Where Hermit Lived

Pontiac Press Photo

A HOME AWAY FROM HOME — Bloomfield Hills Police Captain Walter Sluiter examines the "home" Bernard J. Blechars, 32, of Detroit, built for himself in a wooded swamp area near Woodward avenue and Long Lake road. Pine needles served as a mattress, the cardboard on the left as a bed cover, and the plywood as protection for his feet. Blechars lived here for more than three months, isolating himself completely from civilization.

3 Months in Bloomfield Hills Swamp

Living Skeleton Emerges

By MAX E. SIMON

This is the incredible story of a 32-year-old hermit who almost starved to death while people ate and drank in a rustic Oakland County restaurant just a few paces away.

For three months, the man isolated himself from civilization. He lived in a swampy wooded area in Bloomfield Hills.

His only food was unripened berries and apples. He foraged from a nearby orchard, not knowing whether the fruit might poison him.

His only water came from a stream of the polluted Rouge River. To drink, he scooped up the water in his dirt-crusted hands. Mosquitoes hovered about the stream. He risked coming down with typhoid fever.

Only yards away from where he stayed, people ate and drank at the Fox and Hounds Inn, unaware of his nightmare existence.

The ordeal of 32-year-old Bernard J. Blechars, a Detroiter, ended Tuesday night. He was found by Bloomfield Hills police sitting on the curb of Woodward avenue just south of Long Lake road.

He weighed 80 pounds. Three months ago he was 170.

"I guess you're looking for me," Blechars told the partolman. "Well, here I am."

Blechars vanished from his Detroit room early in May, Detroit police records show that his former wife, Nancy Sue, 25, reported him missing on May 9.

When found, he had on the same clothes he wore when he left Detroit — a shirt, pants and shoes. Other than that, there was little. A set of old house keys. Fountain pen. Wrist watch.

3-MONTH BEARD

A three-month growth of beard covered his face. Dirt was matted in his hair and beard. The filthy clothes hung loosely o.. Blechars as on a living skeleton.

Blechars told police the strange story of his life in the swamp.

"I wanted to get away and think," he said. "I'm divorced. I was behind in my alimony payments. I was sure that the police were looking for me.

"I left my room in Detroit and walked up Woodward avenue until I came to this spot. It looked like a pretty good place to stay."

He built himself a rough shelter in the woods. He found a two-by-four plank and some wood siding which he placed against pine trees. Evergreen boughs served as a mattress.

A piece of plywood served as a blanket.

He had no coat in the woods. "It never was too chilly," he said.

Oddly enough, he had few mos-

Miss Universe Got Plastic Shot

Enlarge Beauty's Bosom

TOKYO (AP) — A Tokyo plastic surgeon said today he gave a bust-enlarging plastic injection to Akiko Kojima before she won the Miss Japan and Miss Universe contests.

"Miss Kojima is just one of many such Japanese beauties who received plastic surgeon's treatments.

"A number of famous Japanese actresses also received similar operations," Dr. Toshizo Matsui said in an interview.

He confirmed a Tokyo newspaper report that Miss Kojima, a Tokyo fashion model, had liquid plastic injected into her bosom at Matsui's hospital.

A spokesman for the newspaper Sankei Shimbun, sponsor of the Miss Japan contest, said the report is unfounded. "We have seen her for the past four years, and there was no need for her to get bust surgery of any kind," he said. "We are still studying the report."

The doctor said the 24-year-old beauty came to his clinic a short time before the Miss Japan contest in June. He said he didn't measure her bust, but when she won the Universe title in Long Beach, Calif., last month her statistics were 38-23-38.

TOKYO (AP) — Akiko Kojima's mother angrily denied today reports that the new Miss Universe had received a plastic surgery bust injection before leaving Japan. "It's a lie. I have never taken her to such a place," Mrs. Hisako Kojima said.

Committee OKs Housing Bill

Senate Group Makes Slight Concession to Ike in Revised Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Banking Committee today approved a substitute $1,050,000,000 housing bill with only one major concession to objections the administration had raised against an earlier version.

The committee acted promptly to get a new bill to the Senate floor less than 24 hours after failure of a Democratic effort to override President Eisenhower's veto of the original $1,375,000,000 measure sent to him in June.

However, the full banking group accepted almost without change the substitute bill written last week by its housing subcommittee.

Earlier Story Page 45

Rejected 8-7 was an effort of Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn) to eliminate the 50 million dollar loan program for college classroom facilities.

DEFEAT 2ND MOVE

The committee defeated 9-4 another Bush motion to knock out a 50 million dollar program of direct loans for housing for the elderly.

The one concession made today was to put the classroom program, which is a new type of activity not hitherto entered into by the government, on an appropriation basis.

At is was approved previously, this program was to use back-door financing to which Eisenhower objects strenuously. Under this procedure, the funds come directly from the treasury without going through the appropriations process.

The full committee also kept in the bill the 37,000 new public housing units approved by the subcommittee; the administration had asked for no new units.

Stranahan's 68 Leads Motor City Tourney

Frank Stranahan, muscular professional from Crystal River, Fla., fired a three under par 68 today to take an early lead in the first round of the Motor City Open golf tournament at Meadowbrook Country Club. Stranahan, heir to an industrial fortune, posted 34 strokes on each nine.

There seemed very little chance that Stranahan's 68 would stand up under an opening day barrage over the par 35-36—71 Meadowbrook course. All of the nation's leading money winners were still

Why Did Youth Rebel? Officials Seek Answers

Believe Slain Boy, 15, Was Plotting Revenge Against Supervisor

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Did Robert R. Martin return to the Oakland County Youth Home Tuesday evening hoping to carry out a threat against a supervisor there who had disciplined him for stealing food from the home's kitchen?

Robert L. Cover, the supervisor, thinks not.

Closing their investigation into the shooting, authorities said they could come up with no other explanation for Martin's savage behavior.

"All information leads to the conclusion that the slaying of the boy, while tragic, was justified," said Jerome K. Barry, assistant prosecutor.

Martin, 15, was killed Tuesday night by a State Police trooper's bullet as he led a posse of 30 officers through woods and swampland in West Bloomfield Township after shooting at children at the Youth Home, 7350 Cooley Lake Rd.

Cover, head supervisor at the home, today recalled how Martin, once confined to the home, threatened his life after Cover prohibited him from attending a coed dance at the home after he was caught breaking into the kitchen.

But Cover, 36, of 2446 Georgeland St., Waterford Township, put little weight to the threat, saying, "Martin's favorite threat was, 'I'm going to get you'." He said he also threatened Roy Gray, a supervisor at the Children's Center, and a woman staff member at the Youth Home.

Cover said he and others put little credence on the threats, although realizing that Martin was "an emotionally disturbed youth."

He said after the punishment, handed out about a month ago before Martin was returned to the Children's Center, Martin made the threat. Cover said he played along, asking how he intended doing it.

Negroes Attend With Little Stir by Opposition

Riot Yesterday Broken by Policemen's Clubs, Fire Hoses

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Three Negro girls strolled back into Hall High School for a second day of integration there today with only a slight stir from segregationists.

"Integration is communism" and "we are for Faubus."

The 25 policemen standing by paid no attention to the car which did not stop.

Three white boys were arrested near Central High School. They drove up in a convertible with Confederate flags attached to it. Police seized a rubber hose weighted at the end with brass, a tire tool and a lug wrench.

Otherwise, the segregationists were quiet. Officers used clubs and fire hose on some 200 men, women and children near Central High School Wednesday to break up a mass protest.

Central reopens at 1 p.m. for its second day of integration. Only one Negro, Jefferson Thomas, 16, is expected there today. Elizabeth Eckford went the first day only to consult her counselor.

The three Negro girls walked into Hall at 9:26 a.m., four minutes after school opened.

They came up in a black Cadillac driven by a Negro man. A Negro woman was in the front seat and the three girls were in the back.

The car moved up in the regular line of traffic, cars bumper to bumper with police directing them. The Negroes' car stopped at a corner 150 yards from the school's front door.

The Negro girls walked down the street, crossed a driveway and walked into the school.

Ten white boys came out on the front porch of the school. They sat on a railing as the Negro girls approached but they said nothing to them as they went in.

'THERE THEY ARE'

Effie Jones, 17, wore a tight green dress. Elsie Robinson was in a blue dress and Estella Thompson wore a red skirt and white blouse. Both Elsie and Estella are 16.

"Whoo — there they are," one white girl said as the Negroes stepped out of the car.

There were no spectators except for a half dozen residents who live nearby. They stood in their front yards watching.

Within five minutes after school opened, traffic had died down and most of the police had left.

Bill Supported by Broomfield

Puts Backing Behind the Landrum-Griffin Labor Reform Measure

Congressman William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland County) today went on record endorsing the Landrum-Griffin labor reform bill.

"I'm convinced this is the minimum bill necessary to root out corruption, extortion and misuse of power by some officials in the labor movement," Broomfield told The Pontiac Press.

"It will offer protection to union members, employers and the general public alike from those who are attempting to pervert the legitimate aims of labor for their own gain," Broomfield continued.

With one of three labor reform bills already voted down by the House of Representatives yesterday, it was expected that a showdown might come on the Landrum-Griffin bill sometime today. It has the backing of President Eisenhower.

It is sponsored by Rep. Robert P. Griffin (R-Traverse City) and Phil M. Landrum (D-Ga).

Broomfield, in endorsing the bill, said:

Labor Control Battle Could Go Any Way

WASHINGTON (AP) — The outcome of the bitter House battle over labor racketeering controls hung on a razor-thin balance today.

The result could be determined in a quick windup before nightfall—or drag on indefinitely. A half dozen votes could decide the issue.

The issue rested between a bill backed by Democratic leaders as a middle ground approach, and a more stringent measure personally supported by President Eisenhower.

As tempers flared, the House Wednesday defeated by an overwhelming 245-132 vote a measure carrying the official endorsement of the AFL-CIO and most other organized labor groups.

Sponsored by Rep. John F. Shelley (D-Calif), the labor-supported bill skirted the issues of bans on secondary boycotts, "hot cargo" agreements, and other points stressed by the President as essential to effective labor legislation.

Its defeat had been a foregone conclusion. Both Democratic and Republican leaders opposed it as failing to meet the test of anti-racketeering curbs.

The House also killed, by a 215-160 vote, an amendment proposed by Rep. Adam Caltyon Powell (D-NY) to prohibit segregation or denial of union rights on grounds of race, creed, color or national origin.

Critics charged the Powell amendment was designed to kill

The Last of a Great Year

Pontiac Motor Division Ends '59 Model Run

The final car rolling off the production line was the 383,320th of the year, announced S. E. Knudsen, Pontiac general manager and vice president of General Motors Corp.

Total 1959 cars built represented a 76.4 per cent increase over the 217,303 cars produced during the 1958 model run, Knudsen said.

At one point during the production year, Pontiac was setting a record pace. Its volume of output was third highest in the auto industry.

At the end of last month, Pontiac's position was fourth—leader of the medium priced field.

Attention at the plant has turned to the 1960 model. It is scheduled for production early next month, said Knudsen. Assembly line operations are to resume Sept. 2, he said.

Pension Action Angers Lodge

Judge Doty Refused Stipend Due to 'Rotten Front Office' Is Charge

Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty will be deprived of a pension because of "rottenness in the front office" when he retires from the bench the end of this year after 32 years of service, Sen. L. Harvey Lodge charged today.

He also spoke of "intimidations" and said the threat of a gubernatorial veto was "damnable."

The senator was assailing a conference committee version of a judges' pension bill that opened the way for benefits to a few aging judges and widows of others but slammed the door shut on Judge Doty.

He said the "front office" intimated the bill would be vetoed unless provision for Doty was excised, and that this was done. After Lodge spoke, the Senate and House adopted the conference report.

Lodge pictured Doty as a "distinguished" jurist who had served 32 years, passed up a chance to retire on a pension and now sought a second opportunity.

The judge said Sen. Lodge informed him sometime ago that he was going to seek the pension for him. "I said all right," the judge said.

Sen. Basil Brown (D-Detroit) said he had "little sympathy for a judge who is presumed to know the law, makes a decision to forego a pension and then wants to change the law."

Curtiss-Wright Set to Build Floating Cars

NEW YORK (AP)—Curtiss-Wright Corp. today said it will produce cars which travel on air.

A company spokesman said production at its South Bend, Ind., plant would start in November but the rate had not been set. He added the cars would not be sold to the public at this time, but would be offered to industries.

The company's "air car" travels on a cushion of low pressure, low velocity compressed air. It is a 300 horsepower, two engine vehicle which carries four passengers.

The 21 by 8 foot car has reached maximum speed of 60 miles an hour. It has no wheels, transmission or clutches.

The company said the car would move over unpaved land, water or swamps or any unobstructed terrain 6 to 12 inches off the ground.

DOCTOR HELPED — Miss Universe, Akiko Kojima, 22, of Tokyo appears delighted with the beauty crown she won with the help of an injection of plastic into her bosom. A Tokyo plastic surgeon claims he performed the painful operation on the new title-holder, stating that she is just one of the Japanese beauties that have had the same treatment.

SURGERY PAINFUL

The newspaper Sports Nippon reported: "The operation is simple but painful. A coffee cupful of liquid plastic is injected into the bosom. In order not to injure the bosom, the injection is done by one shot. The operation takes only one hour with local anesthetics. When the anesthetic wears off, the part aches."

Sponsor of Labor Bill

J. A. Griffins Proud of Politico-Son Bob

Be patient with the J. A. Griffins of Pontiac if you're talking to them and their thoughts turn to Washington and the current move toward a labor reform bill.

More than an ordinary interest is involved. They have a son thick in the middle of the political battle.

Rep. Robert P. Griffin (R-Traverse City) has sponsored one of two bills under consideration along with Rep. Phil M. Landrum (D-Ga). The Griffin-Landrum bill has President Eisenhower's backing.

"Mr. Griffin and I are following every step," Mrs. Griffin said. She said they beamed with pride the other night when their son debated his bill on television.

Mrs. Griffin was asked if she believed her son's bill would pass. "I have an awful lot of confidence in everything he does. Since he was a small child he succeeded in everything he attempted," she answered proudly.

Her attorney son never actually made his home in Pontiac. Most of the time after his parents settled here in 1941 Bob was away at Central Michigan University. During his summer vacations and holidays he used to work at a local plant, as his father does now.

Mrs. Griffin, of 987 Argyle Ave., said her 35-year-old son calls regularly to keep them posted on the goings-on regarding his labor reform bill.

This in turn is passed along to Bob's brother, Eugene and his wife, who live at 5204 Cooley Lake Rd., Waterford Township. A sister, Mrs. Albert Foster Jr. lives in Pontiac.

Admitting that she is "a little excited" about Bob being in the middle of the extremely important congressional action, Mrs. Griffin said also, "I think he is doing a great service. It is going to help everyone."

to insure adequate wages and working conditions for their members. They have helped to insure for our people the highest standard of living of any nation in the world.

"These unions need not fear the Landrum-Griffin bill.

"This is not an issue of a hard or soft stand against the interests of organized labor," he said. "It is an issue of a hard or soft stand against criminals who have infiltrated the ranks of some of these unions."

The House today was into its third day of debate on labor reform, one of the most controversial and important subjects to come before Congress in recent history.

"Congress must provide protection against the Johnny Dio locals, the hot cargo agreements and the freezing out of legitimate businesses by secondary boycotts," the Royal Oak lawmaker stressed.

ONLY SATISFACTORY ONE

"Of the three bills offered to the House on this subject, only the Landrum-Griffin bill will accomplish these objectives and still leave the legitimate goals of legitimate unions intact and unhampered," Broomfield said.

He Wanted Attention but Changed Mind Later

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—All he wanted to do, said Arthur Bostian, was attract attention to Gov. John Patterson's fight against loan sharks. But police were unsympathetic. He was charged with malicious mischief after a garbage can was thrown through the plate glass window of a downtown loan company.

quito bites. Police said the dirt on his body was so thick the mosquitoes apparently didn't bother with him.

Doctors were amazed that he had no other illnesses. They said if he ate the food and drank what he said he did he should have been in much worse condition.

Police at first were skeptical when he told them he was 32. He looked more like 55, they said.

QUITS THE WOODS

Blechars said he deliberately left the woods Monday evening. He wanted to be picked up.

"I've had enough," he said.

Blechars was employed as a shipping and receiving clerk at the Black & Decker Manufacturing Co. in Detroit until he quit May 2.

He had worked there for six years and, according to his boss, was a steady, reliable worker.

"He was the type of person other workers set their watches by," said the boss.

BOTHERED BY DIVORCE

His boss said that Blechars' divorce had had a noticeable effect on him. "He started taking off a day here, a day there. Last December he took a week off. He said he was suffering from ulcers.

"Then in May he said he was leaving. That was the last I heard of him."

His former wife's grandmother, Mrs. Sue Clark of Detroit, said that Blechars was mentally disturbed.

She believes "something" happened to his mind as a result of spending 22 months on a small island in the South Pacific with two other Marines in World War II.

"I don't believe he's ever gotten over that," she said.

Mrs. Clark said that her granddaughter married Blechars October 10, 1954, separated from him Sept. 9, 1957, and divorced him July 21, 1958.

The Blechars had one child, Jill, 4, who is with her mother.

Mrs. Clark said that Blechars sometimes "became violent" and beat his wife.

"That's why there was the divorce," she said.

"He used to tell me he couldn't stand being divorced and threatened to commit suicide," Mrs. Clark said.

Mrs. Clark said that the Blechars tried to save their marriage by seeing a psychiatrist.

Because Blechars didn't believe in psychiatry, she said, the meetings were useless.

Blechars' former wife said last night she hoped for reconciliation and remarriage.

She said he would be transferred as soon as possible to the Veterans Hospital in Dearborn.

The Day in Birmingham

Visiting Ohio Youth, 14, Falls From School Roof

BIRMINGHAM — A 14-year-old Ohio boy, visiting relatives in Birmingham, was to be released from William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, today after suffering fractures of wrists and an ankle Monday in a fall from the roof of the Seaholm High School.

The boy, James Johnston, son of Mrs. Marie Johnston of Strongville, Ohio, had been visiting his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnston, of 385 Golfview Dr., Birmingham.

James and his cousin, David Johnston, 13, had climbed to the high school roof when James slipped and fell to the sidewalk below.

Contractor Mike Herabedian of Birmingham will install concrete crosswalks across village parkways at the northwest, southwest and southeast corners of Fairfax and Amherst roads in Beverly Hills.

His $367 bid was the only one offered Beverly Hills Village Board, although officials said a concerted effort had been made to get several estimates.

The crosswalks will serve children attending the Greenfield School.

George Roeper, director of City and County School for Gifted Children, Bloomfield Hills, will leave Saturday for a five-week educational field study of Japan, Korea, Hong Kong and Manila.

He will join 20 teachers from U.S. schools as part of the delegation of the Comparative Education Society.

The purpose of the delegation, says Roeper, is to study the public and private educational systems and the training of teachers in the respective countries.

The American envoys will talk with education authorities and visit classrooms to speak with the pupils.

"I want to study specifically to what degree the systems in these countries provide for the education of gifted children," says Roeper.

The school director will return to Bloomfield Hills on Sept. 22 and report on his trip. Roeper's last field study as a delegate was to Russia.

itol where Gov. Orval E. Faubus told them it was pointless to get "beaten on the head."

But they marched anyway, meeting some 25 to 30 police head-on and shouting "Cowards" at them. Twenty-four arrests were made.

Inside the schools themselves, all was normal Wednesday.

Students said it was just like any other opening school day. The school board agreed.

Jefferson Thomas, however, sensed the white resentment against him.

He said the white students ignored him but "I am accustomed to going places where nobody talks."

The segregationists had no plans for another rally today or if they did they weren't talking about them.

Thomas is a veteran of integration at Central High School in 1957-58. Mob violence broke out then, too, but finally order was enforced by federal troops called out by President Eisenhower.

The three Negro girls at Hall are new to integration. But they reported they had no trouble Wednesday.

"Everything was okay," Elsie said of first day classes.

The violence at Central broke out after the crowd marched from the capitol rally to within a block of Central. Police Chief Gene Smith shouted for them to disperse.

When they didn't the police moved in on them with clubs. Several men were struck over the head. A fire truck stood by and Smith ordered a hose turned on the crowd. The crowd broke and re-formed later, but this time it only jeered and held back.

Three teen-agers were arrested at the rally and 21 at the outburst near Central. The boys were picked up after Smith said he found nine tear gas bombs in their car. Since they were on state property, they were turned over to state police.

effective labor legislation by injecting civil rights issues. After a brief but sharp skirmish, the House agreed.

As battle was joined today, leaders estimated 10 or 15 undecided members held the balance of power in the teetering struggle over passage o fa "tough" or "moderate" bill designed to insure the democratic rights of union members, require unions and employers to report their financial dealings, and cope with such disputed matters as boycotts, "blackmail" picketing and the duties of the National Labor Relations Board in minor side-line disputes.

Democratic strategy aimed at eventual passage of the "middle road" bill drafted by the House Labor Committee—was to give preliminary approval to the "tough" Eisenhower proposals and then kill them finally on a showdown roll-call vote placing members on record.

With such strategy, Democratic leaders hoped to create a parliamentary situation which would leave the House with no choice but to accept the committee bill or go on record as refusing to approve any curbs at all on labor racketeering. Few members were ready to take the latter alternative.

But Democrats were frankly risking their chances on the possibility the House would reject the Eisenhower-backed bill, just as it crushed the labor-backed measure.

With no bill left to consider but the in-between committee compromise, the House was faced with the prospect of an almost endless barrage of amendments that could keep the issue alive for an indefinite period. The result conceivably could be defeat of any form of labor legislation.

Officials Analyze Martin's Trouble

naturedly, Cover said he asked whether he'd use a gun or paper wad. "Probably a bow and arrow," Cover said Martin answered.

Another boy at the home, John Pipkin, 17, of Ferndale, yesterday told Barry in a statement that Martin had told him he was "going to get Mr. Cover."

Pipkin and another youth, Daniel Wood, 16, told Barry how they pursued Martin Tuesday evening after he pulled into a parking lot behind the Youth Home in a stolen car. They said the only conversation they had with Martin was Martin's greeting of "Hi there, boys."

Realizing that the youths and a counselor, Truman Felkner, were attempting to return him to the home, Martin apparently panicked, attempted to flee in the car which stalled, and then climbed a small hill behind the home, loading a stolen .38 revolver as he went. Pipkin and Wood said they recall hearing one shot fired at them. No one was hit.

Then Martin started his wild flight which ended in a swamp on the north shore of Union Lake. He was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital. He was shot in the head.

"All evidence points to the fact that Martin was killed by the trooper in the line of duty," Barry said.

Cover, a supervisor for three years, said Martin might have returned to the home to show off. He said earlier Tuesday he passed some youths from the home taking driver education road tests, tooting his horn, and also "showing off" his stolen car by driving past the Center, 2050 Telegraph Rd.

"I'm morally certain he held no malice against anyone—the boys or girls, counselors, or myself," Cover said.

He said Martin's past led him to believe he wasn't there to turn himself in. He had been AWOL from the Center since Sunday.

Martin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl W. Martin, 6735 Alden Dr., West Bloomfield Township.

The funeral will be Saturday at 1 p.m. at the Manley-Bailey Funeral Home in Birmingham. Burial will be in Pine Lake Cemetery.

Besides his parents, Martin is survived by a brother, Karl Jr., and two sisters, Marcia and Denise.

This Emerson Has Different Angle on Books

Emerson, no relation to the famed author, is charged with selling books without a permit.

The book is the Bible.

He will be tried in Mount Clemens Municipal Court Aug. 20.

Hoover Urges Safety Devices

FBI Chief Says Banks Can Help Prevent Many Robberies

WASHINGTON (UPI) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover disturbed by an "alarming increase" in bank robberies and burglaries, urged the nation's financial institutions today to make a special effort to thwart such crimes.

Hoover made the appeal in a six-page letter sent to all banking institutions and savings and loan associations subject to FBI investigation.

"In the past several months," he wrote, "there has been an alarming increase in violations of the federal bank robbery and incidental crime statute."

He reported 443 such violations in the 1957 fiscal year, 631 in fiscal 1958, and a record 764 bank breakins and other violations in the 1959 fiscal year.

In view of this "upsurge" Hoover spelled out certain preventative measures and recommended various safety devices. He also outlined a number of steps in which each banking house could help the FBI and police in their investigations.

He called for regular testing of alarm and safety devices and careful observations of loiterers. He also recommended that banks vary their opening, closing and lunchhour routines.

He urged officials to verify the authority of strange workmen seeking access to the premises.

He said banks should keep a minimum amount of cash in the teller's cages, and always lock vaults and entrance ways upon closing.

As security devices, the FBI chief specifically recommended silent alarm systems connected to local police or protection service, bullet proof glass at all tellers' windows, automatic photography systems and tear gas installations.

They Learn Russian to Read Journals

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—Research scientists at half a dozen pharmaceutical and electronic firms in New Jersey saw a wealth of technical information available in the hundreds of Soviet scientific journals that enter the United States.

The big problem was how to translate them. Instructors from several colleges in the state are now conducting Russian language classes in company conference rooms.

NEW TWIST — Reps. William Ayres (R-Ohio), (left), and Phil Landrum (D-Ga) gag it up with twists of torn paper representing the many amendments proposed to labor-management control bills being considered by the House in Washington. The House is now engaged in debate on an administration-backed bill branded as 'tough' by union leaders. Both Ayers and Landrum are members of the House Labor Committee.

He: Forget Past . . . Forge Ahead

She: Living Comfortable Enough

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—Ann Jolson is one of the wealthiest women in the United States. Laugh cynically if you will, but she has had a difficult time adjusting to it.

A BIG NEW CAR!

"You see," she said slowly, with puzzled eyes, "in America—which I love most—it is expected that if you have money you should have a great house and a big new car.

"This is expected, even if you are shocked at the idea of selling a car which you like and which has only a few thousand miles on it. This is expected, even if your best friends do not have great houses."

She smiled gently. "For me, it was quite enough what I had. Living comfortable is wonderful and enough. And when everybody said, oh you must have all these things, I said why? And they said, because these are what you must have if you have the money.

"So finally, after many, many discussions, I decide to keep quiet. What I think will not change the world, and that's how it is."

To understand Mrs. Jolson's curious fight against material possessions, it is best one knows her story.

During World War II, she, a Polish Jew, was living in the Warsaw Ghetto. She escaped death only because she possessed forged papers which declared her to be Gentile.

Her mother and father died in a crematorium. Her friends simply "fell away from the earth."

Her husband, Leon Jolson, managed to escape from a Nazi concentration camp after being condemned to the gas chamber. He found Ann hiding in a farm, and together they interred themselves in a tiny room "which was all walls and no window" for 22 months.

They had a short-wave radio. And they traded information from nightly BBC broadcasts to a member of the Polish underground in exchange for enough food to live on.

ONLY HER HUSBAND

Ann was only 21 when she entered the room, but she had lost everything except her husband. He, too, had lost everything: His parents and his sister and his successful business. "I had only my husband left," she remembers, "and this was all I ever really cared for since."

Leon, on the other hand, dreamed of the day when he would get out—and get ahead.

"He would make plans for what he was going to do," she says wistfully, "and I would tear them up. I guess you call it superstitutious. Every plan we had made before the war had been explosioned. Whenever we would say, 'Let's do this'— the Germans would knock at the door.

"Even today, I refuse to plan. I do not want to build a house; just buy one, and move in. We do not even plan a vacation. We just, one morning, go."

After the Russians moved into Poland, Ann and Leon Jolson moved out of their room. In 1947 they came to the U. S., arriving with about $20 cash and Jolson's dreams.

They found a $50 a month apartment in the Bronx. Ann got a job as a seamstress in a brassiere factory, while her husband went from door to door, repairing sewing machines.

Then a few months later, planning behind her back, he borrowed $2,000 to import four Necchi sewing machines from Italy and opened a distributorship. The rest is business history: In a short time, Jolson was rich; today his business is $50 million a year.

"He did this, my husband, because his motto is 'Forget the past—forget what you have lost and start afresh'." Ann's pretty face clouded.

Alabama Teens Want Nikita to Go to Church

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—A group of Mobile teen-agers wants Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to go to church when he visits this country.

The youngsters today wrote President Eisenhower, "as our representative of a peace loving and Christian nation," to ask his help.

The letter was signed by Wanda Counts, 16, president of the Senior High Fellowship of the Government Street Presbyterian Church here.

She wrote that several places have been suggested for Khrushchev to visit, "but there has been no mention of taking him to church . . ."

The President was told the Soviet leader should "return home knowing that we not only have military power, but also something far stronger—the power and love of God."

Here Are Major Differences:

House Debating Three Labor Bills

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here are the major differences in the three labor bills under debate in the House:

Committee bill, backed by Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex)—Guarantees rights to union members. If these are violated, members must seek a remedy in union channels for six months before going into court. No criminal penalties are provided;

Directs the National Labor Relations Board to take jurisdiction over all labor disputes;

Bans some forms of hot cargo agreements, under which carriers are prohibited from handling products of a company engaged in a labor dispute. No other form of secondary boycott is dealt with.

Landrum-Griffin bill, backed by President Eisenhower — Guarantees right to union members. If violated by a union official, he would be liable to two years in jail and a $10,000 fine;

Authorizes the states to handle labor disputes over which the NLRB declines jurisdiction;

Shelley bill, backed by AFL-CIO—Guarantees rights to union members. If these are violated, members must seek a remedy in union channels for nine months before going to court. No criminal penalties are provided;

Direct the NLRB to take jurisdiction over all labor disputes;

Makes no change in existing law on secondary boycotts.

German Freighter and Red Destroyer Crash

KIEL, Germany (AP)—A small German coastal freighter and a Soviet destroyer collided in a fog near Kiel in the western Baltic today, but the crew of the German ship plugged the hole in their vessel.

The German ship was the 300-ton Christel. The name of the Soviet ship was not known. It resumed a westbound course in company with two other warships, and it was not known if she had been damaged.

Fans Behind Curtain Like Good Music

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra says audiences behind the Iron Curtain are more receptive to good music than those of Europe or Israel.

Eugene Ormandy adds that audiences in Russia and other Iron Curtain nations often cheered for 30 minutes after recent Philadelphia Orchestra concerts.

Ormandy's observations were made in a recent letter from Europe, where he is vacationing, to C. Wanton Balis Jr., president of the Philadelphia Orchestra Assn.

Population Takes Drop

OKLAHOMA CITY—Population of Oklahoma decreased by about 2.7 per cent between the census of 1950 and July 1, 1954.

Man Like, I Say Chaps

PRINCETON, England (UPI)—Inmates of Dartmoor Prison are beginning to look like beatniks. They are growing beards to protest a ruling by prison authorities that until the current drought ends there will be no more showers and two men must use the same bath water.

Laos Crisis Could Be Lever

China to Force Way Into Summit?

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China, eager to sit at any future summit table, may be preparing to deepen the military crisis in the little Southeast Asian Kingdom of Laos.

This could be at least one meaning of the sharpened propaganda tone by both Peiping and Communist North Viet Nam against Laos and its big Western protectors, particularly the United States.

The Chinese might hope to promote a limited jungle war in Northern Laos, and thus fan world fears of a renewal of the Indochina conflict that ended in 1954. This could make their presence at any summit conference a matter of urgency.

Peiping took a similar step, last year, stirring up the Formosa crisis by bombarding the off-shore Nationalist Quemoy Islands. This followed Mao Tze-tung's apparent disapproval of a summit meeting at the United Nations — where Communist China would not have been represented. The meeting was never held.

NOT DIRECTLY

The Chinese are not likely to become involved directly with their own armed forces in Laos.

They probably would continue to rely on troops from North Viet Nam and the Communist-led Pathet Lao in Northern Laos.

The Vietnamese already have prepared the outside world for the possibility they will join the fight officially. Premier Pham Van Dong and his vice minister of defense, Ta Quan Bun, issued weekend statements warning they would consider North Viet Nam's security threatened if any foreign power stepped into the conflict.

New warnings were sounded today that the United States was getting more deeply involved in Laos.

A small war in the jungles of Northern Laos, with the North Vietnamese taking part, would help Peiping assess American policy toward Indochina now that new hands guide the U.S. State Department.

It could also tell the Chinese whether the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization really means to keep its pledge of protecting Laos. The Communists have been ridiculing SEATO as a "paper tiger" for years.

For the past six months Peiping and Hanoi have assailed Premier Phoui Sananikone's emerging pro-American government in Laos.

MILD TONE

But the tone of their denunciations was mild compared to those following Sananikone's decision to permit U.S. and French military technicians to train the Laotian army.

While they are anxious to attend a summit meeting, the Chinese Reds have not shown any great enthusiasm for this fall's exchange of visits between Soviet Premier Khrushchev and President Eisenhower.

Peiping probably fears that an easing of U.S.-Soviet relations could (1) damage its own cold war position with Moscow and (2) increase difficulties at home.

The cost of locating oil in the United States today is about six and one-half times as great as to 1939.

Camel Casualty Doesn't Daunt Train Engineer

Mathis telephoned this terse report to the dispatcher.

"Train No. 15 hit a camel at Belleville and broke one of its legs."

The dispatcher decided he wouldn't be outdone. He replied:

Mathis, remaining factual, answered:

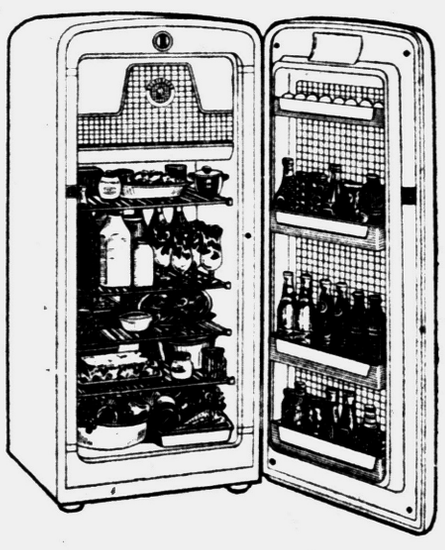

"It has a hump on its back and does not have a trunk."

TVA'S Financing Bill Approved by President

For the first time since 1953 the 25-year-old Tennessee Valley Authority is assured adequate financing for its power modernization and expansion needs.

President EISENHOWER approved a bill for self-financing and TVA will now begin to repay with interest the $1.2 billion Federal investment in its power facilities. The measure was threatened by a provision for Congressional review of TVA projects.

However, this has been resolved and the Authority will manage its own affairs within carefully defined limits and without interference of Congress or the President.

TVA now is authorized to raise $750 million through bond issues. This money will be used to finance new steam generating equipment to keep up with the ever increasing demand within its newly restricted area.

More than half of all kilowatt-hours sold goes to Federal agencies among them the Atomic Energy Commission. Farms and homes have benefited immeasurably from improved living conditions and the whole Tennessee Valley area, embracing parts of seven states, has been greatly benefited by the vast development.

The present solution to further financing seems to be a simple and businesslike way of letting TVA handle its own affairs without Federal aid. Michigan's Senators Hart and McNamara voted for the bill.

Royal Family Will Find New Happiness

All papers in England seem to be adding their congratulations and tributes to the Queen following the news that she is expecting another child. Coming right on the heels of her recent visit here, the news has a much more personal meaning. The PRESS hastens to add our best wishes to the Queen and to Prince PHILIP.

In an editorial entitled, "The Happy Event," The Daily Mail writes: "We can see now what an ordeal it must have been for her. Many, with the Queen's excuse, would have given up on the trip and none could have blamed her."

The Daily Sketch writes: "This is a day to feel sentimental and not to be ashamed of, for who is to decry a bit of sentimentality over the birth of a new baby to the Queen we hold in such affection?"

We think most Americans feel that this is good news not only because a third child will strengthen the dynasty but because the event should bring new happiness to the Queen and her husband.

They have succeeded uncommonly well in the difficult task of maintaining something like a normal family life in the midst of performing their public duties exceptionally well.

Makes Cause for Veneration

In the gigantic oak tree at the corner of Rush and Letts Roads in Oakland Township our county's oldest living thing appears to have been found.

Member of that sturdy tree family in whose honor our county was named, this massive patriarch of the forest primeval causes a hark back of several hundred years.

The oaks are slow growers, and this tree was more than a sapling when Columbus discovered America.

It had withstood a few hundred of our winters, and its green leaves and acorns had blessed as many summers when Chief Pontiac's warriors roamed these parts.

It perhaps had passed its prime when the Revolutionary war was fought.

It was too large to be profitably removed when the white man cleared its vicinity, and agriculture started here.

It has been a silent sentinel through countless generations of mere man and his supposedly long life.

What a trifle is four score years and ten to this monarch of the forest.

In fact, hasn't it seen most of the world grow from barbarity to civilization?

Verily, isn't it a privilege to live in an area favorable to such a growth and such a long life?

The thrill of just touching its bark, and sentimentally communing with it is worth a drive out there.

Follow Rochester Road north from that village five miles to Letts Road which is plainly marked. Then turn right for one mile — and there it is.

Journalism's Infantryman

David Lawrence Says:

Nikita Must See Our IDEALISM

WASHINGTON — What Nikita Khrushchev sees and learns on his forthcoming visit to the United States could have dangerous consequences. It could conceivably be the forerunner of war, just as the "summit" meeting between Chamberlain and Hitler at Munich in September 1938 was followed a year later by the outbreak of World War II.

Everything depends now, as it did then, on the reaction of the peoples of the democracies. The question really has passed, for the moment, out of the hands of the government at Washington.

LAWRENCE

If Khrushchev comes to the conclusion after his visit that the American people are so steeped in luxuries and comforts and so engrossed in material pursuits that they will be ready to make peace at any price, the temptation for the Moscow dictator will be to take chances just as Hitler did, and war—at first "limited" and then general—becomes a serious possibility.

Conversely, if the American people show that they have courage and are willing to make sacrifices for ideals, even to the point of losing some day many of their comforts and their luxuries—as they have done three times in the wars of the last half-century—then maybe the Moscow dictator will not miscalculate or take chances, and a world war will be avoided.

Unfortunately, the emphasis, since the trip was first announced, has been on the supposed importance of showing Khrushchev the many fine homes of our workers, or the number of automobiles in the factory parking lots, or the other material things that a rich country can boast.

Little has been said about how the American people should express their idealism or their sense of horror over the murders and tragedies for which the tyrannical government of the Soviet Union has been responsiblie in its iron-handed rule over hundreds of millions of people.

Should the American people remain silent, or should they become articulate? The question is being debated quietly in the corridors of Congress.

This is a nation where free speech is enjoyed on international as well as national questions. Members of Congress are asking each other frankly what ought to be done by the national legislature itself. Some have thought it would be best to adjourn, so as to avoid the necessity of welcoming Khrushchev at any session of Congress. But, upon reflection, others think this would be failing to take advantage of a big opportunity to debate before the world the very issues that Khrushchev himself has again and again discussed in public.

If a Khrushchev speech to a joint session of both houses of Congress were arranged for, it could mean that President Eisenhower would be given an opportunity to address the Soviet Parliament when he goes to Moscow later this autumn. This would help to get the American point of view across to the Soviets as never before.

If the Soviet Premier is invited to make an address to Congress, time, of course, should be set aside also for those senators and representatives who wish to make clear to the American people and to the people of all the world that there has been no backing away by the United States from the positions taken on the issues raised in recent years by Communist imperialism.

The whole story of what the Soviet Union has done to upset world peace since 1945 is well documented, but it is not well enough known. At least two days immediately following Khrushchev's visit to Congress might well be given over entirely in each house to speeches publicizing the American point of view toward the "Cold War" which was started by the Moscow government.

Many members of Congress would like the opportunity to tell what has happened to the "captive nations" and also to describe the many instances of subversion and infiltration which have been financed by the Moscow regime, not only inside Europe, Africa and Asia, but also in the many countries of North and South America.

Countering this form of aggression has cost the free world billions of dollars, apart from defense expenses. Indeed, no democracy in the world will be safe as long as the autocratic government in Moscow continues its worldwide tactics of attempted conquest.

The Country Parson

"People fired with enthusiasm may burn themselves out—but at least they won't decay."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Important to Immunize for Tetanus, Smallpox

A California reader writes, "My experience in raising puppies is that we were all bitten so frequently that, had we not previously had tetanus toxoid, it would have been impractical to have the antitoxin on the occasion of each bite. As you have advised, we all had a prophylactic injection of tetanus antitoxin as part of the first aid treatment of wound by tooth or talon.

DR. BRADY

I wonder why you don't advise that everyone receive a tetanus toxoid series with booster injections at regular intervals and both booster injection and 1,500 to 3,000 units of antitoxin as first aid treatment of a wound. — (Signed) H.D.A."

If the bite punctures or breaks the skin, tetanus toxoid immunization, plus the injection of antitoxin at the time of the wound, is good treatment.

Immunization means injection of 0.5 cc (about 7 drops) each of diptheria and tetanus toxoids at monthly intervals for three months, starting preferably when the baby is 3 months old. A fourth injection of diptheria - tetanus toxoid, (0.5cc) at the age of one year and a fifth at the age of 3 years.

It is routine practice to combine pertussis bacterin (whooping cough "vaccine") with diptheria-tetanus toxoid for immunizing children. The evidence in favor of the use of whopping cough "vaccine" as a preventive or, as some doctors do, as a palliative after the illness has developed, is not adequate, in my judgement. The use of pertussis bacterin is a matter of opinion. I know of no harm from pertussis bacterin. It's just that I am not convinced of its value.

Every child should be vaccinated against smallpox some time before the child is a year old. If there is any question of the child's present fitness for vaccination, let your doctor decide.

Immunization against typhoid fever is advisable if an outbreak or epidemic of typhoid occurs in the community. It is necessary and usually compulsory before one travels out of the country.

I know nothing about immunization against poliomyelitis from personal observation or experience, so I can only give my best judgement from study of current medical literature. That is that every baby should receive the Salk vaccine at the earliest date the family physician will set.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Another Probable Reason for Juvenile Delinquency

Many people wonder what causes juvenile delinquency. Besides the reasons that have been discussed, I would like to add another.

Working at a candy counter in a dime store, I see many children with and without their parents. These children pick up candy in hopes their parents will buy it for them. The parent, saying he will buy it later, tells the child to replace the candy.

Often times, the child will hesitate momentarily. The parent will then answer the child's request, but will make no offer to pay for it or to buy more. Of course, the child returns for more.

Do these parents think that when the child is older that he will stop with just a little candy or a little stealing? Parents, train your child now for "As the twig is bent, the tree will grow."

'Leaving State Won't Be Free'

I agree with Violet Morehead's answer to complaining fathers. Mr. Leaving State will never be free whether or not he lives in Michigan.

You brought those children into this world and now you aren't man enough to face your responsibilities. So praise the next man who cares for them because alimony doesn't begin to foot all the expenses. I know, because I've been trying to care for my three for over four years and it hasn't been fun.

While you're counting your alimony, the other man is counting his blessings, feeding, clothing, and caring for your "Orphans of Divorce." Judge Beer said it was too easy to get a divorce. True, but I think if it wasn't so easy to get married there would be less divorces.

Ike's Last (17) Months May Be His Toughest

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — For President Eisenhower, now pushing 69, his last 17 months in office may be his toughest.

He looks well after his illnesses: A heart attack, a stomach operation, and a slight stroke.

But these next four months alone will be a grinding strain, certainly mentally, perhaps emotionally. He will be 69 Oct. 14 and over 70 when he leaves office Jan. 20, 1961.

Here's a sample of what's ahead:

1. Later this month he flies to Europe to consult American Allies on his mid-September meeting here with 65-year-old Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

2. Upon his return he will almost surely undergo intense briefings on world details in order to cope with the well - informed Khrushchev.

3. His conversations with the Soviet leader will be no cinch. Khrushchev is volatile, unpredictable, maybe erratic.

4. Eisenhower won't be free of worry about the Soviet's safety during his entire stay here. And Khrushchev may create other problems along the way.

5. Eisenhower, after talking with Khrushchev, may decide a summit meeting with him and Western leaders is needed quickly or later. That would mean more tension, preparation, and travel.

6. Before or after such a summit conference Eisenhower must visit Khrushchev in Moscow. More talks. That's part of their exchange-visit deal.

7. Meanwhile, Eisenhower must concern himself with the programs and budget he will offer Congress when it returns in January. They must be ready by then. His aides already are at work on them.

8. And in 1960, his last full year in office, he must do what he did this year: fight Congress for what he wants or be sidetracked.

9. Also in 1960 — according to his present thinking — he would like to travel to some other countries as a gesture of American goodwill.

10. And, since 1960 is the big political year of conventions, campaigns, and a presidential election, Eisenhower will get up to his neck in politics. He's bound to take some part in the campaign for a Republican president.

So his remaining time in office —now just a few days over 17 months—will be no frolic. In addition, there will be problems, maybe crises, unthought of now.

No wonder he plans, before leaving office, to recommend to Congress that new arrangements be made—perhaps special assistants —for future Presidents to relieve them of some of the burdens of the presidency.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

'Gold Dust' Not Only Thing to Job

Hank is at the vocational crossroads. Should he let the "gold dust" or the "star dust" persuade him? See how his attractive wife votes in the matter. And ask yourself if you'd turn down a $225 per week job in favor of one paying only $125? Discuss this in your church groups next Sunday.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

"But several of my superiors have been offered 50 per cent more money to come with one of the big liquor companies.

DR. CRANE

"And my boss wants me to go along. He says he will jump my pay $100 per week.

"Well, I now make $125 per week, so that means I'd get $225 each week.

"So don't you think I should go along with him? My wife says she'd rather have me stay where I am.

"But, Gee, that extra $100 per week would buy a lot of things for her and our little boy, wouldn't it?"

STAR DUST vs. GOLD DUST

Yes, the $100 would buy a lot of things. That's how Judas felt about those 30 pieces of silver.

"Man does not live by bread alone," Jesus stated.

And a good woman like Hank's wife has more hungers than just to replace a cloth coat with mink, or ritz the neighbors with a swankier car.

It's time young people realized that picking a career involves more than just the "gold dust" it may put into your pockets during your next 50 years.

You need to get "star dust" in your eyes when you select a lifetime career, and star dust is not related to the gold dust.

Star dust refers to the idealism that comes to the human spirit when you know you have contributed to man's greater happiness.

The time will ultimately arrive when you must retire, as at 65.

Then you will look back upon your contributions and assay your own worth. Dr. Albert Schweitzer, in Africa, has little gold dust: But his life has been rich in star dust.

Abraham Lincoln said he hoped it could be stated of him by his biographers that he had planted roses where thistles grew before.

That yearning is inherent in every human heart, for we all have a spark of idealism implanted in our human brains at birth.

That's what we psychologists mean by the star dust in contrast to the gold dust: Beware that the immediate greedy human desires don't make you sell out, like Esau.

When you have finished your career here on Earth, will you have increased human happiness and buoyed up the spirit of mankind, or will you have sold out your fellowmen by increasing their misery, auto wrecks, disease or degeneracy?

DON'T SELL OUT

Philip and Peter and Matthew stuck to the star dust. They were killed for their idealism, but they died happy. Quite a contrast to Judas.

In modern America, you will still live luxuriously even though you pick careers with star dust in your eyes.

For a teacher or clergyman or nurse or retail merchant or salesman of foodstuff or shoes or any other helpful products, makes a living that permits TV, an automobile, three meals per day and attractive clothes.

So Hank's $125 per week is ample for a happy living, as his wife realizes. And Hank can sleep better knowing he puts wholesome food into the tummies of kids and their parents, as an employe of his present food company.

So I voted with his wife. Send for my "Vocational Guidance Kit," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Use it to help pick a career that keeps the star dust in your eyes.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Seeks Cottontails for Growth Study

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Baby cottontail rabbits who want to live a leisurely old age are welcome in the hutches of biologist Rexford D. Lord.

Lord needs the wild rabbits for his growth-rate study, a part of a wildlife research program of the Illinois Natural History Survey.

Lord says rabbits in the wild live about five to six months. The longest he has kept a cottontail alive in captivity is 30 months.

Despite His Widespread Traveling

Lack of Tact Handicaps Mr. K

By The Associated Press

Nikita Khrushchev may be the most traveled Russian leader of modern times but, as an ambassador of good will, he has proven to be something less than a resounding success.

His past record and a notable lack of tact have been his main handicaps.

Since arriving on the top of the Kremlin heap, the balding, chunky Soviet premier has made at least 17 trips outside Russia, six of them beyond the Iron Curtain. The U. S. junket next month will be the 18th.

Khrushchev's first plunge into international travel took him to Yugoslavia in May, 1955, on a fence mending pilgrimage to Marshal Tito. He apologized to Tito for the latter's expulsion from the Comintern.

The trip also was designed to show the outside world that Russian leadership had changed since the days of the dour Stalin. Khrushchev, bursting with geniality, even wrestled with Anastas Mikoyan in a field.

Next, it was Geneva and the July, 1955, Summit Conference where he met President Eisenhower for the first time. The conference produced a spirit of good will which soon foundered on the rocks of reality.

A brief jaunt to satellite Romania in August, 1955, set the stage for a month-long tour of southern Asia with his sidekick, then-Premier Nikolai Bulganin. B & K they were called.

The man in the street in India received them with such warmth that they were prompted to take off on Western colonialism, to the embarrassment of the Indian government. The influential Hindustan Times accused them of "misusing their triumphal tour for blatant attacks" on the West.

The next stop for B & K was London in April, 1956, traveling man Khrushchev's closest brush with fiasco. When a British workman shook his fist at the visitors, Khrushchev burned.

"Never shake yuor fist at a Russian," he said in a later speech. Then he boastfully announced a new development in Russian hydrogen bombs. It didn't set at all well with the British.

Khrushchev was back in Yugoslavia the following September to discuss economic problems with Tito and take a short vacation with the Yugoslav dictator on the resort island of Brioni.

A month later, during a critical period of relations between Russia and her satellites, he paid a tense, hurried call on the Poles in an attempt to apply the brakes to a rising Polish nationalism.

His success was moderate. Under Wladyslaw Gomulka, an anti-Stalinist, Poland remained under Soviet domination but with an independence unheard of in the satellite world.

Next it was B & K, the roving Russians, in Finland, where the reception was as cool as the climate. Finnish President Urho Kekkonen told them bluntly: "Finland's foreign policy has been a policy of necessity."

Khrushchev returned to Moscow from Helsinki just in time to nip an attempt to overthrow him by the Malenkov-Molotov-Kaganovich combine. Like the western sheriff who has to show himself in the street to prove he hasn't lost his nerve, Khrushchev then skipped off to Czechslovakia.

Early 1958 was a period of fence-mending. There was a trip to Poland in January; Hungary in April; and Bulgaria in June. In Budapest, where an uprising had been crushed less than 18 months before, he had a warning for the West: "Don't step into anyone else's garden."

Khrushchev's most important travel in 1958 brought him to Peiping in August for a meeting with fellow Communist Mao Tse-tung. The hastily prepared conference set off diplomatic speculation around the world.

The Russian leader was on the verge of accepting a Summit Conference at the United Nations, where Nationalists hold the Chinese seat. Red China was loudly against it. The conference never came off.

Unanswered questions stemming from the Peiping meeting: Did Mao summon Khrushchev? Were there now two capitals of the Communist world?

Khrushchev has not been outside the Iron Curtain for the past year. He has been in East Germany, Albania, Hungary and Poland, apparently securing things for his biggest sally into the Free World —the United States in September.

This is a short connecting road leading to the famous church located in a vale near Nashua where thousands of couples have come to get married.

Loot Museum of Treasures

Cairo Missing Many Ancient Egyptian Relics From Displays

CAIRO (AP) — Investigators have discovered that the Cairo museum has been systematically looted of antique treasures. The remaining treasures of ancient Egypt have been sealed, and a check is being made to determine how much was stolen.

The robberies came to light when a touring Soviet professor noticed that one of King Tut-Ankh-Amen's scepters was missing from its display case. He counted only 10 when the sign said 11.

All points of exit from Egypt have been alerted against attempts to smuggle the sceptre or any other relics out of the country.

Small Loan Bill In for Repairs

Governor Objects to Figuring Interest at Start of Deal

LANSING (AP)—The controversial small loan bill was back in the Legislature today, returned for repairs to meet Gov. Williams' objections.

A Republican senator who moved to call it back from the governor's desk and an aide to Williams gave conflicting reports of his criticisms.

The bill would double the interest rate on loans in the $300 to $500 bracket, and make numerous other changes in existing law.

Sen. Lewis G. Christman (R-Ann Arbor) said he understood Williams would sign the bill if it were stripped of a section permitting precomputation of interest.

"As I get it, the governor is not opposed to the rate schedule or to the rise in the size limit of loans from $500 to $1,500," Christman said.

Paul Weber, the governor's press secretary, said Williams hadn't finally made up his mind but the pre-computation was only one of his objections.

Precomputation would allow loan companies to figure the full interest charge over the entire term of the loan and add it on at the start as part of the over-all charge.

The companies maintain the resulting "level rate of repayment" would simplify bookkeeping and provide accurate information on total interest charges for the borrower.

But critics said precomputation would mean a windfall for loan companies on refinanced loans.

Weber said Alfred B. Fitt, the governor's legal adviser, told William Koepke, lobbyist for the Household Finance Corp., that there was grave doubt that Williams would sign the measure.

"He mentioned several objections, not just precomputation," Weber said. "I'd prefer not to say what they were at this time."

The State Banking Department has objected to provisions which would permit charges for default of payment after five days as well as for allowing deferred payments.

The department also opposed a provision to protect the loan by issuing life insurance on the borrower, with the borrower paying the premium.

Frank Blackford, state insurance commissioner, has termed the entire bill "adverse to public interest."

A somewhat similar loan bill passed the New York Legislature early this year but was vetoed by Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

Ike Suggests Mr. K. Visit Big Auto Plant

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower says it would be a good idea for Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev to see a big auto plant in the Detroit area on his visit to this country next month.

Eisenhower expressed the idea at a news conference here yesterday.

The Soviet leader had scoffed when Vice President Nixon told him there are 60 million automobiles in the United States.

Khrushchev is scheduled to arrive in this country Sept. 15. No date was announced for any Detroit visit.

Asks Caribbean Peace Study

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — The United States today proposed setting up a special peace committee to study the Caribbean crisis.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told a plenary session of the inter-American foreign ministers' conference that this committee would report to the 11th conference in Quito next February.

It would look into the causes of the tension that has spread throughout the area since Fidel Castro's forces took over Cuba Jan. 1.

"This committee might also be authorized to extend its cooperation to any of the states of that region in the solution of the problems that disturb their peaceful relations and which they are not able to resolve through direct negotiation," Herter said.

He declared the foreign ministers' meeting "must recognize that our generally admirable and effective peace system must be improved."

He called for a permanent organ of the Organization of American States such as the inter-American peace committee to consider problems of that sort that have plagued the Caribbean region before they reach the point of becoming threats to peace.

Eastern Portion of Nation Sticky; West Cools Off

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The northern Midwest and some Western areas cooled off today but another day of fairly hot and humid weather was the sticky outlook for wide areas in the Eastern half of the country.

The cooler air spread across the northern Plains and upper Mississippi Valley and temperatures were as much as 20 degrees lower than 24 hours earlier. Readings in the 50s were reported in parts of Nebraska, where it was 105 at Imperial Wednesday. One of the coolest spots was International Falls, Minn., with a low of 48.

Elect Pontiac Man to High Pythian Post

Milton E. Probert, of 1358 Cass Lake Rd., a Pontiac Motor employe, was named Imperial Basha of the Khorassan order at a convention in Denver, Colo.

A Pythian since 1918, Probert has been active in organizing lodges in this area. In 1938, he was chancellor Commander of Knights of Pythias Lodge 19, Pontiac.

Hoffa's Son Enrolling as Freshman at MSU

He has had 150 old car bodies filled with gravel and cemented as a dam across the river, trying to revert it to its original channel. In the past five years the river has covered 25 acres of Warlick's property.

Will Debate Canal

PETOSKEY (AP) — The Army Corps of Engineers has scheduled a meeting here Aug. 19 to hear arguments for and against a proposed canal between Crooked Lake and Little Traverse Bay. The canal would open navigation to 60-foot boats between Lakes Michigan and Huron via the inland water route.

Sturgis Steel Tubing Opens Alabama Plant

HALEYVILLE, Ala. (AP)—Formed Tubes Inc. of Sturgis, Mich., has announced plans to build a steel tubing plant employing 140 men at this northhwest Alabama town.

Construction is scheduled to begin in October. The first operation of the plant is set for next spring.

Mrs. Truth K. Montague, president, and Masil W. Wyer, vice president, said six supervisory employes would be moved here from Michigan to direct the plant's operation. Other employes will be hired locally.

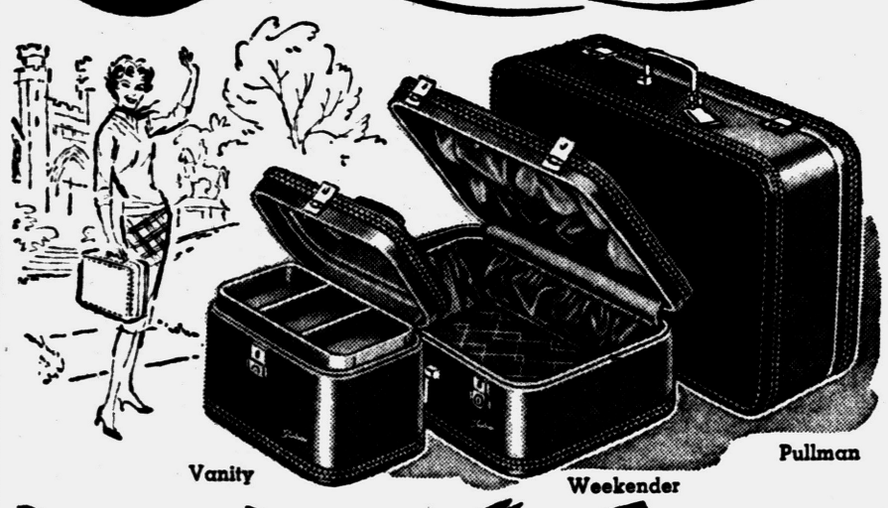

The principal product is tail pipes and exhaust pipes for the automobile industry.

Board of Education to Consider Proposals at Tonight's Meeting

Topping the Pontiac Board of Education's agenda for tonight's meeting are the preliminary plans and cost estimates on the following proposals concerning the Central High swimming pool:

1. Rehabilitation of the present pool to bring it to required specifications and health standards at an estimated cost of $154,000. Included in the rehabilitation would be a complete new water filtration and circulation system, plus new ceramic surfacing for the pool and apron.

2. Reconstruction of the present pool with additions and alterations to provide for an adequate competitive size pool. Under this proposal the pool would be enlarged and lowered; concrete seats installed; water filter and circulation units replaced; new girls' locker and shower facilities, a new ceiling and apron installed at an estimated cost of $477,500.

3. Construction of a new swimming pool and building adjacent to the boys' gym with rehabilitation to the present pool for girls use only. The new pool would be of regulation size with folding stands for spectators included. Rehabilitation to the present pool would be as outlined in scheme No. 1. The architects, William C. Zimmermann Associates, estimates the cost for proposal three at $510,000.

The Board tabled a proposal to rehabilitate the pool at its last meeting to study possibilities of constructing a new pool.

The 1959-60 proposed operating budget of $8,237,309 will also be presented to the Board for adoption tonight. Although based on the budget submitted Feb. 26, the revised allocation contains the new wage and salary schedule adjustments adopted by the Board June 11.

The proposed budget is $206,141 higher than the one presented in February. According to Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of schools, the proposed increase is almost exclusively the result of the pay hike.

Under the new budget, the cost per pupil would be increased from $396 in 1958-59 to $406 in 1959-60.

After 30 Years Egyptians to See Their Mummies

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — Next month, for the first time in nearly 30 years, Egyptians will be able to see the mummies of some of their land's ancient rulers.

Beginning Sept. 1, Cairo Museum will open to the public the chamber containing mummies of Egyptian pharoahs. The room was closed to the public in the early 1930s on the ground that it was undignified to display bodies of past rulers in a museum.

In the intervening period, only important scholars and dignitaries have set eyes on the mummies, some of them 50 centuries old.

The chamber contains about 30 mummies. The best preserved is that of Rameses II discovered in 1886 and dating back 3,000 years. Other famous mummies at the museum are those of Cheops, the pharoah who built the Great Pyramid, and that of Pharoah Amenophis and Tut-Ankh-Amen.

Oldest Veteran at Death Point

Civil War Soldier, 116, Growing Weaker; Lives in Houston, Texas

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The last veteran of the Civil War, Walter Williams, 116, hovered near death today. A physician said he could live "only a matter of days."

Dr. Russell Wolfe said the old soldier's condition had changed little in the last 24 hours. He said, however, that Williams had grown continually weaker for several days.

The Confederate veteran is breathing faster and shallower, the doctor said, and his pulse is regular but weak.

Williams was a forage master with Hood's Brigade in the Confederate army. His present illness has been attributed to a recent bout with pneumonia. He lives here with a daughter.

Bridge 'Just Broke,' Killing One, Injuring 6

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"It just broke."

Construction bosses could give only that explanation for the collapse of a bridge which killed a workman and injured six others Wednesday.

Israel Garcia, 28, was found dead in a mass of splintered wood, twisted steel and wet concrete.

Bid Low on Weed Job

LANSING (AP)—Three firms have been announced as low bidders for chemical weed spraying on 16,100 miles of trunkline right of way in southern and central Michigan. Low bidders were Davey Tree Expert Co., Ferndale, $13,818; Townsend Tree Service, Muncie, Ind., $12,142; and Chem-itrol Chemical Co., Gibsonburg, Ohio, $16,673.

FIDDLIN' AROUND — Chewing bubble gum while playing the fiddle is relaxing, says Billie Mulholland, 11, of Stroud, Ont., as he warms up for the annual Canadian Open Old-Time Fiddlers' contest in Shelbourne, Ont. The youngster was one of 104 competitors but was eliminated in the preliminaries.

Sell Journalism, Urges Professor

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — A journalism school director advised editors today to step up their competition with engineering, science and medicine for the brightest young minds.

There's an acute shortage of qualified people in newspaper editorial jobs, George J. Kienzle, head of the School of Journalism at Ohio State University reported at the convention of the Associated Press Managing Editors Assn.

"The rising star of science stole the glamor show from journalism, the traditional idol of so many of our young people," Kienzel's report said.

He urged editors to sell the profession "to the community and to the college and high school students who will be the reporters and editors of tomorrow."

Petitions to Oppose Track on U.S. 23

FLINT (AP)—Opposing a proposed horse racing track, the Citizens Committee for Fenton Township today began circulating petitions demanding a referendum on the township board's rezoning of 200 acres to permit building of the track.

The proposed three million dollar track would be outside Flint along the U.S. 23 expressway.

Chairman Kent Arnold of the Citizens Committee, said he expected to have the necessary signatures within a week to 10 days to force a referendum in the township's unincorporated area.

Arnold said not more than 10 per cent of the qualified voter-taxpayers was needed. He estimated the unincorporated area contained a third of the township's 9,000 voters.

No Stump Campaigning in '60

Casts President in Role of Defender of GOP Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower is being cast by Sen. Thruston B. Morton (R-Ky) in the 1960 role of high-level defender of GOP policies rather than as a cross-country campaigner.

Morton, the Republican national man, said in an interview he believes Eisenhower could give highly effective help to next year's party presidential nominee "by developing for the people the simple reasoning behind the position the administration has taken on major issues."

Morton said he has in mind presidential explanations of the administration's position such as Eisenhower gave last week on the labor reform measure.

Morton indicated he regards this as likely to produce more results than tub - thumping campaigning such as former President Harry S. Truman carried on in 1952 and 1956.

Eisenhower told his news conference that as an outgoing chief executive he would be "a little bit of a bystander" in the 1960 campaign. But Morton said he thinks the President will continue to pack a wallop when he speaks to the nation.

Eisenhower himself said he is completely dedicated to strengthening "what I call moderate government, sound, middle - of - the-road government." He said he will do what he can in the campaign, so long as his activities fit his presidential work schedule.

The President said the GOP nominee should be "vigorous, straightforward and hard - hitting." He said the candidate should have experience, honesty, integrity, courage and real standing with the people.

Morton says the novelty is gone from political broadcasting. He leans to five-minute windups on established entertainment programs and to 50-second spots in which the political pitch rivals the best of the commercials.

While he is maintaining strict neutrality in the contest for the presidential nomination, he would use different techniques in presenting Vice President Richard M. Nixon and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller if one of them is the nominee.

Morton's idea would be to put Rockefeller on informally and let him take care of himself. For Nixon he would make more formal preparations.

Couldn't Stand Crying, Beat Sister to Death

Pioneer Family Float Wins 1st

'Trail Blazers' From Rochester Gets $20 in County Street Show

Hundreds lined Saginaw street yesterday to watch colorful floats, glistening new cars carrying reigning queens, marching brass bands and prancing horses parade through the heart of the city.

The Oakland County 4-H Club Fair Parade through Pontiac was the first ever held. It lasted for 50 minutes, starting from Raeburn street and past the reviewing stand at the County Courthouse on Huron street. Cheers from the throng assured the parade was a success.

Judges awarded first place to the Rochester Trail Blazers. The winning float was of a pioneer family in a horse and carriage mounted on base of wire mesh stuffed with crepe paper. The prize was $20.

The East Orion 4-H Club was judged winner of the second place prize of $15. Third place went to the Nu-Ly-Wix 4-H Club with a prize of $10. The Bloomfield 4-H Club float took honorable mention.

The parade continued through Pontiac and on to the fairgrounds at M24 and Walton boulevard where winners of the morning's competitions were announced.

The plowing contest was won by Edward Vanderhall of the White Lake 4-H Club, while Paul Norland of the Bloomfield club took first place in the tractor operator's contest.

Orion Board Bows to Homeowners

ORION TOWNSHIP—The Orion Township Zoning Board last night bowed to the wishes of over 100 Indianwood road residents by agreeing to eliminate the proposed manufacturing section in their area from the new zoning map.

The residents appeared en masse at the Zoning Board's public hearing to voice their objections to the proposed rezoning. Those present were representing 127 signers of petitions who wanted their properties to continue to be zoned residential.

They based their objections mainly on their common contention that a manufacturing zone in their area would depreciate valuation of their property and create safety, health and traffic hazards.

The group's principal spokesman was Theodore Mach of 2440 Indianwood Rd.

He said, "We moved out here to get away from the condition the Board wants to put us under now. And we want the neighborhood to remain as it is."

Speaking for the Zoning Board, member Edward Knickerbocker stated that Indianwood was the only hard-surfaced road in the township outside of the main artery (M24) and that the mtnufacturing area was moving west.

The objectors agreed the township needs industry "but somewhere else," and Board members said they wanted "to give everyone an equal chance."

Verbal sparring between members of the audience, many of them overflowing out into the hall, and the Zoning Board marked the next couple of hours of debate.

OBJECTS AGAIN

Two other objections were raised by Mach. One was against the zoning classification "Special Land Uses."

He said, "We object to the entire listing. It leaves the door open for any land use classification by future boards."

Knickerbocker explained that the "Special Land Uses" section was included in accordance with state law. He said such items as slaughterhouses, junk yards and garbage dumps "have to be provided for so they may be controlled."

Township Attorney Rex Bebout further pointed out that "under the law it is necessary for township zoning to provide places for these activities—they are all legal—they cannot be prohibited."

Mach's third objection was against gravel pits. "We want to eliminate them in the township entirely," he said.

Zoning Board members and the work they had done in the past four years on the new ordinance was defended by Victor C. Adler, representing the Scripps estate or Village Acres.

GIVES TIME FREE

Adler is a registered architect, experienced subdivision planner, and housing administrator for 14 eastern states. He had given his time free of charge to help the Board, members said.

The planning expert had several suggestions to make before the new zoning law was adopted. He advised that provision be made for two-story houses and that blocks of land, rather than strips, be zoned for industry.

"I object to the long, continuous business zoning strip along M24. Business should be more concentrated in an area," Adler said. The strip he was referring to is three-and-a-half miles long and 300 feet deep on the new zoning map.

"You have to make areas desirable for industry the same as for residents," he pointed out.

Another spokesman at the meeting was Richard Young, treasurer of the Lake Orion Community Schools. He emphasized the school district's need for more tax money.

"I suggest you do need industry. There are compromises which can be worked out with tolerance and understanding," Young stated.

The first step in that compromise was reached when Zoning Board Chairman S. Eugene Green, announced "Indianwood manufacturing area will be restricted from the map right now."

Other points, such as lot size and building size were brought up and discussed, and the Board promised to consider each and every one before making a final decision.

3 in County Receive College Fellowships

Three county residents have received college fellowships for graduate study under the National Defense Education Act.

Preston B. Britner, of 30320 Bristol Ln., Southfield Township, Francis J. Coyle, of 851 Peach Tree Ln., Rochester, and Edward Vander Velde of Milford, each will receive $2,000 for the first year of study, $2,200 for the second year and $2,400 for the third year plus $400 annually for each dependent.

The fellowships, designed to increase the number of college teachers, were given by the U.S. Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare on recommendation of the graduate schools.

Vander Velde and Britner will study at the University of Michigan in South Asian languages and mathematics, respectively. Coyle will do graduate work in Physics at the University of Georgia.

Couple in Ortonville to Celebrate 40th Year

ORTONVILLE — Mr. and Mrs. Claude Zimmerman of 10486 Thayer Rd. will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary at an open house with friends and relatives from 2-6 p.m. Sunday.

Their daughters, Mrs. Douglas Pierson of Goodrich, Mrs. Reed Torrer of Rockwood and Mrs. Eugene Carpenter of 399 Bay St., Pontiac, will act as hostesses.

Develops New 'Pill Box'

LONDON (UPI) — A London jewelry designer has perfected a ring with a hinged stone and a compartment for tranquilizer pills, the National Jewelers' Assn. reported.

OKs Selection of School Aide

Rochester Board Acts on the Appointment of Vander Van

ROCHESTER — Appointment of William Vander Van, superintendent of Dublin Schools, as administrative assistant of Rochester Community Schools has been confirmed by the local Board of Education.

The new administrator's chief duty will be to supervise building construction and current maintenance program in the Rochester school district.

Approval has been given to two guides presented by the Avon-Pontiac Township Regional Planning Commission which pertained to the Rochester School Board's position in development of the Michigan State University Oakland community.

A stipulation was made, however, that the board's functions be "spelled out" more completely, members said.

As an example they cited their position in proposed development of the new University Hills subdivision on Avon road. The subdivider's present plan is to proceed with the first section of 42 lots.

"We are not interested in a school site on that plot. But before the entire subdivision plan is completed, we will want to study the anticipated need for such a site with the parties concerned," school officials said.

The Board has awarded a number of bids for equipment in district schools.

Included are fencing for the Brooklands, North Hill, Woodward and Senior High School properties, cafeteria equipment for the Meadow Brook cafeteria and pianos.

Methodist Church to Be Scene of Homecoming

SEYMOUR LAKE—The Seymour Lake Methodist Church will be the scene of a homecoming celebration Saturday afternoon. The event is sponsored by the WSCS of the church.

A swiss steak dinner will be served at 12:30 p.m. to be followed by a program. Special guests at the affair will be a former pastor of the local church, the Rev. Edward D. Pumphrey, and his family from Dearborn.

Elizabeth Lake Unit Picks Two Directors

Elected Saturday night for two-year directorships by the Elizabeth Lake Estates Improvement Assn. were George Tallerday of 121 S. Avery St.; Lewis Zoch, 3835 Oak Knoll, both of Waterford Township, and George Dereere of 17330 Beverly Rd., Birmingham.

Jerome Mulligan of 475 Lakeside Dr., Waterford Township, was re-elected president at the annual meeting.

New fees, to go into effect next season, were brought out at the meeting. Dues will be increased from $7 to $10, and the guest parking fee for all day was set at 50 cents.

Under the new guest check system for owners in the estates, five checks will be returned daily and a total of 10 after two days.

Bemis-Olsen Amvets Schedule Annual Picnic

The Bemis-Olsen Amvets Post 113 has scheduled its annual picnic for 10 a.m. Sunday, Aug. 23 at Kensington Park.

Beverages will be provided for members and their guests, and an advance party will be held at dawn to secure tables. Turns to the site will be marked with 113.

DISINTERESTED SPECTATOR — Eight-month-old William Aylsworth Jr. was sound asleep before the Oakland County 4-H Fair parade started down Pontiac's main street yesterday. He probably roused when the Lake Orion Community High School band began to play. But at the moment he's oblivious of the proceedings in the arms of his mother, Mrs. William Aylsworth, of 31230 Farmington Rd., Farmington Township.

File Edgar Guest's Will

DETROIT (UPI)—The will of the late Edgar A. Guest, poet of the plain people, was filed for probate yesterday and left the bulk of his estate to be divided between his two children, Edgar A. Jr., and Mrs. Janet Sobell. The amount of the estate was not disclosed. It was merely defined, for legal purposes as "upwards of $10,000."

To bring oil to Americans the oil industry in one recent year drilled approximately one mile of holes every 14 minutes around the clock.

Hal Boyle Says:

How Does Cinderella Take Widowhood?

B HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — "My husband loved me for the strength I had of spirit and soul," said Joan Crawford, "and he'd come back and haunt me through eternity if I didn't go on now with happiness and joy.

BOYLE

"I still can't bring myself to have a date. I go out with married couples."

Joan, a real-life Cinderella herself, played dozens of Cinderella roes in her 30-year career as film star. But what happens when Cinderella becomes a widow?

This role was thrust upon her when her fourth husband, Alfred Steele, board chairman of the Pepsi-Cola Co., died of a heart attack.

His sudden death left Joan stunned. The two had been constantly together for four years. She had handled much of his correspondence, traveled more than 200,000 miles with him.

"I can say what few women can say," Joan recalled. "I had perfection in love. Every day of those four years he told me he loved me. He was a wonderful, wonderful man. I'm the luckiest dame that ever lived.

"At first after his death I just wanted to stay home and sit. Lethargy set in. I finally had to tell myself, 'Pick yourself up and be the glamorous person you're supposed to be.'

"Alfred was always proud of what I'd done, and told me he never wanted me to give up my work."

Miss Crawford plans a dual future as business woman and actress.

She was elected a director of Pepsi-Cola the month after Steele died. Recently she finished a role as a lady paperbook editor in Jerry Wald's production of "The Best of Everything."

"I'm on the screen only seven minutes," she said. "But I liked the part, and I want to do other movies and TV films if I can find what I want."

"I'm not under contract to them," she said, smiling. "But I still do work for them. I'd like to help carry out my husband's promotional thinking."

Her four adopted children are currently in her West Coast home. Joan lives alone with a maid in the big showplace Manhattan apartment in which her husband died.

"Every morning of my life I say, 'Thanks, God. What can I contribute to this day You have given me? Put the people in my path I can be of help to.'

Word got around after Steele's death that Miss Crawford was left broke. It isn't true. Under terms of her husband's contract, she will receive $60,000 a year for five years a sizable widow's mite. She also has money of her own, plus real estate holdings.

Wash-and-Wear Clothes Simplify College Living

Young men going back to school will find one phase of school life much simpler.

Manufacturers of men's and boys' sportswear are making cotton knits that are especially treated to put them in the wash-and-wear class. This means that for the first time cotton knit shirts and sweaters are almost shrinkproof.

It has taken some time to get rid of the various hazards of wash-and-wear cotton knits. Some of the so-called wash-and-wear cotton knit garments have not lived up to the expectations of the buyer.

Bud Berman of Bud Berman Sportswear was determined his cotton knit sportshirts would come out of the washing machine the same size they were when they went in.

He took his fabric problems to the laboratories of the Warwick Chemical division of Sun Chemical Corporation. Warwick developed a combination resin finish called Permafresh-Norane, which now makes cotton knitgoods wash-and-wearable and at the same time keeps shrinkage to a minimum. The fabric, when so treated, also becomes spot and stain-resistant.

West Germany Liking Gas Credit Card Plan

DUESSELDORF, Germany (UPI)—The newly-introduced gasoline credit card system is spreading fast in West Germany, it was reported today.

The Dresdener Bank of Duesseldorf said four more West German oil firms had adopted the system, increasing the number of filling stations honoring the cards to 27,000. The system was introduced nationally Aug. 1.

Senator Would Hike Capital Gains Tax

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa) introduced a bill Wednesday to do away with the low tax rate on capital gains. He estimated it would bring the treasury 500 million dollars a year.

The proposal would repeal the 25 per cent maximum tax rate on gains from the sale of personal property, cutting or disposal of timber, coal royalties, and sale of livestock and unharvested crops. These profits would be taxed at regular corporate or personal income rates.

"There is no reason why taxpayers with income from these sources should not pay their full share of our total tax burden," Clark said. He described the capital gains rate as a "tax-dodge refuge."

Tame Demonstrations Assured by Hungarians

NEW YORK (AP) — The Hungarian Freedom Fighters Federation says it will refrain from any violence and demonstration during Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's visit to the United States.

The federation said Tuesday President Eisenhower's "sincere peace efforts" prompted it to refrain from doing anything that might cause retaliation when Eisenhower visits the Soviet Union.

Trying to Ease Latin Uproar

U.S. in Middle at Caribbean Talks

By The Associated Press

The United States, which helped arrange the special session of American foreign ministers which opened at Santiago, Chile, yesterday, will find itself right in the middle from the start.

Small rebellions, invasions and other political disturbances have kept the Caribbean and other areas of Latin America in an uproar ever since the success of the Castro revolution in Cuba last January.

Panama, Venezuela, the Dominican Republic, Haiti, Guatemala, Nicaragua and Honduras all have been involved. The Castro government has had to deny that it is deliberately sponsoring some of the movements which have had Cuban bases.

The object of the United States in advocating the conference has been to quiet things in the Caribbean. But the whole issue of democracy versus dictatorship has come to the fore, directly involving Paraguay and the unstable situations of virtually every other Latin American country except Mexico.

RUGGED CHOICE

In the case of the Dominican Republic — which is probably less of a republic than any of the Western Hemisphere countries assuming the title — the United States is caught between demands that she do something about a dictatorship which she has aided with considerable sums of money for some years and the old devil of being accused of intervention if she does.

There is also the complication that the Trujillo regime, however disregardful of civil rights and however cruel, has heavy internal support because of popular economic gains.

Cuba, where the American business interests acutely complicate political relations at this time, has been the scene of new disruptions on the very eve of the conference.

Castro's past record of participation in revolutionary movements against other Caribbean countries does nothing to alleviate this complex situation.

Some of the foreign ministers attending the conference will be there against their better judgment, believing that no good can come from stirring up the troubled waters now.

They are sorry if not resentful that the United States is involving them in what they consider primarily her own problem in Cuba.

'EXAMINE TENSIONS'

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter has called on the foreign ministers of the American republics to examine candidly the Caribbean tensions and to adopt steps that will ease them.

Herter said that over the past several months "we have been increasingly concerned with the political tensions which have been developing in the Caribbean area.

"By a candid examination of the tensions and the adoption of mutually agreed measures for dealing with them on the basis of the principles and responsibilities the meeting of foreign ministers will fulfill the aspirations of our people," he said.

In Washington during the year, twenty-one dark-suited diplomats gather regularly around a U-shaped green baize covered table in the cream and crystal "Hall of the Americas."

They talk — 18 in Spanish and one each in English, French and Portuguese—while a slim handful of spectators watch, and tourists wander through, curious but uncomprehending.

This is the Council of the Organization of American States (OAS), the directive body of one of the world's oldest and — some say — least known international organizations.

The 21 ambassadors represent the 21 republics of the Americas, united in the OAS (see map) to preserve peace and promote progress in the hemisphere.

The fire alarm — that there is the possibility of war within the Americas — sounds when a nation which feels menaced appeals to the council.

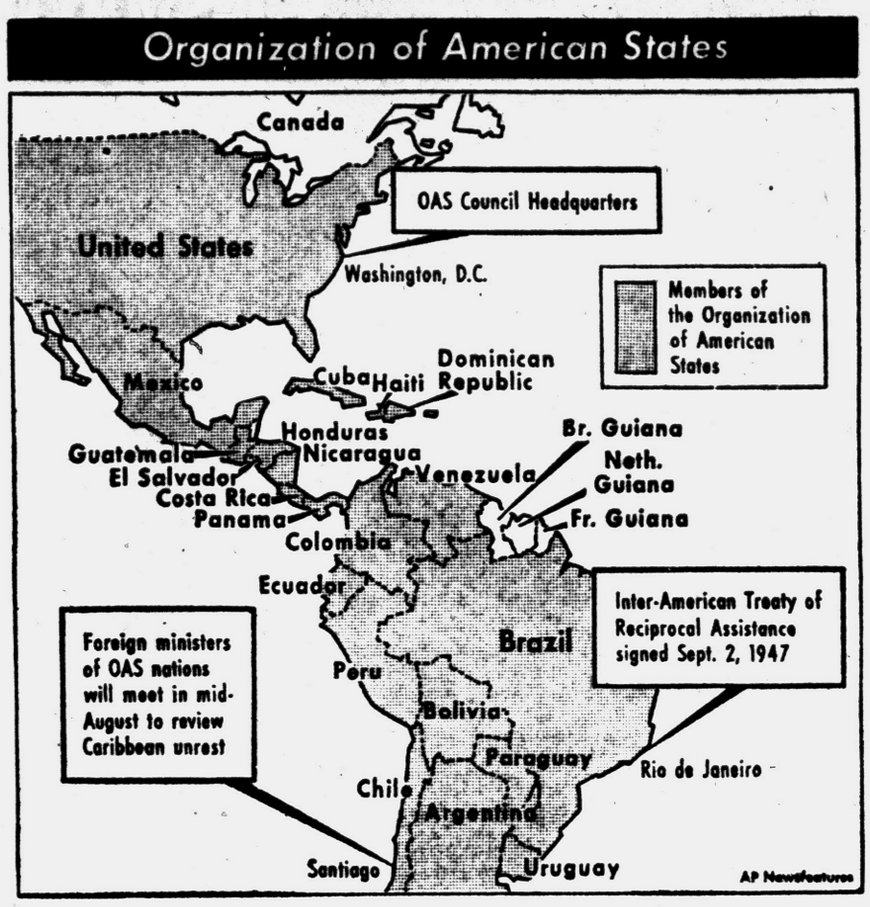

It asks, generally, that the council invoke the Inter-American Treaty of Reciprocal Assistance, signed Sept. 2, 1947, in Rio de Janeiro, and call a meeting of foreign ministers to consider this threat to peace.

Meanwhile the OAS council itself can act — usually by sending on-the-spot investigators who can bring the two parties together. But it also can request other members to furnish armed forces — planes, ships and men — if it feels that necessary.

Alternative procedures permit reference of the dispute to a five-nation peace committee, or, in more serious cases, a convocation.

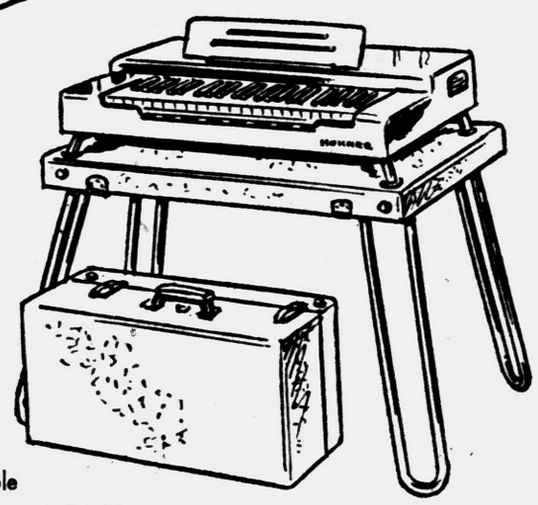

Eight times since the Rio pact was signed, the fire alarm has rung. There was a 1948 dispute between Costa Rica and Nicaragua; a 1950 situation involving Haiti and the Dominican Republic; the Guatemalan situation in 1954; a dispute between Costa Rica and Nicaragua in 1955, and Honduras and Nicaragua in 1957.

In each case, the OAS acted promptly. Both President Eisenhower and the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles have said it was one of the free world's most effective organizations.

'Until Death Us Do Part'

He Advises Teasing, Tickling

LONDON (AP)—The Rev. Hugh Herbert recommended today that married couples vow "to tease and to tickle—until death do us part."

"I'm a bit unorthodox," said the record of St. John's Anglican church in Surrey. "But marriage should be fun. Far too many marriages are wrecked on the rocks of monotony."

The clergyman said he first suggested amending the marriage service 20 years ago in an article he wrote for his parish magazine. He revived it for the magazine's current issue.

"In the marriage service there are some very august words — 'to love, comfort, honor, obey, serve, cherish,'" said the rector. "I'm not sure the prayer book should not be enriched by a new phrase, 'to tease and to tickle till death us do part.'"

He is a veteran of 30 years of married life.

"As long as a wife retains up her sleeve a certain elusive laughter, her husband will always rise to it as surely as a goldfish to ants' eggs dropped into a bowl," he said.

"Some marriages seem to go so very flat and decorous. Every Friday the good husband usually hands over his salary into his lady's hand. Every Friday the woman counts back some change into her lord's hands.

"'This is your pocket money, dear husband,' she says."

A wife, the rector said, should model herself on Cleopatra whose "infinite variety never grew stale."

What does Mrs. Herbert think of the suggestion?

"I haven't read it," she said.

A few minutes later she had. "I've never known you to hand over your wages to your dear wife," she said looking at her husband. "That's something we can discuss."

Ike Vetoes Invitation to Red China Leader

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposed invitation to Red China Premier Chou En-lai to visit the United States has been vetoed by President Eisenhower, says Rep. Charles O. Porter (D-Ore).

Porter, prompted by the coming visit of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, had suggested a similar exchange of visits between Chou and President Eisenhower. The President plans to return Khrushchev's visit.

Porter said Eisenhower wrote him "I cannot agree with you that it would be desirable for this country to give diplomatic recognition to Communist China, or for me to invite Chou En-lai to visit this country."

After Bout With Polio

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Joan Marshall, who stars as Sailor in TV's "Bold Venture" series, began her boldest real-life venture 10 years ago when bulbar polio paralyzed her vocal chords, spine, neck and face.

A doctor in Chicago's Contagious Disease Hospital told the slim blonde actress, then 15 years old, that she probably never would walk or talk again. But her will power and constant therapy proved him wrong.

"If anyone had told me then that I'd be able to function as perfectly as I do now, I'd have thought it was a pep talk for a dying person," said Miss Marshall, who was born in Evanston, Ill., and reared on Chicago's North Side.

"I lost complete use of my voice, and the right half of my face was paralyzed. I had to close my eyes with my fingers when I went to bed.

"I was scared to death because I was told bulbar polio was more dangerous than limb polio in some ways. For instance, it might infect the brain. The odds are that you recover either fully or not at all."

Miss Marshall said she was hospitalized for six or seven weeks during which "I couldn't even sit up."

When she went home, she took daily treatments from a therapist.

"My voice came back almost to normal in about 18 months," she said, "but even until last year I had a terrible problem. When I got tired or excited, my voice would go into such a high pitch that you could hardly hear it."

At first, Miss Marshall hated her therapist because "she would taunt me and say nasty things like 'You're faking' when I did my sitting-up exercises. I didn't realize until later that she was trying to get me angry so I would try harder.

"I kept thinking, 'I hope you grow a wart on your nose.' Finally, my spine came around after 18 months, and I owe it all to her.

"The most frightening thing for me was that my face looked like it had a line drawn exactly down the middle, with the left half moving a mile a minute and the right half motionless. I was afraid to smile for two years. I'd look in the mirror and be terrified."

Miss Marshall recovered enough to begin her theatrical career seven years ago as a chorus girl at Chicago's Chez Paree nightclub. Then she did some modeling on television and got a job as a showgirl in Las Vegas, Nev.

While in Las Vegas, she was offered a job on Red Skelton's TV show. More jobs followed before she finally tested for and got the "Bold Venture" part opposite Dane Clark.

"Last year," she said, "I went to a corrective speech professor here to make sure my pitch and tone was normal for acting. He's blind, and his hearing is so acute that I think he's made my voice better than it was even before the polio. Everything is on tape. You talk, then listen to yourself, and practice and practice."

U.S. Youths Not as Chairbound as Is Believed

Word is spreading that the All-American boy and his girl friend are chairbound. They're more watchers than participators and riding a block in the family auto is more desirable than walking or riding a bicycle.

However, in many parts of the country there is a return to shank's mare or to a two-wheeler, especially when going to school.

A big reason for this recent student shift to self-propulsion is a renewed emphasis on physical conditioning of young people. Another reason is that many schools are banning cars for students during school hours.

A minimum amount of exercise, such as riding a bike or walking rapidly to school, provides the basic physical activity necessary for optimum growth. Riding or walking helps build muscles necessary to health and gets the student into the open air which benefits both the mind and the body.

AMAZING BUSINESS, THIS — Holding on to both balloons, five-year-old Judy Monroe, 5089 Eagle Lake Dr., is wide-eyed in amazement at the wonders of the Oakland County 4-H Club Fair, the first she has ever attended. Judy was one of thousands who attended the Fair on opening night. The big carnival, exhibitions, contests and shows will run through Saturday.

May Be Mineral Water

All That Bubbles, French Say, Isn't Champagne

By PIERRE LEGRAS

PARIS (AP)— Take it from French experts, you've got to be careful around the world when you order champagne. You might get cider, or perish the thought, mineral water.

This is true, the French say rather smugly, in any country save France. When you order champagne here, you get champagne.

To a Frenchman, champagne is the bubbly stuff that comes only from the champagne district of France.

This view is assiduously propagated by an organization with worldwide eyes and a jawbreaker name—the French Institute of Original Place Names for Wines and Brandies (INAO).

INAO tolerantly recognizes that other countries make bubbly wines that may appeal to uneducated tastes. That doesn't make them champagne says INAO—and it stresses its point in lawsuits, indignant statements and a continuing barrage of publicity.

"Unfortunately," INAO says, "political reasons render solution of this problem very difficult."

INAO lost its suit to bar the label from British markets and the reaction in France was immediate and bitter. Bars in Paris serving Scotch angrily staged a series of short-lived boycotts.

Spain and Russia are the two big offenders in importing or selling locally bubbly wines called champagne. However, INAO is also upset at the United States practice.

There is nothing INAO can do in the United States, where legislation says it is okay to sell champagnes that are properly labeled as to origin — like "California champagne" or "New York champagne."

The name champagne is widely used in South America for a variety of products including a brand of coffee and a bubbly mineral water produced in Brazil.

Use, or as INAO would insist, misuse, of the term champagne is so entrenched in South America through usage, custom and law that INAO says it is too late to hale most offenders there into court.

But Europe is another matter. INAO inspectors, posing as simple tourists, prowl through European restaurants ever on the alert for mislabeled products.

A German producer who labeled his product champagne because the firm was founded years ago at Epernay in the heart of the champagne district, was brought to court by the INAO and forced to stop using the name.

The INAO also got a court ruling against another German firm which translated the German word "schaumwein," meaning sparkling wine, as champagne on the product it bottled for export.

In Britain you may also get "champagne cider" or a beverage made from pears which is also called champagne.

In a way, eagerness to use the name champagne is a tribute to the magic and prestige of the word which is a worldwide symbol of quality. But it is INAO's mission to remind you that all that bubbles is not champagne.

Most Children Have Cavities

New Brushes; Less Pop, Cake; Fluoridation; Mouthwash Advised

Some 97 million people — including almost all children—have a backlog of 700 million unfilled cavities. And 21.6 million American adults — one out of every eight—have no teeth of their own left.

How to save teeth:

NEW BRUSHES. A recent American Dental Assn. survey showed that 1,000 families owned more than 2,000 toothbrushes — but only 700 were fit for use.

DIET. A proper diet is essential. Also, research shows that the action of bacteria on sugars and starches in the mouth produces an acid capable of dissolving tooth enamel. Less soda pop, candy, cake will help prevent decay.

FLUORIDATION. Now available to some 41 million Americans through drinking water, it is an accepted process for retarding tooth decay.

MOUTH WASHES. A new one described before a Northwestern University symposium contains an antibacterial substance, hexetidine. It lowers mouth odor caused by bacteria, reduces acid in the mouth for more than 12 hours after one application.

Democrats to Launch Organizational Drive

The party's national committee will meet Sept. 16. Committee members will be invited to participate in a conference of state chairmen and vice chairmen to follow Sept. 17-19.

Chairman Paul M. Butler said the purpose of the conference is to gear up the party machinery for next year's campaign.

Lease for Office Hints Duration of Steel Strike

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Unit-Steelworkers said today they have a hint how much longer the monthlong steel strike will last.

The union found out some time ago, before the strike began, a union official said, that steel company strategists took a lease until Oct. 15 on special strike-use office space in the Chrysler Building in New York.

Manistee Man Will Head Commerce in Albion

MANISTEE (UPI) — Dallas Zonkers, secretary-manager of the Manistee County Board of Commerce, said today he has resigned effective Sept. 15 to become manager of the Albion Chamber of Commerce.

Zonkers, who came here from Jackson where he was assistant manager of the Chamber of Commerce, will direct re-establishment of the Albion chamber which has been inactive for 25 years.

Let His Car Alone While Wife Has Baby

LOCKPORT, N. Y. (UP) — Police had a unique present for a new baby: The father was excused from parking violations.

Officers said a car left overtime in a city parking lot had this note under a windshield wiper: "Had to go to New York City. My wife gave birth. Will be back in four days. I will pay for use of meter."

They did not ticket the car and it was removed by the anonymous owner at the end of the four days.

'Symptom of Mental Illness'

Abstract Painting Crazy? Doctor Says You're Right

PARIS (NEA)—If you've been one of those people that have been saying for years a guy would have to be crazy to paint some of the abstract pictures decorating museum walls, you now have some scientific company.

Dr. Elie Bontzolakis, a well-known Paris heart specialist, says abstract paintings are a symptom of mental illness.

And in three out of four cases, the doctor goes on, the painter also suffers from nervous tension, high blood pressure or an enlarged heart.

12 YEAR STUDY

These findings are the result of 12 years of study during which Dr. Bontzolakis treated some 70 artist-painters. Many were friends of his wife, also a painter, but in the more conventional mood.

The first artist to be treated was a man, 57. He complained of dizziness, leg cramps and violent headaches. After a time he abandoned abstraction for expressionism. Immediately his blood pressure dropped and his other ailments disappeared.

Two years later he returned, the doctor says, worse than before. He had returned to abstract painting.

Even more disquieting is the statement made by Dr. Bontzolakis that many people who surround themselves with abstract paintings are affected in the same way, fortunately in a lesser degree.

"One of the most famous abstract painters in Paris suffers from constant hypertension and I cannot reduce it," says the doctor.

On the other hand, he claims, painters who paint a scene or portrait so that the layman can easily recognize the subject are seldom victims of heart trouble.

To put patients at their ease and to lower their tension when they consult him, Dr. Bontzolakis has his office decorated with soothing landscapes and flower paintings.

Los Angeles Building Up

City Is Spread Out So Much, Only Place Left Goes Skyward

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — America's third largest city, which sprawls 45 miles at its widest, is climbing skyward now.

Gilbert E. Morris, general manager of the Los Angeles Building and Safety Department, explained: "Property is worth so much that the buildings must be taller. There also is a shortage of land in the business district."

Morris recalled that until a few years ago Los Angeles had a height limitation of 13 stories, encouraging the city to spread out. But that was changed to allow skyscrapers.

"Under the present rules the maximum height of a building is dependent upon the size of its ..base," he explained.

"Tall buildings must be indented at their upper levels to comply with the regulations. This situation results in better natural lighting and ventilation at lower levels."

Most of the uplift is underway in downtown Los Angeles and Wilshire Boulevard, a broad roadway that passes through nearby Beverly Hills on its way to the Pacific Ocean. Morris envisions the famed boulevard as a "panhandle" to the downtown financial district.

Among the tallest structures going up are two 22-story office buildings. Others reaching 13, 16 and 18 stories already have the approval of the Building and Safety Department.

FIRM RESPONSIBLE

Its 22-story skyscraper in the heart of the downtown area will soar 285 feet, making it the tallest structure in Los Angeles with the exception of City Hall. Total cost is estimated at 15 million dollars.

The firm already has five multi-story office buildings spotted along Wilshire Boulevard as well as 13-story Wilshire Terrace, a 13-million-dollar cooperative apartment project. President Norman Tishman says another 22-story office building is on the drawing boards as part of his one-building-a-year plan.

Building Superintendent Morris views the growth as "just the beginning" and predicts a higher emphasis on skyscrapers.

Boars Flee City Lights

TORUN, Poland (UPI)—Traffic planners discovered they had done their work better than they expected last night. Four wild boars scampered into town and scattered pedestrians off the streets. The boars finally ran back into the woods after being scared by traffic lights.

Has Organized 'Youth Patrols'

Fidel Castro's Methods Dictatorial

(Editor's Note: In this second article of a series of three, William L. Ryan, AP Foreign News Analyst, gives some answers to the question of whether another dictatorship is likely in Cuba. Ryan has just conducted a new survey of developments in Cuba since he was last there as the Batista dictatorship collapsed.)

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

HAVANA (AP)—It can be unwise for a Cuban to be careless about questions nowadays.

He might ask casually of the wrong person: "How do you think things are going these days?" and be told partly: "That's a counter-revolutionary question."

El Jefe Maximo — the topmost leader — of the revolution, Prime Minister Fidel Castro has a strange idea of democracy. To win Cuba seems to represent the purest form of Athenian democracy because the crowds come out at his beck and call to cheer for his leadership.

Castro rails against dictatorships in Latin America, and it is likely he is completely sincere in believing himself a champion of liberty. On the surface there's liberty in Cuba.

A man can talk openly if he chooses. But if he is overheard, he can be in for trouble. A newsman can print what he wants without a censor looking over his shoulder. But when it appears in print he can find himself in hot water.

There seems little prospect for free elections in Cuba for years—nor is there much prospect for formation of real opposition political activity.

Castro, however, does not appear to relate these things to dictatorship. It's just that he does not seem to permit Cubans any doubt about the road they're traveling.

Some aspects of the developing revolution have an ugly look, though on the surface they might appear innocent enough.

For example, there are the "Patrullas Juveniles"—the youth patrols. On the surface these are little more than Boy Scout-type organizations devoted to fine and patriotic ideals. But underneath they seem something else again.

The youth patrol made its appearance in olive drab uniforms in the big parade celebrating the July 26 anniversary of Castro's movement. The boys were executing a curious little twisted goose-step. They are part of Castro's revolution.

The "Patrullas Juveniles de la Policia Revolucionaria" is billed as an organization intended to "help the police." The youths in the patrol are supposed to inform the police of what happens in their neighborhoods.

In the old days under Fulgencio Batista's dictatorship, such a person would have been called a "chivato"—meaning a little bleating goat, informer or, to put it in the proper colloquial English, stool pigen. Now they are being called "young civic citizens."

Up to the present about 27,000 are enrolled in the organization, operating thus far only in Havana under the direction of a dynamic, middle-aged woman leader named Caridad Alvarez Alamo. It is supposed to enroll youngsters from 7 to 14 years, but the age actually ranges up to 17 or 18.

Leader Alvarez has been quoted as saying she wants to indoctrinate the boys in "comradeship, courage, class spirit and democratic conscience." This has a melancholy similarity to the regimentation slogans that have become familiar in recent decades. One parent who refused to enroll his son in the organization got a furious reaction and says he expects unpleasant consequences.

Other ominous portents include the notion of many workers, including some sugar cane campesinos, that the revolution permits them to strike at the drop of a hat for the most outlandish demands. While this may be a temporary phase springing from workers' glorying in unaccustomed freedom, it is being used by Communist agitators to foment restiveness.

In some areas Communist-infiltrated unions now are sufficiently powerful to become a clearing-house for the labor force with full control over job assignments and wages.

These are only symptoms. Perhaps much of this will be overcome. On the whole, even among the harassed middle class, there is much well-wishing for Castro's revolution, and much confidence it will succeed in the long run despite gloomy portents.

Tomorrow: Hope Amid Confusion.

Pontiac YMCA Offers Classes in Lifesaving

Three classes in "Lifesaving and Water Safety" will be included in the Pontiac YMCA's program for the 1959-60 year.

The courses are open to all YMCA members who are 12 years of age or older. Thirty persons will be allowed in each class.

All persons who wish to enroll must take a preliminary swimming test before they will be allowed to attend class. The course registration fee is $2.

Satisfactory completion of a class will certify the student as a national YMCA junior or senior lifesaver.

All three classes will be co-educational.

The earliest of the classes meets 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Wednesday. The class will begin Sept. 23 and end Dec. 30. Interested persons must register by Sept. 16. Preliminary swimming tests will be given Sept. 9 and Sept. 16.

The second class will meet from 7:30-9:30 p.m. Wednesdays, starting Jan. 20, 1960, and ending April 27. All students must register by Jan. 13. Preliminary swimming tests will be given Jan. 6 and Jan. 13.

The last course is reserved for persons interested in renewing lifesaving certificates. Before enrolling, students must obtain approval from John J. Moreau, director of the aquatics department to attend the course.

The final course will meet from 7:30-9:30 p.m. Wednesdays, May 4 to 25.

Registration must be made in person at the main desk of the YMCA.

Park Name to Be Official

Hawthorne Park's name will become offical Labor Day.

City commissioners have given the Wever-Owen-Hawthorne Community Club permission to hold dedication ceremonies in connection with a Labor Day celebration at the Little Silver Lake park to kick-off a fund raising drive for park improvements.

Giving a park an official name is something of a precedent in Pontiac, observed Commissioner William W. Donaldson.

"Our present big parks have never been officially named. The unofficial names they have are merely based on the names of the property owners from whom the city purchased the land.

"We've been waiting many years for a public benefactor to come along and do something big for the city so we could name a park after him.

"But no benefactor has ever showed up."

On Commissioner Floyd P. Miles suggestion, it was agreed that Hawthorne should be the name of the Little Silver Lake Park, partially because that's the name the community club liked.

"It is very gratifying to see even an organization finally interested in helping our big parks," said Donaldson.

The park—the city's biggest—has been known unofficially as Hawthorne since its development began three years ago. There are a lot of hawthorne bushes in the park area and Hawthorne School is nearby.

The park is west of N. Telegraph road and south of Walton boulevard and is to extend southward, eventually, to Kennett road.

Bee Shoots Both Barrels

LOCKPORT, N. Y. (AP)—An annoyed bee apparently gave him both barrels, 40-year-old Clarence Kinney told attendants at Memorial Hospital. He said the bee came after him as he mowed the lawn, and stung him over both eyes.

Recovers From Heart Surgery

Pretty Patient Playing Tennis

DETROIT (AP) — Just a year ago a pretty 14-year-old Detroit High School girl was wheeled into a hospital operating room for delicate heart surgery.

SHE PLAYS TENNIS

A check on her progress since then finds that Carolyn has recovered with a bounce. She plays tennis, swims — but is still a little shaky for baseball.

Carolyn got national attention at the time of her operation last July at University of Michigan Medical Center at Ann Arbor. A newspaper story mentioned her interest in baseball and Billy Martin, then with the Detroit Tigers, sent her a telegram of good wishes Carolyn prizes highly.

President Eisenhower and Mamie also wrote expressing hope for the girl's recovery and so did Detroit's Mayor Louis Miriani.

Carolyn displays her scrapbook as one looking back on events of several years past.

"I don't remember too much about what all I said then," she says.

But she does remember her 13 days in the hospital, where surgeons worked to repair a valve that was slowing the flow of blood in her heart.

For 7½ minutes her blood was rerouted through a heart pump, a delicate machine that performs the functions of circulation and oxygenation.

Carolyn was given 13½ pints of blood, spent three days afterwards in an oxygen tent with nurses on duty around the clock.

She met visiting Madame Chiang Kai-chek at the hospital, talked with other patients and reports now, "All the fuss over me was kind of funny when there were so many worse off than I was."

As for baseball, the past year has seen Carolyn leaving the national sport pretty much out of her activities. The neighborhood Tiger Fan Club has disbanded and growing older has brought new interests.

PLAYED ONE GAME

"I did play one ball game this year," Carolyn says. "I was shaky afterwards. Mother said it would be too much and I guess it was."

However, Carolyn has managed to try out for her Redford High School tennis team, plans to get in some water skiing and will go in for field archery and hockey when school starts in the fall.

Lightning Bolt Kills 2 at Guard Encampment

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Lightning ripped through a field headquarters in the desert north of here Wednesday, killing two New Mexico National Guardsmen.

Twelve others were injured.

Names of the men killed were withheld by the Guard pending notification of next of kin.

Col. Glen Lovette, a New Mexico Guard spokesman, said the injured suffered principally from shock. He said all of them probably will be released from William Beaumont Army Hospital in El Paso today.

Commissioners to Compromise

Agree to Take Loss to End Land Dispute After Two Years

City commissioners have agreed to take a $7,000-plus loss in order to end a two-year-old land embarrassment.

When Featherstone road was paved and water lines installed in 1957, it was believed that the city owned right-of-way for an 800-foot stretch on the south side of the road west of the Grand Trunk Beltline viaduct.

Asked to pay a $7,000 assessment for paving, the company charged the city with illegally laying the water line on it's property.

City Manager Walter K. Willman reported Tuesday night that a compromise had been reached finally. The landholders, he said, were willing to pay $2,600 in assessments for the water main and 1959 property taxes if the city was willing to forget the paving assessment.

The company was also willing to deed a 27-foot right-of-way to the city along Featherstone where the water main has been located, Willman added.

Willman recommended that the offer be accepted. Despite the loss in paving assessments and penalties, commissioners approved the proposal.

Senator Lodge Will Address Hardware Confab

State Sen. Harvey Lodge of Drayton Plains will address the eighth annual Hardware Managers Conference at Michigan State University Sept. 28-29.

Sen. Lodge will speak on the personal property tax situation in Michigan, a problem of great concern to store owners and managers because of the absence of uniformity in property taxes across the state.

An estimated 75 retail hardware store owners and managers are expected at the Kellogg Center conference.

The two-day school will focus on increasing the efficiency of retail executives in areas of store management, assessing of retail trends, tax problems, employe relations, sales techniques and product knowledge.

President Arthur Merchant, of the Michigan Retail Hardware Association, will address the delegates on credit selling, another topic of primary interest.

Drivers' License Files Popular Literature

LANSING (AP) — Insurance firms, credit bureaus, bill collectors and other information seekers are greatly stepping up use of Michigan driver license files.

Secretary of State James M. Hare said today the monthly average of "lookups" requested of his staff has jumped from about 450 a day in January to 900 a day this month. The charge is 30 cents a lookup.

He credited the success of good driver insurance rebate plans in California and elsewhere with stimulating the demand for information.

In California, drivers with non-accident and nonconviction records are offered insurance rebates of up to 20 per cent.

Increased interest in such policy has been expressed recently in Michigan.

Reds Wear Out Bibles at Exhibit; 2nd Batch Sent

NEW YORK (AP)—New Bibles are being sent to supplement the collection on display at the American exhibit in Moscow.

The American Bible Society said it is providing a new supply to the U.S. Information Agency since reports that some Bibles on display at the exhibit have been "removed or damaged by tremendous wear" by the throng of visitors.

TV Chap Stages an Act

The man:

1. Robbed two performers at a beach night club, comedienne Diane Sterling and singer Mina Moret, of $377.
2. Left the girls holding a $40 charter boat fee for a gulf trip.
3. Duped a motel manager into turning over his private suite to him for five days.
4. Passed a $187 bad check to pay the motel bill.

The girls said the man told them he was here to prepare for a series of films. He also promised them a spot on a national TV program.

The first film to be made here, he said, would be called "You Can't Take It With You."

Would Cut Out Aid to Saudi Arabia

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate was asked today to go on record in opposition to foreign aid for Saudi Arabia and other nations which discriminate against American Jews.

Sens. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) and Jacob K. Javits (R-NY) made public their testimony following appearances at a closed session of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

The committee is considering President Eisenhower's request for 3½ billion dollars in foreign aid funds.

They supported an amendment saying it is the sense of Congress that no assistance shoulr be furnished any nation which discriminates against American citizens because of race or religion.

"The crux of the issue here is posed by the denial of Saudi Arabia to allow American soldiers of Jewish faith to man the Dhahran Air Base we lease from them," Javits said. In addition, he said, Jordan and Iraq, as well as Saudi Arabia, refuse entry and transit visas to Jewish Americans.

Morse said the amendment would be broad enough to cover discrimination against other races and religions, in non-Arab as well as Arab countries.

"I am informed that Norway still discriminates against American citizens who may be Jesuit clergymen," he told the committee. "My amendment would apply to that situation as well.

"I understand Iceland discriminates against American citizens who may be Negroes. My amendment would cover that situation as well."

Shoots 'Accidentally'; Faces Assault Charge

MONTICELLO, Fla. (AP)—Mrs. Louise Walker today faced aggravated assault charges in the shooting of a 9-year-old Negro girl who tried to use a restroom at Mrs. Walker's truck stop.

Mrs. Walker said at a hearing before County Judge Kenneth Cooksey that the gun fired accidentally. She was released on $250 bond.

Sheriff J. B. Thomas said the incident occurred after the girl, Veara Wimbley of Miami, and her family drove up to the truck stop to get their car battery charged.

What Will Kefauver's Delegates Do in 1960?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Where are those 1956 Kefauver delegates going in 1960?

Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn), who beat Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) for the Democrats' vice presidential nomination three years ago, isn't sure which 1960 presidential contender will get the delegates' support.

He thinks most of them are "holding off"—waiting to see how the present Kennedy lead stands up, whether twice-defeated Adlai E. Stevenson gets into the race, how Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) fares in the first primary tests.

"That's my position, too," Kefauver said. "I tell friends who ask me for advice to do what they want . . . that I haven't made up my own mind about whom to support."

It's clear that the coonskin cap candidate, who gave Stevenson the shock of his life by winning the 1956 Minnesota primary, is only seeking re-election to the Senate next year. But it's also likely that some staunch Kefauver supporters in other states still want him for the presidency.

Kefauver's campaign approach may have seemed ham-handed and inept, but he wound up with 755½ delegate votes to 589 for Kennedy on the second ballot for vice president at Chicago on Aug. 17, 1956. The Tennessean topped Kennedy on the first ballot, 483½ to 304.

Many of Kefauver's delegates were the "hard core" type that candidates dream about. He won them with a stumping, hand-pumping campaign that money couldn't buy. Many of them now are looking elsewhere.

Humphrey will inherit Kefauver support in his home state of Minnesota. He also may get some more in neighboring Wisconsin.

In New Hampshire, which has the nation's first 1960 presidential primary, many former Kefauver delegates will be for Kennedy.

Solons Stymied on School Aid

State House, Senate Split by $10 Million on '59-'60 Program

LANSING (AP)—House-Senate negotiators got nowhere in another attempt at ironing out differences over the 1959-60 school aid bill.

Afterwards, Rep. Raymond C. Wurzel (R-Port Huron), conference committee chairman, said yesterday members would get together again next Wednesday.

Generally, the Senate and House are 10 million dollars apart on the cost of a school aid formula for this fiscal year.

The House version calls for a basic grant of $210 a pupil with 3½ mills deductible, the Senate substitute $200 and 3 mills deductible.

Deductible millage is an equalization factor in the formula designed to recognize depressed local revenue-raising powers of socalled "poor" districts and to compensate for them in the apportionment of state dollars.

Government of Panama Hears About Rebel Plot

PANAMA (AP)—The Panamanian government today claimed that another invasion of Panama is being planned in Cuba to topple President Ernesto de la Guardia Jr.

Interior Minister Jose Dominador said some of those involved also had a hand in last April's abortive invasion of the Central American republic.

Dominador said in a brief statement that Panama is "capable of taking whatever measures the circumstances require."

A government source said reports had been received saying preparations for the invasion subsided in the last days because of the present political situation in Cuba, where Fidel Castro's government has been rounding up thousands suspected of a conspiracy to overthrow the revolutionary government.

Panama was invaded April 25 by 90 Cubans and three Panamanians who landed on an isolated beach on the Caribbean coast. The invaders got only a short distance from the coast and surrendered a week later without firing a shot.

The Cubans were jailed for two months and then turned over to their government. A Panamanian law says persons taking up arms against the government cannot be prosecuted if they do not actually carry out their intentions. Cases against the three Panamanians involved also have been dropped.

Police Discover Boys Carrying Timed Bomb

ALGIERS (AP) — A policeman idly watched two little Moslem boys struggling to carry a wicker shopping basket between them.

The urchins heaved the basket along for a short way, then set it down to rest before repeating the process.

The basket seemed much too heavy for groceries so the policeman ordered the boys to halt. He lifted out the grocery camouflage and found beneath it a 60mm. mortar shell rigged to a timing device.

Bomb disposal experts disarmed the device two minutes before the time set for it to go off.

They Bought a House Then Couldn't Find It

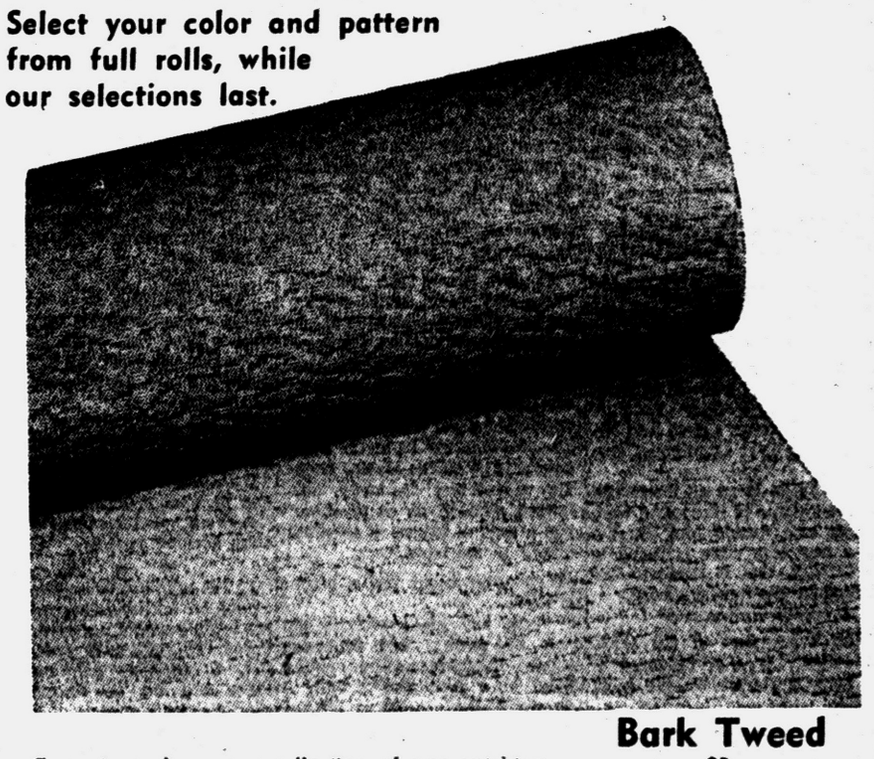

CARROLLTON, Ala. (AP)—Sheriff R. R. Shields investigated the case of the missing house. The people told him they bought the house but that it was gone when they started to occupy it. Shields said workmen had torn it down and carted the remains away.

Want to Adopt a Few Swans?

Stratford - on - Avon Loves the Birds, but They're Too Plentiful

By GREGORY JENSEN

LONDON (UPI)—Anybody here like to adopt a swan?

The place to apply is Bill Shakespeare's home town, Stratford-on-Avon. In fact, if you wait a while, the way things are going, all England will soon be one big swan adoption agency.

As for Stratford, the place is already lousy with swans, if you'll pardon the expression — more than 100, in fact.

They've complicated Stratford's life, all right. One problem is that the town can't just give away its surplus swans. In the first place, it doesn't even own them — Queen Elizabeth does.

In England, the swan is a "Royal Bird," and nobody can own one except the Queen and a couple of London's ancient guild companies. Everybody else "looks after" the swan in his moat, or river, or garden pond, as if the swans were adopted children.

Stratford can't shoot the swans, either — heaven and the RSPCA forbid! And they can't just round up 50 or so and dump them on somebody else's unsuspecting river — nearly everyone else has the same problem.

At Stratford, on the Norfolk Broads, on Romney Marsh, on the River Thames itself, these graceful long-necked birds are to be a pain in the neck.

They're a menace to navigation.

Swans, being social birds, tend to cluster. Endowed with a follow-the-leader mentality, they do everything at once. And they have to churn up the river for a considerable stretch before they get airborne.

Put those facts together and you can picture the plight of someone in a canoe who rears up from a peaceful paddle to find a solid mass of swans racing straight at him, their five-foot wings flailing the water in a mad, frantic effort to take off.

For weekend sailors and professional rivermen alike, it's no joke. The swans simply get in the way.

Swans are everywhere. Nearly every stretch of water a few yards long has a pair busily breeding away. No nobleman's country house would be complete without a few cygnets growing up in the moat or the private lake.

"As far as nature is concerned, swans lead a pampered life," the RSPCA spokesman said.

"Animals don't prey on them. People have a soft spot for them, and feed them in difficult times when they might otherwise die off.

Thus they multiply and (don't tell the Queen I said so) they're a bother."

Say Nixon Doubtful of Communist Revolt

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon reportedly has told a group of Democratic senators there is little hope the Russian people will revolt against their Communist government.

Nixon spoke at an off the record luncheon. Some of those who were present also quoted him as saying a new elite class is rising in the U.S.S.R. that is firmly indoctrinated in Communist theory.

With 7 per cent of the world population, the U.S. produces 41 per cent of the world's electrical energy.

Bob Considine Wonders:

Does Nixon Live Under Lucky Star?

NEW YORK—It is conceivable that Dick Nixon may have clinched not only the GOP presidential nomination but also the White House by his performance behind the Iron Curtain.

He went there to cut a ribbon. He remained to enunciate U.S. foreign policy and sketch the hopes and dreams of the American people with a clarity, vigor and courage that unquestionably won him countless thousands of new friends. Many who considered Gov. Nelson Rockefeller as a Republican who had every bit as good a chance to get his party's top bid at Chicago next year now think of Rockefeller more in the vice presidential nominee role.

The trip through the Soviet Union was an astonishingly good break for Nixon politically. There're those who would like to be president, notably Adlai Stevenson and Averell Harriman, who have passed through that alien corn within the past year and emerged with their prospects neither improved nor further weakened. For Nixon, it was a series of triumphs which improved his stature with every mile traveled.

Earl Mazo, one of the best reporters in the land, captured this aspect of Nixon very well indeed, I think, in "Richard Nixon — a Political and Personal Portrait." (Harper & Bros. $3.95.) It was written, of course, before the Soviet trip and the side excursion to Poland, but the theme's the same. This passage might have been written yesterday.

"One thing about which there can be no differences is the fact that Richard Nixon has been one of the luckiest public figures in American history. None can match his experience of having been saved by a mob that tried to kill him during his good-will tour of South America. (On his visit to the United States eight months later Soviet Deputy Premier Mikoyan, ignoring the fact that it was a Communist-inspired attack, lauded Nixon for 'standing up to them like a rock.')

"There have been other curious and dramatic incidents in his life, starting with a headlong fall from a buggy when he was three. Nixon's father narrowly missed becoming an oil millionaire, and at one time or another Nixon almost became a frozen orange juice promoter, a Wall street lawyer, an FBI agent, a college president, dean of a law school, president of one of California's largest corporations. He might still be a career member of the House of Representatives . . ." (But for Alger Hiss.)

Something always happens to Nixon. As a baby the wheel of the family carriage came within a fraction of an inch of killing him. His father had been a streetcar motorman, carpenter, citrus grower and as a gas station owner had his choice of two sites for his station. He finally chose one in Whittier (Calif.) instead of nearby Santa Springs. The latter site was soon gushing oil. Oil hasn't retarded Rockefeller's political career noticeably, but it could have obviated Nixon's.

As for Nixon, the would-be citrus king, Mazo writes. "When his law practice had been safely established, Nixon branched out into business. The Whittier area had a particularly troublesome oversupply of oranges that year (1937) so he and a group of local plungers decided to try to market them as frozen orange juice. The Sitra-Frost Company was formed with Nixon as president and a total of $10,000 of invested money in the bank."

They never could find a proper package.

"Nixon and his associates cut costs by picking and squeezing oranges themselves. The venture folded in a year and a half. A few disappointed investors blamed Nixon for the failure—and still vote accordingly."

In addition to the beckoning call of the law and education, which would have sidetracked him into anonymity, Nixon tried hard to be an FBI man, which also would have made politics out of the question. On this score, Mazo writes, "Long afterwards, Vice President Nixon jokingly asked his friend J. Edgar Hoover why the FBI never came through with the job. The explanation was simply this: The FBI was preparing a form notifying him to report for duty when an unexpected appropriation cut forced the bureau to stop hiring."

A man needs more than luck, and Nixon has more. But it has indeed been phenomenal. Read Mazo's fine book about this and other characteristics of an unique American political force.

AP Wirephoto

Steel Industry Reportedly Turns Down Suggestion to Cut Prices $10 Per Ton

WASHINGTON (AP)—The steel industry, it was reliably reported today, has rejected a suggestion that it cut steel prices $10 a ton in lieu of granting a wage increase in the current strike situation.

The suggestion was made by Rep. Chester A. Bowles (D-Conn) in a letter to President Eisenhower, who in turn had it referred directly to Chairman Roger Blough of the U.S. Steel Corp.

Blough is said to have turned down the idea on the ground that in settling the monthlong strike, the steel companies are going to have to give the strikers some sort of wage increase anyway.

So far the industry's position is that it cannot, in the public interest, increase steel labor costs and thus spur inflation. The striking United Steelworkers contend that this is an attempt to reverse traditional American economic policy that workers are entitled to regular sharing in profits.

Bowles told a reporter if the industry went along with his proposals, he felt sure the steelworkers union would have to abandon its wage increase demands in the public interest. Bowles was the government's World War II price administrator.

"The effect of a steel price cut would help the entire economy," Bowles said. "It would probably mean that prices of new 1960 automobiles would have to be lower too.

"We've just gotten out of the habit of cutting prices. But once started the idea would catch on."

With steel negotiations continuing in a complete stalemate in New York, other facets of the situation became known.

1. The administration has no intention of invoking the Taft-Hartley law's national emergency provisions at least until Sept. 15 or Oct. 1. Officials are convinced there will be no sizable steel shortage until then.

2. Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, who is studying the strike situation as a fact-finder for Eisenhower, has conferred several times with top figures in the steel companies and striking union.

3. The union is convinced that with no settlement likely the government soon will have to intervene, either by invoking Taft-Hartley or some other method.

4. U.S. Steel revealed it has sent out a statement to striking employes saying the union has exaggerated the effect of steel management proposals to change work rules. U.S. Steel's statement said that from 1940 through 1958 its worker employment costs have risen 288 per cent while shipments of steel products increased only 30 per cent.

5. In reply the union said the work rules couldn't be too much of a problem at U.S. Steel because there have been only 135 cases involving work rules in U.S. Steel grievance procedures since 1947. Out of the 135 cases, the union said, the company won all but 23 in arbitration. Also, the union said industry profit per man-hour rose from $1.47 in 1957 to $2.28 in 1959, or an increase of 67 per cent.

Univac to Tell Truth

'Plane Two Hours Late?'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Ever called an airline to find out if your wife's plane is on time, been told that it was and then gone out to the airport to find it was two hours late?

Ever reserved space on a flight only to discover when you check in at the airport that the airline sold 51 seats on a 50-passenger plane and you're No. 51?

Capital Airlines announced today it has done something about two of the most frequent complaints directed against airlines — inaccurate flight information and botched-up reservations.

Capital, the nation's fifth biggest carrier, has installed a mammoth, intricate electronic reservations-flight information system developed by Remington-Rand. It makes use of the famous electronic brain known as "Univac."

Capital is not the first airline to use an electronic reservation system. But it said it was the first to install one that serves all major cities on its routes.

One thing the new system won't eliminate is the telephone operator who says:

"Reservations are busy; will you hold the line, please?"

Castro Leads Revolt Mopup

Directs Troop Action Against Rebel Holdouts in Cuban Province

The bearded Premier was reported to be in a mountainous area of Las Villas province 140 miles southeast of Havana. Authorities said revolutionary government troops had encircled a band of armed members of the conspiracy the Castro forces said they uncovered last week.

Castro flew to Cienfuegos Wednesday, then boarded a helicopter for the trip to the mountains between Cienfuegos and Trinidad. He was accompanied by his Army chief and Celia Sanchez, the Premier's secretary.

A number of fugitives were said to have surrendered in Las Villas, including several persons of "considerable importance." Details were not available.

Meanwhile, a band of armed men attacked a small military outpost near Matanzas, 65 miles northeast of Havana. Authorities said no casualties were reported but that seven men were captured.

Castro forces continued to haul in persons for questioning about the alleged plot against the government which Castro's aides called a massive conspiracy. There still was no firm estimate of the number held, although Castro's brother Raul, commander in chief of the armed forces, several days ago put the figure at about 3,000.

State Senate Will Probe the Highway Department

LANSING (AP) — The decks were clear today for a Republican Senate investigation of the Democratic - controlled state highway department, particularly its land buying practices.

The probe won Senate approval on a voice vote yesterday after minority Democrats and Sen. Haskell L. Nichols (R-Jackson), highways committee chairman, tried vainly to kill it.

The resolution for it was authored by Sen. John H. Stahlin (R-Belding), who was cagey as to exactly what he wanted to find out about right-of-way purchases.

"It's not the right time to disclose the facts I have collected," was all he would say.

Stahlin and other Republicans have been feuding on and off with the Democratic highway commissioner, John C. Mackie.

Months ago the Belding freshman assailed waste in the highway agency in his maiden floor speech. He reported his criticism brought 100 letters with "leads" of possible irregularities.

Yesterday he said another 50 letters had arrived in the last two weeks after word got around on his investigating resolution.

Nichols said the proposed area for investigation could be covered by an existing committee on highway problems. He complained that Stahlin by-passed him as highway committee chairman.

Sen. Harold M. Ryan (D-Detroit) called the probe "obviously a political venture, a political witch hunt."

A special group of five senators will investigate later this year and report findings to the 1960 legislature. A request for $5,000 expense money was cut to $1,000. The interim committee will have subpena powers.

The Senate also approved interim committees to study construction safety regulations, frictions between private seedling growers and public soil conservation districts, and possible abuse of tax-exemptions by cemeteries.

The cemetery study group would be charged particularly with examining restrictions imposed by some commercial cemeteries on sale and installation of monuments and markers.

Let the People Be Civil, Silent to Khrushchev

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn) urged the American people today to be "civil but silent" during Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's visit to the United States next month.

"Let there be no cheers for the Red dictator, no crowds assembled to greet him, no flattery or flowers. Let our prople be civil but silent." Dodd told the Senate in a prepared speech.

Dodd, former prosecutor at the Nuremburg war crimes trial, called the invitation to Khrushchev a "dreadful wrong." He said the visit was equivalent to "having Hitler in the White House."

His speech contrasted sharply with proposals made today by two other senators, including the other senator from Conneeticut, in statements calling for greater exchanges of information between this country and Russia.

Swedish Opera Singer to Recover From Attack

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (UPI) — Doctors said today that Swedish opera singer Jussi Bjoerling, who suffered a minor heart attack Tuesday will be fit again after a little rest.

Bjoerling, 48, was reported at his summer residence on Singoe Island in the Stockholm Archipeligo. The attack was his first.

May Lose Convention

Los Angeles Threatened by Dem Ticket Squabble

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A squabble that could cost Los Angeles the 1960 Democratic National Convention neared a showdown today.

Democratic National Chairmah Paul M. Butler warned that unless a convention ticket dispute is settled by Monday he will start looking for another site.

Kenneth Hahn, Los Angeles County supervisor with whom Butler talked by telephone Wednesday, said he expects a compromise will be worked out by Saturday.

But, Hahn said, if that fails a new group is ready to finance the convention.

"I learned from a very high Democratic official that another group is ready to put up the $350,000 to underwrite the convention," Hahn said. "It is willing to accept the 1,500 tickets offered by Butler."

He would not identify the Democratic official for the group.

The ruckus started when oilman Edwin Pauley, cochairman of the host committee, demanded 5,000 daily tickets to help pay off the $350,000 guarantee. He later agreed to a compromise of 3,113 tickets suggested by Los Angeles Mayor Norris Poulson.

Butler insisted that many tickets would not be available after necessary demands were met.

He said in Washington he would not budge from the 1,500-ticket allotment.

Hahn, speaking of compromise possibilities, said he expects Pauley and Butler "will give a little."

Of Butler's statement that he wants the dispute settled by Monday, Hahn said: "It was no ultimatum. The National Committee simply has to begin making convention plans and can't be embroiled forever in a ticket hassle. Its position has been clear from the outset."

Miami Beach quickly made plain it was eager to jump back into the convention picture. Mayor Kenneth Oka said: "If they even suggest the possibility again of holding it here, we will come running. Miami Beach can show them a convention the likes of which they have never seen before. The door is still open."

Washington Embarrassed
Find 'Carthage' Marble

WASHINGTON (AP) — What they found in the Washington Monument is embarrassing both the housekeeping and historical branches of the government.

It's a 200-pound block of marble. As big as a suitcase, it has lain unnoticed in a corner of a stair well for something like 80 years. Workmen found it when they installed a new elevator several months ago.

The big stone is apparently one of 189 sent from different states, countries and societies when the monument was being built during the last century—the job took 36 years, being finished in 1884.

This one is inscribed "Carthage," and sure enough, one of the gift stones was from the ruins of ancient Carthage—donated by an individual. Only trouble is it was supposed to have been built into the monument with the other 188 and guide books list it there.

Why it wasn't is something Edmund J. Fitzgerald, superintendent and historian of the monument can only guess. He thinks it probably just got lost during the two decades between 1860 and 1880 when no work was done on the monument.

What's he going to do with it now? He doesn't have the answer to that, either.

Principal minerals of Israel are limestone, sulphur, rock salt, gypsum and sandstones.

Hoffa to Address Lawyers at a Closed-Door Meeting

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Teamsters' president James R. Hoffa will meet with more than 100 of his union's attorneys in secret session Monday at a plush resort hotel in West Virginia.

Hoffa is scheduled to make the opening address — behind closed doors — at the annual conference of attorneys who represent locals or citywide councils of his 1,500,000-member union.

The Teamsters' top legal talent will be gathered to consider possible ways to blunt the impact of labor reform legislation on the scandal-scarred union.

Reporters will be barred from the three-day sessions at the Greenbrier Hotel in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, a Teamsters' spokesman said today.

General counsel Edward Bennett Williams, the Washington lawyer who has represented Hoffa in courtroom battles for the past two years, will attend.

So will Dave Previant, a veteran union attorney regarded as Hoffa's top legal adviser on labor matters.

Williams and his associate, Raymond Bergan, are expected to report on setbacks suffered by the giant union in its struggle with court-appointed monitors bent on a clean-up campaign.

Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter has refused to grant the Teamsters' appeal to block reform directives until the high tribunal reviews the decision arming the monitors with clean-up powers.

Suit Pie Filling to Hot Weather

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Light desserts are the order of the day in hot weather. People who like pie want it, summer or winter. It's up to the cook to vary the filling according to the temperature and to use fresh fruit in season.

Peaches cream go together in a gelatin filling to make a perfect party treat. Be sure to garnish the pie with wedges of rosy-edged peach slices.

Peach Chiffon Pie

1½ cups sifted enriched flour
½ cup shortening
3 to 4 tablespoons cold water
Peach Chiffon Filling

Cut shortening into flour until mixture is crumbly. Sprinkle with water, mixing lightly until dough begins to stick together. Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth and press dough together. Roll out a circle ⅛ inch thick and line an 8-inch pie pan. Trim edge even with plate edge. Prick with fork.

Cut ¾-inch pastry rounds (about the size of thimble) from trimmings. Brush pastry rim with cold water. Place rounds evenly on rim, slightly overlapping edges. Press lightly with finger. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 8 to 10 minutes. Cool. Fill with Peach Chiffon Filling. Makes 1 8-inch pie.

Peach Chiffon Filling

2 cups chopped fresh peaches
¾ cup sugar
1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin (1 envelope)
¼ cup cold water
½ cup hot water
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Dash salt
½ cup whipping cream

Add sugar to peaches and let stand 30 minutes. Meanwhile, soften gelatin in cold water. Dissolve in hot water, stirring well. Cool. Combine peaches, dissolved gelatin, lemon juice and salt. Chill until partially set (about 15 minutes).

Whip cream until stiff peaks are formed. Fold into peach mixture. Turn into baked pastry shell. Chill thoroughly. Garnish with additional peach slices and whipped cream, if desired.

Do you have a patch of mint growing in your garden? Pluck some of the leaves to give a piquant flavor to this interesting pie. It's an American adaption of a French recipe.

This pie calls for a crumb filling. Here are two tricks to make life easier for you when dealing with crumb crusts. First, don't form the crust on the rim of the pie plate, but just inside it.

Then dip the pie plate in hot water for about a minute before you cut the pie. This will soften the butter used in greasing the plate and the pieces all come out right.

You may question the use of blue food coloring in the filling. The pudding is yellow enough so that it will turn mint green when you add the blue coloring.

MINT CREAM PIE
Crumb Crust

3½ cups bite-size shredded rice biscuits crushed to 1 cup
¼ cup sugar
¼ cup soft margarine or butter
2 teaspoons hot water

Heat oven to moderate (350 degrees.) Grease 8 or 9-inch pie plate. Combine cereal crumbs and sugar. Add margarine and water. Blend until uniform. With back of spoon, pack crumbs firmly and evenly onto bottom and sides of pie plate. Form an edge around top of crust, not on rim of plate.

Bake 5 minutes. Cool before filling. OR, instead of baking, refrigerate one hour. Fill with Mint Filling.

Mint Filling

2 cups milk
2 tablespoons finely chopped fresh mint leaves or 1 tablespoon dried mint leaves
1 package instant vanilla pudding
Few drops blue food coloring

Scald 1 cup milk. Stir in mint leaves. Steep 1 minute. Drain and chill (this is important). Add enough milk to make 2 cups. Add pudding. Beat slowly 1 minute, or as directed on package. Add food coloring. Pour into Crumb Crust. Set pudding as directed.

Chill at least 30 minutes before serving. For easy removal, dip pie plate in hot water for 1 minute before cutting. Serve topped with whipped cream and chocolate shot or sprigs of fresh mint. Yield: 1 8 or 9-inch pie.

Our last recipe today is for an ice cream pie. You make your own chocolate ice cream for the filling. Of course, if you're in a hurry, you'll probably use boughten ice cream.

Coconut Pie Shell

1½ cups flaked coconut
2 tablespoons butter, melted
2 tablespoons sugar
¼ cup finely crushed graham crackers, ginger snaps, vanilla wafers or chocolate wafers

Combine coconut and butter and mix well. Add sugar and cookie crumbs, mixing thoroughly. Press firmly on bottom and sides of 9-inch pie pan. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 10 to 12 minutes, or until lightly browned. Cool.

Homemade Chocolate Ice Cream

1 square (1 ounce) unsweetened chocolate
½ cup water
½ teaspoon vanilla extract
1 cup heavy cream

Set refrigerator control at lowest point. Put sweetened condensed milk and chocolate in top of double boiler. Cook over rapidly boiling water, stirring often, until thick (about 10 minutes). Slowly add water, mixing well. Chill. Stir in vanilla.

Whip cream to custard-like consistency. Fold into chilled milk mixture. Pour into freezing tray. Cover tray with waxed paper. Freeze to a firm mush (about 1 hour). Turn into chilled bowl. Break up with fork. Beat with rotary beater until fluffy but not melted.

Hide Sweet Pickles in Long Hamburgers

NEW YORK (UPI)—Pickle barb-burgers have built-in relish. Blend ⅔ cup (1 small can) of undiluted evaporated milk with 1 egg, 1½ pounds of ground beef, ½ cup of fine cracker crumbs, 1 teaspoon of garlic salt; ½ teaspoon of salt, ¼ teaspoon of cayenne, ¼ cup of chopped canned pimientos and ½ cup of finely chopped celery.

Form into 6 frankfurter shapes with 1 sweet gherkin in the middle of each. Broil and serve on frankfurter rolls.

Melon Sherbet a New Idea

Here's an unusual sherbet recipe that can be served as appetizer, salad, or dessert with summer meals. You can make it ahead of time, and plan to take as much in your dinner party as in its preparation.

Lemon-Cantaloupe Sherbet

1¼ cups milk
1 cup sugar
1 ripe cantaloupe
⅓ cup lemon juice
3 egg whites
1 cup heavy cream
Honeydew wedges

Heat milk and sugar until sugar is dissolved. Cool. Pour into a freezing tray and freeze partially. Scoop the pulp from the cantaloupe and chop very fine, either with a blender or chopper. Spoon the frozen mixture into a cold bowl and beat until light and fluffy but still thick. Add the cantaloupe puree and ⅓ cup lemon juice while beating.

Pour into two freezing trays and partially freeze again. Beat the whites of 3 eggs until stiff but not dry. Whip 1 cup heavy cream and fold into the whites. Spoon the partially frozen mixture into a cold bowl and beat only to soften. Carefully fold in the egg-white-cream mixture and return to the freezing trays.

Golden Vegetable Dish Weds Corn to Carrots

This sunny corn and carrot saute will brighten up any menu. All you do is saute ¼ cup finely chopped onion in 3 tablespoons butter in a frypan until yellow and transparent. Mix in ½ cup shredded carrots and 2 cups corn cut from the cob, then cover and steam about 5 minutes over very low heat.

Stir in ¼ cup evaporated milk along with ¼ teaspoon salt and a few grains pepper. Bring to serving temperature over low heat and you're all set to dish up four servings of a truly delectable and beautiful vegetable combination.

Paw Paw Slates Centennial Festival

PAW PAW (UPI) — Everyone from bearded men to beauty queens will be on hand to help celebrate the centennial of this town which is the seat of Van Buren County.

The Paw Paw Centennial will open Saturday night when the 17 young lovelies who are vying for the title of centennial queen will be presented at a dance in their honor.

A pageant entitled "Footpath to Freeways," dramatizing the growth of the town, will be presented nightly throughout the week-long observance. Local churches will hold special services Sunday.

Other activities include days dedicated to the town's women, youths, pioneers, industry and agriculture.

On the final day of the centennial celebration, Aug. 22, there will be a big parade topped off by a shaving contest at which all the local men who have grown beards in honor of the festivities will be shorn of their whiskers. Prizes will be awarded for the best beards.

Nuclear Testing Pressure Rises

Backers Certain Reds Will Also Resume Trials Soon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Officials said today pressure was building up within the government for a resumption of nuclear weapons tests this fall.

Government leaders who think high-altitude and small weapons tests should be started again are convinced that Russia is planning to resume its atomic tests also.

They hold this feeling despite a statement this week by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev that Russia will not begin a new round of tests.

Last Oct. 31, the United States and Britain suspended nuclear tests for one year and called on Russia to join them. The Russians conducted some tests within a few days but have done no detectable testing since.

Administration officials anxious to resume tests are urging that new experiments be started shortly after the 12-month period is up even if the Soviets don't start testing weapons themselves.

This pressure comes from the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC), the Defense Department, the Coast and Geodetic Survey and some scientists who have been working on weapons projects.

Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM), chairman of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, predicted that tests would be resumed after the year is up.

The State Department is holding out against the resumption while the Geneva talks by the three atomic powers on how to police a test ban are continuing.

Death Rate Decreases

CLEVELAND — Deaths from diphtheria and typhoid have decreased by about 92 per cent in the United States since 1900.

Corn, Peaches Headline Local Produce Items

More Michigan produce is the food story of the week. If you are alert to change, you'll notice more Michigan peaches, early apples, corn, tomatoes, celery, eggplant, etc.

Notice that pork and poultry continue to receive major emphasis at the meat counters. Pork prices are fluctuating at the wholesale level, yet several cuts are featured. Fryer and turkey prices have dropped slightly. Beef, veal and lamb prices remain about the same with some stores featuring veal.

FRUIT FOR THE PICKING

Warm humid weather has caused fast ripening of peaches. Retailers report, the Redhaven variety almost harvested in the large production area around Benton Harbor. Harvest of this variety is just starting in eastern Michigan and will last for about a week.

Remembering that the Redhaven is one of the best peach varieties for canning and freezing, let's check to see if you want to can or freeze some. When peaches are $3 to $4 a bushel, a pint of home canned or frozen peaches costs 15 to 17 cents. Costs include the peaches, containers, sugar (and ascorbic acid used for frozen peaches.)

Let's compare home canned or frozen peaches with those in the store. A pint will hold two cups or four one-half cup servings. A number 303 size can holds the same. A 2½ size can holds three and one-half cups, enough for six or seven half-cup portions.

Still a good time to freeze blueberries, and it's so easy. For pies just clean, wash, drain and pack. For fresh fruit dessert, pack blueberries with a 40 per cent syrup. Make syrup using 3 cups of sugar to 4 cups of water. Cool syrup before covering the berries.

Can you remember a time when we've had good apples from the past year and new crop apples on the counters at the same time? It's possible because some of last fall's best apples went into special controlled atmosphere storage. The controlled atmosphere apples will be best for snacks or baking. The summer apples are suitable for sauce or pies.

Careful now! The vegetable selection is so bountiful and fresh in appearance that you may have a tendency to forget the limitations of storage space at home. Corn is very plentiful with most stores pricing it at about 40 cents a dozen. Try to cook corn the day you buy it.... for it loses fresh flavor fast. Put corn in the refrigerator, husks and all. If you husk it first, place the ears in a moisture-proof container or wrap to keep from drying.

Trying to decide how much corn to freeze or can? A bushel weighs about 35 pounds or measures about 60 ears. That's enough for 14 to 17 pints frozen or 10 to 12 pints canned. Many farmers sell corn by the sack containing five dozen ears.

Michigan potatoes are increasing in supply. If your family can use as many as 24 or 25 pounds within a short time, or if you have cool storage space, this size package is the best value at about 2½ to 3½ cents a pound. That's about one cent per serving....very little for the fine flavor of freshly dug Michigan potatoes.

Those little pigs born last spring are influencing pork prices to the benefit of the food shopper. About 17 per cent more were born than in the spring of 1958. This means that from now until winter we can expect larger pork supplies.

This week, cuts from the pork loin, roll sausage and bacon are specially marked. The rib-end roast of pork makes a meaty piece for barbecue when it is cut flat as "country-style ribs."

Beef continues at the same steady prices at wholesale and retail. This makes a sale welcome news if you're buying beef. The sirloin steak will serve three 4-ounce portions per pound, while T-bone and porterhouse will yield only two.

If your family likes poultry meat, fryers and small size turkeys rate consideration again. Small turkeys average 35 to 49 cents per pound. Fryers range from 27 to 43 cents per pound.

Eggs are not plentiful, says one retailer, but supplies are ample for your needs. Have you noticed an increasing number of small and medium size eggs? Large size eggs are 30 to 36½ cents per pound, medium sizes range from 27 to 34 cents per pound and small sizes are 28 to 29½ cents per pound.

Above All, Don't Fret About It

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: If a guest breaks something while visiting in someone's house, shouldn't she make some attempt to replace the broken article?

Answer: Whenever the broken article can be replaced by an exact duplicate, it should be. But this is not always possible, either because the item would be too expensive for the guest to replace, or a duplicate is not to be found. A substitute might be acceptable if the broken article was an odd dish or an ash tray or a vase or a figurine, but if it belonged to a dinner set, let's say, then an unmatching piece would not do at all. In any case, the guest having told the owner how distressed she is, and having done what she could toward replacing the broken article, should then try not to worry herself

Dear Mrs. Post: Several friends and I have been discussing the following matter and would like your help. When a man and woman get into a taxi, should she take her place on the right hand side, or move to the far side? It seems to me that it would be better for her to take her place on the far side so that the man does not have to walk in front of her to take his place.

Answer: In the small taxis that are now almost the only ones to be found, it is practically necessary for the woman to slide herself over to the far side because of the extreme difficulty her companion would have in passing in front of her.

Dear Mrs. Post: When one received an "at home" card enclosed with a wedding announcement, what does this mean?

Answer: It means that the address given is where the bride and bridegroom will live. If the card also includes a date this means that on and after it they will be glad to see their friends.

Funds raised from the party will benefit West Bloomfield Branch of Boys Clubs of America. Carl Misfeldt, director, is a recipient of a medal and certificate from former President Herbert Hoover who made the Boys Clubs one of his chief projects. Newlyweds Will Reside in Pontiac Upon Return

To make their home on Liberty street following a honeymoon through upper Michigan are Mr. and Mrs. Eldon W. Runkel. The couple was married Saturday evening at United Church of Christ. The Rev. Donald Gabler officiated at the ceremony before 150 guests.

The bride, the former Jean Margaret Trout, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Trout of Waterford. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Runkel of Livonia.

The bride's floor length gown was of white Chantilly and French illusion lace over satin with a Sabrina neckline. A Juliet cap held her fingertip veil of French illusion lace and she carried a cascade bouquet of white glamelias centered by pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Raymond Ebey was matron of honor and Susan Chapman was bridesmaid. They wore ballerina length dresses of white dotted Swiss over mauve taffeta with scoop necklines and matching headpieces. Their cascade bouquets were of orchid glamelias and pink rosebuds.

A reception was held in the church parlors. For her going away outfit, the bride wore a pink sheath dress with white accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Both attended Michigan State University and the bridegroom also attended University of Michigan.

Mrs. Trout wore a dress of gray lace over pin taffeta with white accessories and a corsage of pink glamelias. Mrs. Runkel was dressed in a blue lace dress with white accessories and a yellow rose corsage.

Preschool Tot Finds Freedom in Water Play

Little children love to play in water. Mothers of little children usually object to this kind of play for the very practical reason that it is messy and requires a lot of cleaning up. Also there is always the question of the child becoming chilled.

These are valid objections and yet waterplay has a lot of real value for the pre-school child.

The boisterous, aggressive child often quiets down when he is allowed free rein with a tub of water. Also the timid youngster seems often to gain a new freedom when he is splashing sudsy water about.

Every mother knows how much children enjoy their baths. It is certainly not the getting clean that entrances them, it is some quality in the water itself as it drips from a sponge, pours from one vessel to another, foams up with soap, trickles down the arms, that fascinates children.

With some planning, it is not impossible to give youngsters the joy of playing in water. Try it and you may find you have a happier more cooperative youngster on your hands.

No Necking or Bikinis!

Teenagers Say Strengthen Beach Etiquette

By EUGENE GILBERT

Most beaches, public and private, carry such warning signs as "no ball playing," "dogs prohibited," "litterbugs prosecuted," "obey lifeguard" and "no picnic fire."

As far as an overwhelming majority of teenagers are concerned, a new one should be added in large, red letters:

"NO NECKING."

Necking on the beach or at poolside is not only poor manners but downright disgusting, say 92 per cent of the 583 boys and girls we interviewed in a nationwide survey.

"Exhibitionists, that's what they are, and they look silly to me," added a 16-year-old Evansville, Ind., lad. The boys turned thumbs down on seaside necking by 91 per cent verdict.

Even more conservative displays of affection, say holding hands or dancing to the tunes of a portable radio, drew a reproach from this youthful outdoor morals committee.

"There are other places and better times for such behavior," said a 16-year-old Carlsbad, N. Mex. girl, "and it's very inconsiderate of the rest of the group." Nearly nine out of every 10 questioned agreed.

So much for the amorous behavior of others. How about themselves? Would they indulge in necking or handsholding on the beach or at the pool. Never, answered 94 per cent of both boys and girls.

Brief bathing suits, particularly the bikini, also were ruled out of bounds, although here the boys wavered a bit. The vote was 96 per cent against revealing feminine swim suits when the girls were counted, but dropped to 90 per cent with the male contingent.

"Most girls don't wear them because they can't, but those that can should," said a 17-year-old spokesman for the male minority.

But most of the boys agreed with most of the girls that bikini wearers were vulgar exhibitionists out to attract attenion.

"She may think she's sexy," commented one boy, aged 18, "but in most cases she's only showing bony ribs and a shocking lack of taste."

The survey showed that 83 per cent of the boys and 67 per cent of the girls preferred to go to the beach or pool with members of their own sex. Girls (24 per cent) were far more interested in going to the beach or pool with a date than boys (7 per cent), but boys (9 per cent) would much rather go alone than girls (5 per cent).

But both sides agreed it was more fun to go to the beach with a group consisting of members of their own sex than to go on a date. And as for going alone, heavens, no!

"I feel less self conscious when I'm with a bunch of the boys," explained a 16-year-old Philadelphia boy.

Despite their preference for going to the beach with their own kind, neither boys nor girls say they restrict their activities to their own group once they arrived there.

More than half of the boys (53 per cent) and 36 per cent of the girls admitted that they usually go to the beach with a group from their own sex with the idea of meeting a group from the opposite sex.

"Safety in numbers," explained one girl, age 15.

While frowning on necking, bikinis and other overt examples of sex at the beach, both boys and girls thought it perfectly acceptable to meet new members of the opposite sex at swimming and beach parties.

"Why not?" demanded a 14-year-old Philadelphian. "You can't help meeting girls at the beach. At least I can't."

Shrinking Violet No Fragrance for Big Evening

Many American women shy away from what they consider the more exotic perfumes. They tend to rely heavily on the flower-scented colognes on the theory that they're playing it safe with these.

But the truth is that a flower-scented cologne is all wrong for a big evening out. This is every woman's chance to feel like a femme fatale even if she's spent the whole day over the kitchen stove and got a sitter for the children only at the last moment.

For such big events, she should reserve one perfume which is musky, exotic and very nearly Oriental in feeling. What with the high price of almost everything these days, she probably can't afford a large range of perfume scents. But she can fix on one favorite which she knows does the most for her. And she can let friends and family know that this is what she would like on gift-giving occasions during the year.

For it perks up any woman's spirits to have a really big evening out now and then.

Jazzy Colors for Men's Wear

Another effort to jazz up men's conservative clothing: Designer Julie Taylor shows ties in red, gold, orange and blue in 2,000 patterns. Most ties are washable, and hand sewn.

Shapes range from slim bow ties to narrow four-in-hands. Ends are square and have inside pockets "for bus tokens or tranquilizers."

Carleton Scotts Plan Traditional Party

By RUTH SAUNDERS

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Visiting grandchildren are the incentive for gala entertaining this month and one party in particular is fast becoming a tradition. Taking place this coming Saturday from 5 p.m. on it will be a swimming and supper party of at least forty guests at the W. Carleton Scott home on Lane Lake road at Gilbert Lake.

Honorees are Mr. and Mrs. Alan Spencer and their three children who came last week from their home in Towson, Md. and have been dividing their time between the former Dorothy Scott's parents and Alan's parents Mr. and Mrs. Spencer D. Hopkins of West Long Lake road.

Also here will be another Scott son-in-law and daughter, the John Cooper Adamses of Breckville, Ohio.

In September the Alan Hopkins will reach their 10th wedding anniversary but its celebration will take place Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hart waved their three grandsons off Monday after a week long visit. Their daughter Mrs. Robert Kershaw with Rock, Fraser and Carter drove back to State College, Pa., on Monday.

Mrs. William R. Tracy Jr. stopped off in Birmingham a few days with her three sons en route to Naples, Fla. for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Mildred Ibsen. They had been spending a month at Wequetonsing.

Mrs. Waldemar A. P. John who spends nearly every weekend at the Old Club, St. Clair Flats, had as her guest last week Miss Margaret Walsh of Evanston, Ill. Miss Walsh is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Clark of Adams road.

Frances Kyes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger M. Kyes, is motoring in Europe this summer and is not expected home until late September.

Kathie Kyes was also in Europe where she attended Sarah Lawrence summer School near Florence. She returned home last week after six weeks study.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Graham were hosts at a supper party Sunday at their Wing Lake home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Vandeveer arrive Sunday from Phoenix, Ariz. for a visit with their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Leroy G. Vandeveer.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Giffels have as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Fitch of Mesa, Ariz. and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Symes and their son Ronald of Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. Giffels were hosts at a Sunday breakfast for their guests at Oakland Hills Country Club.

Dark and off-beat colored shirts are sparking up the wardrobes of more and more women every day. This one for example, is of pure silk, olive green broadcloth. The shawl collar is notched and the sleeves are set in.

Non-Stick Metals for Kitchenware

If you need a new spatula or pancake turner, look for flexible metal with smooth finishes so food won't stick to them. Handles should be long enough to keep your hands away from the heat when they are used at the gas range.

Kitchen forks should have long tapered tines with a smooth finish so foods can be pierced without tearing. Pouring lips on pans and ladles should be on two sides and the lip should have a sharp edge to be dripless. Handles on all housewares should have loops or perforations so they can be hung.

The William C. Nelson family of Lowell street left this morning for a two-week vacation through the southern states. Two-year-old Steven, left, and Billy, three, were anxious to begin the exciting trip as their parents packed the last pieces of luggage in the car trunk. They will travel through Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, and visit several of Mr. Nelson's relatives in Birmingham, Ala.

Others were Mrs. George Brinkman, Mrs. Max G. Morey, Mrs. E. Milton Evans, Mrs. William D. Hanby, Mrs. Vilas L. Newcomb, Mrs. John Sheehan, Mrs. Phillip Long, Mrs. Donald McCandless, Mrs. Allan McLintock, Mrs. Donald K. Ely, Mrs. Edward Lauchner, Mrs. Claire Hinckley and Mrs. Cecil McCallum.

Phony Lashes Need Trimming Before Gluing

Now that false eyelashes and eyebrows are gaining acceptance for daytime wear, it's obvious that a girl must develop technique in handling them. Otherwise, she'll look as if she's heading for work in a chorus line, third from the end on the left.

The false lashes should be trimmed with a scissors before you put them on. Fun is fun but you're not trying to imitate a centipede. Snip the lashes a bit shorter towards the nose. Press the lashes on with the glue that comes with them and quickly blot the excess with a quilted cotton square. Now, apply mascara if you like.

False eyebrows go on just as easily. Spread the glue sparsely along the netting that lines the brow. Press the brow on, blot up any extra adhesive with another cotton square. Then use an eyebrow pencil to darken the brow to the wanted shade. Two shades of pencil will probably achieve a natural effect.

Why Spoil Her Fun . . . Abby

Auntie Thinks People on TV Can See Her

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What do you do about a great-aunt who thinks the people on TV can see her?

ABBY

She talks back to them and everything. Also before going in to watch Perry Como or Gary Moore (they're her favorites) she gets herself all fixed up for them.

I am having a terrible time trying to convince her that there is no use talking to those people. Can you help me? I am 12 and my great-aunt must be about 100.

ROSALIE

DEAR ROSALIE: If your great-aunt enjoys "talking" to the people on TV, why spoil her fun? Live and let her live a little.

DEAR ABBY: My husband has his own business and makes a very good living. Here is my problem. He resents paying doctor and dentist bills.

He pays all other bills on time, but he puts off the doctors and dentists until I am so ashamed I could die.

He handles all the money so I can't do a thing about it.

We see some of these professional men and their wives socially and I can't look them in the face knowing we have owed them for a year. Can you help me? MRS. L.

DEAR MRS. L.: Your husband ought to sit down with some doctors and dentists and learn about the sacrifices and lean years that were a part of their training. Doctors and dentists have only their time and skill to sell, and they can't afford to give it away any more than a grocer can afford to give away groceries. What a pity the memory of a toothache or an ingrown toe nail is so fleeting.

DEAR ABBY: I am 44 years old and have just found God. I am married to a man who does not know God and does not want to seek Him. We have four children and they do not know God, nor do they seek Him because they are just like their father, but I pray for their salvation. I study with a Bible group five nights a week. I have to drive 60 miles as we do not live in the city. That means I must leave before supper. My husband tells me I am sinning to leave my family while I go to be in God's presence. Please tell me if I am sinning if I am going to serve the Lord?

M. K.

DEAR M.K.: We best serve the Lord by serving our fellow men. The Lord will understand if you perform your wifely and motherly duties first, and worship Him when it does not require that your family shift for themselves.

DEAR ABBY: I have been seeing a certain guy for about a month. He has a car and we park and make out quite a lot. My problem is: He won't say "I love you." He will say, "You're the greatest," or "I think you're terrific," but he is very careful not to say "I love you." And these are the words I want to hear the most. I have said, "I love you" to him but he won't say it back. How can I get him to say these words?

KAY

DEAR KAY: This fellow is trying not to mislead you. He thinks you are "terrific" and definitely "The greatest" but he isn't certain that he loves you. He is honest. You are lucky. If he ever says, "I love you," you'll know he means it.

CONFIDENTIAL TO R. B.: If one does not like another because of his race, color or creed, why not just leave him alone?

Discover Contact Lens

Although nearly six million people in the United States wear contact lenses, most women are not well-informed about the lenses. The reason for this is that once a woman has become used to wearing them, she doesn't discuss them.

For contact lenses, when they've become comfortable are like second sight. That's what they're intended to be. They are not intended to be worn evenings only or as an alternate to glasses. They are intended to be worn all day and evenings, too, and for sports as well as reading or office work.

Many people entertain the idea that it's difficult to learn to wear contact lenses and that they're uncomfortable. The truth is that it takes five minutes to learn how to flick the lenses in and out of the eye. As for discomfort, the lenses float in tears and never touch the eyeball.

The newest type of lenses cover the cornea only. These lenses have four vents on the inside surface to allow normal air and tear flow. They move with the eyes and are completely invisible to others. And therefore, they provide a wider field of vision than glasses which do not conform to the eye.

Today, bifocal lenses are available in contact lenses. So are colored lenses, to wear in the sun or to change the color of the eyes, if you like, from a light color to a darker color.

Any woman knows that removing glasses entirely opens up a whole world of new hat types, new hairdos, new make-up possibilities.

Start Exercises

Poor Posture Harms Pelvis

Raise your trunk and touch the floor with the fingers on each side of you. This is a splendid exercise for strengthening the abdominal muscles.

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Many women have an incorrectly balanced pelvis. The tendency is to stick the hips out in the back. Yet the balance of the pelvis is of the greatest importance.

In the first place, when the hips ride out in back like a trailer on an otherwise lovely, silhouette is ruined. Then, too, this poor posture causes strain and fatigue.

This is a very prevalent feminine figure fault and every woman would be wise to check on it. You may have fallen into this poor posture habit without realizing it.

In order to get the feeling do the following exercise. Stand tall. Pull the hips under as you bend the knees about one-third down. Hold while you count to five slowly, straighten legs and continue.

Weak, lax abdominal muscles are often a contributing factor to swayback. This is a splendid exercise for strengthening these important elastic bands so that they can do the work they should. Lie on the floor. Bend both knees and place the feet on the floor. Your arms should rest on the floor overhead.

Keep the knees bent and the feet on the floor as you raise your trunk and touch the floor with the fingers on each side of you. Lower trunk to the floor and return arms to overhead position. Continue.

It also will be helpful to you if you will keep your knees relaxed when you stand or walk. In other words do not hyper-extend them at the end of each step. If you do this you are almost certain to develop swayback.

If you would like to have my tested abdominal exercises send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 2 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Baby Sitting Ups Oldsters' Incomes

By RUTH MILLETT

"Write a column about how to be happy at 75 with every friend gone and having to live on $100 a month, social security," asks one of my readers.

It can be done. A number of women in my town are doing it. It takes good health, courage and a determined effort to be happy. With those assets, a woman of 75 isn't really old.

The women I'm talking about are widows. Some are closer to 80 than 75. But they've found the solution of how to add to their fixed incomes by baby-sitting in their neighborhood.

Baby-sitting not only gives them a chance to make money, but gets them acquainted with their young neighbors. Many of the neighbors become interesting and obliging friends.

It also gives them a feeling of being useful, which women need at every age in life. Instead of sitting home alone, night after night, these women are often booked weeks in advance by young parents who depend on them for a little freedom and recreation.

To the children, they are like adopted grandmothers.

The money they earn is a real ego-builder. So are such words from grateful parents as, "I don't know what we would do without you" and "we never worry about the children when you are with them."

So if you have the health and strength, look into baby-sitting as a way of adding to your income and making yourself a contributing member of your community.

As for friends, there is no age at which a person has to stop acquiring new ones. You must have stopped a long time ago if all your friends are gone.

A wise man once told me, "for every friend I lose I make a new one." That is the best way of making sure you don't outlive all of your friends.

Baby Makes News

Make a scrapbook of important events that happened the day baby was born. Start it with newspaper announcement or regular birth announcement. Ensuing pages could have newspaper clippings on national and international events, fashion photos, advertisements, entertainment blurbs, etc.

When a fellow breaks his engagement, the girl can either take it to heart or to court.

Pontiac Girl Weds Marine Corps Man

Karen Elaine Bowman and L. Thomas Conley were married June 8 at Central Methodist Church, the same church the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs Wilfred H. Bowman of Draper avenue were married in 32 years ago. The Rev. Charles E. Sutton officiated at the ceremony.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Jack P. Moule of Detroit, the bride's brother-in-law and sister.

The new Mrs. Conley is at home while her husband is stationed with the U. S. Marines at Camp Pendleton, Calif. Following his overseas duty they will live in California.

Cold Water Soak

Baby has a way of dumping his milk over his head rather than getting it into his stomach. To clean milk-stained garments, soak them first in cold water before washing them. This assures removal of stains and a cleaner laundry.

Need for Early American Decor at White House

An authority on Early American furniture, Margolis returned from a visit to Washington, D. C., and said that he never before realized that the White House contains no examples of the pure artistry of the founding fathers.

"There may be some pieces of the real thing here and there, but if they are, they are overpowered by sideboards after Sheraton, chairs after Chippendale and everything after Hepplewhite."

"There should be an Early American room," Margolis said. "It should be a room the school children can go into, not be herded past with a brief glimpse through a doorway."

Margolis, a furniture manufacturer, turned his production to Early American reproductions sevcral years ago.

"We had been making contemporary furniture," he said, "but I felt and still feel, that we were moving too far from our origins."

"All households have their cleaning problems, even the White House, but it would be nice to have one room the children could walk through and where they would feel welcome," he said.

Rains Soaking Formosa Again

Halt Rebuilding Work After Big Flood; Airlift of Food Held Up

TAIPEI (UPI)—New rainstorms lashed flood-stricken Central Formosa today halting reconstruction work.

A new storm center enveloped the entire Nationalist Chinese island where 2,200 persons are dead, injured or missing from the biggest flood on record.

Taichung Airport was closed by rain, halting emergency airlifts of food and medicine.

Reports from Central Formosa said heavy rains forced workmen to abandon emergency repair projects directed towards restoring the island's crippled rail and highway systems.

The U.S. Seventh Fleet amphibious assault ship USS Thetis Bay steamed towards Formosa from Hong Kong with 21 big Marine helicopters to aid in rescue and supply operations.

The warship, a converted escort carrier, was expected to reach the stricken island tomorrow afternoon.

Its helicopters will be dispatched by U.S. Army Col. Franklin Fliniau, who commanded American military advisors on Quemoy when the Communist bombardment started a year ago.

Allocate State Tax Money to Universities, Institutions

LANSING (AP) — Budget makers kept tinkering today with a 1959-60 capital outlay program despite fairly well settled agreement on items adding up to $17,400,000.

The House - Senate Committee said the building package is expected to be submitted to lawmakers when details are ironed out, probably next week.

The total is far below the amount administrative officials contend is needed to modernize the state's physical plant and keep up with increased services.

Rep. Frank D. Williams (D-Detroit), a Capital Outlay Committee member, warned that nothing can be accomplished until a tax program is agreed upon.

MAJOR EXPENDITURES

Major proposed expenditures include $6,635,000 for state universities and colleges, $3,364,000 for state hospital expansion, $2,000,000 for continuing construction already under way, $1,400,000 for maintenance and $1,200,000 for medium security housing at state prisons.

The University of Michigan will receive $1,800,000 to start a new institute of science, and technology. Michigan State University will receive $1,750,000 for a new classroom building and expansion of the administration building.

Wayne State University will receive $1,000,000 for a start on a new classroom building and remodeling of the Old Main building to meet fire safety standards. Community and junior colleges will receive $1,000,000.

Other spending proposed for higher learning institutions:

Ferris Institute, Big Rapids, $600,000 for a new classroom building; Houghton College of Mining and Technology, $75,000 to complete plans for the first unit of a mathematics and physics building; Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant, $75,000 for plans for a science building and $500,000 for a new powerhouse; Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, $50,000 for plans for the first unit of an industrial arts building, laboratories and classrooms; Northern Michigan College, Marquette, $60,000 for plans for a practical and fine arts building; Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, $800,000 for the first unit of a natural science building.

Proposed spending for mental institutions:

Ionia State Hospital, $800,000 for a unit to house criminal sexual psychopaths; Kalamazoo State Hospital, $778,000 for the first unit of a female center; Lapeer State Home and Training School, $720,000 for the first unit of a 160-crib nursery and administration building; Mt. Pleasant State Home and Training School, $750,000 for administration buildings; Plymouth State Home and Training School, $800,000 to pay two-thirds of the cost of a 220-bed unit for retarded children and $115,750 for utilities.

Proposed prison spending:

Marquette Branch Prison, $600,000 for the first unit of a powerhouse to be located outside the prison walls; Ionia Medium Security Prison, $450,000 for a housing unit, $500,000 for a vocational and academic building and $250,000 for utilities and site development.

Senate-House Group Agrees on Water Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate-House conference committee has agreed on a $1,206,748,549 water projects appropriation bill. This is about 30 million dollars more than President Eisenhower had asked.

Chairman Clarence Cannon (D-Mo) of the House Appropriations Committee reported the agreement. Both houses must approve the compromise bill before it goes to the President.

The compromise provides money to plan or start about 85 new projects. The President had recommended no new starts this year.

Wisconsin Synod Votes to Maintain Relations

SAGINAW (AP) — The Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod has voted to maintain relations with the Lutheran church's Missouri Synod, with reservations.

Five hours of debate between delegates to the Wisconsin group's 35th bienniel convention here yesterday ended with a recommendation that the synod's commission of doctrinal matters work toward reconciliation with the larger Missouri group.

The synod voted to remain in "protesting fellowship" with the Missouri Synod. The Wisconsin Synod has accused the Missouri group of participating in religious fellowship with organizations whose doctrines are not in accord with accepted beliefs of Lutheran groups.

Senate Slashes Cost of Veterans Pension Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Finance Committee has slashed the 40-year estimated cost of a House-passed veterans pension bill by 21 billion dollars, it was learned today.

The effect of the cuts, voted by the committee in closed session Monday, would be to make the bill save $10,974,000,000 of the 105 billion dollars which under present law will be paid in pensions between now and the year 2000. As it passed the House, it would have cost $10,128,000,000 more than the law now provides.

The cut, estimated by the Veterans Administration and confirmed by several senators, is far deeper than newsmen were given to understand Monday after the committee voted.

The bill is to be called up on the Senate floor today.

Veterans organizations are urging senators to reject the Finance Committee amendments.

Senators Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla), Albert Gore (D-Tenn) and Eugene McCarthy (D-Minn) filed minority views protesting the committee's action. Kerr promised a floor fight.

The administration proposed, and the House accepted, a new sliding scale for pensions based on need affording a 40-year saving of 12 billion dollars.

The House, however, voted to make widows of World War II and Korean War veterans eligible, at a cost of 22 billion. At present only World War I widows enjoy this benefit.

Although accepting the widows equalization feature, the Senate committee heavily trimmed pension scales. This provided most of the big cut.

Sen. Hrry F. Byrd (D-Va), Finance Committee chairman, said the 40-year estimates would be affected by future changes.

Hollywood Headlines:

Nancy Valentine Works for Job, Not Publicity

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "The biggest problem I have is convincing producers I want to act. They wonder where they have heard the name Nancy Valentine. Then they say, 'Oh, yes, she was the girl who was married to the Maharajah of Cooch Behar. She must be so rich that acting is just a hobby'."

THOMAS

Not so, says the beautiful blonde. She's acting because she needs to support herself and her daughter. And she's making headway. She is now doing her first feature movie.

Nancy is admittedly a publicity-created personality. To the general public—and film producers, too—she is one of those elusive names that pop up in the news and gossip columns.

But can she act?

"I've appeared on hundreds of TV shows," she says, "but producers always ask me, 'What have you done?' It's disheartening."

At least one producer is in her corner. That's Jack Webb, for whom she has acted on his various TV series. Now she has a good role in his newspaper movie "—30—."

Between scenes, Nancy recounted some of her amazing history. She first came to Hollywood from New York as one of the long parade of Howard Hughes discoveries. She said that she grew restless with inactivity, but he told her: "Nobody ever quits me." She broke the precedent, then became an acting hopeful for David Selznick and Mervyn Leroy.

Enter the Maharajah.

Their alliance is clouded in legend, but it appears that they met in a Hollywood night club, he fell head over turban for her and took her to India as his wife.

"But India was undergoing an economic shakeup," she said. "If the country recognized our marriage, it would have meant the loss of investments that the royalty had in banks overseas. About this time, my relations with the Maharajah were getting a little shaky anyway, so I decided to call it off."

She returned to Hollywood—and religion. She became a convert of the Self-Realization Fellowship and renounced her worldly goods—including a big settlement from the Maharajah—to enter its hermitage on nearby Mt. Washington. After three years, she left.

A marriage followed to wealthy Frederick Tillinghast III. This broke up after two years and one daughter. Now at 31, Nancy Valentine is working hard to make her career catch up with her publicity.

Let Each One Make His Bed

Mom Should Work Out Plan for Youngsters Before School

Back-to-school for youngsters means back to a full or daily schedule for Mom. To get everyone back into the routine give even the smallest tike some responsibility.

If, after the dressing is done and before breakfast, bed-making becomes a ritual, the children seem to accomplish their other tasks a little better, according to researchers.

Bed-making can be used as a timing device to relay everyone into the bathroom at different times.

Also, when buying sheets for their beds, remember that a contour sheet on the bottom can't be very wrinkled even if they don't smooth it. That solves half the problem.

Basically, the top sheet, blankets and other covering should be treated as a single cover. This automatically reduces steps around the bed.

First, line the covers up, keeping the hems parallel. Pull them to the top taut, fold back sheet top and tuck overhang under the mattress at sides and bottom.

Second, plump pillows, place on bed and tuck bedspread over the top.

The only catch in the whole routine is the adults had better make their beds before they leave in the morning, too, or they're in for an awful lot of ribbing.

Cuban Delegation Tours in Yugoslavia Today

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UPI)—A six-member Cuban delegation on an around-the-world good will tour began a six-day visit in Yugoslavia today.

The party, headed by Maj. Ernesto Guevara, was invited by the federal executive council in return for a visit to Cuba by a Yugoslav delegation last month.

Russians Want to See More U.S. Movies

VIENNA (UPI) — U.S. film executive Spyros Skouras said Wednesday his trip to the Soviet Union convinced him the Russians want to see more American movies.

"From what I saw, I am convinced that the Russian people are great theatergoers and would like to have the opportunity of seeing more American-produced motion pictures," he said.

Skouras, president of 20th Century-Fox, stated that he went to the Soviet Union as a member of President Eisenhower's committee for the American Exhibition in Moscow.

"It has been a great success and a remarkable achievement," he said of the exhibition. "The thousands of Russians who have attended the well-balanced display have been very enthusiastic, to say the least."

Skouras said that he met top Russian cultural officials who were optimistic about the potential increase in exchanges of films between the two countries.

Switzerland Job Haven; Only 760 Unemployed

BERN, Switzerland (UPI)—The federal labor office said today there were only 760 jobless persons in this country of 5,300,000 as of July 31.

The figure was an all-time low in unemployment, beating the previous low of 960 in July, 1957, the agency said.

May Britt, Mate Split

Guam in the Marianas chain, has only 125 square miles.

Pakistan Plans to Move Capital

Overcrowded Karachi Never Intended to Be Government Center

WASHINGTON — Pakistan is making long-range plans to move the federal capital inland from overcrowded Karachi.

A seaport and industrial center, Karachi is the Moslem republic's largest metropolis, the National Geographic Society says. In 12 years since the partition of British India, the refugee-choked city's population has grown from 300,000 to 1,500,000.

Seas of mud and straw huts surround Karachi's handsome, 19th-century buildings and broad avenues. Vital facilities — water, light, and housing — are strained to the breaking point.

The new capital will be built on a green plateau in the mountainous north near Rawalpindi. To the east is Kashmir, a pocket of lush valleys guarded by the Himalayas. To the west are Khyber Pass and the bare, hulking shoulders of ranges in the North-West Frontier Provinces.

A healthy climate, availability of food, water, and building materials, as well as defense, were factors in the selection of the Rawalpindi site in the fertile Punjab.

The new capital will not rise overnight. The move will be made in stages over a considerable period of time as resources of the young, hard pressed nation permit.

As Asian cities go, Karachi is a youngster. It was not until the 18th century that Hindu traders settled the arid area known as Kalachi or "Land of Sand Dunes." Even a century ago, Karachi was hardly more than a fishing village sandwiched between the Arabian Sea and barren deset.

Karachi might have remained a quiet backwater had not the area's first colonial governor, Sir Charles Napier, realized its possibilities. He was largely responsible, in the mid-19th century, for developing the harbor facilities. Today the port is the outlet for all of West Pakistan and Afghanistan.

During World War II, Karachi was a main stop on the Miami-India lifeline of the U.S. Air Transport Command. It was not uncommon for one pilot to ask another to pick up laundry left the week before in the city. Karachi remains a terminal point for international airlines and has one of the busiest airports in Asia.

Karachi was not intended to be the permanent capital of Pakistan — a nation numbering 84,000,000 people. And it was hardly prepared, after partition in 1947, for the avalanche of Moslem refugees and civil servants.

Though the Government has made a strenuous effort to provide housing to countless refugees the sidewalks are often a home without walls. The streets are crowded with bicycles, pedicabs, horse-drawn victorias, streetcars, buses, cars, taxicabs, and, typically, rubber-tired carts pulled by camels.

If They Read This, Rats Will Go on Milk Binge

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON (NEA) — If an average rat drinks twice as much milk as he has to have, he'll live 10 per cent longer.

If an average human being were like an average rat, by drinking an extra glass or two of milk a day he might live six years longer.

But no one is certain human beings are like rats in this respect. Nor does anyone know how much milk a man needs. And no one has determined how many people would be willing to drink more milk.

The best thing about these rat studies is that they indicate that the super milk drinkers have a better time.

They mature quicker. That is, they get interested in girl rats at a younger age. They stay younger longer. That is, they don't get senile and scraggly as quickly. And they stay interested—at even advanced ages for rats — in the ladies.

Researchers have now carried their studies on for some 90 generations of rats. Apparently milk is just as effective in the 90th generation as in the first.

Why all this work with rats? It's because researchers have found that rats are affected—in some ways — by some of the same things in a diet that humans are.

Shortages of some essential food elements hit rats in about the same way they hit humans. But there are some great differences, too — one great difference being in the daily requirements of a rat and a human.

Department of Agriculture men — spurred on by the farmer —are already pushing for a bigger boom in milk drinking.

They're advocating powdered milk in everything from soup to meat loaf. They're recommending that you "enrich" the milk you drink with a spoonful or so of powdered milk.

If you don't like milk: eat cheese.

(Side not: one of the top nutrition researchers for the Department of Agriculture can't stand milk. She can't eat much cheese, because cheese has too many concentrated calories. "So what does a poor woman do?" she asks.

It will be a long, hard road before the Department of Agriculture researchers find out whether extra milk adds to the life of a human or not—how much milk it takes and how many years it adds.

"Because, if you begin with children, you'll probably die before your experiment is concluded," says one researcher. "And who could get even one human being to live on a controlled diet all his life."

But some private university research men have a substitute plan in mind. They aim to find out just how much milk and calcium older people need to keep running normally from month to month.

They'll determine this by noting what effect shows up when a man varies the amount of milk he drinks. Does he lose calcium from his bones when he drinks this amount of milk? Does he throw off calcium as waste when he drinks so much more?

These results will give them something to work on. Then they'll work on other factors in milk.

Apparently the Russians enter even into this milk problem. There are some Congressmen who want the Department of Agriculture men to begin looking into exactly what the Soviet Union is doing. There are rumors the Reds have a secret way of prolonging life. Milk?

He Would Prevent Cruelty to Mailmen

NEW YORK (AP)—Take pity on the substitute mailman and use a muzzle or leash on your dog, Brooklyn pet owners have been urged.

Postmaster Edward J. Quigley says 60 letter carriers were put out of action by dog bites last year during the summer months.

Too Many Make God Sub for Blue Cross Plan

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A New York psychiatrist, who once was a Lutheran pastor, told a meeting here that too many people try to make God a "substitute for a Blue Cross program."

"When you need Him," said Dr. Paul A. Qualben, "you call Him down. Then when you're finished with Him, you send Him back."

Youth Has Close Shave

MONROE, Wis. (AP) — A young defendant trembled as Green County Judge J. F. Collins told him: "I wish it were in my power to send you to the chair."

The judge added:

"I mean the barber chair."

Who Will Get Hurt?

Will the 'Little Three' Cars Sell?

BY BEN PHLEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT (AP)—The dies are cast, planning is complete, ads are set and production lines are ready to hum. The Big Three's "Little Three" cars are on their way with only two big unanswered questions—will they sell, and if they do who will get hurt?

The Corvair, Falcon and Valiant are Detroit's versions of what it hopes you have been waiting for. Pitched to a theme of foreign car economy combined with American "big car" ride and handling, they represent a multi-million dollar switch in thinking by the major auto manufacturers.

While American Motors gambled everything on compact Ramblers and Studebaker-Packard cast its lot with the Little Lark, General Motors, Ford and Chrysler shied from the small domestic autos.

For the record they said they weren't interested in building them in this country until the market approached 500,000 cars a year. That point zoomed by a while back and found Volkswagen, Renault, Rambler and Lark sliding it up neatly with assorted other imports.

Now, says an industry joke, the signs on Detroit auto executives' desks all read "think small."

Preliminary production figures would suggest that during the next year there will be more than one million compact cars built in the United States. Among the imports some 80 per cent, or at least 400,000 cars, fall into the compact class of 109 inch wheelbase or less. This makes a total of almost 1½ million against a 1959 market of 750,000. To come out even next year the market for this particular sized car would almost have to double.

ALL GET HURT

Arnold Bernhard & Co., a New York investment firm, estimates the 1960 market at about 1,150,000 compact cars, and in response to the question of who will get hurt responds: "Somewhat charitably, perhaps, we assume that they all will."

The investment survey continues: "The Big Three will probably have to sell at least 500,000 cars a year to break even on their small car operations.

"We see no reason for doubting the Big Three's ability to sell their new cars—the only question is, will they make any money doing it? We believe that the Big Three will be strongly motivated to retail at least enough automobiles to cover the overhead cost of their production, even if it means a low profit per unit or none at all.

"However, such merchandising would almost certainly have an adverse effect on the independent domestic and foreign manufacturers, both sales and profit-wise, unless the small car market should expand by considerably more than 50 per cent.

"We look, then, for the Big Three . . . to scramble with American Motors, Studebaker and the imports for the balance of the market. The imports might well bear the brunt of this indicated decline in the non-Big Three potential market, but American and Studebaker would probably suffer to some extent, too."

There are these other random factors involved. Dealers insist the new smaller cars must come into the market place at under $2,000 list price to sell. Used car prices, originally expected to fall sharply with the approach of the new cars, have held up stronger than ever this summer. In a spot survey in Richmond, Va., dealers generally predicted a little additional business but several feared cuts in their established lines, or in used car sales.

A National Automobile Dealers Assn. check found what it called amazing owner loyalty among owners of the small imports—a vital factor in determining what these owners will buy the next time.

All of which goes to show why the sales campaigns will be some of the hottest ever. You will be feeling them soon.

Sicily Chooses No-Red Cabinet

Commies Helped Vote In Government but Don't Get High Post

PALERMO, Sicily (AP) — The Sicilian Legislature voted a Communist-supported government into office Wednesday but none of the Cabinet posts went to Communists or left-wing Socialists.

After four rounds of voting, the Regional Assembly picked eight ministers for the government of Regional President Silvio Milazzo. They included three members of Milazzo's Christian Social Union, two Monarchists, a Fascist, a dissident Christian Democrat and a Democratic Socialist.

The outcome of the voting was new evidence of Milazzo's dominance of Sicilian politics. All but the Democratic Socialist were his choices.

Milazzo is a former Christian Democrat who quit the party sayings its leaders in Rome were not doing enough for the Mediterranean island. Milazzo won re-election as regional president last month with the backing of the Communists, left-wing Socialists, and dissident Monarchists, Fascists and Christian Democrats.

The assembly met July 31 to elect eight ministers but only one got the necessary majority for election. Communist and left-wing Socialists had so few votes that they were eliminated from today's ballots. But they supported the president's candidates all the way.

Planning More Study on Water Diversion

LANSING (AP)— The claim by Michigan and other Great Lakes states that Chicago and Illinois should not divert additional water from Lake Michigan has been greatly strengthened, Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams said today.

Adams cited a recommendation of the joint Canadian-United States interparliamentary group that a further study be made of the request for easing of restrictions on Lake Michigan water diversion.

The group consists of 31 members of the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives and an equal number of Canadian members of Parliament.

Drop Murder Charge Against Girl in Fire

ELMIRA, N.Y. (AP)—A murder indictment against Jane Ann Shusko, 15, has been dropped and she has been transferred to Children's Court.

Her brother and six of her sisters died July 11 in a fire that police said she admitted setting in her house.

Justice Floyd E. Anderson dismissed the seven-count indictment Wednesday. The grand jury recommended this because of Jane Ann's age and "circumstances surrounding the case." The jury did not elaborate on the circumstances.

4 Hot-Spots Could Determine Outcome

Watch Virginia in Integration Battle

By RAY CROMLEY

Four major hot-spot battles are in the offing this fall that could sway the integration-segregation duel.

Despite the reported "collapse" of "massive resistance," integration is so far going ahead at a snail's pace in Virginia Around 50 Negro students were "integrated" in the past school year.

"At the rate we're going now it will be the year 2000 before we have integration in Virginia," says Oliver W. Hill, chairman of the legal redress committee of the Virginia State Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Unless there's some big change in the way courts are deciding cases in Virginia, he expects integration will continue to creep—or even edge backward—as Negro families become discouraged.

Members of the Defenders of State Sovereignty and Individual Liberities are just as determined as ever to hold the line against integration. They figure they're going to gain strength, not lose it as time goes on.

Situation One — Prince Edward County, in the deep south of Virginia, where the County Board of Supervisors has just decided to vote no funds for the schools this fall to keep them from being integrated. The NAACP plans a suit this autumn to challenge the closing of these schools.

Basis of the challenge: the State Constitution says Virginia shall maintain a system of public schools. The NAACP argues the county is an arm of the state, therefore must maintain schools.

The Prince Edwardians—who are organizing segregated private schools—will fight this out in the courts. They're backed by a number of other counties, like Albemarle, which have put their school budgets on a month-to-month basis.

VIRGINIA'S SOLID stand against school integration was shattered last February when Alverazo Gonsonland (above) and 16 other Negroes were admitted to Norfolk schools.

Situation Two—Warren County, 60 miles west of Washington, where 22 Negro students were "integrated" into the high school last school year. The 1,000 white children refused to attend, went instead to private segregated schools.

Reportedly, the public high school will open again this fall. If it does, and only 100 to 150 or fewer white students attend, it's understood the citizens will petition for a referendum that will permit selling the school to a private white school group as "surplus."

That could be the opening wedge for a whole series of private segregated schools in "surplus" public school buildings throughout the state.

The NAACP plan is to try to get the white children voluntarily to attend the "integrated" school. They don't know yet how they will attempt to do this.

Situation Three — Charlottesville, in central Virginia, where a group of private white citizens are already building a $300,000 campus of brick school buildings scheduled to be completed in September. They've already received applications from around 225 white elementary students and 450 high school students for the fall term.

This elementary school and academy are not intended as temporary stop-gap measures, but as permanent schools that would operate on the State-authorized tuition grants of slightly less than $250 per pupil available to Charlottesville children who do not wish to attend public schools.

If successful, this school could be the forerunner of a series of private schools that would complete with the State school system.

The NAACP has no plans for handling this school-academy situation.

Meanwhile, the city's public schools are expected to desegregate for the first time this fall. A Federal judge ordered nine Negroes admitted to two schools last fall, but the two schools were closed to put off integration. The number of Negroes that will be admitted this year is uncertain.

Situation Four — Arlington County, just across the Potomac from Washington, where a handful of Negro students were admitted to "white schools" last school year. The courts have ordered a few more admitted this fall.

The NAACP is seriously considering using one upcoming Arlington case to fight for an entirely new method of integration in Virginia schools.

The NAACP lawyers will argue, in essence, that the whole case-by-case method of integration is illegal. They'll say the courts should require each Virginia county and city to present a complete plan of integration.

The NAACP has argued this before, and lost. But this go-round it would carry the point to higher courts — would aim at the Supreme Court if lower courts turned down the arguments.

These four battles could strike decisive blows at either the integrationist or segregationist forces. They could set a pattern for other states.

Expecting? Ridiculous, Claims Liz

SAGARO, Spain (UPI)—Actress Elizabeth Taylor said today rumors she and Eddie Fisher are expecting their first child are "ridiculous."

Miss Taylor said there was no truth to the rumors which started in Paris yesterday after she boarded a plane for Barcelona wearing a brown, sack-like dress often worn in France by expectant mothers.

Hagerty Lands in Bonn to Arrange Ike's Trip

BONN (UPI)—White House Press Secretary James Hagerty arrived today in President Eisenhower's special jetliner at the head of an official party which will make arrangements for the President's visit late this month.

Hagerty declined without explanation to read a statement prepared for him by the U.S. Embassy, but he did chat briefly with reporters.

"We are merely an advance party, preparing the program for the President's visit here later at the invitation of Chancellor (Konrad) Adenauer," he said. "We will work out the details."

'Fascinating and Different'

Teacher Is Circus Clown – in Summer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Schoolteacher Tom Kelly thinks a teacher should do something really different in the summer. So he's doing it—as a circus clown.

Kelly, 28, has been teaching the fifth grade at Lowville Academy in Lowville, N.Y., for six years.

It was in 1956 that he got the idea that a circus ring would be a good contrast to a classroom.

"I had always been interested in the theater," he says. "I had done some work in the East, always in character parts."

He wrote of his ambition to Ernesto Cristiani at Sarasota, Fla., and was invited to join up.

"It is fascinating," he says. "We move almost every day. We don't play in a building but under the big top. We live in house trailers and eat in the cookhouse."

Kelly works with an Italian clown, John Bogoghi, a veteran of 40 years.

"He's the hobo," Kelly said. "I'm the neat clown. I'm all in white with white makeup. It's an old European style."

Tom's no relation to the famous clown Emmett Kelly.

"I don't even come from a theatrical or circus family," he says. "You might say I came in over the side wall."

Tom says he's found a lot of satisfaction in amusing people.

"In this day and age there just doesn't seem to be enough laughter," he says.

But even under the big top he can't get away from teaching entirely. Each morning he holds class for the circus people's children.

Food Should Be Cheaper and Employment Better

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Cheaper, or at least stable, food prices and the wherewithal to pay them are implied today in two government reports.

One predicts abundant harvests. The other reports record employment as the nation heads into the period that usually sees the lowest volume of unemployment for the year.

A prolonged steel strike could cause layoffs in factories that need the metal. This would cut total consumer incomes. But if settlement can be made by mid-September, unemployment should dwindle further. Any more paychecks would add to the increasing total of personal incomes.

Abundant supplies of most foodstuffs is reported by the Agriculture Department. And the chances for cheaper meats soon are based on two factors: above-average production of feed grains and hay; and the steady buildup in livestock herds so that more animals will be shipped to the market this fall and next year.

The corn crop is expected to be the biggest in history, topping last year's record by 10 per cent. The hay crop is larger than the 1948-57 average. The department estimates total production of feed grains as 135 per cent higher than the 1947-49 average.

This means that livestock raisers will have abundant feed for fattening cattle, pigs and lambs. They have been building up herds depleted during the drought years. This will soon be pushing more steers into the stockyards. And it should end the policy of recent years of withholding breeding stock.

The hog population seems sure to stay high through the fall and spring. Big corn harvests tend to boost hog production.

Wheat output this year is 4 per cent above the average for the last 10 years—and there is a huge carryover from previous harvests. The department puts rice production well above the 10-year average. So far this year milk and egg supplies have been higher than the 10-year average. And this also is true of most fruits.

At the pocketbook end of the food business is the spreading recovery in business and the rise of employment.

This assures the farmer and rancher of customers. With more money, consumers tend to buy better foods. From the farmer's point of view this helps offset any price weakness the bumper crops foretell.

Gov. Williams Names Macomb, Berrien Agents

LANSING (UPI)— County agents for Macomb and Berrien Counties were among five appointments announced Wednesday by Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

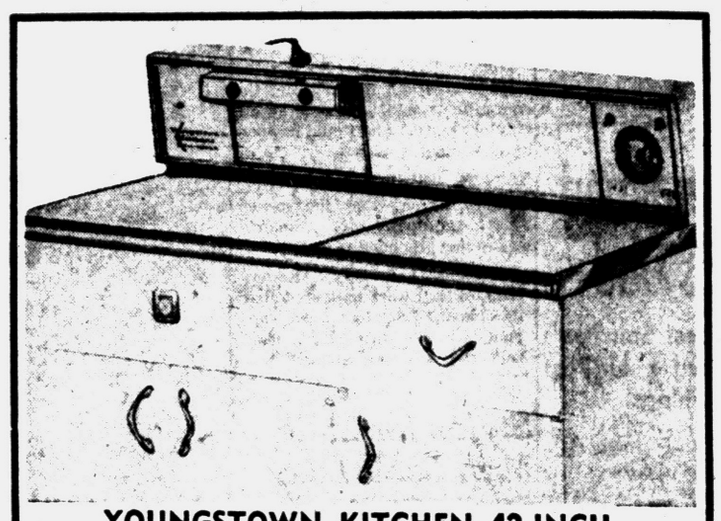

Named by Williams were:

Daniel D. Griffin, Mount Clemens, as Macomb County agent; Ervin J. Paulin Jr., St. Joseph, Berrien County agent; Mrs. D. Carole Wier, Mount Clemens, assistant Macomb County agent; Steven L. Dykema, St. Johns, friend of the court for Clinton County; and Eugene Krasicky, Lansing, as a member of the State Employes Retirement Board.

To Handle City Bias Problems

Relations Group Formed

Pontiac has a new, nine-member human relations committee today, ironically born after a half-hour's bickering at the City Commission table

Appointed by Mayor Philip E. Rowston to serve on what was described as "an advisory board" were:

Irving Steinman, Fred V. Haggard, Leon Hubbard, Addison Oakley, James F. Spence, Rabbi Israel Goodman, Joseph Kosik, the Rev. Galen E. Hershey and Fr. Fabien K. Weber.

The first five named were members of the Fair Employment Practices Commission, which was disbanded early this year.

SHOULD BE AVAILABLE

Rowston said he would ask the new body to meet soon to elect a chairman and make itself available to the city at large.

"It is the purpose of the committee to be available to any citizen who feels he has a grievance because of race, creed or bias," explained Rowston.

"It is hoped that citizens will lodge their complaints with this committee so that an informal solution can be worked out between the disputing parties without a formal complaint to the state FEPC."

The committee will be available on call at City Hall, said Rowston.

Commissioner Milton R. Henry attacked formation of the committee on grounds that its duties and responsibilities were "too vague."

He brought out the fact that the committee would have only reconciliatory powers and would be operating without a budget.

BETTER GROUNDED

Henry argued that the former FEPC, set up by city ordinance, was better grounded.

Rowston and City Attorney William A. Ewart answered that the local FEPC had been supplanted by the state FEPC. They said the attorney general had ruled that local FEPCs no longer had any power in Michigan.

"I have been asked to form a body to replace the local FEPC here and this committee is my answer to that request," said Rowston.

Henry dubbed the committee "a lot of foolishness," and said, "I doubt if it could accomplish anything."

On Henry's insistence, Rowston submitted to the full Commission the question whether he should form an advisory committee or not.

By a 5-0 vote, formation of a committee was approved. Henry and Commissioner Robert A. Landry abstained from the vote.

Plan to Plug Holes in Warning System

OTTAWA (AP) — The defense ministers of the United States and Canada have agreed that a big new radar program is needed to plug the gaps in North America's warning system. The expansion is expected to cost at least 100 million dollars.

Agreement in principle was reached in talks Tusday between Neil H. McElroy of the United States and Maj. Gen. G. R. Pearkes of Canada.

The United States would foot at least two thirds of the bill for the project, which would set up at least seven new radars to fill a gap in the network between Winnipeg and eastern British Columbia.

Minnesota is first in butter production in the United States.

Solons Ask How They Have Voted to Gain Time

WASHINGTON (UPI)—When the late bell rings in school, that's it for the laggard student.

But not so in the United States Senate. The dignified lawmakers have a special gimmick to cover up for dawdling senators.

Just before the roll is closed, a senator in the chamber will ask innocently whether he has voted on the bill. He knows he has, the clerk knows he has, and so does the presiding officer. Nevertheless, they go through the formality of checking the record to stall for time for the missing colleagues.

If more time is needed, a senator will even ask how he voted, as though he didn't know. There have been times when half the senators in the chamber, so far as the record shows, didn't know whether or how they voted.

When all missing senators are in the chamber, the pretense is dropped and the vote is announced.

U.N. General Assembly to Hear Khrushchev Talk

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) —Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev will address the United Nations General Assembly when he comes to the United States next month but the date and time have not yet been worked out, it was reported today.

U. N. Sources said Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold invited the Soviet leader to make a speech and Khrushchev accepted.

Actually, a formal invitation was not necessary since the head of the government of any nation can address the assembly as a member or head of his country's delegation.

Hats to Be Bright for Men This Fall

This is going to be a sartorial semester, especially for the men. Topping colorful wardrobes for campus wear will be hats galore in an infinite selection of color and style.

All hat designs are extremely youthful and flattering to the campus contingent. Glad hatters over at Adam, for example, are introducing a new series of car hats. Styled for sports and casual wear, these have a sleek, low crown and extremely narrow brims that are perfect with slimline short coats.

Complete with fancy braids, ornaments and emblems, the car hat can well cross the fashion line ahead of car betets and caps.

Another new sport idea is the pebble finish hat. Textured in feeling, this rippled felt has been translated into telescope and center-crease styles. Incidentally, the scaled down open-crown Tyrolean is bound to earn a dapper diploma, too, along with suede-trimmed felts.

Young men will show up in hats of exuberant yellows and cognacs, light beiges, and jet blacks.

12 Gamblers Buy Stamp From IRS in Michigan

DETROIT (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service reports that 12 professional gamblers in Michigan have bought $50 federal tax stamps for the fiscal year which started July 1.

In the previous 12 months, 25 of the stamps were sold in Michigan. Purchasers must pay a tax of 10 per cent on all bets they handle. In the last fiscal year the tax in Michigan totaled $19,381, and the previous year it was $31,973.

Gary Estranged From His Dad

Bing's Oldest Son Feels Bitter Because of Past 'Personal Things'

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Gary Crosby, eldest son of crooner Bing Crosby, admitted today he is bitterly estranged from his father.

"We just don't get along," he told United Press International.

Gary, 26, said Bing has not yet come to see him and his three brothers—Dennis, Philip and Lindsay—in their smash new nightclub act at the Sahara Hotel here.

And, he added, he has no intention of extending an invitation to the crooner.

"The other boys can invite him if they want," he said. "It ain't gonna bother me in the least."

There have been reports from friends of the Crosby family that Bing might slip into town quietly some night to catch the show, which began July 28 and will end Sept. 3.

But in Hollywood, Bing's brother and business adviser, Larry, said: "I doubt it. Bing has no such plans that I know of. One reason is that he's with a group fishing off Alaska.

"I'm not going up to Vegas. The boys want to be on their own, and I imagine Bing feels the same way about it that I do."

"Dad did some things last Christmas that I felt were far from right. They're personal, very personal, and I can't explain any more. But he's done a lot of other things in the past that I didn't like. I'm sure no one knows him as well as I do, although a lot of people think they do."

Gary said one of the main reasons he and his brothers went into show business was "because of all that propaganda Pop spread about us wanting to become ranchers."

Styles for Little Men Look Like Dad's Clothing

Boys will be boys and they want to be like Dad and even dress like him.

For this reason, major clothing themes for big men are repeated in clothes for little "men."

In boys' sweaters, for example, you'll find low button cardigans and vests, mainly four-button models, in fine gauge and bulky knits. Contrast trims turn up in one or two colors around the neckline and button closures, just like on Dad's sweater.

Crew neck pullovers are another continuing favorite of the young school set. Some shawl collar styling, which is a new theme, also emulates an important men's sweater trend.

The Knitted Outerwear Foundation suggests young students watch for bulky sweaters with some novelty stitch. Also high on the fashion list will be the high V-neck and a modified boat neck.

Sweater-shirts and polo shirts round out any student's wardrobe. He'll wear them this fall with long sleeves, collars, plackets and the continental collar stying. Expected to be a favorite choice is the solid color with chest motif or varying stripe arrangements.

Burglar Covers City, Town in One Theft

Evidence indicated that the burglar entered through a door in the city of Madison and left by one in the adjoining town of Blooming Grove. The building straddled the city-town line.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

There's an interesting story about Ingemar Johansson in a medical magazine which gives support to the previous claim of this writer that the Swede is a true heavyweight champion and why we think he will flatten Floyd Patterson again when they meet in a rematch.

Many readers were led to believe that Ingemar was acting like a playboy when he came over here with a plane full of friends and relatives to train for his fight with Patterson.

But what the readers did not know is that Johansson has lived according to training rules every day of his life since he was 13. While in camp his roadwork amounted to five miles more than Patterson's. His sparring practices was three rounds more than Floyd's and on an average his calisthenics were five times more enduring than the ex-champion's.

DITTOS FROM THE PRESS BOX

Carl was a holdout this year with the New York Giants and when they told him he was fined $300 for not reporting to camp, he told them to join him for a cup of coffee when they play the Lions in Detroit, August 28th.

Both Karilivacz and Miller asked for releases from their respective teams. Miller, who is well situated in business in Detroit said he would not go to the Eagles to whom he was sent. So as of now both are retired and are occasional spectators at the Lions' training camp.

One of the safety markers on the water that boaters should observe is the red and white flag of the skin diver. The rule is to stay 90 feet away from the flag when in a speedboat.

The Lakeland Skin Divers' club has sent a word of thanks to the Sheriff's Department for apprehending a speedboater who persistently buzzed the flag while members were diving.

White Sox Don't Squander Base Hits

Tigers Find Out How Chisox Make 'Em Count

Detroit Has the Most Hits, 14-8; Hose Win Ball Game, 11-6

DETROIT (AP) — By necessity, the Chicago White Sox have learned not to go around squandering base hits.

That's why they were able to defeat the Detroit Tigers yesterday, 11-6, while being outhit by a 14-8 count.

A lack of power in the lineup has forced the first-place White Sox to make the most out of their base hits and take advantage of every break the other team offers.

Tiger pitchers offered eight breaks yesterday, in the form of eight walks. Five White Sox runs scored as a result, and the Tigers dipped four games under the .500 mark once more.

The go-go Sox, protecting their first-place advantage over Cleveland with their biggest offensive burst since May 17, have scored 56 fewer runs and made 43 fewer hits than the fifth-place Tigers, who trail them by 14 games.

Ex-Tiger first baseman Earl Torgeson, who helped the Sox with one hit and two runs-batted-in, examined the totals and commented:

"Those walks are just like errors, just like bonehead plays and bad-hop ground balls. They're part of the game, too. Without them, I suppose our club wouldn't be in first place today."

He was too kind to say that without them, the Tigers might not be in fifth place, either.

The Tigers could blame poor pitching for their latest flop. Starter Paul Foytack was belted for three runs and four hits in the three innings he worked. Fortunately for him, he escaped the official defeat when the Tigers spurted with four runs against Sox starter Barry Latman and reliever Gerry Staley in the fourth. Harvey Kuenn and Al Kaline hit home runs in that rally.

The Sox got the victory for Staley, the veteran reliever, when they scored four times off Pete Burnside in the fifth inning. Burnside worked two innings and yielded just one hit, but it was a three-run home run by Sherm Lollar.

Burnside walked two batters and the Tiger infield failed to retire a batter on a fielder's choice before Lollar drove in his first runs in 18 days with his 14th home run.

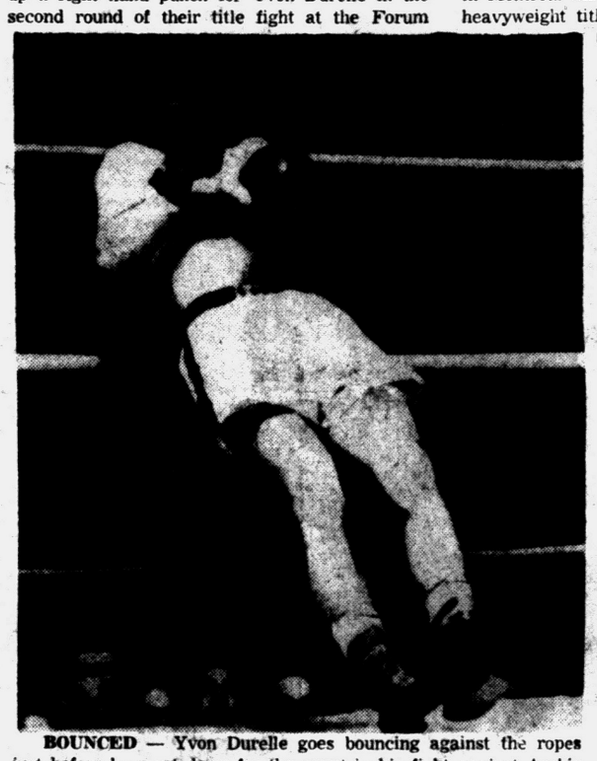

Barney Schultz became the Detroit pitcher in the sixth inning, and he was even wilder than Burnside. Schultz faced seven batters. He got only one of them out, and that came when a Chicago batter sacrificed two runners along with a bunt.

Schultz, working for the first time since July 18, was charged with four runs in one-third inning. He walked four batters and yielded two hits.

Dave Sisler, who had not pitched since July 16, helped Ray Narleski with the mop-up job.

BOUNCED — Yvon Durelle goes bouncing against the ropes just before he went down for the count in his fight against Archie Moore. The Canadian went down twice before having the lights go out on him.

Retirement Far Off for Archie

MONTREAL (AP) — How much longer will Archie Moore keep on fighting?

The light heavyweight champion, who says he will be 43 on Dec. 13 and has been fighting pro 23 years, put it this way today:

"My wife has presented me with two girls. I want a boy. She has promised me a boy. When we get that boy, and when he reaches 16, then I think I'll hang up the gloves."

He grinned and added: "Maybe."

Mrs. Fox Wins WMGA Crown

After a one-year lapse, Mrs. C. F. Fox has regained the annual 54-hole medal play championship of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association.

Moore Starts Pounding Early in 2nd Meeting

'Quick-Money' Tour Through South America Next for Champ

The ring's all-time knockout king and record-equalling light-heavyweight defender will receive a guaranteed $175,000 for belting out Canadian Durelle last night at 2:52 of the third round, and he wants to pick up "a couple hundred thousand" in September and October fights in Argentina and Brazil.

Manager Jack Kearns has relayed to heavyweight ruler Johansson the offer of a $1,000,000 guarantee to defend against 43 year old Moore. In Kearns' cable to Johansson at Goteborg, Sweden, he said the million guarantee would be in a bank when Ingemar signs for the defense.

Kearns declined to identify for the press the "very important Canadian and American interests" he says will put up the guarantee but predicted a Moore-Johansson fight would draw a $3,000,000 gate.

"Certainly I'd like to fight Johansson," Moore said, "but right now I want to get busy with South American fights. Yes, I may make a defense down there."

Another successful defense would break the record he equalled last night before 11,555 at the Montreal Forum, where his eighth defense tied the 175 pound division's mark set by Maxie Rosenbloom. Maxie lost the title when he risked it the ninth time against Bob Olin in 1934.

Archie stretched his all-time, all-division knockout record to 128 last night when he floored 29-year-old Durelle four times in the third round for a kayo that was counted out by referee Jack Sharkey — with heartbroken Durelle flat on his back.

Moore, weighing 174¼ pounds for their return title fight, shook up the British Empire champion seven times in the first round with sneaker rights and one left-right combination. And Archie had the better of the hard fighting in the second session, although one of the three judges thought Durelle won that round.

But when the mustachioed and five-day-bearded champion went in the third session, a quick finish was apparent. Body smashes almost doubled Yvon. Then the head attack had him reeling until a right to the chin dropped him to one knee for a count of nine.

Again Moore went after him and sent him slithering down the ropes with a right-left for another nine-count. Shortly afterward another right to the face sent Yvon half through the ropes and down on the canvas for a count of six. A final right sent him flat on his back for the full count. He was bleeding profusely from his nose and mouth.

Durelle, who had floored Moore four times in their Dec. 10 "fight of the year" before being knocked out in the 11th round, almost wept in his dressing room.

He said, "Moore just nailed me. I was too weak. Maybe it was the heat. I'm just heartbroken." The heat was estimated at 95 degrees.

Quinn announced the gross gate as $140,519 and the net gate at $122,627. In addition, the telecast to the United States brought $125,000 fee. There was no television in Canada.

Moore's $175,000 guarantee was against 40 per cent of the net gate and TV money, totalling only about $98,050. He'll take the guarantee. Durelle was guaranteed $15,000 against 20 per cent of gate and TV, only if Moore's percentages equalled Moore's guarantee. Durelle will receive only his $15,000.

Senators Stop Yankee Streak on Home Run

NEW YORK (AP) — The last-place Washington Senators snapped New York's six game winning streak Wednesday night, defeating the Yankees 3-2 on pinch hitter Julio Bacquer's home run with two on base.

The winning blow came in the eighth inning, off relief pitcher Ryne Duren, and wiped out a 2-0 lead built up by the Yankees against Pedro Ramos.

Duren had been summoned to pitch to Washington pitcher Truman Clevenger after Hal Naragon had opened the eighth with a single and advanced to second on a one-bagger by pinch hitter Clint Courtney. They were only the second and third hits off starter Art Ditmar.

Washington Manager Cookie Lavagetto countered by calling on Becquer to hit for Clevenger. With a count of one ball and two strikes, the substitute first baseman golfed a pitch into the lower right field stands to put the Senators in front. It was only the second home run hit off Duren this season. The other was hit by Boston's Frank Malzone on April 19

Gary Geiger's homer in the ninth inning brought the Boston Red Sox a 5-4 night victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

Geiger's circuit clout, his ninth, was hit off Hoyt Wilhelm, who had walked in the tying run in the inning before. The Oriole knuckleballer was charged with his eighth defeat. He has won only two after his brilliant start of nine victories in a row.

Ike Delock, who pitched the last inning and without letting the Orioles score, was credited with the victory, his 10th in 16 decisions.

An error by left fielder Ted Williams opened the door for a three-run rally and a 4-2 lead by Orioles in the fifth inning. Williams dropped a liner which allowed Brooks Robinson to reach second after one out.

Cleveland mounted a 15-hit attack including home runs by Minni Minoso, Russ Nixon and Jim Baxes that gave the Indians a 9-4 victory at night over the Kansas City Athletics.

Gary Bell, sophomore Cleveland righthander, got credit for his 13th victory and kept the Indians 2½ games behind the Chicago White Sox.

Minoso and Nixon clouted their four-baggers against Johnny Kucks, who started for the A's but lasted only 1 1-3 innings. It was Kucks' eighth loss compared with six victories. Minoso's solo homer in the first inning was his 17th, and second in two days. Nixon's smash was his first. It scored three runs in the second inning and put the Indians ahead to stay.

Dykes Is Wondering About 1960

DETROIT (AP) — Jimmy Dykes deserves to know where he stands with the Detroit Tigers for 1960.

The manager does not know, has not been told, where or if he fits into the club's plans.

He wants to know. He would like to know before the Tigers end their current home stand August 26.

He has not, and will not issue any kind of a statement about the matter. It is possible that he will ask General Manager Rick Ferrell about the situation if he is not soon given some indication of his future with the Detroit club.

Ferrell says the club has not gone into the matter of a manager for 1960.

"I'm just concerned about this season, and winning as many games as we can," Ferrell said recently. "I think Dykes has done a tremendous job. When we hired him, we expected him to do a fine job. And he has."

About 1960? The Tigers aren't saying. Not just now, anyway.

It would appear that the Tigers cannot justify getting rid of the man they hired May 3 to replace Bill Norman.

The Tigers had a 2-15 record when Norman was fired. Their record going into today's game against Chicago was 55 victories and 59 defeats. That's a 53-54 record under the grizzled Dykes. That also is a .546 percentage, which at the moment would be good enough for a solid third place occupancy.

Dykes long ago proved himself to be a thorough professional, a manager who knows what he can expect of the talent given him, a manager who can ascertain quickly a club's limitations as well as its capabilities.

The Detroit players respect Dykes as a manager and as a man. He was a big league manager long before he came to Detroit and he'll have no trouble finding another job if the Tigers decide they want someone else.

It's likely the club will rehire him for 1960. But Dykes would like to know about it, just in case.

Hits 4th Straight Below Par Round

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Art Butler of Pasadena, Calif., shot his fourth straight sub-par round to lead the field into match play of the Western amateur golf tournament Wednesday.

Butler shot rounds of 68 and 70 for a 72-hole total of 278, ten under par on the Waverley Country Club golf course.

Only 16 players qualified for match play. The field started with 107 and was cut to 58 Tuesday.

Ron Luceti of San Francisco had rounds of 68 and 71 to finish as runner-up in qualifying play. His total was 283, five under par.

Army 'Mad' at Air Force

COCOA, Fla. (AP)—The Army is mad at the Air Force and will be out for revenge when the two service football teams meet in New York's Yankee Stadium Oct. 31.

That's the word from Bobby Anderson, the Army's All-America halfback who is vacationing at his home here.

"We're going to clean their socks," Anderson said yesterday. "They made us mad and we want to beat them almost more than we want to beat Navy."

The thing that touched off the feud, Anderson said, was an article in an Air Force magazine claiming that the Air Force Academy was better than the other two service academies.

"It had a picture of a West Point cadet in rumpled khakis after a plane trip, and one of an Air Force cadet standing in his room in a fresh uniform," Anderson went on. "They said 'Air Force cadets even look better' or something like that.

"Somebody at Annapolis wrote in and said they ought to be ashamed of themselves, that West Point had it all over them. That ought to show you how bad it was when the Navy stuck up for the Army."

Overpower Reds as L. A. Bows

Braves Second Again

By The Associated Press

Milwaukee's Braves may not be the all-conquering champions they were a year ago, but it hasn't been the fault of Eddie Mathews.

The slugging third basemen, a consistent performer all season, is making a determined effort to atone for last year's dismals showing, climaxed by a horrendous World Series in which he batted a sickly .160 and fanned 11 times.

Mathews, only 27, although in his eighth big league season, is hitting an even .300 but he already has slugged 33 home runs and has driven in 79 runs. He already has exceeded his last year totals of 31 homers and 77 runs batted in when his average was only .251.

Eddie powered two home runs last night, each with a man on base to boost the Braves into second place with a 6-4 victory over Cincinnati. Henry Aaron added a home run, his 30th, and a triple and Joe Adcock hit safely in his 19th consevutive game. The Braves also got a fine pitching performance from veteran Bob Rush who hurled scoreless ball after relieving southpaw Juan Pizarro in the second.

Chicago's Cubs dropped Los Angeles into third place, a half game behind the Braves and 3½ behind the idle San Francisco Giants, by thrashing the Dodgers 11-8. Pittsburgh walloped Philadelphia 6-2.

The Cubs routed Don Drysdale with a five-run outburst in the first inning, highlighted by Ernie Banks' 34th home run and Sammy Taylor's ninth. Alvin Dark and Irv Noren also chipped in with four-baggers for the Cubs in the 28-hit slugfest.

Roberto Clemente had a single, double and triple, his three-bagger coming with the bases loaded in a four-run seventh that enabled the Pirates to break a 2-2 tie with the Phils. The victory gave the Bucs fourth place by one percentage point over the Cubs. Harvey Haddix outpitched Robin Roberts with a seven-hitter for his ninth victory.

U.S. Army Riflemen Take 2 of 4 Titles

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (AP)—The 1959 National small-bore rifle matches closed Wednesday with four team events. The U.S. Army team took the four-position, 50-yard metallic sight match with a score of 1,550 out of a possible 1,600 and the telescopic sight match with a total of 1,584.

Two civilian teams, representing Colorado and Pennsylvania, shared the other two victories as the Western squad won the metallic-sight contest with a score of 1,590 and the Keystone state squad took the Caswell Trophy match with 2,383 out of a possible 2,400.

All-Star Coach to Use Subs on Individual Basis

Colts Are 16-Point Choices in Football Classic at Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Head coach Otto Graham has discarded the unit substitution strategy and will insert his All Star collegians on an individual basis against the Baltimore Colts tomorrow night.

The National Football League champion Colts are 16-point favorites to gain the 16th pro victory against 8 collegiate triumphs in the series. Two of the games were tied.

Soldier Field is the setting for the midsummer football classic and upwards of 75,000 fans are expected. It will be telecast and broadcast by ABC starting at 8:30 p.m. EST.

Graham put the final polish on his squad under the Soldier Field lights last night. The Colts arrived today and also will have a private practice at night in the huge lakefront arena.

Graham's new substitution tactics are a reversal of the unit system he used last year in the All Star's 35-19 record offensive display against the Detroit Lions. Observers say his decision to spell offensive and defensive players frequently, until all able bodied men on his squad of 49 have had a turn, indicates his manpower is not as deep as last year.

"We'll be using all four and stick the longest with the one who is going the best," he said.

The quartet includes Lee Grosscup of Utah, Buddy Humphrey of Baylor, Bob Newman of Washington State and Bob Ptacek of Michigan. Tulane's Dick Petitbon is also a fine offensive threat but will be used only on defense.

There is little question but that the All Stars will fill the air with passes with such fine receivers as Buddy Dial of Rice, Rich Kreitling of Illinois, Dave Sherer of Southern Methodist and Boyd Dowler of Colorado as targets.

"We certainly can't overpower the Colts' line," said Graham. "So, of course, we'll pass a lot. We have the receivers and the throwers who are good enough if our line keeps out those horses."

Starting at halfback will be Dick Haley of Pittsburgh and Don Brown of Houston. Either Larry Hickman of Baylor or Nick Pietrosante of Notre Dame will start at fullback.

Elbert Dubenion of Bluffton (Ohio) College, the squad's nearest approach to the breakaway speed of last year's sensational Bobby Mitchell, is shelved with a knee injury. Tackle Ron Luciano of Syracuse is scratched with a damaged shoulder. Otherwise the squad is sound.

Detroit Printer Has Field Day at Plate

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Dick Caudill had a field day at the plate, driving in five runs with five hits in Detroit's 16-4 rout of New York yesterday in the 45th annual Printers International Baseball League tournament.

Caudill led the Detroit attack with a triple, three doubles and a single in six trips to the plate while Ron Soper scattered nine hits and handed New York its first loss in the double elimination tourney.

Detroit, which plays host St. Paul tonight, has a 2-1 tournament record.

Champ Retains Distance Swim Crown of AAU

Pert Donna Graham covered the three-mile course at Reeds Lake in 1:15:47.5, only 13 seconds off the meet mark. And with four teammates among the first five finishers, she led the Indianapolis Riviera Swim Club to a successful defense of the women's team trophy it won last year.

Roy Saari, of El Segundo, Calif., won the four-mile men's title in 1:33:22. It was the 14-year-old high school sophomore's first attempt in the AAU event.

U.S. Net Team Adds 2

NEW YORK (AP)—The roster of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Assn. Junior Davis Cup team was increased to four Wednesday with the addition of John Karabasz, 18, of Coral Gables, Fla., and Robert Siska, 17, of San Francisco.

Announce Top 'Seeds'

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—Australia's Neale Fraser and Roy Emerson were seeded first among foreign entrants Wednesday night for the National tennis doubles tournament beginning Sunday.

Alex Olmedo, Peru's gift to American tennis, and Earl Buchholz of St. Louis, were seeded first among domestic players.

Swede Breaks 4-Minute Mile; 4th for Cawley

VAESTERAS, Sweden (AP)— Dan Waern, Sweden's No. 1 miler, again broke through the four-minute barrier Wednesday night when he was clocked in 3:59.2 in winning the mile at an international track and field meet.

Jim Grelle of Oregon was fourth in 4:01 as Poland's Stephan Lewandowski finished second in 4:00.6 and Norway's Arne Hammarsland third in 4:00.8.

Ray Norton, San Jose State sprinter, won both the 100 and 200 meter dashes, taking the century in :10.5 and the 200 in :21.2. Warren Cawley, Farmington, Mich., was fourth in the 200 with :21.6.

Bob Humphreys of Los Angeles won the shot with 55 feet, 6 inches. Stewart Thomson of New York was third in both the shot and the hammer.

Motor City Open Under Way Today

Top Pros Head Field of 154 in 1st Round

Ex-Champions Rosburg and Middlecoff Among Contestants

Defending champion Bob Rosburg and Cary Middlecoff, twice winners, paced a field of 154 today into the first round of the $25,000 Motor City Open Golf Tournament at nearby Meadowbrook Country Club.

Others like Arnold Palmer, Julius Boros, Tommy Bolt, Pete Cooper and Jerry Barber are capable of walking off with the $3,500 in first prize money when the 72-hole tournament concludes Sunday.

The rolling, 6,616-yard Meadowbrook course is back in championship condition after a hard winter which played havoc with greens. Its narrow fairways and big greens will penalize the inaccurate hitters, but the traveling pros are used to such conditions.

Predictions indicate a winning score of 274, or a stroke or two lower. Par is 275, 273 and 278.

Ben Hogan and Dutch Harrison posted 275s in 1948. Hogan won an 18-hole playoff for the title. Middlecoff and Lloyd Mangrum tied at 273 the following year. They staged an 11-hole sudden-death playoff that still ended in deadock.

Middlecoff won in 1954 with a 278. The golfing dentist was forced to withdraw from the Cleveland Open last week because of an aching wrist. However, he underwent treatment and decided to compete.

Rosburg, of Palo Alto, Calif., won the Motor City title in 1956—the last time it was held. The tournament was set aside for the last two years when the Western Open was held here.

After the first two rounds the bulky field will be trimmed to the low 70. There will be another reduction to the low 60 players Saturday night.

American League managers Casey Stengel, Al Lopez, Harry Craft, Cookie Lavagetto and Bill Jurges played all or most of their big league ball in the National League.

Diamond Dust

By CHUCK ABAIR

Lytell-Colegrove yesterday won the right to be Pontiac's only representative in the state junior baseball finals and the local lads did it the hard way.

The charges of Jim Hoke not only had to win a doubleheader for Class D honors but they were forced to come from behind each time.

Lytell eliminated Warren in the morning 5-3 after trailing 1-0 for three innings and then nipped St. Clair Shores 10-9 for the title. St. Clair led 7-2 early and still was in front 7-5 going into the 6th.

Dave Jones hurled four-hit ball and fanned nine against Warren while Jim Paschke was the batting star with three hits and three rbis. Two in the 5th clinched the issue.

John Studt, who had homered earlier, got the only hit in a five-run 6th that finished St. Clair. There were six walks, a passed ball and an error in the frame. Norb Robaert belted a two-run homer for the losers in the 7th before relief pitcher Chuck Kirken threw out the last batter himself.

Kirken was outstanding after replacing Rich Lamphere in the 7-run 2nd. He allowed only two runs and two hits and fanned 12—7 in a row.

Pontiac Boys Club was shooting for Class E. honors but could not cope with the pitching of Saginaw's Bob Ursuy, who fanned 14 in a 4-0 shutout.

The locals garnered only three hits but had men on base in six of the seven frames including three in the 4th. Tom Zink allowed five hits in defeat. Saginaw also won out in "F" dumping Warren 6-3.

Lytell-Colegrove swings back into action Monday at 10 a. m. at Jackson with a chance to take the state championship by winning a doubleheader. Jackson, Albion and Grand Rapids are the other teams. The morning victors tangle at 2:15 for the crown.

Monday will also be an important day for local softball champions as districts begin for Stadium Inn (Class A), Casa Mia (Class B), Harrison's Grill (Class C) and Buttercup Drive-Inn (Class D).

Chuck Oertel added a pair of homers during a week's span with Miami recently. A three-run blast helped him bat in all the runs in a 5-4 defeat. The other featured a two-run victory. He also had two big rbis in one-run triumph. "Ducky" was 9-for-35 for the week.

Former Royal Oak Dondero chucker Mike Joyce is going great guns at Fort Leonard Wood. He won three of the post team's 1st six wins—one on a no-hit, no-run job . . . Rest rooms at North Side Park have been found looking worse than pigpens after some recent softball games.

Bay Colt Brings Second Best Price at Saratoga

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. (AP) — A bay colt by Heliopolis out of No Strings was sold last night for $80,000, the second highest price ever at the Saratoga yearling sales.

Leonard P. Sasso, owner of Penowa Farm at Pittsburgh, Pa. won over the Pin Oak Farm in spirited bidding for the colt, consigned by James L. Wiley. The price compares to the record $87,000 Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Person paid for a son of Hyperion in 1956.

Three other yearlings were sold for more than $50,000 as 51 head passed through the ring for a total of $723,100, an average of $14,178.

Gross gate — $140,519
Net paid gate — $122,627
Television receipts — $100,000
Radio receipts — $8,000
Moore's share — $175,000
Durelle's share — $5,000
Net paid attendance — 11,555.

Top hands on high-country hauls!

Ask any trucker who's been over Wolf Creek Pass, 10,850 feet up in the San Juans: a 9-mile pull to the summit and low gear all the way down. Mr. C. H. Phillips of Alamosa, Colorado, has a 6403 and a 6503 Chevrolet truck that are up over this route the year round, taking sheep and beef to pasture, later marketing the stock in Denver. In less than a year, his Chevy middleweights have averaged about 50,000 miles of this kind of treatment—and they're going stronger than ever!

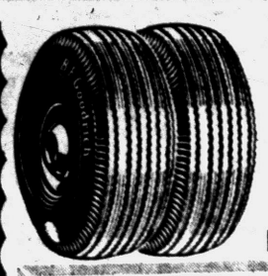

Watch Chevy trucks at work out in range country. It's a sight to see the way they pack into high-up mountain pastures and handle through brush and rock like a cowman's favorite cutting horse. Take any truck work for that matter. Chevy middleweights probably handle a bigger variety of jobs than any trucks alive. About anything you name, including work that used to be reserved strictly for bigger rigs. When a truck's built the way a Chevy is, lean-muscled and rawhide-tough, it takes to ugly trails the same way most trucks roll over the highway. It just keeps going, without a big to-do, but looking good every mile of the way. How they do it is your Chevrolet dealer's department. He'll be glad to supply details and specifications on the type of models you need.

Lions to Face 'New Look' Cards

Cardinals Own Exhibition Win Over Argonauts

Contest to Be Played in Norman, Oklahoma Saturday Night

The Matson-less Cardinals will face the Detroit Lions twice this season. The first encounter is Saturday night in Owen Stadium, Norman, Okla.

The next time the clubs meet will be Dec. 6 at Detroit's Briggs Stadium.

The first meeting could be billed as a battle of the undefeateds. The Cardinals opened their pre-season campaign last week with a 55-27 triumph over the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian League. The Lions came back from behind for a 20-20 tie with the Los Angeles Rams.

A crowd of nearly 50,000 is anticipated for the Oklahoma game. It will be homecoming for Frank (Pop) Ivy, the Cardinal coach. Ivy played his college football at Oklahoma and got his early coaching experience there before moving into the Canadian coaching ranks.

He came into the National Football League last year, and his Cardinals compiled a 2-9-1 record.

His club received nine players in the trade that sent Matson to the Rams. Ivy expects the added talent to more than offset the loss of Matson, long regarded as one of the top backs of all time in the NFL.

Six Lion All-Star players will fly to Norman after the All-Star game Friday night and then come back with the team Sunday.

Tiger Farm Clubs Are Doing Well

DETROIT (AP) — At least there may be good news in the future for Detroit Tiger fans.

The top club, the Charleston Senators of the American Association, continued an uphill climb toward the first division. They were in fifth, near the .500 mark. Don Lee had an 11-5 record and George Spencer, 8-4 in relief, had 56 appearances.

Hank Aguirre was 5-4, Jim Stump 7-10 and Jerry Davis 3-5.

Birmingham was in second place in the Southern Association. Steve Boros batting .315 with 16 home runs to his credit. Bob Miller was 11-7, Wyman Carey 12-7 and Phil Regan 7-3.

Good pitching had the Knoxville Smokies in fourth place in the Sally League. Jim Proctor led the league with a 1.93 earned run average. He had an 11-4 record, Bob Dustal 11-8 and Jerry Thomas 10-10.

Manager Frank Skaff's Durham Bulls occupied third place in the Carolina League. Phil Kliewer had the best earned run average in the league, a 1.75 mark, while ex-Michigan Stater Larry Foster compiled a 7-5 mark. Dick Sheldon of Flint was 8-7.

Joel McDaniel's 18-7 pitching record and Bob Jingling's .321 hitting helped Decatur into fourth place in the Midwest League.

Manager Stubby Overmire's ace pitcher, McDaniel, led the league in earned runs and strikeouts.

Five players had a total of 55 home runs for the Erie Sailors, who held down sixth place in the New York - Pennsylvania League. Ex-MSU halfback Dennis .215, had 11 homers.

The Montgomery Rebels continued to make a runaway of the race in the Alabama - Florida League, with a 70-38 record. None of the Rebel pitchers were under the .400 mark and five were in the double figures in victories.

Greatest offensive team for the Rams was the 1961 club which ran and passed for 5,506 yards.

Pharmacy Team Reaches Finals

Lakeland Pharmacy battles Dobski's Bar for the Waterford National League upper bracket softball crown at Drayton Plains tonight at 8:30. The Pharmacy team reached the title round last night by eliminating the Arrows, 3-1.

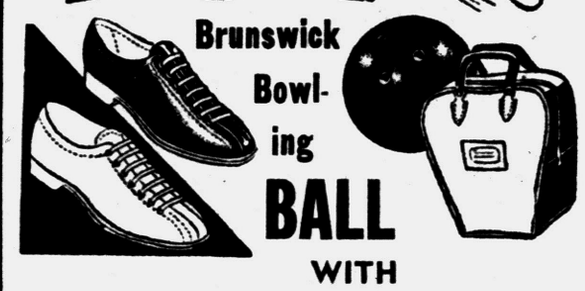

Bill Pittman Jr. hurled three-hit ball for Lakeland, which tallied the eventual winning run in the 6th inning when Wayne White singled, stole 2nd, took 3rd on a passed ball and came home on an infield out. Jack Pote made two of Lakeland's five hits.

In American League playoff activity, Drayton Drug stayed unbeaten in the double elimination tourney with a 2-1 triumph over Spencer Floor Covering as Jim Cuthrell outpitched Arlo Flesher. Cuthrell allowed four safeties, Flesher five. Drayton won the contest with two runs in the 6th after Spencer tallied once in the 1st.

Undefeated Dobski's and once-beaten Lakeland collide tonight at 8:30 in the National loop finals. Nonne's Restaurant and Sno-Bol square off at 7 o'clock in an American loop playoff game.

Another Ace at Bald Mt.

Bald Mountain Golf Club had its 6th hole-in-one of the year Wednesday when Jim Liddell of Birmingham aced the 170-yard 17th hole with his 5-iron. He finished his 18-hole round with 88 blows.

Dr. C. F. Devereaux of Detroit was Liddell's playing partner and two women golfers, Mrs. G. C. Dillman of Rochester and Mrs. R. W. Scripps of Lake Orion, were putting on the 17th hole when the ball rolled into the cup.

Country Store in Finals

Russ' Country Store moved into the finals of the Waterford Junior Baseball League playoffs in the 15-and-under Orange division with an 11-5 victory over Gabriel's Market yesterday. In another playoff game in the same division, Pankey's Hangar Grill shut out Ryeson's Market, 10-0.

Sportsmen Take Softball Crown

Fuller Beats Langdon's Butler, 1-0, in Mound Duel at Northside

Marvin Fuller outpitched Dwight Butler in a brilliant nine-inning duel last night at Northside Park as the Sport Shop won the International League city softball championship with a 1-0 victory over Langdon's Boat Livery.

In the International loop's consolation lower bracket playoff, the Pontiac Police advanced to the final round against Griff's Grill by defeating Rogers Electric, 6-0, behind the two-hit shutout pitching of Harry Kunkel.

Fuller and Butler battled tooth and nail until the bottom of the 9th frame when three consecutive hits brought the title to the Sportsmen. A double by Jim Glynn and back-to-back singles by Jim Reynolds and Dave Diehm ended the contest in the 2nd extra stanza.

Langdon's made only four hits off Fuller and he struck out a dozen batters. Butler fanned eight and allowed the same number of hits.

Griff's and the Police clash for the IL lower bracket crown tonight on the Northside diamond at 8:30.

Two exhibition games are scheduled tonight at Beaudette Park. Stadium Inn, city Class A champion, meets Harrison's Grill, Class C champ, at 7 o'clock. Sno-Bol, Class AA titleholder, faces Casa Mia, Class B winner, in the 8:30 nightcap.

Pete Returns to Ring

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — Pete Rademacher, who started his professional career two years ago by meeting Floyd Patterson for the world championship, will seek his first pro victory tonight when he meets Tommy Thompson of Washington, D.C., in a scheduled 10-round bout.

Rademacher is expected to enter the ring at 203 pounds and Thompson at 195.

76 Get Called at 'M'

ANN ARBOR (AP)— Seventy-six football players have been invited to report for the official opening of fall practice Sept. 1 at the University of Michigan.

Weakness Hits Grain Futures

CHICAGO (AP)—General weakness marked grain futures dealings again today on the Board of Trade with rye and soybeans under further but more moderate pressure.

Most setbacks were in small fractions of a cent during the first several minutes of trading as dealers appeared to be testing the market following its broad adjustment yesterday to the government's important August crop report.

After about an hour all prices were near previous closes. Wheat was unchanged to ¼ cent a bushel lower, September $1.89⅜; corn unchanged to ⅜ higher, September $1.19¼; oats ⅛ to ½ lower, September new type contract 67¼; rye unchanged to ¼ lower, September $1.31½; soybeans ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, September $2.11⅞.

Legislators Eye Tax on Profits

BAT Revision Would Give Relief to Firms Suffering Losses

LANSING (AP) — The Legislature today cautiously eyed a 12 to 20 million dollar tax tap on profitable business — with relief for losing firms — despite a salvo of big business protest.

The ticklish problem politically was to devise a business activities tax (BAT) revision that Democrats could call a profits tax and Senate Republicans could say was something else.

As House-Senate tax bargainers started anew yesterday down this path, dismissed last week as too complicated, these were other developments:

1. Many lawmakers, mostly Republicans, regretted putting a tax bite on business but saw no other way out of their gruelling, seven months stalemate.

2. Gov. Williams' latest proposal for raising business taxes and putting them under a constitutional ceiling was promptly rejected by Republican senators.

3. Democrats spiked a Republican move for quick adoption of the 120 million dollar GOP use (sales) tax increase and deferring a decision on business taxes until October.

4. The six House-Senate tax negotiators knocked off talks until Tuesday, and the Legislature decided on Wednesday for its next meeting in force, hopeful it would have something ready to vote on.

News in Brief

Someone stole an electric power wrench from the Hewitt Transportation Co. office at 1395 N. Perry St., it was reported to Pontiac police yesterday.

Stock Trading Mills at Low Ebb

Gains and losses of key stocks went from fractions to about a point.

Most of the electronic-missile-rocket stocks continued to back away in a follow through to the late selloff yesterday.

Steels, utilities, drugs and rubbers were easy. Motors, rails, airlines and aircrafts were mixed. Coppers held firm.

Small losses were shown by Youngstown Sheet, United Aircraft, International Telephone, General Electric, Southern Railway, Standard Oil New Jersey) and Pfizer. Allied Chemical was down about a point.

Ahead slightly were Boeing, General Dynamics, Anaconda, American Tobacco and Baltimore & Ohio.

House Committee OKs Gas Tax Boost

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Ways & Means Committee approved today a temporary penny-a-gallon increase in gasoline taxes to help ease the super highway financing crisis.

The committee tax writers, meeting behind closed doors, were reported to have voted 16 to 9 in favor of the boost. The action is subject to a formal roll call vote later.

The financing plan would provide for boosting the federal gasoline levy from 3 to 4 cents a gallon for 22 months, beginning Sept. 1.

Reds Fire New Charges U.S. Sending Aid to Laos

TOKYO (AP)—The Communists fired off new charges today that the United States is attempting to convert Laos into a military base threatening Red China and North Viet Nam.

Peiping declared the situation in the Indochina kingdom, where royal troops have been clashing with Red rebels, "has worsened and become more grave."

While the war of words ground on, Laos' frontier with her Red neighbors apparently was quiet. Reports from Vientiane, the Laotian capital, said there had been no significant skirmishes in the mountainous jungles of northern Laos in a week or 10 days.

The U.S. State Department brushed off Red China's charge that the Americans are fomenting trouble in Laos. A spokesman said this is the same propaganda line the Communists have been peddling for weeks. There are 80 American military advisers in Laos, but the spokesman denied the United States has any bases or troops in the little Buddhist kingdom. U.S. military and security aid to Laos for the 1959 fiscal year totaled $22,900,000.

Red China charged "American imperialism has extended its military threat right to the borders of China and the (Communist) Democratic Republic of Viet Nam."

The language of the article in the official Peiping People's Daily was reminiscent of that used by Peiping before Red China's intervention in the Korean War.

North Viet Nam, which Laos has accused of equipping and training the rebels, added to the propaganda din.

Premier Pham Van Dong sent notes to five Southeast Asian countries — Thailan, South Viet Nam, Burma, Cambodia and Indonesia — warning them against sending troops to Laos. He said this would undermine North Viet Nam's security.

DEATH PLUNGE — A huge truck and trailer lies on the San Bernardino Freeway in Los Angeles today after it plunged through the guard rail (upper left) of an off-ramp as it rounded the corner yesterday. The driver was killed and two other persons received minor injuries. The truck, loaded with beer, landed between vehicles on the crowded Freeway, blocking traffic for an hour. The cab of the truck missed a car (below Fickett sign) driven by Toshiyoshi Oni by an inch. Oni is an aviation expert recently brought here from Japan.

Votes New City Housing Code

Tighter Regulations Will Affect Older Rooming Houses in Pontiac

A tighter housing code will go into effect in Pontiac a year from now, aimed mostly at old, converted rooming and apartment houses.

Operators of multi-family dwellings will have a year's grace period in which to comply with the new plumbing regulations, the City Commission decided while passing the new law Tuesday.

It is expected that only the oldest or most poorly equipped buildings will be affected. Not many owner-occupied single dwellings will have to be improved to meet the new standards, building inspectors believed.

Adopted to meet federal requirements for an urban renewal project here, the law requires more bathroom and toilet facilities in old apartment buildings and rooming houses.

In converted apartment houses, it requires a full bathroom for every apartment of three rooms or more.

City Sanitarian Charles Cohen said this later provision would have the greatest affect, since a number of Pontiac's older converted apartment houses have only partial bathroom facilities for each apartment.

The law also requires all dwellings, including owner-occupied single homes, to have heating facilities capable of heating every habitable room to a temperature of 70 degrees when the temperature outside dips as low as 10 degrees below zero.

Robert A. Stierer, assistant city manager, said the city's old housing code, based on a 1917 state law, was not tight enough for the federal government.

"Urban renewal regulations require that all Pontiac's housing be brought up to the minimum acceptable modern standard if federal money is going to be invested here to halt the spread of blight."

Cross Strike Court Bound?

Company Claims Union Broke No-Violence Pact With Rocks, Paint

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP)—The incident-ridden, 10-day-old Cross Co. strike may go back to the courts again.

Vernon E. Riddell, general superintendent at the automation machinery plant in nearby Fraser, said last night the company, involved in an organizational dispute with the United Auto Workers, probably would seek another injunction.

Riddell said UAW Local 155 had broken its no-violence agreement. The union denied the accusation.

Company officials said strikers yesterday threw paint thinner and coffee at cars of engineers and office personnel when they arrived for work on the day shift.

Cars leaving last night were slowed by milling pickets and John J. Mikton of Allen Park suffered a lacerated lip when a rock was tossed through the window of a car in which he was sitting.

If Born in 1958 Child Can Plan on 69½ Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — A child born in 1958 could expect to live 69½ years on the average.

Announcing this estimate today, the Public Health Service said it compared with a life expectancy of 69.3 years for the infant born in 1957 and 68 years for the child born in 1949.

But it was not as high as the 69.6 expectancy figured for babies born in 1956 and 1954.

Congress to Quit Early . . . Maybe

Ike Would Be Happy if Blasts at Khrushchev Not Concentrated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration apparently will be happy if Congress goes home before Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev comes to town.

That is the definite impression Vice President Richard M. Nixon has obtained from his Capitol Hill associates. Many members of Congress have let it be known they hope Congress will have finished its work before Khrushchev arrives Sept. 15.

The adjournment date still is uncertain.

Nixon and other administration leaders apparently believe that if the legislators have returned to their homes, blasts by individual members will be less likely to draw national attention. A concentration of adverse remarks, they feel, could create embarrassing incidents while Khrushchev is in Washington and touring the country at President Eisenhower's invitation.

Library Contract Target Date Set

Final Plans Received by Pontiac for Building in Civic Center

City officials today looked to early October as a target date for letting contracts on the new $500,000 Pontiac public library.

Final plans for the one-story glass and brick building were submitted to City Hall yesterday by the architects, O'Dell, Hewlett and Luckenbach Associates, of Birmingham.

The architects are scheduled to go over the plans with city commissioners at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

City Manager Walter K. Willman said it is hoped Commission approval will come in time to advertise for construction bids to be opened Sept. 14.

2 WEEKS TO STUDY

It is expected that the Commission and city building department will need about two weeks' study of bids before awarding contracts, he said.

Financed from capital improvement funds on a pay-as-you-go basis, the library is scheduled for completion by 1961, Pontiac's centennial year.

A matter of land acquisition is still facing the city.

Most of the proposed site for the library belongs to the city but a strip along Water street does not. It is owned by Stuart A. Austin, operator of Austin Trucking Co., 74 Water St.

Willman said recently that negotiations are nearly complete to buy from Austin the land needed for the library and also the site of the trucking firm, which is located in the area earmarked for Civic Center expansion.

NAMED TOP MARINE — Secretary of the Navy William B. Franke congratulates Maj. Gen. David M. Shoup Wednesday after the Medal of Honor winner was chosen by President Eisenhower to be the new commandant of the Marine Corps. Shoup's selection was announced from the temporary White House at Gettysburg, Pa. He will succeed Gen. Randolph McC. Pate, right, whose second two-year tour as commandant ends Dec. 31. The Senate must approve the nomination. Shoup is 54 and was born in Indiana. He is known as a man of few words, and a tough general. He fought under heavy fire against the Japanese in 1943, winning the Medal of Honor.

Chrysler Has Process to Prevent Car Rust

DETROIT (AP)—A process that is supposed to beat the bugaboo of rust on new cars will be used by Chrysler Corp. on its 1960 models.

In giving the details today Chrysler omitted the fact that it will use unitized bodies on all of its cars except the Imperial next year. A unitized body is a single unit, rather than pieces bolted to a frame.

R. S. Bright, Chrysler group vice president for automotive rustproofing process is a seven stage system which cost more than 18 million dollars to install at Chrysler body plants.

It involves three metal cleaning baths, seven anti-corrosive dips, seven spraying operations and seven external paint finishing operations. The solutions into which the body is dipped include phosphate coating, an alkaline solution, chromic acid and a new anti-corrosion primer paint.

MIAMI (UPI) — As they say on television, it's a tough job, and sometimes a dirty job, but a necessary job, being a United States marshal Deputy Marshal Guy Hixon was ordered by a court yesterday to destroy 19,000 pounds of rotten eggs, seized for violation of interstate commerce regulations.

Sylvan Lake City Council Votes on Ordinances, Codes

A complete revamping of ordinance codification and new building and traffic codes were the major topics at last night's monthly meeting of the Sylvan Lake City Council.

The final audit of the 1958-59 budget showed a surplus of $896.04, it was reported.

This was the first time in several years that the city succeeded in finishing with a balanced budget.

Councilmen voted to adopt a new system whereby all city ordinances will be classified. Up to now there had been no formal classification.

The new system will group ordinances under four major classes: administration, police powers, public service, and miscellaneous.

The new city code is, in essence, the standard code as established by the Building Officials Conference of America, Inc., it was reported.

"There will be some increase in fees for building permits in order that we may offset the loss sustained from the old system," said City Manager David E. Firestone. "But no exact figures can be determined at this time."

The new traffic code adopted is the Michigan State Police Uniform Traffic Code for cities, townships and villages.

In adopting the code the Council repealed 10 present city ordinances and most of another dealing with traffic.

"The new code is greatly simplified and clarifies regulations to a greater degree," Firestone said.

George F. McTavish, formerly a patrolman with the Sylvan Lake Police Dept., was named acting chief of police in a program designed to reorganize and rebuild the department.

McTavish, who lives at 5901 Jerose St., Drayton Plains, has been with the force for 2½ years.

In other business the Council expressed its approval of annexing to the city land at the intersection of Middle Belt and Orchard Lake roads, now in West Bloomfield Township. Annexation now will be decided by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors and a future vote of city residents.

An appeal from provisions of the building and zoning codes was made by auto dealer Eddie Steele who expressed a wish to build an addition to his present building on Orchard Lake road.

The matter was tabled for further study pending a public hearing of which all residents living or owning property within 300 feet of the Steele property will be notified.

Firestone announced that $50,000 worth of U.S. Government Treasury Bills had been purchased with surplus city funds.

He also publicly commended the city's summer swimming program recently concluded.

Undertow Sweeps 3 Children to Deaths

PETOSKEY, Mich. (AP)—Two young brothers and their sister were swept to their deaths by an undertow Wednesday while wading in Little Traverse Bay.

Drowned were Connie Paige, 9, and her brothers Wayne, 8, and Gary, 7.

Judy Clark, 11, told state police the youngsters were wading fully clothed in about two feet of water when a big wave rolled in. She said all three were knocked off their feet and swept out into the bay.

The bodies were recovered.

Hart, McNamara Lose in Housing Bill Battle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michigan's Democratic Sens. Patrick V. McNamara and Philip A. Hart were on the losing side yesterday as the Senate refused to override President Eisenhower's veto of the omnibus housing bill.

The roll call vote was 55-40. It fell nine votes short of the required two-thirds majority.

Will Check Offspring

Navy Plays Cupid for Space Monkey

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — The Navy is planning to get a husband for Miss Baker, the half-pound monkey which made history as one of the country's first space travelers.

And a brand new home is being built here for the prospective couple—a home that is swank enough for a honeymoon cottage, though not much larger than a couple of telephone booths.

The "marriage" was disclosed today to a reporter checking on the status and future prospects of the tiny, goggle-eyed squirrel monkey that survived a 1,700-mile-long, 360-mile-high, 10,000-mile-an-hour ride through space May 28. Her companion on that flight, a female rhesus monkey named Able, survived the adventure but died later.

The Navy is interested in a romance for Miss Baker because scientists at the Naval School of Aviation Medicine here want to find out if the monkey's space flight could result in "any abnormalities in reproduction" due to possible radiation exposure.

Dr. Donald Stullken, physiologist, and other researchers say that all evidence from the space test itself points to a happy motherhood for Miss Baker, with little or no fears from radiation.

The room prepared for Miss Baker and her bridegroom is seven feet wide, five feet deep and seven and one-half feet high. The walls and ceiling are covered with formica: there is a tile floor; and there will be special lighting and air conditioning.

It looks like a young bride's dream.

THEY'LL MARRY HERE — Following the wishes of both to be married in Norwegian style, Steven Rockefeller and his bride-to-be, Anne Marie Rasmussen, have chosen this Lutheran church for their wedding ceremony. The couple will be married at the "new" Sogne church Aug. 22.

Steven Rockefeller Wants Simplicity

Only 60-70 Invited to Wedding Party

KRISTIANSAND, Norway (AP) — The Rockefellers will rub shoulders with a fishmonger and a ship chandler among others at a wedding reception here next week.

This will happen at a reception for 60 or 70 guests after the wedding of Steven Rockefeller, 23, and the belle of the village of Sogne, Anne Marie Rasmussen, 21.

Authoritative sources said the party would be held in the Businessmen's Club and the guest list includes the Norwegian girl's relatives and friends of the family.

Among those invited by Anne Marie's parents are Kristen Torsoe, who sells fish, and Carl Axelssen, who supplies merchant shipping and fishing boats. The groom's parents, New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, and his wife, will be there.

The "Club" as it is known in this part of the world, could handle some hundreds but the reception has been narrowed to keep it within family bounds. Exceptions are such as Joergen H. Lohne, mayor-sheriff of Sogne.

MAID OF HONOR

There are fairly firm reports that the mayor-sheriff's daughter, Signe, will be maid of honor.

The simplicity of reception plans was in keeping with young Rockefeller's demands that his marriage be done Norwegian style.

The relatives of the honey blonde girl who went to work in the Rockefeller household as a maid and now becomes an important mistress in the family fortunes will make up a fair share of the 60-70 guest list.

They include her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Svendsen, and 10 uncles and aunts including Mrs. Andrew Svendsen who lives in New York and returned here two weeks ago for the wedding.

Steven and his fiance remained in seclusion at some hideout along the south Norwegian coast. Not even the official Rockefeller family representative sent here from New York was in telephone contact.

EXPECT RETURN

Ike's Veto Upheld

Trimmed Housing Bill Likely to Get Fast Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Banking Committee starts work today on a new compromise housing bill. Both Democrats and Republicans predict quick agreement.

Some members said the Senate vote Wednesday sustaining President Eisenhower's veto of the $1,375,000,000 housing bill sent him in June had cleared the air and paved the way for fast action on a substitute.

Committee Chairman A. Willis Robertson (D-Va) announced immediately after the vote that his group would meet today.

Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala) told a reporter the full committee would base its new proposal on a trimmed-down $1,050,000,000 compromise bill written last week by the subcommittee he heads.

Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind), senior Republican on the subcommittee, predicted that Eisenhower would sign this new bill if only minor changes were made in it.

The Senate voted 53-40 to override the veto, nine votes short of the two-thirds needed.

The President won support of 30 of the 32 Republican senators who voted, with only Jacob K. Javits (NY) and Hugh Scott (Pa) in favor of rejecting the veto.

But 53 of the 63 Democratic senators on hand voted to override. The 10 noes were cast by nine Southerners and Frank Lausche (Ohio).

Sen. Joseph S. Clark Jr. (D-Pa), who had strongly urged the Democratic leadership to make a try at killing the veto, told a reporter afterward "I am glad we had the vote."

"The Democrats made a very good showing on this vote and now we have something to talk about next year in the areas where housing is a vital issue," he said. "We made the effort; now we've got to write a bill the President will sign."

Eisenhower indicated at his news conference he was in a compromising mood on housing.

He said there were objectionable features in the measure approved by Sparkman's subcommittee last week but added "I do not, by any manner or means, say that a bill has to conform in every detail to the desires or convictions that I express."

Children Know Right Clothes

But Sometimes They Prefer to Wear Old Togs to School

Youngsters usually know that they will start the season with some new clothes but often some pupils would rather bypass the new togs. Why? Because many mothers, in their anxiety to have their young look their best, tend to overdress them.

"They don't like feeling out of place any more than you do," adds the manufacturer.

When buying school clothes, select wash and dry outfits, since the 7-to-14 age group is an active one. Find crease-resistant fabrics, whenever possible, since nothing makes a child look more bedraggled than trousers baggy at the seat or knees; dresses that are wrinkled and mussed and sliding off at the shoulders.

Look for the jumper-type skirt for girls and the suspender-top trousers that have wide shoulder straps for boys. They hug the shoulders securely.

In recent years it's become the mode to dress even pre-teen-age girls in slacks and pants for school if the school allows them in the classroom.

They are practical and warm and provide protection against bruised knees while playing.

This season will see such outfits in three-piece sets, with a vest to be worn with a tailored but feminine blouse.

Conscience Took Time

ANADARKO, Okla. (AP) — National Guard Lt. Ira D. Hart Jr. said a man turned over to him an Army bayonet and entrenching tool, explaining he stole them in 1951 while in the Army in Japan. The man said his conscience bothered him.

ORDINANCE NO. 1393
Adopted August 11, 1959.
Effective August 21, 1959.
An Ordinance to amend Ordinance 1127 by adding to said Ordinance Section III B.
The City of Pontiac Ordains:
Section 1:
That Ordinance 1127 be and the same is hereby amended by adding Section III B, said added section to read as follows:
Section III B. In addition to requirements of the Michigan State Housing Law as adopted by reference for the City of Pontiac, the following items and standards shall be required:
1. Bathrooms. In every dwelling existing prior to effective date of this Ordinance there shall be provided at least one water closet, lavatory and bathtub or shower for every two dwelling unit (apartment). A separate bathroom containing a water closet, lavatory, bathtub or shower shall, however, be provided within every dwelling unit which has a total floor area of 240 square feet or more or is composed of three or more habitable rooms.
a. In all rooming houses, boarding or lodging houses, hotels and similarly occupied dwellings there shall be provided at least one water closet, lavatory and bathtub or shower for every ten (10) occupants or fraction thereof.
b. No required bathroom or toilet facilities shall be permitted in the cellar of any dwelling.
2. Water and Space Heating Facilities.
a. In all dwellings, except owner-occupied single family dwellings, there shall be provided and properly maintained a water heating facility capable of heating water to a temperature of at least 110 degrees Fahrenheit, and all required kitchen sinks, lavatories and bathtubs or showers shall be properly supplied with hot water in accordance with the Plumbing Code of Michigan.
b. Every dwelling shall have heating facilities which are properly installed, are maintained in a safe and good working condition, and are capable of heating all habitable rooms and bathrooms or water closet compartments to a temperature of at least 70 degrees Fahrenheit when the outdoor temperature is a minus 10 degrees Fahrenheit.
3. Electrical. All dwellings shall be supplied with electricity. All installation of electrical wiring shall be done in accordance with the Electrical Ordinance of the City of Pontiac.
4. Time for Compliance. All improvements specifically required by this Ordinance upon dwellings erected prior to effective date of this Ordinance shall be made within one (1) year from said date.
Section 2:
All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.
Section 3:
This ordinance shall take effect 10 days from and after its final passage by the City Commission of the City of Pontiac.
Made and passed by the City Commission of the City of Pontiac, this 11th day of August, A.D. 1959.

KLAN LEADER RETIRES — A. C. Hightower, 61, gives a wave in Little Rock, Ark. Tuesday after announcing his resignation as grand dragon of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., in Arkansas. Hightower explained that he withdrew from the Klan so that "if anything happens, I won't be held responsible." Questioned about the comment 'if anything happens,' Hightower said it had nothing to do with the opening of Little Rock High Schools.

TV News and Reviews

The Steel Hour's 'Guilt' Surely Was Just That

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI)—I'm not quite sure how to spell it, but my reaction to last night's CBS-TV U.S. Steel Hour can be summed up in one inelegant sound: Prhrrrrrrp.

That monosyllable can be pronounced by opening the mouth slightly and blowing a quick current of air along the extended tongue.

I believe in unchic circles it is sometimes referred to as the bazzoo or the Bronx cheer.

EWALD

Whatever its nomenclature, it categorized "Seed of Guilt," a one-hour slopera by Barbara Chain, with some exactitude.

"Seed of Guilt" was one of those semiliquid puddings that the Steel Hour whips up every other week for viewers who prefer to watch TV in a semi-comatose state.

Peggy Wood and Gloria Vanderbilt toiled in the cause, both of them rather erratically. Patty Duke played the small girl with her eyelashes going full blast.

SHORT SHOTS: ABC-TV's Music for a Summer Night presented a telescoped version of "La Traviata" last night that struck me as rather rigidly acted and staged . . . Sandy Stewart, a singer I'd never heard before, was a swinging addition to the NBC-TV Dave King Show last night . . . studio audiences are a peculiar breed. Last Night on CBS-TV's I've Got a Secret they applauded for radar.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Janet Blair landed the lead in "Strawberry Blonde," the NBC-TV Oct. 18 special . . . Brenda de Banzae and Holly Mills, daughter of actor John Mills, will join Ingrid Bergman in the cast of "Turn of the Screw," an NBC-TV Tuesday night Ford special which will be videotaped in Brooklyn starting Sept. 15.

NBC-TV is planning a 60-minute John Wayne special for 1960-61 which will be videotaped at Brackettville, Tex., this October — it'll be tied into Wayne's upcoming movie about the Alamo . . . Harry Belafonte can't join the cast of "A Toast to Jerome Kern," the Sept. 22 NBC-TV special, because of a previous commitment — Belafonte leaves for England Sept. 2 to star in three TV shows — one of them live, two on tape.

Begin Bridge Work to Cross Narrows

NEW YORK (AP) — Groundbreaking ceremonies take place today for the 320-million-dollar Narrows Bridge connecting Brooklyn and Staten Island.

The bridge will have the longest suspension span of any bridge in the world. It will be 7,200 feet long and have a clear span of 4,260 feet, exceeding by 60 feet the center span of the Golden Gate Bridge at San Francisco.

It is slated for completion in 1965.

65-Year-Old Teacher Hikes in Mountains

TWIN LAKES, Colo. (AP)—A few days hiking alone in Colorado's roughest country—that's all Dr. Mary McGehee, 65, has been doing.

The reired Vassar College teacher returned late Wednesday to her Aspen, Colo., home. An 18-man search party called out by a frantic companion from whom she became separated was also back home.

Since last Thursday, Dr. McGehee said, she has hiked approximately 80 miles across the Continental Divide and back.

"I know my way around the mountains," she explained. "There was absolutely no need to get those men out of bed to look for me."

Nigerian Civil Workers Being Loaned TV Cash

LAGOS, Nigeria (UPI) — Western Nigeria's civil employes will get easy repayment money advances from the government to buy television sets for the advent of TV in October, it was reported today.

Officials in Ibadan, capital of the western region, announced the plan and said the government also had ordered 1,000 TV sets for schools, hospitals and other public institutions.

Jet Fighter Crashes Into House; Kills Man

OAKDALE, Calif. (AP) — An out-of-control jet fighter plane was abandoned by its pilot Wednesday and crashed into a barn. Flying wreckage killed a man in a nearby house.

Oakdale mail carrier Kyle L. Anderson, 68, was killed and his daughter, Leona, 21, was injured seriously when the jet's landing gear smashed into the house.

Paul Newman Replies to Curtis' Stage Jab

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Paul Newman's answer to Tony Curtis' crack that he's crazy to act on the B'way stage if he wants to be a movie star is: "He's right if you want to be just a movie star — but who wants to be just a movie star?"

WILSON

After courteously explaining that he didn't want to clash with Curtis, Newman then let him have it with:

"Why didn't he use the word 'actor' instead of star?

"Being only a movie star in the field of acting is like being a swimmer who never swims under water. No, that's a bad example. It's like being a great race horse, but he can't run in the rain.

"In pictures, you acquire certain successful mannerisms you can't get away with on the stage.

"On the stage you can't stop and say, 'I got off to a bad start. Roll 'em again, fellows.' Nor are you able to cut out a bad section.

"I have seen some people get lucky and do a movie scene right after seven takes."

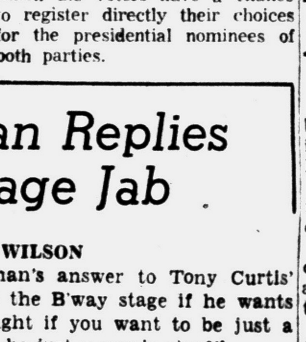

"I hope to do a play every third year," said Paul, who's starring in "Sweet Bird of Youth." Gently, he added, "I know this slows down my movie career. But what the hell, I don't think being a movie star is the end-all of everything!"

Marlon Brando forgot the shish kebab dinner young actress Lorri Scott cooked for him, so she's indignantly sending him the spikes with a note, "This is all that's left of what you missed" . . . Marilyn Monroe's reading Photographer Sam Shaw's script of "Paris Blues," which Brando'll produce after filming "The Ugly American" in Siam next spring.

Because she's expecting, actress Doe Lang, B.W. of George Lang of the Brass Rail, got a call from an agent who said, "I know you can't do 'Showboat' — but could you do something from the neck up?" So, just from the chin north, she posed for a tooth-paste ad for Puerto Rico . . . We understand Frank Sinatra says Harry Golden's book, "For 2c Plain," is "a gasser."

DOE LANG

Hairdressers flipped over my blast at Anna Maria Alberghetti's new Italian hairdo. Reporter Gael Green's coiffeur declared, as he excitedly pinned her chignon upside down, that Anna Maria's hairdo "is the coming thing" — although he said he could do it better . . . With her husband Larry Puch over his heart attack, Marion Marlowe's blissful not only because she's in the new Mary Martin show, but "because I got four phones in my house and can listen in on all of them" . . . Gene Wesson, while m.c.'ing at the Pendulum strip tease place, won $6,000 on the horses, quit and became a TV producer . . . Jackie Gleason moved into the Astor for his "Take Me Along" rehearsals. His pal Toots Shor said, "Bill Zeckendorf's too nice a guy to deserve that."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "Kim Novak says she'll do a B'way show if she can find the right vehicle. She can use my car any time" — Eddie Condon.

Church Leaders Oppose Probe

California Episcopals Lash at Un-American Hearing on Schools

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Episcopal Church leaders are objecting to a scheduled hearing next month by the House Un-American Activities Committee into California schools.

The Department of Social Relations, Episcopal Diocese of California, issued a resolution Wednesday calling the House group's past procedure "so threatening to the private welfare of countless innocent individuals that the public conscience is and must thereby be outraged."

The Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, bishop of California, said: "My deepest objection to all this sort of thing is the lack of confrontation of witnesses by the accused, lack of cross-examination, and the lack of opportunity to adduce rebutting testimony."

The Episcopal statement argued the hearings could serve no legislative purpose because California's school systems already are covered by a loyalty oath.

Lawyer to Seek Post to Help Rockefeller

ROCHESTER, N. H. (AP) — A Nixon-Rockefeller battle for New Hampshire's 14 seats at the Republican National Convention appears virtually certain in the state's presidential primary next March 8.

Paul B. Urion, a Rochester lawyer, announced today he will run for a delegate post "either pledged or favorable" to the nomination of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Urion said he has "no authority, either expressed or implied," from Rockefeller.

Several New Hampshire supporters of Vice President Richard M. Nixon had announced they would also seek delegate seats.

Neither Nixon nor Rockefeller has announced any plans for the New Hampshire primary, which also includes a preference poll in which the voters have a chance to register directly their choices for the presidential nominees of both parties.

TV's Hans Conried Now a 'Personality'

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Hans Conried was brooding the other day over the new phenomenon of "personality" as introduced to modern life by American television.

After years of steady employment as a perfectly respectable actor (everything from Shakespearean roles to mad scientis :) Conried went on the Jack Paar Show and quite soon found himself a "personality."

"At first I felt naked," he recalled. "There I was, Conried playing Conried, with no role to hide behind. I had to talk, and that wasn't too hard, of course. I've been talking since I was a year old. Then, I guess, I began creating the personality of Hans Conried, a role to hide behind."

But who, asked a fellow, really is Conried? What is he?

Conried fixed his dark eyes on the fellow somberly and offered an item, a clue: The true Conried lives happily with his wife and two sons in a large California house that contains 7,000 books, most of which he's read. But he refused to divulge anything further about the secret life of Hans Conried except that he wants another bookcase in his house and there doesn't seem to be room for it.

Conried has become a "personality" thanks to his appearances on the Paar show and other TV panel programs. But it hasn't hurt his professional career as an actor. In fact, his career has been enhanced, with more offers for better roles.

Next Sunday, for example, he will co-star with William Bendix in "The Ransom of Red Chief," an NBC-TV special which also features Mickey Rooney's 9-year-old son, Teddy.

A new idea in network programming comes on ABC-TV Oct. 18 in a weekly half-hour series called "Championship Bridge with Charles Goren."

In the Sunday programs Goren won't teach you to play, but he'll offer tips to make you a better player—if you'll concentrate on it.

Two teams of players will go four hands during each half-hour program. The actual contests, played in a studio, will be observed by Goren and Alex Drier from another studio so that their comments won't disturb the players.

Rock Hudson will make his TV debut as host and star of a 90-minute special on CBS-TV Oct. 8. Other stars signed for the variety program include Tallulah Bankhead, Sammy Davis Jr., Mort Sahl and Esther Williams.

Vandals Kill Rare Birds by Beating

Rookery keeper Lee Bradberry discovered the dead birds. They apparently were attacked during the night.

Slain were three wild turkeys from Texas, two Demoselle cranes from India, a pair of crowned cranes from Africa, a Hutchins goose, and a rosy billed duck from South America. They were valued at a total of $1,300.

Perkins said the vandals apparently used large sticks or baseball bats, stuffing the bodies under nests, boxes and a bank of a lagoon. One of the birds had been placed under a nesting box. The vandals apparently jumped up and down on the box until the bird died.

The vandals apparently climbed over a gate to get into the locked rookery. A similar attack last year by teenagers resulted in the death of seven birds and the wounding of five.

Announce 541 Killed on British Roads in June

LONDON (UPI) — The Ministry of Transport said today that 541 persons died on British roads during June, a record high death toll for a single month in Britain.

Total killed and injured over the 30 days was 30,930, with the heaviest casualties among motorcyclists and scooter riders.

Would Abolish Colonies for Isolation of Lepers

GENEVA (UPI) — An experts committee of the World Health Organization (WHO) recommended yesterday the abolishment of all leper colonies and urged treatment of the world's 12 million leprosy sufferers at home.

The committee said isolation of lepers has become outdated since the discovery of the drug sulfone, which permits the handling of leprosy as an ordinary public health problem in the same manner as other communicable diseases.

'Citizens for Michigan' Plan Meeting Sept. 21

LANSING (AP)—The second meeting of the newly organized "Citizens for Michigan" will be held here Sept. 21 to push plans for the group's goal of solving the state's problems through citizen action.

The bipartisan movement was launched June 19 when some 200 civic leaders met at Michigan State University at the request of George Romney, president of American Motors Co.

Romney, temporary chairman of the group, said the agenda for the meeting would include adoption of a constitution and a budget, election of permanent officers and selection of topics for study.

ADVERTISED IN LIFE

INCLUDED! 300-foot reel can. Keep a complete movie show safe and clean for years.

INCLUDED! Genuine gloss-beaded movie screen that reflects all the brilliance of your movies. Easy to set up and store.

★ KEYSTONE K-20 MOVIE CAMERA with fast f2.3 lens. Think of it! A color movie camera so simple to operate that anyone — even a child — can take beautiful sharp, clear color movies the first time. No learning how — it's all fun, no fuss. Your family and friends will say you're an expert. But you'll say movies with the Keystone K-20 are as easy as snapshots.

★ KEYSTONE K-60 MOVIE PROJECTOR with f1.6 Magna-Scope lens and Super-Optic beam. Think of it! A small, compact, movie projector that's easy to carry and simple as ABC to run. Throws a big, bright, 500-watt picture, filling your screen with color, motion and life.

INCLUDED! Extra 300-foot reel. Keeps movie ready to show.

INCLUDED! Quik Splice Kit for speedy splicing and easy editing. Cut and rearrange scenes like a Hollywood film editor — as easy as putting on adhesive tape.

INCLUDED! Movie Scene Record Book — the Hollywood-like shooting script for your home movies. Be a pro by following the book.
