U.S. Considers Russian Troops on Cuban Soil

Mig Attack Tension Slips Off Following Quick Castro Apology

WASHINGTON (AP)—The latest Cuban squall — with more thunder than lightning—seemed to have all but passed over today. And U.S. officials turned again to a more lingering problem: the thousands of Russian troops still in Cuba.

Tension over Thursday night's Cuban MIG attack on an American cargo ship, the Floridian, dropped sharply after a swift note from Cuba saying the Russian-built fighters "probably fired in error." The ship was not hit.

★ ★ ★

Informants in Havana said Friday night that Prime Minister Fidel Castro has promised to deliver an explanation to the United States on the strafing.

They said Castro had contacted the Swiss Embassy, which represents American interests in Cuba. The embassy declined comment.

But time was approaching for what President Kennedy said would be a new look at Soviet troop strength on the island.

HOPES REMAIN

At his last news conference March 21, Kennedy said that about 3,000 Russians had left Cuba since Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev promised to withdraw several thousand. That left an estimated 14,000 on the island and, said Kennedy: "We hope more will pull out.

"The month of March is not finished yet and we should have a clearer idea as to what the total numbers should be in the coming days."

Since then, about 400 more Soviet military personnel have departed, according to unofficial reports. But Kennedy, who considered the Cuban situation at a

HIGHWAY CASUALTY — Demolition of structures on the east side of Cass Avenue north of West Huron Street is under way. This is one of the houses between Carter and Huron that is being torn down to clear right-of-way for the perimeter road. Construction should begin before summer. Bids are to be opened in Lansing Wednesday.

Reroute Traffic for Road Project

The Michigan State Highway Department yesterday initiated the first rerouting of traffic in downtown Pontiac for perimeter road construction.

The move involved closing parts of South Parke and Perry streets (M24).

Both lanes of Parke Street will be closed to traffic between South Saginaw Street and Auburn Avenue and the southbound lane on Perry between Auburn and Water Street will be closed to through traffic.

★ ★ ★

Southbound traffic on M24 will now turn right on Water Street, then left onto Saginaw and continue south.

Since Parke Street is closed and there's no left turn allowed from Auburn to Saginaw, the Highway Department and city engineers suggest the following route for westbound Auburn traffic which normally turns left (south) onto Parke.

Westbound motorists should turn right onto Perry, left onto Water and then left onto Saginaw. Parke Street is being closed to allow immediate construction of a water main. It will remain closed after the main is completed to allow right-of-way preparation and the beginning of perimeter road construction.

Order Halts Bar's Transfer

Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer yesterday signed a temporary injunction preventing the transfer of Spadafore's Bar to a new location at 79 N. Saginaw St., as approved by the City Commission March 5.

The restraining order will be in effect until Tuesday when a hearing has been slated before Judge Arthur E. Moore to decide if the injunction should be continued until the case is resolved.

The restraining order was requested in a suit filed yesterday by Pontiac realtor Floyd Kent and seven Saginaw Street business establishments.

★ ★ ★

Opposing the commission's approval of the transfer are representatives of Waite's Department Store, Sears Roebuck, Inc., George's Department Store, Redmond's Jewelers, R. H. Shoe Store, Murray's Beauty Academy and Mitchell Office Supply.

Ralph Spadafore, owner of the bar, had requested the transfer after his present building at 6 N. Cass Ave. was condemned by the State Highway Department for perimeter road right-of-way.

A survey was made by the State Liquor Control Commission before the City Commission approved the transfer. Its survey showed the move was legal and acceptable under state statutes.

The suit was accompanied by a petition signed by about 90 per cent of the merchants and property owners in the immediate area who "object violently to the location of another bar within 40 feet of the one already in the block."

★ ★ ★

The Liberty Bar is located a few doors away from 79 N. Saginaw St.

Commissioners Milton R. Henry and Charles H. Harmon voted against the controversial move, but it carried by a 5-2 margin.

Yesterday's suit also protested that property owners weren't given proper notice the matter was coming up for approval at the March 5 meeting.

Three churches in the area also have opposed the transfer.

C. of C. Will Relocate in Pigeon Fallout Zone

The Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce made a brave and gallant decision this week.

It announced plans to relocate in the city's highest "fallout" area.

The new site — West Huron and Wayne streets—is ground zero for Pontiac's booming pigeon population.

The move to new offices on the ground floor of the Riker Building is set for April 6.

With this in mind, Max Adams, chamber manager, hailed the city's plans for a pigeon trapping program.

"I just hope they start trapping them soon," he said.

★ ★ ★

City officials say that traps are being built and will be placed on selected rooftops as soon as permission is granted by building owners.

★ ★ ★

"I'm sure that getting permission won't be a problem," Adams said.

PIGEON REMINISCENCE

Although the chamber's present office in the Waldron Hotel building is relatively pigeon-free, it wasn't always that way.

"We used to have quite a few pigeons over here before the old fire station was torn down."

The station at East Pike and Perry streets was demolished last summer.

Adams theorized that the recent removal of the old Oakland County courthouse was just one of several steps that caused the sudden pigeon deluge.

"All the good pigeon roosts are being torn down," he explained.

"The old fire hall and the Chapman Hotel were pretty good roosting places.

FORCED EVICTION

"When they were demolished, the pigeons centered around the courthouse. When it was leveled, they moved to the nearest suitable spots, like the Riker Building and First Presbyterian Church."

Adams feels the new site is going to give the chamber more space, "but we may need rubber hats."

City officials emphasize their trapping program "will control the pigeon population, but won't eliminate it."

★ ★ ★

When asked if he had any suggestions for a sure cure, the chamber's manager was emphatic.

★ ★ ★

"What we need is a St. Patrick to drive all the pigeons from Pontiac. Maybe a couple of owls would do the trick."

65 Is Predicted in Pontiac Area for Tomorrow

Partly cloudy skies with a high of 65 is predicted for tomorrow, along with mostly fair skies with a low of 40 for tonight.

There's a chance of showers tomorrow afternoon and evening, and again on Monday, with little change in temperature expected in the latter.

Fifty-one was the low mercury reading preceding 8 a.m. At 2 p.m. the thermometer recorded 74.

Romney Hurls Final Pitches for Constitution

Estimate 1.4 Million Will Decide Fate in Election Monday

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. George Romney led a last-minute political charge which he hopes will result in victory Monday for a proposed new Michigan constitution which he helped write.

The answer will be written by the state's voters at 5,208 ballot boxes. State elections director Robert Montgomery estimates a turnout of 1.4 million.

Polls open throughout the state at 7 a.m. and anyone in line at 8 p.m. will be allowed to vote. Warm but showery weather is forecast.

★ ★ ★

Romney, a Republican delegate to the 1961-62 constitutional convention, urged a "yes" vote in a television appearance sponsored by the Romney Volunteers over a Detroit (WXYZ-TV) station last night.

He described the proposed new document as "an improvement in every article" over the current 1908 constitution. Spot announcements appeared on some other stations, meanwhile, denouncing it as "a step backward."

These came from opponents of the proposed constitution.

ROMNEY PLUGS AWAY

Romney has spent much of this week in the heavily Democratic Detroit area plugging at factory gates for the new constitution as "something we need to move forward."

The Democratic party, which as an organization is opposing the document, sponsored a series of community meetings.

Special emphasis was being concentrated in the Detroit area because City Election Director Louis Urban estimates a record spring election turnout of 450,000 in Detroit alone.

The old record of 388,000 was set in 1959.

★ ★ ★

Detroit voters have a proposed $90-million school bond issue, a proposed tax millage increase and a City Council race on their ballots, in addition to the constitution question and the statewide election of 10 persons to state offices.

Boy Scout, 12, Dies in Crash of Car, Freight

A station wagon carrying six Ann Arbor area boy scouts and a scoutmaster smashed into a freight train in South Lyon this morning killing one scout and injuring the others.

The dead boy was identified by police as Gary Hilts, 12, of Scio Township, just outside Ann Arbor.

The scoutmaster and driver, Robert Cunningham, 32, of Ann Arbor, and the victim's brother, Gregg, 13, were rushed to University Hospital in Ann Arbor with head and possible neck injuries.

★ ★ ★

Doctors said their condition wouldn't be known until the extent of their injuries had been determined.

The other scouts were taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor. John Horn, 13, was listed in critical condition with head injuries.

Evern Jackson, 15, and Robert Schmid, 12, were in fair condition. John Briston, 12, escaped with a bump on his head.

Banks to Be Shut for Election Monday

County offices and Pontiac banks will be closed Monday due to the election.

★ ★ ★

There will be personnel on duty in the Oakland County Clerk's office, but only to handle election work.

Banks and county offices will be open their regular hours Tuesday. City offices will be open as usual all day Monday.

Hartland Youth Gives Self Up in New Mexico

Sought by Authorities for Four Days in Bludgeon Killing

Fugitive Carl L. Case today surrendered to authorities in New Mexico, Oakland County Sheriff Frank Irons announced this afternoon.

Case, 19, of Hartland, had been sought by police the last four days in the bludgeon slaying of a 16-year-old White Lake Township boy and the vicious beating of the boy's younger sister.

Leonard Reed died at Pontiac General Hospital four hours after he and his sister Naomi, 14, were found beaten on McKeachie Road, a quarter mile from their home at 6290 White Lake Road.

Immediately upon learning that Case had turned himself over to police, Irons, Capt. Leo Hazen and Detective Fred Pender left to locate the murder weapon.

It was believed that information received from New Mexico by Irons included the whereabouts of the weapon.

Case, a long-time friend of the Reed family, became a police suspect in the beating almost from the start when it was learned that he had visited Reed and his sister while they were at neighbors, a half mile from their home.

Case had found out where Reed was from Reed's father.

TALKED TO YOUTH

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Howard, 5420 McKeachie Road, Case talked to Reed for about 15 minutes and then left. Reed and his sister left to drive home 15 minutes later.

Police were called to the scene of the beating after a neigbor of the Howards, Mrs. Delores Puddock, 5630 McKeachie Road, heard screams for help in the vicinity.

The children had been beaten numerous times on the face and head.

Case had led police to believe that he may have headed south.

He had told the elder Reed that he wanted to say goodby to Leonard because he (Case) was leaving for Florida to join a circus.

LEONARD REED

NAOMI REED

Hunted Teen Is Identified as Attacker

Naomi Reed, fighting for her life at Pontiac General Hospital, came out of a coma long enough to identify her attacker as Carl L. Case, 19, of Hartland, Oakland County sheriff's detectives revealed today.

"Carl did it," she whispered to a deputy. "Carl! Carl! Carl!" Then she lapsed back into unconsciousness.

Capt. Leo Hazen said she identified Case when asked during the brief moment of consciousness Thursday who beat her and her brother Tuesday night.

Her brother was killed. Naomi is still in critical condition and may lose her sight, although doctors today said she had shown slight improvement.

Her words triggered a nationwide search for Case, which ended today in New Mexico.

The Reed children were savagely beaten with a sharp, heavy instrument near White Lake and McKeachie roads as they returned to their home at 6290 White Lake Road.

City Man Sees Fatal Blast

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—"The whole building just opened up . . . the air seemed to be filled with stuff, most of it going straight up," James Flanary of Pontiac, Mich., said in describing the Tucson cleaning plant explosion which killed seven persons and injured 18 others yesterday.

Flanary, a visitor in Tucson, saw the explosion from about a block away. He gave this description to police:

"The whole building just opened up. Huge machines flew through the air. The air seemed to be filled with stuff, most of it going straight up.

"All through the fire and smoke were these balls of fire. They looked like the bombs you see on the fourth of July."

The blast ripped apart the Supreme Cleaners' building which covered nearly half a block on the fringe of Tucson's downtown area.

All of the victims were employes.

The cause of explosion was undetermined. The firm's boilers were found intact.

The blast tossed a 220-pound chunk of reinforced concrete through the corrugated steel roof of a building 200 yards away. No one was hurt by the flying concrete.

Lightning Bolt Nips Jetliner

NEW YORK (UPI) — A jetliner struck by lightning as it rose from London yesterday landed safely here later in the day.

A clergyman aboard disclosed that the bolt from the sky had elicited prayer.

The Trans World Airlines Boeing 707 landed at London Airport, was repaired quickly, and proceeded to New York, but some of the passengers remembered vividly the "flash of light," and the "sound like thunder."

"I thought my wife would have to use her insurance," Rev. Gerald A. Wolter, pastor of Waite Park Wesleyan Methodist Church in Minneapolis, said last night.

Rev. Roy L. Newton, 32, pastor of Wesleyan Methodist Church in Fountain Inn, S.C., kept a brief log of events after the lightning tore a 21-by-8-inch hole in the plane's nose.

"I was watching the landscape when I was blinded by a firebrand and deafened by a clap of sound like thunder," he said. "I thought the engine had gone and prayed for everyone on board."

"For about five minutes none of us knew what happened," the Rev. Mr. Newton said.

NO PANIC

"Then we were notified over the public address system that a little static electricity had struck the nose cone and that we were going to return to London.

"There was quite a bit of apprehension but no panic."

The pilot, Capt. Robert Buck of Westfield, N.J., brought the plane down safely at London Airport after circling for 35 minutes over western England jettisoning 10,000 gallons of fuel.

* * *

Among the 110 passengers aboard when the lightning hit were actor Warren Beatty, Metro-Goldwyn - Mayer (MGM) President Robert O'Brien, and another MGM executive, Maurice Silverstein.

Buck, who said that at no time was the jet in danger, knew "by the noise and a bright flash in the cockpit that whatever it was made a hole of some kind in the plane."

Since airliners are not electrically grounded, he said, "lightning seldom causes any damage, and when there is damage it always is of a minor character."

'STATIC DISCHARGE'

A TWA spokesman said in New York the plane was struck by a "static electrical discharge" from a cloud eight minutes after taking off at 10:35 a.m. EST.

About three hours later, after the damaged nose cone was replaced, it took off again and arrived at Idlewild Airport at 10:30 p.m. EST.

FBI Arrests Suspect of Bank Theft

DETROIT (UPI) — The FBI said today it has arrested William L. Maus, a 28-year-old factory worker sought on a federal bank robbery charge in the $153,000 holdup of The Bank of Livonia Jan. 29.

The FBI said Haus was taken into custody at Nogales, Ariz.

Maus was named by the FBI as the lone bandit who got away with the largest bank loot in Michigan history.

The FBI and Livonia police also obtained a federal fugitive warrant against Maus. They said he had fled to Florida and then to Phoenix, Ariz.

* * *

His mother, Mrs. Emma Maus, a 48-year-old widow, told police her son called her from Miami just before Valentine's Day and told her he was sending her a gift.

When it arrived, she found the package contained a jewel box stuffed with $20 bills.

"I was flabbergasted. When I got to $5,000, I was shaking so bad I could not count the rest of the money," she told police. She told authorities that not knowing the source, she tucked it away.

* * *

Livonia police and an FBI agent talked with Mrs. Maus, an employe of the Ford Motor Co. Rouge Plant, and got a picture of her son. They told her he was wanted for questioning but did not specify the case.

Mrs. Mause on Thursday told her boss about the money she had received and he arranged a meeting with police. She told them of the money and turned it over to them.

Six Nazi SS Officers Sentenced for Crimes

British Laborite Confers in U.S.

Next Prime Minister If Macmillan's Beaten

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold Wilson, the man ticketed to succeed Prime Minister Harold Macmillan if the Labor Party wins the next general election in Great Britain, today begins four days of talks with U.S. officials.

* * *

Wilson, who succeeded the late Hugh Gaitskill as leader of the British Labor Party, arrived Friday for his see-and-be-seen visit with Kennedy administration leaders.

* * *

By the time Wilson meets with President Kennedy Tuesday, officials here hope to have a better line on the former economics professor who one day may lead this nation's closest ally.

* * *

Wilson said he had come to learn, too.

"There are a lot of things I want to ask the President and his colleagues about. I want to listen as much as talk," he said at the airport Friday.

CONTROVERSIAL QUESTIONS

From public and private statements, many of Wilson's views on world affairs are known. But administration officials would like to question him more closely about at least four potentially controversial points.

* * *

—Wilson's opposition to that part of the Nassau Pact signed by Kennedy and Macmillan providing for sale of U.S. Polaris missiles to Britain. But Wilson reportedly has an open mind on the second part of the pact—calling for a multinational nuclear force under North Atlantic Treaty Organization control.

* * *

—Wilson's belief that Britain should not be a nuclear weapons power.

—His belief that Communist East Germany should be formally recognized by the Western powers.

* * *

—His acceptance of the general proposal of a demilitarized buffer zone between the Western powers and the Soviet bloc nations in Europe.

For Negro Vote

Launch Court Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government today launched court action to halt any interference or intimidation of Negroes seeking to register as voters in Greenwood and Leflore County, Mississippi.

* * *

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy announced filing for an injunction in the U.S. District Court for northern Mississippi.

The suit specifically named officials of Greenwood and Leflore County and said they had used "intimidation, threats and coercion" in the "arrest and prosecution" of Negro registration workers.

* * *

The suit for a temporary restraining order also specifically demanded the immediate release of eight Negroes jailed in Greenwood Wednesday after they walked to the City Hall to seek police protection for registration workers and Negroes trying to register to vote.

* * *

The Justice Department action would enjoin Greenwood and Leflore County officers from intimidating or attempting to interfere with registration workers or applicants, and would prevent punishment for anybody registering or trying to do so, because of his race or color.

The injunction, if granted by the court, would also bar injuries or threat of physical force against registrants and the use of police dogs, or any other means, to hinder persons from exercising their right to register and vote for federal officials.

The eight negroes were found guilty of disorderly conduct in Greenwood and were sentenced to four months in jail and a fine of $200 each.

The complaint filed in support of the restraining order request asserted that the arrest of the eight was without legal justification, and was done for the purpose of intimidation.

* * *

President Kennedy was urged last night to come to the Mississippi delta city and walk with Negroes going to the county courthouse in their bid to become registered voters.

"It's the greatest thing the President of the United States can do to let the world know we believe in democracy," Wiley Branton, a Negro attorney from Atlanta, told a voter registration rally Friday night.

The tension eased slightly Friday. Police kept pedestrians—both white and Negro—scattered and moving.

The Leflore County courthouse was blocked off by wooden barricades and police squad cars.

However, Police Chief Curtis Lary said Negroes were free to enter the courthouse, provided they walked in small groups instead of a mass march.

Meanwhile Mayor C. E. Sampson charged the Justice Department with helping "professional agitators" foment racial trouble in Leflore County—where Negroes outnumber white persons nearly 2-1—in an attempt to win Negro votes.

Steeplechase Captured by 66-1 Longshot

AINTREE, England (UPI) — Ayala, a 66-1 shot owned by Mayfair hairdresser Pierre (Teasy Weasy) Raymond and ridden by Irishman Pat Buckley, today won the 1963 Grand National Steeplechase by three-quarters of a length after 30 fences and 4 miles-856 yards of the world's toughest race course.

Second was Carrickbeg, who lost out in the homestretch after leading at the last fence. Carrickbeg, ridden by amateur John Lawrence, paid odds of 20-1.

Third place was taken by 28-1 shot Hawa's Song, bought only this week by trainer Willie Stephenson from his cousin Robert.

* * *

Ayala won an all-time high National first prize of 21,315 pounds ($59,682). Carrickbeg won 2,709 pounds ($7,585) and Hawa's Song 1,257 pounds ($3,520).

Church Gets Argentine Plea

President Asks Help in Political Tension

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Harried President Jose Maria Guido, who has described Argentina as on the brink of chaos, appealed today to the Roman Catholic Church for help.

* * *

Reliable sources said Guido wrote Tntonio Cardinal Caggiano, primate of Argentina, asking him to help achieve an atmosphere in which elections could be held.

* * *

Elections for a new national government are scheduled for June 23, but most political observers doubt they wil be held.

* * *

The biggest bloc of voters in this country is still loyal to exiled ex-President Juan D. Peron. The government wants to hold elections with no candidates pledged to him.

SEEMINGLY LAST GASP

How to do it had them stymied. The appeal to the cardinal to use his good offices in this overwhelmingly Roman Catholic country appeared to be a last gasp.

* * *

The nation was torn one year ago by the military's overthrow and imprisonment of President Arturo Frondizi. He remains a prisoner today.

* * *

Argentina is stumped as to how to allow the June 23 special nationwide elections to take place.

The military, and others in high position, refuse to accept participation of the Peron forces. The political parties, on the other hand, agree that elections should be open to all to insure stability in the new government.

* * *

Economically, Argentina is drifting. Its obligations aboard are immense—about $2.4 billion.

POWER LIMITED

Guido has found time and again that he is the executive power in name only.

* * *

The legislative and decision making powers, which belonged to the National Congress—long dissolved—are in the hands of the secretaries of the army, navy and air force.

Mayor's Son, 17, Robbed of $25 by Gang of Teens

The 17-year-old son of Mayor Robert A. Landry was robbed of $25 by a gang of youth last night.

Frederick G. Landry, 47 Center St., told police he and two friends were standing at the intersection of Whittemore and Parke streets at 11 p.m. when a car with five or six teenagers pulled alongside them and one of the passengers told them to get off the street.

Landry said the car then drove around the corner and parked. When the youths got out of the car, Landry said his two friends ran.

Landry said he gave them his wallet when they asked for his money. One of the youths, carried a 22-caliber rifle, Landry told police, but did not point it at him.

CHICAGO (UPI)—President Kennedy may order U.S. warships to patrol against exiles using American territory for launching raids on Cuba, the Chicago Sun-Times reported today.

* * *

In a dispatch from the Sun-Times bureau in Washington, the newspaper quoted an unidentified U.S. officials as saying: "As of this moment, there is no plan to call out the fleet."

"But the newspaper said his words seemed to suggest such a development may be near.

* * *

The report seemed to receive support from Edwin M. Martin, inter-American affairs, the Sun-Times said.

In a radio interview, Martin said: "I feel sure there will be efforts made to increase the surveillance to ensure that U.S. territory is not utilized (by raiders) in the future, whether it has been or not in the past."

* * *

Some Congressmen have commented that a series of raids by the exiles on Cuban territory and Soviet vessels may have prompted the firing of Cuban MIG fighters on the U.S. motorship Floridian Thursday night.

* * *

Cuban refugees said yesterday in Miami that exile hit-and-run raids along the Cuban coast were bringing reprisals against citizens of the island by the government of Premier Fidel Castro.

"The attacks mean more reprisals at home, and that's no good . . . There are too many already," said a woman, who was among 93 refugees arriving yesterday from Cuba.

Exiles who flew here yesterday talked freely of a life of bare necessities under Castro, but they begged to remain anonymous, fearing "instant executions" by Cuban secret police.

* * *

One woman burst into tears, begging newsmen to forget the name she had given them. She said Cuban police monitor American radio stations and arrest all relatives of persons mentioned on the stations.

One elderly refugee man said "reprisals are growing since opposition is on the increase. There are rebel bands in all seven provinces."

He said the anti-Castroites are executed on the spot if they are found out.

"Instant trials are held first," he added.

A woman said that people are becoming bitter over the hard life they are forced to lead, but they keep quiet because of the mortal fear of retribution.

Consider Red Troops in Cuba

meeting of the National Security Council Executive Committee Friday, has kept silent on the count.

The quick cooling off of the shooting incident indicated both Havana and Washington wanted to avoid any new crisis.

The State Department disclosed Friday that the strafing—which occurred about 20 miles north of the northern Cuba coast—was preceded and followed by diplomatic messages from Havana.

The Castro government, possibly jittery over hit-and-run raids by Cuban exiles, messaged Washington that its planes had spotted a "suspect" boat flying the American flag and asked whether the U.S. flag was being legitimately flown.

* * *

Before the message was received, however, the Migs had already fired bursts at the Floridian.

School Administrators Lining Up Fall Faculty

BIRMINGHAM — While students are beginning to let thoughts of summer vacation slip into their minds, Birmingham school administrators are busy lining up a staff for the beginning of classes next fall.

The system's concentration on recruitment, which begins about Feb. 1 and extends through June 14, is now at its peak, according to Kenneth F. Nagley, personnel director.

Birmingham is receiving between 25 and 30 applications a day, he said.

* * *

Contracts were given to teachers yesterday and are to be returned by April 11. Meanwhile, Nagley is operating on the "guesstimate" that 130 new teachers will be needed next fall.

NEW SCHOOL NEED

The figure includes 37 to 42 faculty members for the new junior high school. Other vacancies are caused by leaves of absence, sabbaticals, retirement and resignations.

Especially difficult to find are candidates for special education, foreign languages, mathematics and science classes, Nagley said.

He also noted that experienced teachers at all elementary levels are in short supply.

* * *

The salary schedule approved by the board of education this week sets starting wages for instructors with bachelor's degrees at $5,100, with maximum increment of $8,200.

Starting salary for those with master's degrees is $5,400, with a top pay of $9,200.

The 80-voice combined choirs of the Congregational Church of Birmingham and Plymouth Congregational Church, Detroit, have scheduled two performances of Faure's "Requiem."

The choirs will appear at the Detroit church, 514 Garfield St., tomorrow night and at the Birmingham church, 388 N. Woodward Ave., April 7.

Both programs are planned for 8 p. m.

Mrs. Paul Nicely, 3212 Middle Belt Rd., Orchard Lake, and Russell Smith of Detroit direct the choirs.

Mildred C. Storch

BIRMINGHAM — Service for Mildred C. Storch, 49, of 753 Redding Road, will be 1 p. m. Monday from Manley Bailey Funeral Home.

Miss Storch died yesterday morning following a long illness. Burial will be in Oakview Cemetery, Royal Oak.

She was secretary of Gamco, Inc., of Detroit, and Bushings, Inc., of Royal Oak; and a past president of the South Oakland County Chapter of National Secretaries Association.

Miss Storch is survived by her mother Mrs. William F. Storch of Birmingham, and a sister Gladys of Birmingham.

2nd Fire Hits Music School

A Waterford Township music school was struck by fire for the second time in a week early this morning.

Waterford Township Fire Chief Elmer Fangboner estimated damage at about $2,000 to the Brahms School of Music, 4713 Dixie Highway.

Firemen fought the blaze for over an hour and succeeded in keeping flames from spreading to the A & S Restaurant, adjacent to the music school.

* * *

The fire was reported by an unidentified passing truck driver shortly before 3 a.m.

Firemen answered a smoke investigation call at the establishment Feb. 5, and last Sunday, a fire gutted part of the music school, destroying 55 accordions and causing an estimated $3,000 damage.

* * *

This morning's fire, said firemen, appeared to start in a workshop in the center of the one-story structure. The cause was undetermined.

Red Confab Stirs Unrest by Brazilians

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Unrest fanned by Communist agitators at a pro-Cuba conference threatened today to provoke a showdown between a militantly anti-Red state governor and federal officials.

President Joao Goulart's government ordered federal troops Friday night to occupy all federal buildings in Rio de Janeiro.

* * *

Carlos Lacerda, the fiery governor of Guanabara State, which includes Rio, immediately denounced the move. He said it opens the way for intervention in his state.

Behind the bickering was the International Cuban Solidarity Congress, a Communist propaganda show called to whip up anti-American sentiment and support for the Goulart government's hands-off-Cuba policy.

Lacerda has called the conference subversive. His police chased conference delegates out of Rio this week, arresting some, and forcing the conference to meet across Guanabara Bay in Niterol, outside Lacerda's jurisdiction.

Spain Paper Claims Clay Confuses Aid

MADRID (AP)—The influential Spanish newspaper ABC today accused Gen. Lucius D. Clay of recommending an upside-down foreign aid policy to President Kennedy.

The newspaper was responding to reports that Clay recommended heavy cuts in American assistance to Spain.

"General Clay made the error of citing as necessary steps a reduction in aid to precisely those nations which have received the last," it said. "The general has thus established the strange economic theory that those who got less in the past should get even less in the future."

The retired general's special committee sutdying the foreign aid program made its report to President Kennedy last Saturday.

Spain and the United States have a pending renewal of their American forces use four major bases in Spain in return for U.S. aid.

State's Operating Budget at Record $550 Million

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's 1963-64 operating budget stands tentatively at a record $550 million today and is not expected to undergo much change in phase two of its trip through the legislature.

* * *

The proposed budget reached the halfway mark yesterday when the House passed and sent to the Senate bills dealing with six sections of government.

Each chamber will begin consideration next week of bills already approved in the other house, with all — including appropriations and tax bills — slated to be reported out of committee by April 10 and passed by April 24.

Rep. Arnell Engstrom, R-Traverse City, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, said he does not expect major changes to be made in any of the appropriations bills from now on.

LITTLE SIGNIFICANCE

Engstrom added that little significance could be attached to the fact that the legislature has increased by some $3 million the proposed budget offered in January by Gov. George Romney.

"We've added some things he took out and some things he didn't request," said Engstrom.

* * *

The House portion of the budget breaks down as follows:

- General government: $33,205,172.
- Welfare: $98,768,532.
- Public safety and defense: $31,211,189.
- Regulatory agencies: $10,441,725.
- Conservation, recreation, agriculture: $10,454,171.
- Restricted (earmarked) funds: $246,514,979.

The total budget, still subject to change, would be some $38 million higher than spending in the current fiscal year, not counting supplemental appropriations.

In passing the bills yesterday, the House added a total of $794,000 to the bills, the heavy portion of it a $750,000 outlay for college research projects on job-creating activities.

This money was asked by Romney but removed from the budget by House members until the governor agreed to an amendment giving the legislature final say on individual projects for which the money would be spent.

Candidate's Charge Hit by Top Dem

LANSING (AP) —Zolton Ferency, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, has asked the Fair Campaign Practices Committee to probe a charge that a Democratic candidate for office "was un-American."

* * *

Ferency was referring to a statement by Alfred Whittaker, Republican candidate for the Wayne State University Board of Governors.

* * *

Whittaker told a news conference at Muskegon that his Democratic opponent, Leonard Woodcock, was totally un-American and was "pushing a socialistic ideology."

Woodcock was director of the American Motors Department of the UAW-CIO at the time Gov. George Romney was president of the auto firm.

ROMNEY DISAGREES

Asked for his attitude on the charge, Romney said:

"I have personally known and worked with Mr. Woodcock for many years and I certainly do not share Dr. Whittaker's evaluation as reported."

On the unfair campaign practices charge, Ferency said in a letter to Walter Klein of Detroit, secretary of the Fair Campaign Practices Committee:

* * *

"The Democratic party believes that some action on the part of Dr. Whittaker should be called for by your committee—or, that your committee should make an immediate finding as to the fairness of Dr. Whittaker's tactics."

French Novelist Dies

PARIS (AP)— Henry Bordeaux, 93, French novelist who came to public attention at the end of the 19th century, died yesterday. He was elected to the French Academy in 1919 and served longer in the academy than any of the other present "immortals." Bordeaux published his 81st and last novel in 1961 at the age of 91.

HOW MUCH MORE DO YOU WANT TO PAY IN TAXES?

CONSIDER THESE FACTS
WHEN YOU VOTE APRIL 1st ON CON-CON PROPOSAL No. 1

SALES TAX

The present Constitution guarantees that "AT NO TIME SHALL THE LEGISLATURE LEVY A SALES TAX OF MORE THAN 4%." The proposed Constitution removes this guaranteed tax ceiling by applying the 4% maximum only to a sales tax on "retailers".

This change opens the door to an increase in your grocery and drug bills by permitting a CONSUMERS' TAX or a WHOLESALE TAX in addition to the 4% sales tax on "retailers". Thus, you could end up paying 5% or even 10% in sales taxes.

INCOME TAX

THE PRESENT CONSTITUTION SAYS NOTHING ABOUT AN INCOME TAX. The proposed Constitution legalizes a flat-rate income tax and none other. This provision ignores the principle of ability to pay and prohibits, forever, the adoption of a fair and equitable tax program.

PROPERTY TAXES

The proposed Constitution makes totally meaningless present guarantees of state aid for schools. The proposed changes in the school aid formula could force you to choose between lower educational standards or higher homeowner property taxes for schools.

Why? The school aid fund is reduced by $62-million (primary school interest fund) which will no longer be dedicated for education. The more than $100-million higher education budget will also have to be financed, for the first time, out of what's left in the school aid fund. This will mean a drop of more than $160-million in present dedicated funds for education.

TAX ASSESSMENTS

The proposed Constitution shifts more of the tax burden from large corporations to home-owners and small business by lowering tax assessments on numerous industrial properties.

GASOLINE TAXES

The proposed Constitution gives the Legislature power to raid highway funds for purposes other than road building. You would still pay gasoline taxes for highways, but there is no longer any guarantee that this money would be used to build the highways you pay for.

The Legislature has attempted to raid these funds in the past but has been stopped by the safeguards contained in the present Constitution. These safeguards are eliminated in the proposed Constitution.

Consider these changes. Consider your pocketbook. Consider your future.

Lightning Bolt Nips Jetliner

NEW YORK (UPI) — A jetliner struck by lightning as it rose from London yesterday landed safely here later in the day.

A clergyman aboard disclosed that the bolt from the sky had elicited prayer.

The Trans World Airlines Boeing 707 landed at London Airport, was repaired quickly, and proceeded to New York, but some of the passengers remembered vividly the "flash of light," and the "sound like thunder."

"I thought my wife would have to use her insurance," Rev. Gerald A. Wolter, pastor of Waite Park Wesleyan Methodist Church in Minneapolis, said last night.

Rev. Roy L. Newton, 32, pastor of Wesleyan Methodist Church in Fountain Inn, S.C., kept a brief log of events after the lightning tore a 21-by-8-inch hole in the plane's nose.

"I was watching the landscape when I was blinded by a firebrand and deafened by a clap of sound like thunder," he said. "I thought the engine had gone and prayed for everyone on board."

"For about five minutes none of us knew what happened," the Rev. Mr. Newton said.

NO PANIC

"Then we were notified over the public address system that a little static electricity had struck the nose cone and that we were going to return to London.

"There was quite a bit of apprehension but no panic."

The pilot, Capt. Robert Buck of Westfield, N.J., brought the plane down safely at London Airport after circling for 35 minutes over western England jettisoning 10,000 gallons of fuel.

* * *

Among the 110 passengers aboard when the lightning hit were actor Warren Beatty, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer (MGM) President Robert O'Brien, and another MGM executive, Maurice Silverstein.

Buck, who said that at no time was the jet in danger, knew "by the noise and a bright flash in the cockpit that whatever it was made a hole of some kind in the plane."

Since airliners are not electrically grounded, he said, "lightning seldom causes any damage, and when there is damage it always is of a minor character."

'STATIC DISCHARGE'

A TWA spokesman said in New York the plane was struck by a "static electrical discharge" from a cloud eight minutes after taking off at 10:35 a.m. EST.

About three hours later, after the damaged nose cone was replaced, it took off again and arrived at Idlewild Airport at 10:30 p.m. EST.

FBI Arrests Suspect of Bank Theft

DETROIT (AP) — The FBI said today it has arrested William L. Maus, a 28-year-old factory worker sought on a federal bank robbery charge in the $153,000 holdup of The Bank of Livonia Jan. 29.

The FBI said Haus was taken into custody at Nogales, Ariz.

Maus was named by the FBI as the lone bandit who got away with the largest bank loot in Michigan history.

The FBI and Livonia police also obtained a federal fugitive warrant against Maus. They said he had fled to Florida and then to Phoeniz, Ariz.

* * *

His mother, Mrs. Emma Maus, a 48-year-old widow, told police her son called her from Miami just before Valentine's Day and told her he was sending her a gift.

When it arrived, she found the package contained a jewel box stuffed with $20 bills.

"I was flabbergasted. When I got to $5,000, I was shaking so bad I could not count the rest of the money," she told police. She told authorities that not knowing the source, she tucked it away.

* * *

Livonia police and an FBI agent talked with Mrs. Maus, an employe of the Ford Motor Co. Rouge Plant, and got a picture of her son. They told her he was wanted for questioning but did not specify the case.

Mrs. Mause on Thursday told her boss about the money she had received and he arranged a meeting with police. She told them of the money and turned it over to them.

British Laborite Confers in U.S.

Next Prime Minister If Macmillan's Beaten

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold Wilson, the man ticketed to succeed Prime Minister Harold Macmillan if the Labor Party wins the next general election in Great Britain, today begins four days of talks with U.S. officials.

* * *

Wilson, who succeeded the late Hugh Gaitskill as leader of the British Labor Party, arrived Friday for his see-and-be-seen visit with Kennedy administration leaders.

* * *

By the time Wilson meets with President Kennedy Tuesday, officials here hope to have a better line on the former economics professor who one day may lead this nation's closest ally.

* * *

Wilson said he had come to learn, too.

"There are a lot of things I want to ask the President and his colleagues about. I want to listen as much as talk," he said at the airport Friday.

CONTROVERSIAL QUESTIONS

From public and private statements, many of Wilson's views on world affairs are known. But administration officials would like to question him more closely about at least four potentially controversial points.

* * *

—Wilson's opposition to that part of the Nassau Pact signed by Kennedy and Macmillan providing for sale of U.S. Polaris missiles to Britain. But Wilson reportedly has an open mind on the second part of the pact—calling for a multinational nuclear force under North Atlantic Treaty Organization control.

* * *

—Wilson's belief that Britain should not be a nuclear weapons power.

—His belief that Communist East Germany should be formally recognized by the Western powers.

* * *

—His acceptance of the general proposal of a demilitarized buffer zone between the Western powers and the Soviet bloc nations in Europe.

For Negro Vote

Launch Court Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government today launched court action to halt any interference or intimidation of Negroes seeking to register as voters in Greenwood and Leflore County, Mississippi.

* * *

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy announced filing for an injunction in the U.S. District Court for northern Mississippi.

The suit specifically named officials of Greenwood and Leflore County and said they had used "intimidation, threats and coercion" including the "arrest and prosecution" of Negro registration workers.

* * *

The suit for a temporary restraining order also specifically demanded the immediate release of eight Negroes jailed in Greenwood Wednesday after they walked to the City Hall to seek police protection for registration workers and Negroes trying to register to vote.

* * *

The Justice Department action would enjoin Greenwood and Leflore County officers from intimidating or attempting to interfere with registration workers or applicants, and would prevent punishment for anybody registering, or trying to do so, because of his race or color.

The injunction, if granted by the court, would also bar injuries or threat of physical force against registrants and the use of police dogs, or any other means, to hinder persons from exercising their right to register and vote for federal officials.

The eight negroes were found guilty of disorderly conduct in Greenwood and were sentenced to four months in jail and a fine of $200 each.

The complaint filed in support of the restraining order request asserted that the arrest of the eight was without legal justification, and was done for the purpose of intimidation.

President Kennedy was urged last night to come to the Mississippi delta city and walk with Negroes going to the county courthouse in their bid to become registered voters.

"It's the greatest thing the President of the United States can do to let the world know we believe in democracy," Wiley Branton, a Negro attorney from Atlanta, told a voter registration rally Friday night.

The tension eased slightly Friday. Police kept pedestrians—both white and Negro—scattered and moving.

The Leflore County courthouse was blocked off by wooden barricades and police squad cars.

However, Police Chief Curtis Lary said Negroes were free to enter the courthouse, provided they walked in small groups instead of a mass march.

Meanwhile Mayor C. E. Sampson charged the Justice Department with helping "professional agitators" foment racial trouble in Leflore County—where Negroes outnumber white persons nearly 2-1—in an attempt to win Negro votes.

Steeplechase Captured by 66-1 Longshot

AINTREE, England (UPI) — Ayala, a 66-1 shot owned by Mayfair hairdresser Pierre (Teasy Weasy) Raymond and ridden by Irishman Pat Buckley, today won the 1963 Grand National Steeplechase by three-quarters of a length after 30 fences and 4 miles-856 yards of the world's toughest race course.

Second was Carrickbeg, who lost out in the homestretch after leading at the last fence. Carrickbeg, ridden by amateur John Lawrence, paid odds of 20-1.

Third place was taken by 28-1 shot Hawa's Song, bought only this week by trainer Willie Stephenson from his cousin Robert.

* * *

Ayala won an all-time high National first prize of 21,315 pounds ($59,682). Carrickbeg won 2,709 pounds ($7,585) and Hawa's Song 1,257 pounds ($3,520).

James E. Stafford, 165 W. Elmwood St., died of a possible broken neck and internal injuries received in the crash, according to Coroner R. C. Jacobi.

The accident occurred on Rochester Road, a half mile south of Roland Road, at about 6:10 a.m.

Sheriff's deputies said tire tracks showed that Stafford's convertible was off the road for 55 feet before striking the tree. There was no witness to the accident.

Church Gets Argentine Plea

President Asks Help in Political Tension

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Harried President Jose Maria Guido, who has described Argentina as on the brink of chaos, appealed today to the Roman Catholic Church for help.

* * *

Reliable sources said Guido wrote Tntonio Cardinal Caggiano, primate of Argentina, asking him to help achieve an atmosphere in which elections could be held.

* * *

Elections for a new national government are scheduled for June 23, but most political observers doubt they wil be held.

* * *

The biggest bloc of voters in this country is still loyal to exiled ex-President Juan D. Peron. The government wants to hold elections with no candidates pledged to him.

SEEMINGLY LAST GASP

How to do it had them stymied. The appeal to the cardinal to use his good offices in this overwhelmingly Roman Catholic country appeared to be a last gasp.

* * *

The nation was torn one year ago by the military's overthrow and imprisonment of President Arturo Frondizi. He remains a prisoner today.

* * *

Argentina is stumped as to how to allow the June 23 special nationwide elections to take place.

The military, and others in high position, refuse to accept participation of the Peron forces. The political parties, on the other hand, agree that elections should be open to all to insure stability in the new government.

* * *

Economically, Argentina is drifting. Its obligations aboard are immense—about $2.4 billion.

POWER LIMITED

Guido has found time and again that he is the executive power in name only.

* * *

The legislative and decision making powers, which belonged to the National Congress—long dissolved—are in the hands of the secretaries of the army, navy and air force.

Mayor's Son, 17, Robbed of $25 by Gang of Teens

The 17-year-old son of Mayor Robert A. Landry was robbed of $25 by a gang of youth last night.

Frederick G. Landry, 47 Center St., told police he and two friends were standing at the intersection of Whittemore and Parke streets at 11 p.m. when a car with five or six teenagers pulled alongside them and one of the passengers told them to get off the street.

Landry said the car then drove around the corner and parked. When the youths got out of the car, Landry said his two friends ran.

* * *

Landry said he gave them his wallet when they asked for his money. One of the youths, carried a 22-caliber rifle, Landry told police, but did not point it at him.

U.S. Patrol for Exiles

Warships May Pester Raiders

From Our News Wires

CHICAGO (AP)—President Kennedy may order U.S. warships to patrol against exiles using American territory for launching raids on Cuba, the Chicago Sun-Times reported today.

* * *

In a dispatch from the Sun-Times bureau in Washington, the newspaper quoted an unidentified U.S. officials as saying: "As of this moment, there is no plan to call out the fleet."

"But the newspaper said his words seemed to suggest such a development may be near.

* * *

The report seemed to receive support from Edwin M. Martin, inter-American affairs, the Sun-Times said.

In a radio interview, Martin said: "I feel sure there will be efforts made to increase the surveillance to ensure that U.S. territory is not utilized (by raiders) in the future, whether it has been or not in the past."

* * *

Some Congressmen have commented that a series of raids by the exiles on Cuban territory and Soviet vessels may have prompted the firing of Cuban MIG fighters on the U.S. motorship Floridian Thursday night.

* * *

Cuban refugees said yesterday in Miami that exile hit-and-run raids along the Cuban coast were bringing reprisals against citizens of the island by the government of Premier Fidel Castro.

"The attacks mean more reprisals at home, and that's no good . . . There are too many already," said a woman, who was among 93 refugees arriving yesterday from Cuba.

Exiles who flew here yesterday talked freely of a life of bare necessities under Castro, but they begged to remain anonymous, fearing "instant executions" by Cuban secret police.

* * *

One woman burst into tears, begging newsmen to forget the name she had given them. She said Cuban police monitor American radio stations and arrest all relatives of persons mentioned on the stations.

One elderly refugee man said "reprisals are growing since opposition is on the increase. There are rebel bands in all seven provinces."

He said the anti-Castroites are executed on the spot if they are found out.

"Instant trials are held first," he added.

A woman said that people are becoming bitter over the hard life they are forced to lead, but they keep quiet because of the mortal fear of retribution.

School Administrators Lining Up Fall Faculty

BIRMINGHAM — While students are beginning to let thoughts of summer vacation slip into their minds, Birmingham school administrators are busy lining up a staff for the beginning of classes next fall.

The system's concentration on recruitment, which begins about Feb. 1 and extends through June 14, is now at its peak, according to Kenneth F. Nagley, personnel director.

Birmingham is receiving between 25 and 30 applications a day, he said.

* * *

Contracts were given to teachers yesterday and are to be returned by April 11. Meanwhile, Nagley is operating on the "guesstimate" that 130 new teachers will be needed next fall.

NEW SCHOOL NEED

The figure includes 37 to 42 faculty members for the new junior high school. Other vacancies are caused by leaves of absence, sabbaticals, retirement and resignations.

Especially difficult to find are candidates for special education, foreign languages, mathematics and science classes, Nagley said.

He also noted that experienced teachers at all elementary levels are in short supply.

* * *

The salary schedule approved by the board of education this week sets starting wages for instructors with bachelor's degrees at $5,100, with maximum increment of $8,200.

Starting salary for those with master's degrees is $5,400, with a top pay of $9,200.

The 80-voice combined choirs of the Congregational Church of Birmingham and Plymouth Congregational Church, Detroit, have scheduled two performances of Faure's "Requiem."

The choirs will appear at the Detroit church, 514 Garfield St., tomorrow night and at the Birmingham church, 388 N. Woodward Ave., April 7.

Both programs are planned for 8 p. m.

Mrs. Paul Nicely, 3212 Middle Belt Rd., Orchard Lake, and Russell Smith of Detroit direct the choirs.

Mildred C. Storch

BIRMINGHAM — Service for Mildred C. Storch, 49, of 753 Redding Road, will be 1 p. m. Monday from Manley Bailey Funeral Home.

Miss Storch died yesterday morning following a long illness. Burial will be in Oakview Cemetery, Royal Oak.

She was secretary of Gamco, Inc., of Detroit, and Bushings, Inc., of Royal Oak; and a past president of the South Oakland County Chapter of National Secretaries Association.

Miss Storch is survived by her mother Mrs. William F. Storch of Birmingham, and a sister Gladys of Birmingham.

2nd Fire Hits Music School

A Waterford Township music school was struck by fire for the second time in a week early this morning.

Waterford Township Fire Chief Elmer Fangboner estimated damage at about $2,000 to the Brahms School of Music, 4713 Dixie Highway.

Firemen fought the blaze for over an hour and succeeded in keeping flames from spreading to the A & S Restaurant, adjacent to the music school.

* * *

The fire was reported by an unidentified passing truck driver shortly before 3 a.m.

Firemen answered a smoke investigation call at the establishment Feb. 5, and last Sunday, a fire gutted part of the music school, destroying 55 accordions and causing an estimated $3,000 damage.

* * *

This morning's fire, said firemen, appeared to start in a workshop in the center of the one-story structure. The cause was undetermined.

Red Confab Stirs Unrest by Brazilians

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Unrest fanned by Communist agitators at a pro-Cuba conference threatened today to provoke a showdown between a militantly anti-Red state governor and federal officials.

President Joao Goulart's government ordered federal troops Friday night to occupy all federal buildings in Rio de Janeiro.

* * *

Carlos Lacerda, the fiery governor of Guanabara State, which includes Rio, immediately denounced the move. He said it opens the way for intervention in his state.

Behind the bickering was the International Cuban Solidarity Congress, a Communist propaganda show called to whip up anti-American sentiment and support for the Goulart government's hands-off-Cuba policy.

Lacerda has called the conference subversive. His police chased conference delegates out of Rio this week, arresting some, and forcing the conference to meet across Guanabara Bay in Niteroi, outside Lacerda's jurisdiction.

Spain Paper Claims Clay Confuses Aid

MADRID (AP)—The influential Spanish newspaper ABC today accused Gen. Lucius D. Clay of recommending an upside-down foreign aid policy to President Kennedy.

The newspaper was responding to reports that Clay recommended heavy cuts in American assistance to Spain.

"General Clay made the error of citing as necessary steps a reduction in aid to precisely those nations which have received the last," it said. "The general has thus established the strange economic theory that those who got less in the past should get even less in the future."

The retired general's special committee sutdying the foreign aid program made its report to President Kenndey last Saturday.

Spain and the United States have a pending renewal of their American forces use four major bases in Spain in return for U.S. aid.

State's Operating Budget at Record $550 Million

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's 1963-64 operating budget stands tentatively at a record $550 million today and is not expected to undergo much change in phase two of its trip through the legislature.

* * *

The proposed budget reached the halfway mark yesterday when the House passed and sent to the Senate bills dealing with six sections of government.

Each chamber will begin consideration next week of bills already approved in the other house, with all — including appropriations and tax bills — slated to be reported out of committee by April 10 and passed by April 24.

Rep. Arnell Engstrom, R-Traverse City, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, said he does not expect major changes to be made in any of the appropriations bills from now on.

LITTLE SIGNIFICANCE

Engstrom added that little significance could be attached to the fact that the legislature has increased by some $3 million the proposed budget offered in January by Gov. George Romney.

"We've added some things he took out and some things he didn't request," said Engstrom.

* * *

The House portion of the budget breaks down as follows:

- General government: $33,205,172.
- Welfare: $98,768,532.
- Public safety and defense: $31,211,189.
- Regulatory agencies: $10,441,725.
- Conservation, recreation, agriculture: $10,454,171.
- Restricted (earmarked) funds: $246,514,979.

The total budget, still subject to change, would be some $38 million higher than spending in the current fiscal year, not counting supplemental appropriations.

In passing the bills yesterday, the House added a total of $794,000 to the bills, the heavy portion of it a $750,000 outlay for college research projects on job-creating activities.

This money was asked by Romney but removed from the budget by House members until the governor agreed to an amendment giving the legislature final say on individual projects for which the money would be spent.

Candidate's Charge Hit by Top Dem

LANSING (AP) —Zolton Ferency, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, has asked the Fair Campaign Practices Committee to probe a charge that a Democratic candidate for office "was un-American."

* * *

Ferency was referring to a statement by Alfred Whittaker, Republican candidate for the Wayne State University Board of Governors.

* * *

Whittaker told a news conference at Muskegon that his Democratic opponent, Leonard Woodcock, was totally un-American and was "pushing a socialistic ideology."

Woodcock was director of the American Motors Department of the UAW-CIO at the time Gov. George Romney was president of the auto firm.

ROMNEY DISAGREES

Asked for his attitude on the charge, Romney said:

"I have personally known and worked with Mr. Woodcock for many years and I certainly do not share Dr. Whittaker's evaluation as reported."

On the unfair campaign practices charge, Ferency said in a letter to Walter Klein of Detroit, secretary of the Fair Campaign Practices Committee:

* * *

"The Democratic party believes that some action on the part of Dr. Whittaker should be called for by your committee—or, that your committee should make an immediate finding as to the fairness of Dr. Whittaker's tactics."

HOW MUCH MORE DO YOU WANT TO PAY IN TAXES?

WHEN YOU VOTE APRIL 1st ON CON-CON PROPOSAL No. 1

SALES TAX

The present Constitution guarantees that "AT NO TIME SHALL THE LEGISLATURE LEVY A SALES TAX OF MORE THAN 4%." The proposed Constitution removes this guaranteed tax ceiling by applying the 4% maximum only to a sales tax on "retailers".

This change opens the door to an increase in your grocery and drug bills by permitting a CONSUMERS' TAX or a WHOLESALE TAX in addition to the 4% sales tax on "retailers". Thus, you could end up paying 5% or even 10% in sales taxes.

INCOME TAX

THE PRESENT CONSTITUTION SAYS NOTHING ABOUT AN INCOME TAX. The proposed Constitution legalizes a flat-rate income tax and none other. This provision ignores the principle of ability to pay and prohibits, forever, the adoption of a fair and equitable tax program.

PROPERTY TAXES

The proposed Constitution makes totally meaningless present guarantees of state aid for schools. The proposed changes in the school aid formula could force you to choose between lower educational standards or higher homeowner property taxes for schools.

Why? The school aid aid fund is reduced by $62-million (primary school interest fund) which will no longer be dedicated for education. The more than $100-million higher education budget will also have to be financed, for the first time, out of what's left in the school aid fund. This will mean a drop of more than $160-million in present dedicated funds for education.

TAX ASSESSMENTS

The proposed Constitution shifts more of the tax burden from large corporations to home-owners and small business by lowering tax assessments on numerous industrial properties.

GASOLINE TAXES

The proposed Constitution gives the Legislature power to raid highway funds for purposes other than road building. You would still pay gasoline taxes for highways, but there is no longer any guarantee that this money would be used to build the highways you pay for.

The Legislature has attempted to raid these funds in the past but has been stopped by the safeguards contained in the present Constitution. These safeguards are eliminated in the proposed Constitution.

Consider these changes. Consider your pocketbook. Consider your future.

Top State Issue in Years— Proposed New Constitution

If the proposed new constitution received a number of votes equal to only a small percentage of the words written about it, its approval would be assured.

More time and news space have been spent on this subject than any in many years. This is appropriate — there hasn't been as important an issue in Michigan in ages.

★ ★ ★

And yet, despite all efforts toward education on the controversial document, there are still thousands of voters who have not made up their minds.

Another massive group of Michigan residents have not availed themselves of the information and are woefully ignorant of the provisions of the new constitution.

In essence, the State of Michigan has been limping along under a much-amended constitution adopted in 1908. The new one will bring us up to date.

★ ★ ★

In the executive branch of the state government, it would strengthen the authority of the governor. Michigan's confusing welter of 130 boards, commissions and agencies would be reduced to 20.

Many of the positions would be appointive, some with the advice and consent of the Senate.

One long-overdue change would make the official term of state office four years — long enough to stop campaigning and do some serious work.

★ ★ ★

Both the superintendent of public instruction and the highway director would be appointed instead of elected, as at present.

★ ★ ★

Efficient budgetary provisions are part of the new constitution. The state gas and weight taxes are still earmarked for highway purposes.

Modernization of the court system would set up an appellate court between Circuit Court and the State Supreme Court. The justice of the peace position would be eliminated, to be replaced by a system of courts of limited jurisdiction.

One of the more controversial provisions of the new constitution is the section pertaining to reapportionment of the legislature. The House would be elected on a population basis and the Senate on a combination of population and area factors, in a four to one ratio.

The present four-cent limit on the sales tax is retained, and a graduated income tax is prohibited.

Although the new constitution is not perfect, we feel that its advantages far outweigh its disadvantages.

Approval is another step in putting Michigan back on a firm foundation as one of the leading states in the Nation.

Motorists Can Relax – Jitters Are Justified

The rush-hour motorist can now take heart since facts prove his traffic jitters upon arriving home are justified. Most of us have known this for a long time, but it's nice to have scientific confirmation.

Recent tests show that driving home from work in rush-hour traffic is harder on the body than being shot in a rocket from Cape Canaveral.

★ ★ ★

Proof of this has come by putting an electronic measuring device on motorists who drive to and from work in heavy traffic. The instrument used is a biological monitor, the same as those worn by pilots and astronauts to test their biological reactions in flight.

It might be a little hard to believe, but the results showed that the average motorist suffers more physical and emotional strain on the heavily traveled highways and freeways than the Mercury pilots did in their journeys through space.

★ ★ ★

So when you relax in that easy chair for a brief respite after arriving home, just remember for a moment that the GLENNS and CARPENTERS are not the only heroes. Like CASSIUS CLAY, you're "pretty good yourself."

By HOWARD HELDENBRAND

As simple and unchanging as have been the major rules governing organized baseball since 1871, are those of The Press' annual baseball contests—the 16th of which is now on.

All you have to do is:

1. Pick the American League batter, at the plate 25 or more times, who you think will lead the league the evening of May 10 and his batting average at that time.

2. Write both on a postal card (or card of similar size), add your name and address, and send to this column.

3. There is no limit to the number of entries a contestant may submit, but each entry must be on a separate card.

4. Be sure to get entries in by the deadline—Monday noon, April 8.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

"And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross." Mark 15; 21

When the weight of the cross was more than Jesus could bear, the Roman soldiers drafted Simon to carry it. He had probably come to Jerusalm from Cyrene for the Passover. He was a spectator, an innocent bystander who was suddenly drawn into this tragedy to carry the cross of a stranger. What did he think? What did he tell his family when he arrived home? The agony on the face of Jesus was undoubtedly etched in his mind forever. The power of his faith must have come from experience, for we know his sons were well-known members of the Christian community.

Simon of Cyrene is the symbol of millions who have been forced to carry the crosses of wars, famines, and tragedies that were not of their making.

Days of All Faiths:

Origin of April's Name Uncertain

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

April was the second month in the ancient Roman year. No one today knows how it got its name. Some scholars think it came from the Latin "aperio" (I open) and was an allusion to the opening of the buds that takes place just now.

Another theory, or guess, is that it was originally Aphrilis, in reference to Aphrodite, the Greek goddess of love. This makes some sense, because the Romans did name some of the months after divinities. But they had their own name, Venus, for the goddess of love, and one would expect that they would have named the month for her rather than for the Greek goddess.

The Anglo-Saxons, always an uncomplicated people, left us no need for theories and speculation. They simply called this month Oster-monath, Easter month, in honor of Oester, their goddess of spring.

St. Mary of Egypt, whose day is April 2, was the leading lady in a very big story that was built on a very small amount of information.

The basic story is a meager but not uninteresting one. In the fifth century a holy man named Cyriacus retired, with a few followers, to the desert east of the river Jordan, thinking the region was entirely uninhabited. To their surprise one day, two of the group saw a human figure suddenly dodge into some bushes. Naturally they investigated, and they found tracks leading into a cave.

From inside the cave the voice of a woman begged them not to come in, for she was naked. She said her name was Mary, that she had been an actress and a singer in Egypt, and that she was a great sinner. The men, of course, told Cyriacus of this strange encounter. He accompanied them to the cave. There they found Mary dead, and there they buried her.

THE LEGEND

That's all there is to it, but from this fragment there grew a legend that found its way even into the stained glass windows of medieval times.

It was told that a man named Zosimus, who had been a monk in Palestine for 53 years, was directed by God to go to a monastery near the Jordan. At his new headquarters Zosimus found it was the custom for each monk to go off alone into the desert and spend the time between the First Sunday in Lent and Palm Sunday in lonely meditation. This Zosimus did, in about the year 430.

One day about noon he looked up and saw a white-haired, suntanned figure. As a gesture of friendship Zosimus approached this person, but the figure fled. Zosimus pursued and caught up with this strange fugitive, who from a short distance asked for his mantle, saying she was a woman.

★ ★ ★

Wearing the monk's cloak, Mary of Egypt poured out her whole lurid story—of prostitution at the age of twelve, of seventeen years of wanton wickedness in Alexandria, of conversion and prayer to the Blessed Virgin Mary, and of forty-seven years of penitence in the desert. Adding her figures together Zosimus realized that she was about seventy-five years old.

He heard her confession and promised to bring her the Holy Communion a year from then. He also promised to tell no one about her. On the next Maundy Thursday he appeared on the opposite bank of the river and Mary, quite without self-consciousness about it, walked across on the water to meet him, still wearing his mantle.

But the next year he found her dead, with instructions for her burial nearby. Zosimus had no tools with which to dig the grave, but a lion appeared and dug one with his claws.

Zosimus buried the strange woman and took back his mantle, which from then on he cherished as a holy relic.

Is Job of a Police Officer Appreciated by Citizens?

"The only time there is not a cop breathing down your neck is when you need one."

But mention it to American mothers whose children have been saved from kidnapers by surefooted officers and you'll likely get combed with a garden rake.

We demand protection from the policemen and we are among the best protected societies in the world. But we persist in the peculiar notion that the police officer is an inquisitor and a public enemy.

When one officer does something wrong, all policemen are bums, when the cop does his job to perfection, the best he gets is a grudging admission that he is finally doing his job. If he catches a crook, he should have caught him sooner or prevented the crime in the first place.

If he is successful in preventing crime, the cry goes up to cut down the force, not enough work to keep the loafers busy. If he cools off a punk who is trying to beat him to a pulp, he is brutal; if he doesn't he's a coward.

He can work 18 hours without rest among huge crowds and not be noticed by a single soul until he stops for a cup of coffee. He could walk a hundred miles on aching feet and that is just fine, but just let him catch a ride in a police car!

Such rewards as there are, the policemen and the sheriff's officers and state patrolmen in the different counties and cities deserve them. They earn them a dozen times a week and receive them a dozen times a year.

'Tax Money Spent Unwisely'

The Oakland County Courthouse and annex were built with no provision for the supervisors' meeting room, hence $630,000 was spent for an auditorium. Another $365,000 went for an airport.

We do have township and county officials who will stand up for their convictions, but for the conformists who blindly follow the leader, we, the taxpayers, should not give them a vote of confidence, monetary or otherwise.

Demand a vote on major expenditures and demand the decisions be adhered to. The principle of "the consent of the governed," is distinctly American and should be our worldwide slogan.

We must be more alert of our elected and appointed officers' capability in handling our tax money.

White House Guard Gets 'Told'

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Guards were prodding the usual line of White House tourists to speed up so early preparations could be made for President Kennedy's evening diplomatic reception.

A woman in the line bridled at being told to hurry:

"I came all the way from Albuquerque," she said. "If you think you're going to run me through here, you're mistaken! I came to see the White House and I'm going to see it."

A slightly stunned guard could find no words to reply.

Tax Deduction Limits Eased

Expense Account Users Relieved

WASHINGTON (AP)—The men in gray flannel suits who love to grab the tax deductible luncheon check breathed more easily today. The new expense account rules are less drastic than they had feared.

★ ★ ★

The basic regulation on travel and entertainment deductions was issued yesterday by Commissioner Mortimer M. Caplin of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). It probably did not put an end to expense account living, but it reduced that living standard somewhat.

It left some questions of deductibility up to the revenue agent who checks the income tax return, including the big one:

WHAT'S 'LAVISH?'

What is "lavish or extravagant entertainment," barred from deductibility by the 1962 tax law?

The regulation set no dollar limitation on lavishness. Caplin said the IRS will decide each case on individual circumstances.

★ ★ ★

The National Restaurant Association, one of many organizations in the entertainment, travel and dining-out industries which have complained that the expense account crackdown is hurting business, conceded that IRS has arrived at "a fairly liberal interpretation" of last year's law.

But the association's Washington counsel, Thomas W. Power, predicted that the 88-page regulation "will only add to the confusion."

CAPLIN SATISFIED

Caplin indicated he was satisfied with the rules as they stand.

The regulation still is subject to change, although it is effective as of last January 1 for the 1963 tax year.

Public hearings will be held five or six weeks from now when comments and objections will be heard.

★ ★ ★

Then a revised and final version wil be drafted, to take effect 30 days after it is issued.

In the meantime, Caplin has ordered IRS agents to "resolve reasonable doubts in favor of taxpayers," if the taxpayers have made good faith efforts to comply.

In the 1962 tax law, Congress directed IRS to add some teeth to the old rule which made entertainment and travel costs deductible if the taxpayer showed merely that they were ordinary and necessary business expenses.

MAKE IT CLEAR

The new regulation makes it clear that entertainment outlays intended simply to foster business good will do not ordinarily qualify as deductible henceforth. But some of the most common good will expenses will still be recognized by IRS.

The "quiet" business meal—with or without martinis—remains deductible as in the past, and it isn't necessary to make a sales pitch or land an order.

However, the atmosphere in which the meal is eaten must be "generally conducive" to a business discussion, even if business isn't discussed. That means no band, vocalists, stripteaser, or other "major distractions."

The chorus girls and Gypsy fiddles can stay in the picture if the business man's entertainment is "associated with the active conduct of trade or business" and if it directly precedes or follows a substantial and bonafide discussion.

CONVENTION OK

A convention qualifies as a bona fide business discussion.

If the taxpayer shows there is a clear business purpose, he may play host at a night club, ball game, theater, or other entertainment spot.

★ ★ ★

If the entertainment has a business purpose, the businessman may invite his customer's wife and his own wife as well. Their food and drinks are deductible. But a wife's travel with her husband to a convention may not be deducted unless there is a business reason to come along.

★ ★ ★

She would be deductible, for instance, if she served as her husband's secretary or had a role in the convention program.

★ ★

The membership dues of country clubs and the costs of operating yachts or hunting lodges would be proportionately deductible if more than 50 per cent of their use is devoted to "ordinary and necessary" business.

LIMITATIONS

Limitations were set on deductions for travel when the taxpayer tacks a vacation onto his business trip, if he is away from home for more than a week and if the pleasure jaunt occupies more than 25 per cent of his total time away from home.

In such a case, he can claim a deduction only for that portion of his transportation costs and hotel bills which represent the business portion of the outing.

Last October, when IRS laid down the rules for record-keeping on outlays for business travel, entertainment and gifts, businessmen flocked to Washington to make angry protests on its rigid requirements. It was toned down considerably in the final version. Yesterday's proposed regulation, it appeared, would provoke far less outcry.

Unions Give Up in Court Battle

Railroads Expected to Push for Changes

CHICAGO (UPI)—A long, costly court battle to prevent the nation's railroads from enforcing antifeatherbedding work rule changes was abandoned yesterday by five rail unions.

A federal court injunction placing a moratorium on rule changes was expected to be lifted early next week.

The railroads indicated they would then move quickly to put into effect the sweeping changes despite a threatened strike by the 210,000 on-train workrs.

★ ★ ★

President Kennedy could stall off—for 60 days—both unilateral rule changes by the carriers and an economy-crippling strike by the unions by appointing an emergency fact-finding board to investigate the years-long dispute over the elimination of jobs.

The unions—representing engineers, conductors, firemen, trainmen and switchmen—let a 25-day appeal period go by yesterday without petitioning the U.S. Supreme Court to reconsider its March 4 decision.

This ruling upheld a lower court finding that the nation's 185 major railroads had bargained in good faith and were free to put the antifeatherbedding work rule changes into effect.

★ ★ ★

U.S. District Judge Joseph Sam Perry made a similar ruling last July but enjoined the rail lines from making the changes pending consideration of the case in higher courts. The dispute went to the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals and then to the Supreme Court.

4 Hours Before Chair

Pair Gets Execution Stay

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (UPI)—A federal judge granted a stay of execution last night to smiling Carolyn Ann Lima and weeping Leslie Douglas Ashley just four hours and 10 minutes before they were to die for a sex slaying.

The stay gave the pair at least two more weeks of life and strengthened the 20-year-old Miss Lima's belief that she will not be the first woman electrocuted in Texas. The state has not executed a woman in 99 years. The last executed woman was hanged.

* * *

Holding court in the plush Houston Petroleum Club, Judge John R. Brown of the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals issued the stay to give defense attorney Clyde Woody time to argue that evidence of insanity was suppressed in the trial and at a sanity hearing for the 25-year-old Ashley, who likes to call himself the Biblical prophet Elijah.

* * *

The court will consider the argument either at Houston or New Orleans.

BURNED BODY

Miss Lima, now 20, was a Houston prostitute and Ashley, 25, was a female impersonator. They were convicted of slaying Houston real estate man Fred Tones in 1960 at a sex party in his office and burning his body.

April 9 was the earliest a hearing could be held.

Failing that, execution would take place by April 16 in the Texas State Prison at Huntsville.

* * *

"Oh Lord," Ashley wept when told he had won a stay.

It was the first time his composure had cracked.

Miss Lima calmly smoked a cigarette. She smiled.

* * *

"I still don't think I am going to be the first lady to die in the electric chair," she said.

* * *

The last woman executed in Texas was a Latin American woman hanged 99 years ago.

Miss Lima, who ballooned to 164 pounds in prison, ate a last meal of fried chicken, gravy, pie and a chocolate drink before she was taken from the Goree Prison Farm for Women and brought handcuffed to the prison at Huntsville. Her hair was clipped for the execution.

* * *

Ashley, in white trousers and tee shirt, had fidgeted all day yesterday in his cell. He had been on a fast since Wednesday. He said he would now start eating again.

The Arbuckle mountains in Oklahoma are said to be the oldest mountain formation in the U.S.

Dems Ask Ike to Explain Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic congressional leaders challenged Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower today to supply a blueprint for cuts of $10 billion to $12 billion he said can be made in President Kennedy's spending program.

* * *

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana joined House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., in a demand for a "bill of particulars" on how the Republican former president would go about paring $108 billion in new appropriations recommended by Kennedy.

* * *

These represent advance approval of funds in addition to covering the $98.8 billion Kennedy estimated actually will be spent in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

SOUNDS FUZZY

Calling Eisenhower "fuzzy on particulars," Mansfield said in an interview: "I'm sure Congress would welcome a set of particulars on where these specific cuts could be made, and how."

* * *

Eisenhower said he was "not now in a position to specify the detailed reductions that can be made."

* * *

McCormack said Republicans advocating appropriations cuts in the range of those suggested by Eisenhower persistently have failed to say where they should be made.

Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, House Republican leader, who has said Republicans will have specific objectives in their budget-cutting drive, tagged a military pay increase bill as one of these.

Eisenhower wrote Halleck from Palm Desert, Calif., that among other things, it seemed incredible to him to contend that defense estimates cannot be reduced. He called the space program "downright spongy."

DIFFERENT TUNE

Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., chairman of the Senate-House Economic Committee, said former President Eisenhower "sings a different tune from President Eisenhower.

"When Eisenhower was president, he ran up the greatest deficit in any peacetime year in history without curling a hair on his head," Douglas added.

* * *

But Eisenhower had staunch defenders among Republicans.

Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said he is convinced Kennedy is asking Congress for larger appropriations than he needs.

"We'll have to take up each subject and consider it on its own across-the-board meat-ax cuts."

Since confining herself to the hotel room, she has subsisted on a liquid diet consisting of coffee, tea, bouillon and vitamin pills.

This Woman Driver Prefers 'Compact Cars'

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (UPI) — Next time your husband screams about women drivers, tell him about Mrs. Jennie Dabbraccio who "test drives" as many as 1200 automobiles a day and has never had an accident.

But don't tell him she's a member of the quality control section at a toy-making Co. The cars Mrs. Dabbraccio tests are five-inch long models, operated by remote control.

Solons to Tour Sleeping Bear

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Public Lands subcommittee said yesterday it would make an on-the-spot inspection of the Western Michigan shorelines area which some people want to convert into Sleeping Bear Dunes National Park.

Chairman Alan Bible, D-Nev., said the inspection trip would be made this summer and would be brief.

He said there would be no public hearing for "we'd be up there a month if we listened to everybody who wanted to be heard."

The Senate committee wound up two days of testimony yesterday and recessed until Wednesday when further witnesses from the Washington area will be heard.

DIVERSE OPINIONS

Numerous witnesses continued to express diverse opinions of a bill by Sens. Philip A. Hart and Pat McNamara, Michigan Democrats, to create the Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore Area in western Michigan.

Some favored the Senate bill, some wanted enactment of a measure by Rep. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., and still others said the dunes area along Lake Michigan should be left alone or be handled by the state.

William Peppler, Glen Arbor, Mich., director of an anti park citizens council, summed up the views of one segment of the 60 witnesses by stating he hoped there would be no park created at all, and added:

'But if there is one, I want the larger one to keep out the honkey tonks, the snake pitsand the bear on the chain."

The Hart-McNamara bill would take in some 32 miles of Lake Michigan shoreline, the adjacent dunes area, and some 1,600 private residences near inland lakes and resorts in an area of some 77,000 acres.

Griffin's bill, however, would include a slightly longer section of the shoreline, but take in primarily the dunes section and include only some 90 odd private properties within an area of some 37,000 acres.

Says Colburn Tags Hospitals as Scapegoats

LANSING (UPI) — "State Insurance Commissioner Sherwood Colburn has made a scapegoat out of Michigan's nonprofit, voluntary hospitals in announcing his decision on the Blue Cross rate increase request," Bernard E. Lorimer, administrator of the Midland Hospital and president of the Michigan Hospital Association charged yesterday.

* * *

"Colburn accuses hospitals of overcharging the hospitalization plan for patient care provided Blue Cross subscribers. This simply isn't true," Lorimer said.

"Almost all of Michigan's nonprofit hospitals may soon be losing money caring for Blue Cross patients."

Colburn, in announcing he would grant Blue Cross a 23.4 per cent rate increase Thursday, also laid down a set of rules which hospitals must abide by.

CITED HIGH TAB

Colburn charged that the blues, Blue Cross and Blue Shield, were losing money because of unnecessarily high payments made to contracting hospitals.

"There has to be a more responsible approach to this situation," Colburn asserted. "In some out patient services, payments made by Blue Cross were 300 per cent of actual cost."

Special Services Set for Tabernacle

Rev. W. H. Yarbough of Memphis, Tenn. with his wife, Carol, will conduct evangelistic services through April 14 at the Bethel Tabernacle, 1348 Baldwin Ave.

* * *

Meetings will begin at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The Yarboughs will speak and play selections on the organ, guitar, accordian and several other instruments. A graduate of Central Bible Institute, Evangelist Yarbough is currently working toward a higher degree in religion.

Given Odds, Hold Me Up Once a Week!

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) — An 82-year-old widow came out $2 ahead when two bandits held up her delicatessen.

Rose Deziak told police one man ordered a package of cigarettes and gave her a $10 bill. She stuffed it in her apron and went to the cash register to make change.

* * *

The man pulled out a gun and scooped up the bills in the cash register, she said.

He got $8.

Russ Would Share Military Ability

JAKARTA, Indonesia (UPI) — Marshall Rodion Malinovsky, the Soviet defense minister, says "The Soviet Union is ready to pass on all Soviet experience which the armed forces of Indonesia feel will be beneficial."

* * *

The Antara news agency also quoted Malinovsky today as suggesting an exchange of instructors between Indonesian and Soviet armed forces. Malinovsky is here on a 10-day visit at the invitation of Indonesian army officials.

The Figures Tell Story

FORT MADISON, Ia. (UPI) — Approximately 3.4 million boys and girls will enroll in U.S. public and parochial school classrooms for the first time this fall, according to market analyst at a large pen co. # Tape Evidence OK'd by Judge

Motion Denied to Disallow Information

Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer has ruled that tape recorder evidence against a police officer is admissable in a criminal trial.

Judge Beer entered the ruling while denying a motion by defense counsel for former Royal Oak Township police Lt. Anniah Raffin, 41, in Ruffin's trial on bribery and extortion charges.

A police officer does not have the same protection against search and seizure as a private citizen, the judge said. A policeman is considered to be on duty 24 hours a day, he added.

Ruffin's attorney, Milton R. Henry of Pontiac, moved to bar admission in evidence of a tape recording of a conversation between Ruffin and a gambler who was making an alleged payoff to the policeman with marked money.

The tape recorder was hidden on the gambler's person.

Ruffin is accused of taking $25 a month for two years from the gambler, who was acting as a police undercover man, to permit gambling in Royal Oak Township.

Judge Beer adjourned the trial until May because there was not enough time remaining in the jury term that ended yesterday.

With Two Wives

Missing Man Returns

GARWOOD, N.J. (UPI)—Cornelius Cornelisse, the man who went for a drive eight years ago and never returned, was back home today very much alive but legally dead.

Cornelisse, 48, returned home Friday from Los Angeles, Calif., where he was known as Steven Gilbert. With him was Elen Cornelisse — one of his two wives.

His return climaxed an eight-year series of vanishing acts which spanned the continent.

* * *

In 1955, Cornelisse left the construction site where he was working as a partner in a Garwood air conditioner firm complaining of a headache.

He was not heard of again until last month.

Last month Cornelise's wife, Ellen went to court and asked that her husband be declared legally dead so she could probate his will.

TURNS UP DEAD

A week after he was declared dead, Cornelisse turned up in Los Angeles as Gilbert. Further complicating matters, there was a Mrs. Steven Gilbert. They had been married four years.

The double identity came to light when Mrs. Gilbert reported him missing to Los Angeles police.

A routine check of fingerprints unraveled Cornelisse's complicated past and Cornelisse was found.

Mrs. Cornelisse, his first wife, flew to Los Angeles to bring her husband home.

Her attorney, John Lynch, said the family would not comment on the details of the reunion until next week.

Mrs. Gilbert, Cornelisse's second wife has asked for an annulment.

JFK Signature Extends Draft

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy signed yesterday legislation continuing the military draft for four years.

The bill was passed by the Senate March 15, four days after it had gone through the House.

It continues until July 1, 1967 the authority to induct young men in the age bracket of 18 through 26 for at least two years of active service.

* * *

Also extended for four years are authority to induct physicians, dentists and other medical practitioners unless they volunteer, and to increase living allowances for children and families of enlisted men below the rank of corporal and with less than four years of service.

* * *

Officials estimate that during the year beginning July 1 about 90,000 draftees will be needed.

Jackie Gives Paintings to N-Submarine's Crew

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy has presented two early 19th century engravings of naval battles in the War of 1812 to the crew of the nuclear submarine Lafayette, which she launched last May.

* * *

Freighter, Destroyer Collide in Tokyo Bay

TOKYO (AP) — A 9,500-ton freighter knifed a Japanese destroyer in a predawn Tokyo Bay collision today, half severing the 2,350-ton warship's aft section.

The freighter Kamoharu Maru suffered only slight damage to its bow and no casualties among its 47-man crew.

Four U.S. Navy tugs from Yokosuka helped the Teruzuki to port.

Mrs. Hart Speaks

Makes 3-Point Landing

By LINDA LaMARRE

Mrs. Philip A. Hart came in for a three-point political landing Friday before Oakland County Democratic Women at the Kingsley Inn.

* * *

The lithesome aviatrix, wife of the Michigan Democratic senator, touched upon the proposed constitution, the Sleeping Bear Dunes and truth-in-packaging during her talk.

Well-known for her efforts to put women in orbit, Mrs. Hart described her own political career of "meteoric — from nothing to vice chairman to nothing."

She occupied the post on the Oakland County Democratic Committee before moving to Washington.

* * *

Hitting the proposed document coming before voters Monday, Mrs. Hart said the "most unwieldy aspect of all" is what it does to our highway department.

The proposed constitution would have an appointed four-man commission replace the "incredibly efficient" John Mackie, she pointed out, taking the situation out of the voters' hands.

* * *

"This is worse than Khrushchev's troika idea for the United Nations," she added.

"One of the basic problems," Mrs. Hart continued, "is that the legislature is almost as unrepresentative under the new as under the old, and the proposed constitution gives it more blanket powers than now."

BIG PROBLEM

One of the biggest problems, she said, is the confusion in the mind of the voters. They'll either not vote at all, vote yes because it's something new, or vote no because they're more familiar with the old document.

The latter, she stressed, while not perfect, leaves more leeway for amendment.

* * *

The mother of eight also had ideas on stimulating the economy by paring down the weekly grocery bill, and noted how she managed to shave $11 a week off the Hart household's food expenses by scrutinizing labels.

Her husband's truth-in packaging bill, now in hearings in Washington, is aimed at the occasional "bandits" who mismark food packages, thus cheating the housewife.

It would also eliminate the fine type, "usually in red ink on cellophane over a package of strawberries," Mrs. Hart pointed out, that make it so difficult to know how much you're buying.

TALKS ON PARK

Touching briefly on the Sleeping Bear Dunes National Park issue, Mrs. Hart said it may come up in committee within a few weeks. She chided those who put the issue of private property over public good and pointed out that we would have no public highways, "except in the desert" if this were the case all the time.

* * *

During the prelunch interview, sun-tanned Jane B. Hart discussed women in space, woman's role in society and Washington life. Her burnished, close-cropped Oliver hairdo was accented by the lovely tan, picked up during two weeks aboard a 50-foot ketch in the West Indies.

In answer to how she was coming with her women-in-space plans, Mrs. Hart said the gals are "still right on the ground.

'UNFORTUNATE'

"It's unfortunate we've missed another opportunity for a first in space."

She also commented on Press publisher Harold A. Fitzgerald's conversation with President Kennedy last year regarding her space ambitions.

Mr. Fitzgerald told the President ". . . she has eight children and if I had to make the decision I guess I'd keep her home."

* * *

Her eyes twinkling Mrs. Hart replied, "He doesn't have eight children, but he'd find it reason enough to get up out there."

While not exactly in orbit, the versatile Mrs. Hart does "get up out there" with her deep interest in educational activities, her continued effort in the space program and as a member of the board of directors of the All Women's Trans-Continental Air Race.

Pair Tours Bimini on Honeymoon

Honeymoning on the island of Bimini in the Bahamas are Pfc. Neil A. Greenwalt of Fort Belvoir, Md., and his bride the former Phyllis Louise Linden. They were wed in the German Lutheran Church, Washington, D. C.

* * *

Daughter of the Edgar Lindens of Elizabeth Lake Road, the bride wore a white wool suit and small veiled hat.

She carried gardenias and white carnations. Her attendant, Donna May Willis of Washington, appeared in gold wool and held tangerine carnations.

* * *

The bridegroom, son of the David Greenwalts of Wenatchee, Wash., had Pfc. Donald Parr for best man.

A dinner reception in Neopole's French Restaurant followed the March 18 ceremony.

* * *

The new Mrs. Greenwalt is an alumna of Highland Park Junior College. Her husband holds an engineering degree from Washington State College. They will live in Washington, D. C. during his military service and will make their future home in Chile, South America.

Luncheon Club Has Chairmen

Mrs. Lawrence Taylor and Mrs. Harold McDonnell were hostesses. Guests were Mrs. A. F. Morse and Mrs. A. G. Coleman.

Mrs. Donald Humphries will be in charge of the club's Canadian booth to be decorated by Mrs. Erwin Rogge. Mrs. Dale Moats is ticket chairman.

Women's Section

Service Doesn't Stop With Advancing Years

When a woman wants to be useful, not even advancing years nor ill health will stop her. Such a woman is Mrs. David R. Wilson of Oneida Road.

* * *

Approaching her 89th birthday, Mrs. Wilson is confined to her apartment. Until recently, she spent all the time her strength would allow making cancer pads for the local unit of the Michigan Cancer Foundation.

There were several years when she turned in over 1,000 of these dressings.

Failing eyesight forced her to stop sewing — but it hasn't stopped her wanting to help others.

* * *

Friends and neighbors now bring her old newspapers and she ties them into bundles which she sends to charitable organizations that collect them.

ONLY REGRETS

When contacted on the phone, Mrs. Wilson talked cheerfully and vigorously. Her regret at the curtailment of her physical activities takes two forms.

She can't do as much for other people as she would like, and she has been unable to see the finished interior of her church, the First Congregational.

* * *

The doors of that church were dedicated to her in 1959.

Mrs. Wilson has a long record of volunteer service in Pontiac. A charter member of the Visiting Nurse Association in 1921, she was its president for many years.

She gave of her time to the Business and Professional Women's Club, the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, hospital auxiliaries and the Pontiac Urban League.

Many women do these things. But not all use as great a proportion of their strength to serve others as Blanche Wilson.

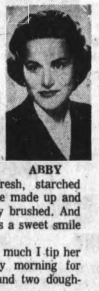
His Tip for Smiling Waitress Might Wake Up Tired Wife

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: After seven years of marriage my wife refuses to make breakfast for me. I never had a thought of another girl until I started eating breakfast at a cafe.



ABBY

I see this pretty little waitress up and working at 7 in a fresh, starched apron, her face made up and her hair nicely brushed. And she always has a sweet smile for me.

I like her so much I tip her a dollar every morning for juice, coffee and two doughnuts.

I want to stay true to my wife, but the pretty little waitress is on my mind more and more. Please print this. Maybe my wife will see it and wake up.

BUYING MY BREAKFAST

DEAR BUYING: The pretty little waitress isn't up at 7 with her face made up and her hair nicely brushed, serving you with a sweet smile because she LOVES you, you dope. It's her bread and butter.

Don't try to justify your roving eye. Offer your wife a dollar tip for juice, coffee and two doughnuts, and I'll bet you get breakfast at home.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My husband has a buddy. This buddy just separated from his wife. They planned an overnight trip to see a ball game.

The buddy is dating an unmarried girl and he invited her to go along. They stayed overnight in a motel. My husband said they had a great big room with a partition.

He said he and his buddy slept in the big double bed and the girl slept on the other side of the partition in the single bed. My husband told me this himself.

I told my husband I didn't think it looked very good and he said it looked perfectly harmless to him. What do you think?

UPSET

DEAR UPSET: Your husband was foolish to travel with an unmarried couple who had no business traveling together. You were right. It didn't look very good.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: When I go to bed at night I try to think positively and tell myself that nothing is going to spoil my night's sleep.

But when my husband starts cracking his knuckles and then the joints of his toes I go out of my mind. Can you help me?

We've been married 21 years and he knows it bothers me but he does it anyway.

CRACKING UP

DEAR CRACKING: I am going to recommend beeswax ear plugs again! If your drug store doesn't have them, holler until they stock up.

Coat-Dress Ensemble Fashionable

NEW YORK (NEA) — Last spring the coat-dress ensemble enjoyed some popularity. This season, with better lines, more luxurious fabrics and a range of exciting colors, fashion bows in on the double again.

In many of these ensembles the fabric and color are the same in both dress and coat. In the knits, for example, sleeveless, collarless shifts will be seen under coats with standout collars that reveal dresses' round necklines.

Other dress-coat teams are done in matching shades, but the fashion keynote is the contrasting textures of the fabrics. Pastel silk dresses are shown with coats in the same shade, styled in fluffy mohair. Bold black and white checks in lightweight wool top slim white shifts.

Although most of these companion dresses are sleeveless, some designers following the trend from Paris are showing dresses with three-quarter sleeves.

Every coat style for spring is represented in the two-piece ensembles, from slim coats with a gentle amount of front shaping and controlled back fullness, through cape-like swing coats and bathrobe ties.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

In my personal form of Stayman, I use immediate three club and three diamond responses to show bad hands.

JACOBY

If I am interested in a minor suit slam I respond with a Stayman two-club and follow with a bid of three in my minor.

North and South have 12 top tricks at notrump, but can only make a grand slam in clubs. In a recent Fort Worth tournament most pairs played six no-trump, but my son Jim and Joe Miller reached the club grand slam.

There was nothing to the play, but the bidding is worthy of comment. Jim's two club bid followed by three clubs showed slam interest. Joe's no-trump not only included the maximum 17 high card points, but also his cards were perfect for clubs and Joe decided to raise clubs as a prelude to further bids.

Jim spoiled some of Joe's ideas by going into the Blackwood routine. Joe showed his three aces and Jim continued with five no-trump.

Joe showed one king and Jim went to six no-trump. He wasn't sure of the club grand slam because he didn't know about the queen of clubs.

However, Joe knew about the queen of clubs. He had it. He said to himself, "I couldn't show up with three aces and two kings. That would be 18 points. Jim must have an ace and three kings and seven clubs should make easily." Joe bid the seven clubs.

A Lenten Prayer

Let me keep Lent; let me not kneel and pray, forego some trifle every day, fast and take Sacrament; and then lend tongue to slander, hold ancient grudge, deny the very Lord whom I would glorify.

Let me keep Lent; let my heart grow in grace, let Thy light shine till my illuminated face shall be a testament read by all men that hate is buried, self crucified new born, the spirit that shall rise on Easter morn.—Bethany Baptist Bulletin.

Speed Building at Boys' School

Romney Tells of Plans for Whitmore Lake

LANSING (AP) — A double-barreled program to speed construction of new facilities at the Whitmore Lake Boys' Training School —including the addition of $700,000 to capital outlay funds—was announced yesterday by Gov. George Romney.

★ ★ ★

Key legislative leaders have agreed to support the addition of the money to immediate effect spending plans, he said. It would be added to a Senate bill now under consideration by the House Ways and Means Committee.

At the same time, Romney said, the building division of the Department of Administration has set up a new construction schedule under which a second 150-bed housing unit and other service facilities at the school would be completed a year ahead of the original schedule.

The two-pronged plan is the governor's answer to criticism that the training school building program was not moving fast enough, with the result that no state facilities were available to house dangerous juvenile delinquents.

★ ★ ★

Among the critics has been Probate Judge James Lincoln of Wayne County, who earlier this week sent a busload of committed youths to the Whitmore Lake training school although the institution had said it lacked the facilities to accept them.

Lincoln said his move was designed to dramatize the inadequacy of existing facilities and the pressing need for spurring expansion.

Romney said the program will create housing for an additional 300 boys at the Whitmore Lake school in 1964, by completing a second living unit 10 months ahead of schedule and advancing the completion date of a third unit by nearly two years.

One 150-bed unit is now in use.

Mystery Quirk

Telephone's Magic?

MONETTE, Ark. (AP) — A most exciting event in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Cope is the ring of their magic telephone.

Since last Aug. 7, a mysterious quirk in the nation's telephone systems has been connecting them with phones from Alaska to Puerto Rico, from Hawaii to Canada.

Nobody is placing the calls. Both phones ring simultaneously. The United Telephone Co., which operates the Monette system, has called in experts from American Telephone & Telegraph which operates the long-distance system. But there is no theory on what is happening.

Cope, a postal clerk, and his schoolteacher wife, at first complained about the calls. Then they found it fascinating.

Robert Cannon, assistant district manager of the United system, offered to give them another number.

"You wouldn't dare," he quoted Mrs. Cope as saying. "I don't mind getting up at night. Besides, I'm having a ball."

The Copes are keeping records of their haywire calls and have filled two large pages of a note book.

Lapeer County Nixes Sunday Closing Law

LAPEER (UPI)—The Lapeer County Board of Supervisors voted to exempt the county from Michigan's controversial Sunday closing law.

The county joined with many others who have taken advantage of a clause in the law which specifies that any county may exempt itself from provisions by a two-third vote of the board of supervisors.

Girl First Negro to Join Little Rock Honor Group

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — A Negro girl who has an A-plus grade average has become the first of her race to be inducted into the Little Rock High School Chapter of the National Honor Society.

Jacquelyne Faye Evans, a junior at Hall High School, was inducted this week with 44 other students.

Chicago O'Hare Airport Now Nation's Busiest

WASHINGTON (UPI)—O'Hare Airport of Chicago has replaced Los Angeles International as the nation's busiest airport, according to a Federal Aviation Agency survey.

The big Midwest field, dedicated officially by President Kennedy last week, reported a total of 417,380 landings and takeoffs in 1962. Los Angeles was second with 334,053 operations.

They Grew House Around Four Boys

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
Pontiac Press Home Editor

As your family grows, so grows your house. This is the theory projected by the Arthur Gards of Beverly Hills.

With four rugged little boys scrambling all over the place (to say nothing of their friends), the rooms in the three-bedroom house seemed to get smaller and smaller. It was a case of either going to a larger and more expensive house or stretching what they already had. So the Gards decided to expand.

The entire back wall of the fairly new house was torn out, and every room on the south side was expanded 12 feet into the back yard. What was formerly the brick wall of the den, dining area and boys' bedrooms now is all window-wall. The Gards plan to build a long terrace across the back some day.

Steven, 13, and Robert, 10, now rattle their model cars around in a room almost 20 feet long. Larry, 4, and 20-month-old Andy have a long time to go before their room becomes crowded.

The Gards, who always have had a hankering for Early American furniture and decor, acquired the assistance of a professional decorator. The result of combined efforts now gives the interior of the house an atmosphere of timeless qualities found only in old farm houses.

Focal point of the pushed-out wall of the den and dining area is the unusual arrangement of curtains and draperies. Dark red ruffled chintz draperies and tied together low and hang sedately over off-white curtains.

The print of the draperies and matching quilted Squire's chair was copied from an old red print quilt from the Henry Ford Museum collection. Across the room is a complementary bundling chair, large enough to seat two very comfortably.

IRON PONY

A saddled black iron pony is suspended over the fireplace opening as if it were galloping back to the barn after tossing its rider. The horse is part of an old New England weather vane.

Three mammoth rag rugs spread out over pegged wooden flooring. Their predominating red color was inspired by the prints of the old quilts.

A clever trick was incorporated in the family room by installing the television set on a cut-down swivel bar stool. The set can be swung around with ease and viewed from any angle.

* * *

All of the new furniture has a mellowed look. The Gards figured that by buying "distressed" reproductions, new marks would be less noticeable. "Every time a big lamp is accidentally knocked over or a small table tipped upside down, the furniture seems to improve with age," Mrs. Gard commented.

The Gards' bedroom is one of the loveliest rooms in the house. Pail pink was picked out of one of the colors of the custom-made bedspreads and matching draperies. Just a touch of Victorian was added in the center-room light fixture. Five hobnailed, cranberry-colored lampshades are suspended from the ceiling by a gilt holder.

'LIVING ROOM DESERTED'

The entire family has "sort of deserted" the former living room, according to Mrs. Gard. "There's little or no upkeep anymore, and the down-filled pillows stay fluffed up for a change," she said.

For solid comfort and happy living, the Gards are more than satisfied with their new, but remodeled home for growing boys.

Pontiac Press Photos by Edward R. Noble

STRICTLY AMERICAN — A soft glow seems to spread over this end of the Gards' new family room. Reds and yellows are mixed with brown hues, and the wood paneled walls add to the mellowness. The little iron horse prancing across the fireplace wall was part of an old weather vane. The big, comfortable chair at the left of the picture is covered with a print duplicating an old quilt from the Henry Ford Museum collection.

INSIDE'S DECEIVING — From the front, the Gards' Beverly Hills house resembles many others in the neighborhood. But step inside, and the mood changes completely. The entire back wall was removed and extended 12 feet, adding floor space to the boys' room, a den and the dining area. In the summer, sprightly martins dart in and out of the unique cupola on top of the two-car garage.

COLORFUL BEDROOM — This is one picture that should be in color to be really appreciated. From the unusual cranberry glass light fixture right on down to the quilted bedspreads and draperies, there is a profusion of gay reds and pinks intertwined with soft greens. The walls are a light, light pink, and the small bathroom adjoining carries out the same color scheme.

FORMAL ROOM — Since the Gards extended their den into an over-sized recreation room, the regular living room is rarely used now. That's all right with this homemaker. The down-filled pillows stay puffed up, there is less clutter, and the room is always ready for unexpected guests. A mahogany drop leaf table (not shown) is opened up for any type of formal dinner, but the room remains mainly a delightful arrangement of color.

CHARM FOR DINING — Almost the entire back wall of the Gards' house is now window-wall. Off-white curtains are framed by the red-and-white-print, ruffled draperies, tied together tight and low. The magnificent lamp over the dining table was once a street light in old New England. Its tiny electric lights appear to flow as did candles in days of old.

HAPPY ARRANGEMENT — The old quilt-print reproduction used in the draperies has been repeated in the Shaker chair at the right. A mighty, gold eagle is perched on the "world," making a dramatic lamp. The long, low cabinet between the chairs has porcelain pulls and much storage space. Hardwood pegged floors are partially covered by three large braided rugs, adding warmth to the already charming home.

When properly applied to well-seasoned, sealed paneling, either a natural or stain finish will last indefinitely.

Spring Cleaning Duties Don't Extend to Tile

Millions of housewives will-vent pent-up energy from a long, drab winter with a rousing round of spring cleaning.

Often in her spring exuberance, a homemaker will take on extra chores that are unnecessary, adding only to her general over-tiredness.

Sometimes she'll even try waxing her tile walls and floors. It can be done, of course, but it's unnecessary.

Ceramic tile needs no wax or other coatings; the tough, durable surface is already scratch- and stain-proof.

Ceramic tile is cleaned best with any household detergent and a soft cloth.

Backyard Project for Fathers

Play Project for Kids, Dad

The business of growing up calls for play equipment. And who among us has ever outgrown that need? All mothers know, only too well, that children have an irresistible urge to climb, shoot, jump and hide.

They know too, that Dad has the same urge to saw, hammer, whittle and build. So today we have a double-barrelled project. Half is for the kids and the other half is for Dad.

It's pictured here in the midst of an Indian raid.

The top of this little structure is a fort, just the thing for the Buffalo Bill set. We guarantee that the moment it's finished it will have a swarm of kids in it, on it and around it, where Mother can keep a watchful eye on them.

* * *

The bottom of the structure is Dad's. Here he can store his carpentry and garden tools, or anything else he wants kept safe and protected from the weather. Both the top and bottom can be locked to keep out raiders.

PLENTY TO DO

If there are both boys and girls in the family, then the top may be the boys' fort and the bottom a girls' playhouse. No question about it, an arrangement of this kind will keep everybody busy.

* * *

The entire structure is made of Ponderosa pine and Douglas fir, both are inexpensive and can withstand weather. They are easily worked with standard home carpenters' tools.

The design was made to take advantage of stock sizes of lumber. Many of the pieces are less than 6-feet long, you will find that your dealer has 'shorts' available at low prices.

Here is a project that any amateur can undertake with success when he uses our easy-to-follow plan. A list of required materials is included along with lots of illustrations that show where each board goes.

If you can drive a nail and saw a board, you can build this storage house and tower fort.

* * *

To obtain the easy-to-follow plan number 309 for building the structure shown here send $1 by currency, check or money order to: Steve Ellingson, Pontiac Press Pattern Dept., P. O. Box 2383, Van Nuys, Calif.

Brochure Can Help Build Barbecue Pit

Building your own barbecue pit is not a matter of guesswork with a preplanned, pre-cut kit. A separate brochure from the Building Stone Institute is available on how to assemble one.

In brief: Use a base of reinforced concrete 6 inches deep —bottom of slab should be below frost line.

Layout the boundaries of the foundation with stakes and string, then excavate and level the bottom. Build wooden forms and paint with whitewash to make sure they can be removed easily. Make sure forms are level.

* * *

When they are half filled with concrete lay a reinforcing mesh, then when concrete has begun to set, wet top and keep moist.

Rid Home of the Extras

A homemaker may have a kitchen full of appliances designed to save her time and effort, and a decorative scheme in the rest of the home that takes most of her spare time in cleaning.

* * *

This paradox can be avoided by elliminating excessively frilly or complicated decorative schemes that are difficult to maintain.

* * *

Choose decorative materials, such as easy-to-clean tile, that require little or no maintenance.

* * *

Homemakers can make the most of their labor-saving devices if they don't create new chores for themselves elsewhere in the home.

Income Tax Cut Could Aid Home Remodeling Mart

The home remodeling market—a lively, growing business—could occupy an even larger percentage of the economy if the administration's proposed federal income tax cut becomes law.

Under the proposed plan, a family earning $8,000 a year might save $225 which could be applied to improving the home.

All the money thus saved and spent on home alterations and additions would be in addition to the $5.6 billion the Commerce Department has already estimated will be spent for such purposes this year.

The anticipated tax savings could mean a new kitchen counter and backsplash surfaced with ceramic tile or a bathroom with floors and walls of tile.

Home owners prefer real tile in these areas because it can't be scratched or burned and because it is one of the easiest materials to keep clean. They also like tile's almost unlimited selection of colors and patterns.

Improvements such as redoing a kitchen or bathroom in tile not only make homes more livable but also increase their resale value.

Until now, bank loans have provided most of the funds for these home improvements. The anticipated reduction in taxes would free more funds for such projects—and with no interest charges.

Simplify Work in Your Kitchen

Modernization Pays Double Dividends

If giving your kitchen a facelift paid off only in higher morale for you, the effort would be justified. After all, home economists say that you spend at least one quarter of your time there.

But the same steps you take to beautify your kitchen can also help you to simplify your chores.

Planning to modernize your kitchen is no small project. Don't begin unless you are sure you will persevere.

Of course, no single article can tell you everything you want to know, but the hints and advice provided here will give you a good start.

The kitchen probably is the place in your home that gets dirty faster than any other, so always keep in mind one goal — cleanliness.

This is particularly important with regard to kitchen furnishings because homemakers often forget it. A chic table isn't worth much if it requires hours of cleaning.

Kitchen tables come with surfaces made of everything from stainless steel to wood.

A table with rounded corners is safer than one with square corners. Folding legs may be somewhat more hazardous than nonfolding legs. A table piled high may collapse if its folding legs have not been properly set up.

Before buying any table, investigate those that have attachments that make them larger or smaller.

CLASSROOM CHAIR

A novel item in your kitchen that will prove useful is a classroom chair — one that has a flattened, elongated arm. You can sit in it while you shell peas or write grocery lists.

A high stool and stepladder chair are other items worth purchasing. You can save steps by getting a narrow table on wheels that can be piled with dirty dishes.

If you arrange your furnishings carefully, you can save both time and energy. The sink should be between the stove and the refrigerator; pots, pans, bowls, and foodstuffs should be placed where they will be used; the spot where you mix foods should be next to the refrigerator or stove; working surfaces should be provided near the sink, stove, and refrigerator; the sink's height should be ideally convenient for working.

With the coming of age of the war baby crop, the demand for small houses is on the increase. Another big market for smaller homes is the retired couple age group who want a smaller home to keep up, but who prefer a home of their own instead of an apartment.

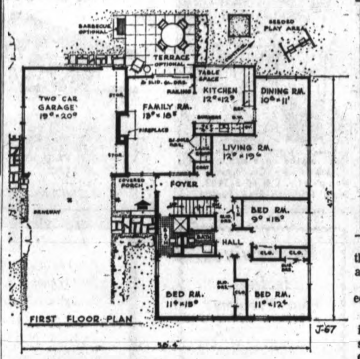
ROOM TO GROW — This is essentially a one-level three-bedroom house, but it has a 665-square-foot expansion area upstairs which would add two more bedrooms and a third full bath. The gable toward the front adds an appearance of volume not possible in ordinary ranches and also imparts a colonial flavor.



FLOOR PLAN — Upstairs expansion would add 665 square feet of habitable area to the basic 1,587 square feet of the house. Single garage could be substituted if absolutely necessary, though it would affect the architectural balance. Note the dual use of the bathroom adjoining the master bedroom.

J67 Statistics

A three-bedroom one-story house containing 1,587 square feet of living area, with 665-square-foot expansion area upstairs for two more bedrooms and a third bath. The double garage contains 400 square feet. Over-all dimensions are 47 feet, 2 inches deep by 58 feet, 4 inches wide.

Expansible Rancher Has Colonial Flavor

By JULES LOH

When a new arrival comes along and you have to find more room, you probably are out of luck if you own a ranch-type home.

About the only way to expand a one-story house is to convert the garage or steal from the basement or perhaps add a room on the back someplace; but all are unsatisfactory compromises and usually either architecturally or financially impossible.

Today's House of the Week, design J67 in the series, solves this problem beautifully.

* * *

It provides expansion room in the most economical way possible — without altering the basic structure at all — and provides it when it's needed, not before. A fourth and fifth bedroom and a third full bath, 665 square feet in all, can be added a room at a time in attic space above the bedroom wing.

COLONIAL FLAVOR

Architect Herman H. York allowed for the extra space by giving the roof over the bedroom wing a slightly steeper pitch than most ranches have, and in doing so also imparted a nice colonial flavor to the exterior.

The house itself contains only 1,587 square feet of living area in dimensions of 58 feet, 4 inches wide by 47 feet, 2 inches deep. Rarely do you find a five-bedroom house of such modest proportions.

The room layout gives prominence to the informal area, the area most used in a houseful of kids. The family room is between the kitchen and front foyer and flows on outside to the rear play area.

Both indoors and outdoors can be efficiently supervised from the kitchen.

All three downstairs bedrooms are nicely zoned into one rectangle.

The main bathroom is only a step away from the two-family bedrooms, and the master bedroom has its own full bath which can do double duty as a powder room because of a second door from the foyer.

York said he picked up this idea from a client for whom he designed a custom house.

"He pointed out the logic of it," the architect said.

"There is absolutely no time when the two functions — powder room for guests and master bath for the owners — would occur simultaneously.

And if my own house is typical, the master bath can be counted on to be somewhat more tidy than the kids' bath when guests arrive unexpectedly."

York paid close attention to economy features in this house.

Lumber lengths are standard, it is totaly lacking in expensive frills, and open planning is evident in both the kitchen-family room area and the living-dining rooms.

Another economy measure is plumbing. All three bathrooms, including the one upstairs, are on the same stack.

The stairs to the upper expansion area are right off the front foyer. This is an ideal arrangement if you should want to convert the upstairs into a rental apartment, with kitchenette and sitting room in place of one of the bedrooms.

Even if not rented out, the privacy of the upstairs makes it ideal for guests or in-laws.

An interesting feature in the downstairs bedroom wing is the hall — actually a foyer.

Seldom is enough attention given to the need for a roomy space here, which is especially welcome during housecleaning time.

Because of its roofline and L-shape, the house appears larger than it actually is from the outside.

The gable toward the front adds volume not possible in a house all on one level, and to emphasize the cube York specifies a full front wall of brick.

The downstairs windows are treated with lower panels to complement the garage doors and curved arches of the portico beyond.

If further economy is a must, the house can be built with a single garage rather than a double one.

York doesn't recommend it unless absolutely necessary, however, because it would affect the architectural balance.

Americans Want Conveniences in the New Homes

More often than not, that favorite American pastime — touring new homes — sends people back to their own house content with what they've got.

* * *

Only when they see conveniences not to be found in their present home do they decide to move up to a house they feel will look and "live" better.

Some of the features that make a house look better are attractive entranceways, Roman baths, built-in beverage bars and sliding glass doors.

* * *

Adequate storage space, double access to one bathroom, hardwood kitchen cabinets, full-length mirrors and luminous ceiling in kitchen and bath are some of the features that make a house more livable.

* * *

A generous use of durable easy-to-maintain materials such as ceramic tile is one of the attractions that makes a family move to better quarters.

* * *

That's because real tile will give lasting beauty wherever it is used. It can't be scratched or burned and is stainproof. It is ideal for kitchen counters and backsplashes, as well as for bathroom floors and walls.

For every five dollars spent on new home construction during 1963, Americans will spend about four dollars fixing up older homes.

Delightful Traffic Jam

Ah, for a Walk in Springtime!

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was a nice day, so the President and the king walked.

* * *

It wasn't a particularly long walk—from the White House to the Blair House a half block away—but they managed to create a mild sensation, surprise the press, startle the police, delight passersby and cause a traffic jam of homeward bound motorists.

Taking the stroll were President Kennedy and King Hassan II of Morocco who was winding up an official three-day visit.

They emerged from the White House at about 5 p.m. Friday and, ignoring Hassan's waiting limousine, started down the long driveway to Pennsylvania Avenue.

Startled newsmen and photographers fell in behind the official party.

CHANGE OF PLANS

Instead of halting at the gate and bidding his royal guest farewell, Kennedy, with King Hassan at his side, headed up Pennsylvania Avenue toward the Blair House, guest house for official visitors.

Passersby fell in behind the official party, newsmen and photographers.

* * *

Startled city police dashed to the middle of the avenue and halted all traffic so that the party could cross. They also tried, without much luck, to keep the growing throng from turning the walk into a procession.

Apparently oblivious to the commotion trailing in their wake, Kennedy and Hassan chatted as they strolled along in the warm spring sunshine.

RETURN TRIP

Kennedy accompanied the king into the Blair House to say goodbye. Then, escorted by Ahmed Balafrej, the Moroccan foreign minister, and Ali Bengelloun, Moroccan ambassador to the United States, he walked back to the White House—still trailing newsmen, photographers and general public.

* * *

As the President reentered the White House, he grinned at the newsmen and photographers and remarked:

"We made it and brought a few people along the way with us."

Protocol Officer Angier Biddle Duke told reporters the walk was Kennedy's idea, that when he asked the king if he wanted to walk, Hassan replied that he would be delighted, that it would be the happiest thing he had done during his visit.

* * *

Police were still unsnarling the traffic jam half an hour later.

And the President's Secret Service guards were still unsnarling their nerves.

Suggests Horsewhipping for John Birch Society

JASEPER, Ala. (AP) — Rep. Carl Elliott, D-Ala., told a Jackson-Jefferson Day meeting of Young Democrats that a "good horsewhipping" might be the best way to dispose of such groups as the John Birch Society.

Elliott charged that the political line of the ultra-conservative society "really amounts to little more than a vote of no confidence in the United States."

Spahn Injured by Hot Grounder

Ace Lefthanders on Doubtful List for Opening Day

From Our News Wires

The National League's strike-out king is tearing up the Citrus Circuit, but the two best lefthanders in the majors last season are on the doubtful list for opening day assignments.

Big Don Drysdale, the Los Angeles Dodgers' 25-game winner and strikeout artist last year, earned the opening game nod by stopping Kansas City on six hits yesterday in a 12-1 victory.

Hank Aguirre of the Detroit Tigers, the American League's earned run champ, was pounded by the lowly New York Mets.

The tall lefty, recovering from a knot in his pitching shoulder, showed little of his normal speed. The Tigers managed to pull out an 8-5 win in the 10th.

Warren Spahn, the Milwaukee Braves ace and winningest southpaw in history, may not be around for opening day. He tried to stop a hot grounder against the White Sox with his pitching hand and suffered a badly bruised finger.

The Braves won, 4-2.

★ ★ ★

Los Angeles ripped the serves of Dave Wickersham and Ed Rakow for 16 hits. Dick Tracewski led the Dodger assault with three singles and a double, while Willie Davis drove in three runs with three hits.

The St. Louis Cardinals handed the New York Yankees their 13th defeat of the exhibition season, 3-2 when Bill White homered off Whitey Ford in the seventh inning to break a 2-2 tie.

★ ★ ★

Righthander Ray Washburn directed the Red Birds to their 11th victory of the training campaign. Washington went 17 innings before nipping Minnesota, 3-2, on a throwing error by the Twins' Bernie Allen and a sacrifice fly by the Senators' Marv Breeding. Minnesota slugger Harmon Killebrew was hit on the head by Tom Cheeny pitch, but X rays proved negative.

Home runs by Johnny Callison and Wes Covington highlighted a five-run rally in the eighth inning that spirited the Philadelphia Phillies to an 8-5 decision over the Cincinnati Reds.

Clay Dalrymple also homered in the Phils' 12-hit attack on Jim Maloney and Turk Lown.

Jim Gentile's, 400-foot homer helped ruin Vern Law's first spring appearance as Baltimore stopped Pittsburgh, 5-2. Milt Pappas pitched shutout ball for five innings to take the victory.

For a guy who would like to kill himself for the Boston Red Sox this season, Roman Mejias has gotten off to a real live start.

★ ★ ★

The 30-year-old journeyman outfielder, acquired in the trade that sent American League batting champion Pete Runnels to Houston, has been repaying the Red Sox with consistent hitting since they helped get his family out of Cuba two weeks ago.

Majias continued to pound the ball yesterday, stroking three hits — one a homer — and driving in four runs as Boston bombed San Francisco 10-7.

★ ★ ★

Mejias' batting average now has soared to .431 on 22 hits in 51 at-bats.

Jack Sanford, the Giants' 24-game winner, was mauled for seven runs and eight hits in the six innings he worked.

Aguirre Gives 2 Gopher Balls to NY Mets

Tiger Southpaw Hits Single; Detroiters Win Behind Colavito

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI) — Hank Aguirre's hitting is stronger than his pitching.

But it's of no concern to the Detroit Tigers' left hander with the 2.21 earned run average and the .027 batting average.

"My stuff seemed a little weak, but my hitting — that was strong," said the American League's earned run champion and admitted worst hitter yesterday.

His pitching was pounded for 13 hits in 6⅓ innings by the New York Mets and he retaliated with a line single to center for his first hit since Aug. 23.

The Tigers won the exhibition game at Al Lang Field 8-5 with a three-run uprising in the 10th inning.

Rocky Colavito's two-run homer, Bill Freehan's two-run triple and Billy Bruton's run-scoring double sent the struggling Aguirre into a 5-1 lead.

Aguirre was driven out by four runs in the seventh when the Mets tied the score. He yielded a solo homer to Ron Hunt and a three-run blast to Cliff Cook. The pastings may have ruined Aguirre's chances for the coveted opening day assignment.

"But there was no pain, no knot in my shoulder, no nothing," said the 16-game winner who'd been troubled in his last two outings. "The only thing was my ball seemed a little weak the whole time I was in there."

PERFECT BUNT

Aguirre warmed up for his role as a hitter by laying down a perfect sacrifice bunt his first at bat. Next time he lined his single off Roger Craig and gave a sweeping bow for the applause from the stands.

"How about that?" Said Aguirre, whose two singles last season broke a two-year slump. "Looks like I'm going to be a better hitter this year. It's the earliest I've ever started hitting in the spring."

Aguirre surrendered at least one hit in every inning until driven out in the seventh. Until then he had enough finesse to escape every threat except when the Mets managed an unearned run in the second.

Terry Fox relieved Aguirre and gave up only one hit through the ninth. The Tigers made Fox the winner in the 10th.

Bubba Phillips singled home the tie-breaking run. Two more scored on an error and Colavito' sacrifice fly.

The Tigers play Cincinnati at Tampa today with Phil Regan the starting pitcher.

Hawks at Olympia Sunday

Wings Must Ignite

DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Red Wings, who blasted through their final seven regular season National Hockey League games but fizzled in the first two games of the Stanley Cup semi-final series, will attempt to ignite their attack again Sunday night.

With their backs to the wall in the best of seven series, the Wings will host the Chicago Black Hawks at Olympia with Chicago leading the series, 2-0.

The Wings won six of their last seven regular season games and their last four straight including two-game sweeps of the top two clubs, Toronto and Chicago.

Coach Sid Abel is undaunted, though. "We'll be playing on home ice now, that'll make a big difference. I think we can get straightened out and start playing like we were before."

The Wings, who are staying together in Toledo before coming here by bus Sunday afternoon, will be facing a victorious but battered Black Hawk team.

Bobby Hull, who has shrugged off two other injuries this season, could be sidelined for the big clash. Hull was accidentally slashed by Bruce MacGregor's stick and suffered a broken nose.

X rays of the injury will be taken today before a decision is made on whether he can play. Hull was fitted with a special plastic helmet and nose guard to be worn in case physicians give him the green light.

Hull suffered a knee injury here in January when he rammed into the post but then went on a scoring rampage after missing only one game.

He also was supposed to miss the opening game of the cup series and scored two goals so the Wings will be watching him if he does go on the ice.

But Hull isn't the only injured Black Hawk. Defenseman Al MacNeil suffered two cracked ribs on his left side Thursday and forward Ron Murphy, who missed Thursday's game with an infection from stitches to close a cut on his left instep, both will miss Sunday's game.

Others on the injury list are Stan Mikita and Ken Wharram who are nursing minor injuries and both will play.

The Black Hawks called up defenseman Ron Ingram from their Buffalo, N.Y. farm club to bolster their roster with so many players on the doubtful list.

47 Thoroughbreds Enter Steeplechase

AINTREE, England (UPI) — A field of 47 thoroughbreds face the supreme test in horse racing today when the bugle sounds for the 120th edition of the Grand National Steeplechase.

★ ★ ★

This is the race that has everybody interested, from the 200,000 in-person fans to the anti-cruelty league and to the millions of people around the world who have invested in the Irish hospital sweepstakes.

BEARS vs. LIONS — This was the scene at Olympia last night as the Chicago Bears football players battled the Lions in a basketball "exhibition." Chicago's Stan Fanning reaches for a rebound while Detroit's Larry Vargo, Milt Plum (25) and Wayne Walker (35) stand flat-footed. The scrimmage ended 40-40.

Large Turnout May Help PNH Improve Season's Track Mark

If numbers mean anything, Pontiac Northern's track team should improve its record this season.

Coach Herc Renda greeted 81 candidates early this month. Thirty-five showed up when the call was made in 1962.

★ ★ ★

About 20 have dropped by the wayside for various reasons, but the overall picture is much improved.

Renda took 28, including 10 lettermen, to the Huron Relays today at Eastern Michigan University. Veterans expected to pick up points are John Harris in the low hurdles, Eddie Perry in the dashes and Larry Slater in the pole vault.

PNH is strong in the dashes again and may place in the sprint relays.

This is the second of Renda's three-year plan directed at winning the Inter-Lakes championship. According to the coach, who took over the reigns last year, the Huskies are still a year away.

But if enough talent can be found among the remaining newcomers, PNH may give Walled Lake and Waterford stiff competition.

Experienced thinclads on hand are Ken Pirochta, 440; Don Tucker, mile; Al Wadley, Bob Wilson and Milt Woodruff, 880; Duane Shaw, hurdles; and Don Wyer, dashes.

Tucker did not compete last year.

Harris was the star of last year's team. He can win in the high jump, broad jump, sprints and low hurdles. A junior, he is best in the dashes and broad jump.

"From what I've been able to see during workouts in the gym," commented Renda, "Harris is going to be better this year. The added experience will definitely make a difference.

"We should be strong in the sprints, pole vault and field events," said the coach.

The distance events, a sore spot in the past, still pose a question.

"We've always had difficulty in the distance runs," said Renda, "but we are going to improve this year."

Northern will meet Central May 7.

Seaholm Rated EML Favorite

Groves Top Choice in Tri-River League

Will Seaholm finally lose a dual meet in Eastern Michigan League track competition?

Will Groves repeat as Tri-River Conference cinders champ?

★ ★ ★

Track fans in Birmingham answer "no" to the first question and "yes" to the second. No one raises a disenting voice.

Seaholm has not lost a dual met in the EML since 1953. During that span the Maples have copped eight conference crowns and are favored to repeat again this year.

Coach Kirmit Ambrose has only nine letterwinners back but there is plenty of talent in this small group.

Jack Harvey and Gage Cooper are 1-2 in the shot put with Harvey a favorite in today's Huron Relays. Both Harvey and Cooper have cleared 50 feet in practice.

Art Schueler is gone, but Groves has done well enough in a couple of practice meets to indicate that the Falcons will fly high again.

Marks Set at Ypsi

Rouge Wins Relay Title

YPSILANTI (UPI) — River Rouge claimed its first Huron Relays championship last night, winning four of 13 events and claiming one of three records set in the ninth annual running of the Class B high school track meet.

River Rouge's one-mile relay team of Ted Burnley, Ron Marshall, Dennis Jones and Bill Dunson was clocked in three minutes, 38.4 seconds — 3.2 seconds faster than its previous mark set in 1962.

Tecumseh's Dan Greene shattered the two-year-old pole vault record set by Marysville's Tom Herrington. Amherst Steele of Ohio's two-mile relay team lowered the meet mark set in 1960.

Greene leaped 12 feet, 5¾ inches, eclipsing the 1961 record distance by 7¾ inches. Amherst Steel's clocking of 8:20.6 knocked 13.83 seconds off the previous record held by Ecorse, the defending Huron Relays champion which advanced to Class A competition this year.

River Rouge's Willie Betts was the meet's only double winner. He took the 65-yard high hurdles in :08.3 and the 65-yard low hurdles in :07.9. The Rouge's other victory was by its shuttle hurdle relay team — Ted Burnley, Jim Young, Ron Crudchfield and Betts — which was clocked in 4:40.0.

Columbiana of Ohio had the next best showing with victories in three events, and Howell followed with two victories.

Columbiana was next with 25, followed by Port Clinton (Ohio) 23, Howell 21, Amherst Steele 20, Willow Run and Bowling Green (Ohio), tied with 19 each; Flint Kearsley 11, Tecumseh 9, Durand 8, Mansfield Madison (Ohio) and Marine City, tied with each 7; Stockbridge 6 and Kennedy Collegiate of Windsor, Ont., 4.

State 'Y' Cage Finals

3 Title Clashes at PNH

Three title clashes are slated for the Pontiac Northern basketball court today as the state YMCA Church League enters its final day of competition.

Four teams qualified for the finals in two division last night. The men's division semifinal round was this morning.

Benton Harbor's First Congregational Church and Hartford Baptist of Detroit qualified for the 5:15 p.m. final game today in the senior boys division with victories last night at PNH.

The Congregationalists whipped St. Stephen Lutheran of Lansing, 77-54; and Hartford was a 78-60 winner over Flint's First Nazarene entry.

In the junior boys action at the YMCA Friday, Detroit's Greater Christ Baptist took Northeast Assumption Greek Orthodox of Flint, 57-36. It will tangle with Grand Rapids' Second Congregational at 2:30 this afternoon.

The Second Congregationalists were 34-28 victors over Jackson's Calvary Methodist Church.

The men's finals at 8 p.m. today will pit the winners of the Trinity Lutheran (Port Huron)-Hartford Baptist (Detroit) game and the First Baptist (Niles)-Central Methodist (Lansing) games this morning.

The high point performer in last night's senior boys' activity was Jon Skinner of the Flint First Nazarene team with 31 markers. Hartford's Bob Epps scored 22.

Southfield I-L Favorite

Non-Loop Tilts to Offer Prevue of '63 Season

Pontiac Northern Hope Rests on Mound Corps and 7 Returnees

(This is the second in a series of articles exploring the prospects of area high school baseball teams.)

Inter-Lakes League baseball competition is not due to start until April 23, but area fans can evaluate their teams in anyone of several non-league encounters next week.

Southfield, for example, hosts Walled Lake in the I-L opener, but will warm up with diamond matches against Ferndale and Royal Oak Kimball.

The Blue Jays, although equipped with only four lettermen, must be rated a strong contender. Southfield earns this rating primarily because of the anticipated decline of Farmington.

Farmington took the Inter-Lakes crown last year, but new coach Steve Branz has only one returnee in centerfielder Larry Miller. He sticked his way to a .325 average in 1962.

Otherwise, Coach Branz reports he has a big crop of sophomores to hatch a starting nine from. Bob Ratke, southpaw, rates as one of the best pitching prospects.

Southfield, directed by Coach Darrell Harper, expects to be strong defensively, but definitely is in a rebuilding year.

Walled Lake should be a contender in the weakened Inter-Lakes circuit. The Vikings have 11 lettermen back, which includes hurler Bob Tuck (4-0) and junior John Thomas, outfielder and pitcher.

Unless Roger Hayward's Little League experience bears out, Pontiac Northern may have a pitching problem, according to Coach Arnold Wilson.

Northern graduated two starting moundsmend. Coach Wilson has seven returnees, including two regulars, Mike Marcum and Mike Burklow, with some pitching duty.

Waterford Township Coach Stu Torell lists eight lettermen as his squad's prime attribute. Among these are Bob Rowston, senior southfielder; Lenard Cotes, shortstop; and Stan Grant, catcher and outfielder.

All-Star Coaches Wave Crying Towels

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — The coaches in the East-West college all-star basketball game had their crying towels out, and the tears flowed freely before tonight's game.

"I've got a great bunch of players," said coach Cliff Wells of the underdog West, "but they're all centers. What I need is some forwards."

★ ★ ★

Harold Anderson, East coach, said "I'm not going to cry for Cliff. If there's any crying I'll do it for myself.

"The West team has so much height that we might not be able to stay with them. They have more height in their reserves than I have in my starters."

The East, which will start all-Americas Art Heyman of Duke and Jerry Harkness of Chicago Loyola, plus Tom Thacker of Cincinnati, Rod Thorn of West Virginia and Nate Thurmond of Bowling Green, is rated a solid favorite.

Wells said he will start Ken Charlton of Colorado, Bill Green of Colorado State, Lyle Harger of Houston, Willie Brown of Texas Western and Gary Hill of Oklahoma City University.

The West will have a decided height advantage on the front line. Charlton and Green are 6-foot-5 and Harger 6-7. The East's front line will be Harkness, 6-3, Thurmond, 6-11, and Thacker, 6-2.

At backcourt Heyman is 6-5 and Thorn 6-4. Brown is 6-0 and Hill 6-4.

Each team will be divided into two units for the first half, with each five-man unit going 10 minutes. In the second half, they'll play it by ear.

Wells said he would put Hill on Heyman in hopes of stopping the Player of the Year. He said if Heyman could be stopped, the East could be beaten.

A crowd of more than 10,000 is expected for this the first NABC all-star contest. It will not be televised.

Miss DeVarona Rules AAU Swim

CLEVELAND (AP)—"I didn't breathe for the last five yards," said Donna De Varona after her hair-breath triumph over Sharon Finneran in the 400-yard individual medley race in the Women's AAU indoor swimming championships.

Donna captured her fourth record victory in the meet Friday night when she beat Sharon with a time of 4 minutes, 47.3 seconds. That knocked 5.6 seconds off Miss Finneran's American record set last year.

The rivalry of the 15-year-old Californians was underscored when Donna passed up defense of her 200-yard backstroke crown to swim against Miss Finneran.

"I want to go after Sharon," she explained.

"When Sharon takes the lead on the breaststroke, I usually don't catch her, said Santa Clara's star swimmer after recording her 10th national championship, indoors and outdoors.

Sharon was only one-tenth of a second behind Donna after taking a lead of two feet in the breaststroke. The two were even through the butterfly. Miss De Varona went ahead slightly in her strong backstroke, lost the lead in the breaststroke, then drew even and ahead in the final freestyle 100 yards.

Patsy Willard of Phoenix, Ariz., won her second straight 1-meter diving title and made it look easy, piling up 415.85 points to 383.55 for the runner-up Barbara McAllister, also of Phoenix.

Ginnie Dunkel, a 16-year-old from West Orange, N.J., cracked the 200-yard backstroke record with a clocking of 2:14.9—1.8 seconds under the old mark.

Roby Whipple of Santa Clara, a 16-year-old who finished second a year ago, won the 250-yard backstroke in 3:14.7.

Terri Stickles, 16, who was on Santa Clara's two victorious 400-yard relay teams Thursday night, added the 100-yard freestyle crown to her trophy room. She won it in 55.3 seconds, equalling the meet record, after two false starts were called. That slowed down the contestants when the gun got them away clean the third time.

"I was so mad after the second false start when I went into the pool," said Terri. "Then I got caught flat-footed on the third start."

Today's program—third day of the championships—includes the 100-yard butterfly, 500-yard freestyle, 100-yard breaststroke and 200-yard individual medley on the program. Here is the way the teams stood after last night's events:

Santa Clara Swim Club, 70 points; Cleveland Swim Club, 20; Los Angeles Athletic Club, 15; Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia and Northern Virginia Aquatic Club of Arlington, 13; K of C Orchards of Baltimore, 11; and Summit, N.J., YWCA, 9.

FAST COMPANY — Dick McDonough (right) of Villanova playfully throws a towel over the head of Michigan's Ed Bartsch after they came in as first place winners in the NCAA swimming meet last night. McDonough won the 200 butterfly in 1:57.3 and Bartsch captured the 200 backstroke in 1:52.8.

Trio Sets Pace by One Stroke

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP)—Jerry Barber, rising young Canadian star George Knudson and Gene Littler, last year's No. 2 money winner, were the three leaders as the $20,000 Azalea Open golf tournament's third round satrted today.

Their 137 totals for 36 holes seven under par, gave them a one-shot lead over putting wizard Doug Ford and Larry Beck, a young North Carolina professional.

This tournament, which has produced three playoffs in the last five years, may well have another after Sunday's final round.

Sharing sixth place at 139, were Harold Kneece and Billy Farrell. In all, 20 players were under par for 36 holes and 11 others even par.

Ford's fantastic 31-33—64 was the big story of Friday's second round. The fast-stepping former Masters champion shaved 10 shots from his first round score as he took 24 putts, seven less than the day before.

★ ★ ★

Ford, who won $200 for the best score of the round, was unbelievable on the greens. His eight birdies came on putts of 85 feet, 60, 40, a couple of 20, one of 15 and two short ones. When his final effort, a 40-footer, sank into the hole, he dipped his knees and feigned disbelief and collapsed at the final touch of a masterful performance.

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — There were no changes among the leaders as the American Bowling Congress tournament neared the end of its sixth week.

Yale, S. California Battle in NCAA Swim Meet

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Yale and Southern California are locked in one of the closest team battles in the 40-year history of the NCAA swimming championships and it figures to end that way tonight.

Yale's freestyle strength pulled the Eli ahead of the Trojans Friday as the two teams reduced the meet to a two-way fight. Records fell in three of the five events.

★ ★ ★

Yale has 52 points after a 1-2-3-6 performance in the 200-yard freestyle with Southern Cal in striking distance at 47. Third-place Michigan is far behind with 27. Defending champion Ohio State has 24 and sixth-place Minnesota 23.

Marty Mull's winning time of 2 minutes, 1.6 seconds in the 200-yard individual medley broke the Ohio State swimmer's own meet and NCAA mark of 2:02.3 and also topped the listed American record of 2:01.7 held by Indiana's Ted Stickles. However, Indiana's Chet Jastremski has pending the 1:58.5 he swam last week in the AAU Nationals.

Villanova's Dick McDonough won the 200-yard butterfly in 1:57.3, beating the 1:57.8 of Indiana's Mike Troy that was the meet record. The time tied Troy's listed NCAA and American standards, but Navy Ensign Charles Bittick has a 1:56.6 he did in the AAU Nationals pending.

★ ★ ★

Steve Clark established the record for the 200 freestyle in pacing Yale's big splash in the new event. His 1:46.3 will stand as the meet and NCAA mark.

Clark and teammates Mike Austin and Ed Townsend will all push Minnesota's Steve Jackman in tonight's 100-yard freestyle, but as Yale coach Phil Moriarty admits, "Jackman is so strong I don't think anybody's going to beat him.

Jackman, who won the 50 freestyle Thursday, and UCS's Australian ace, Jon Konrads, are the best bets to become double winners.

500 WINNER

Konrads, the 500-freestyle winner Thursday, is the favorite in the 1,650 freestyle.

Yale seeks a record in the 400-yard freestyle relay, Minnesota's Zahn of Atlanta cashed in for $1,250 for his third-place finish, while Bill Bunetta of Fresno, Calif., picked up a $1,000 for fourth.

Hank Lauman, Pico Rivera, Calif., edged Bill Johnson, Kansas City, by one pin, 40-39, in a two-frame match for fifth place and an additional $250.

Ten Pin in 10th Worth $5,000

KINGSPORT, Tenn. (AP)—One pin in the 10th frame gave Roger Helle of Detroit the championship in the Kingsport Open Bowling tournament Friday night.

Helle won $5,000 top prize on the final ball over Roy Lown of El Paso, Tex., who collected $2,500 second-place money. Helle made his final pin, Lown missed his.

Lown, with a 177 in the eighth frame and a spare in the ninth, left the ten-pin standing with his first ball in the 10th frame. Lown's second ball went to the gutter as he closed out with a 205.

Helle had a 174 in the eighth frame and a spare in the ninth. His 10th frame first ball, like Lown's, left the ten-pin standing. Helle converted for the spare and then toppled nine pins with his extra ball for a 212 total and first place in the tournament.

★ ★ ★

It was Helle's first victory on the Professional Bowlers Association tour in two years. Wayne Zahn of Atlanta cashed in for $1,250 for his third-place finish, while Bill Bunetta of Fresno, Calif., picked up a $1,000 for fourth.

Hank Lauman, Pico Rivera, Calif., edged Bill Johnson, Kansas City, by one pin, 40-39, in a two-frame match for fifth place and an additional $250.

Celtics Wallop Cincinnati

Auerbach at Peace With World

CINCINNATI (AP) — Red Auerbach beamed happily.

The fiery Boston Celtics coach did not even have any gripes about the officiating.

All he had was praise — for his Celts after their 125-102 trouncing of the Cincinnati Royals last night in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division playoff finals.

That victory squared the best-of-7 series at one each. The Royals won 135-132 at Boston the night before. After that one Auerbach fumed over the officiating.

But last night was different. Auerbach, smiling and gracious, summed up his feelings about the game briefly:

"We were shooting well and running well."

Charley Wolf of the Royals did have a bit of criticism about the officials, but his words on the subject carried little of the fire customarily breathed by his coaching adversary, Auerbach.

"We had a bad night," Wolf moaned. "I also thought the officials had a bad one, too. But it's no use ripping them up.

"Thursday night's game at Boston took a lot out of us. We just ran out of gas, that's all.

"We played 10 straight good games. We were due for a bad one. Unfortunately, the bad game had to come at this time and before such a home crowd."

The crowd was a record for a Royals home game, 11,102, and a rowdy one—raining paper wads and coins on the court at one point in the third quarter.

It was in the third period that Boston broke it open, outscoring Cincinnati 38-23. And the Celts' big punch in the breakway was Tom Heinsohn, who netted 10 points in the first four minutes of the quarter, giving the defending league champions the edge as they drove to a 25-point lead before coasting in.

Both teams showed uneven play in the first half. Cincinnati was 10 points back at one point, but rallied behind Oscar Robertson for a 56-54 halftime edge.

Robertson had a game-high 28 points and took 13 rebounds, while Bill Russell of Boston picked off 24 rebounds and scored 26 points.

There was a side issue to Friday night's game at Cincinnati. Only hours before Louis Jacobs, multi-millionaire concessions operator from Buffalo, N.Y., assumed control of the Royals and of their home, Cincinnati Gardens.

PNH Grid Job Still Vacant

No decision has yet been made in hiring a football coach for Pontiac Northern High School.

According to Dr. Lee Heslinger, Pontiac school system director of athletics, candidates are now being interviewed and applications from outside the school district are still being accepted.

Applications from inside the school system were closed last week.

The footbal vacancy arose when Ed Heikkenin anounced his resignation to accept a position in Illinois.

Screening and interviewing is expected to continue through the month of April, hoping for a board decision early in May.

Hot Rambler Embarrasses AMC

Dealer Backs Racer

DETROIT (UPI) — American Motors Corp., defender of the 1957 Automobile Manufacturers Association ban on competitive racing, today found itself in the embarrassing position of explaining a thoroughbred in its stable.

A Rambler Ambassador has been burning up the drag strips in southern California under the sponsorship of a Norwalk, Calif., Rambler dealer.

The car and driver have lost only three races in the past two years, only one in a 1963 model.

An AMC spokesman here said "American Motors does not participate or encourage" racing by its dealers.

Preston Honea, who also drove Ramblers for a St. Louis agency or drag strips at Alton, Ill., said in a telephone interview that "it was the idea of the Rambler agency" that he race the cars.

"I've been racing for three years for two different agencies and I drive Ramblers because they are a generally underrated car," he said.

In the 1963 model, he said, the only car to beat him "was a Pontiac that topped my car in the winter nationals at Pamona, Calif."

Pontiac, which developed a racing reputation prior to its return to popularity, now officially does not sanction racing under a ruling by the top brass at General Motors.

One of the hottest issues in the automotive industry is the dispute whether to race or not to race.

Ford Motor Co., last week announced that it planned to continue racing and said its program was just reaching its peak.

AMC, on the other hand, opposes publication of racing triumphs and glorification of unnecessary horsepower in its adherence to the AMA resolution.

In a speech on the mater, AMC president Roy Abernethy touched off a storm by saying, "... this glorification of horsepower and speed to promote cars, we believe, is against the common good."

But what's good for AMC might not necessarily be good for the dealers, at least on the speed-happy West Coast.

"Out here just about all the agencies race," Honea said.

Honea races primarily an Ambassador with the new V8, 270-horsepower engine, which properly tuned can "handle just about anything in my class."

★ ★ ★

"They're not getting support from Detroit," Honea said of the relationship between the home office and the Rambler dealers, "but the dealers are still backing the race drivers."

BOWLING

The Traveling Classic circuit continues with 300 Bowl & Lounge in the lead and Airway Lanes in hot pursuit. Bowling scores were down around the circuit Sunday with bonus points at a minimum.

The pace setters took Huron Bowl, 7-5, as Monroe Moore rolled 227-208 for the only bonus points. Airway remained a game back by dropping Westside Lanes, 7-4, with Ed Gibbs taking the only bonus points on a 213 game.

That game was a make up match. Westside won its regularly scheduled start by pinning a 9-2 defeat on Cooley Lanes. Bill Bull's 212 attracted the only bonus points.

The points came easily for Huron Bowl, however, in its 27-2 verdict over Wonderland Lanes. The losers could only grab one game victory.

Pacing Huron's attack were Joe Foster, (234-226 for seven points), Tony Ledesma (226-206 for eight points), and Bob Murphy (248-214 for seven points).

Foster now has won 71 points this season.

The Huron Bowl Wednesday night "A" League is developing a close four-team battle for the top spot in the closing weeks.

C&E Marathon now only has a three-game margin on Huron. Airway while Wolverine Entertainers and Team ??? are less than eight games out of first place, a difference that could be made up in one night's bowling.

TOP EFFORT

Louis Vandruska topped this week's individual efforts with 278—716 counts. Wolverine had a 3,104 team series to move up in the running.

At Airway Lanes Tuesday the Lutheran Mixed League reported a 233-205—607 performance by Worley Smith, and Gladys Campbell came through with a 244 game, well above her 131 average.

The Auburn Lanes' Tuesday Charmers had a 215 by Fran Ginter, and a 213 by Daisy Eldon this week. The Flintstones can extend its two-and-a-half game bulge over the second place Pin Spotters squad next week when the two top contenders will collide.

The Ladies' All Star is approaching the season's end at "300" and house team leads by 13½ points over Sylvan Lanes. Two 225s were reported. Delores Dulzo rolled 225—607 and Marion McNair matched that high game. Joyce Skotzke rolled 212—552.

Pontiac Motor's Inter-office loop has recorded another strong showing by Clayton McIlhargie with scores of 200-223—612. The top game effort was Paul Placer's 256.

In the Twilight League, Duane Chatterton rolled a 252 and Jim Denisuik a 233—614 combination last week. Also at "300" the Goodfellows took pride in their feat of 30 games in the 200 category. Topping the list were 226s by Jim Konkle (623 series) and Dave Dickens (615).

French Miners Continue Strike

Ignore 3-Day Truce by Utility Workers

PARIS (UPI) — Two hundred thousand French coal miners, who have been on strike for a month, clung stubbornly to their demands today despite the proclamation of a three-day "truce" by utility workers who have been staging nuisance walkouts.

The coal miners are demanding an 11 per cent wage increase, a reduction in their work week from 48 to 40 hours and 4 weeks' paid vacation instead of 3.

Gas and electricity workers called a truce in their "week of flash strikes" while awaiting a government decision on their wage demands.

★ ★ ★

The utility workers passed their grievances directly on to the public through power stoppages which brought industry and electric rail transportation in various parts of France to frequent, unexpected halts yesterday and Thursday.

A government-appointed committee which studied public workers' salaries said they lagged 4 per cent behind private industry.

The gas and electricity workers are asking for a 12 per cent raise and a reduction of working hours.

The utility truce was bonus for thousands of school-children who began their 15-day Easter vacation today.

Many children had feared they would not be able to get away because of shaky rail schedules.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, the miners' biggest protest demonstration of the month took place yesterday in Lens, where nearly a third of the strikers staged a "monster meeting."

The vast demonstration protested the government's refusal to accept the miners' demands.

Aged Prisoner Granted Parole

Jackson Inmate, 93, Gets Release in April

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's oldest prisoner will be released on parole during April, the State Parole Board reports.

John Bulford, 93, an inmate of Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson, earlier had expressed a wish "to die outside the walls."

Parole Board Chairman Leonard McConnell said the board agreed to release Bulford, who is ill, after a public hearing Thursday.

Release plans call for moving him to a convalescent home in Detroit, McConnel said.

NO KNOWN RELATIVES

"He has no known relatives or resources," McConnell said. "If he had, he might have been released earlier."

Approval of his release by the governor is unnecessary because Bulford was sentenced as an habitual offender, McConnell said.

The governor's approval is required for commutation of sentence of those serving life for first-degree murder. Eight such cases were considered Thursday by the board.

McConnell said only procedural details and a five-day waiting period remained in Bulford's case.

In his first Michigan conviction on record was in Hillsdale County in 1890 for burglary, and his life sentence was handed down in Kalamazoo County in 1930.

Revised Plan Suggested by NY Engravers

NEW YORK (AP)—Publishers today consider a revised settlement formula suggested by the striking Photoengravers Union to end the city's 113-day newspaper blackout.

The photoengravers already have scheduled a vote ratification meeting for 10:30 a.m. Sunday, but this apparently depends on what the publishers do.

Acceptance of the peace pact by the union's members would mean the end of the prolonged shutdown of eight major dailies.

Early today the union's negotiators suggested to Wagner a "rearrangement" of his terms.

After studying the suggestion, the mayor told the union officials it came within his earlier proposal for a $12.63-a-week package increase over two years and that he would recommend the changes to publishers later this morning.

The mayor declined to outline the suggested changes in the peace formula.

Reflections

ONE MINUTE TO HEROISM

J. L. VOORHEES

The dice-of-life roll in strange ways; they are unpredictable. Eight adults called her "Mother" and sixteen grandchildren were happied when she was their babysitter. Arthritis crippled her limbs; she was bedfast. While Gracie was left with grandma she played Party, lit a candle for the cake. Grandma heard a scream, leaped out of bed, raced to Gracie, smothered the flames, carried the child outdoors then realized she was using limbs she hadn't used in years. The Dice-of-Life do roll in unpredictable combinations; they gave Grandma a Hero Medal.

M. E. SIPLE

When life seems darkest the next throw of the dice may roll a fortune. Two brothers, separated when children, reared in foster homes searched for some trace of each other. One brother went swimming in an old gravel pit, slipped into a hole, and sank. A Boy Scout Leader saw him struggle, dove in, brought him to shore, applied artificial respiration. He worked a minute, then two, then three when the victim began to mumble familiar facts. Out of the millions of men in America that Scout Leader rescued his brother.

The game of life isn't rigged; it pays in coins of worthiness.

Philadelphia Paper Loses Only One Day

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The Philadelphia Inquirer resumed publication last night after a one-day lapse resulting from a dispute over the firing of a linotype operator.

* * *

About 350 members of Local 2, International Typographical Union (ITU), voted yesterday to accept a management proposal for settling the impasse which developed over the firing of John Scahan, third vice chairman of the ITU's Inquirer chapter.

A joint standing committee of two union and two company representatives will air the dispute prior to going to arbitration. Frank Baer, Local 2 president, said "numerous" other grievances will be considered by the committee.

In 1962, two youngsters from Bethesda, Md., became the youngest persons ever to be issued a patent by the U.S. Patent Office. They are Paul L. Gomery 11, and his sister; Nanette, 19, who devised a combination screen and storm window

MANHASSET, N.Y. (AP)—Expert safecrackers made off with about $100,000 worth of jewelry from the Long Island home of CBS Board Chairman William S. Paley, Nassau County police report.

Authorities said Friday night the Paleys discovered the theft after returning to their home at nearby North Hills about 1 a.m. Friday. Police said the house had been entered through a second-story window of Mrs. Paley's bedroom, sometime between 1 p.m. Thursday and the couple's return.

The loot included three diamond dress clips; two diamond necklaces, one of which was valued at $50,000; two diamond bracelets; a diamond ring, and a $75,000 emerald ring.

HIGHWAY CASUALTY — Demolition of structures on the east side of Cass Avenue north of West Huron Street is under way. Bids are to be opened in Lansing Wednesday.

'Carl Did It'

Beaten Girl Names Assailant

Hunted Youth Is Blamed for Savage Crime

Shouted His Name When She Emerged From Coma

A savagely beaten 14-year-old White Lake Township girl fighting for her life has identified her assailant as the youth already sought by police for the slaying of her brother.

"Carl did it," were the words whispered by Naomi Reed from her bed at Pontiac General Hospital.

The "Carl" is Carl L. Case, 19, of Hartland, a long-time friend of the Reed family of 6290 White Lake Road.

A nationwide search is on for Case in the fatal beating of Leonard C. Reed, 16.

Reed and his sister were found by police Tuesday night on deserted McKeachie Road, a quarter-mile from their home.

★ ★ ★

Capt. Leo Hazen of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department said the girl came out of a coma and shouted:

"Carl! Carl! Carl!"

He said a physician and a sheriff's deputy were with the girl when she regained consciousness.

When asked who had attacked her and her brother, she whispered "Carl did it."

WITHHELD INFORMATION

Hazen, who is heading the investigation, said Naomi revealed the name of the assailant Thursday.

He said police have withheld the information "for the girl's own protection."

A warrant charging Case with murder was issued shortly before noon Thursday.

At that time, police refused to state on what grounds it was authorized, except for saying that they had "more information" linking Case to the crime.

Today, Hazen said that the warrant was issued "partly" on what the girl had said.

Police, along with the FBI, have intensified the search for Case in Florida, where Case told Leonard Reed's father William he was going to join a circus.

VISITED AT NEIGHBOR'S

Case had visited the younger Reed at the home of a neighbor shortly before Reed and his sister were discovered outside their car near White Lake Road.

Case had been told where he could find Reed by the elder Reed.

The beatings took place shortly after the young couple left the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Howard, 5420 McKeachie Road.

REMOVE BODY — The first body is removed from the rubble of a Tucson, Ariz., cleaning plant after it was splintered by an explosion. The blast at the establishment which covered a half square block killed 6 and injured more than 50.

Cleaning Plant Blows Up

Mystery Blast Kills 6

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—An explosion leveled a large cleaning establishment Friday, killing six persons and injuring more than 50.

The injured included a co-owner of the firm, Harris Salonic, who was trapped under debris for more than an hour. His condition was critical.

The cause of explosion was undetermined. The firm's boilers were found intact.

The blast tossed a 220-pound chunk of reinforced concrete through the corrugated steel roof of a building 200 yards away. No one was hurt by the flying concrete.

A Pontiac, Mich., man, James F. Flanary of 37 S. Anderson St., was only a block away from the cleaning establishment when it was ripped by the blast.

Flanary, a process engineer, is in Tucson visiting a daughter, Mrs. Arthur Cardwell of 732 E. Eighth St., Tucson.

'JUST OPENED UP'

"The whole building just opened up," said Flanary in describing the explosion.

"Huge machines flew through the air. The air seemed to be filled with stuff, most of it going straight up."

Most of the dead were in the basement of the establishment, Supreme Cleaners. Of the injured, eight were hospitalized.

Showdown Threatened in Rio Over Conference

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Unrest fanned by Communist agitators at a pro-Cuba conference threatened today to provoke a showdown between a militantly anti-Red state governor and federal officials.

President Joao Goulart's government ordered federal troops Friday night to occupy all federal buildings in Rio de Janeiro.

Carlos Lacerda, the fiery governor of Guanabara State, which includes Rio, immediately denounced the move. He said it opens the way for intervention in his state.

Behind the bickering was the International Cuban Solidarity Congress, a Communist propaganda show called to whip up anti-American sentiment and support for the Goulart government's hands-off-Cuba policy.

Lacerda has called the conference subversive. His police chased conference delegates out of Rio this week, arresting some, and forcing the conference to meet across Guanabara Bay in Niteroi, outside Lacerda's jurisdiction.

Goulart's government has neither encouraged nor condemned the conference. Foreign Communists, however, have reportedly found it difficult to get Brazilian visas to attend the meeting.

Gen. Albino Silva, chief of Goulart's military household, said the federal troops were ordered into Rio because strikes and threatened walkouts have produced restlessness, endangering public buildings. State trolley and street car company workers are on strike.

Lacerda asserted that the action was designed to open the way for intervention in his state "by the Cuban government, which would give proof of its influence in the Justice Ministry." Justice Minister Joao Mangabeira, one of Brazil's top Socialists, is a political enemy of Lacerda.

U.S. Considers Russian Troops on Cuban Soil

Mig Attack Tension Slips Off Following Quick Castro Apology

WASHINGTON (AP)—The latest Cuban squall — with more thunder than lightning—seemed to have all but passed over today. And U.S. officials turned again to a more lingering problem: the thousands of Russian troops still in Cuba.

Tension over Thursday night's Cuban MIG attack on an American cargo ship, the Floridian, dropped sharply after a swift note from Cuba saying the Russian-built fighters "probably fired in error." The ship was not hit.

★ ★ ★

Informants in Havana said Friday night that Prime Minister Fidel Castro has promised to deliver an explanation to the United States on the strafing.

They said Castro had contacted the Swiss Embassy, which represents American interests in Cuba. The embassy declined comment.

But time was approaching for what President Kennedy said would be a new look at Soviet troop strength on the island.

HOPES REMAIN

Attacked Ship Renews Cruise

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The American freighter Floridian cruised back toward Puerto Rico on its regular run today, leaving behind a controversy over the time U.S. jets took to respond to its radioed report of being fired upon by Cuba-based Migs.

Freighter crew members said U. S. jets were late in reaching the scene.

However, the Defense Department said fighters were ordered aloft four minutes after the call was received and were at the scene 35 minutes later.

★ ★ ★

Capt. Curtis Olson and his same crew of 24 took the 400-foot motor vessel Floridian out of Miami Friday night. Newsmen who saw them off said they weren't even talking about their Thursday encounter off Cuba with planes that swooped low over the ship, stitched the sea with gunbursts fore and aft, then sped away.

STAYS NORTH

The Floridian's return to Puerto Rico was on a more northerly course than the voyage on which the ship was buzzed.

Olson said the courses back and forth always are different.

Members of the Floridian's crew said they were flabbergasted by the Migs' sorties as the ship plowed along 20 miles off Cuba's north coast in a regularly used shipping channel.

★ ★ ★

When 'the olive-colored jets' guns burst into action, some of the seamen ducked for cover. Others drew shipmates' praise for showing "a lot of guts" in staying on deck to photograph the fighters passes.

The photos were turned over to U.S. intelligence when the Floridian docked.

Reroute Traffic for Road Work

South Parke, Perry Closed in Sections

The Michigan State Highway Department yesterday initiated the first rerouting of traffic in downtown Pontiac for perimeter road construction.

The move involved closing parts of South Parke and Perry streets (M24).

Both lanes of Parke Street will be closed to traffic between South Saginaw Street and Auburn Avenue and the southbound lane on Perry between Auburn and Water Street will be closed to through traffic.

Southbound traffic on M24 will now turn right on Water Street, then left onto Saginaw and continue south.

Parke Street is being closed to allow immediate construction of a water main. It will remain closed after the main is completed to allow right-of-way preparation and the beginning of perimeter road construction.

Boy Scout Killed as Auto Hits Freight

A station wagon carrying a group of boy scouts crashed into the side of a Chesapeake & Ohio freight train in South Lyon today, killing one scout and injuring five others.

Names of the dead and injured were not immediately available.

Temporary Injunction Halts Bar's Transfer

Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer yesterday signed a temporary injunction preventing the transfer of Spadafore's Bar to a new location at 79 N. Saginaw St., as approved by the City Commission March 5.

The restraining order will be in effect until Tuesday when a hearing has been slated before Judge Arthur F. Moore to decide if the injunction should be continued until the case is resolved.

The restraining order was requested in a suit filed yesterday by Pontiac realtor Floyd Kent and seven Saginaw Street business establishments.

★ ★ ★

Opposing the commission's approval of the transfer are representatives of Waite's Department Store, Sears Roebuck, Inc., George's Department Store, Redmond's Jewelers, R. H. Shoe Store, Murray's Beauty Academy and Mitchell Office Supply.

Ralph Spadafore, owner of the bar, had requested the transfer after his present building at 6 N. Cass Ave. was condemned by the State Highway Department for perimeter road right-of-way.

A survey was made by the State Liquor Control Commission before the City Commission approved the transfer. Its survey showed the move was legal and acceptable under state statutes.

★ ★ ★

The suit was accompanied by a petition signed by about 90 per cent of the merchants and property owners in the immediate area who "object violently to the location of another bar within 40 feet of the one already in the block."

The Liberty Bar is located a few doors away from 79 N. Saginaw St.

Commissioners Milton R. Henry and Charles H. Harmon voted against the controversial move, but it carried by a 5-2 margin.

Yesterday's suit also protested that property owners weren't given proper notice the matter was coming up for approval at the March 5 meeting.

Romney Hurls Last Pitches

Constitution's Fate Decided on Monday

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. George Romney led a last-minute political charge which he hopes will result in victory Monday for a proposed new Michigan conditution which he helped write.

The answer will be written by the state's voters at 5,208 ballot boxes. State elections director Robert Montgomery estimates a turnout of 1.4 million.

Polls open throughout the state at 7 a.m. and anyone in line at 8 p.m. will be allowed to vote. Warm but showery weather is forecast.

★ ★ ★

Romney, a Republican delegate to the 1961-62 constitutional convention, urged a "yes" vote in a television appearance sponsored by the Romney Volunteers over a Detroit (WXYZ-TV) station last night.

He described the proposed new document as "an improvement in every article" over the current 1908 constitution. Spot announcements appeared on some other stations, meanwhile, denouncing it as "a step backward."

These came from opponents of the proposed constitution.

ROMNEY PLUGS AWAY

Banks to Be Shut for Election Monday

County offices and Pontiac banks will be closed Monday due to the election.

Imperiled by Pigeons

Chamber Faces Challenge

The Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce made a brave and gallant decision this week.

It announced plans to relocate in the city's highest "fallout" area.

The new site — West Huron and Wayne Streets — is ground zero for Pontiac's booming pigeon population.

★ ★ ★

The move to new offices on the ground floor of the Riker Building is set for April 6.

With this in mind, Max Adams, chamber manager, hailed the city's plans for a pigeon trapping program.

"I just hope they start trapping them soon," he said.

City officials say that traps are being built and will be placed on selected rooftops as soon as permission is granted by building owners.

"I'm sure that getting permission won't be a problem," Adams said.

PIGEON REMINISCENCE

Although the chamber's present office in the Waldron Hotel building is relatively pigeon-free, it wasn't always that way.

"We used to have quite a few pigeons over here before the old fire station was torn down."

The station at East Pike and Perry streets was demolished last summer.

Adams theorized that the recent removal of the old Oakland County courthouse was just one of several steps that caused the sudden pigeon deluge.

"All the good pigeon roosts are being torn down," he explained.

"The old fire hall and the Chapman Hotel were pretty good roosting places.

FORCED EVICTION

"When they were demolished, the pigeons centered around the courthouse. When it was leveled, they moved to the nearest suitable spots, like the Riker Building and First Presbyterian Church."

Adams feels the new site is going to give the chamber more space, "but we may need rubber hats."

City officials emphasize their trapping program "will control the pigeon population, but won't eliminate it."

★ ★ ★

When asked if he had any suggestions for a sure cure, the chamber's manager was emphatic.

"What we need is a St. Patrick to drive all the pigeons from Pontiac. Maybe a couple of owls would do the trick."

65 Is Predicted in Pontiac Area for Tomorrow

Partly cloudy skies with a high of 65 is predicted for tomorrow, along with mostly fair skies with a low of 40 for tonight.

A "summery" 77 was the high mercury reading in downtown Pontiac yesterday.

There's a chance of showers tomorrow night or Monday, with little change in temperature expected in the latter.

Winds, blowing from the west at 8 to 16 m.p.h. today, will become variable at 5 to 15 m.p.h. tomorrow.

Fifty-one was the low mercury reading preceding 8 a.m. At 1 p.m. the thermometer recorded 72.

Lightning Bolt Nips Jetliner

NEW YORK (UPI) — A jetliner struck by lightning as it rose from London yesterday landed safely here later in the day.

★ ★ ★

A clergyman aboard disclosed that the bolt from the sky had elicited prayer.

★ ★ ★

The Trans World Airlines Boeing 707 landed at London Airport, was repaired quickly, and proceeded to New York, but some of the passengers remembered vividly the "flash of light," and the "sound like thunder."

"I thought my wife would have to use her insurance," Rev. Gerald A. Wolter, pastor of Waite Park Wesleyan Methodist Church in Minneapolis, said last night.

KEPT LOG

Rev. Roy L. Newton, 32, pastor of Wesleyan Methodist Church in Fountain Inn, S.C., kept a brief log of events after the lightning tore a 21-by-8-inch hole in the plane's nose.

"I was watching the landscape when I was blinded by a firebrand and deafened by a clap of sound like thunder," he said. "I thought the engine had gone and prayed for everyone on board."

"For about five minutes none of us knew what happened," the Rev. Mr. Newton said.

NO PANIC

"Then we were notified over the public address system that a little static electricity had struck the nose cone and that we were going to return to London.

"There was quite a bit of apprehension but no panic."

The pilot, Capt. Robert Buck of Westfield, N.J., brought the plane down safely at London Airport after circling for 35 minutes over western England jettisoning 10,000 gallons of fuel.

★ ★ ★

Among the 110 passengers aboard when the lightning hit were actor Warren Beatty, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer (MGM) President Robert O'Brien, and another MGM executive, Maurice Silverstein.

Buck, who said that at no time was the jet in danger, knew "by the noise and a bright flash in the cockpit that whatever it was made a hole of some kind in the plane."

Since airliners are not electrically grounded, he said, "lightning seldom causes any damage, and when there is damage it always is of a minor character."

'STATIC DISCHARGE'

A TWA spokesman said in New York the plane was struck by a "static electrical discharge" from a cloud eight minutes after taking off at 10:35 a.m. EST.

★ ★ ★

About three hours later, after the damaged nose cone was replaced, it took off again and arrived at Idlewild Airport at 10:30 p.m. EST.

$15,000 Gift of Suspect a Valentine

DETROIT (AP) — A Valentine's Day gift of $15,000 in cash which he sent his mother was one of the links that led to issuance of a federal bank robbery charge against a Livonia man yesterday.

★ ★ ★

William L. Maus, 28, a factory worker, was charged by the FBI agents as the lone bandit who got away with $153,000 Jan. 29 in the largest bank robbery in Michigan history.

The FBI and Livonia police also obtained a federal fugitive warrant against Maus. They said he had fled to Florida and then to Phoenix, Ariz. He is believed to now be in the southwestern United States.

★ ★ ★

His mother, Mrs. Emma Maus, a 48-year-old widow, told police her son called her from Miami just before Valentine's Day and told her he was sending her a gift.

When it arrived, she found the package contained a jewel box stuffed with $20 bills.

"I was flabbergasted. When I got to $5,000, I was shaking so bad I could not count the rest of the money," she told police. She told authorities that not knowing the source, she tucked it away.

★

Six Nazi SS Officers Sentenced for Crimes

BONN (UPI) — Six former Nazi officers were sentenced today to long prison terms for the wartime concentration - camp slayings of 150,000 German and Polish Jews.

Another six ex-SS officers were acquitted at the conclusion of a five-month trial of persons accused of complicity in wartime executions at the Chelmno extermination camp near Kulmhof, Poland.

British Laborite Confers in U.S.

Next Prime Minister If Macmillan's Beaten

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold Wilson, the man ticketed to succeed Prime Minister Harold Macmillan if the Labor Party wins the next general election in Great Britain, today begins four days of talks with U.S. officials.

★ ★ ★

Wilson, who succeeded the late Hugh Gaitskill as leader of the British Labor Party, arrived Friday for his see-and-be-seen visit with Kennedy administration leaders.

★ ★ ★

By the time Wilson meets with President Kennedy Tuesday, officials here hope to have a better line on the former economics professor who one day may lead this nation's closest ally.

★ ★ ★

Wilson said he had come to learn, too.

"There are a lot of things I want to ask the President and his colleagues about. I want to listen as much as talk," he said at the airport Friday.

CONTROVERSIAL QUESTIONS

From public and private statements, many of Wilson's views on world affairs are known. But administration officials would like to question him more closely about at least four potentially controversial points.

★ ★ ★

—Wilson's opposition to that part of the Nassau Pact signed by Kennedy and Macmillan providing for sale of U.S. Polaris missiles to Britain. But Wilson reportedly has an open mind on the second part of the pact—calling for a multinational nuclear force under North Atlantic Treaty Organization control.

★ ★ ★

—Wilson's belief that Britain should not be a nuclear weapons power.

—His belief that Communist East Germany should be formally recognized by the Western powers.

★ ★ ★

—His acceptance of the general proposal of a demilitarized buffer zone between the Western powers and the Soviet bloc nations in Europe.

For Negro Registrants

Urge Kennedy Escort

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Justice Department started legal action today to prevent any interference with a Negro voter registration drive in Greenwood, Miss.

GREENWOOD, Miss. (AP) — President Kennedy has been urged to come to this Mississippi Delta city and walk with Negroes going to the county courthouse in their bid to become registered voters.

★ ★ ★

"It's the greatest thing the President of the United States can do to let the world know we believe in democracy," Wiley Branton, a Negro attorney from Atlanta, told a voter registration rally Friday night.

★ ★ ★

The tension eased slightly Friday. Police kept pedestrians—both white and Negro—scattered and moving.

★ ★ ★

The Leflore County courthouse was blocked off by wooden barricades and police squad cars.

However, Police Chief Curtis Lary said Negroes were free to enter the courthouse, provided they walkd in small groups instead of a mass march.

CHARGES AGITATION

Meanwhile Mayor C. E. Sampson charged the Justice Department with helping "professional agitators" foment racial trouble in Leflore County—where Negroes outnumber white persons nearly 2-1—in an attempt to win Negro votes.

★ ★ ★

In Washington, the Justice Department said it was awaiting word from investigators in Greenwood before deciding what action, if any, to take in the situation.

"It is tragic when professional agitators, operating under the false face of nonviolence, attempt to create violence" Sampson said in a news conference. "It is more tragic that the Justice Department of the United States plays nursemaid to these invaders and actively assists them in their efforts to disrupt this peaceful community."

SEEK INTERVENTION

The Greenwood Commonwealth, in a page one editorial, said: "The racial agitators in our midst have worked constantly for over 10 months to draw federal intervention in Leflore County."

The daily newspaper commented on the nightly voter registration rallies by saying: "When you can draw only 400 people out of a Negro population of 30,000, you aren't stirring many folks up."

★ ★ ★

Friday night's rally, which attracted about 400 persons, was the fifth in as many nights since shotgun blasts were fired into the home of a Negro who has two sons active in civil rights work. No one was hit.

Eight Negroes sentenced in City Court Friday on disorderly conduct charges stemming from Wednesday's vote march vowed to remain in jail until the federal government acts.

Each got 4-month jail terms and $200 fines.

Hurls Last Pitches for New Constitution

Detroit area plugging at factory gates for the new constitution as "something we need to move forward."

The Democratic party, which as an organization is opposing the document, sponsored a series of community meetings.

Special emphasis was being concentrated in the Detroit area because City Election Director Louis Urban estimates a record spring election turnout of 450,000 in Detroit alone.

The old record of 388,000 was set in 1959.

★ ★ ★

Detroit voters have a proposed $90-million school bond issue, a proposed tax millage increase and a City Council race on their ballots, in addition to the constitution question and the statewide election of 10 persons to state offices.

★ ★ ★

The proposed new constitution is expected to roll up a majority in Republican outstate areas. A total of 1,500 townships will be electing supervisors.

Church Gets Argentine Plea

President Asks Help in Political Tension

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Harried President Jose Maria Guido, who has described Argentina as on the brink of chaos, appealed today to the Roman Catholic Church for help.

★ ★ ★

Reliable sources said Guido wrote Tntonio Cardinal Caggiano, primate of Argentina, asking him to help achieve an atmosphere in which elections could be held.

★ ★ ★

Elections for a new national government are scheduled for June 23, but most political observers doubt they will be held.

★ ★ ★

The biggest bloc of vpters in this country is still loyal to exiled ex-President Juan D. Peron. The government wants to hold elections with no candidates pledged to him.

SEEMINGLY LAST GASP

How to do it had them stymied.

The appeal to the cardinal to use his good offices in this overwhelmingly Roman Catholic country appeared to be a last gasp.

★ ★ ★

The nation was torn one year ago by the military's overthrow and imprisonment of President Arturo Frondizi. He remains a prisoner today.

★ ★ ★

Argentina is stumped as to how to allow the June 23 special nationwide elections to take place.

The military, and others in high position, refuse to accept participation of the Peron forces. The political parties, on the other hand, agree that elections should be open to all to insure stability in the new government.

★ ★ ★

Economically, Argentina is drifting. Its obligations aboard are immense—about $2.4 billion.

POWER LIMITED

Guido has found time and again that he is the executive power in name only.

★ ★ ★

The legislative and decision making powers, which belonged to the National Congress—long dissolved—are in the hands of the secretaries of the army, navy and air force.

Mayor's Son, 17, Robbed of $25 by Gang of Teens

The 17-year-old son of Mayor Robert A. Landry was robbed of $25 by a gang of youth last night.

Frederick G. Landry, 47 Center St., told police he and two friends were standing at the intersection of Whittemore and Parke streets at 11 p.m. when a car with five or six teenagers pulled alongside them and one of the passengers told them to get off the street.

Landry said the car then drove around the corner and parked. When the youths got out of the car, Landry said his two friends ran.

★ ★ ★

Landry said he gave them his wallet when they asked for his money. One of the youths, carried a 22-caliber rifle, Landry told police, but did not point it at him.

Birmingham Area News

School Administrators Lining Up Fall Faculty

BIRMINGHAM — While students are beginning to let thoughts of summer vacation slip into their minds, Birmingham school administrators are busy lining up a staff for the beginning of classes next fall.

The system's concentration on recruitment, which begins about Feb. 1 and extends through June 14, is now at its peak, according to Kenneth F. Nagley, personnel director.

Birmingham is receiving between 25 and 30 applications a day, he said.

★ ★ ★

Contracts were given to teachers yesterday and are to be returned by April 11. Meanwhile, Nagley is operating on the "guesstimate" that 130 new teachers will be needed next fall.

NEW SCHOOL NEED

The figure includes 37 to 42 faculty members for the new junior high school. Other vacancies are caused by leaves of absence, sabbaticals, retirement and resignations.

Especially difficult to find are candidates for special education, foreign languages, mathematics and science classes, Nagley said.

He also noted that experienced teachers at all elementary levels are in short supply.

★ ★ ★

The salary schedule approved by the board of education this week sets starting wages for instructors with bachelor's degrees at $5,100, with maximum increment of $9,200.

Starting salary for those with master's degrees is $5,400, with a top pay of $9,200.

The 80-voice combined choirs of the Congregational Church of Birmingham and Plymouth Congregational Church, Detroit, have scheduled two performances of Faure's "Requiem."

The choirs will appear at the Detroit church, 514 Garfield St., tomorrow night and at the Birmingham church, 388 N. Woodward Ave., April 7.

Both programs are planned for 8 p. m.

Mrs. Paul Nicely, 3212 Middle Belt Rd., Orchard Lake, and Russell Smith of Detroit direct the choirs.

Mildred C. Storch

BIRMINGHAM — Service for Mildred C. Storch, 49, of 753 Redding Road, will be 1 p. m. Monday from Manley Bailey Funeral Home.

Miss Storch died yesterday morning following a long illness. Burial will be in Oakview Cemetery, Royal Oak.

She was secretary of Gamco, Inc., of Detroit, and Bushings, Inc., of Royal Oak; and a past president of the South Oakland County Chapter of National Secretaries Association.

Miss Storch is survived by her mother Mrs. William F. Storch of Birmingham, and a sister Gladys of Birmingham.

2nd Fire Hits Music School

A Waterford Township music school was struck by fire for the second time in a week early this morning.

Waterford Township Fire Chief Elmer Fangboner estimated damage at about $2,000 to the Brahms School of Music, 4713 Dixie Highway.

Firemen fought the blaze for over an hour and succeeded in keeping flames from spreading to the A & S Restaurant, adjacent to the music school.

★ ★ ★

The fire was reported by an unidentified passing truck driver shortly before 3 a.m.

Firemen answered a smoke investigation call at the establishment Feb. 5, and last Sunday, a fire gutted part of the music school, destroying 55 accordions and causing an estimated $3,000 damage.

★ ★ ★

This morning's fire, said firemen, appeared to start in a workshop in the center of the one-story structure. The cause was undetermined.

Toll Unknown in Belgian Fire

CINEY, Belgium (UPI) — A flash fire roared through the Albert Hotel here early today, burning out the building before firemen even had a chance to get their ladders up.

Authorities said at least six Belgians were killed, including the hotel manager's entire family. The toll may be higher.

Charred remains taken from the rubble had not been identified, and the hotel's register was destroyed.

The only victim who had been positively identified was 62-year-old Armand Jasinsky, who leaped from a second floor window to escape the blaze.

He died later in a hospital of a fractured skull suffered in the leap, authorities said.

Succumbs to Injuries of California Blast

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—The fifth victim of San Jose's downtown blast of a week ago died last night of her injuries.

Warships May Pester Raiders

From Our News Wires

CHICAGO (AP)—President Kennedy may order U.S. warships to patrol against exiles using American territory for launching raids on Cuba, the Chicago Sun-Times reported today.

★ ★ ★

In a dispatch from the Sun-Times bureau in Washington, the newspaper quoted an unidentified U.S. officials as saying: "As of this moment, there is no plan to call out the fleet."

"But the newspaper said his words seemed to suggest such a development may be near.

★ ★ ★

The report seemed to receive support from Edwin M. Martin, inter-American affairs, the Sun-Times said.

In a radio interview, Martin said: "I feel sure there will be efforts made to increase the surveillance to ensure that U.S. territory is not utilized (by raiders) in the future, whether it has been or not in the past."

★ ★ ★

Some Congressmen have commented that a series of raids by the exiles on Cuban territory and Soviet vessels may have prompted the firing of Cuban MIG fighters on the U.S. motorship Floridian Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

Cuban refugees said yesterday in Miami that exile hit-and-run raids along the Cuban coast were bringing reprisals against citizens of the island by the government of Premier Fidel Castro.

"The attacks mean more reprisals at home, and that's no good . . . There are too many already," said a woman, who was among 93 refugees arriving yesterday from Cuba.

Exiles who flew here yesterday talked freely of a life of bare necessities under Castro, but they begged to remain anonymous, fearing "instant executions" by Cuban secret police.

★ ★ ★

One woman burst into tears, begging newsmen to forget the name she had given them. She said Cuban police monitor American radio stations and arrest all relatives of persons mentioned on the stations.

One elderly refuge man said "reprisals are growing since opposition is on the increase. There are rebel bands in all seven provinces."

He said the anti-Castroites are executed on the spot if they are found out.

"Instant trials are held first," he added.

A woman said that people are becoming bitter over the hard life they are forced to lead, but they keep quiet because of the mortal fear of retribution.

and, said Kennedy: "We hope more will pull out.

"The month of March is not finished yet and we should have a clearer idea as to what the total numbers should be in the coming days."

Since then, about 400 more Soviet military personnel have departed, according to unofficial reports. But Kennedy, who considered the Cuban situation at a meeting of the National Security Council Executive Committee Friday, has kept silent on the count.

★ ★ ★

The quick cooling off of the shooting incident indicated both Havana and Washington wanted to avoid any new crisis.

STRAFF, APOLOGIZE

The State Department disclosed Friday that the strafing—which occurred about 20 miles north of the northern Cuba coast—was preceded and followed by diplomatic messages from Havana.

Solons to Tour Sleeping Bear

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Public Lands subcommittee said yesterday it would make an on-the-spot inspection of the Western Michigan shorelines area which some people want to convert into Sleeping Bear Dunes National Park.

Chairman Alan Bible, D-Nev., said the inspection trip would be made this summer and would be brief.

He said there would be no public hearing for "we'd be up there a month if we listened to everybody who wanted to be heard."

The Senate committee wound up two days of testimony yesterday and recessed until Wednesday when further witnesses from the Washington area will be heard.

DIVERSE OPINIONS

Numerous witnesses continued to express diverse opinions of a bill by Sens. Philip A. Hart and Pat McNamara, Michigan Democrats, to create the Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore Area in western Michigan.

Some favored the Senate bill, some wanted enactment of a measure by Rep. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., and still others said the dunes area along Lake Michigan should be left alone or be handled by the state.

William Peppler, Glen Arbor, Mich., director of an anti park citizens council, summed up the views of one segment of the 60 witnesses by stating he hoped there would be no park created at all, and added:

'But if there is one, I want the larger one to keep out the honkey tonks, the snake pitsand the bear on the chain."

The Hart-McNamara bill would take in some 32 miles of Lake Michigan shoreline, the adjacent dunes area, and some 1,600 private residences near inland lakes and resorts in an area of some 77,000 acres.

Griffin's bill, however, would include a slightly longer section of the shoreline, but take in primarily the dunes section and include only some 90 odd private properties within an area of some 37,000 acres.

Says Colburn Tags Hospitals as Scapegoats

LANSING (UPI) — "State Insurance Commissioner Sherwood Colubrn has made a scapegoat out of Michigan's nonprofit, voluntary hospitals in announcing his decision on the Blue Cross rate increase request," Bernard E. Lorimer, administrator of the Midland Hospital and president of the Michigan Hospital Association charged yesterday.

* * *

"Colburn accuses hospitals of overcharging the hospitalization plan for patient care provided Blue Cross subscribers. This simply isn't true," Lorimer said.

"Almost all of Michigan's nonprofit hospitals may soon be losing money caring for Blue Cross patients."

Colburn, in announcing he would grant Blue Cross a 23.4 per cent rate increase Thursday, also laid down a set of rules which hospitals must abide by.

CITED HIGH TAB

Colburn charged that the blues, Blue Cross and Blue Shield, were losing money because of unnecessarily high payments made to contracting hospitals.

"There has to be a more responsible approach to this situation," Colburn asserted. "In some out patient services, payments made by Blue Cross were 300 per cent of actual cost."

Income Tax Cut Could Aid Home Remodeling Mart

The home remodeling market —a lively, growing business — could occupy an even larger percentage of the economy if the administration's proposed federal income tax cut becomes law.

Under the proposed plan, a family earning $8,000 a year might save $225 which could be applied to improving the home.

All the money thus saved and spent on home alterations and additions would be in addition to the $5.6 billion the Commerce Department has already estimated will be spent for such purposes this year.

The anticipated tax savings could mean a new kitchen counter and backsplash surfaced with ceramic tile or a bathroom with floors and walls of tile.

Home owners prefer real tile in these areas because it can't be scratched or burned and because it is one of the easiest materials to keep clean. They also like tile's almost unlimited selection of colors and patterns.

Improvements such as redoing a kitchen or bathroom in tile not only make homes more livable but also increase their resale value.

Until now, bank loans have provided most of the funds for these home improvements. The anticipated reduction in taxes would free more funds for such projects —and with no interest charges.

Simplify Work in Your Kitchen

Modernization Pays Double Dividends

If giving your kitchen a facelift paid off only in higher morale for you, the effort would be justified. After all, home economists say that you spend at least one quarter of your time there.

But the same steps you take to beautify your kitchen can also help you to simplify your chores.

Planning to modernize your kitchen is no small project. Don't begin unless you are sure you will persevere.

Of course, no single article can tell you everything you want to know, but the hints and advice provided here will give you a good start.

The kitchen probably is the place in your home that gets dirty faster than any other, so always keep in mind one goal — cleanliness.

This is particularly important with regard to kitchen furnishings because homemakers often forget it. A chic table isn't worth much if it requires hours of cleaning.

Kitchen tables come with surfaces made of everything from stainless steel to wood.

A table with rounded corners is safer than one with square corners. Folding legs may be somewhat more hazardous than nonfolding legs. A table piled high may collapse if its folding legs have not been properly set up.

Before buying any table, investigate those that have attachments that make them larger or smaller.

CLASSROOM CHAIR

A novel item in your kitchen that will prove useful is a classroom chair — one that has a flattened, elongated arm. You can sit in it while you shell peas or write grocery lists.

A high stool and stepladder chair are other items worth purchasing. You can save steps by getting a narrow table on wheels that can be piled with dirty dishes.

If you arrange your furnishings carefully, you can save both time and energy. The sink should be between the stove and the refrigerator; pots, pans, bowls, and foodstuffs should be placed where they will be used; the spot where you mix foods should be next to the refrigerator or stove; working surfaces should be provided near the sink, stove, and refrigerator; the sink's height should be ideally convenient for working.

With the coming of age of the war baby crop, the demand for small houses is on the increase. Another big market for smaller homes is the retired couple age group who want a smaller home to keep up, but who prefer a home of their own instead of an apartment.
