Miss America to Be Crowned Tonight

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Miss America will be crowned tonight and start her year-long reign as holder of the oldest national beauty title.

Two Southern girls, Miss Alabama and Miss North Carolina, won in the third round of preliminary judging last night. They are among the 52 contenders for the fame and fortune that goes to the final winner of the Miss America pageant.

Miss North Carolina, whose favorite sport is swimming, was declared tops in the swim suit division by the 11 judges who watched her walk down the runway at Convention Hall. She is Betty Lee Evans, 18, of Greenville, N. C., who stands 5-5½, weighs 112 pounds and measures 34-21-34½.

When her name was called as a preliminary winner, Miss Thornberry said she "just lost all control of myself."

"It was the same feeling I had when my mother bought my first pair of dancing shoes," she said.

Miss Evans is the daughter of a deacon and elder at Red Oak Christian Church, named the National Rural Church of the Year in 1954. She herself is organist there.

In addition to swimming, the brown-haired Miss North Carolina likes singing, the piano and collecting stuffed animals.

"I'm just glad I could do one little thing to make North Carolina proud of me," she said.

Presses to Roll in Detroit Today

Newspaper Strike Ends After 2 Days, in Time for Sunday Editions

DETROIT (UPI)—Detroit's two-day newspaper strike ended early today, about eight hours after a one-million-dollar damage suit was filed against striking pressmen, but the city's three daily papers won't resume publication until Sunday editions.

The settlement came after pressmen voted to return to their jobs at the conclusion of a stormy 4½ hour meeting at the labor temple.

Knight Newspapers, Inc., publisher of the Detroit Free Press, a morning paper, had filed a million-dollar damage suit against the pressmen yesterday afternoon and also asked $150,000 damages for each day a work stoppage "in violation of contract" continued.

The strike started at the Free Press late Wednesday when pressmen refused to report for work in protest over the firing of a union steward.

All three Detroit dailies, the Free Press and the afternoon News and Times, are represented in bargaining by the Detroit Newspaper Publishers Assn. and a strike against one paper is usually considered a strike against all three. Thus, the News and Times did not publish Thursday or Friday editions.

★ ★ ★

It was the second time in 13 months that Detroit's papers were kept off the streets by a strike. In August, 1957, a strike by mailers halted publication for a week.

The papers were also hit by a 46-day strike over the Christmas holiday period in 1955.

Quiz on Video 'Fed' Answer

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—The Rev. Charles E. Jackson, of Tullahoma, Tenn., said last night he was "fed" an answer to a question when he was a contestant on "The $64,000 Challenge" television show.

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Jackson, who appeared on the program in December of 1957, said, however, that "you can't accuse the people who produce these quiz shows of anything criminal. If there's anything wrong, it's with the American people themselves who are so unforgivably mercenary they worship anyone that makes money, no matter how it's made."

Jackson won $4,000 on "The $64,000 Question" and $16,000 on "The $64,000 Challenge."

The minister's disclosure marked the first time "The $64,000 Challenge" has been named in the current uproar over quiz show practices. In New York the district attorney's office is investigating the now-defunct "Dotto," "21," and a number of other shows.

WOULD BE AN IDIOT

Mrs. Regan Leydenfrost said after being questioned yesterday at the district attorney's office that "anyone would have to be an idiot not to be able to give the answers" on "Dotto." The blonde housewife said she had won $900 on the show.

Jackson said that in a briefing before he went on the air on the $64,000 Challenge, he was told by "A Miss Bernstein" that the answer to part of one question was Thomas Hood.

The question, in four parts, dealt with "great love stories." It asked the name of Christopher Marlowe's long poem about a famous lover who had to swim to his sweetheart and the name of the body of water involved.

Security Council Meets With Ike on China Crisis

President Interrupts His Vacation for Brief Return to Washington

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower convened an extraordinary session of the National Security Council today to review the Formosa crisis, including a new offer from Red China to negotiate the dispute.

Press Sec. James C. Hagerty said the President summoned all available members of the council "so he may have the benefit of their thinking on the most recent developments."

Hagerty said it was a "fair assumption" that the group would discuss Red China's offer to resume negotiations with this country on settling the Formosa dispute.

The talks, which had been taking place in Geneva on the ambassadorial level, collapsed last December when the Red Chinese rejected repeated U.S. demands for a joint renunciation of the use of force by the two nations.

U.S. officials were heartened by Premier Chou En-Lai's announcement today that his government was preparing for a resumption of the talks.

These officials said this could move the Formosa crisis from the "shooting stage" to the conference table. But they warned that new talks would not necessarily assure a quick settlement.

MEET AT LUNCH

Asked if the President or the White House had any comment on Chou En-Lai's overture, Hagerty said he could state only that "the President, of course, is aware of it."

Originally, the President had planned to meet with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles only. But Hagerty said Eisenhower subsequently decided to confer with Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy,

Revised County Budget to Be Studied Monday

Oakland County supervisors, concerned all year over soaring welfare relief costs, will get some relief themselves Monday when they meet to receive a revised 1959 county budget.

The relief will be in the form of a proposal of the Ways and Means Committee that, if supervisors approve it, could add $451,167 to welfare funds.

This is made possible by a May decision of the Wayne County Circuit Court which takes an annual quarter of a mill allocation for the Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority out of the 15 mill tax limitation.

The ruling thus frees the ¼-mill for some other use. Supervisors undoubtedly will use it to help ease a forecasted year-end deficit of a million dollars brought on by the increase in welfare assistance.

It doesn't eliminate entirely allocation of yearly sums by Oakland and four other counties to support the authority. This will be done in the future by a separate assessment over and above the limitation, officials say.

Besides acting on this recommended shifting of funds, supervisors will receive copies of an adjusted 1959 budget based on a tax rate of $5.62 per thousand of equalized valuation set by the Tax Allocation Board in June.

The budget to be presented Monday totals $12,285,723. Of this amount, $10,164,723 is expected to be raised by taxation based on the $5.62 tax rate.

Expected to come from other departmental revenues, to balance the new budget, is $2,121,000.

Supervisors are not expected to act on the final 1959 budget until a Sept. 15 meeting.

The preliminary budget, presented in April for tax allocation purposes only, totaled $12,762,280. It was planned that $10,672,280 of this total would be raised from an anticipated tax rate of $5.90.

Necessity of trimming the budget arose when the Tax Allocation Board settled on the lesser rate of $5.62. The 1957 tax rate was $5 per $1,000 of equalized valuation.

Sec. Dulles Enters Case of Negro to Die for $1.95

By ALFRED McCORMACK JR.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., (UPI) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has entered the case of a negro sentenced to die for a $1.95 robbery of an elderly white widow, it was disclosed yesterday.

Dulles sent Gov. James E. Folsom a telegram saying there was world-wide concern for 55-year-old farm hand Jimmy Wilson who was sentenced to die for the nighttime theft.

Ralph Hammond, Folsom's executive secretary, reported Dulles said that U.S. embassies had received "numerous letters" about the case. He said Dulles mentioned the London embassy receiving "about 600 letters a day" and the embassy in Ireland "receiving about 400 letters a day."

Hammond said Dulles was "very emphatic that he was not trying to interfere with the judicial or court system of Alabama but just wanted to inform the governor of what was occurring throughout the world."

The governor's aide said Folsom informed Dulles the chief executive was receiving "more than 1,000 letters a day" at his office here. He said Folsom "apprised Dulles of the situation, how the case is going through the courts and that through the division of the three branches of government he wouldn't have jurisdiction until the State Supreme Court upheld the sentence."

Folsom has said he would commute the death sentence to life imprisonment if the Supreme Court upholds the death penalty.

Wilson was sentenced under Alabama law which makes nighttime robbery of an inhabited dwelling a capital offense. He is the fourth person sentenced to die for the crime in the state.

Reds Reported Massing Fleet to Invade Isles

American Troops Ready to Join in Maneuvers With Chiang's Army

From Our News Wires

TAIPEI — U.S. Marines preparing for joint U.S.-Chinese maneuvers boarded ships off southwest Formosa today, following reports the reds are massing an invasion fleet off the threatened Quemoy Islands.

The Marines, advance elements of a recently-arrived battalion, marched aboard ships of the U.S. 7th (Asiatic) Fleet during a lull in communist military activity in the Formosa Strait.

The big Red coastal guns covering the Quemoys were silent for the first time since Aug. 23, and there were no reports of Communist air activity in the area.

The newspaper China Post reported, however, that the Communists have massed 800 ships, including landing craft, in the Amoy-Welton area, opposite the outpost islands.

The report could not be confirmed immediately. Chinese Nationalist Adm. Liu Hoh-tu would say only that the Post's figures "are not necessarily correct."

Another unconfirmed report said that Vice Adm. Wallace M. Bleakley, commander of the 7th Fleet, has conferred secretly with President Chiang Kai-shek, perhaps on measures for the joint U.S.-Chinese defense of the Quemoys.

★ ★ ★

U.S. and Chinese officials would neither confirm nor deny this report, strengthening belief that such a conference probably took place The Chinese customarily try to keep such conferences secret.

The New York Times said in a dispatch from Quemoy that an effective blockade of Quemoy has been imposed by Communist China.

The dispatch said this is apparent "despite efforts by Nationalist Chinese and United States military leaders here to obscure developments."

★ ★ ★

"Since the beginning of the current campaign against the offshore islands Aug. 23, no troop or supply shipment of consequences has

Strikes Threaten GM Production

More Than 28,000 Idled in New Outbreak of Wildcat Walkouts.

DETROIT (AP)— A new outbreak of wildcat strikes hit the auto industry today and General Motors said the walkouts, idling more than 28,000 workers, threatened production of all its 1959 model cars.

United Auto Workers walking out today did so in protest of assignment of Saturday overtime while many fellow unionists remain laid off.

The walkouts came on the heels of a meeting by top GM and union negotiators yesterday where both sides reported reaching a better understanding of each other's position in new contract talks. UAW President Walter Reuther attended the session.

GM said protest strikes today crippled Fisher Body production at plants in Pittsburgh, Pa., Grand Blanc, Marion, Ind., Other new walkouts were at a Chevrolet plant in Livonia and a Chrysler Corp. Plymouth Plant in Detroit.

The UAW president re-joined GM negotiations for the first time since the old contract expired May 29. GM's chief negotiator, Vice President Louis G. Seaton, also joined in the talks.

★ ★ ★

Reuther said GM made no specific offer. The discussions were "reasonably friendly," he added.

Drowning Toll Five Below 1957 Figure

By DICK SAUNDERS

A post-Labor Day report of water accidents by the Oakland County Sheriff's Department reveals fewer drownings than last year, and the issuance of 100 tickets by the special lake partol deputies.

At this time last year 22 persons had drowned in the county's lakes. This year 17 have met death in water accidents.

No drownings were reported after Labor Day in 1957.

Of the 100 tickets issued by the patroling lake deputies, 67 were for reckless operation of a motorboat, and 16 for not having boat registration.

Twelve boat operators were ticketed for motors creating excessive noise, four for falsifying registration numbers, and one man was jailed for operating a motorboat while under the influence of liquor.

All the tickets and arrests were made under the provisions of a new Michigan boat law which went into effect Sept. 27, 1957, too late for last year's summer boat season.

Under it, all boats put in the water after March 1 had to bear a state registration number. Exceptions were made for boats under 16 feet not permanently or temporarily equipped with a motor.

Provisions covering reckless boat operation were included in the law.

The deputies handed out a total of more than 800 warnings, 668 for reckless operation alone, thus pointing to the fact that they were by no means "ticket happy."

No reckless operation case yet tried in court has been lost by the department.

The special deputies have put in a total of 3,147 working hours on area lakes since Memorial Day. Most of these hours came on weekends and holidays.

Sheriff Frank W. Irons said "We have had many letters from various lakeside residents commending the water patrol.

"The public has been quick to accept the deputies and I congratulate every one of them for doing a splendid job during the past summer months," he beamed.

The public, or a great majority of it, has accepted boat registrations too. Thus far in 1958 a total of 218,000 boat registrations have been applied and paid for in the county.

"The registration numbers have been extremely valuable in identifying boats being operated recklessly," said Deputy Donald K. Kratt, in charge of the water patrol.

"They have also aided deputies in locating stolen boats or boats which have drifted from their mooring," he added.

The drop in the number of drownings is seen by law enforcement authorities as the result of two things: 1—cooler weather this summer, discouraging swimmers; and 2—the lake patrol.

A total of seven children died playing near or in water without proper supervision; six drownings resulted from boating mishaps, and four persons drowned while swimming.

All of last year's 22 drownings occurred during the summer months, from Memorial Day to Labor Day.

This year only 12 drownings occurred in that period. A good explanation might be the sheriff's boat patrol.

Their record for rescues comes close to the difference in drowning totals. Deputies have been credited with saving four lives since Memorial Day.

Red Front Unit Lures Actress

Miss de Havilland Tells House Committee Group Folded When She Quit

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Olivia de Havilland, Academy Award winning actress, belonged to a communist front organization in Hollywood for two years before she found out its true nature and worked for its dissolution, a transcript of her testimony before the House UnAmerican Activities Committee revealed today.

Miss de Havilland, who testified before the committee in Washington on June 16, identified the red-dominated committee as the Hollywood Independent Citzens Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions.

She said she became a member of the group in 1944 because she had given up her English citizenship three years earlier to become an American and wanted to do something to help her adopted country.

The film star, now living in Paris with her husband, journalist Pierre Gallante, said she left the group two years later when she discovered "that whenever there was conflict between the U. S. and Russia, Russia was always assumed to be right."

Three months after she resigned the group was dissolved.

Miss de Havilland said she believed her action caused others to lose confidence in the group and it had to disband because of the number of members who resigned after she quit.

The actress, who won Oscars for her performances in "The Heiress" and "To Each His Own," was called before the house committee to answer questions about an affidavit she filed in 1953 while applying for a passport. She had mentioned the front organization in her affidavit.

A Chinese-language broadcast from red Peiping reported Chou's rejection of the warning issued Thursday by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Dulles said President Eisenhower would not hesitate to use U.S. armed forces to insure the defense of Formosa "if he judged that circumstances made this necessary."

Chou made his remarks in a broadcast beamed to domestic listeners in Red China. He said he had been ordered to issue a statement in answer to Dulles, following the secretary of state's meeting with President Eisenhower at Newport, R.I.

"Taiwan has been Chinese territory from the distant past," Chou said.

He said communist China has the "right to liberate" Taiwan and the Pescadores Islands, and asserted that this "liberation" would have taken place long ago if the United States had not interfered.

Chou reiterated that the problem of "liberating" Formosa was strictly an internal matter of the Chinese communist government. This is an oft-repeated red propaganda claim.

Chou said the Formosa area cannot be recognized as an area protected by the United States.

At the same time, it was reported that the United States is preparing to ship Nike Ajax missiles — antiaircraft weapons carrying non-atomic warheads— to Formosa. A U. S. spokesman would say only that he had "no information" on this report.

Although no explanation of a sudden lull in the red attack could be obtained, Liu said he doubts that it means that the communists are giving up.

"It is too early to tell what the reds are up to," he said.

Some sources here believed the reds may be waiting for the last vestiges of this week's typhoon weather to clear away, while others linked the lull with a strategy meeting reported under way in red-held Fukien province, opposite Formosa.

Reactions to the latest communist maneuvers in the Far East crisis poured in today from various Asiatic capitals.

Lt. Gen. Yu Jae-hung, chairman of the South Korean joint chiefs of staff, said in Seoul that the situation is "very dangerous," presenting a "great possibility" of exploding into a major war.

In Tokyo, the newspaper Asahi reported that the Japanese government has refused to give Nationalist China any clear guarantee of support against possible communist attack.

Four Plead Guilty, 13 Mute in Harsen's Island Raid

DETROIT (UPI) — Four persons pleaded guilty and 13 others stood mute yesterday at their arraignment in federal court on charges of violating the Migratory Bird Treaty Act.

They were arrested in the Harsen's Island area early yesterday as part of a three-state crackdown on a ring of "market hunters" who funneled wild ducks and geese into commercial food channels.

Assistant U.S. Atty. John Chase said five others will be arraigned at a later date.

Sixteen of the 17 were released on $500 bond, but Chase asked a bond on Robert Sears who was charged on two counts with sale, possession and transportation of 90 ducks.

Maximum penalty for violating the Migratory Bird Treaty Act is six months in prison and a $500 fine on each count.

Those who stood mute were Howard and Paul Sears, Harsen's Island; Gordon and Joseph Sears, Pearl Beach; Robert Sears; Bernard Miller, Algonac; John Lega, Pearl Beach; Ernest Johnson, Algonac; Douglas La Parl, Algonac; Robert A. Kazor, Fair Haven; Fred Odzark, Fair Haven; William W. Sodders, Algonac; and Wilfred Minnich, Harsen's Island.

Chase said Leonard Wiggins, Ronald Challenger, William Frantz Mrs. Mary Minnich and Gene Johnson will be arraigned at a later date.

Undercover agents bought 1,341 ducks from many of the suspects over a period of 18 months, Chase said. He said the ducks are being kept in a deep freeze at East Peoria, Ill., for evidence.

Chase said the birds were taken illegally. He said some were taken in baited traps, some killed with oversize shotguns and some were netted with gunny sacks.

New County Budget on Tap for Monday salaries Committee Monday is expected to reflect a large share of this necessary cutback, according to Norman R. Barnard, committee clerk.

This report is expected to show a salaries budget of $5,122,425, which is a reduction of $180,560 under the allocation budget presented five months ago.

The Ways and Means Committee, a seven-member panel charged with studying fiscal matters of the county, will have a monopoly on Monday's session as chairman Fred W. Smith presents seven reports.

The report on transfer of funds to the welfare budget will include turning $150,000 over from the county general fund for this purpose. Smith, of Royal Oak, is scheduled to give a full report on the status of welfare monies at the meeting.

Eight Towns Evacuated

Weary Tropical Storm Moves Gently Into Texas

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—Tired tropical storm Ella moved gently into Texas today with intermittent downpours and swelling seas and squalls along the Texas Gulf Coast.

The U.S. Weather Bureau's 4 a.m. (CST) advisory, last planned on Ella, said, "Lower all warnings. Small craft along Texas and Louisiana coasts should remain in port until squalls and seas subside."

At least eight small towns had been evacuated as Ella moved toward the Texas coast and about 1,000 persons, including many tourists, left Mustang island, about 16 miles from Corpus Christi.

The storm moved inland with little rumpus and at 4 a.m. (CST) was about 20 miles west of here. The Weather Bureau said winds 30 to 40 m.p.h. would continue along the Texas and extreme west Louisiana coasts today and diminish tonight.

High tides along the coast also were expected to fall today, the Weather Bureau said.

At Stinton, Tex., Patrolman H. D. Perkins said heavy rain fell at 4:30 a.m., but southward at Kingsville, Tex., police dispatcher C. L. Skipper said no rain was falling and little wind had been felt. Perkins estimated the wind at Kingsville at 12 m.p.h.

Another tropical storm, Fifi, worked its way to within 600 miles of San Juan, Puerto Rico today. Gales threatened the Leeward and northern Windward Islands, east of Puerto Rico.

Aircraft were ordered out at daylight to pin down the position of the season's sixth tropical storm, born yesterday in the wide-open waters nearly 2,000 miles from the U.S. mainland.

Two earlier storms, Becky and Cleo, gathered strength in the same area.

Elsewhere in the nation's weather, a large pocket of thunderstorm activity dumped heavy rains over sections of the Plains and the Midwest and extended eastward into the Great Lakes region.

Skies were clear west of the Rockies and in areas away from the rainy sections east of the Rockies. Temperatures were a bit cooler in the central Plains and up to 20 degrees cooler in parts of New England. Cooler weather was on tap for the upper Midwest and northern Great Lakes region.

Locally heavy rains with unofficial amounts ranging up to five inches fell in west central Iowa Friday evening resulting in minor flooding in upper reaches of the Nishnabotna River. The rain area was expected to extend from the mid-Mississippi Valley into the Ohio Valley during the day.

Grandma Moses 98 Years Old Tomorrow

EAGLE BRIDGE, N.Y. (AP) — Grandma Moses, one of America's foremost primitive painters, will be 98 tomorrow and she is feeling it. She still paints, though.

★ ★ ★

Her physician, Dr. Clayton Shaw, has recommended that there be no birthday party because of her frail condition. Only members of the immediate family will drop in at her home in Washington County near the Vermont state line.

Grandma Moses, whose full name is Anna Mary Robertson Moses, now rests much of the day. She paints for short periods. She has been afflicted with arthritis for some time.

Sheppard Case to High Courts

Ohio Supreme Bench Rejects 'Mistrial' Bid in Murder

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — The nationally-famous Sheppard murder case apparently was headed back to the federal courts today because of the Ohio Supreme Court's rejection of a bid for a writ of habeas corpus.

Defense Attys. William J. Corrigan and Fred W. Garmone submitted the application for the writ to the high court because they had to "exhaust all possible relief in state courts before going to federal courts."

In disallowing the application, Ohio Supreme Court Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt said "Since it is conceded the relator Dr. Samuel Sheppard was convicted in a trial court which possessed jurisdiction of both the person and the subject matter, and that the judgment of conviction was duly reviewed and affirmed" the petition must be denied.

Sheppard was convicted in 1954 for the second degree murder of his wife, Marilyn, in their suburban Cleveland, Ohio home on July 4. He has maintained his innocence throughout the long legal proceedings.

The two attorneys asked for the writ on the ground that there were alleged trial irregularities., that authorities "concealed or suppressed" evidence that might have led to Sheppard's "acquittal," and overruled a motion for a change of venue for the trial.

Hammarskjold Leaves for Jerusalem Today

CAIRO (AP)— U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold left today for Jerusalem after three days of talks with President Nasser and other United Arab Republic officials.

A spokesman for Hammarskjold told newsmen in Cairo no concrete agreement had been reached, but he emphasized that the talks were exploratory and not intended to result in anything definitive.

Youths Plead Guilty to Possession of Beer

Two youths charged with being minors in possession of beer pleaded guilty this morning before Pontiac Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Preston W. Smith, 19, of 6601 Castle St., Birmingham, and Blair L. Moore, 19, of 1039 Iroquois St., Royal Oak, were fined $15 or two days in jail.

They were arrested last night at Square Lake and Dover roads with beer in their car.

The Day in Birmingham

To Ordain New Minister; Retired Pastor Returning

BIRMINGHAM—One man comes out of retirement for the fourth time to accept a local pastorate and a second becomes an ordained minister tomorrow in local churches.

The Rev. Alfred D. Grey of Stratford, Ont., begins as interim pastor at the Congregational Church of Birmingham tomorrow morning.

At 7 p.m., James L. Pratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Pratt of 16162 Wetherby Dr., will be ordained at the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Pratt received his bachelor of arts degree, cum laude, from Harvard University and then went on for a year of post graduate study at New College of the University of Edinburgh. His bachelor of divinity degree was received from the Yale Divinity School, magna cum laude. Since then he has been director of religious education at Bunker Hill Congregational Church in Waterbury, Conn.

Among the officiating pastors will be the Rev. Robert S. Shahbaz of Owosso's First Baptist Church who will preach the ordination sermon and Dr. Emil Kontz of the host church who will offer the prayer of ordination.

At the Congregational Church, the Rev. Grey succeeds the Rev. Robert Dewey who has gone to the Community Congregational Church in Garden City, N.Y. and the Rev. Carl Baird, who has entered the business field.

E. W. Kurth was honored at the three-day Michigan Real Estate Assn. convention held this week in Detroit. Kurth received a certificate for his "long and commendable unblemished record for 25 years as a licensed real estate broker."

Members of the board of directors and Community House staff will hold their annual dinner meeting in the house at 7 p.m. Monday.

Suing Mystic Society

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Miss Mary Margaret Ollinger, 24, is suing the Krewe of Columbus, a mystic society, for $25,000 for injuries she said she suffered while watching a Mardi Gras parade Feb. 14. She said a half-pound package of bubble gum tossed from a float by a masker hit her in the face, causing facial injuries.

Trucker Dies in Crash

MANISTEE (UPI)—Gerald Musselman, 22, of Birch Run, was killed Friday when the truck he was driving sideswiped another truck and overturned on a county road in Stronach Township, Manistee County.

Reports and the election of officers will highlight the evening.

Lt. Robert Schaule, head of the Birmingham Police Department Juvenile Division, has completed the traffic safety course at the Michigan State University.

The course covered safety methods and techniques and, stressed the value of driver education for school children.

The Bloomfield Art Assn. will open a variety show and water color exhibition at their North Woodward Avenue studio at 4:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Among the features of the show will be the display of silk screen print by Ruth Adler Schnee.

Mrs. Schnee has been designing contemporary fabrics with special emphasis on the needs of architects and interior decorators for the past 12 years.

State Labor Law on GOP Platform

LANSING (UPI)—All Republican candidates for state office have agreed to make labor violence a key campaign issue, the party's candidate for governor, Paul D. Bagwell, said today.

"We will advocate a strong state labor law which will return control of the unions to the union members," Bagwell said in reporting on a two-day conference he held with other members of the state ticket.

"We shall enforce the laws to protect Michigan citizens against the terror and violence and the corruption which have been brought to public light."

Pays $65 for Recount, Fails to Win Election

JACKSON (UPI)— A recount of the Democratic sheriff's vote in the August primary cost losing candidate Ben Cote two votes and $65 today.

The recount ran McManus' margin to 10. Cote had to pay $5 fee for each of the 13 precincts which he requested to be recounted.

$1,500,000 Construction Starts at Alma College

ALMA (UPI)— Construction has started on Alma College's new $1,500,000 science classroom building, financed by a grant from the Dow Foundation.

It is to be completed late next year. The building will have research laboratories, a 100-seat amphitheater and a 300-seat auditorium.

Disputed Waters Lie Off China, Iceland

12-Mile Limit Irking U.S., Britain

LONDON (AP)—The claims of Red China and Iceland to waters within 12 nautical miles of their shores have provoked disputes with two of the world's greatest sea powers, the United States and Britain.

The one clear fact to emerge from the tangled complications of those claims is that they cannot be settled in any court of law because there is no uniform international law on sea limits.

Disputes over those limits seem capable of settlement, therefore, only by force or by political negotiation.

In the Icelandic dispute, the British have been urging the hardy Icelanders to sit down and negotiate, meanwhile defying the new limit with their trawlers and gunboats. But with confidence in their case, the Icelanders feel they need only harry the trawlers long enough to emerge the winners.

In Reykjavik, Iceland minister of fisheries for the nation says the British trawlers defying the new 12-mile limit around this North Atlantic isliand are not doing any real fishing.

"They're just wasting their time," Ludvik Josepsson said last night after touring three areas where British gunboats are watching over the trawlers.

The coast guard said it had intercepted messages between trawlers and the gunboats indicating the fishermen were fed up with poor catches and might leave soon for better waters. Increased concentrations of Icelandic Coast Guard gunboats were doing all they could to encourage such a decision by conducting a war of nerves against the trawlers.

On the Red Chinese claim, which the United States rejects, there are many more complexities and wider issues. In a sense, it seems to be only a byproduct of the deeper power struggle.

Iceland extended her sea limit last Monday to protect her fishing areas. Peiping announced her extension Thursday to buttress her claim to the offshore islands held by her Nationalist enemies on Formosa.

There is no generally accepted international agreement on the breadth of territorial waters because the powers are hopelessly divided on a uniform law of the sea.

Most countries observe a three-mile sea limit. The limit goes back to the 17th century when a nation's shore batteries could reach no more than about three miles.

More than 30 of the 81 United Nations countries apply wider limits. Chile, Ecuador and Peru, for instance, claimed a 200-mile belt in 1953. Primarily to protect fishing. Russia has long claimed a 12-mile limit. So have many non-Communist nations.

There have been several vain attempts to straighten out this tangle, the latest this year.

A U. N. conference in Geneva failed hopelessly to agree on a 73-article law of the sea drafted over eight years by an international law commission whose members included the big four powers.

Businessmen Are Optimistic

See Recovery in Fall; Meanwhile, Sales Tax Reflects Slump

(This is the third in a series of replies made by state officials asked by United Press International for an appraisal of the outlook for Michigan's recovery from the recession.)

By LOUIS M. NIMS
State Revenue Commissioner

LANSING (UPI)—Any recovery from the business slump is not yet being reflected in current sales tax collection figures.

But personal contact with business generally throughout the state discloses a very optimistic note and a general feeling that we will be "well out of it" this fall.

Sales tax collection figures are, perhaps, the best indication of the tone of retail business throughout the state. Collections for July (on June sales) were $2.7 million lower than for July, 1957.

Perhaps it should be noted, however, that a sudden spurt in retail buying would not be reflected in sales tax collections for approximately two months. For example, sales tax collected in September is not required to be remitted until Oct. 15. It takes another month before final figures are obtained.

Most of the decline in July collections was in the automotive category which accounted for nearly 42 per cent of the lower collections.

Forty-nine of the 57 types of business which the department has coded reported lower collections than for July a year ago. For the first time in 15 months grocery stores showed a drop in collections.

Slight increases were noted in some of the so-called service businesses (photographers, dry cleaners, etc.)

Sales tax collections for fiscal 1958 were $298,347,110 or nearly 11 million dollars less than for fiscal 1957.

It Was a Tough War — Just Ask Red Buttons

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — "That was a pretty tough war I was in," Red Buttons cackled the other day like some old Civil War vet.

WILSON

Red wasn't speaking of the Oscar-winning war he fought with Marlon Brando in "Sayonara" nor of being a corporal again in "Imitation General." Red was speaking of the funniest war which he started fighting in a Broadway Air Force show called "Winged Victory," which eventually led him to Germany where he distinguished himself by selling Mickey Mouse watches to the Russians.

"The things I did were ridiculous," he said, thinking back to the middle 1940s. "Imagine picketing a captain because we wanted a weekend pass and he wouldn't give it to us!

"Henry Slater and I actually built picket signs which read 'UNFAIR TO PRIVATES!' and picketed him. Captain John Gabriel was his name and he's now a big real estate man in New Jersey.

"That's when we were on location in Santa Monica making the picture. Did they punish us? Nah," laughed Red. Everybody broke up. How can they punish idiots?"

RED BUTTONS

Red said that there was some opposition to actors being put into shows, even for morale purposes, and that they had to go through the motions of having "basic training."

"They wouldn't issue us guns — we'd have killed somebody. But we had to capture the zoo all the same. We used peanuts and grapes at first. Then we came in with the heavy stuff — oranges and bananas."

One morning Red remembers very vividly—he remembers it more vividly each year.

"It was early in the morning as we swung marching down the street singing 'Off We Go'|" he said. "Old women came crying out of skyscrapers yelling 'God bless you and keep you alive.' Crowds on the curbs waved farewell to us. One old man who had the wars mixed up yelled 'Kill the Kaiser!' We marched bravely on—for we were going to Boston to open the show there."

THE WEEKEND WINDUP

Tony Randall, subbing on radio for Arthur Godfrey, got the ad agency sore with his kidding commercials, but the sponsors loved 'em . . . Producer Dick Powell promised actor Steve McQueen a foreign sports car if he'd quit auto racing till he finished his TV series. Georgia Gibbs' hits of a few years ago—"Dance With Me, Henry" and "Kiss of Fire"—are now hits in Japan.

Wish I'd said that: Kim Hubbard said it: "By the time a woman says, 'Of course, I don't wish to mention names,' it ain't necessary."

Rocky Graziano ate three steaks and said, "I'd make a comeback, if my timing was as good as my appetite." That's earl, brother.

Pontiac Civitans Club Gets New President

The Pontiac Civitans Club announced today that their president, Dr. George Ross, who assumed the position July 1, has been forced to resign because of illness.

Joseph Davis, of 42 Jefferson St., has been appointed president by the club's board of directors. Davis was vice president.

Before Acting

Ike Will Consult Parties on China

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) said today President Eisenhower will consult with congressional leaders of both parties before taking any decisive action in the Far East crisis.

★ ★ ★

Smith voiced in an interview the personal opinion that the Chinese Communists will not attack the islands of Quemoy and Matsu, which serve as outposts for Nationalist-held Formosa.

He spoke out after conferring yesterday with Secretary of State Dulles, but emphasized he was not speaking for Dulles.

If the islands are attacked, Smith said he has been informed Eisenhower will discuss the matter with Republican and Democratic leaders before he acts under the authority Congress already has given him to decide whether American forces should be used.

Smith, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said it was his understanding that Eisenhower and Dulles already have been in touch with the leaders to keep them abreast of developments.

"This is the sort of thing that ought to be done," Smith said. "That was one mistake President Truman made when he ordered American forces into Korea. I supported Truman's action but I felt and said at the time it ought not to have been taken without sharing the responsibility with Congress."

Smith said he has no doubt the United States will fight if an invasion attempt comes.

"We must give our help if the Nationalists are attacked," he said. "I think those islands are vital to the defense of Formosa."

Leave Vegas to Strike It Rich in Arkansas

Hammett found a three-carat diamond—valued at about $2,700 —Thursday in the Crater of Diamonds, a tourist attraction and the only source of diamonds in North America.

Attack Negro With Ball Bat

6 Whites in New York Held by Police Pending Formal Charges

NEW YORK (UPI)—Police broke up a baseball bat attack on a Negro by six white persons last night and held the six pending formal charges.

Officers reported that Richard Roger, 22, was seized as he tried to beat Clarence Cherry, 41, with the bat. Cherry was uninjured.

Also taken into custody with Roger were his brother, William, 23; William's wife, Jean, 22; their father, Victor Roger, 47; and two friends, Thomas Toogood, 20, and Frank Gripparich, 19.

Police said all probably would be charged with inciting to riot and felonious assault. In addition it was expected that Richard Roger, who was arrested in September 1956 for inciting to riot, would be charged with violating a state anti-weapons law.

Officers said that another Negro, 16-year-old Alfonso Tompson of Woodside, narrowly escaped being beaten by the group.

Frolic on State Lands Intended for Lighthouse

LANSING (UPI) — Lands along Michigan Great Lakes shorelines originally planned for lighthouses or life-saving stations are slowly coming into use as beaches, forest lands, camp sites and other public uses.

★ ★ ★

The Conservation Department said the lands, reserved for the Coast Guard, were in various stages of development and the department has been negotiating for them for some time.

★ ★ ★

In some cases the lands are outside present park areas and may serve as parks in the future.

Of pedestrians killed in cities, 9 per cent were crossing intersections diagonally or against traffic lights.

It Seems to Me . . .

Automobile Industry Still Ranks at Top of Economic List

Tuesday we carried a brief statement saying we were discontinuing the VOP letters on the strike as the matter had been settled.

However, the following arrived later and I'm constrained to pass along the major portion:

"I would like to know — where have your sentiments been in the past eight months for the thousands of people in Pontiac and area who have had to learn to live on an unemployment wage scale and a S.U.B. check? These people are not out of work because of labor difficulty. The reason is—to quote your own editorial. 'Competition in the automobile industry has never been so fierce.' This is the real cause for our recession. Why does Mr. Watson — spokesman for Pontiac Motor—work the people ten hours a day, six days per week for four months and then send them home to exist on unemployment benefits until the new model starts? It is a major problem — competition. I'm sure it would be to the advantage of all concerned if some of the economists would try to find a way to do something about this. It looks hopeless to me because competition has to exist in a Democracy.

"Labor unions only exist because of a need. It would be a wonderful world if no one needed a union to be his spokesman.

"I'm sure some of these unemployed have had to cancel their delivery of The Pontiac Press. It is a shame when people can't afford a daily newspaper. I enjoy your paper and as a union member's wife — I would certainly uphold the action being taken by our Local 653.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Wayne Anable
642 First Ave.
Pontiac, Michigan"

★ ★ ★

Just recently we carried WINSTON CHURCHILL'S suggestion that there are many, many imperfections in a democracy. When he considered each one, he wondered why it worked at all. The only reason he could see lies in the fact that it's so much better than any other system ever devised. It has given by far the greatest prosperity to the largest number—by an overwhelming margin.

That's it in a nutshell.

Nothing else has ever worked as well.

Suppose Chevy did that.

At the end of the two months it might total 60 or 70 thousand unsold automobiles. That forms a solid line of Chevrolets, bumper to bumper, from Flint to Muskegon, 160 miles away. It would be infinitely more profitable for any automobile company to run steadily 12 months a year, or even ten or eleven. But that doesn't happen to be "the way the ball bounces."

The Pontiac PRESS ran 20.5 per cent fewer advertising inches in August than we did in August of 1957, and August of 1957 was behind August of 1956.

Has anyone a cure for this?

If they have, we're all ears.

We have less people employed.

How can it be otherwise?

★ ★ ★

The automobile business in general has grown nearly every year since 1908. That's a half century. Automobile workers and automobile cities have had better luck than almost anything you can name.

The makers of kitchen tables wish they wanted new kitchen tables half as badly; and the manufacturers of hearing aids wish they wanted hearing aids that desperately. By and large, we're very fortunate to have had automobiles.

That's probably a very unsatisfactory answer to you, Mrs. Anable. It is to us, also. But apparently the Lord decided not to favor us with high wages that have advanced enormously since 1908, plus great growth AND GUARANTEE US EVERYTHING EVERY YEAR.

★ ★ ★

Consider the jobs that are purely seasonal. They NEVER have steady employment. Why, the Lord won't even guarantee the farmers good growing weather. Think of the tens and tens of thousands of families wiped out financially in our dust bowls. Think of the havoc to crops each year caused by storms, winds, floods, etc. It looks, Mrs. ANABLE as though He didn't exactly mean any of us to have a long down-hill journey with no obstables.

★ ★ ★

If I could provide you with a satisfactory solution to your problem, I'd be on top of the world and I'd be the President of the United States and the head of your husband's union.

But here I sit on West Huron Street, just wishfully thinking.

So — to go back to the original statement, there is no perfect economic and political plan evolved as yet. The present one simply happens to be the best and it has provided more people with greater prosperity than any other plan the world has ever tried. And mankind has experimented with hundreds and even thousands if you go back into antiquity. But we lack the perfect answer.

And in Conclusion . . . . . .

TV Dept.: The sponsors of "Twenty One" will continue with complete faith in their show. The first time it appeared after the scandal, periodic five minute checks showed the listening audience high when it opened but it dropped perceptibly when they made no reference to the charges of fraud. Personally, I bet it's completely honest . . . . . Quizzer Haggis Baggis is likely to fold within the month — and should. . . . . BOB LICHELLO sires this one: Quizmaster to contestant: "O.K. Here's your hundred grand. Good luck and I'll see you before the Grand Jury."

Golf Dept: Glimpsed Tennessee Ernie Ford playing 18 holes at Bloomfield with Bill Gossett and Johnny Bugas, Ford executives . . . . . Chuck Kocsis, Michigan's greatest amateur of all time, is in San Francisco for the National Amateur. Played with him the day he left and one of us notched a 71. Guess who? Nope, you're wrong. It was "Chuck" . . . . . Graham John Graham, Bloomfield Hills resident, Metamora herdsman and wizard Detroit broker, turned in his best for the year this week with a 78. He certainly didn't have his mind on the market.

★ ★ ★

FRANKIE SINATRA'S in a 10,000 Indiana town for a new movie and the populace is aghast at his priviate and public antics. Such uncontrolled shenanigans have the whole 10,000 shaking unbelieving heads. Well, FRANKIE'S private life has never followed the HORATIO ALGER pattern . . . . . Overheard at Central High opening days: "A good way to get ahead these days is to marry the shop steward's daughter." . . . . . California Chief Justices voted 38-6 condemning the Warren Supreme Court for many recent decisions. U.S. lawyers are privately shaking their heads in deep concern at court findings which favor the Communists.

★ ★ ★

I understand Eisenhower's schedule calls for a single address in New York State during his October campaign trip. Hmmm . . . . . Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: the C's—opening of school (from all area mamas); the J's—TV's summer time color broadcasting which was pretty awful.

The POWER of FAITH

by Howard Brodie

This is the story of how the faith of a merchant went around the world. At 16 he knelt in a drapery shop and gave his heart to God. It was mid-19th Century England, when men worked 17 hours a day and salesmen were unscrupulous. Yet, this former farm boy wrote, "I would be righteous and holy in business, doing it as for Christ." He sought Christian companionship and prayed after work with another employe. They were joined by others. Soon the youngest apprentice and the boss were interested.

The idea spread to other businesses, countries and continents, refreshing spirits, minds and bodies. Simultaneously, the merchant became the best salesman in London, a husband, father, head of his business, a wealthy man and a knight: Sir George Williams, founder of the YMCA.

Days of All Faiths:

Honor Birthday of Blessed Virgin

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

In the third verse of the 15th chapter of Genesis, God tells the serpent that Eve's seed (descendants) will bruise the head of the serpent's descendants. One interpretation of this passage is that no sooner was man fallen, through the action of one woman who had been led away by Satan, than God promised to give to the world another woman through whom man's salvation would be made possible.

At the birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary the fulfillment of that promise began. Her birthday is celebrated Monday in the Christian calendar.

Mary's birthplace is not known, but there are two traditions about it. One is that she was born in Nazareth. The other, far stronger one is that she was born in Jerusalem, in the neighborhood of the famous pool of Bethesda. See St. John, chapter 5, verse 2. A church, dedicated to Mary's mother, St. Anne, now stands on the exact spot where the birth is supposed to have taken place.

He is one of the "Twelve Apostles of Ireland" — twelve holy pioneers of the faith in that land.

Feast of St. Kieran is kept Tuesday throughout Ireland.

Man With Feet on Ground Dazzled by Cosmic Rays?

"If life-giving sun and cosmic rays are of an electrical nature, would a man not receive them in and with increased benefit while walking barefoot, thus establishing direct ground connection to complete the circuit? (C.H.B.)"

DR BRADY

Answer — Going barefoot one would probably absorb more ultraviolet because a greater area of skin would be exposed to the sunlight. Otherwise don't let the sun or cosmic rays dazzle you, even if they come in capital letters. The rays are no more electrical than hollering down the rain barrel.

"Chemists have found that grain grasses (wheat, barley, oats and rye) contain all the vitamins except D — 28 times more vitamin per pound than dried fruits or vegetables. They say 12 pounds a year of dried, bleached powdered grass will supply all the vitamins a family needs for a year. Where can I buy this? (W.E.R.)"

Answer — I do not know. I doubt that dried powdered grasses will supply all the vitamins any one needs.

★ ★ ★

"Is pumpernickel more beneficial than white bread? (E.K.("

Answer — Bread made of unbolted rye contains more vitamins than white bread, but only about three fourths of the calories that white bread yields.

"But now that I have colitis I'm afraid to . . . (Mrs. D.M.C.)"

Answer — Whether you have actual colitis or spurious "mucous" colitis, it can do you no harm to study these textbooks: 1. Constipation Habit and Colon Hygiene, (Brady), 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope 2. Studies in Deficiency Disease (McCarrison), perhaps available in public library. As for the "bland diet," I believe the less you monkey with diet the better.

"Do you advise distilled water, rain water or mineral water for persons with kidney trouble or high blood pressure or hardening arteries or arthritis? (R.R.M.)"

Answer — No. Top water or well water is my choice. No matter how "hard" drinking water may be, if it tastes good it is healthful, provided the water is not contaminated or polluted, of course.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Join This Spiritual Game of 'Tag'

The Marine fliers named below illustrate the new kind of "tag." It's really just a variety of the old childhood game. When you attend church, realize that your clergyman is trying to tag you, as he himself was once tagged by some saintly soul several years ago. Join the Compliment Club and "tag" three people every day.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE Z — 312: Before our oldest son, George, crashed in his jet plane two years ago, he had seen many of his pals killed before his won eyes.

★ ★ ★

In fact, he had been asked to escort the body back to Ft. Wayne of Lieut. Robert Wolverton.

After the funeral, George decided he wanted to do something to help memorialize his flying pal.

DR. CRANE

So, since he was a tither, he informed his mother she should send each year $100 out of his tithe money to the Wayne Street Church in Ft. Wayne, so it could be used for youth work, as a memorial to Lieut. Wolverton.

Within a couple of years, George himself had the tail of his jet plane clipped off by another plane in his group and then crashed at Glenview Naval Air Station.

At George's funeral, Lieut. William A. Holton, Jr., of New Orleans, a lifelong pal of George, learned about George's memorial fund at Ft. Wayne.

So Lieut. Holton has been generously carrying on the tradition.

Recently I saw the "thank you" letter which Dr. Gerald H. Jones sent to Lieut. Holton. It began:

"Thank you for your very gracious check for $100 for the use of our church in its youth work in memory of George W. Crane IV and his friend Robert Wolverton."

GAME OF TAG

In our childhood, most of us played "tag." We touched an and was required to tag a third, etc.

★ ★ ★

Well, morality is just a spiritual game of "tag" in which one generous soul tries to help make the world better by assisting somebody else.

★ ★ ★

And that other party should realize that morally he is "it", so he should then try to pass along a similar kindly boost to still a third person.

"We should plow back into life." states an old proverb, "more than we take from it."

In a somewhat similar vein, Abraham Lincoln hoped that he could "plant roses where thistles grew before."

So when you listen to your priest, rabbi or clergyman this week-end, just realize that such men are links in an age-old game of moral "tag".

In later years came Peter and Paul, Philip and John, St. Francis of Assisi, Loyola and John Wesley, Martin Luther and Roger Williams.

And not only are the clergymen trying to "tag" us with enough idealism and zest to continue this remarkable game, but we have also ben tagged by devout mothers and fathers ahead of us, plus Sunday school teachers, Scout leaders, YMCA secretaries and others.

PASS IT ON

In the old-fashioned game, a tired or angry playmate might refuse to 'pass it on" when he was tagged.

If a parent or teacher in this modern world likewise refuses to pass on the moral tagging which he obtained, then he has been derelict to the memory of saintly folks throughout all bygone ages.

★ ★ ★

For if everybody stopped this spiritual tag game, chaos and anarchy, paganism and crime would become rampant in a decade.

So resolve that you will be true to your sacrificial dead who have tagged you for a happier, more abundant life.

★ ★ ★

That involves the responsibility for your continuing the game; You can start the spiritul tag game right now by paying compliments to your companions.

Send for the Compliment Club booklet, enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

It is a dandy church project, for it puts the Golden Rule into effective daily action in the home, school and workshop.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

'GI Plane Arrangements Are in Need of Revision'

We're a group of men from the 579th Field Artillery Battalion, Pontiac, presently attending summer camp at Ft. Sill, Okla. We have a complaint concerning the airlines contract for transporting us between Ft. Sill and Wayne Major Airport.

★ ★ ★

We understand the contract for air transportation is given to the lowest bidder. We feel this is a gross waste of taxpayers' money. U. S. Air Force personnel are required to log a specified number of hours, this often being done with "empty aircraft." Why not utilize the Air Force to provide transportation for army personnel wherever possible?

★ ★ ★

We also feel the airlines should be forced to demonstrate they are capable of fulfilling contracts which are presented them in the future. In the past and present, this hasn't been the case. We were delayed on the first flight 16 hours for group one. Group three was delayed nine hours going down, and coming back group two flight was delayed 36 hours. This was caused by the inefficiency of the lowest bidding airline.

'Fining Youths Is Wrong Approach'

Unless the judges and justices relinquish this greediness for money on the young, they will create greater cause for them to commit more crime, in order to have to pay these fines. It is high time that all of us in America help these boys instead of fining them. They don't know where to get the money to pay fines.

★ ★ ★

I say these judges contribute to their delinquency. I took two boys into my home and the minister wouldn't do a thing for them. One of the boys was assigned to me from Jackson Prison. Today he's married and an honest citizen.

★ ★ ★

I beg these judges not to fine these boys in their tender age, but in the name of God, help them.

'State Has Own Collaborators'

In the VOP was a letter about the bums that are taking over the Democratic party. You don't have to leave Michigan to find an example of men in high places associating with the people that have to get investigated.

★ ★ ★

Governor G. Mennen Williams endorsed Harrelson for office in the primary. If he had done it in the election, he could have hidden behind the excuse he "was a party man." But no, this was in the primary when Governor Williams endorsed Harrelson for another term after he had already made the worst record in the Legislature.

★ ★ ★

If union leaders tell Williams to endorse a man like Harrelson, apparently he has no choice but to do it. If you want Union leaders to run Michigan, vote for their stooges.

If the Washington investigation of union leaders says you don't want that kind of men in political power, stand up for what you believe.

I Quit Being a Dem 22 Years Ago

'Can We Fight Birds During the Day?'

I was very interested in the letter about the starlings. What have other cities done about this problem? It can't hit Pontiac alone. Where do these birds go in the day time? Could they be killed off in the country during the day?

★ ★ ★

I can't imagine the farmers are any happier over them than the city people. They must eat grain from Oakland County fields. If we exterminated them completely, we would be doing the farmers an even greater favor than we would the city folks.

★ ★ ★

Do they spend the days in flocks or do they scatter?

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

★ ★ ★

The rules of prudence, in general like the laws of the stone tablets, are for the most part prohibitive. Thou shalt not, is their characteristic formula; and it is an especial part of Christian prudence that it should be so.—Samuel Taylor Coleridge.

Church Advisory Board at Teeple Hill Today Planning Program

Dr. Joseph I. Chapman, pastor of Bethany Baptist Church has returned from his vacation in the East where he preached in several churches including the historic First Baptist Church in Philadelphia.

★ ★ ★

"Why Was I Born" will be his morning message Sunday. The 33 young people of Bethany leaving for college will be honored at this service.

The Lord's Supper will be observed at both worship periods.

Youth assistant at the second service will be Lee Lewis. After a two-month vacation the Senior Choir under the direction of Elda Sutter, minister of music, will sing "O Worship the King" at the later service.

★ ★ ★

The advisory board under the leadership of church moderator, Maynard Johnson, is meeting today at Teeple Hill to plan the church program for the coming year.

Citywide Choir Union to Give Annual Concert Sunday Afternoon

Included in the several groups of singers at New Hope Baptist Church at 8 tonight will be the Gospel Quartet from South Bend, Ind. and the Spiritual Harmonizers of Pontiac.

From 11 a.m. today until 9:30 p.m. chicken dinners are being served in the church hall and delivered to homes. Proceeds will be given to the building fund.

Sunday School classes, young people's and adult groups will meet at the church from 7 to 8 tonight for a building fund rally, with each group making a donation.

The pastor, the Rev. Ford B. Reed, will preach at the 11 a.m. service Sunday.

At 3:30 p.m. tomorrow, choirs of 10 churches, members of the Citywide Choir Union, will present a concert.

Sunny Vale Chapel Schedules Revival

The Rev. and Mrs. Jack Van Impe will be conducting an eight-day revival at Sunny Vale Chapel, 5311 Pontiac Lake Rd., Waterford Township. Starting Sunday services will begin each night at 7:30.

The evangelist received his training at Detroit Bible Institute. An accordionist, he has played on television and more than 100 radio stations.

Mrs. Van Impe will present piano numbers and vocal selections.

Confident Living

Study Facts One by One to Overcome Any Crisis

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

More than eighteen years have passed since the dramatic evacuation of the British army from the beaches of Dunkirk. It is difficult now to recall the feeling of desperation that swept the free world at the time. But we can recover the mood of that fateful hour in Winston Churchill's great books concerning World War II: "There was a short service of intercession and prayer in Westminster Abbey," he wrote. "The English are loth to express their feelings, but in my stall in the choir I could feel the pent-up, passionate emotion, and also the fear of the congregation, not of death or wounds or material loss, but of defeat and the final ruin of Britain."

DR. PEALE

It was at this point that the man who eventually became Field Marshal Sir Harold Alexander was given command of the retreating British troops at Dunkirk. General Alexander was looking over the all but desperate situation on the ground when a colonel came dashing up to him, saluted and reported, "General, our position is catastrophic!"

Alexander looked camly at the man, then dismissed him with such comment as this: "Don't use such big words, Colonel. Just get busy and get some boys out of here!"

Well, as we all know, not only soldiers, sailors and airmen, but ordinary citizens as well, responded to the national crisis. More than 330,000 troops were taken from Dunkirk harbor and off the beaches in everything from canoes to warships — and the situation was saved from catastrophe.

Crises and possible catastrophe are ever potential problems in life. You can save yourself from catastrophes in your own experience by, first of all, never admitting excitedly to yourself or to others that your position is catastrophic. And no crisis will become catastrophe if you but remember six things:

1. Don't panic. Never panic. Keep relaxed and calm; try to keep tension out of your nervous system. Don't let panic make your mind hot when it needs most of all to be cool. For only a cool mind can think, and in a crisis you must enable yourself to think creatively. Pray to Almighty God until you calm down and then quietly do something about your situation.

2. Never overdramatize a situation. That is exactly what the nervous colonel was doing when he reported to General Alexander. Just study the facts, one by one simplifying each, and you'll cut them down to a size that will not frighten you.

3. Don't spend any time on regrets, but take the situation from where you are. Don't ask yourself why you ever got into this position. Just get busy figuring how to get out of it, and do that, one step at a time. You don't need to find the whole solution all at once. Do what you can now. Other insights will come later.

4. When you've taken that all-important first step, don't hurry into a second one. This is a good time at which to pray some more and ask for guidance step by step. Pray your way out, insight by insight.

5. Never take any step without asking yourself — and asking God — if what you are doing is the right thing to do ethically and spiritually. A fundamental principle is this: You can never go wrong doing right. Ask and answer this question: "What is right?" Then do it.

And, last, but far from least, never give up. Never admit you're licked. When news of the crisis at Dunkirk came to Churchill, he called a meeting of his ministers. The first thing he said to them was, "Of course, whatever happens at Dunkirk, we shall fight on." The reaction to his statement was amazing; there has never been such a demonstration at a cabinet meeting. "A white glow, overpowering, sublime," wrote Churchill, "ran through our island from end to end." And Britain avoided catastrophe.

Keep such a white glow, overpowering, sublime, alive in your own heart and you will avoid the catastrophes that threaten you in life.

Local Members to Meet With Area Worshipers

Pontiac members will meet with the congregation of the Birmingham Unitarian Church at the 10:30 service Sunday morning in the Alfred E. Upton School, Royal Oak.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Mr. Pedersen came to the area from Cleveland where he was associated with the Cleveland Ethical Society.

REV. W. B. PEDERSEN

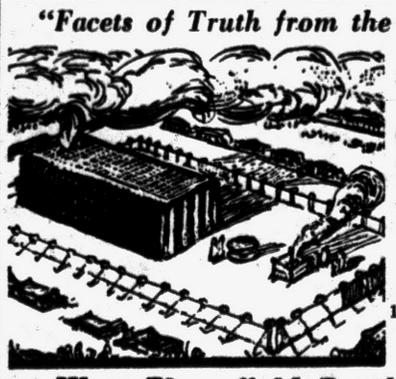

A graduate of Harvard Divinity School in 1933, he was the minister of several Unitarian churches in the East until World War II when he served with the Red Cross in Okinawa and Japan.

After the war he stayed on with the education section of civil affairs of the occupation government, assisting in the reorientation of Japanese educators and group leaders.

The church school will resume classes tomorrow at the same time as the worship service. Classes are arranged from preschool through senior high school.

J. O. Sarto is representing the Orchard Lake Community Church and the Presbytery of Detroit at the annual meeting of the Michigan Council of Presbyterian Men at Alma College today.

Coming on Sept. 24 to speak at the meeting of the Orchard Lake Men's Club will be James Hare, secretary of state.

The Rev. Edward D. Auchard, pastor, will preach on "Man's Eternal Home" at the 9 and 11 a.m. services tomorrow. The Chancel Quartet will sing at the early service and at 11 the Chancel Choir will present "For God So Loved the World."

The pastor will meet with boys of the church who are working on the God and Country Award at 10:30 a.m. Saturday. This will be the first meeting of the season.

★ ★ ★

The board of deacons and the committee on Christian education for adults announce a joint sponsorship of a series of seminars on "The Christian Approach to Family Problems." The first seminar is set for Sept. 21 at 8 p.m.

Church Groups Urged to Join Festival Days

According to John W. Hirlinger, manager of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, sidewalk booths will be provided with tables within the booths furnished by the churches.

Mrs. Russell H. French of the Federation of Women's Clubs will be chairman. For further information call the Chamber of Commerce at FE 5-6148.

The six-day festival, sponsored by the Downtown Merchants Assn. will involve sidewalk booths and a downtown carnival with rides at reduced prices for those who have made downtown purchases.

America, Nation of Fine Businesses, Spiritual Heritage, Good Homes

When the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich was at the Lambeth Conference in London, England, he wrote of his experiences for The Record, the monthly paper of the diocese of Michigan.

A part of his writings is as follows: "Every night on board ship I went to the movies, and came away with the conviction that America's worst enemy is Hollywood.

"There are, of course, great pictures that have come from Hollywood, and it is always dangerous to generalize; but who can avoid the impression that many, many of our films give to the world a cheap, vulgar, violent, and deliberately suggestive and exaggerated sexual view of American life.

"We are members of a great nation with noble universities, a great spiritual heritage, good homes, fine businesses, and a free and orderly government; and yet through Hollywood this is not the picture we give the world.

"Violence and sex are the key words to an understanding of Hollywood.

★ ★ ★

"We know that it gives our young people a false view of life, that it cheapens where it could deepen; but I wonder if I am wrong when I say that an understanding of why we are often hated, or laughed at abroad can come through an analysis of much that Hollywood produces."

Church Construction Up

The U. S. Departments of Commerce and Labor report that new church construction jumped to $75,000,000 in July, an increase of five million dollars over June.

And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee.

West Bloomfield Bapist Plans Bible Conference

The fall Bible Conference of the West Bloomfield Baptist Church, 4900 Orchard Lake Rd. will begin at 11 a.m. Sunday with the Rev. C. W. Slemming of London, England, the speaker.

"Facets of Truth From the Tabernacle" will be his subject, the first in a series for the week.

At 7 p.m. tomorrow his message will be "The Foundation of the Tabernacle." Teaching with charts and models of the tabernacle, the London pastor will preach each night at 7:30 on the frame, fabrics and furniture of the Old Testament tabernacle.

Singing at the conference will be led by Walter W. Morrow. Special music will be by the Underwood Trio, the Gospel Trio, Russell, Rowe, Kyle Wilson, the Ladies' Trio and Gospel Echoes Trio from the First Baptist Church.

The Rev. Mr. Slemming entered the ministry in 1933. Since his ordination in London in 1935, he has held pastorates in North Ireland as well as England.

In 1946 he joined the staff of the Bible Testimony Fellowship of London as a traveling lecturer.

A noted authority on Old Testament typology and Palestinian customs, he is the author of six volumes including "Made According to Pattern," "These Are the Garments" and "He Leadeth Me."

REV. C. W. SLEMMING

★ ★ ★

The Rev. J. Richard Muntz, pastor, stated the meetings are open to the public and transportation will be provided by calling the pastor at FE 4-6043.

Guest Speaker to Show Slides

Two Family Services Begin Sunday Morning at Christ Church

Mrs. Valerie DeBeausset, a resident of Formosa for nine years, will be the speaker and show slides at the luncheon of the Woman's Auxliliary in Christ Church Cranbrook at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

A native of Grosse Ile, Mrs. DeBeausset and her husband were the first white people to go into the interior of Formosa after the Japanese invasion.

Mrs. Howard B. Barker, auxiliary president, will preside and introduce the speaker.

Other officers serving this year include Mrs. Edward Proctor, first vice president; Mrs. T. Hallister Mabley, second vice president; Mrs. A. W. Dunham, treasurer; Mrs. George Squibbs, assistant treasurer. Also serving will be Mrs. Richard Brown, recording secretary; Mrs. Melville Lindquist, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Wayne Andrae, United Thank Offering treasurer.

The church school fall term will begin tomorrow with the usual two family services at 9:30 and 11:15 a.m.

The nursery for children under three will move back to Cranbrook House on the Booth estate.

Parents may take three-, four- and five-year-old children to their classrooms on the first floor before the service begins.

All other boys and girls will attend the entire service with their parents for tomorrow only. On Sept. 14 they will attend regular church school classes.

Members to Study 'Lessons in Truth'

Starting Monday and continuing through Sept. 14, Unity churches throughout the county will be studying the book by Emilie Cady, "Lessons in Truth."

Each year the second week of September is celebrated as Lessons in Truth Week. A study guide is sent from national headquarters at Lee's Summit, Mo. to aid in a systematic study of the fundamentals of Unity.

At 8 p.m. Tuesday the local Unity Church, 71½ N. Saginaw St. will begin the fall series of study classes with a resume of the book.

Adds New Church Every Three Days

The Methodist Church has organized at least 1,053 new congregations in the last eight years, an average of 124 a year or about one new church every three days.

That report on church extension is contained in a survey entitled "Methodism's New Churches, 1950-1958," just released by the Division of National Missions of the Methodist Board of Missions.

The survey, covering the period from January, 1950, to April, 1958, was prepared by the Division's Department of Reseaerch and Survey, Philadelphia, Pa.

September Brides Speak Vows in Host of Churches

Mrs. David Henry Ward

Judith M. Perry daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vene G. Perry of Birmingham, and Paul C. Hoffman, son of the Paul B. Hoffmans of Northville, were married this afternoon at Christ Church, Cranbrook.

MRS. PAUL C. HOFFMAN

MRS. WILLIAM E. FRENCH

Jacqueline Lavange Holda and William Edwin French were married today at Ann Arbor. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Cazimer Holda and Mrs. Burt French and the late Mr. French.

MRS. H. ALFRED MILLER

Married today in Birmingham were Ann H. Willett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Willett Jr. of Birmingham, and H. Alfred Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Miller of Newton, Kan.

Barbara Ann Schwalm Weds David Henry Ward

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph O. Schwalm of Silver Lake road and Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Stuart Ward of Orchard Lake.

IN TAFFETA AND LACE

The bride selected a gown of pearl-lustred silk taffeta blended with embroidered antique ivory Alencon lace. The gown featured long tapered sleeves, and contour folds of taffeta accented the high Empress waistline. The bouffant skirt formed a scalloped court train.

Her madonna fingertip veil of silk illusion was bordered by Alencon lace and on a white prayer book she carried a bouquet of lilies, stephanotis and ivy. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Phyllis Law was maid of honor, with bridesmaids Mrs. David Lee of Salisbury, Md., Theresa Polzin and Greta Phipps.

They wore golden-champagne sheath dresses with three-quarter length sleeves. Their headpieces were ivy wreaths. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of Talisman roses, bronze chrysanthemums, ivy and wheat. The bridesmaids' bouquets were bronze chrysanthemums and ivy with wheat.

BROTHER ATTENDS BRIDEGROOM

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Ward was dressed in a nutmeg colored silk faille sheath with bolero jacket and a russet pheasant-feather hat with brown accessories. Her corsage was a bronze spray of cypripedium orchids.

TRIP TO CAPE COD

The new Mrs. Ward selected a forest green wool crepe suit with sandy beige accessories and a pheasant feather hat, and a corsage from the bridal bouquet for the wedding trip to Cape Cod.

★ ★ ★

The couple will live in Hanover, N.H., where the bridegroom is attending Tuck School of Business Administration. He is a graduate of Dartmouth College and affiliated with Gamma Delta Chi Fraternity.

The bride attended Eastern Michigan College and the University of Michigan.

Yomar Group Hosts Meet at Church

The Rev. Galen Hershey conducted the Bible study.

Mrs. Harry Pattison and Mrs. Leslie Ellis delegates to the national convention of the Presbyterian Women's organization at Purdue University, reported on the June convention.

The rotation of membership of the 11 groups of the Women's Assn. was voted to take effect in January 1959.

Others participating in the program were Mrs. Galen Hershey, Mrs. Basil Kimball and Mrs. Neil Gray.

A. J. Lemanskis Wed 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lemanski of Midway street will be honored for their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday at an open house at their home.

Hosts at the affair will be their daughters, Mrs. Chester Mohelski, Mrs. Willard Tatzka of Plymouth, Mrs. Loren Thompson of Coffeeville, Kan., and their sons, Sylvan, Henry of Washington, D.C., and Clement of Kansas.

Nancy A. Lewellen Wed in St. Hugo of Hills Rite

An embroidered nylon tulle gown was worn by Nancy Ann Lewellen for her marriage to Carl Walter Ziobro this morning at St. Hugo of the Hills Catholic Church. The 11 a.m. ceremony ws performed before 200 witnesses by the Rev. Arthur Childs.

★ ★ ★

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lewellen of Devonshire drive, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ziobro of Detroit.

IN BOUFFANT GOWN

Short sleeves and a Sabrina neckline accented the bodice of the bride's gown. The bouffant skirt featured tiers of ruffles which extended to form a chapel train, and she carried stephanotis and phalaenopsis orchids on a prayer book.

★ ★ ★

Bridesmaids Esther Piosazk of Detroit and Sally Ann Ziobro of Detroit, sister of the bridegroom, wore gowns identical to that of the honor maid in bonbon satin and pale brown respectively. They also carried yellow daisy chrysanthemums.

ASSIST BRIDEGROOM

James Folcik of Detroit attended as best man. Arthur Thomas and Walter Wachocki, both of Detroit, seated the guests.

Mrs. Lewellen wore a toast lace dress and yellow roses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Ziobro selected a blue lace ensemble with yellow roses.

A reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents this evening.

The couple will reside in Detroit.

Hoffman-Perry Nuptials Solemnized at Cranbrook

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene of the wedding this afternoon of Judith Maiers Perry and Paul Cameron Hoffman. The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt officiated at the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Vene G. Perry of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Hoffman of Northville.

★ ★ ★

The bride selected a gown of white silk taffeta featuring a round neckline and long sleeves. The molded bodice was appliqued with heirloom Brussels lace. Her mantilla of Brussels lace fell to the hem of her chapel train and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

ATTEND BRIDE

Mrs. Peter S. Hoffman was matron of honor, with Frances Dawson as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gary Knapp, Mrs. Robert Scott, Marcia Kelly, Virginia Dawson and Sarah McQuigg.

They were dressed in blue glazed taffeta sheaths with pouffes in the back. Their headpieces were circular veils of matching lace and they carried French nosegays of pink carnations and garnet roses.

Peter S. Hoffman was his brother's best man. Ushers were Russell Dawson, Arthur Fairbanks, Lester L. Colbert, Michael Schirmer, Gordon Shira, Tucker Luscomb and Fred Bunnell.

RECEPTION GIVEN

To receive guests at a reception held at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, Mrs. Perry chose a blue tissue wool suit with a yoke of re-embroidered Alencon lace, a garnet rose corsage pinned to her purse. Mrs. Hoffman wore a beige chiffon dress with bands of matching lace and she carried a bouquet of Briarcliff roses.

The bride chose a stone blue cashmere tweed suit with matching hat for a trip to the Black Hills of South Dakota.

Kaye Hudson Celebrates 11th Birthday Event

Asked what was the wish that she had earned in one vigorous blow, Kaye dimpled, "I wished daddy would win." Rep. Hudson is Pontiac's Democratic candidate for U.S. Congress.

Wed in Ann Arbor Rite

First Presbyterian Church, Ann Arbor, was the scene of the wedding this afternoon of Jacqueline Lavange Holda and William Edwin French. Dr. Henry Kinzenga officiated at the double-ring candlelight ceremony before 100 guests.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Cazimer Holda of Marion avenue, and Mrs. Burt French of Livonia and the late Mr. French.

The bride wore a floor length gown of tissue silk dupioni with a full skirt. The bodice and cap sleeves were of Alencon lace. The gown featured a fitted basque waist and cutout scalloped Sabrina neckline. A Swedish crown of sequins and pearls held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. Her colonial bouquet was of white carnations and rosebuds.

ATTENDS BRIDE

Marilyn McArthur was maid of honor. She wore a dove blue ballerina-length chiffon dress with a draped boat neckline and fitted bodice. A matching feathered bandeau accented with seed pearls held her nose veil and she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow rosebuds.

Thomas Zopff of Plymouth was best man. Ushers were Thomas Pope of Ann Arbor and Hugh Jameson Moreland of Indianapolis, Ind.

To receive guests at a reception held in the church parlors, Mrs. Holda wore a sheath of brown eyelet over pink taffeta with brown and pink accessories and a white rosebud corsage. Mrs. French was dressed in a navy sheath with navy accessories and a white rosebud corsage.

The new Mrs. Holda selected a green and pumpkin check sheath with brown accessories for her going-away outfit. The couple plans a honeymoon to Northern Michigan. They will live in Plymouth.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Michigan School of Nursing. The bridegroom is also a University of Michigan graduate and is attending graduate school there now.

Ann H. Willett Becomes Bride of H. Alfred Miller

Ann Harris Willett and H. Alfred Miller were married today at First Methodist Church, Birmingham. The Rev. Arnold F. Runkel officiated at the afternoon ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Willett Jr. of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Miller of Newton, Kan.

IN MOTHER'S GOWN

Beverly Miller, the bridegroom's sister, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Virginia Walter, Denise Guilmet, Marcia Wittmore and Mrs. Whitter Humphreys.

They wore princess style dresses of tissue faille, the honor maid's and one of the bridesmaid's in yellow, two in gold and two in ruby. On their heads, they wore ivy circlets and carried matching rose bouquets.

★ ★ ★

G. Howard Willett III, the bride's brother, was best man. Gordon Willett, another of the bride's brothers, was junior usher. Seating the guests were John Gardner, Robert Griffith, Robert Simpson, Whitten Humphreys and Charles Koehn.

RECEPTION AT CLUB

To receive guests at the Birmingham Country Club, the bride's mother selected a dress of chocolate Chantilly over sable peau de soie and a feather hat. The bridegroom's mother wore a cocoa Alencon lace over sandalwood silk crepe with a jeweled hat. Both wore cymbidium orchid corsages.

★ ★ ★

Following a honeymoon to northern Michigan, the couple will live in Boonville, Mo.

Wear Gloves When Driving

Perspiring palms on the steering wheel are uncomfortable and also unsafe, since a sliding grip in an emergency could be fatal.

Ninfa Sonja Paramo and Joseph Charles Mendoza were married this morning. Parents of the couple are Mrs. James Paramo and the late Mr. Paramo and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Mendoza.

MRS. JOSEPH C. MENDOZA

Ninfa Paramo Marries

White gladioli banked the altar of St. Vincent De Paul Church this morning for the wedding of Ninfa Sonja Paramo and Joseph Sharles Mendoza. The Rev. James Sheehan officiated at the ceremony before 300 guests.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. James Paramo of Franklin Road and the late Mr. Paramo, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Mendoza of Lake Orion.

IN LACE GOWN

The bride's gown featured a bodice of Chantilly lace with short sleeves and a Sabrina neckline accented with pearls and sequins. The skirt and train were fashioned of white mer-mist with white embroidered roses. The detachable chapel train formed a bustle bow for the reception.

Her short lace-trimmed veil was held by a pearl and rhinestone jeweled crown and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses centered by a blue orchid.

Mary Lou Platz of Detroit was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Gloria Mendoza of Saginaw, Mary Ramirez, Mrs. Jack Mendoza and Yolanda Nerio, the bride's cousin, from Saginaw.

Flowergirls Roxanne Podriquez and Sylvanna Paramo, cousins of the bride, wore white mer-mist dresses with pink embroidered roses, and wreaths of lilies of the valley and pink rosebuds on their heads. They carried baskets of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

ASSIST BRIDEGROOM

Best man was Forest Greene with ushers, Cpl. Jack Mendoza of Saginaw, the bridegroom's cousin, Cpl. Dennis Paramo, the bride's brother; Gilbert Mendoza, the bridegroom's brother, and Mike Barragon.

★ ★ ★

To receive guests at a reception held in Hellenic Hall, Mrs. Paramo selected a fall gold lace sheath with green accessories and a yellow tea rose corsage. Mrs. Mendoza wore a metallic blue sheath with pink accessories and pink rosebud corsage.

Prevent Problems

Teens Can Lay Beauty Foundation

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

At teen-age habits of posture, outlook, grooming, hygiene and nutrition, are so very important because the woman of a few years hence will reflect all of them. What you will be like at 20 or 30 depends a lot on what you eat, how you exercise, how you care for your skin and hair and how you think, today.

Adolescence is a vital time also because minds and bodies are so pliable and so easily changed. They have not yet settled into rigidity. This is a rapid time of growth physically, emotionally and mentally. The direction young folks give this quick-changing will have a great influence on their adult lives.

Poor posture often develops at this time because of the speedy growth rate. Young people have not had time to learn how to carry this increased development correctly. The same thing is true of mental and emotional balance.

The transition from childhood is so sudden. So many brand new experiences and liberties have been thrown at teenagers all at once. They have not had time to evaluate them.

In today's teen-ager we often can see the background for the Dowager's Hump, the round shoulders, the double chin, the protruding abdomen, the dull hair and skin of tomorrow. Now is the easiest time to change this picture, not when it arrives years later.

Young people need exercise in order to develop the health and stamina which will carry them through the trials and responsibilities of later life. It seems too bad that all young folks do not indulge in sports for the sake of good looks as well as of health and fun.

The teen-age girl should wash her face several times each day with a mild soap. Most complexions of this age have plenty of oil, most too much, so that cold cream is not usually indicated. However, if a young girl has a fairly dry skin, she may require some cream during winter months or when in a very dry climate.

Habits of grooming should be taught long before teen age. The little girl loves to follow beauty routines when she sees her mother do so. However, teen age is not too late to teach her to care for her nails and hair and skin. She, too, should brush her hair vigorously and regularly each day.

Surveys have shown that our teen-agers are likely to be poorly nourished because many of them skip breakfast and eat irregularly. They often fill up in between meals with foods which add little to good nutrition. If girls this age would realize that eating correctly is the best beauty treatment they can give themselves, they would take their meals more seriously.

If you are a teen-ager, and would like to have my leaflet which was written especially for you, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 58 "Popularity." Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Dear Abby....

Bridesmaid Wants to Bow Out

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: I am in a a spot and don't know what to do. My friend (we grew up next door to each other) is getting married in November and she asked me to be a bridesmaid. She's been engaged to this fellow for three years and all the time she went with him she has been sneaking out to go with others.

ABBY

"I don't respect her and really don't want to be a bridesmaid at her wedding because I know too much about her. She says she is marrying him for security and will learn to love him after they are married. How can I get out of being her bridesmaid after I said yes?" ON THE SPOT

DEAR ON: Merely "growing up" with someone doesn't constitute a friendship. Tell her you have changed your mind—and tell her why.

"DEAR ABBY: My husband has a very irritating habit of reading in bed before going to sleep. If you've ever tried to sleep with the light shining in your face you will realize my problem. In my job I am on 24-hour call and I could use the extra sleep. Should I burn the magazines or sleep in the doghouse?" SLEEPY IRENE

DEAR SLEEPY: Neither! Get a bed-light that shoots a beam of light, or buy eyeshades for yourself. Goodnight, Irene!

"DEAR ABBY: We have a very stingy aunt who accepts dinner invitations from all the relatives, but never invites anyone to her home. Last Christmas she won a turkey in a raffle and it only weighed 12 pounds and she had the nerve to invite 36 people to her house for turkey. All she served with it was cranberry sauce and garlic bread. She has been the talk of the whole family ever since.

"My husband says we should invite her anyway and overlook her stinginess. Do you think he is right or not? I say she should stay home if she can't entertain others like they entertain her. She is in better financial shape than any of the rest of us, so that's no excuse." A NIECE

DEAR NIECE: Life is too short to bear a grudge over anything so insignificant as what was served at a party. Next time offer to "help" her and talk enough "turkey" to her to feed everybody.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: I am a girl of 17 and I think I have a problem. I have been seeing this guy who is 19 but he says he doesn't want to go steady. He told me he loves me and I know I am in love with him. He told me he didn't want to see too much of me because he doesn't want to get sick of me. After telling me this he put me on a bus to go home and didn't say when he would call me. Do you think he meant it when he said he loved me? I want to know what to do." LOSS OF WORDS

DEAR LOSS: If this fellow loves anything—it's his own freedom. Don't take him seriously.

"DEAR ABBY: I have been widowed for six years and now have an opportunity to remarry. I understand that there is a new state law which gives the husband half his wife's assets. My husband's insurance, holdings and properties add up to about $30,000. This is a lot of money and all I have in the world.

"I am not saying this man who asked to marry me is marrying me for my money but I know he isn't as well off as I am, I like this man, but I am not sure I like him $30,000 worth. Should I talk it over with him and ask him if he is counting on this law or what?" QUESTIONING

DEAR QUESTIONING: Talk to a lawyer about drawing up a prenuptial agrement. If your husband is not marrying you for your money he won't mind putting it in writing.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "EXHAUSTED:" Prosperity is just around the coronary. Slow up.

Have You Tried This?

Fall Apples Decorate Top of Coffee Bread

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Now that apples are beginning to appear in market, you will like this recipe for an apple cake. It's one of those versatile cakes, good as dessert or for brunch.

★ ★ ★

Today's cook is Mrs. George Fuller of Lower Straits Lake. Her house is her hobby, she says. But she does like both gardening and bridge.

APPLE CAKE
By Mrs. George Fuller

1 cup sifted cake flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
6 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons shortening
2 egg yolks
⅓ cup milk
4-5 apples, pared and sliced thin
½ teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
Butter or margarine

Sift flour, baking powder, salt and 2 tablespoons of the sugar together. Cut in shortening as for pie crust. Mix well.

Beat yolks and milk and stir into first mixture. Beat well. Spread dough in shallow greased pan. Cover with apple slices. Mix remaining sugar, cinnamon and lemon rind together and sprinkle over apples. Dot with butter.

Bake 35 minutes at 400 degrees. If served for dessert, garnish with whipped cream.

UP Witnesses Support Mine

Urge Approval of Bid to Dig Copper From 'Porkies' Park

WAKEFIELD (UP)— Citing economic needs, a long list of Upper Peninsula witnesses yesterday urged approval of a mining company's request for a lease allowing possible copper exploration and mining in Porcupine Mountain State Park.

There was no spoken opposition to the proposal, considered by a special study committee of the committee of the Michigan legislature in a one-day hearing. The committee is looking into the problems of both the iron and copper industries in the development of low grade ore deposits.

★ ★ ★

One of the main opposition blocks, the Michigan United Conservation Clubs, offered two resolutions which were placed in the record but not read by the committee, which has only advisory power. Lease jurisdiction is held by the State Conservation Commission. The commission will consider the proposal at White Pines, Oct. 9-10.

★ ★ ★

Details of the plan were explained by C. H. Burgess of Salt Lake City, Utah, president of the Bear Creek Mining Co., a subsidiary of Kennecott Copper Corp.

He said the company plans the development as a private enterprise venture and would not be interested in anything less than a 50-year lease in an area called the Lone Rock Project, known to geologists since 1877 as a promising source of ore.

Burgess said the company wants clearance to 933 acres on the shore of Lake Superior and 5,200 acres beneath the lake. If exploration leads to a promising ore body, Burgess said, all the mining would be under the lake.

Britain Busy Mopping Up After Storm

LONDON (AP)—Southeast England mopped up today after a freak rain and hail storm that paralyzed transport and devastated crops. No deaths were reported but property damage was heavy.

★ ★ ★

The storm hit after a hot, sultry day. In less than two hours it had turned roads into roaring rivers choked with fallen trees, left hundreds of automobiles stranded and brought train and plane service to a halt. It also gave Britons the most spectacular display of lightning most could remember.

MASKED PROTEST — Commuters on New York Central Railroad's West Shore division in New Jersey wear fish masks as they board ferry for New York. The masks were in protest against the railroad's plan to discontinue the ferry service Sept. 13. The commuters point out they have no alternate means of crossing the Hudson River, and can't swim like fish.

They're Recuperating Today

Police Nab Huge Pig

JONESBORO, Ark. (UPI) — Three Jonesboro policemen are recuperating from the "great pig chase" today.

It started when desk Sgt. Wayne Vaughn got four calls in about four minutes yesterday.

One woman said, "There's a big hog tearing up my flower beds." Another complained, "Some kind of monster hog is rooting up my lawn."

Vaughn sent three patrolmen. They spotted a 700-pound sow running across a lawn. So they called for lariat ropes and gave chase.

All three finally got ropes around the animal. The hog dragged the trio along the ground for about 30 yards at one point, then shook them loose.

Finally, about a half dozen bystanders managed to haul the big porker to a stop in the middle of the street.

★ ★ ★

Just then, Byrce Grant, a Manila, Ark., hog breeder, pulled up in his stock truck. He said the hog had broken out the back of his market-bound truck when he stopped for a traffic light.

Pays Fine He Gave Self

PETOSKEY, Mich. (AP)—Policeman Charles Laubrich paid a $25 fine in settling a violation ticket he wrote against himself. Laubrich ticketed himself for failure to have his police car under control after falling asleep at the wheel and striking a utility pole. He was uninjured. He was on lone night patrol at the time.

Adlai Plans to Fly to Algeria Today

PARIS (AP) — Adlai Stevenson said he will fly to rebellion-ripped Algeria today at the invitation of a French oil company to see the Sahara oil fields.

Stevenson deplored the French failure to stop the nationalist rebellion which has been going on in Algeria for almost four years.

"There is common agreement that the war must be stopped but no agreement as to how this is to be accomplished," he told a news conference at the U.S. Embassy.

Stainless Steel Used in New Restaurant

The first all-stainless steel premanufactured building in Waterford Township is in the process of being built on the corner of Telegraph road at Dixie highway, according to building inspector Carl Walton.

A new $40,000 Dixie Belle Diner restaurant owned by Frank Monnet will be manufactured and shipped from New Jersey, then assembled on the spot. Workers are in the process of finishing the full basement of the 22-ft. by 50-ft. building.

One dozen counter stools will be arranged around a semi-circle at the north end of the interior, and 30 booths and tables will be located at the opposite end of the building.

The kitchen will be entirely equipped with stainless steel appliances and opening date has been set for some time after the first of the year.

CD Medical Course Set to Begin in Waterford

A 13-weeks basic training course for medical auxiliaries of Civil Defense in Waterford Township, will begin at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the John Monteith Elementary school on Crescent Lake Rd. according to assistant director Lloyd Gidley.

An educational agenda has been lined up and registered nurses who graduated from the same type of classes last spring, will be the volunteer instructors for the course.

Casualty care system will be the first class taught and will have to do with medical disaster plans, assembly procedures command and nursing responsibilities in disaster and field service.

The next three weeks will be first aid instruction, which will be followed by shock treatment, burns psychological first aid and emergency birth in case of a disaster.

Radiation and fall-out classes will explain decontamination in the home, with medical aspects of radiation sickness and emergency sanitation.

Hypodermic and blood pressure techniques will be explained along with the use of syrettes.

The duties of medical aides on intravenous techniques, blood transfusions the use of plasma will be included in the course along with the administering of sedatives, antibiotics and immunization.

How to cope with contagious disease in case there is bacteriological warfare will be one of the most important sessions in the course, Gidley said.

Improvisions in basic nursing procedures will be taught in the Disaster Nursing class and to conclude—the entire class will participate in an Elementary School Conversion into an "Emergency Hospital."

After the course has been completed, there will be an additional 4-week course scheduled at the Community Activities Bldg. and a 200-bed portable hospital will be put into operation.

Those interested in enrolling in this course have been asked to contact one of the two co-directors, Mrs. Florence Dyet or Mrs. T. H. Leroy.

There are more than 150 Waterford Township Auxiliaries who graduated from the course last year Gidley said.

Say Kalamazoo Lovely Word—but Not for $1,000

KALAMAZOO (UP)—Kalamazoo is a lovely word, but it's not worth $1,000.

That was the reluctant agreement by the Kalamazoo Board of Education when it learned it would cost that much to put the city's name in stone on a new $1,500,000 public library and museum.

The board decided the $1,000 could be better used on extra facilities inside the building.

Car Hits Tree, Killing 2

BATTLE CREEK (UP)—Two Battle Creek men were killed last night when their car hit a tree off a county road 12 miles southwest of Battle Creek. The victims were Gary A. Patterson, 24, the driver, and Denton Cooper, 29.

SCHOOL BELLS RANG:

J. L. VOORHEES

M. E. SIPLE

No one would hurt a child, intentionally; unless we are alert that is what we can do. Our children are going back to school, full of sunshine, pep and excess energy. They're going to play as they walk, some will "horse" around, show off, impress the new girl in the neighborhood — they are the ones who invite an accident. Keep your car under rigid control, ready for a quick stop.

You drive consistently, stay in your lane of traffic, hold your speed below the legal limit, stop for pedestrians and courteous to other drivers — at least most of us do. Most children are sedate, cautious, think before they cross a street — at least most of them are. It is the exception, driver and child, who send an ambulance screaming to their assistance. Don't be that excepton! A child's life is too preciuus for anyone to allow his or her mind to wander, become involved in an accident.

School Bells Rang. Be sure! Certain! that you allow those children to answer those bells.

OUTWARD TO THE STARS

(18)—Inside the Station

By Don Oakley and Ralph Lane

Years of rocket research, testing, building, successes and failures — and great expense — will precede the building of any permanent manned space station on the scale envisioned above. But if men feel compelled to explore the Moon and planets at first hand, currently available means of propulsion (liquid or possibly solid-fuel rockets) require that some sort of orbiting station be built, although not necessarily this large and complicated.

Today's fuels are not sufficiently powerful to propel a man-carrying vehicle from the surface of the Earth, land it on another member of the solar system and return it to Earth. New discoveries in the field, however, could change that situation completely.

Yet whether or not it is needed for travel to another planet, science will want such a station someday — as an observatory free from atmospheric interference; a global weather plotter; a world-wide television, radio or telephone relay center; a gravity-free hospital where heart diseases may be studied or unfiltered sun rays used in the treatment of cancer.

Cutaway drawing shows some of the details of a station built after the von Braun spinning wheel concept. At an altitude of 1,075 miles, it completes one revolution about the Earth every two hours. Elevator and net ladder, center, lead from central entrance and exit to the main sections. Spinning of the rim provides artificial gravity.

At right of panel a Moon rocket is in the final stages of assembly. Because it will never enter the atmosphere, this vehicle can be of lightweight, unstreamlined design. Crew quarters are contained in sphere at top. Fuel load is small, since its orbital velocity will give the Moon rocket a "running start" to escape Earth's gravity.

Next: Men on the Moon.

Pontiac Counts 30 Investment Study Clubs

DETROIT (AP) — The chances are good that somebody in your neighborhood — maybe it's you — is a member of an investment club.

He or she is meeting rgularly with a group of friends, putting a specified amount of money into the kitty each month, helping invest the total on the open market, and hoping it will grow.

(Editor's Note: Oakland County has approximately 50 investment study clubs at the present time; the City of Pontiac can count 30 such groups, with at least 25 of them being members of the national association.)

★ ★ ★

The investment club idea, one of the fastest-rolling avocations in the United States today, has spread to all states and even to some foreign countries.

A few of the 12,000 clubs are worth a king's ransom in liquidating assets. Most are small and hopeful. Some are flat broke and fading out of existence.

"We thought our club was the only one of its kind back in 1951," said Thomas E. O'Hara, who now is chairman of the NAIC board of directors. "But when a newspaperman did a feature story on our club, we started getting letters from all over the country from other people who were members of clubs.

"Some of them were successful and some were not," he said. "We decided to find out what had made the difference."

So O'Hara's club of 12 Detroit men sent out queries.

"We found that balance is the important thing," he said. "One club sunk most of its assets in the stock of one company and, when the stock went down, the club lost $15,000. It's out of existence now."

Also important to success, O'Hara said, are regular investments, re-investment of earnings, and careful selection of growth-type earnings.

With these four rules of thumb in hand, O'Hara's club conceived the idea of a national association to link investment clubs together for the exchange of information. Another purpose was to promote the organization of new clubs.

The result was the NAIC. It held its first convention in October 1951 with 46 delegates from four clubs. Then the mushrooming started. There were 42 clubs in 1952, 115 in 1953, 345 in 1954 and last year—a phenominal jump—there were 3,400 clubs in the NAIC.

There are many other investment clubs not members of the NAIC.

In the NAIC, members receive a monthly bulletin, tickets to periodical conventions, and their club is bonded up to $25,000 against theft. The dues are $7 a year for each club plus $1 a year per member.

A speaker at a recent convention was George K. Funston, president of the New York Stock Exchange.

Members of the individual clubs decide how much to invest each month. O'Hara said the investments range from $5 a month for each member of a high school club at College Station, Tex., to $1,200 per month per man for a club in an exclusive suburb of Detroit.

The recession did not stunt the growth of investment clubs. O'Hara said the average membership of the clubs in the NAIC went up from 13 to 14 since the economic downswing started last November.

Because of the clubs, cardinal rule of investing regularly without regard to the market's condition, O'Hara sees investment clubs as a great leveling-off force on the nation's economy.

"We could have five million members if we had the money to push the organization of new clubs," he said.

O'Hara's club, which started in 1941 with the help of a broker-advisor, now has a total liquidating value of $103,344. Its fund has doubled in the past 4½ years.

★ ★ ★

O'Hara, who gets only a token salary as head of the non-profit NAIC, is director of the payroll department of the Detroit Public School system. His labor of love takes up all his spare time but he says the thrill of having a hand in the financial whirl of the country makes it worth it.

Two Rocket Workers Killed in Explosion

REDLANDS, Calif. (AP) — A tremendous explosion shattered a concrete blockhouse and killed two men at a rocket fuel plant last night.

A column of blue-green flames soared into the sky as the building burst open at the Grand Central Rocket Co. plant. The flames turned to red and settled to earth, touching off a brush fire which firemen extinguished.

Officials said Angelo Tshulos, 25 and Ronald D. Kloote, 33, were working alone, mixing solid propellant, when the blast occurred.

South Haven Firemen Build Swamp Buggy

SOUTH HAVEN (AP) — A swamp buggy has been put into service by the South Haven Fire Department for getting at fires in the area's sandy, swampy terrain.

Built by the city's firemen and believed to be the only vehicle of its kind, the buggy is on a jeep chassis. It can carry 90 gallons of water along with fire brooms, shovels, axes, a two-way radio and a winch to pull itself out of soft ground. It carries four men.

Admiral Skeptical of Missiles

Sub Is Least Vulnerable to H-Bomb, Says Nimitz

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Nuclear warfare to a veteran of 57 years active naval service, Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, means new tools with the same function.

Contemplating the anniversary of his appointment to the Naval Academy at Annapolis Sept. 7, 1901, the white-haired World War II commander of the Pacific scanned the foggy Golden Gate from his sunny garden home in the Berkeley Hills and offered some discerning thoughts on nuclear weapons and missiles and atomic-powered submarines.

"I've seen the nucleus of the Navy change from the battleship to the aircraft carrier — the most concentrated unit of power we have now — and I hesitate to say what the Navy will be built around in the years to come."

The 73-year-old admiral, famed in World War II for his sound judgment and tactical skill, recalled he was given his first submarine command, the Plunger, in 1909.

"The submarine is the one type of vessel in our Navy today that is least vulnerable to nuclear attack," he said. "And the advent of nuclear power has tremendously increased the offensive power of submarines.

"They are much faster, dive far deeper and have much greater ability to evade attackers than the old submarines.

"If you try to visualize the Navy in the years to come you can bet there'll be submarines.

"And you can be sure there will be small combat ships — destroyer and escort types — because for the discernable future the commerce of the world is going to be carried in surface ships.

"The aircraft carrier, like any surface vessel, is vulnerable to nuclear weapons but, because of its speed and mobility, it is very difficult to find the carrier."

The admiral, who recently cruised off the California coast in the Nautilus, was high in his praise of this atom-powered submarine and her sister ship, the Skate, for their sensational voyages under the North Pole ice.

Asked about missiles and their possible influence on naval warfare, the admiral was skeptical about the accuracy of intercontinental and intermediate range missiles.

"If a weapon cannot be placed accurately on a military objecjective, if it hits civilian areas instead, it is just an irritant.

"In other words, I'm a show-me guy."

After he signed for the United States when Japan formally accepted surrender terms aboard the battleship Missouri in Tokyo Bay, Nimitz was chief of naval operations for two years. Fleet admirals are seldom retired. Nimitz has kept busy with a host of activities, service and civilian.

U. S. Bombers Fail to Appear in Toronto

TORONTO (AP) — More than 100,000 spectators at the Canadian International Air Show were disappointed yesterday when scheduled flights of U.S. Air Force H-bombers failed to show up.

An announcer said the B52s, B47s and B58s would not appear because "of the deteriorating situation in Asia. I'm sorry but I'm not allowed to give further information."

The United States was represented by F104, F102 and F89 jet fighters plus the Navy's Blue Angel aerobatic team. British and Canadian planes also participated.

Shoot for Moon Due in October

U. S. Delay Gives Reds Two Chances to Reach Target First

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The second U.S. attempt to shoot for the moon probably will not come until October.

★ ★ ★

The Defense Department said in Washington yesterday that no date has been set for the next try to launch a satellite around the moon and that the chances of its coming in September are unlikely.

★ ★ ★

Thus—theoretically, at least—Russia will get two chances to reach the moon first before the United States tries again.

The brief Defense Department announcement ended speculation that the next U.S. moon rocket would be fired on or about Sept. 14, when the moon again is closest to earth.

The next most opportune time for the Air Force to attempt a shot will be a three-day period starting about Oct. 12, when the moon again swings as close as 222,000 miles to the glove as it orbits around the sun.

The best times for Russia to go ahead are about Sept. 13 and Oct. 11, a day before this country has its best chance.

New Mexico Guardsmen Spraying

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — New Mexico National Guardsmen started spraying 350 miles of Dona Ana County drainage ditches today. They are infested with encephalitis-carrying mosquitoes.

★ ★ ★

Gov. Edwin Mechem, after a meeting of public health officials and National Guard officers, proclaimed an emergency in the area.

Three deaths have been attributed to encephalitis in southern New Mexico. Subject to laboratory confirmation, 17 cases have been diagnosed as such.

The Dona Ana County situation is not considered an epidemic yet, the state health director, Stanley J. Leland, said. He indicated the situation could be controlled in a month.

3 Children in Family Die in Cleveland Fire

CLEVELAND (AP) — Three young children from one family were burned to death last night in an attic apartment fire which arson squad members said was started by an older brother.

The victims were Marion and Marilyn Clemons, 2-year-old twins, and Elmyria Clemons, 8 months. The third story attic apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Clemons, who were visiting a neighbor, was destroyed in the $5,000 fire.

Firemen said Rudolph Jr., 5, admitted playing with matches and starting the fire. They said a sister, Lillian, 4, was with him. Both ran out safely when flames whipped through the apartment on the east side. The father, returning home, turned in the alarm.

Save Man Buried in Ice

TRACY, Calif. (AP)—It was 96 in Tracy, but Bobby Bates, 41-year-old transient, nearly froze to death. He was asleep in an empty refrigerator car when the Tracy Ice and Development Co. dumped five tons of ice around Bobby through a chute. It took men with shovels an hour to dig Bates out.

VA Liberalizes Re-Entry Ruling for GI Training

The Oakland County Department of Veterans Affairs announced today that the Veterans Administrations is liberalizing conditions under which a Korean veteran who has interrupted his GI training more than 12 months following his delimiting date may re-enter training.

The department said that such re-entry may be made if immediate family or financial obligations beyond the veteran's control required him to suspend training to obtain employment.

This also applies to vets who suspend training because of personal or family illness or death in his immedate family and because of unavoidable conditions arising in connection with his employment.

Re-entry will also be allowed if the allowable 12-month period during which training may be suspended without VA approval ended during a vacation, recess, or other period during which it was not possible to re-enter school.

Some 30,000 visitors to the United States representing about 95 nationalities have been helped in the last 7 years by the services of the Washington International Center, established by the American Council on Education.

Supremist Pays Fine for Negro

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Police Commissioner Clyde Sellers, an ardent champion of white supremacy, paid the $14 fine of a Negro integration leader rather than let him go to jail.

Sellers said the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. wanted to be jailed as part of a publicity stunt to boost sales of King's forthcoming book on the fight for racial equality in Montgomery.

The police commissioner identified himself as the ananymous person who paid King's fine of $10 and costs assessed yesterday when he was convicted in city court of refusing to obey a police order.

King was arrested Wednesday and booked on a charge of loitering after police ordered him to leave the steps leading into the city hall courtroom. He had showed up for a hearing in a case involving a Negro man charged with assaulting the Rev. Ralph Abernathy, another Montgomery integration leader.

Rips De Gaulle Constitution

Mendes-France Sees Opportunity for Future Dictator in France

PARIS (AP) — Former Premier Pierre Mendes-France says Charles de Gaulle may not intend to become a dictator but his proposed constitution would pave the way for a successor with such aspirations.

★ ★ ★

Blasting De Gaulle's proposed Fifth Republic charter as "dangerous for the country, for civil peace and for democratic institutions" in a speech to Radical party followers yesterday, Mendes-France conceded that De Gaulle might not seize dictatorial powers under such a constitution.

"But after him . . .?" he demanded.

Mendes-France said that if the French people defeat De Gaulle's constitution in the Sept. 28 referendum, he and his party will call for election of a new constituent assembly to meet in November.

Such an assembly, he said, would draw up a concise constitution within a month.

Review Waterford School Construction

Nearly $6 million has been spent for schools in Waterford Township during the last seven years, according to an auditor's report at the Board of Education office.

The amount includes eight new schools, costing $4,558,484 and fifteen additions to original buildings totaling $1,133,820.

"In every instance, the new additions were larger than the original structure," superintendent William Shunck said.

He added that all of the school buildings have been paid for, or is in the process of being paid for, locally—with the exception of a $548,640 grant of Federal money for construction of the new John D. Pierce Junior high school.

Final payment on the $1,300,800 Waterford Township high school, was made this year—the total having been paid during the seven-year stretch.

The largest amount spent for school construction was for the $1.5 million Isaac Crary Junior high school, which opened in 1954.

Another Junior high school, the John D. Pierce, costing $2.5 million and not included in the auditor's report will open to 1,500 pupils September 15.

A new elementary school on the north side of Watkins Lake, the Thomas M. Cooley, is now under construction, scheduled to open the first of February. It will cost approximately $300,000.

Bids for an additional elementary school on Elizabeth Lake road will be opened at the September 18 Board of Education meeting. Members estimate that the cost of the structure will be about the same as the Cooley school.

By the end of 1959, there will be 22 school buildings in the Waterford Township school district.

It costs taxpayers some three-and-a-third million dollars annually for operation and maintainance of its school system. The actual 1957-58 figure was $3,174,794.

In spite of the tremendous school district's building program underway in recent years, school taxes have not increased, according to Shunck.

He said, "For the last three years, the Board of Education has established a total tax rate for school operation and debt retirement, so that the number of dollars a property owner would pay, remains the same."

Shunck added that this holds true, providing there was no change in a taxpayer's assessed property valuation during that time.

Of the 15 mills that the state allots the township, eight mills is used for schools in Waterford Township. Voters at the August primary election, approved a continuation of an additional 5-mills for school operation.

Shunck said that if Waterford Township pupils are to be adequately housed in the very immediate future, a 5-million dollar building program will be necessary.

A second Senior high school to accomodate 1,500 pupils is needed. He said, "The present high school will be operating at it's very maximum this year." Sites are being studied.

Additional elementary schools are needed in the Jayno Adams, and Waterford Center areas. Sizable additions to the Monteith, Leggett, Williams Lake and Pontiac Lake elementary schools are being contemplated.

Temple Beth Group Receives Awards

The Youth Group of Temple Beth Jacob received the annual achievement award at the conclave held last week at Brighton.

The award, given every year to the outstanding youth group within the Michigan Federation of Temple Youth, is based on service to the community, study and all around excellence.

Really a 'Slick' Job

Teachers Trip on 1st Day

EATON RAPIDS (UPI) — Everyone agreed today that the maintenance crew at Eaton Rapids Elementary School did a pretty good job of polishing the halls before classes opened.

They did such a good job, in fact, that two teachers ended up in the hospital after slipping on the floor.

First one to slip was third-grade teacher Mrs. Grace Winslow. Mrs. Elna Mattson fell while she was on her way to take Mrs. Winslow's place.

Finally, Mrs. Aviz Skinner, the school's art teacher, was asked by principal Paul Letts to greet the school's third-graders. Before leaving the office, he warned her about the slippery floors.

Yes, she made it.

Your Neighbor's House

Farewell to Summer and Outdoor Living

background for LIVING

Pontiac Press Home Editor

The outdoor living area has become part of the American scene. Of course, homes on lakes and rivers have always had such areas because of the view. But now it seems to be the accepted thing to have an extension of your living room outside.

Here you entertain guests, you relax with the paper; the kids play. And you eat! With portable television, you have your entertainment outside too.

Someone has to get this patio or terrace ready to be used. Someone has to pour the cement slab, lay the flagstones or wrestle with broken concrete. Usually that someone is Papa.

Out at our country domicile, the scene is no different. The Better Half spent most of the summer building a patio outside the side door.

He acquired several truckloads of broken concrete. As a consequence he also acquired some new muscles he never knew he owned. We think he's through changing the shape or size of the patio now because he cemented the stones down.

During our hunt for pictures for today we learned some interesting things. In brand new subdivisions not many people have patios. They need a carport or garage or recreation room first. And they need a lawn and fencing.

Patios are most often do-it-yourself projects. If slabs or flagstones are used, a few can be laid whenever the man of the house has a little time. Sheltering fences and walls can be made the same way.

Although there are some elaborate fireplaces built outside, the trend is toward the portable grill or barbecue unit. Some homeowners have heavy duty wiring put in with outside outlets when the house is built; they buy electric barbecues.

OUT IN CLARKSTON — The Edgar Collicks of Middle Lake road extended the brick wall of their house to enclose their patio. They have a picnic table in the sun and another in the shade. Their outdoor cooking facilities are large and complete, even to a sheltered wood storage area. Mrs. Collick and her sixteen-year-old daughter, Sharon, took a sunbath while the photographer worked. What is not seen in this picture is the lakefront that can be seen from those easy chairs under the overhang.

Pontiac Press Photos

IT'S A START — The Joseph Bushroes live on Helmsford drive in Wolverine Heights. They have plans for a large patio some day, complete with pool. To start they laid pink patio blocks at one end of the yard, near the white fence; these blocks match the house. Then they planted a clump of white birch in the middle and edged the garden square with red petunias and white alyssum. Now the whole family has a spot for outdoor living. The afternoon this picture was taken Mrs. Bushroe was supervising a card game between her young sons, three-year-old Dan and five-year-old David.

WOTTA LIFE! — Well, what's a summer for anyway? You might as well take it easy while you can. After all, school comes soon enough. Fifteen-year-old Michael Bodin didn't say all these things, but he might have. He just relaxed in a chair beside the little crescent pool while the photographer took his picture. The pool and cement slab patio were made by Mike and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bodin, of Meadow Ridge road in Hill and Dale subdivision. The patio is made of old driveway slabs. Until the area was sprayed aerially for mosquitos there were dozens of gold fish in the pool. Aaah, the price one must pay for "progress"!

JUST BIG ENOUGH — The Donald Scotts live in Lorraine Manor on Fernbarry drive. They laid a cement slab back of their house for their outdoor living area. On one side is a woven wood fence to screen out the sun. In front a lower fence serves as background for their beginning rose bed. A small charcoal grill and a large barbecue grill provide the wherewithall for any kind of outdoor meal. Plastic and metal lawn furniture are in keeping with the size of the area. Shown here are Mrs. Scott with her three daughters. From left to right they are Michele, 3 (holding the family's pet dog); Cynthia, 4; and Patricia, 6. We'll warrant they don't always sit that still.

Picnic tables vary from the umbrella-type to the regulation park table-and-benches combination. Some folks use folding tables they can carry indoors.

With school starting, the days of outdoor living are limited for this year. But there are many warm days ahead in the fall months when that patio will be put to good use. Today's Home Section is our salute for 1958 to outdoor living in Oakland County.

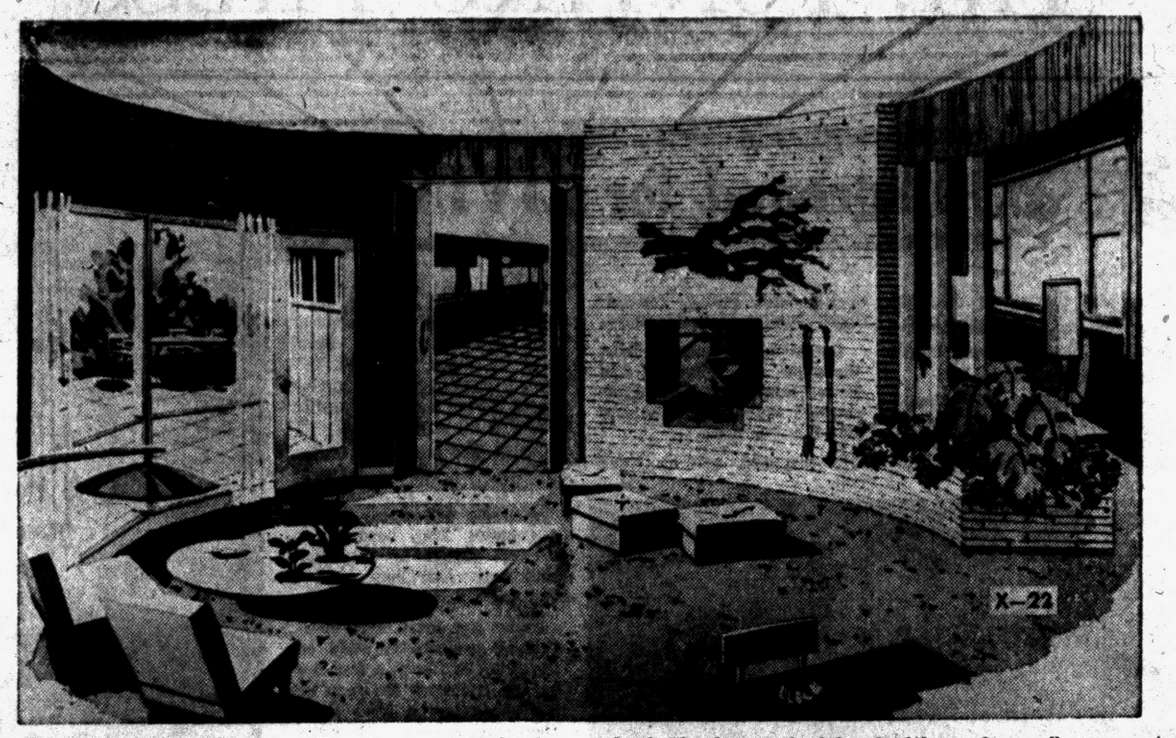

Prime With Aluminum

Woodwork that has been stained requires special treatment. Stain has a tendency to bleed through, so when painting woodwork to which a heavy wood stain has been applied, red mahogany, for instance, give it an all-over primer coat of aluminum paint. This will provide a seal that will prevent the stain from bleeding through into the finish coat.

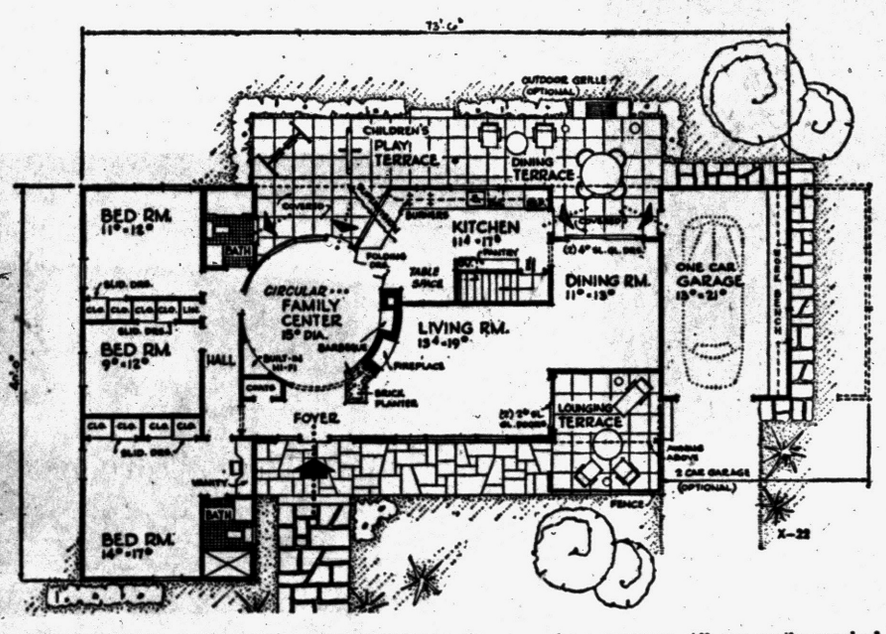

If you plan to put new wallpaper over old, coat the old paper with a thin layer of shellac first.

CIRCULAR FAMILY ROOM — Here is an artist's drawing of the circular family center. The brick planter marks the intersection of foyer and living room. The kitchen is seen directly ahead. The door at the left, edged by a glass wall, opens onto a rear terrace. The ceiling has translucent glass panels.

EFFICIENCY — This floor plan shows the efficient room arrangement achieved by the architect in House of the Week design X-22. Inside there is abundant living space. Outside, there are three terraces. All are easily reached from the inside. The exterior is vertical wood siding and brick veneer.

House Has Round Room for Family Roundups!

By JOHN O. B. WALLACE

Nearly half of all homes in the United States lack sufficient space for family activities, a recent nationwide survey shows. The deficiency is corrected dramatically in the "House of The Week" presented here.

A seven-room ranch designated X-22, it features a circular family center, 15 feet in diameter, which becomes an axis for the family's entire home life.

This ample room is located slightly off center within the perimeter of the house, only a step or two away from all major areas. Its curved contour is broken at the front by the entrance foyer.

And counter clockwise from the foyer, there are openings into the kitchen through folding doors, into a rear children's play terrace through a door edged by a glass wall, and into the center hall of the bedroom wing.

Created by Herman H. York, a New York architect who has received many national awards for residential designs, plan X-22 has many other features meriting attention.

THE LIVING AREA

This section includes the living room, 19 by 13 feet 4 inches, with a convex-shaped fireplace; an 11 by 13 foot dining room, the circular family center and three outdoor terraces—a front lounging terrace off the living room, a rear dining terrace off the dining room and kitchen, and a rear children's play terrace off the family center.

The living room opens into the front lounging terrace through sliding glass doors. The dining room has sliding glass doors which open onto the rear dining terrace. There is a door linking the kitchen and the dining terrace.

There are three bedrooms and two baths. The master bedroom is 14 by 17 feet 6 inches and has four separate closets, a private bath, and a built-in vanity adjacent to the bath.

TWO SMALLER BEDROOMS

The other two bedrooms, 9 by 12 feet and 11 by 12 feet, respectively, have two closets each. A center hall, reached from both the foyer and the family center, links all three bedrooms.

The hall bath has a second door opening to the children's play terrace. All bedroom closets have sliding doors. There is a large linen closet in the center hall.

The kitchen is 11 feet 4 inches by 17 feet 8 inches in size with a window for direct supervision of the children's play terrace. The kitchen has three openings, leading to the dining room, the dining terrace and the family center.

★ ★ ★

The kitchen, of course, has all modern appliances and conveniences. The basement stairs are at one end of the kitchen. The garage, reached directly from the kitchen across the covered portion of the rear dining terrace, has a work bench extending its full length. There are built-in cabinets at each end of the bench. There is a full basement. Laundry and heating facilities are located there.

SPECIAL FEATURES

Floor length picture windows overlook the children's play terrace from the family center. The rear gardens are set in an unusual curved wall structure. The brick wall which houses the family center barbecue unit also is curved.

Folding doors between the kitchen and the family center can be closed to isolate the family center when it is being used for teenage gatherings. The lounging terrace at the front is shielded from the street by a wooden fence.

EXTERIOR DETAILS

Vertical wood siding is used on all outside walls except for the foyer and living room walls; these are finished in brick veneer. Fluted glass panels flank the main entry door. The chimney is brick. White asphalt shingles are specified for the roof because they reflect summer heat away from the house.

Overall dimensions of design X-22 are 40 by 73 feet 6 inches. A 100 by 100 foot lot is recommended. The habitable area has 1,608 square feet. The garage has 297 square feet.

There are seven rooms — living, dining, kitchen, family center and three bedrooms — plus two baths and three terraces.

Even with the increased use of fire-resistant materials such as glass, asphalt shingles, non-flammable paints and gypsum board in the home, fire claimed the lives of 11,000 Americans in the U. S. during 1957.

New Washer Does Thinking for You Now

Did you know there are 33 detergents and many other washing aids on the market? Small wonder housewives become confused and ask: "Which detergent should I use?" and "am I using it correctly?"

Well, here's good news, girls—one automatic washer manufacturer has unraveled the mystery of the supermarket shelf and taken that "witches brew out of detergents"! How? By developing a washer which automatically adds the detergent, bleach or other washing aid at exactly the right time and without stopping the washing operation.

With the new washer, called the Dispensomat, all you need do is set the dials, load bins with detergents, fabric softeners, bluing, bleach, water conditioners for dispensing at a pre-selected time.

Another special feature is a "clock timer" that can be set to turn on your machine up to 10 hours later. Imagine filling your machine at bedtime, setting for an early morning washing, and having clothes ready for the dryer when you rise! You've never before seen such workfree clothes washing!

Special Strips Made for Plywood Edges

It now is possible to buy wood veneer strips made especially for covering plywood edges. These come in various colors and grains to match different kinds of wood. They are glued into place and do an excellent job of covering the edges of plywood.

However, do not overlook the possibility of leaving the plywood edges uncovered in certain types of projects. This might apply, for instance, in modern furniture, where staining the edges emphasizes the layers of wood and produces a decorative effect.

Before putting on the stain, sand the edges smooth and fill all holes with wood putty or platsic wood.

Wood Paneling Suits Any Room

Wide Variety of Woods in Several Widths Come From Far West

Knotty paneling from the western pine region nowadays is found in every room of the house in every type of decor ranging from the traditional periods to the contemporary and ultra-modern. Wood paneling offers the homeowner a chance to achieve a feeling of graciousness and warmth with an individual touch that was once only possible in costly homes.

Paneling and exposed wood ceilings fit in well with the attempt to give homes a big appearance while using small space. The wood also is suited to the emphasis on texture and color.

Because it is at home in any type of room, wood paneling is an ideal material for use in the combination rooms that are popular in today's home construction. It helps to achieve a sense of unity in a dining-living room, kitchen-family room, den-bedroom, and other areas where walls are eliminated.

For instance, a dining room is a functional type of area. It gets lots of wear and tear and soiling. It needs a material that will stand up well under this type of use.

At the same time, when exposed to the view of people sitting in the living room, a dining room must be pleasing to the eyes. Wood paneling would serve both areas well because it is a durable material and it can impart any atmosphere that the home-owner wants to achieve.

Among the more popular species used in paneling is ponderosa pine with its big, splashy knots. Idaho white pine has more subdued knots, and lodgepole pine tiny, wide-spaced knots. Ranging in between are the other species: Engelmann spruce, white fir, sugar pine, Douglas fir, larch, inland red cedar, and incense cedar.

The paneling comes in various widths—6, 8, 10 and 12 inches and occasionally narrower or wider. A formal installation would tend to use uniform widths. A more informal atmosphere is conveyed by use of random widths — usually three different widths put up catch-as-catch-can.

NEW CEILING TILE — Cracked, stained, or generally unsightly ceilings can now be made to look like new with the Trim-Quik ceiling tile designed for easy application with adhesive or staples. Made of Firestone Velon, the tile is washable, waterproof, and fire-resistant, and has acoustical qualities as well. It comes in a variety of three-dimensional designs, six tiles to a panel, in both white and colors. It is ideal for use in basement playrooms, attics, porches, bathrooms, and kitchens; and can be used over plaster, wallboard, or open-beam construction. Trim-Quik is made by Hallmark Plastics Corporation, 151 Division Street, South Hackensack, New Jersey. It is available at wall paper dealers from coast to coast.

Dovetail Jobs for Economy

★ ★ ★

She has learned through experience in preparing food, marketing, and cleaning house that the cardinal rule for efficiency is: make every step count and don't cover the same ground twice.

When this rule is applied to fixing up a house, it can mean getting more for money spent. Here's how it might work in an average home:

Suppose a family plans to reroof in a color to brighten the house and repaint in a harmonizing color. They'd like to install air conditioning and insulation, too, but feel they should wait a year or two.

What they have failed to realize is that all these improvements are closely related, and all can be done under a single, low-cost financial arrangement, such as an FHA Title I loan repayable over a five-year period.

The improvements are interrelated because a roofing contractor often installs insulation, and vice versa. If he's hired to do both jobs for a house, he may be able to offer a better price.

Air conditioning goes hand in hand with roofing and insulation, since a light-colored roof of asphalt shingles reflects heat and cuts the load of a cooling system, and thick mineral wool makes it possible to install smaller cooling equipment, cutting the price as much as half, and materially reducing cost of operation.

A further advantage — and possibly the most important of all — is that the entire family can start enjoying the added comfort and security of a better house right away.

Re-Do Your Linoleum

Give yourself a treat and have fun at the same time. If your linoleum is badly worn in spots or if you wish to change its coloring it's not difficult to apply new color. Use a base coat of floor enamel which is easily applied and dries quickly. By tapping on other enamel colors with stippling sponges, you can get an attractive marbleized effect that is very practical because it prevents footmarks from showing as they do on a plain colored floor.

About 83 per cent of all U. S. vacation trips are by automobile and the average is 978 miles.

Oak in Short Lengths

Oak flooring is now available in especially economical bundles called 1¼ Ft. Shorts. Ideal for closets and other small areas, the individual pieces in each bundle may range from 9 to 18 inches long, but they average 15 inches. They are produced in two grade classifications—No. 1 Common & Better, and No. 2 Common.

Water Cleans Brushes

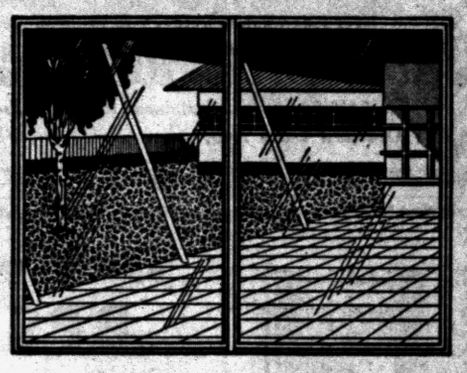

Water emulsion paints have more than one outstanding advantage. One is that after painting with latex paints the tools you use may be washed out in water. This is easy if you tackle the job at once. If the brushes are allowed to dry, cleaning will be difficult. In any case, warm water and soap will remove the paint eventually.

Gotta Have Two of 'Em

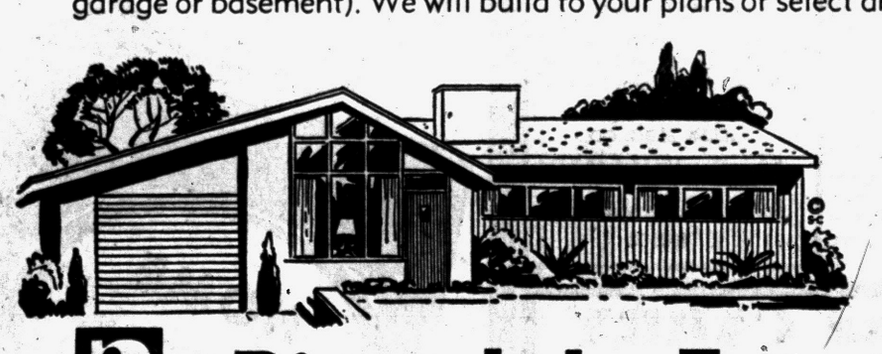

Remember that there is no such thing as an all-purpose screwdriver. One with a tip larger than the screw slot will damage the surface of the stock, while one with a tip smaller than the screw slot will damage the screw and the screwdriver.

newest means of paint application now being used in factories. It is used in finishing automobiles, ships, stoves, refrigerators, washing machines, and kindred items.

Heavier Wiring Required for New Lighting

Inadequate wiring is one of the biggest handicaps toward modern, indoor-outdoor living.

Most electrical codes specify a 60-ampere, three-wire service entrance into a house. That's the minimum. It's not enough power for a home designed for today's living.

The Adequate Wiring Bureau and the National Association of Home Builders recommend a 100-amp entrance. But you still may find yourself short of the extra current needed for outdoor lighting, air conditioning, and new, larger appliances.

To prepare for today and the future, a 200-ampere service entrance is recommended. With this reserve power available, your contractor can give your new house a first-class interior and exterior wiring system.

When you plan your home's wiring, be sure to investigate the new electrical developments. You may want to add low-voltage switching, with its remote-control feature. Variable light controls and silent or glow-in-dark switches are other wiring devices that can bring greater electrical convenience to your family.

About 31 per cent of U. S. farms are classified as non-commercial or as part-time farm operations.

LIVING MURAL — Not even the finest wall mural money can buy adds as much beauty to a room as the ever changing panorama of nature coming through a "picture wall" of windows, such as the one used so effectively in this home. The windows of ponderosa pine are combination units consisting of fixed sash in the upper portion, and hopper windows, which open for ventilation, in the lower portion. To achieve a feeling of greater space in the room, the windows were painted to match walls and ceiling. An interesting decorative note in the room is the effective blending of traditional pieces, such as the chandelier and table lamp, into the otherwise modern decor.

Storage Units Held Up by Air

A unique device to hold down rising costs of materials-warehousing is being used by a Canadian newsprint producer—an inflatable balloon-like "air house" which provides temporary storage facilities at one-tenth the cost of standard construction.

Employing an entirely new principle, the dome-shaped buildings are constructed of a series of plastic-coated nylon panels sewn together and given shape by a constant stream of low-pressure air from a blower.

Anchored to the ground by a sand- or water-filled tube of the same plastic, the air houses use no rigid metal or wood framework and are kept sufficiently rigid by the interior air flow to support the weight of two men. They maintain shape even when doors are opened to admit fork lift trucks.

The two units presently in use are 100 feet long and 40 feet wide, can be erected in four hours and moved to other locations at will.

Although presently being used for the storage of pulpwood chips, paper and bales of 'broke,' it is reported they could be adapted for the storage of newsprint, suggesting the possibility they might some day be used by publishers hard-pressed for storage space.

New Mirror Adds Beauty to Any Room

A new type mirror in the form of a sliding floor-to-ceiling door or wall can add beauty to any room in which there is a closet or storage area.

Called the Signet Mobile Mirror, it greatly multiplies apparent room height and depth. The mirrors come in two types. The pocket type is a single door which fits into a pocket in the wall. It is planned primarily for new construction.

The by-pass type has double doors and is planned for remodeling projects. However, it also is suitable for new construction.

Key features of the mirror are a sturdy hardboard back with air space between it and the mirror, an all-aluminum frame of standard door thickness with half an inch of silver, black or gold aluminum showing around the mirror.

This creates the effect of an architectural installation, and a carefully engineered ceiling track which permits the mirror to slide with fingertip pressure on nylon tires.

The mirrors cost only slightly more than ordinary hinge doors with mirrors installed. Average cost of the pocket type is $5 per square foot installed. By-pass doors average $7 per square foot installed.

When toenailing the bottom end of a stud to the base plate, first nail a small block of lumber to the plate to hold the stud in place and permit true nailing.

Handyman's Questions Answered

QUESTION: I'd like to do a complete refinishing job on some wrought iron railing outside our house. The iron is beginning to scale and there are small rust spots in several places.

ANSWER: Better not delay the refinishing any longer because those rust spots will spread. Remove as much of the old paint and rust as possible. If there are a lot of curves in the railowrk, you'll have to improvise to get at certain parts of the metal.

A toothbrush or a hacksaw blade, or both, can be used for brushing and scraping on the inside of curves. A wire brush is best for the more easily accessible places.

Be certain that all loose paint and rust are removed, then apply a coat of red lead or any other metal primer. Let it stand for a day, if possible, or at the least, 8 hours. Then paint with a good quality exterior metal paint.

QUESTION: Can rubber tiles be used on a bathroom wall? A neighbor has made this suggestion, but I thought rubber tiles were made only for floors.

ANSWER: Rubber tiles sometimes are used for walls as well as floors. Since they are waterproof, they can be used effectively in bathrooms. You do not say what the present bathroom walls are made of, but it is essential that the surface be absolutely smooth if the tiles are to look right. If necessary, you can attach wallbaord to the walls, then cement on the tiles.

Drive Out Wasps Before Cold Comes

Keep your eye peeled for wasps. With summer on the way out and cool air moving in, that's the time when the wasps move out of the garden and are likely to take up winter residence in your attic or walls.

A three-pronged attack is suggested. (1) Look for their nests around the exterior of the house while it is still summer and use an insecticide to kill them off; (2) plug up all possible entries around eaves, window frames or similar places, and (3) use an insecticide to kill those that do get in.

Ten Headaches to Avoid in Seeking House

Which are the 10 commonest mistakes to look for when planning or buying a home? In a survey published by a science monthly, architects throughout the United States came up with these "pet peeves:"

1. No room for expansion.
2. Poor room-to-room traffic patterns.
3. Too much hall space.
4. Inefficient kitchens.
6. No outside basement entrance.
7. Bedroom windows located wrong.
8. Outdoor living neglected.
9. Picture windows without views
10. Noisy sleeping areas.

Their recommendation: IF you're deciding among ready-built houses, consider which of these defects wil matter most to your family.

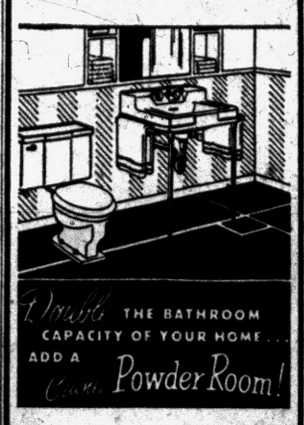

If you're building, hire a competent architect who specializes in your size of house (not gas stations or supermarkets). Or you can choose among hundreds of blueprints which some leading architects offer by mail for as little as $35.

Hardwood Is Best

Want a happy floor? Try a Northern hardwood floor with a fine close grain and uniform texture. The hardest species is the Maple (Acer saccharum). Beech and Birch grown in the North are the next hardest, according to laboratory tests. Floorings made from these woods are light-toned, resilient, sanitary, warm and dry.

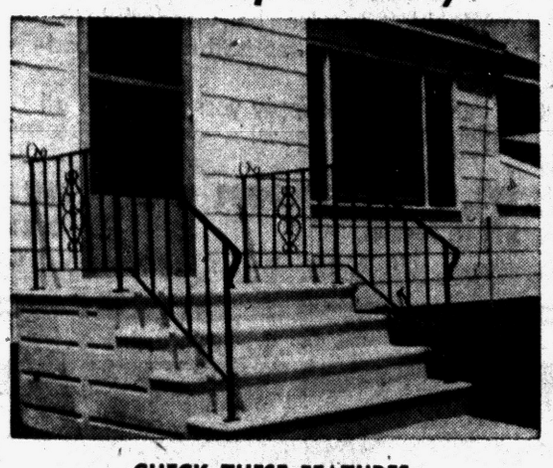

Enamel Is Special Paint

An enamel is sometimes described as "a special kind of paint which flows out to a smooth coat when applied and dries to a smooth relatively hard solid when exposed in a thin film to the air." An enamel always contains pigment and has considerable hiding power and color. Some enamels dry to a flat or eggshell finish instead of a gloss finish.

LOUVERS DRAMATIZE — Louver doors are being used more and more by interior decorators to bring dramatic texture into homes with both contemporary and traditional decor. Here's a particularly effective use of louver doors of ponderosa pine in a double doorway between dining and living rooms. The doors are hinged to fold in half when open, providing an interesting "frame" for the doorway. Closed, they add interest to both rooms. These are stock doors of ponderosa pine, available from building material dealers. Other stock louver doors are available in a wide range of styles and sizes.

Takes Team of Three to Build a House

It takes three to make a home a better place to live. It has nothing to do with marital affairs; it's simply a working combination of architect, builder and home owner. Each has a specific role to play in creating a good, sound, livable home. It takes teamwork.

The role of the owner is to specify to the architect exactly what he wants. This means more than just outlining the number of rooms and the site. It also can mean the specifics of construction such as the type and color of ceramic tile to be used in the baths and kitchen.

The architect, drawing on his skill, knowledge and experience, will act as adviser to the owner, in addition to drawing actual plans and supervising construction. Many times an architect can offer new ideas to improve the owner's basic plans.

It also is the function of the architect to supervise the general construction—one of the most important parts of his job—to make sure the owner is getting all he is paying for.

The third side of the triangle is the building contractor who brings to the project his skill and experience in construction. The contractor supplies the necessary skilled labor to carry out the plans of the architect. He'll figure the cost of the architect's plans, and put together the "sticks and stones" that make a home.

Well Cost Will Vary With Depth, Other Factors

How much will it cost to drill a well for the house you are planning to build "out in the country?"

That depends on a number of factors. If you get bids, the bids should then be compared on an equal basis, and you should be sure that the bidder you chose hasn't stinted on the quality of the job to give you a lower price.

Builders are advised to ask the prospective drilling contractor to itemize his estimate as follows:

Drilling - per foot
Casing per foot
Cost of other materials such as drive shoe, screen, seal, etc.
Cementing
Developing
Test pumping, etc.

The well-drilling contractor should be asked to specify the quality and grade of casing as well as other materials to be used.

A well of ample capacity and an adequate water system will not greatly increase the overall cost of the new home in the country. Yet it will add more to happy, comfortable living than any similar investment.

Tighten Saggy Seats

Sagging cane chair seats can be bolstered without professional assistance. First wash the cane seat with hot sudsy water. And then rinse, again with hot water. This tightens the cane. Don't sit down while the seat is still damp or it will stretch.

Paint Chemists Work on Color

Research, about which so much is being discussed today, is nothing new in the paint industry. Paint manufacturers often take six or seven years to determine whether a product has the required characteristics for its particular use.

The increased use of color in recent years has emphasized the need for improvement of color retention and gloss. After extensive research manufacturers found that an alkyd resin, in combination with vegetable oils, was one way to get the special properties needed.

For exterior paints, experiments are carried out under all types of conditions. On flat roof tops racks may be seen over the country. These panels with sample paints are exposed to rain and snow, heat and cold, fog and wind.

Records are carefully kept of the formula, the date the panels are placed on the racks, the exposures to which they have been subjected, and then a team of experts evaluate the results.

One of the aims of paint manufacturers is to give homeowners an exterior paint which will give longer life of freshness and brilliance. Such a paint would greatly lengthen the periods between necessary painting and would mean substantial savings to all who buy paint and apply it to the exterior of a house or other paintable structures.

In trials, entire houses have been painted in areas with a wide variation of climatic conditions so that the manufacturers, when they announce a new paint, know from actual trials just how their product will hold up.

And as other new products are made available to the paint industry, further improvements in the character and quality of paints may be expected.

Make Check of House Before Writing Check

★ ★ ★

With a personal check the home buyer can avoid built-in future headaches and make sure that he is receiving all he is paying for.

1. Be sure quality building materials have been used, such as ceramic tile in baths and kitchens, copper tubing for water lines, properly cured building blocks, quality lumber and adequate wiring for all types of electrical appliances.

2. If your prospective agreement entitles you to landscaping, assure yourself that the lawn is properly sodded and there are trees and shrubs that are appropriate for both the lot design and the climate.

3. Check the floors. Walk over them to be sure there are no cracks or weak areaas. It is desirable to have heavy traffic areas surfaced with a durable, easy-to-clean material such as ceramic or quarry tile.

4. Test run all plumbing equipment, the furnace—even in summer — dishwasher and other appliances, and be sure that the builder passes all of the warranties on to you.

5. Check all of the doors to make certain none are warped and that outside doors have been properly weatherstripped. The same check should be made with windows.

6. Check for loose mortar, brokl en bricks, damaged gutters or down-spouts; be sure that windows are properly caulked.

Light Colors Best to Use on Glass

Occasionally, someone wants to paint glass doors, windows or skylights for decorative purposes or to reduce the transmission of light or heat. Most oil or alkyd paints are suitable for use on glass.

The one thing to beware of, though, is the use of black or other dark colors which prevent the transmission of light by absorbing it rather than reflecting it.

Central Power Unit Simplifies Cleaning

Every house has to be vacuume-cleaned, and the worst part of the work has always been the lifting, lugging, tugging, or dragging a bulky machine from room to room. Now there's a new central built-in cleaning system, found in many homes around the country, that eliminates machines and electric cords, and lets m'lady clean her house simply by plugging a hose into room outlets.

The power unit is mounted permanently in the basement, garage or utility room. All the user handles is an easily stored, five-pound cleaning hose with a twenty-one foot radius.

Dirt is deposited in a container and fine dust is discharged outside the house, comparable to venting heating systems to the outside. Actually a dustless cleaning system, it removes unhealthy dust particles normally "blown around" by conventional cleaners.

After the wedding the couple flew to New York. Miss Seberg said they would remain there at least until Monday "and maybe longer—it all depends."

The uncertainty arises because Columbia Pictures may offer Jean a part in a movie to be filmed in Hollywood. The newlyweds had tentatively scheduled a European honeymoon, but postponed definite plans until they get an okay from Columbia.

South America has more than four billion coffee trees, many of which stem from a single plant smuggled across the Atlantic in 1723 by a French naval officer.

Both Faces Only on $1 Bill

Great Seal U.S. Emblem

WASHINGTON—The easiest way to get a good look at the Great Seal of the United States—a symbol that had its beginning July 4, 1776—is to turn over a dollar bill.

Both faces of the seal are reproduced on the back of every one of the billion and three hundred million bills in circulation. The $1 bill, in fact, is the only place where the seal's reverse face is used officially.

The seal's main or obverse face, showing a striped shield and a powerful eagle carrying an olive branch and arrows in its talons, often appears as a design. It is used on the buttons of soldiers' uniforms, on official stationery and publications, flags and monuments, and over the entrances of American embassies, consulates, and legations throughout the world.

Like the flag, the Great Seal is a revered emblem of United States dignity and sovereignty. It is older than the Constitution. The impression of the main face is affixed to some 6,000 official documents annually. Each must bear the President's signature and be countersigned by the Secretary of State.

The seal's history goes back to a hot day in Philadelphia. It was the Fourth of July, 1776. After three days of debate the Founding Fathers had just approved the Declaration of Independence, proclaiming the colonies an independent nation. The document was ready to be signed and delivered, but it could not be sealed—for the infant nation had none.

LEGAL IMPORTANCE

Six years passed before the United States got a seal and, in effect, its coat of arms. The Government was busy trying to win the Revolution. The seal problem went through three special committees, and was adopted on June 20, 1782.

Every feature has definite meaning. On the obverse, the upper part of the shield represents Congress. Stripes on the escutcheon or shield stand for the 13 original colonies. The olive branch in the eagle's right talon bears 13 leaves and 13 berries; there are 13 arrows in its left. These are symbols of peace and war, with peace being offered first.

The 13-star constellations over the eagle's head denotes a new nation taking its place among sovereign powers. The shield protecting the eagle is without supports to mean the States "ought to rely on their own virtues."

Originally the seal was that of Congress. In 1789, however, Congress declared it to be the United States seal and made the Secretary of State its custodian. The Great Seal is used on Presidential proclamations, treaties, full powers, exequaturs, and Presidential warrants; on commissions for Cabinet officers, heads of independent agencies, executive officers, ambassadors, ministers, and foreign service officers.

Pushes Legislation to Clean Up Labor

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Labor will be the loser if corrective legislation doesn't result from the Senate labor investigations, the Missouri State Labor Council was told yesterday.

William I. Schnitzler of Washington, national secretary-treasurer of the AFL-CIO, discussed abuses uncovered by the probe.

"We must have corrective legislation to make sure the abuses don't ever happen again," he said. "If we don't get the legislation only three or four years will go by before we have the same kind of exposures, only with different names in the headlines."

Fatally Injured in Crash

COLDWATER (AP) — Harold Baxter, 26, of Jackson was injured fatally Friday when his auto collided with a truck on M60, near the M78 intersection, in Branch County. The truck driver, Ronald Vold, 31, of Edmonton, Alberta, escaped injury.

Deaths Elsewhere

CHICAGO (AP)—The Rev. Cannon Bernard Iddlings Bell, 71, who authored several books and served as Episcopal church representative to Episcopalian students and faculty at the University of Chicago from 1946 to 1955, died Friday. He had served congregations in Wisconsin, New York City, Providence, R.I., and Chicago.

Plastic Kits Made to Help Blind 'See'

DENVER (UPI)—Plastic kits designed to help blind persons "see" are being manufactured by a Polish couple who have been in the U.S. little more than a year.

More than 100 of the kits are being used in school for the blind in France, Poland, Algeria and this country.

Mr. and Mrs. Maria Boniecki began the project seven years ago. They are both artists and they manufacture the kit and braille forms in the basement of their Denver apartment.

The kit includes a plastic slate, a ruler and 154 pieces of soft, flexible plastic in 26 different shapes. A blind person can create the illusion of any object by placing the different pieces on the slate.

Also included in the kit are 25 sheets of braille paper with 170 different designs stamped onto them.

Winning Tally by Chicago in Final Minutes

Casares Scores Twice as Windy City Pros Win 4th Exhibition

DALLAS (AP) — The Chicago Bears, led by Harlon Hill's great pass catching, scored in the final four minutes of play on a 62-yard pass play and defeated the Detroit Lions 24-17 in an exhibition game in the Cotton Bowl last night.

Hill took a pass from Zeke Bratkowski on the Chicago 49-yard line and raced to the Detroit five where he lateralled to John Damore, who ran to the Lions' two. Powerful Rick Casares went across for his second touchdown of the night in two plunges and gave the Lions their second pre-season game loss in four starts.

A crowd of 40,000 sat through intermittent rain to watch Hill and company lead the Lions until the third period when Detroit scored on a 52-yard pass play from Bobby Layne to Jim Doran for a 17-17 tie.

Jim Martin put Detroit in front with a 52-yard field goal in the first period. The Lions scored their first touchdown in the second period on a one-foot plunge by Tobin Rote but trailed the Bears at halftime after Chicago picked up two second-period touchdowns by Casares and Leroy Barnes.

George Blanda booted a 17-yard field goal in the third period. Blanda also made good on three point-after-touchdown attempts.

★ ★ ★

Last night's game was the first time the Lions played a Western division rival in pre-season competition. Counting regular season play, Chicago now holds a 31-16 edge in competition with Detroit. The teams have tied twice. The Bears are unbeaten in pre-season play with a 4-0 record.

Detroit	3	7	7	0—17

Detroit: TD, Rote (1 foot, plunge). Doran (52, pass from Layne). FG, Martin (53). PAT Layne 2.
Chicago: TD, Casares, 2 (1, plunge; 2, plunge), Barnes (34, intercepted pass). FG, Blanda (17). PAT (Blanda 3).

Witt Stifles Braves Again

By The Associated Press

The Milwaukee Braves may have run away with the National League pennant, but they're getting nowhere fast against rookie right-hander George Witt of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The champs have had two runins with the kid from Laguna Beach, Calif., and haven't scored a run off him yet.

Witt, 24, became the first to hang two shutouts on the Braves this season by beating Milwaukee 1-0 last night with a five-hitter and Bill Virdon's leadoff home run in the 10th inning.

Witt's only other work agaist the Braves was a two-hit, 10-0 shutout August 12—giving him a string of 19 scoreless innings against the champs in which he has struck out nine and walked but eight. The big power men in the Braves' batting order—Hank Aaron, Ed Mathews, Joe Adcock and Wes Covington—have had just two hits among them in 20 at bats against him.

By out-scrapping Carl Willey, who had blanked the Bucs on four hits last Sunday, Witt hoisted the Bucs back into a second-place tie with San Francisco, 8½ games behind the Braves. The Giants were idled by rain at Chicago.

Cincinnati rapped Philadelphia 8-4, and Los Angeles, held to three hits, defeated St. Louis 2-1 in the other NL games.

This was the third shutout for Witt (8-2), who also has figured in another and has the Cardinals blanked 2-0 over five innings in a suspended game that is still hanging.

Pitching for the first time in nine days because of an inflamed elbow, Witt had only one tight squeeze while dropping his earned run average to a neat 1.65 for 93 innings. That was in the seventh inning, when with two out Del Crandall walked and stole second. Billy Burton got an intentional pass and Witt then struck out Willey.

Witt walked four and struck out three, fanning Willey for all of them. Willey (9-5), who gave seven hits and walked four but left nine on base, struck out five, whiffing Witt four times.

The Dodgers got all their hits in the second inning off loser Wilmer "Vinegar Bend" Mizell. Steve Bilko singled, Don Zimmer got a pop fly double and Charlie Neal then singled them across. Fred Kipp (6-4) won it with relief help, giving up the run in the second on three of the Cards' seven hits and an infield out.

★ ★ ★

Jerry Lynch and Gus Bell each drove in three runs for the Reds, with Bell's two-on triple capping a five-run sixth. Don Newcombe (6-11) won his fourth in a row, giving up nine of the Phils' dozen hits and beating Robin Roberts (14-13) for the secod time in five days with Brooks Lawrence's relief help. Harry Anderson hit his 20th home run, with a man on, for the Phils.

Brewer Leads Red Sox Drive for 2nd Place

By The Associated Press

Tom Brewer, one of the pitchers Boston hoped would provide a chance at the American League pennant, finally has come around to perk up the Red Sox' closing shot for second place.

The lean right - hander, just turned 27, didn't get started until after the All-Star Game, when the Red Sox were already a dozen games behind first - place New York. After winning 35 games in 1956,57, Brewer had won only three of 10 decisions for the first three months of the season.

Now, with the Sox running only a game and a half behind second-place Chicago, Brewer has won six straight and seven of his last eight decisions. Only teammate Ike Delock who won 10 in a row, and Yankees Bob Turley and Whitey Ford, each of whom won seven straight, have had longer success strings this year in the majors.

Washington blew a 3-0 lead, but beat the Yankees 6-3, the White Sox got past Cleveland 4-3 and Detroit rapped Kansas City 4-1 in the other AL games.

Bob Nieman and Bob Boyd split Baltimore's hits off Brewer, who had a two-hit shutout for seven innings. The Red Sox socked 14 hits while beating Jack Harshman (11-12), with Bill Renna, a .167 hitter, doubling twice for four runs. Pete Runnels, who regained the AL batting lead at .324, drove in three runs with a double and a single. Dick Gernert had three singles and a double.

★ ★ ★

The Senators made it when Yankee relief ace Ryne Duren, now 6-4, walked in three runs with two out in the ninth. Roy Sievers' 35th home run and Ablie Pearson's third, a two-run shot, gave the Nats their early lead against 20-game winner Bob Turley. But Russ Kemmerer, who had a no-hitter for five innings, was chased in the eighth, when the Yanks scored two for a tie. Dick Hyde (10-3) was the relief winner.

★ ★ ★

A pinch, two - run double by Sherm Lollar and a winning single by Jim Landis brought the White Sox from behind in the seventh inning against losing reliever Herb Score (2-3). Early Wynn (13-13) was the winner for a 4-0 record against his old mates. Larry Doby drove in all three Tribe runs with his 12th home run and a single. Al Smith hit his 10th home run for an early White Sox lead.

U.S. Amateur Starts Monday

Five Michigan golfers, four of them from Oakland County, are among 200 talented shotmakers who will open fire Monday in the 58th United States Amateur Golf Championship at San Francisco's Olympic Country Club.

Veterans Chuck Kocsis of Royal Oak and Tom Draper of Birmingham and a pair of Birmingham youngsters, Richard Weyand and Ray Lovell, are the four hopefuls from this area. The 5th state player is Tony Lopucki of Romulus.

Dr. Wendall R. Aldrich, the golfing dentist from Angola, Ind., who captured medal honors on Aug. 26 in 36-hole qualifying rounds at Pine Lake CC, completes the six-man sectional delegation to the west coast.

That's the layout where virtually unknown Jack Fleck, now head pro at Rochester CC, pulled off one of golf's biggest upsets by defeating the great Ben Hogan in an 18-hole playoff to win the 1955 National Open title.

For this edition of the U.S. amature, the Olympic course plays a par of 35-45—70 over 6,680 yards. Rolling hills lined by cypress and other trees invite trouble to the errant tee shot.

It opens with a 530-yard par five and ends with a dramatic 18th hole on which the golfer drives blind to the bottom of a hill and then pitches to the green. The distance is only 337 yards but the green is well trapped atop a plateau.

Par shooters will be the exception in this tourney. In the 1955 Open, when the links measured 7,000 yards, Hogan and Fleck tied with 287 for 72 holes, seven strokes over par.

Leading those who had to qualify was Jerry Pittman, a Southern Methodist graduate and former National Caddie champ from Tulsa.

Pittman, who plans to enter the Army after this tournament, shot a seven-under-par 135 at Tulsa's Southern Hills Country Club, scene of this year's Open. In Phoenix, 14-year-old George Boutell made the grade with 144.

Twenty-four amateurs, including members of the U.S Canadian and Mexican America's Cup teams, where exempt from the qualifiers that had 1,477 entries.

Kocsis, who went to the 1956 finals before bowing to Ward, passed qualifying trials for the 13th time. It was the 15th success for Draper, the 5th for Aldrich, the 2nd for Lovell and the 1st for both Weyand and Lopucki

Scheduling calls for single 18-hole matches on Monday and Tuesday, two 18-hole matches on Wednesday and Thursday, semifinals at 36 holes on Friday and the championship final at 36 holes on Saturday.

40 Car Field at State Fair

Detroit's 1950 auto racing season will reach its climax Sunday when a field of 40 new stock cars gets the green flag for a 250-mile battle which will feature the final day's program at the Michigan State Fair.

Qualifying trials at the Fair Grounds will start at 12:30 for the 60 entries, and the 40 cars posting the fastest marks will face the starter at 2:30 to vie for the $7,500 at stake in the "250."

Over a span of the last nine years, this annual State Fair racing attraction has drawn an average attendance of 15,700 and the list of winners includes such nationally famous "name" chauffeurs as Tony Bettenhausen, Paul Russo, Henry Banks, Troy Ruttman and Johnny Parsons.

Parsons, who copped top money in the comparable event a year ago, is expected to return Sunday and must be classed as one of the favorites for the winner's purse of $2,000.

All American Netters Out of National Championship

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (UPI) — Three Australians, led by defending champion Mal Anderson, and one strapping Swede fight it out today in the first semi-final round of the U.S. Tennis championships without an American player since the tournament was inaugurated in 1881.

The slashing, black-haired Anderson was paired against the lone Swede—big Ulf Schmidt—in one semi - final while Australia's Wimbledon champion Ashley Cooper battles his Davis Cup teammate, Neale Fraser, in the other.

Anderson and Schmidt completed this disaster to America's already battered court prestige by ousting the last two Americans yesterday with the loss of only one set.

Anderson applied the cincher as darkness settled by overpowering Dick Savitt of South Orange, N.J., 18-16, 6-1, 3-6, 6-3, in battle of "bombers" lasting two hours and 27 minutes. Schmidt earlier bumped Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., 7-5, 8-6, 8-6.

Flam had plenty of agility but his shots weren't hard enough. Savitt belabored every ball he could reach with blazing power but he was too slow to reach the ones that counted.

By contrast, the women's semi-final was All - American, though even that contained a couple of surprises.

In the upper-bracket semi, defending champ Althea Gibson of New York meets her old nemesis, Mrs. Beverly Baker Fleitz of Santa Monica, Calif., who is 3-0 with Althea in previous matches. The other pairs two unseeded upsetters—Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., and Jeanne Arth, 23-year-old St. Paul school teacher — who teamed to win the U. S. doubles crown recently.

Miss Gibson gained her position by erasing a Wightman Cup defeat against Britain's 17-year-old Christine Truman, 11-9, 6-1. Mrs. Fleitz, who hits with equal power with either hand, knocked out Maria Bueno of Brazil, 6-1, 6-2.

Indianwood Tourney in 2nd Round

Kocsis-Wilt Golf Duo Hot

By BILL CORNWELL

"We ran into a buzz-saw."

That was the only comment by Leo Daigle after he and partner Andy Purdo tangled with Sam Kocsis and Fred Wilt yesterday in the opening match play round of the Indianwood Invitational Best-Ball golf tournament.

Leo never made a truer statement in his life.

Daigle and Purdo, both Indianwood members, birdied two of the first four holes, yet found themselves 2 down. This discouraging turn of events, coupled with the scorching play of Kocsis and Wilt, put them on the sidelines in a hurry.

They birdied the 7th, 8th and 9th holes to go 6 up at the turn, then closed out the match with a birdie four on the 12th green. Kocsis and Wilt took just 28 strokes on the front nine, seven under par, and ended the match with a total of eight birdies.

Dick Robertson and Dick DeWitt, both from Pontiac, moved into today's 2nd round with a 3-2 victory over Bill Pettibone of Red Run and Rochester's Pete Schubeck.

The DeWitt-Robertson tandem was 3 up at the turn. They bowed to a birdie deuce on the 13th, the lone hole they lost, but DeWitt birdied No. 15 and they halved the 16th to end the match. They were three below par at the finish.

Detroit District champion Bud Stevens and Don Mead, Thursday's qualifying medalists, eliminated Perry Byard and Ron Stelter in a nip-and-tuck duel, 2-1. Even after 14 holes, Stevens took charge with birdies on Nos. 15 and 16, then they halved the 17th and it was all over.

Owen Davis and Chet Bower pulled the biggest surprise yesterday by upsetting Ralph Ellstrom and Lou Wendrow, 1 up. Davis and Bower won the 10th and 11th to go 2 up, lost the 12th, then halved the remaining holes to preserve their lead.

Four quarter-final matches are scheduled today over the par 35-37—72 Indianwood course, followed by the semis and finals on Sunday. All matches are set for 18 holes.

Friday's First Round Results

Today's Second Round Pairings

Mead and Stevens vs. Patrick and Erdelon; Kocsis and Wilt vs. Henkel and Wilson; Robertson and DeWitt vs. Zinn and Anderson; Davis and Bower vs. Waite and Reynolds.

Exhibition Sunday

Crane Booters to Play

Cranbrook's soccer team under coach Julius Corrubia will play an exhibition match Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock against an alumni team which will be made up of a squad of current and former college stars.

The Cranes have captain Pete King of Dayton, Ohio, and Larry DeWitt of Bloomfield Hills returning to the squad.

The alumni will have such ex-Cranes as Shaw Emmons of Denison, Leo Butzel of Cornell, Al Butzel, John Himmelhoch and Sig Snyder of Harvard, Bruce McCall of Yale, Bob Isbell of Princeton, Phil Angel of Colby, Fred Woodworth of Amherst and Jim Maas of Williams.

A week from Sunday a team made up of 16 foreign exchange students will meet the Cranes in an exhibition game.

9-Year-Old Boy True Sportsman Prior to Shot

ROSWELL, N. M. (AP)—Nine-year-old Jimmy Fay was the proud possessor of a trophy Friday even though he didn't play in the New Mexico State Amateur Golf Tournament.

The youngster, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fay of Roswell, received the award from the state golf association for outstanding sportsmanship.

When runner-up Chris Blocker was about to make a chip shot on the 17th hole of the final, Jimmy was one of the galleryites. He felt a wasp crawl down the back of his shirt. It stung him three times.

Jimmy bit his lip to keep from crying but did not move a muscle until Blocker had made his shot

More Than 60 to Aim for Barnum's Crown, Sunday, at Midland

MIDLAND — A field of more than 60 of the state's finest professional golfers will tee off Sunday in the annual Michigan PGA Championship tournament at Midland Country Club.

Long-hitting John Barnum of the Blythfield Club in Grand Rapids is the defending champion but he will have plenty of strong opposition in his bid to make it two in a row.

Included in the field are Wally Burkemo and Chick Harbert, the most successful of the state's tourists, and Mike Dietz, Ben Lula, Tom Talkington, Eldon Briggs and a flock of other shotmakers capable of taking the prize.

The tournament is a one-day, 36-hole event. The host pro, Cliff Good, said the Midland course is in excellent shape.

Wants Shot at Sugar's Title

Basilio Blasts Aragon

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"Sure I wanna fight Sugar Ray Robinson again—but only if the money is right," said tough little Carmen Basilio after pounding dapper Art Aragon into a bloody, reeling derelict in eight savage rounds.

★ ★ ★

"I can fight either Robinson or Virgil Akins, but Robinson has to fight me," said Basilio, who knocked Aragon loose from everything but his celebrated sense of humor last night.

"Is this guy Basilio really a welterweight?" asked the badly cut Golden Boy in mock disbelief as he sat in his dressing room, sipping beer.

Aragon showed the Wrigley Field crowd of 22,500 and a national television audience he had plenty of heart but not the guns to stop the relentlessly punching ex-Marine from Chittenango, N.Y.

The gross gate of $236,521.10 set a California record.

★ ★ ★

Small Crowd Watches Tigers Win

Foytack Gains Victory Over Athletics, 4-1

Attendance Still Under One-Million as Only 1,883 See Game

DETROIT (AP) — Now the Detroit Tigers and their fans have "togetherness."

In the comparative privacy of Briggs Stadium yesterday the Tigers and the Kansas City Athletics played a rather secret baseball game. The final score was Detroit 4, Kansas City 1, and the decision over the rather helpless Athletics elevated the Detroit club to within one game of the .500 mark.

Witnessing the contest that was distinguished only by Paul Foytack's pitching were 1,883 of the faithful. It was the smallest Briggs Stadium turnout in at least two seasons and the drab part of it all is that the attendance may dip even lower before the 1958 season is over.

So the Tigers are still under the .500 mark in the won-lost column, and still looking for their millionth home fan. They still need 1,995 to reach the million mark for the 13th time in 14 seasons.

It was likely they would reach that mark today when Herb Moford, who pitched a two-hitter Tuesday against these same Athletics, opposes Bob Grim.

In yesterday's session, which had a studio-like atmosphere about it, Foytack hiked his record to 12-11 by restricting the A's to five singles. In the fifth they put two of them together with a walk and a sacrifice fly for their only run.

It was modest support, however, for ex-Tiger Ned Garver and Jack Urban allowed the Tigers only seven safeties. Garver overcame a shaky start and finally pitched well, but too late.

The Tigers reached him for three runs in the opening frame. Al Kaline, who sent his average a few points over the .300 mark with 2-for-4, hit his 14th home run to start it. Gail Harris singled and Charlie Maxwell walked before Frank Bolling lined his 24th double of the season to the left field wall. It scored both runners.

Urban was charged with the other Detroit run. Garver, who pitched two-hit ball from the second through the sixth inning, left for a pinch hitter. Kaline's single, a walk and Maxwell's single produced a run off Urban in the eighth.

Foytack struck out eight batters and walked three.

Wings Open Training

DETROIT — For the first time in 11 years, it's goodbye to the Upper Peninsula as the Detroit Red Wings begin training Monday morning for the 1958-1959 National Hockey League season.

This year the Detroit Hockey Club will go into training here at Olympia Stadium, saying farewell to Sault Ste. Marie in favor of home ice.

Sixty-seven players — 37 professionals and 30 amateurs — will report at Olympia on Monday when camp officially opens. Once again, the Wings will be the first NHL team to start training.

HE'S BACK — St. Frederick High School is looking ahead to a fine season as a top contender in the Suburban Catholic League and one of the reasons is the return of one of the county's high scorers last year, Jack Lyon, chunky 155 pound fullback. The Rams are working out daily like most other area grid teams.

Hockey fans are welcome to watch the workouts, which will be held in three two-hour shifts starting at 8:15 a.m.

The first squad, under the direction of Red Wing coach Sid Abel, will work from 8:15 to 10:15. The second group, headed by Edmonton coach Tony Leswick, follows from 10:30 to 12:30. Jimmy Skinner, scout and former coach, directs the third group from 12:45 to 2:45.

Detroit's camp will continue for 18 straight days through Sept. 25 when the Detroit and Edmonton clubs leave for a week-long six-game exhibition tour through western Canada.

The Redshirts will play one exhibition game during their training grind, a contest with the Cleveland Barons of the American Hockey League on Sept. 20 at St. Thomas, Ontario.

Newcomers to the Detroit squad are sure to win at least five places on the 18-man team that begins Montreal. Thirteen players remain from last season's team that finished in 3rd place with a 29-29-12 record.

The holdovers are goalie Terry Sawchuk; defensemen Warren Godfrey, Peter Goegan, Red Kelly and Marcel Pronovost; centers Alex Delvecchio, Forbes Kennedy and Norm Ullman; right wings Captain Gordie Howe and Billy McNeill, and left wings Jack McIntyre, Nick Mickoski and John Wilson.

General manager Jack Adams has hinted that the turnover in Red Wing personnel may be even greater. "Right now, I'd say that only five players can call their jobs safe," Adams said.

Eight new Redshirts stand out. One is Gus Mortson, rugged veteran of a dozen years as an NHL defenseman who was obtained this week from the Chicago Black Hawks in a trade for players to be named later.

The other top prospects are Len Lunde, Gerry Melnyk, Duncan Fisher, Gerry Ehman, Jack Hendrickson, Frank Roggeveen and Claude Laforge, who was purchased from the Montreal Canadiens.

Sophs in Wolverine Lineup

All Grid Camps Scrimmage Today

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — —Two sophomores were expected to be in the first team lineup today when coach Bennie Oosterbaan sends his Michigan Wolverines through a full, game - type scrimmage in Michigan Staduim.

All-state end John Halstead, filling in for the injured Gary Prahst, and tackle Don Deskins were the second-year men who earned the shots on standout performances in spring drills and practice this week.

Halstead, from Bay City, stands 6 feet, 2 inches and weighs 205 pounds. Deskins, the ex-marine, also is 6 feet, 2 inches but weighs in at 235 pounds.

EAST LANSING (UPI) — Michigan State's first and second teams will get their first tastes of contact work on a team basis today after Coach Duffy Daugherty yesterday sent the third, fourth and fifth teams through scrimmage sessions on a team basis.

Daugherty avoided contact work all week for the first two teams.

The third, fourth and fifth units, consisting mainly of sophomores, had "hitting" sessions both in the morning and afternoon drills.

BRIGHTON (UPI) — Wolloped by a 42-0 score Wednesday, the University of Detroit's "white" team came back to upset the first stringers yesterday, 12-6, on the passing arm of the smallest player in camp.

Quarterback Tony Hanley, a sophomore from Palo Alto, Calif., clicked on touchdown passes of 10 and 50 yards to sophomore end Bill Kennedy of Pontiac and junior halfback Ray Davis. Hanley, who stands 5 feet, 10 inches and weighs 150 pounds, completed six of six passes for 112 yards.

Federal Agents Break Operation

17 Michigan Hunters in Duck Raid Arrest

DETROIT (AP) — Seventeen Michigan duck hunters faced arraignment today on charges of illegal killing and selling of wild ducks.

Federal agents arrested the hunters, all residents of the Harsens Island area of Lake St. Clair, yesterday. They were among 95 persons taken into custody by federal agents in a series of raids in Michigan, Wisconsin and Illinois.

The U.S. attorney general's office said the raids broke up an operation that netted a possible $200,000

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON—So you'd like to go to Europe for a couple of weeks? Then better you should swim across, if you want to save time nowadays.

Your exhausted correspondent, after long and intimate acquaintanceship with filthy air terminals, forced landings and broken down engines, is about ready to give sky travel back to the birds.

Three short months ago, in this space, I recounted some of the tortures and harassments endured during an overnight train ride to Ohio and the return trip by plane.

A little more of such "public be damned" attitude, I concluded, and Americans would become a race of stay-at-homes.

So, thoroughly disgusted with the low state to which domestic carriers had descended, I booked air passage with my husband and mother on a foreign line to Europe.

Mother, a Victorian lady with timid doubts about flying the Atlantic, was firmly reassured. I had made some 25 transoceanic flights since World War II, I reminded her, and we'd be in Germany before a train could make the run from Washington to her Indianapolis home. That's what I thought.

On the appointed day, we flew to LaGuardia Airport in New York and—marveling at modern progress—checked in for the helicopter ride across Long Island to Idlewild International Airport. There our woes began.

★ ★ ★

Instead of stepping smartly into a helicopter poised as briefly as a hummingbird for soft flutter above the rooftops, we and our luggage were loaded into a steaming bus where we sat for 20 unbearable minutes before chugging across the field to the equally stifling whirlybird.

★ ★ ★

At Idlewild, we again piled into a rolling bus which made three interminable stops before depositing us and our luggage at the airport check-in office.

But this was still domestic travel, I mused. Now for the modern miracle of transatlantic flight. We presented our tickets for the 4 p.m. takeoff.

"Sorry," the clerk murmured. "That plane has developed engine trouble and will not leave until 10 a.m. tomorrow. We've booked you rooms at a nearby hotel for the night."

A hasty check with competing airlines disclosed that they were not only filled to capacity, but actually over-sold. There was nothing to do but lose a day of our precious vacation.

The next morning, up early and back at Idlewild, we learned that departure time was again postponed until 2 p.m. At 2:30 p.m. we finally boarded the plane and taxied down the runway.

Then we taxied back to the terminal and unloaded.

Seems that the sparkplugs needed changing. At long last, only 24 hours late, we soared out over the Atlantic for an otherwise uneventful crossing.

For two glorious weeks, in a rented Opel, we toured Northern Europe and the Alps. Then we returned to the Frankfort terminal, weighed in and boarded a huge American plane for the non-stop flight to New York.

Non-stop indeed, we had no sooner become airborne than the loudspeaker announced that we would have to stop at Shannon for an hour or so. No one bothered to enlighten us as to the reason.

Along about 3 a.m., we sleepily piled back into the plane at Shannon for the remainder of our non-stop flight. Then, just as dawn began to puncture our fitful dreams, the loudspeaker sprang into action.

Please be calm, it lulled, but one of the motors had conked out and been feathered. As soon as we could lose sufficient altitude to dump our explosive fuel, we would try for an emergency landing at Gander, Newfoundland.

The plane descended rapidly, the gasoline sprayed into the watery deep, and we landed smoothly without need of the fire engines swarming onto the field.

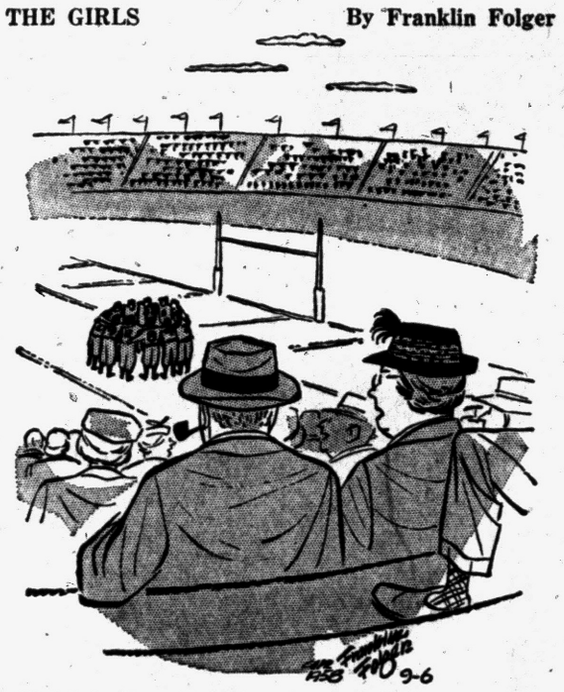

For twelve nightmarish hours, the weary passengers lounged around the dirty, dull, uncomfortable Gander Airport—or stretched out on cots in a nearby barracks—until a relief plane could arrive from New York.

Like sleepwalkers, we then fumbled our way to the new seats which boasted soiled pillows, overflowing ashtrays, incredibly filthy washrooms and no paper or soap.

Travel? We want to try it again sometime, after the covered wagon has come back to stay.

State Correction Week Decided

Sept. 7-11 Set Aside to Honor Prison, Parole, Probation Personnel

Next week has been proclaimed Corrections Week in Michigan by Gov. G. Mennen Williams in honor of the 88th annual Congress of the American Correctional Assn. which meets in Detroit starting Sunday for five days.

The association is made up of persons working in the corrections field including prison, probation and parole personnel.

In his proclamation, Gov. Williams pointed out that state correctional programs, such as Michigan's, are designed to achieve two basic objectives. They should offer guidance, encouragement and assistance to prison inmates and should protect the community from further criminal acts.

Host to the congress is the Michigan Committee headed jointly by E. C. Brooks and Gus Harrison of the Michigan Dept. of Corrections.

They said that association members are working to help prisoners acquire healthy attitudes and a sense of personal responsibility. The development of these traits, the two said, is a major objective of the Michigan Dept. of Corrections.

Britain Studies Plans for Windowless Airliner

LONDON (AP)—Britain is studying plans for an airliner that would have no windows because of the tremendous heat and pressure generated by its projected 2,000-mile-an-hour speed.

The designers, Britol-Siddeley Engines, say the plane could be flying in 10 years and carry 150 passengers between London and New York in two hours.

Go Easy on Sales Predictions

Auto Makers Cautious

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT (AP)—The auto makers are counting on a comeback in 1959, but they are cautious in sales predictions.

Most widely used sales estimate now is 5½ million U. S.-built cars, plus up to 400,000 imported units. The imports would be chiefly smaller, low-priced cars.

Emphasizing the cautious approach to the year ahead, the estimated sales total would be below the 1956 and 1957 volume. But it would be up about a million units from indicated 1958 deliveries.

No industry authority has questioned very seriously the estimate that imported car sales next year will approximate 400,000 units. A 1958 total of about 300,000 appears certain.

Leading auto manufacturers are not yet convinced U. S. production of a smaller car would be profitable. Nevertheless they are going ahead with plans to put smaller units into production.

Present planning calls for General Motors, Ford and Chrysler to offer smaller cars for 1960.

General Motors and Ford have the preliminary work incident to such production well advanced. Chrysler continues to say it is still studying the smaller car potential. Its studies have included the possibility of domestic production of such a vehicle.

One interesting thing about the smaller car planning of General Motors, Ford and Chrysler is that when their vehicles appear they probably will not be more than a few inches shorter than their present smallest conventional style car.

Another factor is that the price probably will be only slightly lower than their present lowest price units.

Whether this answers the competitive problems presented by the fast-selling small European cars is yet to be determined. Many industry analysts say lower price and economy of operation are the major considerations that have boosted imported car sales while the American car market generally has declined.

Some of the same analysts accept the estimates of 5½ million new U. S. car sales next year as conservative. They are not talking about a boom in sales next year, but they say this year's indicated total hardly equalled replacement and normal growth demand.

This year's decline, obviously, piled up some deferred demand. That happens in every year of lagging sales.

Many of the industry's top executives figure normal annual demand for automobiles now approximates six million units. Some of the experts agree it will go higher—possibly to 7½ to 8 million units within the next six or eight years.

All the estimates take into account normal replacement of scrapped vehicles as well as normal population growth and the increase in multiple car families.

REV. E. JOHN YUELLS

Pastor Resigns at Rochester

Rev. Yeulls to Leave 1st Congregational for Church in Rhode Island

ROCHESTER — The Rev. E. John Yuells, minister of the First Congregational Church of Rochester for the past eight years, has resigned, effective Nov. 15, to accept a call to the Woodbridge Congregational Church in Cranston, R. I.

★ ★ ★

During his time here, the church has established an expansion fund, which has resulted in construction of a new parsonage and progress toward the building of a new church. The number of families served in the parish has increased from 240 to 460, and church membership has grown to 664.

★ ★ ★

The Prudential Committee has accepted the resignation with regret, and will present it to the membership at a special meeting following the Sunday worship service.

2 Adults, 2 Children Hurt in Auto Crash

ARMADA—Two adults and two children from Warren are in St Joseph Hospital, Mt. Clemens, today with injuries they received early last night when their car skidded into a ditch and overturned on North avenue near Pratt road in Armada Township.

Injured were driver William Leigh, 48, who received cuts and bruises; his wife, Alida, 44, who had a fractured pelvis, bruised head and hand; their son, Ronald, 10, with chest injuries and a passenger in the Leigh car, Roger McKay, 10, suffered head, chest and neck injuries.

Romeo State Police said Leigh was attempting to pass a truck when he lost control of the car and it skidded 264 feet before overturning.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Explaining Changes in Social Security

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third in a series of nine columns explaining the changes just voted by Congress in the Social Security program.)

By RAY HENRY

People retired before that date can collect up to $116 a month. Those retiring after Jan. 1, 1959, can get more, depending on what year they retire in, until finally those retiring in 1998 can get a maximum of $127.

The maximum payments go up fairly rapidly until 1966, when it will be possible to get as much as $124. But, it will take 33 years to go up only $3—to $127.

Here's a simple five-step formula you can us to figure out approximately what your payments will be if you reach 65 and retire after Jan. 1, 1959:

1. Get together a record of the earnings on which you paid Social Security tax between Jan. 1, 1951 and Jan. 1, 1959. (Since 1958 isn't over, you may have to make an estimate of the earnings on which you paid tax this year.)

Then, estimate on how much earnings you expect to pay the tax in the years after Jan. 1, 1959 until you retire at 65.

Remember, before going further, that people have had to pay a Social Security tax on only a limited amount of earnings, although the amount has gone up over the years.

For the years 1951 through 1954 you had to pay tax only on earnings up to $3,600, for the years 1955 until the end of 1958 it will have been $4,200. And, after Jan. 1, 1959, it will be $4,800.

(For example: Suppose you plan to retire at 65 on Jan. 1, 1961, and you had the maximum earnings for Social Security purposes from Jan. 1, 1951 to Jan. 1, 1961. Your Social Security earnings record would look like this: 1951—$3,600; 1952—$3,600; 1953—$3,600; 1954—$3,600; 1955—$4,200; 1956—$4,200; 1957—$4,200; 1958—$4,200; 1959—4,800; 1960—$4,800.

2. Now, cross off of your record of earnings the five years in which your taxable earnings were lowest, or in which you had no earnings.

(Using the example above, you should cross off the four years in which you had earning of $3,600—1951 through 1954—and one year in which you had $4,200. This leaves you with three years in which you had $4,200 in earnings and two years in which you had earnings of $4,800.)

3. Add the total of your taxable earnings for the years which remained after you crossed off your years of low earnings.

(Since your earnings, in the example, were three years at $4,200 and two years at $4,800, your total earnings for the five years is $22,000.)

4 Divide your total earnings by the total number of months in the years you used to get your total earnings.

(Since the total months in the five years you've used in figuring your total Social Security earnings is 60, you divide the total earnings—$22,000—by 60. The figue is $370. This is your average monthly earnings.)

5. Now look down the left hand column of the chart below until you find the figure closest to your average monthly earnings. The second column shows approximately what your monthly Social Security payments will be. The third column shows what you, as a retired worker, and your wime may receive together if your wife starts collecting payments after reaching 65.

(In our example, your average monthly earnings were $370. According to the chart below your monthly payments would be $120 a month. You and your wife could collect a total of $180, since she'll get half of what you get.

Average Monthly Earnings	Your Payments	Your Payments With Wife 65
$ 50	$ 33	$ 49.50
100	59	88.50
150	73	109.50
200	84	126.00
250	95	142.50
275	100	150.00
300	105	157.50
325	111	166.50
350	116	174.00
370	120	180.00
400	127	190.50

Ellery Queen Returning After Long Absence

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — That urbane detective Ellery Queen is returning to television after an absence of several years.

★ ★ ★

His reincarnation is being supervised by Albert McCreery, the producer of Matinee Theater, recently deceased. "The Further Adventures of Ellery Queen" will begin Sept. 26 as an hour weekly series over NBC-TV Friday evenings.

The series, which does not yet have a sponsor, will be produced live from Hollywood at a cost reportedly the equivalent of the average half-hour filmed show.

McCreery, who has come East in search of an actor to play Queen, was saying the other day that he believes it will be "a sophisticated show because Ellery Queen is deductive."

From a literary standpoint he's a direct descendant of Sherlock Holmes. He's the antithesis of Mike Hammer who, from a literary standpoint, has no ancestors anyone cares to mention.

"In an Ellery Queen story" says McCreery, "you learn the facts of a crime and then you deduct who did it. This calls for a stream of consciousness technique which, in turn, must be offset by action.

"We plan to shoot special film outside the studio—chases and the like—and then integrate it with the live drama."

"The selection of the right personality for Queen is very important," McCreery says. "We have to match the mental image of numerous readers of Ellery Queen stories who have definite ideas of how he looks and acts. Once we're over that hurdle of identification we're on the way."

County Road Work Among Bids Opened

Two projects in Oakland County were included among many bids opened in Lansing by the State Highway Dept. for work on 41 miles of state trunkline construction.

Local work includes one miles of grading, drainage, and resurfacing on M87 from Maple avenue north in the village of Holly. The firm of Max R. Frisinger, of Ann Arbor, was low bidder at $72,809. Completion date is Nov. 15.

The second job involves the resurfacing of 1.2 miles of M58 from James K boulevard north in Pontiac and Sylvan Lake. Low bidder on this project, expected to be completed Oct. 31, was the A. A. Asphalt Paving Co., of Birmingham. The firm's bid was $101,883.

Alfred Nobel, who contributed a fund of $9,200,000 to award prizes for notable contributions to literature and science, was a Swedish chemist and the inventor of dynamite.

Sleeping Sickness Kills 24 More People in Korea

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Twenty-four more persons died yesterday of sleeping sickness, the government said.

The disease, encephalitis, has killed 1,111 and affected 4,951 persons in South Korea in the last six weeks. In 1949, South Korea reported 5,616 cases and 2,729 deaths from encephalitis.

THE WORD THUG IS NOT MODERN SLANG!

It comes from the name of a confederacy of professional murderers, who terrorized India for 700 years. They worshipped "Kali Ma", the Hindu goddess of destruction, and assassination was a religious duty. The order was unmasked between 1830 and 1840 and later stamped out.
