Backs Safety Campaign

FIRST S-D DAY PLEDGE—Larry B. Saxton, 35, flanked by Fireman Robert Olin (left) and Patrolman Robert Emery, was the first Pontiac resident to sign the petition for the "Army of 10,000," pledging safety loyalty on Wednesday, Dec. 15, which has been proclaimed S-D Day by the President's Action Committee for Traffic Safety. The petition will be forwarded to President Eisenhower upon completion, signaling out in the nation Pontiac's role in the national Fireman Robert Olin (left) and Patrolman Robert Emery, was the downtown Pontiac the first hour after the drive got under way today.

Pontiac Starts Collecting No-Accident Day Names

By JOSEPH K. SFAIR

Pontiac today began setting the pace for the nation in a challenge to eliminate all traffic accidents everywhere in the country on Wednesday, Dec. 15.

The challenge came in the form of a crusade by the local Safe Driving Day committee, Pontiac Police Dept. and the Pontiac Press, cooperating in a petitioning drive to gain signatures for an "Army of 10,000," pledging its responsibility on S-D Day.

The safety day was officially proclaimed by President Eisenhower's Action Committee for Traffic Safety. The 10,000 signatures, expected to be gathered in eight days, will be forwarded to the President as a sign of Pontiac's loyalty in the move to save lives.

Stationed at Saginaw and Huron Sts., police and firemen launched the dramatic campaign at 9 a.m. Within an hour 584 persons signed the petition.

First to enlist in the Army of 10,000 this morning was Lawrence B. Saxton, 35, of 177 W. Ann Arbor Ave., who is assistant display manager of Simms Department store.

Clyde R. Haskill, S-D Day chairman, said over 2,000 persons are expected to sign the petitions today. Beginning Wednesday GMC Truck and Coach Division will circulate petitions among its thousands of employees, he said. Haskill explained the unprecedented drive here will point up to the nation the importance of the President's S-D Day.

A letter informing the President's committee of the current Pontiac action is being forwarded to President Eisenhower, Haskill said.

Included in the letter will be a copy of the pledge to be signed by more than 10,000 Pontiac residents. It will also note the names of individual organizations contributing to the success of the drive.

"The purpose behind the local committee's laudable work," said Haskill, "is to set an example for the rest of the nation to follow and make the 24-hour period on S-D Day free of any kind of accident."

Pedestrians and motorists have been urged to acquire safe traffic habits in preparation for S-D Day, so that Pontiac will keep its resolution to the nation: That accidents can be avoided by "the conscious effort on the part of every person."

Haskill added this plea: "Will you help Pontiac take the lead in the nation to make this campaign a big success by signing the petition by Dec. 14 when the document will be sent to Washington."

Detroit's Hopes Vanish for 1956 Political Meets

DETROIT — Detroit's hopes of getting the 1956 Democratic and Republican national conventions vanished today when an architect reported the city's proposed new Convention Hall will not be completed until 1957.

"There's no reason why we should not try to get the 1960 conventions," said one city official. Ground will not be broken for the new building until May 1, 1955, and it will take at least two years to complete it.

Honeymooners Perish, Trapped in Flaming Car

19 Other Traffic Deaths Mar First December Weekend in State

By UNITED PRESS

A young honeymoon couple died screaming for help near East Lansing yesterday when they were pinned in their flaming automobile less than 12 hours after their wedding in Detroit. The victims were Marvin R. Forester, 20, of St. Clair Shores, and his bride, the former Rhea Mae Schuster, 18.

Ingham County Coroner Harry Leadley said it was "the worst accident I have ever seen." He said it took two hours to remove the bodies from the charred car on U. S. 16 about three miles east of Lansing.

State Police said they believed the bride was driving when the car missed a curve, struck a tree and burst into flames. Witnesses said they heard screams coming from inside the overturned car but the intense heat kept them from trying to free the victims.

The first weekend of December was marred by 19 other highway deaths in Michigan, as well as three deaths in a plane crash and two in miscellaneous mishaps.

The appalling toll came as most of the state began planning for observing President Eisenhower's "Safe Driving Day" Dec. 15.

In Oakland County, five died in a five-car pile-up that scattered wreckage and bodies over a wide area a mile north of Oxford. The dead: all from Oxford, were Lynn Best, 27; Charles Nelson, 25; Max Smith, 28; Mrs. Edna Kuck, 31, and Harold Mangum, 21.

Killed last night when their light plane crashed and burned in a marsh 15 miles northeast of Jackson were Ed Gilmore of Gregory and Royce Porath and Thomas Whitaker, both of Munith. All were 22.

A passing motorist, James Knight of Jackson, said he saw the low-flying plane while he was driving along M106 about a mile south of Stockbridge.

He said the plane, owned and piloted by Gilmore, apparently was trying to land on the highway when it clipped a tree and plunged to the ground. Knight said the plane burst into flames and he had no chance to pull the victims to safety. They were burned beyond (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Death, Destruction Spread by Twisters

ATLANTA (UP) — Tornadoes whirled out of the skies into some 19 Georgia and Alabama towns last night leaving death, countless injuries and vast destruction.

The hardest hit towns were Manchester and Richland, Ga., and Wellington, Ala., which was leveled.

The Georgia State Patrol reported that an unidentified 8-year-old girl was killed at Richland where 15 other persons were injured. Another 21 persons were injured at Wellington.

Young Woman Hires Detective to Get Something on Mother-in-Law in New Whodunit

Jim Dunn lifted his six-foot three-inch body from the office chair. His wide but sloping shoulders gave him a deceptive air of slenderness. He was deeply tanned, and his gray eyes were sparkling with an added touch of humor.

"I misunderstood," Jim said. "I thought I heard that Kit Carson was calling. I expected buckskins." His smile vanished slowly as his caller sat down, arranged herself comfortably and subjected him to a careful serious scrutiny.

"I believe you will be able to pass," the woman said. "And the name is Mrs. Carlson, not Carson."

"I see. And the passing you mentioned is, I hope, at least into the second grade?"

"Humor, I suppose," she said. "I have been told many times I have no sense of humor."

Jim decided she was actually serious. "Business then. What did you want to see me about?"

Allies Studying Ways to Speed U. N. Moves for Release of 13

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — The United States scheduled another conference with its 15 Korean War allies today to discuss how to push in the U. N. Assembly for release of U. S. airmen and other Allied personnel in Red China's hands.

The session was expected to decide the language of a resolution to be presented to the Assembly later this week, and whether the United States would sponsor it alone or be joined by its allies.

Later in the day the 15-nation Assembly Steering Committee, headed by Assembly President Eelco N. van Kleffens, was expected to vote overwhelmingly to add the prisoner question to the Assembly work program.

The Allies were prepared to withstand demands by Russia for Red China to be invited here for the debates and then vote for the Assembly to take up the question.

An Assembly session Thursday has already been planned. Over the weekend, a State Department statement indicated the United States is seeking U. N. action on the two American civilian employees of the Army whose sentences were announced along with the 11 airmen.

Mercury Dives; Winter Arrives in Earnest Here

Winter came to Michigan in earnest today and sent temperatures in the state dipping as low as 12 below zero, reported in Pellston. In addition, a freak 14-inch snowfall descended on Port Huron and six to eight inches blanketed the Thumb.

In Pontiac, the mercury dropped to 18 degrees early this morning to equal the record for the season set last Friday. Detroit got a half inch of snow last night, but only slight flurries were reported here.

Traverse City reported a low last night of zero, and Cadillac hit one above. Houghton's low was two degrees; Gladwin, 11; Grand Rapids and Battle Creek, 12; Sault Ste. Marie, 13; Lansing, Jackson and Flint, 14; Saginaw, 15, and Ypsilanti, 17.

Highways are reported slippery in the Thumb and in northern parts of the Lower Peninsula, as snow hit most of those areas.

The Pontiac area forecast is cold and fair tonight and tomorrow, with increasing cloudiness Wednesday. Tonight's low is expected to be near 15, with a high tomorrow between 25 and 29. Tuesday night's low will be 20-24.

Today at 8 a. m. the mercury in downtown Pontiac stood at 19 degrees, but rose to 25 by 1 p. m.

Two Cars Meet Headon Early Sunday Morning

Following Autos Pile Into Wreck; Victims Oxford Residents

By WILLIAM H. THOMAS

Death ended five lives early Sunday one mile north of Oxford on M24, when two cars crashed headon and three others slammed into the wreckage.

During the past 18 months 19 persons have lost their lives in traffic mishaps on this hill, according to Oakland County Sheriff's Deputy William Smith, causing the spot to be named "Slaughter Hill."

Dead are:

Harold Mangum, 21, of 49 Brabb Rd., Oxford.

Max Smith, 28, of 4 W. Burdick, Oxford.

Mrs. Edna Kuck, 31, of 30 Pleasant, Oxford.

Charles Nelson, 25, of 32 Cottage Ct., Oxford.

Lynn Best, 27, of 9 Station, Oxford.

All but Mangum were in a car driven by Mrs. Earline Wagenschutz, 19, of 75 W. High, Metamora.

Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies Smith and Stephen Hubbell believe that Mrs. Wagenschutz' car attempted to pass three others and ran into Mangum's northbound car as Mangum headed home. (Mangum's is north of the village.)

Cars driven by James Short, 26, of 25 Stanton, Oxford; Mrs. Lahoma Flynn, 26, of 531 Harrison, Rochester; and Robert D. Wilson, 33, of 1340 Lapeer Rd., Lake Orion, then piled into the first two cars. All but Mangum were southbound.

Mrs. Wagenschutz is in satisfactory condition today at Pontiac General Hospital with a fractured pelvis and severe scalp cuts. Wilson was treated for rib injuries and his wife, Opal, 29, is in satisfactory condition with face cuts. Short, also in satisfactory condition, has a possible concussion and Miss Francis Simpson, 19, of 14 Emsley, Oxford, has a broken arm and jaw.

Mrs. Flynn was not injured. Miss Simpson was the only one in Mrs. Wagenschutz' car to survive the crash besides the driver.

Defense Plant Probe Begun by McCarthy

WASHINGTON (UP) — Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, swinging to the offensive after his condemnation by the Senate, called his investigating subcommittee into action today to dig into alleged subversion in defense plants.

James N. Juliana, subcommittee staff director, announced McCarthy planned to preside at the initial closed hearing (2 p. m. EST) this afternoon despite a painful elbow which prevented him from filling a speaking date Saturday.

Several unidentified witnesses were summoned to testify and McCarthy warned that if any use of the Fifth Amendment to balk at questions on subversive activities he will expect them to be fired by security officers at the plants involved.

The investigation, the first McCarthy has undertaken since mid-August, is a follow-up to his charges early this year that 131 suspected subversives in defense plants "are holding a razor poised at the jugular vein of the nation."

Officials say the hill's crest is deceptive to motorists who are unable to see the decline of the hill, upon which is a "Pass With Care Sign."

After arriving at the top of the hill, the road appears to continue on a relatively level course. However, there is a sudden decline.

While authorities haven't positively established the cause of Sunday's accident, they believe that 1 of 4 cars traveling south attempted to pass the forward autos and met headon with a northbound car. The other three cars piled into the wreckage.

She hurried on to Oxford and notified Oxford Patrolman Russell Telford who sped to the scene.

Oxford firemen and Lake Orion Police were summoned to direct traffic and put out a fire that started in one of the cars.

Bodies and debris were scattered over a wide area on both sides of the road near a highway sign which ironically said, "Pass With Care."

Hundreds of people who visited the scene of the tragedy Sunday found oil and blood spots which silently pointed to positions of cars and victims.

Smith, a veteran, won five bronze stars for bravery in World War I and again in Korea where he collected three more bronze stars, and the United Nations Service ribbon. In Europe with the 90th Infantry Division from D-Day on, Smith also was awarded the purple Heart medal for battle wounds.

Commonwealth Foe

South Africa's New Chief Sees Independent Republic

By International News Service
Johannes Gerhardus Strijdom, new South African prime minister, wants a republic completely and finally divorced from the British Commonwealth.

He also is known as a fervent apostle of "white supremacy" in an explosive territory where the Europeans, or whites, are outnumbered four to one by Africans.

Former ostrich farmer Strijdom (also spelled Strydom and pronounced Strydom) is 61 years old, a stocky man with thinning dark brown curly hair who succeeded the retiring Nationalist party leader Dr. Daniel F. Malan.

Malan, a former Dutch Reformed Church clergyman, entered office in 1948 when his Isolationist party defeated the late Field Marshal Jan Christiaan Smuts and his united party. It had been Smuts who led his nation into World War II on the side of Britain.

Malan was bad from the British viewpoint, but Strijdom's succession to the prime ministership is worse because he represents the extremist wing of the Nationalist group.

In one of his first general-policy speeches Strijdom sought to "reassure" the "English-speaking citizens" in a country where he is the foremost representative of the Afrikaners, or Europeans.

of Boer stock. But the reassurance was somewhat slight.

He said those citizens would not have their language or other rights suppressed "either now — or later when South Africa shall become a republic."

He defined his policy as "one of equality between and fairness towards both sections of the European community," meaning those of British and Dutch stock, "as well as fairness towards the non-Europeans," meaning the natives, those of mixed blood, and Indians.

Strijdom won the prime ministership over Malan's choice which was finance minister Nicolaas C. Havenga. The latter, seeing the triumph of those devoted to Strijdom, said he would refuse office under the latter and would retire from politics.

Strijdom, known as "Hans" to his friends, is known outside Parliament as a quiet family man, who enjoys a drink or a game of billiards, and who is devoted to his attractive wife and two children.

But in politics he is known as a man who can whip up Afrikaner passions, who can still stir great emotions over the Boer War which occurred between the British and Dutch settlers at the turn of the century, who talks about British "concentration camps," opposed South African entry into the war against Hitler, and who demands that the union become a republic outside the British Commonwealth.

The newspaper Die Vaderland, belonging to Havenga, who lost out to Strijdom, paid tribute to the outgoing Malan and warned of "dangers of which the masses are not always aware."

The newspaper added: "A leader who takes fickle mass feeling as his guiding light will not be able to lead the people to the heights. History has taught that the masses who shout Hosanna today can just as readily be moved to erect gallows tomorrow."

Socialists Win Berlin Election

Promise to Govern City in Partnership With Christian Democrats

BERLIN — The anti-rearmament Socialists won a one-vote majority in West Berlin's parliament today but promised to govern the Soviet-encircled city in partnership with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Christian Democratic Union. Municipal spokesmen of the two leading parties warmly agreed they must establish a strong new democratic coalition here under the shadow of the Russian army, regardless of their partisan quarrels in West Germany over foreign policy.

The mammoth turnout of 1,554,766 voters for yesterday's election — 91.6 per cent of those eligible — gave the Socialists 64 seats, the Christian Democrats 44 and the Free Democrats 19. The lineup for the past four years had been 61 Socialists, 34 Christian Democrats and 32 Free Democrats.

Since the death last year of Socialist Mayor Ernst Reuter, Christian Democrat Walter Schreiber had headed a coalition administration from his party and the Free Democrats.

The Berliners stingingly repudiated the Communists and the Nazi-tainted German party. Both extremist parties failed to win a seat. The Reds received only 2.7 per cent of the total vote and the German party 4.8 per cent.

Bender's Margin Cut by Recount in Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The Ohio senatorial victory of Republican Rep. George H. Bender shrank to 2,918 votes in a recount, a compilation of unofficial figures by the secretary of state's office shows. Sen. Thomas A. Burke (D-Ohio), who petitioned for the recount, gained 3,123 votes in the second tally. The official canvass showed Bender won by 6,041 votes.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown planned a canvass of the election sometime this week.

Light Touch on Sledge Nets Thieves $75,000

CHICAGO — Burglars who deftly sledgehammered their way into the storage room of a swank Michigan Avenue women's store without disturbing the alarm system made off with furs valued at $75,000 yesterday morning.

Detective James Dwyer reported the loss figure on the 40 mink, sable and Persian lamb garments after conferring with officials of the Bonwit Teller store.

Velde to Wed Secretary

WASHINGTON — Chairman Harold H. Velde (R-Ill.) of the House Un-American Activities Committee will be married Wednesday to his former secretary, Mrs. Dolores Anderson. Velde's first wife died in 1932.

Claims Fees Invite Socialized Medicine

SALT LAKE CITY — Rep. Walter H. Judd (R-Minn.), a physician himself, says the country will turn to socialized medicine because of the high cost of private medical care, unless American medical associations "police" their member physicians better.

"If the doctors of the nation will cooperate by keeping fees down," he said, "socialized medicine will never be necessary. If they do not, the people will demand government-controlled medicine in an effort to gain more care for more people, even though such care would be mediocre."

YW to Hold 'Hanging of Greens'

The traditional "Hanging of the Greens" will be held Wednesday at the YWCA on Franklin boulevard at 7:30 p. m. Co-chairmen of the affair are Lucy Hayden and Mrs. Mabel Costello.

Everyone is invited to help trim the building, hang the garlands, place wreaths in windows and decorate the Christmas trees.

When the trimming is completed a ceremonial will be presented around the theme of "The Message of the Candle," as it is lighted around the world by people of various faiths.

In America many Christians place a lighted candle in the window on Christmas Eve in commemoration of an old European legend which tells of the return of the Christ Child to earth. Wherever a candle in the window lights His way, in that home there shall abide love, hope and cheer.

On Dec. 13 Luciadager is celebrated in the Scandinavian lands. The beautiful Lucia, born in Sicily, was supposed to have appeared after death, clothed in a long white Christmas, but do honor to God, festival of Hanukkah.

The festival combines the commemoration of the young Lucia who died a Christian martyr with ancient rites to Lucia, goddess of the harvest, light and life.

In many Scandinavian towns a Lucia Queen wearing a crown of candles goes through the streets while the villagers carol and distribute gifts to the poor and sick.

Around the world, for eight nights in December, Jewish families proclaim a happy Festival of Lights. They do not celebrate Christmas, but do honor to God, our common Father, through the festival of Hanukkah.

Coinciding with the date of the winter solstice in December, at sunset on each of eight nights, a new flame is kindled in the

This Madeleine Fauth dress forms the perfect background for opulent beads. Cut carefully as a diamond, it comes in yarn dyed black, navy or aqua taffeta.

Menorah, an eight-branch candelabra. This is done in honor of the rededication of the Jewish Temple in 164 B. C. It had been defiled by heathens, but after the recapture, its perpetual lamp was kept burning miraculously for eight days until a steady supply of undefiled oil was furnished.

In southeast Asia one of the several rice harvests falls near our Christmas season. Often an entire village joins in a secular festival centered around this major food staple. The celebration includes a special dance done at night to the glow of candlelight.

The performer, holding in each hand a saucer with a small candle melted into it, pantomimes the planting, growth and harvesting of the rice. She moves to the tune of rings on her index fingers tapping out the rhythm on the saucers.

In Mexico for nine nights before Christmas posada processions prevail. Posada means lodging in Spanish and represents the nine-day journey of Mary and Joseph from Nazareth to Bethlehem.

Candle bearers march through the streets of Mexico and statues of Joseph and Mary are carried on a small platform. For eight nights the procession is turned away but on the ninth night—Christmas Eve—they are invited to a central gathering place where a reverent ceremony is held.

Throughout the ceremonial the part of the Y-Teen will be depicted by Peggy McKinney, the Lucia Queen by Nancy Nicholson, Jewish girl Betsy Camps; Hindu girl, Norma Lee Braid and the Mexican girl by Pat Lawrence.

The scenes will be described by a voice choir composed of Miss Hayden, Mildred Burns, Mrs. Millard James, Daphne Langford, Mrs. Costello, Mrs. Bernard Jewell.

Later everyone will join in singing of carols led by Mrs. John Thors, Jr. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Robert Boatman, Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs. Charles Frick and Mrs. Fred Stimper.

Tickets and posters for a performance of The Vagabond King are of special interest to members of the Pontiac Civitan Club, which is sponsoring the event on Jan. 15. Making sure that things are off to a good start are (left to right) William Lane of West Walton boulevard, David Dunskey of North Saginaw street and Dr. S. J. Chafetz of South Genesee avenue.

Civitan Club to Sponsor Comedy

The Pontiac Civitan Club announced plans for a presentation of "The Vagabond King" when it met recently at Hotel Pontiac. It will be held Jan. 15, the first event of the new year. The musical comedy will be given by the Actor's Guild of New York City, sponsored by the local business men's luncheon club.

William Lane is chairman of the event and is being assisted with arrangements by David Dunskey, Howard Bond, Dr. Maurice Thome, Theodore Wiersma and John Wilson.

Proceeds from the annual affair will be used to improve the Camp Fire Girls' camp site near Clarkston. The Pontiac Civitan Club sponsors the local Camp Fire Girls. Tickets may be obtained from members of the club or at several local stores.

Wearing It Is Art

Lipstick Is Basic Cosmetic

Lipstick is the basic cosmetic. Practically no woman, eighth-grader to grandmother, goes without it. But because it is so very basic, many women think all they need to know about it is how to buy one.

Actually, lipstick can be used as offensively and wrongly as any more complex cosmetic. Lipstick on the teeth or tearup is as unpleasant as makeup on the collar. Lipstick that is greasy shows a lack of cosmetics-intelligence.

For what is lipstick, after all? It is something to give the lips a rich, warm color, to point up the redness here that contrasts with the skin there. It is not something that stands alone. Lipstick painted on the cheeks would be silly. Lipstick that overexaggerates the natural lips is just as silly.

First principle is practice in applying lipstick. Women who have trouble may want to try using a brush. Careful attention should be paid to emphasizing the lips' virties and hiding their faults. The inner part of the lips should not be neglected.

Then, it should be allowed to set for five minutes. Don't smoke, eat or fuss with it during this time. After setting, it should be carefully blotted with a clean tissue. Thorough blotting will take off the excess and help protect you from leaving calling cards on cups, silverware and babies.

Yule Message Heard by Wayside Gleaners

A reading was given by Mrs. Jack Stepleton and Dr. H. H. Savage gave a Christmas message for the Friday luncheon meeting of Wayside Gleaner of First Baptist Church. The meeting was held in the church's educational building.

A Christmas theme was carried out in the congregational singing of Christmas carols led by Elizabeth Barnett.

WCS Planning Special Program

Members of First Methodist Church's WCS are planning a special program for their Thursday meeting to be held at the church.

Music will be provided by the Boys Glee Club of Eastern Junior High School. "The Message of the Angels" will be presented by Mrs. Paul Havens who will show slides of Bethlehem as it is today. Mrs. Havens took the pictures last spring when she toured the Holy Land. An executive committee meeting at 11:15 will precede the program.

Stick to Soapsuds

If you have foam rubber upholstery, don't use cleaning fluid. It may deteriorate the rubber. Stick to soapsuds.

New Pillows Wash

Pillows that can be washed, cover, insides, and all, right in the machine, are good bets for college rooms and college girls with little time.

What Religion Means to Our Family

Faith Gives Local Family Feeling of Unity, Security

By LULA B. OGDEN

"Because of our religion we have a feeling that when one has family," the parents said. "We have feeling that when one has a problem or enterprise, it's a family project."

"Religion makes our aims high and we try to do our best in every endeavor. It gives us a feeling of unity and security."

"Security in the fact that in everything we undertake there is the Divine guidance of God behind us and leading us forward," the family indicated.

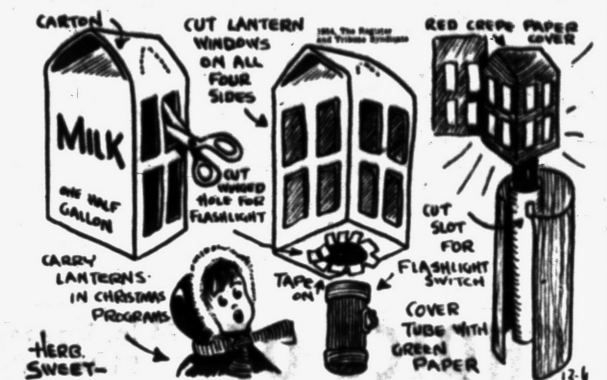

The children joined Trinity Baptist Church seven years ago and the parents in 1951.

The family has lived in Pontiac 17 years, coming here from Pine Bluff, Ark.

In the family group are William Jr., a sophomore at Wayne University, Louisa, a sophomore at Michigan State College, taking a nursing course and Charles who is a senior at Pontiac High School.

Mrs. Billings is director of religious education at the church, vice president of missionary work, teaches Sunday School class and directs the Daily Vacation Bible School. To which she adds, "That I like best."

Hunting and fishing are the hobbies of the family.

Try It Make Caroler's Lantern

Part of Christmas is making others happy, and I think that Carolers play an important part in doing this. If you do not belong to a singing group, ask some of your friends in the neighborhood to go caroling. Good voices are not important.

In some singing groups people look for wonderful voices, but anyone can sing Christmas songs. It is the spirit of singing at this time of the year that counts. You can make your group attractive and different if you make some of these lanterns for some of the singers to carry.

Some groups carry lighted candles, but these are dangerous, and these lanterns look good and are Christmasy too. Use quart or gallon size milk cartons and cut designs in them, then put colored tissue paper under the cutout parts. This can be pasted inside, working through the bottom. Stick your flashlight through this hole, too.

WCTU Units Meet

Calvary Evangelical Church was the setting for Thursday's meeting of Frances Willard and Anna Gordon units of WCTU. Gwendolyn Chapman, missionary to Bolivia, spoke on Holiday customs in that country.

Floats, Bands, Santa Claus Feature Yule Parade

LEBARON SCHOOL FLOAT—Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer was LeBaron School's subject for their Christmas Parade float. Thirty-seven floats were featured in the parade watched by an estimated

ALICE IN WONDERLAND—Oakland County Children's Home chose "Alice in Wonderland" as the theme for their float shown above as it moves down Saginaw street. Floats ranged from the Knights of Columbus depiction of a man kneeling before a cross to ornate "Santa's Workshop" and "Old Woman Who Lives in a Shoe" by Wever and Lincoln Junior High Schools.

LINCOLN SCHOOL ENTRY—The old woman who lived in a shoe and her many children are depicted here by Lincoln Junior High School students during Saturday's Christmas Parade. The parade, an annual event, was sponsored by the Pontiac Retail Merchants Assn.

CHURCH THEME—Depicting the real meaning of Christmas was Grace Lutheran Church's float showing an angel reading a Bible quotation.

HIGH STEPPERS—Six area high school bands took part in the big parade Saturday. One of them is shown above as they march past viewers on Saginaw street.

Yoshida Fighting Ouster Move

Japanese Leader Says He'll Call New Election If Rebuked by Diet

TOKYO (AP)—Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida, fighting back in the face of a no-confidence motion filed against him in the Diet, said tonight he will take his case to the people if the move succeeds.

The no-confidence motion was filed jointly in the Diet's lower house by Yoshida's three major opposition parties, the newly organized Democrats on the right and Japan's two Socialist parties on the left. The motion accuses Yoshida's 6-year-old regime of secret diplomacy, irresponsibility, scandal and violation of the constitution.

Russell County grand jury, may point today to the suspected killer, or killers, of anti-crime crusader Albert L. Patterson.

Who pulled the gun trigger which blasted two slugs into the mouth of the man who dared tell vice and racket-saturated Phenix City it would have to clean up?

Who pulled the strings which controlled the man behind the gun that felled the veteran attorney a few weeks after he was nominated to the highest law office in Alabama—that of attorney general?

Those questions, and many others may have been answered by the stream of 80 witnesses, guided by acting Attorney General Bernard Sykes, who have appeared before the "blue ribbon" grand jury the past week.

Patterson was shot to death the night of June 18. He toppled dead in an alley beside the building where his law office was located in Phenix City.

The specially impaneled grand jury had 10 witnesses to hear today to complete its picture of the last hours of Albert Patterson.

What is said behind the closed doors of the grand jury chamber is secret.

But from witnesses who have testified, and from hints dropped by investigators during the long probe, speculation was rife that prosecutors were asking for at least two indictments. This would mean investigators believe at least two persons and probably more, were involved, and that Patterson met his death as a result of a conspiracy.

The morning that they carried Patterson to an undertaker's parlor he was to have testified before a grand jury in Birmingham which was checking into charges of fraud in the May Democratic primary.

Did Patterson, who had probed the rackets privately for a long time, have information not available to that Birmingham jury from other sources? The jury subsequently returned indictments charging widespread fraud in the election.

Or, was there more than an attempt to steal an election—as the Birmingham grand jury charged—behind the action of the trigger-man who apparently lay in wait for Patterson to leave his office, knowing he must walk into the alley to get his car?

Maj. Gen. Walter Hanna, commander of Alabama National Guard troops which occupied Phenix City, estimated well organized, and protected vice and crime brought $100 million a year into underworld coffers.

The Phenix City underworld was disclosed to have been somewhat unique, however. If there was one syndicate—rather than a loose confederation—controlling operation of the gambling dens, the "B girls" and party girls, the less sophisticated mass-production brothels, it was local rather than national. The Phenix City underworld has been shown to have had a morbid fear of entanglement with federal law enforcement officers.

How high did the tentacles of crime reach in Phenix City, and the state of Alabama? From charges already filed, the evidence already uncovered election fraud is said to have touched, directly or by indirection, the state cabinet level.

U.S. Determined to Help Stop Disorders in Viet Nam

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Events have strengthened U. S. determination to help form a small but efficient national army which can maintain order in non-Communist South Viet Nam.

Last week's battle between a company of army troops and the police, virtually in the center of this capital, accentuated a worsening situation.

Five months after the end of the eight-year Indochina war these elements are implanted in the country, each a law unto itself:

1. The national army of some 200,000 troops.
2. The national surete, nominally responsible for law and order.
3. The Cao Dai army of about 20,000 men controlling two million

Vietnamese in an area west of Saigon.

4. The Hoa Hao religious arm of 15,000 which holds sway over a million persons southwest of Saigon.

5. The Binh Xuyen society, which controls the legal gambling dens and prostitution houses of Saigon and Cap St. Jacques on the coast.

The chief of the national surete is Lai Van Sang, one of the leaders of the Binh Xuyen.

Of these diverse groups the Cao Dai, a religion which claims to embody the best features of all the world's beliefs, is the most important. Excellently organized and well trained, its army rules much of Southern Viet Nam.

Because of the weakness of the national army the government is unable to control any of these groups or the populations under them. Although the Cao Dai and Hoa Hao are participating in the government, clashes in which lives are lost occur between them and the army at intervals.

The American aim, in cooperation with the French and the government of Premier Ngo Dinh Diem, is believed to be the formation of an army smaller than the one now on paper, making it one of quality rather than quantity. The United States is anxious that it be loyal to the Diem government.

Conversations aimed at getting American participation in training the army are making progress and a compromise plan is expected to be adopted soon.

The recent removal of the rebel house chief of staff Gen. Nguyen Van Huu, has cleared the way for the Premier to exert his influence not only on the army but in the country. Diem is listening to the army's problems, calling on it to help in the work of reconstruction and promising to take steps to alleviate economic and political troubles.

One of his biggest jobs will be to eliminate the influence of the Communists in regions they occupied for nearly eight years. To do so he will have to shake up local as well as district and county organizations, putting loyal nationalists into positions of authority in cooperation with the army.

By EDDIE CANTOR

The Victor Borge success story is an old one by now. But for those of you who came in late, let me tell you about this great Danish pianist-comic who left Denmark in a hurry when the country was invaded.

Victor was starring in a revue, but thought he'd better get out quickly because the Germans were well aware of the months he'd been ribbing their demands that little Denmark cease menacing the Reich.

He arrived in this country, met Rudy Vallee, who introduced him to Bing Crosby. Crosby enjoyed the Dane so much he put him on the air for 54 broadcasts. At first Victor had a tough time with his English. He actually learned it from watching our motion pictures.

In the early days, ordering a meal was one of his biggest problems. A fellow musician taught him to say, "apple pie and coffee." That is what he asked for in restaurants day in and day out. He had so much pie and so much coffee he actually splashed when he walked.

When he begged someone for other words that would vary his diet, he was given these two—"chicken sandwich"—and he memorized them. He was so happy with the thought of getting something new that he rushed to a restaurant and ordered "chicken sandwich." The waitress asked, "Do you want it on rye or white?" Borge thought a moment and said, "Apple pie and coffee."

He is now in his second season in a New York theater doing his one-man show. He is actually a long-hair musician who plays with a crew-cut sense of humor. In the middle of something by Chopin he's apt to turn around, wink at the audience, scratch his head and continue his playing until some other daffy thought hits him.

Once in a while during a nightclub engagement, he'll run into a heckler—someone who is out to have a good time at the performer's expense. One night at the "Coconut Grove" in Los Angeles he squelched one individual with this line: "Mister, I have to be here—but you—?"

Today Victor Borge is setting on top of the show business world. Doing a one-man show, he has no company to worry about, no temperamental leading lady to whom he must cater, no costumes, no scenery—just the piano to keep in tune. He has a home in Connecticut, a wife and children, whom he adores, and neighbors who are happy to point out, "Victor Borge lives in that house."

When he lived near Hollywood, he had a ranch of 18 acres in the San Fernando Valley, but spent little time in the film capital itself. "Hollywood is a funny place," Victor once remarked. "There the brides throw away the grooms and keep the bouquets."

Walled Lake Residents to Ballot Tomorrow on Charter

13 Seek Posts on City Council

Incorporation Process Nears Completion for Growing Area

WALLED LAKE — Residents will go to the polls tomorrow to ballot on a city charter, which, if approved, would almost complete the process of incorporation for their area.

Residents approved incorporation last June and elected an 11 member commission to draw up the charter.

If the charter is approved tomorrow, at the same time seven councilmen and a justice of the peace will be elected.

Thirteen residents have turned in petitions for the positions, with the seven with the highest number of votes being elected.

Seeking election are Chester Budd, Charles Fisher, Gerald Hazen, Mrs. Eve Kopietz, David Martens, Dan McVety, and Clements Phillips.

Others Charles Riffenburg, Lewis Rourke, Norman H. Smith, Marshall E. Taylor, Harry W. Thomas, and Joseph Wiltse.

Competing for the single post of justice of the peace are George E. Feldman, Sr., and Charles S. Rose.

The area to be incorporated, along with Walled Lake, includes three square miles of Commerce Township bounded by Commerce, Decker, and 14 Mile roads, and a line slightly beyond Ladd road to the West.

A census at the time of the June votes showed 2,569 residents in the area.

The final step in the incorporation will be in the hands of Gov. G. Mennen Williams, if the voters approve the charter. He must approve it.

Rochester Kiwanis to Install Officers

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Kiwanis Club will hold installation of officers at 6:30 p. m. today at the Bebout's Restaurant.

Denton Hassel, of Ferndale, state lieutenant-governor elect, will assist in the ceremonies, along with Mason A. Case, the district lieutenant-governor.

OAKLAND MARKET OPENS—Going over the schedule of the day's events for the opening of the new Oakland County farmers' market Saturday are county supervisors Norman R. Barnard, chairman of the county market committee, Floyd Andrews, head of the Board of Supervisors, and E. Emmett DeConick, West Bloomfield Township farmer and head of the Producers Committee. Both farmers and county officials expressed themselves as optimistic of the success of the market, located on Pontiac Lake road between Telegraph and M-59. A steady stream of customers visited the market Saturday morning, and farmers supplies were, in most cases, sold out by the 1 p. m. closing time. The market will be open from 7 a. m. to 1 p. m. Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Dear Friends:

The cost of Brace-Smith Service is determined entirely by the furnishings the patron chooses—never by the personal service and attention he receives.

If his taste and means dictate the choice of an inexpensive casket and a minimum of other material, the cost will be quite low, but the amount of personal attention he receives will not be curtailed.

Sincerely,

Grains Absorb Sales Pressure

CHICAGO, Dec. 6 (AP)—Grains absorbed quite a bit of selling pressure without conceding too much in the way of price losses on the Board of Trade today.

In quite active dealings declines limited mostly to fractions were recorded throughout the list. There was a little initial strength in a couple of wheat futures but this quickly faded when it became apparent the general market wasn't going to advance.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was unchanged to 1/2 cent lower, December $2.25 1/2; corn unchanged to 1/2 cent lower, December $1.56 1/2; oats 1/2 to 1/4 cent lower, December $1.19 1/2; soybeans 1/4 to 1/2 cent lower, January $2.80 1/2; and lard 5 to 25 cents a hundred pounds higher, December $14.50.

Buffalo Shoot Slated at Park in Canada

OTTAWA, Ont. (AP)—About 500 buffaloes in the world's largest herd are being slaughtered, and there'll be buffalo roasts on some Canadian tables this Christmas.

Christmas Prize Stolen

GRAND RAPIDS (UP)—Burglars who broke into the old Kent VFW post got $140 in loot, including a mounted $100 bill hanging on the wall to advertise a Christmas charity party. The $100 was to be first prize at the party.

The herd numbers 12,000 to 15,000. It is at Wood Buffalo National Park, straddling the border between Alberta and the Northwest Territories. It is reduced every year by riflemen to keep it down to a size the range can support.

The meat will go to Indians in need of fresh meat, to church missions and Hudson's Bay Co. stores in the far north. And, for the first time, about half will go to pack-houses for sale outside the territories.

San Marino, an independent nation of 23 square miles near the Adriatic coast of Italy is Europe's oldest state, says the National Geographic Society.

Echo Equipment Draws Picture of Sea Monster

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP)—The crew of the trawler Rival claimed today they have proved the existence of the legendary Loch Ness monster—or something about as weird—with their echo-sounding equipment.

Their "monster," they reported, is 50 feet long and has approximately eight legs and the silhouette of a gigantic scorpion.

The echo sounder charts underwater depths and schools of fish by recording the time a sound takes to echo back to the device. Peter Anderson of the Rival's crew reported the mystery object was located at a depth of 540 feet, 180 feet above the bed of the Scottish lake where the monster is reported seen very so often.

The graph showed a small-headed thing with an ungainly body and a tail about 18 feet long.

L. A. Southport, technical expert of the firm which makes the echo-sounding equipment, said the echo graph "was definitely animal matter of some kind" and "certainly was not a whale or like any other kind of fish that has ever been heard of."

MGM Disputes Ownership of 'Rainmakers'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Buying the Broadway play "The Rainmaker" isn't as easy for Hal Wallis as just plunking down $350,000.

MGM will fight Wallis by saying that they had asked for a bid on "The Rainmaker" and had never received one. Said one of the top MGM executives, "According to the new code of the Motion Picture Producers Association, a play must be in the open market for bids before it's sold."

While MGM is questioning Hal's ownership of "The Rainmaker," he is doing a little squawking on his own about "Solid gold Cadillac," which Harry Cohn bought for Judy Holliday. He says he was still negotiating to buy it for Shirley Booth when Harry Cohn offered $10,000 more and Hal never had a chance to meet Cohn's price.

The very suave George Sanders has been missing from the movies and his usual haunts since he and Zsa Zsa Gabor were so much publicized.

Now I hear that George, who as King Charles II of England stole "Forever Amber" from the other actors, is doing a repeat performance of the same character in the title role of "The King's Thief" at MGM.

The part practically calls for a mere guest appearance, but George is eager to do it because the Charles II character is his favorite. The leads in the picture are Ann Blythe and Edmund Purdom.

Sydney Chaplin, the son of Lita Gray Chaplin and Charles Chaplin, who has been in Europe with his father for some months, is expected to marry before the first of the year.

The lady is Kay Leonard, the actress whose performance in "Genevieve" was unforgettable. Syd is so much in love that he flew from Rome to London to join her. Both of them tell the world they are in love and that they'll marry as soon as it can be arranged. He was once in love with Clare Bloom, British actress.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Errol Flynn has at long last sent Nora Haynes that check for child support. "It's just about two years overdue," said Nora who was at the Encore, "but better late than never."

Susan Zanic cabled her parents that she and her bridegroom, Andre Hakim, will be here Dec. 17 to spend Christmas.

Walter Wanger, who is making "Mother, Sir" with Joan Bennett at Allied Artists, has been offered $50,000 for the property.

Marilyn Monroe and Jacques Sernas were making the evening happy for Sammy Davis Jr. and his mother at the Mocambo and the Crescendo. All of Sammy's friends are rallying around him. Vic Mature and Dorothy did not look at each other when they met in court. Vic agreed to pay $1,200 a month plus $600 for expenses, as a predivorce settlement.

Delicate Operation Televised to Doctors

NEW YORK (AP)—A film of a delicate medical operation was shown to a nationwide television audience last night, with a group of skilled surgeons performing an arterial transplant through a new surgical technique.

The patient, George Chisum, 43-year-old worker of Orange, Tex., was placed in a "deep freeze." Then, a section of his aorta (heart artery) was cut out and replaced by a nondiseased artery taken from a donor who had died a few hours before the operation took place.

The actual operation took place some days ago in Methodist Hospital in Houston, Tex.

Sweet-Toothed Thief

DENVER (AP)—A Denver grade school was entered yesterday and offices and rooms ransacked. But the only loot was candy placed in Christmas stockings, hung on classroom bulletin boards after school hours last Friday.
