Few Delinquents in Homes Where God, Love Rule

By CHASE WALKER

Dr. Benjamin Spock, with a long career in the training of children, has given parents some of their best guidance. Upon taking the chair he offered in his small, unpretentious office, in Cleveland, I asked: "Why do teenagers from apparently good homes get into such terrible trouble?"

A tall, gray-haired man, still with the excellent physique that had made him an outstanding athlete at Yale, Dr. Spock looked at me thoughtfully.

DR. SPOCK

"I'm glad you specified 'apparently'," he said. "There can be a difference between a good home and a respectable home, you know. In a respectable home there may be little love—or none at all. Teenagers from a truly good home, a home full of warmth and affection, will rarely get into serious trouble."

"Does that definition include religion?" I asked.

"Certainly," said Dr. Spock. "A family that loves God is usually made up of people who find it easy to love one another—and the opposite is also true."

I asked: "Then why do teenagers have a tendency to turn away from religion?"

"Actually, they don't," he said. "They turn away from authority and draw the line at what they consider hand-me-down rules of life. Today, abandoning religion is considered the 'intellectual' thing to do among college students, but this attitude passes.

"When I was at school several of the fellows refused to go to chapel, and I used to think I was surrounded by atheists. But when I met them later as husbands and fathers they were all pillars of the church."

"Then withdrawal from religion is a passing phase in teenagers?"

"Usually," said Dr. Spock, "and it often happens if parents use religion as a source of authority over the child. Teenagers resent strict supervision and tricks used to impose it.

LIKE DISCIPLINE

"On the other hand, most teenagers are pleased that their parents care enough about them to be prudently strict. But the firmness should be explained. The daughter whose boy friend is constantly criticized for having a bad reputation is apt to think:

"'It isn't Tom they don't trust;

Young Doe Goes on Sight-Seeing Tour of Pontiac

A young deer was wandering the streets of Pontiac this morning, taking in the sights.

The doe was first spotted by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Mahan of 891 Stanley Ave., in their backyard.

The animal was spotted by scores of astonished citizens as it started on a tour of the city. Many persons phoned Pontiac police to tell of the strange sight.

Unfamiliar with pedestrian ordinances, the doe collided with an auto driven by Robert Cartier of 2135 Richwood St., at the intersection of Pike and Paddock streets.

It shook itself off as it got up and continued on its way.

A police scout car trailed the animal but did not give chase, fearing the deer would become panicked and either dash into the street or against a building.

State conservation officers have been notified of the visitor's presence.

Surprise! Nikita's Coming

ON THE MOVE — With new notes dispatched to the Western Big Three from Moscow on the Berlin situation, Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev is to make a surprise visit to East Berlin. His intention reportedly is to attend the Leipzig International Fair. Date and time of the journey have not been disclosed.

Note Says Summit Preferred

Reds Ask Ministers' Meet

LONDON (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev said tonight he is pleased with his talks with Prime Minister Macmillan. As a result, he said, both Britain and Russia are better prepared for an attempt to end the cold war.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union today gave grudging acceptance to a foreign ministers' conference on Germany.

In notes to the Western powers, the Soviet Union said it prefers a summit meeting of heads of government, but is prepared to agree to a foreign ministers' meeting.

In Washington, the White House withheld immediate comment on the new Soviet note. Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said there will be no comment until the text of the Russian note is received.

Moscow suggested Vienna or Geneva as a site for a foreign ministers' session starting in April, and said it should not last longer than two or three months.

The notes suggested that Poland and Czechoslovakia and East and West Germany attend, along with representatives of Britain, France, the Soviet Union and the United States.

The full text of the notes has not yet been formally released. But informants disclosed its highlights while British Prime Minister Macmillan and Soviet Premier Khrushchev were meeting in the Kremlin. They talked for almost two hours.

The Soviet Union's proposal seems assured of serious consideration by the United States and its Western allies, Washington sources said.

Soviet insistence on a summit conference had been expected ever since the West made its proposal. Khrushchev in his speech last Tuesday made clear he did not think a foreign ministers conference on Germany would serve any useful purpose, and that the issue of West Berlin must be discussed by the heads of government.

The U.S. government has been the chief opponent of a summit conference. The American position is that unless the foreign ministers work out an agreement beforehand, a summit meeting will unduly raise public hopes but will come to nothing.

But Prime Minister Macmillan was reported determined, in his visits later this month to President Eisenhower and French President Charles de Gaulle, to insist that a parley with Khrushchev himself was the only way that might lift the Soviet threat to Berlin.

In a speech prepared for delivery to Soviet television viewers, Macmillan declared it was possible to achieve improved relations between Britain and the Soviet Union "if we can make a start and go forward step by step."

"Agreement on one things leads to agreement on another," he added. "It's the first step that counts. That's why I'm here."

He urged the two nations "avoid acts which disturb the existing position anywhere in the world to the other's disadvantage."

City Hospital Blasts Indigent Patient Ratio

Pontiac General Hospital today charged it is a "dumping ground" for indigent patients throughout the county.

Hospital officials threatened to restrict services unless indigent patient loads are divided more evenly among the county's hospitals.

The ultimatum was carried in a letter sent by James Clarkson, chairman of the Pontiac General Board of Trustees, to the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, Pontiac City Commission and county legislators.

Clarkson also repeated demands that county and state welfare agencies increase their payments for welfare patients.

He warned that failure to do this could also result in a restrictive policy.

Clarkson said the hospital lost a staggering $320,000 last year on patients who couldn't, or wouldn't, pay their bills.

"A serious and alarming attitude has developed within the county and its governmental subdivisions, which essentially is: If the patient does not have any money or is a possible welfare patient, send him to Pontiac General."

Other hospitals and physicians not associated with Pontiac General are sending to the city-owned hospital such patients as might not have money to pay for treatment, Clarkson charged.

Pontiac General provided twice as many welfare services last year as St. Joseph Hospital and William Beaumont Hospital combined, Clarkson said.

It lost $37,406 on state-aid patients and $75,078 on county welfare patients, he said.

Although the hospital's per-patient day costs last year were $41.22, the county paid a daily rate of only $33 and the state $19.

Clarkson asked both state and county governments to raise the rates to around $40.

In addition, the hospital wrote off $206,887 in unpaid bills, the majority of which involved emergency service for indigent and low-income patients.

Included in the $206,887, he said, was $56,827 in welfare claims that were rejected by the county or are still pending because the patient failed to met all county welfare requirements.

Such losses as the latter, Clarkson said, constitute a "grey area" that is being "dumped" on

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Three armed bandits overpowered a night watchman, broke into the safe of exclusive Safety Harbor Spa today and escaped with cash, jewelry and checks whose value police said may run as high as $150,000.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today upheld validity of a uniform law adopted by 42 states to enable them to procure witnesses from each other in criminal proceedings. Justice Frankfurter delivered the 7-2 decision. Justice Douglas wrote a dissent in which Justice Black concurred.

Detroit Police in Slowdown

Putting White, Negro Officers in Same Cars Blamed for Strike

DETROIT (AP)—An unprecedented police slowdown strike here was blamed by Police Commissioner Herbert W. Hart today on racial integration orders putting white and Negro patrolmen in the same car.

The slowdown, which the Detroit Police Officers Assn. said was not authorized, started yesterday with police apparently making no effort to ticket cars lacking new license plates.

Several precinct lieutenants reported patrolmen "apparently are blind to violations unless they are pointed out by citizens."

One lieutenant said, "It is no case of general breakdown of police enforcement. Except in small matters the men are carrying out their jobs."

Members of the Detroit City Council said they view the situation with alarm but they planned to take no action until they have conferred with Mayor Louis C. Miriani.

At his office, Mayor Miriani said, "I have no problems. Everything is all right, as far as I know." He said he believes police morale to be high despite reports to the contrary.

Police issued only 60 tickets Sunday to motorists who failed to have new car plates after the Saturday midnight deadline. The normal number of tickets for the first day after expiration is 800.

The commissioner said any policeman found to have neglected his duty in issuing tickets will be suspended.

No Initial Strike Idea Could Go, McElroy Says

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy said today U.S. policy is not to strike the first blow in a war but "whether that always will be true is another matter."

McElroy made the statement in answer to questions before the House Space Committee.

He was asked by House Democratic leader John M. McCormack whether the policy of the United States remains that it would not strike the first blow in any future war.

McElroy said that it was. But he added: "Whether that always will be true is another matter."

He said any change in that policy would be made at the very higest levels.

McCormack said was encouraged to hear that America might change its strictly defensive policy. "It shows some relaxation," he said.

McElroy said American public opinion wanted the United States to stick to a defensive policy.

McCormback said public opinion was one thing and winning wars was another. He said the matter "comes down to leadership."

McElroy agreed with McCormack that a policy of not striking the first blow makes America's military position more difficult.

McElroy also told the committee that Russia could be in a position in several years for a mass attack with intercontinental ballistic missiles.

He said America's defense would be its ability to inflict such damage that no enemy would dare launch an attack.

"As of the present, we have no defense against ballistic missiles," he said.

McElroy said the United States is prepared to make good on President Eisenhower's pledge to "not yield one inch on our rights in Berlin."

Rep. James Fulton (R-Pa) wanted to know whether in view of the tough-appearing Russian attitude on Berlin the United States is adequately protected in a firm position and "if not, should we mobilize in whole or in part."

McElroy said the matter had been under "specific consideration" by the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the State Department.

"We are prepared to meet various stages of the Berlin situation as it develops," he declared.

Rain, Flurries in Area Tonight

The weather outlook for Pontiac and vicinity calls for showers developing this evening. Temperatures will be lower with occasional rain changing to snow flurries. The low will be near 32 degrees.

Tomorrow will be partly cloudy and colder with a high of about 40. Winds southwest at 20 to 30 miles per hour today will shift to northwest tonight and diminish.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest temperature recorded preceding 8 a.m. was 27. At 2 p.m. the thermeter registered 41.

Questions on Courthouse Get Reply From Levinson

A spokesman for the Oakland County Board of Supervisors today repeated the board's stand that "every step possible" has been taken "to insure the best selection of the courthouse and administration center on the basis of the best possible service to the whole of the citizens of Oakland County."

David Levinson, Birmingham supervisor in charge of the Special Courthouse Committee, made the statement in reply to 15 questions posed last week by the Oakland County Taxpayers League.

The League, although claiming it is not "attempting to block the building of a new courthouse," filed suit in 1956, which, until Feb. 19, tied up funds to finance the new building.

Levinson, in answering League Secretary Bruce J. Annett, urged the League to let the Board of Supervisors "carry out its constitutional and statutory responsibilities to the people of Oakland County in the most expeditious manner possible."

Already, Levinson told Annett, costs have climbed $106,000 over original estimates of the architects, bringing the total for the courthouse unit to about $2,875,000.

"Further delay: prohibiting the county from taking advantage of the current favorable picture in the building trade's field will in all probability result in additional increased costs," Levinson said.

Another could come should the League, or some other interested party in the original suit, petition the State Supreme Court for a rehearing on its recent 4-3 opinion freeing $1,666,407 in building funds.

Levinson's two-page answer to Annett and the League did not contain separate answers to each of the 15 questions asked as "adequate answers were presented in open court by sworn testimony and formal evidence," he said.

Further, Levinson said, the questions directed at the supervisors last week were no different from those posed when the League filed its suit in November 1956.

Bell, Union Ink 15-Month Pact

Agree on Pay Hikes After 20-Hour Session to Avert Strike

DETROIT (AP)—Agreement on new labor contracts covering 17,000 employes of Michigan Bell Telephone Co. was announced today after a marathon 20-hour bargaining session with the Communications Workers of America.

The new 15-month contracts provide for pay increases ranging from $2 to $5 a week, as well as vacation and pension improvements. The union said the agreements will be submitted to the membership for ratification.

Thomas S. Nurnberger, Bell vice president of personnel, said in a statement:

"We are gratified, as the public must also be, that the normal bargaining process has effected a settlement of issues in dispute.

"The settlement will add $5,839,000 to our annual wage and salary expense. Such an outlay, of course, will further depress our earnings on investment — already at too low a level.

"All in all, we believe the settlement is a good one considering our three-fold obligation to the shareowners of the business, our employes, and our customers."

No strike vote was taken, but sporadic picketing broke out in several cities.

Moon-Sun Probe Delayed Again

Say Lost Satellite in Orbit

From Our News Wires

The United States was mentioning one new space success today, but a last-minute power failure delayed a second, mightier satellite probe.

At Inglewood, Calif., the Air Force in a cautiously worded statement has announced that the "lost" 1,300-pound satellite Discoverer I is apparently circling the earth today every 96 minutes in a polar orbit.

Preliminary studies indicated the 19-foot-long satellite's life would be in excess of one month, the Air Force said.

The satellite was blasted into the heavens Saturday afternoon at Vandenberg Air Force Base to become the first satellite launched on the West Coast.

But at Cape Canaveral, Fla., a sun-and-the moon shot by the Army was called off just before midnight last night to wind up a rough weekend for America's space probers there.

It was a disappointing second postponement in two days for the Army's gleaming white Juno II which carried a 13.4 pound space-probing satellite in her nose. Scientists and technicians have shivered through wind-whipped and sopping-wet weather to prepare for the launching.

The 76-foot rocket stood poised in floodlights for a half hour and the firing crew had progressed to within minutes of target time when the shoot was postponed. No reason was given officially, but it was learned that a power failure caused the decision to scrub.

Another effort could be made tonight, Tuesday or Wednesday while the moon is in favorable proximity to earth 221,000 miles away. After that, a month's delay would be necessary until the moon again swings into the correct position.

In California, the Air Force believes its Discoverer I rocket is simply having trouble raising its voice enough to let the world know for sure.

Authorities say tracking stations have picked up "sporadic signals" tending "to confirm that an orbit has been attained." Further checks will be made, they say, to try to pin down the uncommunicative rocket.

Officials speculated something may have gone wrong with the radio equipment in the 1,300-pound projectile.

State GOP Push County Proposal

April Candidates Will Urge Williams Trim Expenses by 10 Pct.

Republican candidates in the April 6 election hit the campaign trail today carrying with them an Oakland County suggestion that Democratic Gov. Williams trim state spending by 10 per cent to help in the state's cash crisis.

At a meeting in Lansing Saturday, the Republican State Central Committee, policy making body of the GOP, adopted a four-point resolution from Oakland County aimed at pulling Michigan out of its fiscal doldrums.

The Republican Committee of Oakland County urged a constitutional revision to allow legislators some control over 52 per cent of state funds "frozen" by constitutional limitations.

The resolution told the state's Democratic administration that "the people of the state of Michigan want a state budget as sensitive to potential income as a family budget."

"If this means hamburger instead of steak, then hamburger it must be until we can equalize expenditure with income," the resolution suggested.

It further criticized what it said was a 50 per cent hike in the state tax load per person since 1948. "There is a growing belief on the part of both employe and employer that we are killing the goose that lays the golden egg," Oakland's four members on the 72-member State Central Committee said.

The resolution also called for an "impartial study" of the state's 118 departments, "making sure we receive a full dollar in value for every dollar spent."

Mrs. John C. Finegan of 5710 Crabtree Dr., Bloomfield Township, one of Oakland's four representatives on the committee, was appointed to the Rules and Resolutions Committee.

Bread Prices Going Down, Gas Will Cost More

Motorists in the Pontiac area will pay more for their gas, while housewives will reportedly buy bread cheaper.

Standard Oil today raised its regular and premium prices by 1.1 cents and other distributors are expected to do the same.

Standard increased its wholesale price on regular to 14.3 cents and on premium to 17.8 cents. This meant an expected retail increase to 29.9 cents for regular and 33.9 for premium.

Standard said the price increase reflects a general strengthening of the gasoline market in the Detroit area. It said the prices here have been lower than in most of Michigan.

Bread generally has sold for 24 cents for a pound and a quarter loaf. Under the reported cut, two loaves would sell for about 39 cents. The price of Canadian bread sold in the Detroit area has been two loaves for 37 to 39 cents.

Bob Hope May Lose Sight in Left Eye

The energetic 55-year-old comedian, suffering from a blood clot in the eye that has rendered him nearly immobile, seemed depressed as he discussed his condition.

"I had quite a setback this week," he said. "My doctors said the eye is in worse shape than it was when the clot first formed. So they got a little panicky and suggested I see Dr. Albernon Reese at Columbia University — one of the best eye men in the world."

Levinson Answers Courthouse Question

on Telegraph road as the proposed site for the new courthouse, as opposed to tearing down the 55-year-old present structure in downtown Pontiac and replacing it with a new "skyscraper" courthouse.

The League questions whether the supervisors' accumulating so-called non-tax or miscellaneous revenues is "morally right" even though the high court ruled it was legally right.

"The fact that these interests do not in the minds of your group coincide with your particular interests in maintaining a downtown courthouse is to be regretted," Levinson stated.

"But the good of the vast majority of the people of Oakland (County) cannot be ignored," he stressed.

The Birmingham supervisor pointed out that in the 64-5 vote at last Tuesday's Board of Supervisors meeting, in addition to giving the go-ahead to re-initiate plans, supervisors reaffirmed its stand favoring the Telegraph road site as opposed to the downtown project.

"In arriving at its recommendations, the Committee has employed well-qualified outside consultants, listened carefully to all arguments and facts presented by interested groups and counseled closely with county officers charged with the administration of county affairs," Levinson said.

"The areas covered by your questions relative to costs, transportation, parking and accessibility were carefully weighed and evaluated, together with other advantages and disadvantages of the various sites placed before the Committee," he went on.

"The Committee during the development of this planning has fully appraised the Board of Supervisors and the general public in regard to these matters and their recommendations together with other views, especially those of the League, have been a matter of newspaper publicity over the years," Levinson said further in his reply to Annett.

In answer to a claim by Annett that supervisors have never allowed the League to present its case, Levinson had this to say:

"The League has had ample time in which to present its views and I might add has not been reticent in so doing."

"The League has likewise had its day in court as to the legal questions involved. It would seem from the above that the issue as to location and the method of financing has been fully heard and that the time has come to proceed with the business at hand, namely the construction of this, in the words of the League itself "necessary" facility.

Levinson criticized the League for "attempting to interpose their thinking upon the Board of Supervisors" which "already has hurt the operation of the county."

It was pointed out by Levinson that supervisors still have to put another stamp of approval on courthouse plans. This, he said, will come when bids are received April 21.

"The Committee further stands ready prior to this time to provide any and all supervisors, who have not had opportunity already to do so, with full information concerning this matter" Levinson emphasized.

Bad Weather Helps

Area Fatalities Down

While motorists and pedestrians alike are fed up with the constant parade of bad weather this winter, law enforcement authorities in Oakland County have a different view of it.

It has cut traffic deaths in half.

"Icy roads may sound like death traps," said Sheriff Frank W. Irons today, "but they're not nearly as bad as a dry highway, a balmy summer evening, and a full tank of gas."

Traffic safety authorities throughout the state and nation agree that drivers are "naturally" extremely cautious on slippery pavement.

"Give a motorist perfect driving conditions and in the majority of cases he will double or triple his speed. This results in fatal accidents," Irons asserted.

As of March 2, 1958, a total of 14 persons had died in traffic smashups in Oakland County.

The current total is seven.

The comparative figures also point out that pedestrians are being more careless than drivers this year.

Four victims now and a year ago were pedestrians. But last year they were less than a third of the total, while in 1959 they number more than half the total fatalities.

Despite pleas for "deathless Sundays," accident figures show we have had more Sunday fatals in 1959, with only half the total deaths recorded in 1958.

Two persons have been killed in Sunday accidents this year. The first Sunday fatal last year was recorded March 2. More than a month passed before another traffic death occurred on a Sunday.

There have been no multiple fatals this year as of today. Last year authorities had recorded only one accident in which two persons were killed.

Police and sheriff's deputies are shooting for a substantial cut in last year's death toll of 96. They feel that they've gotten off to a good start.

Baby Sitter Vanishes With 8-Week Twin; Other Children Safe

LOS ANGELES (AP)— Police said today they hoped for some clue that would lead them to an ailing kidnaped baby and a baby sitter who wanted a child of her own.

The baby boy is one of twins born just eight weeks ago to a widowed mother of six children. The infant has been missing since early Saturday from his home in suburban Ontario.

The mother, Ruth Flores, 35, went out Friday evening and when she returned shortly after midnight the twin, Eric, and the baby sitter were gone but her other five children were still there.

Mrs. Flores told police the baby sitter, a woman about 25 to 30 years of age, had identified herself as "Ann Williams." Police say they believe this was not her real name.

Mrs. Flores said the woman had offered to baby-sit for her, had told her she was unmarried and said: "Isn't it too bad a single woman who wants a baby and can support one can't adopt one?"

But for another southern California woman fears had turned to joy. Her kidnaped boy was rescued by officers from a former mental patient, Wayne Murray Jr., 7, was taken from the vicinity of his home in suburban Venice Saturday afternoon.

Judge Trombly Gets Two-Month Leave

LANSING (UPI)—Another judge will step into the controversial chair of Macomb County Probate Judge Joseph Trombly, Supreme Court Chief Justice John R. Dethmers said today.

Trombly, confined to Ford Hospital, wrote Court Administrator Merideth Doyle, asking that he be relieved of duty until May 1.

Dethmers said Judge Donald T. Anderson, Kalamazoo, presiding judge of Michigan's probate judges, would be replacing Trombly at least for the two-month period.

GM Will Sell Device That Cleans Exhaust

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—Oxy-Catalyst Inc. has announced it has agreed with General Motors on arrangements to permit GM to manufacture and sell a device which cuts 90 per cent of harmful agents in automobile exhaust.

The device, called a catalytic purifier, was developed by Eugene J. Houdry, head of Oxy-Catalyst. He said the purifier will eliminate 90 per cent of the hydrocarbons and oxides in exhaust fumes under traffic conditions.

Houdry added that the device is practical, inexpensive and can be used by both passenger cars and trucks. The non-exclusive agreement with GM came after lengthy tests in Detroit.

Auto exhaust has been described as a potential cause of lung cancer and other diseases, and it is one of the chief factors in air pollution.

2 High Court Candidates to Be Given Reception

A reception will be given Thursday evening for Michigan Supreme Court Justices George Edwards and John D. Voelker, both campaigning for re-election to the high court in the April 6 election.

Host and hostess for the 8-10 p.m. reception will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Phillips, 25101 W. Roycourt Ave., Huntington Woods.

SAFE DRIVING TIP

Backing into a curbside parking space on a busy street requires a sharp lookout through the rear window for approaching traffic.

Often in crowded districts the driver following you does not know you are going to park, the Chicago Motor Club points out, so be sure to signal him.

Don't forget that when backing into a parking place, the left front fender of your car will jut into the adjoining traffic lane. Wait for an opening before starting the rearward swing.

Sunday Fire Sweeps Grand Rapids Flat of Factory Worker

GRAND RAPIDS (UP)—The three children of a young couple perished when flames swept their upstairs flat in a frame home early Sunday.

Firemen found two of the children still alive but both died on the way to a hospital.

The fire, its cause unexplained, swept the flat of factory employe Fay VandeVort, 28, and his wife, Donna, also 28.

The children who died were Michael, 8; Jean, 6, and their baby brother, Russell, 19 months.

VandeVort said that fire and smoke awakened him after he had fallen asleep while watching television. Mrs. VandeVort was at work. She has been working since her husband was idled in a strike at his plant.

The father said he tried four times to enter the children's bedrooms but that the fire drove him back.

City Hospital Blasts Indigent Patient Load

Pontiac General by other agencies.

Many of the penniless patients come from South Oakland County, he said, and some from as far away as Detroit.

In some cases, he said, doctors and hospitals in other communities have referred patients to Pontiac General emergency service, "specifically stating that the patient has no funds."

Under welfare rules, he said, the hospital doesn't get paid for most of these services, getting only 75 per cent of the X-ray and laboratory costs from the county for only those patients who are already on welfare.

"But the most significant factor about this 'grey area' is that a majority of these patients do not qualify for any welfare assistance," he said.

Clarkson labeled financial losses on indigent patients as the hospital's number one economic problem.

"The Board of Trustees deeply regrets that it is being forced into a position of modifying its traditional policy of caring for all patients regardless of ability to pay or area of residence," he said.

Losses on county and state patients have been a concern at the hospital for several years. The hospital won one rate increase from the county last year.

The hospital expects to take some loss on welfare patients, but wants the loss trimmed and spread evenly throughout the county's hospitals, said Harold B. Euler, hospital administrator.

There have also been past attempts to eliminate the $100,000-a-year loss the hospital estimates it takes on unpaid emergency service bills.

Last fall, City Manager Walter K. Willman was rebuffed in an effort to gain cooperation from other communities.

He asked them to reimburse the hospital for unpaid emergency service bills run up by their residents.

"And then she may well go ahead and do something foolish. But when the firmness is explained in the family spirit of love, trust and understanding, there aren't parental headaches when the children go out more and more on their own."

"How does a father influence a child's religious attitudes?" I asked.

"Directly," said Dr. Spock. "A father who is loving, patient and understanding teaches his children by his conduct that obedience and discipline are a part of love. The child accepts this axiom, and he also accepts it in his relation with God as he becomes more aware of religion in his life.

AGE OF REBELLION

"Until six or seven, the average child is rather willing to accept the authority of his parents. Also, he believes at this age that his father is the greatest man in the world, and he has already announced his plans to marry his mother when he grows up to marrying age.

"Then the day comes when Junior realizes that his father has already married his mother. He decides he is through with Dad and looks around for some other source of authority. He starts spending more time out of the house.

"You must learn to recognize the traits of this rebellion, however. For instance, on one occasion my younger son came home with the announcement that red corpuscles were larger than white corpuscles. I asked him where he got that impression and he said: 'Teacher said so.'

"That was it; I couldn't argue; teacher was now the boy's final authority. If I had attached too much importance to such events they would have been exaggerated out of proportion and there could have been unpleasant aftereffects."

"Doctor," I asked, "when would you say is the best time to start the formal religious training of a child?"

"During the first siege of rebellion at six or seven," he said. "The child is looking for authority. He isn't especially happy about accepting it from his parents, but he still knows he needs it. He is ready now to learn about his first duties to God and the behavior God expects of him. But he must also be able to see this behavior in his parents."

It was a simple axiom, and one I hoped parents with troublesome teenagers might learn to apply.

The Day in Birmingham

Library Extension Plans Hurt by Unexpected Cost

BIRMINGHAM — Plans for the extension and remodeling of Baldwin Public Library came to an abrupt halt Saturday morning when commissioners learned the estimated cost is $151,800 — more than double the $75,000 they allocated for the project several months ago, City Manager L. R. Gare announced today.

Commissioner Charles Renfrew spoke for all when he said, "The sum we are already committed to is the maximum we can consider under funds currently available."

Of the total figure, $104,000 is for the new wing, including the architect's fees. The balance would go to remodel the old building, according to Linn Smith, architect.

Gare said the special commission-library board discussed financing the project by bond issue. He expressed a doubt that there is time enough to get it on the April 6 ballot.

He added that no decision had been made on whether to hold a special election this fall or wait for the regular election in the spring of 1960.

Eleven names will appear on the ballot when Birmingham voters go to the polls April 6.

Three-year commission terms are sought by incumbents Carl Ingraham and Charles Renfrew, mayor and former mayor of the city respectively. For the one-year term, incumbent William Burgum is being opposed by Claude Kidd Jr.

Municipal Judge John C. Emery Jr. and Associate Judge Edward B. Emery will have as their respective opponents Walter R. Denison and David Breck.

In Bloomfield Hills, commission incumbents John S. Bugas, Dominick Vettraino and Lymon Craig residents will vote on the renewal of the Detroit Edison Co.'s franchise for another 20 years of operation in the city.

Brightly-colored French poodles will match the gowns of professional models when Alvin's of Pontiac presents a fashion show at the Kingsley Inn at 1 p.m. Thursday.

Sponsored by the Junior Women's Club, the show is to raise money for the Birmingham Teen Center. Reservations must be made with Mrs. Gerald White, 4503 Groveland St., Royal Oak by tomorrow.

"Springtime U.S.A. and Abroad" will feature imported and domestic styles, swimwear, accessories and summer furs.

Ira L. Davis

Funeral arrangements for Ira L. Davis, 82, of 815 Hazelwood St., are being made by the Manley Bailey Funeral Home.

He died at his home early this morning after a brief illness.

Mr. Davis was a member of the Grace Reformed Church at Lisbon, Iowa, where he was born. The body will be shipped to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, today for service at the Beatty-Beurle Funeral Home and burial Wednesday afternoon.

Surviving besides his wife, Ida, are three daughters, Mrs. George A. Gillette, with whom the couple made their home; Mrs. Harold Healy of Anamosa, Iowa, and Mrs. George Heffley of Los Angeles, Calif.; a son, Harold of Washington, D. C.; one sister; 11 grandchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren.

Storm Kills 500 by Persian Gulf

Hurricane Force Winds Howl Without Warning Out of Saudi Arabia

BAHRAIN (UP) — A windstorm howled across the Persian Gulf Saturday night, leaving many dead and hundreds homeless. Estimates of the dead today ranged as high as 500.

The storm, of hurricane force, blew up without warning from the mainland of Saudi Arabia. Dust shrouded the Gulf as havoc was wrought on both land and sea.

Houses were smashed. Power lines were cut.

Many fishing boats were pounded to pieces.

The British Navy dispatched food and supplies to 500 persons left homeless at Abu Dhabi, on the Trucial Oman coast.

Reports from Ihahran, Saudi Arabia, said a search was being made for a party of American employes of the Arabian American Oil Co., missing in the desert.

Ike Asks $427.5 Million to Cover Salary Hikes

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower asked Congress today for a $427,576,262 supplemental appropriation for fiscal 1959 to take care of increased salaries in various branches of the government.

The White House said the sum is 24 million dollars less than was anticipated in the 1960 budget.

flected the growing belief in Congress that the crisis represents the gravest threat to peace since World War II.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash) urged President Eisenhower to call up four or five additional divisions as "a diplomatic signal to the Soviets that we mean business."

Jackson, a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said the mobilization now of four or five Army or National Guard divisions might "prevent a catastrophe" both in Berlin and in the Formosa Straits area.

Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield (Mont.) also said it was time for the United States to begin thinking about nationwide mobilization in case the Berlin crisis "breaks out."

Expect Eastman to End Testimony

Public Safety Director George D. Eastman is expected to complete his testimony in the removal hearing of suspended Police Chief Herbert W. Straley tonight.

The hearing of the Civil Service Commission will resume at 7:30 p.m. in the City Commission chambers. Six police officers have been subpoenaed as witnesses against Straley, and some may take the stand tonight.

Suspended Feb. 9, Straley has been accused of incompetency and inefficiency, insubordination, neglect of duty and failure to maintain good behavior.

Studies of Total Defense Against Missiles Planned

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Defense Department has begun studies that could lead to development of a "death ray" and other revolutionary weapons for defense against ballistic missiles.

Several exploratory research contracts will be awarded with the aim of coming up with an entirely new defense system against missiles in the 1970s.

An official of the Defense Department's Advanced Research Projects Agency (ARPA) said the contracts basically will be "hunting licenses" for industrial and university laboratories to try to devise an almost fool-proof defense against ballistic missiles.

He conceded, however, that "no one now can see a clear way to a total defense."

The official discussed the program after Aviation Week magazine said in its March 2 issue that its aim was to develop "essentially complete defense of the United States against ballistic missiles in the approximate period 1970 and 1980."

The magazine said the studies would include "anti-gravity, anti-matter and radiation weapons." broad enough to include powerful rays capable of destroying enemy missiles armed with hydrogen warheads before they reached their targets.

The exploratory nature of the project was underscored by the relatively small amount of money to be earmarked for it, initially at least.

Aviation Week said the study contracts would total $1,500,000. It said 5 to 10 contractors would be selected in early April, on the basis of proposals submitted by March 20.

The only anti-missile weapon now under development is the Army's Nike-Zeus, which the Defense Department does not consider sufficiently advanced and certain of success to be put into production.

Free Nation Welcomes Leader Home

Makarios Hailed in Cyprus

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Archbishop Makarios got a triumphal welcome home from more than 150,000 Greek Cypriots Sunday after three years in exile. He called on them to cooperate with the island's Turkish minority in the days of freedom that lie ahead.

The political and spiritual leader of the Cypriot majority flew in from London, where British, Greek and Turkish officials worked out an agreement to give independence to the British colony.

In a 30-minute address Makarios told his cheering, shouting followers: "We have triumphed. Today Cyprus is free. Let us celebrate, my brethren."

He urged Greek Cypriots to forget the political differences and bitterness which only last summer erupted into fighting between the Greek and Turkish communities.

"Let us not forget," he said, "that freedom is not just a privilege and right. It is also a heavy responsibility and supreme duty.

"Let us allow no passions or prejudices to intervene. Let us hold out an honest hand of friendship and cooperation to all.

"Especially let us cooperate wholeheartedly and sincerely with our friends the Turkish community. Only through harmonious cooperation with them will our strength be reinforced."

Makarios paid high tribute to the Greek Cypriot underground organization EOKA.

"Our struggle for liberation is graced by the numberless heroes led by Gen. George Grivas, the legendary Dighenis, whose name is written on the most glorious pages of the history of Cyprus. To this great man and to the gallant fighters of EOKA we pay, at this solemn hour, our tribute of supreme gratitude and honor," he said.

Grivas, a former Greek army officer, and other EOKA leaders have been offered safe conduct to Greece. They have not yet appeared openly but there was speculation they were in the crowd welcoming Makarios.

The welcome was far different from Makarios' secret departure aboard a British military plane March 9, 1956, when he was exiled in an effort to stifle the campaign for union with Greece. The 45-year-old Greek Orthodox prelate is considered certain to be elected the first president of the island republic.

Roof Collapse Tragedy Probed

8 Victims of Ontario Hockey Arena Disaster to Be Buried Tuesday

LISTOWEL, Ont. (AP)—Ontario Atty. Gen. Ekslo Roberts yesterday ordered an investigation of the collapse of the Listowel Memorial Arena, which killed seven youngsters playing hockey and their recreation director.

They died Saturday when the arena's arched roof came crashing down under the weight of accumulated tons of rain-soaked snow. The boys were members of a group of 16 in the peewee hockey league practicing for a trip to a tournament at Goodrich, Ont. They were all under 13.

Eighteen others were injured in the collapse. Coach Norman Stirling suffered a broken back and 12-year-old Blair Rassman had a crushed pelvis.

Mayor Oscar Nickel declared tomorrow a day of mourning. A mass funeral was scheduled for tomorrow afternoon.

The $135,000 concrete-block arena was built only four years ago and was the pride of this western Ontario town of 3,500. It was operated by the town.

There were about 35 persons in the 1,200-seat arena when the asphalt-covered wooden roof, supported by foot-square laminated wooden beams, caved in without warning.

All the dead were on the unprotected ice surface. Others in the stands and along the boards were able to find tiny niches of shelter under the rubble until rescue teams reached them.

Rebuilt Machine Vies on K.C. Ballot

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—The Citizens Assn. which broke up the old Pendergast Democratic machine in 1940 and has controlled Kansas City's municipal government ever since, puts its record on the line against a rejuvenated machine coalition Tuesday.

For the first time in 19 years, some political observers say the machine, claiming "it's time for a change," has a chance.

The Citizens group, citing its record under L. P. Cookingham as city manager, lists as achievements slum clearance, an extensive trafficway system under construction with federal and state aid, and the city's good credit rating, among other things.

At stake in the primary Tuesday and the regular election, march 31, are the mayor's office and eight council seats.

Texas Will Pay Rent Bill 123 Years Overdue

WASHINGTON Tex. (AP) — A rental payment 123 years overdue gets paid off today as Texans pause to celebrate the anniversary of the signing of their Declaration of Independance.

Fifty-nine citizens of Mexico gathered in a small blacksmith's shop in this tiny village on the banks of the Brazos River in Washington County on March 2, 1836.

They proclaimed their independence from Mexico and set up administrative machinery for the Republic of Texas. But historians say the group forgot to pay rent of $55 for use of the blacksmith's shop to one Noah T. Byars.

Tom Whitehead Sr., Brenham, executive director of the Texas Independance Day Organization will present a check to Miss Jewell Byars, Houston, a descendent of Noah Byars.

Starkweather Asks Mercy

Nebraska Pardon Board to Consider Plea of Killer of 11

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—The state pardon board will meet Wednesday to consider a plea from condemned mass killer Charles Starkweather, that his life be spared.

State Penitentiary Warden Joseph Bovey said today Starkweather, who is scheduled to die in the electric chair Good Friday March 27, prepared the application for mercy with the help of prison officials.

If the pardon board grants the 20-year-old confessed killer of 11 persons a hearing on his request, 30 days would have to elapse before a hearing was held. This would require postponement of the execution.

The State Supreme Court has already upheld the Lancaster County District Court first degree murder conviction of Starkweather.

Bovey said Starkweather, who has been a model prisoner, may either appear in his own behalf at the hearing or be represented by counsel.

Adm. Dufek Predicts Polar Airline Routes

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —Within 10 years airliners will fly across the world by way of the South Pole, Rear Adm. George J. Dufek predicted today.

The polar veteran, off en route home from the antarctic, said South Pole routes would enable airliners from Australia to cut 1,500 miles from their trip to South Africa and even more off the journey to South America.

Bathing Suit with Matching Cap by JANTZEN

Big eaters now can lose 10 to 20 pounds and more and still enjoy big meals of fine food . . . thanks to the Swedish Milk Diet. It is an on and off diet. Eat today . . . eat everything just like you now eat. Then tomorrow you diet for 24 hours taking Larson's S.M.D. with milk . . . that's all.

No calorie counting. No exercise. No mechanical massage. Yet not only do the pounds and inches of horrid looking fat melt away but more important, those bulges disappear in the right places from all over the body the same way. It's quickly noticeable how much weight is gone from chin, back, neck, arms, legs, stomach, bust, backside, hips and thighs.

So even if you are a true gourmet when it comes to fine food and big meals, start the Swedish Milk Diet. Automatically thousands of fat building calories are eliminated. Energy goes up . . . weight goes down. Once again you're slim and there's no underfeeding. This is the reducing plan you've seen advertised in Harper's Bazaar, Glamour, Vogue and other authoritative fashion magazines.

You can get Larson's S.M.D., the complete Swedish Milk Diet, at our cosmetic counter. You have your choice of this filling, energy-packed food either regular or in chocolate flavor or in handy condensed food tablet form. Satisfaction is guaranteed or you need only return empty package for purchase price refund.

Deaths Elsewhere

DETROIT (AP) — Frances Margaret Fox, who years ago wrote children's books and stories from her Northern Michigan home at Mackinaw City, died yesterday at the age of 89. Miss Fox started her writing 60 years ago on the encouragement of a short story she wrote for a Detroit newspaper.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Edward Richmond Tinker, 80, former New York banker and film executive, died Sunday of a heart attack. He was a retired president of Chase Securities Corp., vice president of Chase National Bank and board chairman of Fox Film Corp.

MOSCOW, (AP) — Sergei Starichevsky, 45, a leader in Soviet aviation sports, was killed, apparently in an air crash on Feb. 24, the newspaper Soviet Patriot reported Sunday.

NEW YORK (AP) — Mack Gordon, 54, who wrote the lyrics for many hit tunes, died Saturday after a brief illness. He wrote the words for such hits as "Time On My Hands," "Did You Ever See a Dream Walking?," "Chattanooga Choo-Choo," "Love Thy Neighbor," and "Stay As Sweet As You Are."

NEW YORK (AP) — Joseph M. White, 67, a singer in the early days of radio who was known as the "silver-masked tenor," died Saturday of a cerebral hemorrhage.

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Marco Morrow, 89, former executive for Capper Publications, died Saturday. He was director of advertising from 1908 to 1918 when he became assistant publisher. When the firm was incorporated in 1937, Morrow was elected a director and vice president. He retired in 1944.

Former Official Stricken, Dies

Charles Ziegler, 70, Was State Highway Commissioner

LANSING (AP)—Charles M. Ziegler, 70, Michigan state highway commissioner for 14 years, died Sunday of a heart attack.

He was stricken at home.

A Republican, his long tenure as state road chief ended July 1, 1957 with the inauguration of John C. Mackie, the Democratic incumbent. Ziegler had not sought reelection.

His late years as commissioner were marked by a running political battle with Gov. Williams.

Ziegler came to the highway department in 1919, after working for the Ann Arbor railroad and as assistant city engineer of Saginaw. He progressed to the level of deputy commissioner in 1931 but resigned in 1933.

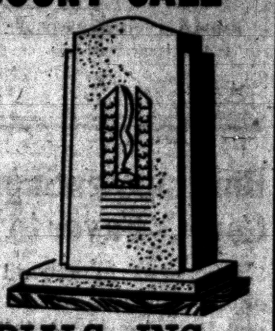

For the next 10 years, he was engineer on building construction projects at Michigan State University and served as assessor of the city of Lansing.

He first was elected highway commissioner in the spring of 1943, continuing in the post until his retirement.

FBI Says Crime Up

WASHINGTON (UPI)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover reports that crime jumped an "appalling" eight per cent in U.S. cities last year. Smaller and medium-sized communities showed sharper rises than metropolitan areas.

Bar Opposes Supreme Court's Favor to Reds

Americans in general have been applauding the American Bar Association House of Delegates and Special Committee on Communist Tactics, Strategy and Objectives.

If you've survived that mealy mouthful, it simply refers to the lawyers who are opposed to aiding and comforting the Reds within our rather wide open gates.

A similar report was prepared a year ago, but for some reasons which no one cares to explain particularly, it "got lost." This year it was revived —and passed.

Basically, it recognizes the dreadful and damaging decisions which Supreme Justice Earl Warren and his associates have rendered over the past few years in connection with Communistic activities. The legal fraternity urges Congress to pass appropriate laws which will circumvent these findings by the Washington judiciary. Certainly this nation has a right to look to this source for leadership in preserving American processes and the defense of the nation.

EARL WARREN'S Supreme Court has apparently taken many unexpected opportunities to deliver decisions which have astounded the bulk of the populace by their sympathy and kindness to Russian plans and Russian activities in the United States. As these successive findings were handed down, indignation in the country continued to mount.

What was happening?

What was going on?

People were perplexed and aroused and yet by and large the vast majority of us is helpless. Our main protection against unjust tactics in this connection lies largely in the stand and measures adopted by the lawyers themselves.

They have been slow in moving but the most important thing lies in the fact that the step is taken. Congress can hardly turn a deaf ear to the pleading and recommendations of this great and representative association. It is speaking the "mind of America" and we feel confident the Congress and the Supreme Court, too, are well aware of the fact.

Congressmen Praise Trujillo Dictatorship

Two junketing Congressmen, Representatives DONALD JACKSON of California and GARDINER WITHROW of Wisconsin, have been in the news lately for speeches made to the Dominican Congress while enjoying a trip to TRUJILLO'S capital. Rep. JACKSON was relatively restrained in his praise of El Benefactor's rule but Rep. WITHROW went all out.

As reported in the Dominican Republic's Herald, Mr. WITHROW declared: "Just as France had her Foreign Legion, the Dominican Republic has a foreign legion too and I am just a soldier in your ranks . . . I firmly believe that if Generalissimo TRUJILLO had been born in the United States he would have been elected President of the United States. Perhaps if he had, there would be no cold war, no widespread Communism that there is today, and from a taxpayer's standpoint, there would have been no $300 billion national debt we have today either."

Rep. Withrow praised Trujillo as a "dedicated man"—dedicated to helping others. "The overwhelming evidence," says theM ilwaukee Journal, "is that Trujillo is dedicated to the cause of helping Trujillo." He and his family have taken over most of the profitable businesses of the country.

His brother HECTOR is president of the Republic; another brother, ARISMENDI, is a lieutenant general and head of public information and culture. Two other brothers are high officers in the armed forces and son RAFAEL, JR. (well known in Hollywood) is lieutenant general and chief of staff. Half the armed services officers above the rank of colonel are TRUJILLO relatives.

Political opponents, says the Journal, have been liquidated or are in jail. His people do what he tells them or else, and he differs only from the worst kind of dictator in that he has spent some public money for public purposes.

It is easy to understand in view of public speeches by these and other U. S. lawmakers, why Latin American countries feel that we in this country favor dictatorships.

The Man About Town

All Must Register

Some Young Men Overlook That Obligation When 18

Dieting: Simply a question of mind over platter.

Word comes to me from both

Chief Clerk of the Pontiac City Army Draft Board, and

Mary Kelly,

Chief Clerk of the Out-County Board, that some young men are failing to register at their 18th birthday. Such is still the regulation, and the registration should be made on the correct date or good excuse offered for any delay. Both boards are at 701 Pontiac State Bank Building.

After many years of diligently collecting such authentic historical mementoes of the Pontiac area, of 23 Grande Ave., has a wonderful assortment of arrow heads and other Indian relics.

Victor Bacon

Johnson Meredith

of Detroit, then living in Pontiac, tells of a farmer's horse dropping dead on Saginaw Street, when it saw a "horseless carriage."

For this week the Old Farmer's Almanac predicts:

"Not as rough; but rains make it tough."

I like that remark made in awarding a citation for exceptional work: "You not only hitched your wagon to a star, but had enough rocket fuel in you to attain your goal."

In comparing the prices of the turn of the century with those of today, I find that on July 20, 1898, an advertisement over the signature of quoted the best beer on the market at ten cents a gallon if you brought your own bucket.

Mrs. Fred R. Allen.

Out of a Clear Sky

David Lawrence Says:

Kennedy Comments Extraordinary

WASHINGTON — Perhaps one of the most extraordinary comments in 30 years in American politics was made the other day on a television network by a potential candidate for the presidency, but—probably because of the delicacy of the subject—it evoked relatively little comment in political circles.

LAWRENCE

Senator John F. Kennedy, Democrat, of Massachusetts, was asked on the "Face The Nation" program of the Columbia Broadcasting System whether he thought a Catholic today could be elected to the presidency, and he frankly said he didn't know.

One of the newsmen on the program observed that many people think Al Smith, Democratic nominee for the presidency in 1928, failed to win because he was a Catholic, and asked Mr. Kennedy—himself a Catholic—whether the same objection prevails today. The senator replied:

"Well, I think there were other factors involved in the Smith campaign in 1928 and so that it's hard to isolate it.

"I would think that probably if a Catholic became a candidate that this matter of his views on the question of the First Amendment—separation of church and state—would become a matter of public discussion, and it's quite proper that it should.

"Whether it would mean his defeat, I don't know. I suppose we won't get a judgment on that until it's put to the test. But our experience in the last 20 years, in other elections for lesser offices, has been that the American people make their judgment on a man's general competence and responsibility, and do not feel that a religious test should be applied to any candidate for any of the offices under the Constitution.

The Massachusetts senator will certainly find many people disagreeing with him that a man's religion should be discussed in any political campaign, but Mr. Kennedy, as a practical politician, is willing to face the fact that such discussion does arise during campaigns and, hence, unhesitatingly gives his views now on two points usually brought up.

One is whether an American ambassador would be sent to the Vatican and whether federal aid to parochial schools would be advocated.

On both points the senator says "no" quite emphatically. He recalls that President Truman, himself a Protestant, nominated an ambassador—a non-Catholic—to go to the Vatican, but the Senate wouldn't confirm the appointment.

Mr. Kennedy says the subject is so controversial it would have "divisive effects at home" and he doesn't think the advantages outweigh the disadvantages. As for aid to parochial schools, he points out that this has been held unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the United States under the First Amendment, which calls for a separation of church and state.

He might also have added that many Catholics have held the office of governor in important states in recent years, and not one has ever advocated financing parochial schools with state funds.

He told the television audience that, judging from the mail he has just received, his views are shared "by the great majority of the Catholics in this country."

Incidentally, in 1943 Lieutenant Kennedy, an expert swimmer, finding himself afloat in the waters of the South Pacific when a Japanese destroyer cut his P-T boat in half and killed two of his men, thought only of duty to his country and to his companions, irrespective of their faith, as he brought about their rescue—an act of heroism for which he was awarded the Navy and Marine Corps medal.

His spinal injuries resulting from that incident kept him in the hospital for long periods afterward.

Senator Kennedy is eligible for the presidency by every proper standard and by the words of the Constitution itself. The only question to be determined is whether he is the best fitted of all the candidates now being mentioned for the Democratic nomination for the presidency.

The Country Parson

"The church has no need for more members who believe we should leave well enough alone."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Question From Teetotaler: Why So Many Stinkers?

(Webster says "stinker" means one who is disgustingly contemptible, and "stinking" means offensively drunk)

In a recent piece about cocktails and highballs I asked why people invite a guest to a cocktail party when they are quite aware of his teetotalism, which they respect when they are sober; then, if he accepts the invitation, why do these same people become disagreeable or offensive in their insistence that he drink with them? I said that a few drinks can change a lady or a gentleman into a stinker.

DR. BRADY

I was astonished and a little shocked by the indignation or anger of numerous readers who protested about my "name-calling."

Right here I repeat: Liquor makes people behave that way because alcohol deprives the drinker of his or her higher faculties—judgment, decency, modesty, responsibility.

That's what I mean when I say a few cocktails or highballs may change a lady or a gentleman into a stinker for the period the narcotic is at work.

In a sober interval one drinker—who, as he averred (if a narcotic user's word can be trusted), would not take a drink for weeks or sometimes for months but then would go on a bender—told me he drank because "at times he felt the need of a stimulant or just wanted to feel better."

Like most addicts, he rejected as narrow-mindedness, prejudice or idle fancy the statement that alcohol is not a stimulant, but actually a depressant narcotic in any dose. If you question the soundness of this statement try and find a reputable physician who will contradict it.

Some persons drink only because they are weak sisters, namby-pambies, and haven't enough character to say "No thank you" when invited to drink.

Some use the ever-ready narcotic to blot out for an hour or two their inferiority feelings, their consciousness of physical, social, economic, intellectual or moral inferiority. A few cocktails or highballs make them for the time being less aware of their deficiencies or shortcomings.

Some drinkers use the narcotic in a childish attempt to escape or hide out from a bad conscience. And some addle their brains because the movies, magazines and television teach them it is smart to drink.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Moreover the Lord saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet.—Isaiah 3:16.

'A Man Past 60 Shouldn't Be Allowed to Hold Office'

I'm 72, was in the Air Corps during World War I, I hold a Mechanical Engineering degree from MIT and received education also at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland and at University of Heidelberg in Germany. I spent 18 years in GM research laboratory engineering tests under C. F. Kettering.

I maintain that a man past 60 shouldn't be allowed to hold public office and that no man is worth $50,000 a year, as his ability is not great enough to circumvent all the problems they're faced with.

Tells How to Find Owners of Dogs

Our dog was taken so we know how Sad Dog Lovers feel. My husband spent hours training him and he was about the only playmate our daughter has known.

We loved our dog very much and can't understand how people could be so cruel. If you find a lost dog, it's easy to look in the paper or check his tags. The City has a record of licenses and can give you the owner's name, address and phone number. The owner will never be able to thank you enough.

'If You Don't Gripe, Cars Won't Change'

Long after most car owners have forgotten the good features of their cars, they have total recall of the poor workmanship and sloppy assembly, the aggravation of repeated expense and loss of valuable time in having numerous factory-built defects repaired.

The main reason so many car owners have such aggravation is because they don't complain to the car makers' top management long enough and strong enough to get satisfactory adjustments.

As long as they are willing to put up with the increasingly poor workmanship and sloppy assembly in their new cars without complaining, just so long will they continue to get far less than their money's worth in car quality and decent workmanship.

Quotes State Law Concerning Dogs

It states that every dog shall at all times between sunset each day and sunrise of the following day be confined upon the premises of its owner or custodian except when said dog is otherwise under the reasonable control of some person. Also, it shall be the duty of every police officer on complaint to kill any dog or dogs which are found outside an incorporated city running at large and unaccompanied by owner or keeper.

Any person may kill any dog which he sees in the act of pursuing, worrying or wounding any livestock or attacking persons and there shall be no liability on such person in damages or otherwise for such killing. After June 15 of each year unlicensed dogs are declared a public nuisance. This came right from Lansing.

'Most City Agents Do a Fine Job'

I'd like to say a word in defense of most Pontiac Internal Revenue agents. I've found them courteous, honest and conscientious, trying to do a technical and difficult job.

However, I did have one case with an agent who left me nervous and angry. He was neither truthful nor fair, and tried to force his lack of wisdom on me with an overbearing attitude. The case was appealed and appeal is every taxpayer's right, with unreasonable agents and also with a questionable issue on which there is an honest difference of opinion.

Appeal can be obtained with or without counsel and no additional cost. On something so delicate as tax collection, there will be many differences of opinion. Nevertheless, it's important that the Internal Revenue Service be represented with dignity and integrity. Good public relations will increase respect for our Government, which means better tax reporting.

SURVIVING SPOUSE

Under certain conditions, a surviving spouse may have the advantage of using the tax rates under Schedule II which are the same as those used by persons filing a joint return.

(1) Your spouse must have died in either of the two years preceding 1958; and

(2) You must have been entitled to file a joint return with your spouse in the year of death. It is not required that you actually filed jointly, but only be entitled to so file; and

(3) You have not remarried; and

(4) You furnish over half the cost of maintenance of your home which is the principal abode for your child or stepchild for whom an exemption is allowable to you.

When claiming the surviving spouse computation, you must use Form 1040. You may not compute your tax as Head of Household as long as you are entitled to the benefits of surviving spouse.

A surviving spouse may file a joint return in the year of death. For the next two years he or she may use the joint return rates as surviving spouse if the above conditions are met.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Love at First Sight Is Unreliable

Donna is a modern love slave and might even have been sold into white slavery by her unscrupulous boy friend, for he was purely selfish and interested primarily in her pocket book. Beware when you fall in love at first sight. And learn how to break this dangerous spell. Scrapbook these vital cases.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE A-467: Donna D., aged 23, is madly infatuated.

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, I just feel as if I'd die if I didn't marry Joe," she began, tearfully, "although my parents and friends all say I am crazy even to think about such a thing.

"But the first moment I set eyes on him at a dance, my heart just started racing until I felt as if I'd choke with happiness.

"He didn't pay any attention to me that first night, but I kept going back to the dance hall where he spent a lot of his evenings.

"Finally, I got an introduction. We have been dating for three months and I have promised to marry him.

"It was love at first sight with me, and I feel unable to break off, even though I know he has some faults."

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT

Well, I can feel sympathetic with Donna, for I fell in love at first sight with my wife.

It was at a church in Ft. Wayne. She stood up to acknowledge an introduction during the election of officers of the Young People's Society of the Wayne Street Church.

And my heart did a flipflop! It actually felt that way.

So I can speak from personal experience about this sudden type of love which occurs literally at first sight, and can be very dangerous.

There are two methods by which we usually fall in love. One is the "earned" love affair which develops out of an original casual meeting.

In "earned" love, the couple don't originally feel smitten by love at all but start out as classmates or neighbors. They may even meet on a blind date.

After many months or even years of such pleasant evenings in each other's company, they develop mutual interests and have enjoyed so many parties, movies, concerts and picnics together that they finally wake up to the fact they are essential to each other.

Meanwhile, they have plenty of time to get acquainted and see if they harmonize in religious ideals, hobbies, etc.

But the other type of love starts out with a bang, and the parties thereto are helpless.

They don't even know if they are compatible in interests or religion or hobbies or ideals.

In fact, they are almost hypnotized as they instantly fall under the spell of the other person.

DONNA'S DILEMMA

Donna's choice was obviously bad. Joe was a twice divorced man, with no special job. He worked for a bookie gambler in Chicago.

He sponged money off his girl friends and Donna had already lent him over $500 which he had lost on the horses.

In fact, he wasn't even in love with Donna, but was using her as a convenient source of easy money.

But she was a slave to his slightest wish. Everybody else saw that she'd be unhappy, but in her starry eyed trance, she wouldn't believe her parents or even her closest friends.

If she married Joe, it was inevitable that she'd be miserable and he'd soon add her to his previous two divorced wives, for he would drop her the moment she quit furnishing him money.

But how can you shatter the "halo" and break the mystic spell which a suitor holds over you, if you are madly in love?

That's a delicate task, so watch the follow-up tomorrow.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 6c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

I don't mind paying my share, but I've reached my limit, when I work three months just to pay taxes. The Governor spends more than I make just for pleasure, so he wouldn't understand the little man's problems. People of Michigan had better get together and let our Congressmen and Governor know what we think about this tax problem.

'Two County Flags Are a Disgrace'

It's disgusting to see the two flags in front of the Courthouse and the County Building. They're dirty, torn and unsightly. Have people responsible for them no scruples? They certainly are being disrespectful. If you can't afford to buy a flag, I'm sure the Veterans Affairs office could arrange to get some from the Government.

Let's live as dangerously as we can.

Treasurer Replies to Tax Complaint

Did Had Enuf even open his tax notice envelope before he came to pay it? Had he read the notice he should have known of the earlier date, and there was an item in The Press on the county page well in advance of Jan. 20.

I'm not in favor of the penalty, but the law says it must be collected. If all who are bitten by the penalty will write the Lansing representative, maybe we can get the bill passed which will give the Township the right to extend time of payment without penalty.

It isn't pleasant to inform people of the penalty, and then take the abuse they give. Many must be ashamed of themselves when they look back at how they talked and behaved in the tax office. I try to be courteous but now I'm afraid I, too, have had enough.

Transatlantic Cable Back in Service

NEW YORK (AP) — The transatlantic telephone system of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. was back in normal operation today, after the repair of a cable break that created an international incident.

The company announced completion of the repair Sunday.

The cable system links the telephone networks of the United States and Canada with those of Britain and eight European countries.

The cable was broken Feb. 21. A boarding party from the United States Navy radar picket ship Roy O. Hale searched the Soviet trawler Novorossisk for 70 minutes Thursday in an effort to find if the ship had cut the cable.

Lt. Donald Sheely said he found no firm evidence of any intention to cut the cable, and believed the most probable explanation is that the trawler cut it accidentally.

The break was 1,000 feet under the Atlantic, about 190 miles east of Newfoundland.

125 Evacuated as AEC Train Derailed

DANVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Some 125 persons, evacuated Sunday after a freight train carrying chemicals from the Atomic Energy Commission was derailed, were allowed to return to their homes in nearby Geneva early today.

Explosions, apparently set off by the impact of the crash, caused fires that burned out of control in the 28 derailed cars of the Southern Kentucky community because they didn't know what the cargo contained and feared further explosions.

An AEC spokesman at Oak Ridge, Tenn., said the chemicals were highly inflammable but not radioactive.

Atomic theory was expounded as early as 400 B.C. by Democritus, a Greek physical philosopher.

Sales taxes yielded eight billion dollars to the state governments which levied it in 1957. This was 58 per cent of all their tax revenue.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

"I need my Gas Clothes Dryer now more than ever"

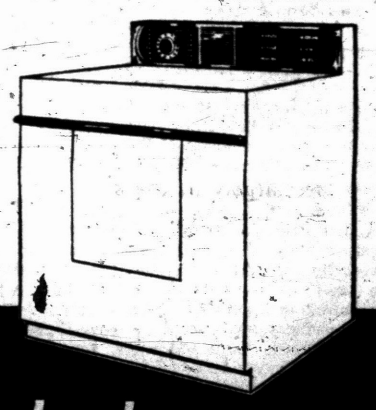

Mrs. Robert Albertson, 3293 Pirrin, Waterford, Michigan

"Since our baby arrived I've had a wash to do almost every day. I appreciated our Gas Dryer before, but now I don't think I could get along without it. I have my clothes dried as fast as they're washed. Baby things always come out so soft and gentle to the skin."

Busy, new mothers like Mrs. Albertson deserve the convenience of an Automatic Gas Clothes Dryer. It leaves more time to perform all those new duties. It eliminates lifting and lugging heavy baskets of wet clothes. It does away with hanging up, taking down, worrying about the weather. It changes a load of wet wash into the softest, fluffiest clothes you could ever put next to a baby's tender skin. All the family wash comes out so wrinkle-free that many pieces need little or no ironing. Even the modest budget can afford all this wonderful convenience . . . so why put it off?

Johnson May Have Key Voice on Dems Nominee

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas appears to be emerging as one of those most likely to influence the choice of the 1960 Democratic presidential nominee—if he isn't himself the standard-bearer.

The dinner drew 2,479 and raised about $185,000. Johnson and House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) delivered the principal addresses, and numerous other Democrats spoke.

Behind the festive scenes there was a measure of agreement among party strategists that Johnson and his supporters may come close to having the deciding voice in the selection of the party's presidential nominee at the July 1960 convention in Los Angeles.

Johnson keeps telling all callers that he isn't running, that Texas doesn't want a presidential candidate and that the country doesn't want a president from Texas.

Johnson obviously was further impressed with the never-ending burdens of the presidency in a discussion of these with President Eisenhower on a recent flight to Texas.

Nevertheless, as Texas' favorite son, Johnson is expected to go into the 1960 convention with a substantial bloc of delegates, mostly from Southern states. He will have wide secondary support from all sections of the country and an acquaintance with individual Democratic leaders not equaled by any of the more active presidential aspirants.

This strength could be decisive in swinging support to whichever aspirant he decides to back.

Party strategists now are beginning to discount the likelihood of a lengthy stalemate that could deliver the nomination to some nonactive candidate, such as Johnson claims to be and Adlai E. Stevenson appears to be.

Russians Mount Guard Over Nazi Prisoners

BERLIN (UPI)—Russian troops in fur caps and heavy winter coats took over guard duty from the French at the four-power Spandau Prison yesterday.

Spandau originally held seven top Nazi war criminals, but four have been released. The remaining three are Hitler's deputy, Rudolph Hess, who is serving a life term, and Nazi munitions minister Albert Speer and Nazi youth leader Baldur Von Schirach, who are serving 20-year sentences.

Many Use This Right

Have You Got a Gripe? Then Petition Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Have any grievances? Petition Congress.

The Constitution says the people have that right, and it's amazing how many do just that.

Just last week a fellow came personally to the House clerk's office with his petition for permission "to address either or both houses of Congress and do hereby petition Congress for redress and hear and act on my grievances."

His grievances were eight in number, including what he said was false arrest several times. The eighth was: "I have been and am being discriminated against because I am white, Christian and gentile." His petition went to the House Judiciary Committee.

Already in this session of Congress the House has received some 100 petitions from individual citizens and groups and some 50 resolutions or memorials from state legislatures.

The most repeated subject so far is statehood for Hawaii.

Petitions favoring Hawaiian statehood have come from such diverse sources as the Brockton, Mass., City Council and Wayne Kanekiyo of Kaumakani, Kauai, T.H.

The legislatures of Nebraska, New Mexico, California and Montana have sent memorials asking statehood for Hawaii.

The new Alaskan Legislature hasn't said anything about Hawaii to Congress, but it has sent its first memorial. It asked compensation for Bristol Bay fishery production cuts made in the national interest.

Other memorials from the states cover much of the gamut of statesmen's worries — help for small business, a program to provide work for the unemployed, water power potentials, and tariff rates. Several asked for removal of the federal tax on telephone service.

The citizens' petitions are more personal. They included claims against the government and request for such things as increases in retired railroad workers' pensions and restorations of citizenship.

The most unusual petition was one filed several weeks ago by a group seeking impeachment of members of the Supreme Court. The petition was about 1,500 feet long and contained thousands of names its sponsors said were secured all over the country.

After 20 Years Work, New Kind of Squash

GENEVA, N. Y. (UPI)—A new variety of squash to meet the needs of growers and processors has been introduced here by Cornell University's New York State Experiment Station.

The new vegetable, named "Red Skin," represents more than 20 years of selection and breeding to develop a high-yielding squash with fruits of uniform size, color and shape and with flesh of a uniform color and quality.

It was developed by crossing inbred lines of Knobby Leviathan with Golden Delicious, according to plant breeder Prof. W. T. Tapley.

British Troops Calm Africans

Nyasaland Party Holds Meetings in Campaign for Independence

BLANTYRE, Nyasaland (AP)—Troops rushed into Nyasaland from Southern Rhodesia appear to have blunted the African National party campaign against the British rulers of the Central African Federation.

Police broke up party meetings at outlying Mzuzu and Fort Manning Saturday, arrested a total of 13 Africans, but otherwise the weekend was peaceful.

White families living in isolated areas began moving into town. Special security measures remained in force, with squads of riot police patrolling Blantyre.

While the rebellious spirit may have been dampened, there was no disposition in Blantyre to minimize the ominous potentialities of the situation. Dr. Hastings Banda, president of the African National party, has not retreated an inch from his demand that Nyasaland must become an independent state outside the federation.

In Salisbury, capital of Southern Rhodesia and the federation, where a state of emergency was proclaimed three days ago, 400 party leaders have been arrested and an even more serious view is taken of the situation.

The drastic action in Southern Rhodesia obviously was taken with the expectation that Sir Robert Armitage, governor of Nyasaland, would follow through with similar measures.

Sir Robert, however, has made no move to declare a state of emergency or arrest party leaders.

Billy Graham Draws Huge Crowd

MELBOURNE (UPI) — Evangelist Billy Graham attracted another huge crowd Sunday despite criticism in some Anglican Church circles and a "Billy go home" headline in a small news-magazine.

More than 52,000 persons crowded into Sidney Myer Music Bowl today to hear Graham's sermon about the danger of the world being destroyed by atomic war.

The North Carolina Baptist minister has preached to record crowds every day since his five-month Australian crusade for Christ began here Feb. 15. Last weekend alone more than 130,000 came to hear him.

Crusade officials reported today that more than 10,000 persons have made "decisions for Christ" at the Melbourne meetings.

Despite these successes, however, there have been some rumblings of disapproval.

"News Day," a new weekly magazine with a small circulation published in the Sydney suburb of Ashfield, carried in its first issue a Graham story headlined "Billy go home."

Billy Graham, the self-appointed heavenly huckster, should pack his carpetbag and go straight back home," News Day said. "Australia has got on pretty well so far without Graham's particular brand of religious emotionalism and his specialized method of selling religion.

"Thoughtful Australians will be horrified by the near blasphemy of his attitude. The voice of God doesn't come bellowing from a loudspeaker."

T. L. HARRIS

T. L. Harris Named to Head Western Region; Replaces J. E. Singer

Appointment of T. L. Harris, formerly zone manager at Boston, as western regional truck sales manager was announced today by R. C. Woodhouse, general truck sales manager for GMC Truck & Coach Division.

Harris replaces J. E. Singer who has been granted an extended leave of absence due to illness.

Two new zone managers also were named. They are C. G. Noel, formerly retail store manager at Boston, who succeeds Harris as Boston zone manager; and S. R. Turner, previously retail store manager at Pontiac, who replaces J. E. Kelly as zone manager at St. Louis.

Succeeding Noel as Boston retail store manager is F. J. Tiernan, formerly warehouse manager at Boston. Replacing Turner is J. S. Davis, who has served in the sales organization at the Pontiac Retail Store.

Kelly becomes retail store manager at Pittsburgh, succeeding D. C. Hardgrove who has been reassigned in the Pittsburgh area.

A 23-year veteran with GMC Truck, Harris has served in a variety of key executive positions in the Truck Sales division. Before being named zone manager in 1955, he was New York regional truck distributor and later manager of GMC's Truck Distribution Department.

Former Pontiac Man Appointed Editor

Former Pontiac resident, Louis C. Harris has been named editor of the Augusta, Ga., Chronicle.

The one time Michigan newsman and long-time executive of the Augusta newspapers succeeds the late Robert L. M. Parks.

Harris was formerly telegraph editor of The Pontiac Press.

W. S. Morris, president and publisher, said Harris will also supervise the editorial page of the Herald. Harris had been executive news editor of both the morning Chronicle and afternoon Herald since 1955. He was Chronicle managing editor for eight years before that.

Harris began his newspaper career more than 25 years ago in Montgomery, Ala., where he was born. He has been executive editor of the Columbus Ledger in Georgia.

Husband Shot in Argument

Wife Fires Gun After Ortonville Man Beats Her During Quarrel

An Ortonville couple is in Flint's Hurley Hospital today after an all-day argument erupted into a shooting last night.

Flint State Police said Gladys McCulloch, 38, shot her husband, Henry, 40, in the hip with a .22 caliber rifle in the bedroom of their home at 750 Mill St., shortly after 9 p.m.

He is listed in critical condition and "not responding to treatment" today according to hospital officials. She is in "fair" condition with a broken shoulder and bruises of the face, allegedly inflicted by her husband during the quarrel.

Troopers said they were informed of the injuries by the hospital.

In talking to the wife and two sons, Billy, 15, and Charles, 17, troopers related that the couple had been arguing all day Sunday. They also admitted drinking, said troopers.

McCulloch became especially angry early in the evening and beat his wife, she told officers. Charles said he arrived home after 9 and asked his mother what had happened to her.

He said his father then accused them of "talking behind his back" and started beating him. Troopers said that at this point the boy's mother got the gun from the kitchen and shot her husband.

Charles then ran to a neighbor's house and called for an ambulance, troopers said. No complaint was filed with police.

Investigating officers said the two sons left home after their parents were taken to the hospital and didn't return until 3 a.m. today.

Knife-Wielders Rob City Man of $53

A Pontiac man was robbed of $53 Sunday by three men who forced him at knife-point to drive to a deserted area in the south end of the city.

Robert P. Zeeman of 147 Prospect St. said the men jumped into his car at the intersection of Saginaw and Prospect streets when he stopped for a traffic signal.

Claim Waste at Air Force Missile Base

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Chronicle said today that civilian employes at Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., claimed the Air Force has been spending money recklessly.

Quoting "a number of authoritative civilians," the newspaper said millions of dollars have been spent recklessly on "crash" programs to set up ballistic missile launching sites.

The sources were not named in the article.

The article, citing what it called "powerful lobbying" by building contractors, said the money could have been saved through a normal building program.

The paper said expensive launching systems rushed to completion months ago now stand idle because the missiles for which they were built are months or years away from operational status.

Deadline Nears on Cash Woes

State Lawmakers Back Tonight to Find Way Out of Budget Crisis

LANSING (AP) — Michigan lawmakers will be under the gun politically when they return to work tonight—many of them more than ever before.

It'll be either find a quick solution on borrowing or head down the ugly road that leads to Veterans Trust Fund juggling or liquidation, and then an income tax.

Republican and Democratic leaders clung to hopes of breaking a stalemate on borrowing to meet the state's cash emergency but were vague as to possible ground for agreement. Some legislators were pessimistic.

Technically, this was the last day for working anything out in time to get it on the April 6 statewide ballot. While such deadlines are elastic, it appeared there were only two or three days more at the most.

One 11th hour possibility that remained to be explored was tying the 50 million dollar bond issue urged by Democrats to supporting minor new taxes rather than the four cent sales levy favored by Republicans.

Parolee Beats Area Women

Uses Lead Pipe on Her, Drive-In Manager in Detroit Attack

A Madison Heights woman was one of two severely beaten early Sunday morning by a parolee at Richards Drive-In at 20500 Greenfield, Detroit, Detroit police reported today.

Mrs. Janet Compton, 23, of 584 E. Harwood, was hit with a two-foot-long piece of lead pipe as she attempted to call police when the man struck the manager. She had several deep cuts on the head which required stitches. She was treated at Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital, Detroit, and released.

The beatings took place at 4:45 a.m. as Mrs. Marion Warmbier, 45, of 18425 Lenore, Redford Township, the restaurant manager, was counting the Saturday night receipts, police said.

The parolee, who had been hired only three days earlier as a porter at the restaurant, came up behind Mrs. Warmbier and hit her several times with the three-quarter inch pipe, she told officers. He is Robert H. James, 36, of 1198 Seldon Ave., Detroit.

Mrs. Compton rushed to the telephone as Mrs. Warmbier slumped to the floor. Managing to break free from James, she ran to an all-night doughnut shop across the street to call police.

Mrs. Warmbier suffered a fractured right cheek, cuts about the head, a broken finger and other cuts and bruises about the body. She is in Mount Carmel Mercy Hospital.

Meanwhile, Detroit Police said today they have sent out an all-points bulletin to try and apprehend James, who was paroled Jan. 22 after 3½ years in Jackson Prison. He had also served time in Detroit for assault and battery.

To Arraign Suspects in Restaurant Holdup

Two persons arrested last night in the burglary of Crenshaw's Restaurant, 426 W. Huron, will be arraigned in municipal court this afternoon.

Leo Russell Van Loven, 18, of 83 Union St., and Larry W. McCray, 19, of 330 Shadywood St., Rochester, were arrested by police officers a few blocks from the restaurant.

The two were spotted in a parked car on Henderson street by police officer Richard Navarre.

Hoffa Starts Union Drive at Miami

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)— James R. Hoffa personally took charge of a barroom rally of 62 city workers Sunday in the opening of a drive to organize 25,000 municipal and county employes in the greater Miami area.

The 62 were deputized Teamsters Union stewards and told to start passing out union literature to their co-workers. Hoffa promised he will fly back to Miami in six weeks for a mass meeting.

When Hoffa spotted a photographer joining the crowd, he said, "No photographs of this group! These men may be subjected to severe disciplinary reprisals."

Hoffa said he wants a flat $500 a year increase for all county and municipal workers.

Careless Smoking Cause of House-Trailer Fire

A fire believed to have been caused by careless smoking swept through the house-trailer of Lindel Bridges, 229 E. Walton Blvd., Sunday.

Firemen estimated damages to the trailer at $2,500, with an additional $500 loss to contents. No one was injured.

State Sales Tax Shows Business Up

LANSING (AP)—Sales tax collections, bellweather of Michigan business activity, continued to climb last month, state Revenue Commissioner Louis M. Nims reported today.

The sales and use tax take last month on January business totaled $24,349,000, a four per cent increase from the $23,298,000 collected in the same month a year ago.

"I'd say this was a little bit encouraging," Nims said. "This was the second straight month that sales and use taxes showed an increase over the same month a year earlier."

"Last year," he said, "there was a drop from the year before in every month of the year."

Bob Considine Says:

Nearly 85, Von Wiegand to Start Memoirs

CAIRO—Karl von Wiegand, the dean of American foreign correspondents, has decided that it is time to write his memoirs.

On the brink of 85, he has assigned himself the monumental task of detailing in one volume the magnificent adventures of more than 60 years in journalism.

We paid a call on him the other day at his pleasant oasis which commands a striking view of the Pyramids. Von Wiegand is of the opinion that Cairo has the healthiest climate in the world.

He would seem to be a living testimonial for same. Though his eyes have failed him of late Von Wiegand is still chipper and hardly has a wrinkle in his face.

His little white goatee bobbled animatedly as he enumerated a few of the events with which he will deal in his book.

Frank Coniff and I sat there spellbound as this keen old observer of three generations of newsmakers stroked the head of one of his longhaired dachshunds and gave vent to lovely reminiscences which will someday charm readers in many languages.

He spoke of Kaiser Wilhelm, Grand Admiral Tirpitz, Marshal Foch, Woodrow Wilson, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Churchill, Hitler, Mussolini and others, not as bloodless figures on the prim pages of history books but as men he had known intimately.

Young reporters who quake at the thought of adding an extra fifty cents to their expense account sheets will stand gape-jawed by Van Wiegand's forthcoming account of how he chartered the Graf Zeppelin and flew it around the world for the late W. R. Hearst.

Historians will want to know how Von Wiegand was able to cable a story from Shanghai on Oct. 15, 1941, reporting that if the so-called peace mission of Ambassador Kurusu to Washington gained no results by Nov. 26 then war would start "any time after midnight Dec. 6."

Fanciers of the arresting anecdote and titilating moments in the annals of human relations will either delight in or shudder at Van Wiegand's account of a meeting with the crown prince of Germany several months after the start of World War I.

"Willie said to me, 'My dear Wiegand, tell poppa we have lost the war. Every time I try to tell him he gets furious at me.'"

Von Wiegand met Hitler as early as 1921. On June 10, 1940, Von Ribbentrop contacted Von Wiegand and flew him to see Hitler in a chateau near Brussels. Hitler wanted his opinion on a peace plan he was prepared to offer to Britain.

"Before Hitler told me his plan I told him this," Von Wiegand recalled. "I said 'Mister Fuehrer and chancellor, the British won't speak to you.' He was furious.

"He stomped up and down and said among other things 'They must speak to me. They're businessmen. I don't want their fleet. Let them control the seas. All I would demand in this peace proposal would be that they keep their hands off the continent. The continent is mine.'"

Karl had his moments with Mussolini too. "He was a much pleasanter man than Hitler," he told us. "He was an actor. Unlike Hitler, he could laugh heartily at himself.

"He feared Hitler and wondered about his own role after what he thought would be a quick ending to the war. Once he said to me, 'I must have at least one thousand dead, or he won't give me a seat at the peace table.'"

The gingery old gentleman spoke of many other things: An unpublished interview with Pope Pius IX, why Pope Benedict XV criticized the United States, action in the field with Chinese armies in the 1930s, and the early days around Phoenix and Kansas City.

He mentioned in passing that he quit a job as ranch hand at 15. I asked him for whom he had worked. He seemed surprised by my ignorance. "Buffalo Bill, of course," he said.

Court Hearing Today in Wife Shooting

Elmo Marshall, 47, of 1841 Point Dr., Commerce Township, charged with reckless use of firearms resulting in injury to his wife, Mabel, 44, will be arraigned in Oakland County Circuit Court today.

Marshall's wife has been in critical condition at Pontiac General Hospital with a bullet wound of the abdomen since the shooting took place Feb. 15 at the township address where the couple lived with their daughter and her husband.

Mrs. Marshall is described as showing improvement.

Marshall was bound over to the circuit court when he waived examination Saturday afternoon before West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Dieterle. He was freed after furnishing a 1,000 bond.

He was taken before Justice Dieterle several hours after being released from the hospital after suffering from an alleged overdose of medicine he took for a heart condition.

It is estimated that there are more than two million parking meters in use today throughout the world.

Swim Teaching Course Planned

YMCA to Offer Class for Aquatic Leaders on Monday Nights

The Pontiac YMCA through its Department of Aquatics will offer a course in the teaching of swimming starting Monday, March 9 in the YMCA building.

The course aims at completion of the National YMCA Aquatic Program, leading to certification as aquatic leader-examiner. Emphasis will be placed on the actual teaching of swimming, although some study of the development of aquatics and programs will be included.

The course is directed by John J. Moreau, director of the Department of Aquatics at the "Y" and National YMCA aquatic field agent in the Northeastern Michigan District.

The class will begin at 7:30 p.m. at which time registration will take place.

Persons desiring to enroll must be at least 16½ years old and have a current senior lifesaving certificate or be enrolled in a course at the present time.

30th Kingswood-Cranbrook Operetta to Be Staged

All set to go into their dance for "Carousel" are Tim Coughlin and William Bruner of Bloomfield Hills, John Woolley of Pleasant Ridge and Linn Hobbs of Lathrop. The boys have been working hard on the Kingswood-Cranbrook production of the Rogers and Hammerstein hit musical.

'Carousel' Slated for March 6-7

52 Area Students Among Huge Cast for Musical Show

For the 30th year, Kingswood and Cranbrook Schools are combining talents to put on an operetta. This year it is Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Carousel." There will be two performances starting at 8:15 p. m. Friday and Saturday, March 6 and 7, at the Cranbrook auditorium. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Fifty-two students in this local area are participating in the show. Over 100 students from the two glee clubs and a 20-piece orchestra are putting on the musical.

ROMANTIC PLOT

"Carousel" unfolds the tragic romance of a sideshow barker (Billy) and a mill worker (Julie). The setting is a small Maine fishing village in 1873. Here Julie and Billy fall in love, run away to get married and return to find they have lost their jobs. Tragedy strikes and fantasy takes over.

The leading roles are filled by Carol "Chip" Wilson of Birmingham as Julie, Bernard Crouse of Lansing as Billy, Janet McNaughton of Birmingham as Nettie. Valerie Armstrong and Benjamin Aurand have leading roles, and Raymond Sokolov of Detroit plays the villain, "Jigger."

MANY TAKE PART

Jay Hall of Pontiac is playing in the orchestra. Other boys from the area include: David Collon, Romeo; Linn Hobbs, Lathrup; Stephen Jones, Royal Oak; Thomas Roeper, Franklin; John Woolley, Pleasant Ridge; Tim Coughlin, Harvey Croze Jr., Thomas Lee, Cyrus Osborn, Jack Schaefer and Thomas Waylett of Bloomfield Hills; Stephen Brown, Barry Butler, James Canfield, Robert Ellery, Jeffrey Fisher, Jeffrey Frank, Jay Harness, David Koether, Edward Lerchen, Jon Plew, Montgomery Slatkin, George Squibb, Peter Thingstad, John Waters, Richard Williams, Tod Williams, George Wills, and Jim Wright of Birmingham.

Robert Bates of Cranbrook (center) shows Jay Hall of Pontiac, a part in the score, as Mrs. Lois Chapman of Kingswood School looks on. Jay is playing in the 20-piece orchestra for the production of "Carousel." Mr. Bates and Mrs. Chapman are the musical directors for the Kingswood-Cranbrook operetta which is being produced this week for the 30th year.

Three of the leads in "Carousel" rehearse at the Cranbrook auditorium for the Kingswood-Cranbrook production scheduled Friday and Saturday nights. They are Janet McNaughton, Birmingham, who sings the role of Nettie, Bernard Crouse of Lansing who is Billy Bigelow, and Carol "Chip" Wilson of Birmingham who is Julie.

Local PTA Council Set for Election

Tuesday Meeting Will Include Talk by Dana Whitmer

Pontiac Council PTA meeting will be held Tuesday evening, at 7:30 p.m. at McCarroll School.

There will be an election of officers with the nominating committee presenting the following slate: president, Mrs. William Anderson; first vice president, Mrs. L. D. McLauchlin; second vice president, Mrs. Roland Stephison; recording secretary, Mrs. Thomas Henson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Leonard Saari; treasurer, Mrs. Harold Beebe; historian, Mrs. Thomas Fowler; auditor, Arthur Bell.

PROGRAM PLANNED

Program will be presented by Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of Pontiac schools, on the present financial positions of schools and the problems of the next three years. Guests from the board of education will include Glenn Griffin, Monroe Osmun, Dr. Walter Godsell, Vernon Schiller, Rev. J. Allen Parker, Louis Schimmel, Mrs. Wm. Mihalek and William Anderson.

A PTA leadership training course given by Wayne State University is scheduled to begin March 23 at Pontiac Northern High School in room B2 and will continue for eight consecutive Monday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Conducting the classes will be Mrs. Stewart Schweizer.

The next polio clinics sponsored by the Pontiac PTA Council will be held March 16 at Madison Junior High; March 17 at Bethune School; March 18 at Wilson School; March 19 at Owen School. All clinics will be open from 1-5 and 6-8 p.m. Price is $1 for each Salk injection.

CONVENTION SET

The national convention of the National Congress of PTA will be held April 27 - 29 in Bay City.

Formal Dedication of the New Pontiac Northern High School will be March 8 with guest speaker John Hannah.

To Address Club

Daniel T. Moore, author and former Chief of Counterintelligence for the Middle East during World War II, will be guest speaker at the dinner meeting of Village Woman's Club. The meeting will be held at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday at Oakland Hills Country Club.

New Designer Is Featuring Girlish Look

ROME (AP) — Valentino, a young Paris-trained designer new to Rome, presented his first collection here Saturday—a frothy, girlish blossoming in pink and green.

Daytime clothes were mainly three-piece suits whose collarless, yoke-bound blouses matched their jacket linings.

Jackets themselves were largely collarless, loose with indications of a shrunken waist, hip-length and drop-sleeved. Skirts were moderately full with side-front gathering, and moderately long over the knee-cap.

The 26-year-old Valentino, espoused the crescent waist, rising in front, and the rib-cage clasp. His wide velvet and suede belts sometimes threaded under flat, flying panels. His flowered prints were little girl flavored in strawberry and lime. His sleeves were sometimes puffed.

For evening the young designer featured fur-trimmed organdy coats over pastel organdy gowns. One pink dancing outfit had chinchilla cuffs and a diaphanous, Cinderella flow.

Oily Skin Hints

If your skin is oily, don't use a powder base. Apply the powder directly to the skin. Avoid rich, highly seasoned foods and be certain that green vegetables are included in your daily diet.

'Five Dollar Bill' Draws Acclaim

By MARY ANGLEMEIR

Many of the 400 ticket purchasers who attended the Friday and Saturday night performances of "The Five Dollar Bill" at Stevens Hall, All Saints Episcopal Church, expected an amateur affair. They came away enthusiastically exclaiming, "Wonderful" and "Acted like professionals."

The play revolves around the Moore family—consisting of mother, father and two near-adult sons, Don and Ralph—and their problems.

The father, portrayed by Don Weston, resented being rejected by the U. S. Army when a young man as not physically fit.

When his sons were small he played "army" with them, teaching them to call him major. Even his wife, played by Peggy Rickard, went along with his whim.

Jerry Barnfather, as Don, grew up to be strong, husky, talkative and active in sports; Bob Thompson, as Ralph, quiet and thin, became a thinker. The contrast in the two boys, and the father's preference for the husky one, gives substance to the plot.

Between acts we heard Mrs. C. George Widdifield say, "I think they are doing wonderfully well."

"I'm enjoying the play," Jack Strait laughingly told us. "Each person is doing a perfect job. I'm proud of them."

"The cast deserves a lot of credit. There's a lot of hard work involved and the first attempt isn't easy," said Mrs. H. A. St. John.

"The story is good and very true to life. The performance is convincing," remarked Mrs. L. Jerome Fink.

Accept What Is Your Due—Abby

Social Security Is Not Aid to Needy

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: I am 69 years old and my wife is 65. Over a year ago my accountant advised me to apply for social security. I took his advice and draw $103 each month. I advised my wife to do the same but she refuses. Her reason is that we have enough income to keep us and it is not honest to take money from the government when we do not need it. We are honest God-fearing people and do not want to do wrong. Please advise us in your column."

ABBY

GEORGE

DEAR GEORGE: There's nothing dishonest in accepting social security. Eligibility depends on one's age; not one's degree of necessity. If it's George with Uncle Sam, it should be George with George's wife.

"DEAR ABBY: A neighbor of mine has had four husbands and she isn't even 40 yet. She had a boy friend for everything. One pays her rent. Another one lets her drive his car. Another painted and papered her house (material and labor) and she bragged that all she had to give him was lunch and a few daughterly kisses.

"She sees the rent-payer during the daytime and she has a bus driver, (she calls him her 'roomer') staying there nights. I don't know how she gets away with it. Don't you think somebody ought to tell those suckers the score?"

NEIGHBOR

DEAR NEIGHBOR: Don't waste any sympathy on the "suckers." Some men don't care about the score as long as they're in the game.

"DEAR ABBY: How do you find out a boy's religion without embarrassing either of us? I am not allowed to go with boys of a different religion and I have a terrible time finding out sometimes whether I should even start to like him."

PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: If you are interested in a boy there is nothing wrong with asking him what church he goes to.

"DEAR ABBY: My wife and I went over to my mother's house. While we were there my sister and her fiance and my wife and I started a card game. My sister and her fiance got into a little argument and he slapped her face. I didn't rough him up.

"I just told him what I thought of him and he left. My wife and I have had a lot of fights over this. She thinks I was wrong for butting in. But I felt as long as he wasn't her husband yet, he had no right to slap her face. Who was right?"

ERNIE

DEAR ERNIE: You were right to voice your disapproval — and by the way, a slap in the face between lawfully wedded mates is no more acceptable than a slap in the face between lovers. (These are lovers?)

CONFIDENTIAL TO PEARL: Kill her with kindness and don't let your conscience bother you. A cat has nine lives.

Mrs. William J. Dawson, Grace Clark and Mrs. W. M. Twichel spoke at a meeting of the Pontiac Story League, held at the home of Mrs. J. R. Shaffer on State street.

"Rosemary's Rose" an original story highlighting Detroit's historical background, was told by Mrs. Dawson at the Thursday gathering. Miss Clark's selection was "The Saw Mill that Ran Backward," a Paul Bunyan story. Mrs. Twichel related tales of lumbercamping in Michigan.

Boon to Travelers

Hair Pieces Are Fun, Practical Too

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

It is rumored that a long time ago Cleopatra captured Marc Anthony with an indigo wig but used a more naive personality on Caesar. This she achieved by cutting a fringe of bangs and arranging her henna hair in a small-head silhouette. She was a "quick switch" artist.

Today women are returning to extra hair pieces for variety and for glamor. Have you any idea how many women in the United States now are wearing these as fashion accessories? More than five million! AND, the percentage is rapidly increasing.

I think this is a wonderful idea. It is not only fun but it is practical. No matter how flat or fine or lifeless or unmanageable your hair may be, with one of these, you can achieve a lovely hairdo in a few minutes.

MANY STYLES

You can pin on a Coronet braid, a chignon or pony tail. There are many many other styles; everything from a full wig to a curl piece which can be arranged in 15 different ways; everything from bangs to topknots to back curls. These can be perfectly matched to your own hair. You simply comb the ends in with your hair and no one can tell the difference.

In the past many famous women used this artifice as they do today. Many actresses on stage, screen and television are beautified with extra locks. Today the everyday woman is adopting them. She can keep her usual comfortable short hairdo, and still change it for special occasions or simply because she is tired of it.

The extra hair piece is a real boon when traveling or when on vacation. I have several friends who took a couple along with them on southern trips. They could swim all afternoon and then look well coiffed in the evening.

Being aware of the great current interest in extra tresses, I visited Doris Fleischer of the celebrated 128-year-old firm which her grandfather, Joseph, founded in Vienna in 1830.

Miss Fleischer has lovely pastel coloring and is charming and perceptive. She called my attention to the fact that not so long ago extra hair pieces were a part of every woman's wardrobe. Some women had as many of these as they had dresses and almost everyone had at least one "switch."

One of Doris Fleischer's recent contributions to the world of fashion is the COLOR wig. These are complete wigs in lovely pastel shades, or more vivid colors, to match the costume.

I think it is fascinating to know that her brother, Paul, goes each year to remote villages in the mountains of Italy where women grow yard-long hair which is incorporated into the extra pieces I have mentioned. These women give their hair special care, not exposing it to the hot sunshine and never bleaching or curling it. In some families grandmothers to granddaughters grow these luxuriant tresses.

Three-Layer Cookies Have a Creamy Center

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Someone tells us about a delicious food and suggests that we track it down. That was the case with today's recipe for Coconut Delights.

Mrs. Barney McKevitz turned out to be the cook we sought. She is active in her church and in the League of Catholic Women. Two grandchildren are her delight. Her hobby is knitting.

COCONUT DELIGHTS
By Mrs. Barney McKevitz

½ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
½ cup shortening (best if half butter)
1 cup sifted flour

Blend sugar and shortening and stir in flour. Press into 9x9 ungreased pan. Bake 10 minutes at 350 degrees. Remove from oven.

2 eggs, well beaten
½ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
½ cup corn syrup
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup shredded coconut
1 cup chopped nuts

Add sugar to beaten eggs. Stir in corn syrup and vanilla. Add dry ingredients, mixing well. Stir in coconut and nuts. Pour over bottom layer. Return to oven and bake 25-40 minutes more, or until golden brown. Cool and cut into squares.

These cookies should have three layers when they are done, the middle one creamy.

'Army' Look for Spring Fashions

The "army" look has replaced the leggy look in spring and summer fashions. Arms and shoulders are bared in many dresses that have narrow ribbon straps.

Sleeves, instead of skirts, are slit, from wrist to shoulder on long sleeves. Jumpers are worn without sleeves for cocktails, and suits have short sleeves ranging from five inches above the wrist to way above the elbow.

WINTER HAIR PROBLEMS
by Rowena Wilson

Don't think "parched hair" is strictly a summer complaint. Winter also takes out its wrath on our hair, but the problems are different. The sudden change from over-heated rooms to the bitter cold outdoors affects the crowning glory. It tends to become dry and brittle. Hair is bundled under hats and scarves, so that the fresh sunshine and breezes that are often beneficial don't get a chance to help keep it healthy.

Let us take care of your winter hair problems. We have excellent treatments available. Your hair can be restored to its former loveliness. Rowena's Beauty Salon, 4831 Dixie Highway, Drayton Plains. OR 3-3541. 14 S. Main, Clarkston. MA 5-1000. 1216 Baldwin, Pontiac. FE 5-3735.

Carpets Kill Noise

In many rooms furnishings and decorations will provide all the sound absorbtion you need. Upholstered furniture, rugs, carpets, draperies and wall hangings all help to deaden noise.

In fact, carpeting alone may absorb noise as well as special acoustical materials will.

A card party and fashion show will be held by members of the Women's Auxiliary of Jimmy Dey Post 12 Amvets at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Pontiac Savings and Loan Building.

Committee members include Mrs. Edward Pompeian, chairman; Mrs. Robert McKerricher, cochairman; Mrs. Orrin P. Huntoon Jr., tickets; Mrs. Fred C. Ziem, prizes; and Mrs. Wesley Newman, hospitality.

Committee workers are Mrs. Louis Hadden, Mrs. Silas Sadler, Mrs. Keith Bigger, Mrs. Muriel Sadler, Mrs. Norman Windiate, Mrs. Charles Cohen, Mrs. Ziem, Mrs. Peter Metes, Mrs. Leland Hunt and Mrs. John Allen.

Modeling the fashions by Arthur's will be Mrs. Fred Ziem, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Newman, Mrs. Silas Sadler, Mrs. Charles Cohen, Mrs. Roy Williams and Mrs. Metes.

Aprons for table prizes have been made by members of the auxiliary. The group gives aid to veterans at Saginaw Hospital.

Scrubbing Will Aid Teenagers' Skin

Young girls, and boys, too, worry about acne. They will find that a good scrubbing with soap and water and a soft complexion brush helps them avoid serious skin infections.

Such care removes the excessive oils that clog pores when mixed with the dirt and grime of daily living. And clogged pores mean trouble ahead.

Organize Purse to Save Nerves

Spend an evening organizing your bag, add compartments, pin a change purse in an easily accessible location.

55 Attend Meeting of First Baptist Mission Society

Some 55 members and guests were served by the Golden Circle Class when the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of First Baptist Church met for a dessert luncheon at the church.

A message was given by Mrs. Glen Crumley, missionary on furlough from the Belgian Congo, and letters from missionaries supported by the church were read by Agnes Sturman.

Mrs. Ira Davis conducted the song service at the Thursday meeting, with Mrs. Stuart Davis accompanying. Special music was presented by Mrs. Kyle Wilson, with Mrs. Bruce Reh accompanying.

On March 26, Harry Zemmer, also a missionary in the Belgian Congo, will speak at a dinner meeting for members' families.

Shari Mourns Stereotyped Moppet Shows

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—Miss Shari Lewis is small enough to fit in a broom closet without crowding the mops. Indeed, she would prefer to appear in a broom closet rather than on some of the moppet TV shows she's been seeing.

"They aren't creative, they're imitative. Basically, they try to do nice things on television, but every show is like every other show—it's so flagrantly wrong!"

Miss Lewis, who is known as mama's best friend because her show, "Hi, Mom," keeps the little urchins rapt 'round the television set five hours a week, excludes her own program from the above condemnation.

And, having won two coveted "Emmy" awards as "most outstanding female personality on TV," and proprietress of the "Best Children's Program," she needn't explain herself further.

"The world is not just a song and a dance and a joke—and a man with a gun. My basic philosophy is that there are other things happening in the world that are interesting and entertaining. For instance, we had 25 eggs hatching on the air in our show last year, and it was the most fascinating sight you ever saw."

But you don't often find such realism, such artless artistry, on television, Shari says. Instead, the pattern of one successful show is followed by dozens of stereotypes of it—until there is nothing interesting left.

"It is like the overbreeding of dogs; you breed for physical perfection, and come out with something which is sterile and not much good."

It is the fault of the networks, she believes, who are "shirking their responsibility. They will not put on a television show unless they have an immediate sponsor . . . and of course, you can't blame a sponsor for not wanting to invest hundreds of thousands of dollars in a new idea that might not be successful."

The five-foot, fiery-haired, 25-year-old Miss Lewis was only 16 months old when she began to learn what makes a show fascinating to children.

Her mother was a music teacher, and her father (now director of student activities at Yeshiva University) was a magician and showman. They taught Shari the ways of magic before she was two. At four, she was on stage, pulling rabbits out of hats.

"Action," she says from her lengthy experience, "is what will capture the attention of a child, but the child will slip off the hook if the action isn't stimulated by someone who shows devotion to them."

Thus, the mother who starts a ball bouncing will catch the attention of her child, but when she turns her back, the baby will lose interest in the action.

"Adults don't realize how very rarely they stop and say, 'What is it, dear?' Adults are so busy."

That is why many kiddies depend on TV, and its professional entertainers, for the concentrated attention their little egos need. And why Miss Lewis resents the fact there are not more programs "that reach their hearts, as well as just their eyeballs."

Two Michigan Cities Merging Chambers

The two towns are nine miles apart. Under the merger, Petoskey will provide a secretary-manager, and office space, and will handle all regional promotion, correspondence, administration and publications in return for two thirds of the dues collected in Harbor Springs. The other third will be for Harbor Springs promotions.

Harbor Springs will have two directors on the regional board of the joint chamber of commerce. The merger will take place next month.

Balance Hopes for Budget Dim

Officials Concede It Looks Like an Uphill Struggle Now

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Administration officials conceded today that they are fighting uphill in their quest for a balanced budget in fiscal 1960 but they said public opinion supports them.

These officials are hopeful that when members of Congress go home for the Easter recess, they will find the voters in favor of holding down government spending.

One top White House aide has received several suggestions that the administration sponsor a "sound dollar" campaign to mobilize public opinion in the fight against heavy federal expenditures.

While the administration feels that such a campaign would be highly desirable and effective, it believes the program should be sponsored and organized by private citizens on a bipartisan basis.

As for the chances that the budget actually will be balanced at the end of the next fiscal year, one expert admitted that the odds are 2 to 1 against that goal being achieved.

But administration officials believe that public opinion could swing Congress into more of a budget-balancing mood. They noted the Democrats have cut back their original housing and airport aid bills.

Despite the administration confidence that public opinion backs a balanced budget, a spot check by United Press International showed that most House members are receiving only light to moderate mail in favor of government economy.

Meet to Polish Grand Rapids Metropolis Plan

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — City officials were meeting today to polish up an ambitious program designed to create a new metropolis by combining Grand Rapids with five suburban communities.

The proposal was informally approved by the city commission last week. It is expected to receive formal passage at the commission meeting tomorrow and go immediately to the cities of East Grand Rapids and Wyoming, plus Grand Rapids, Paris and Walker Townships.

Grand Rapids would be obliged to create a new municipality if three of the five suburbs vote in favor of the move. Commission spokesmen last week indicated the proposal could be the subject of a special election before next February.

Probe for Cause of $200,000 Fire in Area Market

Planting Intentions to Be Surveyed

Poll to Check Farm Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department is preparing for one of the most important surveys of the year — a check on farmers' crop planting plans for the spring season.

The survey, which is made annually, provides both farm officials and farmers with important information in carrying out their respective jobs for the crop year ahead.

The department soon will send questionnaires to more than 100,000 representative farmers in all parts of the country. They will be asked to set down their own crop planting plans, based on conditions and thinking as of March 1.

Of special interest this year will be the indicated acreage of corn. For the first time since shortly after World War II, there will be no acreage allotments for this crop.

Under a new program authorized by Congress last year and approved by growers voting in a referendum last November, farmers will be free to grow all the corn they wish. All this grain will be subject to price support on the same basis.

Under the old acreage control program, corn grown on farms complying with allotments was supported at a higher rate than that grown on noncomplying farms.

Nation's Wheat Carryover to Hit 1.2 Billion

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department has estimated the wheat carryover on July 1 will rise to a record 1,285,000,000 bushels, and will shoot up another 200,000,000 bushels next year.

The department's publication, "The Wheat Situation," accounted for the carryover increase by July 1, 1960, by assuming a 1959-60 crop of 1,210,000,000 bushels, imports of about 8,000,000 bushels, and domestic and foreign consumption of 1,025,000,000 bushels.

The department said wheat and wheat flour exports this year are running heavier than expected earlier. The total for 1958-59 is expected to reach 450,000,000 bushels, about 48,000,000 bushels above last year but far short of the 1956-57 record of 550,000,000 bushels.

The use of wheat for food and feed is increasing this year, the department said. It estimated total domestic consumption at 619,000,000 bushels compared with 587,500,000 bushels last year.

Pig Rustlers Ride in Romeo, Farmer Finds

ROMEO — Pig rustlers are being sought today by Romeo State Police after they butchered and stole two registered Durocs from the Harold Werderman farm, 72970 Van Dyke.

The porkers weighing between 300 and 350 pounds were dismembered, loaded onto a child's sled and dragged to 34 Mile road where they were taken away by car or truck, police said.

Werderman discovered the loss Saturday night and suspected the theft had occurred sometime the night before.

Salk Polio Clinic Slated in Orion

Catholic Church Group Sponsors Shots 6 to 9 Wednesday

LAKE ORION — The Rosary Altar Society of St. Joseph Catholic Church here will conduct a polio clinic from 6 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at St. Joseph Parochial School, 703 N. Lapeer Rd.

Dr. Francis W. Dwyer, M.D., will administer the shots. Mrs. David Sutton, R. N., is the clinic chairman. She will be assisted by a group of registered nurses fro the parish.

Mrs. Sutton urges all adults and children who have not received their first immunization shots to do so now. All persons due for second, third or booster inoculations may also receive them at this time, she said.

Applicants for shots have been asked to call Mrs. Sutton at MYrtle 3-2879 or phone the rectory, MYrtle 2-6691 so that arrangements may be made to handle all comers.

Mrs. Lewis Yezbick, Altar Society president, states, "Anyone who is interested in being inoculated against polio may attend this clinic."

Second shots will be given April 8 and the third shot Nov. 4. Booster shots will be given one year after the third inoculation, Mrs. Sutton said.

Parents should accompany their children Wednesday in order to sign the required waiver, she added.

GUTTED BY BLAZE — A loss of $200,000 is estimated by Farmington Fire Chief Joseph DeVriendt as the result of a flash fire which swept through the National supermarket at 10-Mile and Orchard Lake roads Saturday evening. The store manager was injured when he tried to extinguish the flames before arrival of five area fire departments. It took them better than an hour to arrest the blaze which was still smoldering late Sunday. Pontiac Press Photo

Store Manager Only Casualty

5 Departments Battle Blaze Discovered at 7 Saturday Night

By MARY CELINSKE
Pontiac Press Correspondent

FARMINGTON — Cause of a $200,000 fire which gutted a National supermarket at 10-Mile and Orchard Lake roads Saturday evening has not yet been determined, according to Joseph DeVriendt, director of Farmington Department of Public Safety.

The blaze was discovered at about 7 p.m. in the rear of the store. Clerks hurried customers outside, while store manager Edward Waack, 47, of 20427 Angling Rd., Livonia, attempted to control the blaze with a hand extinguisher.

Flames and smoke spread so rapidly, however, that he was forced to flee. Waack, the only casualty, was burned about the face and hands. He was taken to Redford Community Hospital for treatment and released.

More than a hundred firemen from five surrounding communities fought the fire. A mutual organization of area fire departments brought pumpers from Farmington, Franklin Village, West Bloomfield, Novi and Farmington townships.

The roof and interior of the building was completely destroyed. Damage was estimated at $200,000 by Chief DeVriendt who is conducting an investigation. Firemen fought to save the Famous cleaners establishment next door to the market.

They brought the fire under control in less than two hours. They had eight pump trucks at the scene and played 20 hoses on the flames, about 150 feet high and shooting from windows some 20 feet.

A crowd of some 2,000 spectators gathered to watch the blaze. Police were forced to divert traffic at Grand River and Orchard Lake and at 10-Mile and Orchard Lake.

An added attraction for the crowds was the not-to-late arrival of Farmington's 1917 LaFrance fire engine amid loud wheezes, groans and sputters. A policeman ran ahead of the engine clearing people out of the way. It aided in putting out the blaze.

One fireman said "it may be old but its still the best pumper in the neighborhood."

Nikita Concedes to U.S. Farmers

Admits Americans More Efficient Than Russians in Agriculture

A copy of a speech he made recently before a Communist Party congress is being studied by the Foreign Agricultural Service here. It gives comparisons between the productivity of the Russian and American farmers, as calculated by the Soviets.

"In the Soviet Union," he said, "the expenditure of labor on state farms amounted to 6.8 times more and in collective farms 16.3 times more than in the United States."

He said that in raising hogs, for example, it took an average of 6.3 hours labor on U. S. farms and 43 hours on Russian state farms and 103 hours on collective farms. He claimed a much more favorable comparison in grain producing, saying it took 1.8 hours of Russian labor to produce what one hour would produce in this country. The ratio was said to be about 2-1 in milk production in favor of American farmers.

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. wheat and flour exports for the last half of 1958 totaled 204 million bushels, 5 per cent more than exports during the comparable period a year earlier.

Reporting this, the Agriculture Department said major increases in exports went to Brazil, India, Yugoslavia and the United Kingdom. But exports to Japan and Poland declined.

Two-Car Crash in Metamora

2 Men, 1 Woman Injured

METAMORA TOWNSHIP—Two men and a woman were injured in a two-car collision at 3 a.m. Sunday on Metamora road near the intersection of Thomas road here.

The injured were Royal H. Woodley, 53, 4507 Thomas Rd., Metamora; George L. Witt, 25, 1033 Stratton St., Pontiac; and Dorothy Pettibone, 22, 143 Second St., Metamora.

Woodley suffered internal injuries and was taken to Lapeer County General Hspital where he is listed in good condition today.

Witt sustained head cuts and Miss Pettibone, who was a passenger in Witt's car, minor injuries. Both were treated at Lapeer County General Hospital and released.

Woodley told Lapeer County sheriff's deputies that his car skidded and hit Witt's head-on on the opposite side of the road. No tickets were issued.

Crack in Cable Disrupts Area Phone Service

A crack in an underground cable sheath caused a three-hour interruption in long-distance telephone service yesterday in three Oakland County communities.

Long distance lines to 4,726 telephones in Commerce, 2,707 in Walled Lake and a number on the General Telephone Co. exchange in Milford were out of service between 1:30 and 4:30 p.m.

Water seeping into the sheath located under Elizabeth Lake road at the railroad track was blamed for the interruption of service, Raymond Storm, manager of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. office in Pontiac, said today.

Storm said that the manhole there was full of water, but added that local telephone service was hardly affected. Michigan Bell mobile units handled the emergency calls during the interruption and service was resumed in three hours, Storm said.

Van Dyke Miss Gives Painting

MSU Receives Canvas by Hungarian Artist Befriended by Dad

ROMEO — An oil painting entitled "Europe 1942" has been placed in the permanent art collection at Michigan State University, its donor, Miss Ann L. Nutzhorn, 76007 Van Dyke, reported today.

The canvas was one of many by Hungarian artist Francis de Erdley which Miss Nutzhorn loaned for exhibit in the University Art Gallery last month.

The gift of the prize-winning painting which depicts the horrors of war in Europe was made by Miss Nutzhorn in accordance with the wishes of her late uncle, James B. Giern. Giern had befriended the struggling young artist when he arrived in Detroit after fleeing from his homeland during World War II.

De Erdley gave Giern a number of his paintings and sketches to repay his benefactor for his kindness and support during his first year or so in this country, Miss Nutzhorn said. De Erdley has since become a painter of international stature and a professor of art at a California university.

Lakeville Woman's Job Is Full-Time Postmaster

LAKEVILLE — Being postmaster of this small community of about 300 is a full-time job for Mrs. Dan Haddrill, who is also a housewife, mother and grandmother.

Mrs. Haddrill, now 44, took over the job "for a few days" on April 8, 1940. Now, almost 19 years later, she is still at it and says she would be "lost" without it.

"When the former postmaster died in 1940, the postal inspector came around and asked if I'd try the job," Mrs. Haddrill recalled. "I was just out of the hospital and wasn't too enthusiastic about the idea."

Nevertheless, this charming, soft-spoken housewife left the warmth and comfort of her home to take over her new duties in the empty building on Millmine street which later housed Griffin's store.

"I froze up there," she said, "so I moved the office into my home in what used to be the kitchen."

Mrs. Haddrill said that this arrangement also had its disadvantages. People would be coming in or calling at any time of the day or night, and with two small boys, there would be toys on the floor and just general confusion most of the time, she said.

The solution to the situation came six years ago when the Haddrills built their new home. This proved to be the appropriate time to set up headquarters for Mrs. Haddrill in a building of her own.

So Haddrill, an excavating contractor, and son, Bob, built the one-room structure which now houses the Lakeville branch of the U.S. Post Office. It sits close to the highway in front of Haddrill home at 556 Lakeville Rd.

Located just west of the intersection of Rochester road, the green asbestos shingle building is a familiar landmark to all who drive by.

Truck drivers, who travel the route regularly, area residents on their way to work and sheriff's deputies all honk and wave when they see Mrs. Haddrill through her office window.

The post office is a bee-hive of activity most of the day with people coming in for their mail or to put up posters advertising the upcoming church supper or the dance being sponsored by an area school PTA. Currently there is even a painting by an aspiring young German artist in the front window.

Some women open their mail right after they get it out of the box and tell Mrs. Haddrill the news from members of their families. They tell her all about the new baby, the relative who is facing an operation or the trip they're planning to take.

The postmaster takes her public trust seriously and says she listens to the news but doesn't repeat it.

Mrs. Haddrill — Marion to her many friends — said for a long time she never had a substitute or took a day off. Now her mother, Mrs. Eber Baza, 65, takes over for her if she should fall ill or when she wants to go on a shopping trip.

Even after she puts in an eight-hour day, Mrs. Haddrill still has time to take an evening course in bookkeeping at Oxford Area Community High School.

"The post office bookkeeping system was all set up when I took over, but I wanted to learn more about it," she said enthusiastically.

Her son Bob, now 25, is married and lives in Oxford with his wife, Gwen, and small daughter, Kim. Her younger son, Charles, is almost 15.

"It's a busy life," Mrs. Haddrill admits," but one I wouldn't trade for anything."

Exchange Teacher to Speak at Romeo

ROMEO — John Simpson, exchange teacher from England, will be the guest speaker at tonight's meeting of the Romeo Monday Club at the home of Mrs. Fred W. Schanck, 209 W. St. Clair St. here. The meeting will start at 8 p.m.

Simpson is currently teaching seventh grade in the junior high school at Oxford. He will compare education in England and the United States from his own experience as a teacher at a boy's school in England and at a public school here.

When SAC was organized in 1946, it had only three jet aircraft. Now it has thousands.

Panel Set Tonight by Commerce PTA

WALLED LAKE—A panel discussion, "What Parents Should Know About Our Schools," will be the topic at the Commerce PTA meeting tonight at 8 in the multi-purpose room of the school.

The speakers will be Clifford H. Smart, superintendent of schools; E. V. Ayres, principal of the senior high school; John C. Clark, treasurer of the Walled Lake Board of Education; and Mrs. Charles Scully, president of the Walled Lake PTA Council.

Following the discussion there will be a question and answer period.

Royal Oak Vote to Decide Tax

$4 Million Being Sought for School Operation, Construction This Year

ROYAL OAK — Resident voters here are going to the polls today to decide whether or not to provide $4,000,000 for school operation and construction purposes during the year.

Superintendent James C. Covert said today's vote will ask authority to spread five mills above the legal debt for operating expenses for 1959-60. Also, he said, it asks authority to spread two mills over the limit for the next five years to construct new schools, improve health and safety facilities, acquire sites and for furnishing and equipping schools.

Each mill is roughly equivalent to $1 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation. The present rate is 18.38 mills. The increase if approved by voters, would raise it up to 25.38 mills.

Royal Oak now owes $8,300,000 for schools, Covert said. None of the money being sought in this vote will go toward paying off the present debt, he said, explaining that it will be covered by millage already approved by voters on two previous occasions.

The price paid per pupil in 1957-58 was $328.54. This dropped to $320.64 for 1958-59. This was the result of curtailed spending necessitated by the state's cutting back on its school aid program, Covert said.

Doris Stauffer, Sid Hall Married in Waterford

WATERORD — Doris Stauffer and Sid Hall were married in an afternoon ceremony Saturday at the Dixie Baptist Church here.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stauffer of 4296 Marcus St. here. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne B. Hall of 3062 Whitfield Dr., Waterford Township.

Her fingertip-length veil of silk illusion was held in place by a tiara of tiny pearls. She wore a matching pearl necklace and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and pink roses with loops of white stramers.

Matron of honor duties were performed by the bride's sister, Mrs. Richard Campbell of Drayton Plains. Bridesmaids were Kathy Haynes of Waterford and Mrs. Lance Fischer of Flint.

Serving as best man was Richard Gaylock of Waterford Township. Ushers were James Gaylock and Don Henderson, both also of Waterford Township.

The newlyweds are honeymooning in Northern Michigan and will reside at Andersonville road upon their return in about a week.

Probe for Cause of Liner-Tanker Collision Sunday

NEW YORK (AP)—Coast Guard investigators today were trying to find the cause of a collision between the American Export luxury liner Constitution and the Norwegian oil tanker Jalanta.

The bow of the tanker was sheared off but remained afloat.

The liner received a gash in her bow about 8 feet above the water line, 40 feet long and 15 feet wide.

Both ships made port without help after the collision unday outside New York harbor.

Greece Started Blackball Idea

In Early Days, White or Black Balls Denoted For-or-Against Votes

WASHINGTON — Votes have been cast and counted in many ways since civilized man first needed to decide a common issue.

Methods have varied from the Barbarians' clash of sword on shield to paper complexities of secret ballot systems, says the National Geographic Society.

Early ballots were bits of clay, pebbles and shells. At one time Roman law decreed the use of carved wooden counters.

In classical Greece, white or black balls were dropped into a urn to denote for-or-against votes. Hence the modern term "blackball."

The click of levers in the United States voting booths on election day sounds the latest advance in efficient machine-age devices.

But simple pictures and symbols representing individuals, parties, and policies are still used in many parts of the world to record the will of peoples just learning to take part in elective government.

France's recent constitutional referendum in overseas dependencies posed many practical problems, particularly in war-torn Algeria. In some areas, rebels took village hostages in futile attempts to force an election boycott.

The French authorities prepared white and purple ballots to signify a simple "yes" or "no" on the constitution's acceptance. Nevertheless, complications arose. Misunderstandings led some voters to turn in both white and purple ballots.

Firefighter Forgets to Watch His Pants

Five Other Senators, 5 Braves Still Unsigned

Sievers, Cerv Top Holdouts

By The Associated Press

Roy Sievers, Bob Cerv, Albie Pearson and five members of the National League champion Milwaukee Braves headed a list of 21 major league holdouts today.

Eight of the 16 teams reported all present or accounted for as the clubs continued their spring drills under a full head of steam.

The Washington Senators, with six, and Braves, with five, topped the holdout list among the other eight clubs. In the American League, Kansas City has three and Baltimore two. San Francisco has two, and St. Louis, Philadelphia and Los Angeles one each in the National League.

Sievers, who received an estimated $38,000 last year—highest in Washington history—and Pearson, the American League Rookie of the Year, are two big ones Senators President Calvin Griffith is trying to land.

He also is at odds with right-hander Pete Ramos, the subject of a reported trade with the New York Yankees, outfielder Jim Lemon, and minor leaguers Jim Delsing and Jose Valdivielso.

Sievers batted .295, with 108 runs batted in and 39 home runs, while Pearson hit .275 after a slow start.

Cerv poses a similar headache to Kansas City General Manager Parke Carroll. Reports from both sides admit that there is a wide difference in salary desires. Cerv batted .305, with 38 homers and 104 RBI's for the A's in 1958, playing a month with a broken jaw.

Carroll also seeks to sign infielder Hec Lopez and right-hander Ned Garver, who had a 12-11 mark last year. Lopez hit .261.

Bad Boy Billy Loes, who reportedly isn't destined to stay with Baltimore, and infielder Bobby Avila, are delinquent Orioles.

Avila was acquired from Cleveland during the winter, after hitting .253 for the Indians. Loes, suspended and fined by the Orioles for his not-so-funny burlesque of the spit ball rule last summer, had a 3-9 record.

First baseman Joe Adcock and relief pitcher Don McMahon head the Braves' list. Adcock, platooned with Frank Torre, hit .275 while McMahon had a 7-2 record as the ace of the Milwaukee bullpen. Del Rice, the reserve catcher who hit .223 in 43 games, and infielder Casey Wise, also refuse to sign.

Gene Conley is the fifth Brave unsigned. He is reported on the way to the Phils if General Manager John McHale can work out a deal with Philadelphia GM John Quinn. Conley has refused to leave the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Assn. until after the championship playoffs. Conley had an 0-6 mark last year.

Pitchers Al Worthington, 11-7, in 1958, and Ray Monzant, 8-11, are the two San Francisco holdouts. Los Angeles has pitcher Rene Valdes, who spent 1958 with the Montreal Royals of the International League, on the holdout list. Valdes posted a 15-14 record with the Royals.

Utility-man Dave Philley, a .309 hitter for the last place Phils, is the only unsigned on Quinn's list. Pitcher Frank Barnes, who was 1-1 with the St. Louis Cards, and 7-6 with Omaha of the American Assn. last year, is the one Card unsigned.

Rick's Absence Lends Credence to Possibility

Maxwell Is Top Bait; Players Get in Light Work Yesterday

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

LAKELAND, Fla. — Five days of rain is old news for Florida, in training camps, but there is suspicion hovering over the Henley Field clubhouse that some other news in the form of trades may be brewing in regard to the Tigers.

Players themselves are aware of the trade atmosphere and a few have ventured to ask, "hear anything, and who might be involved?"

The absence of acting general manager Rick Ferrell for several days apparently is the basis for the trade winds.

Because of continuous rains which have washed out three days of practice, there is reason to believe that Ferrell is using the inactivity on practice fields to visit a few nearby offices, including those of the Cardinals in St. Petersburg, the Redlegs and White Sox in Tampa, and the Braves at Bardenton.

What the Tigers want from any of these teams has everyone second guessing even the rumors. But that's the usual activity on rainy days in baseball training camp.

Yesterday the Tigers did manage to get some short limbering-up workouts under dark skies and on a water-soaked field.

Manager Bill Norman postponed intra-squad activity until mid-week. By Thursday he hopes to have a lineup to start against the Washington Senators in the exhibition opener at Orlando on Saturday.

Lefthander Hank Aguirre, who reported to camp earlier than any of the other pitchers, got the bulk of the batting practice work, along with Paul Foytack.

Aguirre was throwing hard and he had many of the batters who came up to the plate for the first time fooled.

"That ball looked like a little pill coming up there," said Harvey Kuenn who got his first chance in the batting box since signing his $40,000 contract last week.

Kuenn, who moved to the outfield last year from his old shortstop position, said he felt in tip-top shape, was looking forward to another good season. He finished with a .319 batting average last season. However, since he was moved out of the leadoff position in the batting order his production in total number of hits and extra base knocks dropped. His name has often been mentioned in trade talks, but recently with reluctance.

The name of Charley Maxwell seems to be the strongest as swapping bait. The Paw Paw, Michigan, left hander fell in all departments last season. His average has dropped consistently from .326 in 1956 to .276 in 1957 and .272 in 1958. His home run output also fell from 28 to 24 to 13 in the same three seasons, as well as his output of doubles, triples and singles.

Maxwell was one of the last to report to camp and he is not as trim as some of the others who reported minus excess pounds. Lou Berberet, Billy Hoeft and Larry Osborne all came back lighter.

Berberet who reported to past training camps with the Yanks, Senators and Red Sox as heavy as 240 pounds, appeared in good shape at 195. This is the same weight Osborne is carrying. Last spring he came in at 220.

Norman said he was going to give Osborne every chance at first base and possibly for the outfield. At Charleston in the American Association he hit .287 and 97 runs batted in, with 19 homers included, among his hits.

There is a definite absence of power hitters in the Detroit farm organization and Osborne is considered one of the longer clubbers.

Pistons Come to Life as Wings Are Beaten

Cagers Defeat Cinci Buddies for 9th Time

Shue and McMillon Hot; Syracuse Scores Record 140, Hawks Win

DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Pistons snapped a three-game losing streak yesterday and kept alive a faint hope of catching the second place Minneapolis Lakers by downing the Cincinnati Royals 117-101.

The victory gave the Pistons their ninth National Basketball Association win in 12 meetings with the Royals. The Pistons now trail the Lakers by 3½ games, with the two teams still having two games left with each other.

The Pistons put away the game early by running up a 46-34 lead midway through the second period and coasting the rest of the way.

Dick McGuire came up with one of his best performances of the year, dumping in 14 points and adding a season-high 15 assists.

Thirteen is the "lucky number" for Bob Pettit of the St. Louis Hawks if he is to set a new National Basketball Association season scoring record.

The 6-foot 9-inch ex-Louisiana State ace must average only 13 points in his remaining six games to surpass the N.B.A. mark of 2,001 points set last season by George Yardley—not too difficult a task considering the fact he has been averaging 29.2 points per game all season.

He'll set a new standard of 2,099 for the season if he maintains his 29.2 average for the rest of the campaign. An average of 13 a game would give him 78 more or enough to top Yardley's mark by one point.

The Syracuse Nationals set a scoring record for the Syracuse War Memorial Auditorium by beating the New York Knickerbockers, 140-115, and the Minneapolis Lakers defeated the Philadelphia Warriors, 100-98, at Camden, N.J., in other games.

Skaters Falter at Chicago, 3-1 After Howe Tally

Bathgate Scores 33rd Goal Tying Ranger Record

CHICAGO (UPI)—Gordie Howe fired his 27th goal of the season last night to save the Detroit Red Wings from a shutout as the Chicago Black Hawks downed the Wings 3-1.

The victory, first in four games with Detroit, stretched Chicago's margin on second place in the National Hockey League to three-and-half games.

Howe got the first goal of the game in the fourth minute of the opening period. Ron Murphy got his 17th goal of the season 22 seconds later to tie the score.

The clubs went into the middle period at a 1-1 deadlock after goalie Terry Sawchuk had to stop a bombardment of 20 shots for Detroit compared to only two for Chicago goalie Glen Hall.

Rookie Earl Balfour fooled Sawchuk from about five feet for Chicago's second tally at 14:16 of the second period. The Hawks were a man short at the time.

Sawchuk was forced to make 36 stops compared to only 21 for Hall.

Andy Bathgate collected No. 33 last night to earn the New York Rangers a 1-1 tie with the Toronto Maple Leafs. Andy's lone tally also enabled him to equal a club record for most goals scored in a single season. Bill Cook scored 33 in 44 games back in 1927 and reached that figure again during a 48-game season five years later.

Although hampered by an injured knee for the last month, Bathgate now is tied with Montreal's Dickie Moore and Jean Beliveau for the goal-scoring lead and trails Moore by only one point (74-73) in their battle for the National Hockey League scoring championship.

If the Rangers' "cover boy" wins the scoring title he will earn a $1,000 bonus from the league. He also can pick up an additional $2,000 if he is voted the NHL's most valuable player and earns a berth on the first all-star team.

In last night's game at Madison Square Garden, the Maple Leafs shot in front on a first-period goal by Ron Stewart. But Bathgate produced the equalizer in the second period when his 25-foot back-hander hit a skate near the crease and trickled into the right hand corner of the Toronto net.

Rangers seemed happy to settle for the stand-off for it enabled them to tie the idle Boston Bruins for third place.

Johnson Winner at Baton Rouge

BATON ROUGE (UP) — Husky Howie Johnson's philosophy of taking golf one hole at a time paid off in the $15,000 Baton Rouge Open tournament.

He was five strokes off the pace yesterday when he began the tough 36-hole grind, made necessary when rain delayed the start of the tournament one day.

After 18 holes, Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla., who shot a 68, still held a four-stroke edge on the 33-year-old San Marcos, Calif. professional, who marked up a two-under-par 70.

But on the final round, while the top men ran into trouble, Johnson calmly added his second 70 for 283 and a one-stroke victory over Hebert who soared to 75.

Bev Hanson Winner of Golden Triangle

Miss Hanson battled wind and rain at the PGA National course here yesterday to card a one-under-par 71 which gave her a 36-hole total of 146 and the Golden Triangle title.

In a three-way tie for second at 149 were Marilynn Smith of French Lick, Ind.; Mickey Wright of Bonita, Calif.; and Wiffi Smith of St. Clair, Mich.

Former Chief Has Fine Year as Prep Coach

Dan Searle, who won PCH varsity letters in football, basketball and baseball, has just concluded a 12-4 season for Cement City HS, a Class D school near Jackson. Because Cement City is not in a league, it has met and beaten many "C" teams, Searle says.

Dan was a pro baseball pitcher in the minors, for several years following a bright prep mound career. He was graduated in 1958 at Eastern Michigan University, and became grid assistant at Cement City last fall. He is also head baseball coach and teaches several classes.

Searle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Searle of Drayton Plains and his wife is a former Pontiac girl, Dorothy Rice. They have a son and daughter.

Buds Go After Pfeiffer Mark

Match-Game Champs on ABC Lanes Tonight, at St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The national champion match-game Budweisers of St. Louis will take to the lanes in the American Bowling Congress tournament tonight in an effort to overtake the pace-setting Pfeiffer Beer team of Detroit.

The world-famous Budweisers, who have an average over 1,100, are headed by the great Don Carter. The shufflin' man is the first to bowl three consecutive 1,900 series in ABC competition, hitting 1,909 in 1951, 1,932 in 1952 and 1,920 in 1953.

The other top clubs on display are the Airport Bowl team of St. Louis, Bel Mateo Bowl Masters of San Mateo, Calif., the Italian Swiss Colony of San Francisco, and Twin City Oil Co., of Paterson, N.J.

Spartans Win Crown Hard Way

By The Associated Press

The main event, Michigan State's Big Ten title-clinching victory, is basketball history today as a half-dozen other teams plunge into the battle for the conference runner-up spot.

The powerful Spartans, now ranked No. 8 in the national Associated Press poll, won like true champions. MSU defeated defending champion Indiana 86-82 Saturday in Bloomington, Ind. — previously a Spartan graveyard.

The victory, the Spartans' first after eight straight losses in Bloomington, boosted MSU to a 10-2 conference mark.

Another reward for coach Forddy Anderson's five was a trip to the NCAA eastern regionals in Evanston, Ill., March 13-14.

Illinois assumed an early advantage for second honors by using Capt. Roger Taylor's clutch basket with 17 seconds left for a 72-70 victory over Iowa in Iowa City. The Illini, now in the second spot, can claim that position by winning their last two games. A split assures them of a tie.

Northwestern won its third straight away victory, slipping past cellar-dwelling Wisconsin 86-82 in Madison; Ohio State smothered Michigan 106-83 in Columbus; and Purdue dumped Minnesota 67-55 in Lafayette.

This left Northwestern, Iowa and Purdue with 6-6 records, a half-game behind Illinois' 7-5. Ohio State deadlocked Michigan for sixth place with 6-6.

Indiana's Hoosiers, who have surprised everyone with four home losses this year, are 6-7. They and Minnesota (5-7) are out of second place contention.

Johnny Green and Bob Anderegg each had 20 points for MSU.

Three games will be played tonight. Illinois is at Michigan, Ohio State visits Minnesota and Michigan State entertains Wisconsin.

Class B Tonight at PNH

City Cagers Start Playoffs

The annual City League basketball playoffs begin tonight with a pair of Class B games at Pontiac Northern. Playoffs in all four classes are double elimination.

Tournament action in Classes A, C and D starts Tuesday night with the Lakeside Royals shooting for their 3rd straight Class A city title.

Four teams are entered in each class. In the Class D tourney, the field consists of the first three teams in the American loop and the Pledges, who won the regular season race in the National division.

The Class A winner qualifies for the state MRA tournament which will be held in Pontiac April 3-4. Champions in Classes B and D enter the Inter-City Recreation tourneys the week of March 16 in Detroit. There is no post-season playoff activity in Class C.

Lions Promote 'Spike' Briggs

DETROIT (AP)—Walter O. (Spike) Briggs has gone up in rank in the Detroit Lions' front office.

The Lions yesterday announced the election of the former Detroit Tigers' president to the executive committee of the football club. Briggs has been a Lions' director since 1951.

Finland Olympic Favorite

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (AP)—Finland's small but potent team of skating, ski jumping and cross-country stars was favored today to build its already heavy domination in North American championships testing the 1960 Winter Olympics site.

Juhani Jarvinen won a world record 1500 meter skating victory yesterday in 2 minutes 6.3 seconds and quickly followed that with a second place in the 10,000 meter grind and a combined skating title.

Kalevin Karkinen next triumphed in the 80-meter special ski jumpings with crowd-awing grace in the Finnish-developed flying-V jumping style. His longest leap was 290.3 feet.

Tene Kotlarek, 18-year-old Duluth, Minn., college freshman and called by the Finns the first American to master their jumping style, finished a close second to Karkinen in the 80-meter jumps.

Norway's Knut Johannesen won his second skating crown with a 16:42.7 time in the 10,000 meters, the fastest ever in America for the event. Johannsen won the 5,000 meter race Saturday and finished second to Finland's Jarvinen in the combined skating championship.

Tournament Time Has Arrived

Districts Begin Tuesday in Prep Cage Marathon

Pontiac Central, Holly, Berkley Leading County Hopes for State Titles

That annual "March madness" settles upon the state of Michigan for the next three weeks with the arrival of the high school basketball tournament.

Beginning tomorrow at numerous sites throughout the state and ending March 21 in MSU's Jenison Fieldhouse in East Lansing, prep cage teams will gun for state championships in classes A, B, C and D.

District tourneys, scheduled at 89 different locations in Michigan, will take up all of this week's activity. The following week it's regional action, then come the state quarter-finals, semis and finals.

Pontiac Central, Saginaw Valley champion and almost certain to be voted Michigan's No. 1 Class A team in the final news wire polls, is rated a solid chance to win its first state crown.

Berkley another strong Oakland County quintet and winner of the Inter-Lakes title, also ranks high on the Class A list. Holly, runnerup in the Wayne-Oakland race this season, looks like the county's best bet in the Class B division.

Chiefs Carry Proud 3-Year Mark

Great Valley Record

SAGINAW VALLEY
Final Standings

	League W	League L	All Games W	All Games L
Pontiac Central	9	1	14	1
Flint Northern	8	2	12	2
Flint Central	7	3	11	3
Bay City Central	2	8	7	8
Arthur Hill	2	8	5	10
Saginaw	2	8	4	11

When the Chiefs of Pontiac Central thrashed Saginaw 74-56 last Friday night to earn sole possession of the Saginaw Valley Conference basketball crown, they completed a most enviable three-year league record.

But beyond that, it gave them the handsome mark of 25 conference wins in their last 30 games —truly a remarkable feat in a league as tough as the Saginaw Valley.

Two seasons ago the Chiefs were unbeaten in 10 loop games. Last season they posted a 6-4 mark for a 3rd place finish and this year they came back to gain the title with a 9-1 record.

Altogether, that gives them a three-year Valley slate of 25 victories and only five defeats.

PCH was thoroughly convincing and very impressive in its business-like disposal of the Trojans last Friday on the Saginaw court.

The Chiefs dominated the backboards, grabbing 67 rebounds to just 31 for Saginaw, and center Harrison Munson set two PCH rebounding marks—a single game record and a season standard.

Munson hauled in 21 rebounds against Saginaw, a new one-game record, and hiked his season's total to 277 in 15 games for an 18.4 average, also a school mark.

Both records were previously held by big Hudson Ray and were set during the title-winning campaign of two years ago.

Munson accomplished these feats despite the fact that he sat out the 1st quarter in nearly every game during the regular season.

The Chiefs, who swing into Class A district tournament action this Saturday at Southfield, will be honored by the Pontiac Lions Club Wednesday at 12 noon in the Hotel Waldron.

PCH players and coach Van Ryzin will be the guests of honor in recognition of their Valley championship at the Lions' weekly luncheon.

Relyea Valley Champ

Pontiac Central's Duke Relyea won the Saginaw Valley 175-pound crown and Mike Cosgrove of Walled Lake beat out Waterford's Dave Sherman for the 112-pound Inter-Lakes title in the annual league meets held last weekend.

The Chiefs wound up 2nd behind deadlocked co-champions Flint Northern and Bay City Central with 54 points. PCH edged out Flint Central which had 52 for the best Pontiac showing yet in the event. Northern and Bay City each had 85.

Walled Lake and Waterford had some good individual showings but failed to be contenders in the I-L meet at Farmington. Berkley took honors there with 106 points, the host Falcons had 82, defending champion Southfield followed with 76, Walled Lake had 51, Waterford 37 and Van Dyke 29.

Relyea, the Central captain, had to go into an overtime period to triumph 2-1 in reaching the finals. Then he easily handled Bob Clark of Bay City 5-0 almost posting a pin.

Jerrell Reid and Glenn Sherman were the other Chief finalists. Reid got pinned while trying for a takedown while Sherman dropped an 8-3 verdict. Six Pontiac boys had 3rd places.

Pontiac Central was awarded the tournament in 1960.

Berkley placed eight of its 12 entries in the finals and had little trouble following three victories in the 1st five bouts. The Bears won six of the weight titles, Farmington took three and Southfield two.

Berkley was awarded the I-L trophy while all individual victors received medals. Ribbons went to all boys in the top four.

Walled Lake had Bob Christian and Jim Teddy as runners up, Wes Cottrell, Gary Esklinen and John Van Sicklen in 3rd place. Rick Sherman, Dan Morgan, Mike Hubbell and Bob Akerly had 3rds for Waterford.

The summary:

95—Dave Butler (S) decisioned Jack Osmon* (B).
103—Gary Toivonon (B) defeated Dan Hendryx (F).
112—Cosgrove won over Dave Sherman.
127—Jerry White (B) pinned Jack Calihan (F).
133—Walt Currier (B) downed Jim Jarvis (S).
138—Jerry Cassell (F) decisioned Bob Minton (S).
145—Dan Oldham (B) pinned Christian.
175—Bill Florence (B) pinned Teddy.

Pontiac Keglers Dominate Early Women's Leaders

Pontiac keglers held most of the early leads today following the 1st three daughter, Nancy, Joan and City Women's bowling tournament being held at Montcalm Centre.

At the same time, more local men moved into the top group in doubles actual competition at the state men's event at Detroit.

General Fabricating rolled a 2889 edging D & D Cleaners by two pins as the pacesetter in team play, Geraldine Payne and Lois Tapley combined for 1231 in doubles and Opal Ward led the way in all events actual with 1534 completing the Pontiac front-runners.

Fran McCallum of Drayton Plains has rolled the top actual game thus far with 228 and her handicap made it 267 matching Stella Grapp of Pontiac.

There are three more weekends of action remaining at the same site with keglers from throughout the area competing.

Pontiac now holds the 1st three places in doubles actual at the men's state where play continues through May 10.

Ron Rothbarth and George Chicovsky took over 1st previously with 1261. Over the past weekend, Augie Conte and Bill Bull rolled 1252 and Bob Liebler-Bob Gormong compiled 1245 to move in.

Ferndale X-Cel Industries clinched the team championship at the 9th annual Michigan State Elks annual Michigan State Elks Wom-Women's tourney by rolling a 2926. Grace Nelson and Martha Frisinger of Kalamazoo took doubles honors at 1230 and Irene Fought of Jackson won the singles title with 681.

4 Area Dogs DKC Winners

While out-of-state entries grabbed the best-of-show and group honors at Detroit Kennel Club's show, during the weekend, four area dogs were among the breed winners. Show was an all-breed affair, Saturday and Sunday.

Best-of-show was Ch. Holly Tree High Noon, 14-months-old black cocker spaniel, owned by Mrs. Jessie Logan, Wilmington, Del. Only state group winner was Ch. Uncus of Longworth (Longworth Kennels, Allegan) German shepherd, working group.

Area breed winners included:

TO A MAN ON HIS WAY UP...
The Prudential
INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA
Dear Sir:
If you have a bright future ahead of you, you will welcome this good news about a remarkable new plan of insurance protection.
Designed especially for a man on his way up, this new life insurance plan provides the permanent protection you need — at a premium rate based on your expected income growth.
We call it the Modified Life 5-10 Policy because you pay only about 50% of the ultimate premium during the first 5 years, about 75% for the next five years, and the full premium thereafter. Studies indicate that this rate of premium increase parallels the rate of salary increase for many young men.
PROTECTION FOR THE FULL AMOUNT NOW . . . FULL PREMIUM LATER, AS YOUR EARNINGS INCREASE. And what's more, at age 50 you can take advantage of a special conversion privilege to pay up your policy by retirement time. Isn't this exactly the right kind of insurance for "a man on his way up?"
Sincerely,
Your Prudential Agent

Plan to Be Made on Succession

Meeting Will Consider Steps If Top Officials of State Killed

LANSING (AP)—Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams has called a meeting March 10 to figure out who would be governor if the chief executive and other top state officials were to die at about the same time.

The meeting also will try to agree on order of succession in case state legislators, judges and other public officials are killed.

"The explosive nature of the Berlin crisis has added a sense of urgency to state planning for continuity of government," Adams said.

Adams, chairman of the Commission on Continuity of Government, said the meeting was called to push plans for passage of a constitutional amendment to be placed on the spring election ballot.

The amendment would allow the Legislature to enact laws to provide for temporary succession of powers and duties.

The present rule of succession for governor goes from lieutenant governor, to secretary of state, to attorney general, to state treasurer to auditor general.

It is proposed that the Legislature add several more names to the line of succession. The thinking is that all of the top officials might be wiped out by one direct bomb hit.

Similar alternates are believed needed for other officials. One proposal would allow each legislator to name five alternates.

"Where would the state be in a crisis if the world suddenly erupted into a nuclear holocaust, destroying or incapacitating our state and local officials?" Adams asked. "At the very time we would need firm and immediate action, we would be leaderless."

Coffee Breaks Twice a Day Becoming Usual

WILLOW GROVE, Pa. (UPI)—The "coffee break" not only has become generally accepted in U. S. business operations, according to a recent survey, but more often than not there's more than one a day.

The National Office Management Association surveyed nearly 2,000 firms in the United States and Canada, it reports, and found that most of them now permit two coffee breaks in the working day, one in the morning and one in the afternoon, normally 15 minutes each.

Western America is more generous with coffee breaks than the East, the survey showed. In the West, 93 per cent of businesses checked allow two breaks; the Canadian average was 80 per cent.

For all firms checked in Canada and this country, the average was 81 per cent with regularly scheduled breaks. Fourteen per cent of the employers said they allowed workers to have coffee or other refreshment on a non-scheduled basis.

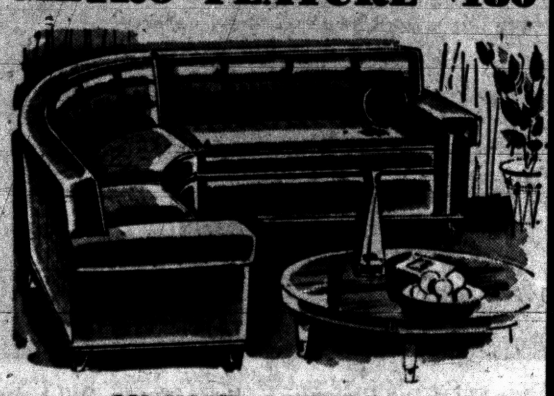

Major complaint: Workers did not breaks served as morale boosters. Major compalint: Workers did not get back to work promptly afterwards.

Scratch My Back

MIAMI, Fla. (UPI)—A back scratcher made up of four large wire bristle brushes has been installed at the bottom of the 550,000-gallon main tank of the Miami Seaquarium for the use of its porpoises, who love it.

When Madame Marie Curie discovered radium she was presented with a gram of radium purchased by American women for a hundred thousand dollars. In turn, she contributed the precious gram to scientists for further medical work.

College Plans New Program

Alma Changes Would Encourage Students in Creative Thinking

ALMA (AP)—Alma College is planning a revolutionary curriculum change aimed at stimulating creative thinking.

President Robert D. Swanson says the change will become effective next September and adds:

"We are trying to put legs on liberal arts education so it can walk in the 20th century."

Under the new program, superior students will be allowed to proceed more rapidly by substituting proficiency examinations for formal course work.

Seminars will be offered in major fields to prepare students for independent work. Creative projects will be required for graduation.

A new reading program will have all students reading the same books at the same time to provide a common intellectual experience.

"Americans," Swanson says, "have been properly concerned about the quality and effectiveness of the nation's educational efforts. This new program represents a response to the challenge to do a better job, especially for students of above-average competence."

Hoosier's Body Found at Jet Plane Crash Site

Murphy of South Bend, Ind., was covered from the river. The bodies of 11 of the 65 victims still are missing. Eight persons survived the crash.

Meyner Urges Concern for South America

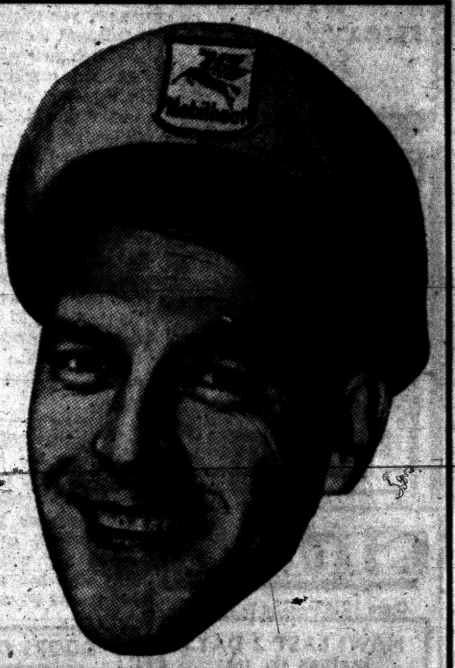

NEWARK, N. J. (UPI) — Gov. Robert B. Meyner calledlast night for increased trade, additional financial aid and better cultural relations with South America.

The Democratic governor, who returned from a South American tour last Friday, said on his weekly television show that one of the major U.S. diplomatic failings in South America seems to be that "we make them feel neglected."

"We sometimes give much more attention to Europe and the remainder of the world and fail to turn our attention to their needs," he said.

Bedroom Built-ins Can Be Luxurious

Lumber from the western pine area is excellent for built-ins that complement wall paneling. For example, you might wish to build a headboard for your bed in a wood to match your walls or, more elaborate, a combination headboard, bookshelves, and night table in a design that suits your room and inclination.

A cabinet alongside your bed can hold books, tissues, alarm clock, and a bedroom telephone. The bookshelves, fitted with a good reading light, can run across the top of the bed high enough to give good head room.

If the unit is to go over a double bed, fit it with two reading lights on separate switches. Reading in bed then becomes a pleasure rather than a source of eye strain.

The University of Michigan challenges the boasts of Florida citrus growers that they have the most health-giving foods. Michigan produces Vitamin C in its blackberries, cantaloupe, apples, grapes and watermelon. Which, they say, has considerable more zest than a Florida orange.

SHOOT-'EM-UP — Apparently there is no off-season on Wyoming's highway signs in the minds of trigger-happy hunters. This new sign, near Casper, had a lifetime of just three weeks.

Flint's Milner Hotel Bought by Lawyer

FLINT (UP)—A Flint hotel landmark has passed into new hands.

Atty. B. Morris Pelavin of Flint yesterday announced his purchase oft he 52-year-old Milner Hotel in downtown Flint. He said he will remodel the 140-room building.

The hotel was built in 1907. The Milner chain acquired it in 1940. Terms were not reevealed.

Charged With Growing Marijuana in Window

FITCHBURG, Mass. (AP) — James R. Snopley Jr., 37, was due in District Court today on a charge of cultivating and growing marijuana in a window box in his apartment.

Police Sgt. Warren Wade quoted Snopley as saying he tried smoking the plant in his pipe but all he got out of it was a sore throat.

Hospitals Find 'Golden Staph'

Fight It With Soapsuds; Overuse of Antibiotics Cause New Infection

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Hospitals, are resorting to their oldest weapon — cleanliness — to combat a serious wave of infections resulting from overuse of new antibiotic drugs.

The U. S. Public Health Service reports that the rub-and-scrub campaign is being pressed from coast to coast. It reflects genuine alarm among hospital officials about the rapid spread of drug-resistant germs that have caused more than 100 hospital epidemics in the past five years.

The germs are a variant of the common staphylococci, pus-forming organisms that cause boils, abscesses and other external and internal infections.

Doctors have coined the term "golden staph" to identify the variant, which is found primarily in the supposedly antiseptic surroundings of hospitals.

The "golden staph" germs not only are immune to the new antibiotic drugs — they actually seem to thrive on them.

Others say that hospitals in recent years have relied so heavily on the so-called miracle drugs to control infections that they have tended to become careless about old-fashioned sanitation.

For either or both of these reasons, golden staph germs have bred rapidly in hospitals. They are particularly menacing to newborn babies and their mothers, and to surgical patients.

Twenty per cent of new-born babies and five per cent of surgical patients in the average hospital develop some kind of staph infection.

In many cases, the infection may be as minor as a boil. But sometimes it is more serious, leading to pneumonia and death.

The Public Health Service is urging hospital officials to (1) cut down on unnecessary use of antibiotics; and (2) enforce sterner sanitation measures in all hospital operations, especially nurseries and surgery.

Underwater Trip Hobby for Many

Divers Find Ships That Date Back to 279 B.C. Off Italian Coast

ROME (UPI)—Winter weather gives thousands of underwater archeologists a chance to dry their treasures and plan for next year's ocean and lakebed searches.

Underwater archeology became a big hobby about a year ago in Italy and the number of enthusiasts, nearly all amateurs, has increased by several thousand.

They take their annual vacations at coastal and lakeside towns for the sole purpose of diving under water to look for ancient relics.

At present, they are cataloguing their finds, or checking with each other on some happy underwater hunting ground they may have missed. This new sport is hazardous in winter weather because of sudden storms and squalls.

Some of the major finds of the past season included:

—An ancient boat dating back more than 1,000 years, found in Lake Trasimeno, about 90 miles north of Rome.

—Scores of other shipwrecks of ancient origin at points along the Italian, Sardinian and Sicilian coasts. Off Syracuse, Sicily, for example, an entire Greek Navy of 200 warships and transports was discovered at the beginning of the year. This fleet, the authorities said, was probably sunk in the year 279 B. C.

West Berliners' Mood: Apprehension—No Fear

(United Press International Foreign News Editor Phil Newsom is on a tour of Europe and the Mideast. In the following dispatch from Berlin, he tells how the feeling there is one of being "apprehensive but unafraid" at this halfway point of the six months the Russians gave the Western Allies to get out of the city.)

By PHIL NEWSOM

BERLIN (UPI) — The Russian ultimatum to the Western Allies to get out of Berlin by May 27 has reached its halfway mark.

West Berliners are "apprehensive but unafraid."

Both they and their American allies here are convinced the Russians fully intend on May 27 to hand over to the Communist East Germans the land and air controls that are Berlin's lifelines.

American military sources here carefully avoid talk which might entangle them in a political situation, and they as carefully avoid talk which the Russians might interpret as threatening.

But their conversation leaves no doubt that military plans have been prepared for an emergency and that they believe they can carry them out.

PHRASE CARRIED OUT

It was an American briefing officer who coined the phrase "apprehensive but unafraid." Conversations by this correspondent with West Berlin business people bear him out.

Here, only a thin, at times almost imaginary, line divides east and west. Some places it runs along a quiet residential street. At others, it might be an impressive marker such as the Brandenburg Gate.

An East German customs officer stands guard there, amid rubble marked off on the one hand by ruins of the old Reichschancellory and on the other by the foundation which once was that of the American embassy.

But there is no one, either in East or West Berlin, who does not seem aware of the May 27 deadline, first announced by Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev three months ago and reiterated with threatening overtones in Moscow last week.

"It all depends on the Americans," is a recurrent phrase here. It is heard in the cafes, in stores, and it is also heard in the great, gray stone pile which is the Russian embassy in Communist East Berlin.

There, in a somber, high-ceilinged room, a Russian spokesman taps a well-manicured finger on a polished mahogany table and also says, "It all depends on the Americans."

They mean it in different ways. The West Berlin businessman means it because he hopes and believes the United States will stand firm in the face of Soviet threats. The businessman feels all alone here, a professed capitalist 110 miles inside the Communist zone.

MARKED MAN

If the Communists come in, he feels himself a marked man. He is committed, and so, regardless of what the Americans do, he will stay. And he hopes fervently the Americans will stay.

The Russian spokesman approached it from a different angle.

He reiterated frequently that he makes no official statement on Russian policy. The Russian embassy here will await the official interpretation of Khrushchev's latest speech for that.

But, he says, the Americans must make a concrete, constructive proposal. And he places special emphasis on the word "constructive."

The Allied Foreign Ministers Conference proposal, he says, was not constructive because it rejected the Russian proposals outright. He lists, not necessarily in this order, three problems to be settled. They are:

—Communications control.

—Berlin as a "free," demilitarized city.

—German confederation.

The Russians, he says, are handing controls over to the East Germans because they simply are sick and tired of them. He says a "free" Berlin is necessary to peace. He dismisses, for the moment, other frequent Soviet charges that West Berlin is a spy center.

WON'T ERUPT IMMEDIATELY

They do not believe it will erupt the moment the East Germans take over the communications controls.

Some do not even believe that Berlin is the real target of the Khrushchev campaign.

He believes the Russians know the Americans will not get out of Berlin and that therefore the Berlin issue almost could be described as a decoy.

He believes a necessity of Khrushchev's seven-year plan is a stabilized Eastern Europe, integrated permanently into the Soviet system.

On that basis what Khrushchev really wants is a separate peace treaty with an internationally recognized East Germany.

Grain Futures Trade Eases

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures opened on an easier tone at the Board of Trade today, with no immediate tendency to push upward after last week's general price gains.

There was some profit-taking on the strength of last week's high close.

Lack of bullish news developments apparently left traders cautious about implications of last Friday's government report of unexpectedly large amounts of grains under loan and its implications of possible scarcity of commercially available wheat later on.

At the end of the first hour wheat was unchanged to ½ lower, March $2.04¼; corn ⅛ lower to ⅜ higher, March old type contract $1.16⅜; oats ⅛ to ¼ higher, March 66⅛; rye unchanged to ⅜ lower, March $1.40; soybeans ⅛ to ⅜ higher, March $2.21⅜.

Pontiac Division Raises Engineers

De Lorean

John Z. De Lorean is named assistant chief engineer, in charge of advanced design, body, and paint trim sections. The appointment became effective Sunday.

Under the organizational realignment, J. P. Charles, assistant chief engineer, assumes charge of administration, chassis, engine, electrical, and heating, ventilating, and air conditioning sectons.

Mark J. Garlick assumes the duties of executive engineer in charge of experimental, quality control, specifications, and production contact sections.

De Lorean joined the Division in 1956 as director of advanced engineering. Prior to that he was employed for seven years by the engineering departments of Chrysler and Studebaker-Packard.

A native of Detroit, De Lorean studied at Lawrence Tech, Chrysler Institute, and the University of Michigan. He holds a B.S. degree in industrial engineering and a master's degree in automotive engineering.

Prices Edge Up in Heavy Trading

Gains of key stocks ran from fractions to a point. Scattered losers were in the same range. A number of pivotals were unchanged.

A few stocks stood out. General Tire continued its run-up, adding about 2. Heyden Newport also resumed its rise of Friday, gaining more than a point.

American Motors kept going on the recovery trail, recouping more than a point of recent losses. The major motormakers were mixed. Chrysler dipped a fraction. General Motors was firm.

Steels showed very little change. Bethlehem was off a fraction.

Electronics continued to advance solidly. Sperry Rand was up about a point and Raytheon more than that. Others in the group gained fractionally.

Lackawanna eased while Nickel Plate rose a fraction on word that the former was disposing of all its holdings in Nickel Plate.

A string of small gains were posted by aircrafts. On the plus side were United Aircraft, Boeing, Martin Co. and General Dynamics.

In an irregular rail section, Southern Railway was up more than a point while small losses were taken by New York Central and Baltimore & Ohio. Oils were narrowly mixed. Nonferrous metals were unchanged to lower.

Probe Delayed in $700,000 Fire at Huron Bowl

State fire inspectors and Waterford Township authorities have temporarily abandoned their investigation into the cause of the fire which destroyed the $700,000 Huron Bowl building last Monday.

According to a statement this morning by Lewis Goff, assistant township fire chief, "Inspectors have done all they can at the present time."

"They will now wait for some of the rubble to be cleared away before continuing their search for clues leading to the cause of the fire," he explained.

Goff further stated that the movement of wreckage would be delayed until the insurance company approved it.

Firemen and inspectors have spent many hours combing the rubble this week. No official word on findings of the intense investigation will be released by authorities until the investigation is closed, Goff stated.

Firemen still presumed the blaze started somewhere in the center of the building in the 300 Lounge and spread to the bowling alleys.

Open Hearings on Jobless Bill

Williams, Utah Senator Debate Measure to Put Unemployed to Work

DETROIT (UPI)—Hearings on a bill aimed at putting some of the nation's 4,700,000 unemployed back to work opened today with a debate on Michigan's economic plight, between Sen. Wallace Bennett (R-Utah) and Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

Bennett claimed a bill under study by the committee which would provide $389,000,000 for area redevelopment in chronically depressed areas, would only provide "a drop in the bucket" toward what Michigan needs to solve its economic woes.

Bennett, who said he was "disturbed" that no representatives of industry were at the hearing, said "there must be other considerations."

Williams, in response to sharp questioning by Bennett, said "Michigan's future is secure," but added that federal aid was needed to help secure it. The hearing was called by Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill), sponsor of the area redevelopment bill.

Stewart-Glenn to Open New Store

Stewart-Glenn Furniture Company celebrates its 42nd year in Pontiac with a new store located at 1680 South Telegraph. The brick-front building contains 10,000 feet of floor space.

John F. Stewart and Howard Glenn opened their South Saginaw street store on September 2, 1917. Stewart, at, 81, is still active in the business. Glenn is retired.

Bob Glenn, the founder's son has charge of the warehouse store on Franklin road. Manager Addison Oakley has been associated with the firm from 1935.

Grand opening week is scheduled for Wednesday through March 10. The store will be open that week from 9 to 9 on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Monday and Tuesday. On Saturday the store closes at 5:30.

An innovation is a coffee bar for the use of both customers and employes. A table is also provided in this room for children of customers to play with crayons and coloring books.

Several new lines of furniture and a completely new group of accessories are features of the Telegraph road store. A collection of the accessories is displayed on open shelves. Many of the accessories are imports.

Both Early American and contemporary furniture are being featured. Among the manufacturers of the Early American line are Sprague Carlton, Jamestown-Sterling, Shaw and Conover. The contemporary lines include Founders "Charter Group"; Broyhill "Expression Group," and Dillingham "Samara."

Lamps, bedding, carpets and rattan furniture are also featured in the new merchandise.

But Cadillac Plant Shuns $26,000 Offer

Town Bets Firm Can Stay

CADILLAC (AP)—A $26,000 desperation gamble to keep this town's B. F. Goodrich Co. plant in operation looked like a lost cause today.

Goodrich President Clyde O. DeLong said at Akron, Ohio, the factory would have to be closed May 1 and there was nothing else to be done.

DeLong's statement put a damper on the hopes of disturbed townspeople who are trying to save the rubber plant, once the towns' largest employer.

Plans for a citizens' fund drive were disclosed at a mass meeting of 1,150 persons Saturday night.

FORFEIT OR RETURN

Some $26,000 was raised to be put up in the form of a wager that Goodrich could stay here at a profit.

The money would stand as a forfeit if Goodrich failed to make the grade financially for another year. If the company made a profit, the money would return to the donors.

Closing of the plant would be a severe economic blow to this northwest Michigan industrial and tourist center.

A community of 11,000 population, Cadillac alerady has 1,800 jobless. The Goodrich plant employs 200 of the 2,200 industrial workers in the town. At one time, During World War II, it employed 700.

The gambling plan received enthusiastic support at Saturday's rally in the high school building. The local Chamber of Commerce, city commission and United Rubber Workers Local 193 all backed the idea.

Leaders of the drive indicated pride in the results.

"We're not confident it will hold Goodrich," said industrialist Floyd J. McCarthy. "But the turnout gives evidence of the fact we're a long way from dead."

Said Mrs. Henry Ensign, a factory inspector with 12 years seniority on the job:

'WONDERFUL EXAMPLE'

Don Gabrielson, a supervisor for 22 years, called it "wonderful" as an example of "community spirit" and said that this itself might serve to bring in some other industry.

Six Die in State Traffic Mishaps

Early Sunday Crashes Take 5 Lives; 3 Tots Die in Fire

By The Associated Press

Six persons died in traffic accidents on Michigan highways over the weekend with three early Sunday collisions accounting for five deaths.

The Associated Press wekend fatality count started at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

State police said the heavy Sunday death toll brought the total highway fatality count thus far this year to 135, compared to 184 traffic deaths at this time last year.

William F. McIntosh, 57, of Custer; Martha M. Hickok, 22, of Walhalla, and Donna Jean Raspotnik, 22, of Fountain, died Sunday in a two-car collision on U.S. 10 east of Custer in Mason County.

Barbara Borski, 21, of Detroit, was killed Sunday when a car in which she was riding went out of control and struck a bridge abutment in Detroit.

Julian H. Herrera, 29, of Shelby, was killed Sunday, in a thre-car collision on U.S. 31 near Hart in Oceana County.

Gerald M. Ginzel, 17, of Detroit, was killed Friday night when he was struck by a car while crossing a Detroit street.

Improvers Will Have to Correct Their Ways

SOUTH KINGSTON, R.I. (AP) —Six weeks ago the Town Council appointed a four-man committee to study means of improving the mechanics of municipal government.

The committee has not yet held any meetings.

Chairman Alexander J. McKenzie said the four never seem to be in the same place at the same time.

Board Meeting Tonight at Waterford Township

Although the Waterford Township Board will meet at 7:30 p.m. today there is nothing of importance on the agenda, according to Supervisor Elmer Johnson.

However zoning changes, approval of development plats, and construction bids will be received for blacktopping two township roads at next Monday's meeting.

Berlin has started a $20,000,000 building program to enlarge its Technical University, where engineering personnel are trained. Berlin, with its seven universities and numerous vocational and engineering schools, is Germany's largest university city.

These Students Can Go Skiing Right on Campus

DULUTH, Minn. (UPI) — The Duluth Branch of the University of Minnesota is one of the few colleges in the United States where students can go skiing right on campus.

The ski area isn't going to compete with Sun Valley, Aspen or any other such resort, but it furnishes plenty of action for the beginner or intermediate skier.

The 600-foot slope is located on a 190-acre section of the campus called Rock Hill. Ski instructors say it's ideal for teaching beginners.

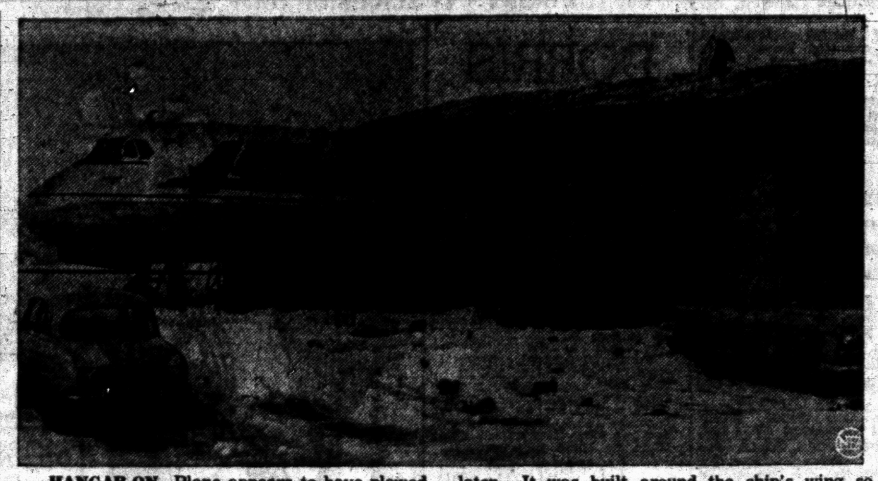

The ski area is mostly a student project, although the school has more elaborate plans when funds become available.

The students have built a ski tow and a small chalet which they often use for parties. Later, a permanent warming house will be built along with a U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey seismograph station.

Getting Started Early

HANGAR-ON—Plane appears to have plowed right through wooden building at the Lansing Airport. The airliner did skid into a snowbank while landing but the hangar entered the picture later. It was built around the ship's wing so that workmen could keep warm while making repairs.

Victim of Theft Fined

CHESTERFIELD, England (UPI)—Robert E. Archer reported the theft of his rifle to police, who promptly charged him with being careless with firearms. Archer was fined $14.

Stalking Conductor Called Dissonant Also

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—The Memphis Orchestral Society renewed the contract of conductor Vincent de Frank today but warned him to "keep a grip on himself."

De Frank threw down his baton during a concert last week and staked off the stage, complaining in a loud voice that the woodwinds and violins were not together.

Princess Anne Sick

LONDON (UPI)—Eight-year-old Princess Anne has been sick in bed with the flu for the past several days, Buckingham Palace announced last night.

$50 Taken in Break-In at Eatmore Restaurant

Some $50 was stolen from the Eatmore Restaurant, 921 W. Huron St. some time last night, according to Waterford Township police.

Entrance to the one-story building was gained by breaking a window in the rest room, and the money was taken from the coin box in the cigarette machine.

The National Automobile Club says more accidents occur on Saturday than any other day of the week.

Aztec Players Chased Viewers for Their Reward

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — You're sitting in a stadium watching a football game when 22 helmeted, padded players rush into the stands and grab all the valuables in sight.

That would seem stronge — not to mention frightening — to most Americans, but to the ancient Aztecs it was all part of a game called tlachtli.

According to anthropologist H. B. Nicholson of the University of California at Los Angeles, after each goal scored in tlachti, the players would make a "collection" from any of the spectators they could catch.

In tlachtli, though, scoring was no easy task. The hard rubber ball used in the game had to be hit through rings set vertically from the wall of an I-shaped court. The rings were slightly larger than the ball which was a bit smaller than the modern volley ball.

To make it tougher, players could not use their hands or feet to hit the ball—only their elbows, knees and hips.

Dr. Nicholson uncovered one of the courts while excavating at a remote village of a little-known Aztec tribe in northern Mexico.

Pond in Vanishing Act

IPSWICH, England (UPI)— Farmer John Leeks reported that his 60-feet wide pond vanished down a three-inch hole last night.

Over 6,000 View Police Lodge Show

Capacity crowds jammed Pontiac Central High School gymnasium for the "Hit Parade Jamboree" Saturday, sponsored by the Pontiac lodge of the Fraternal Order of Police.

More than 6,000 persons attended the three performances, exceeding all expectations, said James Lafnear, FOP president.

Proceeds from the show, estimated at $7,000, will be put into the Widow's and Orphan's Fund of the FOP, he said.

Winners of the local talent show, held in conjunction with the jamboree, were: The Three L's — Lee Roy Ellis, Larry Moore and well and marvyl Simpson flu Lynn Bothwell, 1st place; The Teardrops — Jack Young, Jim Odle and Richard Douglas, 2nd plac; and Jerry Healan and James Parten, 3rd place.

Burglar Finds Squeeze Too Tight for Comfort

SAN MATEO, Calif. (UPI)—Police reported the arrest of a prime suspect in the robbery of $943 from the safe of the Econ Market early yesterday.

He was identified as David Pickens, 42, who was found firmly wedged in a hole in the market roof. Scattered about him were burglars tools and a canvas sack containing $943.

Nothing Down

WALKING DISTANCE from downtown. Huge 4 bedroom family home or can be used as income property with a separate entrance. Large living room, family dining room and kitchen with ample eating space. Full basement. Priced at $11,200. If you are a GI, only about $400 mortgage costs down.

I'M NO BABY. I'm 5 years old and big, too. (4 rooms 2 bedrooms) but my mommy and daddy (owners) treat me like one. They wash my face (paint outside) and I get a spring tonic (redecorated inside) each year. They keep my toenails sharp and trim (well kept lawn and landscaped). I'm kept nice and warm (full insulation, storms and screens, FA oil heat). Now they're going far away and are going to give me away ($8,300). Mortgage costs approximately $350. You can be my new mommy and daddy (owner) if you'd keep me nice and clean like they do, you can see me (North suburban)—call today.

ATTRACTIVE 2 bedroom home with huge living room and fireplace. Part basement and unfinished attic. Attached 1½-car garage. Beautiful lot surrounded by large oak trees. Walking distance to Williams Lake. Also boat well across street. Full price $8,750 on GI with monthly payments of approximately $60 including taxes and insurance.

VERY ATTRACTIVE and well built is this home in Crescent Lake Estates. Owner transferred and will give quick possession in his 2-bedroom extra large bungalow. Only $8,750 — Low payments — Minimum mortgage costs will handle.

Philippines Detain 5 Soviet Boats

A Foreign Office spokesman said the investigation might take another day or so. The 100 or so Soviets aboard the trawlers were reported impatient about their detention.

The visitors dropped anchor Friday at Dirique Inlet, on the northwest tip of Luzon, when one of their engines broke down. It has since been repaired.

Navy authorities sent out a boarding party to investigate and have kept the vessels under close guard. Defense Secretary Jesus Vargas issued orders today to move the vessels 100 miles south to Poro Point, a naval station.

Factories Busy on Formosa Isle

Life Goes On, Paying No Attention to Gunfire on Quemoy

TAIPEI (UPI)—For all the geographical closeness of war to this capital of Formosa, there are few signs of it in the island's daily life.

In Taipei and the other cities, streets are thronged with people seemingly unmindful of the on-again, off-again bombardment of Quemoy. The countryside is fruitful, the factories busy.

The rice harvest, second of the year, is expected to top last year's record of 1,900,000 metric tons.

Steel production will be up from about 90,000 tons this year to 240,000 tons by 1960, when a new integrated iron and steel plant will open in Kaohsiung, Formosa's second city.

In Formosa's civilian life, the Quemoy crisis has had little effect. Plans and projects under way before the crisis have continued without a lapse.

There is no increase in work shifts nor work hours for individuals generally, except for specific industries having to do with troop supply and logistics, such as food processing.

No one tries to hide the fact that Nationalist China's economy is dependent upon U.S. aid. More than a billion dollars, plus uncounted values in military "hardware," have been granted the Nationalist Chinese since the outbreak of the Korean War.

Industrial production, tiny by any U.S. standard, has nevertheless climbed to second place in the Orient (after Japan).

Finds Investors Shy From Federal Bonds

Treasury Hits Snags in Carrying Debt

(There is growing concern in Washington about the Treasury's difficulties in managing a record national debt of 286 billion dollars. This is the first of four articles assessing the situation.)

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Uncle Sam is having trouble borrowing the billions he needs to stay in business.

No one doubts he'll get the money he requires, one way or another. The question is: what price will he have to pay — in terms of dollars, economic difficulty and possible inflation?

If the price gets high enough, a financial crisis could develop. Treasury officials say they're optimistic but their concern is apparent.

The government's plight was dramatized last month when nine billion dollars of loans supplied by private lenders came due. Like any harried debtor, Uncle Sam asked his creditors to renew the loans. As encouragement, he offered them new and more generous terms.

The lenders — banks, corporations and individuals — had a choice. They could renew their loans for one year and collect 3¾ per cent interest or renew for three years and get 4 per cent.

Historically, these interest rates are very high. In some cases, they were more than double the rate paid on the original loans.

Uncle Sam had expected a sizable demand for cash — but not this much. He didn't have the funds to pay off the maturing loans and was forced to make an emergency borrowing.

This meant he was able to get all the credit he needed only on the second attempt. He had expected to get enough the first time. It was a sobering experience for the world's best credit risk.

If an investor believes inflation is the "wave of the future," he doesn't want to tie up his money in a government I.O.U.—a Treasury security—that would depreciate in value. He's more apt to invest in common stocks or real estate, hoping their value will keep pace with inflation.

Bonds and similar debt securities are vulnerable to inflation. As living costs rise, the market price of a bond drops because the dollars it represents are losing value.

All interest rates tend to rise in periods of inflation. Lenders need more incentive to make a loan since they'll be paid back in dollars of diminishing value.

You don't have to have rising prices, however, to get rising interest rates. Prices have held virtually steady since last June. Still, in that time, the interest demanded on three-month loans to the government has virtually tripled.

It is in this environment that the Treasury is financing a record national debt of 286 billion dollars. That it is having problems is not surprising.

Southern Accent May Engulf Whole Universe

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Don't listen now, you-all . . . but drawling southern accents are now spoken by people in Detroit, some of whom were born in Europe.

WILSON

Carried north by southerners who work in Michigan factories, the musical dialect of Dixie will probably be common some day even in Alaska.

So says New York speech specialist Alfred Dixon who tutors Broadway and Hollywood stars from Greer Garson to Charles Boyer to Rosalind Russell — who even taught Julie Andrews the Cockney she used in "My Fair Lady."

Visiting home folks in Detroit recently, he was astonished to find his own brother mouthing honeysuckle-shaped tones of Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama.

"I shouldn't have been surprised, for southern dialect is easily picked up—and hard to discard," Dixon told me.

"Joseph Cotten, who's my buddy, is from Virginia. I have to whip his voice into shape when he does a Broadway show.

"He says he has no southern accent," laughed Dixon.

"All the same, we were walking down Broadway one day when he said, 'I'm going to buy me a pank shirt.' Pank, not pink. And sometimes he forgets himself and says 'everythang' for everything."

JULIE

Dixon requires Middle-Westerners to say "wawter" instead of "wotter." He pleads with New Englanders to give up telling about "packing their ka in Ha-vud Yad."

"The best standard American," he said, "is spoken by the landed gentry of San Francisco and New York."

But the unlanded gentry of Manhattan probably speak the worst American.

Dixon, who stuttered as a boy. ("There's no excuse for stuttering any more," he says), runs a virtually free clinic in addition to giving private lessons to professionals.

"Some Southerners have written me, claiming that nobody down south ever says 'Ah' for I," I mentioned.

"They're wrong," he said. "Of course they say 'Ah.' I is really a double sound: I—ee. But many Southerners never pronounce the ee.

"Some of them also say 'tinder' for 'tender' and 'attintion' for 'attention,'" he said. "You might point out," he added, "that Southern dialect is ever heard among Cockneys. You could tell them that Cockneys are sometimes heard saying 'Ah will not.'"

"Ah will not!" Ah reto'ted defhuntly.

Illiterate Vote From Pictures

In India and Ethiopia Peasants Use Symbols in Ballot Boxes

WASHINGTON — A large and complicated undertaking was India's first general election in 1951-52. To reach an estimated 176,000,000 voters, the government set up several million ballot boxes all over the country.

Homing pigeon service, notably in Orissa Province, carried election instructions and returns to and from remote polling stations.

Guidance for illiterates and those new to democratic ways was provided in party symbols attached to the ballot boxes. Among graphic signs adopted by India's vast array of parties and candidates were drawings of an elephant, a lion, a hand, and two yoked oxen.

In general the voters were reported surprisingly apt at the novel process, but post-election anecdotes throw revealing light on difficulties.

In one remote mountain district, peasants refused to vote for the party whose symbol was the yoked oxen. The ox, they said, lived on the plains and was unsuited to mountain terrain.

Ethiopia and the Sudan are among other lands where increased representation or independence in recent years has called for special polling devices.

When Ethiopia's emperor set up machinery for direct election of deputies, voters dropped cards in boxes bearing their candidates' pictures, says the National Geographic Society.

In the Sudan, as in India, political parties in the general elections earlier this year were identified by symbols, such as an ax, a gun, or an ear of corn. Sudanese townspeople were provided paper ballots. Tribesmen of the southern wilds used colored tokens.

Pottery fragments unearthed at Athens tell the story of the assembly's polls to banish such famous leaders as Aristides and Themistocles. Potsherd ballots were called ostraka, from which the word "ostracize" derives.

TV News and Reviews

'Accent on Love' Special Proves Sleeper of Season

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI)—"Accent on Love," a one hour NBC-TV special which sneaked in Saturday without advance trumpeting, certainly qualified as the sleeper of this TV season.

It was a beautifully shaped show, firm of contour and packed with a series of smartly wrought sketches and dances that gave it snap and gloss and brilliance.

What made the show even more remarkable for me was that I feel a great yawning lukewarmness for the talents of most of its performers — Louis Jourdan, Ginger Rogers, Jaye P. Morgan and Danny Costello. But this assembly worked in immaculate tandem with Gower and Marge Champion and the extraordinary comic team of Elaine May and Mike Nichols.

It was a show without sag, but I suppose if I had to isolate my favorite moments they would be a delightful number, "Contrapuntal Eyes of Blue," churned out by Jourdan, Nichols, Costello and Gower Champion, and an Elaine and Mike sketch of almost unbearable funniness in which a love scene was set in an English dentist's office.

SHORT SHOTS: William Saroyan's "Ah Sweet Mystery of Mrs. Murphy," funneled out yesterday by NBC-TV's omnibus was a medium-tedious piece enlivened principally by the acting of Hugh Griffith . . . yesterday's CBS-TV small world was one of the sparkiest of its offerings this season . . . NBC-TV's Ellery Queen, which shifted Friday from Hollywood to New York, didn't show much improvement — it still looks like a cheapie, hurry-up unimaginative bowl of orts.

Dayton Allen's imitation of Groucho Marx on yesterday's NBC-TV Steve Allen hour was a hilarious bit — the show continues to grind out comedy of amazingly high quality for a weekly program . . . The peek at backstage broadway by ABC-TV's 'You Asked For It' yesterday was skimpy and almost uniformly dreary . . . The NBC-TV Art Carney show last night was visually toothsome, but its stuffings were unflavored and undistinguished.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: The latest Nielsen top 10 lists them in this order: Wagon Train, Gunsmoke, Danny Thomas, Rifleman, Wyatt Earp, Maverick, Sugarfoot, Have Gun, Will Travel, The Real McCoys and Tennessee Ernie. As someone recently remarked, the top 10 is made up of oats and corn.

Local Groups Raise $187 for Widow, 7 Tots

A local fraternity and sorority of the Pontiac Business Institute have raised $187 for a Pontiac mother of seven, whose husband died Jan. 18 of injuries suffered in a Christmas Eve auto accident.

Mrs. Isabelle Craig, 29, of 354 W. Huron St., gave birth to her seventh child, Darlene, at Pontiac General Hospital on Jan. 19, about 24 hours after her husband, Ralph, 35, died at the same hospital.

He had never regained consciousness after being thrown from his auto when it went out of control and struck a large rock Christmas eve.

Tau Beta Gamma Sorority and Phi Beta Iota Fraternity chapters in Pontiac heard of the mother's plight. The family had been living mostly on welfare checks sent them once a month.

"An instructor at school clipped an article about Mrs. Craig from the Pontiac Press and gave it to us suggesting we might make it one of our projects," said Ann Reefer, 19, of 2104 Northwood Blvd., Royal Oak.

Nathan Rosen, 19, of 31 Mark St., president of the fraternity, explained, "We took the suggestion to our respective groups and decided to work together on a project to raise money for her."

The project netted $137 in two weeks. Another $50 was contributed by an anonymous benefactor bringing the present total to $187.

4 Escape Injury as 2 Planes in Rough Landings

By The Associated Press

A military plane and a civilian craft were forced to rough landings in Michigan Sunday. But all four men aboard escaped injury.

An AD5 Douglas Skyraider attack plane required an emergency landing at Groose Ile Naval Air Station, going into a gulley at the end of the runway.

The plane was taking part in weekend exercises. Lt. Cmdr. R. E. Noble of Jackson, prosecutor of Jackson County, was the pilot. Lt. G. R. Hawes of Toledo was co-pilot. Neither was hurt.

A small plane crashed on landing at Markey Airport at Houghton Lake. State Police said the plane skidded on landing and turned over. Two Owosso men, Norman Henry, 31, the pilot, and Wayne Colvis, 30, a passenger, were aboard. Both escaped injury.

Hal Boyle Says:

Babies Should Be Born With Pocketbooks

By the time he is 70, the average American has spent 20 years in sleeping, 20 years at work, and 5½ years in eating, smoking and chewing gum.

Babies should be born with pocketbooks. It now costs about $18 worth of soaps and powders to keep an infant sweet and clean the first year of its life.

Quick quip: Dan Frohman, the veteran producer, once consented to listen to a young stage-struck girl sing. After she had finished she asked Frohman: "What do you think I should do now?" Frohman replied: "Get married!"

Do you ever wonder how your wife spends her time? A survey by the Bon Ami Institute disclosed wives devote 23 per cent of their working day to preparing meals, 13 per cent to dishwashing.

The ordinary U.S. family now uses 888 cans of food a year. What is home without a can opener?

Nature note: A wild elk lives to be about 10 years old, a zoo elk to 25. And a lodge Elk, if he does not graze too long at the bar, to 70 or more.

The United States, growing ever more crowded, is already worried about a water shortage. But more than half of all the fresh water in the world lies in neighboring Canada.

Parental advice: We like this observation by Homer Phillips: "The time to start correcting the children is before they start correcting you!"

King Henry VII, one of the sternest of British monarchs, was generous in some ways. The ale allowance of the maids of honor at his court was fixed at eight gallons a day. But if the gals were still thirsty, they could draw an extra gallon.

The mobile family: A million or more trailers now serve as year-round homes for some three million Americans. Junior doesn't have to walk to school. Papa can drive the house right up to the schoolyard.

Household hint: Paint a ring of luminous paint around your flashlight, and it will be easy for you to locate it in the dark.

Benjamin Franklin was ahead of his time in a hundred ways. Did you know that in Philadelphia he organized America's first real street cleaning service?

In Iowa 96.8 per cent of the population is native-born. Born to the corn, and proud of it.

Easter is March 29, and if you think this seems a bit early, you are right. It's the earliest Easter in eight years.

Darius, ancient Persian king, believed in dining in comfort. During a long banquet he would have his slaves lift him in his golden chair, dip him in perfumed bath water, then return him still in his chair to the table for the next course. Try this on your guests at your next dinner. They'll never forget your thoughtfulness.

The first railroad in America was built on a Georgia plantation in 1820. The cars were horse-drawn, and the railroad operated 46 years.

It was William Lyon Phelps, famous Yale critic, who remarked: "There is a very simple test by which . . . we can tell good people from bad. If a smile improves a man's face, he is a good man!"

On His Expense Account?

MONTGOMERY, Ala (UPI — It costs 44-year-old Ollie C. DeLoach a lot of money to maintain his car. Records show he has paid more than $1,000 in fines for traffic violations during the past seven years.

Investigate Stabbing of Kinross Airman

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—Investigators were holding a 28-year-old woman for questioning today in the fatal stabbing of a Kinross Air Force Base airman.

Staff Sgt. Charlie J. Smith, 28, father of two children, was stabbed to death Saturday night. Winifred Watson, 28, of Sault Ste. Marie, is held.

Police Chief Willard Welsh said Smith was stabbed by Miss Watson in an argument at the home of friends. He said Miss Watson will be charged with murder.

Two Westwood Village Roads Flooded Sunday

WESTWOOD VILLAGE—Melting snow and ice flooded sections of Buckingham and Sheridan roads necessitating use of emergency pumps yesterday.

The flooding problem, according to police, was mainly caused by plugged culverts under driveways. Buckingham road was particularly hazardous when water up to one foot deep covered the street. Although basements were flooded, no property damage was reported.

The Strategic Air Command's B52 Stratofortress weighs as much as 120 automobiles.
