Pamper mom on Mother’s Day with high tea at MBH

High tea, with its delicious food and lively conversation, is a luxury that Matilda Dodge Wilson delighted in with her family and friends in the elegant rooms of Meadow Brook Hall. This Mother’s Day, Meadow Brook Hall continues this luxurious ritual by pampering mothers with a very special Mother’s Day High Tea.

Mothers and their guests will sit down to an elegant service arranged in the hall’s magnificent Christopher Wren Dining Room, overlooking the sprawling grounds of the 110-room, Tudor-revival style mansion. Guests will be treated to classic English teas, sandwiches, scones and sweets and can even make their experience “royal” by adding champagne to the afternoon’s menu.

Some of the beautiful tea service Wilson used when hosting her very own tea parties at Meadow Brook Hall also will be on display. After the high tea, guest can enjoy the spring air by taking a stroll through one of Meadow Brook Hall’s beautiful gardens.

The Mother’s Day High Tea takes place on Mother’s Day on Sunday, May 9, from 3 to 4:30 p.m. Cost is $55 per person. Champagne can be added at a cost of $30 per bottle or $7 per glass. Reservations are required.

For more information or to make a reservation, visit the Meadow Brook Hall Web site or call (248) 370-3140.
