Reds Ask France to Join Powers Talking Test Ban

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union today invited France to join it, the United States and Britain in a four-point agreement to end all nuclear weapons tests. Calling for a "new approach" to a test ban, the Soviet Foreign Ministry gave foreign correspondents and neutralist ambassadors in Moscow copies of a draft agreement to be presented to the three-power test ban conference resuming Tuesday in Geneva.

De Gaulle Stand on Berlin Eases

Talks With Macmillan Help, but Don't End Dislike of Negotiations

LONDON (AP)—The weekend talks between Premier Charles de Gaulle and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan apparently eased but did not eliminate the French leader's opposition to Western negotiations on Berlin with the Soviet Union.

No compromise was issued, but there was the impression that filtered from the prime minister's closely guarded country estate where the two leaders met. De Gaulle as usual had nothing to say to newsmen when he returned to Paris.

John Russell, the British Foreign Office spokesman, said the talks were "most friendly, pleasant and intimate" but "the pattern is, in any case, not complete—there are still some further moves out in the rounds of the Western leaders."

It was learned that Macmillan and De Gaulle regarded the talks as useful and that there had been a thorough exploration of the Berlin problem and of Britain's application to join the European Common Market.

De Gaulle was expected to receive his final decision on East-West negotiations until he discusses with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer the West German government's attitude toward a new Western approach to the Soviets.

Influencing has forced Adenauer to cancel his scheduled trip to Paris Thursday for talks with De Gaulle.

Adenauer as well as De Gaulle has been reluctant to approve negotiations on Berlin, but the chancellor's talks with President Kennedy in Washington are believed to have shown that West Germany's policy generally is in line with that of the United States and Britain.

RED WON'T YIELD
Walter Ulbricht, East Germany's Communist chief of state, showed no yielding in a speech made public Sunday.

Ulbricht declared the position of East Berlin, the East German capital, is not up for negotiation. He said it was high time the Western powers respected international law as to East Germany's sovereignty "on the water, on the land and in the air."

The draft agreement contained these specific points:
—The parties to the agreement will carry out any kind of nuclear and thermonuclear tests in the atmosphere, outer space or under water.
—The states involved will use "national systems" for detecting nuclear and thermonuclear explosions.
—No states will carry out any underground nuclear tests before they agree on a control system that would be part of an international control system for an agreement on general and total disarmament.
—The agreement would be signed by the Soviet Union, the United States, Britain and France, and would be "open for adherence by all states."

WINDOW SHOPPING—Mary Lou Brazaski, 4, of 3222 Joslyn Road, Orion Township, was one of the many shoppers in downtown Pontiac Saturday. The Christmas rush got under way with an increase in shoppers reported by downtown store owners. The increase was definitely noticeable on the street, as were the newly erected Christmas decorations throughout the downtown business district.

Business Zooming Already

It's Christmas... Downtown

The 40-foot white spruce lit up like a shining beacon Friday night, people began their Christmas shopping Saturday and merchants prepared to stay open nights until Dec. 25.

With the Christmas rush beginning, most store owners announced they will remain open nights. Monday through Saturday, until 9 p.m. A few stores may stay open later on occasion and a few also indicated plans to increase the number of shopping days left by remaining open on Sundays.

Merchants reported "a sharp increase in business" in downtown Pontiac over the weekend, indicating many people pay more attention to calendars than weather satellites.

A look at the snowless terrain might not suggest winter, but a look at the calendar shows only 23 shopping days left until old St. Nick explodes into fireplaces in his traditional cloud of soot.

Label as Unfair Purchase of Electric Autolite

District Court Asked to Order Firm to Get Rid of Plugs, Name

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department filed a civil antitrust suit today against the Ford Motor Co. over its acquisition of Electric Autolite Co.

The suit was filed in U.S. District Court in Detroit.

A department spokesman said the suit asks the court to order Ford to divest itself of two manufacturing plants, sales facilities and the "Autolite" trade name it acquired last spring from the Electric Autolite Co. of Toledo, Ohio.

The government charged that Ford's acquisition could substantially decrease competition in the spark plug business and in other automobile parts.

Ford purchased the "Autolite" trade name, the company's spark plug plant at Fostoria, Ohio; its battery plant at Orosco, Mich.; and most of its sales organization last April 12.

An April 4 letter to Electric Autolite stockholders, the government said, reported the firm received about $28 million in the deal.

Electric Autolite had been one of the nation's largest independent suppliers of automobile parts. Autolite, the Champion Spark Plug Co., and General Motors produced more than 90 per cent of all spark plugs turned out in this country last year, the government said.

Besides spark plugs, Electric Autolite also had produced batteries, generators, electrical motors, instruments, and ignition systems in a full line of automotive electrical products using the name "Autolite," the government added.

INDEPENDENT FIRMS
Before its purchase of Autolite, the complaint filed in Detroit said, Ford had a policy of buying out independent firms in the automotive field.

The Americans were identified as Frederick Mallott, Ernie Elrick, George Hatley and Walter Bambert (no home towns available). They were presumed to be oil men on route from the Venezuelan capital to the oil fields at Maracaibo.

Pilot Capt. Juan Nolek told airport authorities he had barely taken off from Maqueta, Caracas airport, when the men burst into the forward cabin and ordered him to make a leisurely circle of the capital.

He said they dropped leaflets calling for demonstrations against the government tomorrow, the first anniversary of partial martial law imposed on Venezuela following leftist-inspired disorders. Then they ordered him to proceed to Caracas and ask permission for an emergency landing.

The storm, accompanied by severe thunder and lightning, signaled the beginning of the rainy season which normally starts here in early December.

The Dutch say it is virtually impossible to traverse the low-lying coastal areas where the search now is concentrated once the monsoon rains begin.

KNOCK OUT AIRFIELDS
The rains knock out vital airfields which search craft are now using. They also affect the grass-stripped Merauke Airfield where a heavy Royal Australian Air Force Hercules transport plane landed with helicopters.

RAAF Group Capt. Ivan Podger said it would be impossible to land or take off from Merauke with the Hercules if the rains continue to soften the runway.

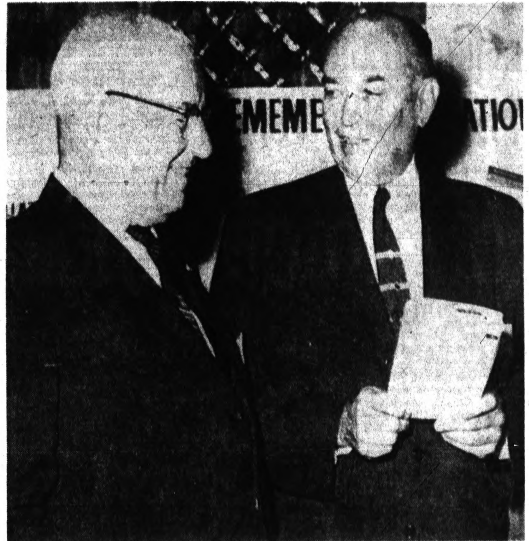

The helicopter search centered this morning in the area south of Atsi, where an Australian Dakota pilot had noticed an unusual cloud formation.

The smoke was white and suddenly was cut off at the base. But the Dutch search leaders discounted the smoke and were dubious that it was a signal.

However, searchers today found a second empty gasoline can which might have been used by young Rockefeller in his attempt to reach the South New Guinea shore more than a week ago.

But Dutch authorities were reported to have all but abandoned hope for the missing son of New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

Pro-Castroes Stage Leaflet Raid

Venezuelan Airliner Hijacked

CURACAO, Netherlands Antilles (UPI)—Five pro-Castro Venezuelian students today hijacked an airliner with 46 persons aboard for a "leaflet raid" on Caracas and forced the pilot at gunpoint to fly the plane here.

At least four Americans were among the 43 passengers aboard the four-engine DC6, which was hijacked while on a domestic Venezuelan flight between Caracas and Maracaibo.

The Americans were identified as Frederick Mallott, Ernie Elrick, George Hatley and Walter Bambert (no home towns available). They were presumed to be oil men on route from the Venezuelan capital to the oil fields at Maracaibo.

Pilot Capt. Juan Nolek told airport authorities he had barely taken off from Maqueta, Caracas airport, when the men burst into the forward cabin and ordered him to make a leisurely circle of the capital.

But Dutch authorities were reported to have all but abandoned hope for the missing son of New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

The leaflets, Nolek said, were aimed at Operation Livia, Governor's name. Governor was a university student killed three weeks ago in an armed attack by pro-Castro Venezuelians on residences of exiled Cubans. Police later identified Governor as a Communist.

IST HIJACKING THERE
Officials of Avesa Airlines, operators of the plane, said it was the first hijacking in Venezuelan commercial air travel history. It was carried out with such speed and precision—the whole episode took not an hour—that relatives of persons aboard knew of developments only from radio bulletins after it was all over.

The plane was given quick clearance when its crew asked for permission to land here. Curacao, a Dutch possession, has long been a favorite refuge for Venezuelan political exiles.

The hijacking incident almost exactly duplicated a similar episode carried out early this month by followers of Portuguese seer-of-fortune Henrique Galvao.

They seized a Portuguese airliner for a "leaflet raid" on Lisbon and then ordered the crew to fly the plane to Tangiers.

Galvao and six of his men were subsequently given political asylum in Brazil.

Political tension has been running high in Venezuela in recent weeks since the government severed diplomatic relations with Cuba.

House staff. Officials considered it significant that two moves involved the transfer of Walt W. Rostow and Richard N. Goodwin from White House posts into jobs involving operational responsibilities in the State Department.

AMBASSADOR'S POST:
There were reports that Walter P. McCaughy, outgoing assistant secretary of state, would become ambassador to the Philippines.

No one is being dropped. Bowles, former governor of Connecticut and ambassador to India and a Kennedy adviser during last year's presidential race, has been a controversial figure in the administration since its first weeks in office.

The President and Secretary of State Dean Rusk were reported to consider him replaced in the department's No. 3 position as undersecretary.

The shake-up announcement, made Sunday night from the Kennedy headquarters at Hyannis Port, Mass., said that Bowles is to get a high policy-making position on relinquishing his present duties. There was no immediate statement from Bowles.

Officials here understood that he was being offered a combination assignment of roving ambassador and special foreign adviser to Kennedy and Rusk.

Administration leaders considered him misplaced as undersecretary, officials said, because he was more concerned with the broad lines of policy development in functioning as an idea man than in the day-to-day conduct of foreign relations traditionally handled by the undersecretary.

Bowles is 60.

War on U.S. Aid Policy Continued in Viet Nam

SARCON, South Viet Nam (AP) — South Viet Nam's government-controlled newspapers continued an attack on U.S. aid policy toward the country, hinting that President Ngo Dinh Diem's regime will look elsewhere for help if the United States makes political reforms its price for increased military aid.

Similarly, world officials believed to reflect the government's viewpoint, compared the proposed new U.S. aid with the Marshall Plan which operated in China at a time when Mao Tse-tung was swallowing the U.S. press campaign, which has been charging the United States with "imperialist ambitions" in South Viet Nam. It is believed to reflect a serious disagreement in current negotiations on U.S. aid between U.S. Ambassador Frederick E. Nolting Sr. and Vietnamese officials.

U.S. embassy sources refused to comment on the editorial campaign and said they know of no major disagreements in the talks, which began a week ago. A similar silence prevailed in Vietnamese government sources.

Claims Yacht Captain Told Him New Version

From Our News Wires
MIAMI — Capt. Julian Harvey, confined to a close friend of his "panicked and jumped overboard" abandoning six persons on the ketch Bluebell the night it sank in the Caribbean, the friend disclosed last night.

James C. Booser, a personal friend of Harvey, said he had given a statement to Coast Guard investigators Friday quoting Harvey as saying he "lost his nerve" and left the other on the vessel's deck last night.

This version differed from that given by Harvey to investigators. It differed considerably from the story told by 11-year-old Terry Jo Duperrault, sole survivor of the wreck.

Terry Jo will return to her Green Bay home tonight to be reunited with relatives, a family spokesman said today.

She left Mercy Hospital at Miami Sunday afternoon and flew to Chicago with an aunt, Mrs. Ralph Scher.

Brought to the home of another relative at Milwaukee, she was kept in seclusion today before making the trip to Green Bay.

Booser said Harvey told him the story before Terry Jo's rescue. He said that Harvey had lived with him for two days between his rescue and his suicide after Terry Jo was recovered.

Booser said Harvey had seemed to be under terrible emotional strain, but had finally told the story after making Booser take a "yow on Lane," Harvey's 13-year-old son, never to reveal the secret.

Booser said he decided to disclose the story to the Coast Guard after talking with a minister.

"I lost my nerve when I saw the blood and guts on the deck and I jumped overboard," Booser quoted Harvey as saying. "The next thing I knew I was pulling that little girl into the boat with me."

When Harvey was found 12 hours later by a passing vessel, the body of 9-year-old Rene Duperrault was in a small life boat with him.

In addition to Rene, Mrs. Harvey, Dr. and Mrs. Duperrault and their son Brian were victims of the tragedy.

Booser said Harvey "was in an extreme nervous state when he told his tale. As he talked he was stuttering more and more. I have never seen or heard. His right eye lay ball, but his voice was low and not hysterical."

U.S. Offers Program for Peace in Space

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States today laid before the U.N. Outer Space Committee a stop-gap program "to preserve peace in outer space" and extend to all nations the benefits of exploring it.

U.S. Delegate Charles W. Yost said the 24-nation body should meet for the first time with all its members present.

The seven Soviet-bloc countries ended their boycott despite their contention that the committee should give equal representation to Western Communist and non-aligned countries.

Soviet Delegate Valerian A. Zarin, in a brief speech, insisted that the committee must be reorganized to give "just representation" to all three groups of countries.

Selfless Woman Doctor to Be Cited by Society

A woman physician, who trained with the famous Sister Kenny and pioneered in the establishment of facilities to help polio-stricken children in Oakland County, will be honored by the Oakland County Medical Society.

Named to receive an engraved plaque for "her years of devoted service to the children and citizens of Oakland County," is Dr. Ethel T. Calhoun of 707 Lakeview St., Birmingham.

Dr. Calhoun is the medical supervisor of both the Sister Kenny Foundation-Rehabilitation Center in Ferndale and the physical and occupational therapy departments at Pontiac General Hospital.

Her name is virtually synonymous with the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation in Michigan.

Her devotion is being praised in the highest terms by the county society.

The presentation in her honor will be during the Dec. 6 meeting of the society 8 p.m. at Kingsley Inn.

Specifically mentioned in the commendation for the award were "sacrifices Dr. Calhoun made in the period of 1943-53 at the Oakland County Contagious Disease Hospital" where she was operating the Kenny Foundation Polio Center.

"It was not unusual," the commendation states, "to enter the hospital late in the evening and find Dr. Calhoun still there working without consideration to her own health and her family, late into the early hours of the morning with these children who were so critically ill."

SET UP KENNY METHOD — In her polio treatment work in 1943 she set up the Kenny method with Dr. Frank Top at Herman Kiefer Hospital in Detroit.

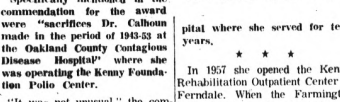

In fall of 1945, when cases of polio-stricken children increased in Oakland County, she started the Kenny treatment method at Oakland County Contagious Hospital where she served for ten years.

In 1957 she opened the Kenny Rehabilitation Outpatient Center in Ferndale. When the Farmington Sister Kenny Polio Hospital was closed in 1958, following a decrease in polio incidence, the county was left without a place to send patients suffering from acute polio.

Her efforts to find such a place were realized with the opening in fall 1959 of the Kenny Physical Therapy Unit of Pontiac General Hospital.

In May this year, Pontiac General Hospital also opened the Kenny Occupational Therapy Unit.

"She has always seen her duty to her sick patients above all other considerations in her life," one doctor said.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The key seas surrounding the continent of Antarctica, spawn so much flora that they abound with a large population of fish, birds, seals and whales, some of which consume more than a ton of food a day, according to the National Geographic Society.

U.N. Announces Kindu Takeover

Ethiopian Troops Get Warm Welcome in Town Where Italians Slain

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The United Nations today announced its Ethiopian troops have taken control of the mutinous town of Kindu, where Congolese troops slaughtered 13 Italian U.N. airmen.

No details of the takeover were announced except that the European population—estimated at 81—is well and safe.

GOT WARM WELCOME

A message received at U.N. headquarters said the entire Kindu civilian population—African and European—gave the Ethiopians a "warm welcome" as they entered the town.

Since the massacre two weeks ago, U.N. forces had been confined to the airport, with only occasional reconnaissance forays into the town controlled by the Congolese troops.

"We consider the conditions are now right for an investigation of the massacre," said U.N. spokesman George Ivan Smith. Since the message from Kindu was received only this morning, however, he was unable to indicate exactly what action the United Nations now plans to take.

Two Men Sentenced in Quiz Show Probe

NEW YORK (AP)—Two one-time television quiz show contestants pleaded guilty today to charges of receiving help in answering questions and were given suspended sentences. They had been indicted for perjury in previous denials to a grand jury.

The defendants were Timothy Horan of White Plains, N.Y., and Joseph Rosner of Manhattan.

They were among a number of persons indicted as a result of the two-year investigation of the television quiz scandals.

Funeral Service for Bridges Set

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—A funeral service at the New Hampshire state house at noon Wednesday is planned for Sen. Styles Bridges, 63, senior Republican member of the Senate, who died Sunday.

Bridges' death was not likely to change the present partisan lineup in the Senate but a liberal-conservative struggle to choose a successor in the Senate Republican leadership appeared possible when Congress reconvenes in January.

President Kennedy let the tributes to the senator, chairman of the powerful Appropriations Committee and second ranking Republican on the Armed Services Committee.

President Kennedy telephoned Bridges' widow to extend condolences and later issued a statement describing Bridges as "a great patriot who devoted his life to the continuing strength of our country."

President Kennedy led the tributes to the senator who was traditionally Republican New Hampshire believed Republican Gov. Wesley Powell, a graduate of Bridges' staff, would be appointed to succeed him, although some other reports mentioned Bridges' widow.

The appointive will hold the seat only until the 1962 election, when the voters will choose a senator to complete the balance of Bridges' term, which expires in 1968.

Welfare League Meets

Schools Given Yule Warning

State Institutions Are Reminded of Rules for Trees, Decorations

LANSING (AP)—Schools have been reminded by the State Department of Public Instruction of the strict safety regulations covering Christmas trees and other decorations in schools.

Among the safety requirements set up by the state fire marshal's office are:

- Christmas trees shall not be set up earlier than seven days before the start of the Christmas holidays, and must be removed within 24 hours after the Christmas vacation starts.
- All trees must be set in a holder filled with water.
- No tree shall be more than eight feet in height.
- Electric lights must be of the approved safety-type.
- The use of candles, paper or any other flammable decorations is prohibited.
- Trees can be located only in auditoriums, kindergarten rooms, multipurpose rooms or gymnasiums and no tree can be set up in a hallway or corridor.
- Trees must be firmly anchored so they cannot be easily tipped or knocked over.

Traditional Toys Revamped This Holiday

New on the Christmas scene will be an interesting array of new designs of traditional toys that delight generation after generation.

A new version of the three bears installs these old favorites in a house and utilizes a curly fiber for their pelts that comes out just as curly, even from an automatic washer.

The telephone, a basic play-room favorite, is mobile this season and qualifies for the push-and-pull category.

The megaphone, a time-honored aid to cheerleaders, now is geared to utilize electronics and can be heard 300 feet away.

The classic jumping rope is now mechanized, providing new conveniences for the kids who like to jump, but tire rapidly when swinging the old-fashioned rope.

Americans drink about 17 gallons of beer a year and in addition consume about four quarts of hard liquor and four quarts of wine per capita, according to estimates.

ACTRESS DIES—Actress Ruth Chatterton, 67, died Friday after an illness of a few days at a hospital in Norwalk, Conn. The hospital reported she was admitted Tuesday with a cerebral hemorrhage. The photo was made in 1953 at an Academy Awards dinner.

Hearing Scheduled on 5-Year Census

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Post Office and Civil Service subcommittee on census and government statistics will hold a hearing in New York City Wednesday and Thursday on a proposed middecade census of population and housing.

Subcommittee Chairman John Lesinski, D-Mich., said public officials from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Connecticut will testify. He added that city planners and housing authorities of New York City and Philadelphia will attend and representatives of marketing, advertising and publishing companies are expected to appear.

The subcommittee, Lesinski said, hopes to obtain guidance from some 25 state and local government officials, urban planning groups, social scientists, business groups, and others, on the nation's need for more current and accurate information on population growth and shifts.

To Accept Bids on Trees in Path of New Freeway

LANSING (AP)—Sealed bids will be accepted by the State Highway Department's district office at Kalamazoo for some 3,200 Scotch pine Christmas trees, valued at about $1,500.

The trees are on property formerly owned by an evergreen nursery north of Saugatuck. The land was purchased by the department for the Holland to Benton Harbor freeway in Allegan County.

LIMOGES, France (AP)—The Communist-dominated village council for St. Junien last week changed the name of Boulevard Stalin to Boulevard Marcel Cachin in honor of a veteran French Red leader.

Don't Expect German Leader to Get Much Support

'JFK Refused Adenauer Bid to Make NATO N-Power'
By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
Notes from the foreign news cables:

ATOMIC CLUB

Bonn reports say that President Kennedy rebuffed West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer on the latter's plea that NATO be made a nuclear power.

Adenauer is expected to continue to press his idea but to obtain little support from other NATO members.

One difficulty is the establishment of a control system better than the present one wherein the order to fire must come from the American president.

MUZZLE FOR CLAY?

German sources who accompanied Adenauer to Washington said that Gen. Lucius D. Clay has been told to cut out public arguments over what should or should not have been done on Aug. 13, the day the Communists threw their wall across Berlin.

On the other hand, Clay appears to have won his case on the U. S. show of tank strength at Berlin's Friedrichstrasse crossing point, a show which Adenauer opposed.

DIPLOMATIC CRYSTAL BALL

Western diplomats foresee no new dramatic moves in Berlin in the immediate future. They say action of the Communist anti-refugee wall on the East-West Berlin border removed the most urgent reason for the Russian demand that West Berlin be made a free, demilitarized city. The wall halted the mass flight of refugees to the West.

In Moscow, the Soviets are waiting impatiently for signs of a Western initiative in the Berlin situation.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko indicated to Norwegian Foreign Minister Halvard Lange that the Soviets realized nothing could be expected until after Adenauer's return from Washington. But he also indicated that unless some action was forthcoming soon, the Soviets would renew their pressure.

GENEVA KEY

The Allies expect to get a first indication of Russia's latest attitude toward East-West negotiations when American and British negotiators meet their Soviet counterparts at the resumed Geneva nuclear test ban conference this week.

There have been no direct East-West contacts at the conference table for months.

Soviet behavior in Geneva may signify whether Moscow is now prepared to negotiate with the West on a realistic basis.

Russian reaction may, therefore, give a pointer to the Kremlin's intentions in regard to wider East-West negotiations, notably on Berlin.

BIG BUSINESS

Reports in Hong Kong say that a British firm soon may announce conclusion of a big sale of turbo-prop aircraft to Communist China.

Negotiations on the deal have been going on for weeks, and it is

U.S. TV Chills the Air

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP)—A cold war rages over American TV in Iceland. The only broadcasts are from the U.S. Keflavik air base and by popular demand its power was increased so programs could be sent here. Now the Communists contend Icelandic culture is menaced and demand a parliamentary ban on U.S. TV.

Bowles Was Man With Head in Noose

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — Ever since last summer Chester Bowles, No. 2 in the State Department, has looked like a man who had been put on probation but was going to lose his job anyway.

President Kennedy seemed unable to make up his mind about his undersecretary of state. It was hardly a good or happy situation for a State Department man who had to deal with foreign governments. Bowles seemed to want to cling to the job.

Now Kennedy has bounced him from the undersecretary's job, offered him another.

Sunday, in the first big shake-up of his administration Kennedy shifted around a group of White House and State Department officials, including Bowles.

All the changes were specific except the one affecting Bowles who had been an adviser to Kennedy in the 1960 presidential campaign, head of the Office of Price Administration during the war, an ambassador to India, and governor of Connecticut.

In Bowles' case Kennedy was of the Kennedy administration if just as vague as he had been before. The announcement made from Kennedy's headquarters at Hyannis Port said simply that Bowles would get a "high policymaking" position.

Perhaps this means he'll be offered a job as roving ambassador. If so, it's the kind of job rumormongers for him last summer when it became clear, but perhaps not to Bowles, that his days as undersecretary were numbered.

Two things are odd about this case: the way Kennedy handled the man who was next in command to Secretary Dean Rusk at the State Department; and the way Bowles took for months what amounted to a public embarrassment.

In the first place it has never been made clear—certainly not officially—clear—why Kennedy was dissatisfied with Bowles.

Last summer for several days there were news stories predicting Bowles was going to be yanked and made a roving ambassador because he didn't get along well in the State Department and was not a good administrator.

This didn't make much sense in view of the high administrative jobs Bowles had handled: as boss of OPA during the war and, after it, of the Office of Price Stabilization, and as governor of his state.

This writer has been told by a source who ought to know that Bowles did get along well at State. It's an educated guess that Bowles and Kennedy didn't get along well.

The stories predicting Bowles' downfall indicated the information critical of his performance at State came from White House people close to Kennedy.

But the anti-Bowles outburst was followed by a story—clearly pointing to its unnamed informants as men around Bowles—which said bluntly he'd get out he was removed as undersecretary.

The same day the pro-Bowles story appeared, Kennedy lunched with him and the White House denied Bowles was leaving.

This inspired liberal Sen. Joseph S. Clark, Pennsylvania Democrat and supporter of liberal Bowles, to announce on the Senate floor the conflict involving Bowles was "all over." It didn't seem over to a lot of people in Washington.

ADDED TO UNCERTAINTY

Then Kennedy added to the uncertainty by saying at a news conference he had never asked Bowles for his resignation, had complete confidence in him, and always expected him to serve out the life of his administration.

But—Kennedy didn't say Bowles would not be removed as undersecretary. He said, instead, that as of then he thought Bowles should stay as undersecretary, that he had no plans to ask him to take another assignment, but that he would ask Bowles if he thought he would fit in better somewhere else.

That wasn't the same as saying he was going to remain undersecretary. Then it became a matter of waiting to see what happened to Bowles for by that time—because of Kennedy's vagueness—it was apparent that Bowles was on the chute.

Georgia Churches Turn Away Negroes

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—For the second time in two months Negroes tried without success to worship at white churches in this east-central Georgia city.

The Rev. Roosevelt Green, 21, an ordained Baptist minister, and Paul Thompson, 22, were denied admittance to the First Baptist church by an usher Sunday.

They left without argument, crossed the street and tried to enter St. John's Methodist church. Again they were turned away.

Last month Green and another Negro tried to enter the First Baptist church. Police were called and officers told them not to return.

Riots Churn Algeria---16 Killed, 87 Hurt

ALGIERS (AP)—Lynching, shooting and grenade-throwing by anti-De Gaulle Europeans and Algerians in revenge clashes killed 16 persons and injured 87 in one of the bloodier weekends of the seven-year Algerian war.

French troops and police were caught in the middle as terrorism swept Algiers and the big western port city of Oran.

Waving clubs, a screaming mob of Europeans broke into a jail in Algiers, lynched one Algerian woman and savagely beat another before police reinforcements drove them off. The women had been arrested after a grenade wounded three Europeans in a sidewalk curb.

In Oran, 220 miles to the west, bands of European youths roamed the streets, attacking any Moslems they encountered in revenge for the killing of Jean Rivas, 22, who was shot in the neck as he walked along a street. Three Algerians were reported killed and six injured in these attacks. Nearly 60 plastic bombs, favorite weapon of right-wing European extremists, exploded in Algiers during the weekend.

Curfews were put into effect

Massachusetts Dem Appears In as House Speaker

By RUTH MONTGOMERY
WASHINGTON — President Kennedy, who is justly famed for his sense of political timing, may be carrying an olive branch in person to House Majority Leader John W. McCormack before the next snow flies.

The competitive Kennedy clan hates to be bested at anything, from sports to politics, but the indications are that 36-year-old McCormack will win election to the House speakership next January.

If so, the President will have to depend on his good favor for a hefty lot of "must" legislation, some of which McCormack frankly opposes. Aid to education without simultaneous aid to parochial schools is a case in point.

But for the behind-the-scenes maneuvers of acting Speaker McCormack, after the beloved Sam Rayburn went home to die last fall, the Kennedy aid-to-education bill would probably now be law.

As it was, McCormack sided with the Catholic bishops against the administration measure, because it was for public schools only.

The Kennedys and the McCormacks have been found in and out almost as long as the Hatfields and McCoys, although they have much in common. Their ancestors came from Ireland to Boston. Both families are members of the Roman Catholic Church and the Democratic party. All resemblance stops there.

EYE SAME SEAT
They have fought each other tooth and nail in Boston politics, and McCormack's favorite nephew has long had his eye on the Massachusetts speakership.

Man Pleads Guilty to Holdup Slaying
MUSKEGON (UP)—A 35-year-old Chicago man pleaded guilty to second-degree murder Saturday in the holdup slaying of a retired Muskegon watchmaker last July.

Gaylord Stanton Jr. of Chicago was to have gone on trial today for first-degree murder in the fatal shooting of Peter Markucki, 67, in Markucki's suburban Muskegon Heights home.

Arthur Hartman, 28, of Chicago, was convicted of first-degree murder in Markucki's slaying.

Circuit Judge Noel P. Fox said he would pass sentence on both men within the next two or three weeks.

To Study Personalities of Bright Students
CHICAGO (UPI)—The National Merit Scholarship Corp. plans to look into the personalities of bright students.

The corporation said it will study personality factors related to development of academically talented students; mental health of the talented; and effects of different types of colleges on different types of students.

Massachusetts senatorial seat that President Kennedy's youngest brother, Teddy, also wants to capture next year.

When the Democrats won the White House last year, McCormack sponsored a first-class candidate for head of the powerful Aeronautics and Space Administration: George Feldman, a management consultant who played a large part in writing the space law.

Reportedly McCormack's sponsorship was enough to spell the kiss of death for Feldman, and the top NASA job went to James Webb instead.

It is obvious that if McCormack succeeds to the speakership as now expected, Kennedy will have to begin swapping favors with him, just as presidents long did with "Mr. Sam."

Many top people in recent administrations have owed their posts to the magic push from Rayburn; among them are Navy Secretary John Connally and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson.

President Kennedy has made effective pilgrimages to rivals in the past, although in those cases he was the gracious victor, calling on the vanquished.

NATION CHARMED

The nation was charmed when he went in person to see defeated Republican standard bearer Richard M. Nixon in Miami after the election. It also applauded when he paid several visits to President Eisenhower, before and after inauguration day.

The voters probably were little whether Kennedy calls on McCormack, or the latter calls on him, but if JFK accepts the inevitability of McCormack's elevation, he is expected to make the gracious gesture personally.

Certainly he would have more to win than to lose by taking the initiative in ending the feud. The speaker, although not as colorful as in the days of Uncle Joe Cannon, is still by all odds the most powerful person in either house of Congress.

Should he wish to even odd scores with the Kennedys, or to throw his weight around, McCormack would unquestionably be in excellent position to damage the administration's legislative program.

McCormack is a reasonably un-former opera singer, have never once been separated for breakfast years of marriage, he and his wife, or the evening meal.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that "propels" waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge. Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulk and moisture may create gas, take 3-4 days for relief—out-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new Colomax gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

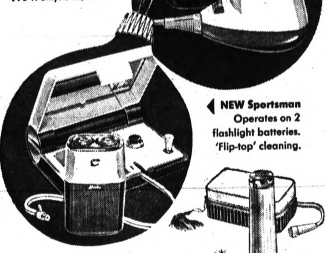

(1) Colomax prevents the formation of dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) Colomax's unequalled rebulking action helps restore flabby colon muscles. (3) And Colomax acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon. Colomax relieves even chronic constipation overnight: is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And Colomax won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get Colomax today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

Doctors Volunteer to Check 688 Pupils

Carver Students to Get Exams

When the doctors arrive Dec. 6 at Oak Park's Carver School, it will mean school health examinations for the first time for all of 688 children there.

The volunteer services of 25 to 400 Oakland County doctors to do the job are the latest addition to a year-old drive to improve health standards at the school.

Carver is a newcomer to the Oak Park School District. It formerly was a school in the Carver District which was dissolved and attached to Oak Park after bitter controversy in November of 1960. It serves kindergarten through grade 8.

After annexation, Oak Park immediately devoted itself to using its higher school tax base to bring a level of education and health standards to Carver students, similar to any other Oak Park school.

The road to better health was paved in part by a $12,000-a-year grant for three years made by the McGregor Foundation, along with help from private individuals.

Each of about 18 dentists of the Oakland County Dental Society offered to give a half day each month for free dental services to Carver children.

SET UP CLINIC

In April of this year, a clinic was set up in the school.

Teachers would send children who needed medical aid to a nurse in the clinic, who in turn would refer them to physicians or dentists.

Much of the medical and dental aid was free, some was paid for through the McGregor grant.

In spring of this year, a special grant of $4,000 enabled the district to send 150 eighth and ninth graders and special education students to Ford Hospital in Detroit for examination.

Eventually Carver school will serve kindergarten through grade six. Grade nine was moved into junior highs this year, and both grades seventh and eighth also will eventually be in junior highs.

The move will be made possible with the completion of a second junior high school.

Commenting on the offer of help from the County Medical Society, Asst. Supt. Clifford May of Oak Park said:

"We recognized that there were a number of health problems which were hampering students in the Carver School. That's why we set up a clinic in the school last spring.

"I am sure that the examination to be done Dec. 6 will further help us in trying to bring the level of health at Carver up to level in the rest of our schools."

Long Holiday Traffic Toll 22 but 9 Less Than 1960

By The Associated Press

It was a grim Thanksgiving holiday for the families of the 22 persons killed in traffic mishaps on Michigan's highways during the four-day holiday weekend.

Still, authorities did have something to be thankful for. The 22 deaths reported were nine short of the total last year.

In addition, eight persons lost their lives in miscellaneous mishaps.

The Associated Press tabulation of Thanksgiving holiday deaths began at 6 p.m. Wednesday and ended midnight Sunday.

The latest five victims reported:

WCC to Report on Communism

Statement Is Promised After Graham Mentions 'Silence' on Subject

NEW DELHI (UPI)—Dr. Franklin C. Fry, president of the United Lutharan Church in America, said today the World Council of Churches (WCC) will issue a statement on communism before the conclusion of its third assembly here.

Fry is chairman of the WCC's Central Committee. The 2½ week assembly opened Nov. 19.

Last week, delegates from about 60 countries admitted the huge Russian Orthodox Church to membership.

American Evangelist Billy Graham, here as an observer, said the current assembly appeared to lack the dynamism of its predecessors and that it had been nearly silent on "the militant atheism of Communism."

"We will have something to say," was Fry's comment when he was told about the German statement. But Fry explained that the assembly's different working committees had not yet finished their tasks.

Officials Probe 3 Minor Blazes

Pontiac Fire Marshal Says Arson Suspected in at Least One

Three minor fires which may have been set yesterday by arsonists or children playing with matches were being investigated today by Pontiac Fire Marshal Charles E. Metz.

Damages estimated at $300 to $400 resulted from the most serious blaze yesterday afternoon when furniture in an unoccupied home at 549 Arthur St. was burned.

Building plans and a desk were damaged in a fire in an office trailer parked at the rear of Jefferson Junior High School, less than a block away from the Arthur Street blaze.

Damages in the third fire in a condemned home at 231 N. Saginaw St. amounted to about $15 in damages, Metz said.

Someone broke open a window on the trailer, owned by the Schurmer Construction Co. of Pontiac, and threw kerosene inside before lighting it, Metz said.

The fire marshal said it was still undetermined whether the fires at the vacant homes were set deliberately or ignited accidentally.

Georgia's Welfare Plan Geared to Need

By AL KUETNER

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second of a series of weekly dispatches telling how welfare is administered in various states.

ATLANTA (UPI)—Georgia's public welfare program is only 24 years old but it is already taking in and spending close to $100 million a year.

The Georgia program is geared carefully to federal welfare laws and efforts are made to match every federal dollar that is available for use in the state's program.

The department is presided over by W. H. Kemper, a long-time political figure who serves a four-year term at the pleasure of the voters. His office is in a marble-front building on the state's Capitol Square.

Kemper gives the appearance of the relaxed office-holder who has time for leisurely cups of coffee with visitors. But actually he has a firm grasp on the intricacies of the welfare business.

GEARED TO NEED
Kemper said in an interview that Georgia's welfare program, unlike the wide-open affairs in some states, "is geared to the needs rather than the greed of the people."

Under most conditions, applicants for welfare aid must have lived in the state for at least a year and must show that they really are in need.

An exception is child welfare. Young children may become eligible for aid at any time the need arises.

Riterners who become welfare prospects must take their chances with charitable organizations rather than with the welfare department.

The Georgia welfare department, started in 1937 in the waning days of the great depression, gets about 75 per cent of its revenue from the federal government, 21 per cent from the state and four per cent from counties.

Applicants in general start their cases with county departments and their records move up to the state department for investigation and clearance for payment.

ASSIGNED A WORKER
Each applicant is assigned a welfare worker who determines the exact needs and helps to draw up a "budget" of payments.

Approximately 48,000 Georgians sought financial aid from county departments and 164,000 received assistance through public welfare grants from the state in the past year.

The state's program provides that when a person is 65 or older, or blind, or permanently and totally disabled or has children in his care who are deprived of parental support and lacks sufficient money to cover living expenses, he may apply for public assistance.

A person may have as much as $800 in savings or other financial reserves and still be classed as "needy" and receive help. The applicant also may own the place of residence if it has a tax value of not more than $5,000 (that would generally make it a house with a market value of about $10,000).

Kemper said payments are made to applicants for as long as their welfare needs exist on the basis of the individual's budget allotment and his other sources of income. These sources may vary by the month.

Kemper said there is no distinction made in his agency as to race.

Nine million Americans have a form of heart disease.

GENEVA (UPI) — The United States and Britain want a clear-cut commitment now as to whether Russia is prepared to sign a nuclear test ban treaty without further time-wasting, diplomatic sources said today.

The sources said the Allies intend to ask for an early Soviet reply when the three-power conference resumes here Tuesday.

U.S. nuclear delegation chief Arthur H. Dean and Britain's Sir Michael Wright arranged a confidential meeting this morning to align their strategy for the crucial confrontation with the Soviets.

Both made it clear on their arrival Sunday that it is "up to the Russians" to break the nuclear deadlock after Moscow's flagrant breach of the test moratorium.

Soviet chief nuclear delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin, who has headed the Russian team here since the talks started more than three years ago was scheduled to arrive this afternoon. He was delayed by fog Sunday in Prague.

The Western delegates are awaiting his first "nuclear offerings" as an indication of Russia's latest intentions. The Soviet Union has exploded some 50 nuclear devices since Sept. 1, including a 50 plus megaton super bomb.

The Allies are approaching the new round of the nuclear talks, which recessed Sept. 9, with considerable scepticism.

NIKITA CRYPTIC — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev gave a cryptic indication of his designs over the weekend.

He expressed "preparedness to respond" to the appeal to end nuclear tests in a letter to the president of the Communist-dominated world peace council.

Khrushchev said he would end testing if others will do likewise, but, ominously, he linked this willingness with the condition that other countries "will readily display readiness to reach agreement on disarmament under international controls."

The West considers a test ban treaty an urgent matter and that it should be concluded without awaiting a global disarmament accord.

Dean and Wright pledged on arrival here American and British willingness to sign "immediately" a test ban treaty with effective international controls, banning nuclear explosions for ever.

They are prepared to sign the Western proposed test ban treaty presented to the Geneva

The meeting is sponsored by the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade to get high-level decisions time-wasting such as the Soviets on how to reduce trade barriers have displayed in the past, the amid conflicting national and regional interests.

The nation's traffic deaths during the extended Thanksgiving weekend may be lower than the toll for the same holiday period in recent years.

Related reports may boost the final count, but at the end of the 102-hour holiday period last midnight, an Associated Press survey showed 432 persons killed in traffic accidents. That compared to 442 highway deaths for a similar period last Thanksgiving, 445 in 1959 and 454 in 1958.

38 DIE IN FIRES

In other violent deaths since the count started at 6 p.m. local time Wednesday, 38 persons perished in fires and 91 others lost their lives in miscellaneous types of accidents. The overall toll of 564 this year compared to 608 in 1960, 650 in 1959 and 626 in 1958.

The National Safety Council did not estimate a traffic death toll for the Thanksgiving holiday period. However, it said deaths on the highway for a non-holiday weekend at this time of year would total 450.

An Associated Press survey for the 102-hour period from 6 p.m. Wednesday Nov. 8 to midnight Sunday Nov. 12 showed 462 traffic fatalities, 37 killed in fires and 106 deaths in miscellaneous accidents, an over-all total of 605.

Relloat Greek Ship in Lake Superior

SAULT STE. MARIE (U) — A Greek freighter was refloated Sunday after being aground on a rocky Lake Superior shoal since last Thursday.

More than 200 tons of scrap iron cargo was transferred from the Anavriklos to three tugs and two scows before the ship was freed from Pancake Shoal, about 40 miles north of here.

Earlier efforts to tow it off the rocks failed.

The U. S. Coast Guard said the ship suffered no apparent damage. However, the vessel was towed to the Soo Sunday night for examination.

'Choir Boy' Is New Look

Airy and angelic-choir boy styling is leading the moppets' holiday fashion parade.

Poppers, pinafores and dresses billow bouffantly from demure high shirred yokes. Popovers and pinafores are cut a little shorter this year. Jumpers, too, have the cherub-like look.

Through "A-line styling" toddlers' clothes designers—"noted" designers—are introducing comfortable, easy-fitting frocks, effortless to don and to take off. They also help hide the tummy, "usually oversized at that age," said one spokesman for a well-known department store chain.

Cotton lawn is this season's most prevalent fabric, but velvet and velveteen also are favored. Eyelet, lace and embroidery are being used extensively, too, as evidenced by the dresses pictured in today's Women's Section. All are available locally.

And number one color for the festive season upon us? Red, of course.

"A-line styling" fashions are on the rise for little girls' yule partying. A pearl button closure at the shoulder accents the black jumper with embroidered red rosebuds arranged across the hemline. The blouse beneath is white organdy with eyelet collar and sleeves.

Celebrate Anniversary

The Herbert N. Drakes of North Perry Street, observing their silver wedding anniversary, were honored at a surprise open house and buffet dinner, Sunday afternoon in Roosevelt Masonic Temple.

Planning the affair were their children Mr. and Mrs. Michael Drake, the Frederick Drakes, Deanna and John Drake. The other children James, Leona, Linda, Mary, Raymond, Nancy, Paul, Carol and Mark, joined some 90 guests from Grosse Pointe, Detroit and Canada. The couple's oldest son Pfc. Herbert Drake Jr., is stationed at Lawton, Okla.

There are six grandchildren.

Specialization Trap Can Trip Exec-to-Be

PORT WAYNE, Ind. (UPI)—If your son's ambition is the executive suite of a corporation, he can best prepare by avoiding the "specialization trap."

"This is the gist of advice from a corporation president who advised youth to take a long look at the changing business world as he prepared for a career."

Tomorrow's corporation will demand an executive who is "a broad social being — unhampered by a totally specialized background" said Edward A. White.

"As a result increasing emphasis is being placed on the liberal arts background as the foundation for top management," White said. He is president of Bowman Intransit Corp., a firm that makes miniature components for aircraft and missiles.

WIDE KNOWLEDGE "More and more," he said, "major corporate decisions involve knowledge of economics, sociology, psychology, political science and philosophy — and the ability to relate the separate components of modern business to company goals and the economy as a whole."

As the executive sees it, too often today, youngsters tend to specialize too much and too early.

"So anxious are they to gain intensive training in applied subjects, such as accounting, engineering, finance, marketing or production," he said, "that they miss the fundamentals of the humanities and social sciences which are becoming so important today — and will be even more vital tomorrow."

The danger of this "specialization trap," said White, was stressed by the eminent management — statesman, Clarence Randall, who observed:

HUMAN RELATIONS 1ST "It is easier to teach the liberal arts student metallurgy than to teach human relations to the student of metallurgy."

In line with this thinking, White points out that the man who will wind up on top tomorrow is the man who can, because of his talent in human relations, direct the largest number of people to produce the most.

What should be the college curriculum for the youngster heading for top management? White cited conclusions of the Association of Consulting Management Engineers — that the best undergraduate training for the executive career should place more than half of its focus upon liberal arts courses. In brief, he said, the recommendation stressed these points:

—Based upon 120 semester hours required for graduation, the student should devote 60-65 hours to the humanities, mathematics, laboratory sciences and the social sciences, with primary stress on English literature and composition.

BUSINESS FOUNDATION A total of 27-30 hours spent in business foundation subjects such as principles of economics and business methods.

—Another 27-30 hours devoted to functional business subjects such as personnel, production, finance or marketing; plus concentration on one as a major subject.

With this, said White, the student then can seek more specialized education through post graduate work.

Where's the best spot to start job-hunting? In keeping with the changing emphasis toward "the executive with wider vision" White said that chances now favor the young man starting out with a small-to-medium sized firm, rather than with an industrial giant.

"This too is part of the educational process," he says, "and the more well-rounded view of business problems and solutions will be better provided by a challenging position in a smaller firm."

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon B. Myers of Bloomfield Hills announce the engagement of their daughter Linda Frances to W. Bennett Yort, son of the Albert A. Yorts of Hinsdale, Ill. Both are graduates of the University of Michigan. The bride-elect is a provisional member of The Junior League of Birmingham.

Festive as a firecracker are this season's bright holiday dresses for the pinafore set. The red cotton-lawn popover has choir boy styling and features a high shirred yoke. The cuffs extend just below the elbow, and a white lace band down the sleeves also runs gaily along the hem. Tiny pearl buttons trim the yoke, and the white lawn dress beneath has short sleeves, a peter pan collar and belted back.

Unit to Hear Tax Review

A review of the tax standards of the League of Women Voters of Michigan and a consensus on taxation issues will be on the agenda for the Pontiac league at a membership meeting Wednesday.

The group will meet at 7:45 p.m. in the Community Services Building.

Julia Dalzell, chairman of State Item 1, and committees headed by Bonnie Davidson and Elizabeth Halsey will arrange the program. Visitors will be welcome.

This week Pontiac members will receive The Pontiac Leagueur, along with several reappointment plans being considered by the 33 leagues in Michigan. Review of the plans will be at the Dec. 5 board meeting.

Constitutional Convention observers will be lined up at the meeting. The LWV's plan is to have nine volunteer observers (one for each committee) present at the convention at all times. Pontiac members will be asked to participate in the observer program after the holiday recess.

Wife Sets Own Record

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I wasn't educated here so please correct my English if I don't express myself too good.

I don't know a thing about baseball and I am not interested in the game, but I have a nut at home for a husband. Since Maris hit 61 home runs, all I hear about is the record he set. I am fed up with this nonsense.

Let me tell you that I also

No Need to Order for Others

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: My husband and I and another couple went on a cruise recently. We were seated at a table with two other couples. They were very pleasant and table companions and we all chatted throughout the meals and enjoyed each other's company. One night the husband of the other couple we were with ordered a bottle of champagne with dinner. He asked the waiter to bring four glasses.

I was very embarrassed sitting at the table drinking champagne while the others looked on and I think it was very impolite of him not to offer some champagne to the others at table.

In discussing this with my husband, he disagreed with me and said that as they were not in our party, there was no need to do so. I would very much like your opinion on this matter.

A: Your husband is right. There was no reason to offer champagne to your table companions. If any of them wished champagne or anything else to drink not included in the meals, they should have ordered and signed for it themselves.

Q: My daughter is going to be married soon and she has chosen a white satin wedding dress with a chapel-length train. She is having four bridesmaids and a maid of honor to wear ballerina-length dresses or should they be ankle length since the bride is wearing a long dress?

A: The attendants' dresses should be the same length as the bride's.

Q: I have been invited to the 13th wedding anniversary party of a friend of mine. Will you please tell me what type of gift is appropriate for this anniversary?

A: The 13th wedding anniversary year is lace.

set a record. In two years I gave birth to SIX children. The first time I had three boys, and the second time I had three girls. And, believe me, that is a record I never heard of before.

I would like to see Roger Maris or any other baseball player tie a record like that. Please, Abby, remind my husband that I also set a record and I am not in the Hall of Fame.

SIX OUT OF TWO

DEAR ABBY: I became acquainted with a man through my work. He told me he wasn't married. He is my type of guy and I could get very serious about him, but something bothers me. I have called him up numerous times at his apartment, and a woman has answered the phone.

He has told me it was his "sister" or a "cousin" or a "neighbor." But I am sure it is the same woman every time. How can I find out for sure whether he is married or living with someone?

NEEDS HELP

DEAR NEEDS: Don't get palsey walsey with a man whose marital status is hazy. If a woman has answered his telephone "numerous times," the chances are she belongs there.

DEAR ABBY: I am 23, well-behaved and live at home. I give my mother half my pay check in return for room, board and laundry service—which is all right with me.

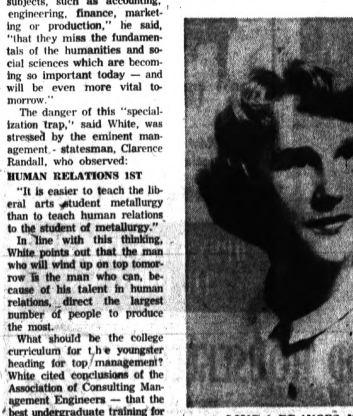

My problem is that I am treated as though I were still 16. I could move out and share an apartment with another girl, but I know my parents can use the money so I have continued to live at home.

Pontiac Osteopathic Will Be Largest in State

FINISHED LOOK — This is what Michigan's biggest osteopathic hospital will look like. Slated for completion by next July 1, the new addition will add 270 beds to Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

COURTYARD — An unusual feature of the $13-million Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital addition will be an enclosed courtyard on the third level. It will be surrounded by patients' bedrooms and designed to aid recuperation of patients. There will be some 150 beds on the third level. This is an artist's conception of the court showing trees and shrubbery.

HE'S HELPING — Joe M. Rogers of 4510 W. Marcella St., Utica, is one of the construction workers working on the new osteopathic hospital addition. At present he and his fellow workers are ahead of their construction schedule.

To Be Finished on July 1, 1962

Excellent Weather Aids Building of $4.3-Million Hospital Addition

About July 1, 1962, Pontiac will become the home of the largest osteopathic hospital in Michigan.

Construction of a new $13-million addition to Pontiac Osteopathic is at about the half-way point and progressing ahead of schedule due to excellent weather so far this fall.

When it's all finished, including some $250,000 in improvements to the existing building, Pontiac Osteopathic will cover almost an entire city block.

The brains and planning behind it all is Harry H. Whitlow, hospital administrator. Whitlow started with a converted hotel and will end up with a modern 400-bed facility.

A large share of the program's success is due also to the foresight of the hospital's board of directors and H. W. Kruger, board president.

Recently, the hospital bought a two-story brick building across the street at 47 N. Perry for about $60,000. It is being renovated and will house purchasing offices and storage area when finished in February.

The new addition will consist of three floors and penthouse administration offices. It will be of concrete frame, brick, glass and aluminum construction.

72,000 SQUARE FEET
There will be 72,000 square feet of floor area in the building and about 270 beds. Cost per bed is estimated at $4,800.

The ground floor will house a pharmacy, X-ray department, laboratories, records storage area, mechanical equipment and general offices.

Many departments, such as X-ray and the pathology lab, will more than double in size. The hospital's already major medicine department will also increase in size and equipment.

"Acad from better patient care, this increase will undoubtedly result in more research projects being carried out here," said Whitlow.

The surgical core will occupy a large portion of the second floor.

This will consist of recovery rooms, five operating rooms, separate cystoscopy and fracture rooms (formerly one room) and a sub-sterile storage area.

LOCATED AT CENTER
The central sterile supply department will be adjacent to the surgical suite on the south. With service areas at both ends, this big unit will be located in the center of the building surrounded by 120 beds, nurses stations and utility areas.

On the third level, a landscaped open court will be surrounded by patients' bedrooms and related service facilities. There will be about 150 beds on the floor.

The hospital's nurse call system for patients will be both audible and visual. The new addition will also house a new boiler plant supplying hot water heat.

All areas will have forced air ventilation and the ground floor and surgical suite will be air conditioned. There will also be two passenger elevators in the addition.

By the existing building to the south, kitchen facilities will be enlarged, the obstetrical department will be removed and present administrative offices will become a large visitors' lounge.

The building entrance, lobby and present visitor areas will be completely remodeled. The new addition and rehabilitation work will cost $1,550,000.

FROM THE TOP — Looking down from the top floor of the present Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital building, patients and staff members are confronted with this scene of activity. Workmen are currently pouring the roof of the new addition. Blessed with excellent weather so far, contractors expect to have all concrete structural work finished by Dec. 1.

Personnel, Equipment Figure in Expansion

The story of Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital's gigantic expansion program is not one of more building area alone.

Part of the story is people and equipment.

The hospital's expenditure for the most modern equipment available for its new addition is estimated to run to $500,000 or more.

When the new addition is operating at full scale, the hospital will employ about 900 people with a monthly payroll of about $250,000.

This will more than double the present payroll and make the hospital Pontiac's fourth or fifth largest employer.

There will be 27 interns at the hospital. Now there are 10. There will be 20 resident doctors instead of the five now in residency.

Taking just one example, the lab will need three additional resident pathologists and one more registered pathologist. Employees in the lab will jump from 25 to 50.

Harry H. Whitlow, administrator, has traveled all over the country looking at equipment. He will go to London to do the same in January.

New items range from "high-low beds," easily adjusted to hospital or domestic height, to a $50,000 rapid cassette changer in the X-ray department's special procedures room.

This machine, used in X-raying the heart, arteries and brain, can take six pictures per second. A rapid developer produces finished pictures in seven minutes.

There will be X-ray units combined with twin lights in operating rooms. New Orthovis autocleaning units will clean and sterilize anything in 15 minutes. The old method took anywhere from one to four hours.

Major Bowl Games Are Set

By The Associated Press

The battle for the post-season bowl spots comes off the gridiron into eight committee conference rooms at as many sites today, with Alabama's final bid for a flock of honors and the annual war between Army and Navy this weekend temporarily side tracked.

Only the Orange Bowl committee has finished its work, having Colorado and Louisiana State set for Jan. 1, 1962 extravaganza. A few technicalities remain to have the pair signed, sealed and delivered, but these are academic.

Now it remains for the Rose Bowl committee to tap Ohio State as an opponent for UCLA; for the Cotton Bowl committee to select Mississippi to face Texas, and for the Sugar Bowl committee to sweat out 'Bama's game against Auburn before inviting it to play Southwest Conference co-champ Arkansas in New Orleans.

These are pretty well decided on pairings. 'Bama coach Bear Bryant, having decided on the Sugar Bowl if picked, still is trying to get a perfect 10-0 season, plus a share of the Southeastern Conference title with LSU. He also is aiming at the top spot in the final Associated Press poll the following week, bringing with it the national championship.

With Missouri having eliminated itself from any bowl consideration despite a 10-7 victory over the Kansas Jayhawks and with Syracuse already in the Liberty Bowl.

There remains a pool of bowl eligibles that must fill both spots in the Bluebonnet, Gotham and National Trophy bowls, and one spot in Philadelphia's Dec. 16 Liberty affair.

These include: Auburn, Kansas, Utah State, Wyoming, Rice, Duke, and Maryland, in addition to Penn State and Miami.

Kansas has an invitation to the Gotham, Dec. 9 in New York, and is also a Liberty favorite, along with Duke. Auburn has been given the nod by Washington's Dec. 30

National Trophy affair. Neither was idle while Auburn beat Florida 32-15.

Texas nailed down the Cotton Bowl and co-SWC title on Thanksgiving Day. Ole Miss will probably give its answer to a bid after its game this weekend against Mississippi State.

Colorado nailed down the Big Eight title with a 35-0 victory over Iowa State, in addition to its Orange Bowl trip. Virginia's 28-16 upset of Maryland killed the 'Terps' chances for the Gator

Tittle Passes Giants to Win Over Cleveland

Eagles Post Triumph to Stay Even, 35-13, Over Dallas Team

By The Associated Press

Yelberton Abraham Tittle, like the fabled Pampelstishkin, has a name that's virtually impossible to remember. But his exploits are hard to forget.

Acquired in an Aug. 15 trade that caused little Tittle to leave the No. 1 offensive weapon for the New York Giants in a series of stunning triumphs, the latest a 37-21 walloping of the Cleveland Browns Sunday, Tittle, who admits to 34 and has 12 years experience in the National Football League, completed 18 of 27 passes for 353 yards and three touchdowns, and kept the Giants rolling toward the Eastern Conference title with their fourth consecutive romp.

Under the Bald Eagle's guidance, the revitalized New York offense has accounted for an amazing 170 points in the last four games as the Giants built and maintained a one-game lead over the defending league champion Philadelphia Eagles.

The Eagles kept pace Sunday, whipping the Dallas Cowboys 35-13 behind Johnny Jurgensen's five touchdown passes. They still have three games left, including a Dec. 10th head-to-head meeting at Philadelphia, in which to catch the Giants.

In the Western Conference, Green Bay, 1947 winner over Detroit Thursday, holds a commanding lead over the Lions and San Francisco 49ers, tied for the runner-up spot at 6-4. The Packers, at 9-2, can wrap it up with one more victory. They meet the Giants next.

The 49ers remained in contention by beating Minnesota 38-28 Sunday. In other games, Chicago edged Los Angeles 28-24, Baltimore defeated Washington 27-6, and Pittsburgh nipped St. Louis 30-27.

Despite Tittle's passing, the Giants scored all their touchdowns on the ground with Y.A. rambling five yards for one in the key clash that probably eliminated the Browns from title contention. Bobby Galters ran one and 11 yards for TDs, Erich Barnes got the other on a 35-yard pass from Tittle on interception and Pat Summerall contributed three field goals.

Milt Plum kept the Browns in the game with 43 and 15-yard scoring tosses to Ray Renfro while the Giants held league rushing leader Jimmy Brown to 68 yards in 20 carries before a disappointed crowd of 80,455.

Jurgensen hit Ted Dean for a 30-yard scoring play to overcome a 3-0 Dallas lead, then connected with Pete Retzlaff on a 40-yard payoff kick and wound up with three TD strikes to Tommy McDonald on plays covering 46, 40 and 27 yards. The lone Cowboy touchdown came on a 21-yard pass from Eddie LeBaron to Amos Marsh.

The 49ers abandoned the shotgun completely for the T formation and beat the Vikings on the running of J. D. Smith and John Brodie's passing. Smith scored on six and 15-yard runs while Brodie pitched a 40-yard TD toss to R. C. Owens and scored himself on a 16-yard dash.

The Bears, who got a three-TD performance from fullback Rick Casares, needed a 55-yard touchdown pass from Billy Wade to beat the Giants with two minutes left to win.

Howe Unable to Celebrate

Gordie's Record Marred, Hawks Post 4-1 Win

Red Wings Great Sets NHL Mark by Playing in 1,000th Game

CHICAGO (AP)—Detroit's Gordie Howe set a record for the most games ever played by one man in the National Hockey League last night, but he wasn't celebrating.

The Red Wings dropped a 4-1 decision to Chicago and fell to fifth place in NHL standings, one point behind the Black Hawks.

It was Howe's 1,000th regular season game, putting him past former Detroit teammate Ted Lindsay, who quit after 999. The 33-year-old Howe, five-time winner of the Hart Trophy as the NHL's most valuable player, was held scoreless by Chicago goalie Glenn Hall.

The defeat climaxed a disastrous six-game road trip for the Wings that began in Chicago two weeks ago. They lost five—two by shutouts—while winning only one.

Detroit opened the scoring in the first period when Norm Ullman battled in a loose puck. Chicago, however, came back less than a minute later when defenseman Pierre Pilote rammed a 25-footer past Red Wing goalie Terry Sawchuk.

Detroit put the pressure on for most of the second period and bombarded Hall with 15 shots—all unsuccessful. Chicago had only four shots, but one produced a goal by Bobby Hull.

Ron Murphy and Bronco Horvath concluded Chicago scoring in the third period. Horvath's goal came when he swatted the puck from 15 feet out while lying flat on his back.

In other NHL action last night, Montreal and Toronto tied for the lead. Montreal and New York played a 2-2 tie, and the Maple Leafs beat Boston 4-1.

Bob Nevin's goal got Toronto ahead to stay in the first period, and he assisted Frank Mahovlich on another before the period ended.

McNeeley Joins Champion

TORONTO (AP) — Both world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson and challenger Tom McNeeley are safely installed here for their Dec. 4 title fight at Maple Leaf Gardens, and Patterson's Manager, Gus D'Amato, is happy now, if such a thing is possible.

McNeeley, the Boston challenger, arrived Sunday night after an air trip delayed more than an hour by engine trouble.

McNeeley and millionaire manager Peter Fuller held a press conference during which they shared the answers to the gist of which were that the 23-year-old McNeeley is ready for Patterson.

D'Amato has been here with Patterson for a couple of weeks, during which he protested that the challenger's absence was hurting the gate promotion.

Said Fuller Sunday night: "Tom is here to fight for the title Dec. 4. I didn't plan to have him here just for display."

McNeeley looked glumly healthy and showed no effects of his fouled-up air trip. The plane carrying him to New York for his Canadian connection developed engine trouble in the air and was called back to Boston airport, after which the party waited more than an hour for another plane.

McNeeley, who impressed reporters as being shy but confident made no attempt to disguise his dislike for Patterson.

"If I didn't think I had the experience and ability I wouldn't be here for the fight."

He conceded the champion's final speed.

Tulane Mentor Resigns Post Under Pressure

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Andy Pilner, under fire from disgruntled alumni and fans, quit today as head football coach at Tulane after eight seasons, two of them successful ones.

Dr. Herbert Longenecker, Tulane president, announced Pilner's resignation less than two days after the Southeastern Conference team finished its season with a 62-0 shelling by Louisiana State.

Tulane had a 2-8 mark for the year and an overall record of 25-84 since Pilner became head coach in 1954.

Tommy O'Boyle, one-time Tulane star who had been Pilner's chief assistant, will serve as acting head coach while the five-member committee makes recommendations for a permanent head coach.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — An exchange of shortstops between Boston and the new Houston club, sending Don Boddin to the Colts and Eddie Bressoud to the Red Sox, marked the first player trade of the baseball convention which gets under way officially today.

The deal, although not of great magnitude, and the rejection of the spitball stole the advance spotlight from the major league draft starting at 11 a.m. EST, Washington, which finished in a ninth place tie with Kansas City in the expanded American League last season, was expected to take shortstop Ken Hamlin from Toronto as its first pick. The standard draft price is $25,000.

The Red Sox-Colts swap was expected to stir further trades brewing since the three-week inter-league trading period began Nov. 21. The only other inter-league deal made so far was Coed Vea to Pittsburgh last Tuesday.

A transaction which may be consummated before the league moguls leave for Miami Thursday to hold their own convocation, involves Milwaukee and Chicago Cubs. The trade would send Bob Buhl, 35-year-old Braves right-hander, to the Cubs for reliever Don Elston and infielder Jerry Kindall.

Sunday's legislative spotlight was centered on the rules committee which rejected a proposal to legalize the spitball. The vote change of shortstops between Boston and the new Houston club, eight against the spitball's return and one for it. Troy Decides Tomorrow on School Tax Increase

TROY—Voters in the Troy School District will decide a three-mill tax proposal for operation in a special election here tomorrow.

If approved, the additional tax will be levied for four years, effective on the 1962 tax rolls which are billed in December 1962.

Since the school board intends to reduce the 1963-1964 debt retirement levy, the school tax increase in 1962 would be $1.98 per $1,000 of assessed valuation instead of $3, or the full three mill increase on the ballot.

The millage hike was recommended by a special citizens' committee Nov. 5 because of reduced state aid to the district for next year and an accumulated operational deficit from previous years.

Without the additional teachers, the hike would permit balanced school operating budget, expanded teaching and counseling programs, completion of current projects and continuation of extra services.

If passed, the increase will allow the board to hire 10 additional teachers, a full-time librarian at the junior high school, a remedial reading teacher and additional counselors to cope with increased enrollment.

Schools Supt. Rex B. Smith said. Without the additional teachers, he added, classes would have to be enlarged next year.

Funds from the millage increase would also provide for completing the long pending play areas on all school grounds, improving sanitary and health facilities and adding needed maintenance equipment, the superintendent said.

Continuation of complete bus service and free textbooks for all students would be covered by the millage increase tax revenues.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 8 p.m.

Southfield Votes on School Bonds

Southfield — Reactions to the school bonds issue were expected at tonight's City Council meeting.

The mayor has questioned the legality of council approval of the projects.

Council President C. Hugh Doehny said this morning that he had received a letter from the mayor stating that the council has not the authority to approve any project because it has no city assessor.

Clarkson dismissed City Assessor Gerald Eastick in June over disagreements in assessing procedures. The council then appointed Eastick as assessing consultant.

It was not until Oct. 24 that the mayor approved the appointment with reservations. As assessing consultant, Eastick has the job of providing technical advice to the assessor's office.

Clarkson maintains that Southfield is still without a city assessor. The three water projects are for water pipes to be installed on Nine Mile Road and on Church Street.

Doehny said this morning that the water shortage on Nine Mile is so acute that money had already been borrowed at 4 per cent at $100 million capital construction interest from the Water Department.

Approval is sought by the school board on a $7.2-million bond issue for new school buildings and additions along with a five-mill request.

Of the five mills, three would be a continuation of a current levy which went into effect in 1961 and which expires the end of the year. The other two mills would be new revenue.

The bond issue, if approved, would be used to finance the construction of new junior high, two elementary schools and an addition to the Southfield High School.

Also planned for construction are 19 elementary classrooms with existing facilities, one kindergarten, two libraries and a multi-purpose room.

The millage increase would cost the taxpayers about $3.20 for each $1,000 of state equalized valuation over the current rate of $3.75 per $1,000.

The extension and increase of taxes would be in effect five years if voters give their approval.

REHEARSE FOR PLAY — Four members of the cast re-enact a scene from the forthcoming junior class play, "Whodunnit," to be presented Saturday at Romeo Community High School. They are (from left) Phoebe McGuire, Mike Pooch, Paul Faulkner and Zita Miller, directing the Ellery Queen mystery by J. P. Sullivan, high school English teacher. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Horse Saves 5 in Farm Blaze

Breaks Away, Rouses Neighbor as Family Sleeps; $20,000 Loss

DEERFIELD TOWNSHIP — A horse which had a $20,000 barn fire and awakened a neighbor was credited this morning with saving the lives of a Lapeer County family of five.

The fire on the farm of Ralph Dice, 69th Mill Road, was burning unattended, threatening outbuildings and the residence, when one of Dice's horses broke out of the barnyard, galloped to the front of a neighbor's house and awoke the resident.

The neighbor, who was unidentified, called North Branch fire department at 4:30 a.m. Dice, his wife and three children were still sleeping.

A tank truck raced to the scene west of M24 and north of Lapeer, but firemen found the barn engulfed by flames threatening surrounding buildings.

Water sprayed on corncries and other granaries kept the fire from spreading to the residence.

Origin of the fire was undetermined. Still in shock from the sudden loss, Dice said this morning: "We lost everything that makes a farm go. But we're lucky the horses made a lot of noise and woke the neighbor."

The Dice's three children, two sons and a daughter, range in age from 11 to 18.

Lost in the barn were 400 pigs, 400 to 500 calves of hay, a truck and other farm equipment.

To acquaint the public with the work of CAP, the cadets and senior members will hold an open house from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the CAP hangar at Allen Airport, 453 Giddings Road near Silverbell Road, Orion Township.

The open house is part of the Dec. 1-8 observance of Civil Air Patrol Week, proclaimed by village President Irvine J. Ungor.

The cadets will alternate between demonstrations of close-order drill and regular classroom sessions throughout the day.

This will give the public a chance to observe the kind of job we are doing in aircraft and aerospace orientation," said Squadron Adjutant Peter Veen of 1361 Beech Drive, Orion Township.

Because of a limited budget, Veen said, refreshments will be available at regular prices at the airport administrative building.

Parking is provided on airport property for the CAP hangar. Cadets will be on the job to direct the public to the hangar, Veen said.

The CAP is a civilian auxiliary of the U. S. Air Force and includes 70,000 cadets throughout the nation.

The Lake Orion Squadron is part of the 11th Group with headquarters in Berkeley. Squadrons of the group are stationed at Royal Oak, Clawson, Berkeley and Oak Park.

Inkster Woman Hurt by Blast, Hunt Youth

INKSTER (AP)—A youth who apparently tried to experiment with explosive powder, a tin can and a short fuse was sought by police last night after his invention injured an Inkster woman in this Detroit suburb.

The youth fled when Mrs. Sally Kortzy, 27, went to the front of her home to see "what was working with a small black object on the sidewalk."

Police Sgt. Robert Fowler said the can, containing black powder and wadded with paper napkins, exploded, firing a small rocket.

The extension and increase of taxes would be in effect five years if voters give their approval.

Approval is sought by the school board on a $7.2-million bond issue for new school buildings and additions along with a five-mill request.

Of the five mills, three would be a continuation of a current levy which went into effect in 1961 and which expires the end of the year. The other two mills would be new revenue.

The bond issue, if approved, would be used to finance the construction of new junior high, two elementary schools and an addition to the Southfield High School.

Also planned for construction are 19 elementary classrooms with existing facilities, one kindergarten, two libraries and a multi-purpose room.

The millage increase would cost the taxpayers about $3.20 for each $1,000 of state equalized valuation over the current rate of $3.75 per $1,000.

Board Asking OK for $7.2 Million, Plus Five Mills Tax

SOUTHFIELD — One of the largest school bond issues ever proposed in South Oakland County will be decided today by voters in the Southfield School District. A millage question is also proposed.

Approval is sought by the school board on a $7.2-million bond issue for new school buildings and additions along with a five-mill request.

Of the five mills, three would be a continuation of a current levy which went into effect in 1961 and which expires the end of the year. The other two mills would be new revenue.

U Nu, Ikeda Urge End to Nuclear Testing

RANGOON, Burma (AP)—Prime Ministers Hayato Ikeda of Japan and U Nu of Burma expressed deep concern Sunday over continued nuclear testing. They said it could lead to "total annihilation of mankind."

In a joint communique released following Ikeda's three-day good-will visit, both leaders said they "strongly appeal for immediate suspension of all nuclear weapons tests and for early conclusion of an agreement on prohibition of nuclear weapons tests, under effective inspection and control."

African Riots Quelled

BULAWAYO, Southern Rhodesia (AP)—Police fired tear gas and warning shots Sunday to quell rioting in Bulawayo African townships following a nationalist political meeting. Loudest Over Medical Care

Public Praises or Blames JFK on Blue Cards

WASHINGTON (AP)—The people are telling President Kennedy what's on their minds—and also telling him off a bit—in stacks of oversize blue postcards piling up at the White House.

They praise him warmly or criticize him on his administration harshly. They talk about socialism, communism, nuclear tests, a balanced budget, fallout shelters, Caroline, racial and religious intolerance.

They mention aid to education, housing, preservation of wilderness areas.

The people writing the President want such things as a job, loan, or free transportation for old folks.

More than anything else, they are strongly for or strongly against medical care for the aged financed through the Social Security System.

These blue cards are special ones, already addressed to Kennedy at the White House and even carrying the salutation "Dear Mr. President."

CARDS ON HAND

They were on hand for anyone who wanted to pick them up at the series of regional conferences just staged in 12 cities under government auspices. Cabinet members and squads of other top-rank administration officials made the circuit, delivering speeches, taking part in panels, answering questions.

The objective, the administration said, was to tell the people about the record of Congress and the administration and to obtain their views.

Since Kennedy didn't get to any of the meetings, cards were made available to send views direct to him.

A survey of the first 200 cards contained contributions from eight cities: Chicago, St. Louis, Nashville, Denver, Detroit, Cleveland, New York and Philadelphia. No cards were made available at Madison, Wis., the White House said, and the first batch included none from San Francisco, Los Angeles and Seattle, where the last of the conferences took place.

AGAINST MEDICINE

The one topic that stands out in the first communications is medical care for the aged. On a

Flood Strands 2,000

BRAZZAVILLE, Congo Republic (AP)—The overflowing Congo River has isolated about 2,000 persons in the Mossaka region in the north part of this former French colony, the government announced Sunday. Some have been trapped on high ground for as long as five days. Tens of thousands of acres of land were reported flooded.

numerical count, the number of cards expressing opinions on this issue runs about 5 to 4 against such care under the Social Security financing plan the administration recommends.

But the figures don't give a complete picture.

Nearly half the total cards received are from St. Louis, and more than half of the St. Louis cards are from doctors.

All told, St. Louis had checked in with 97 cards, 49 from physicians. All 49 were typed, all looked as if the typing was done on the same machine. Five were from individual doctors and 44 were in pairs—each pair of cards identical, worded but each signed by a different doctor.

From all cities, 52 cards opposed the medical care program, approved it.

While the doctors lined up against the medical care plan, some of the doctors called the program "socialized medicine."

But a Philadelphia woman told Kennedy: "I am hoping that you will help pass the bill on socialized medicine."

Kennedy they are for it.

Charge in Divorce Suit Offending to Sir Cedric

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Sir Cedric Hardwicke, the quiet spookster, is pretending furrowed indignation at Mary Scott for charging in the divorce action that he said, "Marriage is for the bourgeoisie."
"Had I uttered such an appalling cliché, I would divorce me," insisted Sir Cedric. "My friends are avoiding me—fearing I will say something else witty like that."
"It was just a legal plinkum," shrugged Sir Cedric, who's here on behalf of the "Mrs. G. Goes to College" TV series on CBS. "Mary knows I never said 'Marriage is for the bourgeoisie.'"
"Because," he added, "marriage is not for the bourgeoisie—or anybody else."
Sir Cedric said that after two marriages, he's reminded of the time George Bernard Shaw was asked, at a dinner, "Are you enjoying yourself?" Shaw snapped, "Yes, but that's all I'm enjoying."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL

Singer Earl Grant failed to open at the Roundtable, which switched to the Twist; he says the club didn't give him enough musicians.
Ralph Wadman, East shattered when Peggy Lee got sick, rapped certain entertainers for "holding me up now" with inflated salary demands; he hopes to reopen soon. (Big-timers Buddy Hackett and Alan King had offered to step in for Peggy, gratis.)
Frank Sinatra will get $50,000 for two nights' work in Australia next month; the dough's already in an L.A. bank.
Joe Louis will make comedy albums with Leonard Red.
Hair-dresser Ernie Adler's outfitting a Cadillac station wagon with special equipment for emergency calls to celebrity clients.
Debbie Reynolds, preparing a Las Vegas café, will work with four male hoofers.
EARL'S PEARLS: An old maid is someone who uses her phone only for outgoing calls.
TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A basketball coach (says Sam Pascale) had a wonderful dream, that a beautiful, rich girl lured him to her apartment—where he met her brother, who was seven feet tall.

Wished I'd Said That

No matter how busy a man he is, he's never too busy to stop and tell you how busy he is.
Until a man can get along by crossing his legs and winking at the judge, there's no such thing as equal rights... That's earl, brother.

Labor Reported Facing 'Crisis'

Study Claims Trouble Due to Drop in Union Members, Opposition
NEW YORK (UPI)—The organized American labor movement is in a "crisis" due to declining union membership, management opposition and internal scandals, a private study reports.
The study, "The Decline of the Labor Movement," was written by Solomon Barkin, research director of the Textile Workers Union of America.
It was published Sunday by the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions which noted in a foreword that it did not necessarily endorse the study's findings.
Barkin accused industrial management of conducting a "virulent, relentless and skillful counter-offensive" against U.S. organized labor at a time when union membership already was being drained by shrinking employment due to advanced technology and intense competition.

Wounded During Holdup

DETROIT (AP)—A Detroit service station attendant, George Rogers, 23, was wounded seriously Sunday when he was shot in the back by one of two boys who robbed the station of $75. Rogers said the boys were about 15 or 16.

Tangerines are an important source of vitamin C.
He said the Taft-Hartley Act and an "unfriendly" attitude shown by the National Labor Relations Board under former President Dwight Eisenhower had given "new freedom to antiunion activities."
The study noted that state right-to-work laws and the disappearance of "social discontent" were contributing to the troubles of organized labor.

These Jazz Animals Could REALLY Play

BY FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI)—Some weathered whippersnappers from the land of jazz stormed into a TV studio and managed to sweep aside some inconsequential production baguettages with their rousing sounds and styles Sunday night.

"Chicago and All That Jazz" was the special NBC-TV "Show of the Week" was the slot. Gary Moore, possibly TB's most commercially acceptable jazz buff, spoke—producer-writer, William Nichols' words about the history and meaning of Chicago and all that jazz.

Garry was surrounded by such warm-blooded jazz animals as Red Allen, Gene Krupa, Kid Ory, Pee Wee Russell, Jimmy McPartland and Mac Barnes, with that kind of company going for him, the script and Garry had the good sense to keep out of the act as much as possible.

And despite everything, the message came through, albeit in bits and pieces.
For that reason, I was sorry the show wasn't aired at an earlier time so that the youngsters could get an earful. A little history lesson wouldn't hurt.

Perhaps the performers have grown a bit short-winded after 30 or 40 years. But their rhythms, though repetitive and, by modern standards primitive, retain a remarkable vitality and joie de vivre.

No, they don't, as Garry suggested, "how you right out of your living room." That feat probably could be left to the younger cats who play louder. The achievement of Sunday night's jazzmen was more impressive.

I also enjoyed the pre-Twist jazz dances by the team of Mims and James and the raucous, rolly-polly shouting by those gung singers. I thought an opportunity was missed by not letting the old-timers tell some stories about jazz, Chicago and the 20's, in their own words.

The script wasn't intended to be a scholarly history of jazz—I hope—but it could serve the uninitiated as a rather antiseptic primer.

DIALING AND FILING:

"Money and the Minister" was a weightless little soap opera that starred Ronald Reagan in the role of a Protestant clergyman Sunday night on CBS-TV's "GE Theater."

Want to Play for Mrs. Santa Claus?

Nearly a thousand patients at Pontiac State Hospital have no relatives. It will be a dreary Christmas for them, except for the Chris-mas of the public.

That is why Supt. Walter H.
Obenau is suggesting various Christmas gift ideas. A list of suggestions has been obtained from hospital personnel and from the patients themselves.

Anybody who wishes can mail or bring his gifts to the hospital, Obenau said. For information, call Ted Panareos, community relations director, FE 5-8186,
ext. 244.

Included on the list of needs are Christmas cards and stamps for patients to mail out or exchange with other patients or personnel or hospital volunteers.

Gift wrapping paper, ribbon, cloth, and thread, cookies, cakes, writing material and candy all are welcome.

Christmas decorations to brighten up the various wards and other hospital areas are badly needed, Obenau said.

Clothing would include dresses, blouses, skirts, lingerie, etc., and must be washable cotton material with no zippers involved: sweaters and bathrobes (no wool), scarfs, sneakers, slippers and washable socks.

Cosmetics such as lipstick, rouge, powder, face creams, perfume, shampoo, talcum powder, cologne, should be in plastic containers or at least not glass containers.

ITEMS LISTED

The men can use sport shirts, jackets, sweaters, cigarettes, chewing tobacco, pipes, cigarette cases, shaving cream (tube or plastic), electric razors (preferably Remington), cigars, ties, belts and socks.

Both male and female patients could use cleansing tissues, bathtubs, gloves and mittens, books, playing cards, comb and brush sets, deodorants, mechanical pencils and ball point pens, soap, toothpaste, view-master and slides.

Games could include cribbage, picture puzzles, paint by number sets, checkers, chess, scrabble,
Chinese checkers.

The children (8 to 18 years of age) are requesting toys, table games, candy and cookies. Most of the youngsters are in the teenage range.

Obenau pointed out that all Christmas gifts must be new.

"Hand-me-downs just do not seem right during Christmas," he said. Delivery of gifts by Dec. 15 would be appreciated. Unwrapped gifts accompanied by gift wrapping paper and ribbon will expedite selection of a suitable gift.

Russia Calls for Four-Power Ban on N-Tests

Soviets Release Copy of Geneva Arms Proposal

Reds' 'New Approach' Would Use National Control Systems

Soviets Release Copy of Geneva Arms Proposal

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union today invited France to join it, the United States and Britain in a four-point agreement to end all nuclear weapons tests.

Calling for a "new approach" to a test ban, the Soviet Foreign Ministry gave foreign correspondents and neutralist ambassadors in Moscow copies of a draft agreement to be presented to the three-power test ban conference resuming Tuesday in Geneva.

The Soviet proposal would apply to all tests—in the atmosphere, outer space, underground and underwater.

"The time has come to invite France to take part in the nuclear test ban talks," the Foreign Ministry said.

It added that the success of the Geneva talks "undoubtedly would be facilitated" if nuclear nations agreed not to conduct tests during the talks.

But if any of them do, including France, the ministry said, the Soviet Union reserves the right to follow suit.

CALLS FOR CONTROL

The Soviet draft called, as before, for a control system linked to an agreement on general and total disarmament. But it proposed that each signatory use "national systems" for detecting nuclear or thermonuclear explosions.

Copies of the draft had not been sent to the U.S. embassy in Moscow when newsmen saw it, but the Soviets were expected to inform the U.S., British and French ambassadors shortly.

The draft agreement contained these specific points:

—The parties to the agreement will carry out any kind of nuclear and thermonuclear tests in the atmosphere, outer space or under water.

—The states involved will use "national systems" for detecting nuclear and thermonuclear explosions.

—No states will carry out any underground nuclear tests before they agree on a control system that would be part of an international control system for an agreement on general and total disarmament.

—The agreement would be signed by the Soviet Union, the United States, Britain and France, and would be "open for adherence by all states."

The Foreign Ministry Press Department said the Soviet government proposed to "sink all weapons, both conventional and nuclear, in the deepest part of the ocean."

"Humanity now has no other recourse but to wreck its entire military machine and create a world without armies and without weapons," the statement said.

Riots Churn Algeria 16 Killed, 87 Hurt

ALGIERS (AP) — Lynching, shooting and grenade-throwing by anti-De Gaulle Europeans and Algerians in revenge clashes killed 16 persons and injured 87 in one of the bloodier weekends of the seven-year Algerian war.

French troops and police were caught in the middle as terrorism swept Algiers and the big western port city of Oran.

Waving clubs, a screaming mob of Europeans broke into a jail in Algiers, lynched one Algerian woman and savagely beat another before police reinforcements drove them off. The women had been arrested after a grenade wounded three Europeans in a sidewalk clash.

In Oran, 200 miles to the west, bands of European youths roamed the streets, attacking any Moslems they encountered in revenge for the killing of Jean Rivis, 22, who was shot in the neck as he

Hope Dwindles for Michael Rockefeller

Find Second Can Off N. Guinea

MERAUKE, Dutch New Guinea (UPI) — A heavy tropical storm swept the southern coast of Dutch New Guinea Sunday and early today, hindering the search for the missing Michael Rockefeller.

The start of the rainy season will make further search almost impossible, and hope was all but abandoned for the youth.

MERAUKE, Dutch New Guinea (UPI) — Searchers today found a second empty gasoline can which might have been used by Michael Rockefeller in his attempt to reach the South New Guinea shore more than a week ago.

But Dutch authorities were reported to have all but abandoned hope for the missing son of New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller. The governor was reported planning to fly home Tuesday after a fruitless search.

The 6-gallon can was found floating off Frederik Hendrik Island, about 130 miles from the place where the 23-year-old American explorer disappeared while trying to swim to shore. There was no immediate word that it was one of the two cans Michael used as an improvised raft in his attempt to reach shore from a disabled raft.

A water bottle believed to have been swept off the native boat which was swamped nine days ago while carrying young Rockefeller and a Dutch companion also was found floating in the sea. But the place where it was found could not be determined immediately.

Hendrik Veldkamp, internal affairs department chief for Dutch New Guinea, said he had received a report that the can was found at the mouth of the Digul River which flows into the Arafura Sea about 10 miles north of Frederik Hendrik Island.

Dr. Calhoun is the medical supervisor of both the Sister Kenny Foundation Rehabilitation Center in Ferndale and the physical and occupational therapy department at Pontiac General Hospital.

Her name is virtually synonymous with the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation in Michigan.

Her devotion is being praised in the highest terms by the county society.

The presentation in her honor will be during the Dec. 6 meeting of the society 8 p. m. at Kingsley Inn.

Specifically mentioned in the commendation for the award were "sacrifices Dr. Calhoun made in the period of 1943-53 at the Oakland County Contagious Disease Hospital" where she was operating the Kenny Foundation Polio Center.

"It was not unusual," the commendation states, "to enter the hospital late in the evening and find Dr. Calhoun still there working without consideration to her (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Premiers' Talks Ease DeGaulle's Berlin Position

Opposition to Debate Between Reds, Allies Still Not Eliminated

LONDON (AP) — The weekend talks between Premier Charles de Gaulle and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan apparently eased — but did not eliminate — the French leader's opposition to Western negotiations on Berlin with the Soviet Union.

No communiqué was issued, but this was the impression that filtered from the prime minister's closely guarded country estate where the two leaders met. De Gaulle as usual had nothing to say to newsmen when he returned to Paris.

John Russell, the British Foreign Office spokesman, said the talks were "most friendly, pleasant and intimate" but "the pattern is, in any case, not complete — there are still some further moves out in the rounds of the Western leaders."

It was learned that Macmillan and De Gaulle regarded the talks as a thorough exploration of the Berlin problem and of Britain's application to join the European Common Market.

De Gaulle was expected to reserve his final decision on East-West negotiations until he discusses with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer the West German government's attitude toward a new Western approach to the Soviets.

Influenced by forced Adenauer to cancel his scheduled trip to Paris Thursday for talks with De Gaulle.

Adenauer as well as De Gaulle has been reluctant to approve negotiations on Berlin, but the chancellor's talks with President Kennedy in Washington are believed to have shown that West Germany's policy generally is in line with that of the United States and Britain.

RED WON'T YIELD

Walter Ulbricht, East Germany's Communist chief of state, showed no yielding in a speech made public Sunday.

Ulbricht declared the position of East Berlin's Communist state capital, is not up for negotiation. He said it was high time Western powers respected international law as to East Germany's sovereignty "on the water, on the land and in the air."

GEORGE W. BALL CHESTER BOWLES

Funeral Service for Bridges Set

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — A funeral service at the New Hampshire state house at noon Wednesday is planned for Sen. Styles Bridges, 63, senior Republican member of the Senate, who died Sunday.

Bridges' death was not likely to change the present partisan lineup in the Senate but a liberal-conservative struggle to choose a successor in the Senate Republican leadership appeared possible when Congress reconvenes in January.

President Kennedy led the tributes to the senator, chairman of the powerful Appropriations Committee and second ranking Republican on the Armed Services Committee.

President Kennedy telephoned Bridges' widow to extend condolences and later issued a statement describing Bridges as "a great patriot who devoted his life to the continuing strength of our country."

President Kennedy led the tributes to the senator who was chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee and ranking Republican member of the powerful appropriations Committee and the Armed Services Committee.

WINDOW SHOPPING — Mary Lou Brazanski, 4, of 3922 Joylin Road, Orion Township, was one of the many shoppers in downtown Pontiac Saturday. The Christmas rush got under way with an increase in shoppers reported by downtown store owners. The increase was definitely noticeable on the street, as were the newly erected Christmas decorations throughout the downtown business district.

Ten Officials Moved Around by President

Undersecretary of State 'Better Fitted' to Act as Roving Ambassador

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy is removing Chester Bowles as undersecretary of state in a sweeping shake-up of the administration's foreign policy high command. The changes involve 10 White House and State Department officials.

No one is being dropped. Bowles, former governor of Connecticut and ambassador to India and a Kennedy adviser during last year's presidential race, has been a controversial figure in the administration since its first weeks in office.

The President and Secretary of State Dean Rusk were reported to consider him misplaced in the department's No. 2 position as undersecretary.

The shake-up announcement, made Sunday night from the Kennedy headquarters at Hyannis Port, Mass., said that Bowles is to get a high policy-making position on relinquishing his present duties. There was no immediate statement from Bowles.

OFFERS OTHER WORK

Officials here understood that he was being offered a combination assignment of roving ambassador and special foreign adviser to Kennedy and Rusk.

As undersecretary he has spent considerable time traveling abroad and has been interested, within the State Department, chiefly in promoting policies of assistance to underdeveloped nations in Africa and Asia.

Administration leaders considered him misplaced as undersecretary, officials said, because he was more concerned with the broad lines of policy development in functioning as an idea man than in the day-to-day conduct of foreign relations traditionally handled by the undersecretary.

Bowles is 60.

Other changes in the shake-up, which become effective immediately, are these:

GEORGE W. BALL
1. George W. Ball, 51, undersecretary of state for economic affairs, will be undersecretary of state. He will continue to concentrate on economic affairs.

2. George C. McGhee, counselor and chairman of policy planning in the State Department, to be undersecretary for political affairs. McGhee thus moves up to become the No. 3 man. He is 49.

American Census Hits 185 Million During the Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's population reaches 185 million this week—an increase of five million since last year's census.

The exact moment won't be known but the event will be celebrated at a ceremony in the Commerce Department lobby at about 3 p.m. EST Thursday.

TO WATCH 'CLOCK'

On hand to watch the "census clock" click toward 185 million will be Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges and Census Bureau Director Richard M. Scammon.

The clock—which looks like an automobile mileage meter—records the estimated population. It increases by one every 10 1/2 seconds.

Its clicks reflect a birth every 7 1/2 seconds, a death every 19 seconds, the arrival of an immigrant every 1 1/2 minutes and the departure of an immigrant every 23 minutes.

Indonesia to Get Rice From Communist China

SURABAJA, Indonesia (U)—Red China, which has been compelled to go into the world to buy wheat to meet its own food needs, will deliver 11,500 tons of rice to this port on Dec. 1, shipping agents said.

Additional rice shipments are expected from Burma and Thailand. Indonesia has a rice shortage.

Russia Now Jails Tourists Convicted of Spy Charges

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (U)—The Russians now are imprisoning tourists convicted of spying. They used to expel them.

Since September, one American, two Dutchmen and two Germans have been packed off to Soviet prisons.

The Germans and the Dutchmen got longer sentences than Francis Gary Powers, the American U2 pilot who was given 10 years for flying over the Soviet Union May 1, 1960. Powers, now in prison at Vladimir, 100 miles east of Moscow, must do three years in prison and the rest of the time in a labor camp.

GET 13 YEARS

The same type of military court last month handed out 13-year sentences for espionage to two Dutch tourists, Lou de Jager, 25, and Evert Heydon, 29.

Last week two Germans, Peter Sonntag, 22, and Walter Naumann, 27, drew 12-year sentences on charges of spying for the United States.

The same charges face Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Werner, two West German tourists who go on trial Tuesday.

STUDENT SENTENCED

The first tourist to feel the wrath of a military court was Marvin William Makinen, a student from Chassel, Mich. He drew an eight-year sentence on Sept. 9.

Previously various tourists and students had been expelled from the Soviet Union, mainly for photographing or looking at things the Russians classify as secret.

VERY SENSITIVE

Many things listed as espionage in the Soviet Union are not considered even slightly criminal in other countries. It is illegal to photograph any bridge, high tension power line, airport, railroad yard or the like.

There also seems to be a sensitive area in the western reaches of the Soviet Union. Most of the tourists arrested have been picked up near Ughorod, the passageway to Czechoslovakia through the Carpathian Mountains, or the area of Chernovytz, crossing point into Romania.

Western military attaches pass along these roads and could make far more accurate reports on what they see than could civilian tourists. Some attaches also have been expelled in the past two years for keeping their eyes open too wide.

Polaris N-Subs Set for 7th Fleet, Claims Admiral

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI)—Vice Adm. William A. Schoech said today that nuclear missile-equipped Polaris submarines "are programmed" for the U.S. 7th Fleet in the near future.

Schoech, who recently took command of the fleet which guards the west Western Pacific and patrols the coast of the Red China mainland, made the statement at a news conference.

He did not say when the fleet would get the first Polaris submarines. Addition of the subs, he said, "will significantly augment" the striking power of the fleet.

Junior's Economics Lesson Doomed by Parents

By PHYLIS BATTELLE
NEW YORK — A nationally known Fifth Avenue department store is offering a new holiday service called "The Penny Bank Shop." It is a special department where small children can spend their savings on Christmas presents. You might call this "aid to underdeveloped customers."

In principle, that is a dandy idea because being allowed to decide how he shall spend his savings should help a youngster learn the value of money while enjoying the warm satisfactions of generosity.

In practice, however, the idealistic concept will probably be defeated. Advertisements for the shop are concluded with the line "P. S. adults admitted if escorted by a child." And these adults, in typical overindulgent parent style, are certain to get into the act. Can't you visualize it?

"I'll take that," says small son, pointing to a $5 tie he thinks would look nice on Grandpa. He hands the salesgirl his savings of $1.32. The salesgirl smiles and looks across small son's head to his mother. Big mother smiles and nods.

"All right, young man," says salesgirl. "And do you want it gift-wrapped?"

Somehow or other, small son will get change from this transaction, and will move on to other tables, selecting other presents for other relatives — and the store will come out somewhat richer in money and good will, while the boy comes out decidedly poorer in his concept of economics.

FIRST EXPERIENCE
I remember quite well my first experience in money dealings. It was far more realistic, but in its way as devastating to my economics education as today's typical problem of pumper-mind parents.

It was my mother and father's wedding anniversary, and I earned the money for a gift by digging dandelions. I took this sum to the only store I'd had dealings with—the neighborhood grocery — and asked what lordly present I could have in exchange. The grocer, probably in a fit of generosity, awarded me a bunch of seedless grapes gift wrapped in a paper bag.

This was not much of an offering, and I was disappointed.

But it never occurred to me to ask for more — it only occurred to me to stop digging dandelions at those rates. I've shied away from work ever since.

It seems to me there must be a middle ground in teaching a child the value of a dollar — or a handful of pennies. And Christmas is a wonderful time to begin. If there could only be an understanding between the department store and the parents, small offspring might become an apprentice financier instead of a money-blind playboy.

In the first place, the preparation for Christmas buying should begin at home. Any child aged 4 or over should be given an allowance (this has been recommended by experts as a good method for teaching tots how to save and spend money wisely). He should be reminded occasionally that Christmas is coming and wouldn't it be more fun to give daddy a gift than to spend all his savings on candy? Usually a child of 4 or more, if given such a positive suggestion, will agree.

Then, to further help the child's budget, small jobs (which he ordinarily would not be expected to do) could be suggested to him or her, with pay commensurate for the work accomplished. Remember, kids don't have a union but still they are not slave labor.

If a child can be persuaded to walk a mile to the drug store to buy a pack of cigarettes, he may, quite properly, feel cheated if he is rewarded with three cents and a smile. Besides, the idea here is of Santa Clausian accomplishment.

to build his budget, not break his back.

For work particularly well done, a "Christmas bonus" might be in order.

When the child has built up a reasonable fund for generous purposes, it is time for the department store to show some generosity, too, as well as understanding.

Their small fry-shop should be stocked only with low-priced items which a youngster might reasonably be expected to afford. In the interests of gaining good profits, they might even offer some merchandise at special junior-discount prices.

And children could then go Christmas shopping with a sense of accomplishment.

Georgia Churches Turn Away Negroes

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—For the second time in two months Negroes tried without success to worship at white churches in this east-central Georgia city.

The Rev. Roosevelt Green, 21, an ordained Baptist minister, and Paul Thompson, 22, were denied admittance to the First Baptist church by an usher Sunday.

They left without argument, crossed the street and tried to enter St. John's Methodist church. Again they were turned away.

Last month Green and another Negro tried to enter the First Baptist church. Police were called and officers told them not to return.

An average housewife in the U. S. puts up about $5 quarts of fruit and vegetables in a year, not counting the food put away in freezer units.

Piecing Together Earhart Puzzle

Anthropologist Begins Study of Fragments, Teeth to Solve Riddle

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI) — A University of California anthropologist today began an extensive study of 37 teeth and a number of bone fragments — possible clues to the 24-year-old mystery concerning the disappearance of Amelia Earhart.

Prof. Theodore McCown scheduled a news conference (1 p.m. Pontiac Time) to explain how he will seek to determine through laboratory tests whether the remains, found in the Mariana Islands of the Pacific, are those of the famous aviator and her navigator Fred Noonan.

The two fliers vanished over the Pacific Ocean in July 1937, while attempting a round-the-world flight in a twin-engine Lockheed Electra. A massive naval search failed to turn up any clue to their fate.

The bone fragments and teeth were brought to the United States by newsmen Fred Goerner, 36, of Radio Station KCBS in San Francisco. Goerner found them in an unmarked grave on Saipan, scene of one of the bloodiest island battles of World War II.

The teeth were expected to be an important clue. Although Miss Earhart's dental charts were not immediately available, three persons — including dentists who worked on the teeth of the aviator and Noonan — have offered to help in the investigation.

Officials Study Plan to Charge Girl Escapees

TAFT, Okla. (UPI) — State officials were to gather at the State Training School for Negro girls here today to decide whether charges will be filed against 26 escapees of the institution.

The girls escaped Friday night after rioting in their quarters. Seven of them remained free today.

They overpowered guards, took the keys, turned off the lights, and made good their escape through a first floor kitchen window and the front gate.

The captured girls told officers they escaped because they wanted to be home for Christmas.

Three Powers Meet Tuesday

Allies Go After Quick N-Test Ban

SMALL FRY PROTEST — Children with banners parade in front of the U.N. Building in New York City as a protest against nuclear bomb testing in the atmosphere. Three Hyde Park mothers were instigators of the children's action to demonstrate.

GENEVA (UPI) — The United States and Britain want a clear-cut commitment now as to whether Russia is prepared to sign a nuclear test ban treaty without further time-wasting, diplomatic sources said today.

The sources said the Allies intend to ask for an early Soviet reply when the three-power conference resumes here Tuesday.

U.S. nuclear delegation chief Arthur H. Dean and Britain's Sir Michael Wright arranged a confidential meeting this morning to align their strategy for the crucial confrontation with the Soviets.

Both made it clear on their arrival Sunday that it is "up to the Russians" to break the nuclear deadlock after Moscow's flagrant breach of the test moratorium.

Soviet chief nuclear delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin, who has headed the Russian team here since the talks started more than three years ago was scheduled to arrive this afternoon. He was delayed by fog Sunday in Prague.

The Western delegates are awaiting his first "nuclear offerings" as an indication of Russia's latest intentions. The Soviet Union has exploded some 50 nuclear devices since Sept. 1, including a 50 plus megaton super bomb.

The Allies are approaching the new round of the nuclear talks, which recessed Sept. 9, with considerable skepticism.

NUCLEAR CRYPTIC

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev gave a cryptic indication of his designs over the weekend. He expressed "preparation to respond" to the appeal to end nuclear tests in a letter to the president of the Communist-dominated world peace council.

Khrushchev said he would end testing if others will do likewise, but, ominously, he linked this willingness with the condition that other countries "will readily display readiness to reach agreement on disarmament under international controls."

The West considers a test ban treaty an urgent matter and that it should be concluded without awaiting a global disarmament accord.

Dean and Wright pledged on arrival here American and British willingness to sign "immediately" a test ban treaty with effective international controls, banning nuclear explosions forever.

They are prepared to sign the Western proposed test ban draft treaty presented to the Geneva conference last April. Failing this they are ready to "negotiate any fair and reasonable compromise." But there must be no further

Holiday Traffic Is Fatal to 432

Highway Count May Be Below Same Period for Recent Years

By The Associated Press

Traffic 432
Fires 38
Miscellaneous 94
Total 564

The nation's traffic deaths during the extended Thanksgiving weekend may be lower than the toll for the same holiday period in recent years.

Belated reports may boost the final count, but at the end of the 102-hour holiday period last midnight, an Associated Press survey showed 432 persons killed in traffic accidents. That compared to 442 highway deaths for a similar period last Thanksgiving, 445 in 1959 and 454 in 1958.

38 DIE IN FIRES

In other violent deaths since the count started at 6 p.m. local time Wednesday, 38 persons perished in fires and 94 others lost their lives in miscellaneous types of accidents. The overall toll of 564 this year compared to 608 in 1960, 650 in 1959 and 636 in 1958.

The National Safety Council did not estimate a traffic death toll for the Thanksgiving holiday period. However, it said deaths on the highway for a non-holiday weekend at this time of year would total 450.

An Associated Press survey for the 102-hour period from 6 p.m. Wednesday Nov. 8 to midnight Sunday Nov. 12 showed 462 traffic fatalities, 37 killed in fires and 106 deaths in miscellaneous accidents, an over-all toll of 605.

Refloat Greek in Lake Superior

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) — A Greek freighter was refloated Sunday after being aground on a rocky Lake Superior shoal since last Thursday.

More than 200 tons of scrap iron cargo was transferred from the Anvrakios to three tugs and two scows before the ship was freed from Pancake Shoal, about 40 miles north of here.

Earlier efforts to tow it off the rocks failed. The U. S. Coast Guard said the ship suffered no apparent damage. However, the vessel was towed to the Soo Sunday night for examination.

Redistribute With Exercise

Don't Let Fat Spoil Figure

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

It is true that many women who have beautifully proportioned bust, waist and hip measurements, and who are not overweight, still have a roll above the girdle or fat on the diaphragm.

Overweight lands most often on the three measurements I mentioned, but weight distribution is an individual matter, and many women with otherwise good features have a pad of fat on the diaphragm. Exercise will redistribute this more attractively. Today let me give you a few corrective exercises.

Stand tall with your feet comfortably separated. Raise your arms overhead, one arm by each ear. Keep the arms in this position as you circle your trunk, moving for a while in one direction and then in the other. Make a complete circle and be certain not to neglect the back part of the circle. Do this slowly so that you feel the muscles pull.

Here is another one. Lie on the floor on your back, with your arms resting on the floor overhead, legs straight. Raise both arms and at the same time raise both legs. Touch toes or ankles with fingertips or come as close as you can. Return arms and legs to the floor and stretch out. Take time for this stretch, making yourself as long as possible. Continue.

Another: Sit in a straight-backed chair. The top of the chair should be just below the shoulder blades. Bend the knees and place the feet on the floor. Slide the fingers over the knees and part way down the legs. Now slide them up the legs and thighs and raise the arms overhead. Drop your head back and lean back against the back of the chair. You will feel the pull over the diaphragm. Continue.

Famous Lenox—cherished by homemakers the world over for its superior quality and superior design.

The pattern shown is ORLEANS—in the new sculpture shape. The charm and beauty of 18th Century design are combined with contemporary simplicity. A delicately traced leaf and scroll pattern in 24k gold is accented by the sculptured rim.

U Nu, Ikeda Urge End to Nuclear Testing

RANGOON, (AP)—Prime Ministers Htun U Nu of Burma expressed deep concern Sunday over continued nuclear testing. He said it could lead to "total annihilation of mankind."

In a joint communique released following Ikeda's three-day good will visit, both leaders said they "strongly appeal for immediate suspension of all nuclear weapons tests and for early conclusion of an agreement on prohibition of nuclear weapons tests, under effective inspection and control."

African Riots Quelled

BULAWAYO, Southern Rhodesia (AP)—Police fired tear gas and warning shots Sunday to quell rioting in Bulawayo African townships following a nationalist political meeting. Native demonstrators stoned officers, police vehicles and beer halls. A police spokesman said demonstrators were wounded and about 12 were arrested.

Public Praises or Blames JFK on Blue Cards

WASHINGTON (AP)—The people are telling President Kennedy what's on their minds—and also telling him off a bit—by stacking up blue postcards piling up at the White House. They praise him warmly or criticize him on his administration harshly. They talk about socialism, communism, nuclear tests, a balanced budget, fallout shelters, Caroline, racial and religious intolerance.

They mention aid to education, housing, preservation of wilderness areas.

The people writing the President want such things as a job, a loan, or free transportation for old folks.

More than anything else, they are strongly for or strongly against critical cards on the administration through the Social Security System.

These blue cards are special ones, already addressed to Kennedy at the White House and even carrying the salutation "Dear Mr. President."

CARDS ON HAND

They were on hand for anyone who wanted to pick them up at the series of regional conferences just staged in 12 cities under government auspices. Cabinet members and squads of other top-rank administration officials made the circuit, delivering speeches, taking part in panels, answering questions.

The objective, the administration said, was to tell the people about the record of Congress and the administration and to obtain their views.

Since Kennedy didn't get to any of the meetings, cards were made available to send views direct to him.

Some of the cards are neatly typed. Some are in shaky handwriting of old folks. One is in the carefully printed words of a child, another in Italian, another in rhyme.

A survey of the first 200 cards contained contributions from eight cities: Chicago, St. Louis, Nashville, Denver, Detroit, Cleveland, New York and Philadelphia. No cards were made available at Madison, Wis., the White House said, and the first batch included none from San Francisco, Los Angeles and Seattle, where the last of the conferences took place.

AGAINST MEDICINE

The one topic that stands out in the first communications is medical care for the aged. On a BRAZZAVILLE, Congo Republic (AP)—The overflowing Congo River has isolated about 2,000 persons in the Mossaka region in the north part of this former French colony, the government announced Sunday. Some have been trapped on high ground for as long as five days. Tens of thousands of acres of land were reported flooded.
