Fall 2009 grades now available online

Students can access their fall 2009 grades by logging into the student portal. To view grades in further detail, site visitors should click on SAIL, then Student Services & Financial Aid, then Student Records, then Final Grades and then Select a Term. Grade reports and unofficial transcripts also can be printed.

As a reminder, Oakland University sends official university business information to students through their OU e-mail accounts. This provides more efficient and cost-effective notification for items like bills, grade report availability, schedule of classes and more. Also as a reminder for students who have not yet registered for the Winter 2010 semester, classes begin Tuesday, Jan. 5.
