New Squabble May Snarl Up M'Carthy Quiz

Senator, Cohn Protest Publicizing of Army's Allegations

WASHINGTON (INS) — A squabble over premature disclosure of the Army's latest charges against Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy and his chief counsel, Roy M. Cohn, threatened today to put a new crimp in a Senate investigation of the controversy.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-SD), acting as chairman of McCarthy's investigations subcommittee while it probes the dispute, said he expects televised and broadcast public hearings to begin on schedule next Thursday despite the unexpected new uproar.

However, a delay was considered possible in view of Cohn's refusal to give "any further information" to the unit until it learns who jumped the gun in making public a new set of Army allegations which he called a "one-sided smear."

The Army's report to the Senate group charged that McCarthy, Cohn and Francis P. Carr, the subcommittee's staff director, threatened to key their investigations of the Army to the response given their demands for "preferential treatment" for Pvt. G. David Schine.

Schine, former unpaid chief consultant of the subcommittee, was inducted last November. In a reply to earlier Army charges, McCarthy accused Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens of holding Schine a "hostage" to block investigations of the service.

It was understood that some members of the subcommittee favor sending the Army's latest report back to the Pentagon for revision.

They and Special Chief Counsel Ray H. Jenkins are said to believe that it failed, in many of the 29 points it listed, to cite specific instances of today's news.

City Hall Builders Ahead of Schedule

Work is proceeding rapidly on Pontiac's new $1,000,000 city hall. It is hoped the building can be occupied by next January instead of next spring as previously planned, City Manager Walter K. Willman said today.

The three-story structure lies on the south side of E. Pike street between Hill and Parke streets.

The J. A. Fredman Contracting Co. began construction work 11 months ago. The building is being financed on a pay-as-you-go plan without necessity of a bond issue.

Fresh Rebel Troops Ready to Renew Assault on Fort

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—The Vietminh shoved tens of thousands of fresh troops into attack positions around Dien Bien Phu today. The third round of the savage battle for the French Union stronghold appeared to be days or even hours away.

Reliable sources said rebel Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap had rushed up at least 40,000 unbloated regulars to bolster his badly battered force in the low hills encircling the fortified plain and along its fringes.

With these reinforcements and replacements for the thousands killed by murderous French fire in the past five weeks came 5,000 or more youthful rebels just out of training camps.

It appeared certain here the Vietminh in their next all-out assault would outnumber the defenders at least 6 or 8 to 1.

The stoutly defended French fortifications faced more critical moments today as the garrison force tried to drive out Vietminh troops entrenched on the northern section of the main Dien Bien Phu air strip. The French, lunging at the infiltrated units with bayonets, grenades and machine guns, routed them yesterday from about half the trenches they had dug and blasted with high explosives on the pocked field.

But the rebels still clung to dugouts only 2,400 feet from the heart of the French bastion. These split the east-to-west network of defense communications on the north and posed the most serious threat to (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Gas Rate Hiked but State Users May Get Rebate

FPC Grants Panhandle $12 Million; Company Had Asked $21 Million

DETROIT (AP) — More than 1,000,000 Michigan gas customers may receive rebates although the Federal Power Commission has approved a rate increase for the Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co.

The FPC Thursday voted 4 to 1 to grant Panhandle a $12,778,864 yearly rate increase, or nearly $9,000,000 less than the company has been charging its customers on a conditional basis.

The action brought criticism from Michigan Republican congressmen, including Sen. Homer Ferguson and Rep. Charles Oakman.

Commissioner Claude L. Draper, the sole FPC member who voted against the action, contended a large part of the hike is "in my opinion, wholly unjustifiable."

The FPC decision would grant Michigan utilities using Pandangle gas rebates on all bills paid since December, 1952.

At that time the pipeline company had increased its rates by $21,400,000 a year. It then sought FPC approval of the hike. And while awaiting the decision which came yesterday, Pandangle charged the higher rates under bond.

Rebate for Local Users Up in Air, Manager Says

David H. Gerhard, manager of Consumers Power Co.'s southeastern division, said today that "it's just impossible to tell yet" how the action will affect Pontiac people.

Consumers Power Co. buys all its gas from the Michigan Gas Storage Co., a subsidiary of Pandangle Eastern Pipeline Co.

On a pledge to refund the difference if the rates were not granted.

The commission said that reduction of the rate hike to $12,778,864 would result in refunds of at least $32,000,000 to the company's 48 utility customers in six midwestern states, including Michigan.

Pandangle had passed along the original rate increase to both the Consumers Power Co. and the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. Both were affected by the latest ruling.

Consumers Power uses Pandangle gas exclusively in servicing its 375,000 Michigan customers in 200 communities.

Michigan Consolidated serves 765,000 gas customers in Detroit, Ann Arbor, Muskegon, Grand Rapids and other central Michigan areas.

Livonia Youths Chilled in Lake

Suffer From Severe Exposure When Canoe Overturns

Two Livonia youths were exposed to the chilling waters of Orchard Lake for 20 minutes yesterday afternoon when a borrowed canoe tipped over, according to Orchard Lake Police.

Melvin Rowley, 17, of 31765 W. Seven-Mile Rd., and Darrell Middlewood, 17, of 13066 Farmington Rd., started out about 2 p.m. in a sailboat, according to Sgt. William Brown, but were unable to navigate their boat against the wind.

The boys told Brown they left the boat on the west shore and borrowed a canoe, which overturned between Apple Island and the east shore.

Rowley and Middlewood said they held onto the canoe and paddled to shore with their hands and feet. "I was getting numb and didn't think I was going to make it," Rowley said.

Brown said the boys suffered severe exposure. They were treated at Pontiac General Hospital.

Brown told them to return the canoe to its owner.

Ice Stops Soo Ships

Those Pits in Windshields ... Imagination or Bomb?

SEATTLE (AP)—Superbombs, supernatural or superstition, there was no doubt about it today, the one million people in the Puget Sound country were stirred up by the case of the pockmarked windshields. Some were even blaming H-bombs.

And the mayor of this city of 500,000 was trying to stir up the President of the United States. The mayor, Allan Pomeroy, apparently was among the believers that something, rather than someone, is damaging thousands of automobile windshields with an unknown substance.

The mayor asked the President to "instruct appropriate federal agencies to cooperate with local authorities on an emergency basis."

There are doubters, too, who think an awful lot of people are victims of mass hysteria, suddenly conscious of something that may have happened days, weeks or months ago.

"Tommyrot," exploded Dr. D. M. Ritter, assigned by the chemistry department of the University of Washington to assist authorities seeking an answer to the riddle. "There isn't anything I know of that could be causing unusual breaks in windshields," he said after examining several and residue found on the cars.

"These people must be dreaming!"

One thing is certain: the claims of damaged windshields are mounting into the thousands. And one thing else appears certain: no other glass objects seem to be suffering, not even side windows of cars.

The description of the damage varies from actual holes to pits, marks covering every known shape. Chips, scratches, mars, pits, holes, crumbling, blisters, blurs, blotches and cracks. Some people even claim the damage has happened before their eyes.

Law enforcement officials are convinced that some vandalism was involved in cases reported at (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Shoulders Lied, Jury Decides

Convicts Ex-Policeman in Greenlease Case on Story of Ransom

KANSAS CITY (AP) — A federal court jury has convicted Louis Shoulders, the veteran police officer who broke the Greenlease kidnapping case, of lying about the handling of the ransom money.

A half year ago Shoulders, who spent more than a quarter of a century on the St. Louis police force, was hailed as a hero after he arrested Carl Austin Hall, Hall and his partner, Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, were executed for kidnapping and killing 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease.

Yesterday the federal jury found Shoulders guilty of lying about his handling of two money-stuffed suitcases found in Hall's room.

Shoulders was charged with committing perjury in testimony early this year before a federal grand jury. He maintained the suitcases were brought into the police station 15 to 20 minutes after Hall was booked. The government said they weren't brought in until more than an hour later.

Of the $600,000 ransom money paid to Hall by Robert C. Greenlease, wealthy Kansas City automobile dealer, $303,720 still is missing.

The former police lieutenant was granted 15 days in which to file a motion for a new trial. Sentence was deferred pending possible filing of the motion. The maximum penalty is five years imprisonment and $2,000 fine.

Shoulders was the second person convicted as the result of a grand jury investigation into the missing ransom money. Elmer Dolan, patrolman who aided in the arrest of Hall, also was convicted on a perjury charge. Dolan, suspended by the St. Louis police force, has filed a motion for a new trial.

U.S. to Regard Attack on Ally as Threat to Us

President Promises to Maintain Yank Forces in Germany

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UP)—President Eisenhower today offered Western Europe a new defense doctrine which would regard an attack on any member of the European Defense Community as "a threat to the security of the United States."

The President, in a long-considered move obviously designed to win French and Italian support for ratification of the EDC, said also in the extraordinary statement that the United States will continue to maintain its forces in Western Germany "while a threat to that area exists."

The proposed EDC consists of six nations, Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg and Western Germany have approved the European Defense Treaty but France and Italy have so far withheld ratification.

Eisenhower laid out his views in a special message to the prime ministers of the six EDC signatory nations dispatched from the White House at the Augusta National Country Club.

Diplomatic sources regarded the President's pledge concerning the possibility of attack in the West as designed principally to assure the jittery French against any possible buildup of German forces along their border.

The President's specific recommendation on this point said: "In consonance with its policy of full and continuing support for the maintenance of the integrity and unity of the European Defense Community, the United States will regard any action from whatever quarter which threatens that integrity or unity as a threat to the security of the United States."

"In such event, the United States will consult in accordance with the provisions of Article 4 of the North Atlantic Treaty."

Article 4 deals with the unity of approach to aggression, the basic theory behind it being that if any nation attacks one of the NATO signatories, the others will (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Fair, Cool Tonight; Mild Tomorrow

Fair and cool weather tonight will usher mild temperatures into the Pontiac area Saturday, according to the U.S. Weather Bureau.

The low of 36 to 40 tonight will climb to a high of 54 to 56 degrees Saturday.

Thursday's cloudy skies dumped approximately .44 of an inch of rain on the city. The low was 44 and the high 64 degrees.

Today at 8 a.m. the temperature reading was 50, but by 1 p.m. in downtown Pontiac the mercury had dropped to 45 degrees.

Crowds Bow Reverently in Tre Ore Service Today

Christian churches throughout the city today recalled the three hours of agony upon the Cross during the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ.

The traditional Tre Ore service, sponsored by the Pontiac Pastors' Association was held in Central Methodist Church and neighborhood services were held in First Christian Church and Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian churches.

The Oakland County Ministerial Association also sponsored a union service at Liberty Baptist Church.

Tre Ore services also were held in all Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches.

Because of difference in their calendar, members of the St. George Greek Orthodox church will observe the day one week later.

All services today were well attended with a capacity crowd at the beginning of the service.

Seven local ministers presented the "Seven Words From the Cross." The Rev. Herbert E. Ryan, president of the sponsoring organization, presided. Vocal solos were sung by William H. Vandeyon and George H. Putnam.

Shorter services were held at both St. Trinity and Grace Lutheran churches. Three services are scheduled for Business Places Close From Noon to 3 Today

News From Jerusalem

Soldiers Seal Jesus' Tomb With Big Stone; Judas Is Found Hanged

This is the fifth of six articles on Christ's last days as reported in the style of today's news.

By ORA SPAID
Pontiac Press Special Writer

JERUSALEM, Nisan 16 (Saturday).—Roman soldiers today sealed the tomb of Jesus, who was crucified yesterday on Golgotha, for fear disciples of the Nazarene might steal the body.

A group of Pharisees visited Pontius Pilate, the Roman procurator, to ask that the tomb be secured because "that deceiver said while he was still alive, 'After three days I will rise again.'"

The priests said followers of the 33-year-old insurrectionist might steal the body and say their master had risen from the dead.

Pilate ordered the tomb closed with a huge stone and set a guard of Roman legionnaires on watch. The tomb is near the home of the wealthy Joseph of Arimathea, a member of the Sanhedrin, which convicted Jesus of insurrection against the Roman Emperor by claiming to be a king.

With Pilate's permission, Joseph and Nicodemus, also a member of the Sanhedrin, removed Jesus' body from the cross and took it to the sepulcher.

The body was wrapped in linen and anointed for entombment by Mary, the mother of Jesus, her sister, Mary of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. The three women were at the cross when Jesus died.

Early today, the body of Judas Iscariot, who identified Jesus for the arrest that led to his death, was found hanging by a sash in an obscure house near the edge of town.

Roman guards who removed the body theorized that Judas had taken his own life in remorse for his betrayal of the man he formerly followed.

It was reported by some that Jewish high priests had bribed Judas, but when the former disciple's body was found, his purse was empty.

Meanwhile, it was rumored that Longinus, the Roman centurion who commanded the execution squad, had been arrested in his quarters and may face a court martial.

On Golgotha yesterday Longinus, visibly moved when death came to the crucified Jesus, said openly, "Surely this man is the son of God."

Jacob, a Jewish wine merchant, said today the centurion came to his shop after the execution and related how he had come to believe in Jesus.

Jacob quoted Longinus as saying: "As a true son of Rome, I long had only one concern with the Jews and their priests and prophets—to keep order among the populace. I have heard their talk in the marketplace of a Messiah who would deliver them from the Romans. I have seen men of many descriptions parading as this Messiah. They were a troublesome lot."

"But this man, this Jesus—he was unlike the others. I saw it from the beginning, even though I did not believe he was any more than a man come out of (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

Birmingham Enforcement of Anti-Air Pollution Law May Have to Wait on Fall

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM—The city's latest addition to its lawbooks, an anti-air pollution ordinance, seems doomed to a summer's wait before being put into effect against violators.

Passed April 5 by the City Commission, the law defines and prohibits air pollution, and charges City Building Inspector Thomas Breen with enforcement.

"Many of the violators have ceased their firing for the summer, and plan to convert their heating equipment this summer to eliminate heavy, dense smoke," Breen said.

He added that fall weather will bring full enforcement of the new measure. The ordinance does not apply to private residences in which four or less families are housed.

Young naturalists interested in a series of Saturday field expeditions to study animals, birds and wildflowers, are invited to contact Walter P. Nickell at Cranbrook Institute of Science. Tomorrow's 9 a.m. excursion will take the group to Bald Mountain State Park.

While the trips are limited to junior members over 11 years old, institute membership is open to the public at a nominal charge.

Pierce School Cub Pack B-18 is planning its final picnic to be held in June. With most of the Cub boys going into scouting in the fall, Pack Mother Mrs. Carl Ludwig said almost all new leadership will be needed. Prospective Cubmasters, committee men or others interested are asked to call Cubmaster Norman Prentice or Carl Ludwig, pack chairman.

Rebekahs will have an Easter bazaar at McBride's Hardware starting at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Boys and Girls showing their YMCA cards will have a program of crafts and group games tomorrow after they have scrambled for grounds. Prizes will be awarded to the best finders.

Birmingham Gun Club members have another all-day shooting date scheduled for tomorrow at the clubhouse on Richardson road, Commerce Township.

Dorothy and Daniel Rodgers, of 952 Wilmont, will participate in tomorrow's Michigan Youth Symphony spring concert at the Ruckham Bldg. in Detroit.

Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley's first quarter 1954 accident report indicates a "serious increase" over the same period in 1953, with a total of 90 accidents as against 67. Property damage thus far is listed at $29,377, as opposed to $16,813 in 1953.

The March report of 32 accidents is an improvement over February's 37, however, he said.

Birmingham Musicals will again offer seven partial scholarships to high school age music students to attend the summer music school of their choice. Six are for $50 apiece, while the seventh, a $25 memorial scholarship given by a friend of young musicians, is awarded to the most deserving of the applicants.

Applications will be accepted by Mrs. D. L. Tate, Westchester Way, until April 28. Auditions will be held at 3:30 p.m. April 30 at the Park street home of Mrs. Newell Allen.

City commissioners authorized the purchase of $465 worth of short wave radio equipment this week, to be placed in the city's Civil Defense headquarters in the basement of the Municipal Building. The new portable transmitter will tie in with the police and fire departments here, and the Oakland County Radio Control Center, operated by ham operators in St. James Episcopal Church.

Fail in Search for Guns, Masks

Sheriff Deputies, FBI Scour Shack Accused Bandit Described

Oakland County sheriff detectives and FBI agents conducted a futile one-hour search Thursday for eight guns and four masks, reportedly used in an Ann Arbor supermarket robbery Feb. 26.

Detective David E. Brann said they converged on a shanty located on Lake Angelus road, between Rohr and Clintonville Rds., after James J. Minder Jr., 24, of Dearborn, accused bank bandit, said the guns and masks were hidden in the shack after the $4,826 Ann Arbor robbery by four men.

Detectives Brann and Mahlon J. France said Minder's description of the shack "was right to the point," but they added someone probably removed the holdup equipment after Minder and Hugh T. Cox, 31, of 88 W. Mansfield Ave., were arrested recently in the $33,000 Dearborn bank robbery.

After questioning by Detroit Police, according to Brann, Minder implicated Gordon Ervin, 27, of 88 W. Mansfield Ave. and his brother, Charles, 37, of 470 Oakland Ave., in the Ann Arbor robbery.

Brann and France said they will attempt to discover whether the pair removed the guns and masks from the shack after questioning today.

Minder pleaded guilty to the $33,000 holdup and an innocent plea was entered for Cox after he stood mute Wednesday. Both men are being questioned again today by local authorities and Detroit Police.

The official East German news agency ADN reported last night Soviet High Commissioner Vladimir Semenov had sent identical notes to this effect to the 10 governments not in the Moscow orbit with missions in Germany.

The new order means officials of these missions could get visas to travel in and out of East Germany—or by car or train to Berlin, which is surrounded by the Soviet zone—only from the East German government.

The Russians announced March 25 they were granting "full sovereignty" to the East German regime even though they would continue to keep Soviet troops in their zone. The Western Big Three promptly refused to grant such recognition and declared the West German Republic was the only legally constituted government in Germany.

ADN said the notes went to the missions from Belgium, the Netherlands, Australia, Canada, Denmark, Greece, Luxembourg, India, Norway and Yugoslavia "and other states accredited to the former Allied Control Council." Presumably this also would deflect Indonesia, Italy, Sweden and Turkey, which maintain consulates in Berlin, and Switzerland and Austria, which keep diplomatic delegates here.

The three Western occupation powers, the United States, Britain and France, are not yet affected by the move, since their missions in East Germany are accredited to Soviet army headquarters.

the wilderness to teach a new doctrine.

"That day he drove the merchants from the temple, I knew then that his days were numbered. I was near him many times before this last day and I tell you there was something—a serenity, a gentleness for every miserable creature, and still a spirit of fire—that you couldn't dismiss when you went out from him.

"I watched him when they accused him, when they put him through the sham they called a trial. While they ranted and railed before him like a pack of dogs, he stood silent and accepted their barbs almost with kindness, as one who pitied them.

"And when the men of my battalion took him to the praetorium, dressed him as a comic king and played their game of mockery, I could not join them.

"I don't know why—perhaps it was the way he withstood them—without fear, without pleading, with no vengeance. A soldier can admire a man such as this.

"Once, on the way to the Hill of the Skull, he faltered under his cross and the crowd appeared to run him down. I held them back; I must admit it was in the interest of order. And he looked up to me and laid his hand on the side of my mount. He said nothing, nor did I—and yet—but I do not have the words to tell you.

"Yes, I have seen death in many places; I have seen heroes die. But not one died the way this man did. I stood by the cross when he said the words, 'Eli, Eli, lama sabach-tha-ni,' that so many of the dirty mob believed to be a cry to Elijah. It was not, I assure you, for I heard the words well.

"He said, 'My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?'

"I know at that moment this Jew was sent from God, sent for a purpose my poor spirit cannot understand. Sent to live among men and to return to the Father when then reviled him.

"I suppose they will punish me for my outburst. I do not know; I do not care. I believe."

come to the defense of the beleaguered country, consistent with national laws covering consultation between countries.

The President said he was convinced that full ratification of the EDC treaty would "provide a realistic basis for consolidating Western defenses and will lead to an ever-developing community of nations in Europe."

"When that treaty comes into force, the United States, acting in accordance with its rights and obligations, will conform its actions to the following policies and undertakings."

Then Eisenhower listed his main points:

1. Continuance of "necessary and appropriate" American armed forces in Europe, including Germany, so that this country might "contribute its fair share needed for the point defense of the Atlantic area while a threat to that area exists."

2. Consultation with NATO and EDC nations on "questions of mutual concern, including the level of the respective armed forces (in the EDC)."

3. A promise of "the closest possible integration" of U. S. and NATO armed forces with those of EDC.

4. A continued effort, contingent on approval of the American Congress, to seek means of extending to the Atlantic community "increased security by sharing in greater measure information with respect to the military utilization of new weapons and techniques for the improvement of collective defense."

This was an obvious reference to the atomic and hydrogen bombs. White House sources said this section applied primarily to the effects of the new, destructive weapons on military as well as civilian personnel.

5. Preservation of the unity of EDC. "The United States will regard any action from whatever quarter which threatens that integrity or unity as a threat to the security of the United States."

Cohn maintained in a telegram to Mundt that someone violated a subcommittee agreement in releasing to newsmen the Army's 29 charges of "improper" efforts to win preferential treatment for Schlone.

At McCarthy's request, Cohn said, he told Mundt: "Before we supply any further information to the subcommittee, we request an immediate investigation by it to determine who has violated its rule."

Mundt said he would refer Cohn's message to the subcommittee when it meets again—probably Monday—although he added that the disclosure of the document would have been discussed any way.

However, he said that if Cohn, Carr and McCarthy fail to supply any information by that time, the subcommittee will not be able to "continue on its original formula" after the sessions begin.

solidated absorbed the higher price. It then began to pass the boost along to its customers.

The refund situation was further complicated by the fact that rebates must be prorated since Michigan Consolidated gets only 40 per cent of its gas from Panhandle. The remaining 60 per cent comes from the Michigan-Wisconsin Pipeline Co.

"Until we have a chance to study the FPC ruling," a Michigan Consolidated spokesman said, "we couldn't even guess on what the customer's refunds might amount to."

He said Panhandle might take the FPC decision to court, "delaying any refunds at all."

The FPC issued a statement accompanying the decision. The statement supported the new rate on the grounds that it reflects the "fair field value" of Panhandle's natural gas reserves.

The past practice in rate making was based on the company's actual costs in developing its reserves.

As far as Detroit gas consumers are concerned the difference amounts to 24.33 cents or 1.6 per cent of the monthly gas bill, the commission said.

Sister Claiming American Held

Says Romania Keeping U.S.-Born Woman in Satellite Country

CHICAGO (AP)—An American woman, her sister said yesterday, is being detained with her two teenage sons by the Communist government of Romania, which claims them as citizens.

Mrs. Anna Frey said she had made frequent appeals to Romanian authorities through the State Department for the release of her sister, Mrs. Susanna Hertl, 40, and her two sons.

She told newsmen the recent release of the two Georgescu brothers from Romania after State Department negotiations prompted her to make public her efforts on behalf of her sister.

She said Susanna has taken a job as a bricklayer's helper to support her sons and her aged mother. Her husband Michael is in Chicago working as a janitor. Mrs. Frey and her husband Albert succeeded in bringing Hertl from Germany in March 1953 as a displaced person. He has not seen his wife or sons, Joseph, now 15, and Peter, 14, since 1943.

Mrs. Frey said the State Department was told last Oct. 22 the Romanian government considers Mrs. Hertl and her sons Romanians because of her marriage to Hertl and refuses to issue a valid travel document.

The sisters, whose parents came to America in 1907, were born in Baltimore. The family returned to Romania in 1914 but Mrs. Frey returned to America in 1925, married and in 1930 brought Susanna here. In 1937, Mrs. Frey said, her sister returned to Romania to visit her mother and married Hertl.

CIVITANS MARK 34TH YEAR—The Pontiac Civitan Club Wednesday celebrated the 34th anniversary of the Civitan International. The local club's first president, Dr. P. B. Jones (middle), and Claude A. Evans (right), president, are shown cutting a three layer birthday cake in honor of the organization during Wednesday's meeting in the Hotel Pontiac. The group's chaplain, the Rev. Fred R. Tiffany (left), was one of three speakers during the observance.

Jet Engine Brake New and Different

NEW YORK (AP)—A new jet engine "brake," providing action similar to that of reversible propellers used to slow up piston-powered planes, may make it possible for all types of jet aircraft to land at existing airports.

The device was described yesterday by Joseph F. Suttan, an aerodynamics engineer with the Boeing Airplane Co., which developed it.

The braking effect is produced by a cap over the tail pipe which directs the normally back-spurring jet stream forward.

treatment of a sprained back and ankle, the 200-pound director shouted at the startled singers: "Go on, don't mind me. You've got a performance tonight."

WELLSVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—Several hundred youngsters at an Easter egg hunt yesterday mobbed Patrolman Eugene Dash when they saw the hunt director slip him the prize golden egg to hide.

The kids made a dash for Dash, knocked him to the ground and crushed the egg in his pocket.

Dennis Winslip, a kindergarten pupil, came up with the largest number of shell fragments and was declared the winner.

Dash came up bedraggled.

Horse and Buggy Doctor Was All Right in His Day

By LAURA Z. HOBSON (By International News Service)

Is there a doctor in the house? If so, I hope he'll check my pulse and watch my blood pressure while I write a little piece about what a press dispatch called "a public scolding" to the medical profession.

At the University of Chicago, Chancellor Lawrence A. Kipton spoke to 1,000 internists of the American College of Physicians, and gave the needle to "the cold, hard objectivity of medical science" today as compared to the warmth and understanding of "horse and buggy doctors."

They may not all have been great doctors, he said, "but they were great men" with a certain something which modern men of medicine, through today's curriculum and specialization are in danger of losing.

Now, nobody will deny that many horse and buggy doctors were great men. And it's all too human, of course, to talk about the good old days and the good old everything that went along with them.

It would be awful to send those memories to the glue factory, but I do think we might pull a tight rein on any runaway tendency to scold any large group of people today.

There are always great men in any large group of men—and there are always others in the same group who aren't so great.

Dr. Jonas Edward Salk, for instance, may never have driven a horse and buggy, for he's only 36, but he's dedicated his life to finding a polio vaccine which might save our children from the horrors and deaths of infantile paralysis. What parent doesn't call him a great man?

And the anonymous "elderly scientist" who is daily risking cancer by letting his own skin be painted with supposedly cancer-producing chemicals—has he lost that certain something that makes great men?

Just the same those good old horse and buggy doctors still crop up every other day in TV and radio and movie shows—with the frequent implication that no other kind of doctor can match them for dedication, goodness, and service to humanity.

And it's that implication that gives me the chills and fever. When one of my kids is running a 103 temperature, friends, I'm

Solons Against Sharing H-Data

Plan of Administration Meeting Resistance in U.S. Senate

WASHINGTON (INS)—Resistance quickly mushroomed in the Senate today to an administration bill for the sharing of atomic and possibly hydrogen bomb secrets with Western Europe and Canada. Symbolic of most immediate reaction was the position taken by Sen. Pat McCarran (D-Nev.), top minority member of the Senate internal security subcommittee, who urged "caution."

McCarran said "I think we are approaching dangerous ground (by the proposal). The fact of the matter is, we have given away too much (atomic) information already. We have received very little information in return. I would look with great caution in approving a bill of this kind."

Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) said: "I would want to study this very carefully." But Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) took a different view. He said the proposals "generally sound good" and constitute an "aim we should strive to achieve."

The sweeping legislation would permit this country to give its allies in the North Atlantic Pact information on the "external size, weight and shape" of atomic weapons.

Polio Program Is PTA Subject

Mrs. Stanley Watson, chairman for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis of Northern Oakland County, was guest speaker Thursday before Central PTA in the school.

She told the group that approximately 38,000 children of the first, second and third grades will be inoculated in the trial vaccination. Half of the group will actually receive the vaccine and half will receive an inactive solution.

The children receiving the inactive solution, she explained, will form a control group for the project. She pointed out that the vaccine is made up of killed polio virus that the Salk Institute has perfected. This is important to know, she said, to counter many false statements that have been made.

Mrs. John Huntley and Mrs. James Marlow poured during the coffee hour that followed the meeting.

A FULL MEASURE OF VALUE

The leather creations which have provided a good bit of the excitement in the fashion picture this season can become part of the budget-minded girl's wardrobe. Silk fringe trims the Spanish sash (left) which can be made in either suede or capeskin. The pouch bag shown with it can also be made at home. Braid, spangles and caviar beads combine to trim the bolero (upper center). Epaulettes are made from semicircles cut from 10-inch circles. Waist cincher (lower center) requires three pieces of suede or capeskin. Feather boning inside front edges and at side seams do cinching job; braid squares or diamonds decorate. Versatile collar and cuff set, lined with silk or taffeta and edged with braid, has real dash and can be worn on any simple dress.

Create Own Accessories to Keep in Step With Style

Have you been tempted to budget-busting after eyeing the lavish leather items that are now being featured on the fashion pages?

You can keep your budget intact and have your leather fashions, too, if you know your way around a needle or sewing machine.

One sewing machine company has just introduced a noiseless machine that is designed to sew everything from crepe paper to leather without any adjustments or attachments.

Said to be jam-proof, this machine features a set of picture windows which show the type of stitch before you start sewing.

One of the loveliest leather fashions is a spangled bolero that can be made in either suede or capeskin. You can use a regular sleeveless bolero pattern for it. Epaulettes are made from semicircles cut from 10-inch circles.

For a really fabulous touch, line the bolero in black taffeta, sew narrow silk braid along the border and epaulettes and small squares or diamonds of braid to the front and along the back.

Three Pledged by Psi Chapter

A pledge service for three was held Thursday when Psi Chapter, Sigma Beta sorority, met with Mrs. Jack Ross on Adamson road. Mrs. Euell Smith, Mrs. Joe Benson and Jeanne Simpson were the three pledged to the group by Mrs. Wallace Williams and Alice Wolfram.

Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Walter Wood and Miss Wolfram. Mrs. Williams will be hostess for the next meeting at her home on Tilden avenue.

Paraffin Mends

Cracks in vases, pottery and dishes can be mended with melted paraffin.

Then dot it with spangles and round jet caviar beads.

A very effective fashion accessory would be an ascot made in suede or capeskin to match your gloves or handbag.

You'll need a piece 33 inches long and 7 1/2 inches wide. Cut ends on a slant for pointed effect and sew in two side pleats eight inches from ends for tapered effect.

A large Peter Pan collar can be made from a piece measuring 10 by 11 inches. Cuffs require a piece 19 1/2 by 6 inches. Line with silk or taffeta in matching or contrasting colors and edge with braid.

Three pieces of leather are needed to make a waist cincher. Front sections are graduated to 4 inches in depth at sides where they are sewn to ends of the back section.

Sew feather bone inside front edges and at side seams, and line the cinch in black silk or taffeta. Sew braid along border and scatter braid clusters over the garment.

A scrap of leftover suede or capeskin can be used to make a billfold. Place oblong of leather over back of billfold from five-and-dime store and sew their edges together.

Border in black silk braid and decorate with braid squares or diamonds and beads or spangles.

To make a smart Spanish sash, you will need three sections. Two pieces, 7 by 24 inches, make the long sash ends. Upper edges of sash ends are sewed to waistband ends. Black silk fringe in any width trims lower edges of the sash.

You can even make the popular pouch handbag in leather. Start with a circle of the leather 24 inches in diameter pasted to a 6-inch cardboard or buckram circle as the base.

Yard-long leather drawstring is pulled through a narrow casing sewn 3 inches from the leather circle's edge for ruffled effect.

Slides Shown on Alcoholism

Mrs. Percy Jones, guest speaker before Fern Bank Unit of Central Methodist Church, showed slides on alcoholism.

Mrs. Harry Hayes was hostess to the group Wednesday at her home on Franklin boulevard. Mrs. Adrian Ish conducted a ceremony opening treasure chests, and Mrs. Milton Bank was honored with a stork shower.

Easter devotions were presented by Helen Kinney, devotions chairman, assisted by Mrs. Arthur MacAdams, Virginia Otten, Mabel Smith, June Halliday and Mildred Loper.

Soak Curtains

To wash the scum off shower curtains, soak them first in the bath tub and then rub with a fine brush and soapy water.

Speaker Heard by Secretaries

Byron Chapin, manager of Pontiac Business Institute, was guest speaker Wednesday at Hotel Waldron when Pontiac Chapter, National Secretaries Association, installed new members.

Installed were Mrs. Marilyne Bird, Mrs. Loretta Collins, Mrs. Dee Dieterle, Mrs. Ola Duncan, Mrs. Emma Olson and Mrs. Florence Tobison.

Mrs. Dieterle gave the invocation and Mrs. Hope G. Scott welcomed guests. Mrs. Edna Brown, president of Detroit Transcript Chapter; Harriet Schaar, Mrs. Wilma Ross, Mrs. Thelma Schuell, Ann Buccerrio and Sally Olson, all of Detroit, were guests.

November Group Conducts Meeting

Mrs. Donald Humphries and Mrs. Joseph Gross were hostesses Wednesday to the November Group of First Presbyterian Church at the Humphries' home on Dixie Highway.

Mrs. Jack Allen gave the spiritual lesson and Mrs. Philip Meacham, devotions. Mrs. Robert Sherlock was welcomed as a new member, and three guests present were Mrs. Bradley Scott, Mrs. John Ferguson of Saginaw and Mrs. James Schramm.

When make-up soils the neck of a rayon dress, you can freshen it with cleaning fluid. Saturate a clean white cloth with the fluid and go over the soiled area lightly and quickly.

Collegians Trek Home for Easter

Inter-Dorm Dance Scheduled May 7 at MSC

EAST LANSING—Most of the students from Pontiac who attend Michigan State College are home enjoying Easter vacation.

With a new term, there are always new plans for recreation on the weekends.

Plans for the Women's Inter-Dorm Dance are under way, announced Laura McInnes, of Rochester, president of Women's Council.

Ray Robertson will furnish the music for the dance May 7 in the auditorium. The theme for this year will be "Mais Oui."

Mary Chase of Oliver street attended an Elementary Education Club meeting Thursday night.

The Spartacade, which took place last Saturday, grossed $4,966. This was the largest amount in the carnival's four-year history.

Net proceeds, which will be about $4,191, will be donated to the Campus Chest.

An estimated crowd of 7,000 attended the Spartacade in Jenison Fieldhouse.

Many Women Puzzled About Selecting Bras

In spite of all the talk about beautifying bosoms, many women are puzzled when they must choose a brassiere. That's the contention of Pauline Gordon, a leading designer of the garment.

The way Miss Gordon sees the problem, it's really a simple one. Once you have established your size, you need only look for it in a well-constructed bra.

"It doesn't matter whether one's breasts are comical, rounded, firm or sagging," Miss Gordon says. "And it doesn't matter whether she selects a stiff or soft fabric."

"What is important is that the bra be so constructed that the garment fits as a unit. The back should be made in perfect balance with the cup. And if the bra has a band, that also should be balanced. Balance is the secret of comfortable and flattering fit."

Degree of accentuation, Miss Gordon believes, should be determined by a woman's height and bone structure.

"A tall girl with a small waist and flat midriff can look well in a bra that's a bit accentuated. But a short, dumpy woman, though she wears the same size, should avoid accentuation."

The ideal, Miss Gordon says, is to achieve a line that is "firmly sculptured and semi-rounded with definite separation. Extreme accentuation is vulgar."

New Sylvanites Hold Gathering

The New Sylvanites Club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. William J. Almas on Beverly street.

A silent prayer was given in memory of the late Mrs. J. King Graham who organized the club in 1952.

After a short business meeting, the members played games. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. T. T. Reese, Mrs. Raymond Graham, Mrs. E. J. Ghanni and Mrs. Raymond Dombrowski.

Sorority Chapter Planning Beta Ball

An associate member, Mrs. Coridon Walls of Kenmore, N. Y., was a guest at the Thursday evening meeting of Beta Chapter of Beta Theta Phi sorority.

The group gathered at the Gateway drive home of Mrs. Corwin Woodard.

Plans were completed for the Beta Ball to be held May 15 at Hotel Pontiac. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Allen on Marlborough drive.

Patricia Rose Gets Chapter Presidency

New officers were elected for the coming season by Epsilon Rho Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority, Wednesday.

Patricia Rose is president; Lillian Bullock, vice president; Betty Soper, treasurer; Rosamond Haberle, recording secretary, and Mrs. James Beall, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Edward Amann was hostess to the group at her home on Adamson road. The group made final plans for an Easter basket to be given to a needy family, and for a Founders' Day banquet at Hotel Waldron April 28.

Blouse Ironing Easy

For quick and easy blouse-ironing, sprinkle the blouse and leave it in the refrigerator for an hour, then iron.

Fine Candles Now Available in Many Stores

A few years ago fine home candles could only be obtained in the finest of stores. Today, they may be purchased just about everywhere. Making them available to everyone has been more than justified by the constantly growing trend toward greater use of candles.

One of the things that has helped this dispersion of distribution was learning that a great choice of color selection did not figure importantly in candle merchandising.

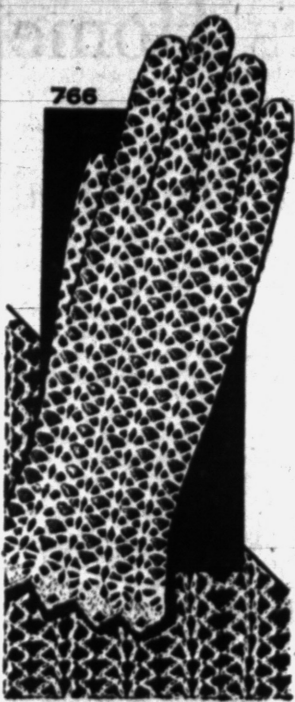

Salesmen learned that 85 per cent of all sales were in the white, yellow, red and green colors. This has greatly simplified the inventory problem and made it possible for many more stores to handle candles profitably.

The most important lesson Florida resort owners have learned, said one expert, is the effectiveness of burning candles as compared with the lack of atmosphere of unit candles used through misconception of their decorative function.

The unit candle, he said, cannot be compared with the burning candle for contribution to atmosphere and glamor.

Soaking Cleans Shower Curtain

If your shower curtain is stained or filmed over, try soaking it in the tub to loosen the dirt. Ordinarily, a shower curtain comes clean when it's sashed up and down in soapsuds, but the soaking method is the best for troublesome spots. Afterwards, use a soapy sponge or soft brush to wash away the dirt. Then rinse, wipe the curtain dry, and hang it up again.

Re-cement Loose Piece of Linoleum

Put Heavy Weight on Repaired Area Until It's Firm

By HUBBARD COBB
When and if a corner of linoleum flooring becomes loose, scrape off the old linoleum cement from the two surfaces, apply a thin coat of fresh cement and then force the linoleum back into place.

Put a heavy weight on it until the linoleum cement is hard.

If you notice that your refrigerator is working overtime, check the gasket on the door. If it is worn, it's letting heat get into the box. Replace it with a new one.

Also check the mechanical portion of the refrigerator to see if it is all coated with dust and lint.

Dust and lint on the coils act as insulation and prevent the refrigerator working efficiently. They should be removed with a vacuum cleaner or dust mop.

Nails are not so apt to split thin wood if you first blunt the end of the nail slightly.

Wood fence posts will last a good deal longer if the tops are covered with a metal cap.

This prevents water being absorbed into the wood. If you don't like the idea of the metal cap, then make the tops of the posts pointed.

You'll find that you do better with patching plaster and spackle if you don't use too much water for mixing. If the mixture gets too wet it's hard to work with and won't hold its shape too well.

It's best not to use rubber base paints on areas that are likely to be struck such as baseboards, for when given a sharp blow these paints often have a tendency to peel.

Removes Spinach

To remove a green spinach stain from a tablecloth or napkins: moisten the spot, rub it well with soap, and bleach it in the sun. Then launder the piece as usual in hot soapsuds.

Today's girl's an old-fashioned one if she owns a lipstick—that is if she owns one! For, at very modest prices, cosmetic houses offer exquisitely formulated lipsticks in soft, high-style colors that call for a variety of lipstick shades to accent their singing tones. A woman needn't be in the money to have the three basics—true red, pink and orange.

Wash Sills Weekly to Protect Curtains

When swirling spring winds blow around your windows, you can be sure that some dirt and soot will filter in.

Why not give your window sills a quick sudsing with a soapy cloth once a week? Otherwise, lovely draperies and curtains may inherit that drifting dirt.

Shrug Becomes Important Part of Style Picture

On the fashion scene just a few years, the shrug has now established itself as an indispensable part of the picture.

Combining comfort and gracefully casual lines, it's perfect with sleeveless and barebacked cottons and short-sleeved sweaters and blouses. And, when made in velvet and other lush fabrics, it can be worn atop a formal.

Another advantage of this versatile garment is that it's so simple to make. It might well be a beginner's first attempt.

To add to the shrug's versatility, we suggest that you make one in jersey in a neutral shade. You'll need only 12 inches of jersey tubing. Here's how to do it:

With the material cut straight across, make a 1-inch hem all around one edge and decorate with fancy machine stitches.

Leave a 7-inch opening at each end of the other edge for armholes; seam the space between. Then turn under the hem on the armholes, tapering it from the seam to a 1-inch depth. Decorate the armholes to match.

If you are about to buy a new sewing machine, you might consider a portable that has been imported from Switzerland by a leading manufacturer.

This machine features double-needle stitching that enables the sewer to create really distinctive trimmings.

It's also said to produce a stitch that stretches with the fabric, so that it works particularly well on jersey and other fabrics that "give."

Mrs. Pearce Uses Fruit Cocktail for Intriguing Dessert

By JANET ODELL

Pontiac Press Food Editor

This dessert sounds so intriguing that you will probably want to try it out right away. Mrs. Harry Pearce gave it to us some time ago but made us promise not to print the recipe until she had served Fruit Cocktail Delight to a club group. She has and so now we do.

Mrs. Pearce belongs to a number of organizations: The Colonial Group of her church; Tuesday Musicals, the DAR and the PEO Sisterhood. She is also an ardent golfer and an energetic traveler.

FRUIT COCKTAIL DELIGHT

By Mrs. Harry Pearce

1 cup flour
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
1 egg, well-beaten
2 cups well-drained fruit cocktail

Sift the dry ingredients, add to them the egg and the drained fruit. Beat well. Pour into a greased 8-inch pan. Sprinkle with one-half cup brown sugar and one-half cup chopped nuts.

Bake 1 hour and 20 minutes in a 300-degree oven. Serve with whipped cream or ice cream. Makes nine servings.

Babies May Gag to Attract Attention

If baby notices that you become excited when he seems to choke on certain foods, he may get into the habit of gagging to get attention.

You can avoid this by showing pleasure when he does things you hope he will repeat and by ignoring antics he may employ to get attention.

INDO-CHINA—The World's Oldest War

Boo stayed in Indo-China only a year. He then returned to France for a month's "vacation" with his wife and family at their swank villa near Cannes, on the Riviera. But the "month" stretched into three, despite government urging to return to his post. In the fall of 1930, there was a stormy visit from Gen. Alphonse Juin. Boo went back to Indo-China.

The U. S. backed Booi's regime. Planes, trucks, tanks and other war material were sent. Millions of dollars were earmarked for civil and military aid to Viet Nam.

French colonial troops had always ruled the military roost in Indo-China. What native troops there were were auxiliaries of the French forces, commanded by French officers. A start was made toward organizing an efficient fighting force of Viet Namese. These units, commanded by native officers, a move to instill much needed esprit de corps.

Bob Considine Says:

British Becoming Awake to Threat of Communism

NEW YORK (INS)—There are nine bills pending in Congress to outlaw the Communist Party. Attorney General Brownell would like to see in their place a tightening of security laws making the conspirators easier to get at, legally.

The British take a somewhat lighter view of their Commies. The British Communist Party claimed 60,000 members in 1933. British Information Services believes that the present claim of 35,124 members is optimistic.

British authorities take pride in being guided by a philosophy which runs, "the strongest and surest deterrent to the growth of communism is open discussion and dissemination of knowledge in an atmosphere of political freedom."

Nevertheless, the tendency is toward tighter security. British civil servants who are Communists are not permitted to occupy positions placing them in contact with information of value to an enemy.

Since "character tests" have been installed, 148 British civil servants have been suspended for investigation. Of these, 28 were reinstated after inquiry showed they were loyal and reliable; 69 were transferred to non-secret work; 23 were canned; 19 resigned, and 9 are on "special leave."

In the last general election, British Reds polled only 0.08 per cent of the votes.

British pundits have been extremely critical of America's anti-Communist fight, and the lines along it has been fought. One said:

"We believe that the best way in which to combat communism is to have a people undivided by fears or suspicion of each other, but united in their love of liberty."

"In England, the community accepts the fact that if we claim freedom to propagate the ideas with which we agree, we must grant others freedom to advocate ideas which we detest."

There is almost no British anti-communist machinery comparable to our Congressional committees.

Klaus Fuchs, one of the arch traitors of history, was able to walk into the United States and go to work on the creation of the atomic bomb without even a cursory examination of his loyalty. He was part of a team of British scientists which had been given a clean bill of health by FDR.

Newsboy Finds Traffic Stopper, Judge Says Stop

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Adolph Schwartzkopf, a news vendor, appeared before City Judge Robert G. Dowd yesterday on charges of blocking traffic by running into the street to sell papers to motorists.

Sai Schwartzkopf: "I don't weave in and out of traffic. I push that button and stop the traffic." He told the court a traffic signal at the corner has a manually-controlled "walk" light.

Judge Dowd asked: "You mean you stop this traffic every time you want to run out and sell a paper?"

The news vendor replied: "Sure. How else am I going to get into the street if I don't?"

Judge Dowd fined Schwartzkopf $25, but stopped payment on this condition:

"You stay out of the street and don't be pushing that button any more."

The first time cannons were used, at Formigny in 1450, the French killed 3750 of an English force of 4500, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

SO NERVOUS FROM HOT FLASHES I BURST INTO TEARS

Suffocating "heat waves", nervous, clammy feelings, restless irritability—all are well known to women suffering the distress of functionally-caused change of life!

Yes, in doctors' tests, Lydia Pinkham's Compound or Tablets relieved such distress in 63-80% of the cases! Complete or striking relief! Wonderful, too, for relieving functional cramps of monthly periods.

Stork Story Denied by Marilyn Monroe

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Marilyn Monroe says, "I'm not pregnant, but I wish I were. Joe and I want a lot of little DiMaggios."

On her first day at work since her marriage Jan. 14 to ex-baseball player Joe DiMaggio, the 20th Century-Fox star also told inquiring reporters yesterday:

San Francisco will remain the DiMaggios' home. They'll rent a house here and commute between films.

She's learning to cook but Joe

"is much better at making spaghetti."

She declined to say how much her new contract pays her. Some reports have put it as high as $100,000 per picture. Before squabbling with the studio, which put her on suspension until she signed the new pact, she earned $750 a week.

A total eclipse of the sun occurs when the moon comes between the earth and the sun.

New Bikini Suit Not as Skimpy as Its Namesake

TOKYO (AP)—A Tokyo inventor has designed a new Bikini suit. It's the Pacific style, not the abbreviated Riviera beach costume.

His outfit consists of jacket, trousers, gloves and full-fashioned headgear which envelop the wearer like a sheet. As a matter of fact, girls, it is white cotton sheeting applied over a lead-coated wire screen.

Choichi Tsukada, who introduced the Pikadon (atom bomb) style week, says it's "guaranteed" to protect against atomic blasts, after a fashion. The lead screen deflects radiation, he explained, and the cotton cover deflects heat flash.

Jury Dismissed in Lapeer Case

Jurors Fail to Reach Decision in Obstruction of Justice Case

LAPEER — Apparently farmer W. Lee Mathews will have to stand trial a second time in the latest of the Lapeer County eviction-obstruction cases.

The Circuit Court jury of six women and five men gave up early today in its effort to reach a verdict in Mathews' case and was dismissed.

Unless the prosecution yields, Circuit Judge Timothy C. Quinn will have to order a new trial.

After more than eight hours of deliberation, the jury announced to Judge Quinn at 12:55 a. m. that it was unable to come up with a verdict. It had received the case at 4:24 p. m. Thursday.

Mathews, 60, a Brown City farmer, was the third of 10 accused men to be tried for obstruction of justice in the vain effort of Sheriff's men to evict the late Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens from her farm home June 2, 1952. A second attempt a week later was successful.

In the first instance neighbors and friends of Mrs. Stevens forcibly prevented Sheriff Clark Gregory and a deputy from evicting the widow.

Meet at Walled Lake May 3 Board to Award Contracts on Equipment for Schools

WALLED LAKE — The Walled Lake Board of Education this week set a special meeting for May 3 to award contracts for equipment and furniture for new school buildings now under construction.

The special meeting was set after board members opened 25 bids, each containing several hundred items. Contracts are to be awarded for shop, kitchen and library equipment and general furniture.

Meanwhile, Superintendent Clifford H. Smart and James A. Ferner, assistant superintendent, will tabulate bids to facilitate the study of individual items.

Also this week, the board approved contracts and assignments for 12 new teachers next year. They included:

Corwin K. Arnold, seventh and eighth grade science; Mrs. Bessie Groff, fourth grade at Walled Lake Elementary; Daniel Lirones, junior high art; Mrs. Lila Miller, grade four at Twin Beach; Richard Miller, junior high mathematics; and Mrs. Audrey Renner, third grade at Twin Beach.

Others were Mrs. Siphra Roland, fifth grade at the new high school; Mrs. Elizabeth Schubel, first grade at Walled Lake Elementary; Mrs. Rose Marie Simon, senior high art; Mrs. Merna Thompson, fifth grade at Twin Beach; and Glen Troutwine, eighth grade.

Joseph Long, board secretary, signed contracts for 81 of the present teaching staff who had accepted contracts prior to the meeting.

Board members expected others to accept contracts by the April 16 deadline, because the Teachers' Club indicated acceptance of the new salary schedule in a letter to the board.

The club accepted the salary schedule with the understanding that salary talks would be reopened if more funds become available.

Superintendent Smart was instructed at the meeting to seek bids on gravel for playgrounds and parking areas at Walled Lake Elementary, Wixom School and at the present high school.

Southfield Twp. to Halt Building

Pollution From Sewers in Cambridge Village Cause of Action

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP—Supervisor William Roeser agreed this week to halt further construction in the Cambridge Village subdivision until a solution to the sewer "pollution and infiltration" problems has been found.

The move was made after three residents of the area complained at Tuesday's Township Board meeting of the drainage situation in the subdivision. Roeser said no new building permits would be issued for the district.

In other action, the board rejected Lathrup Village's $15,500 bid for township fire protection. Board members agreed to offer protection for the first full year ending May 22 at $19,000. The township previously had asked $19,900.

If no agreement is reached on the fire protection, service will end 60 days after May 22, or sooner if the Lathrup council desires, according to board members.

The board also amended an ordinance to allow the hiring of a sanitation inspector with authority to enforce the ordinance. Edward Orouk was appointed to the post.

The appointment of Edward J. Johnson of 27000 Peleebrook was recommended to fill a vacancy on the township zoning board.

Gideons Get OK to Give Out Bible

Teachers to Distribute Copies to Students Who Ask for Them

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Request from the Gideons that they be allowed to distribute the St. James Version of the New Testament in the Waterford Township School District was approved Thursday night for grades five, six and seven.

At a regular meeting of the Waterford Township Board of Education, members approved the request provided that the classroom teachers perform the distribution.

"These Bibles will be given to those students who ask for them, and this same privilege would be granted to any other denomination who would ask to do so," said Superintendent William Shuck.

Three new school buses were purchased by the board of education at the meeting and the superintendent's recommendation for next year's teachers' contracts was approved by the board.

The board scheduled Saturday for a tour of new school buildings in St. Clair Shores and Wyandotte.

They designated April 21 as the date to review plans for additions to the Williams Lake and Jayno Adams Schools. Board members said they wished to get this work underway as soon as possible.
