Ike Deplores Idea of Sudden Tax Cut

President Says Fiscal Integrity Must Be First

Sees Service Squabble as Good Morale Among Armed Forces

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the government should by no means think of cutting taxes at this time despite an expected $1,800,000,000 budget surplus.

Eisenhower told a news conference tax cutting should be deferred until a start has been made on reducing the nation's enormous national debt.

There is such a thing as fiscal integrity, he said crisply.

Eisenhower said the $1,800,000,000 surplus recently estimated by the Treasury was only an estimate and could be far off, depending on the rate of revenue collections.

So, he said, the estimate would be a very poor excuse for cutting taxes at this time.

Alluding to the interservice differences over the role to be played by the various branches, Eisenhower said it is necessary to get the matter in proper perspective.

In these days of new weapons, Eisenhower said, there is constant change and fluidity, and military doctrines that were sacrosanct in the past now are being deserted.

It was then he said that if there were not good, strong arguments among the armed services, he would be frightened indeed.

Later on, Eisenhower said with great emphasis that the strength of America is not found alone in bombs or in guided missiles. It is instead, he added a combination of many things, such as balancing the budget.

EGYPT — Eisenhower said the United States thinks Egypt made a mistake in recognizing Red China. He hastened to add, however, that one such act by a nation does not and should not end friendship. He said also that such action should not destroy our efforts to work with Egypt.

FOREIGN POLICY — A newsman asked Eisenhower for his appraisal of what the reporter termed "slippage" of the Western world with relation to the Communist bloc in the foreign policy field.

TOO MUCH PESSIMISM

The President replied he believes too much pessimism is being expressed regarding the state of the world today. Eisenhower said he didn't mean everything is perfect—that he was too realistic for that—but that some progress is being made even though the way is slow and tortuous.

PUBLIC TEST — Making its maiden public flight, the Army's Corporal multi-supersonic weapon is shown as it took off at White Sands (New Mexico) Proving Grounds on a mission that leveled off between 20,000 and 30,000 feet altitude and continued for an undisclosed distance.

Army Proud of Its Nike; Critics Quiet

Guided Missile Offers Proof of Value in Test at White Sands

WHITE SANDS PROVING GROUNDS, N. M., (INS)—Army officers were proud today of their Nike guided missile following the weapon's doubt-dispelling action before a group of skeptical newsmen.

After displaying the uncanny accuracy of the Nike in action against a fast-moving Firebee drone airplane yesterday, the Army offered additional proof today with troops in training firing at other drones in the New Mexico sky over the White Sands Proving Grounds.

The some 120 news and cameramen will be taken to Red Canyon range, on the proving grounds, to watch soldiers fire various types of missiles.

The Army, obviously on the spot following criticism of the Nike in Washington where an inter-service dispute between the Army and the Air Force is waging over guided missiles, sent two of the pencil-slim shiny white weapons chasing a drone one-tenth the size of a bomber.

One of the two radar-controlled Nikes hit its 11-foot drone target on the nose four miles above the desert and more than 15 miles from where the missiles were launched.

The results of the Nike test were delayed several hours because of technical matters which the Army explained was due to lack of necessary equipment by a recovery crew where the target finally landed in the desert.

One of the missiles exploded just under and ahead of the target, blowing it out of the path of the second Nike, which also would have scored a hit.

Detroit, Flint Named Surplus Labor Areas

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department today reported rising employment in virtually all sections of the country except auto manufacturing centers, which were designated surplus labor areas warranting Federal aid.

Detroit and Flint, Mich., along with South Bend, Ind. and Kenosha, Wis., all auto centers, were placed in the surplus labor category. This makes them eligible for favored treatment in receiving government contracts.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, had appealed to have Michigan auto producing areas placed on the favored list. Auto and farm equipment production and employment have been lagging due to reduced sales and high inventories.

Riesel Will Go Home

NEW YORK (INS) — Labor columnist Victor Riesel, blinded when an assailant threw sulphuric acid in his face on April 5, is expected to leave St. Clare Hospital today for his home.

Predict Area Frost in Exposed Locations

Cooler weather arrived this morning after a stormy night of thundershowers, high winds and low temperatures.

Fair and cool with frost in exposed locations is the prediction for the Pontiac area tonight with a low near 40 degrees.

The Weatherman says tomorrow will be partly cloudy and a little warmer with the high reaching from 66-74 degrees.

In downtown Pontiac, the temperature dropped 32 degrees from 76 at 10 p.m. to 44 at 8 o'clock this morning. The mercury rose to 54 at 2 p.m.

OPEN PROGRAM — This trio welcomed 150 representatives of area business and industry this morning to the annual Education-Business-Industry day, to which the school system is host this year. Speaking at the 9 a.m. session at Pontiac High School were (left to right) Louis Schimmel, president of the board of education; James Nye, chairman of the education committee of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of Pontiac schools.

Committee OKs Postal Increase

House Group Approves 4-Cent Letter to Help Balance Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Post Office Committee yesterday approved a $432,200,000 increase in postal rates which Secretary of the Treasury Humphreys says may spell the difference between a balanced and an unbalanced federal budget.

The committee voted behind closed doors to boost the present 3-cent letter rate to four cents and hike the air mail charge from 6 cents an ounce to 7 cents.

Postmaster General Summerfield has estimated the higher letter rate would cost the average family 10 to 12 cents a month.

Bigger increases were approved for second class mail — chiefly magazines and newspapers — and for third class advertising matter.

Rejected was an Eisenhower proposal that rate-setting authority be transferred from Congress to a postal rate commission.

The committee reportedly voted 13-8 for the postal rate bill, which apparently has drawn increasing support since it was advanced by the administration early in the session.

However, some Congress members have held out slight hope for increased postal rates in this election year, and the measure has not been listed by house leaders as "must" legislation.

The administration's big argument has been that the boosts are needed to offset the post office department's operating deficit, now running nearly 500 million dollars a year.

Stocks Bounce Back

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market bounced back smartly today after yesterday's sharp sell-off.

Compromise Farm Plan Goes to Ike for Likely OK

WASHINGTON (INS)—The House today passed and sent to President Eisenhower the second version farm bill. The President is expected to sign the measure into law.

The House took only an hour to stamp approval on the election-year bill which the Senate adopted Tuesday.

The measure is a substitute for the farm bill vetoed on April 16 by the President. It authorizes $1,900,000,000 in new federal spending to aid farmers.

Rep. W. R. Poage (D-Tex), in charge of the bill on the House floor, described the legislation as "the third or fourth best farm bill." He added, however, that it was the best bill that could be enacted.

Senate GOP Leader William F. Knowland of California, was asked if he thought the President would sign the new measure. He replied: "I assume it will be signed. I haven't heard anything to the contrary."

The bill is a compromise measure which neither Republicans nor Democrats claimed as a victory.

It sets up the $1,200,000,000 soil bank Eisenhower asked in vetoing the first farm bill. He then urged new legislation confined to the bank. But Congress added other features, including two spending measures lifted from the vetoed bill.

One would authorize 500 million dollars to bolster the prices of such perishable foods as pork and beef through government purchase programs. The other adds 200 million dollars to the current 300 million dollar program for disposal of surplus goods to the needy overseas.

The main feature of the new bill—the soil bank—has bipartisan backing. Democrats won a battle to have it go into effect immediately. They also succeeded in turning down the President's request for advance soil bank payments.

The biggest part of the soil bank is the acreage reserve, by which farmers could get 750 million dollars annually for not planting all of their allotted acreage on certain crops.

Retail Price of Coffee Won't Rise Immediately

NEW YORK (INS) — Consumers will not be immediately affected by the recent price hike in brand name coffee, most New York supermarket chains agreed today.

A survey showed that the present stock of major brands of coffee in most chain stores will last at least two weeks.

But when the stock runs out, stores will pass along the increases of up to four cents a pound to the consumers.

GM Plants Will Close During May 30 Holiday

Local General Motors employes will be given a day off from work May 30 in observance of the Memorial Day holiday, according to spokesmen at Pontiac Motor, GMC Truck & Coach and the Fisher Body Division.

The plants will resume normal production Thursday and Friday, however.

Delay Naming Deeds Register

Three County Officials Fail to Agree on New Officer

Announcement of a replacement for County Register of Deeds Orrin McQuaid, who died suddenly last week, was again postponed today after three appointing officials were unable to agree in a two-hour meeting this morning.

County Clerk Lynn D. Allen, who will appoint McQuaid's successor with Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem and Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore, said the announcement will be made tomorrow morning.

Allen said the three officials have narrowed the choice to "two or three' candidates, but would not divulge their names. He said the officials will meet again some time this afternoon to make the final selection.

Four of the 21 announced candidates had been mentioned as strong contenders. They are Waterford Township Clerk Louis Barry, Deputy County Treasurer Lloyd Sibley, former court clerk Daniel Murphy and former Chief Assistant Prosecutor Robert C. Miller.

Searching for Gold?

You don't have to travel to the end of the rainbow to find your POT-O-GOLD.

Your front porch is far enough to win a minimum of $100 in an exciting new word game which will begin Monday, May 28, in the pages of The Pontiac Press.

The only requirement to win the Press' weekly POT-O-GOLD is an alert mind and plain common sense — plus, of course, an official entry form, three copies of which will appear every week until Labor Day.

It's fun and it can be most profitable for Press readers who turn in correct solutions. And $100 isn't the limit you can win, because if any week should pass without a winner the Press will add another $100 the next week. Regular subscribers will get an extra bonus of $25.

Watch The Pontiac Press for further details and rules about this exciting new contest. In the meantime, sharpen your pencils and your wits—it can mean a POT-O-GOLD to you.

Visitors View City Facilities, Meet Teachers

Schimmel, Whitmer and Nye Welcome Group at Pontiac High

By JANICE HAYHOW

Education and schools, 1956, was the general theme of today's Education-Business-Industry Day sponsored by the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce.

Louis Schimmel, president of the Pontiac Board of Education opened the day's program at an orientation meeting in the auditorium of Pontiac High School. He welcomed the 150 representatives of local business and industry, who were guests of 25 public and three parochial schools.

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of schools and James F. Nye, chairman of the educational committee for the chamber also spoke to the visitors.

"We should be proud of the planning and research in education in Pontiac," Schimmel said. "Your Pontiac educators know what they're doing, where they're going, what problems they face and how to solve them."

He told visitors that this was their opportunity to keep pace with public school education. He urged the business and industry men to be curious and ask questions when they took their tours throughout the schools.

Chairman of the day's activities, Nye, introduced the chamber representatives and welcomed the businessmen.

Dr. Whitmer spoke to the group regarding the current and future financial outlook of the Pontiac school system.

He discussed capital improvement costs, financing of improvements and current debt requirements.

"Operational costs will amount to some $7,046,919 for the school year 1956-57, "Whitmer said. "This budget will finance a continually developing and improving school program in which are provided education for 800 to 1000 additional children, 55 new teaching positions, teacher salary increases, sharply stepped up maintenance and rehabilitation program and needed new equipment for existing schools."

Visitors then dispersed to assigned schools for classroom and teaching observations.

The business and industry representatives learned the latest equipment used in the classrooms. Department heads explained teaching techniques and school operation to them during a two hour morning tour.

Visitors joined teachers for lunch at noon with questions for the school representatives, regarding what they had seen.

Some of the businessmen returned to Pontiac High at 1:30 for a further puestion period.

Assisting Nye on plans for EBI Day were Edward T. Barrett, Robert Emerich, Cecil Thrash, Dr. George N. Petroff and John Hirlinger, all of the Chamber and school representatives Dr. Whitmer, J. Cecil Cox, assistant superintendent and Francis Staley, Pontiac High principal.

Three-Year Airport Improvement Plan Makes Picture of Future Brighter

Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of articles on Pontiac's Municipal Airport, its past and present problems, and plans for the future.

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

There are several reasons why Pontiac's airport toppled from a topnotch rating in the country to almost the lowest classification in the book, but the city's flying installation is "on its way now," according to manager Homer D. Hoskins.

The city's failure to match state and federal funds available for airport improvement played a part in the downfall, as did a lack of local financing and interest, and a shift in the production centers of aircraft.

Today, however, the picture is much brighter.

"We're on our way now," said Hoskins, as he glanced out over the field he has managed for the last 15 years.

"This is the beginning of a real development after we have struggled since 1929," Hoskins continued. "Under our present plans of development we are emphasizing the practical airport improvements."

"The beautifying details will have to wait until later," he said.

In 1929 the city's airport was considered second to none in the state. It was the focal point of a growing statewide municipal airport development, that was in the blueprint stage then.

Today Pontiac's field is classed next to the bottom in airport classification. And this to serve a city of 80,000 population.

Preventing Pontiac from maintaining its enthusiastic entry into the air age was, and still is, the length of runways at the port. This limitation is blocking large commercial planes, like air service, from including the Pontiac field in their plans.

The shift of aircraft manufacturing from the Detroit area to the Atlantic and Pacific coasts also dampened the city port from maintaining a high caliber field, Eddie Rickenbacker had planned

Study Request for City Water

Future Shopping Center Offers New Application for Pontiac Services

A request for municipal services from the "Michigan Miracle Mile" shopping center to be built just south of the city limits, was referred to the city manager and engineer for study by the City Commission last night.

The developers of the multi-million dollar project to be located at Square Lake and Telegraph Rds., in Bloomfield Township, requested use of four fire hydrants for emergency use only.

They also asked for use of approximately 80,000 gallons of city water a day and use of sanitary sewers.

Last year the developers requested the city annex the 145-acre parcel but "temporarily withdrew" the request in September.

The City Commission reportedly was in favor of the annexation and was waiting results of a survey before a vote was taken. The withdrawal interrupted the vote.

The Retail Merchants Assn. strongly opposed the annexation because of the possible effect on downtown businesses. A 25-member Downtown Merchants Committee circulated petitions requesting that the City Commission delay a decision when the annexation request was withdrawn.

Cranbrook to Honor Alumni War Dead

The students and faculty at Cranbrook School will conduct a special Memorial Day service May 30 at 2:30 p.m. in commemoration of the 37 alumni who lost their lives during World War II.

An address by alumni association president Alan E. Schwartz will highlight the service in the school quadrangle. The 1943 Cranbrook graduate is now a Detroit attorney.

Mrs. James B. Jones of Grosse Pointe will place a wreath at the base of the memorial scholarship fund plaque which lists the names of the deceased graduates.

She was the mother of Robert and James Jones, both of whom attended Cranbrook before they were killed in the service.

MMPA Under New Fire on System of Delegates

Directors of the Michigan Milk Producers Association and Harold H. Fritz, president of the Romeo local of MMPA, have been ordered to be ready for trial at 10 a.m., June 13, in Detroit.

Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Ira W. Jayne issued the order yesterday.

Fritz, plaintiff in the case, asks interpretation of MMPA by-laws and clarification of the rights of the members. The case has been pending for almost a year.

The association's delegate system first became the subject of controversy when some 500 dairymen met at Romeo in December, 1954 to plan action toward gaining a voice in their association.

They asked "realistic, democratic control." They also charged "possible collusion" between persons connected with the MMPA and some dairies.

Pre-trial evidence revealed that delegate system had been in operation since 1915, although legislation authorizing it was not passed until 1920.

Fritz's attorney, Edward A. Jacob, said members were not officially notified of the new law, which makes the delegate system inoperative.

MMPA directors claim the system was "ratified by usage" over the years, Jacob reported today.

He maintains that the court case is the "effective, orderly way to bring about a change in MMPA policy, and to gain a milk price hike, rather than strike action."

Under the delegate system, the members elect delegates in their local meetings, to represent them at state conventions and other MMPA meetings. Romeo local members have voiced disapproval of this, and demand a direct voice in the affairs of the association.

Airport Eyes Plan to Improve Facilities

around 1930 on building an airplane factory next to the port.

A three-year plan, which will be financed by Federal grants matched by State and local funds, is expected to spark the hopes to once again have one of the finest ports in the country.

The plan is:

1956—Expand the present east-west runway from 1,800 by 50 feet to 4,000 by 100 feet.

1957—Installation of runway lights and lights on the taxi strips.

1958—Possible construction of a control tower for the field and adjoining administration building.

Manager Hoskins explained to qualify for a tower, and the Federal assistance to construct it, the field must have a minimum of 2,500 (landings or take-offs) per month.

Optimism is high on fulfilling this plan as last year the field recorded twice as many flights than in 1954. A traffic count at the field in 1955 showed 80,189 flights compared to 42,560 in 1954.

"We are in desperate need of a tower," Hoskins said. The field presently offers a two-way radio-telephone advisory service. Wind velocity and which runway to use is issued over the service to incoming planes.

A "T" on the ground gives pilots wind direction which necessitates flying over the field to secure direction and then circling to secure the proper approach.

Only boundary lights and a beacon serve Pontiac-bound pilots at present. "This allows only pilots familiar with the field for using it at night," the manager added.

When the east-west runway is completed in late fall, clearances of 2,000 feet and 2,700 feet will be available at the eastern and western approaches respectively.

With its completion the field will have five usable runways. The east-west strip is being emphasized in improvement plans as the prevailing winds at the field are westerly (a plane takes off and lands into the wind).

The longest runway now is 3,000 feet and runs northwest. Its use is limited in that only 800 feet is sealer-coated while the rest is sod.

Next longest is the north-south strip at 2,500 feet. Obstructions prevail at both ends, cutting down on required safety clearances.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration sets 2,000 feet as a safe clearance for approaches.

The south-west north-east runway ranks third in length at 2,400 by 60 feet while the presently used east-west strip runs 1,800 feet.

The city recently secured options on 75 acres west of the field which will permit another further expansion of 1,000 feet of the east-west runway in the future.

Conspiracy Hearing Postponed by Court

Pre-trial examination of 13 persons charged with conspiracy to violate state narcotics laws was postponed until June 6 before Pontiac Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan today.

One of those charged is free under $5,000 bond. The others, including three women, are held under $10,000 bonds each in Oakland County Jail.

The arrests came about as a result of an eight-months investigation into dope traffic in the southwest area.

Driver Escapes Injury as Car Runs Into Pole

A driver somehow was unhurt when his car struck and knocked down a utility pole last night at the entrance to a parking lot near the Wilson Foundry.

Mike Hernandes, 52, of 236 W. Wilson Ave., told Pontiac police that an unidentified car forced him off Wilson and into the pole at about 12:45 a.m.

Fined for Drunk Driving

Driving while under the influence of liquor cost Andrew Waldrep, of Clarkston, $75 in fine and costs in Justice Court Tuesday. He pleaded guilty to the charge when arraigned by Justice Willis D. Lefurgy, Waterford Township.

Candidate Cobo to Speak Here

City Inter-Service Club Luncheon on June 19 Will Hear Detroiter

Detroit Mayor and gubernatorial candidate Albert E. Cobo will be the guest speaker at a Pontiac Inter-Service Club luncheon-meeting to be held at the Elks Temple June 19 at noon, it was announced today by the sponsoring Downtown Kiwanis Club.

Over 450 members of clubs throughout the city and outlying districts are expected to be on hand for the affair. The event will constitute the regular meetings for that week for all the clubs.

Mayor William Donaldson will be on hand to introduce Cobo following the luncheon. Monroe Osmun will be chairman of the program with the program chairmen of each of the attending clubs currently aiding in arrangements.

Those clubs in Pontiac expected to be represented are the Kiwanis groups, Lions, Rotary, Optimists, Civitans, and the Exchange Club. Kiwanians and Lions from outlying districts may also participate. All members and guests of these clubs are invited to attend.

Report Shows Dip in Measles Cases

Measles cases have decreased from 262 to 94 cases discovered in the county during the past week according to a report from Dr. John D. Monroe, health director.

Rubella cases are on the upswing in Pontiac with an increase from 29 to 68, the report continues.

A complete breakdown of reports from the health departments on communicable diseases follow.

Spring (What?) Has Left Us —Summer to Be Cool One!

ANN ARBOR (UP)—What happened to spring? It's too late to worry about that—look what's going to happen to summer.

A Nelson Dingle, University of Michigan meterologist, says he's predicting a normal summer, but chances are it will be cooler than last and marked by tornado warnings.

Dingle advises against crying over spilt milk—the chances are that we've skipped spring this year altogether.

He grants that the psychological effect of the late spring was tough on us, but, he says, Michigan's winter was actually close to normal.

The difficulty with this last winter was not its severity, but its length. Indian summer gave way to a very cold November, a relatively cold December.

IT WAS THAT DROP

After New Years Day, it seems just to be a waiting for spring, as winter enthusiasm dulls. January was near normal, February was very warm—for February, but then March lowered the boom.

It was a sudden drop in March and the series of cold wintry blasts in April that got to most of us.

The cold air, riding a parade of high pressure areas out of Canada, blasted the state throughout the spring. The rest of May, Dingle says, should be normal with temeratures hitting 73 in Detroit, 71 in Grand Rapids, and 66 as far north as Alpena.

The one nice part of this spring was that fruit growth was slowed and the budding trees in the state won't reach frost sensitivity until the danger of frost is almost gone.

Pay Policemen Overtime Hours

Commissioners Split 5-2 on Controversy About Authorization

By a 5 to 2 vote last night the City Commission ruled to pay two Pontiac police officers eight hours overtime pay of the 11 they said was denied them by Police Chief Herbert W. Straley.

Officers Harold Hayden and Billy Jones said after the decision they would donate their overtime pay to the Pontiac Foundation for a civic auditorium to prove it "was the principal behind the case and not the money that counted."

Commissioners John A. Dugan and John E. Carry voted against the payment in favor of giving both officers the full 11 hours requested.

Both officers claim they were given authority by their superior officers to continue working on a felony case in February necessitating the extra hours. Chief Straley said the pair had not received the "proper authorization."

Hayden, spokesman for the pair, said "there is no question we worked 11 hours and we deserve this or nothing."

After hearing Hayden's story to the commission, Straley said: "There's quite a number of untruths made by Officer Hayden. They are entitled to 5½ hours pay and that's all. My compromise offer of eight hours is hereby withdrawn."

Straley and City Manager W. K. Williman had reviewed the case and decided on the eight hours.

Both Dugan and Carry mentioned failure of the officers' superiors in not investigating why they were working over into other shifts. "It's up to the superior officer to see that rules and regulations are followed," Dugan said.

Waterford Resident to Seek Nomination

Robert A. Burns, of 186 Fernbarry Dr., Waterford Township, yesterday announced he will seek the Republican nomination for State Senator from Oakland County's 12th District.

A former Southfield resident, Burns ran for State Representative in the County's Fourth District in 1954.

A graduate of Flint Junior College, University of Detroit and Detroit College of Law, Burns now is employed in the sales department of the Pontiac Motor Division.

A veteran of World War II and a member of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, Burns is married and has three children.

Police Arrest Speeder on Bet Slips Charge

Stopped for speeding on Clovese St. near Branch St. yesterday afternoon, Lenthus H. Ivie, 38, of 234 Wessen St. was arrested for illegal possession of numbers bet slips.

Police alleged that two bet slips were found in Ivie's car.

Truman Denies Statements on WW II Battles

NAPLES, Italy (UP) — Harry Truman denied through a spokesman today that he called the World War II landings at Salerno and Anzio unnecessary.

An Associated Press reporter who quoted him said, "It was reported exactly as he said it."

The remarks were reported by Fred J. Zusy, veteran Associated Press correspondent. He said:

"My quotes were copied while the former President was talking to me and are precisely as recorded. Both in my memory and in the notes written down word by word as he spoke the quotes are as reported."

The remarks stirred up a storm of criticism in the United States and Britain, since Allied casualties at both battles were heavy.

Man Jailed 60 Days for Reckless Driving

Reckless driving resulted in a 60-day sentence in Oakland County Jail for a Pontiac man yesterday.

Frederick H. Woolard, 20, of 3045 Gilmore Dr., pleaded guilty as charged at the arraignment held by Orion Township Justice Helmar G. Stanaback. His original sentence of 10 days was increased on failure to pay fine and costs totaling $125.

Green Lake Scoutmaster Council Session Keynoter

Boy Scout leaders of the Clinton Valley Council will hear a keynote speech by a Green Lake Scoutmaster during their annual dinner meeting Thursday night in Pontiac Motor Division's Engineering Building.

Otis Walton, scoutmaster of troop 119 at Green Lake, will speak on "Scouting Has a Real Job To Do," it was announced by Council President L. C. Churchill of Westacres.

A program feature will be a Scouting tableau put on by Pontiac troop 244 of Grace Lutheran Church and cub pack six of Webster School. Dr. Jack Bell, scoutmaster, and Al Benter, cubmaster, have rehearsed their boys in scenes which will depict the growth of a boy through Cubbing, Scouting and Exploring.

Presentation of Silver Beaver awards to three outstanding Scout leaders will climax the program. Highest honor the local Council can bestow upon its leaders, the Silver Beaver is a surprise award kept secret until presentation. William P. Pascher of Gingellville will direct the ceremony.

Election of Council officers, tenure awards to leaders and a report by Edward H. Leland, Council Scout Executive, also are scheduled.

Annual get-together of unit leaders, their assistants, committeemen, commissioners and their wives, the session will include representatives from the entire Council area which comprises northern Oakland and Macomb Counties.

No ticket is necessary for the meeting section of the program which will begin at 7:45 p.m. in the Pontiac Motor Auditorium. Reservations for the banquet, scheduled for 6:45 p.m., are accepted at the Council office in Pontiac.

Name Blanchard Authority Head

North Evergreen Sewer 4-Area Unit Organized in First Meeting

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — John W. Blanchard, Bloomfield Hills' representative to the new North Evergreen Sewage Disposal Authority, was elected authority chairman at its initial meeting yesterday morning at the Bloomfield Hills Municipal Building.

Future meetings will be in Birmingham's Municipal Building, the four authority members decided.

Besides Blanchard, those representing their towns were Harry MacLennan, from Troy, Arno L. Hulet of Bloomfield Township, and City Manager D. C. Egbert of Birmingham.

Hulet and McLennan are alternates for Orlando G. Holway, who becomes Troy City Manager next week, and the Bloomfield Township Supervisor David Anderson.

Blanchard served on Bloomfield Hills' Board of Appeals before moving from that city, and now returns to public effort, since he has moved into a new home in Bloomfield.

The authority members decided on meetings on first Tuesdays of each month; on deposit of funds with the Wabeek State Bank; that Claude Stevens of Berry, Stevens & Moorman be hired as attorney; and that Hubbell Roth and Clark, engineering firm, be employed to complete engineering planning.

Each of the four municipalities are to advance $1,000, members decided, to defray planning expenses for the interceptor sewer.

Besides Blanchard, new officers are Anderson, vice chairman, Egbert, secretary, and James H. Purkiss Jr. treasurer. Purkiss is Birmingham's finance director.

Dairy Farmer Income Rises

MMPA Official Reveals $41 Average April Gain Over March Figure

BAD AXE (UP)—New milk prices have increased the average monthly income of dairy farmers from $467 in March to $508 in April, says an official of the Michigan Milk Producers Assn.

Ernest R. Miller of Bad Axe, chairman of the MMPA sales committee, reported last night to Huron County shippers on the recent increase to $5 per hundredweight from the $4.33 paid farmers prior to a dairy farmer strike.

Miller said the price increase for class I milk—that used by consumers—represented a boost of $485,059 in April in the amounts due dairy farmers serving the Detroit area.

At the same time, he said, the price for class II milk—used for processing — declined 2½ cents, from $3.05 per hundredweight to $3.025.

'56 Deadline Looms for Filing Petitions

Deadline for precinct delegate candidates to file nominating petitions with County Clerk Lynn D. Allen is 4 p.m., May 29, Democratic County Chairman Carlos G. Richardson said today.

Petitions must contain not less than 15 nor more than 20 signatures of registered voters in the precinct where candidates are running, Allen said.

They must be accompanied by affidavits of identity, obtainable from Allen's office or from either party headquarters.

Only 25 Democrats and 36 Republicans now have filed petitions, Allen said yesterday. There are 248 precincts in Oakland County, each of which may have a delegate from each party.

The Day in Birmingham

Residents to Buy 5 Lots, Prevent Business Zoning

BIRMINGHAM — About 80 residents of the 281 homes bounded by Mohegan, Adams and Ridgedale streets and Hunter boulevard, indicated last night they would rather buy five lots than have them rezoned to business usage.

Only one dissenter was present in the group discussing the rezoning with City Planning Board members last night at the municipal meeting.

A committee of property owners was named to initiate negotiations with the five lot owners, who are Esther G. Barton, and Mary, Paul and James P. Cuminskey, Jr.

They had petitioned last Feb. 6 to change the zoning of the lots, which are bounded by Hunter, Oakland, Lawndale and Madison. They are anxious for settlement of some sort, since there has been several years discussion with planners and commissioners already.

Cost involved will be upwards of $25,000, indicated City Planner Herbert Herzberg as he explained the project to the group last night. He suggested city purchase of the lots, with assessments on property owners in the area diminishing from $201 for close residents to $72 for those near Adams on the far side.

The planners and residents agreed, however, on equal assessment on a lot basis. Example costs would be $89 paid by each lot owner if the property costs $25,000.

The lot would be a screening area between Hunter's traffic and the single-family residential area, and would prevent encroachment of business into the area.

The property owners request office-professional zoning (Business C), but it would leave an area where owners might request commercial or store zoning, the residents were warned.

Ambulance Law Enacted by City

Measure Will Govern Driver Qualifications, Items of Equipment

A city ordinance to provide safeguards to persons injured upon Pontiac streets by governing qualifications of ambulance drivers, was written into law last night by the City Commission. The new ordinance takes effect June 1.

It requires ambulances and emergency vehicles to be equipped with basic first aid equipment, bandages and splint appliances, all to be approved by the city Director of Public Health.

In each vehicle there must be at least one attendant who has completed an advanced Red Cross first aid course. The health official will issue a certificate upon evidence of completion of this course.

Persons affected by this new law will have 90 days to come into compliance with its provisions.

Violators will be fined $100 or 90 days imprisonment or both.

The ordinance was fostered by the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce Safety Committee.

Consumers Set to Lay Inter-Peninsula Wire

MACKINAW CITY (UP) — Consumers Power Co. next month will lay four electric power cables under water across the four-mile Straits of Mackinac.

The 46,000-volt cables will link the Upper Peninsula electrically to lower Michigan for the first time. The cables will be strung under water at a depth of 250 feet.

The cables were manufactured by the Okonite Co. at its Paterson, N. J., plant. The lead-sheathed cables are about 2.1 inches in diameter. They are being transported in four railroad flat cars.

A fifth gondola car will carry a lifting beam of 100-ton capacity and other equipment for transferring the cable reels to a barge and preparing them for laying in a single operation.

House Wanted: 85 Bedrooms and Babysitters

DETROIT (UP) — Jim and Betty MacFarlane both wanted a large family, but they hardly expected it so soon.

Married in August, 1954, the MacFarlanes, both 32, already have five children.

Twin Boys, Christopher and Kimberly, were born May 13, 1955. Triplets, two girls and a boy, arrived Monday. As yet, they haven't been named.

Sighed MacFarlane, a service station attendant:

"We wanted a big family, all right, but not all at once like this."

He said the family would have to move from their apartment to a house.

"The kind of house we'll need," he added jokingly, "will be an 85-bedroom job with hot-and-cold running babysitters."

GOP Chairman Hits Dem Leaders

BIRMINGHAM—The Democratic party in Michigan "is run by a bunch of insincere millionaires," Republican State Chairman John Feikens said in a talk before the Birmingham Republican Club last night.

"The Democratic leadership in Michigan delights in calling Republicans the party of 'big money'," Feikins said. "But who are these Democratic leaders?"

Feikens then listed Gov. Williams, Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart and Neil Staebler, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, as millionaires.

"These millionaires with a holier-than-thou attitude go around the state attacking the very institutions upon which their own great wealth is based," Feikens said. "They must have a guilt complex."

May Get Drain for West Side

Prepare Assessments for Project Previously Hit by Objections

Once again there's the possibility that residents around Glendale avenue in the city's west side will have a storm drain to relieve flooding conditions in the area.

Upon the motion of Commissioner Philip E. Rowston, in whose district the area is, a special assessment roll was instructed prepared according to an October 1955 engineer estimate.

At that time last year work was underway towards construction of the drain when some residents objected. The City Commission tabled the matter indefinitely until last night.

Rowston said he had received many calls once again requesting the drain. "I have surveyed this area and have taken pictures to show the water almost up to the door steps of many homes," he said.

The entire cost, nearly $5,000, will be assessed the residents of the area.

There are indications a similar battle to 1955 is in store as mixed opinions on the renewed proposal was aired at the meeting last night.

$8,000 Blaze Hits G. A. Morse Home

BIRMINGHAM — Fire caused by children throwing sparklers on the wooden shingle roof of the large brick home of the Granville A. Morse family, 2195 West Maple, caused $8,000 damage last night, the fire department reports.

Morse, who owns the G. A. Morse Plastic Company in Detroit, was out of town and Mrs. Morse was visiting a sister. The maid and chauffeur called the fire department at 9:50 p.m., but flames spread through the attic and roof before firemen could extinguish them. Damage included water and smoke damage to clothing.

The family has nine children.

Check Charge Faces Hazel Park Resident

A Hazel Park man serving jail time for two violations of traffic laws is awaiting appearance in Oakland County Circuit Court for issuing checks without account today. He is being held in the Oakland County Jail.

Hershal M. Roberson, 33, of 124 Annabelle St., pleaded guilty to charges of driving without an operator's license and having an improper license when arraigned by Farmington Justice Allen C. Ingle Tuesday. He was sentenced to 14 days on each count.

Roberson waived examination before Justice Ingle on the check charge and was bound over to the Circuit Court. He failed to furnish $1000 bond in this count.

Area Democratic Unit Hears Michigan Official

Speeches from Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart, Oakland County Prosecutor candidate David P. Utley and former Pontiac Mayor Arthur J. Law were heard Sunday at the regular monthly meeting of the Northeastern Oakland County Democratic Club, chairman Cecil Warden said yesterday.

Hart will be guest of honor at a dance June 9 sponsored by the group, Warden said. Governor G. Mennen Williams has been invited, he added.

Murder Jury Hears Lie Test

Suspect Permits State to Use Detector Results in Eastern Trial

NEWBURYPORT, Mass. (AP)—A grand jury today may hear the results of two lie detector tests taken by admitted murderess Lorraine G. Clark, 30, who now reportedly claims that she alone was not responsible for her husband's murder.

She completed the second of two lie detector tests shortly before midnight last night in connection with the reopened case.

HELD BACK TRUTH

She took the first test last Monday. A high state official said later she did not tell "the whole truth" in the first "lie examination."

Asst. Atty. Gen. Andrew Trodden said Mrs. Clark took the tests voluntarily and agreed to have the results presented to the grand jury.

Mrs. Clark now reportedly is telling a story trying to implicate her former lover, Arthur G. Jackson, 24, serving three years for adultery with Mrs. Clark. He was jailed the day after Mrs. Clark received a life sentence on her guilty plea.

Thailand Awards Medal to Producer De Mille

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Veteran movie producer Cecil B. DeMille has been awarded Thailand's Exalted order of the White Elephant —one of the oldest and most distinguished decorations of the Far East.

Pote Sarasin, Thailand's ambassador to this country, made the presentation yesterday on behalf of Thailand King Bhumipol.

He said the award is in honor of DeMille's contributions in the international field, particularly his worldwide influence through motion pictures.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

JUNIOR EDITORS' ORCHESTRA — 3
THE CLARINET

The clarinet belongs to the orchestra group known as the "wood winds," and it is often called the singer of the wood winds because of its rich deep tone and its wide range. Also in the same group are the flute, piccolo, oboe, English horn and bassoon.

The clarinet is a long tube of wood, open at the upper end, with a flared bell at the lower end, and inside is a single reed, or hollow tube. Up and down its length are various finger holes and keys. By blowing at the upper end, and moving his fingers over the openings, the player can regulate the sound.

Tommy plays the clarinet, and he also plays the flute and the piccolo — a little flute — which you see beside him. He is using a big Indian drum, a Navajo instrument, for a seat and beside him is a small Persian drum decorated with a strange, brightly colored, bird.

Color this picture with crayons. Tommy wears a red coat and cap like the rest, and the body of the drum is red under the stretched yellow hide. Paste it down on cardboard, and cut out the parts carefully.

Attach the separate arm to the shoulder with a brass fastener or bent pin through the holes indicated, so Tommy can slide his fingers up and down his clarinet. Fold back the left end at the dotted line and stand the Persian drum against the background.

Be sure to save the cutouts for your orchestra collection.

(For being the first to submit this idea Reta Mitchell, Reinbeck, Iowa, wins $10. Maybe you have an idea for Junior Editors. If so send it in care of this newspaper and it may win you $10. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

Liechtenstein Royalty Arrives for U.S. Tour

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Prince Franz Josef von Liechtenstein and Princess Gina of the tiny European principality of Liechtenstein have arrived here on their first visit to America.

The 45-year-old prince said that, as a member of the International Olympics Committee, he is interested in seeing the Memorial Coliseum here — scene of the 1932 Olympic games. He said he also hopes to visit Squaw Valley in northern California, where the 1960 winter Olympics are scheduled.

Greg Pecks' Expecting

HOLLYWOOD (AP)— Mrs. Gregory Peck is expecting a child in October, says her husband's studio. Peck, 40, and his second wife, the former Veroniquet Passani, 23, were married last New Year's Eve. The actor has three sons by his previous wife Greta. Divorce ended that marriage in December 1954.

Shinicky Given Hero's Funeral

Chief Opponent of Rhee in Presidential Election Buried Before Crowds

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—South Korea's capital gave a hero's funeral today to Patrick Henry Shinicky, chief opponent of President Syngman Rhee's third term bid until he died May 5 while campaigning for the presidency.

Record crowds jammed the streets to watch the two-mile-long funeral procession. An estimated 100,000 persons packed the city stadium for the funeral rites. Estimates of the street crowds ranged from half a million upward.

Newsmen who have been here for many years called it the biggest crowd they had ever seen. Many onlookers wore white, Korea's traditional mourning color.

Police said a few persons were hurt slightly in the crush, but there was no violence and no tension. Announcement of Shinicky's death 10 days before the presidential election touched off a riot before Rhee's presidential mansion in which one demonstrator was killed and 13 persons were injured.

Bank Cashier Bilks Employer of $300,000

SUMTER, S. C. (AP)—A bank officer says a trusted, middle-aged cashier told him he took part in a $300,000 shortage because he "spent more then he earned."

S. L. Roddey, board chairman of the National Bank of South Carolina here, said the cashier told him he no longer has any of the money.

The cashier, Clarence Brayton Cooper Jr., 52, is free on $10,000 bond while awaiting a hearing on a charge of intent to defraud. The FBI filed a complaint against him yesterday.

FOUND IN AUDIT

The FBI said Cooper told them he collaborated with the late O. B. Nettles of Sumter "a number of years ago" in taking numerous small amounts from the bank's U. S. government bond account. Nettles died in a plane crash in October 1954. He had been a teller in the bank.

The FBI complaint charges that Cooper made or was caused to make false entries in the bank's daily statement.

Cooper had been cashier for 15 years and a member of the Board of Directors since 1952. He joined the bank in 1929.

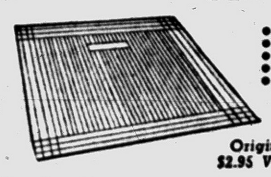

Shell Kills Six

KURE, Japan (AP)—Six Japanese fishermen were killed last night at Yoko Shima, near here, by the explosion of an artillery shell they had fished out of the sea. Police said some 200 Japanese fishing boats have been illegally salvaging live shells which British Commonwealth forces dumped in the sea near Yoko Shima.

Boeing Stratoliner Comfort

By JAMES .. KILGALLEN

NEW YORK (INS) — A preview of jet air travel for the spring of 1959 was unveiled in New York yesterday on the eighth floor of a Manhattan warehouse building.

It was Boeing airplane company's half-million dollar, full-scale mockup of the 707 jet stratoliner which, officials said, will be ready for fast air transport travel at speeds up to 600 miles per hour in less than three years.

This is the type of four-engine plane that will make it possible—by 1959 — to fly around the world in less than 40 hours with only five stops for fuel.

Today's simulated "flight" was put on for about 20 reporters and photographers. As the press assembled in the building, the voice of a stewardess announced: "All aboard, 707 stratoliner now loading at Gate A."

25 MINUTES

The press entered the luxurious passenger cabin of the plane—a replica of the type of 707's which are scheduled to go into service on major world airlines beginning in 1959.

For the purpose of the demonstration, this "flight" was from New York to Washington, D. C. It took only 25 minutes, long enough for the reporters to make away with one highball apiece.

On board were half a dozen attractive stewardesses. Over the loud speaker, an official called attention to various innovations. The plane seemed to be the last word in comfort and luxury.

The passenger cabin was complete with air-conditioning, ultra-modern lighting system, running water, lounge and refrigerators. The seats were five abreast — three on the left, two on the right.

10 MILES A MINUTE

Along the ceiling of the mockup plane were a series of oval domes, which, when you looked up at them, created the illusion of a blue sky with twinkling stars.

The mockup seats 98 first-class passengers, with two lounges, one forward and the other aft, each capable of seating five persons.

When we "landed" at "Washington" we were told we had been flying at 10 miles a minute.

LINES PLACE ORDERS

Officials said the following major airlines have placed orders for more than 80 Boeing 707 Stratoliners: Pan American, Braniff, Air France, American, Continental, Sabena and TWA.

William M. Allen, president of Boeing, said first deliveries of the 707's will be made in December 1958 and that the first flights probably will begin in the spring of 1959.

The Boeing jets of the future will carry 122 first class passengers, five abreast, and its tourist transports will carry 147 passengers, six abreast.

By 1959 officials said one will be able to fly from New York to Miami in two hours and 10 minutes; New York to Seattle or Los Angeles in four hours and 12 minutes and New York to London in five hours and 55 minutes.

Lawmen Surprise Poor Fainting Bandit

FORT WORTH, Tex (AP)—Police sneaked into a store where three safecrackers were hard at work on a safe.

"That's all, boys," announced Officer William O. Sharp, a 26-year-veteran of the force. "The show's over."

Whereupon one of the three, Jimmy Olen Coffey, 22, fainted. "Later, he came to and fainted again," related Sharp. "In all, he fainted three times before we got to city hall."

Coffey, an ex-convict free on bond at the time after being charged with burglary, faced new charges.

He Like Pizza Pie— It Saves Him From Hurt

DETROIT (AP)—A large pizza pie cushioned the head-first fall of a 10-year-old boy from a moving automobile Monday.

The youngster, William Shelhart, was holding the Italian baked delicacy while riding with an older cousin, Thomas A. Esse. Esse made a sharp turn, the car door flew open and out toppled William—pizza and all.

He fell head-first, landed on the pizza and skidded across the paved street. His only wound was a bruised knee.

Fifth Victim Dies

ADRIAN (AP)—A two-car collision on U. S. 223 at Rome Center Saturday claimed its fifth life Monday. Dorman E. Benfield, 22, of Adrian, died of injuries suffered in the crash. Three others were dead when police reached the scene and a fourth died shortly afterward.

Red Cross Ends Aid

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The American Red Cross closed disaster operations Monday in Grand Rapids with the report that $212,036 was spent for aid of Kent County tornado victims. A total of 208 families received the financial aid in outright gifts.

Dies of Crash Injury

PAW PAW (AP)—Ralph Widzes, 21, of Mattawan, died Monday of injuries suffered Sunday night when the car in which he was riding went out of control and hit three trees at Lawton. Two others were injured.

President Asks Study of Soviet Army Cuts

Our national leaders would be less than astute if they viewed with anything but due skepticism Russia's plan to reduce its military manpower by 1,200,000 in a year.

In the opinion of some observers, however, they would be making a grave mistake to consider this merely a Kremlin propaganda gesture. That undoubtedly was President Eisenhower's feeling when he ordered a careful study of the plan.

Certainly it is not unreasonable to presume that the USSR needs these men in industry and agriculture. Apparently the 640,000 the Kremlin said it released from the Red army last year were needed in the factories and on the farms.

It is important not to overlook the fact that the Russians are making all the propaganda use they can of the manpower cuts scheduled for completion by next May. With a typical air of virtue they have called on the United States and our Allies to make similar reductions as a contribution "toward strengthening peace."

This is pure hokum. Since World War II we have reduced our forces by more than 9,000,000 to the present, 2,800,000. Moreover, there is serious doubt as to whether the Russian plan will result in any reduction of USRR net strength. Even with the cuts Russia would have 3,400,000 men plus those of its own satellites.

In some quarters it is believed that Russia is far along in its adaption of nuclear weapons. This, of course, emphasizes anew that all talk of disarmament in terms of manpower reduction is meaningless until there is a workable and adequate system of inspection.

Conservation Experts Again Supervise Deer

In what we believe was sensible action, the Legislature in its formal adjournment session, voted to restore control of the State's deer herd to the Conservation Commission.

The vote, which came in House-Senate conference, should end a battle over this highly controversial issue which has raged throughout most of the session.

While the Conservation Commission is given power to regulate the size of the herd by means of special seasons, that power isn't unlimited. The Joint Interim Legislation committee was voted veto authority over such seasons.

Previously the commission had the power to set special deer seasons in the Lower Peninsula. In 1955 the Legislature refused to extend that authority after the commission in 1952 had decreed a three day Lower Peninsula, any deer season for three years. The feeling among lawmakers was that the commission had gone too far.

Under the terms of the final compromise the commission can open certain areas in the State to hunting of deer of either sex and any age by a limited number of hunters. It wisely plans to use this authority only where deer are threatened by starvation.

The bill falls short of providing the complete control the organized sportsmen had been asking. Nonetheless, we feel that the lawmakers have moved in the right direction in approving it.

In the opinion of Howard Shelley, manager of the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club, the measure is all that could be expected under the circumstances. In fact, he believes it should serve the need for at least two or three years.

Legal Delays Costly

In its report on court delays, the Judicial Conference has emphasized that authorization of 20 new U. S. judges will not clear all congested dockets.

The conference is made up of the Chief Justice of the United States and the chief judges of the Circuit Courts of Appeal. It now has published two recommendations dealing with the part judges can play in speeding legal processes.

In the first it is urged that if "judicial business is not on a current basis" judges limit their annual vacations to one month. Secondly, it is proposed that the chief judges of the district and circuit courts step aside at the age of 70, not necessarily retire, but turn over administrative work to younger men.

Last year's judicial conference report showed that some dockets are so crowded that it takes several years to bring a case to trial. This, of course, is a serious condition. In criminal cases it interferes with speedy justices and in civil cases it imposes needless burdens on litigants.

Retired Postal Employes Hold Dinner Get Together

Garden: Where the hardest thing to raise is your stiff and aching back.

Nearly a thousand years of service was represented among the 60 Pontiac men present at the first dinner this week of the local branch of the national association of civil service employes. They were mostly retired postal employes, and it is planned to make this a regular get together event for Oakland County men.

The other day in my wandering around Pontiac, I came across the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oliver. (Her father's Buick's Non-Resident Vice-President in Charge of Shenanigans).

Ann Oliver,

What a pretty girl she is! If I were three-quarters of a century younger, I'd be camping on the Oliver doorstep at every opportunity. I may anyway.

Ann's in college, and Oakland county will be brighter and better when she returns for the summer. And just to keep the record straight, I set down here that in looks, the girl favors the mother.

The current issue of the Michigan State Bar Journal carries an article on "Master planning creates clouds on titles," by who has practiced law in Pontiac for 42 years.

We like that home improvement slogan:

"Fifty-six, the year to fix."

The whippoorwill bird, thought to be nearly extinct in the Pontiac area, is returning. According to of Drayton Plains, he frequently hears their nightly call from two or more directions at the same time around Loon Lake.

In connection with the 75th anniversary of the Red Cross, of Lapeer writes me that he went through the great forest fires in the Thumb section of Michigan in 1881, when he was 8 years of age. His parents were burned to death and he was saved because they had thrown him into an empty cistern. He later learned that who had just organized the Red Cross, had personally helped him from the cistern after the fire.

Angus Feltmann

The oldest house of worship in Northeastern Oakland County, the Lakeville Methodist Church,

will celebrate its centennial on June 24, with

as the guest speaker.

Burning His Candle at Both Ends

David Lawrence Says:

Supreme Court Continues to Interfere With the Constitutions, Rights of States

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court by unanimous decision has ruled, in effect, that even a system of fascism can be imposed in America by Congress and the Constitution cannot be invoked to prevent it.

This is just the reverse of what the court by unanimous opinion ruled in May 1935 when it invalidated the code system of the National Recovery Act as an unconstitutional delegation of power by Congress to an artificial system of government administered by private groups.

The Supreme Court—composed today of a different set of judges—Now rules that Congress is within its rights in passing a law permitting a railroad employer to compel a worker to give up part of his earnings to finance a union organization in which he conscientiously doesn't believe. The penalty for non-payment is the loss of his job.

CONGRESS EMPOWERED

The Supreme Court says Congress has the power to order such a system of compulsory unionism and that neither the constitutions of the states nor the federal Constitution can be invoked to prevent the confiscation of a worker's earnings by a private organization for a purpose to which he does not wish to give his assent. There is no limit to the taxes that now can be levied on a worker's wages if only a union and an employer have the right between them to consider what is a beneficial use of a workingman's earnings.

The Supreme Court lately has been solicitous about "civil rights" and there has been a lot of hysterical talk about "due process" and the loss of the "right to dissent," especially for Communist sympathizers. But the high court was deaf to the plea of the several workmen who petitioned the nine justices to uphold the right to work as provided in the constitution of the state of Nebraska. The Supreme Court of Nebraska had ruled that compulsory unionism violates both the state and federal constitutions.

What the Supreme Court here said, however, was that no state constitution and no state law could be regarded as in force if the Congress passed a contrary law on the subject of regulating trade unions. There are 17 states which have passed "right to work" laws or incorporated such provisions in their constitutions. When the workers pleaded that their rights under the federal Constitution were being violated, the Supreme Court here simply answered by saying there was no constitutional issue at all before the tribunal. It waved aside what the Nebraska Supreme Court found to be a constitutional issue.

WORKER'S OPINION SHUNNED

The nine justices of the highest court here refused to listen to the argument that a man who doesn't believe in trade unionism has a constitutional right to, that view and declared that the only issue before the Court is whether he should be forced to pay a part of the expenses of the collective-bargaining process from which theoretically he benefits.

The High Court didn't take cognizance of the fact that the employer could share that expense or could even collect portions from the worker if he agreed to it and that this could be done without forcing him to become a union member. The decision simply affirmed that a worker must join such a union to keep his job—even though for the present under the law he cannot be disciplined for any other reasons by the union.

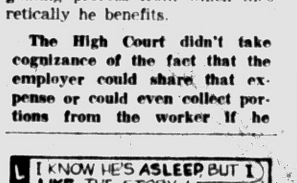

"Wide ranged problems are tendered under the First Amendment," wrote Justice Douglas in behalf of the Court. "It is argued that the union shop agreement forces men into ideological and political associations which violate their right to freedom of consience, freedom of association, and freedom of thought protected by the Bill of Rights. It is said that once a man becomes a member of these unions he is subject to vast disciplinary control and that by force of the federal act unions now can make him conform to their ideology.

"NO INFRINGEMENT"

"On the present record, there is no more infringement or impairment of First Amendment rights than there would be in the case of a lawyer who by state law is required to be a member of an integrated bar. It is argued that compulsory membership will be used to impair freedom of expression. But that problem is not presented by this record."

As for the statement that membership in a private labor union is analogous to membership in a bar association, this is an astonishing argument. For a lawyer is an officer of the court itself and admission to practice is subject to rules of a court. The court, actually a part of the government, makes its own rules as to who can practice before it. But no bar association can compel a non-member to pay dues nor does it represent him in any fixing of fees for his services.

Again, Rheumatiz Caused by Physical Degeneration

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

What I call RHEUMATIZ (not rheumatism, if you please) is physical degeneration of joint tissues.

What some doctors call chronic arthritis and some (like Osler) chronic rheumatism I am unable to determine precisely, because the doctors are so cagey about it. Define chronic arthritis? It's like an alleged "cold"—why define it? —any d.f. knows what it is.

Maybe I overestimate the I. Q. of people with joint disability a year or more in duration, but I should think people with a little common sense would get tired of trying the new "miracle" or "wonder" drugs the latter-day specialists give for chronic arthritis.

I should think victims of this racket would mull over pretty carefully this statement made in the Bulletin of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, two years ago:

"The principle shortcoming of modern drug therapy" (of arthritis) "is that while the results are more dramatic and immediate, they disappear when medication is discontinued. Besides, the various drugs in use today have not shown that they can alter the natural course of the disease or prevent crippling."

Now, my dear knuck—please don't dismiss this as just another instance of the intolerable egotist claiming everybody's out of step but Brady. I have no particular remedy for arthritis. I merely tell you what I honestly believe is the truth, namely, that in most cases of gradually developing joint disability of long standing there is no inflammation from injury, strain other incidental cause, and hence it is wrong to call the trouble "arthritis" (joint inflammation). The trouble is rather physical degeneration of joint tissues, and for this I use the name RHEUMATIZ (not rheumatism).

My concept or theory is that RHEUMATIZ is the inevitable consequence of nutritional deficiency through the years from early childhood up to the present moment.

Unless you are sure you know better than I do about joint disability, it can do you no harm to get further particulars and maybe adopt some of the suggestions I give in the pamphlet Calcium and Rheumatiz. Ask for it and inclose a stamped envelope bearing your address. If you change the title of the pamphlet, I'll refrain from trying to tell you anything. After all, I have my pride.

Doctors who talk about chronic arthritis or chronic rheumatism do not know or do not deign to explain to anyone what they're talking about.

Right or wrong, mine is at least a working concept or theory, and in the pamphlet I tell you precisely what to do about it.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan.

Voice of the People

'Farm Buying Power Will Banish Overproduction

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Agriculture for too long has been the bottleneck of our national economy. Our national economy should be designed like a well-engineered machine and operated with the exactness of our 20th century automation.

Every farmer should be licensed to put his produce on the market. Or may I say more accurately, every agriculturist should be certified. Every person who has a vital job as a doctor, lawyer, manufacturer, merchant, etc., is certified to operate for the sake of the public welfare.

Hodgepodge operations of our agriculture is the only menace we now have to our national economy. To be a certified agriculturist, a farmer should take an oath that this is his only means of livelihood, either on land he owns or rents for a certain set nominal cash fee.

A nominal number of acres should also be set to prevent hogging.

Do away with millionaires, manufacturers, executives, doctors, etc., who own farms and are putting agricultural products on the market. Put the greenbacks directly into the hand that steers the plough and feeds the livestock.

Give that hand buying power and over-production will vanish from our national economy by only a minute amount of horse-sense, not horse-power, engineering.

Parent Asks Resumption of Physical Examination

Let's get together, parents, and insist on our children having physicals before they take gym. When I went to school we were checked before we took gym, so what's the matter today?

Gym is a required subject, so in that case, let's insist on physicals. Get your PTA to start things rolling. Remember, it may be your boy or girl who has a bad heart.

New British Red Leader Called 'Lean and Hungry'

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

The new secretary of the British Communist Party—an outfit that never has been very effective—is John Gollan, who has been described as the "lean and hungry" fanatic type.

The 45-year-old Edinburgh-born Gollan succeeds Harry Pollitt, who resigned on grounds of health after nearly a steady 27 years in office.

It's too early yet to see what effect this will have on the fortunes of the British Reds, who have issued a statement admitting to "serious mistakes and grave abuses." That is their way of saying that they are following the current Moscow line of debunking Stalin.

Gollan, who was national organizer, will become the new secretary, but the party will keep Pollitt, 65, as chairman of the party. In the past, the chairman has acted as "chief of state" while the secretary has been "chief of government."

William Gallacher, 74, who served in the House of Commons from 1935 to 1950 as Communist member for West Fife, Scotland, an idustrial and shipbuilding constituency, moves from chairman to the newly created post of president.

Pollitt has the reputation of being very emotional and a great lover of Stalin in his speeches and writings, but British Conservatives also have called him a Communist with a sense of humor.

His record in following the shifting Communist line has been one that caused much humor at home and abroad.

In 1939 he led his party in cheering Anglo-French decision to battle the Nazis for having invaded Poland. But then Moscow left him on a limb by marching Red Army troops into Poland to work with the Nazis in splitting that hapless state.

Now the Reds had to shift their line again. Britain and France suddenly became "imperialists." Pollitt was dethroned as secretary.

He got the job back when the Nazis then invaded Russia and the party line shifted once more. His final fall from grace came when he was making a speech praising Stalin just as the news leaked out of Moscow that the new "collective leaders" were denouncing the late dictator.

LONG-TIME RED

Gollan, the new secretary, left school at 13 to become an apprentice painter. In the 1926 general strike he sold strike papers and joined the Communist Party the following year.

In 1931 he was sentenced to six months' imprisonment for inciting troops to disaffection. He conducted his own case.

He worked thereafter on Young Communist League publications, became closely associated with Pollitt and was an assistant editor of the London Daily Worker for five years until 1954, when he became national organizer.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Older People Must Prod Themselves in Order to Avoid Becoming Inactive

Ada Travis shows the power of the mind over the body. She prods her feet into action and actually feels better physically for such exercise. Oldsters are only two feet from a vegetable type of existence. And those two feet are their own pedal extremities! So get on your feet daily! Prod them! Force yourself!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case R-363: Ada Travis, a clergyman's wife, is well past 80 and lives in Phoenix, Ariz.

"I can feel definitely that my body machinery is wearing out," she said in a recent letter which she neatly typed to Mrs. Crane and myself.

"Living gets very difficult," she continued, "but the thing that picks me up better than anything else is mental and spiritual work.

"I can be so flat in the morning that I think it is impossible to get out of my bed.

"But if I have an engagement to teach a Sunday school class, I just say: 'God, there is very little of me, so there will have to be a lot of you.'

"Then I arise and prepare my breakfast. I get dressed and go to church where I stand and teach my Sunday school class for 30 minutes.

"That same night I go back at 6:30 to address the 80 high schoolers who have asked me to talk about the Bible.

"Their eager interest seems to inspire me, too, even in a physical manner for the next day I actually feel better."

GRANDMA, PROD YOUR FEET

Ada Travis is a lovely Christian woman, cultured and unselfish.

I am mentioning Ada Travis primarily to show you the power of the mind over the body.

When we pass the age of 65, we must whip ourselves into a reasonable amount of physical exercise. Otherwise, our muscles atrophy and we are soon unable to get out of bed.

So deliberately prod your feet into carrying you, even though your natural lazy inclination is to sit still before the TV screen.

Get into action! Commit yourself to teach a Sunday school class or to make calls on the sick so you will be compelled to follow through, despite your inertia to the contrary.

Never live like a vegetable until you are forced to do so. Keep getting on your feet every day by sheer determination or will power.

God will help you keep moving if you team up with him and cooperate. But God will not lift you out of bed! Show your good faith by getting on your feet and He will then see that you keep moving!

DON'T GROW SENILE

In childhood, our parents must prod us into brushing our teeth and performing our chores.

From the age of possibly 18 to 65, we are sufficiently mature to prod ourselves.

But in old age, we revert to childish ways and again must be prodded from outside. So you grandparents should be grateful that your children insist that you keep in motion.

Wear a pedometer and set your goal at one-half mile or more of walking every day.

The pedometer records distance and thus helps show you when you are sitting still too much or living more nearly a vegetable existence.

And you devoted children of old folks should temper your love with horse sense. This means: Don't wait on the old folks if they can possibly help themselves.

Let them stay in action: They are only two feet from a vegetable existence and those two feet are their own pedal extremities. So keep them walking!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 25c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Pontiac City Affairs

Commissioners Give Their Approval to Charter Amendment Ballot Form

The City Commission last night unanimously approved the form of the ballot on a proposed city charter amendment which if passed by the voters will supplement the city employes pension plan with social security.

The ballot, prepared by the city attorney, will now be forwarded to the state attorney general for approval.

The vote will be a special city election to be held in conjunction with the state primary Aug. 7.

Other action at last night's 3-hour City Commission session included the acceptance of two deeds to the city. One will permit an alley in lots 8-9 of the Elkins Addition Subdivision and the other involved lot 48 and part of lot 49 in assessor's plat 112 to be used for municipal parking.

Both deeds were ordered filed in the register of deeds office.

Public hearings will be held next Tuesday night on the following public improvement projects on which engineer estimates were aired last night by the clerk:

Concrete paving, curb, gutter and related work for Mansfield avenue from Baldwin to Kennett.

Sidewalks and related work for the southeast side of Montcalm street from Oakland to Corwin, the northeast side of Oakland avenue from Lounsbury to Monticello, and for the south side of Gillespie and Diston streets from Howard McNeill to Bagley.

The city assessor was instructed to prepare special assessment rolls and report to the City Commission next week on four improvement projects on which hearings were conducted last night.

Confirmation was deferred on three other jobs in the city on which hearings on the special assessment rolls were held.

Once again the police request for uniform allowance was deferred without discussion. No one was present from the requesting organization to present its case.

Also approved was an agreement between the city and the Hawkins Equipment Co. for a gasoline distribution system in the Public Safety Building.

Also approved was the transfer in ownership of a package beer and wine license from Daniel E. O'Brien to William J. Mason at 406 Orchard Lake Ave.

Heard at the meeting was the introduction and first reading of an ordinance to rezone to Commercial 1 part of lots 8-9 of the Elkins Addition. A provision of the proposal is that the northeasterly 20 feet be deeded for an alley and a 17-foot setback be shown on the Sylvan court frontage.

The commissioners accepted the first reading and set June 12 for a public hearing on the rezoning.

Commissioner Floyd P. Miles (District 4) offered as a public necessity curb, gutter, grading, graveling and 2-inch blacktop on East New York avenue from Baldwin to the railroad east of Ypsilanti avenue.

No action was taken on a request to rezone to light manufacturing lots 216-221 of assessor's plat 140 as the request was returned for proper petition procedure necessary for rezoning.

Jap Fishing Boat Sinks

HAKODATE, Japan (AP)—The 84-ton Japanese salmon fishing boat Junyo Maru sank near the Aleutians last week and its 27 crew members are presumed lost, the newspaper Yomiuri reported today.

Court Winds Up Busiest Term

Chief Justice Warren Urging More Judges, Revisions to Cut Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chief Justice Warren said today the Supreme Court is winding up its busiest term, but that none of a record number of cases will be carried over into the session starting in October.

Elsewhere in the federal judiciary, he urged Congress to provide more judges and the courts to revise their procedures to cut down a backlog of cases which he described as "the most important problem of the federal courts at the present time."

In a speech prepared for the opening session of the four-day annual meeting of the American Law Institute, Warren said of the Supreme Court:

"We are approaching the conclusion of what will have been the busiest term in the history of the court as regards the number of cases disposed of in any one term."

Saying that in 1946 the court disposed of a record 1,520 cases, Warren said, "The number this year will exceed that figure substantially."

Gas War Economics

BELLE FOURCHE, S. D. (AP)—When a gas price war hits South Dakota, it brings a collision of geography and arithmetic. A couple of motorists weighed the two and figured it was worth it to drive 100 miles from the Southern Black Hills to Belle Fourche to get their tanks filled. At the time gasoline was selling for 13 cents plus tax.

Kentucky Sire Fulfills Ambition —He's Now 101

WALLINS, Ky. (AP) — "Uncle John" Osborne is a year past his ambition of reaching the century mark.

The man who lays claim to 410 descendants, including 13 children, quietly observed his 101st birth anniversary yesterday in this small southeastern Kentucky mountain community.

A huge pink and green birthday cake, given him by his daughter, Mrs. Ellen Steele with whom he lives, and a few callers was the only observance. Mrs. Steele said her father was too feeble for a big celebration although he hasn't had a doctor for three years.

NEVER GOT TO RUSSIA — Silver paint on these tanks, part of the University of Michigan wind tunnel compression system at Ann Arbor, covers Russian lettering. Before they were incorporated into a complex vacuum system, the tanks were railroad tank cars. Destined for Russia, they were side tracked when the war ended before they could be shipped. Now hooked in tandem, they form a vacuum tank of 13,000 feet.

Soviet Railroad Tank Cars Make Up UM Wind Tunnel

ANN ARBOR (AP)—If you look real close, you can still see the Russian lettering underneath the silver paint.

You'll also notice that these silver tanks, part of a University of Michigan wind tunnel compression system, look like railroad cars.

They are— or that is, they were.

In the closing days of World War II, these cars were destined for shipment to Russia under the Lend-Lease Program. The war ended before they were shipped.

When the university was looking for some air compression tanks in 1947, searchers spied the oil tank cars. By removing the railroad understructure, they had their steel tanks.

RIGGED IN TANDEM

They rigged nine of the cars together in tandem and set them up at the Willow Run Research Laboratories. Now they have been moved to the new north campus.

Each car weighs seven tons, combined they form a vacuum tank of 13,000 cubic feet.

Researchers pump the air from the tanks. At the same time, they store dry air in a larger storage tank. After they have set up their test operation in the wind tunnel, they release the air from the storage tank. It rushes to fill the vaccuum tanks, passing through the wind tunnel.

The system is capable of working with air velocities in the 750 to 3,000 mile per hour range. Later this year, wind velocities from five to ten times the speed of sound will be created by releasing pressurized air from surplus Navy catapult storage tanks into the converted tank cars.

That'll Teach Him

SUMMERVILLE, S. C. (AP)—Deputy Sheriff Mark Fowler, widely known in the moonshine trade hereabouts as a still sleuth, tells this one on himself. Aware that most moonshiners recognize his automobile, he borrowed one to make a raid. He and his companion parked it in the woods, and set off on what turned out to be a fruitless search. When they returned they found someone had let the air out of the tires. Fowler had to walk three miles to borrow a pump.

Calls Upon Doctors to Cut Traffic Toll

BOSTON (AP) — Massachusetts doctors were called on by the outgoing president of the Massachusetts Medical Society to help in cutting down the toll of traffic fatalities and injuries.

Dr. Conrad Wesselhoeft told the society's 175th annual meeting that in Massachusetts last year "there were 172 deaths from polio and 2,370 paralytic cases.

* * *

He recommended that a committee of doctors be set up to aid the state motor vehicles department in connection with alcoholic drivers.

Air Attack on the U.S. Slight, Says Twining

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Nathan F. Twining — underlining the "deterrent effect of our long-range striking power" — said today he believes chances are "slight" for an air attack on the United States.

However, Twining, Air Force chief of staff, said the Russian air force's long-range attack fleet is "becoming an increasing menace" and that "regardless of how strong our deterrent force, we can never be sure that a potential enemy will not attack."

* * *

In a speech prepared for the Civil Air Patrol's National Board, Twining made no mention of the interservice rivalry which mushroomed to the surface over the weekend.

Ike Opposed Costly Landings

Truman Rips Salerno, Anzio Battles

LONDON (AP)—The World War II Italian battles of Salerno and Anzio blazed anew today, touched off by an old U.S. Army artillery captain who also held his nation's highest office.

Former U.S. President Truman fired the first shot. As plain tourist Harry S. Truman, he looked at the Salerno beachhead yesterday and said the bloody battles there and at Anzio were "totally unnecessary and planned by some squirrel-headed general."

"I don't know who it was," he said. "There were a lot easier places that could have been picked."

Lt. Gen. Sir Oliver Leese, who commanded Britain's 8th Army in the Italian campaign, fired back at Truman.

ABSOLUTE NONSENSE

"The man is talking absolute nonsense," he sputtered.

"To land on the most obvious beaches would have been suicidal. Has not ex-President Truman heard of the surprise value of warfare? We chose to land on beaches which would give us that element.

"Field Marshal Lord Alexander was in charge of the operations. To call him 'squirrel-headed' is rubbish. The operation was a very fine one—well planned and well carried out."

Alexander was not available immediately for comment.

In Charleston, S.C., retired Gen. Mark Clark disclaimed any direct responsibility.

"As commander of the 5th Army, whose American and British troops landed at both these places, I received and carried out orders from higher headquarters," said Clark, now president of the Citadel, South Carolina military college.

IKE, CHURCHILL MUM

Two other prominent men involved in the matter held their silence. They were President Eisenhower, Allied supreme commander in the Mediterranean when Salerno was invaded, and Sir Winston Churchill, then Britain's prime minister and the chief advocate of the Anzio landing.

Asked for comment on the reference to a squirrel-headed general, an Eisenhower spokesman in Washington pointed to squirrels on the White House lawn and said:

"I refer you to the squirrels."

The battles of Salerno and Anzio resulted from a U.S.-British decision to knock Italy out of the war, a pet project of Churchill.

German artillery and tanks in the rugged cliffs at Salerno chewed up U.S. and British troops who stormed ashore Sept. 8, 1943.

FIGHTING WAS COSTLY

When the Italian campaign bogged down north of Naples, Churchill pushed for a landing farther up the coast at Anzio to divert the German defense. The Germans, however, were able to hold their line at Cassino and also contain the beachhead force for four months. The fighting at Anzio and Cassino cost the U.S. 5th Army 52,130 casualties in 2½ months.

Eisenhower discussed the Salerno and Anzio landings in his book "Crusade in Europe." He said the Allied command picked Salerno because there was no more favorable spot, but launched the attack with no illusions.

Eisenhower wrote that in a huddle with Churchill he opposed the Anzio landing as costly, risky and of doubtful success in forcing a German retreat. He said he urged careful reconsideration but was unable to move Churchill. The landing was made after Eisenhower moved on to London to set the stage for the invasion of France.

Eisenhower said Anzio eventually "paid off handsomely."

Minister Gives Eulogy —at His Own Funeral

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Funeral service was held yesterday for the Rev. Harvey B. Musselman—and the funeral sermon was preached by the deceased.

More than 100 friends and fellow clergymen heard the sermon. It was a tape recording of the last public message Mr. Musselman delivered.

The minister died Friday at the age of 88. His funeral sermon dealt with the 91st psalm: "The happy state of the Godly."

Who-oo Belongs Here? Irate Owl Seems to Ask

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—An irate, dive-bombing owl broke up a picnic on Chickamauga Lake.

Harold Dedman, an insurance adjuster, said he, his wife, their two children and another couple received head scratches when the owl slammed into them repeatedly while they were having a picnic on the lake shore.

* * *

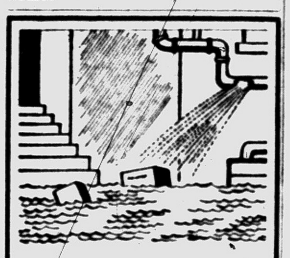

Dedman said the attacks broke up the affair and that the group "got out of there in a hurry."

Chances for such a mishap were quoted as one in 2,000 jumps.

Coroner's Jury Cites Daughter in Mother Death

DENVER (AP)—A coroner's jury found yesterday Miss Nellie E. Camblin "speeded up" the death of her 93-year-old mother.

Testimony showed Mrs. Mary Camblin died May 17 after falling down a stairway and lying there three days without food or medical attention.

Detective Robert Cardillo told the jury Miss Camblin said she didn't think it was necessary to summon aid because none of her mother's bones were broken and she was not in pain.

Miss Camblin is 61. Her mother had lived with her 41 years.

The jury ruled Mrs. Camblin died of natural causes. No charges have been filed against the daughter.

Michigan Is Good to Industry

State Bidding for Share of Factories as Nation's Economy Continues to Grow

Industry—restless and growing—is on the move throughout the nation and watching every move industry makes are dozens of states and thousands of communities which would like to see new industrial neighbors settle down in their areas.

Competion for industry rapidly is becoming as keen as competition within industry.

Michigan, already an industrial giant, has entered the race.

The state legislature, during its 1956 session, appropriated $100,000 for a nationwide advertising and publicity program giving Michigan a chance to compete with states and agencies which are spending a total of $3,000,000 to lure industry out of Michigan.

Michigan's slogan during the program, which will officially start with the next fiscal year, July 1, will be "Michigan Is Good to Industry."

Meanwhile, the unofficial kick-off, with citizens throughout the state pitching in, occurs today—Livelihood Day of the 1956 Michigan Week observance.

Michigan has demonstrated since the days of John Jacob Astor—one of the first successful businessmen in the United States—that it is good to industry. Astor made his fortune on the fur-bearing animals of the Northern Peninsula—an early application of the trend that has become a commonplace: establishment of a great industry enterprise on the base of Michigan's natural resources.

HOME OF MASS PRODUCTION

Michigan is the home of mass production, the technique that set the wheels of industry spinning. The Know How of Michigan management and labor, working together to raise standards of living through mass production, have been good to industry, as evidenced by industrial profits in Michigan.

Labor and management is so diversified in Michigan that 80 per cent of the 451 different manufacturing categories of the United States can be found in this state.

Fresh water—a "must" for both industry and recreation—is more abundant in Michigan than any other state in the Union.

Michigan is a world famous storehouse of other natural resources, such as copper, iron ore, forests and salt—the bases of various industrial empires.

Michigan—which put the world on wheels—is good to industry through its great transportation systems. Michigan products are moved to the great, central consumer areas of America by rail, air, highway and waterway.

Nature equipped Michigan with the materials necessary for the good of industry . . . and Michigan citizens—its businessmen, skilled laborers and others—have wisely used them to be good to industry.

Clothes Cleaned by Beer

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Patrons in the Alcatraz tavern and the lady in the apartment upstairs had harrowing experiences after a brewery service man installed a new barrel of beer in the tavern. In the apartment, Mrs. Margaret Swory started getting beer in her washing machine. In the tavern, the customers growled that the draught beer tasted like hot water. Peace was restored after it was discovered the service man had switchd the pipes.

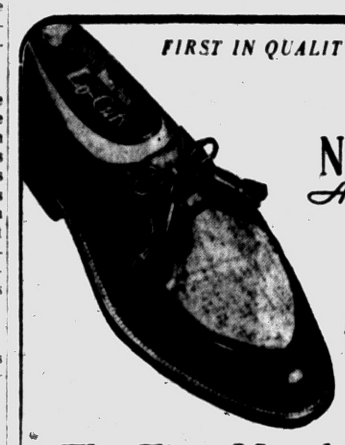

Auburn Boys Club to Ask Stadium Use

Officials of the new Auburn Heights Boys Club will attend the meeting of the Pontiac Board of Education Thursday to request the use of Wisner Stadium on Oakland Avenue to stage a benefit boxing show.

All funds from such an event would be used towards purchasing needed athletic equipment and games for the club which has hopes of constructing its own building in the near future officials said.

Various Boys Clubs throughout the area have volunteered to help make such a show successful. All would enter amateur teams in the competition with the Heights groups serving as the host team, club heads said.

Hal Boyle Says:

Here's the Scoop on Grits and Dixie Belles

CONNLEY'S CREEK, N. C. (AP)—Two of the Southland's greatest claims to fame are grits and Southern womanhood.

The exact virtues of each remain something of a mystery to the rest of the country, so on a trip here I decided to find out the answers to these puzzlers as my special public service for 1956.

STILL CONFUSED

Now that my researches are over, I'm not sure whether I'm any less confused than when I began.

Let's take grits first. Like most people I had assumed you mined grits, just as you do salt or coal. Well, it turns out that isn't true at all. No one knows just how that old myth got started.

"Grits come from corn," explained my host at breakfast one morning. "They're just hominy ground up and cooked. There just ain't any food better than country ham, red-eye gravy and good old grits. Have some."

He pushed over a plate. I gingerly spooned up some white grits in which swam some golden butter.

LIBRARY PASTE

"Some damfool Yankees claim grits taste like library paste," said my host, genially. "What do you think?"

"Why that's ridiculous," I replied.

My host looked so pleased that I didn't have the heart to add that the real difference is — library paste tastes colder than grits. Grits, to me, didn't taste like anything except a mouthful of lukewarm cotton.

"You have to be born to 'em to really appreciate grits," continued my host.

That, I gather is the real secret. Personally, I'm afraid I was born 45 years too late.

NOW, THE BELLES

Now about Southern womanhood. What makes it so extra special?

"We have the prettiest girls in the world," explained one man I asked. "The farther South you go the prettier they get. That is, they do until you reach Atlanta. Below Atlanta the quality thins out some."

That didn't seem to be the whole answer. So I asked two young ladies—Mary and Margie—they insisted I not use their last names—what they thought was the difference between Northern and Southern girls.

"There is a coldness about Northern girls," said Mary, who is married. "They aren't as warm or talkative when you meet them. They are more aloof."

"Yes," said Margie, who is single. "And Northern girls are surer of themselves. They know exactly what they want. They have definite opinions on everything. And they know how to chase a man. My, I wouldn't know even how to begin."

Mary arched her eyebrows at this as she glanced over at Margie, but said nothing.

"Southern girls are much less aggressive," continued Margie. "Our menfolks don't like us to speak out too much. You want to know what Northern girls have most that Southern girls would like to have? Well — men and money. And some of them are our men. There's a shortage of men in the South. Too many of them grow up and go North."

"But aren't Southern girls better at cooking and sewing?" I inquired.

"I can't sew or make my own dresses, but I can cook some things," Margie said.

"What?"

"Darn it," said Margie, blushing. "Did you have to ask that?"

One thing both Mary and Margie agreed on—that Southern girls are more romantic, and more loyal to their men.

Later, still unsatisfied that I had solved the secret of Southern womanhood's charm, I put the question to an elderly Southerner.

"First, let me close the door," he said. Then, sure he couldn't be overheard, he said:

"Son, I did a lot of traveling as a young man. The only difference between courting a Southern and a Northern girl is that the Southern girl can chase you harder without your even knowing she's after you.

SOFTER VOICE

"There isn't any real difference in 'em after you marry except this: A Southern girl bawls you out in a softer voice. But, as she speaks slower, it takes her longer to get through.

"The one thing you can be sure of is this: Whether you marry a Northern or a Southern girl you'll find each has a long memory of what a man does wrong.

"But if you quote me on this I'll denounce you as a liar. I don't want to be tarred and feathered and run out of town."

Everybody clear on Southern womanhood?

Lightweight Trains Undergo Cost Tests

NEW YORK (AP)—The future of lightweight trains is being weighed in the balance.

According to interviews with a number of experts aboard the New York Central's "The Explorer" on its first public run between Cleveland and Cincinnati, a number of factors are involved.

E. C. Nickerson, the Central's vice president - passenger sales, said "The long-run future of financing a whole fleet of lightweight trains will depend on how these trains prove out as profit makers. That's what the bankers are looking for."

If the lightweights prove profitable on the revenue service in which a number are now embarked, said Nickerson, "there will be substantial re-equipping in a few years."

The "few years," Nickerson said, would be about five years, he hoped, but general economic factors bore on that question, too, and he was unwilling to make any predictions as to how many lightweight trains the Central might place in service.

Brothers Capture 2 Ionia Escapees

SARANAC (AP) — Two fugitives from the Michigan State Reformatory at Ionia were captured last night when they were trapped in a barn near this Ionia County community.

George Rainer, 17, a standout athlete at Saranac High School, and his brother, John, 22, held Car Griffin, 19, and Galo Stites, 20, at bay with shotguns after they found the escapees hiding on their father's farm.

Griffin and Stites walked away from a dormitory outside the reformatory walls Monday night.

Police called by the Rainer brothers took the fugitives in custody. Neither offered any resistance.

Griffin was serving one to five years from Ingham County for auto theft. Stites was serving 2 to 15 years from Antrim County on the same charge.

Seek Formosa Asylum

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Eleven more fishermen fled from Red China to the Nationalist-held Matsu Islands yesterday and asked for asylum, the Defense Ministry reported. Nine other fishermen arrived in the Matsus Monday from the Communist mainland.

Increased Employment Seen in Lake Port Cities

DETROIT (AP)—A commerce department official says the opening of "new trade routes" from Europe will mean increased employment in Great Lakes ports.

Clarence G. Morse, department maritime administrator and chairman of the Federal Maritime Board, made the prediction last night at the port of Detroit's Propeller Club.

Morse said increased merchant ship replacement, plentiful cargoes and a demand for seagoing tonnage all pointed to the healthy condition of maritime shipping in the United States.

Liquid Miracle! No washday powder ever made can give you the concentrated washing power of new blue instant liquid Wisk

You will pour Wisk into your washer. It will get your family wash so clean and white that you will never use a powder detergent again!

LIQUID MIRACLE! Wisk washes clothes whiter than any powder ever made!

LIQUID MIRACLE! Wisk removes more stains than any powder ever made!

LIQUID MIRACLE! Wisk is safer, much safer, than any powder ever made!

New, blue WISK is completely different from anything you ever tried. In the first place, it is a liquid you pour into your washing machine. It goes to work instantly. No waiting for powders to dissolve.

But, more important, new WISK is concentrated. It does three times as much wash as the same amount of powder. And does it better, too. For it gives you a concentrated washing power unequaled by any powder. Besides, new WISK is safe for hands, safe for fabrics—safe as only a liquid can be.

MAKES ANY WASHER TURN OUT A CLEANER AND A WHITER FAMILY WASH

Never again need you find a gravy spot left in a just-washed napkin, or a lipstick stain in a hand towel, or a grease spot in a suit of coveralls. For concentrated liquid WISK penetrates deep down into cloth fibers in a way no powder can. Safely, but thoroughly, it pulls out stubborn stains, removes hidden dirt, gets everything clean.

And wait till you see what WISK does for shirt collars and cuffs! Without bluing or bleach, it gets white things up to three shades whiter with the first wash. In fact, WISK gets all your family wash so clean it even smells clean.

FIRST REALLY ALL-PURPOSE DETERGENT!

You will use WISK for just about every cleaning job in your home! It makes quick work of dishes: Soaks them clean. Concentrated WISK wipes grease off a stove or kitchen wall. It makes old, discolored linoleum look new. It gets yellowed kitchen cabinets white and shiny again.

WISK does the toughest jobs quicker, easier, more safely than products designed for these tasks. Now you can throw away those harsh and dangerous chemicals!

NO MORE MESSY, SNEEZY POWDERS!

And what a blessing WISK is. It does away with "washday hay fever"... with clumsy, soggy boxes... with messy powders that spill. And because WISK does so many jobs so well, you don't have to clutter your shelves with a box for this, a bottle for that, and all those packages a woman used to need.

WISK IS UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED!

We've promised a good deal for WISK and we mean it. In fact, we guarantee it! If you don't agree WISK is the best detergent you ever used—not just as good, but BEST!—Lever Brothers will return the purchase price to you . . . plus postage!

George Taylor Speaks to Group

Preparation of Cases, Getting Evidence Topic at Conference

Chief assistant Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor yesterday addressed the 41st National Conference on Weights and Measures, sponsored in Washington by the U. S. Department of Commerce.

Taylor made the trip to Washington accompanied by Sgt. Walter A. Baerwolf of Pontiac Police Department, who is a member of the program committee for the conference.

In his speech, made available to The Pontiac Press before his departure, Taylor spoke to the assembled officials on "Obtaining evidence and preparing a case for court."

Remarking that 50 per cent of the average man's earnings go to buy commodities that are weighed or measured, Taylor pointed out that safeguarding this investment is the responsibility of local inspectors.

The average family, he said, loses $50 a year to intentional or inadvertent shortages in weighed or measured commodities.

In summing techniques of gathering and preparing evidence and court testimony, Taylor said it would facilitate prosecution of violators if cases could be brought to court under a uniform state law rather than local ordinances.

Shipping in Barbados Resumes After Strike

BRIDGETOWN, Barbados (AP) — The port of Bridgetown, major gateway to this British Caribbean island, was scheduled to reopen to shipping today following settlement of a 10-day sympathy strike. Shortages of some foods already have developed.

Dock workers had boycotted all cargo consigned to one of the island's leading export-import firms —the Advocate Co.—to back up demands for wage increases by employes of the company.

American capital is sought to start a hog-raising center in French Guiana.

H-Bomb Cause This?

HONOLULU (AP) — Two Navy pilots said they saw bubbling sulphur and sand with smoke rising from it yesterday on the Pacific 40 miles west of Oahu in the Hawaiian Island group. They said it apparently was an underwater volcanic eruption.

U.S. Firms Ask Tax on Watches

Maintain Swiss Evade Import Levy With Trick of 'Up-Jeweling'

WASHINGTON (INS)—American watchmakers have asked Congress to halt what they charged is an evasion of the import tax on Swiss-made watches.

It was learned today that Watchmakers Association proposed to leaders of the House Ways and Means Committee that a tax be imposed on importers who up-jewel watches and avoid the customs duty.

The duty ranges from $2.60 to $3.75 for watches with 17 jewels or less and is $10.75 on watches with more than 17 jewels.

Under the up-jeweling process, some U. S. firms import the watches at the lower customs rate and then add jewels in this country, bringing the count over 17 jewels.

U. S. watchmakers, whose labor costs are considerably greater than those of Swiss manufacturers, have asked Congress to impose a tax of $8 on up-jeweled watches. They say this would put the imported watches on a par with their products.

The U. S. group put their proposal to both Chairman Jere Cooper (D-Tenn) and Rep. Daniel A. Reed (R-NY), of the Ways and Means Committee.

Committee sources indicated nearly all GOP members probably would line up behind the proposal. They said the decision of Democrats probably would depend on whether U. S. watchmakers could prove the up-jeweling process was an evasion of the import duty.

Buried in Mine Mishap

CALUMET (UP)—Eino Waananen, 38, of Ahmeek, was killed Monday when he was buried in a slidein in the Ahmeek No. 4 shaft of the Calumet & Hecla Mining Co.

Bob Considine Says:

At Least the Nuptials Went Off on Schedule

ABOARD USS MOUNT McKINLEY (INS)—Looking back on it, there was one thing that could be said (and wasn't) about the wedding of Prince Rainier and Grace Kelly. It went off on time.

The delays in the busting of the H-bomb took on a comic flavor that wasn't in keeping with the stern nature of the weapon itself. But such is the antic nature of man.

The phrasers of the weather bulletins did their best each morning and night to sound optimistic, but finally they reached the point that would have stumped and confounded the glibbest ad writer on Madison avenue.

Finally, they had to leave out the predicates for fear of saying something that could be pinned down. So unpinnable became their predicitions that the printed form would not submit to pinning against the green felt of the bulletin board in the wardroom.

One night we stayed up for a notice that said in effect that Tuesday looked so good for the bomb drop that it had been postponed until Wednesday in order to clear the decks for Friday, after which there might be a Saturday drop.

It recalled the old gag of the kid with size 10 feet whose dogs felt so comfortable in 11s he order 12s. It recalled also Ring Lardner's classic business which went, more or less, "Although Jones is a very bad hitter he is also a very bad fielder."

EQUALLY PAINED

But the authors of the weather reports were equally pained. When any mortal gets this far from home there is only one desire—from the top fellow down—and that is to get home.

Observers on this trip who had not seen a movie since "The Birth of a Nation" became firm film fans as a result of the long delay. There was a movie every night on the aft of the McKinley.

We saw Grace Kelly, Cary Grant, Gary Cooper, Danny Kaye, Martin and Lewis, Gregory Peck and a lot of others.

The prices was right: Zero.

The pictures concerned were seen in the States weeks and months ago but not with the dialogue we got on the McKinley.

The McKinley, skippered by a fine Annapolis man ('29) Henry A. Renken, has more communications gear than an interplanetary space ship.

But it was comforting for those who still cling to the frailties of homo sapiens to note each night that all the electronics wizards the Navy could gather in this remote part of the Pacific could not keep Bryson Rash's nightly newscast from intruding upon the sound track of the movie being shown.

Bryson's fine broadcast was beamed toward San Francisco at 9:30 each night, our time. It was always near the end of the movie, and people were in trouble.

The other night Grace Kelly, all involved in a jewel theft near her new domain, suddenly yelled, "This is NTXC (Mount McKinley) calling KUK (Guam)." Everything turned out okay.

Cooper used the same call to save himself and Susan Hayward from the Apaches. And so it went every night. The timing was perfect.

One night, apparently in appreciation, our man Rash said, "This is Bryson Rash of the American Broadcasting Company." Grace Kelly was deeply impressed. "I love you," she whispered.

U.S. Plans Expansion at World Trade Fairs

NEW YORK (UP) — The United States plans to expand its program of taking part in international trade fairs, including exhibits at fairs in Iron Curtain countries, the program's new director said today.

Harrison T. MacClung said in a newspaper interview Congress would be asked for 3½ million dollars to support the program. More than a million dollars of this will be spent on exhibits in Soviet satellite countries, he said.

Wealthy Chicago Widow Leaves Money to Animals

CHICAGO (INS)—Mrs. Alice R. Bourge, 64, widow of a wealthy paper manufacturer, has left $500,000 to two charities for animals.

Her estate filed yesterday in Probate Court left only $23,500 to 20 relatives and friends. She died May 3.

The remainder of the estate will be divided equally between the Illinois Citizens Animal Welfare League Refuge and the Anti-Cruelty Society.

Denmark's Faroe Islands shipped $1,100,000 worth of fish in 1955.

He Pants From Heat and Police Find Pants

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—It was too hot for two pairs of pants, a theft suspect learned here.

The suspect began sweating profusely while being questioned at the police station, causing officers to become suspicious. Asking him to disrobe, the officers discovered he was wearing two pairs of pants. One was a new pair just reported stolen from a downtown department store.

UM Offers Applied Meteorology Degree

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Even the atom waits on the weather. For all of man's ingenuity, it's the one prime force of nature he can do nothing about.

But the University of Michigan has introduced a new graduate program in applied meteorology—a unique step to reduce the loss of life, time and suffering that bad weather brings.

Prof. E. Wendell Hewson, who will direct the new program, says, "Weather and climate are becoming increasingly significant factors in almost every area of human activity."

"What we are trying to do," he explains, "is put our knowledge of meteorology to work to man's benefit in a great many fields, ranging literally from architecture to zoology."

IT'S MAN'S MEDIUM

Weathermen, he said, have been so busy perfecting their own techniques for studying the weather they have neglected the many associated fields.

"We should remember," he adds, "that man lives at all times within his atmosphere, just as a fish lives in water, and that nature influences his life in a variety of ways, some subtle and some obvious."

Prof Hewson has already launched an ambitious five-year research program into pollution of the atmosphere—the very air we breathe—by airborne irritants.

MAY LICK SINUS

It may bring eventual relief for hay fever victims. Prof. Hewson believes the spread of ragweed pollen can be checked by a sort of weatherman's radar that will spot breeding patches that can then be destroyed.

By the same measure, there may be a relation between the winds and air movements and the spread of disease. There may be an association between climate and chronic seasonal ailments—such as the well-known sinus.

The new university program consists of 11 courses, leading to a master's degree. They will involve research in engineering, medicine, botany, ecology, biochemistry and public health.

The program, Hewson believes, will affect fields as varied as geology and psychology. It will investigate and track tornadoes and monitor radioactive substances in the air.

Ore Shipment Gains

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ore carriers hauled 2,790,405 tons of ore in the week ended Monday, the Lake Superior Iron Ore Assn. reported. That brought the total of Great Lakes shipments for 1956 to 13,769,129 tons, compared with 16,989,857 tons in 1955 to this date. It was, however, under the comparable 1953 period when the tonnage was 18,182,582.

Trade-Hungry Japanese Government Encourages Rebirth of Business Cartels

TOKYO (INS)—Japan's mammoth big business combines, smashed after World War II, are on their way back and may soon get a tremendous boost from the trade-hungry Japanese government.

If a proposed drastic reform of the nation's business laws is enacted, economic experts say Japan will be headed for a rigid state-controlled economy.

This control will be exercised through a web of government-sponsored industrial cartels which will monopolize business and stifle free competition.

Such cartels already link businessmen in virtually every field with price and production agreements that give each firm a fixed slice of the market.

RETURN TO OLD WAY

But under the new regulations the government will have the power to order the formation of cartels in any industry and force members to abide by their regulations. Provisions will be made also to keep any outsiders in line.

One American businessman in Tokyo declared:

"This could mean a complete return to Japan's pre-war methods of doing business."

These cartels are the same organizations that American occupation planners thought they had crushed once and for all in favor of an American-style system of free enterprise.

CARTELS REGULATE

But a series of revisions of the occupation-enacted anti-monopoly laws have already left Japanese business free to organize itself in almost any way it pleases.

Output and prices of more than forty-five commodities for domestic use are now regulated by cartels. In addition nearly 4,000 manufacturers and traders have combined to form dozens of export associations for cracking foreign markets.

These organizations control production and sales of nearly every major Japanese commodity.

The producer is forbidden to charge less than the cartel price for his goods. He is discouraged from trying to invade another manufacturer's market. The cartels seek to prevent any firm from gaining a strong advantage over its competitors.

GOVERNMENT CONTROL

Proposed legislation will put even the smallest producers under the supervisory control of the government. The conditions under which a cartel may be organized will also be greatly eased.

The ministry of International Trade and Industry will have the power to order manufacturers to form a cartel or tighten up an existing one.

Companies will be permitted to merge virtually without restriction. Executives will be allowed to hold key positions in a number of firms.

Most important, the government will be able to order individual firms to cut their output or halt expansion programs.

One U.S. businessman pointed out these organizations do serve some useful purpose in setting minimum quality standards for their member firms and curbing overseas dumping.

"If this were the only result," he said, "there would be no problem."

"But Japanese industrialists seem quite content to have the government or a business association tell them what to produce and how much."

Sheriff Fires Rival

BEULAH (AP)—Jerry Pelton, who recently circulated nominating petitions as candidate for sheriff, has been dismissed from his post as Benzie County undersheriff. Sheriff William Hannula, who seeks reelection says Thomas E. Noye, retired Detroit policeman, will succeed Pelton.

HOMEMAKERS' Huddle BY Betty Natco

that tops on the Hit Parade very soon will be "HERE COMES THE BRIDE"! Let's stop thinking that a party for a bride-to-be ALWAYS has to be a bridal shower. If the weather is pleasant and you have the equipment, consider a barbecue supper for members of both families, the bridal party, or for friends. An afternoon tea is a refreshing change, is easier on a hostess, and friends of varying ages can be invited. Don't overlook the luncheon where eight or more friends of the bride contribute a small amount of money and one gift is given. Then, of course, the shower! Being a guest at three or four of these affairs for the same girl, plus a wedding gift, can put more than a dent in a pocketbook. As only intimate friends of the guest of honor are invited to a shower, giving one isn't a decision to be made in haste.

Extra good is apple sauce seasoned with prepared horseradish and frozen to a mush. Serve with the next pork chops or roast pork.

THANK YOU

Mrs. D. B. R. of Baton Rouge for sharing this interesting idea with us. "I'm constantly searching for the right colored thread and getting tired of having to untangle the mess when I do find it," wrote Mrs. R. "So I bought a bread board (think I paid about 50c). Drove long nails into it at an angle so when a spool was slipped on the nail it would not fall off. There's a hole in the top of the board, so it, too, hangs on a nail. What a time saver this has been" (Be sure you measure the space needed between spools.)

Slit pork chops from the RIB SIDE for stuffing. Bones hold in the stuffing, and about one-third cup of stuffing is needed for each chop.

MAKE A FRIEND — MAKE TWO!

A friend is a mighty important asset, so I'd like you to know the friendly meat man at the National Food Store near you. All he needs is to know that you have time to talk with him. He's full up to "here" with answers to your meat questions. Why don't you ask him to show you how he "Value Way Trims" steaks, roasts, chops, etc.? You wouldn't buy nylons without checking the quality first would you? We're so proud of our meats that we want YOU to check them, so you'll know why we strut with pride. You'll be glad if you do!

Yours for satisfaction,
Betty Natco

"I DON'T KNOW WHAT I WOULD HAVE DONE WITHOUT O-JIB-WA"

"For a lady of 83, I'm in really wonderful health, and am glad to recommend O-JIB-WA BITTERS to others," says Mrs. Blanche Brown, 406 Michigan Ave., Owosso, Mich.

Mrs. B. Brown

"A couple who roomed with me over 12 years ago in Saginaw, told me about O-JIB-WA BITTERS. The husband was so crippled with arthritis that he used crutches, but after using your medicine, he was all better. For 10 years I had terrible rheumatism and arthritis in my knees and limbs, and it got so I couldn't get around. I was forbidden to climb stairs, and once went three weeks without being able to walk a block. The swelling was real bad in my ankles, and the pain was so fierce I couldn't sleep nights. My kidneys too were bad, and caused me to get up frequently. O-JIB-WA started helping me within two weeks. Even my daughter noticed a big difference in my health, as your medicine helped me all over. My stomach does not burn me now, and I can eat almost anything without the fear of indigestion. One thing I want to urge, and that is that a person take O-JIB-WA BITTERS long enough to help them; a couple of months if necessary, and not for a few days and quit. I will always recommend O-JIB-WA to others, but want them to understand that they won't be better overnight. If you are going to try it, give it a fair trial."

Hitler's Offices for World Conquest Now a Religious Retreat House for GIs

BERCHTESGADEN, Germany (AP)—Seventeen years ago Hitler and his general staff drew up a blueprint in this Alpine village for world war.

Today young American GIs are using this same village as a religious retreat, a place to escape from war and thoughts of war. The U.S. Army has a separate recreation program including sightseeing tours and mountain climbing.

The retreat is an experiment unique in military history. The chaplains who run it term it enormously successful.

MEN ARE HELPED

Maj. Oliver Kelly of Champaign, Ill., U.S. Protestant chaplain, said it is quite normal for the GIs to drop in on him when they leave and say:

"I can make it now. . . . This gives me the lift to get through until I can get home."

Since the luxurious Alpine inn became a U.S. religious retreat June 29, 1954, more than 100 separate retreat programs have been held — Catholic, Protestant and Jewish. More than 14,000 GIs have come from all over Europe.

Some came just to get away from military routine.

'IT DOESN'T MATTER'

"It doesn't matter why they came," Maj. Kelly said. "The important thing is that Berchtesgaden did them good."

The same Alpine inn was used as a resting place for members of Hermann Goering's Luftwaffe in World War II.

Maj. Kelly said the idea to hold the retreats was advanced by Col. Edwin L. Kirtley, Roman Catholic U.S. chaplain in this area. The Pentagon gave quick endorsement.

GIs come here at their own expense. A few are married and bring their families. It costs them $4 for quarters, and $7.85 for food during leave. The typical retreat program covers four days.

ENJOY THE COMFORT

"One thing the soldiers really enjoy is the comfort," said Maj. Kelly, a Baptist who served with U.S. troops on Okinawa. "Their beds are made every morning by charwomen. They are waited on at the dining tables—and there are even tablecloths on the tables!"

Mornings, beginning at 7:30 a.m. are devoted to religious programs, with special periods for Bible study, group discussions and meditation.

The afternoons are free. GIs in civilian clothes can be seen scrambling all over the steep, snow-covered Alpine slopes.

Every evening brings a religious movie and a worship program. It's lights out at 10 p.m.

Texas GOP to Stand on States Rights Slate

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A 54-member delegation instructed to fight for states rights will represent Texas at the Republican National Convention.

The party's state convention yesterday approved resolutions asking that desegregation problems be settled on a local level and proclaiming the GOP is the only political group which can be depended upon to preserve states rights.

The convention endorsed President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon for second terms.

It asked the administration to appoint to advisory positions at policy-making levels men and women sympathetic to states rights.

Bride-to-Be Is Honoree at Shower

Gifts Presented to Janet Fairbanks at Jacobsen Home

Janet Fairbanks, bride-elect of Russell Field Manney Jr., was honored Monday evening at a miscellaneous bridal shower given by Mrs. Bruce Jacobsen. The affair was held at the Pine Lake home of the Harold S. Jacobsens.

Janet is the daughter of Mrs. Orval G. Fairbanks of Niagara avenue, and the prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell F. Manney of Birmingham. The couple will exchange nuptial vows on June 9 at St. Benedict Church.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink carnations, roses and iris, flanked by pink tapers. Mrs. Fairbanks presided at the tea service.

Guests attending the shower in addition to the bride-elect's mother were Mrs. Manney, Mrs. Lewis M. Wrenn, Mrs. George Shearer, Mrs. David DeShetler, Gail Hopper, Lois Stieve, Mrs. Charles English and Mrs. Clinton Lippard Jr.

Others were Mrs. James E. Bensken, Mrs. Louis Hurtubise, Carole Malsom, Mrs. Will Merriman, Mrs. Harold S. Jacobsen, Mrs. Jack Wilmot, Judy Nicholson, Karen Manney, Joyce Schmidt and Carol Charles.

Young People of Beth Jacob Present Cantata

The cantata, "What Is Torah?," was presented Friday evening at Temple Beth Jacob. Students of the Religious School's drama and music activity groups combined with the Youth Group in the presentation.

Taking part were Susan Arnkoff, Donald Barnett, Philip Berk, Ellen Sue Bisgeier, Rhoda Goldberg, Judith Gordon, Stephen Gordon, Sam Hartman, Naomi Kantzer and Richard Levine.

Michael Nosanchuck, John Richman, Jonathan Saperstein, Paula Siegel, Jeff Siegel, Joel Thome, Nancy Walker and Stanton Walker also participated.

Directing the program was Mrs. Sanford Saperstein assisted by Mrs. Sidney Siegel and Joel Thome. Mrs. James Rosenthal was at the piano.

The cantata described in words and music the significance of The Torah as law and inspiration, from the revelation at Mt. Sinai to the modern strivings for peace and world brotherhood.

Mothers Honored at Sorority Banquet

Members of Zeta Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority met at Aunt Fanny's Tearoom Monday evening for their annual mother-daughter banquet.

A yellow corsage was presented each mother as she arrived. The invocation was given by Mrs. Byron Barnes, following which Jean Brown read a poem, "To My Mother," dedicated to all the mothers present.

First Lady Candidates

Nancy Kefauver Shuns Campaign

(This is the second of six articles bringing you the intimate, personal stories of women who might become the next "first lady" in the White House.)

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON (INS)—The best campaigner among potential first ladies is practically sitting out this year's primary slugfest. Green-eyed, red-haired Nancy Kefauver has had it, thank you!

Four years ago, Nancy rode planes, made speeches and pumped almost as many Democratic hands as Estes Kefauver in his famed coonskin cap. This time, Estes is mostly going it alone. Even the coonskin cap has been left by the wayside.

If the homespun, Yale-educated senator from Tennessee should actually capture the White House, however, Nancy would grace it with talent, beauty and charm.

She would also break precedent by becoming the first foreign-born wife to serve as first lady. Nancy's parents were actually born in this country, but moved to Glasgow and subsequently gave up their American citizenship. Years later, her father was knighted for his work on marine turbine engines and shipbuilding. He is now dead.

Nancy, born to this prosperous family 45 years ago, met the lanky future senator on a blind date in 1934 while visiting her mother's relatives in Chattanooga.

DETERMINED SUITOR

Estes fell hard. As determinedly as he has later pursued the presidency, he followed her to Glasgow and won the hand of Sir Stephen Piggott's pretty daughter.

The Scotch lass, between babies, has spent most of the intervening years campaigning — until now. This spring, insisting that the four Kefauver moppets need her here, she has stoked the home fires and caught fleeting glimpses of her fast-traveling husband on an average of only twice a month.

It's a different story from 1952 when, flushed with the nation-wide success of Kefauver's Senate crime-busting investigation, Nancy campaigned so exhaustingly that on awakening in strange hotel rooms she had to look at the telephone book to remember which town she was in.

The charming redhead never spared herself during any of the seven campaigns that brought Estes first to the House of Representatives and then to the upper chamber.

Should Estes now replace Ike in the executive mansion, the familiar odor of linseed oil, turpentine and tube paint would remain, for Nancy not only paints, she teaches it — at her own studio near the Mayflower Hotel.

PROFESSIONAL SKILL

The busy senatorial wife has long since graduated from the amateur status of fellow artist Ike Eisenhower. Edgar students jam her classes, and Washingtonians pay well for portraits executed by Nancy. A product of art schools in Glasgow, Paris and London, Nancy wields a deft brush.

To the amazement of her friends, she has also found time to redecorate the new Kefauver house in suburban Spring Valley, make her own draperies and slipcovers, and sew for her three lively young daughters, Linda, 14; Diane, 8; and Gail, 5. Ten-year-old David, the other youngster, was adopted in babyhood by the Kefauvers.

Until the presidential bug bit Estes, the family had a rollicking home life. Now, because the children adore their father and loathe the campaigns that keep him traveling, they bitterly resent publicity and run like fleeting deers at the sight of a photographer.

To know Nancy is to admire her. Although she vehemently opposed her husband's presidential candidacy this year, she has accepted it with calm good humor and has thrown herself unstintingly into the combined mother-father role.

Four years ago, friends jokingly accused Nancy of coveting the White House simply to acquire enough bedrooms for her family. At that time, the Kefauvers lived around the corner from Vice President Nixon in a house so crowded that the older youngsters had to sleep in a converted attic, which they reached by pull-down stepladder.

PERFECTLY CONTENT

Now, with a new home of her very own, Nancy is perfectly content to let someone else do the honors as first lady—if Estes will just stay at home.

Active Oldsters Don't Rust Away

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Yesterday I told you about the "Singing Seniors," a choral group sponsored by the Musicians' Emergency Fund. The singers range from the age of 65 to the age of 90.

Gladys Douglas Longmore, hospital program director for the Musician's Emergency Fund, who introduced the choral program, said, "We are forced to admit that we are lagging far behind other countries in the care we give older people.

"Unless we begin to apply our limitless resources to this problem, the future will be very dark indeed—not only for the aged themselves but for the general population who must bear the enormous costs of this neglect."

With the percentage of older people in the population increasing rapidly, we are faced with real social and economic problems. We have not kept up with the medical profession in providing constructive and happy activities for older people.

Because of loneliness and inflation many older folks are living drab and dreary lives. Great work is being done in the day centers of New York City. These are really free clubs for older folks, a place where they can meet people of their own age, where they can make friends of their own age.

Think how different the life of an elderly person who lives alone is, if he or she has a date to meet a friend for a game of checkers or for a visit at the center. Everybody must have some reason for getting up in the morning and many older people do not have one.

At the day centers of New York City the members play the piano and dance and sing.

These centers have many different activities. The members can learn many crafts. They play the piano and dance and sing. The work done there is not only social but has great repercussions on health. It has been found that those who visit the centers regularly go to the clinics much less often.

Younger people should have a humanitarian interest in such organizations as day centers for older folks and the Singing Seniors, but if they do not they should at least have an ecomomic interest.

They should put their strong younger shoulders to the wheel and promote such activites in their own communities. Otherwise they are the ones who will inherit the whirlwind.

Such opportunities not only make life bearable but happy for older folks and they also cut down on the number of mental and physical breakdowns among the aged. This is a proven fact.

BOREDOM MAIMS

Whether you are middle-aged or older, remember that boredom will age and maim. I think that one reason the Singing Seniors look so much younger than their age is because they have the mental outlook which makes them take up new interests.

Then the pleasure they have in the new activity makes them younger, too. Therefore they are in a delightful, not a vicious circle.

One Singing Senior said, "this keeps the rust out of my voice." It does much more! It keeps the rust out of the mind and heart and personality, too.

Check Furnace in New Home

Don't let the thrill of moving into a new home be spoiled by a bitter chill—be sure he furnace is intalled and working before you say goodbye to your present place.

Here are some other items to check:

If hubby installs that new stove, better check it yourself by coating the gas pipes with heavy soapsuds and watching for giveaway signs of leaking gas.

One thing you'll need in that new house is a supply of light bulbs. Most new home owners forget until the first night.

If you live in a cold-weather region, don't have the water turned on until the gas and electricity are in first. Frozen pipes are the usual sad result if you do otherwise.

Mashed potatoes are dressed up with addition of vegetable juice, sour cream or cheese.

Kingswood to Open First Summer School

By DOROTHY JOAN ZACK

"Nobody likes a class that's like a blotter," says Mrs. Cecil Arthur Player, who is predicting that Kingswood's first summer school will attract students that seek rather than just absorb knowledge.

The Cranbrook girls' school is seeking enrollees who can "cope with ideas, who are alert, and who know more about certain things that have been touched lightly in regular high school study," she says.

Registration must be made by June 11; classes start June 18 and conclude July 27.

Mrs. Player had worked with ideas long before she considered luring summer vacationing high schoolers into "the world of ideas."

She traveled with her husband, who was foreign editor of a Detroit newspaper for many years, and she herself was educational editor on the same publication for some time.

The she took to trying to entice visitors to the Detroit Institute of Arts through news stories and public relations contacts for the institute.

TEACHES ENGLISH

She turned to teaching English after her husband died, and she has taught several years at Florida Southern College and the past three years at Kingswood.

"Courses like Greek open up new worlds of ideas," Mrs. Player says, and it was on this basis that she and Kingswood Headmistress Marion E. Goodale worked out the summer schedule.

Judy Knudsen was first to enroll for the summer session. Judy, whose grandfather, Gen. William Knudsen, met Churchill, Roosevelt and the other leaders of governments when he was in charge of America's World War II production, has chosen a course dealing with the personalities of those leaders.

Called "contemporary international politics," it will be taught by Grace Larson of the regular Kingswood faculty.

"I was just old enough to be bounced on his knee," Judy laughed when asked if her grandfather had told her of meetings with world leaders.

Now a junior at Kingswood, she is the daughter of the Semon Knudsens of Bingham lane, Southfield Township. Her father is general manager of Detroit Diesel Division of General Motors.

SEEKS EX-CAMPERS

"Girls who are tired of camp every summer are among those we hope will come," Mrs. Player says. "And after the two morning classes, the girls will be welcome to stay, for a slight fee, for a dip in Jonah Pool. And boys are being invited to attend, too."

Students of 10th, 11th and 12th grades are eligible. Classes will be from 9 to 10:20 a.m. and from 10:30 to 12.

Besides international politics and Greek, subjects will include highlights of painting, culture of Greece and Rome, contemporary literature, creative writing, English-speaking drama from Elizabeth to Elizabeth, and French conversation.

Others are French literature and civilization, current problems of American government, English history, Oriental culture, and Spanish conversation.

Taking time out from lecturing at Wayne University, Russell McLauchlin will teach the drama course. Long a drama critic for a Detroit paper, he writes plays, and will read one to the class. Students will then be allowed to try their hand at play criticism, with his play as focal point.

WILL ALSO SING

Gilbert and Sullivan's works will be sung for his students by McLauchlin, who will invite them to join in the choruses. He is an expert on Gilbert and Sullivan as well as on Shakespearean works.

Mrs. John Ormond, who taught nursing in India while there with her husband, will be teaching Oriental culture at Kingswood. She will touch on religion, art, customs and politics.

Margot Cramer, who came from Europe last year to become curator of the Cranbrook Art Academy, will guide study of the great painters of Italy, Germany, England, Spain and France.

Kingswood School's halls will see summertime students for the first time this year. Already enrolled is Judy Knudsen, shown talking over class plans with the director, Mrs. Cecil Arthur Player.

A town luncheon or afternoon occasion will merit the wearing of this dress with its easy lines insuring comfort at all times. A smooth, slim effect is created by the deep rounded neck, brief sleeves and easily falling skirt.

Helen T. Coffer to Become Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Coffer of Monticello avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen Theresa, to Harvey Lewis Schroeder. He is the son of Mrs. Frank Schroeder of St. Clair street and the late Mr. Schroeder.

Harvey is a student at Central Michigan College where he is affiliated with Delta Sigma Phi fraternity. The couple plans an early fall wedding.

Medicine Chest—Is Yours in Repair?

When's the last time you inspected the family medicine chest? If you take a minute to take a look, you will probably find half-empty medicine bottles that should have been thrown out months ago, rusty razor blades and other miscellaneous items that have been long forgotten.

For safety's sake, clean it out and, at the same time, make sure you have stocked the basic necessities that are needed to protect ing stockings, they'll change an your family—iodine and first aid bandages, eye drops, aspirin, smelling salts and salve for treating household burns.

Cool, Cool Cotton

With an eye to hot-weather comfort, designers of junior styles have turned their attention to cool cottons with new finishes that resist soil and wrinkling, that holds pleats permanently, that can be washed easily and allowed to drip dry, with little or no ironing necessary.

High-Style Bathing Suits Demand Smooth Figures

NEW YORK (INS) — Want to look stylish in your bathing suit come vacation time this year?

The fashionable 1956 bathing suit is short, bare and very form-fitting. It's a strapless, skirt-less shell for your figure, and it takes a mighty good figure to wear it for the best effect.

The newest outline in suits features the "hi-thi" look, where the brief pants legs curve up the side of your thigh. Also perhaps just a ruffle or a bow for a lingerie effect.

Even romper bottom or ruffle bottom suits are getting shorter in the leg.

Any girl who wants more bathing suit around her hip will have to choose the boy short or the tunic skirt types. Boy short suits are shorter this year, but they still provide cover for the thigh.

KIND TO FIGURE

The tunic suit, with side slits to show the little shorts underneath, or the pleated all-around overskirt suit, has the advantage of being both kind to the figure and fashionable.

Whatever the suit, and no matter how skimpy it is, the stylish way to wear it is to cover it up except when you're actually in the water.

The beach wrap is almost as important fashion-wise this year as the bathing suit.

You can go either Oriental or boyish in your beachcoat.

There is a whole variety of coolie or mandarin beach coats, ranging from the calf-length kimono to the thigh-length, slit-side mandarin jacket.

Newest is the Oriental coat which covers you from shoulders to knee, but has the sides slit right up beyond the thigh.

BORROW SHIRT

The "boy" effect in beach coats can be achieved without actually buying a new beach coat. Just borrow a large size man's shirt and wear it over your bathing suit.

If you prefer something that fits better, however, you can try pull-over T-shirts that stretch down over the hips, or button-front jackets that have full-length sleeves, tucks to mark your waistline, and a mid-thigh hemline.

There are coordinated sets that offer both bathing suits and matching beach coat.

Most of these feature strapless suits with boy short bottoms, and coats that are cut like a man's sport shirt, with collar, cuffed sleeves and slit sides.

New AAUW Officers Assume Their Duties

Pontiac Unit Winds Up Business

Has Final Meeting for This Season at Haven Hill

Mrs. Olin Thomas was given the president's gavel of the Pontiac Branch of the American Association of University Women Monday evening by Mrs. J. Thomas Peterson. The occasion was the final meeting of the year held at Haven Hill Lodge.

Officers and committee chairmen introduced by Mrs. Thomas include Lillian H. Davidson, first vice president; Ora Hallenbeck, second vice president; Mrs. S. M. Velkoff, secretary; Faye Donelson, treasurer; Mrs. J. T. Peterson and Mrs. R. V. Thurston, directors.

Mrs. Homer McVean is chairman of social studies, Mrs. Tom Reece, arts; Mrs. Thurston, civil defense; Mrs. George Snyder, education; Margaret Steward, fellowship; Mrs. C. M. Galbraith, historian, and Mrs. Kenneth Ollis, international relations.

Dorcas Wolf is chairman of legislation, Miss Hallenbeck, membership; Miss Davidson, newsletter and program; Mrs. Peterson, publicity; Rosamond Haeberle, radio and TV; Mary Gibbs, social activities, and Mrs. Carmi Odell, status of women.

Following the business meeting and reading of final reports, the travel group presented a panel discussion on "All Aspects of Chinese Culture," climaxed by a talk by Ruth Chamberlain, recently returned from Viet Nam. Miss Chamberlain taught English while overseas. She is now teaching at Issac E. Cary School.

Viola Krueger moderated the panel. Other members were Mabel Double, Marion Lehner, Lillian Davidson, Miss Donelson, Amy Krueger and Miss Steward.

Dinner committee members were Mrs. Milton Young, Mrs. Lloyd Waite, Helen Voss and Miss Gibbs.

Mrs. Olin Thomas (center), new president of the Pontiac Branch of AAUW, is shown looking at earrings presented to her by the group at the final meeting of the year Monday evening at Haven Hill Lodge. Looking on are (left) Mrs. Stephen Velkoff and Mrs. Tom Reece.

Pontiac High's PTA Will Hear Panel Program

When members of the Pontiac High School PTA meet in the cafeteria of the high school Thursday at 7:30 p.m., they will hear a panel discussion on the question, "What is the answer to the problem of drop-outs in high school?"

Moderator of the panel will be Dr. Phillip Proud of Lansing, commissioner of the State Department of Instruction. Representing parents on the panel will be Dr. Maurice Thome.

Dr. Russell Curtis, coordinator of secondary education, will represent the school administration, with Ralph Forman and Mrs. Raymond Best representing the teachers.

Also serving on the panel will be James Hunt from the Oakland County Probation Department and Sharon Mow who will represent the student.

Following the program, refreshments will be served.

Men's Club Plans Dinner

The first annual banquet sponsored by the Christian Men's Club of Pontiac will be held June 9 at 6:30 p.m. in the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building on West Huron street.

The program for the evening will include George Lee of Detroit as master of ceremonies, musical selections by a trumpet trio, a magician and ventriloquist, organ music, a brass ensemble and the showing of a movie.

A special feature will be the crowning of a king and queen for the evening.

Dr. Walter H. Godsell is chairman of the general banquet committee assisted by Ken Hempstead and Floyd Evans. Handling publicity are William Spence, S-Capt M. A. Michaelsen, Gloria Luck, William Farrell and Jim Irwin.

Kyle Wilson is program chairman. On his committee are Robert Gavette, the Rev. George Murphy and the Rev. E. I. Watkins.

Decorations are being prepared by Ken Stevens and Ruby Denstam.

Dinner and serving arrangements are under the chairmanship of Mrs. Enoch Eley assisted by women from the various churches in the area.

Representing the high school students on the planning committee are Dave Lundeen, Barbara Vaughan and Jane Ann Fulcher.

Admission to the semi-formal affair will be by ticket only.

Be Careful!

Some women are mad about hats. Some have a passion for shoes and some can't resist handbags. Whatever your fancy, fine. But don't let your wardrobe get lopsided so that you wind up with twenty-four pairs of lovely shoes and nothing else to wear.

Easy-to-care for cottons are the best fabrics in house dresses. Cotton crepe, seersucker and embosser cotton come in cool colors, plaids, stripes or prints.

stop worrying over wrinkles, creases, facial furrows, dry skin!

Imagine! Now you can stop peering into your mirror night after night . . . anxiously watching the lines deepen in your cheeks . . . the crows-feet wrinkle into dry furrows around your eyes . . . deep shadows and ugly lines that seem to be screaming . . . you look O-L-D!

Now — you'll discover how an amazing new formula helps end your Dry Skin problem . . . softens and reduces lines, wrinkles, creases and furrows on your face — keeps your complexion moist and flower fresh . . . actually makes you look 3 to 7 as much as 15 years younger!

Yes, without using any messy greases, spilly powders or burning soaps, you can own a skin that looks bathed by the angels! Now with just a simple pleasant application of nature's own miracle formula, you can thrill to a complexion that is young. Here's the full story . . . about a miraculous new discovery that puts the best years of your life back in your face! Actually saves you hundreds of dollars in expensive beauty treatments!

Do you know why your skin is dry and wrinkled? It's all quite simple, really! Your skin is dry and lined for an important reason! Because the water in your face is always evaporating — robbing your face of the constant moisture it requires to stay fresh and smooth! And it's this never-ending evaporation that causes the outer layer of your facial skin to become brittle, hard, dry and lined!

Originally, it was thought that oils could keep your skin moist and supple! But even if you suffer with an over-oily complexion, you know that oil hasn't prevented your skin from becoming dry and wrinkled! Water itself keeps your face soft and supple! Water which stays in the layers of your skin, constantly refreshing your face the way water freshens a lovely flower!

When you wash your face every morning, you are doing only half the job of dealing with dry skin! You are re-moistening your skin, true, but that water by itself cannot penetrate any deeper than the surface of the skin. And even if you had the strange ability to rub water deep into your pores, you still wouldn't be preventing the water from evaporating once it got there! This is what skin specialists have spent years trying to discover — something that actually could carry water down into your dry, parched skin . . . keep it there . . . maintain its moisture there!

By John Abbott

At Last! Nature succeeds where others had failed!

For years, skin specialists vainly searched for just such a water-retaining agent! But one day scientists heard about a natural element found in all living cells of animal and plant life! It was called LECITHIN — and it was excitingly reported that Lecithin had the ability to hold water — to carry water to maintain moisture! And because Lecithin has these fantastic quantities, it is doing a sensational job in industry after industry — wherever the special need exists to prevent dryness . . . to maintain freshness!

Lecithin is being used in the oleomargarine industry because it prevents water from draining out. Lecithin is being used in a leather industry because it restores and preserves suppleness even to tough, dry, leathery skins!

Lecithin is being used in the chocolate industry because it prevents delicate fresh aromas from evaporating!

Lecithin is being used in the baking industry because it imparts increased moisture to baked goods! Yes, wherever a natural chemical is needed to maintain moisture, Lecithin — nature's own wonder — succeeds where others failed!

B-21
NUTRITIVE CREAM
makes you look years younger

B-21 with Lecithin was tried on many women of all ages. It was clinically tested on women of 30 — in those dangerous years when those deep disfiguring changes are being wrought in the face! On 65 year old grandmothers whose skins were as dry and creased as prunes! On young girls whose complexions were marred by ugly dry scales. In each case the results were amazing. Old looking complexions came to life again. Women looked 3 . . . 7 . . . as much as 15 years younger.

And now B-21 can work the very same wonders for you. Not for $25.00. Until recently raw Lecithin was sold in drug stores for as much as $14.00 a pound. Scientists discovered that Lecithin could be extracted from soy beans. Now this new dry-skin treatment B-21 with Soyan is available for only $3.50 plus tax. The most miraculous answer to the problem of dry, wrinkled, old looking complexion.

TRY B-21 AT NO RISK!
Guaranteed!

See your dry, parched skin change day by day into a smoother, softer complexion. Lines and wrinkles are forgotten. Your skin feels dewy fresh, petal smooth. Thrill to a complexion that makes you look years younger. Order your jar of the new and wonderful B-21. Not just "another face cream" but a fabulous FACE REFRESHER that RE-DEWS and RE-NEWS your complexion. Remember: you have nothing to lose but the dried-out look of age! And you have a radiant fresh new complexion to gain.

Give your dry skin the B-21 Treatment for 30 days. If you're not completely satisfied return the jar for refund.

Snowballs Taste Good in Spring

Mrs. Rowston Rolls Miniature Cookies in Powdered Sugar

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Tiny cookies are the accepted thing to serve at tea parties. Mrs. Philip Rowston has a recipe for a little nut cookie that is delicious. She calls it a Snowball Cookie.

Mrs. Rowston is active in a child study club, the Jury Club and the Do-C-Do club. Her two school-age children keep her days well occupied.

For hobbies she lists piano playing first, then painting. This year she is finding out whether or not she has a green thumb. She's making her gardening debut.

SNOWBALL COOKIES
By Mrs. Philip Rowston

½ cup butter
3 tablespoons sugar
1 cup flour
1 cup broken pecans
Pinch salt
1½ teaspoons vanilla

Blend butter and sugar, then other ingredients. Form into balls the size of walnuts. Bake 45 minutes in a 300-degree oven on an ungreased baking sheet.

While hot, coat with confectioner's sugar. When cold coat again.

Will Direct Day Camping

108 Volunteers Prepared

One hundred and eight adult volunteers recently completed two days of training for their work as volunteers at Girl Scout day camps this summer.

Five day camps will operate under the sponsorship of the Northern Oakland County Girl Scout Council. Pontiac girls will use Murphy Park, some nearby Detroit Edison and General Motors property and on rainy days, the Naval Armory.

Scouts in the southwest district will go to Proud Lake Recreation Area, while those in Waterford will go to Pontiac Lake Recreation Area. Other camps will be held at the Ortonville Recreation Area and at Crissman Acres in Avon Township.

The two-day training course under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Copeland, Mrs. Jay Bendall and Carolann Bingham included basic skills in day camping, as well as emphasis on the meaning of such camps, safety procedures, and policies and standards.

Each volunteer had actual practice in a number of camping skills such as knot-tying, lashing, weaving, tin can cookery, use of knives and hatchets, and nature work.

About a thousand girls are registered in the five camps and each camp has a waiting list. Mrs. Bendall is general chairman of all the camps.

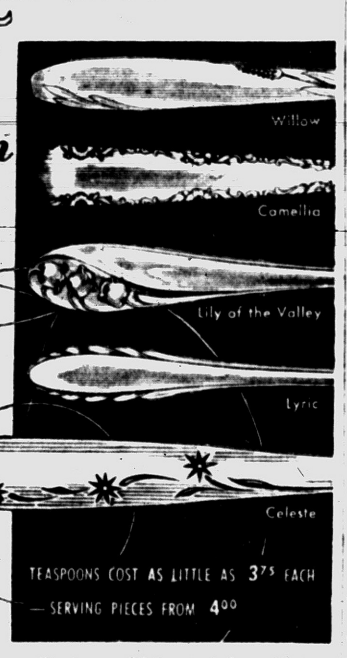

Volunteers working in the different camps are Elaine Smith, and Mrs. Albert Latendress of Pontiac, Mrs. Charles Cox at Proud Lake and Mrs. Dean Ball in Waterford.

Mrs. Oscar Gerkin is in charge at Ortonville, while Mrs. John Curnutte, Mrs. William Maybee and Mrs. William Cellner are working in the Rochester camp.

Sheath Dress Popular

The continued popularity of the sheath dress makes jewelry of all kinds more important than usual. When clothes are simple and understated, as they are this year, a splash of costume jewelry supplies needed accent.

First Methodist Circles Meet in Various Homes

First Methodist Church WSCS circles met this past week in homes of members.

Julia Circle

Mrs. Howard Johnson of North Saginaw street was hostess to the Julia Circle for a dessert luncheon. Mrs. Perc Parsons presented the devotional topic, "Quadrennial Review."

Mrs. Stuart Conway gave the program on the topic, "All the People of the World," and Mrs. Charles Jacobson reported on the Detroit WSCS Conference. Mrs. Doan Howey of Chamberlain street will entertain at the next meeting.

Elizabeth Circle

"Take My Life and Let It Be" was the program topic chosen by Mrs. Joe Davis for the meeting of the Elizabeth Circle. The group met with Mrs. Guy Williamson of Littletell road.

Mrs. C. L. Oegema presented the devotions, followed by election of officers. The group will hold its next meeting with Mrs. Davis of Jefferson street.

Anna Circle

A dessert luncheon was served to members of the Anna Circle by Mrs. Orville Lyons at her home on Madison avenue. Mrs. Frank Coons was cohostess. "The Beatitudes" was the topic of devotions chosen by Mrs. E. H. Buddenbaum.

Mrs. Harry Going was chairman of the program, "Why We Give— and Where," assisted by Mrs. Clarence Hamel, Mrs. Dessa Quinlan, Mrs. Claude Bowman and Mrs. Bernie Pearce. The Pearce home on Whittemore street will be the scene of the next meeting.

Sarah Circle

Members of the Sarah Circle were entertained by Mrs. Homer Johnson of North Perry street and cohostess Mrs. Lewis Butler. Mrs. Russell Blackett presented a program entitled "An American Exchange Student in Pakistan." "Sanctuary of the Home" was the theme of devotions led by Mrs. Lester Mehlberg.

Joanne Circle

"The First Letter to the Corinthians" was the topic of devotions presented by Mrs. William Eustice for members of the Joanne Circle. Mrs. Foster Baker of Denby road was hostess to the group.

Mrs. J. W. Green spoke of the help needed by missionaries in the foreign fields. Mrs. Chester Caughell and Mrs. Jean Egge were guests for the meeting. The group is planning a June brunch at the church.

Leah Circle

Mrs. Paul Havens and Mrs. Emil Zumbrunnen were guests of the Leah Circle at the Jonathan MacKichan home on Elm street. Devotions were given by Mrs. Albert Weber on the topic "Sharing Christianity."

Mrs. Jonathan Adams spoke on the program topic, "A New Quadrennium in a New World Situation." The East Iroquois road home of Mrs. Weber will be the scene of the next meeting.

BPW Has Program at YWCA

Members and guests of the Pontiac Business and Professional Women's Club gathered at the YWCA Tuesday evening for a musical program, "Music of Today," arranged by Helen Mercer and Mrs. R. Sanford Craft.

Mrs. Rebecca Gould delighted her audience with "May Day Carol" by Deems Taylor to open the program. She was accompanied by Mrs. Jack Wignall.

American folk songs and folklore were presented by Bob Richard who played his own guitar accompaniment. Among the selections were "Devilish Mary," "Lolly-Too-dum," "Foggy Dew," "Go Way From My Window," "The Warfaring Stranger" and "Scarlett Ribbons."

Concerto in A Minor by Griegs, a transcription arrangement by Percy Grainger, was presented as the first piano number by Rosamond Haeberle. She concluded with "Little White Donkey" by Ibert.

Bringing to a close the evening's program, Rebecca Gould sang "Sabbath Queen" from the Coopersmith Book and "He's Goin' Away" by John Jacob Niles.

Refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with an arrangement of yellow snapdragons and French iris flanked on either side by yellow tapers. Vera Bassett and Mrs. Raymond L. Cole presided at the silver tea services.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Craft, Madeline Fox and Janet Dow.

Hot, Sunny Colors

In addition to the always popular white and pastel tones of summer, a number of hot, sunny colors add gaiety to the scene, the latter used principally in playwear such as coordinated skirt, shirt and shorts outfits that can be mixed or matched to add up to a summer wardrobe.

Philip Wargelin Is Named for Honors

Philip B. Wargelin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Wargelin of Voorheis road, was among Pontiac students honored recently at the University of Michigan Honors Convocation. His name was omitted through error in the list furnished The Pontiac Press earlier by the University.

Philip is a second year student in engineering. Recognition of students at the annual convocation is for high scholastic achievement. Also in recognition of his academic work he was awarded membership in Phi Eta Sigma, national scholastic fraternity.

Called to Missouri

Ralph Haney of Montroyal avenue was called to Brookfield, Mo. due to the death of his brother-in-law, Charles Roedkin. Accompanying Mr. Haney was Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haney of Berkley and Mrs. Parry Ream of Utica.

Adults Should Not Fear Rejection

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Much experience with people and their destinies has convinced me, beyond any doubt, that we get from life not what we want, nor what we hope for, but what we expect. The whole part of wisdom lies in raising the level of our expectations.

If we expect our 30th birthday to rob us of our looks, it will. If we expect our 40th birthday to usher in old age, it will. If we expect a lonely old age, we'll get it.

But the beauty of it is that this law works the other way, too. If we can find some reasonable grounds for higher expectations, we can get better things.

Anyway, Mrs. Mc. has done it and has done it well.

Mrs. Mc. was never very attractive-looking and her youth was not much fun.

"It was pretty apparent," she told me, "that nobody wanted to marry me—not in my 20s or 30s anyway. So I concentrated on my job and did it pretty well. I took courses, and pretty much expected to get ahead in the job and I did.

OTHERS WORRIED

"People used to worry about me, though, because it looked as though I'd die an old maid. But I didn't expect to. I figured that if a person was plain and unattractive in the first half of life, they must certainly get attractive in the last half.

"So I didn't worry about it, but just lived my life, enjoyed it and expected that some day I'd marry."

Mrs. Mc. married in her 53rd year and to a nice widower. It was a wonderful wedding. Mrs. Mc. looked lovely and so happy.

But I got the biggest kick of all out of the way her friends looked—surprised to death. Not only surprised at her landing a man—and such a nice one, too—but surprised at how lovely and how young she looked.

"Why not?" Mrs. Mc. said. "I expect if you're plain in your youth, you must get better-looking as you get older!"

FLIP THE SWITCH

If you expect the worst, you're going to get it—unless you flip the switch and start expecting better things. And you can, if you try.

* * *

First, keep a list of "happy endings"—people who did get good things out of life, at whatever age. Concentrate on what happens to women like Mrs. Mc., instead of concentrating on the tragic figures you know.

Second, immerse your mind in books that are constructive, instead of negative.

I have a list of good books on philosophy and psychology which I'll be glad to send you, if you'll send a stamped, self-addressed envelope in care of The Pontiac Press.

By reading them, you'll help train your mind to expect the best—and you'll get it!

Guerilla Arab Force Holds French Army in Algeria

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP)—A stealthy shoestring rebel army is giving France a vicious battle for control of Algeria.

But official French estimate the rebels total not more than 15,000. They are outgunned and out numbered at least 20-1.

But by their hit-and-run tactics they are giving all of Algeria a state of jitters. Despite increasing arrivals of French troops, the ferocity of the fighting heightens.

INSTANCES

Here are some instances of how the rebels operate:

A lone gunman in Philippeville fired on a passing European late in the evening. No one was hurt but hundreds of soldiers and policemen were mobilized from all parts of town to cordon off the area.

A patrol of men in French army uniforms marched through the streets of Tlemcen. Suddenly the patrol fired on soldiers lounging outside a noncommissioned officers mess. Two were killed and six injured. The "patrol" then fled in a waiting car. Again hundreds of soldiers were called out to take up the chase.

CHILDREN, TOO

A big landowner at Constantine said footprints of children were clearly visible after 150 acres of his olive trees were cut down one night.

A farmer living south of Constantine, Roger Rousset, told how the rebels had killed 76 of his sheep one night and set fire to his tool shed.

About 20 miles east of Tizi Ouzou, in the Great Kabylie Mountains, the bodies of eight soldiers and the truck in which they were riding were found burned after a rebel ambush.

PAPERS TELL ALL

Algerian newspapers each day fill more than a page recounting such attacks. The French haven't been able to find any effective answer to these tactics.

The rebels operate in small, scattered bands. They hit, then hide in the mountains and forests. Mostly they are armed only with rifles, shotguns or pistols. Some have automatic weapons. A few instances of rebel mortar fire have been reported.

CRUDE UNIFORM

Some of the bands have a crude sort of uniform. Uusually it is made up of bits and pieces of discarded or surplus World War II Allied dress. Sometimes arm bands are used, or a little piece of khaki is pinned onto an Arab robe.

French police and military officers say most of the attacks and sabotage in isolated installations are carried out by Moslems who have been living in the vicinity and have been on friendly terms with their victims for many years.

Take the situation in the little town of Collo, where less than 600 Europeans live and work alongside 5,000 Arabs. The town can be reached safely only by ship from Philippeville. Several times a week truck convoys for vital heavy merchandise take the risky trip out by road with a military escort.

HARVEST DELAYED

Mayor Albert Faclone operates a sardine canning factory, the only Eurpean working alongside 160 Moslems. In a cork processing plant, for Europeans work with 400 Arabs.

Outside the town the rebels hold sway in the forested mountains. The local cork harvest, which should have started in March, cannot get under way. The rebel influence spreads into town too, as the mayor discovered when he started movies for Moslem women. Attendance built up to about 65 in several weeks. The next week none of the women showed up, obviously because of rebel pressure.

Four big fires have been started in the town and the water main has been cut eight times. Only this week 120 rebels were reported killed in the mountains behind Collo.

Collusion Seen in Caudle Trial

Oil Royalty Transfer Papers Presented in Tax Fixing Hearings

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Evidence that Atty. Harry I. Schwimmer sent an oil royalty transfer to T. Lamar Caudle and forwarded royalty checks to Matthew J. Connelly has been introduced at the tax-fixing trial of the three men.

The government contends Schwimmer, attorney for tax evader Irving Sachs, gave the oil royalties to Caudle and Connelly, both former high officials in the Truman administration, for trying to avert prosecution of Sachs.

Caudle is a former head of the Justice Department's Tax Division and Connelly was White House appointments secretary under Truman. The three are charged with conspiring to defraud the government by fixing the Sachs case.

IDENTIFIES LETTER

A secretary in Schwimmer's Kansas City office, Mrs. Gabriela K. Robb, yesterday identified an Aug. 4, 1950, letter from Schwimmer to Caudle which said:

"Inclosed find transfer order on your share of royalty we have purchased."

The letter said the royalty should pay close to $50 a month "for a number of years."

The letter was admitted into evidence over objections by Schwimmer's attorney. Chief prosecutor Wyllys S. Newcomb told the court in resisting the objection that Caudle turned the letter over to federal agents from his files.

Commies Force Clowns to Act as Propagandists

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—Life in Poland is no circus—especially for a clown.

That's what Zbigiew Styczek, 23-year-old Polish acrobat, told a voice of America interviewer after he escaped from behind the Iron Curtain.

Styczek, one of Poland's top bicycle acrobats, reported that the Communists in Poland have "robbed the clowns of their traditional funmaking role and tried to turn them into propagandists."

The Poles, he said, even went so far as to set up a special Communist indoctrination school for clowns, teaching them "anti-Western jokes."

The Warsaw regime also decreed it must approve every word spoken in the circus acts.

Byrd Attacks Housing Group

Says Accounting Office Reports Show Breeding Ground for Scandal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Byrd (D-Va) said today he has told President Eisenhower "the elements which breed housing scandals still persist" in the Federal Housing Administration.

He made public a letter to Eisenhower saying reports by the General Accounting Office show "irregularities and inefficiencies" in FHA offices in New York City, Kansas City and Cleveland, and in 22 slum clearance projects in 15 cities. Byrd did not indicate there was evidence of graft.

WANTS REPLY

Byrd also made public letters he has sent to housing boss Albert M. Cole asking for "confirmation or denial" of the GAO reports, and a report on what Cole is doing about them. Cole is administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, parent of the FHA.

Byrd acted as chairman of the Senate-House Committee on Reduction of Nonessential Expenditures. He also made public routine replies from the White House and Cole acknowledging his letters and promising fuller replies later. There was no other comment from them.

More Tornado Aid Told

WASHINGTON (AP)—Tornado-stricken areas in Michigan are to receive an additional $60,000 in federal funds.

Entire State of Michigan Becomes U. of M. Campus

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The whole state of Michigan becomes the University of Michigan campus this summer — as studies branch out for actual field work in the "Water Wonderland."

The university operates six camps in the state and two others, one in Wyoming and one in Colorado, for studies in everything from music and psychology to logging and geology.

On the shores of Douglas Lake near Cheboygan, the university will open its biological station for the 48th year. Here university faculty and teachers from other universities will teach graduates and undergraduates.

On the shore of Grand Traverse Bay, some 90, young men and boys with speech impediments will attend the university's Shady Trails camp. Advanced graduate students and professional instructors will give them expert clinical instruction.

FOR INDIGENT YOUTH

On Golden Lake in Iron County, the university's Camp Filbert Roth, operated by the school of natural resources, will investigate logging, forestry, game, fish and other camp work.

Near Ann Arbor, the university's fresh air camp, supported by campus charity in part, will provide 250 underprivileged youngsters a summer vacation in the great outdoors. It also gives students in education, sociology psychology and social work, a chance to gain valuable experience as camp counselors.

In the Upper Peninsula area near Shingleton, the university opens its geography camp for students of both graduate and undergraduate levels.

At Interlochen, the National Music Camp offers housing and courses for 1,200 students in art, camp counseling, music and speech. No specific educational background is required.

At Boulder, Colorado, university geology students get a field knowledge of rock formations ann-dmt edge of rock formations and mineral deposits in the Rocky Mountain base of the Colorado River.

In the Jackson Hole Teton Mts. area of Wyoming, the university holds its camp for surveying students.

Fishermen Find Body in River Near Grosse Ile

DETROIT (AP)—The body of Paul G. Hersey, 57, of Detroit, was recovered from the Detroit River off Grosse Ile last night by two fishermen.

Hersey, a Burroughs Corp. employe, had been missing since April 28 when his boat was swamped while fishing. Two companions swam to safety.

Williams Asks Help

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams today asked the Commodity Credit Corporation to rescue Michigan cherry growers by buying 500,000 cases of surplus cherries.

Former Actress' Mate Files Divorce Papers

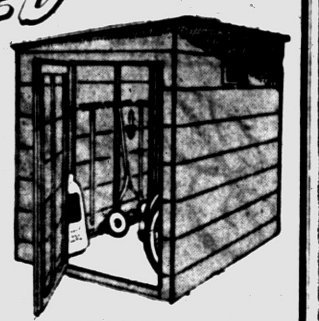

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The millionaire oilman husband of former actress and model Kay Aldridge has filed a divorce suit charging her with misconduct with another man.

Arthur A. Cameron's complaint, filed in Superior Court yesterday, identified the other man as Henry W. Doyle, Los Angeles.

The action was a countersuit against Miss Aldridge's long-pending petition for divorce. He also answered her complaint, charging that she had "numerous" affairs with other men during the past three years.

The oilman, 56, requests permanent custody of their four children.

Men Feel Too Lofty to Suffer Mere Colds

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Being in the vicinity of a man with a cold is a frightening experience. Rather like finding yourself in a cage with a tiger who has been trained, but never quite overcame his instincts.

Give a man an ulcer, and he drinks his milk quietly. Give him acute appendicitis and he's a prince of a patient.

Diphtheria, scarlet fever, malaria, rare diseases contracted from the tse-tse flies—all these can a man have, and he will smile bravely and show what a good old soldier he is.

But a common cold, he's a louse.

"There is no scientific reason for the viciousness of men under the influence of nasal catarrh," says my doctor, "except a mental one. Men are no more shaken, physically, by cold symptoms than women are, as far as we know.

FEEL HUMBLED

"But emotionally and mentally, they are humbled by the presence of cold germs. Basically, they feel that they are too strong a race to be caught up by petty discomforts—and they balk.

"They cannot fight the germs themselves, since we don't know who or where the little fellows are, so they fight the world."

The most common reactions among men take two forms, depending upon the character of the victim and the intensity of the affliction.

The larger percentage of males attempt to shut themselves off from the world, behind either the closed door or closed mind technique, and emerge only to pick up nourishment or to let off steam at women.

(Why cold-driven men snarl more at women than men is another unknown in the common cold picture. However, it probably has to do with Freud and the fact women, silly creatures, are standing around handy.)

BATTLES HUMANITY

A smaller group of men goes out purposely to battle humanity. Possibly on the theory that if he is miserable, everyone else should be, this type of male sneezes in an accusing manner at each friend he encounters, as if insinuating that the other is a carrier.

He flaunts his misery before the world, ostentatiously indulging in cold pills where'er he inflicts himself. Whether he is coughing or speaking, he barks.

One gent of my acquaintance, four-cold-a-year man, even churls over the telephone. During the eight healthy months of the year, he answers the phone with a respectful "Hello." In October, January, March and May, he growls briskly: "Elber Browd speaging."

The tone of his voice is jusd plaid dasty.

The doctor says there is no way out of this problem unless men finally get over this feeling that they are too big for their bacilli.

He sums it up. "When you speak of a stuffed-up head, you are not only speaking of a physical affliction."

He Likes U.S.

PORT HURON (AP) — Persistent Wilfred L. Carter, 19, of Toronto, was nabbed by border police in his fifth attempt at illegal entry into this country. He had been deported just two days earlier after serving a term for illegal entry in the Milan Federal Correctional Institution. Carter previously was sent back to Canada from Washington, Ohio and California.

Japan Income—$2,000

TOKYO — Japan has 310,000 wage earners and a like number of persons in business for themselves who make more than 700,000 yen (about $2,000) a year, according to a National Tax Office study.

Fifth Annual 'Paddle Push' to Be June 10 at Milford

Experts See No Fast Relief for Troy Flood Conditions

TROY — A year's wait is in store for Troy's flood-harried residents, because bonding would not yield enough funds until after new assessments are set, Troy city commissioners learned last night.

The Commission heard representatives of Kenower, MacArthur & Co., Detroit bonding company, and of Hubbell Roth and Clark, Birmingham drainage engineers, discuss future of drainage in Troy.

Bonding now in Troy could only be up to $1,300,000 for the present assessed valuation of 13 million, it was pointed out. The state-ordered equalization, however, would bring valuation up to 37 million.

This would allow Troy to bond itself to secure $3,700,000, the financier advised the Commission.

PROCEED WITH PLANS

Meanwhile plans for the engineering of drains to relieve the areas that flooded in rains this spring will proceed, in hopes that after equalization financing will be possible.

Further use of the North Evergreen drain was urged by commissioners, who admitted that immediate drainage projects in the city are not feasible. The city had considered taking monies advanced by residents.

More support was thrown against establishment of the airport in Warren township. The Commission named Commissioner George T. Yokum as its delegate to the Airport Commission, and Mrs. Grace Yancer as a representative of Troy's citizens to the anti-airport group. The airport oppositionists had indicated they felt Troy had been lacking in support previously.

NAMES DELEGATE

The Commission named City Manager O. G. Holway, who comes to work next week, as its delegate to the North Evergreen Sewer Authority, and Harry McLennan as alternate. McLennan attended the first meeting yesterday. (See story on Page 2.)

Houghton Subdivision's bond application, preliminary to installing septic tanks rather than drains in the subdivision in the Livernois-South Boulevard area, was referred to the city attorney last night.

The subdivision company last week won a court decision to allow the septic tanks, after the city had refused permits.

The food handling ordinance was approved last night, and first reading of a proposed Justice Court Costs Ordinance was done.

READY COMEDY HIT—"Blithe Spirit" characters rehearse studiously as opening day draws near. The comedy hit by Noel Coward is to be presented by the Rochester Avon Players on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, this week.

Waterford Area Camporee Set

140 Girl Scouts Plan to Attend 3-Day Event at Pontiac Lake

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Final details for the North Oakland area Girl Scout Camporee, to be held this weekend in the Pontiac Lake Recreation Area, were settled at a meeting of the Girl Scout Leaders Club this week at the CAI Building. This is the first event of its kind in the Northern Oakland Girl Scout Council, and 140 girls are planning to attend.

A songfest is scheduled for Friday evening's campfire. Contests in fire building, knot tying, lashing, and nature identification are set for Saturday.

Brownie troops have been invited to attend the big campfire program planned for Saturday evening. The girls will conduct their own church services Sunday.

The Leaders' Club also elected new officers. Serving next year will be Mrs. Percy Dunn, president; Mrs. Fred Peters, vice president; Mrs. Percy Bitler, treasurer; and Mrs. Jo Gravelle, secretary.

Sports Car Parade to Open Rochester Show

ROCHESTER—Over 50 convertibles and sport cars will parade through Oakland and Macomb county towns Friday, to herald the opening that afternoon of the three day Rochester Builders and Home Show.

Starting in Rochester in midmorning, the tour will take the cars through Clawson, Big Beaver, Utica, Disco, Washington, Romeo, Oxford, Lake Orion, Clarkston, Waterford, Drayton Plains, Pontiac, and Auburn Heights.

The cavalcade is scheduled to return to Rochester at 2:10 p.m. where it will be met by the Rochester High School Band on Main Street and escorted to the Builders Show at Halbach Field. There, Village President Clarence M. Burr will cut the ribbon officially opening the show.

Rochester Club Planning Dance to Aid Charity

ROCHESTER — Orchard Lake Country Club will be the scene of the First Annual Charity Dance, Friday, sponsored by Albert C. Moore of Hinsdale, Ill., for the Rochester Junior Woman's Club members and their friends.

Mrs. Fred Houghten and Mrs. Lawrence Shepard, co-chairmen of the dance, announced that the music will be provided by a Flint orchestra.

The dance committee consists of Mrs. John Collins, Mrs. Leonard Goodman, Mrs. Neil Crowe, Mrs. Carroll Chapman Jr., Mrs. Arthur Greenwald, Mrs. Louis Franczak, Mrs. Richard Jerome, Mrs. David Herkless, Mrs. Robert Shimmel, Mrs. Charles Seed and Mrs. John Coffin.

Westacres Library Still 'in Business'

WALLED LAKE — A report in the Pontiac Press yesterday that the Westacres branch of the West Bloomfield Township libraries had closed and donated its books to the library proposed in Walled Lake city was in error.

Instead, the books were those stored in the West Bloomfield Township Hall after a branch in the hall was closed a few years ago. The Westacres branch is open as usual.

The West Bloomfield Township Library Board voted to give the books to the Walled Lake group inasmuch as the books were outdated, many of them being duplicates of those in the township libraries.

The books are highly regarded by library officials but formed an "excess" for West Bloomfield Township.

Brooklands Bazaar, Plant Sale on Friday

BROOKLANDS — Brooklands Garden Club is sponsoring a plant sale and bazaar at the Brooklands Community Hall, Auburn Road at Emmons from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday.

On sale will be a variety of perennials and house plants, bulbs, bird and flower stationery, pantry items, ceramics and other items.

A hot lunch will be available between 11 and 1. Purpose of the sale is to inaugurate club activities for the new group.

Father of Eight Drowns; Wife Pulled From River

ESCANABA (AP)—A 51-year-old father of eight drowned yesterday while fishing with his wife in Fishdam River on Big Bay De Noc.

Harold Baldwin and his wife, Fern, were fishing 300 yards offshore when high winds swamped the boat and capsized it.

Mrs. Baldwin clung to the overturned boat until she was rescued by other fishermen.

Northeast Troy Meeting Slated

Property Owners Assn. Officers to Gather at High School Thursday

TROY — Newly elected officers of the Northeast Troy Property Owners Assn. have slated their next meeting for Thursday at 8 p.m. at Troy High School.

The group includes Herbert Poehlman, president; Russell Epler, vice president; Mrs. James Osterhoudt, secretary, and Mrs. Jack Hutchins, treasurer. They were elected last week.

The new board of the association is made up of Mrs. John Popovich, Mrs. Harry Martin, Bert Jackson, S. A. Olson, James Osterhout, Frank Polcyn, and Russell Epler.

Thursday's meeting will review ways of securing relief from crowding of schools and flooding of properties. New members will be registered.

The group, which began activities about three months ago includes property owners north of 16 Mile road between Dequindre and Livernois. Its first effort was against rezoning to allow a proposed large industry which the association contended would damage home values nearby.

Continue Blockade at Madison Heights

MADISON HEIGHTS — Madison Heights police said they would continue today their blockade of residential streets near the Hazel Park race track.

Seven of the city's streets were blocked to traffic leaving the track yesterday and Monday.

The blockade followed the refusal of Hazel Park to give Madison Heights $5,000 to compensate for wear and tear on the community's streets during the racing season.

Donelson School Kindergartners to Be Registered

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. has been set aside for kindergarten registration at Donelson School.

It is planned as a visiting day for next year's kindergarten students and their parents. They will meet the teachers and be taken on a tour of the building.

A birth certificate is needed for registration.

With Comic Complications

'Blithe Spirit' to Live in Rochester Production

ROCHESTER—The Avon Players of Rochester will present "Blithe Spirit" on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

"Blithe Spirit," a comedy hit by Noel Coward, is the story of a man who finds himself with the ghosts of two wives on his hands.

The comic complications in "Blithe Spirit" begin when Charles Condomine, a successful novelist, and his second wife Ruth, invite some friends in to observe a seance presided over by the local medium, Mme. Arcati. A cheerful, bustling soul, she turns out to have a real pride in her craft, but even she is not prepared for the results of her conjuration.

Joanne Manley will be seen as Elvira, the pretty ghost of the first Mrs. Condomine, in the Avon Players production, and Sally McClelland will be seen as Ruth, Wife No. Two. Averyl Clute will portray the hilariously hearty medium, Mme. Arcati, and Gordon Miller will be seen as the constantly perplexed Charles Condomine.

Other roles have been assigned to Ruth Mikesell, Don Baldwin and Peggy Gallagher.

Gordon Miller, in addition to taking part, is directing the production, with Tom Everhard as assistant director, and Beverly Mallory as executive producer.

"Blithe Spirit" will play at the L. E. Smart Sale Farm on West Tienken Road here on May 24, 25 and 26. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. Tickets available from members, or at the door.

Kalamazoo Slaying Remains Unsolved

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Police marked a grim anniversary today — the passage of one year for the unsolved slaying of eight-year-old Jeannie Singleton.

The little second grader disappeared May 23, 1955, after attending classes at Kalamazoo's Woodward Elementary School.

Her beaten body was found nine days later in a dense pine woods in Allegan County. Medical examination showed the child had been criminally assaulted and strangled.

The slayer still is free.

The hunt for him goes on, however. State Police Det. Sgt. Victor Beck of the Paw Paw post comments:

"There isn't a policeman living that wouldn't like to solve this case . . . some day the right clue will be found and everything will fall into place . . . we keep hoping it's tomorrow."

Slate Saturday Dance

METAMORA — The Starlight Ranch Boys of Flint will furnish music for dancing at the VFW hall in Caro on Saturday evening, from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Argentina will have a $60,000,000 steel mill at the deep water Parana River.

Rex Ramsey to Speak at Gideon Gathering

The Pontiac Camp of Gideon and Auxiliary will hold its monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, 369 Marlborough, Bloomfield Twp.

The second state vice president of the Gideons, Rex Ramsey of Detroit, will be attending the meeting.

County Calendar

Four Towns

The Elizabeth Russell Guild is meeting at the Four Towns Methodist Church at 8 p.m. Thursday. Ralph E. Allen will show slides of his recent trip through the Caribbean.

Waterford Township

The Goodwill Club will meet at 1 p.m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. Percy Hunt, 57 Cherokee.

Cohostess for the meeting will be Mrs. George Whitfield.

Girl-Boy Team Named Top Romeo Graduates

NANCY MORAN

CARL REIMANN

ROMEO — Sharing top honors in the June graduating class at Romeo High School are Nancy Moran, 17, who has been named valedictorian and 18-year-old Carl Reimann, salutatorian.

Nancy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank T. Moran of 221 West St. Clair St., compiled an average of 3.816 out of a possible 4.0 during her four years in high school.

She was elected to the National Senior Honor Society in her junior year, and is a cheerleader and flute soloist with the concert band. She plans to attend to University of Michigan where she will major in education.

Carl is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Riemann of 70790 North Van Dyke. His high school scholastic average was 3.758.

Riemann is a member of the Student Council and was also elected to the honor society as a junior. He plans to major in either chemistry or physics at the U of M.

Long Wait Ends as Plane Delivers Adopted Boy

Korean Tot, 3, Brings Joy to Area Couple

By NANCE BELLEFLEUR
South Oakland Correspondent

WARREN TOWNSHIP — Four years of anxious waiting and anticipation ended Saturday when Phillip Lee, 35, a carpenter, and his wife, Mary, 29, of 3112 Bart Street, met their foster son Syung Won Kim for the first time, at Willow Run Airport.

The 3½-year old Korean war orphan, wide-eyed and serious, took immediately to his new parents and the toys they had brought. He was whisked away to his new home, where there is a little blue room just for him, new clothes, and even a new pair of shoes.

The youngster, who looks more like an American than a Korean, is to be known as Wayne Kim Lee.

He was the son of a GI who was killed before he was born. His Korean wife was unable to take care of the child.

The Lees, who have been married six years are childless. They decided four years ago to adopt a Korean orphan after seeing a documentary on CARE packages. Lee said they wanted to do more than send a relief package.

Not knowing quite how to go about it, they wrote to President Eisenhower. The letter was turned over to the State Department and that started the ball rolling.

Six months later a picture of Kim, then six months old, arrived from Mrs. Oak Sung Konk, who is in charge of the Children's Placement Center, Korea. The Lees immediately fell in love with the boy.

With the assistance of a senator, a state representative and the Michigan Children's Aid Society, adoption papers were drawn up, signed, and at last the child was on his way. Said Lee:

"He's a great little guy. And we won't forget the fine cooperation of the Northwest Airlines in getting him here and their generosity in reducing Wayne's fare from $912 to $308."

Oak Park OKs Water Program

$750,000 Plan Would Relieve Shortage; Also Pass $1,222,559 Budget

OAK PARK — A $790,000 water supply improvements program has been approved by the City Council here.

This will include a 4,000,000 gallon underground storage tank, a new pumping station and five miles of transmission mains to provide high water pressure during summer months.

Plans are under way for a $700,000 bond issue to provide part of the money for the new system. Water department funds will cover the balance, city officials said.

City Manager Harold K. Schone said today the average homeowner will pay an additional 35 per cent on water bills for the new system, and pay an extra $12 a year to pay off the bond issue.

The City Council also adopted a budget of $1,222,559, which is $157,843 more than last year. However, tax rate will remain the same—$21.35 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation—Schone said.

Celebrities Due to Launch Event

To Pick Beauty Queen, Other Firsts in Boat Race of Year

MILFORD — This town is preparing for one of the biggest events of the year—the fifth annual Paddle Push, on Sunday June 10.

Governor Williams and other state officials are expected to get things under way as 86 contestants launch their canoes in the Huron River at the bridge in the heart of Milford.

Mort Neff, of television fame, will also be on hand with his crew to record the progress of the race, which will begin at 2 o'clock, rain or shine.

In the high school, an air of excitement prevails, as students wonder which of the five pretty girls already selected, will be the queen of the Paddle Push. This is the first time that the affair has had a beauty queen and merchants are giving ballots listing the girls' names to customers.

The Junior class has charge of a refreshment stand at both the starting point and the finish line at the parking lot at Grand River. This is another 'first' as the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority does not usually permit concessions in the park, according to Charles Newell, chairman of the Paddle Push.

The 'Push' is sponsored by the Milford Board of Commerce in conjunction with the Detroit Youth Hostel and draws entries from all over the state, Ohio and Canada. It is one of the largest boat races of its kind in the United States, according to committee officials.

Canoes will move in heats of six, with four minutes between each heat. Competition will be against time. Teams will paddle down an 8-mile course, and canoes will be kept in the river at all times, except for two liftovers around the Ford Power Dam and Road No. 5.

After inspection, each canoe will have a number affixed to it for identification and the course will be followed by photographers and newsmen. Dr. Ben Bragg will have ham radio operators stationed along strategic points to broadcast the progress of the race.

WATER SPORTS SHOW

One hour of water sports entertainment will precede the race, and trophies will be given for the best times in each of the classifications, plus a special award to each person who competes.

The prizes will be awarded during the meal served by the Hostelers at Arrowhead Lodge. Anyone wishing to join the Hostelers and race entries may do so for the cost of the meal. Reservations must be made in advance, according to Newell.

'Silk Stockings' Lined Up for Fred Astaire and Cyd

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — You can imagine the delight of Arthur Freed at getting Fred Astaire to co-star with Cyd Charisse in "Silk Stockings," the Cole Porter musical.

The deal is all but worked out for Paramount to postpone "Papa's Delicate Condition" until after Fred moves to MGM for "Silk Stockings" in September.

"Silk Stockings" is based on Greta Garbo's comedy "Ninotchka." This was one of the last pictures she made for MGM and a very amusing satire on communism.

A happy girl is Mrs. Edgar Bergen who goes to Munich with June Allyson to play a very important part in "Interlude," Junie's U-I picture.

"I didn't get this job," Frances told me, "because Dick and June are Edgar's and my best friends. I tested for Douglas Sirk and I was chosen from a number of other girls who were up for the part."

Frances says that Edgar will join her later and that she has to to be in Munich by June 14. "I wanted to take our daughter Candy with me but she wanted to go to a girls' camp in preference to seeing Europe," said Frances.

OFF FOR EUROPE

Mary Pickford telephoned me to say au revoir. She and Buddy Rogers sail June 8 on the SS United States, stopping first at Fairford, England, to visit Buddy's brother, Lt. Bruce Rogers, who is stationed there.

"We go on to Barcelona where Errol Flynn's yacht is anchored," Mary told me. "We've chartered it for the season, and we also have a house at Majorca where my niece Gwynne's three children and our Roxanne will spend the summer with us. Buddy plans to film scenes for his next picture, 'The Conquest of the Deep,' on the Riviera."

Whatever else is said about Dick Haymes he certainly has a way with the ladies. Jackie Lougherty, just before she planed out for New York Friday, said that because of her romance with Dick she hasn't been dating anyone else. She has been seeing him for about three months.

Apropos of Haymes, he and Rita Hayworth were supposed to deliver a picture June 1 to United Artists. That was part of their deal.

Now, of course, Rita won't make a picture with her ex-husband and the expensive question is—what will happen now?

GETTING WELL

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Chief Justice Earl Warren's daughter Dorothy, who recently married Dr. Carmine Clemente of UCLA, is recovering from foot surgery at the Santa Monica Hospital.

Same hospital, Cecil Kellaway, who entered a week ago, is recovering satisfactorily from major abdominal surgery.

At the Bantam Cock, Norma Brasselle, recently divorced from Keefe Brasselle, with young actor Michael Stewart.

Anna Maria Alberghetti goes blonde for "A Bell for Adano" which she is doing on TV June 2 with Barry Sullivan. Anna Maria's father came home from the hospital Saturday and she's very happy.

Congratulations tomorrow to Jimmy Gleason who is 74 years young. Would be nice if all Jimmy's friends would send him a birthday greeting to 236 Oakhurst Dr., Beverly Hills.

The briefest wardrobe fitting in history was given Stewart Granger whose clothes consist of a dozen pair of monogrammed shorts for "The Little Hut," the picture he'll make with Ava Gardner.

The eldest son of John Wayne, Michael, graduates next month from Loyola University.

Back from England, Fess ("Davy Crockett") Parker is riding a 10-speed bicycle, and is still dating Marcie Rinehart.

Bus Crashes in Alps Killing 18 Austrians

BOLZANO, Italy (AP) — Eighteen Austrians died last night when a tourist bus plunged from a road and dropped 45 feet into an Alpine stream south of the Brenner Pass. The other 26 persons aboard the bus were injured.

Some of the victims drowned in a foot and a half of water that swirled through the overturned vehicle where they lay trapped and injured.

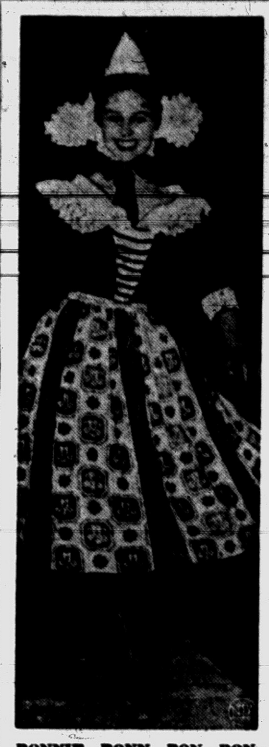

An Auster aircraft fitted with skis and ambulance gear has been ordered by the Austrian Red Cross from England for rescue duties in the Alps, Vienna learns.

Philippines, Chiang Hassle Over Islands

MANILA (AP) — The Philippine Foreign Office withheld comment today on Nationalist China's claim to an uninhabited island empire which a Filipino civilian has staked out as his "by virtue of discovery and occupancy."

Chinese Ambassador Chen Chi-mai protested the claim of Tomas Cloma, who explored the islands in the South China Sea in March. Chen said in a note the Formosa government considers the claim an infringement on Chinese territorial rights.

Despite the protest, the Foreign Office went ahead with plans for a high-level huddle Friday to consider the merits of Cloma's claim.

The sprawling group of islands, shoals and sandbars lies west of the southwestern Philippine island of Palawan in an unsurveyed area avoided by shipping as dangerous.

Tigers and Stadium Still Looking for Buyers

DETROIT (AP)—The name of Briggs has long been synonymous with big-time baseball, but because it is not a "prudent" investment, lawyers now say the heirs of Walter O. Briggs must sell the Detroit Baseball Co.

The Detroit Tigers and Briggs Stadium have been on the selling block for some time and in the past weeks about 30 groups have shown an interest in buying. But the more talk there is of a sale, the more it becomes evident that Briggs' son, Walter O. (Spike) Jr., is looking for a way to stay in the business of baseball.

The younger Briggs, now 44, is president of the Baseball Company and a member of its board of directors.

Although the courts have never ruled officially that the Briggs family must dispose of the Tigers, sale talk reached the serious stage not long ago when a form letter went out to prospective bidders announcing that the Tigers were ready to entertain offers.

Even before that about 30 persons showed what Briggs described as "some kind of interest" in buying the club. But the offers have dwindled considerably now that would-be owners must meet several stipulations, chief of which is the placing in escrow of $250,000 in "good faith" money.

Briggs believes that "five or six groups at the most are really serious about it."

"Most of the others," he said, "are just out for publicity."

Some actually have put up the money, but Briggs said he cannot reveal just yet who they are.

The elder Briggs and his wife both died within the last few years and their estates still are not settled. The vast Briggs holdings must go into a trust fund for the heirs, including Walter Jr. and his four sisters. Family lawyers have advised that baseball stock is not eligible for such a fund.

They noted that last year for the first time in about 20 years the baseball company paid its stockholders a dividend. Briggs said the club earned "about 10 per cent before taxes on an investment of six million dollars."

Because of the trust arrangement, Briggs says he personally can't purchase the club. But it is quite apparent that although he feels it is inevitable, he does not want to sell the Tigers. It is just as clear that even if another group purchases the club, he still would like to remain a part of it, perhaps as general manager.

Briggs is insistent that the Tigers and club properties would not necessarily go to the highest bidder.

"It must be someone either a native of Michigan or someone who has spent a lot of time here and is interested in the ball team, the fans and the city," he said.

One potential buyer which might meet these qualifications is the Detroit Lions Professional Football Club. The Lions have expressed what general Manager Nick Kerbawy calls "an unofficial interest" in the purchase of the Tiger franchise. Under this proposal, the city of Detroit would take over Briggs Stadium.

Kerbawy said the Lions' 13-member board of directors would meet "within the next week or so" to iron out "a couple of questions about financing." If the board can reach a solution, Kerbawy said, the Lions will put the required $250,000 in escrow and make their move toward the purchase official.

At any rate, Briggs said he believes the whole matter of the sale can be "cleared up" by the end of the current baseball season—roughly four months hence.

THE POWERHOUSE

By JIMMY POWERS

It apparently disturbs some clients when we call attention to turnstile counts at baseball and racing. Inevitably the query comes: "Close those pari-mutuel windows and how many do you think would stay to watch the horses run?"

Well, I have no idea. It just so happens betting definitely is an integral part of racing, just as penny ante is part of poker or dollar Nassau is part of golf.

There always are small wagers at gin rummy, pinochle or bridge, and a man is a "gambler"—horrid word to some—whether he bets a dime or a thousand, so who is patronizing whom around here?

I note the bright young brains of our community seem to know where the higher bracket incomes lie and I was thinking of this the other night as I sat out under the stars at Roosevelt Raceway.

There was the usual crowd, twice or three times the turnstile average this spring at Ebbets Field or the Polo Grounds, or even Yankee Stadium, for that matter.

After all, speaking of harness racing alone, and leaving Belmont and Jamaica out of it, more people attended harness races last year at Yonkers and Roosevelt than attended games at our three major league ball parks. It is all there in the tax figures at Albany.

Now, for those bright young men who can smell money. Can you remember when it seemed every trot driver was a veritable Methuselah?

Those old-pappy guys in the sulky always made me think they were backwoods prototypes of Guy Kibbee and Slim Summerville.

Well, get hep to 1956, chum. Youth has come on so fast in modern night racing there is not one top-notch oldster locally in the higher echelon of drivers. This is certainly different from 1940, when racing first came to Long Island.

Two of the most successful young men in the sport are Stanley Dancer and Billy Haughton. Their doings are as familiar to as many people, perhaps, as the feats of our big time jockeys, trainers, ball players or boxers.

STAN AND BILL IN UPPER BRACKETS

Dancer is 28, Haughton 32. They make a good living, sums most pro athletes would love to be able to bank. Last year Haughton collected $599,445 in purse money and Dancer $378,028. Out of this each received 10 per cent, plus hefty fees for training, which pushed each well above the $150,000-a-year-income level.

Using their current rate as a gauge for the season, they should do even better this year. Both are close friends, despite their keen rivalry. Both started as grooms. Sixteen years ago Haughton was earning $7 a week as a groom at an upstate fair grounds.

Today Haughton pays his own grooms $65 to $80 a week. Haughton was glad to get the $7 while on vacations from Cobleskill College where he studied animal husbandry. After college, he struck out on his own. Since first appearing at Westbury, Haughton has won more than $2,225,000 in purse money!

Wilson's 2-Run Homer Nips Yanks, 3-2

DETROIT (AP) — No one felt too sorry in Briggs Stadium when Red Wilson exploded a two-run, 9th inning home run to wreck Whitey Ford's six-game winning streak. They were too busy thinking that it's high time Frank Lary was blessed with a little luck.

The determined Detroit Tiger righthander got the 3-2 victory against the New York Yankees yesterday in much the same fashion he lost so many tough ones over the past two seasons.

The soft-spoken 25-year-old from Tuscaloosa, Ala., has dropped nine one-run decisions since coming to the Tigers last season. The victory yesterday was only Lary's second against five losses this season. Both of the triumphs were against the New Yorkers, and if Lary isn't careful he'll get the reputation of "Yankee killer."

He defeated the Bombers twice last season and lost to them once. Ford's loss was his first of the season after six consecutive sins—all of which were complete games.

Until the 8th inning, the Yankee lefthander was coasting along with a 2-run lead and a 3-hit shutout. It looked like Lary, who had allowed the Yanks two first-inning runs on four hits, would lose again although he more than matched Ford after the opening frame.

Harvey Kuenn, who always hits well against Ford, opened the 8th with his second single of the game. After Jim Brideweser fanned, Al Kaline and Bill Tuttle came through with singles to make it 2-1.

That's the way it stood going into the Detroit 9th. Lary had retired the last 10 men he faced and scattered three singles over the last eight innings.

Then Charlie Maxwell started the 9th with a double to left center. When Mickey Mantle, who flopped at the plate in four trips, let the ball get by him, Maxwell took third.

Wilson, who had been to the plate only 24 times this season, wasted no time. He picked on Ford's first pitch, a breaking ball up around the letters, and drilled it into the lower left field deck to dump the Yankees to their first loss after six straight successes.

Detroit manager Bucky Harris, who led the Yankees to the pennant in 1947 and was fired after finishing 3rd the next season, was jubilant in the clubhouse.

"Maybe things are starting to break our way a little," said Harris. "When you beat the Yankees like this, it has to do something for you."

• • •

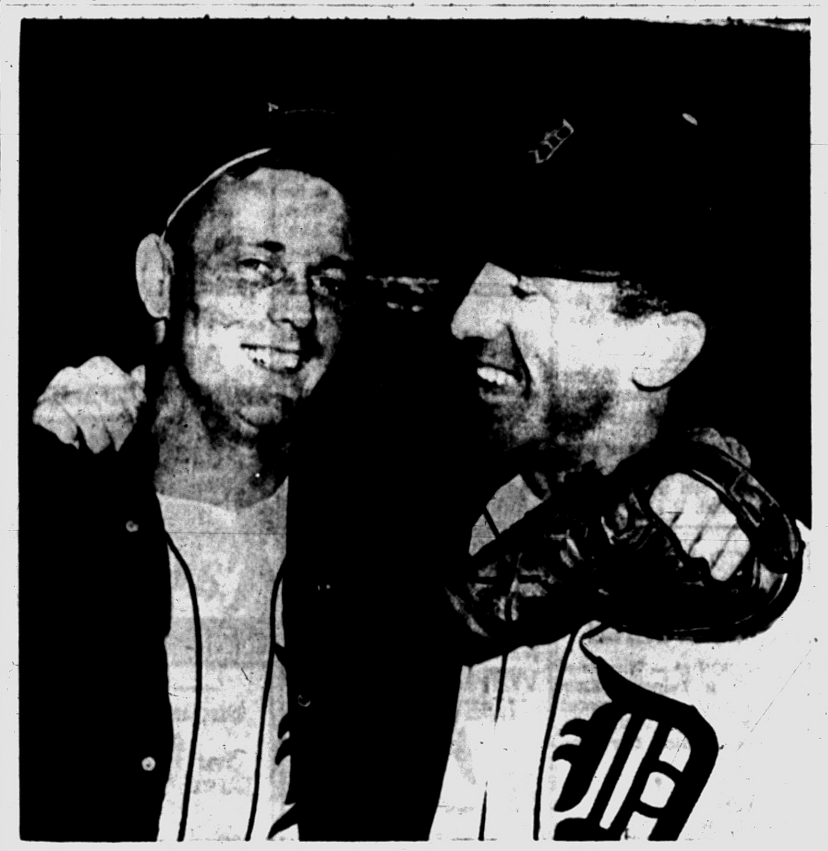

The Tigers, notoriously weak against southpaws early in the season, have turned the tables in that department. They have beaten Baltimore's Don Ferrarese, Washington's Pedro Ramos and Ford after the Yankees had whipped Cleveland's Early Wynn.

Detroit Heavy Puts Streak on Line

DETROIT (AP)—Johnny Summerlin puts an 11-fight winning streak on the line tonight at Detroit's Olympia when he engages young Harold Carter in a 10-round heavyweight elimination bout.

Undefeated since 1954 and winner of 29 in a 35-fight career dating back to 1950, Summerlin has boxed about 75 rounds for this one. On the other hand, the 22-year-old Carter, who has had only 21 bouts, got in only two days of work.

He was rushed in last Friday as a substitute for veteran Bob Satterfield of Chicago, who withdrew because he said his elbow hurt. Michigan doctors could find nothing wrong with the elbow, but said there was no point in forcing Satterfield to fight.

Managers of both fighters say this is "the big chance" for the young heavyweights. It will be the first nationally televised (ABC, 9 p.m., EST) bout for each.

Carter's co-manager, Gene Holmes, said the short-notice bout is "both good and bad. We don't have a chance to worry or build up tension. On the other hand, we don't have time to do any planning."

Carter's last fight was in March, when he decisioned Satterfield in Miami. His manager said a win over Summerlin would "give us reason to think that we're ready to step up a little bit and challenge someone else."

But Summerlin's manager, Frank Loftus, had different ideas. Said Loftus:

"Give us a good win over Carter and we're ready to holler for the title. The big heavyweights have been ducking us. A win tonight and they can't get out of it anymore."

For the record, Summerlin has 29 victories, 4 losses and 2 draws in 35 fights. The 24-year-old Detroiter won 19 by knockouts. Carter has 18 victories, 1 loss and 2 draws in 21 fights. Half his triumphs came on knockouts.

Michigan uses the 10-must scoring system with the winner of a round getting 10 points.

Franklin, Lunsford Get Easy Wins in Slugfest Softball Games

Pitchers took a back seat and hitters had a picnic as Franklin Products, Lunsford Market, Louie's Tavern, and the Pulver Tire girls won slugfests in Tuesday night's City Softball League games at Beaudette and North Side Parks.

Franklin Products chased eight runs across the plate in the 3rd inning to rack up a 12-9 victory over Oxbow Pavilion in a 5-inning encounter and Lunsford Market easily downed Pontiac Select a Drink, 9-6, in National division scraps at Beaudette.

Louie's Tavern collected 19 hits and scored 10 runs in the 6th inning to hang up an 18-4 verdict over Richard's Tavern in a National loop tussle at North Side. McLeod homered for the winners in the 2nd inning.

Pulver Tire walloped Michigan Bell, 24-1, in a girls league game at North Side. Pulvers banged out 15 hits, including a 2nd-inning home run by Wasik.

Catcher Charley Thompson has had four trials with the Brooklyn Dodgers but didn't get into a major league game until this season when he joined the Kansas City Athletics.

The 30-year-old native of Coalport, Pa., broke into organized ball with Cambridge, Md., in 1947. He had trials with the Dodgers in 1950, 1954, 1955 and this spring. Last season he batted .313 in 121

Olympic Medals, Baseball, Medicine Sime's Targets

DURHAM, N.C. (AP)—Dave Sime, Duke University's world record-smashing sprinter, has set a three-pronged goal for himself. He wants to win three gold medals in the Melbourne Olympics, play center field for a major league baseball team and then become a doctor.

Rated an outstanding diamond prospect, he has been approached by each of the major league clubs and offered as much as $30,000 to sign a contract.

"I don't want to say who made the biggest offer," the tall, good-looking sophomore said today. "But it doesn't make any difference. My main aim at the moment is to go to the Olympics."

The 19-year-old redhead from Fair Lawn, N.J., just outside New York, stacks up as the greatest Olympic prospect America has produced since Jesse Owens won three championships and shared in another in the 1936 games at Berlin.

Sime is exceptionally big for a sprinter, 6-3 and 185 pounds compared with Owens' 5-11 and 165. But a sleek, supple body and a burning urge to excel have made him the nation's most heralded track ace.

Coachers Hand Local CIO 594, 15-5 Defeat in City Play

General Motors gives strong indication that it's aiming for another Class A City Baseball League championship. The Coachers handed the CIO Local 594 a 15-5 thrashing Tuesday night at Wisner Field in a game stopped after six innings due to darkness.

The defending champions lashed out with an 11-hit attack off the combined slants of Art Capogna and Kenny Orr, including two triples and a double, and picked up five blows in the 2nd inning when 14 men batted and 10 of them scored.

Dick Goldsworthy hurled the distance for GMC and had a shutout until the 4th stanza when the union club tallied four runs. The tall righthander limited the CIO to four safeties and struck out seven. It was GMC's 2nd win in as many starts.

The Anderson Jets meet the Elks No. 723 in tonight's game on the Wisner diamond at 5:30 p.m.

Hamtramck Girl Favored

Net Test Begins Thursday

A 14-year-old Hamtramck champion will be everyone's target when the Michigan State Open tennis tournament for girls 15 years of age and under starts Thursday at Kingswood School, Cranbrook.

Virginia Hesse, seeded No. 1, will be shooting for her 4th championship of the year against 48 other netters, including seven seeded stars. Only last Sunday Miss Hesse won the older girl's tourney on the Cranbrook courts.

The other seeded players with title ambitions are Bonnie Ellis of Chicago; Gay Miller of La-Grange, Ill.; Virginia Dykes and Joyce Kowall, both of Hamtramck; and Helen Lowry, Linda Nein and Anne Lawson, all from Middletown, O.

Eight Oakland County girls will see action, seven from Rochester and one from Birmingham. Rochester entries are Karen Henderson, Shirley Wooten, Carol Pearce, Allison Weeber, Marcia Seed, Jill Thomas and Susan Schecte. The lone Birmingham player is Whitney Walker. There are 15 entries from host Kingswood.

CLAIMS ELIGIBILITY — Star back of the U. C. L. A. Bruins, Ronnie Knox, tells newsman during an interview on the campus, that "I did not get one cent more than the $75 a month distributed by the Associated Students under Pacific Coast Conference rules." The interview was prompted when the conference ruled that the entire Bruin varsity football squad will lose a year's eligibility unless they can prove they received no illegal financial aid.

Eight Schools in Conference Imposed Fines

Washington State Only One of 9 Given Clean Bill of Health

VICTORIA, B.C. (AP)—The Pacific Coast Conference fathers who yesterday spanked all but one member school, two of them for the second time, closed up the woodshed today and turned to the nicer things of the sporting world.

The punishment dealt eight of the nine PCC members yesterday constituted a light tap on the wallet for stumbling over rules, with the entire tab totaling only $4,900.

The finer things in today's "lose ends" agenda included items like "wrestling and water polo" and what should be done about football scouting, etc.

The fines imposed in the final session came as the conference answer to the burning question of "who's next?"

Washington had been deprived of an estimated $52,000 in Rose Bowl receipts and placed on probation for two years early in May. Last weekend, the conference handed UCLA a 3-year probation, fined it $15,000 outright and took away some $78,000 in Rose Bowl receipts for the three years to come.

Both schools were found guilty of paying athletes in violation of the conference athletic code. The latest list of fines included nothing so outrageous.

California was nicked $1,550 for "improper issue of complimentary tickets, irregularities in the campus labor program for athletes and for permitting an off-campus interview with an athlete." In varying degree, these were the offenses of the others.

Washington State College was the only school given a clean bill of health. Washington and UCLA were hit again, the former for $250 and UCLA for $350.

"This," quipped Dr. Joseph Kaplan, official conference representative for UCLA, "is only a decimal point."

Little Idaho, which gets only a partial share of Rose Bowl receipts and plays a curtailed conference football schedule, ranked second to California with a fine of $1,000 for "irregularities in the campus labor program."

Oregon State was hit for $650. Southern California for $500, Oregon $350 and Stanford $250.

Most of the college representatives attending this spring session believed the fines were just.

SAFE CROSSING HOME — Frank Robinson, Cincinnati Redlegs' fleet outfielder is safe at home when New York Giant catcher Wes Westrum loses the ball at the Polo Grounds yesterday. Robinson scored on a fly and would have been out on the throw from Willie Mays except for the error. Cincinnati won, 6-3.

Beat Titans, 7-3

'M' Soph Hits 450-Footer

DETROIT (AP) — Husky Steve Boros, sophomore third baseman from Flint, socked what was probably the longest home run ever on the University of Detroit diamond to spark Michigan to a 7-3 victory over the Titans yesterday.

Boros' clout in the first inning sailed over the left field fence, a distance of about 450 feet. Lloyd Brazil, U. of D. baseball coach since the mid-'20s, said it was the first time he had ever seen a home run clear the fence.

The homer and a triple by Kent Tippery gave Michigan three runs in the first inning.

The Wolverines added four more in the 8th on successive doubles by Boros, Al Sigman and Bob Sealby, a pair of singles and three Detroit errors.

A hit batsman, two singles and a double by rightfielder Dick Pilarski accounted for the Titans' three runs, all in the second inning.

Jim Clark, who entered the game in the second, collected the victory, giving up only two hits in seven innings. Fred Crissey, who allowed nine blows, absorbed the loss.

Ottawa Stands Pat on Tracy

Canadian Club Prexy Claims Support From Bert Bell in Case

OTTAWA (AP) — President Sam Berger of the Ottawa Rough Riders said last night Commissioner Bert Bell of the National Football League considers fullback Tom Tracy the property of the Ottawa club.

Tracy, who came to Riders last year from the University of Tennessee, now is reported interested in joining the Detroit Lions of the NFL.

Berger told a gathering of football fans he talked with Bell about the case recently, adding:

* * *

"Bert Bell told me he considers Tracy our property and if he wants to play for Detroit he will not play football at all. He told me that personally."

California Prepster Pole Vaults 14½ Feet

RICHMOND, Calif. (AP) — Jim Matjeka, a senior from Sequoia High School at Redwood City, Calif., last night made the second highest pole vault ever recorded by a high school boy.

Matjeka vaulted 14 feet ½ inch at the El Cerrito Relays.

The high school record is 14 feet 2 inches by Jim Brewer of North Phoenix, Ariz.

Just Rumors

Senators Squelch Talk of Financial Troubles

WASHINGTON (AP)—Cities yearning for a big league baseball team had this bit of advice today: Don't look to Washington for a franchise.

The Washington Senators acted yesterday to squelch talk that they're in financial difficulties and in the face of dwindling attendance, are searching for a way out.

"Careless rumors," the club said in a carefully prepared statement prompted by a California congressman's suggestion that Los Angeles put in a bid for Washington's American League rights.

Club President Calvin Griffith and other members of the Griffith clan that owns controlling interest in the Senators collaborated on the statement. It declared:

"The Washington ball club has never considered and does not contemplate transferring its franchise to Los Angeles or any other city. Reports to the contrary are baseless, without foundation."

Rep. Hillings (R-Calif) earlier in the day had wired Mayor Norris Poulson of Los Angeles saying Griffith and company faced a "serious crisis" caused by what Hillings called "lack of interest" in the ball club's fortunes.

The Senators' management retorted that it "faces no crisis whatsoever" and maintained attendance is above the total at his stage a year ago.

Hillings' move followed a published report that dwindling crowds ta Griffith Stadium, scarcely stimulated by the team's extended stay in the second division, may lead to a shift of scenery.

Nowhere in the statement did Griffith say specifically that the Senators are not for sale. But the tone of the 250-word declaration refuted that possibility.

Take 6-1 Victory at Flint; Oppose Cranes Today

PHS tennis team made its season's mark a good 6-2 in Valley competition yesterday in the league finale at Flint Northern. Coach Vic Lindquist's crew came within one match of shutting out the Vikings, who took one singles match in the 6-1 court. Chiefs' season mark is 6-3.

Ted Wiersema turned in the feature effort with his win over Ed Jordan 6-4, 4-6, 7-5. Ted trailed in the last set 5-1 before wearing down Jordan for the win. Bob Erb's 1-6, 6-4, 6-4 win over Jim Harrington also was a good match.

Other results:

Bill Bonner lost to Kurt Gropendrog 6-1, 9-7; Gary Thomas def. Bob Kribs 7-5, 6-3; Gary Wylie def. Fred Burgett 7-5, 7-5; doubles — John Doerr - Dave Scrivens def. Gary Jesick-Dave Ruhala 6-3, 6-1; Dick Mallory-Fred Roeser def. Dick Koch-Dennis Whittington 7-5, 6-0.

Baseball Veteran Hurt

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Baseball veteran Thomas J. Hickey, 94, is recovering here from a hip fracture suffered while he was vacationing near St. George, Utah.

Hickey founded the Western, American and National Assns. of Professional Baseball Leagues.

He was treated in Utah, then brought by ambulance to orthopedic hospital here.

Intentions to Quit Baseball Out for Maglie

BROOKLYN (AP)—Sal Maglie said today he had made up his mind to quit baseball at the end of this season but all thoughts of retirement vanished with the sale of his contract to the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The 39-year-old former Dodger killer joined his new club yesterday, pitched batting practice only hours after his arrival, and reported his arm felt "better now than it has in three years."

The veteran righthander, several days late in reporting due to the death of his father in Niagara Falls, N.Y., is scheduled to make his first start in a Brooklyn uniform against his former New York Giant teammates at the Polo Grounds next Saturday.

The banquet gets under way at 6:30 p.m.

Crary 7th, 8th Graders Beat Van Dyke in Track

Winning five out of nine events and tying for 1st place in another, Isaac Crary's 7th and 8th grade track team defeated Van Dyke in a dual meet, 48-29.

Benson Weedon won the 50-yard dash, tied for 1st in the pole vault, and anchored the winning 440 relay team to score 10¼ points for Crary. Other Crary winners were Tim Underwood in the high jump, Stephen Hale in the shot put, and Mike Sickels in the 35-yard dash.

Trophies Awarded for Season's Races

Racing trophies were awarded over the weekend for roller skaters accumulating most points in six final events, starting in September and ending in May at Rolladium rink. Second highest received silver medals.

Grand trophy winners, all unbeaten in their divisions, with perfect 310 scores are: Cecilia Darimont and Lynn Marchewka who tied for girls' honors; David Marchewka, boys' champion.

Second place winners are Patty Blazek and Charles Parker.

Boycott Hurts South Loop

NEW ORLEANS (INS) — An unofficial but highly effective boycott of Southern Association baseball games by Negroes forced several club officials to admit today that unless attendance picks up the League may be forced to fold.

The boycott, which began in New Orleans last year without fanfare or publicity, has been kept under close wraps by team and League officials who fear it may spread.

International News Service has learned that the boycott has cut deeply into attendance figures, in some cases as much as 20 per cent less than last year.

The boycott is in protest over segregated seating arrangements and the lack of a single Negro player on any of the eight teams in the Leaegue.

Earl Mann, general manager of the Atlanta Crackers, said "the entire Southern Association may have to fold unless more fans start coming to games."

Vincent Rizzo, general manager of the New Orleans Pelicans, said, "there is definitely a boycott bu I don't want to comment on it further."

Clarence Laws, Louisiana field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said the boycott has been about 95 per cent effective in New Orleans.

The boycott started at New Orleans last season when five prospective Negro players were dropped from the Pelicans roster before the season opened. Club officials called a conference with Negro leaders to settle the conflict.

Latest official attendance figures show a drastic 20 per cent drop in attendance so far this season, compared with a three per cent increase for the same period in 1955.

Dodgers Slip to 4th in NL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It looks as if all Hank Aaron needed to shake loose from Milwaukee's list of slumpin' sluggers was a taste of Brooklyn pitching — just as Dodger manager Walt Alston feared.

Aaron, the Braves' 22-year-old clouter who hadn't been over .300 since the 4th game of the season, put himself right with a rousing four-for-five — a home run, double and two singles—as the National League leading Braves pushed the Brooks into 4th place 7-3 last night. It was Henry's first four-hit game of the season and upped his average 31 points to .313.

His stickwork helped the Braves gain a slim 23-point edge over the runnerup St. Louis.

The Cardinals ended a three-game Pittsburgh winning streak 6-3, despite a homerun, double and single by the Pirates' Dale Long, who gained the Major League lead with a .411 bat mark. Cincinnati took over 3rd, a half-game ahead of the Brooks, by beating the New York Giants 6-3.

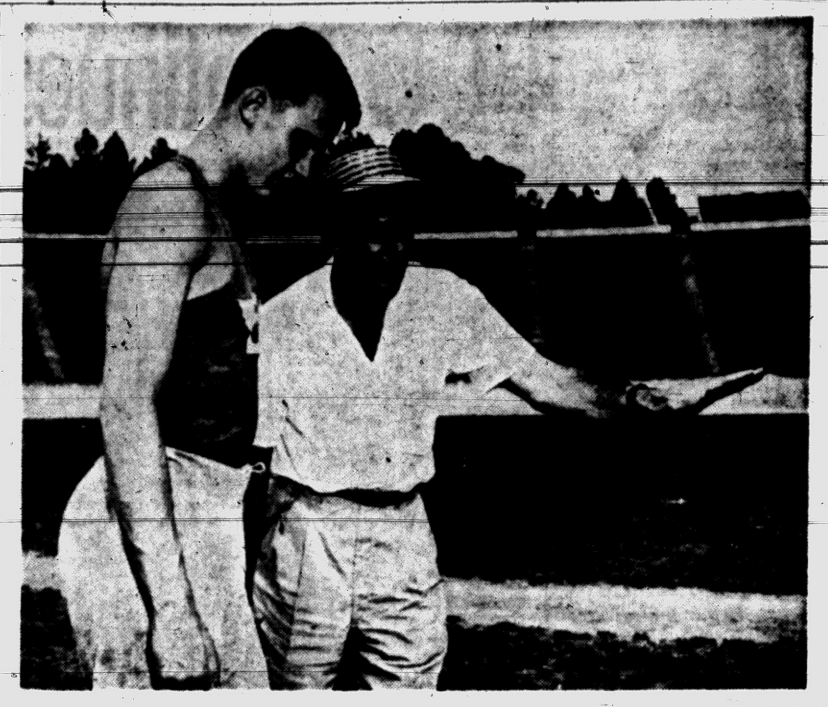

In the American, Detroit catcher Red Wilson hammered a two-run homer in the 9th to end six-game winning streaks by Whitey Ford and the New York Yankees 3-2. The Yanks retained their 2½ game lead over second place Cleveland, however, as Boston beat the Indians 5-3. Kansas City beat Washington 6-1.

The Cards beat the Bucs and Vern Law with a two-run 7th. Stan Musial's second single scored the clincher as Herm Wehmeier, with an assist from Jackie Collum, won his first. With a winning streak going and Long's bat booming, 19,316 fans turned out — the largest Pittsburgh night-game crowd since 1952.

Tom Brewer tripped the Indians for the 6th straight time, winning his 5th decision of the season. He needed Dave Sisler's relief in the 9th, however. A two-run clout by Billy Goodman — his first homer since Sept. 18, 1954, a span of 184 games — provided Boston's edge.

Early Wynn, victim of three unearned runs in the first, lost his second in six decisions.

Rookie Troy Herriage gave Washington just three hits for his first Major League victory. The A's only had four hits — but also got 11 walks off four Nat hurlers. Herriage walked five for a total of 16 in the game.

PHS Non-Grads Hit Snag in Valley Track Contest

By H. GUY MOATS

Of all things—during this year of prep track supremacy for Pontiac High School—a Chief track squad has met defeat. And in the last event of the shining season!

It wasn't the "big" team that has carried the Pontiac colors to the pinnacle in Valley, state and at the nationally-rated Mansfield, Ohio relays. The squad, composed of those remaining in competition for next year was runnerup at Flint Northern's track, yesterday afternoon in the annual SVC non-graduate event.

Vikings won 68 and ¾ points to Chiefs' 42 and 1-10. Other points—Bay City 31 and 1-10; Central 26 and 3-5; Saginaw 16 and 3-5 and Arthur Hill 16.

Northern's win points to what the Vikings will offer next season, when they have been picked as the Valley powerhouse. PHS, however, won't be any pushover, at that even with the loss of Hayes Jones and other top performers. That, too was indicated in Tuesday's meet.

Chiefs won one 440 race (Archie Brooks, 52.2); Pete Cox was 2nd in one 880 at 2:09.9; Hud Ray won the high jump at six feet.

Northern got five firsts, Jim Sharpe in the 1st 440 at 51.5 (NG record); John Dennis in the 220 (22.3); Arden Relaford, shot (51 feet 6 and 7-8); and both relays (880, at 1:33.6, medley 2:36.4).

Namon Smith, Bay City, won the 100 (10 flat); also low hurdler (19.9); Copus Robinson (FC) won high hurdles (15.3); Kowiak (BC) won mile (4:51.5); 1st 880, Rogers (FC) at 2:08.0; pole vault, won by Smith (Sag) 10 feet 6 inches; broad jump went to N. Smith (BC) 21 feet.

Other Pontiac point winners:

Lessie Watkins 5th in high hurdles; Rog Coats 3rd in 1st 880 race; pole vault, Charles Seyler, Ken Beattie (5-way tie 2nd); Alex Barge 2nd high jump; Charley Barge 3rd high jump; Jerry Covington tie for 4th (5-way) high jump; Brooks 2nd broad jump (20 feet 1⅛ inches) Ray 3rd in 220; Jim Keller 4th in 220; C. Barge tie 5th in 220; shot-put, Mike Hardiman 2nd (47 feet 2 inches).

Pontiac Cycle Races Sunday

The Pontiac Motorcycle club will hold its 2nd annual scramble race Sunday at 2:00 p.m. on the course located at Auburn and Opdyke roads.

Workouts will begin at 1:00 p.m. and 10 events are scheduled with the field of riders divided into two classes.

The lightweight class comprises those from 125 cc to 350 cc and the heavyweight class are those from 350 cubic centimeters to 750 cc.

Among the local riders, members of the club who will compete are, George Rallis, Ronnie Moore and Roy Wallace of Pontiac, Bud Raymond of Lake Orion and Jack Austerman of Detroit.

BEST HOPE — Considered one of the best swimmers in the country today, George Breen of Cortland State Teachers College in N. Y., is also rated the best U. S. Olympic prospect.

Notre Dame has sent 10 players into professional football with the Cleveland Browns.

Mikes Overpower Rams; Imlay Wins Meet

St. Michael's track team captured 11 out of 12 events Tuesday at Wisner Field to overwhelm St. Frederick in a dual meet, 84½-15½.

An effort of 18 feet 8¾ inches in the broad jump by Andre Landry was the only victory the southsiders could muster against their cross-town rival as the Shamrocks dominated the remaining events.

Mike Lyons and Mike Clever were double winners, Lyons won the 120-yard high hurdles and the 180 low sticks while Clever took the 100 and 220 dashes.

Chuck Steinhelper won the mile run, Chuck Brown took the 440, Ed Lauinger grabbed 880 honors, Dan Dropps cleared 5 feet 6 inches to win the high jump, and Larry Mason won the shot put.

The victorious medley relay team of Dick Plourde, Bob Mineweaser, Dropps, and Dick Pifer posted the time of 2:57.4 and the 880 relay squad of Clever, Bill Hall, Dropps, and Brown won its event with a clocking of 1:38.

Imlay City won the South Central Conference track championship by rolling up 60 points in the league meet at Imlay City. North Branch took runner-up honors with 42 points, Oxford finished 3rd with 30, Millington scored 28, and Ortonville tallied 27.

Balance won for the Spartans as they accumulated three 1st places, four runner-up spots, six 3rds, and five 4ths. Imlay's Bob Lindsey won the shot put and broad jump and took individual scoring honors with 13¼ points.

The only other double winner was Jim Ferrier of North Branch, who took the 100 and 220 dashes. Oxford had three winners—Gingell in the mile, Thomas in the high hurdles, and the medley relay team. Burns won the high jump and Porter took the 440 for Ortonville.

Bob Lumsden won four events and set two records as Detroit Thurston defeated Southfield in a dual meet, 56½-52½. Lumsden set records in the broad jump and pole vault and also captured the high jump and low hurdles.

Waterford's baseball team crushed Van Dyke, 18-0, in an Inter-Lakes Conference game at Van Dyke. Jerry Kruskie hurled a four-hit shutout for the Skippers, his 3rd of the season and 6th whitewashing served up by Waterford pitching.

First baseman Jerry Harnack clouted a three-run homer and added a triple and two singles in five trips to the plate as the Skippers won their 7th league game in eight starts. Waterford scored seven runs in the 1st inning and six in the 7th.

Birmingham nosed out East Detroit, 6-5, in an eight-inning Eastern Michigan League game at East Detroit. Larry Hower, who relieved starter Larry Milford in the 5th stanza, was the winning pitcher.

Royal Oak St. Mary threw the Suburban Catholic League baseball race into a two-way tie for 1st place by blanking Hazel Park St. Rita, 8-0. Each team now has a 6-1.

He Moves Rapidly

Jimmy Clemmons, Florence golfer, went by two Fords to win the South Carolina state amateur championship. He beat Frank Ford in the semi-final and then defeated Frank's son, Billy Ford, for the title.

Two former catchers, Del Wilbur and Ray Berres, are coaches under Manager Marty Marion of the Chicago White Sox.

Not Very Hospitable

The Kentucky Derby and The Preakness each has been won only once by a foreign-bred. Omar Khayyam took the Run for the Roses in 1917. War Cloud bagged The Preakness the next year.

Big Golf Names on Roster for Rich Dallas Tourney

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A field of 157 that includes all the big names of golf except Sam Snead takes final tuneup ronuds today for the first part of Dallas' $100,000 extravaganza — the $30,000 Dallas Centennial Open.

Ben Hogan, Cary Middlecoff, Mike Souchak, Gene Littler, Doug Ford, Dow Finsterwald and Billy Maxwell were the players getting most of the favorite's talk. But on the small Preston Hollow course, a 6,277-yard layout, the premium was on chipping and putting and a lot of little known fellows have been ripping the course apart in practice rounds.

There have been 65s and 66s all around. This despite high winds that are expected to make scores soar if they continue. But tournament hotshots are pretty well agreed that a 266-14 under par—will win the 72-hole tournament under most any circumstances.

Hogan, using this tournament and next week's $70,000 Texas International Open as the springboard to a fifth National Open Championship, is playing well and putting much unlike his last appearance at Fort Worth's Colonial National Invitation where ill luck on the greens robbed him of first money.

Snead had indicated he would not play in this one but would be here next week for the Texas International. However, a place is being held open for him should he decide to try for the $6,000 first money in the Dallas Centellial.

Some 73 golfers shot for 64 qualifying places in the tournament. The qualifying was at Cedar Crest course which stretches 6,498 yards and the wind caused scores to sky yesterday. Don Addington, Dallas professional, had the best qualifying score—a par 71.

The other 93 places in the tournament were for the known golfers—those on the tour, former major champions, etc.

2 Young Veterans Make '500' Bid

INDIANAPOLIS (INS)—Two men who are unjustly accused of winning races because Bill Vukovich lost them will try to establish more clearly their claims to glory in this year's Indianapolis Motor Speedway "500."

Ready for the run for the money are defending champion Bob Sweikert of Indianapolis, who drove to victory last year after Vukovich lost his life defying a jinx that kept Mauri Rose and Wilbur Shaw from 3rd straight victories at the brickyard.

Also set for the May 30th 500-mile auto chase is Troy Ruttman of Los Angeles, who trailed Vuky by seconds in 1952 before a steering wheel retaining pin broke and sent Vukovich into the wall and Ruttman into victory lane.

Sweikert established his right to the 1955 victory in the electric timing tape that showed he had moved from 15th position in the 33-car starting field to a challenging spot when the 5-car crash that killed Vukovich occurred.

But Bob is a determined young man and he won't be satisfied until he wins the speedway hands down and no questions asked. He's piloting a new creation this year and could turn the trick.

More challenging is the case of youthful Troy Ruttman, who has been racing at Indianapolis since 1949 despite the fact that he is now only 23 years old and the legal age limit here is 21. He had driven in three races before winning and was only 21 when he triumphed.

Shortly after copping the big one, Ruttman went through a fence at only 30 miles an hour at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, when, like Vuky, a steering pin snapped. Troy suffered a fractured skull and a shattered wrist.

He drove a good race two years later but failed to qualify for last year's classic and fell into a real mental slump.

He said his main trouble last year was he'd let himself get to be a flabby 260 pounds and lacked stamina for the grind.

Both Sweikert and Ruttman are among the nation's top drivers, but these two competitors won't be satisfied until each wins a race free of any "luck."

Packer in the Fold

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Dave Hanner, the Green Bay Packers' 6-2, 250-pound defensive tackle, has signed for the 1956 National Football League season, Packer Coach Liz Blackbourn said today.

Hanner, a regular since joining the Packers in 1952, played in both the 1954 and 1955 pro-bowl games.

Lakeland Coasts in Waterford Win

Lakeland Pharmacy erupted with nine runs in the 1st inning, then coasted to an easy 16-8 conquest of Gidley Electric in Tuesday night's Waterford League softball game at the Drayton Plains ball park.

The winners utilized four hits, five walks, an error and a wild pitch to post their productive 1st stanza. Jim Cuthrell was the victim of the assault. Don Herr pitched the distance for Lakeland.

Lions' Rookie Camp Under Way July 23

DETROIT (INS) — The Detroit Lions announced today that the pro football team will train for the eighth consecutive year at Michigan State Normal College in Ypsilanti.

General Manager Nick Kerbawy said the rookie camp will open Monday, July 23, with about 35 or 40 players. All rookies are expected to attend except those who will play in the All-Star game.

He added that veterans will report the following Tuesday, July 31.

The squad will spend about three weeks practicing before the start of the pre-season schedule of six games.

Making Second Start

GENOA, Italy (AP) — World auto racing champion Juan Manual Fangio, who knows every curve of some of the toughest race courses on earth, ran into trouble in Genoa traffic today.

His Mercedes 300 banged into the back of a little Fiat Topolino which stopped suddenly ofr a traffic light. Only the bumpers were scratched.

Blazing Bill Blazes

DETROIT (AP) — Blazing Bill slogged over a mud-covered track to capture his 2nd straight victory in the 7th race at Wolverine Harness Raceway last night. He paid $7, $4.40 and $3.40. Lou Huber Jr. won the feature pace, paying $8.60, $4 and $3.60. The crowd of 5,546 bet $246,636.

Meadowlarks, formerly hunted as game birds, are not larks at all, but actually belong to the blackbird family.

Fishing Outlook Bright

Weekend May Be Good for Trouters

By JACK PATTERSON
Pontiac Press Outdoor Writer

We're getting a little tired of making forecasts and having them goofed up by the weatherman, but we'll try it once more. Subject to the ifs, ands, and usual saving clauses, it looks now as though the coming weekend will produce the first decent trout fishing of the season. Northern streams are settling back to normal, are clear enough for most any purpose and temperatures are on the mend. Some fair hatches are coming off occasionally on the big streams. Big ones are due almost any time from now on.

PATTERSON

As expected, trout stomachs inspected to date are filled almost exclusively with mayfly larvae when taken from lakes. Stream fish show the same preference but include in addition caddis larvae, and the nymphs and larvae of other species—the usual collection of creepy-crawlies that people our stream beds.

Trout, of course, feed on this sort of thing most of the time, and one would think that fishermen might concentrate a bit more on larval imitations. They won't.

While on the subject of baits we might mention that the Super-Duper, that gadget that looks more like a tie clasp than a spinning rod lure, is rapidly gaining a reputation as a killer locally.

Cases in point: Dr. L. Jerome Fink reports a recent catch of pike—many and large—on this bait, from a nearby lake. Just how nearby we can't say because Jerry was very sneaky about revealing its exact location. This was not surprising, of course, because psychiatrists—and fishermen—are masters of the oblique answer.

The other example we had in mind involved Chuck Rogers, who recently took a decent rainbow from Maceday Lake on the same lure. We don't mean to imply that it's news when Rogers catches a fish. We merely wish to point out (and this is based on years of personal observation) that when Rogers does catch a fish he's using a very fine bait indeed.

We're indebted to Glenn Stephens, of the Pontiac Fire Department for the following tackle tip. Lake rainbow fishermen who like to tow cowbells about all day may find that a foam-rubber spider—one of the pinkish jobs with rubber-band legs—in place of the customary nightcrawler on the end of the rig will improve results.

At any rate Glenn claims that the cowbell-spider rig took some very nice fish when the cowbell-worm deal fluffed completely.

Local lake rainbows are moving off the shallows but have not yet taken up summer station in the spring holes. Edges of the sand bars and drop-offs are still the place to fish.

Spring rainbows are not flighty Repeated casting in a likely spot—repeated long after saner souls would rule the area fishless—may well spell the difference between bragging and lame excuses.

Perch and musky fishing should improve mightily with warmer weather. But—we'll stick our neck out once more—this week's trout fisherman is the boy who should make a killing.

Better Luck

Small Game Bag Bigger

LANSING (AP)—The luck of Michigan small game hunters enjoyed an upturn this past season for pheasants, rabbits, ducks, geese, squirrels and raccoons.

The state conservation department says a post card poll of sportsmen disclosed the goose kill was about 19,000, more than double the 1954 season.

Hunters bagged 1,182,000 pheasants, a seven per cent increase; 1,606,000 cottontail rabbits, up to 10 per cent; 623,000 ducks, up 60 per cent; 657,000 fox and crease, and 163,000 raccoons, up gray squirrels, a 20 per cent intwo per cent.

The kill of snowshoe hares and ruffed grouse, both on the downward side of their population cycles, amounted to 284,000 and 314,000, respectively. These totals were down about 20 per cent from 1954.

Woodcock, at 46,000 bagged, were down about six per cent.

The post card poll is a statistically based sample of hunters where the department makes a concentrated effort to get exact information. The method is believed susceptible of probable error or less than 10 per cent on important species.

Both resident and non-resident hunters were polled and more than 95 per cent returned the questionnaire cards.

AuSable, Pine Show Promise

Rains Miss Area in Oscoda, Hatches Help Trout Fishing

Because heavy rains of the last weekend missed much of the Oscoda area, trout fishing in the section may be very good this weekend, Oscoda-AuSable Chamber of Commerce reports to the Pontiac Press.

Trout streams, including the South Branch of the AuSable and the Pine, northwest of Oscoda, are nearing normal in clearness and depth of water.

Mayfly hatches are helping to produce good creels of brooks and browns in these two streams. The Pine, particularly, was said to produce very well.

Perch runs from Lake Huron to the AuSable have not materialized. They may, however, begin first of this week, if temperatures continue to rise. Van Ettan and Cedar Lakes are producing good pike takes.

Upstate Couple Report 81 Deer on Day's Trip

It wil be difficult to convince Mr. and Mrs. Jess Skimin, of Oscoda, that the winter depletion of the deer herd in the Huron National Forest was serious.

Driving along the AuSable River road shortly after midnight they countd 81 deer in a one-way trip overthe 17-mile stretch between Five Channels Dam and Oscoda.

San Jose Hires 2 From State

O'Neill, Sobczak to Coach Swimming and Baseball

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—Former stars from Michigan State and the University of Michigan will take over as baseball and swimming coaches at San Jose tSate College.

Ed Sobczak, former Michigan State football and baseball player, was hired yesterday as coach of the San Jose baseball team. Tom O'Neill, former University of Michigan diver, will coach the swimming team.

Sobczak, who earned seven letters at MSU, has been coaching at Willow Glen High School in San Jose.

O'Neill, a 1948 Michigan graduate, earned his master's dergee from Stanford in 1950 and has been teaching and coaching in high schools and junior colleges.

St. Louis Hawks Sign Veteran and Rookie

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Easy Ed Macauley, eighth best scorer in the National Basketball Assn. last season, has been signed by the St. Louis Hawks for a reported $15,000.

The Hawks also signed rookie Dave Plunkett, a 6-8 center who averaged 18 points a game for Cincinnati University last season.

Walter Neusel of Germany once received only $3.19 for a main bout in Madison Square Garden. His rival, Ray Impellitiere, got a $5,000 guarantee.

NEW FISH SORTER — A Conservation Department fisheries worker at the Platte River rearing station near Beulah helps fish along the runways of a new Department-developed fish sorter that will save thousands of dollars in coming years. The sorter allows trout to slide down a series of tubes and fall into tubs below. Small trout fall through narrow openings, larger trout through larger openings. The sorter was designed and built by Department workers to make fish-planting operations uniform.

Speedy Device Developed to Sort Fish for Plants

LANSING—A cantankerous conservation problem appears solved by a new Michigan-designed fish sorter now on trial in the state hatchery system.

The sorter separates fish into three or more sizes and early tests indicate at least 80 per cent of the labor involved in this chore will be eliminated.

One test showed a ton of fish—about 20,000 trout—could be sorted in 1½ hours. Formerly, that many fish required five to six times as long. And at that, legal fish were only sorted from sub-legal. The new sorter separates legal from sub-legal sized trout and further separates sub-legals from the shorter fingerlings.

Such sorting hastens and economizes hatchery operations all down the line. Plantings of legal trout in the spring, summer and fall can be made quicker and easier now that the long, laborious chore of separation appears licked. Also, fish food will be saved because feeding programs can now be adjusted more accurately to fish appetites.

Time and labor saved by the new sorter can be used for construction and maintenance. Work long needed at hatcheries will now be possible.

Credit for development and construction of the sorter goes to the Conservation Department's fish division and to the Department's forest fire experiment station near Roscommon, where it was built.

Solunar Tables

John Alden Knight's solunar tables, prepared especially for this area, show the probable best periods for fishing in the county's lakes and streams. Major periods are from an hour and a half to two hours, the minor periods somewhat shorter.

Johnson's 4-Bagger Aids Win Over Irish

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Rightfielder Lowell Johnson drove in three runs to spearhead Western Michigan's 4-3 conquest of Notre Dame yesterday.

Johnson's single in the 1st inning accounted for one of two runs and a homer with one aboard in the fifth brought two more across.

Jim Cusack, Notre Dame first baseman, homered in the 5th with two men on, accounting for all the Irish runs. He also singled three times.

Opening event begins Friday, ends Sunday.

Nov. 15 Opener for Deer Gets Strong Support

Poll, However, Shows Division on Question of Specific Day

LANSING (AP) — Michigan deer hunters questioned by the state conservation department seem to increasingly favor a Nov. 15 opening for the deer season.

About 55 per cent of those queried on a sampling basis during the past season preferred the present fixed date for the start of shooting. The year before only 42 per cent wanted a Nov. 15 opening.

Whether to change the present game code to provide for a Saturday opening was debated sharply in the recent legislative session, but the Saturday opening adherents—mostly from the Upper Peninsula—finally gave up the fight.

In the opinion poll, the department said, the buyer of each 350th deer license was questioned—or about 1,200 hunters in all.

By area, here's what the hunters said:

Upper Peninsula hunters hunting in the U. P.: Prefer Nov. 15, 54 per cent; prefer Saturday, 33 per cent; a weekday, four per cent; a Sunday, five per cent.

Lower Peninsula hunters shooting in the Upper Peninsula: Prefer Nov. 15, 66 per cent; Saturday, 10 per cent; weekday, 12 per cent; Sunday, five per cent.

Lower Peninsula hunters hunting in Lower Peninsula: Prefer Nov. 15, 56 per cent; Saturday, 26 per cent; a weekday, 13 per cent; Sunday, two per cent.

No Regrets, winner of the California Derby, did not race as a 2-year-old because he had bucked shins twice and once got a piece of gravel in his foot.

CONTENDER — Winning the $25,000 St. Louis Ouen, Dow Finisterwald served further notice that he is taking dead aim at the United States Open Golf championship in Rochester, N. Y., June 14-16.

Study Supports Houghton Lake Fishing Status

LANSING (AP)—A study by the state conservation department has basked up Houghton Lake's reputation as a fishing "hot spot."

The department said trap nets were placed in all parts of the lake to gather information. Number of fish trapped daily was better than twice what it was for other lakes, large and small, similarly tested.

In terms of fish-per-acre, the Houghton Lake survey showed about 160 catchable fish per acre, or double and triple the count of many other waters.

Houghton Lake is the state's largest inland body of water, covering more than 20,000 acres in Roscommon County.

The lake's ratio of pan fish to other less desirable species indicated a fish population structure that should continue to provide good sport for anglers.

Growth rates for bluegills, pumpkinseeds, black crappies, rock bass and largemouth and smallmouth bass were well above the statewide average for those species. The rate for the walleye was below average, however.

Hurler Reported Part of Trade With Baltimore

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Tribune said today right-handed pitcher Connie Johnson will go to Baltimore to complete Monday's six player deal between the Orioles and the Chicago White Sox.

The Tribune said: "The White Sox will make the Johnson announcement Wednesday."

The Sox dealt third baseman George Kell, outfielder Bob Nieman, pitcher Mike Fornieles and a player to be named at a later date for outfielder Dave Philley and pitcher Jim Wilson.

OCSC and M-L Tied in Shoot

Dick Disler's 23 Is Top Mark as Skeeters End in 198 Knot

Oakland County Sportsmen's Club and the Multi-Lakes Conservation association last weekend tried to shoot a return match at the M-L skeet field, but the affair wound up in a 198-all knot. A date will lbe set soon for the shoot-off.

Dick Disler's 23 was high for the shoot, with Fred Edwards runnerup for Multi-Lakes with one less bird.

The event last weekend was originally planned as a double-header, with a regular trap shoot in addition to the skeet tourneey. Conflicts with shots held at Birmingham Gun Club and by the Detroit Gun Club prevented OCSC from sending a trap team to the M-L affair.

Pep Gains 7th Round TKO Over Armenteros

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Willie Pep, former world's featherweight champion, needed only six rounds Tuesday night to finish Manuel Armenteros.

Pep, the veteran from Hartford, Conn., who twice held the championship, rained blows over his outclassed Mexico City opponent from the start and won easily.

Armenteros, who at 125 pounds gave away three pounds to Pep, did not answer the bell for the seventh round because of a wide gash inside his mouth that had both fighters splattered with blood during the last two rounds. It went into the books as a seventh-round technical knockout.

Recruiters of Business Show Interest at MSU

EAST LANSING (AP)—Employers showed keener interest this winter and early spring in recruiting Michigan State University graduating students than a year ago.

This was disclosed today in a report by Jack Breslin, placement director, who said just short of 4,000 interviews were conducted by business and industry representatives visiting the campus during the winter term. The corresponding figure last year was about 2,900.

General business interviews nearly double the 1954-55 winter term. However, there was less demand for students interested in entering the field of education.

Wheat and Rye Slightly Easier

CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat and rye had a slightly easier undertone while other grains either held steady or tilted higher on the Board of Trade today.

News of moderate rains in much of the winter wheat belt, particularly Kansas, caused some early selling in wheat. The selling pressure was not very heavy and prices soon stabilized.

Soybeans scored gains running to a few cents in sympathy with an early upturn in soybean oil. Oats were ahead fractionally and corn held steady. Rye eased with wheat.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅝ to ⅞ lower, July $2.05¾; corn ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, July $1.52⅜; oats ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, July 66¼, rye ¼ to 1 cent lower, July $1.23¾, soybeans unchanged to 2 cents higher, July $3.15½, and lard 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher, July $12.70.

Solon Assails Military Aid Cut

Legislator Feels Slash to Force Major Change in Defense Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) said today the Joint Chiefs of Staff feel a billion-dollar cut would force a major revamping of America's military aid program.

The statement by Vorys, a leading administration supporter on the House Foreign Affairs Committee, came as a drive was opened to restore the funds the committee yesterday decided to trim from the $4,900,000,000 foreign aid bill.

Secretary of Defense Wilson and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, went before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee yesterday and appealed for restoration of the full amount asked by President Eisenhower.

The House still must act on the aid bill.

As Wilson left the closed session, he told newsmen: "I don't think the people realize military assistance is an essential part of our defense."

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala), a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said he felt the House committee cut "entirely too much" from the aid bill. He said he would join in an attempt to restore much of the reduction.

Chrysler Organizes Production Group

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. which began a decentralization program in 1953, today announced establishment of a stamping and general manufacturing group within the corporation.

The new group will consist of 19 plants, including two in Ohio and one in Indiana. The remainder are located in the Detroit area. Included are the facilities of the Automotive Body Division, formed around a nucleus of plants purchased from the Briggs Manufacturing Co. in December, 1953, and units of the parts and equipment manufacturing division.

L. L. Colbert, Chrysler president said the divisionalization program was designed to improve quality, efficiency, cost and profit. He said the newest group will be directed by John E. Brennan, a Chrysler vice president, who has been general manager of the Automotive Body Division.

West Germany's Government now allows free import of American chewing gum.

May Breakfast Slated Thursday at Ortonville

ORTONVILLE — The Ortonville Woman's Club will hold its annual May Breakfast at 9:30 a.m. Thursday in Ortonville Methodist Church.

This will conclude the club year until September, when new officers will take over.

16 Receive 4-H Ribbons During Hospital Event

One of the most important occasions for teenage patients at Pontiac State Hospital was held last night when 16 members of the Pontiac Chiefs' 4-H Club were presented with awards they earned in handicraft and electrical projects.

The audience consisted of members of the Birmingham Farm and Garden Club, the Junior League of Birmingham, Beta Theta Chapter of Lambda Chi Omega Sorority, Pontiac Camp Fire Girls, County 4-H Agent Jack Worthington and hospital personnel.

This was the fourth time such a ceremony has been held.

Before the eight blue and six red ribbons were awarded, the club's secretary expressed appreciation to John H. Vanderlind, leader, for his help during the past year.

Dr. James M. McHugh, in charge of the Children's Program at the hospital, pointed out that the club's electrical exhibit had been cited at the recent County 4-H Achievement Day for its excellent display.

Dr. McHugh told the audience that the club's work had improved to such a degree that members were now working on two projects simultaneously.

* * *

Dr. Ivan A. LaCore, medical superintendent of Pontiac State Hospital, expressed the thanks of the hospital for the consistent help rendered by volunteer groups on behalf of the teenagers.

Officers of Beta Theta Sorority, Camp Fire Girls and individuals devoting time to teenage girls also were commended.

Assisting Dr. LaCore in the presentation of awards was Mrs. Eleanore McCurry, director of the Occupational Therapy Dept.

Market Stages Smart Upturn

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market staged a smart rally today with prices up moderately early this afternoon.

Leading issues went ahead from fractions to around 2 points with trading activity brisk as prices rose.

Steels, motors, rails and coppers stood out as gains swept all divisions.

Wall street saw it as a rebound from the technical declines of the past few trading sessions and a recovery movement from the downtrend of the past couple weeks.

Bethlehem Steel, Youngstown Sheet & Tube and U.S. Steel went up around a point or better.

Santa Fe rose around 2 points and Illinois Central a point while New York Central, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific made fractional gains.

Despite further news of layoffs and temporary plant closings in the automotive industry, the motor stocks were firm and active.

Chrysler was up a point or so and General Motors sold nearly a point higher before backing away to a small fractional gain.

Ford went ahead fractionally despite the news that three of its Cleveland plants faced a two-day shutdown, but by early afternoon Ford was trading unchanged.

Volume was estimated at about 2,000,000 shares compared with 2,290,000 yesterday.

Copper stocks made good gains with Anaconda and Kennecott Copper stepping up better than a point. Phelps Dodge and International Nickel were fractional gainers but American Smelting was off a bit.

At noon the Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 60 cents to $181.70 with the industrials up 90 cents and rails up 50 cents and the utilities up 10 cents.

Skies Patrolling Truck Drivers

Roads Now Under Eye of State Police Plane Seeking Tailgating

EAST LANSING (AP)—Truck drivers will have to watch the skies from now on as well as the highways if they hope to get away with any trucking law violations.

State Police put a plane in the air yesterday to watch out for tailgating — one truck following too closely behind another.

State law provides that trucks over a certain weight must observe an interval of 500 feet on the highways.

The police plane, patrolling U.S. 16 between Detroit and Muskegon, spotted a truck tailgating east of Williamston. The observor with pilot Leland D. Albright radioed to a nearby patrol car and the surprised trucker was handed a violation ticket.

A State Police spokesman explained that truckers generally alibi that they are getting ready to pass when caught tailgating. The aerial parol permits a longer period of observation.

The police plane will continue to make its aerial check of the main truck routes, shifting from day to day from highway to highway.

Inquest Confirms Jail Death Finding

The Monday death of Oakland County Jail inmate Jim L. Brown, 33, of Walled Lake, was due to coronary thrombosis, the Oakland County Sheriff's Department announced today, following an inquest by Pontiac General Hospital Pathologist Dr. John Marra.

His finding was in agreement with a previous diagnosis by Acting County Coroner Dr. Isaac C. Prevette who had investigated at the scene. Oakland County Sheriff Frank Irons had asked for the inquest.

Brown was found by other inmates laying face down in a Jail washroom. He reportedly had been suffering from a severe cold and had been treated by a physician on two occasions at the jail.

Lansing Farmer Charged With Chaining State Ward

DETROIT (AP)—A Lansing farmer-furnace repairman today faced possible imprisonment on charges that he clapped his 53-year-old legal ward in irons and held him as a slave.

He is Malcolm N. Button, 55, who operates a furnace repair shop in Lansing and a 70-acre farm near Grayling.

Button was indicted yesterday by a Federal Grand Jury, which accused him of subjecting Chauncey A. Cook to "involuntary servitude by threats, force, beatings and physical restraining." Investigators said Button kept Cook on the farm in chains and leg iron from August, 1953, to June, 1955.

Lansing police said they found Cook last June in a windowless, cellar room, six by eight feet. Cook, his wrists and ankles chained, told officers he had been there for three days as punishment for running away from the farm.

MENTAL INCOMPETENT

In February, 1951, Button was made Cook's legal guardian by the Ingham County Probate Court after Cook had been declared a mental incompetent. Cook had been working for Button in Lansing since 1949 and his two sisters, Mrs. Mary Sprague of Ashley and Mrs. Milo Marcham of Lansing, recommended Button as their brother's legal guardian.

Button, who collected $21 a month from the court for Cook's room and board, put him to work cutting trees on the farm.

Donald F. Welday Jr., assistant U. S. attorney, said Cook often ran away while Button was working in his Lansing repair shop. Button visited the farm only on weekends and to keep Cook from running away, Welday said, Button kept the man in chains.

Welday said Cook was found wandering in chains through downtown Lansing last June.

Button, if convicted, faces a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $5,000 fine. No date was set for arraignment.

Duke's Guard Now Tripled

Assassination Rumors Force Move as Cypriots Terrorists Suspected

LONDON (AP) — Security officials were reported today to have tripled the Duke of Edinburgh's bodyguard after widespread rumors that Cypriot terrorists have slipped into Britain to try to kill Queen Elizabeth's Greek-born husband.

The Home Office and Scotland Yard declined to discuss the reports of increased security precautions for Britain's royal family —and for members of Prime Minister Eden's government—but an informed source said:

"The duke's guard is three times as large today as it was before and other precautions have been taken concerning the safety of other persons in the United Kingdom."

The terrorists were rumored to be plotting to assassinate the duke in revenge for the hanging by the British of two Greek Cypriots last week.

Greek-speaking Cypriots, who want their Mediterranean island united with Greece, are staging a campaign of violence against the British, who govern the island.

The Duke of Edinburgh was Prince Philip of Greece before his marriage. Some Cypriot extremists now consider him a traitor to Greece.

Deer Killed in Dash Against Passing Auto

A deer was killed by a car for the second time in as many days yesterday in this area. The incident occurred at Rochester and Buell Roads in Oakland Township.

Driver Floyd L. Reynolds, of Birmingham, told Oakland County Sheriff Department deputies he was driving along the road when the deer ran into the right side of his car.

Roland Harmes to Run for Holly School Post

HOLLY — Roland Harmes of Holly is one of six candidates to run in the June 11 election for positions on the Holly Board of Education.

His first name was erroneously reported as Russell instead of Roland in a news story Monday. There are two vacancies on the board.

Pontiac Lake School Sets Kindergarten Tea

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — A kindergarten tea will be held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday at Pontiac Lake School.

Mothers of incoming kindergarten pupils are urged to register their children for the fall term, and take advantage of the opportunity to meet teachers and inspect the school.

Carry Seeking Drain Rebate

Claims 19 Residents Assessed Improperly on 1953 Project

The Lois-Michigan street storm drain marathon still is not dead, according to Commissioner John E. Carry (District 6).

Ever since his election to the commission in 1954, Carry has insisted to his fellow commissioners that some 19 residents of this east side area were improperly assessed for drainage improvements in 1953.

Last night at the City Commission meeting, Commissioner Carry tried again but lost. He moved the 1953 assessment roll be corrected. The motion died for lack of second.

"There is a possibility the people in the area will take this to court to try and force the city to make an adjustment," the commissioner said today.

"We're in for an adjustment for all the city in similar cases if we adjust this one," Mayor William W. Donaldson said last night questioning Carry's motion.

City Engineer Lewis M. Wrenn told Carry the project "was assessed equally from one end to the other."

"These people have been unjustly assessed with three assessments for the same work and also for curb, gutter, and related work," Carry emphasized.

The adjustment in the roll would amount to approximately $100 refund to each family assessed, Carry added this morning.

News in Brief

A Detroit man was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court to face charges of indecent liberties after waiving examination at a hearing held by Hazel Park Justice Robert C. Baldwin Tuesday. Terry V. Riddel, 22, of 1321 W. Winchester St., will go on trial May 28. He failed to post $2,000 bond and was lodged in Oakland County Jail.

Pleading guilty to possession of beer in a car, James K. Jacinth, 20, of Livonia, was sentenced to serve 60 days in the Oakland County Jail yesterday. He was arraigned by Farmington Township Justice Allen C. Ingle who increased the sentence from 45 days when Jacinth failed to pay fine and costs of $25.

Selling liquor to a minor resulted in a $150 fine and a seven-day license suspension for the owners of Lotan's Market, 2135 Dixie Highway. The Michigan Liquor Control Commission ordered the fine and suspension after a hearing in Lincoln Park.

Jerome E. Walraven, 41, of Byron, Mich., is serving a 30-day sentence in the Oakland County Jail for driving while his license was revoked. He was committed Monday after pleading guilty to the charge before Justice Emmet J. Leib of Springfield Township.

A $100 fine was imposed on the Knights of Columbus lodge at 295 S. Saginaw by the Michigan Liquor Control Commission. It was charged that liquor was sold to a non-member.

Detectives Probe Theft of Piping From Project

Detectives of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department today began investigation into the weekend theft of copper piping valued at over $400 from an Independence Township housing project.

Investigator Leo Hazen reported some 815 feet of piping had been stolen from 27 houses being built in Woodhull Lake Heights. He said the pipe was apparently ripped out of the new foundations and carted away.

Petition having been filed in this Court alleging that the present whereabouts of the mother of the said minor child is unknown and said child has violated a law of the State and that said child should be placed under the jurisdiction of this Court.

In the name of the people of the State of Michigan, you are hereby notified that the hearing on said petition will be held at the Juvenile Court, Oakland County Service Center, Court House Annex, 1200-B West Blvd., in the City of Pontiac in said County, on the 29th day of May A.D. 1956, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, and you are hereby commanded to appear personally at said hearing.

It being impractical to make personal service hereof, this summons and notice shall be served by publication of a copy one week previous to said hearing in the Pontiac Press a newspaper printed and circulated in said County.

Witness, the Honorable Arthur E. Moore, Judge of said Court, in the City of Pontiac in said County, this 10th day of May A.D. 1956.

Seal ARTHUR E. MOORE, Judge of Probate.
A true copy GEORGIENA R. MURTHA, Probate Register, Juvenile Division.

SO YOU ARE A TEE-TOTALER! THEN YOU CAN TAKE THIS LOVELY BAR OUT AND SELL IT TO A NEIGHBOR . . . HOWEVER IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO LEAVE THE BAR IN THIS RECREATION ROOM AND MAKE SOME USE OF IT, I WOULD SUGGEST THAT YOU CALL US AT ONCE AND MAKE AN APPOINTMENT TO SEE THIS LOVELY 3 BEDROOM HOME. THE BAKED ALUMINUM SIDING AND ALUMINUM WINDOWS REDUCES THE GENERAL MAINTENANCE & LEAVES PLENTY OF TIME FOR YOU TO ENJOY THE FULL LIVING THAT THIS HOME PROVIDES.

A NEWLY REMODELED KITCHEN THAT WILL CHARM THE MOST particular housewife is the highpoint in this 3 bedroom home in the city. Gas heat is swell, but it is still overshadowed by the kitchen. The basement is nice, the entire condition is excellent, and with the screens and storms, we are very pleased but once again, I must repeat, the kitchen is the top spot in this excellent buy.

FOR IMMEDIATE POSSESSION IN AN IDEAL COUNTRY CLUB SUBDIVISION, IS A FINE OLDER 5 ROOM HOME, ON THE CANAL THAT LEADS TO BOTH WILLIAMS AND MACEDAY LAKES. IF YOU WANT A COOL SUMMER SPOT THIS IS THE HOME THAT WILL FILL THE BILL. THE PRICE IS LOW AND THIS IS DUE TO THE FACT THAT HOUSE NEEDS DECORATING.

IF IT IS INCOME, ACREAGE, COMMERCIAL, LAKE FRONTAGE OR ANYTHING TO DO WITH BUILDING OR THE SELLING OF REAL PROPERTY, THEN FEEL FREE TO CONTACT US AT ONCE. IF YOU FEEL THAT CONVERSATION IS NEEDED TO HELP YOU, THEN PHONE OR COME OUT TODAY. IF YOU FEEL THAT A REAL SERVICE IS NEEDED TO HELP YOU, THEN PHONE OR COME OUT TODAY. WE ARE HERE TO SERVE YOU, AND ARE HONORED AT THE CALLS YOU MAKE TO US.

Mendes to Resign From Cabinet Post

ta80 eeaayyyrczzc mj23

PARIS (AP) — Pierre Mendes-France told Premier Guy Mollet today he has decided to resign from the French Cabinet. But he agreed to wait until tonight before taking any final action.

Mendes-France long has been at odds with Mollet on the government's policy toward coping with the rebellion in Algeria.

Mollet is using a strong hand militarily in an effort to put down the Algerian revolt. Mendes-France has urged dramatic political and economic reforms.

Nigeria and the Gold Coast supplied one-fifth of Britain's imports of non-coniferous timber last year.

Detroit 'Money Blesser' Sought by Police Squad

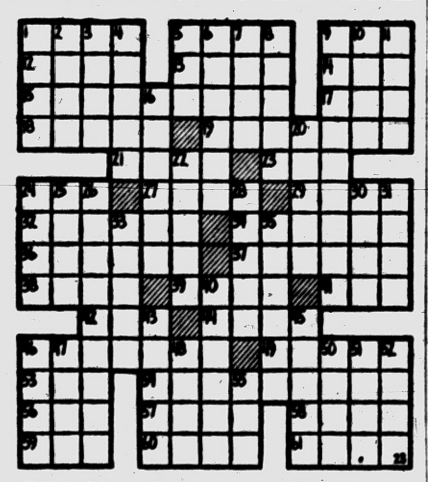

DETROIT — The special investigation squad of the Detroit Police Department today sought a lady Gypsy who has made an estimated $5,000 in the past year by "blessing" money.

Police said the woman speaks Serbian, Maltese and Italian in addition to English, and preys on immigrant families.

In Blomefontein, South Africa a lion which had refused to move into its new cage at the zoo, scrambled in when an attendant bit its tail.

2 Pictures Stall $50 Million Deal

Studio Wants to Retain 'Gone With the Wind' and 'Wizard of Oz'

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS)—The pending sale of all old MGM movies for $50,000,000 is considered such a high price that most experts suspect the purchasers believe subscription TV is part of the near and certain future . . .

Holding up the deal at the moment are just two movies MGM wants to retain for theatrical reruns more or less permanently—"Gone With the Wind" and "The Wizard of Oz."

NBC offered MGM $500,000 for TV rights to "Wizard of Oz," to be recreated "live" a la "Peter Pan."

Elinor Donahue, who plays "Betty" in "Father Knows Best," eloped with one of the show's sound crew and thinks no one knows about it . . .

Plans for the fall include having "Betty" graduate from high school, celebrate her 18th birthday, head for college, etc., but if the usual happy event is indicated, the show will alter its continuity for next season to "marry her off," establish a TV family of her own with resultant grandpappy comedy.

SUB FOR 'LUCY'

Charles Farrell in a filmed series about himself, set in his Palm Springs Racquet Club, will summer sub for "Lucy."

Everett Sloane, one of the finest actors on stage, screen or TV, gets the star-billing he deserves on Monday's Studio One. His task will be to make a bank robber sympathetic . . .

Frankie Laine can have the eight-week sub spot during Godfrey's time off but Frankie thinks he's entitled to something more than a vacation fill-in considering the high ratings he provided last year . . .

Ginger Rogers' hubby, Jacques Bergerac, stars in Sunday's Alfred Hitchcock series. Gets killed, too.

Charlton Heston's sought for CBS-TV's playhouse 90 next fall in "Requiem of a Heavyweight," part of the new prizefight-drama trend.

ACCENT ACCENTED

Anna Maria Alberghetti's only problem for her star role June 2 in "A Bell for Adano": She's lost her Italian accent and must study to get some of it back . . .

Bob Hope's 90 - minute NBC spectacular June 17 will be one long plug for his new film, "That Certain Feeling." . . .

Bob Montgomery's 52 this week . . .

Garry Moore hired three ex-Godfrey writers.

Jack Benny and Mary Livingston will enact their very first meeting when Mary was a May Co. hosiery department clerk on Jack's June 3 TV show. . .

CBS-TV will try to lick ABC's Mickey Mouse with its own cartoon show . . .

Detroit Names Deans

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Board of Education yesterday approved appointment of Dr. Francis C. Rosecrance as dean of education at Wayne University and Dr. Lloyd Allen Cook as Wayne's vice president in charge of instruction and research. Dr. Rosecrance has been associate dean of the school of education at New York University. He succeeds Dr. Waldo E. Lessenger, who died last year. Dr. Cook has ben chairman of Wayne's department of educational sociology. His job is a new one.

Joan Collins' Husband Sues for Maintenance

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—We were talking to British-born movie star Joan Collins—whose husband, actor Maxwell Reed, is asking her to pay him $1,250-a-month "separate maintenance" and just happened to ask what she thinks of men getting alimony.

* * * *

"Men in general?" she said.

"Of course," we said. "We wouldn't want to bring personalities into a gossip column."

"Well, if the man is able to work and keep himself, I'm against it. I'm old-fashioned and still like men who light cigarets and open doors."

"How mid-Victorian," we said. "Anyway, this man you married, is he able-bodied?"

"He's 6-feet-4."

"Perhaps he's old and feeble?" we ventured.

"He's 34!"

Miss Collins is off to Hollywood shortly to take up the alimony matter in a divorce action and we anticipate more durned fun. Funny thing is, he's a prominent British actor, and when she was a school girl, he was her pin-up boy.

* * * *

Jimmy Durante's opening at the Copa had Peter Lawford as his surprise guest— and Pete'll be there every night . . . for free. "At least I dunnoa whether they'll pay him," said Jimmy, stretched out afterward. Pete, very good, and popular with the gals, went to his dressing cubicle later in the smallish Hotel 14. I asked him whether his socialite wife approved of this cafe atmosphere and he said: "Who do you think's my dresser?"

* * * *

. . . Jackie Gleason and the powers that be are having an argument about money; it seems that Jackie wants some . . . Nicky Hilton—seven weeks on the wagon (only with ice cream now)—was at El Morocco with glamour gal Carey Latimer, a frequent date. He's just a perfect gentleman, that's all.

* * * *

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Hearing about Billy Rose's battle with Czechoslovakia over a house, Irving Lazar, the agent, said, "Why don't you pick on a country your own size?" . . . Grace Kelly returns in the fall to close her 5th Av. apt.—which makes it look bad for her Hollywood career . . . Sally Forrest plays a secretary in "While The City Sleeps" . . .

SALLY

Spencer Tracy's friends here confirm that he's ill and that it's slowing up "The Old Man and the Sea" . . . "St. Louis Woman," abandoned for films by Frank Sinatra and Ava Gardner due to their troubles, may be done one day by Sammy Davis Jr. and perhaps Dorothy Dandridge . . . Eleanor Holm's back from Florida thinner'n Melba Toast . . .

Gloria Vanderbilt's pretty likely to be seen on B'way in the fall; incidentally her paintings are very, very good, according to experts, and have strong, sturdy strokes "because she's near-sighted and wants to see what she's painted."

EARL'S PEARLS . . . A Hollywood charm school sign says: "Think Mink."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "How does one gain good posture?" was an exam question. One country boy said: Keep the cows off it and let it grow a while"—Texas Outlook.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: They're passing this one around: "My mind is made up. Don't confuse me with facts."

Why do so many people wake up with headaches when they didn't use their heads the night before? . . .

That's earl, brother.

Reject Civic Center

ANN ARBOR (AP)—By an overwhelming majority, Ann Arbor taxpayers yesterday rejected a proposed $2,600,000 bond issue for construction of a civic recreation center in Veterans Memorial Park on the city's west side. The vote in a special election was 675 for the proposal and 3,404 against.

American Industry Must Disperse in H-Bomb Age

This is the second of three articles in which the director of the famed "Manhattan Project" that produced history's first atomic bomb gives his informed views of the meaning for Americans of the current series of Pacific nuclear weapons tests.

By LT. GEN. LESLIE R. GROVES, USA (RET.)

To all practical intents and purposes, the H-bomb is merely a bigger A-bomb.

Instead of devastating an area that is a little more than a mile and a half in radius, it will destroy an area that is many miles in radius. It also has the added hazard of radioactive fallout—which while it existed in the A-bomb, was never too serious a problem if the bomb was exploded at a reasonably high altitude.

This has brought us face to face with an increase in the effectiveness and terror of a sudden attack.

It emphasizes the need for dispersion of industry and the need of protection of the home population—something that we in this country have never had to face before.

DISPERSAL A 'MUST'

Almost all the casualties at Hiroshima resulted from the "normal" bomb effects. There were, of course, some radioactive injuries, but they were minor in number as compared with the other injuries. With the H-bomb this is not likely to be true.

The overwhelming power of the H-bomb means that in our peacetime planning dispersion of our industry and population must be a major consideration.

Our bombing of Nagasaki furnishes us an example of the results or the price of a failure to spread out.

WOULD HAVE ESCAPED

At Nagasaki, our bomb was dropped midway between two war factories. They were three miles apart. We had calculated that the effective range of this bomb was about a mile and a half.

If those factories had been four miles apart instead of three we would have aimed at one of them and the other would have escaped almost scot free. As it was, both factories were destroyed.

The effects of the H-bomb as compared with the 1945 A-bomb will be that a great area of devastation will be encompassed under the deadly cloud.

We must continue to exert every effort to disperse our people and our industry. What we are doing instead is the contrary. Our city populations are increasing. Our factories are being made bigger and more concentrated.

It is true there is some movement on the part of some companies to move into dispersed locations. As a people, however, we have made a terrible mistake in not dispersing to a maximum, and I see no signs of any change in this attitude.

Atolls Fortified by Chinese Reds

Paracel Island Chain in the South China Sea Reportedly Sheltered

HONG KONG (AP)—The Chinese Communists are reported building fortifications on a small group of islands in the Paracel chain in the South China Sea.

The Paracels are an extensive group of low coral islands and reefs about 150 miles southeast of Communist-held Hainan Island.

Military intelligence sources said recent reports indicate the Chinese Reds are building two-story stone structures on the island of Woody, center of the group. They said the Communists also were reported stepping up sea activities around the island cluster, used primarily in the past as a weather reporting station.

The reports said an increased number of small Communist naval craft was operating in the area, but gave no estimate of the number.

Reports as long ago as 1952 said the Chinese Reds planned to use the Paracels as a naval base in conjunction with the natural harbor of Yulin, on the southern tip of Hainan.
