1.	Weber State, 32-4	(.889)

9.	Butler, 33-8	(.805)
10.	Akron, 31-8	(.794)

OAKLAND WINNING AT THE RIGHT TIME

• It seems year after year, Oakland is playing its best basketball when the league tournament rolls around. That can definitely be said about this year's squad. Despite two set backs to Fort Wayne, OU's quarterfinal game opponent, the Grizzlies finished 8-2 over their last 10 games. OU picked up its first BracketBusters game win, 82-79 (OT), over Morehead State inside the O'rena.

• Since the 2009, the Golden Grizzlies are 43-11 (.796) in February and March (Including 2 NCAA tournament losses to Pitt and Texas). OU has made the postseason in each of the last four seasons, advancing to the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Final Four last year, falling at Utah State in the semifinals. The three NCAA postseason wins set a new Summit League record.

DARTH BADER

• Redshirt junior Travis Bader leads the country with 131 3-pointers made, second-best in league and program history, four shy of the record set in 2009 by OU's Erik Kangas (135). The sharpshooter broke the all-time mark at OU with 349 3-pointers, third in Summit League history. He became the 31st player in program history to reach 1,000 points, scoring 16 at Pitt (11/17), and is currently 14th on the all-time scoring list with 1,610 points.

• Bader made a single-game school record 11 triples vs. IUPUI (1/24) to break his own record of 10 last year set vs. South Dakota State. He earned Capital One Performance of the Week for his 47-point effort vs. the Jaguars, which is currently the second most amount of points scored this season, behind Nate Wolters' (SDSU) 53.

KAMPE REACHES MILESTONE

• Greg Kampe became the 21st active Division I coach to reach 500 wins in a 67-60 win over Western Illinois (1/26) on Homecoming inside the O'rena. Kampe, a native of Defiance, Ohio, is just the fifth active coach to win 500 games at one school (Mike Krzyzewski, Duke, Jim Boeheim, Syracuse, Rick Byrd, Belmont, Dave Bike, Sacred Heart).

• In his 29th season, Kampe has reached 506 wins. That mark ranks 21st among active D-I coaches.

THE DUKE OF 'D'EFENSE

• Duke Mondy led the BIG EAST in steals while he played at Providence and now leads the country in steals with a school record 97, fifth-best in league history. A 6-foot-5 guard, Mondy has tallied 3 or more steals in 20 games this season and leads the league with 3.1 steals per game. He posted a career-high six steals in four games this season, including one on national TV at then-No. 15 Michigan State (11/23).

• "My staff did one heck of a job," said OU coach Greg Kampe. "I can't tell you how excited I am about all three kids we signed. All three are left-handed and top-notch players. They can defend, they're athletic and they can score. What I like most about them is they all can run the floor and can elevate. We hit a home run!"

• Daniels is a 6-foot-1, 160-pound point guard at John Glenn High School. He is 300 points shy of setting his school's all-time scoring record and is a 3-point threat. He is a very aggressive and can score the ball.

• Hayes is a 6-foot-7, 200-pound forward from Lansing Sexton High School. He is the latest Sexton product to join the Golden Grizzlies (Jordan Howenstine, Drew Valentine, Assistant Coach Saddi Washington) and is a long, very skilled player. HEAD COACH GREG KAMPE

Oakland men's basketball has come full circle under the direction of longtime coach Greg Kampe. In his 29th season, Coach Kampe has led the Golden Grizzlies to four consecutive postseason appearances (2 NCAA, 2 CIT) and 20-win seasons (2008-present) for the first time in program history. The Golden Grizzlies won a Summit League record three postseason games and advanced to the CollegeInsider.com Postseason tournament semifinals in 2012.

After leading the basketball program to the top of Division II in the 90s, OU became an elite program amongst Division I Mid-Majors in the 21st century, finishing inside the top 10 in 2010 and '11.

THE COACH

"Consistency is the hallmark of success," says Coach Kampe. Something that he strongly believes and a motto that his program has been following for years. Proving that is seven straight seasons of 10 league wins or more, finishing inside the top four in each of those seasons.

- National Coach of the Year by CollegeInsider.com in 2000
- Joined current OU swimming coach Pete Hovland as the first two coaches to be inducted in to school's Hall of Honor (Class of 2012) while still actively coaching
- Oakland went a nation's-best 34-2 in league play from 2009-11
- Five-time Summit League Coach of the Year; Most of any coach in league history
- National and Mid-Major Coach of the Year Awards finalist in 2011
- Became the 21st D-I active coach to reach 500 wins, and fifth to win 500 at one school

PRODUCING TOP PLAYERS

Under Kampe's direction, over 30 players have went on to play professionally overseas, including two in the NBA as Rawle Marshall (Dallas Mavericks, 2005-06 and Indiana Pacers, 2006-07), and Keith Benson played 10 games with the Golden State Warriors in 2012. Benson became the first-ever OU player to be drafted as he was selected 48th overall by the Atlanta Hawks in the 2011 NBA Draft. He finished as a two-time Summit League Player of the Year and Associated Press All-America honorable mention selection, as well as the 2010 Mid-Major Player of the Year.

Brian Gregory (1987-90) continues to hold the all-time school record in assists for a career, single-season and single-game, and now has moved on to a very successful coaching career. Gregory worked under Tom Izzo at Michigan State as an assistant coach before becoming the head coach at Dayton (2003-11) and now Georgia Tech (2011-present).

What they are saying about Oakland basketball ...

There is a clear-cut favorite in the Summit League, and it isn't Oakland, it's South Dakota State. But the Golden Grizzlies have the talent on hand to win the conference.

Kampe is putting a lot on the shoulders of Mondy. If the former Big East player comes through, Oakland should be playing in the conference title game.

Even if it doesn't win the Summit, Oakland should again hit the 20-win mark and be a popular choice for the multiple postseason tournaments. Kampe's guys play an entertaining style and aren't afraid to mix it up against the better teams in the country.

Oakland plays its usual schedule of nonconference heavyweights, traveling to Michigan State, Pitt, West Virginia, Alabama and Tennessee.

On Duke Mondy, by Eric Angervince, NBCSports.com

His defensive abilities should allow him to make an immediate impact.

Travis Bader rated No. 10 best shooter in the country, by Jeff Goodman, CBSSports.com

The Golden Grizz guard made 44 percent as a freshman and followed it up by making 124-of-314 shots (.395 percent) last season – including 10 3-pointers against South Dakota State last January. Has made 41 percent for his career.

Pitt head coach Jamie Dixon after the Panthers beat OU in overtime

First off, I wanted to talk about Greg (Kampe) and his team and how well they played, and how well they responded. They caused us to make mistakes and not play our best basketball. I thought they did a great job. They battled and they competed and they were physical.

Give them credit. They lost two games on the road to two pretty good teams that I think they felt they should have won. They were ahead in both of them, and they just responded and came out and said 'we're a better team than that.' They took it to us. They were more physical, they got into us, and we just didn't handle it as well as I would've thought.

Michigan State Coach Tom Izzo after the 15th-ranked Spartans beat OU

I told my team Travis Bader has taken more shots in this gym than any player I've got because he started doing it when he was in about fifth grade. As happy as I am that we did a good job, he's the one guy I feel for a little bit because when you think of a walk-on at Oakland, as he did, and we put 75% of our scouting report on him. I think that speaks volumes about how much this kid has made himself a player. That's pretty awesome.

I've great respect for (Greg) Kampe and his staff, he's got a really good staff. So a lot of respect for both parties and yet I think both parties agreed we didn't play as well.

Tennessee head coach Cuonzo Martin on Travis Bader

He can shoot. He is one of the best shooters in the country. You can't leave that guy open because he makes shots, makes them deep, and he is constantly moving. He is on the floor all the time. It is just tough. I think he got one three in the corner by their bench, outside of that he was getting to the free-throw line and shooting pull-ups in the lane.

Bruce Pearl, ESPN Analyst

On Oakland

Oakland is not quite Butler, but they are Butler like with their mindset when it comes to mid-major programs.

On Greg Kampe

Outstanding Coach. He was a great coach when Oakland was a Division II, he's taken them to Division I, and they have dominated The Summit League over the last 3 or 4 years.

On Travis Bader

That's what NBA players do (speaking on a step-back 3-pointer Bader made in game at West Virginia).

Dave O'Brien, ESPN Analyst

On Drew Valentine

He does a lot of little things to help the Golden Grizzlies win.

Alabama Coach Anthony Grant

Oakland is a very tough challenge to close out non-conference play. We played them last year, so we are a little familiar with them. They are a different team and have a lot of new guys on this year's team. But the veterans are the guys who stand out. (Travis) Bader is one of the top three-point shooters in the country and comes into the game leading them in scoring. Their center inside (Corey Petros) is a guy who has really blossomed this year. He is second on the team in scoring and leads the team in rebounding. They have a lot of good veteran group of players around them, so we are going to have to do a good job on the defensive end.
