Marines Supervise Dominican Pullout

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Reinforced U.S. Marine units supervised the withdrawal of Americans to ships off shore today from Santo Domingo, torn by civil war.

The 400 Marines who came ashore yesterday were reinforced by 100 others who landed at the polo field next to the Hotel Embajador, evacuation point on the city's outskirts.

Most of the Marines guarded the evacuation of Americans through the port of Haina, 12 miles from Santo Domingo.

But 100 of them were assigned to duty at the U.S. Embassy in the capital.

There are about 2,000 Americans remaining in the Dominican Republic. None has been hurt so far in the fighting that may have taken a toll of 400 lives.

Meanwhile, the Organization of American States decided today to call for an immediate cease-fire in the strife-torn Dominican Republic. It also offered its mediation efforts there.

PAPAL REPRESENTATIVE

The inter-American body voted to make its cease-fire appeal through the papal representative at Santo Domingo, it was reported.

A Latin American ambassador said the OAS council has also decided to put in action the inter-American peace machinery. An emergency closed meeting of the council was still in progress.

Fighting seemed to die down in the capital after the forces of Brig. Gen. Elias Wessin y Wessin captured the presidential palace. The palace was wrested from armed civilians and soldiers who executed the coup that overthrew the U.S.-backed civilian junta Sunday.

Wessin proclaimed victory over the coup forces, who want to return ex-President Juan Bosch from his exile in Puerto Rico.

But the pro-Bosch radio in Santo Domingo went back on the air after a day of silence and declared morale among the Bosch forces still is high.

Col. Francisco Caamaño Dene, commanding pro-Bosch forces in the city, said two of Wessin's tanks were disabled and four others that entered the city were captured. There was no confirmation.

At the presidential palace, Lt. Col. Jose Manuel Perez Aponte was in command. He said a mob looted the palace yesterday of silverware, rugs and china and his soldiers drove out the looters.

The palace was not damaged. No shells from Tuesday's naval bombardment struck it, and most of the damage appeared to be from strafing attacks by Wessin's air force.

Perez said Wessin's forces were not mopping up the last of the pro-Bosch rebels.

However shooting could be heard in the direction of Ozama Fortress, a police stronghold. The police there are behind Wessin.

It appeared Wessin was getting some supplies from the United States, possibly medicine for his wounded. Seven helicopters from the carrier Boxer flew over San Isidro Air Base, Wessin's headquarters, 20 miles east of the capital.

Area Student Witnesses Latin Revolt in the Making

Dennis E. Garrels of West Bloomfield Township will come home Sunday—not with the usual jinkets collected during three months abroad, but with eyewitness tales of the Dominican Republic revolt.

Garrels, 22, is one of the 18 University of Michigan jazz band members evacuated from the West Indies hot spot Monday.

The group is appearing in Jamaica and will arrive at Willow Run Sunday night.

Garrels' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Garrels of 7648 Sweetbriar, have been breathing more easily since they heard the news last night.

Typical of traveling sons, Garrels is "not a good correspondent," his mother said.

PLANS CHANGED

He had neglected to notify his family that the band's plans were changed to include the five-night stand in Santo Domingo.

"Not knowing he was there, it was really a shock when we heard that the Navy was being sent in to take them to Puerto Rico," Mrs. Garrels said.

Vin news reports, she has constructed visions of her son sitting in a hotel room with "bullets flying right and left."

Richard Crawford, faculty member traveling with the group, said the students witnessed much of the rebel revolt including the bombing of the presidential palace.

"My first reaction was 'Thank God that he is safe!'" Mrs. Garrels said.

The lowest temperature recorded today was 38 in downtown Pontiac. The mercury hovered at a beautiful high of 68 at 2 p.m.

Winds were from the west and southwest at a breezy 10 to 20 miles an hour.

The area also will have warmer temperatures tonight with a mild low of 42 to 46 expected. Skies will be fair.

"Tomorrow, however, the mercury will dip, but just a bit. The high forecast is 58 to 65. Sunny skies will prevail.

Saturday's outlook calls for partly cloudy and somewhat cooler weather.

Birmingham Man Will Defend Foster

Birmingham attorney Joseph L. Hardig Jr. has been appointed to defend Carl Foster, 29, who is charged with first degree murder in connection with the February 1964 death of his wife.

Hardig, 45, Puritan, was appointed by Circuit Court Judge Clark J. Adams after it was determined that Foster could not afford to hire his own attorney.

Foster, who was convicted of manslaughter in connection with the death of a 20-year-old Bloomfield Township divorcee, was returned to Oakland County Tuesday from the State Prison of Southern Michigan at Jackson.

WHITE CANE SALE — Preparing for the annual white cane sale tomorrow and Saturday are Richard Smith (left), president of the Waterford Lions Club and James Donaldson, past president and co-chairman of this year's miniature cane sale. Most other area Lions Clubs also will be selling canes this weekend to raise funds for the many projects that benefit the blind. Chairman of the Pontiac Lions Club sale is Phil Wellemeyer.

SEATTLE SHAKES UP — A street in downtown Seattle, Wash., is littered with bricks shaken loose by an earthquake today. This street is near the railroad station. Similar damage was reported over a wide area of the city.

Tremor Rates 7 on Richter Scale; Many Injuries Are Reported

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — A major earthquake hit the Pacific Northwest at 8:29 a.m. (PST) today, causing widespread damage and one or more deaths.

The first confirmed fatality was in Seattle, where Adolphus Lewis, age undetermined, was struck by debris from a building.

There were unconfirmed reports of two or three others killed in Seattle.

There were scores of injuries, many in Seattle from falling debris as some brick facing on older buildings toppled into the street.

The quake, rated at an intensity of more than 7 on the Richter Scale, was felt from Coos Bay, on the Oregon coast, to southern British Columbia, and east as far as Idaho.

Alaska points reported it was not felt there.

The tremor did structural damage in half a dozen cities and knocked out some hydroelectric circuits at the giant Grand Coulee Dam in northeast Washington.

Norman Rasmussen, University of Washington seismologist, said the shock put the school's seismograph out of commission, but he estimated it at around 7 South Korea has 2,000 troops there, but they are primarily a work force to build and repair roads, bridges and railways.

Government sources said the decision to send Australian combat forces is not a result of the visit to Canberra last week by U.S. presidential envoy Henry Cabot Lodge. The Australian Cabinet had considered the idea of a more positive involvement in Viet Nam for some time before Lodge's visit, the sources said.

Rasmussen said the quake was not as severe as one on April 13, 1949, that killed eight persons and did $25 million damage in the Northwest.

GM 1st Period Is U.S. Record

$636-Million Profit Shatters 1964 Mark

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors wrote a fabulous page in American business history yesterday when it reported the biggest profit ever made in a first quarter by any firm.

The $636-million profit ($2.22 a share) topped the GM and U.S. industry's old first quarter high of $536 million set last year.

It also marked a new high for any quarter, surpassing the old mark of $602 million GM earned in the second quarter of 1964.

A record-breaking number of GM workers shared in the company's tremendous first three months and they earned more than GM workers ever got before in any quarter.

GM worldwide employment averaged 737,963 workers for the first quarter and they were paid $1.3 billion. These totals were far ahead of the previous highs, set in the second quarter last year, of 690,802 workers and $1.2 billion in payrolls.

The GM report showed net income per share for the first three months this year was $2.22, compared with $1.87 in the first quarter last year and the all-quarter previous high of $2.11 set in the second three months of 1964.

General Motors' dollar sales for the quarter were $5.5 billion compared with $4.7 billion in the opening quarter last year and the corporation's former record quarter of $5 billion set in the second quarter last year.

Say Aid Was Requested

Aussie Troops to Serve in Viet

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — Prime Minister Sir Robert Menzies announced in the House of Representatives today Australia will provide an infantry battalion for service in South Viet Nam.

Sir Robert said the decision had been made on request of the South Vietnamese government for further military assistance.

Defense Minister Shane Paltridge declined to say when the battalion would leave and where it would be deployed in South Viet Nam.

The force would number up to 800 men.

Scientific Satellite Is Launched Into Orbit

WALLOPS ISLAND, Va. (AP) — A 132-pound scientific satellite was hurled into orbit from this space research center today to make a series of measurements of the earth.

Blasted off on a 72-foot-tall rocket at 9:17 a.m., the satellite, called the Beacon Explorer-C, was reported in a good orbit an hour and a half later.

full cooperation and understanding that has existed between our two governments and the government of South Viet Nam in assisting South Viet Nam to maintain its independence.

"Like you, we have no desire to maintain military forces in Viet Nam any longer than necessary to secure the security of South Viet Nam.

"But we share your belief that we must both respond to the needs brought about by the aggression being carried on from North Viet Nam. This action proves again the deep ties between our two countries in the cause of world peace and security.

"I am confident that our two nations working together can continue to make great contributions to checking the spread of aggression and to bring about the peace that South Viet Nam and Southeast Asia deserve."

An Australian contingent of 800 men would be the second largest unit from any of America's allies in South Viet Nam. South Korea has 2,000 troops there, but they are primarily a work force to build and repair roads, bridges and railways.

Ziem said he had little doubt that the case would be adjudicated.

"The defense hasn't even started," said Ziem. "Up to this point, the city has been arguing its case."

Two defense witnesses have been called out of sequence in the proceedings, but only because they would not be available at a later date.

A complainant, Mrs. Jacqueline Smith, 32 Bagley, was recalled to the stand yesterday and testified that there were no vibrations at her home until the firm installed a scrap metal pulverizing machine.

She said the machine could be heard above traffic noises.

Under cross-examination by defense attorney L. Harvey Lodge, she said that windows rattle only when the machine is operating, but added that there are times when the machine is on that the windows don't shake.

City employees, Raymond McCoy, a survivor, and Maynard Newman, a draftsman, also testified about measurements and drawings they had made in connection with the locations of buildings and equipment on the property.

The plaintiffs contend that the firm is in violation of the zoning code because it has extended its nonconforming use when it installed the pulverizing machine.

Mom Saves Baby in Car

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, Pontiac Press

Without thought for her own life, Mrs. Marlene Taube, 23, pitted her strength against that of a rolling automobile as it careened backward toward Walton Boulevard's rush-hour traffic yesterday afternoon.

Her baby was in the car.

According to bystanders, Mrs. Taube, the wife of Donald Taube, 250 Ridgmont, Addison Township, pulled into the driveway at 3400 Walton, Avon Township, and got out to ask directions to a local doctor's office.

Turning, the mother saw her car begin to move down the drive's steep incline.

She dived toward the rolling vehicle, reaching it only to be thrown under the wheel as the car came to a stop just short of the thoroughfare.

PINNED UNDER TIRE

"She was pinned under the right front tire," said Don Beens of 711 Willard, Avon Township, who had stopped to help.

"Six or seven of us lifted the car up and pulled her free. We covered her to keep her warm until help came."

As Mrs. Taube was placed in the ambulance, a voice spoke out, "Where's the baby?"

A quick check in the car proved four-month-old Donni Jo had survived her first solo ride without even tipping her perky yellow bonnet awry, or letting go of her half-filled bottle.

Mrs. Taube is listed in fair condition with a fractured pelvis at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital this morning.

Capitol Is Undergoing Face-Lifting

LANSING (AP) — This is cleanup and spruce-up week at the State Capitol, while Gov. George Romney and the legislature are out of town.

The venerable old Capitol Building itself is a contrast, and could be compared to an aging lady undergoing a face-lifting.

One side is newly fresh and clean. The other is grimy and pockmarked with the scars of age.

The William Burger Co. of Chicago started last week to finish the job of cleaning the outside building stone. The Chicago firm was low among four bidders for the project at $9,400.

HIGH-PRESSURE HOSES

Extensive experiments showing that sandblasting would wear away the sandstone exterior. The cleaning is being done by high-pressure hoses using both water and steam.

A chemical some-what like the detergent used by the housewife also is used. But this is much stronger.

Smart workers at the building are parking their cars at a distance so they won't be cleaned of paint.

The cleaning firm managed to finish the front of the building in time for Romney's Jan. 1 inaugural. Then cold weather set in and the job had to be postponed until spring.

STARTED LAST WEEK

The crew started last week and should be able to finish the face-lifting of the old building in about the next two months, given a continuation of the current good weather.

"We made sure the building stone wouldn't be weakened before we started this job," explained State Building Manager John Gafner.

"In Paris, they cleaned some of their old buildings with sand blasting and it caused some terrible damage."

Maintenance crews were working outside, meanwhile, raking the Capitol lawns, putting on fertilizer and strewing grass seed. Some lawn sections are being reseeded, where new telephone cables were buried.

RUSH JOB

A rush job of interior decorating also is going on while the governor is in Europe and the legislature is recess.

The painters and decorators moved in as soon as the governor left.

The tattered old rug in the executive office was partially replaced a year ago. The re-carpeting is being extended throughout the office.

Romney's desk and all his mementos are moved out while woodwork is being touched up with a fresh painting job and other minor cleaning-up details are being cared for.

Pakistani Forces Claim Easy Victory Over Indians

BIAR-BET, Kutch (AP) — Pakistani forces claim they scored an easy victory over Indian troops in a four-day battle that ended with Pakistani occupation of this oasis in the baked, barren Rann of Kutch.

It is one of the most unlikely and desolate battlegrounds on earth. Soon the heat seared wastes will become marshy tideland, covered by water from the Arabian Sea whipped up by monsoon rains.

The temperature reaches 120 degrees during the day. The desert shimmers in the blinding heat.

Pakistani field commanders said almost all fighting takes place at night, when the heat subsides. The darkness also allows more freedom of movement across the empty flats where during the day one can see for miles.

DUG IN

Troops are dug in around the oasis which is several miles long. Some Pakistani tanks are parked nearby. No villages or civilians can be seen.

The Pakistani officers talked light-heartedly about their combat experience.

"We would have pushed them clear to Bombay," a captain said with a laugh. He said his troops suffered no fatalities in taking Biar-Bet and that the first evacuee was a wounded Indian.

The Pakistanis said they captured the oasis Monday night, inflicting heavy Indian losses. Biar-Bet is five miles south of what India claims to be its western border in the disputed Rann of Kutch area.

HEAVY FIGHTING

Maj. Gen. Tikka Khan said 350 Indian troops had been killed in heavy fighting since April 9. Khan, Pakistani commander in the Kutch, said only about 20 Pakistani soldiers had been killed. He said 45 Indians had been captured, including two officers.

India claimed 300 Pakistanis have been killed, wounded or captured and put its own losses at 65.

Khan said his patrols had pushed 20 miles south into what India claims as its territory all the way to the 24th Parallel, which Pakistan says is the boundary line. The disputed area is 150 miles long and 20 to 25 miles wide.

Miami Youth Survives Bite of Coral Snake

MIAMI (UPI) — A 15-year-old amateur snake hunter, bitten yesterday by a deadly coral snake, was reported in good condition and resting comfortably today at a local children's hospital.

The victim, James L. Turner, said the colorful snake grabbed onto his hand as he bent down to retrieve some fallen schoolbooks.

Both sides are reported to have moved thousands of troops into Kutch, possibly a total of 30,000.

NO RETURN FIRE

During the hour newsmen were at Biar-Bet, artillery shelled what were said to be Indian positions a few miles away. There was no return fire and no Indian troops were seen.

Two companies of regular Pakistani troops were in foxholes and slit trenches in one section of Biar-Bet, with others reported dug in further along.

The newsmen were shown American aid ammunition cases which Pakistani officers said the Indians left behind. India has charged that the Pakistanis are using tanks supplied by America. Both countries are pledged not to use American aid supplies against the other.

The area has strategic importance to both sides despite its desolation. India is planning a naval base at Kandla, on the Gulf of Kutch. And there have been recent reports that there is oil beneath the barren wastes.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — India has sent a letter to the U.N. Security Council informing it of its battles with Pakistan in the disputed Rann of Kutch.

The contents of the letter were not known but it was assumed that India warned that it considers the situation very grave.

Giant Puff of Smoke in Aptly Named Town

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP) — A $4,000 cargo of cigarettes went up in smoke when a high tension wire fell on a truck that was slammed into a utility pole in a small town eight miles from here.

The driver, Jan Gates of Canton, was not injured.

Wife of Slain Minister Making New Start

BOSTON (AP) — The widow of the Rev. James J. Reeb, Unitarian minister slain during civil rights demonstrations in Selma, Ala., last month, says she and her four children are making a new start in life.

"I've decided to enroll in Cas-per Junior College in Wyoming. I was a student there once. I will leave Boston for good on Friday," Marie Reeb said in an interview.

It was reported that the fund for the children, John, 13, Karen,

7, Ann, 5, and Steven, 3, has reached $66,000. Public donations for their support and education are being deposited in two Boston financial institutions.

"I don't know how many letters I've received. Some I've answered but there are many I haven't read. It's too painful," she said.

The St. Lawrence River is now the only natural outlet of the Great Lakes. There have been at least seven other outlets during the last 20,000 years.

Everyone Should Push Hospital's Objective

Under chairmanship of E. M. ESTES, General Manager of Pontiac Motor Division, a $3.25-million drive is under way for expansion and modernization of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

This fine institution which has so well served the Pontiac area since it was built in 1927 has been expanded five different times from its original 100-bed capacity to the present 330 beds. It is noteworthy that in effecting the continued enlargement the community has been solicited for only 7 per cent of the cost.

St. Joseph Mercy, like almost all hospitals, is operating at maximum capacity and urgently needs additional accommodations. The emergency arises from the unprecedented population growth of the area it serves and to keep pace with the continuous increase projected for the years ahead.

In outlining the fund-raising program, Mr. ESTES observed that when the expansion project is completed, the hospital will represent a $14-million medical facility.

The PRESS wholeheartedly endorses this campaign aimed at meeting increasing institutional demands of the area and urges its widespread support by the citizenry.

Louise Dresser

An older generation will be moved to nostalgic sadness by the death of LOUISE DRESSER, longtime character actress of the movies.

Winner of the first Academy Award in 1927, she began her theatrical career in 1906 with a singing role in a Broadway production.

Making her film debut in 1923 after a series of stage successes, Miss Dresser topped her career costarring with the immortal Will Rogers in seven films. She retired in 1937.

LOUISE DRESSER was one of the pre-eminent figures of the entertainment world, and her portrayals brought enjoyment and warmth to a multitude of fans.

She has richly earned the eternal peace and spiritual fulfillment that could be wished for her.

'Capitalism' Seen Cure for Commie Ailment

The more the Marxists talk, the more they begin to sound like capitalists.

Premier KOSYGIN has announced that Russia's next five-year plan will concentrate on raising both the production of consumer goods, with emphasis on private cars, and the incomes of workers so that they will be able to buy the new goods.

Voicing words that could have come from any Western textbook on capitalism, KOSYGIN added a caution: "Wages must be placed in direct relation to increases in labor productivity and growth of production."

"Around the world," he said, "capitalism is usually considered as an economic system in which the economy is controlled by the few, who benefit from the efforts of the many."

America, said ROMNEY, buried classical capitalism long ago, whether we know it or not.

It may well be that KOSYGIN and Company, successors to KHRUSHCHEV Enterprises, are doing the same thing with communism — whether they know it or not.

Franco Deals With Some Reds

By LEON DENNEN

NEW YORK (NEA) — Gen. Franco, Spain's rightist dictator, is allergic to Reds in his own totalitarian domain but he does not mind doing business with leftist dictators in Russia, Cuba and elsewhere.

Franco's court recently sentenced 13 Communists to long prison terms. But at the same time, his diplomats were negotiating increased cultural and trade exchanges with Russia, and a commercial agreement with Fidel Castro.

No wonder Cuba's dictator and his Soviet masters passed over in silence Franco's harsh treatment of their Spanish "comrades."

They even had little comment on the suppression by the Spanish police of student demonstrations who asked for political liberty and of miners who went on strike for decent living conditions.

This only goes to prove again that dictators, whatever their stripe, are primarily power-hungry opportunists who exploit ideology and doctrine merely as a means to achieve their ends.

STALIN'S PACT

Stalin, when it suited his purposes, concluded a pact with his mortal enemy Hitler which unleashed World War II.

Red China's Mao Tse-tung is reacting to be trading with "racist" South Africa even as his puppets scream for the expulsion of the country from the United Nations.

Franco is one dictator who survived his collaboration with Hitler in the last war. Now he apparently hopes to disarm his Marxist-Leninist opponents in Spain by doing business with their bosses in Russia and Cuba.

According to a statement published recently in Havana, the Franco regime will substantially increase its trade with Cuba in the next five years — despite strong opposition by the United States. In 1964, the volume of Spanish-Cuban trade amounted to $100 million.

CASTRO SUPPORT

Thus while Spain is receiving American aid in the form of warships and arms, Gen. Franco is contributing substantial economic support to Fidel Castro whose major goal is to subvert and undermine the United States.

Spain will soon be delivering fishing boats, refrigerator ships and cargo vessels built for Cuba in Spanish shipyards.

Franco has also agreed to buy 120 tons of Cuban sugar (at almost three times the world market price), tobacco, fruit preserves, honey and minerals.

To add insult to injury, Spain's ambassador to the United Nations has lately emerged as a champion of the Rapacki Plan for disengagement in Europe.

WITHDRAWAL

According to the plan, which bears the name of Poland's Foreign Minister Rapacki but was actually masterminded in Moscow, the United States should withdraw all troops and nuclear weapons from Germany.

This would leave the strongly anti-Communist and pro-American Bonn Federal Republic at the mercy of Russia's land army.

Franco once opposed the Rapacki Plan. Now, according to Western diplomats, he has decided that it is only a skillful Soviet maneuver against the United States.

With his typical opportunism, the Spanish dictator is maneuvering between East and West as he once maneuvered between Hitler and the allies.

But will his luck continue to hold out or is he digging his own grave, to use a favorite expression of the Marxist-Leninists?

David Lawrence Says:

Student Protests Tainted by Reds

WASHINGTON — The Communist influence on the campus in American universities and colleges has increased so substantially in recent months that it now has become an important factor in the organizing of student demonstrations.

The Communists have actually profited from the "free speech" doctrine which, through Supreme Court decisions, has been given preference over the right of the American people to be protected against speeches on the campus inspired by members of alien organizations that are financed directly or indirectly by the Soviet government or its agents in this country.

It is surprising that the House Committee on Un-American Activities has not exposed Communist participation in various demonstrations. Maybe this is due to sensitivity about possible criticism that the committee was perhaps trying to discredit the movement for civil rights.

Actually, it is fully understood that the Communists are by no means the originators of the civil rights controversy or of the use of street demonstrations of protest.

Yet there have been instances in which these same demonstrations have been pushed to extremes through Communist influence. And it is this which can hurt the cause of civil rights, especially when idealistic students are brainwashed by Communist organizers.

Leadership members of the Communist party are encouraged by the vast number of invitations they are receiving to speak at universities and colleges throughout the country.

These give them the opportunity to spread the party line, obtain recruits, and promote their claim that the Communist party is just another political party on the American scene.

The Communist leaders say they are receiving from colleges more requests to speak than they can possibly fulfill.

Leaders of Negro organizations have repeatedly said that, while there may be Communist groups active in the racial controversies, they are not in any way influential.

NOT APPARENT

But information reaching government sources here indicates that the tactics and techniques of the Communists are not always apparent even to Negro leaders, and that the real purpose of the Communists is to force the demonstrations into extremes so as either to provoke violence or to plunge the whole racial question into more and more bitter controversy.

More than a year ago, J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, warned college presidents throughout the country of "an organized attempt by foreign money to disrupt the universities of America."

He also has said that many colleges have provided some Communists with "a platform from which to espouse their goddess ideology of chicanery, deceit and treachery."

Radical Negroes Planning Chaotic '7 Days in May'

By RUTH MONTGOMERY WASHINGTON — Harlem agitator Jesse Gray and a group of other Negro radicals are secretly calling a conference in Washington on May 29-30 to climax a militant demonstration called "Seven Days in May."

The latter MONTGOMERY movement is sparked by Julius Hobson, the head of ACT, an organization of Negro militants.

Opening in Washington May 24 and continuing for a week, its avowed purpose is to demonstrate that "the poor" have the capability of disrupting the processes of government.

Informed sources say the government targets have not yet been picked, but that militants in Detroit, Chicago, Cleveland, Philadelphia and Washington are attempting to work out an ideology for the group.

Since the murder of Malcolm X, a power struggle has been in progress among those who want to take his place as the spokesman for black nationalism.

LED. RENT STRIKES

Jesse Gray, who led the Harlem rent strikes, is said to be in the forefront of those seeking to win national control.

Hobson, featured in this month's issue of Ebony as a controversial "maverick," shared street corner platforms with Gray last weekend during their attempt to show that housing conditions in Harlem are "the world's worst fare."

A recording of a Malcolm X speech was played at the rallies.

ACT, the group which is sponsoring the "Seven Days in May" demonstration here, has been passing out circulars asking for recruits. Thousands of these leaflets have been distributed in Harlem and in other big city ghettos including Washington's.

Under the bold-faced title, "Are You a Nigger?", the leaflet reads in part: "ACT. Be prepared for Seven Days in May. A nigger is anyone who does not join in the fight to better his own condition. A nigger is anyone who thinks he can coexist with oppression. A nigger is anyone who works at a job where he is discriminated against and keeps quiet about it."

There will now be an active campaign to get women to fight for equality of pay and promotion.

A woman will be able to bring suit if she applies for a job and a man gets the job instead and she feels he got the job because he was a man.

A woman can sue if she feels money to disrupt the universities of America."

Voice of the People:

Something Must Be Done About Our State's Taxes

As a member of the bipartisan taxation committee that met for the first time in the Governor's office I read the story furnished by the Associated Press. The Capitol press men missed the point that makes these meetings so important.

Taking the current surplus, the current revenue and expenditures, the Governor's conservative budget for 1965-66, the projected revenue and expenditure estimates based on the predicted business expansion and population growth for 1966-67 and 1967-68 into account, the State will be in debt $24 million by July 1, 1967 and $146.5 million by July 1968. The 1963 constitution forbids deficit spending. If the State is to maintain the same level of services per capita, something must be done about taxes.

Rollo Conlin, one of the most knowledgeable men in the area of taxation, states that it is much easier to solve a tax problem when there is a little "cash in the State's pocket" than where there is none. He points out that any extensive tax reform program legislated now would require two years to put it into effect if double taxation of some citizens and a tax free windfall for others is to be avoided.

Comments on Practical Nurse Training

I should like to correct an article on Manpower Training programs which stated that 180 persons have been graduated in practical nursing.

To date, six classes (180 persons) have entered training. Three classes have been graduated. Of the 90 persons in these classes, 67 were graduated, are employed, and have written the State Board licensing examination. Three other classes are currently enrolled in the training program.

We see this as an excellent opportunity for qualified persons to prepare for careers in the nursing field where the need for trained personnel will exceed the supply for many years to come.

Cleanup Month in Waterford Township

It is commendable that the Greater Waterford Council and township board have seen the need to clean up our community by proclaiming April 13 to May 11 as clean-up, paint-up and fix-up month in Waterford Township. Waterford does take pride in its physical appearance and I think no finer tribute could be paid to the township than to have tourists remember clean, neat surroundings.

The building department is taking measures to eliminate many of the unsightly conditions in the township and are beginning an intensive campaign to dispose of accumulated junk cars in commercial and residential districts.

We encourage you to take advantage of this month to beautify your individual property.

Women to Fight for Job Rights

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The male is now going to have some real competition from the female.

In the publicity over Negro rights, it has been largely overlooked that the Civil Rights Act of 1964 provides for equal employment rights for women, too, in all industries.

"affecting" interstate or foreign commerce.

(This means most business and industries—such as trade, manufacturing and banking — which have 100 or more workers, and unions of the same size).

But the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor has not overlooked this "sex" in Title VII which "prohibits discrimination because of race, color, religion, sex or national origin by employers, labor unions and employment agencies."

There will now be an active campaign to get women to fight for equality of pay and promotion.

A woman will be able to bring suit if she applies for a job and a man gets the job instead and she feels he got the job because he was a man.

A woman can sue if she feels she is in line for a promotion and a man beats her out for the higher job if she feels the man's victory was due to his being a male.

Note that a woman also will be able to sue if she feels she was unfairly kept from joining a union (membership in which is often a prerequisite for getting a job).

In these three cases, of course, she will have to prove that she was equally qualified for the post or membership she sought.

Watch July 2. The betting here is that within 60 days after that date some woman will sue some company for unfairness in not promoting her or increasing her salary, and some other woman will sue a company for not hiring her.

In 1965, only companies with more than 100 employees and unions with more than 100 members will feel the weight of this woman pressure. By July of 1968 the law will apply to companies and unions with 25 or more employees.

Even without the new law, women have been cutting into the labor force right smartly.

In the past 24 years, there has been a doubling in the labor force of women between the ages of 35 and 44, a tripling of women 45 to 54 and a three-and-a-half fold increase of women 55 to 64.

In 1940, 25 per cent of the American labor force was women.

en. Now women represent 35 per cent of American workers.

Mathematicians have been fiddling with their slide rules and rulers. They estimate (with their fingers crossed) that if present trends continue, 51 per cent of the labor force will be women by the year 2000 A.D. Then men will be in the minority in their chosen field.

But the Women's Bureau of the Labor Department holds that "women are somewhat more crowded today than they were before World War II in the lesser-skilled, less-rewarding and less-respected fields. We are a much larger percentage of the clerical . . . (and) service occupations and we constitute a small proportion of those in professions."

This the Women's Bureau intends to remedy.

Some grumbling men have suggested that the Labor Department now needs a Man's Bureau to fight for the rights of males trying to compete with females.

Take Action on Rezoning

Waterford Planners
Act on Five Requests

The Waterford Township Planning Commission has recommended approval of three rezoning requests and denial of two others.

Final action on proposed rezonings is the responsibility of the Waterford Township Board.

Recommended this week for rezoning from single residential to multiple dwelling was a two-lot parcel on Scott Lake Road in Section 24 and a 12-acre area on Watkins Lake Road near Scott Lake Road.

Earl Decker and Gerald G. Frericks are seeking rezoning for the two-lot parcel and William Dinno is the proponent for rezoning of the larger site.

Also recommended for rezoning was an 18-lot area on Lake Oakland in Section 2 from commercial recreation district to single residential.

TO CORRECT ERROR

The change was requested by the planning commission to correct an error in the original zoning of the area when it was developed.

Recommended for denial by the township board was an eight-lot area on Windiate proposed for change from single residential to multiple dwelling by Charles Langs.

Citing a letter from the County Health Department indicating that sewage disposal facilities would be inadequate for the number of units proposed, the board voted for denial.

Also recommended for denial was proposed rezoning of a parcel fronting on Dixie near Telegraph from general industrial to multiple dwelling.

Commissioners felt that the zoning change sought by Stanley S. Coddington would be spot zoning in a generally industrial area.

The problem of heavy traffic also was cited.

County Group Opposes Bill on Assessing Offices

The Oakland County Assessors Association has gone on record as opposing Senate Bill 285 which proposes permissive legislation to establish county assessing offices.

If passed by the House, the bill would permit counties to set up central assessing offices by a majority vote of boards of supervisors.

It also would allow a county to establish a five-member board of review.

Mongolia Ties Gesture to Soviets?

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG
United Press International
PARIS (UPI)—An unusual little news item from Tass in Moscow, later confirmed by the French Foreign Office, announced that France and Outer Mongolia have decided to establish relations.

This might appear to be just a diplomatic curiosity if it were not for the fact that President Charles de Gaulle of France never makes such moves without a specific purpose and without a careful thought beforehand. Mongolia is one of Moscow's proteges and a major pawn in the power struggle in the Communist world between Russia and Red China.

Therefore, the fact that de Gaulle has decided to establish diplomatic relations could be interpreted—and probably correctly—as a friendly gesture towards Moscow.

The time is significant too. The announcement was made while Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko is in Paris for talks designed to warm up previously rather chilly relations between France and the Soviets and to sound out possibilities of future diplomatic cooperation.

In fact, it was announced just a few hours before Gromyko was meeting with de Gaulle. That is why this cannot be written off simply as a piece of diplomatic tidying up by the French Foreign Office.

Negotiations for establishment of diplomatic relations have been going on for about three months. That would coincide al-

Says China N-System Due in 5 Years

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harold C. Urey, Nobel Prize-winning nuclear physicist, estimates Red China can develop a nuclear delivery system within five years.

Urey told members of the Overseas Writers Club Wednesday that the Peking regime can produce hydrogen bombs by a relatively simple process.

He said the Red Chinese surprised world scientists, including himself, by producing their first nuclear bomb last fall with uranium 235—one of the most technically difficult ways to produce it.

Urey said that Klaus Fuchs, convicted British atomic spy, evidently transmitted the technique which the Chinese Communists used to develop the gaseous diffusion plant used to produce the bomb.

"If the Chinese are able to make a gaseous diffusion plant," the University of California physicist said, "they would have no difficulty making rockets to deliver nuclear weapons."

most exactly with the period during which Paris and Moscow were beginning to realize that in the diplomatic field their interests coincide to a remarkable extent.

OUT OF THE BLUE

So de Gaulle's decision, apparently out of the blue, to set up diplomatic relations with Ulan Bator would seem to be another friendly gesture towards Moscow, timed for the best possible effect.

This does not imply a deliberate snub to Peking nor that de Gaulle has regretted establishing diplomatic relations with Communist China about 15 months ago.

True, Peking-Paris relations have not produced the results de Gaulle had hoped. The Red Chinese have proved standoffish and never have gone beyond strict diplomatic formalities.

But de Gaulle does regard his relations with Peking as a valuable diplomatic pipeline which could pay off handsomely if, and when, it comes to Viet Nam peace talks and a conference on the future of Southeast Asia. De Gaulle always has argued that Communist China, as the strongest power in the area, must be included in any such settlement.

But, meantime, relations with Outer Mongolia also could pay off in increased Russian good will.

Army Is Reprimanded by U.S. Probe for 'Persistently Poor' Equipment Maintenance

WASHINGTON (AP) — A government investigating agency today reprimanded the Army for what it said was persistently poor maintenance of billions of dollars worth of equipment.

Instances of inadequate maintenance of army vehicles, aircraft, electronic equipment and missiles.

The GAO noted that this was the latest in a series of reports dealing with the problem, "and the underlying management deficiencies previously reported were often similar to those described in this report."

"Notwithstanding the vast sums of moneys appropriated annually by the Congress for maintenance purposes," the General Accounting Office said, "we continue to find widespread

The new report alleged that the readiness of certain units of the 1st and 2nd Armored divisions, based at Ft. Hood, Tex.,

Featured Race Has Pair of Top Choices

Larkster and Condamine, fresh from impressive triumphs at Oaklawn Park, are the top choices in the featured eighth race, a six-furlong sprint for four year olds and up for a purse of $7,000, Friday afternoon at the Hazel Park race track.

In the Oaklawn meeting, Larkster posted three wins while Condamine made it to the winner's circle four times.

was impaired because "significant quantities of communication and electronic equipment" was found to be in poor condition.

ARE PREPARED

The Army disputed this allegation, saying that "both divisions have demonstrated repeatedly on alerts that they are prepared to meet their assigned state of readiness."

The report was based on inspection of 1,469 items of equipment assigned to 22 units of the two divisions. The inspection was conducted between December 1963 and April 1964.

It was found, the GAO said, that about 24 per cent of this equipment failed to meet serviceability standards.

"This equipment was in an unsatisfactory condition primarily because equipment operators did not perform, or failed to adequately perform, operational checks and preventive maintenance inspections," the report said.

The report noted that a number of recommendations were made to the Army, some of which the Army agreed with and some which it opposed.

The Army agreed to the GAO proposal but commanders at all levels reemphasize the need for supervisors to impress on all men their obligation to maintain materiel in satisfactory condition.

News in Brief From Around the World

Russians Arrest British Teacher, Fail to Disclose Charge

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet police have arrested a young British teacher named Gerald Brooke and filed a charge of an undisclosed nature against him, a British Embassy spokesman said today.

The London Daily Mail said Brooke was held on espionage charges, but the embassy said it "has not been told the precise nature of the charge."

The spokesman said the Russians have not answered two embassy requests for permission to see Brooke.

He was arrested Monday when Soviet police broke into an apartment. His wife was present and notified the embassy.

The couple, in their 20s, came to Moscow April 18 with a tourist group composed mostly of student teachers of Russian. They had been scheduled to leave Friday.

LONDON (AP) — Britain plans to ask U.N. Secretary General U Thant and one Commonwealth and one Arab country to help draw up a constitution to unite Aden and the Federation of South Arabia in a single state.

Government officials said Wednesday they hope to set up a constitutional conference in London.

The British have promised the region independence by 1968.

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — A prominent rancher is being held for $100,000 ransom today after being kidnaped by five men, the army reported.

The army said Oliverio Lara Borrero was taken from his ranch near the town of Florencia on Tuesday. Troops were en route to the area.

Lara Borrero is vice president of the Agriculture Society of Colombia, which has appealed for the death penalty for kidnapers in place of the present maximum sentence of seven years in prison.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Britain has called for a new approach to the reduction of existing nuclear weapons to lower, safer and less costly levels so that the order and stability of the world could be assured.

Lord Chalfont, in a major policy speech outlining the disarmament objectives of Britain's Labor government, told the 114-nation U.S. Disarmament Commission Wednesday that priority must be placed on halting and reversing "the direction of the present uncontrolled arms race."

Chalfont is minister of state for disarmament.

Hope to Catch Guerrillas in Pincer

S. Viet Troops Aim Push Against Cong

SAIGON, South Viet Nam — 1,000 South Vietnamese troops (AP) — A force of more than 1,000 was trying today to drive a key Viet Cong unit in the Mekong River Delta into the South China Sea.

Government commanders claimed at least 86 guerrillas were killed and 34 captured in the opening phase of the operation in Kien Hoa Province Wednesday. U.S. helicopter pilots caught about 60 Viet Cong trying to swim an estuary and machine-gunned them in the waters. The Americans estimated they killed about 40 of the swimmers.

Two Americans were killed in fighting elsewhere in the delta south of Saigon Wednesday. At least 18 Viet Cong dead were reported in that engagement. The American deaths brought the toll of U.S. combat fatalities in Viet Nam to 353 since December 1961.

In the Kien Hoa operation, the government force attacked in landing craft from the sea and in helicopters, hoping to catch the Viet Cong in a pincer. The offensive was aimed at the extreme eastern edge of the Thanh Phu district 60 miles south of Saigon, a seaside area of dense mangrove swamp.

The government suspects that arms and munitions from North Viet Nam are landed there by junks.

U.S. advisers said the operation was preceded a month ago by an intense bombardment by 41 U.S. Air Force jets. Then leaflets and loudspeaker broadcasts advised all civilians to leave the area to avoid being killed. Some 4,000 refugees, about half the population of the area, left the swamp for government-controlled areas nearby, advisers said.

More air strikes, an artillery barrage and shelling from 3-inch naval guns and 20mm cannon came Wednesday. Vietnamese army and ranger troops went ashore in landing craft and helicopters, accompanied by seven armored personnel carriers.

Ground fighting was comparatively minor. One government soldier was killed and six were wounded, one by a snakebite.

SERIOUS CONDITION

This morning the American pilot of an armed helicopter making a strike against a suspected Viet Cong position was shot through the throat. He was in serious condition.

A Vietnamese force operating in Binh Long Province, 80 miles southwest of Saigon, tangled Wednesday with a strong Viet Cong unit. A U.S. Army adviser was fatally wounded in the opening volley of Communist fire.

The Reds beat off an armed relief column. And American Army helicopters attempting to reach the American and some Vietnamese wounded also were forced from the area by heavy ground fire.

Ground troops finally fought their way into the battle zone, but another American was killed in the attack. A third American was wounded.

The Vietnamese continued the operation today but there were no further reports of contact with the Reds.

U.S. Air Force B57 jet bombers carried out a midnight attack on North Viet Nam and reported moderate success in bombing highway routes 7, 8 and 12. A spokesman said 13 tons of bombs were dumped.

One truck was strafed with unknown results.

U.S. presidential envoy Henry Cabot Lodge left Viet Nam today, declaring there have been important improvements in the situation here. He said it is inconceivable that South Viet Nam would be defeated or abandoned to the Communists.

The former U.S. ambassador to Saigon will stop in Hong Kong before reporting back to President Johnson.

He said: "I have repeatedly said persistence will bring victory but there is no such thing as a quick victory. I am always confident; I am always optimistic. It is simply inconceivable

Ranging Wide to Boost GOP

Ford, Romney Trying to Recharge Strength

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Michigan Republicans are traveling far and wide in efforts to recharge the GOP's fortunes for 1966 and beyond.

They are Rep. Gerald R. Ford, now in his fourth month as House minority leader, and Gov. George Romney, serving the first year of his second two-year term.

The restless, energetic, pipe-smoking Ford said today his main interest is "to sell the idea that the two-party system is in serious jeopardy." And the only effective way to restore the two-party system, he said, is to elect a Republican House in 1966.

The House now has 294 Democrats, 140 Republicans and one vacancy.

WON'T COMMENT

Ford brushes aside any thought that he might be a front man for Romney, Michigan's favorite-son candidate for President in 1964 and a potential candidate in 1968.

Ford declined to discuss potential 1968 Republican Presidential candidates.

"The most important job now," he said, "is to win control of the House in 1966 and help elect Republicans to the Senate."

"If we do this, it will be no job to get a first-class candidate for the presidency. If we do not do this, the question of who the candidate is will be academic, since the Republicans would not win."

MAKING SPEECHES

Ford has been busy in recent weeks making speeches to improve the party's position. He will address fellow Yale Law School alumni Friday in New Haven, Conn., and between now and June 26 he has 33 other engagements lined up from California to New England.

Romney now is touring Western Europe with a group of Michigan businessmen as a follow-up to a series of speeches he made before going abroad. This is in contrast to the way the governor spent much of his time during the early part of his first term.

Romney declines to discuss the possibility of his seeking the 1968 GOP Presidential nomination. But it is generally conceded he is in a good position to make a run for it.

Physician Goes Up in Airplane to Determine Potency of Pollen 'Fallout'

By ALTON BLAKESLEE

AP Science Writer

NEW YORK — With the aid of an airplane, a physician says he's found clues to help victims of hay fever and asthma.

The clues involve the way warm air currents and cool air carry around the pollen grains and mold spores triggering these ailments.

Atomic fallout is apparently moved about in much the same way, so "we are not helpless in our control of fallout" or of pollen, Dr. Herman A. Heise of Milwaukee, Wis., said today.

"We can avoid much of it by staying in the warmer city rather than in the cooler country. Smoke screens and the resulting clouds prevent radiation of heat, thus minimizing fallout," he told the Aerospace Medical Association.

"Our findings indicate we can prophesy pollen counts as accurately as we can prophesy the weather," he said. "Yesterday's (pollen) counts may be interesting, but tomorrow's estimate has practical value" for victims of hay fever.

Heise and associates, in a private plane, trapped and counted pollen grains and mold spores at heights up to 20,000 feet.

A simple mechanism, seemingly responsible for the rising and falling of these solid particles, he said.

"When the earth is heated by the sun, the lighter warmer air at the surface balloons upward through the cooler air, causing instability, and the upward currents carry the tiny solid particles into the clouds and haze layer," Heise said.

"At night with clear skies, conditions are reversed. The earth cools by radiation, so that the air above now is warmer than the air near the ground. Upward currents cease, and the now-stable air allows the particles to settle. The haze layer actually drifts earthward, carrying the particles with it."

Henry Lee of Virginia, at the request of Congress, delivered a eulogy of George Washington in December of 1799 containing the famous phrase, "First in war, first in peace, first in the hearts of his countrymen."

Junior Editors Quiz on BLOOD

QUESTION: What happens to the blood after the heart pumps it?

ANSWER: There are few things about our bodies which seem more miraculous than the circulation of the blood—that warm river inside of us which is constantly in motion, constantly working to keep us alive and full of energy.

It is the heart which supplies the power to push the blood around, for after blood enters the heart's chambers, it is suddenly forced out by the contraction of strong muscles.

Our illustration gives a suggestion of what happens then: the blood flows through tubes called arteries, carrying oxygen and food materials to all parts of the body.

Body cells take food and oxygen from the blood stream as it passes through smaller tubes, the capillaries, and in exchange put back waste materials which must be disposed of.

Soon the blood has delivered its valuable materials and is loaded with waste; then it returns to the heart by another system of tubes called veins.

In circulating, blood travels through tubes so small (capillaries) that the minute blood cells must pass through in single file.

It seems impossible to believe, but if you could lay your blood vessels (arteries, veins and capillaries) end to end, they would reach around the middle of the earth some four times.

FOR YOU TO DO: Lay the tips of the fingers of one hand lightly against the inner wrist of the other hand, just back of the lower mass of the thumb. By finding just the right spot, you can feel your blood thump by, pushed by the heart. Then think of the 100,000 miles of blood vessels inside your body and realize what a wonderful creature you are!

Mexico Campaign to Eliminate Illiteracy Paying Off

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico's nationwide "revolution through education" is being pushed hard by the administration, which hopes to eliminate illiteracy by 1970. Even if the goal is not reached, the drive is paying off. Mexico spends four times as much on education as it does on defense and efforts to educate the masses are massive, although the stork is a major problem. Illiteracy, running almost 80 per cent of the population at one time, is down to around 32 per cent. But Mexico's population has jumped from 15 million in 1900 to 40 million in half a century, and is growing at the rate of a million a year. So the percentage looks good, but the actual numbers don't.

Consequently, Prof. Ramon Tzonili, newly appointed director of the government's anti-illiteracy campaign, is pushing education in all fields — new schools, more teachers, radio and television programs, a national drive for more students, and even new teaching concepts.

ALL HELPING

Newspapers, television, radio, private industrial and fraternal groups, all are helping. School children ring doorbells looking for illiterates to enroll in a new 10-month course.

When the 1910 revolution ended, Mexican peasants wanted schools for their children almost as badly as they wanted land for themselves. President Alvaro Obregon launched Mexico's first major program for education in the early 1920s. He named Jose Vasconcelos education minister.

Vasconcelos put into operation a unique formula for rural education which continues to be the basis of the system today. Rural areas are the major problem.

Vasconcelos organized missionary teachers to visit rural areas by rail, car, horseback, canoe and on foot, surveying educational and health needs and recruiting the help of rural teachers. By the end of Obregon's term in 1924 there were more than 1,000 federal rural schools operating, with about 65,000 students, despite many handicaps.

LATEST FIGURES

The latest figures show there are 37,576 primary city schools with 6,605,751 students, and 22,931 primary rural schools with 2,694,191 students. In addition, there are secondary schools, many universities, including the huge National University, with more than 75,000 enrolled, and other centers.

But Mexico's battle has been complicated by the tremendous increase in population, about 3.1 per cent a year. In 1930 Mexico had 16.6 million people, today an estimated 40 million.

The death rate has decreased sharply, from 131.6 deaths in every 1,000 births in 1930 to about 11 deaths per thousand today.

Although the government has set up a five-year program hoping to educate all by 1970, officials acknowledge it may take a decade to provide adequate education for this ever-swelling tide of school-age children.

Bags and Boils

Flood Story Told in Sand

ROCK ISLAND, ILL. (AP) — In bags or boils, sand is the big story along the flooding Mississippi River.

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers has distributed nearly three million sandbags in its district stretching between Guttenberg, Iowa, and Hannibal, Mo.

Many of them have been used against sand boils — little pieces of leaky ground that, if left unattended, will bring down the mightiest earthen dike man can erect.

Boils usually appear at the edge of a dike. But engineers have said they can pop up 60 or more feet from the river edge. They are simply soft spots in the earth, said Col. Howard B. Coffman Jr., chief of the Engineers in the Rock Island District.

The river seeps under the dike

Weeks Of Back Pain Now Relieved

"After weeks of pain in my back and hips, I tried DeWitt's Pains-Ex and found relief."

DeWitt's Pains-Ex is a proven analgesic to relieve pain of backache. Their mild, natural action helps to eliminate retained fluids and flush out irritating bladder wastes that can cause physical distress. If pain persists, see your doctor. DeWitt's Pains-Ex often succeeds where others fail—quickly relieve minor muscle aches and pains, too. Insist on the genuine DeWitt's Pains-Ex.

Over 14 million DeWitt's Pains-Ex are sold by druggists day after day after day, the world over—a tribute to their amazing action!

Where do the bags come from? Mostly from the engineers, who have set up distribution centers in Pleasant Valley, Iowa, north of Bettendorf and Quincy, Ill. Coffman said.

What happens to them after the deluge subsides?

Coffman said: "They just are either left in place or they disintegrate—or they're picked up and thrown away."

Amish Pitch In to Aid Twister-Stricken Brethren

SHIPSHAWANA, Ind. (AP)—A barn, a day has become the byword of scores of Amish and Mennonite volunteers who streamed into northern Indiana to aid victims of Palm Sunday tornadoes.

Amish around Lancaster, Pa., organized a 150-man force to come to Amish communities in Lagrange, Elkhart and St. Joseph counties to repair and replace homes and farm buildings.

The first group of 50 arrived

Tip From Home Raider

WARLEY, England (UPI)—A raider broke into a home here last night, stole nothing, but left a note pinned to the back door reminding the occupants to be more careful in future and leave their windows locked.

This week and started the priority work of rebuilding the huge, two-story barns characteristic of the sect. An advance survey crew set the goal of one barn restored a day.

Other volunteers of both the Amish and Mennonite faiths have come from Illinois, Iowa, Ohio, Michigan, Virginia, Maryland and Canada.

STRICT CODES

Identified by their strict codes of conduct and plain dress, followers from modern labor saving machinery. Nevertheless, the complete devastation in some communities has lessened compliance. The bearded volunteers are manning power saws to get the job done more quickly. They welcome the friendly neighbor farmer who supplies a bulldozer.

The Lancaster volunteers are living with Amish families who escaped the vicious storms that left 134 persons dead and hundreds injured in Indiana. They stay through the week, returning home on Friday. Leaders plan to shuttle alternating groups of about 50 workers by bus each week until the reconstruction is complete.

The Amish do not subscribe to commercial insurance institutions. But maintain their own, based mainly on muscle. Families contribute small sums to a central committee for purchasing supplies when destruction hits. The principal ingredient is the labor which is volunteered.

Another relief agency is the Mennonite Disaster Service. Its volunteers put in 6,342 man days of labor in the first nine days after the April 11 disaster. They have worked on about 200 houses and farms.

PERSONAL EFFECTS

D. Lowell Nissley, an MDS director in Goshen, said, "The main concern is not that a man has lost his house, or personal belongings but what is happening to the person."

"When we clear a lawn or stack salvagable material, it is but a token of concern for the person. It is hoped this tangible act will help restore hope and courage and especially confidence in God."

Belcher, Gravlin Cases Had Many Parallels

By DON PEMBER

Within the span of four months, 14 persons died violently at the hands of two Oakland County men. Twelve of the victims were children.

The story of these crimes ended yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Today, one of the men, 30-year-old William Gravlin, sits in a small room at Jonia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane.

Sixty miles away, in the Southern Michigan State Prison at Jackson, a cell awaits 32-year-old Harry M. Belcher.

STRANGERS

The lives of William Gravlin and Harry Belcher never intersected. As far as it is known, they are strangers to one another.

For a moment, however, their minds paralleled and each took seven lives—crimes which shocked and shook a county.

Gravlin used an ax, hammer and shotgun to slay his wife, daughter and five stepchildren on a Sunday evening, Sept. 27.

The bodies were not found until two days later when Gravlin stopped a passing motorist to tell him, "I've killed my family."

KILLED FAMILY
A jury found Belcher guilty of setting the fire which gutted his Ferndale home and killed his family Jan. 25.

He was charged with murder Feb. 4 and sentenced to life in prison yesterday. Belcher consistently denied he set the fire.

The two men were different, yet threads of similarity ran through their lives.

Gravlin had lived most of his life in Troy. He was a factory worker.

MENTAL ILLNESS
He had a history of mental illness dating back several years. While he was in the Navy, he reportedly attempted suicide.

In 1961, Gravlin attacked his 20-year-old cousin with a five-inch-butcher knife.

Following this incident he had a brief stay at the St. Clair Hospital in Detroit and on Oct. 31, 1961, was admitted to Pontiac State Hospital.

In 1963, treatment was continued on an outpatient basis. During the summer of 1964 he was discharged from the hospital.

Belcher was not known to have had a history of mental illness.

MODEL FATHERS

Both men were pictured by friends and relatives as model fathers and wonderful husbands.

Gravlin's employer at Tempire Products, in Troy called him a good worker. Relatives said he sometimes worked two jobs to provide for his family.

The only words relatives spoke against the man was that he drank too much.

Persons at the Ferndale machine and supply company where Belcher worked called him a good father and husband.

DIVORCE
Divorce figured sharply in both crimes.

Gravlin said after the crime that he feared his wife was going to leave him. At the time Gravlin was arrested, Assistant County Prosecutor William Laug (who has since resigned) said "marital problems" were the reason behind the seven deaths.

Belcher admitted in court he was in love with a 20-year-old Hazel Park woman, Joyce Cross, and that the two of them had discussed the possibility of him getting a divorce.

Gravlin was examined by doctors and judged mentally competent to assist in his own defense.

LONG WAIT
But the long wait in jail — from October to January — played on his mind. Late in December he tried to commit suicide by rubbing his wrists on broken glass.

Then he demanded that his court appointed lawyer be dismissed from the case because he was "prejudiced."

He insisted he wasn't insane and that he would rather be sent to prison than to a hospital where people would think he was mad.

HE JOKED
When he was charged with murder, he joked with photographers and talked of cameras.

But as the wheels of justice rolled on swiftly, the pressure took its toll. On the witness stand he was relaxed and a matter-of-fact one minute; tense and nervous the next.

As he listened to the jury foreman read the verdict, "guilty men still worked in his smoldering home.

Seven-and-a-half miles — a 15-minute drive — bridge the gap between Gravlin's home at 2121 Garson and the shell of the Belcher residence at 446 N. Hazelhurst.

Alano Center Plans Anniversary Event

The Oakland County Alano Center, Inc., 1143 Joslyn, will celebrate its seventh anniversary this weekend with a three-day program featuring speakers at 8 p.m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The Alano Center was created seven years ago as an Alcoholics Anonymous Club to aid and assist alcoholics in their endeavor to obtain sobriety through lectures, discussion meetings, and coordination with other AA clubs.

Two years ago, the club re-organized and incorporated under the new name.

Since that time, the Alano Center has cooperated with churches, legal authorities, high schools, civic and other interested groups in treating alcoholics.

Friday's meeting will feature Ed L. who "drank up a million dollars."

POPULAR SPEAKER
Saturday, it will be Tiny M., one of AA's most popular speakers. Sunday night the group will have as speaker a man known as Bob B. of Owosso.

All will tell how they became alcoholics and how they overcame the illness.

The public is invited.

DEATH HOUSES — Death stalked through these two Oakland County homes, killing two mothers and 12 children. The home on the left, at 446 N. Hazelhurst, Ferndale, was the residence of the Harry Belcher family. Belcher was convicted

Pontiac School Affairs

New Principal Appointed

Bert VanKoughnett, 32, of 156 Dwight has been appointed principal of McConnell Elementary School for 1966-66.

The appointment was made last night as the Pontiac School Board met in regular session.

VanKoughnett, who is currently acting director of elementary education, will replace Thomas Temple, 30 Oak Hill, who is retiring at the end of this school year.

The new appointee has 10 years of experience as a teacher and principal. Prior to his temporary appointment as acting elementary education director he was the principal of Mark Twain School.

Gerald White, former director of elementary education, will return from a year's leave of absence during which he was connected with the Overseas School Staff in the Far East.

ADDITION PLANNED
In other action last night the board set in motion plans for the construction of a four-classroom addition at Kennedy Junior High School.

The educators asked the firm of O'Dell, Hewlett and Luckenbach to prepare working drawings for the $110,000 addition.

The construction will be financed primarily from difference realized between the cost estimates and contracts on the additions at Frost and Alcott schools.

Expansion of the policy for denying students the privilege of attending school was also discussed last night.

SUSPENSION POLICY

The policy, which was first adopted in September of 1961, provides that students may be suspended from school for such things as smoking, stealing, fighting, truancy, insubordination and six other offenses.

The school administration proposed that students might also be denied the privilege of attending school for possessing or using weapons or for borrowing money, without obtaining permission from the school principal.

School board members felt that the section covering borrowing money, which was designed to stop undesirable borrowing (borrowing under threat or borrowing with no intention of repayment) would penalize students who were borrowing money for a worthwhile purpose.

Board member Victor Sutt said he felt this rule could punish the student who had to borrow a dime to call home or to borrow to replace forgotten lunch money.

POLICY CHANGE

The administration said they would work on the policy change during the next two weeks and present it again at the next board meeting, May 12.

The school board also heard a report from Dr. Lee Haslinger, director of physical education, athletics and recreation, on project "Head Start."

This project has been initiated by the federal government and is operated under the general provisions of the Economic Opportunity Act.

The Pontiac School District has proposed a $122,000 program to the Federal government and should know by May 10 whether it will receive $98,000 in federal support.

PRESCHOOL CLASSES

The plan, according to Haslinger, calls for seven weeks of half-day sessions for nearly 600 prekindergarten children.

Forty classes will be established and 20 teachers will be used in 12 schools during the summer.

In addition to attempting to breach the gap between the early years and kindergarten, Haslinger said this program will provide health care under social welfare and nutrition programs.

Excited Teller Aids Thief

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Barbara Coffman, a teller at the Suburban National Bank, said she was so excited she couldn't find the switch to turn on the automatic camera which is supposed to take pictures of bank robbers.

A lone bandit got about $6,000 from Mrs. Coffman in a quiet stickup at the bank yesterday.

Mrs. Coffman said, "He came up to the booth, threw a paper sack on the counter, and said: 'Keep smiling lady, and keep filling that up with the green stuff.'"

Mrs. Coffman said he told her he had a gun, but she didn't see it. About 15 other employees were unaware of the robbery until the man left by the front door and disappeared.

Way Sought to Heal Rights Bill Split

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate leaders worked on compromise language today for the anti-poll tax provision which has divided supporters of the administration's voting rights bill.

GOP leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., and Democratic leader Mike Mansfield, Mont., continued sessions in an attempt to come up with a substitute proposal which would satisfy both camps in the ranks of senators seeking passage of a bill to guarantee Negroes the vote.

The poll tax provision, as written into the bill in committee by liberal senators, calls for an outright ban on all such levies. It has come under fire as being on doubtful constitutional grounds.

Dirksen indicated that the compromise language would seek to provide for suspension of poll taxes in cases where they were shown to be discriminatory, but would not call for a blanket ban.

The liberals appeared in no mood to embrace a compromise, however.

MORE REASON

They said the Supreme Court's action earlier this week in striking down a Virginia law passed as a substitute for the already-outlawed poll taxes in federal elections gave them further reason to press for a ban against the taxes in state and local contests.

The latest developments came as Southern senators continued their attack on the constitutionality of the entire bill in floor debate.

Gas Pipeline Break Brings Evacuation

CONROE, Tex. (AP) — Residents of an eight-block area evacuated their homes after a butane gas pipeline broke Wednesday night.

A Magnolia pipeline crew from Houston found the break before midnight and began repairs.

The oil company, of which Magnolia is a subsidiary, housed evacuated families in a hotel for the night.

Close 15 Miles of M66 for Widening Project

STANTON (AP) — Closed last summer but reopened for the winter months, M66 has been blocked off again from here southward to M44 in a widening project. The 15-mile stretch will be available to traffic Aug. 1 whether work is completed or not, highway officials said. A detour now begins six miles north of Ionia.

Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., said that progress was slow, but that he planned to finish next week if he had to go into night sessions to do it.

Dirksen, after a meeting with Mansfield yesterday on the poll tax issue, said he saw little comfort in the court ruling on the Virginia case. He indicated the question would finally be settled by votes on the floor.

PLAN APPROACH

The GOP leader also disclosed that he and Mansfield were working on additional language to strengthen the bill's approach to its objective of getting Negroes on the voting rolls.

Under consideration, he said, was a provision that would let the Justice Department go into court 30 days before an election to demand the listing as eligible voters of all persons who had not been registered and whose eligibility had not been successfully challenged.

As now written, the bill provides for federal examiners to declare persons eligible and place them on voting lists in cases where local officials do not.

It also would strike down literacy tests and other devices that have been used to discriminate against Negroes.

TRAFFIC WOES — In this Saigon tangle of autos, buses and pedal taxis, the pedestrian is the lowest form of life. Saigon seems safe from the Viet Cong, so a local tale goes, because they aren't able to fight their way through the traffic.

Walking on Saigon Streets Worse Than Dodging Cong?

By HAL BOYLE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — In war-torn South Viet Nam, you may take your life in your hands if you venture far outside Saigon. But if you do much walking inside Saigon, you take your life in your feet. There is no such thing as an innocent bystander here. Particularly if he is a pedestrian, he is fair game for all and the only time he isn't in danger of being run down is during the curfew hours between 2 and 4 a.m. If he is abroad then, he is only in danger of being shot by the police.

to brush him out of the way with your bumper." The traffic here is picturesque as well as impossible. The streets are a rolling museum of the history of wheeled vehicles. Your status depends on whether you own your vehicle, what kind of wheels it has and how much it costs. At the bottom of the social totem pole is the cyclist driver who wears a conical hat and operates a pedal taxi resembling a bike pushing a wheel chair. The cycle drivers are widely suspected of including many secret enemy Viet Cong agents — a reasonable assumption, as that kind of job could turn a saint into a Communist.

A near record recently was set by another motorcyclist who put-putted through the traffic with six members of his family aboard. He was disqualified, however, when his grandmother tumbled off as he made a sudden sharp left against a red light. But French government sources said Red China was doing everything in its power to block a conference on Cambodia, including putting heavy pressure on the Cambodian chief of state, Prince Norodom Sihanouk.

It is said that one reason the besieging Viet Cong haven't taken Saigon is that after reaching the outskirts of the city they decided it would be hopeless to try to fight their way through the traffic. Saigon traffic is famous throughout the Far East. It starts early in the morning and, except for a three-hour siesta break, continues until it gets too dark to see a pedestrian. If you strike one and are found at fault you must pay his hospital or funeral costs. Rules of the road prohibit a motorist from pursuing the pedestrian across sidewalks or into public buildings. "Actually you rarely see a pedestrian or bicyclist badly injured," remarked a motorist who has won an unsafe driver's badge with three oak leaf clusters. "The main idea is merely

From this social, basement your prestige rises with the quality of your wheels. It goes up from the cyclist to the motorcyclist to the cab owner to the man who owns his car or even better is driven by a government chauffeur. The cabbies of Paris are regarded as Europe's wildest steersmen. But in Saigon, everybody drives as if he were a jockey whipping his mount home in a $100,000 handicap race. The goal is to bluff the other driver into turning chicken. The horn is as important as the steering wheel. Brakes are for sissies. Motorcycle owners pride themselves on the number of people they can get on their vehicles. I saw one man and his wife barreling along holding three children as they discussed the world situation in Chinese.

Red China Blocking Cambodia Talks

PARIS (UPI) — France and Russia have agreed to back the idea of a Cambodian conference but are running into stiff opposition from Communist China. French government sources said today. The sources were reporting on a series of talks between visiting Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve De Murville and other government officials. Gromyko is due to fly back to Moscow tomorrow. The sources said two concrete developments have emerged from the Gromyko talks so far. One was the agreement which meant, in effect, that France and Russia have joined the United States and Britain in endorsing the idea of a conference on Cambodian independence which could be expanded to include discussions on the Viet Nam crisis.

Sihanouk, who has urged a conference aimed at guaranteeing Cambodia's neutrality, indicated recently he would not go along with any plans to discuss other problems, such as the Viet Nam crisis.

The French-Russian talks have ranged over a wide field, including Viet Nam and Southeast Asia in general, European security, disarmament, Germany, the future of Europe and of the United Nations, plus purely Franco-Soviet problems.

Kids Want Roles Changed; They Would Make Decisions

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We have three daughters, 11, 15 and 17, who can't wait until they reach the age when they will be their "own boss."

In your opinion is there such an age? I believe you once said there was not, and you listed a few accomplishments a girl had to achieve before she could be her own "boss."

I would appreciate your reviewing that list.

A MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: In order to be one's own boss (in my opinion) a girl must be able to leave her parents' home, pay for her own clothing, insurance, and medical and dental care, and pay for the continuance of her own education, transportation and recreation. Then she has the privilege of choosing her own company, making her own decisions and being her own "boss."

DEAR ABBY: In your column you stated that the widow who removed her wedding ring is thereby telling the world that she is "looking."

I cannot speak for other widows but, in my case, nothing could be further from the truth. When my husband died a year ago, after 30 years of happiness, I placed MY wedding ring on HIS finger as a token of my undying love for him.

My wedding ring had never been removed from the time he placed it on my finger during our wedding ceremony.

We are both of Irish descent, and it is an old Irish custom. It has been observed by all the women in both our families as far back as we can remember. And I know many ringless widows who share my feelings.

Furthermore, I resent such sweeping generalities.

RINGLESS BUT NOT LOOKING

DEAR RINGLESS: No offense intended. I should have used the word "available."

You are not, but other widows without rings possibly are. Thank you for your enlightening letter.

DEAR ABBY: Thank you for telling that mother whose 23-year-old son wanted to marry a 23-year-old widow that the marriage could work. If that "older" woman loves her 23-year-old husband half as much as I love MY husband, the mother should be grateful.

My husband is 20 and I am 31. We've been married two months and my young husband has taught me more about living and being a mature woman, wife and mother, than anyone in my life.

He proudly refers to his 12-year-old stepson as "my son." The children adore him and I worship him.

He has done more for us than either of my two former husbands. (You see, I was no prize package.)

I would go to the ends of the earth and back for this man.

PROUD TO BE HIS WIFE

DEAR PROUD: Congratulations but, in my book, you are still on your honeymoon. If, after ten YEARS, you can write the above letter, I would say you had it made.

It's not difficult to understand why a twice-married, 31-year-old divorcee with three children would worship a young man who would marry her and adopt her children.

Be good to him. He's one in a million.

OU Library to Be Scene of Annual Event

Richard Harwell, librarian at Bowdoin College and noted Civil War scholar, will be the main speaker for the annual meeting of Oakland University's Friends of Kresge Library on Tuesday.

The dinner meeting to be held in the Kresge Library will include election of officers.

Mrs. L. E. Quinn, Mrs. George Widdfield, and Mrs. C. W. Parcels are in charge of planning the annual meeting.

Harwell is nationally known as the author of many books and pamphlets, most of them related to the Civil War period.

Before joining the Bowdoin College staff in 1961, he was associate executive director of the American Library Association and executive secretary of the Association of College and Research Libraries.

Facts were presented concerning "Pockets of Poverty," why they exist, where they are, how they can be eliminated, and whose job it is to work for their elimination.

Education for jobs in the rapidly changing society where more skills are required by most workers was pointed up as a solution to unemployment.

HEIH Sets a Meeting

The newly organized Home Economists in Homemaking (HEIH) group will have its second meeting Tuesday, 8 p.m. at the Mott Center of Oakland University.

Officers will be elected at this time and plans completed to affiliate with both the Michigan and the American Home Economics Associations.

Mrs. Samuel Greenwald from the OU speakers bureau will speak on the many roles of women today.

Any home economist in the area is welcome to attend this meeting. Further information may be had from Mrs. Robert Clegg of Rochester.

LWV Hears Panel

A panel on "Human Resources, Are They Utilized or Wasted?" was presented by members of the League of Women Voters of Pontiac (LWV). The discussion took place in the Cherokee Room of the Mott Foundation's community affairs program.

Panel members included Mrs. John Rorsvold, Mrs. E. C. Carlson and Lillian Davidson.

Facts were presented concerning "Pockets of Poverty," why they exist, where they are, how they can be eliminated, and whose job it is to work for their elimination.

Education for jobs in the rapidly changing society where more skills are required by most workers was pointed up as a solution to unemployment.

Representatives Mrs. George Gray and Julia Dalzell were among the local league's representatives at the County Home Rule Symposium at the Oakland County Court House last week.

The forum was the first of the Mott Foundation's community affairs program.

Guests present were Mrs. Hartley Bray, Mrs. Cameron Clark and Mary Lou Austen.

The next membership meeting is scheduled for May 27 at 7:45 p.m. in the United Services Building on Franklin Boulevard.

SPOKE

Mrs. Nellie Monroe, Christian outreach director, Mrs. C. W. Burroughs and Mrs. Frank Deaver, public relations directors for Livingston and Oakland Counties, respectively, presented a report of their departments.

Mrs. Edward Bradley gave the welcome to the group. Her union the Mary Norton, was the hostess unit at the noon cooperative dinner.

The Loyal Temperance Legion, sponsored by the Anna Gordon Union, had an alcohol exhibit displayed for the event of "Youth Temperance Education Week."

Mrs. Russell Perkins, Sharon Street (right), incoming president of the council and member of Xi Gamma Alpha, welcomes a new pledge to Zeta Eta chapter. Mrs. Theodore Cowdrey lives on Mohawk Road.

New Counselor

Gives Help to Ailing Marriages

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the first of two articles on Oakland County's new marriage counseling service in connection with the Circuit Court. Material comes from Mrs. Margarita Davis, marriage counselor.)

Oakland County has a high divorce rate—more than 2,600 in 1964—and the number of new cases increases by about 200 every year. Six thousand children under 18 years of age were involved in last year's cases.

In an attempt to stem this alarming tide, a marriage counseling service was set up about six months ago as an arm of the Circuit Court. Since that time, Mrs. Margarita Davis, the marriage counselor, has seen 292 cases involving 354 children.

SOME SUCCESSES

"I have been able to effect a reconciliation in about 35 per cent of the cases," said Mrs. Davis, "but about 15 per cent have been irreconcilable and in fairness to the children and the persons involved, I have recommended divorce even though I deny it."

In these cases, she says she tries to counsel the parents to handle the situation with the least harm to the children.

Most of the cases are referred to Mrs. Davis from judges, attorneys and the friends of the court, usually after action has been filed but before it comes to trial. Many cases are referred before action is filed.

"There is more hope for a reconciliation before the action is filed," said Mrs. Davis. "Once the couple is separated, each forms new attachments and after they get into court, they have these additional problems as well as the fundamental ones."

She said that referrals usually are only made when one of the partners indicates he or she isn't happy about getting a divorce.

HELP IS AVAILABLE

"We find in general," she said, "that divorce is filed out of frustration, and not knowing what other step to take. These people are not aware that there are people in the community available to help them."

"Marriage counselors look on divorce as a kind of 'closing of the casket.' It is the death knell of the marriage. After all, if you're sick, you don't go to the undertaker to see if you can be cured."

Mrs. Davis said she feels the major cause of divorce is the "basic personality incompatibility." She said that many of the causes commonly blamed, such as alcohol, infidelity, etc., are "fundamentally predicated on personality disorders."

"If divorce cases involved only alcoholics wife beaters and philanderers, the courts wouldn't be very full," she said. "The main complaints are mental cruelty and incompatibility which cover whatever the human mind can think up."

NO PATTERN

She said the divorce cases come from across the county and that there is no correlation between divorce and income, race, religion or age. She sees couples who have only been married a year, and others who have been married 30 years.

Mrs. Davis said she thinks that the percentage of men who are filing for divorce is increasing, but that they are doing so on realistic grounds such as child neglect, adultery or alcoholism.

"I don't think there are many men who really want to break up their homes," she said, "or who will do so on a whim."

"I think it's getting to the point, that women will just file overnight. Our society glamorizes the American woman, but these women feel there is just no glamour in wearing old house dresses, scrubbing floors and watching children."

Check Eggs for Grade

It pays to buy graded eggs, sold in cartons and kept refrigerated from nest to shopper's basket.

Eggs are classified by size according to quality grade. U.S. AA and A grades mean top quality—good for all uses but most appreciated when cooked in shell, fried or poached.

U.S. B and C grades mean good eggs for dishes in which appearance and delicate flavoring are not so important. The color of the egg shell makes no difference.

Polish With Potato

If you run out of silver polish, you can clean tarnished silver by rubbing it with slices of raw potato that have been dipped in baking soda, then rinsing and drying with a soft, clean cloth.

Little Girls—Big Talents

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP)—Kimberly Jo Goldsmith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Goldsmith, is barely four years old, but she takes her embroidery work with her wherever she goes. Right now she is working on a colored-thread picture of "Little Red Riding Hood."

But Kimberly Jo has nothing on another four-year-old local miss, Linda Kay Zahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Zahn.

She is knitting herself a pocketbook. When it is finished she plans to knit a sweater for her grandfather, Charles DeVaney.

Her grandfather, who babysits with Linda while her mother works, taught her to knit.

Mr. and Mrs. Max A. Francis of Polvadera Street, Commerce Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharlyn to Larry Johnson, son of the Clyde Johnsons of Penarth Street, Commerce Township.

Why Grow Old?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

I had a most interesting talk the other day with Dr. Clifton Reeder, vice president and medical director of one of the largest insurance companies in the country.

As consultant for the company's over-65 health insurance program (one of the largest in the world) he has developed some very interesting and constructive ideas about how to prepare for vital older years.

He told me that he became interested in this because he noticed that there was an unusual number of deaths, far out of proportion to the usual mortality rates, among those around the ages of 63, 64 and 65. He wondered why this was so.

His study and investigation led him to some definite beliefs.

He feels that the sudden and complete halt from an active life at retirement may weaken the body and spirit to such an extent that people are extremely susceptible to sickness during the first few years after retirement.

DETERIORATE RAPIDLY

He discovered that even those who enter this phase of life in good health deteriorate rapidly if they have nothing planned for this time. Dr. Reeder said unless there has been some brain disease, persons of this age are sharper than they ever were before. However, folks must have keen interests.

They must have some demands made upon them. They must have something they have to do. The body responds to this with health and the mind remains alert.

He said, "A person doesn't have to have a new business or a new job. There are so many things to be active in and interested in.

There are churches and civic, cultural and philanthropic organizations, many of them begging for volunteer workers. But, a man should not wait until 65. He should become interested in such activities in his 50s and then spend more time that way when he retires."

SLOWER AT 55

Dr. Reeder feels that around the age of 55 most people slow down a bit (they have minor physical problems, the business world gets rougher, is a tougher challenge) and they begin to look forward to retirement when they will not have to meet any rigid requirements.

They concentrate so much on this thought that they do not plan or prepare for that time and when they have lots of leisure they do not know what to do with it.

I suggested that women have somewhat the same problem when their children all leave home. He agreed with me that they also should prepare for that time by broadening their interests BEFORE the children leave.

Dr. Reeder thinks that more women should become active in politics because many of them have more time than men do for it. Mrs. Reeder was an active worker in the last presidential campaign with his enthusiastic approval.

At any rate, this experienced, intelligent and articulate physician warns against coming into retirement or new leisure without planning ahead for it.

If you would like to have my long list of hobbies, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Golden Aged at the YWCA came to the Tuesday meeting wearing hats of their own making. The results were fantastic. At the left is Mrs. Nettie Carr, Osceola Drive, whose sense of humor came to the fore when she designed her Easter bunny chapeau. Mrs. Adele Allen, Lincoln Avenue, received a majority vote for the prettiest hat. Don't you agree that it is fetching?

Ancestors Had Raisins

NEW YORK (UPI) — Prehistoric paintings show that raisins were known to our early ancestors.

The famous murals at Lascaux, France, reveal raisins existed prehistorically in France and the Mediterranean area. Cave dwellers attributed religious or magic power to raisins, some anthropologists believe.

The prehistoric paintings show raisins being worn as necklaces, bracelets and other decorations.

Meter Minders

DEAR POLLY — I am a den mother always on the lookout for ideas for things the boys can make.

We have found making "meter minders" one of our best projects.

Use plastic pill containers with snap on lids. Punch or drill two small holes in each lid and insert a key chain through the holes in the top.

The following poem is typed and the paper placed in a bottle with the printed side out.

Keep me filled with nickels
And you will never be stuck
When you pull up at a meter
With no change but half a buck.

The container is filled with nickels and hung over the automobile direction signal lever or gear shift so it is handy. The key rings were given us by the telephone company.

MRS. K. K. K.

DEAR POLLY — Readers who use return address stickers for their correspondence would find their correspondents very pleased if they enclosed one of the stickers in the letter, especially if your address has changed recently.

Girls — I think Ed's idea would be very good to acquaint our correspondents with our zip code numbers. It is impossible for me to remember even those of my own children. — POLLY.

DEAR POLLY — My Pointer

The engagement is announced of Margaret Shelton, daughter of Mrs. Lena Shelton of Curwood Street and Veachel Shelton of Hartford Street to Michael Marion. His parents are the Charles D. Marions of North Cass Lake Road. July vows are planned.

Tinted Shirt Flatters Men

A man's skin tone looks better in tinted shirts for day, says one men's wear designer.

Ron Postal, of Beverly Hills, do a more flattering job of reflecting light.

He recommended pale Calif., said the colored shirts blues, yellows, tans and pinks.

Keep Yolks Centered

Pack eggs small 'end down to keep yolk centered.

An egg carton or covered container helps prevent loss of moisture through porous shell.

Eggs should be refrigerated to keep quality well, but should not be washed before being refrigerated.

Need Lot of Light for Night Studying

A child's place of study should be well-lighted if he studies after dark.

A dark green blotter on the top of a desk or table will cut down the glare from a light on a highly-polished surface.

Use Pretty Thread

Make your children's garments extra attractive by sewing the buttons on with colored embroidery thread.

Well-Dressed Broom Attends the Shower

By MADELEINE DOEREN
Not a slave, not a scarecrow, here's 'Ursula', the bride's little helper and the star attraction at a shower party.

Besides being a conversation-piece, 'Ursula' is a practical, well-dressed lady. When not displaying gifts for the bride-to-be, she stands meekly in the broom-closet.

There's backbone and character in her slim 'body' even when it's placed upside-down in a hearty 25-cup party percolator of Fiesta-patterned cookware. Rolls of paper towel keep her in upright position.

Since each guest invited to bring or share in a gift, she should be a friend of the honoree and would be among those invited to the wedding.

An exception would be if the ceremony is limited to family members.

The sharing of a shower by several friends can cut down on the number of affairs if it appears that too many will be given for the same person, with virtually the same guest list.

There are 'no strings' attached to the bridal tea or luncheon which now rival the shower in popularity. The future bridegroom may be invited to a cocktail party, patio buffet or barbecue for couples.

Advise Caution When Using Aerosol Cans

During spring clean-up activities, be careful how you use aerosol cans, says Mary A. Hardy, Oakland County Extension agent, home economics.

Spray paints, lacquers, insecticides and other toxic aerosol products should be used only where there is good ventilation. Any products containing carbon tetrachloride are especially dangerous to health if inhaled. Alcohol intensifies the poisoning effects, and should not be consumed within 24 hours before or after using carbon tetrachloride.

If you feel dizzy, drowsy, or nauseated while using spray products, stop work immediately.

Before discarding the can, depress the valve until all pressure is released. Never throw empty aerosol cans in the fire, since the gas contained in the can may cause an explosion.

Recently a neighbor had a fire which totally destroyed her kitchen. Two aerosol cans which were in the cupboard exploded in the fire and were firmly embedded in the kitchen wall.

Remember that intense heat from the stove, radiator, or even from the sun can cause the cans to explode.

Children enjoy using aerosol products. A family lesson on the safe use of these cans is advisable.

'Ursula's' outstretched arms are made of a yardstick secured with string. The 'hands' are a gaily-decorated porcelain-on-steel skillet balanced by a chubby teakettle in matching design.

Dishcloths, kitchen towels or pot-holders are hung on the arms.

EVEN A HAT

Pieces of felt make 'Ursula's' features and her hat, set at a jaunty angle, is a saucepan. The earrings could be a wire whip, mixing spoon, vegetable-peeler, or any small gadget.

A perky apron forms the skirt with pocket to hold kitchen scissors, spoons and the indispensable can-opener.

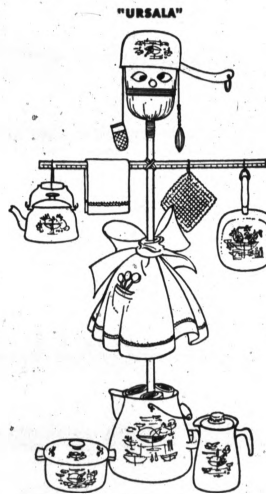

From The Good Housekeeping Institute comes an idea for presenting kitchen grocery gifts in a folding grocery cart. Even the best costs no more than five or six dollars.

It saves many a casualty in toting heavy grocery loads from car to house.

If the gifts are not too heavy, why not pile them on the shelves of a tea cart with inflated balloons tied to its handle? The hostess with a small daughter could have her wheel the cart in at just the right moment.

RELATIVES? NO!

Etiquette dictates that a bridal shower should never be given by the mother, sister or grandmother of the bride-to-be, nor by a member of the prospective bridegroom's immediate family.

Crust Is Baked First

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Here is a recipe that is simple, quick and a bit different. The reader who sent it in said she obtained it in Canada in 195. It was reputedly made for Princess Margaret when she visited there.

1/2 cup sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 tablespoon butter

Birthmarks Often Leave by Selves

If your baby develops a pink birthmark about a week after birth, don't panic. Chances are it will eventually disappear by the time your child is five to seven years old.

This is the good news from Dr. A. M. Margileth, Chief Pediatric Service at the U.S. Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Maryland.

Dr. Margileth notes that the "strawberry" birthmark usually appears one week after birth, widens for about six months, then grows at the same rate as the child.

Less than five per cent of 340 such birthmarks studied by the physician tripled in size and only five continued to grow a bit during the second year of observation.

Dr. Margileth agrees with a British colleague that "masterful inactivity" is the best treatment for such birthmarks... although it is desirable that a child be seen by a doctor from time to time to reassure the parents.

Wearing white silk organza and Chantilly lace with illusion veil, Shirley Lee Brokenshaw recently became Mrs. Gerald Royal Foodick in St. Paul's Methodist Church, Rochester. Their parents are the Carlton T. Brokenshaws, Asen Township, Edwin Foodick, Rochester, and the late Mrs. Foodick. Mrs. Martin Burkhardt and Linda Foodick attended the bride at the vows spoken before Rev. Horace L. James. With Richard Walker, best man, were Ronnie Arcand, John Ojala and John Murphy. After a reception in Avoondale Township Hall, the couple left for a northern honeymoon.

The Lynn Darryl Hamiltons (M. Mary Przeklasa) who were wed recently in Christ Lutheran Church, South Hadley, Mich. will live in Chesaning after a Florida honeymoon. Their parents are the Michael Przeklasas of Utica and the B. L. Hamiltons of Ortonville. The bride wore white pea taffeta with Watteau train, and carried white roses and Stephanotis. Her attendants were Mrs. Bert Vandijk, Utica; Mrs. Loran Hamilton, Holly and Gwen Hamilton. Michael Lewis and Terry Greening ushered for their classmate at Michigan State University. Loran Hamilton was best man.

Shirley Rice, L. E. Zellen Take Vows

Shirley Marie Rice and Lawrence Eugene Zellen were wed recently in St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church, St. Clair Shores.

Daughter of the George A. Rices of St. Clair Shores, the bride appeared in white silk organza with lace jacket and chapel train. She donned an illusion veil and held cascading white carnations.

Attending the bride at the ceremony performed by Rev. Daniel Bogus, were Rose Marie Orosz, Sandra Dennis of Ferndale and Janice Haebrouck of Utica.

James Zellen was his brother's best man. They are the sons of the Eugene H. Zellen of Fieldbrook Road, West Bloomfield Township.

Robert Brook, Lathrup Village and George Rice were ushers.

The newlyweds will live in Royal Oak while he completes his studies at Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Chiffon Pies Appeal to Women

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

We tend to call any pie with a fluffy filling a chiffon pie. Strictly speaking, it would only be one made with gelatin.

You won't find recipes for this type of pie in old cookbooks or foreign ones. It is a 20th century, American creation. It's one that has a firm place in the list of favorite desserts.

Lighter than regular pies, but rarely with fewer calories, chiffon pies are popular with women. Some men—the Better Half included—consider them a waste of time to eat.

We have three chiffon pie recipes for you today. Only the first one is made with gelatin, strange to say. But they all sound delicious.

SKY HIGH LIME PIE

Crust
2½ cups puffed oat cereal
¼ cup sugar
¼ cup melted butter or margarine
¼ cup finely chopped pecans

Filling

2 envelopes plain gelatin
½ cup cold water
1 cup boiling water
¼ cup sugar
1 can (6 ounce) frozen lime-concentrate ¼ teaspoon salt

3 to 4 drops green food coloring
¼ cup chilled, undiluted evaporated milk
Roll puffed oat cereal until very fine (makes 1½ cups crumbs). Combine crust ingredients and mix thoroughly with pastry blender. Pack crumbs evenly over bottom and sides of a buttered 9-inch pie plate.

Heat in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 5 minutes. Remove from oven and press crumbs down firmly with back of a spoon. Chill. Prepare filling.

Soften gelatin in cold water. Add boiling water; stir until gelatin is dissolved. Stir in sugar, undiluted lime-concentrate, salt and green coloring; mix well. Chill until consistency of thick syrup. Whip milk until stiff; stir in thickened gelatin.

Pour into chilled crust. Chill until firm. Yield: One 9-inch pie.

Graham cracker crusts are often used with chiffon pies. You can now buy prepared crumb crust mix which you pour into a pan and press into place.

FROZEN LEMON PIE

1 package graham cracker crust mix
3 eggs, separated
½ cup sugar
1 cup whipping cream, whipped
¼ cup lemon juice

2 teaspoons grated lemon peel
Prepare nine-inch graham cracker crust as directed on package, reserving 2 tablespoons crumb mixture for garnish. Beat egg whites until frothy. Gradually beat in sugar, a little at a time; continue beating until stiff and glossy.

Beat egg yolks until thick; fold into egg white mixture. Fold in whipped cream, lemon juice and peel. Pour into graham cracker crust. Sprinkle reserved crumbs over top.

Freeze. Remove from freezer about 15 minutes before serving. Eight servings.

COFFEE PIE

Tart and Bland Tastes in Salad

There's something very fashionable about molded salads, especially to the female eye. They're neat, sleek and shiny, and women know that eye-appeal plays an important part in the art of dining well—and tastefully.

Avocados are a very chic fruit, and a great favorite among true gourmets. And people who know food know how delightfully the sparkling freshness of citrus fruits combines with the avocado's creamy, nut-like flavor.

This Citrus Avocado Mold looks elegant and tastes divine, and it's easier to make than it might appear. Zesty fresh grapefruit juice blends with unflavored gelatin, mayonnaise, salt, mashed avocado and whipped cream to form the simple mixture.

The touch of grapefruit juice is just enough to enhance but not overwhelm the delicate avocado flavor.

When the mold is ready to be served, fresh grapefruit sections, avocado slices and cooked shrimp are arranged attractively around it on the platter.

Generally, avocados you buy at the market are quite firm, so it may be necessary to ripen them at room temperature.

If you do buy ripe ones, but want to keep them a day or two store in the vegetable crisper of your refrigerator.

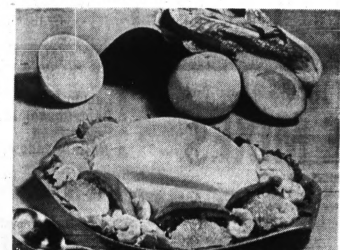

To tell when the fruit is ripe, insert a toothpick in the stem end; if it goes in easily, it's ready for eating. Or cup it gently between both hands; if it yields softly, it's ripe.

To keep avocado slices from discoloring, sprinkle or brush them with a bit of grapefruit juice.

Citrus Avocado Mold
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
½ cup water
¼ cup grapefruit juice
1 cup mayonnaise
½ teaspoon salt
1½ cups mashed avocado
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
Salad greens, grapefruit sections, sliced avocado
1 pound shrimp, cooked, shelled and deveined
Sprinkle gelatin over water in saucepan to soften; place over low heat, stirring constantly until gelatin is dissolved. Add grapefruit juice.

Chill until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg white; add mayonnaise, salt, and avocado. Fold in whipped CITRUS AVOCADO MOLD — For a refreshing change of pace, everyone will love this elegant Citrus Avocado Mold, zested with fresh Florida grapefruit juice and sections. Served with shrimp, it can be a main course salad.

Boiled Chicken Is Simple and Tasty

Chicken is boiled in the Chinese manner.

Boiled Chicken
3 pound (ready-to-cook) whole roasting chicken
1 quart water
1 rib celery with leaves
1 pared carrot and 1 small peeled onion
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon monosodium glutamate

Wash chicken; truss or bend wings back akimbo and tie legs together.

Boil gently, covered, with the remaining ingredients for 30 minutes; turn once during cooking; allow to stand off heat for 30 minutes. Drain chicken, remove string and carve.

Strain broth — there should be at least 3 cups; use part or all of it for Caper Sauce to serve with chicken. Makes 8 servings.

Shred First, Then Chill

One of the secrets of making a good cabbage salad is shredding the cabbage ahead of meal time and topping it with ice cubes. When ready to combine with dressing and other ingredients, drain off melted water and dry between paper or clean cloth towel.

It can be stuffed in tomatoes or green peppers. It adds crunchiness to meat sandwiches or hamburger.

Sour cream, salad or mayonnaise, sweet and sour dressing, pepped up with an herb or spice changes the familiar cabbage salad to something new.

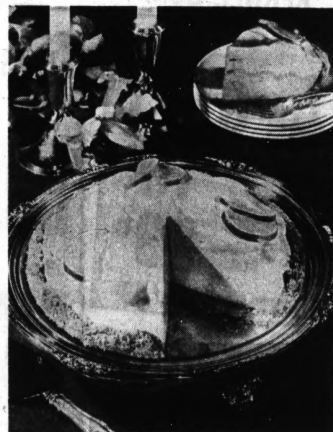

Pretty Parfait

Prepare a package of pink grapefruit gelatin as directed. Chill until slightly thickened. Whip until fluffy and d thick but still soft. Alternate gelatin in parfait glasses with colorful drained canned fruit cocktail and coarsely cut cooked prunes.

1½ teaspoons vanilla
1 tablespoon instant decaffeinated coffee
1 envelope whipped topping mix
¼ cup butter
¼ cup granulated sugar
2 eggs
1 baked (9-inch) coconut crumb crust, chilled

Combine milk, vanilla, coffee, and whipped topping mix in a small deep bowl. Stir to blend. Then whip at high speed of electric mixer or with a rotary beater until mixture forms soft peaks.

Cream butter and sugar together until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Beat at high speed for about 5 minutes.

Creole Shrimp Is Colorful Dish

This shrimp creole recipe from Louisiana is a superb solution to needless days. In fact, you will be proud to serve it to your family and friends any day of the week, any time of the year.

The secret of this tasty dish is in the sauce. It is a flavorful combination of seasonings, yet easy to prepare. You probably have most of the ingredients on hand.

If you want to win compliments, feature this shrimp creole recipe on your dinner table. The shrimp floating amid the colorful sauce on a bed of hot cooked rice makes a wonderful centerpiece.

Louisiana Shrimp Creole

1 can (4 ounces) mushroom pieces, drained
½ cup minced celery
¼ cup minced onion
¼ cup minced green pepper
2 tablespoons shortening
2 cans condensed tomato soup, undiluted
½ cup mushroom liquid and water
1 tablespoon vinegar
½ teaspoon chili powder
Dash cayenne pepper
1½ pounds green shrimp, cooked and split lengthwise, or 4 pound cleaned shrimp

Saute mushroom pieces, minced celery, minced onion, and minced green pepper in shortening until tender. Stir in tomato soup, mushroom liquid, vinegar, chili powder, and cayenne pepper. Simmer 10 minutes to blend flavors. Add shrimp and heat.

Serve over hot cooked rice. Yield: 6 servings.

Lettuce Rafts

Perk up mayonnaise with a little prepared mustard, sweet pickle relish and ground pepper. Fold in cubed hard-cooked egg and serve on rafts of crisp western iceberg lettuce.

PINEAPPLE CHICKEN SHIBUI — Economical chicken wings are turned into a delightful Oriental style main dish. Chinese vegetables, pineapple slices and toasted almonds all contribute to the good taste of the completed dish.

Chicken Wings Star in Oriental Recipe

This Oriental pineapple and chicken with almonds is elegant, simple. Actually, it is made with quite a list of ingredients, but all of them are as close as the corner store.

Pineapple slices, chicken broth, water chestnuts and bean sprouts are readily available in cans.

Economical and plentiful chicken wings are ever so interesting in the clear pineapple vegetable sauce.

During cooking the ingredients blend in a way that the Orientals describe as shibui — each element in perfect harmony with the others.

Pineapple Chicken Shibui

12 chicken wings
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon ginger
1 clove garlic
2 tablespoons cooking oil
1 (8½-ounce) can pineapple slices
1½ cups chicken broth (about ½ cup soy sauce)
2 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons cornstarch

1 cup diagonally cut celery
4 diagonally cut green onions
1 (5-ounce) can water chestnuts
1 (1-pound) can bean sprouts
¼ cup toasted almonds

Remove and discard wing tips; cut wings in half. Toss with salt and ginger. Heat garlic in oil until browned, discard garlic. Brown chicken in garlic oil.

To syrup drained from pineapple add chicken broth to make 1½ cups liquid. Add to chicken along with soy sauce.

Cover; cook over medium heat about 15 minutes, until chicken is tender. Add vinegar mixed with cornstarch, celery and green onions.

Cook a few minutes until sauce thickens and vegetables are still crisp. Add halved drained water chestnuts, drained bean sprouts, almonds and 2 drained pineapple slices cut into large sections. Heat a few minutes longer.

Garnish with remaining 2 pineapple slices. Makes 4 servings.

Almond Mixture Tops Warm Cake, Is Broiled

The topping of roasted diced almonds, brown sugar, honey and butter on "Almond Brittle Cake" lends distinction to this delectable dessert.

Almonds always give a touch of elegance to cakes, pies and puddings. And stirred into slightly softened vanilla ice cream, almond slivers provide welcome crunch and extra flavor.

Almond Brittle Cake

1/2 cup shortening
1 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
2/3 cup granulated sugar
1/2 cup milk
1/4 teaspoon vanilla
2 egg whites
3 tablespoons granulated sugar
1/2 cup roasted diced almonds
1/4 cup brown sugar, packed
3 tablespoons honey
1 1/2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
Cream shortening slightly in mixing bowl. Sift in flour, baking powder, salt and 2/3 cup

Q: What is the name of this cut of meat?
A: Lamb arm or round bone chop.

Q: Where does it come from? How is it identified?
A: It comes from the shoulder and can be identified by the small arm bone and cross section of three or more rib bones.

Q: How are they prepared?
A: They may be broiled, pan-broiled or braised.

For broiling, set the oven regulator for broiling. Place the chops on a rack, in the broiler pan. Insert both pan and rack so the top of 1-inch chops is 2 inches from the heat and 2-inch chops 3 inches from heat. When one side is browned, season, turn and broil the second side. Season. The approximate total cooking time is 12 minutes for 1-inch chops, 18 minutes for 1 1/2-inch chops and 22 minutes for 2-inch chops.

For panbroiling, brown the chops slowly in a heavy frying pan pouring off fat as it accumulates. Turn occasionally until chops are done.

For braising, brown the chops in a heavy utensil, pour off drippings. Season. Add a small amount of liquid, cover tightly, and cook slowly, 45 to 60 minutes.

Keep Sauce on Hand

A quick-to-make mushroom sauce has many uses.

Light Mushroom Sauce
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
1/4 cup dry onion soup mix (stir in envelope and spoon out)
1 can (6 ounces) drained mushrooms, chopped
In a 1-quart saucepan over low heat, melt the butter; stir in the flour. Add milk, dry soup mix and drained mushrooms. Cook and stir constantly over low heat until thickened and bubbling. Makes about 2 1/2 cups — enough sauce for 6 large main-dish turnovers.

Dry Wines OK for Diabetics

OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI) — Diabetics, who ordinarily are forbidden alcoholic beverages, can safely and often beneficially drink dry table wine, advises Dr. Laurence W. Kinsell, director of the Institute for Metabolic Research, Oakland.

Reporting in the journal "Industrial Medicine and Surgery," Dr. Kinsell said the observation is based on a long-term study of patients in a research metabolic ward.

With ingestion of wine, there was no rise in blood sugar and no signs of ketosis, a serious and often dangerous complication of diabetes.

Bake Cabbage, Dried Beef in Herbed Cream Sauce

Pick out a plump green head of cabbage and a couple of jars or packages of dried beef and perhaps some caraway seed: you'll have the main ingredients for a simple, good tasting casserole.

Coarsely shredded cabbage is steamed for approximately 5 minutes, while you make the white sauce, says Reba Stagg, noted home economist.

Creamed Cabbage and Dried Beef
2 jars (2 1/2 ounces each) or 1 jar (4 1/2 ounces) dried beef shredded

1 1/4 pounds or 8 cups coarsely shredded cabbage
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/4 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon caraway seed, if desired
1/2 cup coarse bread crumbs
Steam cabbage 5 minutes or until tender.

Melt butter or margarine in saucepan. Blend in flour, caraway seed and milk. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add dried beef and cabbage.

Pour into a 2-quart casserole. Sprinkle bread crumbs on top. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 to 35 minutes. 5 to 6 servings.

Eggs Benedict Popular Despite Odd Origin

The origin of many famous dishes is frequently historically or romantically significant. But the evolution of Eggs Benedict, now a classic in egg cookery, has nothing quite so elevated about it.

It was, plainly and simply, the result of a hangerover.

It all began, as many culinary achievements did, with that renowned maitre d'hotel, Oscar of the Waldorf.

Oscar was overseer of the main dining room in New York's old Waldorf Hotel on Fifth Avenue at Thirty-Fourth Street in 1894, one year before the adjoining Astoria Hotel was built.

It was late in the morning when a Mr. Benedict, a devoted member of metropolitan cafe society, came into the room bearing all the miserable symptoms of a magnificent hangover.

In a voice tinged with suffering he asked for bacon and eggs, buttered toast, and instead of coffee a demitasse of hollandaise sauce.

With the sympathetic understanding born of having soothed other unfortunate in Mr. Benedict's condition, wise Oscar substituted ham for the bacon, specified the eggs be poached, and arranged these items on a split English muffin in place of the toast. Then he ladled a serving of hollandaise over all.

When the puzzled customer questioned Oscar on the convention, the latter explained tactfully that it was Eggs Benedict, especially created and named in the guest's honor.

Mr. Benedict was so pleased he brought his friends to the Waldorf to sample his dish, and Oscar was so pleased he added it to the Waldorf's regular menu. And so it has been an American favorite for over half a century.

Making Eggs Benedict is simplicity itself, though the production of the hollandaise sauce may give pause to one who has never tried doing it before. But patience and persistence pay off, and Eggs Benedict aren't worthy of the name without the hollandaise.

You may use Canadian bacon instead of ham if you prefer, but you can't substitute anything for the hollandaise, and still have Eggs Benedict.

A little Tabasco liquid red pepper seasoning, salt, melted butter, fresh lemon juice and egg yolks make the hollandaise sauce, the Tabasco giving just enough pepper flavor.

After you've learned to make your own hollandaise sauce, you'll find it's simply wonderful poured over fresh spring asparagus.

EGGS BENEDICT
Hollandaise Sauce:

2 egg yolks
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon Tabasco
1/2 cup melted butter, divided
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
6 whole eggs
6 slices cooked ham
3 English muffins, halved and toasted

Measure all ingredients for hollandaise sauce. To prepare hollandaise: Beat egg yolks, salt and Tabasco with egg beater or electric beater until thick and lemon colored. Add 1/2 cup melted butter, about 1 teaspoon at a time, beating constantly.

Combine remaining butter with lemon juice. Add slowly, beating constantly. Cover, set aside.

Butter skillet; fill with enough water to cover eggs 1 inch. Bring to boil; lower heat to simmering. Break eggs one at a time into cup; gently let egg slide out of cup into water. Cover skillet. Cook eggs until whites are solid, about 3 to 5 minutes.

While eggs are poaching heat ham through and toast English muffins. Gently remove poached eggs from skillet with slotted spoon.

Place ham on muffins; top with poached egg; spoon hollandaise over. Garnish with parsley, if desired. Yield: 6 servings.

Trip Cookbook Ready for Use

Tired of hot dogs blackened over a quick fire when you're cooking by the roadside? Then why not try "hurried chicken tetrazzini," steamed lobsters on the rocks, or even "fake steak?"

Simple recipes for these and 143 other delicacies are contained in a completely new kind of cookbook for weekend motorists, vacationers and campers.

The newest Ford Motor Company publication — a 48-page booklet entitled "The Ford Times Traveler's Cookbook" — will appeal to everyone who loves to eat outdoors where food always seems to taste best.

Spread across the colorfully illustrated pages are recipes for an appetizing array of sandwiches, one-dish meals, salads and seafoods that can be prepared on-the-spot with a minimum of fuss.

LOCALITE'S WORK
Material for the new book was compiled by Nancy Kennedy, women's editor of the Ford Times; Mary Augusta Rodgers of Birmingham whose fiction and articles appear regularly in national women's magazines; and Elizabeth Williams, a free lance writer and home economist.

The recipes and suggestions in the "Ford Times Traveler's Cookbook" were reviewed by a panel made up of the best people in the world to ask for such advice — women whose families enjoy roadside dining and out-of-doors cooking.

Copies of the new cookbook are available at 50 cents each from Ford Books, Box 5510, Fenkell Station, Detroit, Mich.

Fragrant Cinnamon Flavors Meat, Cake

The word "serendipity" which has suddenly found such favor today is not at all newly coined. Meaning the happy faculty of blundering upon one good thing while searching for another, it was Horace Walpole, in 1754, who made up the word after having read the fairy tale, "The Three Princes of Serendip."

Serendip was the former name of Ceylon, ancestral home of Cinnamonum zeylanicum, or Ceylon cinnamon. The first use of cinnamon as a spice may have been a case of some serendipity 10,000 or more years ago.

Suppose some early Singalese of that era needed a toothpick. He reached up and peeled a sliver of bark from a convenient little evergreen tree. M-M-M, what a delicious toothpick! A cinnamon toothpick! That would be an example of his serendipity.

Actually in the United States we much prefer the more pungently sweet cassia cinnamon, 13,542,745 pounds worth in 1963. This is native to China, Indo-China and Indonesia. Today we import it from Indonesia and South Viet Nam. Ceylon cinnamon — which even today grows in Ceylon — is a pale buff color and much milder in flavor than our favorite cassia cinnamon.

Cinnamon is, of course, just what it appears to be — the bark of a deliciously scented tree. This bark is cut from the tree during the rainy season and rolled tightly into quills or what we would call cinnamon sticks.

Such cinnamon sticks are about three feet long when they reach our shores. Some are then cut to much shorter, more

Onions Come in Variety of Colors

Onions have been listed among the better buys in fresh vegetables for several weeks, by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. And now shipments of new onions from south Texas are getting under way — adding to the supply.

The result of this doubled-up crop should be especially attractive prices to consumers during the next few weeks — on the yellow Globe variety first, and soon the mild, sweet type from Texas.

The yellow Globe variety is easily recognized by its globular shape. Ranging from 3 to 10 in a pound, these onions measure up to about 2 1/2 inches in diameter. Yellow Globes are favored for general cooking.

Mild, sweet onions — Spanish or Bermuda types — are large and elongated or flat. These often are used raw in sandwiches and salads.

When selecting onions, choose those that are bright, clean, firm and well-shaped, advises USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service. Be sure they have dry skins and no sign of sprouting.

Although onions keep well at home in a cool, dry place, it is advisable to buy small amounts often. Home storage conditions tend to vary.

Soup Starts Tuna Stew

Four simple ingredients and twenty minutes and a main dish is ready to serve. It is a Tuna-Mushroom stew made with tuna, rice and a cream of mushroom soup mix.

Tuna-Mushroom Stew
2 envelopes cream of mushroom soup mix
5 cups water
2 (6 1/2-ounce) cans chunk style tuna, drained
1 cup uncooked rice (not pre-cooked variety)

Empty soup mix into saucepan. Gradually stir in water, then tuna and rice. Bring to boil, simmer over low heat, stirring occasionally until rice is tender, about 20 minutes. Stir. Serve. Makes about 5 servings.

Has Many Uses

Lemon juice rubbed on fresh meats, fish and poultry before cooking eliminates strong odors, tenderizes the flesh and brings out the flavor.

manageable sizes and packaged as whole cinnamon. The remainder are very finely ground for baked goods and desserts.

Ground cinnamon releases its flavor instantly, while stick cinnamon needs about 15 minutes simmering time to give off flavor. Careful cooks prefer whole cinnamon sticks when preparing syrups or pickling liquids which would be discolored by ground cinnamon.

From the test kitchens of the American Spice Trade Association come these unusually good recipes all depending on cinnamon for flavor.

Men Are Invited to Compete in Sixth Annual Recipe Contest Using Potato Chips

The sixth annual Men's National Cooking Championship to find the country's best male amateur cook and crown him 1966 National Champion, has been opened by the Potato Chip

Institute International, sponsor of the competition. Any adult male may compete for the coveted title which brings with it a $1,000 cash award, or the runner-up awards of $750 for second place, $400 third prize and a $300 fourth award. Wives of men who cook will also be interested to know that all four men reaching the finals win a week's vacation for two at the fabulous Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas, Nev., next winter.

The male amateur cooks may enter as many recipes as they wish for original dishes using potato chips as an ingredient.

No box tops, labels or coupons are required to enter the recipes. Professional chefs are barred.

The recipes originated by the top 200 amateur male cooks in the 1965 Men's National Cooking Championship were selected from a field of over 179,000 recipes.

The National Champion J. A. Allard, an Air Force civilian training specialist created an exceptionally delicious potato chip relish called—

Chip-Preme Ham Custard
2 cups finely crushed potato chips
2 tablespoons salad oil
¼ cup crisp bacon, minced
¼ cup sliced onion, sautéed until soft
¼ cup cooked ham, cut in thin strips
¼ cup Swiss cheese, grated
¼ cup raisins
3 eggs
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
1 cup light cream, heated
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
Preheat oven to 350 degrees.
Mix 1½ cups potato chips with salad oil and place in 8-inch pie pan, forming a crust. Mix bacon, onion, ham, cheese and raisins and place in pie crust. Beat eggs and mustard, add hot cream and beat well. Pour into pie shell and let stand 10 minutes. Sprinkle nutmeg and remaining potato chips on top. Bake until the custard is set.

A panel of leading women food authorities will first select 50 state cooking champions after judging the recipes.

Then, from among these state champions, there will be chosen four regional cooking champions to represent the northern, southern, eastern and western portions of the nation in the competition finals. These four finalists will then cook for the culinary crown at the Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas, Nev., where special kitchens will be set up for them to prepare their prize-winning dishes.

All recipes must be sent in before the closing date of Dec. 1, 1965 to the Men's National Cooking Championship, 331 Madison Avenue, New York City, New York 10017.

Forget Oven for Cookies
No-bake cookies are as nourishing as breakfast cereal, because they contain just that.

Heat 1 cup of quick rolled oats in a preheated 350-degree oven for 10 minutes. Beat ½ cup of soft butter until creamy; beat in ½ cup of sifted confectioners' sugar until fluffy. Stir in ½ teaspoon of vanilla and the toasted oats.

Add 2 (1 ounce) squares of chocolate, melted; mix well. Drop by teaspoonsful on waxed paper. Makes 2½ dozen cookies.

Relish Recipe Is Favorite

Rhubarb, enjoyed as a sauce or pie filling, makes an excellent relish to serve with hamburgers, fish or baked beans.

The rhubarb-onion-spice relish came to light when home economists for Grandma's Unshuffled Molasses received a request from a consumer for this combination she remembered her mother as making.

In her search, the home economists found the relish recipe in a cookbook the company had printed 40 years ago.

As the recipe was older than most of the staff home economists, it was retested and thoroughly approved when sampled. The test kitchen home economists found it extremely simple to prepare...

...just chopped rhubarb and onions combined with unshuffled molasses, sugar, vinegar and spices.

The relish is similar to a chutney in color and consistency and of excellent flavor with meat, poultry and fish.

Grandma's Great Rhubarb Relish

1 quart finely chopped rhubarb
1 quart chopped onions
1 cup unshuffled molasses
¾ cups sugar
¼ cup vinegar
¼ cup water
1 teaspoon each salt, ground cloves, allspice and cinnamon

Combine all ingredients in a deep saucepan. Bring to a boil; reduce heat and simmer 1 hour, stirring occasionally. Turn into sterilized jars; seal. Cool and refrigerate.

Relish may be served cold with meat, fish or baked beans. Yield: 2½ pints.

Dill Seasoning With Shrimp

For a buffet supper try this pleasing combination of hot shrimp and pineapple in a thin sour cream sauce with dill weed. Serve over hot fluffy rice or in patty shells.

It is the kind of special dish that would be good for an announcement buffet party.

Seven Seas Dilled Pineapple Shrimp

1½ pounds fresh or frozen large shrimp
½ cup butter
1 clove garlic
½ teaspoon dill weed
1 tablespoon cornstarch
½ cup dairy sour cream
Dash liquid red pepper seasoning

½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup sautéed or water
1 (1-pound 4½ ounce) can pineapple chunks

Remove shells and black vein from shrimp. Heat butter, crushed garlic, and dill a few minutes in large skillet. Add shrimp, cook, stirring until shrimp turns pink and becomes tender, about 10 minutes.

Sprinkle with cornstarch. Blend in sour cream, red pepper seasoning and salt. Gently stir in wine or water and drained pineapple. Heat slowly until mixture thickens.

Serve over hot steamed rice.

*Note: Or 1½ (8- or 10-ounce) packages frozen, peeled-and deveined shrimp.

Vitamins Are Colorful

Vegetables with the most color have the greatest amount of vitamin A. Thus, turnip greens and carrots have more vitamin A than cabbage or corn. All dark green and deep yellow vegetables are good sources of vitamin A.

Turn into an ungreased straight-sided 1½-quart soufflé dish; draw the tip of a teaspoon, held about 1 inch from edge of dish, around the top surface.

Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until puffed and browned—50 minutes. Serve at once. Makes 4 small servings.

Usual Food—New Style

Serve breakfast eggs in bacon cups for a change. Place slices of bacon in a cold frying pan. Cook slowly until transparent, then line muffin pans with the bacon. Break an egg in each pan, season with salt and pepper and bake in a slow oven 300 degrees for 15 minutes.

STRAWBERRY TARTS—Tiny fluted tart shells need only a few of the season's first strawberries. The fruit, floating on a creamy pudding base, are glazed with melted jelly. Aluminum foil makes instant, disposable tart pans.

Tart Shells Are Easily Made Frozen in Aluminum Foil

Everybody loves strawberries... and from now through June is the best time to serve them. Markets are filled with red beauties from California, Florida and the Carolinas.

Soon strawberries from nearby farms will be adding their bright color to the fruit displays.

If you are planning a spring party, the loveliest dessert you could serve would be little tarts filled with these gorgeous red berries.

You won't need special pans if you use the aluminum foil method of shaping and baking the shells. And you can make up shells in quantity; weeks—even months—ahead.

Tart shells freeze beautifully either before or after baking. Just arrange them on a foil covered cardboard and place in the freezer until firm. They'll keep for up to three months.

If they have been frozen before baking, they can go direct from the freezer to the oven. Just allow about 5 minutes additional baking time.

If frozen after baking, 5 minutes in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees) will both thaw and help them regain original crispness.

Strawberry Tarts
Standard pastry made with 3 cups of flour

Heavy duty aluminum foil 1 package vanilla pudding ¼ cup heavy cream, whipped 2 pints fresh strawberries Red currant jelly, melted

1. Prepare the pastry and place in refrigerator to chill for 15 minutes.

2. Tear aluminum foil to make 4-inch squares. Place one on top of the other, interleaving with squares of tissue.

Using a saucer or other round dish, trace pattern of circle on top square. Cut all squares at once. Discard tissue as they are used. A 4-inch circle makes a 2½ inch tart.

3. Roll pastry to ¼ inch thickness and cut matching circles of pastry using same dish as guide.

4. Place pastry circles on top of foil circles. Prick all over with a fork. (Don't prick where filling is to be baked with filling.)

5. With thumb and forefinger, turn up edge of foil and pastry 1 inch all around, and pinch at about 1 inch intervals to hold edge up.

6. Place on a shallow pan or cookie sheet and bake unfilled tarts in a hot oven (450 degrees) for 15 minutes or until delicately browned.

Prepare vanilla pudding as label directs. Fold whipped cream into chilled pudding. Place a spoonful in each tart shell. Top with the strawberries. Spoon melted jelly over berries. Makes 12 to 14 tarts.

Cook Apples to Mix Into Green Beans

It's a surprising and delicious combination of vegetable and fruit.

Apple - Green Beans
1 pound young snap beans
1 cup boiling water
1½ teaspoons salt
2 large apples (choose ones that keep their shape after cooking)
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Tip: beans and scrub in cold water.

In a medium saucepan, with the boiling water and salt, boil the beans, covered, until tender—12 to 15 minutes; drain thoroughly and keep warm.

Meanwhile pare and core apples; cut each into 8 wedges; cut each wedge into 3 lengthwise slices.

In a 9- or 10-inch skillet over moderately low heat, melt the butter; add apples; turn in the butter; cover and steam, shaking the pan a few times, for about 3 minutes.

Turn apples over and steam again for 3 minutes or until just cooked through. Sprinkle apples with sugar and lemon juice; mix gently.

Turn drained beans over apples; mix gently. Makes 6 servings.

Cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until very thick and boiling. Remove from heat; add cheese; stir to melt.

Beat egg yolks until thickened and lemon colored; gradually but vigorously stir into cheese sauce. With clean beater, beat egg whites with cream of tartar until they hold straight stiff peaks; fold into cheese mixture.

Turn into an ungreased straight-sided 1½-quart soufflé dish; draw the tip of a teaspoon, held about 1 inch from edge of dish, around the top surface.

Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until puffed and browned—50 minutes. Serve at once. Makes 4 small servings.

Usual Food—New Style

Serve breakfast eggs in bacon cups for a change. Place slices of bacon in a cold frying pan. Cook slowly until transparent, then line muffin pans with the bacon. Break an egg in each pan, season with salt and pepper and bake in a slow oven 300 degrees for 15 minutes.

School Plans Go to Voters Monday

ROCHESTER — Whether the original plans for the Rochester Senior High School are to be finally completed will be determined Monday by voters in the Rochester School District.

Property-owning electors will cast ballots on a proposed $11.1-million bond issue that would provide a swimming pool and 600-seat auditorium at the senior high.

Both facilities were part of original plans for the school, slated for completion when funds become available.

School officials estimate now that they can be financed through the levying of a one-mill tax, which in Avon Township will represent about $2.30 per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

The district now collects 6.5 mills, lowered in 1963 from a level of 7 mills.

CITIZENS GROUP
Building of the facilities has been recommended by the Citizens' Advisory Committee after a study of curriculum and building and site requirements.

Statements of support for the proposal have come from the Rochester YMCA, which helped in the swimming pool study, the Rochester Junior Woman's Club, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Avon Youth Recreation Association.

School officials have emphasized the joint nature of both swimming pool and auditorium, which would be shared by the schools and the community.

Acting Utica School Chief Gets Position

UTICA — Philip E. Runkel has been named superintendent of schools by the Utica Board of Education.

Runkel has been serving as acting superintendent since January, when former Supt. Fred Atkinson resigned.

The 37-year-old top man rose quickly from a spot as assistant principal at Eppler Junior High School to the highest administrative position in three years, stopping along the way to serve as principal of Shelby Junior High School.

He has 15 years of teaching and administrative experience. Before taking the Eppler position he was principal of Clinton Junior High School in Clinton Township.

Casting "no" votes on the appointment, board members William Porter (vice president) and Howard Dinger said they felt the superintendent should have more administrative experience.

Cost factors have been a selling point for the bond issue.

STRESSES NEED
A brochure prepared by the Citizens' Advisory Committee, stressing the need for the facilities, points out that the $10,000-$12,000 cost of operating and maintaining the pool can be met through fees and rentals to groups such as the YMCA.

It also states that the district can build and operate auditorium and pool more cheaply than any other agency because heating, piping and manpower are already available.

Detailing reasons for asking for the bond issue, the brochure says that:

- The only auditorium facility with sizable stage space in the area is 45 years old and inadequate for the expanding community;
- Daily use of the auditorium, by the schools will "greatly enhance" the quality and scope of the educational program by providing opportunities for students to enjoy dramatics, group instruction, lectures and class meetings;

• Community organizations will benefit from the use of the auditorium, which will provide needed space for adult education, dramatic groups, musical groups, variety shows and similar activities;

• The pool would broaden the physical education program, making daily swimming instruction for grades 5 through 12 possible.

• Residents and groups in the area would gain a full time swimming facility.

AUDITORIUM PLAN

The auditorium would be located at the northeast corner of the senior high school, facing Livernois. It would contain a lobby, coat rooms, ticket booths and have paved parking areas.

The regulation, six-lane pool would have a diving area and shallow portions, the latter for elementary swimming. Community locker and dressing rooms would also be provided, plus folding bleachers and paved access driveways.

The pool would be constructed on the south side of the school's gymnasium.

CHAMPION PERFORMERS—Chuck Grant of Grand Blanc and his palomino, Shining Gold, will be featured in "Horses and Horsemanship," a horse and antique car show to be held May 8 in Brandon High School Stadium.

Ortonville. Grant, who often performs at the Bloomfield Hills Hunt Club, is a consistent winner in National Grand Prix dressage competition. The 7 p.m. benefit show will be sponsored by the Brandon senior class.

With Postcard Campaign

War Declared on Litterbugs

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Beautification Committee has declared war on litterbugs.

The weapons to be used will be postcards bearing the following message:

"WARNING NOTICE — DO NOT LITTER"

"Someone in your automobile, License No. (blank) was observed on (blank) on (date) throwing litter out of your automobile."

"Such littering could carry a fine of $100 as provided by Village Ordinance. We need your cooperation to KEEP ROCHESTER AND AMERICA CLEAN.

"Sincerely,
"Rochester Beautification Committee."

DEARBORN IDEA

The idea for the campaign, proposed to the village council by Councilman John Boeberitz, chairman of the Beautification Committee, was borrowed from the city of Dearborn, where it is reported to have been a successful deterrent to littering.

Members of the committee will use the cards, which will be turned over to the police department when the blanks are filled in.

The police will look up the address of the car license holder, who will receive the card in the mail.

Village Attorney Arthur Cox said the postcards alone would not be evidence enough on which to base an arrest for violation of the littering ordinance.

SERVE AS REMINDER

The councilmen generally agreed, however, that the campaign should serve its purpose in reminding residents that "every litterer hurts."

The cards will be printed at the expense of the Beautification Committee, which is supported by donations.

Retirement is Nearing

for Pastor and Wife

STERLING TOWNSHIP — Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Baumann, pastors of the Utica Evangelistic Center for the past 25 years, will retire and move to Lehigh Acres, Fla., within the next few weeks.

The church membership will honor them with a retirement banquet at Gethsemane Lutheran Church, 1892 E. Auburn, Avon Township, at 6:30 p.m. Saturday.

$4-Million Program on School Election Ballot in Troy Again

TROY — A $4-million bond issue for school expansion will be put to a vote a second time in the June 14 school elections.

Two incumbent school board members will also be up for reelection to four-year terms.

Last October, the electorate gave the district a new five-mill tax for operating costs, but defeated the $4-million bond issue, 1,941 to 901.

Schools Supt. Dr. Rex B. Smith said the bond issue would raise school taxes by about $2.90 per $1,000 in assessed valuation and result in a total levy of 29.63 mills, assuming that expected equalization factors are approved by the county and state.

While the amount of the bond issue, the largest ever to be asked from district voters, has not changed, the intended use of the money has undergone drastic revision.

ALTERED USE

School officials, after consulting members of former citizens' study committees and observing other districts, made the following alterations in the way the bond issue will be used if passed.

• Instead of building two eight-room elementary schools and one 18-room school, the district would construct four small elementary buildings.

Dr. Smith said the change was made because "no one knows where an 18-room building could go, and this would give us four sites instead of three."

• One of the elementary school sites has been switched from the Somerset Park area to Section 22, bounded by Livernois, Big Beaver, Rochester and Westland.

The superintendent said the switch was made because the developers of Somerset Park were setting a minimum age limit of 12 years for children of prospective tenants, while Section 22 already has enough children for a school.

• Some of the cost estimates for site acquisition have had to be revised to reflect rising land costs. This means, said Smith, that the district will obtain less acreage per dollar than it could have last year if the bond issue had passed the first time.

• Planned acreage for elementary school sites has increased in an effort to meet new site standards recommended by the National Council on Schoolhouse Construction.

• School officials are now planning to purchase a third junior high site in addition to building a $1.5-million second junior high school with the bond issue money.

Smith said this was because it would become increasingly difficult to find a 28-acre site as land in the district is developed.

• Only one future elementary school site purchase is planned now.

PORTABLE UNITS

• Five portable classroom units will be used adjacent to existing buildings until permanent classrooms or additions are built. This will enable the district to meet growth where and when it happens, said Smith.

• Plans for a new library materials center at Big Beaver Elementary School have been dropped, due to limited acreage available there.

Instead, the present library will be enlarged by converting a classroom for use as a library materials center.

• Also dropped are plans for a new multipurpose room at Poppleton Elementary School, with conversion of the old one for a library materials center.

Plans now call for conversion of two basement classrooms to a material center.

NEW WING

• Instead of building a new multipurpose room at Union Elementary School, the district will wait until a new classroom wing is added at some time in the future, including it at that time.

A classroom is to be converted into a library material center there, and the school will "make do" with its present multipurpose room.

The board positions now held by Richard C. Snaod and Robert W. Dolmage will be filled by the June election. Both trustees are running for reelection to four-year terms, according to Smith.

A well-fertilized crop usually is healthy and has a good root system. This helps get it off ahead of the weeds in the spring, be more resistant to insect attacks, and mature earlier.

Bus Pulls Out

HOLLY — The village may be missing the boat, but it's not going to miss the bus.

Apparently few residents will notice or care when the Greyhound bus stops passing through here.

Not many ever used it, anyway.

"Now we'll have only the train — and we have to flag that down," Village Supt. James K. Herrington said.

Holly is among 36 of Michigan's smaller communities which no longer will be served by the bus line.

SERVICE DROPPED

The State Public Service Commission this week approved a Greyhound Bus Lines application to drop service to the communities.

Greyhound said cancellation of the routes would allow swift and cheaper bus service via main expressways.

The service stoppage is expected in mid-June, after Greyhound files revised rates and schedules.

Ganges and Frankfort, on the original list of communities to be dropped, were retained because of vigorous local protests.

NO ATTENDANCE

Herrington said a couple of Holly residents wrote letters against the proposal to the commission but that none attended the hearings in Lansing.

The move had been expected, he said, ever since Greyhound discontinued the freight service.

"They had more trade from freight than passengers," he said. "Since then, they've just been stopping where anybody hailed them."

Major Reorganization Eyed

Congress Is Seeking to Modernize Its Operation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress, frustrated and unhappy over creaky procedures, many members feel are more suited to horse and buggy days, is going to give reorganization another whirl.

One expert in the field, Sen. A.S. Mike Monroney, D-Okla., put it this way:

"We in Congress now are attempting to run a business 10 times as large as AT&T, the Santa Fe Railroad and General Motors combined, with machinery as obsolete as a quill pen, a slanting bookkeeper's desk, and an old-fashioned high stool."

Both Senate and House have voted unanimously to set up a joint committee to conduct hearings and make recommendations on ways to improve the organization and operation of Congress.

Monroney, cochairman of the joint committee, is approaching the reorganization job with enthusiasm although he concedes "there isn't much glamour in it."

SPECTACULAR WAY

"There is very little that can be done in a grand-slam spectacular way to improve the functioning of democracy," he said in an interview.

"Reform will come through 25 or 50 changes, each contributing its share to modernization."

Monroney is an old-timer in this field. As a House member 20 years ago, he joined in setting up a similar Senate-House committee whose work led to the 1946 Laffollette-Monroney Act.

That reorganization law was widely praised but Monroney now says it is evident that the law had its failures as well as its successes.

Out of his analysis of the experience with the 1946 law and his observation of new problems, Monroney believes these are some of the areas in which the new committee can make a contribution:

1. Organization of more effective procedures for Congress to meet its responsibility for acting on federal budgets that have now reached the $100-billion level.
2. Development of a system to start Congress to work earlier in each session, so that the members can complete their work annually by August.
3. Overhauling of the committee structure to distribute the workload more evenly and bring under control the dozens of subcommittees which have sprung up in recent years.

4. Authorization for additional experts to work for members of Congress and the committees, such as certified public accountants for the appropriations committees.

Monroney believes the reorganization can do its most important work in the area of revenue controls.

ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT

Modern accounting methods and perhaps use of electronic equipment, Monroney says, can bring the budget into clear focus and place responsibility for out-of-line costs on the agencies involved.

Pressure for the new reorganization effort was strongest from members disgusted with the increasing length of annual sessions. In 1963, for example, adjournment did not come until after Christmas.

The Lafayette-Monroney law fixed a July adjournment date but that is disregarded.

One of the principal accomplishments of the 1946 law was the reduction of standing committees in both branches from 81 to 34. But this has been largely frustrated by a growth of subcommittees so that there now are more units of all types in existence than there were 20 years ago.

SUBCOMMITTEES

In general, Monroney would like to see Congress vote to eliminate some of these subcommittees.

Monroney agrees that the joint committee can not meet the hopes of some members since it is unable to deal with such things as the Senate's filibuster rule.

But, as he sees it, to inject this and other emotion-charged issues would mean that the committee probably would end up with nothing at all done.

However, members long interested in congressional reform still bemoan the extent of the areas which they believe will be outside the fields of action by the joint committee.

CODE OF ETHICS

They cite codes of ethics, conflict of interest of members, financing of election campaigns, and the seniority system.

Monroney emphasizes that the joint committee can take testimony on all these. It is only when it comes to drifting recommendations that its powers are limited.

He agrees that it may be somewhat harder to win approval for a reorganization package this time since there will not be the incentives which helped to get the 1946 program enacted.

That measure established a congressional retirement system and also raised pay of members from $10,000 to $15,000. Since that time the pay has been doubled to $30,000.

JOINT COMMITTEE

Monroney plans to begin the joint committee hearings before May is over and would like to end them in the fall. He hopes that the group then can draft its legislation for action by Congress in the 1966 session.

Members of the bipartisan committee, in addition to Monroney, are Reps. Ray J. Madden, D-Ill., cochairman; Jack Brooks, D-Tex.; Ken Hechler, D-W.Va.; Thomas B. Curtis, R-Mo.; Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich.; Durward G. Hall, R-Mo.; and Sens. John J. Sparkman, D-Ala.; Lee Metcalf, D-Mont.; Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D.; Clifford P. Case, R-N.J.; and J. Caleb Boggs, R-Del.

View Payment of Water Bills

The neighborhood drugstore is not the place to pay city water bills, according to Herbert Parker, water superintendent.

Parker said drugstores are not authorized collection agencies for city water bills, although some utility company bills are payable at the stores.

Parker made the statements in attempting to clarify bill payment procedures for residents.

Water bills should be paid by mail or in person at City Hall.

Parker said city water bills are due within 60 days of their due date. If not paid, service will be discontinued. Homeowners can expect to receive their water bill about two weeks after the meter is read. The due date is the date the meter was read. Thus, water bills are due when rendered, said Parker.

Parke-Davis Co., Union Still Talk; Strike Okayed

Negotiations were continuing today between the Parke-Davis Co. and the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union Local 7-178, following a strike vote yesterday by the union.

The union membership voted to go on strike if no agreement is reached by midnight tomorrow, when the present contract expires.

A strike would close both the Rochester and Detroit plants. There are 253 employed at the Rochester plant.

The firm is hopeful of a settlement before the deadline, according to Harold Daniels, vice president personnel.

A second contract, between the company and the International Association of Machinists, expires May 5. No settlement has been reached in contract negotiations with this group, according to Daniels.

Sparks 'Frisco Victory

Little Giant Stars at Plate

By The Associated Press

Matty Alou of the San Francisco Giants is hitting 2½ times his weight, but that's still four points less than his younger brother.

At 160 pounds the littler and least conspicuous of the three Alou brothers, Matty lifted his average to .400 Wednesday when he drove in four runs with a double and a bases-loaded triple that powered the Giants to a 9-3 victory over Philadelphia.

It was the second straight game in which Matty had produced the winning run — his ninth inning homer Tuesday ended the Giants 14-13 slugfest against the Phillies. He now has hit safely in the nine games he has started while producing the winning hit in four of seven San Francisco victories.

It's just possible that the 26-year-old Matty will finally step up as the Alou family leader instead of 22-year-old Jesus or 29-year-old Felipe.

Matty always has been overshadowed by his brothers. Felipe was the first to reach the majors and was well established when Matty came along. Then when Matty started to develop, Jesus broke in with the Giants and received raves as a rookie standout last season.

But Matty is waging a battle with Jesus this time while both are providing the Giants with hit after hit. Matty currently is in his usual spot in second place — Jesus is hitting .404 — but he leads in the power department with two homers and eight runs batted in.

Felipe the elder, meanwhile, is currently in the also-run category with a .138 average for the Milwaukee Braves.

In other games, three top pitching performances were turned in. St. Louis' Bob Gibson three-hit Milwaukee 5-0 and Pittsburgh's Bob Veale three-hit the Los Angeles Dodgers 2-0.

Cincinnati's Joey Jay pitched 7-3 innings of no-hit ball but gave when the Reds finally edged the Chicago Cubs 3-2 in 14 innings.

And the Houston Astros extended the longest winning streak in the majors this season to seven by walloping the New York Mets 12-9.

The Giants trailed 3-2 in the fourth when Phillies' starter Ray Culp hit Tom Haller with a pitch, walked Jose Pagan and Harvey Kuenn and then hit Matty Alou's bat with a pitch that was rifled into the right field corner for a triple.

Ron Herbel got the victory with five innings of hitless relief after taking over for Jack Sanford. Sanford allowed only three hits — but two were homers by Johnny Callison and Wes Covington. Willie Mays hit one for San Francisco.

Gibson brought his record to 3-0 with his second shutout as the Braves' attendance shrank to 1,324 — setting an all-time low for County Stadium for the second night in succession.

Veale, 24, didn't allow a base runner past first base as he won his duel with Claude Osteen, who had a six-hit shutout until Dick Schofield started Pittsburgh's winning rally with a double in the eighth inning.

Jay, leading 1-0 on Deron Johnson's homer off Larry Jackson, held the Cubs hitless until Vic Roznovsky collected his first hit of the season, a two-out single in the eighth inning.

Billy Williams brought the Cubs a tie with a two-out homer in the ninth.

Bob Aspromonte supplied the big bat for the Astros, driving in three runs and capping a four-run sixth inning uprising that put Houston ahead to stay.

Rookie Has Two

Twins' Errors Costly

By The Associated Press

Cesar Tovar of the Minnesota Twins has notched another hole in his glove en route to the second annual Richie Allen fielding award.

Tovar's latest entry in his bid for the honor came Wednesday night in Minnesota's 9-3 loss to Cleveland.

The Allen award, established last year by the third baseman of the Philadelphia Phillies, goes to the rookie infielder whose season-long performance in the field is the most conspicuous — much to his team's chagrin.

Tovar has played in only six games and has committed two errors, so it's unlikely he'll achieve Allen's freshman report card of 41 errors, most by a player in the majors last season. But the two Twins' rookie have made have indeed been outstanding.

DROPS POP FLY

As a third baseman in the opener against New York, the 24-year-old Venezuelan dropped a two-out pop fly in the ninth inning, allowing the tying run to score. Fortunately for the Twins, Tovar redeemed himself at bat by lashing a game-winning single in the 11th, much the same way Allen did for Philadelphia.

Tovar had pop-up trouble again Wednesday night against the Indians. With two out and none on in the first inning, Leon Wagner lofted an easy pop to toward second base where the rookie was playing. Tovar dropped the ball, and Cleveland was on its way to three unearned runs.

In other AL games, Detroit nipped Los Angeles 5-4, Baltimore defeated Washington 6-3 and New York belted Kansas City 5-1.

John Orsino's three-run homer in the sixth inning, the Orioles' third homer in two innings, boosted Baltimore past Washington. Jack Bivanti and Jerry Adair had homered in the fifth, helping Robin Roberts' to his second victory.

At Downing hurled a five-hit for the Yankees, who lost right fielder Roger Maris for two and possibly three weeks. Maris injured his right thigh in making an outstanding catch of Bert Campaneris' line drive in the seventh.

Spartans, 'M' on Road

By United Press International

Michigan and Michigan State's baseball teams take to the road for three games this weekend.

The Wolverines, who have a 34 Big Ten record, will meet Purdue at Lafayette, Ind., on Friday and take on Illinois at Champaign, Ill., in a double-header Saturday.

Sophomore righthander Bob Reed is scheduled to hurl against Purdue with senior southpaw Clyde Barnhart and sophomore Bill Zepp set to face the Illini.

All three won their initial starts last week.

Michigan State will reverse Michigan's schedule.

The Spartans, 2-1 in league play, take on Illinois in a single game Friday and Purdue in a twin-bill Saturday.

Junior leftie John Krasman is expected to start against Illinois.

He hurled a three-hitter against Wisconsin last week.

Saturday's starters probably will be junior righthander Jim Goodrich and Doug Dobrei or Dick Kenney.

Michigan's Dick Schryer hit a two-run homer in the first inning, got a single and a double later and scored three times as the Wolverines won 11-0 over Eastern Michigan in non-conference baseball Wednesday.

It was the fifth straight victory at home for Michigan.

Horses Trot Into Action at Bloomfield Open Hunt

The trotting currently stirring up the dirt in the practice rings at the Bloomfield Open Hunt will break into full canter and galloping this weekend.

The first outdoor spring schooling horse show of the season will begin at 8:30 a.m. Saturday under the guidance of the state Professional Horseman's Association.

Show secretary Jean Lasher of Metamora reports an exceptionally good early registration for the two-day gathering and anticipates approximately 100 entries.

There are 25 classes, two of which involve berths in next fall's National Horse Show at Madison Square Garden.

They are the American Horse Show Association's Hunter Seat equitation class for 14-17 year olds, and the ASPCA McClay Trophy equitation event for the same age group.

The judges will be Arthur Hawkins of Bedford, N.Y., and Emmy Grant of Newberry, Ohio. The competition will begin at 8:30 a.m. each day and run until completion.

There will be dressage, hunter equitation, green working hunter, junior jumper, and hunter and jumper events. Some Ohio and West Virginia entries have been received in addition to the numerous state entrants.

There is no admission cost to spectators.

Gonzales Set for Title Duel in Net Action

NEW YORK (AP)—Pancho Gonzales starts defense of his U.S. Indoor Tennis Championship tonight against 44-year-old Pancho Segura with the winner gaining the semifinals round.

Segura, now a teaching pro in Beverly Hills, Calif., was a spectator Wednesday night as the competition began on a new rubber court and he feels Gonzales will have a more than usual advantage for the match.

The floor, used by the touring pros for the first time in this tournament, won't provide enough true bounces, Segura claimed.

The court, which rolls out like a sheet of linoleum, is supposed to slow up the hard serve and smash of the pros and provide more ground strokes and better tennis, according to Earl Butch Buchholz, former U.S. Davis Cupper. Buchholz gained the quarter-finals Wednesday night by beating Mike Davies, ex-English Davis Cup star now from Los Angeles, 13-11, 6-2.

Mike Villereal, Mike Doty, Rick Farms and Tom Neshan doubled, and Jerry Mure gave PCH five first-inning markers at Waterford.

Dave Roemsky and Vince Deni each singled three times for the losing Skippers.

Kettering dropped its fourth

Bill Bowles had a triple and single, and three runs batted in for North Farmington. Rob Spitznagel's two-run double gave Groves an early lead against Thurston.

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit pitcher Phil Regan has reversed a plan to enter a hospital for minor surgery.

The Tigers announced Wednesday Regan would enter a hospital to undergo an operation for hemorrhoids and would be out a week to 10 days. Regan nixed this a few hours later. He said he didn't want to stay out of action that long and would take his starting turn Sunday against Boston.

Local Golfer Defeats Texan

North-South Tourney Up to Quarter-Finals

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Tom Draper, of Birmingham, Mich., who defeated John Farquhar of Amarillo, Tex., 3 and 2 Wednesday in the North-South Amateur Golf Tournament, will meet Jerry Potter of Miami, Fla., in the tournament's quarter-final round today.

Draper, a 50-year-old chemical salesman, is the oldest survivor in the tourney. He was seven over par in his victories over Farquhar and Jack Thornton of Rochester, N.Y., who he beat 4-3.

Potter is a 25-year-old University of Miami graduate. He defeated Walker Cup player Bob Gardner of Essex Falls, N.J., and Dick Siderow of Westport, Conn., 1-up in Wednesday matches.

In the lower half, Bill Harvey 34, of Greensboro, N.C., faced Don Allen, 26, of Rochester, N.Y., and David Boyd, 23, of Atlanta, met Johnny Leach 22, of nearby Troy, a sophomore at the University of Houston.

Although well-regarded at home, they are lacking national credentials with the possible exception of Allen. Winner of three New York State titles in four years, he reached the national quarter-finals last year.

Allen came here hoping to stake out a claim for a Walker Cup berth. The team which will face the British at Baltimore in September, will be announced in June.

National champion Bill Campbell of Huntington, W.Va., and former Cup players Bill Hyndman of Abington, Pa.; Bob Gardner of Essex Falls, N.J.; Ward Wettlaufer of Atlanta and Dr. Ed Updegraff of Tucson were ousted Wednesday.

The group, headed by Philadelphia's coach Dolph Schayes and NBA commissioner Walter Kennedy, will depart May 8 to visit Poland, Rumania and Yugoslavia as well as Lebanon.

The eight-man team is composed of Don Ohl and Bailey Howell of the Baltimore Bullets; Tom Meschery and Nate Thurmond of the San Francisco Warriors; Wayne Embury of the Cincinnati Royals; and Hal Greer, Larry Costello and Dave Gambee of the 76ers.

View on Gridiron Rule Could Shake Canadians

TORONTO (UPI)—A University of Toronto law professor has advised the Canadian Football League CFL that its 19-year-old regulation restricting the number of foreign players on its teams violates the Ontario human rights code.

Bora Laskin, the professor, advised the governor of the league with a letter to CFL President Pat Mahoney. Each club of the nine-member circuit presently is allowed to carry 13 import players on its roster.

The league asked Laskin for an opinion on the import regulation after arguments ensued from a league decision last February to restrict each team to three naturalized Canadian players and cut the number of imports from 14 to 13.

IDEA CHALLENGED

Laskin challenged the whole idea of the import restriction, based on the human rights code which reads, in part, "no employer shall refuse to employ or continue to employ any person because of his race, creed, color, nationality, ancestry or place of origin."

The code applies to Americans employed in Ontario and Ontario has three professional football clubs, the Toronto Argonauts, Ottawa Roughriders and Hamilton Tigercats.

Since 1946 the CFL has allowed only a limited number of American players to play in Canada. The human rights code was enacted three years ago.

All the Ontario teams are privately owned enterprises. The western clubs in the CFL are not affected by the code because they are classified as nonprofit organizations whose profits go to charity.

Elimination of the import ruling would mean that the moneyed teams of the league could sign many higher-salaried Americans, leaving the poorer teams in a bad competitive position.

Japanese Ace to Join Giants

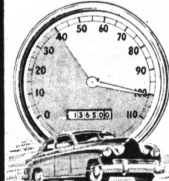

TOKYO (AP)—Japanese pitcher Masanori Murakami will leave for the United States around May 5 to report to the San Francisco Giants. Shigeru Niyama, president of the Nankai Hawks of Osaka, said Thursday.

"Now that we have promise he will be returned to Japan after the 1965 season," Niyama said, "we would like him to go back to the Giants and play as soon as possible."

Niyama was referring to a cable received by Japanese Baseball Commissioner Yushi Uchiumura early Thursday, in which the Giants assured that the 24-year-old southpaw will be permitted to play in Japan in 1966 and thereafter.

"We are very happy and thankful for the generous decision of the Giants," a spokesman for Uchiumura said. He said Uchiumura immediately cabled Giants' President Harace Stoneham and U.S. Baseball Commissioner Fred Frick, thinking them to help settle the lengthy dispute.

OK Land Fund in Senate Unit

State Forest Sought for Conservation Use

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., said today funds to acquire more than 18,000 acres in Michigan have been approved by a Senate Appropriations subcommittee.

The forest land, bordering on Wisconsin's Iron and Vilas counties, is known as the Sylvania Tract in Gogebic County in Michigan's Upper Peninsula. It is privately owned.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said the U.S. Forest Service agreed to his suggestion to buy the heavily timbered land for conservation use.

Hart's bill to authorize the purchase was passed by Congress.

$6 MILLION

Although specific funds for the purchase are not earmarked in the appropriations bill, Hart's office said the cost is estimated at about $6 million.

Proxmire, a member of the appropriations subcommittee, said the House denied an administration request for funds to acquire the land.

Proxmire said if the tract is not bought for conservation use this year it probably will be acquired for private development. "Consequently, the subcommittee's action means a great deal to the depressed northern counties of Wisconsin," Proxmire said. "I am confident that the full appropriations committee will ratify this action."

Officers in Miami

Face Dope Charge

MIAMI (UPI) — Federal charges were placed yesterday against this city's top federal narcotics officer and the two city detectives accused with him of taking bribes from a dope peddler.

The charges were filed against Eugene Marshall, 34, the U.S. district narcotics bureau chief, detective Sgt. Marlon F. Fountain, 39, the city's top narcotics investigator and detective Roosevelt Tremble, 34, Fountain's partner.

The trio was picked up two weeks ago at the home of an alleged dope peddler in an arrest that rocked the city.

Idle Computer Put on Bookmakers' Trail

NEW YORK (AP) — A computer which normally evaluated income tax returns was idle. So, federal law enforcement officials decided to feed it some gambling information from bettors, agents, police and other sources. No income tax information was used, the officials said.

The computer evaluated such information as bookmakers' work sheets, the movements of bettors and bookmakers, geographical patterns of betting and the methods and amounts of payoffs.

Finally, it pointed its electronic finger at 86 alleged bookmakers. What's more, federal authorities said, the computer revealed the size of their yearly turnover as between $300 million and $400 million.

FEDERAL LAWS

The 86 were indicted on charges of violating federal laws requiring gamblers to register with the Internal Revenue Service and purchase $50 wadding stamps, it was announced Wednesday in Brooklyn by U.S. Atty. Joseph P. Hoey. Conviction carries a maximum penalty of a year in jail and a $10,000 fine.

The computer — a Honeywell 200 — with a batch of recommendations, is back at its income tax job in the Philadelphia office of the Internal Revenue Service.

Hoey said that if the information the computer handled had been processed by man alone, the three-year statute of limitations would have expired.

INTEGRAL AID

He said it marked the "first time in modern criminology" that the "new automatic data processing computers of the Internal Revenue Service were enlisted as an integral aid in connection with the illegal activities of bookmakers."

Hoey traced the origin of the indictments to the arrests about two years ago of 11 persons on bookmaking charges. None of the 11 were among those indicted Wednesday.

Information seized when the 11 were arrested, including records from a telephone answering service, provided the groundwork for the current case.

The computer clicked off the names of 14,000 bettors in the metropolitan area. Information was obtained from 8,000 of them. It was fed back into the computer, and led to the indictments.

MANY TESTIFY

Hoey said many of the bettors testified before the grand jury. He said all 86 men had been arrested as individuals. There were no charges that they conspired together or with others, he said.

"Sixty to 65 per cent of their activities involve sporting events other than horse racing, and they do not handle prize-fighting," Hoey said.

One of the few insects able to turn its head is the praying mantis.

U.S. Plane Hit by MIGs

N. Korea Attack 11th Since Armistice

WASHINGTON (UPI) — For the 11th time since the Korean War armistice of 1953, an American plane has been attacked by Communist North Korean jets—this time over international waters.

The Defense Department reported yesterday that two Russian-built North Korean MIG-17 jet fighters fired on an air force RB-47 reconnaissance plane Tuesday night over international waters more than 50 miles off the North Korean coast.

The plane, which carries a crew of six, returned safely to Yokota Air Base, Japan. None of the crewmen were injured, officials said.

The official North Korean news agency, in a dispatch monitored today in Tokyo, said "A U.S. spy plane RB-47 illegally intruded into the air above Sin-chiang and Riwon at noon yesterday and conducted reconnaissance."

"An Air Force unit of the heroic Korean Peoples Army shot down the spy plane at 12:31, dealing a powerful blow in a self-defense measure," the dispatch said.

ROUTINE MISSION

The Pentagon said the six-engine RB-47 was on a "routine mission" over the Sea of Japan and was flying parallel to the Korean coast when it was hit by the two MIGs. The U.S. plane returned the fire, but it was not known what results.

The site of the incident was said to be 55 miles east of the nearest point of land and about 50 miles north of the 38th parallel, which divides North and South Korea.

They are superior versions of the MIG-15s used in the Korean War against American planes.

38TH INCIDENT

Pentagon records show that, excluding the actual Korean and Vietnamese fighting, the incident was the 38th involving American planes and the Communists around the world since an unarmed Navy privateer patrol plane was shot down over the Baltic Sea on April 8, 1950.

RB-47s have been used around the world for some years in electronic intelligence gathering operations.

AP Photo/Ex

TARGET FOR REDS — These RB-47 reconnaissance planes are similar to the one attacked by North Korean MIGs Tuesday over the international waters off the Korean coast. The craft returned to its base in Japan without injury to crewmen. The RB-47 is a version of the obsolescent B-47 and is much slower than the new-type MIGs.

Senator Eyes Health Care Bill Substitute

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Democratic whip Russell B. Long is considering the introduction "within the next few days" of a substitute for the House-passed $6 billion health care program.

The Senate Finance Committee, of which Long is a member, scheduled its first public hearing today on the administration measure.

Anthony J. Celebrezze, secretary of health, education and welfare, was listed as the first witness.

But even before the session could get under way, Long made it known he was considering a substitute for the package. The seed of his idea apparently was sown during the two days of closed-door briefings on the bill conducted by the committee earlier this week.

Long said he was trying to get cost estimates on his substitute. He said the main difference between his substitute and the House bill was that the pending measure could result in state medicine, while his could not.

AMOUNTS VARY

Under his plan, Long said, the amount a hospitalized person would have to pay before getting federal help would vary according to his means.

He said it would set a maximum of one year's income on the amount any individual would be obligated to pay for his own hospitalization and would provide greater benefits for "catastrophic illness which require hospitalization for two or three years and may be terminal."

"The idea is based on the theory that a person should be a self-insurer insofar as he is able but should not be wiped out by a catastrophic illness," he said.

"For persons in the lower and middle income brackets, the effect would probably be about the same as the provisions of the pending bill.

Denmark's Benedikte Comes Of Age

Plans U. S. Visit

Danish Princess Turns 21

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) — It was midnight in Nazi-occupied Denmark, 21 years ago. Suddenly the silence was torn by the explosion of a time bomb in a downtown park. Another followed, and another—21 in all.

Denmark's resistance movement had hailed the birth of a new princess, second child of Crown Prince Frederik and Crown Princess Ingrid, now king and queen of this 1,000-year-old monarchy.

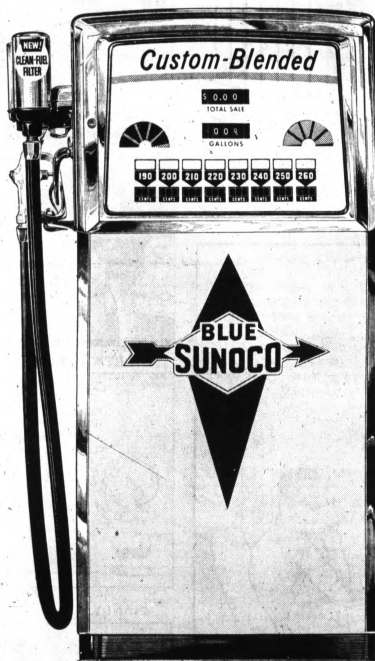

The Germans had forbidden the traditional 21-gun salute announcing a birth in the royal family. A British agent supplied the explosives for the bomb salute.

Princess Benedikte, 21 today, is tall and slim, with dark blue eyes and chestnut hair. She leaves Monday on her first trip to the United States, visiting Copenhagen; a theater party at the Royal Theater and a ball at Fredensborg.

In coming of age, the princess also becomes eligible for the throne, in line after her sister Crown Princess Margrethe, 25. King Frederik has no sons; his youngest daughter, Anne-Marie, stepped out of the line of succession when she married King Constantine of Greece last year. Benedikte now will take over more and more official duties from her father, who is 66, and Margrethe. It is a good guess that she will be seen abroad more and more, perhaps more than her sister.

Benedikte's birthday schedule included her first appearance at the state council—made up of the cabinet, the king and the heirs to the throne—to sign the constitution and promise always to observe it; a family luncheon at Fredensborg Castle north of Copenhagen; a theater party at the Royal Theater and a ball at Fredensborg.

Friends Seeking to Keep Escapee Free

CHANDLER, Okla. (AP) — Jim Fleming's friends, trying to keep him out of a California prison from which he escaped nearly two years ago, have trapped him in another prison from which there can be no escape.

The new prison has no walls and there are no guards — except Fleming himself.

"If I run again now, too many people I love and respect will get hurt," said Fleming, 32, who until late March was just another car salesman to residents of this town of 3,000 persons.

Then a Federal Bureau of Investigation poster, identifying Fleming as an escapee from the Folsom State Prison, came to the attention of Sheriff L. P. Orr. Fingerprints established the wanted man's identity.

WIFE FAINED

Fleming's wife, Lee Anne, fainted when Orr told her about her husband when he met in West Virginia.

When she recovered she said, "A change in name doesn't change a person." Mrs. Fleming, mother of two daughters — three and six years old — by a previous marriage, said the girls "dearly love him. That's the man I know."

Fleming marveled at what has become a storylike battle to keep him from returning to Folsom, where he was serving a sentence of one year-to-life for robbery. He had been in prison for 30 months.

After his escape, he began a year-long journey through Nevada, Idaho, Canada, West Virginia, Kentucky and finally to Oklahoma. He obtained an Oklahoma driver's license, using the name "Jim Miller," a Social Security card, a fishing license, and then a marriage license for his wedding in July 1964. He came to Chandler in September.

TRUE IDENTITY

After his true identity was disclosed, 100 Chandler residents signed a petition attesting to his good character and asked clemency from California authorities.

Fleming was released in custody of George Totten, his employer, and Curtis Walker, a minister who posted $2,500 bond.

Now he awaits Oklahoma Gov. Henry Bellmon's action on California's request that he be returned.

Bids to Be Opened on M59 Projects

Bids on the construction of 4.5 miles of M59 freeway east of Pontiac are to be opened in Lansing Wednesday, it was announced by Howard E. Hill, acting director of the Michigan State Highway Department.

The 4.5 miles extends eastward from I-75 to Livernois. Construction is slated to get under way in about a month. Completion date for the contract is Nov. 30, 1966.

North's one heart opening was one of those tactical rubber bridge bids that usually turn out to be tactically unsatisfactory.

This one should have succeeded, but unfortunately for North, South decided to bid too much and the result was a minor disaster.

South, should have been delighted with his partner's two-club bid but South looked at his good diamonds and decided to bid two no-trump. He overlooked the fact that the good diamonds were just about his whole hand.

West made the killing opening lead of the seven of spades and the defense ran off five spade tricks. South had to make discards from dummy and his choice of discards was far worse than his choice of bids. He shed four diamonds and the eight of hearts while East sim-

Third Incident at NY Church

NEW YORK (AP) — Police flocked to St. Patrick's Cathedral for the third time in three weeks when a prowler was found in a priests' residence near the Roman Catholic church.

The prowler was spotted by a maid Wednesday night and scared off by her screams. She gave police a description.

Moments later, a man identified as Dwain Smith, 33, was arrested four blocks away. He was charged with burglary and possession of burglars' tools. Police said he is an ex-convict.

TWO INCIDENTS

More police than usual have been assigned to the cathedral area in mid-Manhattan since the previous two incidents.

A man hurled a fire bomb against the main altar railing last Thursday, injuring a woman.

RAT ON TOP — A baby white rat, called Elmer Pudd, looks self-satisfied up on the brown locks of freckled Janis Schumacher, 9. Janis visited the psychology department at the University of Colorado, Boulder, where Elmer is one of several rats used in an experiment dealing with the relationship of appetite to intake of needed vitamins and minerals.

Romney Underlines Unity as Ingredient to Survival

BRUSSELS (UPI) — Gov. George Romney said today "the very survival of our Western civilization" may hinge on the degree to which the United States and Europe are willing to work cooperatively.

Romney, in an address to the American Chamber of Commerce and Belgo-American Association said, "it is inconceivable that in our world as we know it today, Europe could ever be independent of the United States or vice versa, or that any of its nations could be totally divorced from one another."

"We need strength of union as never before," he said.

"We need to work to develop even closer political, military and economic bonds."

"In fact, the very survival of our Western civilization may depend upon the degree to which we are prepared to put aside selfish concerns and work together cooperatively."

Romney said that as Europe continues its economic, political and social rebirth "you have, in combination with the United States, much to offer the rest of the world."

"Cooperatively, we can insure the greatest level of economic and political security ever known by our own people. But more importantly, we can help the underdeveloped countries grow and flourish in an atmosphere of freedom rather than tyranny."

Romney described helping the underdeveloped countries as "our great Western challenge."

Kim Novak and Husband

Stars Rough It on Honeymoon

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-Television Writer

CARMEL, Calif.—Movie stars usually spend honeymoons in glamorous settings like the Riviera or Acapulco.

Newlyweds Kim Novak and British actor Richard Johnson have been camping out in the hills of the rugged Big Sur country near here.

"We just packed our supplies in the station wagon," says Kim, "and honeymooned in sleeping bags. It's the world's greatest way to get away from it all. For days, we saw nothing but deer and rabbits."

Kim is used to the rugged life. For years, she has maintained a home here on an ocean promontory. For Johnson, the camping trip was something he hadn't done since childhood.

WIFE IS GOOD COOK

"But I found out that my wife is a good cook," says Johnson. "It was a fortunate thing because out in those wilds you have a captive appetite."

Kim and her husband wind up their honeymoon within the next week or so to go on the road for "The Amorous Adventures of Moll Flanders."

It's the picture where the two met — and under, Kim says, a terrific hand-cup for an actress and actor.

"Richard kept upstaging me," she says. "When I'd complain, he would apologize by saying that he had spent most of his life in the theater and didn't understand movie techniques."

But when an actor upstages an actress and finally marries her, he has to be quite a guy. There are some who say that Johnson is one of Britain's finest actors, a young Olivier.

He has been in the business for 20 years, starting with John Gielgud in "Hamlet."

He and Kim are shopping for a script to do together.

"I'm anxious to concentrate on films from now on," he says. "I've had so many years in the theater that I'm now ready for a new challenge."

Mom Saves Baby in Car

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, Pontiac Press

Without thought for her own life, Mrs. Marlene Taube, 23, pitted her strength against that of a rolling automobile as it careened backward toward Walton Boulevard's rush-hour traffic yesterday afternoon.

Her baby was in the car.

According to bystanders, Mrs. Taube, the wife of Donald Taube, 250 Ridgmont, Addison Township, pulled into the driveway at 3400 Walton, Avon Township, and got out to ask directions to a local doctor's office.

Turning, the mother saw her car begin to move down the drive's steep incline. She dived toward the rolling vehicle, reaching it only to be thrown under the wheel as the car came to a stop just short of the thoroughfare.

PINNED UNDER TIRE

"She was pinned under the right front tire," said Don Beens of 711 Willard, Avon Township, who had stopped to help.

"Six or seven of us lifted the car up and pulled her free. We covered her to keep her warm until help came."

As Mrs. Taube was placed in the ambulance, a voice spoke out, "Where's the baby?"

A quick check in the car proved four-month-old Donni Jo had survived her first solo ride without even tipping her perky yellow bonnet away, or letting go of her half-filled bottle.

Mrs. Taube is listed in fair condition with a fractured pelvis at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital this morning. The baby was treated and released.

GM 1st Quarter Sets All-Time U.S. Mark

DETROIT (AP)—General Motors wrote a fabulous page in American business history yesterday when it reported the biggest profit ever made in a first quarter by any firm.

The $636 million profit topped the GM and U.S. industry's old first quarter high of $536 million set last year.

It also marked a new high for any quarter, surpassing the old mark of $602 million GM earned in the second quarter of 1964.

A record-breaking number of GM workers shared in the company's tremendous first three months and they earned more than GM workers ever got before in any quarter.

GM worldwide employment averaged 737,963 workers for the first quarter and they were paid $1.2 billion. These totals were far ahead of the previous highs, set in the second quarter last year, of 690,802 workers and $1.2 billion in payrolls.

Practically every item in GM's first quarter report marked a new record.

Junk Yard Trial Delay Is Likely

The Sam Allen & Sons, Inc., scrap yard trial will probably be adjourned tomorrow for five weeks, according to Circuit Judge Frederick C. Ziem, who is hearing the case.

Disposition of the month-long trial is necessary, Ziem said, because of a judicial conference he is to attend next week, and the start of a four-week jury term the following week.

Ziem said it would be impractical to reschedule the jury cases around the nonjury Allen trial.

A permanent injunction is being sought against the firm at 22 Congress by the City of Pontiac and 15 neighboring residents. The complainants claim the operation is a nuisance.

Ziem said he had little doubt that the case would be adjourned.

"The defense hasn't even started," said Ziem. "Up to this point, the city has been arguing its case."

Two defense witnesses have been called out of sequence in the proceedings, but only because they made it known that they would not be available at a later date.

A complainant, Mrs. Jacqueline Smith, 32 Bagley, was recalled to the stand yesterday and testified that there were no vibrations at her home until the firm installing a scrap metal pulverizing machine.

She said the machine could be heard above traffic noises. Under cross-examination by defense attorney L. Harvey Lodge, she said that windows rattle only when the machine is operating, but added that there are times when the machine is on that the windows don't shake.

City employees, Raymond McCoy, a surveyor, and Maynard Newman, a draftsman, also testified about measurements and drawings they had made in connection with the locations of buildings and equipment on the property.

The plaintiffs contend that the firm is in violation of the zoning code because it has extended its nonconforming use when it installed the pulverizing machine.

More GIs to Santo Domingo

WASHINGTON (AP)—Another 100 U.S. Marines were landed in the strife-torn Dominican Republic today to protect Americans, as bloody fighting engulfed Santo Domingo, the capital.

None of the some 2,000 U.S. citizens remaining in the Caribbean country have been harmed, according to the latest reports reaching Washington.

Shooting among rival Dominican forces was reported continuing in the capital city, with at least 400 Dominican dead, 1,200 wounded, and armed mobs, up to several hundred strong, sacking and looting in residential areas.

PARIS (AP)—The French government today ordered two warships to the Dominican Republic to evacuate any French citizens who feel their lives are in danger.

President Johnson ordered the Marines ashore late yesterday from a naval force, after getting word of the breakdown of local governmental authority.

The Dominicans were unable to guarantee safety for the Americans, Johnson told the nation in an emergency radio-television appearance.

About 400 leathernecks, landed by helicopter on the outskirts of Santo Domingo, under Johnson's order.

The area, and the adjacent Embajador Hotel, are being used as a staging area for the evacuation of Americans.

Another 100 from a U.S. naval force were landed early this morning, bringing the total U.S. Leatherneck strength on the scene to about 500, Washington officials said.

SENT DOWNTOWN

A detachment was sent downtown for protection of the American Embassy, which had been machine-gunned earlier.

There has been no exchange of fire between the American Marines and Dominican factions, the U.S. officials added.

The mission of the Marines—the first landed in Latin America under such circumstances in more than 30 years—is to protect Americans amidst the breakdown of public order, not to serve any political cause.

As of the latest count, 215 Americans—tourists, travelers (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Aussie Troops Will Be Sent to S. Viet Nam

Prime Minister Says Aid Was Requested; Johnson Lauds Action

CANBERRA, Australia (AP)—Prime Minister Sir Robert Menzies announced in the House of Representatives today Australia will provide an infantry battalion for service in South Viet Nam.

Sir Robert said the decision had been made on request of the South Vietnamese government for further military assistance.

Defense Minister Shane Paltridge declined to say when the battalion would leave and where it would be deployed in South Viet Nam.

The force would number up to 800 men.

CARRIES REFUGEE BABY—One of the youngest refugees evacuated from the Dominican Republic yesterday is 14-month-old Georgia Ann Malcolm, being carried by Navy man James Middleton of Albany, Ga. Romney to Unveil Plans to Avoid Financial Crisis

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney will unveil "alternatives to avoid financial crisis" in Michigan at a conference on state finances May 13.

Romney, who promised last week to propose alternate tax revision plans, is again taking his fiscal message to the people—but this time it is a plea for "fiscal integrity," rather than specifically for fiscal reform.

And that, Romney hinted last week, could involve a piecemeal approach to increased or new taxes.

His office announced yesterday that he has scheduled a Governor's Conference on State Finances for May 13, to which he has invited some 1,000.

The list includes legislators, news media executives, agency heads, mayors and representatives of labor, church, civic, educational and veterans organizations.

The purpose of the conference, his letter of invitation said, is to:

• "Outline needed projected state expenditures for the next three budget years."

• "Bring about a better public understanding of the serious nature of this state's financial problems."

Quake Rocks Northwest U.S.

No Deaths Reported; Damage Is Limited

SEATTLE (AP)—A severe earthquake rocked the Pacific Northwest today, causing widespread damage.

Some walls collapsed in downtown Seattle and a man was reported trapped in a car covered by the rubble.

Buildings swayed in a score of cities as the occupants streamed into the street.

Grand Coulee Dam, in northeast Washington, reported the shock was felt for more than 45 seconds. Some circuits at the big hydroelectric dam were knocked out.

There were no immediate reports of casualties.

LIMITED DAMAGE

Most damage appeared to be limited to cracked plaster, broken windows and dishes, and snapped wires.

The University of Washington seismologist said the quake was "so strong it knocked the needle off the seismograph and he was unable to get a reading."

At Victorian B.C., the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory said the same thing happened there.

At Olympia, the state capital buildings shook for nearly a minute and state workers ran into the open.

The shock appeared to be worse than one which did severe damage to the legislative buildings in 1949.

Birmingham Man Will Defend Foster

Birmingham attorney Joseph L. Hardig Jr. has been appointed to defend Clark Foster, 29, who is charged with first degree murder in connection with the February 1964 death of his wife.

Hardig, 43, Puritan, was appointed by Circuit Court Judge Clark J. Adams after it was determined that Foster could not afford to hire his own attorney.

Foster, who was convicted of manslaughter in connection with the death of a 20-year-old woman and piano. He has toured with a Dixieland band and the Les Elgart Band.

As a Walled Lake High School student, he toured Europe with the Michigan Chorale.

Says Turnpike Chief

To Detour Speeding Envoys

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP)—Foreign diplomats, immune from arrest for speeding, have had it pretty much their own way on the New Jersey turnpike for years.

In some instances, they zoomed along that leg of the New York to Washington route at more than 100 miles an hour.

New Jersey troopers were permitted to pull the diplomats' shiny limousines over to the roadside and explain the hazard of high speed motoring on the heavily traveled highway. But no tickets.

State officials tolerated the situation quietly until recently when a hot-rodding African envoy allegedly berated a trooper who used up his time to urge restraint at the throttle.

That got up the Irish of turnpike director

Thomas J. Flanagan. He still cannot have the diplomats arrested, but he can—and he said yesterday he will—declare them persona non grata on his highway.

OFF THE ROAD

From now on, Flanagan said, New Jersey troopers will usher speeding diplomatic limousines off the turnpike onto local roads to finish their trips.

His stern dictum was expected to cause angry reaction in the United Nations corridors and in the Washington embassies—especially when it goes into practice.

Flanagan's crackdown came after nine frustrating years at the turnpike helm in which he saw the superpowered limousines with protection (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Area Teen Sees Coup in Making

Dennis E. Garrels of West Bloomfield Township will come home Sunday—not with the usual trinkets collected during three months abroad, but with eyewitness tales of the Dominican Republic revolt.

Garrels, 22, is one of the 18 University of Michigan jazz band members evacuated from the West Indies hot spot Monday.

The group is appearing in Jamaica and will arrive at Willow Run Sunday night.

Garrels' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Garrels of 7648 Sweetbriar, have been breathing more easily since they heard the news last night.

Typical of traveling sons, Garrels is "not a good correspondent," his mother said.

PLANS CHANGED

He had neglected to notify his family that the band's plans were changed to include the five-night stand in Santo Domingo.

"Not knowing he was there, it was really a shock when we heard that the Navy was being sent in to take them to Puerto Rico," Mrs. Garrels said.

Via news reports, she has constructed visions of her son sitting in a hotel room with "bullets flying right and left."

FIRST REACTION

"My first reaction was 'Thank God he is safe!'" Mrs. Garrels said.

Then she heard that the members had been obliged to leave their personal belongings in the hotel, which later was looted by rebels.

Touring Latin America since Jan. 22, her son must have accumulated a large number of items, she said.

year's miniature cane sale. Most other area Lions Clubs also will be selling canes this weekend to raise funds for the many projects that benefit the blind. Chairman of the Pontiac Lions Club sale is Phil Wellemeyer.

KENNY GIRL — Karen Benson, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Benson of Waterford Township, has been named the Kenny Girl of 1965 and will be the guest of honor at the annual banquet of the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation Tuesday in Detroit.

Kenny Group Picks Waterford Twp. Girl

A 5-year-old Waterford Township girl, who learned to walk again after her entire right leg was burned, will be the Kenny Girl for 1965.

Honored at the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation's annual banquet Tuesday at the Veterans Memorial Building in Detroit will be Karen Benson of 273 Highgate.

Karen became disabled last September when a playmate accidentally kicked a can of flaming kerosene in her direction.

The flames left third degree burns over her leg. Surgeons at Pontiac General Hospital grafted skin over the child's burns in a series of operations and in November Karen was referred to the Kenny Rehabilitation Center at the hospital.

WAS AFRAID

At first the child was afraid to walk. When she did, she limped severely.

Kenny therapists began a daily program of massage, exercises and walker training and by Jan. 8 Karen's limp was gone.

The girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Benson, supervised their daughter's twice daily exercises at home and soon she was again able to walk and play with her brothers, Mark, 7, and Greg, 4.

Dr. John J. Hanlon, Public Health Director for Detroit and Wayne County, will speak to guests and members of the Foundation at the 7 p.m. banquet.

The Kenny Foundation is a Michigan United Fund Agency.

Wife of Slain Minister Making New Start

BOSTON (AP) — The widow of the Rev. James J. Reeb, Unitarian minister slain during civil rights demonstrations in Selma, Ala., last month, says she and her four children are making a new start in life.

"I've decided to enroll in Cas-per Junior College in Wyoming. I was a student there once. I will leave Boston for good on Friday," Marie Reeb said in an interview.

It was reported that the fund for the children, John, 13, Karen,

7, Ann, 5, and Steven, 3, has reached $95,000. Public donations for their support and education are being deposited in two Boston financial institutions.

"I don't know how many letters I've received. Some I've answered-but there are many I haven't read. It's too painful," she said.

The St. Lawrence River is now the only natural outlet of the Great Lakes. There have been at least seven other outlets during the last 20,000 years.

Mexico Campaign to Eliminate Illiteracy Paying Off

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexico's nationwide "revolution through education" is being pushed hard by the administration, which hopes to eliminate illiteracy by 1970. Even if the goal is not reached, the drive is paying off. Mexico spends four times as much on education as it does on defense and efforts to educate the masses are massive, although the stork is a major problem. Illiteracy, running almost 80 percent of the population at one time, is down to around 32 percent. But Mexico's population has jumped from 15 million to around 40 million in half a century, and is growing at the rate of a million a year. So the percentage looks good, but the actual numbers don't.

Consequently, Prof. Ramon Bonfil, newly appointed director of the government's anti-illiteracy campaign, is pushing education in all fields — new schools, more teachers, radio and television programs, a national drive for more students, and even new teaching concepts.

Newspapers, television, radio, private industrial and fraternal groups, all are helping. School children ring doorbells looking for illiterates to enroll in a new 10-month course.

When the 1910 revolution ended, Mexican peasants wanted schools for their children almost as badly as they wanted land for themselves. President Alvaro Obregon launched Mexico's first major program for education in the early 1920s. He named Jose Vasconcelos education minister.

Vasconcelos put into operation a unique formula for rural education which continues to be the basis of the system today. Rural areas are the major problem.

Vasconcelos organized missionary teachers to visit rural areas by rail, car, horseback, canoe and on foot, surveying educational and health needs and recruiting the help of rural teachers. By the end of Obregon's term in 1924 there were more than 1,000 federal rural schools operating, with about 65,000 students, despite many handicaps.

LATEST FIGURES

The latest figures show there are 37,575 primary city schools with 6,605,751 students, and 28,931 primary rural schools with 2,694,191 students. In addition, there are secondary schools, many universities, including the huge National University, with more than 75,000 enrolled, and other centers.

But Mexico's battle has been complicated by the tremendous increase in population, about 3.1 per cent a year. In 1930 Mexico had 16.6 million people, today an estimated 40 million.

The death rate has decreased sharply, from 131.6 deaths in every 1,000 births in 1930 to about 11 deaths per thousand today.

Although the government has set up a five-year program hoping to educate all by 1970, officials acknowledge it may take a decade to provide adequate education for this ever-swelling tide of school-age children.

Age Factor Determines the Seating

By The Emily Post Institute. Q: Will you please tell me how to determine who is to be seated on the right of the hostess when there are two men of equally important position present?

A: If one of them has been to your house before and the other not, you would seat the latter on your right.

If neither has been to your house, the older of the two gentlemen would be seated on your right and the other on your left.

Q: Is it obligatory when one is a frequent weekend guest in the house of friends, to write a bread-and-butter letter to the hostess after each visit?

A: To be strictly correct, you should write a bread-and-butter letter after every visit, but I agree with you that it does seem to be overdoing politeness to write a note to a hostess in whose house you stay often.

I hardly think she would consider you rude if you did not write a note after each and every visit.

Kids Want Roles Changed; They Would Make Decisions

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We have three daughters, 11, 15 and 17, who can't wait until they reach the age when they will be their "own boss."

In your opinion is there such an age? I believe you said there was not, and you listed a few accomplishments a girl had to achieve before she could be her own "boss."

I would appreciate your reviewing that list.

A MOTHER DEAR MOTHER: In order to be one's own boss (in my opinion) a girl must be able to leave her parents' home, pay for her own clothing, insurance, and medical and dental care, and pay for the continuance of her own education, transportation and recreation. Then she has the privilege of choosing her own company, making her own decisions and being her own "boss."

DEAR ABBY: In your column you stated that the widow who removed her wedding ring is thereby telling the world that she is "looking."

I cannot speak for other widows but, in my case, nothing could be further from the truth. When my husband died a year ago, after 30 years of happiness, I placed MY wedding ring on HIS finger as a token of my undying love for him.

My wedding ring had never been removed from the time he placed it on my finger during our wedding ceremony.

We are both of Irish descent, and it is an old Irish custom. It has been observed by all the women in both our families as far back as we can remember. And there is no record of any woman in either family having remarried.

Personally, I could no more marry again than I could have been unfaithful to him while he was still living. And I know many ringless widows who share my feelings.

Furthermore, I resent such sweeping generalities.

RINGLESS BUT NOT LOOKING DEAR RINGLESS: No offense intended. I should have used the word "available." You are not, but other widows without rings possibly are. Thank you for your enlightening letter.

DEAR ABBY: Thank you for telling that mother whose 23-year-old son wanted to marry a 33-year-old widow that the marriage could work. If that "older" woman loves her 23-year-old husband half as much as I love MY husband, the mother should be grateful.

My husband is 20 and I am 31. We've been married ten months and my young husband has taught me more about living and being a mature woman, wife and mother, than anyone in my life.

He proudly refers to his 12-year-old stepson as "my son." The children adore him and I worship him.

OU Library to Be Scene of Annual Event

Richard Harwell, librarian at Bowdoin College and noted Civil War scholar, will be the main speaker for the annual meeting of Oakland University's Friends of Kresge Library on Tuesday.

The dinner meeting to be held in the Kresge Library will include election of officers.

Mrs. L. E. Quinn, Mrs. George Widdfield, and Mrs. C. W. Parcells are in charge of planning the annual meeting.

Harwell is nationally known as the author of many books and pamphlets, most of them related to the Civil War period.

Before joining the Bowdoin College staff in 1961, he was associate executive director of the American Library Association and executive secretary of the Association of College and Research Libraries.

He has done more for us than either of my two former husbands. (You see, I was no prize package.)

I would go to the ends of the earth and back for this man.

PROUD TO BE HIS WIFE

DEAR PROUD: Congratulations but, in my book, you are still on your honeymoon. If, after ten YEARS, you can write the above letter, I would say you had it made.

It's not difficult to understand why a twice-married, 31 year-old divorcee with three children would worship a young man who would marry her and adopt her children. Be good to him. He's one in a million.

School Plans Go to Voters Monday

ROCHESTER — Whether the original plans for the Rochester Senior High School are to be finally completed will be determined Monday by voters in the Rochester School District.

Property-owning electors will cast ballots on a proposed $11-million bond issue that would provide a swimming pool and 600-seat auditorium at the senior high.

Both facilities were part of original plans for the school, slated for completion when funds become available.

School officials estimate now that they can be financed through the levying of a one-mill tax, which in Avon Township will represent about $2.20 per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

The district now collects 6.5 mills, lowered in 1963 from a level of 7 mills.

CITIZENS' GROUP

Building of the facilities has been recommended by the Citizens' Advisory Committee after a study of curriculum and building and site requirements.

Statements of support for the proposal have come from the Rochester YMCA, which helped in the swimming pool study, the Rochester Junior Women's Club, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Avon Youth Recreation Association.

School officials have emphasized the joint nature of both swimming pool and auditorium, which would be shared by the schools and the community.

Acting Utica School Chief Gets Position

UTICA — Philip E. Runkel has been named superintendent of schools by the Utica Board of Education.

Runkel has been serving as acting superintendent since January, when former Supt. Fred Atkinson resigned.

The 37-year-old top man rose quickly from a spot as assistant principal at Eppler Junior High School to the highest administrative position in three years, stopping along the way to serve as principal of Shelby Junior High School.

He has 15 years of teaching and administrative experience. Before taking the Eppler position he was principal of Clinton Junior High School in Clinton Township.

Casting "no" votes on the appointment board members William Porter (vice president) and Howard Dinger said they felt the superintendent should have more administrative experience.

Bus Pulls Out

HOLLY — The village may be missing the boat, but it's not going to miss the bus. Apparently few residents will notice or care when the Greyhound bus stops passing through here.

Not many ever used it, anyway. "Now we'll have only the train — and we have to flag that down," Village Supt. James K. Herrington said.

SERVICE DROPPED

The State Public Service Commission this week approved a Greyhound Bus Lines application to drop service to the communities.

Greyhound said cancellation of the routes would allow swifter and cheaper bus service via main expressways.

The service stoppage is expected in mid-June, after Greyhound files revised rates and schedules.

Ganges and Frankfort, on the original list of communities to be dropped, were retained because of vigorous local protests.

NO ATTENDANCE

Herrington said a couple of Holly residents wrote letters against the proposal to the commission but that none attended the hearings in Lansing.

The move had been expected, he said, ever since Greyhound discontinued the freight service.

"They had more trade from freight than passengers," he said. "Since then, they've just been stopping where anybody hailed them."

Cost factors have been a selling point for the bond issue.

STRESSES NEED

A brochure prepared by the Citizens' Advisory Committee, stressing the need for the facilities, points out that the $10,000,000 cost of operating and maintaining the pool can be met through fees and rentals to groups such as the YMCA.

It also states that the district can build and operate auditorium and pool more cheaply than any other agency because heating, piping and manpower are already available.

Detailing reasons for asking for the bond issue, the brochure says that:

- The only auditorium facility with sizable stage space in the area is 45 years old and inadequate for the expanding community;

- Daily use of the auditorium by the schools will "greatly enhance" the quality and scope of the educational program by providing opportunities for students to enjoy dramatics, group

Township May Ban Hunting

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The question of banning hunting in the township will be put to the voters here soon if Gov. Romney takes the action he is expected to take.

A bill introduced by State Rep. Raymond L. Baker (R-Farmington), permitting a township vote on banning hunting, has passed both houses of the legislature and now awaits the governor's signature.

Baker said, "There is every reason to believe that he will act favorably."

Baker commended the Legislature for its prompt action and said, "Now the voters will be able to make a final determination on this issue, which is so essential to the safety and general well-being of our community."

Passage of the bill was requested by the West Bloomfield Township Board and supported by petitions signed by about 1,100 residents.

The Conservation Department had also given its support, stating that the increased development of the township creates concern for possible injury to persons and property as a result of hunting activity.

Tea Set for Sunday

AVON TOWNSHIP — A mother and daughter tea will be held at the Elmwood Methodist Church, 3659 S. Grant, at 3 p.m. Sunday. A guest speaker will present a puppet play entitled "The Little Minister."

instruction, lectures and class meetings;

- Community organizations will benefit from the use of the auditorium, which will provide needed space for adult education, dramatic groups, musical groups, variety shows and similar activities;

- The pool would broaden the physical education program, making daily swimming instruction for grades 5 through 12 possible;

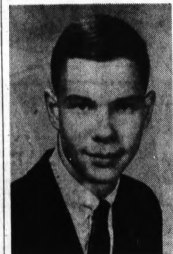

- Residents and groups in the area would gain a full time swimming facility.

AUDITORIUM PLAN

The auditorium would be located at the northeast corner of the senior high school, facing Livernois. It would contain a lobby, coat rooms, ticket booths and have paved parking areas.

The regulation, six-lane pool would have a diving area and shallow portions, the latter for elementary swimming. Community locker and dressing rooms would also be provided, plus folding bleachers and paved access driveways.

The pool would be constructed on the south side of the school's gymnasium.

With Postcard Campaign

War Declared on Litterbugs

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Beautification Committee has declared war on litterbugs.

The weapons to be used will be postcards bearing the following message:

"WARNING NOTICE — DO NOT LITTER

"Someone in your automobile, License No. (blank) was observed on (street) on (date) throwing litter out of your automobile."

"Such littering could carry a fine of $100 as provided by Village Ordinance. We need your cooperation to KEEP ROCHESTER AND AMERICA CLEAN.

"Sincerely,

"Rochester Beautification Committee."

DEARBORN IDEA

The idea for the campaign, proposed to the village council by Councilman John Boebert, chairman of the Beautification Committee, was borrowed from the city of Dearborn, where it is reported to have been a successful deterrent to littering.

Members of the committee will use the cards, which will be turned over to the police department when the blanks are filled in.

The police will look up the address of the car license holder, who will receive the card in the mail.

Village Attorney Arthur Cox said the postcards alone would not be evidence enough on which to base an arrest for violation of the littering ordinance.

SERVE AS REMINDER

The councilmen generally agreed, however, that the campaign should serve its purpose in reminding residents that "every little bit hurts."

The cards will be printed at the expense of the Beautification Committee, which is supported by donations.

Retirement Is Nearing

STERLING TOWNSHIP — Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Baumann, pastors of the Utica Evangelical Center for the past 25 years, will retire and move to Lehigh Acres, Fla., within the next few weeks.

The church membership will honor them with a retirement banquet at Gethsemane Lutheran Church, 1892 E. Auburn, Avon Township, at 6:30 p.m. Saturday.

$4-Million Program on School Election Ballot in Troy Again

TROY — A $4-million bond issue for school expansion will be put to a vote a second time in the June 14 school elections.

Two incumbent school board members will also be up for reelection to four-year terms.

Last October, the electorate gave the district a new five-mill tax for operating costs, but defeated the $4-million bond issue, 1,941 to 901.

Schools Supt. Dr. Rex B. Smith said the bond issue would raise school taxes by about $2.90 per $1,000 in assessed valuation and result in a total levy of 29.63 mills, assuming that expected equalization factors are approved by the county and state.

While the amount of the bond issue, the largest ever to be asked from district voters, has not changed, the intended use of the money has undergone drastic revision.

ALTERED USE

School officials, after consulting members of former citizens' study committees and observing other districts, made the following alterations in the way the bond issue will be used if passed.

- Instead of building two eight-room elementary schools and one 18-room school, the district would construct four small elementary buildings.

Dr. Smith said the change was made because "no one knows where an 18-room building could go, and this would give us four sites instead of three."

- One of the elementary school sites has been switched from the Somerset Park area to Section 22, bounded by Livernois, Big Beaver, Rochester and Wadsworth roads.

The superintendent said the switch was made because the developers of Somerset Park were setting a minimum age limit of 12 years for children of prospective tenants, while Section 22 already has enough children for a school.

- Some of the cost estimates for site acquisition have had to be revised to reflect rising land costs. This means, said Smith, that the district will obtain less acreage per dollar than it could have last year if the bond issue had passed the first time.

- Planned acreage for elementary school sites has increased in an effort to meet new site standards recommended by the National Council on Schoolhouse Construction.

- School officials are now planning to purchase a third junior high site in addition to building a $1.5-million second junior high school with the bond issue money.

Smith said this was because it would become increasingly difficult to find a 28-acre site as land in the district is developed.

- Only one future elementary school site purchase is planned now.

PORTABLE UNITS

- Five portable classroom units will be used adjacent to existing buildings until permanent classrooms or additions are built. This will enable the district to meet growth where and when it happens, said Smith.

- Plans for a new library materials center at Big Beaver Elementary School have been dropped, due to limited acreage available there.

Instead, the present library will be enlarged by converting a classroom for use as a library materials center.

- Also dropped are plans for a new multipurpose room at Piquette Elementary School, with conversion of the old one for a library materials center. Plans now call for conversion of two basement classrooms to a materials center.

NEW WING

- Instead of building a new multipurpose room at Union Elementary School, the district will wait until a new classroom wing is added at some time in the future, including it at that time.

A classroom is to be converted into a library material center there, and the school will "make do" with its present multipurpose room.

The bond positions now held by Richard C. Snood and Robert W. Dolmage will be filled by the June election. Both trustees are running for reelection to four-year terms, according to Smith.

View Payment of Water Bills

The neighborhood drugstore is not the place to pay city water bills, according to Herbert Parker, water superintendent.

Parker said drugstores are not authorized collection agencies for city water bills, although some utility company bills are payable at the stores.

Parker made the statements in attempting to clarify bill payment procedures for residents.

Water bills should be paid by mail or in person at City Hall.

Parker said city water bills are due within 60 days of their due date. If not paid, service will be discontinued.

Homeowners can expect to receive their water bill about two weeks after the meter is read. The due date is the date the meter was read.

Thus, water bills are due when rendered, said Parker.

Parke-Davis Co., Union Still Talk; Strike Okayed

Negotiations were continuing today between the Parke-Davis Co. and the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union Local 4716, following a state vote yesterday by the union.

The union membership voted to go on strike if no agreement is reached by midnight tomorrow, when the present contract expires.

A strike would close both the Rochester and Detroit plants. There are 253 employed at the Rochester plant.

The firm is hopeful of a settlement before the deadline, according to Harold Daniels, vice president personnel.

A second contract, between the company and the International Association of Machinists, expires May 5.

No settlement has been reached in contract negotiations with this group, according to Daniels.
