U.S. to Help Thailand Meet Threat by Reds

Will Step Up Aid
to Fight Subversion
Aimed at Take-Over

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials said today the United States is backing Thailand with stepped-up economic and military aid in intensified police action against Communist subversion.

U.S. Ambassador Graham Martin is here for consultations on Thai security problems.

Step-up clandestine Communist radio broadcasts the past two months have been calling for the establishment of a national liberation front and national patriotic front. But these efforts have not increased Communist capability to gain a foothold in Thailand, U.S. officials said.

The main significance of the clandestine broadcasts, which are traceable to transmitters in Laos, North Viet Nam and South China, is mainly in showing Communist plans for the area, sources said.

Nov. 1, a broadcast announced the establishment of a movement for the independence of Thailand. It called for the overthrow of the Thai government and alleged that the country was a "new-type colony" of the United States.

FRONT FORMED
Jan. 1, a so-called national patriotic front was formed, according to another clandestine radio broadcast. It also used the same phraseology of "new-type" colony as a description for Thailand and called for an uprising against the government.

The Thai government intensified police vigilance in the northeast province adjoining Laos and sent mobile civil action development units into the area.

U.S. officials take the view that these fronts exist more as a fiction on the radio than as actual fronts, but say the Communist activity is not being ignored.

U.S. military and economic aid to Thailand has been running at about $13-14 million a year. This will be stepped up, officials said, but they gave no figure.

Man's Thumb Saves 4 Lives

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Topside a hurricane was brewing.
On the ocean floor 193 feet below four men were in a 10-by-40-foot cylinder which could become their tomb unless they were rescued before the storm struck.

For seven hours, while an overloaded crane shook with the effort of trying to haul the underwater laboratory to the surface, no one knew whether they would make it.

The men were ordered to abandon the laboratory — their home for the previous 10 days — and move to a tiny, cramped compression chamber for the trip to the surface. Then, just as the chamber cleared the water, it sprang a leak. In minutes the four would die painfully of the "bends," unless the leak were plugged.

Chief Petty Officer Sanders Manning found the leak and plugged the hole with his thumb. Internal pressure, equal to that of the ocean at 200 feet, jammed his thumb in the hole like a cork in a bottle. The flesh gave with a spurt of blood but the bone held and the leak was stopped.

LIFTED TO SAFETY

Minutes later the chamber, dangling from the end of a wire rope, was lifted to safety—just in the nick of time. Technicians discovered a metal pin to which the rope was attached had been bent and almost sheared.

"We were holding our breath — those men were close to death," Navy Capt. G. F. Bond said yesterday in telling first details of an experiment called "Sea Lab I" off Bermuda in January 1964.

Bond told the winter convention on electronics the four men showed no ill effects from their long underwater adventure—except for Manning's bloody thumb.

Astronaut Scott Carpenter was to have been one of the four, Bond said, but he broke his arm in a preliminary dive and was replaced. Bond identified the others as Lt. Cmdr. Robert Thompson, Cpl. Robert A. Barter and Gunner Mate Lester Anderson.

FURTHER PLANS

Bond also disclosed plans for a more elaborate experiment with a 126x50-foot "Sea Lab II" to house teams of 10 men up to 30 days at a depth of 250 feet off La Jolla, Calif., this summer.

If this is successful the Navy plans to have "large numbers of men living and working indefinitely at depths up to 600 feet" within the next four years, Bond said.

Kosygin Urges a United Red Viet Nam

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin expressed strong Soviet support in Hanoi today for unification of Viet Nam under the North Vietnamese Communist regime. He attacked the U.S. role in South Viet Nam.

Speaking on his arrival in Hanoi at the head of a delegation that is expected to extend military aid to North Viet Nam, Kosygin called his visit "an important political action."

He hinted at an intention of trying during his four-day visit to detach North Viet Nam from its close adherence to Peking in the Soviet-Chinese dispute.

Cooperation between the Soviet Union and North Viet Nam is getting stronger and is "a worthy contribution to unity of the Socialist camp," Kosygin said.

Kosygin flew into Hanoi from Peking, where he had talks last night with Premier Chou En-lai.

RUSSIAN WELCOMED

Tass, the Soviet news agency, reported from Hanoi that thousands of persons welcomed Kosygin at the airport. His arrival speech was broadcast by Moscow radio.

He said his visit was an important political action for strengthening Moscow-Hanoi unity "in the struggle against imperialism."

Successes of North Viet Nam are "an inspiring example for the population of South Viet Nam against American and foreign interventionists and their puppets," Kosygin said. The crowd applauded.

Communist dispatches from Peking indicated Kosygin got a chilly reception from the Chinese hierarchy on his brief stopover. Tass, the Soviet news agency, said his story from the Red Chinese capital "a talk took place between the two sides" after a dinner given by Chou for Kosygin.

The communist on the meeting did not say what is often announced on such occasions: that the talks were held in a cordial and friendly atmosphere and that the two Red leaders reached a complete identity of views.

On the other hand, newspapers in Hanoi extended "warm greetings" today in banner headlines to the Soviet delegation whose visit to North Viet Nam indicates a Soviet challenge to Communist China's dominance in Southeast Asia.

No Survivors Spotted From Rescue Craft

Liner Down in Heart
of Andes; Flight Had Made Stop at Miami

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—A Chilean passenger plane with 82 persons aboard crashed in the Andes today and police said there were no signs of survivors.

A national police search plane reported from a spot near Lo Valdes, about 50 miles east of Santiago in the lofty mountains, that wreckage was spotted at an altitude of 11,700 feet.

The plane crashed and burned a few minutes after takeoff for Buenos Aires. The wreckage is scattered for about 600 feet, the police plane reported.

Seven passengers boarded the plane at Miami, Chilean Airlines said. The 75 passengers included a football team from the Chilean National Bank, which was to play against the Bank of Montevideo.

The plane was a DC6 of the Chilean National Airlines-LAN. Police said it carried 75 passengers and a crew of seven.

MOUNTAIN AREA

The crash occurred in the heart of the Andean range. The plane left Santiago at about 8 a.m. Its first stop three hours later was to have been Buenos Aires, then Montevideo, Uruguay.

According to the first reports the plane crashed and fire broke out immediately as it hit the side of a hill.

JCs' Junior Miss Pageant Enters Final Stages Tonight

A dream will come true tonight at Pontiac Northern High School.

A teen-age girl will be named Michigan Junior Miss.

The three-day pageant moves into its final stages tonight with the 25 high school seniors competing in the talent and evening gown phases of the contest.

The program, which is open to the public, will begin at 7:30 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door.

Six local girls are competing in the pageant. They are all local Junior Miss winners chosen in pageants in their own county.

Representing Oakland County will be Emilie Beaupre, Pontiac Junior Miss; Sandra Smalley, Clarkson; Janis Pierce, Farmington; Nancy Johnson, Lake Orion; Trudy McMartin, Milford; and Lynn Tarlton, Watford.

The winner of the contest will be presented a $1,000 scholarship, a movie camera, a ten-piece wardrobe and several other merchandise prizes.

In addition she will receive an all-expense-paid trip to Mobile, Ala., to compete in the National Junior Miss Contest March 18.

Two runners-up will also be named tonight, and they will receive scholarship prizes.

SCHOLASTIC ABILITY
Also this year, the girl who is judged to have the best scholastic ability will receive a trophy.

The girls were honored at a party Thursday night and a luncheon yesterday.

Throughout the pageant they have been interviewed by judges and have rehearsed for tonight's presentation.

The state contest is being sponsored by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Reedy said Johnson had not yet responded to the suggestion. And he added that the possibility of an appointment with Johnson "is not being foreclosed."

Reedy said Johnson later will send to Congress proposals for voting rights legislation. Aides have said in the past this might take the form of a suggested constitutional amendment.

Bearded and a little hoarse, King traveled to Marion, Ala., last night and spoke at a church rally. King was married near the west Alabama town nearly 11 years ago.

"We are going all out in Alabama," he told the church meeting. "We are going to get this right to vote even if it is necessary to fill up all the jails of Alabama. Alabama will be the major target for 1965."

The low mercury reading this morning was 37. At 2 p.m. the area had a temperature of 42.

Warm Air Turns Area Folks Into Puddle Jumpers

While the mild temperatures may be welcome, the "lakes" made by melting ice and snow are not.

More mild temperatures and springlike weather are ahead. Partly cloudy to cloudy skies are expected, along with higher temperatures and rather high winds.

A low of 38 to 45 is forecast for tonight, to be followed by a high of 49 to 55 tomorrow. Little change is expected Monday, save for the addition of showers to the prediction.

Today in Pontiac, winds are southeasterly at 10 to 20 miles an hour.

The low mercury reading this morning was 37. At 2 p.m. the area had a temperature of 42.

The new building will open March 1.

Laos General Flees Into Exile

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI) — Right-wing Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, stripped of his post as vice premier for masterminding an attempted coup this week, fled into exile last night, it was reported here.

Authoritative sources said Phoumi fled across the Mekong River into neighboring Thailand, accompanied by ousted national police chief Sibo and about six aides.

Phoumi and his party apparently crossed the river somewhere between Thadua and Pakkane, east of Vientiane.

The sources said Phoumi's party is now in a government guest house in the northeast Thai city of Udon, 350 miles northeast of Bangkok.

Phoumi was dismissed as vice premier by Premier Souvanna Phouma last night.

REBELLION CRUSHED
Souvanna announced today that Phoumi's rebellion had been "completely crushed" and the government has the situation in complete control.

About 600 well-armed rebel troops and policemen remained entrenched, however, on the Phou Khao Khoun Plateau overlooking the Plain of Vientiane.

For a time it was believed that Phoumi and Sibo were with the diehard rebels.

Phoumi's power had been steadily diminishing since last year's attempted right-wing coup failed because the United States refused to support it.

TOUCHED OFF

This week's abortive coup apparently was touched off by a series of changes in the army high command structure that further diminished Phoumi's power.

Souvanna told newsmen today he is calling home cabinet ministers who are abroad so official action can be taken to pick a successor to Phoumi as vice premier.

Unconfirmed reports from the Phou Khao Phouai region said the rebels may be preparing for a long stand against the government.

Air force planes dumped leaflets on the rebel stronghold calling for them to surrender.

American military sources said the Communists apparently failed to take any major advantage of the confusion created by the rebellion. Only two minor engagements were reported this week.

Johnson Picks Undersecretary From Navy Ranks

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson today picked Asst. Secretary of the Navy Kenneth E. Belieu to replace Paul B. Fay who resigned as undersecretary of the Navy.

Graeme C. Bannerman, now deputy assistant secretary of defense, will move into Belieu's old job.

Belieu, 50, has been assistant secretary for installations and logistics since early 1961.

He had a distinguished battle career during World War II and fought in Korea, where he lost a leg from wounds. He served as executive officer to two secretaries of the Army before leaving the Army.

Bannerman, 45, is a government career employee who was assigned to his present duties in February 1961.

Job Program Given Priority

U.S. Plans to Train 10,000 Each Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department plans to put the "very first, highest priority" on President Johnson's call to create new jobs in the rapidly expanding service industries, says the man who will run the program.

Stanley Ruttenberg, recently named manpower administrator, said the plan is to train 10,000 workers a month for service jobs by July 1.

While Ruttenberg will be responsible for the program, he plans to name a full-time assistant.

The government hopes the plan will make a big dent in the ranks of the unemployed by training workers for jobs where there is now a shortage of trained personnel.

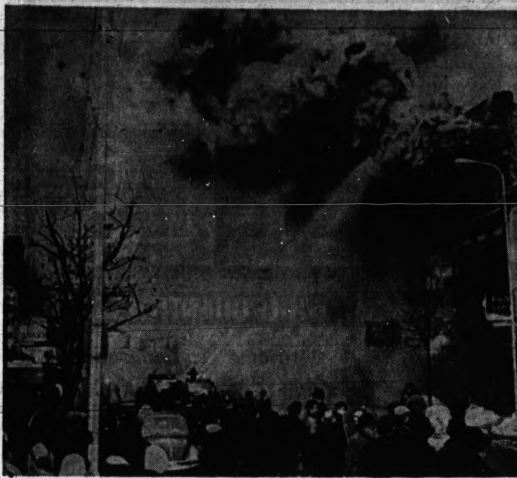

REPAIR JOBS
One large area in which the Labor Department's manpower development program will concentrate is in various kind of repair jobs, such as electrical appliances and autos.

"The unemployed worker and the great demand for services must be brought together," Ruttenberg said in an interview.

Case Stalled in Snowball Death Probe

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—Police may have hit a snag in their investigation of one of three deaths attributed to a snowball battle in the University of Tennessee area.

Officers said yesterday they could neither find witnesses who could place Walter Lee Yow at the scene of the snowball "war" nor could they locate Yow's employer.

Yow, 55, a trucker's assistant from Albemarle, N.C., died in the office of a local doctor Tuesday after telling police he had been hit in the ear in the fracas in which a UT freshman was shot.

Yow told police he had gone to assist William Douglas Willett, who was being beaten by a group of students after Willett shot 18-year-old Marnell Goodman.

Willett, 27, a truck driver for a Greenville, Tenn., produce firm, shot young Goodman after being pelted with snowballs.

'Our Man in Cali'

County's Envoy to Return

John E. Madole, Oakland County's Alliance for Progress representative in Cali, Columbia, will return home with his wife next week.

Madole has been in Cali since Sept. 24 helping to organize various educational and industrial programs designed to improve the economic status of the Cauca Valley region.

The program of cooperation between Oakland County and the city of Cali and similar programs in other Latin American countries are conducted under the auspices of the U. S. State Department.

Columbia was supposed to send a representative to Oakland County to assist in administering this end of the program.

Due to the death of a Colombian official, however, and resulting governmental shakeups in Cali, a qualified representative was never appointed.

ORIGINAL PLAN

Madole had planned to spend a year in Cali implementing programs he had found a need for during a six-weeks visit early last year.

He was advised to return home by Delos Hamlin, chairman of the county board of supervisors, who appointed him as the county's representative to Colombia.

"This doesn't mean that we intend to abandon the Cauca Valley program," Hamlin said, "but I feel Madole can be just as effective in carrying it out from here."

The over-all program hasn't lived up to expectations, Hamlin said, "but there hasn't been and won't be any slackening of our efforts."

IMPROVEMENT

Madole has been working toward improvement of medical care, schools, police and fire protection and labor relations in the Cauca Valley.

Pontiac Woman Found Guilty of Slaying Husband

A Pontiac woman was convicted yesterday by an Oakland County Circuit Court jury of manslaughter in the knife slaying of her husband in a South Side pool hall.

Mrs. Viola Payne, 54, will be sentenced Feb. 24 by Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams.

Mrs. Payne was found guilty of killing her husband Robert, 43, during a fight in the Wessen Recreation Center, 152 Wessen, on Nov. 12.

The Prosecutor's Office was seeking a first-degree murder conviction against Mrs. Payne during the three-day trial.

Accused murderer Carl F. Foster was bound over for trial yesterday when he was arraigned before Circuit Judge William J. Beer.

Foster, 28, of 286 S. East Blvd., stood mute to the first-degree murder charge and an innocent plea was entered by the court. No date for the trial was set.

Foster is charged with the Dec. 12 slaying of Mrs. Maurice Crook, 26, of 2401 S. Telegraph. Her body was found the next day in a lovers' lane area near Opydke and Featherstone.

Scout Week Theme
'America's Heritage'

As a part of Scout Week, (Feb. 7-13) Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers will fulfill their obligations to be "faithful in their religious duties" by attending religious services to-morrow.

Scouts of Jewish faith are attending Sabbath services to-night, and other scouts in uniform will attend their own churches with their parents.

The theme marking this year's anniversary is Strengthen America's Heritage, a program to "preserve our freedom through reverent, resolute, and responsible patriotism."

Many local churches plan to use the Boy Scout theme as part of services or special programs, according to Charles L. Shull, chairman of the scout council's camping and activities committee.

Churches and synagogues sponsor more than 125 of the 274 scout units in the Clinton Valley Council, Shull said.

55TH YEAR

Monday marks the 55th anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America.

During its 55 years of existence, the scout movement has affected the lives of over 39 million boys and men.

There are 5.5 million scouts now in active enrollment with 14,800 active local, according to Arthur J. Brooks, Clinton Council president.

MOSCOW (U-P) — Alexei Adzhubei, Nikita Khrushchev's son-in-law and onetime editor of the government newspaper Izvestia, lost his final honorary post, Tass reported yesterday in Moscow.

The official Soviet news agency said Adzhubei was relieved of his duties as secretary of the board of the Union of Journalists of the U.S.S.R.

He lost his Izvestia post last October and the following month lost his membership in the Soviet Communist party's central committee.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODY ISHMAEL

Burundi Puts the Boot to China's Red Dragon

We don't know the Swahili equivalent for "get lost," but that's what the plucky little kingdom of Burundi told the Red Chinese to do. At a time when any number of African nations that owe independence and viability to American influence and economic aid are playing footsie with the Commies, it is heartening indeed to see a bit of friendliness toward the West emanate from the Dark Continent.

Burundi, with 2.3 million inhabitants squeezed into 11 thousand square miles adjoining the Congo, has been generally regarded as a hot spot of Red Chinese intrigue in Africa.

The news of the break came over a Peking radio station with the announcement that the nation by action of Premier Joseph Babinne had "unilaterally suspended diplomatic relations with Red China and that Peking's diplomats had been ordered to leave within two days."

Burundi has enjoyed independence only since 1962, but her show of it could well serve as a shining example to many a larger but more timorous member of the African community of nations that have distinguished themselves mainly by ingratitude to the United States and subservience to Communist power.

Federal Budget Cut Like Pyrrhic Victory

The Federal Government pruned its budget so mercilessly that it will spend in the next fiscal year only five and a half billion dollars more than it takes in.

This is heralded as a major triumph in hardnosed slicing.

But there must be a housewife here and there who is wondering why her husband gets so upset if she bends the family budget a bit on her clothes or household supplies.

What's good for the government must be good for the people, mustn't it? Or has somebody been kidding us?

Straits' Bridge Bid Wins Long-Span Slam

Devotees of bridge statistics — those related to water spanning not card playing — will find pleasure in the knowledge that our own "Mighty Mac" across Mackinac Straits tops them all.

Since Michigan's steel breather was stretched between the state's upper and lower divisions, inconclusive controversy has revolved around the Golden Gate and Mackinac bridges as to which has the longer suspension span.

With the opening of the new Verrazano Narrows bridge across the narrow waist of New York Harbor, a third claimant to the title appeared.

But precise and uniform measurements have been established, and Mighty Mac ran well ahead in the bridge sweepstakes with a suspension span of 7,400 feet. The Narrows entry placed with 6,690 feet, while Golden Gate showed with 6,450 feet.

And in the matter of over-all length—well it wasn't even a bridge race. Mac won going away with 5 miles, Narrows was far back with 3 miles, a mile ahead of Golden Gate's 2.

For what it is worth, though,

New York's bridge can take pride in one area of supremacy — cost. The bill for the Narrows job came to $325 million, while Michigan had spent $100 million less on Mac by ribbon-cutting time in 1957. California's outlay for the Golden Gate (opened in 1937) was peanuts — a paltry $35 million.

In one respect, however, the three bridges have one thing in common — we've never heard of one of them being sold to the gullible, as was reputedly done occasionally with the $18-million Brooklyn Bridge, the marvel of its time when completed in 1883.

De Gaulle Is Hit With Own Tactic

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has done to French President Charles de Gaulle almost exactly what de Gaulle did to President Kennedy. And now Johnson and de Gaulle look as far apart as Kennedy and the Frenchman did.

This is what de Gaulle did to Kennedy:

In early 1963 it was known for some time Kennedy would deliver his State of the Union message to Congress on Jan. 14.

De Gaulle jumped into the act. He hadn't had a session with reporters since May 1962, but he suddenly decided to meet the press not only on Jan. 14 but a few hours before Kennedy could begin to talk.

De Gaulle undercut what Kennedy was to say later. Kennedy's message spoke glowingly of a Europe moving toward unity. The Frenchman contradicted this idea before Kennedy could mention it. He made a mess of Kennedy's foreign policy.

This is what Johnson did to de Gaulle: For weeks it was known de Gaulle would meet the press Feb. 4. Johnson hadn't held a press conference since last July 24.

At 9:56 a.m. Thursday, immediately after de Gaulle's conference, the first bulletin from Paris said he called for a new world monetary system founded on something more than the dollar and pound sterling, a slap at this country and Britain.

At 10:05 a.m. another bulletin: de Gaulle proposed a five-power conference, including Red China, to examine and perhaps revise the United Nations' Charter, although Red China isn't even a member.

At 10:25 a.m. a bulletin from Washington: The White House said Johnson would hold a news conference at 11 a.m.

At the news conference, Johnson challenged de Gaulle's suggestion for revising the U.N. Charter. Still later in the day, U.S. Treasury officials said de Gaulle's monetary ideas would be a retreat to 1931 when the world economy collapsed.

JOHNSON BEGAN HIS NEWS CONFERENCE with a series of statements on national problems and said he had planned to make them for newsmen and then decided to let reporters ask him questions.

That would make his sudden action in calling reporters together—right after de Gaulle's bulletins from Paris—look casual and not related to de Gaulle at all. The timing makes it look the opposite.

Johnson's been around too long to make what he did to de Gaulle an accident.

Evelio Hernandez knows first hand the encircling terror of Communism, which he combated through faith. Living in his native Cuba with his wife and daughter when Fidel Castro staged his revolution, he was forced to teach sports. Later he was told to indoctrinate the children into the way of Communism. This was the final blow to Hernandez, a devout Baptist layman; he refused, fled to Mexico and continued his career as a baseball pitcher.

Today he is a pitcher for the Jacksonville Florida Sun. His spare time is spent as a youth counselor and speaking on his experiences as a Christian in a hostile land. He says, "As goes life with relationship to Christ, so goes my baseball record. I cannot cease to be a Christian, the environment in baseball is hard, but without Christ it would be a thousand times worse."

Days of All Faiths:

Our Nation's First Negro Bishop

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

In 1760, in the city of Philadelphia, Richard Allen was born of Negro slave parents. When he died, seventy-one years later, he was a free man and America's first Negro bishop.

In those days Negroes attended white men's churches, and were quite free to do so as long as they stayed "in their place," which was the gallery. This arrangement went along peacefully enough most of the time, although there were some troublesome incidents occasionally.

Allen joined the Methodist Church when he was 17, and at 22 was licensed to preach. His preaching was, of course, only to other Negroes. By the time he was 27 he had bought his freedom—for $2,000, which was a lot of money for a slave to save up.

He became a member of St. George's Methodist Church in Philadelphia and was soon conducting a five o'clock service for a Negro congregation every Sunday afternoon in that church.

BREAK WITH WHITES In 1794 a real disturbance took place at St. George's. Negroes in the morning congregation, instead of taking their accustomed places in the gallery, mingled with the white folks downstairs. They were dragged from their knees during prayers and bodily ejected from the building.

It was at this point that three Negro leaders, Allen, William White, and Absalom Jones, decided the colored people needed a church of their own. They bought a lot, moved an old blacksmith shop onto it, and began their existence as an exclusively Negro congregation. The members were called A.M.E.s.

The church prospered and was soon able to erect a church building to replace the blacksmith shop.

REAL REASONS FOR SEPARATION This may appear to have been a real break, and in a sense it was. And yet the break was not a complete one. The Negroes were still Methodists, and the whites still recognized them as such. The relationship between the two races was cordial enough that in 1798 the white authorities ordained Allen to the Methodist ministry.

Unpleasant as their second-class position in the white churches had been, the Negroes had other and deeper reasons for wanting to be separate.

One was their own growing racial consciousness. They wanted to be on their own and to have their own organization in which they could occupy positions of leadership. In their own churches they could have not only colored preachers but also colored Sunday School teachers, choir singers, elders, and so on.

But a still more important reason was that no white preacher could possibly speak to the needs of the colored members of his congregation. He could not really know, though he might sympathize with, the indignities of slavery and poverty and ignorance that made up the environment in which the Negro lived. This would still have been true even if the white churches had welcomed the colored people on equal terms. There just wasn't any equality in the situation. A congregation,

'Cheers' to Arlene Dahl Bring Reader's 'Jeers'

Last Monday's "In Conclusion" referred to Arlene Dahl's saying a dress should be tight enough to let a man know there's a woman inside, but loose enough to let them know she's a lady. As one who posed in the altogether for Playboy, Arlene seems an unlikely person to be giving this advice. Her "display" came as quite a surprise, because she had always appeared to be considerably above such things.

And a loud amen to the "Cheers" and the editorial reprint from the Richmond News Leader on Johnson's inaugural "address," since it must have taken great strength of character for anyone to gag his way far enough through the "festivities" to pass judgment.

Comment on America's Foreign Policy

The failure of American foreign policy is not the fault of leftists or Communist propaganda, it is our own fault. We have lost our prestige and influence because we sacrificed economies, politics and ideas to military expediency. We must have the support of the people of a country, as well as the support of their government.

Churchill Faced Danger Happily

By WASHINGTON STAFF

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Many of the best stories about Winston Churchill dealt with his penchant for courting danger. A little-known incident was his behavior when he went with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to view the Allied crossing of the Rhine River in World War II.

Eisenhower was briefing war correspondents on the success of the operation. One of them asked: "What did Mr. Churchill do?"

He threw back his head and laughed. "The last I saw him," said Ike, "he was at the helm of a landing barge scouting around our side of the Rhine. He seemed to be having a wonderful time."

When Defense Secretary Robert McNamara entered Bethesda Naval Hospital with an upper respiratory ailment shortly after President Johnson recovered from his famous cold, reporters asked Pentagon information chief Arthur Sylvester when his boss would be back at work. The answer: "The doctors say two to four days. But I don't know what McNamara says."

Asked for his reaction to President Johnson's inaugural address, Idaho's Republican Gov. Robert Smylie paraphrased Marc Anthony's speech following Julius Caesar's assassination: "I have come to inaugurate a president, not to praise him."

Gov. Smylie brought three aides to Washington with him. Knowing that the entourage planned to head to Chicago for the Republican National Committee meeting after the inauguration, an observer asked: "Who's running the state while you fellows are traveling around the country?"

Answered one of the aides breezily: "Oh, we put it on automatic pilot when we left."

At a press conference to answer questions about the 1966 budget, Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon and Budget Director Kermit Gordon formed a pretty smooth answering team. Said Dillon at the beginning: "Kermit will take the expenditures and I'll handle the income. We'll split the difference."

Balding Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., has been taking quite a bit of ribbing since he showed up for the opening of Congress with a new hairpiece.

The first new person who noticed the "New McGovern" was a Senate elevator operator. His greeting: "Hi, senator; I see you got a new overcoat."

Ever since he became postmaster general over a year ago, John Gronouski has been averaging about 15 hours a day on the job. When someone asked him what part the Post Office Department would play in The Great Society, he answered: "You know, the President talks about The Great Society as a place where leisure is a welcome chance to build and reflect and a place where man can renew contact with nature. But at the rate he has been working up, I'm beginning to get the idea that The Great Society doesn't include the cabinet."

Protesting SNCC Pickets Battle Marshals in NY

NEW YORK (AP) — Fighting, flailing young pickets and a dozen deputy federal marshals tangled Friday on the steps of the U.S. Court House here in a 20-minute melee that left members of both sides battered and bruised.

The fighting broke out when 12 members of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, protesting mass Negro arrests in Selma, Ala., formed a flying wedge and tried to storm their way into the building.

An equal number of deputy marshals charged out to meet them. Punches were traded, and both pickets and marshals wrestled and rolled down the steep, ice-coated steps. About 50 other pickets looked on, chanting encouragement.

One youth was taken into custody but later was released without charges.

SECOND DAY

It was the second day of demonstrations at the downtown Manhattan courthouse by SNCC, which is asking for federal intervention to guarantee Alabama Negroes the right to register and vote.

On Thursday eight men and two women were dragged bodily from the building when they tried to stage a sit-in in U.S. Atty. Robert M. Morgenthau's fourth-floor office.

In anticipation of an attempt at another sit-in, the 30-story building was turned into a virtual armed camp.

All ground-floor doors except the main one were locked. Armed guards stood at the only entrance. Stairway entrances from the fourth floor down also were locked.

ARMED GUARDS

Nine armed guards were called in from other federal buildings to augment a force of five FBI agents and city detectives in the main lobby.

Deputy marshals were assigned to various floors, with orders to challenge anyone who looked as if he did not have official business in the building.

Metal handrails across the glass panels on the main revolving door were removed so demonstrators could not chain themselves to the door. Only a narrow aisle in the middle of the outside staircase was available for going in or out. The wide expanse of steps on either side had been watered down to form a thick ice slide in the subfreezing weather.

Three pickets who tried to race up the ice steps were met near the top by three marshals, and all six bounced down to the ground.

Austin Added to Candidates for State Post

LANSING (AP) — Richard Austin, one of the two men who authored the Democratic legislative redistricting plan, is among the top contenders for the new post of legislative auditor.

House and Senate committees are proposing candidates for Michigan constitution to take over most of the auditing functions of the auditor general.

Also high on the list of five contenders published by House Speaker Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, Friday was Albert Lee, a Detroit accountant with strong labor backing.

Others on the list were E. Bonnie Mikrut, director of the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission; Assistant State Auditor Franklin Gregg Jr., and J. Irving Grant, who has his own accounting firm in Detroit.

ONE CANDIDATE

Senate and House lists will be pared to one candidate in Democratic caucuses. Democrats have taken over the awarding of the eight-year post because they control both houses of the legislature.

The candidate will be voted upon on the floor of both houses.

PROTEST ARRESTS—Members of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee tussled with deputy U.S. marshals on the steps of the U.S. Court House in New York yesterday as they attempted to get inside for a sit-in protest against what they claim is a lack of federal intervention in the Negro voter registration drive in Selma, Ala.

Outlook Rosy for Grads

EAST LANSING (AP)—Graduating college seniors will find job offers plentiful this year and starting salaries up about 3 per cent from 1964, says the director of Michigan State University's placement bureau.

John Shingleton predicts competition for college graduates will foil a campaign to hold the line on starting salaries. He says the campaign is developing because salaries for other employees are not keeping pace with those offered newcomers.

Talk that engineers will have a difficult time is unfounded, he adds.

"The cutback for personnel in engineering in defense industries has been more than compensated for by an increase in demand by the automobile industry, especially in Michigan," says Shingleton.

INTERVIEW HELD

Last fall, 423 businesses and other employers sent representatives to MSU and some 3,845 interviews have been conducted with students who were graduated in December.

Shingleton notes a significant difference in recruiting: company representatives are becoming more impressed with a good liberal arts background.

He said that while emphasis is on engineering and scientific specialists, plus a continuing heavy demand for graduates in the field of accounting, marketing and packaging, the demand is increasing for graduates in arts and letters and social sciences.

DEFACED COIN CHARGE—Llewellyn H. Slaff, 46, of San Diego, Calif., is manacled in his court appearance on charges of defacing pennies. Secret Service agents charged Slaff with cutting pennies down to dime size to save 18 cents a day on a 10-cent ferry ride to and from work each day. The ferry company said it found 1,700 of the defaced coins in five years. A regular penny is held (top) to compare with a dime (center) and cut-down cent.

Dependents Allowed on Cuba Base

Water Washes Away Gloom at Gitmo

WASHINGTON (AP)—Water, in ample quantity, is washing away the gloom in Guantanamo and is bringing back the kids and their mothers to their homes on that U.S. Naval Base in Cuba.

It was different a year ago today, Prime Minister Fidel Castro had cut off the fresh water supply for the base.

Things looked dark, strategically and domestically. Washington ordered Guantanamo to start sending dependents back to the United States. The base was to become a military garrison, womanless and childless, standing ready to repel attack and faced with water ration.

Last February, when Castro cut off the water and thought he had turned on a drought, there were 2,964 dependents of military and civilian personnel living on Guantanamo. By December, the total had dropped to 1,464.

MIND CHANGED

But at Christmas time, Washington changed its mind. The word went out to permit dependents to go to Guantanamo. The first began arriving last month, about 250. And more are on the way.

This eases things for the military as well as the families.

Under the garrison plan, a man whose dependents were not with him had a shorter tour of duty in Guantanamo.

But with the ban lifted, the Navy and Marines expect that some men whose duty at Guantanamo would have ended may decide to bring families and extend their tours of duty.

Guantanamo is completely independent of any reliance on Communist Cuba for its water.

The Navy had been buying water from Cuba, and the daily water consumption of the base at the time the Reds cut off the supply was about 2.2 million gallons.

The immediate, emergency step was to shuttle tanker ships between Florida and Guantanamo to bring in fresh water.

Even while the first shuttle trips were being made, the Navy hastened to start a permanent setup to replace the Cuban water supply.

It began work on three plants to distill sea water into fresh water. Three such plants would produce the average 2.2 million gallons daily required in normal functioning of the base.

The first plant went into operation last August and the first of the two tankers was pulled out of the shuttle service soon after.

September and the other tanker was withdrawn. The third plant began operation in December.

The big reservoirs on the base were filled. Water was in abundance, even enough to fill the community swimming pools on the base and put water on withered lawns and flowers.

The Navy is happy; it says the base now is completely self-sufficient.

Seeking Lost Brother

Yank to Return to Viet Jungle

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Donald C. Dawson gathered supplies here today for another lonely and dangerous trip into Communist-infested jungles in search for his brother, a U.S. Army pilot who didn't return from a mission.

"I'm going back in, and staying this time," he said in an interview.

Dawson, 25, appeared worried as he looked over his gear. He is concerned about the increase in military activity near the little Catholic village of Thai Hung, 20 miles north of Bien Hoa where he has been trying for two months to persuade the Viet Cong to return his brother—dead or alive.

He is afraid his brother is dead, but he is not sure. In the next few weeks he hopes to find out.

PLANE CRASHED

Lt. Daniel Dawson, 27, disappeared when his plane crashed last Nov. 6 on a reconnaissance mission over Viet Cong-controlled territory.

The younger Dawson, leaving a wife and four young children behind in Romert Park, Calif., arrived a month later to try to find out what happened. Since then he has been restlessly shuttling between Saigon, the U.S. Air Base at Bien Hoa, and Thai Hung.

"I have to wait there alone, because only by doing that can I hope to make any impression with the Viet Cong," he said today.

Dawson has offered a $1,300 reward for his brother alive and lesser amounts for information leading to his body or the lost plane. Despite the chance that he may fall victim to the Red guerrillas, he has vowed to continue the hunt as long as he is able.

Dawson believes that the fighting in the normally quiet region along the banks of the Dong Nai river may lessen his chances of persuading the Viet Cong to cooperate. However, he feels that thousands of leaflets he has spread around and the information he has sent out by word of mouth with farmers and priests may pay off.

He said that while he was on a brief visit to Thai Hung five days ago, he heard the Viet Cong open fire. The small defense force there is no match for any large Communist unit, but they try to fight off snipers.

But Dawson, who has gone where no other American in Viet Nam has gone without troop escort, says he plans to return to the village this week—and remain there indefinitely.

School Leader Dies in Traverse City

TRAVERSE CITY (AP)—Dr. Glenn E. Loomis, a long-time leader in Michigan education, died Friday. He was 70.

Loomis held administrative positions at Big Rapids and Charlevoix and was superintendent of schools at Traverse City from 1938 until his retirement in 1959.

He was the first administrator of Northwestern Michigan College in Traverse City.

Area Man Sets 9th Alaska Trip

Edward J. Kuhn has announced the date for his ninth trip to Alaska with a group of boys who will earn and save one-third of the cost of the trip.

The other two-thirds is paid by the parents.

Next July 17 is the date set for departure. Kuhn announces the date far in advance to give the boys a chance to earn the money for the trip.

Kuhn of 2295 N. Lake Angeles, Lake Angeles, took the trip to Alaska when he was 11, with the late George Buchanan who originated the idea in 1923.

He was so impressed with the trip and the whole idea, that he decided to give other boys the same opportunity.

The cost of the all-expense tour is $430 for boys under 12. Because boys 12 or over are charged adult fares, their cost is $895.

Interested parties may get further information by contacting Kuhn.

Pontiac Area Youth Worship, Have Fun

Council of Churches Sponsors Rally

The third annual Youth Rally sponsored by the Pontiac Area Council of Churches will be held at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow in Central Methodist Church, 3882 Highland, Waterford Township.

Rev. John Hutchinson, guest speaker, is the Baptist chaplain at Wayne State University. He will address the group on "A Science-Fiction God."

The talk will concern the relationship between science and the Christian Faith.

This has been the theme of Youth Week observances in many area churches throughout the week.

The youth rally will begin with a time of getting to know each other with refreshments.

Connie Booth of First Presbyterian Church will have charge of registration and fellowship. Refreshments are under the direction of Roger Putnam and Phyllis Jackson of the host church.

Helping to plan the evening is Rev. Chalmers Mastin of Bethany Baptist Church, acting chairman of the committee on youth work of the Council.

Serving as publicity chairman is Carol Nye of All Saints Episcopal Church.

An ecumenical service of worship will conclude the evening with Scott Galbraith, of Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian; Dennis Cox, of First Methodist Church; and Charles Sickels, of Bethany Baptist, serving as worship leaders.

The program will highlight the unique contributions which young people can make to the church.

All young people of the Pontac area are invited. Rev. Mr. Mastin said.

COVERT METHODIST

The choir will sing the hymn of the month, "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee" at morning service tomorrow in Covert Methodist Church.

Young people will attend the Youth Rally of Pontiac Area Council of Churches at Central Methodist Church at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Friday evening the senior high youth will serve at the monthly fish fry at the church and junior high young people will hold a bake sale.

Mrs. Doyce Watts of Lake Orion will be in charge of arrangements for the program on Christian Social Relations at the meeting of Woman's Society for Christian Service Wednesday evening.

CHURCH OF ATONEMENT

Senior high youth of the Church of the Atonement, 3835 Clintonville, Waterford Township will conduct the 10:45 a.m. worship hour tomorrow with Michael Freedland giving the prayer of adoration.

Sandra Hastie will offer the prayer of confession and pardon, and Peggy Wallis will give the prayer of thanksgiving.

Leading responsive reading will be Richard Ferrier and Scripture will be read by Charles Golden. The prayer of dedication and closing prayer will be by Michael Harrington.

Young people speaking on the theme, "The Peculiar Ones," will be Joe Duran Jr., Robyn Ruten and Dale Manning. Anita Freedland is organizer.

Jay Nash, Marvin Deaton and Bruce Mihalek will serve as ushers. Music will be furnished by boys and girls of the Junior Choir as they sing "Search Me O God." A Girls' Ensemble will be heard in "This I Find in Him."

Young people will meet at the church at 6 p.m. prior to attending the Pontiac Area Youth Rally at Central Methodist Church.

MAKE COOKIES — Looking forward to furnishing refreshments at the Pontiac Area Youth Fellowship Rally at Central Methodist Church are Roger Putnam, of 388 W. Iroquois, and Barbara Field, of 147 S. Avery, Waterford Township, both members of Central Methodist youth. Roger and Barbara are mixing and baking cookies for the Sunday evening rally.

PINS NAME CARD — Carol Nye, of 2555 Sylvan Shores, Waterford Township, pins a name card on Charles Sickels, of 6596 Scott Lake, Waterford Township, at a youth fellowship work session of the Pontiac Area Council of Churches. Cards will be used at the area youth fellowship rally Sunday evening in Central Methodist Church. Carol is a member of All Saints Episcopal Church youth and Charles is an active youth worker at Bethany Baptist Church.

Today's Prayer

Forgive me, Lord, for the things I have done that make me feel uncomfortable in Thy presence. All the front that I polish so carefully for men to see, does not deceive Thee.

For Thou knowest every thought that has left its shadow on my memory. Thou hast marked every motive that curled something sweet within me.

I acknowledge with sorrow and true repentance, that I have desired that which I should not have. I have toyed with what I knew was not for me. I have been preoccupied with self-interest, and I have invited unclean thoughts into my mind and entertained them as honored guests.

My ears have often been deaf to Thy whisper. My eyes have been blind to Thy signs of guidance. Make me willing to be changed, even though it requires surgery of the soul, and therapy of discipline.

Make my heart warm and soft, that I may receive and accept now the blessing of Thy forgiveness, the benediction of Thy "Depart in peace— and sin no more" in Jesus' name. Amen—Dr. Peter Marshall.

FACTS YOU NEED TO FACE...
Robert Ingersoll, the agnostic, refused to believe what the Bible teaches about reward and punishment after death. John A. Bingham, a believer, challenged him to think in these words: "Robert, if you are right and I am wrong, neither of us will ever know it, but if I am right and you are wrong, I shall be conscious of it, and so will you, throughout eternity."
Realizing the certainty of death and the importance of life of all of us need to face these facts.

FACT ONE: YOU NEED TO BE SAVED.
"For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 6:23).
FACT TWO: CHRIST DIED FOR YOU!
"But God commendeth his own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8).
FACT THREE: TO BE SAVED YOU MUST ACCEPT CHRIST!
"And in many other like sentences, which he saith unto them, who feared them, saying: We would not have thee to teach us, for thou art a Galilean." (John 1:22).
The New Testament teaches that to accept Christ you must:
1. Believe in Christ as the Son of God. "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that disbelieveth shall be condemned" (Mark 16:16).
2. Repent of your sins. "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto remission of your sins" (Acts 2:38).
3. Confess Jesus before others. "For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation" (Romans 10:10).
4. Be baptized into Christ. "And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ" (Acts 10:48). (This baptism is immersion in water, a burial, as shown in Romans 6:3-4).
FACT FOUR: YOU CAN BE JUST A CHRISTIAN
On the day of Pentecost following Jesus' resurrection those who feared these facts were baptized for the remission of their sins. They were not members of any sect or denomination—just Christians. Many should never trust in the promises of the divisions among those who claim to follow Christ. Many use this as an excuse for not becoming Christians. We challenge you to be a Christian—nothing more, nothing less. Take Christ as your only savior, the Bible as your only rule of faith. Wear Christ's name alone.

This message is supported by Christians seeking the only of believers in the non-denominational CHURCH OF CHRIST

Council Seeks $10 Million for Emergencies in Africa

Following reports by two teams of experts who surveyed current conditions in Africa, the World Council of Churches has issued a worldwide appeal for a $10 million fund to be used over a five-year period in an ecumenical program to meet emergencies in Africa.

The new appeal represents a coordinated approach by Protestant church mission and service agencies in meeting the issues of refugee migration, education of youth in literacy and earning skills, training in agriculture, and nursing and medical service.

The World Council also issued a call for 500 workers to go to Africa during the next five years as teachers, youth workers, relief administrators, doctors, nurses and other professional persons to train and work with African leaders.

The ecumenical program being developed by the division of interchurch aid, refugee and world service of the World Council, will be centered in the All-Africa Church Conference, said the appeal made by the WCC Central Committee at its recent meeting in Enugu, Nigeria.

Channel for U. S. church participation in the program is the department of church world service of the division of overseas ministries of the National Council of Churches.

Choose Your Knit

Winter's Hold Slips—Think Spring

Comes a thaw and to a woman, all her winter clothes begin to look tacky. Store windows are full of spring fashions. The urge to shop is almost irresistible.

This is a time to plan your spring wardrobe; to look and to weigh one style against another.

But as certain as the fact that the crocus will star the grass with blue and yellow flowers, is the universal popularity of the knit outfit.

Knit suits are "in" for spring. Here you see a trio of them. Several Pontiac stores carry the lines shown.

Choose a newly patterned suit, such as this one by Dalton of America, for the nucleus of your spring wardrobe. The shaker stitch wool knit buttoned in brass is offset with velvet trim that matches the sleeveless shell. About $80.

A three-piece knit of great verve and spirit, combines wool with luxurious antelope suede in the hit of the season. Suede panels form the front of the collared jacket, which tops a slim blouse and skirt. From Alberto-Alfius. About $125. Line available locally.

Great charm and an easy elegance are combined in this slim three-piece suit of marvellously textured silky knit. The crocheted look, the season's favorite, makes the matching blouse and the pocket and collar, detailing on the jacket. Entirely feminine, the suit is finished with delicate bows and stitching. From Alberto-Alfius. About $90. Line available locally.

WOMEN'S SECTION

Cool Breezes Blow Hot Air at This Summer Playground

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: My husband's sister is married to a man who most people find very hard to take.

He is well-read, but has a very big mouth and loves to argue. It is impossible for anyone to have a friendly conversation with him around.

Three years ago they moved a few blocks from us and now, whenever we have company, "Big Mouth" barges in and takes over the conversation and turns it into an argument.

That's bad enough, but now a bigger problem has come up:

We recently purchased a lake lot and were very excited about building on it until we found out that THEY had bought the lot right next to ours.

How can we get out of this trap with the least amount of hard feelings? His wife is a nice person, but that doesn't help matters any.

TOO CLOSE: If your husband can't persuade his sister not to build on the lake lot next to yours, have him tell "Big Mouth" to go jump in the lake, and you head for higher ground.

DEAR ABBY: Does a man who has never been married have the right to ask a divorcee what "killed" her marriage?

I am referring to my own situation. I am interested in courting a divorcee, but before I become too deeply involved with her I would like to know something about why her first marriage ended in divorce.

Have I a right to know, or not?

BACHELOR AT 42

DEAR BACHELOR: Yes, you have a right to know.

But be aware that what she tells you will be only HER side of the story.

DEAR ABBY: Even more stupid than the question, "Was this one planned?" is "What do you want, a boy or a girl?"

I had two boys when I became pregnant with my third child, and I heard that question for six months. I assure you, I got very tired of it.

We really didn't care whether we had a boy or a girl. All we wanted was a healthy, normal baby. I had a girl.

The next stupid question started ringing in my ears. "Are you done now?" How do you answer a question like that?

EXASPERATED
DEAR EXASPERATED: A question like that deserves to be ignored.

Are You Bride-to-Be?

Are you planning a wedding in 1965? We are interested in having your engagement and wedding news. But we need your cooperation.

The Pontiac Press has printed forms for both engagement and wedding announcements. But you may send in the details, giving full names and addresses (husband's names for a married woman) and other pertinent details. Please include a telephone number so that we may check if necessary.

TIME LAPSE

There must be two months between engagement and wedding stories, if there is to be a picture with both. No engagements are announced less than a month before the wedding date.

We prefer to receive wedding stories and pictures before the ceremony.

If pictures are taken at the wedding, we must have them no later than two days after the ceremony (that is, by noon Tuesday for Saturday weddings).

If the wedding takes place out of town, this deadline is extended.

BEST PICTURES

Pictures should be black and white, preferably glossy prints. Snapshots cannot be used. Color and tinted prints are not acceptable.

While The Pontiac Press makes no promise to use every picture submitted, some printed mention of the event will be made.

There is no charge for editorial space, but it cannot be reserved nor can we promise the size of a picture or its position.

Engagement and wedding pictures are kept for two months, then discarded. They may be called for any time after publication.

Honeymoon Pair Goes North to Ski Lodge

The Lloyd Nathan Brewers (Joanne Marie Vasek) who were wed today in St. William's Catholic Church, Walled Lake, will honeymoon at a northern ski lodge.

Their parents are the John Vaseks of Birmingham and the Elmer Brewers of Decker Road, Commerce Township.

EMPIRE GOWN

An Empire gown and tiered chapel train of white Italian silk for the bride was overlaid with Chantilly lace, repeated in motifs for her illusion veil. She carried white orchids and carnations.

With Mrs. Michael Smith of Birmingham, her sister's maid of honor, were the bridesmaids, Cindy Strand of Southfield and Barbara Blaw.

Cranberry velvet bodices topped their floor-length gowns of pink crepe, complemented by bouquets of pink-tipped carnations.

Attending their brother were Kenneth Brewer, best man, and Gary Brewer who ushered with Michael Smith.

BREAKFAST

Breakfast following the nuptial high Mass offered by Rev. Raphael Dakoske was served in the Clawson-Troy Elks Temple. The evening reception will be in Roma Hall, Livonia.

The couple will reside with her parents until he resumes his studies at Western Michigan University next fall.

Soap Turns Into Fancy Valentine

Sweetheart Valentines are three-dimensional, with the central ingredient being simply an oval cake of soap.

Other supplies consist of things that ordinarily are around the house: colored paper, paper doilies, little sequins, buttons, ribbon, flower trimmings from old hats, bits of fabric, pictures and letters cut out of magazines or old boxes and packages... and, of course, scissors and glue.

IDEAS FORMULATE

Ideas begin to flourish once odds and ends are collected. Here's one heart design that any little girl can do well. It is a basic design from which variations can develop.

The following items will be needed: a bar of Sweetheart Soap (that's the oval with the curly design on top), red and white poster paper, white paper doily, red rick-rack, straight pins, small fabric or paper flowers, sequins, ribbon, glue (white type preferred).

INSTRUCTIONS

Here are the directions:

- Cut a 7 1/2 inch heart out of white paper. Cut a 6 1/2 inch heart out of red paper (or paper colored red) and a 6 1/2 inch heart from a paper doily.

- Center and glue red heart on larger white heart. Glue doily heart on top of red heart, so that red shows through the lace.

Edge the white heart and the doily with very narrow red rick-rack and glue down firmly.

- Glue more rick-rack around edges of oval cake of Sweetheart soap. Decorate with glued-on sequins, little flowers, or tiny fabric or paper flowers.

- Fasten the cake of soap to the center of the doily heart either with glue or by placing straight pins through the back of the large heart firmly into the soap.
- Finish with a small bow.

The Josiah B. Tiltons of Kenford Avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Louise to Marine Lance Cpl. Robert Seney, presently stationed in Okinawa. His parents are Mrs. Mary Lyons of Bridge Street and Melvin Seney of Dayton, Ohio.

Tuesday Musicale to Hear Youths

Young musicians will present the program next week for Pontiac Tuesday Musicale. The group will meet at 1:30 p.m. at Central Methodist Church.

Gilbert Jackson, vocal music teacher at Washington Junior High School, will direct the male chorus, the Choralaires and the Swingers. These special vocal ensembles will be accompanied by Tim Hsu and Ron Young.

Jackson, a graduate of Michigan State University, has taught in the Pontiac schools for four years. He also accompanies the MacDowell Male Chorus.

INSTRUMENTALISTS

Two Dora Dawson scholarship winners will share honors with the vocalists. Dale Cheal will perform on both trombone and baritone horn.

Ben Francis will present works of Chopin and Debussy on the piano.

Dale is a ninth grader who has studied music for eight years. He has attended Inter-Joch National Music Camp and also the Michigan State youth music program.

GRADUATE

Ben, a 1964 graduate of Pontiac Central High School, was an instrumentalist in the high school band. Since graduation, he has been studying piano with Mark Wessel of Orchard Lake.

Model Furs at Dinner for Spouses

Four area women will model fur fashions before members of the Christian Women's Club at a Tuesday dinner meeting in Devon Gables.

Wearing furs by Alexander of Birmingham will be Mrs. James Olson, Mrs. Nicholas Martinevich, Mrs. Carl Wiklund and Mrs. Scott Lowman.

Mrs. Charles Messenger of Grand Rapids, the former Baroness Leja De Torinoff, will tell of her escape from Latvia during the revolution in Sweden and finally to America.

Mrs. Richard Eccles and Thomas Gamble, soloists from the Metropolitan Methodist Church in Detroit will set the mood for the "Sweethearts' Night" affair at 7 p.m. to which husbands are invited.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Fred Hartkopf of Thornecrest Drive.

Find Look Keep It

When a man finds a look that is best suited to him, he should never vary from it, despite decrees from designers. So says Ron Postal, the director of the National Council of Men's Fashions.

Postal speaks out against a current trend in men's wear, toward the shaped silhouette which he said "negates the natural athletic look associated with American men."

Postal favors the "broad-shouldered, slim-hipped image."

New Officers Start Year

1963 officers of the Pontiac Urban League Guild assumed their duties for the first time at a Thursday evening meeting in the Community Services building.

Mrs. Wilford Payne of Birmingham is the new president.

Assisting her will be Mrs. William Long and Mrs. Lee-Atrice Stewart, vice president. Mrs. Millereene Catlett and Mrs. Pertin Cobb, secretaries; and Mrs. Odell Walker, treasurer.

HOUSING

Mrs. Ann Russell, director of health, housing and welfare for the Pontiac Urban League, showed pictures and spoke on local housing.

She emphasized the need for more respectable homes for low income families.

Dr. Harry L. Riggs commented briefly on new policies of the Urban League.

He announced the annual dinner of the league for March 11. Author Leo Lomax will be the speaker.

A tour of the Bell Telephone offices for the Junior Miss group sponsored by guild members, was also announced.

Dual Pail

A plastic pail that's "split" comes with one side for suds and the other for rinse water. Each half has one flat wall so the two parts fit closely and are held together by a removable handle.

Children love to make their own valentines. Here's a new idea that is creative fun... in fact, the whole family probably will end up, 'getting into the act.' The unusual idea is decorating oval cakes of soap for valentines.

Smart Salesmen Are Still Trapping Unwary Householders With the "Referred Lead" Gimmick!

In a typical case, the housewife wanted an item which she knew she could not afford. While watching a television program, she heard the fast-talking "pitchman" say she could have one "at no cost."

After calling the number given, our lady friend was assured that she could, indeed, have the item without cost. All she would have to do would be to give the company the names of her friends who might be prospects.

Come the dawn! After signing the purchase contract, she slowly came to the realization that she was obligated to pay far more than the market price for the item - and that the referred leads just did not pay off.

A number of legitimate dealers may offer you money or credit for buyers that you may refer to them—but they make this offer only after you have made your purchase!

Never buy merchandise in the belief that referred leads will make your payments.

Climate Is Key Factor

Now, they're making cosmetics custom-designed for specific cities and regions. The "climate formulated" cosmetics are made with the weather in each locality in mind, especially the humidity.

The logic: skin experts have confirmed what beauty experts have always known—weather, especially the degree of humidity, affects skins.

The manufacturer said each local formula was arrived at after studying weather and water conditions in particular towns.

Products, as a result, are balanced for the humidity and come packaged either for soft or hard-water homes.

Communist China's Revolutionary Effort Is Crushed in Niger

ASTRONAUT IN THE SWIM—Lt. Commander John Young, copilot of the Gemini spacecraft due to be fired into orbit soon, swims from a spaceship during a training exercise at Houston, Tex.

By ANDREW BOROWIEC
MIAMI, Niger (AP)—Communist China's revolutionary effort in Africa has suffered a defeat in the former French colony of Niger. It coincided with dramatic events in the Congo and received little or no attention in the world press. A series of attacks by guerrillas trained in China and Algeria were crushed by Niger's small army aided by tough, warlike Haoussa tribesmen.

Terrorists caught with arms in hand were dragged in village dust and shot dead. Outside the police station on this capital, a body lay for a whole day in sizzling sun as an example to those who might consider plotting against President Hainani Diori.

Mafia Suspect Faces Charge in Detroit Court

DETROIT (AP)—Santo (Sam) Perrone, described by police as a Mafia member, stood mute at his arraignment Friday on a charge of receiving and concealing stolen property. Recorder's Judge Paul E. Krause released Perrone on $1,000 bond to await examination Feb. 16. The alleged stolen property was found in the trunk of Perrone's car shortly after it was shattered by a bomb Jan. 20 last year. Perrone lost a leg in the bombing.

The first typewriter in which the operator could see the line he was typing was manufactured in 1893.

Interrogation of prisoners disclosed they belonged to the illegal opposition party Sawaba, led by Djibo Bokary, a disgruntled foe of Diori who fled the country in 1959.

RECEIVED MONEY

Commuting between Ghana and Algeria, Bokary received large sums of money from Communist China to launch a revolution against Diori, Western diplomats say.

An estimated 150 African commandos, recruited mainly among Niger emigres in Ghana, were sent to China and trained in the use of firearms, commando tactics and preparation of fire bombs. Others were trained in Algeria.

Last fall, at a Communist meeting in Hanoi, North Viet Nam, Red China disclosed its interest in unseating pro-Western Diori. A Chinese-sponsored resolution approved "the struggle for freedom in Niger."

According to Western intelligence sources, the Chinese asked Bokary to show something for money handed him over a three-year period.

The result was what Western sources describe as a "clumsy, ill-prepared, badly organized attempt at revolutionary warfare."

A dozen groups of 10 to 15 men each crossed Niger's ill-guarded borders. They counted on the aid and sympathy of the Haoussa tribesmen who resent Niger's domination by the Germans, Diori's tribe.

But Haoussa villagers refused water to Bokary's commandos and reported their movement to the army. In some villages rebel emissaries were cut up with machetes.

The attacks were to be simultaneous but there was little coordination. The last attack was reported in November. Some 80 guerrillas were seized, others fled back across the parched frontier of scrub bush.

STRENGTHENED REGIME

Western diplomats say the crushing of the revolt has strengthened Diori's pro-Western regime. The abortive coup also alerted Diori to the possibility of more similar attempts. Vigilance committees and self-defense groups were set up in villages along the country's borders.

Diori has joined Ivory Coast's conservative President Felix Houphouet-Boigny in spearheading anti-China activity in Africa.

Niger has a population of over three million sparsely spread out over 490,000 square miles. Cattle and peanuts are the main exports.

Detroit Bank Robbed by Fleet-Footed Felon

DETROIT (AP)—A gunman robbed an East Side Detroit Bank and Trust Co. office of $993 Friday and escaped on foot, the FBI said. The bandit was wearing a porkpie hat and grey V-neck sweater when he displayed a small black pistol and demanded "all the big bills" from a teller.

Childhood Of Erwin Daughters Caught In Oil Painting

Compact Kitchen Features Wall To Wall Carpeting

Erwins' Home Found On Cedarwald Court In Oakland Valley Subdivision, Oakland Twp.

Pontiac Press Photos by Edward R. Noble

Heirlooms And Treasures Of The Erwins' Trips Abroad Are Displayed In The Formal Living Room

View Determined Erwins' Home Site

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

The gently rolling hills of Oakland Township with their ever-changing kaleidoscope of color led Mr. and Mrs. William Erwin to choose their hillside site on Cedarwald Court, Oakland Township.

"In the distance," said Mrs. Erwin, "we can see the hills of Stony Creek Park. And, on a clear day, we can even see as far as the Mount Clemens County Building 18 miles away."

To take advantage of the lot's position, the Erwins' home, designed and built by Terrence O'Connor of Oakland Township, presents a ranch front exterior with the back a blevel.

Double carriage doors open into the carpeted entrance foyer which leads to the formal living room, the kitchen and the sleeping wing.

The foyer, kitchen, breakfast room, living room and hall are carpeted in a tweed incorporating shades of gold with brown and green accents.

To coordinate the kitchen and breakfast room, matching wallpaper and fabric in a provincial print are used. The print introduces moss green, gold, brown, pumpkin and white on a rich-cream background.

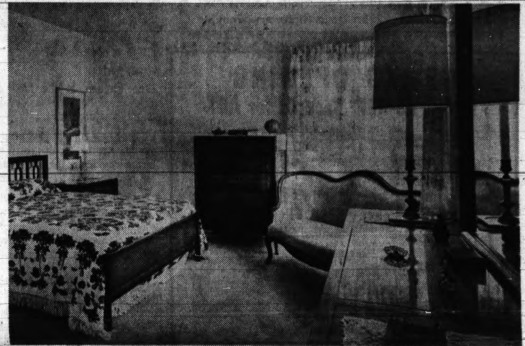

Carpeting in the kitchen might not prove practical for a household with small children. But it adds an interesting decorator touch in an all-adult family like the Erwins, which also includes Mrs. Erwin's mother, Mrs. Mary Wells.

Dominating the music corner of the formal living room is a mahogany electronic organ. Twin pumpkin-wood swivel rockers are grouped about an heirloom cherry table which belonged to Mrs. Erwin's family.

Dressing the broad picture windows which overlook the hills and valleys are beige draperies in an open weave. Pastel yellow threads, to blend with the room's walls, highlight the fabric.

The mantel beam on the used-brick fireplace repeats the finish of the ceiling beams.

Handy Tips on Plumbing

"If your water closet (toilet) tank fills too much or not enough, try bending the rod attached to the metal float upward or downward."

This is one among scores of handy tips included in the authoritative booklet, "Plumbing Care & Repair." The booklet covers twenty categories — everything from drains, fittings and water closets to thawing and preventing frozen pipes, noises in the plumbing system, and draining the plumbing in a vacant house.

A few more of the suggestions included:

- "Periodically check the U-trap beneath sinks and lavatories for any potentially clogging materials."
- "Use a 'plumbers friend,' a plunger, to clear simple clogged drain lines."
- "Flushing hot water down the kitchen and bathroom drains each day is an excellent way to prevent clogging."
- "An uneven shower spray can often be remedied by re-aligning the face of the shower head, cleaning its back surface and freeing the holes with a large needle."
- "The best way to thaw frozen pipes is to wrap heavy cloths around them."

To receive this valuable booklet, send 15c, your name and address to the Plumbing - Heating & Cooling Information Bureau, 35 East Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60601. Ask for it by name, "Plumbing Care & Repair."

MODIFIED SPLIT LEVEL. — Normal assets of split level have been retained by architect Samuel Paul in this five-bedroom house along with some features of ranch home.

Ranch Advantages Found in Split Level

One of the chief advantages of a split level home is its provision for extra living space at a modest cost.

But when it comes to the normal disposition of service facilities, the split level's nearest cousin, the ranch, usually takes the honors.

In order to strike a happy balance, taking the best features of each type of home, architect Samuel Paul designed this modified split level for House of the Week.

It offers the inherent economy of multi-story living as well as the conveniences of ranch-style living.

Take, for instance, the above-mentioned service facilities. A spacious laundry, a lavatory, service entrance, storage garage and a two-car garage are all close to the kitchen — unusual split-level convenience.

WORK AREA
The kitchen is the kind of work area housewives dream about but seldom have.

There is a central food preparation center located just a turn away from the four major appliances.

There are 28' of counter top, a built-in planning desk and an adjoining dinette big enough in itself to accommodate almost any family group.

The main entrance to this home, Design H-69, is via a charming front portico which leads to a spacious reception foyer.

To the one side are the living and dining rooms, which occupy the entire front in an

H-69 STATISTICS
Design H-69 has a living room, dining room, kitchen, dinette, den, three bedrooms, reception foyer, 2½ baths, laundry and two-car garage on the main level; a recreation room, two bedrooms and a full bath on the lower level. The total habitable area is 2,613 square feet, not including the garage. The over-all dimensions are 32' by 35' 4", calling for a minimum lot of 90' by 100'. Provision is made for a full basement.

The plans for this house provide for a full basement. But even if the basement area were not utilized, there are 1,866 square feet of habitable area on the main floor of this house, 747 on the lower floor.

This does not include the two-car garage, which has plenty of room for storage as well as a work bench.

attractive in-line arrangement of 30'.

Directly ahead of the foyer is an extra room, one of the many bonuses in the house.

This room could serve as a den or library for the man of the house, as a sewing room for the lady, or simply as a guest room.

BEDROOM AREA
Half a flight up, to the left of the foyer, are three bedrooms, two full baths (both with dressing vanities) and six roomy closets.

Half a flight down, below the bedrooms, is the extra area that distinguishes the split level.

Located here is a large recreation room, enhanced by a dramatic stone fireplace wall and by a window wall which includes a pair of sliding glass doors leading to a rear patio.

Also on this lower floor is another full bath with a stall shower, plus two additional bedrooms and six more closets.

Note that these two bedrooms are well removed from the recreation room for privacy and quiet, and are directly connected to the bath via a separate foyer.

This gives the family five bedrooms; six if the proposed den were used for sleeping.

But if the two lower level bedrooms are not needed, or become vacant at a later date, this space could be used as an office suite.

HOME OFFICE
More and more executives are setting up offices in their homes to handle the excess of paper work that seems to be so prevalent in the modern business world.

In such an event, architect Paul has provided for an optional outside entrance at that point so the area could function independently without disturbing use of the recreation room.

Still another suggestion: if local regulations permitted it, the entire lower level could become a full rental apartment at some future date with the addition of a kitchen.

The plans for this house provide for a full basement. But even if the basement area were not utilized, there are 1,866 square feet of habitable area on the main floor of this house, 747 on the lower floor.

This does not include the two-car garage, which has plenty of room for storage as well as a work bench.

On Septic Systems

Garbage Disposers

Contrary to some long-held beliefs, garbage disposers can be installed on septic tank systems, providing the system is large enough to handle the increased load.

Ernest J. Prialux, national service manager for In-Sink-Erator Manufacturing Co., Racine, Wis., reports that as of Jan. 1, 1964, there were approximately 750,000 garbage disposers in use in homes serviced by septic tank systems.

Prialux pointed out that an extensive report detailing the effects disposers have on septic tank systems was published a little over two years ago by the U.S. Public Health Service's Robert A. Taft Sanitary Engineering Center in Cincinnati, O.

During the preparation of this report, hundreds of septic tanks and absorption systems were dug up in different soils.

Decorator's Dream

New Vinyls Introduce Individuality and Beauty

Today's cookie-cutter apartments and pre-in-a-pod houses have provided one unexpected boon: they've made us conscious as never before of the mellow beauty of old things.

To counteract sameness, we search the world's bazaars for furnishings, ruggedly hewn or subtly crafted, that spell individuality.

But now we can create whole backgrounds equally warm and ageless — and give thanks to the modern technology which has put time-honored textures and designs within reach, in the form of easy-to-install vinyl.

Old brick with all its crumbled edges and weathered surfaces is faithfully reproduced in vinyl. Made in actual brick shapes, it can go in herringbones, staggered rows or any other pattern, and four authentic, aged colors — red, pink, beige, and white — make possible innumerable combinations in the classic masonry manner.

In a foyer, a floor might suggest an old French conservatory; in a glass-walled family room, it could recreate a patio somewhere in Mexico. A natural partner to all the provincials, whether of Spain, France or early America, also makes a distinctive home for contemporary furnishings.

PARQUETRY

In addition to the individual bricks, it comes in three-brick, nine-inch squares — fast to install and fine for parquetry.

An ancient paving of marble strips, recaptured in vinyl, can bring an atrium-like sweep to foyer or living room, or endow a wall with the vitality of ancient masonry.

This new vinyl looks centuries old: the marble is chipped and split, the grout beds deep and rough — and these natural irregularities make seams invisible when the thirty-six or twelve-inch tiles are laid. A wall of the black vinyl hung with tapestries, carvings and such could transform a monotonous hall into a dramatic gallery.

Underfoot, beige squares, bordered with matching pebbled vinyl, could make a terrace-like floor for a dining room's wrought-iron furniture. In white, it would be elegant under steel and glass, and in early terra cotta, it could underscore the look of a country house in Spain or France.

A traditional form of hand-painted decoration that opens up a realm of unusual ideas are the stenciled motifs that once embellished floors and walls of New England farmhouses, now permanently recaptured in wood-grained vinyl. Stylized flowers and scrolls, bold of shape or finely-drawn, make up a group of new vinyl patterns.

The range of colorings suggests infinite uses: backgrounds and patterns in clear, bright

WOOD-GRAINED VINYL — All this brilliance under foot could be a hand-painted floor — but it's really wood-grained vinyl permanently abloom with brightness. The bold, primaries can make a whole room sing; in natural wood and muted tones, they serve as subtle accents to floors and furnishings.

An eighteen-inch square with a splashy flower and a scroll border brings a brilliant sweep of pattern and color to a country-style dining room. A six-inch-wide border strip of delicately-stroked flowers and scrolls could outline the matching floor of a foyer, or edge a dado with a flourish.

And a two-inch wide strip with a starry leaf-and-bud motif might crisscross the solid-color tiles of a living room, or frame a doorway. Though the origins are American, the designs have the universality of any folk art, hence can spark the most diverse of settings.

Base coat and wipe-off glaze are available in many colors.

FLAGSTONES

Finally, the look of flagstone paving can bring the cool spacioussness of the outdoors to a cramped foyer or dining room, even when the budget is earth-bound.

A new stony flooring is a sheet vinyl, textured with rough-cut, small flags set in beds of tiny pebbles — perfect base for Mexico's rustic woodwork, or for lacy wrought iron or cane.

The intricate network of pebbles conceals any seams, and you can carry out the illusion of a patio floor by choosing a true stone color — or let fancy free with a brilliant blue green or pastel-daubed white.

Since the new vinyl has a special water-proof backing, even basement recreation rooms can grow airy as gardens with a sweep of romantic stone-work underfoot.

West's vulnerable overall was not the sort of bid that should be made in a steady diet and when North doubled West was on his way to the cleaners. East's rescue to one spade was no better but West got out of trouble with his two club bid and would have remained out of trouble if his partner had not made just about the worst two bids made in the world championship club trials.

Milk Price Control Will Result if Abuses Don't Stop - Romney

EAST LANSING (AP)—If he low-cost retail selling of milk "isn't cleaned up voluntarily, some form of regulatory legislation is inevitable," Gov. George Romney told dairy farmers Friday.

Such selling of milk hurts small dairies, farmers and consumers, Romney said.

He spoke to the American Dairy Association of Michigan at a meeting at Michigan State University, connected with MSU's 50th anniversary Farmers' Week.

Manager of Beatles Says They're 'Hair' to Stay

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Brian Epstein, the boyish-looking, 30-year-old discoverer and manager of The Beatles, very succinctly said to me:

"They're greater than ever! They're never been at such a high level."

And, said the former Liverpool record shop manager, who now manages 12 of England's biggest acts, they're going on and on. "I think The Beatles will do even better as film entertainers than as live entertainers," he said. "And they'll make many more films."

Epstein was here arranging their third U.S. tour for August. They're going to Nassau this month to start their second picture. Epstein knows that this both-sides-of-the-street gold mining can't continue forever.

"Can they continue giving their live performances indefinitely... will they want to?" I asked.

"No, I don't think so." He poured himself a scotch-and-soda as he sat in his Plaza suite.

"I don't think you can keep asking people to see their films and their personal appearances."

"I think they will explode again in their next picture. Then they must eventually fit into pictures not just as Beatles but as actors..."

"Like Rex Harrison playing Caesar in one movie and Professor Tuggles in another?"

"That's it. I think they'll stay together, they'll go on making records and films for many, many years."

THE WEEKEND WINDUP

Schneider Dull told Xavier Cugat, a fellow artist: "The public won't recognize your genius till you extend your musicals another inch on each side." Broadway bellydancer and Strip-teaser Agent Joe Williams fell on the ice and busted his schnozz (which wasn't small to begin with)... Sammy Davis installed a sauna bath in his east side town house.

Dan Duray, the frequent villain, talker to a fellow train rider recently who finally said, astonished, "Mr. Duray, you're actually nice!"... One of the least expensive items in the multimillion-dollar film "Lord Jim" is the story; producer Richard Brooks paid $6,500 for it in '58... Tanqueray Gin boss Syd White OK'd "Tang" as the commercial nickname.

Aid Plan OK'd by House Unit

Appalachia Bill Goes to Full Committee

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson's $1.1-billion Appalachia program was a step closer to the House floor today despite GOP attempts to replace it with a much broader measure.

A House public works subcommittee yesterday sent the administration bill to the full committee after beating down moves by Reps. William C. Cramer, R-Fla., and James C. Cleveland, R-N.H., to expand its coverage to all economically depressed areas in the country.

The GOP congressmen's proposed changes are expected to meet a similar fate when the parent committee takes up the proposal Tuesday.

As passed by the Senate and approved by the House subcommittee, the bill, part of Johnson's over-all antipoverty campaign, calls for economic redevelopment programs in areas of 11 states.

Cramer, ranking Republican on the subcommittee, charged that the administration proposal discriminated against other areas suffering from economic depression and would create "federal dictation."

CONNECTING ROADS

The major portion of the GOP attack was aimed at a provision authorizing $840 million over a four-year period to construct 3,350 miles of connecting highways in the mountainous area.

Roles Ghoulish, Not So Foolish

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — How does a glamorous actress portray the ghoulish mistress of a haunted house?

Earlier this season I asked that of Yvonne de Carlo, the vampirish den mother of "The Munsters."

"Simple," said Yvonne. "I follow the directions I received. THOMAS on the first day of shooting: 'Play her just like Donna Reed.'"

It seemed only fair to offer equal time to Carolyn Jones, the smartly shrouded mix of "The Addams Family." I found her amid the hangman's nooses and carnivorous plants of the Addams mansion. She led the way to her dressing room, where she served up a lunch of homemade vegetable soup — "I make it by the cauldron."

COMPETITIVE SPIRIT

Miss Jones displayed no competitive spirit toward "The Munsters." She even admitted to watching the opposition, and she enjoys the show. But she remarked that there are differences.

"Their stories are more down-to-earth and neighborhood," she observed. "Our atmosphere is more elegant, more hip. We aren't bothered with workaday problems, since Gomez (her series husband, John Astin) doesn't have to work. He is independently wealthy; as Charles Addams himself explained, one of his ancestors made a killing."

The difference between the two shows is similar to the difference between "Ben Casey" and "Dr. Kildare." As Miss Jones put it, one ("Casey") is hip, the other ("Kildare") is sentimental.

Barons Explode on Milford; Clarkston Wins

Holly Cager Sets Record

Fagan Nets 38 Points; Northville Triumphs

Bloomfield Hills dropped a delayed-action bomb last night to maintain its lead in the Wayne-Oakland basketball race.

The Barons exploded in the fourth quarter to defeat Clarkston 53-35. St. Mary broke its fourth-place tie with West Bloomfield by downing the Lakers, 66-56.

Tom Fagan set a school scoring record with 38 points as Holly held second place with a 90-41 romp over Brighton. Northville stayed even with Holly on the strength of a 59-44 decision at Clawsonville.

Bloomfield Hills and Milford were tied 33-33 with seven minutes to play. Then the Barons scored 15 points while holding Milford scoreless to pull out the victory.

Greg Anderson hit three field goals and Jeff DeBando added seven points in the late surge.

DeBando topped all scorers with 18 points. Anderson added 16.

The Barons are 9-1 in league play; one games up on Holly and Northville.

THREE SIDELINED

Although three starters did not play, West Bloomfield stayed close to Clarkston for a half, trailing, 30-23. Jay Williams and Greg Hephinstall were sidelined by the flu and Tim Moller was down with an injured ankle.

John Wilberg and Gary Pearson began a connecting from the outside in the third period and the Wolves opened an eight-point lead.

Dan Fife and Wilberg each scored 20 points for the Wolves and Pearson contributed 12. Rick Hatch tossed in 30 for the Lakers.

Fagan hit 17 of 26 field goals against the way to erasing the old Holly mark of 36 points set by Ron Morylan.

Brighton jumped to an eight-point lead in the first period, but the Broncos stormed back with Fagan leading the charge to gain a 50-35 halftime advantage.

After a close first period, Northville took control of the backboards and won going away. The Mustangs led 22-18, at the half. Tom Bingham paced the winners with 15 and Rick Milne clinched with 14.

Oakland-A Quintets on Scoring Sprees

By HERB PETERS
All of the Oakland-A winners except Troy went on scoring binges last night, but the conference leaders didn't have to as their air tight defense shut off Madison in a 50-42 triumph.

The win ran the Colts' record to 9-1 and kept their two-game lead intact—when Lake Orion and Warren Cousino posted the night's top tallies to remain tied for second at 7-3.

Lake Orion shelled Clawson, 38-17, in moving from a 56-31 halftime bulge, and Cousino pulled away from Avondale in the fourth period to notch a 70-70 decision.

BIG SPURT

Rochester also put on a sharp sport in the last quarter to kick Fitzgerald, 76-65, and the Avondale at 5-4. Trailing are the losers, Madison (4-5), Fitzgerald (2-9), and Clawson (1-10).

Troy and Madison began as though their contest would be similar to the others with the Colts ahead 18-16 after one period. But the tempo slowed to a 30-27 half, and never increased.

Madison drew within four in the third before finally outscored, 5-6, and the Colts sparred through an 11-4 finale. Chris Becham whipped in 28 points for the victors, while teammate Bud Hether had 12 each.

Lake Orion nearly swept Clawson off its home court in a 27-8 first period, and kept gunning through a 23-23 second when the Trojans caught the scoring fever.

The Dragons' simmered down after the break, collecting 32 points the second half, and Clawson trimmed the final margin with a 40-point outpour.

Enjoying its peak shooting night, Orion banged in 31 field goals. Bill Hamilton led with 23 points, 23 coming in the first half. Also in double figures were Dave Phillips 19, Dennis Brophy 17, and Dave Dewey 13.

Clawson's Rick Miller racked up 28 points, including 14 in the second period, and Jim Bowen added 11.

Rochester had its hands full for three periods, rallying from an 18-16 first period deficit, and take a 39-35 halftime lead, and then being on top 54-51 going in to the fourth.

Fitzgerald grabbed a 57-56 lead early in the last session, but the Falcons then went on a 14-2 spree to win going away. Bruce McDonald set the pace, racking 12 in the finale to finish with 27 points.

Bob Mills, who put the PCH mark, tallied 14. Don Bilby hit 16 for the Spartans followed by Dave Dubowski at 14 and Cass Suwinski with 12.

Cousino led Avondale 19-16 the first quarter and by 38-35 at the half only to fall behind, 58-57, after three periods. The Patriots set out on a 22-12 rush in the fourth to break the contest open as Greg Fruehe triggered the outburst with 11 points in a three-minute span.

Lynn Thorpe did yeoman duty for the Yellow Jackets, bagging 14 field goals to score 35 points, and Dan McCoskey contributed 15 before fouling out in the third. Drew Pishia's 26 topped Cousino with Fruehe getting 19.

Sports Editor, Pontiac Press
There's a jolly Polish press that has the words, "Dobry Pan, Dobry Pan" similar to the English words, "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," which was appropriate for Coach Rev. John (Rocky) Rakoczy last night.

The Eaglets travelled to Farmington Our Lady and, with the vocal support of its entire student body, won the 2nd division title and tournament crown in 1944 against St. Ambrose and it meant one of the best seasons in his 11 years as coach.

As result, both Our Lady and St. Mary go into the parochial tournament Sunday night, at U. D. High school in the parochial semi-finals.

BIG RECOVERY

The Eaglets made a fantastic recovery in winning last night. Farmington Our Lady took a 16-1 lead and was ahead 22-16 before the first quarter ended 23-19.

Miles Kearney led at 25-10 and the Lancers pushed ahead 29-16. Then Orchard Lake caught fire, scoring 13 straight points to tie it 29-29 with 20 seconds left.

Kearney hit in the final second of a 29 halftime lead. Midway in the third quarter, St. Mary went ahead 37-36, but the game was tied three times and the lead changed hands 11 times.

The third period ended 42-42 and with 5:52 to play St. Mary led 47-46. Two free throws put Farmington OL ahead 49-47 for the last time, which was tied 54-54 with 2:54 to play.

John Stepien hit two key buckets and St. Mary led 61-56, but the home team came back and moved within one point 61-60. John Stojinski sank two free throws to clinch it, giving the Eaglets a 114-106 victory.

Kearney led all scorers with 28 points, while Connie Krogulecki had 19, Stojinski 18, and the home team came back and moved within one point 61-60. John Stojinski sank two free throws to clinch it, giving the Eaglets a 114-106 victory.

Stojinski also pulled down 18 rebounds, while the big defensive effort was turned in by Stepien, who held high scoring Brian Benner to only six points. Benner has carried a 20 point average in his last seven games and he hit 25 in the first meeting against Orchard Lake this season.

The screaming OL St. Mary student body, which according to Rev. Stan Milewski, "was a 100 cent representation," apparently started the home Farmington team with its vocal support of the Eaglets.

2 Russian Stars Win in Philadelphia Games

Injured Knee Stops Brumel

Reds' Vaulter, Broad Jumper Triumph

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Russia's touring track stars shrugged off three early disappointments to come up with a pair of winners and split top honors with two Britains in the 21st annual running of the Philadelphia Inquirer games.

Friday night was the opening round of Russia's American indoor competition and a flowering world's champion was shown in pole vaulter Gennadiy Bliznetsov, while veteran broad jumper Igor Ter-Ovanesyan won as expected.

Bliznetsov, a 23-year-old electrical engineering student from Kharkov, the only 16-foot vaulter in the Soviet Union, righted the Russians after a series of early disappointments.

Hurdler Anatoly Mikhailov failed to qualify in the 50-yard hurdles, a distance too short for him, and Army Lt. Valery Bulishev waited too long in a slow 1,000 yards and finished third.

Then Valery Brumel, the world's greatest high jumper, warmed up briefly, and withdrew, fearful of aggravating his injured left knee.

RED SOARS
Bliznetsov, who adopted the fibre glass pole only half a year ago and who never had competed on boards, soared over 16 feet and gave notice in a couple of seconds of the glacial rod, he'll be a world's champion.

Ter-Ovanesyan, who holds the world's record indoors, turned in a 26 feet, 1 1/4 inch jump to beat Charlie Mays of New York's second win of the night. Mays, who upset Olympic gold medalist Mike Larabee handily in the 440, did 25 feet, 7 1/2 inches.

Brumel's withdrawal wasn't the only disappointment of the night for the 10,650 fans. The meet lost unbeaten sprinter Sam Bellinger of Fordham through a virus, and Canadian Bill Crothers lost his first race of the season after six victories, a victim of virus and perhaps overwork.

Crothers dropped out of the 1,000 with three laps to go and could only say that the three races he won in as many nights this week "just caught up with me."

The 1,000 yard winner was John Dunkelberg of North Carolina Track Club who outdistanced Noel Carroll of Villanova, last year's winner, with Bulishev third.

MARINE WINS
Lt. Frank Tomez of the Quantico Marines took the half mile, Roger Moran of Northeast Louisiana the 50 yard hurdles; Jim Lee, Maryland sophomore transfer from Southern Illinois, the 50 yard dash; Tom Farrell an upset victory in the 600, and Frank Costello of Maryland, a six-foot-10 winner in the high jump.

On the staff side, Debbie Thompson of the Frederick T & F Club won the 50 yards, and Abby Hoffman of the Toronto Olympics the 440 yards.

Just Call Me Coach

SEATTLE (AP) — The newest football coach in the Pacific Athletic Conference is Demosthenes Konstandines.

He is better known as Dee Andros, former Idaho coach hired by Oregon State University.

"I dropped the Greek spelling a long time ago," Andros said, "I could never remember how to spell it myself."

According to published reports in New York, that opportunity involves one of the most bizarre deals ever devised in pro football. Under terms of the deal, Roberts would be paid for the 1965-66 seasons but would not be an active player.

The Browns, the reports say, have offered to provide seven years of tuition and living expenses for Roberts and his wife through medical school, internship and residency. Both Roberts and his wife, Barbara, want to be doctors.

NO COMMENT

The Columbia ace declined comment on the reports, saying he still is weighing offers from the Browns, the New York Jets of the American Football League and Montreal of the Canadian League. He also said he will not make a decision until after the college baseball season.

A left-handed hitting shortstop, Roberts has received baseball bonus offers up to $100,000.

Under the reported offer, Roberts would only practice with the Browns for two years since the first two years of medical school are the most difficult. Once he reaches his third

Palmer, who had scored 70-70 in the first two frames, was even par at Eldorado until he hit a ball that lodged high in a palm tree to the right of the fairway. Palmer and his army searched without success to locate the ball, not knowing that it was still up in the tree.

Finally, Palmer accepted what amounted to a two-stroke penalty and continued his play. A hole-in-one was registered by Jerry Krueger of Redlands, Calif., on the 174-yard seventh hole at La Quinta. He did it with a 2-iron but finished with a 79 for 221.

Two strokes off the pace were Larry with a 73, Butch Baird, 68, and the second round co-leader, Kermit Langer, 74.

Kicks Up Storm in Birmingham

A team of smooth operators from the Windy City blew into Birmingham last night and kicked up quite a storm.

Chicago Brother Rice's fast and talented basketball team blitzed Birmingham Brother Rice, 83-55, in the first meeting between the two Catholic schools.

The Chicago quintet led by only a point at the end of the first quarter, but stuffed 31 markers through the hoop in the second quarter to take a commanding 42-23 halftime advantage.

Dan Parks topped the Birmingham quintet with 11 points. Chicago was led by Mike Mosuto's 22.

Scoreboard Taxed in Basketball Play

The scoreboard received quite a workout — this week in the YMCA Church — Basketball League's senior division activity.

Central Methodist set a season high with 119 points against Oakland Park Methodist's 58. Tim Negoshian topped the winners with 27 points.

Chuck Threlkeld had 40 in Trinity Baptist's 108-38 whipping of St. Paul Methodist while Cedric Patterson's 22 led unbeaten Macedonia Baptist past First Congregational, 98-58. Lew Krantz had 22 for the losers.

The game honors went to John Hinkley of All Saints who had 29, while Bob Martin's 24 paced the Baptists.

Star Quarterback Going to Cleveland

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Columbia quarterback Archie Roberts is headed for Cleveland, but he isn't saying whether it will be with the National Football League Browns.

Roberts told The Associated Press late Friday night he definitely plans to attend Western reserve medical school in Cleveland. He also said he has been "offered an opportunity" to sign with the Browns.

According to published reports in New York, that opportunity involves one of the most bizarre deals ever devised in pro football. Under terms of the deal, Roberts would be paid for the 1965-66 seasons but would not be an active player.

'Swinging' Basket Helps Top Detroit

By The Associated Press

It probably won't happen again in 100 years. We mean the sort of fluke basket that Tom Gola got for the New York Knicks against the Detroit Pistons in the National Basketball Association Friday night.

Imagine socking the ball during a scramble near midcourt with a sort of handball swing and the ball hitting the rim and flopping in from 46 feet out.

The basket tied the score for the Knicks at 100-106 in the last 14 seconds of regulation time and the New Yorkers went on to a 118-112 victory in overtime on the Pistons' home court. In other games the Boston Celtics, playing at home, edged the Cincinnati Royals 114-113 and the San Francisco Warriors upset the Baltimore Bullets 120-112 at College Park, Md.

IN MY 20 YEARS OF OFFICIATING

I've never seen anything like it," said referee Richie Powers after Gola's basket had climaxed a last quarter Knicks rally that wiped out a 30-point Detroit lead.

Gola's one-for-the-book achievement came about this way:

Terry Dischinger, of Detroit, tried to pass downcourt after Willis Reed's layup cut the Pistons lead to 100-106. Gola blocked the pass. The ball bounced behind Dischinger. During the scramble for the ball that followed Gola swung at it. The ball rose as it headed for the basket, hit the rim and went in.

Reed, whose 29 points was high for the game, broke a 112-

New Post Filled by Stu Thorell

Township Coach Quits After Best Campaign

Waterford Township high school is in the market for a football coach.

Stu Thorell, who held the gridiron reins the last four seasons, has been elevated to house coordinator (assistant principal) at the new Mason junior high. He will take over his new duties when the school opens next fall.

The Board of Education reportedly is accepting applications from candidates both inside and outside the system. Thorell also is the baseball coach.

The decision to leave the coaching ranks was not an easy one for Thorell.

"I had about six weeks to make a decision on whether to stay in coaching or take the new job," he said. "I took most of the six weeks."

"I love coaching, but there were too many 'ifs' in future advancement up the ladder. I always felt that if I gave up coaching, it would be for a position in school administration."

During his four years as head coach at Waterford, Thorell's teams posted a 15-17 record. Last season's 6-21 was the best. Thorell will be re-united with his former coaching boss at Mason. Dave Freeman was head coach at Township when Thorell joined the school's staff as an assistant coach.

He moved up to the head post when Freeman became an assistant principal. Freeman will be principal at Mason.

VIKINGS PRESS
Walled Lake used a zone press and some deadly shooting in the last two quarters to decimate a 39-33 Farmington half-time lead.

The Vikings connected on 13 of 26 field goal tries and 11 of 13 free throws in the second half. Jim Grant's tip-ins, Russ Streeter's outside jump shots and Rick Hughes' drives keyed the Walled Lake offense.

Grant paced the winners with 18 points.

Junior Editors Quiz on PLANTS

QUESTION: How do plants grow?

ANSWER: There is an enormous variation among the plants. They range from such minute forms as one-celled algae to the giant sequoia and redwood trees, among the biggest living things.

There are many different ways in which plants grow and new ones may be formed. The tiny cell of the algae splits into two daughter cells, each alike, and these grow into new individual algae plants.

More elaborate plants, like the mosses, have leaves but only rootlets instead of true roots. They sprout runners on this stalks appear; the end of the cap opens and minute spores drift out to settle down and start new plants.

A great number of plants grow new ones by developing flowers which turn into seeds, and which grow new plants when they fall down on the soil. Plants can also grow in other ways.

Pieces cut from a potato, provided there is an eye or bud, will grow into new plants if planted.

Certain plants send trailing stems along the ground which develop roots and make new plants.

We illustrate still another method. In (1) Judy has clipped a stem from a geranium plant. She is soaking it in water (2) so that roots will form and planting the clipping in a pot in (3). Now she has two plants.

FOR YOU TO DO: Green plants are very cheerful things to have around a house. Try Judy's system and your house will look gay and attractive. Be sure to wait until the roots have formed before planting in the new pot.

County Unit Seeks Boating Law Hearing

The miscellaneous committee of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors yesterday recommended that the State Boating Control Committee be petitioned to hold a public hearing on a water safety ordinance for Oakland County.

The recommendation will be submitted to the legislative committee.

If approved there, it will then be presented to the full board of supervisors, which can request the hearing by majority vote.

The miscellaneous committee made its recommendation after hearing a report and discussion of the county's boating problems by Lt. Donald Kratt, water safety officer of the sheriff's department.

Lt. Kratt has campaigned vigorously in recent months to obtain a county ordinance preventing the use of alcoholic beverages in boats on the county's lakes.

NOT BROAD ENOUGH
State law already prohibits operation of a power boat while under the influence of alcohol, Lt. Kratt pointed out, but the law is not broad enough to cover all the problems resulting directly or indirectly from too much drinking on the lakes.

Lt. Kratt explained that a county can adopt its own water safety ordinance by presenting it to the state committee, which holds a public hearing on the ordinance and then makes its recommendation.

If approved, the ordinance would then be submitted to the governor, whose approval would be required before it could be adopted by the county.

Lt. Kratt said adoption of such an ordinance by Oakland County would probably lead to similar legislation in other counties.

U.S. to Help
Thailand Meet
Threat by Reds

Will Step Up Aid
to Fight Subversion
Aimed at Take-Over

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials said today the United States is backing Thailand with stepped-up economic and military aid in intensified police action against Communist subversion.

U.S. Ambassador Graham Martin is home for consultations on Thai security problems. Stepping clandestine Communist radio broadcasts the past two months have been calling for the establishment of a national liberation front and national patriotic front. But these efforts have not increased Communist capability to gain a foothold in Thailand, U.S. officials said.

The main significance of the clandestine broadcasts, which are traceable to transmitters in Laos, North Viet Nam and South China, is mainly in showing Communist plans for the area, sources said.

Nov. 1, a broadcast announced the establishment of a movement for the independence of Thailand. It called for the overthrow of the Thai government and alleged that the country was a "new-type colony" of the United States.

FRONT FORMED
Jan. 1, a so-called national patriotic front was formed, according to another clandestine radio broadcast. It also used the same phraseology of "new-type" colony as a description for Thailand and called for an uprising against the government.

The Thai government intensified police vigilance in the northeast province adjoining Laos and sent mobile civic action development units into the area.

U.S. officials take the view that these fronts exist more as a fiction on the radio than as actual fronts, but say the Communist activity is not being ignored.

U.S. military and economic aid to Thailand has been running at about $13-14 million a year. This will be stepped up, officials said, but they gave no figure.

Man's Thumb Saves 4 Lives

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Topside a hurricane was brewing. On the ocean floor 193 feet below four men were in a 10-by-40-foot cylinder which could become their tomb unless they were rescued before the storm struck.

For seven hours, while an overloaded crane shook with the effort of trying to haul the underwater laboratory to the surface, no one knew whether they would make it.

The men were ordered to abandon the laboratory — their home for the previous 10 days — and move to a tiny, cramped compression chamber for the trip to the surface. Then, just as the chamber cleared the water, it sprang a leak. In minutes the four would die painfully of the "bends," unless the leak was plugged.

Chief Petty Officer Sanders Manning found the leak and plugged the hole with his thumb. Internal pressure, equal to that of the ocean at 200 feet, jammed his thumb in the hole like a cork in a bottle. The flesh gave with a spurt of blood but the bone held and the leak was stopped.

LIFTED TO SAFETY
Minutes later the chamber, dangling from the end of a wire rope, was lifted to safety—just in the nick of time. Technicians discovered a metal pin to which the rope was attached had been bent and almost sheared.

"We were holding our breath — those men were close to death," Navy Capt. G. F. Bond said yesterday in telling details of an experiment called "Sea Lab I" off Bermuda in January 1964.

Bond told the winter convention on electronics the four men showed no ill effects from their long underwater adventure—except for Manning's bloody thumb.

Astronaut Scott Carpenter was to have been one of the four, Bond said, but he broke his arm in a preliminary dive and was replaced. Bond identified the others as Lt. Cmdr. Robert Thompson, Cpl. Robert A. Barter and Gunner Mate Lester Anderson.

FURTHER PLANS
Bond also disclosed plans for a more elaborate experiment with a 12x50-foot "Sea Lab II" to house teams of 10 men up to 30 days at a depth of 250 feet off La Jolla, Calif., this summer.

If it is successful the Navy plans to have "large numbers of men living and working indefinitely at depths up to 600 feet" within the next four years, Bond said.

Kosygin Urges a United Red Viet Nam

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin expressed strong Soviet support in Hanoi today for unification of Viet Nam under the North Vietnamese Communist regime. He attacked the U.S. role in South Viet Nam.

Speaking on his arrival in Hanoi at the head of a delegation that is expected to extend military aid to North Viet Nam, Kosygin called his visit "an important political action."

He hinted at an intention of trying during his four-day visit to detach North Viet Nam from its close adherence to Peking in the Soviet-Chinese dispute.

Cooperation between the Soviet Union and North Viet Nam is getting stronger and is "a worthy contribution to unity of the Socialist camp," Kosygin said.

Kosygin flew into Hanoi from Peking, where he had talks last night with Premier Chou En-lai.

RUSSIAN WELCOMED
Tass, the Soviet news agency, reported from Hanoi that thousands of persons welcomed Kosygin at the airport. His arrival speech was broadcast by Moscow radio.

He said his visit was an important political action for strengthening Moscow-Hanoi unity "in the struggle against imperialism."

Successes of North Viet Nam are "an inspiring example for the population of South Viet Nam against American and foreign interventionists and their puppets," Kosygin said. The crowd applauded.

Communist dispatches from Peking indicated Kosygin got a chilly reception from the Chinese hierarchy on his brief stopover. Tass, the Soviet news agency, said in a story from the Red Chinese capital that "a talk took place between the two sides" after a dinner given by Chou for Kosygin.

The communique on the meeting did not say what is often announced on such occasions: that the talks were held in a cordial and friendly atmosphere and that the two Red leaders had reached a complete identity of views.

On the other hand, newspapers in Hanoi extended "warm greetings" today in banner headlines to the Soviet delegation whose visit to North Viet Nam indicates a Soviet challenge to Communist China's dominance in Southeast Asia.

State Tax Rift
Could Close
College Gate

LANSING (AP)—A protracted political storm over tax reform could close college doors to thousands of Michigan high school graduates unless Michigan's colleges and universities are allowed to act quickly, education leaders said yesterday.

The Michigan Coordinating Council for Public Higher Education—made up of governing board members of presidents of state-operated colleges — met with Gov. Romney to discuss his proposed 1965-66 budget.

Recommendations in Romney's budget against a Michigan State University school of human medicine or expansion of the Flint campus of the University of Michigan and the Sault Ste. Marie branch of the Michigan Technological University were not mentioned, they said.

"But," he added, "at this point we're not worrying about the long-range planning, we're worried about the short-range problems that we are facing now and going to face in the next few years."

WAVE OF STUDENTS
If the state does not get fiscal reform in the near future, the schools will have to have a bonding program to build to meet the tidal wave of new students that started last fall, said Warren Huff, chairman of the Michigan State University Board of Trustees and of the Coordinating Council.

Some 110,000 students will

Liner Down in Heart
of Andes; Flight Had
Made Stop at Miami

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—A Chilean passenger plane with 82 persons aboard crashed in the Andes today and police said there were no signs of survivors.

A national police search plane reported from a spot near La Valdes, about 50 miles east of Santiago in the lofty mountains, that wreckage was spotted at an altitude of 11,700 feet.

The plane crashed and burned a few minutes after takeoff from Buenos Aires. The wreckage is scattered for about 600 feet, the police plane reported.

Seven passengers boarded the plane at Miami, Chilean Airlines said. The 75 passengers included a football team from the Chilean National Bank, which was to play against the Bank of Montevideo.

The plane was a DC-8 of the Chilean National Airlines—LAN. Police said it carried 75 passengers and a crew of seven.

MOUNTAIN AREA
The crash occurred in the heart of the Andean range.

The plane left Santiago at about 8 a.m. Its first stop three hours later was to have been Buenos Aires, then Montevideo, Uruguay.

According to the first reports the plane crashed and fire broke out immediately as it hit the side of a hill.

Rev. King Is Told to Take Vote Issue to Katzenbach

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House is asking the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., to meet Monday with Atty. Gen-designate Nicholas Katzenbach rather than President Johnson to discuss voting rights legislation.

King, acting through attorney Harry Wachtel, sought a Monday appointment with Johnson after he emerged yesterday from a five-day stay in the jail at Selma, Ala. He had led a Negro voter registration drive there.

Johnson's press secretary, George E. Reedy, said today that Lee White, associate special counsel at the White House, suggested that King meet instead with Katzenbach and other Justice Department officials "engaged in considering legislation on this matter."

Reedy said King had not yet responded to the suggestion. And he added that the possibility of an appointment with Johnson "is not being foreclosed."

The press secretary said the White House felt it would be best for King to "present his views and the data he has gathered to the officials directly concerned."

Reedy said Johnson later will send to Congress proposals for voting rights legislation. Aides have said in the past this might take the form of a suggested constitutional amendment.

Bearded and a little hoarse, King traveled to Marion, Ala., last night and spoke at a church rally. King was married near the west Alabama town nearly 11 years ago.

"We are going all out in Alabama," he told the church meeting. "We are going to get this right to vote even if it is necessary to fill up all the jails of Alabama. Alabama will be the major target for 1965."

While the mild temperatures may be welcome, the "lakes" made by melting ice and snow are not.

More mild temperatures and springlike weather are ahead. Partly cloudy to cloudy skies are expected, along with higher temperatures and rather high winds.

A low of 38 to 45 is forecast for tonight, to be followed by a high of 48 to 55 tomorrow. Little change is expected Monday, save for the addition of showers to the prediction.

Today in Pontiac, winds are southerly at 10 to 20 miles an hour.

The low mercury reading this morning was 37. At 2 p.m. the area had a temperature of 42.

Laos General Flees Into Exile

VIETNAME, Laos (UPI) — Right-wing Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, stripped of his post as vice premier for masterminding an attempted coup this week, fled into exile last night, it was reported here.

Authoritative sources said Phoumi fled across the Mekong River into neighboring Thailand, accompanied by ousted national police chief Sino and about six aides.

Phoumi and his party apparently crossed the river somewhere between Thadua and Pakxane, east of Vientiane.

The sources said Phoumi's party is now in a government guest house in the northeast Thai city of Oudorn, 350 miles northeast of Bangkok.

Phoumi was dismissed as vice premier by Premier Souvanna Phouma last night.

Souvanna announced today that Phoumi's rebellion had been "completely crushed" and the

Job Program Given Priority

U.S. Plans to Train
10,000 Each Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department plans to put the "very first, highest priority" on President Johnson's call to create new jobs in the rapidly expanding service industries, says the man who will run the program.

Stanley Rittenberg, recently named manpower administrator, said the plan is to train 10,000 workers a month for service jobs by July 1.

While Rittenberg will be responsible for the program, he plans to name a full-time assistant.

The government hopes the plan will make a big dent in the ranks of the unemployed by training workers for jobs where there is now a shortage of trained persons.

REPAIR JOBS
One large area in which the Labor Department's manpower development program will concentrate is in various kind of repair jobs, such as electrical appliances and autos.

"The unemployed worker and the great demand for services must be brought together," Rittenberg said in an interview.

Controversial Politician Is Slain by India Gunmen

NEW DELHI (AP) — Pratap Singh Kairon, 64, one of India's most controversial politicians, was slain today by gunmen who ambushed his car 20 miles northwest of here, officials reported.

Skeletal reports from the scene said three other men in the car were shot down with Kairon.

Kairon, who resigned under fire in June as chief minister of Punjab State, had been in New Delhi for a meeting with Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri. They talked privately.

There was no immediate indication whether the killers had political motives or were members of the Dacoit (bandit) gangs that roam sections of the Punjab—the home of the tall, sturdy Sikhs.

WAS CHARGED
Reported killed with Kairon was his son, his secretary, Ajit Singh, and his driver.

Kairon resigned after the government charged he amassed "a fortune of ill gotten wealth" as governor.

The scandal presented Shastri with his first explosive political controversy after becoming India's leader in June.

Officials said the killers were four burly Sikhs armed with rifles.

YOUTH IN U.S.
Kairon, a Sikh, was a bespectacled man who affected a long gray beard and white turban. In his youth, he spent nine years in America, working as a farmhand in California and taking a degree in political science from the University of Michigan.

He returned to India in 1929, joined the struggle against British colonial rule, and later became a close aide of the late Prime Minister Nehru. Kairon spent five years in a British jail for assisting Nehru in the struggle for independence.

In one of the double fatalities, Mrs. Elizabeth Sanders, 30, and Raymond Mitchell, 33, both of River Rouge, died in a flaming crash when their car hit the rear of a gasoline tank truck in River Rouge early Saturday.

Floyd McMichael, 39, of Dexter was killed Friday night in Webster Township, Washtenaw County, when his car hit a tree.

LaVern Lewis, 51, of Midland and James Cushman, 39, of Saginaw were killed near Freeland in Saginaw County Friday night. Police say Lewis' car skidded out of control and hit an oncoming car.

To Consider Chief Planner for Waterford

Appointment of Vern Wiggins as director of the Waterford Township planning department will be considered Monday night by the Township Board.

Wiggins, who had been assistant director, was named acting head of the department last fall when Robert Diehl resigned as planning director.

The township's planning commission has recommended that Wiggins be appointed director.

In other business Monday the board will consider final approval of the Alpine Point subdivision plat and preliminary approval of the Silver Lake Estates No. 7 plat.

Alpine Point is located north of Walton near Dill and Silver Lakes Estates No. 7 is near the new Silver Lake Elementary School.

OTHER ITEMS
Also slated for board attention action on the proposed subdivision regulations compiled by the township's planning consultants.

Bids on a car for the supervisor will be opened and engineering fee proposals for inspection of new residential developments will be reviewed.

Dixie Negroes to Be Served

Restaurateur Maddox to Avoid Court Fine

ATLANTA (AP) — Atlanta restaurateur Lester Maddox, who has fought the Civil Rights Act since its passage, said today he will serve Negroes.

A federal judge yesterday ordered Maddox to pay a $300 fine for each day his restaurant was open and practiced racial discrimination.

Maddox said he would abide by the court order requiring him to serve persons of all races. He said a certificate of compliance would be filed in federal court Monday.

He said he was not surprised at the court's decision but was shocked that so many Americans had failed to fight the passage of the Civil Rights Act. He said the act already had brought hate, prejudice, violence and death.

"But," he added, "I am one who must obey the law."

ASKED SUPPORT
He said he pleaded with his friends to continue to support him with their patronage and their prayers.

Maddox said he also asked his supporters not to make unkind remarks about U. S. District Judge Frank Hooper, who fixed the fine.

Hooper, Maddox said, was bound by a previous decision of the U. S. Supreme Court.

Maddox said the civil rights law had turned the nation into a police state, and had made the Constitution nothing more than a scrap of paper.

Ship Missing $250,000 Worth of Gold Bullion

SOUTHAMPTON, England (AP) — Police searched today for $250,000 worth of gold bullion missing from the luxury liner Capetown Castle.

Officers sifted through thousands of crates of tomatoes and oranges in hopes of finding the 20 gold bars weighing about 500 pounds that disappeared from the ship's storeroom.

The loss was discovered yesterday when the 27,000-ton vessel docked here after a 14-day trip from South Africa.

Detectives and customs officials believe the bullion, which was packed in 10 boxes, is hidden aboard the ship.

The gold had been loaded at Durban and the liner made calls at East London, Port Elizabeth, Cape Town and Las Palmas in the Canary Islands. Authorities at these points were notified.

Morocco Next Subject in Film Travel Series

BIRMINGHAM — Romantic, mysterious Morocco will be the subject of next week's offering in the world travel series at the Community House.

The color film will be narrated by Nicol Smith, a film lecturer with a reputation for exploring strange, remote and interesting places.

He was the first person to explore and film the interior of the Island of Hainan and the first to make a round trip over the Burma Road in China during the rainy season.

One of his most unusual filming adventures was his caravan journey across western Tibet to Lake Pangong and the Hidden Valley of the Himal.

As a lieutenant colonel during World War II, Smith was a secret agent for the Office of Strategic Service in both Thailand and France.

MEET THE PEOPLE
In the film Smith brings to the Community House, viewers will meet the people of Morocco—the Moors, Arabs and Berbers.

They will see the imperial cities of Rabat, Casablanca, Marrakech, Fez, Meknes and Mequinez and the mountains of the Jebel Sarka range.

The film will be shown at 8 p.m. Friday and Feb. 13.

Preceding it at 6 p.m. will be a dinner correlated with the film subject, although an American menu also is available.

MOROCCAN DISHES
Moroccan dishes will include Casablanca, cream of peanut soup; Rabi Jolov, African game hen; Foul Moudammas, chickpea bean salad; and Esh Es Serraya, a cake-like dessert.

While tickets for the film can be purchased at the door, dinner reservations must be made by Thursday.

Bill Wade, Chicago Bears quarterback, will be the speaker at the Men's Club father-son banquet Feb. 17 at the First Presbyterian Church.

The 6:30 p.m. event will be held at the church, 1609 W. Maple.

Wade lives in Nashville, Tenn., where he is an active member of the First Presbyterian Church. He also is associated with the national Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

School Doors Could Close

be graduated from Michigan high schools this spring, he said, representing a 20 per cent increase over last year.

Most of them will need and want some sort of post-high school training, he said.

"We know of this rise in student population years ago," he added, "but the lead time we had is now all gone. We need two to five years lead time to prepare for something like this."

It will take the new State Board of Education several years to formulate a long-range policy, Foust said, and even if the decision to build new state schools were made today, the existing schools will have to take the load for the next four or five years.

SCHOOL GROWTH
CMU and its faculty have no intention of growing any larger, he added.

Rennery has said that those who want more state spending have an obligation to help the state find new sources of revenue.

"We're aware that education at all levels is causing a (financial) load," Huff said. "We have talked out for tax reform and will continue to do so."

Foust, however, said he felt "it's not my place to go out and campaign for tax reform. The trouble here is that each wants the other to take the lead."

BOTH WAITING
Romney and the Democratic majority in the legislature say they are waiting for the other side to take the next step toward fiscal reform.

"We're apprehensive that as a result, we will get neither tax reform nor bonding programs. Then 4 to 6 doors to Michigan colleges and universities will clang shut," Huff said.

Famous Maitre d' Now Working in Area

By ART SCHEIFLE
A famous maitre d' is back at the work he loves and knows best—making a meal a gastronomic and eye-pleasing delight.

Known nationally and by prominent visitors from abroad as "Mister Charles," he is Charles Kozonis, now a resident of the Pontiac area.

In the catering business for over 30 years, Charles tried to retire last August when his wife died.

At the time, he was president of Bottle Hill Restaurant in Madison, N.J. (Lafayette is said to have stopped at this traditional eating place).

Feeling that the bottom had dropped out of everything he resigned, planning to retire.

MISSED PEOPLE
But Charles missed being with people. He paced the floor wondering what to do with himself.

Realizing the situation, his son, Dr. Michael C. Kozonis, of 7150 Fairhill, Bloomfield Township, insisted that he come here to be with his family.

Even this did not fill the emptiness, and when Fotis N. "Nick" Takis, owner of Kingsley Inn, offered him a job he jumped at the chance to be active and meet people again.

Ironically, Takis had been trying to induce him to come here for more than seven years.

Charles has a remarkable memory for people and faces, even recalling what they like to eat. And that memory goes back, too.

For example, back in 1918 three famous men walked into the Penn Hotel in Reading, for lunch. Charles remembers them.

They were Henry Ford, Harvey Firestone and Thomas A. Edison, who frequently traveled together in those days. All three had chicken fricassees with rice, Charles recalls.

When she was a little girl, actress Margaret Obrien drew a picture for him on a menu. He still has the picture.

J. Edgar Hoover is another favorite of his, and usually orders the specialty of the day.

Charles has traveled all over the country working in various hotels. His first job was at the Jefferson Hotel, Dallas, Tex.

This was followed by a stint at the famous Maxwell House in Nashville, Tenn.

FAMOUS SPOTS
Through Restaurant Associates he supervised the Forum of the 12 Caesars, the Four Seasons, the St. Moritz, the Newmark at the Newark airport, the Gourmet Society, and many others.

Because he specializes in flaming dishes (and he uses plenty of fuel), his associates often call him the "flame thrower," in jest. Watching him operate is a real delight.

Naturally a man who has been around good food for so many years must have a favorite recipe.

His favorite, at least for the moment, is Veal Cordon Bleu.

In addition to Dr. Kozonis, Charles has one other son, George.

A former FBI agent, George is now in California in the insurance business.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODY ISHMAEL

Evelio Hernandez knows first hand the encircling terror of Communism, which he combated through faith. Living in his native Cuba with his wife and daughter when Fidel Castro staged his revolution, he was forced to teach sports. Later he was told to indoctrinate the children into the way of Communism. This was the final blow to Hernandez, a devout Baptist layman; he refused, fled to Mexico and continued his career as a baseball pitcher.

Today he is a pitcher for the Jacksonville Florida Suns. His spare time is spent as a youth counselor and speaking on his experiences as a Christian in a hostile land. He says, "As goes life with relationship to Christ, so goes my baseball record. I cannot cease to be a Christian, the environment in baseball is hard, but without Christ it would be a thousand times worse."

Days of All Faiths:

Our Nation's First Negro Bishop

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

In 1760, in the city of Philadelphia, Richard Allen was born of Negro slave parents. When he died, seventy-one years later, he was a free man and America's first Negro bishop.

In those days Negroes attended white men's churches, and were quite free to do so as long as they stayed "in their place," which was the gallery. This arrangement went along peacefully enough most of the time, although there were some troublesome incidents occasionally.

Allen joined the Methodist Church when he was 17, and at 22 was licensed to preach. His preaching was, of course, only to other Negroes. By the time he was 27 he had bought his freedom—for $2,000, which was a lot of money for a slave to save up.

He became a member of St. George's Methodist Church in Philadelphia and was soon conducting a five o'clock service for a Negro congregation every Sunday afternoon in that church.

BREAK WITH WHITES
In 1794 a real disturbance took place at St. George's. Negroes in the morning congregation, instead of taking their accustomed places in the gallery, mingled with the white folks downstairs. They were dragged from their knees during prayers and bodily ejected from the building.

It was at this point that three Negro leaders, Allen, William White, and Absalom Jones, decided the colored people needed a church of their own. They bought a lot, moved an old blacksmith shop onto it, and began their existence as an exclusively Negro congregation. The members were called Allenites.

The church prospered and was soon able to erect a church building to replace the blacksmith shop.

REAL REASONS FOR SEPARATION

This may appear to have been a real break, and in a sense it was. And yet the break was not a complete one. The Negroes were still Methodists, and the whites still recognized them as such. The relationship between the two races was cordial enough that in 1799 the white authorities ordained Allen to the Methodist ministry.

Unpleasant as their second-class position in the white churches had been, the Negroes had other and deeper reasons for wanting to be separate.

One was their own growing racial consciousness. They wanted to be on their own and to have their own organization in which they could occupy positions of leadership. In their own churches they could have not only colored preachers but also colored Sunday School teachers, choir singers, elders, and so on.

But a still more important reason was that no white preacher could possibly speak to the needs of the colored members of his congregation. He could not really know, though he might sympathize with, the indignities of slavery and poverty and ignorance that made up the environment in which the Negro lived. This would still have been true even if the white churches had welcomed the colored people on equal terms. There just wasn't any equality in the situation. A congregation, like a nation, cannot exist half slave and half free.

NATIONALLY ORGANIZED

Not until 1816 had the Allenites grown in strength and numbers to the point where they could become an autonomous denomination with their own national organization. When they did so, Richard Allen was, naturally, elected their first bishop. They chose the name African Methodist Episcopal for their church. The AME Church now has nearly a million and a half members.

Other Negro churches were coming into existence at this same time, and all of them at first limited their membership to persons of the colored race. This restriction has now been dropped by nearly all of them. (Copyright, 1965)

Churchill Faced Danger Happily

By WASHINGTON STAFF

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Many of the best stories about Winston Churchill dealt with his penchant for courting danger. A little-known incident was his behavior when he went with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to view the Allied crossing of the Rhine River in World War II.

Eisenhower was briefing war correspondents on the success of the operation. One of the men asked: "What did Mr. Churchill do?"

"He threw back his head and laughed."

"The last I saw him," said Ike, "he was at the helm of a landing barge scooting around our side of the Rhine. He seemed to be having a wonderful time."

When Defense Secretary Robert McNamara entered Bethesda Naval Hospital with an upper respiratory ailment shortly after President Johnson recovered from his famous cold, reporters asked Pentagon information chief Arthur Sylvester when his boss would be back at work. The answer: "The doctors say two to four days. But I don't know what McNamara says."

Voice of the People:

'Cheers' to Arlene Dahl Bring Reader's 'Jeers'

Last Monday's "In Conclusion" referred to Arlene Dahl's saying a dress should be tight enough to let a man know there's a woman inside, but loose enough to let them know she's a lady. As one who posed in the altogether for Playboy, Arlene seems an unlikely person to be giving this advice. Her "display" came as quite a surprise, because she had always appeared to be considerably above such things.

And a loud amen to the "Cheers" and the editorial reprint from the Richmond News Leader on Johnson's inaugural "address," since it must have taken great strength of character for anyone to gag his way far enough through the "festivities" to pass judgment.

Comment on America's Foreign Policy

The failure of American foreign policy is not the fault of leftists or Communist propaganda; it is our own fault. We have lost our prestige and influence because we sacrificed economies, politics and ideas to military expediency. We must have the support of the people of a country, as well as the support of their government.

Burundi Puts the Boot to China's Red Dragon

We don't know the Swahili equivalent for "get lost," but that's what the plucky little kingdom of Burundi told the Red Chinese to do.

At a time when any number of African nations that owe independence and viability to American influence and economic aid are playing footsie with the Commies, it is heartening indeed to see a bit of friendliness toward the West emanate from the Dark Continent.

Burundi, with 2.3 million inhabitants squeezed into 11 thousand square miles adjoining the Congo, has been generally regarded as a hot spot of Red Chinese intrigue in Africa.

The news of the break came over a Peking radio station with the announcement that the nation by action of Premier Joseph Baminde had "unilaterally suspended diplomatic relations with Red China and that Peking's diplomats had been ordered to leave within two days."

Burundi has enjoyed independence only since 1962, but her show of it could well serve as a shining example to many a larger but more timorous member of the African community of nations that have distinguished themselves mainly by ingratuity to the United States and subservience to Communist power.

Federal Budget Cut Like Pyrrhic Victory

The Federal Government pruned its budget so mercilessly that it will spend in the next fiscal year only five and a half billion dollars more than it takes in.

This is heralded as a major triumph in hardosed slicing.

But there must be a housewife here and there who is wondering why her husband gets so upset if she bends the family budget a bit on her clothes or household supplies.

What's good for the government must be good for the people, mustn't it? Or has somebody been kidding us?

Straits' Bridge Bid Wins Long-Span Slam

Devotees of bridge statistics — those related to water spanning not card playing — will find pleasure in the knowledge that our own "Mighty Mac" across Mackinac Straits tops them all.

Since Michigan's steel breather was stretched between the state's upper and lower divisions, inconclusive controversy has revolved around the Golden Gate and Mackinac bridges as to which has the longer suspension span.

With the opening of the new Verrazano Narrows bridge across the narrow waist of New York Harbor, a third claimant to the title appeared.

But precise and uniform measurements have been established, and Mighty Mac ran well ahead in the bridge sweepstakes with a suspension span of 7,400 feet. The Narrows entry placed with 6,890 feet, while Golden Gate showed with 6,450 feet.

And in the matter of over-all length—well it wasn't even a bridge race. Mac won going away with 5 miles, Narrows was far back with 3 miles, a mile ahead of Golden Gate's 2.

For what it is worth, though,

New York's bridge can take pride in one area of supremacy — cost. The bill for the Narrows job came to $325 million, while Michigan had spent $100 million less on Mac by ribbon-cutting time in 1957. California's outlay for the Golden Gate (opened in 1937) was peanuts — a paltry $35 million.

In one respect, however, the three bridges have one thing in common — we've never heard of one of them being sold to the gullible, as was reputedly done occasionally with the $18-million Brooklyn Bridge, the marvel of its time when completed in 1883.

De Gaulle Is Hit With Own Tactic

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has done to French President Charles de Gaulle almost exactly what de Gaulle did to President Kennedy. And now Johnson and de Gaulle look as far apart as Kennedy and the Frenchman did.

This is what de Gaulle did to Kennedy:

In early 1963 it was known for some time Kennedy would deliver his State of the Union message to Congress on Jan. 14.

De Gaulle jumped into the act. He hadn't had a session with reporters since May 1962, but he suddenly decided to meet the press not only on Jan. 14 but a few hours before Kennedy could begin to talk.

De Gaulle undercut what Kennedy was to say later. Kennedy's message spoke glowingly of a Europe moving toward unity. The Frenchman contradicted this idea before Kennedy could mention it. He made a mess of Kennedy's foreign policy.

This is what Johnson did to de Gaulle: For weeks it was known de Gaulle would meet the press Feb. 4. Johnson hadn't held a preannounced news conference since last July 24.

NEW MONETARY SYSTEM
At 9:56 a.m. Thursday, immediately after de Gaulle's conference, the first bulletin from Paris said he called for a new world monetary system founded on something more than the dollar and pound sterling, a slap at this country and Britain.

At 10:05 a.m. another bulletin: de Gaulle proposed a five-power conference, including Red China, to examine and perhaps revise the United Nations' Charter, although Red China isn't even a member.

At 10:25 a.m. a bulletin from Washington: The White House said Johnson would hold a news conference at 11 a.m.

At the news conference, Johnson challenged de Gaulle's suggestion for revising the U.N. Charter. Still later in the day, U.S. Treasury officials said de Gaulle's monetary ideas would be a retreat to 1931 when the world economy collapsed.

SERIES OF STATEMENTS

Johnson began his news conference with a series of statements on national problems and said he had planned to make them for newsmen and then decided to let reporters ask him questions.

That would make his sudden action in calling reporters together—right after de Gaulle's bulletins from Paris—look casual and not related to de Gaulle at all. The timing makes it look the opposite.

Johnson's been around too long to make what he did to de Gaulle an accident.

FACTS YOU NEED TO FACE...
Robert Ingersoll, the agnostic, refused to believe what the Bible teaches about reward and punishment after death. John A. Bingham, a believer, challenged him to think in these words: "Robert, if I am right and I am wrong, neither of us will ever know it; but if I am right and you are wrong, I shall be conscious of it, and so will you, throughout eternity."
Realizing the certainty of death and the importance of life all of us need to face these facts:

FACT ONE: YOU NEED TO BE SAVED
"For the wages of sin is death; but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 6:23).

FACT TWO: CHRIST DIED FOR YOU
"But God commendeth his own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8).

FACT THREE: TO BE SAVED YOU MUST ACCEPT CHRIST
"And in some other is this salvation; for neither is there any other name under heaven that gives us life, but Jesus Christ alone" (Acts 4:12). The New Testament teaches that to accept Christ you must:
1. Believe in Christ as the Son of God. "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that disbelieveth shall be condemned" (Mark 16:16).
2. Repent of your sins. "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto remission of your sins" (Acts 2:38).
3. Confess Jesus before others. "For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation" (Romans 10:10).
4. Be baptized into Christ. "And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ" (Acts 10:48). "This baptism is immersion in water, a burial, as shown in Romans 6:3-4."

FACT FOUR: YOU CAN BE JUST A CHRISTIAN
On the day of Pentecost following Jesus' resurrection those who faced the facts mentioned for the first time were saved. Many sincere seekers for truth are discouraged by the divisions among those who claim to follow Christ. Many are still so far from becoming Christians. We challenge you to be just a Christian—nothing more, nothing less. Take Christ as your only savior; the Bible as your only rule of faith. Wear Christ's name alone.

This message is supported by Christians seeking the unity of believers in the non-denominational CHURCH OF CHRIST

Council Seeks $10 Million for Emergencies in Africa

Following reports by two teams of experts who surveyed current conditions in Africa, the World Council of Churches has issued a worldwide appeal for a $10 million fund to be used over a five-year period in an ecumenical program to meet emergencies in Africa.

The new appeal represents a coordinated approach by Protestant church mission and service agencies in meeting the issues of refugee migration, education of youth in literacy and earning skills, training in agriculture, and nursing and medical service.

The World Council also issued a call for 500 workers to go to Africa during the next five years as teachers, youth workers, relief administrators, doctors, nurses and other professional persons to train and work with African leaders.

The ecumenical program being developed by the division of interchurch aid, refugee and world service of the World Council, will be centered in the All-Africa Church Conference, said the appeal made by the WCC Central Committee at its recent meeting in Enugu, Nigeria.

Chapel for U. S. church participation in the program is the department of church world service of the division of overseas ministries of the National Council of Churches.
