Goldfine's Assistants Charge Secretary's Suite Burglarized

636 Persons Killed on Holiday Weekend; Traffic Claims 364

By The Associated Press

The nation's traffic death toll during the Fourth of July weekend tapering off during the closing hours after starting off at a fast pace, appears to be well under the preholiday estimate of 410.

Late reports of highway deaths will boost the total but indications are it will fall short of the record toll predicted by safety experts for a three-day July 4 holiday period.

However, it appears the final count will be close to the number killed during the recent Memorial Day holiday period.

The 371 traffic deaths for the three-day Memorial Day period set a new record for the holiday.

Thus, the traffic death toll for the first two long weekend holidays this year was more than 725. During the first five months this year traffic deaths averaged 88 per day.

The National Safety council had estimated the 410 traffic death toll for the 78-hour period starting at 6 p.m. local time Thursday and ending last midnight.

The record high traffic toll for a three-day July 4 holiday period was 407 set in 1955 while the record low since World War II was 225 deaths in 1947.

The holiday was marred by several multiple traffic accident deaths. One of the biggest was near Junction City, Kan., Saturday in which six persons were killed in the collision of two cars.

Drownings took a heavy toll, surpassing by far the 132 reported during the Memorial Day period. Deaths from miscellaneous type accidents also were higher than the 88 during the Memorial Day holiday.

A fireworks plant blew up in Portland, Ore., killing one child and injuring at least 20 persons.

An Associated Press survey during the nonholiday period covering 78 hours from June 19 to June 22, showed 339 traffic deaths, 118 drownings and 63 deaths in miscellaneous type accidents. The over-all total of 520 was more than 100 under the combined total during the July 4 weekend.

Michigan today counted 34 dead over the 78-hour Fourth of July Holiday.

Fourteen died in traffic, 16 drowned and four persons lost their lives in miscellaneous accidents.

State Police said the traffic toll of 14 was an improvement over last year when 20 died in a 102-hour period. About one death occurred every five hours last year, but this year the average was stretched to 5½ hours.

★ ★ ★

To try and hold down the death toll, State Police pressed all available men into road patrol duty, canceling all leaves. National Guardsmen were used for emergency duty.

Four persons died in a pair of accidents Saturday, and a teenaged boy was killed last night when his speeding car hit a freight train.

James Lee Geraghty, 17, Whitmore Lake, was killed in Washtenaw County when his car plowed into the side of a diesel engine pulling 54 freight cars.

James Yokeum, 18, Trenary, and James Wehmasto, 23, Limestone, were killed Saturday when their

Holiday Traffic Kills Avon Boy

Robert Darling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billie Darling, 3113 Emmons St., was playing alongside John R. road with his two brothers at 6 p.m. when the accident occurred.

The three boys had been swimming at Avon Park, Rochester, with a neighbor, Russell Gagnon, of 3251 Longview St.

On the way home Gagnon's car broke down and the boys were waiting for it to be repaired.

Robert stepped out into the road suddenly and was struck by a southbound car driven by Bernice M. Webb, 33, of 6044 Higgins St., Utica.

He died of a fractured neck and skull. The driver was not held.

Records, Letters Missing From Room Today

Theft Report Follows Discovery of Mike Set by Chief Investigator

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bernard Goldfine's aides charged today that the hotel room of his secretary has been burglarized. This came after the discovery of a microphone placed in a position to eavesdrop on conversation of the aides.

Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark) announced after a meeting of his House subcommittee today that it will get to the bottom of bugging and burglary incidents in the Goldfine investigation.

The committee reached no decision on whether to fire its chief investigator, Baron I. Shacklette.

Jack Lotto, a public relations man newly hired by Goldfine, said that bank records, correspondence, lists and documents had been taken from the room the secretary, Miss Mildred Paperman, occupied. He said a report had been made to police.

Lotto said:

"We feel this burglary is a continuation of the Gestapo tactics being employed againstMr. Goldfine and his associates."

Lotto said the missing papers were to have been used by Goldfine in his appearance tomorrow before the Housecommittee in-vestigating relations between the Boston industrialist and White House aide Sherman Adams.

CAN'T TELL RESULT

Lotto said Goldfine and his assistants don't know how much is missing and consequently can't say whether it will interfere with Goldfine's testimony.

The discovery of the microphone had already plunged the Adams-Goldfine investigation into a roaring controversy.

At the other end of the microphone wires was Baron I. Shacklette, chief investigator for the House subcommittee looking into relations between Goldfine and

Set to Release More Captives

Rebels in Cuba Still Holding Seven Civilians, 30 U.S. Servicemen

HAVANA (UPI) — The Cuban rebels were reported ready to release another handful of kidnaped Americans and one Canadian today. But the possibility developed some kidnap victims may be held indefinitely as "insurance" against government bomb attacks.

Four Americans and one Canadian were freed yesterday, leaving seven civilians in rebel hands. If no hitch develops, the seven — six Americans and the Canadian— may be flown out of the eastern Cuban hills before the day is over.

American Naval authorities indicated it would take a little longer to work out release arrangements for the 30 U.S. sailors and marines held captive for the past 10 days.

Release negotiations were being conducted directly between U.S. Consul Park Wollam and rebel leader Raul Castro in the rugged hills of Oriente Province.

★ ★ ★

The dangers of a hitch developing were pointed up yesterday by one of the newly freed Americans who was allowed to talk to newsmen shortly after his release.

John Schissler, of Covina, Calif., said he was told by Raul Castro, whose brother Fidel is chief of the anti-government forces, that the American captives were good insurance against attack by Cuban warplanes.

Along with Schissler, the men released yesterday were Eugene Pflieder of St. Paul, Minn.; Ed-Harold Kristjanson of Winnipeg, Canada, and Roman Cecilia, A Cuban-born naturalized U.S. citizen.

Water Follies Compares With Three-Ring Circus

The Water Follies is like a three-ring circus. There's something new and different going on all the time.

That's because of the unique stage-swimming pool arrangement which the Follies will set up in Wisner Stadium for its Pontiac performances, Friday, Saturday and Sunday under the auspices of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce.

The Follies claims to have the world's largest portable pools and stage — 175 feet long and 35 feet wide. There are two pools — one at each end — and the stage is in the middle.

★ ★ ★

One of the pools is 50-feet square and seven feet deep — suitable for high diving. The other is 75 feet long, offering a large area for the water-ballet scenes.

Like the circus, action at the Follies switches from one pool to the other, then to the stage and then back to the pools. Sometimes, all three are in use for the colorful production numbers that made the show so popular during its run at the Brussels World Fair earlier this year.

The set-up makes for a fast-moving show and speed is one quality the Follies is especially proud of.

The producer, Sam Snyder, allows only a two-second interval to elapse between the time one number ends and another begins.

In the two-hour performance there are twelve water scenes and eight stage numbers. The stage numbers are costumed, the water acts feature unusual lighting effects, and the whole show is set to the music of the Follies' own orchestra.

The Follies can be compared to a circus in other ways. Besides its featured swimmers, fancy divers, dancers and singers, the aqua show has clowns, too.

It also boasts a water ballet group of beautiful girls. The Water Follies is one of the oldest aquacades and has in the past starred such performers as Eleanor Holm, Johnny Weismuller and Buster Crabbe. Many of its current stars are Olympic champions.

In recent years, the show has toured abroad in South America and Australia. It was at Brussels during the first two months of the fair.

The chamber is sponsoring four shows at 8:30 p.m. and a matinee for children at 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

Name Turley, Spahn All-Star Starters

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Bob Turley of the New York Yankees and Warren Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves today were named starting pitchers for Tuesday's 25th All-Star baseball game.

The choice of Spahn was a surprise because the American League starting lineup contained only two left-handed batters and one of those, Mickey Mantle, is a switch hitter who will bat right-handed against southpaws.

Today's 2-Minute Mystery

Murder in the Suburbs

By DONALD J. SOBOL

"The last thing Arthur Carlton ever designed," said Inspector Winters, indicating the house of cards balanced on the coffee table.

Haledjian moved behind the table to the couch, where the body of the noted architect lay slumped against a pillow, a kitchen knife plunged into his chest.

"Who found the body?"

"I did, sir." A man wearing a chauffeur's uniform limped into the living room. "I had just returned from driving Mr. Pennington, a frequent visitor, to the city. I was delayed in getting back. As I drove the car into the garage, I noticed the lights in the living room go out, and the house fell into darkness.

I saw a man dart across the room and escape through the window.

"Upon entering the back door," continued the chauffeur, "I heard Mr. Carlton call out as if in pain. I ran into the living room and saw a man dart across the room and escape through the window. I might have tackled him, but in the darkness I tripped against the coffee table and fell."

"The murderer must have known the room well," muttered Haledjian, looking about at the overcrowding of furniture. "Who else lives here?"

"Miss Hancock, the housekeeper. Her room is next to mine on the second floor."

"What delayed you in the city?"

"Mr. Pennington asked me to look at his car—one of those sports models that can pass anything on the road. A carburetor valve was stuck, so I fixed it for him."

★ ★ ★

"Did you leave Mr. Pennington in the garage, or at his front door?"

"In the garage. He wanted to test the motor."

"I believe, Inspector," said Haledjian, "I've heard enough."

WHOM DID HALEDJIAN SUSPECT?

The chauffeur. His story of an intruder was obviously a lie. Had he in fact been chased knocked against the coffee table hard enough to be tripped, he would have collapsed the house of cards.

Special Water Deputy Rescues 3 Teenagers

Oakland County's special water deputies proved their worth again Sunday when one of them rescued three teenagers whose boat had overturned in Maceday Lake, Waterford Township.

The boat, owned by Robert Sawdon, 17, of 3704 Oakshire St., Waterford Township, was overturned by high waves in the middle of the lake at 4 p.m.

Sawdon and his two passengers Sharon Gaynor, 17, and Gary Gaynor, 15, both of 6498 Simmons Dr., Waterford Township, were under the boat when it landed in the water upside down.

The accident was witnessed by Charles A. Parker, 39, of 3850 Malden Dr., Waterford Township, who was out patroling in his own boat. He was at the scene in 20 seconds.

Parker threw a life preserver to Gary and then pulled Sharon from the lake when she appeared from under the capsized craft. She could not swim.

He then rescued the two youths. None of the three was injured.

Ex-Press Ad Director Saves Florida Neighbor

'Doc' Brodie Becomes 'Lifeguard'

Former Pontiac Press Advertising Director H. F. "Doc" Brodie saved the life of a neighbor recently, when he pulled her from the Gulf of Mexico near Venice, Fla.

Rescued when she become overpowered by an outgoing tide in deep water was Mrs. Edward R. Naar, 57, formerly of Traverse City, and now living just two houses away from the retired Brodie's home on Casey Key.

"I was just sitting in the house after finishing lunch when I heard this scream," Brodie related by phone when contacted by The Press. "I ran outside to try and find out what was wrong, when this woman approached yelling, 'Someone save her.' "

"I threw off my trousers and jumped in the surf when I spotted Mrs. Naar about 300 feet out," said Brodie.

"When I got to her she was completely exhausted and just floating, or trying to, on the surface. Luckily she hadn't taken in too much water. She cooperated beautifully and I got her to shore."

Brodie himself was exhausted from the endeavor and had to be helped from the water by another neighbor after the 10-minute ordeal.

Given first aid at the beach, Mrs. Naar later was taken to Venice Memorial Hospital for treatment of shock and exhaustion. She later was released.

Russia Frees 9 U.S. Airmen Downed in Armenia

Radio Moscow Tells of Release

C118 Crew Is Freed at Iranian Border; Held Since June 27

LONDON (UPI) — The Soviet Union today released the nine crew members of a U. S. military plane forced down by Russian jets in Soviet Armenia June 27, Radio Moscow said today.

The airmen were turned over to U. S. authorities on the Soviet-Iranian frontier.

Radio Moscow said the handover took place at Astara on the border with Iran.

The brief broadcast said the men were handed over to U. S. military representatives and gave the names of the men.

The nine Americans were crewmen of a C118 transport which the Soviets claimed violated Russian air space over Armenia.

The U. S. aircraft was forced down by two Soviet fighters near Erevan, Armenia on June 27. A Soviet announcement said that the plane burned after landing but that the crewmen were safe and well.

The plane had been en route to Iran and Pakistan carrying supplies to U. S. forces there. It had come from West Germany and had touched down in Cyprus only a few hours before it was forced down at a Russian airfield.

The Soviets had twice protested formally against the alleged border violation. They charged that such violations of Soviet frontiers were frequent and premeditated.

The United States had sent a note to Moscow demanding the men be released and at the same time expressing regret if the plane had actually crossed the frontier.

Astara, where the Americans were handed over, is a little more than 300 miles southeast of Brevan, where the airmen had been seized. It lies off the Southwestern shore of the Caspain Sea where Russia and Iran meet.

The air route from Cyprus to Iran passes within 50 miles of the Soviet border at this point—a fact which the U. S. government pointed out to the Soviets in its note last week.

Royal Welcome Greets Sea Lion Back in London

LONDON, Ont., (UPI) A royal welcome greeted Cyril the wandering sea lion when he returned to London yesterday.

Mayor Allen Johnson proclaimed yesterday as "Slippery Day" in honor of the sea lion who escaped from London's Story Book Zoo. The sea lion was finally captured in Lake Erie by tranquilized darts fired by the director of the Toledo, Ohio, Zoo.

The parade welcoming Cyril yesterday was a gala affair with a band and floats.

The Toledo Zoo also sent along as a gift a baby puma: The puma is a brother to the puma cub given to Prince Rainier and Princess Grace of Monaco.

To show their gratitude at getting Cyril back, Ontario officials announced that they are presenting the Toledo Zoo with two beavers.

Moves Henry Be Disqualified

Ewart Says Attorney Can't Legally File Suit Against Pontiac

A motion was made this morning before Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams to disqualify Milton R. Henry as the attorney in a law suit brought against the city by four of its police officers.

The move was made by William A. Ewart, city attorney, in a notice of special appearance of himself as attorney for the city, Walter K. Willman, city manager, and Police Chief Herbert W. Straley, defendants in the action.

Ewart told Judge Adams the city felt that Henry, also a city commissioner, "could not legally hold this dual relationship" in filing suit against the city.

The action was taken today when the three defendants had been ordered to show cause why a writ of mandamus shouldn't be granted by the court ordering the city to promote the four officers.

★ ★ ★

Sgts. Raymond E. Meggitt and Fred L. Goines, and Dets. Herbert C. Cooley and James H. LaPonsie, filed for the writ June 24 claiming the city had not complied with the State Civil Service Act in promoting them.

Henry came under fire last Tuesday by fellow city commissioners for entering into the action. He later said he would withdraw as the officers' legal counsel.

Ewart's motion was made today, he said, because no official withdrawal had been filed by Henry with the court.

Judge Adams took Ewart's motion without acting on it. Henry, who according to Ewart had not served summons on the defendants, was not present when the case was called by Judge Adams' court clerk. Neither could he be reached for comment.

ADMITS PLANTING MICROPHONE — Baron Shacklette is an investigator for the House subcommittee looking into the dealings of Bernard Goldfine. Shacklette today admitted that he placed a microphone next door to the suite of a Goldfine aide to overhear what was being said.

Microphone Deal Keeps Men Up Late Into Night

WASHINGTON (AP)— Bernard Goldfine had hardly retired to his suite last night before his case took a new turn.

Here's what happened:

Jack Lotto, Goldine's new public relations man, phoned newsmen between 11 p.m. and midnight that he was arranging a 12:30 a.m. news conference on some records which Goldfine had brought into town an hour or so earlier.

Reporters gathered in Lotto's Room 800 at the appointed hour but the news conference never came off.

While they were chatting informally and waiting for it to start, Roger Robb, Goldfine's attorney, and Lotto bustled about.

Then the two Goldfine aides and Phil Brennan, Lotto's assistant, silently motioned the newsmen into another room of the suite.

Robb then whispered that about 11 p.m. he had spotted a microphone just on the other side of a locked door connecting Room 800 with adjoining Room 806.

Robb said that he had noticed earlier that the door to Room 806 was a fraction of an inch above the floor line. He said he kneeled down and saw a pair of shoes move.

He called Brennan. Brennan said he saw a pair of hands and what appeared to be someone else peering back at him from the darkness on the other side of the crack under the door.

Next, Robb produced for newsmen a former Washington, D. C., policeman, Lloyd V. Furr, whom Robb hired a week ago to check on eavesdropping.

Furr said an electrical detector confirmed there was a microphone next door. Furr and Robb led the group over to the locked door.

★ ★ ★

Furr slid a wire coat hanger under the door, then pulled back in a swift motion.

Out came a small gray microphone the size of a tiny mouse, trailing behind it a tail of an electric cord several feet long.

There wasn't a sound from next door. Lotto pounded on the hallway door to Room 806. No response. He called for the manager and later for a policeman, who said no city law was violated in using the microphone.

Forty-five minutes elapsed before the silent, locked suite was opened to the newsmen and photographers.

The barrel-chested Baron I. Shacklette, chief investigator for the House subcommittee, did most of the talking while Jack Anderson, whose by-line sometimes appears over the Drew Pearson column, sat in an adjacent chair for the unscheduled news conference.

★ ★ ★

"We have information," Shacklette said in measured tones, "that committee members' telephones were tapped. I was given the assignment of checking to see whether this was true."

"We had sufficient information," he went on, "to lead me to believe that there was an organized effort to dredge up everything possible on committee mem- Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark) last week had sai dmysterious calls for information about him had also been made to his constituents.)

★ ★ ★

"Mr. Anderson had some information which made it appear that we might find out who had paid for these private investigators. The trail led from the Statler Hotel (across the street from the Sheraton-Carlton) to this hotel. We were attempting to find out who in this hotel was responsible.

"Mr. Harris did not authorize any particular type of investigation. He did not authorize technical surveillance . . .

"Mr. Anderson registered in this room and I took advantage of his hospitality."

Anderson said he too had reports of an undercover campaign against the subcommittee and was checking on them. He obtained the adjoining suite under the name of Brooks.

★ ★ ★

Pearson could not be reached immediately for comment.

Lotto roused Goldfine after Shacklette and Anderson had had their say. Goldfine appeared sleepily at the door of his second-floor suite after conferring with Robb and Lotto. He wore a gold Chinese robe over white pajamas and carried a piece of paper with his statement written in pencil.

★ ★ ★

"I intend to move out in the morning," Goldfine said. He was prodded a bit by his aides.

"I think it is worse than Russia," he said. "Worse than the Gestapo."

Senator Blondy Escapes Injury as Cornice Falls

DETROIT (AP) — State Sen. Charles Blondy of Detroit escaped injury yesterday in the city's third building cornice collapse in two weeks.

A two-foot piece of cornice plunged down from the roof of a two-story west-side building just as the Democratic lawmaker was about to enter.

Blondy said a pebble struck him first on the shoulder and, as he leaped aside, a chunk of cement crashed behind him.

Both the two previous cornice collapses were from downtown buildings. A woman window shopper was killed in one.

City building inspectors since have ordered the removal of more than 100 cornices or other projections from downtown buildings as unsafe.

Sen. Blondy admitted a scare. But he said he completed his business in the building. It was to get a cup of coffee in a restaurant in the building.

Assistant CD Chief Sought for Oakland

Oakland County is shopping around for a new assistant Civil Defense director.

★ ★ ★

Ransford Bromley, assistant to Director Lewis C. Jarrendt the past three years, resigned recently to devote fulltime to the motel business in Lakeville.

Jarrendt said the county's personnel department has been instructed to seek a replacement for the $4,800-a-year position.

Mexico Elects Mateos No. 1

PRI Party Choice for President Wins Quietly by Big Landslide

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Handsome, 48-year-old Adolfo Lopez Mateos, the brilliant labor minister in the last government, was elected president of Mexico yesterday in probably the quietest vote in the nation's history.

The dominant government Party of Revolutionary Institution (PRI) claimed Lopez Mateos had won by a landslide—somewhere between 70 and 85 per cent of the votes.

No big totals were announced, however.

Lopez Mateos' victory over textile manufacturer Luis Hector Alvarez had never been in doubt. The PRI and its predecessors have never lost an election since the parent party was launched in 1928.

Mexico also elected a full new Congress of 60 senators and 162 deputies. The PRI claimed that it had retained control by an overwhelming majority.

There were prospects, however, the new Congress may contain more than the nine opposition deputies it now holds.

★ ★ ★

Only one serious incident was reported, during an argument over a local election in Ciudad Obregon, on the west coast. A vojer was killed and a soldier injured during a fight.

Women voted for the first time in a presidential election.

Opposition parties began filing protests of alleged election fraud before the polls closed. But generally the election seemed to have been conducted on democratic lines. The PRI had invited foreign observers from the United States and South America to come see for themselves.

Official returns will not be known for a week. Unofficial returns may be made known tomorrow or later.

Goldfine Records Stolen, Claim Aides

Sherman Adams. With Shacklette was Jack Anderson, a legman for columnist Drew Pearson.

CALLS EMERGENCY MEET

Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark) called the committee into emergency session to weigh the fate of Shacklette. He said the bugging had not been authorized.

Roger Robb, Goldfine attorney, demanded under oath examination of anyone who might know whether confidential data has been obtained through such tactics.

Lotto said Robb also had complained to the FBI about the microphone and that the FBI was investigating.

Lott said he himself had filed a complaint with the U.S. district attorney. Lotto was registered for the room at which the microphone had been placed.

Miss Paperman was living in room 842 at the Sheraton-Carlton Hotel.

She said her room appeared to have been ransacked, and that she found an empty cigarette package in the room. She doesn't smoke.

Lotto said she returned to her room about 10:30 o'clock last night and went to bed.

DOOR WAS LOCKED

At that time, she said, she closed a bolt in a door connecting with an adjoining room but thought nothing of it at the time. The adjoining room 844 had been occupied by a member of the Goldfine staff who was not there yesterday.

Miss Paperman said she discovered the loss of the papers this morning when she went to a closet.

Lotto said sealed letters marked "personal" had been broken open. Miss Paperman had been in Boston over the weekend.

Lotto called reporters to a suite in the Statler Hotel to tell them his account of the missing papers. He moved to the Statler this morning from his former quarters in the Sheraton-Carlton.

City Weightlifter Admits Break-In

State AAU Champion John Rhodes Jr., 29, Confesses, Police Say

A state weightlifting champion, held by Keego Harbor police, has admitted eight burglaries in Pontiac, two in Bloomfield Township and one in Sylvan Lake, Pontiac Detective James Bale said today.

Held is John Rhodes Jr., 29, of 66 Gillespie St., a Michigan AAU light heavyweight champion in weightlifting. He was arrested June 30 by Pontiac Police after escaping from a Bloomfield officer and from Keego officers.

Rhodes, a parolee, was spotted in Keego while allegedly burglarizing Jim's Keego Service. He jumped from a rear window of the station as the police entered the front door.

Later, a Bloomfield officer stopped a cab in which Rhodes was crouching on the back seat. As the officer attempted to handcuff Rhodes, he grabbed the officer's pistol and ran into some woods near the Pontiac Golf Course.

He was later apprehended by two Pontiac officers as he came wading out of a swamp near the course.

Bale said Rhodes confessed to burglarizing Greg's Bar, 505 E. South Blvd., and seven gas stations. He also admitted gas station burglaries in Bloomfield and Sylvan Lake, Bale said.

Rhodes waived examination today to burglary before Justice Elmer C. Dieterle, of West Bloomfield Township, and was bound over to circuit court.

COURTING COSTUME — The fashion accent seems to have turned from panties to shimmies for tennis court wear, as Angela Buxton demonstrates in London, England. Her chemise of nylon jersey has a short fringed skirt falling from the dropped waistline. Unfortunately, Angela wasn't able to show off her outfit at the Wimbledon tennis tourney, being sidelined with a wrist injury.

Trail Crossings Attract Trade

Old Geographical Law Still Holds True Since Primitive Times

WASHINGTON — Every time a new filling station springs up at the intersection of two highways, one of geography's oldest laws is being illustrated—that the crossing of trails invites trade.

When primitive men foraged for their necessities, they would follow natural routes — animal trails or waterways. Where one path crossed another, they would meet and oftern barter. Some resourceful trader would set up shop, and a village would be born.

The National Geographic Society points out that hundreds of crossroad settlements dot the map of the world. Africa's dry regions, traversed for centuries by camel trains, hold towns that still have little reason for survival other than their locations at the crossing of ancient commercial lanes.

One old east-west route spanned Africa just south of the Sahara. Caravaneers fond travel there easier than on the desert. Jungle areas, with plenty of water supplies and trade possibilities, lay just a step to the south.

In the American Midwest, geometry not geography determined the location of crossroads. To control the early rush of property seekers, Congress authorized surveyors to lay out the rich, flat lands west of the Alleghenies in checkerboard squares, a mile on a side. Each of these sections was bounded by roads.

Where four sections came together, a ready-made crossroad awaited settlers. Hamlets, towns, even cities have since mushroomed at the intersections of these drawing-board roads. Motorists driving along razor-straight highways soon learn to expect the inevitable right-angle crossing with its cluster of small stores and tall grain elevators.

Though each crossing is man-made, the instinct to settle and trade there is as old as mankind itself.

Nonshrink Wool Socks Now Believed Possible

NEW YORK — Nonshrinkable wool socks and wash-and-wear woolen suits are no longer considered impossible. Researchers have found that the socks won't shrink when coated with fatty resins of the polyamide and epoxy families.

Treatment of wool with similar resins indicates woolen suits which can be laundered in the washing machine and hung up to drip dry will be produced soon.

Waterford May Try Work Relief Plan

Oakland County's new work relief program might be utilized by Waterford Township for the first time in the elimination of a swamp and vacant lot next to the Montieth Elmentary School.

Elmer R. Johnson, township supervisor, said he would recommend to township board members tonight that the work be done by some 10 unemployed township residents now on relief.

The acre and-a-half lot, on Crescent Lake road near Hatchery road, will someday, Johnson said, become part of the Crescent Lake Hills Cemetery.

He estimated the cleanup job will take about 1,500 man hours or roughly four weeks to complete.

The county's program, started in May, provides work in Oakland for men presently receiving welfare payments. It is work which otherwise would not be accomplished by county, township or city employes.

The blaze, which took an hour to extinguish, burned the entire living quarters in the one-story frame home. Damage to the building is estimated at $2,000, with $1,000 damage to contents.

Cypriots on Strike to Protest Deaths

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Greek Cypriots staged a general strike throughout Cyprus today to protest the death of two demonstrators killed by British security forces who fired on a crowd.

Shopkeepers opened their doors briefly, then closed down. Greek flags flew at half mast.

The two Greek Cypriot demonstrators were killd and 13 othrs wounded at Avgorou, near Famagusta, after a British patrol was attacked by a stone - throwing crowd. Twenty-two soldiers also were hurt.

★ ★ ★

The violence continued elsewhere on the island yesterday. Two Turkish Cypriot youths were found beaten to death 10 miles east of Paphos. A Greek-owned timber yard in the Turkish sector of Nicosia burned for several hours and three other Greek Cypriot properties also were hit by fires. Arson was suspected.

Great Lakes Levels Near Record Lows

DETROIT (AP)—The Army Corps of Engineers says the levels of the Great Lakes are only a little above their record lows. They are down from last year.

As of last month Lake Superior's elevation was 601.60 as against the record low of 600.38 in 1926.

Comparable levels for the other lakes are: Lakes Michigan and Huron 578.92 as against 577.87 in 1934, Lake St. Clair 574.48 against 573.56 in 1934, Lake Erie 571.80 against 570.40 in 1934, and Lake Ontario 245.46 against 244.14 in 1935.

Steals Priceless Tickets to All-Star Ballgame

BALTIMORE (AP)—Mrs. Catherine De Carlo said someone broke into her home during the weekend and stole $260 in cash, two revolvers and some appliances.

But worst of all, she said, the thieves also took two tickets to tomorrow's All-Star baseball game in Baltimore. You can't get those for love nor money. Police even declined to estimate their dollar value.

After 30 Hours Under Water, He Thinks of—Girls

HAMBURG, N. J. (AP)—Take a 19-year-old youth, give him a skin diving outfit, submerge him in 15 feet of water for more than 30 hours, and what does he think about?

He thinks about girl skindivers, that's what.

Bernie Camoli spent 30 hours and 6 minutes submerged in the waters of White Rock Quarry over the weekend.

The water got cold, and Camoli got bored, sleepy and cold before he bobbed to the surface Saturday night.

But yesterday, he plunged back into the quarry waters—briefly—to get a telephone number some girl skindiver left there. He sat on a platform during his protracted stay underwater and that's where she wroter her number.

Camoli, who claims a new skin diving record with this feat, said he played cards and tic-tac-toe with a fellow skin diver to escape boredom.

★ ★ ★

But his companion, Paul Mische, 29, choked on a piece of meat after 8½ hours and had to come to the surface.

While the sun was out, Camoli read whodunits. He drank warm milk and soup through a baby bottle. Fellow divers brought him bits of meat and cheese.

When the sun went down, he was too cold to read. And it wasn't very pleasant trying to keep warm wrapped in two suits of foam rubber and canvas.

Was his record-breaking stunt worth it?

It'll all be decided when he uses that phone number.

Utah Republican Turns to Challenge GOP

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — J. Bracken Lee, former Republican governor of Utah, says he'll run as an independent in an effort to unseat Sen. Arthur V. Watkins (R-Utah) in this year's elections.

"I have no use for the present leadership of the Republican party," he said in announcing last night he'll run on a platform that includes a move to repeal the federal income tax.

$4,432 Yearly Average for Minister in Nation

DETROIT (AP) — A church survey indicates the average year pay of a minister in the United States is $4,432 — for 60 to 80 hours of work a week.

Dr. G. Merrill Lenox of Detroit, director of the Detroit and Michigan Councils of Churches, said that as a result of the survey some Protestant denominations are taking steps to correct salary inequities.

Dr. Lenox said on the weekend that the survey shows Michigan pays an average of $4,603, or third highest. New England clergymen are reported the lowest paid.

Family in Jail, but Very Happy

Wife, 5 Children Stay With Father Cleared of Murder by Confession

JEFFERSON, Ga. (AP) — Jail was a happy place today for Mr. and Mrs. James Fulton Foster and five of their seven children.

They were together again under the same roof for the first time in two years.

★ ★ ★

During those two years Foster twice was sentenced to die in the electric chair in the slaying of a Jefferson merchant. His wife Irene struggled to keep the family going at Greer, S. C., by working in a shirt factory.

Then, on Friday, word came that a former Cairo, Ill., policeman had signed a statement in the South Carolina penitentiary admitting the slaying of Charlie Drake, 60, during a robbery attempt.

★ ★ ★

Last night Irene and James held a reunion on the jailhouse lawn. They hugged and kissed and cried in each other's arms, heedless of about 100 persons who had waited many hours to see them together.

After that Irene, 38, said: "We're going to stay here until we can take him back."

Her slim, mild-mannered husband, a 40-year-old house painter, didn't say anything. He knew legal technicalities might delay his release a week or two.

★ ★ ★

At this point, Sheriff John Brooks invited Mrs. Foster and the five children to stay at the jail, a large rambling house in this small town some 70 miles northeast of Atlanta.

Foster thinks he would like to do a bit of preaching when he gets home. "I think I can support my family by painting," he said, "but my free time will be devoted to others."

HONOR LIBERATOR — This eight-cent, U. S. stamp honors Simon Bolivar, the liberator of South America. In red, blue and golden ochre, it bears a medallion likeness of him. Another in the "Champions of Liberty" series, it will go on first-day sale in Washington, D.C., on July 24. A similar four-cent issue, in one color, will be issued at the same time.

U.S. Exhibit the Best at World's Fair—Hoover

NEW YORK (AP) — Herbert Hoover says the U.S. exhibition at the Brussels World's Fair "stands out above all others."

The former President returned from Belgium by plane yesterday. He visited the fair as the special envoy of President Eisenhower.

The U.S. building at Brussels, said the 83-year-old former chief executive, is "architecturally the most distinctive of the whole fair."

★ ★ ★

The exhibit has been criticized by some as unfavorable to this country.

Errant Knight, Wife of Another Return to London

LONDON (AP)—Sir John Huggins, former governor of Jamaica, and another man's wife flew home last night from a romantic interlude in Italy.

The couple said they hope to marry and drove off to an apartment they have rented somewhere in Hampshire.

★ ★ ★

Sir John, 66, and his 50-year-old wife Lady Molly have been married 29 years. The other woman is Mrs. Margaret Hitchcock, 45-year-old owner of a dress shop in Surrey. Lady Molly was one of her customers.

The couple had been staying in a hotel in Rapallo. Mrs. Hitchcock, silver-haired and comely, let Sir John do the talking.

★ ★ ★

"My wife and Mr. Hitchcock both started divorce proceedings two months ago," he told newsmen. "Mrs. Hitchcock and I will not contest the suits and we hope to marry some time in the future.

"This furor over us is dreadful, but thank goodness it will be ended soon. Perhaps then we can look forward to a little happiness."

Prince of Cambodia Cancels Viet Nam Trip

PHNOM PENH (AP) — Prince Norodom Sihanoul has canceled plans to visit South Viet Nam to negotiate on a series of recent border incidents, the Cambodian government announced today.

★ ★ ★

The move followed publication in Saigon of a newspaper article which said Cambodia was following a disorganized policy and it seemed foolish to send the man who made the policy to Saigon for negotiations. Sihanoul, the former king, is still the dominant force in the country.

Bill Would Limit Trade in Switch Blade Knives

Switch blade knives in the hands of teenagers are one of the most insidious weapons we know of today. In the heat of an ordinary argument they are sometimes used, and the result in many instances has been fatal.

★ ★ ★

The original design was not for use as a lethal weapon. The manufacturers were merely simplifying opening a regular pocket knife. But in the hands of some of today's hoodlums, they are as bad, if not worse, than a pistol or revolver.

Congressman William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland County) has recently co-sponsored a bill with Congressman Peter Mack (D-Illinois) to abolish the sale and manufacture of switch blade knives involved in interstate commerce.

★ ★ ★

The Pontiac PRESS is against Government controls. But in some cases, such as this, we feel that the ban is necessary.

Broomfield has said he proposed the bill "to help insure the safety of our children and teenagers." This seems like sound reasoning. Frequently these knives have been used as weapons in neighborhood gang fights and incidents involving our youth.

★ ★ ★

Since firearms are outlawed, certainly knives should be classified as deadly concealed weapons.

Today's youth may not start out to perpetrate a serious crime, but switch blade knives can many times cause permanent injury to what otherwise might have been a backyard scuffle.

★ ★ ★

Under the terms of the proposed bill introduced by Broomfield, it would become a Federal offense to manufacture or transport any knife across state lines which opens automatically by hand pressure applied to a button or by operation of inertia or gravity.

It is reasonable to believe that making it difficult to obtain these knives will help insure the well being of our children.

Weather Conditions Prove to Be Strange

The rains are flooding much of England.

This newspaper refuses to accept any suggestions that the "A" bombs or the "H" bombs or the "XYZ" bombs are responsible. Enough accredited scientists have thumbed this down to make it unlikely.

★ ★ ★

What's the matter?

Are we merely forgetful?

★ ★ ★

Most of our good citizens and the elder statesmen especially unite in the belief that the weather is "unusual." It's different and it's negative too much of the time. Certain areas of the world have been flooded, time and again.

★ ★ ★

Michigan hasn't suffered those indignities, but we are rather certain that June was "a funny one," anyway you look at the pesky month. All in all, we're constrained to ask: "Wot's hoppening?"

Business Expenses Or Gifts—What Are They?

As time passes, the SHERMAN ADAMS matter seems to get no better.

★ ★ ★

Now his pal, BERNARD GOLDFINE says that he deducted the cost of the presents to ADAMS from his income tax as business expenses.

One of two things must be true.

A—The costs were business expenses and were deductible; or

B—The items were purely gifts in which case they were not deductible.

★ ★ ★

If they were a business expense and were deductible, then Adams must have been of some assistance in a business way to justify the inclusion on his expense account.

If they were purely gifts, they're not deductible and GOLDFINE owes more taxes.

Mr. GOLDFINE, it's your move.

PRICES are always too high — and too low. They're too high on what a person has to buy—too low on what he has to sell.

Unique Boat Plies Water of Oakland County Lake

Mercury: What we don't notice until it goes to extremes.

Quite unique among the diversified means of transportation on the many lakes in the Pontiac area is

"Pork Chops,"

a side-wheeler on Dixie Lake, built in its entirety and owned by whose home is on the shore of the lake.

Ray B. Sonerant

It is a seaworthy and non-sinkable craft, finished in fine woodwork, with suitable housing, and accommodates a dozen or more people. It has every equipment to make it an ideal cruiser at five miles per hour.

Its principal erection problem was the circular side wheels. They are about three feet in diameter and sunk into the sides of the boat. They revolve slowly, so as not to kick up any fuss in the water.

Powered by a regular marine motor, some expert engineering was required to reduce the revolutions per minute so the paddle wheels would not turn too fast.

After a ride in it, with Mrs. Sonerant and children at the wheel, it proved to be so safe and sound that I felt foolish because I had insisted on donning a life preserver before going aboard.

If They're Really Interested in Influences—

David Lawrence Says:

Dems Sabotage 'Cold War' Weapon

WASHINGTON — What's happened to the Democratic Party?

For a long time now the country has been told that the Republicans were the party of "isolationism" and that the Democrats were the international cooperationists.

LAWRENCE

But it turns out now that the Democratic Party in the House of Representatives has virtually emasculated the President's program for defense support abroad. Eisenhower calls it a "setback" for the free world.

All during the last five years the Democrats have been saying that President Eisenhower may earnestly favor international cooperation but that he couldn't control his own party on the issue.

The Democrats have constantly pictured the President as unable to get his own party to do his bidding.

In a key vote, however, in the House of Representatives last week, the Democrats lined up 140 to 60 to defeat the appropriation of $75,000,000 which was to have been restored to a bill in which the administration requests had already been cut by $800,000,000. The Republicans lined up 105 to 74 for the amendment.

Thus it was the Republican Party which not only stuck by the leadership of the White House but also put itself on record as favoring mutual security.

No longer will the Democratic campaign speakers be able to taunt the Republicans about their supposed isolationism. No longer will it seem convincing for the Democratic Party's spokesmen to be calling for "bold, imaginative leadership" when the Democrats who are in control of Congress have sabotaged the most important weapon the United States government can wield in the "cold war."

★ ★ ★

There are all sorts of reasons why various members of the House are opposed to "foreign aid." But most of them are unaware of or unwilling to face up to the many ticklish problems confronting the Department of State and other governmental agencies in carrying on the "cold war."

Where the United States spends a few millions in a country, the Soviets spend far more.

These delicate questions are explained in confidence to the committees of Congress and it is significant that both the House Foreign Affairs Committee and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee with a non-partisan approach approved overwhelmingly the President's program of approximately $3,900,000,000.

★ ★ ★

It was only when the measure was up for consideration by the House Appropriations Committee that the measure struck a snag. Here the bitter opposition of Democratic Party isolationists brought severe curtailment.

Why weren't the Democratic leaders able to override one of their own committees, and why weren't they successful in winning more votes on the floor?

There are all sorts of alibis being circulated and, as usual, the administration's liaison men on Capitol Hill are being blamed for this or that error in tactics.

★ ★ ★

The fact remains, however, that the opposition to the foreign aid program was well known and the key Democrats who were fighting it were well known.

The truth is the Democratic leadership wasn't strong enough to control its recalcitrant groups or was unwilling in a showdown to call on the Democrats of the House to take sides against the appropriations committee.

This is all the more puzzling because the big argument for the foreign aid program this year was that in the midst of recession it would help domestic industries and foster re-employment.

It has been estimated that 75 per cent of the money appropriated for foreign aid will be spent in this country with domestic businesses.

The tragic part of the episode is that the United States government is being handicapped in its "cold war" battles by the failure to provide adequate funds.

Nobody seems to want to see draft calls increased or American armed forces put into action anywhere abroad.

Yet when the simple device of "buying peace" is put before the House of Representatives the Democratic Party turns away and leaves the nation in the lurch.

Smiles

What a chance politicians take on TV, not being able to claim they were misquoted.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Tonsillectomy No Cure for Child's Severe Colds

A Connecticut man says one of his children has had severe (uh-huh) colds for two winters, always accompanied by fever and frequently with severe ear infection.

DR. BRADY

Two doctors advocated removal of the child's tonsils. He took the child to two specialists in another town and they, too, advised removal of tonsils and adenoids. They said the bad tonsils were causing the severity of the colds. Last year the colds were more frequent than they are this year.

The doctors informed the Connecticut man that they do tonsillectomy (harrumph!) and not the "clipping" or tonsillotomy which I recommend. In fact they don't know of any reputable physician or throat specialist who does anything but tonsillectomy today.

Furthermore, the insurance plan in New York of which the Connecticut man is a member, lists tonsillectomy and adenoidectomy but not tonsillotomy. These facts, of course, the Connecticut man remarks, do not jibe with my teachings.

The child, aside from the "colds" described, is a healthy, normal, active boy.

★ ★ ★

Now don't I feel that action is warranted in this case and from what the Connecticut man has told me don't I feel that what the four doctors advise is the correct action? (D. S. H.)

I do not.

If, between "colds," as you call them, the child is as healthy and normal as you intimate, why give him any treatment?

Did either of the doctors or specialists promise or imply that removal of tonsils and adenoids will make the child any less susceptible to the illnesses or indispositions you so casually call "colds?" If so, he was selling you a bill of goods.

Studies made by competent physicians in England and America do not warrant any such optimistic claim for tonsillectomy. Tonsillectomized children continue to have as many respiratory infections after tonsillectomy as they had before. Tonsils or no tonsils, it is generally only when they grow older that they begin to have less frequent infections.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

The Country Parson

"Some folks who contribute nothing to the church like to dream about how much they would give if they had a million dollars."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Religious Fanatics Often Neurotic

Marsha's problem is not uncommon. Many religious zealots are compensating for some inner sexual complex which drives them into fanatical fervor. You are more likely to find such patients in the teenage group and at the menopause. Scrapbook this case for future use and send for the sex booklet below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE Y-355: Marsha M., aged 17, has become a religious fanatic.

"Dr Crane, Marsha has become an extremist," her school teacher informed me.

"She says she is going to be a missionary, which is a very desirable ambition. But Marsha objects to dating boys and will not participate in any of our school social events.

DR. CRANE

"She refused to attend our convocation exercises last week just because we were showing a movie. Marsha believes movies are sinful and the ally of Satan.

★ ★ ★

"But this was purely an educational movie of the sort which most of the churches now employ.

"I realize that Marsha's fanaticism must have some emotional root, so would you please see if you can discover her inner problem?"

DETECTIVE WORK

Psychiatry is largely a matter of detective work. The doctor tries to discover the "villain."

And this villain may be a mistaken notion, instead of a person. So it was in Marsha's case.

She had read my column enough to have a lot of confidence in my judgement, so she opened up more quickly than otherwise would have been true.

Besides, from long experience, a doctor knows how to ask searching questions.

"What makes you think you are unfit to marry?" I jolted her with this challenging query.

★ ★ ★

"Why don't you think you could win a boy friend and become a successful wife?"

Sometimes a vigorous offense will divert the attention of the patient and throw her off guard.

And so it worked out with Marsha. She began to cry and admitted that she had been guilty of auto erotic practices. So she felt she was a terrible sinner. And wholly unfit for marriage.

"No boy would ever want me for a wife if he knew about my past," she confessed.

★ ★ ★

"So I decided I would become a missionary and thus try to attone for my sin. Maybe God would then take pity on me and not kill me or make me lose my mind."

GOD'S PUNISHMENTS

When people feel they have sinned against God, they usually worry about sudden death, as by a heart attack or a stroke of apoplexy, or lightning.

Or they may believe God will make them go insane. And these are universal fears of mankind.

It is not uncommon for a religious zealot to be goaded onward by an inner conflict that causes terrific tension. As a means of trying to get relief, the victim may try to sublimate his problem via excessively fervent religious work.

So beware of fanatical religious zealots. For religion can be defended by calm logic and should never be a neurotic symptom.

Surveys show that it is statistically normal for both sexes to have engaged in some self sex practices. They do not produce feeblemindedness or the other dire results old-fashioned parents have used as threats for ages.

★ ★ ★

For full facts on this vital problem, send for my booklet "Sex Problems of Young People," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Churches need stable workers, not frothy fanatics who are compensating for inner sex conflicts.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

Readers Respond to Letter About Women's Dress, Bible

In answer to Nothing but a Woman, you seem to be a little mixed up. Either you believe in God or not. If you do, you'll believe "With God, all things are possible."

★ ★ ★

The Bible was written by inspired men of God and therefore God was behind it. If you don't believe in God, you shouldn't waste your time praying for strength.

★ ★ ★

As for wearing overalls in the garden, it would be the appropriate thing, but please not shorts in the stores or on the street. God wants us to use common sense in all things.

Mrs. E. Joseph

599 Lochaven Rd.

We Christians will agree with Nothing But A Woman that man's hands held the pen to write the Bible. However, God guided the hands and minds. The Bible consists of 66 books written by 40-odd writers and it goes together as if one mind had written it. Some writers were amazed at what they had written when they finished. They all claim it was inspired.

★ ★ ★

If she would investigate, she would find that every prophecy in it has been fulfilled as the time came due. When Christ was born, 135 of them came true. It would have been impossible for the human mind to predict any one of them. Man has trouble predicting the weather 24 hours in advance.

★ ★ ★

For anyone who doesn't believe in the Bible, it would pay to investigate and find out the truth. Where they will live forever is at stake.

Glenn Yuille

Just because some women must work like men and dress accordingly is no reason why they should disgrace the streets of town in that same outfit.

★ ★ ★

As for the Bible being written by man, the Bible agrees that "all Scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for instruction in righteousness."

★ ★ ★

She thinks she has proof that Christ didn't know who God really was. Jesus said, "I and my Father are one." What more proof could you need?

12-Year-Old Bible Believer

I agree with Overall Girl that everyone should dress like he wants to. The Bible says women should dress in modest apparel with shamefacedness and sobriety not with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly array, but which becometh women professing Godliness. But don't get your holiness like the Pharisees. They let their teaching get between them and God.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

The great temptations which thine eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched out arm, whereby the Lord thy God brought thee out: so shall the Lord thy God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid —Deut. 7:19.

'Don't Use Average to Reduce Wages'

As an employe of Pontiac General, I respect supervision of the hospital. If they wanted to save money, why fire a director earning $12,000 a year and hire one for $18,500.

★ ★ ★

It seems unfair to combine wages of all employes to get an average when there is such a difference between professional and non-professional wages. My salary before deductions is $140 every other week at 26 pays a year, not $4,160 as the hospital stated. Actual pay and average pay are a lot different on the paycheck.

★ ★ ★

Detroit hospitals pay as much and some more than Pontiac General, besides additional benefits. So why not put the blame where it belongs and not on the employes paychecks?

Teenager Defends Child Punishment

I'm 16 and agree people should look deeper into this so-called cruelty. Lately if a parent feels a child isn't behaving and tries to do something about it, they are unfit parents.

★ ★ ★

I know when my parents punish me, I deserve it. Isn't that usually the case or do parents always go around punishing children needlessly? I respect my parents for punishing my misdeeds. I needed it to grow morally and mentally.

★ ★ ★

So let parents raise their children and there won't be as much need for institutions, there'll be fewer mixed up parents and children and far less unhappy, resentful teenagers. I'm happy now that I was punished when I was young. I was punished but not needlessly.

Ike, Diefenbaker May Take Historic Steps to Establish Joint Body

OTTAWA (AP)—President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Diefenbaker in their talks opening here tomorrow may take historic steps to establish a direct channel between the law-making bodies of Canada and the United States.

★ ★ ★

Diefenbaker, describing the meetings as a move to eliminate differences and strengthen ties between the two countries, last night expressed hope they will lead to the creation of a joint Canada-U.S. parliamentary committee.

The purpose of such a group would be to keep a constant watch on problems emerging between the neighbors and presumably to initiate some fast action if friction reaches the danger point.

Currently the chief body for this purpose is the Canada-U.S. Economic and Trade Committee of four Cabinet members from each nation. But this committee has met only about once a year and so far has not been notably successful at quietly ironing out problems before they reach the state of public flareups.

Public aggravations between the two countries have increased in the last few years, rather than diminished.

★ ★ ★

Diefenbaker will seek solutions on such grievances as the American ban on Chinese trade, import restrictions on Canadian oil, and the dumping of American wheat in commercial markets overseas, thereby hurting Canadian attempts to market her own surpluses for dollars.

Meanest Man Swipes Youngsters' Swim Pool

DETROIT (AP) — John Steinmetz Jr., 4, and his brother Gary, 3, and two other youngsters were filling up a plastic swimming pool in the Steinmetz back yard so they could cool off.

A man in a pickup truck was driving down the alley and saw the children. He stopped his truck, jumped over a fence, grabbed the pool, threw it in his truck and took off. Police are searching for the man.

Terrorist Blasts Kill 4, Hurt 20 in Algeria

ALGIERS (AP) — Small bomb attacks flared throughout troubled Algeria over the weekend. French authorities said the situation was "rather lively."

★ ★ ★

No major engagements with nationalist rebels took place, but four persons were killed and 20 injured in the individual attacks.

Such terrorist blasts in cities have been rare in the past few months.

Five Red Herring Cause Radiation Scare in Holland

AMSTERDAM, Holland (UPI) — This is the story of an atomic radiation scare and the five red herring that caused it.

The victim was Jan Derksen who bought the five red herring and took them home to cook them. When he cleaned them and popped them into a frying pan they began to emit an eerie greenish glow.

"They're radioactive!" was his immediate and fearful reaction.

He called the police who rushed Derksen, the frying pan and the five fish to the Amsterdam Atomic Research Institute.

A grave-faced scientist brought out a geiger counter.

Then he wrinkled his nose and gave the verdict: The five red herring hadn't been kept on ice.

DEPART FOR SCOUT RANCH IN NEW MEXICO — Twenty-four explorer scouts of the Clinton Valley Council in northern Oakland County left Pontiac early Saturday by train on a 15-day trip to Philmont Scout Ranch, Cimarron, N. M. At the 127,000-acre national scout area in a rugged section of the West, the group will take an 80-mile mountain hike, enjoy swimming, canoeing and horseback riding. Among those making the trip were (from left) Hap Walton, 6251 Willow Rd., West Bloomfield Township; Walter Steyskal, 7050 Ten Hill Rd., Birmingham; Monte Alkire, 3622 Northwood, Orchard Lake; Richard Lewis, 29624 Lockmoor Rd., Farmington, and Otis Walton, adviser of Post 119, Green Lake. '55 Buick, $80 Stolen From Orion Garage

LAKE ORION — Village Police in Lake Orion are investigating the theft of a 1955 Buick and $80 in cash from the Carrothers Service Station, 400 S. Broadway St., over the weekend.

The breakin was discovered early Saturday morning by Village Police who noticed the garage door open. Entry was gained by breaking a rear window, police said.

Besides the auto and money, Harvey Carrothers, owner of the station, reported that an electric razor and several cartons of cigarettes were missing.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONAID moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONAID's unequalled rebulking action helps retone flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAID acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONAID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAID today! Introductory size 43¢.

But Who'll Put Seoul Together?

South Korea Tearing Apart Its Capital

SEOUL (INS) — South Korea is tearing apart its capital city of Seoul to make room for a future dream city.

It makes some people happy and others sad, for the problem is so great that no one may ever be able to put Seoul back together again.

LIFTING FACE

The government has a 20-year plan for a revolutionary face-lift that would provide all the things required for a metropolis of the space age—speedways, municipal parks, subways, underground parking lots, underground shopping centers, heliports, and a mono-rail transit system.

Five precious years have already elapsed since the 20-year plan was drawn up by Seoul's ambitious city planners.

Groaning under a heavy load of almost insurmountable responsibilities, Seoul is heading for an uncertain fate with only some $30 million to spend per year for its bare necessities.

A huge map, blueprinted five years ago, is still gathering dust in the city hall. It shows a sprawling modern city with well-planned roads, bigger by five times its present size.

The city fathers of Seoul, nevertheless, are fuddling along with undiminished optimism. Seoul, officially at least, has ushered in the fifth year of its 20-year plan.

The over-crowded capital city, with a history of 565 years, has very little to show for 1957. During the year, Seoul:

★ ★ ★

—Built some 8,000 new structures. These are spaced in such a way as to escape attention of visitors.

—Destroyed an almost equal number of ramshackle houses and wooden shacks to make room for "the new city."

—Built a paved cross-town traffic artery which is some 10,000 feet in length. There are only three other arteries of equal length in the whole city.

★ ★ ★

Sacked by Communist marauders three times during the Korean war, Seoul is today faced with these seemingly insurmountable problems:

—A decrepit sewage system.

—Lack of electric power. Only one road has dim street lights.

—An outdated telephone system. The city's telephone system of some 20,000 private lines needs complete overhauling.

—Lack of water mains and reservoirs. Only 130,000 tons of water are available for the whole city per day. The mayor's office says it will take two years before the amount can be increased.

★ ★ ★

—Acute shortage of housing. Houses built with municipal funds numbered less than 1,000 in 1957.

—Overcrowding. There are more people per acre in Seoul than in Tokyo, the world's largest city in population. There are an estimated 1.7 million people in Seoul which is only one-sixth the size of Tokyo in area, or some 65,000 acres.

Banks Pay Insurance Premiums for You

BOSTON — Several thousand banks, in cooperation with more than 70 life-insurance companies, now offer to pay your insurance preminums for you as they become due.

You agree to let the bank take a certain amount out of your ckecking account. There is a saving because the insurance company's paper work is cut, and you don't have to worry about inadvertently letting policies lapse.

Aid Forest-Fire Fighters

WASHINGTON — Recent developments in forest-fire-fighting equipment include a lightweight fire-line trencher that can dig an 18-inch trench and an off-the-road trailer that carries 250 gallons of liquid in its tires.

Pipes Won't Corrode With Plastic Coating

GARY, Ind. — Nearing full-scale production are steel pipes in various sizes coated with plastic to prevent corrosion. A pipe is first covered with an adhesive coating, applied hot. Extruded over this is a controlled thickness of polyethylene.

Since the adhesive does not become hard or brittle, the pipe can be flexed or bent without destroying the bond. The coating is not affected by seasonal changes in temperature and never loses its ability to seal cuts or abrasions.

Seeds Dried for Storing

MINNEAPOLIS — Hybrid-corn technicians of a Minneapolis firm remove an average of 9,000 quarts of water from each 1,500-bushel drier bin in a 60-hour period in order to dry seed to the 13 per cent moisture level considered best for storing and growth potential.

Many of 'Emergencies' Just Phone Phonies

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Manager J. R. Michels of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co. complains too many persons falsely label their calls emergencies just to get the line quickly.

★ ★ ★

A check of 3,020 "emergency" calls showed that only 373 involved real emergencies, Michels said. Among the worst offenders, Michels added, are teenagers who place emergency calls to say, "Come on over, we're playing records."

Sauropods the Largest

BOSTON — The sauropods, giants among the dinosaurs which flourished 150,000,000 years ago, were the biggest land-dwelling animals ever to appear on earth. They were 60 to 90 feet long and probably weighed as much as 250 tons.

India will have 450 million people by 1970, according to present margin.

Keep Active Always

Outside Interests Ward Off Many Ills

BY JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Today's knowledge of psychosomatic medicine, or the effect of the mind and emotions on the body and health, has been dramatically proven in the Day Centers of New York City. The number of visits to the medical clinic have declined in ratio to the number of times the older person went to the Day Center for companionship and happiness.

In case you do not know about the Day Centers—they are perhaps the most progressive project yet to appear in the battle to catch up with the social problems which the advances in medicine have created. There are so many more older people today than there used to be and the percentage is increasing rapidly.

At New York's Day Centers an oldster can find companionship, interesting activity, people of the same age and in a similar situation and an enthusiastic welcome. A date for a game of checkers to look forward to tomorrow can change a life from despair to one of hope. Never underestimate this!

Now the next logical, intelligent and exciting step has been taken. Menorah Home and Hospital for the aged and infirm has established the first licensed psychiatric clinic in New York State, exclusively for the aged. The idea of the clinic is to ward off senility in the aged by helping them to meet their psychological problems and to adjust to their environment. A research project, it is designed to provide a pattern for establishing and operating future clinics of this type elsewhere.

All treatment is free. Everyone who lives in the community and is over 60 years old is eligible for treatment. It is non-sectarian.

There no longer can be any doubt about it! Loneliness, boredom, no incentive to live and progress, the feeling of no longer being needed or wanted can do tremendous damage to the body and to health. It also can affect the personality and even the mind.

There are exercises you can take while sitting, standing or walking. No one will be the wiser, but you will be prettier.

Today I will give you a few of these but before that I want to point up an important fact which few people realize. Beautiful figure results can be obtained by taking special exercises several times a week. You'll have even better results when these exercises are a part of your daily routine.

BUT, I want to remind you that the habit of maintaining good posture is an exercise in itself, and that when you do this you are indulging in the best possible gymnastics. If you do not believe it, pull your abdomen in and hold it while you count to 10.

TOUCH WALL

The following illustrates the posture you should strive for all the time: Stand with your back against the wall and your heels about eight inches away from it. Bend your knees slightly. Now try to press the small of your back to the wall firmly. Hold it while you count to 10 slowly. Relax. Keep repeating.

At first you may not be able to do this but bring the middle of your back as near the wall as possible. If you have difficulty, assume this same position and hold it while you bend your left knee up. Grasp the knee with your hands and pull back toward your tummy.

This will make it easier to touch the wall with your back and will tuck your hips under and pull your abdomen in. Straighten left leg and do the same thing with the right leg. Practice in this exercise will train your muscles to do their work effectively.

This is an exercise you can do while sitting and is splendid for firming the thigh. Sit with your feet about six inches apart. Keep the feet flat on the floor as you press your knees together and hold while you count to 10 slowly. Then relax. Continue.

The following exercise is extremely restful for those who sit at a desk many hours at a time. Simply stretch your right leg forward and push with your heel. Do the same with your left leg. Then alternate doing this slowly.

While sitting pull your abdomen in slowly. Pull it back toward the backbone as far as you can. Hold while you count to 10 slowly. Make this a hard contraction. Relax. Continue for a time, keeping the spine against the back of the chair.

Husband Wrong to Leave

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: Last Sunday afternoon while sitting in our living room talking to friends who had come to visit us, our next-door neighbor came to the door and said he would like to see my husband about something. I called my husband and the next thing I knew he was going next door with our neighbor. He was gone almost an hour.

"I found out later that he wanted my husband's opinion on some work he was doing in his house. After our company had gone I told my husband that he was very rude to leave the house when we had guests. I think he should have explained to our neighbor that we had guests and could not leave.

"He said he couldn't refuse this neighbor's request and that as long as I was there with our guests it was not wrong for him to leave. What is your opinion?"

Answer: I agree with you that your husband should have explained that he could not leave his guests for more than a very few minutes.

"Dear Mrs. Post: How should mother be introduced to my friends? Please tell me the most friendly and natural way."

Answer: "Miss Green, may I introduce you to my mother," or else, "Mother, this is Mary Green" — and with a pause add, "Mrs. John Green" if she is married and there is doubt of your mother's knowing whether she is Mrs. or Miss. If you give no explanation, then your mother takes it for granted that she is Miss.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it correct to eat pie with a spoon—especially pie served with ice cream?"

Answer: Not impossible but better to use a fork for pie—even with ice cream. A spoon is proper when it has thin cream poured over it or is a deep dish juicy fruit pie.

Dear Abby....

She's Got Him Sobered but Not Subdued!

DEAR ABBY: I had the same trouble as lots of women who write you and I did what you tell them to do. I got my husband to join A.A. Well, he is sober and has been for two years, but he is practically living with a woman alcoholic who he met through AA. He says they have more in common because they are both A.A. Those A.A.'s think all that matters is sobriety, but I can tell you my husband does everything ELSE but drink. He lies and cheats and can't be trusted. You won't print this I'll bet because you don't have an answer for it.

—RITA S.

ABBY

DEAR RITA: "A.A." cannot give a man character he never had. Neither does it promise to cure his other illnesses. If your husband is sober, at least half the battle is won. Now, talk to a clergyman.

DEAR ABBY: Go right ahead and toot your horn for A.A. and let me beat the drum. The person who signed herself "Ought to Know" in your column ought to know better. My father was about as hopeless a drunk as you could find. He drank everything from rubbing alcohol to brilliantine. Anything that had spirits in it he drank. He joined A.A. and hasn't touched a drop in six years. We now have a new car and a bank account and he works steady. If it weren't for A.A. he wouldn't have anything.

—J.

DEAR ABBY: I have been living with this man who is a painter for nine years. We have three children, but I feel like I should be living with this other man who works on the railroad because he is due for a promotion. I know I would make him a better wife than the one he is married to. They have been married for 13 years and have four children. We have been seeing each other every free chance we get, but he says he would never leave his wife and children. Do you think I am wrong in wanting this railroad man and not the painter? The railroader's wife is always sick and he laid out a small fortune in doctor bills and medicine. I am very healthy. — NEED A CHANGE.

DEAR NEED: You need a lot more than a change, Lady. You need to be told something about the moral code under which respectable people live. Leave married men alone and use that extra energy to persuade your painter to decorate a marriage license.

Bring Resentment Out in Open to Dispel

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Mrs. Hart gets the call on Saturday morning. Her daughter says, "Jim wants us to go to the Parsons' tonight, Mother. But our sitter has a date. Can you sit for us? Why don't you and Dad come to dinner so that you can be with the kids before they go to bed?"

But Dad doesn't care to be with the kids at the price of spending six hours of boredom in his daughter's house. So Mrs. Hart prepares his supper, leaves him to eat it alone and drives off with her son-in-law to the dinner and bedtime confusions of her daughter's house.

★ ★ ★

Finally alone, she finds herself thinking resentfully, "Why can't Liz phone her sitter before the girl makes a date? Does she forget to do it because she knows she can count on me? Why does she assume that what Dad and I want to do on Saturday night is of no importance compared with what she and Jim want to do?"

And promptly she begins to despise herself for this resistance to the role of All-Helpful Mama.

So she'll probably be stuck with the role for a long, long time.

Because when we despise some flaw in perfection in ourselves, we expect others to despise it, too. And we hide it from them desperately, just as poor Hester Prynne hid the "A" for Adultery branded upon her breast.

How simple would be Mrs. Hart's solution were she not ashamed of her unmotherly resentment. When her children came home, she'd just have to say, "My dears, I don't enjoy this lonely baby sitting business. Next time you want an evening off, why not arrange to bring the children over to us for the night so that Dad and I can have fun together in our way, too?"

Have you ever considered the meaning of the word "meekness?"

We should. Jesus called it "blessed." When He goes out of His way to single out a human character quality for such high praise, we owe its meaning some thought of our own instead of sleeping on the definitions or our Sunday School teachers.

I think meekness is the courage to present ourselves to others as we are, not as we think we ought to be or may be tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

And I think Jesus promised the meek the inheritance of the earth because He put such store by emotional honesty.

But Mrs. Hart, I expect, has her mind on inheriting heaven.

Don't Ruin Success

If your opponents beat you at bridge, let them enjoy their success. Why try to spoil it for them by complaining about what poor cards you and your partner held?

The American shoreline of the Great Lakes, exclusive of Canadian shores, is about equal to the combined coasts bordering on the Atlantic and Pacific oceans and the Gulf of Mexico.

Does Your Wife Have a Case Against You

By RUTH MILLETT

Memo to Men: Want to know what faults in a husband wives most often complain about?

I've been keeping score through the years, and judging from what wives write me, your most common faults are:

One. You won't talk. Instead you come home from work and want to know if dinner is ready. And after you've eaten you sit like a lump before the television set until bedtime. That makes you pretty dull company—from a wife's point of view.

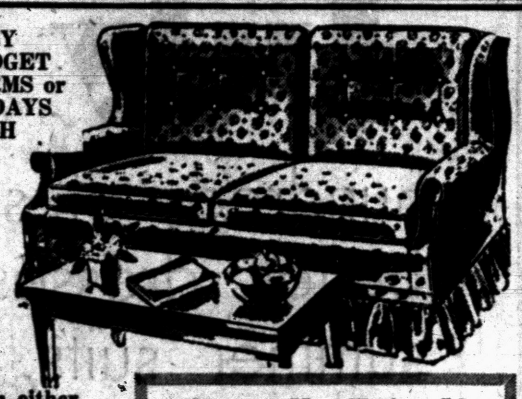

Two. You refuse to take any responsibility around home, leaving your wife not only to look after the house, but to take complete charge of the children and keep the yard in shape. Because you can't be bothered, she makes the decisions. But instead of praising her for taking things off your shoulders as you would a competent secretary, you blame her for "wanting to run things."

Three. Instead of picking up after yourself and helping to keep your home neat, you cause her as much work as a toddler. Yet when you can't find something (which you haven't bothered to put away where it belongs) you complain that you can never "find anything anything around this house."

Four. You are willing for your wife to help earn a living for the family. But you aren't willing to go 50-50 all the way, by doing half the work around the house, in return for her going out each day to earn a paycheck.

Five. You are quick to criticize, but slow to pay your wife the kind of compliments that would make her feel necessary and important.

Maybe none of these complaints could come from your wife. But are you sure?

Newlyweds in Florida

A white dotted Swiss ballerina-length gown was chosen by Georgiene Marie Close for her June 28 marriage to Airman Jay Walter Simons. The ceremony was performed in Birmingham's Holy Name Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Close of Birmingham, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Simons of Birmingham.

Tiers of lace accented the fitted bodice of the bride's princess style gown. She wore a veil trimmed with pearls and three tiers of tulle. White orchids, white Sweetheart roses, and stephanotis composed her bouquet.

Maid of honor Nancy Peoke of Detroit and bridesmaid Doris Greve of Birmingham were gowned alike in pale blue cotton dresses.

Flower girls were Helen Close, sister of the bride, and Cheryl Simons, sister of the bridegroom. The bridegroom's brother, Dale Simons, was best man. Robert Owen of Birmingham also attended. A reception was held at St. Anne's Hall.

Before leaving on a trip to Florida the new Mrs. Simons changed to a white dress and wore a white orchid.

★ ★ ★

The bridegroom attended Purdue University and has been an instructor at Chanute Air Force Base, Chanute, Ill. On July 20 he will leave for Japan where the new Mrs. Simons will join him later.

Not for the large-boned, hefty type is the "babyish fashion." Print of giant flowers in sophisticated simplicity suits big-boned frame.

Her mother soon discovered that the "little girl" look was not for her hefty youngster and it definitely is not later. Superb fit and simplicity rather than puffy hair-do, little bows which through contrast emphasize angularity.

Wed at St. Benedict Church

St. Benedict's Church was the scene of the June 28 wedding of Effie Anastos of West Howard street and Samual Palace of Edgewater drive. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Hoar.

The bride's parents are Mrs. Helen Anastos and the late George Anastos. The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Palace.

An ice blue lace peau de sole gown with matching hat and veil was chosen by the bride. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and ivy centered with white orchids. John Anastos escorted his sister to the altar.

Matron of honor Mrs. Joseph L. Palace, a niece of the bridegroom, wore a Persian pink chiffon bouffant gown with matching hat.

Best man was Joseph L. Palace, nephew of the bridegroom. George T. Pappas seated the guests.

★ ★ ★

Following the ceremony a buffet reception was held at the home of the bridegroom. The couple will reside on Edgewater drive.

Mary Plousos, the bride's sister, flew from California to attend the wedding.

Been Around Poison Plant?

It's commonly believed that only three plants in the United States are harmful to touch—poison oak, poison sumac and poison ivy.

If you even suspect that you have been in contact with any of the three, scrub all exposed areas of your skin as soon as possible with thick, warm-to-hot soap or detergent suds. Wash twice to make sure, then rinse well.

Blame Brothers, 7, 8, 9 for Million-Dollar Blaze

HACKENSACK, N.J. (AP)—Police say three brothers—aged 7, 8 and 9—were responsible for a million-dollar fire here over the weekend.

The fire burned out the block-long Comfort Coal and Lumber Co. yard, destroyed or damaged eight cars and blistered four houses and a gas station Saturday night.

★ ★ ★

The boys were picked up yesterday and released in the custody of their parents after questioning.

Police Lt. Owen Toolen of the Youth Division said the brothers admitted setting the fire.

He quoted the boys as saying they were on their way to a store with some empty soda bottles when they found a partially filled book of matches.

The 8-year-old ignited a piece of paper. His 7-year-old brother told Toolen he thought he had stamped the small fire out, so the youngsters left the paper and proceeded to the store.

They saw the fire on their way home.

Play Nearly 77 Hours in Piano Marathon

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) Jack Mayer and Mrs. Noye Person played the piano for 76 hours 46 minutes and 3 seconds before halting the contest on the advice of a doctor yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Mayer, a supper club entertainer, and Mrs. Person, a former Rocky Mount, N.C., radio entertainer, were the last of six players who started the keyboard marathon Thursday morning.

★ ★ ★

The players got five-minute breaks every two hours until 1 p.m. Saturday, then 10-minute breaks.

Judges called it a tie and awarded Mrs. Person and Mayer each an $800 piano.

Four in Family Die Driving to Funeral

ST. THOMAS, Ont. (AP) — George Griggs Jr., of Detroit, died last night of injuries suffered in an auto accident which earlier took the lives of three members of his family.

Seven other members of the family were injured when two cars in which they were traveling to a funeral in Buffalo plungd off a highway near St. Thomas Saturday.

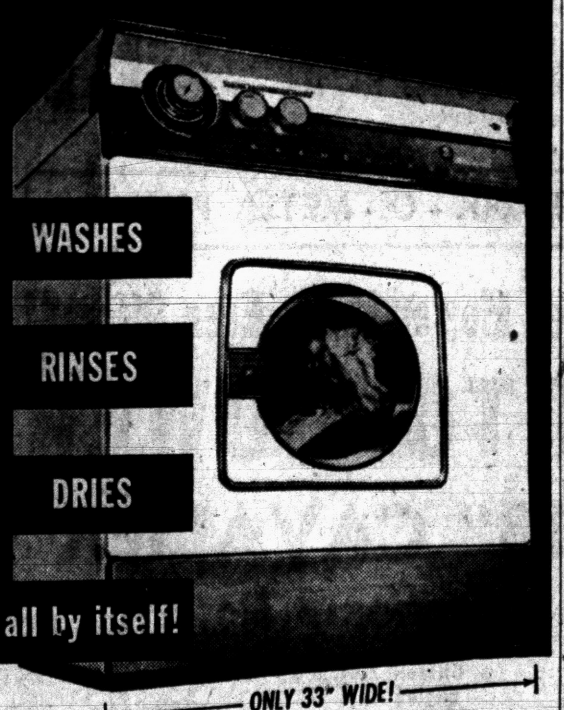

Police said the first car left the road at a sharp bend in a dense fog and was followed by the second car. They plunged 200 feet into a gully and pancaked roof-to-roof.

George Griggs Sr., 65, and his granddaughter, Melodie Griggs, 5, died in the tangled wreckage. Clarence Griggs, 43, another son of George Griggs Sr., died a few hours after the accident.

Night Watch Again 'Singing the Hours'

CIUDAD REAL, Spain — The ancient custom of "singing the hours" has been revived by night watchmen of this provincial capital in central Spain.

Using tunes that date back to the Middle Ages, they pass through the streets intoning such information as "Midnight and all's clear" or "Two a.m. and it's raining."

The 1 a.m. call is omitted — that's the watchmen's "lunch" hour.

Conductors Using 2-Projection Punch

CHICAGO All conductors in through-passenger-train service use a single-projection punch, equipped to make one unique perforation.

But on some railroads that operate commuter service, conductors use a duplex, two-projection punch.

★ ★ ★

The tip is used to perforate the particular ride to be canceled out of suburban commutation tickets as the passenger boards the train.

Later, as the conductor moves through the coaches, he uses the upper, or second, die of the punch to cut the perforated portion completely off the ticket.

Chinese in 2697 B. C. Standardized Music

HONG KONG — Historians agree that Huang-ti in 2697 B.C. was the first Chinese ruler to standardize music and that during his reign ancient Chinese music assumed its characteristic form.

He took a certain note as a base, fixed sounds and gave them names, and drew comparisons between the notes. The notes were originally — and still are — obtained from the lus, a series of 12 bamboo tubes which are supposed to render the 12 chromatic semitones of the octave.

PICNIC PLEASURE — The later years allow time to do the things that you never had time to enjoy much before. One such favorite pastime for Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Bigger Sr., of 2 Park Pl., is enjoying a church picnic. He is 68 and she 57.

Mexico's Ruler an Unknown

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Six months ago Adolfo Lopez Mateos was almost a political unknown. Then suddenly his name was splashed across Mexico and before long people were saying without hesitation: "Lopez Mateos will be elected president of Mexico on July 6."

A former secretary of labor, Lopez Mateos was chosen by the Party of Revolutionary Institutions (PRI) to succeed President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines, who is retiring. Ruiz Cortines gave him his backing.

★ ★ ★

PRI leaders and Ruiz Cortines apparently long had their eyes on him. The dashing 48-year-old Lopez Mateos was well respected in high government circles for his ability to settle labor disputes amicably and with ease.

This ability to find quick solutions seems to go back a long way. Eighteen years ago, Adolfo Lopez Mateos wanted to go to his college dance but lacked a dark suit. He had the money neither to buy one nor rent one.

So, he found two pals of similar build and similar straits. They pitched in what money they had, rented one dark suit and shared it in two-hour shifts at the dance.

The name of Adolfo Lopez Mateos blinked in neon atop Mexico City skyscrapers all during his campaign. It was painted on mountain peaks, on countryside walls, on gift pens and cigarette lighters.

"We're with him," trumpeted the campaign posters.

SHY, MODEST MAN

The high-pressure publicity doesn't seem to have turned his head.

Born in Atizapan de Zaragoza May 26, 1910, he is a shy, modest man.

Despite his shyness, he has a gift of speech. He is best at talking off the cuff. Chin up, shoulders back he gives the impression that he is taller than his medium height.

Most of his countrymen regard him as being somewhat left of middle-roader Ruiz Cortines, but basically he is a man of balance. Never once in his campaign did he define his feelings toward the United States, but he declared once he knew of no outstanding problems between the United States and Mexico which could not be settled "by friendly understanding."

In a nutshell, this is the kind of man he is:

He reads everything from pulps to Plato. His musical taste runs from Beethoven to Gershwin. He shuns dominoes (Mexico's classical pastime) and plays chess and canasta on Saturday nights with his wife, who is an ex-schoolteacher, and his well-traveled 16-year-old daughter. He gets up at 5 a.m., works 12 to 13 hours a day, chain smokes black Mexican tobacco and runs his aides ragged. He drinks mildly, touching nothing but cognac and sherry.

Lopez Mateos will succeed President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines for a six-year term beginning next Dec. 1. He is considered a bit more liberal than his predecessor, but is expected to continue most programs of the current administration, which selected him as its successor.

★ ★ ★

He made a brilliant reputation as labor minister, averting all major strikes during his 5½-year term.

Suppression Act Legality a Puzzle

There's a rubber stamp tucked away in a drawer in the Oakland County clerk's office which has been used on several law suits filed this year. It reads: SUPPRESSED FOR SERVICE.

Its imprint goes on a legal document when an attorney tells a judge he believes difficulty will be encountered in serving papers on the parties involved in the suit.

★ ★ ★

It means the details of the suit cannot be released to the public until these papers have reached their destination.

But Oakland County circuit judges are in a quandary whether there are legal grounds on which to grant motions to suppress.

One—Judge George B. Hartrick—said: "It appears we are without seeming (local) authority to grant motions to suppress in Oakland County." Several of his fellow jurists agreed.

MAY BE ISSUED

But all four, and Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore, concur that such motions may be issued if they help in the process of serving summons on parties, such as the defendant in a divorce case.

"It used to be," said Judge H. Russel Holland, "that persons would skip town when they heard they were going to be sued."

When the papers have been served, newspapers and other news media have the right to the information in the suit, the judges said.

Members of the sixth judicial circuit didn't believe granting suppression motions was a violation of freedom of the press.

Attorneys often state in their requests for such motions that their clients, usually because of their name or position in the community, will suffer embarrassment if details of the suit were released to the press.

There have been several instances like this in suits filed this year.

AROUSE SUSPICION

If lawyers wish to avoid front page publicity, said Judge Doty, they shouldn't seek suppression orders. "Those big words stamped on the docket just arouse suspicion," he said.

Wayne County Circuit Court has a rule which says motions to suppress details are permissible if "good cause" is shown.

Although the judges could not uncover any similar rule for Oakland County, they believed that state statutes would support suppression motions.

They all warned against the "promiscuous" use of such orders. "I believe in them only to aid in process of service," declared Judge Clark J. Adams.

West Germany Endorses Atomic Army by Election

DUSSELDORF, Germany (AP) —An election victory for Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Christian Democrats in West Germany's largest state was seen today as an endorsement of his plans to provide the nation's new army with atomic weapons.

The Christian Democrats regained control of the Provincial Parliament of North Rhine-Westphalia yesterday in the first popular test of the nuclear armament program. It has become West Germany's hottest political issue since Adenauer's party won the national elections again almost 10 months ago.

★ ★ ★

Only the provincial administration of this big industrial and agricultural state was at stake, but the opposition Socialists keyed their campaign to Adenauer's plans to accept the Atlantic Allies' offer of nuclear arms.

The Socialists claimed atomic armament would put West Germany so squarely in the Western camp that all hope of reuniting with Communist East Germany by negotiations would be lost. They raised the specter of atomic warfare, while the Christian Democrats played on fears of communism and hammered home their theme of postwar prosperity.

★ ★ ★

The Christian Democrats moved from a minority position of 89 seats in the 200-member Provincial Parliament to firm control with 104 seats. The Socialists advanced, but not as far, from 76 to 81 seats.

Adenauer's party actually lost 5 per cent of the popular vote from its high point in the state in last September's general elections. The Socialists gained almost 6 per cent from last year's low of 33.5 per cent. The Christian Democrats polled 50.5 per cent.

★ ★ ★

The principal loser was the Free Democrat party, which dropped from 27 seats to 15. The Free Democrats joined with the Christian Democrats in a coalition government in 1954 but suddenly switched two years ago and allowed the Socialists to take over.

Two splinter groups, the neo-Nazi German Reich party and the Catholic Center party, lost their seats entirely by polling less than 5 per cent of the popular vote. The Communists have been outlawed for two years.

Navy Perfecting Robot Sailors

To Perceive, Recognize, Identify Surroundings Same as Man

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy announced today the partial development of an electronic robot it says will be able to match some of the functions of the human brain.

★ ★ ★

It calls the robot a Perceptron. At least another year will be required to complete the first full pilot model, the Navy said, but its principle and concept already have been demonstrated successfully by using a large electronic computer.

★ ★ ★

When it is fully developed, the machine is expected to be able to perceive, recognize and identify its surroundings without any human training or control. It differs from the ordinary computer in that it does not have to be fed facts and figures in advance.

Among the potential uses to which such a robot eventually may be put, the announcement said, are these:

★ ★ ★

New-type automatic landing systems and automatic pilots for aircraft . . . automatic reading of the printed or written word. . . responding to verbal commands. . . automatic language translation, either in written or vocal form. . . automatic unearthing of scientific and other information buried in library books. . . and even rapid-fire recognition of musical compositions, with all the accuracy of a music critic.

The Navy says the new system closely parallels, by electronic means, the "selective recognition or 'similarity' functions of man's mind."

★ ★ ★

It would operate in much the same way that the human eye and certain brain areas work together to provide the human function of recognition.

Dr. Frank Rosenblatt, research psychologist at the Cornell Aeronautical Laboratory, Inc., working under a contract with the Office of Naval Research, came up with the Perceptron concept.

Capone Gang Called to Probe

Senate Group Looking for Link Between Mob, Chicago Restaurants

WASHINGTON (AP) — Members of the prohibition-era Capone gang will figure in a Senate investigation of alleged mobster control of Chicago's restaurant industry.

The Senate Rackets Committee will open hearings on the matter tomorrow. The hearings are expected to last about two weeks.

★ ★ ★

Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) announced: "We plan to take a close look at the way racketeers and hoodlums, including members of the old Capone mob in Chicago, muscled into the restaurant industry in that town through close ties with labor unions and management associations.

"We hope to present a revealing picture of the extent to which racketeers were able to control and operate this industry through fear, intimidation and shakedowns."

★ ★ ★

McClellan said the investigation will go into whether collusive agreements were signed between the Chicago Restaurant Assn., certain independent restaurants in Chicago and certain unions.

Among withnesses under subpoea are Tony Accardo and Paul (The Waiter) Ricca, both of whom belonged to the gang once headed by Al Capone.

Outdoor Fabrics' Life Extended by Red Dyes

WASHINGTON — Federal agriculture researchers report they've found that treating outdoor fabrics with red dyes helps the fabrics hold their strength longer. In the tests, heavy cotton duck was treated with 125 different pigments and exposed to 20 months of Southern weather.

The researchers found that red-coated fabrics retained 61 to 85 per cent of their original strength, green ones from 57 to 83 per cent, and blue samples from 33 to 73 per cent.

Over $½ Million Due in Building

Bell Telephone Plans Up June Construction Statistics in Pontiac

Bell Telephone Co.'s $300,000 proposed office building and garage on Lake street helped push June building statistics in Pontiac over the half-million dollar mark.

A total 104 permits were issued for $514,614 worth of construction, according to Carl F. Alt, building inspector.

★ ★ ★

One permit was for a $20,000 cement block church to be constructed by Evangel Temple at 1380 Mt. Clemens Rd. Another was for $50,000 worth of remodeling planned by United Presbyterian Church, 404 Oakland Ave.

Two commercial ventures include a $12,000 masonry warehouse planned at 100 Franklin Rd. and a $19,000 cement block addition to a restaurant at 22 W. Montcalm St.

Permits were issued for seven new homes, costing a total $55,500. Included were five one-story frame homes planned by the Perry Land Co. on Newport street east of Baldwin. They cost $7,500 apiece.

The building inspection department issued 25 permits for residential garages costing a total $18,849 and 48 permits for residential alterations and repirs priced at $69,00a0.

Girl, 1, Struck by Car as Mother Watches

A one-year-old girl was injured by a car as her mother watched from across the street.

Lawanda Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan, 52 Clovese St., was preparing to cross the street near her home Saturday evening. Her mother called to her to wait, but she suddenly ran out into the path of a car.

★ ★ ★

The driver, Henry H. Latimer III, 23, of 498 Wyoming Ave., told police he saw the girl but did no think she would try to cross after her mother's warning.

Lawanda was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital with a possible skull fracture. She is in satisfactory condition today.

Summer Fun Beckons Everyone

Seniors Join Youths

When the summer weather finally arrives for Michigan residents familiar with all the quirks of nature in this state, the sunny days aren't the exclusive property of the young.

★ ★ ★

Senior citizens of the area respond just as readily to the lures of warm weather enjoyment, even if some of the more rigorous pasttimes are out of the question.

A snappy game of croquet can still stir up a rivalry.

★ ★ ★

Out come the picnic baskets, and the ants don't seem to bother the elders as much as the younger residents.

★ ★ ★

Baiting a hook in a rowboat on a still pond is something that age does not change for the worse. If anything, it is enhanced—the tranquility doesn't seem so strange.

The hand-worn hoe handle that once spelled a chore now is a welcome friend, allied in the thrill of assisting in a garden's growth.

★ ★ ★

For many, summer's leisure moments are spent much as they were years ago, at a slower pace, with one exception—that romp with the grandchildren.

★ ★ ★

Although noon time strolls in the heat of summer are often avoided by many, a leisurely walk in the after-dinner cool of evening is something that many area elders enjoy.

And the fine art of efficient lawn spraying is not a lost one among the senior citizens.

★ ★ ★

Patience and time are necessary for this, and these qualities are usually well met in the many active older residents who enjoy the summer days just as much as the busiest youngsters.

BABYSITTING GRANDMOTHER — Mrs. Orman DeLorge, of 651 Joslyn Ave., pushes her grandson Larry Lee DeLorge on a swing in Pontiac's Oakland Park.

TIME IN THE GARDEN — That's how Bert Austin, 64, of 831 S. Anderson St., chooses to spend his leisure hours. Austin, like thousands others, have found that "life does begin at 40." Austin is doing the many things now he never found time for 30 years ago.

THIS IS THE LIFE — Give 67-year-old Albert Zinser, of 346 Osmun St., a good guide on hunting and fishing, and he's living. Here he examines one while passing the time of day on his front porch.

But Consumers Shy Away From Big Ticket Hard Goods

Buying on Time Still Very Much in Style

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Buying on time is still in style. Because of the trimming down of auto install ment debt there's more of a chemise look today. But if you disregard auto credit (and it's still hefty by most standards) you'll find Americans increasing their purchases of other consumer goods on the cuff.

★ ★ ★

Department stores report a steady climb in the amount of soft goods being sold on short term credit plans.

It's only the big ticket hard goods that take a long time to pay for that find the customers acting shy.

And the American Bankers Assn. reports that debtors are prompter in their payments than they were in the early months of 1958. The Northern Trust Co. of Chicago says that delinquencies and repossessions, although higher than a year ago, haven't reached a stage considered serious. The ABA adds they appear to be receding in many parts of the country. But the American Collectors Assn. finds the delinquent, its particular problem, hard to collect from.

The Federal Reserve Board's lagest figures show that at the start of June total installment credit was just under 33 billion dollars, down 600 million dollars from the end of January. During May consumers had taken on 3½ billion dollars of new installment debt, but repayments had topped this by 100 million dollars.

The shrinkage was all in auto loans. Outstanding were some 14¾ billion dollars of commitments on cars, 183 million dollars less than at the start of May.

But other consumer goods had risen in May by 53 million dollars to 8 1-8 billion dollars to top year ago figures by 95 million dollars. Repair and modernization loans and personal loans also rose.

★ ★ ★

A Standard Financial Corp. survey of 12,640 customers of 127 department stores throughout the country points up the selectivity of consumers during the recession. It reports that in the last 18 months revolving credit sales of soft goods in these stores exceeded the corresponding month of the previous year.

The average maturity of installment credit for soft goods is seven months, while the average maturity on auto debit is around 31 months.

Merchants and customers answering the survey stressed this time difference in their credit programs under current conditions.

"Consumers can see 7 months ahead; they can't see 31 months ahead," the report concludes. "So they hold back on the long term obligations."

Only in the case of electric appliances did any of the 127 stores report any easing of credit terms. The aim in that case was traced to efforts of factories to reduce heavy inventories.

In addition to an increase in the buying of soft goods on time, sales finance companies report an increase of installment sales of motor boats, house trailers, swimming pools, travel tickets and college tuition payments.

The marked increase in personal savings noted a few months back doesn't dismay the finance companies. They hold that the consumer credit business is based on consumer down payments and reserves. The growing reservoir of consumer savings is regarded as assurance of an upsurge of credit sales when the recession is reversed.

Shears Top Off Big Van Going Under Viaduct

DETROIT (AP) — Marcel Guilbeault, 20, Belle River, Ont., was driving his tractor trailer peacefully through Detroit yesterday until he came to a viaduct.

★ ★ ★

The viaduct has a 12-foot clearance. Guilbeault's trailer was 12 feet 6 inches.

★ ★ ★

Guilbeault rolled forward and got stuck under the viaduct. He stepped on the gas and made it through but peeled off the top six inches of the trailer on the way. He returned to Windsor, Ont., for a new trailer.

Negotiators for the Guild and the Inquirer agreed on the proposal yesterday after 10 days of subcommittee meetings, federal negotiators said.

Details of the proposal were not announced. Neither of the parties involved would comment.

Federal mediators released the following announcement: "Out of the subcommittee meetings held for the past 10 days, there has developed a proposal of a settlement of a strike by the Newspaper Guild of Greater Philadelphia against the Inquirer.

"This proposal will be presented to the membership Monday, July 7, at 2 p. m."

'A Man Now,' Says Mom of Errant Heir, 19

LONDON (AP) — Craig Dahlberg, 19-year-old heir to an American fortune, was back with his mother today after being missing a week.

Instead of admonishing the youth for running away, Mrs. Gilda Dahlberg expressed pride after hearing his story.

★ ★ ★

"He has proved he's a man," said the widow of an American millionaire who's here to arrange production of stage plays.

Craig was found in a cheap hotel in London. He said he ran away rather than tell his mother he failed his examinations at a Miami, Fla., college. He had come over to join her for the summer.

Craig said he took a six-day tour of England. What impressed his mother was that he spent only 15 pounds (42 dollars) although he had $1,600 dollars in American traveler's checks in his pocket.

He lived on hamburgers most of the time and lost 10 pounds. "I just walked around or sat in my hotel thinking," Craig said. "I bought a sweater, washed out my socks and shirt at night, and kept meaning to ring mother to say I was okay. But I couldn't find the right moment.

"But I met some wonderful people on my travels. It was a real education. A little rough, but a real education."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Dahlberg hugged her runaway son and said: "For my boy to do so much on so little has made me real proud. I have suddenly realized he is not a child any more. He's a man."

SEOUL (AP)—Ten days of violent rain and floods in South Korea have claimed 47 lives and left 3,500 people homeless. Six persons are missing.

Eleven coastal ships were reported sunk or missing.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain
New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

ALL-STAR CALIBER — Detroit pitcher Jim Bunning, last year's All-Star winner who did not make the squad this season due to a slow start, continued to make Casey Stengel look bad yesterday by posting his 5th straight triumph at Chicago displaying a blazing fastball he is shown unleashing in the 9th when the Chisox spoiled his chance for a 2nd successive shutout.

2 to 1 Victory Squares Series With White Sox

Slender Right-Hander Fans Aparicio in 9th to Save Game

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers were back home today for the interlude-vacation before the All-Star game, and had Jim Bunning to thank for their continuance in the American League's first division.

A gilt-edged performance by the slim righthander against the Chicago White Sox yesterday enabled Detroit to square the two-game series at Chicago with a 2-1 victory. The Tigers lost the opener Saturday 8-1.

Bunning scored his fifth straight triumph to bring his season record to 7-5 as he won a duel with Dick Donovan with a four-hit shutout going until the ninth inning.

A crisis developed in the ninth with former Tiger Earl Torgeson as a potential nemesis. Torgeson, batting as a pinch-hitter, doubled home the only White Sox run with two out. But Bunning made Lou Aparicio his fifth strikeout victim to save his victory in the clutch.

★ ★ ★

The Tigers, held to seven hits by Donovan, scored their two runs in the fourth. Frank Bolling doubled home the first one and then scored on Billy Martin's single.

A workout for pitchers was the only Tiger activity today as most of them began a three-day loafing spell around the All-Star game at Baltimore Tuesday. Harvey Kuenn and Al Kaline are the only Detroit players in the game.

The team as a whole returns to action at Washington Thursday.

Until the ninth, Bunning had the White Sox eating out of his hand. They put a few men on base, including two from singles in the second, but Bunning stayed in full charge.

The ninth was ticklish for a time. The Sox had gone down in order in the seventh and eighth and the first two men up in the ninth also went down. Only once had the ball left the infield.

With two gone in the ninth, Don Mueller lined a single to right. Jim Rivera ran for him and stole second. Torgeson, batting for Norman Cash, whipped a double to right scoring Rivera. But Bunning then got Aparicio in a called third strike.

The Tigers threatened a number of times against Donovan. Three Sox double plays cut off threats, however.

★ ★ ★

Detroit got its two runs in the fourth after two were out. Al Kaline led off with a walk but Gail Harris and Charley Maxwell hit into successive force outs.

With Maxwell on first, Bolling smashed a double down the third base line scoring Charley. Martin then singled to right scoring Bolling. But Billy then took too long a lead off first and was picked off by Donovan.

★ ★ ★

Bolling, again making Donovan an easy mark, got three of the Tigers' seven hits. In addition to his double he got two singles. Earlier in the season, he beat Donovan with a three-run homer in the ninth inning.

9th-Inning Uprisings Keep Giants in Race

By The Associated Press

Bobby Thomson of 1951 playoff fame is gone. So is Dusty Rhodes, pinch hitter extraordinaire of the 1954 champions. But the Giants are still pulling off ninth inning heroics. That is one of the reasons why San Francisco continues to hound Milwaukee, hanging on only one game behind the league leading Braves today.

★ ★ ★

For the third straight day, the Giants won a game in the ninth inning. On July 4, they poured across five runs in the last turn at bat to nip Chicago 6-5. They tallied twice in the ninth Saturday to shade St. Louis 5-4. Yesterday they got one run to defeat the Cardinals again 5-4.

The winning run wasn't exactly remindful of Thomson's ninth inning home run that won the final playoff game in 1951, or Rhodes' numerous game-winning pitch hits in '54. With the bases full, two out and the score tied in the last of the ninth, relief pitcher Larry Jackson plunked Jimmy Davenport with a pitch forcing over the winning run.

★ ★ ★

Philadelphia's Phillies extended their winning streak to seven, defeating Cincinnati 7-1 but the Redlegs won the second game of the doubleheader 11-4. The Braves broke their five-game losing streak as Joey Jay hurled a 2-0 shutout against Pittsburgh. Chicago's Cubs, behind the one-hit pitching of Dick Drott and Don Elston, defeated Los Angeles 6-2.

A Seals' Stadium crowd of 22,736 saw five home runs in the Giants-Cards batle. Lockman and Kirkland hit successive homers off Jim Brosnan in the first inning. Leon Wagner homered for the Giants in the fourth. Catcher Hobie Landrith hit one for St. Louis in the fifth and pinch hitter Irv Noren slammed a four bagger in the top of the ninth to tie the score at 4-4.

★ ★ ★

Jay, the Braves' 22-year-old bonus right-hander, throttled the Pirates with only four hits for his second victory in five decisions. The strapping youngster had allowed only five runs in his four previous starts but had won only one because of lack of hitting support.

Wes Covington batted in both Milwaukee runs with a single in the fifth and a home run in the seventh, both against Curt Raydon.

★ ★ ★

Cal Neeman drove in three runs with a double and single and Ernie Banks got three hits in the Cubs' second straight triumph at Los Angeles. Drott, who won his fourth in ten decisions, had a no-hitter until Jim Gilliam got the lone Dodger hit, a single with one out in the seventh.

Drott, however, had to be replaced after he forced in a run in the seventh with his eighth pass. Carl Furillo drove in the other run with a sacrifice fly, for his 1,000th RBI. Don Drysdale dropped his ninth against four victories.

★ ★ ★

Gus Bell rapped four hits and drove in four runs to pace Cincinnati's 15-hit attack in the second game victory after the Phillies had equalled the National League's longest winning streak of the season in the opener. Rookie pitcher Ray Semproch limited the Redlegs to five hits for his 10th triumph as the Phils made it seven in a row in the first game. Dave Philley paced the Phils' 15-hit attack against six pitchers with four hits and three runs batted in.

Wall Is Rubber City King; Fleck Sixth

AKRON, Ohio (AP)— A good memory helped 34-year-old Art Wall Jr. to his first golf tournament victory in 16 months.

The 6-footer from Pocono Manor, Pa. tangled with Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla. in a sudden death playoff yesterday after they had tied at 269 for the 72-hole test.

Wall won the playoff with a birdie on the second extra hole. Wall picked up $2,800 as he won his fith tournament in nine years of campaigning.

Two former national open champions, Jack Fleck of Rochester, Mich., and Dick Mayer of St. Petersburg, Fla. made their best showings of the tour as Fleck scored a 273 to pick up $1,000 for sixth place and Mayer posted a 274 which gave him a seventh place tie worth $850.

Max Evans of Utica, Mich., shot a 279 for $261.43.

Birmingham Sculler Fails in Title Bid

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Paul Ignas of Philadelphia, new national singles sculling champion, set his sights today on a lifetime ambition—a berth on the U. S. Olympic team.

Ignas, an unknown in rowing when he joined Philadelphia's Vesper Club in March 1957, won his first national title yesterday on the Schuylkill River. He upset Birmingham's Pat Costello by two lengths over the 2,000-meter course. His time was 6:20.6.

Detroit scored 196½ points to Vesper's 152. West Side of Buffalo, N.Y., finished third with 102.

Pine Lake Aced Again

Aces are getting to be a habit this year at Pine Lake Country Club. Ed Duncan of Oak Park scored Pine Lake's 5th hole-in-one of the season Sunday, acing the 160-yard 2nd hole with a 6-iron. It was the 1st ace of Duncan's golfing career and he shot 40-41—81 for the round.

Boston Mound Ace Wins 7th Without Defeat

'Ike' Delock Tames Yankees

By The Associated Press

In spring training, Ivan "Ike" Delock was just another name on the Boston Red Sox roster. Manager Mike Higgins had plans for him but only in relief roles...No. 2 behind lefty Leo Kiely.

★ ★ ★

Today as Higgins takes inventory during the season's half-way turn, he shudders to think where his second place Sox would be without Delock. Ike not only has blossomed into a starting pitcher but he has become the team's biggest winner and the ace of the staff.

The 28-year-old right-hander won his seventh game without defeat Sunday as the Red Sox defeated the New York Yankees 10-4. It was Boston's first victory over the American League leaders since April 16 and only the second in eight decisions this season.

Despite the defeat, the Yankees remained 11 games in front of Boston and Kansas City, tied for second. The A's were beaten by Cleveland 8-5. Detroit nipped Chicago 2-1 and Washington came from behind to shade Baltimore 4-3.

★ ★ ★

After limiting the Yankees to four hits through seven innings, he was clipped for three more hits in the eighth, including Mickey Mantle's 21st home run.

Ike received credit for snapping the Yankees' five-game winning streak. Delock, counting his last four decisions in 1957, now owns a string of 10 successive victories.

Ted Williams and Jackie Jensen paced the Red Sox' 13-hit attack against loser Don Larsen and five relievers. Williams rapped his 14th home run and Jensen drove in three runs to raise his league leading RBI total to 68. Jackie has hit safely in his last 15 games.

★ ★ ★

Lary Doby continued his batting rampage for Cleveland, rapping three singles in four times at bat, scoring once and driving in a run.

Rookie Gary Bell hurled a seven-hitter for his third victory in his first complete game in the majors. Ned Garver, who had beaten the tribe three times, was the loser.

Julio Becquer's two-out pinch single in the eighth drove home Rocky Bridges that enabled the Senators to snap a 3-3 tie with Baltimore.

★ ★ ★

Relief pitcher Dick Hyde assured Washington of its first home victory against Baltimore since May 27, 1957 by retiring three straight Orioles in the ninth. Russ Kemmerer was the winner. Jim Lemon lashed two singles and his 15th homer, driving in two Washington runs.

Pontiac and Waterford Jaycees Also Entered in State Tournament

Birmingham's five-man team stands an excellent chance of taking a lion's share of honors when the Michigan Junior Chamber of Commerce Junior Amateur golf tournament has its two-day run Tuesday and Wednesday at Barton Hills Country Club in Ann Arbor.

★ ★ ★

The Birmingham delegation is one of three local chapters entered in the state Jaycee tourney. Pontiac is sending three teenagers to the 36-hole event and five youths are representing the Waterford chapter.

The quintet of Pete Green, Tommy Grace, Gary Mouw, Bud Badger and Mike Jackson gives Birmingham an outstanding opportunity to grab both individual and team laurels in the annual state test over the rolling Barton Hills course.

Representing the Pontiac Jaycees will be Larry Beaupre, Joe Keller and Melvin Law. Waterford's contingent is composed of Chuck Canterbury, Don Stipcak, Jon Shaw, Terry Kelley and Ed Tokarski.

★ ★ ★

Practice rounds are scheduled today, followed by the tourney's first 18-hole round tomorrow and the final 18 holes on Wednesday. The low four shot-makers will represent Michigan in the International Jaycee event Aug. 18-24 at Tucson, Ariz.

Pontiac Skaters Take Top Honors in Regionals

Pontiac dominated the team competition with 12 first places and won event's coveted Memorial trophy in the Great Lakes Regional Roller Skating championships which concluded Sunday at Elmhurst, Ill.

Sunday 1sts by Lynn Stits (Intermediate Dance), Carol Walsh-Lou Parker (Novice Pairs), Sue Welch-Rick Martins (Intermediate Paris), Mary Clouse(Novice Ladies figures) and Mary Clouse-Lou Parker (Senior Dance) enabled the Pontiac team to top teams from four other states in 1sts and all leading places combined.

The 1st three finishers in each event will be eligible for the National tournament at Cleveland starting July 27. The Memorial trophy was awarded to the senior four titlists (Sylvia Ritchie, Charles Parker, Sue Welch and Rick Martins).

SPEEDSTER — One of the flashy hydroplanes, running in Sunday's "final leg" races at OCBC, Sylvan Lake, was snapped on a turn in an early race for the lighter classes. Rooster tails were flying high, on a calm surface, as the speedy boats churned the lake waters in the Great Lakes International inboard regatta.

Pennsylvania Driver Is Regatta Pacemaker

A big, high-powered hydroplane, driven by Tom Carter of Drexel Hills, Pa. yesterday ran away with the overall point totals for the Great Lakes International Limited class hydros, with a combined 225 points. His total was based on three straight wins in six straight hats for the 280 cubic inch job. Final point totals were figured after Sunday's final leg of the three race regatta that drew some 75 boats to Oakland County Boat Club's Sylan Lake site.

Carter is the 1957 international champion.

One of the biggest galleries in recent years at OCBC witnessed the exciting heats in this final section. There were many thrilling brushes between the speedy craft, but only one accident. Two 48-class hydros were damaged, but no one was hurt.

Most spectacular incident was also a 48-class mishap. Paul Bauer of Ohio, making a fast turn in the first heat for the 48s was pitched high, and clear, of his boat when it flipped. Motor was still running when it landed, but quit shortly after. Bauer swam to his boat. It was towed in, refueled and Bauer finished 3rd. Race was stopped when Bauer was "ejected" but resumed later.

★ ★ ★

Awards were presented winning drivers after the close of the program, by OCBC Commodore Art Hickson. Bill Hickson, OCBC race official gave fans a thrill when he drove the big, unlimited class hydro, Bill-Der, over a short stretch at a speed of more than 100 m.p.h. Janet Walkerdine, OCBC's regatta queen, reigned in regal glory all afternoon.

Final race results:

48 Class—1, Chuck Thompson, Detroit; Russ Bogardus, Pittsburgh; 2, Paul Bauer, Ohio.
135 Class—1, Frank Taubigs, George English, Detroit; 2, Bob Becker, South Bend, Ind.; 3, Ed. Barko, Dearborn.
136 Class—1, Carl Qard, Lima, O.; 2, Howard Morrison, Middletown, Ohio; 3, Tom Skelly, Detroit.
225 Class—1, Ron Musson, Akron, O.; 2, Dr. Fred Hamm, Detroit; 3, John Witt, Minneapolis.
268 Class—1, Ron Musson; 2, Dr. William Lynnf, Kentucky; 3, James Fyle, Detroit.
280 Class—1, Carter; 2, Joe Albee, Dearborn; 3, Alex Ross, Detroit.

Detroiter Captures Feature at Speedway

Bing Warner of Detroit piloted his modified hardtop to victory in Sunday's 25-lap feature race at Pontiac Speedway. Don McCubbin of Royal Oak finished 2nd and Dick Burns of Durand placed 3rd.

Kenny Schon took 1st place honors in the four-car dash with Warner finishing in the runnerup spot. Jack Harvey won the 15-lap semifinal and Roy Cravon took 2nd.

Heat winners were Red Lorraine, Cravon and Harvey. Chuck Allen won the pursuit race.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Weak on All Shots.

DIAGNOSIS: Wrong Theory of Golf Swing.

TREATMENT: Not yet dead — although it never should have lived at all—is the theory that a good golf swing calls for "hitting against a firm left side." If you still harbor such an idea, better discard it at once.

7-7

Replace it with the proper theory: the left hip begins turning back to the left immediately after the downswing is started, and keeps on turning around to the left until the swing is completed. This turning action keeps your clubhead moving through the ball. It KEEPS YOU FROM QUITTING ON THE SHOT.

Here's the way you can check yourself on this: If your belt buckle is facing squarely toward the target when you complete the follow-through, you know you've carried out this hip-turning phase of the swing well. If you've turned your left hip around a couple or three inches further than that, so much the better.

The phrase, "hitting against a firm left side," used to be in popular usage among golf theorists. Now, however, nearly everybody knows it's wrong.

Chances 50-50, Says U.S. Coach

MORRISTOWN, N.J. (AP)—On a comparison of records, Russia's deep, talented women's track and field squad should slaughter America's best in the dual meet at Moscow, July 27-28. But U. S. Coach Ed Temple of Tennessee State doesn't see it that way.

"We've got a nice squad," said Temple today after the U.S. team of 16 was picked. "We won't be embarrassed. We have a 50-50 chance with our hopes resting mainly on the dashes, relay and broad jump.

Harry Shoemaker Wins Southpaw Golf Honors

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., (AP)—It was the same old story in the National Left-handers golf tournament today — Harry Shoemaker was still the champion.

Tough Bird, the Hawk

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Charley Jordan says the red-tailed hawk is just about the toughest bird he knows. And Charley ought to know.

When Charley shot the hawk folded up and fell, but was standing up when Charley got to him. He hit the hawk in the head to kill him. He tossed the bird into a freezer with a couple of wild ducks, planning to have it mounted. Thirty six hours later he took the hawk out and it started jumping around. The ducks were frozen solid.

State Seeks Deer Hunters for Experiment

LANSING (AP) — The state conservation department is looking for men to take part in a deer hunt practically guaranteed to bring success.

★ ★ ★

Aim of the experiment is to bag eight to 12 of the 30 deer living inside a mile-square deer enclosure at the State's Cusino Wildlife Experiment Station near Shingleton.

The hunt will start Dec. 1 and continue till the job is done. The number of hunters will be limited to the number of deer that have to be removed.

Game experts plan to interview hunters afterward to determine how difficult it is to spot and kill a deer when a known number are present in a given area.

★ ★ ★

Hunters must turn over venison to school hot lunch programs and provide their own equipment, food, travel and lodging. Under these circumstances, the problem is to find experienced hunters willing to take part in the test.

CATCHING UP — Sammy White Jr., puts on equipment just like his father for a practice session. He is the seven-year-old son of the Boston Red Sox catcher. Good fit, too.

Southfield Nine Has 8 Straight

Southfield is breezing along unbeaten with American Legion Junior Baseball League already in the 2nd half of play.

The leaders increased their streak to eight straight yesterday by whipping Milford for the 2nd time in three days, 5-3 in 10 innings.

Birmingham downed Rochester 7-4, Berkley's Herb Brietzke blanked Waterford with two hits, 5-0 and Royal Oak tripped Clawson 7-5 in other Sunday games.

Bob Filar, winner of an Independence tilt, flipped 8 1-3 innings of hitless relief for his 5th victory. Singles by Neil Stevenson and Len Soicer decided the outcome.

John Wischman was the Birmingham winner aided by Phil Isbell's two doubles. Brietzke struck out 11 Waterford batters.

A four-run 8th pulled out the Royal Oak triumph for reliefer "Sonny" Sanders.

Rested Pitching Staffs Ready

Stengel, Haney Still Uncertain Over Starters

Expect 49,000 Crowd for 'Silver' All-Star Game in Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP) — For the first time in recent years, the managers of the All-Star baseball teams will have a stable of well-rested starting pitchers for Tuesday's silver anniversary game.

None of the 15 pitchers (eight in the National and seven in the American) picked by managers Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees and Fred Haney of the Milwaukee Braves started Sunday games. A few years back it seemed everybody on the roster worked on the final day of regular play.

★ ★ ★

Old Case had things under control this year as he picked three men off his own Yankee staff. He was able to see to it that Bob Turley didn't pitch since beating Washington Friday with a three-hitter.

Turley, a no-windup man who patterned his style after Don Larsen's, is the top winner in the majors with a 12-3 record. He has completed 11 of 16 starts, including four shutouts. In his last outing, Turley allowed two singles and walked two, forcing in a run, before he got anybody out. After that he allowed only one hit the rest of the day.

★ ★ ★

Haney also has been close mouthed about his pitching selections. However, he leaned toward Bob Friend of Pittsburgh, the 1956 starter at Washington where he pitched three scoreless innings.

To convince the boss, Friend beat Haney's own Milwaukee team Saturday for his 10th victory.

★ ★ ★

The preponderance of right-handed hitters in the starting lineups, selected by the players' votes, makes it desirable to start a right-handed pitcher on each side.

★ ★ ★

Stengel, whose Americans are favored 13 to 10 in the American League ball park, has Wynn of Chicago, Ray Narleski of Cleveland and his own relief man, Ryne Duren, as other right-handers. For left-handed hitters, he has southpaw Whitey Ford of the Yanks, Billy Pierce of Chicago and Billy O'Dell of Baltimore.

If Haney wants to use his right-handers he has Bob Purkey of Cincinnati, who was used briefly in relief yesterday, Larry Jackson of St. Louis, Don McMahon of Milwaukee and Dick Farrell of Philadelphia, in addition to Friend. His left-handers are his own Warren Spahn, Johnny Podres of Los Angeles and Johnny Antonelli of San Francisco.

★ ★ ★

Stan Musial of St. Louis, playing his 15th All-Star Game, and Bob Skinner of Pittsburgh are the only left-handed batters in the National's starting lineup. Nelson Fox of Chicago and switch-hitting Mickey Mantle of the Yanks are the American lefties.

★ ★ ★

The players receive 60 per cent of the gate receipts and the radio-television (NBC) for their pension fund.

Baltimore welcomes the All-Stars for the first time with a special motorcade through downtown streets Tuesday morning. The available seats were snapped up 18 hours after they went on sale weeks ago and a sellout crowd of about 49,000 is expected.

★ ★ ★

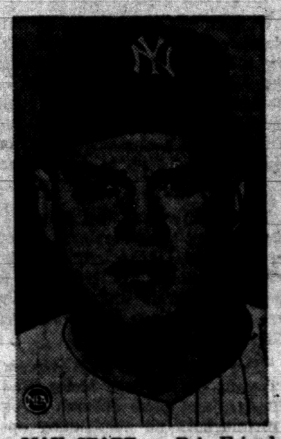

The clubs are in good shape with none of the annoying injuries that caused so much discussion a few years ago. All starters, except pitchers, must play at least three innings no pitcher can work more than three innings unless the game goes into extra innigs.

MAY START — Bob Friend, left, of Pittsburgh, and Yankee Bob Turley, above, are expected to be the starting pitchers in the annual All-Star game at Baltimore tomorrow.

Fire Kills 14 Horses

CLEVELAND (AP)— Fourteen horses died when fire of undetermined origin swept a section of stables at Randall Park Race Track early Sunday. Damage was estimated at $80,000.

Tri-State for Bartzen

CINCINNATI (AP)—Top-seeded Bernard Bartzen of Dallas won the Tri-State Men's singles tennis championship Sunday with a 7-5, 6-3, 6-2 victory over fourth-ranked Sam Giammalva.

Senators Take 'Sounding' on Possible Club Shift

BALTIMORE (AP)—The recent shifting tides of major league baseball continue to roll today with the Washington Senators taking a sounding on their possible movement.

Calvin Griffith, president of the Senators, will ask the other American League owners how they feel about continuing to play in Washington.

Washington is last in the standings and more important to other operators last in attendance. Visiting teams are paid according to each ticket sold.

One Washington director claimed at the last board meeting that visiting teams barely made expenses. The directors instructed Griffith to ask the owners this morning at their meeting in conjunction with the All-Star Game their reaction to a move out of the Nation's Capital.

Minneapolis, Houston, Dallas, and Toronto have been mentioned as likely new homes of the Senators.

Both leagues, meeting separately, are expected to hear talk about expanding from 8 to 10 teams. In this connection, the National League will hear a report on an idea for New York City to build a stadium as a lure for return of a franchise.

William Shea, representative of Mayor Robert Wagner, will make the New York sales pitch.

He is ready to promise a 12-million-dollar stadium seating 52,000. It probably would be built at Flushing Meadows.

American League sentiment for expansion does not seem favorable so far. However, if the two leagues deadlocked and it is up to Commissioner Ford Frick, the move would be made.

★ ★ ★

Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees who now enjoy a baseball monopoly in their city, may bring up another idea. He thinks that Kansas City and Philadelphia ought to swap leagues.

Thus Pittsburgh would be the eastern outpost of the National League and Chicago the western frontier of the American. Webb said his suggestion is in the interest of travel economy.

Wind Too Light, So PYC 'Ex-Coms' Push and Paddle

When the wind failed to cooperate Sunday at Pontiac Yacht club on Cass Lake, the Past-Commodores' sailing race became a "push and paddle" event instead. But it provided a lot of fun.

Contestants were lined up at the start, with transoms at the dock from which the 14 boats were pushed. Each boat was allowed 400 paddle strokes to assist the sails, and Hal Cousins, with his stalwarts Bob Black and Bill Roualet got home first to claim the big "Ugly Duckling" trophy.

In 2nd place was Al Oberson with Dr. Bob Vettar and Robert Greishaber. Don Neal finished third with his crew, Claud Bennett and daughter, Claudia. Old-timers Roy Connolly, Ray Ransom and George Wasserberger were among the sailors.

A special award, a compass, was given last year's commodore, Gene McCracken. Gene finished last, flying a protest flag. Mrs. Ruth (Bob) Plew made some lovely ceramic ash trays for 2nd, 3rd awards.

Canadians Seek Sweep

TORONTO (AP) — Canada's Davis Cup team, assured of victory with a 3-0 lead over Cuba in their first-round North American Zone tie, has a routine cleanup job to do today in the two concluding singles.

Not to Mention Lary

Maybe Casey Gooted by Passing Up Bunning

CHICAGO (AP)—Casey Stengel, New York Yankee manager who'll lead the American League All-Stars against the Nationals at Baltimore tomorrow, might have good reason to regret overlooking Detroit right-hander Jim Bunning.

★ ★ ★

Bunning, the starting and winning pitcher in last year's classic when he retired all nine men he faced, yesterday scored his fifth straight victory when he stopped the Chicago White Sox 2-1.

"I don't regret not being picked," said Bunning. "After all, I made it last year and maybe once is enough."

★ ★ ★

Then, half in jest, Bunning said;

"After all, Casey's got to get his own boys on the club. Maybe I don't deserve it because I got off to such a slow start. Anyway, I don't care."

Several members of the Detroit cast thought that not only Bunning but Frank Lary also should have received some consideration.

Newly appointed Manager Bill Norman said:

★ ★ ★

"I can't say too much about it because I haven't been around that long. But from what I have seen, I think Bunning and Lary are worthy."

Detroit Coach Tommy Henrich, former New York Yankee star, added: "Well, Bunning got off to a bad start, but I think Casey booted one when he didn't pick Lary. Look at it this way, Lary has beaten the Yankees four times this year and that's the team that's making a runaway of the race. But all I can say is it's Casey's prerogative."

★ ★ ★

"I guess it would have been nice to be picked," said Bunning. "But this gives me a chance to play some golf."

Miss Gibson Won 2 Titles

★ ★ ★

That's how the 72nd Wimbledon tournament ended Saturday. Most experts believed that if Cooper added the American title to his Australian and Wimbledon crowns then professional impressario Jack Kramer would immediately try to attract Cooper into the professional ranks.

The movement of the amateurs to the pro circus gave this year's Wimbledon a second-class look.

And it immediately brought cries for an open tournament—amateurs and professionals competing on equal terms.

Wimbledon, of course, is as much a fashion show as a tennis show. And that brings all the girls and their young men to gaze and wonder.

One player who emerged in triumph for Wimbledon was New Yorker Althea Gibson. She won her second straight women's singles title and also won the women's doubles in partnership with Brazil's Maria Bueno.

★ ★ ★

Earl Bucholz of St. Louis and Sally Moore of Bakersfield, Calif., gave the United States a sweep of junior championships Saturday with easy victories at Wimbledon.

'Little' Pancho Takes Net Title

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Little Pancho Segura is the star of the 1958 Masters round robin tennis championships.

★ ★ ★

The Ecuador-born pro, at 37 the oldest player in the tournament, walked off with top singles prize money of $3,000 yesterday. He won six without a defeat.

The best that defending champ Pancho Gonzales could do was a three-way tie for second with Ken Rosewall and Frank Sedgman. Each had a 4-2 record and collected $1,750.

New Senate Office Building to Be Mecca

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The new Senate Office Building may soon become a mecca for the confused, distressed Capitol Hill tourist in search of a rest room. The enormous white marble structure has about 160 of them.

NEW MECCA IN WASHINGTON — Inside the new Senate Office Building's white marble walls, 160 rest rooms.

Visitors can easily find 38 public rest rooms on six of the building's nine floors. The ladies' rooms are decorated in rich pink hues while the men's are colored green.

★ ★ ★

Each of the 40 Senate office situes has three rest rooms. One is for the exclusive use of the senator. The other two are reserved for his men and women staff members.

Other rest rooms are spotted throughout the spacious structure for the press, kitchen crews and maintenance personnel.

This oasis of vital public plumbing is only one important attraction that the 24 million dollar building will offer Washington tourists when it's ready for occupancy next fall.

An elaborate auditorium, capable of seating 500 people, will also be available for such events as appearances by important dignitaries. After the auditorium's completion, visitors may also be able to watch dramatic Senate investigative hearings from the soft comfort of theater seats. Television cameras and radio equipment will operate from a large projection room located in the back.

Architects explain that emphasis in designing the building was placed on making it as functional as possible. Anyone who labors under the philosophy that a man works best when he's comfortable will probably agree that the designers succeeded.

Senators who drive to work can park their cars in a gigantic basement garage. Ramps leading from the street to the parking area are inlaid with special snow-melting equipment.

After parking, the senators can step into an elevator that will silently whisk them to their office floors. All corridors will be bathed in fluorescent light when will pour from long rectangular fixtures built into the ceiling.

Fluorescent lights also will illuminate all rooms except those used for committee harings. These will have incandescent lights.

As senators stride down the halls, they will pass walls partially covered with expensive marble; all-marble water fountains and bronze elevator doors. Upon opening the walnut veneered office doors, they will probably find their staffs hard at work in five-room suites.

Rubber tile is used for flooring in the staff rooms. Soft carpeting, however, will cover the floor in each senator's private office.

When lunchtime rolls around, senators can eat in a special dining room reserved exclusively for their use. Another dining room will be equipped to serve senators accompanied by guests. Staff members and regular visitors will be fed in the completely air conditioned building's large cafeteria.

After lunch, senators can relax and improve their tans at the same time by taking an elevator to the private sun deck which will be equipped with showers. Another room is expected to be turned into a gym for senators who believe in healthy body building workouts.

A subway is also under construction to transport senators to the Capitol, two blocks away. The subway cars will be equipped with the latest safety devices.

Chinese Dedicate Days to Animals and Crops

HONG KONG — Chinese farmers traditionally dedicate the first 10 days of the new year to the "birthdays" of domestic animals and crops.

★ ★ ★

If the weather on the birthday is fine, with no wind or rain, it will be a good year for that particular animal or crop, the owners believe.

★ ★ ★

The first day is dedicated to chickens, the second to dogs, and, in order, the others to pigs, ducks, cattle, horses, rice and cereals, fruits and vegetables, corn, and barley.

Doesn't Say a Word as Police Hunt His Body

REED, Ky. (AP) — In true Tom Sawyer fashion, 13-year-old Joe Billy Knott watched State Police and other officers search for his body.

★ ★ ★

A railroad conductor said he saw the body of a man wearing a yellow shirt lying near a rifle beside the tracks. A search followed.

★ ★ ★

It wasn't until ofifcers saw Joe Billy standing there in his yellow shirt and carrying a BB rifle that they began to suspect their "dead" man was still alive. As it turned out, he was.

George Burns Preparing New Show Minus Gracie

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD — George Burns has a very good idea for his new show which starts in October without Grace for Colgate-Palmolive. He will take all the action from the Burns home where he and Gracie did their lively chatter and move it into an office, where as a Hollywood producer he will see many different stars.

Ronnie Burns, Harry Von Zell, Bea Benedette and Larry Keating, who were in the Gracie and George show, remain in the new set-up.

George was in Las Vegas to see his old friend Jack Benny open at the Flamingo, and he tells me he goes back to the old grind starting rehearsals in August.

P. S.: I can tell George that Colgate is a fine sponsor — I worked for them for four years.

The purchase of Norman Krasna's story, "High Dive," for Jerry Wald recalls when both were together at ROKO, Jerry as a producer and Norman as a writer. Now Jerry is important at 20th Century-Fox and Norman currently has "Who Was That Lady I Saw You With" on Broadway, and the delightful comedy, "Indiscreet," to his credit.

Jerry says he already has his cast — Robert Mitchum, Sophia Loren and Joan Collins. "You know Sophia owes 20th a picture and so does Robert Mitchum, and Joan is under contract," he said.

That reminds me that Joan told me that she likes her role in "Rally Round the Flag, Boys" better than any picture she's ever made.

Handsome football star Frank Gifford, who has been under contract to Warner Bros. for two years, gets the chance to run with the ball at last in a good role in "Up Periscope." Along with Jim Garner and Edmund O'Brien, Frank goes to San Diego for two weeks of location shots on battleships and submarines. The interiors will be filmed at the studio.

When Gifford was star halfback with the New York Giants' football team he picked off more honors than Walt Disney has Oscars. In 1956 he won the Jim Thorpe Trophy, in 1955 he was voted All-Pro Halfback and in 1952 President Eisenhower personally handed him the citation for being The Most Valuable Player on the Field at the all star game.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random:

Over the long weekend Rock Hudson was the guest of Debbie and Tyrone Power on their boat and had himself a wonderful time.

On the subject of boats, Bob Wagner has christened his cruiser "My Other Lady" in honor of you-know-who.

Harold Arlen wires he's busy at home working on a blues opera and says he has never felt better — news his friends will be glad to hear.

The most serious romance in town to date is June Lockhart and John Lindsay who were glimpsed again at the Sportsman's Lodge.

When Gary Crosby arrived in town last week he was met by his dad, Bing, but Bing refused to pose for a picture saying that he didn't want to get in the act, it was Gary's homecoming.

The Pat Boones, who arrived with young Crosby, are moving into the Bel Air mansion they rented for three months, the same house Prince Rainier occupied when he was here courting Grace Kelly.

That's all today. See you tomorrow.

Health Service Studies Group of 7,382:

Reports More Cigarette Smokers Die

WASHINGTON (AP) — A much higher death rate among cigarette smokers than nonsmokers is reported in a new government study of the deaths of 7,382 veterans.

The Public Health Service report is the first in a continuing study of nearly 200,000 veterans. It said that in the veterans group studied the mortality rate among regular cigarette smokers was 58 per cent greater than among nonsmokers.

★ ★ ★

In general, the death rate of regular cigar smokers and pipe users was found not significantly higher than that of nonsmokers.

Bulking together all tobacco users in the group, the study showed their death rate was 32 per cent bigger than for those who have never smoked.

★ ★ ★

A tobacco industry spokesman, challenging the study, said it ignored all factors except tobacco smoking and "admittedly included no clinical or laboratory research. . . ."

★ ★ ★

The report was prepared by Dr. Harold F. Dorn, chief statistician for the National Institute of Health, an arm of the health service. It is intended for delivery tomorrow to the seventh International Cancer Congress in London.

Involved in the study were 198,926 holders of U.S. government life insurance policies. All but a very few of them were men. They served in the Armed Forces between 1917 and 1940. Most were between 50 and 70, but the ages ranged between 30 and 90.

Covered by the report were 7,382 deaths from July 1954 through December 1956. Of these, 6,203 were listed as smokers and 1,179 as nonsmokers. No details wer e provided on how many of the 198,926 policy holders smoked.

Nearly two-thirds of the smokers' deaths were attributed to diseases of the heart, blood vessels and kidneys. The mortality rate from coronary heart disease was found to be 63 per cent greater for regular cigarette users than for nonsmokers.

The health service report said the lung cancer rate for regular cigarette smokers was about 10 times the death rate for nonsmokers.

However, Timothy V. Hartnett, chairman of the Tobacco Industry Research Committee, said lung cancer deaths during the 2½-year period covered by the study numbered only 197 "out of the scores of thousands of cigarette smokers in the 200,000 veterans surveyed."

MONEY TO BURN — Pleased as anyone would be who had more money than he could handle, Charles Christensen, 6, right, and his sister, Marilyn, 8, are having a picnic at the 48th Quadrennial World Conference of the Seventh-Day Adventists in Cleveland. The kids are from La Paz, Bolivia, and thousands of "Boliviano" notes were given to persons attending the convention in an effort to encourage mission offerings "while money still means something." In 1928 the notes would have been equal to $250,000 in U.S. currency. Today it would take 8,500 of these notes to equal a U.S. dollar.

Planners Eye Dismal Swamp

Foresee Industrial Venice

WASHINGTON — Dismal Swamp, the gloomy wilderness shared by Virginia and North Carolina, is being eyed as an industrial Venice.

★ ★ ★

Officials of the neighboring States, encouraged by conservationists, in the past have urged the Federal Government to make the wildlife refuge a national forest under its permanent protection.

Now industrial planners of Virginia and North Carolina have a different idea. They foresee a business potential in the swamp's shallow-draft canal system, and plan an engineering survey to test the merits of their view.

The "Great Dismal," as it has been known ever since William Byrd took his dim view of it in 1728, once covered 2,200 square miles an area larger than Delaware. The falling water table of recent years has reduced it to one-fifth its former size, says the National Geographic Society.

★ ★ ★

Though remnants of historic canals and ditches crease the swamp, commercial traffic is limited to the sheltered, 42-mile alternate leg of the Atlantic Intracoastal Waterway connecting Portsmouth, Virginia, and Elizabeth City, North Carolina. The 22-mile stretch from Deep Creek, Virginia, to South Mills, North Carolina, is officially the Dismal Swamp Canal.

Locks at Deep Creek and South Mills raise the lower vessels 12 feet to enter and leave this elevated portion. First used by flatboats in 1805, it is one of the Nation's oldest artificial waterways.

From cypress-studded Lake Drummond, three miles wide and 35 feet above sea level in the Virginia heart of the swamp, water is released through sluice gates and a three-mile feeder ditch to keep the Dismal Swamp Canal at navigable depth.

★ ★ ★

The fact that the Dismal Swamp is above sea level points up the engineering magnitude of the plan to expand its canals. Present 10-foot depths would have to be increased to 40 feet. Present 50-to-100-foot widths would have to be doubled or tripled. Great locks would be required.

Summer temperatures in some places in the U.S. are higheer than is usual in the tropics, according to the National Geographic Society.

'I Beat on Its Head With My Fist'

Air Crash Survivors Battle Sharks

HONOLULU (AP)—Three survivors of the C124 Air Force transport plane which went down early Friday in mid-Pacific returned here last night to tell of fighting off a school of sharks before they were rescued.

Nine were aboard the plane. One body was recovered and five others are missing and presumed drowned.

★ ★ ★

Returning here on the aircraft carrier Boxer, which picked up the three survivors 200 miles northeast of Johnston Island, Capt. Jonathan W. Brown, the plane's commander, told newsmen: "One of the sharks got a good hold on me and was shaking me.

"We were pounding the water and yelling and thrashing and kicking around. I was beating on the shark's head with my fist. He finally let go. There were several of them around and they swam away."

He said they apparently were put off somewhat by shark repellant from the men's lifejackets and by all the noise.

Returning with Brown were T. Sgt. James M. Phillips, Vacaville, Calif., and S. Sgt. James P. Vanderee, San Rafael, Calif. Both were navigators on the big craft, which was on a flight from Travis Air Force Base in California to Tokyo with a crew of seven plus two military couriers picked up in Hawaii. Brown, who comes from Sioux City, Iowa, lives at Travis A.F.B. northeast of San Francisco.

Brown, Phillips and Vanderee all had minor cuts, gasoline burns and stains from shark repellant. Brown had a minor shark bite on his left shoulder.

They were taken to the Army's Tripler General Hospital for treatment.

Brown said the big Globemaster ditched 200 miles this side of Johnston Island after the No. 3 engine began backfiring and threw its propeller through the fuselage, cutting off all electric power and communications and crippling all controls except the rudder and elevator. He set her down at 120 knots but the right wing dipped and the plane broke up into sections.

"It went under immediately. I came up through a hole right above me," Brown said.

Vanderee said he had gone to the rear of the plane to help other crew members and the two couriers into their lifejackets when the ship hit the water. He said he tried three times to get out of his section but each time was washed back by the waves. His shoulder was dislocated.

Viruses Offer Clue to Cancer

Dead Doctor's Theory Gaining Credit With More Scientists

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
AP Science Writer

LONDON (AP) — Viruses, the scientist used to say in his soft, almost musical voice, viruses seem to be the basic cause of cancer.

And in a lifetime of research Dr. Francisco Duran-Reynals produced point after point of evidence that viruses could indeed be the culprit or at least the most important culprit.

★ ★ ★

He theorized viruses might sleep harmlessly in the body for years until something—age, injury or a change in the body's chemistry—suddenly awoke them to change the living cells and start cancers.

The Spanish-born American scientist was to have spoken to the seventh International Cancer Congress, which opened here today attended by nearly 2,000 scientists from 64 countries.

But Duran-Reynals died a few months ago, a victim of the very disease he fought.

A brief abstract printed today in the congress' proceedings details the latest work he had done at Yale University with virus experiments on mice.

The abstract is partly his last tribute. But a bigger tribute comes from the fact that more and more scientists are swinging to the virus theory of cancer, a theory largely ignored during Duran-Reynals' lifetime.

★ ★ ★

Recent evidence in several countries is adding to the picture that viruses could be involved in at least some kinds of human cancers. If they are, perhaps vaccines or other controls against them can be devised.

Another main attack is aimed at producing anticancer drugs based on discoveries of the tiny but significant differences between cancer and healthy cells. The idea is to get the drugs to jam the machinery of the cancer cells.

This approach has led to drugs which have had some successes against a few kinds of cancer.

Another Charge Filed Against Jailed Bride

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The bride 23, and the groom were just married the other day — in the Dallas County jail.

Newspapers carried their wedding picture and story of a touching jailhouse romance. The bride was radiant in her wedding gown.

Today, police said, they'll file another bad check charge against Frankie Koepp, bride of jail trusty Ted Daniel.

A dress shop employe, seeing the picture, recognized the wedding gown as one for which she was paid with a rubber check.

Mall Removed at Grand Haven

Trial Period Up Today; Report on Its Effects Due 'in Few Days'

GRAND HAVEN (AP)—Formal ceremonies today mark the official end of an experiment which had changed two blocks of downtown Grand Haven into a rtaffic-free shopping mall.

Work is scheduled to start tomorrow on dismantling huge planter boxes of trees, flowers and schrubs which had barricaded a section of Washington street to vehicular trafic.

The greenery will be sold to the public.

★ ★ ★

Jack Reichardt, chairman of a merchants' group which financed the decorations, said a detailed report on effects of the mall would be made "in a few days."

The mall drew acclaim from residents and public officials when it opened June 12 for a 10-day trial. City Council agreed a week later to extend the trial until today for a more accurate survey of its effects.

Thirteen dissenting merchants, many located outside the mall section, protested June 27 that it had wrought adverse effects on their businesses and asked immediate removal of the blockades. They agreed after a meeting with mall sponsors to let it run its council-approved time.

Mall sponsors hope to make it a permanent fixture by the 1960s.

'One Life Saved for Three I Took,' Declares Hero

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — Thomas Boyce, a Windsor truck driver involved in an accident April 8 that took the lives of three Detroit residents, pulled a youth from the Detroit River last night.

★ ★ ★

"That's one life I saved for the three I took," he said.

Boyce wasn't to blame for the accident. A car traveling at 80 miles an hour hurtled across the Ambassador Bridge and skidded 340 feet into the rear of his truck.

★ ★ ★

But the memory of the accident hadn't dimmed. Boyce said he felt better after jumping into the river to pull out a young fisherman who had tried to leap from some pilings to the shore. He didn't ask the youth's name.

TRAFFIC JAM — Transportation delays weren't limited to the highways as the Fourth of July weekend drew to a close yesterday. The New York Central's service between Detroit and Chicago was disrupted Sunday after 33 cars of a 113-car freight train left the tracks along U.S. 12 at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo. No one was injured in the wreck. Rail officials said the rear truck of an empty gondola developed a hot box and two wheels dropped off, causing the derailment.

Former Villagers Stage Reunion:

They Meet in Cemetery

WHAT WAS ONCE GARNETTSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—"I guess it is a little unique to have a reunion in a cemetery," H. D. Higbee said.

"But it's about the only time we ever get to see each other."

Higbee, a 51-year-old iron shop worker at Louisville, and about 150 other folks who once lived in the small village of Garnettsville got together yesterday at the burial grounds for their annual reunion.

★ ★ ★

The government bought their land in 1940 and made it part of the Ft. Knox military reservation. The 10-acre cemetery is the only land they retained.

What do people talk about in a cemetery?

Old friends, old times, those who have passed on and the future generation, says Higbee.

Like some of the others present, he said he thought back to his boyhood days.

★ ★ ★

He also shared the surprise of meeting a family which hadn't been heard from since Garnettsville disappeared.

Just recently the family read about the reunion in a newspaper and decided to attend.

Some of the reunion is taken up by business. There's the matter of a fund to keep the cemetery in shape.

Everyone contributes as the need arises.

★ ★ ★

There's also the matter of reading the list of people who purchase new lots every year — the people who want to be buried in their family lots.

"Some of the older ones are dying off each year," Higbee says.

But he's quick to add the oldtimers hope their children will want to carry on the custom of getting together to talk about what used to be.

Rebel Captives Listed in Beirut

Produced to Bolster Lebanon's Claims of U.A.R. Interyention

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Premier Sami Solh today produced a new list of rebel captives which he claimed bolstered Lebanon's charges that President Nasser's United Arab Republic is helping the Lebanese rebels. He appealed to "the world's conscience" to pin the blame for the eight-week-old rebellion on U.A.R. intervention.

★ ★ ★

Solh issued a statement in his capacity as foreign minister as an atmosphere of tension lay over Beirut, and security forces braced themselves for the possibility of a big battle inside the capital. Explosions and shooting rocked Beirut last night an dsporadic firing continued today.

★ ★ ★

The premier made public a list of 50 Syrians and Lebanese rebels he claimed were captured smuggling arms into the country. The government charged they were trained in neighboring Syria, now a U.A.R. province.

Solh said United Nations observers, who reported themselves unable to find clear evidence of U.A.R. intervention, would be invited to question the captives.

Reds Try to Return to Rule Guatamala

GUATEMALA (AP)—Guatemalans are being warned that Communists are again trying to bore from within.

★ ★ ★

Four years ago Col. Carlos Castillo Armas and a ragtag liberation rmy threw out this hemisphere's only Red-dominted government. Hundreds of Guatemalans followed President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman into exile.

★ ★ ★

A palace guard shot President Castillo Armas to death last July. Now President Miguel Ydigoras Fuentes charges that the exiles he let return in recent months are active again, agitating "in the street, among workers and even in Congress."

Ydigoras Fuentes said his government will deal with the Communists as their activities might require.

Large Inventories Avoided

Auto Makers Planned Lower Factory Output

By DAVID J. WILKIE

DETROIT (AP)—The auto industry sold an estimated 2,371,000 new cars in this year's first half.

The estimate, by the trade paper Automotive News, probably is as close to the actual total as can be made until official registration figures for the January-June period are tabulated. That will be another four or five weeks.

★ ★ ★

Not since 1954 have new car sales dropped below three million units in the first half of the year. Last year's January-June total was 3,070,875 sales.

But, disappointing as they were to the auto makers and merchandisers, retail sales topped factory output. Assemblies for January through June numbered approximately 2¼ million units. The excess of sales over output was possible because the industry started 1958 with 652,000 cars in dealer stocks.

The lower factory output was carefully planned. It was designed to avoid the accumulation of large inventories in a period of lagging sales. The sales decline became apparent to the car makers even before they brought out their 1959 cars.

But they hoped for a spring upsurge, a tradition in car industry operations. This hope influenced production of nearly half a million cars in January. In February assemblies dropped to 392,000. Monthly output has been held below that total since February—at least partly because the spring upturn failed to develop.

No industry source looks for an upsurge in the weeks immediately ahead. Some experts are forecasting a steady demand in the final days of the 1958 model year. Some say the new model introductions will provide a sales stimulus.

Nevertheless there is much guessing about this year's total sales. The biggest figure heard has been about 4½ million American-made cars plus about 280,000 imported units. The lowest is 4¼ million American cars plus 280,000 imports.

★ ★ ★

Whatever else may be said about the auto industry's operations it must be noted the car makers are carrying out an orderly cleanup of outgoing models. It must be noted, too, that even without a price slashing drive to liquidate 1958 models most of them are available at below list prices.

They represent good buys at this time because even if list prices for 1959 cars are not increased the discounts are likely to be smaller than they are on 1958 models. That is one of the things expected to follow a thorough cleanup of outgoing cars.

Work Refusal Idles 2,700 at Plymouth

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. said today a group of workers at its Plymouth Body Plant refused to report to their jobs today, forcing the company to send home 2,700 workers at two plants.

★ ★ ★

Some 1,500 workers at the Mack Plant were sent home and 1,200 were idled at the Plymouth Assembly Plant.

A similar dispute closed the two plants June 27 and again last Monday and Tuesday. Chrysler said then trim plant workers refused to go to their jobs.

★ ★ ★

Contract negotiations at Chrysler, General Motors and Ford are in recess until next Monday.

Shadow Presidents

Adams Not First 'Chief of Staff'

The storm of criticism directed against Sherman Adams, assistant to President Eisenhower, because of Adams' acceptance of gifts from Boston millionaire Bernard Goldfine, has placed this comparatively new government post in the limelight. The official title — "Assistant to the President" — was created by Harry S. Truman when he bestowed it on Dr. John R. Steelman. Steelman, however, was not the White House "chief of staff" in the sense that Adams is. But the evolution of the office can be traced to other presidents in this century who had advisers with great influence in the White House. William McKinley depended heavily on Cleveland financier Mark Hanna for political guidance. The first presidential adviser to rise to an "indispensable man" status comparable to Adams was Col. Edward M. House. "He is my second personality. He is my independent self," Woodrow Wilson said of him. House was special diplomatic representative for Wilson during World War I peace negotiations. The object of much criticism was Franklin D. Roosevelt's unofficial assistant president, Harry Hopkins, who served in numerous posts under Roosevelt.

★ ★ ★

They also admitted attempting tob reak into the Eagles Lodge Hall, 289 Montcalm St., and the Oakland County Animal Shelter and burglarizing the GMC Factory Retail Branch, 695 Oakland Ave., where $10 in change was stolen.

Peach Float Defaced

'Zorro' Strikes at Romeo

ROMEO — The name of the popular fictional character, Zorro, was emblazoned in gold on the Romeo Peach Festival publicity float by vandals Friday night, Romeo Village Police reported today.

★ ★ ★

The float, which placed first in the Utica Lions Fourth of July parade, was in a Romeo warehouse. It needed a little touching up before being entered in Sunday's Pickerel Festival in Algonac.

When publicity committeemen arrived Saturday afternoon at the warehouse to do the necessary patching, they found someone had sprayed Zorro's name in gold on the front and back of the float and had defaced the Peach Festival signs on each side.

The damage was covered up by more decorative paper and the float made its appearance on schedule in Algonac.

2 Berkley Tots Drown Wading

They Step Into Boat Channel at Anchor Bay on Lake St. Clair

BERKLEY—Craig ter Kuile, 5, and his brother, Bruce, 3, of 3780 Cumberland St., Berkley, were drowned Saturday afternoon when they apparently slipped into a boat channel while wading with their mother in two feet of water at Anchor Bay, Lake St. Clair, near Fair Haven.

They had gone to Anchor Bay Resort, Muskie Manor, in an 18-foot sail boat with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis ter Kuile.

St. Clair County deputies said Mrs. ter Kuile had left the children momentarily to change clothes. When she returned they were missing.

About 30 persons answered her call for help, and Bruce was found floating face down about 10 minutes later, about 100 feet from shore. Craig's body was recovered nearby a few minutes afterwards in about three feet of water.

The channel was about 100 yards east of where they had been wading police said.

Volunteer firemen from two townships attempted for more than two hours to revive the boys.

68 Agriculture Patents Granted by U.S. in '57

WASHINGTON — Agricultural researchers for the Federal Government, seeking new ways to use farm products, took out 68 patents in 1957, which will be licensed to anyone who wants to use them.

About 300 processes, aimed at expanding farm markets, have been perfected and await the commercial go-ahead or price-right raw materials to make them profitable.

France Leads World in Auto-Export Gain

LE HAVRE — In the first half of 1957, French automobile manufacturers' sales abroad — 126,500 cars and trucks, worth $154,300,000 — increased by 36 per cent in comparison with the first six months of 1956.

This led all the other exporters and compared with gains of 24 per cent for Italian manufacturers, 15 per cent for the West Germans, and 4 per cent for the British, and a 4 per cent drop for United States car makers.

Turnpikes Now Span 2,916 Miles of U.S.

The cost of construction of these highways varies from $371,000 a mile for the Colorado Turnpike to as high as $15,000,000 a mile for the eight-mile Newark Bay-Hudson County extension of the New Jersey Turnpike.

State-Park Camping Up

WASHINGTON — The number of persons vacationing in state-park tent and trailer-camp areas soared to 10,571,000 during 1957 compared with 9,100,000 in 1956, a gain of 16.9 per cent.

TOAST OF UTICA — Nineteen-year-old Patsy Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Carr, 11076 Russell St., was crowned Miss Utica of 1958 by Governor Williams during Utica's Fourth of July festivities. Building Dams Revitalizes India

Conservation of Water Promises Better Life for Millions

WASHINGTON — A boom in dam building around the world is changing the face of every continent. Waters caught in made-to-order lakes and inland seas are giving new food to the hungry, new power to machines, and new safety from floods.

Water flows on the dusty plains of India which once waited hungrily for monsoon rains.

★ ★ ★

Construction totals are difficult to estimate. Even among underdeveloped countries such as India, projects completed or begun in 1957 will provide irrigation to more than 25 million acres. The dams will increase the world's supply of electricity by more than 600 billion kilowatt hours a year.

Nowhere is there more emphasis on hydroelectric projects than in Asia, which must feed ever-increasing populations.

In India dams are so important that Prime Minister Nehru calls them "modern temples" and "new places of pilgrimage." Seven major dams were finished or started last year, several with United States aid.

The dramatic effect on human life can be seen at Pipra, where the Rihand River is being dammed. Until recently Pipra was a backward village of mud huts and famine-haunted people. Eight months a year the river was dry. In the monsoon season floods ravaged the countryside.

The 20th century has now arrived. Farmers who formerly scratched the earth in resignation are proud construction workers with weekly pay envelopes. Neat dwellings have replaced hovels.

★ ★ ★

When the dam stands ready another revolution will come. Manufacturers of cement, paper, aluminum, and fertilizer plan to move in and call on its 300,000 kilowatts of power. Life-giving water will flow regularly to a half-million sun-scorched acres.

British Firm to Export Cockles and Mussels

LONDON — Cockles and mussels, long famous in Britain as tasty morsels, have achieved such popularity with tourists that a British firm is planning to export them to the United States and other countries. The company cans 500,000 mussels and 10,000,000 cockles each week by a method which it says guarantees the product will have a store life of at least three months.

British TV Critics Giving Sid Caesar Mixed Reviews

Bids Daughter Goodbye Before She Drowns

LONG BEACH, N.C. (AP) — A father and daughter bade each other goodby upon realizing they were drowning in the Atlantic yesterday.

However, William I. Joyner was rescued by another man who drowned in an effort to rescue the daughter.

★ ★ ★

The other man, Ernest McCracken of Southport, previously had rescued another daughter, Inez Joyner, 10, who had been swept off her feet by a current on Long Beach Inlet.

Shirley Joyner, 14, of Nashville, N.C., drowned along with McCracken.

★ ★ ★

Inez first ventured into deep water and was knocked down by a current. Shirley tried to help her, and also was gripped by the current. Their screams attracted Joyner and McCracken.

McCracken towed Inez in, and Joyner went to Shirley.

"We went under several times," Joyner related. "We knew we were going to drown. We said goodby to each other."

★ ★ ★

After McCracken rescued Joyner, he reached Shirley far out in the water. Witnesses said they appeared to struggle, and then disappeared beneath the waves of this beach near Southport and Wilmington.

Comic Appears on BBC Series

He Came, He Saw, He Conquered, One Paper Declares

LONDON (AP) — The state-controlled British Broadcasting Corp. which imported America's Sid Caesar for a 13-week series to lift local TV comedy out of the slapstick level, said today it just isn't sure of the first week's results.

★ ★ ★

"The critics' reactions were somewhat 'mixed,'" said a BBC spokesman, "but it's still too early for the audience survey figures. They take up a month to compile."

BBC, which carries no advertising but relies on an annual three pounds ($8.40) license fee from each viewer to pay the bills, brought over Caesar and his co-star Imogene Coca in the fight against the new commercial TV network.

The BBC is conceded the leader in the field of drama, documentaries, and the general run of serious subjects. But it hasn't a comedian. Most critics insist the commercial network hasn't one either and that British TV comedy is still in the slapstick stage.

★ ★ ★

The London critics' reception was mixed. The London News Chronicle thought BBC's advance publicity about Caesar justified.

"He came, he saw, he conquered," the News Chronicle said.

But The Daily Express said that "Caesar conspicuously failed to set the Thames on fire. This slight pale, timid-looking figure was no conquering Caesar."

The Daily Mail commented: "The studio audience cheered rapturously, and so it should."

The American comic is getting 50,000 pounds — $140,000 — for the 13-show series. BBC is hoping to knock its commercial competitor's popular hospital drama "Ward 10" out of the top 10 ratings.

Sees Seaway Benefit New York in Long Run

NEW YORK (AP)—William B. Lawless Jr., president of the Buffalo City Council, says the St. Lawrence Seaway will eventually benefit the Port of New York.

He says that at first the seaway, opening the Great Lakes to ocean-going shipping, may have an adverse effect on the Port of New York as overseas shippers take advantage of direct routes to be provided by the seaway.

Lawless said that after the seaway opens, Buffalo eventually will manufacturer and ship additional items of commerce to New York City.

The seaway also will bring new freight traffic to railroads, Lawless said.

AFL-CIO Awards Hope for Community Service

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Comedian Bob Hope has been awarded the AFL-CIO's 1958 Murray-Green Award for outstanding community service.

The AFL-CIO Executive Council chose Hope for "outstanding services to men and women of our armed forces."

The $5,000 award and medal is given annually in honor of the late Presidents William Green of the AFL and Phillip Murray of the CIO. The Presentation to Hope will be made Nov. 16.

Jackie Gleason Joins Golf Ranks—Breaks 80

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Jackie Gleason did it! What? Won an Emmy? No. Broke 80 in golf!

★ ★ ★

"Yeah, I got a 79," he admitted when I phoned him at the Shawnee Country Club at Stroudsburg, Pa. "Guess it's supposed to be something when you're playing not even a year. Next year I might go into the open!"

★ ★ ★

I asked him about using another fat guy, Buddy Hackett, on his new Friday night TV show, and he proudly said, "I'M not fat! I'm down from 286 to 228. Only 28 to go. I'm looking forward to television," he added. "I'll be thin again and it'll be a whole new deck."

★ ★ ★

Hollywood should retain "the Coogle Sisters," Roxanne Arlen and Virginia de Luce, the funniest, sexiest pair of blondes now on the B'way stage.

Six Die, 2 Badly Hurt in Two-Car Collision

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — Two cars collided near here yesterday during a thundershower, killing six persons. Two others were injured critically.

Dead are Aaron Leitwein, 66; his wife, Dathna, 64; their son, Harry Leitwein, 45; and his son, Dean, 13, all of springfield, and Howard Bigelow, 48, and his son David, 13, of Kansas City.

The injured are Bigelow's other son, Tommy, 9, and Mrs. Harry Leitwein, 43.

Bigelow and his sons were en route home from a fishing trip at Bull Shoals Lake on the Missouri-Arkansas border. A friend, James M. Larkin, who accompanied them on the trip, stopped off at Springfield, and thus escaped the accident.

The collision occurred six miles north of here on State Highway 13.

2 Motorcyclists Hurt Racing at Fairgrounds

DETROIT (AP) — Two motorcycle riders were injured yesterday, one of them critically, at a race meeting at the State Fairgrounds.

Henry Bohnwagner, 25, of Detroit, suffered head injuries when he lost control of his bike and crashed into a retaining wall at a high rate of speed.

David Dean, 19, of Kalamazoo, suffered head and neck injuries when he struck a retaining wall.

Bohnwagner's condition was described as critical. Dean was reported in good condition.

Third Quadruplet in Poor Condition

MANKATO, Minn. (AP) — One of the two surviving Hansen quadruplets was in poor condition early today.

★ ★ ★

The quadruplet daughters were born Saturday to Mrs. Gerald Hansen, 26, wife of Mankato schoolteacher. Two of the babies, Christine and Deborah, died that night.

Attendants said the condition of Penelope worsened last night. The other surviving infant, Rebecca, remained in satisfactory condition.

★ ★ ★

The babies weighed about two pounds each and were 2½ months premature.

Rush Serum to Girl, 11, Bitten by Rattlesnake

WATERVLIET (AP) — Billie Jay probably is going to get over that bite from a rattlesnake.

Billie, 11, spent a good night at a hospital here Saturday and there were no complications on Sunday.

The girl, who lives on a farm near Keeler, was bitten by a rattlesnake on her ankle Friday. A 150-mile relay by State Police cars brought serum here from University Hospital at Ann Arbor.

Insurance Benefits Up

NEW YORK — Benefit payments to persons covered by hospital-expense insurance policies have increased more than 500 per cent since 1948 while hospital charges have risen 125 per cent, the Health Insurance Institute reports.

Dedicates Life to Revival of 'Family Prayer'

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — By 1960, hundreds of millions of families may be praying together—over the dinner table, near the hearth, by the master bed.

The reason is that Father Patrick Peyton is dedicating his life to the revival of "family prayer."

LIFE OF MIRACLES

And Father Peyton's life is fraught with miracles. God-made, he calls them. Clearly Peyton-made, say his friends.

He is sitting in a tiny parlor, this dedicated priest whose stature is that of a halfback, but whose manner belongs to a humble man. "May I tell you, God bless you, the story?" he says softly. "Sure'n it's short, but if I bore you . . ."

At the age of 19, the middle boy in a family of 11 left western Ireland with an older brother to come to America, because there wasn't money enough for the Peytons to live. He intended to be a coal miner in Scranton, Pa., but he arrived about the time of the depression, and the only job he could get was janitor for a church.

LOVELY PEACE

"The peace, the lovely peace of it. Bein' alone in the darkness of morning and the darkness of night. In a week, I knew I must be a priest." For 11 years he studied for the priesthood. "Suddenly, one day, blood poured out of my mouth and I knew I was broken, physically.

"The doctors told me to trust to prayer. It was October. There was rain and drizzle in the air, and in my soul.

He began to pray, as he'd never prayed before; at the same time, two women in his life—his mother and his sister—made "pacts with God."

His sister, Patrick remembers, wrote on a piece of paper that if God would let her brother become a priest and keep him holy till he died, she would give up her life. His mother prayed that all of Patrick's physical burdens be placed upon her so that he might be well.

He bows his head. "They both got their wishes . . . within the incredible year I was well and back at studies. And they, God keep them forever, were gone."

It was this miracle that led to the others. Father Peyton gave a pledge to God and himself to save the sanctity of families everywhere. To make them more, if you will, like his own. "The family today is a poor thing that is drowning," he says. "The industrial age, this century, has split them apart. Prayer can bring them back together."

The next miracle was that Father Peyton was able to start the ball rolling by obtaining free time on the radio. No religious group had been able to swing such a coup before.

"Everybody said it couldn't be done." He smiles, beatifically. "But I went and told the radio people—'we're so worried about our dyin' families, but if it costs any money, nobody's willin' to do anything about it.' And finally, the blessed Mutual Network saw it my way."

Next, Father Peyton called the White House and talked President Truman into lending his support to the family prayers movement. Then he called Bing Crosby, who said of course he'd cooperate. By now, almost every world celebrity with any faith has donated his time and talents to the ingratiating "miracle man."

Since 1950, Father Peyton has also had a "Family Theater" television show ("It's just as good as any good dramatic show, except at the last minute we're sellin' prayers instead of cars"), and he has just returned from the Brussel's World Fair where he introduced 15 new color films to the Vatican exhibit—films of the life of Christ which, by virtue of Peyton persuasion, were financed by wealthy churchgoers.

Now he is off on a midwest tour, to Minnesota and the Dakotas, to buy up a big door-to-door drive to get Catholics to sign promises that they will observe family prayer sessions daily. Already he has 10 million families in the fold.

If history and miracles prevail, Father Peyton's slogan "A family that prays together stays together" will be bigger than anything Madison Ayenue ever dreamed of.
