The Gift to the Blind Beggar

By JOHN J. STEWART

At the side of the dusty road leading into Jerusalem sat a blind beggar. He was a young man.

Blind from birth, he had never seen the beauty of the world: he had never seen the blue of the sky, the green of the fields, nor the majesty of a tree reaching heavenward. Never would he see children at play, nor watch a hawk soar overhead, nor know the thrill of looking into a deep pool of water.

Never had he seen the face of his father or mother. They would live and die and he would never see them. He knew what nothing looked like, for he had never seen.

DARK AND LONELY WORLD

Pitied by some, scorned by others; appreciated by none. A never ending dark and lonely world was his.

One Sabbath day as he sat there in darkness he heard a crowd approaching. As he was about to begin chanting his beggar's plea, he heard a man ask, "Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?"

The throng had stopped and was silent. The blind beggar listened intently.

"Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him." It was a divine voice the beggar heard speaking, the voice of Jesus. "As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

PUZZLED THE MEANING

As the blind beggar puzzled the meaning of the words, he felt a gentle hand touch his eyes with a dab of moistened clay. Then did Jesus bid him go and wash his eyes in the nearby pool of Siloam.

Trembling with excitement, the blind beggar clambered to his feet. Doubt, hope, fear raced through his mind as he groped his way toward the pool.

He had heard tales that this Jesus could perform great miracles, even giving sight to the blind. But never to one blind from birth.

The blind beggar could hear the curious crowd following him, though none offered to lead him.

STAFF TOUCHED WATER

Finally his staff touched the water. He was at the edge of the pool.

Would he really be able to see? He barely dared hope. Quickly he stooped down, and cupping his hands together hoisted water to his eyes.

He uttered a silent prayer as he blinked his eyes. Yes, there was light! He could see! He could see!

Tears of gratitude streamed down his dusty cheeks as the whole glorious world opened to his vision. Oh, what a glorious gift from the Christ, this gift of sight!

"I can see! Oh, God, I can see!"

81 Die Aboard Exploding Airliner

Lightning to Blame? Stories Conflicting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Civil Aeronautics Board investigators received conflicting reports today on whether lightning could have caused the crash of a plane near Elkton, Md., killing 81 persons.

They also learned that another plane had been in trouble in the same general area at about the same time because of turbulence. This report indicated that rough weather rather than lightning was a major factor.

Although two witnesses told CAB investigators they saw violent flashes that appeared to be lightning, a spokesman said other persons said they, too, saw flashes but these were definitely not lightning.

These persons said the flashes appeared to be from intensive fire or explosions. Investigators also learned that the pilot of a Martin 404 twin-engine propeller plane had reported extreme turbulence in the area around the same time and that the craft was in danger of crashing.

They had the airplane's number but had not yet established its identity, they said.

STUDY WEATHER

Two meteorologists were studying the weather pattern of the area in detail for possible further clues.

Witnesses said a bolt of lightning hit the Boeing 707 jet, Pan American World Airways Flight 214 bound from Puerto Rico to Philadelphia, and transformed it into a ball of fire that showered the area near Elkton with bits of burning wreckage. Eighty-one persons died.

Civil Aeronautics Board hearings into a May 12, 1959, crash at Chase, Md.—just 35 miles southwest of last night's disaster—brought out that in 20 years no airliner of metal construction had been known to have been destroyed or even seriously damaged by lightning.

Two witnesses claimed they saw lightning in the Chase area at the time that a Capital Turboprop flying from New York to Atlanta, Ga., crashed in flames with 31 persons aboard. Two witnesses said they saw lightning strike the craft.

OTHERS SAY NO

But 12 others testified there was no lightning near the plane. The CAB concluded that the plane broke apart in extreme turbulence.

2 Men Kidnap Sinatra's Son

Taken at Gunpoint
Before Casino Show

STATELINE, Calif. (AP)—Frank Sinatra Jr., singing son of the famed crooner and film star, was kidnapped by two men at gunpoint last night from his motel room just before he was to go on stage at a casino, sheriff's deputies reported.

Several hours later, police radio broadcasts alerted all units to look for two men for questioning. They were identified over the radio as Joseph James Sorce, 23, and Thomas Patrick Keating, 21.

Units were also alerted to be on lookout for a 1962 or 1963 automobile with a California license beginning with the letters EGW.

The police broadcast gave no further license number.

NO REASON

Officers available to newsmen gave no reason why the men were sought. Nor were they identified further.

Authorities said the FBI had been called in on the case. Deputies immediately set up roadblocks on mountain roads in the Lake Tahoe area.

Sheriff George Byers of Douglas County, Nev., said, "We still think they are in the area," on the California-Nevada border.

FATHER ARRIVES

Frank Sinatra Sr. flew in his two-engine plane to the area early today from Palm Springs, Calif.

Khrushchev Unfolds Plans for Boosting Farm Harvests

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Khrushchev unfolded plans today for a great leap forward in chemical production to increase farm harvests and provide a better life for the Soviet people.

He proposed to triple chemical industry output under a seven-year program.

Khrushchev told a full dress meeting of the Communist Party Central Committee that never again will the Soviet Union export grain and let its people starve—as he said was done in the days of Stalin.

And he warned Western countries against trying to force Soviet political concessions in return for aid at a time when the Russians admit they are deep in difficulties because of farm production failures. He told the West the Soviet Union would triumph, if necessary, "without your support."

TELLS INVESTMENT

The premier announced that between 1964 and 1970 the government will invest more than 42 million rubles ($46.62 billion) at the official exchange rate in developing the chemical industry and getting fertilizer to the farm where it is needed.

During the seven-year period, he said, approximately 300 new chemical plants will be built and more than 300 existing plants will be reconstructed.

Khrushchev said the program would increase the output of chemical products 3 to 3½ times.

Khrushchev said his government wants to buy "a whole complex of chemical plants and a number of other enterprises" from capitalist countries and "will pay them what is due by commercial standards."

He said the Soviet Union would be compelled to accept any agreement because it allegedly has no other way out.

Those who doubted Christmas was coming needed only to look outside early this morning.

The day's snowfall entrance precedes a week predicted to have near normal temperatures with highs near 35 and lows around 25.

Four-tenths inch of precipitation fell this weekend.

The lowest temperature before 8 a.m., was 26. By 2 p.m., the temperature had risen to 34.

Two Fierce Battles

SAIGON (AP)—Vietnamese Rangers clashed in two fierce battles with Communist guerrillas as South Viet Nam's military junta stepped up its campaign against the Viet Cong.

AMONG FOUR DAMAGED—Little was left of this Savon Drug Store following a spectacular $385,000 fire at Bloomfield Plaza Shopping Center in Bloomfield Township early yesterday morning. The blaze, which started in the drug store and roared out of control for an hour and a half, damaged three other buildings. (See story, page 2.)

Death Misses 65
Few Minutes Earlier

ELKTON, Md. (AP)—A four-engine jet airliner exploded and crashed last night, killing all 81 persons aboard. Investigators looked for a cause today, as police searched for victims in a muddy corn field.

The Boeing 707 of Pan American World Airways plunged to earth in fiery fragments from 5,000 feet during a thunderstorm. Witnesses said it was struck by lightning.

"It (lightning) could cause it," said B. R. Allen of the Civil Aeronautics Board, one of two federal officials heading the investigation.

"We really can't tell until we look at the wreckage."

The plane, en route from Puerto Rico to Philadelphia with 73 passengers—two of them infants—and a crew of eight, came down in a stubbled cornfield about 15 miles southwest of Wilmington, Del., near U.S. 40 and the Maryland-Delaware border.

OTHERS GOT OFF

About 65 persons had left the plane during a stop in Baltimore only a few minutes earlier.

The plane disintegrated in the air. Sheriff Edgar Startt said bits of wreckage fell over an area of four square miles. The corn field was a rain-soaked jumble of bits of wreckage.

As officials met to plan their investigation of the tragedy, state troopers and sailors from the nearby Baltimore, Md., naval base searched the area. The sailors were told to raise their hands when they found anything.

No one could tell how many victims were being found. It was seldom that there was anything large enough to be identified.

HOLDING PATTERN

The Federal Aviation Agency in Washington said the plane was on a holding pattern near the New Castle, Del., airport at 8:58 p.m. awaiting clearance to approach the Philadelphia International Airport.

Then, said Raymond Gregg of Elkton, "It was just like the sun was coming at me. It was so bright I couldn't look at it."

Another witness, Henry Lindell of Newark, Del., said it was (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Traffic Figures Hide Cause of Accidents

By JIM LONG

Speed is the number one killer on the highway, but what causes it and other driver failures also concerns traffic experts.

"The problem of traffic accidents is more complex than just merely speeding or drunk driving," said Orrin Lucas, traffic analyst for the Michigan State Police.

"These naturally are factors that must be taken into consideration, but there are usually one or more underlying reasons," he said.

Among these are lack of knowledge and skill, physical deficiencies, inattention, emotional disturbances, immaturity among young people, a lack of proper attitude toward responsibility and a general disregard of traffic laws.

Weather enters the accident picture, but according to experts, it is not the hazardous conditions themselves, but the failure of the motorists to adjust to these changes.

Many of these driving failures could send a motorist to jail, either on a charge of negligent homicide or manslaughter.

A person convicted of negligence in a traffic death such as going through a red signal, could be sentenced to a maximum of two years in prison.

If found to have willfully and recklessly caused a fatal accident through speeding or drinking, the motorist faces a maximum of 15 years.

CAUSE OF DEATH

For the past two years, a study has been in progress by the University of Michigan Medical School's anatomy department to determine the causes of death in automobile accidents.

Under direction of Donald Huekle, assistant professor, some 70 fatal accidents have been investigated at the scene.

Huekle said that the "tried and true explanations" of drinking and speeding are prevalent in the study, but there is "no common thread — no pattern — running through the accidents."

He also cites reasons similar to Lucas for accidents.

The U.S. Public Health Service is sponsoring the intensive investigation into fatal accidents.

The research, according to Huekle, has revealed that 35 per cent of those killed would have been saved if they had worn seat belts, and another 11 per cent would have survived if the ultimate combination of seat belt and shoulder harness had been used.

Much is being done by the Oakland County Road Commission to move traffic safely through the area, but traffic enforcement is necessary to see that laws are not broken.

In each 24-hour period, Oakland County Sheriff's Patrol alone travels nearly 2,500 miles.

ALL FOR SAFETY

County Highway Engineer Robert Osgood said everything possible is being done for safety in the design of new roads and repaving of old ones.

Roadside trees are often removed by the department when a police department indicates they are a hazard to driving.

The county maintains about 2,600 miles of roads and highways.

VIOLATORS PERSIST

"No matter what we do," said Osgood, "there will be violators."

Roads being under construction throughout the county is partly responsible for a number of accidents, according to Osgood, but this is only a temporary problem.

Accident trouble spots throughout the county are as follows, though not necessarily in order of danger, since accident figures are incomplete. Others are construction areas and will change as highways are completed.

Incumbent Judges Await Senate Vote on Ballot Title

By JIM DYGERT

A controversial bill that would permit Oakland County's three appointed Circuit Court judges to be designated as incumbents on the 1964 ballot may reach a vote in the State Senate tonight or tomorrow.

However, it may be put off until Wednesday, the deadline for passage of bills in their house of origin, along with a similar bill in the House and other controversial measures.

Among other bills drawing Democratic fire in the GOP-controlled legislature is one that would change the terms of incumbent county officials from 1964 to 1968.

It was introduced in the House as one of several in a package to implement the election provisions of the new state constitution which will go into effect Jan. 1.

TITLES WITH NAMES

The judicial incumbency designation bill would grant the right of having the title of all judges' offices printed on the ballot with their names.

Democrats object to this implementation of the constitution's judiciary provisions. The judges who would gain are appointees of Republican Gov. George Romney.

Democrats demand a literal interpretation of the paragraph that specifies the incumbency designation for elected judges.

The controversy arises from a failure of the document to mention specifically judges appointed before the constitution takes effect. Judges appointed under the new constitution will be from among the ranks of retired judges and not be eligible for election.

THOSE AFFECTED

Oakland County judges who would be affected are Arthur E. Moore, Philip Pratt and James S. Thorburn.

Moore was appointed by Romney to fill the vacancy left by the retirement of the late Judge H. Russell Holland, the others to assume two new judgeships created last spring by the legislature.

If the legislature does not approve the ballot designation for appointed judges, Republican legislators from Oakland County plan to seek passage of a provision that would extend their appointed terms from 1964 to 1968.

Appointed judges, who were named to office under the old constitution, would ordinarily come up for election in 1964.

RECOMMENDATION

Extending the terms of county officials from 1964 to 1968 has been recommended by a legislative study committee in order to start their new four-year terms in 1966 when state officers begin their.

Democrats claim it is improper to give the county office holders a two-year free ride.

Most county posts in the state are held by Republicans, and the Democratic party regularly are anxious for another crack at appointing Prosecutor Samuel Olsen in Wayne County where Democrats hold all the posts.

Romney has indicated he is not in favor of extending the county terms.

A Senate bill to set up three divisions of a new appellate court between the Circuit Courts and the state Supreme Court is expected to be reported out tonight from the Senate Judiciary Committee headed by State Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County.

Little opposition to the measure is expected. It would provide that three judges be elected at large in each division. Roberts is expected to leave the Senate to be a candidate for one of the nine seats on the new court.

apparent to him that lightning had blasted the plane from the air.

"There were two large arched streaks of lightning in the air," he said. "An instant afterward the sky was completely lit up by a bright orange. You could see the parts starting to fall then."

AT THE SCENE

Early today 11 Civil Aeronautics Board and 7 Federal Aviation Agency officials arrived to start the investigation. The area had been cordoned off and flames sent an eerie light over the torn, blasted and charred wreckage.

There were large pieces of wreckage, although one big jet engine dug a hole 100 yards from the home of Gregg. Small bits of airplane parts fell on the farmhouse roof of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berry, where 12 hunters were sheltered.

The investigators set up headquarters in Gregg's garage. About a dozen Federal Bureau of Investigation agents from Baltimore and Washington launched their customary investigation.

Edwin R. Tully, special agent in charge of the FBI office in Baltimore, said the flight recorder, which is designed to survive crashes and tell investigators about the minutes preceding the disaster, was not found immediately.

Joe Foss, a trumpeter with the Dorsey band, told officials he and Sinatra Jr. were eating dinner in Sinatra's motel room. About 8:30 p.m., the telephone rang and Sinatra hung up after a brief conversation.

'WHERE'S MONEY'

About 9:30, Foss reported, there was a knock on the door and a shout of "room service." Two men, one with a small revolver, burst in, asking, "Where's the money?"

sheriff's deputies said Foss took them. They took the small amount in the two men's wallets, then tied and gagged Foss with tape. Foss said they also taped Sinatra's hands.

After forcing Foss to lie on the floor, the men left with Sinatra, vanishing into the snowfall.

Johnson Works on '64 Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's attention was focused today on the forthcoming federal budget—including a proposal to curb spending by eliminating some defense installations.

Johnson scheduled a morning meeting with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to go over some aspects of the military budget.

Top Budget Bureau officials including Director Kermit Gordon, were summoned to review spending plans for the Justice and State departments, the Veterans Administration and the Federal Aviation Agency.

Johnson told a news conference Saturday that he and McNamara were making a study of defense installations to determine if any could be eliminated.

An aide said one of the matters to be taken up during the day would be the possible consolidation of some military assistance groups overseas.

Under a new Johnson decision the payrolls of these assistance groups will be slashed by 10 per cent within the next six months, even if none is eliminated.

Johnson worked in his office yesterday until 7 p.m., when he took what has become a routine evening swim in the White House pool.

N-Howitz Shell Developed by Army and AEC

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department today announced development of a new nuclear shell for the 155-mm howitzer used by both the Army and the Marine Corps.

It is the first battlefield nuclear weapon to be announced since the United States began furnishing the Davy Crockett atomic rockets to combat troops in spring 1962.

The Pentagon said the Army and the Atomic Energy Commission had developed the nuclear projectile for the 155-mm howitzer, which has a range of 8 to 16 miles.

Stores Hit by Fire in Bloomfield

An early morning fire at the Bloomfield Plaza Shopping Center yesterday gutted one store, damaged three others, injured four firemen and will cost about $305,000.

The blaze raged out of control for an hour and a half after starting in a storage room at Savon Drug Store, the corner unit in the center at Telegraph and 15 Mile, Bloomfield Township.

"It was almost entirely contained in Savon and just barely burned into the Argyle Shop next door," said Fire Chief Volvy V. Yaruszek.

However, the water and smoke damage there was heavy, he said. Smoke also did extensive damage to the Jacqueline Shop and a branch of the American Savings and Loan Association.

Yaruszek said this morning revised down his earlier estimate that the damage had amounted to $500,000.

FOUR CALLS

Firemen received four almost simultaneous calls on the fire at 6 a.m., Yaruszek said.

Four of the 10 firemen who fought the blaze suffered minor injuries.

John Truesdell was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac for treatment of a knee injury. First aid was administered to the other three, and they returned to the fire.

Southern Law Journal Asks: What Does Desegregation Mean?

(EDITOR'S NOTE — In its newly published "Civil Rights and the South," the North Carolina Law Review gives legal viewpoints and documented reports on America's greatest domestic issue. Here are highlights of the section on Southern school desegregation.)

By DON MCKEE

ATLANTA, Ga. — Emphasis on school desegregation in the South has shifted from resistance to problems of just how court orders may be satisfied, reports Laurence W. Knowles, a legal advisor to the U. S. Commission on Civil Rights.

"The prime issue today is: What does desegregation mean?" Knowles writes in the North Carolina Law Review's book-length symposium, "Civil Rights and the South."

Knowles, law professor at the University of Louisville, says the U. S. Supreme Court has yet to answer the questions of whether desegregation means simply purging school policies of any mention of race or placing all Negro children in school with white children, or merely giving them the opportunity to attend white schools.

Two major types of desegregation plans are used, Knowles says.

They are free choice of schools and geographical zoning. Knowles says the free choice plan "simply allows any child in the system to choose any school he wishes to attend."

In theory, it works, but not in practice, he writes. "In the large school systems of Louisville and Baltimore, Negro children living in large Negro residential areas must spend money and time to reach a biracial school; the systems do not furnish bus transportation," he reports.

dent choose a desegregated Negro school.

As a result, Knowles writes, in the larger cities the free choice plan has not brought about biracial school systems "but systems of all-white, biracial and all-Negro schools."

In rural areas, Negroes are reluctant to exercise rights under such a plan because of possible economic pressures and loss of jobs for Negro teachers, Knowles says.

The geographical zone theory under which pupils attend schools nearest them appears at first blush the best way to achieve desegregation, Knowles writes.

But — "The plan does lock Negro children living in the ghettos of Southern cities into Negro schools."

Knowles says optimum desegregation could be achieved by using the geographical attendance plan on the elementary level and a feeder system "whereby each elementary school feeds a certain high school."

NO TEACHER BIAS

There has been no teacher desegregation in the South, he reports, but adds that the Negro teacher does not want to leave "the comfort and associations of the Negro school."

Knowles concludes that unless state and local officers begin acting to "secure the constitutional rights of Negro school children . . . then states rights may perish by holding its breath."

State Jobless Up Last Month

DETROIT (AP) — Seasonal slowdowns in construction and food processing accounted for much of an increase in Michigan unemployment in the 30-day period ended Nov. 15, the Michigan Employment Security Commission says.

The number of jobless went up 13,000, reaching a total of 114,000. This represented 3.9 of the state's labor force. The national average was almost 6 per cent.

MESC Director Thomas Roumell said the unemployment rise was partially offset by the return to work of 5,000 persons during the Oct. 15 - to - Nov. 15 period.

Reports showed a "continued surge" in auto industry employment and a seasonal upturn in retail store jobs because of the Christmas season, Roumell said.

Unemployment in the Detroit area stood at $2,000 on Nov. 15, an increase of 2,000.

The Bible, or portions of it, is now available in 1,150 of the world's 2,150 known languages.

Can Handle Planes but Oh Those Cars

CHATTANOOGA (AP) — When Mike Pont wanted to learn to fly, his Dad taught him—and he became Chattanooga's youngest solo pilot on his 16th birthday. But when he got his driver's license a day later, he went with a professional teacher. Father Al Pont, a civilian flight instructor, said he hadn't wanted to tackle trying to teach his son to drive a car.

Boat Decorates Pool During the Off Season

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — With the swimming season over, manager Fred Novotny of the Voyager Inn didn't like the bare look of the pool area. So a 27-foot cruiser was launched in the 38-foot pool. A crane lifted it over a wall and into the water. The boat will be lighted and decorated for the holidays.

CHICAGO (AP) — Bankruptcy petitions are at an all-time peak. Commerce Clearing House says in fiscal 1963 there were 155,493 filed. Voluntary straight bankruptcies led all categories, posting over 128,000 filings compared with 122,000 a year ago.

It Seems to Me....

Chinese Reds Are Already Training Sights on Johnson

One thing becomes apparent. The Reds in China are going to take President LYNDON B. JOHNSON for a fast ride—if they can. I think their chances are nil. Johnson's a case-hardened hombre.

The double dyed deceivers in the Kremlin are a bit more adroit. They're donning their slickest sheep's clothing and are sitting back unctuously as they watch for the first opening. But they fool no one.

However, the Chinese Reds are flailing away at this grand President of ours with radio attacks and blasts in their government-controlled newspapers. They're busy stirring up new troubles in Viet Nam and their stooges in Laos are demonstrating against us. Some observers even think they may go far enough to provoke stiff attacks which could have devastating results.

President Johnson is on the spot there. They're deliberately baiting him to see how far they can go before he exhibits a doubled fist from which the glove has been removed. This Nation believes in Lyndon B. Johnson. We unite behind him and he can bank on the support and loyalty of the great bulk of our people.

In the meantime, CHIANG KAI-SHEK has been landing raiding parties on the mainland from Taiwan (Formosa) and reports they have met with little military resistance and found many Chinese Reds ready to defect to the Nationalist cause. It's perfectly possible that things might actually become explosive in this area.

Some observers believe the venerable Chiang is really ready to launch an all-out attack on the mainland. It sounds incredible but they feel the opposition will prove much weaker than the Chinese Reds suppose. Living conditions haven't begun to approximate the promises these lowly peasants received. They may be fairly ripe for revolt. However, anywhere a Chinese problem arises, there is always one overwhelming and insurmountable obstacle that challenges the entire world — and that's the staggering number of people.

No one knows exactly how many there are in China, but 700-million is a guess that may be fairly dependable. Attempting to "conquer" or even herd this awesome populace about in any form of regimentation is too fearful to contemplate.

The Generalissimo tells of the great success of his many raiding parties and the balance of the world is ready to accept the facts as outlined. However, when he sees fit, MAO TSE-TUNG blandly issues counter claims in which he invariably recognizes some specific raiding party and then suggests the entire force was easily wiped out by his gallant warriors.

It's part of our over-all global mess, any way you look at it.

Political Nonsense....

Probably the choicest bit of political baloney of the fall season arises from a pious remark attributed to T. JOHN LESINSKI, Michigan's Lieutenant Governor.

Quoth he:
"I feel as though I owe it to the people of Michigan to offer myself as a candidate for Governor."

Well, well! Here is one of the great-mealy mouthed utterances of the late fall season. JOHN, if you "want office," simply say so. No one holds it against you. It isn't a sin or a crime. It's a perfectly normal wish. But don't set yourself up as a martyr to an eager, enthusiastic and wildly cheering constituency.

"I'm thinking in terms of things that have to be done for the people of Michigan," he says. JOHN, very few voters give two whoops in Hades whether you run or return to the farm. The woods are full of eager beavers seeking office. Only one in a thousand is "in demand." And you JOHN, are not the "one"—you're among the 999.

Also, you state that you feel you should run because you're a Catholic and President Johnson is a Protestant and so you could "help balance the ticket." This government was founded on freedom of religion and no one is interested in electing you because you're a Catholic, a Protestant, a Jew, a Hotentot, a Mohammedan or a Buddhist—or because you aren't. It's in all the histories. Remember?

And in Conclusion....

I like the title of BILL ZECKENDORF's address to the Chicago Bar. "Simplified Complexity." Gotham beatniks who aren't "going steady" advise the world by only shaving one side of their faces. Automobile men urge you to get your car "winterized" immediately. ANNE BANCROFT usually slops around in sneakers and a sweater. She flew to London to star in a movie and her excess baggage was $264. Oakland County's own WALTER REUTHER walked through the Americana lobby between GEORGE MEANY, boss of the AFL-CIO (225 pounds and a squat five feet something) and BILL SCHNITZLER, Secretary-Treasurer, with the same general statistics. One woman said: "That's WALTER REUTHER but who are the other two?" Her companion replied: "probably his body guard."

I can't prove it, but I'll bet a sugar cookie you couldn't deliver this letter, but the post office did two decades ago:

Hill
John
Mass.

It went to John Underhill, Andover, Massachusetts.

Scouts advise me Mary Ann Hampton should be classed among the especially attractive young ladies in our area. I agree. Vaughn Meader, whose

Flaw in Presidential Succession

WASHINGTON — Many of the plans for presidential succession that have been offered thus far seem to ignore the basic principle of government in a republic—that the people should select their chief executive. This wasn't provided for under the old law and it is LAWRENCE not provided for completely under present law, enacted in 1947, whereby the secretary of state and other members of the cabinet are designated in a theoretical line of succession following the speaker of the House and the presiding officer of the Senate.

Cabinet officers in the United States have never been elected by the people. The vice president, on the other hand, is on the ballot in a national election, and speaker of the House and president pro tem of the Senate are chosen by the people's representatives in Congress.

The present speaker happens to be 72 years old and the Senate's president pro tem is 85. The present line of succession presumably goes back to the cabinet if the speaker and the Senate's presiding officer, who have in turn succeeded to the presidency, should die or become disabled while holding that office.

But it may also be pointed out that, once the speaker has become president, the next speaker—who would be promptly elected by the House—could be construed to be in line ahead of anybody in the cabinet.

It is this anomaly in existing law which needs clarification.

ONE CRITICISM

One criticism being mentioned is that, while a vice president who succeeds to the presidency is, of course, of the same party as the departed President, the speaker of the House of Representatives or presiding officer of the Senate might not be.

Thus, the party which has been in control of the administration could overnight be removed from executive power.

The four-year term for which an administration of one party had been elected would suddenly be ended by the accession of appointed with the fall shows. The biggest bust was "100 Grand" and JERRY LEWIS was a close second. The latter is marked for the graveyard next week. "Burke's Law" and "Arrest and Trial" won favor and DANNY KAYE started slowly but he's gaining. an administration of a different party.

The present statute needs amendment to make it crystal clear that the succession will not go to the Cabinet if anything happens to a speaker of the House who has become president, but that the power will definitely pass to the next individual who has been elected speaker of the House or to be president pro tem of the Senate. Each of these officials should always be someone in a leadership position who knows the legislative branch of the government and, through his service on congressional committees, has become familiar with departmental problems on the executive side.

Bob Considine Says:

Letter Tells of Cruel Act by New York Executive

NEW YORK — Readers have a right to know that this

My wife and five other girls were fired personally by a vice president of a Park Avenue concern for not reporting to work on Monday, Nov. 25," writes Raymond H. Markey Jr., a young New York husband.

CONSIDINE "I am unable to speak for the girls involved but my wife, another couple, and myself were standing in line in Washington that morning to pay our respects to the late President."

"Before leaving Sunday night, my wife called her boss and was told that he was not reporting to work and she was not required to, either."

"The irony of this is that my wife is an immigrant from West Germany. This despicable action taken by her company has made me ashamed to look her in the face."

Another New Yorker, Dallas Galvin, writes: "The guilt for the death of President Kennedy and his assassin lies on the conscience of all Americans, but it falls doubly on that of those men and women who have in their power the molding of the American mind."

"Each columnist, commentator and editor who has made irresponsible statements, who has through the power of his pen planted the seeds of hatred and suspicion through misinformation, speciousness, and exaggeration has been cursed for the integral part he has played in his abomination."

"You, sir, are one of these."

WHO HE MEANT

In a letter to a friend, a copy of which was sent to me, W. G. Kirkland of Darien, Conn., wrote "Considine gives the Dallas police a 'working over' which may or may not be justified."

"In spite of the superior news coverage at the Dallas police station at the time of Oswald's murder it was certainly obvious that our national press machinery was responsible at least to some degree for the circumstances that made this man vulnerable to such an attack."

Voice of the People:

Writers Suggest Names for New Perimeter Road

Why not name the perimeter road after a local man who has done much for Pontiac and brought us a great deal of recognition?

Murray D. (Pat) Van Wagoner was one of the nation's finest state highway commissioners and as such built many fine streets. During the depression he did much to relieve our unemployment.

As Governor of Michigan and later as U.S. Military Governor of Bavaria he brought added recognition to Pontiac.

A highway project would be a natural to name for a famous road builder. We could rename one of our parks in memory of our late President Kennedy.

I see a commissioner proposed naming the perimeter road after John F. Kennedy. I would think Pontiac would have some respect for our beloved John F. Kennedy. If they were naming a college or some long highway after him it would be respectful. But we should have more respect than by naming the perimeter road after him.

All over the world cities and countries are renaming streets and famous landmarks in memory of our late President Kennedy. Let's put Pontiac on that list by naming our perimeter road and new downtown mall after the President in a lasting memorial. I'm sure all of Pontiac will join in this.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace LaFave

23 Cooper We have waited a long time for city improvements so why not give more thought in choosing a name for our new perimeter road? The colorful historical events of our area have furnished beautiful Indian names for our city. It would be much more personal to our citizens to keep that tradition.

It will take a lot of time to write and repeat orally John F. Kennedy Drive, many times a day.

His widow lit a flame to burn continually and a monument will be erected for the whole world to honor. Let's honor his name nationally not locally.

Personal Opinion "Shouldn't Compare JFK With Christ" In answer to Ann Saincone who said she compared Mr. Kennedy with Christ, I feel badly about his death, but I don't see how anyone can compare a human being with the Son of God. He walked upon this earth, was spit upon, was cursed by men, wore a crown of thorns and was nailed to the cross to save this wicked world. Yet He had no sin. As he died he said "Father forgive them."

Read the New Testament. There's a lot more of His life.

Presidential Succession

The Chicago Sun-Times

The London Times

One consequence of the assassination of President Kennedy has been to strengthen the feeling in France that a vice president is needed there. Frenchmen have somewhat ruefully contrasted the 36 minutes which elapsed between the death of President Kennedy and the swearing-in of President Johnson and what might be expected in their own country if President de Gaulle was for any reason suddenly removed from the scene. The constitution lays down that most of the presidential powers would be exercised by the President of the Senate. Elections for a new president would normally take place from twenty to fifty days afterwards.

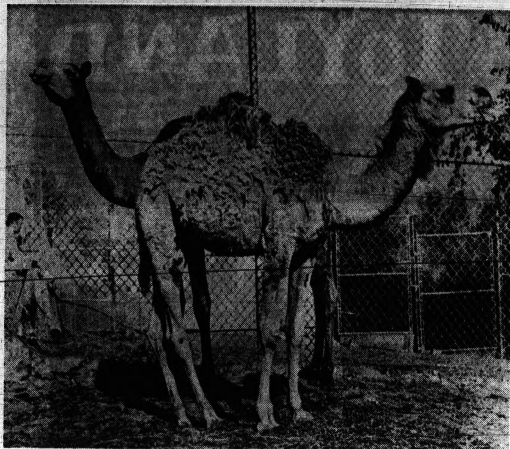

Those Frenchmen—who are grateful to President de Gaulle for five years of stability—are most haunted by the fear of since the President in performance of his duties must do considerable traveling. This matter of presidential succession is in the realm of priority legislation. If we may change a figure to a name, the transportation of a bygone day. "We should lock the door before the horse is stolen."

Only a suitable and automatic help — in other words, a vice-president chosen, as in the United States, at the same time as the president could assure a transference of power without interruptions. Is there anyone of sufficient stature to take over the reins and who would be content to occupy such an undefined, subordinate position for perhaps seven years — assuming, as seems probable, that President de Gaulle decides for a second term? Is there anyone whom de Gaulle could tolerate for so long as his acknowledged deputy.

Nevertheless, it is possible that President de Gaulle will now be persuaded to take some constitutional action — less because of the American warning than through distaste for the waiting powers of M. Monnerville.

Pope Pays Tribute on High Holy Day

ROME (AP)—Like thousands of Romans, Pope Paul VI paid a floral tribute Sunday to the Virgin Mary on Roman Catholic feast day of the Immaculate Conception.

He called on Roman Catholics everywhere to pray that "honors of thoughts and habits in honor of the Madonna" should make the world a better place to live.

Freedom Short-Lived for Youths

ST. JOHNS (AP)—Three youths enjoyed scant hours of freedom after escaping from the Ionia Reformatory Sunday night and stealing two cars, police said. Authorities captured Thomas Kleeman, 17, sentenced for two to 15 years for burglary in Luce County, shortly after the youths were reported missing from a dormitory.

Then St. Johns police chased a car at speeds up to 80 miles an hour today until the auto ran into a corn field at a dead-end road, where officers apprehended the other two, authorities said.

OTHER TWO

The latter two picked up were Jerry Kiles, 20, serving a 2½-15-year term from Westford County for burglary, and Raymond Fisher, 18, sentenced to 21 months to two years for car theft in Wayne County.

Kiles and Fisher took one car, abandoning it near St. Johns in Clinton County, police said. They took another and were chased and captured after failing to pay for gasoline at a service station, officers said.

The Department of Agriculture estimated recently that the winter potato crop would amount to 4,303,000 hundred-weight.

Junior Editors Quiz on SEA GULLS

QUESTION: Sea gulls are said to eat clams, but how do they open them?

ANSWER: Gulls are active, industrious birds who have more than one trick inside their wise-looking heads.

Although, with their webbed feet gulls are equipped for life on the water, they will often fly inland and eat grasshoppers, angleworms and mice.

At sea, they follow the wake of a vessel, looking for scraps thrown out by the cook.

When the tide is out, as we show, gulls, properly called herring gulls, often sail over mud flats, picking up small creatures.

If they find a clam, a gull grabs it in his feet, flies around looking for a rock or hard bit of sand, and will then drop the clam from about 50 feet up.

If the shell doesn't crack the first time, they try again — until a delicious clam dinner is all ready for them.

FOR YOU TO DO: Our artist says he enjoyed drawing the beautiful, graceful sea gulls and suggests you try drawing some, first using the ones here as models, and then inventing your own. Notice the narrow wings, long neck and shape of the bill.

Two Policemen Save Man From Icy Grand River

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Securing themselves with ropes, two policemen waded into the icy Grand River Sunday and rescued an unconscious man after he had rolled face down in the swift current.

The man, Calvin Douglas, 55, was taken to a hospital where he was reported in satisfactory condition with head injuries. Police said Douglas apparently was stunned by landing in shallow water.

The rescuing officers were George Pepper and Robert Trent. They used two 100-foot lines. Trent waded in with a second line and held on to the first, tied to Pepper, who pulled Douglas from the water.

William Sproat, who called police, said he saw a man jump from the Bridge Street bridge.

Water Woes Leave Town High and Dry

VICTOR, N.Y. (AP) — For much of the weekend, this Ontario County village of 1,200 was without water.

An air pocket in a water line stopped the flow from Friday night until early Sunday.

Shortly after service was restored, an automobile rammed a hydrant, breaking it from a pipe below the pavement.

The water system was shut

LEAK IN DAM

About noon, village officials found a leak in the dam blocking a spring that supplies Victor's water. The water level had dropped below the intake pipe at the dam.

The water system was closed again but was reopened by nightfall after repairs at the dam.

Girl, 21, Dead; Father Serves as U.S. Guam Chief

HONOLULU (AP) — A University of Hawaii coed, Dolecy Ann Dickerson, 21, daughter of Denver Dickerson, former Nevada newspaper publisher and state official now serving as territorial secretary of Guam, was found dead Saturday in her apartment.

Two friends, whose names were not disclosed, told authorities Miss Dickerson had been depressed recently and that they made a date with her to take her to a university play in an effort to lift her spirits.

When she failed to answer her doorbell, the friends called the landlord, who opened the apartment door. Miss Dickerson's body lay on her bed.

Ancient Jew State Dying Out

NEW DELHI (UPI) — The remnants of what was once the only independent Jewish state in the world are dying out around a synagogue in the south India port of Cochin.

Only 86 persons remain of the almost legendary community of "white Jews" who ruled their own principality for a thousand years on the Malabar Coast.

The elders are aware that their community is dying out. They told a correspondent for the Statesman newspaper that they have gone for as long as 12 years without a son being born among them.

Three of the last 14 families packed up and went to Israel in the hope of finding husbands for their unmarried daughters.

MOST ARE AGED

Of the remaining white Jews, only 15 are under 20 years of age. Most are over 60.

The Jewish community was once a power on the Malabar Coast. Tradition says that 18,000 of the Jews landed in the region in 72 A.D., two years after the Romans destroyed their temple in Jerusalem.

The hard-working refugees won a kingdom from the Hindu rulers who took them in. The white Jews' synagogue still displays the four copper plates bearing the deed of gift written in a dead language called old Malayalam.

The plates proclaim that King Sri Parkaran I ravi Vinmar granted the principality of Ajavannam, north of Cochin, to the refugee leader Joseph Rabban.

JEALOUS NEIGHBORS

The Jewish state prospered peacefully until Portuguese colonists arrived, and until their wealth stirred the jealousy of armed Arab traders and the Hindu ruler of Calicut.

In 1524, the Arabs and the ruler of Calicut attacked singly to seize its spice trade. Forty years later, the Portuguese conquered the city and drove its inhabitants to Cochin, where the Rajah permitted them to open a synagogue and settle in the neighborhood of Mattancherry.

The industrious community won the favor of the rajahs of Cochin. The sabbath and their religious holidays were officially recognized by the state government. A seat was reserved for them in the state assembly.

The community, which had already been strengthened by Jews from Persia and Babylon in the 4th and 5th centuries, and from Spain in the Middle Ages, received new blood from Baghdad.

The ancient settlers seemed unable to adjust to modern times. Few of them took to the new professions. Their numbers shrank.

Their wealth decreased. Most of the white Jews are only small shopkeepers today.

The Jewish settlers adopted many of the south Indian customs. They speak the local Malayali tongue. Their women wear saris and the men dress in the local "lungi."

They remove their shoes to enter the synagogue, as their neighbors do in Hindu temples.

But the white Jews boast that they have kept their blood and religion pure for almost 2,000 years. A Jewish butcher provides kosher meat. The men retain the traditional skulcap. Their sons still study rabbi, the warden of their synagogue insists that the most orthodox rabbi from Jerusalem could find no fault with their services.

The sabbath is strictly observed. Although they have no

Israel Hails Pope's Visit

JERUSALEM, Israel Sector — Hailing Pope Paul VI's coming pilgrimage to the Holy Land as an event of "great importance," the Israeli government has appointed a committee of top officials to coordinate arrangements for the Pontiff's visit.

"This is a unique and memorable event," the government said in a communique.

"The government of Israel welcomes the Pope's intention to visit our country."

"Every effort will be made to insure that conditions of the visit and all necessary arrangements will be in full keeping with its declared purpose and the unique status of the Pope for hundreds of millions of adherents of the Catholic Church and for the world as a whole."

COMMITTEE HEADS
The committee is headed by Premier Levi Eshkol and includes Foreign Minister Golda Meir, Minister of Religious Affairs Zerah Wahrhaftig and Minister of Police Behor Shitreet.

Vatican security officers were reported re-examining protective measures for the pontiff following unfavorable reports in the Cairo press about the visit.

Pope Paul plans to visit shrines in both Israel and Jordan during a three-day visit beginning Jan. 4.

Papers in Cairo have said the pilgrimage would be interpreted as Vatican recognition of Israel and one, Al Akhbar, expressed fears of "a Zionist attempt on the Pope's life."

MIGHT ENCOURAGE

A Vatican source said it was possible that such newspaper comments might encourage a person who felt politically wronged to attack the Pope.

The Vatican gendarmerie—most of them plainclothes detectives recruited from the Italian police force—was reported planning to send an advance party to the Holy Land to survey the areas that the Pope will travel.

The Vatican has refused thus far to disclose any details of the Pope's itinerary, apparently as a precautionary measure. Reports continued circulating that Pope Paul would follow the Holy Land pilgrimage with visits to the Philippines, North and South America, Britain, France and India.

The Vatican, however, remained silent about the reports.

sion veil with silk pillbox and held a Bible topped with white roses and eucalyptus.

Mrs. Philip Jennings of Mt. Clemens attended her sister as honor matron. They are daughters of the Delbert H. Schomakers of Fraser.

Bridesmaids included Mrs. Donald Gearhart of Fraser; Mrs. Richard Johnston of Clarkston; Mrs. Ralph Polovich, Port Huron and the bridegroom's sister Gary Lynn Hewitt of Keego Harbor.

Soviet Women Have 'Too Much Equality'

By GAY PAULEY
NEW YORK (AP) — The Soviet woman suffers from too much equality with the male.

This was one of the impressions Mari Janofsky reported after a month's tour of Russia as the only woman member of a U. S. television team preparing a documentary account of the life of the Soviet woman.

"I would not want to be a woman in Russia today," said Miss Janofsky in an interview. "The kind of equality she has I don't want... she has to sacrifice femininity."

NO SOUTHERN BELLES
"It would be doubtful if a 23-year-old woman crane operator were talked with to be treated as a Southern belle..."

Miss Janofsky, whose parents migrated from Russia in 1898 and settled in Towanda, Pa., explained that the official equality of sexes came with the Russian Revolution 46 years ago.

She said "equality" today means that the Russian housewife who works — and most mothers do work to augment the family income — leaves the house in the morning when her husband does.

NO MALE HELP

She has neither the labor-saving devices of her American counterpart nor the help-around-the-house habit of the American male. The Russian way of life does not expect the man to help at home, she said.

"That," said Miss Janofsky, "is equality with a vengeance."

"But I got the impression the Russian women are waking up to the advantages of being female..."

Certainly, she said, the awakening shows in such feminine things as lipstick, nail polish, eye makeup and added color and style in clothing. It shows in the fact that the daily hour and one-half fashion shows staged at GUM, the big Moscow department store, always are jammed, she said.

The government is aware of the Soviet women's demand for feminine fripperies and is responding, she continued. Nothing is made and sold in the Soviet unless it's approved officially. That's why such items as uplift bras, nylon stockings and perfume at popular prices are meaningful, she said.

Miss Janofsky worked as associate producer on the television show, "The Soviet Woman," to be presented Tuesday evening.

She, producer Bill Weston, and a camera crew visited Moscow, Tbilisi and Batumi, in the Georgian province to film women at home, in the market and on the job. The women included teachers, dentists, architects, doctors, the woman astronomer who heads the Russian space satellite tracking system, ballerinas, bricklayers, barbers, mail women, janitors, bus drivers and assembly line workers.

They also talked with Russia's first lady, Mme. Nina Khrushcheva, and with Ekaterina Furtseva, the only woman in the Russian presidency.

ONLY IMPRESSIONS
"The things I'm saying are only impressions," said Miss Janofsky. "I hate these people who become authorities on a country after one brief visit."

Members of Pontiac Rebekah Lodge 450 exchanged gifts at a Christmas dinner party, Friday, in Malta Temple. Officers were elected for the coming year.

Chorus, they will sing in the annual Christmas concert Tuesday 8:15 p.m., at the First Congregational Church. Tickets are available from members or at the door.

But Idea Was Good

Husband's No Diplomat

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Well, my husband opened his big mouth again, and now half the neighborhood isn't speaking to us.

The school is nine blocks from here. Our kids walk. A neighbor couldn't get her car started, so she ran over here all excited (my husband was eating his breakfast) and said if HE didn't drive a carload of kids to school, they'd all be late.

Then my husband gave her a lecture on "how it would do them all good to walk, and the school was only nine blocks away, and that she and the other mothers in our neighborhood were spoiling the kids rotten by chauffeuring them a distance that could be walked in 15 minutes, blah, blah, blah."

Well, that's not what she came over for, so I told him to shut his mouth and I drove the kids to school in my pickup truck.

My husband said I should have taken his side. Who was wrong?

LIKES IT PEACEFUL

DEAR LIKES: Your husband. Your neighbor didn't want advice, she wanted a ride for the kids. Although your husband's ideas were sound, he batted zero in diplomacy.

St. Francis Set World Humming

Caroling started in 13th century Italy. St. Francis of Assisi encouraged villages to display the nativity scene, and act out the Christmas story in passion plays. Later carols were composed to go along with the plays and the custom of caroling through the streets got started.

One of the most beautiful customs involving caroling is still observed in Austria every Christmas Eve. Beginning with the family living the farthest from the village church, torch-bearing carolers form a procession through the village. At each house, the procession is joined by all the inhabitants. Eventually the entire village is part of the procession as it arrives at the church steps.

Two Books Add to Home Library

NEW YORK (UP) — New publications of interest to women:

"The Second Chafing Dish Cookbook" by Marie Robertson Hamme aims to restore the once standard equipment to its former busy position as a hostess' accessory. Especially recommended are recipes for one-bite meat balls in dill sauce and ham 'n' orange.

"The Outdoor Cook's Bible" by Joseph D. Bates Jr., also is the hunter and fisherman's wife's friend. It covers everything from building fires with frontier facilities to a recipe for roast brandied pheasant.

Three Are December Brides

MRS. G. D. MILLER

MRS. M. T. MacQUEEN

MRS. FRED L. STARK

The Guerin David Millers (Mary Sue Smallwood) left for a New York City honeymoon following their marriage and reception Saturday in Evangel Temple.

Daughter of the John T. Smallwoods of Mt. Clemens Street, the bride wore the traditional white satin gown with scoop neckline of Chantilly lace and chapel train.

Her skirt was styled with sequined ruffled lace flounce topped with satin overskirt. A fingertip veil of illusion and bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Leo Hyatt of Lake Orion was matron of honor and Mrs. Tommy Smallwood served as bridesmaid.

Large Pockets Save Time, Steps

To save steps when you houseclean, wear an apron with large pockets — to hold dustcloths, small brushes, or stray objects which must be returned to their proper places. Make sure that the apron is machine-washable so it can be subdued readily after each cleaning session.

Rev. Eric Werhli performed the candlelight evening ceremony.

TAFFETA GOWN

A cultured pearl necklace and bouquet of white orchids and carnations completed her ensemble.

They carried white fur muffs topped with red carnations.

Debra Lawson attended her cousin as flower girl.

On the esquire side were best man Gerry Conrad of ushers, Michael Deltner of Oak Park, Robert Mott, and the bridegroom's brother, Thomas MacQueen.

Christmas Cards Pose Difficulties

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: Each year I receive more and more Christmas cards. My list is very long as it is and I certainly don't wish to add any more names to it if I can possibly help it.

A: Last year I received quite a few cards from acquaintances to whom I did not send cards. I would like to know if it is necessary to send them cards this year.

A: To send Christmas cards to people simply because they have sent them to you takes away from the spirit of this friendly and charming custom.

If these acquaintances mean little or nothing to you, it is certainly not necessary to add their names to your Christmas list.

Q: I have just recently learned that a girl I was quite friendly with at college, has married. We dated frequently but there was nothing really serious between us. I always sent her a Christmas card. I would like to know if it would be proper to send her one this year. I do not know her husband at all.

A: It would be perfectly proper to send her a friendly Christmas greeting, but you should address the card to Mr. and Mrs. even though you have never met her husband.

Q: After only two months of marriage, my wife died very suddenly. We had been living with her parents at the time waiting for an apartment, and therefore did not use any of the wedding presents.

We packed them away until we were ready to move into our own place. My problem is what shall I do with all these gifts?

A: I expect to go back home to live with my parents. Should I return these gifts?

A: If you do not think you will have use for these gifts and that they will only be an unhappy reminder to you, you may return them if you wish, but there is no obligation to do so. They are yours to keep if you want them. The only time it is required that wedding presents be returned is when the marriage does not take place.

Details concerning the remarriage of a widow and divorcee are described in the new Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Second Marriage."

To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Emily Post Institute, in care of The Pontiac Press.

The Emily Post Institute cannot answer personal mail, but all questions of general interest are answered in this column.

Steel Becomes Style Synonym

Steel, synonymous with strength, is now becoming a synonym for style. That's because designers of tableware, vases, trays and other items which formerly were made in precious metals now are made of stainless steel.

The bride who owns stainless steel tableware today will be handing it down to her children as an "heirloom." Beauty and durability are now being combined by some of America's best designers who use stainless steel.

There's beauty in the vegetable kingdom — beauty you can use as holiday decoration. Sprayed with gold or silver, an arrangement of Brussels sprouts is full of grace and elegance.

Lowly Brussels Sprouts Become a Centerpiece

"Floral" arrangements of Brussels sprouts make artful conversation pieces.

Have the frozen Brussels sprouts uncooked and completely dry. Open them out with your finger tips to form flowers. Spray on gilt, using aerosol can, and allow to dry... takes about 1 hour.

Use any kind of container, plain or fancy, with an ordinary frog or styrofoam (available at variety stores and florists) to hold the arrangement. Secure the Brussels sprouts on thin sticks or wires, which form the stems and can also be sprayed gold. Arrange the sprouts as though you were working with actual flowers.

Arrange them with ivy, holly, berries, any greens. In the picture English ivy and Honey fragrant, parchment-like white leaves are used.

For more formal arrangements, the gilt sprouts can be massed into a pyramid (without stems) and augmented with fruits, berries and leaves. Fresh holly, sprayed gold, is another pretty touch.

Judges Find Job Difficult

(Editor's note: Jeanmarie Elkins served as a judge in the Pontiac Junior Miss contest Saturday. Here is her story.)

By JEANMARIE ELKINS
Seven girls stood on the stage of the Pontiac Northern High School Little Theater Saturday evening. With rapidly beating hearts, each fervently hoped that the three judges would pick her as Pontiac's Junior Miss.

day since early that morning. Then began the review of the entire day.
The day had passed quickly. There never seemed to be enough time. While each girl was being interviewed, six others practiced for their talent portion of the show.
In those 15 minutes of questioning, the judges had to test the mental alertness and scholastic achievement of each girl.
BIG JOB
She had to be checked for personality, sense of values, clarity of expression, knowledge and perception, awareness of the world around her, personal appearance, refinement, ladylike behavior and thoughtfulness to others.

Each judge privately formed his own opinion. Following a short luncheon period, the judges spent an hour discussing the contestants.
Meeting again with all seven girls, the judges also met Michigan's present Junior Miss, Diane Girard, and viewed a film on her week in Mobile, Ala.
TALENT SHOW
Then began the program, a short series of exercises to test youth fitness. Each girl presented her three-minute talent performance. In the formal attire parade, the contestants were tested for poise and appearance.
As anxious friends and relatives waited in the little theater, the judges again discussed each girl. A decision seemed impossible. Finally it was decided to review the characteristics of a Junior Miss.
She must have the exquisite freshness of a teenager, clear and sparkling appearance, courtesy of a lady and an unaffected youthful loveliness.
She must be enthusiastic and have a charm of her own. She must be instantly recognized as superior for her wholesomeness, thoughtfulness, ability to accept responsibility and to inspire others in her own age group.
Like a nylon string, this girl must be delicate but strong.

Use License for Cleaning

NEW YORK (UPI) — When washing woodwork, hold a flat cookie sheet or an old license plate over the adjacent area, home economists suggest.
This will speed your work and prevent splashes on the wall. Woodwork comes clean in a jiffy with warm soap or detergent suds applied with a soft clean cloth or sponge — working from the floor upwards. Rinse well and wipe with a clean dry cloth.

Claudia Rice Wears Velvet Bridal Gown

Claudia Belle Rice, who became Mrs. Wallace Brent Myott on Saturday, chose a gown of white chiffon velvet for the wedding and reception in Central Methodist Church.

Venise lace accented the Empire bodice and her bell skirt fell into a chapel train. A lace and satin cap held silk illusion veil. She carried gardenias and Stephanotis.

Dr. Milton H. Bank performed the candlelight ceremony for the daughter of the Walter E. Rices of Chippewa Road and the son of the Wallace E. Myotts of West Islip, Long Island, N.Y.

FOUR BRIDESMAIDS

Wearing gold peau taffeta with floor-length overskirts, were bridesmaids, Gaynell Rice, Connie Myott, Kathy Beebe and Sally Nickerson. They carried bronze pompoms.

Bonnie Ann Rarner of New Bloomfield, Pa., her cousin's maid of honor, held butter-scotch pompoms.
Donald Marquet of Baltimore, Md. was best man for the bridegroom, formerly of North Johnson Street. Ushers were Donald Houghton, Jerold Connors, John Vogt, Ypsilanti and Lawrence Hollister.

For Gift Wrapping

Just Cover the Lid

By POLLY CRAMER

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
DEAR POLLY — We are invited to three weddings, so I have been busy wrapping wedding gifts.

When wrapping a gift that is in a box with a lid that comes down over the sides, I just cover the lid with pretty paper, put it on the box with a bow on top.

It makes a most attractive package. I always hated to see so much fancy paper torn off and thrown away.—ELSIE.

DEAR POLLY — When painting chair legs, put each leg in a jar cover placed upside down on the floor. This allows room for the brush to get around the legs and the cover catches the paint drippings.

Coffee grounds make a good sweeping compound for basement floors.

Leftover bread slices are easy to cube or grate for stuffing, meat loaves, etc. if they are first frozen. Use directly from the freezer.—MRS. O. K.

DEAR POLLY — Since your column is my favorite, I am sending you my favorite hint. To keep slipcovers from riding up and down, I sew strips of twill tape on to the inside seams (wrong side) next to the furniture legs.

Strips should be long enough to cross around the leg and tie in a secure bow. Saves time and fingernails and keeps the chair or sofa neater looking.—MRS. B. J. M.

DEAR POLLY — A couple of years ago, just after Christmas, I decided on a gift to give my aunt the next Christmas.

She has three children, so from New Year's Day until a few weeks before Christmas I made a point of taking as many snapshots as possible of her children. I put these in a small album that holds 20 pictures.

She was so thrilled with this photographic record of her children for one year that I now do it for several friends and relatives. It brings great pleasure for a small expense.—M. W.

Why Grow Old?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Periodically women write asking me to reprint my exercises for scoliosis trouble. This can surely be painful and is sometimes due to a fall or injury of some sort. Most often it is caused by a strain from lifting. Once in a while it is an aftermath of childbirth.

Great care should be taken in the kind of exercises you do. You can damage yourself and bring about a recurrence of your difficulty if you take the wrong kind. The ones I am giving you today are very mild and have been helpful to many of my pupils who have a mild scoliosis weakness.

The black and white is news in an autumn suit. The Anglo tweed of wool and Orton acrylic is, in a word, snappy. The black-satin bow and the biased induced fullness in the skirt are two extra points of interest. By Davidson.

In fact they had no more trouble so long as they were faithful with the exercises. However, even before doing these you should ask your doctor if he approves! Here are the best.

1. Stand tall. Bend the left knee up in front of you. Take hold of the left knee and pull up gently. Return left foot to the floor. Do the same with your right knee. Continue slowly, alternating. If you have trouble with balance stand with your back to the wall, or you can do this same thing lying down.

STAND ERECT

2. Stand erect, arms hanging at sides. Walk in place (not moving forward). Pull your knees up high in front of you.

3. Lie on the floor on your back with your arms and legs resting on the floor. Bend your left leg up close to your abdomen. Make circles with your left knee, circling outward.

After a while return your left leg to position and do the same thing with your right knee.

In order to avoid scoliosis trouble, be careful about lifting. When you do so, keep your back erect and go into a deep knee bend.

Melbourne, Australia, in 1961-62 had its driest summer in 40 years.

MRS. R. L. NICOLAY

A Fat, Jolly Elf for 1,600 Years

Saint Nicholas has been leaving gifts for good little boys and girls on Christmas Eve ever since the 4th century. The original St. Nicholas was a Turkish Bishop, noted for his works of charity, who became the patron saint of children.

Martin Luther later substituted the Christ Child or Christkindle for St. Nicholas as the bearer of gifts in Germany. Later a German colony led by William Penn settled in Pennsylvania, and again Santa changed his name. The settlers had brought Christkindle with them, but somehow it got transferred into Kris Kringle.

The Dutch may have nicknamed St. Nicholas "Santa Claus" for short, but his image as a fat little man with rosy cheeks and white beard comes from the famous American poem "The Night Before Christmas."

During the 18th century, Santa recrossed the Atlantic from the United States and became known as "Father Christmas" in England and "Pere Noel" in France.

Pair to Return to Pontiac After Brief Honeymoon

The LaVerne Stewarts of West Princeton Avenue were hosts at a home reception following the Saturday marriage of their daughter Karen Jean to Russell Lowell Nicolay.

Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses on Walton Boulevard was the setting for the evening ceremony performed by the presiding minister Richard Baugh.

Cameo ivory peau de sole, brocaded in rose motif, fashioned the bride's street-length gown. She wore a fingertip veil of nylon net with headpiece of Alencon lace, and carried white carnations and red roses.

Mrs. Ronald McNabb, attending the bride as matron of honor, appeared in Lucerne blue chiffon over taffeta, with lace jacket. Pink roses accented her bouquet of white carnations.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Lowell Nicolay of Wixom and the late Mr. Nicolay, had the bride's brother Neff C. Stewart for best man. David Nicolay ushered with David Guyton.

After a brief northern honeymoon, the couple will live in Pontiac.

Door Becomes Greeting Card With Oil Cloth

You can create a "happy holiday" front door with a little time and effort and weatherproof oil cloth. For example, cross wide red bands against a white door to give a "gift package" effect. Or shape self-adhering oil cloth into bows, and decorate them with sprigs of holly.

Remember to wash the door with hot soap or detergent suds before you decorate, as not even the most artistic design can enhance a dingy surface. And wash the door again later to erase all traces of your holiday decoration.

Knickers Knock at Fashion's Door

Knickers anybody? Sportive enthusiasts who suddenly found themselves looking like everybody else have taken them up in a big way. Knicker's call for knicker socks. Tucking under the knee band, certain nylon and wool socks feature a row of buttons down the sides of each leg. Fortunately, they don't have to be unbuttoned.

Tortoise Shell Look Requires No Tortoises

Unlike the olden days when the tortoise made stylish glasses and handbag fittings, the tortoise is enjoying new fashion prestige.

As mock turtle soup does not need turtle, the tortoise look of jackets, leather pants and handbags currently in favor does not need tortoises, which ought to please tortoise very much.

International socialites bought up lots of those tight-fitting, lustrous tortoise shell (look) sports pants designer John Wette made last spring. Now he has made a double-breasted hip-length jacket of leather with the same shell-like surface.

Sorting gifts to be taken to the Lapeer Home and Training School for Christmas are Washington Irving PTA members Mrs. Terry Cantrell, Littleell Street (left), Mrs. John Klausmeyer, Klingensmith Street, and student Susan Cantelon, Long Pointe Drive. Gifts were brought to the recent meeting at the school of the Association for Childhood Education, a group that annually donates gifts for Lapeer.

Bridal Home Setting for Reception

The Pontiac Church of Christ was the setting for the Saturday evening vows of Patricia Diane Pepper to Todd Michael Twichel.

A reception in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Pepper on West Longfellow Avenue followed the ceremony performed by Boyd Glover, minister.

With her street-length gown of white satin, styled with scoop neckline and fitted bodice, the bride wore a bouffant veil of silk illusion and a pearl tiara. She carried white rosebuds and carnations.

Mrs. Raymond Bush attended her sister as matron of honor. Brian Snyder was best man.

After a honeymoon in Ontario and Niagara Falls, the couple will be at home on West Huron Street.

Use Trays of Fiberglass

White fiberglass trays, enhanced with colorful designs, lend a party air to impromptu holiday meals or snacks. Decorative motifs include candies with pine cones, Santas, and holly.

Sized to fit any folding tray-table, they are always ready for use after a quick swab with a sudsy sponge — or they can be immersed in hot soap or detergent suds for a thorough "dishwashing."

Local Couple

Wed at Grandmother's

A reception in the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club followed the Saturday nuptials of Joan Lee Silra and Billy Edward Hickey of Ortonville.

Justice Robert Scott performed the candlelight evening ceremony in the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Harry Aleo on East Montcalm Street.

Mantel arrangements of white snapdragons, chrysanthemums and pink carnations formed an improvised altar.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Silra of South Marshall Street and the Virgil Hickeys of Ortonville.

Venise lace accented the bateau neckline and overskirt of the bride's street-length sheath gown of white tulle. She wore a short veil with pearl tiara and carried white carnations, miniature pink roses and ivy.

WORE PINK

Mrs. Walter Hickey, matron of honor, appeared in petal pink chiffon over tulle with bodice of matching Chantilly lace. A pink rosebud centered each white carnation in her semicascade bouquet.

Walter Hickey assisted his brother as best man. The couple chose the Crystal Mountain Ski Lodge for their honeymoon.

Balanced Load: Better Wash

Loading your washer properly helps it to turn out a wash with maximum sparkle!

A smaller load than the manufacturer suggests will reduce friction among the clothes. This hinders soil removal because fabrics should rub against one another in the presence of soap or detergent suds.

The other extreme is overloading the machine — which reduces the circulation of soil-removing sudsy water and decreases friction due to overcrowding.

Custom Comes 'Cause He Was Christmas-Tied

One of the more modern Christmas customs is sending Christmas greetings each year. In a little over a century — they first got started in England in 1843 — this relatively new custom has become well established.

In that year, Sir Henry Cole commissioned an artist named John Horsley to design a Christmas "greeting" for him because he was "too busy to write to his friends at Christmas."

Since then, the sending of Christmas cards has become almost universal, although in some countries, greetings are sent for the New Year, instead of Christmas.

This year, more than 3½ billion Christmas cards will be mailed in the United States, alone, says Rust Craft Creteing Cards. This is an average of approximately 18 cards per person.

Kitchen towels, dish cloths and pot holders should be bleached occasionally to remove stubborn stains. Be sure to rinse thoroughly.

Diamond's Friend: Soap and Water

Suds are a diamond's best friend! To keep your diamonds sparkling, scrub them often with an eyebrow brush and hot soap or detergent suds. Then rinse and wipe dry with tissue paper.

No Envelopes

The first "enveloped" greeting card was a Christmas card. Greeting cards were not placed in envelopes until one card company introduced the first "enveloped" Christmas card in 1906.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Yawns Catching, but Not Like Measles

If you can read this article without yawning you have a strong mind. Since yawning does not threaten life or limb, no national foundation has been established to study it.

In the last few months, however, some reports have appeared that throw some light on a process that has never been very well understood.

It has been found that all mammals yawn, and women yawn about as much as men.

If a snake appears to be yawning you had better look again. It is more likely that he is about to take a man-sized bite of something.

BIRDS YAWN?

It is rumored that birds yawn, but I have never caught one in the act. Perhaps I've been watching the wrong kind of bird.

Come to think of it I have never seen a fish or toad yawn.

It is now believed by some that a state of decreased attentiveness is behind all yawns. This may be associated with fatigue, sleepiness or boredom.

Although a yawn is not contagious in the sense that measles are, still it often spreads through the power of suggestion when someone else is seen yawning.

In many persons all that is necessary is to think of yawning and one is forthcoming.

Often one good yawn begets another and a person may go through a series of a dozen or more in a few minutes.

Recent observations have suggested that yawning produces pressure on the thyroid and thereby causes the secretion of this gland to enter the blood.

Persons with inactive thyroids were found to yawn much more than normal persons. When these persons were given thyroid extract they quit yawning and their general health was improved.

According to this same study, a yawn is followed by an immediate increase in the pulse rate and an increase in attentiveness or awareness of one's surroundings, in persons with normal thyroids.

This effect, however, is not sustained. I have always found that when I am sleepy a good yawn helps to relax me. If in bed, which is rarely, a couple of yawns will help me to go to sleep.

In fact, just writing about it has made me so tired I'm afraid I'll have to change the subject.

Q—For the past three years I've found it impossible to sleep unless I am on my stomach. What advantage or disadvantage is this to me? Is it a sign of weak lungs?

A—If you can fall asleep more readily lying on your stomach, do so by all means. This is not a sign of anything. Scientists who have made a study of sleep habits assure us that we shift our position every 30 or 40 minutes during sleep, so you may not sleep on your stomach as much as you think you do.

Ex-Guard Boss Airs JFK Death

Was Former Chief of
U. S. Secret Service

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former Secret Service chief U. E. Baughman said yesterday that "there are a lot of things to be explained" about the assassination of President Kennedy in Dallas Nov. 22.

But he conceded, "I don't know how you'd stop a high-powered rifle unless you change the routes of the President's parade."

Baughman disclaimed any intention of criticizing the Dallas police or of Secret Service agents on the day Kennedy was shot, but he suggested that authorities look into certain questions he said have troubled him about the assassination.

Baughman asked, for example why Kennedy's accused assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, was permitted to leave the textbook warehouse along the presidential motorcade route after the shooting.

Also, he asked, if the shots did come from a warehouse window as eyewitnesses reported, why didn't the Secret Service pepper the window with machinegun fire?

Baughman asked whether police had searched the warehouse before Kennedy arrived. He said he could not understand why Gerald A. Behn, chief of the service's White House detail, was not in Dallas, nor why Mrs. Kennedy climbed on the back of the presidential limousine for help after her husband was shot.

Baughman expressed no concern about reports that some Secret Service agents were on the town in Fort Worth, Tex., the night before the assassination.

Agents frequently are entertained in cities they visit for the first time, he said, "but 3 o'clock is pretty late in the morning" that has to be checked out.

Baughman retired in 1961 after 34 years in the service responsible for protecting the lives of U.S. presidents. He was chief during the Truman and Eisenhower administrations and for the first seven months of Kennedy's term. Baughman now lives in suburban Arlington, Va.

LBJ Phones Teacher

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson telephoned a former college teacher of his over the weekend to wish her a speedy recovery from the illness which has confined her to a Corpus Christi, Tex., hospital.

The White House said the President called Miss Mamie Brown at Spahn Hospital in Corpus Christi Saturday night. Miss Brown was one of Johnson's instructors at Southwest Texas State College in San Marcos in 1930.

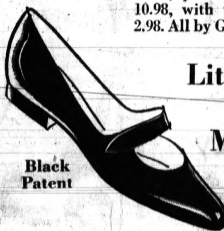

Red China Delegate

TOKYO (AP) — Peking Radio has reported Red China Foreign Minister Chen Yi will represent his country at the Kenya independence ceremony at Nairobi Thursday.

Foreign News Commentary

De Gaulle Vetoes Vice President Plan

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

President Charles de Gaulle is said to have vetoed once and for all a plan to create a post of vice president to take over in the event that he should fall.

De Gaulle reportedly told leaders of his ruling Gaullist political party (UNR) that he wouldn't know what to do with a vice president who would have no other function than to sit around waiting for him to die.

JOHNSON VS. DE GAULLE

De Gaulle can be expected to take his time about setting a date to meet with President Lyndon Johnson. Insiders say the crusty French leader wants to see first whether Johnson is likely to be as tough on such matters as nuclear sharing as the late President Kennedy was.

COMMON MARKET FALL?

A showdown rapidly is approaching between France and West Germany on Common Market farm price policies. In the German view, this could mean the downfall of the Common Market and, at least temporarily, the dream of a united Europe.

The French are insistent that German farm subsidies be cut to the same level as that paid to French farmers and that French agricultural products receive preference within the Common Market, composed of France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

The Germans are resisting on both counts. Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's Christian Democrats drew their strongest support from German farmers.

JAPANESE POLITICS

Japanese Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda's Liberal-Democratic party won a major victory in last month's elections, but there are indications that Ikeda may face a fight for his political life when the party holds its convention in July.

The party is divided by factionalism, and party rivals may be willing to blow it apart to prevent Ikeda's serving a third two-year term.

Shapely Sermon

Sexy Selling Slapped

NORBURY, England (AP) — Shapely Claire Shewing paraded her curves in tights and black sweater before the altar of St. Philip's Anglican church last night and told the 450 members of the congregation:

"I sin in selling the beauty God gave me."

"Not in some sleazy flat. That would be too horrible. I sell before the cameras of commerce."

STAR OF PROJECT

Mrs. Shewing, wife of an architect, appeared as the star of the Rev. Vernon Mitchell's Project X, illustrating the 42-year-old vicar's sermons with scenes from life. His Sunday sermon attacked exploitation of sex in advertising.

The vicar, former advertising executive, told his congregation he wants his church to become a stage shared by actors and congregation with himself as narrator.

"This is not just a gimmick," he said. "Our Lord Himself used illustration in parables and other ways."

One member of the congregation didn't approve. He jumped to his feet and shouted: "You are profaning the house of God."

He was led out, still shouting.

Japanese Reelect Pro-Western Premier

TOKYO (AP) — The lower house of the Japanese Parliament reelected Liberal Democratic party leader Hayato Ikeda premier today as expected. Later he announced he had reappointed his entire Cabinet.

Ikeda received 380 votes in a roll call of the 467-member House. The vote was a formality since Ikeda's party had won 294 seats in the Nov. 21 elections.

Ikeda, a career government official and economist, has led the conservative, pro-Western government since 1960.

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — New Zealand will monitor radioactive fallout at a network of stations in the Pacific if France holds nuclear tests in the area, Prime Minister Keith J. Holyoake announced today.

Holyoake said the French tests could not be held for some years. "In the meantime we shall do whatever we can with any reasonable prospect of success to ensure that the tests do not eventuate," Holyoake said.

IZMIR, Turkey (AP) — A passenger train crashed into a bus at a grade crossing Sunday night, killing 16 passengers on the bus and the engineer of the train.

A railway official said the bus went through the guard rail at the crossing and the engineer could not stop the train in time.

TOKYO (AP) — A historic medical breakthrough was claimed today by Japanese surgeons who said they successfully rejoined severed nerves in the shattered spine of a train accident victim.

Dr. Tsuneaki Nakayama, surgery chief of Chiba University Hospital, said the operation is months ago has given Kyoto Onuma, 28, partial control of her legs.

Miss Onuma was crushed between a moving train and a railway platform in 1960. Injuries left her incapable of any movement. Nakayama said she eventually may be able to move about on crutches but there is no chance of complete recovery permitting her to walk.

MOSCOW (AP) — Russians are flocking to an exhibit of American graphics that U.S. officials say is the biggest crowd puller since the Soviet Union's cultural exchange program.

Exhibition director Jack Macy said a record crowd of more than 43,000 persons stood in line for up to four hours Sunday to view the exhibits, which range from cartoons to contemporary art.

LONDON (AP) — Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler flew to Bonn today for two days of talks with West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder.

PRIZE WINNER — Dr. Linus Pauling (left) winner of the Nobel Peace Prize for 1962, is greeted in Oslo, Norway, by chairman of the Nobel Committee, Gunnar Jahn. Presentation of the prizes will take place tomorrow. Pauling, a nuclear scientist, has long been an antinuclear bomb campaigner.

Organ Transplants Top Medical News

CHICAGO (UPI)—The American Medical Association (AMA) said today that advances in organ transplantation were the most exciting medical story of 1963.

Kidney transplants between identical twins have been possible for a decade, the AMA said. But now transplants are possible between persons who are genetically different.

The AMA said some pioneers in the field of kidney transplantation feel they now have a 50 per cent useful weapon against fatal, degenerative kidney disease.

The progress during the year came through new methods of suppressing the immunological mechanism — the mechanism which enables human bodies to fight off invading bacteria and viruses.

REACTION SAME

Physicians point out that when an organ is transplanted the body of the recipient reacts in about the same manner it would to germs — It creates antibodies to destroy and drive out the foreign tissue. This does not happen, however, in transplants between identical twins.

The AMA said that researchers learned that azathioprine (Imuran) and certain other drugs could be used to suppress, without destroying, that part of the immunological mechanism responsible for transplant rejection.

The AMA also listed these other medical developments during the year:

—Further indications that "ultra-violet weapons" against skin cancer and virus diseases will be devised.

—A reorientation of the nation's fight with mental illness.

DRUG EXPOSE

—The expose of Kreszenz, the alleged cancer cure, which the AMA said "may prove to be the greatest medical hoax of the second half of the 20th Century."

On the debit side, the AMA said, lung disease, including lung cancer and emphysema, were on the increase during the year. The reasons were not firmly defined, but two principal suspects, air pollution and smoking, were under close scrutiny.

Congress finished hearings on seven bills aimed at control of interstate air pollution and several states and major industrial cities renewed action toward reducing contamination warded into the air.

Rift Due on Policy —Mackie

DETROIT (AP)—State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie predicts a "major conflict" if new commissioners provided for by Michigan's new Constitution try to take control of the Highway Department before his term expires in 1965.

Mackie meanwhile urged support of a proposal to amend the new Constitution to restore his office to elective status. The document, which takes effect Jan. 1, calls for a four-man board of commissioners appointed by the governor to run the Highway Department.

TERM EXPIRES

Mackie, a Democrat, was elected for a term expiring June 30, 1965. The new Constitution provides that the present system will continue until then, but Republican Gov. George Romney is empowered to name the four commissioners any time after Jan. 1.

Speaking to the Engineering Society of Detroit Saturday, Mackie asked support of plans of the Michigan Good Roads Federation to circulate petitions to put a constitutional amendment proposal on the 1964 Michigan ballot.

Besides returning the highway commissioner's selection to an elective basis the proposal would restore constitutional earmarking of highway funds, rather than leaving appropriation of such funds to the Legislature, Mackie said.

Sheriff in Dallas Taking Due Caution With Ruby

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Wearing white pocketless coveralls with C.J. stamped on them, and laceless slippers, Jack Ruby—the man who killed Lee Harvey Oswald—is kept alone in a three-man cell. C. J. stands for county jail.

Ruby has been isolated as much for his security as for minimizing trouble in the 999-prisoner jail.

The location of his cell is kept secret but it most certainly does not have a window facing on Dealey Plaza.

"What if some nut with a high-powered rifle decided he wanted to get Ruby and started shooting from the viaduct across the way at every window on this side," says a deputy in Sheriff Bill Decker's office.

BING QUESTIONED

Decker has consistently been plagued with questions about the treatment of Ruby. In quick succession he got two telephone calls. One caller said Ruby was being tormented under third-degree spotlight conditions. The other complained Ruby was getting red-carpet, kid-glove care. "He gets what every other prisoner gets, and that's it," says Decker.

Ruby is permitted to shave himself and has pencil and paper to write letters, which are censored. His incoming mail also is examined. He got a sack of it Saturday.

He has limited use of the public telephone and receives newspapers.

NOT DEPRESSED

Sunday night Deputy Sheriff Buddy Walther said, "You might say he has a jovial manner; no, I guess you'd best describe it as not depressed."

Walther indicated considerable caution is taken with everything pertaining to Ruby. Some one brought candy bars, for which Ruby reportedly has an inordinate fondness, but they were never given him.

"It doesn't matter who brought them," Walther says. "We can't take the chance that something might be wrong with them that would affect him."

There is a hypothetical argument that if Ruby wanted he could attempt to get out on bail. It is legally possible—but highly improbable—that bail could be fixed and his release allowed by the court.

BAIL POSSIBLE

Tom Howard, Ruby's attorney, said in an off-hand moment that he thought he could "present a case that would be strong enough" perhaps to get Ruby released on bail. However, there is no move to do this at this time, nor apparently are there any plans to do so in the future.

Patriarch of Syrians Rushed to Hospital

ROME (AP)—Ignace Gabriel Cardinal Tappouni, patriarch of Antioch of the Syrians, was rushed to a hospital Sunday for emergency surgery.

The 84-year-old Roman Catholic prelate, whose headquarters are in Beirut, is suffering from a perforated stomach ulcer, Vatican sources reported. He had been in Rome for the Vatican Ecumenical Council.

Cardinal Tappouni's followers,

Sweden Duplicates Stomach-Photo Feat

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—St. Erik's Hospital in Stockholm says it has achieved the first duplication of the Japanese feat of photographing the inside of patients' stomachs. The "gastro-camera" is used to diagnose stomach cancer and gastric ulcer.

HENRY CABOT LODGE

Lodge: No Call by Ike for '64

But Ambassador Not Rejecting Such Idea

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge said yesterday former President Eisenhower hasn't asked him to seek the 1964 Republican presidential nomination. But Lodge did not reject such a request in advance.

The New York Times reported that the former president had urged Lodge to return to the United States soon and make himself available for the Republican nomination.

Lodge said he had received no communication from Eisenhower. Eisenhower also denied communicating with Lodge about the nomination.

But when asked how he would react to such a call, Lodge replied:

'GREAT RESPECT'

"Naturally, anything from Gen. Eisenhower would be considered with great respect. I worked with him in war and peace, and have great respect for him."

Later Lodge told The New York Times:

"I have no intention of running for anything. I think the most useful contribution I can make is to continue my work here in Viet Nam."

Lodge was Richard M. Nixon's vice presidential running mate in the 1960 Republican ticket.

He was also national chairman of the 1952 Eisenhower-for-President Committee that was instrumental in persuading Eisenhower to seek the presidency.

Lack of Plans for U.S. Cities
Said Menace

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—U.S. Sen. Hubert Humphrey says lack of urban planning could result in the destruction of democracy.

The Minnesota Democrat, speaking yesterday at a symposium sponsored by the center for the study of democratic institutions, said that despite rapid urbanization, "we still have a culture with a small-town orientation."

"Without adequate planning, cities are already strangling themselves in housing, transportation, air pollution and by dividing their sections by race and class."

"This is a built-in pattern for the destruction of democracy," Humphrey said.

DECREASE

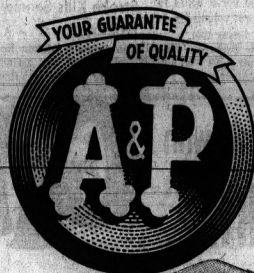

The senator predicted a decrease in congressional representation for Eastern and Southern states, and corresponding increases for the Far West and mountain states.

Ford Workers Back
After Wayne Strike

WAYNE (AP)—Production at Ford Motor Co.'s Wayne assembly plant was to resume today, following settlement of a two-week strike over grievances.

Members of United Auto Workers Local 900 agreed Saturday to terms of a strike settlement. The local said the settlement provides for a patrol of assembly lines to adjust work loads and insure against speed-ups.

About 1,000 employees were affected directly by the strike. It was one of several strikes which have threatened to idle 14,000 workers at Ford plants in Michigan and elsewhere.

Service to Mark End of JFK Mourning

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

Memorial Service: A candlelight service will be held at the Lincoln Memorial Sunday afternoon, Dec. 22, to mark the close of the official 39-day period of mourning for President John F. Kennedy.

A torch ignited by the eternal flame burning at Kennedy's grave will be carried to the memorial to touch off candles for the service. Washington area church choirs and five clergy-men will participate.

F. Joseph Donohue, chairman of a citizen's committee working on arrangements for the service, said Saturday he has been informed President Johnson will take part.

INSURANCE DIVIDENDS: Insured veterans of World Wars I and II will receive $25 million in insurance dividends next month by direction of President Johnson.

The veterans would have received the dividends at different times during the year, but Johnson ordered Sunday that the payments be made early in January as a means of bolstering the economy during the winter.

President John F. Kennedy ordered similar speedups this year and last.

JOHNSON STATION TV STATION: Chairman E. William Henry of the Federal Communications Commission doubts ownership of an Austin, Tex., television station by President and Mrs. Johnson will affect FCC decisions regarding it.

Noting that the Johnsons have placed in trust their stock in the company that owns the Austin station and has an interest in others, Henry said Sunday: "As far as I am concerned, as an appointed official, this is satisfactory."

Appearing on the NBC radio-television interview program "Meets the Press," Henry added: "I think we were looking over backwards to be fair and treat them as any other licensee, the trustees, that is."

Henry noted that while the Johnson-owned station has been Austin's only television station, the FCC recently approved licenses for two new UHF stations in the Texas capital "and we hope they will soon be on the air."

SPY CHARGES BARGHOORN: Yale Prof. Frederick C. Barghoorn says the Soviet government leveled four espionage charges against him when they seized and held him in Moscow for 16 days last month.

Barghoorn, freed after President John F. Kennedy denied he was on intelligence mission and demanded his release, said the most serious charge was that he was trying to obtain information about Soviet missiles.

Appearing Sunday on the CBS television program "Face the Nation," Barghoorn said other charges were:

That he engaged in espionage work during an earlier four-year stint on the U.S. Embassy staff in Moscow;

That he did similar work in interviewing Soviet army deserters in Germany for the State Department from 1949 to 1951; and

That he was on intelligence missions on his numerous trips to the Soviet Union.

WOMAN CANDIDATE

MRS. SMITH: Sen. George Aiken, R-Vt., thinks Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine could whip both Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona in the New Hampshire Republican presidential primary.

Interviewed Sunday by Metropolitan Broadcasting's radio and television program "Opinion in the Capital," Aiken said that if the three enter the primary "Mrs. Smith would probably get the largest number of votes."

Before President John F. Kennedy's assassination, Mrs. Smith indicated she might make a bid for the GOP presidential nomination.

Cohen Gems Will Be Sold

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An estimated $50,000 worth of trinkets, baubles and gems owned by ex-mobster Mickey Cohen will be sold Dec. 18 to help pay back taxes.

The Internal Revenue Service seized 43 pieces of jewelry; officers said, which will be used to help pay Cohen's $274,478 tax debt.

Cohen is now in a prison hospital at Springfield, Mo., for treatment of injuries received when a fellow inmate attacked him with a lead pipe. He is serving time on a tax evasion conviction.

1,300 New Volunteers Goal for Latin Corps

Shriver said yesterday the Peace Corps has 2,700 volunteers in Latin America.

Trujillo Affair Reeks of Scandal

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press International
Just published are the makings of a big and smelly mess in Washington in which it is alleged that many members of the Congress and other U.S. officials were bribed by the late Rafael Trujillo, Dominican dictator.

These allegations appear in "Trujillo: The Last of the Caesars" (published at $4.95 by Henry Regnery Co., Chicago).

The author is Arturo Espallat, described by the publisher as: "A graduate of West Point, (former) head of the Dominican army, for a time Dominican consul and U.N. representative in New York, and at the time of Trujillo's murder, head of internal security."

Espallat writes that Trujillo's murder was arranged by the U.S. State Department and that Prof. Jesus de Galindez was killed by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency.

SENSATIONAL CHAPTERS
The book's most sensational chapters, however, allege multimillion dollar bribery. A member of the publishing house said this would involve some 30 members of the Congress, mostly senators and House committee chairmen, in addition to State Department officials and other public figures.

The publisher's covering letter accompanying the book to some reviewers noted the circumstantial nature of Espallat's charges and states:

"We couldn't mention names in the book, but these are available through an interview printed in a Canadian paper."

So, much or all of the Espallat story has been previously published in Canada and some also in the Indianapolis, Ind., Star.

On Jan. 22, 1963, reporter Robert Jones led off a piece in the Star like this:

EXPLOSIVE DRAMA
"A shadowy but explosive drama is being enacted behind the scenes in Washington these days. If a fraction of the whispered reports is true, a situation may be in the making which could explode with a far bigger bang than the Teapot Dome scandal of the '20s."

Reporter Jones seems not to have overestimated much, if any, the megalomaniacal potentialities of the scandal that would billow around proof of charges contained in this newly published book.

Dissatisfaction Seen in AMC Share Plan

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Free Press said Sunday its survey of American Motors Corp. workers indicated many are dissatisfied with the firm's "progress sharing" plan and would prefer cash wage increases.

Of 45 workers it interviewed at AMC plants at Milwaukee and Kenosha, Wis., the Free Press said only five approved of the plan.

The workers objected to having their progress-sharing benefits tied up in company stock, the newspaper said.

"We have to borrow $200 from the credit union so my kids will have a Christmas. But I've got more money than that in progress-sharing," it quoted one worker as saying. "Why should I have to borrow money and pay interest on it when I've got that money, more than I need?"

4.9 SHARES
Under the plan, AMC employees this year will split $6,165,245 in benefits and $3,082,614 in AMC stock. This averages 4.9 shares of stock a worker. The stock is worth $21.34 a share.

The workers may cash in their stock at the market price after it has been held in trust by the company for two years.

"Why don't they explain it to us?" another worker asked. "We don't even know what we've got. 'It's in the booklet...but who can figure that out? I have friends in college and even they couldn't understand it.'"

The United Auto Workers Union, which negotiated the plan with AMC, said AMC workers are 12% cents an hour better off than their counterparts at the

It is not conceivable that the U.S. Congress will be able to avoid investigating the charges of bribery. After all, the names of bribe-takers are said to be available in Canada.

Author Espallat names individuals in Washington who might know, as agents or otherwise, where Trujillo put his bribe money. There is some where a file recording all of the bribe transactions, according to Espallat. He believes it may be concealed in Washington, perhaps in official custody. If so, the file is being suppressed.

NEWSMEN GOT FAVORS
Politicians were not alone in accepting Trujillo money, according to Espallat. Some newsmen got Trujillo favors and some persons were bribed merely because of their standing in the community and not for any official position they occupied.

Espallat pictures Trujillo as a sucker for any highly placed American who might say a good word for the dictator in the right place.

The Senate now is investigating one of its clerks. Congress scarcely can afford to refuse to investigate itself.

Big Three auto companies because of progress-sharing. MISUNDERSTANDING
Doug Fraser, head of the union's AMC unit, said misunderstanding and the need for minor adjustments is responsible for discontent.

"Anytime you live with a new program for three years, you'll obviously find items in need of refinement and change," Fraser said.

"Obviously we believed that the progress-sharing concept is a sound one or we would not have proposed it," said Edward L. Cushman, AMC vice president.

Ex-Labor Aide Dies

at Chicago Convention

CHICAGO (AP) — Lloyd A. Mashburn, 66, of Silver Springs, Md., undersecretary of labor in 1953 and 1954, died Saturday of a heart attack while attending a labor convention.

Prior to serving in Washington, Mashburn was a labor leader in California and held many positions of public service in Los Angeles.

Author-Scholar Dies

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) — Dr. Franklin Edgerton, 78, author, scholar and retired professor at Yale University, died Saturday. He served as Sterling professor in Sanskrit at Yale from 1946-1953 and moved to Laramie after his retirement.

Negro Points Out Stigma Affecting LBJ Rights Stand

NEW YORK (AP) — Negro leader James Farmer said Sunday he believes President Johnson "cares rather deeply" about civil rights but "he has the stigma of being a Southerner, and this is a problem for him, particularly with Negroes in the North."

Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality said Johnson is "fully aware of this fact." Farmer told interviewers on the Columbia Broadcasting System taped radio program, "Let's Find Out," that he discussed the matter with Johnson when they met at the White House last Wednesday.

The CORE director added that he believes Johnson will get a civil rights bill through Congress, and "the sooner the better."

Hoffa Aide Said to Quit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold J. Gibbons is reported quitting his post as executive assistant to James R. Hoffa because the Teamsters Union president criticized him for not showing up for work on the day of President Kennedy's funeral.

Hoffa was quoted in Miami as denying reports of the resignation. But in Washington, reliable labor sources said Gibbons had quit as Hoffa's top assistant although he is keeping his post as 11th vice president of the union.

Hoffa had drawn the enmity of the late president and his brother, Atty. Gen. Robert E. Kennedy. The Justice Department secured numerous indictments — but with no convictions — against Hoffa. And when campaigning in 1960, the late president said men like Hoffa should not run a major labor union. Cast-iron and steel balls used by building wreckers weigh 500 pounds to 10 tons.

Rochester Yule Spotlight on Parade, Queen

STORY AND PICTURES By LEE OLSON

ROCHESTER — The holiday season got off to a festive start in Rochester Saturday with a gala parade that attracted thousands, and the coronation of a village queen.

Tall, brunette Judi Soule, 18, was picked from a field of 10 finalists to reign as Miss Rochester Holiday.

Named first maid of honor was Cynthia Zarembo, 17, a blonde with green eyes. Another blonde, Sharon Toussaint, 19, was selected second maid.

The Miss Holiday pageant was an innovation this year — added by the Rochester Area Chamber of Commerce to the pre-Yuletide parade that has featured the parade in the past 11 years.

LONGEST PARADE

The parade itself Saturday was the longest — more than 40 units — and the crowd viewing it the largest in its history, officials said.

Part of the success of the parade was attributed to the unseasonably warm weather and bright sunshine.

The tinsel on the colorful floats glistened under the sun's rays, and marchers stepped out smartly to Christmas music although the temperature was almost spring-like.

The grand prize trophy for the most outstanding float went

Expect Farm Job Outlook to Be Much Worse by '65

EAST LANSING (U-P) — As 1962 waned, Michigan State University agricultural economist Arthur Mauch advised:

"If you're on the verge of getting out of farming, try to do it before 1965. In the next 10 years, no less farmer will be needed in every six today."

As 1963 ends, Mauch is sticking to his position.

He is even firmer about the situation for farm youngsters.

ONE IN TEN

"Only one in ten youths growing up on a farm is going to find a farm to provide himself with an adequate income."

Mauch set 1965 as the deadline because of the huge increase in job-seekers due to flood the market that year.

An estimated 3.8 million youths—one million more than in 1960—are expected to enter either college or the labor market in 1965.

Adults leaving agriculture

NEED DIPLOMA

"Skilled workers will need a high school diploma plus special instruction in trade schools or on-the-job training. Anything less will throw them in an occupational class where wages are low and unemployment high."

Other reports from MSU indicate a farmer selling land is not likely to take a loss.

PTA to See Program by Brookland School

AVON TOWNSHIP — A Christmas program is planned for Wednesday's 8 p.m. meeting of the Brooklands-Avon PTA at Brooklands School.

Participating will be various rooms in each school, along with the school choir and band.

studies show average Michigan farm land values rose about 4 per cent in 1962 and continued to rise at that rate or slightly more in 1963.

Mauch says he is not recommending adoption of a government program to force farmers to leave their land, nor is he advising farmers to move without having an alternative.

NO CHANGE

But he does not foresee the situation changing to require more farmers.

"The top 40 per cent of all farmers now are producing 87 per cent of all products sold," he observed.

"If the other 60 per cent were gone, they would not really be missed from the production standpoint. The number of farms could be cut to 1.5 million from the present 3.7 million and more goods could still be produced."

Mauch supports education for farm youths that will allow them to be as adaptable as possible.

"Techniques needed for specific jobs change quickly these days," he said.

"The jobs can change so fast the training becomes obsolete in a few years. The ability to adapt—that's what must be taught and that's what youth must learn."

50 Cents Is Ticket to Rochester Fete

ROCHESTER — How do you gift wrap 50 cents?

The answer will be evident at Wednesday's 8 p.m. Christmas party in the St. Andrew church hall.

The church's Confraternity of Christian Mothers and League of Catholic Women are cosponsoring the party, to which all women of the parish are invited.

All they're requiring is that the guests bring "a holiday mood, a 50-cent gift, or 50 cents wrapped as a gift." Festive music, games and fun are promised at the event.

The gifts and money will be turned over to charity.

NEWS OF THE AREA

to Rochester Girl Scout Troop No. 276. It featured "Frosty in Alaska" in front of an igloo and the girls themselves in snow attire.

SNOW SCENE

Second-place honors were awarded to the snow scene entry of Michigan Christian College.

The Avon Players captured third spot with their float, which had oversized blocks, some of which had live jack-in-the-boxes inside.

The best religious entry was the Nativity scene, with live animals, created by the local Knights of Columbus.

AVONDALE BAND

Holiday music along the downtown parade route was furnished by the Avondale High School band and the Rochester senior and junior high bands.

After a five-hour interval, the program resumed again at 8 p.m. with the Miss Holiday Pageant in the senior high school lounge.

The 10 candidates appeared first in all-white bathing suits returning later in long, formal gowns.

FINAL SEGMENT

In the final segment they each drew a question which MC Jerry Booth asked them to answer extemporaneously.

After the judges' decision was announced, Queen Judi was crowned and a regal robe was draped over her shoulders.

Preparation of Livestock Comes to Finale at Show

Year-long preparation of livestock by some 400 4-H members from throughout the state comes to a finale this week at the Detroit Junior Livestock Show.

The 34th annual event begins today at the Michigan State Fairgrounds, Detroit, and will continue through Thursday.

Competitors are now preparing their prize sheep, pigs and steers for entry in the show today and tomorrow. Judging will take place Wednesday.

The annual livestock sale will close out the four days of activities on Thursday.

MAIN PURPOSE

Main purpose of the show is to help 4-H'ers develop better methods of producing the type of meat being demanded by the consumer.

Carcass evaluation contests for many of the club members will enable them to see the difference between their animals "on-the-hoof" and in the meat cooler.

ROCHESTER GRAD

Judi, a 1963 graduate of Rochester High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Soule, 239 Red Oak, Avon Township.

Head of the filing department at Winter Brothers Co., she wants to continue in the field of business.

She won prizes valued at $500 including a $250 modeling course at Patricia Stevens Finishing School, Detroit.

Judi's reign is only beginning for not only did she reign at the coronation ball that followed the pageant but she faces a full year of royal duties in 1964.

REPRESENTATIVE

As Miss Rochester she will officially represent the village on other special occasions and in state contests next year including the Romeo Peach Queen competition next August.

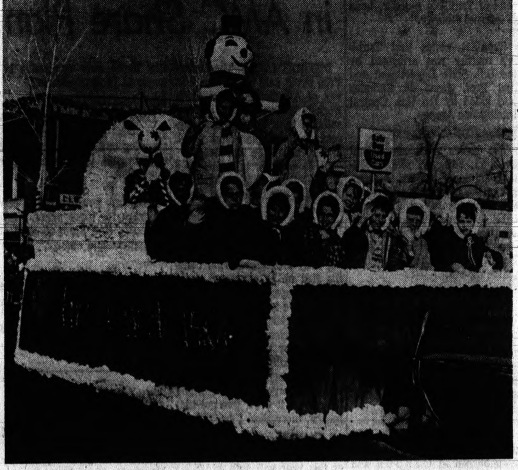

Her first maid of honor Cynthia Zarembo, a senior at Rochester High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Zarembo, 5710 Winkler Mill, Avon Township.

A 1962 graduate of Rochester

High, the second maid Sharon Toussaint is a fashion model in Detroit. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Allison H. Toussaint, 1071 Bloomer, Avon Township.

Contest judges were Mrs. Billie Mercier, Patricia Stevens Finishing School, Detroit; Mrs. Ruth Miank, Bart Edmonds Salon, Detroit; Edward Potere, local attorney; Mrs. Delphine Scott, The Detroit News; and Newton Skillman, Crescent Brass and Pin Co., Detroit.

The other seven finalists were Sandy Cornelius, Joan DeBene, Karen Fries, Faye Kirkpatrick, Lauren Kosiba, Georgianna Semaki, and Elizabeth Winborn.

WINS GRAND PRIZE — Top parade honors Saturday went to Rochester Girl Scout Troop No. 276 for its float "Frosty in Alaska." The well-known snowman was shown in front of an igloo, while girl-scout admirers sat around his feet in winter attire. This was voted best of the 14 floats which traveled down Rochester's Main Street, along with more than 25 other parade units.

Huron Valley to Try Vote Again

MILFORD — Huron Valley school officials facing Thursday's $2.2-million bond issue vote are banking on the effectiveness of their voter education program.

In the last month they have conducted a concentrated effort to sell the issue on its merits.

But an important part of their campaign has revolved around the bitter memory of last spring's election which saw a similar issue defeated by a three-to-one margin.

Tabulation of the ballots, resulting in an official count of 813-810, showed 27 which were invalidated because they had been improperly marked.

MAKING SURE

So the educators set about making sure every voter knows what he's doing when he steps in the voting booth this time.

Foremost on the list of pre-judgment tackle after a favorable set the board of education vote is construction of a new junior high school in Milford.

Cost of the building has been estimated at $975,000.

Also planned is a $450,000 addition to Highland Junior High School, including a classroom, fire-exit corridor from the cafeteria and utility and storage rooms.

SCHOOL ADDITION

A $175,000 addition to the high school has been proposed. It would bring six more classrooms plus more athletic and laundry space to the building.

School officials would allocate about $80,000 for improvements at Milford Junior High School — a central

Sign Contract Given

SOUTHFIELD — The Michigan State Highway Department has awarded a $72,208 contract for construction of traffic signs on the John C. Lodge Freeway from Wyoming, in Detroit, to Southfield Road, to the E.R.S. Corporation, Lansing.

REFINANCING

The $2.2 million would be raised through refinancing of an existing bond issue for 25 years.

Initiated in 1955, the issue carried a debt retirement level of 3.4 mills which netted about $140,000 last year.

Saturday Ceremony

Wed in Imlay City

IMLAY CITY — The First Congregational Church of Imlay City was the setting Saturday evening for the wedding of Bonnie Jo Schaaf and Lee Hartway.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Schaaf, 255 W. 5th, and the Verna L. Hartways, 2500 Henneman, Keego Harbor.

The bride chose a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon net. It featured a Sabrina neckline etched with sequins and seed pearls, and long tapered sleeves.

BRIDE ATTENDANTS

Mrs. Donald Dennis was matron of honor for her sister. Attending as bridesmaid was Diana Laarmann, cousin of the bride, and as junior bridesmaid, another cousin Patricia Schaaf of Davison.

On the esquire side, David Hartway of Richmond served as best man. Groomsman was a brother, Frank Hartway of Keego Harbor.

The guests were seated by Charles Hartway of Keego Harbor, brother of the bridegroom, and Donald Dennis of Imlay City, brother-in-law of the bride.

Flower girl was Pamela Schaaf of Davison, cousin of the bride, and ring bearer, Paul Swanek of Pontiac, cousin of the bridegroom.

Carter Unsure of Probe Recall

City Manager Robert A. Carter said today he didn't know whether he'd be called again to testify at a one-man grand jury investigation in Flint, as the probe entered its third day.

"It's hard to say if I'll be called again," Carter noted. "I'd only be guessing. If I am asked to give more testimony, I'll do it with a perfectly clear conscience."

Carter, 47, was Flint city manager for four years before coming to Pontiac last month. He testified before the Flint judicial hearing Friday night and wasn't recalled Saturday. The probe centers on alleged conspiracy to violate state and local laws in Flint and Genesee County involving "public officers, public employees" and others.

RESUME TODAY

It was resumed this morning at the Genesee County Courthouse. The first two sessions were held at a Flint area motel.

A dozen witnesses have testified thus far. The Genesee County prosecutor's office still refuses to comment on how long the hearings will last or how many persons have been subpoenaed to testify.

ABILITY PAYS—Topping 500 drawing contest entries from Detroit area schools, Pontiac Central High Junior Floyd Treece, 16, of 223 Parkdale, holds with pride a trophy presented by the American Society of Body Engineers. His first place drawing of an auto body also earned him a $125 prize. Michael Conden, (standing) 17, of 182 Wenonah, a Pontiac Central senior, placed 15th in the competition and won a drafting set.

2 Fires Hit Homes in City

Two houses and garages were damaged by fire in Pontiac Saturday night.

LaPLATA, Md. (AP) — Four children died early today, the sheriff said, when a two-alarm fire raged through their frame bungalow as they slept.

Charles County Sheriff Francis C. Garner said the children ranged in ages from 4 to 8. Their first names were not known, he said. Their last name is Boone.

50 Safe as Plane Skids Into Field

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — A United Air Lines plane with 50 persons aboard skidded into a field while completing a landing Sunday night at Greater Buffalo International Airport. No one was injured.

A spokesman for United said he did not know why the four-engine turboprop plane left the runway. It was not damaged, he said.

The craft, carrying 46 passengers and a crew of four, had flown here from Philadelphia.

By Supervisors Tomorrow

Decision Due on Children's Village Plans

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors will be asked tomorrow to approve preliminary plans and financing for first units of a proposed Children's Village at the County Service Center.

The units for Juvenile Court wards are intended to relieve overcrowded conditions at the existing Children's Center, enable the separation of emotionally disturbed youngsters from those who are normal and to provide more individual care and treatment.

The first three units are expected to cost a total $646,000. They will include a special services unit and two rehabilitation cottages.

Preliminary plans have been completed by Pontiac architect Harry M. Denyes Jr.

WORK SCHEDULED

Construction is scheduled to begin March 3 and be completed sometime in 1964.

A federal grant is being provided for half the cost under the Accelerated Public Works Act.

The Children's Village is to be built on the east side of the service center, beyond the state police post.

The board's ways and means committee is recommending that $103,000 from this year's unappropriated county funds be added to $220,000 in next year's budget to finance the county's share of the costs.

AS FUNDS AVAILABLE

The entire village is to be constructed over the next few years, as funds become available.

The board of supervisors, meeting in the Courthouse Auditorium at 9:30 a.m., also will receive a report from its legislative committee.

The report proposes two bills for the county's 1964 legislative program in Lansing.

These are an enabling act for county home rule and a law to protect children from parental abuse.

ABUSE SUSPECTS
The child abuse law, first proposed here by Probate Judge Norman R. Barnard, would require all doctors in the state to report suspected abuse cases to state authorities for investigation and action.

Requiring doctors to comply with such a law would protect them from lawsuits, said Judge Barnard.

He said doctors now are hesitant to report their suspicions for fear these won't be substantiated and thus will leave them vulnerable to lawsuits.

In other action, the supervisors will be asked to approve plans and financing for a $60,000 central air control system in the courthouse complex and the additional expenditure of $3,240 to the Oakland Child Guidance Clinics.

The sum was asked by the clinics' board to carry their budget through the remainder of the year. The clinics provide psychiatric treatment to emotionally disturbed children.

The supervisors also will be asked by the board of public works to establish a proposed sewage disposal system for Lake Orion as a county project. Cost estimates haven't been made yet.

$214.7 Million Spent on Ports

NEW YORK (AP) — The Port of New York Authority says $214.7 million was spent on development of Great Lakes ports between 1946 and 1962.

Total development figure for all North American ports during the period amounted to more than $2 billion, the agency reported Sunday.

The 16-year survey showed the Port of New York spent almost $383 million on construction and modernization of ocean-going ship facilities in the New York-New Jersey harbor. The outlay was three times as large as that of any other U.S. port, the authority said.

Louisiana Ballot Hinges on States Rights

DELLESPESS MORRISON

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Front-running Dellespes Morrison faced the issue of "federal intervention" today as he plunged into a bitter runoff for Louisiana's governorship.

"The people have demanded from the candidates their stand on federal intervention in state affairs," runner-up John McKeithen said.

McKeithen, 45, who had attacked the administration's civil rights program during the 10-man first Democratic primary, made it clear he would resume an anti-Washington campaign.

Such attacks halted with President John F. Kennedy's slaying.

POSITIVE PROGRAM
McKeithen, state public service commissioner, said the states rights issue was borne out by the fourth- and fifth-place finishes of two strong segregationists—former Gov. Robert F. Kennon and Shelby H. Jackson, state superintendent of education.

Morrison, 51, appointed to a diplomatic post by Kennedy, attempted to steer the runoff toward local topics. He said the issues were the need for a government cleanup and a positive boost-Louisiana program.

A former ambassador to the Organization of American States, Morrison for years has been regarded as a liberal in this Deep South state. Morrison had borne the brunt of stinging anti-Kennedy blasts.

How the losers' support is divided should tell the story of the Jan. 11 runoff.

33 PCT. OF VOTE

Morrison, a former New Orleans mayor making his third try for the top state post, got 33 per cent of Saturday's primary vote, McKeithen 17 per cent.

Four years ago Morrison drew the same 33 per cent total but Jimmie H. Davis—who had 25 per cent of the first primary vote—picked up enough support from the eliminated candidates to score a 65-vote runoff victory.

McKeithen, from tiny Columbia in the rural Protestant north section, is a Methodist. Morrison, from New Orleans in the urban Catholic south, would be, if he wins, the first elected Catholic governor since Samuel D. McEnery in 1884.

With 2,200 of the state's 2,219 precincts reporting, Morrison had 285,270 votes; McKeithen, 154,819; Rep. Gillis Long, distant cousin of U. S. Sen. Russell Long, 138,801; Kennon, 124,836; Jackson, 102,401; State Rep. Louis Michoud 37,706; and State Public Works Director Claude Kirkpatrick, 28,608.

The runoff winner faces Republican Charlton Lyons in the March 3 general election.

Chemist-Author Dies

CHICAGO (U)—Dr. Otto E. Eismenschil, 83, noted chemist, author and authority on Lincoln and the Civil War, died Saturday. He was founder and board chairman of Scientific Chemicals Inc. He was born an American citizen in Vienna, the son of an officer in the Civil War.

Detroit Dies in Crash

DETROIT (AP)—Daniel P. Sullivan, 26, of Detroit, was killed today when his car hit an abutment on the interchange of the Lodge and Ford expressways. Police said Sullivan was driving too fast for the curve.

Foe of Speed Traps, Toll Roads Dies in NY

NEW YORK (U)—William J. Gottlieb, 66, who as president of the Automobile Club of New York opposed the operators of speed traps and toll roads, died Saturday.

Gottlieb, a recognized national spokesman for the motoring public, devoted much of his life to efforts to make driving "safer," more pleasant and less costly. He was born in New York.

The 1961 census showed 22,403,000 war veterans in the United States.

If She'd Make Up Her Mind

Wife Knows What's Best for the Car

By DYCK WEST
WASHINGTON (UP)—Newspapers, magazines, radio, television and the lady next door all play a vital role in keeping us informed.

But nobody can be said truly to be abreast of the times unless he also audits one or more trade publications.

These special-heading "Women Play Greater Role in Care of Family Autos." Which is the kind of cheery news a person likes to read in a dental office.

PLEASANT VISIONS

It conjured up pleasant visions of my wife out washing the car, changing the tires and putting on the snow chains.

The headline, however, proved to be misleading. The

ized journalists frequently carry items, outside the scope of the general media, that reflect fundamental changes in the warp and woof of our society. Particularly the woof.

I ran across a good example of this the other day while thumbing through a back issue of an oil industry publication. It was among the reading material in my dentist's waiting room.

My dentist lets his patients read their nerves on literature and then charges them for novocaine.

Thatcher, Patterson and Wernet INSURANCE

DITCHINGHAM, England (UP)—Mrs. Helen Smith was peppered in the posterior with bird shot yesterday when a diehard pheasant fired her husband's shotgun.

The bird, presumed dead, had been hung over her husband Henry's shotgun stock when the accident happened. Smith said it apparently kicked the trigger in giving a death twitch.

A hospital official said Mrs. Smith was "fairly comfortable. Her thick sheepskin jacket probably saved her life."

article itself began as follows:

"Recent surveys indicate that America's 36 million women drivers are making more and more decisions about the family's automotive service."

Then it went on to say that "33 per cent of women drivers select specific service stations; 25 per cent decide which brand of gasoline to buy; 21 per cent make the decisions on minor repairs and oil changes; 18 per cent on battery purchases; and 17 per cent on new tires."

NOT THE ROLE

Although this was not the role I had in mind, I nevertheless found the statistics absorbing. I couldn't help but wonder who makes these decisions for the other 67, 75, 79, 82 and 83 per cent.

Their husbands? That might be true in some cases, but not all of America's 36 million woman drivers are married.

If only 33 per cent of them select specific service stations, then it must be assumed that some women just keep on driving until they run out of gas.

"Didn't you notice that the gauge registered empty?"

"Yes, but I couldn't decide which station to patronize."

ANOTHER BRAND

Also, note that while 33 per cent select the station, only 25 per cent select the brand of gasoline. This implies that 8 per cent pick a brand and then stop at a station that sells another brand.

Stranger things than that have happened, too.

Didn't Take Parole; Expires in Prison

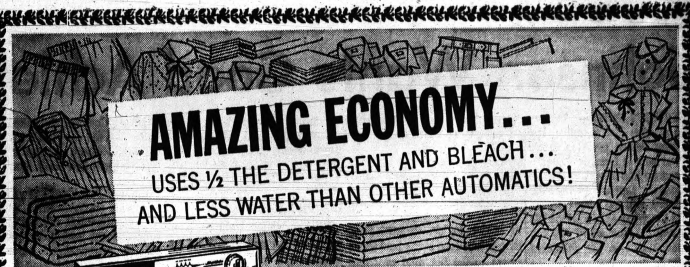

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—Antonio Ditaro, who lived in San Quentin Prison for 43 years and repeatedly turned down offers of parole, died in his sleep Sunday.

Ditaro, a native of Italy would have been 89 on Jan. 17. He had served more time in the prison just north of San Francisco than any man now there.

Ditaro was convicted of killing his wife in San Jose, Calif., on Feb. 13, 1920, after a quarrel about money. Two months later, he began a life term, rejected by friends and family.

He was offered parole starting in 1945, but always turned it down. Prison officials said he was gentle and quiet, and never once was cited for disciplinary action.

Johnson Wants Good Achievement Record

(EDITOR'S NOTE — The program is John F. Kennedy's, but the man whose prestige is at stake is Lyndon B. Johnson and he has less than a year to make his mark. How the new President will go about trying to get Congress to see things his way and his chances of success are evaluated in the following article.)

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP)—A combination of pride, know-how and a head start could give President Johnson an impressive record of legislative achievement by the time the 1964 election rolls around.

lieve Johnson may get Congress to accomplish more in the year which probably will be acted on. The foreign aid measure, cut down deeply from the original Kennedy request, may be sent to Johnson for his signature this week.

COMPROMISE STAGE
Bills for federal aid for higher education and vocational education are in the compromise stage and may be cleared soon. A youth employment bill passed by the Senate has been stymied in the House Rules Committee but may emerge and win House approval next year.

The general expectation is that Johnson will ask Congress, in his State of the Union message next month, to enact a big parcel of legislation, knowing from experience that he won't get it all.

Next year is election year, and Congress has no intention of staying around all year. The national political conventions get under way in July and campaigning for one-third of the Senate seats and all of the 435 House positions already has started.

EXCELLENT POSITION
Democratic political experts believe Johnson will be in excellent position if he can wrest from Congress laws on civil rights, tax reduction, education, foreign aid and youth job opportunities.

If he can point to those accomplishments after less than a year as president, they figure, he can justifiably claim that, given another four years at the job, he can get his whole program enacted.

Afro-Asia Group Elects New President

WON REPUTATION
Johnson also won a reputation in Congress as a skillful compromiser when faced with the choice of compromise or defeat. Among those with whom he may have to do business in the compromise area are Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., and Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, the House Republican leader, both of whom have been recent personal guests of Johnson at the White House.

Others with whom Johnson might want to work include Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia, leader of the Southern Democrats wing, and Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, chairman of the House Republican conference. It may or may not have been a coincidence that both Russell and Ford were named by Johnson to the special commission investigating Kennedy's assassination.

The legislative head start that should help Johnson is the fact that the tax and civil rights bills already have made considerable progress in Congress, although there still is a long way to go.

PASSED HOUSE
The tax measure has passed the House and has advanced through the hearing stage in the Senate.

The civil rights bill has cleared the House Judiciary Committee, is ticketed for a House vote next month, but faces a Southern filibuster in the Senate.

The betting in congressional cloakrooms is that both measures will become law during the Johnson administration of 1964.

Samardzija Paces Actuals Tournament With 1290 Score

A three-year student of the bowling game picked up his diploma Sunday when he scored a one-point victory over his instructor to take the top prize in the Pontiac Press Bowlerama.

Tony Ledesma, 25, turned in his first big winning performance on the lanes when he rolled a 690 series for the 300 Bowl to earn the $700 first place money.

Mike Samardzija Jr., who has been tutoring Ledesma for the past three years, picked up the $500 second place prize with a 689 series.

Saturday Samardzija averaged 215 through six games to lead the Actuals Invitational and a $100 bond.

Ledesma put together games of 182-255-246 to lead his four-pin handicap to lead the field of 176 Bowlerama handicap finalists.

The 689 series by Samardzija was the highest actual score recorded in the handicap phase of the Bowlerama since it was organized seven years ago.

Ledesma rolled his winning series with a ball that he purchased Saturday — from Samardzija.

Ledesma and Samardzija locked up in a duel of champions following the finals actual and Mike gained a bit of revenge with a 610-583 win. Both received a $10 gift certificate for appearing in the exhibition match.

OTHER WINNERS

Other big Bowlerama checks will go to Tom Mayes who won $300 with a third-place finish; Floyd Armstrong came in fourth place and gained $200; William Boyer won $125 for fifth place money; and Terry Armstrong earned $100 for sixth place.

The youthful Professional Bowlers' Association member Samardzija gave a steady performance Saturday in capturing the Actuals Invitational honors.

He had four games in the 223-243 range, a 202 and a 173 for 1290 total pins, the second highest score in the five years the actuals invitational portion of the Bowlerama has been in effect.

Only Bob Richards' 794 in 1961 posts the 1963 winners' mark. Second place went to Monroe Moore with 1225 for a $50 bond, while Ray Kasat and Tim White tied at 1205 for third place and will receive $15 each.

An awards presentation to night in the "300" banquet hall will see Moore also receive prizes for being on the top house team and the doubles team in the Bowlerama.

He teamed with Peg Carter to capture the mixed doubles prize at 1259, and was a 683 contributor to the 300 Bowl team that captured the Traveling House Trophy for the second straight year.

Other members of the team—which had a 3196 actuals total—were Joe Foster, George Chivsky, Larry Crane and Les Rothbarth. The 3174 of Huron Bowl was second best; while in the mixed doubles Marv Sot and Jerry Gohl were runners-up with 1189.

Lions Also Victorious in Draft Loop Sunday

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Lions Sunday announced the signing of their No. 4 draft choice, Iowa guard Wally Hill, going to a National Football League contract.

The signing was the first for the Lions of a high draft selection this season. They lost their first two choices to the rival American Football League.

Detroit Crushes Cleveland Grid Title Hopes

Bears Facing Stark Reality

CHICAGO (U)—The do-it-yourself had turned into stark reality for the Chicago Bears in their pursuit of the Western Division title in the National Football League.

With only one game remaining, the Bears are faced with either tying or defeating Detroit next Sunday or possibly seeing a tremendous season-long effort washed with a second-place finish.

There's also a possibility that San Francisco might defeat

Green Bay next Saturday, assuring the Bears of the crown. But nobody is willing to buy that. At least not after what the 49ers showed against the Bears Sunday.

The Bears still managed a 27-7 victory over San Francisco despite turning the ball over to the 49ers four times when two attempted field goals and two attempted punts were muffed up because of poor passes from center.

TO SPRINT

A 51-yard run on their first play from scrimmage by Willie Galtore gave the Bears a lead they never yielded.

But the Bears, who seldom have looked like a championship team on offense, played anything but outstanding ball. In addition they were guilty of numerous illegal motion penalties due to linemen pulling out too quickly.

Against another team more than the 49ers, such a performance might have been fatal even though San Francisco is the only team which has defeated the Bears this season.

As wobbly as the Bear offense was, the defense again was tremendous as the secondary intercepted four San Francisco passes. Richie Petitbon snared two Dave Whitell one and Roosevelt Taylor grabbed one which he returned 30 yards for the Bears' final touchdown.

The 30-year-old Unites failed to connect only four times on 21 passes, three of them going for touchdowns, in driving Baltimore to a 34-10 lead at the end of the third quarter of the National Football League game.

Unites turned the last quarter over to rookie Gary Cuozzo after coming within four completions of his peak total of 25. The 344 yards gained by Unites were only 53 shy of his best single game mark, and pushed him to an all-time personal season high of 3,158 yards with one game to go.

It was the highest scoring output of the season for the Colts, who got on the winning side of the record with 7-4 for the first time in Don Shula's debut as head coach. The loss lowered Minnesota's slate to 4-8-1.

ROOKIE STARS

Rookie end John Mackey carried two Unites passes for touchdowns, 61 and 27 yards. Both times, Mackey bowled over three would-be tacklers on his way to the goal.

The Browns entered the game tied for first place with New York, but went back home deadlocked for third with St. Louis. New York and Pittsburgh will meet for the Eastern Division crown at New York next Sunday.

Just 10 days ago, Detroit and Green Bay played to a 13-13 tie which married the Packers' chances to move up on league-leading Chicago in the eastern Division race.

The Bears, 27-7 victors over San Francisco, continue to lead by one-half game.

DETROIT's offensive punch complemented another fine defensive effort and gave the Lions their ninth victory over the Browns in 10 games, including three title contests and one Play off Bowl meeting.

Quarterback Earl Morrall, who passed for two touchdowns, and flanker Terry Barr established individual records to add to the triumph.

Morrall completed 13 of 25 passes for 271 yards to up his total to 2,499 yards for the season. Bobby Layne held the former Detroit team record, 2,403 yards in 12 games since 1951. Morrall was playing his 13th game, though he saw only limited action at the start of the season.

Barr caught four passes for 118 yards, giving him 1,022 yards, eight more than ex-Lion Bobb Mann gained in 1949.

LONG PASS

The Lions needed just three plays to score the first time they had the ball. Morrall hit Barr on the Detroit 45, and he raced the rest of the way to complete a 75-yard play.

Danny Lewis, who led all rushers with 97 yards in 22 carries, scored the Lions second touchdown on a 5-yard dash around and early in the second quarter.

Cleveland did all of its scoring in the second period: Lou Groza kicked a 19-yard field goal and Frank Ryan passed to (Continued on Page D-2, Col. 1)

Lion Offense Sparks Victory

Giants Take Lead in Eastern Division

DETROIT (AP)—Having played a major role in the shake-up of one National Football League race, the Detroit Lions today are looking forward to their final game of the season at Chicago next Sunday.

The Lions came up with their best offensive showing in five weeks Sunday and crushed Cleveland 38-10 to eliminate the Browns from the Eastern Division title race.

The Browns entered the game tied for first place with New York, but went back home deadlocked for third with St. Louis. New York and Pittsburgh will meet for the Eastern Division crown at New York next Sunday.

Army Gives Middies Late Score

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Navy is convinced it has the No. 1 college football team in the country—and can prove it in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas on New Year's Day—but there are some folks up at West Point who need a little more persuasion.

"For the life of me, I don't see how this team beat Pittsburgh," said a bitterly disappointed Coach Paul Dietzel of Army after seeing the upset hopes of his Black Knights die with the clock on the Navy two-yard line last Saturday at Philadelphia Stadium.

So the Middiepan came off with their fifth straight triumph over their service rivals 21-15 and a chance to play top-ranked, unbeaten Texas in the Cotton Bowl.

Coach Wayne Hardin of Navy refused to exult over the shaky, controversial triumph but at the same time he refused to make any concessions to detractors of All-America quarterback Roger Staubach and company.

"We didn't play our best game against Army, and Army was tremendous—superb in every respect," Hardin said. "Nevertheless, we won and I still think these boys of mine are the best in the country."

NO AGREEMENT

Dietzel, so heartbroken over the loss that he couldn't talk for a full hour, refused to agree. He said he thought Pitt, which beat Army 28-0 and lost to Navy 24-12, was better.

"I wish we could have gotten off that one last play," the Army coach said. "Then, I would have felt better about it. They might have held us. We might have scored. Either way, we would have had a firm decision.

"Now it will always haunt us. We'll never be fully convinced that Navy beat us."

The tense game, played before a summer crowd of 102,000 in dedication to the late President John F. Kennedy, ended in a state of high excitement and confusion.

Trailing 7-21 in the final period, Army snatched a second touchdown and then made a daring two-point conversion on a run by quarterback Carl Stuewe to make it 21-15.

With less than five minutes to play, the underdog Cadets recaptured possession of the ball on a perfectly executed on-side kick and then drove for what could have been the decisive touchdown.

The clock was ticking off the final seconds as the Cadets, led by the superb iron-man quarterback Stuewe, moved inside the five. Then, they had a final down with two yards to go.

Their timeouts exhausted, Stuewe motioned desperately to the officials to stop the clock until the noise subsided so that his players could hear the signals.

CLOCK RUNS

"We were running an automatic series," Dietzel lamented later. "When Stuewe asked the officials to wait for quiet, they should have stopped the clock, but they didn't."

"We lost about 15 seconds. The clock was still running," Stuewe called an off-the-field play. The ball never got off the ground. The game was over.

The finish was reminiscent of the 1946 game in which Army, with Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis heading one of its greatest teams, won 21-18 after time ran out on Navy on the Army three.

Navy's Coach Hardin and his stars, fullback Pat Donnelly, who scored three touchdowns, and quarterback Staubach, refused to exult over the close triumph.

Baron Rupp
Wavering on Forecast

By The Associated Press

Adolph Rupp hasn't exactly changed his mind about his University of Kentucky basketball team that has won its first three games impressively, but he's wavering.

When his Wildcats were ranked ninth in the pre-season Associated Press college basketball poll the cagey Baron of the Blue Grass said he thought they were over-rated.

The veteran coach, who has a remarkable 687-134 won-lost career record said after his boys whipped Virginia and Texas Tech. "We may get hurt on many occasions due to the lack of a so-called big man. These next games should be important guides to our future chances."

Rupp was referring to the games with Northwestern and North Carolina. His boys trounced Northwestern 95-63 Saturday night for their third straight victory. The North Carolina test comes tonight at Lexington, Ky.

MORE TESTS

Then comes Baylor on Saturday followed by Wisconsin and either Princeton or Wake Forest in the UK Invitational, Notre Dame and the Sugar Bowl Against New Orleans Loyola and either Duke or Auburn.

The results of this tough schedule certainly should give Rupp and everyone else a line on Kentucky's chances of winning the Southeastern Conference before its league opener against Georgia Tech on Jan. 4. Cotton Nash and Ben Deeken starred against Northwestern just as they did against Virginia and Texas Tech. They combined for 56 points against the Big Ten club, Deeken with 29 and Nash 27.

Kentucky's turnaround from its so-so-for-the Wildcat-1960 record of last season has been the highlight so far of the new collegiate campaign. Chicago Loyola, No. 1, and NYU, No. 2, each have won twice, but the Ramblers and the Violets were hardly extended by North Dakota and Kent State and Cornell and Tulsa, respectively.

The Duke Blue Devils, ranked fourth, won the Centennial Classic at Morgantown, W.Va. by edging No. 7 Ohio State 76-75 and then coming from behind to defeat West Virginia 86-81 in Saturday's final.

Kansas' Jayhawks and the Sun Devils of Arizona State moved into a more prominent spot in the national picture with impressive victories over the third-ranked Cincinnati Bearcats and the fifth-ranked Wichita Wheatshockers.

Kansas ended a 90-game home winning streak for Cincinnati with its 51-47 triumph over the Bearcats on six free throws. Art Becker's 36 points led the third-ranked Sun Devils to their 93-87 conquest of Wichita.

Ohio State took the consolation prize in the Centennial Classic by nipping St. John's of New York 66-64. No. 8 Michigan was idle Saturday, but the Wolverines beat Tulane and Nebraska earlier in the week. Unbeaten Oregon State, No. 10, thumped Washington 91-60 for its fourth in a row.

J. Giardello
Takes Tiger's
Boxing Title

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—To freshly crowned champion Joey Giardello, the middleweight title means vindication, redemption, and, most important, a better life for his wife and three children.

"This is what I dreamed of but I never thought I'd get the chance again," said Giardello, who conquered Nigerian Dick Tiger Saturday night.

"Now, maybe, people will stop throwing up the past, and maybe they'll just look at me as the champion. That's the way I'd like it to be."

"I'm no longer a wild kid. I did a lot of crazy things and I paid for it."

LICENSE RESTORED

Eight years ago Giardello was convicted of assaulting a service station attendant. He was sentenced to six to 18 months but was paroled after serving three. In a move to hasten his rehabilitation, the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission restored his boxing license.

He fought his way back to the top and a title fight with Gene Fullmer on April 20, 1960. The bloody brawl wound up a draw. "Tiger did everything I expected him to do and I had the answer for every move. After the 14th round the guys in my corner said, 'Joey, you're the champion.' I actually cried."

That's the way it went for most of the 15 rounds in Convention Hall, Tiger stalked and Giardello moved. The 34-year-old defender was sluggish and erratic. He missed often as Giardello danced out of range, jabbing, hooking and cuffing as he moved.

Referee Paul Cavalier, the only official, had Giardello, a 3-1 underdog, the winner by a round score of 15 with two even. Most of the boxing writers had similar scores.

Wolves Plan
Football Bust

Albion gridiron coach Morley Fraser will be the guest speaker at the Clarkson High School football banquet scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in the school cafeteria.

Clarkson's Wolves finished the 1963 grid season with a 6-1 record that included a share of the Wayne-Oakland League crown.

Fraser, in his 10th year at Albion, guided the Britons to a 4-1 record in the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association this season, good for a first place tie in conference action. He has compiled a 33-26 record during his tenure at Albion.

Place in Sun for SMU

By United Press International

Off-beaten but unbowed Southern Methodist found a place in the Sun and two more service academies—Navy and Air Force—gained expected bowl berths as a result of Saturday's college football action.

Navy, the nation's second ranked team, survived a last-minute scare from Army to squeeze out a 21-15 victory and immediately accepted a bid to play top-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl.

The Air Force rallied to defeat Colorado, 17-14, and earn a Gator Bowl berth opposite North Carolina.

But the biggest surprise of the day was triggered by SMU. The Mustangs finished their season the same way they opened it... with a loss.

Baylor stung Southern Methodist with a 20-6 victory to hand Hayden Fry's Mustangs a 4-6 season, a record hardly calculated to attract the eyes of bowl officials.

Yet, the Sun Bowl yesterday announced that SMU would meet Oregon (7-3) on Dec. 31 at El Paso, Tex., in the southwest classic's new 30,000-seat stadium.

In contrast to SMU, third-ranked Pittsburgh was left out

Cage Milestone in 76er Win

By The Associated Press

Johnny Kerr has collected his 10,000th point. Will Chamberlain has made two consecutive foul shots. And that's even more surprising.

Kerr's 10,000th point—he finished the game with 10,116—put Philadelphia ahead to stay en route to a 126-116 National Basketball Association victory over Cincinnati Sunday night.

Chamberlain, a notoriously poor foul shooter, clicked for 20 in succession with five seconds remaining, providing San Francisco with a 114-112 triumph over Los Angeles in the only other game scheduled.

In Saturday's games, Boston walloped Baltimore 114-97, Cincinnati downed New York 116-105 and St. Louis defeated Philadelphia 129-120.

Work in Hungary Strictly From Hunger

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer HOLLYWOOD—From the hills of Budapest to the shores of Malibu — that's the latest screen odyssey of the once-around comedian Buddy Hackett.

Three weeks ago Hackett, lately a compact 180 pounds after a high of 244, was filming a unique co-production of Cinetrana and Hungary's nationalized movie studio.

This week he was working at the ocean in the completely capitalized "Muscle Beach Party," a follow-up to the successful

"Beach Party."
Buddy finds himself in the uncomfortable position for a comedian of having to be funny when he doesn't feel like being funny.
That's what the experience in Hungary did to him. Usually he comes out of a new experience with a routine for his night club act.

TAKES SOME TIME

"Not only did I not get any routine in Hungary," he shrugged, "I can't do my old ones. It will take me some time to get back in form."
Buddy seemed numbed by his 14 weeks in Hungary.

"I don't know what to say about it; I would need three hours to explain myself," he said. "Not only that I've got to be careful what I say. If I say I loved the Hungarian people—which I did — I'll be called a Communist sympathizer. If I say I hated being in Hungary—which I did — I'll be called a troublemaker."

He went to Hungary to make "Millie Goes to Budapest," in which he and George Sanders play a pair of thieves out to steal national treasures. The reception by Hungarian officials was nil, said Buddy, but the people themselves — that was another matter.

NATIONAL HERO

"I became almost a national hero," the comedian said.

"That's because I was the only visitor who tried to learn their language. Everywhere I went I talked to people and tried to make them laugh. I would tell them their own language."
The Hungarian people are all heart—and they are.

"But I couldn't get over the miserable way they had to live.
It was terribly depressing, yet
I suppose it could be worse. My wife went to Rumania, and she said it was like a prison camp."

The food in Hungary?
"After I changed hotels, I never had a bad meal. They have all kinds of goulash and wonderful fish and a fish soup that I loved. It was so hot it made my mother's horseradish taste like sour cream."

WEEKS WASTED

The first six weeks of filming were wasted, he said, because of foul-ups with a British company which was also coproducing. The British pulled out, and then production moved more smoothly under the direction of Richard Thorpe, a speed-minded MGM veteran.

The studio was built by Alexander Korda in 1928, and Buddy said it was on a par with studios in Hollywood, where many are of the same vintage. But there was no incentive among the set workers.

"They all earn the same salary," Buddy explained. "There is a saying that everybody has a job in Hungary but nobody works. It's true."

State Civil Rights Bills Both Up for Consideration

LANSING (AP) — Both of the special legislative sessions' civil rights bills are scheduled for consideration when lawmakers return to Lansing today.
The appropriation for the constitutionally created Civil Rights Commission dominates the agenda of a unique joint meeting of members of the House and Senate committees concerned with this.

The money bill is in the Senate Appropriations Committee headed by Frank Beale, R-St. Clair, who has invited the House committeemen to his group's session in hopes it will speed the appropriation after it clears the Senate.

ASKED FUNDS

Gov. George Romney has asked a $50,000 appropriation for the commission for the rest of this fiscal year. This would be added to about the same amount so far unspent by the Fair Employment Practices Commission which the new commission replaces Jan. 1.

After the legislature resumes at 8 p.m., the bill spelling out the powers and duties of the new commission is likely to get its first exposure before the whole Senate.

It sailed easily through its Senate committee, but discussion of it was put off Friday night.

Sen. Garry Brown, R-Schoolcraft, the bill's sponsor, said the delay was asked by the Senate's only Negro, Sen. Basil Brown, D-Detroit, who said he wanted to make sure the bill will result in an effective law. Neither senator expects the bill to run into serious trouble in the Senate.

POWERS QUESTIONED

Powers prescribed by the bill have been questioned from two aspects.
Some senators wonder whether local initiative in the field could be smothered if, as an attorney general's opinion has held, the commission has absolute jurisdiction over cases of racial or religious discrimination.

U.S. Singer Goodfellows May Return Earn $1,600

35th Annual Sale is 'Best in Four Years'

LONDON (AP) - Paul Robeson's agent said today the singer may be returning to Britain from East Germany in the near future.

"He's very much better now," said the agent, Harold Davidson. "He plans to come back here as soon as he is fit."

Robeson, now 65, went to East Berlin earlier this year to get hospital treatment for heart trouble.

Davidson said he didn't know if Robeson had any plans to return to America.

Goodfellow baskets will be delivered to approximately 100 families between Dec. 21 and 24.

Boyling Over With Goodwill

Family Santa Generous to Tune of $147

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Playing Santa Claus, the average U.S. family will spend $147 or more on Christmas presents. Also we will buy some $125 million in postage stamps.

The custom of exchanging gifts at the beginning of the New Year, started by the ancient Romans, is still popular in Europe and China. Giving gifts at Yuletide is largely an American tradition.

Speaking of holidays, I can't wait until 1965. In that year we'll have six three-day holiday weekends.

DOLLARS LAST
You may not be able to hold on to a buck any better, but dollar bills are actually lasting longer. Among other reasons, the wider use of credit cards and checking accounts has cut down on the use of paper currency.

Three out of every four traffic deaths take place within 25 miles of the driver's home.

Our quotable notables: "Inherited wealth is a big handicap to happiness. It is as certain death to ambition as cocaine is to morality"—William K. Vanderbilt.

Probably the only lower paying field than poetry is painting. It has been estimated that the average artist earns only about $11 a week, or less than a laborer gets a day.

2 MILLION LAWS
There are more than two million laws in force in the United States. If you learned them at the rate of 10 a day, it would take you nearly 550 years to be sure you were completely law-abiding. But by then probably two million more laws would have been passed.

It has been figured that more than 60 per cent of the world's top achievements have been accomplished by people between 45 and 65.

Worth remembering: "When things begin to blur, get stronger glasses—or weaker drinks"—Arnold H. Glasow.

In 630 B.C. in Nineveh, capital of Assyria, King Sennacherib had signs posted at intervals along one thoroughfare saying:

"Royal road—let no man lessen it." Violators who parked their chariots were put to death. It was Jonathan Swift who observed, "We have just enough religion to make us hate but not enough to make us love one another."

YOU SAVE WITH STABLE OIL PRICES

The economy record of oil is amazing. Right today, when other automatic fuels and everything else costs more, fuel oil prices are lower than in 1956! And they're likely to stay down for three good reasons: world supplies and reserves keep growing; refiners and your local fuel oil dealers compete for business; and as more gasoline is used more fuel oil is produced. Everything works to keep saving you money when you choose modern oil heat.

The Gift to the Blind Beggar

By JOHN J. STEWART

At the side of the dusty road leading into Jerusalem sat a blind beggar. He was a young man.

Blind from birth, he had never seen the beauty of the world; had never seen the blue of the sky, the green of the fields, nor the majesty of a tree reaching heavenward. Never would he see children at play, nor watch a hawk soar overhead, nor know the thrill of looking into a deep pool of water.

DARK AND LONELY WORLD

Pitied by some; scorned by others; appreciated by none. A never ending dark and lonely world was his.

One Sabbath day as he sat there in darkness he heard a crowd approaching. As he was about to begin chanting his beggar's plea, he heard a man ask, "Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?"

The throng had stopped and was silent. The blind beggar listened intently.

"Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him." It was a divine voice the beggar heard speaking, the voice of Jesus. "As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

PUZZLED/THE MEANING

As the blind beggar puzzled the meaning of

81-Death Air Crash Probed

Hasn't Happened in U.S.

Can Lightning Fell Aircraft?

WASHINGTON (AP)—If lightning caused Maryland's airliner crash last night, it would be a first in U.S. commercial aviation records.

Witnesses said a bolt of lightning hit the Boeing 707 jet, Pan American World Airways Flight 214 bound from Puerto Rico to Philadelphia, and transformed it into a ball of fire that showered the area near Elkton with bits of burning wreckage. Eighty-one persons died.

Civil Aeronautics Board hearings into a May 12, 1959, crash at Chase, Md.—just 35 miles southwest of last night's disaster—brought out that in 20 years no airliner of metal construction had been destroyed or even seriously damaged by lightning.

Ten witnesses claimed they saw lightning in the Chase area at the time that a Capital turbo-prop flying from New York to Atlanta, Ga., crashed in flames with 31 persons aboard. Two witnesses said they saw lightning strike the craft.

OTHERS SAY NO

But 12 others testified there was no lightning near the plane. The CAB concluded that the plane broke apart in extreme turbulence.

Lightning was reported to have been responsible for the June 26, 1959, crash of a Trans World Airlines Super Constellation that killed 68 persons, including 40 Americans, near Milan, Italy.

Modern planes are protected from lightning by tiny metal impregnated strips hanging from the trailing edges of the wings and tail and serving as lightning rods.

Although airplanes are struck by lightning frequently the wicks reduce the force of the charge, or dissipate it.

CHECKED WICKS

In the Chase accident, investigators examined the wicks for traces of heavy static discharge.

Of those which were recovered, none showed signs of static discharge.

On this basis, along with the absence of evidence that lightning could damage a modern plane severely, the board rejected the possibility of lightning as a cause of that accident.

FIERCE FLAMES — Flames roar upward from wreckage of a Pan American jetliner which crashed near Elkton, Md., last night, carrying at least 80 persons to their death. Investigators are checking the possibility that lightning struck the jet craft.

Fiery Explosion Downs Airliner in Maryland

Eyewitnesses Saw Bodies Falling; Say Lightning Hit Plane

ELKTON, Md. (AP)—Expert investigators looked for proof today that lightning caused the crash of a big Boeing 707 jet airliner in which 81 persons perished last night.

The Pan American World Airways airplane, en route from Puerto Rico to Philadelphia, fell in fiery fragments from 5,900 feet during a lightning storm.

By good chance, 65 persons had left the plane during a stop in Baltimore only 10 minutes earlier.

The proud airplane disintegrated in the air. Bits of wreckage fell over an area estimated by Sheriff Edgar Startt of Cecil County at four square miles. The crash occurred about 15 miles southwest of Wilmington, Del., near the Maryland-Delaware border and U.S. 40.

The plane, according to the air line, was carrying 72 passengers and 8 crew members when it crashed.

HOLDING PATTERN

The Federal Aviation Agency in Washington said the plane was on a holding pattern near the New Castle, Del., airport at 6:38 p.m., awaiting clearance to approach the Philadelphia International Airport.

Then, said Raymond Gregg of Elkton, "it was just like the sun was coming at me. It was so bright I couldn't look at it."

Another witness, Henry Lindell of Newark, Del., said it was apparent to him that lightning had blasted the plane from the air.

"There were two large arched streaks of lightning in the air," he said. "An instant afterward (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

LBJ Focuses on '64 Budget

Eyes Proposed Cut of Defense Facilities

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's attention was focused today on the forthcoming federal budget—including a proposal to curb spending by eliminating some defense installations.

Johnson scheduled a morning meeting with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to go over some aspects of the military budget.

Top Budget Bureau officials including Director Kermit Gordon, were summoned to review spending plans for the Justice and State departments, the Veterans Administration and the Federal Aviation Agency.

Johnson told a news conference Saturday that he and McNamara were making a study of defense installations to determine if any could be eliminated.

An aide said one of the matters to be taken up during the day would be the possible consolidation of some military assistance groups overseas.

NEW DECISION

Under a new Johnson decision the payrolls of these assistance groups will be slashed by 10 percent within the next six months, even if none is eliminated.

Johnson worked in his office yesterday until 7 p.m., when he took what has become a routine evening swim in the White House pool. Some of his late evening activities included:

—An order that $234 million of GI insurance dividends be paid to 4.7 million policyholders next month to help stabilize the economy. Normally, payments would have been strung out through the year. President Kennedy ordered similar speed-ups in 1962 and 1963.

—Johnson offered the Bolivian government any aid it may need in order to hunt and free four American government workers kidnapped by miners who hope to force the release of two union officials held on criminal charges.

MILITARY AID

The offer was said to include military assistance, including the loan of military helicopters and crews.

Fear for Safety of 21 Hostages

Bolivian Reds Make Threat; Yanks Held

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — Communist led tin miners holding four Americans among 21 hostages today gave the government 24 hours to free two arrested Communists or "suffer the consequences." The ultimatum raised fears for the hostages' safety.

The Federation of Mine Workers sent its word to the government by way of radio transmissions from their strongholds more than 150 miles south of this capital.

The miners, led by leftist Vice President Juan Lechin, defied a government troop buildup and an offer from President Johnson of full U.S. assistance to the government to win freedom for the hostages, held since Friday night.

The miners' broadcast said the union wanted the release of the two Communist union heads arrested by the government during the day Friday.

ARREST ON ORDER

The leaders, Lino Pimental and Federico Escobar, were arrested on a court order in connection with union agitation against a government crackdown on union power in the operation of the mines, Bolivia's main source of income.

The broadcast said the union was giving the government the ultimatum to resolve "the problem of the detained union leaders, and if it does not do so, it will have to suffer the consequences."

The broadcasts did not spell out what the consequences would be but sources here said they could mean a threat to the safety of the hostages. The miners originally promised the hostages would not be harmed.

The government has said that under no circumstances would it set the two Communists free.

President Victor Paz Estenssoro scheduled a cabinet meeting, meanwhile, amid reports he will decree a state of siege.

Khrushchev Unfolds Plans for Boosting Farm Harvests

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev unfolded plans today for a great leap forward in chemical production to increase farm harvests and provide a better life for the Soviet people.

He proposed to triple chemical industry output under a seven-year program.

Khrushchev told a full dress meeting of the Communist Party Central Committee that never again will the Soviet Union export grain and let its people starve—as he said was done in the days of Stalin.

And he warned Western countries against trying to force Soviet political concessions in return for aid at a time when the Russians admit they are deep in difficulties because of farm production failures. He told the West the Soviet Union would triumph, if necessary, "without your support."

TELLS INVESTMENT

The premier announced that between 1964 and 1970 the government will invest more than 42 million rubles ($46.62 billion at the official exchange rate) in developing the chemical industry and getting fertilizer to the farm where it is needed.

During the seven-year period, he said, approximately 200 new chemical plants will be built and more than 500 existing plants will be reconstructed.

Khrushchev said the program would increase the output of chemical products 3 to 3½ times.

Khrushchev said his government wants to "a whole complex of chemical plants and a number of other enterprises" from capitalist countries and

2 Men Kidnap Crooner's Son

STATELINE, Calif. (AP)—Frank Sinatra Jr., singing son of the famed crooner and film star, was kidnapped by two men at gunpoint last night from his motel room just before he was to go on stage at a casino, sheriff's deputies reported.

Several hours later, police radio broadcasts alerted all units to look for two men for questioning. They were identified over the radio as Joseph James Rose, 23, and Thomas Patrick Keating, 21.

Units were also alerted to be on lookout for a 1962 or 1963 automobile with a California license beginning with the letters EGV.

The police broadcast gave no further license number.

NO REASON

Officers available to newsmen gave no reason why the men were sought. Nor were they identified further.

Authorities said the FBI had been called in on the case.

Deputies immediately set up roadblocks on mountain roads in the Lake Tahoe area.

Sheriff George Byers of Douglas County, Nev., said, "We still think they are in the area," on the California-Nevada border.

Traffic Figures Hide Cause of Accidents

By JIM COUG
Speed is the number one killer on the highway, but what causes it and other driver failures also concerns traffic experts.

"The problem of traffic accidents is more complex than just merely speeding or drunk driving," said Orin Lucas, traffic analyst for the Michigan State Police.

"These naturally are factors that must be taken into consideration, but there are usually one or more underlying reasons," he said.

Among these are lack of knowledge and skill, physical deficiencies, inattention, emotional disturbances, immaturity among young people, a lack of proper attitude toward responsibility and a general disregard of traffic laws.

Weather enters the accident picture, but according to experts, it is not the hazardous conditions themselves, but the failure of the motorists to adjust to these changes.

Many of these driving failures could send a motorist to jail, either on a charge of negligent homicide or manslaughter.

A person convicted of negligence in a traffic death such as going through a red signal could be sentenced to a maximum of two years in prison.

It found to have willfully and recklessly caused a fatal accident through speeding or drinking, the motorist faces a maximum of 15 years.

For the past two years, a study has been in progress by the University of Michigan Medical School's anatomy department to determine the causes of death in automobile accidents.

Under direction of Donald Huehle, assistant professor, some 70 fatal accidents have been investigated at the scene.

Huehle said that the "tried and true explanations" of drinking and speeding are prevalent in the study, but there is "no common thread — no pattern — running through the accidents."

He also cites reasons similar to Lucas for accidents.

The U.S. Public Health Service is sponsoring the intensive investigation into fatal accidents.

The research, according to Huehle, has revealed that 35 per cent of those killed would have been saved if they had worn seat belts, and another 11 per cent would have survived if the ultimate combination of seat belt and shoulder harness had been used.

Much is being done by the Oakland County Road Commission to move traffic safely through the area, but traffic enforcement is necessary to see that laws are not broken.

In each 24-hour period, Oakland County Sheriff's Patrol alone travels nearly 2,500 miles.

ALL FOR SAFETY
County Highway Engineer Robert Osgood said everything possible is being done for safety in the design of new roads and repaving of old ones.

Roadside trees are often removed by the department when a police department indicates they are a hazard to driving.

Narrow county roads are being widened two feet when they are repaved.

The county maintains about 2,600 miles of roads and highways.

VIOLATORS PERSIST

Roads being under construction throughout the county is partly responsible for a number of accidents, according to Osgood, but this is only a temporary problem.

Accident trouble spots throughout the county are as follows: Grand River and Middle Belt; Eight Mile-Northland; Greenfield Nine Mile; M58-Township; Maple-Lahser; Northwestern-Southfield; 10 Mile and Lahser; Telegraph-Pontiac Lake Road; Vooheils; Telegraph-Eight, Nine, Ten, Northwestern and 12 Mile-Farmington; Woodward-Quinton; Long Lake, Maple, 13 Mile, Coolidge and 12 1/2 Mile.

Stores Hit by Fire in Bloomfield

An early morning fire at the Bloomfield Plaza Shopping Center yesterday gutted one store, damaged three others, injured four firemen and will cost about $385,000.

The blaze raged out of control for an hour and a half after starting in a storage room at Savon Drug Store, the corner unit in the center at Telegraph and 15 Mile, Bloomfield Township.

It was almost entirely contained in Savon and just barely burned into the Argyle Shop next door," said Bloomfield Township Fire Chief Volvy V. Yamaszeki.

However, the water and smoke damage there was heavy he said. Smoke also did extensive damage to the Jacqueline Shop and a branch of the American Savings and Loan Association.

FOUR CALLS
Firemen received four almost simultaneous calls on the fire at 6 a.m., Yamaszeki said.

Four of the 50 firemen who fought the blaze suffered minor injuries.

John Truesdell was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac for treatment of a knee injury. First aid was administered to the other three, and they returned to the fire,

Incumbent Judges Await Senate Vote on Ballot Title

By JIM DYGIERT
A controversial bill that would permit Oakland County's three appointed Circuit Court judges to be designated as incumbents on the 1964 ballot may reach a vote in the State Senate tonight or tomorrow.

However, it may be put off until Wednesday, the deadline for passage of bills in their house of origin, along with a similar bill in the House and other controversial measures.

Among other bills drawing Democratic fire in the GOP-controlled legislature is one that would extend the terms of incumbent county officials from 1964 to 1966.

TITLES WITH NAMES
The judicial incumbency designation bills would grant the right of having the title of all judges' offices printed on the ballot with their names.

Democrats object to this implementation of the constitution's judiciary provisions. The judges who would gain are appointees of Republican Gov. George Romney.

Democrats demand a literal interpretation of the paragraph that specifies the incumbency designation of elected judges.

The controversy arises from a failure of the document to mention specifically judges appointed before the constitution takes effect. Judges appointed under the new constitution will be from among the ranks of retired judges and not be eligible for election.

THOSE AFFECTED
Oakland County judges who would be affected are Arthur E. Moore, Philip Pratt and James S. Thornburn.

Moore was appointed by Romney to fill the vacancy left by the retirement of the late Judge H. Russell Holland, who died in 1961.

Michigan's Junior Miss will travel to Mobile, Ala. in the spring to compete for the national honor.

The Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce sponsored the local contest and will also conduct the state finals here.

RECOMMENDATION
Extending the terms of county officials from 1964 to 1966 has been recommended by a legislative study committee in order to start their new four-year terms in 1966 when state officers begin theirs.

Appointed judges, who were named to office under the old constitution, would ordinarily come up for election in 1964.

Extending the terms of county officials from 1964 to 1966 has been recommended by a legislative study committee in order to start their new four-year terms in 1966 when state officers begin theirs.

Most county posts in the state are held by Republicans, and the Democratic party regularly is anxious for another crack at toppling Prosecutor Samuel Olsen in Wayne County where Democrats hold all the posts.

Romney has indicated he is not in favor of extending the county terms.

the sky was completely lit up by a bright orange. You could see the parts starting to fall then."

AT THE SCENE
Early today 11 Civil Aeronautics Board and 7 Federal Aviation Agency officials arrived to start the investigation. The area had been cordoned off and flares sent an eerie light over the torn, blasted and charred wreckage.

There were few large pieces of wreckage, although one big jet engine dug a hole 100 yards from the home of Gregg. Small bits of airplane parts fell on the farmhouse roof of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berry, where 12 hunters were sheltered.

The investigators set up headquarters in Gregg's garage. About a dozen Federal Bureau of Investigation agents from Baltimore and Washington launched their customary investigation.

Edwin R. Tully, special agent in charge of the FBI office in Baltimore, said the flight recorder, which is designed to survive crashes and tell investigators about the minutes preceding the disaster, was not found immediately.

Tully confirmed that several eyewitnesses already interviewed had said lightning struck the plane.

Pan Am said Flight 214 departed San Juan at 4:10 p.m. and arrived in Baltimore at 7:35 p.m. and was expected in Philadelphia at 8:45 p.m., 15 minutes behind schedule.

The airlines said the last known radio contact between the plane and ground was a terse, terrifying message.

"Going down in flames at 0158 Zebra," or 8:58 p.m. EST.

The message reportedly was overheard by the ground control center in New Castle, Del., and at Dover, Del. Air Force Base.

SPYGLASS DOWNWARD
Witnesses said burning fragments spiraled lazily to the ground, then exploded into small fires despite the pelting rain.

Truman Finch, investigator in charge for the CAB, and B. R. Allen, deputy director of the CAB's bureau of safety, will head the investigation.

The wreckage was so disintegrated that no bodies were found immediately. Red Cross workers sadly turned away a handful of relatives who drove from Philadelphia.

The scene was one of anguished sorrow at Philadelphia International Airport, where relatives waited for the plane that never arrived.

It Seems to Me....

Chinese Reds Are Already Training Sights on Johnson

One thing becomes apparent. The Reds in China are going to take President LYNDON B. JOHNSON for a fast ride—if they can. I think their chances are nil. JOHNSON's a case-hardened hombre. The double dyed deceivers in the Kremlin are a bit more adroit. They're donning their slickest sheep's clothing and are sitting back unctuously as they watch for the first opening.

But they fool no one.

However, the Chinese Reds are flailing away at this grand President of ours with radio attacks and blasts in their government-controlled newspapers. They're busy stirring up new troubles in Viet Nam and their stooges in Laos are demonstrating against us. Some observers even think they may go far enough to provoke stiff attacks which could have devastating results.

President JOHNSON is on the spot there. They're deliberately baiting him to see how far they can go before he exhibits a doubled fist from which the glove has been removed. This Nation believes in LYNDON B. JOHNSON. We unite behind him and he can bank on the support and loyalty of the great bulk of our people.

In the meantime, CHIANG KAI-SHEK has been landing raiding parties on the mainland from Taiwan (Formosa) and reports they have met with little military resistance and found many Chinese Reds ready to defect to the Nationalist cause. It's perfectly possible that things might actually become explosive in this area.

Some observers believe the venerable Chiang is really ready to launch an all-out attack on the mainland. It sounds incredible but they feel the opposition will prove much weaker than the Chinese Reds suppose. Living conditions haven't begun to approximate the promises these lowly peasants received. They may be fairly ripe for revolt. However, anywhere a Chinese problem arises, there is always one overwhelming and insurmountable obstacle that challenges the entire world—and that's the staggering number of people.

No one knows exactly how many there are in China, but 700-million is a guess that may be fairly dependable. Attempting to "conquer" or even herd this awesome populace about in any form of regimentation is too fearful to contemplate.

The Generalissimo tells of the great success of his many raiding parties and the balance of the world is ready to accept the facts as outlined. However, when he sees fit, MAO TSE-TUNG blandly issues counter-claims in which he invariably recognizes some specific raiding party and then suggests the entire force was easily wiped out by his gallant warriors.

It's part of our overall global mess, any way you look at it.

Political Nonsense....

Probably the choicest bit of political baloney of the fall season arises from a pious remark attributed to T. JOHN LEBINSKI, Michigan's Lieutenant Governor.

Quoth he:
"I feel as though I owe it to the people of Michigan to offer myself as a candidate for Governor."

Well, well!

There is one of the great mealy mouthed utterances of the late fall season. JOHN, if you "want office," simply say so. No one holds it against you. It isn't a sin or a crime. It's a perfectly normal wish. But don't set yourself up as a martyr to an eager, enthusiastic and wildly cheering constituency.

"I'm thinking in terms of things that have to be done for the people of Michigan," he says. JOHN, very few voters give two whoops in Hades whether you run or return to the farm. The woods are full of eager beavers seeking office. Only one in a thousand is "in demand." And you JOHN, are not the "one"—you're among the 999.

Also, you state that you feel you should run because you're a Catholic and President JOHNSON is a Protestant and so you could "help balance the ticket." This government was founded on freedom of religion and no one is interested in electing you because you're a Catholic, a Protestant, a Jew, a Hottentot, a Mohammedan or a Buddhist—or because you aren't. It's in all the histories. Remember?

And in Conclusion....

I like the title of BILL ZECKENDORF's address to the Chicago Bar. "Simplified Complexity." Gotham beatniks who aren't "going steady" advise the world by only shaving one side of their faces. Automobile men urge you to get your car "winterized" immediately. ANNE BANCROFT usually slops around in sneakers and a sweater. She flew to London to star in a movie and her excess baggage was $264. Oakland County's own WALTER REUTHER walked through the Americana lobby between GEORGE MEANY, boss of the AFL-CIO (225 pounds) and a squat five feet something and BILL SCHMITZ, Secretary-Treasurer, with the same general statistics. One woman said: "That's WALTER REUTHER but who are the other two?" Her companion replied: "probably his body guard."

I can't prove it, but I'll bet a sugar cookie you couldn't deliver this letter, but the post office did two decades ago:
Hill
John
Mass.

It went to John Underhill, Andover, Massachusetts.

MARY Ann Hampton should be classed among the especially attractive young ladies in our area. I agree. Vaughn Meader, whose imitations of the late JFK were nationally famous, is practically jobless. Record companies, night clubs and agencies correctly shake a gloomy head. His first record sold 5-million copies.

Overheard: "An actress is a woman who grows one year older every decade." Also: "Anatomy is something we all have but it looks a lot better on girls."

David Lawrence Says:

Flaw in Presidential Succession

WASHINGTON—Many of the plans for presidential succession that have been offered thus far seem to ignore the basic principle of government in a republic—that the people should select their chief executive.

This wasn't provided for under the old law and it is LAWRENCE not provided for completely under present law, enacted in 1947, whereby the secretary of state and other members of the cabinet are designated in a theoretical line of succession following the speaker of the House and the president officer of the Senate.

Cabinet officers in the United States have never been elected by the people. The vice president, on the other hand, is on the ballot in a national election, and speaker of the House and president pro tem of the Senate are chosen by the people's representatives in Congress.

The present speaker happens to be 72 years old and the Senate's president pro tem is 85.

The present line of succession presumably goes back to the cabinet if the speaker and the Senate's president officer, who have in turn succeeded to the presidency, should die or become disabled while holding that office.

But it may also be pointed out that, once the speaker has become president, the next speaker—who would be promptly elected by the House—could be construed to be in line ahead of anybody in the cabinet.

It is this anomaly in existing law which needs clarification.

ONE CRITICISM

One criticism being mentioned is that, while a vice president who succeeds to the presidency is, of course, of the same party as the departed President, the speaker of the House of Representatives or presiding officer of the Senate might not be.

Thus, the party which has been in control of the administration could overnight be removed from executive power.

The four-year term for which an administration of one party had been elected would suddenly be ended by the accession of appointed with the fall shows. The biggest bust was "100 Grand" and JERRY LEWIS was a close second. The latter is marked for the graveyard next week. "Burke's Law" and "Arrest and Trial" won favor and DANNY KAYE started slowly but he's gaining. an administration of a different party.

The present statute needs amendment to make it crystal clear that the succession will not go to the Cabinet if anything happens to a speaker of the House who has become president, but that the power will definitely pass to the next individual who has been elected speaker of the House or to be president pro tem of the Senate.

Each of these officials should always be someone in a leadership position who knows the legislative branch of the government and, through his service on congressional committees, has become familiar with departmental problems on the executive side.

Bob Considine Says:

Letter Tells of Cruel Act by New York Executive

NEW YORK—Readers have a right to write:

"My wife and five other girls were fired personally by a vice president of a Park Avenue concern for not reporting to work on Monday, Nov. 25," writes Raymond H. Markey Jr., a young New York husband.

"I am unable to speak for the other girls involved but my wife, another couple, and myself were standing in line in Washington that morning to pay our respects to the late President."

"Before leaving Sunday night, my wife called her boss and was told that he was not reporting to work and she was not required to, either."

"The irony of this is that my wife is an immigrant from West Germany. This despicable action taken by her company has made me ashamed to look her in the face."

Another New Yorker, Dallas Galvin, writes: "The guilt for the death of President Kennedy and his assassin lies on the conscience of all Americans, but it falls doubly on that of those men and women who have in their power the molding of the American mind."

"Each columnist, commentator and editor who has made irresponsible statements, who has through the power of his pen planted the seeds of hatred and suspicion through misinformation, speciousness, and exaggeration has been cursed for eternity with the knowledge of the integral part he has played in his abomination."

"You, sir, are one of these."

WHO HE MEANT

In a letter to a friend, a copy of which was sent to me, W. G. Kirkland of Darien, Conn., wrote "Considine gives the Dallas police a 'working over' which may or may not be justified."

"In spite of the superior news coverage at the Dallas police station at the time of Oswald's murder it was certainly obvious that our national press machinery was responsible at least to some degree for the circumstances that made this man vulnerable to such an attack."

Voice of the People:

Writers Suggest Name for New Perimeter

Why not name the perimeter road after a man who has done much for Pontiac and his area a great deal of recognition?

Murray D. (Pat) Van Wagoner was one of the nation's finest state highway commissioners and as such built many fine streets. During the depression he did much to relieve our unemployment.

As Governor of Michigan and later as U.S. Military Governor of Bavaria he brought added recognition to Pontiac.

W. W. D.

I see a commissioner proposed naming the perimeter road after John F. Kennedy. I would think Pontiac would have some respect for our beloved John F. Kennedy. If they were naming a college or some long highway after him it would be respectful. But we should have more respect than by naming the perimeter road after him.

Max

All over the world cities and countries are renaming streets and famous landmarks in memory of our late President Kennedy. Let's put Pontiac on that list by naming our perimeter road and new downtown mall after the President as a lasting memorial. I'm sure all of Pontiac will join in this wish.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace LaFave

22 Cooper

We have waited a long time for city improvements so why not give more thought in choosing a name for our new perimeter road. The colorful historical events of our area have furnished beautiful Indian names for our city. It would be much more personal to our citizens to keep that tradition.

It will take a lot of time to write and repeat orally John F. Kennedy Drive, many times a day.

His widow lit a flame to burn continually and a monument will be erected for the whole world to honor. Let's honor his name nationally not locally.

Personal Opinion

'Shouldn't Compare JFK With Christ'

In answer to Ann Saincome who said she compared Mr. Kennedy with Christ, I feel badly about his death, but I don't see how anyone can compare a human being with the Son of God. He walked upon this earth, was spit upon, was cursed by men, wore a crown of thorns and was nailed to the cross to save this wicked world. Yet He had no sin. As he died he said "Father forgive them."

Read the New Testament. There's a lot more of His life.

Presidential Succession

The Holliston Long Street

We have demonstrated an orderly continuity of government in the recent tragedy. Fortunately, the last two vice presidents had been kept informed of major domestic and foreign affairs, unlike Harry S. Truman who knew nothing of the Manhattan atomic project when he became President.

But what of tomorrow? Now we have no vice president. It has been so tragically demonstrated that the presidential office is but a heart-beat away from the incumbent.

In the case of President JOHNSON's death, the Succession Act of 1947 provides that the speaker of the House JOHN W. MCCORMACK, who within a month will be 72 years old, would be the one to succeed him and next to him the mantle would fall upon the 85-year-old Carl Hayden, President pro tem of the Senate.

These two veterans in the country's service would probably be the first to concede that their waning powers would make them unequal to the global responsibilities of the presidency. We believe an early look at and revision of the Succession Act is called for.

In the case of the presidency, there is not only the possibility of assassination by some fanatic but also of death from natural causes. Or by airplane or helicopter accidents, especially since the president in performance of his duties must do considerable traveling.

This matter of presidential succession is in the realm of primary legislation. If we may change the figure to a mode of transportation of a by-gone day, "We should lock the door before the horse is stolen."

Small Scale?

The Chicago Sun-Times Overheard: "An elephant is a mouse subject to government specifications!"

French Compare

The London Times

One consequence of the assassination of President Kennedy has been to strengthen the death wish of a vice president is needed there.

Frenchmen have somewhat ruefully contrasted the 88 minutes which elapsed between the death of President Kennedy and the swearing-in of President JOHNSON and what might be expected in their own country if President de Gaulle was for any reason suddenly removed from the scene. The constitution lays down that most of the presidential powers would be exercised by the President of the Senate. Elections for a new president would normally take place from twenty to fifty days afterwards.

Those Frenchmen who are grateful to President de Gaulle for five years of stability are most haunted by the fear of seeing all this undone by a vacuum of authority. The titular authority of the President of the Senate, they argue, would be a weak dam against chaos particularly since today the post happens to be occupied by one of the President's bitterest opponents, M. Monnerville.

Only a suitable and automatic help—in other words, a vice-president chosen, as in the United States, at the same time as the president could assure a transference of power without interruptions. Is there anyone of sufficient stature to take over the reins and who would be content to occupy such an undefined, subordinate position for perhaps seven years—assuming, as seems probable, that President de Gaulle decides for a second term? Is there anyone whom de Gaulle could tolerate for so long as his acknowledged deputy.

Nevertheless, it is possible that President de Gaulle will now be persuaded to take some constitutional action—less because of the American warning than through distaste for the waiting powers of M. Monnerville.

For the Saturday ceremony performed by Rev. E. C. Weber, the bride chose pale ivory tulle with back fullness of unpressed pleats sweeping into a chapel train. She wore a bouffant illusion veil with silk pillow and held a Bible topped with white roses and eucalyptus.

Mrs. Philip Jennings of Mt. Clemens attended her sister as honor matron. They are daughters of the Delbert H. Schomakers of Fraser.

Bridesmaids included Mrs. Donald Gearhart of Fraser; Mrs. Richard Johnston of Clarkston; Mrs. Ralph Polovich, Port Huron and the bridegroom's sister Gary Lynn Hewitt of Keego Harbor.

Soviet Women Have 'Too Much Equality'

By GAY PAULEY
NEW YORK (AP) — The Soviet Union suffers from too much equality with the male.

This was one of the impressions Mari Janofsky reported after a month's tour of Russia as the only woman member of a U. S. television team preparing a documentary account of the life of the Soviet woman.

"I would not want to be a woman in Russia today," said Miss Janofsky in an interview. "The kind of equality she has I don't want... she's had to sacrifice femininity."

NO SOUTHERN BELLES
"It would be doubtful if a 22-year-old woman crane operator we talked with would be treated as a Southern belle."

Miss Janofsky, whose parents migrated from Russia in 1898 and settled in Towanda, Pa., explained that the official equality of sexes came with the Russian Revolution 46 years ago.

She said "equality" today means that the Russian housewife who works — and most mothers do work to augment the family income — leaves the house in the morning when her husband does.

She drops the children off at a day nursery, works all day, picks up the children at the end of the day, does the marketing which in the Soviet Union is a daily task, cooks the dinner, straightens the house.

NO MALE HELP
She has neither the labor-saving devices of her American counterpart nor the help-around-the-house habit of the American male. The Russian way of life does not expect the man to help at home, she said.

"That," said Miss Janofsky, "is equality with a vengeance."

Certainly, she said, the awakening shows in such feminine things as lipstick, nail polish, eye makeup and added color and style in clothing. It shows in the fact that the daily hour and one-half fashion shows staged at GUM, the big Moscow department store, always are jammed, she said.

The government is aware of the Soviet women's demand for feminine fripperies and is responding, she continued. Nothing is made and sold in the Soviet unless it's approved officially. That's why such items as uplift bras, nylon stockings and perfume at popular prices are meaningful, she said.

Miss Janofsky worked as associate producer on the television show, "The Soviet Woman," to be presented Tuesday evening.

She, producer Bill Weston, and a camera crew visited Moscow, Tbilisi and Batumi, in the Georgian province to film women at home, in the market and on the job. The women included teachers, dentists, architects, doctors, the woman astronomer who heads the Russian space satellite tracking system, ballerinas, bricklayers, barbers, mail women, janitors, bus drivers and assembly line workers.

They also talked with Russia's first lady, Mme. Nene Khrushchev, and with Ekaterina Furtseva, the only woman in the Russian presidency.

ONLY IMPRESSIONS
"The things I'm saying are only impressions," said Miss Janofsky. "I hate these people who become authorities on a country after one brief visit."

But Idea Was Good

Husband's No Diplomat

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Well, my husband opened his big mouth again, and now half the neighborhood isn't speaking to us.

The school is nine blocks from here. Our kids walk. A neighbor couldn't get her car started, so she ran over here all excited (my husband was eating his breakfast) and said if HE didn't drive a carload of kids to school, they'd all be late.

Then my husband gave her a lecture on "how it would do them all good to walk, and the school was only nine blocks away, and that she and the other mothers in our neighborhood were spoiling the kids rotten by chauffeuring them a distance that could be walked in 15 minutes, blah, blah, blah."

Well, that's not what she came over for, so I told him to shut his mouth and I drove the kids to school in my pickup truck.

My husband said I should have taken his side. What was wrong?

LIKES IT PEACEFUL

DEAR LIKES: Your husband. Your neighbor didn't want advice, she wanted a ride for the kids. Although your husband's ideas were sound, he batted zero in diplomacy.

St. Francis Set World Humming

Caroling started in 13th century Italy. St. Francis of Assisi encouraged villages to display the nativity scene and act out the Christmas story in passion plays. Later carols were composed to go along with the plays and the custom of caroling through the streets got started.

One of the most beautiful customs involving caroling is still observed in Austria every Christmas Eve. Beginning with the family living the farthest from the village church, torch-bearing carolers form a procession through the village. At each house, the procession is joined by all the inhabitants. Eventually the entire village is part of the procession as it arrives at the church steps.

Two Books Add to Home Library

NEW YORK (UP) — New publications of interest to women:

"The Second Chafing Dish Cookbook" by Marie Roberson Hamm aims to restore the once standard equipment to its former busy position as a hostess' accessory. Especially recommended are recipes for one-bite meat balls in dill sauce and ham 'n' orange.

"The Outdoor Cook's Bible" by Joseph D. Bates Jr., also is the hunter and fisherman's wife's friend. It covers everything from building fires with frontier facilities to a recipe for roast branded pheasant.

Three Are December Brides

Daughter of the John T. Smallwoods of Mt. Clemens Street, the bride wore the traditional white satin gown with scoop neckline of Chantilly lace and chapel train.

Her skirt was styled with sequined ruffled lace flounce topped with satin overskirt. A fingertip veil of illusion and bouquet of white carnations and pink roses completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Leo Hyatt of Lake Orion was matron of honor and Mrs. Tommy Smallwood served as bridesmaid.

Large Pockets Save Time, Steps

To save steps when you houseclean, wear an apron with large pockets — to hold dustcloths, small brushes, or stray objects which must be returned to their proper places. Make sure that the apron is machine-washable so it can be subdued readily after each cleaning session.

MRS. M. T. MacQUEEN

Rev. Eric Wherli performed the candlelight evening ceremony.

TAFFETA GOWN

A cultured pearl necklace and bouquet of white orchids and carnations completed her ensemble.

Wearing red velvet dresses were maid of honor Mary Jane Stewart of Auburn Heights and bridesmaid Betty Vallance of Rochester, together with Bonnie Jean Sugden, her sister's junior attendant.

They carried white fur muffs topped with red carnations.

Debra Lawson attended her cousin as flower girl. On the esquire side were best man Garry Conrad with ushers, Michael Detmer of Oak Park, Robert Mott, and the bridegroom's brother, Thomas MacQueen.

MRS. FRED L. STARK

The Fred Louis Starks (Jennifer Clark) received guests in the Rose Kneale Room following their Saturday afternoon vows in All Saints Episcopal Church.

Daughter of the John Clarks of Dill Road, the bride cut the wedding cake with an heirloom silver knife.

Her gown of white silk French faille was appliqued with Alencon lace at the bateau neckline and on the cummerbund above a controlled skirt and chapel train. She wore a silk illusion veil and carried a single long-stemmed red rose.

With Ann Marie Hodges, maid of honor, were the bride's sister, Mrs. James Scott of Memphis, Tenn. and Lynne Vierende of New Orleans, La., who were bridesmaids.

RED SHEATHS
They wore red velvet sheath dresses and carried white roses.

Charles Stark stood as best man for his brother. They are the sons of the Charles Starks of Carlos Drive. Ronald Toles and Dennis Parle were ushers.

The couple chose the Pontiac Mountains for their honeymoon.

Steel Becomes Style Synonym

Steel, synonymous with strength, is now becoming a synonym for style. That's because designers of tableware, vases, trays and other items which formerly were made in precious metals now are made of stainless steel.

stainless steel tableware today will be handing it down to her children as an "heirloom." Beauty and durability are now being combined by some of America's best designers who use stainless steel.

Christmas Cards Pose Difficulties

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: Each year I receive more and more Christmas cards. My list is very long as it is and I certainly don't wish to add any more names to it if I can possibly help it. Last year I received quite a few cards from acquaintances to whom I did not send cards. I would like to know if it is necessary to send them cards this year.

A: To send Christmas cards to people simply because they have sent them to you takes away from the spirit of this friendly and charming custom.

If these acquaintances mean little or nothing to you, it is certainly not necessary to add their names to your Christmas list.

Q: I have just recently learned that a girl I was quite friendly with at college, was married. We dated frequently but there was nothing really serious between us. I always sent her a Christmas card. I would like to know if it would be proper to send her one this year. I do not know her husband at all.

A: It would be perfectly proper to send her a friendly Christmas greeting, but you should address the card to Mr. and Mrs. even though you have never met her husband.

Q: After only two months of marriage, my wife died living with her parents at the time waiting for an apartment, and therefore did not use any of the wedding presents.

We packed them away until we were ready to move into our own place. My problem is what shall I do with all these gifts?

I expect to go back home to live with my parents. Should I return these gifts?

A: If you do not think you will have use for these gifts and that they will only be an unhappy reminder to you, you may return them if you wish, but there is no obligation to do so.

They are yours to keep if you want them. The only time it is required that wedding presents be returned is when the marriage does not take place.

Details concerning the remarriage of a widow and divorcee are described in the new Emily Post Institute booklet, entitled, "Second Marriage."

To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Emily Post Institute, in care of The Pontiac Press.

Lowly Brussels Sprouts Become a Centerpiece

"Floral" arrangements of Brussels sprouts make artful conversation pieces.

Have the frozen Brussels sprouts unpoked and completely dry. Open them out with your finger tips to form flowers. Spray on gilt, using aerosol can, and allow to dry... takes about 1 hour.

Use any kind of container, plain or fancy, with an ordinary frog or styrofoam (available at variety stores and florists) to hold the arrangement. Secure the Brussels sprouts on thin sticks or wires, which form the stems and can also be sprayed gold. Arrange the sprouts as though you were working with actual flowers.

Arrange them with ivy, holly, berries, any greens. In the picture English Ivy and Honeysuckle... fragile, parchment-like white leaves are used.

For more formal arrangements, the gilded sprouts can be massed into a pyramid (without stems) and augmented with fruits, berries and leaves. Fresh holly, sprayed gold, is another pretty touch.
