Abandon Hope of Adjournment Before August

House, Senate Come to Agreement on Minimum Wage, Foreign Aid

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

WASHINGTON — Hopes of Congress adjourning Saturday died today when Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) announced that the House will meet Monday.

Congressional leaders are striving for adjournment next week, however. Democratic chiefs said that the Senate and House may be able to quit Wednesday or Thursday.

Conferees reached agreement yesterday on two major pieces of legislation, a minimum wage increase and a foreign aid money bill, with the House winning clear-cut victories on both.

These are expected to be whipped to the White House today. The minimum wage bill would increase the statutory floor in interstate commerce from 75 cents to $1 an hour, effective next March 1.

President Eisenhower, who asked for 90 cents, said yesterday he hadn't yet talked to Secretary of Labor Mitchell and didn't know whether he would accept Mitchell's recommendation to sign the measure.

The conferees on the foreign aid measure confounded predictions by settling their sharp differences on the first day they met. They settled for a total of $2,703,341,750 in new cash, or 563 million less than Eisenhower asked and 502 million less than the Senate voted.

The compromise figure was less, by over 250 million dollars, than the amount Congress voted last year.

Sen. Ellender (L-La), who had battled in vain on the Senate floor for the lower House figures, said the conference agreement "made me feel good."

The main remaining hurdle to adjournment appeared to be a housing bill still drydocked in the House Rules committee, where half of the members oppose its public housing provisions.

If Congress takes no action, most of the big government housing programs such as FHA mortgage insurance will expire July 31.

Skilled Trade Group Plans Session Sunday

Skilled tradesmen dissatisfied with recent contracts with the big auto companies will hold "recruitment" meetings in six cities, including Pontiac, Sunday.

They will appeal to fellow workers to join them in bolting from the ranks of the CIO United Auto Workers and establishing a new organization. The meetings will decide whether to form an independent skilled trades union or to seek a separate charter under the CIO, a spokesman said.

Sea Claims 36 Teenagers

Mountainous Ocean Wave Engulfs Jap Swim Class

TSU, Japan (AP)—A giant wave swept a junior high school swimming class to sea today and 36 teenage girls died amid confusion and delay in rescue work, police said.

Frantic teachers, fishermen and other helpers recovered all 45 within half an hour.

But because of delays in giving artificial respiration only nine could be revived.

The tragedy, Japan's worst swimming beach disaster, occurred on the Sea of Ise, about 45 miles southwest of Nagoya on Honshu.

The girls, all Japanese students from the Tsu community, had started a week-long swimming course last Thursday.

Russian Husband Divorces Spouse Having Wrinkles

MOSCOW (AP)—A Soviet editor has denounced a husband who suddenly discovered his wife had wrinkles—and decided to rid himself of her.

The article, in the newspaper Communist of Tadzhkistan, is part of a campaign against "feudal practices" among Soviet Moslems.

At 17 Tursonoi Astanakulova was so pretty she could be compared only to a flower. Her parents ordered her to marry Ikram Kayumov, 23, whom she had never met. That was in 1942.

"The years passed and Tursonoi and Ikram were the parents of four children. One day, coming home in high spirits, Ikram kissed his wife and said 'Tursonoi, you are my flower.' Then he noticed tiny wrinkles around her eyes. 'What is this I see? You've aged! I have no use for an old wife.' "

Ikram decided to make conditions so unbearable she would have to leave him.

Rainstorm Eases Heat Wave

Sends Mercury Plummeting 24 Degrees in Area

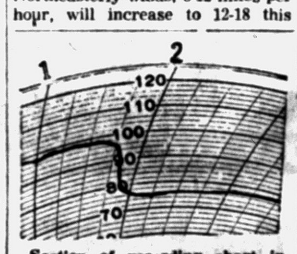

Forecast Sees Cooler Weather Staying Here Through Friday

The highest temperatures of the year plummeted abruptly yesterday afternoon on the heels of a driving rainstorm that knocked down trees and utility lines in some sections of Oakland County.

Pontiac area residents had their first comfortable sleep in several nights as the cool air dropped temperatures across the northern edges of the plains region, most of the Great Lakes and the North Atlantic states.

The comparatively cool weather is expected to remain tonight and tomorrow.

The mercury will reach a high of 80-84 today, drop to near 70 tonight and rise to 84-86 Friday. Northeasterly winds, 8-12 miles per hour, will increase to 12-18 this afternoon and become easterly at 5-10 m.p.h. tonight.

Section of recording chart in Press office shows sudden drop in temperature at 2 p.m. yesterday.

At 8 a.m., the temperature in downtown Pontiac was 69 degrees. By 2 p.m., it had risen to 80.

The storm struck about 2 p.m., after the mercury had climbed to a scorching 99 degrees—a degree above the year's previous high of 98, recorded on July 4.

The short - lived downpour dumped .16 of an inch of rain on the area and plunged the temperature from 99 to 75 degrees in less than a half-hour.

TREES DOWN

Two large trees and several large branches fell across roads near Rochester, blocking traffic for more than an hour.

A tree fell on a car on Fifth Street in Rochester, but its driver was uninjured.

Two houses in the Brooklands subdivision were struck by lightning, but only one of the dwellings was damaged.

A heavy fall of fine hail was reported in the village of Commerce, along with high winds and heavy rains which halted traffic for a short time.

A total of 600 telephones were out throughout the Pontiac district but most were back in service today.

Sizzling Temperature Cracks Window

HEAT DAMAGE — Tangible proof that it was hot here yesterday is shown above. Floyd Forgette, of 135 Edison St., checks the temperature by his car, after the near-record heat caused the auto's rear window to "explode." Forgette's car was parked in his driveway, with the windows closed, when the window shattered. Insurance companies here say they have had several such claims filed this summer.

Courage, Patients, Now No More Early Bird Hours

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The director of nursing at new Mt. Sinai Hospital says she's planning what should be a revolution in the care and feeding of hospital patients.

Miss Dorothy Kramer, 34, says that the time-hallowed routine of awakening patients at 5 or 6 a.m. won't be followed when the 4½-million-dollar facility opens its doors Sunday. And they won't have to observe lights out at 9 p.m. either.

She said they can sleep until 9 or 10 a.m., and read at night as long as they want. "Within reason, that is," she said. "If you are scheduled for surgery the next morning, or if you are pretty ill, we think we should be allowed to explain that you need sleep more."

Area Officials, Ziegler Meet

Group From Oakland Seeks to Clarify State Road Picture

(Special to Pontiac Press)

LANSING—Six Oakland County officials met with Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler here today in an attempt to discover just where Oakland stands in the state road picture.

Ziegler first expressed "extreme disappointment" over Congress' squelching yesterday of the hoped-for bill which would have increased federal aid for interstate road building.

Despite the federal aid loss, "we still will go on with our plans to construct a highway running parallel to the proposed toll road route through Oakland," he stated.

The commissioner admitted, however, that without more federal money, the north-south freeway cannot be finished as fast as a turnpike.

"But bond issues with cities and counties could provide some added money for the freeway," he explained.

The delegation presented a list of seven projects they deem crucial to relieve Oakland's traffic congestion. Ziegler agreed all those included are badly needed, and said, "They will be built as soon as money becomes available."

He could not say when funds would be on hand.

The Oakland men questioned the commissioner on possible ways the county could act at the local level to speed up the program. The possibility that Oakland might cooperate with the state in floating a large bond issue, such as is financing Detroit's expressways, was discussed.

The local group said they plan to further investigate the bond issue picture.

Find Missing Pontiac WAF This Morning at Airport

Twenty-year-old Air Force WAF Joan Richie, missing since July 17, was found early today at Willow Run Airport as she attempted to cash in an unused plane ticket at an Eastern Airlines ticket office.

She was recognized by an employe who called her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Bolinger, of 2148 Wooddale, Avon Township. Joan's mother persuaded her to remain at the terminal until State Police arrived from Ypsilanti.

The brown-haired beauty contest finalist told officers and Detective Leo Hazen of the Oakland County Sheriff's office she was "fed up" with military life and had spent the past 10 days at an Ann Arbor boarding house.

She said she ran out of money and returned to the airport to cash in the ticket.

An airman second class, Joan had been home on a 2-week furlough from Eglin Air Force Base, Fla., where she was a typist. She was taken to the terminal by her parents, who said they did not see her board the plane.

The girl became the object of a search by civil and military authorities here and in Pensacola, Fla., after a roommate at Eglin called, asking why Joan hadn't returned for duty.

Hazen turned her over to military authorities this morning and she was taken to Selfridge Field, where she was placed under sedation for shock at the base hospital.

When police arrived, Joan became hysterical, sobbing: "I'm terribly ashamed of the way I've disgraced my family, but I don't want to go back."

Hazen said he and the girl's parents were leading her from the terminal when she made a sudden dash across busy U.S. 112 and was narrowly missed by a passing police car that braked to a halt.

Earlier she told Hazen that as she prepared to board the plane something came over her and she couldn't return to duty. She ran from the airport, took a taxi to Ypsilanti and a bus to Ann Arbor.

"I walked the streets trying to decide what to do. I was homesick, but I'd told my folks I liked the service and I was too ashamed now to admit I really didn't.

"I stayed at a boarding house in Ann Arbor and ate in restaurants, then I ran out of money and came back to cash in my ticket."

Bulgaria Admits Shooting Plane

Twelve Americans Dead After Red Guns Down Israeli Airliner

LONDON (AP) — Bulgaria admitted today its antiaircraft guns shot down an Israeli airliner, killing all 58 persons aboard. It said the plane was off course for 100 miles over Communist territory.

Bulgaria expressed regret for the tragedy and appointed a government commission to inquire into the disaster in which 12 Americans perished.

PILOT, FIANCEE DIE

The airline reported that these American passengers were aboard the plane: Mrs. Rella Avram, Mrs. O. Cohen, a Mr. Hameiry, Mrs. A. Hahn or Hann, Mr. A. Mann, Mrs. Shaeffer or Schaeffer, R. Sacks, Mrs. A. Sacks, Mrs. D. Sacks, Mrs. M. Katz and her small daughter and Mrs. Zahawa Sheinbaum.

Capt. Stanley Hinks, British-born pilot of the plane, was to be married on Monday in Tel Aviv.

Higgins, Smith to Inspect New Highway Route

MTA Official Claims Building Should Begin by First of Next Year

Following rejection of a federal highway aid bill by Congress, the chairman of the Michigan Turnpike Authority today expressed confidence the state will construct a north-south turnpike.

MTA Chairman George N. Higgins told the Pontiac Press the turnpike, slated to cross Oakland County, is expected to be under construction by January 1, providing the State Supreme Court rules against Dearborn in a suit which would hamstring construction.

"Up to a few days ago I wasn't sure, but after this decision by Congress I am very confident that we can go through," Higgins said.

Congress yesterday killed two programs, for this year at least, which called for large expenditures for the nation's overcrowded highways.

Rejected were President Eisenhower's plan for highways financed by long-term bonds and a Democratic program for roads financed with new taxes.

The President's plan proposed a 10-year $38,600,000,000 program, while the Democrats advocated a 13-year schedule costing $50,477,000,000 and financed by higher gasoline, tire and other highway "user" taxes.

HOUSE DIVIDED

House Speaker Sam Rayburn said in Washington "with the House divided as it is" he doubts a highway measure could be passed even next year.

Passage of either of the proposals could have spelled the end to turnpike plans here. The State Highway Department had stated the state would build a free expressway along a line parallel to the proposed turnpike route—if Congress enacted one of the measures.

* * *

Higgins said he and another new member of the MTA, Carl Smith, will begin a tour of the proposed route from Pontiac to Monroe Monday. He said he hoped Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler would accompany them.

"We feel we ought to see what we are talking about," he said.

The MTA has already approved a general route from Bridgeport, which is near Saginaw, south to Pontiac. Some changes will be made in the original plans after a personal tour, Higgins noted.

The chairman said he knew of no changes in the proposed route

Rapids Heart of Seaway Project

By JOE HAAS
Pontiac Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL—Although the new St. Lawrence Seaway and Power Project has a vital effect on the major portion of the entire North American continent, its heart lies in an area of only a few square miles.

It is quite fortunate for both countries, who for nearly a century and a half have not had a fortification on their common border, that this heart is in an international location. It practically assures that this line between two of the world's greatest nations will continue to be little more than an imaginary one.

HAAS

This is where the St. Lawrence River forms the boundary line between the State of New York and the Province of Ontario. It wangles such a tortuous way among countless islands that no surveyor of the greatest experience could write its course by the century old method of "meets and bounds."

It is near Cornwall, between Lake Ontario and Montreal, and the seat of what the masters of commerce already are calling the eighth wonder of the world, even outstripping "Michigan's Mightiest Mile," covering the Soo locks.

Here, to conquer the rapids which for centuries have baffled heavy navigation, are being constructed two ship canals, with the locks to lower or lift the world's largest vessels to a level so they may continue their course to or from the heart of America.

REMOVING BARRIER

Not only are the rapids being removed as a commerce barrier, but in the same project they are being harnessed, through two giant storage dams and a huge generating plant, to supply electrical power to an area larger than any nation in Europe. Here modern engineering is rising to accomplishments never before attempted.

When the Seaway enables ships of any size from any port in the world to cruise the St. Lawrence River and its feeding Great Lakes, 2,250 miles from the Atlantic Ocean to the west end of Lake Superior, the power here generated will give birth to countless new and enlarged markets for those ships to serve. Just reflect on what this means to manufacturing cities, like our own Pontiac.

For more than four centuries, man has studied these rapids and made his best efforts to conquer them. Even back in the windjammer days, men who knew nothing about steamships and hydro-electric power pondered them.

The St. Lawrence itself is an awesome stream. Even a thousand miles from the ocean it is a mile wide. Here they claim it carries more water than our own Mississippi, and drains an area fully as large.

But it has its own peculiar moods—and its rapids—but it now is being compelled to go its utmost to provide better working and living conditions for millions of people on both sides of that boundary — which largely exists purely on imagination, and the colors of the uniforms of the men who are working in unison to protect it from any lawlessness on either side.

FORESTS PROTECTED

Canada has protected its forests from the ravisher better than we have in the United States. While it still has much of its virgin timber, it started a reforestation program many years before we did.

It has millions of acres of fertile top soil of a more youthful age, as centuries go, than we have. Yet from Pontiac to Monroe yet "because I haven't looked it over." Most of the opposition to the pike has come from residents and communities in that stretch.

NOT WORRIED

"We're not worried about next year. We expect to have construction started by Jan. 1."

He added that a favorable Supreme Court decision is vital to construction of the state-crossing superhighway, which will be financed by a bond issue and paid for by its users.

The city of Dearborn has a suit filed in the state's highest court in an attempt to block the turnpike from passing through its boundaries without the city having a voice in location.

Higgins said an MTA meeting is still slated for Aug. 8 in Lansing. At the session, he said, the MTA will try to get Ziegler to say whether he is for or against turnpikes.

"He should take his position. I would rather have him against it or for it. Then we'd know where he stood."

By 1956 it is expected there will be about eight million men between the ages 20-25 in the United States.

The Day in Birmingham

Volunteers for Saturday Inoculation Sought Here

BIRMINGHAM—The decision to begin Oakland County's second Salk polio vaccine inoculations on Saturday at Birmingham High School has pressed City Health Nurse Anyce Gillette into immediate action in asking for volunteer help.

Mrs. Gillette asks that all local nurse help who assisted in the May vaccination program and have not already been contacted by her, get in touch with her immediately at MIdwest 4-1800.

In addition, she requested that women who served as school chairmen when the May shots were given, call Mrs. James H. Grant at MIdwest 4-3629.

Mrs. Howard Rieman, chairman of all Oakland County volunteer workers for the program, has already asked that volunteer women who previously worked with supplies, contact her at MIdwest 4-2160.

The Polio Committee of the Oakland County Health Committee announced yesterday that youngsters from the Troy Township, Southfield Township and Bloomfield area, in addition to Birmingham, will be eligible to receive their shots here. Hours are from 9 to 11 a.m.

This includes first and second graders who received their first shot in May, plus those youngsters who were given the actual Salk vaccination during the 1954 field trials.

The latter group will be the only children getting booster shots on Saturday, Mrs. Gillette said, with the dates for other booster shots to be announced later.

It is estimated that between 5,300 and 5,400 children will be fed into the Saturday program. In May, 1,923 of Birmingham's first and second graders were inoculated.

A group of local young men feel they are "getting out of trim" and have taken a big step to do something about it, by way of a proposed $125,000 Birmingham Athletic Club.

Present at this week's City Commission and Planning Board meetings to explain plans of the newly-incorporated group was Fred C. Matthaei Jr., president.

Speaking for the club's planning committee, he asked the possibility of purchasing for $10,000, a city-owned site on the north side of 14-Mile road, at the southwest corner of Birmingham.

Matthaei showed architect s plans for the private club facilities, which would include a squash racquets court, lounge, kitchen, locker room and office, plus outdoor tennis courts. He said the club could serve from 150-200 men, either local business men or area residents.

City commissioners referred the matter to the Planning Board who discussed it briefly and will include the subject again on next month's agenda, after studying the general character of the area.

On the planning committee with Matthaei are William H. Baldwin, Robert Burton, John C. Emery Jr., Howard T. Keating Jr., William T. Lerchen Jr. and Charles E. Wilson Jr.

Games to be played tonight will decide the Monday play-off opponents against Birmingham Varsity Shop, which has been announced the winning team in the YMCA Softball League during regular season. The team came away with a record of nine wins, one loss and four tie games.

Play will continue each Monday and Thursday at St. James and Booth Fields, on the double elimination process.

GM Chalks Up Best Half Year

$6.5 Billion in Goods Sold for Net Profit of $661 Million

NEW YORK (AP) — The giant General Motors Corp. smashed all previous records during the first half of this year, selling more than 6½ billion dollars worth of goods for a net profit of 661 million dollars.

Sales and earnings for the half and for the second quarter were at peaks never before reached, the company said in a report released yesterday.

Sales for the first six months, said President Harlow H. Curtice and Chairman Alfred P. Sloan Jr., were substantially greater than sales for any full year prior to 1950.

With economic activity in the United States at an all-time high, the company had net sales of $3,412,000,000 in the second quarter compared with $2,636,000,000 in 1954's second quarter. For the six months, net sales were $6,513,000,000 against $5,066,000,000 in the same period a year earlier.

NET INCOME UP

Net income in the second quarter climbed to 352 millions or $3.80 a share. In the second quarter of 1954, net was 236 millions or $2.66 a share.

For the first half, net was 661 millions or $7.23 a share compared with net of 425 millions or $4.79 a share for the first half of 1954.

The bill for U.S. and foreign income taxes for the first six months of this year totaled 767 millions. A year ago, the figure was 458 millions.

GM said its U.S. and Canadian plants operated in excess of rated capacity to produce 2,400,000 units in the first six months—a gain of 32 per cent over last year. Sales of cars and trucks in its plants in England, Germany and Australia were up 13 per cent over the first half of 1954.

DEFENSE SALES DIP

The company observed that defense sales declined to 8½ per cent of total sales for the first half of 1955, compared with 15 per cent for the first half of 1954.

General Motors plans to split its common stock three-for-one this fall.

The report said "a combination of favorable factors has contributed" to the record production.

"Consumer disposable income continues to rise," the report said. "In such an environment, with money and credit available and with widespread confidence prevailing, the public has been and is in a buying mood.

"The automobile industry has been the most important contributor to this greater strength of the national economy. The industry has shown the greatest vigor and vitality in its 50-year history and has brought to the market 1955 lines of cars and trucks which are the most outstanding and represent the greatest values for the dollar ever presented."

Net working capital June 30 was reported at $2,180,000,000 against $1,351,000,000 last Dec. 31. The increase reflected the proceeds of about $325,000,000 from the sale of additional common stock. Net working capital a year ago was $1,524,000,000.

June 30 inventories were $1,451,000,000 against $1,326,000,000 Dec. 31 and $1,359,000,000 a year earlier.

artificial fertilization already is almost compulsory. They do not propose to have any "run out" farming land.

The Seaway will give the products of these resources to a world-wide market and place the people who work them out in a position to receive in exchange their bountiful share of all that the rest of the world can produce.

The scope of the work around Cornwall is best appreciated when viewed from the air. While in this manner you get little perspective of the project in a vertical way, you can see the turbulent course of the rapids by their white water, and get an idea not only of how the canals and locks will conquer them but also force them to put their wasted energies of countless centuries to good work in the future.

Quoting from a recent report on the progress of the work: "The Seaway will become the most inspiring entry in our continent's log book. It is the logical continuation of the work of those who first explored this brave new world and their North American born successors. It proves that the chief lesson which the pioneers taught is that pioneering never ends."

Rochester Woman Hurt in Two-Car Collision

Mrs. Marie Salmi, 32, of 1309 North Oak St., Rochester, was treated at Pontiac General Hospital and released for minor back injuries resulting from a 2-car collision at Orion and Adams Rds. yesterday afternoon.

The accident occurred when the car driven by Mrs. Salmi's husband, crashed into the rear of a car driven by Nancy M. Richardson, 16, of 219 Oak St., Rochester, stopped due to electrical wires that had fallen across the road.

Pekan is the Indian name for marten, a brown fur bearer that lives in trees of northern forests.

ORDINANCE NO. 1283

An Ordinance to amend Section 20 of Ordinance 923, entitled "An Ordinance Regulating Sewers and Drains in the City of Pontiac."

Adopted July 26, 1955
Effective July 26, 1955.

An Ordinance to amend Section 20 of Ordinance No. 923 entitled "An Ordinance Regulating Sewers and Drains in the City of Pontiac."

The City of Pontiac Ordains:

Section 1. That Section 20 of Ordinance No. 923 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 20. In cases where the character of sewage or industrial waste from any manufacturing or industrial plant, building or other premises is such that it imposes an unreasonable burden upon the sewage pumping treatment or disposal works greater than that imposed by the average sewage entering said system, the City Manager shall have the right to make, in addition to the readiness-to-serve and commodity charge, surcharges based on the strength and character of the sewage discharged directly or indirectly into the system.

In cases where the character of the sewage from any manufacturer or industrial plant, building or other premises is such that it will damage the system or cannot be treated satisfactorily in the system, the City Manager shall have the right to require such user to dispose of such waste otherwise, and prevent it from entering the system.

No person shall discharge or cause to be discharged into the sewer or drainage system of the city, directly or indirectly, any of the following described matters, waters or wastes:

(a) Any liquid or vapor having a temperature higher than 150 degrees F.

(b) Any water or waste which may contain more than one hundred (100) parts per million, by weight, of fat, oil or grease.

(c) Any gasoline, benzine, naptha, fuel oil or other flammable or explosive liquid, solid or gas.

(d) Any garbage that has not been properly shredded.

(e) Any ashes, cinders, sand, mud, straw, shavings, metal, glass, rags, feathers, tar, plastics, wood, paunch manure, or any other solid or viscous substance capable of causing obstruction to the flow in sewers or other interferences with the proper operation of the sewage works.

(f) Any water or wastes containing a toxic or poisonous substance such as plating or heat treating wastes in sufficient quantity to injure or interfere with any sewage treatment process, to constitute a hazard to humans or animals, or to create any hazard in the receiving waters of the sewage treatment plant. Any person, firm or corporation whose operations entail the discharge of water or wastes containing toxic or poisonous substance, shall file with the City Manager a written statement setting forth the nature of the operation contemplated or presently carried on, the amount of water required to be used and its source, the proposed point of discharge of said wastes into the sewage system of the city, the estimated amount so to be discharged, and a fair statement setting forth the expected bacterial, physical, chemical and other known characteristics of said wastes. Within 30 days of receipt of such statement, it shall be the duty of the City Manager to make an order stating such minimum restrictions as in the judgment of the City Manager may be necessary to guard adequately against unlawful uses of the city's sewage system.

(g) Any wastes or water containing suspended solids of such character and quantity that unusual attention or expense is required to handle such materials at the sewage treatment plant or in the public sewage system.

(h) Any noxious or malodorous gas or substance capable of creating a public nuisance.

No provision of this section shall, however, be construed as preventing any special agreement or arrangement between the city and any person whereby sewage or wast of unusual strength or character may be accepted by the city for treatment in accordance with the first paragraph of this section.

Certified city personnel shall have the right of ingress and egress to all industrial and commercial properties operating under this ordinance at any reasonable time for inspection purposes.

Section 2. This ordinance is deemed to be an emergency ordinance within the meaning of Section 2 of Chapter III of the City Charter and is given immediate effect. The emergency being the protection of the public, peace, health, welfare and safety in connection with the prevention of pollution of the Clinton River in the City of Pontiac.

Made and passed by the City Commission of the City of Pontiac this 26th day of July, A.D. 1955.

BRIDGE STEELWORK UNDER WAY — Steel work on the main towers of what will be the world's longest suspension bridge over Mackinac Straits, gets under way in Michigan. Steel work rises a sixth of the ultimate 552-feet above water. Flat platform is huge derrick which will "creep" up tower as girders are placed at rate of 50 feet per week. Bridge joining Michigan's upper and lower peninsulas is scheduled for completion in November, 1957.

Wild Pig Outfoxes Would-Be Slayers

LANDRUM, S. C. (AP)—Sawmiller Albert Nodine and four other men were cutting timber when they found fresh tracks of an unusually large wild hog. Previously warned of the hog's bad temper and size by the landowner, they retired for their guns.

When they cornered the 520-pound porker in dense honeysuckles, Nodine poked it with his gun barrel to rouse it into a better shooting position.

The hog turned and charged, racing between Nodine's legs and upsetting him. His gun discharged and the rest of the party converged and fired away. A load of buckshot struck the hog and also Nodine's foot.

Nodine's injuries were more serious than those of the white and black Hampshire. He had to be hospitalized.

Later, the party returned to the woods, tracked down the hog and felled it with six direct hits. The ham was cured for Nodine.

Ranch Thrives in Arctic Circle

Young Canadians Work 400-Acre Farm Miles From Existing Markets

WHITEHORSE, Yukon (UP) — Four young Canadians are trying to strike it rich by ranching beside the storied Dawson Trail of gold rush days.

Markets are no problem, even though they have to travel the last two miles by boat to reach the ranch in summer. The demand for vegetables in Mayo, Dawson City and Whitehorse is never satisfied.

Potatoes bring 18 to 25 cents a pound, carrots 25 cents, milk 50 cents a quart, cream $1.50 a quart and eggs 75 cents a dozen. Baled hay, grown on the ranch, is worth $240 a ton in the Yukon.

Stelfox, who spent three summers at the federal agricultural experimental station at Mile 1019 on the Alaska Highway, was the originator of the project. Recognizing the marketing possibilities, he decided the halfway point on the Dawson Trail was an ideal location.

GAME AND TRAP LINE

There are sound buildings, including an eight-room log house, log barn, a sawmill and other outbuildings.

The land was first settled in 1903 and has had several owners. The present owners moved there in 1953 and plan to stay "a lifetime."

While the project is in its early stages, two of the partners work "outside" to bring in revenue. The others stay on the ranch but alternate their stints outside.

So far, the ranch has a greenhouse, a market garden, cows, chickens, pigs, two teams of horses, four registered Herefords as the basis of a beef herd and a registered Holstein milk cow and two grade milk cows.

The average snowfall is two feet and winter runs from the end of November to the end of March.

There are all sorts of game and plenty of fish. Four tribes of Indians wander through the country.

Press Has Suggestion for George N. Higgins

When Governor G. Mennen Williams appointed George N. Higgins as the Boss Man on the proposed Turnpike, he named an individual that is essentially practical.

Of course George Higgins is primarily a business man. But secondarily, he's an astute and practical politician. Don't ever forget that. George came up the hard way in both sides of life. He began from the bottom and fought his way to the top. He learned first hand. For these reasons, the Press has the temerity to make a suggestion.

This turnpike is necessarily controversial to some extent. Probably all turnpikes have been, but they thrive and the Nation is building them in increasing numbers.

Right here in Oakland County we have a man with an unusual knowledge of roads. He has an unusual knowledge of Oakland County. He has an unusual knowledge of politics. And just incidently, he happens to be one of our favorite people . . . and one of the favorite citizens of hundreds of thousands of residents of Michigan. Perhaps the number extends into the millions.

Here's a former Governor of Michigan — and one of the best. Here's a former Highway Commissioner — and a bear-cat to boot. Here's a construction engineer, past, present and future — and a star at the trade.

What a natural he would make as a consulting engineer on the turnpike deal. Pat is fair, capable, of an understanding nature and possesses a rich background for this assignment that can hardly be equalled. Why, the man lives in Birmingham. He's a road expert. He's one of Michigan's finest political figures. He's a great engineer. And he's one of the most personable men of our acquaintance.

If George Higgins won't think us presumptuous, we'd like to slip up onto his back porch long enough to suggest Mr. Van Wagoner as a part of the turnpike picture. And if we're wrong, George can rebuke us in public or in private.

Mrs. E. A. Christian One of Our Great Pioneers

Truly, Pontiac has lost one of her great pioneering spirits in the death of Mrs. E. A. Christian.

Mrs. Christian was one of the energetic souls in a great band of early Pontiac women who devoted themselves wholeheartedly and without reservation to progress and betterment.

She was one of the prime movers in organizing and financing the current City hospital. The plan originated with her and with her friends who formed a determined group of crusading ladies. They found a full-scale battle on their hands and they met a series of disappointments, but nothing stopped them and today the institution on West Huron Street is a perpetual and lasting monument to their foresight and determination.

Also, Mrs. Christian was very active in the early and formative days of the Red Cross. Here again her will-to-do was in evidence and again she helped fight through to a winning conclusion.

This city will bear the touch of her capable fingers and energetic mind on into perpetuity.

Korean Truce 2 Years Old

Yesterday, July 27, was the second anniversary of the truce which halted the Korean war.

On this date in 1953 that struggle precipitated by Korean Reds' aggression and sometimes called a police action, had been in progress for three years and one month.

What most of us probably forget is that the truce is no more than an armistice, not a peace, and that the Chinese Communists might resume hostilities any time.

Also generally forgotten is the fact that negotiations which culminated in the truce, continued for two years and 17 days, an all time record for such efforts. Terms of the truce paved the way for the large scale exchange of war prisoners at Panmunjom which soon was referred to as "Operation Big Switch."

Issues not settled by the truce negotiators were left to a political conference to be held later. This came in connection with the Geneva conference in the Spring of 1954 on the Indochinese war, but it got nowhere. As President Eisenhower has said, it left Korea "unsatisfactorily partitioned."

Popular 2 Weeks

Favorite Vacation Time of Entire Year Now Is With Us

Marriage: After which a man or woman has better judgment—but then it's too late.

We now are in the midst of the most popular two-week vacation period of the entire year—that last week in July and first week in August. This is borne out by statements from

Emerson Alston,

Pontiac Manager for the American Automobile Association;

Gerry Jones,

Pontiac Superintendent for the Greyhound Lines;

Harold F. Wright,

Pontiac Ticket Agent for the Grand Trunk Railway; also by reports from aviation and other travel agencies. This year it appears that more women than men are travel bound, also that traffic hazards are driving more people to the railroad, planes and steamship lines. As one of Pontiac's heaviest travelers puts it, "Just to get away from driving your own car is the best part of a vacation."

My encyclopedia says that jazz is a Creole word meaning "speed up," and has an African origin.

Now medical science reports that the old remark, applies to all ages, as the body completely rebuilds itself every year.

"I'm not the man I used to be,"

now living in Detroit, tells of the biggest argument in Pontiac 60 years ago. It was because the barns in which farmers housed their horses when coming to town to trade had raised the fee from 10 cents to 15 cents per day. He sends a clipping from the Pontiac Weekly Gazette, which accuses the barn owners of "driving the farmer trade to Rochester or Birmingham."

Word just received from our Ortonville scout

Confidential advices from top men in the automotive field indicate that we will not have such a riot of colors in the 1956 models.

With memories of his boyhood days in Pontiac, 82-year-old of Detroit, writes that he remembers going to the Anderson Grocery here for kerosene for the family lamps. Gasoline then was called "naptha," sold only for cleaning purposes, and considered almost a waste product.

Mr. and Mrs. William Crossman,

David Lawrence Says:

Dem Critics of Ike's SEC Appointments Seem to Forget New Deal Shenanigans

WASHINGTON — Memories are short in the halls of Congress, or else it is convenient to forget when it's politically advantageous to do so.

* * *

One wonders how the six Democrats on the Senate Banking Committee could sign the statement they issued this week condemning the recent appointments by the president to the Securities and Exchange Commission without realizing that the Eisenhower Republican Administration may have learned to do what it is doing by a study of the practices and customs of the Democratic administrations.

For it was early in the New Deal when Roosevelt not only refused to reappoint those who didn't agree with him but actually removed William E. Humphrey as a member of the Federal Trade Commission because, as the then President wrote, the "mind" of the commissioner "didn't go along" with his.

Senators Fulbright of Arkansas, Sparkman of Alabama, Douglas of Illinois, Lehman of New York and Monroney of Oklahoma, who now claim the Securities and Exchange Commission is being "packed" with persons who come from the ranks of business and finance, would hardly go on record as condemning all the appointments of an anti-business nature made by the New Deal and Fair Deal administrations in filling vacancies on government boards and commissions.

* * *

It was notorious in New Deal days that, where the statute called for bipartisan appointments, the Democratic Administration was careful to pick Republicans who were New Dealers.

The New Deal and Fair Deal practice was to seek out ideologically suitable nominees for the bipartisan commissions. As for the Supreme Court of the United States, Roosevelt, out of several appointments, named only one man who had been a practicing lawyer for any length of time—all the others had been law professors or politicians with little experience in actual litigation.

As far as sympathies were concerned, both Roosevelt and Truman selected men known to be in accord with a particular viewpoint. If it was a labor board, the appointees had to be pro-labor. If it was a commission or board to regulate business, it usually had to be someone with an anti-business bias.

Today the Democratic senators who object to the appointment to the Securities and Exchange Commission of men with banking or investment experience are saying, in effect, that such men cannot be honest and impartial once they take the oath of office to serve the government of the United States.

The radicals have tried this tactic many times in the past with regrettable effects. The late Sen. Norris of Nebraska unsuccessfully fought the confirmation of Charles Evans Hughes for the chief justiceship of the Supreme Court in 1930 because he had been a corporation lawyer.

The labor bosses at about the same time defeated the confirmation of Judge John J. Parker for the Supreme Court because in a federal court decision he had, in a matter of law, ruled against a labor union. Yet Judge Parker is known as one of the most liberal men on the bench, and labor chiefs have since conceded they were mistaken.

* * *

What the radicals want is to drive all businessmen out of Washington. They want a return to the days of the college professors who dominated nearly every important agency or supplied the basic memoranda for the New Deal policies.

Perhaps by the time the 1956 campaign is on, this record will attract more attention. For it is obvious that many Democrats are moving more and more toward radicalism and programs of government ownership and government control of almost everything, with the same kind of "brain trusters" in power who nearly wrecked the free enterprise system of America in the '30's.

Medical Writer Aghast at Tonsil Orgy Pictures

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Even though it is less than ten minutes from my playroom to the bowling green—my patience is limited. Oh, I'm not afraid for my life, just for my job. Dr. John Hunter, 18th century Scottish surgeon somehow didn't bowl, as most Scotsmen do, and so, as he said, his life was in the hands of any rascal who chose to annoy and tease him.

* * *

It is my job that is in the hands of, not any rascal, but the nice kind people who clip and send to me the piece and the picture telling of the latest atrocity—the wholesale assault on the tonsils of an entire family of defenseless children.

Please don't send any more items of that sort, folks, unless you want to get me fired. Such abuses make me so mad I can't write anything printable. I have outlived Dr. John Hunter, George Cheyne, Prof. Metchnikoff, Doctor Osler and other amateurs who advanced interesting theories on longevity but didn't do their morning rolls—somersaults, as I have called 'em ever since Tony was a pup.

Luther Burbank outlived 'em too—he rolled somersaults—I saw him rolling on his front lawn on his 75th birthday, in the news movies. But, after all, I can't roll around here all day, so please file news pictures of tonsil atrocities in the incinerator and help me to emulate the man who was responsible for the launching of this column, Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes (particularly the Autocrat and Professor sketches).

LIVED 85 YEARS

Holmes stuck around for 85 years. I don't know whether he rolled any, but I wouldn't put it past him.

I'm sorry for any old stiff past 35 who can't or doesn't do half a dozen forward rolls first thing every morning.

Before the businessmen of medicine embarked on the "tonsillectomy" orgy in the early decades of this century the removal of enlarged tonsils was called tonsillotomy.

It was done with guillotine, a sliding blade ring knife called the tonsillotome. It is a minor operation, as compared with the dangerous major operation called tonsillectomy. It is instantaneous—and no more dangerous to the child than the extraction of a tooth is to an adult. Nor more painful, at the time of operation or afterward, with or without a general or local anesthetic.

The ever-ready operators who insist on "tonsillectomy" for children whose main trouble is obstruction of the breathing passages prate about the importance of "getting every bit of tonsil tissue"—as though tonsil tissue were malignant. The truth is that more or less tonsil tissue remains in the throat after most such operations. So it comes to this: Tonsillectomy removes more of the normal tonsil tissue than tonsillotomy does. So what? Let the ever-ready operators answer, if they can.

* * *

The large tonsils of children are usually just enlarged, not infected. In most instances they shrink to normal size in the summer if the children play outdoors as much as they should. Therefore when the ever-ready operator urges immediate removal of the child's "bad tonsils" in the winter or spring, give the child a break—wait and see what the good old summertime will do for those "bad tonsils."

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich

'Russian Purposes Same at Summit as Always'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Again a great meeting comes to an end, and as always, everybody seems to be smiling and in good spirits, especially the Commies. And why not? They so far have accomplished their aim . . . to make U.S. and the rest really believe that world peace was their goal.

What a terrible surprise is due the U.S. in the future not so far away. Should we not know that we are dealing with people who have sworn the destruction of Christianity and everything good. People who are truce-breakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce and who despise those who are good.

Hospital Extension Backer Anxious for Facilities

I saw a letter in the Voice of the People a little while ago that asked why we weren't seeing some activity at the Pontiac City Hospital.

I'm one of the voters that favored the extension and I'm anxious to see it started. I was a patient there and I realize how over-crowded they are. Hospital equipment is expensive but three and a half million dollars will help build many new rooms and equip them with modern hospital facilities.

The work should be started at once. Why hasn't it begun already?

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

For thou art my hope, O Lord God: thou art my trust from my youth.—Psalms 71:5.

Youth, health, and hope may fade, but there is left

James Marlow Says:

Trips to Rival Countries Might Enlighten Leaders

WASHINGTON (AP)—If President Eisenhower wants to let the Russian leaders mingle with the sweating proletariat in a way they never saw in Moscow he could invite them over for a Sunday afternoon in August on Coney Island.

If he doesn't invite them to this country, they may beat him to the punch by asking him to Moscow. They already seem fully launched on a public relations job that has the rest of the world startled and guessing.

* * *

Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday that at Geneva last week Western and Russian leaders discussed exchange visits "throughout the whole echelons of government." That means all the way from the top to the bottom.

In disclosing this, Eisenhower possibly paved the way—and prepared American thinking if it happens—for an exchange of invitations between himself and Russian Prime Minister Bulganin.

* * *

The President said no definite invitations were issued. But a few minutes later British Prime Minister Eden, who was also at Geneva, announced Bulganin and Communist party chief Khrushchev would visit Britain in the spring.

The Russian leaders' plan to go to Britain in 1956 may indicate they intend to maintain the pleasant relations established at Geneva even though, in the meantime, they make no major concessions to the West in foreign affairs.

If the Russians have an impression that only rich Americans eat well, Eisenhower might conduct Bulganin and Khrushchev on a tour through a few huge neighborhood food stores and change their minds.

They've heard of American prosperity but could hardly believe it unless they saw the millions of automobiles on streets and highways, the clothing and furniture in the department stores, and even the busy candy and delicatessen shops.

* * *

If they've wondered about American resources and skills and the conditions of workers with their free labor unions, Eisenhower could take them through the farmlands, the factories, and into the mines and universities.

American workers in the middle of the 20th century—in the factories and mines and shops—can be called the proletariat but they are not the same proletariat Karl Marx wrote about in the middle of the 19th century.

* * *

By the same token Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles might develop a new respect and appreciation for the ultimate resources and power of Russia if they could see personally some of the vastness of the country and the people.

True, the Russians are still far behind the industrial development of the United States but they have made enormous industrial progress since the Revolution of 1917, and their scientific progress has been astonishing.

It has been one of the ironies of history that the heads of government, making policies that affect each other's people, seldom have had a chance to visit across the borders for a first-hand look for themselves.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Stewardess Deplores Airline's Policy of Peddling Liquor Up and Down Aisles

Marilyn's protest against an unAmerican practice deserves careful consideration by every loyal citizen. The air lines are making a serious mistake in forcing women and children to sit in saloons beside whisky guzzling passengers. And it disgraces airplane stewardesses to make common barmaids out of them.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case O—394: Marilyn M., aged 22, is a lovely airplane stewardess.

When I was flying to Atlanta recently, a bunch of high school boys occupied several seats ahead of me.

* * *

Soon Marilyn pasesd out green cards to them and everybody else in the plane, including women and mothers and youngsters. She gave me one.

It was a menu card listing whisky and soda, martinis, etc. at prices ranging from 75 cents to $1.00.

"Humph," one of the lads ahead of me muttered. "I had heard they served you chocolate or coffee for free when you took a plane ride."

Later the steward at the front end of the plane mixed the drinks in our sight and then the stewardess went up and down the aisle serving liquor to all those who ordered it.

Women who abhorred liquor and who never would voluntarily enter a barroom or saloon, were thus forced to sit beside strange men who guzzled their whisky.

* * *

After everybody who indicated a preference for liquor had been served, then the stewardess went around and said she also had chocolate and coffee if any passengers wished it.

So the high schoolers ahead of me ordered chocolate, and I did, too.

FORCED BARMAIDS

When Marilyn served me a cup of chocolate with some cookies, I asked her how long this custom of indiscriminately selling whisky up and down the aisles, had been in vogue, for I had ridden airplanes for years from coast to coast, and this was my first experience.

Oh, I had flown in the huge airliners which have a bar downstairs on a lower deck.

* * *

But here was a violation of the previous custom prevalent on both trains and airplanes. For the trains, too, serve liquor, but it isn't paraded up and down the aisles where good family folks are riding.

Now, however, a new innovation was being created in which the liquor was being served to anybody up and down the aisles.

"How long have they forced you stewardesses into being barmaids?" I asked Marilyn.

She made a wry face, then shrugged her shoulders forlornly.

"It has been only a few months," she replied. "Isn't it terrible? I never dreamed I'd be compelled to do this when I studied to be an airplane stewardess.

"But I have been caught in a web, for after I had trained for this job, they suddenly started this business of serving whisky up and down the aisles.

"I don't like the idea and neither do a lot of the other girls, but we hate to quit our jobs."

UNAMERICAN PRACTICE

"But, Dr. Crane," somebody may protest, "don't the restaurants serve liquor up and down the aisles, too."

* * *

Yes, many do, but many do not and the American public still retains the right to patronize the combination barroom restaurant or the eating places where liquor is not served.

But airplanes are a monopoly of transportation in their realm, so it is a distinctly different practice to compel mothers and youngsters to sit beside whisky guzzlers.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UP) — Joe Evans told police he accepted an invitation from a couple of friends and went to their car to have a drink. When he woke up, he was in a brush patch on lonely Tupper's Creek.

He was missing his pants, shoes, sport shirt and wallet with $75 in it. "They took everything but my shorts and socks," said Evans.

NEW YORK (UP) — Electrical energy distributed last week reached a record high of 10,620,000,000 kilowatt hours, Edison Electric Institute has reported.

That was up 16.7 per cent from the 9,103,00,000 kilowatt hours distributed in the same week a year ago. The total for the previous week this year was 10,440,000,000.

JACKSONILLE, Fla. (UP)—Haakon Sande of Long Island, N. Y., a crew member of the tug, M. Moran, en route to New York, fell overboard several miles from shore and saw the vessel chug right on northward and out of sight.

A shrimp boat, heading into port, picked him up.

Only two days before Sande as a member of the crew of the tug had gone to the aid of the S. S. Surna, a big cargo ship which had lost a propeller 250 miles off Jacksonville.

Baseball Fans Eat Mountain of Food

ST. LOUIS (INS) — Baseball is big business in St. Louis and 12 other major league cities in the United States. But a sideline business in ball parks is almost as big and often more profitable than the game itself.

The sideline is the concession business. Charles E. Bailey, Manager of Missouri Sport Sevice, wich caters to fans of the St. Louis Cardinals, reports he spends upward of $750,000 a year at wholesale to satisfy the hunger demands of the baseball going public.

Last year, for instance, Bailey estimated St. Louis fans bought 82 miles of hot dogs (if laid end-to-end), more than a million bottles of beer (93,940 gallons), half that amount of soft drinks, 520,000 sacks of peanuts and crackerjack, 350,000 snow cones (flavored chipped ice) and 90,000 boxes of popcorn.

It also took 1,650 gallons of mustard for the hot dogs and 1,000 gallons of pickle relish.

Florida Bay, between mainland and the Keys, shelters about 200 spoonbills and 60 nests during breeding season. When the National Audubon Society started protecting them, there were but 35 birds and 10 nests.

THE BERRYS By Carl Grubert

Damsite Larger Than Pyramids

PORTLAND, Ore. (INS)—United States engineers, who like figures, discovered that one of their smaller projects is much bigger than the largest pyramid in Egypt.

The engineers checked upon Lookout Point dam on the Williamette River about 23 miles southeast of Eugene and its re-regulating nuit, Dexter dam. The two were dedicated June 25.

Douglas W. Polivka, chief of the technical liaison branch of the Portland engineer district, found that the dam contains almost three times as much material as the biggest of the famed Egyptian pyramids.

The dams contain 8,500,000 cubic yards of earth fill and 915,000 cubic yards of concrete. The biggest pyramid contains 3,360,000 cubic yards.

The dams have a combined base area of 25 acres, almost twice the 13 acres of the pyramid. Lookout Point dam is 630 feet high and the pyramid is 482 feet high.

In 1910-1919, six pounds of canned fruits and juices were purchased for every 100 pounds of fresh; in 1950, 33 pounds of canned fruits and juices—plus four pounds of frozen—were purchased for every 100 pounds of fresh.

Mental Cases Hold Good Jobs

Prof. Discovers Some Sick Persons Succeed in Occupations

CARBONDALE, Ill. (UP) — A Southern Illinois University sociologist has found that some mentally ill persons "carry on managerial and professional jobs with apparent success."

Dr. Herman Lantz reported on the first mental study ever made of a large group of non-hospitalized men.

His subjects were 1,000 World War II Air Force officers and enlisted men from various culture regions and walks of life.

"Some mentally ill persons make the grade in high-status positions because somehow they are able to integrate their devient personalities with their occupations," Lantz said in a report in the journal, Social Problems.

The sociologist found 36.1 per cent of the 119 men who held high-status positions in civilian life were severely psychoneurotic; 21 per cent were mildly so, and 8.4 per cent were actually psychotics —the most advanced form of mental illness.

Lantz said his findings "call for an analysis of such people to learn how they are able to integrate their psychoneuroses with their jobs."

His study shows persons engaged in agricultural vocations are least psychotic of any occupation. Lantz believes this is due more to rural family and group life than to occupation.

Alaska's 24-Hour Day Wears Out Novices

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (INS)— The Sourdoughs (Alaskan oldtimers) like to tell the Cheechakos (stateside greenhorns) that this rugged country is like a woman — it can inspire a man to great creativity or it can destroy him.

* * *

Well, don't look for any great creation from me, tolerant reader.

Me, it is destroying.

The reason is that the Sourdoughs, some of whom are really sweet as frosy whale blubber, believe that newcomers should be initiated promptly. They think you should stay up drinking in he beauties of nature, and whatever else you can lay lip to, until the shades of night have fallen.

Trouble is they never fall.

You fall, finally. The natives stagger a little. But the shades of night, in July, never, never descend. When they speak of daylight time in Allaska, they aren't kidding.

* * *

It is truly an admirable sight, and well worth a 24-hour debauch, however, watching the sunset melt into the sunrise without ever giving way to the old debbil night. In the wintertime, the local Anchoragibles get nearly 24 hours of darkness, so they stock up on sleep.

TURN NIGHT INTO DAY

In the summer, they hold midnight golf tournaments, have eight-hour long sunset-sunrise sails and collapse behind black-draped windows only when their knees will no longer support their big, fat enthusiasms.

* * *

I watched, and timed, the miracle of the skies at night from a table at the "Idle Hour Club," one of several swanky sunset vantage points outside metropolitan Anchorage.

(Don't expect igloos, Eskimos, snow or grizzly bears in Anchorage. Expect ranch-style homes, taxi meters, supermarkets and bar after saloon after cocktail lounge.)

At 8:45 p.m., approximately, the spectacle begins. The sun is making such a slow, slight descent that the golfers are just teeing off on No. 1.

At 9:30, the clouds hanging flat-bottomed along the snow-striped mountains begin to take on a rose glow, and the blue sky overhead grows a more vivid blue.

SUNSETS IGNORED

The golfers play on, taking sunsets for granted.

At 10, the sky is lively indeed. A deeper pink now, it looks like the shocking shade of Schiaparelli gift boxes, and the clouds now seem to be burning on their undersides. On top, they are whipped cream: Inverted strawberry meringues. The mountains purple a bit, become more subdued.

So do the golfers. They begin to make excuses for bad putts.

* * *

By 10:30, the sun is well below the mountains but its memory lingers high in the sky, more of an orange cast now. The mountains are dark. But the sunset casts a coppery patch on the water of Lake Spenard, and the private pilots glide their aquaplanes into the colorful runway.

The golfers call it an 18, and return to the clubhouse porch. Fortunately, it is still light enough to read the beverage menu.

The sky, the clouds, the surface of the water gradually soften until, at midnight, the air is hazy, as in a New York early twilight. But the skyline behind the jagged mountains is still a ladylike pink, streaked with soft brush strokes of gray.

* * *

"You see?" say the Sourdoughs to the Cheechakos, "the sun doesn't go to bed, it just snoozes a little." Then they lean back restfully and close their eyes for a few minutes, before they arise to the wonders of the new day and another sunrise. The air has chilled to a temperature of 49 degrees.

The sun begins to rise, apparently, about 1 a.m. and it is the backwards, with the paleness gradually becoming vivid, and the gray clouds fluffing back to white.

* * *

By 2:30 a.m., the golfers can start again. By 4 a.m., the air is warming. By 8 a.m., the sun is high. By 9 a.m., the Sourdoughs are alive to a new day's promise . . .

The Cheechakos, on the other hand, are dead.

Overpopulated?

From Aswan in southern Egypt to the Nile Delta, the banks of the river are settled and cultivated to a depth of only about 10 miles back from the shores. Egypt's borders enclose a land area equal to Texas and New Mexico combined. Yet it squeezes a population of 22,221,000, two and a half times that of Texas, into three per cent of this space.

Graham Returns From Continent

Business Manager Says Evangelist Addressed 3.5 Million People

LONDON (AP)—Billy Graham sails home tomorrow after captivating thousands of European hearts.

By careful estimate, the North Carolina evangelist has spoken to 3½ million people since he opened a six-week campaign in Glasgow last March. Many more have heard him on radio or television.

* * *

Kelvin Hall in Glasgow accommodates about 17,000. He filled it every weekday night for six weeks, and frequently came out to address overflow crowds. He filled the Hampden Park football stadium near Glasgow, largest in Europe, to its capacity of 100,000. He preached for a week in London's Wembley Stadium, where the 1948 Olympics were held.

After that he went to the Continent and took his message to Frenchmen, Swiss, Germans, Danes, Norwegians, Dutch, Swedes and American servicemen. Despite language barriers those audiences totaled almost half a million.

Once more he came to Britain, and this month at the Arsenal football stadium in London he preached to 45,000 at the closing meeting of the Baptist World Alliance.

* * *

There remained a few dates with American servicemen in France and now, says Graham, "It's time to go home."

Most clergymen who have expressed opinions like Billy Graham and concede that his methods bring results. And he is pleased with his reception on the Continent.

"We heard a few discordant voices, as one would expect," he said. "But the press and religious groups were more cooperative than they were a year ago."

* * *

He feels there is great spiritual hunger on the Continent, particularly in France and Germany.

In Germany original doubts about Graham appeared to have been overcome largely by the sincerity of his appeal.

Christ and the World, a Protestant weekly of Stuttgart, said: "Graham is certainly a deeply religious man. But one must ask whether it is good to include the church in the province of the business promoter and whether it is sufficient to fill as many football stadiums as possible."

They're Getting Set for Television Show

IPOH, Malaya (AP) — There's no television in Malaya but the telecommunications department is getting ready for it.

Officials say a new micro-wave telephone system will be established in this tin mining capitol of Malaya. It will enable 600 long distance calls to be made at the same time, compared to the 96 at present. The new system also can carry radio and television programs.

Okinawan Puts Teeth Into Political Argument

NAHA, Okinawa (AP)—Tokuhachi Namihira likes to get his teeth into a good hot political argument.

The 48-year-old Okinawan got into a verbal hassle over relative merits of Okinawan political parties with his friend Toyoya Matsuda. It waxed hotter and hotter.

Dam Troubling Farmers

Farmers sometimes berate the beaver, Castor canadensis, says the National Geographic Society. The animal dams an irrigation ditch as quickly as a stream, and it is fully capable of chopping down half a dozen young fruit trees in a single night.

Man Gets Hard Labor for Threatening Nehru

BOMBAY, India (AP) — The Nagpur district magistrate today sentenced a 34-year-old rickshaw puller to six years at hard labor for "attempting to cause Prime Minister Nehru's death."

The man, Baburao Kochale, had been convicted yesterday by a five-man jury.

Waving a knife, Kochale jumped on the side of Nehru's automobile last March while the Prime Minister was visiting Nagpur. Police said the man was angry because he had been arrested previously for a traffic violation.

Committee Reopens German Ax Slaying

NEW YORK (AP) — The Senate Armed Services Committee "has quietly reopened" the case of the 1946 ax slayings of three American Army officers in Passau, Germany, the New York Daily News said today.

Former Army Capt. James M. Leech, of Lima, Ohio, was charged with the crime last year in warrants issued by a United States court in Germany.

Leech has denied killing the three officers—Maj. Everett S. Cofran, Washington, D.C.; Capt. Adrian L. Wessler, New Rochelle, N.Y.; and Lt. Stanley M. Rosewater, Omaha, Neb.

They were bludgeoned in their beds at a luxurious villa at Passau, and their rooms were set afire.

Last May 12, however, a week after West Germany regained its sovereignty, the Bavarian state prosecutor started a new investigation.

Good Will Gesture

To foster international good will, Cleveland maintains a series of gardens in Rockefeller Park, each honoring a different national culture, says the National Geographic Society. The project was begun in 1926. Thus far, 16 of the Cultural Gardens are finished.

Dead Man Assures Judge He's Alive and Kicking

SEATTLE (AP) — Olin Martin Lamb, 40, took an oath yesterday before Asst. U.S. Atty. Frank Cushman that he isn't dead. He and the government hope it will dispel doubts from the mind of his mother Mrs. Lottie Lamb Mann, of Jacksonville, Fla.

* * *

She claims she hasn't heard from Lamb since 1940 and thinks he should be presumed dead. She has claimed his $1,000 life insurance, taken out when he was a soldier 23 years ago.

Lamb didn't say why he hasn't written.

Rough Rabbit Gives Snake Good Beating

GREAT END, Kans. (AP) — Timid as a rabbit?

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Copeland don't believe that time-worn expression any more.

On a recent visit to the cemetery at Harper, Kan., they saw a cottontail run and jump into battle with a big snake that had caught a baby rabbit.

The grown rabbit kicked with its hind legs, several times was flipped head over heels, once was trapped with the snake coiled around its body. But the baby rabbit escaped in the excitement—and so did the cottontail, after kicking itself free and returning to the attack.

All Kids Like School —So Says the Teacher

WATERVLIET (AP) — Dwight Brink, 35, Michigan's Rural School Teacher of the Year, debunks the idea that some children don't like school.

"There is no child who doesn't want to attend school," he says, "if the school is run with the child in mind."

Jail Has Escape Hatch

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Somebody fashioned a 15-inch hole in a mesh grating atop the elevator shaft at the city jail. Police, reasonably sure nobody had broken into jail, believe some trusty used the escape hatch to come and go as he pleased. The mesh screen had been worn shiny by someone crawling through it many times.

Flight to L. A. Provides Fast Geography Lesson

By EARL WILSON

LOS ANGELES—My apologies to the great O. O. McIntyre. He wrote "Thoughts While Strolling" (in New York City). Today a roving, sometimes raving, reporter must stroll with giant steps, crossing the whole country by plane in only a few hours more than it took Odd McIntyre to pick out his gaudiest vest, tour the town and begin pecking at his typewriter.

GENE NELSON

These are some notes I made last week while flying to cover the Miss Universe contest in Long Beach, Calif.

I dashed from my N.Y. apartment at 9:40 a.m. the other day.

"Idlewild!" I bellowed to a cabbie. "Gotta make the 10:30 plane to Los Angeles."

Forty minutes later I puffed onto Flight 99.

A lovely stewardess asked if I wanted a martini now and would I have champagne or coffee with my lunch.

Now I'm a member of cafe society. Not coffee society.

The wife not being along, I could see out the window.

Hi, down there, if 'tisn't Philadelphia. Hi, Phil!

Don't look now, but there goes Pittsburgh! . . . Psst! That's Erie, Pa., home of Kay Williams, rushing past us . . . and there's Canton . . . and Akron, one-time home of Clark Gable, who married Kay.

Four hours out—and there's the Mississippi waggling past us . . . and St. L'Musialville, home of Slam the Man.

"Did you know Gene Nelson was aboard?" asked a stewardess.

DOLORES

What! We talked about his making a picture in England with Mona Freeman. Kansas City, Wichita, Chillicothe, Mo., Osawatomie, Kan., and Las Vegas whooshed right under our window without me seeing 'em.

"We are arriving at Los Angeles International Airport 30 minutes early," the stewardess suddenly announced.

My goodness! I left N.Y. at 10:30 a.m. N.Y. time and it's only 4 p.m. California time—and we're already coming down. What a city lies below us! This Los Angeles may one day be the biggest city in the world, topping even London.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

After three days of fun in H'wood, Eddie Fisher and Debbie Reynolds weekended at Arrowhead—but aren't talking about their plans . . . Sammy Davis Jr. will make two pictures for Frank Sinatra's independent movie company.

Lovely Delores Donlon and her husband, Vic Orsatti, will film "Hong Kong" in London—and Hong Kong.

Billy Rose is cruising around town in an $18,500 Rolls Royce . . . The King of Siam mailed three original rock-and-roll tunes to a Tin Pan Alley publisher . . . Paul Muni's "Inherit the Wind" will pay off its backers by Labor Day . . . Alan Dale's "Sweet and Gentle" record boosted his cafe salary to $5,000 a week—just what he owed two months ago.

Japan Seeking Big 'Lost Army'

108,434 Vets of WW II Still Missing; Most Believed Red Captives

TOKYO, July 27 (AP)—Japan has a lost army of 108,434 men.

They are the missing of World War II who are believed still alive somewhere in a vast area spanning a quarter of the globe.

* * *

Most of them—106,434—were last reported in the hands of the Soviet Union and Communist China. The other 2,000 are stragglers left on Pacific islands or bypassed in countries of Southeast Asia.

Their fate ballooned into a major issue in London talks between Japan and Rusia. Japan demands the lost army's release. Russia says all have been returned except for a handful serving war crimes sentences.

"Chances are very slim for return of these many thousands," says Yuichi Takenaka, repatriation affairs director of the Foreign Ministry's Asian Bureau.

The bureau says 1,500 are "definitely" in Siberia, 1,000 are on Sakhalin Island north of Japan and 7,000 are "believed alive" in Red China.

The bureau reached its figure of 106,434 by deducting from the known number of Japanese soldiers in Manchuria, North Korea, the Kurile Islands and Sakhalin the number returned by the Communists plus the number reported dead by returning repatriates.

* * *

Takenaka says there can be many more in captivity. Not only Russia but Red China has been asked about the whereabouts of mising soldiers "but each time they reply 'whereabouts now unknown,'" he said.

About a fifth of U.S. crop and range land has been seriously damaged by water or wind, says the Twentieth Century Fund.

Hotel Expels Mr. Peepers for 2nd Time

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Wally Cox, television's Mr. Peepers, can now compile his Las Vegas logbook:

July 15—Started four-week stint, $11,000 a week, as star of Dunes Hotel floor show.

July 18—Fired after three shows. Laid egg, says management.

July 18—Hired back. Same salary. New material.

July 26—Fired again. Not enough customers, they say.

And today? Mickey Rooney and Joey Foreman are scheduled to replace Cox, starting tonight, for what's left of the engagement. Cox, a shy, bespectacled comedian, said he didn't know what he'd do next.

The management of the Dunes didn't say what would happen about the comedian's pay. Last night Cox hadn't been officially informed that the Dunes would get along without him when a reporter told him the news.

"My gosh," said Cox. "Well, think of that!"

Ike to Be Grandpop the Fourth Time O'er

WASHINGTON (AP) — A beaming President Eisenhower announced at a news conference today he expects to be a grandfather for the fourth time.

Newsmen greeted the President's disclosure with applause and cheers.

Eisenhower broke off a discussion of the Big Four conference to say with evident happiness that immediately upon his return from Geneva his daughter-in-law, Barbara, told him that if all goes well she will have a fourth child next Christmas time.

Barbara, wife of the President's only son, Maj. John Eisenhower, now has three children — a boy and two girls.

JUNIOR EDITORS

JUNIOR EDITORS SEE AMERICA—4

Cape Cod

A low, sandy hook of land 65 miles long south of Boston is Cape Cod. Junior Editors who travel in Massachusetts will probably visit it.

The cape varies in width from one to 20 miles. Everywhere there are sand dunes and sandy beaches. Cranberries grow in the marshes. It got its name because so many codfish are caught off its shores.

It has an interesting history. In 1620 the Mayflower anchored in the harbor of what is now Provincetown, one of the most important towns on the cape. And in the 1800s Cape Cod was a center of the whaling industry.

Many city people have summer homes on the cape, but there are many people who live there all their lives. In the long cold winters when the heavy surf pounds in along the shores, the people keep close to their small houses. Most of them are fishermen and they repair their boats and mend their nets during the winter.

In every harbor are long lines of small fishing boats, anchored along the shores. The fishermen go out in the morning before daybreak and return late at night with their catch.

In the picture Junior Editors are aboard one of the small fishing boats. They are wearing fishermen's hats and the boy has on a pair of fishermen's boots.

Paste this picture on light cardboard, color it with crayons after it is dry. Cut around the circle. Then cut out the boat along the heavy line and fold back on the dotted line. The boat will rock like a real one.

Tomorrow: The Alamo

Niagara Falls, Ont., Misjudges Neighbor

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., (AP) — Niagara Falls, Ont., took another look and decided neighboring Niagara Falls, N. Y., wasn't making an underhanded tourist grab after all.

W. S. Orr, city manager on the Ontario side, told his local Council Monday that signs had been put up in Niagara Falls, N.Y., to discourage travelers from crossing into Canada. He said the signs pictured the Ontario city as a place of poor accommodations and bad plumbing.

* * *

Civic officials here threatened to reply with signs of their own.

Yesterday Chamber of Commerce officials in both cities said they could find no evidence that signs on the U. S. side were running down the Canadian region.

Donald Murie, secretary of the Niagara Falls, Ont., Chamber, said Orr's information about the signs came "only by word of mouth, and third hand at that." Murie made no further mention of some complaints he himself advanced at the meeting Monday — that the Americans were telling tourists the food was poor in Ontario and they might get gypped in changing their money.

To Modernize Charter

GRAND HAVEN (AP)—City Council has approved a proposal to modernize the present city charter. Mayor Claude Verduin says "every effort will be made to put the charter revision proposal on the ballot in September." Verduin explained the city's present charter first was adopted in 1914 and revised in 1931.

Ex-Rusk Maker Dies

HOLLAND (AP) — George Schurman, a founder of the former Dutch Tea Rusk Co. which became the Hekman Rusk Co., died Tuesday at his home. He was 73. Schurman retired in 1948 after 42 years service with the rusk firm.

Thorez Relinquishes French Communist Post

PARIS (INS) — The weekly magazine "Samedi Soir" reports that French Communist Chieftain Maurice Thorez has relinquished political leadership of the Communist party.

The magazine said Thorez took the action because of ill health.

Thorez was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage in 1950 and later went to Russia on two separate occasions for treatment. He returned to France in October, 1954.

Registration Deadline for Aircraft—July 31

LANSING (AP) — Michigan plane owners have been warned by the State Aeronautics Department that their aircraft registration certificates expire at midnight July 31.

The plane owners pay a fee of half a cent a pound of net empty weight in lieu of all general or local property taxes.

Band Clinic Will Give Football Halftime Ideas

EAST LANSING (AP)—More than 70 high school band directors and student drum majors from at least three states will cook up new ideas for football shows at Michigan State University's first Marching Band Clinic July 29-30.

Enrollments have already been received from Ohio and West Virginia, as well as Michigan. Guest experts from UCLA and Florida State University will instruct.

Oh! That Ole Red Barn Ain't What It Used to Be

WASHINGTON — The big red barns, bulging symbols of America's rural abundance, are heading for some changes.

Long adorning the landscape, many picturesque barns stand outmoded by present-day efficiency farming. When they burn or deteriorate beyond use, smaller barns will likely take their place.

There are several reasons, says the National Geographic Society. Baled hay needs less space than hay mows. The trend now is against a stall for every cow and toward "roaming" quarters instead. Compact mechanized equipment, housed in a shed, replaces work horses.

Already some ultramodern barns have developed, including highly functional aluminum ones. One new-type structure was spotted by an airplane pilot about 20 miles west of Montreal, Canada. He mistook its glinting surface for a flying saucer. Silvery fiber glass sections were fixed in a wooden framework, forming a 32-foot-high dome 83 feet across. Beneath it the dairyman sheltered 23 Ayrshire cattle, a year-round feeding lot, milking stalls, several score chickens and turkeys, and his farm implements.

RED NOT STANDARD

The red barn is no more a standard type of American building now than the little red schoolhouse. Red as a predominant color seems definitely passing. Green and white barns are frequently seen — sometimes gray barns. Many farmers strive to make barn and house colors harmonize.

In contrast to the strictly utilitarian design of barns farther west, Pennsylvania structures offer some highly imaginative painted decorations.

A six-petal flower motif may have been a pre-Christian symbol of immortality. The spinning whorl, notable in Lehigh County, is traceable to ancient Troy and Crete. The star or lily pattern, possibly a Cretan symbol of the sun, may date from 1300 B. C.

Thirfty tillers of Pennsylvania earth deny that these decorations were conceived to ward off evil. Rather, the so-called "hex signs" indicate a pride in buildings that reflect prosperity flowing from a bountiful land.

An Indiana study shows that 710,000 acres in that state have been adapted for use in subdivisions, industrial expansion and new roads, parks and airports in the past 10 years.

Pakistan's Mahouts Display Courage

WASHINGTON—East Pakistan mahouts must display a high degree of bravery in taming wild elephants, says the National Geographic Society.

Corralled animals mill about furiously, crashing into the reinforced walls. The beasts are left two days without food or water to weaken them. Then trained elephants guided by mahouts enter the corral. Two of the tame elephants edge a wild animal into a small outer enclosure.

A daring mahout performs certain religious rites, then climbs the wall and crawls among the elephants. He touches the feet of the tame beasts so they will not step on him. Then he slips a rope around the back feet of the captive and ties it to the wall. The animal's neck is also tethered to the stockade. Food and water are brought in. Within three days the elephant learns man is a friend. In a week it is ready for training.

Teacher Denies Dentist for Devotion to Duty

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Bernard S. Holt, for exceptional devotion to duty, had a pain in the jaw.

Holt, partner in an investment firm, was conducting a weekly class on stocks and bonds at Mary Munford School. Just before class time he developed an agonizing ache in a wisdom tooth. The dentist couldn't guarantee his ability to talk in time for the class if he had it pulled.

Users Plan Fight Against Coal Hike

LANSING (AP) — Representatives of nearly all the major Michigan lake cargo coal consumers met in Lansing Tuesday to plan a fight against the proposed 25-cent a ton hike in the price of coal.

The new rate would apply only to fine coal (under two inches in size) that is carried by Great Lakes vessels before reaching its destination.

Also tied up in the proposal is a cancellation of rebates to companies which truck the coal themselves after it reaches Michigan.

Representatives of the major consumers, which included utilities and large manufactureurs, estimated Michigan uses about 15 million tons of the fine coal annually. They said this would mean a cost of at least five million dollars more a year if the rate increase is allowed.

Purpose of the meeting was to select one spokesman to represent Lower Peninsula consumers at the hearing.

Wayne U. Hall Addition Will Cost Two Million

DETROIT (AP) — Bids have been let today for an addition to Wayne University's State Hall which will cost nearly $2,000,000.

State Hall was built in 1947 to meet Wayne's increased enrollment at the peak of World War II veterans attendance. The new addition will provide 39 additional classrooms.

Plans to expend $15,000 for a cooling system were set aside for the time being.

The contracts were let to three Detroit firms.

BRIEF ENOUGH — That's not exactly a Bikini bathing suit being worn by Gigi Cooper of Miami Beach, Fla. It's a brief covering made from several accordion-pleated handkerchiefs. The handkerchiefs are really designed for men's dressup occasions.

Future Water Shortage Facing Entire Country

By SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR DOUGLAS McKAY

WASHINGTON (INS)—Water—or the lack of it—is one of the great problems we may have to face in the United States in the next 20 years.

Experts estimate that by 1975 water consumption for domestic and industrial use alone will increase by a staggering 145 per cent. This increase is equivalent to the flow of 11 Colorado rivers or the supply of 145 cities the size of New York.

* * *

Where are we going to get the water to meet this tremendous new demand?

One answer may lie in the pioneering research program being carried on by the Department of the Interior to discover cheaper means of converting salt water into fresh water.

In 1952, Congress took heed of the warnings of water authorities that many areas of the United States were confronted with rapidly growing water use at the same time that supplies were diminishing.

Mindful of the unlimited salt water in our great oceans, as well as the possibilities of reclaiming many inland mineral waters and saline flows from irrigation, Congress authorized establishment of the Department of the Interior's Saline Water Conversion Program.

ALL HELP

This has resulted in more than 500 research proposals. These are screened by a technical staff and the more promising given a detailed review by a selected panel of private consultants who are specialists in their fields. The best proposals are then given contracts.

Twenty-eight contracts have been executed to date and work has been completed on ten. Several of the investigations already show distinctly encouraging results.

In addition to the coordinated research of new lines of approach to the problem, industrial designers are giving increased attention to developing improvements on available equipment which will offer economical advantages when complemented by present and proposed research.

Congress recently gave the program its endorsement by extending the time for additional research and authorizing additional funds. With the lack of an adequate fresh water supply one of the gravest ultimate threats to the advance of our civilization, we intend to press ahead with the saline water conversion program with the utmost vigor.

* * *

As a bright goal for not only the United States but for all the world is the hope of eliminating or alleviating the devastation of droughts and bringing new life to the vast areas which are now arid wastes.

Hastings Gets Award

HASTINGS (AP)—City Council has been informed that Hastings will receive a special citation from the Michigan Automobile Club for its record of having no pedestrian fatalities in 1954. The record still is unbroken this year.

A NATURAL—A look at eight-year-old Dana Sanderson shows he deserves the "Happiest Boy of 1955" title he won recently in New York City. But Dana's prize, the beagle hound, seems a little sad with all that ice cream dripping on him. Margarine people of New York made the selection.

Texas white-tailed deer seldom weigh more than 100 pounds.

Malaya Voting Strong in First Elections

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya, (AP)—Voting in remote jungle districts continued today in the Federation of Malaya's first national election. Contests already decided gave an aliance of Malay, Chinese and Indian groups a landslide victory.

In votes counted so far from yesterday, Aliance candidates had won 33 of the 34 Legislative Council seats decided.

* * *

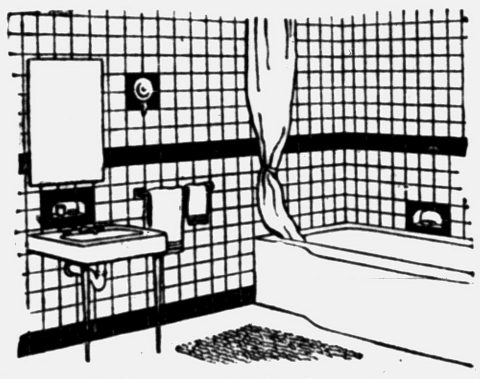

Nearly a million persons, about 80 per cent of those eligible, voted. No violence was reported during the elections.

There are 52 elective seats in the Council. The other 46 of the 98-member group will be appointed by the British high commissioner for the Protectorate, Sir Donald MacGilivray. He also retains a veto on Council decisions.

Lapeer Eviction Battles Still in Spotlight

20 Year Fracas Continues to Boil

Kin of Widow Stevens Bringing Damage Suit Against Attorney

After 20 years of battling—both in the courts and on Lapeer County farms—the eviction cases of the brothers Ziegenhardt and Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens continue to appear on court dockets and in newspaper pages.

The failure of the Lapeer Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Assn. in 1935 produced a spectacular chain of events through the years, and the end is not yet in sight.

The State Supreme Court has handed down 11 decisions and numerous opinions on litigation arising from the failure, and the sale at auction of farms belonging to policyholders.

Rioting by sympathetic farmers has brought prison sentences to two men, and lengthy trials for a dozen others. The spotlight of national attention has been focused more than once on the shenanigans along the dusty back roads of the rural communities.

Additional County News on Page 26

VIOLENCE FLARED

Violence flared as sheriff's deputies and state police first evicted aged brothers Chris and Paul Ziegenhardt from their farm, after a Lapeer attorney had purchased it at auction. New tenants were run off.

When widowed Mrs. Stevens was to be evicted, friends mauled the sheriff as he sought to serve the eviction writ.

Two men are completing terms in Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson for their parts in obstructing justice, and the leader of the resistance is appealing his December 24, 1953 conviction of conspiracy to obstruct justice.

Detroiter Clayton C. Gilliland is at liberty on $5,000 personal bond. He was sentenced to 4½ to 5 years at Jackson. The State Supreme Court is expected to take up his appeal in October.

NEW SUIT FILED

Frank Stevens, son of the widow who died shortly after being evicted and nine other heirs, have filed suit in Detroit Federal Court against Mrs. Grace White, the purchase of the farm.

They seek $250,000 in damages in connection with the eviction, claiming that neither Mrs. Stevens nor her husband were ever a member of the insurance mutual, and should not have lost the farm for the assessment in the defunct firm.

Gilliland states that both Mrs. Stevens and the Ziegenhardt brothers were persecuted by state officials because they continued to ask for an audit of the mutual company.

And so it continues—a fascinating story of devotion to a principle that inflamed a section of the state, and continues today to simmer along with chances of more eruptions.

MR. & MRS. LESLIE PURSLOW

Purslow - Sharpe Wedding at Christ Lutheran Church

CLARKSTON — A Saturday evening wedding at the altar of Christ Lutheran Church here united Ruth E. Sharpe and Leslie Purslow.

Cathedral candles flanked an alter arrangement of white gladioli which was the setting for the double ring rites spoken in the presence of 175 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Sharpe of 155 N. Main St., and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knowles are the parents of the bridegroom.

For her wedding, the bride was gowned in embroidered nylon net over satin, fashioned with a Peter Pan collar and cuffs and full hoop skirt.

Her fingertip nylon net veil was edged with Chantilly lace and fell from a tiara of rhinestones and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Andrew Linman of Fowlerville, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Marguerite Bennett of Vernon and Alice Jensen of Williamston.

Janice Linman of Fowlerville, niece of the bride, and Marilyn Gregory, niece of the groom, were flower girls.

Roy Gregory of Clarkston was best man and the ushers were Andrew Linman of Fowlerville and Arthur Keeley of Clarkston.

Guests were received afterward in the church parlors. Following a trip to Northern Michigan, the couple will reside in their new home at 6320 Ortonville Rd., Clarkston.

Pure Oil Co. Issue Continues in Court

LATHRUP — Hearings are continuing today in Oakland County Circuit Court in an effort by the Pure Oil Products Co., of Michigan, to win court permission to build a gas station at Glenwood and Southfield Rds.

Lathrup city is fighting the move in an attempt to establish a zoning which would bar commercial development along Southfield through the city.

Yesterday, David Levinson, of Birmingham, who appraised the land in question, said he considers it more suitable for residential and professional-office-building development, than for business frontage.

Set Bake Sale at Leonard

LEONARD—The Leonard and Lakeville Cemetery Auxiliaries will hold a bake sale instead of the regular monthly supper, Saturday. The event will be held at 2 p.m., in Rowland Hall and proceeds will go toward upkeep of the cemetery.

50 Registered in Cattle Show

Black and White Fair to Be Held Tomorrow Open to Public

Carlos Long, president of the Oakland County Holstein Breeders Assn. said today that 50 head of cattle have been entered in annual Oakland County Black and White Show to be held at the 4-H Fairgrounds on M24 Friday.

Judging of the classes will begin at 11 a.m., when junior members will participate in a showmanship contest. The winning boy and girl will be eligible to enter the state contest at Lansing on Aug. 5.

Everett Miller, former manager of the Hi-Up Farms is to be the judge.

The feature attraction will be two cows from the farm of Frank Ruggles and Son who have a lifetime record of over 100,000 pounds of milk.

Picnic lunch will be held for the families at noon and the association is furnishing ice cream and milk. All persons interested in Holstein cattle are invited and urged to attend. Admission is free.

Newlywed Couple Touring Canada and New England

OXFORD—In a setting of palms and white altar bouquets flanked by candelabra, Crystal Pauline Gan and A. Murray Jewell spoke their nuptial vows Saturday at Oxford Baptist Church.

Crystal is the daughter of Mrs. Christian Gan of 20 Endsley St. and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jewell of 66 E. Burdick St.

The bride chose a train gown of rose pointe lace and nylon tulle over slipper satin. Her petal-pointed bodice was flanked with seed pearls and iridescent sequins and the bouffant skirt was accented with a panel of pleated nylon tulle.

Barbara Biery of Estherville, Iowa, was the maid of honor and other attendants were Diane Gan, sister of the bride, and Marilyn Unger of Oxford, junior bridesmaids. Dorothy Mainhood of Coleman and Marilyn Smith of Altoona, Pa. were bridesmaids.

Morris Jewell, brother of the bridegroom was best man and Karl Knaut of Ypsilanti and Robert Sayre of Oxford were ushers.

Two hundred guests attended the reception held afterward in the church parlors. The newlyweds left on a honeymoon tour taking them as far as Quebec, then down through New England, New York and Washington D. C.

ROCHESTER — Blacktopping of the new village parking lot at East Fifth and East streets was completed yesterday, and the lot is scheduled to open shortly.

Straits Ferries Hike Fare Rates Sunday

LANSING (AP)—Drivers of all vehicles crossing on the state ferries at the Straits of Mackinac will be charged the regular passenger fare of 25 cents effective July 31.

* * *

Charles M. Ziegler, state highway commissioner, said the extra fare was needed to help meet the cost of an approximate $328,000 a year pay boost recently granted ferry workers.

Previously the driver of a car rode free, his fare being included in the price for the vehicle.

* * *

Ziegler said state law requires the Highway Department to charge rates for passengers and vehicles to make the ferries self-financed. The department has no control over pay rates for workers, he said, these being set by the State Civil Service Commission.

To head off a strike threat following one tieup, the Civil Service Commission recently granted ferry workers one extra day's pay for each continuous seven days worked in addition to a 15 cent an hour pay hike retroactive to May 15.

Price Hikes Herald Inflation Rise

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK, (AP)—Prosperity—that pleasant companion—is being cited today as the villain that is inducing a new brush with inflation in England and could just possibly be pushing the United States into a return bout.

Good times are favoring both nations. Employment is high, wages rising smartly, incomes up and stores full of tempting items. So people put out cash freely for gadgets, homes or services, and increasingly buy more on time.

* * *

In the United States, so far, inflation is just something that the cautious fear might recur if prosperity induces speculative excess. In England it's already back, in spite of government efforts to forestal it.

The cost of living has just taken a jump there. Retail prices are at a record high. And the price of coal — a prime budget item for most British householders — has just been hiked 18 per cent. This week steel goes up an average of 5 per cent, and most other metal prices have been climbing fast.

There is fear higher prices will soon spread to coke and the many products made of steel, and rates for electricity, gas and freight will climb higher.

With the British worker prosperous, amounts spent on consumer goods and services have been growing steadily.

Rising labor costs in Britain tend to make British exports less competitive in world markets. At the same time increasing home demand for consumer goods tends to attract into the domestic market goods Britain makes for export.

To combat this new inflationary pressure, the British government is trying to check spending by hiking interest rates, squeezing credit and imposing stiffer curbs on installment buying.

In the United States price hikes have so far been confined mostly to the primary industrial materials. Steel, copper, lead, zinc, aluminum and silver have gone up. Further price hikes are expected by some.

Wages have climbed this year much faster and further than last.

Some factory list prices on consumer goods are already rising. Whether the retailer can pass all this along to price-conscious and bargain-happy consumers is a question.

The cost of eating is pretty stable, and may be even lower in the future, however. Clothing prices also have leveled off. Rents are fairly stable.

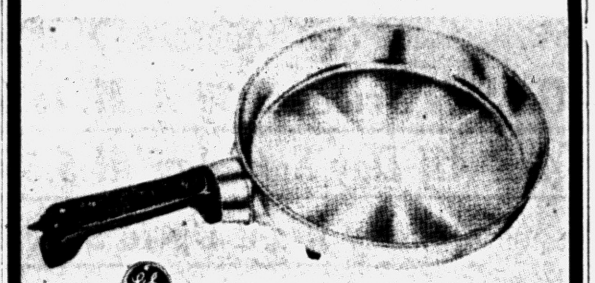

The real threat of future inflation here, therefore, seems to lie in the chance that so much prosperity may foster speculation — may induce consumers to ignore rising prices and stock up on goods bought on time — may cause businessmen to build up excess inventories, to expand their plants too optimistically — may lead to excess use of credit.

Barring a spree of overbuying and overborrowing, however, prosperity could be our pleasant companion for quite a spell yet.

Alikes Always Alike

MOUNDRIDGE, Kas. (AP)—Herman Krehbiel and Sylvanus Stucky, cousins, always thought it was quite a coincidence that they were born the same day. Then both turned up at the hospital for similar operations — both for the second time, the same week and by the same doctor.

U.S. Won't Panic in A-Raid Experts Inform CD Office

WASHINGTON (INS)—A special government study predicted confidently today that the American people would not panic in event of an enemy atomic or hydrogen bomb attack.

* * *

Instead, the report to the Civil Defense Administration declared: "There is every reason to believe that, rather than panic, the dominant reaction of the American people will continue to be an energetic, adaptive response to whatever threats and dangers they face."

This conclusion of a specially skilled study group was based on an intensive survey of disaster situations over the last 50 years, both in war and in peace.

The report said fears that panic would grip the American people and paralyze them if attacked are unfounded.

WRONG GUESSES

It said: "The current hunches and guesses seem to go far beyond the known facts in emphasizing the likelihood of its occurrence in this country . . .

"An assessment of the facts show that the existing evidence falls far short of supporting such a vivid and dramatic opinion."

The group emphasized that studies of past disasters, including the A-bomb blasts in Japan and the mass bombing assaults in Germany during World War II, show that "panic states are usually of short duration."

The report added: "Excited and irrational behavior can usually be prevented or quickly brought to a stop if effective leadership and realistic information is provided."

FEW INSTANCES

In noting that over the last half-century there has been a war of some kind in almost continuous progress, the study group declared: "It is a significant and somewhat astonishing fact that there have been very few instances of mass panic directly connected with enemy attack on a civilian population."

* * *

The report stressed however that in case of a nuclear attack, civil defense officials must make certain there are ways for people to escape from the target area.

Traffic Judge Penalizes Erring Driver—Himself

TEMPLE, Tex. (AP) — Justice of the Peace A. E. (Son) Warren paid himself a $11.50 fine yesterday for driving on the wrong side of the highway.

He entered a shaky plea of guilty, admitting he drove down the wrong side of the busy Temple-Belton U.S. 81 expressway before a policeman flagged him down.

* * *

His mind was on a fishing trip, he said, and he figured the motorists who blew their horns and waved as they passed "were just friendly folks"—so he waved back at them.

JET-AGE "PULSE" CAPTURED — Pulsating flame from afterburner of F86-D jet all-weather fighter-interceptor is captured in this picture, one of a series in the first jet-to-jet night flash photographs ever taken. Snapped at Selfridge Air Force Base, from a T-33 two-seat jet trainer some 60 feet away, only one M-2 bulb, smallest in commercial production, was used for a light source. Photographs were made in connection with the 25th anniversary of the introduction of flashbulbs in the United States, Aug. 1, 1930, by General Electric.

Americans in Morocco Understandably Uneasy

NOUASSEUR, French Morocco, (AP)—Join the U.S. Air Force and see picturesque Morocco. Maybe there will be a small bomb under your car some morning to add to the excitement.

This is the hot, dusty meadow some 20 miles south of tumultuous Casablanca where Uncle Sam has built the biggest of his five air bases on the northwest hump of Africa.

The 20,000 Americans living in French Morocco feel some uneasiness about their future amid the bitter strife between Moroccan nationalist terror and European counterterror.

* * *

The overwhelming majority of these Americans are Air Force people—uniformed and civilian—with their wives and children. Some 1,000 or more families live in and around Casablanca, where rioting has caused more than 100 deaths since July 14.

The American families understandably don't care too much for the situation, though no American has been killed or seriously hurt.

"They have been standing up to it like good old American pioneer stock," said Gen. James L. Jackson, of Eureka Springs, Ark., the Nouasseur base commander.

But Mrs. Evelyn Allsup, of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., decided after two bombs were set off on the ground floor of her apartment house that there were other places for her children to live.

"They were outside waiting for the school bus and it was a miracle nothing happened to them," she said.

The family is now one of the few housed on the base itself, waiting for a plane out. So is the family of T. Sgt. Charles V. Starks, Rock Island, Ill., who found his car one day with the engine ripped out by a bomb.

These families say they are not being shipped out because of the situation but because their 30-month tour of duty has ended.

Such cases of bombings are not frequent, though car burning has nearly attained the status of a national sport in Casablanca. Most American cars have distinctive red license plates and some fly American flags, but it is doubtful if many bomb throwers would pay much attention.

Authorities at Nouasseur take what precautions they can on a base that has houses for only 50 families. Newcomers are told the situation is "a bit tense." They are ordered to stay out of crowds in the Arab quarters.

Texan Convicted in Land Swindle

Former Commissioner Is Held as Accomplice in Vet Theft

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Former Texas Land Commisioner Bascom Giles was found guilty today of being an accomplice to theft of $6,800 of the state's veterans land program funds.

The 12-man 98th District Court jury assessed his punishment at three years in the state penitentiary but he remained free on $2,000 bond after attorneys filed a motion for a new trial.

Giles, who had proclaimed sponsorship of the 100-million-dollar veterans land program, served as chairman of the program's administrative board.

"I was a little bit surprised at this one," he told reporters when the verdict was returned after 3 hours and 34 minutes of deliberation. "I didn't think it would happen."

Giles was the first to face trial in the veterans land scandals which have rocked the state since last November, when weekly newspaper editor Kenneth Towery, of Cuero, Tex., first broke the story. In all there have been 319 indictments returned against 21 individuals in 9 counties.

B. R. Sheffield, Brady, Tex., land dealer, jointly indicted with Giles, awaits later trial.

The state based its charge on the purchase of the Veterans Land Board of the 10,114-acre Rosenow Ranch in Kinney County for resale on a subdivided basis to 54 war veterans.

Success of Antarctic Expedition Rests on Skis Developed by Michiganders

CLARE (AP)—Plastic coated skis that don't stick to the snow may permit greater use of airplanes in the Navy's expedition "Deep Freeze" into the Antarctic this fall.

Two brothers, Thomas and William McConica, who have a ski business in this central Michigan winter resort area, have been doing research on coating airplane skis.

Rear Adm. George Dufek, U.S. Navy ret., who will command the Navy's task force, was here yesterday to check on their progress.

Dufek said he was pleased. The new type skis will be field tested in September on Greenland's snow cap where snow conditions are almost identical with those around the South Pole.

The McConica brothers have an important role in preparations for the expedition. On their ability to find a plastic covering for metal skis that permit airplanes to take off in any type of snow and at high altitudes depends on what extent airplanes can be used in the scientific study of the Antarctic region.

The problem presented to them by the Air Force was to develop a ski surface that would not be encumbered by snow. Metal airplane skis can take off from ice and snow under certain conditions. Tom McConica said no ski airplane has taken off from an altitude higher than 2,000 feet above sea level.

The McConica brothers have found a plastic that has a high repellency for water and snow will not adhere to it or build up in front of the ski.

BIG PROBLEM

One of the big problems was to find an adhesive that would bind the plastic to the metal ski. The brothers did this.

They hope the plastic coated skis will enable a plane to take off in an altitude of 10,000 feet above sea level. This would permit a plane to land and take off from the South Pole. Whether this is possible will be found out in the field test in Greenland.

The McConica brothers have been conducting this research for about three years.

Tom McConica said he has been invited to accompany the expedition to the Antarctic but he doesn't know if he'll be able to go.

Rear Adm. Richard E. Byrd will be officer in charge of the expedition that will leave Boston and Norfolk this fall.

Various types of plastic have been tried out on airplane skis, he said, but the one being developed now is believed the best found so far.

HAS PHD FROM MIT

Tom McConica holds a doctor of science degree from Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He worked 10 years as research scientist for Dow Chemical Co.

When his brother Bill was discharged from the Army they formed the American Ski Co. in Clare. Skiing long has been their hobby.

The brothers have been doing research for the Air Force and for the Army since 1946. In recent years they have been kept so busy with this type of work they no longer have civilian contracts.

Dufek and other top brass of the expedition "Deep Freeze" were here to look over the new skis.

Accompanying Dufek to Clare where they were guests at the lodge of Joseph and Donald McKay on Loon Lake were:

Greek Leader Deathly Sick

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — A picture of the Prime Minister of Greece, published this month, has proved a shock to Greeks.

This picture of Field Marshal Alexander Papagos, the first to be printed in many months, shows him a spent man with sunken cheeks. Greeks have known he was sick, but few knew he was that sick.

The 71-year-old warrior-politician has been confined since January to his Ekali residence. He has been holding the government together by the mere fact of his continued existence. Everyone believes that when Papagos goes the Rally party, which has ruled Greece three years, will fall apart. The marshal has been the cement that held together the motley assembly of rival parties, conflicting personalities and overlapping ambitions.

* * *

Papagos was chief of the army general staff when Mussolini launched his invasion of Greece Oct. 28, 1940. Dictator John Metaxas promptly appointed Papagos commander of all armed forces. Only the sudden German blows from Yugoslavia and Bulgaria by Hitler's panzer division in the spring of 1941 put an end to six months of Greek victories.

Ten years later, Papagos got into the war against the Communist guerrillas in the northern mountains of Greece. It had been going on for three years. Papagos, grand chamberlain to the royal court at the time, agreed to take command on condition that he have dictatorial powers and the authority to keep politicians at home in Athens. In six months the guerrilla war was over— with U. S. aid.

Papagos became a living legend. An ambitious young politician named Spyros Markezinis thought of exploiting Papagos' popularity by placing him at the head of a new political movement. He succeeded in persuading the marshal that his political leadership was essential if the country were to achieve economic salvation.

In 1951 elections, Papagos returned the largest number of deputies but did not get the majority. When elections were held again in 1952 he gained the greatest majority in the Greek Parliament since World War II.

* * *

This gave him virtual dictatorial powers. Vast public works got underway. Heroic measures, aimed at purging the nation's economy, were carried out. One was the Drachma devaluation, which cut the national currency's purchasing power by half. Heavy taxation was imposed.

The most startling indication that all was not well with the Greek Rally was the dismissal of the man who master-minded it — Coordination Minister Markezinis. He'd got to be too big for his shoes, from Papagos' viewpoint. But the Rally has held together and will continue to do so as long as Papagos is alive.

There are several possibilities, including proclamation of new elections. Or King Paul might appoint a transitory government pending the next regular election in December 1956.

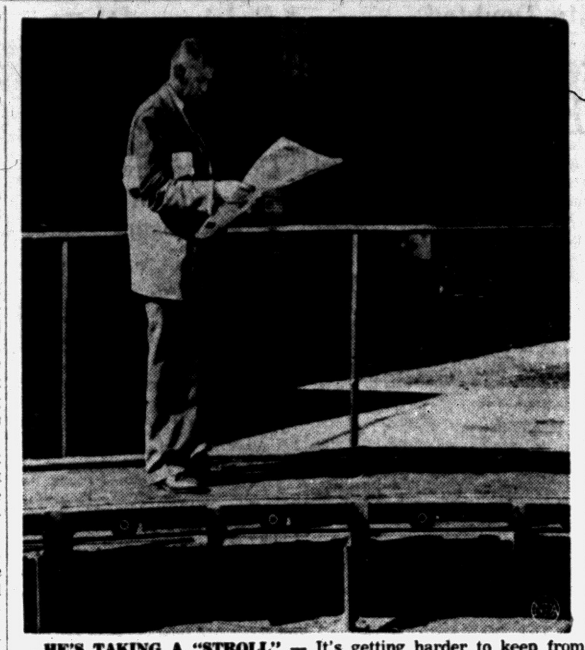

Barbers Revolt-ed

MADERA, Calif. (AP) — Barbers here have voted to raise prices on "crazy" haircuts from $1.25 to $1.50, "not for the money," one barber said, "but to discourage the horrible things.' Affected hair styles include ducktails, flat tops, boogies, Davy crewcuts, Cherokees and Mohawks.

Dems Announce Prizes

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — More than 100 prizes have been announced for games and contest winners at the Aug. 6 Kent County Democratic picnic at nearby Long Lake Park. Gov. G. Mennen Williams and Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart are scheduled on the speakers' program at the outing.

Maine's lobstermen conduct an eight-million-dollar-a-year business.

HE'S TAKING A "STROLL" — It's getting harder to keep from being lazy. And now a Stamford, Conn., firm is developing moving sidewalks, as if there weren't enough energy-saving inventions on the market. Unidentified man above casually reads his paper as he is transported at almost two m. p. h., which is the average walking speed. This passenger conveyor even conveys you around corners.

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's Communist party has been instructed to abandon all underground activities and become totally legal under Japanese law, Kyodo news service said today.

The Japanese news agency said the orders were given to the party's National Council, meeting here, by Shoichi Kasuga, chairman of the party's central directorate.

Lower Truck Speed on Detroit's X-Ways

DETROIT (AP)—A 45-mile-an-hour speed limit on expressways for trucks of 5,000 pounds or more has been approved by the Common Council. The ordinance takes effect Aug. 4.

The speed limit was adopted in the light of a state law limiting such trucks to 45 miles an hour. The present city law imposes a 55-mile-an-hour limit.

Named Company Head

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — Raymond Braski, 40, formerly of Chicago, Tuesday became general manager of the Camfield Manufacturing Co. He succeeds Henry L. Olsen, who recently resigned as president, general manager and director of the firm.

Chicago Youth Held as Murder Suspect

CHICAGO (AP)—Police said they planned to charge a 17-year-old mentaly retarded youth with murder today in connection with the rape-slaying of 8-year-old Mary Manzo.

* * *

The youth, Clarence Baugh, who police said has admitted slaying the girl and hiding her body under a viaduct near her home, was to appear at the inquest.

The discovery July 7 of the tiny and bruised body in the dark railroad underpass set iff an extensive manhunt.

Police picked up Baugh Monday night on a report by a neighbor that he had been known to molest young girls. A lie detector test proved inconclusive. He underwent questioning Tuesday and yesterday.

Capt. Frank Reynolds said Baugh admitted kidnaping the girl near her South Side home on a promise to buy candy. Instead, Reynolds said, the youth took her to a vacant building, slugged her with a pipe when she screamed, then raped her.

* * *

The girl had been missing since the night of July 4 when she went to a store on an errand. Her body was found three days later by street cleaners.

Police said Baugh, who has no police record, had been a pupil in a school for abnormal children. They said he admitted being a sex deviate. His parents are deaf mutes.

Race Barriers Down in Texas

Shivers Warns Against Rushing Desegregation After U.S. Court Ruling

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Texas' laws upholding racial barriers and segregation in public schools have been junked by a federal judge's ruling.

But Gov. Allan Shivers, noting that some cities in the state already have made moves toward ending segregation in the schools, cautioned against what he termed "too much rush and confusion."

The ruling was by Judge R. Ewing Thomason, former West Texas congressman, who yesterday specifically ordered Texas Western College, a subsidiary of the University of Texas, to lift its ban on Negro students. The action was a result of a suit filed here by Thelma White.

* * *

Miss White asked the court to rule on her right to enter the college on the basis of the Supreme Court decision which held school segregation unconstitutional.

Thomason said the ruling still would permit local communities to carry out intent of the Supreme Court's decree as rapidly as local conditions allow. But he added that his decision made it clear that school segreation is outlawed in Texas.

Subcommittee Authority Doubted

Court Dismisses Contempt Acts Charged by McCarthy

NEW YORK (AP)—A federal judge has dismissed contempt of the Senate charges against Corliss Lamont and two other men who refused to answer questions in 1953 before Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's Investigations subcommittee.

* * *

Judge Edward Weinfeld, in granting a defense motion for dismissal yesterday, said the indictment failed to show that the subcommittee had proper congressional authority to conduct such an inquiry.

Weinfeld did not rule on the validity or scope of McCarthy's authority but said in his decision:

"The indictment is barren of any allegation or fact from which the authority of the permanent subcommittee can be ascertained.

"One vainly examines the public law and Senate resolutions set forth in the indictment to find any reference to the permanent subcommittee, let alone any delegation of power to it."

The 53-year-old Lamont, son of the late Thomas W. Lamont, a J. P. Morgan & Co. partner, had contended the McCarthy committee never was legally authorized by the Senate to conduct its investigations.

* * *

Lamont was indicted by a grand jury last Oct. 14 along with Abraham Unger and Albert Shadowitz.

Refusing to answer 23 questions put to him by the subcommittee, Lamont pleaded the First Amendment with its guarantees of free speech.

Lamont, an author and educator, had refused to say whether he was under Communist control or associated with Communists at the time he wrote a book, "The Peoples of the Soviet Union."

A chapter from the book was included in an Army handbook.

Lamont has called himself "a free-wheeling liberal" but has publicly denied that he is or ever was a Communist.

In a statement following the court's decision, he termed dismissal of the indictment "a great victory for freedom of speech, freedom of the press and all those now heavily assailed on every side . . ."

* * *

Lamont was a lecturer in philosophy at Columbia University until last April, when he withdrew to await the outcome of the contempt charge.

Unger was one of the defense attorney in the conspiracy trial of the 11 top Communist leaders. Shadowitz was a former government employe who worked on vital defense projects.

Michigan Plan Faces Review

State Canvassers Task Is to Approve Proposals Seeking 'Better Judges'

LANSING (AP)—The new bipartisan Board of State Canvassers' first job will be to pass on petitions seeking a constitutional amendment to "take judges out of politics."

The Better Judges for Michigan Committee of Detroit filed petitions which it proposes to circulate for a place on the November, 1956, state ballot.

The proposal would require all vacancies on the State Supreme Court and the Circuit Courts be filled by Governor's appointment from nominations made by nonpartisan councils.

Under the plan no one could be a candidate at elections for the judge of any such Court of Record, but the incumbent would present his name to the voters at the end of his term. The voters would decide whether he was to be reelected or not. If he were defeated, the governor would fill the vacancy.

The nominating councils would be composed of three residents chosen by the governor, three attorneys chosen by the bar and a justice of the State Supreme Court. One statewide council would nominate for the Supreme Court and separate councils in each judicial circuit would nominate for circuit Courts.

The proposal has been called the "Michigan Plan."

State elections director Robert M. Montgomery said the Board of Canvassers probably would meet late next week to pass on the legal form of the petitions. Then it will hold its first organizational meeting.

The 4-member board, composed of two Democrats and two Republicans, was created by the last Legislature to replace a partisan board of elective state officials.

Ann Arbor Politician, Richard M. Burr, Dead

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Richmond M. Burr, 75, four times an unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Congress, died Tuesday.

Burr was elected to the State Legislature as a Republican in 1935, but switched to the Democratic Party in 1936. He was an Ann Arbor Alderman from 1931 to 1937.

State Commission OKs Street Lighting Rates

LANSING (AP)—Rates set for the operation of Mercury Vapor Street Lighting Service by the Wisconsin-Michigan Power Co. were approved today by the State Public Service Commission.

The company, with headquarters at Appleton, Wis., also furnishes service to Iron Mountain and other Upper Peninsula communities.

The commission approved a rate based on the energy to be utilized rather than a specific lamp per year rate. The company also will charge $4.85 per month for each of the new fixtures.

Cowboys Boast Mixed Heritage

Born in East, Adopted Mexican Customs and Became Legends

WASHINGTON — He was born an Easterner, rode a Morrish horse, took his ways from Mexico, and became a legend. His business title: American cowboy.

* * *

Today, often enough, the cowboy is a college man. He inspects electric fences in a Piper Cub. His range reaches to the Florida 'Glades, ranches near Philadelphia, the prairies of Long Island. He's a capitalist.

Whence came the first cowboy? From Ireland, from Spain, from backwoods Massachusetts, from tidewater Virginia, the National Geographic Society says. He rode a long trail to become a hero of the Old West.

Though English and Scotsmen used "cowherd" or "drover," the word "cowboy" was known in the colonies by 1670. Irish fieldhands may have brought it, for the term occurs in Irish balladry of 1,000 years ago.

* * *

Cattle were known in the New World 150 years before 1670. Small sharp-horned Andalusian cattle and fine-bred Barbary horses came to Mexico with Spanish conquistadors within 30 years after Columbus sighted Hispaniola.

Coronado took cattle north of the Rio Grande in 1540. It was prophetic, perhaps, that the first white man to cross Texas was Cabez de Vaca, whose name meant "Head of a Cow."

CATTLE MOVE NORTH

Huge Spanish haciendas spread cattle slowly north on the grassy Mexican tablelands. Herds ran wild and multiplied. Half-wild vaqueros — "cowboys" — rounded them up to burn or cut the hidalgo's brand on the calves.

* * *

From these Mexican vaqueros, Scottish and English frontiersmen drifting into what is now Texas learned their trade and forged a cattle kingdom. Their animals, their tools, even their words were Mexican: Mustang, sombrero, poncho, corral, bronco, adobe, vigilante' vamoose, stampede.

But no market existed for Texas cattle. All possible selling points were too far away. Herds grew larger still. Then came the California gold rush and the crossing of the continent. The railroads followed.

At the Civil War's end the "Iron Trail" reached west into Kansas, and Texas herds began moving north to meet it. Over the Red River, amid clouds of dust and the whoops of hard-driving saddle-bred cowhands, longhorns streamed by the millions — gaunt, bawling, wild-eyed beef on the hoof.

The cowboy rode into national hero-worship on the Chisholm Trail only 90 years ago. Yet he is four centuries old on this continent.

REPORTED UNDER WRAPS — The Duke of Kent, appearing none the worse since his most recent car accident, marches during rehearsal July 25 at the Royal Military Academy, Sandhurst, England, for graduation parade July 28. The 19-year-old Duke, involved in his third car crash within a year, is reportedly under orders from his cousin, Queen Elizabeth II to invite an Army instructor along whenever he takes the wheel of a car.

Cadillac

The Great Practical Luxury!

This message is addressed to those who have been thinking about purchasing a Cadillac—but who, for one reason or another, have not considered acting on the impulse this year.

For you, there is interesting and valuable information in the paragraphs which follow.

In the first place, there is no reason why anyone should ever put off ordering a Cadillac—once the decision for ownership has been made. For a Cadillac represents one of the soundest and most practical investments in the automotive world.

The lowest-priced Cadillac, for instance, is surprisingly close in cost to many so-called medium-price cars—often within a few dollars.

And this is only half the picture, insofar as cost is concerned. For when the time comes to sell your Cadillac, you will find that the car has held its value far beyond anything you could logically expect.

Authoritative price figures, based on year-after-year studies, reveal that a Cadillac may be expected to return its owner a larger share of his original investment than any other motor car built in the land.

And then consider Cadillac's economy of operation and upkeep.

The car will run as far on a gallon of gasoline as most standard automobiles—and it is so soundly built and engineered that it is all but free from any save routine service needs.

And here is the most interesting news of all: If you act quickly, the chances are that you can get early delivery of a 1955 Cadillac!

It is true, of course, that we have a backlog of orders for new Cadillacs—but many of these are for future delivery or for special combinations not currently available.

So—if you have thought of owning a Cadillac—come in now. Because of our low used car inventory, we are in an excellent position to make you a liberal allowance on your present car—and, as we said, you can probably get your new car much sooner than you have believed possible.

We have a Cadillac waiting to give you the most thrilling demonstration of your life. Why not come in today?

SOMETHING TO MOO ABOUT — This Holstein cow is a real producer. Owned by Kenneth Welkers of Pearl City, Ill., she recently produced the quadruplets shown above. Question Detroiter About Two Murders

A 26-year-old unemployed Detroit factory worker, who faces an indecent liberties charge here today, will be questioned about the recent Barbara Gaca slaying and the 1952 murder of Joann Gillespie following arraignment in Waterford Township justice court.

The man, Fred Sparks, of 2180 Lillibridge, Detroit, was arrested early today by Detroit Police on a warrant secured by the Oakland County Sheriff's Dept.

He is accused of taking liberties with an 8-year-old Avon Township girl, the daughter of a relative last Sunday while boating on Pontiac Lake.

Detroit Police said they plan to check Sparks' statement that he was working at the time of both murders.

The total number of immigrants to the United States before 1927 has been estimated at more than 37 million.

Gordon Memorial Library Planned at St. Joseph's

Still in the changeable planning stage, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital's new wing will have one thing for certain—a $3,000 medical library.

A check in that amount was turned over to Sister Mary William, hospital director, this week by Dr. George Raynale, of Birmingham. It will be used to establish the Dr. John Gordon Memorial Library in the new addition.

Drs. Gordon and Raynale had been asosciated for many years as general surgeons and shared offices in Birmingham's Wabeek Building. When Dr. Gordon died on March 1, 1947, family and friends suggested that instead of floral offerings a perpetual memorial fund in his memory be established.

Dr. Raynale headed the fund and watched as it slowly gathered interest in a bank. Then, he and members of Dr. Gordon's family decided to give the money to St. Joseph to stock a comprehensive medical library.

"The fund will be used for medical books to perpetuate medical education," Sister Mary William said.

Tot Struck by Car, Treated for Bruises

Five-year-old Jill Hart, 196 W. Columbia Ave., was treated for bruises at Pontiac General Hospital last night after she darted in front of a car on Fairmount avenue near Baldwin avenue.

She was struck by a car driven by Freddie J. Pruett, 30, of 141 W. Fairmount who told Pontiac Police he had stopped for an oncoming car when the girl darted in front of his auto as he started up.

Muskegon Wars in Clay Dispute

Union Pressure Splits Officials on Shipment of Kohler Product

MUSKEGON (AP) — Muskegon's City Commission and Chamber of Commerce were at loggerheads today in their stand on possible rail shipments of clay for the struck Kohler Co. plant at Sheboygan, Wis.

The chamber yesterday criticized the commission's request to the Grand Trunk Western Railroad Co. that the clay be routed elsewhere than Muskegon as "improper and unwarranted."

The clay was unloaded from two freighters at Montreal, Canada, last week for rail shipment to Sheboygan. Railroad officials indicated it might pass through Muskegon for carferry transportation across Lake Michigan to Milwaukee.

Walter S. Sowles, CIO United Auto Workers regional director, told the city commission Monday that "Muskegon's record for labor peace would be endangered" if the clay arrived at a Muskegon shipping point. He added:

"We will do everything we can to stop it—Muskegon's port should not be used to break a strike."

Cadillac Pooh-Poohs Jet Site Objections

CADILLAC (AP)—The chairman of a group boosting a Cadillac site for a proposed jet plane base says objections raised by the House Appropriations Committee in rejecting the site can be "easily" refuted.

Floyd McCarthy, Cadillac industrialist and chairman of the Wexford County Jet Base Committee, also inferred in a statement yesterday that "political interference" contributed to the committee's decision.

* * *

Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) of the Appropriations Committee told Secretary of the Air Force Talbott in Washington yesterday the committee recognizes the need for the base. But he said the proposal to build at Cadillac would cost too much money as compared with sites in the Traverse City area.

Furthermore, he said, Cadillac gets too much snow and has a 1,287 foot television tower that increases flying hazards.

Pork, Lamb, Chuck Roast Lead Weekend Good Buys

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

You may be able to serve up a tempting Sunday dinner for a little less money this weekend. Good buys are available in pork and lamb and in some cuts of beef.

* * *

Chuck roast again rates as No. 1 among the better buys in beef, and selected markets over the country will shave prices on prime ribs.

Or would a roast loin of pork be more to your liking? Pork is down at wholesale and the meat markets have cut their prices from a week ago. One big chain is lowering pork chop pricetags by six to 10 cents a pound.

Legs of lamb will be lower in most parts of the country, with average reductions of two to four cents a pound.

Frying chickens will be fairly popular as weekend specials. A number of markets will feature turkeys at reasonable prices.

Looking ahead to August, the U. S. Department of Agriculture says broilers and fryers will be attractive buys. Supplies will rise to high levels during that month, running about five per cent above marketings in June.

CHOOSE CAREFULLY

Also on the USDA list of August plentifuls are canned grapefruit sections, beef, potatoes, summer vegetables, fresh and frozen halibut, lemons and limes, rice, watermelons and milk and other dairy products.

Choose your vegetables with a little extra care this week, the specialists say that quality generally isn't as good as it was a week ago.

The very best buys, they add, may be found in onions, potatoes, cabbage and beets. Also worthwhile are beans, topped and bunched carrots, cauliflower, pascal and golden heart celery, all types of squash, western lettuce, peppers, nearby tomatoes and corn. There is quite a range in quality in corn, however.

Cucumbers moved moderately higher in price during the week, spinach is up, too, reflecting lighter supplies.

Limes are low in price and blueberries are considered a good buy. Watermelons are plentiful, although the best ones are a bit higher. Peaches and pears are lower.

Oranges and grapefruit may cost you a little more than a week ago. Moderately priced are canteloupes, honeydews and western cherries. There are more apples available, most of them of the cooking variety.

Pair Dislikes Sharing Bill for Drinks

Tell Couple Who Orders You Prefer Going "Dutch"

By EMILY POST

A man tells me: "Once a week my wife and I have dinner in a restaurant with another couple. Prior to a recent illness I always had a drink before my meal as did the other people. My wife doesn't drink.

"Quite often this other couple orders a second cocktail and a liqueur after dinner. Heretofore we have shared the check equally. I see no reason why I have to pay for their drinks and think a separate check should be given them for cocktails. Would it be proper to ask the waiter to do this?"

Answer: Since you are going "Dutch" you may simply say to the man you are with, "Let's have the waiter bring a separate check for you for the drinks because we are not drinking."

"Dear Mrs. Post: A friend of mine has married and lives in a town that is a well-known resort. She has invited me to visit her for a week and I'm wondering what I can do to pay without offering her money, which would, I suppose, be out of order because of her invitation. What would you suggest?"

Answer: Accept her invitation as you would that of any hostess and while you are staying with her, do what you can to make your visit a pleasure to her. But you do not offer to pay for her hospitality to you. You can, however, ask her to go to the theater with you or to lunch in a restaurant.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Very soon I will be addressing the invitations to my wedding and I would like to know if it is permissible to send one invitation to an engaged couple, or is it necessary that each be sent a separate one?"

Answer: Correctly, they should be sent separate ones, but it would not be improper if your invitations are running short to send only one. In this case, you address the outside envelope to Miss Mary Smith and the inside envelope to Miss Smith and Mr. John Jones.

Saybrook Stages Benefit at Congregational Church

An arrangement of soft pink and rose-red zinnias centered one end of the Salad Buffet Luncheon table at the First Congregational Church Wednesday.

Committee members included Mrs. Robert Gaff Jr., Mrs. Wayne DeBeauclair, Mrs. Carl P. Weber and Mrs. William Miller.

Mrs. William T. Vann is president of the group. Mrs. Arthur W. Selden serves as first vice president; Mrs. C. Wales Goodwin, second vice president; Mrs. Dora Dawson, secretary, and Mrs. Helen S. Teitgen, treasurer.

Don't Wait for Boy Who Has No Interest

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

When something nice is offered on a silver platter, it's only a short-sighted girl who would refuse it. Declining invitations for no good reason at all deprives you of social adventures. Rejecting attentions leaves you with empty hands. You just plain miss out when you ward off favors that people want to do for you. And that's not even giving yourself a break.

* * *

Here's a girl, for instance, who turns down perfectly good dates because they're not with the boy she prefers. Her story goes like this:

"Dear Miss Woodward: I like Bill ever so much—but I don't think he likes me. Jim does, though, and I thought by going out with him I could forget about Bill, but it doesn't work. Jim calls all the time and asks me to go places with him, but I don't want to because I like Bill so much. Do you think I should wait for Bill, or go out with Jim and other boys?"

Answer: You could wait forever for Bill, and grow up to be a grouchy old maid! You could make a martyr of yourself for no good purpose.

Bill isn't showing the slightest interest in you. He never asks you for dates. You just don't exist in his stream of consciousness. He wouldn't know that you won't date because of him. And he wouldn't take the steps you want to remedy the situation even if he knew. He'd probably just fel embarrassed and nervous about you. And those feelings would hardly make him come steaming around to get romantic.

DON'T TURN HIM DOWN

Your private yen for Bill is very much your affair and should be tucked away in a safe hiding place in your mind, to have nothing to do with other boys you know. Here comes Jim, for instance, offering you interest, attention, dates. He likes you. It's a big favor he's doing you. Why turn him down and sit there empty-handed?

You can go out with Jim, and with other boys, and put thoughts of Bill out of your mind. Or you can sit there in a fog, gazing absent-mindedly at him while your thoughts wing elsewhere.

Reluctantly you can be dragged back to the scene at hand, where you're impatient with the lad, uninterested in what he has to say, unimpressed by his efforts at talk and entertainment. You can make it a thoroughly rough evening for him, and end his date offers. That's what wishing you were somewhere else with someone else can do to a date.

If those wishes can't come true, forget 'em. Make the most of the fun that's offered. It can be quite a lot of fun in its own way.

Drastic Change After Cool Room Affects Your Feet

Air conditioning—a great summer boon to modern man — can play hob with your feet, according to a noted foot specialist.

* * *

He points out that feet, like the rest of you, feel wonderful in an air-conditioned room, but the effect on your feet when you go out into the heat is more drastic than on most other parts of the body.

The reason for this is simple. Feet normally swell during hot weather—and the sudden swelling caused by a rapid shift from an air-conditioned room to the city street may cause painful discomfort from blisters, corns and calluses if your footgear isn't right.

One way of avoiding this problem is to make sure that your summer shoes are roomy—many persons find that buying warm weather shoes one half-size larger than their regular shoes keeps them comfortable.

Also, take advantage of the natural "air conditioning" of all-leather shoes—which keep a constant current of air circulating around your feet through the tiny pores in the leather.

In fact, a recent laboratory study found that the inside of shoes with leather soles and uppers are some 20 degrees cooler than the hot pavements on which you walk. These findings were confirmed in actual wear tests on city streets.

* * *

In the summer, it is particularly important that you do not wear the same pair of shoes day after day. Alternating shoes gives them a chance to air out and, incidentally, makes them last longer.

Soapy Washcloths Needed on Travels

A washcloth and towel should be a standard part of your traveling gear when you go for an automobile trip —short or long — with little ones.

Wet and soap the washcloth and put it in a small covered jar or plastic bag.

Towel and tissues can be kept clean and fresh in separate plastic bags. The glove compartment is a convenient place to keep this clean-up equipment.

Coming Events

Friends Prayer Meeting will be held this evening at 7:30 with Mrs. Mattie Jackson, 37 Miller St.

The regular meeting and initiation of the Ladies' Auxiliary 1230, FOE, will be held at 289 W. Montcalm St. this evening at 8.

Wilson Avenue Methodist Church will hold ice cream social Saturday from 7 until 9:30 p.m. at the church.

Social—coming events

Guild Eight of All Saints Episcopal Church will meet for sewing Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Harry Morris 31 Gerdon street. Members are asked to bring their own sandwiches.

Paris Styles Will Stress Upper Half

PARIS (INS) —More "importance" for the upper part of the feminine figure is the chief prediction for this week's Paris fashion showings.

* * *

More than 50 top French designers start unveiling their fall collections Thursday, and the word from the fashion salons is for "firmly established" bosoms, two silhouettes—the narrow and the full—and waistlines set high, low and normally.

Christian Dior, the "Mr. Big" of French fashion, has issued his usual cryptic prediction. Says Dior:

"The extremes of style will be both delicate and austere."

That's all Dior said, but a hot rumor is that he's discarded his flat-chested "H" and "A" and will show a line that follows the body line.

EMPHASIS ON TOP

All the big-name designers are said to be placing more emphasis on the top half of women—including the shoulders. The high-under-the-breast "empire" silhouette seems a certainty.

* * *

There is also a rumor that skirts are going down.

Definite forecasts of what's coming have been made by some designers. Genevieve Fath is aiming for real bosoms and tiny waists.

Patou is for the high-busted narrow look. Carven will stick to the unwaisted long line.

* * *

Most of the name designers agree that there will be less trimming and more elegance.

IF tall, slim—

Peplums, tunics and 2-piece effects are your dish and you stay your height in the severe, slim long-line suit.

The narrow silhouette is only for the tall because it takes height and slenderness to do it justice. The tall girl always was the perfect suit type and only when jackets end at or below the waistline is short figure chic.

Younger Set Keeps Social Activities Humming for Bloomfield Families

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The younger set, and its doings, is keeping Hills families on the go—including parents.

Excitement in the Raymond T. Perring household on Yarboro road was climaxed when daughter Kay arrived home Monday from her six-week station wagon trip through the West.

Kay and several of her Kingswood School classmates were on tour, which included stops at all the national parks and a "glamor" week in Hollywood.

Other Kingswood juniors who went along were Del Lambertson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Lambertson of Bingham road, Southfield Township; Louise Ahrens, daughter of the Don Ahrens of Haverhill road, and Sue Hodges, whose parents are Comdr. and Mrs. George S. Hodges of Lake Angelus.

On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Perring will entertain at a barbeque supper for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Williams of Haverhill road who leave late in August for Europe. They will spend seven weeks there.

ANDREAES HOME

Just home from seeing their son, Chris, at Culver are Mr. and Mrs. Maynard R. Andreae of Ridgewood road. The week before, they visited daughter Karen at Camp Arbutus near Mayfield, and from there went on to Hidden Valley for the weekend.

* * *

Living "quietly" since their return from Europe are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Greene Jr. of Country Club drive. Last weekend, however, they drove up to see Jennifer at Hilltop Camp, Walloon Lake.

Here from Florida for a visit with them is Mr. Greene's mother, Mrs. George Greene.

VISITS HART HOME

Diners and swimmers in the Hart's pool included Martha Mehrer with Karl Karlstrom, Jerady Carter with Marc Cunningham, Betsy Arnoldi with Ned Grant, and Donald Young.

Others were Bill Stressen-Reuter and Sue Riddell, John Hogshead with Marion Thomas, Gordon Lapides, Wally Smith, and Owen Fett who brought Jean Butler.

GUEST IN INDIANA

Kathy Flaherty, daughter of the Joseph F. Flahertys of Pon Valley drive, is spending the week with her former Ladywood School roommate, Judy McCormack of Albany, Ind.

Judy's visit here last week was climaxed with a pajama party, which included Cynthia Ingleson, Michi Gallaudet and Shirley Cotter as guests.

* * *

A family buffet supper for Ens. and Mrs. Thomas C. Goad will be given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Goad of Lone Pine road, on Saturday. The couple arrived from San Diego last Saturday and will visit also with her family, the Thomas H. Adams of Puritan road.

* * *

Out on East Hickory Grove road, the luggage is about to be brought out by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Frost. It's on Aug. 30 that they sail from Montreal on the Empress of Scotland, for six weeks in Europe.

They plan to rent a car in Antwerp, and then tour Belgium, Italy, Germany and France. Mrs. Frost hopes to meet relatives in France and Germany whom she's never seen.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Johnson of Orchard Ridge road plan to fly up to Walloon Lake for the weekend. They will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Foy.

TOUR GARDENS

Garden clubs of Oakland County and northwest Detroit were represented Wednesday as over 50 women attended a tea and tour of the 40-acre Cranbrook Gardens around Cranbrook House.

Henry S. Booth, chairman of the Cranbrook Foundation, spoke to the garden club presidents and others present.

In charge of the affair was Mrs. Robert Dusseau, who was assisted by Mrs. Donnell Matthews, Mrs. C. E. Wilson Jr. and Mrs. John F. Adamson.

Charity Week at the Detroit Race Course is keeping Mrs. Irving Duffy of Manor road, who is serving on one of the executive committees, a busy person.

The races will benefit Michigan Racing Charities, Inc., including the Boys Committee of Detroit, Michigan Thoroughbred Breeders Foundation and Children's Hospital of Michigan, of which Mrs. Duffy is a trustee.

Staying with the Duffys while preparing for a three-day event to be held over Labor Day weekend at Metamora Hunt Club is Maj. Robert Borg of The Dalls, Ore.

Another houseguest, who is here as a contestant is Jeb Wofford of Kansas. His brother, Warren, will join him at the end of the week.

Luncheon Given for Bride-Elect Roberta Weddle

Mrs. Bert Weddle of Oxley drive entertained Wednesday afternoon at a luncheon honoring her daughter, Roberta, who will become the bride of N. Henry McCandless on Aug. 6 at Oakland Park Methodist Church.

* * *

A reception will follow the 7:30 wedding ceremony at the Oxley drive home of the bride-elect's parents. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McCandless of Lenox avenue.

Husband, Wife Team in Ceramics

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"My husband and I have a profitable hobby in ceramics," a woman writes, "and we thought you might be interested in hearing how we got started.

* * *

"For years, while he was in his job, we studied ceramics, starting with a YMCA course and then taking advanced courses.

We bought a small kiln, and began experimenting. At first, we just did ash trays — all kinds of ash trays, in varied shapes and colors. We gave them to friends for gifts and, of course, equipped our whole house wtith them.

"After that," she continues, "I began experimenting with dressing table accessories. I made a little powder box, quite charming, in porcelain. Then I did a pin tray and then candlesticks. They were all in matching pastels, very plain and modern, and they made a big hit with friends who visited us. We began making these sets for gifts.

* * *

"By this time, of course, we had a larger kiln. My husband handled the technical end and I did the designing.

PROFESSIONAL BASIS

"About two years before my husband's retirement was due," she went on, "we decided to go ahead seriously on a professional basis, in order to supplement his pension and really make some money out of our ceramics.

"We built a little extension on to our house—after first checking with the town zoning authorities —and turned it into a display room and shop.

* * *

My husband built lovely shelves and painted them black, so that the merchandise would show up. We still specialize in ash trays, dressing table accessories and candleticks.

"We put out an attractive sign and did a little advertising in our local papers. People began coming to us almost immediately. We kept out prices low, but not so low that we didn't make a nice profit. And we made things to order for people, in the color and texture they wanted—at an extra fee, of course.

GIVE LESSONS

"That was four years ago," she concludes, "and really, we have made out better than we ever dreamed. In addition to selling our products, we give lessons to people who want to learn how to make ceramics. Also, we rent our little kiln to people who want to make their own. And our retail business has grown and grown!"

If you are interested in the field of ceramics, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and I will send you a list of books on the subject.

Loop Tie-Back on Plastic Hook

An effective solution to anchoring the tie-backs on frilly curtains so that they're a pleasure to rehang after each laundering has recently been found.

Some homemakers have discovered that the new self-affixing plastic hooks, which stick perfectly to wood window frames, are ideal for tie-back loops.

Simply by sticking a hook on each side of the window frame in the location you want it, the tie-backs can be arranged in the most effective manner as easily as you can slip the curtains over the rods. The new hooks are easy to apply.

When moistened with water, the adhesive on the backs of the hooks permits them to be applied to wood or plaster surfaces for permament use.

This type application prevents scarring or damaging woodwork due to holes being dug in the wood.

Pick Paisley for Summer, Fall Clothes

PARIS (INS)—If you are looking for clothes that will be stylish both now and in autumn, Paris fashion experts advise something with a Paisley pattern.

A Paisley design has become a year-around classic sponsored by Monsieur Dior himself.

Dior displays a wine-red shirtwaist dress with a Paisley pattern in blue and yellow. Made of feather-weight wool, it can be worn in summer and will be just as smart under a coat or even a fur for fall and winter wear.

Cotton or silk dresses and blouses with Paisley patterns will still look right in September and October when no elegant Parisian woman would be caught dead in flower-prints.

POPULAR COLORS

Long-torso or shirt-waist styles made of Paisley printed wool, silk twill, nylon or cotton are popular with fashion-wise and budget-minded Parisiennes. The most popular color combinations include white with a black Paisley pattern, beige with brown, red with blue and green with blue.

Among the smartest and most practical Paris ideas are long shawls or stoles of Paisley printed wool which smartly supplement a plain colored decolette summer dress. A strictly man-styled shirt of Paisley patterned tie-silk will be Parisian with shorts or slacks in summer or with your sports suit in fall.

Try Wall Drapery

If you have an unnecessary door or window which robs you of otherwise useful wall space, try hanging a drapery over the whole wall. It will add softness, and if it's the same color as your walls, it will make the room look larger.

Good Recipe for Car Trip Vacations

Proper Attitudes Aid Annual Holiday Merriment

Are you looking for a fool-proof recipe for vacation fun—one that's been properly tested and seasoned to taste? Here are two basic ingredients for any happy vacation by car.

First is the proper attitude towards your once-a-year family trip.

Make up your mind in advance to leave your troubles at home, broaden your outlook and have a good relaxing time.

The second ingredient is the dash of spice—a change of scene. Get away from it all this summer. Go some place new and different instead of heading for that one and only spot you've visited for the past six years.

CHECK OUT CAR

Your trip will be much more carefree if you're sure your car is in tip-top condition.

Automotive experts advise you to have your car properly serviced before you start. Pack lightly. Take half as many clothes as you think you'll need.

Then you'll have twice as much space for travel mementos picked up en route. Take at least one pair of well-broken in walking shoes to insure your comfort.

For your digestion's sake, eat lightly and as regularly as you would at home. You might try my own eating-on-the-road formula—a light breakfast and a picnic lunch followed by a large meal after you've stopped for the night.

TAKE IT EASY

As for sightseeing, intersperse it with rest and relaxation. Six hours of continuous sightseeing is enough for anyone but a youth. Besides, if you try to see too much too fast, you'll muddle your vacation memories.

'Reet Pleat' Keeps Wifey Real Beat

By JANE COCHRAN

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (INS) — A good wife will put a crease in her husbands trousers but pert Nan Gray goes higher—her main concern is the pleats in her husband's shirts.

It's a problem on a large scale because husband is singer Frankie Laine whose more than ample diaphragm belts out such soothing ballads as "Mule Train" and "Where the Wild Goose Goes." He pops shirts with ordinary pleats right out of his dinner jacket, a distressing situation for an artistically-inclined wife.

Miss Gray, who left behind a movie career to marry the singer, solved the problem with diagonal pleats that met with the satisfaction of everyone, including the Queen of England.

Laine, sitting beside the swimming pool at Las Vegas' beautiful Desert Inn where he was headlining the hotel's show, responded to a compliment on his pleated shirts by saying: "They're my wife's idea and everybody likes them. After the Command Performance in London I could see the Queen looking at my shirt.

LITTLE ROUTINE

"I knew she was digging those pleats!"

The care and feeding of a crooner of the Laine variety has its interesting aspects, Miss Gray said, and few of them are routine.

"I was driven to despair when I saw Frank's appearance in ordinary evening shirts and got together with his tailor in Beverly Hills.

"We worked out the diagonal pleat idea along with a small button strip down the center to minimize the expanse. We even tabbed the shirt to a button on his trousers to keep everything in place, and now I'm happy to say that even women friends are copying the style."

* * *

"It's something he just can't get at night clubs or on the road," Miss Gray said, "and I also have to see that he—and I—both eat a lot of meat as part of our weight diet."

ROUGH TASK

Calming her singer husband down after a performance is not a task that bothers Miss Gray—in fact it doesn't exist. She explains:

"He loves his work and things would be fine if he'd only settle for that. But occasionally I have to settle him down. He gets so many things going at once that there isn't time for them all. His health is good and he thrives on this life; loves it.

"I also have no problem when women 'oooh and aaah' over my husband when he sings. It amuses me and pleases me because we consider his appearance a business matter.

* * *

"He considers being nice and pleasing his audience his job, and never mutters about signing autographs. He likes to meet his audience in person."

PATRICIA A. CABLE

The engagement of Patricia Anne Cable and George Lyle Johnson is being announced. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. James Cable of Ferndale and the late Mr. Cable. George is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Johnson of Elm street. No date has been set for the wedding.

Cotton Foundations Offer Easy Comfort

What makes cotton foundations popular is mainly their wonderful washability — that soap-and-water freshness that makes you feel like a million dollars even in the midst of a heat wave.

You just can't suds cotton too often, since it takes to washing like a duck takes to water. And that's what counts in the summertime!

Launder Hose Often

If you were the new elastic stockings for reasons of health, remember to launder them after each wearing.

This regular sudsing will preserve their stretchability and wearability. They dry quickly and anything that's clean also seems cooler in warm weather!

Fishing in the Bathtub Yields Big Money Catch

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP) — They thought Clarence Anderton was odd when he took to fishing in the family bathtub, but now he's reeling in money from a gadget that makes an artificial worm wiggle just like a live one.

Anderton, 28-year-old "baby" in a family of 11 sons, has always liked to fish and he's long been a cane pole man.

"But it cost money for bait, minnow buckets and the like," he said, "and I found I couldn't afford to fish as much as I wanted to."

So he decided to dream up something that would make cane pole fishing cheaper and also could be used on bait and casting rods.

MAIN INGREDIENTS

Main ingredients of the Humzing-er are rubber bait, a hollow, plastic tube line and a rubber bulb. The reel, sinker, float and leader line come with the set.

But the gimmick is in the bait, tube line and bulb.

The fisherman puts the bait on the line as always, then attaches the bulb to the other end, handy to the man doing the fishing.

* * *

When the bait hits the water, you squeeze the rubber bulb. That sends air through the hollow line to the bait, which squirms as though alive.

The set has a choice of bait—a worm, frog, roach, minnow, red fin or goldfish.

Anderton worked on his project off and on for seven years.

"I'd work at a regular job for a while to save up money and then quit and concentrate on my bait idea," he said. "When the money ran out, I'd go back to work until I could afford to quit again."

BATHTUB ANGLER

The rest of the Andertons thought Clarence had gone berserk when he started his bathtub fishing.

"And the hours he picked—between 2 a.m. and 5 a.m.," brother Herman said.

HAM AND PICKLE STEAK — A can of chopped ham from your supply shelf is the main ingredient in this appetizing meat loaf. Combined with seasonings, chopped dill pickles and bits of pineapple, it's an appetizing, eye-teasing dish. Garnish with whole pineapple slices and pickle fans.

Ham, Pickles, Pineapple Blend Into Tasty 'Steaks'

Wondering what to serve for dinner? Try Ground Ham and Pickle Steak, a main dish that's sure to be a hit with grownups and children alike.

A garnish of pickle fans and pineapple rings gives this recipe eye appeal as well as tempting flavor. Green beans, cooked with a dash of garlic salt, and buttery fan tan rolls add the finishing touches to a menu that will prove to be a year 'round favorite in your home.

It isn't necessary to have a dozen assorted items in the pantry to garnish food attractively. One of two varieties of pickles do the trick.

Their versatility makes them adaptable to many uses, and so economical of money and time. You'll find the tang and texture of pickles team up with many foods to flatter flavors and add the special zestiness that makes a meal successful.

Ground Ham and Pickle Steak

2 12-ounce cans chopped ham, ground
1-3 cup chopped onions
1½ cups soft bread crumbs
½ cup chopped dill pickles
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 No. 2 can sliced pineapple, drained
½ teaspoon prepared mustard
Pepper to taste
4 whole small dill pickles

Combine ham, onions, crumbs, chopped pickles and egg. Reserve four slices pineapple for top garnish. Chop remaining pineapple and add to meat mixture. Add remaining ingredients, except whole pickles, and mix well.

Shape into large steak about 1-inch thick. Broil about 5 inches from source of heat 10 minutes, or until browned.

Top with reserved pineapple and garnish with dill pickle fans. Continue broiling three minutes, or until pineapple is browned. Makes four servings.

Put Pineapple Punch on Your Party Menu

Summertime is party time—summer parties call for punch—and pineapple juice is perfect for punch. Here's the recipe for a sparkling, refreshing summer beverage:

Combine 3 cups of sugar and 3 cups of water. Heat, stirring until sugar is dissolved; cool. Then add one 46-ounce can of pineapple juice, plus three-fourths cup of lemon juice to heighten the 'ang. Chill the mixture, and when it's time to serve, add 3 pints of sparkling water.

To make it extra-special, add one quart of pineapple sherbet, placing it in scoops on top of the punch, like small icebergs.

Boiled Lobster Has Many Uses

Here are some ways to use boiled lobster meat:

1. Cut the lobster into chunks; heat in butter to which a clove of crushed garlic has been added. Serve with boiled new potatoes sprinkled with minced parsley, and green peas. Good!

* * *

2. Dice the lobster and mix with sliced mushrooms; add lobster and mushrooms to a rich cream sauce flavored with a little cooking sherry.

Pile back into the lobster shells and sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese. Heat and lightly brown under the broiler.

3. Use a can of a fine brand of meatless tomato sauce—the all-purpose kind that is designed for spaghetti. Heat chunks of the boiled lobster meat in the sauce. Serve over cooked spaghetti or rice.

4. And how about heart sandwiches for summer lunches? Mix the cubed lobster with finely diced celery, hard-cooked egg, mayonnaise and grated onion.

Pile the mixture onto slices of buttered toast or fresh bread; top with crisply cooked slices of bacon and second slices of toast or bread.

* * *

5. For a company meal, you might like to start with lobster cocktail. As the sauce for this, we suggest homemade mayonnaise enlivened with Bahama-type mustard and minced fresh dill.

6. For Friday night supper, lobster chowder with hot biscuits and a tossed green salad is perfect.

For dessert with this meal we would offer fresh fruit and cheese plus crisp cookies or some candy for those who have sweet leanings.

Pour Cherry Sauce on Cottage Pudding

Fresh Cherry Sauce

1 pound dark red sweet cherries
½ cup sugar
¼ cup water
1 tablespoon cornstarch
¼ cup cold water
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Wash, drain, stem and pit cherries; there should be about 2½ cups. Put cherries in saucepan with sugar and one-fourth cup water.

Stir occasionally over moderate heat until sugar dissolves and syrup is at boiling point.

Mix cornstarch with one-fourth cup cold water until smooth. Add to cherries; cook and stir constantly until syrup is thickened and clear.

Remove from heat. Stir in lemon juice. Serve hot or warm over cottage pudding. Makes 2 cups.

Combine one fully ripened banana, three-fourths cup milk, and two tablespoons unsulphured molasses. Mix well; serve cold.

Revive Jaded Appetites With Fried Turkey

For variety in delicious, economical meals, let's try a turkey fry! It's a dandy for these hot summer days when appetites are low.

* * *

Turkeys are plentiful and of all sizes . . . from the small 4 to 9-pounders up. All are young and tender and easily prepared. You can select the size and quantity according to the number of people you wish to serve. The rest is very simple.

If you select a small fryer-type turkey, it is a simple job to cut it into serving portions for convenient pan frying. If the turkey is large, fillets from the breast and thighs are excellent for frying.

For each pound of turkey, blend one-fourth cup flour, 1 teaspoon paprika, three-fourths teaspoon salt and one-eighth teaspoon pepper (one-eighth teaspoon poultry seasoning optional) in a paper bag. Shake turkey, two or three pieces at a time, in bag to coat evenly. Save any leftover flour for gravy.

* * *

Melt one-half inch of cooking fat in a skillet until a drop of water just sizzle. Start browning meaty pieces first, slipping less meaty parts in between as turkey browns. To brown evenly, turn as necessary with kitchen tongs or two spoons. This browning takes 15 to 20 minutes.

Reduce heat, cover tightly and cook slowly until tender, 40 to 50 minutes for 4-pound ready-to-cook weight. If the pan cannot be covered tightly, add 1 to 2 tablespoons of water and cover. The liver and pre-cooked heart, gizzard and neck may be floured and browned with turkey the last 15 minutes.

Smothered Turkey

1 young fryer-roaster turkey, about 4 pounds
1 to 1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon ginger
½ cup flour
½ cup fat
2 cups cream or rich milk
¼ pound sliced mushrooms, optional

Disjoint turkey. Mix salt, pepper, ginger and flour. Rub into turkey. Cook in hot fat until golden brown. Sprinkle any remaining flour mixture over top.

Heat cream to boiling and pour over turkey. Add more cream if necessary to half cover turkey. Cover tightly and bake in moderate oven (350) until tender, 1½ to 2 hours. Serves six to seven.

If mushrooms are used, slice, heat in cream and add.

To Sterilize Glasses

Know how to sterilize jelly glasses when you are going to fill them with freshly made preserves? Place the clean glasses in a large kettle ond cover them with water. Bring the water to a boil; boil 15 minutes. Turn off the heat but keep the glasses in the hot water until you are ready to fill each one.

Secret of Keeping Young: Dairy Products

If Mom refuses to admit to being "over-35," and really doesn't look it, there's a good possibility that dairy foods are helping to keep her secret. They are such a wonderful source of the protein, calcium and B vitamins we need to keep nerves, skin and bones in top repair . . . and the older we get, the more help we need.

The glamorous look and the charming manner are, for most of us, a lot easier with a foundation of good health, says Jean Allen of the Kroger Food Foundation.

Jean Allen talks with thousands of homemakers—from new brides to grandmothers — each year as she travels about the country, and they all say the same thing. You've got to feel good to look good! They agree emphatically that glamor is much more than skin deep.

Everybody shoves milk down Junior and Sis by the quart, Jean Allen says. But we tend to think of milk as a body-builder for youngsters only.

* * *

In reality, it is just as important for those of us who've stopped growing—at least up—because our body's "repair crews" have been working for quite a while and they're slowing down.

EUROPEAN WAY

Take a tip from Europeans. American children are without a doubt much healthier, but nutritionists tell us that the mortality rate of Europeans over 40 is lower than ours.

* * *

Many authorities believe that the answer may lie in the popular European dessert of fruit and cheese, which puts extra calcium in the diet in addition to its other benefits. In some countries, it is also the custom to serve cafe au lait—half hot milk—instead of black coffee.

We've all heard for years that milk is our most nearly perfect food. Bursting with protein, calcium, phosphorous, vitamins A, D (fortified), riboflavin . . . it contains no less than 274 nutrient substances, ready to go to work on your personal "beauty treatment."

It's a sure bet that Anna Held's much-ballyhooed milk baths would have done more for her skin if taken internally, although the publicity value would certainly have been less.

* * *

If you're one of those people who are always complaining that you can't seem to "snap back" the way you used to, part of it may be due to the lack of "building blocks" for your body. Eat plenty of milk, eggs and cheese for a feeling of well-being.

5 QUARTS A WEEK

For adults of any age, but particularly the older adult (that's anyone five years older than you), dairy products provide calcium for bone repair; riboflavin for healthy skin and nerves, and protein for muscle tone.

Everyone should drink five quarts of milk—fresh, evaporated or dry—or the equivalent in cheese or ice cream each week. Milk is especially important in the diet of people who have "sitting jobs" as well as older people. It provides many nutritive needs without excessive calories.

Sweeten Cold Cereal

To sweeten cold cereal, stir 1 tablespoon unsulphured molasses into 1 cup milk or cream, and pour over cereal. Unsulphured molasses adds nutrition and sweet spicy flavor to the cereal.

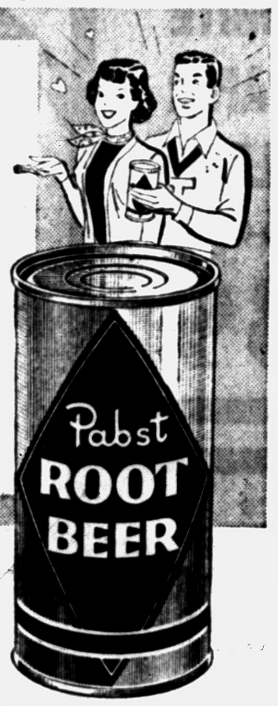

Peanut Butter Extras

Easy New Banana Cheese Cake Chilled, Not Baked

Cheese Cake has been a challenge to cooks for these many generations. After baking, it threatened to collapse unless one tiptoed around the house.

* * *

And then there was that matter of texture. . .to get the genuine, smooth-as-silk consistency of excellent Cheese Cake was considered an art to tax the powers of the most accomplished cook.

Now a new method of making Cheese Cake has dispatched all these terrors to the limbo where they belong.

Now you can make a luxurious and wonderful Banana Cheese Cake of perfect flavor and texture. You don't bake the cake at all. You simply put it in the refrigerator, and chilling does the job, instead of the oven.

FULLY RIPE BANANAS

Chiquita Banana is so delighted with this new Banana Refrigerator Cheese Cake that she is introducing it to restaurant chefs all over the country this month.

We don't want our husbands to come home from a restaurant lunch and tell us what a wonderful Banana Cheese Cake they had, without our having the recipe ready to make it at home. So keep your copy handy, or better still, make this wonderful cake before a fancy chef has a chance to spring it on your husband.

* * *

When you're making uncooked banana desserts, do select bananas that are just at peak of flavor and sweetness. You will find these qualities in a fully ripe banana, one that has yellow peel flecked with brown.

Banana Cheese Cake

1 envelope unflavored gelatine
½ cup cold water
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
¼ cup sugar
1 cup (½ pound) cream cheese or creamed cottage cheese
1 tablespoon lemon juice
¼ teaspoon salt
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
¼ cup heavy cream, whipped
2 ripe bananas
Crumb crust

Soften gelatin in one-quarter cup cold water. Mix together egg yolks, sugar and remaining water in top of double boiler. Cook over hot, not boiling, water until thickened. Remove from heat. Stir in gelatin.

Whip cheese until smooth and creamy. Gradually add egg yolk mixture, lemon juice and salt, beating until well blended. Chill until partially set. Beat thoroughly. Fold in egg whites, then whipped cream.

Peel and slice bananas. Arrange alternate layers of cheese mixture and sliced bananas on crumb crust, using cheese mixture for bottom and top layers. Top with one-quarter cup crumbs reserved from crumb crust recipe.

Chill until firm. . .approximately 1½ hours. Just before serving, garnish with additional ripe banana sliced, if desired. Makes one 9-inch cake. . .8 to 10 servings.

Crumb Crust

½ cup melted butter or margarine
3 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1½ cups finely crushed cornflakes, graham crackers or zwieback

Add butter or margarine, sugar and cinnamon to crumbs. Mix thoroughly.

Press three-quarters of crumb mixture firmly along sides and bottom of a 9-inch spring form pan. (A spring form pan is a round baking tin from which the sides can be removed, to allow for serving the cake from the bottom of the pan.) Reserve remaining crumbs for sprinkling on top of cake.

If desired, this recipe may be made using a 9-inch cake or pie pan in place of a spring form pan.

Brush Fish With Browning Glaze Before Cooking

Because fish cooks so quickly it seldom has time to brown nicely before it is done.

To be sure fish comes out of the oven or broiler with a rich brown appetizing look, brush it lightly before cooking with Kitchen Bouquet browning glaze. . .a mixture of Kitchen Bouquet and one-half cup hydrogenated fat and keep it on your pantry shelf to use as needed.

The same mixture can be brushed over steaks, chops and hamburgers to give a rich brown color when broiling or baking.

* * *

Broiling is one of the simplest methods of preparing fish. If you place a sheet of aluminum foil on the broiling rack beneath the fish there will be no fishy pan to wash after the meal.

Baked fish may require more preparation, but it needs less of your attention while it cooks.

Eat 3 Meals Daily in Summer

Don't Take Food Holiday

ANN ARBOR (UP) — A University of Michigan public health nutrition lecturer recently warned people not to take a summer vacation from the dinner table even though the appetite might be missing.

The lecturer, Isabel Patterson, said it's every bit as important to eat three well-balanced meals daily in the summer as it is in the winter.

"People should force themselves to eat three well-balanced meals a day in the summer even if their appetite is missing," she said. "They would feel much better and wouldn't tire so easily."

Miss Patterson suggested substituting cold plates for hot meals whenever possible but said one hot item — beverage, vegetable, meat, etc. — should be included with each meal for variety.

She said the amount of summer activity makes a difference how much a person should eat.

EAT MORE IF ACTIVE

"Obviously, a person who is very active should eat more than a person who is less active to compensate for the energy he has used up," Miss Patterson said. "But a relatively inactive person still needs three well-balanced meals a day although in smaller quantity."

The lecturer cautioned against an excess of the so-called "sugar and water" cold beverages and leafy salads.

"Fruit drinks are much more nourishing than sugar and water beverages," she said. "The fruit drinks contain vitamins which aren't found in sugar and water drinks.

"Leafy salads seem to have wide appeal in the summer. But they have very little nutritional value. Put some shrimp or other fish, foul or poultry in the salad and you have a worthwhile main dish."

She said cereal and milk is an excellent summer dish and pointed out it also makes a good light lunch.

CEREAL FOR LUNCH

"A lot of people are eating cereal for lunch on hot summer days," she said. "And I'm sure a lot more people would do the same if they ever thought of cereal in terms of a luncheon dish."

Miss Patterson said the summer months provide obese persons with a good chance to lop off some excess poundage by cutting down on their food intake.

"People can cut down on the amount of food they eat but they should make sure they are meeting their daily requirements," she said.

"Most people don't use as much energy in the summer as they do in the winter. That doesn't mean they should take a summer vacation from the dinner table."

Treat Family to Fish Mousse

Festive ways with food are always an enticement to the appetite — especially when they taste as good as they look. Color, novel shapes, and new taste combinations all make family meal times especially enjoyable, and can be accomplished with a minimum of time-consuming preparation.

Here's a receppe for Fish Mousse developed by the National Fisheries Institute that is sure to draw admiring glances at your table.

Fish Mousse

1 package frozen fish fillets
2 cups light cream
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 cups soft bread crumbs
1 teaspoon salt
1 medium onion, minced
4 egg whites
Pimiento

Put raw fish fillets through food chopper, using fine blade. Heat cream to boiling point but do not boil. Add butter or margarine. Remove from heat and stir in onion. Stir in fish and blend well.

Let mixture cool to lukewarm. Beat egg whites until very stiff and fold into fish mixture. Pour into greased 8-inch ring mold.

Place mold in pan of hot water and bake at 350 (moderate oven) 30 minutes. Turn mold out onto platter. Garnish top with pimiento strips. Fill center with peas or other vegetable. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Iced Tea Helps Guests Relax and Get Cool

Refreshments that look so pretty they indicate hours of preparation can actually be made in a matter of minutes when you have the know-how.

* * *

If three's anything that can put your guests at ease and relax them after a long, hot drive it's a big tall glass of iced tea. And, when served from a frosty cold pitcher along with fruit kabobs or fruit swizzle sticks, you've added appetite appeal and glamor all at once.

In preparing iced tea it's important to use accurate measurements — just as you do when baking a cake. A good rule of thumb to follow is to use 50 per cent more tea for iced tea when you would for hot tea.

For example, you'd need 4 teaspoons of tea for 4 cups of hot tea. For 4 glasses of iced tea you'd need 6 teaspoonfuls. If you don't have a large teapot, here's an easy way to make it:

In a saucepan, bring 2 quarts of water to a full rolling boil. Remove it from heat and immediately add 5 level tablespoons tea (or 15 tea bags). Brew four minutes, uncovered. Stir and strain

To make fruit kabobs put a swizzle stick through cubes of pineapple, melon balls and cherries.

* * *

You can make a jiffy dessert with a 6-inch bakers' jelly roll. Simply unroll it and spread it with slightly softened ice cream. Top with whipped cream and chopped walnuts. Place in a freezing compartment for a little while — and there you have it — elegance and glamor all-in-one.

Quick Frozen Ice Cream Roll

1 bakers' jelly roll (about 6" long)
1 pint vanilla ice cream
½ cup heavy cream, whipped
2 tablespoons chopped walnuts

Unroll jelly roll. Spread with slightly softened ice cream. Reroll cake. Top with whipped cream and sprinkle with walnuts. Slice and serve immediately.

Or: Place cake in freezing compartment. Just before serving spread with whipped ream. Makes four to six servings.

Everyone Enjoys Shrimp Salad Rolls

Shrimp Salad Rolls

1 pound shrimp (cooked)
¼ cup commercially prepared mayonnais
1 tablespoon chili sauce
1 teaspoon capers (chopped)
1 teaspoon finely grated onion (pulp and juice)
½ cup finely diced celery
Salt, pepper
4 to 6 frankfurter rolls
Butter
Extra whole capers
Salad greens
Radishes

Shell shrimp and devein; dice fairly fine. In a medium-sized bowl, stir mayonnaise, chili sauce, chopped capers and grated onion together. Add chopped shrimp and celery; mix well. Add salt and pepper to taste.

Split frankfurter rolls lengthwise but not all the way through; toast both crust and cut sides lightly under broiler or electric rotisserie; spread cut sides with butter.

Heap shrimp mixture over cut sides of rolls. Garnish shrimp mixture with whole capers; add garnish of salad greens and radishes at side of each roll.

Serve at once. Makes four to six servings.

Note: To cook shrimp, add the shellfish to 2 cups boiling water; bring water to simmering; simmer three to five minutes. Do not boil or overcook.

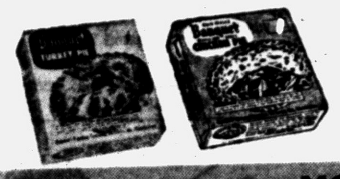

Picnics and mustard stains seem to go hand in hand. Remove these stains in a minute . . . rub with lemon juice, then salt, and hang in sun.

Snowball Treat Low in Calories

Want a grand summertime dessert that is sweet, nourishing, and low, low, calorie? All this is yours in a jiffy in today's new recipe for low calorie sucaryl snowballs.

This recipe is fun to do. Use any individual molds you have, and garnishes from your garden or window box for special occasions.

At only 29 calories per serving you can serve sucaryl snowballs often.

You can even provide second and third helpings for even the most limited calorie counters — and watch your popularity increase with each serving.

Low Calorie Snowballs

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
1 teaspoon sucaryl solution or 8 sucaryl tablets
1 cup hot water
1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
¼ cup lemon juice
3 egg whites

Soften gelatin in cold water. Add sucaryl and hot water; stir until well blended. Add lemon peel and juice. Chill until slightly thickened.

Beat egg whites until they form moist peaks when beater is raised; fold in. Pour into six individual molds. Chill until set.

Serves six. Each serving has 29 calories — 4.5 protein; 1.0 fats. 0.5 carbohydrate.

Thimble Cookies Are Like Those Grandma Made

These cookies will remind you of old-fashioned days because they are the thimble sort our grandmothers used to make.

You roll out one-third of the dough at a time and cut it into rounds. Then you place half the rounds on an ungreased cookie sheet and drop a half-teaspoonful of jam in the center of each.

Now you cut out the centers of the matching cookies with a thimble and press these rounds gently over the jam-speckled ones.

Rolled Thimble Cookies

1½ cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon salt
⅓ cup butter or margarine
⅓ cup sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla
¼ cup milk
⅓ cup (about) jam

Sift together the flour and salt. Cream butter, sugar and vanilla. Add sifted flour and milk; mix thoroughly.

Roll out one-third of the dough at a time, refrigerating dough you are not rolling. Use a well-floured pastry cloth and stockinet-covered rolling pin.

Roll dough one-eight-inch thick and cut out rounds with a 2-inch cookie cutter. Place half the rounds on an ungreased baking sheet about 1 inch apart; drop about one-half teaspoon jam in center of each.

Using a thimble, cut out the centers of the other rounds. (Re-roll scraps of dough.) Place cut-out rounds over jam rounds on baking sheet; press edges gently together.

Bake in hot (400 degrees) oven 10 to 12 minutes or until edges are touched with brown. Cool on rack. Makes about three dozen cookies.

Blueberry Hotcakes Are Sure to Please

Blueberry Pancakes

1 1-3 cups sifted flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons sugar
2 eggs
2-3 cup milk
2-3 cup blueberries (picked over and washed and well drained)
2 tablespoons butter or margarine (melted)

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Add eggs and milk. Beat until dry ingredients are just moistened; batter should have tiny lumps. Fold in blueberries and melted butter with a few strokes.

Bake on lightly greased griddle, pouring about 3 tablespoons of the batter for each; if you have a ladle that holds about 3 tablespoons, use it for pouring.

Turn pancakes when they are golden-brown on underside and bubbly on top. Makes 12 to 14.

As pancakes are done, slather each with butter and sprinkle generously with powdered sugar; stack in piles of three and keep warm in low oven.

Prepare Sandwiches With Frozen Bread

WASHINGTON (INS) — With the summer heat wave under way, food specialists of the Agriculture Department suggest that housewives try their hand at making sandwiches with frozen slices of bread.

They say it keeps the fresh quality of the bread, "refrigerates" the lunchbox and, not least of all, saves time.

Frozen slices are easier to spread than soft ones. The chill in a closely wrapped sandwich will keep the ingredients— even lettuce—fresh and crisp for hours and even help hold down the temperature of other foods in the lunchbox.

Smoked shoulder butt should be simmered in water until tender, about 45 minutes per poudn.

Broiled Potatoes Will Please Dieters

Here's a special potato recipe for dieters—broiled potatoes. You'll be surprised how good the potato slices taste, hot and golden from the broiler.

Reducers' Broiled Potatoes

Wash potatoes and boil in skin for 10 minutes. Drain and slice in pieces about one-half-inch thick. Spread flat on rack and place under broiler.

When browned on one side, turn with spatula and return to broiler until potatoes are browned on both sides and tender in the middle. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Serve at once.

Don't peel these potatoes. The small circles of skin on the broiled potato slices are entirely edible . . . crisp and delicious. Dieters with uneducated palates may remove the skins themselves, but do send the potato to the table complete in flavor for the discerning diner.

Top Off Chilled Fruits With Ice Cream Balls

Arrange your favorite combination of chilled fruits in low dessert bowl; chill. (Pears, apricots and plums are wonderful together.) Scoop vanilla ice cream into balls; roll in canned coconut; store on cookie sheet in freezer until dessert time.

When ready to serve, top fruit bowl with ice cream-coconut balls. Here's one dessert you can make in large or small quantities, keep chilled and carry to the backyard or porch easily.

Unusual Salad Plate

For an attractive and tasty salad plate guests will long remember: Avocado slices sprinkled with fresh lemon juice and salt, orange cartwheel slices topped with thin onion rings, and prunes stuffed with cream cheese and nutmeats. Serve with Lemon French Dressing for true good eating.

Fill the center of a chiffon or angel food cake with melon balls and serve with whipped cream, for an easy summer dessert.

For Extra-Good Salad

Potato salad tastes extra good if you cube the potatoes while they are hot and douse them with French dressing. Then just before serving gently mix in mayonnaise, diced celery, diced hard-cooked egg and any other additions you wish.

A generous amount of butter or margarine spread on bread slices, when you are making sandwiches, helps to keep fillings from soaking into the bread.

Vary Way You Serve Favorite Dessert

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

With the advent of home freezers, freezing sections in most refrigerators and the half-gallon container of ice cream, many homes now keep a constant supply of ice cream on hand.

Once in the class of extra, even of luxury foods, ice cream is now a standard article of diet on American tables. Once glace at any drug store or supermarket in the Pontiac area will convince anyone of the tremendous supply needed to satisfy the customers.

Ice cream is a dairy food. As such, it contributes important minerals, vitamins and proteins to one's diet, just as milk does. In a good quality commercial ice cream mix there is 24 per cent cream, 46 per cent milk and 14 per cent concentrated milk. This mix is pasteurized before freezing.

Dieters may include ice cream in their daily menus. One-half cup of vanilla ice cream contributes 150 calories. In satisfaction there is no limit to what it contributes.

There are so many excellent ways of serving ice cream that it is difficult to pick and choose the most interesting. We are writing this Byline in order to present some recipes that otherwise might not find room in the food pages.

If you are partial to citrus flavors, try this. Garnishes will put it in the "company" class.

Gulf Coast Milk Float

1 cup fresh orange juice
1 cup pineapple juice
¾ cup lime juice
½ teaspoon mint flavoring
4 tablespoons sugar
Few grains salt
6 cups milk
1 pint vanilla ice cream
Sprigs of fresh mint

Combine fruit juices, flavoring, sugar, and salt; pour into tall glasses. Slowly add cold milk to each glass and stir quickly. (The milk will have the texture of buttermilk.) Top with ice cream and garnish with a sprig of fresh mint or lime wedge. Serve at once with finger sandwiches, if desired. Makes 6 servings.

With packaged shortcake from the store, you have the makings of a different, delectable dessert. Now that peaches are appearing in the markets, this is a timely recipe.

Peach Melba Shortcake

1 pkg. (four) shortcake dainties
1 pint vanilla ice cream
Peach halves
1 large package frozen raspberries, or 1 pint fresh raspberries
½ cup sugar

Crush raspberries and place over low heat. Add sugar and cook until mixture thickens, stirring occasionally. Strain and chill until ready to serve.

Heap each shortcake dainty with ice cream, and place drained peach half on top of ice cream. Spoon generous amount of sauce over peach. Makes four servings.

Have you ever combined ice cream and waffles? Use the frozen variety which need only to be popped into a toaster to heat, or make your own. For a hot weather treat, top hot waffle sections with two scoops of strawberry ice cream. Pour over sauce of frozen or fresh strawberries. Garnish with additional berries.

Using a berry sauce for a topping, but with an entirely different base is this pear and ice cream dessert.

Midsummer Dreams

1 can (1lb. 14 ounce) pear halves
½ teaspoon green food coloring
¼ teaspoon peppermint extract
1 pint vanilla ice cream
1 cup canned raspberries

Drain syrup from pears and add coloring and flavoring. Put pear halves in syrup and chill until they are peppermint flavored and tinted a delicate green. Drain and serve in chilled dessert dishes with a scoop of ice cream and some raspberry sauce. Six servings.

To make sauce: Put drained raspberries through a coarse sieve to remove seeds and puree the fruit.

Coconut-Blueberry Snowball Sundae

1 pint vanilla ice cream
½ cup shredded coconut
Blueberry sauce

Scoop ice cream into balls. Roll in coconut and place in chilled sherbet dishes. Top with blueberry sauce.

Blueberry Sauce

2 cups cultivated blueberries, washed and well-drained
1 cup water
4 teaspoons flour
¾ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
2 teaspoons butter or margarine
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind

Bring 1 cup of the blueberries and water to a boil and simmer 3 minutes. Combine flour, sugar, salt, cinnamon and add to hot fruit. Add remaining berries; bring to a boil and cook 3 minutes. Remove from heat. Add butter and lemon rind. Chill thoroughly.

Our last unusual suggestion for serving ice cream uses ready-sweetened cereal and semi-sweet chocolate.

Chocolate-Coated Ice Cream Squares

For 4 servings: Cut a pint brick of vanilla ice cream in 4 slices or squares .Before serving, press each slice or square into Chocolate Cereal Crunch spread on waxed paper or in a shallow bowl. Serve at once. If desired this may be done about an hour before serving and the squares placed in the freezing zone of the refrigerator. Any extra "crunch" may be sprinkled on the squares when served.

Chocolate Cereal Crunch

1-6 ounce package (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate pieces
2 cups pre-sweetened ready-to-eat corn puffs

Melt chocolate over hot water or very low heat and carefully stir in the cereal. When well-coated, spread cereal on waxed paper. Cool outside the refrigerator before using. This "crunch" may be sprinkled liberally over ice cream or ice cream squares. Or scoops may be pressed into the chocolate-coated cereal. If the "crunch" is to be used for coating, slightly crush the cereal before mixing with the chocolate.

Note: Any of the pre-sweetened ready-to-eat cereals may be used—corn flakes, corn puffs, rice cereal, puffed wheat, or wheat and oat cereal.

Add Lemon Sherbet to Cranberry Cocktail

Refreshing starter for lunch or dinner. . .and makes such a pretty table!

Slip a spoonful of lemon sherbet into a glass of Cranberry Juice Cocktail. Serve as an appetizer before lunch or dinner.

Blend Corn, Cheese

Citrus Foods Cool and Thrifty Buys

The mercury is mounting—and that means tangy grapefruit salads and cooling lemonade and limeade are on the way to your dining table. A bountiful supply of many citrus products—fresh, frozen and canned—will make them an especially good buy this summer.

* * *

The American homemaker will find canned grapefruit sections, lemonade and limeade heading the list of values in most chain food stores and supermarkets as the result of a nationwide "Summer Citrus Coolers Campaign" scheduled by members of the National Association of Food Chains for July 14-23.

The campaign will also feature frozen grapefruit segments, fresh lemons and limes, and lemon juice concentrate.

If you noted the disappearance of canned grapefruit sections from the food store shelf during World War II, you may be interested in knowing that the armed forces purchased all supplies of this citrus product over a three-year period.

* * *

Men in the citrus industry believe that as a result the housewife never returned to her prewar habit of buying canned grapefruit sections when the product later became available.

Now, they feel, is a good time to remind her of the high quality and nutritional value of canned grapefruit, its superior taste because the bitter rag has been removed in processing—and its reasonable price at this time.

NATURALS FOR MENU

Flavorful grapefruit sections are summertime naturals for the family menu, whether used as a breakfast fruit or combined with other fruits for delicious salads and desserts.

And the homemaker who practices popular "beat the heat" tricks will have a frosty pitcher of lemonade or limeade in her refrigerator, always filled. For the mid-afternoon pause, or refreshment during an evening visit with friends the "lemonade break" is a favorite.

Treat Company to Coffee Foam

Here's an exciting new way with iced coffee! It's made effervescent with cream soda, given added zest with Angostura bitters.

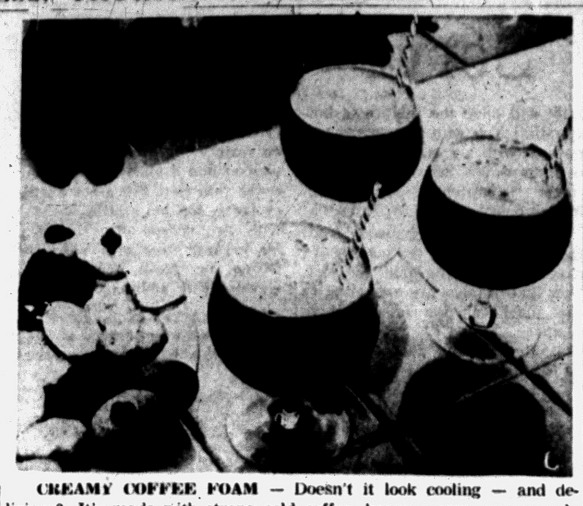

This is the thing to serve on the porch on a summer evening, and especially fitting to offer to those guests who do not take ordinary cocktails.

Creamy Coffee Foam

2 cups strong cold coffee
½ teaspoon Angostura bitters
½ cup heavy cream
Bottled cream soda

Combine coffee, bitters and cream; divide among four decorative glasses. Add ice cubes. Fill glasses with cream soda. Stir gently to mix.

Or, use cold coffee and thoroughly chilled cream soda and dispense with the ice, if you prefer.

CREAMY COFFEE FOAM — Doesn't it look cooling — and delicious? It's made with strong cold coffee, heavy cream, cream soda and just a dash of Angostura bitters. Fine for those who do not care for regular cocktails and elegant enough to serve any time, any place.

Prepare Cabbage the Up-to-Date Way

If you've tasted cabbage that was flat, chances are it was cooked the old-fashioned way—a long time with lots of water.

Be up to date—for mild sweet flavor:

1. Shred or cut into pieces of serving size.
2. Put into a small amount of salted boiling water. Cover until the water boils again.
3. Remove cover for one minute—so cabbage will keep its nice green color. This will practically eliminate strong cabbage odors too.
4. Cover again and cook about five or six minutes more until cabbage is done. All cabbage will cook in eight minutes or less. Overcooking gives cabbage a strong flavor.

Creamy Kraut Slaw Is Perfect Picnic Fare

Here's a good make-ahead picnic salad to chill and tote in your ice bucket.

Combine your favorite well-drained canned vegetables (peas, green beans, limas, corn, carrots, etc.). Toss with tart French dressing; cover; chill two to three hours.

Sauerkraut Slaw

Drain well 1 can (1 pound) sauerkraut, well chilled; toss lightly with 1 container (8 ounces) sour cream, 2 teaspoons caraway seeds and 1 teaspoon sugar.

Rice is more extensively grown and more widely used than any other foodstuff in the world.

Pastor Argues Heresy Charge

Lutheran Church Trial Hinges on Individual Interpretation of Creed

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A young Lutheran pastor on trial before fellow churchmen on charges of heresy says "my ministry will continue regardless of what happens here."

The Rev. George P. Crist Jr., 31, said he was not "panicky" about the outcome of the trial and was prepared to accept dismissal from the ministry if the Northwest Synod of the United Lutheran Church imposes such a sentence.

* * *

The trial, first in the 60-year history of the synod, is hearing charges that Pastor Crist "adulterated the Word of God" and mixed his own "opinions and surmises" with the Scripture.

The penalty, if a finding of guilty is returned and upheld by the synod convention in 1956, could range from a simple rebuke to defrocking.

The trial, behind closed doors and before a board of seven other ministers, entered its second day today. Neither side planned to call any witnesses.

Rev. Crist, pastor of the Bethlehem Church in the village of Durham in neighboring Waukesha County, is accused of 14 counts of deviation from Lutheran doctrine. He has headed the congregation of 225 members for six years.

Pastor Crist said he will attempt to prove that his beliefs "constitute a permissable point of view within the Lutheran Church." He said he would deny some of the charges against him as "not representatives of my views."

The trial centers around 18 sermons delivered by Pastor Crist earlier in the year. He said the sermons accurately reflected his views and added he would not recant any of his preachings.

The specific counts against him declare Pastor Crist denied the virgin birth of Christ, the physical resurrection of Jesus, the occurrence of some miracles and the certain effects of prayer.

German Reds Aim for Unity

Communists Endorse Russia's All-European Security Plan

BERLIN (AP) — Communist-controlled East Germany, supporting Soviet policies as usual, has endorsed Russia's plan for German unification as part of an all-European security system.

The agreement was announced last night in a joint communique after the four-day visit to East Berlin by Soviet Premier Bulganin and Communist party boss Nikita S. Khrushchev, on their way home from the Geneva Big Four meeting.

* * *

The Western Allies at the summit conference insisted that Germany must be reunified before a Europe-wide security system could be set up. The Soviets held out for the security system—and abandonment of the North Atlantic Alliance—first.

The Big Four's foreign ministers are to begin negotiating the two issues at a conference in October.

Mountain Storms Flood Sections of Albuquerque

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—Residents of low-lying areas in northern Albuquerque apprehensively watched rain clouds today, hoping their sodden homes could dry out.

Torrents pouring down arroyos yesterday from a cloudburst on the slope of the Sandia Mountains east of here made a lake of many blocks in low areas of the city's north end.

* * *

Water was hip deep in places. Then, late at night, water from two more heavy showers high on the 10,000-foot range began flooding another area about one mile north.

However, the Weather Bureau said those two showers were the last heavy rain expected, at least through this morning.

* * *

Clinton Roth, director of the Albuquerque-Bernalillo County civil defense unit, said the organization had 156 evacuees in a dormitory at New Mexico University. Others, he said, "may have left the area by themselves."

Roth said early today the situation is "well under control. Today is just a case of mopping up—if we don't get another bad storm. No more water is rising in arroyos."

He added, "We had some trouble with looting but the National Guard is on duty now."

He estimated damage at "around one million dollars." Some of the buildings in the flooded area are of adobe, and their walls, if unprotected, crumble when soaked by water for many hours.

El Paso, Tex., 285 miles south, was cleaning up after another cloudburst. That storm hit the city late yesterday, in the same areas flooded by downpours a week ago. About 30 homes in the Mountain View district were flooded, and Ft. Bliss soldiers and National Guardsmen were called out to aid residents and try to divert runoff with sandbags.

Newsman Gets Slip for Free Operation

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Photographer Charlie Pence was going about the routine of taking pictures and getting names at an engagement cocktail at the home of a physician.

While he was finishing the assignment, the doctor walked up, put his hand on Pence's shoulder and said:

"You've been so nice to us I want to do something for you . . . so I'm giving you a due-bill for an appendectomy."

Desperado Ordered to Attend Church

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP)—A man who flourished a hand grenade when Richland County deputies went to arrest him has been put under a peace bond with the stipulation that he attend church or Sunday school each Sunday with his family for one year.

Magistrate Cal Lawsor sentenced him to serve five days or pay a $5 fine. The man's wife is to report each Monday whether he went to church the previous day.

There is also a suspended sentence of 30 days in jail or a $100 fine.

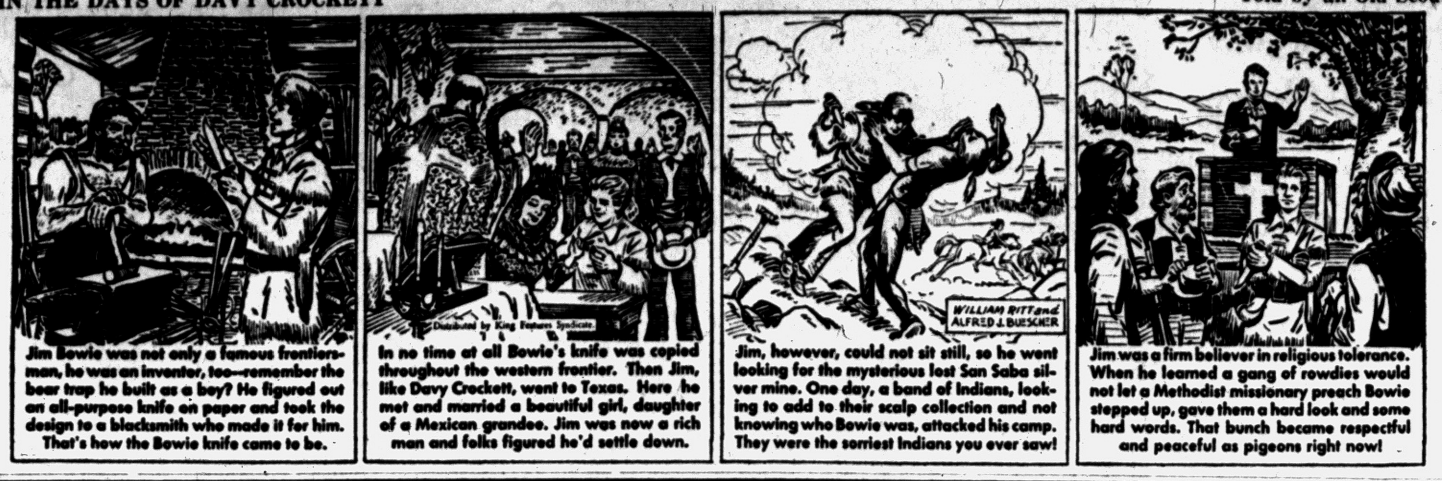

The officers said they were called by the man's wife. He pulled the pin of the grenade which failed to go off because it did not contain any powder.

Benthosaurus Uses Appendages to Travel

WASHINGTON — Until recently scientists were wrong about the use of appendages on the "tripod fish" or Benthosaurus. Two spines trailing from the fish's flanks and its long wirelike tail were hitherto thought to be filaments floating behind the fish.

However, National Geographic Society photographs now show them to be almost legs — certainly props or crutches. The fish "jumps" on these props along the bottom 7,000 feet under the surface of the Mediterranean Sea.

IN THE DAYS OF DAVY CROCKETT — Told by an Old Scout

Jim Bowie was not only a famous frontiersman, he was an inventor, too—remember the bear trap he built as a boy? He figured out an all-purpose knife on paper and took the design to a blacksmith who made it for him. That's how the Bowie knife came to be.

In no time at all Bowie's knife was copied throughout the western frontier. Then Jim, like Davy Crockett, went to Texas. Here he met and married a beautiful girl, daughter of a Mexican grandee. Jim was now a rich man and folks figured he'd settle down.

Jim, however, could not sit still, so he went looking for the mysterious lost San Saba silver mine. One day, a band of Indians, looking to add to their scalp collection and not knowing who Bowie was, attacked his camp. They were the sorriest Indians you ever saw!

Jim was a firm believer in religious tolerance. When he learned a gang of rowdies would not let a Methodist missionary preach Bowie stepped up, gave them a hard look and some hard words. That bunch became respectful and peaceful as pigeons right now!

Minister Not Only Interested in Church

DECATUR (AP)—The Rev. Henry Houseman is supply minister of the Methodist Harmony Chapel, but that isn't all.

At least 95 per cent of all American families include some kind of canned goods in their regular diets.

Saigon Changed by Civil Strife

Exterior Calm Faded When Open Warfare Entered City Streets

WASHINGTON —Civil strife that exploded recently in Saigon has probably changed forever some of the ways of one of the Orient's most imperturbable, prosperous and pleasure-loving cities.

Tension has been building up for years. But, until mortar shells and fire swept the city it had maintained at least an outward show of calm, despite the bitter war that had long plagued northern Indochina and brought sporadic bursts of gunfire to Saigon itself.

* * *

The capital of South Viet Nam was captured by the French in 1859 and ceded to them by the Annamese three years later. It took on a Parisian atmosphere and now is one of the few remaining big cities of Asia with close political ties in Europe, says the National Geographic Society.

Its tree-lined boulevards, rococo government buildings, public gardens and sidewalk cafes have earned it the sobriquet of "Little Paris of the East."

Saigon, however, is also an Oriental metropolis, sheltering with its twin city, Cho Lon, some 2,000,000 people. Along the banks of the Saigon River 30 miles from the sea, it straddles one of the most heavily populated areas of southeast Asia.

INLAND PORT

It became a busy inland port, handling as many as 581 vessels a year just before World War II. Rice, teak, rubber, hides, pepper, copra, gums and kapok were exported. Its industries were mainly rice, saw-milling, electric power, alcoholic beverages, textiles, soap and chemicals.

The civil warfare has already brought changes. Theaters have closed because few people wish to risk themselves on the streets after dark. Some French-style cafes are fenced off behind wire mesh to protect patrons who insist on their usual afternoon aperitif.

As if they were landing in the unruffled city of the past, they were greeted by a sign reading, "Welcome 100,000th family on your passage to freedom."

Summer School in Coaching Set for 2 Locations

LANSING (AP)—Plans for separate summer coaching schools in the Lower and Upper Peninsulas are announced by the State High School Athletic Department.

The Lower Peninsula school will be held at Central Michigan College, Mount Pleasant, Aug. 15-19 under the direction of D. P. Rose, college athletic director.

The Upper Peninsula school is scheduled for Aug. 4-6 at Northern Michigan College, Marquette, under the direction of Athletic Director C. V. Money.

Football instructors for the Lower Peninsula school will include Minnesota Head Coach Murray Warmath, Line Coach Denver Crawford, and Head Coach Ed Wernet of Grosse High.

Michigan State University Coach Forddy Anderson and Lofton Greene of River Rouge High will instruct the basketball classes and Don Canham the University of Michigan will be in charge of track.

Iowa Coach Forest Evashevski will be football instructor for the Upper Peninsula school and Anderson and Canham will handle the basketball and track.

Babies should be born at home!

"Hospitals tend to dehumanize the mother-child relationship."

"With warm, loving parents, children will grow into nice people... what difference where they are born?"

"From the standpoint of infection, home care is safer than the hospital."

AUGUST JOURNAL

Bob Considine Says:

Hunger, Food Surpluses Go Hand in Hand

GENEVA (INS) — Fulton Sheen once said that half the world goes to bed hungry every night. Here in fat, sobersided Geneva there are several international agencies charged with trying to blunt that hunger with food. And, as usual, the agencies look to America.

* * *

Between July 1, 1954, and June 30, 1955, the U. S. made available 221,482,805 pounds of surplus foods worth $70,476,667.11. About 60 per cent was distributed through the Catholic relief services of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

The remainder was dispensed by the World Council of Churches, Lutheran, Jewish and a dozen other groups. Some 37 countries were the beneficiaries. In Italy alone this summer almost 1,000,000 children will be fed in state-controlled camps by U. S. surpluses.

It is a program that is an uneasy blend of humanitarianism and power politics. We want to feed needy friends better than the Communists can afford to feed them. We'd like to feed everybody for that matter, but there are realms in the world where the knuckles of our profferred hand would be rapped.

* * *

(There are overlapping cases, too. We have an economic mission in Yugoslavia telling Tito's land how to build itself up, but at the same time other official and semi-official arms of the U. S. government are urging Yugoslavs to flee their country and take advantage of our escapee funds and possible resettlement in the U. S.)

HUNGER HERE TOO

There is hunger here in the U. S., and in the shadow of the Capitol in Washington squats squalor as repulsive as in a Calcutta slum. Many of our Indian tribes today are worse off than many of the desperate people we are trying to keep alive in remote corners of the world.

* * *

It is hard for an outsider to comprehend why there should be trouble adjusting these tragedies. Because we are agriculturally the most productive nation in history, and because the government must buy what the farmer himself cannot sell—the price support program—we have mountains of surplus foodstuffs.

One Geneva food agency man told me today that his office understood that it is costing the U. S. $800,000 a day to store the butter, wheat, oats, eggs, dried milk, etc., etc., etc. it has on its hands.

In some sections, the biggest available buildings, including movie theaters, have been leased, sealed, and pumped full of wheat.

SELL IT OR GIVE IT?

One group in government says "Sell it!" Another says "Give it!" Both get in trouble. There is about $10,000,000,000 invested in the mountain of foodstuff.

The Commodity Credit Corporation sold about $500,000,000 worth at competitive prices abroad in 1953 and gave away another $150,000,000. But at home the government was buying twice that amount.

Whenever CCC tries to do a country a favor and sell it stuff at a nice price, the foreign office of the country concerned protests to our State Department that wicked Americans are ruining their markets.

CCC modestly offered to sell 375,000,000 pounds of butter last year; managed to sell 1,400,000 pounds. It sold one-seventh of its offered oats. Here and there it ran into countries that had surpluses of their own and would like to have sold us something.

* * *

The French wouldn't buy our butter (we wanted to sell it to them cheap so that every French schoolchild could have a pat of it at lunchtime) because they argued that if this Utopia came about the parents of the children wouldn't give the kids any butter at the night meal—and that would doom the French butter market.

The Italian are happy to take millions of dollars worth of American cheddar cheese each year, but we must lend them additional money with which to rework the cheese with a little native product to make it more palatable to the Italian taste.

The Indians work our butter into ghee. There were, however, no complaints from non-Communist Guatemalan children. We recently shipped them a load of hard candies.

Since 1948, the American Red Cross has collected more than 14 million pints of blood, 7½ million for civilian and 6½ million for military use.

RAF Keeps Wraps on Margaret's Beau

BRUSSELS (INS) — The British Embassy has disclosed that Group Capt. Peter Townsend will not be in Britain for Princess Margaret's 25th birthday on Aug. 21.

The embassy said the handsome divorced commoner, who has been linked romantically with the Princess, won't return home until Sept. 5 for the Farnborough Air Show.

Townsend is air attache at the British Embassy in Brussels.

He will be tied up for the summer with "riding engagements" on the continent.

Tigers Win 1st, Blow 2nd at Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP)—Some of his home folks may be wondering why Detroit Tiger fans have been all excited this season about Al Kaline.

The kid, who has been having a great year, is in the midst of one of his worst series in the current five-game set between the Tigers and the Baltimore Orioles here in his own home town.

Tigers settled for a twi-night split last night, blowing the 2nd game 8-7 after holding a 7-1 lead. They had won the 1st 8-4.

Kaline went hitless in four official times at bat in the 1st game although he drove in one run with a sacrifice fly. But in the nightcap he twice broke up Detroit rallies by hitting into double plays. This is a rarity for him because he's a fast man. But he was nipped in the 1st inning, and again in the 9th when one of his good extra-base blows would have tied the score.

To top it off he was hit by a batted ball after walking in the 7th inning. The score was tied when that happened and the Orioles went on to win as Jim Dyck singled home Cal Abrams with the deciding run in the last of the 8th.

Dyck, just up from Indianapolis, had four hits in seven times up during the double bill and stretched his hitting streak to 12 games.

Kaline had two singles in the 2nd game. He had a home run in the doubleheader the night before when his fielding lapse in the 9th—he lost a fly ball in the lights—let Baltimore tie the score and sent the 1st game into extra innings before the Tigers pulled it out.

Tigers beat their old teammate, Ted Gray, in the 1st game last night. Harvey Kuenn had a double and a triple, Jack Phillips doubled, and Ray Boone and Harry Malmberg tripled.

Boone reinjured his leg in running out his hit and had to be removed. He'll be out of the lineup for several days.

His absence didn't look serious in the 2nd game, especially when the Tigers ran up their 7-1 margin with the help of a three-run homer by Reno Bertoia, subbing in the infield for Boone.

Then the Detroit pitching collapsed. The Orioles jumped on Leo Cristante and Paul Foytack for three runs in the 5th and 6th. Buck Harris dug into his starters and came up with Billy Hoeft to start the 7th inning.

Baltimore greeted him like a long lost cousin. Cal Abrams singled, Fred Marsh doubled and Dyck singled a run home. Dave Philley walked, loading the bases again, before Hoeft settled down and struck out two men and retired Chuch Diering with the help of a fine running catch by Bill Tuttle. But it was too late.

Detroit couldn't score in either the 8th or 9th and lost a chance to move within 5½ games of 1st place.

Poor at Bat, Afield

Home Anything but Sweet for Tigers' Kaline; He Has Bad Time in Baltimore

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Al Kaline couldn't be blamed today if at the age of 20 he was a bit cynical about the saying "there's no place like home."

The Detroit Tiger outfielder has had a miserable time the past two nights against the Baltimore Orioles and people in the town where he grew up are hooting at him.

He came home touted as a hitter apt to be the first to take the triple crown of batting—average, home runs and runs batted in—since Ted Williams in 1947.

* * *

The gangling youngster obviously was put out and pressing all the harder as things went wrong.

Kaline came to town Tuesday night leading the league with a batting average of .365, home runs with 22 and one behind in runs batted in with 75.

The fourth time up he got a homer, but in the next 13 official times at bat he drew a blank. He poked two straight singles in the second game of last night's doubleheader. Still he is off 10 points to .355 in the four games since his arrival.

* * *

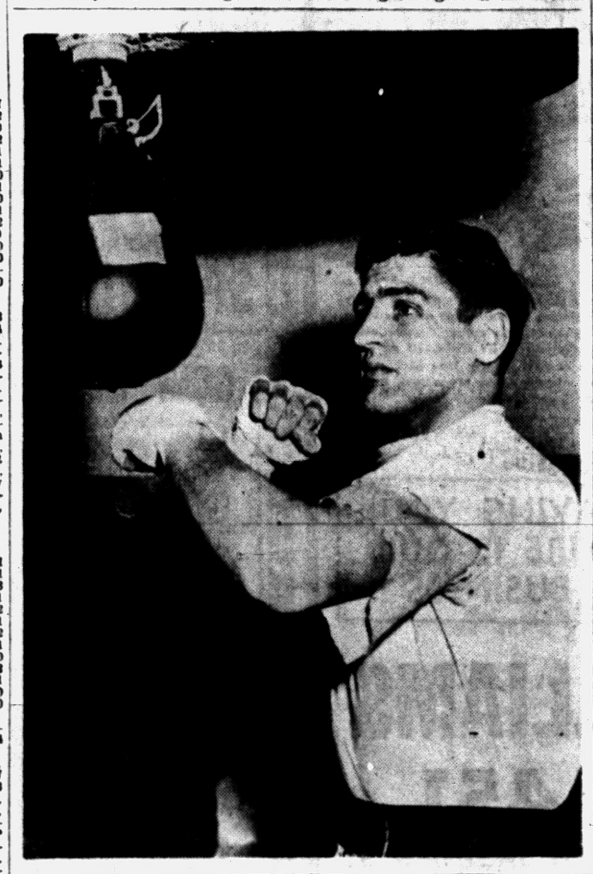

Tuesday night he lost a ball in the lights that should have been the last out in a Detroit victory. Instead it dropped for a triple enabling Baltimore to tie the score and carry on for three more innings before losing.

The usually undemonstrative and reticent Kaline gave the fans back a sign of derision when they "rode" him upon returning to the dugout.

In last night's second game, Chuck Diering sliced a fly down the right-field line. Kaline reached it, but couldn't hold it and it went for a double that led to three runs and a 7-7 tie. Baltimore won in the next inning, 8-7.

The Tigers had an incipient rally going in the seventh when Bill Tuttle singled and Kaline walked. Earl Torgeson hit a grounder between first and second and Kaline ran right into it to be called out and the Tigers were held scoreless.

In the ninth, Tuttle again opened by reaching first on an error. Kaline, with a last chance of atonement, hit into a double play.

Unsung Quartet Sparks Bosox

BOSTON (AP)—Jim Piersall, Boston's "other outfielder," and the left side of the infield are the unsung men of the Red Sox push to within three games of the American League lead.

* * *

The names in the headlines are those of left fielder Ted Williams, who leads the team in batting with a .340 while playing in 43 of the 98 games, right fielder Jackie Jensen, with 76 runs batted in, and first baseman Norm Zauchin with 20 home runs.

But it's taken timely singles to enable the Sox to win 37 of their last 48 games, too. And the quartet of Piersall, second baseman Billy Goodman, shortstop Billy Klaus and third sacker Grady Hatton have had 'em when they were needed.

* * *

Piersall got the hits that beat Cleveland's third place Indians (two games behind New York) twice in as many days. With the score tied 1-1 Tuesday night, Piersall showed his speed by beating out a high hopper that scored what proved to be the winning run in a 5-1 triumph.

Yesterday his three-run homer put the Sox ahead 3-2 and they went on to a 6-2 victory.

Klaus, the scrappy little guy from Spring Grove, Ill., isn't exactly unknown. His fighting spirit has been acknowledged as uplifting to the club and his .291 batting average puts him among the league leaders.

* * *

It took injuries to Milt Bolling and Eddie Joost at the start of this season to give Klaus his chance after the Red Sox purchased him from the American Assn.

His fielding has been sparkling—and his fancy glove work has everybody hustling. Klaus is making plays on balls that would have been hits against other Sox shortstops in recent years.

Hatton, another National League castoff, is doing some outstanding fielding himself. Grady is death to curving line drives and slow rollers in his territory. He's known as a clutch man with a bat. Tuesday night his single tied the score 1-1. He scored two runs after singling twice yesterday.

Goodman, the long-time Red Sox handyman with a .310 lifetime average, started off the season with miseries at the plate. But Manager Mike Higgins has kept him at second and he's coming into his own.

In their last 48 games since the first game of a doubleheader at Kansas City June 5, the Red Sox have come from 14½ games off the pace to three behind.

Dropo Corrects Bad Habits and Starts Hitting

Walt Drops 'Fenway Park' Swing, Lends a Boost to Chisox

NEW YORK (AP)—Big Walt Dropo once more is a big man with the bat and the reason is he has rid himself of bad habits at the plate.

Since the All-Star game July 12, the 6-5, 220-pound Chicago White Sox first baseman has looked more like the Dropo of 1950 when he hit .322, tied for the American League's runs-batted-in title with 144 and hit 34 homers as a member of the Boston Red Sox.

"Yes, Walt sure is playing ball for us these days," said Manager Marty Marion today as the White Sox went into the third game of the Yankee series trailing the league leaders by only one game.

* * *

"I would say Walt is hitting better because he has corrected bad batting habits," the lanky manager continued. "No longer does he take a long lazy swing. Its sharp with a purpose. He is getting more power now that he is hitting more off the front foot. And he finally got rid of that Fenway Park swing."

"It took me a long time but I am through with it," said Walt.

The records show the important part Dropo has played in the White Sox drive since the All-Star game. In a 16-game span he lifted his batting average from .266 to .291 with 22 hits in 59 times at bat. He drove in three runs in the Sox's 7-4 victory yesterday to boost his RBI total since July 12 to 17.

His greatest hitting streak was six in 11 times at bat during the recent Yankee series in Chicago in which the Sox took two out of three.

For the season his record now stands at 53 RBIs compared to 44 for all of last year, when he batted .281. He has a total of 13 homers. Last year he hit only four.

Chuck Finally Wins a Feature

Partello on Top at Speedway, Wednesday—1st Time in '55

Chuck Partello always has run well among the leaders at the Pontiac Speedway but his 1st feature event win of this season was a long time coming.

The Rochester hardtop pilot finally came through Wednesday night at the M59 track as he beat Benny Howell to the finish line in 8 minutes, 38.46 seconds in the 25-lap headliner.

Bill Kourt was 3rd. Rain made the track quite slick and a number of minor crack-ups resulted. Elmer Ferstle took the dash, Windiate Park's Ed Lang captured the pursuit and Bill Dillard won the semi-final.

Heat winners included Partello, Dillard, R. Lawrain, George Rhyndress and Jim Estes. Hardtops return to action Saturday night at 8:30 p.m. and the Canadian Dare-Devils auto thrill show is on tap Sunday night.

Nagel, Former Boxer, Legislator, Is Dead

DETROIT (AP)—Ernest G. Nagel, former prizefighter who became a state legislator, died yesterday in Dearborn Veterans Hospital. He was 62.

Nagel served eight years in the state house of representatives and two in the senate.

Harper Wins 2nd Straight as Mike's Trips Cleaners

Lloyd Harper hurled his 2nd straight victory as Mike's Used Cars dumped Drive-In Cleaners, 3-1, at Beaudette Park, to feature Wednesday night's play in the city softball leagues.

Harper tossed a 1-hit shutout at P & O Tuesday, then pitched a steady 3-hit chore last night to lead Mike's to its upset win in the National League. It was the Cleaners' 2nd successive loss, imperiling their runner-up status.

Drive-In scored 1st in the 4th inning off Bob Volk's double and a fielder's choice. But Harper was immovable after that and Mike's tallied twice in the 5th and once in the 7th, two singles by Don Painter and Harper's double providing the heavy artillery.

Franklin Products pounded out 11 hits to trounce North Side Service, 14-6, at Beaudette. Cal Bidwell coasted along for Franklin, giving up nine hits. Winners totaled 11 runs in the 1st three innings, including a 7-run 3rd. Maurice Stack homered for North Side.

Alan Dennis twirled a 3-hitter as General Motors pinned a 4-2 setback on Bicmar at North Side Park. All scoring occurred in the 3rd, nine batters strolling to the plate in GMC's half of the inning. Jim Moore collected two safeties as GMC won its 13th game against six defeats.

Giles Realty continued to make a runaway of the girls' league race by crushing GMC, 13-1, at North Side. Bernice Dennis pitched 3-hit ball and Effie Seay slammed a home run to pace the Realty girls to their 11th victory in 12 games.

High Scoring Marks Action for Knothole League Teams

KNOTHOLE LEAGUE
Senators 11, Red Sox 10.
Wing Lake 16, Lytell-Colegrove 1.
Dick & Wes 23, Orioles 2.

Pontiac's Knothole Leaguers were their usual high-scoring selves Wednesday as 4 games were played in the city midget loop. A Class E game in the afternoon was rained out.

Least runs scored in any of the 4 contests played was 17.

Dick & Wes thrashed the Orioles, 23-2, with Ron Joseph hurling a 5-inning no-hitter. Winners made 9 hits and the Birds committed 15 errors. Walks led the 2 runs given up by Joseph, who struck out 12.

Carl Romanelli and Joseph each had 3 hits for Dick & Wes.

The Senators and Red Sox had a real thriller, with the Nats winning, 11-10, in 10 innings. Bill Crawford tripled in a run to make the score 7-7 and keep the Senators alive in the last of the 7th.

Each team came up with 2 runs in the 8, with Dick Perez homering for the Senators. The 9th was scoreless, but the Red Sox pushed over another run in the top of the 10th on Toby Scruggs' single.

Lowry Paces Victory for Union Lake Nine

Jack Lowry collected a homer and 2 singles to pace Union Lake to a 19-10 victory over Maceday Gardens in a Waterford Township Little League softball game Wednesday night.

In Junior League play, Drayton Drug whipped Keego Hardware, 14-4, for its 7th straight win. Drug scored 8 runs in the top of the 7th to wrap up the verdict.

Trabert, Moylan Face Easy Foes in Net Tourney

Tony Opposes Cliff Mayne, Eddie Tackles John Lesch

SOUTHAMPTON, N.Y. (AP) — Davis Cup ace Tony Trabert and defending champion Eddie Moylan faced what appeared to be easy opposition in the Meadow Club Tennis tournament today.

Trabert, who opened his tourney play with a 6-2, 6-0 victory over Jack Geller of New York Wednesday, took on Cliff Mayne, 20-year-old California player. And Moylan, seeded second behind Trabert, matched strokes with John Lesch, the nation's 30th ranked player from Los Angeles.

* * *

Moylan, who defeated Trabert in the semifinals last year, advanced into the third round Wednesday at the expense of Dan Walraven of Oklahoma City, winning 6-1, 6-2.

* * *

Kurt Nielsen of Denmark, the No. 1 foreign seed, also kept pace with the top rated U.S. stars by eliminating Bill Cullen of Southport, Conn., 6-2, 8-6.

Seven Rookies Cut Off Lions' Training Squad

Released on waivers were center Bill Swanson of John Carroll; halfback Herman Jones of Los Angeles City College; halfback Steve Johnson of Rutgers; end Bob Hartman of Oregon State; halfback Jack Robertson of Los Angeles Junior College; guard Harry Lovell of South Carolina; and Ellis Horton, a Eureka (Ill.) college halfback.

Coach Buddy Parker said fullback George Galuska of Wyoming and tackle Don Henderson of Utah failed to report for rookie training. They were put on the reserve list, binding them to the Lions.

None of Linscott-Andrews Ring Card to Be Televised

The 10-round outdoor scrap between Al Andrews, Superior, Wis., middleweight, and Gene Linscott of Pontiac, will be seen only by those who attend the affair at Wisner Stadium on Thursday night, Aug. 4, sponsors of the show have announced.

The Irag Grotto committee headed by Leland Hunt, said the fight will not be televised, nor will any of the bouts on the card.

The Committee issued the statement after receiving many queries from outstate fans who are accustomed to watching the Motor City Fights on television.

The Linscott - Andrews card, first professional fight show in Pontiac in 15 years, is being staged by the Grotto in cooperation with the Motor City Fights.

The sponsoring group explained that no TV time is available for the scrap. It said there will be 8,000 seats available in Wisner Stadium, one of the most beautiful high school stadia in the state.

Andrews is a great favorite of Michigan fans who watched him climb to success from a losing start at Motor City Areina in Detroit to his winning performance in Saginaw with Chuck Davey which attracted 11,000 several years ago.

Linscott, former Michigan AAU welterweight champion (1949) has a record of 15 victories in 16 pro starts compared with Andrews' record of 40 wins, 11 losses and two draws.

Braves' Conley Out of Action Indefinitely

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Manager Charlie Grimm of the Milwaukee Braves learned Wednesday that big Gene Conley, his winningest pitcher with a record of 11-7, would be sidelined indefinitely depending on how his ailing shoulder responds to treatment.

X-rays taken Wednesday proved negative, but Conley will undergo X-ray therapy treatments. Grimm said he hopes to have Conley ready for the Brooklyn series starting Aug. 1.

Citation's Running Mate, Well Liked as Sire, Is Bought by Boussac

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)— Calumet Farm has sold Coaltown, stakes winner of 23 races and $415,675 and well liked as a sire, to Marcel Boussac of Paris, France, for an undisclosed price.

The sale was made by overseas telephone Wednesday, final day of the Keeneland summer sales which saw three yearling colts by Coaltown bring a total of $112,000.

The 10-year-old son of Bull Lea-Easy Lass will be flown to France about the first week in August.

Calumet sent 1941 Triple Crown winner Whirlaway to Boussac on a 3-year lease in July, 1950. In 1952, Boussac bought the sire outright but he died from ruptured nerves at 15 on April 7, 1953.

Coaltown was second to his great stablemate, Citation, in the 1948 Kentucky Derby. He also set a world's record for the mile, carrying 130 pounds the distance in 1:34, and equalled world marks for 1⅛ and 1¼ miles.

Henry, Dodson Meet in Junior Net Test

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP)—National Interscholastic Tennis champ Crawford Henry of Atlanta met Los Dodson of Kalamazoo today in the fourth round of the National Junior and Boys Tennis Tournament.

The unranked Dodson advanced against Henry, seeded No. 3, by upsetting 11th-seeded John Cranston of San Marino, Calif., yesterday 6-3, 4-6, 7-5.

Golf Tournament Set

ALLEGAN (AP) — The Women's Western Michigan Golfing Assn. will play its nine-hole tournament Aug. 1-4 at Ot-Wel-Egan Country Club. Qualifying rounds will be played next Monday. The event drew 57 entries last year at Greenville.

Out-Speeds Speiser

Pastrano Becomes Dad, Then Wins Bout on TV

CHICAGO (AP) — Having been informed just before ring time that he had become the father of a bouncing baby boy, Willie Pastrano was in a dancing mood Wednesday night at Chicago Stadium.

He showed off his nimble footwork, plus one of the best left jabs in the light-heavyweight ranks since Pittsburgh Billy Conn, to carve out a unanimous 10-round decision over Chuck Spieser.

* * *

Referee Frank Gilmer scored the nationally televised fight 98-94 for the 19-year-old New Orleans boxer who now lives in Miami Beach, Fla. Judge Ed Heintz called it 95-91 and Judge John Bray 97-88.

Spieser, 26, of Detroit, proved a rugged, if not slow, opponent, for the springy Pastrano and did well considering he has had only five pro scraps since being discharged from the Army last April.

* * *

Spieser was regarded a fine prospect after a great collegiate record at Michigan State, during which he was captain of the 1952 U. S. boxing team.

He still has power and should do better if the International Boxing Club wishes to match him with someone he can catch.

* * *

Pastrano, who gained light-heavy recognition with a recent victory over Joey Maxim, now has 32 victories, 4 losses and 4 draws in four years of campaigning as a pro.

He outweighed Spieser 175½ to 171½.

Officials Probe Saratoga Fires

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP) —Chief of Police Robert Flanagan hurried home today from a conference in Buffalo to take charge of an investigation of two fires that destroyed three barns and damaged another at the historic Saratoga race track. Evidence of arson was sought.

No horses were harmed in either fire. The first, Tuesday night, destroyed a barn at a training track across the street from the main track. The second yesterday burned down two barns and damaged another near the main track.

Mayor Addison Mallery said at yesterday's fire, "we have a firebug in our midst." Fire Chief George KirkPatrick agreed.

Saratoga opens its 90th season Monday. Hundreds of thoroughbred horses are being shipped here. Much of the stable space hit by yesterday's fire was unoccupied. A caterer chopped out the back of one barn so that grooms could lead out 21 horses, well known. Barns 58 and 59 were destroyed.

Bolt Defends Akron Golf Title

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Texas pro Tommy Bolt, who shot a 23 under par to win last year, begins a 4-day defense of his title in the $15,000 Rubber City Open golf tournament today.

Bolt tested the Firestone Country Club course yesterday and said it "played much tougher than it did last year."

The layout has been changed and lengthened some to nearly 6,700 yards. It has a par of 72, and a poll of some 30 pros who tee off today showed they figure the winner will shoot about 271, or 17 under par for the 72 holes of medal play.

After 18 holes today and another 18 tomorrow, the field will be cut to the low 60 pros and 10 low amateurs who will go on through 18 holes Saturday and the final 18 on Sunday.

On the strength of his victory last year, Bolt has been installed as the man to beat, but he is assured tough competition.

* * *

Top money winner entered is Gene Littler of Palm Springs, Calif. who has more than $15,000 in total winnings on the pro circuit this year.

Doug Ford, the Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., pro who won the National PGA tournament in Detroit Tuesday will have a big following when he tees off this morning.

"I'm not nearly as tired as I thought I'd be after the Detroit test," the 32-year-old Ford said. He checked in late yesterday and passed up a practice round.

* * *

Jack Burke Jr. of Kiamesha Lake and Bo Wininger of Oklahoma City are in a threesome with Bolt, and Al Besselink of Grossinger, N.Y. and Wally Ulrich of Rochester, Minn., will make the rounds with Ford.

Half of the starting field is made up of Ohioans. An elimination earlier this week reduced the number of amateurs and non-association pros to 39 for today's pairings.

'A' Game Delayed

Wednesday night's scheduled Class A City League baseball game at Wisner Field between Elks 723 and the L. C. Anderson Jets was postponed because of rain. Tonight's loop action at Wisner sends Don Nicholie Real Estate against GMC. Game time is 5:30 p.m.

Ted Kluszewski's 1st 23 home runs this season were hit off 23 different pitchers.

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — The Cleveland Browns have cut three more players from their original 57-man roster, leaving a total of 49.

Latest to go were Pete Caristo, halfback candidate from Clarion Teachers College, Pa., who accepted a high school coaching job near his home in Moon Run, Pa.; Pat Canamella, linebacker from Southern California; and Jim Greer, end from Elizabeth City (N.C.) State Teachers.

Yearling Buyers Spend Nearly 4 Million Dollars

With a top price of $42,000, the final session averaged $9,571 on 89 head. S. M. Look, agent for an unnamed buyer, bid $42,000 on an imported chestnut colt. The colt by English derby winner Arctic Prince out of Bray Melody was consigned by Crown Crest Farm.

Valley View Farm, Barrington, Ill., paid $36,000 for a brown colt by Noor-Lady Request. All told, Valley View bought 28 yearlings for a total of $318,000.

* * *

The top price of the sales went for a brown colt by Nasrullah-In Bloom, consigned by Dr. Eslie Asbury's Forest Retreat Farm. Forrest H. Lindsay, Tulsa, Okla., paid $80,000 for the colt, only $6,000 under the record for a yearling at an American auction set at last summer's sales by another son of Nasrullah, sire of Noor and Nashua.

Annual Hall of Fame Ceremonies Held

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y. (AP)—Baseball's Hall of Fame opened its doors to Joe DiMaggio and five other immortals this week.

Ford Frick, commissioner of baseball, was the principal speaker at the ceremonies and unveiled the plaques to DiMaggio, Gabby Hartnett, Ted Lyons, Dazzy Vance, Frank (Home Run) Baker, and Ray Schalk in the national baseball Hall of Fame and museum.

The first four were elected last January by 10-year members of the Baseball Writers Assn. and the latter two were appointed by the Hall of Fame committee on veterans.

Jim Hegan's Son Is Victim of Polio

LYNN, Mass. (AP)—Patrick Hegan, 7, son of the Cleveland Indians' catcher, is being treated for non-paralytic polio at Lynn Hospital.

Dr. John Crowley, director of the polio clinic at the hospital, termed the boy's case non-paralytic last night. Earlier reports were uncertain as to the exact nature of the illness.

WEDNESDAY'S STARS

PITCHING — Harvey Haddix, Cardinals, pitched a three-hitter to defeat the Pirates 6-1, for his third straight victory, and his sixth in his last seven games.

HITTING — Walt Dropo, White Sox, slammed three consecutive hits and batted in three runs to lead Chicago to 7-4 victory over Yankees.

Crocker Leads Lady Pros Back Into Michigan

Winner of Wolverine Open Here Tops Field at Battle Creek

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (AP) — Fay Crocker of Montevideo, Uruguay, who first hit the golf tournament jackpot in Michigan earlier this season, comes back to Wolverine State competition tomorow as the U.S. Open champion.

* * *

Miss Crocker had been campaigning in the United States for a year without a tournament triumph until the women golfers hit Detroit in May. She walked off with the top money in that one, picked up one more after that and then took the Open championship at Wichita, Kan.

Now she and most of the other top women professionals are back for the $5,000 Battle Creek Open over the 6,520-yard Battle Creek Country Club. The course plays to a women's par of 38-37—75.

* * *

Nineteen professionals are expected in a field of about 35 players. Betty Jameson and Mary Lena Faulk, winners of the Hot Springs, Va., best ball tournament last week, are here along with Betty Hicks, Beverly Hanson, Jackie Pung and a number of others.

* * *

The tournament is a 54-hole medal play affair with 18-hole rounds tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday. All proceeds are going to the National Cancer Fund with the purse money donated by Wiliam B. MacDonald, a member of the Battle Creek Club and a co-sponsor of the Los Angeles Open tournament.

Billford Returned, Newsboy Rewarded

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A fishing tackle outfit and other sports gear was a newspaperboy's reward for returning a lost wallet containing $207 cash and $55,457 in promissory notes. The boy is Joseph Borrello, 13, of Grand Rapids. The man, Robert Erath, a South Bend, Ind., sporting goods store owner, lost the wallet when he changed places with a driving companion on a fishing trip to Michigan.

Closest Batting Race

Wiffi Reaches Western Quarter-Finals

CHICAGO (AP)—A battle of golf prodigies, a renewal of a southern feud, and a showdown between two meet-scarred warriors highlight today's quarter-final round of the 55th Women's Western Amateur tourney.

First things first, the spotlight really belongs on the match between torrid-shooting Carol Diringer of Tiffin, Ohio, and Mrs. Mae Murray Jones of Southern Pines, N.C., the "oldster" pair.

Co-medalist Miss Diringer, who yesterday whacked three strokes off men's par in a 14-hole, second-round triumph, is seeking her first Western Amateur title in 10 tries.

Mrs. Jones, a former eastern player, was 1950 Western Amateur runner-up and in 1953 and 1954 was a meet semifinalist. Miss Diringer, 29, as is Mrs. Jones, was Western Amateur runner-up in 1948, and reached the meet quarterfinals in 1946.

The "Kid" skirmish is between the other co-medalist, 18-year-old Wiffi Smith of St. Clair, Mich., and 17-year-old Anne Quast of Everett, Wash. Miss Smith, as a 15-year-old, won the Mexican Open. Miss Quast, as a 14-year-old, was the youngest player ever to qualify for the National Amateur.

The Dixie scrap is between Mrs. Scott Probasco of Chattanooga, Tenn., 1950 Collegiate champion and Betty Rowland, and Mary Patton Janssen of Charlottesville, Va.

Mrs. Probasco and Miss Janssen met in the 1955 finals of the Southern Amateur won by Mrs. Probasco.

The day's fourth match is between Curtis Cupper Pat Lesser of Seattle, Wash., and the meet's "dark horse", 20-year-old Vernice Pico of Galesburg, Ill., a junior at Florida Southern.

With the thermometer crowding 100 yesterday, the willowy Carol tore over the first nine in 34 en route to a 5 and 4 victory over Charlene Cross, Winchester, Ky., the Kentucky State champion.

Mrs. Probasco won the only overtime match yesterday, rallying to conquer Ruth Jessen of Kenmore, Wash., 1-up on the 19th. Miss Pico won on the 18th green, 1-up over favored Virginia Dennehy of Lake Forest, Ill.

Miss Janssen's second-round victim, 3 and 1, was Chicago's Mrs. Dwight Anneaux, who eliminated the 1954 runner-up, Pat Gammon of St. Paul.

Miss Smith knocked out Barbara McIntire, Toledo, Ohio, 4 and 3, while Miss Quast stopped Eileen Stulb, Augusta, Ga., 5 and 4. Miss Lesser ousted Marge Burns, Greensboro, N.C., 5 and 3, and Mrs. Jones whipped Nan Berry, Quincy, Ill., 2 and 1.

Drug Wins 12th Victory at Expense of Dairymen

Drayton Drug ground out 7 runs in the 1st 3 innings and whipped Richardson's Dairy, 8-1, for its 12th victory in 15 games in the Waterford Softball League Wednesday night.

Dairy, which absorbed its 14th loss in 15 starts, could solve 3 Drug hurlers for only 3 hits. All came off starter Bill Goulet, who also yielded the lone run.

He worked 4 innings. Arlo Flesher and Gary Boe finished up. Each pitcher fanned one and walked one.

Drug picked up 2 runs in the 1st inning on a walk, Gerald Geror's single, a sacrifice, an error and an infield out. Geror opened a 5-run blast in the 3rd with a triple and scored on a wild pitch.

Then a walk, Jerry Hesse's double and a dropped 3rd strike brought home another. Three more tallies on a single by Bob Fell, Bob Turnbull's double and Rick Jones' single. A walk and Lloyd Knox's triple wound up the scoring in the 4th.

Patience Prevails, Angler Lands Bass

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Homer C. Babcock was fishing in Holladay Lake near a swimming pier. A big bass wrapped his line around a small piece of brush. Babcock called to L. D. Ould, a lifeguard, but Ould couldn't help because of the women and children in the water. When the swimmers departed, Ould broke off the branch. Babcock played the tired fish and landed it — eight pounds, two ounces.

Babe Pinelli, with 21 years, is the veteran umpire of the National League.

Bowling Score Down?

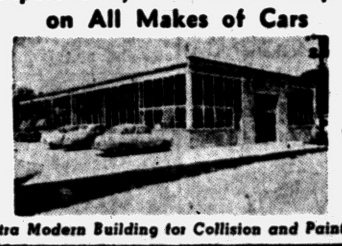

CHICAGO (AP) — If you're having trouble bowling your average blame it on the alleys. William M. Stuart, president of a Chicago paint company, suggests the use of middle value colors — not too bright, not too dark — on bowling alleys. He also believes alley lights should be shaded and that shining surfaces should be dimmed.

Ralph Kiner's best home run output was 54 in 1949.

Scoring Famine Again!

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — Alabama's football team will meet on successive Saturdays two rivals with whom it played scoreless ties in 1954. The Crimson Tide meets Georgia at home on Oct. 29 and travels to Mobile, Ala., on Nov. 5 to play Tulane.

Ben Knows His Golfers

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP) — Ben Hogan proved he knew his "up and coming players" when he invited Jack Fleck and Dow Finsterwald to the Colonial Invitational tournament. Fleck beat Hogan in a playoff for the U. S. Open title and two weeks later Finsterwald won the British Columbia Open.

Sam Snead's Golf Clinic

close to the pin for not more than two putts. Now, if the player will be sure that his left arm is kept straight, and is sure to be more conscious of his left arm and left wrist action, he is on his way to a fairly sure, crisp, accurate shot.

Keep the left arm stretched out —a spoke-of-a-wheel. And on these short shots, cock the wrists earlier than you would in a full swing. Then, on the downswing, sort of pull the club through the ball with the left arm, putting the hands and wrists in as the ball is hit. The club's loft will lift the ball up giving you good flight and placement.

Catches No-Hit Games

GREENVILLE, S. C. (AP) — Bill Phillips of the Greenville Spinners in the Class B Tri-State League caught the third no-hit game of his career when Freddie Rodriquez blanked Rock Hill.

Previously, Phillips has been behind the plate when battery mates in the Tri-State and old Eastern Carolina semipro league hurled no hitters.

Invitational Test Gets Under Way at Birmingham

Best - Ball Tournament Has Field of 112 Teams; Qualify Today

Art Olfs and Wally Smith, the fine pair-shooters who have shown their heels to the field in the last three invitational tournaments at Birmingham Country Club today scanned the field of 111 other teams, as they prepared for a 4th defense o f the crown.

The event, one of the top best-ball trials in the section, got under way this morning with the qualifying runs for the big field. Entries include many of the area's finest players.

Among them, besides the defending champions, is the perennial contender in many district tests, Dick Whiting, who this year has teamed with a new partner, Rollie Weyand of the host club. Dick, with Fred Henkel, recently won the Black River (Port Huron) Country Club Invitational tourney.

Olfs and Smith beat Ben Smith, former state titlist, and Bud Gould of Detroit Golf Club, 2 and 1 last year. They won it first in 1951, defended it in 1952, and then the National PGA came in and the tourney was held up in 1953. They came back in 1954 to win it for the 3rd time.

Today's rounds are over 18 holes, at medal play, the top 16 teams qualifying for tomorrow's match play, also at 18 holes. Field will be cut in half each day, until Sunday when the semifinals and finals take place, semis in the morning and the title round in the afternoon. Each round is over the 18-hole distance.

Adios Harry Perils Mark

'Wonder Horse' Meets 8 Others in $35,000 Nassau Pace

WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP)—The wonder horse, Adios Harry, will tackle eight opponents tonight in the $35,000 Nassau Pace at Roosevelt Raceway and don't be surprised if another world record is shattered.

The 4-year-old colt owned by J. Howard Lyons of Greenwood, Del., must start from the No. 7 outside post, but the early odds have him 6-5 to cop the ninth edition of the Nassau.

Heading the opposition is Adios Boy, another 4-year-old son of Adios, owned by the estate of J. S. Turner, Sr., Nassawadox, Va. Adios Boy won the $25,000 National Pacing Derby at Roosevelt last month when Adios Harry broke stride after half a mile.

Bat which Mickey Mantle used to hit the 1st home run into the center field bleachers of the Yankee Stadium is now on display in teammate Eddie Robinson's restaurant in Baltimore.

Only 6½ Games Separate 5 AL Clubs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The heat was on in more ways than one today with only 6½ games separating the first place New York Yankees and fifth place Detroit Tigers in the closest American League pennant scramble in 16 years.

Not since 1940 when Detroit won the flag two days before the season ended has there been such a knock 'em down, drag out tea party.

* * *

To compress the cozy situation, the Chicago White Sox defeated the New York Yankees yesterday 7-4, and the Boston Red Sox downed the Cleveland Indians 6-2. Detroit missed a big chance to gain ground, losing the second game of a doubleheader to Baltimore 8-7, after winning the opener 8-4.

This is the situation today:

	Won	Lost	Pct.	Behind
New York	60	38	.612	—
Chicago	58	38	.604	1
Cleveland	58	40	.592	2
Boston	57	41	.582	3
Detroit	53	44	.546	6½

These are the same five clubs who fought it out for the 1940 pennant, when the season closed with Cleveland a game behind Detroit, and New York two games back. Boston ran fifth that year, eight games out.

Kansas City grabbed a double win over the Washington Senators 6-4 and 4-1, the opener going 11 innings.

* * *

In the National League, the Cincinnati Redlegs ganged up on Brooklyn in the 10th inning for a 4-3 victory, while the Milwaukee Braves handed Robin Roberts his first defeat since June 26. The Braves' 2-1 victory left them in second place, 12½ games behind Brooklyn. The Chicago Cubs flattened the New York Giants twice, 4-2 and 9-8, while St. Louis downed Pittsburgh 6-1.

Walter Dropo was the hot-shot hitter for the White Sox, who evened their series with the Yankees at one each. Dropo had three hits and drove in three runs as Chicago drove Eddie Lopat from the mound in the second.

Ex-Yankee Harry Byrd held New York to three hits through seven innings, then was driven to the showers when the Yanks got three runs on four hits. Dixie Howell came on to preserve Byrd's sixth victory.

* * *

Boston made it two straight over Cleveland when Jimmy Piersall slammed a homer and single to drive in four runs.

Gus Zernial's three-run homer for Kansas City was the big blow in the first game, but Washington's Tom Umphlett sent it into extra innings with a two-run homer in the ninth. The A's Bill Harrington, third of four pitchers, gained his first big league victory in the second tilt.

Cincinnati loaded the bases in the 10th inning, then rookie Milt Smith singled off loser Clem Labine to bring in the winning run. Don Hoak and Duke Snider homered for Brooklyn, the Duke's two-run poke being his 35th of the year.

* * *

Wally Moon blasted a grand-slam homer while Harvey Haddix tossed a three-hitter for St. Louis to end a five-game Pittsburgh winning streak.

The Chicago Cubs who had won only once in their last 15 games poured it on the Giants. They scored four runs in the first three innings of the opener and coasted home as Paul Minner gained his eighth victory with help from relief pitcher Bill Tremel.

Bill Summers is in his 23rd season as an umpire in the American league.

Minnesota is said to have 11,002 lakes in addition to rivers and streams.

Minor Leaguer Arrested for Resisting Ump

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP)—Calvin Hogue, 26, a Williamsport pitcher was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct Thursday after he refused to obey an Eastern League umpire's order to leave the park.

Umpire Henry McGowan ejected Hogue, a righthander, in the third inning on the ground that he had disputed calls at home plate. Police said Hogue used abusive language to fans and resisted officers who sought to escort him to the showers at McGowan's request.

Former Champ Regains 'Barnyard Golf' Title

MURRAY, Utah (AP)—Mechanical Ted Allen, Boulder, Colo., won the world horseshoe tournament last night, breezing through the entire 6-day event without defeat.

Allen regained the title he held from 1933 to 1941 by winning three straight in the playoffs. He shot his way through the previous 35-game round-robin championship flight without a loss.

Minoso Pulling Out of Bad Batting Slump

NEW YORK (AP)—After a short span of frustration, Minnie Minoso of the Chicago White Sox is showing signs of shaking the effects of his beaning at the hands of the Yankees May 18.

Since then however, he has lifted his average to .262, hitting safely 45 times in 152 attempts.

Economy Used Car Market Is Right Place for Good Deal

In Pontiac at 22 Auburn Ave. there is the Economy Used Car Market. This is one of the oldest used car firms in this section of Michigan, and it has been able to continue for more than 15 years because it has always given their patrons a fair deal in every way.

Right now you can see as many as 75 cars on the lot, late models that are sold on an exchange basis. This means that if you buy a car and drive it awhile and are not satisfied you can take it back and get another with full credit on what you paid for the previous one. Even then if you are not satisfied you can continue to exchange.

Another outstanding feature of the Economy Used Car Market is the deferred payments during a period of illness or unemployment. You won't have to make payments during a period of distress if you buy at Economy.

It is pretty hard to say what bargains there at the Economy when you can pick from any one of 75, but you can rest assured that there are some real car buys; cars that you will be proud to drive, that will give thousands of miles of fine transportation. So visit 22 Auburn Ave. or call FEderal 4-2131 and ask for a salesman to call on you for a demonstration.

9-Week-Old Girl Still Unclaimed at Babysitter's

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Barbara Jean Burkeheart, 9 weeks old, today was still awaiting her parents who left her with a Durham baby sitter nearly a month ago.

Mrs. W. H. Parrish said the infant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burkeheart of Jackson, left the girl with her on July 4, promising to return in a week.

Monday Mrs. Parrish received a letter from Mrs. Burkeheart. It said they would come for Barbara yesterday.

"I haven't heard from them anymore, so maybe something else has happened," Mrs. Parrish said last night.

Mrs. Parrish said of the baby, "She's just fine, and has a better color and has picked up and everything. She has black hair and black eyes and is sure sweet."

Gets Own Lighthouse

BOSTON (AP)—Now, Arthur E. Mari, 36, can go into lighthouse keeping. He was high bidder yesterday with an offer of $2,001 for Disc Head Light Station at Castine, Maine. His bid of $501 also was the highest for Nautilus Island in Castine Harbor. He explained he had "always wanted to own a lighthouse and an island so I could be close to the ocean when I retire." The government declared the lighthouse and island surplus.

Charge Indians in Custody Case

Two Seminole Chiefs Claim Motherless Tots Bound to Tribe

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) —Two Indian tribal chieftains who claim immunity from white man's law were scheduled to appear today in the Court of Crimes as defendants in a child custody case.

* * *

They are Jimmy Henry and Tommy Buster, members of the Miccosukee Seminole nation's governing council. They are accused of giving five Indian children, whose mother is dead, to the maternal grandmother.

Morton Silver, attorney for the two, said Henry and Buster would enter no plea but would argue that the court has no jurisdiction on grounds that the Seminole nation is a sovereign country.

* * *

The father of the children, Joe Billie, is a Seminole who has left the tribe and adopted white man's ways. He works here as a parking lot attendant and alligator wrestler.

He argued that he was entitled to the children and could give them the benefits of a comfortable home and formal schooling.

* * *

The Seminoles, however, maintain that the children are bound by tribal customs and they must "follow the clan of the mother."

Joe Billie obtained an arrest warrant for the grandmother, Lillian Stone Bowers, but sheriff's officers were unable to find her to serve it. She lives somewhere in the trackless everglades.

The Seminole council yesterday petitioned President Eisenhower for help. The council said the search for the grandmother and two arrests were "hostile acts of aggression."

Canaries Have Camels

Imported from Spanish West Africa, camels carry many burdens, including people, in the Canary Islands, says the National Geographic Society.

World's largest eagle is the wedge-tailed eagle, or eagle-hawk, which builds a nest often eight feet in diameter and almost as deep.

Margaret Sanger OK

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Mrs. Margaret Sanger, 71, one of the nation's leading advocates of birth control, leaves Cedars of Lebanon Hospital today after a two-day checkup. She was admitted earlier this week for what was reported to be a heart ailment. Doctors said yesterday, however, that she was not suffering from any ailment and was in good condition.

Tipsy Chickens Lead Officers to State Still

Police Sgt. Gene O'Grady said 200 chickens were staggering around.

Hollywood Headlines

Gobel Grabs Up Guffaws as He Makes First Film

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Progress report on George Gobel, movie star—

Lonesome George, the TV idol, is making a movie over Paramount way. It's a remake of "The Lady Eve," the 1941 laughgetter that starred Henry Fonda and Barbara Stanwyck. Only they're not going to call it that; they're looking for another title now (how about "The Real George"?).

* * *

George was doing a scene with Mitzi Gaynor, who plays the Stanwyck role, and looking real natty. The little feller had on a spotless tuxedo with white coat and his old pals of the National Barn Dance would never have recognized him.

It was George, all right. You could tell when he opened his mouth and those droll tones came out. He was doing a scene in which Mitzi swooned in his arms at the sight of his pet snake. George's gyrations to revive her had everyone on the set stifling snickers.

"That's the way it is all the time," said Mitzi afterwards. "David Niven and I have the darnedest time keeping straight faces when we're playing scenes with George.

"He's the funniest man—and so shy! Why, he's probably suffering the tortures of hell in that scene where he has to catch me and rip my dress."

* * *

Like Mitzi, George is in good hands. Directing him is Norman Taurog, who has handled most of the leading comics of the past 30 years. Lately he has specialized in Martin and Lewis.

"People have asked me how he compares to Martin and Lewis," said the roly-poly director. "My answer is that there is no comparison—there's two of them!

"George is going to surprise a lot of people as an actor. He's terrific. He has a quality that comes right off the screen at you."

* * *

Overseeing the film is Paul Jones, a rotund leprechaun who produced the first "Lady Eve." Also films with Red Skelton, Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, etc., including several "road" epics.

"This Gobel has a great quality in the rushes," Jones remarked. "He leaps right off the screen."

Yank Oaks in England

Historic Flooden Field Put on Sale in England

CONDSTRGAM, England (AP) — Flooden Field, scene of England's historic victory over Scotland in the days of Henry VIII, is up for sale.

Col. James Colingwood, whose family have owned it for centuries, said: "I am hard up so I want to sell the Field and the 1,000-acre estate around it."

The battle was fought in 1513. English archers and cannon commanded by the Earl of Surrey killed 10,000 Scot invaders, among them King James IV of Scotland and all his leading nobles.

Squirrels Go for Gams

WEST HAVEN, Conn, (AP)—Squirrels have been climbing limbs around here but not the kind usually found on trees. Dog Warden Frank Crego said four women have reported being bitten on the legs by squirrels.

Delores del Rio Visits Hollywood for Short Stay

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Mexican actress Dolores del Rio has returned to Hollywood for her first visit in 12 years, but she says she intends to make no movie here and will stay only a week or 10 days.

* * *

Once a top-flight actress in Hollywood, Miss Del Rio said it took her nine months to get an American visa but that the American Embassy in Mexico City continually assured her the delay was due only to "regular processing." She denied printed rumors that she had indicated Communist sympathies.

Science Finds New Comet Near Constellation Leo

WASHINGTON — The National Geographic Society announces the discovery of a new comet in the direction of the constellation Leo.

Too faint to be visible to the naked eye, the sky rover was first detected on a photographic plate exposed at Palomar Observatory, Calif., on March 22. The dot of light showing a diffuse tail was captured by the 48-inch Schmidt telescopic camera operated by the California Institute of Technology.

Discovery was made by astronomers Robert G. Harrington and George O. Abell who are working on the National Geographic Society-Palomar Observatory Sky Survey, a photographic map of the heavens.

The comet is of the 17th magnitude, able to be photographed by only the largest telescopes. The faintest stars seen by the unaided eye are of the 6th magnitude.

More than a thousand comets have been recorded, but four-fifths were too dim for the eye alone. Yet despite the minor role comets play in the drama of the skies, they comprise one of astronomy's most fascinating phenomena. They have been aptly described as "lawless" members of the solar system, and also as "the nearest thing to nothing that anything can be and still be something."

During its close approach it may produce an awesome spectacle. Halley's that skirted the sun in April, 1910, was one of the most discussed comets in history. A comet's nucleus is composed of small particles spread over sizable distances.

The most impressive portion of a comet is its tail, sometimes streaming 150,000,000 miles away from the sun. Whether the comet is advancing or retreating from the sun, its tail always points away from the solar disk.

Baltimore Gets Repute as 'Honkingest' City

BALTIMORE (AP)—Henry Barnes, Baltimore's traffic engineer, figures drivers in this city are the honkingest he's ever seen — or heard.

He estimates there are 250-million illegal horn toots in the city every year, most of them in the split second when traffic lights are changing.

He's Their King David

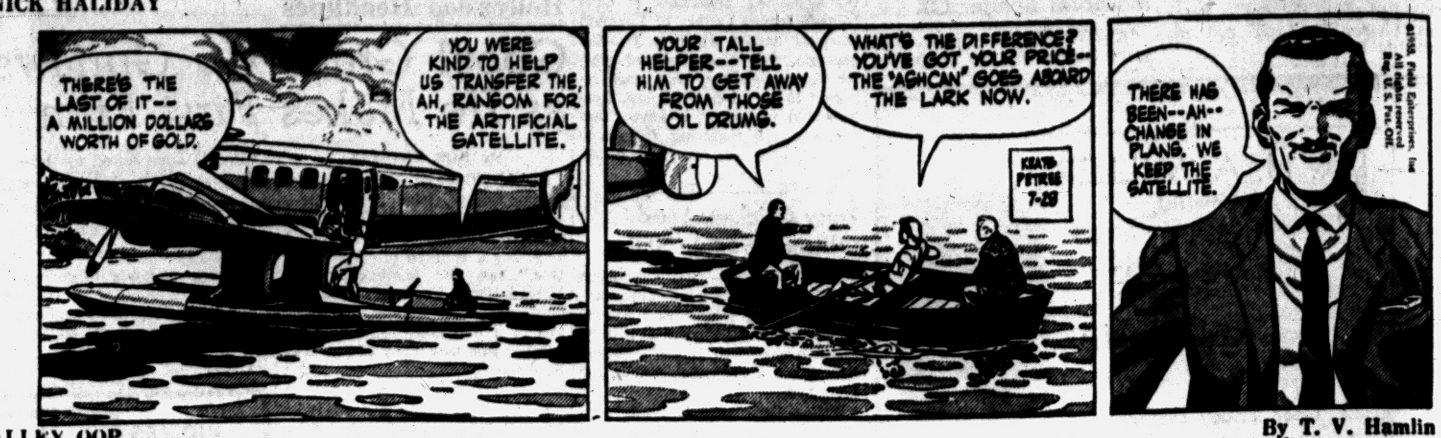

PATERSON, N.J. (AP) — Sunday School Teacher Ethel Gillespie told her Eastside Terrace Methodist Church pupils to draw pictures giving their impression of King David of Israel. Six of the youngsters turned in sketches with a coonskin capped David.

Charge 2 Men in AFL Swindle

Claim Labor Leader, and Insurance Broker Embezzled Funds

WASHINGTON (INS) — Senate investigators charged today that a New Jersey insurance broker and a Chicago Labor Leader "embezzled" more than a million dollars from the AFL Laundry Workers Welfare Fund.

* * *

The charge was contained in an interim report of a Senate Labor Subcommittee which earlier this year held extensive hearings on Union Welfare and Pension Fund racketeering.

Singled out by the subcommittee's report were Louis B. Saperstein, Newark insurance man, and Eugene C. James, the laundry Union's secretary-treasurer, who were accused of "diverting" welfare funds between 1950 and 1953.

Regarding Saperstein, the subcommittee said that he was paid commissions totaling $421,507 besides allegedly embezzling "approximately $900,000" in the premiums paid by the Union workers.

* * *

James, who refused to answer any subcommittee questions on grounds of possible self-incrimination, was cited for contempt of Congress last week by the Senate.

Market Mixed in Early Deals

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was mixed today in early dealings.

Steels mixed, motors mixed, rubbers lower, aircrafts mixed, radio-TVs higher, utilities steady, coppers lower, chemicals mixed, electrical equipment lower, railroads mixed, oils higher, airlines lower, and movie issues steady.

Bethlehem Steel, which reports earnings and dividend action at the close today, was off a small fraction. Jones & Laughlin steel was up fractionally on a good earnings report.

Yesterday's market was higher much of the time, but a spate of selling near the close cut prices back sufficiently to bring about a mixed close.

Grains Score Modest Gains

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains scored modest gains in routine dealings in the Board of Trade Thursday. Soybeans provided leadership for the upturn.

Trading was a little more active than in yesterday's very dull session, but still wasn't anything to cause much cheer among brokers. Initial margin requirements have been lowered on all cereals except oats.

Lack of rain and a government soybean crushings report, which was given a bullish interpretation, provided the main spur for the slight price advance.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was unchanged to ½ higher, September $1.99⅞; corn ⅜ to ¾ higher, September $1.35⅝; oats unchanged to ¼ higher, September 61½; rye ½ to ⅝ higher, September $1.50; soybeans ¼ to 1¾ higher, September $2.27½, and lard 10 to 25 cents a hundred pounds higher, September $10.90.

Peron Allows Foe on Radio

Head of Radical Party Blasts Government in Demand for Reforms

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—The head of the opposition Radical party blasted the government last night with a 10-point demand for reforms. It was the first opposition broadcast President Juan Peron has permitted since he took office in 1946.

* * *

Two other developments yesterday stemmed from Peron's announcement July 15 that he was quitting active leadership of his Peronista-controlled Chamber of Deputies set a meeting for Friday to hear charges by the Radicals against the federal police, and the Peronista party itself got a new president.

* * *

Radical leader Arturo Frondizi stated his party's case to the country over a 14-station network. He demanded "a rebirth of democracy" and outlined this program as essential for the political peace Peron has called for:

1. An end to the state of internal war under which the government has suspended constitutional guarantees for nearly four years.

2. Amnesty for all "who suffer persecution, imprisonment or exile for defending their ideals."

* * *

3. A stop to "embezzlement and bribery . . . to clear the atmosphere of the corruption which envelops the life of the country.

4. Full freedom of thought, religion, assembly, press, and organization.

5. Appointment of judges "without political affiliation."

6. A new electoral system assuring free campaigning.

7. An end to "political propaganda" in the schools.

8. Withdrawal from congressional consideration of a government contract to grand exclusive drilling rights over extensive areas of southern Argentina to the Standard Oil Co. of California.

9. Land reform.

* * *

10. An end to Argentina's "zigzagging" foreign policy.

The new Peronista party head is Alejandro Leloir, 49-year-old congressman, lawyer and wealthy ranch owner. He succeeds Rear Adm. Alberto Teissaire, vice president of the republic, who resigned Monday after Peron demanded that government officials abandon political activity. Leloir is a close friend of army officers now holding the highest military and government posts.

Poet Ogden Nash Joins the Fun, Competition on 'Masquerade Party'

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—The old-fashioned parlor guessing game is just as popular as in Grandma's day. The only difference is that it's played on television now with a slightly changed name — the panel quiz show.

* * *

This thought line is voiced by Ogden Nash, baseball fan, poet, successful innovator of the unbalanced rhyme — and for a couple of years now a regular panelist on "Masquerade Party" (ABC-TV, Wednesday evenings).

In case you'd forgotten, Nash is the fellow who wrote, "Candy is dandy but liquor is quicker" besides several thousand other lines of wonderful sense and nonsense. It's heartening to see television helping subsidize a poet—any poet—and Nash is having fun.

* * *

On "Masquerade Party" he and fellow panelists Ilka Chase, Bobby Sherwood and Dagmar, kept in line by moderator Peter Donald, have guessed—or failed to guess—the identities of disguised politicians, actresses, sportsmen and nearly every other category known to man.

"The idea is to have fun," says Nash. "When you guess a guest's identity you have a real feeling of personal triumph—a feeling you have to subdue or you'll become offensive. Sometimes you'll go for long periods when you're really hot, like a hitting streak in baseball, and then you'll have a slump. We all have those slumps and none of us knows what causes them."

* * *

The most embarrassing failure Nash recalls was when he couldn't guess the identity of his very close friend and fellow panelist Ilka Chase, who lives in the same Manhattan apartment house.

"She was supposed to be on the west coast at the time," mutters Nash. "Everybody knew she was back—except me. Even the elevator boys in the apartment house were in on the secret. Everybody but me."

New Club Is Slated to Open on Friday

The club will be open Friday and Saturdays from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. and on Sunday from 8 p.m. to midnight. Entertainment will be by the Mel-Aires and on Sunday afternoon a jazz concert will be the feature.

Al Lamano, the club's manager, announced that the club is "strictly a dance hall' and that alcoholic beverages will not be served.

State Notifies Counties Vaccine Now Available

LANSING (AP)—The State Health Department today notified all Michigan counties to pick up their second round polio vaccine at state laboratories Monday.

The department said sufficient vaccine is available at the Powers, Houghton and Grand Rapids Regional Laboratories and at the main Lansing Laboratory to provide shots for more than 285,000 first and second graders who have not received their second shots.

Man Returns to Jail to Pay Blanket Debt

BRIGHAM CITY, Utah (AP)—A man walked into the police station here yesterday and asked officer H. C. Hampton: "How much do I owe you for two blankets I walked away with three years ago?"

The man explained to the surprised officer that one cold night three years ago, "when I was down on my luck," police let him stay in a cell overnight.

In the morning, he said, he decided blankets would come in handy so he pushed them through the bars and picked them up after checking out.

* * *

"My conscience has bothered me ever since," said the man, who gave no name and address. "I vowed the first time I got to Brigham City again I'd drop in and pay for them."
