Torch Lighting to Kindle Pontiac's UF Drive

One Gift Works Many Wonders

GIVE THE UNITED WAY

Tradition Set to Spark City's Campaign

Volunteers to Start Ringing Door Bells to Hit $776,700 Goal

The traditional torch-lighting ceremony, symbol of hope for the thousands who depend on Pontiac Area United Fund services, officially begins the 15th annual campaign tonight.

The bright orange flame atop the 25-foot torch at Oakland and Saginaw will light the way for efforts to raise the 1963 United Fund goal of a record $776,700.

The giant torch will be ignited at 8:15 p.m. by E. M. (Pete) Estes, general campaign chairman, and the 4-year old Torchy Twins, Janice and Jeanine Willockx.

As the torch begins its 23-day and night vigil, hundreds of volunteers will start ringing door bells in the Pontiac area to help reach the increased goal.

The 15 - minute ceremony will feature a brief talk by Estes, musical salute by the Salvation Army Band and Campfire Girls Chorus and Pledge of Allegiance by Boy Scouts.

Master of ceremonies will be Richard N. Oslund, Pontiac district scout leader.

Also taking part will be representatives of girl scout units, Pontiac Boys Club, YMCA and YWCA, United Fund and city officials.

RETURNS GOOD

"Early solicitation returns are quite encouraging," said Estes, summing up precampaign efforts.

"With the spirit and cooperation we've been getting so far, I am convinced we're heading for another successful drive."

Estes said even greater efforts will be made during the drive to enthuse substandard givers.

He pointed out that 55 agencies, which combat mental and physical illness, social problems, and aid youth, depend on United Fund for support.

Prior to the torch lighting, 75 United Fund volunteer leaders will attend a 6:30 p.m. kickoff dinner at Waldron Hotel, sponsored by First Federal Savings and Loan of Oakland.

Senate to Question Nitze

Storm Faces New Navy Chief

PAUL H. NITZE

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's appointment of a new Navy secretary may set off a chain reaction leading to congressional explosion over a tentative Pentagon decision to deny the Navy any more nuclear carriers.

When Paul H. Nitze, named yesterday to succeed Fred Korth, comes before the Senate for confirmation, it seems certain he will be asked for his views on the continuing controversy over whether carriers should be phased out in favor of missiles and missile-firing submarines.

Korth, who said he was resigning to "attend to my pressing private affairs," probably will be asked to explain if his decision had any connection with his apparently futile efforts to get a nuclear carrier built.

Associates said his defeat in the nuclear power argument sped his decision to quit.

Some Congress members said they thought Korth's action stemmed from the row over the controversial TFX warplane contract award, and Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., said Korth will be questioned again about it.

Korth has told the Senate Investigations subcommittee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., that a bank he formerly headed in Fort Worth, Tex., joined several others in making a loan to the General Dynamics Corp.

General Dynamics was given the TFX contract by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara despite a claim by the Boeing Co. that it could produce the TFX — tactical fighter, experimental — cheaper. Korth supported the award to General Dynamics.

McClellan declined comment on the resignation. But Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., said he thought it was precipitated by testimony on the plane contract.

22 From Raid Put Up Bonds

Prosecutor Seeks Charge of Felony

Twenty - two persons arrested in a gambling raid Friday night in Madison Heights were released on $1,000 bond each yesterday.

They were released by Circuit Court Judge William J. Beer until Monday when they are to reappear before him on a writ of habeas corpus.

Assistant County Prosecutor Robert Templin said he expects at that time to have warrants charging the men with conspiracy to violate state gambling laws.

The charge is a felony with a maximum prison sentence of five years.

Two of the suspects have been named before a Senate committee as Cosa Nostra, or Mafia, members. They are Eddie Guarella, 45, of St. Clair Shores and Joseph Brooklier, 50, of Mt. Clemens.

They were among 45 persons arrested in the raid at the Steren Assembly Club in Madison Heights by state and local police.

★ ★ ★

The rest were arraigned before Farmington Township Justice of the Peace Allen Ingle on a misdemeanor charge of frequenting a gambling place. They

State Fire Ban to Be Asked of Romney

Dry Forest Condition to Force Move Today, Unless Rain Falls

From Our News Wires

LANSING — Gov. George Romney will be asked to ban the use of fire in fields and forests today unless there is a sign of substantial rain by afternoon, conservation officials said.

"Conditions are extremely dry throughout the state and we are now having some troublesome fires," said Milton M. Bergman, assistant chief of the conservation department's field administration division.

"As of yesterday morning, forest fires in the state totaled 1,112 and 6,527 acres were burned and we are actually not too far into the traditional forest fire season," Bergman said.

"With the small game season opening in the Lower Peninsula this weekend, the influx of people into the woods and fields could produce another rash of fires unless people are extremely careful."

Bergman said the department would await the Chicago 3 p.m. weather forecast for the Michigan region before deciding if it is necessary to go to Romney.

"If it indicates we are going to have a continuation of this dry weather, we certainly are going to ask Gov. Romney to issue the proclamation," Bergman said. "If, however, it is indicated that we are going to start getting rains in sufficient quantity to do some good we will delay this action."

The conservation department's burning index scale showed many areas above the level at which fire conditions are called "explosive." Burning permits have been canceled in most of southern Lower Michigan including Oakland County, and in areas of the Upper Peninsula, the department said.

Detroit Gets 'Taken' in Its Olympic Bid

From Our News Wires

BADEN - BADEN, Germany — Detroit officials confessed today that "somebody" in Europe put one over on them by announcing that cities bidding for the 1968 Olympics would not be allowed to do any lobbying.

"When we got here we discovered that all the other cities had scheduled sumptuous receptions and the like," said a spokesman for the Motor City.

"It's too late now for us to match these efforts," he added angrily.

The other three cities seeking to serve as host for the 1968 games — Buenos Aires, Mexico City, and Lyons, France — are pulling out all the stops in their lobbying campaigns.

LAVISH ENTERTAINMENT

Delegates who will vote on the site Saturday are being liberally entertained, deluged with handouts, and held captive while enthusiastic spokesmen bend their ears with talk of the attractions awaiting them in their city.

And the number of parties and receptions on the calendar keeps increasing daily.

★ ★ ★

Lyons brought in the famous Joannes Nendron, considered by many to be the finest chef in France, to cook for a reception tomorrow night. Nendron, all 250 pounds of him, will be assisted by the "Compagnons de Beaujolais" — a wine group — which came equipped with 600 bottles of the red stuff.

★ ★ ★

Mexico City and Buenos Aires also scheduled ritzy receptions — and the Mexican presentation to the IOC will include a 3-D movie.

Detroit revealed yesterday that it may sweeten its offer by providing free room and board for foreign teams.

Board and room will cost $6 at the Tokyo games next summer. The cost was $8 a day for each athlete at the Olympics in Rome in 1960. It would be more in Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Mayor Jerome Cavanagh, who is leading the Detroit Olympic Committee in the city's bid to be host to the games, said the committee previously had decided to charge contestants only a $4 rate. He said, "Now we understand Mexico City is ready to make a better offer."

'ALL THE WAY'

"We are wondering now if we shouldn't go all the way and pick up the tab," the mayor said.

The Detroit committee figures

Illinois Town Is Hit by 'Mad Arsonist'

MONMOUTH, Ill. (UPI) — A "mad arsonist" set fires which destroyed two lumberyards and most of a factory today, injuring three firemen and forcing a family to flee its home.

City officials said damage might reach $1.5 million. Fifteen fire departments battled the flames.

State troopers equipped with riot guns formed a cordon around Monmouth Hospital and the Colonial Nursing Home when an anonymous telephone caller threatened the structures were "next."

Other guards were posted around industrial plants and located 200 miles southwest of in the business district of this quiet college town of 10,000, Chicago. Monmouth College students equipped with two-way radios patrolled the streets, looking for loiterers.

Fire Chief Dale Moore said "The fires definitely were the work of a mad arsonist."

A man was picked up on the grounds of the Western Stoneware Co., target of numerous bomb and arson threats in the past five weeks. He was questioned for several hours but was released by mid-morning.

Police Chief Vincent Romano and Warren County Sheriff Roy Hartley said there were no leads to the identity of the "fire bug."

Guards were withdrawn from the hospital, nursing home, industrial plants and business places, but Romano said, "I imagine more guards will be put out tonight."

COMPANY DESTROYED

The fires destroyed the Monmouth Lumber Co. on a quarter block site on the city's west side, the Fullerton Lumber Co. on a half block of the south side, and most of the Monmouth Metal Culvert Co. plant.

A family living next to the Culvert plant was forced to evacuate their home, which was threatened by the flames. A fire at the Warfield-McCullough Lumber Co. burned itself out.

Flames leaped high in the air, severing power lines and leaving several areas of the city without power for a time.

★ ★ ★

Waterford to Seek Loan to Plan Sewer System

Waterford Township Board members last night took an initial step toward the ultimate construction of a sanitary sewer system that has been estimated will cost $12 million.

The board unanimously approved filing a loan application with the federal government for $240,000. The money would be used for preliminary engineering drawings for the system.

Township Supervisor James E. Seeterlin said the loan application would probably be acted upon in from six months to a year.

If the interest-free loan is approved by the Housing and Home Finance Agency, an engineering firm would be retained to prepare the drawings, according to Seeterlin.

Seeterlin said the sewer system possibly could be in operation in three years.

★ ★ ★

The system would be serviced by the City of Detroit treatment plant with affluent going into the Dequindre interceptor sewer line.

The $240,000 figure for preliminary planning represents two per cent of an estimated $12 million sewer system cost.

Seeterlin, who compiled data on need for a sewer program to be presented with the loan application, estimated a population of 127,000 for the area by the year 2000. The present population is just over 50,000.

PRIME NEED

Board members agreed that a sewer system is a prime need whether the community remains a charter township or is incorporated as a city.

★ ★ ★

The Oakland County Department of Public Works would act as agent for Waterford in its sewer service contract with Detroit.

It May Rain Here Tonight

The U. S. Weather Bureau reports there is a slight chance of a shower tonight with low temperatures remaining in the 50s.

Partly cloudy and a little cooler—the high not more than 72—is tomorrow's forecast.

★ ★ ★

Thursday will be fair with temperatures about the same.

Morning southerly winds at 5 to 15 miles per hour will become variable at 5 to 12 m.p.h. tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Fifty-four was the lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury had climbed to 73 at 2 p.m.

City, County to Talk Trade

Airport, Area Sites May Be on Agenda

By DICK HANSON

City and county officials will meet tomorrow to consider swapping county property in Pontiac for Pontiac Municipal Airport or at least a part interest in it.

The City Commission has tried repeatedly to get the county to invest some money in the future expansion of the airport.

County officials have refused, maintaining that if the airport is too large a business for the city to handle, it should be given over to the county.

★ ★ ★

City plans call for spending $12 million on airport expansion. The commission has pointed out that the city doesn't have this kind of money to invest.

DEVELOPMENT

So far, the city has spent $1.59 million in developing the airport in Waterford Township. The federal government has

Bob Kennedy Asks Weaker Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy urged the House Judiciary Committee today to cut down the strong civil rights bill drafted by one of its subcommittees.

Kennedy, in a closed session of the committee, rejected most of the strengthening amendments added by the subcommittee and called for approval of the original administration version.

He said the seven-part administration bill was carefully drawn to attract middle-ground support, including vitally needed Republican votes. He expressed doubt the 10-part bill now before the committee could win such support.

"What we want is a bill, not an issue," Kennedy told newsmen later his committee appearance.

He explained what he considered the political realities behind the problem.

"Democrats alone can not pass a civil rights bill," he said. "We have to have the support of the Republicans. We have to have Democrats and Republicans working together."

Kennedy read a long statement to the committee expressing the Justice Department's views on the enlarged bill. It entered strong objections to two of the more sweeping subcommittee changes — on voting rights and racial discrimination in places of public accommodation.

He said the extension of the voting rights section to cover state as well as federal elections raised constitutional questions that could undermine the support needed to pass the bill.

And the broadened authority voted by the subcommittee for outlawing discrimination in places serving the public was far too sweeping, he said, without being specific enough to deal with the problem.

★ ★ ★

In both cases, he said he preferred the administration's first approach — limiting the voting section to federal elections and spelling out by name the kind of establishments to be covered by the public accommodations section.

The subcommittee version shifted the emphasis from specific items to the whole general field of private enterprise by pinning its authority on the 14th Amendment to the Constitution, rather than the power of Congress to regulate interstate commerce.

King Urges Boycott of Stores in B'ham

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — An intensified boycott by Negroes against downtown stores has been urged by integration leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

★ ★ ★

He also said a decision could come this week on whether Birmingham will face "bigger than ever" racial demonstrations.

At a mass rally Monday night, King accused white merchants of breaking promises that were part of an agreement that ended demonstrations last May.

EVALUATE SITUATION

King said he was in Birmingham to evaluate the racial situation and progress made since he and other Negro leaders pressed two demands on city leaders a week ago.

At that time, he and Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth, president of the Alabama Christian Movement for Human Rights, asked city officials to begin hiring Negro policemen and to meet with Shuttlesworth's group and other Negro leaders.

★ ★ ★

Mayor Albert Boutwell rejected the meeting, saying the City Council would meet only with "bona fide" Negro residents of the city.

Boutwell said that a study is under way on hiring of Negro policemen. If any are hired, he said, it will be only through standard Civil Service procedures.

Reign Ends for 'Der Alte'

BONN (AP) — Konrad Adenauer bad farewell to the West German Parliament as chancellor today, saying his dream of a reunited Germany is possible only with the help of friends abroad.

★ ★ ★

It was a solemn hour for the man who had been West Germany's only chancellor in the 14 years of rebuilding from the ruins of World War II. In dark coat and striped trousers, he listened soberly to praise from Eugene Gerstenmaier, president of the Bundestag.

★ ★ ★

"Today," Gerstenmaier concluded, "the German Bundestag rises to you, Mr. Federal Chancellor, to announce thankfully to the German people:

"Konrad Adenauer has earned the gratitude of the fatherland."

Detroit Is 'Taken' in Olympic Bid

the full bill could be paid by the revenue with something left over to help pay transportation for teams certified by the international committee as coming from countries unable to foot that bill.

Detroit's campaign received another setback when Gov. George Romney today postponed 24 hours his trip to Baden-Baden to help Detroit's bid for the 1968 Olympic Games site. Romney had planned to leave tonight, but told his press conference today that the press of legislative business caused the change.

City, County to Talk Trade

contributed nearly another $1 million and the state $412,200.

However, acting city manager John Reineck said the total investment of some $3 million doesn't represent the full value of the airport today because of rising costs.

He said new appraisals will have to be made if the city and county decide to explore a "possible horse-trade" further after tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Recent appraisals on county-owned property offered for sale in Pontiac amount to $569,800. This includes the former courthouse site at Huron and Saginaw, a five-story office building at 1 Lafayette and 75 vacant acres in north Pontiac.

JOINT VENTURE

In the event the county can't acquire the whole Pontiac Municipal Airport, both Charles B. Edwards Jr., chairman of the County Board of Supervisors' aviation committee, and Board Chairman Delos Hamlin have indicated a possible joint city-county venture under an airport authority.

The county recently paid $365,000 to acquire the formerly privately owned Allen Airport in Orion Township.

Plans were to develop and expand the grass airfield into a second major airport in the metropolitan area.

★ ★ ★

These plans were scotched when the Federal Aviation Agency refused to approve a second major airport for the area.

LEASED FIELD

Since then Allen Airport has continued to be operated as a leased field for small, private aircraft.

A study of future aviation needs of the whole county has been proposed by the county's aviation committee to determine development. The study, which hasn't been launched, is expected to take about six months.

In the meantime, the committee asked County Corporation Counsel Robert Allen if a building "moratorium" couldn't legally be imposed on the environs of both Pontiac Municipal and Allen Airport to maintain present property values.

★ ★ ★

Allen said he will inform the committee tomorrow that such a moratorium would be unconstitutional restriction of property owners' rights.

Tomorrow's meeting will be held in the courthouse auditorium at the County Service Center.

Representing the city will be Commissioners Loy Ledford and Charles Harmon; Reineck; William Ewart, city attorney, and city airport manager Homer Hoskins.

Panel to Settle 'Chicken War'

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)— The European Common Market backed down today and agreed to submit its chicken war with the United States to an impartial international panel for settlement.

★ ★ ★

The European Ministerial Council, ruling body of the six-nation trade group, accepted an American proposal that the issues involved in the shipment of American frozen poultry to Western Europe be examined by a group of foreign trade experts.

The ministers, representing France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg, referred their decision to a drafting committee.

3 MEMBERS

Under the American proposal, each side would nominate an expert and a third member of the panel would be named by the international trade organization known as the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade with headquarters in Geneva.

The panel would look into U.S. claims that the overseas sales of American poultrymen have been damaged to the tune of $46 million by the tariffs.

★ ★ ★

The Common Market contends that Washington has greatly exaggerated the case. The Europeans say the American farmers' losses are only about $19 million.

The United States has threatened to withdraw tariff concessions on $46 million worth of European goods as a trade compensation.

Reflecting the concern over relations with Washington, the ministers also approved a proposal to open an information office in New York City to push the European case with American public opinion.

The European tariff on frozen chickens was set largely to satisfy France whose farmers have been competing with Americans for the West German market.

Waterford Cityhood Supported

A majority of Waterford Township Board members last night spoke in favor of an affirmative vote in the Nov. 5 special election on incorporation.

A formal resolution on the matter, however, will come at next Monday's board meeting.

Township Supervisor James E. Seeterlin, Clerk Elmer Fangboner and trustees John Coleman and Loren Anderson all said they favored a yes vote in the election. The other three board members made no comment.

★ ★ ★

A discussion of the election issue resulted when Frank Richardson and Dean Salley of the Waterford Citizens Action Committee for Incorporation (WCAC), asked the board how it stood.

INDICATES SUPPORT

Seeterlin, the first to indicate he favored an affirmative vote, pointed out that passage of the Nov. 5 issue will not make the township a city.

The charter drafted by the charter commission must be approved later by the voters, he explained.

"I may be campaigning for a no vote then," he said.

Fangboner, Anderson and Coleman all indicated that they favored a change to cityhood to better provide for growth of the area.

Road Deaths Hit 1,371

EAST LANSING (UPI)—Traffic accidents in Michigan this year through yesterday claimed 1,371 lives, state police provisional reports showed today. The death toll at the same time last year was 1,255.

Drive Entries on City Slate

Commission to Eye Additional Road Job

The City Commission will consider a recommendation to include installation of driveway approaches with street improvement projects at tonight's meeting.

The paving of driveway approaches is now done on a voluntary basis by property owners on streets being curbed and paved.

City Engineer Joseph Nelpling will recommend the commission amend ordinances covering such special assessment projects to include driveway approaches.

Nelpling feels such a move would eliminate problems which sometimes arise later when property owners install driveway approaches that don't conform with city codes, thus damaging curbs and blacktop.

Tonight's agenda is the closest thing to routine city business to be placed before commissioners in recent weeks.

Also slated for action are resolutions approving the sale of a small urban renewal parcel to William and Marjorie Grace of 169 Whittemore, and authorizing the city to request bids for planting trees in the R30 urban renewal area.

An ordinance to rezone seven acres on the east side of Telegraph between Hazel and Edna will be introduced and slated for public hearing at a later date.

Henros Building Co., of Detroit, proposes to build a $2.5-million apartment house development on the land and has asked that it be rezoned from Residential-1 to Residential-1-3 to permit multiple-family dwellings.

SPECIAL MEETING

A special meeting of the planning commission is scheduled for Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. so planners can pass on the proposed ordinance, a step required prior to the public hearing. The builders asked for speedy action so they could start work before winter.

Commissioners will also get a petition from a "Friends of Grand Trunk Railroad" committee asking the city to support the committee's efforts to retain commuter service between Pontiac and Detroit.

Most of the agenda items concern confirmation of special assessment rolls for street improvements recently completed.

Freeman Cancels Speech in Lapeer

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman canceled a 2 p. m. talk scheduled at Lapeer's Community Building today, five hours before it was to be given.

Slated to speak as a part of the "Report and Review" series of meetings he is conducting with farmers across the country, Freeman was reported ill with the flu.

The speech was tentatively rescheduled for Oct. 22. Freeman remained at his home today.

The announcement of the series said it was designed to get the "dirt farmer's" views on current department policy. Hundreds of farmers were expected to be on hand for today's talk.

Birmingham Area News

New Zoning Nixed by Commissioners

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission last night denied a zoning change that would have allowed retail stores to be built on Southfield just north of 14 Mile Road.

The decision was in opposition to what the planning commission had recommended on the four lots, owned by Frederick K. Graef.

Present zoning permits the construction of businesses that sell services but not products.

★ ★ ★

Graef told the commission that he has been unable to find prospective tenants for offices but that he has had many inquires from merchants.

Objections to the rezoning came from area residents living in the Crestview Subdivision.

They voiced their protests personally last night and in a number of letters to the commission.

PROPERTY VALUE

George H. Meyer, president of the Crestview Subdivision Association, said the rezoning "would result in a detrimental change in the area" and "home owners would suffer a loss in the value of their property."

He, along with several mothers, said retail stores would increase traffic in the area and that additional shopping facilities were not needed.

The planning commission had stated that devaluation would not occur and that either zoning would bring equal amounts of traffic.

★ ★ ★

Two other hearings were held over a week until additional information could be obtained.

These are the proposed extension of Fairway Drive and the rezoning of a lot at 1525 E. 14 Mile Road from single family to parking.

The latter was requested by the Detroit Bank and Trust Co. to improve access to its property.

The commission also authorized the city assessor to prepare the assessment roll for the widening of East Maple Road.

Keeping with a city policy followed with the widening of other portions of Maple, only commercially zoned property which abuts an existing pavement less than 37 feet will be assessed.

A confirmation hearing on the assessment roll is scheduled for Nov. 4.

The Morton Salt Co. was awarded a contract to provide the city with 900 tons of salt at $6.40 a ton.

Hero-Envoy Dead at 74 in New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Adm. Alan G. Kirk, 74, a naval hero who spent 40 years in military service and then went on to high diplomatic assignments, died today in Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center.

★ ★ ★

Kirk entered the hospital on Sept. 1 for treatment of a heart ailment.

He resigned last April as ambassador to Nationalist China because of ill health. He had held the post for almost a year.

Kirk retired from the Navy in 1946 to accept appointment as ambassador to Belgium and minister to Luxembourg.

ENVOY TO U.S.S.R.

He later served three years as ambassador to the Soviet Union and for a brief period as director of the country's psychological strategy board.

Kirk left a distinguished and action-packed career when he began his diplomatic assignments.

In the invasion of France on June 6, 1944, Kirk commanded the huge U.S. naval task force that landed Allied troops and supported them by bombarding enemy installations on the Normandy beaches.

Roy R. Hawthorne

Service for Roy R. Hawthorne, 77, of 920 Chester, will be 2 p.m. tomorrow at Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Burial will follow in Greenwood Cemetery.

Mr. Hawthorne died yesterday after a brief illness.

In 1948 he retired as head of the Hawthorne Electrical Co. Mr. Hawthorne was a lifetime member of Birmingham Lodge No. 44, F&AM.

Surviving are his wife Helen and a sister, Mrs. Michael T. Hanley of Birmingham.

Organist Dies After Long Illness

Miss Cecille Cloonan of Carmel Hall, Detroit, Pontiac organist for more than 30 years, died early this morning after a long illness.

The Rosary will be recited at 7:30 tomorrow evening in Donelson-Johns Funeral Home.

Requiem Mass will be offered at 9:30 a.m. Thursday in St. Michael's Catholic Church with burial in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

Miss Cloonan, 77, received teacher training at Oakland County Normal School. She studied music at St. Frederick's School and taught for two years at the Florence Avenue Elementary School.

TAUGHT MUSIC

After completing a course of music at the Detroit Conservatory of Music, she taught piano and organ until moving to Carmel Hall in 1956.

Her bachelor and master of music degrees were both received from Chicago Musical College where she studied organ under Clarence Eddy.

Later Miss Cloonan went to Paris, where she studied under Marcel Dupre and Carl Marie Widor.

Her first organ position was at St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church. Later she went to St. Michael Catholic Church where she served as organist 20 years.

A charter member of Pontiac Tuesday Musicale, Miss Cloonan also was a member of Pontiac Music Guild, Pontiac Chapter of Zonta International, the Iota Eta Chapter of Pi Omicron Sorority, League of Catholic Women, National Association of Organists, the Organists Guild of America and St. Michael Church.

Several nieces and nephews survive.

At Lansing CAB Hearing

Pontiac Fights for Air Service

Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce officials today began their formal battle to keep regularly scheduled airline service at Pontiac Municipal Airport.

The first in a series of Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) hearings on whether North Central Airlines (NCA) should drop service at Pontiac and two other Michigan airports began in Lansing this morning.

Under scrutiny is the CAB "use-it-or-lose-it" policy under which NCA flights were initiated here in December 1960.

Attending today's hearing were Max Adams, chamber manager, Earl Kreps, assistant manager, and members of the chamber's aviation committee.

Under the "use-it-or-lose-it" policy, cities must show a need for airline service by establishing, over a period of time, a minimum patronage of five outbound passengers per day.

Pontiac NCA flights equalled or surpassed that quota in only one month, August 1961. The lowest daily average of cities involved is Pontiac's 1.14 passengers per day.

Local officials have filed a proposal requesting direct flights to Cleveland and Chicago. They contend that NCA patronage is low because flights are at odd hours and to points of low interest locally.

Another hearing is slated for Dec. 4 in Washington, D.C., with a third to be held after the first of the year.

Other cities involved are Port Huron and Cadillac-Reed City, with the possibility that any decision in the three cities could also affect air service to Alpena.

Pontiac Stamp Club Elects 1st Officers

William Bell, 2150 Parkinson, Waterford Township, has been elected president of the newly organized Pontiac Stamp Club.

Other officers are Leo Moses, 184 Mechanic, vice president; Werner Hohlstein, 6434 Lotus, treasurer; Anthony Reale, 5642 Argyle, secretary; and Mrs. Hugo Harnack, 3303 Lexington, corresponding secretary, all of Waterford Township.

Who Is in Control? Dominicans Wonder

NEW YORK (AP) — A Latin American struggle for power has had repercussions in New York where two diplomats are fighting for control of the Dominican Republic consulate.

Besiged in the consulate's third-floor office — on the Avenue of the Americas — the counsul - general of the deposed Dominican regime vows not to move.

Pacing the ground - floor lobby of the Rockefeller Center building yesterday was the diplomat appointed by the Dominican military junta that took power in a coup Sept. 29.

★ ★ ★

"We don't know who's the legal consul - general," said a policeman assigned to the building. "All we want to do is keep the peace."

PICKS LOCK

In the consulate office, to which he had gained entrance after picking the lock, Gaston Espinal and his followers dug in for an around-the-clock stay.

Espinal was consul - general under the regime of Dominican President Juan Bosch, who resigned after the military coup.

Carlos Peguero, the vice counsul and brother one of the Dominican revolutionary generls, is the diplomat on the outside looking in.

★ ★ ★

When Gen. Belisarios Peguero, chief of the Dominican national police called his brother, Carolos, at the time of the coup and told him to take over the New York office, Espinal peacefully surrendered the keys.

On Sunday, however, Espinal got word that his two sons had safely fled the republic. So he staged a coup of his own.

Espinal said the U.S. State Department had never withdrawn his credentials, nor recognized Peguero's.

A member of Espinal's staff was asked by a newsman: "If I want a visa for the Dominican Republic, can you give me one?"

"Of course, said the official.

"But would it be honored when I arrived in the Dominican Republic?"

A shrug was the official's only reply.

GOP Appoints Area Ad Man

Will Assist Director in Public Relations

Appointment of Roger Crimmins, 16971 Birwood, Beverly Hills, as assistant director of public relations for the Oakland County Republican party has been announced.

Crimmins served on the public relations committee for the party's ox roast in the county last month. He also has been an active Republican in his precinct during recent years.

The appointment, made by GOP County Chairman Charles L. Lyle, was announced by Bob Dodge, the party's county director of public relations.

★ ★ ★

Dodge said he was very pleased to have Crimmins as an associate for the forthcoming election. "His background and experience should prove invaluable to the Republican party," said Dodge.

Crimmins is an account executive for the McManus, John & Adams Advertising Agency in Bloomfield Hills.

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—Kenya's government has issued regulations making it an offense to disseminate any information or opinion calculated to cause public alarm or to upset public order. The punishment for such offenses is a $700 fine or a year in jail or both.

DO YOU TAKE VITAMINS AND STILL FEEL TIRED?

If you take vitamins and still feel tired, your trouble may be due to iron-poor blood. Vitamins alone can't build up iron-poor blood. But GERITOL can! Because just two GERITOL tablets, or two tablespoons of liquid GERITOL contain 7 vitamins plus twice the iron in 1-lb. of calves' liver.

In only one day GERITOL-iron is in your bloodstream carrying strength and energy to every part of your body. Check with your doctor. And if you've been feeling tired because of iron-poor blood, take GERITOL, liquid or tablets, every day. You'll feel stronger fast in just seven days or money back from the GERITOL folks.

'Harder Attitude' Faces Foreign Aid Money Bill in Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The fight over foreign aid crackles anew today in the Senate where the administration intends to mount a counterattack to recapture some of the $1 billion cut in the House.

Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen thinks the tide of battle has turned against the aid program.

★ ★ ★

"The bill is in deep, deep trouble this year," said the Illinois senator. "There is a new and harder attitude in the Senate and throughout the country."

President Kennedy is asking the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to restore at least a good chunk of the $1 billion the House chopped from the $4.5 billion he had requested.

MOOD CHANGED

In the past the Senate usually has voted to restore much of what the House has taken away. But this time, Dirksen told reporters, the mood has changed.

"The number of recipient countries is going down and there is a feeling among the people that there are countries in which the foreign aid program is not accomplishing anything worthwhile," he said.

★ ★ ★

Committee Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., counters that "the foreign aid bill is always in trouble. I don't know that it is in any more trouble this year than it always is. It is not a popular bill and it has no constituents."

★ ★ ★

The committee's previous deliberations on the measure were interrupted by its hearings on the limited nuclear test-ban treaty.

AMENDMENTS DUE

More than a score of amendments aimed at tightening the program are scheduled for consideration.

Even as the battle was resuming in the senate there were echoes of the fight in the House.

★ ★ ★

Testimony taken in closed hearings of a House Appropriations subcommittee and just made public revealed that Indonesia ordered three jet airliners in the United States for $20 million in the same week it got an emergency $17 million stabilization loan from this country.

"I do not think any country which can spend $20 million for plush airplanes is in such dire financial straits that they have to have an emergency loan from us," said Rep. George W. Andrews, D-Ala.

Subcommittee Chairman Otto E. Passman, D-La., said, "They are familiar with the gullibility of Uncle Sam."

★ ★ ★

The House adopted an amendment to stop economic aid to Indonesia. This is another of the actions the administration hopes the Senate will change.

1st Russia Aid Arrives in Cuba

MIAMI (UPI) — The Fidel Castro regime says that the Soviet Union has already sent the first installment of aid promised to hurricane-lashed Cuba by Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

★ ★ ★

A government radio broadcast monitored from Havana here yesterday, said that a Soviet T114 airliner has ferried about 11,695 pounds of medicines to Havana for use in aiding victims of Hurricane Flora.

The radio also reported that a "Greek flag vessel" had left the port of Riga in Soviet Latvia with a cargo of cars, tractors and spare parts for the island.

The Cuban government apparently emphasized this point because of the Greek government's recent announcement that more Greek vessels would dock at Cuban ports.

PLANE ARRIVES

Havana Radio added yesterday that a plane — presumably Cuban — had arrived on the island from Prague with a cargo of Czech and Swedish medicines.

★ ★ ★

Castro himself admitted in a broadcast Sunday that Flora had killed more than 1,000 persons in its four-day battering of the eastern half of the island.

Reviewing for Test? Be Cool

By The READING LABORATORY
Written For Newspaper Enterprise Association

We'll spend this article on the best ways to review for a test. But before we start, one very important thought: Don't get all shook up because a test is coming.

Actually, it's very unproductive to get upset before an exam. You don't score any extra points for a wildly palpitating heart. As a matter of fact, the more anxious you get, the more chance there is of "freezing" on the test.

Getting shook just gets you lower marks. And even if you don't do as well as you would like to, the sun will still come up the next day. Really.

★ ★ ★

So let's assume you're calm, cool, collected and have been doing what these articles have been telling you to do. (If you haven't been studying the way you should have been, we have a special article coming next to help you.)

NOTEBOOK REVIEW

Start to review from your notebook. You've been keeping a general outline of the course in your notebook, so the best thing to do is to read that over.

As you come to each major point, stop and think about it. Consider its possible ramifications—everything that it means, everything that it leads to. Try to infer what the next major point should be.

Use your textbook to check anything that's not completely clear from your notes. Or if you like, make a general overview of the chapters that pertain, just to confirm the accuracy of your notes.

You won't have every little detail in your notes, but you'll have notes on where they can be found.

At first, don't bother with anything that may require memorization. Begin your reviewing at least a week before the test is scheduled so you can study somewhat leisurely and with a minimum of pressure.

Save the memorization until the night before, or at most, two nights before the test. As a rule, memorization doesn't stick for a long time.

Review for the test the same way you've been studying. Get the main idea first; learn the general overview before you start to get involved in details.

You can afford to miss a detail or two, because if you really understand the main idea of the course, you'll be able to figure out the details — or at least you'll be able to make good guesses.

For most people, a brain-picking session with four or five others is a good idea — with two cautions: if they turn into bull-sessions, nothing gets accomplished, and secondly, if anyone starts to panic, go off and study by yourself. Panic is contagious.

Finally, the morning of the test, a quick general overview of the notes is in order. It'll refresh your memory and put you in perfect shape.

Make sure you get to class on time for the test, but don't get there early. There'll always be one or two panicky students running around, asking questions and getting everybody else shook.

As a general rule, your aim in preparation is this: get yourself to the point where you can give, off the top of your head, about a 15-minute summary of all the material covered.

If you can do that you can afford to relax; you can be sure you won't have any trouble.

Fraud Charged in Korea Vote

First Election Held Since Coup in 1961

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — South Korea's presidential election began today with long lines of voters and charges of election fraud by opponents of military strongman Chung Hee Park.

Anti-government politicans accused the military regime of delivering soldiers in groups of five to the polls and watching how they voted.

Park and his chief civilian opponent, former president Yun Po-sun, had to wait in line to vote. As many as 10 million persons in this nation of 32 million were expected to vote.

★ ★ ★

Yun's Civil Rule party protested that troops of the 35th Division in Chonju were forced to vote in full view of a group leader.

In Pusan, anti-government leaders said Park leaflets were distributed in voting booths.

The vote comes after a strenuous campaign in which South Korea was offered a choice between a continuation of its military-style rule or another attempt at democracy.

The United States, which has poured $5.4 billion into the South Korean economy since 1945, applied strong pressure on Park to hold the election. The military government seized power May 16, 1961.

NEWS CONFERENCE

While Park waited to vote he held an impromptu news conference and attacked press coverage of the campaign.

Showing irritation at Korean and American correspondents, Park told one newsman, "Now, don't lie."

Yun said there were "signs of irregularities" within two hours after the polls opened at 7 a.m.

He said ballot box stuffing and intimidation had caused revolutions and warned against repetition of such practices.

"The people will not tolerate any irregularities," he said. "A great misfortune would follow if any are found."

★ ★ ★

Although the black jeeps of South Korea's Central Intelligence Agency patrolled Seoul as usual, newsmen saw no signs of police pressure on voters.

British Cabinet Split on Leader

Special Session Held to Name New Chief

LONDON (AP) — The British Cabinet met in special session today to try to agree on a man to succeed stricken Harold Macmillan as prime minister and leader of the Conservative party.

With acting Prime Minister Richard A. Butler presiding, the 20 ministers assembled at 10 Downing Street still deeply divided over the leadership issue.

About half the cabinet ministers were believed to favor Butler, with the rest split between Lord Home, the foreign secretary, and Lord Hailsham, the minister of science.

Butler faced powerful opponents in the party's right wing. Hailsham upset cabinet colleagues by running an uninhibited campaign for power. Home's friends said he doesn't want the job.

Such younger candidates as Chancellor of the Exchequer Reginald Maudling and Deputy Foreign Minister Edward Heath at this point seemed to have dropped out of the running.

London bookmakers' odds in the succession stakes last night quoted Butler as an even favorite, with Hailsham 7-4, Home 5-1 and Maudling 16-1.

Butler visited Macmillan in his hospital room today for 35 minutes, but would not say what they discussed.

The deputy prime minister said Macmillan was getting on well in his recovery from the prostate operation that forced him to decide to retire.

Man Kills Friend in Hunting Accident

UDINE, Italy (UPI) — Bird hunter Rino Gasparini thought he heard the tune of a lark on the other side of a hedge yesterday and fired.

When he looked over the hedge Gasparini found he had shot and killed his friend, Elio Mainardis, 44, who had been whistling to lure a lark into shooting range.

Can America stand the test ?

The challenges we face call for strong and wise leadership.

America's leaders must come from our colleges. That's where young people develop the knowledge, skill and vision leadership calls for.

But our colleges are in trouble. They are struggling with higher costs. Many need new classrooms, laboratory facilities and able teachers.

To stand the test of the future, we must back our colleges. College is America's best friend.

Italy Survivors Are Rebuilding

Government Helping Flood-Stricken Area

BELLUNO, Italy (AP) — The survivors of the Vaiont Dam disaster and the Italian government acted together today to bring life back to the desolate region.

Despite fears of another disaster, the death toll and the appalling destruction, there were signs the flood-stricken area might indeed live again.

With the death toll estimate between 2,300 and 3,000, hundreds of persons were still missing. But army commanders leading recovery operations said it appeared pointless to keep up full-scale digging operations in the hardened mud much longer.

★ ★ ★

In Rome, Premier Giovanni Leone's cabinet voted a series of crash measures to start the disaster area toward recovery.

TAXES SUSPENDED

All taxation of communities in the area was suspended until further notice. Local budgets will be supplemented as needed. Special funds were voted to speed new construction.

The government ordered state road, railroad and communications agencies to undertake an emergency program to get services back to normal as soon as possible.

In Longarone, hardest hit community, the seven surviving members of the 15-man Municipal Council voted to start rebuilding if the government would help.

★ ★ ★

Buildings and homes can be constructed again. But most of the area was agricultural and when the massive wall of water roared across the land it stripped away most of the topsoil.

A major problem was to find a new way for the survivors to support themselves.

Dry Weather Afflicts East, Causes Fires

CHICAGO (AP)—Drought conditions appeared more serious in many areas in the eastern half of the nation today with continuation of the early autumn spell of mild, rainless weather.

The only wet spots during the night and early morning were along coastal sections of northern California, Oregon and Washington, in parts of the north central region and in eastern Florida. Rainfall amounts were generally light.

★

Forest fires swept across dry areas in the East again Monday and many wooded areas were ordered closed. The fires have broken out for the past two weeks in woodlands in New York state, western Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Vermont and New Hampshire.

Temperatures across the nation showed only minor changes from Monday morning. Readings were mostly in the 40s and 50s in the Northeast and in the Rockies. The 50s and 60s prevailed in the major part of the country with the 70s in many parts of the South.

★ ★ ★

Record high marks for Oct. 14 were reported in cities in Missouri, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Tennessee, with the mercury soaring into the low 90s.

Progress Was Arrested

HAYWARDS HEATH, England (UPI)—Mrs. Nancy Seligman was fined $56 yesterday for stepping on the brake instead of the clutch and causing a four-car pile-up behind her vehicle.

Urge Speedup in Amish Trial

CAMDEN (AP) — After postponement of the trial of 11 Amish farmers accused of sending their children to improper schools, Michigan's school chief planned to request speedy action today from Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley.

★ ★ ★

The trial was postponed yesterday at the request of Hillsdale County Prosecutor James Parker. He said a previous court date conflicted with yesterday's scheduled session.

A jury for the case is being selected now, he said, and the case will be tried "as soon as I can conveniently arrange a schedule with the other attorneys involved."

Supt. of Public Instruction Lynn Bartlett expressed surprise at the possible delay and said he expected action "as soon as is possible." He said Kelley probably would want to discuss the situation with Parker.

The farmers, accused of refusing to enroll their children in certified public schools, pleaded innocent Oct. 7 to violating any law.

Quick Thinking Saves a Drowning Child—His

RAINHAM, England (UPI) — Deliveryman Alan Tabeart was making his rounds yesterday when he heard a shout, "There's a child in the water."

Tabeart jumped into a nearby creek and rescued the child before he learned it was his own 2-year-old son.

Newspapers Affect Your Daily Living

This is National Newspaper Week.

It's a nationwide celebration which pays tribute to the 1,770 daily and 9,000 weekly newspapers published in this country.

The purpose is to emphasize the difference that newspapers make in your life, the vital role they play in protecting the people's three great freedoms—Freedom of the Press . . . Freedom of Speech . . . and Freedom of Religion.

These freedoms which the press protects guarantee your right to know what your government is doing, to voice your own opinions about current problems and to believe in whatever ideals you choose, even if they don't coincide with the ideology of the men in power.

Freedom of the press is not something that is enjoyed all over the world. In Cuba, which is just a long swim away, the press is gagged. Consequently, the people are not free as we are in this country. The big difference is a free press.

Newspapers make a difference in people's lives every day. Their news and sports articles tell what has happened in the world; their editorials tell why.

The features and cartoons offer a world of entertainment; the ads, a complete shopper's guide in a nutshell. This newspaper, like all newspapers, is constantly trying to serve you better. That's our job and we work at it every day.

Was Soviet Blockade Another Maneuver?

We think that there is about as much diplomatic constancy in the Communist modus operandi as there is omniscience in the fortune told by a penny scales.

Whoever calls the international shots for the Soviet bloc—presumably KHRUSHCHEV — seems to be a great disciple of the crisis. The Commies turn crises on and off like a politician does oratory.

Seemingly the crisis is a built-in element in the Communist concept of advantageous involvement in foreign affairs.

The hoopla over the recent blockade of an American troop convoy by the East German military is a case in point.

It is but one of innumerable such incidents, minor and major, that have occurred since the cold war became a phenomenon of the times.

★ ★ ★

This latest show of force over a triviality and the tension arising from it quickly dissolved in the face of American determination.

But such maneuvers don't just happen—unless someone on high decides it's time for another crisis, and passes the word.

A look back at the crisis box score shows that such incidents frequently followed cooperative action on the part of the East and the West — like maybe the wheat transaction just effected between the United States and Russia.

Would perhaps the object of such paradoxical behavior be to let the free world know that though the Russians had been caught in an area of mutual goodwill, it was not to be considered an augury for a changing shape of international relations? And at the same time flash the sign to irreconcilable elements in the Soviet hierarchy and Communist satellites that the momentary softness was all in fun, and that business as usual is still being carried on at the old stand?

We don't know, either. Maybe the penny fortune teller has an answer good as any.

Senators Turn to Ethics Study

By J. W. DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. senators are showing concern about ethics.

The immediate case is that of an employe of the Senate, now resigned. It has revived a suggestion that it might be a good idea for senators to adopt a conflict-of-interest code for themselves.

In the case at hand, Robert G. Baker stands accused of using his Senate connections, while he was secretary of the Senate's Democratic majority, to help land business for a private firm.

The Senate Rules Committee this week begins an inquiry into whether Baker did permit himself an improper conflict of interest.

It would be wrong, of course, for anybody in a position of public trust to trade on that post to make money for himself.

★ ★ ★

That's the basic principle behind the Senate's traditional insistence that men named to high public office, such as Cabinet members, divest themselves of private interests when they come into the government.

SAME PRINCIPLE?

Should the same principle be applied rigidly to members of Congress when they vote? Should a senator who owns a farm, for example, feel free to vote increased price supports for crops he raises?

Or, if he's a railroad stockholder, should he stand aside on a bill designed to help the railroads?

In the current situation, Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., expressed hope that the Rules Committee would go beyond the Baker case and "recommend a permanent code of ethics for the Congress."

Javits told his colleagues that senators have a responsibility for their own conduct. "This, I believe, is the main thing the country wants to hear from us: What are we going to do, not only about those who work here, but also about ourselves," he added.

★ ★ ★

It would be interesting if Baker could come back to the Capitol long enough to check on the prospects of the Senate adopting the code that Javits asked.

'M'-State Tie a Blow to 307

Lucky '7' Pays Off, Contest Down to 7

An authority once said that a tie football game is as frustrating as being stood up on a blind date. Much is left unanswered.

Mebbe so, mebbe so. But the seven Press Contestants who crystal-balled a Michigan-MSU tie Saturday had the answer — and it was a pippin. The 222 who had checked State were doubtless green with envy, and the 85 who had hunched their choice on Michigan's marching song "The Victors" must have been pretty blue.

For the all-or-nothing contest entrants, it was indeed a lost weekend.

The 7-7 verdict was the fifth in the 56-game span reaching back to 1898.

Now we look down the schedule to next Saturday's Contest game. The moment of truth is approaching for the seven who shot the seven-point natural.

Five of the elite group pick Slippery Rock to repeat last year's win over Westminster. Since none predicts a tie, two are dusting off incantations with hoped-for effect of a slip by Slippery Rock.

Although this game may not hold national gridiron significance, it will have a lot of local. A $500 U.S. Savings Bond winner's award is mightily significant.

Gee whizz! This is more exciting than when Aunt Clarissa brought home her first beau.

We're Beginning to Burn Up

David Lawrence Says:

Election Debates Backward Step

WASHINGTON — The chance of another "great debate" between Republican and Democratic presidential nominees is diminishing.

Intimations have been coming from Democratic sources that President Kennedy might take the position that such a debate is unwise.

LAWRENCE

No president of the United States has heretofore subjected himself to cross - examination by a political opponent. There is evidence, too, that Republicans are beginning to be doubtful about the TV show.

Sen. Goldwater has just declined to debate with Governor Rockefeller, who recently challenged him. The Arizona senator said he didn't see much good in an intraparty debate — with Republican fighting Republican on issues within the party. He didn't say whether, if nominated for the presidency, he would challenge President Kennedy.

★ ★ ★

Senator Ribicoff, Democrat of Connecticut, thinks a "great debate" is almost certain. He says "it will be pretty hard for any candidate to refuse to accept a challenge of debate."

REAL REASONS

Sooner or later, however, some presidential nominee will have the courage to give the American people the real reasons why the "great debate" idea is fundamentally a backward step in political campaigning.

For what does such a debate really prove? That one candidate is more agile in a fencing match of words than the other, or that one is better looking as compared to to the other.

What does it tell the country of the real issues on which the voter should make up his mind? Can a debate covering a variety of questions, with impromptu answers, do justice to either nominee's position in a campaign?

There is no reason why just as much value couldn't be obtained by giving each nominee separately a whole evening, if necessary, on the radio and television to answer the questions propounded by a panel of interrogators. It would enable each candidate to answer questions in his own way and at whatever length he deemed desirable.

If the rival nominee were to do the same thing the next evening or a few nights later and the same type of questions were asked, there could be an arrangement for rebuttals on subsequent evenings.

This would be more informative to the voters than the catch-as-catch-can type of debate which was provided in the 1960 campaign.

The Nixon-Kennedy debates may have changed votes on both sides, and the consensus at the time was that Mr. Kennedy made a better appearance.

But wouldn't that same comparison, solely on the basis of facial expression or agility in answering questions, have been possible if the debate had been longer each evening with each candidate being given a fuller opportunity to discuss on his own all the issues of the campaign?

American voters by the millions have revealed again and again a superficial attitude toward presidential campaigns. Too many vote on the basis of a personal like or dislike of a candidate's appearance. Too many of them pay no attention to the issues or do not really understand the speech making.

To center a whole campaign on a comparison of the candidates' personalities, or even on their fragmentary answers to questions in a TV "debate," is to leave the choice of a top executive for the nation to the whims of a mass audience.

★ ★ ★

If President Kennedy declines to enter a "great debate" in the 1964 campaign, there will be no tears shed on the part of those citizens who don't believe in the stunt idea but who think each candidate should thoroughly discuss the issues throughout the campaign.

Capital Letter:

Audience With Pope Paul Is an Impressive Event

VATICAN CITY—Pope Paul VI's weekly audiences are a cross between a solemn rite and spirited football game.

CONSIDINE

Some 5,000 ticket holders—a fraction of those who had applied—showed up for this week's papal interview. Most of them were herded into corrals built into this gracious room or that splendid hall depending on the color of their invitation.

Except within each pilgrim's heart, these general audiences are as impersonal and jarring as a subway crush. Despite the godlike gentility of the reigning Pontiff, the Vatican swarms with some of the rudest, dumbest major domos and functionaries known to Christendom.

Normally an audience as large as this week's would be held in St. Peter's which can hold perhaps five times 5,000. But the great Basilica is clogged these days with the endless desks and paraphernalia of the Ecumencial Council, and so the weekly meetings Paul schedules must take place elsewhere.

They're something to see. And hear.

★ ★ ★

Paul VI's advent was heralded by distant applause, sounding thinly from the rooms through which he was being borne.

And then like some scene which Hollywood is forever trying to master the huge blue curtain that covered the immense entrance into the hall was flung aside and in was carried the man who picked up John XXIII's torch, olive branch and cross.

The hall shook with a wild cheer. Flashlight bulbs shot blinding winks at the white-robed pontiff as he rode above a thicket of outstretched hands and arms.

He held up his hands at the level of his sensitive head, palms facing aft, and softly beckoned as if the cheers and applause were substantive enough to harvest.

REAL CHURCH

In Rome, the Pope said of the Americans present, they have seen the world's most splendid basilicas but the real church "is in your homes, far away.

"We pray that God will keep you good and may He lead you to His blessings." Then after the singing of the "Credo," he gave his blessing to the hall and on all sides men and women sought room to drop to their knees and make the sign of the cross.

'Irresponsible Parents Cause of Delinquency'

A large proportion of juvenile delinquency is due to lack of responsibility of parents toward the actions of their children.

★ ★ ★

I strongly favor the criminal code (especially traffic laws) being amended to allow a judge (where it seems appropriate) to transfer the punishment from the child to the parent, in cases where the child is under 18. I believe this would result in reducing our traffic violations by a large per cent.

'Foreign Films Give Moral Lesson'

Since I am opposed to censorship, I must comment on the "Pontiac Pastors Hit Art Films" story.

★ ★ ★

The pastors feel "foreign or adult films . . . will only result in the worsening of the moral and spiritual life in Pontiac." If adults view these films with open, adult minds, perhaps the opposite would occur. Many foreign films are truly adult and point a stronger moral message than most Hollywood "family entertainment" or television tripe.

I was reassured to note City Attorney W. A. Ewart cited some facts and precedents against local censorship of this sort.

School officials ask for tools to do a good job in Waterford Township. We gave them those tools when we proposed the school tax levy. We want the best education money will buy for our students.

Athletics are part of an education. Our boys are not getting the best education on the beautiful football field at Waterford high.

Our school officials should buy a new broom and start sweeping from the top and right down to the bottom and out with the people who are responsible for the poor type of education our boys are getting on the field.

The alibi of it's a new school no longer holds true.

Ladies Future Job Competitors

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON (NEA)— Saucy reporter May Craig asked President Kennedy early in his administration, "sir, what are you doing for women?"

"Whatever we have done, Mrs. Craig," replied the President, "I'm sure it hasn't been enough."

EDSON

So in December 1961 the President created a 26-member Commission on the Status of Women with the late Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt at its head to study the situation.

Twenty - two months later on the anniversary of that great lady's birth, the commission filed its report and went out of business. From here on, anything done to improve the status of women is put up to the President, the courts, Congress, the state legislatures and city councils, education, business and labor leaders and the 50 million members of women's clubs that concern themselves about it.

★ ★ ★

The first natural reaction of any mere male to all this is to don misogynist robes and imitate Schopenhauer. What do women want with any more status than they now have? Why don't the dears hang onto what they already have and let it go at that, as the most favored of the sexes?

But women are never satisifed and never will be, which is one of the things that makes them so — so womanly.

The commission report, titled "American Women" is an 86-page slick paper job that sells for $1.25 from Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., Zip Code 20401, in case you want one for your club. It was put together under direction of its two vice-chairmen, Mrs. Esther Peterson, assistant secretary of labor, and Dr. Richard A. Lester, head of the Department of Economics at Princeton.

At last report, Old Nassau was not a coeducational institution. This either makes Dr. Lester a traitor to his sex or a moderating influence that kept the report from being any more extreme than it is. But he is an authority on employment and an important part of the book deals with women's work, which is never done. The report was written by Mrs. Helen Hill Miller, one of Washington's brainiest women.

Details of the commission's findings and all 24 of its major recommendations will be reported in the news columns or on the women's pages. But a couple of highlights are worth emphasizing in this space because they show how much the status of American women has changed in this century.

In 1900 the average life expectancy for women was 48 years. Today it is 73 years. American girls are marrying younger than their mothers and grandmothers did. The young wives are having more children at lower infant mortality rates.

What this means for the future is that more women will find that they have a second life to live after their children are grown. The choice will no longer be family or career. They can have both. It is happening already.

One third of the labor force is women. Half of the 24 million employed women are in the 45 or older age bracket and 55 per cent of them are married women.

★ ★ ★

These are women who for financial reasons can't or for personal reasons don't want to sit out the second half of their lives. They want to resume old careers or find new ones. They want to live long and useful lives not only for the happiness of their own sweet selves, but also to be of more service to their families, communities and country.

There is another aspect of it which the commission report doesn't go into, but which is worth a close look. This is the effect which the employment of more and more women has on the total unemployment picture.

To provide jobs for all these women means that the growth rate of the economy must be accelerated more than if only an expanding male labor force has to be kept at full employment levels.

Observing the American Husband—I

Is He the World's Unhappiest Man?

(Editor's Note — German men think he is a sucker because of the way he handles his money, Britons and Frenchmen are baffled by other thing he does or tolerates. He is the American Husband, the subject of much serious study, sarcasm and even sympathy.

UPI national reporter Harry Ferguson, who recently wrote a highly popular series on the American Woman, now turns his attention to a four-part series on the American husband.)

By HARRY FERGUSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — No one knows for sure whether the American husband is the world's unhappiest man, but there is no doubt he is the most criticized.

Experts in social behavior — amateur and professional, foreign and domestic — keep him constantly under the microscope and describe in millions of words how and why he squirms.

German men consider the American husband a sucker because of the way he handles his money. In Germany many women can't say for sure how much their husband earns because it isn't considered any of their business.

They accept whatever housekeeping money they receive and keep their mouths shut.

British men shake their heads in wonderment over the way American men are bullied by their children, especially the teenagers.

"Children in this country," notes the London Bureau of UPI "are more to be seen than heard. When company comes, the children are fed separately."

A thorough whacking on the seat of the pants, both at school and at home, is still highly esteemed in Britain as a corrective measure.

Frenchmen cannot understand why Americans work themselves to death to provide things their family doesn't really need.

Their most prevalent theory is that the American husband is a sort of voluntary slave — indentured for life to a woman who lashes him periodically with demands for jewelry, expensive clothing and hats she doesn't need.

French wives accept as a fact of life that is is possible to cook a meal and dispose of the dishes without the help of enough electric kitchen gadgets to operate a space capsule.

The American male plunges into marriage at an earlier age and with less thought than any man on earth. Every behavior expert who studies the situation notes the increasing number of teen-age marriages, and the subsequent high divorce rate.

Only 7 per cent of the American women in their 30's have never been married. Comparable statistics for Great Britain are 18 per cent and for France 28 per cent.

HIGHEST RATE

One out of every 4.5 American marriages ends in divorce, the world's highest rate. There is no way to measure the number of men who remain married even though they are unhappy and, as one philosopher puts it, "leading lives of quiet desperation."

Apparently only a small percentage of these men seek the assistance of marriage experts and counselors, and Dr. Paul Popeno of the American Institute of Family Relations cites the case history of one of them:

"Mr. H. said: 'I put in a full day at the factory and by the time I get home about a quarter to 6 I am glad to lie down and rest. But my wife meets me at the door and tells me the two kids are driving her crazy and will I please take them off her hands?

'And will I at the same time vacuum the rug, sweep off the front porch and the sidewalk and bring in the clothes from the line as she didn't have time? It turns out she was in the park with the children all afternoon.' "

The American standard of living is the highest in the world, and American women expect to start enjoying it as soon as they are married, or at least without allowing sufficient time for the husband's income to rise to the level of their needs and wants.

Sociologist James W. Gladden of the University of Kentucky got some interesting answers when he conducted a survey among girls on what they expected their husbands to do besides support them:

- Seventy per cent said they expected outside help.
- Fifty-four per cent expected their husbands to straighten up the house occasionally.
- Forty-four per cent demanded that the husband prepare the meals occasionally.
- Fifty-four per cent said they expected their husbands to make the beds, "but only rarely."
- Sixty per cent expected him to dispose of the garbage every day.
- There was general agreement that husbands should remember birthdays, anniversaries and other "special" days that hubands should be adept in "adapting themselves to the various moods and changes so typical of women" that wives should be treated after marriage just as they were before.

THE NEW RULES

After marriage, a new set of rules apparently is drawn up in the feminine mind, and Dr. Popenoe tells the results of a survey among women in Columbus, Ohio, on what the ideal husband should do. Some of them:

Tell interesting things about his work. Do thoughtful things the wife does not expect him to do. Sense when his wife wants affection and when she doesn't.

Clean out the bathtub and wash basin after using them. Appreciate and praise new dishes the wife prepares. Know how to pull the wife out of the dumps when she gets into them.

Always telephone when he is going to be late to dinner.

Tomorrow: Nagging wives and what they do to marriages.

WASHINGTON (AP) — James Knudson, 57, a former member of the Interstate Commerce Commission and head of the National Defense Transportation Commission in 1950-1958, died Sunday of Cancer.

NY Helicopters Grounded in 6-Death Crash Probe

NEW YORK (UPI) — New York Airways grounded all its "air-taxi" service today and Civil Aeronautics Board investigators sought to determine if metal fatigue in a rotor blade caused a fiery helicopter crash that killed six persons yesterday.

All six persons aboard the 25-seat, twin-blade craft died when the helicopter fell from the sky, crashed and burned on takeoff at Idlewild Airport. Three of the victims were crew members, including a 21-year-old stewardess, Maria R. Fourquet, of Northport, N. Y.

A preliminary report by federal investigators indicated the crash was caused by a fracture in one of the two rotor-blades, usually the result of metal fatigue.

★ ★ ★

Oscar Bakke, regional director of the Federal Aviation Agency, said the snapping of a blade would make a tremendous noise, much like an explosion.

Several eye witnesses said the helicopter, a $750,000 Boeing Vertol 107B, seemed to explode seconds after lifting off.

The New York Airways three remaining helicopters were grounded pending the outcome of the investigation.

PILOT KILLED

Also killed in the crash was the pilot, Frank Lo Turco, 42, of Thornwood, N. J., a veteran Marine Corps fighter pilot who joined New York Airways in 1955, and the co-pilot, Joseph C. Giambatista, 37, of New York.

Giambatista recently wed the former Fern Roberts who had been New York Airways chief stewardess.

The three passengers killed were Mrs. Marie Wild, 51, of Parma, Ohio; George A. Langenberg, 51, of Northbrook, Ill., and 25-year-old R. J. Stankavish, an employee of British Overseas Airways Corp., who lived in New York.

The flight was a routine 13-minute "executives' hop" between the International Airport and Wall Street. The helicopter service is a favorite with businessmen and others who wish to avoid automobile traffic between the busy airport on the outskirts of town and the heart of the city.

WHERE 6 DIED—Firemen look at wreckage of a passenger helicopter after it crashed at Idlewild Airport yesterday, killing all six persons aboard. It was one of a New York Airways fleet that shuttles passengers between Manhattan and metropolitan airports. An investigation of the crash is underway.

"It's habit," he explains. "I walk past a store window and see a beautiful suit and say 'Gee, I wish I could buy that.' Then I stop and realize that I can.

THOMAS

"It was the same way when I bought a car. I went into the dealer's to ask about a used car. The salesman recognized me and said, 'You can afford to buy a new one.' So I drove out in a new car.

Why should Bobby Vinton be teaching himself how to spend?

Because the handsome lad from Canonsburg, Pa., who once considered coal mining as a profession, is now tops in the pop music field. His single, "Blue Velvet," remains No. 1 among record sellers, following his other sensation, "Roses are Red."

Two years ago his income was $6,000. In 1963 it will exceed $250,000.

Bobby is no musical illiterate. He graduated at 20 from Duquene University with a degree in music and the goal of becoming first oboist with the Pittsburgh Symphony.

FOUND SUCCESS

That ambition vanished as he found success with dance bands in the Pittsburgh area. He eschewed rock 'n' roll for society-type music and warmed the hearts of adults, but not youngsters.

Bobby's bands also backed visiting attractions ranging from Sammy Davis Jr. to Fabian. His musical pride was shattered as he supported some of the flash-in-the-pan singers.

"I couldn't sing," he said, "but I know I could sing better than some of them."

He tried it, in a smooth style with some modern touches. He also made some recordings in New York.

Bobby is of Polish descent and hails from the same Pittsburgh suburb that spawned Perry Como.

Bobby plays one-nighters all over the country and recently finished his first film, "Surf Party." His problem is convincing adults that he is an entertainer, not just a teen-age sound—he's 24.

Baroness Understands Husband's Behavior

LONDON (UPI) — Baroness Thyssen was quoted by the London Daily Express today as saying she saw nothing wrong in meetings between her husband and his former wife, Princess Nina Khan.

"Why not?" the baroness said. "This is 1963. After all, there is no friend like an ex-wife."

French Orphans Quit; Claim Unfair Practice

EPINAL, France (UPI) — Forty-five orphans fled their orphanage yesterday and sought refuge in a local vicarage, claiming they were overworked.

Local officials said they were were investigating the children's claims that the orphanage director made them pick flowers which he sold at a profit.

Executive's Wife Dies

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth Walsh Long, 57, wife of Augustus C. Long, chairman of the board of Texaco, Inc., died Sunday. Mrs. Long, who was a niece of the late Sen. Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, was born in Washburn, Wis.

Georgia Negro Vies for Mayor

Chance Said Small for Integrationist

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—Citizens of this Georgia city choose a Democratic candidate for mayor today from among three persons—the first Negro ever to run for the office and two white segregationists.

All three agree that Negro integration leader Slater King has not a chance of winning the primary, but for different reasons.

King, 35, a native of Albany, says he hopes the campaign has helped members of his race to think politically.

"I am really interested in freeing the minds of Negroes because many of them feel that no Negro should aspire for high office," he said. King is a real estate broker.

The white candidates are attorney James V. Davis and architect Edward V. Jones.

Davis, a former state representative, expressed the belief there will be a runoff and that King will be in it.

But, he said, "I don't think he has a chance of winning unless the white people sit down and don't go to the polls. People are rather excited about the election and I don't believe they'll do that."

Jones, who describes himself as "a Goldwater conservative," based much of his campaign on opposition to what he called federal interference.

"I am against socialism and in favor of states rights," he said. "I am against a biracial committee."

Failure of the city to establish a biracial committee to discuss Negro grievances is one of several issues which brought intermittent civil rights demonstrations and more than 1,200 arrests during the past two years.

Albany has a population of 58,000, including about 24,000 Negroes. There are an estimated 4,600 Negroes among the 16,436 registered voters.

Political observers think King will get most of the Negro vote and that this will put him into a runoff. A majority is necessary for election.

Mayor Asa D. Kelley Jr. is not seeking re-election.

Dem Says Romney Plan Sunk

LANSING (AP) — Democratic State Chairman Zolton Ferency said yesterday statements from Republican legislators "make it pretty certain that the Romney tax program is as good as sunk."

He said this will be the case unless Gov. George Romney "gets off his throne and into Republican caucuses where fiscal reform is threatened with extinction."

He told an Ingham County Democrats meeting that the missing ingredient in Romney's fiscal reform plan is leadership.

★ ★ ★

"Having developed a hodge-podge tax pill, he now learns its weird mixture of ingredients makes it too tough to swallow," Ferency said.

"His plan for senior citizen property taxes has been branded unacceptable by the very people it pretends to assist. His plan for the 20 per cent rebate on local school taxes faces certain defeat," Ferency said.

Ferency said his party hopes "The doom of the Romney tax plan does not also sound the death knell for fiscal reform in this special session."

Five Major Divisions Covered in UF Aid

Agencies under the Pontiac Area United Fund banner can be broken down under five major classifications: youth recreation and character building agencies, health agencies, child care services, family and personal service and planning services.

Visit From Cary Grant

BRISTOL, England (UPI)—British-born actor Cary Grant paid a surprise visit to an old folks' home yesterday and was mobbed by elderly autograph seekers.

Grant, who planned to return to the United States later this week, had promised in an exchange of letters to visit the Old Aged Pensioners Club in suburban Bedminster, but his appearance came as a surprise.

United Fund Solicitations Under Way

Some 1,300 busy housewives began their annual house-to-house solicitation of Pontiac and Waterford residents as the Pontiac Area United Fund got underway today.

With only ten days to complete the residential campaign, the women are eager to take advantage of the good weather to call on friends and neighbors on behalf of the 55 agencies supported by the drive.

Many women know first hand the needs of the various agencies they represent, having served also as cub, girl scout and camp fire girl leaders; as Red Cross Gray Ladies or volunteers for the Michigan Cancer Foundation; as board members of the various agencies and many other volunteer projects throughout the year.

Sometimes giving time to the United Fund means juggling busy household schedules and large families. When a baby - sitter is unobtainable, many a youngster will accompany his mother as she goes from door to door.

★ ★ ★

Under the leadership of Mrs. William E. Brace, women's campaign chairman the women seek to raise $29,761.

Assisting Mrs. Brace are Waterford chairman, Mrs. Clark Easley and Pontiac chairman, Mrs. William Freyermuth. These women make some 1200 small neighborhood business calls in addtiion to their residential calls.

Report dates during the campaign are Oct. 18, 22, 25 and 28.

On Oct. 30 the women will climax their drive with a Victory luncheon at the Elks Temple. This is jointly sponsored by GMTC, Pontiac Motor and Fisher Body Division of General Motors.

Mild autumn weather makes the job more pleasurable. Pontiac Area United Fund solicitors here are (left) Mrs. Bruce Macdonald, Thorpe Street; and Mrs. James Hight, Mark Avenue.

Doing their good turn for the day are girl scout Gale Zollner and boy scout Bruce Zollner. They do the dishes to free their mother, Mrs. Bruce Zollner for United Fund soliciting. The Zollners live on Oneida Road.

Women's Section

Women's Club Discusses Plans

Mrs. Merrill D. Petrie, president of the Pontiac Federation of Women's Clubs, presided at the first meeting of the season at the Pemberton Road home of Mrs. E. G. Winn Monday.

Program chairman Mrs. Henry J. Healy introduced Wallace F. Watt, educational consultant of the Michigan Department of Mental Health Education at Lansing. Mr. Watt spoke to the group on "What's Ahead for Women Today?"

★ ★ ★

He compared the "dynastic" family of yester-year with today's "nuclear or atomic" family.

"Women's education almost equals that of men's today. After the family has been raised and left home, women can put their education to use in the educational field or in politics, thus fulfilling a need for both the individual and society," he said.

Mrs. Joseph Phillips reported on the recent "Golden Autumn Daze" benefit bridge party and style show.

Mrs. Paul Gorman, youth-education chairman, spoke on the need for a community college for the Pontiac area.

Defeated on the June ballot, it will be considered again and speakers will be available to explain both the proposal and the community's needs.

The Federation continues with its support of the USO and missile bases in the area, Mrs. Lewis Swartz reported.

Representatives were asked to stress the importance of the third Institute on Organizational Leadership to be held at Oakland University Nov. 9 to their respective clubs.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Charles Crawford is serving as cochairman of the institute, of which the Federation is a cosponsor.

Mrs. Petrie and Mrs. Richard Veazey are cochairmen on the program brochures committee and Mrs. David Saks will conduct the ways and means workshop.

As part of fine arts, Mrs. Maxwell Shadley reported on the Pontiac Symphony concerts and Town Hall series. Added attraction for Town Hall will be the Nov. 6 appearance of Meredith Wilson.

As a benefit for Hadassah, the new hospital in Jerusalem, the Pontiac chapter of Hadassah will present a concert by pianist Gabriel Shodos Nov. 19 at Pontiac Northern High School.

Host club for the meeting was the Italian American Club Auxiliary, with Mrs. Joseph Pollina as chairman.

Assisting her were Mrs. Sam Rotunda, Mrs. Ralph Mazza, Mrs. Carl Grassi, Mrs. Joseph Spadafore, Mrs. Albert DeSantis, Mrs. Roger Davis and Mrs. Frank Soda.

Mrs. Franklin Mills and Mrs. Shadley presided at the tea table. Mrs. Arnold Hillerman and Mrs. John Tstanis served as the welcoming committee.

Fall Dinner Introduces Members

Two new members were introduced at the annual fall dinner of the Junior Pontiac Women's club Monday evening at Airway Lounge.

Helen Kinney and Mabel Smith were welcomed into the group.

Mrs. James Clarkson, chairman of the project committee, exhibited items which are being sold.

Mrs. George Brinkman, program chairman, introduced Mrs. George Morrow who gave original readings.

Mrs. Russell Auten, chairman of the social committee, was assisted by Mrs. George H. Watters, club president and Mrs. A. J. Cadieux.

Mrs. G. Richard Jarvis, Mrs. Norman Bartell, Mrs. Ronald W. Hodge, Mrs. John Sheehan, Mrs. Russell French, Mrs. Donald Ely and Mrs. Bradley Scott were also on the social committee.

Thursday Set as Card Party Date

"Cards and Candles" card party of the Sylvan Manor Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the First Federal Savings of Oakland. Mrs. Ch. H. Kippenhan of Detroit will speak.

Mrs. Jerome K. Barry Jr., East Iroquois Road, leaves seven children at home when she works for the Pontiac Area United Fund; she is a Pontiac district chairman. The two girls standing on the porch are Michelle and Leona. Michael sits in front of Michelle and Mary Alice on the step. The three in front are Helene, Denise and Jerome III. Jerome looks worried.

Suspicious Husband Is Sick; He Needs Professional Help

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Please put this in the paper quick, as I am a wreck.

My husband doesn't trust anybody — not even me. Lately he's been buying his own groceries and cooking his own meals because he thinks I'm trying to poison him.

ABBY

He uses vile language, and he accuses me of the filthiest things. And after 43 years of love and faithfulness!

If there is a knock on the door, he goes with his pistol to answer it. He has spells and acts like his old sweet self for a day or two, then he starts in acting ugly again.

I'm afraid if I ask anyone for help they will lock him up. Please tell me what to do, but don't let on where this letter came from.

FRIGHTENED WOMAN

★ ★ ★

DEAR FRIGHTENED: Get your husband to a doctor if you have to call the sheriff or police to help you. He has the symptoms of a very sick man.

It is no disgrace to be sick, but it is disgraceful to delay treatment which could hasten your husband's recovery.

If he must be temporarily "locked up," to prevent his harming himself and/or others, it's a kindness to lock him up.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to ABBY, care of The Pontiac Press, for Abby's new booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

Symphony Begins 10th Season Tonight

The Pontiac Symphony Orchestra will begin its tenth season this evening at 8:30 p.m. at Pontiac Northern High School under the direction of Felix Resnick.

Featured artists will be the University of Michigan School of Music Harp Ensemble under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Dean Clark. The ensemble includes Ann Emby, Myrna Ascne, Marilyn Voege and Penny Hook.

The program will include "Overture—Merry Wives of Windsor," by Nicolai; Symphony No. 8—Unfinished, Allegro Moderato and Andanti Con Moto by Schubert; and "Minuet—Dance of the Sprites," "Dance of the Sylphs," and "March Hongroise," by Berlioz (three excerpts from the Damnation of Faust).

Other numbers are "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," Bach-Clark; "Largo" from Xerxes, Handel-Salzedo; "Danse Sacree," Debussy; "Clair de Lune," Debussy-Salzedo; "Malaguena," Lecuona-Andrews; and "Finlandia," Sibelius.

Handicapped to See Slides on Far East

A few years ago Clyde R. Haskill traveled to the Philippines to present the people of that country with a hospital plane on behalf of the people of the Pontiac area.

While in that part of the world he photographed slides which are entitled "A New Look at the Far East."

★ ★ ★

On Oct. 22 at 7:45 p.m. Mr. Haskill will show his slides to the Tuesday Niters Physically Handicapped club members and their parents in the club rooms at Mark Twain School.

All area handicapped young adults are invited to attend. The club is sponsored by the Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation.

Olympic Bid Meeting Topic

Detroit's bid for the 1968 Olympic Games site will be the topic for Jack Wilson, Michigan Bell Telephone Company, at the Thursday noon luncheon meeting of the Zonta Club of Pontiac.

A film supporting Detroit's bid will also be shown at the meeting to be held at the Huron Bowl.

Michigan Trip Set for Couple

Margaret Ann Poynter exchanged recent vows with Walter F. Cooley before Rev. Ralph Claus in St. Trinity Lutheran Church before leaving for their honeymoon in northern Michigan.

At the reception in the AMVETS Hall, were the newlyweds and their parents, the Milton Poynters of Churchill Road and the Floyd B. Cooleys of South Squirrel Road.

Hand-clipped white Chantilly lace over taffeta with tulle back ruffles fashioned the bride's gown, worn with nylon tulle veil and pearl tiara. She held cascading white roses, carnations and Stephanotis, with ivy.

Her maid of honor, Janice Ambrose, Auburn Heights, appeared in a bouffant gown of mint green taffeta and held a colonial bouquet of matching carnations combined with white.

★ ★ ★

Bridesmaids, Mrs. Robert Arseneault wore emerald green taffeta and Mrs. Lynn Arft of Birmingham, mermaid green.

On the esquire side were best man, Duane Lau of Utica and ushers, Robert Carlson and Dale Wightman.

The couple will reside on Crooks Road.

MRS. W. F. COOLEY

Kappa Delta to Celebrate Anniversary

Kappa Delta sorority will observe the 66th anniversary of its founding at 8 p.m. October 21 at the Wayne State University Alumni House with a dessert tea.

Members of Gamma Omicron chapter at Wayne will be guests of the four Detroit area alumnae groups, one of which is the South Oakland Alumnae Association.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Glenn Hunter of Detroit is chairman with Mrs. Gerald Stone of Royal Oak assisting.

Guests will include Mrs. John M. Clarke of Birmingham, province alumnae officer; and Mrs. Donald L. Weldon of Bloomfield Hills, province chapter president.

Hang Wash On Cold Sunny Day

Women who prefer "open air" drying say that a sunny cold day is a good day for hanging out the wash.

Remember their tips for winter-time line drying: wash wire clotheslines with steel wool, followed by a sudsy cloth; tuck a hot water bottle into the clothespin bag to keep your hands warm; suds and rinse clothespins, then soak them in a salt solution so they won't freeze to the clothes; and take the laundry in as soon as it is dry enough to iron.

Chapter Meets

Luncheon was served before the first fall meeting of Chapter CL, PEO Sisterhood Monday afternoon.

Assisting the hostess, Mrs. Howard O'Toole, Pontiac Lake Road, were Elda Sutter, Mrs. B. M. Mitchell, Mrs. L. W. Rowley and Mrs. Carmi J. Odell.

★ ★ ★

During the meeting plans were made to entertain husbands at dinner Saturday evening at Devon Gables. Speaker will be Mrs. Jack Mayer, Sandusky, Ohio, mother of last year's Miss America.

Plan Illinois Home

The Church of St. Stanislaus Kosta in Chicago was the setting for the recent vows of Norma Jeanne Roughton to Stanley James Brodzik III.

Parents of the Chicago couple are the Frederick Roughtons of Joyce Street and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Brodzik Jr. of Chicago.

A bouffant gown of sequined Chantilly lace and tulle over white satin for the bride, swept into a cathedral train. Her tiered veil of English illusion was fitted to a jeweled tiara.

Mary, Patricia and Carol Roughton attended their sister as maid of honor, bridesmaid and junior maid, respectively. From Chicago were bridesmaids Mrs. Kenneth Prechodka and Linda Brodzik.

They wore turquoise satin sheaths with bell overskirts and carried turquoise-tipped white roses repeated in the bride's bouquet with white orchid center.

Susan Roughton was her sister's flower girl.

Best man was Edward Konkal with Thomas Waszak, Kenneth Prechodka and Michael Cosgrove seating guests. All are Chicagoans.

A brunch in the Skokie, Ill. home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Robert Rosenbaum, followed the ceremony. The evening reception was held in Wonderland Ballroom, Chicago.

The couple will live in Chicago on their return from a honeymoon at Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

MRS. S. J. BRODZIK III

Noted Artist to Speak

Robert A. Thom, noted artist-historian, will be guest speaker when Waterford Township Friends of the Library hold their second annual meeting Nov. 12.

The event will be held in the CAI building at 8 p.m.

Mr. Thom, who has received international recognition for his histories of pharmacy and medicine in pictures, will speak on "Behind the Scenes of History."

Mrs. John F. Naz is general chairman of the affair. Mrs. Douglass McGinley is in charge of invitations, Mrs. Millard James, posters; Mrs. Paul Atkins and Mrs. James E. Robinson, membership and mailing list; Mrs. Gerald Lewis, library display; and Mrs. E. L. Windeler, publicity.

Mrs. Minor White, Jr. is tea chairman. She is being assisted by Mrs. C. J. Mumby, Mrs. F. H. O. Warner, Mrs. William Shunck, Mrs. Angus Miller III, Mrs. William Weaver and Mrs. Robert Kaminskis.

Fires Hazardous

In 1962, 11,800 persons died in fires and property dollar losses rose to more than $1 billion, says the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

Cape Cod Highlights Eastern Honeymoon

The Gerald L. Schedlbowers (Kay Marie McMorris), wed recently in St. Benedict Church, will visit Cape Cod while honeymooning in the New England States.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Donald O. McMorris of Woodlow Street were hosts at their daughter's wedding breakfast in the Villa Inn, Lake Orion, also the evening reception in the CAI Building.

Re-embroidered Alencon lace accented the bride's gown of white peau de soie worn with pearl tiara and veil of silk illusion. She held a semi-cascade bouquet of white roses.

★ ★ ★

Wearing floor-length avocado green peau taffeta were Janet McMorris, her sister's honor maid, and bridesmaids, Mrs. Michael Jerome, Anaheim, Calif. and Mrs. Patrick Stapleton of Caro. They carried gold chrysanthemums on oak leaves.

The bridegroom, son of the John Schedlbowers of West End Avenue, had his cousin, Charles Schedlbower, for best man. Michael Shagena of Lake Orion and Gary Jackson ushered.

The bride was graduated from the Shapero School of Nursing, Detroit, and her husband from Lawrence Institute of Technology. They will live on Spokane Drive.

Shirley Anne Long Weds K. R. Coleman

White Fuji chrysanthemums and greens adorned the Central Methodist Church for the recent marriage of Shirley Anne Long to Kenneth Robert Coleman before Dr. Milton H. Bank.

The Elwood F. Cochranes of Scott Lake Road were hosts at a church reception honoring her daughter and the sone of th eClair C. Colemans of Beaver Springs, Pa.

White peau de soie for the bride's floor - length gown was designed with scalloped scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. A matching pillbox held her silk illusion veil. White Fuji chrysanthemums and Snowdrift pompons topped her white prayer book.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. William Price III of Los Angeles attended as honor matron, wearing carol peau de soie. Her flowers were yellow roses and white daisy chrysanthemums.

On the esquire side were Donald E. Coleman of Lewisburg, Pa., his brother's best man and Ronald E. Cochrane who seated the guests.

The bride is a graduate of St. Lawrence Hospital School of Nursing, Lansing and her husband is an alumnus of Pennsylvania State University.

The couple will tour the western states en route to their future home in Los Angeles.

The engagement is announced of Sharon Lee Piantkowski, daughter of Mrs. Joe Erris of East Howard Street, to Wendell E. Hutchinson, son of the Everett Hutchinsons of Woodlawn Avenue.

Boys' Club Reception Follows Rites

A reception in the Auburn Heights Boys' Club followed the recent nuptials of Terrie June Kruskie to John Kent Taugner in St. Andrew's Catholic Church, Rochester.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kruskie of Rochester and the Chris Taugners of Oxford.

A bouffant veil of illusion fitted to a pearl-embroidered pillbox complemented the bride's gown of white silk brocade, styled with sweep train. Her bouquet of white roses and stephanotis was arranged in cascade.

Wearing cranberry red tissue taffeta were maid of honor Kathy Rudolph, of Rochester, with bridesmaids Mrs. Joseph Kaffenberger of Oxford and Mrs. Charles Slocum of Lansing. They carried red-tipped white carnations.

From Oxford were David Sweeney, best man, and Thomas Strong who ushered with Rodney Kruskie, brother of the bride.

MRS. J. K. TAUGNER

After a northern Michigan honeymoon, the couple will be at home on Hudson Street.

Jerseys for Infants

The infant who wants to look like a football player — to please Pop — now can. A new diaper set has a jersey top that's fashioned along lines of a gridiron jersey.

There are an average of 25 infant deaths per 1,000 live births in the United States compared to 20 per 1,000 in the Netherlands, Sweden, Norway, Finland and Australia.

Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Another baby on the way? If you plan to have cherub #1 spend your hospital time at grandmother's, it's a good idea to let him (or her) try a couple of overnight visits during the last part of your waiting period. Comes the day of your departure, he will have become accustomed to the idea and will probably accept it more readily.

Bedtime story. If your youngest child is still using the crib, you'll want to transfer him to a regular bed well before the arrival of the newcomer. (If you have to give a reason for the move, try the bit about being more "grown-up" now.) By giving your child time to get used to the new bed, he'll be less likely to resent the newcomer taking over the crib.

Early words. As you know, one of the earliest additions to a new baby's all-milk diet is a special baby juice to provide vitamin C. You may have started your first child on orange juice. But do you know that Gerber Apple Juice is also an ideal starting juice? Ever so delicate in flavor, it's well-tolerated by babies and enriched with vitamin C to the same high level found in Gerber Orange Juice.

Tactful tactics. You can often diminish resistance to the new baby by suggesting that big brother or sister share in the care of the "intruder." Jealousy can also be held in abeyance by saving billing and cooing over the new baby for times when junior's out of sight.

Special information dept. When baby is ready for strained foods, it should be reassuring to know that when you give him Gerber, you give him quality. All Gerber Baby Foods are "custom-cooked" according to their own requirements. This simply means that different foods require different cooking methods to insure tasteful, nourishing products. But whatever method is used, cooking times and temperatures are controlled to protect flavors and colors and preserve the utmost in precious food values. Gerber Baby Foods, Box 72, Fremont, Mich.

Junior Editors Quiz on FIRE

QUESTION: Why does water quench fire, since its parts, oxygen and hydrogen, make fire?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: It's true that water is one part ogygen and two parts hydrogen; also true that fire is the result of the oxygen gas in the air combining with the carbon or other organic substances in the fuel being burned.

But the oxygen in the air is a gas or very light state of matter, while the oxygen in water has combined with hydrogen to make water, which is a different state of matter, a liquid.

For fire, there must be, first, some fuel which will burn. Second, this fuel must be heated to what is called its "kindling point." Third, there must be plenty of free gaseous oxygen to unite with the fuel.

In the diagram, you will see that paper must be heated to 363 degrees F. before it will burn and the kindling point of wood is still higher.

But notice that the hottest water can get, under ordinary pressure, is 212 degrees. This means that the boy in our picture is throwing water with a low temperature on fire with a very much higher one.

The water instantly lowers the fuel below the temperature at which it burns and the fire goes out.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Follow the example of Jack in our picture if you're about to leave a camp fire. He's lowering the fuel's temperature below its kindling point so there's no chance of any more fire.

Nation's Business Hits Record Rate

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

GOING UP: Business expansion apparently has reached a record rate of national output exceeding $587 billion a year, government sources report.

The gains in the summer quarter surprised the president's Council of Economic Advisers and were the basis for Chairman Walter W. Heller's prediction last week that national output would top the $600 billion a year mark early in 1964.

The third quarter rise was believed to have been greater than that of the first half of the year which averaged a bit better than $7 billion a quarter and brought the production rate close to $580 billion in the April-June quarter.

WHEAT DEAL: A wheat state senator has suggested that the Senate Foreign Relations Committee take a good look at Soviet purchases of U.S. wheat, and weigh the benefits here against the benefits there.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., made the suggestion in a newsletter to his constituents.

★ ★ ★

"Does the benefit to our country and to the free world pale to insignificance as compared to the benefit realized by the Soviet Union through receipt of a sorely needed commodity to shore up its economy at the weakest point and to allow the Communists to avoid diverting efforts from a variety of tactics, such as subversion, infiltration and guerrilla warfare, aimed at world domination?" he asked.

Last week President Kennedy gave the go-ahead for sales of American wheat to the Russians by private U.S. dealers. Russian representatives are on the way to negotiate the deal.

ONASSIS: Rep. Oliver P. Bolton, R-Ohio, has questioned whether it is proper for Mrs. John F. Kennedy "to accept the lavish hospitality of a foreign individual whose shipping interests... receive favored treatment from the U.S. government."

His statement referred to Aristotle Onassis, Greek shipowner on whose yacht "Christina" Mrs. Kennedy sailed the Mediterranean.

Bolton said the Onassis interests got a 20-million windfall as a result of special permission from the Maritime Administration to transfer 14 ships from American to foreign registry. The same interests, he said, have four large tankers benefitting from government mortgage guarantees.

GENERAL ANILINE: A U.S. District Court here has been asked to approve an arrangement that would enable the government to sell the General Aniline & Film Corp., seized in 1942 as a German asset.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said he hopes the company, which manufactures chemicals and dyes, can be sold and returned to private ownership within the next few months.

Under the proposed arrangement, the government and the Swiss firm Interhandel would split the profits from sale of General Aniline. If the sale is for $300 million, the government would get about $190 million.

Interhandel protested the seizure of the firm, contending that it owned 89 per cent of the stock involved and as a non-enemy Swiss firm was not subject to the "trading with the enemy act" under which it was seized.

The government said Interhandel was a front for the vast German industrial complex, I. G. Farben-Industrie.

No News Conference

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy will not hold a news conference this week. He met with reporters last Wednesday.

The year 1962 saw thefts at an all-time high, according to Secretary Ray M. King of the National Automobile Theft Bureau. Nearly 1,000 cars were stolen every day.

Building Plans Set

Group Forms Swim Club

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—Families in four subdivisions here are looking for others who share their interest in swimming.

They are attempting to organize a club and build the first community pool in the township.

The facilities of the Orchard Valley Swimming Club are to be built on a five-acre parcel of property east of Orchard Lake Road and north of 14-Mile.

* * *

DRIVE STARTS

The approximately 40 families now backing the club will begin a membership drive tomorrow night.

Kickoff meeting is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. at Ward Eagle School, 14-Mile and Middlebelt. There, particulars will be explained to all interested persons.

The 300-family membership will be drawn from the 1,000 homes in Kimberley North, Briarcliff, Franklin Valley and Franklin Knoll subdivisions.

Once the charter members have signed up, the private club should have a five-year waiting list, according to Charles McPhee, president of the organizational committee.

CONSTRUCTION SLATED

Plans call for construction to begin as soon as the club's financial success is guaranteed, hopefully this fall. Members are looking forward to a spring opening.

Focal point of the plans is a junior olympic swimming pool with L-shaped diving area and two diving towers. A separate wading pool will also be provided.

The bathhouse will be colonial in design. It will face a large parking area.

* * *

The blueprint could be enlarged to include several other items. Expansion will add tennis, badminton and shuffleboard courts and recreation and picnic areas.

MORE FEATURES

Ice skating is another possibility, with the bathhouse doubling as a warming shelter in the winter.

The pool will be built by Baughman and Bigelow of Detroit.

Committee members working with McPhee on organizing the club are Richard Johnson, vice president; Mrs. George Sirko, secretary; and Robert Otstot, treasurer.

Orion Lions Will Hear Industrialist

LAKE ORION — Former Congressman Alvin M Bentley will be guest of honor and speaker at tomorrow's dinner meeting of the Lake Orion Lions Club.

Bentley, an Owosso industrialist, will discuss project HOPE and show a film of the hospital ship's visit to Peru last year.

Members of the Oxford Lions Club are also expected to attend the meeting.

* * *

State chairman of Project HOPE, Bentley has organized eight local chapters of the organization.

BEGAN IN '58

The word "HOPE" stands for Health Opportunity for People Everywhere. The program began in 1958. Its purpose is to offer medical care from the people of the United States to those in the newly developing nations of the world.

Home base for the organization is a reconverted Navy hospital ship. Since its inception the program has provided assistance to the people of Indonesia, Viet Nam and Peru.

Next month the ship and its volunteer physicians will go to Ecuador.

* * *

Tomorrow's program begins at 7 p.m in the First Federal Savings and Loan Building.

Rights Group Faces Court

Detroiters Charged for Olympic Jeers

DETROIT (AP) — Six civil rights demonstrators were charged yesterday with disturbing the peace at the finish of Detroit's Olympic torch cross-country run Friday.

Warrants against the six, identified by police as members of groups active in civil rights, were issued on cer-ommendation of Prosecutor Samuel D. Olsen.

Demonstrators booed during the playing of the Star Spangled Banner by the Detroit police band and jeered speakers and Negro athlete Hayes Jones.

* * *

Jones, a 1960 Olympic hurdles medal winner, carried the torch the last mile on its 2,500-mile trip by relay runners from Los Angeles in Detroit's dramatization of its effort to win the 1968 summer Olympic games.

Named in the charges, a misdemeanor, were David Niederhouser, about 30, identified as a member of CORE (Congress on Racial Equality), and Luke S. Tripp Jr., 22; John Williams, 25; John Watson, 19; General Baker Jr., 20; and Gwendolyn Kemp, 18, all of Detroit.

The charge provides maximum penalties of a $100 fine and 90 days in jail upon conviction.

Police said Tripp is president of Uhuru, a Negro organization, and Miss Kemp treasurer. Williams, Watson and Baker are Uhuru members, police said.

Bids Awarded in Clarkston

Building Will Start on 16-Room School

CLARKSTON — The board of education last night awarded bids on the new 16-room elementary school on Pine Knob Road north of Clarkston - Orion Road.

Construction is expected to start within 10 days. Completion is slated for Aug. 15, 1964.

Total cost of the school building is estimated at $425,000. It will have a capacity of 480-500 students.

* * *

The school will be financed from funds and accumulated interest left over from the $2.5 million bond issue for the high school building.

CONTRACT AWARDED

Bersche Construction Co., of Pontiac was awarded the general contract for $261,000.

Eames & Brown Co., also of Pontiac was awarded the mechanical trades contract for $86,210. The electrical trades contract was awarded to Reed Electric Co., of Waterford Township for $29,951.

* * *

The school will be located on a 20-acre site, which was formerly a part of the George Miller farm.

Utica Gets New Clerk

UTICA — Mrs. Eunice Kopietz, a 44-year-old mother of five, completed her first day as Utica city clerk yesterday, replacing Mrs. Pauline Kraft.

Mrs. Kraft resigned for health reasons.

* * *

Mrs. Kopietz is a former employe of the Detroit city controller's office and transferred to her new position from a bookkeeping job at the Metropolitan Federal Savings Bank here.

She lives at 46024 Hecker.

Romeo Voters Renew Levy

ROMEO — By an almost 3-to-1 margin, voters here yesterday approved renewal of a four-mill operational levy requested by the school board.

With few more than 300 of some 2,500 qualified electors in the school district turning out, the issue was okayed 223 yes to 76 no.

Precinct 3, which includes the district's rural areas, rejected the renewal, 22 to 14, while precinct 1 (the village) endorsed it, 156 to 48, and precinct 2 (Washington) voted 53 yes, 6 no.

WILL CONTINUE

Requested was renewal of a four-mill levy begun in 1954 and expiring this year. It will now continue for five more years.

With approval of the issue, the Romeo School District will retain its power to levy up to 11 mills.

In previous years less than nine of the authorized mills were required, and it is expected this year's figure will run very close to 9.39 mills, according to Schools Supt. T. C. Filppula.

The tax rate of 23.28 mills will remain steady.

Rochester Asks Site Plan, Rejects All Garage Bids

ROCHESTER — In a relatively brief meeting last night, the Village Council rejected all bids for construction of the $55,000 DPW garage and requested a site plan of the proposed Avon Playhouse.

Opening the five bids for the garage, to be located on Wilcox north of Woodward, the council found that of Frank Rewold & Sons, at $65,575, to be lowest.

However, it was still too far above the village engineer's estimated cost of about $55,000.

Consequently the council has ordered that new building specifications be drawn up and that new bids be presented.

* * *

Present plans call for a building with steel-arched framework — and concrete - block construction. Its 7,000 square feet of space will include DPW offices.

SITE PLAN

Before adjourning about 9:30 p.m., the council also requested the Avon Playhouse Corp. to come up with a site plan for the proposed playhouse.

The organization is considering building on the village's 14-acre tract northeast of the municipal building.

Council last month appointed a five-man committee to meet with corporation representatives and to determine the feasibility of constructing the theater on the civic center property.

It is expected that plans for the building, when submitted to the council, will be turned over to the village planning commission to insure that they are compatible with village ideas for the municipal site.

The playhouse corporation presently owns land on the west side of Washington Road just north of Tienken. Original plans called for construction of a $35,000, 300-seat theater there.

* * *

Although the group is now considering locating on the village property, it has not abandoned its former plans. It has, however, given up hope of constructing the playhouse this year.

Evangelist to Talk at Avon Church

AVON TOWNSHIP — A former minister to troops of the Nationalist Chinese Army will speak nightly at the Elmwood Methodist Church, starting Sunday.

Jack Cochrane, an evangelist who has preached in 40 different countries, will be featured at 7 p.m. meetings through Oct. 27.

A native of Ireland, Rev. Cochrane is president of the High School Evangelism Association. He presently lives in Dearborn.

* * *

The church, located at 3282 S. Grant, will be open to the public.

Nightly Bible Hours Scheduled by Church

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP — Puppets, ventriloquism and "Freddie the dummy," will all be featured at a series of nightly Bible hours at the Drayton Heights Free Methodist Church next week.

Beginning Oct. 20, the meetin from 7 to 8 p.m., will continue through Oct. 25. The church is located at Maybee and Wineel. Supervising the sessions will be Miss Julia Mae Weber, of Seattle, Wash.

BARBARA JANE DUNCAN

The engagement of Barbara Jane Duncan to Frederick Norman Sanders is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mervel Duncan, 11 Center, Oxford. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Norman Sanders, 17 East, Oxford. An Aug. 1 wedding is planned.

2 Commerce Twp. Men Killed in Auto Accidents

Two Commerce Township men were killed in separate automobile accidents yesterday afternoon.

Eighteen-year-old Charles A. Thompson, 9175 Commerce, was killed when his car hit a tree beside West Maple in West Bloomfield Township.

Last Year to Date 73

Waford H. Kilburn, 46, of 250 Harpham died three hours after being taken to St. Mary's Hospital in Livonia. His car had collided with another one at the corner of Edward Hines Drive and Northville Road in Plymouth Township.

Thompson, a student at Lawrence Institute of Technology, Southfield, was passing a car when his vehicle swerved off the left side of the road and then over to the right, hitting a tree, according to West Bloomfield Township police.

A passenger, Gay Hall of 4100 Van Stone, was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital with possible head injuries. He was listed in satisfactory condition this morning.

* * *

FAILS TO OBSERVE

Kilburn's car collided with one driven by Mrs. Russell Case Jr. of Media, Pa., according to state police at the Redford post. They said Mrs. Case had failed to observe a stop sign.

Bobby Turner, 27, of 150 N. Haven, Walled Lake, was a passenger in Kilburn's car. He was admitted to St. Mary's Hospital with head injuries.

Both accidents happened shortly after 3 p.m.

NEWS OF THE AREA

Joyce Wood Wed at Lake Orion

MRS. GERALD PICEU

BRANDON TOWNSHIP — White chrysanthemums and gladioli graced the altar of St. Joseph Church, Lake Orion, for the Saturday wedding of Joyce Wood and Gerald Piceu.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. Wood, 5030 Granger. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Piceu of Detroit.

The bride chose a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace featuring long pointed sleeves and a scalloped neckline trimmed with white sequins. The bell-shaped skirt ended in a chapel train.

* *

Her tulle veil was secured by a seed pearl and crystal crown. She carried a cascade of pompons and roses centered with white Fugi chrysanthemums.

Barbara Lupp of Oxford was matron of honor while Claudia Wood, sister of the bride, and Lucille Verduyn, cousin of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids.

Flower girls were Lynn and Laurie Geda of Lapeer, cousins of the bride.

* *

Serving as best man was Ronald Haberski of Detroit. The guests were seated by Ensign Thomas Oprian, of the Navy Air Force, Memphis, Tenn.; James Lenning and Ronald Palmarion, both of Detroit; and Bryce Wood, brother of the bride.

Gary Wood, also a brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

After a reception in the K. of C. Hall, Oxford, the newlyweds left for a two-week honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania.

'M-Night' Is Readied by Jaycees

A series of membership meetings of district 10 Junior Chamber of Commerce units will be launched at 8 p.m. today when Lake Orion Jaycees hold their "M-Night."

Similar meetings are planned tomorrow night in Clarkston and Nov. 6 in Rochester.

Dieter Kubisch of the Lake Orion Jaycees will outline the organization's activities to prospective members at the Orion Youth Center, 102 S. Broadway.

Clarkston Area Jaycees and new prospects will hold a 7 p.m. dinner meeting at the Independense Township Hall. Ralph Chambers, district 10 membership chairman, will be the main speaker.

Russ Bennett, president of the Rochester Jaycees, will preside at his group's Nov. 6 membership meeting at 270 Winry.

Rosemary King Wed to M. Joseph Willett

DAVISBURG — Announcement is made of the recent marriage of Rosemary King and M. Joseph Willett in Lake Orion Church of God.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl King, 8555 Tindall. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Millard Willett of Davison.

Avon Unit to Stage 'Seven Year Itch'

ROCHESTER — "The Seven Year Itch" to be presented here twice this week will be a starring vehicle for a pair of veterans of two area players' groups.

Duane Utech of the Avon Players is cast in the lead role made famous by Tom Ewell on both stage and screen.

* * *

His feminine counterpart, Nancy Rivard of the Utica Community Players, plays the part which was portrayed in the movies by the late Marilyn Monroe.

The romantic three-act comedy will be staged by the Avon Players Friday and Saturday evenings in Central Junior High School.

Curtain time is 8:30 both nights.

* * *

Utech last delighted local audiences as Ensign Pulver in the local players' success, "Mister Roberts," a year ago.

INITIAL APPEARANCE

Nanci Rivard is making her initial appearance with the Avon group, as is seven-year-old Jimmy Keena, who has a bit part in a dream sequence.

Jimmy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Keena, 1365 W. Tienken. His father, a former president of the Avon Players and many-time director of local productions, has charge of lighting for this play.

Others in the cast include Johnnie and Jim Reynolds, Gwynn Williams, Adele Carraher, Gloria Lusk, Glenna Dupuie and Jane Ramsey.

Director is George Long.

* * *

Tickets can be purchased from any member of the Avon Players, at Morley's or Hunter's drug stores or at the door.

FIGHTING MAD—Heavyweight Tom McNeeley is fighting mad as he argues with handlers and a police sergeant during the aftermath of his bout with 6-7 Hawaiian Kolu Sabedong at Boston last night. McNeeley was awarded the victory in the second round when the Hawaiian failed to heed the referee's warnings about low blows. Two of McNeeley's brothers, Brian and Kevin, stormed into the ring and joined Tom in trying to pummel Sabedong.

'M', Spartans Resume Work

Pass Lesson for Juday

EAST LANSING (AP) — "We certainly have to improve our passing," admitted Duffy Daugherty.

The Michigan State football boss made the remark as he looked ahead to this Saturday's game against Indiana.

Showing how concerned he is about the passing, Daugherty had quarterback Steve Juday of Northville throwing in a scrimmage session Monday afternoon. The rest of the regulars were excused from the hitting session.

The Hoosiers, although three-time losers this season, have stopped opponent running attacks, Daugherty noted.

"The only thing that has hurt them is passing," he said.

Michigan State's passing has been disappointing. Juday has hit 15 of 44 tries for 240 yards. He also has four interceptions.

Alternate quarterback Dick Proebstle has only one hit in six pass tries. Sherm Lewis, the little handyman of the MSU offense has completed one of two.

This is the sum and total of the Spartan aerial attack so far this season.

Daugherty said he thought he has spotted one fault in Juday's passing that is correctable.

"He has been releasing the ball too low," Daugherty observed.

So you can be sure the coaches are going to be working on that flaw this week.

GOOD DEFENSE

Daugherty said he is pleased with the Michigan State defense. The Spartans have held opponents to only 212 yards rushing while going for 538 yards in their ground game.

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — The talk is about football again in Ann Arbor these days — and it's such sweet talk.

Before the season started, there was unusual apathy on the Michigan campus.

It was figured that there's no use in getting hopes up too high just to see them dashed.

There was even a lot of talk about the Wolverine basketball team, which is heralded as possibly the best cage team to come out of Michigan in a generation.

But now everyone is talking about the football team after the 7-7 tie with arch-rival Michigan State Saturday has broke a four-game losing string at the hands of the Spartans.

* * *

The enthusiasm is so high that it's almost hard to believe the Wolverines didn't win the game.

Of course, no one expects a sensational season. The Wolverines are 1-1-1 right now and may wind up at the .500 mark.

But the Wolverines are convinced that the days of last year, when the club went three straight games without scoring a point and took some brutal beatings, are finally over.

* * *

There was another encouraging point for the Wolverines who will entertain Purdue (1-2) here Saturday — they got through a bruising defensive game without suffering any major injuries.

Seaholm Jumps in Grid Poll

That big victory by Birmingham Seaholm over previously unbeaten Ferndale resulted in the two teams practically exchanging places in the weekly Associated Press prep poll.

The Maples returned to the top ten among Class A. schools, jumping from 16th to 7th place while Ferndale fell from sixth to 18th place.

* * *

While all three leading teams remained the same, only Class A Flint Central found its position any stronger than it was last week. The Indians say their lead over Bay City Central improved from eight to 15 points in the voting.

Bad Axe in Class B and Kalamazoo St. Augustine in C-D had a few points trimmed from their lead. The three first place teams all have 5-0 records for the season.

Other Oakland County schools drawing support were Walled Lake which advanced one berth to 11th in the "A" poll, West Bloomfield remained 7th in the "B" listing, although Royal Oak Shrine fell from 9th to 13th and Clawson tumbled five places to 17th.

Southern Thumb leader New Haven lost 14 points and now is tied for 4th position in the Class C-D voting.

Biggest jump in Class B was made by Willow Run, which the APs statewide panel of sports writers and sportscasters placed in the No. 2 spot following a victory last Friday over River Rouge.

Missing from the top 10 for the first time this year is defending champion Galesburg-Augusta.

Fifth last week, it was among the also rans after dropping its second game last Friday.

Masters' Veteran Dies During Night

DETROIT (AP)—Horton Smith, a member of the professional Golf Association's Hall of Fame and a participant in every Masters Tournament, lost a remarkable six-year battle to illness today.

The 55-year-old winner of the first Masters succumbed to Hodgkins disease at 12:05 a.m. He collapsed yesterday in his car en route to see his physician.

Smith had just returned from attending the English-American Ryder Cup matches at Atlanta, Ga., where he collapsed on the first tee Sunday, but came back to see the finish of play in a motorized cart.

HORTON SMITH
Every Masters Tournament

Smith was a member of seven U.S. Ryder Cup teams, and never lost a match against the British. He won the first Masters in 1934, repeated in 1936, and played in all of them although he had to go part way in 1963 in a cart.

* * *

Cancer forced removal of a lung in 1957, and in 1960 he received the Ben Hogan award for overcoming illness. Hodgkins disease is characterized by enlargement of the lymphatic glands and spleen, with progressive enemia.

Smith was president of the Professional Golfers Association three years, 1952-54, and was the 20th golfer elected to the PGA Hall of Fame in 1958.

He was made an honorary life member of the British PGA in 1959, and in 1962 he received the Bobby Jones award of the United States Golf Association for distinguished sportsmanship.

Jones once said of Smith, "There is no way to measure what he has done for the game. He has the most belligerent dedication to golf of anyone I've ever known."

* * *

The handsome, 6-foot-1 Smith was born in Springfield, Mo., May 22, 1908, and took up golf at the age of 11. After two years at Missouri State Teachers College, he left school to make a career of golf with his older brother, Ren.

DETROIT CC PRO

At the time of his death, Smith was professional at the Detroit Golf Club, where he took over in 1946 after five years in the Air Force, which he entered as a private and left as a captain.

It was at the Oak Hill Country Club at Joplin, Mo., in 1928 that he acquired the nickname, "Joplin Ghost," through a string of electrifying tournament victories.

He was golfdom's leading money winner in 1929 with $15,500, and again in depression-ridden 1936 with $7,862.

LAST DEFEAT

Smith beat his room mate, Jones, in the 1930 Savannah Open, the last defeat the Georgian suffered before scoring his "grand slam," the Open and Amateur championships of both the United States and Great Britain.

* * *

Smith won the French Open championship on his 21st birthday. And when chosen at 20 for the Ryder Cup team he became the youngest U.S. golfer ever selected for it.

He registered 11 holes - in-one, the first giving him victory over Tommy Armour and Ed Dudley in the 1928 Oklahoma City Open.

He had served as pro at 10 clubs, having begun at Springfield Country Club as an assistant in 1926 and winning the assistants' championship of the midwest.

Other clubs he served were in Sedalia, Jefferson City, Joplin and California, Mo.; Cragston, N.Y.; Oak Hill, Ill., and Pinehurst, N.C.

He and Barbara Bourne, now Mrs. John Von Schlegell of Pinehurst, N.C., were married in 1928 and later divorced. A son, Alfred, is a student at Georgia Tech. Other survivors include his brother and his mother.

Vaulter Pennel First at Tokyo

Hamori Gives Yanks 1st in Sabre Event

TOKYO (AP) — John Pennel, the world's first 17-foot pole vaulter, cleared only 15 feet 7½ inches today but won the gold medal in his specialty at Tokyo's International Sports Week.

Pennel, a Northeast Louisiana State athlete from Miami, Fla., tied with Wolfgang Reinhardt of Germany but won on the fewest misses. The U.S. ace cleared the bar on the first jump while the German didn't get over until his second try. Pennel's pending world record is 17-feet-¾.

Jeff Julian, 27-year-old bank clerk from New Zealand, won the marathon in two hours, 18.6 minutes as Peter McArdle, the U. S. representative from New York, finished 30th in 2:44:44.6.

Eugene Hamori of Philadelphia picked up another gold medal for the United States by winning the sabre event in the fencing competition. Michale Dasaro of New York was third back of Japan's Mitsuyuki Funamizu.

A brilliant swimming performance put Sweden's modern pentathlon team ahead with only one more event — the cross country run-to go. The Swedes had 10,694 points with the U.S. second with 10,504.

Family, Desire Spur Freshman Tackle, 27

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Charles Johnson is a 27-year-old college freshman football player with a wife and 12 kids to cheer him on.

He also has an 80-acre farm with pigs, cows, sheep and a horse.

Chuck is a new student at American River Junior College near Sacramento — the first step in his long-delayed goal of becoming a school teacher.

He's a starting defensive tackle on the Beavers football team manned, for the most part, by boys up to nine years his junior.

"They call me pappy," says the 5-9, 234-pound Johnson, "but the only time my age really bothers me is when we have to do the long distance runs. That's the only time I lag behind."

Chuck and his wife, Tenia, 27, were married when they were 15. They have six children of their own — Judith, 10; Sue, 7; Connie, 5; Stanley, 4; Steven, 3, and Carney, a seven-month-old boy.

Six other youngsters live with them, teen-age boys released to their custody from the county juvenile hall.

LIVE AT RANCH

The boys live at the ranch on the outskirts of Sacramento. The Johnsons like youngsters and think the farm makes a good home for them.

"I've been trying to go back to school for nine years," he said. "What really fired me up was when my church, started talking about opening a Christian school in Sacramento. I want to be a teacher."

Midgets Set Night Games

Midget football will be in the floodlights tomorrow night when 28 grade school teams co-sponsored by the city recreation department and the Junior Chamber of Commerce cavort at Wisner Stadium.

The first games will begin at 6 p.m. Two contests will be played at once, each game requiring 45 yards of playing field and two 12-minute halves.

There will be 18 teams from the lightweight division and 10 heavyweight squads.

Texas No. 1 on Gridiron

By The Associated Press

The Texas Longhorns, who have worked their way up step by step, took over the No. 1 spot today in the Associated Press poll of the nation's college football teams, leading a wholesale shuffling resulting from last weekend's stunning upsets.

The Longhorns finally climbed into the top spot by knocking off Oklahoma 28-7 Saturday. The Sooners had been rated the No. 1 team in the country going into the game.

Texas, rated No. 5 in the pre-season balloting headed by 1962 national champion Southern California, made the top after moving a step at a time up the ladder.

The Longhorns were fourth in the first regular poll, third in the next, and second a week ago. Oklahoma, leader for the past two weeks, skidded to No. 6.

The special panel of sports writers and broadcasters gave Texas 51 out of 55 first-place votes, after wading through the weekend wreckage that showed defeat for five of the teams in last week's top ten.

1.	Texas (51) 4-0	546
2.	Wisconsin (4) 3-0	487
3.	Pittsburgh 3-0	412
4.	Ohio State 2-0-1	238
5.	Mississippi 2-0-1	214
6.	Oklahoma 3-1	191
7.	Illinois 2-0-1	147
8.	Georgia Tech 3-1	146
9.	Alabama 3-1	145

Plays Clawson Wednesday

Crucial Test for Rochester

OAKLAND A	League W	League L	League T	Total W	Total L	Total T
Troy	4	0	0	4	1	0
Fitzgerald	4	0	0	4	1	0
Clawson	3	1	0	4	1	0
Rochester	2	1	0	3	2	0
Avondale	2	2	0	2	3	0
Lake Orion	1	3	0	1	4	0
Madison	0	4	0	0	4	1
Warren Cousino	0	4	0	0	5	0

Rochester and Clawson will do battle on the latter's gridiron tomorrow night to see which will remain an Oakland A League contender and which will become a spoiler.

Both elevens have smarted under the sting of the swords wielded by Fitzgerald's Spartans and cannot afford another misstep.

* * *

Both will be hoping for a Troy victory over Fitzgerald Friday night since each still has a game with the Colts. Both Troy and the Spartans are 4-0 in loop play.

The Clawson - Rochester 8 p.m. clash was advanced from its original Friday date because of the two-day teachers' conference which begins Thursday.

Clawson currently is third in the loop with a 3-1 mark and could tie for second with a win tomorrow, providing the Troy-Fitzgerald clash does not end in a tie.

The Trojans boost the County's leading scorer in Brodie Burton, versatile standout halfback. The senior runner has tallied 10 touchdowns, and boosted 13 PATs and a field goal for 76 points this season.

Significant is the fact that only Fitzgerald has held the Clawson attack to less than 35 points. The Spartans triumphed, 27-13.

They also whipped Rochester by a 25-6 count, although the Falcons' offense has not been nearly as potent as Clawson's. Rochester has gone over 30 points only twice in five starts.

Carl Stefanski has produced eight of the 12 Falcon six-pointers this season. The Trojans' Burton, meanwhile, has some scoring help from fullback Bill Kerr who has gone over eight times.

Obviously, the Falcons' defense will need a superior effort to offset the apparently superior attack of Clawson.

In other games against league teams, Rochester topped Madison, 7-0, and Warren Cousino, 32-14, while the Trojans whipped Cousino, 45-6, and Madison, 41-7.

Pistons Keep Rookie Miles

DETROIT (AP) — Eddie Miles, former Seattle University star, survived a Detroit Pistons squad cut Monday and will be the only rookie on the roster when the Pistons open their National Basketball Association season Wednesday night.

While retaining Miles, the Pistons dropped four men — Ernie Dunston of Seattle, Dave Erickson of Marquette, Gary Silc of Northern Michigan and Jerry Smith of Furman.

Respond to Hurricane Damage

Sugars Pace Mixed Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Sugars and selected issues showed considerable strength in a mixed stock market early Tuesday. Trading was moderately active.

The sugars were still responding to the effects of the hurricane that severely damaged Cuba's sugar crop and cut potential world sugar supply.

Among the selected issues, Johnson & Johnson was the standout, soaring 12⅛ points to 112 on a delayed opening of 6,500 shares. This followed news that the company expects to market new oral contraceptive pill cheaper than those now being sold.

Auto stocks were fairly sturdy in early trading but lapsed into irregularity. Steels were barely on the upside. Weekly steel production climbed to its highest level in nearly three months.

The industrials as a group showed a small gain on balance. Rails were irregularly lower.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .1 at 277.7 with industrials up .4, rails down .3 and utilities unchanged.

Among sugar stocks, American Crystal Sugar, up more than 2, had the added impetus of stock split possibilities. Gains of about a point were made by Great Western and South Puerto Rico Sugar. Holly Sugar and Central Aguirre gained fractionally.

Steels, after a somewhat uncertain start, improved their prices. Jones & Laughlin added ½.

Prices were mixed in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate and U.S. Government bonds were mixed. Trading was quiet.

Tourists Spending Up

MEXICO CITY (AP) — U.S. tourists spent $397.6 million in Mexico the first six months of this year, the Bank of Mexico reports. That was an increase of $23.3 million over the same period last year.

Files Kept Locked by Justice Warren

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—The private papers collected by Chief Justice Earl Warren during his three terms as governor of California are going to remain under lock and key.

Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan said he received a request from Warren asking that the records be kept under seal until further notice.

When Warren resigned 10 years ago to accept appointment to the Supreme Court by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, he asked that the papers be sealed for 10 years or until his death.

Auto Death Trial Starts for Son of New York Judge

NEW YORK (UPI) — Gareth Martinis, the son of a Criminal Court Judge, was scheduled to go on trial today on five counts of vehicular homicide arising from a traffic accident.

Martinis, 23, was indicted by a grand jury following a crash May 19 in which five persons were killed.

Before the indictments were returned, three Bronx Criminal Court judges, all colleagues of his father, acquitted the youth of reckless and drunken driving charges on June 9. This action aroused considerable controversy.

A county grand jury then investigated the case, heard numerous witnesses and handed up the indictments. Martinis is the son of Judge Joseph A. Martinis.

Jacoby on Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY

North's two heart bid was ambitious and his three no-trump call really suicidal. He had no reason to suppose that his partner would be able to make game and every reason to feel that he was already too high at two no-trump.

JACOBY

Fortunate for North everything turned out roses because West managed to misdefend the hand to the limit.

As John Brown points out, he guarded the child so carefully that eventually it died of anemia.

South won the jack of spades opening with the queen and led a heart to dummy's king. His next play was a low club to his jack whereupon he cashed his ace and dummy's king of clubs. West had to make a discard and he started his campaign to help South by letting the six of diamonds go.

South led dummy's three of diamonds and played low from his own hand. West was in with the queen and a simple play to set the hand two tricks would be to play ace and another spade. The queen of hearts lead would have been even more effective and could have led to a three trick set, but West wasn't going to try any of those winning plays.

He went into a long huddle and eventually came up with the one losing play at his disposal. He led his low heart.

South won in dummy, played a low diamond and ducked. West took his ace, cashed his queen of hearts and finally had to lead a spade. This let South in to make his remaining diamonds.

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Wednesday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Persuasive nature highlighted. Fine opportunity for making offers on your side. Be flirt so go with charm. DIPLOMACY. Don't attempt to rush or force issues.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Good time for dealing with public. Excellent for displaying "showmanship." Avoid getting in ruf. Make gestures of friendship, good will. You'll find your popularity high.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Fine lunar aspect indicates travel, recreation, creative thinking. You will discover ways and means of completing tasks. Be alert for shortcut methods. Good for dealing with public.

CANCER (June 22 to July 21): Important to DOUBLE CHECK. Over-looked details may fall in "your lap." Your attitude should be one of acceptance. Don't be afraid of bit of extra work. It will pay off.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): Ability to COMMUNICATE is highlighted. Fine for writing, making new contacts. A call or letter could turn into highly profitable venture. But base decisions on common sense.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): Encouragement obtained if you are willing to listen. Your attitude should be one which influences friendship. Be understanding where problem of family member is concerned.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Be willing to NEGOTIATE. Cycle continues big. Disagreements solved favorably. Time for action, originality. Be specific! Independent. Listen, but don't neglect your own opinions.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Fine for dealing with groups, organizations. You have good opportunities to demonstrate your ability. Do so! Don't worry about the past. Fine time now to BUILD FOR FUTURE.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Communications appear in foreground. Don't delay in answering letters. By showing willingness to cooperate you could discover solution to "deadlock" stress.

MATURE APPROACH.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19): Don't shy away from extra responsibility or authority. Assert yourself, stand up for your beliefs. You will gain most by POSITIVE attitude. Above all, avoid false modesty.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Good lunar aspect promotes perceptiveness. You are able to see through sham. Trust your intuition. Be true to your beliefs. Avoid those who encourage you to "show off."

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Read GEMINI message. Be VERSATILE. Don't feel you are "stuck" with only one method or approach. Opportunities are due. Be ready for challenge. Financial improvement indicated.

IF WEDNESDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . you are enterprising, capable of making decisions and sticking to them.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Day when ideas turn to realities. Less talk and MORE ACTION is indicated.

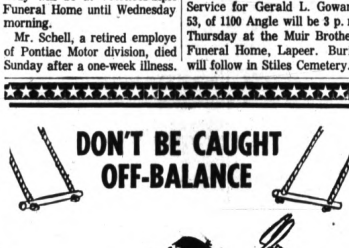
DON'T BE CAUGHT OFF-BALANCE



ON THE DAY YOU RETIRE

Even sadder than the famous phrase "if only" are the weary words, "too late." Yet, when people start seriously thinking about retirement problems, that is often the answer. You cannot make up in five or ten years the omissions of a lifetime.

That is why thoughtful men and women start planning for retirement almost as soon as they start working . . . and the earlier the better.

For information about specific steps you can take . . . even if your income is extremely modest . . . just stop in, call or write for an appointment. You'll get the facts, including the costs and risks of every step suggested. No obligation, of course, but you may find it a fruitful session.

HE KNOWS THE SCORE — Rudolf Bing, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company, begins the 1963-64 season on a note of kindness. Here he serves coffee to opera lovers lined up to buy standing room tickets for the Met's opening performance last night of Verdi's "Aida."

Berlin Block Seen as Serious Problem

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A considerable number of U.S. officials believe the recent Berlin flare-up has much more serious meaning than the Kennedy administration has publicly admitted.

They do not accept the administration's theory that the two-day blockade of a U.S. Army convoy on the Berlin highway last week was an innocent "misunderstanding."

They believe it was another attempt at so-called Russian "slami tactics" — the gradual slicing away of the Western position in Berlin.

★ ★ ★

For years, these officials argue, the U.S. Army rolled convoys through Russian checkpoints on the highway, and the United States itself decided which convoys would unload passengers to be counted by Russian guards as a "courtesy" and which would not.

CRITICAL NUMBER

The United States arbitrarily decided that convoys carrying more than 30 troop-passengers, not counting the two-man crew of each vehicle, would dismount while smaller convoys would not. But it never told the Russians the critical number — 30 —on grounds that the Russians had "no right" to demand that any convoy dismount.

Some officials believe the most probable reason the Russians halted last week a convoy 14 hours at one end of the highway and nearly 33 hours at the other end was that they were dissatisfied with this state of affairs.

The upshot of the incident was that the State Department, for the first time, outlined to Soviet officials the U.S. operating procedure, including the critical number, 30. In doing so, it specifically declared that the U.S. would change its procedure whenever it pleased and conceded no rights.

★ ★ ★

Some officials think the Russians may — as the diplomats claim — have thought the United States was suddenly changing its procedure.

The convoy that was halted had 18 vehicles and 61 men. But 36 of these men were crew members, who have never dismounted for muster. There were only 25 passengers, less than 2 per vehicle, some of which were large trucks.

This was an unusually low number of passengers per vehicle, and it is possible the Russians thought the convoy contained more men than it did.

PERMANENT RULE

In either case some officials feel the United States now faces the problem of how to keep the 30-man rule from being permanent.

Some have urged that the U.S. Army now deliberately change its procedure with a test convoy, possibly announcing it publicly in advance.

Whether this would result in a new confrontation, no one could predict.

Diplomats of United States, Britain, France and West Germany plan to meet here next week for a "post mortem" analysis of the entire incident.

★ ★ ★

The theory that the flare-up was more than a "misunderstanding" does not necessary conflict with announced administration policy toward Russia.

Though they sought the nuclear test ban, agreed to sell wheat to Russia, and are seeking possible further areas of agreement, administration officials have never claimed that the Russians would entirely give up the cold war.

YMCA Youths Starting Drive

Boys and girls at the Pontiac YMCA are "blasting off" now through November, during the youth enrollment drive, according to youth work director John Miller.

★ ★ ★

Every youngster joining the Y receives a "booster" award ribbon and in turn, tries to get his friends to join. Boosters will receive a free Y T-shirt when they get one or more youngsters to enroll during the drive.

Any boy or girl, 9 through 17, may join the Y without being contacted by a booster, by contacting the YMCA by phone or by going to the facility at 131 Mount Clemens at Seneca.

Swimming, trampoline, archery, tumbling, seasonal sports and other fitness programs are available.

High school boys are presently receiving instructions in judo on Tuesdays and body building on Thursdays.

★ ★ ★

Miller said that where transportation is a problem in some outlying areas, car pools are frequently formed by parents.

Madame Nhu Gives Speech at Harvard

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mme. Ngo Dinh Nhu returned here last night from Massachusetts where she praised her brother-in-law's regime in South Viet Nam and her countrymen as the first people of the free world "to accept a showdown with Communism."

Mme. Nhu, in the United States for a coast-to-coast lecture tour, was scheduled today to tape a television interview, deliver a lunch address and then make another speech at Princeton University.

In Cambridge, Mass., the petite "First Lady" of South Viet Nam told an audience at Harvard Law School last night that her nation was fighting "to build democracy," not simply hiding "in internal war under the cloak of anti-Communism."

About 200 noisy pickets marched outside the auditorium where she spoke, and during the talk some members of the audience hissed. The demonstrators, members of a Harvard "ban-the-bomb" group, carried placards which read:

"End the Nhu deal, end the Nhu frontier," "No Nhus is good Nhus," "Traitoress to her people."

Venezuelan Soldiers Urged to Join Reds

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (UPI) — A radio transmitter purporting to be the voice of Venezuela's Castro-Communist underground was heard here last night urging Venezuelan soldiers to desert "as many already have done."

★ ★ ★

The broadcast also urged civilians to build barricades in the streets of Caracas to impede the efforts of President Romulo Betancourt's government to smash the Communists.

Film Beauty Make Pitch for Kids' 'Pitch-Eating'

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The artists who have painted our childhood have never—so far as I can find—done a picture about "the Pitch-Eaters."

WILSON

It was a secret I wasn't going to tell about—how as a boy I would take up dirty pitch from a highway and eat it—not that I liked it, but I guess because my parents told me not to do it.

One night recently I was talking to beautiful Elizabeth Allen, the fashionable model, also director John Ford's latest movie enthusiasm, whose chic and elegance equals that of Grace Kelly. From those beautiful lips came a shocking sentence:

"Down on Sullivan St. we used to eat pitch."

"You did say 'eat pitch'?" I echoed.

"Yes," she nodded, "and we would kiss it up to God."

"'Kiss it up to God'?"

"We would kiss it up to God, and then eating pitch off the street wouldn't hurt us. And you never heard of anybody dying from eating pitch."

Here I ate pitch in Ohio, and probably 30 years later a Jersey City girl transplanted to Greenwich Village ate pitch . . . and here we were now in Trader Vic's eating Polynesian delights which, you must admit, is quite different than eating pitch.

In these difficult days in the movies, modeling's an easy out for a beautiful girl, but Elizabeth Allen says, "It's a very narcissistic experience. You can make money but there's a danger—you may start believing your pictures?

"But when you're an actress, there are times when you are one of the unemployed people who go to the unemployment agency for your unemployment check."

"You did?" I asked.

"Certainly," she said. "John Ford told me I should." He said, "Adolf Menjou goes. They go in their Rolls-Royces."

Free Ship Engineer From Bias Charge

NEW YORK (UPI) — An engineer aboard the passenger liner America was cleared yesterday by an impartial arbitrator of discrimination charges in a dispute that has laid up the vessel for a month.

★ ★ ★

Donald F. Shaughnessy, the arbitrator, ruled that charges of racial and religious bias brought by a union against Louis B. Neurohr were "false and without merit."

★ ★ ★

The National Maritime Union (NMU) had charged, among other things, that the 40-year-old Neurohr practiced discrimination in dealing with crewmen under his command.

City Teachers Join Drive

Seek to Make Tenure Mandatory in State

Pontiac teachers have joined a statewide petition drive by the Michigan Education Association for a change in the state teacher tenure act.

Members of the Pontiac Education Association (PEA) have set 6,000 signatures as their share of the 300,000 signatures sought by the state group.

Mrs. Ralph Ellsworth, Lincoln Junior High School instructor, said the drive will extend through Nov. 22.

★ ★ ★

Although Pontiac teachers have had tenure since 1953, the PEA president said only 27½ per cent of Michigan teachers are protected by tenure.

STATE ACTION

The MEA has launched a petition campaign to get the state legislature to change the tenure act from its present optional basis. The act now allows tenure, but it is optional with the individual school districts.

Mrs. Ellsworth said tenure provides for a probationary period of 2-3 years. Within that time, local school officials can dismiss a teacher without following the procedures set up by the tenure act.

Voters in 59 Michigan school districts have adopted tenure, while 24 states have statewide tenure.

The PEA represents 650 of the Pontiac school district's 900 teachers.

The cost of developing some new aircraft engines is about $150 million, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara has disclosed.

Vernacular Extended by Council

VATICAN CITY (AP)— The Vatican Ecumenical Council voted overwhelmingly today to extend the use of local languages to the Sacraments, as well as the mass, keeping Latin only for the very heart of the rites.

The more than 2,000 prelates meeting in St. Peter's Basilica also agreed to change the name of Extreme Unction — the Sacrament of Last Anointing — to "Anointing of the Sick." This was done to remove the fear-of-death overtones of the Sacrament's present name.

Approval of these changes came in voting on amendments to a schema (topic) on liturgy, or public worship.

★ ★ ★

The council fathers also voted to end discussion on a difficult passage in a theological schema, "De Ecclesia."

Almost every one of the council fathers rose to his feet in agreement on closing the debate on the passage, which deals with the relationship between papal authority and the collective authority of bishops, the creation of permanent deacons, and the role of priests in the church hierarchy.

The council will move tomorrow to the next part of the "De Ecclesia" schema.

It will cast a test vote Thursday on the main points brought out by speakers over the past two weeks. The vote will guide the council's theological commission in its handling of proposed amendments to the schema.

North and South Dakota, divided into two states in 1887, were admitted to the Union the same day in 1889.

Light District Is Approved

The Waterford Township Board last night approved establishment of a special assessment district for street lights on Tull following a public hearing. Four persons objected to the district.

Each of the area's 37 residences will pay $10.01 per year for the service.

The board also introduced an amendment to the township traffic ordinance prohibiting racing on any township road.

★ ★ ★

In other business the board set Nov. 4 as the date for hearings on proposed special assessment street lighting districts on Sharon Street and in Holiday Farms No. 1 and 2 subdivisions.

★ ★ ★

A total of 16 assessments are proposed for Sharon at a cost of $11.14 per residence. The two Holiday Farms subdivisions will have a total of 101 assessments at $7.17.

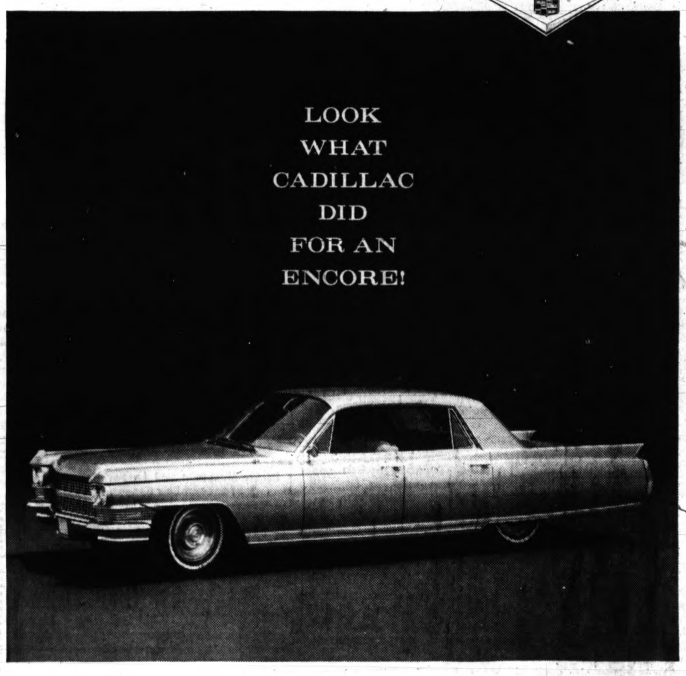
Cadillac



If ever there was a time when a car could have rested on its laurels—it would surely be Cadillac today.

For this magnificent automobile—beautiful to behold and fine in performance—has just finished its year of greatest public acceptance in more than six decades.

And yet—just look what Cadillac did for an encore!

It introduced a full new measure of automotive beauty and elegance . . . brilliant and luxurious new interiors . . . magnificent new performance and handling . . . and a whole new concept of interior comfort.

Cadillac's new styling is by far the most elegant in its history—from its new divided grille to its dramatically new rear lighting assembly.

There are new fabrics and leathers . . . and new appointments that add pleasure to every journey. Exclusive new Comfort Control* lets you pre-set interior temperature exactly to your liking through winter and summer—while at the same time controlling humidity.

And performance? Just wait till you drive this one! There's a new engine, a remarkably improved Hydra-Matic, and on some models, a new Turbo Hydra-Matic. Both transmissions assure amazing agility and a new over-all standard of performance.

All in all, Cadillac for 1964 is more than a hundred ways new and even more tempting than ever.

Why not schedule a demonstration drive tomorrow?

Our United Way Campaign opens today. It's the campaign that will bring new life, new help and new hope to many people. One gift works many wonders

GIVE THE UNITED WAY

PONTIAC AREA UNITED FUND

Oakland County Medical Society

Individual Responsibility

YOU Are the Success of United Fund

E. M. ESTES

The following is a statement by E. M. Estes, general chairman of the 1963 Pontiac Area United Fund drive:

Once a year each member of this community is asked to contribute to the United Fund.

This all-out giving pumps the lifeblood back into the 55 agencies that make up the United Fund family.

Our 1963 goal is $776,700. Weighed against its humanitarian purpose, it is the best buy anyone can make.

★ ★ ★

Your contributions, within the next few weeks and months, will be turned into lending a helping hand to the sick and the aging, into giving new hope to the handicapped, into bringing peace of mind to those sick at heart.

ONE-MAN JOB

It's quite a job we have to do. Still, in the final analysis, the attaining of this year's Pontiac United Fund goal is really a one-man job.

And that one man is YOU.

★ ★ ★

As a member of one of the finest communities anywhere, you are playing an important part in a certain something we like to call progress. Progress in our schools, our hospitals, our churches and our civic institutions.

When you perform your assigned task well, when you participate in community activities, when you set an example for your children, you are helping to make Pontiac a better place in which to live and work.

Giving to the United Fund is just one small part in helping our town to progress.

AID APPRECIATED

Your contributions in the past have been appreciated more than you will ever know. It goes without saying those in need look to YOU to provide them with the necessities they can not themselves afford.

It has been proven again and again that united giving is the most efficient method for helping us to help each other.

And the time for helping each other is right now. It takes unity to keep our community strong.

By surpassing our all-time goal by Nov. 8, we will again demonstrate that we are ready to give help when help is needed.

BEHIND UNITED FUND PLANNING — These men volunteer their services for one of the most important and difficult tasks in preparing for the annual Pontiac Area United Fund campaign. As a steering committee, they inspect budget requests concerning 55 agencies, and in effect, outline their programs for the coming year. They are (from left) R. L. Norris, Dr. John J. Marra, Harold S. Goldberg, Andy Wilson, James L. Howlett, T. E. Wiersema, D. B. Eames and Henry D. Pride.

Legal Aid Extended Area Needy

LEGAL ADVICE FOR ALL — This idea lies behind Legal Aid Society of Oakland County's help to hundreds of county residents who could not otherwise afford to hire a lawyer. From the society's executive director, Carleton A. Shafer, they get advice and help on solving legal problems.

"Equality before the law. Help for those who are in legal trouble is as important and as much a social right as help for those who suffer from disease or disability."

★ ★ ★

This sentiment is the guiding light behind one of the newest public service agencies extended Pontiac Area United Fund support — the Oakland County Legal Aid Society.

The agency was established in 1960 under the premise that a number of county residents may need legal service but cannot afford to pay.

The first year of operation dramatically proved this when 300 persons came to the office for help.

AVERAGE DAY

On an average day, a dozen people enter the society's office at room 221, in the National Building. They are burdened by domestic, economic or property problems.

For a $1 fee, they receive expert legal advice from attorney Carleton A. Shafer, Legal Aid's executive director.

Many are confused about what the law means and what their legal rights are.

Learning that the services of a regular attorney are not as expensive as they thought, some are referred to a private lawyer.

Legal Aid receives $1,956 of its $12,340 budget from Pontiac Area United Fund, as well as a contribution from the Oakland County Bar Association.

The agency is directed by 18 county residents, two-thirds of them attorneys, the rest laymen.

Another Fund Agency

Daily Emergency Is Red Cross Job

Any discussion about Pontiac Area United Fund, what it is and what it does, must include the American Red Cross Oakland County Chapter.

To support the range of services it provides every day of the year, this agency is budgeted $73,080, or almost 10 per cent of United Fund's 1963 goal of $776,700.

While this is a large sum, it actually is small compared to how well it will be used. Red Cross provides public service far beyond its direct cost.

★ ★ ★

In Oakland County, Red Cross and collection of whole blood and components are almost synonymous.

16,000 PINTS

Red Cross last year collected more than 16,000 pints of blood for use in county hospitals and in local surgery cases.

★ ★ ★

This massive collection enlisted the efforts of 1,356 volunteers who contributed 11,936 hours of their time.

"As remarkable as the figures are," said Carleton C. Patterson Jr., county chapter chairman, "we must continue to expand our resources and facilities."

★ ★ ★

Blood in ever increasing amounts is needed in open heart and other new types of surgery requiring unusual amounts, and for the growing list of life-saving blood derivatives, he explained.

SPECIAL SERVICE

Another Red Cross function which touches the lives of many county residents is the special service to persons in the military.

This includes solving family problems, an emergency message system and financial aid.

Last year, the chapter assisted 1,288 servicemen and their families, or recently discharged veterans.

★ ★ ★

Another key service is the instructional programs established by Red Cross for training in first aid, water safety and home care of sick and injured.

WATER DANGER

Oakland County has 427 lakes and 3,300 miles of shoreline, and thus as many potential water danger areas as any county in the state.

To meet this challenge, Red Cross organized classes in which 5,329 persons, trained by 343 water safety instructors, received water safety certificates.

First aid classes awarded certificates to another 2,950 persons who were taught by 147 Red Cross-trained instructors.

In Oakland County hospitals, 48,046 hours of service to patients and their families were contributed by members of the Red Cross Gray Lady organization.

An additional 2,500, volunteer hours were provided in hospitals by the expanding Youth Service, which also provides a training ground of responsibility for young people.

And behind these services, and many others, is the fact that the local Red Cross is ready to use all its resources in a disaster situation.

Most Dollars Spent Locally

Expenses Include Salaries, Operation

How are my United Fund dollars spent?

Pontiac Area United Fund applies 85 per cent of the monies collected here directly to local service. They are used in part to pay operating expenses and salaries for 118 full-time employes of 55 UF agencies.

Many of these employes have extensive training, such as nurses, social workers or counselors.

★ ★ ★

Only some of the agencies they work for derive a full working budget from United Fund.

VOLUNTEER HELP

These agencies enlisted the services of some 10,000 volunteers from throughout Oakland County last year. They, in turn, served over 26,000 individuals.

About 15 per cent of United Fund collections are turned over for service and research by national organizations.

This has been of immeasurable help in aiding medical research into many crippling diseases.

But the program is significant in helping save the lives of hundreds of county hospital patients by providing an available supply of blood.

Agencies for Youth Building Character

Girl Scouts of America is one of the agencies supported by Pontiac Area United Fund with which most persons asked to contribute are familiar.

★ ★ ★

Who could mistake the organization called to mind by the sight of a girl in a light green uniform, pert hat and scarf.

But there is much to the Girl Scouts — and similiar groups like the Boy Scouts, Boys Club, YWCA and YMCA, Waterford Township CAI, and host of affiliated organizations —for young people that goes beyond uniforms or emblems.

There are solid character building programs in all of these that has stood the test of decades, and sent generations better equipped toward adulthood.

PLANNED ACTIVITIES

Planned social activities, sports, fellowship, crafts and arts and community service all work together in a two-fold purpose: to prepare the individual, and individuals working together.

Scouting is not just an answer to juvenile delinquency, but really a means to bring young people together for guidance under skilled leaders.

Publicity about one irresponsible juvenile delinquent sometimes is apt to catch the public eye before the worthwhile organizational activities in which thousands of other youngsters participate.

★ ★ ★

But scouting goes quietly on with the same job begun over 60 years ago: creating a healthy environment for young people.

Pontiac Press Photo

BANNER FOR SCOUTS — Respect for country and an understanding of patriotic values are a traditional part of scouting and all youth organizations aided by Pontiac Area United Fund. Hours Pay a Month

What would be a fair amount to give to support Pontiac Area United Fund's 55 agencies? United Fund suggests the equivalent of one hour's pay per month.

Your Dollar Really Count?

Community's Face Developed by Fund

"Why should I give when I never use the services of a Pontiac Area United Fund agency?"

★ ★ ★

This is the sort of question with which United Fund solicitors may be confronted during the annual fund raising drive, Oct. 15 to Nov. 8.

The answer is that the wholesome atmosphere of a community is influenced by the health, happiness and well being of everyone in it.

For example, needy individuals who can't afford medical treatment are public health problems. Broken homes can contribute to delinquency and imperil everyone in the community.

SERVICE FOR ALL

United Fund services, through the 55 agencies it supports, are for everyone. Illness, family problems or mental disorders know no boundaries.

Many area residents do make use of United Fund in recreation programs or through an organization that gets United Fund support, like YMCA, Boys Club, Urban League or Girl Scouts.

They may never need the social or medical programs United Fund assists. But it is comforting to know they are available.

Note Your Preference

If you care to give to a particular United Fund agency, note this on the back of the pledge card. It will be credited with the contribution.

Community Impact

Family Service Aids Everyone

Family Service of Oakland County is a Pontiac Area United Fund agency whose efforts reach beyond the persons with which it comes in direct contact.

For in dealing with the family, this agency is concerned with the key social unit in every community.

A family with problems affects relatives outside the immediate family circle—friends, neighbors and perhaps the public, if the problem is serious enough.

It is in the prevention of family breakdown that the United Fund dollar is used by Family Service.

★ ★ ★

Last year, Family Service helped over 800 families, and expects at least an 18 per cent increase in the next few years.

RESEARCH TECHNIQUES

The agency uses research techniques to plan its program.

Another aspect of its methods is the family interview used to define and solve problems.

Family Service statistics show the typical family it assists is a married couple between the ages of 29 and 49 who have two or three children. The family's income is average or better, about $6,700.

★ ★ ★

A recent client opinion poll showed that 73 per cent of all families responding felt they were helped enough to reduce their problems.

★ ★ ★

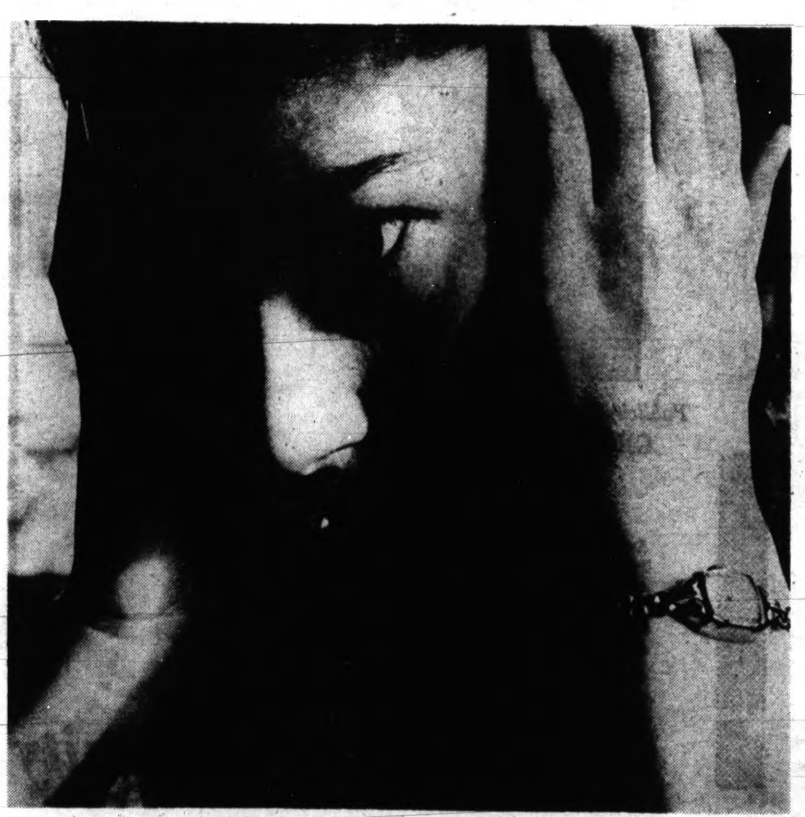
They also indicated their counselor was effective and that they would refer others to the agency.

By no means are Family Service's help restricted to marital problems.

Other cases involve individuals with personality adjustment difficulties; families hit by economic setbacks, problem children, the aged, alcoholics and those whose ill health results in other problems.

To meet this variety of human needs, Family Service works closely with other welfare and social agencies, the medical profession and governmental units.

Its facilities, divided between the Pontiac office at 132 Franklin and another in Berkley, are available to everyone. Relationships with clients are confidential.



PEOPLE WITH PROBLEMS — Family Service of Oakland County specializes in professional help and guidance to individuals and family groups. Its counselors stand ready to assist persons troubled by emotional, economic or social problems. Family Service assistance is for all age groups, for anyone who can or cannot afford to pay.

More Than Medical Help

Visiting Nurse Cheers Elderly, Sick

For many of Oakland County's elderly, the only constant companion is illness.

★ ★ ★

For them, the sight of the visiting nurse walking up to their door is visible evidence that someone cares.

And for a few minutes, or an hour, there will be cheery talk, news of what is going on in the community and an expression of concern.

It is no secret that the eight visiting nurses who make up the Pontiac Visiting Nurse Association, a Pontiac Area United Fund Agency, bring much more than medical help.

★ ★ ★

Since 1921, the visiting nurse organization has been vitally concerned with problems of the sick and diseased.

ASSIGNED CALLS

Throughout the day, they make assigned calls to scores of home-bound patients in the 150-square-mile area of the City of Pontiac, and townships of Pontiac, Avon, Waterford, West Bloomfield, Orion, Oakland and Independence.

Many of the 11,291 home visits they made last year were to the elderly. But visiting nurses also call on young mothers, the bedridden of any age and the severely handicapped.

Most of the patients could not otherwise afford such service, or even go to a physician or hospital.

NO RESTRICTION

But there are no economic restrictions. People who can pay a fee are expected to do so, others according to their ability.

The visiting nurses are all registered and work under direction of family doctors.

While they provide bedside service, they also teach other family members to care for the patient in the nurse's absence. Instructing families to maintain good health is another aspect.

★ ★ ★

The patients are usually referred by relatives seeking direct help, interested friends, physicians or hospitals, or other social agencies.

Pontiac Press Photo

Volunteers Support Campaign Weight

Volunteers in the best sense of the word, are the backbone of Pontiac Area United Fund.

Volunteers solicit the money, plan promotional programs, do campaign accounting and speak to their fellow citizens on behalf of United Fund.

The cost of campaign luncheons and advertising is carried voluntarily by local business and industry.

★ ★ ★

Totally, some 4,500 residents of Pontiac, and the townships of Pontiac, Waterford, Oxford, Brandon, Orion, and Independence, take an active part.

Became Cue for Other Cities

Drive in Pontiac Was a Pioneering Effort

Supporters of Pontiac Area United Fund can be proud of their efforts, not only for what it has achieved here, but across the nation.

★ ★ ★

It is a little known fact that Pontiac Area United Fund was one of the first organizations of its type formed in the country.

Since its pioneering inception in 1948, the idea of giving once for many worthwhile services has spread to more than 1,100 cities in the United States and Canada.

The basic idea grew out of World War II War Chest drives to provide services for military personnel.

★ ★ ★

The post-war proliferation of fund-raising campaigns resulted in almost constant appeals to the public for donations and forced a realistic appraisal of all solicitations.

ECONOMIC SENSE

It made good sense to United Fund founders that the less time and money spent for collecting and administering donations, the more that can be spent where it is needed.

It would be a chaotic situation if the staffs of the 55 agencies backed by United Fund all held their own independent fund-raising efforts.

Similarly, advertising and promotion costs under the United Fund are considerably less than some non-affiliated agencies, which spend up to half of what they collect for this purpose. United Fund spends only 3 per cent of its goal.

★ ★ ★

A good question is why there still are campaigns outside United Fund.

They continue because the public provides funds to support them. These appeals would be reduced if their sponsors found it difficult to recruit volunteers or solicit funds.

It is interesting to note that Pontiac Area United Fund is the only campaign receiving substantial support from labor and management. It is also the only one for which payroll deductions will be made.

But United Fund does not exist to collect money.

★ ★ ★

It is here to provide needed social and medical services to the more than 140,00 in the area it serves.

'Staff' Totals Thousands

Although Pontiac Area United Fund does not have a large professional staff, it is an organization numbering thousands when all the volunteer workers are considered.

It relies on modern management techniques to assure that every dollar collected yields maximum service. It must operate like a well-run business.

This can be seen in the work of panels of citizens with varying backgrounds who every spring review agency budget requests.

★ ★ ★

In this way, the amount to be allocated to each of the 55-member agencies is carefully considered, demonstrating that planning begins far in advance of the annual fund drive.

Goal for This Year 10 Per Cent Higher

This year's Pontiac Area United Fund goal is $776,700, an amount 10 per cent greater than that sought last year.

This sounds like a sizable increase, but actually will still only provide a minimum of assistance to many of the 55 agencies which are supported by United Fund.

There are tremendous demands for increased service in the United Fund area: more help needed to fight juvenile delinquency, to promote civic betterment, to assist those with health, financial and emotional problems who can not themselves.

★ ★ ★

The increased goal set for 1963 is termed "realistic" by United Fund chairman, and budget experts who carefully studied it.

Give Twice for Double Wonders

Torchy Twins Symbolize Campaign

They're 4 years old and they're cute as a bug. Their strawberry blonde hair rings their pretty faces and frames their sparkling, smiling eyes.

★ ★ ★

Their names are Jeanine and Janice Willlockx and they're better known as the "Torchy Twins."

Their main task right now is to help promote this year's Pontiac Area United Fund campaign slogan: "Give twice as much and your gift will work twice as many wonders."

Jeanine and Janice are a symbol in Pontiac. Tonight, they will help E. M. (Pete) Estes, 1963 United Fund campaign chairman, light the giant torch at the intersection of Oakland and Saginaw streets.

★ ★ ★

The Torchy twins are a reminder to all residents that Pontiac and its surrounding communities will again be depending on the United Fund this year.

DOOR TO DOOR

After the drive is officially launched and the torch flames shoot high into the night sky, hundreds of volunteer workers will begin pushing other buttons — buttons that ring doorbells.

They will ask us again to give "once for all." The annual fund campaign will run from Oct. 15 through Nov. 8. Its record goal is $776,700 for operating funds for 55 Pontiac health and community service agencies.

Jeanine and Janice, or should it be Janice and Jeanine, are identical twins. For practical purposes, no one except their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Willockx, 11950 Big Lake, Springfield Township, and other close relatives can tell them apart.

★ ★ ★

They were selected as the Torchy Twins in a contest with other area twins. During the initial judging Jeanine, or was it Janice, was rather shy and bashful, and the photographers had quite a time getting her to smile.

DIMPLES DONNED

But, a few candy bars later, her dimples matched her sister's. In their few public appearances helping to promote the forthcoming United Fund campaign, they have become more and more outgoing and friendly.

★ ★ ★

"At home, they're real tomboys," says their mother.

Born June 5, 1959, Jeanine and Janice are the first twins in the family. They have two older brothers, Fred, 8, and Jim, 7.

Like most kids, their favorite food is ice cream. Although they like all flavors, with Janice it's "chocolate, strawberry and white" in that order.

And since they both realize being the Torchy Twins isn't a full-time occupation, they both decided when they grow up they want to be nurses.

TORCHLIGHT TRIO — The giant torch, symbol of the 1963 Pontiac Area United Fund campaign, will be ignited tonight by Jeanine and Janice Willockx, the Torchy Twins, and E. M. Estes, chairman of this year's drive. The traditional torch lighting ceremony at Oakland and Saginaw signals the start of efforts to raise $776,700 by Nov. 8.

Industry and Business Biggest Contributors

Industry and business are the biggest contributors to the annual Pontiac Area United Fund campaign.

The industrial division, which accounts for collections from large firms, management and plant employes, contributes $520,650 of the total United Goal of $776,700.

The commercial division, which includes collections at small and medium size businesses, among professional groups, and in government units and schools, adds $203,469.

Services Are Different From Other Agencies

The services provided by Pontiac Area United Fund and its agencies are entirely separate from those provided by city, county or state welfare agencies.

They give assistance in many areas not covered by these organizations.

Tradition Set to Spark City's Campaign

Volunteers to Start Ringing Door Bells to Get $776,700

The traditional torch-lighting ceremony, symbol of hope for the thousands who depend on Pontiac Area United Fund services, officially begins the 15th annual campaign tonight.

The bright orange flame atop the 25-foot torch at Oakland and Saginaw will light the way for efforts to raise the 1963 United Fund goal of a record $776,700.

★ ★ ★

The giant torch will be ignited at 8:15 p.m. by E. M. (Pete) Estes, general campaign chairman, and the 4-year old Torchy Twins, Janice and Jeanine Willockx.

As the torch begins its 23-day and night vigil, hundreds of volunteers will start ringing door bells in the Pontiac area to help reach the increased goal.

The 15 - minute ceremony will feature a brief talk by Estes, musical salute by the Salvation Army Band and Campfire Girls Chorus and Pledge of Allegiance by boy scouts.

Master of ceremonies will be Richard N. Oslund, Pontiac district scout leaders.

Also taking part will be representatives of girl scout units, Pontiac Boys Club, YMCA and YWCA, United Fund and city officials.

RETURNS GOOD

"Early solicitation returns are quite encouraging," said Estes, summing up precampaign efforts.

"With the spirit and cooperation we've been getting so far, I am convinced we're heading for another successful drive."

Estes said even greater efforts will be made during the drive to enthuse substandard givers.

He pointed out that 55 agencies, which combat mental and physical illness, social problems and aid youth, depend on United Fund for support.

Prior to the torch lighting, 75 United Fund volunteer leaders will attend a 6:30 p.m. kickoff dinner at Waldron Hotel, sponsored by First Federal Savings and Loan of Oakland.

Senate to Question Nitze

Storm Faces New Navy Chief

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's appointment of a new Navy secretary may set off a chain reaction leading to congressional explosion over a tentative Pentagon decision to deny the Navy any more nuclear carriers.

When Paul H. Nitze, named yesterday to succeed Fred Korth, comes before the Senate for confirmation, it seems certain he will be asked for his views on the continuing controversy over whether carriers should be phased out in favor of missiles and missile-firing submarines.

Korth, who said he was resigning to "attend to my pressing private affairs," probably will be asked to explain if his decision had any connection with his apparently futile efforts to get a nuclear carrier built.

★ ★ ★

Associates said his defeat in the nuclear power argument sped his decision to quit.

Some Congress members said they thought Korth's action stemmed from the row over the controversial TFX warplane contract award, and Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., said Korth will be questioned again about it.

Korth has told the Senate Investigations subcommittee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., that a bank he formerly headed in Fort Worth, Tex., joined several others in making a loan to the General Dynamics Corp.

PAUL H. NITZE

General Dynamics was given the TFX contract by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara despite a claim by the Boeing Co. that it could produce the TFX — tactical fighter, experimental — cheaper. Korth supported the award to General Dynamics.

DECLINED COMMENT

McClellan declined comment on the resignation. But Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., said he thought it was precipitated by testimony on the plane contract.

★ ★ ★

"I predict there will probably be other resignations," he said. He gave no names.

★ ★ ★

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said he thinks there will be no serious opposition to confirmation of Nitze, who now is assistant secretary of defense for international affairs.

Bob Kennedy Faces the Rap on Rights Bill

Liberal Democrats Out to Get Off Hook With Softer Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Liberal House Democrats hoped today Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy would save them from their own enthusiasm for a strong civil rights bill.

They sent out an SOS for Kennedy to tell the Judiciary Committee at a closed session what sections of a broad civil rights measure should be junked if the bill is to have a chance of enactment.

In effect, they apparently want Kennedy to extricate them from a legislative box in which their earlier ardor has entrapped them.

The attorney general was expected to take the hint and also the rap for watering down the sweeping measure drafted by a subcommittee dominated by liberal Democrats.

★ ★

Almost everyone concerned is in agreement that the bill in its present form can't get through Congress. It goes far beyond the administration's civil rights proposals and includes four new sections, one of which would create a strong fair employment practices commission.

TRIMMING DOWN

Some of the liberals had expected committee Republicans and Southern Democrats to take the lead in trimming down the bill.

That would have given the liberals a chance to blame the GOP for failure to get a tough measure and at the same time would have put the liberals in a position to boast of their own efforts in behalf of minority groups.

But the Republicans and Southern Democrats didn't take the bait, and now it's up to the attorney general to try to pull the bill out of the fire.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy was expected to be asked just how much of the broad measure should be retained to make it acceptable to the administration and how much of it should be shelved to make it more palatable to Congress.

Detroit Gets 'Taken' in Its Olympic Bid

From Our News Wires

BADEN - BADEN, Germany — Detroit officials confessed today that "somebody" in Europe put one over on them by announcing that cities bidding for the 1968 Olympics would not be allowed to do any lobbying.

"When we got here we discovered that all the other cities had scheduled sumptuous receptions and the like," said a spokesman for the Motor City.

"It's too late now for us to match these efforts," he added angrily.

The other three cities seeking to serve as host for the 1968 games — Buenos Aires, Mexico City, and Lyons, France — are pulling out all the stops in their lobbying campaigns.

LAVISH ENTERTAINMENT

Delegates who will vote on the site Saturday are being liberally entertained, deluged with handouts, and held captive while enthusiastic spokesmen bend their ears with talk of the attractions awaiting them in their city.

And the number of parties and receptions on the calendar keep increasing daily.

★ ★

Lyns brought in the famous Joannes Nendron, considered by many to be the finest chef in France, to cook for a reception tomorrow night. Nendron, all 250 pounds of him, will be assisted by the "Compagnons de Beaujolais" — a wine group — which came equipped with 600 bottles of the red stuff.

★ ★ ★

Mexico City and Buenos Aires also scheduled ritzy receptions — and the Mexican presentation to the I.O.C. will include a cinerama show.

Detroit revealed yesterday that it may sweeten its offer by providing free room and board for foreign teams.

Board and room will cost $6 at the Tokyo games next summer. The cost was $8 a day for each athlete at the Olympics in Rome in 1960. It would be more in Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Mayor Jerome Cavanagh, who is leading the Detroit Olympic Committee in the city's bid to be host to the games, said the committee previously had decided to charge contestants only a $4 rate. He said, "Now we understand Mexico City is ready to make a better offer."

'ALL THE WAY'

"We are wondering now if we shouldn't go all the way and pick up the tab," the mayor said.

22 From Raid Put Up Bonds

Prosecutor Seeks Charge of Felony

Twenty - two persons arrested in a gambling raid Friday night in Madison Heights were released on $1,000 bond each yesterday.

They were released by Circuit Court Judge William J. Beer until Monday when they are to reappear before him on a writ of habeas corpus.

Assistant County Prosecutor Robert Templin said he expects at that time to have warrants charging the men with conspiracy to violate state gambling laws.

★ ★ ★

The charge is a felony with a maximum prison sentence of five years.

Two of the suspects have been named before a Senate committee as Cosa Nostra, or Mafia, members. They are Eddie Guarella, 45, of St. Clair Shores and Joseph Brooklier, 50, of Mt. Clemens.

Illinois Town Is Hit by 'Mad Arsonist'

MONMOUTH, Ill. (UPI) — A "mad arsonist" set fires which destroyed two lumberyards and most of a factory today, injuring three firemen and forcing a family to flee its home.

City officials said damage might reach $1.5 million. Fifteen fire departments battled the flames.

State troopers equipped with riot guns formed a cordon around Monmouth Hospital and the Colonial Nursing Home when an anonymous telephone caller threatened the structures were "next."

Other guards were posted around industrial plants and located 200 miles southwest of in the business district of this quiet college town of 10,000, Chicago. Monmouth College students equipped with two-way radios patrolled the streets, looking for loiterers.

Fire Chief Dale Moore said "The fires definitely were the work of a mad arsonist."

★ ★ ★

A man was picked up on the grounds of the Western Stoneware Co., target of numerous bomb and arson threats in the past five weeks. He was questioned for several hours but was released by mid-morning.

Police Chief Vincent Romano and Warren County Sheriff Roy Hartley said there were no leads to the identity of the "fire bug."

Guards were withdrawn from the hospital, nursing home, industrial plants and business places, but Romano said, "I imagine more guards will be put out tonight."

COMPANY DESTROYED

The fires destroyed the Monmouth Lumber Co. on a quarter block site on the city's west side, the Fullerton Lumber Co. on a half block of the south side, and most of the Monmouth Metal Culvert Co. plant.

A family living next to the Culvert plant was forced to evacuate their home, which was threatened by the flames. A fire at the Warfield-McCullough Lumber Co. burned itself out.

Flames leaped high in the air, severing power lines and leaving several areas of the city without power for a time.

★ ★ ★

A Damp Evening Is Possible Here

The U. S. Weather Bureau reports there is a slight chance of a shower tonight with low temperatures remaining in the 50s.

Partly cloudy and a little cooler—the high not more than 72—is tomorrow's forecast.

★ ★ ★

Thursday will be fair with temperatures about the same.

Morning southerly winds at 5 to 15 miles per hour will become variable at 5 to 12 m.p.h. tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Fifty-four was the lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury had climbed to 72 at 1 p.m.

Waterford to Seek Loan to Plan Sewer System

Waterford Township Board members last night took an initial step toward the ultimate construction of a sanitary sewer system that has been estimated will cost $12 million.

The board unanimously approved filing a loan application with the federal government for $240,000. The money would be used for preliminary engineering drawings for the system.

Township Supervisor James E. Seeterlin said the loan application would probably be acted upon in from six months to a year.

If the interest-free loan is approved by the Housing and Home Finance Agency, an engineering firm would be retained to prepare the drawings, according to Seeterlin.

Seeterlin said the sewer system possibly could be in operation in three years.

★ ★ ★

The system would be serviced by the City of Detroit treatment plant with affluent going into the Dequindre interceptor sewer line.

The $240,000 figure for preliminary planning represents two per cent of an estimated $12 million sewer system cost.

Seeterlin, who compiled data on need for a sewer program to be presented with the loan application, estimated a population of 127,000 for the area by the year 2000. The present population is just over 50,000.

PRIME NEED

Board members agreed that a sewer system is a prime need whether the community remains a charter township or is incorporated as a city.

★ ★ ★

The Oakland County Department of Public Works would act as agent for Waterford in its sewer service contract with Detroit.

City, County to Talk Trade

Airport, Area Sites May Be on Agenda

By DICK HANSON

City and county officials will meet tomorrow to consider swapping county property in Pontiac for Pontiac Municipal Airport or at least a part interest in it.

The City Commission has tried repeatedly to get the county to invest some money in the future expansion of the airport.

County officials have refused, maintaining that if the airport is too large a business for the city to handle, it should be given over to the county.

★ ★ ★

City plans call for spending $12 million on airport expansion. The commission has pointed out that the city doesn't have this kind of money to invest.

DEVELOPMENT

So far, the city has spent $1.59 million in developing the airport in Waterford Township. The federal government has

Algerian MAKE-OVER RAIDS Outposts Retaken

ALGIERS (AP) — Algiers radio claimed today that Algerian forces have recaptured two desert outposts taken Monday by Moroccan troops.

The Algerians said Moroccan troops supported by tanks, planes and heavy artillery swept up to 60 miles over the border Monday in the area of Hassi-Beida and Tinjoub, the outposts.

★ ★ ★

The Algerian government never officially admitted that the two places fell to the Moroccan invaders. But today, the radio announcer said in a triumphant voice: "Our forces have cleared the invaders from Hassi-Beida and Tinjoub."

The broadcast said the Moroccan forces were bringing in heavy reinforcements. It alleged that some of the Moroccan troops were airlifted to the fighting area in planes piloted by American airmen, members of a U.S. military training detachment with the Moroccan air force.

Three bases of the U.S. Strategic Air Command are in Western Morocco at Benguerir, Nouasseur and Sidi Slimane — all far removed from the combat zone.

All three are to be turned back to Morocco by the end of 1963, U.S. combat planes have already been transferred elsewhere.

★ ★ ★

The fighting occurred in an area 300 miles across the Atlas Mountains from Marrakech, Morocco, where Mrs. John F. Kennedy is vacationing as the guest of King Hassan II.

U.S. Ambassador John H. Ferguson said it would not curtail the American First Lady's visit, which is expected to last until tomorrow or Thursday.

Informed sources in Rabat, Morocco, said the Algerians counter - attacked last night with strong reinforcements, supported by observation planes. These sources said fighting continued this afternoon around the two outposts and in a rather large surrounding area.

In the Moroccan city of Marrakech, it was reported that Mrs. John F. Kennedy plans to continue her vacation visit despite the conflict.

TRIBAL FIGHTERS

The U.S. President's wife was scheduled to see a spectacle of tribal rifle shooting and horsemanship arranged by King Hassan II.

Mrs. Kennedy was reported to be aware of the military situation involving her 34-year-old host.

King Issues Threat as Demands Vetoed

BIRMINGHAM (UPI) — Negro leader Martin Luther King Jr., bitterly denouncing the city's rejection of his desegregation demands, threatened last night to lead demonstrations of "more numbers that any man can count."

"We will demonstrate until they integrate," he told a rally of more than 1,000 Negroes. But he did not say when such segregation protests, which brought around 2,500 arrests last spring, would begin.

King spoke several hours after Mayor Albert Boutwell said that solution of the city's racial problems "will never be done in response to threats or deadlines from anyone." Boutwell referred to a demand by King that the city hire 25 Negro policemen within a two-week period ending next Monday or face new racial demonstrations.

Boutwell's executive assistant, W. C. Hamilton, said Civil Service regulations requiring a six-week clearance check for new employes would make it "impossible" to meet King's deadline without an act of the legislature.

BEST POLICE FORCE

Boutwell said an "intensive and completely impartial survey" was being made to determine the best kind of police force for Birmingham and he would not permit "other interests to intervene or defeat" that study.

Shortly before King's speech Gov. George Wallace appeared on local television to announce special efforts by the state to bolster Birmingham's economy.

Wallace said he expected to spend $128 million in highway projects in Jefferson (Birmingham) County during his administration and would spend $23 million for education in the county in 1964, a 25 per cent hike over this year.

★ ★ ★

King said police had "numbers" of demonstrators to face last spring, "But this time we are talking about more numbers than any man can count."

The Negro leader is scheduled to appear at Detroit's Cobo Hall Thursday where he will speak to Michigan teachers and educators.

the full bill could be paid by TV revenue with something left over to help pay transportation for teams certified by the international committee as coming from countries unable to foot that bill.

Detroit's campaign received another setback when Gov. George Romney today postponed 24 hours his trip to Baden Baden to help Detroit's bid for the 1968 Olympic games site. Romney had planned to leave tonight, but told his press conference today that the press of legislative business caused the change.

He said he would leave tomorrow night from Detroit, arrive early Friday in Baden Baden for the Detroit presentation to the Olympic Site Committee and return to Detroit Saturday.

Panel to Settle 'Chicken War'

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)— The European Common Market backed down today and agreed to submit its chicken war with the United States to an impartial international panel for settlement.

★ ★ ★

The European Ministerial Council, ruling body of the six-nation trade group, accepted an American proposal that the issues involved in the shipment of American frozen poultry to Western Europe be examined by a group of foreign trade experts.

The ministers, representing France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg, referred their decision to a drafting committee.

3 MEMBERS

Under the American proposal, each side would nominate an expert and a third member of the panel would be named by the international trade organization known as the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade with headquarters in Geneva.

The panel would look into U.S. claims that the overseas sales of American poultrymen have been damaged to the tune of $46 million by the tariffs.

★ ★ ★

The Common Market contends that Washington has greatly exaggerated the case. The Europeans say the American farmers' losses are only about $19 million.

The United States has threatened to withdraw tariff concessions on $46 million worth of European goods as a trade compensation.

Reflecting the concern over relations with Washington, the ministers also approved a proposal to open an information office in New York City to push the European case with American public opinion.

The European tariff on frozen chickens was set largely to satisfy France whose farmers have been competing with Americans for the West German market.

Waterford Cityhood Supported

A majority of Waterford Township Board members last night spoke in favor of an affirmative vote in the Nov. 5 special election on incorporation.

A formal resolution on the matter, however, will come at next Monday's board meeting.

Township Supervisor James E. Seeterlin, Clerk Elmer Fangboner and trustees John Coleman and Loren Anderson all said they favored a yes vote in the election. The other three board members made no comment.

★ ★ ★

A discussion of the election issue resulted when Frank Richardson and Dean Salley of the Waterford Citizens Action Committee for Incorporation (WCAC), asked the board how it stood.

INDICATES SUPPORT

Seeterlin, the first to indicate he favored an affirmative vote, pointed out that passage of the Nov. 5 issue will not make the township a city.

The charter drafted by the charter commission must be approved later by the voters, he explained.

"I may be campaigning for a no vote then," he said.

Fangboner, Anderson and Coleman all indicated that they favored a change to cityhood to better provide for growth of the area.

contributed nearly another $1 million and the state $412,200.

However, acting city manager John Reineck said the total investment of some $3 million doesn't represent the full value of the airport today because of rising costs.

He said new appraisals will have to be made if the city and county decide to explore a "possible horse-trade" further after tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Recent appraisals on county-owned property offered for sale in Pontiac amount to $569,800. This includes the former courthouse site at Huron and Saginaw, a five-story office building at 1 Lafayette and 75 vacant acres in north Pontiac.

JOINT VENTURE

In the event the county can't acquire the whole Pontiac Municipal Airport, both Charles B. Edwards Jr., chairman of the County Board of Supervisors' aviation committee, and Board Chairman Delos Hamlin have indicated a possible joint city-county venture under an airport authority.

The county recently paid $365,000 to acquire the formerly privately owned Allen Airport in Orion Township.

Plans were to develop and expand the grass airfield into a second major airport in the metropolitan area.

★ ★ ★

These plans were scotched when the Federal Aviation Agency refused to approve a second major airport for the area.

LEASED FIELD

Since then Allen Airport has continued to be operated as a leased field for small, private aircraft.

A study of future aviation needs of the whole county has been proposed by the county's aviation committee to determine development. The study, which hasn't been launched, is expected to take about six months.

In the meantime, the committee asked County Corporation Counsel Robert Allen if a building "moratorium" couldn't legally be imposed on the environs of both Pontiac Municipal and Allen Airport to maintain present property values.

★ ★ ★

Allen said he will inform the committee tomorrow that such a moratorium would be unconstitutional restriction of property owners' rights.

Tomorrow's meeting will be held in the courthouse auditorium at the County Service Center.

Representing the city will be Commissioners Loy Ledford and Charles Harmon; Reineck; William Ewart, city attorney, and city airport manager Homer Hoskins.

Bonn Loses 'The Old One'

Adenauer Parts With Parliament Today

BONN (AP)— Konrad Adenauer bade farewell to the West German Parliament as chancellor today, saying his dream of a reunited Germany is possible only with the help of friends abroad.

It was a solemn hour for the man who had been West Germany's only chancellor in the 14 years of rebuilding from the ruins of World War II. In dark coat and striped trousers, he listened soberly to praise from Eugen Gerstenmaier, president of the Bundestag.

"Today," Gerstenmaier concluded, "the German Bundestag rises to you, Mr. Federal Chancellor, to announce thankfully to the German people:

"Konrad Adenauer has earned the gratitude of the fatherland."

The Bundestag president read a short letter from President Heinrich Luebke accepting the resignation of the 87-year-old chancellor.

★ ★ ★

Then The Old One — as Germans call Adenauer — spoke of the dream that never was realized, the reunion of West Germany with Communist-ruled East Germany.

FRIENDS HELP

"A solution is not possible between ourselves and our opponents alone," he said, "but with the help of our friends, and thank God, we have friends in the world again."

By opponents, he meant the Russians, who still occupy East Germany and have set up a Communist regime for its 17 million inhabitants.

Adenauer said that reunification could be seen on the horizon if Germans are watchful, cautious and patient.

"I am convinced that it will come," Adenauer said, "because unity cannot be denied to a people like the Germans when they want to create it in peace."

★ ★ ★

Adenauer has one more day in office. He will remain as acting chancellor until the Bundestag elects Ludwig Erhard, the vice chancellor.

'GOAL SET BACK'

In a talk with reporters Monday, Adenauer had disclosed he felt the goal of reuniting Germany had been set back by warming relations between the United States and the Soviet Union.

Freeman Cancels Speech in Lapeer

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman canceled a 2 p. m. talk scheduled at Lapeer's Community Building today, five hours before it was to be given.

Slated to speak as a part of the "Report and Review" series of meetings he is conducting with farmers across the country, Freeman was reported ill with the flu.

The speech was tentatively rescheduled for Oct. 22. Freeman remained at his home today.

★ ★ ★

The announcement of the series said it was designed to get the "dirt farmer's" views on current department policy. Hundreds of farmers were expected to be on hand for today's talk.

Expulsion From Ranks Seen

Reds Draft China Indictment

LONDON (UPI)—The Moscow-led Communist nations have drafted a point-by-point indictment of Communist China for next month's meeting which may lead to Peking's expulsion from their ranks, it was learned today.

Communist sources said in Moscow over the weekend that the major Communist parties in the Soviet camp would gather there during the celebrations of the 46th anniversary of the Russian revolution.

China and its Asian Communist allies were not expected to attend the meeting, which was seen as a possible prelude to the expulsion of the Chinese from the Moscow-dominated bloc.

The official organ of that bloc, the World Marxist Review, set out key points of the indictment prepared against Peking in its current issue.

HARD LINE

The Moscow group's overall charge is that Peking, with its hard line foreign policy and bitter attacks on Russia, is out of line with the world Communist movement "on many issues of policy, strategy, and tactics."

The indictment leaves no room for compromise and implies that if a settlement is to be achieved, Peking must make all the concessions.

The indictment charges that the Chinese leaders:

- "Deny the pressing need for a jointly elaborated policy of peaceful co-existence," a reference to the Peking line that war is inevitable in advancing the cause of communism.
- "Violate the standards of behavior between fraternal parties," which refers to the repeated propaganda attacks on Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev and his policies, some of them launched by Chinese in the Soviet Union itself.
- "Are out of joint" on the nuclear test-ban treaty, which Moscow concluded with the West and which Communist parties outside the Peking orbit support unanimously.
- "Support splitters and renegades" who have been expelled from Communist parties. This refers to Chinese attempts to line up Communist dissidents throughout the world to oppose Khrushchev.
- Extend ideological differences to state relations, pursue racist policies, and are out to create "selfcontained national economies." These are general charges referring to China's independence from Moscow in domestic and foreign affairs.

Birmingham Area News

New Zoning Nixed by Commissioners

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission last night denied a zoning change that would have allowed retail stores to be built on Southfield just north of 14 Mile Road.

The decision was in opposition to what the planning commission had recommended on the four lots, owned by Frederick K. Graef.

Present zoning permits the construction of businesses that sell services but not products.

★ ★ ★

Graef told the commission that he has been uable to find prospective tenants for offices but that he has had many inquires from merchants.

Objections to the rezoning came from area residents living in the Crestview Subdivision.

They voiced their protests personally last night and in a number of letters to the commission.

PROPERTY VALUE

George H. Meyer, president of the Crestview Subdivision Association, said the rezoning "would result in a detrimental change in the area" and "home owners would suffer a lose in the value of their property."

He, along with several mothers, said retail stores would increase traffic in the area and that additional shopping facilities were not needed.

The planning commission had stated that devaluation would not occur and that either zoning would bring equal amounts of traffic.

★ ★ ★

Two other hearings were held over a week until additional information could be obtained.

These are the proposed extension of Fairway Drive and the rezoning of a lot at 1525 E. 14 Mile Road from single family to parking.

The latter was requested by the Detroit Bank and Trust Co. to improve access to its property.

The commission also authorized the city assessor to prepare the assessment roll for the widening of East Maple Road.

Keeping with a city policy followed with the widening of other portions of Maple, only commercially zoned property which abuts an existing pavement less than 37 feet will be assessed.

A confirmation hearing on the assessment roll is scheduled for Nov. 4.

Hero-Envoy Dead at 74 in New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Adm. Alan G. Kirk, 74, a naval hero who spent 40 years in military service and then went on to high diplomatic assignments, died today in Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center.

★ ★ ★

Kirk entered the hospital on Sept. 1 for treatment of a heart ailment.

He resigned last April as ambassador to Nationalist China because of ill health. He had held the post for almost a year.

Kirk retired from the Navy in 1946 to accept appointment as ambassador to Belgium and minister to Luxembourg.

ENVOY TO U.S.S.R.

He later served three years as ambassador to the Soviet Union and for a brief period as director of the country's psychological strategy board.

Kirk left a distinguished and action-packed career when he began his diplomatic assignments.

In the invasion of France on June 6, 1944, Kirk commanded the huge U.S. naval task force that landed Allied troops and supported them by bombarding enemy installations on the Normandy beaches.

Organist Dies After Long Illness

Miss Cecille Cloonan of Carmel Hall, Detroit, Pontiac organist for more than 30 years, died early this morning after a long illness.

The Rosary will be recited at 7:30 tomorrow evening in Donelson-Johns Funeral Home.

Requiem Mass will be offered at 9:30 a.m. Thursday in St. Michael's Catholic Church with burial in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

★ ★ ★

TAUGHT MUSIC

After completing a course of music at the Detroit Conservatory of Music, she taught piano and organ until moving to Carmel Hall in 1956.

Her bachelor and master of music degrees were both received from Chicago Musical College where she studied organ under Clarence Eddy.

Later Miss Cloonan went to Paris, where she studied under Marcel Dupre and Carl Marie Widor.

★ ★ ★

Her first organ position was at St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church. Later she went to St. Michael Catholic Church where she served as organist 20 years.

A charter member of Pontiac Tuesday Musicale, Miss Cloonan also was a member of Pontiac Music Guild, Pontiac Chapter of Zonta International, the Iota Eta Chapter of Pi Omicron Sorority, League of Catholic Women, National Association of Organists, the Organists Guild of America and St. Michael Church.

Several nieces and nephews survive.

Can America stand the test ?

The challenges we face call for strong and wise leadership.

America's leaders must come from our colleges. That's where young people develop the knowledge, skill and vision leadership calls for.

But our colleges are in trouble. They are struggling with higher costs. Many need new classrooms, laboratory facilities and able teachers.

To stand the test of the future, we must back our colleges. College is America's best friend.

Italy Survivors Are Rebuilding

Government Helping Flood-Stricken Area

BELLUNO, Italy (AP) — The survivors of the Vaiont Dam disaster and the Italian government acted together today to bring life back to the desolate region.

Despite fears of another disaster, the death toll and the appalling destruction, there were signs the flood-stricken area might indeed live again.

With the death toll estimate between 2,300 and 3,000, hundreds of persons were still missing. But army commanders leading recovery operations said it appeared pointless to keep up full-scale digging operations in the hardened mud much longer.

★ ★ ★

In Rome, Premier Giovanni Leone's cabinet voted a series of crash measures to start the disaster area toward recovery.

TAXES SUSPENDED

All taxation of communities in the area was suspended until further notice. Local budgets will be supplemented as needed. Special funds were voted to speed new construction.

The government ordered state road, railroad and communications agencies to undertake an emergency program to get services back to normal as soon as possible.

In Longarone, hardest hit community, the seven surviving members of the 15-man Municipal Council voted to start rebuilding if the government would help.

★ ★ ★

Buildings and homes can be constructed again. But most of the area was agricultural and when the massive wall of water roared across the land it stripped away most of the topsoil.

A major problem was to find a new way for the survivors to support themselves.

Dry Weather Afflicts East, Causes Fires

CHICAGO (AP)—Drought conditions appeared more serious in many areas in the eastern half of the nation today with continuation of the early autumn spell of mild, rainless weather.

The only wet spots during the night and early morning were along coastal sections of northern California, Oregon and Washington, in parts of the north central region and in eastern Florida. Rainfall amounts were generally light.

★ ★ ★

Forest fires swept across dry areas in the East again Monday and many wooded areas were ordered closed. The fires have broken out for the past two weeks in woodlands in New York state, western Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Vermont and New Hampshire.

Temperatures across the nation showed only minor changes from Monday morning. Readings were mostly in the 40s and 50s in the Northeast and in the Rockies. The 50s and 60s prevailed in the major part of the country with the 70s in many parts of the South.

★ ★ ★

Record high marks for Oct. 14 were reported in cities in Missouri, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Tennessee, with the mercury soaring into the low 90s.

Progress Was Arrested

HAYWARDS HEATH, England (UPI)—Mrs. Nancy Seligman was fined $56 yesterday for stepping on the brake instead of the clutch and causing a four-car pile-up behind her vehicle.

Urge Speedup in Amish Trial

CAMDEN (AP) — After postponement of the trial of 11 Amish farmers accused of sending their children to improper schools, Michigan's school chief planned to request speedy action today from Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley.

★ ★ ★

The trial was postponed yesterday at the request of Hillsdale County Prosecutor James Parker. He said a previous court date conflicted with yesterday's scheduled session.

A jury for the case is being selected now, he said, and the case will be tried "as soon as I can conveniently arrange a schedule with the other attorneys involved."

Supt. of Public Instruction Lynn Bartlett expressed surprise at the possible delay and said he expected action "as soon as is possible." He said Kelley probably would want to discuss the situation with Parker.

The farmers, accused of refusing to enroll their children in certified public schools, pleaded innocent Oct. 7 to violating any law.

Quick Thinking Saves a Drowning Child—His

RAINHAM, England (UPI) — Deliveryman Alan Tabeart was making his rounds yesterday when he heard a shout, "There's a child in the water."

United Fund Solicitations Under Way

Some 1,300 busy housewives began their annual house-to-house solicitation of Pontiac and Waterford residents as the Pontiac Area United Fund got underway today.

With only ten days to complete the residential campaign, the women are eager to take advantage of the good weather to call on friends and neighbors on behalf of the 55 agencies supported by the drive.

Many women know first hand the needs of the various agencies they represent, having served also as cub, girl scout and camp fire girl leaders; as Red Cross Gray Ladies or volunteers for the Michigan Cancer Foundation; as board members of the various agencies and many other volunteer projects throughout the year.

Sometimes giving time to the United Fund means juggling busy household schedules and large families. When a baby - sitter is unobtainable, many a youngster will accompany his mother as she goes from door to door.

★ ★ ★

Under the leadership of Mrs. William E. Brace, women's campaign chairman the women seek to raise $29,761.

Assisting Mrs. Brace are Waterford chairman, Mrs. Clark Easley and Pontiac chairman, Mrs. William Freyermuth. These women make some 1200 small neighborhood business calls in addtiion to their residential calls.

Report dates during the campaign are Oct. 18, 22, 25 and 28.

On Oct. 30 the women will climax their drive with a Victory luncheon at the Elks Temple. This is jointly sponsored by GMTC, Pontiac Motor and Fisher Body Division of General Motors.

Mild autumn weather makes the job more pleasurable. Pontiac Area United Fund solicitors here are (left) Mrs. Bruce Macdonald, Thorpe Street; and Mrs. James Hight, Mark Avenue.

Doing their good turn for the day are girl scout Gale Zollner and boy scout Bruce Zollner. They do the dishes to free their mother, Mrs. Bruce Zollner for United Fund soliciting. The Zollners live on Oneida Road.

Women's Section

Women's Club Discusses Past

Mrs. Merrill D. Petrie, president of the Pontiac Federation of Women's Clubs, presided at the first meeting of the season at the Pemberton Road home of Mrs. E. G. Winn Monday.

Program chairman Mrs. Henry J. Healy introduced Wallace F. Watt, educational consultant of the Michigan Department of Mental Health Education at Lansing. Mr. Watt spoke to the group on "What's Ahead for Women Today?"

★ ★ ★

He compared the "dynastic" family of yester-year with today's "nuclear or atomic" family.

"Women's education almost equals that of men's today. After the family has been raised and left home, women can put their education to use in the educational field or in politics, thus fulfilling a need for both the individual and society," he said.

Mrs. Joseph Phillips reported on the recent "Golden Autumn Daze" benefit bridge party and style show.

Mrs. Paul Gorman, youth-education chairman, spoke on the need for a community college for the Pontiac area.

Defeated on the June ballot, it will be considered again and speakers will be available to explain both the proposal and the community's needs.

The Federation continues with its support of the USO and missile bases in the area, Mrs. Lewis Swartz reported.

Representatives were asked to stress the importance of the third Institute on Organizational Leadership to be held at Oakland University Nov. 9 to their respective clubs.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Charles Crawford is serving as cochairman of the institute, of which the Federation is a cosponsor.

Mrs. Petrie and Mrs. Richard Veazey are cochairmen on the program brochures committee and Mrs. David Saks will conduct the ways and means workshop.

As part of fine arts, Mrs. Maxwell Shadley reported on the Pontiac Symphony concerts and Town Hall series. Added attraction for Town Hall will be the Nov. 8 appearance of Meredith Wilson.

As a benefit for Hadassah, the new hospital in Jerusalem, the Pontiac chapter of Hadassah will present a concert by pianist Gabriel Shodos Nov. 19 at Pontiac Northern High School.

Host club for the meeting was the Italian American Club Auxiliary, with Mrs. Joseph Pollina as chairman.

Assisting her were Mrs. Sam Rotunda, Mrs. Ralph Mazza, Mrs. Carl Grassi, Mrs. Joseph Spadafore, Mrs. Albert DeSantis, Mrs. Roger Davis and Mrs. Frank Soda.

Mrs. Franklin Mills and Mrs. Shadley presided at the tea table. Mrs. Arnold Hillerman and Mrs. John Tstanis served as the welcoming committee.

Fall Dinner Introduces Members

Two new members were introduced at the annual fall dinner of the Junior Pontiac Women's club Monday evening at Airway Lounge.

Helen Kinney and Mabel Smith were welcomed into the group.

Mrs. James Clarkson, chairman of the project committee, exhibited items which are being sold.

Mrs. George Brinkman, program chairman, introduced Mrs. George Morrow who gave original readings.

Mrs. Russell Auten, chairman of the social committee, was assisted by Mrs. George H. Watters, club president and Mrs. A. J. Cadieux.

Mrs. G. Richard Jarvis, Mrs. Norman Bartell, Mrs. Ronald W. Hodge, Mrs. John Sheehan, Mrs. Russell French, Mrs. Donald Ely and Mrs. Bradley Scott were also on the social committee.

Thursday Set as Card Party Date

"Cards and Candles" card party of the Sylvan Manor Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the First Federal Savings of Oakland. Mrs. Ch. H. Kippenhan of Detroit will speak.

Mrs. Jerome K. Berry Jr., East Iroquois Road, leaves seven children at home when she works for the Pontiac Area United Fund; she is a Pontiac district chairman. The two girls standing on the porch are Michelle and Leona. Michael sits in front of Michelle and Mary Alice on the step. The three in front are Helene, Denise and Jerome III. Jerome looks worried.

Suspicious Husband Is Sick; He Needs Professional Help

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Please put this in the paper quick, as I am a wreck.

My husband doesn't trust anybody — not even me. Lately he's been buying his own groceries and cooking his own meals because he thinks I'm trying to poison him.

He uses vile language, and he accuses me of the filthiest things. And after 43 years of love and faithfulness!

ABBY

If there is a knock on the door, he goes with his pistol to answer it. He has spells and acts like his old sweet self for a day or two, then he starts in acting ugly again.

I'm afraid if I ask anyone for help they will lock him up. Please tell me what to do, but don't let on where this letter came from.

★ ★ ★

DEAR FRIGHTENED: Get your husband to a doctor if you have to call the sheriff or police to help you. He has the symptoms of a very sick man.

It is no disgrace to be sick, but it is disgraceful to delay treatment which could hasten your husband's recovery.

If he must be temporarily "locked up," to prevent his harming himself and/or others, it's a kindness to lock him up.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to ABBY, care of The Pontiac Press, for Abby's new booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

Symphony Begins 10th Season Tonight

The Pontiac Symphony Orchestra will begin its tenth season this evening at 8:30 p.m. at Pontiac Northern High School under the direction of Felix Resnick.

Featured artists will be the University of Michigan School of Music Harp Ensemble under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Dean Clark. The ensemble includes Ann Emby, Myrna Ascne, Marilyn Voege and Penny Hook.

The program will include "Overture—Merry Wives of Windsor," by Nicolai; Symphony No. 8—Unfinished, Allegro Moderato and Andanti 'Con Moto by Schubert; and "Minuet—Dance of the Sprites," "Dance of the Sylphs," and "March Hongroise," by Berlioz (three excerpts from the Damnation of Faust).

Other numbers are "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," Bach-Clark; "Largo" from Xerxes, Handel-Salzedo; "Danse Sacree," Debussy; "Clair de Lune," Debussy-Salzedo; "Malaguena," Lecuona-Andrews; and "Finlandia," Sibelius.

Handicapped to See Slides on Far East

A few years ago Clyde R. Haskill traveled to the Philippines to present the people of that country with a hospital plane on behalf of the people of the Pontiac area.

While in that part of the world he photographed slides which are entitled "A New Look at the Far East."

★ ★ ★

On Oct. 22 at 7:45 p.m. Mr. Haskill will show his slides to the Tuesday Niters Physically Handicapped club members and their parents in the club rooms at Mark Twain School.

All area handicapped young adults are invited to attend. The club is sponsored by the Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation.

Olympic Bid Meeting Topic

Detroit's bid for the 1968 Olympic Games site will be the topic for Jack Wilson, Michigan Bell Telephone Company, at the Thursday noon luncheon meeting of the Zonta Club of Pontiac.

A film supporting Detroit's bid will also be shown at the meeting to be held at the Huron Bowl.

Autos, Sugars Strong on Mart

NEW YORK (AP) — Strength in sugars and autos featured an irregularly higher stock market early today. Trading was moderately active.

Chrysler rallied partially from its weakness of the preceding session, rising ⅛ to 2 on an opening block of 10,000 shares then expanding the gain fractionally.

American Motors gained ⅛ at 22⅞ on an opener of 10,000 shares. Ford added a fraction.

General Motors was about unchanged.

Sugars continued their advance on the basis of higher prices for the commodity. Gains of a point or better were made by Holly Sugar, Great Western Sugar and South Puerto Rico Sugar. Central Aguirre rose a fraction.

Monday the Associated Press average of 60 stocks dipped .2 to 277.6.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange. Hartfield Stores rose more than a point. Fractional gainers included Cubic Corps., Rainbow Oils and Occidental Petroleum.

Dillon Starts Selling Job

Faces Sen. Byrd With Tax-Cut Package

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon began the job today of selling President Kennedy's tax cut package to what may be the toughest customer on Capitol Hill—Sen. Harry F. Byrd and his Senate Finance Committee.

* * *

After waiting through 20 days of closed hearings, Dillon appeared today with a thick sheaf of facts and figures that stressed a need for urgency in approving the $11 billion reduction this year.

'ESSENTIAL'

Said Dillon, "It is essential to the well-being of the nation that every effort be made to complete action on this bill before the end of the current year . . . the nation has waited too long for relief from the stifling burden of excess taxes."

* * *

Byrd, the Virginia Democrat called by many "the watchdog of the Treasury," opposes a tax cut without balancing cuts in spending. He prefers to hold up action on the cut until the 1964 session to put pressure on Kennedy to put the brakes on the budget.

Dillon argued strongly against this.

"The need for a major program of tax reduction and revision is pressing," he said. "It firmly believe that to delay its passage would incur serious economic risks."

'EXTRA MONEY'

The President says the tax cut would give families extra money to buy dishwashers or make a down payment on a new car, plants money to buy new equipment, and free more money for investment. This, he and his adviser's say, will put the economy in high gear, and also bring in more taxes ultimately.

* * *

In his statement, packed with charts on what the reduction would do for taxpayers, Dillon said the bill as approved by the House will do the job with one exception—the treatment of capital gains.

"Because of the urgency of prompt action, I recommend that the committee eliminate the provisions of the bill dealing with capital gains," said Dillon.

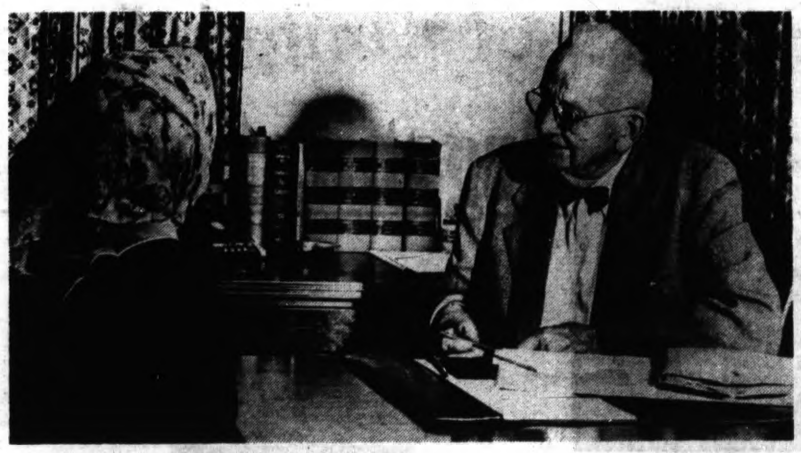
Legal Aid Extended Area Needy

MAKE OVER PAGES



Pontiac Press Photo

LEGAL ADVICE FOR ALL — This idea lies behind Legal Aid Society of Oakland County's help to hundreds of county residents who could not otherwise afford to hire a lawyer. From the society's executive director, Carleton A. Shafer, they get advice and help on solving legal problems.

"Equality [illegible]. Help for those who [illegible] legal trouble is as important and as much a social right as help for those who suffer from disease or disability."

★ ★ ★

This sentiment is the guiding light behind one of the newest public service agencies extended Pontiac Area United Fund support — the Oakland County Legal Aid Society.

The agency was established in 1960 under the premise that a number of county residents may need legal service but cannot afford to pay.

The first year of operation dramatically proved this when 300 persons came to the office for help.

AVERAGE DAY

On an average day, a dozen people enter the society's office at room 221, in the National [illegible]ding. They are burdened by [illegible]economic or property [illegible]. [illegible] fee [illegible] receive expert [illegible] advice [illegible] torney Carleton [illegible] Legal Aid's executive [illegible]tor.

Many are confused about what the law means and what their legal rights are.

Learning that the services of a regular attorney are not as expensive as they thought, some are referred to a private lawyer.

Legal Aid receives $1,956 of its $12,340 budget from Pontiac Area United Fund, as well as a contribution from the Oakland County Bar Association.

The agency is directed by 18 county residents, two-thirds of them attorneys, the rest laymen.

Another Fund Agency

Daily Emergency Is Red Cross Job

Any discussion about Pontiac Area United Fund, what it is and what it does, must include the American Red Cross Oakland County Chapter.

To support the range of services it provides every day of the year, this agency is budgeted $73,080, or almost 10 per cent of United Fund's 1963 goal of $776,700.

Most Dollars Spent Locally

Expenses Include Salaries, Operation

How are my United Fund dollars spent?

Pontiac Area United Fund applies 85 per cent of the monies collected here directly to local service. They are used in part to pay operating expenses and salaries for 118 full-time employes of 55 UF agencies.

Many of these employes have extensive training, such as nurses, social workers or counselors.

★ ★ ★

Only some of the agencies they work for derive a full working budget from United Fund.

VOLUNTEER HELP

These agencies enlisted the services of some 10,000 volunteers from throughout Oakland County last year. They, in turn, served over 26,000 individuals.

About 15 per cent of United Fund collections are turned over for service and research by national organizations.

This has been of immeasurable help in aiding medical research into many crippling diseases.

While this is a large sum, it actually is small compared to how well it will be used. Red Cross provides public service far beyond its direct cost.

★ ★ ★

In Oakland County, Red Cross and collection of whole blood and components are almost synonymous.

16,000 PINTS

Red Cross last year collected more than 16,000 pints of blood for use in county hospitals and in local surgery cases.

★ ★ ★

This massive collection enlisted the efforts of 1,356 volunteers who contributed 11,936 hours of their time.

"As remarkable as the figures are," said Carleton C. Patterson Jr., county chapter chairman, "we must continue to expand our resources and facilities."

★ ★ ★

Blood in ever increasing amounts is needed in open heart and other new types of surgery requiring unusual amounts, and for the growing list of life-saving blood derivatives, he explained.

SPECIAL SERVICE

Another Red Cross function which touches the lives of many county residents is the special service to persons in the military.

This includes solving family problems, an emergency message system and financial aid.

Last year, the chapter assisted 1,288 servicemen and their families, or recently discharged veterans.

★ ★ ★

WATER DANGER

Oakland County has 427 lakes and 3,300 miles of shoreline, and thus as many potential water danger areas as any county in the state.

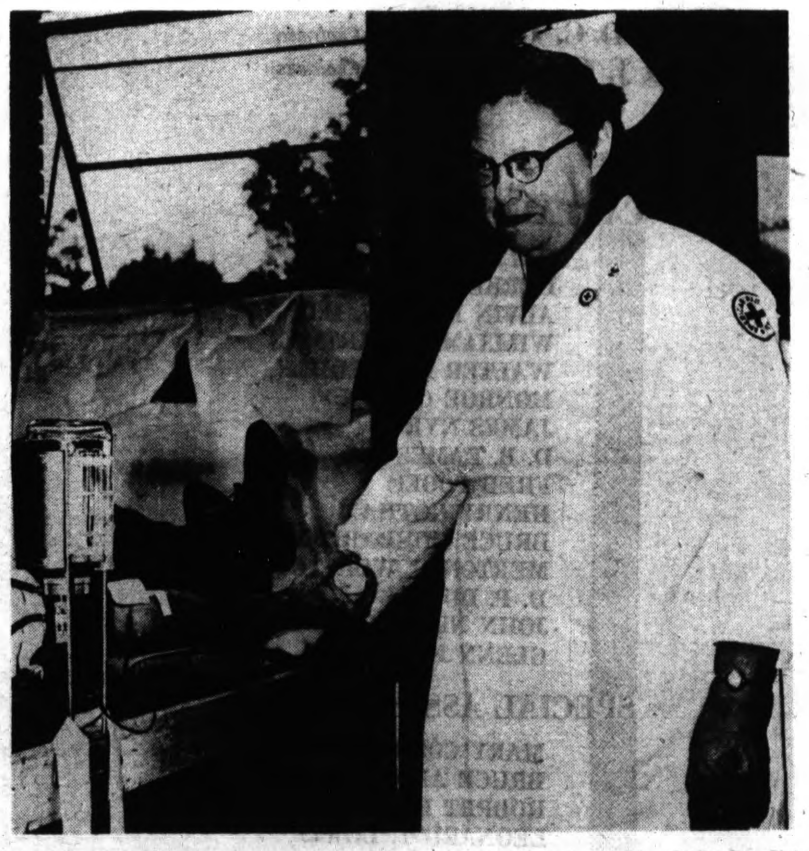
To meet this challenge, Red Cross organized classes in which 5,329 persons, trained by 343 water safety instructors, received water safety certificates.

First aid classes awarded certificates to another 2,950 persons who were taught by 147 Red Cross-trained instructors.

In Oakland County hospitals, 48,046 hours of service to patients and their families were contributed by members of the Red Cross Gray Lady organization.

An additional 2,500, volunteer hours were provided in hospitals by the expanding Youth Service, which also provides a training ground of responsibility for young people.

And behind these services, and many others, is the fact that the local Red Cross is ready to use all its resources in a disaster situation.



Pontiac Press Photo

ONE-PINT LIFESAVER — American Red Cross Nurse Mrs. Raymond W. Johnson stands by while another pint of blood is collected at a donation sponsored by the Oakland County Chapter. This agency will receive almost 10 per cent of this year's Pontiac Area United Fund for a variety of programs and public services of which the donor program is only one. But the program is significant in helping save the lives of hundreds of county hospital patients by providing an available supply of blood.
