. Cooper of Tennessee, ranking Democrat on the House Ways and Means Committee.

House Democrats are pushing a proposal to boost individual tax exemptions to $700 from the present $600. George has proposed an increase to $800 this year and $1,000 in 1955.

Eisenhower asserted last night that this would lead to "bigger and bigger deficits . . . further inflation."

An $100 increase in the personal tax exemption would save taxpayers about $2,400,000,000 and add that much to the budget deficit that the administration is struggling to keep down. GOP leaders say.

Under the Democratic plan, more than four million persons with low income or heading large families would be relieved of all income tax payment. The per capita saving for most families in the middle income brackets or below would come to about $20. It would be more in higher brackets.

Eisenhower urged Congress now to go no farther in tax reduction than the huge GOP-sponsored bill to overhaul most of the nation's existing tax laws. He said this bill, liberalizing many deductions, would benefit millions of individuals and encourage "the growth and expansion of industry, the creation of jobs." It would cost the Treasury nearly $1,400,000,000 a year.

It is to this bill that House Democrats hope to tack the boost in personal exemptions.

At Least Three Dead as Bombers Collide

OVERBROOK, Kan. (UP)—Two B-47 jet bombers from Wichita Air Force Base collided aloft today over eastern Kansas, sending one crashing to earth while the other reached its home field with a damaged tail section.

Three bodies were recovered at the crash scene, the farm of Ira Faust, three miles east and two north of this small town.

Part of the plane's landing gear and fuselage landed in a corn field about 100 yards east of the Faust farm home.

Search for Black Panther on Loose in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (UP)—A 140-pound black panther was feared loose in a residential area near downtown Los Angeles today, and police said children were thoughtlessly risking their lives to get a look at the big cat.

Some 150 policemen, armed with rifles and shotguns, searched alleys, yards and streets for the black cat.

At least six officers reported seeing the panther since it was first spotted in an alley after 9 p. m. Monday night.

Other officers, however, expressed doubt the panther could have been at large in the city three days without being seen. They said the other policemen may have mistaken another large animal for the panther in the darkness.

The first report came about five hours after Wayne Roberts, a carnival worker, reported the panther had escaped from its cage Friday.

Black panthers, which are actually a color phase of the common spotted leopard, are among the world's most dangerous game animals and have caused the death of hunters in both Africa and Asia.

Roberts said the cat escaped Friday along with two trained honeybees, two monkeys, a kinkajou and five rare German pigons. He said the monkeys and the kinkajou were found in the same area in which the search for the panther is centered.

Roberts said the animal may have been released by prowlers when the truck broke down Friday and the driver left the animal untended while he went for a mechanic.

SPLIT BARREL—Lapeer County Undersheriff Neil Gass holds the 16-gauge shotgun which 13-year-old Joseph Pilat fired once as he lay in the loft of a barn near Brown City when Gass stuck his head in the door. Deputies said dirt and snow in the barrel caused the weapon to explode when the shot was fired. Joe, left, a state ward who ran away from the Henry Kreiner home near Brown City, said he didn't aim at Gass, "just at the roof."

Officials Weigh Juvenile's Fate

Seek Reason Why Boy Ran Away From His Home, Fired Shotgun

LAPEER—The boy with a flair for dramatics was in Flint Juvenile Home today, while authorities of two counties, the State and his guardians wondered what caused him to snatch up a shotgun and flee to a neighbor's barn early yesterday morning.

Joseph Pilat, 13, who lived with four brothers as State wards at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kreiner, 5380 Black Corners Rd., Brown City, triggered the 16-gauge shotgun when Lapeer County Undersheriff Neil Gass stuck his head through the barn door.

The youngster later said he only shot at the barn's sloping roof because his brother, Anthony, 17, who trailed him there, said he wouldn't shoot the gun.

Deputies, along with four State Troopers dispatched with tear gas when it was reported the boy wasn't coming out, talked with Joe for about 15 minutes before he came out. They didn't know the gun barrel split after the first shot.

Joe, a good looking, clean-cut youth, couldn't tell sheriff's officers and reporters why he took the gun and 18 shells at 2 a.m. and left what had been his home for nine years.

All he could say was he had been planning the move for "a month or so" so he could get out of the Kreiner home.

Was Mr. Kreiner cruel? Mrs. Kreiner? "She was always finding fault and I'd get hit all the time." When was the last time she hit you? he was asked.

"About three or four weeks ago." Mrs. Kreiner, a motherly woman in her fifties, could only repeat again and again "I don't know. I just don't know why he'd do such a thing."

"I tried to do everything for the boys. . . . Maybe I was too strict. I don't know. . . I tried to treat them as I did my own two boys." One of the Kreiner boys works and lives on a neighboring farm. The other is married.

She described Joe as a youngster with a vivid imagination—interested in reading and painting and writing poems and delivering the Gettysburg Address.

He gave the Lincoln speech at the Brown City School, where he is an eighth grader, last week. Now St. Clair County authorities, who originally turned over the five brothers to the Kreiners when their parents split up, and Michigan juvenile officers must determine what to do with the boy. Lapeer County "probably will not file any charges against the boy," Gass said.

Fire Destroys $30,000 Home

Commerce Township Family of 5 Escapes Flames at 5:30 A.M.

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP—Fire destroyed the home of Franklin Huff, 3202 Adele Terrace, early today, resulting in an estimated $30,000 damage.

Three children and Huff's wife, Maxine, as well as a dog were rescued from the burning eight-room house after the family was awakened by a neighbor, Howard Coleman, who discovered the fire at 5:30 a.m.

Rescued were Francine, 12, Paula Nikkie, 6, and 18-month-old Vicki Ann.

The fire was believed to have been started from an electric blanket. Huff said Francine had been awakened earlier when the blanket became too warm and she had gone to another bedroom.

Aroused by Coleman, Huff said, "The smoke was so thick I could not see."

Huff said he had recently completed an addition to the ranch-type home and only half was covered by insurance. He is employed in the purchasing department of Pontiac Motor Division.

Commerce Township firemen fought the blaze for nearly three hours.

Slops 2 Bad Cases of Bleeding Piles In Just a Few Days

"I suffered for several years with bleeding piles," writes Mr. Clemens contractor "and tried about all kinds of pile ointments, suppositories, etc. with little or no relief. Then my doctor told me of the amazing results his customers had gotten with the new miracle drug called HEMOROL. So I tried a bottle and to my utter surprise the bleeding and accompanying soreness and irritation began to disappear in a few days and in a few days more all trouble was gone. Then my mother-in-law who had also suffered with bleeding for years tried a bottle and in less than a week all her trouble disappeared. It is now nearly two years since we took this wonderful medicine and neither one of us have had a bit of trouble since."

The same experience could be told by thousands of other former sufferers. And it is so simple and easy. Throw away your misery, disagreeable-to-use ointments, suppositories, etc. Just take a tablespoonful of pleasant, harmless HEMOROL after meals and at bedtime. Usually in a few days bleeding with its soreness and irritation begins to disappear and in a few days more is entirely gone. If directions are followed, no further suffering is required.
