Birmingham Girl Reigns at 4-H Fair

Slated for Wilson's Job

McElroy Chosen Head of Defense

WASHINGTON (INS) — President Eisenhower indicated today that he expects to name soap manufacturer Neil H. McElroy defense secretary as soon as the necessary security checks are completed.

Eisenhower told his news conference that he has been earnestly considering the president of Procter and Gamble Co. as the successor to Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson, who has been anxious to resign.

The President lauded McElroy as one of the most capable and highest type men in the country.

He pointed out, however, that such an appointment requires a lengthy investigation and said he could not predict the outcome yet.

Eisenhower promised that the appointment would be announced as soon as possible.

He noted that Wilson let him know a long time ago that he wanted to leave before the defense department is well into the new fiscal year.

See Building Spur in New FHA Terms

Lower FHA down-payments and an accompanying higher interest rate were hailed in the Pontiac area today as a stimulus to home building—particularly in the lower income brackets.

But the new, liberalized terms announced yesterday will not make the purchase of more expensive homes any easier, a group of area builders believed.

The Federal Administration has slashed minimum down payments for FHA-insured homes almost in half, while boosting the interest rate on FHA loans from 5 to 5¼ per cent.

Although the higher rate was criticized in some Washington circles, builders in the Pontiac area believed it would loosen up more capital for low-price home mortgages.

Some builders thought that relaxing of other FHA controls — those concerning a prospective buyer's financial qualifications — would do more to spur home buying among lower and middle income families.

NEW SCHEDULE

Under the new regulations the down-payment schedule is 3 per cent of the first $10,000 of the mortgage; 15 per cent of the next $6,000 and 30 per cent on anything over that up to a limit of $20,000.

The old requirement was 5 per cent on the first $9,000 and 25 per cent on anything above that up to a ceiling of $20,000.

The change means that a $10,000 home may now be purchased under the Federal Housing Administration program for a down payment of $300 compared with the old figure of $700.

Five area builders reacted to the new terms with varying degrees of enthusiasm.

Bruce W. Kinzler, 3381 Devon Brook Dr., Bloomfield Township, said they were "very encouraging," particularly the higher interest rate.

SEES MORE BUSINESS

"Although it means that the home purchaser will have to pay more, it will loosen up the market which is very bad right now, since the former FHA rate of interest was too low to interest mortgage companies."

Kinzler, who sees at least "a little spurt" in home building as the result of the FHA changes, hoped that the interest rate on FHA loans would continue to be upped as far as 5½ per cent, or around the maximum charged by banks on conventional home mortgages.

"The problem faced by the average home buyer is not so much having money for a down payment on an FHA home," he observed, "as in interesting mortgage companies in making a loan at a lower

'Mamie Is Fine' After Surgery —Dr. Snyder

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower continues in "fine" condition following surgery yesterday, her physician reported today.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, relayed the following statement from Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, the presidential physician:

"Mrs. Eisenhower's postoperative condition continues to be fine. She slept with but few interruptions throughout the night."

The President's wife underwent a two-hour operation, performed by an Army gynecologist, yesterday at Walter Reed Army Hospital.

Later in the day, as she rested in the three-room hospital suite her husband occupied 14 months ago,

Hagerty indicated Mrs. Eisenhower will leave the hospital in ample time to accompany the President on a planned vacation in Newport, R. I., later this month.

MMPA Adopts Wait-See Policy

Dairy Farmers Hold Off Strike Decision Pending Meeting of Officers

SOUTH LYON (AP) — Rolland Brengle, president of the Fair Share Bargaining Assn. for Michigan Dairy Farmers Inc., reported today his group has adopted a "wait and see policy" on any milk strike proposals.

Brengle said the Fair Share Executive Committee, meeting here last night, voted to recommend such a policy pending a special meeting of all local officers later this week.

The Fair Sharers, formed by insurgent members of the Michigan Milk Producers Assn., staged a milk strike in southeastern Michigan in the spring of 1956.

The eight-day strike was called off after court orders restricted mass picketing and interference with milk trucks. But the Fair Sharers claimed a partial victory, saying the strike resulted in new contract negotiations and an increase in the price of milk.

In a statement today, the fair share group commented on plans of a rival insurgent group, the Dairy Farmers Cooperative Assn. of Michigan (DFC) to call a milk strike in Michigan Aug. 14.

Herbert Varney, field man for the MMPA, said in Saginaw today, that Saginaw milk dealers have agreed to raise the price of milk to farmers but have not determined on the amount of the increase or the effective date.

'Firm Deducted Union Dues, Kept $23,000'

Roto - Broil Executive Testifies in U.S. Probe of Dio-Run Local

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Rackets Investigating Committee developed testimony today that a union linked to racketeer Johnny Dio allowed the Roto-Broil Corp. of America to retain some $23,000 of union dues checked off from employes' wages.

Irving Jacobsen, executive vice president of the company, testified the money was held back because of "financial difficulties."

He said other obligations of the company have prior claim in a reorganization the New York firm now is going through.

Jacobsen said the dues money was deducted from employes' pay but never sent to the union, Local 355 of the former AFL United Auto Workers, now Allied Industrial Workers.

The local is one of those said by the Senate committee to be controlled by racketeer Dio, due for testimony before the committee tomorrow.

Dio has been in jail in New York awaiting sentence after conviction of extortion.

One official of Local 355 is Bernard Tolkow. He was scheduled for testimony.

Harold Krieger, former municipal judge and assistant corporation counsel of Jersey City, testified yesterday he helped get a charter of Local 355 from Dio in 1953, when it organized some of the Roto-Broil firm's employes.

Committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy suggested that Abner Longie Zwillman, Jersey racketeer, had an interest in Roto-Broil.

Jacobsen came to the witness chair after the senators had bumped into a series of Fifth Amendment pleas in their efforts to get testimony about Dio from labor union officials.

The silence of the union men brought a call by committee members for tough new laws to help union members cast off the yoke of racketeer leadership.

NAMED AT FAIR — Sharon Brodie (left), 15, of Birmingham, receives a bouquet of red and white roses from Judy Crawford, of Milford, after Sharon was selected the 1957 4-H County Fair Queen last night. Miss Crawford, the 1956 winner of the title, also presented the new queen the traveling gold cup she has had the past year.

15-Year-Old Beauty to Lead Parade of County Clubs Tonight

By SYLVIA de STEIGER

Blue eyes, brown hair, dimples and a country-fresh smile captured the votes of three judges last night when they chose the 1957 Oakland County 4-H Club Fair Queen.

Picked as tops from 16 entries was Sharon Brodie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brodie, 275 Harrow Circle, Birmingham.

More than 2,250 persons attended the opening of the five-day fair yesterday. Ninety-seven of the county 4-H Club members who have entered the fair are living on the fairgrounds at N. Perry St. and Walton Blvd. throughout the week.

Among her official duties as ruler of the fair throughout the week, Miss Brodie will lead the parade of clubs tonight at 7:30. Fifteen of the 63 4-H county clubs are scheduled to compete in the float contest.

The queen is a 15-year-old Birmingham High School student who has been active in the Bloomfield 4-H Club for, as she reports, "6 calendar and 12 project years."

Miss Brodie hasn't decided her future. It's a choice between being a mathematics or home economics teacher. One thing's for sure, she definitely knows she likes horses, photography, psychology and boys.

NOT AN EASY JOB

Eliminating was difficult so they named four girls to be members of the queen's court instead of the scheduled two. They are Janet Long, 2875 Sleeth Rd., Milford; Judy Martin, 1648 Lombardy Rd., Milford; Beverly Sanders, 1625 W. Hamlin Rd., Rochester, and Grace Williamson, 3590 Pontiac Lake Rd., Pontiac.

Miss Brodie has accepted an invitation from Hirlinger to ride in the 1957 Christmas Parade sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

One girl and one boy were named winners of the public-speaking contest preceding the queen contest. They are Gloria Sanders, 16, of 1625 W. Hamlin Rd., Rochester, who spoke on

Begin Incorporation Move for Waterford Township

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
Of Our Waterford Bureau

Fifty petitions are being circulated in Waterford Township today for incorporation of the township to city form of government.

At a special meeting at the township hall last night, residents and sponsors of the project, the Study Committee on Incorporation, decided to begin immediately to work for incorporation.

Attorney and chairman of the group, David Hertler, 4146 Airport Rd., explained the advantages and disadvantages of home rule type government. He said steps must be taken soon to meet the needs of a rapidly growing township.

The study group has been accumulating information on incorporation proceedings for the past two years and believe it is the time for action, Hertler said.

The township type of government was originally established by the state for rural communities of the 5,000 population bracket.

90,000 BY 1970

If the growth pattern continues in Waterford Township, the Detroit Metropolitan Regional Planning Commission estimates the population will be close to 90,000 by 1970.

Superintendent of Schools William Shunck gave an explanatory talk, saying that with the rapid growth in the township, there would be a fragmentation of the township, with various settlements incorporating into individual towns and villages throughout the township's 31 square miles.

Only one per cent of signatures of qualified electors of the last census taken in 1950 (240 persons) is necessary. They will be filed with the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

However, Hertler said, "We expect to have the petitions all filled." There is room for 1400 signatures.

After that it will be up to the residents to vote for or against incorporation proceedings at either a special election or at a general election.

"There is the possibility of a special election," Hertler said. The petitioning body stands the expense of the election with a cash bond, he added.

THIRD LARGEST IN COUNTY

In the event that Waterford Township would become the city of Waterford it would be the third largest city in Oakland County behind Pontiac and Royal Oak.

According to records in the township hall, Waterford Township population has increased some 18,000 to 42,000 people since the 1950 census.

Prominent Flint Merchant Kills Wife, Tries Suicide

FLINT (AP) — James H. Fisher, 42, a prominent Flint businessman, shot and killed his wife, Maxine June, and critically wounded himself with a deer rifle at their home here early today, police reported.

Detective Lt. Ray Weatherwax quoted Fisher as saying he shot his wife because he thought she had been "running around" and that he was sorry he had not killed himself.

Fisher was listed in a critical condition at St. Joseph Hospital but police said he was expected to recover from bullet wounds in the left side and left arm.

Police were summoned to the Fisher home at 4:20 a.m. by a son, 15-year-old Mervau Dean Fisher.

Mrs. Fisher had been shot in the back. She was lying on a twin bed. Her husband was lying on the other bed.

Lt. Weatherwax quoted the son as giving his account of the shooting:

The couple had been arguing during the night. The boy and his sister, Ramona, 18, were awakened by the quarrel and went downstairs. They heard a shot. Then their father called them to come upstairs. He showed them their mother, partly clad, lying on the bed.

The boy and girl fled downstairs. They heard two more shots. The boy called police.

The Fishers own and operate the La Salle Garment Cleaners firm in Flint.

Fisher has been active in service organizations in the Flint area. He was former president of the Boysfarm Committee of Management. Boysfarm, near Flint, is a home for underprivileged boys.

Fisher was cited for his work in the Flint youth bureau and at Boysfarm.

Fisher also was active in the Old Newsboys organization. He was former president of the Flint Optimist Club and was active in the YMCA. He was active in Red Feather, Community Chest, work in the Flint area. He served as a Marine in World War II.

Detective Weatherwax said the Fishers had conferred yesterday with an attorney. He indicated they discussed a divorce.

Fisher had attempted suicide a few weeks ago by slashing his wrists, according to police records, and had to be treated at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Warmer Weather Predicted Thursday

Thursday will be sunny and warmer with the high temperature reaching around 84-88 degrees. During the next few days temperatures will average about three or four degrees above the normal of 82.

There is a chance of showers Friday and more general showers Sunday night or Monday. Precipitation will total about one-fourth inch.

The lowest temperature reading in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 59 degrees. The mercury rose to 83 at 2 p.m.

Puts 75 Out of Work

Million Dollar Fire Razes Allied Plant at Northville

NORTHVILLE (INS)—Some 75 employes of the Allied Products Corporation Plant in Northville were out of work today after a million dollar fire turned the plant into a pile of charred rubble.

Firemen from Northville, Plymouth and Novi battled the spectacular blaze for three hours yesterday afternoon after a furnace explosion set it off.

Witnesses said employes dashed to safety as the rapidly spreading flames engulfed the plant. They left thousands of dollars worth of personal belongings behind.

Employes face layoffs of six months to a year, if the company decides to rebuild the plant. Allied was Northville's second largest industry.

Almost half the employes live in the suburb. The remainder are from Detroit, Walled Lake, Plymouth, Garden City and Northville Township.

Aubrey French, 32, father of five from Northville, is a plant committeeman for the United Auto Workers Local 163. He said:

"I don't think the company will be able to employ us in any of its other 10 plants because of union contracts.

"The firm has agreed to keep on several of the older employes as watchmen, but this appears to be temporary. I'm afraid all of us will have to go out and find jobs elsewhere until the plant can be rebuilt."

The company has not announced if it will be rebuilt.

Bank Merger Likely by Oct. 1

Orion Stockholders to Vote Sept. 17 on Joining Community National

A merger between the Orion State Bank of Lake Orion and the Community National Bank may become a reality by Oct. 1.

"Now it's up to the stockholders," said Oran C. Thomas, president of the Orion bank, yesterday at the bank's board of directors meeting.

The board officially decided on Sept. 17 as the date for a stockholders' meeting. If the stockholders approve the merger by at least a two-thirds vote, then it will become definite.

The Community National Bank held its board meeting Monday and has already scheduled its Sept. 17 meeting. There are no personnel changes under consideration, and if the merger is approved, the present Orion bank building will still be used.

"However," Thomas added, "we would become the Lake Orion offices of the Community National Bank."

EXPANDING COMMUNITY

Thomas went on to explain why the merger had been planned. "We have been considering the move for about three months. It will enable us to successfully cope with the rapidly expanding Lake Orion community," he said.

"Our problem stems from the fact that there is not enough money in the community to satisfy increasing loan demands," he explained.

According to Thomas, the merger would give them a $100,000,000 backing while the Orion bank is now backed by only $5,000,000. The move has been officially approved by the federal comptroller of currency.

But Must Refund $4 Million

Consolidated Gas Co. Gets OK on 80,000 Unit Starts

LANSING (AP) — Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. had the green light today to add 80,000 space heating customers to its rolls.

At the same time, the utility was under order to pay refunds to customers it served in 1952-54 estimated at $8 to $10 for the average space heating customer and less than $2 per ordinary household gas user. The total amount was $4,041,737.

The refund order and the authorization to take on new home heating business both were issued yesterday by the State Public Service Commission.

The commission said that about 900,000 refund checks would have to be issued under its instructions, about three-fourths of them to Michigan Consolidated patrons in the Detroit area.

Besides Detroit, other principal cities served by Michigan Consolidated include Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Ludington, Belding, Greenville, Cadillac, Ann Arbor, Traverse City and Mt. Pleasant.

The company testified at Public Service Commission hearings that it foresaw a large enough bulk gas supply to serve the requested additional space heating customers.

The extra demand could be met, company witnesses testified, regardless of whether Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Co. succeeded in an attempt to cut off bulk deliveries to Michigan Consolidated.

Panhandle wants to sell the gas freed by dropping Michigan Consolidated to other distributing utilities in Michigan and in neighboring states.

The refund order had its origin in an increase in rates put into effect by Panhandle in February 1952. Michigan Consolidated in turn boosted its charges for retail gas sales.

Later, the Federal Power Commission rescinded the rate increase by Panhandle, and ordered rebate of revenues derived from it.

interest rate than they could get elsewhere."

Another builder, Ward W. Ross of 1941 S. Telegraph Rd., said the new terms "sound awfully good," and thought they would be especially beneficial in the lower-price field.

He predicted, however, that prospective buyers would still have as much trouble as ever qualifying for loans, since monthly payments are bound to go up as a result of the reduced down payment.

"It has been fairly difficult before to qualify for loans in the past," he said. "I don't think that a difference of only $400 in the down payment for a low-price home is going to make it too much easier, since the real stumbling block is being able to show that you can meet monthly payments."

A builder of higher priced homes felt the new FHA terms would have "a very large effect" on project builders, but little if any effect on custom-built homes.

Ward Cummings, of 97 Preston St., observed that most purchasers of higher priced homes finance through banks or savings and loan companies, which generally charge a higher, and therefore more profitable, interest rate than allowed under FHA terms.

DOUBTS WISDOM

This belief was shared by another custom home builder, F. W. Heltman, of 3955 Cranbrook Lane, Bloomfield Hills, who questioned the wisdom of lowering the down payment.

"While it certainly is a good thing for as many people as possible to own homes," he said, "I wonder if the buyer, for whom the lower down payment means the difference between financing and not financing a home, really can afford to pay for a new home over a 20 or 30 year span."

Heltman also saw more capital flowing into the low-price home field as a result of the hiked interest rate on FHA loans.

Although the FHA terms will cover up to a $20,000 home, they probably will be of "little use" to the purchaser of an $18,000 - $19,000 home, according to Edward A. Beaupre of 3060 S. Commerce Rd., Walled Lake.

The down payment on homes in this bracket is almost the same as that required under conventional mortgages, he pointed out.

Beaupre believed the new FHA terms would be "a great help" for purchasers of homes up to $12,000 in price.

'PROBLEM REMAINS'

But in the middle income brackets, he said, the problem of qualifying financially for a loan still remains the big problem.

In Washington, several Congressmen questioned whether the FHA interest rate has been raised too high.

There was talk that the higher rates would defeat the purpose of FHA and that they would contribute to the whole pattern of increasing costs and increasing inflation.

A move to set 5¼ per cent as the peak for interest rates on FHA loans was under way.

Deadline Tomorrow for Tax Payments

Tomorrow is the deadline for payment of 1957 city and school taxes.

City Treasurer Walter Giddings reminded all taxpayers today that after tomorrow a collection fee of one per cent will be assessed on all late payments.

On the first of each month, thereafter, an additonal one per cent fee will be charged for delinquent payments.

after, an additional one per cent fee fee will be charged for delinquent payments.

City Takes Up County Housing

To Insist That Oakland Eliminate 'Substandard' Welfare Shelters

The City Commission moved last night to force Oakland County to eliminate so-called "substandard" housing for welfare families in the city's northwest area.

City Manager Walter K. Willman was directed to take whatever steps possible to correct health code violations of county-owned buildings on Stanley avenue and Kennett road and of "any other publicly owned buildings within the city."

Commissioner Floyd P. Miles, in whose district the county-owned buildings are located, called them "shacks that should be vacated and demolished. The county should house the welfare families in something adequate," he said.

The action came after City Attorney William A. Ewart declared that "no one has a right to violate the health code, not even the county."

The buildings in question are 30 housing units which were brought to Pontiac from the old CCC camp at Crescent Lake about 12 years ago.

In recent controversy over the homes, John A. MacDonald, chairman of the county's Social Welfare Board, agreed they are "substandard" and should be torn down.

NO OTHER PLACE

But he maintained there was no other place to move the welfare families and pointed out that renovating the old homes would be a waste of money.

Miles said he "sympathized" with the county's problem, but stated that "it shouldn't be dumped in Pontiac's lap."

The Northwest Side commissioner said he had been disturbed by recent newspaper publicity concerning the buildings.

The homes have no sewer facilities so residents must use outhouses, he stated. Families with up to 10 children are crowded into small delapidated areas. Water, although piped to the area, must be obtained from outside taps shared by several families, Miles noted.

Commissioners agreed that Pontiac representatives on the County Board of Supervisors should take the matter up at the board's next meeting Aug. 12.

NOT ANY SOLUTION

Miles demanded that the houses be torn down, stating that furnishing water and sewer facilities to each unit would not solve the basic problem.

Commissioners John C. Dugan and Dr. Roy V. Cooley objected to furnishing water and sewers to the area, since these facilities are also needed in more populous areas of the city.

Dr. Cooley maintained the city should take steps towards eliminating substandard housing in all parts of the city, whether publicly or privately owned.

Sylvan Water Threat to City?

Willman Says Pollution Could Force Building of Sewage Plant

The reported pollution of Sylvan Lake may have an adverse effect on Pontiac and force the construction of expensive sewage treatment facilities, City Manager Walter K. Willman said last night.

Willman said the State Water Resources Board is about to sample the Clinton River in Pontiac in regard to construction of a new sewage treatment plant.

"If Sylvan Lake is polluted, and the pollution is flowing into the Clinton, the state may demand sooner than expected that the city build a new sewage plant," Willman pointed out.

The City Commission ordered Willman to study the Sylvan Lake situation and take any steps possible to prevent pollution of the Clinton.

Willman, who believed that Waterford Township is primarily to blame for any pollution of the lake, said he would discuss the question with the township's supervisor, Elmer Johnson, at a meeting today.

'BECOMING CESSPOOL'

A Pontiac realtor, who lives on the lake in Waterford Township, stated in a letter read to the commission last night that "Sylvan Lake is rapidly becoming a cesspool because of sewage coming from surrounding communities."

Bruce J. Annett, 2799 Sylvan Shores Dr. pleaded for a joint effort to save "one of Oakland County's most beautiful lakes."

Copies of Annett's letter also went to the county and to Waterford Township, Sylvan Lake and West Bloomfield Township.

House Doesn't Like Design

Air Force Chapel Blocked

WASHINGTON (AP)—For the second time in two years, the House has blocked plans to build a modernistic chapel at the new Air Force Academy.

Subject to a roll call vote today, the House decided 102-53 yesterday to forbid use of funds in a money bill to build the chapel as it is now designed.

Widespread protest in 1955 against the original design of the chapel caused the Air Force to abandon those plans and to await further action by Congress before building the chapel at its academy at Colorado Springs, Colo. For a time, the entire academy project was threatened then.

The Air Force came back this year with new plans and a request for three million dollars to start the project, but the House said no.

On the House floor yesterday, one critic called the new chapel plan a monstrosity. A supporter conceded it is "a bit futuristic."

The money was included in a supplemental money bill carrying $1,581,590,587 for miscellaneous programs, mainly military construction. President Eisenhower had asked $1,860,748,967.

Outside of the chapel funds vote, the House made no changes in the bill, which includes:

For military construction, $1,521,500,000, compared with an administration request for $1,764,500,000; 12½ million dollars for a new Washington airport near Burke, Va., for which 35 millions had been asked; 15 millions for disaster relief; $13,317,000 for the Tennessee Valley Authority, a cut of $1,456,000; and $2,200,000 for a U. S. exhibit at Moscow next year, the full amount asked.

The amendment to knock out the chapel construction money was offered by Rep. Scrivner (R-Kan), who said the Appropriations Committee saw a model of the proposed chapel.

"I am not opposed to chapels as such, but this is not a chapel," he said.

He described it as being a "cathedral of polished aluminum" with 19 aluminum spires.

"In a place like the Rocky Mountains, the engineers and planners could have come up with a place of worship more in harmony with the surroundings," he added.

Advice on Counteracting Toxins

Poison Center Operating in City

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

"Mommy, Bobbie just drank a bottle of shoe polish!"

Has this kind of frantic cry rocked your home and you stood frozen not knowing what to do first?

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital has come up with an answer to alleviate fears of parents when junior swallows something which might contain poison. A Poison Control Center, the first in Oakland County, and only the fourth in the state, is now in operation.

A quick call to the center, explaining what the child has swallowed, will bring immediate advice from doctors on what to do.

"With this center we hope to save many, many lives," said Dr. Robert J. Mason, assistant chief of pediatrics at the hospital, and founder of the center here.

He emphasized that the center will not be restricted to items taken by children.

ELDERS EXPOSE THEMSELVES

"Elders working with fertilizers, sprays, workshop materials often expose themselves to harmful effects of poisonous substances," Dr. Mason explained.

The center will contain chiefly a card index of 10,000 products found in the average home. On each card will be a complete listing of the toxic and non-toxic components of the product.

"There will be a second file, a treatment file, for each toxic explaining what action should be taken immediately," the doctor said.

"From this file we can tell the caller whether the child either should be rushed to the hospital or kept at home and the family doctor summoned," he added.

"It will also show what antidotes should be administered immediately."

23 CENTERS IN U.S.

There are 23 poison centers in the United States based on an idea of Dr. Edward Press, safety council director for the American Public Health Assn.

Dr. Mason, who will direct the local center, said there are 15,000 accidental poisoning deaths each year in the nation.

He said the center will be very beneficial to this area because there are always a number of poisoning cases in industrial plants.

The center will not be limited to toxic substances that might be taken internally, Dr. Mason said. "We'll know what to tell the person that happens to stroll barefoot across a recently fertilized lawn or one that might be exposed to highly-concentrated DDT," he remarked.

The center can be reached by calling the hospital at FEderal 4-3511 and asking for the center, which will have a direct line. It will be operated 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

OTHER STATE CENTERS

The Pontiac center will be kept up to date by Dr. Mason and assistants who will keep the file posted with the latest products on the market.

The Day in Birmingham

Residents Lose Request to Fly Model Airplanes

BIRMINGHAM—Led by Mr. and Mrs. William L. Corteggiano of 892 Southlawn Blvd., a group of residents from the Southlawn - Southfield area appealed to city commissioners Monday night for permission to allow their children to fly model airplanes in a small partially developed park in that section.

They protested the repeated interference by the police department when the children are using the area. Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley told the group that he had no choice.

"There is a section on noise in our city ordinance," Moxley said. "There is a resident in your area who is disturbed by the noise and exercises her rights as a citizen to complain. Whenever we receive a call from this party we are under obligation to comply with her wish."

Charles Delbridge, commission representative to the recreation board, told Mrs. Corteggiano that there is an area provided for model planes. He said the section of the park near the disposal plant is always available.

Her reply was that the section was in such a condition that in one landing most of the planes were in need of repair. She also stressed that they wanted the children flying the planes nearer home where the parents could watch them.

Delbridge, Mayor William Roberts and acting city manager L. R. Gare assured the group that the Cranbrook road site would be cleaned up. They also advised them to see the recreation board which has charge of all recreational activities and confer with them on the possibility of approving other sites.

It was pointed out by commissioners that the previous plan of using all parks during certain hours had been abandoned for the safety angle. The planes are a hazard to any small child who might wander into the flight pattern.

Since parks are open to the public commissioners and recreation board members deemed this safety measure necessary.

The claim of Mrs. Helen B. Cecil, 1145 Pilgrim has been referred by commissioners to the city's insurance agent.

Mrs. Cecil was injured at Springdale Golf Course last month when a man hole cover near the third green tipped and she fell.

General Fire Proofing Equipment Co. was the successful bidder at $3,687.44 for office equipment for the Birmingham Police Department. They reported that there will be a 90 day delay on some of the equipment, especially a large counter. Another company, Allied Steel, although a lower bidder, was rejected since their offer did not meet requirements.

William J. Murphy

A field representative for Ford Tractor, William J. Murphy, 62, of 1818 E. Maple Ave. died Tuesday in William Beaumont Hospital, after a long illness.

He was a member of Holy Name parish.

He is survived by his wife, Helen; two daughters, Mrs. Max McGrath and Mrs. Richard Oakes, both of Royal Oak; two sons, John B. of Minnesota and Major J. L., Travis Air Force Base, Calif.

Rosary service will be at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home at 8 p.m. tomorrow with 10 a.m. service at Holy Name Church Friday. Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Hold Attorney, Widow in Killing

Two Men Claim They Were Hired to Shoot Chicago Store Owner

CHICAGO (INS) — A Chicago attorney and the widow of a slain department store owner are under investigation today after two men reported they had been hired by the lawyer for the killing.

The attorney is Joseph R. Roth, 49, and the widow, Mrs. Lilyan Lerner, 47, whose husband, Sanford, 46, was shot to death at their former home last April 3.

The two men — Sheldon Polakoff, 39, of Lakeside, and Donald Dubey, 29 — said they accepted $500 of $2,000 to be paid for the slaying from Roth, but denied they went through with the plot.

According to police, Polakoff stated that Roth suggested the manner in which Lerner should be slain and that the murder actually happened under the exact circumstances as outlined by the attorney.

Lerner was shot to death in the darkened vestibule of his home as he came home from bowling on a Tuesday night.

—Roth denied any knowledge of the murder and upon hearing a report by detectives Charles Fitzgerald and Wilbur Davis, declared:

The detectives reported Roth has been seen frequently in the company of the widow and said in their report:

"'. . . the reporting officers are of the opinion that Mr. Joseph Roth either hired the killer and furnished the gun or did the killing himself and Mrs. Lerner has knowledge."

Guest Toastmaster Wins First Place

Russell Wants Investigation

Michigan Senators Defend Handling of Gypsy Troup

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michigan's senators, both proponents of civil rights legislation, today accused Sen Richard Russell (D-Ga) of creating a smokescreen and a "straw man" with his criticism of the treatment a band of Gypsies received in the Midwest.

But Russell told a reporter that if the pending civil rights bill becomes law, he will invoke it in asking an investigation of the incident.

He referred to action by police in Michigan and Indiana, who chased a caravan of about 100 gypsies from the two states last week.

Russell has been the leader of Southern opponents of the Administration-backed civil rights measure.

Yesterday he told the Senate he would ask the Civil Rights Commission that would be created by the bill to make the investigation.

PRIMARY INTENTION

Sponsors of the bill say it is intended primarily to protect the voting rights of Southern Negroes.

"This is a typical Dixiecrat smokescreen," Sen McNamara (D-Mich) told a reporter, "designed to draw attention from the callous and unconstitutional treatment of hundreds of thousands of American citizens in the south." He termed it a phony issue.

"I think that Sen. Russell has built a straw man," Sen. Potter (R-Mich) said in a separate interview, "As a result of the right to vote bill."

The two Michigan lawmakers have been among the most vigorous advocates of a strong civil rights bill.

The caravan of gypsies was driven out of Lapeer County, where they had tried to hold a convention. Police ordered them out of the state into Indiana, 150 miles to the south.

FINALLY SPLIT UP

In Indiana, Steuben County and LaGrange County police forced the caravan to move west. The gypsies eventually went into Illinois, then split up.

Michigan authorites said there were not sufficient facilities for the gypsy convention. They added farmers in the vicinity had complained of stolen chickens.

New York City Graham Crusade Starts 13th Week

He told his Madison Square Garden audience: "God has given to New York City 12 weeks of the greatest opportunity ever in the history of the Christian church."

"God is going to hold responsible every Christian in this city," those who are faithful will be rewarded."

Last night's attendance was 18,000. That brought the total for the crusade meetings in the Garden to 1,415,000.

At Graham's call, 626 persons went forward to make "decisions for Christ." "Decisions" for the 12-week period total 43,010.

Who Can Resist Chance to Win $2,000 in Pot?

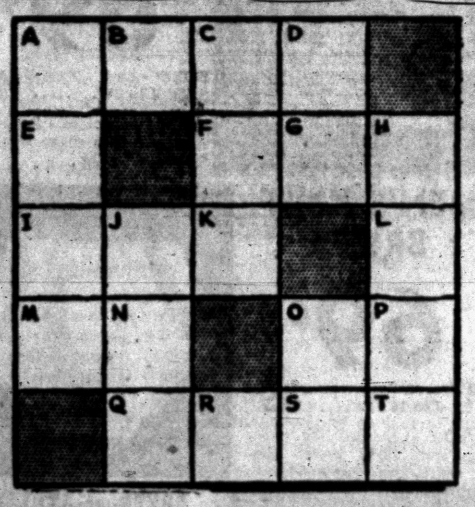

By this time there should be little need for urging anyone to try his luck at Pot-O-Gold. With $2,000 waiting to be hauled away by some crafty contestant, anyone with a minute to spare will surely want to give it a go. Good luck.

The new puzzle contains a series of squares which are alphabetically lettered and a corresponding list of sentences with two clue words. Each of the words is numbered. The object is to select the word which you think best fits the clue sentence. You then place the number of that word in the square which has the same letter as the clue sentence.

In other words, you will read the clue labeled A and decide which of the two words makes the most sense in the sentence. You then write the number of that word in the puzzle square marked A.

Do the same with all other squares. Read all the clues carefully and be sure the right numbers are in the right squares.

No entries received after that time whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries becoming the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Picnic Today in Avon Park

Handicapped Children Out for Fun

More than 100 handicapped children, their parents and members of the Associaion for Handicapped Children are attending a picnic in Avon Township Park, Rochester, today.

This is the first outing for the group since the association organized in April to plan regular classes for mentally retarded children unable to attend regular schools.

Since then, the association's membership has grown from 60 to 180.

Mrs. Lawrence Hansen, association president, said picnic participants should bring their own sandwiches, table service and one pot-luck dish.

Games and swimming are scheduled for 5 p.m. Cartoon movies will follow refreshments at 6:30 p.m.

In June, the association received permission from the Pontiac Board of Education to use a basement room at the Emerson School to conduct classes, on a one-year trial basis.

STILL TIME TO ENROLL

"We still need children to enroll in the Friday sessions, when the extremely handicapped children will be taught," Mrs. Hansen announced.

The two sessions, with eight children each, will be conducted then for the more difficult cases.

She said these could be children waiting to enter the Lapeer Training School and thought to be unmanageable.

The "Jack and Jill Room" will accommodate 36 children. A class of 10 will meet Mondays and Tuesdays and another 10 on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Children age 6½ to 13½ are eligible for enrollment.

The students are to be instructed by the parents, although additional women are needed to teach a few hours a week, Mrs. Hansen said.

"They will be taught to teach on the job. The schedules have been made up so no pre-planning will be necessary. We have six volunteer substitutes but need many more," she added.

ADVISERS NAMED

The curriculum schedules were planned and approved by the association's board of advisers. They include: Hal Abram, Oakland County special education department; William Wright, coordinator of special education in Pontiac; Theodore Wiersema, Jefferson Junior High School principal; Barry Brienbraugh, special education teacher in Clarkston, and Mrs. Hansen.

The group hopes the program will be so successful that different school districts throughout the county will open similar sessions next year.

Donations of equipment for the room from area organizations include: A check for phonograph records from the Pythian Sisters of Michigan; a phonograph from the Lions Club of Rochester; toys, games and books from the Junior Women's Club of Rochester, and school supplies from the Avon Youth Service and Recreation Assn.

"One thing we don't have but need is an American Flag," she added.

The association will supply transportation for the students dents beginning Sept. 9, the first day of class.

Parents who wish to enroll children should contact Mrs. William Hutchinson, enrollment chairman, FE 4-3645.

Volunteer women who wish to donate several hours a week to teach may contact Mrs. Gladys Czeizler, chairman of the teacher committee, at FE 4-7159.

MSU Cyclotron Operating by 1960

EAST LANSING (AP) — A $1,300,000 new cyclotron planned for Michigan State University probably can be put into service in 1960.

That is the estimate of a special committee on nuclear research appointed to explore the project last fall.

The State Board of Agriculture, MSU governing body, gave approval of preparation of final plans for the device at its July meeting.

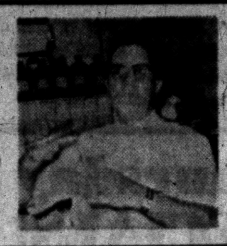

The MSU machine would be one of about a half dozen heavy ion accelerators in existence, compared with about 140 cyclotrons of conventional type. It would take two years to build.

In the cyclotron, electrically charged atoms (ions) of carbon, nitrogen and oxygen will be accelerated up to about 40 million electron volts.

It will enable scientists to study the nuclear changes and radiation given off when accelerated atoms strike a target material.

Water Sold by Bucket

ALASKA — In one Alaskan town, water is sold by the bucketfuls because the ground freezes so deep that conventional water-piping systems are not feasible. The going price is eight buckets for a dollar.

Sultan's Troops, Tommies Move In on Oman Rebels

MANAMA, Bahrain (AP)—British troops and the army of the Sultan of Muscat and Oman today were reported 14 miles from the Oman rebels' stronghold of Nizwa.

A top British army spokesman said the column marched into the village of Izz as villagers waved the Sultan's red flag. A Royal Air Force plane dropped leaflets 15 minutes before the troops entered, warning the villagers to cooperate if they wanted to avoid harm.

NO OPPOSITION

The spokesman said the Sultan's army and the Tommies had advanced 80 miles from Fahud without meeting any opposition.

He said they were now carrying out an approach march to make contact with the rebels, who are seeking to gain control of the Arabian Peninsula desert area for the Imam of Oman, a religious leader.

The rebels are reported dug in behind the five-foot-thick walls of Ft. Nizwa.

The British hope for a quick knockout blow to end the three-week-old tribal rebellion in the Sultan's domain along the southeast coast of the peninsula. A prolonged military campaign could seriously damage British prestige in the Persian Gulf area, where Britain has rich oil interests.

PREPARE TO MOVE

Under a half moon that made the desert bright, the British commander's headquarters was taking down collapsible radio masts, striking tents, studying maps under lanterns and getting ready for the whole brigade headquarters to move off.

There are no roads in Oman. There are tracks made by donkeys and camels.

None of the British soldiers involved, except some senior officers, has any experience of this sort of country.

The commanding officer is one of Britain's most experienced officers in this kind of warfare.

Brig. J. A. R. Robertson, commanding the British force, said here tonight he did not expect serious opposition, but was advancing with that possibility in view.

Robertson said he expected the people of Izz, about 12 miles south and east of Nizwa, to awake and find British advance forces on their doorstep. It will be a toy army of possibly 20 jeeps, but far superior to anything locally available.

He said the jeeps would approach and curl around the town like an arm.

A political representative of Sultan Said bin Taimur is to go forward to ask for an assurance of loyalty to the Sultan.

No resistance is expected. It is reported tonight that Izz already has put up the Sultan's red flag in token of submission.

Negro Leader Calls Rights Bill a Disgrace

In an address at the Chautauqua Institute yesterday, Marshall predicted that Congress would not pass any kind of "effective" civil rights legislation in the near future.

"They have taken everything out of the bill except the right to vote," he said.

Large 4-H Fair in Progress

The annual Oakland County 4-H Club Fair, now in progress on its permanent grounds out Perry Street, is vastly more than a collection of the animals, produce and handiwork of our rural young people.

Since its start in a very modest way 17 years ago it has grown to be the largest such fair in Michigan and the biggest get together event in Oakland County.

More than any other project in our county's history, it is fusing our population. It speaks a common language. It is a great interpreter.

It makes our city people understand and appreciate our rural residents while it is making those rural residents more conscious of the fact that the city folks really are their brothers and sisters under the skin.

Through a mutual understanding, the urban people get to know more about the problems and joys that enter into the production of much of their livelihood.

Likewise, the rural residents learn that their work enjoys a greater respect than they supposed, that the city people are not "uppish," and have as warm a regard for the hand that is marked with soil as the hand that is soiled with ink.

The fair is a major boundary breaker, and bears no respect for city or village limits. It is a success because our rural go-getters are behind it. Perhaps downtown or industrial big business can learn a lesson from them.

Whether you're an urbanite or ruralite, you'll find plenty of good will and bubbling inspiration at this fair.

Let some of it rub off on you.

U.S. Productive Power

In the past 50 years, average output per hour of work in the United States has tripled, says a Twentieth Century report.

During that time consumer spending has more than tripled and the average per acre yield in some farm crops has doubled. Our population also has risen from 75 million to 170 million and average yearly income per family now is about $6,000 and still rising.

One of the outstanding long range trends, the report points out, is the shifting of families and individuals from lower income ranges and into higher. In 1936 more than two of every five families had annual incomes of less than $1,000. By 1950 only 7.6 per cent were receiving less than that. Of the higher income group almost 30 per cent had more than $5,000. In America today our income per person is higher than in any other country and probably five times the average of the whole world.

As to the future, the report says "if our 1960 estimates are reasonable American business can look to a consumer market with purchasing power based on disposable income, for goods and services nearly one-third larger than in the peak year of world War II" and nearly one-fourth larger than in prosperous 1950.

It is pointed out, however, that some Americans are still ill-clothed, ill-housed and ill-fed and that some parts of the country continue to have difficulties even though the country as a whole is prosperous.

The principal reason for our phenomenal economic advancement is the importance of machine power. Our net output of goods and services in 1950 was 25 times that of 1850 and with only eight times as many workers. One man with today's powered machinery can do as much work in 40 hours as three men working 70 hours a week with the tools of 100 years ago.

America's farms also shared in spectacular advances. With fewer farmers than we had in 1910, we are producing more than enough for our population of nearly 170 million.

Summing up our fundamental assets the report says that the energy and spirit of the American people, our vast land, resources and equipment and our democratic system guarantee political and economic freedom for all.

Hear Corn Grow?

You Can Do It if All of the Conditions Are OK

Never before in his 73 years did
Butler Reasoner
of Waterford Township see corn grow as fast as during the recent hot weather. He says the warm, humid and muggy nights, with plentiful moisture at its roots, made a condition that was quite ideal.

Mr. Reasoner states that the old remark that you can "hear corn grow" is the absolute truth. On nights such as we had last week, when everything else is quiet, there's a snap and crackle among the corn that sounds like a symphony, and it may boost its height six inches in a single night.

He also states that on the more recent cold nights his corn is "as quiet as the tomb."

Suggestion: If you're to meet somebody at the 4-H Fair, why not make it at The Pontiac Press booth? See you there?

Those three "high Cs" on the highway cover the subject quite well:
"Care, Courtesy, Control."

We're quite in agreement with that Bloomfield Hills sports authority, Billy Flexner,
who phones us that he considers the Patterson-Jackson fight "the greatest fraud ever perpetrated on the sporting public."

With 11-foot hollyhocks,
Mrs. Genevieve Folsom
of Holly wonders if hollyhocks shouldn't grow better around Holly than anywhere else—if there's anything in a name.

Sign in front of a Northern Michigan motel:

No Vacancy
But we'll look you over.

My ever watchful scout in the office of State Highway Commissioner Mackie
sends word that on Aug. 14 contracts will be awarded for resurfacing the major portion of the Clarkston-Ortonville Road (M-15) with bituminous concrete. The work is to be completed by Nov. 1.

A new four-cent stamp has the stars and stripes in proper colors, and suggests that a good way to spread our patriotic instincts is to use them on our letters. It costs only a cent more than usual. Good idea, isn't it?

On Your Way, Sir!

David Lawrence Says:

Voting Legislation May Ruin States

WASHINGTON — Do the people of the United States really know what is involved in the so-called "right to vote" legislation now pending in Congress?

Do the officials of the governments of all the states know that hereafter, if the House or Senate bill becomes law, anyone deprived of a vote can make a federal court case out of it, with the help of the Attorney General, no matter what restrictions on voting may hitherto have been enacted by the states?

LAWRENCE

It is doubtful whether the country as a whole knows what a Pandora's box of troubles will be opened up by the proposed legislation when enforced in conjunction with old statutes. It could really affect many more whites than Negroes and raise issues in all sections of the country.

Up to now the states themselves have exercised final judgment as to who may or may not vote. The Federal government henceforth would become the national policeman to supervise elections, whether for state or city or county offices.

One of the states that might immediately be investigated is Rhode Island, whose Supreme Court in a conscientious but mistaken opinion threw away the ballots of 5,454 absentee voters last November and changed the gubernatorial result from Republican to Democratic by a margin of 63 votes.

SUBJECT TO FEDERAL SCRUTINY

The Rhode Island court claimed it derived this authority from the Constitution of that state but, under the proposed "civil rights" legislation, state constitutions and state laws become subject to Federal scrutiny, and the question of whether "equal protection of the laws" has been afforded or whether the "privileges and immunities of citizens" have been abridged will be something on which the Federal courts would be asked to rule.

How, for example, can Rhode Island or any other states with absentee-voting laws permit certain persons to vote at any time in advance of election day if absent from home for reasons mentioned in a state law, while denying the opportunity to shut-ins and disabled individuals who cannot get to the polls or perhaps notarize a ballot on a particular day? This is but one of many problems which now would become matters for Federal supervision.

Thirty-four states — only five of them in the South — require an oath that the applicant is qualified to vote. Who shall say what is meant by "qualified?"

Seven states require loyalty oaths from prospective voters. Who shall say what constitutes "loyalty," especially in view of recent decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States that make such words as "subversive" or "Communist" a matter of "belief" protected by the First Amendment?

Forty-one states deny the right to vote to criminals. What offenses shall permanently disenfranchise a rehabilitated convict? Who will determine this? The courts may have to rule on this, too.

LITERACY TESTS

In 19 states — six in the South — citizens must pass literacy tests to qualify as voters. Who is to decide whether the tests are fair or unfair?

In some states citizens are required to own property to vote. Is this a discrimination that violates the Fourteenth Amendment, which provides that "no state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States?" The Federal courts would have to answer.

Most states have laws that provide for a particular period of residence before the voting privilege is granted. Is it fair to make a man lose his vote because he moves?

Can he be deprived of his citizenship rights so long as he remains within the United States? That's another question which could be raised through the operations of the proposed law on "voting rights."

For the very title of some sections of existing law is to be changed by both the House and Senate bills to read "voting rights."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Man's Place in Childbirth Is Right at Wife's Side

"My husband and I have read with interest your articles about the husband remaining with his wife when the baby is being born. However, when I asked my doctor about it he said 'No!' "He said it is a board of health rule, and that no first class doctor or hospital would allow it . . . He refused to discuss the matter further.

DR. BRADY

"I want my husband to be present when our baby is born, and he wants to be there. What shall we do? (Mrs. W.D.R.)"

Well, ma'am, doctors, health officers and hospitals get away with some weird rules and regulations, but in this instance no hospital or health officer or health board is named so I imagine your doctor was talking through his hat.

Doctors or hospital officials who imply that the husband would bring infection into the delivery room are covering up the real purpose of the "regulation," which is to make sure what happens in there shall remain a secret.

There are good doctors in most cities who not only permit the husband to remain with his wife but ask him to do so. They have nothing to hide.

NEVER MIND PATIENT

Lying-in institutions where timid husbands wait alone in the monkey cage while the wives go through what should be the great miracle of life are conducted primarily for the benefit of doctors on the staff.

Some times when it looks as though the baby will arrive before the doctor does, a nurse or other attendant will go so far as to hold the baby back, regardless of the welfare of mother or baby, until the doctor can get there and complete the delivery.

Such malpractice would be more difficult to perpetrate if a husband were present—that is, one who has received the instruction which every expectant husband should receive.

I can't afford and am not in a position to give directory service. If the doctors in your community are not all like the one who told you the board of health will not allow a husband to be present at the birth of his child, perhaps the County Medical Society will name doctors who (a) let the husband stay with wife, (b) attend confinement cases at home, or (c) practice natural childbirth.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan.

Voter Criticizes Williams for Policy in Signing Bills

A lot of faith is lost in Governor Williams every time he signs a bill he claims he's against. Everyone is getting a little tired of hearing his publicized excuses every time he signs a controversial bill.

The only reason for his public apologies is to soothe the feelings of the "con" voters so he won't antagonize any future votes. A real man with true convictions needs to apologize to no one, because he wouldn't, for any reason, under any circumstances, go against those convictions.

The unprecedented whisky and cigarette tax bill to support our state school program will show only his signature, not his objections and excuses. I hope in the future when such unsavory bills are placed before him for signature, he will have the moral backbone to stand up and say, "I will not sacrifice my prinicples on the altar of politics and I will not sign that bill." Excuses will then be unnecessary, Governor.

More Discuss End of World

I am one that believes there will never be an end to the world. Why would God want to end all this beauty, happiness and love? It would be a desecration of all the things He stands for. Why would he want to destroy all that man has done and will continue to do? I wish supporters of the opposite theory would answer these questions.

I take by the way Christian signs his name that he believes the Bible to be the word of God. Therefore its statements are true and not subject to man's explaining them away.

In light of this fact, I would call your attention to 2nd Peter 3:10-13 and Rev. 21:1. You'll notice from these that the world as we now know it shall definitely be done away with and in its place shall be one that free from sin and sorrow.

As for Billy Graham's statement about the world nearing an end, he probably had reference, strictly speaking, to the end of the age. The Day of Judgment is recorded in 1st Thess. 4:13-17. However, the world's end is at least 1,000 years away, the length of the millenium as told in Rev. 20:1-3. I might add all fundamental Bible students hold this view.

M. P. Edwards

If Christian will read the 21st chapter of St. Luke, he will learn something he should learn. Be sure to read the 33rd verse. I agree with Billy Graham about the prophecies being fulfilled very fast.

Believer

Why disagree with Billy Graham about the end of the world? Many passages in the Bible foretell it. I believe the end is near, so if you're a Christian, first see what the Bible says before you disagree.

Bible Christian

I don't know how some people call themselves Christians and never read the Bible. Read St. John, chapter 3, and it will help you to know if you're a true Christian.

Billy Graham wasn't talking about the end of the world, but the end of time. After the end of time there will be seven years of tribulation, then 1,000 years with Jesus ruling the earth, then the end of this old world. You don't have to take Billy Graham's word. Read your Bible.

'It's All Right if Doing Good'

In answer to P.A.R., I enjoyed my school days very much. I want very much to see ours and your children get a good education. I read in the newspapers not so long ago that schools haven't much money. We, the common people, pay plenty of money. My school taxes are three times as high as they were a few years ago. Where's the money going? I don't mind if I were sure it's for the children's good.

She's Glad to See It's Still in Style

In fancy terms, Elsa M. Sipola, a psychologist, said recently that "in a mistaken effort to protect a child from developing psychological problems, a mother may adopt a 'permissive attitude' towards her child, encouraging free expression and avoiding punishment or disapproval at the expense of rational discipline." In other words, it's good to see that woodshed treatment is still in style and earnestly advocated.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Look for 'Fire' Behind Alcoholism

Hilda fled into a drunken stupor to escape from a continuing inner "fire". So she used liquor much as a fire escape to get away from internal torment, and this is a very common cause for chronic drinking on the part of men as well as women. Notice how a few sex facts sobered Hilda.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case V-357: Hilda K., aged 29, has been married for six years.

"But Hilda is a chronic alcoholic," her husband wearily protested.

"She vows to stay sober, but it isn't more than a week before she is back with her cronies at a tavern.

"Many a night when I get home from the office, she isn't there. I generally find her half drunk at some tavern or cocktail lounge.

"And several times I haven't found her at all. She may be gone all night or even an entire weekend.

"When she finally does return, she says she doesn't remember where she has been or what she has done.

"Dr. Crane, I've tried to be fair with her, but I can't stand this any longer. Either she must live a moral life and cut out liquor, or I am through for good, so will you see Hilda for me?"

HILDA'S "FIRE"

My first task was to find out Hilda's "fire."

For I have previously told you that alcoholism is regarded by us psychologists as analogous to a fire escape from a burning building.

So it is not very efficient to use drugs by which to nauseate a person concerning his liquor, unless we first find out why he resorted to that alcohol as a means of fleeing from reality.

We medics can easily employ various drugs that will make a drinker sick the next time he swills down his whisky.

But even if we cured a person of his fondness for alcohol, he might then revert to dope or even blow out his brains with a revolver if the inner "fire" was still tormenting him.

What do you suppose would make an otherwise attractive young wife get inebriated frequently? Why should a respectable woman become a drunken sot at a tavern?

SEXUAL INFERIORITY

When she married, she had hoped to have a family. But after four years, she still had never become pregnant.

Meanwhile, she and her husband submitted to various medical tests to see if there was any organic reason to prevent her pregnancy.

None was found, so Hilda construed her lack of children as an affront to her feminine vanity. And she developed a mania to have children.

So she began to seek liquor, much as many moderns use "happiness pills" as a medical way to obtain an artificial freedom from unsolved problems or inner "fires."

Since drinking women often indulge in promiscuous sexual affairs, you readers can surmise what occurred when Hilda was away from home over night.

FACTS SOBERED HILDA

And I explained the medical facts concerning pregnancy which often banish sterility in couples

when no organic obstacle intervenes.

For there is only a very narrow time slot in a woman's menstrual month during which she can conceive. It may be as short as 6 to 12 hours and probably not longer than 36 to 48, at the most.

So I gave a chalk talk to Hilda and her husband, of the sort which medics offer newlyweds and had them study the booklet "Sex Problems in Marriage." If you wish a copy, send a stamped return envelope with 20 cents (non-profit).

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Dances, Skating Parties Provide Clean Fun for Negro Teenagers

Some local youth leaders have spoken out in favor of more facilities and planned activities for the boys and girls.

Still others are doing something about the problem, as shown by the bi-weekly dances for Negro teenagers that have been held for more than a month.

Goal of the newly-organized Southwest Teen Assn. is the raising of funds to establish a Negro teen center.

Three men were instrumental in forming the association. Charles F. Cooper, a Negro clerk in the Oakland County Sheriff's Department's identifications and records bureau, took the necessary first step in his fight to "curb juvenile delinquency by providing more planned recreation."

GOT COOPERATION

Through cooperation of Safety and Juvenile Deputy Steve Navarre and of Thomas W. Dodson, Pontiac public school supervisor of physical education and director of athletics and recreation, concrete plans were made and carried out.

Navarre contacted two local disc jockeys to spin the platters every Tuesday and Saturday nights from 8 to 11 p.m. Dodson obtained the use of the Jefferson and Bagley Junior High School gyms.

"Attendance has increased at each of the five dances we have held. We cleared $114 and averaged 100 teens per dance," Cooper enthusiastically reports.

"To increase interest, we give away free tickets to the next dance and several recording albums."

SINGERS ENTERTAIN

"The donation is 50 cents per person, and my wife makes punch which we sell for three cents a glass. Three local singing groups provide added entertainment," Cooper explained.

Five adults volunteered to serve on the association's board of directors besides Dodson and himself, Cooper said. They are Pontiac Patrolmen Richard A. Navarre and Richard L. Hayes; The Rev. Richard H. Dixon Jr., pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, and Madeline Brown of Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation.

The group hopes also to hold weekly roller skating parties. Then, teens will have something to do under supervision at least three of the seven nights a week until the needed teen center becomes a reality.

Two Youngsters Injured on Bikes

Two youngsters on bicycles were injured in separate accidents with automobiles yesterday.

James Thompson, 14, of 204 Harrison St., was hit by a car driven by J. C. McDonald, of 320 Fisher Ave., when he drove his bike into the intersection of Crystal Lake and Franklin without stopping, police said.

He was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital for bruises and lacerations and released.

Karen Holestein, 12, of 15 Chippewa Rd., was hit by a car backing out of a driveway at 831 W. Huron St., yesterday, while riding a bike on the sidewalk.

The driver, Maxine Hurst, 39, of 421 Lowell St., told police she did not see the bike. Karen was treated by her doctor for abrasions of the shoulder and ankle.

Woman, 88, Missing in Mountain Woods

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) —Sheriff's deputies on horseback will hunt the heavily wooded top portion of Pike's Peak today for an 88-year-old woman mountain climber last heard from Monday.

The eight-man party failed yesterday to find a trace of Mrs. Instine B. Roberts.

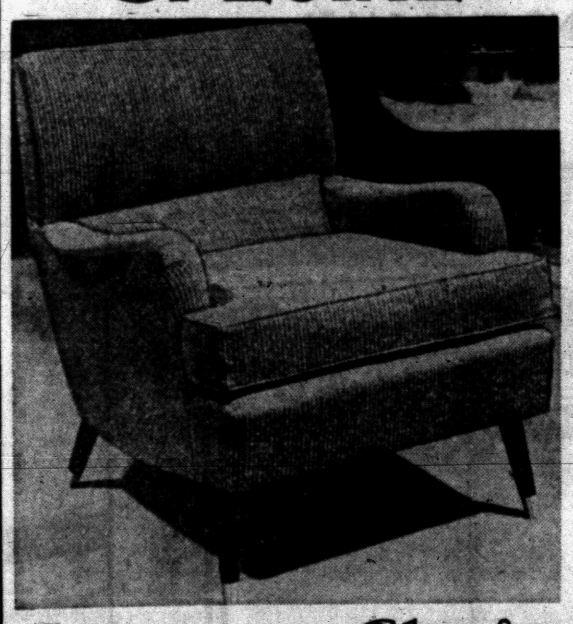

A lifelong hiker who climbs the 14,100-foot-high peak once a year, Mrs. Roberts began her journey Saturday—alone and on foot. She stayed at the summit Sunday night.

Automobile Crash Prevents Injury to 4

He maneuvered in front of the runaway vehicle and permitted it to strike the rear of his car, thus preventing it from smashing into a building at the bottom of the hill.

For Queen During Visit

White House Stay Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip will stay at the White House during their Washington visit in October.

There had been some doubt whether the British royal couple would be guests in the executive mansion or in the nearby Blair House, where distinguished foreign guests usually are housed.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty announced the decision today with the explanation that President and Mrs. Eisenhower are personal friends of the Queen and her husband and would like to have them in the White House where there will be an opportunity for informal chats.

"The President extended a personal invitation several weeks ago and it was accepted formally yesterday by Her Majesty," Hagerty said.

Blair House—known as the president's guest house—now is undergoing some repairs and more extensive repair work is expected to be in progress at the time of the royal visit, Oct. 17 to 20.

Hagerty said it is not yet certain whether the Queen and Prince Philip will remain at the White House all that time.

He added that other arrangements are incomplete but that the royal couple's schedule undoubtedly would include a state dinner at the White House.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower once were luncheon guests of the Queen's parents, King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, at Buckingham Palace. They also spent a weekend as the guests of the King and Queen at their summer residence, Balmoral Castle, in Scotland.

You Bet They Were!

COWES, England (INS) — An embarrassed Prince Philip was forced to ask for a tow today when the engine of his speedboat went on the fritz while he was taking eight-year-old Prince Charles for a spin. Two boatloads of press photographers, following close by, recorded every detail of the breakdown and the tow. Philip quipped to them: "I'll bet you're pleased about this."

Hal Boyle Says:

False Teeth End Man's Chewin' Gum Days

He can float on a raft to the flowery isles of the South Pacific.

He can perhaps even find a new true love.

But—if he's 46 and got a partial plate—I'll tell you one thing he can't do. He can't chew gum and feel any younger.

Ever since I had my four upper front teeth pulled some weeks ago, envious strangers have stopped me in the street to find out what the result was.

Frankly, I feel it's the kind of thing that ought to happen to a stranger — but, please, not me again.

For the dentist replaces your lost ivories with plastic copies that bear about the same relation to your original teeth as Benedict Arnold does to George Washington.

Your friends who have lost all of their teeth may counsel, "There's nothing to it. Don't worry. You'll never know the difference."

They may brag they can eat anything they want. The fact of the menu is that seven out of eight times they will order chicken a la king. They always unconsciously are saving their molars to bite a better meal. It must be that. They certainly aren't using them.

A man who has 32 false teeth—in inflation times you even buy false wisdom teeth—may say he can't tell the difference between his fine new bought chompers and the ones he pulled out. All I can say is that he is gifted with a remarkable lapse of memory.

Myself, I am only missing my four front upper teeth, like I said, but I'll tell you it's like a boy losing four mothers right in a row and all of 'em his.

A man with a partial plate feels like he has a mouth full of marbles but, unlike Demosthenes, this sensation doesn't encourage him to further oratory. The small new whistle in his speech, which yesterday he thought would be gone by tomorrow, is still there next week. He begins to hate the letter "S."

He has to. For if he pronounces it clearly he inadvertently whistles so that self-conscious lady passers-by are blushingly and indignantly sure he is making overtures to them—which he sure ain't. Or else, if he avoids the whistle, he ends up with a lisp.

But a worse blow to the self-respect of a man with a partial plate comes when he tries to chew gum for the first time—which is usually the last time.

I just finished making this effort. I started with one piece and went on, piece after piece, until I had the whole package in my mouth.

Each piece clung to the denture deeper so that finally I could no longer either whisper or lisp—I was silenced behind a silent elastic curtain. A glum gum curtain.

Let others falsely praise the virtues of false teeth. I'll tell you the truth.

Destroy Irish Memorial

LIMERICK, Ireland (AP) — A dynamite explosion early today destroyed a memorial to Irishmen who fought with the British army in World War I. The memorial was a 10-foot cross erected by the British Legion, a veterans organization. The cross was blown to pieces and windows of houses in the neighborhood were smashed.

There were five or six electric lights on 1925 model cars as compared with up to 40 on some current models.

I WAS CRIPPLED WITH ARTHRITIS
O-JIB-WA BITTERS

"I could barely walk or raise my arms because of Rheumatism and Arthritis," says Mrs. Frank Gaeman, 611 Wisconsin Avenue, Gladstone, Michigan.

I had been bothered slightly with rheumatism and arthritis for six or seven years, when suddenly two years ago, it became so severe that I was confined to bed for days at a time. My hands were stiff and I couldn't raise my arms to my head. My legs would get cramped so bad, that I could barely walk. My husband had to do the housework, and wash the dishes, as I was unable to do any of it. Believe me, I was really suffering terribly. Then I read about O-JIB-WA BITTERS in my newspaper and decided to try it. It took about a month before the pains and cramps were gone. Soon I was back doing my own housework and a lot of things that I believed I would never be able to do again. I'm getting around fine now, and just finished washing the walls and ceiling of my kitchen. Why I'm even able to get out and help other people with their housework that are ailing with one thing or another. Last winter I shoveled the snow from my walks, and that's pretty good for a lady going on 72 years old, who just a year ago was in bed, all crippled up with arthritis. I give O-JIB-WA BITTERS full credit for putting me back on my feet. I am always recommending O-JIB-WA BITTERS, and it's helped lots of people around here. I'm sure anyone trying this truly wonderful medicine which contains no pain killing dope, will be as happy with the results as I was."

Shuns Before-Breakfast Chit-Chat

Ike's Press Secretary Rises Early, Works Late

WASHINGTON — The one thing that presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty at first found really tough about his job was getting up early. He is not by nature or training an early riser.

Now, five years after assuming the job, he is used to it. But, according to an article in a recent issue of a national magazine, his wife still doesn't ask him any questions in the morning. If there is something she must know, she waits until he has been in the office for a couple of hours and then phones him.

The article reveals that the home life of Hagerty is of necessity somewhat sketchy. The job is exacting, confidential, sensitive. A minor slip can cause worldwide repercussions.

The pace is brutal, for Hagerty must be informed on all kinds of subjects and be able to inform the President of them.

TOUGH SCHEDULE

He manages the President's entire press relations; collects material for his speeches; supervises Presidential press conferences; holds two press conferences of his own each day; times the release of Administration news; and sits in on all Cabinet meetings.

The Hagertys, who have two grown sons, live in a modest, comfortable colonial house in Chevy Chase. Mrs. Hagerty selected it herself while her husband was in Korea before the President's inauguration.

She handles all details of the household, including paying of taxes and all bills. Before she became an ardent golfer she also did most of the gardening.

Hagerty himself a man of simple tastes, usually stays home evenings with his family. He almost always gets several phone calls before going to bed, and anywhere from 2 to 10 during the night.

Where Hagerty will go after 1960 is anybody's guess. He says himself he will not stay in government. He thinks it would be nice to make some money but isn't listening to any offers yet.

Leaves Animals $2,000

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Mrs. Oscar B. Disney left $2,000 in her will to care for her 13-year-old fox terrier Scotty, and for Skippy, a 6-year-old parakeet. The will provided that $2,000 be placed in trust for a neighbor, Mrs. Mae Burke, on condition she take care of the two pets.

Trucks account for about three-fourths of the total freight load transported annually in the U. S.

Mother Returns to School

MT. EPHRAIM, N.J. (AP) — A 63-year-old mother of three adult sons will ride the high school bus along with the youngsters this fall. Mrs. Lena Zimmer is registered for a course in practical nursing at Camden County VocationalHigh Schoo.

Okinawa to Get 7,000 Marines

U.S. Will Transfer 9th Regiment From Japan; More to Leave Later

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon said today the 9th Marine Regiment will be transferred soon from Japan to Okinawa.

Formal announcement of the departure of the last ground combat force from Japan was delayed until this week to avoid any possible effect on the Okinawa elections held several days ago.

The Department of Defense said an advance party of the reinforced regiment, which has a strength of about 7,000 men, will leave Japan for Okinawa in a few days to prepare for the transfer of the main body of troops.

The departure of the regiment from Japan will leave these U. S. forces in that country: the 3rd Marine Air Wing, numbering about 6,400 men; a U. S. Navy establishment of some 7,000; Air Force units totaling about 50,000; and 17,000 Army support and caretaker troops.

That remaining U. S. military strength of about 80,400 will be further decreased in the coming months. President Eisenhower told Japan's Prime Minister Kishi June 21 that all American ground troops would be withdrawn from Japan by the end of the year and that the total number of uniformed Americans in that country will be substantially reduced.

The 9th Marine Regiment, commanded by Col. Clyde R. Nelson of Peru, Ill., will join its parent unit, the 3rd Marine Division, in Okinawa.

Exterminators Do Excellent Job—House Gone, Too

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP)— Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Null said the exterminator destroyed the termites as requested. The only trouble was the house was destroyed, too. thehouse was destroyed, too.

The Nulls filed a $25,000 suit in circuit court against the West Virginia Terminix Co. and an employe, Frank Leach.

Leach went to the Null residence at nearby Tyler Mountain April 2 to spray for termites. The couple said he sprayed a chemical beneath the house while a pilot light was burning in a floor furnace.

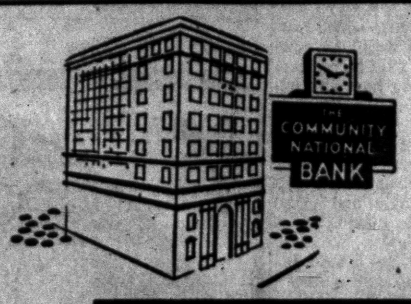

The chemical spray ignited and the house was destroyed in the resulting fire, the Nulls said in their suit.

Texas to Crack Down on Carrying of Pistols

Police Chief Carl Shuptrine, alarmed at the 87 fatal shootings in Houston this year, said all defendants involved in shootings in which someone is wounded or killed, also will be charged with illegally carrying a gun.

"In the past, we have filed only the more serious charge—murder or assault to murder—but too many defendants go scot free" when the grand jury refuses to indict them, he said.

How my mink coat trapped a burglar!

A true story based on an actual case

While we were out, a burglar took our jewelry, our cash, and my mink coat—but in his rush he hid the coat in a trash can nearby! Police spotted it, waited, and nabbed him when he returned to get it later. For our other lost property we collected $5000 from our Hartford Residence and Outside Theft Insurance Policy.

Whether or not you own a mink coat it's a good idea to check the valuables in your home right away. You can lose a lot to burglars—you can save a lot by getting low-cost Hartford Theft and Burglary Insurance from us.

Name Air Stewardess 'Miss Romeo'

Carol Hall, 20, Is Peach Queen

Mt. Clemens Beauty Defeats Candidates From 10 Towns

ROMEO — A fledgling airline stewardess won the acclaim of some 500 attending the crowning of the Romeo Peach Festival Queen last night, and a panel of five judges concurred, naming Carol Hall, 20, of Mt. Clemens.

Named first and second alternates from the field of 10 girls were Carole Hinze, 19, of Rochester, and Barbara Moskow, 19, of Romeo. They will help reign over the 25th annual Peach Festival celebration during the Labor Day weekend.

Miss Hall, a veteran of several other area beauty contests, is also Miss Metropolitan Beach this year. She has completed two years at Bowling Green University, Bowling Green, O., and has been accepted by two airline firms in her bid to become a stewardess.

Candidates were judged on the basis of beauty, personality, conversation, appearance and poise in the Romeo High School auditorium.

The candidates were from 10 towns in the Romeo area. J. G. McLean, husband of Queen Selection Committee chairman Mrs. Gladys McLean, substituted for missing master of ceremonies Bob Maxwell.

Roosevelt Class of '47 Planning Reunion

KEEGO HARBOR — Roosevelt High School graduates, class of 1947, will hold a reunion picnic Sunday, Aug. 25. The group will meet at 10 a.m. at Marshbank Park, on Hiller road at the west side of Cass Lake.

The 47 members of the class have been invited to attend and bring their families. Each family is asked to bring its own basket lunch and table service.

The outing has been planned by Terry McDonald, president of the class. He is being assisted by Mrs. Harry Seavey Jr. and Mrs. McDonald.

11 Communities Meeting on 12-Town Drain Issue

A meeting tomorrow night in Ferndale on the Twelve Town Drain will be attended by eleven South Oakland communities. Birmingham and Southfield Township have not accepted the invitation of Bruce D. Garbutt, Ferndale Mayor, to attend the meeting.

Garbutt said he wants to settle the difference of opinion as to whether Southfield and Troy intend to enter the $41 million giant drain plan.

The group is composed of former pupils and teachers of Dryden High School. Onehundred attended the meeting.

James R. Tisdales Leave for New York

CLARKSTON — Judith Grace O'Dell and James Russell Tisdale, after repating their marriage vows before 200 guests in an evening ceremony in First Methodist Church here Saturday, left afterward for Rochester, N. Y.

There the newlyweds will reside while the bridegroom attends Rochester Institute of Technology.

The bride, a graduate of Michigan State University, chose for her wedding a gown of blossom white, sheer organza over taffeta and tulle. A bouffant skirt belled from the pointed waistline and ended in a court train.

The bride's attendants were Martha Masters of Carkston, Sue Shanks of Harper Woods and Suellen O'Dell, younger sister of the bride.

Best man for the bridegroom was James Ryder of Lansing, and serving as ushers were Gary Bills, Richard Tubbs and Robert Tisdale, all of Lansing, and Lanny Leak of Carkston.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Garald O'Dell, 6235 Middle Lake Rd., Clarkston, and Mrs. A. Carl Tisdale of Lansing.

Requested to Move Trailer-Houseboat

LAKE ORION — After numerous complaints from persons living around Lake Orion, a family of four who had found their 10-day test run very enjoyable were requested to move their trailer-houseboat from the lake waters yesterday by Harold Mathis, sanitation inspecor for Orion township.

He declared the boat "detrimental to health conditions of those living on the lake." The family said they would leave the lake today.

Fair Record Broken

IMLAY CITY — Eastern Michigan Fair, elosing here Saturday, broke all previous attendance records. The high attendance was attributed to the horse races, wherein 86 horses ran the last three nights of the fair, with purses totaling $10,000 awarded to winners.

Rochester Leaves Area Planners Group

Board Tours Town -- Decides on Buy

ROCHESTER — Council met here Monday night in special session for the purpose of making a tour of village-owned properties and equipment. Before the session was closed however, it became of dual purpose when councilmen, while at Halbach Field, decided to purchase 10 pieces of electrical equipment for its improvement.

Upon their return to the council rooms, the progress of Avon-Rochester Planning Commission was reviewed and reports given on the new commercial land use study for downtown Rochester, recently prepared for the commission.

By resolution, the Village of Rochester voted to withdraw from the Area Planning Commission, and made plans for its own planning board where village problems can be reviewed.

No specific reason was given for the withdrawal of the representatives of the village. Persons representing Rochester on the commission were F. R. Chapman, William Nieman, Clarence Burr, Edward Alward and Robert A. Slone. Notice of the withdrawal was ordered to be sent to the commission.

The regular meeting of the council will be held on Monday, August 12.

Fire Auxiliary Meeting to Plan Style Show

UNION LAKE — Meeting tonight at 8 in the home of Mrs. George Gisch, here, members of the Ladies Auxiliary of Union Lake Fire Department will line up plans for a style show to be held Aug. 22 at Multi-Lakes Sportsmen Club.

The women will enjoy a barbecue tonight before the business meeting.

Trucks of the Union Lake Fire Department have moved into the new fire hall and the auxiliary has chosen the painting job as its next project.

Junior Editors Quiz on RAINBOWS

ANSWER: From sunlight as it passes through drops of rain. The drops act like tiny prisms, and as the sun rays pass through they are separated into different colors.

There are seven colors in a rainbow. These are violet, indigo, blue, green, yellow, orange and red. These colors blend into each other so you seldom see more than four or five clearly.

Occasionally, a rainbow is formed by the moonlight but it is very faint — since moonlight is far feebler than sunlight. You can also often see rainbows in spray that flies from a waterfall.

The rainbow has colorful names in many languages. The French call it the "arch in the sky." To Italians, it is "the flashing arch," and the people of Annam refer to it as "little window in the sky." There is a legend that a pot of gold can be found at the foot of a rainbow.

Milkionairess Extracts Millionth Liter of Milk

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio reported today the Soviet Union has produced a "milkionairess."

She is a dairy maid on a Siberian collective farm who has just extracted her millionth liter of milk from the cows under her care. A liter is 1¾ pints.

The broadcast said the dairy maid has been working on the farm for 25 years.

Dulles: Political Gifts No Barrier

Lists 3 Qualifications for Those He Appoints to Diplomatic Posts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said that a contribution to a political party should not be made a bar to diplomatic appointment.

Defending the appointment of "political" ambassadors at a news conference, Dulles said retired businessman Maxwell Gluck is going to Ceylon as ambassador because he meets Dulles' three qualifications for a diplomat: Integrity of character, sharp and quick intelligence and devotion to the national interest.

Dulles also defended the conduct of Ambassador Earl T. Smith in Cuba, another "political" appointee, who has been criticized for visiting the rebel center of Santiago. Smith protested the Batista government's arrest of women demonstrators who sought to impress him with their cause.

The fact is, Dulles said, that Smith is a person of flesh and blood and heart and while his statement—demanding release of the demonstrators—may not have been perfectly correct as to diplomatic niceties it was a balanced statement and a very human thing to do.

Specifically on the question of campaign contributions Dulles said the Eisenhower administration has appointed more than one ambassador who has contributed money to the Democratic party—as well as those who have contributed to the Republican party.

Gluck's nomination came in for considerable discussion after the release of his testimony before a Senate committee in which he mentioned Republican contributions of more than $20,000 and said under questioning that he wasn't too familiar with the names of Southeast Asian leaders.

Picture takers, most of them amateurs, snap about five million exposures per day throughout the year. Peak season is in the summer vacation months.

Russia Signs Pact Giving Aid to Syria

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union has promised extensive economic and technical aid to Syria under an agreement signed here last night after two weeks of negotiations.

A joint communique said Russia also would consider giving the Arab nation long-term credit. It gave no details and did not mention arms assistance or political agreements.

(Arab informants in Cairo earlier this week said Russia had agreed to let Syria defer payment on Communist bloc arms purchases it has made over the past two years. They also said the economic and technical aid offer totaled 65 to 100 million dollars.)

The communique said a special Soviet mission would leave for Syria soon to survey prospects for assistance on the development of railways, roads, irrigation and hydroelectric projects, industrial enterprises and research.

Recreation Board to Meet at Waterford

Other business will include the appointment of one of the new board members to represent the community at large, according to Director Tom Belton.

The group will discuss policy between the Waterford Township Board and the Recreation Board, with regard to maintenance and capital improvements for the township ball park in Drayton Plains.

The board also will discuss next year's ballet program, and the salary to be given the director.

Hollywood Headlines

Gina Lollobrigida to Play Napoleon's Sister Next

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — If you know your French history, you know that Pauline Bonaparte, sister of the little corporal, caused him considerable embarrassment with her flaming love affairs and two divorces. Well, that's the character Gina Lollobrigida will play in "Imperial Venus" which Allen Rivkin is now writing for her.

This word comes directly from Gina's husband, Dr. Miklo Skofic, who just talked to Rivkin over the long distance telephone, and says Gina would be ready to work in Austria, Italy and France in January.

Renato Costellani, the Italian director who won fame for his film version of "Romeo and Juliet," will direct "Venus" for an Italian company.

"There's a big emphasis on comedy at Paramount with 'Teacher's Pet,' 'Hear Me Good' and 'Sad Sack' ready for release," Bill Perlberg has told me. "Wait until you see Clark Gable in 'Teacher's Pet' — he'll surprise you in a top comedy performance." Bill should know, he and George Seaton produced Clark's picture with Doris Day.

In my favorite town of Hollywood it's never very safe to prophesy anything about romances. Romances change with the weather. Yet, I happen to know that Natalie Wood and Robert Wagner, two especially dear young friends of mine, are deeply in love.

Bob tells me he was never really in love in his life until he met Natalie. I am happy to say they started seeing each other at a party I gave.

For the next few months Natalie will have to divide her attention between Bob and "Marjorie Morningstar," which Milton Sperling tells me starts rolling Aug. 19, at long, long last.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: The photographs of Count Mario Bandini are so handsome, wagers are being made that he has the inside track with Kim Novak. Personally, I don't believe she'll ever give up Mac Krim.

Claudette Thornton, who couldn't get a job in the USA, is the toast of Cannes and has all the gallants there fighting for a date.

Prize Categories Told

DETROIT (AP) — The Michigan State Fair is offering $5 prizes for winners in these categories on Old Timers Day, Sept. 5; Oldest man, oldest woman, longest married couple, prettiest hat, longest mustache, and baldest head. Persons over 60 will be admitted free that day.

Easier to Save 17 Than to Get Paid

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—C. T. Jensen's helicopter plucked 17 persons out of the water in the Christmas week flood of 1955. Finding them, Jensen agrees, was much easier than finding somebody to foot the bill.

Jensen says the Coast Guard requisitioned him and said he would be paid. He submitted a bill of $2,602.50, mostly for 28 hours of flying. He's tried the Red Cross. He's tried the federal government.

Yesterday the State Board of Control turned him down.

"Sometimes," Jensen told the board, "I wish I hadn't been there."

Named to Ford Post

DETROIT (AP) — Theodore H. Mecke Jr. has been appointed general public relations manager of the Ford Motor Co. He succeeds S. W. Morell, who resigned to become vice president in charge of public relations for International Telephone & Telegraph Corp.

3-Year-Old Girl Falls Into Shaft of Old Chimney

Then they reached in and tenderly removed 3-year-old Glenda McPhee to safety from an abandoned chimney shaft which might have been a death trap.

Today, she was reported little the worse from the experience, though having suffered shock.

Earlier in the afternoon, Glenda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen McPhee, stepped into the shaft in the attic of their home and fell 18 feet between the walls of the house and into the basement, wedging tightly in an 8-by-12 inch opening.

Three companies of firemen, working with a pick, took the foundation apart brick by brick.

The firemen worked with the utmost care to avoid a collapse of bricks or otherwise injuring the girl.

Glenda was hospitalized. Doctors said her injuries were not serious.

Pendulum Rail Coach Developed by French

PARIS — To overcome the discomfort of passengers on trains going around turns at high speed, the French National Railways is developing a new type of railway car.

The top half of the coach is suspended on pivots near the roof over each set of bogies so that it can swing freely with a pendulum movement.

As the train goes into a turn, centrifugal force swings the top outwards so that it lies at an angle of up to 18 degrees from the vertical — in much the same way as a cyclist leans inward as he turns a corner.

This movement of the top half of the coach means that passengers are not swung outward by centrifugal force.

Plan Safeguards on Expressways

Steel Center Rails to Cut Head-On Crashes on Ford, Lodge Routes

LANSING (AP) — Steel beam center guard rails will be installed the length of the Ford and Lodge expressways in Detroit as a safety measure to prevent head-on collisions.

In addition, the State Highway Department announced that the 10-foot center strip on the expressways will be blacktopped to reduce maintenance problems.

Commissioner John C. Mackie said the work, affecting about 12 miles of expressway now in operation, will be undertaken soon at a cost of about $500,000, with federal aid funds meeting 90 per cent of expense.

Center guard rails on the expressway system now are limited to four segments approximating one mile in total length.

Mackie said the entire system deserved the same protection. He said he hoped a contract for the work could be let next month.

In a separate development, Mackie announced that at noon today temporary rerouting of traffic on the Detroit Industrial Expressway will be started at Belleville road to speed construction of a grade separation at the intersection.

He said the $500,000 new structure will eliminate the last traffic light on the expressway from downtown Detroit to a point west of Ann Arbor. Completion is expected next summer.

Old Wheel Still Spins Rug-Warp in Illinois

Mrs. Margaret Minyard, 83, says although her 150-year-old spinning wheel has long since served its purpose, she has used it for the past 33 years in her rug weaving business in her home.

Mrs. Minyard learned to spin woolen and cotton threads in her old kentucky home on the same wheel her grandfather hand-carved. It is serving the fourth generation of the family.

Soaring Mercury Leaves Japan's Populace Zany

TOKYO (INS) — If you want to join what may well set a record as the daffiest, zaniest, silliest of silly seasons — welcome to the land of the Rising Sun.

Things aren't supposed to happen this way in Japan, so they're blaming the heat for:

— The 14-year-old Hiroshima schoolboy who invited his teacher into an empty classroom after a scolding and knocked him cold with a punch to the midsection.

—The 37 soldiers in an engineer battalion of the Japan ground self-defense force who did what every GI dreams of doing — they resigned. Training was "too severe," they complained.

—The 33-year-old Tokyo woman who was insulted when neighbors called her religion — the fanatic Sokka Gakkai Sect — heretical. She salved her feelings by burning down their apartment house.

Maybe it's not the heat alone. In June Japan's beer-drinkers chug-a-lugged 20 million gallons of brew—almost a quart for every person in the country — and consumption ran higher in July.

But persistent 90-degree temperatures and humidity that can melt the crease out of a marine captain's starched blouse in 30 seconds must contribute to the balmy doings.

A Hokkaido mastermind wants to scrap the ubiquitous school blackboard for a "whiteboard," of all things. Says his brainchild, by using washable ink and w. ter colors, will eliminate throat-clogging chalk dust.

SUBMARINE BUS

A local gadgeteer is laboring furiously on a 72-passenger submarine bus, designed to travel under 13 feet of water. Trouble is he won't have it finished by the end of the summer.

Elsewhere the heat was producing strange results.

In a Shikoku municipal court, the magistrates solemnly enjoined female employes from wearing blouses that were sleeveless, ventilated or in any way abbreviated. Cool, said the bench, but a trifle distracting.

The ladies protested loudly, and before they were done the magistrates also had to outlaw shorts and aloha shirts for the men.

"Look at us," the jurists protested feebly. "We have to wear these black robes — summer and winter."

Glenna Swan of Menominee road and Jeanne Killoran of Berkshire drive are attending summer school at the University of Hawaii, combining vacation with studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Donaldson of Ferndale avenue have had as their houseguests Mrs. Vernon Donaldson and daughter, Suellen, of Seattle, Wash., for the past two months.

During this time several luncheons were given, the most recent one being held Monday afternoon by Mrs. Cecil McCallum of Dwight avenue.

Among others who have entertained are Mrs. Robert Neinstedt, Mrs. Lucius Howlett, Mrs. Fred Hayes, Mrs. H. Edwin Scott, Mrs. Dawson Baer, Mrs. William Maddock, Mrs. Clarence Smith and Mrs. James Clark.

Mrs. Russell Barrett, Mrs. Caroll Best and Mrs. Edna Winglemire, all of Holly, also entertained.

Mrs. R. Sanford Craft Jr., Mrs. William Beattie, Mrs. Helen Decker, Mrs. J. A. Hubbard and Mrs. Wilma Dickinson were other hostesses.

Mrs. Donaldson and her daughter left by plane Tuesday to return home.

Try Tricks to Update Wardrobe

PARIS (INS)—You can have a painless and quick "new look" regardless of whether you resemble a "spindle" or "dove", or if you are "hippy" or catlike, as the '57 silhouette demands.

Put a double row of buttons on your single-breasted coat. Add a high fur—premerable fox—collar and wear it with gloves and shoes to match the fabric shade.

KERCHIEF COLLAR

Remove the collar of your suit and replace it by a stripe or triangle of the suit fabric with fringed ends worn kerchief or scarf fashion. Wear the suit with a hat of the suit fabric or of fur that covers all your hair.

Wear your three-fifth or three-quarter-length leather jacket with a loose belt sitting on the hips.

Open the side-seams on your straight dress 2 inches between waist and hips on each side. Slot through a belt "robe fashion" so it runs hidden inside at the back but visible outside on the front of the dress.

A LONG SWEATER

Wear your pleated skirt over a long sweater, which you pull out of the waistband just enough to blouse down to the hip bones. Wear any V-necked sweater back to front.

If none of these tricks is practicable on your clothes, open the hem seams and turn them up to 16 or—if your legs are that good—17 inches from the floor.

Tiny Liza Doing Well

Todd Credits 9 Doctors for Saving Liz's Daughter

NEW YORK (AP) — Showman Mike Todd says nine doctors deserve bows for a "miraculous" job in the delivery of a premature baby to his wife Elizabeth Taylor.

A 4-pound, 14-ounce daughter was born to the beautiful brunette film star through Caesarean section yesterday at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center. The baby was due in October.

The hospital reported today that the mother and the baby, who was in an incubator, were both "doing well."

Todd said Dr. Virginia Apgar "worked over the baby for 14 minutes before she hollered." Dr. Apgar is a resuscitation specialist. She breathed life into the tiny infant.

LONGEST MINUTES

"Those were the longest 14 minutes of my life," said Todd.

He issued this statement: "Liz and I are very grateful we got what we wanted most, but really the hard way. It was a miracle, thanks to the extraordinary medical genius of the lineup assembled by Dr. Dana Atchley, that this has come off.

"Mother and baby are doing well considering the precarious state of Liz in the last two weeks.

"After a series of conferences starting yesterday (Monday), it was decided at 9 a.m. by Dr. Anthony DeSopo, obstetrician; Dr. E. M. Papper, anesthetist; Dr. William Silverman, pediatrician; and Dr. John Laragh, diagnostician, after consultation with Dr. Frank Stinchfield, who performed the final operation which was a complete success, and Dr. Lester Mount and Dr. Carmine Vicale, neurologists, to perform a Caesarean at 12 noon.

"Every doctor is pleased with the result and Liz and I are eternally grateful for the miraculous job they have all done."

The baby was named Elizabeth (Liza) Frances Todd.

PREMATURE PAINS

Miss Taylor, 24, was in the hospital two days last week for what were thought to be premature labor pains. She was released but returned again Saturday.

The actress is the mother of two sons from her marriage to British actor Michael Wilding. She and Todd were married last Feb. 2.

Member Welcomed

Mrs. Sarkis Schnorkian was received as a new member of the Woman's Literary Club Monday when the group met at the West Iroquois road home of Mrs. Dale Moats. Nine members were present. Mrs. Harry Baker presided at the tea table.

Wins Fame With 21,719 Freckles

But Lovely Swede Still Isn't Pleased About Her Spots

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — This is the story of Freckles with the titian hair, who used to be told that she got her tan through a tea strainer.

"Some of them are too big to have gone through a sieve though," said a Swedish dermatologist who took the pains of counting a total of 21,719 freckles, excepting Bikini areas.

"Statistics," he said, "are scant but it looks like a world record. Anyhow I doubt if so many freckles were ever combined with such beauty."

Harriet (Freckles) Asp is a slender, long-legged art student who hates freckles. Chances are she will make color-movie viewers love them.

The photographer who first spotted Freckles made 150 pictures of her in two days. It took Sweden's biggest movie makers, the SF Corp., no more than five minutes to give her a screen test.

Most of her 23 years, she lived under the impact of her brilliant colors.

"When I met my first boy friend," said Harriet, "I turned the inside of my arms towards him so he wouldn't see all those freckles.

"I scrubbed them with scouring powder. I wanted to peel myself like a potato. Sometimes I wished I were dead.

"I scratched off some of the larger ones on my nose. I hoped they would be gone when the scratches healed. But there they were again.

"I thought I might tan myself in the sun until I became one big freckle. But it only added thousands of new freckles and gave them all a darker shade.

"I prayed that a miracle would rid me of my freckles. I even thought of secluding myself from the outside world. I wanted to become a nun."

She's still not happy about them.

Nancy Ellen Walser became the bride of Robert Charles Holan Saturday in St. Michael Church. She is the daughter of the Egon F. Walsers, and the bridegroom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Holan.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT HOLAN

White gladiolii and pompons decorated the altar of St. Michael Church for the Saturday wedding of Nancy Ellen Walser to Robert Charles Holan of North Paddock street.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Egon F. Walser of Myrtle avenue. Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Holan of Cleveland, Ohio, are the bridegroom's parents.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of Italian silk taffeta and Chantilly-type lace. The modified Sabrina neckline was cut into the laced bodice top which was decorated with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The bouffant skirt of silk taffeta ended in a chapel train.

A veil of imported French illusion fell from a headpiece of lace trimmed with seed pearls. The bride carried a cathedral bouquet of Frenched carnations and stephanotis.

Catherine Walser served her sister as maid of honor. The attendants were Mrs. A. D. Ostrander, Rita Flicker and Cheryl Holan, a sister of the bridegroom.

The attendants were gowned alike in flocked aqua nylon fashioned with scooped necklines outlined by appliques of lace petals, and featuring fitted basque waistlines. They carried white organdy parasols. The honor maid carried aqua feathered carnations on her parasol, and the attendants' flowers were aqua and white feathered carnations.

FLOWER MAID

Joanne Ostrander was the flower maid. She wore a gown of white organdy over aqua taffeta. Her headpiece was of aqua and white feathered carnations and net puffs.

John Alfes served the bridegroom as best man. Seating the guests were Stanley King of Toledo, Ohio, John Ostrander and Sidney Savage. The ringbearer was Kurt Benman III.

For the reception at the Bemis-Olsen Amvets Post, Mrs. Walser wore a beige Dupioni silk shantung dress with white accessories and a brown cymbidium orchid corsage.

MR. AND MRS. MARTIN J. KELLER

United in marriage Saturday at St. Vincent de Paul Church were Marlene Green and Martin J. Keller Jr. Marlene is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Green of Raeburn street. Martin's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Keller of Menominee road.

Marlene Green Becomes Bride in St. Vincent Rite

In an 11 a.m. Nuptial High Mass, Marlene Theresa Green and Martin J. Keller Jr. were united Saturday. The Rev. Thomas Marcero solemnized the marriage in the presence of 150 guests in St. Vincent de Paul Church.

Her illusion veil was secured by a scalloped crown of seed pearls and sequins. The bridal bouquet was composed of white roses surrounded by white stephanotis on a white prayerbook.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Green of Raeburn street. Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Keller of Menominee road are Martin's parents.

Bridesmaid Mary Keller, sister of the bridegroom, wore an identical dress in blue. Yvonne Green, sister of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid wearing an identical dress in flesh color. They carried white roses centered on purses made by the bride of material to match the dresses.

ASSIST BRIDEGROOM

John Keller, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Joe Keller, brother of the bridegroom, and James Spring.

Mrs. Green wore a beige lace sheath with beige and white accessories, and a yellow rose corsage.

When the couple left for a trip to northern Michigan, the bride was wearing a beige sheath with brown and white accessories and the roses from her bridal bouquet. Upon returning, the newlyweds will reside on Eckman street, Herrington Hills.

Wash Dishwasher

Dishwashers clean your dishes. Occasionally you need to clean the dishwasher. At least once a month wipe out the interior with a damp cloth. Also leave it open occasionally for complete drying and airing.

Acknowledge Cards

If on a birthday or anniversary you receive cards from friends who remember the date, be sure to write each a note of thanks. Whenever anyone goes to the trouble of sending a message of good wishes or congratulations an answer is called for.

Bathtub Soak Relaxes Muscles

After a busy day, an all over soak in the bathtub will relax tired tingling muscles and perk up your whole body. And lots of sudsy lather will keep your skin soft and fresh.

Follow this procedure every day. Not only will your feet and body feel relaxed and refreshed, but the routine will pay dividends appearance-wise with a clear smooth complexion, clean sparkling skin.

Manners Showing

With an unmarried woman of middle age in the group a wife described another woman as being "an old maid." It wasn't kind to the absent one described. And it was downright rude from the point of view of the unmarried woman.

Beauty and the Beach

By Edythe McCulloch

Summer time and the liven' is easy . . . so the saying goes. But with sun and surf . . . it isn't always easy to look our best. Enough has been said about sunburn and the prevention . . . we will assume that you have found one of the excellent lotions on the market and are now trying to achieve the golden look of summer . . . without appearing dried up, flaky or with your hair burned to a crisp. First of all, cover your hair . . . it's fun too, with gay scarfs, beach hats or sport caps. Often 'neath the coverup you can use a few well placed curls with no one the wiser. Avoid the dried out look with an after swim application of lotion that gives a youthful gleam to your tanned legs and body. Above all use your make-up with a light touch for you'll hardly want to cover up your tan with a pasty look. Special attention to lips and eyebrows may be all you need.

Helen Tapscott Becomes Bride of Stephen Chop

Dixie Baptist Church was the setting for the wedding of Helen Tapscott to Stephen R. Chop of South Edith street at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William C. Tapscott of Ida terrace. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Doris Clemons of Sikeston, Mo.

Carolyn Tapscott served as the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Pat Shaul and Vivian Cornell. They all wore pink dresses and carried pink gladioli.

It's Silly to Say You're Too Busy

Take Time for Beauty and Health

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

We usually find time for what we want to do if we want to do it badly enough, unless we allow ourselves to become caught in the rut of daily routine and chronic fatigue.

Some of our most successful writers and artists have done their creative work under the most difficult circumstances. One of our best known novelists did her writing on the kitchen table after her children were tucked in bed each night.

Therefore, it is a little silly for us to say that we do not have time for a beauty and health regime. If you do not have time, it is because you do not take time. We certainly can organize our day so that we have time for skin care and exercise if we count them in on our day's schedule just as we do three meals a day.

Tens of thousands of women made a new start last January when they joined my eight-Week Self-Improvement Marathon to see how much they could improve themselves in eight weeks' time. I always have such wonderful letters from many of the women who dedicated themselves to self-improvement for eight weeks.

Each year I print a few of these letters in order to encourage those of you who want to improve but have so far procrastinated. Here is a recent one:

"Dear Mrs. Lowman: I want to thank you for giving me the incentive to lose 20 pounds. Many times I started a diet only to go off it and regain the lost pounds.

"After sending for your Marathon booklet I really got under way. Since I am not a writer I will let the figures speak for themselves. I began Feb. 4 and stopped April 1. Here are the figures:

BEFORE	....	....	....	AFTER
Bust—37 inches	.....			36 inches
Waist—30 inches	.....			28 inches
Abdomen—36½ inches				34 inches
Hips—42½ inches	.....			39 inches
Weight—155 pounds				135 pounds

"Not only did my clothes look so much better but the extra energy received was the best payment. I am watching my weight by weighing each Monday. If I find I have overeaten on the weekend I watch my diet during the following week.

"I checked with a doctor and he approved my dieting and suggested that I should weigh about 135 pounds.

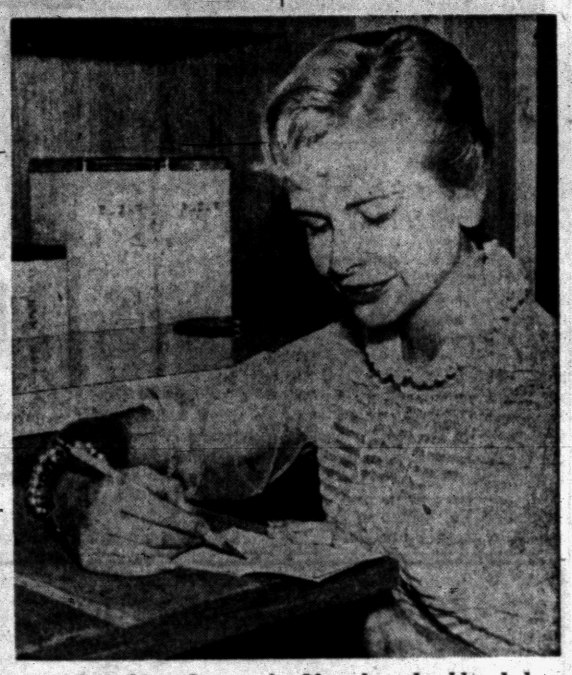

"Thank you again for the new me."

What this reader and many others did, you also can do. If you would like to have my Eight-Week Self-Improvement Marathon booklet, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

High Fashion Moving In on India's Mud Villages

Production of Handloom Cloth Zooms as Government Pushes Home Industry

NEW DELHI (AP)—Elusive secrets of high fashion are touching India's mud villages as the country expands foreign sales of handloom cloth.

Sophistication is the order of the day in foreign markets, a government spokesman says. Handloom weavers and craftsmen in mud huts must keep step with ever-changing fashions of foreign countries if exports continue to grow.

Weavers are banding into cooperatives, virtually forced there by government money.

Much interest in handloom fabrics has been created in the American market. A team of American experts recently toured India and emphasized quality cloth.

CHANGE IN FASHION

In the shifting world of fashion traditional designs have had, to a certain extent, to make room for new lines in patterns and designs, according to Indian government experts, who point out.

The government, pushing farther into the weaving industry as it is doing in most industries, is establishing weaving centers where artists will create designs to meet changing tastes. These designs will be furnished to weavers.

A center in Bombay is operating now and others will begin soon.

BUSINESS BOOMS

The Indian government plans to spend 590 million rupees (124 million U.S. dollars) to promote handloom weaving during the second five-year plan. Only co-op members will get shares of this.

Well over one million weavers are in cooperatives now, a shift of 400,000 into the program in three and one-half years.

Exports to the U.S., United Kingdom, Ceylon, Malaya, and the Sudan totaled close to 60 million yards over the 1955 figure.

Air Linens in Dryer

If those wedding bells are ringing for you, chances are you're removing a stockpile of linens from your hope chest. To banish musty storage odors, air such towels and linens in an automatic dryer. Allow articles to tumble freely in the dryer for about five minutes . . . when removed, they'll smell wedding-present fresh again.

Beads, Pearls Carry Out Fall 1-Color Theme

Dyed-to-match or to blend is fashion's color story for fall. Jewelers will carry out the one-color theme in beads, crystals and pearls, all designed to underscore and accent the tone-on-tone look.

In a dramatic interplay of tonal variations on one color are multi-stranded "pearl tone" bibs, subtly tinted from pale to intense shades and all color-keyed to the costume they accent. These are the perfect fill-in for the wide-open neckline, in costume colors such as opera sapphire, Paris ruby, Spanish topaz, black diamond, star emerald and Italian amethyst.

About 29 cents of each dollar paid for an automobile goes for taxes.

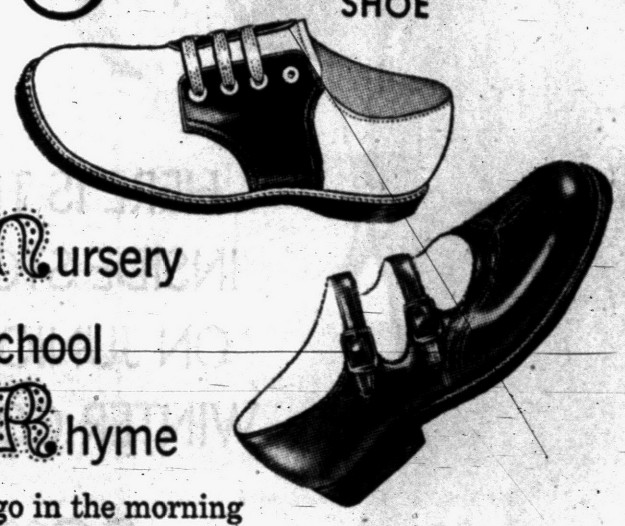

Suds Hair Ribbons

Hair ribbons need to be sudsed often to remove hair oil and finger soil. After rinsing, pull the ribbin underneath a medium hot iron, keeping the iron stationary on the board.

Walk When Tired

Desk work leaves many women tense and tired. During the work day, get up and walk around about once an hour. No one is too busy to do this. Chances are you were sitting in a cramped position and your muscles need to be stretched.

After inventing the roller printing press, Benjamin Franklin said (15 years later) that he was retiring because he wanted "leisure to read."

Give Baby Tub Toy

Bathing is more fun for baby when there is something to play with. A bright colored rubber boat is a good tub toy. Baby may chew on it or float it around. Swish the boat through hot soap or detergent suds to wash away soil from the used bath water.

The only locomotive in history which operated in all 48 states is the diesel engine which pulled the Freedom Train on its coast to coast tour.

Try Cologne Rinse

An aura of freshness follows a shampoo. Your hair also can have a faint fragrance. A few drops of cologne or toilet water in the final rinsing adds a pleasant, but not overpowering, scent.

Roy Beatties Mark 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beattie of Willard street were honored at a surprise open house in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon.

The affair was given by their sons, Frank and Kenneth, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford, at the Crawford home in Rochester. One-hundred guests were present for the lawn party.

One-half the homes in the U.S. are 30 or more years old.

New Jayne Puts Face, Mind First

By JOAN HANAUER

NEW YORK (INS) — Jayne Mansfield wants fans to notice her big blue eyes even if she has to cover up her curves to be sure they do.

The bosomy blonde's last movie, "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?", plays up her giggle and wiggle to the last twitch and squeal. But Miss Mansfield announced today:

"High necklines, that's what I'm wearing now. I want to depend on my face, my emotions, my eyes, my ability as an actress, my feelings from inside."

BOXY JACKET

To prove her point, Miss Mansfield met this reporter in a boxy Chinese jacket, worn over tight black satin trousers. The costume displayed her 40-18-35 shape as something sexy but not sexsational.

Her voice was soft and refined, and beside her on the coffee table were books by William Thackeray and John O'Hara.

"I used constant publicity and cheesecake pictures to get my foot in the door," Miss Mansfield said, seriously. "Now I want to do serious drama and comedy. I don't have to uncover to have people notice me at this point.

"I want to project my face and that should be enough. A woman has as much sex appeal in her face as in her bosom. And sex appeal isn't everything. It suits only a very small audience."

"I want people to look at my face first. I'm not teasing — I'm serious about this. I want to play to women as well as men. I want women to like me, to be on my side."

STUDYING, READING

In her attempt to feature her face and play down her figure, Miss Mansfield is currently studying, reading — and wearing high necklines. She threatens to cover herself from neck to toe and turn her dazzling blonde hair dark if necessary.

"Even now," she said, "I get as much mail from women as from men. They tell me they admire the sweetness that comes across the screen and they want to know how to look like me, what do I eat, and things like that.

"I tell them to get eight hours sleep. That's most important, and I know because I never get that much anymore. I watch my diet, I don't drink, I eat wholesomely — fresh fruits and vegetables, fruit juices, nothing fried. You are what you eat.

"You should think wholesome thoughts and have a wonderful outlook on life. Live every second like it's the last. Think what you can do to make others happy. I sound like a Pollyanna, but there's a lot to it. You should think each situation out systematically and scientifically."

With this the "new" Jayne Mansfield sat down on the floor next to her brand new, 4-week-old miniature dachshund and proceeded to spoon feed her. The dog was lying on Jayne's pink fox furpiece.

Edith Stenson, owner

Hunt for New Career Methodically

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"I'm in a job that I hate. But I have to work so hard and long at it that I never have a chance to find out what kind of job I would like.

"What can you do when you're caught in a vicious circle like that?"

CAN'T AFFORD RISK

The letter comes from a girl in her mid-20s, who helps support her mother and can't afford to take chances.

In going over her situation, we found that the trouble wasn't because her hours were so long, but because her work was boring. She came home at night exhausted from the tedium of the job.

That's the biggest trouble with a job you hate. It exhausts you so much that you have no energy left for getting out of it!

But once you realize this, you can make yourself do something about it, for you know that exhaustion will vanish once you get your mind on something interesting.

BEGIN A CAMPAIGN

This girl and others with a similar problem will have to resolve to begin a campaign.

The first step is to dedicate a three-month period to your vocational talent hunt.

You'll have to give up most social engagements, movies and such. But it won't be for long — and it will be more than worth it!

Begin by taking some good vocational tests. It will cost a little money, but it will help you eliminate the areas that are wrong for you and uncover some that are worth investigating.

If you want the name of a good vocational tester in your community, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and I'll give it to you.

SERIOUS READING

Second, take the areas that look interesting to you—either from the tests or from your own real interest—and do some serious reading about them.

If personnel, advertising and industrial relations, for example, seem of interest, get to your public library and get some books about those fields. Your librarian may make suggestions that will be of great help to you.

The more you read about a field, the quicker you will know whether it is for you or not.

Third, check your local classified phone book and see if there are people in your town engaged in the work that interests you. If so, write them a polite letter asking if you could talk with them about it.

JUST INFORMATION

Successful people are usually willing to talk with others who are really interested in their field. Make it clear that you don't want a job—you just want information.

Fourth, check your clubs or local organizations and see if you can do volunteer work for them along the lines of your interest. This will give you a further chance to know the field.

This combination of tests, reading, talking with experts and doing volunteer work will help you get sufficient grounding in the new field to know whether or not you like it and, if you do, to get a job in it.

Tufted Rugs Washable

Tufted bedspreads, tufted scatter rugs and bath sets, which are becoming increasingly important in the home fashion picture, have the added advatage of being simple to launder at home. Here are some washing tips.

2-Use only a natural detergent.

3-Test the water until the temperature is not hogher than 90 degrees for dark colors, 105 degrees for pastels.

4-Rugs up to 4' x 6' can be laundered in home washing machines.

5-Never rub or wring tufted rugs or spreads. Shake them once or twice while drying to fluff the tufting.

6-Whenever posible use a tumble dryer to restore original fluffiness to tufts, setting dryer at the lowest temperature if rug has a rubber latex back.

7-If no tumble dryer is available, spread tufted rugs in the shade to dry, fluffing the tufting by either brushing lightly with a stiff brush or using reversed airflow on a vacuum cleaner.

8-Fringes should be put in a pillow case before washing or tied together. Comb when damp.

Tufted spreads and rugs are stepping into the foreground to claim new honors through new developments in colors, styling fibers, fabrics, blends and finishes. Nylon, acetate, viscose, fiber E, Saran and Mylar join cotton in bringing new resilience, new sparkle, new color brightness, new decorator effects and new speed in drying to tufting and backgrounds.

Carol Louise Johanson and Robert L. Fredicksen were married Saturday in Ascension Lutheran Chucrh. Parents of the bride are Mr. qnd Mrs. William Johanson of East Beverly avenue. Robert's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Karl Fredicksen of Gage street.

MR. AND MRS. R. L. FREDICKSEN

Carol Louise Johanson became the bride of Robert L. Fredicksen Saturday evening at 7 o'clock in a ceremony performed by the Rev. William L. LaFountain in Ascension Lutheran Church.

Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Johanson of East Beverly avenue. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Karl Fredicksen of Gage street.

For her wedding the bride chose a sheath gown of white peau de soie featuring a rolled Sabrina neckline extending to the center back. Streamers from a flat bow centered in the back extended about halfway down the skirt.

Her seed pearl tiara was worn with a tiny nose veil of French illusion, and she carried a hand bouquet of white carnations and pink tea roses.

The newlyweds left for a northern Michigan honeymooon.

No. 8127 with Patt-o-Rama included is in sizes 8, 10, 12, 14, 16 years. Size 10, 4⅛ yards of 35-inch.

Raisin Loaf Has Topping of Cinnamon

By JANET ODELL

Your family will sing your praises to the skies if you make this delicious raisin coffee cake for them. The recipe makes four or five loaves so that you can take some to the neighbors or put the extra loaves in your deep freeze.

The recipe, says Mrs. Melvin Goldman, is an old New England one that her mother-in-law passed on to her. The Goldmans have four children. Mrs. Goldman works part time as a nurse.

RAISIN COFFEE CAKE
By Mrs. Melvin Goldman

2 packages dry yeast
¾ cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
¼ pound margarine
2 cups milk
2 eggs
Sugar and cinnamon
Raisins
7 cups sifted flour

Have all ingredients at room temperature. Heat milk to lukewarm. Add a spoonful of sugar and the yeast to one cup of the milk and stir to dissolve. Add salt and sugar to flour and cut in margarine.

Stir yeast mixture into flour mixture, add rest of milk and eggs. Beat well, then knead on a floured board until dough is elastic. Use only enough extra flour to keep hands from sticking.

Place in greased bowl and let rise one hour or until dough has doubled. Knead well again and let rise a second hour. Cut dough into 4-5 portions and roll each into a rectangle.

Brush with melted butter, sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon and raisins. Roll like a jelly roll and place in greased bread pans. Sprinkle tops with additional sugar and cinnamon.

If desired, jelly and coconut or sliced apples may be put inside dough before rolling.

Let rise for 45 minutes. Bake 30 minutes in 350-degree oven. Remove from pan as soon as coffee cakes are done.

Glaze May Wear

Glazed finish on a fabric means that it's been given a shiny appearance. Some wear off after the first sudsing and others last a long time. To be sure of a good glazed finish, look for a label that reads "permanent."

College Gal Needs Flats in Variety

Flats will get a high grade with the college girl again this year. But it's no longer good form to go steady with just one pair.

Today a girl likes to have a variety of flats at her beck and call—enough to match the costume, the occasion and the mood.

Bermuda shorts and knee socks still require loafers. But while they may be the brown ones with crossed-over straps just like the college man's, they may also be plainer, unstrapped moccasins in a color to match the shorts. Many girls' flats also have elasticized toplines.

In loafers and other flats, softness is the distinguishing feature that sets them apart from last year's. Their trim leather soles and their soft leather uppers are often so flexible the whole shoe can be rolled up into a ball in the hand.

TWO VERSIONS

There are two main ideas in flats. One is the plain, soft, moccasin version in the same color as the skirt and stocking above it.

This all-of-a-piece way of dressing has a way of drawing attention to a well-fashioned ankle. Even the most flexible moccasins have resilient leather soles—a boon on hikes.

But flats may also be quite dressy with spectator-type perforations, tiny laced weskits, self bows of leather and inserts of contrasting leather texture or color.

Don't Offer Food to Comfort Child

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Frank's mother pushed a supporting pole under her line of wet laundry and went down to the cellar for more. When she returned, Frank had shinnied halfway up the pole and was hanging from it upside down like the sloth in his alphabet book.

Then the line broke. Frank fell—and with him his mother's row of just-washed sheets.

She punished him. In his room she spanked him as hard as she could. Then she slammed the door on his howls because she wanted so to howl herself. she couldn't stand the noise of his.

Luckily, the fallen sheets weren't a total loss. When she'd fixed the line, she turned the hose on them. As the water sprayed them clean, anger at Frank began to subside.

She thought, "After all, at this age, they all climb everything. I wish we could afford a jungle gym in the yard . . . "

When she'd finished hanging up all her wash, she called Frank down and gave him a plate of ice cream.

I hope she doesn't make a habit of this.

NO FAIR SUBSTITUTE

To a hurt child, ice cream is not a fair substitute for an expression of affectionate feeling. It would have been more nourishing to say to frank, "I've been thinking about what you did. I understand now that you climbed up the laundry pole not to ruin my laundry but to show me how well you can climb."

It is not wise to depend on food to comfort a hurt child.

Psychiatrist Hilde Bruch is noted for her research into the causes of obesity in children. In her recently published book, "The Importance of Overweight," she writes, "Quite often food has been offered by the mother as a substitute for love and emotional satisfaction."

If we insert food into Frank whenever he feels hurt or discouraged, he begins to equate comfort with food. As he's hungry for a non-material intake of our respect and confidence, it can't feed him.

But with no experience in true comfort, he seeks the only kind he's known. And begins to develop a morbid, unending craving for food that leads to overweight.

May Guest Raid Icebox for Snack?

Visitor Isn't Free to Forage Without Host's Permission

BY EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: When invited to spend several days with friends, does a guest have the privilege of going to the icebox for a snack or a cold drink whenever he (or she) feels like it? I would very much like to have your opinion on this."

Answer: Very definitely not! A guest is not free to forage in the icebox or take any other similar liberties unless the hostess gives him (or she) permission to do so.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please let me know the correct way to answer the telephone in a business office? Among a group of us there are two opinions. One is that a man should identify himself as 'Mr. So and So speaking' and the other opinion, which happens to be my own, is that the one answering the telephone should say, 'Jones speaking.'

"Also, in the case of the person making the call — should he say, 'This is Mr. Jones of General Manufacturing Co.' or 'This is Jones, etc.' Whatever the rule may be, is it applied to men and women alike?

"One person in the group contends that an executive phoning a subordinate can say 'Mr. Jones speaking,' but that one clerk phoning another, or a clerk phoning a superior, should say 'Jones speaking.' We will appreciate your assistance in deciding this discussion."

Answer: In business, a man of subordinate position sends word to an executive (or a young man would say to an elder), "This is John Doe of General Manufacturing Co." An executive says, "This is Mr. Doe." Any man telephoning a woman on business must say, "This is Mr. Doe of . . . . "

"Dear Mr. Post: In a dining room where dinner music is played by an orchestra throughout dinner, is it proper to applaud at the end of a musical selection?"

Answer: It is not customary to applaud subdued music which accompanies dinner.

Wear Casual Chiffon

In silk chiffon dresses, the newest have a pattern of "worsted suiting" and can be worn before lunchtime without giving an over-dressed look. White and black pin-checks or white and navy-blue stripes are the latest Paris pattern for chiffon dresses in casual shirt-waist styles.

Practical minded French and American women will go in for synthetic fabrics with the silk-chiffon look and touch.

Hurel in Paris makes dacron-chiffon, favored by designers in navy-blue for elegant afternoon dresses and matching coats. Its American equivalent is nylon-chiffon

When it comes down to the real McCoy — pure silk for the silken look — women can decide on plain shades or prints in new Summer color pallet. Plain silk in surah, shirting, shantung, chiffon or crepe weaves look newest in beige, dark turquoise and navy-blue for daytime and all the pastel shades for evening.

3-Point Job Good Plan in Packing

The job of packing for a journey is a three - point maneuver — plan, reconnoiter, and attack.

1. The Planning Stage:

Decide what type and amount of clothing you will need, taking into consideration the manner of travel, the weather, and your probable activities.

Make a written list. This is valuable in keeping clothes for similar needs together, and also to be sure nothing is missed in the packing and re-packing operations.

2. Reconnoiter:

Get out your luggage and give it a thorough check before starting to pack. Be sure handles and latches are secure and the inside is clean.

3. Attack:

Start packing with heavy bulky items, putting them in first so they will be on the bottom and toward the back of the suitcase.

Roll up soft articles such as underwear, sweaters, hosiery, and fill in around the bulky pieces.

Skirts, dresses and suits form the top layer of the bag. Lay skirts lengthwise, keeping pleats straight or gathers in soft folds, and use tissue paper between folds.

Fasten all buttons on dresses, place skirt of dress in first, smooth it out and put a layer of tissue paper on top of it, then fold the waist back across the skirt with the sleeves folded parallel to sides of the bag.

For a jacket, button it, also, and place it front down across the width of the suitcase, tucking in the collar at the back of the case. Pick up the sleeves at the backseam, letting them fold themselves and lay them the length of the jacket. Fold up the bottom of the jacket, with the fold at the waistline.

For men's trousers, fold together lengthwise and place the top in first, then fold the legs back over the waist, using a piece of cardboard at the fold to reduce wrinkling.

Color Combinations Enlarge Wardrobe

The correct and tasteful use of color is a most important part of dressing right.

Occasionally, the use of unusual or off-beat color schemes provides a welcome relief from the standa combinations worn. Making use of a wider range of color combinations can create the illusion of a larger wardrobe besides helping you lead a more "colorful" life.

Initiation Conducted

Mrs. Lloyd Leach was initiated into the Defending Circle of the Women of the Moose Monday evening. The class was in honor of the new College of Regents leader Mrs. F. B. Huston. Mrs. William Sharp was Mooseheart alumni committee chairman.

Bengals Dream of 2nd, Wallow in 6th

Key Detroit Players Fail

DETROIT (AP)—A series of dismal failures by key performers has turned the Detroit Tigers' second place dream into a sixth place nightmare.

The club's fourth straight defeat —matching its longest losing streak of the season — was administered last night by the Clevelend Indians, 5-1. It dropped the Tigers to sixth place, a game out of fourth and five and one-half out of third place.

"I've seen the day when one or two players went a whole season without hitting," said exasperate manager Jack Tighe, "but I'll swear I've never seen a time when nobody hits. And I mean nobody is hitting on this club. We had nine chances to score in this game and what did we do? Get eight hits and one run. That's something."

It's not likely that Tighes' major league managerial career with the Tigers will end after just one season. He can't be expected to hit for the Kuenns, the Kalines, the Tuttles and Boones—and he can't pitch for fellows like Bill Hoeft and Frank Lary. These two won 41 games between them a year ago and their combined record now is 7-21.

The argument that the Tigers—and most everyone else — were "oversold" on the club during the winter looms bigger each day as a reality. Barring a total collapse by the second-place Chicago White Sox and a startling surge by the Tigers, second place—that's where the experts had the Tigers spotted before the season began—appears out of the question.

And Boston, in third place, has a 5½ game bulge over Detroit. So to wind up in the first division the Tigers must beat down the challenges of Cleveland and Baltimore and these two teams—like the Tigers—have been running hot and cold most of the season.

If southpaw Herb Score returns in shape for the Indians that could be a big factor in determining a first division spot.

At this stage of the campaign, the argument that—despite their in-and-out performances the Tigers are much better off than at this time a year ago—is vanishing, too. A year ago the club owned a 48-55 record and was in fifth place, 19 games off the pace.

The Tigers now have a 50-53 record and are 19 games behind the league - leading Yankees. Last night's loss dropped the Bengals three games under the .500 mark for the first time since May 2.

Tag Tiger Mound Ace With 4th Defeat; Hoeft Gets Call Today

DETROIT (AP) —Jim Bunning has given up 16 home huns in the last five weeks and manager Jack Tighe says the lanky righthander obviously is "getting tired."

The ace of the Detroit Tiger pitching staff yielded three tremendous clouts in last night's 5-1 loss to the Cleveland Indians.

"Bunning pitched last summer, then pitched all winter in the Cuban winter league," said Tighe. "We figured he'd get tired sooner or later after all that work and it looks like that's just what has happened."

The 25-year-old Bunning leads the staff in the "gopher ball" department with 23 home runs against him—seven more than Frank Lary has allowed.

"He's lost just a fraction of his 'stuff' and that's just enough to make the ball good enough to hit out of the park," said Tighe. "and he's got good control now, and he's always around the plate with the ball—so that makes it all the easier."

Tighe said the club can't afford to give Bunning much extra rest since the Tigers are struggling in sixth place at the moment. "We've been giving him four days' rest," he said, "and there's not much else to do."

Bunning, who now has a 13-4 record, was touched for only seven home runs in the first two and one-half months of the campaign. Although he has continued to pile up victories since then, his record in the home run department has taken a sharp turn for the worse.

Last night's home runs were by rookie Roger Maris, his 11th that came with a man aboard in the second inning; by Gene Woodling and ex-Tiger Vic Wertz back-to-back in the sixth. It was No. 11 for Woodling and No. 18 for Wertz, who has driven in 75 runs for the Indians.

"Who traded that guy from Detroit?" Tighe wanted to know. "He kills us in this park. We sure could use those 75 runs he's batted in."

Lefty Bill Hoeft was to oppose the Indians' Early Wynn today in the second game of three-game series.

Crawford Could Be 'Cup Prayer' Answer

SOUTH ORANGE, N. J. (AP)—Crew-cut Chris Crawford, 18, loomed today as the possible answer to the United States Davis Cup prayers. Maybe not this year or next, but in three to five years this 6-3 stringbean may be "big man."

This was the hope, anyway, at the Eastern Grass Court championships where the Piedmont, Calif., boy kayoed U.S. Davis Cupper Sam Giammalva yesterday, 6-3, 7-5.

deVicenzo Tops 'World' Field

Littler Good Bet, Too, for $101,200 Tourney Starting Tomorrow

CHICAGO (AP)—Golfdom's biggest pressure tournament, the $101,200 World at Tam O'Shanter, opens tomorrow with an aggregation of professional golfers only that amount of money could lure.

They will be aiming for the No. 1 prize of $50,000 with an additional $50,000 for the winner for a year-long series of exhibitions.

Top man on the list is Roberto de Vicenzo, Mexico City pro who won the All-American tournament over the weekend. De Vicenzo shot a snappy 273, 15 under par, for the 72 holes.

Can he repeat? De Vicenzo himself has said shooting for $3,500 and for $50,000 makes a big difference. Yet it is the same course and the same number of holes.

Another good bet is Gene Littler who blazed across the final 18 in the All-American with a record tying 63 to finish four strokes behind de Vicenzo. And always considered the man to beat, Sammy Snead, may just be finding the range at Tam.

THE POWERHOUSE

By JIMMY POWERS

Snap judgment, lack of adequate planning and a complete breakdown of supervisory powers may ruin major league baseball as we know it today. The Braves moved to Milwaukee in an overnight decision made while the team was in training in Florida. The moves of the Browns and the Athletics were slightly more deliberate. The Giants and Dodgers have been contemplating desertion of their home cities for more than a year.

Apparently owners vote impulsively . . . "Lou Perrini is a great guy, let him go." . . . "Bill Veeck is a nasty man who puts on circus stunts to fill ball parks . . ." and so on. The human element, past friendships, inside cliques, all combine to give the public a picture of indecision, lack of scientific exploratory methods and absolutely no leadership from league presidents.

Already the Giants are in trouble. No one took the trouble to estimate properly the cost of installation for toll TV. The figures, when released, were so staggering political leaders in San Francisco were dismayed. Belatedly it was announced franchise moves were not contingent on TV-toll income. This was the reverse of earlier releases.

Now the temper of the California fans is perceived in their sports columns. There is great rivalry between San Francisco and Los Angeles all right, but it is a sound business rivalry.

PATCHWORK CLUB IS NOT WANTED

Recently San Francisco sport pages mirrored feelings of the majority of thinking fans . . . "We don't want a patchwork second-division ball club while our neighbor to the South gets a pennant contender. We are a big enough town to bring in a really big league operation," one columnist wrote.

Giants Get Frisco Offer

Coast Shifts Get Closer

NEW YORK (AP)— The proposed moves of the New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers to the West Coast were closer to reality today after three developments:

1. An engineer's report taken to mean a proposed new ball park for the Dodgers in Brooklyn would be economically unfeasible.

2. President Horace Stoneham's statement to stockholders it would be in the best interest of the Giants to move out of New York.

3. Mailing of a formal but as yet undisclosed offer by San Francisco to the Giants.

The engineer's report to a special mayor's committee said it would cost $21,480,000 to build a covered stadium on one proposed site in downtown Brooklyn and $20,730,000 on an alternate site.

In addition, the survey estimated complete rehabilitation of the area in Brooklyn would cost about 32 million dollars, nearly double the 30 million approved by the state legislature.

Walter O'Malley, Dodgers' president, refused comment on the engineer's report but in most sections it was agreed that the estimated cost would rule out any new Brooklyn park for the Dodgers, who have approval to move to Los Angeles if and when they request it.

Stoneham, who said two weeks ago 1957 would be Giants' last season in the Polo Grounds, met with club stockholders for two hours in Jersey City, N. J. Afterward, Edgar Feeley, chairman of the meeting, said Stoneham made no recommendations but flatly told the stockholders it would be in their best interests if the club were moved.

Feeley said Stoneham would meet with his board of directors soon, presumably to present San Francisco's offer and to make his recommendations.

Stewart 'in Bad' With Net Powers

NEW YORK (AP)—The U. S. Lawn Tennis Assn. has suspended Hugh Stewart of Pasadena, Calif., and ordered him home from a European tour for insubordination.

In announcing the action against the 11th ranking U. S. amateur chairman Harold Lebair of the international play committee said yesterday:

Succeeds Dick Dewey

'Easy' Ed Speedway Boss

Pontiac Press Photo

AT SPEEDWAY — New manager of the Pontiac Speedway is Easy Ed Jones who was named yesterday to succeed Dick Dewey. Jones is a former racer and ex-president of the Michigan Modified Association.

"Easy" Ed Jones, well known in auto racing circles, was named yesterday as the track manager of the Pontiac Speedway.

He succeeds Dick Dewey who resigned the post a week ago. Jones, a local auto dealer, started racing in 1939 and in 1948 he was elected as the first president of the Michigan modified association.

Currently a resident of Drayton Plains, Jones lived in Utica for nine years and was instrumental in starting the track in Mt. Clemens in 1951.

Jones started in the racing business at the age of 12 in New Baltimore, Michigan with his older brother who was a renowned sprint car driver.

He has not raced since 1955. Jones said he hopes to continue with Sunday evening racing and said he would like to make the necessary repairs at the track with the hope of bringing the top racers to the Pontiac Speedway.

Cubs' Rush Shakes Redbirds, 8-2

Cardinals Jolted From Top Perch

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bob Rush and Ron Kline, a pair of righthanders with the National League's cellar chums, don't win very often. But when they do it sure raises hob with the pennant contenders.

Neither had won in two months, but when they got the job done last night the race had a new leader and its biggest gap between first and fifth since June 2.

Rush, 31, the Chicago Cubs' veteran who hadn't won since June 2, gained a 2-12 record with a six-hitter that beat St. Louis 8-2 and ended the Cardinals five-day stay in first place. Milwaukee's Braves moved back into the lead by a half game with a 5-4 victory over Cincinnati.

Kline, now 3-15 with Pittsburgh, junked the Pirates' losing streak at eight games with his first victory since June 9, tossing a five-hitter that beat Philadelphia 5-3 and pushed the fifth place Phillies 6½ games behind.

Third place Brooklyn fell three games back, losing 5-0 to the New York Giants as rookie Curt Barclay gained his first shutout with a five-hitter.

In the American League, the New York Yankees jumped to their largest lead yet, picking up a seven-game bulge as Bob Turley blanked Washington 4-0 on four singles. Kansas City socked the second place Chicago White Sox 3-2. Baltimore won its fifth in a row and took over fifth place with a 2-1 decision over third place Boston.

Rush, who only beats the leader had lost six in a row since defeating Cincinnati, then in first place. His 12 losses rank behind only Kline's 15 and the 14 hung on Philadelphia's Robin Roberts.

The onetime Cub ace had this one in the bag early. The seventh place Bruins rapped Sad Sam Jones for two runs in the first on Walt Moryn's sacrifice fly and a wild pitch. Jones, now 9-5, left in the seventh when three Cub runs made it 6-1. Bob Speake, who drove in three runs, and Cal Neeman homered for the Cubs while Stan Musial hit his 25th for the Cards.

Warren Spahn won his 11th for the Braves, who had only five hits but had a pair of unearned runs to stand off a two-run Cincinnati ninth. Hal Jeffcoat lost it, giving up three runs in the sixth on two walks and doubles by Wes Covington and Bob Hazle. Don Hoak and Frank Robinson hit solo homers for the fourth place Redlegs, who have lost nine of 11 to the Braves and trail by five games.

Bicmar Moves Into Finals; CIO, Franklin Follow Suit

It seems hard to believe, but the two finalists in Class A City Soft ball League playoffs were the tail-enders during the regular season.

Bicmar Inn, which finished next to the basement in the final standings, takes on cellar-dwelling Stadium Inn Thursday night at Beaudette Park for the city Class A crown.

Bicmar gained its berth in the finals of this topsy-turvy double-elimination tournament by scoring a convincing 9-2 victory over Elks No. 810 last night.

The form sheet also took a beating in the Class B playoffs when CIO Local 653 eliminated National loop champion Richard's Tavern, 6-4, to move into the finals opposite Louie's Tavern.

Only in the Class C tourney did the results follow the expected pattern. And even there Franklin Products had to come from behind for a 5-4 extra-inning triumph over Deni's Corner to reach the finals against Pontiac Police.

Bicmar ousted the Elks in a hurry with six runs in the 1st inning. The CIO made all of its tallies in the last 2 innings—four in the 5th and two in the 6th—to upset Richard's. Franklin scored once in the 8th for its squeaker over Deni's.

Louie's and the CIO tangle in the 'B' finals tonight at North Side at 7 o'clock. The 'C' finals match Franklin and Police on the Beaudette diamond at the same time. If 2nd games are necessary, they will be played immediately following the openers.

Coach Is Still Missing

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (INS) — Police in five states have launched a check of motels and other stopping places along the route between Gettysburg, Pa., and Cambridge for a clue to the disappearance of John M. Yovicsin, new football coach at Harvard University.

The 38-year-old coach has been unreported since he left Gettysburg Sunday to drive to Cambridge. His wife, Betty, asked state police in Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Massachusetts to look for him after she telephoned Harvard and discovered he had not arrived.

Mrs. Yovicsin said she wasn't really worried about her husband's failure to arrive in Cambridge at first but that she couldn't understand what has delayed him two days on a normal 10-hour drive. She added:

"I telephoned John because there was something I wanted to talk to him about and was surprised to find he hadn't reached Cambridge."

"He had no appointments or scheduled meetings to keep so I think he probably stopped somewhere to eat and got talking football with someone. Once he starts talking football, he never stops," she concluded.

Griff's Sews Up 3rd Place

Grill 9 Thumps Thomas, 8-4, in City Baseball; Playoffs Start Sunday

The stage was set for the annual City Baseball League playoffs today after Griff's Grill chalked up an 8-4 verdict over Thomas Die & Stamping yesterday at Wisner Field.

Griff's win clinched 3rd place and automatically cancelled the two remaining make-up games scheduled today and tomorrow since neither will have any bearing on the final standings.

League champion Shaw's Jewelers, CIO Local 594, Griff's and the Pontiac Jets will take part in the Class A tournament, which gets under way Sunday afternoon.

The Grill club battered pitcher Rocky Forton for 10 hits yesterday, including doubles by Ken Stanick, Bill Graham and Jim Berg and a triple by Marv Caswell. Griff's took a 2-0 lead in the 2nd inning and iced the decision with a four-run 4th.

Don Bren, DeWayne Sheffer and Jim Jones divided mound chores for the winners, with Bren getting credit for the victory. Forton went the route for Thomas. It was Griff's 12th win in 20 starts.

Johnson Sets Record for His Home Course

Genial Jimmy was giving a lesson to Otto Lebold at the time. He was out in 33, home in 34.

Mrs. Marquardt Wins Weekly WDGA Event

Firing 42-39—81, two over par for the Oakland Hills women's total, Mrs. Harold (Rylma Strevel) Marquardt of Gowanie club yesterday won the weekly Women's District tourney at the Hills. She outscored a field of 99 others by six strokes. The Hills' layout is the longest the WDGA faces in its summer district tours.

Helen Grinnell, DGC, was runnerup at 87.

New A's Pilot Wants Hustle

Craft Promises More Victories at Kansas City

Boudreau Offered Job in Front Office by Owner Johnson

CHICAGO (AP) — Harry Craft, Kansas City's new manager, put the Athletics on the winning track last night and promised more victories if "the boys continue to hustle."

Craft, former Cincinnati outfielder, yesterday was named manager, succeeding Lou Boudreau. Several hours later, the A's defeated the Chicago White Sox 3-2, behind the pitching of Alex Kellner and reliever Virgil Trucks and home runs by Woody Held and Billy Martin, a couple of ex-New York Yankees.

"All I ask of the boys is hustle for the two or two and a half hours it takes to play a game," said Craft. "They were running them out tonight and played good ball. If they keep it up, we'll win our share of games."

Arnold Johnson, owner of the team, said "it's all up to Craft whether he remains as club manager after the 1957 season. It stands to reason that if a man gives a good showing, he'll be around another year.

"I remember Harry when he was with Cincinnati," continued Johnson. "He impressed me as a player who never gave up. I have found this to be true since he has been a coach. He'll give the club a definite lift as manager. He has the baseball know-how. He is a very determined individual and there is no doubt in my mind that he will succeed."

Boudreau has a job waiting for him with the A's. He "has been offered certain responsibilities and duties in the Athletic front office" according to Johnson. Boudreau recommended Craft for the job, Johnson added.

Johnson said he has business on the West Coast for about a week and when he returns he expects Boudreau to reach a decision on the Athletic front office job.

Lions Expect Big Things

'Hoppy' Will Do Okay

One of the most publicized rookies ever to come into the national football league, red-haired Howard (Hopalong) Cassady didn't score a touchdown in his freshman year with the Detroit Lions in 1956.

For that reason, everybody wanted to know "what's wrong with Cassady?"

"Nothing's wrong with him," said Buddy Parker, who must have been asked that question hundreds of times. "Just because he didn't score people thought he was having a bad year. Actually, we felt Hoppy had a wonderful year. He did a great job for us and he'll do even better in the future."

If Cassady had been a disappointment to the Lions, if they had felt he wasn't worth the estimated $28,000 they invested in him for a two-year contract, there were several good opportunities to trade him to another National Football League Club.

The two-time All-America halfback from Ohio State was second only to Gene Gedman in yards gained, with 413 yards in 97 attempts. He averaged 4.3 yards per carry, a very commendable showing in any league.

"Cassady was one of the most unlucky players I've ever seen," said Parker. "Several times during the season it looked like he would go for long gains, possibly even for touchdown runs, when he got tripped up by a shoestring tackle."

Parker explained that because the Lions had several other successful running backs—Gedman, Leon Hart, Bill Bowman and Don McIlhenny — Cassady was overlooked.

"I was far from disappointed," said Parker. "Hop's a real hardnose — he's not afraid of anything or anybody. He can run inside because he's tough, and he can run outside because he's so fast. He can catch passes and he's a tremendous blocker even though he weighs only 180 pounds."

Statistics show that Cassady caught nine pases for 88 yards and led the team in punt and kickoff returns.

Unpopular Decision

Umps Target for Missiles

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Wally Vanderhoof, a third base umpire who called a runner out at first after the first base umpire had called him safe, was the target of stones and weighted drinking cups by Richmond baseball fans last night.

The incident happened in the second game of an International League doubleheader between Montreal and Richmond.

Richmond had Len Johnston on first and none out in the sixth. The batter lined out and Johnston, trying to get back, was called safe by first base umpire Cal Drummond. However, Vanderhoof — crossing the diamond from third—called him out and Vanderhoof's decision stood.

Order was not restored until an announcement that the game would be forfeited. Montreal won 4-1.

Police 9 Ousts Keego BC, 3-0

The Pontiac Police hurdled its last obstacle to the city Class D junior baseball title yesterday by shutting out the Keego Harbor Boys Club, 3-0, behind the three-hit pitching of Terry Zellhart.

It was the Policemen's 2nd straight win over Keego in the best-of-three series and earned them a berth in the 'D' finals against Cranbrook. The Police and Cranbrook begin their best-of-three playoff Thursday at Jaycee Park.

Bill Hayward clouted a solo home run for the Policemen in the 6th inning and Chuck McIrath made two of their seven hits.

In Class E yesterday, Jerry Wilmont hurled a five-hitter and slammed a 6th-inning homer to pace Clarkston's 4-3 conquest of the Boys Club while Lytell-Colegrove bowed to Oxford, 4-1.

Clarkston outslugged Stewart-Glenn, 14-7, and the Boys Club blanked Tel-Huron, 8-0, on Darryl Thorpe's six-hit pitching, in Class F. In the Widget playoffs, Ricky Lyons hurled a no-hitter as LeBaran blanked Hawthorne, 10-0, andWashington eliminated Wever, 10-2.

Webb After Revenge in Tilt With Joseph

The 10-round bout will be televised nationally over ABC at 9 p.m. EST.

Webb, ranked No. 6 by the National Boxing Assn., will be out to avenge his defeat at the hands of Joseph June 18.

New Course Laid Out for Orion Boat Races

A new course for inboard powerboats taking part in Sunday's events at Lake Orion has been laid out. It includes a turn around the west end of Park Island as well as over the former combined course between Park Island and Squaw Island. Outboards will still use the old course, off the north side of Park Island. Lake Orion Boat Club is sponsor.

Sailing events take place in the morning, with the power races starting at 1 p.m. Three classes will compete in both outboard and inboard races. There will be an exhibition run by high-powered hydroplanes.

READY TO RIDE — The Lions are expecting big things from Howard "Hopalong" Cassady this year. The former Ohio State star failed to score last year, but coach Buddy Parker sees a big year for him this season.

Two Alouettes Hurt

MONTREAL (AP)—Halfback Joel Wells and end Doug McNichol were admitted to the hospital last night with knee injuries suffered in Montreal Alouette's 32-20 victory over Saskatchewan Roughriders. Wells, a first-year man from Clemson, injured his knee when he stumbled and fell in the fourth quarter.

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—One first place and a fifth place gave Robert Huggins, Oakland, Calif., sole possession of first place in the Crosby qualifying trials of the national snipe boat championship yesterday. Huggins, who had been locked in first with two others, has garnered 6,017 points.

'Y' Course in Lifesaving Offered Starting Sept. 4

The Pontiac YMCA will offer a course in Lifesaving and Water Safety beginning Sept. 4 and ending Dec. 11.

The course will consist of 15 class periods, each one an hour and a half long. Satisfactory completion will certify the student as a National YMCA Lifesaver.

Any person who can pass the preliminary requirements may enroll. The minimum age is 12 years old.

In order to be certified, each student must pass the following tests:

1—Standing front dive;
2—Running front dive;
3—Continuous 440-yard swim, employing six different strokes;
4—Underwater swimming;
5—Treading water for one minute.

Persons desiring certification from the American Red Cross or seeking to work toward the Boy Scouts of America merit badge in lifesaving should make the necessary arrangements with the YMCA swimming director prior to the 1st class period.

The fee for the course is $1.50, payable on or before the 1st day of class.

Registration may be made in person at the 'Y' or by telephone (FE 5-6116). Late entries will be accepted on opening night, but no one will be allowed to enter the course after the 1st class period.

Boxer to Quit Hospital

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP)—Boxer Bobby Courchesne, 22, was due to be released from Springfield Hospital today. The Holyoke ring veteran is recovering from a brain operation for a blood clot. The surgery was performed July 29.

Keiths Lead Baptist to Waterford Crown

Emmanuel Baptist rode to the Waterford League softball title Tuesday night on the arm of Harlan (Fat) Keith and the bat of the other Keith—"Skin."

"Fat" hurled a three-hit shutout and struck out 17 as Emmanuel shaded Gidley Electric, 1-0, at Drayton Plains. Brother "Skin" accounted for the game's only run in he 6th inning when he tripled and romped home on an error.

Lakeland Pharmacy wrapped up 2nd place with an 11-3 triumph over Drayton Drug. The winners collected 13 hits, including three singles and a two-run homer by Earl Lamberton. Norm Jennings pitched four-hit ball for Lakeland.

The Waterford loop playoffs begin tonight, with Welden - Thrifty meeting Gidley at 7 o'clock and Drayton facing White Brothers in the 8:30 nightcap. Baptist and Lake

Mosquitoes, Boats, Snakes!

All Three August Outdoor Subjects

BY JACK PATTERSON

It may be our imagination but this seems to be the worst year for mosquitoes that we can remember. They're been belaboring us since the first warm day of Spring without letup. Our weather surfaces consist more of mosquito bites than of us, if you get what we mean.

PATTERSON

They are a mean, powerful, insolent, venomous breed, these later-day mosquitoes. We hold large scale spraying of DDT largely responsible for the development of this master race of mosquitoes. Only the fittest survive and they promptly become the progenitors of a hardy (and DDT proof) line of descendents. Spraying directly aids the mosquito tribe, too, by liquidating most of its natural enemies. Like high taxes and early closing hours, however, spraying seems to have become part of our like.

Of the modern repellents, "Off" seems to work best if one doesn't mind smelling like a javanese beauty shop. Whether it will work on new mosquito models remains to be seen.

Readers are probably getting tired of reading about motor boats on local lakes, but not half so tired as lake residents are of putting up with the problems they create. One problem, not compounded of recklessness or illegal operation, but just a result of numbers is the churning up of bottom silt by boat propellors.

When "Snakes Alive" Allen recently allowed himself to be bitten by a massasauga rattler for the benefit to TViewers, he dramatically illustrated the two major points to remember about this common Michigan snake.

Point one: He is not a dangerous snake in the sense that his bite will cause human fatality. At least there is no record that it ever has.

Point two: The visible results of Paul Allen's experiment clearly indicate that the massasauga's bite can cause enough discomfort to discourage any notion on the part of the outdoor public that the snake is harmless.

Incidentally, this is another good year for rattlers, just as year before last was. The smakes normally breed every two years which is probably why we notice an annual fluctuation.

This is the season when the massasauga is apt to forsake his lowland home and roam the higher meadows and brushlands. In the north he's more apt to be in the jackpines above the streams than in the damp stuff alongside.

Mostly nocturnal at this time of year, the massasauga is not commonly seen even where he is abundant. He does seem to show a preference for close-cropped cabin lawns after dark, which may give somebody ideas about rambling around camp barefoot after sundown.

He isn't any more interested in biting you than you are in biting him, but if you step on him in the dark expect retaliation.

No Change Seen in Duck Season

LANSING — No major changes in waterfowl hunting seasons are expected in Michigan this year, if basic federal regulations are the same as in 1956.

The state conservation commission will establish Michigan seasons and bag limits this month, after the federal framework is announced Aug. 12.

Conservation department will recommend that the commission authorize department director Gerald E. Eddy to request "the maximum season, bag limits and shooting hours allowed by federal regulations."

In the event the Fish and Wildlife Service offers the same season and bag limits as last year—70 days and four ducks in the daily bag, with the earliest opening Oct. 1—conservation department game and law enforcement workers recommend that Michigan make the same choice as last year.

Thiefels Takes Small-Gauge Title

Rattl(er)ing Good Battle

Bicyclist, 14, Kills Snake

A 14-year-old cyclist who sought an argument with a three and a half foot long Michigan rattler, came off the winner in a hectic bit of action the other day on Clintonville road. But Young Bernard McGuire, son of Henry McGuire, 7535 Clarkston road, isn't willing to repeat the "rattl(er)ing" battle very soon.

Bernard killed the snake, described as "big around as your wrist" after he ran over it with his bicycle. He first noticed a car, zig-zagging ahead of him, while hurrying home before his front tire became flat from a leak.

Then he saw the snake at the roadside, aimed at it and ran it down. His tire went flat, then, Bernard said, "whether from a snake-bite or from one of his ribs, I don't know."

A roadside stick, a handful of gravel and a small rock finally subdued the massasauga. After he was sure his reptilian foe was dead, McGuire cut off its tail. Later he and his dad returned and took the remains to a spot for "buryin' it deep," Bernard reported. The tail had four rattles and a button.

Rangers Hold Eleventh Show

Bob Brogeman MC for Aug. 11 Event; Expect About 200 Horses

Entries from many outstate communities are expected for the eleventh annual all-western horse show arranged by the Michigan Rangers Saddle Club. The 22-event performance takes place at the regular site of the show for many years, located on Davisburg road, two and one-half east of Davisburg.

Master of ceremonies (ringmaster) will be Bob Brogeman of Davisburg. Mrs. Jewell of Metamora will be chief judge. For any further information inquiries should be made of "Duke" by calling FE 2-4032.

Besides the western events there will be an all-breeds class parade class and others Show gets under way at 10 a.m. Ribbons and trophies go to the winners. Top individual award will be the high point title for both men and women.

OCSC Skeeter Wins Honor in National Shoot

Birmingham's 12-Year-Old Eddie Brown Is Sub-Junior Champ

(Special to Pontiac Press)

RENO, Nev.—Two Oakland County skeet shooters yesterday captured National Skeet Shooting association championships and another Michigander came through to nail a third title at Reno, Nev.

All three titles were in the small-gauge division of the big national tournament, which two years ago was held at the fine Oakland County Sportsmen's club skeet fields in Pontiac, Mich.

Robert (Bob) Thiefels, an active OCSC shotgunner, who won the national small gauge crown in a hot shootoff with All American Ben DiOrio of Los Angeles. Thiefels lives at 247 N. Chippewa, Pontiac.

Twelve-year-old Eddie Brown, the roly-poly Birmingham (Mich.) youngster, who has featured the last three NSSA sub-junior contests won the national title in his class, while Ken Sedlecky of Baldwin (Mich.) won the national junior title.

Thiefels shot 99x100 to tie Di Orio, then broke 25 straight in the title shootoff. Brown broke 100 straight for his title and Sedlecky broke 97x100.

Kathleen McGinn, Houston, Tex., won the women's junior title in a 24-25 shootoff with Lynn Rader, Bridgeport, Conn., and Ed Calhoun (Salisbury, Md.) and John Dalton (Chevy Chase, Md.) won the two-man title on a 50 straight shootoff.

BIGGEST BLUEGILL — They're going up! Sizes and weights of entries in the 18th annual Pontiac Press "big fish derby" are steadily moving upwards. Above is the latest leader — and it may not stand up too long — in the bluegill class. The fat 'gill, nearly a foot long and weighing one pound, one ounce, was taken on Loon Lake by Loren K. Wilson, 3432 Shimmons road, Pontiac.

27 Days Remain

'Fish Derby' On Final Lap

By H. GUY MOATS

Eighteenth annual Pontiac Press "big fish derby" has embarked on its final lap, leading to the big windup on Labor Day, Sept. 2.

There are exactly 26 days left in which eligible anglers (full-time residents of Oakland county) may enter fish taken from Oakland county waters by hook and line. But these entries will have to be good, — big and hefty — to displace current leaders in the "derby."

That there are still plenty "big ones" in all three contest divisions, is evidenced in the changes of the last week. Black bass division is the most active, with at least a dozen changes since the start of the "derby," culminating in last week's record largemouth. The present top fish in this class is a 7-pound-15¼-ounce lunker boated by Andy Simko of Rose Township.

Latest change in leaders is a one-pound-one-ounce bluegill taken from Loon Lake by Loren K. Wilson, 3432 Shimmons road, Pontiac. It was a little more than 11½ inches in length, 9⅛ in girth. Wilson took his fish on a small flatfish, running four feet beneath the surface, as the terminal of a spin outfit. The fish was Wilson's biggest bluegill, he reported. He was fishing with an uncle, Daniel Pifer of Waldron road.

Leave Wildlife Alone

Skunk Teaches a Lesson

A member of the family, which makes its home in Utica, wrote to the conservation department in order to obtain a permit to keep a baby skunk which was found near its dead mother on a highway.

"The skunk took care of the situation better than I could. It 'sprayed' all over a rug at the applicant's home. The family, no longer thinking it was 'a cute pet,' released the skunk in the woods."

The family was refunded its permit fee, but probably still has a fairly strong reminder of the skunk's short visit.

Learn Lake Depths

Big Aid in Finding Fish

ALL OUTDOORS (INS) — For the best fishing during "dog days" of August, knowing the depth of a lake will help you catch more fish than anything in the tackle box.

In Ontario, recent surveys on lakes where depths were measured with an electric echo sounder have shown that previous speculation by anglers and residents usually have been over-estimated. In some cases, by as much as 50 feet or more.

A thermometer is a great little gadget to have along too. Especially at this time of year when fish lay in certain depths of water because of temperature at those levels.

Knowing the depth of the lake, R. E. Whitfield, of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forest said, "an angler can guess pretty close to where the fish are — or should be."

Of course, the average fisherman could not afford to invest in the electrical equipment needed for this work Whitfield described.

Solunar Tables

With early fall fishing showing improvement, area anglers might improve their chances by consulting the solunar tables, for the coming week, as indicated below. Tables, prepared especially for this area by John Alden Knight, show the best periods for the sport.

Shotgun Title at Stake

Who is the best all-around shotgun shooter in Michigan or this part of the country?

That's a query the third annual Williams Gun Sight state shotgun championships hopes to settle this weekend at the company's fields at Davison. Shooters from Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Canada are expected.

Because of the nature of the tournament — a two day test beginning Saturday at 9 a.m. there has never been a perfect score in this event. It's doubtful if any one will ever score perfectly because each must compete in trap, skeet and on the bird field, shooting 25 targets on each field. A Lansing policeman holds top mark with 71 x 75 winning the 1956 title.

Owners Prep Dogs for Fall Running

Crawford Goes Upward Quickly

GOES A LONG WAY — Welterweight Mickey Crawford, who will meet Sammy Rodgers at Pontiac's Wisner Stadium next Tuesday night, has come a long way in the past six months. Once just a prelim on a fight card, Mickey is now a feature attraction.

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Time has really marched in a fast tempo for Mickey Crawford. Just five months ago Crawford was just another fighter on a preliminary card or some feature bout either in New York or Miami Beach.

Strangely enough, when Crawford scored a four-round decision over Tony Barazze in Miami Beach, February 14th, the feature bout saw Wallce (Bud) Smith lose his lightweight title to Joe Brown on a 11th round TKO.

Now, with 17 pro victories in 18 starts under his belt, including four 10-rounders over Paddy DeMarco, Smith, Al Kennedy and Pat Lowry, Crawford is aiming for two more summer outdoor fights and then a possible crack at one of the leading challengers to Carmen Basilio.

Rodgers goes into the Wisner ring with a phenominal amateur record. In winning 140 of 144 amateur fights, he made it quick on 112 occasions by scoring knockouts.

Since turning pro a year ago, Rodgers has won 21 of 27 fights. One of his losses was a 10-round decision to Kenny Lane, today the number one challenger to Joe Brown.

In his last venture in Saginaw, Crawford was given a physical beating by Toledo's Pat Lowry, but came back after two bad rounds to gain a close decision.

Lowry opened Crawford's nose in the second round, but the Saginaw scrapper showed he could come back and take a punishment to win.

It was rugged battle and a rematch would have been a crowd pleaser, but Crawford's manager Art Greenwald is now aiming at some of the fighters up high on the ladder.

Another fight will probably be staged in Saginaw and then Crawford will head East to St. Nicks for a TV bout.

Kid Gavilan, Isaac Logart or Vince Martinez are Greenwald's aims. A victory anywhere among this list of challengers could lead to Tony DeMarco and then Carmen Basilio.

A colorful card of former amateur champions is included in the prelims, headed by Golden Gloves heavyweight champion Osee Groom who will make his 5th pro start against Bill Pickett, former New York heavyweight champ.

Groom has kayoed three of his four opponents since turning pro. The Elvis Presley of boxing, Detroit's Ducky Dietz, heavyweight with black curly hair and long sideburns will face Hugh Rader of Dayton, Ohio, in a four rounder.

WISNER STADIUM CARD:

Heavyweights: Osee Groom (Detroit) vs. Bill Pickett (New York) — 4 rounds.

Lambeau Thinks Squad for Friday TV Tilt Is Good as '55 Team

CHICAGO (AP) — Coach Curly Lambeau believes his 1957 College All Stars are every bit as good as the 1955 team which trimmed Cleveland and they are capable of whipping the New York Giants Friday night.

The teams clash at Soldier Field. The game will be televised nationally over ABC at 8:30 a.m. EST.

Lambeau compared his present stars with the 1955 team which edged the Cleveland Browns 30-27 on a field goal by Ohio State's tiny Tad Weed.

"I think they're every bit as good as the 1955 team," said Lambeau. "They've shown me they are capable of beating the Giants.

"The 1955 team," he continued, "was very good and had a lot of spirit and was strong both on offense and defense."

Lambeau also coached the 1956 All Stars who lost to the Browns, 26-0.

Lining up a mass of great players is not enough to beat the professionals who hold a 14-7 edge in the series with two ties.

U.S. Steel Worker Finally Begins Try at Channel

CALAIS, France (AP) — Wearing the swimming trunks he considers lucky, a steel worker from Western Pennsylvania finally got off today on his attempt to swim the English Channel. Two earlier scheduled tries had been postponed.

Gustav Adolf Brickner, 45, of Charleroi, Pa., near Pittsburgh, plunged into the water at Cape Griz Nez at 5:12 a.m. (local time) wearing swimming trunks painted with flowers featuring white bear's claw.

He was headed for a spot somewhere near Dover on the British south coast.

Top Spot to Sandy Wells in Horse Show at Orion

Clarkston's clever young horsewoman, Sandy Wells rode off with top individual honors in the annual Lake Orion Rotary club's horse show at Kelley's area. Sunday's victory in the exciting finale, of Sunday a special event for winners in other timed events, gave her the big honor. She had previously won the speed and action open event. Sunday rides for the Michigan Pioneers club.

Competition was close in every event, with some 200 entries from the Pioneers, Huron Valley, Navajo club, Dixie Saddle club, Rouge Valley 4-H, Rochester Trailblazers, Marlette Saddle club and Rough Riders from Flint joining the Orion Saddle club.

Second place in overall standings went to Gene Hales who scored leads in the pick-up race and barrell bending and was second in the speed action (open). He is also a Pioneer. Carl Bower of the Pioneers who also won the flag race for entrants above 11, was third.

Calls Open-Sky Plan Signal Peace Move

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles today called the West's disarmament proposal possibly the most significant peace move in history. But he cautioned against overoptimism until the Soviet acceptance of the proposal in principle without carefully worked out details would be a pig in a poke, Dulles told a news conference.

He said he was confident Russia and the U. S. Senate, which must approve any treaty, would find the new proposal irrestible.

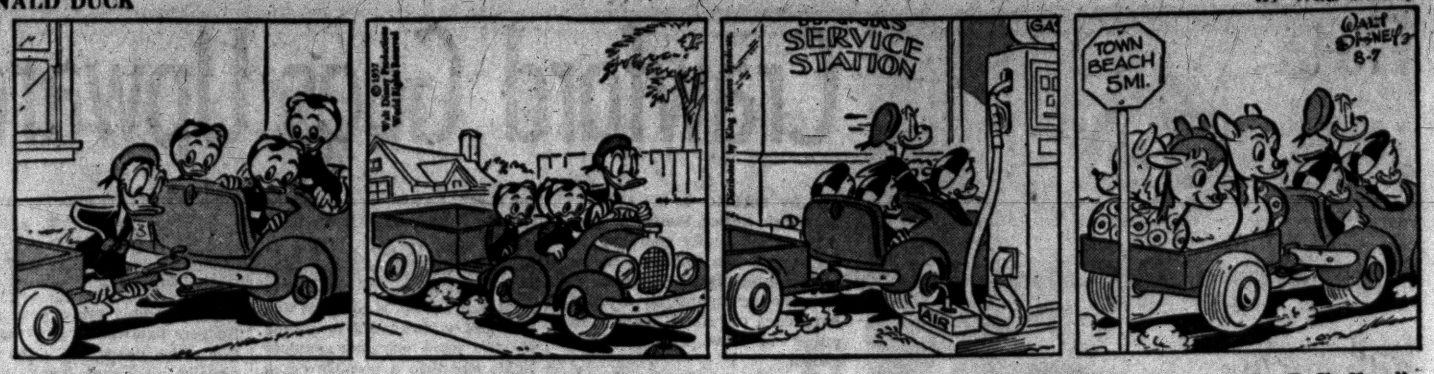

Dulles personally worked out the disarmament plan and presented it to Russia at London last week. The Soviets have taken it under advisement. It calls for opening vast areas to inspection.

Gals Kick Up Big Fuss at Leg-Glamor Idea

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Considerable mail has come into this office recently on the subject of women's legs, most of which (the mail — not, fortunately, the legs) is in the nature of kicking.

It seems that women particularly object to a columnar idea recently expressed, in which we suggested there be a revival of interest in limbs, and a decreased emphasis on other parts of the anatomy.

The theory was that more women have better limbs than other blessings, so why not give the ordinary girls a break and stop deifying the more opulent oddities among females?

"Well!" wrote a Midwest housewife, "I suppose you think you're smart, wanting girls to show their legs off, and sending them right to the devil. He likes legs. I say women don't wear enough right now and you writers and movie stars are always telling them to take off a little more and a little more.

"It's no wonder there are so many juvenile delinquents, with people like you and Jane Russell on this poor earth."

MISSED POINT

Flattered as I was at being put in the same trail of ink with Miss Russell, I had to concede that this woman, and a few dozen more, simply had not got the point.

I was recommending the noting, not nuding, of legs. And, to take Jane Russell off the hook right now, would like to add that she has been wrongly condemned in this regard. One would have to study her photos carefully to observe for certain that she had legs at all.

The reaction from the males was not the least bit violent. By and large, they approved the idea of idealizing the limb again.

Two gentlemen made it quite clear, in fact, that they were weary of being "assaulted" in the eyes by females whose claims to beauty are "as freakish, in their way, as the curious comeliness of the Ubangi tribeswoman."

A chiropodist, Dr. J. V. Cerney of Dayton, Ohio, suggested that in his professional dealings with feet, he has had, in a manner of speaking, a long-time connection with legs.

He agreed that women's limbs were their most consistent claim to attractiveness, but hinted that they may be wiser to underplay them. Either that, or learn to keep them (the legs) as well under camouflage as their faces.

"A woman may hide her figure with corseting, filter the gravel from her speech, and learn to keep her face from revealing her true emotions," wrote the doc, "but the reflex action of her legs is automatic to her feelings, and could give some very big secrets away."

He wrote that you can tell any woman's mood by watching her legs and feet in action. Timidity — knees stiff, heels and toes apart; recoil — forward foot extended, back knee bent; indifference — straight knees, feet apart; asking for male sympathy — weight on forward leg, backward foot coyly posed, toe out. And etc.

The leg to watch out for, however, is the one which is attached to a toe that is barely touching the ground — and appearing to paw at it slightly. This might be a woman's way of calling attention to a well-turned ankle.

Or then again, it might not.

Stock Market Rallies Quietly

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market, which has been headlining lower since the middle of July, put on a rally in quiet early trading today.

Key stocks were up fractions to around a point. Most divisions were higher, with airlines a major exception. Airline issues were down fractions to about a point after the Civil Aeronautics Board denied a request for an emergency boost in domestic passenger fares.

Ahead fractions to a point were Eastman Kodak, United Aircraft, U. S. Steel, Goodyear, and American Cyanamid.

Motors were ahead small fractions, and utilities were mostly unchanged.

Among the airlines, American dropped ⅞, United Airlines ¾, and Eastern ½.

Inflation Creeping Ahead

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government has approved freight rate increases ranging from four to seven per cent for the nation's railroads, effective after 15 days' notice to the public.

The new tariffs are expected to add 443 million dollars annually to freight costs, and will put freight charges about 107 per cent above the levels of June 1946.

NEW YORK (INS) — The Chase Manhattan and two other leading New York City banks announced today an increase in their prime interest rate to 4½ per cent. The boosts in the rate charged the biggest borrowers with the best credit rate following a similar action by the Bankers Trust Co. late yesterday.

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Civil Aeronautics Board today denied an immediate six per cent domestic passenger fare increase for seven of the 12 major airlines.

The board, by a four to one vote, with Vice Chairman Chan Gurney dissenting, ruled that emergency relief is "not justified." In the absence of board action, the request would have gone into effect Sept. 27. The seven airlines are Braniff, Capital, Delta, Eastern, Northwest, TWA and United.

Wheat Futures Demand Is Light

CHICAGO (AP) — Demand for wheat futures remained light today on the Board of Trade but prices held up fairly well early on buying by commission houses.

Soybeans dropped more than a cent and then came back slightly on buying attributed to export interests, although prices remained below the previous close most of the time.

Near the end of the first hour new style wheat was ⅛ to ¾ lower, Sept. $2.14⅞, corn was unchanged to ⅛ higher, Sept. $1.30⅝, oats were ⅛ to ⅜ lower, Sept. 64⅞, rye was unchanged to ½ lower, Sept. $1.33½, soybeans were one cent lower to ¼ higher, Sept. $2.45¾, and lard was unchanged to 13 cents a hundred pounds lower, Sept. $13.07.

Cox Pleads Not Guilty to Dairy Shortweighting

Acting on a complaint from a Waterford Township housewife, Michigan State Food Inspector James McCollum, along with Arnold Budzier of the Michigan Department of Agriculture's Dairying Division, visited the dairy and allegedly found shortweighting in the packaging of ice cream.

Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum set Aug. 14 as the trial date.

58 Pct. Dip in Earnings

DETROIT (AP) — The Fruehauf Trailer Co. today reported a decline of 58 per cent in its net earnings for the first six months this year as compared to last year.

Fruehauf said the decline was the result of reduced volume and intense competition.

The company said its net profit for the six months ended June 30 was $2,206,877 or 32 cents a share. This compared with $5,287,066 last year, or 93 cents a share.

News in Brief

A fire caused $50 damages to a garage at 18 Clark St. at 2:50 p.m. yesterday. The loss was covered by insurance.

Business Gains as Stamps Go

Companies Report Sales and Profits Improve; Service Also Better

NEW YORK — What happens when supermarket companies drop trading stamps? In most cases so far, sales have increased.

The question of whether customers would stop patronage of markets that discontinue trading stamp programs has been a leading one in merchandising since the craze began a few years ago.

To find the answer, Supermarket News checked the first 12 companies who have dropped this form of premium.

In almost all cases, the markets said they had increased both sales and profits as a result of the cange. Most replaced stamps with stronger promotion of low-prices, quality and service.

Only in Baltimore and Richmond did supermarkets report that their business suffered as a result. In Richmond, one company re-instituted stamps to halt its loss of volume.

A few of those who dropped stamps substituted premium plans based on cash-register tapes.

Trading stamps cost the retailers between 1½ and 3 per cent gross sales. In most cases, supermarket companies noted that they were forced by competition to maintain their prices on food and thus had to bear the full cost of their stamp programs.

$23,194 Okayed for Furnishings

Commission Authorizes Funds for City's New Public Safety Building

Included were $9,773 for desks, $1,330 for tables and $890 for cabinets, in a low bid submitted by Tisdale Office Machines Company, 460 W. Huron St.

Commissioners also authorized City Manager Walter K. Willman to spend up to $6,000 for inter-office communications equipment, $3,200 for kitchen facilities and $2,000 for miscellaneous items.

In other action, Oct. 6-12 was proclaimed Fire Prevention Week throughout the city.

A $14,746 payment was accepted from the Pontiac Housing Commission in lieu of 1957 taxes.

First hearings for two public assessment projects were set for Aug. 13. Special assessment roles for three other public improvement projects were accepted and the assessment roles on three more projects confirmed and payments set.

Steel Firm Still Idle, 'Lockout' Charged

DETROIT (AP) — Great Lakes Steel Corp. entered a fourth day of idleness as the union charged management with a "lockout" of 11,000 workers.

The United Steelworkers made the charge following a company statement yesterday that it would reopen its mills only when assured there would be no more "illegal strikes in violation of the contract."

The company's position was stated by its president, Paul W. Carnahan. At the same time a sign was posted at the gates stating the same position in substance.

RUSSIAN PARTY BOSSES MEET — Soviet party boss Nikita Khrushchev, right, is congratulated by East Germany party boss Walter Ulbricht, left, after he spoke on arrival in East Berlin today. Behind Khrushchev, in horn rimmed glasses, is Friedrich-Ebert, mayor of East Berlin. The Communist party boss will make a week-long visit of East Germany.

Nikita Arrives in Berlin; Hits Adenauer's Policy

By SEYMOUR TOPPING
AP Bureau Chief

BERLIN — Soviet commander boss Nikita Khrushchev arrived in East Berlin today for a tour of restive East Germany.

He promptly denounced the foreign policy of West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer as a "great danger" to world peace.

The Soviet leader made the statement during a massive welcoming ceremony at East Berlin's railway station.

Khrushchev, speaking just five weeks in advance of West German elections in which Adenauer faces a tough fight against the Socialists, told the welcoming rally:

"Unfortunately our peace efforts have not been supported by the ruling quarters of the West German Federal Republic.

"They counteract the interests of their nation without paying attention to the bad experiences of the past. They sow the poisoned seed of distrust against the Soviet Union and the whole Socialist camp.

"This is a great danger not only for our peoples but also to the cause world peace."

Khrushchev spoke a few minutes after an East German army band hailed him with the Prussian army presentation march—the military anthem played for Adolf Hitler and Kaiser Wilhelm II.

Khrushchev, heading a nine-man Moscow delegation, stepped onto the platform closely followed by Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan and Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

The Russian leader looked a trifle surprised as he was promptly grabbed in a bearhug by spade-beaded Walter Ulbricht, the Stalinist boss of East Germany.

Khrushchev, wearing a light suit and a flashy striped tie, was then bussed on both cheeks by East German Premier Otto Grotewohl.

He moved down a long line of Soviet bloc diplomats shaking hands, and then shouted with pleasure as he came to a young Russia Pioneer Youth girl, on hand to greet him with flowers.

In his speech, which was broadcast and televised, Khrushchev praised the East German regime and stressed the close ties between Moscow and East Berlin.

The Russians then took a special train to the station.

Thousands of Communist security guards lined the route. East Germany has seethed with anti-Communist student and worker agitation since last year's Hungarian uprising.

Missing this time was Khrushchev's usual traveling partner, Soviet Premier Bulganin. He stayed in Moscow, increasing Western speculation that his days as Premier may be numbered. Instead, Deputy Premier A. I. Mikoyan accompanied the party chief.

All signs pointed to a Russian gesture aimed at swaying West German voters. On Sept. 15 they elect a new Parliament and decide between Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, a staunch advocate of military alliance with the West, and Socialist opponents favoring greater neutrality in East-West politics.

BERLIN (INS) — A U.S. Army motor convoy, which was blocked by the Russians from traveling from West Berlin to West Germany Monday, went through the 110-mile Soviet Zone corridor today without further incident.

'Hairy Face Popped Up at My Window'

19 Monkeys Elude Police

NORTH WALES, Pa. (AP) — The last survivors of an army of wild monkeys, escapees from a biological laboratory, were still at large today.

The remnants of Platoon M, which numbered 49 at the start of the invasion, were gallantly holding out against superior forces. Their ranks were thinned by capture and death.

The clash between animals and humans started yesterday when the 49 Rhesus monkeys escaped from the Merck, Sharp and Dohme research laboratories and swarmed through this community of 3,000 in suburban Philadelphia.

It wasn't long before calls began to bombard the police:

"I was hanging out the wash when all of a sudden this monkey comes swinging down the clothes line and . . ."

"I was in the kitchen. I was washing the dishes when his hairy face pops up at the window. Scared? Why I almost dropped my best platter."

A posse of lab workers, police and 50 gleeful children joined the hunt. The laboratory employes wore heavy clothes and carried nets. Police carried rifles. The youngsters acted as "beaters" to scare the monkeys into the nets.

By today all but 19 had been accounted for.

Ten were recaptured and police shot 20 others. Those shot, a laboratory spokesman said, were high in trees and couldn't be taken alive.

The laboratory officials said the monkeys, recent arrivals from India, were to have been used in the production and testing of polio and influenza vaccines. He said none of the animals had been inoculated with any virus.

"They can't yet be considered domesticated," the spokesman said. "They are still in a wild state. We are afraid that they might bite or scratch somebody."

Laboratory officials were at loss to explain how the "army" escaped from their large wire-enclosed cage guarded by a system of double doors.

"Tomorrow — This could be You!"

City Boys' Club Offers Full-Year Program

This is the third in a series of articles on the problem of adequate youth recreation activities and facilities in Pontiac. Today, the Press relates in summary form, the Pontiac Boys' Club program and its leaders comments on the needs of recreation for local teens.

By SYLVIA DE STEIGER

The Boys' Club of Pontiac offers boys a place to go from 1 to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday in the summer and 3:30 to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays during the school year.

The modern single - story building, 530 E. Pike St., opened in 1951. It was built to handle 1,200 boys, not more than 300 at one time.

Today, almost bursting at the seams, the present membership is 1,400 and is expected to reach 2,000 by January, Michael L. Fiorillo, executive director predicts.

The club, financed through the United Fund, provides varsity and intramural baseball and basketball plus vocational guidance training and information on mechanical and electronic occupations.

Instructions in photography with the use of a dark room and furniture - making in the woodshop are available.

$1 YEARLY FEE

A large gym, with considerable athletic equipment and a library and snack bar are also at the disposal of any boy who pays his one dollar per year as a token fee.

Teenagers are divided into two age groups, 13 to 15 and 16 to 17 because of their natural division of likes and dislikes, Fiorillo explained. Each group has its own recreation room.

Although most of the activities are geared to boys, coeds are included occasionally.

Weekly dances were held last winter for five months with a night-club atmosphere. Live entertainers, some professionals, as well as recordings, provided the music.

Stag boys and girls were barred from these dances to prevent gang gatherings, Fiorillo explained. There was a gradual decline in attendance and interest which he said could be attributed largely to this barring, although he felt it was necessary.

This fall, the co-educational program will include a monthly open house, when the boys can bring dates to the club for the evening.

"If the boys decide they want more of this type of activity, we are here to advise and instruct. They make the suggestions and, if at all possible, we carry them out", Fiorillo explained.

He said the club was operating to full capacity with the four-man staff plus four part time adult leaders.

"We have purchased a 300 by 600 foot site on West Columbia Street with hopes of building another Boys' Club on the other side of town. We have the money to build, but not enough to maintain the necessary staff," he stated.

GIRLS NEED MORE

"The Girls' Club of America, similar to our organization, was chartered about 1951. There aren't any clubs in Michigan yet, but Alpena is now putting up two buildings, one for a boys club and one for the girls, with a connecting lobby," he noted.

"Teens 14 and 15 years old need some contact with each other to learn the necessary social graces and feel comfortable with the opposite sex", Fiorillo declared.

"It would be the responsibility of the city fathers to run and maintain a teen center, but people first have to start the ball rolling and back the ideas of improving youth recreation facilities even if they have to start by petitioning," Fiorello concluded.

An increase in emigration from Northern Ireland to Canada is expected in 1957, Belfast reports.

THE BERRYS By Carl Grubert

Rancher Still Holding Off Army

ALAMOGORDO, N. M. (AP) — Three deputy U.S. Marshals begin a second attempt today to evict 82-year-old John Prather from his 27,000 acre ranch in southern New Mexico.

The old man, who says he will die on the ranch he built 54 years ago, last night barricaded his house after federal officers returned here for a council of war.

Prather's daughter, Mrs. Hart Gabar, and her husband, of El Paso, Tex., last night journeyed to the ranch to talk to the old man.

The marshals, sent to the Otero County Ranch yesterday, returned to Alamogordo after having failed to carry out a government order to evict Prather.

The rancher has refused to leave the land which the Army has taken over for an extension to the huge McGregor firing range.

A writ of assistance ordering the rancher from the land was issued in U.S. District Court here yesterday. U.S. Marshal George Beach then ordered the three deputies to remove Prather from the land by force if necessary.

Prather told reporters the deputies arrived at his ranch home about 1:30 p.m. and caught him unarmed and away from his house.

Prather was still there.

The officers did not touch the rancher, who told them repeatedly they would have to kill him to make him move.

Prather has turned down an Army offer of $209,000 for his holdings.

He has also spurned an offer which would let him live out his life on the property if he would sign a lease agreeing that the land would go to the military upon his death.

"I'm staying here until hell freezes over," he said.

Stevenson Hits Choice of Gluck

Calls Appointment as Ambassador to Ceylon 'Cynical Payment'

NEW YORK (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson says the appointment of Maxwell H. Gluck as ambassador to Ceylon is "another example of the cynical payment of political debts at the expense of our friends and international respect."

The 1952 and 1956 Democratic presidential candidate also says that the Eisenhower administration has "done great damage to our diplomatic services from the outset."

Stevenson made the comment at a news conference yesterday, several hours after he arrived by plane from a three-month tour of Europe and Africa.

He went to the news conference with prepared statements on economic and political developments in Europe and Africa, civil rights in the United States, disarmament and the Gluck appointment.

President Eisenhower's appointment of Gluck was approved by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee after a hearing and later was confirmed by the Senate.

Gluck, head of a chain of dress stores, testified before the committee that he contributed between $20,000 and $30,000 to last year's Republican presidential campaign.

Eisehower has said that Gluck's contribution had nothing to do with his nomination as ambassador.

Gluck drew criticism at home and abroad after he displayed a lack of knowledge of some phases of Asian political affairs when questioned by the Senate committee. For instance, he said he was unfamiliar with the name of Ceylon's Prime Minister, Solomon Bandaranaike.

Reports Sharp Increase in Education Interest

NEW YORK (AP) — Interest in adult education courses of Jewish cultural and religious content has shown a sharp increase, Dr. Sydney B. Hoenig, director of Yeshiva University's Department of Adult Education, reports.

He said 72 synagogues in the United States and Canada have instituted programs in conjunction with Yeshiva's adult education department. The number of participating synagogues has more than doubled in the past year.

The Brazilian Island of Trinidad, about 750 miles east of the Brazilian coast, is still uninhabited. It was once claimed by the British, but they withdrew their claims when the Brazilian Government objected.

Conducted by Charles Duveen

Antique Collectors Offered Special Tour of Europe

NEW YORK — Antique collectors will have an opportunity to pursue their hobby this fall in a special tour of Europe being conducted by Charles Duveen, noted art dealer and lecturer.

The 15-day tour will leave New York's Idlewild Airport Sept. 20, and return to New York Oct. 6.

Complete cost of the tour is $995. The price includes all transportation, hotel accommodations, breakfasts and meals at the many special events, transfers, taxes and tips.

Wtih the knowing Mr. Duveen as guide, the group will poke into antique and art shops on the Via del Babuino in Rome, the Ponte Vecchio in Florence, the Flea Market in Paris, the Spiegelstraat in Amsterdam and Brompton Road in London.

He will offer his expert knowledge and experience as to what price to pay; authenticity and condition; where to find the bargains; and all of the questions that occur when a purchase is being contemplated.

Although the daytime hours will be devoted to antique hunting, Mr. Duveen points out, not all of the tour will be spent prowling through shops.

A reception for the group will be held at the villa of Bernard Berenson in Florence. Paris will offer luncheon at the famous Tour D'Argent and dinner and the show at the Lido night club.

Charles Duveen is a grandson of Sir Joseph Joel Duveen, founder of the Duveen art dynasty, and a nephew of the Lord Duveen of Millbank, who was responsible for bringing to America the finest of European art, much of which is now in the National Gallery in Washington.

He is also the son of Charles of London, the interior decorator and art dealer, whose clientele included Mellon, Frick, Rockefeller, Ford, Hearst and Kress.

Special assistance will be given to the sending home of purchases at reasonable costs by air and by sea. Special shipper's letter of instructions can be made out for collect shipments. This facilitates payment in U. S. currency to avoid involvement of foreign funds.

Information about the tour can be obtained through any authorized travel agent.

Waterford Area Building Down

Home Construction Has Decreased 50 Per Cent From Last Year

Home building in Waterford Township is down almost fifty per cent the first six months of this year, over the same period in 1956.

Two-hundred forty-six homes were built from Jan. 1, through June 30 this year with a value of $2,724,968. During the same period last year, there were 449 homes built at a value of $4,992,117.

Total number of homes, garages, commercial buildings and churches constructed was 637 this year and 793 last year. The value difference was almost two million dollars, according to reports in the township building department.

Rigid financial restrictions and high interest rates mainly account for the decrease, clerk James Seeterlin said.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR son & brother, Pvt. Robert F. Roberts, who passed away August 8, 1955.
Sadly missed, mother, brothers & sister.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY husband, Earl C. Kilman, who passed away one year ago today, August 7th, 1956.
So often as the days go by,
I like to think of you.
Remembering all the happy things,
We used to plan and do;
And every happy hour with you,
Will always be a part,
Of all the things I treasure most,
Deep down within my heart.
Sadly missed by his wife & family.

Variety Shows to Dominate Nighttime TV Next Season

Police Rookies Ready for Battle

500 Beef Up New York Force in Effort to Curb Juvenile Violence

NEW YORK (AP)—More than 500 student policemen marched out of classrooms and into hoodlum-haunted streets last night to join the war on juvenile crime.

The rookies pounded beats in the city's so-called hazard precincts where teen-age violence has exploded. They walked in pairs from 6 p.m. to midnight.

But the gray-clad patrolmen found little to make them reach for nightstick or pistol. The street gangs of young toughs had melted into the shadows.

"Very likely all the gangs are hiding," said a veteran police sergeant with the rookies. "All this publicity has frightened them off—for a while."

"Gang violence and the unlawful use of force will not be tolerated," said Kennedy. "It will be met by force, legally applied."

Gamble Leaves WJR

Shark in Phone Booth Story Smells Fishy

WEST LOOE, England (AP) — A woman complained to the telephone company yesterday that a shark was monopolizing the public phone booth near her house.

He found that the booth was indeed occupied by a shark—a five-footer well along in rigor mortis. Police speculated a visiting fisherman had mislaid it.

All 3 Networks Hunt for Talent

12 Such Programs Are Already Set, 2 Others Likely to Appear

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Tune up your zither, if you play one, and prepare to become a television guest star. The competition for talented guests for next season already is murderous.

It's the result of an interesting development in nighttime programming for the 1957-58 season. We've heard a lot about the "trends" toward Westerns and fairy tales and away from comedians and anthology dramatic shows.

But did you realize that there will be more regular weekly variety shows, basically dependent on professional guests and music, than any other type of program on the three networks?

At latest count 12 of these nighttime weekly programs are set for the season. Two others are virtually certain to appear on the home screen. And these don't include shows which seek the relatively unknown zither players such as Ted Mack's "Amateur Hour" and Lawrence Welk's new talent program. They don't include "Your Hit Parade" and the Arthur Godfrey show which does not generally go after the big names.

There will indeed be music on all channels at all hours.

NBC-TV leads the field in the number of musical variety shows with Perry Como, Steve Allen, Tennessee Ernie Ford, Gisele MacKenzie, Dinah Shore, and the combination of Eddie Fisher and George Gobel, plus two other weekly variety programs which are expected to be announced soon.

This could be a golden nugget of entertainment or it might be a stale egg. One can only conclude that this programming state of affairs can be a happy one for a prominent entertainer or even a moderately prominent entertainer.

In fact, an entertainer can lead a much more relaxed life and make almost as much money by playing guest spots instead of having his own regular program. And for a lesser known talent a big nighttime TV program provides an unexcelled showcase to bring his abilities before the public.

Famed Heads Sheared in Tiny Barber Shop

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—One of the great oddities of Our Amazing Town is Rudy the Barber's tiny two-chair shop where the TV celebrities let their hair down and take their shirts off.

I was just sliding into Rudy's chair when he said, "Wanta peel your shirt off?"

WILSON

"Why not?" I said. It was a very hot day. I got bare to the waist.

Perry Como, Jackie Gleason, Sid Caesar, Elvis Presley, Julius LaRosa, Jack Carter, Jan Murray and—until a few months ago—Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey have been Rudy Montera's regulars at his little hideaway.

"This isn't no barber shop, this is your home," Rudy explained. "Only barber shop with a hi-fi . . . I think."

Harry James started it all by bringing his whole band to Rudy's almost 20 years ago. He had seven chairs then.

"Some people'd say I took a step backwards, going to two chairs. I don't think so. I work by appointments—take only 10 customers a day. One pretty famous guy" (he mentioned a headline name) "pressured me to take him without an appointment but I couldn't.

"Now Perry Como, long as I've been cuttin' his hair, never asks me to."

Perry—his special favorite—may call and say: "Listen, Rude, I'm comin' in Monday to record. Afterward you're gonna stay late for me, O.K.?"

PERRY and RUDY

"I don't thing I'm gonna make it, Rudy," Jimmy said, soon after Tommy died. "I never knew how much I'd miss The Brother."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Marie McDonald posed for photog Dave Workman at the Steve Allen show and recalled the days she did his Police Gazette covers . . . George Gobel will make an album of his yodeling . . . The touring Follies is having trouble finding showgirls who'll travel . . . Steverino, the greyhound on the Steve Allen TV'er, will "come out" in canine society with a big party next week. (The pooch is insured with Lloyd's of London for $25,000).

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "The trouble with inferiority complexes is that the wrong people have them." That's earl, brother.

Dakota Indian Bears Her 7th Set of Twins

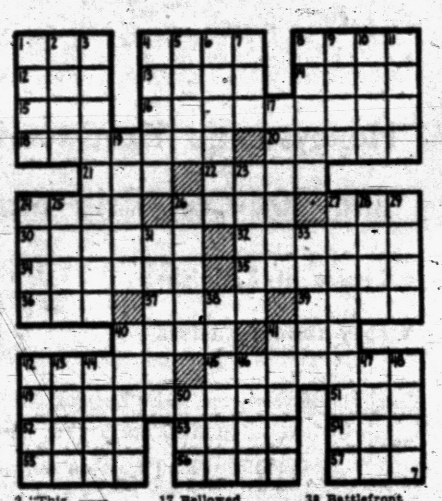

PINE RIDGE, S. D. (AP) — Mrs. Marcella Big Crow, 43, gave birth yesterday to the seventh set of twins born to her since 1943. Latest arrivals are a 6-pound, 12-ounce girl and 7-pound, 7-ounce boy, born nine minutes apart at the Indian Hospital. The father, James Big Crow, is a farm hand.

Mrs. Big Crow has had 18 children, including four single births. Three of the children died, including two born singly and one set of twins.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Dictator Promises More Police Action

HAVANA (AP)—President Fulgencio Batista last night promised a stepped-up police campaign against bombings and other acts of violence in restive Cuba.

Incensed over yesterday's bombing of a 5-and-10-cent store in downtown Havana, Batista declared in a statement it is the duty of all Cubans to act against the opponents of his regime and against those who shelter and support them.

Seven persons were injured in the five-and-dime blast, three of them seriously.

Bombings and sabotage also were reported in the prorebel center of Santiago de Cuba as many residents ignored a rebel call for a general strike and opened their places of business. Troops and police kept Santiago's transport system running.
