

School Balloting Pickup Expected From Late Votes

Voter turnout this morning in the Pontiac School Board election is light, a spot check at 11 a.m. reveals, but a heavier turnout is expected this afternoon.

By 11 Bagley School reported about 100 voters had cast ballots, while 72 voted at Washington Junior High, 10 at the Willis School, 33 at LeBaron, and 23 at Whitfield.

School officials believe there will be a much heavier turnout later today. They expect far more than the 2,769 that voted last year.

De Gaulle Meets With U.S. Envoy

Rumor 'Courtesy Visit' Prelude to Arranging Eisenhower Confab

PARIS (UPI) — Gen. Charles de Gaulle conferred for 20 minutes today with U.S. Ambassador Amory Houghton amid reports that preliminary arrangements already are being made for a possible top level meeting between President Eisenhower and the new French premier.

Houghton will fly to Washington tomorrow for a week of consultations with high officials. His trip coincides with the Eisenhower-De Gaulle summit meeting reports.

An embassy spokesman termed today's visit by Houghton to De Gaulle a "courtesy visit," but its length and timing suggested much greater significance.

Houghton will be in Washington right after Eisenhower's sessions with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, who already has suggested Anglo-French summit talks between himself and De Gaulle. The new premier also summoned Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville back from a farewell visit to Bonn, where he has been French ambassador, to give him advice on what steps to take in connection with a possible meeting with Macmillan.

Informants said De Gaulle is anxious to meet the British prime minister soon for a sweeping review of world affairs, but that his working schedule is overwhelmingly burdened by problems connected with Algeria and reform of the French constitution.

De Gaulle also was reported planning to seek advice of his other cabinet ministers before a firm decision is made on top level bilateral talks.

Officials said one of De Gaulle's primary concerns is re-establishment of close relations with France's allies.

Has 4 Wives in 100 Years and Still Rarin' to Go!

OXFORD, Fla. (UPI) — Benjamin M. Jenkins has outlived four wives, and is celebrating his 100th birthday today still "ready for romance."

Jenkins, a native of Georgia, was honored in special ceremonies yesterday at the Assembly of God Church.

The centenarian is a retired truck farmer. He was born June 9, 1858, in Dooley County, Ga., and moved to Florida in 1870. He has 11 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren.

His health is good, and his spirits are excellent.

"I feel now that I'm ready to get married again," he confided yesterday to the Rev. G. T. Tindall.

Union-Chrysler Truce Uneasy at Missile Plant

UAW Checks Demands for Walkout, GM, Ford Still Negotiating

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union checked a threatened rank and file walkout at Chrysler Corp. as auto peace talks resumed today.

Negotiations returned at General Motors, Ford and Chrysler although no new proposals have been reported on the table to replace expired contracts covering some 500,000 auto workers.

An uneasy truce was reached at the Chrysler missile plant in suburban Center Line, which makes parts for the Redstone and Jupiter missiles.

A membership meeting yesterday produced loud demands for a walkout at the plant today.

Members and UAW Local 1245 protested a 7-cent annual improvement factor and 2-cent cost of living allowance granted June 1 to non-union employees.

UAW officials sought to negotiate an agreement with management to require union membership of additional employees at the plant.

Milan Matich, local president, said the men agreed to stay on the job on a temporary basis pending a settlement.

In a union-sponsored television program yesterday, UAW officers outlined a four-point formula for new contracts.

In addition to present improvement factors and cost of living (Continued on Page 11, Col. 5)

Recreation Still Booms

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The nation is spending record amounts for recreation despite the recession, according to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. A special survey showed sporting goods manufacturers and builders of swimming pools anticipate a record year. The American Automobile Assn. also expects domestic travel to be up 10 per cent.

More Thunderstorms to Come

Wear Your Raincoat!

Pontiac area residents have emerged from a thoroughly soggy weekend only to learn that the weather man has more drizzly weather in the offing.

Rain fell throughout southern Michigan most of Sunday and early today, extending from Grand Rapids and Bay City to Detroit.

Grand Rapids had a fall of .49 inches and Detroit .56, but Pontiac's .34 inches of rain for Sunday topped them all. Saturday's precipitation figure was .10.

Tomorrow's outlook calls for showers and thunderstorms. The mercury is expected to rise somewhat higher, however, with the high reaching 76-80 degrees. The low tomorrow night will average 48-52.

Wednesday's outlook is partly cloudy and cool. Showers are expected again Friday or Saturday.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest temperature recorded preceding 8 a.m. was 47. At 1 p.m. the mercury registered 69.

Saturday's Loud Explosion Still Puzzles Pontiac

Pontiac's mysterious explosion of Saturday is still as deep a puzzle as it was then. The police department confesses it is baffled.

There have been no reports on anyone actually sighting an explosion or fire, although thousands of persons heard the blast at about 11 a.m.

A check with Air Force officials and the Air National Guard showed that the latter had six planes aloft in the area at the time, but none were capable of breaking the sound barrier.

Even Nike bases near Pontiac were checked, but reported no unusual activity or firings.

Utility companies reported no explosions of gas lines and no home or factory blasts were discovered despite rumors to that effect.

Riots Break Out Anew on Cyprus

Turkish Woman Shot to Death Touches Off Further Clashes

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Clashes between Greek and Turkish Cypriots broke out today for the third straight day, forcing the island's British rulers to slap on a curfew only four hours after they had lifted it.

The new disturbances were touched off by the murder of a Turkish Cypriot woman and the wounding of her husband in the Greek section of this old walled city. Someone knocked at their door, asked for a glass of water and started shooting.

The woman was the first Turkish Cypriot killed since the communal strife began Saturday after a bomb was thrown at the Turkish consulate.

Turkish mobs retaliated with attacks on groups of Greek Cypriots and their establishments, in Nicosia and the southern port of Larnaca, killing four Greek Cypriots and wounding scores of others.

The Turks bitterly oppose the Greek demand for independence from Britain and union with Greece. The Turks want the island partitioned between the two communities.

The new violence aroused great indignation in Greece. The Greek Foreign Ministry announced that Greece's delegate to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization would ask for an emergency meeting of the NATO Council.

The British are believed planning to offer the island some sort of self-government but turn down Greek demands for independence as well as Turkish demands for partition.

Can't Resist Cutback

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Army Brucker said today he still feels the Army needs a minimum of 900,000 men, but he is bound by the decision of superiors not to resist a 30,000 cutback.

Jaycees Extend a Helping Hand

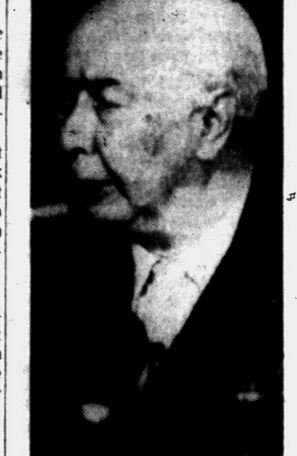

EXTEND CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN — Waterford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce tackled a second major project Saturday in their annual clean-up campaign when they repaired and painted a house of an older resident unable to do the job himself. Bringing ladders, paint, brushes and putty knives the Jaycees tackled the home of E. B. Culver, 70, at 7250 Bluebird St., and soon gave it a sparkling new appearance. A week earlier the Jaycees dismantled an old barn on Dixie Highway.

West Germany's President Visits GM Tech Center

DETROIT (UPI) — Dr. Theodor Heuss, West German president, planned to tour Detroit's auto plants today on his goodwill trip to the United States.

Heuss, first German head of state to visit this country, was welcomed by about 1,000 persons last night when his Air Force Constellation landed at Wayne Major Airport.

The 74-year-old scholar and former journalist had a busy schedule today, starting off with an official greeting by Detroit Mayor Louis C. Miriani in the City-County Building.

His itinerary included stops at the Plymouth Engine Plant, the General Motors Technical Center and the Ford Motor Co. Heuss will have luncheon with Henry Ford II.

He receives an honorary degree from University of Michigan President Harlan Hatcher this afternoon in nearby Ann Arbor. He also was to tour the late Henry Ford's Greenfield Village.

He will leave for Chicago tomorrow morning. He is touring the United States at the invitation of President Eisenhower.

Board May Set Date for Physician's Hearing

Charges against Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger will be received and made public at a special meeting of the Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees tonight.

Drawn up by the executive committee of the hospital's medical staff at the request of the board, the charges will be aired at a hearing to determine whether the ousted staff surgeon will be reinstated or permanently dropped from the medical staff.

A date for the hearing will probably be scheduled tonight and copies of the charges made available to all concerned, including Dr. Sullenberger, said Harold B. Euler, board member.

Dr. Sullenberger requested the hearing after his $250,000 damage suit for reinstatement was tossed out of Circuit Court on grounds he had not attended a hearing to appeal his temporary suspension last Nov. 13.

The suspension was recommended by the staff but its charges against the 42-year-old (Continued on Page 11, Col. 3)

Find Empty Rowboat of 2 Missing Brothers 20 Feet Offshore

Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies and area police and firemen continued their search today for two men reported missing on Pine Lake, West Bloomfield Township, early Sunday.

Joseph Portugal, 40, of 4145 S. Dearborn St., Melvindale, and his brother, Robert, 36, of 603 Merriam St., Detroit, went out in a 14-foot rowboat late Saturday night.

Sheriff's Deputies said the boat was found empty with oars in the water early Sunday morning. It was floating about 20 feet offshore.

Members of the West Bloomfield and Keego Harbor Fire Departments, the Orchard Lake and Keego Harbor Police Departments, and the sheriff's department conducted the search.

Assisting were West Bloomfield Boys' Club, Rescue and Recovery Squadron and the Pontiac Aquatic Squadron. The diving clubs continued searching throughout the day.

Soviet Union Refusing to Send Nine Men Back to Allied Zone

By SEYMOUR TOPPING
AP Bureau Chief in Berlin

BERLIN (AP) — The Soviet Union refused today to take responsibility for the nine U.S. Army men taken prisoner by the East German Communists Saturday when their helicopter made a forced landing inside the satellite.

Keeping up its campaign to force Western recognition of the puppet Communist government, the Soviet Embassy in East Berlin declared that the East German regime has jurisdiction over the American prisoners and their aircraft because the helicopter came down outside the three Allied air corridors to West Berlin.

The Soviets guarantee free Allied air traffic through these corridors under a 1949 Big Four agreement.

The Soviet Embassy statement indicated that the United States and Soviet Union were heading into a big diplomatic wrangle over the nine Americans.

The Soviet statement was in response to a newsman's question whether East Germany had jurisdiction over the Americans.

Earlier the East German government claimed it has the right to say what will be done with the helicopter and those aboard it.

DEMANDS PROMPT ACTION
The United States does not recognize the East German Communist regime and had demanded that the Soviets in East Berlin promptly return the eight Army officers, one sergeant and their aircraft.

The Western Allies contend that in accordance with the postwar four-power agreements on Germany, all their dealings concerning East Germany must be with the Soviet Union.

The helicopter belonged to the 3rd Armored Division and had been on a military exercise. U.S. authorities assumed the craft turned east due to a navigational error in a thunderstorm and ran out of gas.

It came down at Zwickau, 30 miles east of the border. The So- (Continued on Page 11, Col. 1)

$50,000 FIRE IN BIRMINGHAM—Damages caused by a fire Saturday morning at the home of a prominent Birmingham psychiatrist and author, Dr. J. Clark Moloney, 414 Arlington Rd., were estimated today at $50,000. The blaze started in the incinerator chimney and spread to the roof, Birmingham Fire Marshal George Scott said. Three firemen were overcome by smoke while battling the fire.

Takes 'Big Dose' to Quiet Him

Dearborn Man Runs Amuck 14½ Hours in Detroit Jail

DETROIT (AP)—Police required 14½ hours, 24 cans of ether and two full grains of morphine to overcome a prisoner who went berserk in his cell at police headquarters yesterday.

Inspector William Burke said Henry John Kruper, 36, of suburban Dearborn, awaiting return to Southern Michigan Prison as a parole violator, tore up his six by eight foot cell, ripped out plumbing fixtures and threw pieces of porcelain at officers attempting to quiet him.

In addition Kruper was armed with a heavy piece of iron used to brace the wash basin in his cell.

Kruper was subdued last night when police pulled his leg through a hole left by destruction of the wash basin and police physician Dr. Wilford C. Wood administered morphine injections. Dr. Wood said Kruper received two grains of the drug. A quarter-grain usually is sufficient to quiet a man.

Kruper, arrested Friday started his riot at 5:30 a.m. Sunday. The 6-foot 2-inch, 225-pound prisoner at first refused a doped drink offered to quiet him.

After he started hurling objects at police, 24 cans of ether were poured into his cell. Dr. Wood said a half a can of ether is usually enough to subdue a man.

Police were unable to rush Kruper because the cell door was only three feet wide and the prisoner waited with the iron bar for anyone to pass it.

Using a piece of reinforcing steel, police fashioned a shepherd's crook, pushed it through a hole in the sidewall and hooked Kruper's leg. Dr. Wood then administered the morphine and Kruper was taken to receiving hospital.

Kruper was on parole from a 1 to 15 year sentence for breaking and entering.

Rezoning Issue to Be Discussed

Waterford Board Meets Tonight; Also to Weigh Special Assessment

After being tabled since last August, the issue of rezoning a piece of Waterford Township property from residential to commercial will again be discussed when the township board meets tonight.

An oil company had requested the zoning change, but due to protests from residents at a hearing held last fall, the matter was tabled until a "green belt" could be constructed around the planned gas station.

The station was proposed for an acre and a half parcel located on Walton boulevard near Clintonville road.

Another issue that has been tabled for sometime will come up tonight. The matter concerns the establishment of a special street lighting assessment district in Indianwoods Manor Subdivision.

Other business will include the awarding of contracts for two new police cars for the township police. The seven bids submitted at last week's meeting had been referred to the township attorney for study.

The board will consider a recommendation of the Waterford Township Library Committee for a member to fill the vacancy of Thomas Belton, who resigned in April.

CLAUDE L. ALLEN

Guard Veteran's Burial Tuesday

Claude L. Allen, Leader of Pontiac Army Unit, to Be Interred Here

Claude L. Allen, associated with the National Guard in Pontiac since the turn of the century, will be buried tomorrow in Oak Hill Cemetery following 1:30 p.m. funeral service at Donelson-Johns Funeral Home.

Allen died Saturday of a stroke at his summer home in Higgins Lake. He was in his late 70s.

Of Allen's many accomplishments in service of his country, perhaps the most outstanding was his long and faithful leadership of Pontiac's 107th Ordnance Co. during the years between World War I and World War II.

A World War I veteran, Allen founded the company in 1922 and always refused the promotion that would mean he would have to leave command over his men. He led the company on 19 straight encampments at Camp Grayling, then had to retire with the rank of Captain in 1940 as his outfit was being integrated into the national defense program.

He stayed on at Grayling, however, as a civilian in charge of the target range and rifle ranges until several years ago.

Born in Pontiac, Allen joined the National Guard here as a youth when he was employed by the old Oakland Motor Car Co.

He went with a Pontiac infantry company to the Mexican Border in 1916 and a year later was in France with the same outfit, now a machine gun company with the 32nd Red Arrow Division.

Allen lived on Norton street until the 1940's, when he began living at Higgins Lake in the summers and North Miami, Fla. in the winters.

He is survived by his widow, the former Elizabeth Benjamine, of Pontiac; a brother, B. M. Allen, of Luzerne; and a sister, Mrs. Rose Cutler, of Lakeland, Fla.

The Day in Birmingham

Three Letters Protesting Storm Sewer Project

BIRMINGHAM — tonight's hearing of necessity on the installation of a storm sewer on Lakepark drive, between Raynald and Redding roads, has drawn three letters of protest.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen F. Booth of 1295 Lakepark Dr. said they would consider moving from Birmingham if the proposed project including the sewer and concrete paving are completed. They objected to the improvements, stating that they would destroy the suburban atmosphere of their neighborhood.

Other protests were from Mr. and Mrs. Walter Teninga, 1390 Lakepark, and Frank Sammut, 1389 Lakepark. Commissioners also will receive requests from Ralph I. Coryell and Robert E. Barton for rezoning of their properties.

Baldwin Library board will request allocation of funds for the enlargement of the library building.

After 10 years at Embury Methodist Church, the Rev. Reginald E. Becker has been transferred to the Holly Methodist Church. He will assume his new duties Sunday.

Succeeding the Rev. Becker in Birmingham will be the Rev. Samuel Stout who recently completed his theological studies in Ohio.

During his stay in Birmingham, the Rev. Becker has been active in community affairs, including the Birmingham Youth Council, Community Council and has served as president of the Birmingham Council of Churches.

The arrest of four youths, including one juvenile, in Detroit has solved the theft of six tires and wheels from the Shuts Motor Sales, 912 Woodward Ave., and auto larcenies in several other communities, Birmingham Police said today.

The youths, who were turned over to Birmingham Police Friday, have admitted the burglaries, police said. They will be charged with grand larceny.

A Birmingham home was struck by lightning during the severe electrical storm which swept the area last night.

Firemen said lightning entered through electrical wirings, scorching the carpet in one room at the home of R. D. Engle, 973 Lakepark Dr. There was no other damage.

Carter F. Henry Service for Carter F. Henry, 73, of 2354 Pembroke Rd., Birmingham, will be held at Price Funeral Home, 2501 S. Rochester Rd., Troy, at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday. Burial will be in Oakview Cemetery, Royal Oak.

Mr. Henry, who died yesterday in Ardmore Hospital, Ferndale, was a retired employee of Hudson Motor Car Co. and a member of the Masonic Palestine Lodge 241, AF & AM, St. Charles, Mo.

Surviving are a son, Marty A. of Birmingham; three brothers, one sister and two grandchildren.

Mrs. Jennie M. Pettier Service for Mrs. Jennie M. Pettier, 72, of 145 Bates St., Birmingham, will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Pursley Funeral Home, Pontiac.

Hit-Run Trio Hunted by 35-Man Posse

DETROIT (UPI)—A posse of 35 state troopers and local authorities combed a wooded area in Canton Township today for two men and a woman who ran down a state policeman with a stolen sports car.

The trio abandoned their bullet-riddled car at Michigan and Beck. Police said a 2½ mile area bounded by Geddes, Beck, Canton Center and Proctor was surrounded.

Trooper Dart Dygart of the Ypsilanti post was knocked down but not seriously injured by the trio.

Police said officer Dygart had been following the stolen car when it pulled into a gasoline station. Dygart wheeled his scout car across Michigan avenue to block the other vehicle. Witnesses said the sports car went out of control and into a ditch.

They ran down the trooper after backing out of the ditch.

Her Son Held by East German Communists

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. Edward Paul Jones of Corpus Christi said today her son, Capt. Paul E. Jones, 36, is one of the nine Army men being held by East German Communists after their helicopter made a forced landing inside the satellite Saturday.

Mrs. Jones said she has received a long-distance call from her daughter-in-law in Frankfurt, Germany, saying Jones was aboard the helicopter. Mrs. Jones said her daughter was notified by the Army.

Jones is a veteran of 18 years Army service. He and his wife have five children. They live in Frankfurt.

Speaks at MSU Commencement

Stevenson Calls for Foreign Aid Vigor

EAST LANSING (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson favors two steps to regenerate the free world economy and a power equality agreement with the Soviet Union to clear a path for arms reduction.

In a commencement speech at Michigan State University, he also called yesterday for United States aid to France in her present crisis and world sharing of medical research and health knowledge.

The Democratic leader suggested borrowing from the Marshall Plan approach of 10 years ago to fuse vigor into the West's "tottering economic assistance."

Stevenson proposed setting up a committee of experts comparable with the group which laid the groundwork for the Marshall Plan.

The experts, he said, should be assigned the job of preparing an agenda upon which nations can agree and act.

It would take in:

"Joint measures to secure sustained growth, joint negotiations for a low tariff of free trade period, joint undertaking of a long-term aid and investment program in the underdeveloped areas and joint agreement on adequate working capital for world trade."

Such a free world agenda "would go far to revive the conditions under which the old, unfettered, expansive system of free international trade once worked."

Stevenson said a deterioration of the old system confronts us with "a creeping crisis, not as dramatic but maybe more serious and more far reaching" than the Marshall Plan was designed to meet.

"As it recedes, we see, expanding eager to take its place, the new Communist techniques of grants, gifts, loans, trade, aid, barter, technical assistance, raw materials at cost, or plain dumping, all bent to a single political purpose — the reinforcement of Communist power," he said.

Stevenson said formal U. S. Soviet recognition of their power equality and mutual agreement to preserve it would follow logically from the facts of what is presently keeping the peace.

This course, he said, would create confidence and open an avenue for reduction.

"If both sides are content with power equality, then to reduce forces and limit nuclear weapons become matters of arithmetic and enforcement," he said.

He acknowledged many hazards to the course but said it was preferable to current policy "of drift and confusion."

Stevenson told a news conference after the commencement that he plans to visit the Soviet Union this summer on a trip which will take him into Soviet areas previously forbidden to foreigners.

He said he considered the Soviet grant of this privilege as "an expression of good will and a desire to be friendly."

LISBON (AP) — Dictator-Premier Antonio Salazar today was assured of continuing his rule over Portugal after shaking off his first serious electoral challenge in 30 years.

Early returns from yesterday's election gave a lead approaching 90 per cent to the Premier's hand-picked presidential candidate, Adm. Americo Tomas. He will succeed President Higinio Craveiro Lopes, who is stepping out at the end of a seven year term.

Gen. Humberto Delgado, the fiery opposition candidate who said he would fire Salazar and appoint a military government to conduct free parliamentary elections, never had any real chance of winning.

Only Tomas' name was printed on the ballots given the nation's 1,200,000 million voters. If a voter wanted to cast the ballot for Delgado, he had to write in the general's name.

Delgado, the first anti-Salazar candidate for president ever to remain in the race until election day, bitterly refused to send congratulations to "those people."

"The elections only showed," he said, "that like Hitler and Mussolini, nobody can win in Portugal against Salazar."

Interior Minister Joaquin Trigo de Negreiros told a news conference the vote indicated most of the nation wanted to continue the "peace and progress of the current regime."

He also announced that the president of Delgado's campaign committee, 70-year-old Prof. Francisco Vieira de Almeida, had been arrested on charges of issuing a manifesto inciting revolt.

The minister also said about 100 persons had been arrested during the campaign on charges of disorderly conduct.

Delgado charged that his campaign workers were arrested while distributing sample ballots bearing his name.

Delgado is minister of civil aviation in Salazar's government.

State Unemployment Drops 1st Time in '58

DETROIT (AP) — A slight drop in Michigan unemployment has been reported for the first time this year.

The Michigan Employment Security Commission said the number of jobless May 15 was 457,000, down from a peak of 460,000 on April 15.

The new total shows 15.6 per cent of the state's labor force is idle, compared with 15.7 per cent April 15.

However, the unemployment decline was only in outstate areas. Detroit still has 275,000 workers unemployed, 18 per cent of the city's labor force.

The MESOC report came as the Ford Motor Co. announced it will recall 475 laid off glass workers tomorrow at its Dearborn plant. Operations had been discontinued Feb. 28. The company said additional workers will be recalled into July to rebuild inventories.

Almost All U.S. Dentists Have Life Insurance

NEW YORK — Life insurance statistics indicate that virtually all dentists in the United States own policies. In 11 states, 100 per cent of the dentists are owners, and for the entire nation 98 per cent are.

In the age group from 35 to 55, ownership is 99.2 per cent.

Wow, All for $100!

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Dan Greenhouse advertised his three-bedroom, three-bath hill-top home with swimming pool and view of the ocean for rent at $1,000 a month. Only the ad in the newspaper came out $100. "What a weekend," he sighed. "The phone's been ringing ever since the ad appeared."

PROTEST VIOLATION

The East German Foreign Ministry announced it had sent the U. S. State Department a note protesting that East German air space had been violated. The Foreign Ministry followed up today with a declaration that the fact it had sent its protest direct to the State Department showed the East German regime—and not the Soviets—has jurisdiction in the matter.

Indonesian Ills Are Geographic

Far-Flung Territories Shelter 80 Millions, of 12 Races, 40 Tongues

WASHINGTON — Behind headlines growing out of economic and political ferment in Indonesia lie basic geographic factors that add to the troubles of the young republic.

Indonesia not only covers an enormous aggregate area of some 576,000 square miles; it is divided into more than 3,000 island fragments scattered over the south-west Pacific.

Large and small, these volcanic chunks of land follow the Equator for a distance as far as from San Francisco to Boston. North to south, they extend 1,000 miles.

In all, more than 80,000,000 people—about half the population of the United States—live under the Indonesian flag. They represent a dozen Oriental and Pacific races, and speak at least 40 languages.

Their varied cultures reflect modern European influences as well as those of ancient migrations and invasions from India, China, and Malaya. Most of the people are Moslems, but there are large groups of Christians, Buddhists, and Hindus.

Crowded, intensely cultivated Java is a world away from primitive Kalimantan (Borneo), with its vast jungles, mountain fastnesses, and painted tribesmen. Rich, plantation-dotted Sumatra—three times as big as Java, but with only a fourth as many people—is called "Indonesia's future." Bali, the tiny, picture-postcard isle of dancing girls and Hindu temples, looks back to its remote past.

EDUCATION AIDS UNITY

The central government at Djakarta, Java, is attempting to unify its regions and peoples under the slogan, "Gotong-rojong: 'Helping each to help the other.'" As part of the program it is furthering mass education based on a general Indonesian language akin to Malay. Schools have multiplied, and illiteracy has dropped sharply in recent years.

Board May Schedule Sullenberger Hearing

Pontiac physicians have never been made public in detail.

Meantime, the surgeon has filed answer to a $100,000 damage suit brought in Circuit Court by a Pontiac factory worker who claims the surgeon left a surgical sponge with in his stomach cavity last July 31, after performing an operation.

The worker, Cecil J. Harrison, 36, of 269 Seward St., further charged that the operation was "unnecessary."

Dr. Sullenberger denied this latter charge but acknowledged the sponge was left behind unintentionally.

He said two X-rays taken while Harrison was still on the operating table failed to detect the sponge. The sponge showed up in a third X-ray on the day Harrison was to leave the hospital and another operation was performed to remove it, Dr. Sullenberger said.

He said a third operation was necessary to suture the first incision because it broke open during Harrison's recovery from the second surgery. All three operations, Dr. Sullenberger said, were up to acceptable standards.

His answer was filed by attorneys for an insurance company.

Customer in Tavern Actually Did Lose Leg

MADISON, Wis. (U. P.) — No one was kidding Patrolman Richard Peterson when he was called to a tavern to investigate a report that a patron lost a leg.

The call was legitimate. A 55-year-old man had lost a wooden leg. The bar man said the patron fell asleep in a booth and efforts to dislodge him resulted in loss of the artificial limb.

Police removed the man from his lodged position, helped him strap on his leg and sent him home.

UAW Checks Walkout at Chrysler Missile Plant

demands for improved Supplemental Unemployment Benefits; higher pensions and earlier retirement, and job or pay protection for employees affected by plant closings or movings.

Chrysler unrest had threatened the UAW's own policy of no strikes in the no-contract period existing since Big Three refusals to extend old contracts at the end of May.

However, a company spokesman said strike action scheduled for today at the plant was called off as the result of a memorandum of understanding reached with local officials. The company said it is negotiating with the union on unresolved issues. It gave no details.

Chrysler gave its salaried workers a 9-cent-an-hour raise effective June 1, the day its UAW production workers contract expired.

Aussie Industry Expands

CANBERRA—Australia's 54,000 factories employ more than a million men and women, or 30 per cent of the country's work force. This is a proportion of industrial employment almost equal to that of the United States. Since the end of World War II, factory employment has scored an over-all increase of 25 per cent and total production figures have risen by 50 per cent.

YWCA Group Fetes 10th Year

Golden Age Club Marks Birthday

By MARGARET BROWN

Devon Gables was the setting for several hours of grand fellowship when members of the YWCA's Golden Age Group were honored at their 10th anniversary luncheon.

Golden Ager Mrs. William Todd offered the invocation at the Friday gathering. Following the luncheon Mrs. Donald Hogue led the group in singing a number of hymns and perennial favorites, among which were "The Old Rugged Cross," "In The Garden," and "Love's Old Sweet Song." Mrs. B. H. Zannoth accompanied at the piano.

Charter members introduced by Mrs. J. A. Rammes, sponsor of the group, included Mrs. Carrie Heath, Mrs. I. A. Woodward and Mrs. T. F. Lohff. Charter member Mrs. J. A. Covert was unable to attend the event.

Among guests introduced by Mrs. Rammes were Mrs. Elsie Vieriech, a former sponsor of the Golden Ager. Other visitors included Mrs. O. G. Strong, Agnes Hilton, Mrs. Lile Echlinaw, Mrs. James H. George, Mrs. Fred Travis, Mrs. Frank Nelson, Mrs. John Adams, Mrs. W. E. Blynn, Janice Antona, Mrs. Paul Langworthy and Mrs. Alfred Coles.

A corsage for the oldest member present (excluding the charter members) went to Mrs. Elizabeth Peck, who has reached her 90th year. Special recognition was accorded Mrs. Viola Chapel, who wrote a clever poem for each Golden Ager's place-setting, and members of the fourth grade class at Daniel Whitfield School who made corsages of colored construction paper for members.

WIN OVATION

Two Golden Age members offered special numbers which brought a warm ovation from the luncheon audience. Gertrude Richardson, 76, caused many a misty eye as she sang the inspiring, "Hold Thou My Hand," by Briggs. Two delightful and yet poignant readings were given by Mrs. Carrie Heath, aged 93.

Following these presentations Mrs. Fred Stimpert, president of the YWCA Board, introduced Mrs. Reba Netzer, YWCA executive, who expressed appreciation for the close cooperation between the United Fund and the YWCA. Mrs. Netzer then introduced Karl Bradley, head of the United Fund, who paid tribute to the group, and Robert Langer, assistant director of the Fund.

The Golden Age Group of Pontiac's YWCA was feted at a 10th anniversary luncheon Friday at Devon Gables. Mrs. J. A. Rammes, right, sponsor of the group, was presented with a bouquet of roses in appreciation of her service in Golden Age activities, by Mrs. John Doig, a Golden Age Group member.

Charter members of the Golden Age Group (left to right) Mrs. I. A. Woodward, Mrs. Carrie Heath, and Mrs. T. F.

Lohff were given special recognition at Friday's gathering.

Dear Abby....

First Duty to Family

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My wife is married to the Church Auxiliary. They have church suppers about four nights a week and my wife is chief cook and bottle washer. She's got varicose veins but she puts on elastic stockings and stands on her feet all day cooking and then runs around all night serving. She is so knocked out she gives the kids money and tells them to eat at the diner. She thinks she is doing her Christian duty by neglecting her family and wearing herself out. Will you please set her straight?

ABBY

NEGLIGENCE HUSBAND DEAR NEGLECTED: There must be another way to get to heaven. Cooking for church suppers is fine but a woman's first duty is to her own family. She ought to take an afternoon off and have a talk with her clergyman.

DEAR ABBY: About thirteen years ago my husband and I were living with his parents in their home. They sold their home and gave my husband the money to buy another house on his G.I. loan. We all live in the house bought with THEIR money but on my husband's G.I. loan. What I want to know is, are WE living with THEM, or are THEY living with US?

WONDERING DEAR WONDERING: For the sake of harmony, let's say you are all living together!

DEAR ABBY: I don't know what to do with my boy who is 15. He steals cigarettes from his Dad constantly and I have noticed that he even used up a whole bottle of cough syrup (little by little) trying to sweeten his breath. He is sassy to me and his father and makes up lies to get out of the house every night, and he never says where he is going. He is driving us crazy. What have some other people done with boys (or girls) when they act like this? I hope someone will answer. HELPLESS

DEAR HELPLESS: It is very difficult (but not impossible) to gain control of a 15-year-old once you've lost it. The boy needs to spend some time with someone he admires and respects. Try a doctor, coach, clergyman or male teacher.

DEAR ABBY: I am a barber and work six days a week. My wife has nothing to do all week long. Will you please tell me why she has to wait until Sunday (my only day home) to do the canning, washing, ironing and stuff like that? CHUCK THE BARBER

DEAR CHUCK: Think up something a little more exciting to do, and she'll put off the canning, washing, ironing and stuff like that.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

RICHARD H. AYLING

Recipient of a B. A. degree from Alma College is Richard H. Ayling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Ayling of North Edith street. A physical education major with minors in English and social science, he will teach English and history and coach golf at Pontiac Central High School.

It Takes Two to Talk!

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: What is the proper behavior for a guest who finds herself a stranger at a large party? I was invited to a semi-business cocktail party last week and found that I knew no one at the party but the hostess. I felt very unnecessary and after about fifteen minutes I left. I would like to know if it would have been proper for me to go up to other guests without being introduced, and start a conversation."

Answer: You can't very well walk up to two strangers who are talking together unless they speak directly to you. But you can quite properly start a conversation with either a man or woman who is seated, or standing, next to you. You must not, however, let it run on without response from your listener.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I suppose I am a very fussy eater, but I find it impossible to eat certain foods. When invited out to lunch or dinner should I take tiny portions of the foods I cannot eat and leave them untouched on my plate, or refuse them when passed around the table? I think it is less conspicuous to take a little than refuse dishes that are passed. What is your opinion?"

Answer: If you are really not going to eat the food it is pure waste to take it and leave it on your plate. You don't have to eat everything that is served, but let's hope you can eat some of the food.

"Dear Mrs. Post: If it is necessary to interrupt when persons are talking, what is the most polite way to do it?"

Answer: Say, "I'm sorry to interrupt," or "Excuse me, please, but Mrs. Brown is on the telephone," or "Mr. Jones is waiting to see you," or whatever it is that makes it necessary for you to interrupt.

Slow Down—Eat Often

Must Follow Definite Rules to Gain Weight

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Shante-on you—those of you who do not read "Why Grow Old?" EVERY day. I keep getting letters from readers like the following:

"Dear Mrs. Lowman: You always help people who are too fat and want to lose weight but why not help those who are too thin and want to gain?" Another letter says, "I don't think you are being fair to us. You are always giving advice on how to keep thin. Why not have a column on how to gain weight? I'm sure I am not the only one who feels this way."

I must admit that I write a lot more about overweight than underweight, but I do periodically give the thin girls a break. Today I will give you a quick resume of the facts, because I know that the swimming season puts the pressure on you.

1. Slow down! Usually the underweight woman has lots of nervous energy which she spends with abandon. She rushes here and there and never completely relaxes even when sitting down. She drums her fingers and swings her crossed leg. Try to learn to go limp at every opportunity. Try to plan your life so that you do not have to rush.

2. Do not try to stuff yourself with three big meals. Instead eat five smaller ones. Be sure that you eat a well-balanced diet and are getting plenty of vitamins and minerals with a liberal fruit and vegetable intake. Drink whole milk with meals and also a couple of times in between meals or at night. Add some cream to the milk you drink without your meals.

3. Vitamin B complex is sometimes helpful to the woman who wishes to add poundage.

4. Exercise is helpful. Take mild exercises and breathing exercises. Swimming is a wonderful sport for you because it builds lovely curves and is also most relaxing.

5. Get plenty of sleep.

6. Whenever possible take a rest period before meals.

If you follow these few rules, I feel sure you will add those much wanted pounds!

If you would like to have my Nine-Day Gaining Diet, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 41. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Tomorrow: Mischa Elman's recipe for success.

Map Color Strategy for Home

NEW YORK (INS) — Do dramatic opposites attract you, or are you soothed by similarity?

That's the question you should ask yourself before beginning to map out the color strategy of a new home or apartment. This is what you should keep in mind:

Combinations of various colors provide different harmonies. Using colors next to each other on the color scale, such as blue, violet-blue and violet will produce a restful, pleasing effect.

Each color has a complement—its direct opposite. Green is the complement of red, violet of yellow, orange or blue.

Complementary harmonies, using color opposites, are more dramatic, but they must be handled with care.

Colors can be divided into two groups. The primary, unmixed colors are red, yellow and blue. The secondary colors are violet (a mixture of red and blue), green (composed of blue and yellow) and orange (combining yellow and red). The hundreds of shades featured by home furnishings manufacturers are variations on these basics.

About to Retire, Mrs. Lola King Has Seen Pontiac Schools at Their Best—and Worst

By HAROLD S. COHEN

A gracious lady whose record of public service almost parallels the history of education in Pontiac for the past three decades is retiring.

Mrs. Lola B. King, of 98 S. Shirley St., on July 1 will step down from her seat on the Pontiac Board of Education after 16 years service.

Mrs. King, whose vigor belies the fact she has just passed her 61st birthday had decided to devote more time to her family — her husband Harry is retired as foreman at Fisher Body Division and they have two daughters and several grandchildren.

Mrs. King was first drawn into school activities when her eldest daughter entered McConnell School in 1924. The mother, as so many do joined the school's PTA.

As her children advanced in grades, she moved with them joining PTAs at Eastern Junior High School and then Pontiac Central.

ONE OF THE FINEST

"In the 1920's," she recalled "Pontiac had one of the finest school systems in the country."

Mrs. King was active in the PTA and worked hard to get Eastern Junior High built. It was the first such school in the city and a new idea in education.

When the depression struck in 1929, the schools fell on evil days. A money-conscious public rebelled against taxes and elected a majority of board members devoted to the keeping down of expenses.

A period of decay struck the schools, Mrs. King said, and not only were no buildings constructed but necessary repairs were ignored and the instructional level declined. Teachers' wages were unbelievably low and many uncertified persons taught in the system.

During this period Mrs. King recalled, the PTA sewed 10,000 items of clothing for needy school children with material supplied by the city.

About 1940, the system hit bottom, she said. But then the upturn began, hardly perceptible at first.

BECOMES PTA PRESIDENT

Robert French took over as superintendent and Emerson school was built by the WPA with used materials.

Mrs. King became president of the Pontiac PTA Council. She had already served as president of the McConnell, Eastern and Pontiac Central groups.

In 1942, determined that something must be done for the schools she ran for the board of education and was easily elected.

The war was on and school improvements had to mark time.

Mrs. King turned her energies to the Red Cross and Civil Defense and served on the Community Chest.

MRS. LOLA KING

She was one of the founders and on the first board of directors of the Oakland County Child Guidance Clinic.

Although her children had graduated from high school, she was as actively interested in education as ever.

She was appointed by the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers as a district director and served three years.

She served on the MCPT committees for education and by-laws and in 1945 was elected director of district services for the state.

In 1946 she was re-elected to the Pontiac Board of Education and worked with the new superintendent, Frank DuFrain.

Under Superintendent French, the instructional program had been improved, but construction and repair of buildings was still a dead letter.

With the arrival of DuFrain, progressive elements on the board including Mrs. King began to work for plant-improvements.

Mrs. King fought hard against standard conditions at LeBaron School where children studied in shacks in their coats during the winter.

SAW PUDDLES, SNOW

Mrs. King saw the puddles of water in the corridors and the snow drifting into the classrooms.

Under her prodding the board agreed to build two new classrooms and in 1944 Mrs. King ran the steam shovel that broke ground on the first new building since 1930.

In 1950, the voters finally approved a 2.75 millage increase and the long-neglected repair work on the crumbling schools began.

Nine additions to schools were erected from 1950 to 1955 and supervisors were hired to improve the instructional level in the schools.

In addition, a new school was built and books were bought for libraries. Visiting teacher programs were started and visual education came into being.

In 1954, the present superintendent, Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, was hired and additional millage voted for a real drive to make Pontiac schools outstanding.

ON STATE COMMITTEES

During this period Mr. King was elected president of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers and worked on state committees for educational policy, curriculum development, on the state Youth Commission and on the state Inter-government Relations Committee.

She was vice president and a director of the Michigan Mental Health Committee and served on the Teachers Tenure Committee.

She also was active in Republican politics and was chosen delegate to both county state GOP conventions.

In the past four years, her fourth term on the board of education, Mrs. King has witnessed nine new schools built, including the new high school now under construction and Madison Junior High, seven additions to existing schools and nine multipurpose rooms added.

She has also seen an upgrading in the quality of teachers and vast strides in improvement of instruction and related services.

She recalls that she made the motion to hire teachers regardless of race and has voted for such improvements as written policies for the board, inservice teacher training, helping teachers aid new teachers, internships for new supervisory personnel and special education and testing programs.

STILL NEED IMPROVEMENT

"We still need improvement in our guidance and counseling services and in our health services," she added.

Widely in demand as a speaker and conference participant, Mrs. King is recognized as an authority on education.

Although she vows she will devote time to her family ("my husband has certainly been a patient man"), her keen interest and great experience in the field of education may still cause many demands to be made on her time.

He plans to attend the University of Michigan on a scholarship awarded for outstanding academic work and extra-curricular activities.

Pat participated in baccalaureate ceremonies Sunday evening along with 126 other Milford High seniors.

The Rev. William Lovejoy, pastor of the Milford Methodist Church, delivered the main address, with Rev. Maurice Dierckx of the Highland Congregational Church presenting the invocation and benediction.

Main speaker for commencement exercises at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday will be Dr. Charles L. Anspach, president of Central Michigan College at Mt. Pleasant.

Salutatorian Sue Bourns will give the reading, which will be followed by the farewell address by valedictorian Kelley.

This will be the first class to graduate from the new 2½-million-dollar high school on North Milford road.

Ex-Pontiac Man Top Disabled Working Father

A native of Pontiac, now of Lancaster, Pa., has been chosen the Disabled Working Father of the Year.

The announcement was made today by the National Father's Day Committee in New York. They chose Jack Cooke, 31, victim of multiple sclerosis.

Cooke was stricken at 26 in Lancaster after he had graduated from college, served in the Navy and married.

He became ill and began to see double. When he learned he had multiple sclerosis, he settled down to live a life which doctors call "spiritual therapy."

Now 31, and the father of two children, he runs a pet shop and dog-board kennel established by his grandfather. He is active in several civic organizations.

"One of these days they'll find a cure," Jack says. "Meantime, I've got too much to do just to sit around and feel sorry for myself."

To Study Low Bids for Building Bridge

Low bidders on a state trunkline construction project to widen the M150 bridge in Rochester will be determined June 18 in Lansing, State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie announced today.

The present bridge, which has a 28-foot-wide roadway, will be widened to 48 feet along the east edge of the present bridge. The new structure will have 14 spans and will be of reinforced concrete and rolled beam slab.

The project also calls for widening and resurfacing of six-tenths of a mile at the bridge approaches. These will be widened to 44 feet.

Detroit Woman Critically Injured

Husband's Car Struck by 2nd Auto on Wet Southfield Pavement

SOUTHFIELD — A Detroit woman was injured critically last night in a two-car collision at Southfield and Mt. Vernon roads.

Taken to William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, with internal injuries was Mrs. Patricia Becht, 28. She was riding in a car driven by her husband James, 25, which was struck by another driven by 17-year-old William Leddy, also of Detroit.

Leddy told Southfield Police he attempted to pass a car, lost control on the wet pavement as he tried to get back into his lane and collided with the oncoming Becht auto, sending it into the ditch.

Leddy is in the hospital with a broken leg. Becht was treated for cuts on his hand and released.

No charges have been filed yet against the youth, police said.

Two Boys on Bikes Hit-Run Victims

Two boys on bicycles were victims of hit-run drivers in separate accidents Saturday afternoon. Neither boy was injured seriously.

Dennis Walker, 7, of 24 Euclid St., was riding his bike on the sidewalk on Johnson street, near W. Huron, when a car coming out of an alley hit him and then sped away at a high rate of speed.

Dennis was treated at Pontiac General Hospital for bruises.

Bobby Little, 12, of 158 Lincoln St., was behind a standing ice cream vendor's truck on his street when the vehicle suddenly rolled backwards hitting his bike.

Bobby was knocked to the pavement, but the truck drove away without the driver investigating, police said. The boy was not injured.

The longest covered bridge in the United States and the only covered bridge that carries a Federal highway is at Philippi, W. Va.

Dallas Man Lives to Tell How It Feels to Drown

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A Dallas man cheated death at Lake Lavon yesterday, living to tell how it feels to "drown."

Leroy Reed, 30, was rescued and revived after leg cramps caused him to go under 30 yards off shore.

While his wife and relatives watched helplessly from shore, the husky construction worker floundered and sank. Unidentified boatmen cruising nearby rescued him, hauled him ashore, and administered artificial respiration.

Volunteer firemen and a Texas Highway patrolman, Pat Stephens, worked for half an hour before Reed began breathing.

Reed regained consciousness an hour later.

"I was swimming along fine when all of a sudden my legs began to drag up under me," Reed said later.

"I couldn't straighten them out. I was scared. I had to fight to get my head above water. I sank anyway. I fought my way up again and shouted to my wife."

Reed said a "funny feeling" routed his panic as he sank the second time.

"All of a sudden I began feeling good. I felt good all over."

"Everything seemed good. I could feel a sort of pressure all over me. And everything seemed to be drifting back away from me. The whole world was moving back—but it felt good."

Ella Mae Reed, 22, his wife, said she watched her mate fight for his way to the surface three times more, then disappear. Reed said he remembered nothing of these struggles.

He insisted he felt relaxed and was not fighting.

To Stand Trial in Tokyo Killing

American Charged With Brother-in-Law's Death From Brutal Beating

TOKYO (AP)—Joseph P. Crowley of New Haven, Conn., was indicted today for the death of his brother-in-law and partner T. A. D. Jones Jr.

The indictment accused the burly, 48-year-old ex-haliback of beating Jones while under the influence of alcohol.

Crowley was charged specifically with inflicting bodily injuries resulting in death, roughly equivalent to manslaughter in America.

Prosecutor Kenjiro Furukawa presented the indictment to the Tokyo District Court. Under Japanese procedure the court sets a date for trial before three judges. There is no jury.

Trials normally extend over many months.

The charge is the same as that on which GI William S. Girard was convicted for killing a Japanese brass scavenger on an Army firing range. Conviction can carry a sentence of 2 to 15 years. Girard got a three-year suspended sentence.

Jones, 45, was president of a New Haven fuel oil firm and Crowley is vice president. Both were football stars at Yale. Jones was the son of the late T. A. D. Jones Sr., 1907 All America quarterback at Yale and later the Eli coach. Crowley is married to Jones' sister.

Crowley and Jones came to Tokyo May 5 with Frederick M. Kissinger, a Maryland accountant, to buy an oil tanker.

Jones was found dead three days later in the Imperial Hotel suite the three men shared. The body was badly bruised.

Crowley and Kissinger admitted making a night club tour with Jones the night before his death but said they had no idea what happened to him after their return to the hotel. Crowley denied any connection with his brother-in-law's death and termed his arrest May 21 "fantastic." He has been in jail ever since.

Furukawa said Saturday Kissinger had been cleared of all suspicion.

4 Escape Serious Injury in East Boulevard Flip

Four teenagers escaped with minor injuries Sunday morning when their car rolled over on East boulevard, near Featherstone Rd.

John L. English, 19, of 57 N. Sanford St., told police his car skidded off the road on the wet pavement.

English and his passengers, Ann Whiting, 17, and Kathryn Brinkman, 18, both of 73 N. Francis St., and Edward Neaves, 18, of 784 S. Scottwood Ave., were taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

English and Neaves were treated for cuts and Miss Whiting for a muscle spasm. Miss Brinkman was not hurt.

Chain-Action Crash on Highland Hurts 2

Two people were slightly injured yesterday in a chain-reaction pile up in a long column of weekend traffic backed up on Highland road in Waterford Township.

Injured were Peter F. Espinoza, 21, of 3215 Herkimer St., Detroit, and Allan R. Olson, 19, of 6928 Hatchery Rd., Waterford Township.

Police said William J. Bellante, 31, of 1916 Lawndale St., Detroit, with whom Espinoza was riding, drove into the rear of Olson's car near the intersection of Cass Lake road.

Olson's car rammed the one ahead of it, and that car struck the rear of the next one in line, police said.

Espinoza suffered a cut leg and Olson a minor neck injury. Both were treated at Pontiac General Hospital.
