Stock Prices Still Tumbling

YARDS AND YARDS OF FIGURES — Ticker tape reports of stock exchange transactions are piled high near desks of tabulators in the financial department of the New York Bureau of the Associated Press late yesterday. The market ticker was an hour and nine minutes late in recording one of the biggest drops in history.

Allocation Unit Uncertain on County Millage

Oakland Officials Up in Air Over How Much Budget Must Be Cut

By DICK HANSON

Oakland County officials were left wondering today how much they will have to cut the budget for county government next year.

They admitted that the County Tax Allocation Board isn't likely to give the county sufficient millage to finance the proposed $16,555,202 budget.

To do so would require 6.18 mills of the total 15 mills the allocation board has to divvy up among school districts, townships, and county government.

After hearing two of the officials explain the county's financial picture for the coming year, the allocation board was unable to agree on any millage rate for the county.

DEFEATED MOTION

A 3-3 vote of the board barely defeated a motion to give the county the same 5.25 mills it received last year. The motion was made by board member William Emerson, who also is county superintendent of schools.

A subsequent motion was made by board member John Austin, also chairman of the county board of auditors, to give the county 5.5 mills. The board defeated the motion with a 4-2 vote and adjourned until Thursday morning.

Earlier, in setting preliminary rates, the allocation board favored 5.4 mills for county government, 8.6 mills for schools, and 1 mill for townships.

HITS FIRST FIGURE

As a spokesman for county government, Norman Barnard, county corporation counsel, told the allocation board that 5.4 mills would leave the county $1,633,090 short of meeting its proposed budget.

He read a resolution passed by the County Board of Supervisors ways and means committee stating:

". . . The preliminary rate set by the allocation board, if it is made final, will force the county to curtail essential services and programs supported by the county budget and necessary for the health and welfare of the people of the county . ."

The resolution asked the allocation board to reconsider "and increase the rate to a level which will produce sufficient tax monies to meet the requirements" of the proposed county budget.

Otherwise, the resolution, stated the county would have to consider an average 10 per cent cut in all operating budgets of its departments and institutions, along with other possible reductions and eliminations of certain expenditures.

NUMBER 10 TO GRADUATE — Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Humphreys, 261 Whittemore St., are shown helping their 18-year-old daughter, Mary Ann, adjust her cap and gown as she gets in the spirit of graduation. In the background are the Humphrey's nine other children who graduated from St. Frederick's High School.

Rain? Well, We'll Wait and See

In view of the fact that it's a month since the weather bureau was right about a thunderstorm forecast, Pontiac area residents are expected to swarm to park and recreation sites in large numbers Memorial Day, regardless of another such prediciton.

★ ★ ★

The forecast calls for thunderstorms late today and tonight, ending tomorrow with a predicted high of 84.

The temperature at 2 p.m. today was 86.

★ ★ ★

The temperature should be enough to fill parks to near capacity, according to estimates of park managers.

Carlton Althoff, manager at Dodge Park No. 4, on Cass Lake, predicts 10,000 to 12,000 people will use the park tomorrow if the weather is clear.

Good weather could also bring up to 10,000 to Pontiac Lake Recreation Area and another 12,000 to the Holly Recreation Area.

Holly already has recorded a crowd of 14,500 on Sunday, May 19. Park Manager Murray Tellsworth said however that camping traffic may not be as high as other holidays due to Memorial Day falling in the middle of the week.

"We expect between 50 to 150 campers to begin arriving tonight," he said. Paul Wigg, Pontiac Lake manager, reported a lifeguard will be on duty at the beach all day if the weather holds up.

Parks may be packed throughout the county with "vacationers" making short jaunts on the short holiday.

★ ★ ★

All city, county and federal offices will be closed. Area banks will close at their regular times today and open at the regular hour Thursday morning.

TO PATROL ROADS

Most stores will also be closed.

Police and sheriff's deputies will be out in full force, concentrating their efforts on major thoroughfares near the metropolitan area.

Most major thoroughfares in the county where construction or grading has been in progress will be clear for holiday traffic, according to Sol D. Lonnerson, vice chairman of the county road commission.

"The worst spot in the county is Northwestern Highway from Eight Mile to Telegraph Roads where construction detours may cause congestion," he warned.

★ ★ ★

Telegraph Road just south of Dixie Highway may also be congested due to construction of a new lane. Other detours worth noting are on Giddings Road north of Walton Boulevard and Baldwin Road near Brown Road due to I-75 freeway construction.

10th Humphreys Teener to Graduate at St. Fred's

By JOE SINGLETON

In a few weeks 18-year-old Mary Ann Humphreys will graduate from St. Fredericks High School.

On the surface, this is not an unusual feat.

But Mary Ann's graduation is unique!

Mary Ann is the last of 10 children of Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Humphreys, 261 Whittemore St., to graduate from St. Fredericks High School.

Here's the rundown:

In the fall of 1932, 6-year-old Bill Humphreys toddled off to kindergarten at St. Fredericks School. Bill graduated in 1945.

Bob, the second son, graduated in 1948.

Jerry, 31, graduated in 1949. Next to graduate in 1950, was Dick Humphreys.

After the four boys, there were three girls.

Beverly, 28, graduated in 1951.

Patricia, 25, graduated in 1954.

Peg, 23, graduated in 1956.

LAST SON

The last son, Joseph, 22, graduated in 1958.

Carolyn, 20, graduated in 1960.

Now, after 30 years of education for 10 children, and grandparents of 22 children, the parents will attend the commencement exercise for their last youngster on June 6.

Although the couple on Whittemore Street is beaming with joy over the up-coming graduation, they can't help but remember that in raising 10 children, there were some "rough spots."

"There were times when we had trouble making the tuition payments for the children," Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys recall. "But the Sisters were understanding and patient with us."

They also cited the pastors of

Topp Scheduled for Return to Oakland Today

Two detectives from the Oakland County Sheriff's Department were scheduled to return here from Chicago today with murder suspect Sheldry W. Topp.

★ ★ ★

The 17-year-old Pontiac State Hospital escapee, is charged with first-degree murder in the slaying of Charles A. Davis, Oakland County's first assistant corporation counsel. He waived extradition in Chicago.

Federal authorities notified Sheriff Frank Irons that Topp was available for return to Michigan yesterday evening. Capt. Leo Hazen and Sgt. Harry Maur immediately left to pick up the prisoner.

Topp was arrested last Wednesday in Chicago by FBI agents after eluding a nationwide police dragnet for nearly a week. He escaped from the Pontiac hospital May 15.

Davis was stabbed to death in his home only hours after Topp's escape.

★ ★ ★

Prosecutor George Taylor said he expects to request a sanity commission examination of Topp to determine if he is mentally competent to stand trial.

Market Selling Ignores Good U.S. Business

Foreign Marts Play Up Plunge; D-J Average at 563.24

NEW YORK (AP) — Faint signs of a rally appeared in the stock market this afternoon although emotion-packed selling continued to send prices hurtling downward.

Some losses were turned into gains and declines were shaved.

Earlier almost the entire field of prices had melted rapidly as selling ballooned beyond the massive volume of yesterday—highest in 29 years.

The panicky desire to get rid of stocks swept across the nation, ignoring all accounts of good business, and had worldwide reverberations.

The London Stock Exchange suffered its deepest decline since the Munich crisis of September 1938.

Steep losses on heavy sell-offs were felt by exchanges in Paris, Zurich, Frankfurt and Japan.

BANNERED 'PANIC'

The Soviet news agency Tass said the New York stock plunge had "assumed catastrophic proportions." The Cuban newspaper, Revolucion, trumpeted "Panic in New York Stock Exchange."

Trading volume in the first two hours soared to 3.75 million shares against 1.89 million in the comparable period yesterday. The ticker tape fell more than 58 minutes late.

The Associated Press 60-stock average at noon was off 5.10 to 206.10. The Down Jones Average of 30 industrials at noon was down 13.69 to 563.24.

Trading in four of the issues making up the Dow Jones Average — Anaconda, Sears Roebuck, Swift and Texaco — didn't opened by noon because of inability to match buy and sell orders.

American Telephone turned a loss of $2.12 to a gain of $3.37 at $104. Jersey Standard was up $3 at $49 and Boeing was up $1 at $37.

Declines this afternoon included Ford $2.37 to $78.25, Woolworth $3.25 to $63.75, Eastman Kodak $4.25 to $89.50, Du Pont $4.50 to $198, U.S. Steel 62 cents to $49.75 and Reynolds Tobacco $3.50 to $45.50.

In Washington, Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon said after a conference with President Kennedy that "We don't see any reason for panic selling in the stock market."

He said he hoped that small investors will realize that the economy is "very sound."

Assurances, however, had failed to stem the headlong drive to sell stocks.

Other losses included Polaroid $6.25 to $117.25, Westinghouse $3.75 to $25.25, Reynolds Tobacco $3.75 to $45.25, General Motors $2.75 to $46.12, Eastman Kodak $3.50 to $90.25 and U.S. Steel 37 cents to $50.

The market's long, sharp decline swelled to titanic proportions yesterday as trading rocketed to the highest level since July 21, 1933; and prices suffered their sharpest drop on average since Oct. 28, 1929—the day before climax of the crash.

Would Counter Market Jolt—Hodges

Asks for Tax Overhaul Quickly

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges recommended today that the administration adopt "positive action rather than words" to help counter the jolt to confidence caused by slumping stock prices.

Hodges told a news conference he believes two steps should be taken:

★ ★ ★

1. "I would favor an announcement as quickly as possible that we ought to have a tax overhaul," he said.

Elaborating, he expressed hope that such an overhaul would include a net reduction in both individual and corporate income taxes.

2. The treasury should make a "very early announcement" of its revision of depreciation schedules that govern tax writeoffs on business investment in plant and equipment.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon said 10 days ago that the depreciation schedules would be forthcoming in late June or early July.

ON PIECEMEAL BASIS

Hodges recommended that the department announce the revisions on a piecemeal basis as quickly as they are available, without waiting until the whole package is complete.

Hodges' session with newsmen came on the heels of a high-level White House conference on the market situation.

There was nothing to indicate directly, however, that he was reporting on decisions reached at that discussion. An aide represented Hodges at the White House.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., telling newsmen of a discussion of the price break at an earlier conference between Kennedy and congressional Democratic leaders, said Kennedy "revealed concern over the market but emphasized that the basic structure of the economy is strong and sound."

Humphrey said Kennedy plans no public statement at this point.

For himself, Humphrey urged early action on the administration's tax bill—separate from the overhaul recommended by Hodges—to remove the uncertainty he said is contributing to the stock market dive.

Among other things the bill proposes a tax credit for new industrial plant investment.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana told a separate news conference the administration "does not think there is any need for emergency action" by the Chief Executive.

Dillon had emerged from the White House talk to tell newsmen, "We don't see any reason for panic selling" in the stock market.

Accountant Destroyed Estes Data

WASHINGTON (AP)—A private accountant who submitted a rosy audit of Billie Sol Estes' finances destroyed his working papers after a call from someone in Estes' organization, an Agriculture Department official said today.

★ ★ ★

The statement of net worth was presented to the government in January 1961 when the Agriculture Department proposed to increase from $700,000 to $1 million the bond Estes had to put up to store U.S. grain valued at $50 million.

The agriculture official, S. R. Smith, administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service, said the audit put Estes' net worth at $13.7 million — more than the amount required to keep the bond at the lower level. He said the audit was made by Winn P. Jackson, a certified public accountant associated with a Texas firm.

Jackson has conceded he did not make an adequate audit of Estes' records before submitting the report, Smith said in testimony prepared for the House Government Operations subcommittee.

CLAIMS BANKRUPT

Estes, now under indictment for fraud, has declared he is bankrupt.

★ ★ ★

One aim of the investigations into Estes' many and complex operations is to learn whether Estes' jerry-built business empire was constructed on a foundation of government influence.

Dems Offering Package Votes

May Be Big Break in Session and It Would End Tax Deadlock

LANSING (AP)—Democrats agreed today to give Republicans enough votes to put an $83-million "nuisance" tax package through the House and route it to the Senate.

"This could be the big break of the session," said Rep. Joseph J. Kowalski of Detroit, the Democratic floor leader, after his party talked over the tax situation behind closed doors for more than an hour.

Kowalski said he would vote for the entire six-bill package and could probably promise at least eight Democratic votes for every bill in the package.

"I don't like this tax plan any more than I used to, and we are capitulating to the Republicans," he said, "but we would rather have this nuisance tax package than payless paydays for the state or have school districts go broke. We have got to dig up some money someplace."

NEED 2 TO 10 VOTES

Republicans figured they needed two to 10 Democratic votes to shove the package through.

House passage probably would break up the tax deadlock that has sent the legislature into six weeks of overtime already. Otherwise, legislative leaders predicted the session might go to mid-July.

Under amendments adopted last week, the bills are all tied together. If one dies, they all die.

Kennedy Marks 45th Birthday as Regular Day

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy was 45 years old today; a youth among venerable world statesmen, a scarred veteran of political crises at home.

Beyond greetings from his wife and children this morning and felicitations from his staff, a regular work day came ahead of any real birthday observance.

A quiet family dinner party was set for tonight at Glen Ora, the Kennedy country place outside Middleburg, Va., where the President will spend Memorial Day before returning to the White House Thursday.

Imprisons Cuban PWs

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro has reportedly moved more than 200 captives of the Bay of Pigs invasion to penitentiaries, apparently to prod an exile rescue group to get up the ransom for the 60 ailing prisoners he sent to the United States.

Versailles Palace to End All Palaces

By HAROLD A. FITZGERALD
Publisher, The Pontiac Press

(This is the third and concluding article on a current trip to London and Paris, with 250 newspaper people representing 33 countries and all continents.)

If you really want your eye knocked out completely, visit Versailles. Here is the chateau to end the chateau business for all time.

★ ★ ★

It's outside of Paris and occupies nearly 600 acres, and the palace itself covers 135 acres. That's a little larger than the entire Bloomfield Hills golf course including all 18 tees, fairways, greens, roughs, practice areas and contiguous spaces. Mind you, this is under one roof.

It was the combined handiwork of three kings, with Louis the XIV getting top billing. It took 7,000 men 34 years to build — and that probably included Saturdays. Oakland County's Walter Reuther would never cross a single threshold for many a journeyman drew an hour of overtime.

★ ★ ★

This was the King's home — you know — the place you go when night comes and you're tired from sitting on that hard throne all day and wearing a heavy crown. You could steal into this little hideaway and take off your shoes to relax.

It contains 8,000 paintings, including many of the great masterpieces of the world and 1,068 statues. After you and the little woman have had an eleven course dinner, you could wander around and look at 50 or 60 new marble figures if it's statue night — but if you had a sudden yen for paintings, you could take in half a hundred of these that you'd never seen before.

★ ★ ★

One of the indescribable ceilings took a world famous painter seven years on his aching back. This place even defies description from Jackie Kennedy. If the D. C. darling set out to do it on TV, she'd be out of circulation until Caroline had grandchildren.

★ ★ ★

We had dinner there.

Imagine.

There've been two banquets before. One was for the Queen of Great Britain and the other for the Kennedys, which I understand was in the Hall of Mirrors. This is a spritely room that's just less than a city block long — and I mean that literally—and is entirely lined with mirrors.

Our own crowd of 250 newspaper people from 33 countries was joined by 600 top citizens of Paris and we occupied about a third of the space. You could easily have seated 3,000 and left room for an indoor track meet. Remember, these are just individual rooms in one palace, and all around the walls are these world famous paintings.

★ ★ ★

The outside gardens were where the weary king and his mate wandered before sunset. The fountains scattered about are slightly smaller than Niagara Falls but just as scenic and considerably better than Old Faithful in Yellowstone Park.

This palace is now 300 years old and it will live 3,000 years more if the French remain at peace that long with the Germans — and if Russia stays in her own back yard.

★ ★ ★

These various Louies wanted a place to worship, so they had a chapel over in one corner. It's about the size and shape of All Saints Episcopal Church here in Pontiac and if you didn't have a guide, you couldn't find it.

You can't help but be impressed by the better manners that exist in so many foreign lands.

We're outpointed.

We always suffer.

I've never seen as many cars in heavy traffic as Paris can produce at any given hour but politeness assists. The number of these midgets scurrying in every direction is almost frightening. They come from the right, left,

Victim in Jet Crash Faced Theft Charge

CENTERVILLE, Iowa (UPI) — One of the victims of last week's Continental Airlines crash was facing a court appearance on an armed robbery charge in Kansas City, it was revealed today.

The man was identified as Thomas G. Doty, who died with 44 other persons when the Continental jet exploded in the air over southern Iowa last Tuesday night less than 30 minutes before it was to have landed at Kansas City.

★ ★ ★

Federal investigators have said a dynamite-type explosive device was set off in a rear washroom of the airliner and ripped the plane's tail from the fuselage.

Doty's initials matched those on a brief case which was found late Sunday 12 miles from the crash scene. FBI agents appropriated the briefcase, which was empty and unlocked, and expressed great interest in it. But they would not reveal what significance they attached to it.

A check of Doty's recent activities showed that he and Mrs. Geneva Fraley, 32, who also died in the Continental crash, had been fellow employes of a Kansas City cosmetics firm until last March, when he resigned. Mrs. Fraley resigned later and planned to enter a business partnership with Doty June 1, the Kansas City sources said.

Doty had been scheduled to face a preliminary hearing Friday on charges that he forced his way into a car April 23, struck the woman driver in the face, threatened her, and fled with her purse. Doty was arrested several minutes later carrying the purse and a .22 caliber pistol, police said.

★ ★ ★

In Washington, Chairman Alan Boyd of the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) said the explosion which destroyed the jet liner was so powerful "a side wall of the plane blew straight out."

Boyd also told the Senate Aviation subcommittee that the crash of the Continental Airlines 707 jet was caused by the explosion, not turbulent weather.

The CAB chief said a preliminary reading of the plane's automatic flight recorder showed that it had emerged into clear air five minutes before the crash.

Articles Give Statements of School Post Aspirants

In both the Pontiac School District and the Waterford Township School District, five candidates are seeking election June 11 to two board of education posts.

The Pontiac Press will present a biography of the candidates and their statements in a series of articles that begins today.

Although the elections are separate and distinct, the articles are combined in pairs for the convenience of readers.

Dr. Walter L. Godsell, 34, president of the Pontiac Board of Education, seeks his third term as a board member.

A chiropractic physician, he is a product of Pontiac schools and has his professional training from Lincoln Chiropractic College, Indianapolis, Ind. He also attended Wayne State and Butler universities.

Dr. Godsell of 307 W. Huron St. is married and has two daughters attending Crofoot School. He is president of the Oakland County Chiropractic Society, a member of the First Baptist Church, the Christian Men's Club and the University of Michigan Advisory Committee on the midwest program on airborne television instruction.

Following is his formal statement regarding his candidacy:

★ ★ ★

"There are many reasons why a person would wish to serve on a board of education. Frequently, candidates run solely to foster some particular idea, or purely as a representative of some particular group. Such should not be the case. The problems of a school district are many and varied; a candidate should have the interest of the entire school community at heart.

★ ★ ★

"Past years have seen many instructional improvements to the point where we have a fine educational program here in Pontiac; however, there is yet much to be done. Curriculum development in certain fields is a definite continuing necessity. Extension of foreign language to lower grades seems desirable. Science programs need additional steady improvements.

★ ★ ★

"Several building needs exist. The Patterson Street central office building is in the urban renewal area, and will be replaced at a new location.

"Increased enrollments indicate a need soon for a junior high school to the north of town on the Baldwin Avenue site. These costs must be borne without impairing the quality of our educational system.

"My position is to work in cooperation with citizens, teachers and administrators and to encourage citizens to feel free to contact their board members with any suggestions they might have."

Norman L. Cheal is one of the five candidates competing for the two four-year term seats on the Waterford Township Board of Education in the June 11 school election.

Married and the father of six children, Cheal resides at 2751 Northlake Dr., Waterford Township. He heads the experimental department of the Pontiac Motor Division engineering department.

Cheal graduated from Lansing Eastern High School in 1937 and from Michigan State College in 1941 with a B.S. in chemical engineering.

His formal statement regarding the election is as follows:

★ ★ ★

"With an annual budget of about 5 million dollars and more than 550 teachers, the Waterford Township school system is big business—the biggest business in the township. Great as is the significance of these facts, or even greater significance is the fact that there will be an enrollment of about 14,000 children in the schools next fall.

★ ★ ★

"It is for the children and for the parts they will play in the community and our country that the school system exists.

"As a homeowner and father of six young children, I have a natural and, perhaps, selfish interest in the schools.

"More important, as a citizen, I have a very great desire to see our schools efficiently administered, educating all 14,000 children to be good and useful citizens.

★ ★ ★

"My primary interests thus are in the fields of financial management of the school system and in the curriculum for the students. Because of my education, training and background of experience in community affairs, I feel that I can make a worthwhile contribution in these areas if elected to the schoolboard."

St. Vincent Parish for helping them through some difficult times.

"Our parents also gave us some help," recalled Mr. Humphreys.

There were many happy times of being part of a large family, Carolyn recalled.

"There were so many of us we had to sign an 'in' and 'out' pad in the front hallway whenever we left and returned from a date or school activity. We put down the time we left and the time we returned."

Carolyn admitted there were times when they tried to hedge on the time, but couldn't get away with it for "Mom always knew when we hit the steps."

THE BEACON LIGHT

"There was always a beacon light on the front of the house that stayed on every night until the last one was in," recalled Mary Ann. "The kids at school kidded us about it a lot because it could be seen all the way down Whittemore Street."

"And there was always a pair of boxing gloves hanging in the recreation room to help us resolve our differences," Dick commented.

"All the children made a voluntary pact to stay home at least two years after graduation, get jobs and help the younger ones," recalled Mrs. Humphreys.

"The four older boys really pitched in and helped out in the earlier years. Right now, Dick and Carolyn are doing more than their share. All the children have contributed more than their share in helping the whole family."

Asked how she felt after successfully raising and educating ten children, Mrs. Humphreys summed it all up by stating, "Why, I never thought of it as being anything unusual."

sistance of county auditor Robert Lilly, the ways and means committee was conducting a meeting with all county department heads.

These directors were instructed to trim their costs this year in every possible way so that monies might be carried over next year to offset rising costs of government as demanded by a growing community.

'NO CRITICISM'

They were informed that every position, as it should become vacant by normal attrition, would have to be rejustified in order to be filled again.

Committee Chairman David Levinson told the department heads that "this is no criticism of our present operation . . . We are asking your cooperation because by helping us, you will be helping yourselves."

Meanwhile the Allocation Board is waiting to learn from the State Equalization Board in Lansing what the county's equalized valuation will be as a tax base this year.

Both the County Board of Supervisors and the State Tax Commission are recommending an equalized valuation here of $2,-112,408,200. This would constitute a $17,725,000 increase over last year.

The State Equalization Board's final determination is expected by the end of the month.

Earlier the State Tax Commission was recommending raising Oakland County's equalized valuation to $2,149,908,200 this year.

The County Board of Supervisors equalization committee objected stating that the commission had failed to take dropping market values into consideration.

Yesterday the commission agreed to the committee's recommended county equalized valuation, thus reducing the tax base here by $37.5 million.

Ex-Pontiac Man Dies in Hospital

Frank C. Wood's Death Follows Auto Accident, Service Here Thursday

Frank C. Wood, former owner and founder of the Frank C. Wood Real Estate Co. in Pontiac, died yesterday in a Port Huron hospital, the result of injuries received in an automobile accident near Port Huron on May 21.

Mrs. Wood was killed instantly in the same accident.

Service will be 11 a.m. Thursday at the Huntoon Funeral Home with burial following in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. Wood was born on a farm in Kent County Aug. 21, 1885 and educated in country schools, Middleville High School and Grand Rapids Business College.

He was with the Pere Marquette Railroad early in his business career in office positions at Detroit and Grand Rapids.

In 1910 he went with the Commercial Credit Co. and a few months later came to Pontiac as the company's representative. The following year he bought out the company and conducted the business here, adding the lines of real estate and insurance.

In 1918 Mr. Wood formed a partnership with E. D. Tyler and in 1920 sold out to Mr. Tyler.

After spending a year in the country, he became sales manager for Keller Andrews Co. of Flint. In June 1923 he became sales manager for W. B. Anderson, realtor, of Pontiac, and on Jan. 5, 1924 he entered the real estate business for himself, opening the firm which bore his name.

A former member of Central Methodist Church, he was also a member of Knights of Pythias, the Rotary Club, Pontiac Chamber of Commerce and Wednesday Dancing Club.

Mr. Wood was a past president of Pontiac Real Estate Board, a member of the Gridiron Club and Pine Lake Country Club.

After retiring from business in 1953 Mr. Wood and the late Mrs. Wood made their winter home in Port Charlotte, Fla., but lived in Harrison during the summer.

Mr. Wood leaves a son Charles of Pontiac; a daughter, Mrs. Alice Kvitek of Birmingham; four grandsons; and a brother in Harrison.

Due to the recent death of Mr. Wood's wife Verna, the family suggests any memorial tributes be made to the building fund of Central Methodist Church.

And yet, everyone gets through. The French aren't as insistent upon having the last vestige of "my personal rights" as we are. A French driver is willing to let you move in ahead. They concede right and left hand turns cheerfully, with the shrug of a French shoulder which is the national language of concession when all else fails.

In effect it says:

"So what?"

And Paris streets are so wide they have eight, ten and twelve traffic lanes running side by side.

In the United States, drivers steam ahead in the most demanding manner possible. The French are more courteous and we have a lot to learn from these old world countries where the people ceased being "in a hurry" a thousand years ago. And no one blows an automobile horn in Paris — no one. It's against the law. And I mean against the law, and they aren't the kind of laws that we have. You never hear a horn and yet there are more vehicles on the streets than in New York. A saving grace is the small size of the cars. The Pontiac I was fortunate enough to draw was a palatial, ocean going yacht in comparison with the average French bug that streaks around the highways.

Probably the most distinguished champagne in the world is Moet Chandon's from Epernay. My wife and I were invited down for lunch and were conducted through the famous underground cellars. These are 16 miles long and currently store 20 million bottles including their Dry Imperial, Rose, White Seal and famous Dom Perignon. Champagne does not improve with age beyond 10 or 12 years and it is almost impossible to preserve, but we were honored with a bottle that bore the cuvee mark of 1911 —51 years ago. It was a big thrill —and super delicious.

Now 1959 is believed to be the greatest champagne year of the current century. You can get still wines of that vintage already, but you won't get any champagne for three or four years.

It's Memorial Day for Area 'Redhead'

Vet Recalls a Jungle in Leyte . . .

By JOE MULLEN

Memorial Day would be a fitting day for The Redhead to conjure up memories of The Philippines—of a particular air battle there and of his eventual rescue.

But Edwin J. Beattie of Independence Township would rather talk about the Navy Reserve and this weekend's training flight to Kansas.

"That's all ancient history," The Redhead protested as the interviewer persisted along a conversational trail back to World War II.

Yes, he was the subject of a chapter "The Redhead" in the book "Leyte Calling," by Joseph St. John, former guerrilla leader in the jungles of Leyte.

★ ★ ★

As he talked, the curtain of time faded. The office became the cockpit of a Wildcat fighter plane aerated by Japanese bullets and plunging earthward in flames.

It was Ensign Beattie's 21st birthday, Oct. 20, 1944.

The young pilot bailed out and as he floated downward, watched his plane hit the ground and explode.

★ ★ ★

Just then one of the eight Japanese Oscars that had attacked his plane, came out of the clouds toward him.

"I don't know whether the pilot didn't have the heart to strafe me or whether he didn't see me," Beattie recalled, "but he suddenly turned and joined the other Jap fighter planes."

The Redhead, who was on active duty from October 1942 until January 1946, was on his 30th airborne mission when he was gunned out of the sky 14,000 feet above the mountainous terrain of Leyte in the Philippines.

★ ★ ★

When the ensign touched ground after bailing out, he suffered a minor leg injury, painful enough to cause a limp.

★ ★ ★

Beattie began walking. He was armed with a gun and a knife and was ready to use either as the area was known to be infested with Japanese.

He was following a river he believed led to Leyte Gulf when he heard a man's voice. Standing before him was a native with a huge bolo knife, its blade shimmering in the sunlight.

Realizing the stranger was an American, the Filipino rushed over to shake hands.

'IMPRESSED BY HAIR'

"He seemed impressed with my red hair," Beattie recalled. "I guess he thought I was someone very special, being an American plus having red hair."

When the two men resumed the journey along the river, the native noticed Beattie's limp and insisted that The Redhead ride piggy back.

"I felt rather foolish but he kept insisting so I hopped on and we went," Beattie said.

They eventually arrived at a small guerrilla encampment where they ate and slept before moving on to the coast. After days of traveling through the mountains and jungle they reached their destination, the camp run by St. John.

The Redhead received a royal welcome at both camps, especially the one on the coast.

★ ★ ★

Natives, constantly pointing at his red hair, wouldn't let him out of their sight for a moment. Crowds hovered over him while he ate, making sure he had his fill. They even stood by while he slept, fanning the ensign to make the hot, humid weather of the islands more tolerable.

During the several days the flyer was in St. John's camp he took part in guerrilla stabs against the enemy but eventually he was picked up by a 24th Division reconnaissance group.

OFFICER IN RESERVE

Beattie lives with his wife, Mickie, and their three children at 6265 Snow Apple Drive. He's executive officer of Attack Squadron 731 based on Grosse Ile, with the rank of Lieutenant Commander, USNR.

Every month the squadron assembles for a weekend of training.

This weekend it will train Saturday at Grosse Ile and then fly to Olathe, Kan. Then another day of training.

But no one is shooting at him now. And redheads—men, at least —aren't stared at.

Bloomfield Twp. Board Rescinds District Setup

BIRMINGHAM — The Bloomfield Township Board last night rescinded an earlier action creating a special assessment district planned to finance sanitary sewer system.

The action is the first of four similar moves that must be taken because the method of notifying property owners of the public hearings has been ruled unconstitutional.

The state attorney general's office announced recently that property owners in a special assessment district must be informed of the public hearing by mail delivered first class.

★ ★ ★

Bloomfield Township has been letting property owners know of the hearings by first class mail rather than just an advertisement in a newspaper, according to Clerk Delores Little, "but the fact that this wasn't required before doesn't make the board's action legal."

She said it is a technicality that will be cleared up after June 10 when property owners living in the four special assessment districts will again receive their first class mail notices.

The hearings probably will be held the same night, she said.

The board last night rescinded its early resolution that created the sanitary sewer special assessment district for the Williamsburg Subdivision.

★ ★ ★

Others to be rescinded in the future are Peabody Orchards, Brookside Hills and the Devon Gables subdivision at Telegraph and Long Lake roads.

The board, in another action, adopted the uniform water craft ordinance regulating activities on township lakes. The ordinance, however, will affect only Square Lake since the rest of the township lakes are private.

Authorization to purchase the Newcombe property adjacent to the township hall for future expansion also was given to Township Attorney Thomas Dillon.

Voters approved the purchase of the 10-acre parcel in April.

The property will cost the township $32,000.

Charles Hummel, 2435 Devon Lane, has been elected chairman of the board of directors of Kingswood School Cranbrook, succeeding William B. Hartman, who has held the post for two years.

Other officers are Robert Flint, vice chairman; Ben D. Mills, treasurer; and Mrs. John P. McLean Jr., secretary.

★ ★ ★

Richard C. Van Dusen was elected to the board to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of William H. Baldwin.

Re-elected as directors were Mrs. William T. Gossett and Mrs. William B. Hargreaves.

Willard E. Welsh

Service for Willard E. Welsh, 55, of 985 Timberlake, Bloomfield Hills, was held yesterday at William Vasu Funeral Home, Royal Oak, with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Will Thant Want Full U.N. Term?

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

U Thant soon must make up his mind whether he wants to be secretary general of the United Nations for a full term.

Some friends of the mild-spoken, cheroot-smoking Buddhist express doubts that he wants the job beyond next April 10 — the end of the late Dag Hammarskjold's term to which the General Assembly appointed him last November.

★ ★ ★

Despite the lame-duck nature of his appointment, Thant's six-month conduct in the office has not looked like that of a man treading carefully to avoid anything that could wreck his election to a full term.

He has been sharp, in a quiet diplomatic way, with East and West alike on occasion.

British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, visiting here last month, was reported to have given Thant his government's backing for a five-year term in his own right.

WASHINGTON CAREFUL

Washington has been careful to steer clear of official endorsement lest it prove a cold war kiss of death that could bring Russia's veto if only because he was supported by the United States.

But last Sunday, U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, in a nationwide television interview, waxed enthusiastic about Thant.

"The United Nations was fortunate, I think, to find such a distinguished diplomat to fill this demanding post," Stevenson said.

"Mr. Thant is universally admired. His ability and his equanimity are universally recognized and he has served well in his first months of office."

The answer to whether the "acting" will be removed from Thant's secretary general title probably will come late this summer, when he visits Moscow.

The Russians are not likely to announce any endorsement. But the reception the slightly-built Burmese gets in the Soviet capital will signal the Kremlin's attitute.

Thant is in the middle of the biggest diplomatic crisis of his tenure right now. He is seeking with the help of former U.S. diplomat Ellsworth Bunker, to settle the dispute between the Netherlands and Indonesia concerning West New Guinea.

There is brush-fire fighting in progress between Indonesian paratroops and Dutch defenders which, as Stevenson said Sunday, could start a war which might spread quickly.

The Dutch asked Thant to send U.N. observers to report on the situation.

His reply that he could not send observers unless they were requested by both countries brought sharp criticism in The Hague and some other Western capitals.

Some diplomats thought it was Thant's first diplomatic stumble, for the United Nations, by accepting reports on West New Guinea from the Netherlands, previously had recognized Dutch sovereignty over it as a nonself-governing territory.

★ ★ ★

Stumble or not, it will likely be submerged in Thant's reputation for impartial urbanity by the time the question of electing a secretary general for a full-fledged term comes before the General Assembly this fall.

Both Political Parties Hopeful of Elections

Political elections on a national level this fall are bound to bring about some changes. At this early stage both the Democrats and Republicans are making claims of improving their strength.

That's only natural. Who ever heard of a politician going around singing the blues just prior to election? Even if he expects defeat, he doesn't broadcast it.

The GOP is talking of picking up 25 House seats which would still not be enough to give it control. The Dems, on the other hand, will consider it a victory if they just hold what they have.

★ ★ ★

At this stage it looks more like each will have to give a little on its predictions. Net result—no big gains for either. The Senate, we expect, will stay pretty much the same. It does not appear now that there will be too many big upsets.

The headline races attracting the most attention look something like this from our vantage point:

NIXON and BROWN in California could be close. Right now it appears that NIXON's slow start has hurt him. Gov. PAT BROWN is running hard and it's a question whether NIXON can catch him.

★ ★ ★

In New York State it looks like a victory for ROCKEFELLER. He also is a top candidate for presidential nomination in 1964. Apparently family life is not hurting.

DiSalle in Ohio against Rhodes appears to have lost much of his luster. Word from Columbus is that he may be unseated.

From Boston the TEDDY KENNEDY and McCORMACK race is a honey, with both sides throwing mud. Also, charges of "White House interference." The old pros say this one will not be decided until the primary in mid-September.

★ ★ ★

At home we have the ROMNEY-SWAINSON fight, which is getting topbilling across the country. You call it.

Tax Bill Won't Balance Our Federal Budget

Sen. PAUL DOUGLAS, D-Ill., speaks out and says that he is amazed that anyone who believes in a balanced Federal budget would oppose the Administration's tax bill.

Come now, Senator. Actually there are many people who oppose the bill for perfectly logical reasons. And not the least of these is that it would collect hundreds of million of dollars in taxes each year from people who don't owe them.

This would be done by deducting 20 per cent from interest and dividend payments. Those who don't owe that much, or don't owe anything, would have to pester Uncle Sam to get their money back.

We realize full well that this would also catch a great number of people who today are not paying taxes on dividends and interest. Yet in fairness, we must understand it would work a hardship on some.

We are not advocating that anyone get by without paying his just tax bill. At the same time this plan that collects from those who owe right along with those who don't does not seem exactly fair.

The Senator who laments so loudly about balancing the budget and how essential it is might take a look at his fellow spenders. If they so desired they could easily cut some of our Federal spending programs.

Two cost-saving areas that come to mind are:

- Call a halt to enlarging the Federal payroll.
- Cut out the conventional election year pay raise to Federal employes.

There are many ways to balance the budget without simply going to the taxpayers for more money.

Guest Editorial

Literacy Bill Demands Thorough Discussion

(The Chicago Tribune)

Some of the Southern states employ literacy tests as a subterfuge to deprive Negroes of their votes. A bill is now before the Senate seeking to end this discrimination. The bill declares that the completion of the sixth grade in school is to be taken as conclusive evidence that the applicant for voter registration can read and write.

Southern senators are filibustering against this measure. For our part, we favor thorough discussion of the literacy bill, and we emphasize the word, thorough. We don't think the senators who favor the bill should sit back and let the filibusterers gas away unhindered.

★ ★ ★

The Southern senators should be challenged to disprove, if they can, the record from Macon County, Ala., where even the most illiterate whites have been registered as voters without question but professors at Tuskegee Institute, men and women with graduate degrees from great universities, have been sidetracked for inability to read to the satisfaction of the local officials. The report of the United States Commission on Civil Rights lists many parallel instances. What defense can be made for these discriminations?

★ ★ ★

We can't think of one attack on the literacy bill that would be persuasive if the filibusterers care to make it. They could say, with much truth, that in many sections of the South, a sixth grade education in a Negro school is no proof of literacy. It could hardly be otherwise in view of the unequal distribution of school funds between Negro and white schools that was quite general a few years ago and persists even today in many sections of the South.

In Washington:

Demand for Play

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall was the big wheel of the two-day White House conference on conservation, held in the State Department. The big idea was to whip up public support for the administration's broad natural resources development programs, now stymied in Congress.

★ ★ ★

The late Gifford Pinchot ran one of these conferences for President Theodore Roosevelt back in 1908. The Udall job was supposed to top that, look farther ahead.

★ ★ ★

The one new item in the 1962 program that seems to have the best prospects in Congress is recreation.

Udall has just set up a new Bureau of Outdoor Recreation to coordinate all federal programs in this field, now scattered among 20 different agencies.

Dr. Edward C. Crafts, former assistant chief in the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Forest Service has recently been sworn in as bureau head.

In essence, the Rockefeller commission found that while the population of the country will double by the year 2000, the need for recreation facilities will triple.

The trouble is, the commission found, that most of the recreation areas are in the wrong places, too far away from the big centers of population. So an organized and orderly expansion of recreation facilities was recommended, with a Bureau of Outdoor Recreation to co-ordinate the effort.

★ ★ ★

Pending before Congress, therefore, is a bill which would authorize the BOR to allocate $50 million in matching grants to the states to plan new recreation areas. National Park Service, Forest Service, Army Corps of Engineers, Bureau of Reclamation and other federal agencies whose publicly-owned lands provide recreation services would then co-ordinate their new area planning through BOR.

★ ★ ★

Acquisition of new recreation areas will be left to the state and federal agencies, with funds provided by Congress and the legislature. Bureau of Outdoor Recreation will thus be a small planning center—the way they all begin.

"Recreation is a lot more significant than just playing," says Dr. Crafts. "Getting the right understanding of the use of leisure time for constructive recreation will benefit the American people physically, culturally, morally.

The Country Parson

"Many of us are careful not to let our religious beliefs interfere with the way we'd act if we didn't have them."

David Lawrence Says:

Plunge Echoes Global Uncertainty

WASHINGTON — The stock market's operations are often regarded as a harbinger of things to come and not as a reflection of the past.

It would be much more realistic, however, to appraise the recent decline in the value of stocks as the troubled manifestation of the present — namely, the state of mind in the world today.

LAWRENCE

The world has been trying recently to adjust to the economic disturbances that have emerged with the "cold war," Artificial rather than natural factors predominate.

★

Billions of dollars of aid have been flowing annually from the United States to Europe and consequently many of the European countries have achieved an encouraging rate of economic growth.

★

But today there's a pause — as if everybody is trying to find what direction to take. America, as the leading economic force in the world, is herself enveloped in uncertainty.

There is some slight comfort in the fact that war tensions have eased in recent months and that economic troubles are prevalent, too, in the Soviet Union and the Communist-bloc countries.

Although the European "common market" idea has received worldwide attention, it has been oversimplified.

Disillusionment now has set in as the complexity and true proportions of the whole problem are revealed.

PERIOD OF HESITATION

For it is becoming apparent now that, when tariffs and quotas of the principal countries of the world are revised, even slowly, there is inevitably a period of hesitation and readjustment in business planning.

But even if the trade picture were not filled with uncertainty, there are other factors that cause stock markets to look to the future with caution.

One of these is the value of the monetary unit. World history has shown that a government's spending of more dollars than are taken in every year results in a tendency to devalue the currency and to create more and more paper money.

★ ★ ★

America hasn't paid off any of her big war debt or shown the slightest tendency to do so. The talk is always about increasing the public debt itself.

So now, as always happens when fundamentals are neglected, there is a "gold problem." The United States cannot keep on pouring out her gold in "give-always" to the rest of the world and maintain a sound currency at home.

U.S. VALUES DOWN

Meanwhile inside the United States there is economic trouble. The change to a new administration in 1961 accentuated an already growing uncertainty. Since last December, stock market values have declined about $112 billion.

At a time when businessmen are groping for an economic equilibrium through natural factors, the national government under President Kennedy has started a number of disturbing moves. It has endorsed the fatal policies of the new deal on "pump-priming" — a remedy that never worked. It has discouraged businessmen.

Also, the administration has not only concerned itself with a few "tax havens" abroad that should have been removed long ago, but has taken a broad swipe at American business abroad and has almost wrecked the planning of many business enterprises overseas. Tax reforms inside the United States have long been overdue, but are not being tackled comprehensively.

The creation of more jobs has been lost sight of as an objective, even as labor leaders clamor for a 35-hour week with the same pay for the workmen as a 40-hour week — a proposal with which the President has not come to grips.

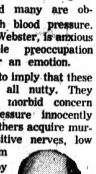
Dr. William Brady Says:

Does High Blood Pressure Worry You? Then Reduce!

From queries of readers, I gather that a good many are obsessed with high blood pressure. Obsession, says Webster, is anxious and unescapable preoccupation with an idea or an emotion.

I do not mean to imply that these poor souls are all nutty. They come by their morbid concern about blood pressure innocently enough, just as others acquire murmurs, hypersensitive nerves, low basal metabolism and the like — by accepting as a diagnosis such evasive observations when the doctor can't determine what is the matter.



BRADY

It would be better for medical students, better for practicing physicians and better for patients if the gadget for measuring blood pressure were returned to the physiology laboratory.

In Little Lesson No. 2, "CVD" (about heart and artery troubles) —for a copy send me 35 cents and a stamped, self addressed envelope —I devote two or three pages to high blood pressure and about all I say is never mind your blood pressure.

Of course, if you think you know more than I do about such things you'll go right on minding yours, just as you do the working of your liver or the cholesterol in your diet. After all, the trick specialists and "clinic" racketeers have to live.

Essential hypertension is an esoteric type of high blood pressure which occurs in persons who have nothing else the matter, at least nothing the doctor can discover. Since the doctor admits he or she can detect no heart, artery, kidney, liver or other malady that might account for the hypertension (high blood pressure), essential or idiopathic hypertension makes duck soup for the nostrum manufacturers.

GIVE PROMISE

These nostrums give great promise, cost enough to assure a quick profit for the year or two doctors continue to prescribe them. Then they are succeeded by newer drugs that give even greater promise and cost even more, and the doctors switch to the very latest wonder drug, leaving the druggist stuck with an unsaleable lot of yesterday's favorite.

A Pennsylvania physician, writing to the editor of a medical journal, says:

"From a practical standpoint, in treating essential hypertension, the best treatment to be recommended is weight reduction . . . I have found that the blood pressure is lowered in a large number of these obese hypertensives when weight reduction is accomplished."

Yahbut supposing you are not overweight. In that case, try a brisk walk two or three times a day or whenever anybody or anything irritates, annoys, angers or provokes you. Or any equivalent general exercise you can take immediately while the spell or fit is on.

For any adult who is overweight, regardless of blood pressure, I have a pamphlet, "How To Lose Weight," available free if you provide stamped, self-addressed envelope. Or if you want to know how to reduce on four square meals a day or how to make your everyday diet corrective, protective and, if necessary, reducing, send me 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope for Little Lesson No. 10, "Rules for Reducing."

★ ★ ★

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Wives: Be More Than Housekeeper

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE M-426: Larry G., aged 39, is the husband of Beth, described yesterday.

"Dr. Crane," he confessed, "I'll admit I have been dating my secretary.

DR. CRANE

"And Beth's bridge club gals all think I am a heel while they console Beth as an innocent and mistreated wife.

"But there are two sides to this problem. Beth is a splendid cook and housekeeper.

"And she has been an excellent mother to our children. But she is a dud as a sweetheart.

"She seems to think if she feeds me an extra 500 calories in apple pie and other dining room delicacies, that I should then snore contentedly till morning in my twin bed.

"But I'll be doggoned if I am going to resign myself to senility at the youthful age of 39.

"Although I have tried to reason with her and coax her into being more romantic, she always protest I'm too tired!'

"Well, Dr .Crane, I didn't marry Beth just to get a cook or laundress or even a nursemaid for my children.

★ ★ ★

"And I am sure most husbands marry because of their basic sweetheart yen. For if all men were eunuchs would there be many marriages?

"So why don't women wake up at least in educated America and get wise to the facts of male psychology?

"I still would prefer to have an affair with Beth in preference to my secretary —IF, she'd quit being so stodgy and maternal and fat.

"But she'd rather sob out her pitiful tale of abuse and then get sympathy from her women's club members, than go on a diet and really solve the problem.

"Dr. Crane, I may be wrong but it's my guess that a lot of wives who consult you marriage counselors and psychiatrists, use you as an easy way out.

"They are too lazy to face the music and fight fire with fire.

"My wife often would protest at your frank cases showing wives how to prevent divorce and she'd say you didn't know what you were talking about.

★ ★ ★

"But now that she is scared lest I get a divorce, she runs to you in panic, for she basically realizes that you have been telling wives the truth all these years.

"I have read your column in the Phoenix Republic. In fact, I've often clipped it out and laid it beside her plate.

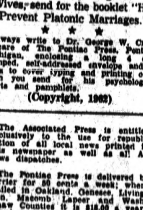
"But then she get angry and argue that you didn't know the true psychology of women any more than I did.

"So why does she turn to you when the chips are down and she is panicky lest we get a divorce?

"It's because she knew all along that you were correct but she hated to admit she was in error.

"And your stress on a wife's 'sins of omission' really burns them, for they want to feel 100 per cent innocent of any marital mistakes in order to win the saccharine sympathy of their girl friends.

"If fat wives would diet and tune in on an ardent husband's wave length so they would at least feign some ardor, I'll bet there would be less than 5 per cent divorces in America, don't you agree?"



Wives: send for the booklet "How to Prevent Platonic Marriages."

★

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long envelope stamped, self-addressed envelope and 30 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People:

Concerned About Question Asked by Public Official

I write of the type of officials that the people elect to public office. If there was any doubt before the City Commission meetings of the past two weeks, I bring to your attention the philosophies of one of your elected commissioners.

★ ★ ★

The commissioner claims he was shocked at the repulsive reaction of one of our white high school teachers when he, the commissioner, point blankly asked the teacher, "Do you mean to tell me that you have reached the age of 35 and have not had intimate relations with a Negro girl?" The implication should be most repulsive to any person regardless of sex or color. Yet this same official had the audacity to preach about democracy, living together, working together, etc.

★ ★ ★

The scars will be long lasting. I am truly hopeful this man's philosophies do not reflect the feelings of the majority of our Negro population, many of whom I know personally as fine people.

You elected this individual and you are responsible.

'Gee! Second Chance to Give Money Away'

When Congress turned thumbs down on a bill to award the Philippines $73 million for war damages on the grounds that the money would not help the poor but only the rich, the reaction was swift. President Macapagal canceled his intended visit to the U.S., called the legislation a "slap in the face," and changed the Philippine independence day from July 4.

The damage had been done when American GIs liberated the islands from the Japanese. Hundreds of millions of dollars have already been spent to recompense the people for their losses, and the Philippines are doing comparatively well.

Now President Macapagal has decided to give us another chance. He says he will honor us with a visit if we decide to be good boys and give him his $73 million.

Gosh, gang, what are we waiting for?

'Will Mayor Handle Citizen's Complaint?'

At the City Commission meeting May 22, a citizen made a complaint that he had reason to believe that gambling was active in Pontiac and that he had complained to the police and was told that they were also aware of the fact. As a general rule the mayor refers complaints to the city manager. However, to the best of my knowledge, this was not done. Mr. Mayor made the statement that the commissioners were going to run the city. Can this citizen who complained depend on the mayor for action or will he have to go elsewhere?

'Schools Depend on the Parents'

Our educational system can only be as good or as bad as we make it. As citizens with the right to choose, the blame must rest with us if our schools are inadequate. We are always so liberal with our criticism of the way the School Board conducts our business, but when the time comes for us to determine what can be done to improve our schools, we can't be bothered.

Education is the very basis on which lies the strength of our great nation. To fail our schools is to fail our country. Let's hope that our citizens at Avondale will bear this in mind when they go to the polls June 11.

Nothing but Praise for City Hospital

I have been a patient at Pontiac General for two weeks. The entire staff has shown nothing but concern. On numerous occasions I have been to the emergency department with one of my five youngsters and I have always been treated well. Some poor souls cannot be satisfied with the best, because they do not recognize it when they have it.

Present Patient at Pontiac General Hospital

I have been hospitalized in several different hospitals and have never received better treatment than at Pontiac General. Everyone always has a pleasant smile and a pleasant word. I have seen patients who did not appreciate any good treatment.

'Today's Literature Needs Supervision'

Mrs. Jacob Wenzel of the Grosse Pointe Council spoke at a meeting on the need for adult supervision of today's magazines. Magazines which are available on local newsstands to our young people were displayed.

The statement on TV that this literature is "nothing but trash and some of it too dirty to get into the mails" is all too true.

Hollywood Using Oldtimers in Its Swing Back to Comedy

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — In its swing back to comedy, Hollywood is not sending boys to do a man's work. Four of the new releases have middle-aged male stars playing what they were playing 25 years ago—and doing it marvelously well.

Cary Grant's new "That Touch of Mink" harks back to "The Awful Truth" (1937), "Holiday" (1938) and a host of other smooth performances. His style retains its polish; the material has been changed to keep up with the times. "Mink" offers a familiar theme: Will working girl Doris Day accept a post as tycoon Grant's mistress? Bet you can guess the ending.

THOMAS

The producers saw no reason to alter the formula that has made millions with "Pillow Talk," "Lover Come Back," etc. It is all there: The stunning sets, the gorgeous clothes, the glib talk.

That Touch of Mink" is also very funny. Thanks are largely due to some double-meaning routines—lifted right out of burlesque — and an accomplishtd cast, especially veteran Grant.

STILL RIDING RIGHT

With "Road to Hong Kong," Bob Hope and Bing Crosby are back on the same route that has taken them to Singapore (1940), Zanzibar (1941), Morocco (1942), Utopia (1946), Rio (1947) and Bali (1953). It's a pleasure to report that they're still headed in the right direction.

★ ★ ★

"Road pictures aren't supposed to make any sense, and the latest one well qualifies. Many of the gags misfire en route, but there is enough merriment to make you glad the old pros are together again.

Fred MacMurray's credentials for screen comedy go back to "The Gilded Lily" in 1935. His deft style remains undiminished, as evidenced by the current "Bon Voyage."

This is Walt Disney's most adult film, and it is a visual and comedic delight. The story concerns an American family's tour of Europe, and that provides ample chance for scenery and romantic complication.

Taken from the same vein as "Father of the Bride," the film is an often hilarious telling of the familiar problem—the American male vs. his family and the world around him.

Provides Substance for Communism's Claims

South Asians Impressed by Life in Moscow

(Editor's Note — The chief of AP operations in the India-Pakistan area provides an insight into the appeal that the Russian economy may have for many of the world's poorer nations on a visit to Moscow.)

By HENRY S. BRADSHER

MOSCOW (AP)—To a traveler coming from the underdeveloped areas of south Asia, Moscow looks impressively prosperous.

This is a significant fact in the cold war struggle for the new nations. In their eyes it provides substance for the claims of communism.

It is a fact often overlooked by visitors coming here from the West. They compare Moscow and the Soviet Union generally with the affluent societies of the West.

In a comparison with the glittering goods in the shop windows of New York or Frankfurt, Houston or Helsinki, the Moscow shops come out poorly. In many other material ways, visitors from the West feel that Russia makes a bad showing.

Therefore, according to the overly easy conclusion, the West emerges from the comparison as having the only economic system that works.

To the visitor from the impoverished nations of India and Pakistan, Nepal and Afghanistan, the impression here is one of surging development and a high standard of living.

After years of living in the underdeveloped economy of south Asia, a traveler is impressed with certain material comforts of life in the Soviet Union.

There may be less merchandise on display here than in New Delhi's Connaught Place shopping center or on Karachi's McLeod Road, but there is a more solid air of material well-being.

Everyone is well - dressed, solidly even if simple. This is not true in south Asia.

Women still sweep the streets in Moscow but there are a lot of mechanical street cleaners around too, something still many decades in India's future.

The unpainted clapboard or log-cabin-style farm houses may look to a westerner like something left over from the American depression. They are far better than the mud houses of India or the bamboo huts of East Pakistan, however.

Even the run-down looking houses on muddy lanes outside Moscow have television antenna on the roofs. South Asia cannot afford television yet and probably will not have it for many years.

* * *

So Moscow looks to the traveler from south Asia—and also probably to the delegations brought here from Africa and other underdeveloped areas—like a thriving city with visible proof that the Russians may have something when they talk about material advances.

Bonsal Resigns Post as Envoy to Morocco

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House announced yesterday that Phillip W. Bonsal has resigned as ambassador to Morocco and will return home for reassignment. Press Secretary Pierre Salinger said he does not know what Bonsal's next assignment wil be, nor who will succeed him.

Bonsal has been a career ambassador since 1938. He has been in his present post for a little over a year. He served earlier as ambassador to Colombia, Bolivia and Cuba.

South Carolina's irrigated land area has more than tripled within one recent 10-year period.

The Indians in Wisconsin are divided into eight main tribes and they occupy 604,000 acres of land.

Salt water bathes three sides of the peninsula of Brittany, France's westernmost province.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

Best to Ask Friends Later Time

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: I hope you can settle an issue that came up recently when my sister invited a couple to spend the evening at her house. This couple is also friends of mine, although I haven't seen them in a long time. We live in a three-family house. I live on the second floor and my sister on the third.

When this couple arrived, I heard them outside my door and so I went out and greeted them. As they had never seen our apartment I asked them to come in.

I showed them around and we sat and talked for awhile, then they left and went up to my sister's apartment.

The next day my sister told me that I had no right to ask her guests into my apartment while she sat and waited for them upstairs. She said that if I wanted them to see my apartment I should have invited them another time. Will you please tell me if I was wrong to do what I did?

A: It was not very considerate of you to stop them and delay their arrival at your sister's apartment. It would have been much better to have asked them to come in to see your apartment after leaving your sister's, or if that should be too late to come back some other day.

Q: I am a widow and have been for a number of years but am now contemplating remarriage in the near future. I am the mother of a son and for this reason have continued to wear my wedding ring on my left hand. Now that I am engaged to another man should I remove my wedding ring entirely or may I wear it until my remarriage?

A: The generally accepted convention, for a woman contemplating a second marriage, is to wear her wedding ring on her right hand and discard it on the day of her marriage.

★ ★ ★

Q: I would like to know the correct amount to tip a porter for carrying one's bags to the train?

A: The official rate for a porter to take luggage from the entrance of a railroad station to a train is 25 cents for each piece, and an additional tip is optional, but expected.

Mrs. Robert A. Landry, Wife of Mayor

Our First Lady Has 7 on Her Staff

By MARGARET BROWN
Executive Women's Editor
The Pontiac Press

Kindly Mrs. Robert A. Landry, wife of Pontiac's mayor, is quietly capable — both as the city's new First Lady — and as the mother of seven lively youngsters.

Beginning with the eldest, 22-year-old Airman 2C. Donald, studying anesthesiology at Wurtsmith Air Force Base, Oscoda, the Landrys are: Phillippe, 20, employed with his father who is a scheduling clerk at Livonia's Fisher Body Division; Dianne, 19, a MacManus, John and Adams employe; Jeanne, 19; Fred ("Please don't call me Frederick"), 16; Maria, 12; and David, 7 — all A and B students at St. Frederick's High School.

Jolly and quick-witted, as are most large families, the Landry crew held a running repartee of family jokes and teasing banter during our interview.

★ ★ ★

"Tell 'em I bake pies and cakes," quipped Fred! "When we do homework, we're all over the place," added Jeanne. Chiding affectionately, their mother asked, "Did you ever see such children!"

★ ★ ★

Refreshingly modest at the current interest in their way of life, the family at first was reluctant to say much about themselves or their accomplishments.

"Well, we all go to church on Sunday," commented Fred. St. Vincent De Paul Catholic Church, is where Mrs. Landry keeps busy as a member of Daughters of Isabella, the League of Catholic Women, St. Barbara's Guild and the Altar Society.

Mr. Landry, incidentally, is a member of the Elks Lodge and a Past Grand Knight for the Knights of Columbus. In prominent position at the Landry home on Center Street is a large gold plaque presented to the mayor for outstanding service to the K. of C.

ALL HELP WITH WORK

"The children are quite diligent about homework," said their mother, "and we all take turns with the household tasks."

Before her marriage, Lorraine worked in Pontiac at Ben Jerome Auto Sales and later for four years in the records department of the city's relief office on the corner of Rapid Street.

Of French extraction, Mrs. Landry — whose mein is the epitome of calm — said she had her first taste of feeling like "Queen for a Day" during annual Mayor's Exchange Day last week when she and Mr. Landry were honored in Jackson.

Officials there were warmly impressed with the size of their visiting mayor's family and sent numerous gifts home with the Pontiac twosome.

At this point in our conversation seven-year-old David came whistling home from school, heading mesmerically for the kitchen from whence he returned shortly munching on a cookie.

Bright-eyed and curious, he inquired, "When's the man coming to take our picture?" He added, "I hate to say it, but 'David' helps with the dishes in this family," whereupon he was swept into the arms of his beaming mother who explained, "Just had to put in your two cents worth, didn't you?"

TAKE VACATIONS

The Landrys enjoy trips to Canada where they often tour shrines, although father and mother always have made it a point to take a vacation together during the year. On June 11 the couple will journey to Palm Springs, Calif., for a two-week stay. Mr. Landry's nephew manages a hotel there.

Not to be outdone by their active parents, the Landry boys and girls have numerous interests outside the home. Jeanne is a cheerleader, vice president of her senior class and National Honor Society vice president. Fred is president of his junior class and, with Jeanne, sings in the St. Fred's choral group.

★ ★ ★

The children have participated in Camp Fire and Boy Scout activities; and pretty Dianne, the "brain of the family" spent three semesters at California where she was named outstanding woman of the year.

Mr. Landry said one of life's most exciting experiences for her was in January of 1961 when she went to Puerto Rico by plane to visit son Donald, then stationed there with the U.S. Air Force. "The scenery was so impressive," she recalled; "and I was entranced with the natives' basket, shell and weaving arts."

A woman whose contentment in her family and happy marriage radiates in every word and gesture, Mrs. Landry feels her role as wife of the city's mayor will be to ". . . follow my husband."

But Nothing You Can Do

Relationship to Be Deplored

DEAR ABBY: After we were married, my wife talked me into letting her retain her maiden name because she was a school teacher and wanted to be known as Miss.

ABBY

This has created some embarrassing situations over the years.

After 20 years, I have had it. She positively refuses to use my name and call herself Mrs., because, she says, it will confuse things in the school system where she has been known as Miss for so many years. What is your advice?

MR. WITHOUT A MRS.

DEAR MISTER: Your school-teacher wife has a lot to learn. But you were the foolish one to have let her get away with it for so long. You can't teach an old horse new tricks. And you'll never teach a mule anything.

DEAR ABBY: We have a large family that includes many grandchildren. They are intelligent, active youngsters from 2 to 12. The minute they set foot in our home they start wrecking the place.

★ ★ ★

My husband says, "Well, here comes the demolition crew!" Abby, they jump on the furniture with their shoes, tear up everything they see and in general act like wild animals. All the while their parents sit by and say nothing.

I think we should borrow some wild kids and repay our children's visits. My husband says we should tell them off and put a stop to their visits until the kids grow up. What is your opinion?

WHAT NEXT

DEAR WHAT: Evidently your own children could use some advice, so don't spare the horse sense. Tell them if they don't teach their children now to behave in the homes of others, they can play outside or stay in their own homes.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a wife who loaned her wedding ring to her girl friend so she could get married? Seems like a hurry-up affair to me. On their return, the girl claimed she "lost" the ring. I say they pawned it. I also say if my wife had any love for me she never would have taken that ring off her finger.

IRKED HUSBAND

★ ★ ★

DEAR IRKED: Your wife was foolish to have lent her wedding ring, but don't measure her love for you by a simple, well-intentioned (though stupid) act of generosity.

★ ★ ★

How's the world treating you? For a personal unpublished reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, care of The Pontiac Press.

★ ★ ★

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to ABBY, care of The Pontiac Press.

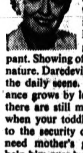
Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5



Self-expression takes many forms in the toddler. Imagination begins to run rampant. Showing off becomes second nature. Daredevil tactics dominate the daily scene. While self-assurance grows by leaps and bounds, there are still many, many times when your toddler will slip back to the security of babyhood and need mother's guiding hand to help him over hurdles.

•

New Finger Food for self-feeders. Gerber Meat Sticks make playing "pick up sticks" a worthwhile pleasure because they're so nutritious. Made from selected Armour Pork and Beef for high quality protein. Nonfat dry milk solids are added for extra protein and other nutrients. Tasty? You bet. They're mildly seasoned—extra low in fat.

•

Video views. Certainly TV can be a boon to a busy mother as well as an educational force for a toddler. But TV should not be a substitute for real experiences and educational training from mother. By limiting viewing and selecting suitable programs, you can make TV work to your advantage . . . and your child's.

Tablatime tactics. Most toddlers go through a stage of saying "No" to everything. If it attracts attention at mealtime, saying "No" can become a habit . . . almost a game. (Sometimes it's even more fun than eating.) It should be ignored like any other play for attention. Baby will stop sooner if you don't listen.

•

Refusal of food is usually minimized when you serve Gerber Junior Foods. Because they have the "semi-grown-up" flavors toddlers take to . . . an evenly minced texture that's just right for tots with a few teeth.

•

Reminder: baby cereals are still an important part of a toddler's diet because of the iron and other important nutrients they provide. Gerber Cereals are rich in iron, also offer calcium, B-vitamins. Gerber Baby Foods, Fremont, Michigan.

Editor Produces Unliterary Gems

Makes Wife's Jewelry in Back-Yard Workshop in Tallahassee

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — When Dorothy Johnson needs a new piece of jewelry, she calls up the editor of the local newspaper and says "make it."

★ ★ ★

Malcolm Johnson, her husband, then goes to his back-yard workshop and fashions a ring, bracelet or pendant as required.

Johnson, executive editor of the Tallahassee Democrat, says it is the perfect hobby. It relaxes him, and he does not have to invent excuses at home to pursue it.

He stamps each piece with his first name and Mrs. Johnson calls it her "Malcolm" jewelry. Though an avid collector of antique jewelery, she always wears at least one "Malcolm" piece when she goes out.

The Johnsons' 20-year-old daughter Donna also has a case full of Dad's originals. Her favorite is a bracelet hung with charms depicting the big events in her life, including her first sip of champagne.

★ ★ ★

This tiny champagne goblet, about one-half inch high, was the hardest piece he ever did in terms of time and patience, Johnson said.

Johnson started as an amateur silversmith when his wife and daughter bought him some hand-some cuff links in Key West and he was unable to find shirt studs to match. He made them.

"They were an awful mess," he said. But he was so intrigued that he signed up for a course in metals design at nearby Florida State University. However, he said he really learned most of what he knows from books and practice.

Though his creations are lovely enough to wear to an inaugural ball, Johnson says the hobby is not expensive. He said $15 worth of tools, some available at the dime store, will put you in business and the materials are not costly.

★ ★ ★

In addition to silver, Johnson also works in pewter. Mrs. Johnson's prized possession is a set of pewter cocktail glasses he made for $2 each. He's now making sherry cups to match.

Huron Valley Industrial Group Will Organize

Plans to Elect Officers Monday

Awaits OK of Bylaws, Hopes to Attract New Business to Area

MILFORD — Members of the Huron Valley Area Industrial Development Corporation will meet June 4 to elect officers of the non-profit organization.

The 8 p.m. meeting, which is open to the public, will be held in the new quarters of the corporation above the D and C Store, 416 N. Main St.

The recently organized corporation, formed after receiving support from the Milford Chamber of Commerce, is awaiting approval of its bylaws by the state Securities Commission in Lansing.

The purpose of the organization is to attract industry into the 100-square-mile area encompassed by the Huron Valley School District.

LIKE ROCHESTER

The corporation is patterned after the successful Rochester Area Development Corporation, but unlike that organization, no stock will be issued.

The new corporation will be sustained by membership fees and dues, neither of which have been established.

There already are 16 members of the corporation and another seven who have committed themselves, according to Clark Jeffers, spokesman of the group and acting Milford postmaster.

While the board of directors of the corporation will probably be set at a maximum of 25 members, the organization is open to participating membership, Jeffers explained.

He said that two members of the corporation are from Pontiac.

"This shows that the enthusiasm in the development of this area is high and if it continues there is no reason why the program shouldn't be a success," added Jeffers.

"The corporation already has received several inquiries from firms interested in relocating in the area."

The corporation is in the process of preparing a brochure for distribution to industrialists explaining the labor market and sites available in the area.

★ ★ ★

An 11-member steering committee did the groundwork in getting the corporation organized.

The members include chairman Burt Clark, manager of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland; Bert Fowler, realtor; Clay Stokes, insurance-real estate; William Knapp, president of the Redi-Mix Cement Co.; William McMachan, branch manager of Detroit Edison Co.; and William Gharrity, publisher of the Milford Times.

★ ★ ★

Others are Netter Thompson, manager of the D and C Store; Asa Smith, Highland businessman; O. M. Hanson, manufacturer; Ken Hayden, builder; and Jiffers.

The audience will be encouraged to hiss the villains and cheer the hero and heroine in the play, scheduled for 8:15 p.m. Friday and Saturday at the Utica High School auditorium.

Defend Doomed Trees at Romeo Junior High

By LEE WINBORN
Area News Editor

ROMEO — "School board, spare those trees!" paraphrases the plea made by some 25 local residents at last night's special board of education meeting here.

The group, representing 141 petitioners and many others in the district, were asking board reconsideration of a plan to remove "some 13 beautiful trees" to make room for a circular drive in front of the junior high school.

The petitioners said they felt the plan would devaluate their property and ruin the historic site of the One-time Romeo Branch of the University of Michigan.

(There is a boulder in front of the junior high bearing a tablet which commemorates the Romeo Academy, 1835-1843, the Romeo Brahch of the University of Michigan, 1843-1851, and the Dickinson Institute, 1854-1867. It was erected by the Romeo Monday Club in 1932.)

★ ★ ★

Additionally, the petition states that removal of the trees, some of them over 100 years old, would be "a great loss to the village in appearance and charm."

Before the residents and board members presented their respective stands, architect C. Wendell Smith of Eberle M. Smith Associates, Inc., Detroit, elaborated on plans for the drive.

He said it was based on a survey by an engineering firm showing existing buildings and the proposed new building connected by a covered passageway.

EXTRA FEATURES

When bids on the school district's $650,000 building program were awarded April 26 after coming in $18,000 under the architect's estimates, the entrance drive, walk and connecting canopy were included as extra features in the general contract.

Construction of the 30-foot-wide blacktop drive would necessitate the removal of nine or 10 trees on the school grounds and one or two on village land near the street, said the architect. There are some 45 trees, most of them hard maples or evergreens, in front of the school.

Although sympathetic toward the move to save the trees, Smith said other factors are "essential to the operation of the school."

★ ★ ★

"The site is relatively small and the bus loading area at the rear of the school is hazardous," he pointed out. At present children get on and off buses on Chandler Street, a narrow public thoroughfare behind the school.

Smith also stated that putting in the drive and erecting a canopy over the doorway will make the front entrance more useful.

He added that the board wanted a drive of sufficient length to provide loading and unloading space for 20 buses.

Also contested by petitioning residents was the use of the junior high as a shuttle center for bus transportation. They suggested the South School or the high school as possible locations for the center because of additional space available at either place.

Board member Raymond Wilson, speaking personally, said he recognized that the trees were over 100 years old. But, he said, the board's first responsibility is to the children and their safety —then to save the trees.

Resident Paul W. Bruske, 345 Prospect St., asked that a solution be found to do justice to safety and to the basic beauty of the school property. He further requested that the interested citizens be given two or three weeks to come up with some alternatives.

★ ★ ★

"Let's compromise," said board president Walter Sewell. He asked citizens to name a committee to check the stakes marking the path of the proposed drive, the specifications, transportation problems and other factors.

Norman Scheck, president of the Romeo Historical Society, was named chairman, and June 21 was set as the date for the citizens' report to be made to the board.

Five-Story Motel Planned by Southfield Restaurant

SOUTHFIELD — Plans for a $700,000 five-story Howard Johnson Motor Lodge on Northwestern Highway were announced today.

Construction of the motel, adjacent to the Howard Johnson restaurant at 25050 Northwestern Highway is expected to begin this fall.

Plans are also in preparation for a cocktail lounge at the restaurant. A Class C liquor license for the restaurant was approved last night by the City Council.

The motel will have 75 to 80 units and a swimming pool.

REJECT REZONING

In other action at last night's meeting, City Council turned down a request by Councilman Clarence A. Durbin for rezoning of residential property on Evergreen Road between Saxton and Albany streets.

Durbin said this morning that he will contest the decision in court.

Representatives from several civic associations protested any rezoning of the 300-foot-wide parcel at a public hearing on the issue last night. Refusal of the request was recommended by the city's planning commission.

Durbin asked that his property be rezoned to educational-research-office use to permit construction of a professional office building.

Though the land is bounded on both sides by homes, Durbin maintained no further residential building would ever take place on Evergreen Road.

TRUDY A. HERSHBERGER

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick N. Filer of Dearborn. Following their June 23 wedding the couple will live in Midland.

Walled Lake Council to Air '62-63 Tax Rate

WALLED LAKE — The City Council will meet at 8 p.m. today to consider establishing the tax rate for the 1962-63 fiscal year.

A meeting had been scheduled for the last night by City Manager Harold Millspaugh but only two councilmen, Mayor Louis James and Richard Watkins, attended.

Delay Decision on Dismissal of Drive-In Suit

ROCHESTER — Circuit Court Judge William J. Beer yesterday postponed until next Monday a decision on Village Atty. Arthur R. Cox's motion to dismiss a suit against construction of a Big Boy Drive-In restaurant in Rochester.

Judge Beer's temporary injunction of May 18 remains in effect until the decision is entered.

The injunction restrains the village from issuing a building permit for the restaurant, planned for construction on North Main Street across from St. Philip's Episcopal Church.

St. Philip's brought the suit against the village and the property owners, claiming the drive-in would create a traffic hazard.

The church's bill of complaint also charges that approval of the restaurant by the village zoning board was improper and prejudiced.

School Board President Explains Millage Request

ROCHESTER — "Approval of school improvements in the past by Rochester voters, indicating they wanted quality education, requires that they again make the choice between quality and bare minimum programs," Henry Purdy, president of the Rochester Board of Education, said today.

A 4.5 mill increase in school taxes is on the ballot in the June 11 election.

Purdy made a mill-by-mill explanation of the need for increased income of the schools. On Rochester's tax evaluation of $57,500,000, one mill brings in $51,570 based on a 90 per cent collection.

Half-a-mill will pay for normal increases in teacher salaries on the present salary schedule, he said.

Districts surrounding Rochester have raised salaries this spring to pay teachers from $100 to $1,000 more than Rochester teachers are receiving at various salary levels. One full mill would be required to meet competition in hiring teachers.

Almost two mills of extra taxation, $90,700 are needed to hire 14 new teachers, a principal and assistant principal to operate two junior high schools, West and Central, and expand the school program to care for increased enrollment.

Physical operation of two new buildings, the 14-room senior high annex and West Junior High School, will add $33,000 to costs of the district. Auxiliary services, including replacement of three school buses and addition of two more to the fleet, are set at $27,000. These two items will cost slightly more than one mill in additional taxes, Purdy said.

An assortment of items from various categories of the school budget come to $22,250 and round out fraction millages, Purdy cited. These include $5,800 in salary increases for eight principals, who do not receive automatic increases given to teachers, $5,000 increased allowance for substitute teachers, and $4,700 in extra clerical allowances.

The 4.5 mill levy would mean a $29.70 annual tax increase on a home assessed at $3,000. A state equalization factor of 2.2 is applied to most property in the Rochester School district.

Lauds Merchants in Rochester for Welcome Plan

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Kiwanis Club gave recognition to local merchants who subscribe to its welcome service at its regular dinner meeting last night.

Acting as master of ceremonies in welcoming the group was Lloyd F. Christensen.

A brief history of the service which has officially welcomed 2,500 newcomers to the area in its nearly eight years of existence was given by Herman Klix. Klix is chairman of the welcome service committee.

Then Mrs. Doris Sawyer told some of her experiences as welcome hostess. She stressed the feeling of friendship she and the subscribers try to impart to new residents of the Rochester community.

She said she covers some 65 square miles, visiting both renters and homeowners giving gift certificates, presents and a copy of the village directory.

School Post Candidates to Answer 3 Questions in Lake Orion

LAKE ORION — Three questions have been sent to candidates for the board of education in advance of a public "town hall" meeting to be held at 8 p.m. Thursday at the high school here.

★

The meeting, sponsored by the Lake Orion Parent-Teacher Association Council, is designed to give candidates an opportunity to present their platforms and voters a chance to meet the candidates.

The three questions candidates will be prepared to answer are:

1. Why are you a candidate for the board of education?
2. Are there any changes in our school system that you feel should be made?
3. How do you feel about federal aid to education?

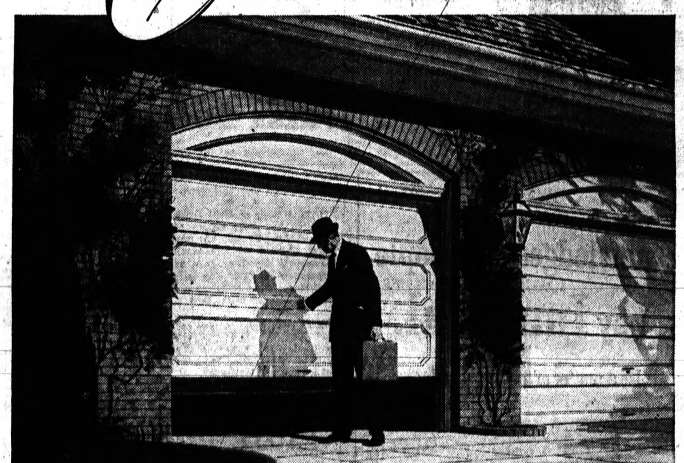
Candidates also are expected to discuss any other issues they deem important and a question and answer period will follow their presentations.

The four candidates for the two 4-year terms at stake in the June 11 school election are incumbents Hugh Brady, secretary, and Keith Middleton, Dale Spear, 2586 Lance St., and William L. Bonning, 440 Indianside Drive.

Man Found Dead in Car

DETROIT (AP) — Mike Pokarski, 70, of Detroit, was found dead in his car Monday night after it shot through the rear wall of his garage and struck a neighbor's house. Police said Pokarski may have died of natural causes just before the mishap.

Cadillac



How to pay for a Cadillac—and not get one!

There are several ways that a man can pay the price of a new Cadillac car—and find himself in possession of an automobile of far less stature.

Because there are many motorists currently considering the purchase of their next car, we would like to enumerate these ways of going astray.

1. Assume that the purchase price of a new Cadillac car is higher than it actually is. (There are eleven models of other makes that this year cost more than the lowest-priced Cadillac model.)

2. Fail to appreciate that the basic price of a new Cadillac includes many important things that are extra on other cars. (Including automatic transmission, power steering and power braking.)

3. Neglect to find out from a Cadillac dealer what your present car is worth in trade. (He is especially anxious this spring to welcome new owners.)

And if you take one of these detours, think of all the unique pleasures you could be missing.

There is Cadillac's styling—so majestic that it attracts attention wherever it goes.

There is Cadillac's comfort—so wonderful that every journey becomes a brief vacation.

And there is Cadillac's performance—so great that it is without rival on the world's highways.

So we suggest that you play it safe—and get all the facts from your dealer soon.

You might be closer to a Cadillac than you think.

Barons Show 'Class' in Press Golf Win

Bloomfield Hills Paced by West in Prep Tourney

Seaholm Is Runnerup; Northville's Slattery Cops 'B-C' Medal

By BILL CORNWELL

Class finally told Monday in the 11th annual Pontiac Press Prep Invitational golf tournament at Pontiac Country Club.

Depth and balance were once more factors for Bloomfield Hills as the Barons shook off every challenge to win the 18-hole medal play event and lug home the Press traveling trophy for the second straight year.

Spearheaded by Chuck West's sinsset-methodical 74, Bloomfield Hills compiled a five-man total of 306 for a six-stroke victory margin over runnerup Birmingham Seaholm and a 10-stroke cushion over third-place Northville.

The talented Hills squad was favored right from the beginning and coach Don Dennis' par-minded Barons made the experts look good. But victory didn't come as easily as many prophets anticipated.

HEAVY FAVORITES

Champions by a whopping 16 strokes a year ago at Pontiac C.C. with a score of 402, the Barons were expected to win by a similar margin this time while other observers figured they would win by at least 10 shots.

★ ★ ★

Half a dozen shots would still be called comfortable, but Dennis was feeling a little uncomfortable after nine holes when he discovered his proteges were nursing a shaky three-stroke edge.

Seaholm, six-time Press champion, made an all-out bid to dethrone the Hills and Northville, not even considered a serious title contender, threatened for a spell to pull the greatest upset in tourney history.

Northville, competing in the Press event for the second time, was only three shots behind the Barons at the turn and Seaholm trailed the defending champs by seven.

★ ★ ★

However, the Barons proved steadier over the long haul and one by one, each challenger faded in the stretch run.

West captured medal honors for the meet as well as in the Class A division with his 37-37—74, which equaled par at P.C.C.

Teammate Fred Ewald, medalist last year with a 75, was 35 yesterday at the turn, but he soared to 41 on the back side and wound up with 76. Tom Fry carded 80, Steve Tzinetf 82 and Carl Becker 86 to round out the Baron's winning efforts.

Seaholm, which totaled 404, was paced by Jim Cheney's excellent 75. Fred Adams, Dan Mathewe and Tom Stevens each shot 81 for the Maples and Jim Mensing posted 86.

TWO MORE 75s

Two other players in the 100-man field also fashioned 75s to match Cheney. Ferndale, a new entry this year, received one 75 from Don Brooks and Royal Oak Kimball's Pete McVittie scored the other.

Although Bloomfield Hills walked away with a majority of the honors, Northville also had its golfing day in the sun.

Actually the real surprise of the tourney, Northville's 408 total was good for 3rd place and victory in the Class B-C division.

The Mustangs also claimed the B-C medal when Tom Slattery defeated St. Frederick's Charlie Dean on the first extra hole of a sudden-death playoff after the two boys finished their regulation rounds with 76s.

★ ★ ★

Slattery three-putted the green at No. 1 for a bogey six, but still won the playoff when Dean sailed his second shot out of bounds, then took two blows to get out of the trap with a provisional ball.

It was the first playoff of any kind in this tournament since 1954 when Birmingham's Tim Baldwin beat Bob Turner of Southfield on the first hole at Pontiac Municipal to win the Class A medal as the Maples were collecting the first of their six Press triumphs.

Ed Malinowski shot 76 to lead Royal Oak Dondero to a 5th-place finish at 415, Rochester, paced by Dave Rouweens' 80, placed 4th with 412.

Five other golfers broke 80. Phil Thingstad of Pontiac Central shot 77, Waterford Township's Roger Tallman carded 78, teammate Mike Secoy had 79 and so did Lapeer's Bob Duckwall and Bruce Ross of Dondero.

★ ★ ★

West was steady as the Rock of Gibraltar, bagging 12 pars, three bogies and three birdies. He went two over par after 14 holes, but rallied with birdies on the 15th and 16th to pull even again.

TAKE MEDAL HONORS—Chuck West (left) of Bloomfield Hills kisses the putter that helped him post a 74 in The Press Prep Invitational Golf Tournament yesterday at Pontiac Country Club.

He fired the low round of the day. Tom Slattery (right) of Northville defeated St. Frederick's Charlie Dean on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff to cop 'B-C' medal honors. Both fired 76s.

BERRY, AUBURN TRIUMPH

Berry Door tripped Bud & Lou's Bar 12-7, Auburn Bar outscored Oakland Auto Supply 12-9 and Stadium Inn won by forfeit over Dixie Tool & Machine in the International League.

Down 4-0 at the start, Berry came back strong to win in 4½ frames getting 11 hits including a double and single by Paul Davis and two singles for Jim Stratton. Rich Meger slammed a double and triple in a four-hitter by Darrell Herron.

Auburn came back after being behind 7-0 and 9-1 by scoring seven times in the 4th and four more in the 6th. Auburn put together two baggers by Norm Aulseybrok, Walt Kriewald and Rog Rennie, a single by Hal Dorman, a stolen base and passed ball to win it.

Bunning 'Sharp' in 3-1 Victory Over Orioles

Tigers Moving Up

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers are moving at a tremendous gait that has them right back in contention and manager Bob Scheffing sums up the progress in one word — pitching.

★ ★ ★

"We've got pitching now and we're winning," said Scheffing after Jim Bunning throttled the Baltimore Orioles 5-1 on three hits last night. "It's that simple.

"We've had four complete games in our last five and I can't ask for much more."

The conquest of the Orioles was the Tigers' seventh victory in eight games. The surge has carried the Tigers to 2½ games from first place.

And the Tigers have made their climb without much hitting.

Norm Cash's slump has cut his average to .233 and the defending batting champion has just two hits in his last 23 at bat. Charlie Maxwell has yet to get a hit as injured Al Kaline's replacement.

LOOKING BETTER

"Cash looked awful on our road trip," said Scheffing. "He was lunging and swinging at balls over his head. But he looked much better against the Orioles.

"He was watching the ball better. That's why he walked three times. If they ever start giving him pitches he can hit, he'll start pulling his average up."

Cash struck out in his only official bat while Maxwell went 0-for-4.

The Tigers were restricted to six hits by four Baltimore pitchers. But only three of the hits were wasted.

Rocky Colavito cracked a run-scoring double and a two-run homer and definitely seems to have licked his slump. Chico Fernandez drilled a two-run homer and already has doubled last year's home run output with six.

Colavito and Fernandes started Bunning to a 5-0 lead off Milt Pappas by the fourth. And the Tiger right hander hadn't even allowed a hit.

Jerry Adair broke Bunning's no-hit spell with two out in the fifth. Russ Snyder ruined his shutout with a leadoff homer in the ninth.

A crowd of 24,100 welcomed the Tigers home from their successful roadtrip and watched Bunning work against his Baltimore bellbuckle accusers.

★ ★ ★

After the game, manager Billy Hitchcock, who'd charged Bunning with cutting the ball with his buckle at Baltimore Thursday, said he noticed nothing wrong this time.

Prep Golfers Hear Bone at Awards Luncheon

Plays 18 Holes, Dashes for Banquet

Gene Bone was still a little out of breath, but he reached Pontiac Country Club in time to talk to the 100 boys who played in yesterday's 11th annual Pontiac Press Prep Invitational golf tournament.

There was a mighty good reason for the Pontiac native being a mite winded.

He had just completed 18 holes in a pro-am best ball tourney at Knollwood and was forced to race the clock to arrive at the Pontiac C. C. dining room before the traditional awards luncheon ended.

The trophy presentations were almost at an end when Gene appeared in the dining room doorway, then strolled to an empty chair being reserved for him at the head table.

★ ★ ★

It was the first time in Press Invitational history that a pro had been sought to chat with Oakland County's leading teen-age golfers and the 29-year-old Warwick Hills pro welcomed the opportunity.

Himself a winner of an Oakland County prep tourney in his high school days at Pontiac Central before the Press meet was started, Bone praised the Press outing and lauded the many values of prep golf.

He cited the many virtues to be gleaned from the game itself and briefly discussed rules and etiquette.

Most of his remarks centered around playing by the rules.

"You're only hurting yourself when you don't play the game of golf according to the rules," Bone said. "I found that out a long time ago and I hope you realize this too."

★ ★ ★

"You may not fully appreciate it right now, but later on you will and you'll sleep better as right if you know you played by the book," Bone commented.

A question-and-answer session followed and Gene concluded his talk with a commercial by inviting everyone to attend the 5th annual Buick Open July 5-8 at his club on the Dixie Highway near Grand Blanc.

Bone didn't know it until later in the day, but he won a grand total of $182.40 in the pro-am at Knollwood — $110.25 as the best pro with a par 71 and the remainder for a 3rd-place tie in the team division.

SHORT PUTTS

Bloomfield Hills was disappointed over its runnerup finish in the state Class A meet Saturday at Saginaw C. C., but the Barons made up for lost time by repeating as Press champions Monday.

"This tournament is the highlight of the golf season for us," said Hills coach Don Dennis. "We always look forward to the Press tourney."

In Pro-Am Tournament at Knollwood

Orlick, Bone Take Honors

Warren Orlick, head pro at Tam O'Shanter, and Pontiac's Gene Bone, who used to be his assistant, won top honors plus a sizeable share of the purse in Monday's State PGA-sponsored Pro-Am Best Ball golf tournament at Knollwood Country Club.

Orlick joined forces with 19-year-old Barry Solomon for a 31-34—65, six under par, to win the best ball event. Bone, now head pro at Warwick Hills, fired 36-35—71 to capture individual professional honors.

Solomon, a pre-law sophomore at Wayne State University and a Tam member, helped Orlick on five different holes as they topped a giant field of 62 pros and 179 amateurs, nine more than competed at Plum Hollow two weeks ago.

NINE STRAIGHT PARS

First place in the pro-am division netted Orlick $171.85 while Bone earned $11.25 as the No. 1 pro. A total of $1,653.50 was at stake in the tourney.

Bone parred nine consecutive holes on the back side, scrambling for a couple of them with good approaches and putts of 2 and 15 feet. He double-bogied the 1st hole, but pulled even with par by bagging birdies at No. 7 and No. 9. He scrambled beautifully to par the 35-yard 4th.

Orlick, who carded 34 on the front nine before running out of gas coming home to finish with a personal 75, birdied the 3rd, 5th, 7th and 9th holes. Solomon aided Orlick with pars on 6, 12, 16 and 17 and an eagle three on the 14th hole.

Tad Schmidt of Detroit Golf Club and partner Joe Tangney took 2nd place with 66. Dick DeLano, assistant pro at Stonycroft and a former Pontiac Northern golfer, teamed with Don Davis, a Pontiac Motor employe, for a 67 to share 3rd position with four other teams.

Invitational Coaches Stage Tense Tourney

The faculty had a dramatic tournament of its own Monday as a special accompaniment to the 11th annual Pontiac Press Prep Invitational golf tournament at Pontiac Country Club.

Twenty faculty members took part in the nine-hole event and for the first time since it was inaugurated, the Press awarded a prize to the low net winner as well as the low gross victor.

After a suspense-filled playoff, St. Michael golf coach Glenn Harding won the actual division. St. Frederick's Gene Wright, Southfield's Dick Powell and Bill Willson of Pontiac Northern tied Harding at 38 and they went into sudden-death.

Harding, veteran public links star, won the playoff with a par four on the 5th hole as Willson bogied. Wright was eliminated on the 4th hole and Powell bowed out on the 3rd.

Using the Calloway handicap system, Bloomfield Hills coach Don Dennis carded 32 to win the net division. Harding and Dennis each received a gift certificate from The Press.

'Half Asleep' Golfer Sees Pin Well Enough

"I should play golf when I'm half asleep more often."

So quipped Pontiac's Charles Shotwell after rifling a hole-in-one in the early morning hours at Twin Lakes Golf Club.

Shotwell used a 6-iron to ace the 165-yard 4th hole. It was his first hole-in-one and also the first this year at Twin Lakes. He carded 43.

Witnesses were George and Arnold Landspurger and Bennett Donaldson, all from Pontiac.

Prep Tourney Set to Start

Strong Northville lived up to its rating as a title contender in the big Pontiac Parks & Recreation-Pontiac Press Invitational Baseball Tournament by beating star pitcher Jim Ray and Holly 5-4 in the season final yesterday.

Three other schools, entered in the three-day meet starting here tomorrow afternoon, bowed in their last pre-tourney outings.

Waterford blanked Kettering 4-0 to go ahead by 100 points in the race for The Press All-Sports Trophy. Brighton nipped Bloomfield Hills 4-3 in 10 innings and Birmingham Seaholm edged Royal Oak Kimball 3-2 in an important Eastern Michigan League game.

OPENS ON HOLIDAY

All eight tournament entries will clash in the Memorial Day opening round.

A pair of 1:30 p.m. contests on adjacent field will open the action, Pontiac Northern and Southfield meet in one contest and Kettering vs. Northville in the other. At 5:30, Bloomfield takes on Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows, Pontiac Central plays Kimball at 7:30.

Semifinals will be Thursday at 5:30 and 7:30 p.m. The Northville-Kettering and PCH-Kimball winners will meet in the nightcap.

★

A game to decide 3rd place matching the semifinal losers is set for Friday at 5:30 p.m. The title affair will follow at 7:30. All games will be played at Jaycee Park.

The teams will be battling for a team trophy and individual medals for all players on the championship squad. A most valuable player award will also be presented at the end of play.

Northville is now 14-1, Kimball 10-4, Bloomfield 10-6 and Kettering 8-5. Sorrows finished 8-4, Central 7-6, Northern 6-6 and Southfield 5-5.

★ ★ ★

Northville took Bloomfield Hills twice on the way to winning the Wayne-Oakland crown. PNH and Southfield were Inter-Lakes foes as the only other teams to meet. The Huskies won 3-2 but the Jays gained revenge by 10-3.

After trailing 3-0 and 4-2, Northville pulled it out in the 6th yesterday. An error, hit batter, sacrifice, walk, wild pitch and two-run single by Joe Hay accounted for three runs. Hay had batted in one earlier. Holly's runs off starter Tom Swiss were unearned. Dan Brown hurled three shutout innings for the victory. Ray gave up just four hits compared to seven for Holly and fanned 14.

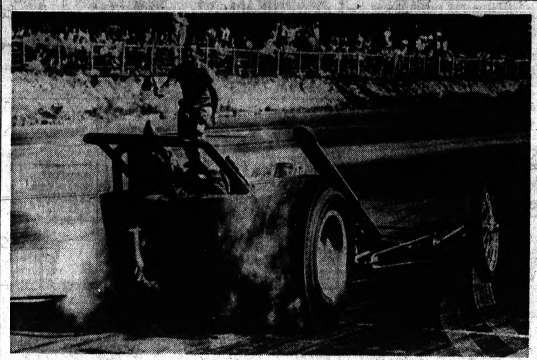
Waterford got its runs in the 5th on two errors, a bunt single, a walk, two fielder's choices and a big double by Chuck Ahnan. Each team had three hits. Victor Bob Readler fanned nine as did Chuck Henderson and Bob Bogert combined. A track meet remains between the schools.

A walk, steal and bloop single by Dennis Hartman won for Brighton after John Augustin had hurled hitless relief. Jim Armstrong with one-hit, shutout hurling in relief after the Barons went ahead 3-0 in the 4th. Gary Garwood had a three-run triple. Bill Pethtone slammed a triple and single as the losers posted a 6-3 hitting advantage.

A long home run in the 5th by winner Gee Schmidt proved to be the clincher for Seaholm. Kimball came back with a pair in the same inning but left men on thereafter. Steve Wilson lost a four-hitter. A bad-hop triple and dropped popup helped doom him.

★

Milford downed Clarkston 3-2 as Ed Sparkman finished 5-1 by besting John Williams in a battle of six-hitters. Clarkston tried to make it close with two in the 6th. Duke Peterson had a double and single, Ron Hoggard two singles for Milford. Gary Pearson had two singles and Mike Applegate a triple for the Wolves.



WHEELS UP!—The front wheels jump off the ground as Jim Fineran of Detroit pours the fuel to his dragster at the Detroit Dragway. He was clocked at 143 miles an hour. Drag races will be held today and tomorrow on the Sibley Road strip east of Telegraph Road.

Expect Fastest Indianapolis Race

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — While the nation's family car chauffeurs fight bumper-to-bumper Memorial Day traffic, 33 skilled drivers blast off Wednesday in what should be the fastest Indianapolis 500-mile auto race in history.

★ ★ ★

This 46th annual classic which will jam upwards of 250,000 into the sprawling Indianapolis Motor Speedway includes the fastest qualifier in the event's history, the fastest qualifying field ever, and four former champions.

Death also may be crowded in the tiny cockpits of some luckless drivers, because 30 drivers have perished in this 200-lap grind to nowhere since Ray Harroun won the first Indianapolis 500 in 1911.

WEATHER FACTOR

The fabulous weather luck of the 500 may prevail again, although it may be touch and go whether the race can beat a predicted mid-afternoon summer storm.

★ ★ ★

The least sprinkle makes a killer of the now completely asphalt strip, but only two races—in 1926 and 1950—were shortened by rain.

The favorite is sophomore Parnelli Jones, 28, of Torrance, Calif., who won the pole position with a qualifying record speed of 150.370 miles per hour in his 10-mile test dash. Jones, defending USAC sprint car champion, was first to break the one-minute Speedway barrier for the 2½-mile loop.

Jones will have to ride all the horsepower he can muster to stave off 1959 champion Rodger Ward and another second-year starter, Bobby Marshman of Pottstown, Pa., who share the first row with him. Ward qualified at 149.371 and Marshman at 149.349.

FOYT READY

The second of the 11 three-car rows which await the starting signal at 11 a.m., (EST) includes defending champion A. J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., who last year set the current 500 record of 139.130 m.p.h. Foyt qualified with 149.074 m.p.h.

Other champions in the 33-driver field which qualified at a record average pace of 147.330, include Jim Rathmann of Melbourne, Fla., winner in 1960, and Troy Ruttman of Dearborn, Mich., who won as a 22-year-old rookie in 1952.

★ ★ ★

The dean of the field is Paul Russo, 48, Indianapolis, who never finished better than fourth in 13 starts.

Wynn 3-Hits Indians

By The Associated Press

Tired? Not 42-year-old Early Wynn, who began his career in 1939, and 22 seasons, 651 games and 4,381 innings later is cranking his durable right arm toward the 300-victory circle reached by only 13 major league pitchers.

★ ★ ★

Coming back from a sore arm that sidelined him in the 1961 campaign, Wynn has returned to the firing line for the Chicago White Sox. Monday night he came through with his best effort of the season — a three-hit job that blanked Cleveland 2-0.

It was the 295th triumph of a distinguished career for Wynn, on record as the oldest active player in the majors. The victory evened his record for the year at 3-3 and left him only five shy of that coveted 300 mark.

17 STRAIGHT

Wynn retired 17 consecutive batters at one stretch, did not walk a man and faced only 29 men—just two over the minimum, while posting his first shutout since he stopped the same Indians on Sept. 23, 1960. That gave him a career total of 47, tops among active American League hurlers.

The loss dropped the Indians into a tie for first-place with the New York Yankees, who were rained out at Kansas City. Jim Bunning allowed only three hits in Detroit's 5-1 decision over Baltimore, Earl Wilson and Mike Fornieles of Boston combined for a three-hitter that shut out Minnesota 3-0 and the Los Angeles Angels beat Washington 6-4.

★ ★ ★

Wynn's 295th ended the amazing pitching string put together by Cleveland's 34-year-old ace, Dick Donovan. The veteran right-hander, acquired from Washington in the trade that sent Jimmy Piersall to the Senators, had won eight previous starts.

ACE AT BAT

Wynn also drove in one of the White Sox runs, knocking in Mike Hershberger with a seventh-inning single. Chicago's first run came in the fourth on a single by Jim Landis and Floyd Robinson's double.

Joey Jay and Harvey Haddix are paid their handsome salaries to pitch. But the big right-hander and the slender southpaw aren't exactly helpless in the batter's box.

Both proved that Monday night in pacing their National League clubs to victory.

Jay banged a homer and two singles and drove across four runs as Cincinnati strengthened its hold on third place by winning its fifth in a row, 9-6, over Houston.

SIX HITTER

Haddix threw a six-hitter and led Pittsburgh's offensive with three hits in the Pirates' 3-1 decision over St. Louis. The result left the Bucs, who've taken six of their last nine, just a half game back of the fourth-place Cardinals.

In the league's only other game, Glen Hobbie of the Chicago Cubs ended a personal 10-game losing string, downing Warren Spahn and the Milwaukee Braves 2-1. Other NL clubs were not scheduled.

★ ★ ★

The Reds jumped off early in winning the 13th of their last 16 starts. They rapped Dick Farrell for six hits and four runs in the first two innings, then Jay belted a two-run single off John Anderson in the third, making it 6-0. Cincinnati iced it in the fifth by tagging Bob Tiefenauer for three runs in the fifth, the final two coming in on Jay's homer.

Hurren and Hustosky Stars of Mikes Fete

The combined winning of athletic and scholastic awards by seniors Jim Hurren and Dana Hustosky highlighted the annual St. Michael Sports and Academic banquet in the school hall last night.

Hurren was named the outstanding boy, class saluatatorian, won awards in football, basketball and baseball and special medal for excellence in mathematics.

After being honored for football and baseball, Hustosky was named valedictorian and also won a special academic medal.

Shirley Robak was named outstanding girl. George Lavoie and John Hurren, sophomore athletes, and Ravena Rocheleau won National Latin Society awards. All senior athletes were presented trophies and others letters and certificates.

Tony Verdaci, whose Dearborn Divine Child grid team won Class C state honors, and Duncan Sells, Dean of Students at MSUO, were the speakers. Former Michigan State ace and pro gridder Walt Kowalczyk was among the guests.

'Doc, I'm Sick' . . . 'Well, Well'

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the great tests of American endurance today is waiting to see the doctor.

BOYLE

You call his nurse, explain you believe you are suffering from walking pneumonia, and ask for an appointment.

"Doctor can see you at 2:30 p.m. a week from Tuesday," says his nurse.

"Please be prompt."

★ ★ ★

Well, what happens? Worn and weak, you totter into his office on that day at 2:31, feeling guilty at being a full minute late.

But you find the place as thronged as a department store the week before Christmas.

"Is the doctor having a sale?" you inquire.

TAKE A SEAT

"Please take a seat," replies the nurse professionally. "Doctor has a terribly busy day."

A seat? Where? You sit down on the rug in a corner. You'd like to stretch out, but there isn't room.

At 3:02 the doctor comes in, places his golf bag next to you, looks around cheerfully, says "Well, well," and disappears into his inner office.

★ ★ ★

At 3:30 he starts seeing his patients. One by one they go in, spend a fast five minutes and come out holding a prescription blank in their paw.

You fret more and more as the times passes. The nurse seems to have forgotten you exist. But finally, about 5:45 she calls your name.

'WELL, WELL'

"Well, well," says the doctor when you enter. "What's wrong with us today?"

"Us had pneumonia when us came in," you answer. "But us seem to have got well out there waiting. Now all us needs is a bandage for our fingernails. Us has chewed them down to the knuckles."

★ ★ ★

Knuckle-gnawing today is the sign of the medical tyro, the impatient patient. It is an indication one hasn't learned to use constructively the time spent waiting in a doctor's office.

Actually these long hours need not be empty or fruitless. One can spend them pleasant or even profitably.

PLAY POKER

For example:

Break open a deck of cards. Start a poker game with some of the other patients. You may win more than enough to cover your visit to the doctor.

Bring along your briefcase. You can get more real work done waiting for the doctor than you could in your own noisy office.

★ ★ ★

Learn something. A friend of mine while waiting to see his doctor became an authority on geography from February 1902 through March 1936, which marked the latest issue of the National Geographic magazine stocked by his physician.

Catch up on your correspondence. There is no better time to write those long overdue letters to your congressman, your favorite old high school teacher, or your friendly neighborhood loan shark.

DON'T FRET

The main thing is not to fret or become annoyed. After all, a doctor realizes that time and rest are the greatest of all medicines, and will in themselves cure most ailments.

The longer the doctor keeps you waiting the stronger and better you will feel — particularly if you just stretch out on the floor and catch up on your sleep.

By the time you get in to see him at least you'll probably feel rested, refreshed and fit as a fiddle. Then it will be the doctor's turn to wait—until you get around to paying his bills. It all evens out in the end.

Says Newsman to Go Along for Soviet Moon Trip

TOKYO (AP) —A Soviet newsman who accompanied cosmonaut Yuri Gagarin on his visit to Japan reportedly said a Soviet newsman probably will accompany the Soviet Union's first manned flight to the moon.

Kyodo News Agency said Nicolai Denisov, editor of the Soviet magazine Aviation and Space Flight, told a Kyodo reporter that he himself might get the assignment because he has been a test pilot.

Denisov reportedly said Soviet journalists believe the flight may well occur before the end of 1963.

North's double of West's one no-trump was ill-advised. He had 19 points, but the bidding indicated that South might have no points at all and 19 plus zero equals only 19.

South ran to two spades. He hoped to escape catastrophe, but Mary Lou (Mrs. Philip) Merry of Tulsa who sat West first doubled and then defended perfectly to set him 800 points.

Mary Lou started the defense by leading the deuce of hearts. It was obvious that East would have something pretty good in hearts. The four was played from dummy and East's ten held the trick. East returned a heart and Mary Lou's queen forced dummy's ace.

South threw East back in with a heart and East got out with the queen of diamonds. Now South cashed two diamonds and the ace of spades and led a second spade which Mary Lou won with the queen.

She won the next trick with the jack of diamonds while East discarded the five of clubs.

★ ★ ★

Now came the key play. She led the deuce of clubs. East cashed two club tricks and led the eight of hearts.

This enabled East and West to make their trumps separately and complete the slaughter.

Q—The bidding has been:

You, South, hold:
♠AQ987 ♥32 ♦KJ9 ♣K65
What do you do?

A—Pass. You have a minimum bid and although your partner redoubled he also could not find a better bid than two spades.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You pass. West bids three clubs and North and East pass. What do you do now?

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Wednesday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Productive day if you make future plans. Remember promises made in past. Show loved ones they are precious to you. Be generous.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Cycle up, but impulsive action could upset plans, opportunities. Campaign beliefs, but don't "push." Differentiate between enthusiasm and "bullying" tactics.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Now is time to "clean out closets!" Great lesson to be learned from young person. Observe, perceive truth, as that secret fears can be eradicated.

CANCER (June 22 to July 21): Moon, Mars favorably aspect your sign. Relates to friendships, development of important relationships. Remember the past, but live and plan for the future.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 21): Uranus activated by favorable lunar aspect. Thus you can build solid foundation, fulfill ambitions. Let Leo touch of drama, originality shine.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): You could gain ideas while relaxing today. Much in your newspaper can prove inspiring. The way you feel inside reproduces material matters.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23): Trying to be something you are not only leads to confusion, mistrust. Speak up, especially about partners, money matters. Best advice is given by one who loves you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21): Cycle has been higher. Means extra care should be taken while traveling. Verify your judgment. Don't go by surface appearances.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Responsibility is key, the willingness to lend to friends, loved ones. Keep your word. Today others look to you as an example.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 to Jan. 20): Express appreciation for past favorites. Remember those who remembered you. Could be wonderful evening to rediscover romance. Whether married or single.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Pressure on security aspects, day to look to future to make necessary changes. Like Taurus, actions based on impulse rather than knowledge are to be avoided.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): If you can show you are good loser as well as winner upon occasion, you'll win more. What appears to be setback could be a challenge. Maintain sense of humor!

★ ★

IF WEDNESDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you have keen perception of matters without thinking. Difficulty arises when you do not appreciate true values. Do not look for trouble. Ride with tide this year by accepting responsibility.

★

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle up for Aries, Taurus, Gemini. Day in which world leaders insist on their own way. Will it be "business as usual," or will finally be "business" never to prosper as we know it?

Volume Heavier, Losses Greater

Market Crash Beats Monday's

Major securities and commodities exchanges will be closed tomorrow in observance of the Memorial Day holiday.

NEW YORK (AP) — It looked like another "Black Tuesday" on the New York Stock Exchange today as the stock market dived early this afternoon even more sharply than in yesterday's decline, the worst since Oct. 28, 1929.

Volume was heavier and losses were greater than at the similar period in yesterday's huge selloff.

The ticker tape lagged 41 minutes behind transactions at midsession when yesterday's lag was 35 minutes.

It was a parallel performance with the worst of the 1929 crash except that on a percentage basis it was much milder, since the '29 decline started from a much lower point in the over-all average and the amount of listed stock was only about one-seventh of what it is today.

HISTORY MAKER

Volume for the first two hours was a mighty 3.75 million shares compared with 1.89 million for yesterday's first two hours.

At this rate the day's volume would soar well over ten million shares and be another history-making session.

Blue chips were clobbered to losses of 3 or 4 points at the start but began to meet support in the afternoon.

"When will we reach bottom?" was the big question.

General Motors toppled 2⅞ to 46 on a tremendous trade of 62,000 shares.

Prices also toppled on the American Stock Exchange where volume for the first two hours soared to 2.6-million shares—close to yesterday's total for the whole day, 2.98 million. Losses of 2 or 3 points were shown by Chromalloy, Hazel Bishop, Anken Chemical, Prentice-Hall, Syntex, Lafayette Radio and Aerojet-General.

Bonds Down at Opening

NEW YORK (AP) — Corporate bond prices declined at the opening today while the U. S. government list held firm.

Over the counter dealers in Treasury securities quoted long issues up 2/32 and intermediates mostly unchanged. There was little activity, one dealer said. Most investors were hesitant about buying anything in view of the continued slide of stock prices.

★ ★ ★

Once again rails were the hardest hit section in corporate trading on the New York Stock Exchange. A handful of rail issues gave up a point or more at the start. Industrials and utilities also were decidedly lower.

Grain Prices Down in First Dealings

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices moved sharply downward today in initial transactions on the board of trade with December and March corn slumping four cents a bushel. Losses elsewhere ran to well over a cent.

Brokers said the pressure could have been linked with the steep slide in the securities market since there appeared to be a rather large accumulation of selling orders through commission houses.

However, the peak of the flurry showed signs of having passed quickly. Prices leveled off within several minutes and nearly all contracts recovered slightly from their early lows.

London Market Takes Nosedive

Suffers Steepest Fall Since Munich Crisis in September 1938

LONDON (AP) — The London Stock Exchange suffered its steepest fall today since the Munich crisis of September 1938.

In the wake of Monday's dramatic decline on Wall Street similar selloffs were recorded in Paris, Zurich and Frankfurt in Europe, and in Japan.

★ ★ ★

Everywhere the story was the same. Low-yield growth stocks and favorites of American investors took the heaviest hammering.

The decline in Paris averaged 3 to 4 per cent, with some of the hardest hit shares going down as much as 7 or 8 per cent.

In London a midday rally failed to last and the decline continued. Such international favorites as Unilever and Phillips Lamps were 10 shillings—$1.40—or so lower.

MILLONS WIPED OFF

Dollar stocks were down 9½ points with Ford at 148. Labor troubles helped depress Ford and other automobile companies.

Oils came under pressure. Gold shares, which were strong last week, went down today along with tin and copper issues.

Hundreds of millions of pounds sterling were wiped off the value of shares in London. Prices gyrated widly on the major exchanges of Switzerland and West Germany.

★ ★ ★

The Zurich Stock Exchange had its biggest drop since the 1929 crash but there was a substantial recovery at midday. Union Bank of Switzerland dropped from 4,000 francs—$1,019—per share to 2,900 francs—$672 — but recovered to 3,500—$811.

At Frankfurt, Germany stock prices, which have had a steady decline since the start of the year, dropped sharply.

Volkswagen, which dropped Monday to a new low of 552 was bid between 505 and 510.

Tokyo's Stock Exchange closed with a moderate but broad decline after an early selling rush. The Dow Jones average of 225 selected stocks fell 17.76 yen—4.9 cents—from Monday to 1,375.69 yen—$3.82.

Savings and Pensions Could Bolster Market

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — Hovering over the stock market and the economy in general is a great potential power. This is the financial colossus which Americans have built up as individuals and groups — the pension and other funds and the bank holdings of individual savers.

Both pension fund assets and the total savings at banks and savings and loan associations have taken huge jumps in recent months. Tow much the recent stock market break may have chipped away at the pension assets, how much it may have induced further savings, remains to be seen.

★ ★ ★

Record sums collectively held in the name of individuals are invested in American business. The individual savings accounts themselves make up a huge total from which loans to business are made.

To the trustees of these pension funds, and to those of the huge charitable and scientific foundations, educational institutions and managers of mutual funds, the paring away of market value of common stocks is far from an academic question.

WHAT TO DO!

A top man in a West Coast industrial empire said he had to take time off one day recently from his worrying about the future of his own firm to sit in with other trustees of a big foundation.

★ ★ ★

The question: "What should we do? What stocks should we sell? Or should we sit tight and wait for the market to come back?"

★ ★ ★

The trustees saw the market value of some of their assets dropping and they couldn't decide—at least that day—what was best to do. That perhaps could prove an exception to the widely held opinion that the professionals, such as these trustees were supposed to be, always sell before the market breaks and always buy before it spurts upward.

THEY WONDER

Many workers who own no stocks themselves may wonder how their pension funds are faring, especially those whose assets consist to considerable extent in common stock—in some instances, the shares of the company where the worker is employed.

★ ★ ★

Securities and Exchange Commission figure show that at the end of 1961 corporate securities accounted for 85 per cent of all pension fund assets at book value. But of this amount, $15 billion was in corporate bonds and $12.4 billion in common and preferred stocks.

★ ★ ★

Total assets of pension funds of U.S. corporations reached a high of $32.4 billion, a jump of $3.7 billion in the year. This increase is itself a record, although the gain was anything but novel. Increases in the two previous years topped $3 billion, as the pension funds took an ever greater role in American fiscal affairs.

SAVINGS HELP

With some funds having only about a third of their assets in common stocks, the recent price breaks haven't depleted assets to any worrisome degree. But for the trustees there is still the question: What to do now?

Another great potential bolstering the economy as a whole—though not the stock market at the moment — is the steady increase in savings. The Federal Reserve Board reports that in the first three months of this year savings at banks and savings and loan associations increased by $8.2 billion, a record jump.

★ ★ ★

The big incentive was the higher interest rates on savings and time deposits which most banks began paying this year. And some stock brokers think that this increased yield on savings could be one reason that the public has been selling stocks—or at least hasn't been putting new money into stocks.

MARKET TUMBLES — Shares on the New York Stock Exchange took their most severe tumble yesterday since Oct. 28, 1929. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks toppled 13.40 to 211.20, also the worst loss since Oct. 28, 1929. The industrials were off 17.50, rails 5.80 and utilities 9.50, all to new lows for the year.

Wall Street Rushing but Not Too Excited

By ARDEN CHAMBLISS
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK — If something portentous was happening to the stock market today, you couldn't tell it by looking around the Wall Street financial district.

★ ★ ★

In the streets outside the New York Stock Exchange a news vendor said, "It looks like everyone's taking it in stride, better than in 1929."

In the exchange's crowded visitors' gallery, Mrs. Roberta Cabezza of Staten Island said, "It happened before that the market went down, and the country came out of it."

And on the sprawling floor below only the lighted sign telling of a lag in the ticker tape and a certain urgency in the steps of the 2,300 people milling in the floor suggested anything unusual.

News vendor Joseph Miskanic of Manhattan said the people doing business with him have not been gloomy or otherwise showing outward concern.

NOT REALLY WORRIED

Miskanic, who was working in the district during the crash of 1929, said the atmosphere is a lot different now.

"How you say, they have a little more confidence than in those days," he said. "If people were really worried, you'd notice it out here in the street."

Salesman Leonard Call expressed the feeling of many of the people watching quietly in the visitors' gallery of the ornate exchange quarters as a bright sun streamed through eastern windows rising nearly 50 feet.

"I just came to see what a really active floor looks like compared to normal," Call said.

He said he holds some stocks but isn't particularly worried.

On the floor, which looks like an outsized basketball court broken up by a series of 18 horseshoe-shaped trading posts, traffic was thick as brokers relayed between their telephone lines to the office along the fringes of the room and the various posts.

★ ★ ★

Before trading opened, 50-foot high "enunciator" boards, which flip hinged metal numbers to signal brokers on the floor that they have a call from the office, flapped with uncommon activity.

★ ★ ★

When the exchange opened at 9 a.m., a mild rumble came up from the floor and the circulation quickened.

The scholarships are the first awarded by the foundation. They are for the 1962-1963 academic year.

Business Generally Good in U.S.

Stock Slump, Figures Incompatible

By United Press International

The sharp descent of stock prices seems incompatible with the general state of business. Figures indicate a singular trend: Business is generally good throughout the United States.

Yesterday's $28.5 billion paper loss and statistics rivaling the crash of 1929 brought partisan rumblings from Washington.

Republicans said the slump reflected little confidence in the administration. Democrats counter-charged that the Kennedy administration inherited a "full-bloom" recession in January, 1961.

There were these firm figures from Washington:

Total employment in April rose to a record 67 million, including 62 million nonfarm jobs. Unemployment declined during the month by 430,000 to 3.9 million.

SALES INCREASING

Department store sales continued to rise, up 7 per cent from the 1961 level for the week ended May 19.

Personal income was up $2.75 billion from March to April, 7 per cent above the comparable period last year. The annual rate is $438.75 billion.

April industrial production was at 116, up one point from March. The 116 figure means 16 per cent above the 1957-59 base period.

★ ★ ★

The consumer price index stood at 105.2 of the 1957-59 average, up .2 of 1 per cent from March. A similar increase is expected this month.

The picture elsewhere around the country appeared bright, with the exception of the Pittsburgh area.

The University of Pittsburgh Bureau of Business Research reported district steel production declined to a new low, eight points under the previous week's listing, to 85 per cent of the 1957-59 base period.

OUTPUT HIGH

Automotive News Magazine said in Detroit last week's automobile output of 154,817 was the second highest of the year. Total production of 677,000 units for the month of May was predicted by the trade publication.

It noted at the same time, however, that the usual "high" spring market has not developed, although midmonth sales were the third highest since the record year of 1955.

The Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry said the eight-county Chicago area is "more sound economically than at any time in the past three years."

★ ★ ★

Unemployment is down, housing permits are up and industrial plant investment has risen 400 per cent during the past four months, the association said.

STACKED UP AFTER MISHAP — Eighteen cars from the middle of a 50-car freight train were stacked up in Warren yesterday after one of the cars lost a wheel on the Grand Trunk Railway tracks. Ten of the cars overturned, about 300 feet of the track was torn up and two utility poles were damaged, according to Warren police. None of the crew was injured.

Engines Take Speed of Cars Up, Up, Up

DETROIT (UPI) — How fast will an automobile travel?

That depends on things like smoothness of design, tires, suspension and so forth. But mostly, it's what's up front that counts.

Engines now are more powerful than ever, so cars travel faster than ever before.

Most production cars nowadays will hit in the neighborhood of 100 miles an hour — many of them much more than that.

One new car, the Studebaker Avanti, claims a top speed of 171 miles an hour, said to be the fastest ever recorded for a production model automobile.

The "factory hot rods" turned out by Detroit manufacturers can top 110 mph after traveling one-quarter of a mile —about two city blocks.

Sports cars, some of them designed especially for racing, are much faster.

The Mercedes-Benz 300SLR, an all-out competition model which was never defeated in 1955, was built to travel 180 mph. The Ferrari models, present winners, approach that speed, too.

Last year, Andy Granatelli of Santa Monica, Calif., drove a specially souped-up Chrysler 300F to a top speed of 189 mph and claimed a speed record for a stock-bodies passenger car.

Granatelli made his run on the Bonneville, Utah, salt flats. It was the same place where in 1960 Micky Thompson, another California speed merchant, traveled the mile at 406 mph in a special car called the Challenger I.

At the end of his speed run, Thompson was traveling 425 miles an hour. He feels he could have gone 450 mph if he had a longer course. The course was 11 miles long.

Thompson, who will be back this summer for more speed runs, used four supercharged Pontiac engines to drive the Challenger faster than anyone ever traveled before on land.

What's the top speed for a land vehicle? Some feel cars can be built to travel over 500 mph. Some cars now being developed that are powered by pure jet engine might hit that mark.

Waterford Twp. to Insist on One Mill From County

Waterford Township Board members last night were unanimous in resolving an all-out battle for at least a one-mill allocation from the Oakland County Allocation Board.

In the preliminary millage allocation announced last week by the allocation board, Waterford Township was excluded. The reason cited for this action was that, as a charter township, Waterford could levy up to five mills. The township had asked for 1.26 mills.

During discussion of the millage issue last night, Waterford Township attorney Paul Mandel advised board members that a 1948 attorney general opinion specifies that all townships are entitled to a minimum of one mill if their budgets justify it.

Mandel said that recent correspondence from Lansing indicates that the 1948 opinion is still valid. He added that Waterford Township's budget would certainly justify an allocation and offered the opinion that Waterford is still a township for all practical purposes.

PLAN AN APPEAL

The formal resolution passed by the board calls for an appeal to the State Tax Commission if the allocation board denies the minimum one mill in its final allocation due Friday.

Township Supervisor Elmer Johnson pointed out that denial of the requested millage amounts to about $122,000 or 20 per cent of the township budget.

In other action last night the Township Board named a five-member Police and Firemen Pension Fund board.

Captain William Stokes of the police department and Donald Summerville of the fire department were named for two- and four-year terms respectively. The citizen board members are William Morrissey, named to a one-year term and David Hertler, who will serve three years. Township treasurer Mrs. Dorothy Olson is the fifth member of the board.

★ ★ ★

At the conclusion of the initial terms all terms will be for a four-year period. Thus one new board member will be up for consideration each year with the exception of the treasurer who is a permanent member. The appointments become effective June 1.

The board also approved a fireworks permit for Lake Oakland Heights Association for their beach celebration June 3 and the holiday celebration July 3 and 4.

Chairman E. O. George Asks All Citizens to Keep Up Selling Job

A Bloomfield Hills business executive Week has called on all citizens of the state to continue selling "our greatest product — Michigan."

Even though the state's annual week-long celebration for 1962 concluded Saturday, Edwin O. George, general chairman for Michigan Week, asked citizens and organizations to join in a continuous selling program throughout the year.

At the same time, he thanked Michigan Week workers "who have contributed so much in this most worthy effort to expound the state's great assets for industry, business, education and recreation.

"It has been most gratifying," George said, "to travel all over the state and find so many thousands of our citizens working enthusiastically for Michigan and their own communities. The people are developing a sincere pride of their state and this is certain to spread all over the land as they meet visitors from other states and travel outside our borders."

George, 352 Barden Road, is vice president of Detroit Edison. Yesterday, he turned over the job of heading Michigan Week for 1963 to Herbert G. Daverman, an architectural executive from Grand Rapids.

Next year's Michigan Week celebration will run from May 19 to 25.

Waterford Twp. Plans Recreation Programs During Observance

Waterford Township's observance of National Recreation Month in June will feature a host of recreation programs and special events.

Robert Lawyer, recreation director for the township, explained today that the activities to be offered during June and the remainder of the summer are designed to help people of all ages develop broader recreation interests and to make good use of their increasing leisure time.

"New Horizons for Your Free Time" is the theme for National Recreation Month.

The Waterford Township Recreation Department has slated the following activities for the summer months:

★ ★ ★

A playground program at 13 locations, day camp, learn-to-swim program at five lakes, men's softball league, boys' junior baseball program, girls' softball, instructional tennis, boys' summer basketball, men's blooperball, basketball clinic for fifth and sixth graders, fashion your figure club, golden age club and other special events.

Most programs will begin the week of June 25. Detailed information on the various activities will be provided to both public and parochial schools prior to school closing, Lawyer said.

Metal Believed From Space Shot Found in Africa

BARKLY EAST, South Africa (AP)—A piece of metal thought to have fallen from the rocket which boosted U.S. astronaut Malcolm Scott Carpenter into space last week has been discovered near this Cape Province town, the South African Press Association reported Monday.

★ ★ ★

The metal, which bears several serial numbers and resembles the top of a gasoline drum, is being exhibited at a local garage. The metal appears to have been subjected to intense heat which burned holes through it.

Last February a three-pound chunk of metal was discovered near the town of Naauwpoort, 100 miles from here, soon after astronaut John H. Glenn Jr.'s flight. Sent to Cape Canaveral, it was identified as having fallen from Glenn's booster rocket.

Brief Meeting Slated Tonight by City Chiefs

Tonight's City Commission meeting, falling on the eve of the Memorial Day Holiday, will be a brief one — according to the agenda.

★ ★ ★

There are only eight items on the agenda and all are minor. In recent weeks, however, most of the major moves by commissioners have come as a surprise, not being included on the formal printed agenda.

Commissioners will hear three reports from City Attorney William A. Ewart on the filing of deeds and a request that the city release some land it recently obtained from the state.

City Engineer James N. Carlisle will present the city's cost estimates for curb and gutter construction on Robinwood Street, Perry to Manhattan; and Fourth Avenue, Fuller to Arlene.

Salt Poisonings of Six Babies Ruled Accidental

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. (UPI) — The salt poisoning deaths of six babies at Binghamton General Hospital have been ruled accidental and there will be no prosecution, Broome County Dist. Atty. Stephen Smyk said last night.

Smyk announced there would be "no criminal prosecution" shortly after he received word of a verdict of accidental death in each case County coroner.

Both Smyk and Maddi said a joint investigation, along with an investigation by local police and hospital officials, had not produced sufficient evidence to warrant criminal action.

The six babies died after salt mistakenly had been substituted for sugar in the milk formulas.

Mother of 7 in Jail Over Fatal Stabbing

A Pontiac mother of seven, accused of first-degree murder in the fatal stabbing of a 32-year-old mother of six, will face examination on a charge Thursday in Municipal Court.

Mrs. Verdie M. Mahone, 29, of 357 Ferry St., demanded the examination yesterday before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan. She is being held without bond in the Oakland County Jail.

Mrs. Mahone admitted stabbing Mrs. Judy Bell, 241 E. Wilson St., at a dance on the city's south side early Sunday morning, according to Pontiac police. The stabbing arose from an argument over Mrs. Mahone's husband Dudley, police said.

KISSES DOWN—Looking like a traveler very glad to return to its native soil, this Eastern Air Lines Superconstellation rests on its nose after skidding to a safe landing on a foam-covered runway at New York's Idlewild Airport last night. All 35 passengers and 5 crew members aboard escaped injury. The plane, flying in from Washington, D. C., had a jammed nose wheel. It circled Idlewild for 55 minutes while crash equipment was readied and foam was spread.

Benny Goodman, Combo in Russia for 6-Week Tour

MOSCOW (UPI) — Benny Goodman, the "King of Swing," and his jazz group open a six-weeks tour of the Soviet Union tomorrow with a concert in Moscow.

Goodman arrived by plane yesterday with his orchestra. When Goodman's sax player Phil Woods came down the ramp from the plane, a tall, intense young man who identified himself as a member of the Moscow Jazz Club cornered him.

"We know you here," the unidentified Russian said to Woods. "You used to play with Gene Quill, the alto sax man."

"That's right," Woods answered with surprise. "I thought this would be a strange country, but I feel better already."

2 Plymouth Women Die in Auto Crash

PLYMOUTH (AP) — Two Plymouth housewives died yesterday when their car was involved in a crash in Plymouth Township.

Police identified the victims as Mrs. Ivah Pint, 58, and Mrs. Sophia Trucks, 65. Both were dead on admittance to a hospital.

★ ★ ★

Officers said a car driven by Mrs. Pint was hit broadside at an intersection by a car driven by Guy Bunyea, 23, of Plymouth. Bunyea and his wife Patricia, 23, were not hurt.

Bunyea was released after making a statement to police.

Plane Luggage Urged Inspected

O'Hara Introduces Bill to Require Airlines to Check Baggage, Cargo

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. James G. O'Hara, D-Mich., introduced legislation yesterday to require airlines to inspect the luggage of their passengers for explosives.

★ ★ ★

O'Hara, who introduced similar legislation two years ago, said the Centerville, Iowa, jet crash demonstrated "the need for this legislation."

The Michigan Democrat said several companies already have perfected X-ray or fluoroscope-type machines which could check a moving line of luggage for suspicious contents.

O'Hara said an inspector could differentiate between a clock or flashlight and a bomb in a suitcase. The only inconvenience O'Hara could foresee would be the necessity for passengers to remove unexposed film from suitcases because it would be ruined by the examination.

★ ★ ★

O'Hara's bill would authorize suits by passengers or property owners at the crash site against airlines for any damages resulting from failure to inspect luggage. The bill would affect all commercial passenger flight luggage and cargo.

Parisians Fascinated by Sinatra's Entourage

By EARL WILSON

PARIS — Frank Sinatra's due here June 4 on his world tour of shows for children's charities — and Parisians are all agog (or is it all agrog?). He sings at the famous Lido night-club — and the dinners will cost 50,000 old francs each — $100. But it is Frank's travel plans that titillate the Parisians. He has an entourage of 18, including seven musicians, "one factotum in charge of the press," a cook and a valet, sound engineer, TV cameraman, secretary, director, an administrator, and "three friends," including Hollywood restaurateur Mike Romanoff and his wife.

★ ★ ★

"The three friends have no specified task on the tour," so it is announced, "except to chat with Sinatra when he has a free moment."

High-Altitude N-Blasts Will Be Set Off in 3 Days

WASHINGTON (AP) — The most spectacular shots of the U.S. nuclear tests in the Pacific will begin in about three days. These are the high-altitude bursts whose brilliant glow will be seen for hundreds of miles.

The three or four blasts with their high-soaring nuclear fireballs and glittering aurorae may temporarily disrupt some radio communications and radar observations.

Militarily, the shots obviously are designed to test the effects of high-altitude blasts on the nation's wartime communications gear—and on electronic monitors designed to detect oncoming missiles.

The government announced Monday the series will be fired over Johnston Island.

The first shot, with an explosive force of something less than a million tons of TNT—a megaton—will be exploded at a height of "tens of kilometers." Educated guesses put this at about 30 to 40 miles.

300 MILES UP?

Two following blasts—one in the megaton range, the other less than a megaton—will be triggered higher—up to 500 miles, according to some sources. The Atomic Energy Commission would go no further than "hundreds of kilometers." The hundred kilometers is 60 miles.

Whether a fourth shot will be necessary depends on the results of the initial three explosions.

So far the United States has announced firing 14 nuclear explosions in the current series of atmospheric tests which began April 25. All have been in the vicinity of Christmas Island, the other test site in the Pacific range.

The glow from the first test—but not the fireball—probably will be visible in Hawaii, about 700 miles from Johnston Island.

The island state very likely will be able to see the unearthly fireballs of the second and third explosions.

Indict Dallas Firm in Detroit Swindle

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—Four operators of a Dallas construction firm were indicted yesterday on charges of swindling a Detroit finance company out of $60,000.

★ ★ ★

Named in the indictment were Bob Johnson, Robert Fussell, Bob Lewellyn and Merle Furtich Lewellyn, identified as operators of the Johnson - Underwood construction firm.

★ ★ ★

The indictment claimed the four sold first lien notes to the Pioneer Finance Co., Inc., of Detroit on houses that either did not exist or were not completed.

Scholle to Recommend Rejecting Constitution

DETROIT (AP)—President August (Gus) Scholle said today he will recommend that the Michigan AFL-CIO go on record at its convention next week against the proposed new state constitution.

★

Scholle expressed confidence the convention would follow his recommendations, saying, "I don't think you could sell the delegates that kind of a bill of goods, no matter what."

Scholle expressed particular unhappiness during the recently adjourned state constitutional convention over the legislative apportionment which it approved.

He insisted that both houses of the legislature be apportioned on a basis of population only, arguing for the principle of "one-man, one-vote" and objecting to area being given any weight in apportionment of Senate seats.

BACKED DEMS

Scholle and other AFL-CIO leaders generally have supported Democratic candidates for state office since the 1948 election of G. Mennen Williams as governor. That party's gubernatorial candidates have been successful since.

★ ★ ★

George Romney, Republican candidate for governor and a vice president of the constitution is improved in every section, compared with the current 1908-drawn document.

Romney, who resigned as president of American Motors Corp. to run for governor, said the House apportionment in the new constitution is about as closely based on population as possible when county lines are observed.

Romney described the Senate as "vastly improved" under a uniform apportionment feature giving 20 per cent weight to population and 20 per cent to area.

★ ★ ★

"I completely disagree with him (Romney) on the basic issues," Scholle told a reporter. "I think they actually mutilated the constitution, rather than improved it."

Housewife's Phone Call Helps Nab Walkaway

IONIA (AP)—A housewife's telephone call aided yesterday in the capture of a Michigan reformatory walkaway at Saranac, state police said.

David E. Houston, 20, of Jackson fled a dormitory Sunday night but his work garb was spotted yesterday by Mrs. William Brown who called the Ionia post to report his passage near her home.

Officers found him along a road nearby. Houston was sentenced from Jackson County in 1960 on a car theft charge and returned later on parole violation.

Bus Passenger Slain After Stabbing Three

CHICAGO (AP)—A passenger aboard a Greyhound bus, who police said went berserk and stabbed the driver and two other men, was fatally shot today by police.

★ ★ ★

Police said the knife wielder, identified as Milo Savo Brekich, 27, of San Francisco, threatened to kill the 40 passengers in the bus. Two persons were hospitalized suffering from shock.

★ ★ ★

Policemen Arthur McCauslin and Ross Moran said they fired at Brekich when he refused to obey their orders to drop his knife.

The policemen had stopped their squad car when they saw the bus parked in an emergency strip.

★ ★ ★

Wilfred Doss, 41, of Addison, Ill., the driver, told police he stopped the bus to seek police aid after Brekich tried to start a fight with another passenger, Willam Kokko 22, of Negaunee, Mich. an Army private.

Files Libel Suit Against Stahlin

GOP Leader Durant Names Solon, 3 Others in $1-Million Case

DETROIT (AP) Sen. John H. Stahlin, R-Belding, and three other men were named as defendants yesterday in a $1-million libel suit filed in Wayne County Circuit Court by a Republican leader, Richard Durant.

The suit, filed by Durant's attorney, Larry S. Davidow, charges that Stahlin libeled Durant, vice chairman of the 14th District Republican Organization, in connection with Stahlin's charges that "extremist groups" were trying to seize control of the Wayne County GOP.

Also named as defendants were Charles A. Ferry, Stahlin's press secretary and former publicist for the Republican Committee of Oakland County, and two persons listed as John Doe and Richard Roe.

Stahlin, who seeks the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor, earlier asked the Michigan Fair Campaign Practices Commission to investigate his claim that "extremist groups," with Durant's blessing, were planning the Wayne County GOP takeover.

The senator said the "extremists" were using "bribery, intimidation, misrepresentation and threats of physical violence" in their plot.

Durant's bill of complaint states that he is a member of the John Birch Society, but denies Stahlin's allegations that he also is associated with Rockwell's Delegates, Inc., a group led by self-styled Rockwell and other far-right groups.

NASA Releases Pictures Scott Took on Flight

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A few of the spectacular sights astronaut Malcom Scott Carpenter saw in space are shown in pictures he took throughout his orbital flight.

Some of the scores of pictures he snapped were released last night by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. They were taken in color but were released initially in black and white to permit swift news distribution.

They showed the "snowflakes" Carpenter reported spying at each sunrise and which he theorized were frost specks flaking off his capsule; the sun setting beneath a blue haze layer around the earth's horizon; the balloon he ejected and towed behind the spacecraft; cloud formations; the western coastline of Africa; and the Atlas booster rocket falling away after it separated from the capsule.

Police Search for Mother of Abandoned Newborn

MIDLAND (AP) — A 3- or 4-day-old baby girl remained in satisfactory condition at a hospital here today, while sheriff's detectives continued their search for the mother.

Detectives said they have "a few leads but nothing solid" in the investigation.

★ ★ ★

The baby, wrapped in a towel and partially placed in a paper bag, was discovered in a brush-filled ditch alongside old U. S. 10, four miles southeast of here, Sunday night.

JFK Sends Name of Friend to Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy sent to the Senate yesterday the nomination of William C. Battle, Charlottesville, Va., attorney, to be ambassador to Australia.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy announced last week he intended to nominate Battle.

Battle managed Kennedy's presidential campaign in Virginia in 1960. They have been friends since both served as PT boat skippers in the Pacific during World War II.

Kennedy yesterday also renominated for 12-year terms three present judges of the U.S. Tax Court.

They are Craig S. Atkins, Chevy Chase, Md., a Republican, who has served on the court since July 27, 1955; Norman O. Tietjens, Napoleon, Ohio, a Democrat who has served on the court since August 23, 1950, and Clarence V. Opper, New York City, a Democrat, who has been on the court since February 17, 1938.

Tax Court judges receive $22,500 annually.

Navy-Air Force Row Rises Over Scott's Rescue

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — A Navy-Air Force controversy that may provoke an official inquiry was developing today over the manner in which the rescue of astronaut Scott Carpenter was carried out in the Atlantic last Thursday.

At the center of the controversy was a claim that an Air Force amphibious rescue plane could have scooped Carpenter, a Navy Lieutenant Commander, out of the ocean an hour or an hour and a half before he actually was picked up by a Navy helicopter.

A part of this claim, heard widely in this missile and space headquarters but not substantiated, was that the Navy recovery force shouldered the Air Force rescue team aside.

Florida Sens. George A. Smathers and Spessard Holland were reported to have been asked by retired Brig. Gen. Thomas J. Dubose to seek an explanation of alleged Navy refusal to let the Air Force plane pick up Carpenter.

Dubose, now living at Winter, Fla., formerly headed the Air Rescue Service.

Woman Gets Hers After False Witness

DETROIT (AP)—A 24-year-old Detroit woman who helped send three men to prison for a holdup murder they did not commit was sentenced to prison yesterday on an armed robbery charge.

Edith Adams, formerly of Cincinnati, got 7½ to 20 years for the $100 robbery of a Detroit woman in 1960.

Recorders (criminal) Judge Frank G. Schemanske said "she should be institutionalized for the protection of the community," in view of several agencies' reports.

In the murder trial, Miss Adams gave false testimony implicating Ephraim Clark, Lindberg Hall and Scesla Kukendall in the slaying of David Lipton in his Detroit drugstore.

Clark was freed, but the other two remained in prison for other crimes. Four other men subsequently were convicted as the actual killers of Lipton.

Official state flower of India is the zinnia.

Israeli Tribunal Rejects Appeal by Eichmann

Supreme Court Calls Even Death Inadequate in Confirming Sentence

JERUSALEM (AP)—Israel's Supreme Court today rejected Adolph Eichmann's appeal from his death sentence, calling even that penalty inadequate when compared to the enormity of his crimes.

"For who can have envisaged a criminal greater than Adolf Eichmann?" the high tribunal demanded in confirming the sentence imposed on the former Gestapos officer by a lower court last December.

The decision left Eichmann only the slender chance of executive clemency to escape the gallows for his part in the Nazi massacre of six million European Jews. That process might take another month.

The 56-year-old former chief of the Gestapo's Jewish affairs section betrayed emotion only by keeping his hands tightly clasped as Associate Justice Simon court's judgment, which affirmed the death sentence "without hesitation or reserve." He stared fixedly at the judges.

★ ★ ★

The judgment rejected Eichmann's claim that he was a mere cog in the Nazi murder apparatus, saying:

"The appellant was not an inferior official, but indeed a high—even an exalted — authority who held sway not only in Germany, but far beyond its confines.

"He overshadowed all his associates in his department, including his chiefs, for there was no equal to the appellant in fanatial devotion to the machine designed to carry out the horrible 'final solution.'"

Eichmann's defense counsel, Dr. Robert Servatius, was expected to submit an appeal for clemency to Israelie President Ichak Ben-Zvi. Justice Ministry officials said a decision is not likely before mid-June.

WOULD MEAN DEATH

A certificate rejecting clemency would constitute an execution order. Eichmann probably would be hanged soon after, behind the grim sandstone walls of Ramleh Prison, near Tel Aviv.

The moderustic auditorium in which Eichmann was tried last year by a special three-judge tribunal was again packed with spectators. Relatives of many of them were victims of the Nazi slaughter which befell the Jews.

Eichmann again sat in the bulletproof glass cage as the judgment was read in Hebrew and translated into German, English and French. Still wearing the dark suit and striped tie he wore through his 4½-month trial, Eichmann occasionally pressed his lips together and twitched his mouth as, one by one, every defense he put up to escape the gallows was rejected.

Stocks Plunge in Worst Loss Since Year '29

Washington Finds No Reason for Panic Sales; Rally May Be Due

NEW YORK (UPI) — "Flash" prices with the stock market running 46 minutes late at 11:30 a.m. (Pontiac time) indicated that the market had bottomed out at least temporarily and was making a strong recovery.

NEW YORK (AP) — The terrific sell-off in the stock market surged on today, driving prices down from the opening of trading.

The market remained locked in the grip of panicky selling which yesterday sent it plunging to its worst loss since the crash year of 1929.

With selling orders piled up, trading in some major stocks did not get under way in the first hour.

The high-speed ticker tape, which yesterday was 69 minutes behind transactions at the 3:30 p.m. close, lagged from the start.

The market averages quickly showed that the price erosion was continuing without let-up.

EXPECTS RALLY

One broker said that with trading yet to begin in some issues it was too early to tell what was ahead, but expressed the opinion that some kind of a rally might develop during the day.

In Washington, Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon said after a conference with President Kennedy that "We don't see any reason for panic selling in the stock market."

He said he hoped that small investors will realize that the economy is "very sound."

Assurances, however, had failed to stem the headlong drive to sell stocks.

FIRST HOUR BUSY

Trading in the first hour soared to 1.78 million shares, compared with 1.09 million in the like period yesterday. The tape trailed by 22 minutes.

The Dow Jones Average of 30 industrial issues at 11 a.m. was off 11.09 to 565.84.

Trading in American Telephone — one of the bluest of the hardhit blue chips — opened an hour late, off $2.12 to $98.50 on a whopping block of 50,000 shares.

Other losses included Polaroid $6.25 to $117.25, Westinghouse $3.75 to $25.25, Reynolds Tobacco $3.75 to $45.25, General Motors $2.75 to $46.12, Eastman Kodak $3.50 to $90.25 and U.S. Steel 37 cents to $50.

The market's long, sharp decline swelled to titanic proportions yesterday as trading rocketed to the highest level since July 21, 1933; and prices suffered their sharpest drop on average since Oct. 28, 1929—the day before climax of the crash.

The plunge wiped out an estimated $19.5 billion from the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange, based on the fall of The Associated Press 60-stock average.

Would Counter Market Jolt—Hodges

Asks for Tax Overhaul Quickly

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges recommended today that the administration adopt "positive action rather than words" to help counter the jolt to confidence caused by slumping stock prices.

Hodges told a news conference he believes two steps should be taken:

★ ★ ★

1. "I would favor an announcement as quickly as possible that we ought to have a tax overhaul," he said.

Elaborating, he expressed hope that such an overhaul would include a net reduction in both individual and corporate income taxes.

2. The treasury should make a "very early announcement" of its revision of depreciation schedules that govern tax writeoffs on business investment in plant and equipment.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon said 10 days ago that the depreciation schedules would be forthcoming in late June or early July.

ON PIECEMEAL BASIS

Hodges recommended that the department announce the revisions on a piecemeal basis as quickly as they are available, without waiting until the whole package is complete.

Hodges' session with newsmen came on the heels of a high-level White House conference on the market situation.

There was nothing to indicate directly, however, that he was reporting on decisions reached at that discussion. An aide represented Hodges at the White House.

Dillon had emerged from the White House talk to tell newsmen, "We don't see any reason for panic selling" in the stock market.

Key economic and financial advisers to the administration had been summoned to the conference with Kennedy.

Dillon, who came out of the conference to speak briefly with newsmen, said he hopes small investors will realize that the economy is sound.

"It's very sound," Dillon said.

Dillon said there was general agreement among the conferees that the economy will move up during the rest of the year.

In addition to Dillon, those conferring with Kennedy included William McC. Martin, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board; Budget Director David Bell; Dr. Walter Heller, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers; Undersecretary of Commerce Edward Gudeman, and Manuel F. Cohen of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The session followed a discussion of the market slump between Kennedy and Democratic congressional leaders at their weekly meeting. That talk produced much the same report—that there is no real reason for the market break.

Rain? Well, We'll Wait and See

In view of the fact that it's a month since the weather bureau was right about a thunderstorm forecast, Pontiac area residents are expected to swarm to park and recreation sites in large numbers Memorial Day, regardless of another such prediciton.

★ ★ ★

The forecast calls for thunderstorms late today and tonight, ending tomorrow with a predicted high was 81.

The temperature at 1 p.m. today was 78.

★ ★ ★

The temperature should be enough to fill parks to near capacity, according to estimates of park managers.

★ ★ ★

Carlton Althoff, manager at Dodge Park No. 4, on Cass Lake, predicts 10,000 to 12,000 people will use the park tomorrow if the weather is clear.

Good weather could also bring up to 10,000 to Pontiac Lake Recreation Area and another 12,000 to the Holly Recreation Area.

★ ★ ★

Holly already has recorded a crowd of 14,500 on Sunday, May 19. Park Manager Murray Telsworth said however that camping traffic may not be as high as other holidays due to Memorial Day falling in the middle of the week.

"We expect between 50 to 150 campers to begin arriving tonight," he said. Paul Wigg, Pontiac Lake manager, reported a lifeguard will be on duty at the beach all day if the weather holds up.

Parks may be packed throughout the county with "vacationers" making short jaunts on the short holiday.

★ ★ ★

All city, county and federal offices will be closed. Area banks will close at their regular times today and open at the regular hour Thursday morning.

TO PATROL ROADS

Most stores will also be closed.

Police and sheriff's deputies will be out in full force, concentrating their efforts on major thoroughfares near the metropolitan area.

Most major thoroughfares in the county where construction or grading has been in progress will be clear for holiday traffic, according to Sol D. Lomerson, vice chairman of the county road commission.

"The worst spot in the county is Northwestern Highway from where construction detours may cause congestion," he warned.

★ ★ ★

Telegraph Road just south of Dixie Highway may also be congested due to construction of a new lane. Other detours worth noting are on Giddings Road north of Walton Boulevard and Baldwin Road near Brown Road due to I75 freeway construction.

10th Humphreys Teener to Graduate at St. Fred's

By JOE SINGLETON

In a few weeks 18-year-old Mary Ann Humphries will graduate from St. Fredericks High School.

On the surface, this is not an unusual feat.

But Mary Ann's graduation is unique!

Mary Ann is the last of 10 children of Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Humphries, 261 Whittemore St., to graduate from St. Fredericks High School.

Here's the rundown:

In the fall of 1932, 6-year-old Bill Humphreys toddled off to kindergarten at St. Fredericks School. Bill graduated in 1945.

Bob, the second son, graduated in 1948.

Jerry, 31, graduated in 1949.

Next to graduate in 1950, was Dick Humphreys.

After the four boys, there were three girls.

Beverly, 28, graduated in 1951.

Patricia, 25, graduated in 1954.

Peg, 23, graduated in 1956.

LAST SON

The last son, Joseph, 22, graduated in 1958.

Carolyn, 20, graduated in 1960.

Now, after 30 years of education for 10 children, and grandparents of 22 children, the parents will attend the commencement exercise for their last youngster on June 6.

Although the couple on Whittemore Street is beaming with joy over the up-coming graduation, they can't help but remember that in raising 10 children, there were some "rough spots."

"There were times when we had trouble making the tuition payments for the children," Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys recall. "But the Sisters were understanding and patient with us."

They also cited the pastors of

Topp Scheduled for Return to Oakland Today

Two detectives from the Oakland County Sheriff's Department were scheduled to return here from Chicago today with murder suspect Sheldry W. Topp.

★ ★ ★

The 17-year-old Pontiac State Hospital escapee, is charged with first-degree murder in the slaying of Charles A. Davis, Oakland County's first assistant corporation counsel. He waived extradition in Chicago.

Federal authorities notified Sheriff Frank Irons that Topp was available for return to Michigan yesterday evening. Capt. Leo Hazen and Sgt. Harry Maur immediately left to pick up the prisoner.

Topp was arrested last Wednesday in Chicago by FBI agents after eluding a nationwide police dragnet for nearly a week. He escaped from the Pontiac hospital May 15.

Davis was stabbed to death in his home only hours after Topp's escape.

★ ★ ★

Prosecutor George Taylor said he expects to request a sanity commission examination of Topp to determine if he is mentally competent to stand trial.

Benny Goodman, Combo in Russia for 6-Week Tour

MOSCOW (UPI) — Benny Goodman, the "King of Swing," and his jazz group open a six-weeks tour of the Soviet Union tomorrow with a concert in Moscow.

Goodman arrived by plane yesterday with his orchestra. When Goodman's six player Phil Woods came down the ramp from the plane, a tall, intense young man who identified himself as a member of the Moscow Jazz Club cornered him.

"We know you here," the unidentified Russian said to Woods. "You used to play with Gene Quill, the alto sax man."

★ ★ ★

"That's right," Woods answered with surprise. "I thought this would be a strange country, but I feel better already."

Carpenter Receiving His College Degree

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—Astronaut Malcolm Scott Carpenter receives today the college degree he won by orbiting the earth three times last Thursday.

★ ★ ★

The nation's newest space hero will get a bachelor of science degree in aeronautical engineering during a 90-minute ceremony honoring him at the University of Colorado.

In 1949, as a senior, Carpenter dropped out of the university on the assumption he was failing a course in heat transference.

Destroyed Data on Estes Audit

Agriculture Dept. Says Accountant Threw Out His Working Papers

WASHINGTON (AP)—A private accountant who submitted a rosy audit of Billie Sol Estes' finances destroyed his working papers after a call from someone in Estes' organization, an Agriculture Department official said today.

★ ★ ★

The statement of net worth was presented to the government in January 1961 when the Agriculture Department proposed to increase from $708,000 to $1 million the bond Estes had to put up to store U.S. grain valued at $50 million.

The agriculture official, S. R. Smith, administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service, said the audit put Estes' net worth at $13.7 million — more than the amount required to keep the bond at the lower level. He said the audit was made by Winn P. Jackson, a certified public accountant associated with a Texas firm.

Jackson has conceded he did not make an adequate audit of Estes' records before submitting the report, Smith said in testimony prepared for the House Government Operations subcommittee.

CLAIMS BANKRUPT

Estes, now under indictment for fraud, has declared he is bankrupt.

★ ★ ★

One aim of the investigations into Estes' many and complex operations is to learn whether Estes' jerry-built business empire was constructed on a foundation of government influence.

The 37-year-old Texan's dealings are being investigated by the FBI, four grand juries, the Internal Revenue Service, the Agriculture Department and two congressional committees.

A grand jury in Franklin, Tex., looking into the death of Texas agriculture official Henry Marshall accepted Monday a curtailed government report on Estes' dealings in cotton allotments.

★ ★ ★

The government filed a motion to quash a subpoena demanding officials provide the full 175-page report.

Versailles Palace to End All Palaces

By HAROLD A. FITZGERALD
Publisher, The Pontiac Press

(This is the third and concluding article on a current trip to London and Paris with 250 newspaper people representing 33 countries and all continents.)

If you really want your eye knocked out completely, visit Versailles. Here is the chateau to end the chateau business for all time.

★ ★ ★

It's outside of Paris and occupies nearly 600 acres, and the place itself covers 125 acres. That's a little larger than the entire Bloomfield Hills golf course including all 18 tees, fairways, greens, roughs, practice areas and contiguous spaces. Mind you, this is under one roof.

It was the combined handiwork of three kings, with Louis the XIV getting top billing. It took 7,000 men 34 years to build — and that probably included Saturdays. Oakland County's Walter Reuther would never cross a single threshold for nary a journeyman drew an hour of overtime.

★ ★ ★

This was the King's home — you know — the place you go when night comes and you're tired from sitting on that hard throne all day and wearing a heavy crown. You could steal into this little hideaway and take off your shoes to relax.

It contains 8,000 paintings, including many of the great masterpieces of the world and 1,068 statues. After you and the little woman have had an eleven course dinner, you could wander around and look at 50 or 60 new marble figures if it's statue night — but if you had a sudden yen for paintings, you could take in half a hundred of these that you'd never seen before.

★ ★ ★

One of the indescribable ceilings took a world famous painter seven years on his aching back. This place even defies description from Jackie Kennedy. If the D. C. darling set out to do it on TV, she'd be out of circulation until Caroline had grandchildren.

★ ★ ★

We had dinner there.

Imagine.

There've been two banquets before. One was for the Queen of Great Britain and the other for the Kennedys, which I understand was in the Hall of Mirrors. This is a spritely room that's just less than a city block long — and I mean that literally—and is entirely lined with mirrors.

Our own crowd of 250 newspaper people from 33 countries was joined by 600 top citizens of Paris and we occupied about a third of the space. You could easily have seated 3,000 and left room for an indoor truck meet. Remember these are just individual rooms in one palace, and all around the walls are these world famous paintings.

★ ★ ★

The outside gardens were where the weary king and his mate wandered before sunset. The fountains scattered about are slightly smaller than Niagara Falls but just as scenic and considerably better than Old Faithful in Yellowstone Park.

This palace is now 300 years old and it will live 3,000 years more if the French remain at peace that long with the Germans and if Russia stays in mans — and if Russia stays in her own back yard.

★ ★ ★

These various Louirs wanted a place to worship, so they had a chapel over in one corner. It's about the size and shape of All Saints Episcopal Church here in Pontiac and if you didn't have a guide, you couldn't find it.

You can't help but be impressed by the better manners that exist in so many foreign lands.

We're outpointed.

We always suffer.

I've never seen as many cars in heavy traffic as Paris can produce at any given hour but politeness assists. The number of these midgets scurrying in every direction is almost frightening. They come from the right, left,

County Counsel Hits Millage Cut

Oakland County Corporation Counsel Norman Barnard today warned the Tax Allocation Board that the board's preliminary rate of 5.4 mills would mean reduction of county services and construction by $1,633,000 below the 1963 tentative budget of $16,555,202.

The county had asked for 6.18 mills this year. Barnard read a resolution from the County Ways and Means Committee urging the rate increase to meet the county 1963 budget.

Yesterday, the board was accused of "undermining the public schools" by recommending a lower millage share to schools this year.

The charge was made by Mrs. John Harrison, second vice president of the Royal Oak PTA Council, as the board prepared to set final allocation rates of the 15-mill total for schools, townships and county government.

She called upon representatives of 21 PTA councils and 260 local PTAS in the county present at the board meeting to stand up in her support.

About 75 persons rose in the county supervisors auditorium at 1 Lafayette Street.

Mrs. Harrison requested that the tax board allocate not less than 9.75 of the 15 mills to the public schools.

The board previously had set a preliminary 8.6 mills for schools this year, constituting a .10-mill cut from last year's allocation rate.

Board member William Emerson, county superintendent of schools said the cut would cost schools approximately $300,000 in tax revenues. He argued for no cut.

CRITICIZES GOVERNMENT

Mrs. Harrison criticized county government for earmarking $912,000 of surplus funds for a proposed major airport and planned construction of an auditorium for county supervisors.

"Yet you wish to deny the 175,136 public school children of Oakland County $300,000 which they so desperately need," she said.

"The county," she said, "consistently acquired large surplus funds, be it by underestimating receipts and overestimating disbursements or just sheer good luck—it is difficult to ascertain."

She noted that if the school districts could realize a surplus it would go instead for "rooms to house the many children on half-days and in overcrowded classrooms" and to discourage early drop outs through special programs such as remedial reading.

"In the coming year every school district is facing a renewal of previously voted millage (above to the allocated mills) or must ask for new millage," Mrs. Harrison added.

She said the enrollment in public schools in the county next year is expected to increase to 182,000 pupils.

"An increase of 6.86 children and you are planning to give the schools $300,000 less," she states, "Yet you intend to spend over a half million dollars of our money to house the 35 county supervisors (in the proposed auditorium) and another $362,000 to begin an airport which already has met considerable opposition from the taxpayers of Oakland County.

"This is in part our money you are spending and we request you fulfill your responsibility to the schools . . ."

Meanwhile the Oakland County Tax Allocation Board is waiting to learn from the State Equalization Board in Lansing what the county's equalized valuation will be this year.

Both the County Board of Supervisors and the State Tax Commission are recommending an equalized valuation here of $2,-112,408,200. This would constitute a $17,725,000 increase over last year.

The State Equalization Board's final determination is expected by the end of the month.

Earlier the State Tax Commission was recommending raising Oakland County's equalized valuation to $2,149,908,200 this year.

The County Board of Supervisors equalization committee objected, stating, that the commission had failed to take dropping market values into consideration.

Yesterday the commission agreed to the committee's recommended county equalized valuation, thus reducing the tax base here by $37.5 million.

St. Vincent Parish for helping them through some difficult times.

"Our parents also gave us some help," recalled Mr. Humphreys.

There were many happy times of being part of a large family, Carolyn recalled.

"There were so many of us we had to sign an 'in' and 'out' pad in the front hallway whenever we left and returned from a date or school activity. We put down the time we left and the time we returned."

Carolyn admitted there were times when they tried to hedge on the time, but couldn't get away with it for "Mom always knew when we hit the steps."

"There was always a beacon light on the front of the house that stayed on every night until the last one was in," recalled Mary Ann. "The kids at school kidded us about it a lot because it could be seen all the way down Whittemore Street."

"And there was always a pair of boxing gloves hanging in the recreation room to help us resolve our differences," Dick commented.

"All the children made a voluntary pact to stay home at least two years after graduation, get jobs and help the younger ones," recalled Mrs. Humphreys.

* * *

"The four older boys really pitched in and helped out in the earlier years. Right now, Dick and Carolyn are doing more than their share. All the children have contributed more than their share in helping the whole family."

Asked how she felt after successfully raising and educating ten children, Mrs. Humphreys summed it all up by stating, "Why, I never thought of it as being anything unusual."

Articles Give Statements of School Post Aspirants

In both the Pontiac School District and the Waterford Township School District, five candidates are seeking election June 11 to two board of education posts.

The Pontiac Press will present a biography of the candidates and their statements in a series of articles that begins today.

Although the elections are separate and distinct, the articles are combined in pairs for the convenience of readers.

Dr. Walter L. Godsell, 3d, president of the Pontiac Board of Education, seeks his third term as a board member.

* * *

A chiropratic physician, he is a product of Pontiac schools and has his professional training from Lincoln Chiropratic College, Indianapolis, Ind. He also attended Wayne State and Butler universities.

Dr. Godsell of 307 W. Huron St. is married and has two daughters attending Crofoot School. He is president of the Oakland County Chiropratic Society, a member of the First Baptist Church, the Christian Men's Club and the University of Michigan Advisory Committee on the midwest program on airborne television instruction.

Following is his formal statement regarding his candidacy:

* * *

"There are many reasons why a person would wish to serve on a board of education. Frequently, candidates run solely to foster some particular idea, or purely as a representative of some particular group. Such should not be the case. The problems of a school district are many and varied; a candidate should have the interest of the entire school community at heart.

* * *

"Past years have seen many instructional improvements to the point where we have a fine educational program here in Pontiac; however, there is yet much to be done. Curriculum development in certain fields is a definite continuing necessity. Extension of foreign language to lower grades seems desirable. Science programs need additional steady improvements.

* * *

"Several building needs exist. The Patterson Street central office building is in the urban renewal area, and will be replaced at a new location.

"Increased enrollments indicate a need soon for a junior high school to the north of town on the Baldwin Avenue site. These costs must be borne without impairing the quality of our educational system.

"My position is to work in cooperation with citizens, teachers and administrators and to encourage citizens to feel free to contact their board members with any suggestions they might have."

Norman L. Cheal is one of the five candidates competing for the two four-year term seats on the Waterford Township Board of Education in the June 11 school election.

Married and the father of six children, Cheal resides at 2751 Northlake Dr., Waterford Township. He heads the experimental department of the Pontiac Motor Division engineering department.

Cheal graduated from Lansing Eastern High School in 1937 and from Michigan State College in 1941 with a B.S. in chemical engineering.

* * *

His formal statement regarding the election is as follows:

* * *

"With an annual budget of about 5 million dollars and more than 550 teachers, the Waterford Township school system is big business—the biggest business in the township. Great as is the significance of these facts, or even greater significance is the fact that there will be an enrollment of about 14,000 children in the schools next fall.

* * *

"It is for the children and for the parts they will play in the community and our country that the school system exists.

"As a homeowner and father of six young children, I have a natural and, perhaps, selfish interest in the schools.

"More important, as a citizen, I have a very great desire to see our schools efficiently administered, educating all 14,000 children to be good and useful citizens.

* * *

"My primary interests thus are in the fields of financial management of the school system and in the curriculum for the students. Because of my education, training and background of experience in community affairs, I feel that I can make a worthwhile contribution in these areas if elected to the schoolboard."

Two U.S. military advisers attached to the Laotian army at Houei Sai have been missing since Sunday, it was reported.

In 1910 he went with the Commercial Credit Co. and a few months later came to Pontiac as the company's representative. The following year he bought out the company and conducted the business here, adding the lines of real estate and insurance.

In 1918 Mr. Wood formed a partnership with E. D. Tyler and in 1920 sold out to Mr. Tyler.

After spending a year in the country, he became sales manager for Keller Andrews Co. of Flint. In June 1923 he became sales manager for W. B. Anderson, realtor, of Pontiac, and on Jan. 5, 1924 he entered the real estate business for himself, opening the firm which bore his name.

A former member of Central Methodist Church, he was also a member of Knights of Pythias, the Rotary Club, Pontiac Chamber of Commerce and Wednesday Dancing Club.

Mr. Wood was a past president of Pontiac Real Estate Board, a member of the Gridiron Club and Pine Lake Country Club.

After retiring from business in 1958 Mr. Wood and the late Mrs. Wood made their winter home in Port Charlotte, Fla., but lived in Harrison during the summer.

Mr. Wood leaves a son Charles of Pontiac; a daughter, Mrs. Alice Kvitek of Birmingham; four grandsons; and a brother in Harrison.

Due to the recent death of Mr. Wood's wife Verna, the family suggests any memorial tributes be made to the building fund of Cen-

The Day in Birmingham

Bloomfield Twp. Board Rescinds District Set-Up

BIRMINGHAM — The Bloomfield Township Board last night rescinded an earlier action creating a special assessment district planned to finance sanitary sewer system.

The action is the first of four similar moves that must be taken because the method of notifying property owners of the public hearings has been ruled unconstitutional.

The state attorney general's office announced recently that property owners in a special assessment district must be informed of the public hearing by mail delivered first class.

* * *

Bloomfield Township has been letting property owners know of the hearings by first class mail rather than just an advertisement in a newspaper, according to Clerk Delores Little, "but the fact that this wasn't required before doesn't make the board's action legal."

She said it is a technicality that will be cleared up after June 10 when property owners living in the four special assessment districts will again receive their first class mail notices.

The hearings probably will be held the same night, she said.

The board last night rescinded its early resolution that created the sanitary sewer special assessment district for the Williamsburg Subdivision.

* * *

Others to be rescinded in the future are Peabody Orchards, Brookside Hills and the Devon Gables subdivision at Telegraph and Long Lake roads.

The board, in another action, adopted the uniform water craft ordinance regulating activities on township lakes. The ordinance, however, will affect only Square Lake since the rest of the township lakes are private.

Authorization to purchase the Newcombe property adjacent to the township hall for future expansion also was given to Township Attorney Thomas Dillon.

Voters approved the purchase of the 10-acre parcel in April.

The property will cost the township $32,000.

Charles Hummel, 2435 Devon Lane, has been elected chairman of the board of directors of Kingswood School Cranbrook, succeeding William B. Hartman, who has held the post for two years.

Other officers are Robert Flint, vice chairman; Ben D. Mills, treasurer; and Mrs. John P. McLean Jr., secretary.

* * *

Richard C. Van Dusen was elected to the board to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of William H. Baldwin.

Re-elected as directors were Mrs. William T. Gossett and Mrs. William B. Hargreaves.

Service for Willard E. Welsh, 55, of 985 Timberlake, Bloomfield Hills, was held yesterday at William Vasu Funeral Home, Royal Oak, with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

And yet, everyone gets through. The French aren't as insistent upon having the last vestige of "my personal rights" as we are. A French driver is willing to let you move in ahead. They concede right and left hand turns cheerfully, with the shrug of a French shoulder which is the national language of concession when all else fails.

In effect it says:

"So what?"

And Paris streets are so wide they have eight, ten and twelve traffic lanes running side by side.

* * *

In the United States, drivers steam ahead in the most demanding manner possible. The French are more courteous and we have a lot to learn from these old world countries where the people ceased being "in a hurry" a thousand years ago. And no one blows an automobile horn in Paris — no one. It's against the law. And I mean against the law, and they aren't the kind of laws that we have. You never hear a horn and yet there are more vehicles on the streets than in New York. A saving grace is the small size of the cars. The Pontiac I was fortunate enough to draw was a palatial, ocean going yacht in comparison with the average French bug that streaks around the highways.

* * *

Probably the most distinguished champagne in the world is Moet Chandon's from Epernay. My wife and I were invited down for lunch and were conducted through the famous underground cellars. These are 16 miles long and currently store 20 million bottles including their Dry Imperial, Rose, White Seal and famous Dom Perignon. Champagne does not improve with age beyond 10 or 12 years and it is almost impossible to preserve, but we were honored with a bottle that bore the cuvee mark of 1911—51 years ago. It was a big thrill—and super delicious.

* * *

Now 1959 is believed to be the greatest champagne year of the current century. You can get still wines of that vintage already, but you won't get any champagne for three or four years.

* * *

We went over and back on Pan American's magnificent super jets that are the last word in all phases of air travel. And Pan Am service is simply magnificent. They really look after you and come up with that little "something extra."

* * *

The French are a friendly people. They're impetuous at times and voluble but good breeding and good manners underwrite everything they do. We were a conglomerate newspaper group from every continent and just to show a worldly and cosmopolitan frame of mind, I set down that aside from the missus, the best looking member of the group was Shyama Jain of Bombay, wife of the publisher of The Times, of India.

Clare Cummings told me once that when you write about a trip you must make certain not to spell out the facts he has already read in his eighth grade history.

Clare, I've tried.

* * *

Two week's absence from Pontiac is sufficient. I'd rather be here than anywhere else in the world. I like the people, the country, my associates and the whole setup.

West Huron Street's the address now.

You can't beat it.

It's Memorial Day for Area 'Redhead'

Vet Recalls a Jungle in Leyte . . .

By JOE MULLEN

Memorial Day would be a fitting day for The Redhead to conjure up memories of The Philippines—of a particular air battle there and of his eventual rescue.

But Edwin J. Beattie of Independence Township, would rather talk about the Navy Reserve and this weekend's training flight to Kansas.

"That's all ancient history," The Redhead protested as the interviewer persisted along a conversational trail back to World War II.

Yes, he was the subject of a chapter "The Redhead" in the book "Leyte Calling" by Joseph St. John, former guerrilla leader in the jungles of Leyte.

* * *

As he talked, the curtain of time faded. The office became the cockpit of a Wildcat fighter plane serrated by Japanese bullets and plunging earthward in flames.

It was Ensign Beattie's 21st birthday, Oct. 20, 1944.

The young pilot bailed out and as he floated downward, watched his plane hit the ground and explode.

* * *

Just then one of the eight Japanese Oscars that had attacked his plane, came out of the clouds toward him.

"I don't know whether the pilot didn't have the heart to strafe me or whether he didn't see me," Beattie recalled, "but he suddenly turned and joined the other Jap fighter planes."

The Redhead, who was on active duty from October 1942 until January 1946, was on his 30th airborne mission when he was gunned out of the sky 14,000 feet above the mountainous terrain of Leyte in the Philippines.

* * *

When the ensign touched ground after bailing out, he suffered a minor leg injury, painful enough to cause a limp.

* * *

Beattie began walking. He was armed with a gun and a knife and was ready to use either as the area was known to be infested with Japanese.

He was following a river he believed led to Leyte Gulf when he heard a man's voice. Standing before him was a native with a huge bolo knife, its blade shimmering in the sunlight.

Realizing the stranger was an American, the Filipino rushed over to shake hands.

'IMPRESSED BY HAIR'

"He seemed impressed with my red hair," Beattie recalled. "I guess he thought I was someone very special, being an American plus having red hair."

When the two men resumed the journey along the river, the native noticed Beattie's limp and insisted that The Redhead ride piggy back.

"I felt rather foolish but he kept insisting so I hopped on and we went," Beattie said.

They eventually arrived at a small guerrilla encampment where they ate and slept before moving on to the coast. After days of traveling through the mountains and jungle they reached their destination, the camp run by St. John.

The Redhead received a royal welcome at both camps, especially the one on the coast.

* * *

Natives, constantly pointing at his red hair, wouldn't let him out of their sight for a moment. Crowds hovered over him while he ate, making sure he had his fill. They even stood by while he slept, fanning the ensign to make the hot, humid weather of the islands more tolerable.

During the several days the flyer was in St. John's camp he took part in guerrilla stabs against the enemy but eventualy he was picked up by a 24th Division reconnaissance group.

OFFICER IN RESERVE

Beattie lives with his wife, Mickie, and their three children at 6265 Snow Apple Drive. He's executive officer of Attack Squadron 731 based on Grosse Ile, with the rank of Lieutenant Commander, USNR.

Every month the squadron assembles for a weekend of training.

This weekend it will train Saturday at Grosse Ile and then fly to Olathe, Kan. Then another day of training.

But no one is shooting at him now. And redheads—men, at least—aren't stared at.

Losses Up to 4 Points in 1st Minutes

Mart Goes Down, Down, Down

Major securities and commodities exchanges will be closed tomorrow in observance of the Memorial Day holiday.

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices continued their dizzying decline early today as investors throughout the country unloaded holdings following the worst market avalanche since 1929.

Losses of key stocks ran from fractions to about 4 points as huge blocks of stock were traded in the first few minutes. The process continued with only a few signs of resistance.

"Where will we reach bottom?" was the question in Wall Street and no one had a firm answer.

★ ★ ★

Some technicians said that the Dow Jones industrial average, which plummeted 34.95 to 576.93 yesterday, was likely to find resistance fo further decline at around 566.05—where the "Kennedy bull market" began on Oct. 25, 1960.

Meanwhile, it looked like another frantic day on Wall Street as the ticker tape lagged five minutes behind transactions within a half hour of the start.

A number of the biggest blue chips were delayed in opening because they were swamped with orders that had to be matched by exchange officials.

★ ★ ★

Prices continued to sink on the American Stock Exchange following yesterday's selloff which was on the biggest volume of the year for this exchange.

★ ★ ★

Colonial Sand & Stone lost more than a point while fractional losses were shown by Aeronca, Arkansas-Louisiana Gas, Ogden Corp., National Bellas Hess and Creole Petroleum.

★ ★ ★

Corporate bonds were narrowly mixed with a number of issues unchanged.

Bonds Down at Opening

NEW YORK (AP) — Corporate bond prices declined at the opening today while the U.S. government list held firm.

Over the counter dealers in Treasury securities quoted long issues up 2/32 and intermediates mostly unchanged. There was little activity, one dealer said. Most investors were hesitant about buying anything in view of the continued slide of stock prices.

★ ★ ★

Once again rails were the hardest hit section in corporate trading on the New York Stock Exchange. A handful of rail issues gave up a point or more at the start. Industrials and utilities also were decidedly lower.

Stock Prices Decline Aboard

Switzerland Reports Biggest Drop Since 1929 Crash

LONDON (AP)—A storm of selling hit the stock exchanges of Europe and Japan today in sympathy with price declines on Wall Street.

★ ★ ★

Hundreds of millions of pounds sterling were wiped off the value of shares in London. Prices gyrated wildly on the major exchanges of Switzerland and West Germany.

The Financial Times index of British industrial common shares plummeted 13.4 points in two hours to 265.0, compared with the record of 365.7 on May 15, 1961.

Bargain hunters made their appearance on the London Exchange late in the morning, but their activities provided only a brief lull in the slide. Selling again developed around lunch time and some of the nation's blue chips were hard hit.

HAS BIGGEST DROP

The Zurich Stock Exchange had its biggest drop since the 1929 crash but there was a substantial recovery at midday. Union Bank of Switzerland dropped from 4,400 francs ($1,019) per share to 2,800 francs ($672), but recovered to 3,500 ($811).

Swiss government officials and financiers said they were not gravely concerned by the drop in what they called an "overvalued market."

At Frankfurt, Germany, stock prices, which have had a steady decline since the start of the year, dropped sharply.

Volkswagen, which dropped yesterday to a new low of 552 was bid between 505 and 510.

★ ★ ★

Tokyo's stock exchange closed with a moderate but broad decline after an early selling rush. The Dow Jones average of 225 selected stocks fell 17.76 yen (4.9 cents) from Monday to 1,375.69 yen ($3.82).

Grain Prices Down in First Dealings

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices moved sharply downward today in initial transactions on the board of trade with December and March corn slumping four cents a bushel. Losses elsewhere ran to well over a cent.

Brokers said the pressure could have been linked with the steep slide in the securities market since there appeared to be a rather large accumulation of selling orders through commission houses.

However, the peak of the flurry showed signs of having passed quickly. Prices leveled off within several minutes and nearly all contracts recovered slightly from their early lows.

Savings and Pensions Could Bolster Market

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — Hovering over the stock market and the economy in general is a great potential power. This is the financial colossus which Americans have built up as individuals and groups — the pension and other funds and the bank holdings of individual savers.

★ ★ ★

Both pension fund assets and the total savings at banks and savings and loan associations have taken huge jumps in recent months. Tow much the recent stock market break may have chipped away at the pension assets, how much it may have induced further savings, remains to be seen.

★ ★ ★

Record sums collectively held in the name of individuals are invested in American business. The individual savings accounts themselves make up a huge total from which loans to business are made.

To the trustees of these pension funds, and to those of the huge charitable and scientific foundations, educational institutions and managers of mutual funds, the paring away of market value of common stocks is far from an academic question.

WHAT TO DO!

A top man in a West Coast industrial empire said he had to take time off one day recently from his worrying about the future of his own firm to sit in with other trustees of a big foundation.

★ ★ ★

The question: "What should we do? What stocks should we sell? Or should we sit tight and wait for the market to come back?"

★ ★ ★

The trustees saw the market value of some of their assets dropping and they couldn't decide—at least that day—what was best to do. That perhaps could prove an exception to the widely held opinion that the professionals, such as these trustees were supposed to be, always sell before the market breaks and always buy before it spurts upward.

THEY WONDER

Many workers who own no stocks themselves may wonder how their pension funds are faring, especially those whose assets consist to considerable extent in common stock—in some instances, the shares of the company where the worker is employed.

★ ★ ★

Securities and Exchange Commission figure show that at the end of 1961 corporate securities accounted for 85 per cent of all pension fund assets at book value. But of this amount, $15 billion was in corporate bonds and $12.4 billion in common and preferred stocks.

★ ★ ★

Total assets of pension funds of U.S. corporations reached a high of $32.4 billion, a jump of $3.7 billion in the year. This increase is itself a record, although the gain was anything but novel. Increases in the two previous years topped $3 billion, as the pension funds took an ever greater role in American fiscal affairs.

SAVINGS HELP

With some funds having only about a third of their assets in common stocks, the recent price breaks haven't depleted assets to any worrisome degree. But for the trustees there is still the question: What to do now?

Another great potential bolstering the economy as a whole—though not the stock market at the moment — is the steady increase in savings. The Federal Reserve Board reports that in the first three months of this year savings at banks and savings and loan associations increased by $8.2 billion, a record jump.

★ ★ ★

The big incentive was the higher interest rates on savings and time deposits which most banks began paying this year. And some stock brokers think that this increased yield on savings could be one reason that the public has been selling stocks—or at least hasn't been putting new money into stocks.

MARKET TUMBLES — Shares on the New York Stock Exchange took their most severe tumble yesterday since Oct. 28, 1929. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks toppled 13.40 to 211.20, also the worst loss since Oct. 28, 1929. The industrials were off 17.50, rails 5.80 and utilities 9.50, all to new lows for the year.

Exchange President Calm Over Situation

By DARDEN CHAMBLISS
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK — The chairman of the American Stock Exchange, who has seen bad times before, didn't let concern over Monday's stock market drop prevent him from going to bed with a novel at 8:30 p.m.

★ ★ ★

Edwin Posner, 71, said "These are times—if you'll pardon my being trite—that try men's souls," but added: "We'll live through it, just like we've done before."

"It's one of those situations, old man," he said. "When the public gets a little panicky, prices start dropping out. I'm surprised it went this far. Where it'll go, no one can predict."

'LET HIM FIGHT IT'

Posner, who became chairman and temporary president of the American Exchange early this year to help correct faults found by a federal agency, will step down as president after Labor Day in favor of Edwin Etherington, 37.

★ ★ ★

"I told Etherington today that I wished he was coming in tomorrow," Posner said, smiling. "He's a young man. Let him wrestle with it for a while."

Posner said Monday was the first time he had really been disturbed by the market's protracted downtrend. Asked what he thought would stop the bear market, he said: "Well, we wondered for a long time what would stop the bull market. Something did, but we don't know what."

'IT'LL COME BACK'

"This will run its course," he continued. "Someday—maybe tomorrow or next week or next month—it'll come back up again."

Another broker who, like Posner, was in business when the big crash came in 1929, was as slow as Posner to show any outward signs of distress.

★ ★ ★

Eldon Grimm of Walston and Co. didn't even wait for the delayed tape quotations to reach an end before heading for his home in Connecticut.

'EXPLAINS CAUSE'

He saw the selling as forced by loan calls, lenders requiring more money to cover collateral when stock prices fell. This brought forced selling, he said, to get money to meet the calls, which drove prices lower and generated more loan calls.

"It gets to be a chain reaction thing," he said, "like when you knock down a line of dominoes."

★ ★ ★

He termed the market over-sold, said there were some bargain hunters and institutions buying and that a lot of the psychological effect of this was lost because the ticker tape lagged and buyers couldn't tell what was going on.

Business Generally Good in U.S.

Stock Slump, Figures Incompatible

By United Press International

The sharp descent of stock prices seems incompatible with the general state of business. Figures indicate a singular trend: Business is generally good throughout the United States.

Yesterday's $28.5 billion paper loss and statistics rivaling the crash of 1929 brought partisan rumblings from Washington.

Republicans said the slump reflected little confidence in the administration. Democrats counter-charged that the Kennedy administration inherited a "full-bloom" recession in January, 1961.

There were these firm figures from Washington:

Total employment in April rose to a record 67 million, including 62 million nonfarm jobs. Unemployment declined during the month by 430,000 to 3.9 million.

—SALES INCREASING

Department store sales continued to rise, up 7 per cent from the 1961 level for the week ended May 19.

Personal income was up $2.75 billion from March to April, 7 per cent above the comparable period last year. The annual rate is $438.75 billion.

April industrial production was at 116, up one point from March. The 116 figure means 16 per cent above the 1957-59 base period.

★ ★ ★

The consumer price index stood at 105.2 of the 1957-59 average, up .2 of 1 per cent from March. A similar increase is expected this month.

The picture elsewhere around the country appeared bright, with the exception of the Pittsburgh area.

The University of Pittsburgh Bureau of Business Research reported district steel production declined to a new low, eight points under the previous week's listing, to 85 per cent of the 1957-59 base period.

OUTPUT HIGH

Automotive News Magazine said in Detroit last week's automobile output of 154,817 was the second highest of the year. Total production of 677,000 units for the month of May was predicted by the trade publication.

It noted at the same time, however, that the usual "high" spring market has not developed, although midmonth sales were the third highest since the record year of 1955.

The Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry said the eight-county Chicago area is "more sound economically than at any time in the past three years."

★ ★ ★

Unemployment is down, housing permits are up and industrial plant investment has risen 400 per cent during the past four months, the association said.

Parisians Fascinated by Sinatra's Entourage

PARIS — Frank Sinatra's due here June 4 on his world tour of shows for children's charities — and Parisians are all agog (or is it all agrog?). He sings at the famous Lido nightclub — and the dinners will cost 50,000 old francs each — $100. But it is Frank's travel plans that titillate the Parisians. He has an entourage of 18, including seven musicians, "one factotum in charge of the press," a cook and a valet, sound engineer, TV cameraman, secretary, director, an administrator, and "three friends," including Hollywood restaurateur Mike Romanoff and his wife.

WILSON

"The three friends have no specified task on the tour," so it is announced, "except to chat with Sinatra when he has a free moment."

Son of Jennifer Jones, Robert Walker

Young Actor Like Parents

By VERNON SCOTT

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—An echo of the past reverberated across MGM studios this week in the person of Robert Walker, 22-year-old son of Jennifer Jones and the late film star Robert Walker.

Self-conscious and nervous in his first movie, young Walker sat down to a luncheon interview uneasily.

"I don't want to discuss my family," he said quickly. "I'd like to keep my personal life to myself. I hope you'll understand."

Slender and blue-eyed, Walker has inherited the shy, self-effacing qualities of both his parents. He is an exceedingly handsome fellow with a deadly serious approach to acting.

HE'S BEEN BITTEN

"There was a time when I said I'd never become an actor," he continued. "But I feel that artistic traits are inherited, and I've been bitten by the acting bug."

Until he became an actor Bob was something of a gypsy, "a professional transient" by his own definition.

He attended a dozen grammar and high schools in the United States and Europe. Since his parents' divorce Walker has not had a permanent home.

"I'm married now and have a daughter of my own," he said. "And I want to settle down and have a place to call home."

Bob is unusually mature compared to many young hopefuls attempting to follow in the footsteps of famous parents. He was asked if he hoped to attain the heights of his mother and father.

"I don't preoccupy myself with things like that," he answered.

"It doesn't enter my mind. Until last summer I wanted to be a playwright and joined a summer theater in New York to find out as much as I could about the needs of performers. So I became an apprentice and worked as stage manager, set builder and lighting technician among other things. I even did some acting.

"It didn't take me long to realize that I wanted very much to become a good actor."

Bob had never been encouraged to become an actor by his famous mother, nor by his stepfather, producer David O. Selznick. But he believes acting affords him the opportunity to express himself.

Walker, who was too young to see his parents' movies the first time around, watches their performances on television reruns.

"I was shocked when I first saw the rushes of this movie (The Hook). There were many little similarities to be seen in my acting and that of mother and father.

"I guess I just picked them up without realizing it.

"But I don't think of future accomplishments in terms of approaching their work. I'm an individual and will have to do the best job I can and let other people judge me."

High-Altitude N-Blasts Will Be Set Off in 3 Days

WASHINGTON (AP) — The most spectacular shots of the U.S. nuclear tests in the Pacific will begin in about three days. These are the high-altitude bursts whose brilliant glow will be seen for hundreds of miles.

The three or four blasts with their high-soaring nuclear fireballs and glittering aurorae may temporarily disrupt some radio communications and radar observations.

Militarily, the shots obviously are designed to test the effects of high-altitude blasts on the nation's wartime communications gear—and on electronic monitors designed to detect oncoming missiles.

The government announced Monday the series will be fired over Johnston Island.

The first shot, with an explosive force of something less than a million tons of TNT—a megaton—will be exploded at a height of "tens of kilometers." Educated guesses put this at about 30 to 40 miles.

500 MILES UP?

Two following blasts—one in the megaton range, the other less than a megaton—will be triggered higher—up to 500 miles, according to some sources. The Atomic Energy Commission would go no further than "hundreds of kilometers." One hundred kilometers is 60 miles.

Whether a fourth shot will be necessary depends on the results of the initial three explosions.

So far the United States has announced firing 14 nuclear explosions in the current series of atmospheric tests which began April 25. All have been in the vicinity of Christmas Island, the other test site in the Pacific range.

The glow from the first test—but not the fireball—probably will be visible in Hawaii, about 700 miles from Johnston Island.

The island state very likely will be able to see the unearthly fireballs of the second and third explosions.

Indict Dallas Firm in Detroit Swindle

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—Four operators of a Dallas construction firm were indicted yesterday on charges of swindling a Detroit finance company out of $60,000.

★ ★ ★

Named in the indictment were Bob Johnson, Robert Fussell, Bob Lewellyn and Merle Furtick Lewellyn, identified as operators of the Johnson - Underwood construction firm.

★ ★ ★

The indictment claimed the four sold first lien notes to the Pioneer Finance Co., Inc., of Detroit on houses that either did not exist or were not completed.

Scholle to Recommend Rejecting Constitution

DETROIT (AP)—President August (Gus) Scholle said today he will recommend that the Michigan AFL-CIO go on record at its convention next week against the proposed new state constitution.

★ ★ ★

Scholle expressed confidence the convention would follow his recommendations, saying, "I don't think you could sell the delegates that kind of a bill of goods, no matter what."

Scholle expressed particular unhappiness during the recently adjourned state constitutional convention over the legislative apportionment which it approved.

He insisted that both houses of the legislature be apportioned on a basis of population only, arguing for the principle of "one-man, one-vote" and objecting to area being given any weight in apportionment of Senate seats.

BACKED DEMS

Scholle and other AFL-CIO leaders generally have supported Democratic candidates for state office since the 1948 election of G. Mennen Williams as governor. That party's gubernatorial candidates have been successful since.

★ ★ ★

George Romney, Republican candidate for governor and a vice president of the constitution is improved in every section, compared with the current 1908-drawn document.

Romney, who resigned as president of American Motors Corp. to run for governor, said the House apportionment in the new constitution is about as closely based on population as possible when county lines are observed.

Romney described the Senate as "vastly improved" under a uniform apportionment feature giving 80 per cent weight to population and 20 per cent to area.

★ ★ ★

"I completely disagree with him (Romney) on the basic issues," Scholle told a reporter. "I think they actually mutilated the constitution, rather than improved it."

Circle Theater Has Wealth of Material

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK—"Circle Theater," one of television's hardiest perennials, has been renewed for an eighth season starting next fall. One reason for its continued existence is an inexhaustible source of material — from life itself.

★ ★ ★

Circle's specialty is entertainment called "dramatized documentaries," which means that the situations are real (and sometimes the names of the characters are also) but the writers have dramatic license to telescope time, add fictitious characters, and, sometimes, dream up a windup to a situation that, in actuality, wanders along to an inconclusive end.

In the past seven years, producer Robert Costello and his staff have turned out bi-weekly programs on CBS that have ranged from stories of crime and detection on one hand to a story about the successful treatment of cancer on the other.

★ ★ ★

Sometimes, the drama has been built around a fictional situation that is a composite of many real stories. When, for instance, the program concerned Communist espionage in the United States, the plot was pure fiction, but the narrator broke in from time to time to tie up each episode with a real case and a real spy.

★ ★ ★

"Sometimes we create one or two characters and use them to reflect the attitude of a whole community," Costello explained. "Other times we stick close to the facts. And on still other occasions, we create a fictitious story that is typical of many."

Bus Passenger Slain After Stabbing Three

CHICAGO (AP)—A passenger aboard a Greyhound bus, who police said went berserk and stabbed the driver and two other men, was fatally shot today by police.

★ ★ ★

Police said the knife wielder, identified as Milo Savo Brekich, 27, of San Francisco, threatened to kill the 40 passengers in the bus. Two persons were hospitalized suffering from shock.

★ ★ ★

Policemen Arthur McCauslin and Rosh Moran said they fired at Brekich when he refused to obey their orders to drop his knife.

The policemen had stopped their squad car when they saw the bus parked in an emergency strip.

Wilfred Doss, 41, of Addison, Ill., the driver, told police he stopped the bus to seek police aid after Brekich tried to start a fight with another passenger, William Kokko 23, of Negaunee Mich. an Army private.

Housewife's Phone Call Helps Nab Walkaway

IONIA (AP)—A housewife's telephone call aided yesterday in the capture of a Michigan reformatory walkaway at Saranac, state police said.

David E. Houston, 20, of Jackson fled a dormitory Sunday night but his work garb was spotted yesterday by Mrs. William Brown who called the Ionia post to report his passage near her home.

Officers found him along a road nearby. Houston was sentenced from Jackson County in 1960 on a car theft charge and returned later on parole violation.
